

Belleville Voters Follow State's Trend; Pick Cahill By Overwhelming Margin

SPIKED SHOP BALLET—Bellboy star end Vinnie Costantino (19) can be excused for missing this Joe Papisidero pass against Garfield Saturday. The end, along with Garfield's Charley Johnson seem to be treating the fans to a rare glimpse of spiked shoe ballet. The Bellboy fans went home disappointed however, as their team dropped a disappointing 21-14 decision to the Boilermakers.

An Editorial

Election Promises Better New Jersey

By an overwhelming majority Republican Congressman William Cahill of Camden will lead the Ship of State for the citizens of New Jersey through the next four years.

It is regrettable that the gubernatorial campaign established new records on campaign techniques.

It is obvious that the people of New Jersey demanded a change—and now they have it in the person of Bill Cahill.

In our judgment Bill Cahill is a man for the 70's. We are confident that his actions in office as Governor will live up to the promises he made during the hectic campaign which began last month.

Republicans continue to control the court house—and we think this result is good for the taxpayers of our county.

The New Jersey Legislature remains in Republican control. This result should help Bill Cahill obtain the legislative results he needs to implement his campaign promises.

Old-Time Belleville Grid Stars To Return To Memorial Stadium On Thanksgiving

Some of the great players mapped out elaborate plans to from Belleville High School's past will converge on Municipal Stadium, Thanksgiving, to help celebrate the centennial year of football.

A pre-game program for the "old timers" has been planned including a brunch and a parade onto the field.

Chairmen for the ceremony, High school principal Raymond Smith and Junior High School principal Sy Grossman, have

The day will begin about 9:15 for the former players, with a brunch of donuts and coffee scheduled for the high school cafeteria.

At about 10 a.m., the old timers will march onto the field, with each class delineated by a flag bearer. The players will be preceded by a float which is being constructed under the direction of Belleville Art Director Morton Birkin. Cheerleaders will join the parade in a blue and gold jeep.

Sections will be partitioned off for the returning stars so that they can cheer on the Bell-boys with their old classmates. The varsity takes on Orange High School at 11:15 a.m.

Awards will be given to commemorate the day's festivities.

Each old-timer will receive a certificate, while stick pins will be given to Coach John Amabile and his opposing mentor, Frank DeAngelis. A trophy will go to the winning team.

GRID CENTENNIAL—Football players from Belleville's past will be present at Memorial Stadium for the annual Thanksgiving Day game. The men chiefly responsible for their return gather round a chart showing the days plans and medals. They are (from left) High School Principal Raymond Smith; Board member Leonard Back; Board President Dr. Frank DiRuggiero; Board member Joseph Casale; Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco, and Junior High School Principal Sy Grossman. Grossman and Smith are chairman for the day.

Republican Ticket Sweeps The Town

By Nat Gottlieb

Belleville Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo evidently knows how to pick a winner.

A Democrat for many years, Strumolo shocked the town a few months ago when he switched to the Republican side to be town campaign manager for William Cahill.

Evidently the Commissioner was not alone in making the change. Belleville voters followed a state trend by giving Congressman Cahill a big advantage over former Governor Robert Meyner.

Cahill polled 7,413 votes to 4,685 for Meyner, an advantage of 2,728 votes. Significant in the victory was the large number of Democrats who followed Strumolo's move.

Ward 1, District 8, normally a Democratic stronghold, switched over to Cahill, 504 votes to 248. Also in Ward 1, District 11, Democrats changed to bring about a 372 to 213 advantage for Cahill.

Strumolo stayed at Town Hall for the official tally before hopping down to Newark for the big celebration.

"I am extremely pleased the way Belleville went," the jubilant Commissioner told The Times.

"The people obviously wanted a change after 16 years of Democratic rule."

Strumolo said he had expected a victory in town because of a trend for Cahill in mock elections held at the junior and senior high schools this past week, where the Congressman outpointed Meyner by a 2-1 vote.

Democratic headquarters was silent throughout most of the night as early returns indicated a big victory for Cahill.

Democratic town chairman Commissioner Mary Senatore was disappointed as she spoke to The Times at a subdued town Democratic headquarters.

"It was the will of the people," Commissioner Senatore said. "I just hope they are happy."

The Commissioner seemed to agree with many campaign experts who felt voters thought it was time for a change.

"I think it was just that the people wanted something new. I hope the Republicans do well by the citizens."

Seventy-one per cent of the town's registered voters turned out for the election. Out of 17,658 registered voters, 12,538 showed up to cast their votes.

The vote for the Assembly, District 11-C was pretty similar to the vote for Governor, with Republicans Ralph Caputo and Richard Fiore outdistancing Carmen Orechio and Joe Iannuzzi. Caputo was the front runner, getting 6,326 votes, with his running mate Fiore following with 6,135. Iannuzzi had 4,951 votes and Nutley's Commissioner Carmen Orechio last with 4,775.

By far the greatest vote getter in Belleville was the lottery referendum, with 5,647 yes votes and only 861 against, a ten to one spread.

Eighteen-year-olds will have to wait until their twenty-first birthday to vote in an election. Belleville voters followed the state in putting down the referendum with 5,713 votes cast against and 3,378 for.

The clean water referendum fared well, gaining 6,669 votes to 2,024 against.

The closest vote was for county supervisor, where Walter Blasi edged out Ralph De Rose by a 5,560 votes to 4,937.

HELLO GOVERNOR!—Congressman William Cahill wound up his last weekend of campaigning in Nutley Saturday evening at a party given by Sun Publisher Frank A. Orechio (left). Accompanying Cahill here was U.S. Senator Clifford Case. The three were together again Tuesday night in Cherry Hill where N.J. Republicans counted the returns.

Set For Vets Day

Mayor Smith Launches Anti-Moratorium Group

Mayor Ken Smith will launch a new patriotic organization at a buffet preceding the annual Veterans Day Parade, Tuesday.

The new organization, called "Loyal Americans on Guard," is being formed by the Mayor "for the purpose of supporting the President of the United States."

Smith called the new group an "answer to the peace moratorium demonstrators who have been harrasing the government for an end to the Vietnam War at any price."

Mayor Smith has invited the mayors and members of the Essex County Conference of Mayors and the officials of each municipality to attend the affair which will be held at the Christ Episcopal Church Hall.

Also invited to the affair are the department commanders of Belleville veterans groups and the Belleville Veterans Council.

Jack Gorman, chairman of the new organization released a statement against peace demonstrators, some of whom are asking the President to withdraw all troops to save American lives in the war zone.

"Such a peace," says Gorman, "defiles the graves cause of freedom."

Gorman added that he feels "the millions of veterans of the wars since World War I who have fought for a world fit to live in, and for which many have died or bear the scars of battle are being degraded by a citizen minority who enjoy the fruits of the victories of heroes."

The new group announced they will accept for membership any "loyal American group." Already participating are representatives of most veteran organizations.

A petition will be widely circulated whereby the new group expects to "demonstrate to the President and Congress as well as to the world, that the majority of our sensible citizens are opposed to the interference of the protestors and desire that our government be permitted to seek the solution to the problem without restraint."

The Mayor issued a proclamation endorsing the new group.

of every man, woman and child who has perished because of war and tyranny, especially those of the veterans of all wars since the revolution, fought for the

Bellboys Get Back In Saddle With West Orange Cowboys

With the bitter memory of last week's defeat at Garfield fresh on their minds, the Bellboys take the bus to West Orange to try and fatten up their 3-3 record.

The game could hold many pitfalls for the Bellboys, who have had a rough season as far as last minute defeats are concerned.

For one thing, the Cowboys from West Orange are better than their mediocre 1-5 record would indicate, having lost three games by a margin of one touchdown or less in each instance.

A second factor to be reckoned with will be the Bellboy mental attitude, which might be low after the shocking loss to Garfield. The Bellboys appeared to have the game wrapped up Saturday with 28 seconds left, only to be stunned by a 101 yard interception which put the game out of reach.

West Orange, which lost all its games last year, will be out to capitalize on Belleville's disappointment, hoping to put it all together for victory number two.

Cowboy first-year coach Keith Doyle says he will be out to win two battles Saturday: the one with Belleville and the one with themselves.

Wins have been rare for Cowboy football teams in the last ten years. Over that period of time, West Orange squads have managed only 17 wins, while losing 59 and tying three. As a result, a "defeatist shadow" has hung over the team all season. Doyle blames the attitude for West Orange failure to capitalize on opponent mistakes. He says the team lacks confidence.

This year started out for the Cowboys like all the rest. They lost to Irvington 16-0, despite the fact they moved the ball well on the ground.

"It was a case of us moving the ball well from one 20 yard line to the other, but being able to go no further," says Doyle.

The Cowboys showed some life, however, as they bounced back against Caldwell, winning 12-8.

And Their Problems

Our Senior Citizens

Every election year — and for practical purposes this means every November — candidates for office remind us there is a group among us known as Senior Citizens.

And these same candidates seeking office make all kinds of promises to win the vote of our senior citizens.

After elections are over and victors sworn into office, the intense pre-election interest in senior citizens seems to wane, wither and die — and some of our senior citizens answer the last call without ever seeing any of the politicians' promises come true.

It is time for us all — politicians, statesmen, sons, daughters, and just plain citizens to re-examine our sincerity with the problems of our ageing citizens.

Are our own personal problems so complex and involved that little time is left for us to think about answers to the problems which plague our older people? Do we merely give them lip service to satisfy their hope that we will address ourselves to the problems that beset them? Through our promises are we giving older people a false sense of hope?

Two problems come to mind when we think of our older citizens. It is inevitable that time takes its toll on the body beautiful. It is inevitable that an ageing body requires more medical attention than a young one — and this costs money. If the money can be found to keep the body in good repair, everything else in life seems to be less significant.

We are not doing right by our elders.

They are being short-changed.

"Social Security" is a misnomer. There are no "social security" payments for our elder citizens. Social security payments should be pegged to the cost of living—and this isn't being done.

One of the great tragedies of getting old is facing the day when a couple has to sell off their home because real estate taxes are too high. We believe there should be a state real estate tax subsidy for our elder citizens. Such a subsidy should apply with equal force and effect to residents of apartments and those who live in private homes.

If, upon retirement, an older citizen's paycheck is one quarter of what it used to be, then we believe real estate taxes should be one quarter of the applicable charge. An earnest effort should be undertaken immediately to keep our older people back home on the "farm"—the place where they have spent most of their years—without the penalty of exorbitant real estate taxes or overwhelming rents beyond the reach of the senior citizen's purse.

Big Jets Behind Schedule

The Boeing 747, to have gone into service late this year on Pan American's European flights, and America's answer to the French and Russian supersonic airliners in a sense, is running behind schedule.

Boeing has been turning out completed aircraft but the giants are thus far without engines. Pratt and Whitney has encountered difficulties in meeting performance goals; corrective efforts are now being made by the engine division of the United Aircraft.

If these corrective efforts succeed, they are likely to delay the delivery of the first 747's for several months only. This means the big 362-passenger planes will, at best, not be in service until next year. (Pan Am had expected to initiate 747 service to Europe

December 15th.)

The importance and potential of the 747 is that it could offer space luxury heretofore unavailable in air travel, thus providing passengers — for the first time — truly first class accommodation.

The new supersonics will, of necessity, be cramped for space, as are today's airliners. Since the supersonics will be twice as fast as the huge 747's, unless the comfort and appointments aboard these giants are outstanding, they'll have little chance of competing with faster aircraft, and U.S. industry, behind in the supersonic race, will not earn the foreign currency through sales which since World War II has been of vital importance to the nation's economic health.

Mexico And The Weeds

It seems highly likely that in bowing to strong Mexican demands for an end to strict border searches for marijuana the United States has severely limited its chances of reducing the inflow of marijuana.

Of course, Washington has a pledge from the Mexicans to carry out a new drive against growers of the weed. But in view of existing (and traditional) conditions in this country, no great hope can be placed in such an effort.

Police powers over farmers in remote areas and corruption among officials preclude the hope that the growing of the plant can be halted. It's a big money business in Mexico today, bigger than ever, and it seems unrealistic to expect the same law enforcement forces which have so often in the past failed to succeed this time.

It is hoped communities in this country, and federal officials, can curb growing use of the plant but this again is an optimistic hope. The best chance to immediately curb the flow was through tough inspection at the border and the Treasury Department is extremely unhappy about the victory of the State Department in getting the White House to bow to grow-Mexican pressure.

The President must obviously consider international relationships in such questions and is aware of disadvantages others may not be aware of. Nevertheless, marijuana is such a problem in this country today it's hard to see how the nation benefits in ending strict border inspections.

The Russian Space Flights

It was to be expected that after the sensational American achievement of landing men on the moon in July the Russians would seek to demonstrate to the world they were still in the space race, so to speak.

Their recent feat of orbiting three Soyuz spacecraft with the aim of establishing a space platform is that reply, and one which should not be lightly regarded. Indeed, there are American scientists who agree with the Russian claim that space platforms in orbit around the earth, with all their potential uses, are of more practical value than rocks or information from the moon.

The scientific and research capability of an orbiting space platform is considerable but even though there is currently an agreement between the two nations which bans the use of space for military purposes, it would be folly to rely completely on the hope this agreement will not be broken. The Russian record in keeping agreements is not a good one.

Space stations can have important military uses and can also carry nuclear weapons. Any nation with stations in orbit around the earth automatically enjoys very ominous military advantages.

Whether worldwide agreement making such stations creations of the U.N. is the answer, as has been suggested, is questionable. Rather, it seems desirable for the United States to take the necessary steps to see to it that this country creates space stations in orbit around the earth as soon as possible, even if moon flights or other distant explorations are temporarily delayed. The nation's security should be given first consideration in the U.S. space program.

of air shoot downward and are strong enough to hold the fuselage off the ground until the aircraft comes to a stop.

The potential of the new development is considerable, since it might enable aircraft to land safely on grass fields, without the necessity of long and very expensive (and thick) concrete runways. While it is too early to predict the extent to which the new principle will be utilized, the successful demonstration of the experimental aircraft offers new hope in the field of military and civil aviation.

Speak Up

Sally Hood Criticizes Planning Board Story

To the Editor:

In the September 18 issue of the Belleville Times you ask, "Where is the planning board?" You advise the readers that efforts by reporters to secure information were "met with a mysteriously silent stone wall." Your article informs the reader: "This blank space is reserved for the Planning Board of Belleville" and you display some valuable unused front-page newspaper space! You mention that the only sure thing is that the losers of the communication gap will be the taxpayers of Belleville. Belleville taxpayers are accustomed to communication gaps. Local weekly newspapers have seen to that. I cite as recent example the Board of Commissioners' regular town meeting scheduled for Monday, September 8, but advanced to Thursday evening, September 4 because some firemen held a convention Atlantic City. No mention of, and/or, what took place at the Thursday night Commission meeting appeared in either of the local weeklies, although both weeklies did profit because of the legal notice advertised reporting the changed meeting date, thus were well aware of the Commission meeting.

I want to believe that your purpose in writing the planning board article was sincere, the idea your own, a reporter's personal effort to keep the Belleville citizens factually informed. Thought you might be interested in how the 1962-1963 planning board members kept the poor Belleville taxpayer poor and informed at that time!

Enclosed is a copy of one of the numerous four-inch two-column wide meeting notices the then planning board officials (and some of the other municipal officials) placed with the Times during those years. On the front page, too, and for which notices the Belleville Times charged and collected from the poor Belleville taxpayers the exorbitant fee of $49.28 per meeting date. That fee is $3.08 per column inch. And this at the time when the other Times advertisers were being charged $1.55 per column inch for display ads of the same size and type. Taxpayers might note that this very same size advertisement would fit quite nicely and exactly into the "blank" space you say "you" are NOW RESERVING for the present planning board. Let's hope the taxpayers of Belleville will be spared these $49.28 fees to inform taxpayers of board meeting notices should the present planning board be "found" and its officials decide to let the Times "inform" the poor Belleville taxpayers, front-page-wise or other-wise, as to the planning boards future activities.

But back to your news article. You write that "whether or not the ordinance ever comes up for a vote, 'will depend on whether the real planning board can be found' and you state "...the Times will persist in its efforts to locate that body. ...so that the taxpayers can be informed." You solicit "...any citizen with information about that body's whereabouts are asked to contact the Times immediately."

Now, why do you not seek this information from our present town attorney? He, who according to the Times, has made such earth-shattering political (oops) policy decisions! He could inform your publication that a New Jersey law permits planning board officials reasonable time (more than thirty days) for considering approval, disapproval or suggestions. Section N.J. 40:55-35 Planning-Zoning Laws) seems to read in part: "...and the planning board have a reasonable time, not less than thirty days, for consideration and report..." What with summer vacations and other seasonal delays as reasons, their delay in reporting could be reasonable.

I believe that the Times is fully aware that a Belleville planning board does presently exist! But what the reader might ponder is the reason for the Times' concern as to this one particular ordinance and the sudden display of interest in seeing that issues central to the Town of Belleville can be dealt with, and I quote you, "...so that the taxpayers can be (kept properly) informed."

As one of those taxpayers whom the Times would desire to keep well informed now, I hope the Times reporter may ask the members of the Board of Commissioners the same question that I asked in a letter I sent in 1967 addressed to the new Board of Commissioners, under date of November 18th of that year. Receipt of that letter has remained unacknowledged as of this date. (Copy enclosed.) My question at the time was whether the six Class IV planning board members the Commissioners had appointed on August 14th, 1967, could be considered the original members, that is, the "first" Class IV members appointed under Belleville's Planning Board created under an Ordinance adopted July 23rd, 1963 and amended by another ordinance adopted August 24th, 1964. The title of the ordinance, ("An Ordinance to Create a Planning Board in the Town of Belleville. In Accordance with the Provisions of Chapter 433 of the Laws of 1953 of the State of New Jersey (R.S. 40:55-1.1 et Seq.)"

Section 40:55-1.4 of the above law reads in part: "The governing body may by ordinance create a planning board... and the members of Class IV shall hold no other municipal office... The term of one member of Class IV first appointed (that would be under the adopted ordinance) shall expire at the end of each year beginning at the end of the first year. Thereafter the term of each shall be the same number of years as there are members of Class IV on the board. If a vacancy... shall occur it shall be filled by appointment as above provided for the unexpired term."

Court decisions and opinions have been that the planning board laws intended that the terms of the Class IV members expire on December 31st the end of each year and I cite one opinion: "...that the law provided for Class IV member terms ending on December 31st of each year, and appointments of planning board members (Class IV) for terms different from those prescribed by statutes were illegal." In my letter of November, 1967, I was simply questioning if the August 14th expiration dates were proper under the planning board act's provisions, recorded in Belleville's 1963 ordinance.

I note in your news report that you claim that the Town's Building Inspector is "purported" to be a member of the planning board. You will note above that section 40:55-1.4 states, "Class IV members shall hold no other municipal office..." "This section also states, "All members of the planning board shall serve without compensation..." The building inspector is "purported" to be a paid clerk of the planning board, holding the part-time position that was included in the ordinance introduced January 13, 1969, a Civil Service Competitive, Class C, maximum salary $500.00.

Yet, another section of the Planning Act, section 40:55-1.5 reads: "Officers of Planning Board; Employment of Experts and Staff; Expenses: The planning board shall elect a chairman from the members of Class IV and create such other offices as it may determine. It may employ experts and a staff and pay for their services and for such other expenses as may be necessary and proper, not exceeding in all... the amount appropriated by the governing body for its use." Perhaps the building inspector is an employee of the "staff" referred to in this section, employed (appointed) by the planning board officials?

I have been endeavoring to determine if the present planning board has created the title of an officer-that of secretary of the board-and what the duties would entail. This because a similar title was created by the Board of Commissioners in an ordinance introduced January 13, 1969, Secretary Planning Board, part-time $500.00, Civil Service Competitive, Division C, duties not described. Wondered if the planning board "employed" the secretary or who does appoint the permanent salaried workers! (Section 40:55-1.5)

Questions as to what the statutes intended as the "legal" expiration date for the terms of the members appointed to municipal planning, zoning and Boards of Adjustment have, over the years, burdened the taxpayers of the various New Jersey municipalities with considerable legal fees and court costs. These fees and expenses should be avoided whenever it is feasible.

Walter Kidde Subsidiary Names Vice President

Duane E. Johnson, currently listed in "Who's Who in America," and a recipient of many medical awards, including one from the Association of American Medical Colleges, has been named vice president-administration of Georgian Court of America, Inc., a subsidiary of Walter Kidde & Co., a Belleville firm. John A. Callahan, president of Georgian Court, made the announcement from the firm's executive offices in Grosse Pointe, Mich.

Callahan said the 43-year-old Johnson will assume administrative responsibility for the company's operations of 11 extended medical care and nursing units in five states, as well as their recently organized national program in the extended care field.

Johnson has been administrator of the 1,200-bed Milwaukee County General Hospital complex, Milwaukee, Wisc. Simultaneously with the announcement here, he informed the board of the Milwaukee hospital of his resignation and his decision to accept the new post.

Callahan said that the position of vice president-administration is a new one for the company, "and we are fortunate to obtain an executive of Mr. Johnson's demonstrated ability to fill it. The new post will give me considerably more time to advise and consult with voluntary, non-profit hospitals in establishing the extended care facilities they so desperately need all over the country."

Callahan also pointed out that Johnson took charge of the Milwaukee complex in July, 1962, after a 10-year tenure as administrator of the University of Nebraska Hospital in Omaha. Earlier, he was consulting administrator and responsible for the building of the County Hospital in Audubon, Iowa, where he served as its operating administrator. Johnson began his career as an administrative assistant in 1949 at the Latter Day Saints' Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah, his home town.

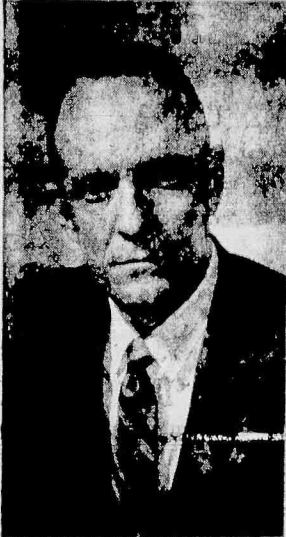

The new Georgian vice president is a graduate (B.S.) of the University of Oklahoma and earned the degree of Master of Hospital Administration at the Washington University Program in Hospital Administration in St. Louis.

Among his many activities, Johnson is a member of the Association of American Medical Colleges, past secretary of its Teaching Hospital Section; a member of the American College of Hospital Administrators and of the American Hospital Association; and he's currently Vice President and Member of the Board of Kiwanis International.

He and his wife, Nancy, have three children, Christina, 18, a student in the School of Nursing, University of Wisconsin; Duane, Jr., 15, and Mark, 13. They will make their home in Grosse Pointe.

Georgian Court of America, which was founded in 1957, recently moved its national offices from Detroit to Grosse Pointe at 21401 Mack Avenue.

THE GREATEST ADVENTURE

When you hear of astronauts preparing to land on the moon, do you long to go with them? Do you wonder what it's like to be there in outer space on their great adventure?

The greatest adventure of all, though, isn't out in space — it's within you.

It's the exploration of yourself, of your God-given individuality and purpose. It's discovering God's view of you, and revealing new capabilities and opportunities.

That's what you'll hear about at a talk to be given by Jessica Pickett, C.S., of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Miss Pickett's free public lecture is called "Adventure into Inner Space." And that's just what it is.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE
Saturday, Nov. 15, at 3:00 p.m., at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 475 Mt. Prospect Avenue, Newark.

All are welcome. Nursery care provided. No. 27 bus—Berkeley Avenue stop.

Boy Scouts Take Part In A Hospital Drill

On Saturday morning, a contingent of Belleville Boy Scouts assembled on the lawn of the CLARA MAASS MEMORIAL HOSPITAL School of Nursing under the direction of William Dorival, Belleville district scout executive. The purpose of the gathering was to take part in the Hospital's disaster drill. This is a procedure conducted several times each year to actually put into practice the procedures necessary to meet major catastrophes that could possibly happen within the community.

The Scouts were given a briefing by Emil I. Horak, assistant executive director of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital and then given cards spelling out possible injuries that might have resulted from the simulated bus-train collision. At 10:30 a.m., the telephone rang in the Hospital's Emergency Room and the caller informed the head nurse that "This is a test of the Hospital's Disaster Procedure. A bus loaded with students had just collided with a fast moving train resulting in a severe fire. There were a number of casualties that will be arriving at the Hospital within a short period of time.

Within minutes, an emergency receiving center was set up in the Health Clinic and cots placed in the Physical Therapy Department. By the time the first casualties began to arrive, the disaster drill was in full operation. Some of the casualties were able to walk, while others were brought in on stretchers.

After an examination of each condition, the medical team under the direction of Dr. Nelson Manowitz, dispatched the injured to a minor treatment center, discharged those with minor injuries, and indicated whether the remaining victims should be sent to X-ray, Laboratory, Surgery, or the major injuries staging area where a team of nurses under the direction of Miss Maureen Lembo, rendered medical assistance.

At the conclusion of the drill, the staff and a team of observers evaluated the hospitals preparedness to meet a major disaster. Each case was analyzed along with the procedures for preparedness.

Horak, who was responsible for the emergency preparedness, stated that each member of the team responded perfectly, and complimented all departments and employees, who took part in the surprise drill. He indicated the Hospital is ready to meet almost any emergency that might arise, and remarked that the Boy Scouts from Troop 301 of the Wesley Methodist Church, 307 P.T.A. School No. 7 and 351 of Grace Baptist Church performed a great community service in their participation of the Hospital's disaster procedure.

NOT FOR REAL—Scout Michael McCarthy of 43 DeWitt Avenue, is being wheeled into the physical therapy area by Nurse Maureen Lembo.

LISTENING — Prior to the simulated disaster drill, assistant executive director Emil Horak of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, discusses the purpose of the drill and gives instruction to the participating Belleville Boy Scouts.

PULSE — Nurse Maureen Lembo checks the heart rate of Scout Philip Calabro of 26 Melwex Street, as part of a drill.

HEART BEAT — Dr. Nelson Manowitz checks a preliminary report with Mrs. Barbara Silver on disaster drill patient Michael Parrillo of 23 Clinton Street.

TREATMENT — Gary Tchelebi of 9 Mt. Prospect Avenue, is being treated by Mrs. Helen Oliner for simulated bruises of the wrist.

ASSISTANCE — Nurse Maureen Lembo aids a victim prior to his admittance to another area of the hospital as part of a drill.

Torella Attending Rochester

Raymond A. Torella of 65 Beaumont Place, Belleville, is attending Rochester Institute of Technology in New York State. Torella is working toward his master's degree in printing.

Torella, who received his BA from Newark State College, has been teaching graphic arts in Fair Lawn. He now returns to campus life to enter Rochester for the first such degree program in the nation offering majors in printing technology and education.

Greco Attends Dental School

Thomas G. A. Greco of Belleville is among 56 first year dental students currently attending classes at the New Jersey College of Medicine and Dentistry.

Greco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Greco of 2 Morse Place, is a graduate of Essex Catholic High School. He holds a degree in chemistry from the Catholic University of America, where he was on the honor's list.

The first puppet show in America was presented on February 12, 1738 in a room of the de Lancay's New York mansion leased to dancing master Henry Holt. The building, now famous as Fraunces Tavern, is still on its original site.

Rochester Dean's List Names Geley

William P. Geley of 384 Joralemon Street, Belleville, has been named to the dean's list at the University of Rochester in New York State for scholastic excellence during the fall semester.

A. Tortoriello Now Interns As Pharmacist

Anthony F. Tortoriello of 10-12 Kimball Street, Belleville, was among the 92 newly graduated pharmacy students who are now serving their internships and who were hosted by the New Jersey Pharmaceutical Association recently.

The session, in charge of the association's intern and Student committee was held at the Johnson and Johnson research center in New Brunswick.

Louis Feld of Raritan, committee chairman and an NJPhA trustee, said representatives of the State Board of Pharmacy were present to discuss internship requirements looking toward eventual registration.

Feld explained that graduates must successfully complete five years of study in a college of pharmacy, then serve a year's internship under a pharmacist-preceptor approved by the board before qualifying to take the state-directed oral and written tests, passage of which will earn registration as a professional pharmacist.

The New York State Chamber of Commerce was founded April 5, 1768 in Fraunces Tavern, downtown New York. The building now is 250 years old.

College Has Early Classes

Essex County College adds evening classes to its regular night and Saturday part-time schedules this fall. The early evening classes accommodate those who wish to take courses directly after work before returning home.

Students may now choose from courses that meet 5 to 6:15 p.m., 7 to 9:45 p.m. or on Saturday 8:45 to 11:30 a.m., 11:45 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. or 2:45 to 5:30 p.m. The early evening classes meet twice a week, while the others meet just once a week.

The evening and weekend programs are under the direction of the college's Division of Continuing Education and Community Service. This division is responsive to the educational needs and desires of individuals who wish to go to college and cannot attend during the day. In addition, the division cooperates with community agencies to service their educational programs.

Offered by the division are more than 80 courses in such areas as business, secretarial science, computer technology, English mathematics, art, history, police science, social science, and natural and applied sciences.

The early evening schedule concentrates on first level and brush-up courses this fall and will be expanded to include advanced courses during the winter semester. Featured during this period are classes in special interest areas such as rapid reading techniques, and a course in "stocks, securities, and investments", about the operation of the stock market, investing, and speculation.

Part-time students may take up to 11 hours of course work. With proper approval, it is also possible to attend full-time. The division offers students the opportunity to earn diplomas, certificates, or degrees in 31 different programs of study.

Registration for students who have already been advised by the college's counseling department is August 11-14. Other students may register August 18-21 at the college, 31 Clinton Street, Newark.

Caracciolo Teaching In Summer

Gerard Caracciolo of 31 Arthur Street, Belleville, is teaching during the summer session of the Speech and Hearing Center at Montclair State College. The center is conducting an intensive remedial speech program for boys and girls aged 4 to 18.

The therapy services will be provided for children with various problems such as faulty articulation, delayed speech and language development, stuttering and aphasia.

Caracciolo earned both his BA and MA degrees at Montclair State. On the college faculty since 1963, he formerly served as speech therapist in Clifton schools and instructor of speech and drama in Belleville High School.

Pre-School Creative Play Classes Now On At YMCA

Classes are now forming for a new session in pre-school creative play for children 4-5 years old.

Classes will be held at the Montclair-North Essex YMCA on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 9:30-11:30 a.m.

There will be arts and crafts, music, stories and games under the direction of qualified leaders.

Upsala College Center Construction Under Way

Erection of structural steel for the first unit of Upsala College's $3 million college center started this week.

The $1.6 million project on Prospect Street, East Orange, is expected to be ready for occupancy by early May, according to superintendent Tony Labrosiano. He said the building will be completely enclosed by Jan. 1 with the masonry and walls going up about the first of next month.

Ground was broken last May for the unit which will include dining facilities for the entire student body and several lounges. Scheduled to follow is the construction of a second unit, at a cost of $1.4 million, which will

Thomas Dunn Gets Certificate For Test Score

Cadet Thomas Dunn, a freshman at the New York Military Academy, Cornwall-on-Hudson, has been awarded a Certificate of Educational Development for outstanding achievement in scholastic testing.

Thomas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunn Sr. of 81 Perry Street, Belleville, scored in the upper ten per cent, based on national norms, in accomplishing The National Educational Development Test.

Edward T. Hering, headmaster of the military school, in announcing the results of the test, said that Cadet Dunn qualified for the award by attaining high scores in a board area of academic subjects.

The tests are conducted nationwide annually, Hering pointed out, for students in grades seven to ten and the testing measures development in English usage, mathematics usage and reading in social studies and natural science.

Harper Presents Research Treatise

Two juniors at Allegheny College --- Greg Harper of Belleville and Scott Simmerman of Vineland, -- presented a research paper at a recent meeting of the Pittsburgh Psychological Association. The paper dealt with stimulus termination and cue properties in the extinction of avoidance responses.

The paper specified some of the experimental conditions under which avoidance behavior persists or can be weakened, and offered explanations other than anxiety reduction for the persistence of avoidance behavior.

Psychologists view the laboratory-produced avoidance behavior as having similar character to defense mechanisms and neurotic behaviors in man.

The research by the Allegheny students was conducted as part of an independent study project under the supervision of Dr. Herbert L. Klions, associate professor of psychology at Allegheny, who sponsored the paper.

Harper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harper, 332 Stephens Street, Belleville.

Samuel Fraunces, a colonial New York inkeeper, in 1762 bought the building that now bears his name-historic Fraunces Tavern Museum-for 2,000 pounds, or approximately $25,000.

Garfield Victorious

It was a strange mixture: one part defensive excellence, a dash of superb offensive power, and garnished with a few key mistakes. The result? A bitter defeat.

"I never lost a game that made me feel so bad," These words of Bellboy coach John Amabile pretty much sum up the teams sentiment after it lost a heartbreaking 21-12 ball game to an outplayed Garfield team.

"The entire defensive squad excelled. It was one of the greatest defensive efforts of any team I've ever had."

What had happened was this: The Bellboys had come up with their finest effort of the season and yet they lost the ballgame. The key to understanding the result is mistakes. The Bellboys outplayed the Boilermakers but the latter capitalized on several interceptions and fumbles.

Monday morning quarterbacks had a ball with this game. Specifically, the experts in the stands took exception to a key Amabile call with 28 seconds left on the clock. The Bellboys had the ball on the Garfield three after a brilliant march down field engineered by quarterback Joe Papasidero. The situation was third and three and Amabile sent in a play action pass call, where Papasidero was to fake the run and pass to Vinnie Costantino.

It is of course old history by now as to what happened on the play. Garfield's Dan Wojdyla intercepted in the end zone and ran for the longest schoolboy touchdown this year in the state, a jaunt of 101 yards to crush Bellboy hopes of victory.

Fan Reaction

Fan reaction to the play was mixed. Several of the "experts" thought the call was an act of blatant stupidity. Others thought the situation warranted the call. What did Amabile have to say about the call?

"I chose the play with three considerations in mind. We had tried to sweep on them twice before the play and had not made it. It was also third down and we had no time outs left. If the play failed we would have been able to stop the clock and recoup ourselves. I would then have come back with a quick pitch, the kind Caruso scored one of our touchdowns on. The third consideration was our record of having problems scoring from within the five yard line."

Costantino was in the clear, and had the pass reached him, critics might have thought differently. Amabile wouldn't blame Papasidero though.

"I can't really blame Joe. These things will happen. He did a great job getting us down there in the first place."

Amabile did have a comment for the fans, who reacted rather violently to the play.

"I know that people in Belleville like to win. I can take criticism. But some of these fans were cruel and bitter toward the kids themselves. It was unbelievable. My wife was in the stands and couldn't take it. She went and sat on the Garfield side. Let them get on my back and leave the kids alone. I think it is a terrible thing."

The statistics revealed to what extent this was a Bellboy dominated game. Belleville had 16 first downs to a mere two for Garfield. Total yardage for Belleville was 290? Bellboys 108, Boilermakers 33. Running? Bellboys 182, Garfield a scant three yards.

Lucky Break

The game started ominously for the Bellboys.

After both teams had a series of downs, Joe Papasidero on third down threw a pass intended for Joe Ritacco which was intercepted by Dan Wojdyla. Wojdyla ran thirty yards before being tackled by Alan De Feo on the Belleville nine yard line. Tom Briggs got the ball to the three, and on fourth down Walt Wiatrak passed to Alex Yoda for the TD. The extra point missed.

Garfield kicked off into the end zone and the ball was placed on the 20, where Belleville started an 80 yard drive. Rick Caruso and Mark Bradley gained a yard each before Rick broke loose to the 37 and a first down. After Mark gained another three, Paps hit Joe Ritacco for 17 yards putting the ball on the Garfield 46. Bradley gained another four yards, and Paps found "Gluefingers" Costantino in the open on the 35.

Caruso fumbled on the hand-off of the next play but the ball was recovered by Belleville for a loss of one. Paps found Ritacco open again and Joe made a great catch to the 20. Caruso went through the line for seven, and Bradley gained two on the next play, ending the quarter.

On third and one Bradley was stopped for no gain, but on fourth down Paps jumped through the line for three and one half yards. Caruso took the ball from the seven and went in for the TD. Belleville stood tied with Garfield 6-6 as Bob Carbone's kick went wide.

TOUCHDOWN JAUNT — Ricky Caruso does some fancy stepping as he finds a huge hole in the Boilermaker line. The Bellboy star halfback raced seven yards for a touchdown here in the second quarter. Caruso picked up 110 yards for the day, but his performance could not stem the tide of Bellboy mistakes, as they fell to Garfield, 21-14.

Garfield got its next touchdown on another lucky break as Charley Zeigler took a punt from Garfield's Ron Mueller, and fumbled the ball on the Belleville 17. Garfield scored five plays later as Tom Briggs went in from the four. On the extra point, Walter Luke took the snap and instead of putting it on the tee, he passed to Billy Lyons in the end zone for two points. The score stayed 14-6 until halftime.

In the second half, Belleville started a series of plays from the Garfield five and in 12 plays went 55 yards and got four first downs. On 2-6 Joe Paps threw his first pass of the half and it was again intercepted by Wojdyla, but Garfield blew their chance to move and punted to Belleville. Caruso, Bradley, and Jim Miele got the ball from the Garfield 44 to the 16. Paps threw two incomplete passes setting up a fourth and Doug Brown came on the field for his first time in the game and fumbled, giving Garfield the ball on their own twenty. On third down, Garfield passed and Bradley intercepted on the Garfield 37.

Bradley gained four yards on Belleville's first play and Caruso gained five yards and one yard on the next two. Caruso then got 27 yards on a fine sweep TD and Belleville came within reach of tying the game. Jim Miele was given the handoff for a conversion but ran into his own men, and the score stayed 14 - 12. Garfield gained only four yards in its next three plays and Mueller punted. Charley Zeigler took the punt fumbled, and Garfield took over, Belleville's defense dug in and Mueller punted again on fourth down.

Belleville took the ball on their 20, and on eight plays moved to the Garfield nine. Joe Paps, recovering his poise threw four times in the drive, for 67 yards. On first and goal Caruso picked up six yards and got to the three yard line. Caruso was stopped on the next play and on third and goal, Papasidero was told to pass by coach Amabile. Dan Wojdyla intercepted for the third time, this time in the end zone. Dan ran 101 yards for the touchdown and the extra point kick was good, making the final score 21-12.

Running Tops

The Bellboy running game continued to be superb. Ricky Caruso was the star of the day, coming up with 110 yards on 20 carries and proved himself to be the Bellboys most consistently good back.

Mark Bradley, hot off of his 140 yard performance last game, turned in 72 yards on 16 carries. Doug Brown saw scant action but is expected to return from ligament trouble this week against West Orange. Because of Bradley's outstanding play, Brown will be used mostly on defense.

Amabile had extra special praise for end Joe Ritacco, whom he said played "a whale of a game." The coach and the fans were treated to "some unbelievable catches." With end "Gluefingers" Costantino double covered throughout most of the game, Ritacco carried the team with five receptions for 94 yards.

top twenty, which was dominated by Bloomfield and Nutley. Red has eight first place finishes.

The second Belleville runner was John McCarthy with a time of 13:49.5, in Big Ten Competition. John's 38th place was an improvement over his last year finish of 70th Lou Dalcero was only 5.5 seconds behind McCarthy, but in those five seconds eight other runners came in, and Lou was 47th.

Belleville's scoring was completed by John Deighan and Ray Horman, John was 50th with 14:17 and Ray was 59th for Belleville were Dave McMullen, 66th (14:5.5) and Rich Sulenski, 68th, (14:59.9).

Cowboys Challenge

Happiness for the team was a short lived thing.

Three straight heart breaking defeats came in rapid succession, and if morale isn't broken for the Cowboys, they must have a psychiatrist for a trainer.

Against Ferris High, they lost 7-0, the lone tally coming on an opening kickoff touchdown runback. The Cowboys managed 69 plays to 39 for Ferris.

A stubborn Kearny squad slapped a 19-14 defeat on the Cowboys, and things began to look real bad for season's hopes.

Orange added another heartbreaker, stopping them 7-0 on a long pass where Doyle said his defense just broke down.

Saturday it all caught up to them, as Bloomfield walloped the Cowboys 34-7. Whether the 1-5 team can bounce back against the Bellboys is the big question, as both teams enter the tilt in the wake of disappointing defeats.

Belleville fans who make the 15 minute trip up to West Orange should look for a concentrated ground game by the Cowboys, who hope their defense comes through for the needed balance. Doyle admits he hasn't the best passing attack.

The man to watch in a Cowboy uniform is senior halfback Peter Karaveris, who at 5'10" and 160 pounds, is one of the better runners in the county.

"He's the type of runner who makes a lot of tough yardage," says Doyle.

Doyle is very high on Karaveris. "If he had better speed he would make All-State."

Against Irvington, Karaveris raced for 140 yards. In the Ferris game he again topped the century mark. With Orange and Kearny he ran for 90 yards plus in each instance.

The power runners on the team are fullbacks Jeff Taylor and Fred Taddio. Taylor, a junior, stands 5'11" and weighs 180 pounds, while Taddio, a sophomore, is somewhat smaller at 5'10" and 165 pounds.

The Cowboy defensive squad in Doyle's two-platoon system, is Marty D'Amato, a middle guard at 5'9" 165 pounds. A senior, scouting reports indicate he is quick and agile.

Bellboy quarterback Joe Papasidero will find passing rough if he tries throwing over the Cowboy ends. Both are tall, and with arms raised on a rush, are hard to pass through. Bryon Willies stands six feet three inches and weighs 170 pounds. Doyle says he is like "a tree swaying in the wind."

But Harriers Still

Belleville's cross-country team lost its fifth straight meet of the season last week to Kearny. The Bellboys came within ten points of winning, 25-35, the closest yet this year. Belleville took first and second for the first time, but their third runner didn't come in until eighth place.

Belleville's number one runner was, as usual, Bob "Red" Forrest. The team's only senior has taken first five times this season and has been, an average of 44 seconds ahead of the second place runner. Bob's time was 12:36.5 which for the 2.4 mile course averaged out to a 5:14 mile.

The number two runner for Belleville was John McCarthy, John, a junior, turned in his fastest time on the home course, 13:13. John was followed across the line by five Kearny runners in the next 45 seconds.

In eighth place for Belleville was John Deighan, with 14:22. Ray Horman was eleventh with 14:30 and Lou Dalcero was thirteenth completing the Bellboys scoring with 14:43. Rich Sulenski was 17th with 15:35, Dave McMullen was 18th with 15:57 and Bob Drake was 26th with 19:10.

Harriers 9th In Big Ten; Forrest 6th

Bellboy harriers took an 0-10 record into the Big Ten Cross-Country meet last Friday in Newark's Branch Brook

Park, and for the first time in three years they finished out of tenth place. Belleville scored 200 points in the 70 man

HARRIER STANDOUT — Belleville cross-country standout Bob "Red" Forrest nailed down sixth place in the recent Big Ten Meet. Red has been the lone shining star for the winless Bellboy Harriers, as he has taken eight first place finishes in Big Ten dual competition.

The local harriers were led by senior runner Bob "Red" Forrest. Red, the captain of the team, turned in a time of 12:39 and took sixth place. Red's position was a major factor in Belleville's beating Orange as none of the Orange runners finished in the

Sports Corner

By John McCarthy

Life on the gridiron has changed in the past few weeks for Bellboy wingback Mark Bradley.

Mark has suddenly found himself counted upon as one of the primary running backs in the Belleville power laden backfield which includes Ricky Caruso and Doug Brown.

Mark has been the starting wingback in the last two games and has totaled over two hundred yards on the ground, piling up 72 yards last Saturday and a sparkling 140 the week before.

The speedy junior feels that Irvington was his best game so far. During tilt, Mark broke into stardom with a 62 yard run which was not exactly the play that Coach Amabile had sent in with his "Pony Express," his alternating guards.

Mark was supposed to run up the middle, but as he says, "I saw a hole between De Feo (Alan) and Valano (Joe) and went through it. I cut to the left, got some blocks downfield and went all the way."

The best team effort, Mark says, was against East Orange. Mark played on the defense as a safety, and aided the team to crush the East Orange attack. The difference between that game and the others so far was, according to Mark, "a few mistakes that proved important."

The junior sensation hasn't been a star for the whole year. He admits that his two fumbles on punts cost Belleville the game against Bloomfield. He said that he just couldn't handle the first and was "dumb" in touching the second one.

The second fumble gave Bloomfield the ball on the Belleville seven on a punt that would have gone into the end zone otherwise.

Mark is also Belleville's 440 and 220 yard runner during the track season. He totaled 53 points in the team's races last year and earned his letter as a sophomore. Between the two sports, it's a tough decision he says as to which he likes better. "I like the games in football, but the track practices are easier. Of course Mark says this when the track coach Ray Haneke isn't around.

During the winter, Mark likes to watch basketball. His favorite team is the Knicks, but doesn't follow their games until football is finished.

Versatility has been his key word ever since he started playing football as a freshman. During that year he played on Don Albanese's undefeated squad, and very often broke out into the clear on kickoff or punt returns. He also added the long gains as a fullback, wingback and halfback.

Against Kearny that year he scored the winning TD as a wingback. Mark ran 47 yards on a double reverse. His longest run to date was an 87 yard kickoff return against East Orange that year.

Sophomore year Mark didn't play varsity football but was a halfback for the sophomore team. The only position in the backfield that he hasn't played is quarterback, but he says he sure would like to play that too.

Mark is an average student at Belleville High School. He gets B's in most of his major subjects, likes chemistry and Algebra and says there aren't any subjects he doesn't like.

The sophomore and JV teams also had their share of stars this week as both games were aerial battles. Joe Lo Truglio, the second string varsity quarterback, after throwing a forty yard pass to Jerry De Paul, found the same end over the goal line for the TD.

Upland Hunting Set To Open Saturday

New Jersey's upland hunting season will open at 9 a.m. this Saturday, according to Acting Commissioner Joseph T. Barber of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Species which will be fair game include rabbit, pheasant, quail, squirrel, grouse, chukar partridge and fox. Woodcock season now open will be closed tomorrow and will reopen at 9 a.m. on Saturday.

The first portion of the season will run through December 6, the day before deer season. Fox may still be taken during deer season, and all species except woodcock will re-open on December 15. Hunting will continue through December 31 except on the Special Permit deer season day, December 20, and all species except pheasant will remain open during the new year, until February 7.

Over the years we have kept our readers informed about the different systems of pay TV which we will have soon.

In sections where the reception is poor, we have a cable connection to the homes from a very high antenna. There is a charge for this, of course.

Another system is where one of the regular existing stations transmits a scrambled picture. In order to unscramble it, one needs a so-called decoder which is connected to the receiver. One manipulates the decoder and it keeps a record of the time you used it. By the end of the month you send the card in and a bill will be mailed. This will be known as Pay TV.

After lengthy legal battles, all possibilities of appeals have been exhausted. Now it is up to Congress to empower the Federal Communications Commission to issue licenses.

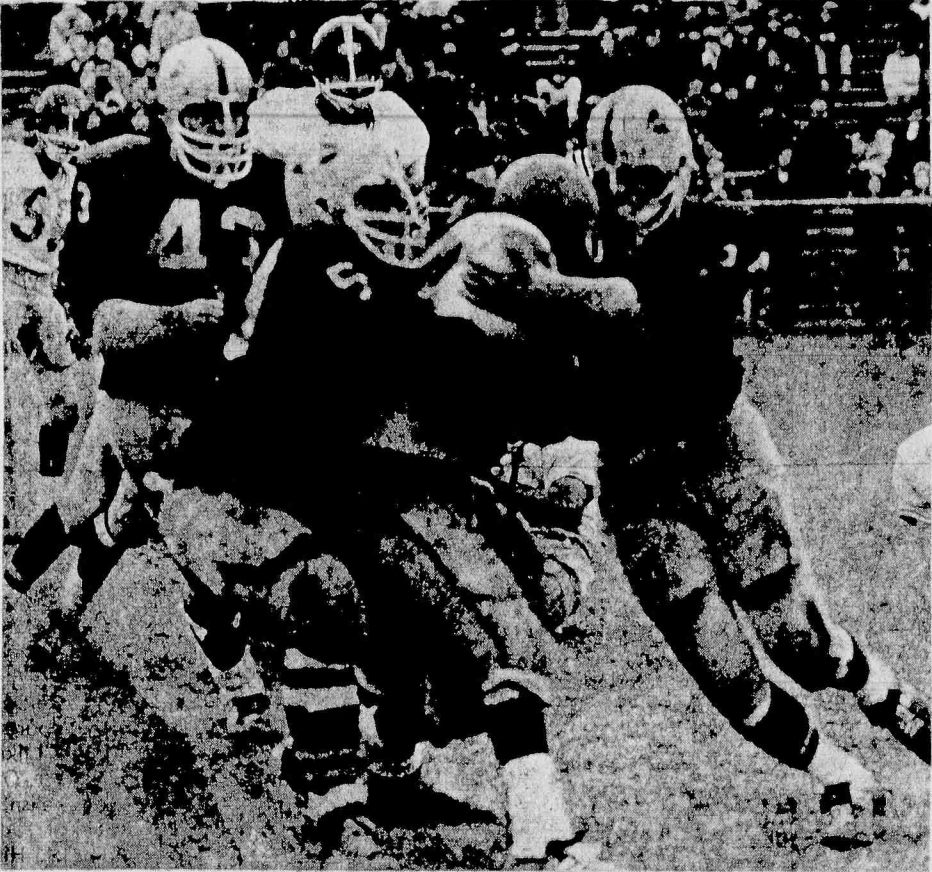

There will be first run movies, special sports events not carried by regular stations, theater and concert programs etc. on pay TV, and last, but most importantly, there will be NO COMMERCIALS, and that is one of the privileges you pay for.

We service what we sell.

Superb Bellboy Defense Stops Garfield Cold, But...

SMOTHERED — Bill Tlumacki (50) gives the old bear hug to Garfield's Tom Briggs in the last quarter, while Frank Fury shoves from the front to throw the Boilermaker for a three-yard loss. Garfield was completely stymied by the Bellboy defense, being held to a mere three yards rushing.

GOING DOWN — John Atherton, defensive right tackle, buries Garfield quarterback Walt Wiatrak for a five yard loss in the second quarter. The Bellboys were constantly in the Garfield backfield.

TRAPPED — Garfield star Dan Wojdyla finds himself trapped by Bill Tlumacki (50) and Tom Vitiello (43) for a three yard loss, but the Bellboys were offside and penalized five yards.

Wojdyla Picks One Too Many Balls Out Of The Air

THE NEMESIS — Dan Wojdyla (44) picks off the first of three key interceptions from quarterback Joe Papasidero. End Vinnie Costantino (19) watches hopelessly as Wojdyla prepares to run.

TO NO AVAIL — Alan De Feo (51) brings down Dan Wojdyla early in the first quarter after the Garfield back ran back an interception thirty yards. Rich Della Terza (45) and Mark Bradley (33) join in on the tackle.

101 Yard TD Shocks Coaches

SHOCKED — Coach John Amabile stares in disbelief as his last second play-action pass fails, and Garfield's Dan Wojdyla runs an interception back 101 yards for a TD.

MAYBE IT HELPS — Line coach Vincent Harris shouts out a defensive correction to the Bellboys as they dig in against the Garfield offensive machine.

PENSIVE — Assistant coach Jim Steele watches as Garfield gains one of their two first downs. Garfield went on to win the game on Bellboy mistakes.

CARUSO RIDES AGAIN — Ricky Caruso, Belleville's top yard gainer, picks up blocking from Joe Papasidero (10), Mark Bradley (33) and Alan DeFeo (51) as he gains eight big yards.

ROUGH GOING — Mark Bradley gets hit from three sides as he gains a yard in the first quarter. The play was not indicative of Marks fine day, as he gained 72 yards in 16 carries.

Local Contributions In Federal Spending

What has the Federal government's spending program in the past year amounted to, in terms of Belleville and its taxpayers? With an outlay of nearly $190 billion for national defense, public health, welfare, education, space research and the rest, this spending was at the rate of $6,000 per second, or $21,600,000 every hour.

On the basis of local figures and a state-by-state breakdown made by the Tax Foundation, it represented expenditures of approximately $3.00 a day for each man, woman and child living in Belleville. For the entire community, it totaled $116,000 per day.

That was their share of the burden, every day of the year, based upon their tax contributions. Some people, with above-average incomes, paid more toward the cost of government than others, because their taxes were larger.

The average, throughout the United States, was $2.58 per capita per day. It was $2.83 in the Middle Atlantic States.

The tremendous sums of money disbursed by Washington each year have led a congressman, William V. Roth, Jr., of Delaware, to call for the creation of a modern Hoover-type commission to seek ways and means of analyzing and controlling this vast spending.

"The time has come," he said, "for an objective analysis to find out how the central government can operate more effectively, efficiently and creatively."

"Such a commission should be charged with studying the impact and effect of Federal programs and activities upon the inter-relationships of all other levels of government."

He cited, as an instance, that a special study by his staff disclosed the fact that, in education alone, there are nearly 500 overlapping and duplicating Federal programs.

With regard to the Government's expenditures in the past year, a Tax Foundation tabulation indicates where the money went.

As an example, for every $1,000 that a Belleville family paid in Federal taxes, directly or indirectly, some $440 of it was allocated for national defense. That was the biggest item.

Mail Overseas Now To Avoid Late Delivery

Gift parcels and packages to overseas military personnel should be mailed now and no later than December 13 to assure delivery for the Christmas Holiday, announced Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci. The deadline for Airmail is December 13.

Overseas personnel include U.S. citizen civilian employees, families of the military and those persons receiving mail through an APO/NPO or Fleet Post Office.

Address all mail clearly and legibly and use ZIP CODE. With the various mailing programs now in effect, Benucci advises patrons to check with the post office as to correct weight and size of the parcel being mailed.

He also warned against sending contraband items such as matches, combustibles, alcoholic beverages, etc. Articles should be packed in sturdy cartons with sufficient cushioning for protection. Domestic postage rates are applicable and must be fully prepaid," said Benucci. Further information can be obtained by calling 645-2641.

Airlines To Host Boy Scouts

American Airlines is handing over its hangar at Newark Airport on November 15 to the Robert Treat Council of the Boy Scouts for its annual show, this year called the "Scout-Air-Rama".

The giant American Airlines Brewster Hangar, located next to the main terminal, will be open from noon until 6 p.m. that Saturday for the show.

The annual event gives cub packs, scout troops and explorer units an opportunity to show what scouting is all about to the people of Newark, Irvington and Belleville. The hangar will be filled with various displays by the units to demonstrate their activities and skills.

American Airlines will have one of its BAC 111 astrojet aircraft parked nearby, according to Frank J. Esposito, American's manager of airport services at Newark. Stewardesses will be available to give visitors a tour of the jetliner.

Tickets for the Scout-Air-Rama are available from any scout.

50 BROAD ST. Open Monday, Wednesday & Friday til 9, 743-3300

OBITUARIES

John J. Sullivan Dies; Was Lifelong Resident

John J. Sullivan of 6 De Witt Avenue, Belleville, died after a short illness, Thursday, October 30, at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville. He was 86.

Mr. Sullivan was a lifelong resident of Belleville. He was a retired maintenance man for the Town. A member of St. Peter's Holy Name Society; Mr. Sullivan also belonged to the Belleville Old Timers.

He is survived by five nephews, Monsignor Aloysius J. Welsh of Washington D.C., Eugene J. Welsh of Bloomfield, William T. Sullivan of California, Hugh H. Welsh and Harry J. Sullivan of Belleville; two nieces, Mrs. John W. Westlake and Mrs. Allan F. Conklin, both of Belleville.

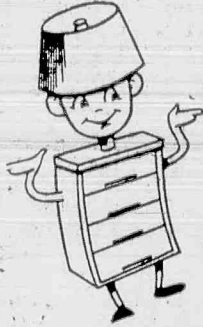

The funeral was Monday, November 3, at the Kiernan Home, Belleville, followed by a Mass of High Requiem at St. Peter's Church concelebrated by Bishop Walter W. Curtis of Bridgeport, Conn., and Msgr. Aloysius J. Welsh of Washington, D.C. and Rev. John L. Paprocki of Essex Catholic High School, Newark. Interment was at St. Peter's Cemetery, Belleville.

Careful Planning Is Talk Subject For Lions Meeting

The need for careful estate planning to avoid excessive taxation was discussed at the October 30, meeting of the Belleville Lions Club at the Fountain Restaurant.

Under the auspices of the Essex County Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, Michael Watson presented a talk on "Wills, Trusts and Goals." Watson is financial planning officer, First National State Bank of New Jersey, Newark and resides in Milltown.

He explained how, by proper and timely selection of fiduciary, executor and attorney, the value of an estate can be enhanced.

Gaccione Joins Law Firm Staff

Robert A. Gaccione, a longtime Belleville resident who served the last three years as a special agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), has joined the law firm of Louis J. Miller, 636 Kearny Avenue, Kearny.

Gaccione, 28, joined the FBI in September, 1966, after receiving his law degree from the Georgetown University Law School. An attorney, he was admitted to the New Jersey Bar in October, 1966.

Following an initial three-month training period at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Va., Gaccione was assigned to the Augusta, Ga. office. In October, 1967, he was named to the fugitive squad of the FBI's Chicago office.

Gaccione received a letter of commendation from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover for apprehending numerous fugitives during the year in Chicago.

In February, 1969, he was assigned to the Bureau's criminal intelligence squad in New York City, where he worked until recently.

Born in Lyndhurst, Gaccione moved with his family to Belleville in 1946 and has resided there ever since. He attended Public School 7 and was graduated from Belleville High School in June, 1959.

Gaccione received a B.A. degree in social studies from Seton Hall University in June, 1963. At Seton Hall, he was active in extra-curricular activities, having served as student body president. He was also selected to membership in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Gaccione is a member of the New Jersey State Bar and American Bar Associations.

He lives with his wife, the former Lois Hlavacek, and infant son, Robert, at 53 Princeton Terrace, Belleville.

Johnson Decries Undue Pessimism

Economists and so-called financial experts should take the time and effort to check the actual area real estate marketplace before jumping to conclusions and painting an unrealistic picture of the home mortgage market in New Jersey according to William Johnson, president of the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley & Belleville Board of Realtors.

"While mortgage funds are not as plentiful as we would like them to be," Johnson stated, "mortgages are being granted to qualified buyers."

Prospective home purchasers or those seeking to sell real estate should not become frustrated or disenchanted by what they read as to the condition of the money market," Johnson asserts.

"Sales are being made every day of the week in the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley & Belleville area and now is a good time to buy or sell real estate," he continued. Johnson cautioned that those who seek to generalize about real estate conditions lose sight of the all-important fact that homes are an extremely localized commodity and conditions may well vary from area to area.

Pre-School Creative Play Classes Now On At YMCA

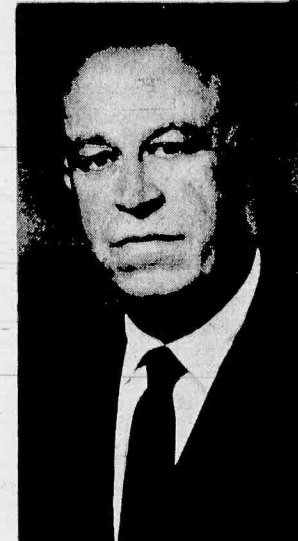

Classes are now forming for a new session in pre-school creative play for children 4-5 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Maggiulli Honeymoon In Bermuda

Mrs. Vincent Maggiulli — nee Theresa Pizzano

Miss Theresa Pizzano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pizzano of 487 Centre Street and Vincent Maggiulli, son of Mrs. Michael Maggiulli of 130 Crestwood Avenue, were married September 13 at Holy Family Church.

The Rev. Blake performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Wayne Manor, Wayne.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie in the empire style with an A-line skirt and detachable cathedral train. The neckline and skirt were embroidered with pearls and crystal beads.

A matching beaded headpiece held her elbow length illusion veil and she carried orchids on a Bible with rosary beads.

Mrs. Jo-Ann Pizzano of Lyndhurst, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Gaetana and Miss Debra Maggiulli of Nutley, sisters of the groom, Miss Gerri and Miss Toni Muschio of Belleville, Miss Jean Gagliardo of Freehold and Mrs. Sue Ciampi of Bloomfield.

They wore turquoise crepe gowns with the sleeves and hemline edged in feathers and matching feathers in their hair. Their bouquets were of pink carnations and blue chrysanthemums.

John Maggiulli of Nutley served his brother as best man. Ushering were Frank Waller of Bergenfield, Frank Matullo of Carteret, Tony Platoni of Wallington, Barry Finkel of Queens, New York, Ralph Pizzano of Lyndhurst and Dominick Granese of Belleville.

Mrs. Pizzano chose a melon crepe gown with embroidery of beads and crystal and wore beaded discs in her hair. Her corsage was of orchids. The groom's mother was in a sleeveless lime green chiffon gown with a sequined and beaded bodice and wore a headpiece of matching rosebuds. She had an orchid wristlet.

Mrs. Maggiulli, a graduate of Nutley High School, is a secretary with Becton, Dickinson and Company, East Rutherford.

Mr. Maggiulli, an alumnus of Nutley High School also, is a senior computer operator with First National City Bank of New York. He belongs to the New Jersey National Guard.

The couple honeymooned in Bermuda.

Martha Kantenwein Bride Of Alan Dieterle

The marriage of Miss Martha Lynn Kantenwein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kantenwein of Baldwin Place to Alan Dieterle, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dieterle of Mountinside, took place October 4 at Bethany Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Albert E. Alspach performed the ceremony and a reception followed at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight silk organza gown fashioned with a train and appliqued with Belgium lace. A matching headpiece held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white and yellow roses.

Mrs. Peter Semchuk was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Kantenwein, Mrs. George H. Dieterle and Miss Vicki Kordula. Miss Lori Ann Bonanno was junior bridesmaid.

They wore silk linen skimmers with a persimmon bodice and apricot skirt. Headpieces were floor length illusion veils and they carried persimmon, carnations and yellow roses surrounded by rust and yellow mums.

George H. Dieterle served his brother as best man. Ushers were Robert Kantenwein, Frank Mahler and Peter Semchuk. Wayne Dieterle was junior usher.

Mrs. Kantenwein wore a green crepe gown and a yellow rose corsage. The groom's mother was in a mint green silk organza gown and a corsage of carnations, roses and mums.

Mrs. Dieterle is a registered radiological technologist at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville.

Mrs. Alan Dieterle — nee Martha Kantenwein

Mr. Dieterle, a graduate of Orange.

Fairleigh Dickinson University, is with Mechanical Designers and Builders,

The couple have made their home in Belleville after a honeymoon in Bermuda.

Yearly Fair Tomorrow At Christ Episcopal

Fall and the harvest season find the Episcopal Church Women of Christ Church busy sewing. Every Tuesday afternoon and evening they gather to sew, embroider, paint and decorate items for the "Holiday and Harvest" Fair to be held in the Church Undercroft on November 7.

Mrs. Jean Milano and Mrs. Doris Irvine are co-chairing the affair with the Mayor's wife, Mrs. Gladys Smith in charge of the sewing department. Mrs. Margaret Small has the ladies working on Christmas gifts for all ages and Mrs. Lillian Westcott designs and instructs all in the creative gifts division.

The Fair will open at 2 p.m. and continue through the evening. Dinner will be served with the assistance of the Girl Scouts from 5 p.m. until 7:30 p.m.

The Episcopal Young Churchmen will be poster painting and the public should look for their signs in our local shops.

Frank VanDyke, president of the Couples Club, will have his group decorate rooms at 393 Washington Avenue for this annual event.

The treasurer, Richard Drake, will also be assisting.

Samuel Fraunces was more than a colonial New York innkeeper. In a 250-year-old building that still bears his name, Fraunces Tavern, he provided both aid, to American prisoners and secret services, during the Revolutionary War period, for which acts he was cited by Congress.

with the men of the Parish, collecting tickets and handling the financial problems involved.

Mrs. Dan McCarthy is in charge of publicity. Dr. Frederick L. Long, Rector of Christ Church invites the public to participate and is looking forward to greeting our many Belleville friends.

Expert Panel Will Address PTA Meeting

School No. 7 PTA will hear a panel discussion at a regular meeting on November 10 at 8p.m. "Educational Facilities in Belleville Meeting the Needs of Our Children" is the topic.

Michael Nardiello, supervisor of special education in Belleville will moderate the discussion assisted by Robert J. Stepney of the Garden School.

The panel will consist of Jack Barharbas, psychologist, Cynthia Consi, speech therapist; Rosemarie Mazzucco, reading teacher and Marian Rubin, social worker. They will discuss the facilities in Belleville which meet the needs of our children. All citizens interested are invited to attend this informative program.

Prior to this program at 7:30 p.m., all parents are invited to attend the classroom visitation. This is a means of meeting your child's teacher and seeing work being done in the classrooms. Refreshments will be served by fifth grade mothers.

High School Juniors Will Visit Douglass

On November 8, junior year college preparatory girls from Belleville Senior High School will participate in a program at Douglass College sponsored by the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs to acquaint them with the academic programs of the college.

Mrs. Ernest Arvidson, chairman of College Day for the Woman's Club of Belleville with the cooperation of Miss R. B. Degin, junior counselor of the high school will take six girls to New Brunswick where the program will begin at 10:30 am with an organ recital in Voorhees Chapel.

General assembly will follow with Mrs. William E. Pollard, state College Day chairman presiding. Dr. Margery Somers Foster, Dean of Douglass College and Mrs. Thomas A. McGlade, president of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs will welcome them. Dr. James Rosenau, Professor of Political Science will speak on the Value of Liberal Arts. Seminars in Humanities, science and mathematics, social science, professional and preprofessional courses will then follow.

After luncheon in Cooper Hall a guided tour of the campus with a special tour for those girls interested in home economics of Davison Hall concludes the day's activities.

Attending from Belleville are Mary Oertel, Carole Nye, Linda Oliveri, Sharon Davis, Josephine Bono and Janice Innamorato. Mrs. Ludwig Pesa from the Woman's Club of Belleville will also attend.

Cocktail Party Set By Singles Alumni

The New Jersey Singles' Alumni Club will hold an open-house cocktail party Sunday, November 9, at 8:15 p.m. at the Onyx Room, 378 Centre Street, Nutley. Single adults, ages 25 to 42 may attend.

There is no admission charge. A free buffet will be served early arrivals.

Further information may be secured from this non-profit club at P.O. Box 11, Rutherford.

Besides Boston, New York had a "tea party" during Revolutionary times, plotted by the Sons of Liberty and Vigilance Committee in 1774 at Fraunces Tavern, which is still standing.

Every year about 4 million persons, mostly children, come down with measles. While most of us remember this disease as a rather common occurrence of childhood, it does manage to kill about 500 each year — and cause brain damage in several thousand more.

Now, a new live-virus vaccine tested for many years, has been licensed for general use. Preliminary work indicates that the vaccine should give lifelong protection. And, probably that once a large enough number of people who have not already had measles is inoculated, this one-time universal scourge should soon sink into relative oblivion.

"THE RICHES OF NEW JERSEY", PART V

New Jersey APPLES

Buy New Jersey Apples, the most popular fresh fruit for eating and cooking.

CARAMEL APPLES

4 cups sugar
1 cup white corn syrup
2 3/4 cups evaporated milk
15-20 small red apples
15-20 wooden skewers

Place sugar, syrup and 3/4 cup evaporated milk in large, heavy cooking utensil. Blend mixture well; heat (200°F.) until sugar is melted. Boil (225°F.) briskly to a syrup consistency; add remaining evaporated milk, slowly. Continue to cook to firm ball stage (242°F. on candy thermometer). Wash and dry apples; stick on wooden skewers at stem end. Dip in caramel mixture swirling as apple is removed; stand on greased baking sheet. Caramel should be kept hot so coating will not be too heavy. Apples may be rolled in chopped nuts after dipping. Yield: 15-20.

JERSEY APPLE PIE

2-3 Months*

2 tbsp. flour
2 tbsp. cinnamon
1-9" unbaked pie shell
2 lbs. apples, peeled and halved
1 cup plus 1 tbsp. sugar
2 tbsp. butter or margarine

Combine flour and 1 tbsp. cinnamon. Sprinkle in bottom of pie shell. Place apples, cut side down, in pie shell. Combine 1 cup sugar and remaining cinnamon; sprinkle over apples. Dot with butter or margarine. Bake at 425°F. for 50-60 mins., or until apples are very tender. Remove from oven, press apples gently with fork until top of pie is smooth. Sprinkle with remaining sugar. Yield: 1-9" Pie. To Serve When Frozen: Thaw, unwrapped, at room temperature for 1 hr.

DUTCH APPLE CAKE

2 Months*

1/4 cup butter or margarine
3/4 cup sugar
3 eggs
1 tsp. grated lemon rind
1 1/4 cups sifted flour
1 1/4 tsp. baking powder
3 cups sliced apples
1/2 tsp. cinnamon

Cream butter or margarine and 1/4 cup sugar; add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add lemon rind. Combine and sift flour and baking powder; fold into creamed mixture, a small amount at a time. (This makes a very thick batter.) Spread 1/2 of batter into greased 8" sq. cake pan; cover with 2 1/2 cups of apples. Combine remaining sugar and cinnamon; sprinkle over apples. Spread on remaining batter. Arrange remaining apple slices on top. Bake at 350°F. for 1 hr. Yield: 1-8" sq. cake. To Serve When Frozen: Thaw, unwrapped, at room temperature for approx. 1 hr.

*Maximum length of storage time in freezer.
†Temperature for automatically controlled top burner or unit.

Miss Mary Rose Pellegrino

Local Opera Singer Slated At Annual Fete

Miss Josephine Rossi of Belleville was one of the star performers when the Calabria Association of America, Chapter No. 1, held its annual dinner-dance with the theme 'A Night in Opera-Land,' at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark, September 20.

The CAA likes to boast that its dinner is virtually free of speeches but laden with entertainment. The only speech was by Don Francello after he accepted the 'CAA 1969 Man of the Year Award.'

Miss Rossi, a lyric soprano known from coast-to-coast, was joined by Rosario La Grua, a New York tenor who sings with appealing force and clarity, in a duet after each have performed solo numbers. Adding to the festivities were 30 Calabrians in multi-colored costumes in the presentation of the Tarantella, the vivacious folk dance of Southern Italy.

Miss Rossi, whose credits on the opera stage are too long to enumerate, studied voice at the Julliard School of Music after she graduated from Belleville High School. Along the way Miss Rossi has taught voice and music. She was the music teacher at Caldwell College. At the present time Miss Rossi is the organist and music teacher at St. Cecilia High School, Kearny.

Introductory Tea For Kindergarten Mothers At School

The James G. Shawger Home and School Association held a get-acquainted tea for the Kindergarten mothers on Friday afternoon October 17. Classroom, library, and helping hand mothers were also invited.

Mrs. Vito Sylvestro, president of the Home and School Association, introduced the members of the executive board and then had everyone present introduce themselves. She discussed the fall and winter program and then outlined and explained the duties of the classroom and helping hand mothers.

Michael Nardiello, the school principal, welcomed everyone and expressed his gratitude for the interest shown in our school activities. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee under the direction of Mrs. Louis Pallotta.

Kearny.

La Grua had 10 years of studies and coaching in the Hartford Conservatory of Music and Carnegie Hall before going to Milano, Italy, for five additional years of studies and coaching at the Canto al Conservatorio.

Francello of North Arlington, was cited for outstanding contributions in support of civic, sports and business.

Jo-Ann Marie Marchione, Henry Minasian Jr. Wed

Miss Jo-Ann Marie Marchione, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Marchione Sr. of Bloomfield became the bride October 11 of Henry Minasian Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Minasian Sr. of Belleville.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert E. Babulski in Our Lady of All Souls Church, East Orange. A reception was held at the Carriage Trade, East Orange.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore an A-line silk faced peau de soie gown with empire bodice and long bishop sleeves trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls.

Her bouffant veil was attached to a headpiece of matching lace and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis and stephanotis.

Mrs. Carmine Sierchio was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joseph Majka, Mrs. James Marchione Jr. and Mrs. Sim Brown. Marybeth Barbieri was flower girl.

They wore strawberry A-line gowns and carried cascades of white and strawberry carnations.

Jack Gruber of Belleville served as best man. Ushers were Kenny Varteresian, Mr. Marchione Jr. and Mr. Brown. Gregory Buontempo served as ringbearer.

Mrs. Minasian Jr. is a graduate of Bloomfield High School. She is a secretary with Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, Newark.

The couple have made their home in Belleville following a honeymoon in Puerto Rico and St. Thomas.

Mrs. Henry Minasian Jr. — nee Jo-Ann Marchione

Religious Education To Be Discussed At Mother's Club

The Mothers' Club of Essex Catholic High School will have their next meeting on Wednesday evening, November 12, at 8 p.m., in the school cafeteria.

Program chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Broo of Belleville, has announced that the program will be a roundtable discussion and the topic will be, 'How Religion is Taught at Essex.'

The discussion, which will be conducted by Brother

Anthony G. Naclerio, a member of the school faculty, will be followed by a question and answer period.

Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Ralph Domenica, of Glen Ridge, will be hostess for the evening.

Red cowhair used as binder material in plaster has been discovered where it dried in place 250 years ago in historic Fraunces Tavern Museum, New York's oldest building.

Manhattan's oldest building, Fraunces Tavern, was not built to be a tavern. It was first the elegant home of Etienne (Stephen) de Lancey, a wealthy merchant. The building is 250 years old.

The British man-of-war Asia in 1775 fired a cannon ball through the roof of Fraunces Tavern; the building survived to become New York's oldest building, still standing in downtown Manhattan.

Nutley Synagogue Opens Program

The Adult Studies Program of Temple B'nai Israel of Nutley is offering four courses to the general membership. Rabbi Danzig conducts a Sunday Morning Bible Class at 11 a.m.

This year the text consists of the Soncino Edition of the Book of Proverbs. Sisterhood Study Group under the guidance of the Rabbi meets every second Tuesday to study a variety of basic concepts in Judaism. The text for this year is entitled: "The B'nai Brith Pamphlet Series."

On Friday evenings, the United Synagogue Youth group conducts a seminar on topics concerning important issues of the day. "Letters To

Boys Club After Its Own Library

A recent newspaper article pointed up the renovation being undertaken by adult and young people at the Reinheimer-Perry Club on Passaic Avenue and indicated that the Club wishes to state its own library. The Red Cross Youth notified the leadership of the Club that it will be happy to launch an immediate drive through the schools, churches, and The Nutley Sun, to collect 1000 books as a nucleus for the projected library.

Letters have gone out to Youth Council members asking for both paper back and hard cover books, fiction, non-fiction and classical, to be brought to the schools and churches for pick up by the Chapter's Motor Corps. Mrs. Parke Richards, Jr., executive director, stressed "We only want books that are in good condition which parents would be happy to have their own children read."

We will accept mystery stories, Westerns, appropriate novels, and would like to get at least one complete set of encyclopedia.

Anyone wishing to have books collected from their home should call Nutley Chapter, 667-3818, and pick ups will be arranged.
