

Budget Controversy Continues As Town Hires Special Counsel For State Appeal

Board Will Fight It

By Nat Gottlieb

The Belleville Board of Education's budget, bounced around all year like a hot potato, is being tossed into the air again. The Town Commission has filed an appeal with the State Department of Education to contest that state body's recent decision to restore $128,000 to the local board's treasury.

The Commissioners took two major steps into the sparring ring this week when they filed their appeal last Tuesday and in the same breath hired special counsel to assist Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato in presenting their case.

Board Attorney Max Schwartz, meanwhile, has indicated that he will oppose the appeal "all the way down the line." He has advised the Board of its legal rights and told the Times that the school body will fight to sustain the state's decision to restore the budget.

The rules for the appeal are this: Lawyers for the Commission will have 20 days (until December 29) to submit a brief to the State Department of Education. Schwartz will then have 10 days to submit an answering brief. The two briefs will then be read by the law committee of the State department, who will make a recommendation to the State Board of Education, which will then make a final decision. Appeal of the decision by either Belleville body can then be made if desired to the Appellate Division of the State Superior Court.

Several questions remain unanswered at this time. Just what approach the town will take in its appeal is not presently clear. The special counsel hired by the Commissioners, Sam Christiano, met earlier this week with Amato to review the case. Christiano, who is the attorney for the West Orange Board of Education, told the Times he will carefully study the state's decision with Amato and then map out his brief, probably some time this week.

Also unanswered is the issue of whether Board members will bring lawsuits upon themselves if they spend the restored money while the budget is on appeal. After the Board publicly announced its intentions to spend the restored funds, a Belleville lawyer, who preferred to remain unidentified, told the Times that Board members might incur personal liability if they spend the money.

The Times asked Christiano, who will handle the bulk of the case for the town, whether the Board could legally spend the money. Christiano declined to comment, saying he would prefer to reserve opinion until he has reviewed the entire case. Amato said there does exist the possibility of lawsuits, but emphasized that it is only a possibility.

Another question in the air is where will the Board get the money to spend. The school body receives budgeted funds from the town Commissioner of Finance. Although the town fathers won't publicly say so, there exists a distinct possibility that the school body's application for the $128,000 may be denied.

Knights Oppose Abortion Change

The Belleville Council 835, Knights of Columbus, have come out against recent state proposals to change abortion laws.

The group has sent letters to the Governor, all Essex County senators and assemblymen, protesting against what they called the "tampering" with the state abortion laws.

In their letters, the group said, "We feel that the laws on the books at the present time are adequate to take care of the situation that exists. There has been no evidence introduced that require any change in our abortion laws.

The letter was signed by Grand Knight Carl Foscatto and William Caffrey, chairman of the Knights committee on public decency.

The Knights also earmarked a letter to the President of the United States, asking for removal of two American Civil Liberties Union members from the Presidential Commission on Obscenity and Pornography. In their letters, the Knights said: "It has come to our attention that the chairman and general counsel of the Presidential Commission on Obscenity and Pornography, are members of the American Civil Liberties Union and that one of them sits on their executive board."

"The executive director in New York has announced that the ACLU has made it loud and clear that the traffic in obscene and antitheistic propaganda could not exist without the protection of the ACLU."

"We feel that the work of this commission should not be hampered by an ACLU membership. We respectfully request that you remove these two gentlemen from the commission and that you replace them with independent and unhampered personnel."

Vets Get First Look At Outside

Twenty paraplegic veterans from the East Orange Veterans Hospital made their first trip off hospital grounds to be the guests of the Belleville Amvets Post 26. The men were treated to a Turkey dinner on November 26 by the local post members.

The disabled veterans were brought to Belleville in two ambulances provided by the town, and one donated by ex-Mayor of Newark, Anthony Imperiale. The wives and families of the veterans were also in attendance.

The Amvets provided a complete turkey dinner and entertainment, consisting of several local singers and a band.

Chairmen for the affair, State Commander Michael Marotti and Al Pico, said the PREPARING STRATEGY — Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato (right) and attorney Sam Christiano prepare themselves for the town's Commission's appeal before the State Department of Education. Christiano, who is West Orange Board of Education attorney, has argued before the state body numerous times and was hired because of his experience.

Boys Will Have Xmas In Old Elks Auditorium

The old Elks Auditorium on Washington Avenue will be the setting for the 14th annual Christmas Party sponsored by the Kenneth D. Smith Association. The Boys of Monsignor Egan's New Jersey Boystown will again be the guests of the association on December 21.

For the past 14 years the boys of Boystown travel across the river from their home on top of the bluff overlooking the Passaic River to spend the afternoon with members of the association and their friends in Belleville. The association has picked this sort of an affair to bring the true meaning of the Christmas spirit of sharing their good fortune with others. The Elks auditorium is being decorated with Christmas lights and tinsel. A large Christmas tree piled high with gifts will be on the stage. There will also be a large chair awaiting a visit from the "Man in the Red Velvet Suit."

Looking back to the days when the party was first started, the members said they feel a deep sense of pride which they share with Monsignor Egan. In those days, Boystown was different than it is today. The boys were housed in the old building, many of them sleeping on mattresses on the floor, many ill clothed, etc. Standard bearer Mayor Kenneth Smith asked how could he help these boys, and the good Monsignor said, "In any small way that you can, - shirts, socks, pants, anything". So the idea of giving a gift of clothing was born. And from a small beginning, the stacks of gifts grow every year and have reached the point where the stage at the Elks auditorium is covered with presents.

Other organizations learned of what the Kenneth D. Smith Association did, and they soon began to help and today Boystown, with its new buildings, as a tribute to Monsignor Egan.

The cost of admission to the affair is set at $2 per person to defray the cost of the party. Each boy will receive a gift.

Tickets for the party are available through the following committee members: Mary Senatore, honorary chairman; Ann McGee, chairman; Rita Zarro, co-chairman; Mildred Benequista, ticket chairman;

School Board Promotes Man To Head Spot

The Belleville Board of Education, having amended its current school budget to include the $128,000 restored by the State Commissioner of Education settled down to routine business.

The school body approved at its last meeting the transfer of Morris Paserchia from the position of assistant head custodian at the Junior High School to elementary head custodian, effective December 15 through June 30, 1970, at an annual salary of $12,000.

Belleville Drops East Orange Tilt For Two Years

Belleville High School Athletic Director Herman Wische is scanning the area for an opening day opponent for next year's football team. Grid contests with East Orange, the traditional opening foe for the Bellboys, have been cancelled by the Belleville Board of Education for a period of two years because of a riot caused by East Orange students at this year's game. In making his announcement for the Board, Wische did not discount the possibility of future football games with the East Orange school, but said it was unlikely that the two teams would meet in the near future.

Wische also reported that Clifton will take Garfield's place on the 1971-72 Bellboy grid schedule. Clifton is considered a powerhouse in Passaic County and will toughen up the Bellboy's already rough schedule which includes Nutley, Bloomfield and Irvington.

Meanwhile Wische has been contacting several schools in the area to find a replacement for East Orange. An announcement of Belleville's opening day needs has been placed in newspapers with statewide circulation.

The Bellboys almost landed perennial state powerhouse Phillipsburg as their opponent. Wische reports that he had been negotiating with that school but

Robbers Sought By Cops

Belleville Police are looking for three men who held up Rossmore's Pharmacy in broad daylight Monday, and made off with a supply of narcotics and an undisclosed amount of cash.

Police are questioning five eye witnesses who have stated that the men were armed and unmasked.

Belleville Detectives Frank Falcone and Barton Rossi said they are searching for three negro males in a dark colored Pontiac. A man walking past the pharmacy said he observed three men leave the scene in a Pontiac. The witness said he did not record a license number because he was unaware of the robbery.

Vincent Cozzarelli, proprietor of the pharmacy, told police that the robbery occurred at approximately 11 a.m. when the three men entered with guns. Police said one of the hold-up men hit Cozzarelli on the side of his head with a gun. Cozzarelli told police it was an action without provocation.

According to a statement filed by Cozzarelli, the men locked him and four other people in a bathroom. Locked up with Cozzarelli were his brother Raymond; his father, Joseph and two women customers.

Rossmore's Pharmacy is located at 338 Washington Avenue.

For years, the after-effects of drug and gas anesthetics have been a problem to both doctors and patients. Now, a new technique — still highly experimental — may mean an end to postoperative nausea and dizziness. Researchers at the University of Tennessee are using electric currents to put patients to sleep. The current, which is delivered through platinum electrodes, seems to affect the thalamus of the brain by blocking out "pain signals". The patient falls asleep almost immediately and usually awakens within a few minutes after the current is discontinued. This method appears to be well on the way toward solving another of medicine's irksome problems. Eliminate prescription problems with fast service. # Acting Out Frustrations Figures In Safety

WARNING — Deputy Police Chief Harry Tepe today warned drivers of the hazards of bad weather motoring.

Acting Chief of Police Harry Tepe today advised Belleville's drivers to start "acting out their frustrations" if they want to improve their winter driving know-how.

"Before I'm misunderstood and accused of being completely inconsistent in that recommendation," the chief added, "let me explain: 'The 'frustrations' I'm referring to are the two major winter problems confronting drivers — inadequate traction and reduced visibility. 'Acting out' simply represents positive habits a driver can develop so that he knows how to react and is able to cope with winter's snow and ice problems."

Acting Chief Tepe's "habits" that should be practiced until they become virtually automatic reactions to winter problems are based on six steps to safer winter driving recommended by the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards and endorsed by the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

"You can develop and practice these habits, even in good weather and on dry roads," the chief emphasized. "You should do so because when winter's tricks catch up with you, it's too late then to try to learn them. You have to react instinctively and correctly," said the Chief.

HABIT NO. 1 — Develop the practice of getting the "feel" of the road every time you start to drive. Apply your brakes gradually. On a dry road you'll get a reading of how your brakes are working. On any kind of a slick surface you'll find out where the skid point is. On ice or packed snow, accelerating carefully to see when the wheels spin will also give you the "feel" of the surface. Reduce speed accordingly.

HABIT NO. 2 — Increase your following distance. Remember, it takes three to nine times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry pavement. And even on dry pavement, the rule-of-thumb is one car length for every ten miles an hour of speed. Chances are you crowd the car ahead, even when conditions are ideal!

HABIT NO. 3 — Practice how to "pump" your brakes to slow or stop whenever traffic conditions permit. An intermittent pumping action three to five times per second keeps wheels rolling while you maintain steering control. When you're headed for a smashup is no time to learn this good habit!

HABIT NO. 4 — Always drive on good tires with good threads. For driving on snow, conventional snow tires provide half again as much pulling power as regular tires. On ice, studded snow tires offer still more help.

HABIT NO. 5 — When there's a chance you'll encounter severe snow or ice conditions, be sure you have reinforced tire chains in your car — and use them! They provide four to seven times as much traction on snow or ice as regular tires.

HABIT NO. 6 — Keep your windshield and windows clear at all times. Replace streaking wiper blades gone dead from exposure to sun, wind and oily road film. Be sure your windshield washer solution contains adequate windshield anti-freeze and solvent. (Don't use radiator anti-freeze for this purpose.)

"Winter driving isn't too much different from year 'round driving — it's only more so," the chief pointed out, but he added, "that 'more so' is important.

"It's too late to learn in a January storm what should have become a habit in December!"

State Senator Elected For Advisory Board

Alexander J. Matturri has been elected a member of the Commuter Office Advisory Board of Carteret Savings and Loan Association. Carteret's Commuter Office is located in the Penn-Central Railroad Station.

Sen. Matturri, who was elected a state Senator from Essex County in 1968, is a Newark attorney and former member of the United States Conciliation Commission in Rome. He is currently Chairman of the state Public Welfare Commission and is former chairman of both the Newark Housing Authority and the State Government Committee for the New Jersey Senate.

East Orange Tilt Sent To Showers Indefinitely

Wische would like to pick up a Big Ten Conference school and will talk with conference schools at the next meeting of the Big Ten. High on Wische's list is Columbia High School, which has no opponent on September 27, the day of the East Orange-Belleville game.

The move by the local school board comes after two months study of an incident which occurred after the Bellboys upset East Orange on September 26. Two hundred East Orange fans stopped buses containing Belleville students and hurled rocks and bricks through bus windows, injuring 26 students and prompting severe criticism throughout the county.

Significance of Chanukah

By Rabbi Hyman Danzig
of Temple B'nai Israel

Chanukah, the Jewish "Feast of Lights" or "Feast of Dedication" is usually associated with Christmas because both festivals occur during the month of December. However, Chanukah is not for Jews, what Christmas is for Christians. While for Christians, Christmas is a major holiday, for Jews, Chanukah is a minor holiday, religiously; it's message, however, may be regarded as of major importance.

Since the word "Chanukah" or "Hanukkah" (either word is correct) means "dedication", it refers particularly to the rededication of the holy Temple at Jerusalem in the year 168 B.C.E. The particular story associated with the Festival is the tale of how that dedication was achieved - a heroic bloody battle of resistance by a small band of Jews under Judah the Maccabee against the tyranny of the Syrian King Antiochus IV. And, since the end was achieved through war and death, it is designated in the Hebrew calendar as a minor holiday. Back of the narrative, however, lies the recognition of something deeper. What Chanukah really celebrates is the inalienable right to human beings to their own character and identity.

What it asserts is not the right of every man to do as he pleases, but to be a servant of God and in that service to defy tyrants and oppressors. Without some commitment to an ideal, no man is worthy of being regarded as "created in the image of God." For this reason, Chanukah is not antiquated, but an occasion of ever-living contemporary significance. Its symbol is the light within man that never fails.

When Judah and his followers cleansed the Temple as they ousted the enemy, they found one small cruse of oil-untouched and undefiled - which they lit, and which miraculously burned for eight days instead of one. It is this portion of the tale that is given emphasis in the Jewish religion. Traditionally, therefore, every Jewish home possesses a Menorah - an eight-branched candlestick - which is lit at sunset, beginning with one candle on the first night and adding one on each following night of the holiday until the eighth night when all the candles are lit. Significantly, do we find in the Book of Proverbs "The spirit of man is the lamp of the Lord." (20:27) and the psalmist declared: "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." (119:105)

Special note: Since this year's Hebrew calendar is a Leap Year, an additional month is added. Consequently the Festival of Chanukah occurs several weeks earlier than Christmas. It begins Thursday evening, December 4 and concludes on Friday, December 12. Throughout the week, candle-lighting ceremonies will be held in the religious school of Temple B'nai Israel. The Sisterhood of the congregation will distribute gifts to the students following the special program held on Sunday morning, December 7.

New Drafting System

The lottery system of selecting draftees, approved by the Senate last week, will provide some immediate relief to the young men of this country. It also will underscore the need for further reform necessary for a fair and equitable draft. Draftees will find that it will introduce more certainty into their personal lives but they also will find that the same web of deferments and varying standards between draft boards remains.

For example, a young man in one county, though with a lottery number of 36, may still find himself in the Army while his friend in the next county with the same number remains a civilian.

What lottery selection by itself will accomplish is quite limited. A national drawing will be held each year in two steps. First, the 365 days of the year will be scrambled and then drawn to determine the sequence of selection. For instance, if October 24 is drawn first, then all those whose birthday falls on that date will be the first to be called by their draft boards in the next year.

A second drawing will determine the alphabetical order which will be applied to these men. Each draft board by law will be required to use this schedule in determining which of their eligible men are drafted first.

The advantage of this system is that a young man will enter a one year period of maximum vulnerability at age 19, except during the first year when all registrants under 26 years of age will be subject to the drawing. If the random draw does not assign a young man a low number, the chances are that he will not be drafted except in the event of a national emergency. Unlike the present situation, in which he spends seven years waiting to be called, he will be able to embark upon a career, reasonably sure that it will not be interrupted.

So the institution of the lottery system is only the beginning of draft reform. Whether a number drawn means induction will still depend upon the arbitrary factor where a young man happens to be registered. And there are still no national guidelines governing the administration of deferments or the decision an individual draft board makes.

For example, one board may be lenient in granting occupational deferments, in which case the pool of young men eligible for the national drawing would be reduced to the extent that an apparently favorable lottery number still could mean induction.

I voted for the lottery selection amendment before the Senate because it would have been a gross disservice to the young men of this country to delay any improvement which could be made immediately.

A number of us in the Senate are continuing to press for comprehensive revision of the draft, and the Senate Armed Services Committee has finally agreed to begin hearings in February. At these hearings I intend to call for national guidelines governing deferments, a simplified appeals process, and more centralized administration of the selective service system.

Reform is urgent. Under the present system, a whole generation of potential leaders now is growing up with a cynical view of the obligations of national service. Some exploit the unfairness of the system to avoid entirely their responsibilities. Others, without occupational or educational advantages, are inducted and die in Vietnam. We can and must improve the system by which our young men are selected to risk their lives for us.

Who Wins These Contests?

Any citizen with a respectable address or who is on any professional or consumer list periodically receives all sorts of solicitations concerning prizes. And most of the time he isn't required to purchase anything.

Cards, trips all over the world, thousands of dollars in cash and various other things constitute the prizes. There are so many contests one wonders from time to time why he doesn't hear about more winners.

Do you know someone nearby, a neighbor or acquaintance who has won one of the hundred-thousand-dollar contests? Those who know winners seem to be few and far between. Yet there are more and more contests and one wonders whether all this money is actually given away, or if most of it is and whether it is given away on a fair chance basis as claimed.

The Federal Trade Commission, or some agency acting in the public's interest, should provide proper supervision of publicly-announced contests to insure that the rules, prizes and conditions match claims.

Eating and Dining Out

It was once said that most of us eat and some of us dine. In a sense, there is a lot to that statement.

What it points to is that fact that some of us appreciate foods, proper cooking and seasoning, and so on, more than others. All of us have to eat to live whether we are happy with plain food, prepared with little effort, or whether we are gourmets, appreciating the fine points of taste and seasoning.

It is probably true that those who study the world's best recipes and know something about the dishes of the great restaurants, and who appreciate the varied possibilities in food preparation enjoy meals more than those who have little time to give to this trend of thought.

Americans are too prone to eat in a hurry, swallow it down and get on to work or some other pursuit. Europeans, on the other hand, will take from an hour to an hour and a half ending up a splendid meal of several courses with cheese and wine, or cheese and fruit.

If you don't how to start, buy a couple of cookbooks preferably one or two describing foreign dishes and begin by preparing several of the recipes yourself.

Grid Fans Review High School Season

By John Bunevich

Question: Taking all things into consideration, what did you think of this year's high school football team as compared to pre-season expectations? Asked: of Nutley and Belleville football fans.

Mr. Ronald Mariano - 67 Linden Avenue, Belleville

On the whole, I think they were better than last year. I attended several Belleville games this year and the thing that impressed me most was the Belleville defense. The East Orange-Belleville game was in my opinion, the best played by our team. In that game, the defense excelled and the offense took advantage of the breaks. Next year's prospects look pretty good. The defense should be as strong, if not stronger, and the quarterbacking will be just as good.

Mr. Joseph Pepe 280 Harrison Street, Nutley

I think the players and coaches did a great job. My pre-season expectations were for an undefeated season. I honestly feel this could have been accomplished if it were not for the injuries and a few bad breaks. As for next year's team, they should do well. They have a good nucleus returning and the boys will be more familiar with Coach Federici's system. I predict a championship season next year, provided there are no key injuries and the fullback and quarterback slots can be filled. Mr. Donald Vicaro, 140 Conover Avenue, Nutley.

The Nutley squad had a good season even with all the bad breaks there were. I don't want to get into the officiating, but that bad call in the Montclair game was the difference between winning and losing. In my opinion, the only game Nutley should have lost was the Westfield game. They should have won the Bloomfield and Columbia games. The coach did a good job considering it was his first year, but next year there are no excuses especially with the material he will have.

Sharon Halbert, 410 Franklin Avenue, Belleville

I think the team was great. They did much better than what was expected of them. They were a determined team and really wanted to win. They had all the desire. They had a much better ball club than the season before last and I think they proved it. In fact, the record shows it. I'm a varsity cheerleader and was at all the games so I know that the boys got a few bad breaks and the officials were wrong on some calls. Belleville will have a better team next year because the junior varsity and freshman squads have great teams this year.

Mr. Pepe

Mr. Vicaro

Seema Only Yesterday

One Year Ago

Angelo Nardone, owner of the Villa Capri, a haven for obscure art treasures, decided to file suit against 10 Belleville officials for a "vicious conspiracy" directed at his establishment. One of the major charges used as evidence in defense of his accusation resided in his criticism of the Belleville Police Department. Mr. Nardone claimed that several times when youths threw rocks at the windows of the Villa he had requested the police action but his plea fell on deaf ears and there was no investigation of the vandalism. Consequently, Nardone decided to sue those who were striving to put him out of business.

The Belleville Board of Education promulgated job classifications with the possibility of establishing employment lists. In order to be placed on the lists, Howard Dufford, business administrator, specified that those interested would have to contact the board's business office.

5 Years Ago

The Belleville Town Council, by a 4-1 vote, adopted an ordinance relating to the issuance of licenses and fees for the businesses, occupations, and activities of the Town. The ordinance was amended at the meeting in a hurried manner in order that it might go into effect by the New Year. Councilman James R. Golden cast the negative vote on the amended ordinance in the belief that the revision made at the meeting was unfair to certain citizens of the Town who were not present at the meeting to voice objection.

Town merchants, on the other hand, were up in arms over the ordinance, which would increase the licensing fees hundreds of per cents over the then existing fees. Spearheaded by the Chamber of Commerce, local merchants planned a series of appeals to the court for the rescinding of the controversial ordinance.

10 Years Ago

The merits of private versus public garbage collection became the concern of Belleville Commissioner Nuncio R. Pico, Director of Public Affairs. According to Pico's study, each system had advantages and disadvantages. "With capable management, qualified personnel, adequate equipment, and freedom from politics, the municipal collection system could be effective and economical." Pico further stipulated that "under favorable conditions contract collection could also render satisfactory service." The important point is the preparation of the specifications and efficient follow-up to enforce all the regulations.

A Washington Avenue Merchants' Association was formed in a meeting at the Town Hall, at which some 35 persons, representing some 26 businesses along the avenue, attended. Mr. Frank Megaro of 55 Cleveland St., former owner of the Empire Lumber Yard, was made president of the association. Megaro commented that there was an abundance of facilities for a shopping center in Belleville, but not enough get-togetherness. He remarked that Washington Ave. was dead and "We've got to bury its ghost."

15 Years Ago

Indicted Belleville officials, including Hugh Welsh, Deputy Public Works Director and Ralph Vara, superintendent, were required to stand trial on conspiring to violate the public bidding law, and misfeasance, after the New Year. Prosecutor Charles V. Webb announced the decision as a follow-up of the appellate division of the Superior Court's ruling to deny defense attorneys permission to appeal a refusal to dismiss indictments.

25 Years Ago

Twenty-Five Years Ago It cost the town $800 to replace trees which were destroyed in a hurricane of September.

Dr. O. Bell Close, pastor of French Memorial Church, marked his 50th anniversary as a minister by delivering the same sermon he had preached at the age of 17 in Tennessee.

40 Years Ago

Members of the Friday Afternoon Card Club entertained their husbands with a theatre party at the Casino Theatre, New York, where the musical comedy "New Moon" was performed. After the play, the group had dinner at the Palo D'oro on Broadway.

50 Years Ago

A dinner and entertainment was given in honor of Belleville Club members who served in the World War. There were 19 members in the service and all had returned but one, Gregory H. Davey having been killed in action in an accident in California.

Miss Evelyn Hallberg, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. P. Hallberg, was recovering from a broken arm.

Give Us Some Publicity Says The Sabre Cadets

To the Editor:

I would like to know what is required to have an article inserted in the Belleville Times.

I have sent in through the mails, and even delivered in person to the Belleville office and the Nutley office, as recently as two weeks ago, articles regarding the Sabre Cadets of Belleville Post 105, American Legion and it seems that all I am doing is learning my way around Belleville and Nutley. Outfits from all over are getting publicity and a local group gets nothing.

Quite a while back a letter was sent in thanking our Mayor and Commissioners for the help that they gave us on our Tag Day Drive. Not a sign of it anywhere in the paper. At this time and if this letter gets published, we would like to, thank the Mayor and Commission, even though it is belated.

The Sabre Cadets are a group of boys and girls ranging in age from 10 to 16 who are very dedicated to the Corps, and if nothing else, the articles show them that someone cares.

Belleville Lions Club Hears Talk On Population Explosion

The implications of the population explosion were explained to the Belleville Lions Club at the Fountain Restaurant on November 13.

Howard L. Tiger, a retired industrialist from West Orange, who is currently vice president of Planned Parenthood - Essex County, discussed the effect of the rapidly rising population of the world on health, education and economics.

He said that at the current rate of growth the population will increase by 1 billion in 18 years. It took the last 40 years to grow by that amount and before then it took 400 years. In the United States the population increase will require the equivalent of a new city with a population of 250,000 every 40 days.

His population studies have taken him throughout the world and he spent several months in South America evaluating the effect of Alliance for Progress, sponsored and funded by the United States, on the local population. He predicted that

Waterfowl Population Rises According To Wildlife Bureau

According to George N. Alpaugh, Chief, Bureau of Wildlife Management, Division of Fish and Game, New Jersey coastal waterfowl populations are building up, as the fall migration progresses.

The latest aerial survey, conducted by State Wildlife Biologists on November 19, just prior to the re-opening of the duck season on November 21, found an estimated 360,850 waterfowl along the coastal survey area.

The estimate is about 19,000 above the November survey of last year, and can be partially attributed to the cold weather to the north earlier in the month.

the population growth in underdeveloped countries and in poverty pockets in the U.S. will exceed the economic growth in those areas and that unless improvements are undertaken, the people in those areas will be worse off than they are now.

Belleville Girls At Berkeley

Three Belleville residents are among students entering The Berkeley School, East Orange, in its most recent session.

The school, which is now operating on a quarter system, will begin its next class on Monday.

Enrolled from Belleville are the Misses Deborah Fresolone of 24 Forest Street, Kathy Massa, 38 Dawson Street and Sandra Zvolensky, 50 Plenge Drive.

Miss Fresolone is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen D. Fresolone; Miss Massa, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Massa; Miss Zvolensky, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zvolensky. All are graduates of Belleville High School.

Irwin J. Goldman Appointed Lions Club Deputy Governor

Bernard Sobel, Lions governor of District 16E which encompasses 65 Lions Clubs in Essex, Union, Morris and Warren Counties, has appointed Dr. Irwin J. Goldman as deputy governor.
As deputy governor, Dr. Goldman will oversee two zone chairmen and seven Lions Clubs in his area. His duties will include working with the zone chairmen. He will be involved with joint club meetings and make visitations to each of the Clubs in his region. In addition, as deputy he is a member of the District cabinet and assists in making district policy.
He did his under-graduate work at Wittenberg College in Springfield, Ohio and graduate studies at Penn State College of Optometry. He opened his practice in 1948 and has specialized in contact lenses since that time. He is a member of the N.J. Optometry Society, Bergen-Passaic Optometric Society, Optometric Extension Program and serves on the staff of the Vis on Crusade Foundation.

Civic-minded, Dr. Goldman is membership chairman of the Nutley Chamber of Commerce, member of the Nutley Lodge No. 167 F. & A.M., Nutley Lodge No. 1290, B.P. O. E., Passaic-Clifton YM-YWHA, and has just been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Nutley Family Service Bureau.
He and his wife, Yvette, and daughter, Lisa Gail, all reside in Nutley and have been living there ever since he opened his office in town.

Public Health Service's Info On Smoking Reveals Problems
The U.S. Public Health Service's recently released third report on smoking adds fuel to the anti-cigarette campaign and places greater responsibility on the pharmacist.
That point was made today by Albert C. Meyer, New Jersey Pharmaceutical Association president, who said the inclusion of stomach cancer among deadly diseases traced to smoking "makes the pharmacist a key in early carcinoma detection while treatment still can save lives."

Mayor Smith Reports Fund Nears Goal

Mayor Kenneth Smith, honorary chairman of the current United Community Fund campaign, has reported that the drive in Belleville now stands at $6,084 for 60% of this year's goal.
Smith appealed to all residents of the town to get their contributions in so that the campaign can meet its quota. He stated that work will continue in an effort to finish up and make the goal before the budget meetings for agencies begin next month. Allocations to the 113 member agencies for 1970 are based upon campaign results.

Seniors Warmup....

PAT LA MORTE — Senior defensive back Pat La Morte adjusts his elbow pad in preparation for his final game as a Bellboy griddier. La Morte turned in one of his finest efforts against Orange on Thanksgiving Day, pacing the defense with five unassisted tackles and five assists.

ROY NEWMAN — Co-captain Roy Newman waits in line during a pre-game warmup drill. The senior defensive tackle will be missing next year in the Bellboy's fine defensive unit.

VINNIE COSTANTINO — Co-captain Vinnie Costantino wears the Bellboy warmup beanie for the last time. The senior offensive end closed out a fine year. Vinnie will be back in a different uniform soon, as he begins basketball practice.

VINNIE CAPPETTA — Defensive back Vinnie Cappetta takes a breather in pre-game warmups. The senior, who was hurt most of the season, had a fine game with four unassisted and four assisted tackles, and was awarded the game ball by coach John Amabile.

While Pre-Game Show Builds Tension. . . .

PREPARATIONS — Junior High School Principal Sy Grossman gives some last second instructions to "float" girls (from left) Sandy Nyguard and Carol Masi, before the float depicting football's centennial spirit is drawn onto the field in a pre-game ceremony. Grossman was co-chairman (along with high school principal Ray Smith) of the centennial celebration committee.

Caruso Tears Loose And The Bellboys Get Rolling.

OFF HE GOES — Ricky Caruso scrambles over the goal line after a 30 yard burst for his first of two touchdowns. The star halfback rolled up 84 season points and will return next year to raise more havoc.

BREAKING AWAY — Junior halfback Ricky Caruso breaks away from a would be Orange tackler for a seven yard gain. The speedy runner gained 156 yards on 24 carries.

NOT THIS TIME — Rich Della Terza (45) opens up his side for Ricky Caruso to come through, but the hole was clogged and Ricky was held at the line of scrimmage.

MISSED — Vinnie "Gluefingers" Costantino prepares for what he hopes is a reception from Joe Papaidero. Vinnie and hometown fans were disappointed. Better luck in basketball Vinnie.

KEY PLAY — Doug Brown and an Orange offensive end fly through the air in a vain attempt to retrieve this pass. Defensive back Mark Bradley was positioned perfectly, picked it off, and ran 55 yards for the second Bellboy touchdown.

UP HE GOES — Doug Brown soars through Orange defenders with the aid of an Alan De Feo block, picking up 15 big yards. Doug gave the explosive Bellboy backfield a great lift with his 105 yards gained in 24 carries.

Some Rough Tackling

BEAUTY QUEEN — Among the many spectators in Municipal Stadium stands for the annual Thanksgiving Day football game was pretty Marilyn Casale, Miss Belleville. Marilyn was home on vacation from West Chester State College where she is a sophomore.

HARD TACKLE—Senior Pat La Morte (21) puts his shoulder into Oranges Robert Parsil after Parsil caught a pass. La Morte's jarring tackle knocks the ball loose and Belleville recovers on Oranges 38 yard line.

HITTING LOW — Vinnie Cappetta makes it rough going for Oranges Frank Riccardelli (24) after the runner gained 11 yards.

SITTING IT OUT — Senior All-State candidate Joe Ritacco watches defensive action from a strange position—the bench. The rugged end suffered a severe cut of the chin and was forbidden by the team doctor to remain in the game.

SOUVENIR — Enthusiastic fans were prevented from hauling down the varsity goal posts by Belleville Police, but apparently weren't deterred from attacking the defenseless freshman field goal posts.

MAN ON THE SPOT — One of the men behind the scenes who makes the Bellboys run is team manager Jim DiRuggerio. During the game Jim takes charge of all team equipment.

BLAST OFF — Bulling his way through the Orange line is the Bellboys star halfback, Ricky Caruso, who picks up 12 yards. Ricky picks up blocks here from Jim Miele (25) and John Mango (53).

HIGH LEVEL TALK — Quarterback Joe Papisidoro discusses a tight third down situation with coach John Amabile. Joe regained the starting position against Orange and played a good game, engineering the Bellboys to victory.

Bellboys Close Out Season With Balanced Triumph

NOT QUITE — Orange's quarterback Ralph Sapio just manages to loft this pass over the rushing arms of John Atherton. Sapio was constantly under pressure and went 4-18 in passing. Atherton made two unassisted and 8 assisted tackles.

SMOTHERED — Rugged Bellboy defenders team up to smother this Orange runner. Vinnie Cappetta (31), who was awarded game ball, and Sal Bivona (15), put the squeeze on Frank Riccardelli after a two yard gain.

GOT YOU — Bellboy defensive end Ron Muscara tries to throw Ralph Sapio, Orange QB for a loss, but just misses.

Ritacco, Caruso Await All-Star Berths

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Every once in a while the writer takes time off to shop the "competition", although we feel that there really is not much competition for us, because 98 out of 100 stores selling TV and phonographs do not do their own service. They don't want to have anything to do with the most important part of any purchase, which is the service. For this they give you a number to call or tell you to call "authorized factory service". We feel sorry for anybody who gets involved in such a deal. Nobody in his right sense would buy an automobile from a dealer if he does not have his own service facility. Imagine buying a new automobile and if it needs service, to be told to go to the gas station up the street, which provides "factory authorized service".

On our shopping excursion we went to one department store that had a number of color TV sets turned on, one of which had a good picture as it should be. The others were bad. When we asked the clerk how come, he said that this one with the good picture was a better set, as everyone could see. He did not say that the other sets were deliberately misadjusted. This is about the lowest a store can stoop, in this man's opinion. We tried some of the other sets and found that they were, obviously deliberately, set up wrongly. In order to show a good picture, a color TV receiver has to be initially adjusted by a knowledgeable technician. When we called the clerk on this, he sneered and said: so you are a wise guy, eh? What can one do with people like that but turn away in disgust?

There is very little, if any, difference between different manufacturer's color TV sets, provided they are properly adjusted initially. After that, it is a matter of individual taste how you like the colors, which can be done exactly to your personal liking.

We service what we sell.

Bellboys Triumph Over Tornadoes

The Bellboys rapped up a successful season on Thanksgiving with a 20-0 victory over Orange, but for two team members, the year is not quite over.

Ricky Caruso and Joe Ritacco, will be playing the waiting game. The two stars are hoping to receive word of their selection to post-season all-star teams.

Ritacco, a senior end whom coach John Amabile calls his best player, has been nominated for All-State honors. Films of Ritacco are currently being reviewed by the Newark News All-State selection committee.

Caruso, with 804 yards gained rushing and 84 points scored deserves at least All-County recognition.

Ritacco was forced to sit on the bench Saturday after sustaining a severely cut chin earlier in the game. His all-around defensive and offensive play, however has prodded Amabile to nominate the star for the state's biggest football honor.

So much has been said of Caruso's performances throughout the season, that it is hard to say anything new about the junior halfback. Four times he has amassed over 100 yards in a game, with his best performance coming against Kearny. In that game the fleet back thrilled hometown fans with four touchdowns and 192 yards rushing. His other highs were 114 yards against Passaic, 110 yards against Garfield and 156 on Turkey Day. His only bad game was with Nutley, where he was held to two yards rushing.

The Bellboys have come along way under Coach Amabile, winning their last three games in a row. Over those three games, the rugged Bellboy defense gave up only six points.

Hometown fans were treated to a great menu of football on Turkey Day, with the Bellboys riding roughshod over Orange, 20-0. Picking out individual stars for the game is difficult.

There was Caruso with his 156 yards and two TD's. Doug Brown was superb racking up 105 yards on 24 carries. Mark Bradley, Belleville's other member of the "fearsome junior threesome", ran for 51 yards including a 35 yard burst. Bradley also thrilled the crowd with a 55 yard interception that he raced with down the sidelines for a touchdown.

Joe Papisidero took back his job as quarterback from Joe Lotruglio who was yanked by Amabile after some opening miscues.

Defensively, Pat La Morte and Vinnie Cappetta were the tackling stars, figuring in 10 and eight stops respectively. Cappetta was given a game ball along with defensive back Dennis Gray.

Amabile cleared the bench in the winning effort, allowing everyone to see action.

Statistically the Bellboys crushed the Tornadoes, amassing an advantage of 320 to 33. The home town team also had 15 first downs to seven for Orange.

The Bellboys thus end their campaign with a 6-3 mark, and with a hard core of juniors returning promise to be one of the toughest clubs in Essex County.

This week the Star Ledger ranked Belleville tenth in Essex County, and the Newark News ranked them fifth in North Jersey, Section II, Group 4. A complete rap-up of the season, including an in-depth interview with Coach John Amabile will be featured in the Times next week.

THE LAST VICTORY — Muddled but victorious, the 1969 Bellboy squad raises the victory sign after clobbering Orange on Thanksgiving Day, 20-0, to bring their season record to a good 6-3 under coach John Amabile. Holding game balls aloft are Vinnie Cappetta (left) and Dennis Gray (11), who were cited by Amabile for an excellent game. Hot dogs, laughter and reminiscing marked the end of the season for the Bellboys, most of whom are juniors and will see action again next year.

OLD TIMERS — Those gentlemen on the field waving are no strangers to Municipal Stadium. Although some are overweight, balding or greying, all at one time starred on the Bellboy gridiron. They were introduced before the annual Thanksgiving Day game as representatives of past Belleville teams, previous to 1955. Their appearance was part of a pre-game centennial celebration.

Biancardis Win Final Rec Game

The recreation football leagues closed another season with four thrilling games. In the Heavyweights the Biancardis dealt out a loss to the Jolly Cleaners 33-0. The Biancardi coaches gave great credit to the scrappy Jollys who slugged it out although their team had dwindled to just eleven men through sickness and other situations throughout the season.

Looking over their season in which they lost only to the American Legion the coaches heaped their praises on Biancardi linemen John Valvano, Angelo and Vito Guarino, Donald Liloia and Mark Massa who opened the way for the backs. Also praise by the coaches were backs Mike Dondarski, Joe Mozioka, John Megna and Billy Telesco. Joe scored four touchdowns in the last game to raise his seasons total to sixteen. The coaches praised the defensive work of Steve Nardone, Frank Falcone, Harry Baumgartner, Vinnie DeNotaris, Gary Goglia and Charlie Ortiz.

For a while it looked as though Devons might topple mighty American Legion. The Devon Electric boys got off to a 7-6 lead in the first period and held it through the second and third quarters. Then their lack of reserves began to tell as the Legion ground out two touchdowns in the last quarter. This left the American Legion undefeated and untied champions of the 1969

Heavyweight League. The Devons and the Jolly ended in a tie for third place.

The Lightweight Lions, having already tied the Kiwanis came up with another tie, this time a scoreless battle with the greatly improved Elks. This game was a masterpiece of the defensive play.

In the other lightweight game the Varsity Club fought a valiant battle against the champion Kiwanis but just couldn't mount a scoring effort. This game gave the Kiwanis an undefeated season.

Annual Turkey Shoot Is Held

Commissioner William Cullen, this week, announced the winners of the Recreation Department's Turkey Shoot. One hundred and eighty sharpshooters came out to seek bids for their Thanksgiving tables. Out of every flight of five shooters one was a winner and received a certificate for a twelve pound turkey.

Phil Newsome, the shoot director was ably assisted by range officer Matt Callahan and scorer Russ Hopkins. Also on hand to make the event run well were Ronald Marino, Frank Magnotti, Tony Caruso and recreation Superintendent Bob Cook. Shooting was done against luck targets which means that the riflemen couldn't see the scores on the targets as they shot.

In the very first flight there was a tie between Anthony Wieners and Richard Haug with Anthony winning the shoot-off. The other winners were Joe Lescota, Jack Vogel, Sam Kowitz, Manuel Rodriguez, Charles Cozzarella, Jim Miele, Jess Hughes, Vincent Brienza, Izzadore Padula Jr., Elmer Reed, Peggy Reed, Arthur Capozzi, John Dean, Vincent Marcogliese and Vincent Fagan. Also winning was Robert Cook, John Saychuk, Alan DeFeo, L. Daycey, Leigh Johnson, S. Tyrapak, John Murphy, Richard Bradley, Edward Schoenfelder, R. Stanko, Mike Malfatto, Ron Mariano, Gregory Capece, Ray Flagg, and D. Vales.

Sports Corner

By John McCarthy

Wrestling season has come to Belleville High again. You can tell this by the sight of about 40-50 boys in sweats and gym shorts around the Boys' Gym after school.

The season has come and it brings back memories of a 5-7 record, three District Champs and a couple of the wrestlers who have graduated.

One of the three District champs, Bob "Berry" Giordano, is now at Fairleigh Dickinson in Rutherford. Bob has been interested in many sports. He lettered on Belleville's varsity baseball team.

Berry took his pitching experience to Fairleigh and as a frosh he pitched in three of the varsity's fall season games. His only decision was against Iona College which he won 1-0 pitching a 1-hitter and striking out nine in seven innings. This is typical of Berry. In a total of 16 innings he got credit for 21 strikeouts.

Besides being baseball, Bob was on the club football roster. As a defensive cornerback, he played a good game in Fairleigh's loss against Newark Rutgers. Bob broke a couple of ribs in the 26-23 loss. He would like to go out for Fairleigh's wrestling team, but is afraid he wouldn't be able to move fast enough to be really good. With a little hope, he adds, "I'll be all right by spring baseball season."

Bert Reboli was the co-captain of Belleville's varsity wrestling team last year. He ended the season with a 6-2 record. The climactic point of his career occurred when he beat Fong Lewd of Bloomfield in the District wrestle-offs. His victory over Lewd placed him third in the District in the 106 lb. weight class.

Local Pro Gets Post

A Belleville professional golfer for 10 years has been named head pro at Hendricks Field in town by the Essex County Park Commission.

Dick Dacey, 41, will take over the job replacing Maurie O'Connor, who has accepted a position as golf pro at the Branch Brook course. O'Connor will help that course in preparation for the State PGA championship event in June and at Weequahic Park, where the rebuilt links are expected to be ready June 1.

Dacey has previously served as assistant pro at Mountain Ridge and Green Brook, and was head pro at the Westmont Country Club. He joined O'Connor at Hendricks on May 1, 1964.

The new Hendricks Field head pro attended Belleville High and Arts High of Newark. In his business career, he was an electronics designer for five years.

Last summer, Dacey supervised the installing of the first watering system in the history of Hendricks Field.

The Belleville Times

SO YOU SEE HOPPY — Michael Cisero plays the part of Michael Carne in the Junior High School English Department's production of "Three's A Crowd." Young Michael Carne upsets his family and girlfriend when he clings to his belief in an invisible rabbit, "Hoppy." Here Michael carries on a "conversation" with his friend the rabbit.

LOVER'S LAMENT — Dawn Vincenti, who plays Jane, sings a song of sadness because her boyfriend Michael has placed his imaginary rabbit friend between them. John Narucki, who plays Michael's cynical father, listens attentively.

BACHELOR'S DELIGHT — Michael plays the part of the bachelor to the hilt after he and Jane break up. Here, four pretty dancing girls plant kisses on his cheeks. The girls were played by Karen Gonnelli, Donna Rainone, Michele Trabucco, and Kathy De Fago.

Invisible Rabbit Causes Havoc In School Play

All the excitement of an opening night was evident at the premiere performance of "Three's A Crowd", an all-new musical comedy, presented at Belleville Junior High School. The musical was written and directed by R.W. Leffelbine, a faculty member, and was produced by the English Department.

The production starred Michael Cisero and Dawn Vincenti. Cisero also served as musical arranger for the production. Other lead roles were ably filled by John Narucki, Donna Marie Tomaselli, Tina Colella, and John Smith.

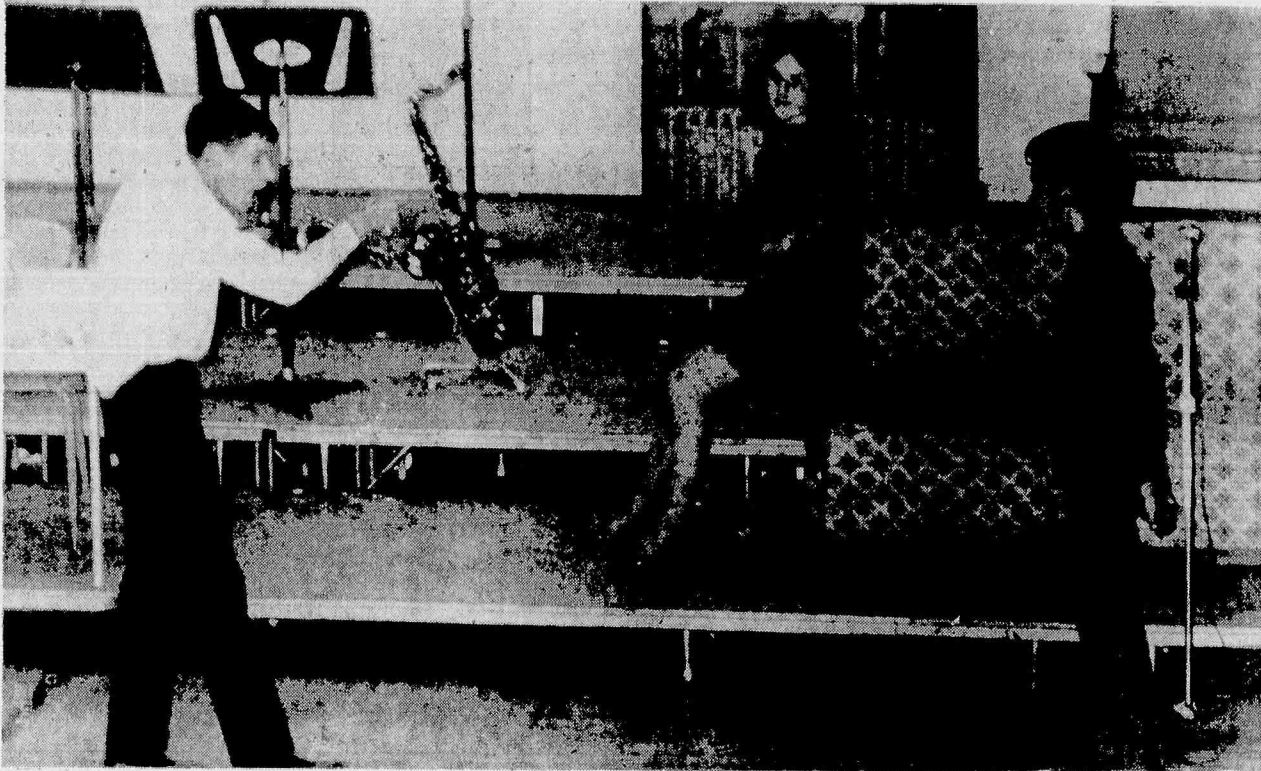

Musical highlights included Miss Tomaselli's rendition of a song "A Mom", and the title song, "Three's A Crowd", performed by Miss Vincenti. "The Playboy Song" was a show-stopper as sung by Cisero who was accompanied by dancers Karen Gonnelli, Donna Rainone, Michelle Trabucco, and Kathy DeFago.

Leffelbine commented, "The co-operation, hard-work, and talents of the cast made the show a success. I consider myself lucky to have had the opportunity to work with them."

The cheers and applause from the audiences verified the unqualified success of the musical. "Three's A Crowd" concluded its highly successful run on November 19.

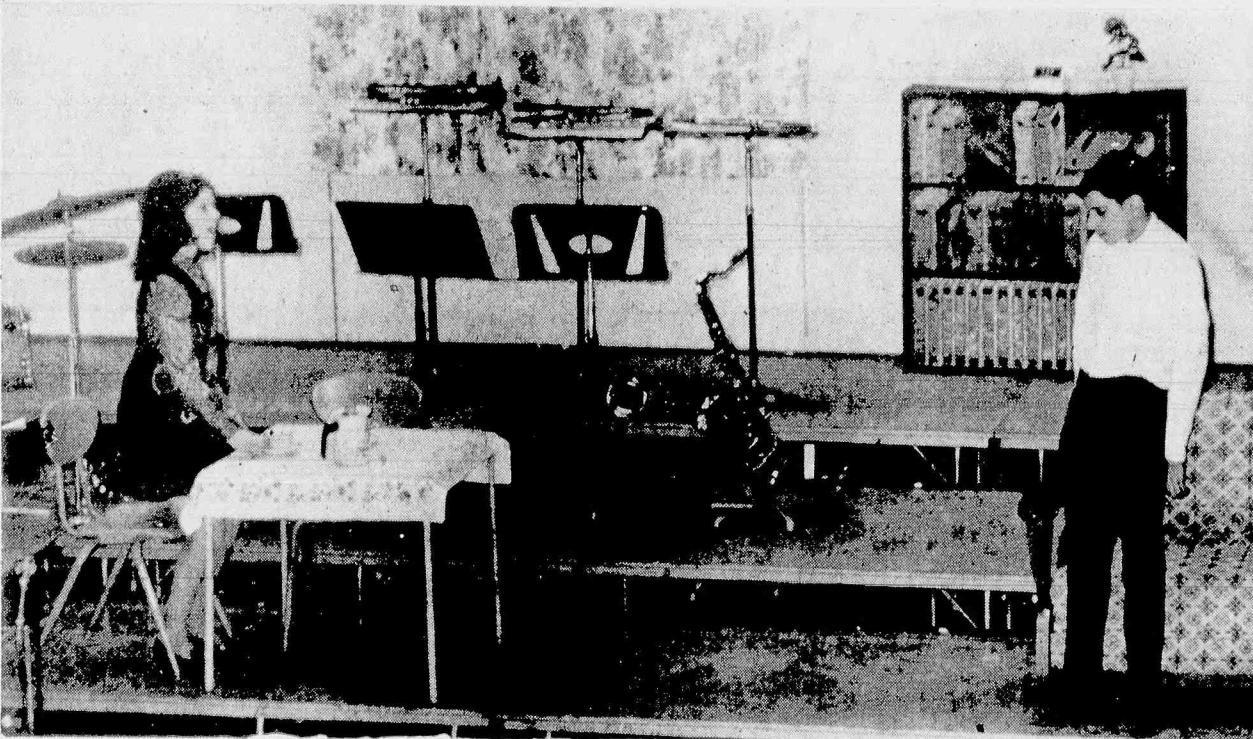

GETTING TOGETHER — Michael decides that having a girlfriend is better than having an invisible rabbit friend, so he takes Dawn back, and sings a love song to her.

NOW YOU LOOK HERE — John Narucki, who stole the show with his great portrayal of gruff Mr. Carne, warns his son, Michael, not to go on believing in invisible rabbits, while Mrs. Carne, played by Donna Marie Tomaselli, listens.

WHAT NOW — Donna Marie asks her stage husband John what they are going to do about their son and his fantasy world.

The pair fit well together as a mother and father plagued by their son's insistence on an imaginary friend.

AFTERMATH — Junior High School Principal Sy Grossman (left), brings R. W. Leffelbine to the microphone to say a few words. Leffelbine was responsible for the direction of the play.

WHO IS SHE? — John acts the inquisitive father when son Michael brings home a hussy from high school, played by Tina Colella. Tina, who plays Sophie Schwartzmeyer, dug her claws into Michael after he and Jane broke up in a fight over Hoppy.

HIGH STEPPERS — When Michael turns wild bachelor, he attracts several pretty chicks, including these high stepping dancers who flocked to Michael's side. Choreography for the play was created by R. W. Leffelbine, who also directed and wrote the musical.

THE FINALE — The whole cast appeared on stage for a final song. Elusive Hoppy, also made an appearance, played by Nancy DallaRiva. Production advisors were Mrs. N. Ganley and Miss C. Kunz; technical producer was F. Ciccone, and a special musical arrangement of the song "Wipeout" was provided by the play's star, Michael Cisero.

Sisterhood Will Hold Family Supper

The Sisterhood of Congregation Ahavath Achim of Belleville will hold its Fifth Annual Hanukkah Family Supper on Sunday, December 7th, at 5:00 p.m. in Sisterhood Hall of the Congregation, 125 Academy Street.

A delicious meal will be prepared and served and the Festival of Hanukkah will be celebrated. Reservations can be made by contacting the chairman at the Synagogue. Donations are $3.00 per adult - $1.75 per child up to 13 years of age.

Mrs. David Schreier is president of the Sisterhood and Mrs. Henry Creditor is Chairman for the Hanukkah Family Supper.

Hanukkah means dedication. The festival commemorates the Maccabees and their valiant fight for freedom and faith. Hanukkah is also the Festival of Lights, celebrating the rededication and purification of the Temple and the miracle of the lights which flamed for eight days although there was sufficient oil for one day only.

The Menorah is the traditional symbol of this holiday, and belongs in every Jewish home. The Menorah should be a particularly fine ceremonial object, a treasured family heirloom.

Lighting the candles of the Menorah is a beautiful and impressive ceremony for young and old alike. Starting from right to left, one candle is placed on the extreme right end of the Menorah on the first night, two candles are placed at the end on the second night, adding one candle each night 'until the eighth night' However, the flames are kindled from left to right, after the singing of the blessing. The Menorah has nine rather than eight candle-holders. The slightly elevated middle holder, or at one end, is used as the Shamash, or kindling candle, from which the Menorah candles are lit.

This year the Hanukkah Holiday begins on Thursday night, December 4th, with the lighting of the first candle. The Sisterhood Ceremonial Gift Shop has Menorahs, candles, decorations, and all Hanukkah items in stock which can be purchased by contacting the Synagogue at 759-9731. Mrs. Seymour Klein is chairman of the Sisterhood Ceremonial Gift Shop.

Belleville Woman's Club
Reports On Activities

Members of the art department of the Woman's Club of Belleville, both afternoon and evening groups have enjoyed a full program during the month of November which is National Art Month.

Commencing with the business meeting program on November 11, the membership was treated to art appreciation by Mrs. Nancy Crisp, noted local artist and teacher who is chairman of the Art Department for the Evening Membership Department of the Woman's Club of Belleville.

Mrs. Crisp presented slides of famous artists and described their reasons for producing the work shown. A special collection was taken for the Penny Art Fund of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs which will be used by the state organization to purchase works of New Jersey artists for placement in public buildings throughout the state.

The annual Art Luncheon was held November 18 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Douglas Clark, art chairman of the afternoon group. The covered dish luncheon was planned by Mrs. David Parry and reservations were handled by Mrs. Floyd M. Haring. An exhibit of artistic and interesting heirlooms was placed in the lounge of the clubhouse and after luncheon the history and interesting features of these items was explained by the exhibitors.

A showing of painting and other works of the Art Departments of both afternoon and evening groups was held at the Free Public Library during the week of November 8 through 15. Mrs. Floyd M. Haring, art instructor for both workshops arranged the exhibit. Members of the American Home Department under Mrs. Arthur Touw also exhibited examples of craft work.

Legal Secretaries Plan Dinner Party

Among the many holiday season parties to be celebrated will be a dinner/theater party to be held by members and friends of the Essex County Legal Secretaries Association which includes residents from Belleville and Nutley, Thursday, December 11 at Paramus.

Dinner will be served 6:30 p.m. at the Tavern on the Mall to be followed at 8:30 p.m. by the play "Barefoot in the Park," starring Joan Bennett, at the Theater on the Mall.

Miss Lois J. Taylor is chairman of the party. Miss Katherine M. Ghezzi is president of the Association. Members of the Association will again donate dressed dolls and filled stockings to needy children.

Newark Academy Mothers To Meet

The Mothers' Association of Newark Academy will meet at the school at 1:30 p.m. on December 9.

Members will enjoy a one-hour Christmas program to be presented by the boys of the Lower School. The students will perform eight tableaux directed by Mrs. Edith West, with music by Bruce Demarest.

Santa Claus will arrive at the end of the program, and students will then adjourn to the dining room for refreshments.

Belleville Girls On Dean's List

Mary M. Dopart of 24 Belleville Avenue and Catherine A. Ziel of 120 Rutgers Street, both of Belleville, have been named to the dean's list for outstanding academic achievement for 1968-1969 at Douglass College, Rutgers University.

Both girls are members of the Class of 1971 at the college.

Ladies Night Out Planned By School

School No. 8 P.T.A. will have a Ladies Night Out, on December 4th. Fifty one (51) mothers from the school have reservations to dine at Patricia Murphy's Restaurant.

The ladies will depart from the school by bus at 6:00 p.m. Committee Chairmen are Mrs. Carol Bonavita; co-chairman is Mrs. Peggy Ranucci.

Montclair Art Museum Sets European Alter Art Show

A selection of early European altar art goes on view at the Montclair Art Museum beginning this Sunday.

FASHION SHOW — A gala fashion show and cocktail buffet was conducted recently at the Wayne Manor by the members of the Guild of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Proceeds from the event have been pledged toward the hospital's 150 bed extended care unit now under construction. Among the Guild members attending the fashion show were Mrs. Nicholas Carmel, Mrs. Charles Ashe, Mrs. Ralph Gennell and Mrs. Alfred Brizzolara, all of Belleville.

Book Exhibit Held At School

Administrators, teachers and librarians are most interested in the literature available to our Belleville children. There is a definite stress on the Central Library, and the availability of curriculum related materials.

Because of this trend, and the concern of the Belleville School System, it was decided that a display of books from the company "Books on Exhibit" be held at School Seven on Joralemon St. Arrangements were made by Mrs. Phyllis Schaefer, elementary librarian of the Belleville Schools.

The exhibit was a well balanced collection of one thousand books. The collection ranged from picture and easy books at the primary level, to literature, social studies, science, arts and crafts, for the intermediate grades, representing in every case today's curriculum needs in balanced proportion. Every book in the exhibit was highly recommended by such outstanding sources as, the American Library Association, Bro-Dart Foundation, and the H.W. Wilson Co.

Mrs. Phyllis Schaefer invited administrators, teachers, and librarians of Belleville and the surrounding communities, to visit and see first hand what is currently made available by over forty publishers in the field of children's literature. Administrators and teachers were asked to select titles from the collection that they deem meaningful for possible future purchase.

Group Notes Reduction In Teenaged Smokers

A reduction in cigarette smoking by teenagers from 33 to 20 per cent was reported by officers and trustees of the New Jersey Pharmaceutical Association at their monthly meeting
November 19.

Leo Dubrow of Newark, chairman of the association's Board of Trustees, released a summation of the reports covering all areas of the state.

"Informal surveys last year, shortly after we inaugurated our anti-smoking campaign, revealed that one of every three youngsters smoked," Dubrow recalled.
"Now, after a year of intensive efforts by pharmacists to dissuade
young people from smoking, our returns show only one out of five say they smoke, even occasionally."

"We are much heartened by this growing awareness on the part of youth that cigarettes are harmful."

Dubrow said district reports pointed out that even the confessed smokers are far from chain-smoking addicts; fewer than one in 10 smoke
as much as two packs a week.

"In fact, nearly half of those who classify themselves as smokers say that in the week before they were surveyed, they hadn't had even one cigarette," he declared.

While most teens say they have tried smoking "to feel bigger and more adult," "at the urging of friends,"
"during a party" a majority said they found it unrewarding and a waste of money, feared to make it a

ROCKERS — Look-alikes Jacqueline Mayro and Steve Skiles perform with the rock group The Apocalypse nightly, when the hit rock musical "Your Own Thing" opens Tuesday, December 23 at the Paper Mill Playhouse, in Millburn.

Smash Rock Musical To Open At Paper Mill

"Your Own Thing", the thoroughly with-it musical that has been one of the biggest New York hits since early 1968, will open Tuesday, December 23 at the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn.

It is a "now" musical even though it is a version of ancient comedy —
Shakespeare's romantic
"Twelfth Night". The songs by John Hester and Danny Apollinar are solid, hard rock, with here-and-there touches of lyrical ballads, driving jazz, and soothing barbershop harmony; and yet the music remains emphatically contemporary.

The author-director, Donald Driver, has noticed that nowadays it is harder than ever to tell the boys from the girls. He has applied this observation to Shakespeare's story of a shipwrecked girl, Viola, who finds it advisable to disguise herself as a boy.

Unbeknownst to the young girl, her look-alike twin brother Sebastian did not drown in the shipwreck. The mistaken identity complications flow fast and rollickingly when he arrives on the scene.

Jacqueline Mayro as Viola,
Steve Skiles as Sebastian, Roger Rathburn as Orson, and Sandra Harrison as Olivia will be singing most of the 17 songs that pepper the show.
"Your Own Thing", which has been playing to packed houses in New York since its January 1968 opening, was the 1968 winner of the New York Drama Critics' Circle Award as the best musical of the season.

Saint John's Glee Club
Features Christmas Concert

St. John's College Glee Club (Jamaica) will join the Caldwell College choir in its annual Christmas concert this Saturday evening. The 7:30 p.m. concert will be held in the College auditorium.

The 50 man group from St.
John's is directed by Mr.
Frederick Mendelsohn. "O Holy Night," "Ave Maria,"
"They Call the Wind Maria," and "Moon River" are a few of the selections. St. John's Club will sing.

Gregg Stump

Student To Speak About Her Studies At French College

The Christmas "causerie" of the Alliance Francaise of Montclair will be held Wednesday, December 17 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Joseph C. Varkala, 131
Llewellyn Road, Montclair.

Suzanne Paige Fishman, who received in 1968 the group's scholarship award for study in France will speak on her year as a student at the University of Grenoble. Mrs.
A. C. Faatz Jr. will play some French Christmas carols on the piano. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. B. A.
Filipczak of Passaic and Mrs.
Frederick H. Sontag of Montclair.

Essex Area Very Active In Adoption Placement

Essex County adoption placement activity continues to dominate the service reports of the Children's Aid and Adoption Society of New Jersey, whose headquarters office is located at 142 South Munn Avenue, East Orange.

According to Dr. Emil J.
Piel, president of the society's Board of Directors, 29
children became Essex County citizens by way of the adoptive process during the first nine months of this year.

Dr. Piel said that the society's Third-Quarter Service Report, released for publication today, indicated that Essex County adoption placements represented 18 per cent of the society's state-wide total of 162 children placed during the report period. These children, he said, were given new homes with residents in 18 of the state's 21 counties.

The Children's Aid and Adoption Society of New Jersey was founded in 1899.
It offers its services throughout the state to unmarried mothers and other parents seeking to place their offspring for adoption and to couples seeking a child to adopt, on a non-racial,
non-sectarian basis.

The work of the society is supported by private contributions made by understanding people who love children. In addition to the East Orange Office there is a district office located at

Symphony Orchestra To Resume

The New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, with its 1969-1970 season in full swing, resumes its Suburban Series at Montclair and Millburn High Schools on Friday, December
5 and Saturday, December 6.
Both concerts will be under the direction of Henry Lewis, the Symphony's Music Director, and are scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m.

Berl Senofsky, violin virtuoso, will appear as soloist with the orchestra. This is his second appearance with the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra. Senofsky thrilled a large audience with his performance at the Waterloo Village Music Festival in July, 1968.

Senofsky will play The Scottish Fantasy by Bruch, and Ravel's Tzigane when he performs with the orchestra at Montclair and Millburn.
The program will also include Mozart's Serenata Notturna,
"Decoration Day" from Ives' Holidays Symphony and Debussy's "La Mer."
Tickets are still available for both concerts by calling the symphony offices at 624-8203. Residents of Montclair may purchase tickets for that concert at Perdue's Radio Shop, 8 South Park Street, Montclair.

NOTICE
To Our Friends and Customers Because of the recent ruling on cyclamates and the RUMORS of the possible side effects of MSG (Mono Sodium Glutamate), the China Clipper Restaurant in Bloomfield, in the interest of our customers will effective immediately, cease the using of MSG in the preparation of our food. Of course we have never used any artificial sweeteners.
We will continue however, to use the old Chinese seasonings we all love, "a pinch of salt, a dash of wine, a bit of garlic with our home-made chicken broth, and a knowing wok (pot)." Of course our chefs help too. Come savor the flavor, it's never been better.

DOCTOR IS HONORED — Dr. William E. Crecca (right) receives scroll from John F. Kidde, chairman of the Board of Trustees of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville. Hospital's operating room will be renamed in his honor.

Presented With Scroll

Dr. Crecca Is Honored By Clara Maass Board

Dr. William E. Crecca was honored on Wednesday at a dinner at the Essex Fells Country Club by the Board of Trustees of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital for his 50 years as a practicing surgeon. John F. Kidde, Board Chairman, presented Dr. Crecca with a scroll during the ceremonies and a copy of the Board's resolution to rename the Hospital's operating room as the Dr. William E. Crecca operating room.

Dr. Crecca earned his M.D. at the New York Medical School. During World War I he served in the Armed Forces, retiring as a lieutenant. He has been a member of the hospital's medical staff since 1919 and was the staff president from 1951 to 1959.

He is also a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons; New Jersey Society of Surgeons, past president of Essex County Medical Society; founder of the Essex County Blood Bank; founder of the post graduate department of Seton Hall College and a member of the Essex Fells Country Club and Spring Lake Country Club.

He has been cited with an award on the establishment of the Essex County Blood Bank and the Essex County Medical Society Award.

When the hospital was located in Newark and it was evident that if further expansion became necessary, Dr. Crecca, along with other members of the medical staff made possible the purpose of the ground on which the Hospital is located in Belleville today.

Hardman Sets New Manager

Norman S. Wolfrom of Cranford, has been appointed engineering manager of the Triplomatic Division of Hardman Incorporated, Belleville. Hardman is a prominent compounder of resins and elastomers and manufacturer of special machinery.

The promotion was announced by Alan Hallworth, manager of the Triplomatic Division, which produces mixing, metering and dispensing equipment for multi-component resin systems.

Wolfrom joined Hardman in March, 1962, and was previously associated with Panco Electric Company in Roselle. He is a graduate of the Passaic School of Drafting and attended RITS Electronics School. He has had extensive experience with HARDMAN in the design and development of the Charity Campaign Halfway

The Belleville United Community Fund campaign now stands at $5,016 for 50% of its goal, it has been announced by Mayor Kenneth D. Smith, honorary chairman.

The drive will continue until December 4 for the support of 113 health, recreation and welfare agencies in the Essex-West Hudson area. The final meeting will be held on that date at the Military Park Hotel in Newark.
