

Teacher Walkout To Last Indefinitely

By Nat Gottlieb

At 12:25 yesterday afternoon, guidance counselor George Nucera paused a moment at the front door of Belleville High School, checked his watch, and then led the entire school staff out of the building in a walkout aimed at dramatizing teacher-Board of Education problems.

Thirty-five minutes later, Jerry Kennelly, Belleville Education Association president, marched out of the Junior High School with a full staff behind him in a companion move.

The teachers will follow the same time schedule today and everyday hence until deadlocked salary negotiations are settled.

By leaving the schools at 12:25, the teachers are placing the entire school system on a "Minimum State Aide day," by which the town is still eligible to receive state funds. The teachers say they are not striking.

The move, however, represents the strongest sustained action by teachers in Belleville's history. Six years ago the entire system's staff staged a one-day protest walkout against budget cuts made by the Town Commissioners.

An emergency meeting of the School Board Tuesday proved fruitless. The Board says it will not consider teacher demands until negotiations with PERC, the Public Employees Relations Commission commences. Andrew Wallace, a PERC mediator from Long Island is scheduled to meet with the two sides.

The Times went to press without confirmation of Wallace's possible arrival last Tuesday or Wednesday night. If he didn't arrive on either date, a meeting will take place today.

A deadlock in teacher salary negotiations was listed as the direct cause for the historic move, but Kennelly said numerous other related problems figured in what was a unanimous decision of the BEA.

Under a new state law, Chapter 303, public employees are given the right to negotiate salary and working conditions with administrators, and in the case of deadlock, are provided with a PERC mediator.

Salary negotiations have been deadlocked for several weeks now. The teachers' main objections are to the maximum range for holders of masters degrees, and for those with a masters and 32 graduate education credits.

Kennelly says the Board offering will place them at the "bottom of the county," and in a letter to Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero, Board President, Kennelly remarked that "since the Board of Education feels teachers' compensation belongs at the bottom of the County, we will comply with a minimum state aide school day."

A reliable source says the last Board salary offering was as follows: for a bachelors degree, $7,700 to $12,400; for a masters degree, $8,400 to $14,000, and with a masters plus 32 credits, $9,100 to $15,400.

Neither side would confirm or deny these figures. Kennelly did, however, say that because of the pending negotiations, the Board had lowered its offer, to a point far below these figures.

Salary difficulties were not the only reason for the teacher move, says Kennelly. The BEA leader said teachers have been seeking a voice in many of the problems facing the Belleville School system, but says to date "nobody seems to be listening."

Kennelly is in his second year as BEA president. He is tall, red haired and generally soft-spoken. His posture as leader for the teachers is another story, however. In this role he is an aggressive, liberal thinker, following in the tradition of Nucera, who served as BEA president five times. Kennelly says his group has sought involvement in problems related to curriculum, overcrowding and various other areas.

"We want to get involved in the school system," he says. "The Board hasn't begun to tap the knowledge of its teachers. We feel stifled. The Board refuses us a chance to be heard."

There were indications late last week that the teacher move was looming.

The BEA asked the Board for a final "last ditch" negotiation meeting prior to last Thursday's public hearing for the budget.

"We were told to meet with them at 7:30," Kennelly reports. "We were made to wait outside until 7:50, at which time the board, in a simple statement, said they rejected our offer."

Dr. Di Ruggiero, who was obviously distressed by the teacher's move, said he had made a plea at the closed meeting for the Board to reconsider its position, but says he was "snowed under." The doctor, who has served the Board 15 years, says the other members turned down compromise offerings, making no comment. "They just shrugged their

State Pageant Decides To Withdraw Charter For Belleville's Queen

The Miss Belleville crown will no longer guarantee local girls a trip to the New Jersey State Pageant.

Belleville's charter to send its queens to the big contest has been rescinded as part of a state-wide move to eliminate town winners from the pageant.

The local contest, however, will still take place each spring, with the winner then entering into the Miss Essex County Pageant.

The change was announced to The Times by Larry Schwartz, a member of the Belleville Jaycees, the organization which has run the pageant since its inception six years ago.

Schwartz, who will chairmen this year's pageant, says the state indicated that its move was designed to insure a "greater cross-section of competitors in the larger contest. It was felt, he said, that town winners didn't reflect a large enough sampling of girls.

This year's Miss Belleville pageant is scheduled for May 9 at the high school. Last years coordinator, Caesar Romano, will assist Schwartz. The new chairman, who is a Belleville attorney, said the Jaycees were asked to run the 1970 county pageant, but declined the invitation. The local organization ran the county contest six years ago and found that it didn't draw enough contestants and people to Belleville. It was also felt, according to Schwartz, that the Jaycees should confine themselves to participation in local affairs.

Biancardi Enters Plea Of Innocence

Belleville's Joseph Biancardi, president of Teamsters Local 97 and two aides pleaded innocent last Friday to federal charges of conspiracy and embezzlement. No trial date has been set.

Chief Judge Anthony T. Augelli accepted the pleas from Biancardi, a former Democratic State Assemblyman; Henry Garrod of Verona, secretary - treasurer of Local 97, and James Caputo of Newark, apart-time union organizer and buildings superintendent for Essex County.

Reaction amongst previous Miss Belleville's was mixed. Carol Cornish, winner in 1968 thought the idea sound because the jump from the town contest to the statewide competition is very difficult.

"I think it is a good idea," the blond Montclair State coed said, "When you go down there it is pretty much of a shock. Entering the

The men were released in personal recognizance bond of $15,000 each. A personal recognizance bond requires only a signature of intent to pay bond and not the actual posting of the amount.

Biancardi, who lives at 18 King Place in Belleville, was represented in court by Raymond Brown, a Jersey City Lawyer.

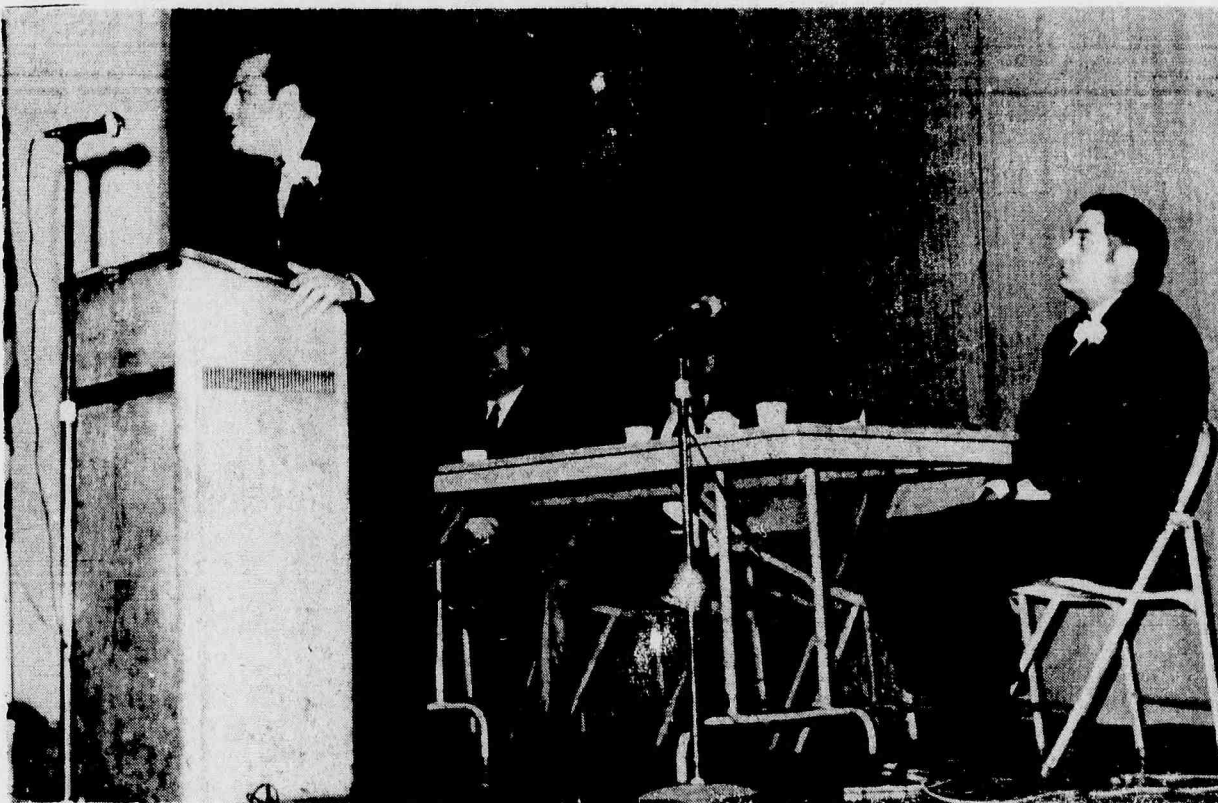

The men are charged with conspiring to embezzle from Local 97 to finance the political campaigns of Biancardi in 1965 and 1967 by making unauthorized political contributions, by taking excess salary checks and using union funds for personal expenses.

The total amount involved in the charges is listed as $15,497. Local 97 represents some 7,000 to 10,000 maintenance and factory workers, mostly from minority groups in the Newark area.

Biancardi appeared confident in court and a close friend said the defendant

Business Administrator Wins Long Battle For Certification

Harold Dufford, business administrator for the Belleville school system, has finally received official state certification of his position after waiting nearly five years.

Word came Monday to the Board of Education that state approval of the business administrator position was granted. Dufford has been acting in the post without official state approval since 1965.

The problem began in that year, when the local school board decided to change their administrative setup from "unit" to "dual" control. Under unit control, school buildings administration and curriculum powers flow from the superintendent through two assistants. With the dual setup, the business administrator takes over control of the school buildings.

The change was suggested then because board members felt the superintendent, Dr. Frank Durkee, was exercising power without consulting the school body. Dr. Durkee was later dismissed in a controversial move which went to the courts.

What had held up approval of the dual control administration was approval from the county superintendent of schools, whose recommendation to the state Department of Education is needed for ratification.

William Twichell, then superintendent, refused to recommend the set-up, prompting Max Schwartz, board attorney, to file suit trying to force him to ratify.

Twichell retired in the fall, and his successor, Simeon

Moss, immediately sent Dufford's recommendation to the state. When word came of the official approval, the Board, Monday, dropped its suit against Twichell.

Dufford says the state ratification represents a formality, and will not alter his position in school matters.

BEA Scholarship Fund Accepts Festival Cash

The Belleville Music-Arts Festival netted $447.75 for the Belleville Education Association's scholarship fund, according to Michael Rossamilia, assistant superintendent of schools.

Rossamilia reported a ticket sale of $739.50 for the January 19 student extravaganza at the high school. Expenses were listed at $291.75.

A check for the profits was turned over to BEA president Jerry Kennelly last week by February 10. On that date there will be two new members on the Board of Education. Three men this week are seeking these spots by placing themselves one final time in the open market. Voters will be asked to separate truth from fiction, promises from rhetoric and pertinent qualifications from several diversified backgrounds. A most difficult task indeed.

Scrambling about town this week at a frantic pace are James Risoli, Caesar Romano and Richard Mahmarian, all seeking a sympathetic ear with which to plead their case.

Endorsements by leading public figures has become commonplace this week (Former Board president Ernest Arvidson states his views on page 9 of today's Times).

The three candidates continued this week to campaign vigorously, making several stops along the tearfully trail.

In addition to outlining his platform, Romano made what he termed a special promise to the people of Belleville. The candidate, who is a sales representative for an international container corporation, said, if elected, he would spend a two-week period touring the school system with administrators to get a personal look at the system.

Romano elaborated upon the platform he has presented in the past few weeks. He continued to emphasize the need for a new approach to presenting the annual budget. Under his system, the budget would be explained to voters in terms

Each year the BEA fund grants a Belleville High School senior a $200 scholarship for college expenses. The Belleville Kiwanis Club adds $100 to this amount.

The fund was started in 1957 by Rossamilia, who said money goes to students with top abilities, desires and needs. A BEA committee each May chooses a senior AWARD WINNER — The Belleville-Times-News this week was cited as the top New Jersey weekly paper in its circulation class. News editor Nat Gottlieb examines the editions which were commended for general topography and layout.

Times-News Places First Among Weekly N.J. Papers

The Belleville Times-News captured first prize for weekly newspapers in the under 5,000 circulation category at the New Jersey Press Association's 48th Annual Best Newspaper Institute in Atlantic City.

The honor was the highest recognition gained in journalism in the history of the Times-News.

The Nutley Sun, the Times-News' affiliate, won three top awards in the institute including the first place plaque for weeklies above the 5,000 circulation category.

The first place honors were based on judges review of two consecutive issues of the paper. General typography and layout were considered.

Philip White, managing editor of the Sunbank Publications, attended the Atlantic City institute. He accepted the first place plaque for the Belleville Times in behalf of Nathan T. Gottlieb, news editor.

Frank A. Orechio of Nutley is the publisher of both The Times-News and The Sun.

The Sun also won a third-place prize for a spot-news photo entered in weekly completion. The picture was taken by Steve Brothers, a Nutley High graduate who is now attending Rutgers University.

Of special interest to The Sun was an "honorable mention" or fourth place award given to White for his

The public meeting turned out to be a confrontation between teachers and the board membership.

Rocco Saletta said he was pleased at the turnout of citizens for the hearing (there were 90 in attendance,) prompting Nucera to rise to his feet:

"Will all employees of the school system please rise," the outspoken past BEA president said, whereupon 81 (Nucera's count) teachers stood up.

"That left nine people seated," Nucera said, "and of those, I received five phone calls of support."

Kennelly asked the Board why they had included the minimum salary range in their budget knowing negotiations were still on. He wanted to know where added money would come from if a higher settlement was reached.

Leonard Back replied for the Board, saying "we can shift money from somewhere else in the budget if need be."

This remark angered Nucera, who said this would place teachers in a bad position. "We don't want to be blamed for taking funds from an area which might affect the children's education."

Nucera and Kennelly continually questioned the Board, while the rest of the teachers sat silent and orderly.

When retiring Board member John Di Rienzo said the Board was changing by using new ideas to benefit the town, Nucera quipped:

"Yes Mr. Di Rienzo. You are benefiting the town. You are retiring."

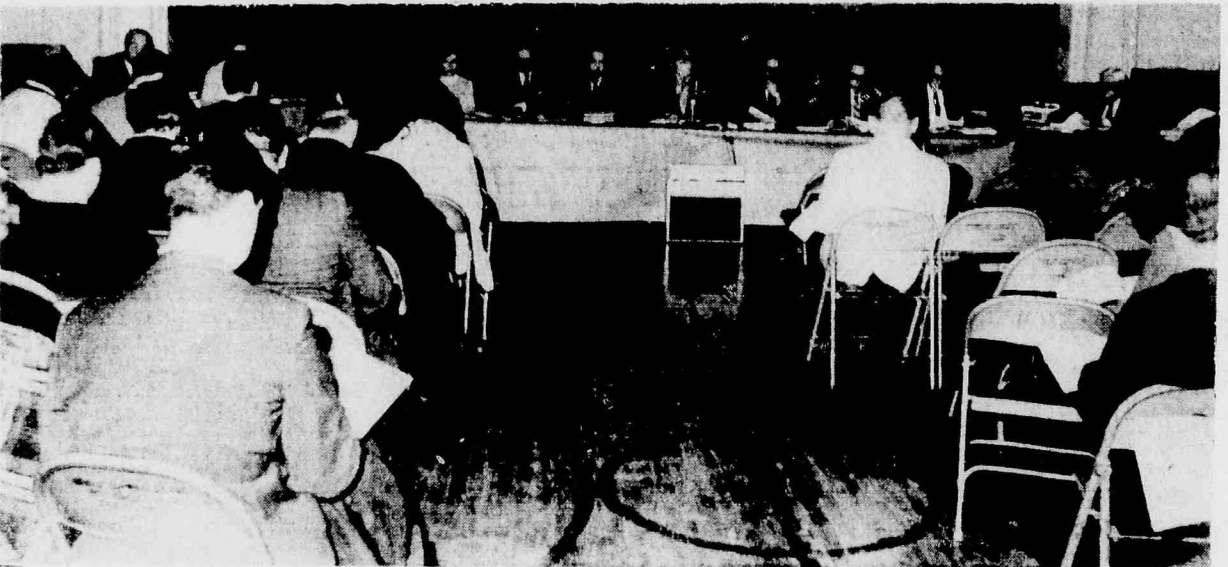

Nucera spoke in defense of the budget, emphasizing that the proposed $250,000 reworking job at the Junior High was an absolute necessity for the "safety of our youngsters." He also said that "we need this budget because if it is emasculated anymore by our town fathers, we won't have a school system at all."

The teacher's group say the Board offering would place them last in Essex County (excluding Newark) for the maximum range for teachers with masters degrees, and 18th for those with masters plus 32 credits.

Nucera, who was BEA president for five years, and a negotiator for six, says that the Board "always meets the county-wide minimum but falls far short with the maximum. This is why we attract so many good teachers who come to get trained, find the maximum inadequate, and leave to places like Nutley."

TWO POINTS OF VIEW — The January 29 school budget hearing at School Eight turned out to be a confrontation between teachers and Board members. The two groups exchanged bitter words and arrived at no solution.

Dufford Gets Certified After Long, Long Wait

(Continued from Page 1) held-up for two reasons, according to Schwartz, who has been Board attorney for over 12 years. For one thing briefs from the hearing on the matter were never filed by the state attorney general. Schwartz didn't press the matter because Twichell indicated his retirement would be coming.

Schwartz said that Twichell objected that Dufford hadn't the degree qualifications, although he was qualified through experience.

Dufford was able to assume the position because of a special clause in a state law which created the position of business administrator. According to Schwartz, the state decided 15 years ago that the position was needed because taking care of school buildings was big time business. At the time, the board secretary was handling both jobs.

The law which created the position stipulated that county superintendents of schools would have the ratification power, a power which Schwartz has tried to repudiate.

This special clause said that if a man had been managing the buildings as assistant superintendent, and had tenure, he could serve in that position. Only three Essex towns have certified business administrators.

Dufford had served as assistant superintendent since 1957.

State Beauty Contest Cancels Belleville's Entry

Marilyn Casale, last year's queen said her reactions were mixed. She agreed with Miss Cornish that the jump was extremely difficult, but criticized the county pageant set-up.

"I think it will be unfair," she said, "because the county pageant is open to any girl regardless if she has won a town title or not. Why should Miss Belleville have to win a contest to get to the county pageant?"

At present, only four other towns hold local pageants. Ideally, Miss Casale, who is a sophomore at West Chester State College in Pennsylvania, would like to see all towns in New Jersey hold contests and then feed winners into county-wide competition. The result would be a state pageant of 10 county winners instead of the 35 or more girls who enter each year.

The trio are undecided whether to make the festival an annual thing or run it every two or three years. One suggestion has been to couple music alternately with math, science and art.

The Board of Education passed a special resolution last week commending the three chairmen for the success of the festival

Tuesday's Election

Next Tuesday Belleville voters will exercise their democratic right by casting ballots in the annual school election.

Voters will be asked to select two new Board members and assess the proposed 1970-71 budget, a document in excess of $5 million.

Belleville is fortunate in having three distinguished men on the ballot, all of whom have spent uncountable hours of time and effort offering themselves in service to our community.

Voters have a responsibility to return this commitment by carefully examining the qualifications and platforms of James Risoli, Caesar Romano and Richard Maharian, numbers 1-A, 2-A and 3-A on the ballot respectively.

All three candidates have stressed the need for increased communications among students, parents and school personnel. We commend Messrs. Risoli, Romano and Maharian for emphasizing this in their platform, and call upon the new Board to explore new means to increase dialogue.

Of immediate concern in communication is the current impasse between teachers and Board members. We listen with alarm when teacher spokesmen allege that Board members have paid little or no attention to staff opinion regarding curriculum and other important areas of education in Belleville. We listen with equal alarm when Board members publicly accuse teachers of heeding selfish instincts to the neglects of students.

It is hoped that the new Board members will carry through on their promise and help Belleville become one of the best, if not the best system in the county.

Also of utmost importance to voters is the Board's budget offering. The school governing body has worked many long hours in conference and deserves careful deliberation on this document. Asked is $5,757,648, a hike of $855,184.48 over last year.

Considering the rising cost of living, increased salary schedules, and many outdated school buildings in need of repair, we do not feel this figure is too high.

We do, however question whether a $250,000 rewiring project in the Junior High is best placed as a capital outlay expenditure.

Board members report that an architectural consultant, after examining the Junior High, strongly recommended rewiring immediately due to "hazardous" conditions.

We do not question this judgement. We do feel, though, that the Board should have seriously considered placing a bond proposal on referendum to finance the cost, thereby spreading the tax burden over a period of years.

The Board was asked by Mayor Ken Smith to consider bonding months ago. We understand that the Board is reluctant to work with the Commission because of recent differences between the two bodies. But the Board owed it to residents to investigate fully the feasibility of a bond issue, something which we find it has not done.

For this reason we recommend residents to vote NO on the capital outlay portion of the budget and ask the Board, which has always demonstrated its concern for Belleville's needs to consider more closely, utilization of its $5 million bonding power.

We do not find fault in the current expense account and recommend its passage. Remember. Please vote next Tuesday, February 10.

Our Inheritance

Those alive today should appreciate the inheritance that has come to them from men and women who have lived in years gone by. This may seem like a commonplace declaration but it involves an understanding acceptance of the institutions which have been bequeathed to us.

Those living today arrived in a world which had been developed by others. They enjoyed modern family life, churches, schools, governments and, be it added, an economic arrangement that makes for comfortable living.

These advantages have not always existed in the world. They have been slowly developed, often by the blood, as well as the sweat, of humanity. In casually accepting them and in carelessly misusing them, we often exhibit a form of ignorance which is perilous to human progress.

As we comprehend in full the value of the gifts of our ancestors, we are apt to safeguard them. We would not willingly destroy in a day, or in a few years, the fruit of humanity's struggle through many centuries. We benefit by what men have wrought before us and the only honorable course in life is to preserve these gifts for generations yet unborn.

Our Troops In Europe

One of the battles shaping up in the Senate between the Nixon Administration and a combination of Democrats and Republicans is that over keeping hundreds of thousands of U.S. troops in Germany.

On the surface, the White House (and State Department) have backed the U.S. commitment. Military spokesmen have said to withdraw a major portion of our troops would upset western European countries and encourage aggression from the Communists.

Those who propose a significant withdrawal have more recent developments on their side. The two Germanys seem closer to a modus vivendi than at any time since the end of World War II.

Western Europe is strong and rich and, as Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield asks,

Western Europe is strong and rich and, as Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield asks, "Why are 250,000,000 people in West Europe, with tremendous industrial resources and long military experience unable to organize an effective military coalition to defend themselves against 200,000,000 Russians, who are at the same time contending with 700,000,000 Chinese?"

A major U.S. troop withdrawal is long overdue. U.S. forces are not large enough to stop a major attack; therefore, they constitute more of a token or symbolic presence than anything else and their exact strength is not overly important. The constant drain of dollars from the U.S. could be appreciably slowed by a reduction.

Dimes Work Force Views 1970 Drive

By John Bunevich

Question: How did you view the March of Dimes 1970 Mothers' March to prevent birth defects?

Asked: Of members of the March of Dimes work force.

Mrs. Charles W. Gruber, 60 Povershon Road.

"I appreciated the start of the drive because, like most women, I like to talk and this gives me a good reason to have telephone contact with my friends; but, seriously, the knowledge that more birth defective children will be helped to lead profitable lives makes the start of the Mothers March something to look forward to and be a part of."

Mrs. P.J. Strollo, 48 South Spring Garden Avenue.

"Doing volunteer work at Babies Hospital, Newark, opened my eyes to the joy that can be brought into the world of victims of birth defects as a result of the research, education, treatment and loving care dispensed in the Birth Defects Center there. It is wonderful to think that these Centers are made possible because of March of Dimes financial support. I wanted to be able to assist in spreading the word that such help is available."

Mrs. Marge Narucki, 15 Vail Street.

"My neighbors' usual greeting to me now is not just 'Hi, Marge!' but 'Hi, Marge, what are you collecting for now?' I am always grateful that I do not have to say 'For myself' and I think that those of us who are so fortunate should welcome the opportunity to put our efforts into such a great health program as that of the March of Dimes."

Mrs. C.F. Serpone, 36 Plymouth Road.

I became involved with the March of Dimes reluctantly and only as a favor to a friend who asked me to collect for the Mothers March. After getting to know little Kevin Lynch, the Poster Boy, and realizing that his plight could have been that of any child, including any or all of my own three children, the March of Dimes fight to prevent birth defects has become for me a personal fight."

Seems Only Yesterday

One Year Ago

A committee of the Belleville Community Council headed by its chairman Richard B. Morgen, met to further organize plans for the Community Goals and Development Program scheduled to begin in March at Belleville High School. The series of six two-hour seminars, not to be confused with the courses being offered as part of Belleville's Adult Education program, had the sponsorship of the Belleville Community Council.

A record setting $5,079,866 budget for the 1969-70 school year was adopted by the Belleville Board of Education after a public hearing on the matter at School 8. The proposal showed an increase of $637,643 over the present years rate and represented a 29-point increase in the town tax rate.

Walter Weiss, 16, of 19 Madison Street, Belleville, was walking the floors of Congress with Peter Rodino. Rodino, a state representative, was served by Weiss acting as a page. Weiss was selected over three other boys to make the trip to the nation's capitol.

5 Years Ago

The majority of the Town Council agreed to grant a $450 increase in salary to town patrolmen and firemen. A $600 increment raise was also voted to Town Manager John R. Burnett. Marching Mothers raised $2,695 in Belleville's one night, house-to-house "March" for the 27th Anniversary March of Dimes. The total was $109 above the previous year's collection of $2,586.

In support of his campaign for election to the Board of Education, Michael De Russo announced an "anti-dropout" fight to help young girls and boys realize the full potential of their abilities in society.

The annual dinner and installation of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce was held at the Far Hills Restaurant. Clayton Shepherd was named President and C. Robert Harrisfield, chairman of the Board.

10 Years Ago

Mayor Isadore Padula officially proclaimed the week of February 7 to 13 as Boy Scout Week in the Town of Belleville. The Mayor urged all residents and business interests of Belleville to support the Golden Jubilee Boy Scout Week Celebration.

Nearly 100 residents crowded a zoning board meeting to object to a 52-unit garden apartment project proposed in the high school stadium area off Passaic Avenue, between Division Avenue and Greylock Parkway. The project's cost was estimated at $400,000 which would account for a $12,800 tax yield. Zoning board members reserved decision on the variance sought by developer, Signe Mascera of 114 Passaic Avenue, Belleville.

Several new parking sites, including a two-story arcade and the widening of Washington Avenue to permit angle parking, were proposed by the Washington Avenue Merchants' Association. Frank Megaro, president, told the Times "this isn't just a dream. We're hoping to get the project started within the next few months." The group had previously met with the Belleville Planning Board to explain their ideas.

15 Years Ago

An ordinance which would have permitted funeral homes in residential areas was turned down by the Board of Commissioners with a narrow margin of 3-2. Mayor Isadore Padula cast the deciding vote.

Belleville Knights of Columbus celebrated their 51st anniversary at a dinner dance held in the Robert Treat Hotel. Commissioner Harry Sullivan was toast master.

Town Commissioners voted unanimously against changing an ordinance which prohibited stores to operate on Sundays.

25 Years Ago

The Colored Woman's Council installed the following officers: Mrs. Jean Ellsworth, president; Mrs. Edison Salters, vice president; Mrs. Elmer Peterson, Mrs. Madeleine Matthews and Mrs. Matthew Dickerson, recording financial and corresponding secretaries and Mrs. Edith Salters, chaplain.

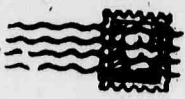

One hundred grammar school boys reported in the high school gymnasium in the opening of the recreation department and board of education sponsored basketball league. They were coached by William Chapman and Harman Wische. After a few Saturdays of practice, league competitions were to be arranged for the teams.

40 Years Ago

William A. Williams of 82 Rossmore Place formally placed his hat in the ring in the campaign for town commissioner. In a letter to the Times, Williams appealed to citizens to consider his experience as an executive in charge of more than 1,000 employees as part of his qualification.

50 Years Ago

Awakened by a dog, five children who had been left alone were rescued from the burning home of James Saarloos in Mill Street near Washington Avenue. They were taken from a second story window.

Sooy Tells Customers To Ignore The Name

To the Editor:

After 38 years of having had the privilege of serving the automotive needs of many of the residents of Belleville and surrounding towns from my business located at 504 Washington Avenue, Belleville, trading under the name of Sooy & Sooy and Son, I retired from business last Oct. 29, 1969.

I wish to thank the many customers whose patronage contributed to the success of my business during those many years.

I should like, also, to inform the readers of your paper, that despite the continued "Sooy" sign atop the building formerly occupied by me which reads "Starters, Batteries, Generators and Carburetors," that I am in NO way connected nor affiliated with the business of the new owner.

Continued use of my name, in any manner, will constitute improper misuse, since the conditions of sale made no provision for Good-Will usage of the Sooy name.

The kind cooperation of your newspaper in conveying my appreciation to my many fine customers will be appreciated as will your giving to your readers the knowledge that I am in no way associated with the present business now being conducted on my former premises.

Very truly yours,

Everett L. Sooy

Belleville Police Get Praise For Services

To the Editor:

We, the members of the late Angelo Tirone, Virginia Tirone and Carmella DeJessa family, would like to take this opportunity to commend the members of the Belleville Police Department and Belleville Ambulance Squad for their quick response to emergency calls.

Big Festival Was Success

To the Editor,

As a longtime resident of Belleville and a former school teacher, I have attended many community and school performances. In fact I have been involved in planning some of them.

But never have I been as impressed as this evening at the Music and Art Festival at the high school.

As usual, the young people's performances were outstanding and the planning left nothing to chance. To see that large, intent audience, so willing to applaud and encourage this kind of cultural enterprise was a real delight. Belleville should be proud of this evening's work.

Very truly,
Kathryn N. Conklin
14 Montgomery Place
Belleville

Thank you again.

Sincerely,
Members of the DeJessa and Tirone Family

Kiss
your wife with a smile,
not a zap

Many men can't really kiss their wives properly because the house and everyone in it crackles with static electricity all winter. It's a problem.
A YALE Power Humidifier, added to the heating system, is the solution. It will provide moisture that just isn't available from winter air.
Dry air also makes doors, walls, and flooring warp, creak, and separate. And that's fully as serious as zapping your wife instead of kissing her. You can solve all these problems with a YALE Power Humidifier.

The Rev. James Heavy performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Wayne Manor, Wayne.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore an empire A-line gown fashioned with long bishop sleeves, a scissor skirt and beaded train. The bodice was highlighted with Alencon lace appliques and seed pearls.

Miss Stephanie Kelemen of Belleville was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Jacqueline Hearn, sister of the bride, Miss Maryann Evans of Newark and Mrs. Sharon Kaplan of Belleville.

The attendants were attired in gowns of lace and moss green velvet fashioned with high rounded necklines and long sleeves. Matching headpieces and cascades of fuji mums completed their outfits.

Richard Hearn, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers included another brother, Robert Hearn, Albert Paganelli of Belleville and William Hamilton, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Hearn chose a pink dress with silver accessories while the groom's mother was in a blue brocade dress with matching accessories. Corsages were orchids.

At most every regular dental examination, your dentist may first want to take a series of X-rays. These X-rays can pinpoint trouble spots before they get to the stage where extensive work is needed or where a painful toothache results.

Even when work is required, the new anesthetics and high speed equipment make it fast and with hardly any discomfort. Many dentists will prescribe a tranquilizer for a patient before their appointment and a pain reliever for use when the anesthetic has worn off. We fill many dental prescriptions and keep the medications they need on hand.

Joseph N. Meyers

Meyers To Speak To Congregation

Congregation Ahavath Achim of Belleville will present Joseph N. Meyers in the second in a series of three lectures on "What We Learn Jewishly: From the Arts" in Sisterhood Hall on Sunday Evening, February 8, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Meyers has continued the beautiful work of his late father, William B. Meyers. The William B. Meyers Company of Newark is world renown in the craftsmanship of precious metals. Over the past 50 years their names have become a by-word in Jewish Ceremonial Religious vessels.

Joseph Meyers works all hold true to the fine tradition he feels must be upheld - "Thou Shalt Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness." The creativity of the "Beauty of Holiness" has been captured in mezuzahs, menorahs, kiddush cups, and candlesticks for the Jewish Home and Temple, in unlimited beauty and imagination. Into each piece goes not only splendid craftsmanship but each design incorporates the story of the use for which the piece is intended.

Famous people and places the world over have been recipients of work created by Joseph Meyers. The late president John F. Kennedy was awarded a special plaque. The late Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt received a piece of his design. The late Lord Mayor of Dublin, Mr. Briscoe, was presented with a Meyers' Kiddush Cup during one of his trips to the U.S.

Former Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg was presented with a Meyers' Menorah as well as other original pieces. Former President Lyndon B. Johnson and Pope Paul XXIII also possess Meyers creations.

The third and final presentation, featuring Dr. Michael Rookchav, will take place on Sunday, March 8th. He will discuss "What We Learn Jewishly: From History."

Subscriptions to the single presentation are available to the public.

Efficient and Attractive Kitchen Can Be Yours

Kitchen planning, like meal planning, can't help but brighten up with an extra dash of your own spicy ingenuity. But, from the looks of things, more and more kitchens are cropping up with cluttered, undistinguished looks-fruits of eliminating creative ingredients. With building contractors ignoring the storage needs of today's acquisitive families (most painfully in appliance-happy kitchens), offering instead their version of the commemorative postage stamp, we're faced with two simple options.

The simplest of the two and the most budget-shattering-means calling in a contractor, listening to his plans and starting all over! Listening to his estimates as well as his plans, however, may prompt you to choose the path of least resistance (who needs the trauma of a major renovation, anyway?) and opt for plan-of-attack number two. And that means reorganizing your apportioned work space, efficiently and beautifully.

Becoming an overnight household efficiency expert - on a budget yet - requires a bit of planning, needless to say. A steer in the right direction and a few basic guidelines, however, should save some wasted steps down the aisles of your neighborhood department or housewares store.

If the kitchen in your "efficiency" apartment measures a meagre ten by twelve, you've probably found that counters, cabinets and appliances alone have easily swallowed up lots of that footage. Built-in appliances, while they may look much nicer, aren't really the space-savers they appear to be. A built-in oven or refrigerator usually has had the wall built out to meet it. Short on space, though, demands long on ingenuity. For additional counter space, expand onto rolling carts and such. Wall-hung shelf slabs, flipping up and down as you need them, are the answer to many a harried hostesses' prayer.

Saving footsteps can mean a lot at the end of a tired, footsore day. And, if your appliances, sink and counter top are arranged baseball-diamond-wise, you are wasting footsteps. Turning from one appliance to another and to the sink and counter top should transpire with hardly a wasted footstep. Work centers should be well-linked so that food preparation flows easily from one to the other. A triangular arrangement of refrigerator, sink and stove-serving spot, ideally (for right-handed people), flowing from right to left, should end your footsore worries.

For folks with crowded counters, Pythagoras has long since proved (mathematically) that the size and shape of our pantryware can alter the amount of space we'll have to construct that triple-decker sandwich. Wedge and square-shaped canisters for sugar, flour, coffee and tea, for instance, take up less room and hold just as much as the round ones we used to have. And; the wedge-shaped ones have the added advantage of preserving your fingernails and your sanity - when they're jammed into a tiny space, it's easy to get your fingers between them and pull one out.

The company that popularized this wedge shape, Beauty Ware, has been pioneering all sorts of new sizes and shapes for people with microscopic kitchens: "Pagoda", a stackable, Oriental-flavored canister set, saves almost 50% space without sacrificing a large capacity for storage - a colorful boost for space-saving projects; "La Ronde", canister in the round, another counter-top first-aid measure. And, for those of us who can't spare any counter room at all, consider the advantages of a built-in canister set - the "Beauty Bin" - four compartments nestled snugly in a single unit, as much at home built into the wall as perched on your counter.

Escape from the ordinary... bend your thoughts into creative grooves and, in no time at all, you'll be whisking out bottles and stemware and candles and Christmas tree decorations, employing them in all sorts of ways, none of them mundane. With a little patience and a quick eye, start collecting pieces of colored broken glass, layer them by color in an apothecary jar, and make yourself a striking counter-top item (for only the effort of picking up some glass off the street or beach). Your coffee klatch will rave about it.

If you're especially proud of your crystal stemware, upend it and show it off with stubby, half-melted candles perched on its inverted stems - a grouping in assorted shapes and sizes all dress up your knick-knack shelf, or dining table centerpiece. A brandy sniffer (or two), filled with miniature Christmas tree balls (in your kitchen color) may be just the needed touch to make your kitchen uniquely "you".

If you've managed to store all groceries and paraphernalia away in cabinets, your kitchen by now should look pretty good. If the cabinet's "innards" are a different story, consider a mini-application of new shelving paper - and try to find it in designs to coordinate with your china - you'll enhance both with one shot!

Little frivolities, as pretty as they are, do not a kitchen make, it's true. But very

Voters To Test Budget, Candidates

document I did not help draw up."

Mahmarian issued a statement in which he emphasized several key points in his campaign platform.

Like Romano, he advocates a better system for presentation of the budget.

In philosophy, the candidate discussed "pride", which he says this community must have if it is to progress. He said that pride must prevail over the instinct toward gratifying "selfish interest," by which he meant the political motivations of many people in town.

Because of what he said were Belleville's tendencies toward political motivation in government, he was against an appointed Board.

He favors expansion of the work-study programs and pre-vocational training. This, he said could be accomplished without financial stress because the cost of tools and instruction for the programs is footed by participating businesses and industry.

A member of the Belleville Industry and Labor Advisory Committee to the Board of Education, he favors an expansion of this group to include more professional and technically oriented people and getting more corporations involved.

The candidate proposes an expanded guidance system, with intensification in the non-collegiate area of advice.

Mahmarian says he would urge residents to vote yes on the proposed 1970-71 budget, "based on what Town Hall is doing." He expressed criticism for the commissioners for appealing the recent decision by State

Commissioner Carl Marburger to restore $128,000 to the sliced up Board budget. He said the appeal was wrong because Marburger's decision should represent the final phase, and said it was costing "the taxpayers money to get their own money."

He also said he was in favor of a bond issue for modernization in the schools, but on the conditions that a short and long range master plan be drawn up and that the Board not involve themselves with the Commission. He said too much fighting between the two bodies precluded working together. He also said that the variety of expert financial opinions on the current interest rate made him lean toward floating bonds regardless of the rate.

Risoli also summed up his campaign to date, asking voters to examine his qualifications and platform before casting their vote. He emphasized, as he has done all along, the need for increased communications in the schools.

"Parents should take more interest in their child," Risoli said. "Report cards aren't sufficient indication or communication of a child's progress. A parent should come in and meet with a child's teachers to get a true picture."

The candidate said he would increase communications by encouraging parents, teachers, clergy and businessmen to take an active part in the system. He also would favor frequent bulletins.

"I will be available 24 hours a day for parents who need advice."

Risoli, who is a Public Service technician, said he is against the issuance of bonds because "when you get into bonds you get into problems of interest." He would continue, he says, school improvements through capital outlay expenditures.

Like the other candidates, the Silver Lake resident is against an appointed Board of Education, saying the elected Board "gives a voice to the people and encourages democracy."

Concerning curriculum

Risoli said there could "be some improvements, but I would have to deliberate for some time before making any suggestions."

He favors some improvement in technique for presenting the annual school budget. He would like the Board to use pamphlets, bulletins and flyers to increase voter comprehension of budget details.

The candidate also discussed the system's guidance department, saying it needs enlarging so that "there wouldn't be the student-counselor ration there is today." He said he thought the present ratio to be about 300-1.

Why settle for becoming "just" a secretary?

Gibbs can groom you for so much more

You're thinking of becoming a secretary? Wonderful! But why stop there?

Instead of aiming to become "just" a secretary, wouldn't you rather be one of those "terrific gals" whom bosses fight to hire and brag about having? Then you can just about take your pick of fascinating jobs assisting important men in such glamorous fields as the fashion industry, magazine and book publishing, advertising, government, finance.

For over 50 years, the most sought-after girls in the secretarial field have been those trained by Katharine Gibbs School. Last year our Gibbs Placement Service received nearly 12,000 requests from employers begging for "a Gibbs girl, please!" We couldn't begin to meet the demand.

Why is a Gibbs girl considered so special? Because we groom her not just for a job, but for outstanding secretarial achievement. In addition to mastering typing, shorthand, and other office skills, Gibbs girls develop poise, quiet self-confidence, taste and correctness in office dress and grooming, ability to "cope" with typical office problems. Because they have an opportunity to learn so much as confidential secretaries to management, many Gibbs girls eventually become managers themselves.

OUR ONE-YEAR SECRETARIAL COURSE is ideal for girls with a high school diploma and perhaps a year or so of college who are eager to obtain a well-paid secretarial job.

OUR TWO-YEAR LIBERAL ARTS-SECRETARIAL COURSE combines professional career training with college-level liberal arts courses. OUR SPECIAL COURSE FOR COLLEGE WOMEN is an 8-month course for girls with at least two years of college who now want to prepare to earn a good living as an executive secretary.

Convenient Montclair campus with parking facilities; optional bus transportation. (Also located in Manhattan, Boston, and Providence, R.I.) Scholarships, student loans. Free lifetime placement service. Day and residence students. Classes begin Sept. 22.

Jaycees Urge Budget Support

The Belleville Jaycees this week issued a statement endorsing the entire proposed 1970-71 school budget.

Jaycee vice president, Rick Dombrowski urged residents to vote yes on February 10, concentrating his endorsement on the capital outlay of the budget. He warned that if maintenance of buildings is not carried through this year, costs for repair would rise in subsequent years.

In backing the capital outlay portion of the budget, Dombrowski said that "The greatest portion of this expense is to be directed toward building maintenance. This expense represents five per cent of the current budget and adds six per cent to the 1969-70 budget.

"Here is the only portion of the current budget which you as residents and voters may effectively adjust.

"Eventually buildings and equipment must be replaced if they are not adequately maintained. This year's capital outlay represents nearly 11 times the 1969-70 allocation. If the maintenance program cannot be implemented this year, can you imagine what the 1971-72 allocation will be. The costs will only climb higher. This is a fact of life. All of you realize that what is not repaired now will cost more to repair tomorrow if it can be repaired at all.

"The Belleville Jaycees therefore support the 1970-71 school budget and ask you to also support it. Vote YES February 10 for adequate protection of our property."

Former Board President Backs Romano-Mahmarian For Seats

Ernest Arvidson is a former Board of Education president and has been connected with the school system for many years. The following statement by him reflects his opinions on the February 10 school election.

Recently, many persons have asked me, whom I think would make the best Board of Education members among the candidates on the ballot?

I am sure Richard Mahmarian (3A) would consider service on the Board of Education something very special, and would endeavor to make all decisions in the best interest of Belleville and its schools.

Mr. Mahmarian is a product of the Belleville school system and the community can be proud of him. He is a young man who has recently completed his schooling, and for this reason is knowledgeable of what students should be taught. He is active in the business world and knows what our graduates will face when they enter upon their careers. We can be particularly pleased that Richard has become a candidate.

Caesar Romano (2A) is not a newcomer as a candidate, having been close to winning on two previous occasions. He has constantly sought to learn all he can about our schools, and has familiarized himself with the problems Board members constantly face. Caesar has always been civic minded and has actively participated in many projects for our community. He is well educated and has a successful career in business both of which will serve him in good stead as a board member.

Publisher Is Elected Water Supply Head

Frank Orechio of Nutley has been elected chairman of the North District Water Supply Commission, the state agency that governs the Wanauke Reservoir and Round-Valley systems.

Orechio, who resides at 168 Alexander Avenue, was elected at the Commission's meeting in Wanauke last Wednesday afternoon. He succeeds Joseph Brumale of Paterson who has served as chairman for several years.

The new chairman is also publisher of The Nutley Sun and the Belleville Times-News. Orechio was named to the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission by former Gov. Richard J. Hughes four years ago.

Brumale, a Democrat, said he wasn't interested in seeking another term as chairman. He noted with election of William Cahill as governor, the Republicans now control the State House.

"It is only fitting a Republican head the commission," Brumale said.

Commissioner Milton Schamach, Paterson Republican, noted the GOP also controls the White House. "As

Jerry Ferrara Awaits Decision On Election Board

Gerrard Ferrara of Belleville finds himself uncomfortably caught between two feuding Essex County Republican faction, as he awaits a decision which will decide his future on the County Board of Elections.

A vote last week on his reappointment to the Board was split, 2-2. The final decision will be made sometime this week by State Republican Chairman Nelson Gross.

As was expected, Essex County Republican Chairman William Yeomans and State Republican Committeeman Frederic Remington voted for the reappointment of Ferrara, while state Committeewoman Mrs. Gladys Palmieri and Essex County Republican Vice Chairman Mrs. Lois Smith voted against the reappointment.

Ferrara, the Republican municipal chairman of Belleville, is considered a supporter of the Yeomans organization in the county split.

The local chairman, who lives at 72 Perry Street, was surprised by all the

Woman Suffers Severe Burns

A Belleville woman suffered severe burns last Thursday when cleaning fluid she was using caught fire.

Mrs. Yvette Eyre of 296 Union Avenue was rushed to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital by Belleville firemen and treated for first degree burns of the face and neck, and second degree burns to one arm and a leg.

Deputy Fire Chief Joseph Santiglia, who led a detail to the accident scene, said Mrs. Eyre was using naphtha in her cellar while standing between a gas heater and a furnace. Apparently fumes spreading in the cellar exploded and caused the fire.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Columbia Sibilis Rotonda; a son, Gerardo Jr. of Newark; two daughters, Mrs. Anna Marie Casola of Caldwell and Mrs. Marie Negri of Newark; two brothers and two sisters, all in Italy; nine grandchildren and a great-grandson.

Problems At Rail Crossings Sited By Public Service

Not enough money is available to eliminate and protect railroad grade crossings. This conclusion was reached by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners after studying the 1969 report of accidents at such grade crossings.

While the overall figures were encouraging, the Board took special note of the fact that most accidents occur where crossings are unprotected by a physical barrier such as gates. The report, prepared by the Board's Division of Railroads, shows that both the number killed and the number injured has decreased in the past year. In 1968, 22 were killed and 91 injured in accidents at railroad crossings. In 1969, however, there were 10 fatalities and 64 persons injured.

Mrs. Louis Vitale; After Short Illness

A Requiem Mass for Mrs. Maria DiGiannaro Vitale was offered Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Peter's Church, Belleville. Mrs. Vitale, who was 94, died Saturday of a brief illness.

Tuesday's funeral was from the Landolfi Home, 503 Union Avenue.

The wife of the late Louis Vitale, Mrs. Vitale had been a resident of Belleville the past 10 years. Born in Italy, she came to the United States as a youngster and settled in Newark. She lived here at 15 Prospect Street.

Surviving are a son, August of Belleville; three daughters, Mrs. Filomena Colanino of Belleville, Mrs. Yolanda Langone of Newark and Mrs. Eleanor Castelletti of Italy; 11 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Maintains Budget Drastic $ Cut In Welfare Cost

A drastic $2.5 million cut in Essex County's welfare costs has helped maintain the proposed 1970 freeholder budget at a level only three tax points higher than last year's.

Freeholders Monday gave their approval to a budget totaling $89,540,699, a figure that is up $6,693,514 over last year. Most of the increases in the budget are earmarked for $500 across-the-board pay raises authorized earlier for all county employees. Increased hospitalization coverage and medication benefits for employees, together with the pay boosts, total more than $4 million of the increase over last year.

Figures from the county were given local Commissioners this week in anticipation of the town's municipal budget introduction.

Estimates are that the county tax rate will increase from $1.14 to $1.17 per-$100 assessed valuation.

The biggest slash in the budget came last week when the State Division of Welfare and the Essex County Welfare Board both okayed a welfare allotment of $14,492,540 which is $2.6 million under last year's figure.

But in addition to higher salaries, the Essex Freeholders were hit with some new expenses including $50,000 for the Newark Museum, $70,000 for a program to care for abandoned children, and $200,000 to help set up a tuberculosis treatment clinic.

Belleville's varsity wrestlers came home a little more disappointed than usual after their loss to Parsippany Hills High School last week, 35-13. What really bothered the grapplers was that this was the victors first year of existence. The school is comprised of only three classes, freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. The senior class is finishing its year at Parsippany High, which was split to accommodate the sixty thousand residents of the town.

Parsippany Hills' Viking wrestling team consists of about half first year wrestlers and half wrestlers with only junior varsity experience.

Vikings coach, Kenny Graham, is probably their biggest asset. He's a "team man" who attributes the squads good showing against the Bellboys to a "100 percent effort by the boys."

Graham also put forth his ideas on why they are in condition to wrestle well and win. "I work them hard, hard as I can, and they take it." The team's record now is 4-4 with the win over Belleville. Three of its losses revolved around one bout. To account for the other loss, Coach Graham pointed out that his other loss was by less than 5 points.

Although he prefers not to talk about himself, Kenny Graham is an interesting person. He came to Parsippany Hills after coaching at Morris Catholic, where he had quite a few winning seasons. In college, Graham wrestled for East Stroudsburg, where at 157 pounds, he never lost a bout on a pin according to his wrestlers, and had a winning record for his career.

Wrestling Coach Jim Silvestri stressed the importance of "interest" in an unusual speech to his boys on the way home from Parsippany after losing 35-13. Silvestri doesn't normally say much on the ride home because he saves it for the wrestling practices. In his talk, Silvestri presented the one thing that could give the team a winning season.

"Interest" was what he said the team needed. Silvestri announced an "optional practice" for Wednesday to get only the kids with an interest after many of the wrestlers showed a lack of concern and enthusiasm for the team and the sport.

The fairest way of presenting it was the only way for this coach. Silvestri is not known as a man of extreme discipline—he's never needed to be. After the talk, the coach explained, however, "We've never had this problem before. Kids like Nicky DiDomenico and Joe Villano, (both '67 grads and varsity grapplers) they cared. These kids, I don't know John, they just don't care. We've got kids that could win, but they just don't care."

The "lack of interest" was also shown when the coach said that some kids have a "losing attitude." To counter this Silvestri is just going to go through drills and fundamentals.

Weeding out those not caring isn't going to be hard, according to Silvestri. He's not going to ask or tell the kids to come or to quit. He is confident that those who aren't interested just won't show up.

New Rec League At Friendly House Set For Mondays

Action has just begun in the Recreation Departments Monday Basketball League at the Silver Lake Friendly House. This League has been formed for two reasons; to absorb two of teams which formed too late to get into the Recreation Senior League and to make league basketball available to senior boys of the Silver Lake area.

Behind the 21 point scoring of Mike Petronaci the Knickerbockers beat the Nets by a decisive 47-22. The Knickerbockers were a little sharper on their shooting, a little sharper under the boards, very aggressive in their defense and very clever at ball-stealing. Kent Robinson led the scoring for the losers.

Scoring was a team proposition as the Bullets drubbed the Vikings 51-20. A big part of the Vikings problem in this game was lack of reserves while the Bullets had depth to spare. Each team will play two games against each other team in this mini-league. The championship will go to the team with the best final standing. Ties, if any, will be played off.

When Belleville's heavyweight John Atherton was beaten 8-4 by Kearny's Joe Rakowski, Coach Silvestri's hopes for a win over his hometown were lost. Belleville's junior varsity team also lost to Kearny.

31-19. Winning for Belleville on pins were Frank Marano (168), and Joe Valvano (Heavywt.).

Bellboys Invade Arch-Rival Nutley

Fall To Cowboys For 13th Defeat

The Bellboys, weary from a long, tough season, will try to rejuvenate themselves by taking on a hapless rival Nutley at the latters home court, tomorrow. Game time is 3:45.

Tuesday afternoon the team fell victim to their third period jinx, as the Cowboys from West Orange broke up a close tilt with a 12-2 burst to win 80-62. The Bellboys lost in a similar manner to Bloomfield last Friday.

Coach Herman Wische expects, however, to have little difficulty in getting his team up for Nutley, which on paper doesn't seem to have to good a Basketball team.

Its a well-known fact, however, that you throw the book away when these two teams meet. Anything is liable to happen and often does.

Against West Orange, who is 9-6 on the season, the squad stayed close, trailing 38-30 at halftime, but got sloppy in the fateful third period. Five turnovers helped propel the cowboys to victory over Belleville, who is now 3-13.

Coach Wische would like his team to win at least four games, to better the mark of 3-16 for the last two seasons.

Vinnie Costantino continued his assault on the 1,000 point career mark, hitting for 23 points. He now has 899, with just three games to go.

Joe D'Alconzo equaled his season high by hitting 18 points, and hauled down a personal record of 10 rebounds.

High scorer for the cowboys was Tony Massa with 27, while West Orangeace Bob Nack was "held" to 17.

What the team will need in the last three games is what coach Wische has asked for all season, consistent ball handling without mistakes. The talent seems to be there as evidenced on several occasions, but the hustle and basketball savvy seems to be lacking.

Nutley has had problems all season and is at the bottom of the Big Ten race. Top scorer for Nutley is Corky Austin, 6'3" senior forward averaging better than 15 points a game. Two guards, Les Hirsch and Ralph Vicidomini provide competent back up help. The team lacks depth, however.

BALLET? — Belleville's Rich Motacki (43) and Bloomfield ace shot Pat Sabilla (55) appear in the throes of a ballet as they reach for a rebound.

Powerful Bengals Triumph, 74-53

By Marc Feldman

The Bengals of Bloomfield the 12th ranked team in New Jersey, broke open a tight game in the closing minutes of the third quarter, and raced to a 74-53 victory over Belleville, last Friday at Bloomfield before a crowd of about 1200.

The spearheads of the Bengal attack were guards Phil Melillo and Paul Lape. Melillo, the leading scorer in the Big Ten, scored 25 points, 18 in the second half and Lape, only a sophomore, put in 17, mostly on layups.

These efforts plus the excellent rebounding of 6'6" Pat Sibilla, offset another fine individual performance by Vin Costantino of the Bellboys. Costantino poured in 28 points on 9 field goals and 10 of 13 shooting from the foul line. However, the Bellboys were hurt by the lack of scoring support from the rest of the team. Only Ron Schulz was able to score in double figures, as he hit a career high of 10 points.

As in the teams' first meeting on December 23, which Bloomfield won, 73-47, the opening minutes were see-saw. In the opening period, the lead changed hands four times, as neither team could open up a lead of more than 3 points. Vin Costantino single-handedly kept Belleville in the game, scoring 8 of Belleville's 10 for the quarter. In a 55 second span, midway through the period, he scored six points, two on fouls, and four on long jumpers from the right side of the key. Bloomfield led at the end of the first quarter, by a scant one point, 11-10.

The Bengals started the second quarter with a run of 7 points, five by Pat Sibilla, for an 18-10 edge. Belleville dominated the next four minutes of action with a streak of 12-6. The Bellboys' points came on Joe D'Alconzo's lay-up off a feed by Al Casaletto, eight points by Costantino, and a pair of free throws by Rich Caravetta. Costantino's last two points in the run, a tap in with 1:45 left in the half, cut the deficit to 24-22.

Bloomfield roared back to score eight points to Belleville's one in the remaining time, to take a 32-23 advantage at intermission.

Both teams were hot at the outset of the third quarter, as each scored 6 points in the opening 1:50. The Bellboys' points came on a field goal by Costantino, and two long jumpers by Ron "The Mad Bomber" Schulz. With the score, 38-31, the complexion of the game changed. Phil Melillo, who had scored only 7 points in the first half, got hot, while Vin Costantino and the rest of the Bellboys turned cold. Within a three minute period, the Bengals ran off a 15-6 splurge, including six by Melillo and five by team mate Pat Sibilla, for a 53-37 lead. The lead, at this point, was not out of sight, but the Bengals finalized the decision with a run of 10 points, four each by Melillo and Lape, for a 24 point lead, en route to the 74-53 victory, their seventh in a row.

The Bengals' record became 13-1 in conference play, one game behind East Orange, their opponent in the season finale on Feb. 13.

Bellboy Wrestlers Ready For Tough Nutley Match

Belleville meets arch rival Nutley tomorrow at 3:45 p.m. on the Bellboy mats. The match is expected to be a sell out.

Nutley comes here as possibly the strongest team in Big Ten conference competition and certainly the toughest rival the Bellboy grapplers have met to date this season. Belleville wrestling coach Jim Silvestri has been using a unique type of coaching strategy called the optional practice and reports are that it has been getting good results.

Coach Silvestri said that to increase spirit and heighten personal achievement on the squad he introduced the optional practice whereby it is left to the individual player to report daily.

Training reports are very good. Vito Marcogliese, who wrestles in the 130 pound division, has been working hard and is even practicing during the breaks.

Last year's match with Nutley was a sellout and anticipation is that there will again be a capacity crowd. The match starts at 3:45 p.m. sharp and Coach Silvestri cautioned fans to get to the gym early for a good seat.

The Belleville varsity record this season stands at 4-5. Last year's mark was 5-7 and the squad is looking to better that mark at powerful Nutley's expense.

Belleville recorded a 29-17 win at Clifton last Tuesday night as a warmup for its cross-town rival.

John Mustachio, a scrappy sophomore, continues to come along real well. Jessie Townes, last year's district champion for the Belleville team, continues his unbeaten string at 8-0 and recorded his sixth pin of the season against his Clifton opponent.

Other summaries of the Belleville Clifton match are

Kevin Sutton in the 98 pound class decisioned Lou Stein, 9-2, 106 pound - Angelo Zoppi of Belleville decisioned Greg Maruso by a pin, 115 pound-John Mustachio of Belleville decisioned Dave Reinauer, 4-0, 123 pound-Mike Egidio, Belleville, lost to Rich Slat of Clifton, 7-3, 131 pound-Vito Marcogliese of Belleville pinned Bruce Martin, 136 pound- Towns pinned Reid Caplin at 1:36, 141 pound- John Savato of Belleville decisioned Tom Masser, 7-2, 148 pound-Jerry Star of Clifton won over Ricky Caruso, 1-0, on an escape in the second period, 157 pound- Carl Sowa beat Belleville's Brian Waddell, 7-0, 168 pound- Carmen Russomano pinned Doug Kollar, 178 pound- Bob Olsen of Belleville won by a pin. Heavyweight division- Joe Boncochio of Clifton decisioned Belleville's John Atherton, 13-4, Campbell scored three points for a nearfall in the third period, to win 7-5.

Vito Marcogliese tied the team score for the second time with a 6-0 shut out over Kearny's Pete Arcidiacono at 130. Vito took Arcidiacono down in the first period, reversed him in the second when Vito was on bottom and scored two more points for a predicament in the third period.

Undeclared team captain Jessie Towns won his seventh match of the season. This was only the second time Jessie hasn't won on a pin. Jessie won 7-1 over Jerry McCarty, and tallied five minutes and 40 seconds riding time in the six minute bout.

John Salvato's 7-4 win over Kevin Degnan in the 141 bout put Belleville ahead for the last time. Salvato, now 3-3-1 for the season, kept on switching control with Degnan, and only his three points for an escape-takedown combination in the last period saved his win as both wrestlers had two minutes riding time.

Ricky Caruso dropped below the 500 mark with a 3-2 loss to Kearny's Mike Hompesch. Caruso is now 3-4 for the season with this loss. Hompesch had a 3-0 edge in the third period when Caruso reversed for his two points, but unfortunately couldn't move Hompesch into a pinning combination for more points.

Frank Savastano was destroyed by Kearny's Glen Murray in the 157 class. Savastano was beaten 11-2 and only put up a fight once in the second period when he reversed Murray for his two points. Carmen Russomano lost, 7-2, to Bill Harrison. Carmen missed the Parsippany match due to a minor injury dealt to him by Columbia's Greg Pouloit.

Belleville's last score came when Sal Bivona tied Gary Haliwell in the 187 pound bout. Sally Beans had been leading 2-1 going into the third period, but Haliwell reversed Bivona to gain a 3-2 lead, Bivona then tied the score with a escape with only 15 seconds remaining. Neither wrestler was awarded a riding time point as Haliwell's 2:14 riding time wasn't a full minute more, than Bivona's 1:16.

When Belleville's heavyweight John Atherton was beaten 8-4 by Kearny's Joe Rakowski, Coach Silvestri's hopes for a win over his hometown were lost. Belleville's junior varsity team also lost to Kearny.

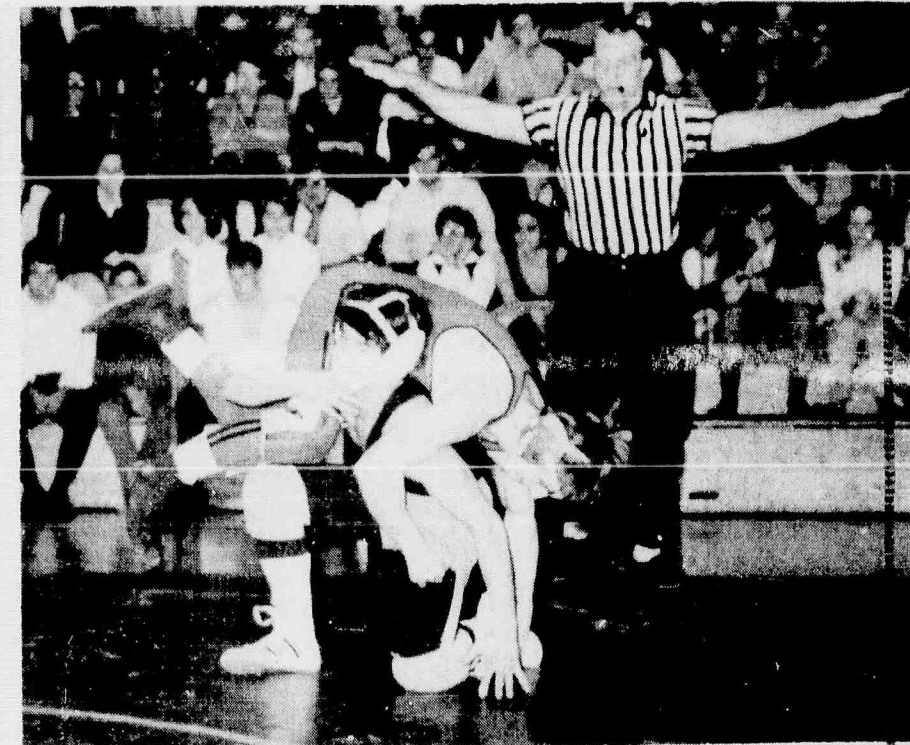

31-19. Winning for Belleville on pins were Frank Marano (168), and Joe Valvano (Heavywt.).

PRESSING SITUATION — Bellboy Kevin Sutton (98 pounds) gets shoved to the mat by Kearny's Allen Hill. Sutton staged a remarkable combat, but fell short, 11-6.

NOT QUITE — It appears that Belleville's Vito Marcogliese is about to hit the mat and lose a few points. Actually, by hooking his foot around Kearny's Pete Arcidiacono, he prevented the action and went on to win 6-0.

GOING UP — Belleville's John Egidio (123 pounds) gives Kearny's Bob Campbell a lift as the referee signals "neutral position." Egidio lost a tough one, 7-5.

Wrestlers Stomped By First-Year Competitor

By John McCarthy

Only three varsity wrestlers posted wins as Belleville's grapplers lost to first-year competitor Parsippany Hills High School 35-13. The only other showing as poor as this by the Bellboys was the loss to a powerful Montclair team by an identical score.

Senior Jessie Towns' pin over Jim Simos was the Bellboy captain's fifth pin in six straight wins. The only match he hasn't pinned in was with Columbia.

Junior John Atherton won his fourth match in a row pinning Parsippany's Terry Lewis. Atherton is also 5-2 for the season.

Belleville got off to a poor start as their first two wrestlers were beaten. Kevin Sutton lost the 98 lb. class to Gene Schemp. Sutton was pinned in the second period of his bout. Angelo Zoppi lost his third match of seven when he was beaten 2-0 by Parsippany's Jim Reed.

Boff Mustacchio scored two points for a takedown with only three seconds left in the last period and two more points for 2:33 riding time to beat Frank Giamartino of Parsippany, 8-7. Giamartino started the match with a take down and a predicament to establish a 4-0 lead. Boff then started the second period on top and rode Giamartino for 1:50 before Giamartino reversed Boff for two more points.

Boff was quick to score a reversal and the score was 6-2. In the third period Boff reversed Giamartino in the first ten seconds and rode him out til the end of the period when Giamartino escaped. After the escape, Boff scored two points for the takedown and the final buzzer sounded. The ref checked the riding time clock, and Boff was given two points for his 2:33 riding time.

After Belleville won its first class, Parsippany won the next two to make their lead 18-3. Mike Igidio was pinned by Parsippany's Tom DeRidder in the 123 lb. class. Vito Morecognese wrestled Bob McNair at 130 lbs., but after three penalties, Vito was disqualified by the referee for unsportsmanlike conduct. This was only Vito's second loss of the season.

Jessie Towns had little trouble with Parsippany's Jim Simos at 136 lbs. It took Jessie 50 seconds to get the takedown, but Simos was pinned with only 1:12 gone in the first period. Jessie's fastest pin came against Vailsburg when it took him only 55 seconds.

Belleville lost the next five matches in a row, four by decisions and one by forfeit. At 141, Ricky Caruso was beaten 3-2 by Mike Rosano. At 148, John Salvato held a 3-1 led over Mike Gymoty in the third period, but Gymoty reversed Salvato and moved him into a predicament to win 5-3.

At 157, Frank Savastano was tied with Parsippany's

Mike Hansen 2-2, but forfeited the match in the third period because Frank lacked the endurance to continue.

Frank Marano made his first varsity appearance at 168, but was beaten 7-3. Joe Taibi also wrestled in his first varsity meet and was shut-out 3-0 by Parsippany's 178, Larry Lombreglia.

The Bellboy heavyweight, John Atherton, won his fourth match in a row. Neither John nor Terry Lewis, his opponent, scored the takedown in the first period. When John started the second period on top he pinned Lewis in 1:17.

The Belleville JV squad beat Parsippany's JV on a last match effort by Joe Valvano.

The JV squad had been down 23-9, but won four matches in a row and came out on top 25-23.

Belleville forfeited the 98 lb. and 106 lb. classes. At 115 Rich Sulenski (B) was beaten by Mark Fuerst 7-1. At 123 Don Back picked up Belleville's first win 4-3 over Doug Stannard. Mark Dillon (B) was pinned by Dan Hansen at 130 pounds. At 136, Mark Bennet beat Scott Mansen (P) 11-4. Belleville's Ed Dunckley shutout Bob Walker 6-0 at 141. Allan Sierchio was pinned by Paul LoSchivo at 148, and it was Belleville's last loss.

At 157, Brian Waddell (B) pinned Larry Langer in 0:50 to make the team score 23-14 in Parsippany's favor. At 168,

Bill Natale beat Henry Carighiano (P) 6-2 to bring Belleville three points closer. Tom Jones' 7-0 shutout over

Keith Fowler at 178 made the score 23-20, Parsippany. Joe Valvano went out against Tom Kuntz at heavyweight, and Valvano won on a pin in 30 seconds, putting Belleville ahead 25-23 for the win.

Recreation League Tightens Up As Falcons Absorb First Loss

Last week's games in the Recreation Senior Basketball League served to further intensify the situation in this very tight League.

A win by the Eagles over the Falcons and a win by the Imperials over the Pros has knotted the league in a three-way tie among the Falcons, Eagles and Imperials all at 6-1. Just behind are the Knicks at 5-2. Tied next are the Panthers and the Trotters at 4-3.

Two more ties follows with the Rec. Boys and the Saints at 3-4 and Pros and the Bullets at 2-5. The Lakers have one win while the scrappy Royals still plug away looking for their first victory.

The surprise of the evening came when the Eagles handed the Falcons their first defeat. In a game that was quiet even during the first half, the Falcons hit the mid-point with a slim 27-26 margin. From there however, the Eagles continuously ground out more points and won it 58-41. Frank Russomano led the victor's scoring.

In another tight game the Trotters squeezed by the Knicks 45-43. Charlie Carr with 21 points led the Trotters offensive.

Perhaps the most surprising game was that between the Imperials and the Pros. Going into this game the Imperials had an impressive 5-1 record while the Pros carried a humble 2-4.

However the Pros showed that they could fight when they defeated the Knicks with a surprise victory, 59-57 the previous week.

At the half-time the Imperials led by a pretty comfortable 33-21. Then the ever-surprising Pros put on a terrific scoring drive and managed to close the gap and end the regular time with a 59-59 tie. In the overtime period the Imperials did a tremendous job under the boards and, after a real scare, managed to salvage a win at 66-61. Regardless of their standing the Pros have established themselves as a team to contend with.

Bill Ross of the Pros led their scoring with 30 points and Gary Sorrentino was in with 17. For the victorious Imperials Ray Campbell tallied twenty.

In other games the Panthers drubbed the Rec. Boys 56-24; the Lakers took the Royals 27-23 and the Saints beat the Royals 37-28.

One of these 12 teams is to be declared champions in four more weeks based on the standing at the close of the scheduled season. This team will receive trophies and will not be eligible for the Playoffs.

The next four teams in the standing will then play-off for the second set of trophies and this winner will become the playoff champs.

There would be no way at this time to make predictions as to the outcome of this rivalry. The leaders are in positions to hurt one another with the Eagles facing the Knicks next week; the Eagles and the Imperials meeting the following week; the Falcons tangling with the Knicks and then in the last week, the facing of the Falcons and the Imperials. No team has shown any sign of quitting nor is any expected to, it will be total effort right to the final games.

This is the 1st week of the Magnavox Factory-Authorized Annual Sale. The response appears to become greater every year. Customers realize that the savings offered in a Magnavox sale are real and available only once a year.

The greatest interest seems to be in the high priced Stereo phonographs, particularly those with the new "air suspension speaker system". This relatively new development gives literally a new dimension and a new realism to music reproduction. It is difficult to describe, one has to hear it. It is amazing to see the face of the listener as we instantly switch from one instrument to the other. This is the only way to compare. It takes much too long to change a record from one set to the other, it has to be done instantly. The price reductions from $549.50 to $449.50 make these instruments real good buys.

There are some combinations which have been reduced as much as $150.00. More and more people buy combinations. There are some which cost only a little more than the better TV only sets, particularly in view of the present price reductions. Most dealers do not stock any or only a few combinations. We stock them all and probably this is the reason why we sell so many. A customer who spends a considerable amount of money does not want to be shown a catalog to make his choice, he wants to see the real thing, and we have it to show.

Prices for color as well as black and white TV sets have been reduced also, some of them considerably. Please come in and look them over.

Falcons Just Keep Unbeaten Record

It was a rough night for the leaders in the Belleville Senior Basketball League last week with the mighty Knicks being toppled by the Pros and the Falcons just barely maintaining their undefeated record.

Suffering from a lack of reserves, the Knicks started off nonetheless in their usual winning way. It was 19-12 at the quarter and 31-24 at the half. At the three-quarter mark the dogged Pros had crept up to within one point and the Knicks led by only 45-44. In the last quarter the Knicks had to hold with only three men, two having fouled out. Despite a valiant effort by the Knicks the Pros took the game at 59-57. There was, however a protest against the Pros for an ineligible player. Joe Ritacco led the winners with 20 points.

Although the Falcons held a narrow lead all through their game with the Trotters the Falcons finally triumphed, 50-47. Charlie Carr hit a personal high of 32 points for the Trotters while the Falcons scoring was pretty evenly distributed.

The Panthers had it all the way as they beat the Saints 45-36.

In a scoring spree the Imperials hammered the Lakers with an 85-24 game. Twenty-two points by Jerry Longo and 20 by Ray Campbell led the onslaught.

Another thriller was the Rec. Boys-Royals game. At the half time the Royals were out in front 18-8. In the fourth quarter the Rec. Boys put on a big surge with G. Soldo sinking a jump shot that put the Boys ahead 28-26 with one minute left on the clock. The Royals-T. Fairchild tied it up at 30-30 on two foul shots with only ten seconds left. In overtime the Rec. Boys pulled it out a 34-32 victory.

In the remaining game the fast breaking Eagles led all the way as they defeated the Bullets 64-47. Frank Russomano turned in a 20 point evening.

So now its the Falcons at the top with their 6-0 record. Next is a three-way tie among the Eagles, the Knicks and the Imperials, all at 5-1. Another three-way tie follows with the Rec. Boys, the Panthers and the Trotters at 3-3. And still another three-way tie finds the Pros, the Bullets and the Saints at 2-4 while the Royals seek their first win. With six more games to go for each squad League will no doubt change shape several times before the winner and four play-off teams are decided.

Fast cars and disability insurance somehow go together.

A BRUISER — Angelo Zoppi is hauled to the canvas by Kearny's Gary Ficksin. Neither man could score in the 106 pound match, resulting in a 0-0 standoff.

WATCH IT — Belleville's Joe D'Alonzo (45) feels the brunt of Bloomfield's wrath, while Vinnie Costantino (51) looks on.

Bowlers Pick Up Five More Wins

By John McCarthy

Led for the first time by senior Pat Smythe, the varsity bowlers of Belleville High won all three games against Nutley last Tuesday. On Thursday the bowlers added two more wins in three games against West Orange. The team's record now stands at 20-6 for the season.

The entire Belleville squad bowled in the 460-470 range, but it was good enough to beat Nutley whose high total for three games was 510, but was offset by a 423, 419, and 379.

Pat Smythe bowled a 173, 146, 157 for a 476 to lead the Bellboys, and was followed closely by Allen Symonies, whose 161, 135, 178, for a 474 total against Nutley.

Mark Borgo had the team's high score of one game with 183. However, Borgo followed it with a 125 and a 161 for a 469 total. One point behind Borgo in the total was John Spezzaferri. Spetz, who holds the highest team score of 596 for this year, totaled 468 with 158, 175, 135. Finishing out the team was John Longo with 177, 174, and 109 for 460 pins total.

The West Orange scores aren't available at present, but the bowlers all bowled in the 500's and as Team Captain Allen Symonies said, "It was just a good day for Belleville."

Today the bowlers will go to the Bell Clair lanes in Montclair where they will enter the New Jersey Inter-Scholastic Bowling League Tournament. Last year this was where Mark Borgo received a trophy for the high game of the tournament, a 214.

Group Says Advertising Works For Drug Abuse

The New Jersey Pharmaceutical Association, first such organization in the country to organize an active campaign against drug abuse, today accused patent medicine advertising of aiding drug misuse.

Meeting in the final session of its annual mid-winter convention at the Nevele in New York's Catskills, the pharmacists called for closer scrutiny of such advertising in all media, including television.

"There seems no question," the Association said in its resolution, "that promiscuous patent medicine advertising contributes toward the current catastrophic situation of drug misuse and abuse."

"Advertisements seem to stress the idea that every malady has an immediate instant cure; that a certain tablet, capsule or magical elixir will accomplish it in one or two doses."

"Not only is this approach misleading; it is dangerous. We think it essential that some restrictions be put upon such advertising."

Pointing out cigarette advertising has undergone critical examination, the NJPhA holds it is equally valid for drug promotion to be subject to closer scrutiny. "We fear many young people are led to unwise use of drugs by such advertising messages," the Association says.

"Any drug potent enough to help fight a disease is powerful enough to injure when misused or overused."

While emphasizing that it does not seek to abrogate the right of individuals to utilize their freedom to present selling messages, the Association said there should be safeguards, if not relating to contents, at least on timing.

"The young segments of the population are particularly vulnerable to television commercials," the resolution explains.

"It would seem logical to control the impact on young children and sub-teenagers, perhaps by limiting such commercials to those hours when youngsters normally are not watching television."

April 18 Date Set For Frosh Opening

A 16-game schedule, opening on April 18 at Long Island University, has been announced for Montclair State College's 1970 freshman baseball team by Bill Dioguardi, Director of Athletics.

In addition, the young Indians will play home and away games with St. Peter's and Rockland County Community College.

Psychologists have found youngsters lack the maturity to face up to suggestive stimuli."

The state organization asked the help of the National Drug Abuse Coordinating Council in its efforts to have something done about the situation.

Lions Club Hears Talk On Drugs

Care for the drug addict was the theme of David H. Kerr in his address to the Belleville Lions Club at their weekly meeting at the Fountain Restaurant on January 29.

Kerr, a graduate of Lehigh University, has spent the last six years in various capacities in Newark and at the state level in work dealing with drug addiction.

"The drug addict is immature and requires the care of a child," said Kerr. The program for addicts at Integrity, Inc., which Kerr founded in 1968, is designed to rehabilitate the addict thus returning him to a useful life in society.

In closing the program, Lions were reminded of the annual charity fund raising card party and fashion show to be held at the Fountain Restaurant on Wednesday, February 18 at 8 p.m.

GOLD KEY — Victor J. Dragi, right, of the Senior Citizens Committee, accepts symbolic "gold key" at dedication of new recreation center in Branch Brook Park. At left is builder, Levi Evans, and at center is William R. Harris, chairman of 75th Anniversary Committee of Essex County Park System.

New Rec Center For Essex Park

The 75th Anniversary Committee of the Essex County Park System formally dedicated its new Senior Citizens Recreation Center off Park Drive in Branch Brook Park, Newark, Monday.

According to William R. Harris, chairman of the Committee, the facility will immediately become the focal point for the recreational activities of over 150 of these still quite active people in areas near the park.

"This new Center has been needed for a long time," Harris said. "Although it will be available to all senior residents in the vicinity, it will serve as the base for the Branch Brook Senior Citizens Club, a group which has used the park, without a building, for its activities for a number of years."

The club was formerly known as the Bocci Association.

The new facility, which is the second Senior Citizens Center in the Essex County Park System, used a former boat-landing building on the edge of Branch Brook Lake for its foundation.

The builder, Levi Evans of the Evans of the Eyanbow Construction Company of East Orange, said that the use of the older structure provided a large cost savings. The entire cost, including lighting and furnishings, and three bocci courts, was $35,000. The other Center for Senior Citizens is in Vailsburg Park.

The 75th Anniversary Committee, which was formed by interested business and civic leaders in the county, is spearheading a drive throughout 1970 to develop new programs and facilities to increase public involvement in park activities.

"It is appropriate that this, our first official announcement this year, serves those who have known us the longest," chairman Harris said. "Who else can speak with such authority as to what Newark, and the county, would have been like today had it not been for far sightedness of our first park commissioners."

Victor J. Dragi, of Newark, 75th Committee Chairman for Senior Citizens, said he hoped other, similar centers would be built in the county.

"During this anniversary year of the Park System, a lot of attention will be given to planning more and more programs for older residents of the county. We hope they will be given the support and backing they deserve," he said.

Neil Simon Play Starts Today At Meadowbrook

The "Odd Couple" will provide hilarious entertainment at the Meadowbrook Theatre Restaurant in Cedar Grove beginning today and running through March 1, with Orson Bean in the starring role. The play, which was one of Neil Simon's smash hits, opened in New York in March, 1965, and continued for two and a half years.

When Simon decided to write about divorce, the outline of his story went: "Two men—one divorced and one estranged and neither quite sure why their marriages fell apart—move in together for reasons of economy in order to meet their alimony payments, and suddenly discover that they're having the same conflicts and fights that they had in their marriages."

This one sentence was enough for Paramount. It duly contracted to buy any play developed from that outlined and gave Simon a half-million dollar advance. The Odd Couple was the result and became a film three and a half years after the New York opening of the stage play.

By the mid-sixties, Neil Simon had achieved a reputation as the funniest man writing for the American stage. His score was six great Broadway hits in a row: Come Blow Your Horn, 1961; Little Me, 1962; Barefoot in the Park, 1963; The Odd Couple; the libretto for Sweet Charity, 1966, and The Star Spangled Girl, late 1966. These were followed by Plaza Suite in 1968 and the book for Promises, Promises based on the film, The Apartment.

Quite possibly the factor that made The Odd Couple one of the most successful Broadway comedy hits is that it cut to the bone of contention in most families—the conflict over neatness versus disorders in homes. Fans of Simon's plays will see a recurring theme in the universal situation. In Come Blow Your Horn, the young hero who has run away from his parents' home to bunk up with his older brother in the brother's bachelor apartment, speaks despairingly of his mother's passion for keeping her home spic and span.

Whether Neil Simon himself belongs to the school of clutter or the school of neatness in his personal life can only be known through a visit to his home. But the orderly way the plots of his plays are built suggests that he is on the side of neatness.

It is known that he modeled the role of one of the characters in The Odd Couple upon a true-life experience of his brother Danny. After a divorce, to manage his sizable alimony payments, he undertook to share an apartment with another ex-husband. An exasperating friction developed between them—Danny is meticulously neat and his roommate was compulsively untidy. The two fought over the order and finally it split them up.

The Odd Couple, according to critics in New York, Chicago and other large cities, is entirely funny from beginning to end. As one critic put it, "Our problem is to keep from laughing so hard at each line that we may miss the next one."

Nutley Man Pays Fine In Passaic

A Nutley man who threatened a Clifton patrolman and created a disturbance at Passaic General Hospital after being taken there by police was fined $55 in Passaic Municipal Court January 23, Richard Weller, 32 Bloomfield Avenue, pleaded guilty to the charges but told Municipal Court Judge Dominick Giordano that he was somewhat shaken up by the accident in addition to the fact that the police officer seemed more concerned "about blood getting on his jacket" than the condition of the defendant at the time.

Weller was arrested December 18, 1969 by Patrolman Vito Callucci of the Clifton Police Department. The officer charged that Weller threatened a patrolman and refused to give information to police. Weller was also charged with causing a disturbance at Passaic Hospital after being taken there after an accident in Passaic.

Officer Callucci testified at the hearing that he transported the defendant to the hospital, but once there Weller refused to give information regarding his identity or injuries, and that he became belligerent.
