

PACKED HOUSE—Over 100 members of the Valley Taxpayers Association jammed Town Hall last Thursday to show their concern over the 1970 municipal budget, which was introduced on first reading. The residents promised to return for the budget's public hearing on March 20.

Public Affairs Treasury Reflects Services-Wages

Vincent T. Strumolo has been Commissioner of Public Affairs since 1967, and this week he looked back on that period and concluded that his proposed 1970 department budget reflects his commitment toward increased services made economical through tight budgeting and state aid.

Strumolo's Public Affairs budget shows a total appropriation for the coming year of $482,375.36—an increase of $43,902.70 over last year.

Like most increases being proposed this year at Town Hall, the bulk of the hikes in his department are earmarked for salary increments. Salaries and wages rose $32,228 to a total appropriation of $155,148.

Reflected in this year's budget are three new programs. Initiated by Strumolo are the Rubella vaccine program, an air pollution code (including membership in the Suburban Essex County Air Pollution Commission) and sugar diabetes tests. Last year a large rodent control program was instituted.

Much of the costs of the projects will come from state aid totalling $26,941.36, a hike of $9,414.17.

Strumolo has sought state funds for health services ever since he took office. The commissioner installed a full-time health officer back in 1967, and thereby qualified for state aid.

Belleville hadn't had a full-time health officer since the old commission government in 1961.

"The increases in my budget, which includes health and welfare, is the closest I can cut and still provide the necessary health programs for the people and the town's welfare requirements," Strumolo says.

A rundown of increases in the Public Affairs budget includes the following:

*Personal expenses for the commissioner rose $1,000 to a figure of $2,500. Strumolo says the increase was needed to meet the costs of numerous health and welfare conventions and seminars he attends annually which are mandatory for him by state law.

*A $3,210 wage increase in the health department will go specifically to the sanitary inspector. Strumolo instituted the office last year and qualified for one year's state aid. Salary responsibility, however, reverts back to the municipality after the initial year of institution.

*A $12,570 hike in health service expenses, which includes the Rubella and air pollution control programs. The total figure is $24,946.

*A new key punch tabulator and check cutter caused a $660 rise in new equipment charges in the Welfare Department, realizing a total appropriation of $900.

A reduction in the budget is reflected in aid to hospitals, an appropriation down $3,798. Strumolo entered a new contract with the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic,

Cookery Said To Be Dangerous

Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo this week warned Belleville residents to be wary of Mexican pottery and earthenware because of the danger of lead poisoning.

The warning, which has been conveyed by the Federal Food and Drug Administration to all health authorities, was prompted by the discovery of lead deposits in Mexican cookery.

The Commissioner urged merchants to remove suspected material from shelves, and suggested that residents abstain from using the Mexican cookery in homes.

Pottery that shows a rough or dull glaze rather than a glossy one will give off the most lead when mildly acid solutions are placed in it, the Commissioner said.

Strumolo also said that

School Board Stands Behind Its 1970-71 Budget Offer

Town commissioners will find the Belleville Board of Education firmly committed to its proposed 1970-71 school budget when the two groups meet Monday to discuss paring down the voter rejected document.

The Board last Tuesday issued a prepared statement to The Times in which it defended the budget as both frugal and responsive to the community's educational needs. The unanimously approved statement came after a caucus in which the Board discussed in depth its current financial situation.

Tuesday nights public meeting again saw numerous residents pack the Board office. Last week a full house showed up to support Schools Superintendent Anthony Greco, who had been criticized in the press by Dr. Frank DiRuggiero and teacher officials.

This time the group seemed more interested in what the Board members had to say, asking less questions than a week before.

The Board's prepared statement was read at the close of the regular meeting which was moved up from Monday night due to Washington's birthday.

The statement which was read by Board President Rocco Saletta, was as follows:

"The members of the Belleville Board of Education, in executive session on Tuesday evening, deliberated at length on the financial problem we face as a result of the budget defeat. After a detailed perusal of all accounts we find that the budget we had agreed upon represents a minimum request to properly educate our youngsters.

"We have been, and continue to be, a frugal system which attempts to translate our tax dollars into a maximum educational program. The fact that we are able to perform this function at a cost considerably less than other communities in Essex County is an indication of our efforts to provide a good education while protecting the taxpayers of our community.

"While figures can be made to prove most any argument, a responsible gauge of our cost is reflected in the cost per pupil. The fact is that of the 22 districts in Essex County, our cost per pupil ranks 21st, or second from the bottom.

"The best bargain, the best investment we can make, is in the education of the youth of our community. As Board members we are dedicated to continue the high caliber of educational level while maintaining our policy of holding down expenditures."

for the project had begun previous to the county announcement, with committees having been formed.

Facing the club's board of directors tonight will be three questions, according to Costenbader.

First on the list is whether the state can be induced to change the county pageant date, a possibility which Costenbader feels is slim.

Secondly, the club must decide what problems the group would incur if the local pageant was held some time in April. A key consideration

Budget Meeting Monday

A meeting is tentatively scheduled this Monday between town commissioners and school board members to discuss possible reductions in the 1970-71 school budget.

May Use Surplus Cash

Town Fathers Consider A Reduced '70 Budget

By Nat Gottlieb

Belleville's 1970 budget, introduced last Thursday as $11,197,177, may actually be substantially smaller when it comes up for a final hearing on March 20.

Three factors are looming which might make a dent in the proposed budget package which reflects a 72 point tax point increase.

The Times learned this week that the commissioners are seriously considering applying an additional $200,000 from its surplus fund toward the general budget. The budget already has $500,000 in surplus money earmarked for 1970 expenses.

Also listed as possible factors in budget reductions are two matters involving the Belleville Board of Education.

The commissioners are hoping for a decision before March 20 on their appeal to State Education Commissioner Carl Marburger over his decision to return $128,000 to the local board's 1969-70 budget. Should Marburger reverse his decision this money would be removed from the proposed 1970-71 school budget.

A meeting tentatively scheduled this Monday between town commissioners and school officials is also expected to produce a large cut in the board's recently rejected budget. Reports from reliable sources indicate that as much as $300,000 might be sliced off.

Commissioner Mary Senatore told The Times that the directors have been discussing the feasibility of adding $200,000 from surplus money to the budget. Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo also said the idea had been discussed, and indicated that he would be in favor of the proposal.

The town currently enjoys a $1,353,624.07 surplus account.

When asked why the Commission had not included the $200,000 in the budget introduced last Thursday, Commissioner Senatore said that most departments at the time, "didn't know just how much money they needed for the coming year." She said that consideration of the idea came only after the final budget figure was arrived at.

The total budget includes $4,674,990 for schools, which is more than last year; county up $188,361 to $2,853,305, and municipal operating portion showing $3,496,302, representing a $771,302 increase.

A breakdown of the total budget shows appropriations for schools, up 38 points, for Essex County, up five points, and the municipal portion up 29 points.

Several residents, notably the Valley Taxpayers Association, have promised to express their sentiments at the final budget hearing.

Proposed salary raises for all town employees, totaling $220,000, caused the most significant increase in the municipal segment of the budget. Automobile insurance premiums are expected to increase by 85 per cent, Blue Cross health insurance up 30 per cent, pension funds up 55 per cent and package insurance up 30 per cent.

Belleville residents are slated to pay $4.88 per $1000 of assessed valuation which will mean a homeowner with a house assessed at $20,000 will pay $144 more

Half Point Tax Increase Credited To 'Tight Ship'

Jimmy Saldo recalls a special directive given to him by Public Works Commissioner Mary Senatore.

"She told me to inform all departments that in formulating 1970 budget needs, a very 'tight ship' must be maintained.

As a result, Saldo, who is the department's administrative clerk, worked out a budget with the commissioner calling for an increase of $19,902.70, second smallest department budget on the Commission.

The figure reflects less than a one point tax increase, with total appropriation listed as $527,208.09.

"I'm very proud of my budget," Commissioner Senatore said. "I feel I've kept my expenditures down to fit the taxpayers needs and his pocketbook."

As is the case in all town departments, the most substantial increase went heavily for salary and wages, which rose $20,081, a total appropriation of $300,246.

Actually, salary hikes for the 42 Public Works employees represents substantially more than this figure. Last year, however, total salary expenditures were less than what was appropriated, totalling $258,914.49. The salary increase in the 1970 budget reflects only the difference in appropriations.

Also offsetting the salary rises was a reduction in sewer contract charges by the Passaic Valley Sewage Commission. The total figure proposed for 1970 is $121,896.04, a drop of $3,974.37. The PVSC lowered municipal costs in connection with a water purification project.

This winter's hard toll on streets will once again cost the town $19,000, of which $16,551 of the resurfacing cost comes through state aid.

A $1,200 increase in equipment appropriations is listed in the street, sewers and shade tree department, where the Commissioner is adding a pick-up truck, a trash pump, an electric sewer cleaner and a gas chain saw. Most of the department's snow removal equipment is old, according to the commissioner, but replacements will come under the commissioner's proposal.

Belleville Youth Serves Congress

Before each session of Congress, Walter Weiss raises the flag over the House of Representatives to signal the start of another day of legislation in the busy capital.

Walter, who lives at 19 Madison Street in Belleville, is in his second year as a congressional page in Washington, D.C. Serving Congressman Peter Rodino Jr., as a documentary page, he is responsible at each session to supply representatives with printed copies of bills and other documents that are on the daily agenda.

The 17-year old was selected last year by Commissioner Mary Senatore to be Rodino's page. Walter was home last week on a brief vacation to visit family and friends before heading back to his busy Washington schedule.

Living in a rooming house with other pages, Walter attends a six a.m. school session before Congress convenes. His job also includes the handling of an electric bell system used throughout the House to update representatives on what is taking place and to order their appearance on the floor for roll calls.

The young page will finish high school this June and plans to attend college in the fall.

Public Works Employees Tackle Belleville's 'Pot Holes'

New Jersey's worst winter in nine years has left numerous "pot-holes" in Belleville streets.

The Department of Public Works has begun to face this problem by assigning two "patch" crews to fill the street depressions.

The current assault on cracked streets is only a preliminary thrust, according to Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of the department.

Through federal aid, 12 streets will be resurfaced with a thin overlay in the spring. To date, 27 roads have undergone resurfacing through the federal grants.

Just which streets will profit by the federal monies, is uncertain. The Commissioner says that a department survey aimed at pinpointing streets worst hit by the winter should reveal where priorities lay.

The current problem of the potholes is a result of a record distribution of salt on Belleville's streets, according to Commissioner Senatore.

FILL-IN—Commissioner of Public Works Mary Senatore checks one of two crews putting temporary fill in pot holes around town. Shown on the job are (l-r) Thomas Spetzerra, Miss Belleville 1970?

Nowhere To Go

There may not be a Miss Belleville contest this year.

The Belleville Jaycees, who have run the competition for seven years, will decide at a special meeting tonight whether to continue the pageant.

What apparently may cause the Jaycees to cancel the annual affair is the scheduling of the Miss Essex County pageant on May 2, a week before the Belleville contest.

Frank Costenbader, club president, says the fact that the local queen will have no additional contest to enter has caused concern in his organization.

Past practice was for Miss Belleville to enter the State pageant. The state decided, however, to rescind town charters to the pageant this month because local queens "didn't represent a great enough cross-section of young women."

It was decided then that Miss Belleville would enter the county contest to gain entrance to the state pageant.

Now there apparently is no where for Miss Belleville to go, and the Jaycees, according to Costenbader are considering cancelling the pageant.

Sources close to the Jaycees have said, however, that there are other reasons why the club may not continue the pageant.

Chief factor cited was that the members purportedly lacked interest in the project, and that few were willing to spend the time organizing it.

The sources also said that the Jaycees, who are men between the ages of 21-35, were more interested in other projects such as summer camps for children, and considered the pageant idea "stale." They stated that the Jaycees who started the pageant are gone now, and that new members "just don't want to spend the time on the contest."

Costenbader preferred not to comment on these reports, but did say emphatically that if the county pageant was held after May 9, there "would be no problem for us."

The Jaycee president went on to say that organization

The Department of Parks and Public Property shows the next highest increase, totaling $286,344, a hike of $68,302. The bulk of this went again for salaries and wages.

Also showing an increase is in expenses for the Planning Board, where an additional $1,275 is tentatively earmarked for special legal services. The Planning Board has requested the funds, but Commissioner Senatore says she will have Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato examine the request to see if the special services are actually needed.

An operating increase in the water utilities budget, which comes under Commissioner Senatore's direction, calls for an increase of $13,199. The water utilities budget is self-liquidating and not raised through taxation.

Dangerous Cookery

The FDA, meanwhile, is working with Mexican authorities to curtail the problem. The Federal agency has asked importers and distributors of the Mexican products to stop the flow from across the border.

He entered the Army in April of 1969 and has been in Vietnam since September 3, 1969.

Local Pageant Woes

The third question, is whether the club should cancel this year's pageant altogether.

In the event of the cancellation, Costenbader, said his group may declare last year's winner, Marilyn Casale as Miss Belleville 1970, and send her to the County pageant.

Miss Casale, meanwhile acknowledged the possibility, but said she had not made up her mind either way. She stated she would consider the idea because she enjoyed last year's pageant and that it would enable her to try for another scholarship and to meet new people.

What would deter Miss Casale from entering would be the time and travel involved. She is a sophomore at Westchester State College in Pennsylvania.

The Cherry Blossom pageant, which is scheduled April 26, might also be affected by the Jaycee decision tonight. Traditionally, pageant contestants ride floats in the pageant. Should this year's contest be cancelled, Costenbader said Miss Casale and her court might join the parade.

George Washington

It is unusually appropriate to observe the birthday of the first President of the United States at a time when the nation is trying to extract itself from a long bitter, foreign war. Washington, of course, won his first international fame as the commanding general of rebelling American soldiers. He was, happily, not only a great general but a great President and serves as proof that military men do not always prove misplaced in the White House.

Washington quit school after his father's death, at the age of sixteen and his education was not long in books but adequate in forestry, sports and the ways of gentlemen. After three years of surveying, he went to the Bahama Islands, with his brother, Lawrence, who sought recuperation from an illness.

Lawrence gave George his place in the Virginia Militia and shortly after this, the Governor of Virginia selected him for a dangerous journey through the forests, the purpose being to warn the French to depart from the area and not trespass on England's claims. The French refused to leave this area and Washington had to bring back the message that they probably intended to remain. Thereupon the Virginia Assembly appropriated funds for a fighting force to be sent against the invaders, and Washington accompanied the unit.

The commanding officer soon died, and in the resulting fighting and skirmishes, the Virginians were defeated. Washington returned to Virginia, was reduced in rank and resigned his commission with indignation. England sent General Braddock to conduct the next attack and he, too, failed, Washington being on this expedition also. Thereafter the boundaries of Virginia were ravaged by savages for some years.

A third attempt to capture the fort in which the French were garrisoned finally succeeded, in 1753.

When the disputes became hot and heavy between the colonies and England, Washington sided with the colonists but favored conciliation.

When armed revolt broke out in New England leaders agreed that selection of a Southerner would unite the colonies and Washington was agreed upon. He aligned the Middle and Southern States with the New England States and carried them to victory in a long and bitter struggle against England. As every American knows, his army was often in desperate condition, without food or money, and the success of his great effort was many times in serious doubt.

Washington emerged from the conflict a hero and was elected President twice by overwhelming majorities. No doubt he could have remained President, but he wisely chose to step down after two terms. For a time, in this country, historians seemed to think it modern to minimize some of the legends that have grown up about Washington and his accomplishments.

In more recent years, however, historians have come to the conclusion that the more they study his life, the greater he emerges. Had the country not possessed Washington, it is highly doubtful if the Revolution would have succeeded. Although his portraits sometimes seem cold, he was a generous man, loved by his troops and admired by colonists in every corner of the Thirteen States. Washington was one of the world's great figures. He is the father of the greatest nation on earth, made its greatness possible. All Americans, and especially the young people of today, should be reminded of these facts when February 22nd rolls around.

The Search For Truth

The search for truth is the greatest endeavor of human beings but the effort is often shackled by the tendency of individuals to become wedded to convictions which become dearer than truth itself.

Let us assume, for example, that some man in this community makes a great discovery, hitherto unknown to men and women. It is epochal, we assume, and the thinker announces it to the world.

One would expect human beings to receive the information with open minds, test it by logic and experience and then embrace it with enthusiasm. Unfortunately, that is not the way of the world.

Here is what would likely happen:

Some would think that it might interfere with their business profits. They would denounce the discoverer as a Communist.

Others would see in the enunciated principle some challenge to their established positions in economics, sociology, religion, or other fields. They would pounce upon the thinker with the glee of a dog chasing a rabbit.

So the process would go for decades before the truth would find itself welcome on the globe.

Readers may think this far-fetched. They should read what happened in earlier ages to great men who attempted to lead the minds of men along new paths of truth in the field of science or religion. They should remember that human nature has not changed very much in the ages since man began to walk the earth.

There is nothing to be gained by denouncing human beings for being foolish. All that any individual can do for himself or herself, is to resolve to be open-minded, to eagerly await the revelations that are yet to come and to stand ready, upon proper occasion, to discard the fondled half-truth for the truth that is eventually destined to make men free.

Most People Agree Inflation Is Hurting

By John J. Bunevich

Question: Do you think inflation can be stopped and how does it affect you?

Asked: of Nutley and Belleville residents.

Mrs. William Franklin, 20 Clement Street, Nutley.

Inflation does affect me as I think it reaches almost every person in this country. As an example, I think food prices are on the rise. In just one year I can see the prices on most food items have gone up at least one or two cents. This can't be stopped by individual efforts but something can be done about it if shoppers and housewives ban together and pressure the food stores to lower their costs.

Mrs. Nellie Cusgrave, 105 Belleville Avenue, Belleville.

Inflation affects me and my generation much more than younger people. Everyone is hit hard by rising costs but I think older persons suffer the worst. What happens to the older person who has to survive on social security and finds that inflation has made his or her monthly checks practically worthless? What is done about this?

Nothing. Prices are soaring and are especially high on food and drugs. These two items are needed just to stay alive and people are discovering they can't afford even these because of higher prices.

Phyllis Nichols, 12 Glendale Street, Nutley.

I'm a sophomore in Nutley High School and don't have a job yet but even I can tell inflation is getting worse. I think it's really bad. Lots of kids in school are recognizing this problem and there is always complaining, even at the high school level. My parents both work but even in the home there is a certain amount of penny pinching because of higher prices.

Mrs. Edith Graziano, 84 Chestnut Street, Belleville.

I think inflation is getting out of hand if not completely out of control already. Putting a stop to it isn't easy but I think legislation and enforcement on the political level would be a way of halting it. Prices on all items, and food in particular, are on the increase. There is no one shot solution for stopping inflation but politics, both on the state and federal level, should take more of an interest in this threat to the economy.

Seems Only Yesterday

15 Years Ago

James R. Golden of 62 Tappan Avenue became the first to file a petition with the county clerk as a candidate for the state senate in the November election.

The Town Commission in an afternoon meeting adopted an ordinance to get a 1 1/4 acre tract between the Third River and Glendale Cemetery for disposal of street refuse. It also adopted a second ordinance appropriating $3,100 for a storm sewer on the north side of Hilton Avenue to a new storm sewer on Franklin Avenue.

The town's first outdoor public swimming pool was to be constructed, a committee of residents decided, moving to raise half the estimated 80,000 cost through a townwide drive and the other half through pool admissions.

40 Years Ago

The riot act was almost read at the Elks semi-monthly meeting in the Home on Washington Avenue when the Bloomfield lodge presented their "Zulu" team which put on their famous "Cannibal Degree." Laughter was so uproarious, according to members who attended, that there was a move for immediate relief. The move failed, however, and the laughter finally faded out.

Citizens numbering 250 were present at the first meeting of the Civic League for Continued Good Government, which was held in the council chamber of the Town Hall. Henry B. Jacobus, president, gave a brief outline of the accomplishments of the commissioners during their four years of office.

Dr. Herbert B. Vail, for the second time in his career, became town physician as the result of action by the Board of Commissioners when they appointed him to succeed temporarily the position left vacant by Dr. Frederick S. Bootay, who died the previous week at Saint Barnabus' Hospital.

50 Years Ago

Ladies night was observed by the Reformed Church Men's Club in a duck pin bowling contest; the married women won over the single women by a 165-150 score.

The Board of Education rejected bids for the school to be erected at Joralemon Street and Passaic Avenue. The lowest bid totaled $114,284 and only $90,000 had been appropriated.

Mr. & Mrs. Samuel T. Beams of Mount Prospect Avenue entertained the heads of the various departments of Heller Bros. Company's file factory.

Mary Senatore Invites Questioning On Budget

To the Editor:

On Thursday, February 19, citizens of Belleville were alerted by flyers from various groups in town asking them to attend a Town Hall meeting as a hearing on the town budget was to be held.

They were all welcomed and I was most happy to see so many interested citizens in attendance. The only unfortunate thing was that this group was led to the meeting through false rumors and a mistake in the newspaper.

It was amazing to observe in the chambers how many people believe false rumors, and yet the "true facts" are ignored by the taxpayers, through ambitious political aspirants.

A few weeks back the Board of Education held a public budget hearing, and only a handful of interested citizens attended.

On February 10, an election on the school budget was held and only 2,200 voters of our 18,000 registered thought it important enough to vote on a budget with a 43 point increase.

I venture to say, of the 75 persons in attendance, one quarter of them voted on February 10.

The Board of Education budget being narrowly defeated, now returns to the commissioners, and I, as one of the commissioners, feel a responsibility and an obligation to the taxpayers to cut down the tax points.

I speak only for myself saying this. Where there are needs for the children of our school system in safety, education and welfare, I shall refrain from acting on any of these cuts. However, so far as repairs go, I firmly believe that any repairs to school property should be listed and corrected immediately through a bond issue, thus saving the taxpayers additional burden.

As to the questions by persons concerning the Department of Public Works (of which was carefully stripped to the bone), I personally invite and welcome any taxpayer of our community to review my budget, so as to find in any way, how they could reduce the half point increase I've proposed.

The only increase in Public Works is an increase in salary, due to the cost of living hike. New equipment is not listed in my budget, yet we are badly in need of it as each piece is now over 12 years old. I have submitted a complete list of needed pieces of equipment to Mayor Ken Smith requesting they be put on a bond issue, so as not to burden the taxpayers all at once, and still be able to purchase the necessities to run an efficient department with better services to the taxpayers.

I openly invite any taxpayer who is interested in reviewing my budget to call Town Hall or the Public Works garage and I shall be pleased to discuss it completely with them at their convenience.

Testimonial Set For O'Connor

A testimonial dinner is planned April 10 for Maurice O'Connor, renowned golf pro at Belleville's Hendrick's Field Golf Course for 42 years.

Over 300 people, including former heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis and ex-middle weight title holder Sugar Ray Robinson, are expected to attend the affair at the Fountain Restaurant.

O'Connor, who has won every major state tournament except the open, has been called by many the "most outstanding state golfer in the last 40 years".

He stepped down recently from his post to go into semi-retirement. Richard Dacey of Belleville who has assumed O'Connor's duties as golf pro, will chairman the testimonial.

The popular golfer is currently employed by the club to set up the State PGA tournament, scheduled sometime in June at the Belleville course.

Tickets may be obtained from Dacey at the course.

Variance Applicants Pay Fees

Applicants before the Zoning Board must now pay a shorthand reporter fee.

Previously, the town picked up the tab, which runs about $40 for a single meeting.

The Commission has passed legislation requiring that applicants foot the bill because "costs were running too high."

Citizens already pay civil and criminal court costs, including stenographer fees.

Under the new law, if there is more than one applicant, they may share the costs.

The soldier, who is stationed with the 44th Signal Battalion in Long Binh, wrote the Chamber that other men in his battalion had their state flags on display, and he hadn't seen any from New Jersey.

On January 14, through the joint efforts of the Chamber and the International Electrical and Flag Decorating Company of Newark, a flag was sent to the local soldier.

NERVES—JUST NERVES

Dr. R. Lawrence
- Chiropractor -

Many people are often told "It's your nerves - just nerves, that's all." Yet nerves are just too important to be dismissed so easily. Nerves have an effect upon blood pressure, circulation, breathing, digestion, intestinal action etc.

Practically all main nerves pass from the spine. Yet today's mode of living produces many undesirable effects upon it. We sit behind desks and in automobiles too long or we are on our feet too much. We are careless about posture and work in distorted, cramped or strained positions. When we become tense, our neck and back muscles tighten. This compounding of abuses frequently results in producing pressure and irritation on nerves as they pass from the spine and go to specific vital organs.

Your Chiropractor is especially trained to detect and relieve these points of nerve interference by a system of spinal adjustments. These manipulations are relaxing and can have a beneficial effect upon one's health. An analysis of the spine should never be overlooked. Visit your local Chiropractor

Plastic surgery is one of the world's oldest medical arts. The restoration of fractured noses was described by ancient Egyptian papyrus 5,000 years ago. And the repair of amputated noses is recorded in early Sanskrit literature of 600 B.C. Lopping off noses and ears was a common ancient punishment and the surgeon's job was to repair the damage. Until a few years ago, plastic surgery was often a gamble. But today it is simple, speedy and relatively painless. It can't work miracles, but it can give a man or a woman a chance. After winning the Post competition, Sue went to Millburn for the county semi-finals where she took third place. Here Sue used the same basic speech after working on it with classmate Sharon Rockaway to improve

Towns, Mustacchio Lead Bellboys Into Districts On Saturday Afternoon

By Nat Gottlieb

Bellboy wrestling coach Jim Silvestri will take his squad into this Saturday's district tournament with high hopes for several individual championships.

Complicating this year's tourney entry for the Bellboys, was confusion earlier this week over a site for the competition.

Normally the districts are held at Barringer High School in Newark, but this year's teacher's strike has closed that gym.

As of Tuesday night then, when cedings for the competition were announced and The Times went to press, no site had been named for the tournament.

Facing Belleville in the districts (wherever they may be) are Essex Catholic, Kearny, Bloomfield, Barringer, West Side and Central.

Essex Catholic, promises to present the greatest challenge. The parochial school always produces fine wrestlers, and should be tough competition for the 6-7 Bellboys.

Also to be reckoned with are Kearny and Bloomfield, both of which have registered dual meet victories over

Conservationist Of The Year Award Nominations Are Set

Nominations of individuals and organizations for 1969-70 "Conservationist of the Year" are being accepted by the New Jersey State Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development announced today.

Selections will be made in 10 categories overall conservation effort and achievement or most significant contribution to the cause of conservation or toward solution of a major problem in the State during the year. The accomplishment may be in the field of natural resource management, including enhancement and preservation of natural beauty. The winner could also have won an award in a specific category. A Bald Eagle Statuette goes to the recipient.

By MAX BECK

Since the prices for everything seem to go up and up all the time, taxes just had to follow, meaning of course the raise in sales tax to 5%. One wonders whether there ever will be a stop. Certainly not unless the Government succeeds and stops inflation; that seems to be the crux of the whole situation.

No doubt, many people will take advantage of saving the additional tax and make major purchases before it goes into effect. We sold many TV sets because of this already and - no doubt - will sell many more before the tax becomes effective.

Considering the price reduction due to the present Annual Magnavox Sale, plus the saving of the higher tax, it amounts to a saving of $61.00 on the most popular TAC color TV and that, as the saying goes, "ain't hay". So if you had planned to buy a color set sooner or later, now would be the time to do it. One can not make money quicker or easier than that.

Leading this year's Bellboy squad into the tourney will be captain Jessie Towns, last year's district champ in the 130 pound class. This year Towns ripped up his opponents for a 12-0 mark in the 136 pound class.

Sophomore John Mustacchio with an 11-2 mark has been the great surprise for Silvestri, who expects the youngster to take a first in the 115 pound class.

In Mustacchio's way is Essex Catholic's Bob Baldacini.

Vito Marcoglies (8-3-1) also has a tough test with Essex's Jim Testa. John Savato (14-1), Carment Russomano (16-7) are also rated top contenders by Silvestri, who finds himself with a young team loaded with potential.

Last year, three Bellboys took district titles: Towns, Bob Bonafante and Robert Giordano.

In last weeks action in the Recreation Senior Basketball League there were several vital changes of position. It was apparent that all of the teams were dead serious as they went into their next to last games of this intense, highly competitive league.

Certainly the most thrilling and significant game of the evening was the Falcons-Knicks tilt. Going into the game the Falcons shared first place with the Eagles. However the Knicks had been building strength and were sure to be tough.

In the first quarter the Falcons got out to a 13-8 lead. Steve Constantino started to hit for the Knicks in the second stanza and the score closed to: Falcons 20, Knicks 19.

Both teams collected ten more points in the third quarter to keep the tension at fever pitch. During the final phase both Bill Haysworth and Constantino did their stuff and the Knicks pulled it out 47-45. This was a lovely present to the Eagles who were thereby presented sole possession of first place. Frank Calabrese with 15 points and John Moraski with twelve led the Falcons scoring. For the Knicks it was Constantino with 21 and Haysworth with 14.

Meanwhile the Eagles enjoyed a 67-48 win over a greatly improved Royals team.

Another thriller was the game between the Panthers and the Trotters. These two teams each had 6-3 standings going into this scrap. The Panthers moved out to a two point lead in the first quarter only to see it disappear in the second. In the third period it was again the Panthers in front 23-20 and this proved enough. The Trotters, fighting gamely, were only able to close one point in the final quarter. The Panthers won, 36-34.

In the other games the Saints defeated the Lakers 53-40 behind Jerusik's 18 points and 12 by Dave Ferrughelli. The scrappy Pros drubbed the Rec Boys 63-21. A very impressive Imperials defeated the Bullets 43-29.

As the teams face their last league games they stand as follows: Eagles 9-1; Falcons 8-2; Panthers, Imperials and Knicks 7-3; Trotters 6-4; Saints 5-5; Pros and Rec Boys 4-6; Bullets 2-8; Lakers 1-9; Royals 0-10.

One team will be declared League Champion and will not be eligible for the playoffs. Four teams will go into the playoffs to vie for the playoff trophies. Critical games in the last night of action will be the Eagles-Panthers game, the Falcons-Imperials game, Knicks-Saints game. If there are ties for the playoff positions these ties will have to be broken.

Belleville's JV lost their match but won most of the bouts that were on the mat. The JV's won six bouts lost two and tied one, but three classes that were forfeited gave Lyndhurst a 27-22 win.

Tom Jones won on Belleville's only pin at 178.

Lyndhurst Just Nipped

The closest match of the Belleville High Wrestling Squad's season was decided by a referee who wanted to be definitely sure before he made a call. The Bellboys had been leading Lyndhurst 22-16 when the 178 lb. class started. At 178 for Belleville was Sal Bivona and for Lyndhurst the undefeated Vic Bartolona.

In the first period Bartolona scored the take down and took Bivona into what looked like a pinning combination, but the referee moved closer and decided Sal's shoulder wasn't close enough to the mat for a pin. Bartolona held Bivona as close to a pin as possible for the rest of the first period, but the ref insisted that Sal never was pinned.

When Bartolona was finished he won 11-0, and was given five points for a pin as the Lyndhurst fans wanted, his team would have come out on top, but the Bellboys would up winning 22-21.

On the individual side, team captain Jessie Towns made weight for 136 lb. class and scored his twelfth win in a row, this one was a 5-2 decision over Mark Lajterman whose record was 9-1.

For the team, this was the last match of the season and the win brought them as close as they've ever been to a winning season, 6-7. The squad now is preparing for the district championships on Saturday.

At 98 pounds, senior Kevin Sutton lost his third match in a row to make his final record 3-6. Sutton was beaten 2-0 by Ken Wieland of Lyndhurst who scored his only two points on a reversal in the second period.

For the fifth time this season, Angelo Zoppi pinned his opponent in the 106 pound class. Zoppi is finishing the season with a 9-3-1 record, his last five wins have been in succession. The tough little 106 pounder pinned Phil Giguinto of Lyndhurst in the second period while he was leading 6-2.

A good prospect for the districts, John "Boff" Mustacchio won his ninth match in a row to make his record 11-2. The 115 pounder accumulated five minutes 20 seconds riding time while shutting out Lyndhurst's Norbert Lajterman 7-0. Lajterman had started the third period on top, but Boff reversed in only three seconds.

Lyndhurst crept up on Belleville's lead by winning the 123 pound bout. Lyndhurst's Tim O'Neil decisioned Belleville's Mike Egidio 4-1 to make the team score 8-6.

Both teams were awarded two points in the 130 pound class as Vito Macogliese tied Lyndhurst's John Christiano 2-2. Vito had been taken down in the first period with only ten seconds left. In the second period Vito kept control and gained two minutes riding time. In the third period Vito escaped from Christiano in 20 seconds, but neither wrestler scored the takedown. Vito was awarded the tying point for his one minute riding time advantage.

At 136 pounds, Belleville's Jessie Towns beat Mark Lajterman 6-2. For the first time this season Jessie didn't score the first period takedown, but became the third Bellboy of the day to reverse his opponent in less than ten seconds. Towns reversed in six seconds and his opponent escaped one minute later, but Towns then scored a takedown. Towns started the third period on top and Lajterman escaped for a second time, something that isn't usually done against Towns. Jessie again got the takedown to win 6-2.

John Salvato won his seventh match of the season at 141 pounds against Lyndhurst's Tom Berner, 5-2. Salvato scored the takedown in the first period, rode out Berner in the second, reversed him in the third, and when Berner scored a reversal Salvato escaped for the final tally.

Ricky Caruso won on his first shutout of the year to make his final record 4-7. Caruso scored the first period takedown over Lyndhurst's George Nicolatis, and his last two points on a third period reversal.

Lyndhurst started to move closer with the 157 lb. bout, which was won on a pin. Lyndhurst's Mark Checki pinned Belleville's Brian Wadell in the second period, and make the team score 19-13.

Carmen "The Beast" Russomano showed another wrestler how he got his nickname as he shutout Lyndhurst's Jim Warburton, 9-0. The Beast scored the takedown in the first period, escaped and took down Warburton in the second period, and was awarded four points for stalling penalties against Warburton.

In the 178-bout, Belleville was ahead by nine points, and the only way for Lyndhurst to win would be on pins in both the 178 and heavyweight bouts. With the decision in the 178 pound class Belleville was assured of a victory by at least one point.

The referee's decision that Bivona wasn't pinned saved the day for Belleville as Joe Valvano was pinned in the second period of the heavyweight bout.

Belleville's JV lost their match but won most of the bouts that were on the mat. The JV's won six bouts lost two and tied one, but three classes that were forfeited gave Lyndhurst a 27-22 win.

Tom Jones won on Belleville's only pin at 178.

SPORTS PARADE

"And don't forget, that's the only winning team this year at the Junior High." Frosh wrestling Coach Dennis Villano becomes emphatic as he talks of the Jr. High team and its 3-2-1 record. Wrestling on the freshman level is only in its second year in Belleville, and like varsity coach Jim Silvestri, Villano feels that wrestling is on its way up in Belleville.

The frosh's three victories came over Kearny, Irvington, and Seton Hall, none of whom the frosh faced last year when they were 1-1 for the season. The scores for these matches weren't at hand, but Villano remembered that while none of them were "runaway matches" (where the difference in the score is about 15-20 points), Seton Hall was the closest one.

One thing that stands out for the frosh is the fact that their tie with Essex Catholic came against a school which hadn't been beaten or tied in three years. In the '69 season the frosh lost 45-15, and this year the score was 25-22. Villano explained that it seemed like the Bloomfield coach must have brought down his best sophos to make up for Bloomfield's loss to the Bellboy frosh last year.

On this year's squad were two undefeated wrestlers who could show up next year as varsity grapplers. The team's co-captain Brian Banda at 115 pounds compiled a 6-0 record, and Bob Gebhard went 3-0 at 167 pounds. The other co-captain, Rich Giordano had been showing a good deal of ability but was unable to wrestle during the season due to a minor injury.

An intramural wrestling program at the Junior High is one of the things that is helping to create an interest for this sport. It gets more students involved, and could have been one of the reasons that wrestling outdrew basketball at the Junior High.

Villano would like to make his schedule larger for next year, possibly scheduling as many as 10 schools, but thinks that for the sport to continue the frosh will need a good mat. The mat that Villano wants lies rolled up against the wall of the Auxiliary Gym in the Senior High, and is used only when the junior varsity squad has a match. The frosh coach added that he "will put in a requisition for a mat of our own next year but I doubt if I'll get it with the budget defeated."

The same day that I was at the Junior high to talk to Villano, the frosh crew team held its first meeting. Coach Sam Giuffrida said it was too soon to talk about the upcoming season, but surveyed the boys at the meeting.

Giuffrida said the 40 boys there were mostly "big and tough, not heavy but tall." He added that last year's frosh went 10-7, and these kids could do better because last year's squad lacked the size.

To keep from going too far about this year's team, Giuffrida said that last year's JV squad (he's JV coach too) as frosh had the "best record ever" at 17-0 which with their 11-2 JV record totals to a 28-2 record for the shell.

Bob Bonfante, a '69 grad of Belleville High School, took third place in the Region 19 National Junior College Athletic Association championships held this past weekend at Ocean County College in Toms River. As a Bellboy Heavyweight, Bob took first place in the district championships.

Merger, Belleville Style Planned For Baseball

The Belleville Little League and the Recreation Junior and Peanut Leagues have decided to unite in an effort to eliminate confusion for town youngsters who have in the past been forced into two separate sign-ups.

At a Recreation House meeting last week, leaders of the leagues met to discuss plans for the 1970 baseball season.

At this meeting details were worked out for a closer relationship between the two organizations. Actually, in function they will become completely united. Representing the Little League were Michael Marotti, Ray Frate, Bob Pugliese and Harry Weaver, and for the Recreation leagues Michael Swinarski and Robert E. Cook.

The reason for the meeting and its resulting decisions is the annual confusion that has existed among boys signing up for baseball.

Some boys signed up for Little League, did not make it and thought they automatically went to the Recreation Leagues. Some boys who had played in the Recreation Leagues did not realize that they could and should try out for Little League. There has also been some dissention among individuals of both organizations.

In the interest of clarifying the situation for the boys who want to play ball, several important decisions and a clear statement of purpose resulted from the meeting. The main job of all of the Leagues is to give as many boys as possible the chance to play baseball.

It is also the goal to produce the best possible Little League which will represent our town in state and national tournaments. Further it is desired that the total baseball structure allow all boys to play every year.

The following are the decisions which were made to bring about these goals.

This year there will be one application, circulated through the schools, for all boys from age eight through age twelve. The cut off date on ages will be July 31.

The Recreation Leagues will conform to this cut-off date in all of its Leagues so that boys can move from Little League on to the Intermediate and Senior Leagues. Boys who are eight and nine years old will automatically go to Recreation Peanut League. Boys of ten, 11 and 12 years will attend the try-outs and will be placed either in the Little League or in the Recreation Farm League.

Ages in each case are determined as of July 31, 1970. Little League try-outs will be concluded by April 15.

Those who do not make the Little League will then be assigned to Farm League teams.

Except in very rare cases boys assigned to a Farm Team will not be removed to a Little League team after May 5 and then only by mutual agreement.

All boys who wish to play must fill out the official baseball application and attend the try-outs. Boys who played Farm League last year and are still eligible are urged to shoot for a berth on a Little League team.

League play in the Farm League and the Peanut League will begin on Monday May 4. The Intermediate and Senior Leagues will begin a week later.

Amateur Astronomers Hoping Not To Miss March Eclipse

It's their last chance and members of Amateur Astronomers, Inc., aren't going to miss the March 7 eclipse if they can help it.

The amateur astronomers will spread out over the east coast from their home base at the William Miller Sperry Observatory at Union College here in their efforts to capture the eclipse on film. The next scheduled total eclipse of the sun is in 2,184, so it's now or never, says Edward T. Pearson of Westfield, president of A.A.I.

Rec. Department Organizes Men's Softball Tonight

The Recreation Department will meet today to organize the 1970 Mens Softball Leagues, at 7:30 p.m. at the Recreation House. Discussed will be rules, starting dates, playing schedules, fees and league structures. Representatives of teams wishing to enter the leagues will attend.

New teams will be accepted provided there are openings with priority given to Belleville teams or teams sponsored by Belleville organizations and in the order of their applications.

Last year there were 24 teams in the four leagues. Champions of the four leagues were Frenchys, Zig-Zags, Landolfis and the Jolly Cleaners.

In the play-offs the Jollys, lost to Landolfi Home for Funerals and to Frenchys and were eliminated. The Landolfis surprised Frenchys in their first meeting but Frenchys came back to win.

Petronaci Hits 42 For Knicks

The Knickerbockers continued undefeated in last week's action in the Recreation Friendly House Basketball League with a 90-55 win over the Nets.

Mike Petronaci led the Knicks onslaught with a fantastic 42 points. Kent Robinson was the big man for the Nets with a 36 point effort.

Right from the start the league leading Knicks jumped out in front and continued to stretch their lead throughout the game.

At the quarters it was the Knicks 25-9, 50-25, 67-35 and then a 23 point last quarter put them out to 90-55. The Nets put up a game battle all the way but just couldn't pull up to their opponents.

In the other game of the evening the Vikings forfeited to the second-place Bullets. Present standings in the league are Knicks 4-0, Bullets 3-1, Nets 1-3 and Vikings 0-4.

The finest sermons are seen, not heard; they live in the lives of men and women.

YOUR HEADACHE! WHAT IS IT?

The most common everyday complaint of man is the headache and there are many home remedies advertised to help. Usually they consist of aspirin combined with other products and will relieve most headaches. But, many times the headache is not in itself an illness but a symptom of something else.

Recurring headaches should be reported to your physician, for it could be a signal to him that something else is wrong. In such cases taking headache remedies would not be of more than temporary help. Once your doctor finds the cause, he can prescribe a more permanent cure.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Easter Seal Appeal Opens In Belleville

Romeo Mattia, chairman of the Easter Seal Committee for Crippled Children and Adults of Essex County, for the Belleville area, announced the opening of the 1970 Easter Seal Appeal on February 23.

During the weeks ahead through April 10, the wide-spread appeal for funds will be made by the Committee to finance treatment and rehabilitation of New Jersey's crippled children and adults.

"Needs of the handicapped and costs of providing expert professional care are rising," said Mattia. "More money than ever before is needed to serve the handicapped during 1970. The people of Belleville have always responded generously to our appeal," he added. "I feel certain they charge of table prizes, Mrs. William Oertel and Mrs. Peter Spera in charge of prizes and Mrs. Paul Klinger in charge of refreshments.

Tickets may be obtained from members and may be purchased at the door.

will again make it possible to maintain and increase Easter Seal services to the crippled during the coming year."

The campaign will include the traditional mail appeal to more than 200,000 Essex County residents and businesses, in addition to several special events.

Funds from the appeal support numerous Easter Seal programs, including Camp Merry Heart, special residential summer camp for crippled children and young adults, located near Hackettstown; Raritan Valley Workshop in Franklin Township, which offers training and sheltered employment to mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed and physically handicapped persons of all ages; speech and physical therapy; equipment loans; information and referral services and office skills training programs.

Hard work has never killed a man really interested in the work he does.

Three steps to a safer neighborhood

1. Leave your home well-lighted whenever you leave. Keep an inside light on through the night. Also keep an outside light burning bright.
2. Apartment hallways and basement areas should be well-lighted. Keep a light showing in your apartment.
3. At work, keep parking areas well-lighted through the night. Make sure the interior of your office or business shows a light as well.

Light is economical protection. You can keep a 100 watt bulb burning through the night for just about 2¢. Fight crime, Light the Night.

Survey Shows Boston
Expensive for Drivers

A Boston motorist digs deeper into his pocket to own and operate a car than most motorists in 27 other key cities, according to a national survey released today by the Automobile Legal Association.

The ALA's cost of car operation study indicates that the Boston motorist who uses his car for business and drives 10,000 miles a year pays 20.92 cents per mile for the privilege.

Philip C. Wallwork, ALA
public relations director, said the Boston figure is 1.57 cents per mile higher than in the next costliest city, New York, where the per mile rate for 10,000 miles a year is 19.35 cents.

The other cities studied and their cost-per-mile rates for the 10,000-miles-per-year
driver were: San Francisco, 18.43 cents; Providence, R.
I., 17.86 cents; Chicago,
17.67 cents; Los Angeles,
17.66 cents; St. Louis, 17.49 cents; Richmond, Va., 17.43 cents; Hartford, Conn., 17.33
cents; New Orleans, 17.29
cents; Miami, 17.22 cents;
Dallas, 17.13 cents;
Washington, D. C., 17.08
cents; Seattle, 16.96 cents;
Atlanta, 16.83 cents.

Also, Minneapolis, 16.82
cents; Rutland, Vt., 16.80 cents; Pittsburgh, 16.75 cents; Memphis, Tenn., 16.64
cents; Oklahoma City, 16.54 cents; Helena, Mont., 16.52
cents; Cleveland, 16.51 cents;
Salt Lake City, 16.28 cents;
Denver, 16.25 cents;
Savannah, Ga., 16.15 cents;
Manchester, N.H., 16.06
cents, and Portland, Ore., 15.98 cents.

In its study, the ALA
theoretically buys and registers an identical medium-sized, four-door sedan in each city. Equal insurance coverage is placed on each car, local taxes and registration fees paid and a driver's license secured.
Average figures for depreciation, maintenance and repairs are considered, as well as the local cost-per-gallon of gasoline.
Overall costs are then figured for various annual mileages, ranging from 5,000 to 30,000 miles per year.

"On a city-to-city basis, the greatest variable is the cost of insurance," Wallwork said,
"and the insurance expense is the main reason why the cost of car operation in Boston is greater than in all of the other cities."

Wallwork said that one consolation in the high cost of motoring is that it becomes cheaper with every mile driven.

Does your house
look like one of these?

LOOK HOW LITTLE IT COSTS TO KEEP THEM TOASTY WARM WITH

HEAT

All of these houses use Radiant Electric GLASSHEAT panels for heat. They are in good company. Over one half million homes, hospitals and business establishments are now equipped with this super-comfortable, healthful, economical kind of house heating.

Here's why the owners of these houses are so enthusiastic about heating with Radiant Electric Glassheat panels:

- Their houses have never been so comfortable.
No more chilly floors and warm ceilings . . . each room individually controlled with its own thermostat. Flip heat on and off as easily as light switches. Radiant heat floods the room and eliminates "hot spots" and "cold spots". Corners are as warm as the center of the room.
- Their houses have never been more healthful.
Radiant heat doesn't dry out the air you breathe . . . reduces dried out nasal passages and sinusitis which cause congestion and difficult breathing. And radiant electric heat is the same heat given off by the sun, its purifying rays reduce germs and viruses in your home.
- Their houses are heated economically.
Check the houses pictured above and see how closely your heating bill comes to the house that resembles yours. With our Electric Radiant panels there's no wastage of heat up the chimney or in rooms you're not using, or in rooms you wish to keep cooler than others. You get the exact heat you want — when you want it — through individual thermostats that control the heat in each room. Then let us show you how much you can save with Electric Radiant Glassheat panels.
- Their houses have all the advantages of modern heating.
All flames, burners, smoke and ash are completely eliminated. So are the heating equipment headaches for there is no noise; no fuel worries; no tank; pump or boiler repairs; no valves to leak or fans to burn out; no chimneys or air filters to clean; no damage from leaking pipes; no sludge; carbonizing, clogging jets, oil lines, or burner nozzles, no maintenance, repair or replacement ever!

Let us demonstrate how good Radiant Electric heat feels in a few minutes in your home. Then we will show you, without obligation of any kind, how much Glassheat panels can increase the comfort of your home and decrease the cost of heat compared with your present heating system. Just phone us or send us the coupon.

Sunday Concert For De Cormier Singing Group

The De Cormier Folk Singers will appear as an extra event on Unity Institute's Concert Course this Sunday afternoon, at 3:30 p.m. in the Montclair High School auditorium.

This group regularly receives standing ovations on their tour throughout this country and parts of Canada. The De Cormier Singers are young, talented singers who are trained musicians. The extra touches that make their performance so outstanding are the addition of imaginative staging, fine musical accompaniment, and effective lighting.

Robert De Cormier's ability as an arranger is well displayed in the diversity of the program. One of the highlights of the Montclair program is "They Called Her Moses," a story-in-song based on the life of Harriet Tubman. "Life" magazine, in its first story about the great Black leaders of America, paid tribute to Harriet Tubman as one of the greatest of American women. She was engaged in the most dangerous of occupations, a conductor in the underground railway, and always carried a pistol, but her more practical weapon proved to be the songs of her people and these form the base for the cantata.

Virtuoso Set For Concerts During March

Erick Freidman, the young American violin virtuoso, will be the guest soloist when the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra presents the final concerts of the Suburban Subscription Series on Friday, March 6 at Montclair High School and Saturday, March 7 at Millburn High.

Both concerts will be under the direction of Henry Lewis, the Symphony's music director, and both will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Erick Friedman

Friedman, who is making his second appearance with the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, has achieved international success by scoring triumph after triumph in concerts around the world.

Rave notices and adulations have come from Europe, South America, the Far East and South Africa, as well as sensational acclaim from guest appearances with many of this country's leading symphony orchestras, including those of Chicago, Baltimore, Detroit, the National Symphony of the Air (under Stokowski) and the New York Philharmonic.

The New York Times critic declared: "Urbane, smooth and suave - Mr. Friedman's performances were all that and more, for he is a masterly fiddler with a tone that sounded big, a steady bow arm and excellent intonation."
