A Vital Election

For the past few years the Republican Party in Essex County has been torn asunder by family fights.

Over the past three years Republicans equipped with a score card would find it difficult to place the players and their chosen sides. Each year finds a switch in the alignment of important Republican leaders. Each year the realignments were intended to achieve party harmony. Each year there were some people who were determined to block unity.

The person most responsible for preventing party harmony is Joseph Intile, a leader without portfolio, but a person who is able to control the souls and votes of important Republican officials. His rubber stamps include two Freeholders, Raymond Stabile of Newark and Joseph Napolitano of Bloomfield, both of whom teamed up with three Democrats last January and entered into a deal whereby Democrats effectively control the Essex County Court House despite the fact that six of the nine Freeholders are Republicans.

The selfish greed of the Intile Republican Irregulars continues to dictate the destruction of the Republican Party in Essex County.

Even Governor William Cahill has been moved to declare that he could not in good conscience support any Republicans selected by Joseph Intile.

Even Republican U.S. Senate candidate Nelson G. Gross chose the Republican LINE F candidates to run with and Gross has openly rejected the Intile Republican Irregulars.

The Intile Republican Irregulars are parading under a banner "Citizens For Republican Unity." With whom do they want unity? The answer has been in the public domain since January — they want unity with the Democrats — a crowd with whom Congresswoman Florence P. Dwyer whose 12th Congressional District includes a substantial part of West Essex insisted her name be bracketed with Republicans on LINE F.

The Republican LINE F candidates have the warm endorsement of Governor Cahill. State Senators Milton Waldor, James Wallwork, Michael Giuliano, Gerardo DelTufo, and David Dowd all have endorsed and are working for Republican LINE F candidates.

Former Congressman George Wallhauser, Sr. and former Congressman Robert Kean have endorsed and are working for

Town Attorney Aids Candidates

Belleville attorney Nicholas R. Amato was instrumental Monday in getting four Newark councilman candidates on the June 16 runoff election ballot as a team.

The Councilmen had originally been denied the grouping by Newark Municipal Clerk Harry S. Reichenstein, who controls the balloting procedure in that city.

Today, the four men, Anthony J. Giuliano, Calvin D. West, Michael A. Bontempo and Ralph A. Villani are grouped on the ballot with a bracket and the designation "Peace and Progress."

The men had been denied the listing for the runoff because they had not been so united on the May 12 election ballot.

Amato, who is Belleville Town Attorney, took the case to court, charging the men were being denied their rights. The 29 year-old attorney succeeded in obtaining a restraining order from Superior Court Judge John Ackerman on May 21 to stop the drawing of lots for ballot positions.

The four men opposing Amato's clients ran as a team May 12, with a bracket and the designation "Community Progress." They will do so again in the coming runoff.

Originally, 29 candidates vied for the four council seats in the May 12 election. Now, in addition to the four Amato represented, Theodore Pinckney, Ramon Aneses, Donald Tucker and Earl Harris will run on the council ballot.

Amato says the "Peace and (Continued on Page 10)

Garden Apartment Variance Continues Undecided, As Officials Table Vote

IN PROTEST — Residents picketed Town Hall Monday night to urge the Commission to reject a controversial proposed 21-family garden apartment complex on Belleville Avenue. The people went away not knowing exactly where they stand, as Town Fathers tabled the variance vote, which had been recommended for passage 3-2 by the Zoning Board of Adjustment after five lengthy hearings.

Town Fathers tabled a controversial garden apartment variance Monday night after listening to 45 minutes of testimony by lawyers and residents. The officials said they hadn't sufficient time to study "the voluminous transcripts relating to the matter," and wanted to consider comments made at Monday's meeting.

The variance was for a 21-family garden apartment at 602-612 Belleville Avenue, which is proposed in a "A-residence," or one family zone.

The matter was recommended for passage by the Zoning Board of Adjustment, 3-2 on April 7, after listening to five three hour hearings. The unusual length of the hearings produced a "near staggering" transcript, which only last week was fully typed for study by Town Fathers.

Several residents in the vicinity of the proposed construction, which is near School Ten, have bitterly opposed the apartments and have urged officials, through petition and a local lawyer, to reject the variance.

Monday night Town Clerk Eugene Barnett delivered to officials, 237 letters from residents objecting to the bill. Many of the letters had multiple signatures.

The Lilanz Realty Company, which is applying for the variance claims that a "special use" for the land exists because their lot is too deep for one family construction (290 feet), and that the area is no longer a true "A"-zone.

A similar application by Lilanz for a 25 unit apartment complex on the site had been denied nine months ago because no special use was established.

The objectors maintain that no special use exists still, and that there will be dangerous traffic situation and related problems in garbage collection and fire and police patrol.

Representing Albert and Joseph Liloia of Lilanz Realty, was former Belleville Town Attorney Jack Soriano, who said the neighborhood "needs updating," and asked commissioners to consider the ratables in "terms of the general welfare of the town."

He claimed that the apartments would not tax School Ten's already crowded classrooms through the influx of children, saying no proof had been offered to this

Strumolo Vies For Spot

Primary Election Focus Placed On Republicans

Next Tuesday is Primary Election Day in Belleville and throughout New Jersey. Locally, the involvement of Belleville Republicans in directing a county-wide battle with an insurgent group, plus the candidacy of Town Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo for the County Clerk nomination, provide the highlights of the 1970 primary.

Despite the fact that Gov. William T. Cahill is backing the Republican Party Organization (Line F) in Essex County, there is concern on the part of GOP leaders that Tuesday's primary could see control of the party shifted to the insurgent group headed by Joseph Intile, a West Orange Republican leader.

Moreover, the "Governor's Team," as the local line advertises itself, does have some formidable opposition. Belleville Republican leaders were surprised when Sen. Alex Matturri last week lent his support to the insurgent ticket named on the ballot line as "Essex County Republicans." However, the remaining five Essex senators all have endorsed the regular line.

No one is doubting that in Belleville, the Regular Party Organization — with Commissioner Strumolo on the ticket, — will win big. The Intile group has no support to speak of.

Strumolo is serving his fourth year on the commission, and has previously been a councilman twice and survived a recall election. He has consistently been a top voter getter in Belleville, particularly in the Silver Lake section, and is expected to aid the Regular Republican ticket in town.

Joining Strumolo on the ticket is Sheriff Ralph D'Ambola, freeholders Alan Augenblick and William Clark.

A newcomer to the County Republican ticket is former Nutley Commissioner Carl Orechio, who this week received a special endorsement from State Senator James H. Wallwork. "Carl's credentials are his integrity, ability and outstanding record of public service," Wallwork said in a prepared release.

Polls in Belleville open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. 17,406 residents are registered to vote this year, which is 44 less than last year.

Locally Ferrara said he was confident of a victory for the organization slate. He said he

Absence Delays Voting

A commission vote for purchase of a $42,000 lot for expansion of the Public Library was tabled Monday night due to the absence of Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo.

The bonding ordinance would need four yes votes for passage, and Commissioner Joseph McGreevy has publicly said he is opposed to the move.

The lot in question is owned by Town Physician Dr. Donald Brown, and is adjacent to the library on Washington Avenue. It

No Pool In The Valley

A $15,000 ordinance for a portable swimming pool in the Valley was defeated by a 2-2 Commission vote Monday night after several residents spoke against the bill.

The bonding ordinance was up for a second and final hearing and required four votes for passage. The vote went: Commissioner William Cullen yes; Commissioner Joe McGreevy no; Commissioner Mary Senatore no, and Mayor Ken Smith yes. Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo was absent.

Commissioner Cullen, who introduced the bill, was asked by residents to table the matter until there could be further study on general recreational needs in the town. Cullen, however, said he considered the pool a worthwhile project and refused to move to table it.

Residents expressed concern that the facility would only have benefited citizens in one sector of the town, and asked that a committee be formed to study general improvement needs for recreational facilities. The residents did not supply commissioner Cullen with specific improvements that they said were needed.

The pool, which was to be located in the Plansoen Playground on Cortlandt Street, was to be 30 feet by 70 feet at a cost of $11,000. The remaining funds were scheduled for fencing, a pool floor, chlorinating and installation.

Cullen said the facility was similar to ones now in use in Maplewood and Irvington and could be installed or relocated in a day. He told residents that children from all areas of town could have been scheduled to use the pool and that if valley residents did not use it, it could be relocated.

In the voting, McGreevy prefaced his tally by saying he would vote no "until a better plan was supplied." Commissioner Senatore indicated she felt resident sentiment was against the pool. The Mayor, however, disagreed with Commissioner

Senatore, saying "you people here don't represent the children who will use this pool."

Presumably, the commission will meet with residents who expressed views on the pool to discuss a more centrally located and larger facility.

One such plan was voiced by Mrs. Ruth Dillon of 158 Division Avenue, who claimed a community pool was built by residents in Sterling for "about $40,000." She said local construction personnel pitched in to do that job, and indicated that "there are enough builders in this town willing to help us that we could have the job

$50,000 Bill Gets Approval On First Call

A $50,000 bonding ordinance to buy land in the Valley owned by Erie-Lackawana Railroad was approved on first reading 4-0, by the Belleville Town Commission.

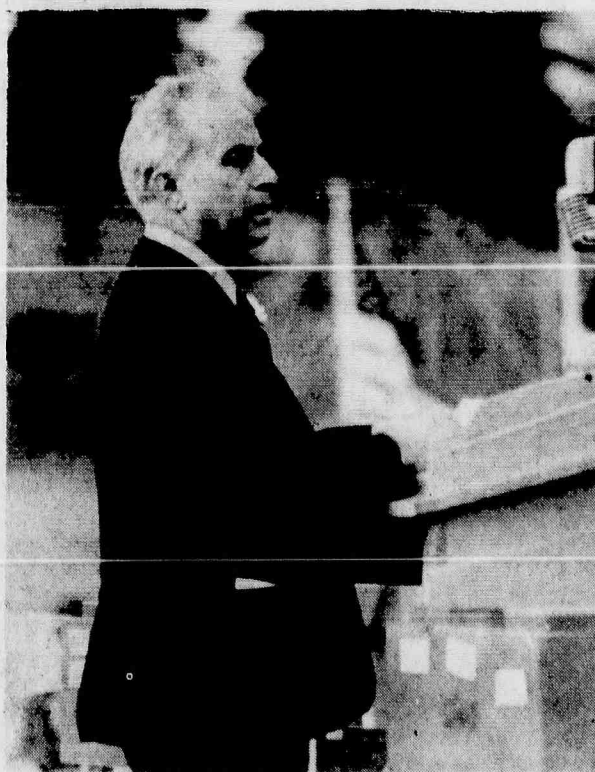

The land sought would house a leaf and refuse disposal device called a Vacmor and Hopper," according to Public Works Director Mary Senatore, who says the town's current system of carting the material to Kearny is proving too costly.

The $50,000 had originally been proposed via an emergency resolution which Commissioner Senatore said was needed to assure the town's purchase of the land. The emergency resolution was a legal move to "show good faith toward purchase," and to prevent Erie-Lackawana from selling the land to anyone else.

The bond ordinance is more acceptable to Commissioner Joseph McGreevy, who voted against the emergency bill. He objected then that the first bill would have to be raised in taxation next year regardless if final transactions were eventually made, whereas the bonding could be dropped or payments spread out if need be.

The town is currently pursuing condemnation proceedings on the property, which the railroad reportedly is not eager to sell, to the town. The company says it will make a statement after a meeting of its board next month.

AT GRADUATION — Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero as he addressed commencement day gathering at Belleville's Municipal Stadium last June. Schools in town closed Monday to honor the long-standing School Board member who died Friday.

Town Mourns Dr. Di Ruggiero; Dentist, Dedicated To Education

Belleville is still in shock after the sudden death of one of its most dedicated community leaders.

Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero, who was the longest elected member in the history of the Belleville Board of Education, died at his home last Friday. He was 58.

Monday, saddened friends and relatives of the popular dentist crowded St. Peter's Church in Belleville to hear him eulogized as a "fine family man" who "did everything in his time on this earth."

Nearly 100 automobiles carrying mourners filed past Dr. Di Ruggiero's home at 52 Van Rye Place, and by School Eight, which the doctor had attended. Interment was at the Immaculate Conception Cemetery in Montclair. His colleagues on the Board of Education, and assistant superintendent of schools Michael Rossamilla served as pall bearers.

This town acted immediately to honor the doctor who had committed so many of his years to the community. Flags around town were lowered to half mast and school and municipal buildings were draped in mourning. A regularly scheduled meeting of the local School Board was postponed.

Reaction to the doctor's death was also felt in the county, where the Executive Committee, of the Essex County Board of Education cancelled its regularly scheduled meeting and announced it would hold a future meeting in Belleville to honor Dr. Di Ruggiero. Two weeks ago the doctor was named to that committee, becoming only the second Belleville resident to be so named in recent years.

First elected to the local Board of Education in 1956, the lifelong resident had served continuously through five terms, during which time Belleville education went through some of its greatest and most difficult changes.

Dr. Di Ruggiero was vice president of the Board in 1964 and president both in 1958 and last year. Throughout his tenure on the Board, friends and associates say he worked with "the hope of making this school system one of the best in the county."

On the night of his death,

Dr. Di Ruggiero said to a Board member that his one dream was "to see the Belleville School system acting as a team." He emphasized that "the people in this system were the most important thing and that the system must work for them."

With the word of his death, comments and eulogies about the doctor were passed among people who knew him, which was just about everyone. Those most frequently heard were that "he was dedicated to children" and "was a generous man."

One school administrator remarked: "If it hadn't been for him, the chances are there wouldn't have been a new high school." Another said: "He was the type of fellow effect. He said figures on the recently built 255 unit Bridge Brook Gardens on Joralemon Street had only produced 15 children, "and our apartments are smaller." The former town attorney said the driveway children in that school would pass was only "one of many in the area."

Soriano also said that a property assessor produced by the objectors had acknowledged on cross-examination that "it wasn't a truly one family zone," indicating it was "more likely a two-family zone area."

The Bloomfield attorney said that adjacent this area there was Soho Hospital, gas stations, stores and a lumber yard.

Representing about 100

objectors was Lawrence Schwartz, a Belleville attorney, who maintained that no special use was ever clearly established by the applicant.

Schwartz also maintained that there was a traffic hazard already existing in the area and that the apartment would "seriously heighten the problem." He cited state figures which showed 8,000 cars daily travel Belleville Avenue in this section.

"Belleville Avenue at this point comes from four lanes and narrows sharply into two lanes in front of Soho," Schwartz told the Commissioners. "The westbound lane is only ten feet and ten inches wide, and there have been many accidents in this area."

He also said there was a definite safety problem for the 91 children who attend School 10. "This apartment will add from 21-40 additional cars to the already congested traffic flow during school hours when children head to school. This road is tree lined and the sun comes directly into the face of a driver."

"In addition," Schwartz said, "shrubbery is planned for the apartments. Apartment cars will have to shoot out into the traffic and this will be very dangerous for the children."

Schwartz also said the apartment would infringe upon the privacy of surrounding "A" zone dwellers, saying they would be "looking into a brick wall in their backyards."

The attorney said the apartments "may" produce an influx of new children, but did not venture any specifics.

In answer to Soriano's claim that the area was not truly "A" residential because of the proximity of a main thoroughfare and businesses, Schwartz said that Belleville is so constructed that no A-zone street, "including your best - Van Reyper - is very far from a main thoroughfare." In addition, he said the gas stations Soriano mentioned "were in Bloomfield," and that the major portion of the "lumber yard was also."

Tony Fernandes of 95 Harrison Street, a systems analyst, presented a case to the town fathers which claimed that tax revenue would not outweigh costs the town would incur from the apartments through the influx of children, fire and police patrol and a possible lowering of assessed evaluation of nearby properties.

was not worried about the 12 county committee battles he has in Belleville districts. He says that two years ago there were challenges in 24 districts and "we only lost five."

The Republican leader says he is not worried about overconfidence as some people have feared. "No one is taking this thing easy. We're all pushing, and with Strumolo on the ticket, we hope to do real well."

Commissioner Joseph

McGreevy, a lifelong Republican, also came out with a strong endorsement for the Regular line.

Town Democratic chairman, Commissioner Mary Senatore, said she doesn't see any enthusiasm in the town about the primary. "With the world the way it is today, I don't think people want to vote anymore."

She said that she feels the democrats will make a strong comeback.

Tuesday - A Special GOP Date

Republican LINE F candidates. Assemblymen Herbert Rinaldi, Philip Kaltenbacher, Thomas Kean and Ralph Caputo have endorsed and are working for the Republican LINE F candidates.

Even U.S. Senator Clifford P. Case is understood to favor the election of Republican LINE F candidates.

The Republican LINE F candidates represent a decent responsible group of Republicans. They include incumbent Freeholders William H. Clark, Alan Augenblick, and Freeholder Candidate Carl A. Orechio of Nutley. For Sheriff the Republican Party Organization is running incumbent Essex County Sheriff Ralph D'Ambola. The Republican Party Organization, LINE F Candidate for County Clerk is Belleville's Vincent T. Strumolo. Strumolo was Governor Cahill's Belleville Campaign Manager last year. During most of the 50's Strumolo was an active Young Republican. Recently he tried the Democrat Party, didn't like what he saw, and last year returned to the party of his birth. Strumolo is a much better Republican than many of the Intile Republican Irregulars who are holding office today and were elected under the Republican label.

The 10th Congressional District Candidate is Montclair Attorney Griffith H. Jones, a law school lecturer and a prominent graduate of Princeton and Harvard Law School. The Intile Republican Irregulars could not enlist any decent Republicans to run for Congress on their ticket. Doesn't this failure give all of us a message? When former Republican State Chairman Nelson G. Gross decided to run for the U.S. Senate he rejected.

The only way Essex Republican voters can remove the cancer which keeps our party split is by visiting the polls Tuesday, June 2 and elect the Cahill Republican Party Organization Candidates whose names appear on LINE F.

Thoughts On Memorial Day

Commanding General of the Grand Army of the Republic, General John A. Logan issued an order designating May 30, 1868, a day for decorating the graves of the men who fell in the War Between the States. He expressed the hope it would be observed "from year to year while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of the departed."

The custom of paying homage to the war dead, which had originated in the South and represented at that time only spontaneous local activity on the part of a relatively few women and children, thus came into being. The appeal of such a commemoration to large numbers of Americans was soon demonstrated throughout the reunited Republic.

By 1900, President William McKinley, himself a Union veteran, declared, "The Army of Grant and the Army of Lee are together. They are one now in faith, in hope, in fraternity, in purpose and in an invincible patriotism."

The President added: "The noblest memorial to a hero is not reverence for his dead bones, but the reproduction of his heroism."

Memorial Day should not only be a day of remembrance but also a day of consecration to the ideals which have made our nation great. It should be a time of renewal of our faith.

Let us be thankful this Memorial Day for the brave men, and women who have given their lives that this land might remain free, for those who are serving in the armed forces today and for a country which offers all its citizens great opportunities, and freedom also.

The Arrival Of June, 1970

Although it seems hard to believe, the arrival of June brings us almost to the half-way point of 1970. By the end of the month, a fiscal year will have been completed, and 1970 will be in its second half.

June brings with it summer, commencements, weddings, school vacations and beautiful weather, and is thus, perhaps, the most welcome of all the months. In this month the days are longer than during any other month of the year; there is more daylight and less darkness.

June is not a month of birthday anniversaries for famous Americans, but it contains many patriotic days. The anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, fought June 17th, 1775, is observed in Boston.

The United States Government actually began in the month of June, 1788, when New Hampshire ratified the Constitution, the last article of which provided that, upon ratification by nine states, the establishment of the Constitution between the states would be affected.

The first American troops to land in France in World War I landed in June, on the 26th of the month, in 1917. World War I was actually precipitated in June of 1914, when, on the 28th — a Sunday — Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the throne of Austro-Hungary, was assassinated at Sarajevo, Bosnia.

The Allies landed in France on June 6th, 1944, in World War II.

Father's Day also falls in June (the 21st) as does the birthday of the first and only President of the Confederacy, Jefferson Davis, on the 3rd.

But the main attraction of June is that it brings long days and summer, commencements and vacations, and—a new crop of June brides.

A $175,000 expansion of Belleville Municipal Stadium facilities was to be okayed by the Town Commission, according to Commissioner of Parks and Public Property William Cullen. The project, to be financed jointly by the Town and State, called for a network of facilities to be placed on 500 square feet of stadium land.

Under one of the tightest police security set-ups Belleville had ever seen, an accused man walked with head bowed into Municipal Court on May 24 for a special preliminary hearing in connection with the theft of over $30,000 in silver. The man's testimony was thought to be an important step toward uncovering a state-wide theft ring involved in the stealing of over $3.5 million of precious metals and furs. The hearing was made possible by a secret investigation spearheaded by Detectives Thomas Ricci and Harold O'Reilly.

After 29 years of service for Saint Anthony's Parish, the Reverend Titian P. Menegus announced that he would retire on June 21. He was planning to live with a brother in San Diego, California.

Supported by a new ally, the state school business officials, the Belleville Board of Education authorized its attorney, Max Schwartz, to appeal County Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Twichell's disapproval of dual control. Schwartz said he would submit an appeal brief to State Education Commissioner Frederick Raubinger within a week.

Three new supervisory posts were created, salaries of the Town Magistrate and Water Foreman and Detectives were increased and the map of the Bridge Brooks Estates—formerly Lobsitz Tract—was accepted at a meeting of the Town Council. The biggest amount of criticism at the meeting was directed against the proposed creation of the three new posts—Foreman of streets and sewers in the Department of Public Works; Recreation Maintenance Foreman and Assistant Superintendent in the Signals Department.

Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan, director of Public Safety of Belleville, was nominated for the presidency of the Essex County Police Administrators Association. Commissioner Sullivan was to replace Robert B. Kinsey, director of the Essex County Park Police.

The Board of Education ruled that school playgrounds be closed after 9:00 p.m. The Board was forced to take the drastic action because "vandalism of school property after school hours had been an increasing and costly problem to the town." The excessive vandalism led the school board to prepare for exceptionally high costs, a larger figure than had been included in the budget.

Play Review

'Unbiased' Critic Lauds BHS 'Smash' Production

by Marc Feldman

A major complaint many people have about theater critics is that they cannot write an unbiased review. I am not only a student at BHS, but a participant in the production of "Annie Get Your Gun", performed last weekend at the high school.

Again, a large portion of the credit for the success of the play can be attributed the hard work and dedication of Band Director Robert Wing and Student Director Larry Spinelli.

Wing took largely inexperienced actors and combined them with a few veterans to produce an excellent cast. Spinelli doubled as Sitting Bull, the famous Sioux Indian chief and did a fine job. Wing and Spinelli were of invaluable assistance to the leads of the show, Jayme Freedman and Joe Smith, who were lacking in experience.

Jayme fit into the part of Annie Oakley perfectly and by the end of the performance you were almost convinced that she was Annie. Her singing, acting, and dancing abilities were superbly blended in the role played by Ethel Merman on Broadway.

Joe portrayed the great Wild West gunslinger Frank Butler and his singing voice in such songs as "The Girl That I Marry" and "My Defenses Are Down" were highlights of the show.

Sue Kellenbence displayed her versatility on the stage with an excellent portrayal of Dolly

Tate, a not so likeable promoter for the Wild West show. Dolly was her first supporting role, after two romantic leads in "Cinderella" and "The Pajama Game". She compensated for her lack of singing parts with her acting performance, which showed maturity on the stage.

Another veteran of past BHS productions was Tom Idendun, who played Charlie Davenport. Tom worked in the Buffalo Bill Show and carried on the tradition that his brother Bill started at BHS several years ago, with a fine performance.

Ed Messner and Martin Fuchs combined to portray the intense rivalry between Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill for the Wild West Show audience, which was the underlying theme of the production.

The best single musical number of the show was "Anything You Can Do", in which Jayme and Joe combined to show the rivalry between the great Frank Butler and his female challenger.

Belleville High's production of "Annie Get Your Gun" is another feather in Robert Wing's hat. Wing skillfully used the entire band and twirlers in the pit band and as cowboys and Indians to complement the main characters.

At Belleville, Wing has become known for his ability to draw forth every ounce of talent in his characters, and consistently produce an entertaining finished product.

Cast Member Says Reviewer Should Dry Up

To the Editor,

As a member of the cast of the Junior High School's production of "The Fantasticks", I resent the biased review given it by John McCarthy.

He insisted on comparing it to the 10-year Broadway production. The Fantasticks is playing off Broadway at the Sullivan Street Theatre.

For a non-professional group of actors, the cast gave fully of their time and their talent. Mr. McCarthy failed to mention that the majority of the cast consisted of talented singers. The other portion are gifted actors. These students are eighth and ninth graders, and in my opinion, as in the opinion of the other people I spoke to, they were "Fantastick."

Mr. McCarthy also failed to mention the great performance given by the chorus.

So to him I say: "DRY UP." To the editors I address this question: "Do you always allow high school juniors to review the plays?"

Students 'Sorry' To Have Read Play Review

To the Editor,

I read John McCarthy's article in the Belleville Times (May 21) entitled "Something Definitely Missing in Fantasticks Production," and I am truly sorry I did.

All of the kids in the play worked, all during their own time, not to mention all the effort those great music teachers put in. They didn't have to put on this play, but they did it for the entertainment of our town.

It isn't their fault that it wasn't crowded for any performances, but rather it just goes to show that no one cares about what we kids in school are doing, either that, or they know that it was a play for a very mature mind and knew that they couldn't understand it.

I am not writing this for myself, but for a lot of kids who thought the play was great. Nor am I writing this because I'm one of the crew from the play, because I did not have anything to do with it at all.

We all wish that you could have spoken nicely about all the work that went into this play and not the fact that some people did not understand it.

Play Review Cited As Harsh By Students

To The Editor:

I am writing this letter to express my opinion as opposed to John McCarthy's review of the Junior High School's production of "The Fantasticks."

I feel he was slightly biased, after all, the students aren't professionals. Most of them range from 13 to 15 years of age, but he seemed to feel that they were off-Broadway actors who were inadequate to fill their parts.

Don't you feel, Mr. McCarthy, that the review you gave was harsh and unfair? The students worked hard and long to put on that play. I feel, as the others undersigned do, that the cast deserves more credit than was given them in your "Play Review."

Says Students Were Fabulous

To the Editor,

I am sorry to say that I read your play review in the May 21 edition of The Belleville Times-News entitled "Something Definitely Missing in Fantasticks Production."

I saw this play—all three performances—and I only wish that I could have seen it more. I think that the kids that were in it did a fabulous job.

You expect too much from junior high students but I think they did a great job. Maybe you should have paid more attention to the story and not to everything you think was done wrong.

I had nothing to do with this play, but I do know how very hard the students in it and the music teachers worked on it to present it. I think you could have said better things about it.

Memorial Day Stirs Feelings In Townspeople

QUESTION: What do you think of Memorial Day in light of the recent anti war demonstrations?
ASKED: Of Belleville residents.

Welker Caesar, 28 Ralph Street, Belleville.
I'm a veteran of both World War II and the Korean conflict. The people should set a day aside to honor all those who died fighting for America. I'm glad that they set aside this day because it shows the people that the veterans haven't been forgotten. I think people who are demonstrating against the present war are only hurting the cause. They aren't going to accomplish anything by demonstrating. I retired in 1967 after being in the Army 27 years and belong to an American Legion Post in Alabama. I consider Memorial Day as honorable.

Mrs. Mildred Walsh, 6 Division Avenue, Belleville.

I think it's a good thing to celebrate Memorial Day and honor the veterans. They have a right to demonstrate their feelings because they fought for their country. I'm not sure if I'm going to the parade this year but I have seen Memorial Day parades in the past and I think they express a good thing. We just moved to Belleville recently so we didn't see what Belleville does for Memorial Day. My husband was in the Air Force and he belonged to an American Legion group in New England, but he hasn't been active in any groups here.

Mrs. Barbara Carlson, 70 Little Street, Belleville.

I agree fully with the veterans marching to show their patriotism on Memorial Day. But I don't like to see anti-war demonstrators marching in the streets. They don't seem to realize that the president is trying to bring out boys home and end the war. The Vietnam War is such a mix up but I still think it's wrong to demonstrate against it. President Nixon is doing his best. The veterans on Memorial Day brings out the best in people and it's inspirational to see them parade.

Thomas Mann, 630 Joralemon Street, Belleville.

The Memorial Day parade and festivities are always an inspirational sight to see. I don't see anything wrong with the veterans honoring their country and fellow veterans on this day. I originally come from Pennsylvania and they went for Memorial Day in a big way out there. They would have bands and speeches and parade down the streets of town. Then they would march to the cemetery and place wreaths and flags on the graves. I can't see harm in that. It's a nice thing.

Answering Phone Calls From Local Residents Requires More Skill Than Reporting News

YOU KNOW DOC, it's really amazing to discover the misconceptions most people have about our job.

Like the other day we're at Municipal Stadium interviewing Belleville track co-captains Vic Squitieri and Ralph Salerno when shot putter Mike Albertine says to us: Gee what a great job you have. You hardly do anything all day."

Doc, people really believe this. We wish this were true. Then we wouldn't have to write most of the paper, edit copy, do headlines, layout the pages, do the photography and conduct interviews.

We also talk to people on the phone. There's a whole elaborate art form involved in taking phone calls from Belleville residents.

In doing so, the first thing you repeat to yourself when the phone rings is: No matter what they say, we're not going to take it personally.

This way you're prepared when the caller says: "How come you spelled my son's name wrong," which translated means, "give me the names, addresses and political affiliation of everyone who is involved in this conspiracy against my flesh and blood."

Calls of this nature usually take about 20 minutes (the whole article in question only took three minutes to write), and by the time the call's through, we've demolished four number one style pencils and doodled some of the most savagely aggressive

U.S. SENATOR Harrison Williams, Democrat of New Jersey, is being challenged by a Hudson County Democrat organization candidate, State Senator Frank Guarni. Senator Williams has been a party workhorse and deserves better treatment from Hudson County politicians. Service on Eastern Airlines North-South run this last weekend improved tremendously. Friday's Flight No. 3 out of Newark was boarded on time by Departure Lounge Supervisor Frank Baker and when the 727 became airborne Stewardesses Sharon Mills and Sara Simmons made the first class passengers feel like they were dining at the Waldorf. Flight 896 out of Fort Lauderdale, although not a lunch or dinner flight, got off the ground late because of 5-inch rains which suddenly fell upon the airport when Hurricane Alma decided she had had enough and unleashed her bag of water with accompanying high winds. Despite the bad weather Stewardesses Ann Aronson and Sue Porter outdid themselves as they attended to the desires and needs of the first class passengers.

Betty O'Malley, the boss at the Family Service Bureau wants the Nutley Tenants' Association to know that her organization is grateful for the gift. BELLEVILLE BARRISTER John Scott won another earth-shaking law suit. This time John represented Volkswagen in the Ocean County court. Involved in the suit was a novel argument that the Volkswagen automobile was fundamentally unsafe and as a result a family injured in an accident involving a Volkswagen sued the manufacturer. The attorney for the Plaintiff charged the Volkswagen was "a menace on the American Highways." John Scott replied the Volkswagen Corporation did not intend to build a tank, did not intend to build an accident-proof car. Scott said the Volkswagen was built for pleasure and business and that the underlying cause that contributed to the fatal automobile accident was negligence on the part of one driver. A five year old girl died as a result of injuries sustained in the accident. After eight days of trial Scott was successful in securing a dismissal of all actions against his client, Volkswagen Corporations. Ocean County Judge William E. O'Connor Jr. dismissed the case on the basis of arguments made by Scott. The decision is a landmark case in America for the outcome could have an effect on the nationwide image of Volkswagen because under attack in the courtroom was the automobile's basic design. If the arguments against Volkswagen prevailed similar arguments could be made against other automobile manufacturers. Congratulations and a big fee for John Scott.

I have been asked what is Condominium living really like. After four years of that life I guess I may not qualify as an expert but as President of our Condominium Corp. for the past four months I feel qualified to give a better judgment. There is nothing like it. Only last week we put the finishing touches to 45 rules and regulations governing the conduct of the 93 owners who reside in our Condominium building. The rules and regulations are a code of personal behavior with legal teeth. The rules and regulations adopted by a Condominium Board of Governors must be filed at the County Court House in order to be legal. Our present building has been in existence four years and recently we discovered no rules and regulations adopted by prior Boards of Governors were legal because none was filed at the Court House. We are correcting that little detail this week. If you want to go live a life apart from the rest of the world, Condominium living is not for you. If you want to give your children the free run of the house and grounds, Condominium living is not for you. But if you want to LIVE — buy a Condo.

IT IS ALMOST three weeks now since I returned to Newark on a flight from Fort Lauderdale sitting next to William Brandstatter Sr., President of the Brandstatter Concrete Company of Newark. Bill is a widower and when he takes his monthly trips away from New Jersey his son Bill, Jr. takes over the company and his father's pet cat, "Bootsie." I discovered a deep gleam in Bill's eye and an exciting smile on his face as he told me how he called his son that morning to let him know that he was returning to Newark that night and before he hung up the phone Bill Sr. said to Junior, "put Bootsie on the phone I want to talk to her." And what do you think — Bill Jr. put Bootsie on the phone, and loud and clear "Bootsie" said "hello" in the form of a "meow." How is that for a man's affection for his pet? Nothing beats it! God bless Bill Sr. and his Bootsie.

We received a letter from former Nutley detective, Bill Dietz who criticizes our recent editorial concerning our guess as to the number of high school kids that have used a drug at one time or another for one reason or another. Dietz, a pretty knowledgeable man regarding the narcotic area of public interest suggests that only one percent of our young people have used drugs. While we have respect for Bill Dietz as a man, and I have respect for him as a former detective, the fact is that Bill doesn't know what he is talking about when he suggests only one percent of our school population ever experimented with a drug. Dietz states "In regards to our school as of my last exposure with the Nutley School System, not one child was ever found in the schools either with drugs or under the influence of drugs."

Man In The News

Nicholas Amato Was A Probation Officer

Belleville Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato, whose name is familiar to local politicians, took a significant step this week toward extending his good reputation to Newark.

The youngest Town Attorney in the state, he was instrumental Monday in protecting the rights of four Newark councilmen candidates for next month's runoff election.

Denied billing on the runoff ballot as a team because they hadn't been so designated during the May 12 election, the candidates came to Belleville to hire Amato to plead their case.

Wasting no time, the attorney obtained a restraining order from Superior Court Judge John Ackerman on May 21 to stop the drawing of lots for ballot positions.

Then, this Monday, he pleaded the case before that judge and won his point: The four men could be bracketed on the ballot with the designation, "Peace and Progress."

Last week many observers felt Amato "hadn't a chance" in getting the men bracketed on the ballot, and some even said so to the attorney.

The obvious challenge was welcomed, however by Amato, who says he enjoys challenges: "That's what makes life interesting."

Being the youngest town attorney in the state has not been without some friction. Some people, especially when he was hired three years ago, felt he was too young to be a competent town attorney.

But as the years went on, and the lawyer continued to win cases for the town and most of his critics relinquished their skepticism. One comment he is always faced with still, is "he wins all the easy ones."

Nevertheless, the attorney must take all the legal problems thrown his way, and is highly regarded by commissioners.

Born Nicholas Raymond Amato, November 15, 1939, in Newark, he is the son of John and Rose Amato. The day before Pearl Harbor was attacked, the Amatos moved to Belleville. His parents still live in their home at 4 Arthur Street.

He attended School Seven and graduated from Belleville High School in 1957. During his school days in town, he worked summers for the town, cleaning streets.

Helen's Thing ...

Is Forty Really The Best Year Of Our Lives?

By Helen Maguire

I never was fond of that old song "Silver Threads Among the Gold" but the lyricist certainly knew of what he spoke only in my case it would have to be among the brown.

Life is funny. We go along for months, even years, feeling appreciably no older and then something happens to remind us that time marches on and so do we.

Last week I trotted Gavin over to the kindergarten open house at Spring Garden School and while he played with the toys, I took a look around the room and began to wonder what I was doing there. I seemed surrounded by mothers in their mid or slightly later twenties, mini-skirted, trim-figured, young.

And there I stood, less than two years away from the great old age of forty, starting the school business all over again and with three more at home still to go. I envisioned me in my dotage still staggering off to PTA meetings, coping with teenagers at fifty, fast reaching retirement age with perhaps a chick or two still in the nest.

Other things conspired to remind me last week that I wasn't getting any younger. It suddenly hit me that the favorite cousin I remember as a blonde, blue eyed infant had reached the quarter century mark. The Gross' invited us over to celebrate Susan's confirmation. Confirmation! I can still see her when she was barely out of diapers. I got the quarterly newsletter from Drew and realized that next month, it would be eighteen years since I graduated from college.

Your kids are best though for putting you in your place agewise. I don't think they can conceive of you ever being young. You were "born parents" and reminiscences of youthful pranks, memories of favorite songs, movie stars, band leaders, call forth a certain look that says clear as day, "The old folks are really getting on." And so, dear youth, are you.

Rod has been gray since he was twenty one. Completely gray. I think it looks great but of course I'm prejudiced as any wife should be. Every time he threatens to dye his hair, I threaten to leave him although where I'd go with six kids is beyond me.

The other day he took the twins out for their first carriage ride. "The first person who tells me how cute my grandchildren are," he threatened as he left, "is going to get clobbered." I guess no one made the fatal mistake because he came home as pleased as when he left.

They say forty is the best time of life. I'll let you know.

to many Town Hall and School Board officials when we tell them we aren't running a publicity agency.

BUT THE CALL which shakes us the most is the one which begins: "Where were you?"

Now this is particularly disturbing because when we flash back to some of the places we've been to the past couple days, we shudder to think some one might have seen us.

These calls usually mean, however, that six months ago we promised to be someplace and with an apparent wanton disregard for a club's annual dinner-dance, we stayed home and ironed our shirts.

About the only calls we like are the ones inviting us out for lunch.

mother who says: "We need a photographer quick because my little son Gerald is selling lemonade in front of the house."

This type of call is one of the most difficult to handle because on one hand you've got to tell her we don't cover this sort of event, but on the other hand you realize this is the first thing that momma has ever let her kid do by himself, and for the kid's sake you've got to make her feel Gerald's done something which will make him another Andrew Carnegie.

So we tell her: Call us back when he sells his 100th cup of lemonade and we'll do a picture page. This thrills her and she says good-bye with something like "and in the winter Gerald shovels snow."

The most frightening call is the one which begins: "I read your column each week." Now this type either means the person is going to deliver a rare compliment, or rather, most likely, that he's indicating "I know where you're at buster."

The other day we received one of this type from a mother who says: "I read your column and you're a funny man. Were you also trying to be funny when you put in the paper a story about my neighbors kid's graduation and not mine? Huh?"

"You're playing both sides-against-the-middle" is the charge we usually get from one of our illustrious Belleville politicians when we report both sides of the story. It comes as a great shock scribbling any paper margin ever saw.

One of the most difficult calls to handle is the type which comes through at about nine in the morning. At this early hour, one eye is usually still closed and the other, though open still can't focus properly.

Consequently, we grope for the phone before finding it, and thinking its the alarm clock, prepare to hang it up and go back to sleep, when suddenly we hear a loud: "Have we got a scoop for you."

The only word we hear is SCOOP.

Like a true trained professional our journalistic mind snaps into gear and we ask a subtle probing question: "Oh yeah?"

THE NEWS SOURCE then gives us the whole bit at 78 rpm speed in an accomplished dramatic tone, the context of which is something like: We're organizing residents to storm Town Hall, capture the Mayor's office and demand he accept unconditionally, our scheme for tax relief." This "scheme" involves the shutdown of Washington Avenue on Saturdays to use the street as the world's longest bowling alley and thereby attract tourists and provide local tax relief. "But all you can report at this time for the record is that a group of taxpayers will meet with the Mayor to discuss the expansion of recreational facilities."

Then there's the frantic phone call from a

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

AWARD RECIPIENTS — Arthur W. Peterson, vice president of the Board of Trustees of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, is shown presenting awards to Mrs. Eileen Poole of Belleville for 3,250 hours of volunteer service and to Mrs. Rose Clarke for her contribution of 7,500 hours.

Brazilian Boy ‘Adopted’ By Belleville Woman

Miss Jo Ann Giordano of 73 Magnolia Street, has financially “adopted” Jairo Evaldo Silva, a six-year-old Brazilian boy through Foster Parents Plan, Inc., 352 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10010.

The Foster Parents Plan responsibility is financial, not legal and the child grows up within his own family.

The $16 a month (or $192 a year) contributed by the Foster Parent through PLAN for a minimum of one year, provides a monthly cash grant, supplementary new clothing and household goods carefully selected to meet the needs in each area. In addition PLAN offers medical care when called for, primary school education and in some cases vocational training. The family receives guidance and counseling from the North American Director and a staff of trained local case workers.

PLAN's purpose is to help the child and family to become self-supporting through improved health, nutrition, and educational opportunities.

Foster Parents Plan stresses help to the entire family as well as to the child. In most countries where PLAN maintains offices there is a Foster Parents medical clinic with doctors, nurses and drugs. The doctors treat the child's immediate family as part of the service. Experience has shown that it is impossible to keep a child healthy in a sick family. In some countries where poor teeth are common among the children, PLAN also provides dental service.

Despite the distance that separates Foster Parents from their children overseas, “adoption” is very personal. Monthly letters between them (original and translation) keep both parties in constant touch, and over the years they often develop fast and loving friendships.

The original case history and photograph of the child sent to the Foster Parent at the time of “adoption” are supplemented by regular reports and photographs to chart the progress of the child.

Rhododendrons Should Be Pruned

Rhododendrons in this climate “go to sleep” during extremely cold weather. In fact, the homeowner who knows his rhododendrons can probably tell the temperature by noting that some varieties close at higher temperatures than others.

On an extremely cold day in winter the leaves of all varieties are tightly rolled. But with the return of spring weather all leaves should be expanded and flat.

John J. Kupcho, county agricultural agent of Essex County, says that if some branches look as if it's still winter, they'll never make it through the summer.

Home Safety Should Interest Whole Family

Safety in the home is a subject that should be of interest to everyone. Unfortunately we are not as careful with gas and elect. appliances as we could be. Keeping on a constant alert for possible hazards around the home is a job everyone should do.

We hear today about standards we now have for safe electric and gas products, but it is good to keep in mind that there are many old appliances still in use in many homes that have no safety features we take for granted today.

Be sure your house has adequate electric power for all the major and minor appliances you intend to use. Don't overload your electric circuits.

A three pronged plug on an appliance means that that equipment needs to be grounded. If you have these kinds of plugs be sure you have a properly grounded wall receptacle. Don't change your plug to fit a regular wall receptacle.

One thing we may easily forget is to use appliances as they were intended to be used. Never use your vacuum cleaner to pick up a wet rug shampoo. If using this type of cleaner, wait until the shampoo is thoroughly dry before vacuuming. Don't use your hair dryer to defrost your refrigerator. Any time you mix an electric appliance with a source of water, you have a potential danger.

Cleanliness is important as a safety precaution. If you do not clean the burner area of your range often, a grease build-up can cause a flash fire. If you forget to clean your broiler pan after use and light your oven, the grease in the broiler pan can cause a fire. Always take the broiler pan out of the range after use so you don't forget to wash it.

Remember to keep pot holders, spoon rests, dish towels and other utensils stored near the range free of grease and oils.

Make safety around your house everyone's job. Making all family members alert to possible hazards is a step in the right direction.

Added to the many myths about sleeping and waking that have been punctured in recent studies is one more, the notion that a really healthy person leaps out of bed wide awake and full of energy after a good night's sleep. The evidence is that we all wake slowly; even after we are up and dressed and have breakfasted, and some of us wake much more slowly than others. It takes time for body and brain to warm up to efficient working levels after the night's slowdown. Some persons have a curve that rises through the morning, reaching a peak about midday and declining through the afternoon, while others are definitely at their best in the morning. Still others, the “evening people,” wake up feeling wretched and are at their liveliest at night when the morning people are about ready for bed.

Belleville Mourns Death of Dr. Di Ruggiero

Voting Delayed

who always had the children, teachers and maintenance men of the school at heart." Frequently, the doctor was known to come unannounced into schools to see how the system was working and to talk to employees about how the system could be made better.

Max Schwartz, Board of Education attorney since 1951, says the doctor "was always interested in the health and welfare of the children of Belleville. He wasn't afraid to take unpopular views."

It was common knowledge that the successful dentist extended free dental service to St. Anthony's School children, and was often kidded by his family for giving so much of his professional time to residents free.

The doctor's father, James

Di Ruggiero, came to this country with his son Frank from Italy and set up residency in Belleville. James Di Ruggiero operated a popular barber shop in town until his death recently.

Dr. Di Ruggiero attended School Eight, and according to a friend, Mrs. Mary Cornotto, "he almost quit school. His teacher, Mrs. Broadbent talked him into staying, however."

After graduating Belleville

High School, he enrolled in Muhlenberg College in Washington, D.C. for two years, before transferring to the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

After practicing in Pittsburgh for a year and a half, he set up practice in Belleville in 1943. In Pittsburgh he married his wife Ann Perri.

The doctor was a member of the Kiwanis Club of Belleville in addition to the time he spent on the Board of Education.

He is survived by his wife, Ann Perri, a son Ralph Di Ruggiero, who is attending Scranton University; and three daughters, Mrs. Judith Di Giorgio of Indiana, Mrs. Diane Fernandez of Philadelphia, Pa., and Miss Frances Di Ruggiero at home? a brother Joseph of Belleville, and one grandchild.

The funeral was from the Kiernan Funeral Home, 101 Union Avenue, with the Rev. James F. Heavey acting as officiating clergyman.

Progress" candidates are similar in view points and "I felt they had a right to be grouped on the ballot like the other four candidates."

The case marks the second time the young Belleville attorney has entered into the realm of political court battles, both time with a similar results.

When the Council-Manager form of government was defeated in a town-wide election

Newarker Gets $200 Fine For Larceny

A Newark young man convicted of larceny by Judge Edward Abramson at Belleville Criminal Court on May 7 was fined $200 and put on one year probation.

Robert Ford of 449 Summer Avenue pleaded guilty to the charge. Paul Snyder, also of Newark, scheduled to appear at the hearing on the same charge, failed to make an appearance. Judge Abramson issued a bench warrant and revoked Snyder's $100 bail.

Belleville Detective Frank Falcone arrested the pair the evening of February 24 after he discovered them attempting to steal an auto battery.

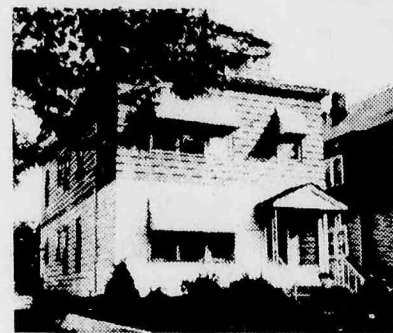

Judge Abramson, in addition to the fine and probation, levied a 60 day suspended jail term.

It has been finally proven, a few million times, that it is harder to keep one's mouth closed than open.

in 1967, Amato found himself drawn into the situation. What happened was that the existing council contested Town Clerk Eugene Barnett's tally and contracted a law firm to protest the election in court. Amato intervened on Barnett's behalf and succeeded in upholding the election results.

The attorney lives with his wife Claire (Tortorello) at 61 Newcombe Street in Belleville.

A lifelong resident, he attended School Seven and graduated from Belleville High School in 1957. He received his B. A. degree from St. Peter's College in 1961 and his law degree in 1964.

Check the houses pictured above and see how closely your heating bill comes to the house that resembles yours. With our Electric Radiant panels there's no wastage of heat up the chimney or in rooms you're not using, or in rooms you wish to keep cooler than others. You get the exact heat you want — when you want it — through individual thermostats that control the heat in each room. Then let us show you how much you can save with Electric Radiant Glassheat panels.
- 4. Their houses have all the advantages of modern heating.
All flames, burners, smoke and ash are completely eliminated. So are the heating equipment headaches for there is no noise; no fuel worries; no tank; pump or boiler repairs; no valves to leak or fans to burn out; no chimneys or air filters to clean; no damage from leaking pipes; no sludge; carbonizing, clogging jets, oil lines, or burner nozzles, no maintenance, repair or replacement ever!

Let us demonstrate how good Radiant Electric heat feels in a few minutes in your home. Then we will show you, without obligation of any kind, how much Glassheat panels can increase the comfort of your home and decrease the cost of heat compared with your present heating system. Bellboys Must Stop The Mounties If They Are To Have .500 Season

The Bellboy batsmen are seeking the .500 won-loss level tomorrow afternoon, and to do so, they'll need a mighty good team effort.

Facing the 9-10 Belleville squad will be powerful Big Ten Conference leader Montclair High School, which is locked in a close battle for the loop lead.

Braves Pummel League

If it's high scoring baseball you like you have only to watch the Recreation Intermediate League leaders—the Braves—to satisfy your appetite.

Bob Mallack's boys, capitalizing on nearly every opportunity with key hits and fine all round play have pummelled out 63 runs in their first four contests and catapulted their team into first place. To date the only serious competition they have encountered came from Vic Pasquarillo's Pirates in the form of a 7-5 Braves win. This game went down to the wire and gave evidence that a total runaway will not be allowed the Braves without a fight.

Ron Orsini's Giants, although hampered by rainouts, are undefeated in two games and have their sights on the lead also. Some big battles loom in the near future that could tighten up this league or break it wide open.

John Spezzaferri's Yankees and Bob Cicala's Cubs,

Undefeated Teams Hop Out In Front Of Little League

Two undefeated teams are pacing Little League action thus far.

The Belleville Amvets, with a 3-0 mark, stand alone at the top of the National League standings, while the Wallace & Tiernan squad is out in front of its American league contenders with an identical record.

It took extra innings last week for the Amvets to keep their unblemished mark by beating the Lions Club 6-5.

Causing alot of reaction in baseball circles is the Amvets shortstop, Anthony Biafore, whose sensational hitting and slick fielding rate him as one of the best Belleville baseball prospects to hit the Little League in many years.

Also contributing to the Amvets high-powered attack is Anthony Marino, a centerfielder and pitcher, who has four big hits in three games. Key performances have also come to the Amvets from first baseman Danate Pantalone and Lou Klein, a versatile athlete who can play all positions. Fran Morel, a first year player in the league, is also counted on by the Amvets, who were last year's Champions.

Competition for manager Michael Marotti's Amvets is coming from the Knights of Columbus, who are playing under new manager Pat Olivio and coach Art Connelly. This team's only loss has been to the Amvets and shows a 2-1 record.

Pacing the K of C ballclub is leading hitter Chris Tremel, with stick help from Joe Vitiello, Jim Messina, Ted Serritella and Doug Stone.

Third place in the league belongs to the F.M.B.A., which shows a 1-1 mark thus far under manager Paul Marrone and coach Bill Mullens.

Pre-season league favorites, the Lions Club (1-2) is still a ball club to be reckoned with.

Powerful Wallace & Tiernan holds a game advantage over second place Colony Club (2-1). Featured hitters for the Beating Montclair will actually amount to a replay of the first meeting between the two teams this year in Belleville, when John Moraski pitched a superlative one-hitter to top the Mounties with a stunning upset.

Moraski is gone now, having left the team for personal reasons, which means the Bellboys will have to come up with a pitcher who can match that effort—a tall order.

At this point it doesn't seem that the squad has a pitcher who can hold the powerful bats of Montclair. All of the Bellboy moundsmen are spirited and have pitched brilliant ball in spots, but none have been consistent and therein lies coach Charley Travers problem.

The popular coach has one of the best hitting clubs in the county but because of the pitching, just can't seem to stay above the .500 level.

Fielding some pretty hot young batsmen, Coach Travers is nevertheless not all that downhearted, because next season most of the top performers will be back.

Getting most of the attention this year is Junior Joe Papasidero and soph Frank Petite, as dynamic a duo as you'll find anywhere.

Petite is leading the club with a torrid .424 average, which includes over 20 RBI's.

although winless to date, can not be counted out quite yet. The Cubs for instance, gaining in experience and in the caliber of play with each game played recently took the Giants into extra innings before falling to a 3-2 score.

league leaders are George Gorbek and DeNotaris. Leading pitchers for the club are H. Mallack and McEvoy. Wallace & Tiernan is being guided this year by first year manager Frank Verian and new coach Nyles Monaco.

The Colony Club, managed by Vinnie Lipoma and coached by Joe Restivo, is fighting for the top spot behind such stand out (Continued on Page 13)

Oarsmen Seeking Regatta Trophy

Belleville's crew heads into the final race of the season and from all indications, this meet will make or break the season for the mighty oarsmen.

Sporting a 7-1 record, the varsity takes on Kearny and Nutley Saturday on the Passaic River at 1 p.m. for the annual Goodwill Regatta.

This year's race, which features competition in junior varsity and freshmen divisions, will decide the winner of the first annual Goodwill Regatta trophy, a 40 inch cup which will be presented by the Belleville Varsity Club to the squad which captures the most combined points for all divisions. In the past smaller individual awards for the race, which is in its fifth year, were given to winners in the separate divisions.

Last Saturday the varsity was a little over its head, as it failed to qualify for the National Schoolboy Championships in Princeton, despite the fact that the shell raced one of its best meets all year.

Giving away one and sometimes two years in age, the squad was beaten in its heat by defending champion Ridley College of Ontario, Canada

He has doubled as a third-baseman and a pitcher, and turned in two shutout efforts from the mound.

Papasidero has been tabbed by many as the best shortstop in the county and is hitting a solid .385. Hitting from the leadoff spot, he has flirted with the .400 level all season, and has about a .500 on base average.

Almost the entire squad is going to play American Legion ball this summer under the direction of former All-County Bellboy batsman Frank Papasidero, who

Trackmen Will Enter Districts On Saturday

By John McCarthy

The Bellboy track team's top performers will enter into the District Championships this Saturday. West Side High School's failure to show up for a scheduled meet and an 83-34 loss to Kearny set the Bellboys' record at 3-8. The record may not be too impressive, but it is one of the best in recent years.

Trackmen scheduled to doubles as Joe's fathers.

Frank is one of the most consistent fans the Bellboys have, following the team to almost every game, home and away.

The proud father is not alone in the stands, for another former Bellboy athlete is always nearby, Michael Marotti, who comes to watch his son Rocco play left field.

Another father who makes most of the games is Joe Ritacco's dad. In any one game you can always tell how the game is going by watching their faces.

As of the Kearny meet, co-captain Squitiere leads the team in total points scored. Belleville's answer to Jim Thorpe has entered in the

One of the best fans the Bellboys have had for many years has missed the past few weeks because he's undergoing surgery on his knee. That's of course Herman "Jitty" Wische, athletic director for the Belleville school system.

Next year one very definite change which might affect the Bellboys is a new baseball field, most likely to be built next season on the land adjacent to the stadium.

Commissioner Bill Cullen is making every effort to secure funds to build one of the best diamonds in the area.

The present set up continually draws grumbles from trackmen and baseball players. The other day a new party registered a gripe—the youngsters who ride their bikes on the track in the outfield during the baseball games.

When one such youngster was asked to remove himself from the outfield as he glided leisurely over the cinders, The kid defiantly yelled back in impeccable logic - "This ain't no baseball field, this is a track."

Cubs-Pirates Share Senior League Spot

With no clear cut leader evident at this stage the Recreation Senior League clubs anxiously await clear skies to resume the battle for first place. Although the heavens have dampened the field, causing numerous postponements, the spirit of play runs crisp and highly competitive. Supremacy is not a key word in the games played to date as several tense battles have gone down to final pitch, with bases loaded situations.

Bill Lenahan's Cubs and Roger Ellsworth's Pirates currently share a scant lead over the rest of the league. These two leagues locked horns last week and battled to a 7-6 thriller win for the Pirates that had fans and players alike on their toes.

The Cubs, last years champions and fresh off of two strong victories to open the season, had the tying and potential lead run on the basepath with two outs in the final inning. Their efforts were thwarted by a fine relief pitching effort by Richard Centanni, who faced only one batter and recorded a swinging strikeout to preserve the victory for the Pirates.

The following night, with a chance to take over undisputed possession of first place the Pirates ran head on into Harry Wood's (always tough) Braves. Once again the game developed into a final out thriller as the Pirates, rallying from a 7-3 deficit going into the final inning, scored two runs and had the

Alumni Set For Race

Alumni from the Belleville, Kearny and Nutley crews will also see action at this Saturday's annual Goodwill Regatta on the Passaic River. Following the meets between the three high school divisions, the alumni will climb back into the shell for a sprint down the familiar Passaic.

Those interested should contact Mike Lally or Barry Pierce.

Gary Trainor Takes Sixth In State Golf Tournament After Capturing Districts

Gary Trainor, Belleville's top golfer, tied for sixth place in the New Jersey State Athletic Association Tournament Monday at the Forsgate Country Club in Jamesburg. Added to the District Championship prize he captured May 18, the young golfer ranks as one of the most celebrated Belleville has ever had.

Trainor was reported in Tuesday's Star-Ledger to have placed ninth in the competition with an 84 score. The senior says this was an error and that he had an 80 score to tie A. Biewaner of Hopewell Valley for sixth.

The Bellboy star had a scintillating 75 on his practice round, a score which would have topped the first place tally of Monmouth's Jay Brooks, who hit 76.

Landing in a deep sand trap on the third hole resulted in an eight for that hole. He had scored a three on it in practice.

His scores were a 45 for the front nine and a 35 for the back nine. The district championship was held at Alpine Country Club in Alpine, a course which in Gary's words is "a real test of golf."

Gary explained that the course would best be described as being "hilly and tight" referring to the last nine holes specifically.

The BHS golf team captain had to use every club in the bag to get around the 18 holes of drastically varying lengths. The lengths of the holes ranged from about 310 feet to 420 feet, while most of the nearby courses have all 18 holes of about the same length.

Originally Gary had hoped to get a few days practice on the sight of the districts, but he was lucky enough to get ideal conditions for a match. It had rained the morning before, and by the time Gary, in the last group, got onto the course, it was just dry enough and in good condition. The course was so much to Gary's liking that he exclaimed it as being: "Tremendous, beautiful, the best course I've ever seen.

The State Finals held this past week were set for Forsgate, a course which Gary commented is to be known for its sand traps. The champ will have practiced on the course by starting time, and felt he never really has been bothered by sand traps before, especially with the time he's put in golfing and caddying on the Upper Montclair C.C., which is longer, but also has quite a

Rally Falls Short As Nutley Clips Belleville, 7-6

by Marc Feldman

Staked to a 6-0 lead after four innings by his Maroon Raider teammates, Ed Negra needed relief help from Danny Bouton in the seventh to stave off a Belleville uprising and hold on for a 7-6 triumph over the Bellboys, last Saturday at Municipal Stadium.

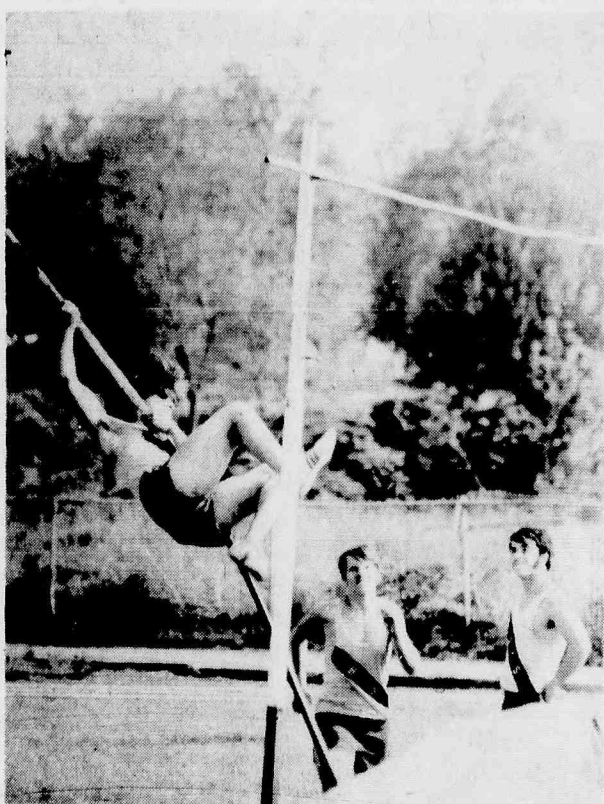

The loss was Belleville's third straight and second by identical 7-6 counts. The Bellboy pitching faltered in the early innings and was a bit too much to overcome for the potent Belleville batsmen. The batting star for the Raiders was shortstop Tom Buffardi who collected two hits in four at bats and scored three runs.

Nutley led 7-4 after six and one half innings before the wildly exciting Belleville half of the seventh. Frank Petite led off with a base on balls and Charlie Ziegler followed with a grounder to short which Tom Buffardi juggled, leaving all hands safe.

The rally almost died when Gary Falkman lined out to left and Ron Muscara grounded out. Joe Ritacco walked to load the bases with two out. Petite scored on a Negra wild pitch and Ziegler moved to third.

Ritacco moved into scoring position on a stolen base and Frank Fury walked to reload the bases for Jim Miele. Miele responded with an infield hit to score Ziegler and bring Bouton in from the bullpen to pitch to Joe Papasidero with the score 7-6. With a 2 ball-no strike count, Papasidero hit a comebacker (Continued on Page 12)

Kearny Challenges Frosh

The highly successful Belleville freshman baseball team winds up its season tomorrow with a matchup against Kearny at the Stadium.

Sporting an 11-2 record, the young Bellboy batsmen will be seeking victory number two over the frosh Cardinals. Earlier this week, the Bellboy frosh dumped Kearny 3-1.

In the Bellboy frosh's other two games this past week, opposed to 4:52 for Ridley and 4:58 for Roosevelt.

None of the varsity members feel disappointed because of the competition they faced and are raring to go for this weeks Regatta.

The JV shell finished a distant third in its heat in the junior division, and its record is 8-2 going into the Regatta.

they beat rival Nutley, 1-0, but dropped a disappointing 2-1 tilt to Essex Catholic.

The first game of the week was a disappointing 2-1 loss to Essex Catholic in nine innings, two more than the regular frosh game. Ken Stein pitched his first game of the season, allowing six hits while striking out seven and walking three.

The frosh scored the first run on two walks and two errors by Essex fielders. Mark Grace walked and Joe Troise followed with an attempted sacrifice and was safe on an error by the pitcher. Alan Frank was then walked, loading the bases for Bob Luongo, who hit into a fielder's choice. Grace, however, was safe at the plate on a slow throw.

Essex then tied the game in the fifth on two hits and a fielding error. The go ahead run came in the ninth on (Continued on Page 12)

Women's Rights Come To BHS In Sports

It seems that the current movement afoot to make the American woman equal to the American male has come in full force to Belleville High School.

Three girls' sports are now part of the student's activities. The first sport to come was the girls basketball team under the direction of Girl's gym teacher Miss Karen Fucello. The first team aroused alot of attention among the students by splitting two opening games.

"Coach" Fucello's success with the cagers led her to the idea of a girls softball team. The coach wouldn't even talk of having the girls enter inter-scholastic competition, but the girls did, and finally a game was arranged with Irvington High School, which the Bellgirls won 15-1.

Now in the making is a girls football team. It isn't run by the Girls physical education department, but by a couple of BHS football players who want to help out.

Vitiello Takes On The Coache's Spot

Tom Vitiello, a tackle on this year's football team and a shotputter for the track team, is taking the post of head coach, supervising the overall activities, which hopefully will include practices somewhere in town, and if possible maybe even a few games with local schools.

The three coaches have even set up a tentative line-up for the Bellgirls gridiron team but haven't settled the question of whether it will be tackle or touch.

Most likely to be calling the signals for the girls will be Patty Tortoriello. Joining Patty in the backfield will be Carol Sodano at halfback, Domenica Foti at fullback, and Maria Zarra at wingback.

The line might include Patty Smith and Kathy Dougherty as tackles, Karen Alfone and Linda Frazier as guards and Caroline Watt as the center.

The ends will be filled by Jackie Ferrantino and Maria Avena. Avena is the coach's favorite choice, and "possibly an all-state prospect."

At the girls softball game last week, many of the femmes showed an adeptness with the glove and bat, as Irvington was held to only one run while the Bellgirls scored fifteen.

Marty Peldunas Slugs A Grand Slam

Martha "Marty" Peldunas seemed to be the slugging star of the Belleville squad. Marty batted four times and reached safely all four while scoring three times. Marty reached first on an error, singled, and hit a grand slam homerun in her last trip to the plate.

Debbie Meola. Graziano was the starter and gave up only one hit while striking out one before being liften in the fourth when Cocah Fucello changed her squad. Meola came on in the fourth and wiffed two batters in her second inning. In the last inning Meola led up the only Irvington run on a walk followed by a triple.

In the upcoming football season watch for an "unknown" to standout. A junior southpaw is expected to fire bombs on Head Football Coach John Amabile's new play, "the Delaware Option," which is run from a 19 power play.

to the mound to end the game.

The way the game started for Belleville, they were lucky to have had a chance. The Raiders scored once in the first, twice in the second with the aid of two Bellboy errors and three free passes. Nutley appeared to have wrapped the game up in the fourth when they picked up three more runs, the big blow a two run double by Greg Clarke. Bill Haines absorbed the defeat.

Belleville got back in the game with a three run fifth inning. The Bellboys loaded the bases with no outs and scored on Brian Waters' sacrifice fly, and run scoring singles by Charlie Ziegler and Gary Falkman.

The Bellboys had baserunners in every inning but two Nutley double plays and ten stranded baserunners stifled the attack in some key situations.

BELLBOY BRIEFS:

The last four Belleville-Nutley baseball games have been decided by a total of five runs...Bellboy RBI leaders are Frank Petite with 20, Joe Papasidero with 12, and Charlie Ziegler with 11...Belleville's team stolen base total is double that of the opposition, 60-30....Team batting average of .274 represents a 56 point rise over last year.

Ralph Salerno Well Remembers Two Former Bellboy Trackmen

There are two Belleville High School alumni that senior track co-captain Ralph Salerno remembers quite well.

One is Barry Pierce.

Pierce was the top shot

Ralph Salerno

putter for the Belleville cindermen when Salerno entered the high school. Pierce encouraged Salerno to try out for the track team, and took him under guidance. "He taught me all I know," Salerno recalls. Late that season, the sophomore shot putter beat his senior teacher, something he has never forgotten.

The other alumnus is Billy Bartell.

Bartell was an outstanding shot putter for the Bellboys six years ago, when he set the current mark in that event of 54'9".

Salerno is shooting for that record. With just two meets left, the stocky senior feels he still has a chance. His best mark to date has been 48'11", set against Central this year.

Teaming up with weightmen Mike Albertine and co-captain Vic Squitieri, Salerno has helped give the cinderman a strong point producing trio in the field events.

A consistent placer in the discuss event, Salerno nevertheless acknowledges that his event is the shot put. He also says that he was sharper earlier in the year and indicates that he has been in a "slump."

The 5'10" 218 pounder feels, however, that he has been pulling out of that slump, and credits teammate Albertine for helping point out a problem with his form.

The three-year letter winners' biggest disappointment as a Bellboy athlete oddly enough has nothing to do with track.

Salerno, who is built like a football linebacker, was just that for the high school team during his sophomore and junior years. A matchup with Nutley early last year spelled a sudden end to his career, when he severely tore cartilage in his left knee. Today he wears a knee brace and still feels the disappointment of not being able to play what he says is his favorite sport.

The 17 year old is a lifelong resident of Belleville. His athletic career began in the farm league baseball squad. A C-plus student, he is a member of the Senior Senate and will attend the University of Maryland next fall.

Confidence is apparently one of Salerno's biggest assets. He says he is never nervous before a meet, although he eats a hot fudge sunday before each meet as a "superstition."

The co-captain would like to see a new track built at the Stadium, one that would be separated from the baseball field.

"It's a little annoying having to duck fly balls from the JV baseball diamond," he says.

We had many questions from customers about the "instant on" feature which is incorporated in many color TV sets.

Engineers claim that it is much more damaging to any kind of a tube, bulb, fluorescent tube etc. to turn it on and off than to leave it on constantly. Transmitting tubes in broadcast stations, for instance, are never turned off. The amount of electricity used to leave them on apparently is less costly than the replacement of such a tube in case the filament burns out. Of course, we talk about hundreds of dollars for such a tube. The potential damage due to frequently switching on and off applies also to tubes used in color TV sets. In order to prolong the life of these tubes, several manufacturers of color TV sets leave the tubes on, all the time, at a lower voltage therefore they are - so to speak - only half lit. If the set is turned on, the tubes light up fully, in a short time. This is the reason for calling these sets "instant on".

Some people do not like the idea to have the set on all the time, although they are on only at a reduced rate, and the high voltage is not on at all. Still they don't like it. For these people there is a switch on the back of these sets which turns the tubes off completely. If this is done, it takes longer for tubes to warm up, of course, from a cold start.

only run in a 1-0 victory. In the third inning Frank hit a ball to center, which looked like it should have been played on a loop, but the Nutley center fielder dove for the ball and it passed by him into deep center field. By the time the outfielders had come up with the ball Frank had rounded the bases for a home run.

At Kearny, Rich Centenni struck out nine while picking up a 3-1 win. Centenni also walked two and let up three hits, all singles.

The Belleville frosh took an early lead as they scored in the top of the first. Troise was hit by a pitched ball and went to first. Rich Giordano was walked and Troise went to second. Troise then came home on a single by Joe Cerami.

A double steal by Kearny, second and home, in the fourth inning tied the game up, but the frosh scored two more in the sixth to win.

Rich Giordano opened the frosh attack with a single and went to third on a hit by Alan Frank. Joe Cerami loaded the bases as he reached on an error.

With bases loaded and no outs, the frosh tried a suicide squeeze bunt with Joe Ross. Ross missed the pitch however, and the squeeze turned into an attempted triple steal.

Five Teams Undefeated In Men's Softball League

Only five teams remain undefeated in the Recreation Men's Softball League and the evidence is that this year's leagues are far tighter than any past year. There are tie situations in each of the four leagues and all leagues are stronger than ever. Whoever the winner of the Town-Wide Championship may be it is obvious they will have to fight for the honor.

In the Monday Nite League

Frenchies, who were last year's Champs, sport a 4-0 standing. Second Place is currently held by the Circles with a 3-1 standing and their loss was at the hands of the mighty Frenchies. The Jolly Cleaners at 2-2 are in third place. Tied at 1-3 are Olgas, Ajax Motors and John's. MacDonalds Tavern leads the Tuesday League with its

4-0. That team is followed by four teams tied at 2-2. Sharing the second spot are the Belleville Political and Social Club, Frankies Amoco, Rosellis and the Chip-Inn. westinghouse still seeks its first win but is not to be counted out. They played Chip-Inn to 12-13, Frankies to 9-11 and Rosellis to 8-13. First Place in the

Wednesday Nite League is shared by last year's Champs the Landolfi Home for Funerals and Olga's Bar and Grill each with 4-0 records. Next is a 2-2 tie between St. Peters and the Garden States., the Riveras 1-3 and the Rossi's 0-4 round out this League. The Jolly Cleaners Thursday Nite Team leads its league with a 4-0 record. Tied for second place at 3-1 are MacDonalds Tavern and Roselli's. Walter Kidde, who gave MacDonalds their one loss are in next spot with a 2-2 standing. Still fighting for their first wins are the B.P.S./C. and the Hudson County Deaf. Recreation Men's Softball is played at Belleville Park each Monday thru Thursday. Games start at 6: p.m.

Amvets Nip Lions Club For 3rd Win

The National League leading Amvets pulled out an extra-inning affair to nip the Lions Club, 6-5 in eight frames to remain undefeated (3-0).

The Lions started the scoring with one run in the top of the first, but the Amvets came right back in that frame with two tallies, the big hit coming from Dante Pantalone, who sliced a double to knock in the runs.

After the regulation sixth inning, the score stood deadlocked at 4-4. Neither team tallied in the seventh inning.

In the top of the eighth, the Lions came up with a run to take the lead, 5-4. The Champion Amvets, however, did not give up, and came the Michael V. Marotti Little League Field, which is one of the finest facilities for young baseballers in the East Coast.

Presently there is one game during the weekdays, three on Saturday and one on Sunday. During summer months, there will be two fighting back.

Anthony Bialore, a hot hitting shortstop, reached first on an error. Pantalone walked to set up a double steal, leaving men on second and third.

Lou Klein then executed a perfect squeeze bunt to tie the ball game, as Bialore came across the plate, and Pantalone advanced to third.

Kelly then ran for Pantalone, and when Pagano bunted the ball, Kelly scored the winning run.

Do you like to type, and can you type accurately at 35
wpm? If so, we have openings in our Medicaid Division that might interest you.

We stress TYPING because that is exactly what these jobs entail. You are trained to copy information from actual claim forms, type it in a special program, that is, in turn, processed by an optical scanning machine. Sound complicated? It isn't really, because you are trained by our special instructors and earn-while-you-learn.

To see and hear the whole story, please come to our Personnel Department during our weekday interviewing hours, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. We are located just two blocks off Bloomfield Avenue via Newark Avenue. We will be closed on Friday, May 29.

Scott-Stuart

WHAT IS IT ALL ABOUT?

Scott Stuart Productions has to be one of the most unique corporations in all of New Jersey. It helps in casting all non-professional people in movies, t.v. productions and t.v. commercials. Anyone who ever paid any attention to the characters in t.v. commercials or movies and said, "Hey, I can play that part as well as he" now finally has the opportunity. Dawson Scott who is the President of Scott Stuart explains, "Many people realize how difficult it is to break into show business so they wonder how Scott Stuart can get parts for the people who have no experience. The parts we have access to are small parts such as people walking up and down the street or eating in a restaurant for the background scenes. The minimum salary an extra gets per day is anywhere between $85.00 and $100.00, which can certainly turn into a great part-time job if selected."

READY FOR ACTION — Workers check out the Centerville and Southwestern, the well-known miniature railroad on Becker Farm. The railroad will open Memorial Day and begin its 23rd year of operation. The picture shows the main attraction of the railroad, the coal-burning steam locomotive.

Farm to Resume Railroad Operation on Memorial Day

Despite stories to the contrary, not all of the Becker farm has been sold. A large part known as the "Home Farm" remains actively engaged in agriculture. This is where the Centerville & Southwestern, a well-known miniature railroad operates.

For the 23rd year it will open on Memorial Day. The main attraction will be a real coal-burning steam locomotive. It is a fully equipped small size copy of one used several years ago on the D.L. & W's "Lackawanna Limited".

Located on a metropolitan rarity, the train travels for more than a mile through a rural setting before returning on its two mile round trip. Roseland's early name of "Centerville" and its general direction make up the railroad's title.

Although miniature in size it has all the sights, smells and sounds of its big brothers which give the rider a real sense of traveling. There is a "diesel" train for those who dislike coal smoke. All trains adhere to strict schedules while automatic signals safeguard their operation.

Construction of Interstate Highway 280 forced the relocation of about half the trackage. Those who have seen and ridden the new line to Paradise Valley say it is more interesting than the original route to "Peach Tree Junction".

Learn the seven warning signals of cancer. You'll be in good company.

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
 2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
 3. A sore that does not heal.
 4. Change in bowel or bladder habits.
 5. Hoarseness or cough.
 6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
 7. Change in size or color of a wart or mole.
- If a signal lasts longer than two weeks, see your doctor without delay.
- And be sure to have a health checkup once a year, no matter how well you may feel.
