Belleville Men's Club Chooses New Executives

The Retired Men's Club of Belleville at a meeting held on May 6 elected their new officers for the coming club year starting in June.

They are James Gilmartin, president; William Koehler, first vice president; Wesley Schneegas, second vice president; Edward A. Canis, secretary and Harold Ross, treasurer.

The club meets every Wednesday from 9:30 to noon at the recreation hall of Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, 444 Union Avenue, Belleville. If you are retired and live in Belleville why not join us?

Soldier, Company Support Orphans

Being a "Father for a Day" to an orphan is often a reality for Army Specialist Four William Fox of Belleville, and other men of the 30th Transportation Company in Germany.

The company supports an orphanage in Seligenstadt and the men from the company take their own time to visit and teach the children.

Spec. Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tiny Livingston of 151 Stephen Street, Belleville, is a supply clerk with the company.

The specialist entered the Army in May 1966. His wife, Brenda, lives at 2653 St. Phillips Street, Columbia.

Civics Class Visits Essex Courthouse

The civics classes of Belleville Junior High recently visited the Essex County Courthouse and the Essex County Hall of Records.

The students, under the direction of teachers Pat Forte and Michael Early, were given an opportunity to observe the Essex County Board of Chosen Freeholders during a meeting.

Raymond Stabile, the director of the Board, greeted each student individually.

The students then witnessed criminal court cases and met Essex County Sheriff Ralph D'Ambola and the Assistant County Prosecutor Thomas Ford.

Yum Yum Cha

Obviously, the legions of diners who have been rallying to our Monday Yum Cha (that's Chinese Smorgasbord to our friends!) in North Arlington have been trying to tell us something; we think we got the message. From now on we're adding

YUM CHA in PARAMUS on TUESDAY!

It will be our much-talked-about presentation of exotic Appetizers, epicurean Main Dishes and enticing Dessert, enhanced by added space for additional offerings.

At a Jade Fountain YUM CHA everything we have is yours; help yourself as many times as you fancy . . . it's an experience in both gastronomy and generosity. If you haven't been able to get down to North Arlington for this rare treat, head for Paramus; maybe you'll discover some soul-satisfying Oriental tidbits you might never order from an ordinary menu.

Dear Fellow Republican:

Good conscience dictates that you must support Line F, "The Governor's Team for All Republicans," in the June 2 Essex County GOP primary.

The public experience and the personal integrity reflected on this slate, headed by U. S.-Senate-candidate Nelson Gross, offer the only opportunity to restore morality to county government, and to preserve the legitimate Republican Party in Essex County.

The future of the Republican Party in Essex County and the cause of good government must be protected. You cannot afford to permit the GOP to be destroyed by a small group of self-seeking insurgents.

To restore good county government, the Essex County Republican Party must be headed by decent and loyal Republicans. By nominating the candidates on Line F in this primary, honor, rather than destruction, will come to the Republican Party.

Sincerely,

Milton A. Waldor
