JULY

Thought For The Week
"This is the tallest, the healthiest, the brightest and the best looking generation to inhabit this land!"

Bright Birthday Planned

Expectations are building that Craig Fabian's birthday party on July 4 will be the "brightest" ever seen in Belleville's history.

Belleville residents from town officials to Cub Scouts have joined the drive to sell 10,000 birthday candles to be lighted on Craig's Independence Day birthday at Municipal Stadium.

Craig, who is the son of Deputy Fire Chief William Fabian of 207 Malone Avenue, was left partially paralyzed last summer after a swimming accident at a Boy Scouts camp. Since last year, a large group of residents have been raising funds to aid in Craig's costly rehabilitation through the Craig Fabian Fund, a fund which will later be used for any local youth of similar affliction.

This past year, Craig has been undergoing expensive therapy at Kessler Institute in West Orange. He expects to move back to the Fabian home this summer, a move which has necessitated the building of a $6,500 addition onto the home, which includes a ramp and an elevator.

Fire Chief Carl Hunderfund is building the elevator, while a group of firemen and residents have donated materials and construction expertise.

Five booths will be set up at the stadium for selling the candles at the regularly scheduled July 4 celebration.

Cullen's Departure Brings Questions

by Nat Gottlieb

"I was tired of people complaining about Belleville. I felt the councilmen were not doing enough, that there was an awful lot of conflict between them. I felt rather than complaining and doing nothing, I would run and get things moving."

That was Bill Cullen's explanation of why he first ran for public office in Belleville, as printed in the May 29, 1969 Belleville Times.

"Due to my moving from town I must resign from the Town Commission effective today, June 29, 1970."

That was the same Bill Cullen in a terse letter of resignation this week.

What has happened in the little over a year's time which has elapsed between these two statements—the disappointments, the changes of heart—no one except Bill Cullen really knows. The resigning commissioner left office Monday without a single personal communication to a Belleville official, and was unable to be found for comment by the press or town commissioners. There was no indication of where he was moving to.

On Monday, Cullen spent two hours with Mayor Ken Smith discussing the timing of his move. Then early Tuesday morning Phil Newsome, foreman of Cullen's Department of Parks and Public Property, handed the brief letter to town clerk Eugene Barnett. The commissioners were subsequently notified by Barnett.

Cullen's wife, whom he was separated from recently, said she hadn't any knowledge of the move. "The only thing I can tell you is that I'm not going with him." She suggested The Times call Cullen's mother, whom she indicated he had been living with since the separation.

A female voice at the Cullen's mother's residence hung up on this reporter four times without comment. Speculation was rampant among most town officials, most of whom said they were taken by surprise.

Commissioner Mary Senatore said she wasn't surprised at all, however. "I could see a lack of interest on his part in commission and town affairs." She declined to speculate, however, why he might have lost interest.

(Mayor Ken Smith says the remaining four commissioners will meet this week to decide whether to appoint someone to the spot or to leave it vacant. Commission law provides these two alternatives according to Mayor Smith.)

There have been three major setbacks for Commissioner Cullen the past three years, and many observers have said they had an effect on the once very popular vote getter. This month Cullen also quit his public relations position with the Breeze Corporation of Union.

Cullen first entered public life in 1964 when a group of residents placed his name on a recall election ballot. Successful, Cullen served as councilman until 1967, when he again won a seat at Town Hall.

Joining another councilman, Vincent Strumolo, Cullen campaigned for the Commission form of government and later won his directorship in that government.

In that first year under the commission, Cullen was largely responsible for

Possible Site Chosen For Second Entrance To Rt. 21 In Belleville

After the State Highway Department installs temporary safety features on Route 21, one of the long range improvement ideas which will come under study will be a second entrance northbound in Belleville.

Acting Police Chief Joe Smith told The Times this week that a possible site had been selected for the entrance, which Belleville police hope would enable them to respond faster to the frequent accidents occurring along the Northbound "death strip."

Presently, Belleville Police must travel to the Chester

Avenue entrance in Newark to respond to an accident call occurring south of Belleville's only northbound entrance, which is at Little Street.

The site selected is about 500 feet south of where the two mile section of the highway through Belleville begins near Mill Street. Smith indicated that the entrance could be cut most easily at this point because the north and southbound lanes are double-decker and therefore no overpass would have to be built.

Last week Smith met with New Jersey Transportation Commissioner John C. Kolb and State Senator James W. Wallwork (R-Essex) to discuss improvements to the highway. The meeting was called in the wake of a fatal accident in the Northbound lane involving a 15 year old Belleville girl, Kathy DeFago. The accident had prompted Mayor Ken Smith to threaten to close the roadway unless the state provided the safety features.

At that meeting, according to Acting Chief Smith, immediate safety features such as warning devices, reflectors, and a post and cable fence along the river route were promised, as well as a long range study by State engineers of the problem.

Chief Smith said the new entrance site would save Belleville Police several minutes during an accident call, "minutes which are precious when we are dealing with a possible death by drowning."

Says Don't Hold Your Own July 4

The arrest of a Walter Kidde employee this week on charges of possession of fireworks has brought warnings from Belleville Police that residents should avoid "holding their own celebrations".

Acting Deputy Chief Frank Haight, who directs the local detective bureau warned residents that "fireworks are not only dangerous when used by a non-professional, but they are illegal."

Last Friday Belleville Detectives Ronald Thompson and Sgt. Hank Olivieri arrested a Walter Kidde employee and charged him with possession of fireworks.

Haight identified the man as Henry Mallack, 64, of 200 Dewey Avenue, Toto Boro. Found in Mallack's car, according to Haight, was about $200 worth of fireworks, including sky rockets, Roman candles and cherry bombs.

Mallack was released on $500 bail pending a July 9 arraignment before Belleville Municipal Court Judge Edward Abramson.

Deputy Chief Haight told residents not to purchase fireworks, saying the law carries penalties for buying, possession and use, as well as selling.

He said that in many instances "fireworks cause severe damage to users who are

Coaching Rumors Run Riot

A husky, well built member of the Belleville Board of Education will also assume the coaching duties.

Jobless Outlook For Youth?

Federal funds which would have enabled 50 Belleville youths to obtain summer employment, may not be forthcoming this year.

That news reached Town Hall last week from the New Jersey Youth Corps, which is the County filtering agent for poverty funds doled out to the state by the Federal government.

The past two years, Commissioner Mary Senatore has been successful in obtaining Federal money to employ local youth — 50 last year. — This year Commissioner Senatore said she was told Belleville doesn't qualify for the funds.

Monday, Commissioner Senatore phoned State Commissioner of Public Affairs Edmund T. Hume and told him "that Belleville taxpayer's were being shortchanged." She said she "demanded to know why this town could qualify for two straight years and then suddenly be dropped."

Hume indicated he will send a state representative to evaluate Belleville this week, according to Commissioner Senatore, who says by next week she should be able to give some answers to 50 youths who applied this year for jobs.

The funds are filtered down from the federal anti-poverty program, and are given to towns to aid disadvantaged youth. Commissioner Senatore said she was told by

Special Summer Schedule

The Belleville Public Library will observe special hours this summer, now through Labor Day.

The main branch at 221 Washington Avenue will be open on weekdays only. Monday's hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Tuesday through Friday's hours are 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

At the Silver Lake Branch on 30 Magnolia Street, hours will be 9 a.m. to one p.m., Monday through Friday.

Information may be obtained by calling the Library at 759-9200.

Lauterette Resigns Post As Zone Board Head

John Lauterette has resigned as chairman of the Belleville Zoning Board of Adjustment. John Morello, Board vice-chairman will assume Lauterette's duties, probably until the annual reorganization meeting in the fall.

Named to fill the vacant spot on the five man board was Sam Giordano, who has been an alternate member. Giordano, who is in the scrap metal business, resides at 26 Nolton Avenue. No alternate has yet been named by the Commission.

Lauterette told The Times that business activities had forced him to miss "too many meetings," and indicated this kept him from "doing justice to the job." He was in his fourth year as Zoning Board chairman.

The departing chairman was recently named distribution manager for the Eastern coast district of Universal Foods, a position which requires extensive and frequent traveling.

Lauterette finds himself out of active public service for the first time in 25 years, after having served on numerous committees and boards in this town and throughout the state. "I will return," Lauterette said.

The Zoning Board recently has been the center of much attention revolving around variances for garden apartments. The five member appointed board has sat through many long and often stormy meetings the past two years over the apartment construction. The latest controversy was a proposed

No Exam Set For Police Chief

Mayor Ken Smith says he will name a new Police Chief in September without calling a Civil Service exam. The Mayor's decision came after his brother Donald announced Monday that he will retire as police chief September 1 after 39 years of service.

(The Times will carry a complete biographical sketch of the retiring chief in next week's paper.)

Apparently Belleville's next police chief will either be Acting Chief Joe Smith, who is not a relative, or

Belleville's Past: A Quiet, Peaceful Era

by Alan Crisp

PEACEFUL — Whatever happened to the peaceful Belleville of the 1800's? This painting shows Belleville as seen from Arlington in 1830. Who would ever have suspected that...

(The Passaic River, which has been called one of the most polluted streams in the country, was once a delightfully scenic spot for boating and fishing, reports Alan Crisp, Belleville Town Historian.)

In the following essay on life in Belleville during the 1800's, Crisp relates some of the charm of old Belleville, as seen through the eyes of one of the leading citizens of the 1890's, former Mayor Hugh Holmes.

Crisp is a frequent contributor to the Belleville Times.)

In the early 1890's, one of Belleville's leading citizens, former Mayor Hugh Holmes, wrote a charming little paperbook about our town. Rather than a chronological history, it is largely reminiscences of life in Belleville from 1820 to the 1890's.

Since the Passaic River has recently received unpleasant notoriety as one of the most polluted streams in the country, I quote first on its charms in the old days:

"The writer will now give a short account of what the Passaic River produced of the finny tribe. It abounded with them, such as bass, perch, roach, herring, sunfish, catfish and all kinds of fresh water fish.

"You could take a rod and line and in one hour return with your basket full, or as many as you wanted. As you washed the bait from your hands the fish would come to the surface to get it, and as far as your eye could see the whole water would be alive with them from four inches to two feet in length; bass weighing from one to fifteen pounds.

"Some have been caught that tipped the scale at seventeen pounds; smelts were caught by the wagon load, furnishing the Newark and a part of the New York market. And then the shad interest was a large one, some twenty or more hauling places, and at each one they would catch thousands. There have been over seven hundred caught with one sweep of the seine.

"It was the daily custom of the farmers and citizens of Bloomfield, Caldwell and in fact, the whole back country, to bring their barrels and salt, buy the shad, clean and lay them down and take them home in barrels. $8.00 per hundred was the usual price; then also what was called Albany beef (sturgeons) could be seen jumping both north and south as you cast your eye, some four feet out of the water.

"Many hundreds of these have been taken, sliced up and eaten. The smaller fish, such as bass and perch, were not only caught in summer but in the winter. Hoops were cut in the ice, for then the river would freeze from 18 to 24 inches.

"You could drive sometimes from Passaic to Staten Island without any fish. (The late Theodore Sandford told me that his ancestral colonial home was built on a bank of the Passaic and rolled across the ice on logs to Belleville at a later date — A.C.)

'No Professional Undertakers'

'The Roads Were Full of Tolls' In Belleville Of The 1800's

(Continued on Page 1) sermon and the preacher told doubtful as was Billy the him if he doubted anything Baker, who went to hear a he heard, to whistle. The sermon was about the multitudes being fed on the five loaves of bread and Billy's whistle was heard. When the minister stopped and asked, 'Well, Bill, what's the matter?', Billy said, 'I only want to know what kind of an oven those loaves were baked in.' So it is a fish story, but it is a true one, having been tested and proved by the writer."

Holmes' comments about funerals are extremely interesting: "In those early days there was no professional undertaker; if a relative died they would convene and make a muslin or linen shroud. The carpenter, Mr. A.P. Sanford, would make the coffin which was generally of pine, stained.

"Sometimes those who could afford it would have walnut and some wealthy ones mahogany. The sexton would dig the grave and he would go from house to house and notify the people and if the burial was to be in the place, the dead were carried on biers and the mourners and friends would form in procession on foot to the grave, and if the burial was elsewhere the coffin was placed in some suitable wagon and the neighbors who had horses would send them with their carriages and wagons to convey the mourners and friends."

His warm account of Doctor Samuel L. Ward makes us realize how much times have changed:

"He made more sacrifices and did more for this town, without compensation, than any other gentleman who ever lived in it. He was always ready, by night and day, in the coldest of winter and in the hottest of summer, in storm as in sunshine, to the poor as well as the rich, to the colored as well as the white, to attend to any and every call, would go as quick to relieve the sick where he would not get one cent as he would where he thought a good fee awaited him. And when he called, you did not risk dying before a prescription was obtained from some drug store perhaps one mile away that cost one dollar. No, no, it was always with him in his little chest.

"If on the first of January you had generosity enough to call for your year's bill, for he would not ask you, 'Oh, my friend', he would say, 'I do not know. I have no charge.' And if you were mean enough to offer $20, $10 or even $5, he would say, 'Thank you' and give you a receipt in full. If he had had a bookkeeper at $100 per annum and had given an account of his medicines left and calls made, and had the bookkeeper collected it, he would have been a much richer man when he left us.

"This writer knew him over three score years ago and up to his death and thinks of him with sweet remembrance. There are few living today whom he visited then, but there are some who remember his kindly visits of later years, and if their eyes light on this little book, I know they will say with the writer, 'God bless the name of Dr. Ward.' He did not get his reward here but has gone up higher to get it from his Master, who will say, 'Inasmuch as you did it unto one of the least of these you did it unto me.' Many here have missed his genial face, his warm and sympathizing heart and his words to druggists about many prescriptions for poor families, 'Charge it to me.'"

Describing Belleville geographically about 1820, Hughie Holmes wrote: "There were but 75 houses from Barracks Lane (now Joralemon Street) to Mt. Pleasant Cemetery (Belleville's southern boundary). There was not a house in what was afterward called Woodside, but it was all farms, and only the river road and the back road (now Summer Avenue) to Newark. You had to either cut behind some wagon or go on foot, and if you owned a horse and wanted to drive anywhere—or even go on foot—you must pay for the privilege.

"The roads were full of toll gates. You start for New York. You are stopped first at the bridge, at the foot of the hill by a gate at the bridge again, and in two miles another gate, two miles further another gate, two Lauterette said he was "Truly sorry to be leaving the Board." Asked what insight he may have gained into Belleville's future, the departing chairman said he foresaw high rises. "Belleville being so tight on open land," he said, "it is my opinion that the town must go upward in terms of medium and high rise construction."

The resident of 22 Elena Place has had a long career of public service. He is a former vice chairman of the Belleville Planning Board; chairman for the original fund-raising drive for Clara Maass Memorial Hospital; president of the Board of Education's Athletic Advisory Council, and has served a five year term as member and co-chairman of the first Belleville Planning Board.

He was also vice chairman of the Belleville Public Safety Traffic Committee in the late 1950's.

When, because of scarring or injury, light is distorted or impeded in passing through the cornea and then the pupil of the eye, eyesight is impaired, or the person may become blind. If the rest of the eye is still in healthy condition, the damaged cornea can be removed and replaced with the cornea from another eye. This is a corneal transplant. Chief D. Smith Sets Retirement

Mayor Smith says he is within Civil Service law in naming a chief without an exam. According to the Mayor, when there are three or less candidates of deputy chief ranking no exam is

The Mayor said he has "no idea" whom he will name to fill the post in the fall.

Don Smith was named chief in September of 1966, marking the highpoint of a police career which began on June 15, 1931. The 65 year old chief recalls he had to walk eight miles in eight hours on his first beat.

Married, the retiring chief lives at 111 Belleville Avenue. He has a son who is a sergeant in the Essex County Park Police Department, and a married daughter who lives in California. He has nine grandchildren.

Those Mobile Homes

In his annual report to Congress on the nation's housing goals President Nixon noted that the mobile home industry has grown so large it can no longer be ignored. It has grown so rapidly it now produces about half a million new homes a year.

This represents a fourfold increase since the early sixties and the increase is expected to continue. The popularity of this kind of home is causing tax bodies in many areas to take a long look at potential revenue to be gained by taxing them as real estate rather than personal property.

In some communities the revenue considered lost because such homes are not taxed as real estate is considerable. Instead of another hike in real estate rates, applying real estate taxes to such homes might enable some to avoid tax rate increases.

(In some states mobile homes are licensed as trailers and cost only a dollar or two a year.)

In any event, the question whether so-called mobile homes laid on permanent foundations are really mobile or not is a good one. In many ways it seems only fair that those who live in mobile homes and share facilities and services available to residents in conventional dwellings pay their share of real estate taxes. This would almost invariably be true, since mobile homes are valued lower by assessors than conventional housing, generally speaking.

Official Defends Library Vote

To the Editor:

Having remained silent to the recent news releases issued to the newspapers by Mayor Kenneth Smith and Joseph Casale, president of the Library Board, I realized a responsibility and an explanation to the citizens as to why I voted against the expansion of the Library.

The statement issued by the Mayor indicated I was against children and progress for our town. I find this statement coming from the Mayor hard to believe as he personally knows how much I've done for children in our town. Since being elected to office, my staff and myself were responsible for bringing the "Youth Club" and placed many children from 15 years old to 20 in summer positions; which was sponsored and paid through state funds.

This program, took many hours of work, which I did not have to put in, but did only because I was interested in seeing the children of Belleville kept busy and out of mischief all summer. This is only one phase of my help towards children. In any project where any child in our town needed assistance, I made myself personally available.

Having taken a personal poll, through a cross section of town, these were some of the remarks I heard: The Library building is in good shape, the only thing needed is to update the books. The school libraries are used continually and supplied and updated. The Silver Lake area has a new Library, etc. After listening to well over 40 persons against the library expansion, I heard from no one saying why it was best to have an expansion of the library.

Mr. Casale, president of the Library Board as well as a member of the Board of Education, I'm sure remembers that a meeting of both the Board of Education and Town Fathers was called by Mayor Smith to discuss a bonding ordinance and each of those present, were to submit in writing, what each thought were the necessary things needed in each department. I prepared my homework and submitted my needs for the Department of Public Works, and at this very meeting words were exchanged in which the Board of Education felt Education needed top priority. Now a Board member comes out and states a library is much needed. I say let's start thinking and planning consistently and not change our views daily.

At a recent town meeting, the five Commissioners were asked to vote on a resolution, appointing a Committee to study the feasibility of certain needs within the Town of Belleville. I voted yes and I felt, in order to be consistent in my vote, we should not vote for anything until a report is released by this Committee.

Today, according to the listing of tax rates in Essex County, I find Belleville in good standards with only a six point increase in our tax rate. This was accomplished by the Town Fathers only by holding the reins in our immediate departments.

The world and local economy as it is today, makes me, as one of the elected officials in our town, give second thoughts to any improvements at the present time and I personally will not vote for anything that will increase the tax rate in our town.

Says Politicians Neglect Animals

To the Editor,

On June 6 the annual meeting of the Associated Humane Society was held in their "meeting hall". It was the most disorderly meeting I ever attended.

Lee Bernstein packed the meeting room with people that had not been approved of by the Board of Trustees for membership in accordance with their by-laws. I attempted to enlighten this noisy group that this meeting must be conducted in accordance with the by-laws and was told to "go back to Russia where you belong."

While the president, Mrs. Simenski, was delivering her opening address, she was loudly heckled; someone (a man) was shaking his fist at her and shouting, "shoot her, kill her, get her out, etc." There was no choice but to adjourn this awful meeting. The first vice-president, Ashley Goodman, was waiting for this chance and immediately snatched the microphone from Mrs. Simenski and would not allow her to finish her sentence. He said he was now in charge and they would vote immediately. We humanitarians walked out en masse.

A few years ago, Bernstein was elected to the board of trustees. He soon had his friends, Saul Steinberg, Frank Addonizio and Ashley Goodman on the Board, too. Bernstein resigned because he needed a remunerative position because he was recalled as a Councilman. He was hired as the director at $15,000 per year for the Society.

At the June 6 meeting he was able to get three more of his friends on the board; Albert Beim, Tom Fiorenza and Martin Tiger. They are going to make that Shelter "big business". Bernstein said so publicly. He said we were nice ladies, fond of animals but had no knowledge of how to run a business.

It was never the intention to have a business for profit as our Charter stipulates "non-profit shelter for animals." Our records prove that we were and are strictly volunteer workers without pay. In fact, when we had meetings the cost of the refreshments was paid for from the Board of Trustees personal funds.

At present the Shelter has several contracts with surrounding communities, the largest from Newark at about $45,000. They will not take in an animal without an exorbitant fee, consequently, the animals are being left on the streets. Never has the animal suffering been so serious. It is indescribable. Also, it is not fair to the public to have these animals run at large when their tax dollars are contributing to the support of the Shelter.

Please help us to oust these politicians and return the Associated Humane Societies to humanitarians who will make a Shelter for animals, co-operate with the public and function as a non-profit organization.

Belleville Policeman Commends Nutleyite

(The following letter from a Belleville Police Captain was written to the Nutley First Aid Squad to cite an unusual deed of dedication. -Editor)

I would like to take this opportunity, to commend James Birmingham, a member of the Nutley First Aid Squad for his excellent assistance to the Belleville Police Department on the night of June 14, 1970, along Route 21 in Belleville at auto accident scene where northbound vehicle jumped guard rail and landed in Passaic River. The effort of James Birmingham to revive a female occupant removed from submerged vehicle by mouth to mouth resuscitation was outstanding.

To have a member such as James Birmingham in your organization is an asset not only to the Nutley First Aid Squad but to the entire community as well.

Library Head Says Expansion Is Necessary

To the Editor:

In rejecting a move to expand the public library two of the Town Commissioners made public explanations to the effect that the people of Belleville did not want nor need an expanded library facility.

This opinion runs directly counter to the experience of the library in recent years. In my nine years with the Belleville Public Library we have never had a greater demand on our existing facilities and for additional and improved services.

Although conditions in the library are increasingly crowded, although our growing book collection is substantially undersized and space for group programs is non-existent and study facilities for children severely inadequate, use of the library has nevertheless been on the increase in recent years.

It is the belief of the Board and the administration of the library that a majority of the people of Belleville do indeed want a good library and have both the desire and the right to the educational and cultural advantages that such a library brings to its community — to its senior citizens and adults as well as students and younger children.

Belleville does not now have a good library. No one is more aware of this than library officials themselves — and the literally thousands of residents who, despite the library's limitations, must continue to make as best use as they can of an inadequate public facility.

There is little doubt in my mind that the library is well-used in relation to its substandard collections and facilities, and I have no doubt whatever that an expanded library with collections, staff, study and reading space, meeting room and other facilities and atmosphere approaching standards of good service would be far busier and would be a more genuinely significant center of cultural and educational activity.

The people of Belleville — unless they have lived in or visited other towns where fine libraries providing a full range of service are an established fact of healthy community life — do not really know what a contemporary local library is or can be. Over the years perhaps many Bellevillites have become accustomed to the frustration and disappointments inherent in an inadequate, second rate library. For this they cannot be blamed. But there is no need to confuse the past with the future. A good, contemporary library is as much a possibility for Belleville as it has been a reality for many of Belleville's neighbors. The Library Board and administration would like to bring this reality to fruition and will continue to strive toward this end.

It must be recognized, however, that the present building is undersized and outmoded to the point where it imposes severe limits on basic areas of potential library service.

If Belleville is ever to have good — or even adequate — library service an expansion and improvement of its physical plant is a prime necessity.

It is for this reason that the library, while it continues to develop its collections and services to the limit of its abilities, has also committed itself to a continuing effort toward an adequate library building.

Has Complaint About School Board Meetings

To the Editor:

I would like to make a few comments concerning the "normal" proceedings that take place during a Board of Education public meeting in Belleville.

On every agenda the second item is "remarks by any citizen present". After this is finished the resolutions are presented. This system allows only people who have old gripes or who are fantastically rapid readers to speak. The majority of the people who attend these meetings would like the opportunity to at least ask some questions or offer comments before a vote is taken and not have to complain about that locked barn at the next meeting.

The board magnificently voted approval of a supervisor of special education without having a signed contract. At the end of the meeting the board had to re-vote and table the resolution when the applicant called and declined the job.

I also wonder why board members must peruse applications of potential new teachers at the meeting before they vote. It would seem to me that the only logical explanation for this is either no previous investigation prior to this five-minute review, or a lack of communication between the superintendent and the board. In either case this is a disservice to the students, parents, board members and the teachers themselves.

In closing I would like to state that I believe the board is trying, but by giving the citizens a real chance to express their views they can then show that they are trying harder.

Sincerely,
Michael H. Traylor

Town Pool Urged After River Drownings

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero, president of the Board of Education, ended the year's last meeting with a plea to Belleville parents to "be more aware of the cost of school vandalism in Belleville." The Board President said vandalism had cost the town $5,536.98 for the year. Glass damage alone totaled $1,198.06.

The elusive Heckel Street rats that had caused a furor in town, were exterminated by the Health Department and the Department of Public Works. Sewers along Heckel Street were baited by the Health Department with the aid of Public Works Department trucks.

It appeared that Belleville town organizations had little interest in improving Municipal Stadium facilities, despite the fact that Commissioner William Cullen's proposed stadium expansion plan was to cost the town $100,000. Only eight organizations sent representatives to a special meeting of the Belleville Athletic Council, called to discuss the town's possible role in future stadium improvements. Forty invitations had been sent to town organizations.

All Troops Out Of Cambodia Is Surprise

QUESTION: It's July 1 and American Troops are out of Cambodia. Does that surprise you?

ASKED: Of local residents on July 1

Bill Adriola, 33 Clover Street, Nutley:
That move by Nixon really did surprise me. I honestly didn't think he would be out of Cambodia on the date he promised. I thought that country was going to end up another Vietnam by the way we just marched into there for the sake of "peace." But I do think that by the president keeping his promise that it is a good start. Maybe now more people will have more confidence in him. I do now. But I'm still against the war. Also, I don't think that all the troops are out of Cambodia just because Nixon says so. Most likely there are still some soldiers still in the country.

Bill Adriola

Mrs. Lawrence Riggs, 617 Washington Avenue, Belleville:

Yes, the move by Nixon did surprise me. I really didn't think he would have all our troops out of Cambodia at the allotted time. I thought the U.S. troops would be in that country much longer than they actually were, even though the president said they would be out by July 1. I really couldn't say if Nixon would send troops back into there. It all depends on how much pressure he gets from the people. Public opinion is against the Cambodian move and that will probably keep the troops out of there in the future.

Steve Alickovic, 208 Holmes Street, Belleville:

Nixon keeping his promise didn't surprise me that much. I thought that this would happen. He said he would be out of Cambodia in six weeks and he kept his promise. The president had to send the troops into that country to shorten the war. It was a major accomplishment. I don't think that he will send troops back into that country, but it really depends on the situation. If he thinks that it is necessary, then he will do it. He is only trying to protect our troops in Vietnam. Maybe someday he will have to send them back.

Steve Alickovic

Peggy Scheider, 15 Brookline Avenue, Nutley:

I think that by Nixon keeping his word and getting the troops out of Cambodia, it surprised me. But I wouldn't be surprised if he sent troops back into that country at some future date. I'm against the war and so are most of the people I know. First it was Vietnam and now it's Cambodia. How did we ever get into this mess anyway? I can't understand why people are making such a fuss over Nixon and Cambodia. We shouldn't even be in Vietnam, never mind Cambodia. I wish Nixon would realize that most of the people in this country are against the war.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD Diane Tramontana gave a piano recital Saturday night that was highly successful. Diane's first public appearance was at the age of six and she has been entertaining large groups ever since. This is a young girl on the go and on the grow.

LAST WEEK instead of Fort Lauderdale, we went to Washington, D.C. to see what was happening at the annual conference of American Association of Water Officials. Wednesday afternoon we boarded the 3:30 twin jet shuttle for the Capital city and while the jet performed superbly we were just hoping that the senior stewardess would smile at her passengers and give her face a holiday. Since there is absolutely no service of any kind on the shuttle wouldn't you think the least a senior stewardess could do is be gracious? Her attitude didn't bother us because we had a briefcase loaded with material to review before the jet landed in Washington. At the very last minute we invited some Congressman friends to join us for an after-work drink.

Despite the annual baseball game between congressional Democrats and Republicans three Democratic Congressmen made time to visit the Washington Hilton and spend a couple of hours with us. They were Congressman Henry Helstoski of Bergen County, Joe Minish of Essex and Bob Roe of Passaic. Sharing the festivities with us was Al Abrahams, Deputy Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity who formerly was Administrative Assistant to United States Senator Mathias of Maryland and the ten year secretary to United States Senator Clifford B. Case. The next morning I enjoyed a delicious scrambled eggs and bacon breakfast with Rita and Earl Mazo at their home in Washington's Georgetown section. Earl has had quite a busy career. Twenty-two years ago he was with the Cambodia Courier newspaper, then moved to the old New York Herald Tribune as its New Jersey correspondent. This was followed by a stint as political writer of the New York Times, a job which he left to become a feature writer for the Readers Digest. Earl is a Nixon biographer, and this fact probably contributed to the decision of the Readers Digest management to make Earl the Readers Digest liaison with the White House. As always a visit with Earl is an exciting adventure. Before I left Earl's home he insisted upon proving to me that he is also a part-time farmer. I was pleasantly shocked as Earl pointed out to me a real eggplant on a bush right at his front door step. Earl proudly showed me cucumbers, carrots, string beans, grapes, tomatoes, peppers, lettuce - the more Earl showed me the more unbelievable the farm scene appeared. After my tour of the Mazo "farm" we drove downtown and had the privilege of lunching with Congressman Joe Minish, Charlie Sandman and Fort Lauderdale's Congressman J. Herbert Burke, who incidentally is quite a guy. Both Minish a Democrat, and Sandman a leading moderate Republican, said of Burke, "This guy is one of us, he is of the people and for the people". No higher compliment can be paid to any congressman.

RECENTLY the "Judges' Testimonial Dinner Committee" went out to New York's Gaslight Club. The boys enjoyed a "state" dinner and the strange surroundings proved to be challenging to the Nutley - Belleville barristers.

Nutley attorney John Noonan, a former Assistant Prosecutor, is doing right well by himself. Not too long ago he successfully defended a client against a murder rap. He is presently defending a former Newark corporation counsel in the celebrated Newark corruption trial. At this point in time and history it appears that Noonan's future financial success is assured.

Earl Mazo tells the one about Aristotle Onassis' very good friend who was asking the Greek multimillionaire why he decided to marry Jackie. The solicitous friend said, "Aristotle, old boy, I can't understand why you took Jackie for your wife. After all she is skinny; she is quiet; she is not a lady of letters; she is not very affectionate; you could buy and sell her a million times; she is not a lawyer; she is not an actress; she isn't even good looking". "Yes", replied Onassis, "But she can put on a good funeral".

Joe Murphy, Staff Assistant to Republican Congressman Charles Sandman sends his regards to his old friend, Nutley Commissioner John Lucy.

ON THE RETURN shuttle flight from Washington to Newark I had the joyful experience of being joined by Paul Goldberger, a hot-shot former Nutley Sun feature writer. Paul was in Washington on business for the Scholastic magazine, having completed an interview with the Director of the Federal Narcotics Bureau. When summer is over Paul goes back to Yale University to continue his studies.

LOUIS B. LUNDBORG, Chairman of the Board of the Bank of America, the country's largest bank, recently testified before the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations concerning the economic aspects of the war in Vietnam. His 14 page statement is a document every American should read. Invited by the Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to give his personal views on the Vietnam war, Mr. Lundborg submitted an additional seven page statement in which he states, "In my judgment, the war in Vietnam is a tragic national mistake". Continuing, Mr. Lundborg observes, "The overriding question is this one - 'Does the United States from either a practical or moral viewpoint have either the right or the might to set itself up as the unilateral policeman for the world?' My answer to that question is that such a position is morally indefensible and practically unsustainable."

Bob Oliner, one of the GOP's most active leaders, spent last week at the Hotel del Coronado in San Diego, California attending an insurance educational conference.

MAN ABOUT TOWN, Steve Samona, garbed in an attractive turtle-neck blue shirt was disappointed Sunday when he arrived early for his bleacher seat at Nichols Park only to learn that one of the baseball teams failed to show. Steve and Archie Stager, bearer of a great Nutley family name are two of Nutley's best known citizens who are rarely seen without a smile. Occasionally Steve's legs look like they're about to do him in but he assures us there are plenty of miles left in his frail system.

When my Washington shuttle arrived in Newark last week I was pleasantly surprised to see Eastern Airlines customer representative Frank Baker at the foot of the ramp welcoming passengers to Newark - and he appeared just as surprised to see me since he always identified my arrival with a Fort Lauderdale or Miami flight. Baker is a rare specimen of employee - dedicated and very attentive to customer needs.

Leo Argand: Finally Bound For Jerusalem

By John Benevich

Recently honored by the Nutley Chamber of Commerce for his many years of service was Leo Argand, former owner and operator of Argand's Children Shop on Franklin Avenue.

Selling his business in March of this year, Argand and his wife Annabelle will be moving from the North Jersey area to the "land of their dreams."

Mr. and Mrs. Argand will leave in early July for Israel. There they plan to reside in an apartment in the western sector of Jerusalem.

"It's the spiritual city of the world," commented Argand. "I have a certain kinship with that city."

In awarding Argand a special plaque for his years of service, the Nutley chamber broke a sort of tradition. It's the first time the chamber has honored one of its members in that manner.

As one of the first members of the Chamber of Commerce, Argand has served on many committees and performed numerous valuable services for them over the years.

Presently residing in Maplewood, Argand has owned his shop in Nutley for over 20 years. Both he and his wife operated the store as a joint project.

An amateur photographer, Argand recently won a national prize for his picture of "The Shelk" in the "Saturday Review of Literature."

Argand has visited Israel already on four separate occasions, dating back to 1958. His most recent trip there was in July of 1969.

"I speak five languages so I don't expect to have any trouble in that department," he quipped.

A member of the Mandolin and Guitar Society, Argand just last month led a concert for that group in St. Paul's Congregational Church in Nutley.

The Argands have two children. Robert is a doctor who will be moving his practice soon to Wisconsin and a daughter, Mrs. Harvey Barash, is also married to a doctor. She plans to move to Kentucky.

"That was part of our decision to move to Israel," Argand explained. "Our children wouldn't be in the North Jersey area."

Argand said he doesn't feel he will be in any danger in Israel.

"The hazards of living there aren't much greater than here," he stated. "But I will be residing in the western sector of Jerusalem."

Does Supply Ever Equal The Demand?

Ryan and I went to the supermarket Monday and ran into a cousin of mine who owns a pair of Siamese cats. "How are things?" I asked. "Fine," she replied, "but I still have three kittens left and no one seems interested in buying a Siamese cat."

Despite the affection and sympathy I felt for her, relative or no relative, I wasn't about to add another animal to this zoo we maintain. But I thought to myself as we walked away,

"Dear cousin, if you had no kittens to sell, people from all over Nutley and Belleville would probably be beating on your door begging to purchase one."

No one is ever going to convince me that supply equates with demand. I can cite too many instances to the contrary.

X-Rated Films And Parkway Traffic Jams: Here's How You Can Avoid Them Both

By Phil White

AS MUCH as Commissioner Carmen Orechio's stand on X-rated films rubs us the wrong way, we have to give the fellow credit for sticking so strongly to his convictions against a tide of so much criticism.

Carmen even went so far to make a trip to New York during the past week to see "Man and Woman," one of those Danish films that apparently comes as close to pornography as the law permits.

There is another film just out that supposedly gets away with hard-core pornography on the pretense of being a documentary on pornography in Sweden. The narrator periodically comes in to say something like, "and now for an example of the kind of smut we're talking about, let's look at this..."

Carmen Orechio is sincerely concerned when he says something should be done to keep some of the trash out of Nutley. He is aware of the court decisions and he is following three test cases currently before the higher courts of New Jersey.

For a first step, Carmen wants to sponsor a local ordinance - if legally possible - that would make it a legal offense for a theater to permit someone under the age of 18 years to view an X-rated film. All those X's, incidentally, are the result of a rating system sponsored and imposed by the film industry and do not relate with statutes on the books. Consequently, a policeman could not stop that 17-year-old kid from seeing an X-rated film could do nothing. The restrictions are only a policy formally adopted by the theater owner. As a second step, Carmen Orechio would have Nutley continue to harass theater owners by calling in the Prosecutors Office each time an X-film was scheduled here. This would eventually cause everyone to end up in Superior Court, and quite possibly would result in quick injunctions against the showing of a film until the court system could make its ruling. That kind of harassment, Orechio feels, would be enough to keep X-rated films out of Nutley.

The Public Affairs Commissioner believes public sentiment is on his side. Maybe it is, even though those in the Town Hall audience Monday night, and most of those writing letters to The Sun, are violently against film censorship here.

Orechio also feels that if it weren't for the current controversy, nothing would have been done about local film policy. He probably has a good point there because the theater owner told us she was so aggravated by recent events in Nutley that she didn't care if everyone but Carmen Orechio was on her side. "I'm still not going to show any more of those films," she said.

Perhaps Carmen Orechio feels his objectives - as sincere as they are - can continue to be best served in this matter by keeping the issue alive. He told the Town Hall audience Monday night, for example, that voters should be made to be aware of the fact that they have a lot of choices. "I've added," he added, "a number of things to keep the issue a hot one in town, while at the same time cooling down the repertoire on the Franklin marquee.

INTERESTING SIDELIGHT: Even those who oppose film censorship who at Town Hall Monday seemed in agreement that minors should not be allowed to see X-rated films. If you are against censorship because of the idealistic argument based on infringement of individual freedom, then why is it not censorship when you take away such freedom of choice from a 17-year-old high school student?

Or why not let everyone in to see X-rated films? Religion teaches us that man reaches the age of reason at seven years.

PARKWAY TRAVELERS, read on. We had a lengthy conversation with Milt Levy this week. Levy is director of public relations for the Garden State Parkway which this summer is hoping to better aid motorists by providing traffic information by telephone.

The number of the Parkway's Communications Desk in Woodbridge is (201) 442-8600 - a number that is now being advertised and which you might jot down for safekeeping at a convenient place in the glove compartment.

But Milt Levy has some advice too. If you telephone the communications desk, you should be prepared to get the Parkway's traffic information. You should know that so often, motorists trying to out-wit one another frequently find themselves caught in 11 p.m. traffic jams - and even every once and a while, one at 5 o'clock on a Monday morning.

The number should be especially helpful on those overcast Sunday afternoons when you and thousands like you are debating should I leave now or wait until later because maybe everyone else is leaving now?

That kind of a mental game can drive you nuts. With the traffic information available by telephone, perhaps you can come out ahead for a pleasant change.

Incidentally, the traffic reports are fed into Woodbridge by the State Police who patrol the Parkway not only on the ground but from helicopters above.

Unlike the New Jersey Turnpike - now ably administered in part by Robert Citrino who surveys that 64-lane wide road in his sporty RJC-1 Volks - the traffic on the Parkway is subject to more frequent changes. Experts say the Parkway's numerous exits and entrances is the reason why traffic conditions change dramatically on that route within a relatively short period of time.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT: If you don't like getting caught in the holiday traffic jams on the shore, but yet still have the urge to go somewhere, head west young man.

I once belonged to a group that ran a booth at the church's annual fair. One year, in a weak moment, I decorated about two dozen hankerchiefs with liquid embroidery. They went like hotcakes. We were barely open before they were gone. Flush with such success, we decided this was a real moneymaker and the next year, we decorated five dozen. We couldn't give them away and at the end of the day, were left with almost fifty.

Another year, we had a plant booth. We spent most of our capital on chrysanthemum plants which sat there all day and barely moved. In desperation, we railroaded everyone we knew and finally unloaded the little beasts. That was the end of chrysanthemums for us. If we never laid eyes on another bloom, it was going to be far too soon. Would you believe that the next year, people were asking for them?

Now be honest. Have you ever had unexpected guests drop in on a Sunday near dinner time when you have cooked something expandable like a roast or ham or turkey? Or course not. They always appear when you've prepared just enough for your family with barely enough left over to feed a not too hungry flea.

Consider money. How many times have you gone into a store with "spendable" money in your pocket and not found a thing you really wanted? But walk in with barely a franc to your name and you're tripping over bargains in every aisle.

Or liquor. Prepare for a party or other event of similar ilk. Stock up on rye and everyone wants Scotch. Invest in gin and they prefer vodka. Steager home with a case or two of beer and they're all drinking ale.

Maybe it's just me. Perhaps I should have paid more attention to economics in school, but frankly, I didn't like the course.

July Fourth

★ "And the Star Spangled Banner, oh, long may it wave." On the Fourth of July, it's heartening to see our flag flying proudly before home after home. Show your colors . . . on Independence Day, display the Red, White and Blue symbol of our nation's heritage.

★ Most of all, that heritage is freedom. Through the days and the years since July 4, 1776, there have been times of struggle and sorrow, of danger and difficulty, but through even the darkest hours the bright light of freedom . . . symbolized by our flag . . . has sustained us and led us onward to rich and abundant blessings.

★ This Fourth of July, say a prayer of thanks for priceless freedom . . . honor the flag and all it stands for . . . show your colors.

'Wizard of Oz' Draws Applause At School 3

Children-Parents Have Fun

by Doreen De Voigt
The sixth graders presented the play "The Wizard of Oz." Mrs. DiGuglielmo volunteered to direct us and she did a wonderful job.

One day (about a couple of months ago), Mrs. "D" called the sixth graders down to the music room. All the children gathered around as she told us about the play and all the work that would have to be put into it to make the show.

The sixth graders were eager to try out for the parts. Mrs. D. gave us our scripts and called a meeting at the auditorium for tryouts.

Finally the decision was made and the actors and actresses were very excited about the parts they had been given.

Now the hard work was to begin. All the children and Mrs. D practiced as early as 8 a.m. in the morning and took out from their lunch time at noon and stayed for practicing as late as 5 p.m. after school hours. Oh, I must add that without the crews such as lights, sound, makeup etc., the show would never have been put on.

After all the hard work that was put into this play I am proud to say that "The Wizard of Oz" presented by the sixth graders of School Three was a success.

There are always enough publicity-seekers to take on needed projects plus un-needed ones.

Substandard Rooms Asked For Schools

The Belleville Board of Education has asked the county superintendent of schools for permission to use substandard classrooms for the 1970-71 school year.

Included on the list of substandard rooms is an ungraded class in the Cerebral Palsy Center; a fifth grade in School Ten; a third grade in School Five, and two kindergartens in School Eight.

A substandard room is classified by state law as any class which is more than 50 per cent below ground level.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT
By Howie Holpern
Tell that befuddled June groom he's lucky he doesn't have to provide a few head of beef on the hoof to win his bride, as is necessary in many parts of Africa.
Slice mushrooms thinly and toss with olive oil, lemon juice and salt and pepper. The secret added ingredient is a dash of nutmeg.
For most alcoholic beverages the French term "sec" means dry or not sweet, but for champagne it means the opposite. For dry champagne, look for "brut."
When a recipe calls for separated eggs, keep them chilled until the last minute and you'll have an easier job.

Bill Cullen Quits

SADDENED — A saddened Bill Cullen listens last year while his Stadium expansion project is tabled "to death."

remodeling Town Hall through extensive interior work. He also had success in installing a new playground at Emmet and Mary Streets and a scenic ice-skating rink at Fairway Avenue Playground.

But there followed a series of bitterly disappointing defeats for the commissioner. The commissioner was one of the main proponents of the Master plan for land use in Belleville, a plan which met stormy opposition from residents and from Commissioner Strumolo who asked it be "junked."

Remarkable on the defeat of the land use plan in 1967, Cullen said "I was rather disappointed" and indicated he felt "the people were scared by adverse publicity."

Then last year he came up with what was regarded as his "pet" project, a $175,000 expansion of athletic facilities at Municipal Stadium. Five times it was tabled by commissioners before the onset of winter forced Cullen to move it from the agenda. He had promised, though to reintroduce it this spring.

Around March, Cullen found himself and the other commissioners confronted with a town generally hostile to large expenditures, a hostility which reached a climax in the stormy town budget hearings held at the High School.

Last month Cullen introduced a $15,000 ordinance to install a portable swimming pool in the Valley for youngsters. That ordinance was voted down by a 2-2 stalemate.

Using the pool affair as a test case perhaps, Cullen never reintroduced his project for the Stadium. He appeared to reporters as distanced from most major issues and rarely commented on his voting. He was courteous and congenial with the press, however, throughout this time.

HAPPIER — Bill Cullen presented a happier picture last year before his Stadium project fell through and his proposed swimming pool for the Valley was defeated.

Carl Orechio Studies Politics

"There's still plenty to learn about politics and campaigns," Carl A. Orechio, candidate for Freeholder, said after returning from a special GOP candidates seminar last week in Trenton.

Orechio, who ran two successful campaigns for the Nutley Town Commission in addition to topping the local ballot in the June Primary, admitted that even he picked up a number of "good suggestions" on how to campaign at the seminar.

The former Nutley Commissioner is seeking a freeholder's seat on the GOP ballot in this November's General Election. He views the upcoming election as having the Republicans already in the lead and sees the U.S. Senate race between Sen. Harrison Williams and former GOP State Chairman

Nelson Gross as a highlight. Orechio also thinks Essex County Republicans will back the GOP ticket again this fall "because people in the county are looking for a modernistic change and modernistic approach in the administration on the Board of Freeholders."

Orechio believes county voters were short-changed when dissident Republicans formed an alliance with Democrats to take control of the county organization.

The Trenton seminar, held at the Holiday Inn, attracted more than 150 GOP candidates. Gross addressed the group too, said he was proud to head such a fine team, and said he was anxiously looking forward to campaigning on a state-wide basis for the U.S. Senate bid this fall.

Stun Livingston 4-1

Legion Faces Vailsburg-Nutley In Super-Tight County Race

Belleville's Legionnaires play Vailsburg in Newark today for an important matchup in the close Eastern division of the Essex County Legion league.

Saturday the local legion travels to neighboring Nutley with hopes of setting off some fireworks of their own during the Independence Day special.

(Belleville was leading the lead with a 4-2-1 record as of yesterday when Maplewood came to Municipal Stadium.)

After a brief losing streak, the Belleville Legion Post 105 shocked previously unbeaten Livingston Monday with a 4-1 victory behind the pitcher of John Goscinski.

Goscinski, who had not pitched prior to Monday for the Legion because of arm problems, appeared at full strength as he kept his ferocious fast ball hopping to stymie the powerful Livingston nine.

This year's Belleville team appears to be one of the finest in recent years, with a good balance of power, fielding and pitching. Perhaps the strongest spot on the team is its infield, which has, in addition to playing near flawless ball, produced some of the best bats on the squad:

Ray Campbell on first is hitting well over .400 to pace the team. On second, Brian Waters is scooping up everything in site while hitting in the .300's. Joe Papisidero at shortstop is up above .350, and in Monday's victory he handled 12 chances without an error. At third, Goscinski and Frank Petite are excellent fielders, but to date, have produced nothing at the bat, which is quite surprising.

The duo was expected to be the top batters on the team, along with Papisidero. Thus far, only the shortstop has lived up to his potential. Coaches Charlie Craig and Frank Papisidero expect the two sluggers to snap out of it pretty soon, and if they do so, it doesn't seem likely that any team can stop this Belleville nine.

In centerfield, Joe Ritacco has been roaming the range like he was born there, and along with Petite in left and Charlie Ziegler in right, give Belleville perhaps the best fielding team in the league.

Ziegler in particular was a big help Monday, when he contributed two key hits in the upset victory after missing two games last week.

Rounding out the squad is backstop Joe Vitiello, team captain. Vitiello has alot of power and baseball savvy, and is always dangerous at the plate.

Add the Montreal Expos to the list of scouts watching Goscinski. Reports are that the Expos joined the Orioles and the Astros Monday to watch Goscinski stop Livingston.

This year's crowds are getting bigger and bigger at the Stadium, and it shows that Belleville is still interested in its baseball heroes.

A fine effort in the first inning with a little help from two of Livingston's fielders gave Belleville a 4-1 win over Livingston, the champs of Essex county last year. The win also kept Belleville in first place of the Eastern Division, while the loss barely hurt Livingston in the standings. Livingston's record is now 8-1.

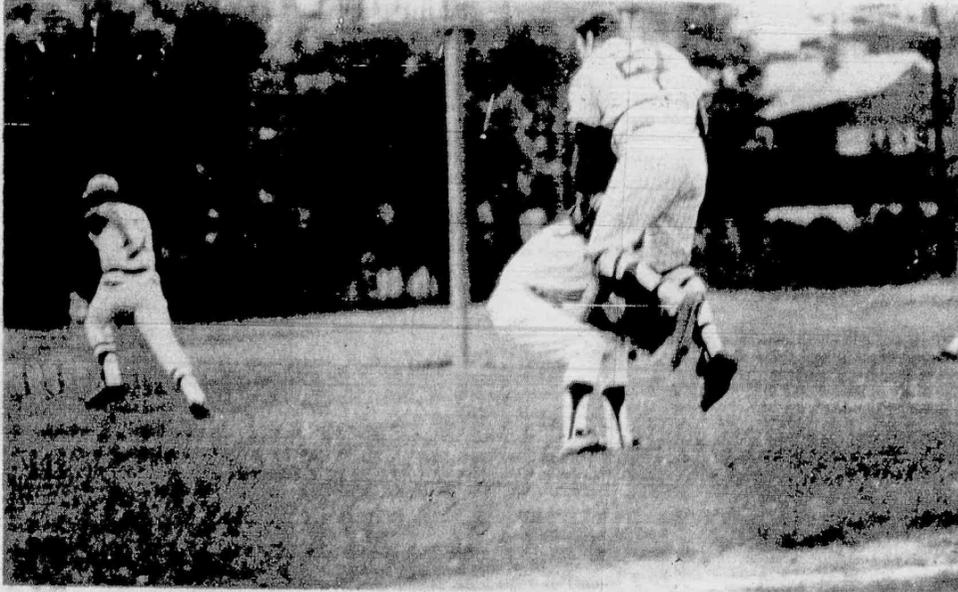

Charlie Ziegler led off in the bottom of the first and was walked as the Livingston pitcher had a little trouble finding the plate. Three of Steinberg's pitches bounced in the dirt before reaching the batters box.

Ziegler stole second, and scored on an opposite field single by Ray Campbell. Campbell also got a chance to steal, and came in when John Goscinski reached on a throwing error.

Goscinski went to second on the error as the ball went onto the track, and was sent home on Joe Vitiello's double down the line.

Vitiello came home when COLLISION — Belleville catcher Joe Vitiello collides with Livingston runner (left) streaks in vain to first base.

HE'S SAFE — Charlie Ziegler slides safely into third base during wild first inning against Livingston Monday. Ziegler's two key hits paced the Belleville upset of previously unbeaten Livingston.

DISCUSSION — Coach Charlie Craig gives advice to legion slugger Joe Papisidero before the shortstop bats in the first inning. Papisidero; hitting over .350 this season.

at the high school.

Most of the rumors are said to be from "the horses mouth."

The "horses mouth," however says they're all not true.

Athletic director Herman Wische, the man who is in the hot seat and readily admits to being the "horse" in question, says "it's amazing the things I'm supposed to have said. Everybody says they heard things this or that from the horses mouth, the horse being me. Well they're so far out of line its not funny."

The facts are these: * Belleville is without a head football coach in the wake of John Amabile's sudden resignation last week to assume similar duties at Middletown High School.

* Fifteen applications have already been received; four from within this school system, and at least six from head coaches at other high schools.

* The cutoff date for applications is this Monday.

* Screening of applications will follow on Tuesday by the 16 member Athletic Council, plus Wische, Junior High Principal Sy Grossman, Senior High Principal Ray Smith and Joseph Casale, vice president of the Board of Education. Final Board of Education vote is scheduled July 20.

Belleville seems to be pretty fairly divided at this point between those who are starting the rumors, those who are spreading them, and those who are rapidly becoming experts on sifting them.

The latest "reasonable" rumor to be squelched is that East Orange High School's noted head coach Tom Dean has applied. Not so says Wische. "At least he hasn't applied through me."

Another factual tidbit came this week from Board President Rocco Saletta, who says the position is not being limited to coaches who teach math as had been earlier speculated.

Amabile was a math teacher, and because of the late date of his resignation, it was assumed that only a coach with a math background could be hired, or a teacher already within the system.

Unbeaten Cardinals Top Belleville Farm League

In the American division of the Recreation Farm League the Cardinals have come through the season unbeaten. They were tied by the Yankees but this does not put their position in jeopardy.

The Aces have clinched second place by a 5-2 standing. Next in line are the Yankees with 2-4-2, the Indians (2-5) and the Giants (1-5-1). It will be necessary to break ties to clarify all of the positions but, in the meantime, Toby D'Ambola's team has come through a great season and have taken aim at the World Series and the Farm League Championship.

Morris Renna's Clippers are sitting on top of the National League with a 6-0-1 record. Their tie is with the second place Pirates 4-1-1 which poses the possibility of the Pirates winning the play-offs and thus being in the same standing as the Clippers.

Of course this would also necessitate the Pirates getting by the Dodgers and the Braves and the Clippers getting by the White Sox.

Coach Morris Renna will have to hold all of his Clippers to the same fine edge they have held for their past seven games and Coach Vince Falcetano's Pirates can't afford a single loss.

The Dodgers, coached by Jim Fornarotto seem sure of a spot in the playoffs with a 3-4 standing and one game to play but they could end up with a tie with Howard Barrett's Braves who stand 2-4 and have two games to play. The White Sox at 0-6 are still plugging for that first win.

The Farm League, after all positions are settled will close its season with a series of inter-division games. Each of the fifth place teams will play the other as will the fourth place teams. These games will be played for the honor. All of the other teams will be trophy hunting in their playoffs.

The champ of the American Division will play the champ of the National Division. The winner of this two out of three series will be declared winner of the entire Farm League while the loser will be League runner-up. Each team will receive appropriate individual trophies.

Next, a special consolation playoff will be conducted among the second and third place teams of each division. In this playoff the second place of the National will play the third place of the American and the third place of the National will play second place American.

Winners of these two games will then face each other with the victors winning the Playoff Trophy.

Indians Capture Peanut Crown

In the American Division of the Peanut League Baseball League the Indians have done it again. Bob Haug has brought his team in first for the fifth consecutive time and it couldn't happen to a nicer guy.

Bob, winner of the 1969 Outstanding Service to Youth Award, is a coach who puts every boy in the game and who has an amazing patience with his young athletes.

With only one game to be played Bob's Indians stand at 10-1 while their toughest rivals, the Bombers, coached by brother Elmer Haug, are in second place at 8-3. Lou Pomponio's Aces are still a threat to the Bombers second place with their 7-4 standings.

By the time this article appears they will have met and settled the situation. One of these two will win a spot in the special Inter-Division Playoff.

Over in the National Division Lou Schreiber's Yankees are almost home free with their 9-2 standing.

Lions And PBA On Crash Course In Little League

The Belleville Little League has begun its second half, and if the first few games are any indication, it promises to be a roaring finish.

The Lions Club and the PBA appear on a big collision course in the National League, as both these undefeated teams (as of last Friday) will clash for the lead.

In the American League, Wallace and Tiernan fell to its first loss of the season after capturing the first half title by defeating the Varsity Club. Leading the American loop is the Colony Club, with its perfect 3-0 mark.

The PBA and Lions Club squads are noted for their fantastic pitchign. The PBA has John Guarino, perhaps the best pitcher in both leagues. Guarino has pitched two no-hitters and three one-hit ball games, to compile a fearsome reputation among league batters.

The Lions, on the other hand, have two top notch pitchers and are rated by many as the team to beat. Greg Petite, who has pitched a no-hit ball game, and Robert Giordano, who is the fastest pitcher in the league, lead this top flight Lions Club team.

Following the Lions and PBA in the National League are Jolly Cleaners, which after a slow first half, have come on to win two of three ball games. The Amvets, who paced the first half, are off to a poor start with only one win in three games.

The American League looks like this:

American League	Won	Lost
Colony Club	3	0
Rotary Club	2	1
Food Fair	2	1
Elks	1	2
Wallace & Tiernan	0	1
Varsity Club	0	1

Triple Play Crushes Pirates Rally, 23-18

In one of the wildest baseball games ever seen in the Peanut League, a triple play ended a Pirates uprising to enable the Braves to capture the victory by an amazing 23-18 score.

The Pirates were fighting back in the last inning at the time of the play. Behind 23-14, the Pirates scored four runs and had the bases loaded and no outs when a line drive was hit to Jimmy Calid at second, who was aided by Anthony Matthews and John Norton in pulling off the rare play.

Hitting for the Braves was place during all four days. There will be a prize awarded for the closest to the pin (or in the cup) on each of the four days, and an overall prize for closest to the pin.

Chipping contest qualifying will take place on Thursday and Friday. Each contestant will be given four shots, with his best three averaged for his score. Finals in the chipping contest will take place at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday.

John Bottone Ties Bow-Arrow Mark

John (Lefty) Bottone, of Belleville, shot a 298 at Butts and Bows Archery, 468 Washington Avenue, Belleville. This score ties all existing PAA records at Butts and Bows.

Other 298 scorers are Russell Stivers, Nick Pilivakis and Benny Torrado.

Cancelliere Hits .788

The Cardinals, after beating the Giants 15-1, became the American Farm League Champs with a record of seven wins and no losses. It was a combination of strong hitting and pitching which made this team so successful both on and off the field.

In their seven victories the Cards scored a total of 72 runs to their opponents' 10. The top pitchers were Toj Cortese, 3-0; Joe Guglielmo, 2-0; and Je Fink, 2-0. The top hitter was Nicky Cancelliere with a .788 average including three homeruns and 23 RBI's.

The other players who were just as important in making this an undefeated season were: Phil Agosta, .364; Bob Carolan, .200; Dave Del Poitte, .364; Steve Dempsey, .333; Louis Fieriero, .250; George Mobilio, .395; Joe Santangelo, .364; Kevin Smith, .100; Frank Zatorski, .285; Anthony Yocum, .250; Ron Dunleavy, Bill Gallagher, and James Santangelo.

The team, under the supervision of manager Toby D'Ambola, is currently working overtime in preparation for the upcoming world series against the National League Champs. They have found that team work and good sportmanship made them number one during the regular season and with it continuing hope to win the Farm League Championship.

Beware of Psyllid Damaging Boxwood

The boxwood psyllid can cause severe damage to boxwood, advises John J. Kupcho, county agricultural agent of Essex County. Terminal leaves become cupped and young twig growth is retarded.

Young psyllids are small, gray-green insects that are covered with a white cottony or waxy material. They infest the leaves on the outer ends of branches as the new growth emerges in the spring. Their feeding punctures cause the leaves to curl and form a cup which conceals and protects the young insects.

To control the psyllids apply Sevin plus malathion. Thorough spray coverage of the terminal area of branches is necessary for adequate control.

Two Nutley girls have finished second and third in the annual Miss Mutual Benefit Life beauty contest.

Anna Marie Notte, 22, of 22 Florence Street, was named first runner up, while Grace Dunphy, 20, 115 Cedar Street, was second in a field of 14 girls.

Miss Irene Rudzinski, 23, of Irvington, was chosen this year's queen at the Newark insurance company's annual outing Friday in Asbury Park. All three received watches and gift certificates.

Miss Dunphy's sister, Agnes who recently became Mrs. Joseph Carracino, was first runner up in last year's contest.

Miss Notte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Notte, is a 1966 graduate of Nutley High School. She is a secretary with the purchasing department at Mutual Benefit Life, and has been with the company for four years. She enjoys dancing, traveling and horseback riding.

Miss Dunphy, a secretary with the Agency Department at Mutual Benefit, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dunphy.

She is a 1968 graduate of Nutley High School. She enjoys cooking, reading, sewing, and is a sports enthusiast. She also likes to travel.

Also for a one night stand on July 25, Lana Cantrell and Charlie Manna will perform.

An Evening with Godfrey Cambridge will run for two nights, July 31 and August 1. August 7 and 8 will be

Country and Western nights, featuring Smokey Joe Warren and the Mountain Dew Boys. Square dancing will be featured.

J.P. Morgan and Irwin C. Watson are billed for August 14 and 15.

Buddy Rich and his orchestra will bring the sounds of today on August 21 and 22. He will give two performances - 10 and 11:30 p.m. Dancing to the Meadowbrook Trio will begin at 9 p.m.

An Evening with Enzo Stuarti on August 28 and 29 will complete the summer schedule and be followed in mid-September by resumption of full length shows.

Big Weekend On Steel Pier

July 4-11 will be eight days of swinging entertainment on George A. Hamid's Steel Pier.

During these eight days the Atlantic City showplace will play host to The Association (July 4 & 5), The Dukes of Dixieland (July 4 & 5), The Ted Weems Orchestra (July 4 & 5), R.B. Greaves (July 6-11), and Canned Heat (July 6-11).

Truly a legend in the field

of pop music. The Association will make the new Golden Dome Ballroom come alive with hits like 'Cherish', 'Never My Love', 'Windy' and 'Along Comes Mary'.

The Pier's tremendous Music Hall Theatre will vibrate to the sounds of tapping feet as the phenomenal Dukes of Dixieland reign with a scepter of swing.

The futuristic Golden Dome Ballroom will also see the Ted Weems Orchestra.

Nutley Student In Production At State Park

Cliff Beyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beyer, appeared recently in Feydeau's 'A Flea in Her Ear' at the Black Hills Playhouse, Custer State Park, S.O. Cliff played the role of Schwartz, a lusty Bavarian gentleman.

The Black Hills Playhouse is the summer theatre of the University of South Dakota, Vermillion. Upcoming productions for the 1970 season include 'Five Finger Exercise,' 'How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying,' and 'Call Me Madam.'

Cliff has also been cast in 'The Legend of Devil's Gulch,' an historical fantasy of the Black Hills which is presented every Monday evening.

What with corn on the cob, watermelons and peaches coming along, this life isn't so bad.
