

McGreevy Testifies To Jury

Commissioner Joseph McGreevy was subpoenaed to speak last Tuesday before the Essex County Grand Jury, but no one seems to know why, not even McGreevy.

"They asked me to bring all my records pertaining to accounting machines purchases since 1968," McGreevy told the Times, "but other than that I know nothing."

McGreevy spent less than five minutes behind closed doors with the Grand Jury and was asked not to reveal the nature of the questions asked him. He did say, however, that the question is still left him in the dark as to why he was called. His appearance was apparently not related to current investigations into alleged corruption in the Public Works Department.

Fornarotto: Subpoenas Are Set For Officials

by Nat Gottlieb

Joseph Fornarotto says he is pleased with the way the Essex County Grand Jury's investigation is proceeding and told the Times this week that "town commissioners will be subpoenaed soon to appear before the Grand Jury."

"I believe that the prosecutor and the Grand Jury are handling this matter very well," Fornarotto told the Times. "It is only about 40 per cent off the ground, though. There are more witnesses to be heard, and later on the town officials in question will be called."

Fourteen employees were subpoenaed by Essex County Prosecutor Joseph Lordi last week and testified Tuesday behind closed doors with the Grand Jury in connection with complaints by Fornarotto of alleged corruption in the Public Works Department.

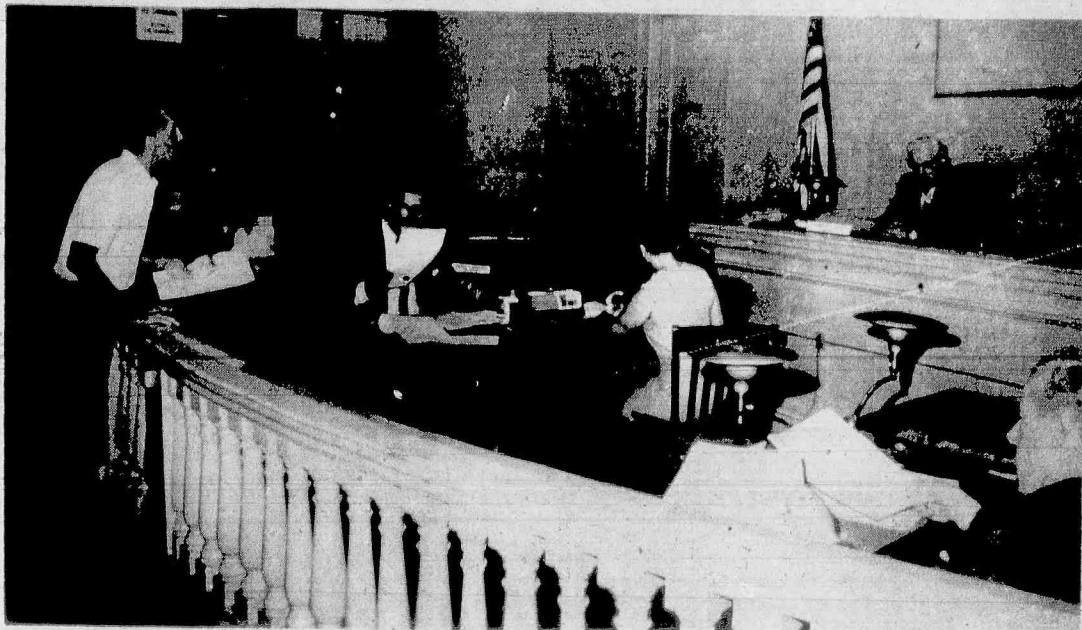

Fornarotto, who lives at 523 Union Avenue, was employed in the Public Works Department 11 years before he was dismissed in August by Commissioner Mary Senatore on charges of drinking on duty. (Fornarotto was scheduled last Tuesday to testify before the Civil Service Commission on his appeal of that firing.)

Among those subpoenaed were Elisha Barrett of 11 Terrace Place, Harry Mendl of 191 Passaic Avenue, Alphonse Pico of 93 Heckel Street, Peter Kiernan of 493 Joralemon Street, a town engineering aide, Herbert Mercurio of 36 Memphis Street, and the Gondoli Construction Co., Belleville. Commissioner Senatore refused to comment on the proceedings except to say that subpoenaed members of her department and herself would issue press releases next week.

Fornarotto indicated to the Times that commissioner Senatore and Mayor Ken Smith would be subpoenaed "soon" to speak before the grand jury. Last week Fornarotto had charged the two officials with malfeasance of office. Neither official to date has been subpoenaed. (Commissioner Joseph McGreevy was subpoenaed on an unrelated issue.)

Among the charges Fornarotto leveled at the officials was that they used town cars for personal reasons and that the Public Works Department rendered assistance to private firms and citizens. He also charged that commissioner Senatore had used town stationery to write political letters and that she hired a relative to a "no show" job at the public works garage. He also said a deceased person was listed on the town's payroll for a CHARGES - Controversial former town employee Joseph Fornarotto levels more charges at Monday night's commission meeting as officials watch in silence.

'Not Feasible' $50,000 Bill Dropped By Town Commission

The Town Commission Monday night withdrew a $50,000 bonding proposal which would have purchased land in the Valley to store equipment for leaf and refuse disposal.

Commissioner Mary Senatore, who said two months ago when she introduced the ordinance that it would save the taxpayers "a substantial amount of money," Monday night asked that it be withdrawn because it "was not economically feasible."

Originally, Commissioner Senatore wanted to buy a lot at 7-33 Cortlandt Street from Erie-Lackawana Railroad to house the disposal device which she said would cut costs to the town involved in carting the materials to Kearny.

The matter was passed on first reading in early June, but when it came up for a final vote on June 29, commissioners tabled it after hearing complaints from several residents in the Valley.

After that meeting, Commissioner Senatore formed a committee of Valley residents to view a similar device in Northvale. The commissioner had hoped the visit would convince residents of the feasibility of the device.

The trip had the reverse effect on both residents and the commissioner.

"After viewing the device in Northvale," Commissioner Senatore told The Times Monday, "I decided the land on Cortlandt Street would not be big enough to store the equipment. We also found out that we would need to erect a building to house the equipment, and with the economy being the way it is today, I decided to withdraw the project."

Vandalism Plagues School 8

Vandalism, which last year cost the Belleville School system $2,600 has begun to plague school officials this summer.

Last week all the door windows were broke in the lobby entrance to School Eight, apparently the work of vandals.

Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco, who said he was "distressed" by the incident, has requested that the school board increase its patrol schedule of schools from weekend duty to a seven day a week tour.

"It's disgraceful," Greco told The Times. "I can't see how we can put up with this nonsense. We have to catch these people."

The superintendent said he thought the incident was "malicious," but would not say it was premeditated.

Business Administrator Harold Dufford, meanwhile says that reports from the rest of the schools have not been nearly as bad. He also joined Greco in asking parents to take "stricter interest in the evening activities of their children."

'Non-Rebellious' Youth Take Over Government

by John McCarthy

In an age of high school and college protests and demonstrations where people generalize youth as being "rebellious" who would think that "you could get a few hundred high school students from across the state to give up a week of summer vacation for a week of rising at 6:20 a.m., lights out at 10:30, and following a tightly packed schedule to learn and run their own local county, and state governments?"

Well, 886 high school senior boys sponsored by the New Jersey American Legion, and Boys State Director Harold Eaton and his staff of 90 think so. And during the last week of June they proved not only the possibility of such a program, but also the success in it.

Director Eaton, three of his staff members, and the New Jersey Legion have been proving this for 25 years. This year three boys from Belleville were at Rider College to take part in the learning process.

Tom Jones, Charles Ziegler, and this reporter went to Rider College, just outside Trenton, on a bus with all the other Essex County boys that were going on Sunday June 21. When we arrived at the college's Alumni Gym, we picked up an envelope with most of the material we needed for the week.

The envelope was marked with a number for our city, county and room. It also had letters representing the dorm we were to stay at.

With all the major details taken care of by chance, the three of us split up to go to our respective "cities" and find out who we would be spending the week with. Tom was assigned City 10, Polk; Charley was in City 1,

Washington, and I was headed for City 12, Fillmore, which incidentally, I think turned out

'Miracle' Saves Life Of Belleville Woman

Clara Maass Memorial Hospital witnessed a miracle last week when Miss Michele LaConte walked out of the hospital she had been admitted to seven months ago following a near fatal accident.

Last December Miss LaConte, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore LaConte of Belleville, was struck by a car as she stood beside her own automobile on Bloomfield Avenue, Nutley. She was thrown ten feet into the air to the opposite side of the street where another car ran over her.

Upon admission to Clara Maass her injuries were so extensive that doctors held little or no hope of saving her life. Both of Miss LaConte's legs were fractured, her pelvis was crushed, her shoulder fractured, and she had a concussion as well as extensive internal injuries and hemorrhaging.

Due to a rare blood type, B-Negative, public appeals were made and area blood banks contacted in a desperate effort to secure the 11 pints necessary to sustain Miss LaConte. At one point during emergency surgery, Miss LaConte lacked all vital signs; there was no pulse, no blood pressure, her eyes were dilated and she was clinically dead. She responded however, to resuscitative efforts, and after three weeks in intensive care, began her

Belleville Boy Dies In War

Funeral services were Monday for PFC Carl L. Mickens who was killed in Vietnam on July 4.

Private Mickens, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Mickens of 61 Wilbur Street, lost his life in a booby trap explosion while he was on a military mission, according to a telegram received by his parents.

A resident of Belleville all his life, Pfc. Mickens had planned to be a vocational high school teacher.

He was drafted into the army in July of 1969. After completing basic training at Ft. Dix, he took advanced training at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and Ft. Benning, Ga. Last April, Pfc. Mickens was assigned to Vietnam and became a member of the 101st Airborne Division.

"He was a good soldier and took the problems of war in stride," his father said. "He really did not want to go to Vietnam, but when the word came through, he went cheerfully."

Before entering the service, Pfc. Mickens was a student at Montclair State College. Earlier he attended Fairleigh Dickinson University and had completed four years of apprenticeship as a tool and die maker at Western Electric Co., Kearny.

"He planned to finish college after his discharge from the service next year," his father commented. "He hoped to put his experience as a tool and die maker, and his teaching degree, to use as a vocational high school teacher."

While at Montclair State, Pfc. Mickens was a member of the Kappa Sigma Chi fraternity. He was also a member of the choir at Grace Episcopal Church in Newark.

He leaves his two sisters, the Misses Linda G. and Shirley J. Mickens, both at home.

The funeral was from the S.W. Brown and Son funeral home, 267 Centre Street, Nutley. Mass was offered in Grace Episcopal Church, Broad Street, Newark.

Teen Discotheque

Refreshment Stand Gets Rock 'n Roll Rhythm

Rock and roll rhythms will vibrate in Municipal Stadium this summer as Belleville's first "discotheque" opens its doors this month for its town's teenagers.

Called "Our Place" by the teens who are running the dance hall, the makeshift discotheque is better known to residents as "the refreshment stand under the stadium."

But with a lot of paint, a few tables and chairs, plus a juke box and a ton of youthful enthusiasm, the refreshment area is beginning to take on the psychedelic aura of New York's electric dancing establishments.

The idea for the summer discotheque was the idea of the Belleville Youth Council, which was formed two months ago at the suggestion of Mayor Ken Smith. It's original purpose was to have teenagers investigate the possible expansion of this town's recreation program, and was designed to give local youth a "place to go."

Presently, the "place to go" is the McDonald's stand on

Tax Bills Might Be Late

Commissioner Joseph McGreevy this week said local tax bills might be late in reaching residents because of problems related to the new data processing system being used in tax assessment.

McGreevy, who is Finance and Revenue director, said the data processing company of Fox-Bottone in Red Bank was seven days late in returning processed tax statements because of contract problems Fox-Bottone had with its printer.

Residents still have until August 10 to pay their tax bills, McGreevy said.

Belleville was asked by the state to use the data processing system in tax assessment this year for the first time.

'Miracle' Recovery Saves Life Of Belleville Woman

(Continued from Page 1) slow and painful recovery. Following her transfer from intensive care, Miss LaConte spent six grueling months in suspended traction. The last six weeks at the hospital were devoted to intensive physical therapy which she will continue to receive at Clara Maass three times a week as an out-patient.

Miss LaConte's miraculous recovery is a tribute to the efforts of the emergency room staff, the intensive care unit, the surgical team, the physical therapy department and the staff of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital as well as to the courage of Miss LaConte and her family.

As she left the hospital, Miss LaConte expressed gratitude to everyone at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital who made her recovery possible.

Children's Movie Planned

"White Mare," the sensitive story of a young French boy and a wild stallion, will be shown to children ages 9-12 in the Silver Lake Branch of the Belleville Public Library this Wednesday at 10 a.m. A second showing of the film will follow on Thursday in the children's room of the main branch of the library.

The movie is approximately 40 minutes long and is the second in a summer series of films for children being sponsored by the library.

Grand Jury Hears McGreevy

(Continued from Page 1) machine purchased by the commissioner in May of this year. The machine is the only one of its nature McGreevy has bought in the three years he's been in office.

One of the most prevalent thoughts circulating about the subpoena was that the machine was bought without a bid, and that this might be illegal.

Both McGreevy and purchasing agent Tom McLaughlin, however, said the machine comes under the category of "specialized equipment" which they said can be purchased without a bid. (McLaughlin was asked to order the machine on May 26 of this year.)

The commissioner, who heads the department of Revenue and Finance, said funds for the purchase came from the "capital item" section of the water department budget. McGreevy says the town has placed $25,000 each year since 1967 into this "capital item" section "in case of a water system break down." McGreevy said he was within his rights to use the water department money for the accounting machine because it would be used partially, "but not exclusively," for water department work.

Subpoenas Set For Officials

A conflict of interest charge was leveled by the former town employee at Mayor Smith. He said that the Jersey Testing Co. of Newark, where Smith is employed, did work for the town. Smith earlier this week told the Times that "I believe Jersey Testing did some work during the interior remodeling of Town Hall, but never has been paid for it."

As an offshoot of the proceedings, it appears that Fornarotto intends to file a libel suit against commissioner Senatore for remarks she allegedly made in the Evening News. There is also indications that Fornarotto himself might be on the end of a counter lawsuit.

Fornarotto, who has been employed at Broadway Maintenance Co., 1271 McCarter Highway in Newark since his dismissal last summer, was suspended five other times from the Public Works Department, four of which came before the present administration took office.

Of these suspension, Fornarotto told the Times that "I was singled out because I wasn't afraid to speak my piece."

warrant of arrest to Groene.

"Upon entering the home I smelled a strong odor of smoke," he said. "I tracked the odor to the basement, where, behind a door in a small room, I found Boyce and Miss Nicholsen sitting on a sofa."

The officer added that he found on a small table in the room two smoking pipes and a quantity of "vegetation" believed to be marijuana.

Detective Sergeant Ermin Oliveri told the court he was called to the home where he questioned the defendants.

"Both men admitted to smoking the drug but they added that Miss Nicholsen was not," he said.

Charges of possession against Boyce and Groene were sent to the Grand Jury. Both defendants were also charged with use of the drug and Groene was charged with maintaining a house where the drug is used.

All disorderly charges were sent to the county prosecutor's office.

Teenage Discotheque Is Set For Summertime

Washington Avenue, where for a little change you can get a few burgers, mix with your friends and maybe get chased by the police, all in a night of fun and frolic.

Working on the premise that a McDonald stand isn't the best place to hold a makeshift recreation center, the Youth Council circulated questionnaires in the junior and senior high schools asking youth about their recreational preferences.

The results of that poll, according to Annette Guardabascio, Youth Council president, was that Belleville's teens wanted a discotheque.

This month Annette, who is an energetic Belleville High School senior, took the teens' idea to Mayor Smith and Recreation superintendent Bob Cook. The stadium site was suggested by them and from there things began to roll.

With the help of recreation department foreman Phillip Newsome, the teens secured cafe type tables and lots of paint—the bright kind—and began a complete revamping of the refreshment area.

When the facility is complete (hopefully by the end of the month), dances will be held Monday through Saturday. To avoid traffic jams on nearby Nolton Avenue, Annette said, the only entrance to the discotheque will be through the stadium hallways. No one will be able to enter from Nolton Street, and Belleville's auxiliary police have promised to help see that this rule is enforced.

Parking for the dances will only be permitted in the high school parking lot, and lights will be used to illuminate the entire area.

Special concerts are also being planned for the summer, according to Annette.

Charges of possession of marijuana against two area young men were referred to the Essex County Grand Jury by Judge Edward Abromson of Belleville Municipal Court on July 9.

Pfc. Carl L. Mickens

Last week a Belleville resident was killed in a booby trap explosion while he was on a military mission. The dead soldier is Pfc. Carl L. Mickens, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Mickens of 61 Wilbur Street. Young Mickens was assigned to Vietnam last April after being drafted into the Army in July, 1969. Before entering the service and ultimately being assigned to the 101st Airborne Division Pfc. Mickens was a student at Montclair State College. He was looking forward to his discharge next year and returning to college to complete his education.

The tragedy of the death of this Belleville soldier in a far off battlefield is a tragedy not only for the Mickens family and Belleville, but also one shared by the state and our nation.

We continue to believe the Vietnam war is not worth the life of a single American boy. If young Mickens had died in defense of this great country of ours then the sacrifice of such a young life would be understandable.

However, we do not believe this to be the case. Our boys are being sacrificed in an Asian country which we should have left to the Asians years ago.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Mickens family. Here is a young boy in the flower of his youth whose life was taken away from him in an unnecessary and unwanted war.

How many more sons of Belleville mothers and fathers must die in the uniform of their country before the terrible mistake of Vietnam is finished with?

Walter Blasi's Sham

This week Essex County Supervisor Walter C. Blasi, an important member of Joe Intile's Irregular Republicans, vetoed a handful of job appointments made by Intile Irregular Republican Freeholders Raymond P. Stabile, Joseph Napolitano, and the three Democrat freeholders.

The significance of his official action is not only in his vetoes but also in the job appointments he approved.

We are satisfied Mr. Blasi's apparent effort to project himself as an independent Republican, no longer identified with the Intile Irregular Republicans, is merely a sham and a crude effort on the part of a second rate public official to mislead his party leaders and the public in general.

Pan Am's Proposal

Pan American, often first in the field of air travel, is proposing a special youth air fare to Europe of $99. The idea would be to let anyone under 22 fly on a standby basis for that amount. For a little more, the youngster could have a reserved seat.

Pan Am is to propose this rate to an IATA rate-setting conference in September—and has asked, in newspaper ads, for those who favor the idea to fill in and mail blanks to the company.

Keeping in mind the larger capacity of the airlines' new 747's, and the need for additional passengers, nevertheless the proposal is a good one. Bringing the old world within reach of today's young people can only help the causes of education and understanding. Travel is unquestionably broadening.

Thus one hopes the Pan Am proposal carries at the fare-setting conference; on the other hand, Pan Am would do well to drop the idea in its public relations campaign that the new youth fare will enable our youth to change the world. The new, lower fare is desirable not to enable our youth to change the world but to get a better education in, and understanding of, it.

A loitering ordinance, gathering dust at Town Hall, was brought out for airing to help deal with delinquent kids on Belmar Avenue. A petition signed by the Belmar Avenue homeowners was received by the Commission requesting aid to a "deplorable condition." A spokesman for the group said that several youths from the Bloomfield and Nutley area were continually harrasing citizens.

Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley held its 16th annual installation dinner at the Cobblestone in West Caldwell. The officers installed were: Mrs. Hazel White, president; Miss Ruth Williamson, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Marion Johnson, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. John Wescott, recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph Mulligan, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Eleanor Blachof, treasurer.

Belleville Commissioner Mary Senatore and Acting Mayor Joseph McGreevy were standing firm in their opposition to the dumping of 100 million gallons of sewage, daily in the Passaic River by the Passaic Valley Sewage Commission, despite the fact that a bypass plan would cost the town $58,900.

Three enterprising salesmen, Ira Shore, Tommy White and Sandy Shore were dispensing cool drinks in front of Red Cross Headquarters for the benefit of the children at the Isolation Hospital. The children made a profit of $2.31.

A petition against noises at the Wallace and Tiernan plant was heard by the Town Commission. The petition was referred to Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan. Some eight residents from Bayard Street complained about noises at night from the Wallace & Tiernan Plant. They also complained about chemical odors from Van Dyk & Co., Inc., at 11 Wiler Street.

Belleville's newly created rent grievance committee got off to a running start with its first meeting in Town Hall. As a result of the meeting, a series of rules and procedures were set, based generally on the procedures of the Bloomfield Committee. Present at the session were Max N. Mayor Backs Tax Freeze Bill In Trenton

Belleville, like all towns of our size is being forgotten by the people elected to represent us in Trenton.

The sales tax was increased two per cent making us pay more, and yet, none of this additional tax money is coming to our town.

We will be hit with another property tax increase unless the state makes a move.

State Sen. Gerardo Del Tufo (R-Essex) has a bill in Trenton which would freeze property taxes at the 1969 level. This bill, I feel, should be acted upon by the Assembly in favor of the homeowners.

It seems we are not classed in the same category as the larger cities in our state. However, unless relief is soon coming, the same thing that is happening to Newark, Paterson, Camden and other cities, will happen in Belleville.

When property taxes become so high that people can no longer pay the assessment and maintain their homes, houses are allowed to run down, pulling down ratables, thereby causing taxes to go higher.

Every home owner in Belleville should take a few minutes to pen a letter to the state senators and assemblymen. Now is the time to do it. Don't wait until you get your next tax bill. Your Board of Commissioners must meet rising costs with higher taxes unless we get aid and assistance from the state.

This help will not be forthcoming, unless you let these elected officials know they also represent Belleville, and have an obligation to its citizens.

Street Lights Next To Be Removed?

To The Editor:

We the residents of Hornblower-Rossmore area would like to get two questions answered.

Why was the water hydrant removed from our corner a few months ago, and has never been replaced? We were told that it was being repaired, but I guess we'll have to do without it.

Why was our street mailbox removed about six months ago, and that also has not been replaced.

Why not remove the street lights, we don't need them.

Yours truly,

N. Grasso

Advertising Crises

Practically every speaker, including those on the air and behind the pulpit, and many of our columnists, are wailing advertising the crises at hand for humanity.

"This is the day of crisis and decision," they assert, almost in unison. Upon the decisions we make, they say, rests the hope of humanity for years to come. The general idea is to excite the emotions of readers and listeners, persuade them to take "unselfish action," which, it is suspected, they will not accept on the basis of intelligent argument.

While the people of the world do face great difficulties at present, there is no reason to believe that they are insurmountable. Every generation has heard the same argument advanced, as men and women battle for aims.

Happiness Thoughts

Why is it some people are usually happy and others usually depressed? Why are some, though relatively lacking in material wealth, or nature's physical endowments, nevertheless cheerful and capable of enjoying every day?

The experts tell us the happy individual has developed a sound philosophy of life. That means, as we see it, a philosophy which takes into consideration all we have to be thankful for.

All of us in America have much to be thankful for. We have freedom, opportunity. We have material wealth. We have freedom of worship. And we have a strong and prosperous country.

Trivia—if not kept in perspective—can dominate one's thoughts and crowd out of one's personality the thankfulness and humble appreciation for the blessings we enjoy. The key to contentment and happiness, then, is found in the state of mind—not the state of the bank account.

The Sky Diving Fad

The fad or sport of sky diving has grown in popularity over the last few years for the sky diver and spectator. This summer will see much of it.

One object of sky diving is to see how close the performer can come to a fixed point on the ground. Also important is body form in the free falling before the parachuter activates his chute.

Many a mother wonders whether her children should participate in such a sport. It can be a dangerous one. But statistics show the highways are equally hazardous.

Parks Programs Talked About By Local Teens

QUESTION: As a participant in the local parks program, what do you think of the recreational facilities available to you?
ASKED: Of local teens enrolled in the parks recreational summer program.

Gary DeGrazio, 106 Elm Place, Nutley:
I think the parks program is very good because it gives teens something to do besides hanging around street corners. Of course, the program could always be better, but I think Nutley offers more things to do than neighboring towns. We have an organized softball competition among local parks and that is good, but they should offer football and basketball too. There is equipment for us to use, but there should be more organized sports. The parks do organize many trips and they are a lot of fun. Once we went to the New York Giants training camp to see the pros practice. There should be more trips of that type.

Gary DeGrazio

Jerry Vitiello, 8 Cedar Hill Avenue, Belleville:
Having a park to go to where you can borrow the sports equipment is a good thing, but the program can be better. I've been going to Belleville parks for all the summers I've been in town and I think the program isn't as good as it used to be. They do offer a baseball league but there aren't enough kids interested to have many games with opposing parks. I think the counselors used to be more interesting than they are now. They should have organized football. But having a park to go to, even just to hang, is better than nothing.

Steve Stoute, 64 Edgar Place, Nutley:
I think the parks and the recreation program is a lot of fun. I'm the chess and checker champ of the area. Doing things here is much better than hanging on street corners and getting into trouble with the police. Mostly, I play sports here but there are games such as checkers and knock hockey to play. I'm good at these too. The whole program is okay but they should make the parks cleaner. There should be more organized sports and better trips. It would be a good idea to have the parks open on weekends. I used to go on the trips but I don't anymore. There are too many younger kids going now.

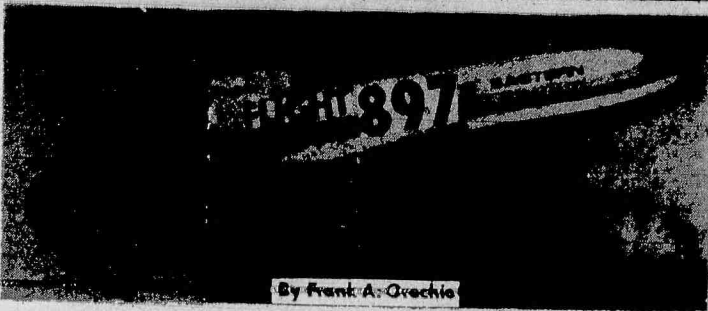

Steve Stoute

Stan Waldemore, 311 Washington Avenue, Belleville:
I've been going to Belleville parks for many years so I know a lot about the programs they offer. The parks are okay, even to just hang around but they don't offer too many organized activities. There is a softball league you can join, but I like football better and they don't offer that. There is a lot of room for improvement. I don't think the park counselors have enough interest in what's going on. They should organize more activities on their own and take part in them.

OUR OVERSET is jamming up my trip reporting. As usual, EAL Flight 3 this last weekend was not overbooked. Up front servicing a very special passenger were Boston-based stewardesses Pam McKenna, Carol Lillibridge and dynamic senior Sylvia Ramirez. The feature passenger was H. Glynn Ray, Eastern Airlines' new Flight Attendant Base Manager, at Newark. Last week this facility was designated as an independent EAL base. Ray's duties will include supervising the scheduling, retraining and on-board performance of the 200 stews assigned to EAL by the airport.

I returned on 896 and the first stewardess I met who works out of Eastern Airlines new Newark base was Linda Sterner. Although Linda is based in Newark she continues to reside in New York. The hard-working senior on the 727 Jet was Evon Zarnowski, also based in Newark, and a native of Newton, New Jersey. Although service on 896 has always been good I do miss the hot towels available on luncheon and dinner flights.

FOR ADULTS ONLY: Tom Corcoran, Production Manager of the Miami Herald, during dinner Saturday night at Fort Lauderdale's International Club told us about an incident that occurred in his news room. It seems that the death of a Florida politician, who at one time served this state in a very high legislative place, was the occasion for collaboration of a number of reporters to prepare an obituary notice. "What shall we say of the former senator?" asked one of the reporters. Another volunteered "Oh, just put down that he was always faithful to his trust." A cynical member of the group queried, "And shall we mention the name of the trust?"

John "Murphy" Flanagan, local educator, tells the one about a kindergarten teacher who, upon entering a bus, saw a gentleman whose face seemed familiar, and she said, "Good evening!" He seemed somewhat surprised and she soon realized that she had spoken to a stranger. Much confused the teacher explained: "When I first saw you I thought you were the father of two of my children."

THREE IMPORTANT people we met from Eastern Airlines include (east to west) Sylvia Ramirez, H. Glynn Ray and Linda Sterner. Sylvia and Linda are Eastern stewardesses. Glynn is Eastern's new flight attendant base manager at Newark.

Jerry Higgins, our hot shot Production Supervisor, overheard a lady of the house confiding to her maid "You know, dearie, I do believe my husband is having an affair with his new secretary." The maid paled, "What are you trying to do?" she stormed "Make me jealous?"

Jack Haskell, boss of the Nutley Sweet Shop, tells the one about the hillbilly who was courting a girl for a whole year. Finally her father became impatient, "Time I asked you something - are your intentions to my daughter honorable or dishonorable?" Replied the hillbilly, "You mean I have a choice?"

One of our local priests was invited to attend a Mormon wedding ceremony. This is the way it went: Preacher to Groom: "Do you take these women to be your lawfully wedded wives?" Groom: "I do!" Preacher to Brides: "And do you take this man to be your lawfully wedded husband?" Brides: "We do!" Preacher: "Some of you girls there in the back will have to speak louder if you want to be included in this."

(Archie) Mary Williams, the efficient senior stewardess on Eastern's Flight 3, tells the one about the ailing gentleman who ambled into the doctor's office "I'm having trouble with eyesight and hearing" he announced. "Are you a drinking man?"

asked the medico. "Yes, doctor." "That's it - stop drinking at once, report to me in a month." A month later he reported: "Doc, I still have my trouble with my eyesight and hearing." "Did you stop drinking as I told you?" "Nope - what I've been drinking is so much better than what I've been seeing and hearing lately I decided to keep it up!"

Kay Richards, a New York Gas Lite Cutie, reports that a New York draft board has adopted a new means for examining candidates. One doctor looks into his left ear another into his right ear, and, unless their glances meet, he's in.

JERRY CAFONE, our Advertising Director, tells the one about the genius who asked his friend "I can't understand why you failed in business". His friend replied, "Too much advertising". And the genius replied, "What do you mean? You never spent a cent on advertising in your life". The insolvent friend answered, "That's true, but my competitors did"

PEARLS OF WISDOM - People who are most difficult to please are often the most worth pleasing. . . . The penalty people pay for indifference to public affairs is to be ruled by evil men. . . . A bachelor is one who believes in clubs for women. A husband does, too, if kindness fails. . . . The best way to get a job done is to give it to a busy man. He'll have his secretary do it.

Lorraine T., our switchboard-receptionist-utility gal tells the one about her neighbor's baby who said "Daddy, why is mommy singing?" and daddy said "She's singing baby to sleep." And the child came back, "Will she stop when baby goes to sleep?" And daddy said, "Yes dear" and the child concluded, "Gee, then why doesn't the baby pretend to be asleep?"

Nutley Baritone Doubles As Schoolteacher

Taking piano lessons from his mother at the age of eight is a lot different than performing a baritone solo before 3,500 persons and a panel of international judges.

But over the years John McLean, 29, of 181 River Road has made the transition very smoothly. Most recent of his musical accomplishments was representing the United States last month at the Fourth International Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow.

The lifelong Nutley resident attributes the Nutley Symphony Society as starting him on this successful career as a baritone singer.

"I received a scholarship from them at age 15," he said. "This is what started me on my vocal career."

McLean teaches voice at West Orange Junior High School when he isn't exercising his vocal cords. Before that, he taught one year at Emerson High School.

"I love teaching and find it very fulfilling" he added. "But in the future I hope to sing as a professional."

McLean explained that a baritone's voice doesn't reach full maturity until he is 35, so the Nutleyite is still polishing his talents.

Entering Montclair State College after graduating Nutley High School in 1958, McLean majored in piano there. He then obtained a voice scholarship from the Manhattan School of Music. He was graduated from there with bachelor and master of music degrees and a master of music education degree.

But studies wasn't all McLean concentrated on at Manhattan School. The baritone found time to meet his future wife there.

He was married in June of 1965 to the former Maria Zolotareff, a concert pianist who now accompanies McLean in his many concerts throughout the area. The couple have a four-month-old daughter, Susannah Maria.

McLean lived on Centre Street in Nutley with his parents until his marriage. His mother, the late Mrs. Violet McLean, was for many years a well-known piano teacher in town.

In 1968 McLean obtained his doctorate in vocal music from the Teacher's College of Columbia University.

He has already appeared three times at Carnegie Hall and has conducted numerous concerts at Symphony Hall in Newark. McLean has also appeared in major roles of many operas.

The couple plan to travel to Monterey, Mexico, in August to perform a concert there for the Mexican government as part of a cultural program.

Helen's Thing ...

Christening Of Our Daughters: Chapter One

By Helen Maguire

Our twins were christened Sunday in St. Paul's. It was Rev. Elliott's last christening in that church and we were particularly glad he was able to do it before his departure for Cape Cod and retirement.

Rod had threatened to get everyone up at six in the morning but discretion overcame his valor and no one except the cats got up before seven.

First to arrive for the event were Erin's Godparents, the Toepfers who live on Long Island and got slightly lost enroute. "This beats all," said George. "You two women were on the phone for over an hour last week and neither one of you thought about giving directions." Of course not. I thought Louise remembered how to get here and I guess she thought she did too.

I must say a word about the phone call. George works for the phone company, their service is free and she called me.

Next on the scene were Nora's Godparents, Rod's sister Florence and her husband, Al Wilson who live at the shore. "He's been driving me crazy all morning predicting we'd be late," said Florence. "The only thing held us up was that I couldn't find the shoes I was going to wear." Louise and I smiled at her in understanding. George and Rod looked at Al in sympathy.

We got the girls dressed and departed for church. The christening followed the regular church service so any of the kids who wanted to go were taken along. The Toepfers have three year old twins and Rod and I got a preview of coming attractions. One of them got thirsty during the service, escaped the sister assigned to oversee him, edged around the pew and was reaching for the christening chalice to get a drink when his father discovered what was going on and put out a restraining hand.

Back home, we put the babies in for a nap, had a reviving cup of coffee and prepared for the invasion. Rod's family is rather large to say the least and combined with my small group of relatives, a few neighbors and friends, we ended up with about 70 people in the backyard.

When I married my husband, I got an extra bonus in a great mother-in-law. Her salads are so good that her sons and sons-in-law refuse to eat anyone else's and all the wives gave up making them long ago. It's not that she's stingy with the recipes. She's told all of us many times what she does but it's hard to measure a "little of this" and "just a touch of that". The result is that Mom Maguire makes all the salads for all the family events and that's no small undertaking when you consider the hordes that attend.

We put all the food on the dining room table, all the beverages on the porch, the cake out of the reach of little fingers and announced that the buffet was open.

There's A Lot of Dirt Left At DeMuro Park And Quite A Bit Inside Town Hall Too

By Phil White

DeMURO PARK, which once made headlines in The Sun every week, is still quite the place for creating news. Take the past week for example.

Friday came the floods. Sure the rains were heavy, but residents in the Milton and Margaret Avenue area along Harrison were once told that when DeMuro Park was completed, the flooding would be stopped.

Adding strength to the neighborhood's hopes for dry land was Commissioner John Lucy's announcements that all sorts of improvements were being made in the drainage system. Belleville made some changes in its pipes in the Third River area too which somehow became of great importance to the flooded homes in nearby Nutley.

Well, DeMuro Park has been completed for some time, or at least that's what Commissioner Hank Ludwig has announced on at least three different occasions. "DeMuro Park is 100 per cent finished." We heard that at various times this past April, May and June. Now we're hearing it again. But DeMuro Park isn't finished yet. And until everything is in its place up there, we can expect that the facility will continue to remain in the news headlines.

PROBLEMS REMAINING at the Margaret Avenue facility are several:

The flooding. We're told now that it's actually an erosion problem. The new drainage system under the park itself works fine, we've been assured. But the dirt washing down from the lower portion of the park is clogging up street basins below. The result is clogged drains and flooding.

The next logical step is to do something to stop the erosion. That's possible too, but the town did not include that sort of work in the original specifications and it's going to cost about $19,000 to do the job now.

So, the Commission is asking the Board of Education to "loan" it the $19,000. This sum would stop the erosion by paving the lower portion of the park for a 55-car parking lot. The rest of the money would be used to sod the area.

Another reason for some DeMuro Park headlines is the fence that's now going up around the Margaret Avenue track. People in the neighborhood don't like the fence at all. We've already had some telephone calls here about the fence, along with promises that "Town Hall is going to hear about this."

So, for reasons involving flooding, 55-car parking lots, fences around public parks, lack of funds at Town Hall and who knows what else, you can expect to keep on reading about the problems at DeMuro Park.

Hopefully, however, DeMuro will all work out to everyone's satisfaction. Actually we're anxiously looking forward to the day when the only time DeMuro Park will be in the news is when the Maroon runners and tennis players score their spectacular victories on the newly completed facility.

THERE'S NO doubt the memories of "Earth Day" have remained and have resulted in even stronger convictions when it comes to cleansing our environment. Didn't you think of "Earth Day" for example, last weekend when the radio reports came in about New York's experimental pedestrian mall on Fifth Avenue? And how about those "lead-free gasoline" ads that took up full-pages Monday to advertise Humble Oil's new product?

Well today in Nutley we have another Earth Day. The people involved in the playground program set up today's happening which they call "Ecology Day." The target is the Third River. Gene Huether more or less is the fellow responsible for today's event which is called "Ecology Day" and which will concentrate on the Third River area between Harrison and Centre Streets.

WE HAVE A SUSPICION there's a little more than meets the eye in the developing feud between Commissioners Hank Ludwig and Bill Jernick on just who's responsible for cutting the grass on "sellable" town-owned property.

Our suspicion comes first from the fact that we were unable to get a non-controversial list of just what parcels are "sellable" and which ones are not. Instead of publishing a list and adding fuel to the controversy, we thought we'd let Jernick and Ludwig argue that point out later on. But we did get some hint that perhaps even the parcel that prompted the flareup last week - the Donna Court tract of uncut grass - may clearly fall into the "non-sellable" category and thus not Jernick's responsibility.

For many years, there has been irritation among Town Departments (even before Ludwig's administration) prompted by Jernick's yearly pronouncements to the Nutley electorate that this Finance Department's budget is the lowest, while continuing to reflect the smallest annual increases.

Over the years, for example, Jernick has been successful, other Commissioners tell us, in getting certain expenses normally assigned to the Finance Department included in other departmental budgets. Mayor Chenoweth's Public Safety Department budget, for example, includes thousands of dollars in retirement benefits. The Parks Department budget bears the total expense for all telephone service in the town, and for all the insurance premiums. And up until last week, the Parks Department also cut the grass on the lots up for sale too.

Apparently there's now going to be an attempt to change some of the budgeting accounts at Town Hall. That's really the reason we believe that more accurately explains why the grass grows tall on Donna Court and a few similar spots in town today.

Montclair State Graduates 17

There were 17 Belleville residents among the 1,281 graduates to receive diplomas during commencement exercises at Montclair State College.

Among those receiving academic degrees were:

Diane Andrews of 42 Clinton Street, who received her bachelor of arts degree.

Mrs. Joan Kwiatkowski of 200 Mill Street, who received her BA degree while majoring in speech.

At Montclair State she was historian of Sigma Alpha Eta sorority and was a member of the speech and hearing honor society.

Elizabeth Bordonaro of 269 Union Avenue earned her BA degree with a major in mathematics. She was a dean's list student.

Miss Bordonaro is a graduate of Belleville High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society and the Monard literary staff. She was graduated class valedictorian from BHS.

Arvidson was the recipient of the Alexander Black Memorial Award for Journalism. He was general manager of the Radio Station KSLU. In addition, he was vice president of Pi Delta Epsilon Honors Collegiate Journalism fraternity.

A graduate of Newark Academy in Livingston, he expects to obtain a masters degree. This summer he is being employed by Radio WSLU in Cannton Canton. James' father, Ernest, is a former Belleville Board of Education President.

James Arvidson

Residents Hear David Susskind At Bloomfield

Henry Burden

Four Belleville residents were among the 154 students to be graduated from Bloomfield College at Commencement exercises May 30.

Guest speaker at the college's 98th annual commencement was television personality David Susskind.

The Baccalaureate service was held at the Bloomfield Presbyterian Church.

Among Belleville residents receiving degrees were: Henry Burden of 206 Linden Avenue, who received his BA degree in sociology.

A graduate of Belleville High School, Burden plans future studies toward a YMCA certification and will join the YM-YWCA in Newark as a professional staff member.

Burden completed his studies at Bloomfield as a night-time student, and is married to the former Grace Muench of Belleville. The couple has three children.

Edward Correale of 597 Joralemon Street received a BA degree while majoring in accounting. He is a graduate of West Side High School where he was a member of the bowling club, the chess club and the varsity baseball team.

He is employed as an internal auditor for Phelps Dodge Corporation.

Richard Del Russo of 373 North 10th Street earned his BA degree while majoring in business administration.

A dean's list student, Del Russo was alumni secretary of the Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity and was active in intramural sports.

Del Russo was a graduate of Belleville High School, where he played football and track. He is employed by the Equitable Life Insurance Company.

While at Bloomfield College, Del Russo was selected to the All-Star Intramural football team.

Roy Tanis of 1 Brighton Avenue received his BA degree during the May 30 exercises at Bloomfield College.

Church-goers do not necessarily lead model lives, but on the average, they are each community's best citizens.

Ten Belleville women received academic degrees during commencement exercises at Paterson State College last month.

Among those to receive diplomas were:

Rose Ann Barbore of 16 Ligham Street, who received her BA degree in elementary education. She was a member of Lambda Nu Omega sorority.

A graduate of Belleville High School, she plans to teach in the Belleville school system. At BHS she was a member of the Future Teachers of America Club, the Booster Club, and participated in intramurals.

Ellen Beresford of 161 New Street earned her BA degree with a major in social science and a minor in sociology. She was a member of Sigma Delta Phi sorority, serving as historian. She also worked on the Ricky Hummel blood drive.

She is a graduate of Belleville High School where she was a member of the Spanish and Booster clubs, and participated in intramurals.

Miss Beresford is employed with the Bureau of Children's Services as a caseworker, and plans to take graduate level courses in the fall. This summer she plans to visit friends in Europe.

Rose Branca of 38 Mt. Pleasant Avenue received her BA degree while majoring in early childhood studies. She is a graduate of Belleville High School where she was a member of the cheerleading squad. She plans to teach in Newark School system.

JoAnn Franzi of 28 Naples Avenue earned her BA degree with a major in early childhood education. She was chosen "sweetheart" of Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity at Bloomfield College for 1969-70.

At Paterson State, Miss Franzi was a member of Phi Omega Psi sorority, the New Jersey Education Association, and participated in the Ricky Hummel Blood Drive.

She is a graduate of Belleville High School where she was a twirler and a member of the student council.

Carole Iaroli of 268 Greylock Parkway received her BS degree with a major in nursing. She was a member of the Theta Sigma Kappa sorority and the Nurses Club.

Miss Iaroli is a graduate of Belleville High School, where she was a member of the Nurses Club, the Spanish Club, the twirling squad and the yearbook staff.

3 Residents Are Monmouth Alumni

Three Belleville residents received academic degrees during the 36th commencement exercises at Monmouth College last month.

Residents to receive diplomas included Michael Faltraco of 6 Federal Street, who received his BS degree with a major in secondary education mathematics. He was named to the dean's list twice.

He is a graduate of Seton Hall Prep school where he was a member of the swimming team. He plans to teach math in the West Long Branch school system.

Kenneth Kraly Gets Notre Dame Diploma

Kenneth Kraly of 125 Fairway Avenue received his BS degree during commencement exercises at Notre Dame University in North Bend, Ind.

The chemical engineering major was graduated cum laude and was on the dean's list his last two years at the university.

At Notre Dame he was a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and the Tau Beta Pi Engineering Honor Society. He also participated in the Neighborhood Help Study Program, a tutoring project for local grammar school students.

He is a graduate of Essex Catholic High School in Newark, where he was a member of the Science Club and the school newspaper.

Kraly will continue his studies at the Cornell School of Business in Ithaca, New York.

This summer he is working with Esco Engineering in Florham Park. Last summer he was employed by Eastman Kodak in Rochester, N.Y.

Union Avenue received her BA degree with a major course of study in elementary education. She was a member of Beta Delta Chi sorority.

She is a graduate of Our Lady of Good Counsel High School in Newark, where she was a member of the honor society and the Latin and French clubs. She will teach third grade next year in Belleville's School One. Linda Waldron of 253 Stephens Street received her BA degree in early childhood education.

At Paterson State, she was a member of the executive committee for the Spring Carnival, the Ricky Hummel Blood Drive, the Human Relations Laboratory, and Sigma Delta Phi sorority, of which she was a vice president.

Miss Waldron, who will be married July 25 to William Engle Jr. of Pennsylvania, is a graduate of Belleville High School. At BHS she was a member of the future teachers Association, the Latin Club, the drill team, the Officials Club, and was a cheerleader and participated in intramurals.

She will teach second grade this September in Edgewater Park, and plans to pursue studies toward her masters degree.

Polluted Homes Are Becoming Fire Hazards

Are we guilty of polluting our own homes? Yes! says Fire Chief Walter M. Journey. "Most people wouldn't think of it in this way," he says, "but the combustible clutter we let accumulate in attics, basements, closets and garages is a form of home pollution. We make these spots real places for everything think we might possibly use again, or things we think are just a little too good to be thrown away — broken down furniture, lamp shades, mattresses, draperies, old magazines, old clothing and similar items. These combustibles create dangers in the home environment, because they provide starting place and fuel for fire which could destroy your home and put the lives of

Legion County Championships At Woodman

At a meeting Sunday afternoon at Post 105, the men in charge of Essex County's American Legion Baseball League decided that a neutral field would be best for holding the first County Championship game. Montclair's Woodman field eventually got the nod, as Montclair's team, 3-10, is definitely out of the running for the game. The game will start 2 pm this Saturday afternoon.

This County Championship is going on independently from the rest of the State-wide championships. Both the Eastern and Western League Champions will go into the District Eliminations regardless of who wins the County title.

In a way the championship replaces the All-Star game that used to be held each year. Most of the managers agreed that the all-star game had "been too much trouble," with pitchers being taken out of rotation when the League race was down to the wire, and questions always arising about how players were chosen.

The teams that will be in the game won't be known for sure until tomorrow night. The Western Division is between Bloomfield and Livingston, who meet each other that night.

Belleville's Entry Depends On Protests

The Eastern title, between Belleville and Nutley, will depend largely on how Belleville last night against Caldwell and tonight against Vailsburg, and how Nutley fares when they finish two protest games.

One of the protested games could cause Nutley much trouble. Against Vailsburg, Nutley disputed the legality of a batter in the game who didn't report to the umpire. Vailsburg's pinch-hitter is to be taken out of the game, and the game will proceed from the point of infraction. Vailsburg will have bases loaded with one out in the bottom of the seventh, the last inning, and Nutley leading by a slim 1-0.

It will be a little harder for Nutley to lose the second protest game. Nutley's game with West Orange will continue from the top of the fifth with Nutley up and leading 6-2. Even though it will be hard, W O could win if they score six runs in two innings as they did against Belleville last week.

Nutley's Manager Had A Scheme

Nutley's manager, Mathew Miesieski, had a plan that he thought would keep the county game at a neutral field and at the same time give the hometown fans more of a chance to see the game.

Miesieski's plan was for the game to be played in Belleville if his team wins, and at the Park Oval in Nutley should Post 105's Legionnaires win. The plan was dropped in favor of Woodman Field in order to assure a decision on where to play with more time before the game than one day.

Belleville's manager, Jack Throckmorton pointed out that should Belleville win the Eastern Title for the County, they would face the Middlesex County Champs in a two of three contest to meet Bergen County Division. The games with the Middlesex Champs, most likely Sayerville, will start July 25, and will be nine inning games rather than the regular seven.

SPECIAL STEP? — Star Legion centerfielder Joe Ritacco appears to be strutting out a new step. Actually Joe has just laid down a bunt and is about to streak toward first base against Bloomfield Monday.

Aces Capture Title

"Thrilling," "exciting," "uncertain," "surprising," are all words that can be applied to the closing stages of the Recreation Peanut Baseball Leagues. In the last week of play the Indians, coached by Bob Haug, had the American Division Championship but Lou Pomponio's Aces and Elmer Haug's Bombers ended their scheduled seasons with an 8-4 tie in the standings. A playoff between these two powers saw the Aces emerge the winner and thereby earn their playoff position.

Over in the National Division things were even more complicated. At one point in the last flurry of action here there were five teams that could have placed second behind Lou Schreiber's Yankees. This situation boiled down further to where the Dodgers at 6-5 actually rated just behind the Cubs at 6-4 and both teams had to win to stay alive.

Gene Sheridan's Dodgers won their last game of the scheduled season by taking a tough one from Joe Nortons Braves. It then remained for the Cubs to get by two tough contenders.

Cubs Win Title For Second Time

The Cubs defeated the Braves and took first place and the Senior League Championship last week. Both teams had matching 9-3 records and a wealth of baseball talent.

The pitching staff of the Braves was led by Ken Stein and Steven Senatore. Together they accounted for nine wins in twelve games. In one of his outings, Senatore pitched a no-hit game against the Yankees. Both Kenny and Steve made some hefty contribution at the plate also, with Stein having one homer to his credit, and Steve having belted two in one inning. Tommy Cienaghan, Ron DeFrosia, and Jay Messina provided the Braves with good, solid hitting all season long. The Braves were dealt a severe blow late in the season when Joe Bacchetta broke his leg in a game against the Pirates. Joe was a fine shortstop and added more power to the batting order. Richard Goscinski had a total of ten hits in the Braves' last three games. Certainly one of the league's leading hitters was Joe Troise who had a total of 17 hits in 34 at bats for an amazing .500 batting average. One of the 17 hits was a grand slam home run. Bill Lenehan's Cubs were also powerful. They had scored over 20 runs in three separate games. Their mound staff was led by Tom Cosgrove, (six wins) and Alan Frank (four wins). Catcher Joe DeFranza was a big threat at the plate having hit two home runs and at one point had 13 straight hits. Eddy Driscoll also had two homers and numerous clutch hits. Richard Giordano and Joe Cerami were two more solid hitters this season. Joe Arminio did not have many at bats, but he made the trips count in clutch situations and collected 5 hits in eleven at bats. The entire team batting average was over .300. Helping a strong offense was a stingy defense led by the strong arm of Joe DeFranza who stopped opposing base runners at second. Steven Lenehan had an errorless season in centerfield while robbing batters of extra bases. The Pirates and Giants both won four games this season. Last year, the Pirates went through a twelve game season without a win. This season, Coach Roger Ellsworth featured a line-up in which the first five batters hit above .333. Vince Toriello was the leader with .411 followed by Richie Centanni with a .371 average. Legion Championship Will Go Down To The Final Tilt

Belleville Legionnaires and fans this week are holding their breaths as the eastern division championship comes right down to the wire.

What will decide this season's championship and a ticket to the district competition is a whole series of "ifs."

If Belleville lost to Caldwell yesterday everything is just about over for the American Legion Post 105 sluggers.

If Belleville won yesterday and beats Vailsburg at home today, then they MAY be champions.

The biggest if centers around rival Nutley, which had three games remaining at press time, two of which were protested ball games. Nutley must lose one to give Belleville a chance.

In any case, star hurler

John Goscinski will go against Vailsburg today. Nutley's best chance of losing is against Vailsburg, where in a protested game, the Vailsburg nine has bases loaded with one out in the top of the seventh with Nutley leading 1-0.

Belleville's four losses this season (9-4-1 overall) have been to some pretty tough pitching. It seems that the opposing teams are saving their best for Legion 105. In the loss to West Orange, All-Stater Mike Trifolis went against Belleville. Irvington threw Bob Shriner, an All-County player last year against the 105 nine.

Bloomfield had one of its high school's top pitchers, John Di Lorenzo, beat Belleville Monday. Nutley's star Dan Bouton stopped Belleville earlier in the year, but was bombed last week in a rematch.

Belleville's American Legion team played three games this past week, and in each one got behind at the start, providing some tense times for the Legion fans and coaches. In two of Belleville's three games, Post 105 was unable to come back and win.

At East Orange, Belleville won 6-2 after being behind 1-0 in the first inning. Pitcher

John Goscinski gave up six hits in getting the win while striking out only two batters. Belleville's six runs came on 13 hits, the highest number they've gotten all year. Belleville also got 13 against Irvington and Montclair.

Charley Ziegler led the team, batting 3 - 3 at E.O., picking up singles in the first, fifth, and seventh inning.

Joe Vitiello was the only Bellboy to get an extra base-hit off the E. O pitcher.

CONFRONTATION? — Belleville Legion catcher Joe Vitiello isn't about to kick the Bloomfield first baseman after the slugger belted a two run homer Monday. Vitiello is merely leaping high to try and snare a desperate throw to the plate.

Playoffs, All-Star Games Highlight Little League

The Lions Club captured the second half of the Belleville National League race with a perfect 7-0 mark, while the American League race is still undecided.

The mighty Lions must now await a playoff game between the Amvets and the PBA, who finished in a tie for the first half of the season lead. The winner of that game will play the Lions with a World Series entry at stake.

In the American League, meanwhile, Food Fair defeated Wallace and Tiernan, 11-7, to tighten up the loop considerably. Colony Club finished with a 5-2 mark, and must now await the fate of Wallace and Tiernan. Food Fair, with three losses is out of the race, but Wallace and Tiernan is 3-2 and if it wins its next two games will finish in a tie for the lead. In any case, Wallace and Tiernan will play Colony for the right to defend the American League in the series because W&T was first half champs.

The National League standings look like this:

	Won	Lost
Lions	7	0
PBA	6	1
Jolly Cleaners	3	4
Amvets	2	4
FMBA	1	5
K of C	1	6

The American League shapes up like this:

	Won	Lost
Colony Club	5	2
Food Fair	4	3
Wallace-Tiernan	3	2
Rotary Club	3	4
Varsity Club	2	3
Elks	2	3

The Belleville Little League takes to the road this weekend as its All-Star teams prepare for inter-town challenges.

This Saturday at one p.m. the National League All-Stars will travel to the Harrison Little League Field in Harrison. The winner of this tilt will square off with the winner of the Newark Ironbound and the Livingston American League at the Michael V. Marotti stadium on July 21 at 6 p.m.

Managing the year's National All-Stars is Michael Marotti, who is being assisted by coach Dan Dunn.

Named to this year's power-packed All-Star team are: PBA stars John Guarino on the mound, Mike Cancelliere in the outfield and catcher Glen Nisovaccia; from the Lions, pitcher-outfielder Greg Petite, pitcher-outfielder Bob Giordano and Mike McTigue at second base; from Jolly Cleaners, catcher Frank Elefante; from the FMBA, first baseman - outfielder Tom Muschio and shortstop Chuch Fanelli; from the Amvets, first baseman Dante Pantalone; shortstop Anthony Blafore Jr., outfielder Anthony Marino, and catcher Louis Keli Klein; from the Knights of Columbus, third baseman Chris Tremel.

The American League All-Stars will play July 20 at 6 p.m. in Bloomfield against the winner of the Bloomfield and South Orange teams. The winner of the July 20 tilt will play in Belleville July, Nutley National and Livingston National League.

Clippers Clip Cardinals In Big Playoff Game To Take Farm Loop

The 1970 Farm League season came to an exciting conclusion on Friday as the Pirates met the Clippers at Clearman Field to determine the first place winner in the National League. Both teams, who had developed a fierce rivalry during the season, were putting their identical 7-1 records on the line in a "winner take all" game.

These two teams accounted for each other's only defeat during the regular season. The Clippers, lead by Morris Renna, played as a solid unit in handing the Cardinals their first defeat this season, 11 to 8. The teams now stand 1 and 1 in the league play-offs, with one game to go in deciding the Farm League Champs.

The Cards scored 2 runs in the top of the first to gain the advantage, but the Clippers, hitting previous unbeaten Joe DiGiuglielmo at will, retaliated with 3 in the bottom of the first, thereby gaining the lead which they never relinquished.

In reaching 11 runs, the Clippers scored their big inning in the fourth, when, with 2 out, they scored 4 big runs on 2 walks, a fielders choice, 1 hit, 1 walk and again 1 hit before the inning ended. After threatening with 4 runs in the fifth, the Cardinals were put out 1,2,3, at the top of the sixth to end the game and the unbeaten record of the Cardinals.

Meanwhile in the American League, the first place winner was decided much earlier in the season as Toby D'ambola's Cardinals defeated all eight of their opponents. Anthony Cortese pitched the Cardinals to three of their wins and only one run was scored against them in those three games. Jeff Fink and Joseph DiGiuglielmo also helped the season with fine pitching performances. The Cardinal defense only allowed their opponents 17 runs while their batters hit for a total of 85 runs this season. The "big stick" was carried by Nicky Cancelliere who knocked in 23 RBI's while hitting at an amazing .710 clip.

The Aces of John Zelinskas, opponent to post a 7 to 6 win for the Indians.

Fourth place in the American League was shared by Len Burrell's Giants and the Yankees of Nunzi D'Elia. The Giants became sole owners of fourth place when

Playground News

As the Summer Recreation Program advances, new and exciting activities are taking place throughout the town.

An unusual contest was held last Friday at Number two playground. Following their refreshing watermelon party, a contest was held to prevent the throwing of pits onto the playground. Prizes were awarded to the boy and girl who collected and saved the most pits. Gina Troise and Anthony Gammarrò were the winners.

A play-off in the nok-hockey tournament was held between Mark Westby and Sal Pannorfi with Mark reigning as champ. Another exciting event at Number two this past week was an all-playground softball game which included the directors, Kathy Fornarotto, Lauren

Legion Champs? It's Your Guess

Vitiello's triple in the seventh inning provided the final run of the game as Gosinski came in from first. Vitiello went 2-3 that night.

Frank Pette, finally coming out of a slump that didn't make him look the least like the all-county player he really is, also went two for three with singles in the second and sixth inning.

Belleville rallied in the sixth and seventh innings for two runs each, to win the game. Four straight singles, by Vitiello, Joe Ritacco, Brian Waters, and Pette, provided the first two. The second two were on singles by Ziegler and Gosinski, and Vitiello's triple.

At West Orange, Belleville got behind 6-0 and couldn't overcome the margin despite a four run fourth inning. West Orange scored their first three runs in the first inning, and added three more in the second.

Danny Dunn let up eight hits in the first four and 1/3 innings before being relieved. Even though he did strike out four batters, the two batters that he gave a base to, on a walk and a hit batter, both scored.

Gosinski, at third base, was one of two Legionnaires to get an extra base. John didn't get an RBI on the shot even though Joe Papisidero scored because of a throwing error by the third baseman.

Gosinski scored on a beautifully faked bunt by Joe Ritacco. Ritacco square off to bunt, but as the pitch came stepped back and swung, singling through the middle. Ritacco went to second single by Brian Waters.

Both Ritacco and Waters scored on the second double of the inning, this one by Frank Pette. But the inning ended on two plays from short to first and Belleville's rally ended.

Gosinski's second pitching stint in a week was another one where the team got behind but couldn't come back to win. A single a triple, a sacrifice, and a sacrifice were all Bloomfield needed to beat Belleville 3-1.

LEGION LINES — West Orange's Mike Trifolios was 4-0 with his win over Belleville, while his team was 5-8. Mike picked up 11 strikeouts against Belleville.

Clippers Are Farm Champions

they outslugged the Yankees 18 to 10 in a game at Clearman Field. Although this was only the third win for the Giants, they received fine performances from Leonard Burrell and John Cozza, their duo at catcher and pitcher. First baseman Steve Annichiarico and third baseman Lee Romano also added a few bright spots to the season. These four boys by the way, have been selected to represent the Giants in the upcoming All-Star Game.

Although Nunzi D'Elia and his Yankees finished in fifth place with 2-7 record, their season was not without excitement. A boy named Richie Unis hit seven home runs including three grand slammers. Two of these grand slams came back to back in a game with the champion Cardinals which ended in a 12-1 tie. Pitcher Tom Livero was responsible for the only two wins of the season, both of which were against the Indians.

Over in the National League, the White Sox ended the season in fifth place without a win. Al Nadzan did a fine job after taking over the managerial chores from Joe Restaino late in the season. The boys were young but maintained their spirit and pride which is very difficult to find on a losing team.

The Dodgers, coached by Joe Fomurto, wound up in fourth place as Robert Villano pitched them to five wins in eight games. He aided his own cause with two home-runs and two triples. Ken Nicolia in centerfield helped reduce the number of runs scored against his Dodgers by making some hit-robbing catches. Behind the plate, catcher Kenny Place cut down a number of potential runs as they tried to steal second and third bases. Third place finishers were the Braves of Howard Barnett. Their four wins were pitched by Arthur Charen with some good hitting by Matty McGill. With Frank Buonanno at Shortstop and George D'Allesandro at first base, the infield provided some solid defensive support. The outfield play of Vito Guarino was another highlight of the Braves' season.

As was mentioned earlier, first and second place in the National League was going to be decided by the outcome of the game between the Clippers and Pirates. Both teams were well stocked with talent. Pirate first baseman Rocky Falcatano, the son of the Pirate coach Vince Falcatano, had played errorless ball in eight games for 51 put outs. He reached base 14 times on walks alone. Art Hahn had a pitching record of 4 wins against two defeats. Centerfielder Joe Brooks won two games for the Pirates with his timely hitting. Bobby Kittle in left field had made some fine defensive plays. John Lupo and John Rizzuti formed the left side of a stingy infield and also made some big contributions at the plate.

The Clippers, under coach Morris Renna, were led by the strong pitching of Joe Baccaro (5-1), Bret Ellsworth (2-0) and Mark McGarrill. Assisting this pitching staff was the slugging of Joe Baccaro, Mike Borgo, Mark McGarrill, Ray Nalbandian and Larry Pellagrino. With the aid of some five players from their bench, the Clippers batted across 82 runs this season while limiting their opponents to only 37. In the game for first place, the Pirates jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the third inning behind the hitting of Rocky Falcatano and Joe Brooks. However, the Clippers exploded in the fourth inning when Joe Baccaro led off with a single and walks to Pellagrino and Azavada loaded the bases. Rich Benaquista singled in one run, then Ray Nalbandian doubled in two more runs. With runners on second and third, Mike Borgo doubled to bring home two runs, then was brought home himself when Mark McGarrill tripled to climax the six run inning for the Clippers. The Clippers added one more run in the fifth and won the game and first place in the National League by a score of 7-4. The Clippers will meet the Cardinals in a two out of three games series for the Farm League Championship. On Sunday, July 19, the best players from each league will meet in the annual All-Star Game to be played at the Marrotti Little League Field at 1:30. Toby D'Ambola will lead the list of American League managers while Morris Renna will head the National Leaguers.

Pizzi Homer Aids Rotary To 6-0 Win

The Rotary Club pounded out ten hits and defeated the Elks 6 to 0. Joe Pizzi led the hitting with three safeties, one being a homerun. Chris Cervasio had two hits, while Paul Denning had two hits for the losers.

DiQuattro, and Bruce Ellsworth completed the list of Pirate batters hitting above .333. The Pirates were dealt two hard blows this year when Sal Garrone broke his ankle while batting at a 444 clip, and Frank Papisidero joined the American Legion and took with him an amazing .529 batting average. Richard Centanni, Bruce Ellsworth, and Richard Cupparo were credited for pitching at least one of the Pirate wins.

Two of the wins for Coach Bill Perrelli's Giants were pitched by Ron Borge. A big hit by Ron and a fine pitching performance gave the Giants a 4-3 win over the Champion Cubs. The infield was strengthened with the good defensive play of Larry Degenshein at first and Brian Dunleavy at third. The only home run in the Giant attack this year came off the bat of Brian Banda. John Bacchetta was another standout performer this year for the Giants.

Coach Dom Servidio and his Yankees were the fifth place finishers with only two wins to their credit. Mark Cervasio went with the American Legion and Phil Cuzzi suffered a broken finger. Both boys would have added some spark to the Yankee attack. Mark Restivo gets the credit for pitching the two Yankee wins and Ramon Lijo was an outstanding defensive performer along with Mike Sbarra. Mike Servidio, Fred Taylor, and Tom Star were other Yankee players who added a little light to a dismal season.

The Senior League playoffs will begin this week with the Giants and Pirates meeting in the first game on Tuesday while the Yankees take on the Braves on Thursday at the Belleville Stadium. The winners of these two games will meet for the Playoff Trophies on Monday, July 20.

An All-Star team will be selected with the Cubs and Braves each submitting four members and the Pirates, Giants, and Yankees each contributing three boys. The Senior League managers will vote on the three boys to be named to the All Star pitching staff.

Playground News

Mansueto, Annmarie Sorce and Gary Falkman. The teams were divided with the boys against the girls with the powerful boys reigning 22-5.

A vigorous game of touch football was conducted at Number 10 playground in which Anthony Speer became a football hero. Anthony scored three touchdowns for his team and led them onto victory. Rocco Saletta was named Number ten's nok-hockey champion of the week. In order to obtain this title Rocco competed against Bob LaViazio, Victor DeFlorio, Tom Marcogliese, Felix Rodriguez, Tom Goff, Dominick Riodano and Greg Dunleavy. Congratulations Rocco!

At the Rec House this week the "Big Boys" exhibited their softball skills. Ron Ruzzolo, Paul Willy, Phil Cuzzi, Gary Soldo, Jeff Goodfriends, Anthony Corino, Gary Hobin and Jim Moncelli were the members of the winning softball team. The girls also had a big event, a dodgeball game, in which Bernadette Dempsey emerged as the winner. Jim "Boy" Risoli was the nok-hockey winner by edging out Cindy Corris. The Red House concluded its week with a big party with ice cream and soda in honor of Barbara Budenas' birthday. Barbara is Recreation House director.

Last week at Number four playground, a continuation of tournaments was held. Girls, ranging from ages 11 to 14 competed in a ping-pong tournament. Franny Fero outshot Diane DeMaio for the championship. Boys, from 8 to 10 competed in a Kaloh tournament. Robert Grasso became the victor by beating Steve Dondarski, last weeks ping pong champion. The softball teams at Number four playground are practicing and are looking forward to a victorious season. Their week ended with a holiday lunch party. The children decorated boxes in which their lunches were carried. Prizes were awarded for the most colorful and the most sporty.

At Fairway playground, the Senior Softball team challenged the Junior Team to a practice game. The Seniors defeated the Juniors by a score of 17-2. A lemon ice party along with relay races were held at the end of the week. Missey Bestivo and Donna Dellasso won the wheelbarrow race. Running relays and a three-legged race were also included in the days activities.

A physical fitness hour, led by Karen Sciacca was held on Tuesday. Sit ups, jumping jacks, squat thrusts, toe touching and various jumping exercises were included in the routine. David Marra, Rocco Cuozzo, Michael Monagas and Robert Tosi are leading in the ping pong matches while Mark Consenzo, Michael Danski and Mart Castro are winning in the nok-hockey tournament. In the running for the Kaloh championship are Paul Denning, Roseanne DeFalco, Karen Sciacca, and Michele Guila.

Foul shooting was the big event of the week at Kelly playground. A foul shooting game was held for the boys and the girls. John Luciano and Trudy O'Connell reigned as champions. The highlight of the week was a pet show. Prizes were awarded in three categories: the most unusual pet, the best dressed pet and the best behaved pet. Jimmy Fredericks' dog, Jeff won the prize for being the most unusual pet. Bianca, Lisa Pizzella's dog, won the prize for the best dressed pet and Skippy, Danny and Pablo Martinez's dog won first place for the best behaved pet. The winners received watermelon.

The younger children at Number three playground made paper hats out of various odd pieces of paper and material. Some of the creative designers were Betty Lou Freda, Nick Massa and Kathy and Jack Morell. A twirling clinic has been organized at Number three. It seems that Angela D'Auria and Lucille Parillo have caught on quickly and are doing fine.

Beck's Column

BY MAX BECK

In line with our endeavor to keep our readers informed about matters "new", we continue the reports about manufacturers' fall merchandise.

Magnavox is one manufacturer who plays it safe. Within the next couple of years we will see a complete change-over for color TV sets to solid state devices, which means transistors and so-called integrated circuits. Motorola went the transistor way, so did RCA. Zenith started with integrated circuits. It is the writer's opinion that in the long run the industry will have to use plug-in integrated modules, which will be exchanged in case of malfunction. It has to be this way, because there simply won't be enough technicians available to keep sets going if the present system will continue. The reliability of solid state technique has been proven beyond a doubt in space technology.

The first one to come up with something new usually gets hurt. In spite of all the extensive testing in the labs, the real proving ground is the public. It looks as if Magnavox lets others burn their fingers and get out the "bugs". After it has been proven, Magnavox no doubt will make the choice and it will then be the right one, so nobody gets hurt, neither the factory nor the dealers.

In line with this, there is nothing really new with Magnavox this year. Last year Magnavox came out with TAC (Total Automatic Color) which eliminates annoying re-adjustments as one changes from station to station. The picture tubes are a little larger, but this size is offered by all manufacturers. So if you buy a Magnavox color TV this year, you buy a tried and proven product and you won't be a "Guinea pig" for adventures in design.

coached by Phil Cerza and managed by Vincent Lipoma. Boys selected are, from the Elks, Paul Denning and Alan Cervasio; from Colony, Greg Dunleavy, Mike DeJoseph, Rich Loma; from Food Fair, Anthony Malang and Mike Limongelli; from the Varsity Club, Joe Goscinski; from Wallace and Tiernan, Vin DeNotaris, Ronald Spagnulo and George Gorbenko, and from the Rotary Club, Joe Pizzi and Al Cerza.

Biggest Upset: W&T Topped By Food Fair

Food Fair pulled the biggest upset of the season beating Wallace & Tiernan by the score of 11 to 7.

Food only got 2 hits but took advantage of walks and misplays by the Wallace & Tiernan team. Wallace & Tiernan was in first place and had to win its last 2 games to clinch the title.

Now they are tied with Colony Club for 1st place.

Wallace & Tiernan got 10 hits, with Ron Spagnulo, John McEvoy, Vinnie DeNotaris and George Gorbenko all getting two a piece.

Smith Scores Winning Run For W&T 1-0

Wallace & Tiernan edge out the Rotary Club by the score of 1 to 0.

Both teams were held scoreless until the fifth inning when Wallace & Tiernan's Tom Smith walked, and after two outs, Ron Spagnulo hit a single to center field and when the center fielder let the ball go thru his legs, Smith scored from 1st base.

Joe Pizzi pitched a two hitter for the losers and Ron Spagnulo pitched a three

Colony Club Stops Rotary

The Colony Club defeated the Rotary Club 1 to 0. The only run of the ball game came in the bottom of the 6th inning when Greg Dunleavy singled, Mike DeJoseph singled moving Dunleavy to second base, Dom Cicalese loaded the bases with a single, Ed Carolan then hit a ground ball to shortstop who booted the ball and the winning run came across the plate.

Rick Loma pitched a two hitter for the winners, Anthony Ferraro led the hitting with two hits.

It may be annoying to others, but the nervous habits of students at study have the approval of a physician. Hair-twirling, leg-jiggling, nail-biting, and other idiosyncracies indulged in while deep in thought are an aid to concentration. They're all a means of releasing inner tension drives that might otherwise interrupt the cerebral process. Concentration is one of the most isolated activities one can engage in. It means cutting out all other sensory input. Sustained concentration is difficult for anyone unless the subject under study is intensely interesting or the motivation to study is strong. Thus, at examination time students concentrate (cram) much better than at other times.

Brownie Troops Hold Fly-Up Ceremony

Brownie Troop No. 963 of School Number One held its Fly-Up Ceremony on Wednesday, June 3 after school. The remaining Brownies formed a ring around the outgoing Brownies and let them out one at a time. Then they received their wings from Mrs. Frank Simeone, assistant leader and G.S. Pins from Mrs. William Sobanko, leader and were received by members of Junior Troop No. 938.

The girls who flew up were Kelly Burns, Lynn Calvitti, Theresa Charles, Mary Ogilvie, Donna Reed, Sherrilyn Sinclair and Lisa Wells.

The remaining Brownies received their membership stars and the World Association pins from Mrs. Simeone and Mrs. Sobanko. The Juniors were given their stars and badges by Mrs. Sobanko and Mrs. Arthur Whiman, assistant leader of the Junior Troop.

Refreshments were served by members of the Troop's committee—Mrs. Frank Garruso, Mrs. Joseph Mooney, Mrs. Mark Reed and Mrs. Alfred Ogilvie and Mrs. Joseph Juliano.

Control Bagworms When They Hatch

Bagworms are caterpillars that carry their baglike houses around with them and feed on a variety of ornamental plants that include arborvitae, juniper, hemlock, sycamore and linden trees.

They make their spindle-shaped bags from 1 to 2 inches long and from a very strong silk. Then they cover the bags with bits of foliage from the host plants.

Overwintering takes place in the egg stage in bags attached to the host plants. Eggs hatch in June and the caterpillars immediately begin to construct their cases as they feed.

Bagworms are easier to control when they are young than later in the summer.

For control apply Sevin, chlordane, diazinon, or malathion, suggests John J. Kupcho, county agricultural agent of Essex County. Two applications at 7 to 10-day intervals may be necessary for adequate control, Mr. Kupcho says.

Transportation Commissioner Announces Bids Are Open

Transportation Commissioner John C. Kohl today announced that bids will be received July 23 on another major contract that will extend the construction of Interstate Route 295.

Carolyn Buckland, Arthur Pech Wed

St. Peter's Church was the setting May 2 for the marriage of Miss Carolyn Jean Buckland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Buckland of 197 Joralemon Street to Arthur R. Pech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Pech Sr. of Bloomfield.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles McCoster of Bayonne, a friend of the groom.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown which featured long sleeves and train. Pink satin ribbon trimmed the cuffs and adorned the front of the gown.

A floral headpiece of pink and white held her shoulder length veil.

Miss Mary Ann Buckland was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were other sisters, Miss Janice and Miss Peggy Buckland and Miss Belle Agar.

The honor attendant wore a pink silk organza gown with long sleeves and matching headpiece. The others were similarly attired in lavender. James Oates served as best man and Terrence O'Houlihan, Jerry Ritola and George Agar ushered.

A reception was held at the Robin Hood Inn, Clifton, for relatives and friends immediately following the ceremony after which the couple left for a honeymoon in Bermuda.

Mr. and Mrs. Gencarelli On European Honeymoon

The marriage of Miss Maria Carmella Guarno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guarno of 665 North 5th Street, Newark to Angelo Gencarelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raffaele Gencarelli of 17 Jeraldo Street, Belleville, took place July 11 at St. Francis Xavier Church.

The nuptial mass was followed by a reception at Hawaiian Palms, Lyndhurst. Escorted by her father, the bride wore a peau de soie and lace gown with an empire waist and long sleeves. Pearls trimmed the entire gown. A matching headpiece held her shoulder length veil.

Miss Beatrice Scarpello of Newark was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Mangione, Miss Judy Infante, Miss Dora Gencarelli and Miss Louise Gambino. Rose Mary Gencarelli, niece of the groom was flower girl.

Frank Gencarelli was best man for his brother. Ushering were Carmen Guarno, brother of the bride, Joseph Frummaro, John Di Maio and Luigi Perri. Carmen Cardella, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Gencarelli, a graduate of Barringer High School, Newark, is with General Instrument Corporation, Newark.

Mr. Gencarelli is a self employed roofer and sider.

The couple will tour Italy and other parts of Europe for six weeks and then make their home in Belleville.

SOME MEDICINES DEMAND CONTROLLED ENVIRONMENT

The atmosphere around us has become a very popular topic and air pollution, ecology, etc., have thus become very familiar terms. In a pharmacy, we have always been especially concerned with the close control of the environment because so many of the medicines we stock are susceptible to atmospheric changes.

Just as changes in heat, light, cold, humidity, most definitely affect our normal way of living, so too can they effect the life cycle or potency of a great many drugs. As a pharmacist, we must know how to best protect every medicine so that when it reaches the patient it is ready to perform as the doctor intends.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

St. Peter's Church Setting For Keating-Donlan Nuptials

Mrs. Thomas Keating-nee Barbara Donlan

Miss Barbara Ann Donlan, daughter of Mrs. John J. Donlan of Belleville and the late Mr. Donlan became the bride June 28 of Thomas John Keating of Kearny, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John George Keating.

The double ring ceremony was performed in St. Peter's Church by the Rev. Francis A. Ignacinos and was followed by a reception at The White Eagle Manor, Bloomfield.

The bride wore a gown of white silk organza fashioned with an A-line skirt, bishop sleeves and a Victorian illusion neckline. The gown and train were appliqued and edged with a Venetian lace daisy and trellis design.

She wore a matching mantilla and carried a bouquet of white roses and anemones.

Mrs. Joan Bryne of Belleville, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen Byrne of Belleville, niece of the bride and Miss Kathleen Candela of Newark.

They were attired in floor length aqua ottoman gowns with a key hole back and attached back panel. Their headpieces were clusters of daisies with an illusion veil and they carried bouquets of yellow roses and babies breath with aqua ribbon.

John George Keating of Menham, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushering were Joseph McGuire of Kearny, nephew of the groom and James Marion of West Paterson.

Mrs. Donlan chose an aqua ribbon lace dress with a matching jacket and an aqua organza turban. She had a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Keating is with the Prudential Insurance Company, Newark. Mr. Keating is with the Washington Corporation, East Orange.

The couple have made their home in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Soldo

Soldos Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Soldo of 20 King Place celebrated their golden wedding anniversary June 21 with a reception at The Fountain which was attended by over a hundred relatives and friends.

Also attending were the couple's best man and matron of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cadmus of West Keansburg who recently celebrated their own golden anniversary.

For over 30 years before their retirement in 1967, Mr. and Mrs. Soldo were the owners of Bill's Diner on Union Avenue.

The Soldos have three children, James and Rose of Belleville and Joseph of Englewood and five grandchildren.

Elizabeth Palmere, Lt. Madara Wed

Miss Elizabeth Ann Palmere, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Palmere of West Orange and Lt. Robert John Madara, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Madara of 24 Parkway Avenue, were married June 27 in St. Raphael's Church, Livingston.

The Rev. Francis Ignacinos of St. Peter's Church celebrated the Nuptial mass which was followed by a reception at Durkin's Mountain Inn, West Orange.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of white chiffon with a full skirt and long sleeves. It was trimmed with Venice lace at midriff, cuffs and neckline and woven with white velvet ribbon.

A Camelot headpiece of lace held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white daisies, sweetheart roses and babies breath.

Miss Barbara Schoener of West Orange was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the couple's sisters, Miss Catherine Palmere and Miss Maureen Madara. Flower girl was another sister, Alice Mary Palmere.

Mrs. Madara, a graduate of East Orange Catholic High School, was a junior at Seton Hall University, South Orange.

Lt. Madara, an alumnus of Essex Catholic High School and Seton Hall University, is stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas.

The couple will live in El Paso, Texas.

Mrs. Frank Rusignuolo-nee Mary Ann Kobylarz

Mary Ann Kobylarz Bride Of Frank R. Rusignuolo

Miss Mary Ann Kobylarz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kobylarz of 128 Franklin Avenue became the bride July 12 of Frank Richard Rusignuolo, son of Mrs. J. Rusignuolo of 301 Stephens Street, Belleville.

The ceremony was performed in St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Gerard Walsh. A reception was held at Wayne Manor, Wayne.

Escorted by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white organza reembroidered with ivory Alencon lace and fashioned with a mandarin neckline, empire waist, lantern sleeves and scalloped hemline.

A matching headpiece held her mantilla veil and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of daisies, baby yellow rosebuds and white roses.

Miss Jill Shafman of Springfield was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. D. Roberts of Runnemede, Mrs. J. Clement of Pleasantville, Miss Frances Scilieri of Saddle Brook and the groom's sister, Miss Lois Rusignuolo of Belleville.

They wore willow green dotted Swiss gowns trimmed with Belgium lace and green bows in their hair. The honor attendant carried a basket of yellow daisies and the others carried baskets of white and yellow daisies.

Robert Melillo of Nutley was best man. Ushers were George Weiss and Patrick Muselli of Nutley, Louis Fochesato of Newark and the groom's cousin, James Rusignuolo of Nutley.

Mrs. Kobylarz chose an apricot gown with matching Alencon lace, beads and pearls embroidered on the bodice. Her corsage was of white roses. The groom's mother was in a mint green gown with beaded bodice and had a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Rusignuolo, a graduate of Nutley High School and Glassboro State College, is a teacher in Jefferson Township.

Mr. Rusignuolo, an alumnus of Nutley High School and Monmouth College, is a salesman for Supermarket Services.

The couple are honeymooning in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Garden State Parkway Sees Trouble Ahead This Summer

More than two million vehicles moved along the Garden State Parkway over the four-day Fourth of July weekend with hardly a traffic hitch and no serious accidents, but the New Jersey Highway Authority anticipates trouble ahead this summer.

A close watch-on-the-ground and in the air was kept on the holiday traffic movement and, while congestion was confined to relatively brief periods Thursday and Friday afternoons southbound in the Raritan River area, it indicated severe sore spots.

Pelaia-Idenden Troth Has Been Announced

Miss Elaine Pelaia

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pelaia of 117 Birchwood Drive announce the engagement of their daughter, Elaine to A/C William R. Idenden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Idenden of 168 Tappan Avenue.

Miss Pelaia, a graduate of Belleville High School, is a student at Paterson State College where she is majoring in speech correction and is a member of Zeta Omicron Psi sorority.

A/C Idenden, an alumnus also of Belleville High School, is a jet engine mechanic at Shaw Air Force Base, Sumter, South Carolina. He was formerly with People's Bank of Belleville.

Auxiliary Completes A Successful Year

Mrs. Peter Johnson, of 108 Smallwood Avenue, president of American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 105, has completed her year as president; and the Auxiliary is proud of her accomplishments.

The following committee chairmen who assisted Mrs. Johnson were Child Welfare: Mrs. B. Kwiatkowski - This activity aided two needy families; and donated money to Belleville's Children's Shelter so that some of the children would be able to visit Washington, D.C. Membership: Mrs. Julia Huemer - Mrs. Huemer, past Unit president and past County president, went over the quota for membership. The Poppy Drive: Mr. P. Johnson - The poppies, made by disabled veterans, brought in a good sum of money, which will be used to aid veterans and their families. Rehabilitation: Many members joined in to help in the rehabilitation work, which is one of the main objectives of the Unit and Post.

Ward parties, a Christmas party, and birthday parties were held in E. Orange Veterans hospital. Money was donated for a party at Lyon's Veterans' hospital. Mrs. Donald Johnson, secretary, and her daughter, Junior member, Stephanie Anne, made 250 favors for the various holidays, which were delivered to East Orange Veterans hospital, and helped make the veterans' holiday dinner trays look more appetizing.

Mrs. Julia Huemer and Mrs. Peter Johnson were hostesses at the Christmas party at said hospital. Other units from Essex County assisted in serving the large crowd of veterans present. Music and refreshments gave a holiday atmosphere to the affair.

Mrs. Walter Weiss wishes to thank everyone who helped the Auxiliary by buying Dawn O'Day household products. Mrs. Weiss has been chairman of this project for about ten years. Two Junior members joined the unit, Miss Patricia LaMotta and Miss Stephanie Anne Johnson.

The Chinese Auction held in May was a big success. Mrs. Johnson reported that she had the full cooperation of the Unit and was very pleased with the results.

President Johnson attended all Unit and Essex County meetings, as well as the County Convention which was held in Livingston.

New Hope Automobile Show Planned For August Date

The Thirteenth Annual New Hope Automobile Show, the largest and most complete automobile show in the country, will take place this year on Saturday and Sunday, August 8 and 9, on the grounds of the New Hope-Solebury High School, Route 202, New Hope, Pa.

The auto show is sponsored by the New Hope-Solebury Community Association, a non-profit organization which uses the proceeds to implement their educational and recreation programs for children and adults in the area.

Troops Attend Ice Follies

On Saturday, May 23, 1970 Brownie Troop 963 and Junior Troop 938 of School No. One attended the Shipsteads and Johnsons Ice Follies at Madison Square Garden. Forty eight girls attended the show.

The highlights of the show were Peggy Fleming who received the most applause, an undersea fantasy in which sea creatures romped with a "teddy bear" and a genuine robot created by one of the show's electricians. A two-man donkey almost caused hysterics along with the ice clowns.

The girls ate their lunch at the Garden and finished off the meal with soda, cracker jacks, cotton candy, ice cream and peanuts. They were permitted to purchase souvenirs after which they departed for home.

Mrs. William Sobanko is the leader of both troops assisted by Mrs. Frank Simoneone and Mrs. Arthur Whitman. The committee women who accompanied them were Mrs. Frank Gattuso, Mrs. Mark Reed, Mrs. Joseph Mooney and Mrs. Joseph Juliano.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By Horrie Halpern

For picnic time or any time, slice a round pepperoni loaf almost through to the bottom and spread olive butter between slices. Wrap in foil and heat just before serving.

Cold summer soups are even nicer if you first chill the bowls or cups in which you plan to serve them.

But tips: eggs can be scrambled without butter if you cook them on low heat in a double boiler.

Amusements depend on interesting you for amusement. They often attract them during long church services to keep awake.

(BLOOMFIELD LOCATION)

TYPISTS - TYPISTS - TYPISTS!

We have several openings in two, different work areas. Read on, one of these might be just what you're looking for. Do you enjoy typing, and can you type accurately at 35 wpm? If so, you're just the person we're looking for. You'll be trained to type information from actual claim forms in a special way, so that it can be processed by an optical scanning machine. Sound complicated? It isn't really because you'll be trained by our instructors and earn while you learn.

We also need clerk-typists. These are jobs that entail very light typing combined with general, clerical duties in our busy processing department.

In addition to a 35-hour work week full, company-paid benefit package and scheduled salary increases.

Please come to our Personnel Department during our weekday interviewing hours, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. We are located just two blocks off Bloomfield Avenue via Newark Avenue.

Your Weekly Horoscope
July 16 thru July 22, 1970

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Firsthand experience will cut close to the bone, Ari. Physically and spiritually you should become more aware of surroundings. Your ability to combine the wisdom of your past experiences with the adaptability of your youthful outlook will be your survival kit.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You should be richly ripe in week ahead, Taurus baby, for new and exciting adventures. Guard lest you lose your essential freshness in the exhilaration of it all. Toward end of week you may be offered unasked gift. Think twice before you accept. For the cost of unsolicited gifts often runs high, in the final shuffle.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Something rare and beautiful may be presented to you before fifth day, Gem. And like the unspoiled child that you are, you will know its value immediately. It will be potent with the true meaning of life. Latch on, love.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Desire to wring somebody's neck will be overwhelming on first day of week, Moonswifter. Olga's advice is to ignore this person. They really just want your attention. Rest of week should show gradual improvement as far as day-to-day relationships are concerned. Last day of week a goody for getting romantic entanglements untangled.

LEO (July 23-August 22): You may find yourself involved in a tennis game, in week ahead, Leo my sweet, with you playing the roll of the ball. Back and forth. Swat, swat. In short, opposite forces will have you completely tickered out before week is over. However, you should have just enough bounce left in you on last day to call in replacement. Pray that replacement responds.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Comedy may turn sour on second day, Virg. Watch that crooked little mind of yours, or somebody (or something) may bend it completely out-of-shape. You long so to be liberated, Virg, and Olga does understand. But perhaps your methods are not the best. You'll never get away from your hang-ups by wishful thinking. You have to go really far out, Virg, and then re-enter.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): You may be trying to lead a life of duplicity, Libra. If so, it is Olga's duty to inform you that the old ax is about to fall. And at present time your handsome/beautiful head is right on the chopping block. Time to make a firm decision. Then for pete's sake, stick to it.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): O Scorpio, week ahead is just filled with possibilities. Business, health and romance may all be affected. Come on strong for first three days of week, but by fifth day do a fast fade-out. Hang in too long and you botch the whole deal.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Horrendous week ahead, Sag. Sorry. But old Olga must call the shots as she sees them. However, if you will just cool your little round heels, you will manage to get thru the week unscathed. On last day of week the pressure will slacken, and life will once again seem worth while.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Electrifying week Cap, remember old Olga's promise? Excitement could, with a little encouragement on your part reach the point of frenzy. Are you ready? On your mark. Get set. Go, baby, GO!

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Could be a rather smashing week, Aquarius my pet, so long as you don't allow present uncomfortable situation on domestic scene to get out of control. When attempting to get point across with mate or loved one don't resort to sledgehammer. No need. Besides, you're not the sledgehammer type. The old verbal stiletto is more your speed.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): If things seem to be out-of-joint during first part of week, Pisces honey, don't fret. By fourth day waters will clear and energy will return. Emotionally you should get a boost on fifth day. Perhaps from a Taurus or a Cap. Last two days of week are excellent for career advancement or financial dealings.

Two Final Events Held By Parents

The James G. Shawger Home and School Association held two final affairs this month, including the annual teachers' luncheon and a picnic for safety patrol youngsters.

At the teachers' luncheon, Mrs. Joseph Pepe, the school secretary, was presented with cultured pearl earrings. Michael Nardiello, Shawger principal, received a piece of luggage.

A picnic was held June 9 for the boys and girls who participated in safety patrol activities this year. The boys were given baseballs, and autographed hounds were presented to the girls.

Youths Take Over Government By Peaceful Means

to be the best.

After a luncheon which surprised us all, we went to the first of about 30 or 40 assemblies with the 883 other Boys State delegates. The lunch itself was a surprise in contrast to standard cafeteria food, in that it actually tasted good. The first assembly was basic information such as the purpose of Boys State and the procedure to be followed during the week; then we listened to one of the most prominent speakers of the week, Governor William

T. Cahill.

Gov. Cahill spoke of the news media's failure to cover the good things done by youth instead of riots, burnings, and protests. The governor then commented that "All things that are wrong are insignificant when compared to those that are right. Nowhere does a young man have such a great opportunity."

With this the governor gave the Boys Statesmen a few words of advice. "Correct what is wrong, but do it within the framework of the government."

The governor summed up his speech by saying that "for every one thing that I see wrong, I see a thousand that are right." He then received a standing ovation after encouraging all of us to go out and "Be a doer."

The rest of the first day was spent mainly on the organizing of individual cities. The first order of business was to determine the type of city government to be used.

Fillmore city had their ward meetings, and after being chosen ward chairman of Ward 2 N (second floor nationalists), I made a deal with a fellow member of the ward who wanted to become mayor. Ron Congo agreed to support me if I would help get a strong mayor-council form of government. The first "deals" in politics were started.

As temporary mayor, I helped point out the benefits of this system to the other citizens of Fillmore. In the end, Ward 2 N joined with Ward 3 N and F and Fillmore ended up with our form of government. Ron was beaten in the race for mayor, but we got together again to get him elected to the assembly, (this was after I became municipal chairman and county vice-chairman of the Nationalist Party.)

These elections for city officials were held the second night and throughout the day. All the while we had to remember that the issues were not the most important fact, but rather the idea that we were expressing ourselves by working inside the processes that had been set up for us in the Constitution.

Monday morning we went to the first of our schools of instruction. Important men in various fields, including law, public safety, education, agriculture, and other city county, and state departments, told us of the workings of each and how to get ahead while getting and giving the best from your job.

On Tuesday the first meeting of the county party was held, and the city officials carried out the details of their jobs.

Before getting organized all statesmen received instructions on county government so that all could realize what was going on and apathy wouldn't overcome any one of us. Also included was the preparation for electing the assembly and senate.

At the first county caucus candidates were chosen for offices such as senate, assembly, freholder, surrogate, clerk, sheriff, etc. My county faced a serious problem. With three cities, Vandenberg county had sixty more boys for our candidates to seek votes from, and thus more primary candidates.

Monday night we found another problem at the state Nationalist Party meeting. County Number One (Ziegler's county), had joined with county Number Two to get Number One's man elected state chairman. All the other counties had two cities and they felt that Vandenberg County Number Six with three cities would control the state.

Tuesday, each candidate spoke of getting Vandenberg back on top. In running for the senate, I made this my main point, but was beaten by two Federalists and another Nationalist who had concentrated on the issues of the nation rather than those of our county.

Much of my time from Tuesday afternoon on was taken by my job as Secretary of the Nationalist Party. But Tuesday night I still put in my application for governor.

Wednesday morning at 6:20 a.m., I received two sheets of paper from city counselor Gil Villanueva, and was told to make sure I had forty Nationalists signatures by 8:15 that morning.

It may seem easy, but from my own city where there were 33 Nationalists, there also were two Nationalist candidates. From every other city there was at least one, and it took a ten minute debate candidate to get him to drop out of the primary race and give me his 10 names to add to the 35 I already had.

He finally gave in a 8:10, and in five minutes I had to race around Rider's campus finding the ten kids who had signed his petition.

At 8:14 I had 42 signatures. I sprinted over to the election headquarters, and just before the man in charge had finished saying, "No more petitions will be accepted," I had mine on the table. It was sometime around the end of the word "petition" that my 42 signatures hit the formica top.

At 8:20 the entire Nationalist Party started filing into the Gym. Only six statesmen were on our party's primary slate, and all of us had to give a speech. Since my petition was the last to be received, my name was on top and my speech was the first to be given.

Did I say speech? Please pardon me, a speech generally is written and prepared before it is given, mine was more like an extemporaneous talk on how I felt Boys State could pass laws to show the "Establishment" what we saw wrong, without having disorder.

The rest of the day must have gone easily for anyone not running for Governor. Schools of instruction were as usual; the legislature organized; representatives from West Point, Annapolis, and the Air Force Academy gave short speeches on their schools; lunch was at 11:57; the directors of admissions from Rutgers, Newark State, and Union College told of how to apply for college, and other routine things (for Boys State at least) were done.

For those candidates in both parties primaries, it was a continued day of racing around for votes, telling people why you should be elected, and trying to make as many deals as many votes as possible while giving away as little as possible.

Thursday was the big day for the primary. After breakfast and schools of instruction, every one went into the gym and registered to vote by party. At noon the word was out, the Federalists had rallied behind Rex Estilow, and the Nats behind Jevon Thompson. Oh well back to working as party secretary.

As the State Executive Council Albert Brown, Al Cuiffo, Mike Terrizzi, and I tried to set up a platform for the Nationalist Party, but we ran into a few problems. Differences of opinion on various state and national affairs led to one conclusion: the Nationalist Party would have a platform to be made up by the candidate and his aides.

This was before the primary, and when we met as a group to have the party vote on what ideas should be included in the platform, the problem that the four of us had was multiplied by one hundred. Four hundred Nationalists seemed to have 400 different views. So the idea for the platform to be made by the winner of the primary was accepted.

Thursday night, Jevon had put together his ideas, and presented them to the party. I'm sure the Federalists had the same problem, but ours seemed quite acute. While all of the boys who thought we were doing it wrong voiced their opinions, Jevon found that his stand should be his own, no solution would tie the party together completely.

Friday was the day of reckoning, at least for the parties.

At 8:30 the entire state met again and held their last rally for the candidates. After the rally, the candidates gave their major speeches, Rex proclaiming that his platform was sound, and Jevon, the second speaker, seemingly echoing Rex.

The Senate and Assembly met for their first session and passed bills, while the rest of the citizens went back to the cities for meetings. The candidates made their rounds to each city to get votes.

At 10:45 polls opened, and the 886 statesmen cast their ballots. Before lunch, it was announced that Rex Estilow had been elected Governor of the 25th Jersey Boys State, and all differences were forgotten. 886 boys backed Rex.

For the rest of the day, politics were forgotten, different views were dropped, party differences were dissolved.

When The Boys State met at 7:30 for the inauguration, the boys, each and every one of them stood up to cheer Rex. The unity shown was something that we all felt would be nice to see in progress today. No matter what we felt during the election, we were together again as the nation should be. An impressive flag ceremony, of which Charley Ziegler was a part, helped prove to us that what we had learned was that apathy was something that hurt our government, and that all citizens could work together, and if they did, the nation would be a much better place.

One might say that Saturday was anticlimatic in respect to activity, but it was the day that the city officials got their chance to show us how a court worked.

Prosecutors and defense lawyers tried to be as serious as possible in presenting their dreamed up cases to a supposedly impartial judge. The work of a court was carried out separately in each dorm, and we all got a chance to watch the work of a city court.

The afternoon was spent preparing to go home, and cleaning up the dorms to leave them as neat, if not neater, than we found them.

The final ceremony was the graduation. Commander Thomas J. Keane, retired from the U.S. Navy, gave a speech to the graduates telling us of his experiences. He served in both world wars, and was in charge of major attacks in the Pacific. The effect of his speech was strong on the boys, as they spontaneously broke into "God Bless America" when he was finished.

The final session of the 25th Boys State was closed by the man who through 25 years has done a lot to help our American government. Without influencing the delegates one way or another Chief Eaton has convinced us that for America to continue to be free we must work actively, no matter what our views.

Play Areas Set To Be Resurfaced

The local school board has announced it is advertising for bids to resurface the play areas at School's One, Three, Five, Seven, Eight and Ten. The project will also include driveway and curb replacement at School Eight.
