

One Day Mail

FOR BELLEVILLE — James Ricci, superintendent of the Belleville Branch of the Post Office explains the new Belleville "Only" mail box in front of the Post Office to Patricia Biagimi of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company in town. Mail deposited in this box by 4:30 p.m. is assured of delivery the next day. Mail deposited will be sorted in Belleville and quickly distributed throughout Belleville.

At Municipal Stadium

Discotheque Opening Scheduled For Tonight

"Our Place I" is set for its grand opening tonight in the Municipal Stadium. An open invitation is extended to all of Belleville's younger set to visit the town's first teenage discotheque sometime this evening.

The doors to the "former refreshment stand" will open at 7 p.m. and music, food and dancing will be featured until 11 p.m.

First begun as an idea by the Belleville Youth Council only two short months ago, about 20 local teens have been working feverishly the last two weeks to make "Our Place I" a reality.

The establishment, first of its kind ever in Belleville, has been completely redecorated in a stripe design with splashes of fluorescent paint and "camp posters" lining the walls. Cafe tables have been provided and a food stand is set up for the hungry teen. A juke box will supply the latest music for teens using the dance floor.

Admission is free and the discotheque will be open evenings Monday through Saturday. One adult chaperon will be assigned nightly to the

Churches Set Bible Lessons

Two Belleville churches have formed a joint vacation bible school for local youngsters.

The Zion Union American Methodist Episcopal Church has united its ministry and church school faculty with that of the Belleville Reformed Church.

The program, which began last week, features classes for different age groups from 9 a.m. until noon, Monday through Friday. During classes, children participate in song periods, arts and crafts, bible study and recreation, with refreshments served daily.

Pastors J.D. Douglas of Zion U.A.M.E. Church and Pastor Robert O. Shaver of Belleville Reformed Church who will direct the joint effort, have asked that any adults interested in assisting the program contact them. The numbers to call for this purpose and for registration information is: Pastor Douglas, 759-7358 or 744-7589; Pastor Shaver, 759-0616, or 751-1930.

Former Bellboy Grid Star To Get Head Coach Position

By John Bunevich

A 35-year-old former Bellboy varsity grid star will be named head coach for this year's high school football team. The Belleville Board of Education is expected to ratify his appointment this Monday night during a special meeting at School 8.

Rocco Cafone of Fairfield, presently an assistant grid coach at Upsala College, was selected by the Board last Monday night after a special caucus that lasted until the early morning hours of Tuesday. Eight other applicants for the job were interviewed during the evening and after several secret ballots the board finally decided on Cafone.

Athletic Director Herman Wische and School Superintendent Anthony Grecco refused to comment on Cafone's appointment. Both officials took a "wait until Monday" attitude. But the majority of the board is expected to pass the resolution.

Cafone is a teacher-counselor at Seventh Avenue Junior High School in Newark where he is a department head of business administration.

Born and raised on King Street in Belleville, Cafone was a 1953 high school graduate here. He was a star quarterback for the 1950-53 varsity Bellboys and was named captain of the squad in his senior year. He played under former grid coach Ed Belinski.

Cafone has been coaching for 11 years at Upsala College where he was a defensive backfield specialist for the varsity squad. He has coached at Upsala College since 1959.

A former Upsala College graduate, he earned a bachelor of science degree in accounting and business administration from there. Cafone played varsity football at Upsala from 1955-58 as a quarterback and was named offensive captain during his senior year. He accepted a coaching job at that school only one year after his graduation.

BELLEVILLE RACE — A bus load of Belleville residents recently traveled to Green Mountain Raceway, Pawnee, Vt., where the feature race of the day was dedicated and named the Belleville County Committee Purse. A silver trophy was presented to R.L. Bowman, owner of winning horse, Rushing

Flicks Are Set For Boys

The Belleville Public Library is sponsoring a movie hour for boys next Thursday, at 10 a.m. The same program will also be held at the Silver Lake Branch Library this Wednesday, at the same time.

The films include "Watersports Champs," a ten minute movie of teenage water skiing champions and "World Champions of Pro Football-Super Bowl 1968" starring Joe Namath.

The highlight of the program is the silent version of the classic horror film "Dr. Jeckel and Mr. Hyde."

State Officials Blamed

Belleville Is Denied Youth Corps Program

Belleville teens seeking summer employment are in for a big disappointment. For the first time in three years the town will be without the state run Youth Corps program.

Commissioner Mary V. Senatore learned this week of Trenton's decision to bypass Belleville in favor of beginning the youth program in Orange, Montclair and East Orange.

"The town was once again shortchanged by the officials in Trenton," she said. "We have had the Youth Corps here for the last two years but despite many actions Belleville has been bypassed."

The state program last year in Belleville supplied summer jobs to more than 50 local teens. Employment was funded by the state for the youngsters. Jobs were offered for work in every branch of the Belleville government as part of the program.

Commissioner Senatore charged that Trenton didn't even send a representative this year to Belleville to evaluate the need for summer jobs for local youths.

"I was told by a representative in the Community Affairs Department in Trenton that there would be an evaluation," she added. "But this year they didn't even do that."

The commissioner pointed out that the state representatives in this area failed in their duty to this year elevate the problems of jobs for youth in Belleville.

"Each year, before election, the state representatives running for office promise everything for the youth," she said. "But after they are elected they forget their promises and vote only for monies to go to the six largest cities in the area, completely forgetting the youth of our town."

Commissioner Senatore suggested that Belleville residents write to their state representatives now serving in Trenton to make the assemblymen aware of Belleville's dissatisfaction.

Hospital Reveals Admission Totals

Albin H. Oberg, executive director, announced that there have been 27,060 Belleville residents admitted to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital since it moved into town from 1957 through 1969. This figure does not include emergency room, other out-patient visits or infants born at the Hospital.

In 1969 alone, 2,758 (or one of every fourteen) residents of Belleville were admitted to Clara Maass.

Statistics recently released by the Hospital and Health Council of Metropolitan New Jersey indicate that the incidence of admissions to hospitals of Belleville residents is about the same as the national average of one out of every eight persons per year.

This means that for a family of four, one member will be hospitalized every two years. Stated otherwise, the average person can expect to be hospitalized once in every eight years.

The statistics of course include persons ranging from those who have never been hospitalized in their lives to those who are hospitalized several times a year.

"Clara Maass Memorial Hospital is proud of its service to the people of Belleville, and is grateful for their support over the years", Oberg stated.

High School Band Trip To Canadian Province Is Termed Successful

By Susan Kellenbence

On June 23, 1970, at about 6:30 in the morning, the internationally famous Belleville High School Band, twirlers, and color guard began a memorable trip through New York State and Canada. Under the direction of their band director "Uncle Bobby" Wing, they entertained hospitals and tourists visiting "Man and His World," the former "Expo."

After traveling for the entire morning, this group of very school spirited teenagers arrived at the DeWitt Ranch

Motel in Syracuse, New York. Here they rested until 6 p.m. when they boarded the buses for the Syracuse Home for Mental Hygiene. The children and adults there enjoyed one of the great concerts for which Belleville's band is known. A concert for the handicapped not only brings enjoyment to the audience, but warmth to the hearts of the performers.

The next day, the group left for Belleville, Ontario, at 9:30 a.m. After arriving at Albert College, a beautiful landmark of the city, they were escorted to City Hall. Here they were greeted by the mayor and other city officials. Also present was our own mayor, Kenneth Smith and his wife.

Each student was given the honor of signing the official city register and was presented with a pamphlet of the surrounding area and a record of Belleville, Ontario's musical group.

Raymond O. Smith, principal of Belleville High School and one of the chaperones of the trip, was

Discovery Of 1967 Civil Suit Leads To Rutan Estates Repair

Construction Now Underway On Sidewalks And Curbs

Sunken sidewalks and crumbling curbs in the Rutan Estates section of Belleville are now under repair by the Public Works Department. Funds for the work are being supplied by a little known civil suit settlement dating back to 1967.

Commissioner Mary V. Senatore recently discovered the civil case of the Town of Belleville versus The Continental Casualty Company after she received a telephone call from a Rutan Estates resident. This led to repair work being initiated.

"A resident of the area told me of the suit," explained the commissioner. "So I reviewed the case docket and discovered that work on the curbs and sidewalks in the area could be done by men in the Public Works Department."

A private contractor installed the curbs and sidewalks at the Rutan Estates when the homes were being built in the early 1960's. After a few years the sidewalks began to sink or crack and the curbs started crumbling. The Belleville government ruled that the construction was inferior and brought a suit against the Continental Casualty Co., the representative of the Rutan Estates builder.

In 1967 a settlement of $3,500 to be slated for repair work was agreed to in civil court. What then was the town council form of government drew up a resolution approving the final settlement.

"But work was never initiated by the past administration," commented Commissioner Senatore. "It wasn't until I reviewed the court docket that work was begun."

The commissioner last week assigned a work crew full-time to repair the sidewalks and curbs. The crew consists of three regular employees and two summer helpers who are spending eight hours per day on the job.

"We expect to have the work completed within two weeks," added the commissioner.

All totaled, sidewalks and curbs in front of over 40 homes in the Rutan Estates section of town will be repaired.

Commissioner Senatore said that she has received many phone calls recently inquiring which homes will have their sidewalks repaired. She explained that only those addresses listed on the court case docket will be corrected.

"Residents of the area who have any further questions may call the Public Works Department for an explanation," she added.

Businessmen Sworn In To Power Squad Posts

Belleville businessman William James and Newark businessman Jack H. Hammell were sworn in recently as Officers of the Northern New Jersey Power Squadron, a unit of the United States Power Squadrons.

Recently elected Executive Officer William James has been an active member of the Squadron for ten years. A Montclair resident, he is Comptroller of the Ever Ready label Corporation in Belleville.

Recently elected Administrative Officer Jack H. Hammell has given much of his time and energy to the Squadron during his 14 years of membership. A Belleville resident, he is treasurer of The Highton Company in Newark.

Rescue Squad Captain Presents Aid Cards

Douglas Weir of Overlook Avenue, Belleville, captain of the Hoffman-La Roche First Aid Squad, recently presented certification cards to members of the Squad upon completion of a heart-lung resuscitation course given by the Essex County Heart Association.

Training in this resuscitation technique, a community service program of the Essex County Heart Association which has been given to more than 300 persons during the past year, can literally mean the difference between life and death to the victim of a heart attack.

The eight-hour course provides instruction in mouth-to-mouth breathing and chest compression; and these measures speedily applied to a victim of drowning, electrical shock, suffocation or drug reaction, or heart attack, can keep the patient alive.

Dr. Theodore Camiscio, clinical instructor of medicine, Martland Hospital; Frank Intelisano, director of health and welfare of West Orange, Paul Lipyanek, instructor for the Heart Association and Samuel Cherasaro, R.N., New Jersey State Department of Health, members of the Essex County Heart Association "team" provided the training for this course.

Zinicola Company Gets Local Order

Zinicola Baking Company of Nutley has been awarded a contract to furnish submarine rolls to the Belleville Junior and Senior High School cafeterias.

The Belleville Board of Education approved the order at its last regularly scheduled meeting in June. Zinicola's price was 54 cents per dozen, the lowest bid submitted, Board officials said.

Scarlet Cadets Honored

The popular Scarlet Cadets recently held their annual picnic outing at the Joseph J. Carbat Post 299 American Legion Home in Belleville.

During presentation ceremonies at the annual affair, district trustee Pat De Angelis presented the corps with a first place trophy for their participation in the VFW Loyalty Day Parade recently held in Irvington.

Belleville Public Works Commissioner Mary V. Senatore was also on hand to present a proclamation by Mayor Kenneth D. Smith for a Scarlet Cadet Week in town.

School Body Gives Ice Cream Order

Oak Point Dairies has been awarded a contract to furnish Armel French Ice Cream to the Belleville Junior and Senior High School cafeterias next year.

The contract order was approved this month by the Belleville Board of Education, which said Oak Point's following prices were the lowest submitted by bid: 68 cents per dozen ice cream sundae cups, each three and a half ounces; 70 cents per dozen for three and a half ounces ice cream sandwiches, and 62 cents per dozen for chocolate covered ice cream bars, each three fluid ounces on a stick.

Freedom of the press involves more than a publishers' right to print propaganda for the owner.

Snappy remarks are often senseless utterances.

most expensive item needed for "Our Place" is a strobe light.

"Future plans include charging a small admission charge for a short time, so we can by the strobe," she said. "We also are planning to have special concerts featuring live rock groups during the summer."

The only entrance to the discotheque will be through the stadium hallways. Parking for the dances will be permitted in the high school parking lot and lights will illuminate the area.

Annette said that more than 20 different teens worked with her on the project at one time or another and there were about eight regulars reporting for work at the stadium daily.

Bread Contract Given By Board

The Bond Baking Company, has been awarded a contract to furnish bread and rolls to the Belleville Junior and Senior High School cafeterias for the coming school year.

The Belleville Board of Education, which approved the contract order, said Bond's prices were the lowest bid submitted. The list of prices includes 42 cents for each 30 ounce white bread loaf; 44 cents per dozen of small Kaiser Rolls which are 15 ounces per dozen; 20 cents per package of hamburger rolls which come eight per package, and 19 cents for frankfurter rolls, eight per package.

Band Trip To Canada

given a book about Canada for the school library, and band director Wing was presented with a pair of cufflinks engraved with Belleville, Ontario's City seal.

Following this very friendly greeting, the band was escorted to a picnic area where they were to perform for the Dairy Princess Festival. Before, however, they were given a delicious farmland dinner. Finally when the time arrived for the competition which would directly proceed the concert, the weather changed and the "raindrops came falling on their heads."

The Dairy Princess Competition continued, but the band was taken to a large hall where the winner of the contest was announced and they played to an audience of about one thousand people. The listeners were most enthusiastic and seemed to heartily enjoy the solos by Larry Spinelli, President of the Band, and the songs by the well known musical combo, "The Knights", who very different from some young groups of today, can play not only rock and soul, but slow, music for any mood, d, music.

The following day the band traveled to Montreal and spent a rest day in a very modern motel in the area. On Friday, however, they went back to work and performed at "Man and His World."

Because their performance took place in an outside band shell, many people just walking by could be entertained by the melodious singing, the talented dancing by the twirlers, the strict rife work of the Color Guard, of the great hits of the dance band.

Saturday, the band headed for home; sad at the prospect of ending a very enjoyable "band year", but enthusiastic about the upcoming band banquet.

Mayor Lindsay's New York

Returning to New Jersey from New York the other evening with three of my North Jersey District Water Supply Commission colleagues we traveled along 55th Street. Between 6th and 9th Avenues we were obliged to stop for red lights. Would you believe that no less than 22 girls gave us the "eye?" They were standing there — on each street corner — north, east, south and west. Police prowler cars were moving in the other direction without so much as a glance or hesitation when their cars came abreast of the girls.

These girls are permitted to ply their wares on the public streets of New York City with the obvious acquiescence of Mayor Lindsay and his administration.

If the Mayor is going to sanction prostitution on the public streets of New York City then for the sake of society Lindsay should take the initiative and legalize — for New York City anyway — a profession as old as the world.

At least it can be said for legalized prostitution that the number of disease carriers would be reduced substantially. One of the alarming increases in social problems is the almost unlimited spread of syphilis and gonorrhea. Statistics recently released rate these problems on a par with drug addiction. Public officials in New York City and throughout the nation must recognize that to combat a problem one cannot look the other way.

The sooner we face facts as they are — and call a thing as it is — and be honest with ourselves — the sooner this world of ours will be a better place in which to live.

Frank A. Orechio

About Those Minis

In the United States and other countries the minicar seems to be the coming thing. Both General Motors and Ford are scrambling for the market already; their products will be offered to the public in September.

In Germany one manufacturer has a car which can be carried in the trunk or on top of a larger car, partly (and easily) disassembled. When the motorist reaches a metropolitan area he can park the large car and assemble and drive the small, very light mini.

Some cities are offering free bus transportation to those who will park cars on the outskirts thus easing traffic congestion. In New York and other cities some major streets are being closed to all automobiles on certain days.

The mini is a badly needed development in the fight against growing traffic congestion. It runs cheaper, parks easier, maneuvers better and gets about quicker. For cities it is logically the coming thing.

Dubcek And Communism

The announcement that Alexander Dubcek, former Czechoslovakian party and government leader, has been expelled from the party, following his dismissal as Czechoslovakian ambassador to Turkey, is proof that reactionaries have gained firm control in Prague.

It is also new proof that any free thought, deviation from the official Moscow "religion," cannot be tolerated by doctrinaire Communists. With the brute power of the Russian Army backing them up, reactionaries in Czechoslovakia have now crushed their free-thinking colleagues.

Until the world is free of the type of mental tyranny which condemns men for honest disagreement, which punishes them for deviations (as heretics), the universal goal of freedom is threatened. The Czechoslovakian "inquisition" is the latest refutation, if one be needed, of the arguments of international Communists and revolutionaries and anarchists, of the advantages of state control in the name of the people.

Belleville Bulletin Board

The Times-News publishes the Town Bulletin Board as a public service, not only to assist individuals in planning social calendars, but as an effort toward eliminating conflicting dates among local organizations. Club secretaries and program chairmen wishing to clear a date for a future activity may call the Times-News at 759-3200.

There is no charge for the Bulletin Board listing, but events should be limited to those of general interest. Be sure to mention date, time and place for each event being listed.

Listings for the Town Bulletin Board must be submitted to The Times-News two weeks in advance of publication.

REVIEW: Seton Hall's 'Wait Until Dark'

By Beth Fitzgerald

"Wait Until Dark," a drama by Frederick Knott, will conclude a two week run tonight, Friday and Saturday at Seton Hall University's Summer Theatre-in-the-Round. Directed by Gilbert L. Rathbun, it stars Frank McCormick of Belleville as con-man, Mike Talman and Nutleyite Ruth Fost as the blind Susy Hendrix. The show, which flopped on Broadway and as a motion picture, did not fare much better in the hands of the Seton Hall student cast.

The entire two act production takes place in an immaculate Greenwich Village basement apartment boasting a set of copper Jello-molds and a Persian rug. The action centers around the attempts of three hoods to gain possession of a doll filled with heroin.

Frank McCormick is fair as Mike Talman, a luckless individual who gets involved in a murder immediately upon being paroled. His henchman, Sgt. Carlino, is played by Al Fetske, who bears a striking resemblance to Art Carney and is adequate as the witless heavy. Both characterizations seem isolated while they should flow into one another; I found myself paying more attention to the actors' diction and the volume of the dialogue than to what was being said.

I thought the best performances were delivered by Ruth Fost as Susy, and Michael Burg as Harry Roat, Jr. Ruth was excellent as the blind Susy, who had lost her sight only six months before, yet had already developed such an acute sense of hearing that she could distinguish the different walks of her unseen foes and eventually unravel their conspiracy. Burg, an amusing and versatile actor, is called upon to change his identity a number of times, starting out as a Jewish rug peddler and ending up as the Boston strangler. These two saved the play—for me, at least—in the final scene, in which they grapple in the dark for a knife. Ruth was convincingly hysterical, meeting the deranged murderer on her own terms in the darkened apartment. Burg's maniacal laugh was reminiscent of Snidley Whiplash; I almost expected to see poor Susy tied to a railroad track. A feeling of suspense was actually created and sustained, in spite of a predictable ending.

Eleven-year-old Ruth Ann Rathbun has some funny lines as a neurotic juvenile-delinquent type who rearranges the furniture in the blind woman's apartment and takes a gleeful interest in the harrowing situation, wishing something like it "would happen every day."

"Wait Until Dark" is the second of three Seton Hall summer offerings. The first was "Celebration" by Tom Jones and Harry Smith, authors of "The Fantasticks." The third production, "You Know I Can't Hear You When The Water's Running" will open July 30.

Boat Fare Across The Passaic: Ten Cents

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

On July 20, 1970, Neil Armstrong, an American Astronaut, invaded the privacy of the moon. Some twenty minutes later, Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin radioed back to millions of earth people the discovery of purple rock on what had always been the silver moon of lovers. Was something of the beauty of moon wonder lost? The Times contacted town clergymen, business and political leaders to comment on the moon landing. A sense of pride was the sentiment most expressed.

Bruce M. Creditor, of 25 Wilber Street, an All-State musician, received two outstanding honors for his musical talent. He was accepted as a member of the Youth Symphony Orchestra of New York, which had three concerts scheduled for the season at Carnegie and Philharmonic Halls, and he was granted a Low Clarinet Scholarship to attend the renowned National Music Camp of Interlochen, Michigan.

Little known facts about Belleville's history such as the world's first steam boat having sailed on the Passaic River eight years before John Fulton's did were unfolded before local Rotarians by Allan Crisp, town historian and founder of the Belleville Historical Society.

Five Years Ago

The Chamber of Commerce filed suit in Essex County Superior Court against the Town of Belleville demanding that the controversial license fee ordinance be declared unconstitutional, illegal and invalid.

The suit also stipulated that the Town repay any and all fees paid by local merchants.

Belleville's "Operation Head Start" was off to a slow start. Apathy by some low-income parents and minor red-tape snarls hampered the initial activities of the first North Essex Campaign of the "War on Poverty." Only four pre-schoolers greeted their three teachers at the beginning of the eight-week program designed to prevent "culturally deprived" youngsters from becoming future drop-outs.

Linda Strack was named editor-in-chief of the 1966 Monad, the high school year book. Gail Cronauer and Diane Riha were appointed assistant editors. JoAnn Del Corso was art editor and Marie De Meo, typing editor.

Len Luongo was Belleville Post 105's representative on the 1965 Essex All-Star team chosen by the league coaches. It was the second straight year that Luongo had been selected for the 20 man team.

Ten Years Ago

The 1960 Essex County Heart Fund Drive, which officially ended June 30, was an outstanding success, according to Thomas Allsopp, general chairman. Funds raised in Belleville, not including memorials and bequests, amounted to $4,118.79 as compared with $4,387.20 in 1959.

Vandalism on school-owned property was a cause of much concern in the high circles of the Belleville Board of Education. Three methods of combatting the vandalism had been discussed by the Board. First was the installation of an ultra-sonic alarm system which had been made available by the W. Kidde Co. of Belleville. The second method under study was the hiring of a private detective agency to patrol school property during the evening hours. The Third alternative was to prosecute the vandals in court and hold parents responsible for property damage.

Thomas McDermott, veteran bus operator who was familiarly known as "The Ambassador" to residents of Belleville and Nutley using the No. 15 bus line, retired on pension after 47 years of service.

Nutley Commissioner Edgar Wright, director of Public Affairs, informed the Belleville commission that Richard Fellers, Nutley Health officer, had asked the Bureau of Industrial Health in Trenton to send a State Public Health Engineer to investigate the complaints of East Centre Street residents about odors emanating from the drying towers of the Electro-Technical Products Division.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Belleville citizens announced as selectees for the Board of Directors of the Belleville-Nutley tuberculosis association were: Mrs. Lawrence Willette, Miss Mae Watson, Ronald G. Brunner, Elwood P. Russell, Milo Salters and James Leonard.

Lieutenant-Colonel Fred J. Reese of 254 Joralmon Street was designated officer in charge of the fieldinvestigative branch of the War Department office of dependency benefits in Newark.

Forty Years Ago

John F. Coogan took office as acting Tax Assessor for Belleville replacing James L. Davidson.

To facilitate crossing of the Passaic River during the closing of the Rutgers Street bridge for reflowing, eight youths of the town took to rowing passengers across the river in rowboats. The price was ten cents a passenger.

Plans for the widening of Franklin Avenue from 20 to 40 feet from Belleville Avenue to Harrison Street, Nutley, were passed by the county freeholders.

Fifty Years Ago

The Town Commission passed a resolution conveying the town's best wishes to Mike Devaney, who had left for Europe to take part in the International Olympic competitions as a member of the American team.

Town Classified As Suburban By Residents

QUESTION: Would you classify our town as an urban center or a suburban area?

ASKED: Of Nutley and Belleville citizens.

William Schwier, 558 Franklin Avenue, Nutley:

I think Nutley is definitely a suburban town. I don't think it has the problems of a city, and the people are different than city people. I've been in Nutley 10 years and came from Belleville. Even though these two communities are bordering each other, there is a world of difference. The people in Nutley are friendlier. The merchants in town also seem to care more. I'm sure the town government here has some problems not unlike a city such as Newark but they are doing their best to cope with them.

Mrs. Fiore Pastena, 248 Washington Avenue, Belleville:

I would say that Belleville is more of a suburban town more on the order of Nutley or Bloomfield rather than being an urban center such as Newark. I run a candy store on Washington Avenue and most of the people that come in are friendly and quiet as compared to city people. I think there may be some problems here in town that are similar to a city such as Newark but the Commission does the best it can. You can't keep a problem such as drugs out of any town, whether it is urban or suburban.

Mrs. Michael Giansanti, 198 Walnut Street, Nutley:

I'm really not that familiar with Nutley since it's only two weeks since I've been here, but I think it has a suburban atmosphere. I came here from Belleville and there is a difference between the two towns. The people here are friendlier. But both places are suburban as compared to a large city. I come from a large city in Germany so towns like Nutley and Belleville seem sort of 'in the middle' from a large center and a small German village. In Germany, the villagers would have to travel to a large city for most items. But in towns like Nutley and Belleville, you can buy most of these things just a few blocks from home.

Mrs. Edwin Geldart, 242 Washington Avenue, Belleville:

I would say that Belleville is more urban than suburban. The town is more like a city with the problems of a city. When you are this close to a place like Newark, you are bound to get some of their problems. I came here from Bloomfield about three years ago and think a town like Bloomfield is more on the suburban line. There is too much industry and stores in this town to classify it as a suburb. It's almost apart of Newark. I'm sure the government here is doing something about these problems but they aren't easy to solve. I was happier in Bloomfield.

TO TAKE a direct flight from Newark to Fort Lauderdale I was obliged to fly National's 123 Friday night. And what a mistake that was. It took me only 14 minutes to drive from Nutley to the Newark airport. I went direct to the National departure lounge and waited in the sweltering heat for about 45 minutes for the ticket agent to make his belated appearance. He apologized profusely for his tardiness and then proceeded to ask me for my ticket. I turned over the ticket to him and without so much as an "hello" he asked me to step aside while he processed all the other passengers. It seems that I neglected to check in at the terminal ticket counter, a step not required by Eastern. If he had an ounce of brains in his head all he had to do was pick up the phone and confirm the fact that my ticket was in order and my reservation was firm.

Instead he had me stewing for another 15 minutes while he wrote up boarding passes for the other passengers. I didn't ask him for his name because I don't want to remember it. Eventually I was given a boarding pass and assigned seat 6A. On board the plane, much to my surprise, there was no seat 6A. I learned later seats 6A and 6B were eliminated to provide a service counter for the stewardesses to serve first class passengers. The stupidity of the departure lounge ticket clerk was offset by the intelligent and solicitous handling of passengers by four eager-beaver stewardesses, Sandy Lemon, the senior, Brenda D. Berry, who was scheduled to be married the next day, and the two gals serving the AFT cabin, Grace Caschera and Colleen Colechon. Grace's boyfriend is Jeff Lutz, a University of Miami law student whose father Jack, is the boss at Learnard Chevrolet in Belleville.

Sandy's close friend, Mrs. Marti Gremer is a special customer representative for National at its Newark airport facility.

The weather in Fort Lauderdale was beautiful this weekend. There were no crowds to speak of on the beach and best of all, there were very few cars on the road. Quite a contrast from the Jersey shore.

Because of the convenience of the departure hour I took another chance on National, boarding flight 124 for the return trip to Newark. There must be a wedding "virus" hanging around National planes. The senior stewardess on Flight 124, Kathy Herring, is all set to be married August 1. Despite the excitement over her upcoming wedding Kathy did everything in her power to make the plane trip pleasant for passengers. In this respect she was ably assisted by Phyllis Harris who seemed to be unusually serious when she demonstrated the emergency water landing procedures and safety gear.

IT WAS ABRAHAM LINCOLN who said: "You cannot bring prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred. You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich. You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

Bill Searle, the Nutley GOP boss, tells the one about the grave digger, absorbed in his thoughts, dug the grave so deep he couldn't get out. Came nightfall and the evening chill, his predicament became more and more uncomfortable. He shouted for help and at last attracted the attention of a drunk. "Get me out of here," he shouted, "I'm cold." The drunk looked into the grave and finally distinguished the form of the uncomfortable grave digger. "No wonder you're cold," he said "You haven't any dirt on you."

Charlie Nunzio, one of the world's most famous accordionists, tells the one about Anton Rubenstein, the famous pianist, who once gave a young woman an audience. She played the piano for him for a while, and then paused to receive the great man's verdict. "What do you think I ought to do now?" she asked. After a silence of a few minutes "Get married" was Rubenstein's reply.

Ronnie Roll, our production department man-of-all-trades, tells the one he heard from his judge friend who was presiding in a New York City court. It seems that the morning after one of those usual midnight Harlem raids a black cutie faced an irate judge. "Did you get cut in the fracas?" he asked her, as she looked all battered up. "No your honor," she replied "A little nearer the navel."

One of our local bankers tells the one about a check given to Blondie by her sugar daddy in the early stage of a party, was sent back from the bank marked: "Insufficient fun."

I WAS PLEASANTLY surprised with a nonscheduled visit from our friend and Nutley's most outstanding native son, Brigadier General John R. Jannarone, Dean at West Point Military Academy. Johnny was accompanied by his pretty daughter, Dottie who was standing by for a TV telecast. Dottie is transferring from Wesleyan to Princeton University. Hope he does it again, soon.

MIDI vs. MAXI - which side are you on? My decision was made for me the other night while dining at Fort Lauderdale's International Club. Miami Herald's production genius Tom Corcoran, Jackie Gleason's scenery expert Phil Cuoco and our spouses were sitting at ringside when a discotheque trio took over and to the dance floor marched this tall lovely creature wearing a see-thru maxi. For the rest of the evening Tom, Phil and I sat at ringside taking in the view. We all approved of the maxi - the see-thru style, especially when worn over a flesh colored, one piece body "stocking."

Dining recently at New York's Les Champs restaurant was New York State Human Rights Commissioner Bob Magum who is quite a conversationalist. Up front at the bar was entertainer Billy Daniels, a friend and admirer of Everett Morrison, whose voice should be heard at the Metropolitan Opera. I don't know what Les Champs would do without its genial, hospitable Maitre D' Jerry Zell.

Recently, former Essex Republican Chairman Andy Axtell was sworn in as a Commissioner of the Port of New York Authority. The ceremonies were held at the Authority's administration office at Port Newark. Andy was sworn in by Essex County Assignment Judge James Giuliano who is a Superior Court Judge. The programs for the affair were printed with Jimmy Giuliano assigned the title of Supreme Court Judge. Well, there is nothing wrong with that idea - as a matter of fact Jimmy should have been promoted to the top bench a long time ago. Judge Giuliano is rounding out 25 years of service as an Assistant Prosecutor and a member of the States Judiciary System. He is among the most able judges in the nation.

Attending the Axtell ceremonies were the following Nutleyites: Ruth and Stanley Bedford, New Jersey Turnpike Vice Chairman, Bob Citrino, and Freeholder Candidate Carl Orechio.

Man In The News

Dr. Farley Is About To Begin A New Life

Treating ghetto children in Newark as part of a new federal project is vastly different than caring for the medical needs of middle class Nutley youths.

But Dr. William J. Farley, for 17 years a Nutley pediatrician, is making this change in his lifestyle. He will enter the Comprehensive Family Health Care Program in Newark beginning August 1.

Farley will close his 17-year-old private practice here to devote his full time skills to serving Newark's needy families.

"I feel I understand the problems in Newark," he said. "I've always been interested in social medicine and now will have a chance to practice it."

The doctor is already familiar with the problems of caring for underprivileged families in Newark. He has contacts in this area through his position as senior attending pediatrician at St. Michael's Medical Center in Newark.

For many years Farley has served the Nutley public in his role as pediatrician in the child health station here. He has been a member of the Juvenile Conference Committee for over 12 years and also serves on the newly formed advisory committee for drug abuse set up by the town.

He also is the physician for Nutley High School and Franklin School.

Born and raised in Syracuse, N.Y., Dr. Farley came to Nutley from Flushing, Long Island, over 17 years ago. He is a graduate of the City College of New York and attended the medical school at New York University. He served his internship at Bellevue Hospital in New York City.

A veteran of World War II, Farley then served in the Navy Medical Corp in the Pacific Theater.

"I know what I'll be getting into," he commented. "But I believe the program is worthwhile and will present a challenge to my medical skills."

Farley is now a newcomer to treating youth in Newark. He served as a physician in the Newark School System during the early 1950's.

The doctor is the chapter chairman of the American Academy of Pediatrics; chairman of the Child Health Committee of the New Jersey Public Health Association and the Medical Society of New Jersey. He also is on the medical staff at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital in Belleville.

Helen's Thing ...

Christening Of Our Daughters: Chapter Two

By Helen Maguire

It was now about five in the afternoon. Everyone had eaten at least once. The bar, set up on the summer porch and equipped with soda for kids and harder stuff for everyone else, was doing a brisk trade. The cake, an enormous pink trimmed confection, had been carried to the backyard and cut and the coffee urn was rapidly emptying.

When Rod disappeared upstairs to change his clothes, I suspected what was coming. The next time I set foot outside, all the women, older men and young children had been neatly moved to the sidelines, a clothesline had been strung across the yard and the entire middle of the property cleared. Completely cleared.

Last year, we bought a gym set for the boys. It took quite a time to get it set up and leveled and staked since our yard is far from flat and even. The gym set had been uprooted and moved back near the woodpile.

I cornered my better half. "What's the big idea of moving the swings?" I asked. "Listen," he shouted on his way out the door, "you can't play volleyball with that thing in the way."

I should have known. We've never had an outdoor party at this house that didn't include a game. That's one reason why we don't have a decent crop of grass. Everyone eligible plays. This includes all the men under forty, the older nephews, a couple of young sisters-in-law and anyone else who can be enticed, threatened or coerced into playing. The game lasts as long as the ball and it gets to the point where the cheering squad hopes fervently that the ball will meet up with a sticker bush and end its career.

"I thought they were moving us out of the sun," said one of my aunts. Sun be hanged. She had been sitting right in the middle of the field.

While the lively exercise was going on, the ones, not playing spent a lively hour chasing small fry, changing diapers, mopping up little faces and hands, washing mounds of cutlery and glasses and replenishing the table with food. Volleyball works up quite an appetite.

The last guest left at eleven. Rod and I escorted them to the door, came back in the house and collapsed.

I woke up the next morning with all the symptoms of laryngitis. My throat was sore, my voice came and went. I was generally miserable. I called the doctor's office. "Look, Virginia," I pleaded, "please try and fit me in somewhere today. I'm in bad shape."

The doctor saw me at a quarter past nine that night. "What have you been doing?" he wanted to know as he wrote out a prescription. "You look like you need a week's vacation."

"I haven't been doing anything," I explained, "except christening my daughters."

PHILosophizing ...

Maybe It Was An Omen When H.G. Wells Sent His Flying Saucers To Land In N.J. First

By Phil White

A THOUGHT occurred while riding aboard the bankrupt Penn-Central last Thursday that sent us into panic.

The train ride was from our capital city where we had joined a small group in a morning conference with Transportation Commissioner John C. Kohl and the fellow who gave him that job, Gov. William T. Cahill. As the morning session turned into an afternoon one, New Jersey's transportation problems seemed to turn from those possible of optimistic solutions, to those doomed by inert frustrations.

We heard about why we have such problems as the one which prevents the construction of a four-lane highway anticipated umpteen years ago to connect with a bridge over the Delaware, a span long since completed and still unused. Then someone complained the Interstate Highway System was falling further behind schedule, that some directional signs are missing and adding to the confusion drivers already face around roads at Newark Airport, and that small towns like Nutley often must wait five years or more for approval to put up what appears to be a simple little traffic light.

WHY ALL THESE frustrations?

Commissioner Kohl points to the shortage faced by New Jersey in qualified traffic engineers, and more importantly, in cash.

Governor Cahill is concerned with the lack of a coordinating agency to consider the overall impact of transportation policies set by such autonomous bodies as the New Jersey Highway Department, New York Port Authority, Turnpike Authority, and the Garden State Parkway Commission. Cahill is taking steps to correct this problem by creating a coordinating agency and thus hopefully avoid building any more big, modern bridges across the Delaware River before someone else agrees to build the access roads at either end.

Trenton is not alone in facing the still unsolvable transportation coordination problem, else why do we read of the Newark study recommending, on one hand, extension of the City Subway to the Erie-Lackawanna Station near the Belleville border, and on the other hand, the complete shutdown of that Erie-Lackawanna branch by the consolidation of trackage with the mainline at Montclair?

When we left the State House our thoughts were as fragmented as the transportation picture itself in New Jersey. No wonder we turned to the pages of a magazine rather than our conference notes after beating out the crowd of passengers fighting for the last empty seat aboard the bankrupt Penn-Central's Trenton-to-Newark express.

The article we were reading was Peter Schrag's "Who Owns The Environment?"

Review, July 4, 1970). He discusses America's being in the early stages of a revolt against the traditional concepts that growth and progress are good. He asks questions:

"Have the disamenities of increased production (pollution, resource, depletion, crowding, waste disposal, noise) begun to exceed its benefits? Does every additional automobile create more problems for society than it solves? Does every skyscraper or every highway in a crowded city create more difficulties in pollution, crime control, congestion, and frustration than it resolves in taxes, jobs and other benefits?"

And if environmental problems boil down to one of not being able to keep up with the coordination of activities forced by the population rate, consider the prediction of Wayne H. Davis of the University of Kentucky: "If our numbers continue to rise at the present rate, our standard of living will fall so sharply that by the year 2000 any surviving Americans might consider today's average Asian well off."

AT ONE POINT during Thursday's meeting in Governor Cahill's office, the thought occurred that although everyone seemed greatly concerned with overall concepts and long-range solutions, we were all too preoccupied with the tiny problems. The long-range solutions must wait because, among other reasons, we're short of traffic engineers, capable secretaries, and most of all, money. And one solution is our preoccupation with the foul-ups created by the signal light on the Route 35 traffic circle in Eatontown.

And, as we said, while riding back from Trenton, a terrible thought occurred.

If what Professor Davis and others say in Mr. Schrag's "Saturday Review" article turns out to be the truth, then on what front in the world would the environmental battle be lost first?

New Jersey is the most densely populated state in America. The most densely populated cities in the United States are not in New York, but in New Jersey. The world's most congested highways are not in California, but in New Jersey. The nation's most polluted river is not in Louisiana, but in New Jersey.

THINK for a moment of the pollutants in the Passaic River waters confining us to the east, and the fumes above the Garden State Parkway to the west. Think of the congestion on the bridges leading from here to Lyndhurst and Kearny. Think about those treacherous exits from Route 21: how can they be corrected? Whoever designed a highway like that in the first place?

That's what we were doing on our return ride from Trenton aboard the bankrupt Penn-Central last Thursday. Just thinking.

Catherine A. Adragna Bride Of John Richard Donahue

Mrs. John Donahue-nee Catherine Adragna

Miss Catherine Ann Adragna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vito Adragna Sr. of 89 Franklin Avenue and John Richard Donahue of Belleville, son of Mrs. Ethel Donahue of New Shrewsbury, were married May 3 in Holy Family Church.

The Rev. Francis Blake performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Branch Brook Manor, Belleville.

The bride's gown was of silk organza trimmed with Alencon lace and pearl beading. It was fashioned with an empire bodice, A-line skirt with a deep lace scallop, short sleeves and detachable cathedral train.

A Camelot headpiece of Alencon lace and pearls held her three tiered veil of silk illusion. She carried orchids tipped in blue and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Paul Gibney of Newark was her twin sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lidia Ann Catenacci of Nutley, cousin of the bride and Miss Patricia DiVizio of Newark.

They wore power blue corded organza gowns trimmed at the waist with Venice lace over satin ribbon. Headpieces were matching bows trimmed with lace and they carried orchids tipped in blue.

John Mele of Belleville was best man for his cousin. The bride's brothers, Frank Adragna of Clifton and Vito Adragna Jr. of Elizabeth ushered.

Mrs. Adragna chose a light blue peau de soie gown with matching accessories while the groom's mother was in a Nile green chiffon gown with matching accessories. Corsages were white cymbidiums tipped to match their gowns.

Mrs. Donahue, a graduate of Nutley High School, is with Fireman's Fund American Life Insurance Company, Newark.

Howard W. Truss New Vice President at ITT

Election of Howard W. Truss as a vice president of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation was announced today by Harold S. Geneen, chairman and president.

Teaching is often the effort to persuade younger people to accept the conclusions of another generation.

Preliminary statistics from Newark College of Engineering's annual Senior Placement Survey disclose young NCE engineers who found jobs this Spring are making more money but that a larger number than usual are still at loose ends.

The survey, distributed each summer to the hundreds of companies who recruit at NCE and to each member of the year's graduating class, covers such items as the number of students seeking jobs, the number of interviews, a breakdown of where the class went, and starting salaries.

Mrs. Lawrence Auriemma-nee Patricia DelPresto

Auriemmas Plan Belleville Home

Miss Patricia Ann DelPresto, daughter of Mrs. Frank DelPresto of 658 North 7th Street, Newark and Lawrence Auriemma Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Auriemma Sr. of 86 Mt. Prospect Avenue, Belleville, were married July 18 in St. Francis Xavier Church, Newark.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Scanlon and followed by a reception at White Eagle Manor, Bloomfield.

The bride, escorted by her uncle, Rocco R. DelPresto, had Miss Elizabeth Tomasulo of Nutley as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's sisters, Mrs. Maria Sica and Mrs. Suzanne Malfatto and the groom's sisters, Mrs. Gerard Porcello and Miss Lorraine Auriemma. The groom's niece, Miss Kathy Porcello was junior bridesmaid and the bride's niece, Francine Sica was flower girl.

Gerard Porcello was best man. Ushering were Jerry Porcello Jr., nephew of the groom, Kenneth Scaglione and Anthony Priolo, cousins of the groom and Michael Malfatto. Patrick Porcello, nephew of the groom, was junior usher and the bride's nephew, Michael Malfatto Jr. was ringbearer.

Mrs. Auriemma Jr., a graduate of Barringer High School, Newark, is with R.K. Hughes, Inc., Nutley.

Mr. Auriemma Jr. is a member of the Belleville Fire Department.

The couple will live in Belleville.

Love increases with time among those who avoid the fate of selfishness.

Mr. and Mrs. G.B. Haneke Will Live In Massachusetts

Miss Claudia Cecilia Ritger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Ritger Jr. of 47 Eastern Parkway, Newark and Thomas Joseph Haneke, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Haneke of 36 Division Avenue, Belleville, were married June 27 in Sacred Heart Church, Newark.

The Rev. Myles Varley performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. A reception followed at Mayfair Farms, West Orange.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory peau d'ange with re-embroidered Alencon lace. Her mantilla was of matching lace and she carried an old fashioned nosegay.

Miss Paula Ritger was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were another sister, Lisa Ritger, Miss Carol Morris of Newark and Miss Kathy Cowan of North Arlington.

They were attired in yellow dotted Swiss trimmed with daisies. Wreaths for their heads and nosegays were of daisies.

Donald Haneke of West New York, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Robert Rusignola and Dennis Grillo of North Arlington and Frank McNabb of Arlington.

Mrs. Ritger chose a mint green chiffon dress with matching wide brimmed hat and shoes. The groom's mother was in an aqua chiffon dress and wore a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Haneke is an alumna of Marylawn of the Oranges, American Academy of Dramatic Arts and Berkeley School.

Mr. Haneke, a graduate of St. Benedict's Prep, Newark and St. Peter's College, will study for his master's degree in film at the School of Public Communication, Boston University.

The couple have made their home in Boston, Massachusetts.

You may not know it but you are often wrong.

Mrs. George Haneke-nee Claudia Ritger

Miss Holloway Earns Degree At Michigan

Miss Vicki Holloway

Miss Vicki Lou Holloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Holloway of 53 Lloyd Place, received her bachelor of arts degree cum laude June 14 from Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan.

Her major course of study was political science and she has no present plans for further study on a regular basis.

Miss Holloway is a graduate of College High School, Montclair, where she was news and literary editor of the college newspaper and senior editor of the yearbook.

Vicki will be married September 26 to Brian D. Costley of Binghamton, New York and hopes to be employed in corporate research or personnel.

Mr. and Mrs. Leendert Burghoorn

Couple Observes 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Leendert Burghoorn of 468 Washington Avenue, were married 50 years on July 15. They celebrated their anniversary on July 18 at the Robin Hood Inn, Clifton, with close friends. Mr. Burghoorn also celebrated his 80th birthday that day.

Mr. Burghoorn of Delft, Holland and Sophie Van Rooyen of Zaandam, Holland, were married at the City Hall in Zaandam. After a supper given by Mrs. Burghoorn's brother, they left for Borneo, West Indies, where they stayed for three years, Mr. Burghoorn working for Shell Oil Co.

In October of 1923 they came to the United States. They have been residents of Belleville for the past 32 years, previous to then being residents of New York, West New York and Newark.

Mr. Burghoorn is now employed by The Rajah Company of Newark, where he has worked for the past 20 years as a tool maker-machinist. Mrs. Burghoorn worked for Tetflex of Newark for three years and Heyers of Belleville for five years as an inspector.

All friends and acquaintances extend to them a very happy anniversary.

Vicidomini-Gaetano Nuptials Performed In Holy Family

Wedding vows were exchanged July 11 in Holy Family Church by Miss Carmina Gaetano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Gaetano of 372 Chestnut Street and Arnold Vicidomini Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Vicidomini Sr. of 36 Prospect Street.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. Michael Saltarelli. A reception was held at The Manor, West Orange.

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore a silk organza gown with long lace sleeves, Victorian neckline and attached wateau train. Alencon lace appliques and pearl beading accented the gown.

A lace, pearl and crystal headpiece held her silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade of cattleya orchids, phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Rita Battista of Belleville was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Rose Branca, Miss Joan Lorenz and Mrs. Patricia Schild, all of Bloomfield, Miss Annina Graziano of Nutley and Miss Roseann Scarnato of West Keansburg.

Mrs. Arnold Vicidomini Jr.-nee Carmina Gaetano

They were attired in soft blue chiffon dresses with chiffon capes. Headpieces were of Swiss petals and they carried cascades of glamelias.

Ralph Vicidomini served his brother as best man. Ushering were Louis Graziano of Nutley, Frank Scarnato of West Keansburg, Pat Longobardi of West Keansburg, Louis Graziano of Clifton and Ralph Fortunato of Plainfield.

Mrs. Gaetano chose a mint green silk embroidered dress with matching accessories and had an orchid corsage. The groom's mother was in an aqua chiffon dress with silver accessories. She had a wristlet of phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Vicidomini Jr., a graduate of Belleville High School, attended Newark State College and is with Pignone Engineering Company, New York City.

Interlibrary Loan Proving Successful

An Interlibrary loan network, established on an experimental basis among 11 public libraries in the Northwest Essex area, completed a full year of successful operation on June 30.

In addition to Belleville, the participating libraries are Bloomfield, Caldwell, Cedar Grove, Fairfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley, Roseland, Verona and West Caldwell. Bloomfield, the area library, serves as the headquarters of operation.

This new chapter in library cooperation started a year ago when these libraries mutually agreed to lend to each other the books and other items requested by their patrons and which are not available in their own libraries. When a patron wants a book and it is not in his local library, a chain of communication is initiated. First, Bloomfield Library is called. If Bloomfield cannot fill the request from its own collection, it tries to locate the book in the other participating libraries.

The Newark Public Library, which is the Regional Research Library, is contacted when the book is unavailable in any of the other libraries in the area. If the Newark Public Library does not have the book, it channels the request to the State Library in Trenton and, if necessary, through the State Library to out-of-state libraries.

When the book is located in any of the libraries in the Northwest Essex area, it is picked up on Tuesday and/or Friday each week and delivered to the requesting library by Belleville's, Bloomfield's or Montclair's library delivery service.

During the first year of this Interlibrary Loan service, 5,105 requests were handled. Of these 3,777, or 74%, were filled. This performance is the most outstanding in the State of New Jersey. On an average, nine telephone calls were necessary in order to locate the desired book. For the 5,105 requests that year, 22,922 telephone calls were made; half of these by the coordinating area library, the other half by the participating libraries to the coordinator.

This Interlibrary Loan network has been extremely beneficial for every participating library. Its effectiveness is a result of good cooperation and communication. Roger H. McDonough, State Librarian, writes in his annual report in NEW JERSEY LIBRARIES, Spring, 1970, that the Interlibrary Loan pick-up and delivery service which the Northwest Essex area has established is the model plan he has in mind for the entire state. Following its successful experimental year, the plan will continue in operation under a State Incentive Grant of $13,484. It is expected that daily delivery service will be inaugurated before September 1st.

Included in the total 5,105 requests received during the year, were 265 requested by Belleville; 165 of these requests were filled by other local libraries. At the same time, the Belleville Public Library lent 206 items to the other participating libraries. In addition, Belleville not only handled the 265 requests mentioned above, but 2,289 requests from the other libraries in the Northwest Essex area as well.

Mundelein College For Belleville Girl

Karen Elisa Sysol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Sysol of 49 Tappan Avenue, Belleville, will enter Mundelein College, Chicago, as a freshman in the fall. Karen graduated from Mount St. Dominic Academy, Caldwell.

Mundelein, a four-year liberal arts college with a campus located directly on Lake Michigan, enrolls 1,200 students. In addition to offering majors in 21 fields, in humanities and in interdepartmental studies, the college has established an experimental college program and a black studies program, both to begin in the fall.

Karen was president of the Fine Arts Club, feature writer for the Yearbook and literary magazine artist in high school.

Camping Cleanliness Calls For Help

Camping seems to be a very popular activity for families in this area, and it can be a vacation for Mother too, if you get the children to help.

After deciding on the camp site and knowing its facilities, make a list of all things that will be needed or will keep work at a minimum and time to enjoy the family outing at a maximum. For better organization, categorize supplies — major equipment, cooking equipment, food supplies, cleaning materials, lighting, bedding, clothing, first aid supplies, tools, and miscellaneous.

Many of the items needed are right at home. Later, if camping becomes a summer routine, it may be desirable to buy some household gear just for camping. Above all, make sure that in as far as possible, equipment is durable and easy to clean — preferably, on the spot.

Through the home kitchen provides convenience, the camp "chuck wagon" allows for more informality and division of labor. Camp kitchen chores to be divided among the family are 1) cooking, 2) preparing for dishwashing which can be started by heating water for washing while meals are being served, 3) tablesetting, preferably buffet style for serve-yourself meals, 4) clearing the table, 5) cleanup.

Several large plastic containers that can travel nested together will make mealtime cleanup quick. Fill one with water for pre-rinsing, another with hot, soapy water and a third with hot rinse water. Each camper can carry his own plate to the stove or campfire for helpings of hot food, after eating, be responsible for scraping his own dish and immersing it in the pre-rinse water. Utensils can be placed in a wide-mouth jar or juice pitcher for a suds soaking.

Then the dishwasher takes over. The same procedures as home washing apply — glasses, flatware first, then cups, dishes, and finally cooking utensils and heavily soiled pots and pans. Air or wipe dry and put away. The important thing is a set routine with everyone pitching in.

Some camper units are similar to a mobile home featuring "indoor" cooking, sink, toilet and shower. Even so, some veterans of "meals on wheels" favor an adaptation of the above method of serving and cleanup. Because of close quarters, it is difficult to have more than one person in the tiny kitchen area. When eating outdoors, set up the pre-rinse and hot suds containers near the camper entry. As dishes are washed, the indoor worker takes them for final rinsing and drying — a kind of bucket brigade.

In the areas of minor time and aggravation savers, if cooking over a wood fire cut down on blackening of pots by rubbing the outside and bottom with soap before cooking. And for hiking as well as traveling, prepare soapy face cloths to carry in individual plastic bags.

Goscinski At Pirates Tryout

Belleville most recent all-star, John Goscinski, went down to Rutgers Prep last week for a tryout with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Goscinski has been the main target of many scouts from pro teams around Belleville during the just finished American Legion season.

Goscinski has finished the season with the Post 105 team hitting at least .340. He also has a fielding average around .850, but said about the tryout, "I never saw so many good ballplayers in my life."

The Pirates put Goscinski, and the other boys from throughout the state, into mostly infield practice, and had a few of them pitch and hit. Goscinski pointed out that most of the infielders didn't miss anything, and was totally impressed with the pitchers there. He also commented that he just wished "we had a few of them around here," and mentioned that he didn't recognize any of the boys as being from this area.

The Pirates haven't scouted the third baseman-pitcher, but John was informed of the tryout through a scout who told him to "come on down". Some of the teams that have been watching Goscinski are Baltimore, Houston, and possibly the Mets or the Astros. The Met scout was at the West Orange upset, but no one knows who he was watching, and fans mentioned that the Astros were at a few games, but the Legion team's scorekeeper reports that he never was asked for information by an Astro scout.

Baltimore Is The Contact Team

Baltimore was the team that contacted Goscinski earlier in the season and asked him for the schedule, after trying to find him at the High School.

Goscinski admits that he'd be happy to go with any team, and figures that third base would be his most likely infield position. Jokingly, John added that he would like to play for Cincinnati, explaining that "I like the Astro-Turf."

Joe Ritacco To Boston College

Belleville's winner of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame's Scholar-Athlete Award for Belleville, and the Colony Club's Award for the Outstanding Senior Baseball Player, has made his final decision on college.

Joe Ritacco has decided that Boston College is the place for him to play football, and to major in Business Administration.

Joe cited John Amabile's influence as having a lot to do with his decision. Joe had been accepted at Rutgers and Villanova, but Amabile, an alumnus of Boston College, convinced Joe that Boston was the best school of the three. Ritacco saw Amabile's sudden change of coaching duties as a "bad move". The reason was simple, Ritacco feels Amabile's not going to have a better team than in Belleville.

The defensive end for two years sees the position's responsibilities change from High School to Collegiate ball, and plans to become a Defensive outside linebacker to avoid having to change his duties on the field.

Ritacco also was one of the four returning letterman to this year's baseball team. He also played centerfield for the Legion team, but probably won't go out for baseball at college to keep his marks up. Ritacco has been an honor student while at Belleville High.

Playgrounds Are Active Despite Bad Weather

In spite of the hot, humid weather and the threatening rain, the playgrounds have remained as active as ever.

The children at No. three Playground created a crayon mural. Each child was responsible for a particular section of the colorful mural. The artists of this creation were Marybeth Dillon, Donna Fantacone, Lucille Parillo, Angela D'Auria, Mark Pannaccione, Dennis Berger, Wayne Ehler, Betty Lou Freda, John LaMorte, Scott Skrutskie and Mike LaMorte.

Field day events were held at No. nine Playground last week. Three-legged races and a 50 yard dash were among the events. Vicki Moraski and Pearl Vicaro were the winners of the three-legged race held for the girls and Stephen Donavan and Leonard Romano won in the boys division. In the boys 50 yard dash event, Michael Hoelshen was the winner. Vicki Moraski was the winner of the girls 50 yard dash.

A lunch box contest was held at No. four last week.

Prizes were awarded for the most colorful and the most sportive boxes. Patricia LaConti and Anne Marie DePanis were the winners of the prize for the most Colorful lunch boxes. Steve Dondarski was awarded the prize for most sportive.

The softball teams at four are on a winning streak. The girls team were to play the Rec House team but the game was forfeited giving four the win. The boys senior league played the following day against two. Alonzo Dobson hit a home run, Kenny Brown had four hits and with the aid of Jay Messina's great defensive moves as short stop, the result was a 9-6 victory for four. On Wednesday, the boys Junior League also rallied to defeat two. Bruce Messina hit two home runs and Mike Dondarski hit a triple to make the final score 3-2.

Quarterback Taibi To Paterson State

Both Paterson State College and Belleville's Joe Taibi will embark on a maiden boy voyage of sorts this football season.

The Paterson school will begin its first season of collegiate football, while Taibi, a standout at Belleville High School last fall, will assume quarterback duties for the first time in his career.

The college attributed Taibi's move from defensive end to QB to his "tremendous strength and his ability to pass." Taibi, who will enter Paterson this fall as a physical education and health major, right now is keeping in shape by running lifting at the Stadium every night.

While at Belleville High, Taibi played football for four years and also wrestled at 178 lbs. Right now weighing 190, Joe probably won't be allowed to go out for wrestling for fear of injuries. This year Joe started in Belleville's first six varsity football games before pulling a ligament in the Kearny game. The injury won't affect Joe's playing at quarterback this fall.

Taibi will be going to a summer football camp to be held at Paterson starting August 27, preceding the start of Paterson's schedule, which includes a matchup with Army's "G" team.

Butts And Bows Man Tops Record

Nick (the Greek) Pilavakis shot a 299 in Butts and Bows Tuesday night money league competition. Nick broke all records of the lanes by shooting a record 299 out of a possible 300 in last week's competition.

This amazing score makes him automatically winner of a $80 bonus, sponsored by the American Indoor Archery Association. Nick, who has been shooting only a year, is averaging 295 for 6 weeks competition.

Belleville's Top Weightlifter Is Nationally Known Figure

Kiwanis, Rotary Club Sponsored

By Nat Gottlieb

The Belleville Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs are promoting a novel idea to encourage the growth of American athletes, an no one is a better salesman for the idea than young Phil Gripaldi.

Who is Phil Gripaldi? Belleville residents are more than familiar with the stocky weightlifter with the extraordinary strength and physique. But now, thanks to the efforts of the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, Gripaldi's name is known and respected among national competitors, and occupies a place in this nation's weightlifting record books.

Gripaldi's story, and the Kiwanis-Rotary idea which he represents, began about six months ago when Belleville's Recreation Superintendent Bob Cook - a weightlifter in his own right - decided it was possible for this country to sponsor its athletes without having the government do so, as is the case in Iron Curtain countries.

Cook's idea was to have local organizations raise funds to sponsor a promising local athlete's entry into national competition, with the eventual aim of producing an Olympics' quality competitor. It was Cook's feeling that the growth of many potentially great American athletes was being stifled because of limited funds with which to enter the big competitions.

The recreation director took his case to the Rotary Club of which he is a member. The club immediately picked up the idea and found an ally in the Kiwanis Club, which was enthusiastic about the concept from the beginning.

Phil Gripaldi is the first local athlete sponsored by the two organizations, which are labeling the fund the "Kiwanis-Rotary Athletes Aid Fund," or KRAAF.

Gripaldi was the logical choice to get the project off the ground. The 23 year old resident of 511 Franklin Avenue had already finished second in both the junior and senior national championships in 1967, and first in the same two events the following year.

In addition, he won the Pan Am Championships in 1968 in Canada, and was an Olympic team member also in 1968.

With the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs raising $300 each to send Gripaldi to the national Championships in Culver City, California last month, the young weightlifter returned this town's confidence in blue chips. Gripaldi not only won the 198 pound class event, but established a new snatch, press and jerk total of 1,090 pounds. In doing so, he also won a berth on the United States World Championship team.

It is the dream of KRAAF and its co-chairmen Michael Rosamilia and Bob Cook that local sponsorship concept will be extended to many state and national organizations.

The two men say they will speak before any organization or group which is interested in the project and are mailing information about the project to all Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs in New Jersey.

Split Last Two Games

Second Place Finish For Local Legion Nine

By John McCarthy

Belleville's Legion Baseball team finished their season this past week by splitting their last two games, 5-2 over Caldwell and a 3-1 loss to Vailsburg. Their season record at the finish was 10-5-1, better than last year's 7-9, but wasn't good enough to beat Nutley for the Eastern Division title.

In both games Belleville averaged more than a hit an inning, 10 against Caldwell, 9 against Vailsburg, but the timing of the hits was the most important factor.

In the Caldwell victory all the hits came in the last four innings, while Belleville scored in three of these innings. In contrast, the hits against Vailsburg came in every inning but the seventh, and Belleville left ten runners on base, allowing only one Belleville runner to score.

John Goscinski led the 105 hitters against Caldwell as he went three for four and score twice. All of Goscinski's hit were singles. On John's first hit, he went to third on a single by Joe Vitiello, and scored on a double steal.

Vitiello scored two RBIs in the game. His first came on the same single down the line that moved Goscinski to third. Ray Campbell had been on second at the time and scored on the play. Vitiello's other RBI came on a sacrifice fly to left field in the sixth inning.

Joe Papisidero hit the only extra base hit of the game in the seventh inning. Joe's double was followed by a single of Goscinski, and Paps scored the final run.

When Vailsburg came to Belleville Stadium, one inning made the difference in the ballgame.

That one inning consisted of three errors, two stolen bases, one walk, and a hit through the middle, for a total of three runs.

Vailsburg's second baseman Bill Cardone opened the inning by hitting a routine shot to Joe Papisidero. Joe bobbled the ball, and the throw to first was late. Cardone stole second, while the next batter Rich D'Incenzio was walked.

The bases were loaded when Vin Ferrara singled off pitcher John Goscinski's glove. The ball went through the middle, and only Joe Ritacco's quick peg to the plate kept Cardone on third.

Two errors then gave Vailsbug all their runs. Goscinski struck one batter out, but Raoul Lopez hit a dribbler back to the mound. Goscinski ran in for the ball hit it, and the ball went to the mound, while Cardone and D'Incenzio scored. After Goscinski struckout the next batter, Joe Vitiello then tried to pick off Lopez going to

Cardinal Victory In Farm League

The Cardinals easily topped the Clippers 8-3 in the first game of the Farm League World Series last week.

The Clippers, who are National League champs, scored first on three runs in the top of the second inning. In the bottom half, the Cards American League representatives, scored their first run of the series on a single by Joe Di Guglielmo and three walks to Jeff Fink, Jim Santangelo and Frank Zatorski.

Still down by a score of 3-1, the Cards then exploded for seven runs in the bottom of the third to gain an 8-3 lead.

The inning started with a walk to Tony Cortese. After two outs, two more walks were issued to George Mobilio and Jeff Fink to load the bases. Steven Dempsey then singled in two runs to tie the score at 3 all. Afterwards, Phil Agosta walked to load the bases, and was followed by another walk to Frank Zatorski which set the Cards ahead for good 4-3. Joe Santangelo and Tony Cortese followed with singles to score the last four runs.

The last three innings were scoreless and the game ended in an 8-3 victory for the Cards. Tony Cortese, the winning pitcher, allowed three runs on two hits, one walk and three hit-batters. Cards manager, Toby D'Ambola, seemed very pleased with his team's performance both on and off the field.

Recreation Softball Play

Frenchy's Tavern and the Circle Bar continued locked in second place in the Monday Mens Softball League. Frenchy's won 18-2 over John's Tavern and Circles registered a 10-7 win over Ajax Motors. Next week these two titans meet head on in the game that will probably determine the League winner.

Frenchy's has lost once to the Circles and once to the Johns while the Circles losses have been to Frenchy's and to the Jolly Cleaners.

However, nothing can be taken for granted in this hotly contested league and both Jolly Cleaners at 6-4 and Olga's at 4-6 are within reach of the top. Ajax Motors and John's Tavern are both at 2-8.

MacDonald's Tavern appears to be on a runaway in the Recreation Tuesday League with a perfect 10-0 record. Next is Roselli's Service at 6-4. Tied for third are the Chip-Inn and the B.P.S.C. both at 5-5. Frankies Amoco is next at 4-6 and Westinghouse has yet to win a game.

In last week's games the Macs beat the Rosellis 11-4, Frankies took Westinghouse 9-3 and B.P.S.C. won a tough one over the Chip-Inn 10-7.

Another runaway is in the making in the Wednesday League with the Landolfi Home for Funerals out in front 11-0. Next in line is Giordano's who have lost only to the leaders and stand at 8-3.

St. Peters at 7-4 is putting up a game fight and have one win over the Giordanos. They have dropped two to Landolfi's, one to Giordanos and one to Garden States. The Gardens stand at 3-8, Rossi's Tavern at 2-9 and the Rivas at 1-10.

Thursdays League is very tight at the top with the P.J. MacDonald Association in first by a narrow 8-1 to Jolly Cleaners 8-2. Roselli's Service is third at 5-4. B.P.S.C. and Walter Kidde are tied up at 3-6 and Hudson County Deaf are 0-9.

In last weeks games the B.P.S.C. upset Rosellis 13-7 to even their first round loss, Jolly Cleaners defeated the Hudsons 22-8 and MacDonald's demolished Walter Kidde 37-10.

Little League World Series Is Scheduled

The Lions Club and the Colony Club will square off in the Belleville Little League World Series, a two out of three series.

The National League crown came to the Lions after a 4-1 victory over the PBA in their playoff game.

In the American League, Wallace and Tiernan was unopposed by Colony after capturing the first half title.

The All-Star game, meanwhile, is scheduled for tonight at the Michael V. Marotti Little League Field at 6 p.m.

Hugh Mallick of Wallace and Tiernan dazzled nearly everyone with a perfect game, the first pitched in the Little League all season. Mallick led Wallace and Tiernan to an east 7-0 victory over the Varsity Club.

SIGNED UP - Joseph Taibi, former grid standout from Belleville High School, was recently signed by Dr. Michael A. Sabia, head football coach at Paterson State College.

Tenneco Division Names Manager

Donald V. Tedesco has been named northeast regional manager for Tenneco Colors Division of Tenneco Chemicals, Inc., Belleville according to Richard R. Montanaro, division general sales manager.

Previously salesman - Northeast Section, Tedesco joined Tenneco in 1968. Prior to that, he was vice president in charge of manufacturing for Kent Pulp & Paper Company in Camden. A member of PIMA, he attended San Diego Junior College.

Gets Big Army Contract

Kidde to Fight Chopper Fires

A year-long, $62,122 contract to spot the major causes of in-flight fires in Army helicopter subsystems was awarded to Walter Kidde and Company, Inc., Belleville, by the U.S. Army Aviation Materiel Laboratories (AVLABS), Ft. Eustis, Va., it was announced by Col. John R. Adie, AVLABS Commanding Officer.

The research effort is aimed at boosting combat crews chances of survival by helping them to control in-flight fires caused by bullet impact. Based on data obtained from this research effort, design standards and concepts for the detection and automatic suppression of in-flight fires in Army helicopters will be developed and a laboratory model will be built and tested.

Harold W. Holland, AVLABS Project Engineer, Safety and Survivability Division, pointed out that the results of this study will determine the feasibility of providing Army aircraft with in-flight fire detection and automatic suppression systems.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By Howie Halpern

Champagne: a beverage that makes you see double and feel single!

Politicians are like poor relations. You hear from them early when they need help.

A band is a strange person who buys his football tickets in July and his wife's Christmas present on December 24.

Jeep: the closest thing to a mechanical mule.

Home is a place where you don't have to stifle a yawn and try to cover it with a smile.

You'll smile after you've tried our frozen dinner's at Towne Deli.

radiant electric heat

because it is comfortable and inexpensive.

What are you waiting for?

If you would like your house to be toasty warm this winter, and not go broke to heat it — read on.

Hundred of thousands of home owners and apartment operators (not to mention hospitals, hotels, motels, nursing homes, and business establishments) throughout the United States, have discovered Radiant Electric Heat to be just what the doctor ordered for comfort and what the banker ordered for economy.

Homeowners tell us their homes have never been more comfortable. That's because Radiant Electric Heat warms a room equally throughout. There is only a 2 degree difference in temperature between floor and ceiling. Conventional heat varies as much as 20 degrees.

Homeowners tell us their health has improved. That's because Radiant Electric Heat doesn't dry out the air in the house. No more stuffy sinuses, dried out furniture, etc. The rays used by Radiant Electric Heat are identical to the beneficial rays given off by the sun — they have a purifying effect and combat germs and viruses in your home.

Homeowners tell us they enjoy low fuel bills. That's because special low electric rates are available to those who heat with electricity. There is no wastage of heat up the chimney, in rooms you wish to keep cooler than others, or in rooms you are not using. A thermostat in each room maintains the temperatures you want — and heat can be turned on or off in any room with the flick of a switch.

Homeowners enjoy trouble free heat permanently. That's because all burners, smoke, and ash are completely eliminated. So are heating equipment headaches — for there is no noise; no fuel worries; no tank, pump or boiler repairs, no valves to leak, no chimneys or air filters to clean or replace; no damage from leaking pipes; no maintenance, repair or replacement ever!

In just a few minutes, without obligation of any kind on your part, we can show you how Radiant Electric Glassheat will make your house toasty warm, eliminate heating problems, and cut the cost of heat compared with your present system.

If your house (or a room) is giving you a chill, give us a call. We enjoy making lots of friends and a little profit.

Your Weekly Horoscope
July 23 thru July 29, 1970
ARIES (March 21-April 19): Let intuition lead you in week ahead, Ari. angel. To heck with all the intellectual absurdity. There is a time for everything, and next seven days are crucial. Listen to your inner voice or you may end up with a bad case of creative constipation.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You should approach a vantage point in week ahead, Taurus, where you are able to look both forward and backward. Because there have been so many valleys and crests in recent weeks, you have been unable to get a sharp picture of your present condition. Open your eyes in week ahead. Open your heart as well.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Caution is devoutly to be wished under certain circumstances, Gem. But not in week ahead. Situation should present itself which will require quick decision. Time will be of the essence. Do not fear to go from the known to the unknown. Last two days of week are for total relaxation.
CANCER (June 21-July 22): Youth and experience will join hands in week ahead. And it will be a delightful union. Secrets will be whispered into your little ears. Moonbaby has unusual capacity to live without growing old. Next seven days will prove this. Take your vitamins and smile a lot.
LEO (July 23-August 22): Intuitive flashes of insight will leave strong impressions on your conscious mind in week coming up, Leo. Follow hunches. Personal achievement will follow. Mind old Olga just this once. You'll send me a thank you note later.
VIRGO (August 23-September 22): You're facing a week of hard edges, Virg. So use that old abrasive wit of yours to keep things even. If possible toward middle of week try to get away... ALONE. You need to be by yourself for a day or two. And DON'T leave a trail of bread crumbs.
LIBRA (September 23-October 22): If you are still around after last week, Libra, you're to be congratulated. Did you heed old Olga's advice and move out of the line of fire? Good. Now in coming week, behavior will speak more loudly than words. Try your best to be thrifty, clean, brave and reverent. Like a good scout. Merit badges will be handed out next week.
SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): You will perhaps be spoiling for a fight in week ahead, Scorp. But then, in a sense, this is your nature, since Mars is your ruling planet. And Mars is big on action, seething with energy. However, you might also consider the possibility of spending this excess energy in another way. Like making love instead of war. To coin a cliché.
SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Ability to woo and win with words will be extremely powerful in coming week. Sag. Take the one you wish to win to the seaside. When you are both warmed by the hot summer Sun and perhaps some modest domestic vino, you can't miss.
CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): All pooped out from last week, Cap? Olga hopes so. For old Olga does give a rap for Cap. Now week coming up promises to be a bit more tame. Not dull, mind you, just tame. Compared to last week that is. But then, compared to last week, ANY activity would seem tame.
AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Don't put all your marbles in one pocket, love. Especially during coming week. You may have plans (secret?) to plug in to fun and games. That part is safe. But just remember there is one who would shortcircuit you, if plans spring a leak. Cover all bases.
PISCES (February 19-March 20): Pisces, Pisces, you are the Peter Pan of the Zodiac. You grow up so reluctantly. Slowly you reach maturity, for you are always looking forwards and backwards. You are the fish swimming in opposite directions, remember? Week ahead will be one for fulfillment of childhood fantasy.

FAR AWAY PLACES — Someone will soon win a trip to Japan, including a visit to Expo '70. The winner will be selected by Nutley's new Toyota dealership, Jerry Roberts Inc. To be considered, one needs only to visit the Jerry Roberts' showroom at 126 Washington Avenue, Nutley. "There's no catch, nothing to buy, just stop in and drop an entry blank in the box," says Jerry Forman (left), secretary of the new Nutley business. He's seen here with his partner, Bob Scheurle, president, and Miss Momoya Ebina who's photographed in native Japanese attire.

Citrino Named Campaign Head

New Jersey Turnpike Commissioner Robert J. Citrino, Jr. of Nutley has been named Essex County Chairman of the Nelson Gross for U.S. Senator Campaign.

Citrino's appointment was announced by State Sen. Matthew J. Rinaldo (R-Union), statewide chairman of the Nelson Gross campaign effort. Citrino, recently appointed to the Turnpike Authority by Gov. William T. Cahill, has been active in Republican politics both in Essex County and on the state level for many years.

"We need a man who understands New Jersey's problems and is willing to tackle them at the highest level of government in the United States," Citrino said. "I know Nelson Gross is the man who can make sure New Jersey is represented at all times."

"I can't think of a more urgent problem than our transportation crisis. We can delay no longer. Every urban area in our state is in desperate need of new and improved highways where commuters won't have to stall in two hour traffic jams before they can get to work.

"Nelson Gross has proven his leadership in the past. I know that he has the ability to make New Jersey's problem top priority for consideration in Washington."

Citrino, a graduate of Georgetown University law school, is a partner in the firm of Citrino, Carella and Balsam. He successfully headed Gov. Cahill's Essex campaign last year and also managed the Essex County Reform Republicans campaign in 1967.

He is a member of the American, New Jersey and Essex County Bar Associations; the Elks Club of Nutley, Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church. He is also President of the Columbian Foundation.

Citrino is married to the former Jean Coraci. The couple has five children and reside in Nutley.

Banks Will Distribute Big Concert Tickets

Twelve banks in the Bloomfield-West Essex area will serve as distribution points for ticket sales for the "Concert Under the Stars" to be presented by the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra at The Knoll Golf Club in Parsippany on Thursday evening, August 27.

The concert is sponsored by Bloomfield College, owner of the club site. The college is planning a second campus there in the future.

Cooperating with the College in giving wide distribution of tickets are National Newark and Essex Bank and the Bloomfield Savings Bank. Tickets will be available Monday, July 20.

Nearly 50 banks and branch in the Morris County area are also cooperating with the College in providing points for ticket sales.

"This outstanding cooperation by the banks will be a great factor in making the concert the first sponsored by Bloomfield College highly successful," according to William A. Carhart, vice president and treasurer of the College. He emphasized that the concert is a non-profit venture planned by the College at considerable expense.

Branch banks of National Newark and Essex Bank where tickets can be obtained are Bloomfield Center, Community (Bloomfield), Watessing (Bloomfield), Glen Ridge, Montclair, Caldwell, West Caldwell, Cedar Grove and Fairfield.

Bloomfield Savings Bank will have tickets available at the Main Office and Brookdale and Ampere Parkway branches.

Rodino Urging Changes In Immigration Policy

Rep. Peter W. Rodino said today that the House Immigration Sub-committee, of which he is ranking member, has begun hearings on major immigration reform proposals to attain the goal of a fair and realistic immigration policy.

$56 Million In Assets Told Here

Mid year total assets of Nutley Savings and Loan Association, as announced by John F. Dolan, president were $56,799,435.29. This gives Nutley Savings a $2,922,112 increase in assets over last year at this time.

Savings continued a steady climb, reaching of $48,641,507, an increase of $2,742,104 over last year.

The new mortgage loan figure stands at $50,409,985, up $3,661,380.

Higher dividends on savings accounts was the rule during the past year. This time last year dividends paid out amounted to $1,056,341.76. In December 1969, dividends rose to $1,103,856.98, and as of June 1970, dividends stood at a new high of $1,196,545.42.

"The first half of 1970 for Nutley Savings", Dolan said, "was marked by steady growth that should carry us through the remainder of the year. With inflation working against everyone, we are pleased to see so many people getting the thrift habit, and using Nutley Savings to protect their savings, while earning the top interest rates in the country."

Fist Fight Over Girl Gets Fine

An 18-year-old Nutley teen was fined $50 at Municipal Court on July 8 for an assault and battery on another local youth.

Ralph Vicidomini of 36 Prospect Street pleaded guilty to the charge of fighting with Gary Kane, 19, of 82 Oakely Terrace on July 6.

Patrolman Ralph DePiro, the arresting officer, testified that he found the two teens fist fighting at the Park Oval on Franklin Avenue at about 11:30 p.m.

"Upon questioning the defendant," DePiro added, "He admitted to me that he threw the first punch."

Vicidomini said he started the fight because Kane took his girlfriend for a ride on a motorcycle.

Judge Edwin J.C. Joerg, who presided over the hearing, suspended a 30 day jail term in addition.

Cleveland Avenue Residents Petition for Traffic Controls

A group of Cleveland Avenue residents have recently petitioned the town to take action on the speeding problem in that area.

Mrs. John McCormack of 46 Cleveland Avenue, who is heading a group of about 40 residents, said she mailed the petition to the mayor several weeks ago.

"Since then I have had a talk with Nutley Police Chief Francis T. Buel and he has promised me action will be taken," she said.

The group is asking that the speed limit of 25 m.p.h. be more strictly enforced on the street; a stop sign to be erected at the corner of Ladeside Drive and Cleveland Avenue; another 'children at play' sign be added to the block and that the street be made 'one way.'

Buel, in answering the requests, said no immediate action on the problem could be taken other than policing the area.

"The only thing we can do now is put radar over there," he stated. "Approval of a stop sign at the corner could come as soon as the new traffic ordinance goes into effect."

Mrs. McCormack pointed out that there are upwards of 30 children residing on the block and the excessive speeding creates a safety hazard.

"Many of the children play in the streets, so we would like another 'children at play' sign erected near the bend," she stated.

The bend near the beginning of Cleveland Avenue poses a traffic hazard because speeding cars turning may not have enough time to stop safely.

"There have been no fatalities on the street," said Mrs. McCormack. "But we are trying to avoid this."

Buel stated that he is not against a 'children at play' sign but added that "the streets are not made for children to play in."

In answering the request that Cleveland Street be made 'one way,' Buel explained that speeding is increased when this takes place.

"It's a known fact by safety experts that speeding is increased when a street is made 'one way,'" he added.

But Mrs. McCormack and the group are still confident that something can be done. "Already, I've seen unmarked police cars patrolling the area," she commented. "We are hoping that we will get more results."

One of the troubles with modern civilization is the one-way man who thinks they know it all.
