School Paper Gets New Look For Fall Term

By John McCarthy

Belleville High School students will face the first week of school this week, knowing that the "Spotlight," the school's newspaper, is on their side.

Beth Fitzgerald, the paper's editor-in-chief, promises that this year's "Spotlight" will pertain to the school rather than to social issues which don't really relate to the kids.

The first issue, mimeographed this week for distribution as soon as possible, exemplifies this idea completely. The lead article is titled "Experiment in Student Responsibility" and deals with problems faced by the students in running the teen discotheque at the Stadium.

The article mentions the painting of the refreshment stand, a commendation for the town in supplying a juke box, soda and candy machines, and a reminder that the vandalism done by a few hampered the success of the program.

The only real controversy stirred up by the paper seems to come from an article entitled "Organized Anarchy:

An introduction to student government."

Second Chance For Vaccination

Parents of children ages one through ten in Belleville were urged today by Vincent T. Strumolo, Director of Public Affairs, to have their children immunized against rubella in the free public "make up program" if their children have not already been protected. This make up program will be held on Saturday, September 19 and Sunday, September 20 between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Franklin School, 325 Franklin Avenue in Nutley.

"Rubella or German measles is usually mild, if contracted by a child, but if it is contracted by a pregnant woman, the damage to her unborn child can be serious or even fatal," Strumolo said. "Epidemiologists point out that children are the usual carriers of rubella so that if the children are made immune to the disease there will be less likelihood of pregnant women contracting it. Also, the girls on: to ten who are vaccinated at this time will be of potential child bearing age in 10 to 20 years," the director went on to say.

These young children are the so-called "targets" in the campaign because they are Major changes in the Belleville school system this fall will include a new elementary level math series and seven new teaching positions, it was announced this week by Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco.

Greco also said he anticipated a large increase in student enrollment, particularly in the junior and senior high schools, but would not speculate how much this would be. Last year 172 additional students flooded this town's already overcrowded schools.

The new math textbook series, entitled "Patterns & Structures," replaces elementary level texts which had been in the system eight years.

Selecting the series from nine up-to-date offerings was the work of an eleven-man committee of teachers headed by Archibald Gallombardo, principal of School Five.

Published by Holt, Reinhart & Winston, the new series impressed the committee for three major standpoints, Greco said.

For one thing, at every grade level material previously developed is maintained and extended so that the building blocks of math knowledge are stabilized.

Secondly, the series includes "an accelerated sequence which enables above-average students to be challenged and to proceed more rapidly," Greco says. Greco also indicated the series develops ideas of algebra and geometry and serves as a background for math in the junior and senior high schools.

The textbooks are average priced, Greco says, ranging from $3.80 to $4. apiece.

In addition, the texts include "a very enlightened handbook for use by the teachers." The superintendent says the handbook will enable teachers accustomed to the old series to make the adjustment with no problem.

Benefit Game Ready

A benefit baseball game between the two Farm League all-star teams is scheduled this Saturday at one p.m. at the Michael V. Marotti Little League field. Proceeds from the game will go to the Debbie McCool Fund.

Admission will not be charged at the gate, but donations will be accepted during the game. A large crowd is expected.

The original Fund was set up earlier this year to aid Debbie McCool, a 1970 Belleville High graduate who has been afflicted with a rare blood disease. Because of the extremely high medical costs incurred by the McCool family, the original fund of $9,000 has been depleted.

The idea to replenish the empty fund by a baseball game was largely the efforts of Vince Falcatano and Morris Renna, Farm League coaches.

Contributions to the fund can be made payable to the Debbie McCool Fund in care of Vince Falcatano, 15 Memphis Avenue, or Morris Renna, 352 De Witt Avenue.

In addition to the all-star game, there is currently being conducted a door-to-door collection for the fund under the supervision of adults. Permission for the children to collect on street corners has been granted by Mayor Ken Smith.

Managing the American League will be John Zalinskis, assisted by Leonard Burrell, Joseph Iacona and Nunzio D'Elia, who will announce the game.

The new math books will be used immediately by all elementary grade levels. The superintendent says students should have no problem adapting to the series.

In the accelerated aspect of the series the teacher will play an important part, for he must evaluate which reading level the youngster is at, a job complicated, Greco says, by the fact that research reveals at least five different reading levels for each grade.

Joining Gallombardo on the committee's six month study, were Miss Margaret Alvino and Miss Majorie Gross from School Eight; Miss Jean Dailey from School Ten; Mrs. Marilyn Hawthorne from School Three; Mrs.

Mary Colasurdo from School Five, and Miss Mary Murray from School Four.

Also on the committee were Mrs. May Mazza from School Seven; Michael Corbo from School Nine; Armand Cilento from School Two, and Mrs. Geraldine Colello from School One.

Greco also praised the Board of Education for bolstering the teaching ranks by seven new positions, including three remedial reading teachers, one physical education instructor, one music teacher, one speech teacher, and a counselor.

Two of the remedial reading teachers will be used in the elementary schools, where there presently are two. The other remedial specialist will be used in the (Continued on Page 2)

Adults-Teens Combined To Make Discotheque

By Annette Guardabascio

("Our Place," an impromptu discotheque fashioned by Belleville teenagers under the Municipal Stadium, has been a major gathering place for this town's youth over the summer.

Teenagers had been complaining for many months, both to their parents and at Town Hall, asking for some place for them to gather. In June, many people pitched in to create the discotheque, and it has been running ever since.

In the following article, Annette Guardabascio, president of the Belleville

Youth Council, describes how the discotheque was created, what its difficulties have been, and who were the instrumental people in making "Our Place" a reality. (N.T.G.)

The idea for "Our Place" came about in June when Angelo Zoppi, Mimi Ritacco, and myself met with Mayor Kenneth Smith and spoke about the outcome of Youth Council surveys. Along with Mike Albertine and Rocco Ferraro (also on the executive committee) we conducted surveys at Belleville High School before the closing of school asking for suggestions

Legion Affair Saturday

The Belleville American Legion Post 299 will install Wallace Thatcher as commander during annual installation ceremonies this Saturday evening at the post home, 118 Belmont Avenue.

A complete slate of officials is scheduled for swearing in at the Joseph J. Carbat Post along with Thatcher. The post's auxiliary will also install its officers in a joint ceremony.

Program coordinator for the 9 p.m. ceremony is Anthony Mattia, chairman of the Belleville Veterans Council.

Belleville Once Had Two Governing Bodies

By Allan Crisp

(Once again Town Historian Allan Crisp has come up with some fascinating historical data about this town's rich and colorful history. In this latest Crisp gem, it is revealed that Belleville once found itself with two government bodies because of a strange series of events. Many of Crisp's discoveries are credited to an early book written about Belleville by a former Mayor, Hugh Holmes, who delights in revealing local anecdotes such as the time the cashier of Belleville's Manufacturer's Bank outwitted the president of a big Newark bank.)

In 1910, Belleville adopted Mayor-Town Council form of government. In 1914, we changed to Commission form of government. In 1961 we voted in Council-Manager government and in 1967 went back to Commission government.

Hugh Holmes, first mayor of Belleville, in his charming paperback book about our town, written in the early 1890s, proves that history repeats itself, for Belleville had an even more amazing experience in 1874-76. He tells the story in these words:

"At a public meeting in 1874, it was decided to charter Belleville as a city with full power to make all improvements. A bill was drawn to this effect, but it was so late in the season that its friends did not think it possible to get it passed.

"Then the opponents, finding this out, began to taunt its friends and say, 'We have picked your flints—you can't get it passed. We will bet you $50 you can't get it passed,' until its friends, beginning to get tired of these taunts, determined to make the effort.

"If the reader has had any experience with legislative business, he may think of four persons starting for Trenton with that long, dry city charter and having it passed by both houses of the legislature, when it took 20 men night and day half that time to print it.

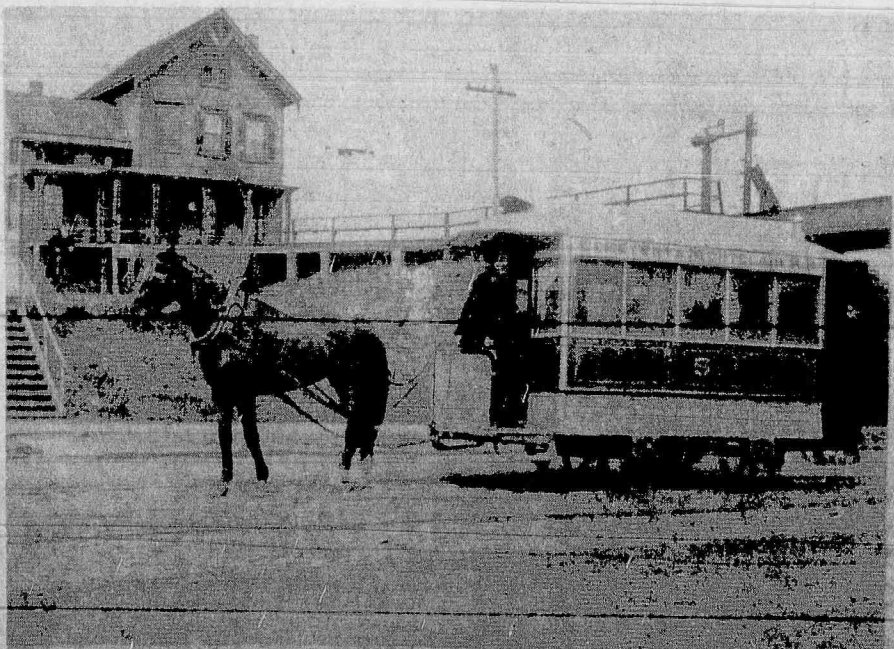

"But these parties knew the ropes: it was introduced at that evening's session, gotten immediately out of the hands of the committee, taken to the printer and 20 men were put on it at once. They worked all night but there being so much of it they did not get it on the members' desks until Thursday noon. When it came up in the house on its second reading, its opponents were there, but what could they do?

"That evening, its friends got the Speaker of the House, the President of the Senate and all the lobby with them and the next morning all the rules were suspended and the President said, 'This bill is passed, just five minutes before both houses adjourned.'

"The town organized under it, all the officers were elected, such as mayor, alderman, clerks, assessors, collectors, etc. However, the old slate of officials refused to resign and so for two years Belleville had two governing bodies meeting in different halls.

"Finally, the original group convinced the city slate that they should resign! Thus, the town, as might be said, lay like a snake in winter, dormant, professing to do, but nothing done for ten years until 1884 when some younger and more enterprising ones were elected as borough commissioners."

It is easy to understand why the northern section of the town seceded in 1874 to become Franklin, later changing its name to Nutley.

organ of that student body and that its numerous other branches meet infrequently and accomplish little.

The first edition also has its novel ideas. Feature editor Liz Weiss proposes that Belleville adopt a mascot and possibly a new name to replace the "Bellboy".

The author cites examples of the Bloomfield Bengals, and the Essex Eagles, as names "which they yell so proudly and chant so bravely at their games and that personifies their team with a swift, strong animal."

The Spotlight also hits the students for their apparent apathy towards the Student Government Organization.

Patti Tortoello, a staff reporter, points out that not enough people are involved in the S.G.O. to make it work the way it should.

The editor-in-chief admits this issue seems to be comprised mostly of editorials. With the problems of the school and students being presented and attacked in the first week of school, it looks like the Spotlight may become a stimulus for more action this year and more rights and privileges for the students.

Al Grossman indicated that last year some rights and privileges were gained. The new editor displays hope that this year, the student can get more if they don't abuse the rights they already have.

Tuesday Night Zone Board Set For 7 Variances

Seven applications for variances are listed on this Tuesday's Zoning Board agenda, the first regularly scheduled meeting since June.

Monday night the Board will have its annual reorganization meeting in which officers for this year will be elected.

Last year's chairman, Norman Lauterette has resigned, and in his place, John Morello has been heading the Board. Eligible for the top spot on the Zoning Board are the five members: Morello, Arthur DeFuria, Anthony Agresta, Sam Giordano and Chester Prosperi.

The variances will be dealt with as time allows in the following order:

- * An application to build a two family house in a one-family zone at 10 Mary Street. Applying for the variance is Robert Landolfi.
- * Don's Decorators, 125 Heckel Street wants to put an addition onto an already existing drapery shop. The zone is Residential "C". The establishment is there originally by variance.
- * A grocery store owned by Kypriotis Nikolas at 98 Division Street wants to store an ice cream truck in the rear garage. The truck would constitute a non-conforming use.
- * R & H Trucking of 273 Main Street want to expand its business. It is currently in an "A" and "B" residential zone.
- * Conrad Hahn wants to put a one family house on an undersized lot at 48 Salter Place.
- * Michael Prezioso wants to use a lot at 62-72 North Seventh Street as a parking facility for people who use the subway to Newark. The lot is in a Residential "C" zone.
- * Richard Zigarelli wants to use the first floor of his two-family home at 406 Jorammon Street for a state approved half-day nursery school.

Belleville Student In Union College

Gerard C. DeLuca of 30 Meacham street, Belleville, is among 1,000 students enrolled in the day and evening sessions of Union College's annual summer session, which opened on June 22 and continues through July 31.

More than half of the students enrolled in the summer session are from more than 200 colleges and universities other than Union College, Prof. Bernard Solon, director, reported. He said 200 colleges and universities in about 40 states are represented in this year's Summer Session.

The enrollment of 1,000 is the largest in the 37-year history of Union College.

Dean's List For Belleville Student

The physical education instructor will be assigned to the elementary schools, and will enable children of grades three and four to gain instruction in this area. Previously, only one gym teacher was employed in the elementary levels, and hence only fifth and sixth grade students received physical education training.

The new music teacher will join the four man staff in the elementary grades to help provide increased vocal and instrumental instruction. The speech teacher will be assigned to the Special Education Department, while the additional counselor will work in the high school.

Today, exercise is a must for everyone in order to keep fit. Any time of the day is fine for exercise. But it's not a good idea to retire immediately after strenuous exercise. Give the body at least an hour to unwind first. Don't exercise right after a meal. Wait at least two hours. (On the other hand, exercising just before a light meal is a good way to combine exercise with diet.) You might "go stale" for a period when you begin to wonder why you ever started a training program. It usually happens to everyone. Just sweat it out. Your enthusiasm will return. Don't quit!

Patrolman Mead was born in Newark and brought to Belleville as a child. He joined the police force in 1945 as a chance man and was made a full-time member two years later. He was assigned to the department's traffic division.

He enlisted in the Army in 1939 and won a battlefield commission in 1944 in the Battle of the Bulge. He was a member of the Belleville Policeman's Benevolent Association and the Belleville Post 105 American Legion.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Louise Tiernan Mead; a son, Edward at home, and two daughters, Mrs. Patricia Hertz of Bloomfield and Miss Linda Mead at home; his mother, Mrs. Mae Mead Mazza, and his maternal grandfather, Jacob Jewell of Hillside.

Make-Up Program Set For Rubella Vaccination

the group most likely to catch and spread the disease. While rubella is usually mild in young children, it can be especially damaging to the unborn child of an expectant mother.

"The Center of Disease Control in Atlanta, Georgia reports that 20,000 children were born with serious defects after an epidemic of rubella six years ago had infected many women who were to become mothers and 30,000 infants died. Thus rubella can be as serious as polio used to be before it was conquered by widespread immunization. New Jersey did not have a reported and proven case of polio in the four years 1966-1969, inclusive. This demonstrates what vaccination can do and this is what we want to do with rubella-make it an unknown disease. This will protect future mothers and their children.

"But this can only be done if parents make sure their children have been immunized."

A Worthy Cause

The League of Women Voters

The Nutley branch of the League of Women Voters is rounding out 46 years of service to the community.

Over the years the local LWV has disseminated background information on candidates up for election and issues before the voters.

Currently, the organization is working to bring an end to water pollution, improve the environment, and engaged in an effort to bring equality of opportunity in education, employment and representation to every citizen.

The LWV states its prime purpose is to "promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government."

Local projects currently under study by the group are - the adequacy and relevancy of local building codes; supporting adequate recreational programs and promote adoption of a master plan.

The League's work is of a nonpartisan nature, hence the life of every citizen in town is touched by the group's activity without the flavor of partisan politics.

The LWV is on the verge of launching a fund raising campaign. The effort will be conducted during the week of September 14-21. The activity and past performances of this fine organization merits the support of our citizens.

September, 1970

"There was that nameless splendor everywhere That wild exhilaration in the air..."

Longfellow

Nostalgic September, for centuries the harvest month, which brings the turning of the leaves, the first brisk winds, school, football, and autumn, completes the third quarter of 1970.

Fall arrives late this year, on the 23rd - and lasts until winter arrives December 22nd. V-J Day falls on the 2nd, Labor Day on the 7th. On the 8th, in 1943, Italy surrendered to the U.S.

The first Continental Congress convened in Philadelphia on the 5th, in 1774. James Fenimore Cooper was born at Burlington, N.J. on the 7th in 1789 and the record Galveston hurricane occurred on the 8th in 1900.

Washington lost a battle (Brandywine) to the British at Chadd's Ford, Pennsylvania, on the 11th, in 1777, though he delayed the capture of the capital (Philadelphia) two weeks in doing so. Francis Scott Key wrote "The Star Spangled Banner" on the 14th in 1814. (The 12th is Defenders' Day in Maryland.) The British had captured Washington and advanced on Baltimore with fleet and army. When Fort M'Henry held out through a British night bombardment, the sight of the flag next morning inspired Key's famous words.

William Howard Taft, the only American to have been President and Chief Justice, was born in Cincinnati on the 15th in 1857. The 17th is Citizenship Day. William McGuffey, who produced the famous "readers" which educated millions of Americans, was born on the 23rd near Claysville, Pennsylvania, in 1800. (He also lived in Ohio and Virginia.) And John Marshall, fourth Chief Justice, was born on the 24th, in Fauquier County, Virginia, in 1755.

Operating In The Red

The federal government incurred the largest quarterly deficit since 1945 in the second quarter of this year. In addition, the estimate is for another huge deficit in the current (3rd) quarter. (The second quarter deficit was more than fourteen billions.)

While the official prediction is still for a fiscal year deficit of manageable proportions, the size of the deficits in this and the last quarter are causing concern. Huge deficits not only feed inflation but threaten the stability of the dollar.

Interestingly, the primary cause of the whopping second quarter deficit was the six per cent pay hike voted to all government employees by Congress last year - an unjustified spending of money the government didn't have, which preceded an almost 50% pay hike Congress voted itself.

Fiscal responsibility is difficult to achieve when the federal voting roll grows so large, and influential, as to constitute a highly effective political lobby. It is impossible to achieve when Senators and Congressmen raise their already adequate pay sharply, for by so doing they disarm themselves of the logical argument against hikes for everyone.

Seems Only Yesterday

Work On Ice House Stopped By Police

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

The anticipated overcrowding of students in Belleville Public Schools became a reality, and school officials were beset with related problems such as lack of sufficient books and a large teacher-student ratio. Enrollment hit 5,685, an increase of 172 students over the previous year's amount. A study conducted by Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco revealed that of the 172 students, 153 had transferred from parochial schools.

Acting Police Chief Harry Tepe, annoyed at what he termed improper safety devices on Route 21, asked the State Highway Department to improve conditions on the "treacherous" highway immediately. Tepe's action came in the wake of a near fatal accident on the road in which a Paterson woman's car struck the abutment at the Rutgers Street exit and burst into flames.

Five Years Ago

Governor Richard J. Hughes and the full slate of Democratic candidates were expected to attend the Belleville Democratic Club's second annual "luau" at the Fountain in Belleville. Dinner chairman Mrs. Mary Senatore set a deadline for ticket returns due to a heavy response and limited seating capacity.

A former Belleville resident was appointed registrar and assistant dean at Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania. Miss Carol W. Hartley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo A. Hartley of 51 Mertz Avenue, had previously served as assistant dean of women and registrar at Carthage College, Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Ten Years Ago

Colonel Milton G. Schneider of 61 Perry Street, Belleville, was named adjutant general of the U.S. Army Infantry Center at Fort Benning, Georgia. He came to the post following a year's tour as deputy adjutant general of Headquarters, Eighth Army, in Seoul, Korea.

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce president, Arthur Jackson, announced the program for the Chamber of Commerce dinner which would open the group's season. Guest speakers included H. Bruce Palmer, president of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, Senator Charles W. Sandman Jr., and William J. Orchard, president of the Belleville Foundation, who would tell of the value of a Chamber of Commerce to the community.

The Right Reverend D.M. Harman, presiding Bishop of the second Episcopal District, was to speak at the Little Zion U.A.M.E. Church. The church was preparing for "Homecoming Sunday," when new officers were to be installed. A highlight of the day was to be the appearance of Evangelist Edith M. Randolph of Jamaica, Long Island.

Fifteen Years Ago

A procession moving the Holy Scrolls to the new Temple of Congregation Ahavath Achim on Academy Street was scheduled to take place. Members and friends of the congregation were notified to gather in front of the old Synagogue on Washington Avenue and then proceed to the new building. The Scrolls were to be carried under the canopy by Dr. Albert L. Raab, rabbi of the Congregation, Dr. Sy P. Fischer, chairman of the ritual committee, and Frank Taffet, oldest past president.

Clifford Faust, assistant town engineer for 22 years, was appointed to succeed the late Matthew J. Sheehan. Faust also was named acting building inspector, a position combined with the engineer's duties, effective after the discharge of Thomas P. Greco.

A compromise settlement on a new contract for Wallace and Tiernan workers was reached, averting the threat of the first strike at the plant. The vote by the independent unions were comparatively close, with 315 voting to accept and 220 denying the compromise.

Doors were to be opened at Saint Anthony's new school for 150 grammar

Twenty-five Years Ago

The possibility that a Belleville industry would manufacture turbine engines designed to use atomic energy was revealed by Ralph Lucas, inventor and engineer of Elmar, New York. His earlier announcement to use his patent in Belleville set citizens to speculating on their fate should disintegrated atoms get out of control.

Joint Installation ceremonies of American Legion Post 105 and the Legion Auxiliary were scheduled to be held at Masonic Temple. Harry Ziegler was to take office as Legion Commander; Mrs. Louis Wagner was to be installed as Auxiliary president.

Forty Years Ago

Work on the DeJonge icehouse at Clinton and William Streets was stopped by police on order of the Board of Commissioners following neighbors' protests.

Fifty Years Ago

The Dallo Social Club met at the home of Fred Ditter on Union Avenue. Arrangements were made for a block dance.

Warranties

After years of consumer dissatisfaction with the warranties of household product manufacturers, the Senate recently passed a bill which requires manufacturers to stand firmly behind products which carry a "full warranty."

The House is expected to concur (might have by the time you read this) and thus the U.S. consumer can look forward to better protection in purchases of U.S.-made products.

New Teachers
Talk About
School Year

QUESTION: Are you looking forward to teaching in the Nutley School System and what brought you here?

ASKED: Of new teachers entering the School System.

Miss Grace Carollo, Bloomfield:
I'm very much looking forward to teaching in Nutley. Last year I did my practice teaching at Washington School and I guess that is the main reason why I chose Nutley as the place to do my teaching. I practice taught a sixth grade class but I also did get to know alot of the other students at Washington School. Also, now I know alot of the faculty there so that is an ideal spot to start my teaching. I graduated last year from Paterson State and live in Bloomfield, so in a way I am familiar with Nutley. I've always heard that Nutley was a good place to teach and last year to some extent I found that was true.

Miss Carollo

Kenneth Worthington, Bergenfield:
Of course I'm looking forward to teaching in Nutley. Also, I'm glad to be getting out of the Army. Right now I'm on leave from Georgia.

Soon I will be getting my discharge so I'll be joining the Nutley teaching staff at Washington School sometime the end of September where I'll be instructing the boys there in physical education. I've always been interested in sports so I suppose that is the reason why I became a physical education teacher. I graduated from Missouri State Teachers College three years ago but right after that was drafted into the Army. I have heard from many people that Nutley is a good place to teach.

Miss Judith Marino, Bloomfield:
I've already taught one year at Blessed Sacrament School in East Orange but since I reside in Bloomfield I know that teaching in the Nutley School System will be an interesting experience. Being from the Nutley area, I've heard much about the system here and what I've heard I like. I'll be teaching third grade at Washington School. Since I love to work with children, I'll be looking forward to my job. I do think that there is some difference between teaching in a parochial school and teaching in a public school system but I couldn't tell you what. This is the first year I'm teaching in a public school.

Miss Joyce Rozek, Belleville:
Yes, I am looking forward to teaching, and particularly in Nutley. I'll be an art teacher in Washington School. Being a resident of Belleville, I'm familiar with the Nutley teaching methods, and I like them. Since I like working with young children and enjoy teaching art, it will be an enjoyable year, I'm sure. I've been a Belleville resident for 17 years so I'm very familiar with the area. I've always enjoyed working with children.

Individual Men on Police Beat Have Their Own
Thoughts on How It Feels to be Faceless Targets

By Phil White

RECENT INCIDENTS designed to harm and even kill members of the Nutley Police Department are having a marked effect upon the local men who wear the uniform.

More than one Nutley patrolmen has told us outright that they are scared.

"It's one thing to go out and risk your life doing something to help another person," one of our veteran cops said. "But it really seems useless when you know you are only a target because of the uniform you're wearing."

Both local incidents seems to coincide with similar anti-police activities in the country in that there is no evidence here or elsewhere that the attackers have been out to get even with any individual men.

The contention that "it's the uniform and not the man inside it" seems to be the case here too. When the small group of persons placed an Army fuse into the gasoline tank of a patrol car at the Franklin School there was no way of knowing in advance who specifically would be occupying the car dispatched to that scene on a window-breaking complaint.

And there's no evidence to indicate that anyone was after revenge when Patrolman Ralph DePiro was shot at while on foot patrol last week at Franklin Avenue and Center Street.

Moreover, in the DePiro incident, the car from which the shotgun misfired carried out-of-state license tags.

Policemen here are hoping for the best (that the two local incidents were not related) but are preparing for the worst (shotguns now carried in all cars, new electronic gadgetry at Police Headquarters to protect the men inside.)

Mayor Chenoweth and Police Chief Buel seem to have considered all the possibilities to better protect members of the department.

Many of the men, however, wish the two leaders would reconsider assigning a man on foot at Franklin and Center especially at night when acts of violence against police most often occur.

"No other town around has men out walking the streets alone at night," one patrolman reminded us. "Personally, I don't feel at all comfortable going out there alone at night. All the gadgets at the Police Station aren't doing anything to protect the man out walking the beat on foot."

PERSONALS: Commissioner John Lucy is devoting more time to the Department of Public Works now that he's retired from his post at the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission. He just returned from a trip through the mid-west.

Both Tom Farewell and Pete Childs were back on the job this week in the Parks Department after those ill-timed vacations.

Mayor Harry Chenoweth had kept in daily contact with other Parks Department personnel during those vacations, we've learned. Actually, both Sal Vangieri and Len Vespucci kept things moving smoothly these past three weeks. And we shouldn't forget mentioning the fine work done in the office by Marge O'Donnell and Marge Narucki ....

THE NEW OWNER of the Mason Home, Gary Korkala, is so fanatic (his own word) about keeping the Calico Lane tract intact ("no subdivisions now or ever") that he's thinking about doing something to end such a possibility once and for all -- "something like putting a swimming pool smack in the middle between the two lots...."

***

Have you seen any of those sweatshirts being worn by members of the Police Department? They carry the message: "Pigs Is Beautiful." (And they're worn only off-duty in case anyone had any doubts.)

***

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: Dr. Rober Fleischer, commenting on the new ungraded report card being extended this term in elementary schools: "It has always struck me as being terribly wrong to tell a youngster he was a failure at the age of six...."

Those ungraded report cards, incidentally, were introduced at the second grade level last year, contrary to our report last week. It's the third grade this year where the new reports are going into effect for the first time.

Man In The News

Dr. Gaydos Named Grid Team Physician

The name of Dr. Albert L. Gaydos is about to become even more popularly known, if that's possible, throughout Nutley.

Dr. Gaydos, who already is Town Physician and doctor for St. Mary's School, is about to be officially named Team Physician for all athletic activities sponsored by the Nutley Board of Education.

Dr. Gaydos was born in Brooklyn and was graduated from Bryant High School, Long Island City, in 1929. He then entered New York University where he received a bachelor of science degree in 1933.

Next he enrolled at the St. Louis University School of Medicine and received his medical degree there in 1938.

His internship came at the Mary Immaculate Hospital, Jamaica, Long Island, during the 1938-40 period. Residency was then established at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Manhattan, where from 1940-41 he began his association with athletes on the Yankee baseball and New York football Giants teams.

For the next five years, June 1941 through January 1946, Dr. Gaydos was on active duty with the United States Medical Corps. He entered the service as a First Lieutenant and had reached the rank of Major when discharged in 1946.

He was stationed at the Fort Wadsworth Hospital on Staten Island for about 16 months, and then assigned to a hospital platoon ship which during the next three years served troops in the North African Campaigns and the European and Pacific Theaters.

Between the years 1954 to 1959, his already busy schedule did not prevent him from attending Seton Hall University where he took seven post-graduate courses ranging from abdominal surgery to gynecological pathology.

Dr. Gaydos is affiliated with St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, on the surgical staff, and with Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville, on the Medical Staff.

He is a member of the American Medical Association, the Nutley Ambulance Association, Nutley Civilian Defense, Medical Corps, St. Mary's Holy Name Society, Knights of Columbus and Nutley Elks Lodge 1290.

Dr. Gaydos came to Nutley in 1945 and resides at 225 Hillside Avenue with his wife, Beatrice E. Gaydos. They have three children, Albert Jr., a Rutgers graduate now in his second year at St. John's Law School, Brooklyn; a married daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Todd of Danvers, Mass, and a younger daughter, Sandra, who resides in Vineland.

Helen's Thina ...

Four Legged
House Guests
In The Home

By Helen Maguire

I heard a commotion on the front lawn the other day and reached the scene just in time to see Rod trot around the side of the house brandishing a broom at Cassie and Lum. The two little fiends had caught a baby squirrel and were preparing to have fun and games with it when Papa appeared.

The cats dropped their victim and retreated under a bush and we scooped the infant up and brought it into the house. I made a substitute nest out of a shoe box, some shredded paper and old rags and deposited our new guest in his temporary home. Then we sent for Layne Cullen, our local animal expert, for some advice and the care and feeding of small squirrels. Layne grew up on a Virginia farm and knows more about animals than the rest of us. We also send for her when someone gets hurt or breaks out in an unexplained rash since she is also a registered nurse and very handy to have around.

Anyway, Layne prescribed an eyedropper for feeding and I have spent the last few days caring for three babies instead of two. I don't know what we're going to do when he gets older but we'll cross that bridge when we come to it.

The squirrel ranks high as an interesting house guest but the all time award will have to go to the Stottlemire's French poodle, Gigi.

The Stottlemires lived in Fort Lee last year and didn't know a soul. The house across the street where they lived in 1968 had been rented by Len Boehmer and his family. Len was utility infielder for the Yankees last season and everytime the team went on the road, Jean, who is worse than a kid when it comes to staying alone, would move in with Alice Boehmer. The only hitch was that the Boehmers were terrified of dogs so while Jean and the kids camped over there, Gigi spent the time over here with us.

Things were working out fine until the Stots bought a new house back home in Washington and Jean had to fly out to close the deal. She was gone two weeks and Gigi vacationed at the Maguires.

Unfortunately, this canine couldn't stand men and as luck would have it, I had to spend a week in Clara Maass and left for the hospital when Gigi had been here for only a couple of days.

Picture this now. Here is this pedigreed pup with an aversion to men left with five males. Everytime Rod came to see me, I asked how the French madame was doing. "I don't know," said Rod the first few times. "She's still under the bed and won't come out unless we drag her. She won't eat and we have to carry her outside when nature calls."

I envisioned a heartbroken, starved dog awaiting me at home. Forget it. That shrewd poodle had figured that if she couldn't lick them, she'd better join them and by the time I got home, she had wound all five of them around her little paw and would leap into Rod's lap as soon as he sat down. I don't know if her fortnight in Nutley did her any good but it sure changed her attitude toward humans in trousers.

But back to the squirrel. If you know how to raise an infant of the species, be kind enough to let me know.

He received his medal upon release from the Army in August.

Parish Council Under Study At St. Peters

The steering committee of St. Peter's Church, appointed by Auxiliary Bishop Joseph A. Costello, Pastor of St. Peter's to establish a Parish Council, held its seventh monthly meeting in the Rectory August 24. Bishop Costello presided at the meeting and progress reports were received from the various committee chairmen.

A parish population distribution study is being conducted under the direction of Richard Fantin, of 57 Bridge Street. Mr. Fantin is an observer to the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council. With only eight streets yet to be covered in the Parish, a final report is expected at the September 28 meeting.

Robert Trainor, of 105 Tappan Avenue, representative of St. Peter's Catholic Young Adult Club on the Committee, is chairman of a sub-committee preparing a questionnaire for distribution to all parishioners. Intended to seek out, and identify parish problems, needs, and interests, it is expected to provide a cross-section of parish response on which the programs of the Parish Council can be established.

George Coughlin, of 189 Tappan Avenue, president of St. Peter's Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, is serving as Chairman of the Education Committee. This group has presented to the Steering Committee an attentive research program which is being implemented presently. A series of lectures has been scheduled in St. Peter's School Hall, with the first to be held Tuesday evening, October 6, starting at 8 p.m. Efforts are being made to secure as speaker Rev. John H. Derriks of Morristown, in whose parish the Parish Council is already well established.

To fully publicize the first basic lecture on the Parish Council, announcements will be made through the Legion of Honor, the Rosary Confraternity, the Holy Name Society, the Catholic Daughters, the Knights of Columbus, the C.Y.O., the C.Y.A.C., the C.C.D., and other parish groups. The students in St. Peter's School will write letters of invitation to their parents, and participate in a poster contest to further publicize the October 6 meeting. Sister Mary Lois, principal of St. Peter's School, and Sister Inez represent the Sisters of St. Peter's on the Steering committee.

Blaze Controlled At Town Deli

Belleville firemen fought a blaze in the Town Deli delicatessen, 650 Joralemon Street last Wednesday which caused extensive damage to the food store. No one was injured.

Fire officials said the blaze apparently started in a garbage disposal outside of the delicatessen. The fire was sucked into a refrigerator compressor mechanism adjacent to it by an exhaust fan. From there, the fire went through holes in the stores exterior wall where pipes run from the compressor into interior rooms.

Abromson Refers Robbery To Jury

A charge of breaking and entering and larceny against a Bloomfield young man was referred to the grand jury by Judge Edward Abromson at Belleville Criminal Court on August 27.

Joseph P. Halpin of 51 Conley Place waived a preliminary hearing. The defendant is charged with stealing about $1,500 worth of personal goods, including a revolver, on August 20 from the apartment of Samuel Knowles, 254 Joralemon Street.

Working with information on the case supplied by local Detectives Nick Berrigan and Ronald Thompson, Patrolmen George Sheridan and Frank Ward arrested a suspect on August 22. Items that Halpin allegedly stole included jewelry and cash and a record player.

Belleville police have also arrested another suspect in the Knowles apartment burglary, who is scheduled for a hearing in the local court today.

One trouble with the news, as it is retailed in this country, is that it plays up too many freaks.

James A. Carbone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carbone of 35 Van Ruyper Place, Belleville, is among the 584 freshmen who entered Colgate University Hamilton, N.Y., on Sunday, September 6.

The Colgate Class of 1974 is the first in the university's 151-year history to include women students. Coeducation was initiated at Colgate in 1968 when women transfer students were first accepted.

A 1970 graduate of Seton Hall Preparatory School, Carbone took part in four days of orientation prior to the start of classes on September 10.

Highlighting the opening week of Colgate's 1970-71 academic year was the dedication on September 10 of the new $2.8 million Olin Hall housing the biology and psychology departments.

Colgate University is an independent college of the liberal arts currently enrolling 2,100 undergraduate students. Founded in 1819, the University was a pioneer in the field of general education (core curriculum) and the college calendar which gives all students the opportunity to engage in independent study (January special studies period) between two regular 14-week semesters.

Nuclear plants produce no smoke, no odor, and help maintain the integrity of our natural environment. Right now, we're building the world's largest nuclear generating station near Salem, New Jersey. In addition, we have purchased two more nuclear units for installation on Newbold Island, near Bordentown Township. The first unit is scheduled to operate in 1975, the second in 1977. We expect to add more nuclear generating stations to meet New Jersey's future needs for additional clean electric power.

Belleville Had Two Governing Bodies

Manufacturers Bank outwitted the president of the Newark Banking Company:

"The Manufacturers Bank, which was chartered in 1834, was a neat brick building with a granite stone front on Main Street near the bridge. It was in high repute and the morning its doors were closed, had a circulation of $200,000, but only $1,313 in its vaults. The writer (Holmes) remembers well when a large crowd had assembled, each one with a small amount, waiting for the doors to open. The dwelling in which the Cashier resided was attached to the bank. The bank's condition was noised abroad the night before it closed and it had reached the ears of Mr.

Taylor, president of the Newark Banking Company, who had $1,300 on deposit in the Belleville bank.

"He thought to play it smart and be first, drove up and called on the cashier at his residence, thinking to get in through the house door and be first, but the Cashier was suited to the occasion. "He, seeing the hungry crowd outside, and knowing that Mr. Taylor would take nearly every dollar in the vaults, and was not certain but what the crowd if they could not get their money might become so excited that if they did not harm him bodily, they might tear down the bank."

"He politely invited Mr. Taylor out the back door to see his beautiful flower garden. As soon as he was out, he slammed the door and told him he must come in the bank door with the rest, which made him the last one.

After the others had received theirs, some taking the money without counting it—just scraping it from the counter in shop bags—there was but little left for Mr. Taylor. The Cashier certainly took the wisest course."

If Belleville had had its way, we would have had a noisy, dirty railroad on the north side of Second River instead of beautiful Branch Brook Park. Mr. Holmes writes:

"Belleville had a charter for a steam railroad as far back as 1836. It was for a direct route across the hill to New York. The road was surveyed and the writer remembers well when Mr. Ralph Pomeroy sent his team to plow and work on the proposed road to save the charter.

"Then again, before the road was built to Bloomfield in 1853, they agreed to join with Belleville and build a road direct to New York. A committee was appointed from each place. They wanted to run down on the south side of Second River, to which our committee would not assent, but wanted it on this side. The difference was only about 100 yards. They could not agree and so Bloomfield made contact with the Morris and Essex Railroad.

"In 1858, there was a charter for our present Paterson and Newark Railroad; books were open for subscription and on July 10, 1859 were closed. There was no idea at that time it would be controlled by the Erie Railroad. There was about $60,000 of stock and the Erie allowed it to be sold under what the writer contended was a fictitious judgment of $500, which wiped out all the stock, the writer's part being $4,000. There was one thing this railroad did, whether to its credit or otherwise.

"They paid for the biggest supper this writer ever witnessed in Trenton or any other place. It was a tremendous gathering. Some of the members who had helped pass it had wanted "a little blowout." The next week, the writer being a Director, called on the landlord of the Trenton House where the supper was held for the bill and, to his surprise, it was $1,865.00.

"But now we have as good railroad facilities as we need. Seventeen trains per day, each way, with nicely cushioned seats and ventilated cars and manned by a corps of polite and gentlemanly conductors, with the brakemen also included."

In commenting on the great changes which took place during his lifetime, Hugh Holmes speculated on the changes which the future might bring. Among them, he had high hopes for postal service, stating: "Can we doubt that all our mails which now only travel sixty miles an hour will be placed in tubes and with electric speed be sent as many miles per minute." But he showed remarkable--almost clairvoyant--powers when he concluded, "Or that we have portable, adjustable wings, or some rubber ball or car with cushioned chair and fly with lightning speed, not to be detained because of an open draw in the bridge, or the chain not being down on the steamboat, or fly across the ocean without becoming seasick." Today, who would dare prophesy as accurately modes of transportation in 2050, which is equivalent to the span of years between 1890 and 1970?

Discotheque Story Is Told

for things to do and what the students liked and disliked, in addition to their opinions on many topics.

The "Discotheque" seemed to be our idea of a conglomeration of many things the students wanted. Besides providing a place to "hang" where the young people can walk indoors or remain in the Stadium bleachers, the kids would have music, food, and refreshments mixed with the atmosphere of their friends and the needed opportunity to make new acquaintances with whom they will be in the same school in September.

I truly hope that most of the town's people continue to back us. So far, storekeepers, policemen and residents thought that our venture was a commendable one. Some storekeepers were happy because they had no more loiterers.

The police also seemed to like "Our Place", and as a matter of fact, have been getting along very well with the kids and doing a terrific job, both the regular force and especially the auxiliary police.

There were some complaints from the neighbors who live very close to "Our Place," complaints about the volume of the juke box and the 11-12 midnight closing. In response to these complaints we had the juke box volume locked at a reasonable level and voluntarily reduced the closing time to 10:30 p.m.

All of us kids are continually trying very hard to prove ourselves, our maturity in handling many little situations that could've turned into problems, and we really want to keep it going. After all, it took so long to get, and it is a beginning for what we hope that teenagers in the 15 to 19 year old bracket in the future will acquire by showing some initiative.

To us, "Our Place" has been extremely successful because it's a base spot for the kids from all three areas of Belleville (the hill, lake and valley) to gather. We were the same kids who last summer and winter walked on the streets in a crowds together, sat on a curb or bench, or went to MacDonalds either to eat or just be with the rest of our friends to laugh and talk and enjoy this age we'll never be again. These little things right now are stepping stones in the building of our future.

Many adults and young people have spent much time in piecing "Our Place" together. Mayor Kenneth Smith was great in giving us the O.K. and support for the discotheque. The Recreation Department gave us the initial help we needed by supplying us with the paint and other items essential for our redecorating.

An outstanding man who has guided us immensely is Mr. Robert Cook, Superintendent of the Recreation Department. He helped us in every facet of our venture. Whenever a problem arose no matter what, Mr. Cook was always there, even when advice was needed. Even today as we are confronted with minor and major complications, he remains beside us, ready to help, along with Warren Ceres, his assistant. The young people have great respect for these two men and realize that they had a huge part in making "Our Place" successful.

We owe Mrs. Marilyn Casciano and Lt. John Dean, our advisors, a vote of thanks for helping also. Mrs. Casciano stood by us right from the beginning, helped us get formed, gave us ideas, and in addition suggested "Our Place" as a name which we later adopted because it was so suitable for our one and only spot.

Mr. Dean obtained auxiliary police to aid us and to be on hand if anything occurred. He too gave us some valuable suggestions as Police Chief Joseph Smith and Caesar Romano of the Board of Education did. All had much faith and confidence in what we were doing and trying to achieve.

Philip Newsome and Mr. Caruso at the stadium with their maintenance men did a great job in setting things up and working with us to get everything ready.

For the two and a half weeks of psychedically striping and painting "Our Place", Mr. MacDonald was always there to assist us till 9 p.m. "Mr. Mac" was really great with the kids and its no wonder why he is liked so much. There even were nights he stayed late with us so that we can "just finish another little section".

Newark Lighting Company on Washington Avenue donated black fluorescent lights to us and made all our work worthwhile because the lights picked up and emphasized the day-glo colors that took so much time to paint. The Creative Engravers, also on Washington Avenue donated many psychedelic posters and Mrs. Elaine Perna of Belleville donated pop-art tablecloths, all contributing to the "look" we wanted to acquire inside.

Since we have been open, Mr. Cook has assigned playground directors to act as chaperones, and hired Larry Jinks as custodian. All have done an exceptional job. Meanwhile, the Youth Council would also like to thank Roxanne Knott and the Belleville Organization of Youth Services (B.O.Y.S.) for turning their funds over to us to be used when needed.

There are the many young people I have not gotten around to thank for helping paint and work many nights. Besides those on the executive committee there were Beth Fitzgerald, Ralph Lilioia, Kevin Sutton, Mary Lou Martin, Bob Heerbrandt, Louis Dalcero, Arlene Piereth, Maria Zarra, Joe Zarra, Steve Ferrara, Karen Alfone, Nancy Baumgartner, Nanci Ferraro, Kathy Ricca, Donna Giangrande and Debbie Catala.

Also included are Mark Bradley, Ray Hormon, Sal Martorelli, Debbie Meola, Donna Julisi, Mary Ellen Soprano, Angie LaLuna, Patty Lombardino, Kathy Natale, Sue Martino, Dianne Villaggio, Frank Petite, Carol Masi, Allen Cohen, Rich SanFilipo, Al DeNardi, Joe Cotugno, Joe D'Alconzo, Rose Marie Jafrazy, Bob Forrest, Maybeth Salamone, Donna Cervasio, Peggy Buckland.

In addition there were a few more kids who have contributed time before and after its opening including some under sophomore aged kids such as Billy DeNino, Flora Aulisi, Barbara Aulisi, Diane Soprano, Janice Orsini, Janet DelTuro, Leslie Zarra, Roseann Napolitano, Diane DelTufo, Jimmy DelGuercio, Melinda Rico, John Argeiri, and Donna Retunda.

Even the guys on the American Legion Post 105

Baseball team in their nifty uniforms helped a little during a brief rain spell before a home game.

To all of those who have helped us young people with "Our Place", I'd like to thank you on behalf of the Belleville Youth Council and myself. Our gratitude is beyond what can be said with words, and I hope you continue to have faith and confidence in to-day's youth.

Company Changes Names

In keeping with a new and expanded management and operating philosophy, G. Fredrik Peterson, president of Eastern Tool and Manufacturing Company, Belleville, has announced the changing of its corporate name to Etamco Industries.

In the last two years, the 60 year old wire forming and metal stamping company has grown and diversified its operations and now has five operating divisions, including some in consumer-oriented areas.

The company has long been known as fabricators of metal components for industry through wire forming, strip forming, metal stamping, deep drawing, plating and finishing.

Today, following a carefully planned expansion and diversification program, Etamco Industries' operations include government ordinance manufacturing; contract component metal stamping and wire forming; hardware and garden tool manufacturing; kitchen and household utensils; bar and restaurant tools.

The danger of traffic accidents involving school children is greatest during the first few weeks of the new school year, reports the Automobile Club of New York. Fresh from vacation, children often forget their safety lessons, and it's up to motorists to help safeguard them by driving with extra care.

THE BARBIZON

Model Mystique
by Peter Conlow

If I were a deadly serious person, I might start my first article by saying that this column is dedicated to making every woman in Essex County as attractive and lovely as she can possibly be.

But that sounds a little grand, so let's talk about you. You may never have thought of being a model, but I'm sure you have always wanted to share in what I call the Model Mystique. You have always wanted to know the skills and modeling. It is up to the student to apply what she learns until looking her best becomes a practiced habit.

Reading this column won't put you on the cover of Vogue or Seventeen. In fact, reading this column won't make you perfectly groomed. Even in the courses at our school in Montclair, where each student receives hours of personalized and individual attention, we can only teach the arts and skills of perfect grooming and modeling. It is up to the student to apply what she learns until looking her best becomes a practiced habit.

It's our experience that young girls - starting at 14 or 15 - find it easier to learn perfect grooming. They haven't had time to get set in bad habits which we have to break. But from our experience of helping many, many mature women in our courses, we know that any woman can be more attractive, more poised, more sure of herself - if she works at it.

So the first step in being as attractive as you can possibly be is to decide that you can and will do it. It isn't easy, and it does take effort. But perfect grooming is a worthwhile goal. It is really true that if you look better, you feel better.

You can share the Model Mystique. Call 783-4030 in Montclair to find out how.

REMINISCING — Chet Ryan (left), charter member of Nutley Rotary, talks about old times with Belleville Historian Allan Crisp who addressed last Thursday's service club luncheon. Crisp reminded the Nutley Club that their town was "all part of Belleville" prior to 1874. Crisp's talk discussed events that took place in this area during the American and Industrial Revolutions. Today, Rotarians will hear playwright Myrna Lamb talk about the Women's Liberation movement (see story adjacent.)

Kiwanis Club Begins Cancer-Cloth Drive; Barbone Named Head

Pat Barbone has been named chairman of the annual Belleville Kiwanis "cloth-for-cancer" drive it was announced this week by Nicholas Juliano, club president.

The Kiwanis drive will mark the tenth year the club has been active in the fight against cancer.

October has been designated as the target month for the drive. Joining Barbone on the drive committee are Sam Pearl, Donald Tucci, Phil Nicastro, Jim Dafaro, Larry Gonnello and Sy Grossman.

Basically, the cloth-for-cancer drive is an attempt to obtain white cloth to be eventually used as cancer dressings by anyone who contacts the Essex County Cancer Society chapter.

Once the cloth is collected, the local Kiwanis delivers it to the East Orange headquarters of the county chapter, which in turn processes it for distribution.

Last year the local Kiwanis Club was cited by the Cancer Society for its success in the local drive.

On September 24, members of the Belleville club will kick off the drive by literally giving the shirts off their backs during a regularly scheduled meeting at the Fountain Restaurant.

Any resident who has cloth may contact any of the committee members or phone 751-3440 and ask for Sy Grossman. Boxes will be placed in all schools, churches and in many business establishments. In addition, flyers will be sent to all homes.

Anti-Pollution Law Set For Committee Hearing

Rep. Peter W. Rodino today announced that a House Judiciary sub-committee will hold hearings today on legislation he has introduced to bar from Federal contracts all firms that do not comply with stringent air and water pollution control standards.

The New Jersey legislator explained that his bill would require all Federal contractors as a condition of any new contracts with the United States, to abide by pollution control standards and regulations by the Secretary of the Interior. If they fail to do so, they will not receive payment on any such contracts until they have cleaned up the effects of their pollution.

Rodino Prepares Pollution Attack

Rep. Peter W. Rodino announced today that next week he will introduce a bill to prohibit the interstate use of non-returnable bottles and cans for soft drinks and beer.

"There is no doubt," the New Jersey legislator said, "that litter composed of soft drink and beer containers is a major source of pollution in all areas of our country. Moreover, the collection and disposal of this solid waste imposes a great financial burden upon the individual states and local communities."

Rodino explained that his bill would declare it to be official United States policy that nonreturnable beverage containers on which no refundable money deposit is required from the consumer pose a threat to the health, safety and welfare of American citizens and to their environment.

"This country," Rodino said, "is now generating approximately 360 million tons of industrial, municipal and commercial solid waste, and it is alarming to realize expected to double by 1980. Right now, we spend $4.5 billion annually to manage this waste and yet are failing to do a satisfactory job. Most of the money is spent to collect solid waste and transport it to some place for dumping or burning."

Women's Lib Playwright Talking at Rotary Today

Playwright Myrna Lamb, author of "Mod Donna" which sparked much of the current women's liberation activities, will address a special luncheon program of Nutley Rotary today.

Recently returned from a mid-west speaking tour, Miss Lamb's appearance today will be at a "Gal Friday Luncheon" sponsored by the Rotary.

Dr. Roy Imhoff, president of the local service club, said the "Gal Friday" idea was introduced "primarily to give the secretaries and wives of our members an opportunity to listen to Myrna Lamb talk about her plays and her activities in women's liberation."

Dr. Imhoff said the luncheon today would also enable secretaries "to see first hand where their bosses spend their time every Thursday noon." Professional men of Nutley comprise the bulk of the Rotary membership.

Myrna Lamb in married life is Mrs. Morris Epstein; she rarely uses her married name. She received nation-wide acclaim after "Mod Donna" opened in April at New York's Public Theater. Joseph Papp, who brought the musical "Hair" to Broadway, directed Myrna Lamb's production.

The play has since closed but it served to open up a

Succumbs At Home; Was 71

Services were held yesterday morning for Mrs. Ann Williamson Ingalls at St. Paul's Congregational Church following the funeral from the Stanton Funeral Home.

Mrs. Ingalls, 71, died after a long illness, Saturday, at home. She resided at 198 Lakeside Drive in Nutley.

A native of Newark, Mrs. Ingalls came to Nutley from Newark over 38 years ago.

A past president of the Nutley Lions Club Auxiliary, she was a volunteer worker in the consignment shop of the Nutley Family Service Bureau. During World War II, Mrs. Ingalls was active in the Red Cross as a motor car driver. A girl scout leader for many years, she also was a longtime volunteer worker at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital in Belleville.

Predeceased by her husband, Otis A. Ingalls, and two sons, Robert F. and Edward N., she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Thomas H. (Edna) Banks of Nutley; a son, Otis Ingalls of Little Falls; 10 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Interment was in East Ridgeland Cemetery, Clifton.

Mrs. J. DeBonis; A Native Of Italy

Mrs. Eugenia DeBonis of 545 Union Avenue, Belleville, died August 31 in Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. She was 83.

Born in Calabria, Italy, Mrs. DeBonis came to the United States at age 21. She moved to Belleville in 1913.

Predeceased by her husband, James DeBonis, she leaves three sons, Albert and Nicholas of Clifton and Frank of Belleville; three daughters, Mrs. Rose Iannello and Mrs. Alvera Shaul, both of Belleville, and Mrs. Lucille Kovach of Nutley; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral was September 3 from the Gorny and Gorny Home in Bloomfield, followed by a Mass in Holy Family Church, Nutley.

nation-wide discussion on the women's liberation movement. Myrna Lamb herself distains "clubs and movements per se," but has maintained an active role in the women's lib cause.

She returned two weeks ago from a speaking tour of the mid-west and as of Sunday has already spent more than four hours in air time on New York stations.

During Women's Liberation Week, she was the evening guest on Barry Gray's interview program and now she is about to begin a weekly series on WBAI.

While "Mod Donna" was continuing at the Public Theater, Miss Lamb was commissioned by Papp to do a second play which she said would be based largely on the political scene in Newark. (Mod Donna was based on a murder case in Passaic.)

However, Miss Lamb said this week she's been "so busy with other business" that work on her new play has not progressed as quickly as she had originally hoped.

She has had to concern herself with "business" that came on the heels of the success of "Mod Donna." This fall for example, she is being published in five different places and is working on her own book to be published by Pathfinder Press.

Some of her earlier plans have been sold for films and lately she has spent much working on the shooting script. She is also trying to finish novelizing "Mod Donna" for another publisher. "All this and the little I've done with Women's Liberation hasn't left me with too much time," Miss Lamb said.

She's looking forward to today's Rotary Luncheon.

"This actually is the first time I've spoken to any groups in my home town," Miss Lamb said. "Yes, I'm looking forward to it. I really don't like speaking that much but I do like to answer questions. I hope they have a lot of questions."

Myrna Lamb was born in Newark, married 22 years ago and settled in Nutley shortly thereafter. She and her husband, Morris, have two daughters, Joellen, 20, a junior at Philadelphia College of Art, and Isabet, 14, who has been active in the professional theater.

Bayonne Sees County Championship Year As It Prepares For Belleville

by John McCarthy

With only three short weeks until the opening kickoff of the grid season, Belleville's head coach Rocco Cafone is pointing his eager squad toward a victory over first day opponent Bayonne, a perennial powerhouse.

Bayonne's coach, Don Ahern, is also talking about getting his hopes high, but not just for the opener. Ahern is looking for the Bees to come up with another county championship. Last year Bayonne became the first Hudson County team to win that county's championship two years in a row.

The Bees have gotten a head start on Belleville. Bayonne faced St. Joseph's of West New York in their first scrimmage yesterday afternoon. They will have four scrimmages under their belt when they travel to Belleville September 29. Belleville starts their scrimmages today against Seton Hall, and will have faced three pre-season match-ups by opening day.

"The Bayonne Times", Bayonne's daily paper reports that the former Hudson County champs will have a solid line, on offense and defense, and also adds that "Bayonne's backfield is still in doubt."

One of the things that may have enabled Bayonne to gain two successful Hudson County championships has been their work outs, which definitely seem to get the players in shape as early as possible.

At 6:15 a.m. (yes, it said A.M.!) on September 1, Bayonne started its workouts. Ahern had the boys suit up and put them through a drill period right away. He also insists on full equipment for every session. The session ends at 8:30 a.m.

At 3:45 p.m., the players return for a "skull session" at the school. An hour later they go out for their second practice of the day.

According to "The Bayonne Times" of September 2, the squad had only 80 boys show up for the first days work outs. Sixty were on hand for the morning session, and 20 more showed up for physicals that afternoon. This could be due to the fact that Ahern has publicly said that he allows seniors only one week to make the team. "We can't afford to waste time on them if they're going to sit on the bench," indicated the mentor.

He also said earlier that he's used to having 110 or more boys show up for first the practice session. As a footnote he added, "This year, I guess, the fellows aren't confident of making the varsity."

This seems odd since the Bees lost 12 of last year's starters. Some of the players returning this year are Tony Nardini and John Petrini at guard, Alex Sencil and John Larino on the defensive line, and two otherlinemen, John Tobey and Rich Czujak.

With both teams working all out to be winners this year, the opener on September 26 promises to be a real tough game. It looks like Belleville has replaced East Orange with a team that is tougher on the field than off, which always in nice to know.

Just about a month ago, the Times ran an article about Steve Ferrughelli in which the Rutgers' Fullback recollected his grid career, remarking how it seemed that he got injured every season.

Towards the article it said that hopefully he would have an injury free senior year this year at Rutgers as he had at Belleville. Well, Steve is at it again. He was side-lined from spring practice with a bruised knee, and missed Rutgers' first intra-squad scrimmage last Saturday due to a sprained instep.

Steve's mother reports that he called from Camp Sunday to say that he was "feeling okay". She also said that she was worried about Steve, as she has always been, but "he'll be all right now."

One of the post mortems of Vince Lombardi is one to remember for ever, in every sport, and for every thing that happens.

Vince once said that he never lost a game, time merely ran out on his team. The same holds true for his final moments. The great coach didn't lose his final battle for life, time merely ran out on him.

Magnificent 7 Working Hard

The Belleville High School School Cross-country squad continues preparation for its up and coming season with a group of seven hearty runners.

As of Monday, no schedules were available to the squad, through a complete outline of this year's opposition is expected within a week from Athletic Director Herman Wische.

This week the harriers were doing what is called "speed workouts," which are half mile races in which the boys try to maintain a pace similar to that of actual competition.

Speed workouts are designed to aid runners in gaining a fast start in the race because getting out in front of the pack is one of the most important factors in winning a cross-country competition. An intra-squad competition was scheduled Tuesday as the Times went to press. Winner of that race will be named team captain.

League); the Mayor; Anthony Landolfi, Landolfi Home for Funerals (Town Wide championship); Bill Rush, Landolfi Home for Funerals (Wednesday League), and Marty Higgins, Frenchy's Bar (Monday League).

Landolfi Squad Captures Town Championship

The Landolfi Home for Funerals softball team has won the Mayor's Trophy emblematic of Town-Wide Championship. Mayor Kenneth D. Smith was on hand to present the coveted trophy to the new Champions.

This team, which entered the Belleville Softball scene just last year made it apparent that they were a team to contend with when they won last year's Wednesday League. They were defeated by Frenchy's Bar in last year's Playoffs.

This year was a difference matter, however, as they took the Wednesday League with a 14-1 record. They then fought their way through the 1970 Inter-League Playoffs, first dispatching their old rival Frenchy's in a best-out-of-three series, and then taking the Jolly Cleaners.

Softball action in Belleville has been intense during the entire 1970 season. There were tied situations in all four leagues during most of the year. An even distribution of talent among the four leagues was evidenced by the fact that each of the playoff series went to the full three games.

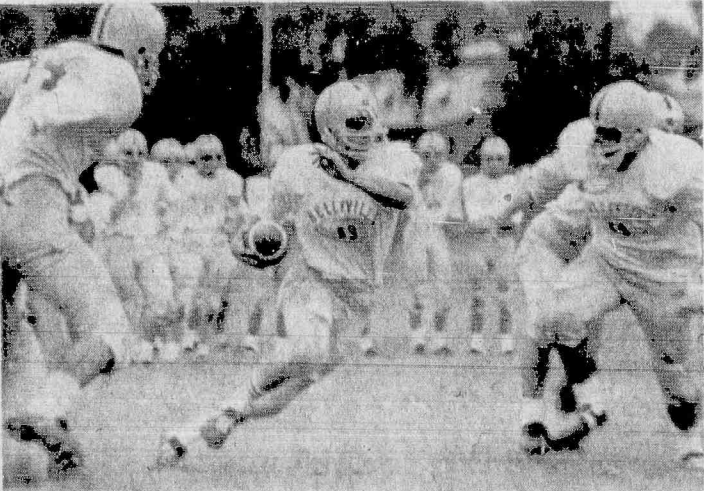

Jolly Cleaners who got into the playoffs by virtue of being the best second-place team in the four leagues when the P.J. MacDonald Association vacated their playoff spot, went on to defeat the MacDonald Bar in the playoffs although the Macs finished ahead of them in the Thursday League.

In addition the Jollies gave a very good account of themselves in the playoff finals with a strong win over the Landolfi's in the second game. Going into the final game with an all-even standing the Jollies looked for awhile as though they were going to pull out the last game.

During the early innings, the Landolfi bats just weren't making the necessary hits while the Jolly's turned the base path into a carousel. However the fighting Landolfi's overcame a 7-2 deficit to pick up all the marbles in the last half of the last inning.

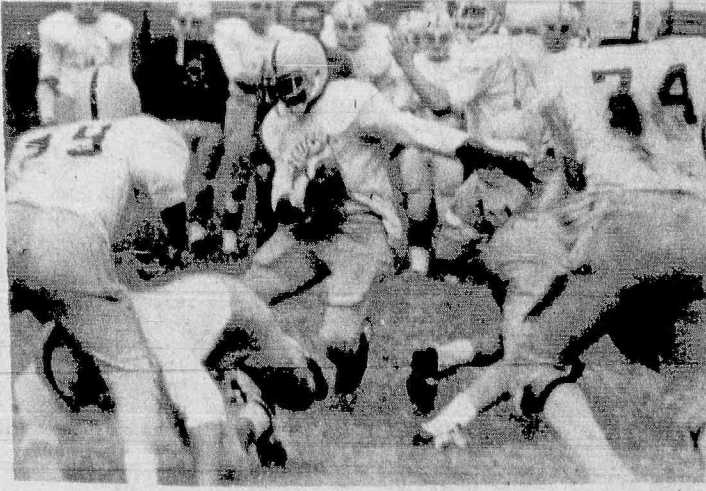

Belleville's softball leagues have reached a point where no game can be taken for granted. Almost any team in the four leagues could whip any other team on a given day. The 1970 Champion Landolfi's Home for Funerals team will have its work cut out for next year when the action resumes.

QUARTERBACK Joe Papisidero sprints around end during drills at Municipal Stadium. Papisidero, a senior, is competing with junior Joe LoTruglio for the QB spot.

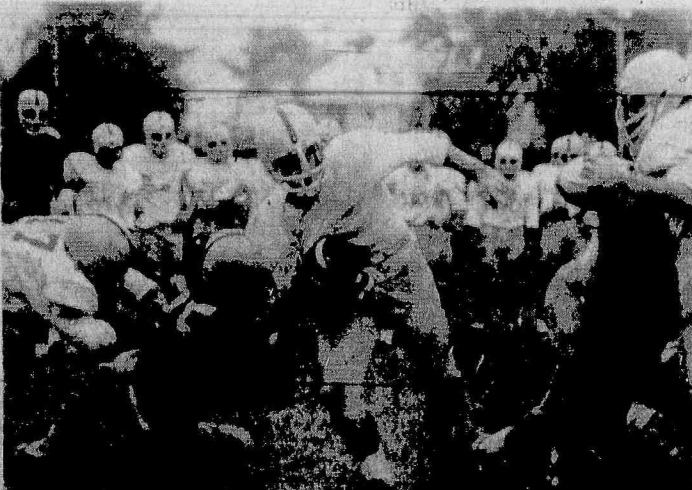

THE LEATHER was popping this week as the Bellboys began preparation for the fall season with new head coach Rocco Cafone.

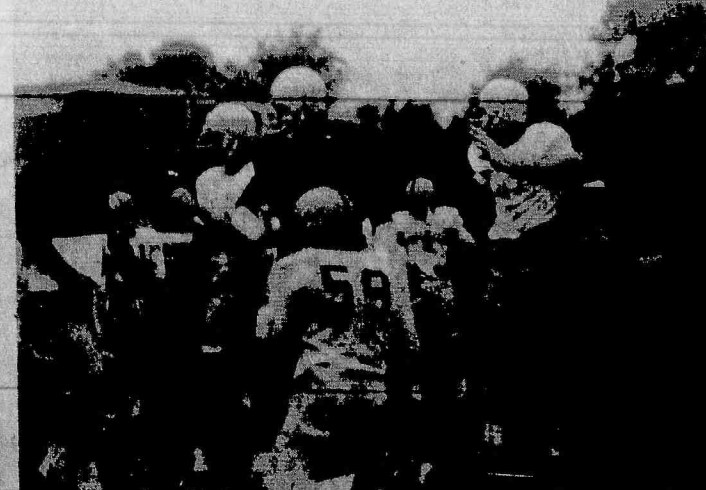

DOUG BROWN makes a sharp cut off tackle and prepares to sprint in the clear. Brown was one of the Bellboys' top performers last year.

BACKFIELD candidates continue this week to work on the fundamentals such as the handoff and end-run.

YOU WOULD never know it's only an intra-squad scrimmage as Bellboy runners and linemen show some good, ferocious football.

COACHES Vinnie Harris (right) and Warren Ceres point out mistakes made by linemen during the first week of drills at the Stadium.

Cocuzza Gets Cafone's Spot At Upsala U

Upsala football coach John Hooper today announced the appointment of Charles Cocuzza of Newark as one of his four assistants.

Cocuzza, former assistant coach at Cresskill High School and Memorial of West New York, replaces Rocco Cafone who recently was named head coach at Belleville High School. He will coach the defensive backfield and wide receivers at Upsala.

Cocuzza was a quarterback for Upsala from 1961 through 1964 and in his last year led the team to an upset victory over Susquehanna University which at the time had the longest winning streak in the nation. The Vikings won the Middle Atlantic Conference championship that year. He also was quarterback for Irvington High School and played with the Jersey City Jets and the Westchester Crusaders in the Atlantic Coast Football League after his graduation from Upsala.

The 29-year-old coach will join three other assistants on the all-Upsala coaching team. Two of them, Frank Antonacci and Lou Borelli of Livingston, played with him at Upsala. The third assistant, Erwin Sloan of Elizabeth, was a member of an earlier team. Hooper also played for Upsala.

Cocuzza is married to the former Rosalind Carrino. Her brother, Anthony, played for Upsala in 1961 and 1962. Mr. and Mrs. Cocuzza have a son, Charles, 14 months.

Cocuzza will join the team on Sept. 1, when practice gets underway. For the past three years Upsala has had identical records of four wins and four losses.

County Cancer Crusade Reaches All-Time High

Gustave E. Wiedenmayer, crusade chairman of the Essex County Unit, American Cancer Society, announced that the Unit collected $222,115 in the 1970 Cancer drive that ended September 1. This was an all-time high for Essex County.

There is a noticeable trend from the so-called "Package" concept for HI FI sets to component parts. It is possible that there is a certain point of saturation as far as the "package" is concerned and the sometimes elaborate furniture that went with it. Many people who were anxious to have the same tone quality formerly available only in a large box, so to speak, can find now the same quality in individual small components.

There are several reasons for this development. First of all the transistor made a cool and small amplifier possible, where the tube needed a large container because it was generating heat which had to be dissipated. But the second and least equally important reason is the development of the so-called "air suspension" speaker system. With the prior speaker systems, it was necessary for the proper reproduction of bass tones to have a large speaker and a large baffle or box. Now it is possible to have excellent, clean bass tones out of an amazingly small speaker system that needs hardly any baffle. All these parts can be placed just about anywhere; floor, shelf, in a closet or wherever one finds a little room. The smaller speakers can be placed on small shelves for best musical effects. All of this is not necessarily cheaper. HI FI equipment of quality is expensive. However, there is not the expense for an elaborate stylish cabinet.

We stock a variety of co-ordinated component parts, manufactured by Magnavox, each one supplementing the other, so you do not have to search for the different apparatus by different manufacturers.

Walter Kidde Declares Year's Profits Lower, Expects Improvements

After tax profits of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc. for the six months ended June 30, 1970 were $11,083,000 compared with $14,679,000 for the prior year's period, restated to include the operations of companies subsequently acquired in poolings of interests.

Fred R. Sullivan, chairman and chief executive of Kidde, attributed the decline to results at Kidde's United States Lines subsidiary and to three small loss operations which have been sold. Excluding United States Lines and the three operations disposed of, Kidde's after tax profits for the first six months of 1970 compared favorably with results for the same period of 1969.

Shipping operations are expected to improve in the last part of the year, as additional container ships enter service, Sullivan said, and operating earnings of other Kidde units are expected to be greater in the second half than in the first half.

Kidde's total sales and revenues in the 1970 first half were $402,833,000 with income before taxes of $23,090,000. For the comparable period of 1969, on the restated basis, sales and revenues amounted to $389,284,000 and income before taxes was $32,795,000.

Earnings per common share and common equivalent share amounted to $1.08 for the first six months of this year, compared with $1.51 for the like period a year ago. Earnings per share assuming full dilution were $1.00 in 1970 and $1.37 in 1969. Per share results for 1969 have been adjusted for the 2 1/2 percent stock dividend paid at year end.

The text of Kidde's quarterly report, now being prepared for mailing to shareholders, states:

"At the annual Kidde stockholder meeting in May of this year, it was noted that because of the state of the economy and other factors Kidde was undergoing a difficult period and that operating results of the United States Lines subsidiary, in particular, might be disappointing.

"For the six-month period ended June 30, 1970, Kidde's net income after taxes declined from the prior year, due to results at United States Lines and to three small loss operations which have been sold. Excluding United States Lines and the three operations disposed of, Kidde's after tax profits for the first six months of 1970 compared favorably with results for the same period of 1969.

"Shipping operations are expected to improve in the last part of the year, as additional container ships enter service, and operating earnings of other Kidde divisions are expected to be greater in the second half than in the first half.

"A significant development for the long range outlook of United States Lines is the recent recommendation to the Federal Maritime Commission by its chief examiner that it approve the proposed ship charter agreement between United States Lines and Sea-Land Service, Inc. Under the agreement United States Lines would time charter 16 container ships for 20 years to Sea-Land, a subsidiary of R.J. Reynolds Industries. The total dollar amount of the agreement, if approved, over the projected 20-year period is estimated to be more than a billion dollars.

"Earlier this year United States Lines raised funds for container ship construction and modification through a $32 million issue of 8 5/8 percent government-insured merchant marine bonds due 1991. Other Kidde divisions reflected a significant improvement in cash generated from operations during the first half of 1970, compared with 1969, and a further cash gain is anticipated from division operations in the second half. In addition, more than $35 million is expected to result from a program of share offerings. Overall, Kidde's financial position continues to be satisfactory.

"As part of the share offering program, which entered the initial planning stage in 1969, Kidde recently concluded a public offering in which 30 per cent of the shares in the company's wholly owned Globe Security Systems, Inc. was sold to the public for $11.4 million. Similar plans have been announced for offerings to the public of shares of other Kidde subsidiaries. Permitting direct public participation in the ownership of certain segments of the company will promote greater understanding of the operations of Kidde and provide for a truer evaluation by the public, to the benefit of Kidde shareholders.

"On July 15, 1970 the company paid regular semiannual cash dividends of $1.10 on each Series A Preference Share and $2.00 on each Series B Preference Share."

Mrs. Louis Raniero — nee Linda Silvestri

Wedding vows were exchanged June 21 in Holy Family Church by Miss Linda Silvestri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Silvestri of 299 Division Avenue, Belleville and Louis Raniero, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Raniero of 8 Park Street, Belleville.

The Rev. Michael Saltarelli performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at The Manor, West Orange.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a silk organza gown trimmed in Alencon lace and seed pearls and fashioned with an empire waist, Tom Jones sleeves with beaded cuffs and a cathedral train.

A matching beaded headpiece held her bouffant veil and she carried roses, stephanotis and baby orchids tipped pink.

Miss Janice Silvestri of Belleville was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Olga Pomaco, Miss Joyce Burns, Miss Maria Zinna and the bride's cousins, Miss Elaine Rosamilia and Miss Beverly LaLuna, all of Belleville. Flower girl was the bride's Godchild, Janet Morsillo.

They were attired in pale pink culottes with vests, Tom Jones sleeves and beaded collar and cuffs. Headpieces were pink beaded bands and they carried orchids tipped pink.

Joseph Obenauer of Belleville, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Frank Pomaco, Frank Zinna, Gerry Longo, Joseph Burns and Richard DelGuercio, all of Belleville. Ringbearer was the groom's nephew, Joseph Obenauer.

Mrs. Silvestri chose a blossom pink gown with a beaded bodice trimmed with crystal drops. Her corsage was an orchid tipped pink. The groom's mother was in a mint green gown with a beaded keyhole neckline. Her corsage was an orchid tipped green.

Mrs. Raniero, an alumna of Wilfred Beauty Academy, is with Nutley Hairdressers.

Most hotels offer several plans when you're traveling. The European Plan, which covers room only; secondly, the American Plan, all inclusive arrangement which covers room and three meals; thirdly, the demi-pension or modified American Plan, which includes room, breakfast and evening dinner only; and fourthly, the Bed and Breakfast, Continental or Bermuda Plan, which covers bed and breakfast. Because most hotels offer a lower overall rate for room and meals, the best value is generally the demi-pension plan, which leaves the day free for travel - and that's what you're there for!

Dr. Thomas D. Monte, Stanley J. Hollander, Bela Szinegh, Morris Harris, Arthur G. Hill, all physicians on The Mountainside Hospital's Medical Staff, will donate their services for the benefit of the public. ## TeenDance-InsPlanned At New Kearny Studios

Special classes for teen-agers who want to learn the new dances and catch up on some of the old ones will be a special feature of the new Bob Milanese Dance Studio, 7 Kearny Ave., in Kearny.

The two-hour Dance-In will include individual and group instruction for the teen-agers, and there will also be time for them to dance together with their own age-group while learning. "The idea," Bob Milanese said, "is to create the same 'party' atmosphere in which young people socialize, so that they can have fun with their friends while becoming better dancers."

Another feature of the new studio will be regular public appearances by the students. In announcing the opening this week of his new studio, Bob Milanese said: "Performing frequently before audiences gives young people poise and confidence, besides providing excellent local entertainment for the community. The shows will also be good preparation for the serious student who is planning to go on into show business."

The shows will be performed for civic and social clubs, fund-raising events, at hospitals and churches, and at fashion shows.

The studio will also offer special classes for pre-school tots, plus classes in tap, ballet, toe, modern and jazz to all age groups.

A native of Rockville, Conn., Bob Milanese became a professional entertainer while still in his teens, doing a song-and-dance act with his sister. They appeared in leading hotel rooms and nightclubs throughout New England and Canada, and they had their own television series, Holiday Time, on WKNB, Hartford. They did television and radio commercials in Hartford and in Boston.

As a single, Bob Milanese has appeared in Jack Silverman's International Club, New York; the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas; Club Morocco, at Montreal; and the Terrace Gables, on Cape Cod. At Ben Martin's Bolero, in Wildwood, N.J., he performed with such stars as Sammy Davis, Jr., Theresa Brewer, Johnny Mathis and Martha Raye. He is a summer favorite at the leading hotels on the Borscht Belt in the Catskills and nightclubs on the Jersey Shore.

In New York and on the road, he has played featured roles in shows with Joey Heatherton, Roddy McDowell, Dorothy Lamour, and TV's David Canary and David Hartman. He has also toured the U.S. and Canada in "International Spectacular," produced by Russell Market, of the Radio City Music Hall.

Numerous celebrities have chosen Bob Milanese to state their nightclub acts for them. He has directed musicals for school and church groups. Previously, he has taught dancing in Connecticut and New York. Already well known in this area, he was affiliated last season with the June Barrett Dance Studio in Belleville.

A better way to clean carpets?

OF COURSE THERE IS!

Yes, for years "scrubbers" used scrub brush, soap, hot replacement, so called "shampoo" machines used motor driven scrub brush, shampoo. Both only "surface cleaned," didn't remove dirt from deep in carpet fibres. Brushes caused extra wear, matted carpet pile, changed texture, left suburface dirt in carpet. Carpet was only half clean.

THE ULTIMATE IN CARPET CLEANING

NEW STEAM-WAY

Steam-Way's revolutionary new deep clean extraction method deep cleans carpet fibres. Fleeced steam goes deep into carpet to dissolve embedded dirt. Vacuum picks up dirt solution, transfers it to storage tank. Cleans from bottom up, not top down. Steam-Way makes your carpets the "Cleanest Clean You've Ever Seen."

Enclosure Subdivision Hearing Set Tonight

Walter Schaefer former owner of the Mason Home who strongly opposed the recent subdivision proposal of the tract, tonight will appear before the Planning Board to speak against another subdivision plan — this one at The Enclosure.

Schaefer moved from the Mason Home to one on The Enclosure. Today his new neighbor William H. Hayford, is proposing to subdivide his 195 x 120 foot tract into two lots. The proposal will be given a public airing at 8:15 tonight by the Town Planning Board.

Hayford's plan would subdivide the tract into two lots, the smallest about 56 by 120 feet. The proposal also provides for two side-by-side driveways from the Enclosure to service the pair of lots resulting from the subdivision.

Schaefer appeared at last week's Board of Commissioners session to urge the town to more seriously consider the fire hazard potential created by some new subdivisions.

Schaefer contends water mains under The Enclosure may be inadequate for modern times, and says when homes are permitted to be built too close to one another, winds could turn a small fire into a catastrophe.

Schaefer said he would appear at tonight's public hearing to speak against the Hayford subdivision at The Enclosure. Schaefer is an insurance underwriter.

Rock Groups Ready For Jaycee Band-In

Local rock groups will be competing for $150 in prizes this Saturday when Nutley Jaycees sponsor their Fourth Annual Band-In. The jam session gets underway at 8:30 p.m. in the Nutley High gymnasium.

Six bands will be competing but more may be entered before Saturday, according to Mike Paolino, chairman of the Jaycee program.

"Band-In's are proving extremely popular among young people, Mike Viola, project co-chairman reports. "In addition to the prize money, the Band-In provides local groups with exposure and recognition."

Tickets for the Band-In will be available at the door Saturday night.

Silent Cinema Classic Ready At Film Club

The Essex Film club resumes its screenings of the great cinema classics thru Saturday and Sunday when the great silent film adaption of the Victor Hugo story, "The Man Who Laughs", will be screened at the Club's headquarters, 263 Harrison Street in Nutley.

The film was made in 1928 and portrays 17th century England with Conrad Veidt in the role of Gwynplaine, the clown, whose face was made into a perpetual laugh by a sect of roving marauders that made slaves of their captives.

Mary Philbin, Olga

Baclanova and Cesar Gravina head the large cast of "The Man Who Laughs", which was directed by Paul Leni. An orchestral score complete with effects accompanies the Carl Laemmle Production.

On the same program a short subject presented by the American Society of Cinematographers will show the work of the Society's Museum in Hollywood.

Cameras, that photographed great films, are the topic of this color production, with examples of films they shot. Comedy is also present at this first showing of the program with Laurel and Hardy returning to the screen. Their 1935 short subject, "Frier-Uppers" is also on the bill. The Saturday film performance begins at 8:30 p.m.; Sunday screening is at 7:30 p.m. All film buffs are welcome.

Mildred's New Salon Is Open

Newest place of beauty for the female population of Nutley is Mildred's Beauty Salon, 669 Bloomfield Avenue.

Specializing in cutting and permanent waving, Mildred's is owned and operated by a longtime Nutley beautician formerly of Marie's Beauty Shop on High Street.

Miss Mildred Lupinacci stopped working for Marie's Salon after 17 years to begin her own business. With her, she brought another longtime Nutley beautician in Mrs. Kathy Connors. Mrs. Connors, who also has a vast following in Town, has been in the beauty business over 10 years.

Both ladies are very popular in Nutley as beauticians and already business is booming to the point that Miss Lupinacci is thinking of hiring extra help.

Mildred's Shop opened on August 31 but Miss Lupinacci has set an open house for both longtime customers and new to get acquainted. The open house is set for next Wednesday, 1 to 8 p.m. and there will be free refreshments.

"Business is booming even beyond my expectations," commented Mrs. Lupinacci. "The open house will give me a chance to thank all the wonderful customers I have."

the eight ciccolini brothers furniture and appliances
537 franklin ave. nutley n.j. 07110 661 2100

Dear Neighbor:

Just the other day our wives were complaining about food prices. They wanted a raise in their allowance to meet the rising cost of marketing. They then proceeded to confront us with a list of increased prices. Unfortunately they were right and just like that - - - we were out an extra $20.00 a week.

That gave us an idea! Maybe with some shrewd buying we could put our personal dent in the inflation problem.

Two of the largest distributors in the state co-operated with us. They allowed us to scoop up a host of their floor samples and "as is" merchandise. The savings were tremendous and the values unbeatable.

Take a look around the page. A shrewd shopper will recognize the model numbers and reap a savings bonanza. Remember, each of these appliances is fully guaranteed and you would need a microscope to detect an imperfection.

Awake husbands!! Take advantage of a sale like this and hold off your wife on that extra $20.00 a week. Pity the poor Ciccolinis. Our wives are now looking for new carpeting. "After all, you do own a furniture store and . . ."

Very truly yours,

ROCCO, JOE, BOB and of course PAPA CICCOLINI

P.S. Sale starts Friday - - - Open till 9:00 p.m. Additional bargains too numerous to list!

the new look is at the eight ciccolini brothers .....
