Vandalism Rise Reveals 586 Broken Windows

A Hasbrouck Heights contractor is interested in a nine-home subdivision on Cottage Street, the Times learned this week.

The contractor will have to get the approval of the Board of Commissioners before he can develop the land, according to Commissioner Mary Senatore.

Mrs. Senatore said the Commission would have to hear the matter because the contractor is seeking to develop a new street and Vandalism in Belleville Schools is on the increase, according to Board of Education President Rocco Saletta. A special "Vandalism Report" presented at Monday evening's meeting showed that 586 school windows were broken the past year with a total cost of $6,292 to the taxpayers.

Citing several examples of destruction to Belleville school system property which have made repair costs soar, Saletta made a public appeal to parents of local teens to "be aware of where your child is and know what he or she is doing."

The cost of making repairs for vandalism has risen almost $800 over the previous year. Last year's report showed a repair figure of $5,500 compared to the latest $6,292 amount.

"It's not that the children in Belleville are any worse than in neighboring communities," said Saletta, "but I wish that when parents are told that it is their child who did the damage they would not say, 'not my child.'"

The Board President added that there have been stepped up patrols of Belleville schools by both the Police Department and the Police Auxiliary but the major responsibility still lies with parents.

"We try so hard to give the children something and then they take advantage of the situation," he said.

Unbreakable glass is not the answer to the problem, according to Saletta.

"Nutley tried it, but without success," he commented. Saletta explained that installing plexiglass would be unreasonable because pulling out all the window sashes to install them would be too expensive.

The "Vandalism Report" was prepared by Harold Dufford, school business administrator. The report is a school by school breakdown on vandalism and repair costs. The 586 windows broken in local schools' according to the report cover a period of July, 1969 through August 30, 1970.

Several board members added that other isolated incidents were not reflected in the report, including the "safety factor," in which the vandals could suffer serious physical injury in the process of their marauding.

One board member, Cesar Romano, said he plans to speak at local PTA's to "give a graphic description of the report" in hopes of curbing the problem.

School Nine headed the list for broken windows with 88 at a cost of $14,52 in repairs.

The purchase of glass alone cost $2,554.17 with 483 labor hours totaling $2,415.

Resurfacing Delay Seen As Bids Are Denied

The Belleville Board of Education, in an unexpected last minute move Monday evening, unanimously denied a bid from a Lyndhurst firm to resurface five elementary school playgrounds after it was learned that the company was to use a poorer quality asphalt mix than was believed.

Two bids for the resurfacing job were received by the board on September 24 with Bianchi Bros., Inc., of Lyndhurst submitting the low bid of $20,845.10.

Specifications were prepared by School Business Administrator Harold Dufford and a contract was drawn up along with a resolution awarding the bid to Bianchi Bros. But at the last moment Dufford discovered that the losing bidder, Gabriele Bros. of Nutley, had figured for a higher quality asphalt mix when they submitted their bid.

Dufford learned that Bianchi Bros. was to use a "state specification" mix while Gabriele Bros. proposed to use a "Col-Provia" mix, an asphalt approved by the board to be of a higher

Approve Dump Trucks

An emergency expenditure for two dump trucks in the Public Works Department was okayed Monday night by the Town Commission, but that action apparently will make just a dent in what is rapidly becoming a serious vehicle and equipment crisis in the department.

The emergency purchases must not exceed $19,000, according to the resolution okayed by commissioners Monday night. The vote was 3-0, with Commissioner Joseph McGreevy absent due to illness.

Public Works Director Mary Senatore says at least $65,000 would be needed to buy necessary equipment and vehicles to delay the feared cutback in municipal services this fall and winter. In all, Commissioner Senatore estimates that a complete updating of all existing equipment and the purchase of several new vehicles would run about $175,000.

For the present, the commissioner is planning to seek a road truck, a compressor, a water utility truck and a sewer truck. She says she will probably request more funds at future meetings.

The department, meanwhile continues to function on a day to day basis, as road foreman Pat LaMorte puts it.

"Every day in in the morning we've got to say a prayer that these trucks will get out on the road," LaMorte said.

"You put into these trucks more money in repairs than the service you get out of them. The other day three broke down at once and we had to fall behind on services for the day."

LaMorte estimates that the present vehicles would not make it through one snow

Rec Center Starts Heated Exchange At Town Meeting

By Nat Gottlieb

Last week's announcement of a proposed million-dollar recreation center resulted in some heated exchanges among residents and officials at Town Hall Monday night. Some of the comments were about the facility and others about the so-called "gag-rule" used at town meetings.

Chief concern of the residents who addressed the Commission was that a resolution had not been introduced at Town Hall creating the recreation committee which has drawn up proposals for the center.

There was also some angry remarks about the five minute time limit set by the Mayor on citizen remarks at meetings, a limit often referred to as "the gag-rule."

Some of the confusion at Town Hall Monday night resulted from an erroneous statement in last week's Times which said a resolution had been passed to form the recreation committee.

Tony Fernandes, of 95 Harrison Street, said he was puzzled why "almost every other committee formed here is done by resolution, but this one wasn't." Fernandes, who is a frequent speaker at town meetings, also said that without a resolution towns people had no way of learning about the committee's formation.

The committee in question was formed by Mayor Ken Smith two months ago under the chairmanship of Mrs. Marilyn Casciano of 277 New Street. The committee is to be located on town-owned land adjacent to Municipal Stadium. A town-wide meeting is expected to be called soon to present the proposals.

Mrs. Sally Hood of 66 Fairview Place also spoke against the forming of the committee without resolution. When Mrs. Hood became involved in an argument with Commissioner Senatore, the Mayor charged that the resident was "merely campaigning for the May Commission election." A lively exchange ensued between the Mayor and Mrs. Hood, who eventually was escorted to her seat by a police officer at the Mayor's request. Earlier, Joe Fornarotto of 543 Union Avenue was escorted from the meeting after a heated exchange with Smith.

Mrs. Hood said she had no intention of running for office, "I ran for office once and prayed I wouldn't win. My running was just a joke. But it was a bigger joke with those who did win."

While Mrs. Hood stood at the Commission docket, the Mayor expounded on charges that commissioners use the five minute rule as a "gag-rule" to prevent resident discussion of issues.

"There is no gag-rule in this town. But some people just come here to abuse the town officials. Well they didn't elect town commissioners to take abuse and I won't take it. If you have anything to say Mrs. Hood to help this town you or anyone else can take as much time as you want."

When talk returned to the recreation committee, Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato told the gathering that a committee "needn't be formed by resolution when no permanent power is invested in it or when it wouldn't have the right to spend any funds."

Residents were not quelled by Amato's statement, and continued to object to the committee. Those who spoke apparently did not do so out of a desire to be on the committee, because when the Mayor offered them membership, they declined.

The Mayor concluded his statements on the committee by saying "We have too many children in this town who need recreation now. It is time we stopped bickering amongst ourselves."

BHS Renaming Is Suggested

A suggestion that Belleville High School be renamed the Dr. Frank DiRuggiero Memorial High School will be studied by the local Board of Education, it was announced Monday night.

Pete Paglia of 70 Malone Avenue took his suggestion to the Board of Education Monday night. Paglia said he heads a committee of seven close friends of the late dentist who feel the high school should be dedicated to his memory.

Board President Rocco Saletta told Paglia he is familiar with the proposal but would like more time to study it before making a decision.

The committee was formed two weeks ago and is dedicated to "getting a fitting memorial in view of the late doctor's longtime dedication to the Board," said Paglia.

Paglia feels the Board in the near future will give a favorable view to the committee's proposal.

Dr. Di Ruggiero, who passed away last May, was a former Board of Education president and the longest elected member in the history of the local school body.

CD System Bids Rejected

The Town Commissioners decided Monday night to reject bids for a new Civil Defense warning system and to readvertise the proposals.

Mayor Ken Smith, whose Public Safety Department includes Civil Defense, said the low bidder "didn't follow advertised specifications" which called for the CD warning system to run off a 12 volt battery system. The bidder's system would use a 24 volt battery and would have caused an added town expenditure of approximately $2,800.

Presently, Belleville's CD warning system and the Police and Fire Department's alarms all work off a 12 volt battery in the Police Station below Town Hall.

Smith said Belleville has been ordered by the State Civil Defense Department to update this town's warning system which was termed "obsolete" by state standards.

Smith said the updated system would include eight warning devices at various locations throughout town. Thus far, one of the new warning devices is atop Town Hall, and three more are scheduled for the Silver Lake Fire Station, the top of People's National Bank and at Fire Headquarters on Washington Avenue. Four more locations will be selected soon.

In all, the updated system should run about $12,000, with around half reimbursed by the State CD Department.

The CD system can also be used for other Town functions, Smith said. Because of the geographic location of the devices, the Mayor anticipates that the entire town could be spoken to from Town Hall, and that off duty firemen could be notified when needed, by a series of blasts.

Seek Light For Bad Corner

Mayor Ken Smith says he will ask the State Highway Department to okay installation of a traffic light at the corner of Union Avenue and Holmes Street.

A petition requesting the traffic signal was presented at Monday night's Commission meeting by Mrs. Benjamin

Grade Split Seen

School Eight parents were assured Monday night that the two overcrowded fourth grade classes in that school would be divided to create a third class "within a week to ten days."

Addressing a distressed group of School Eight parents at Monday night's regularly scheduled Board meeting, Schools Superintendent Anthony Greco assured them the situation would be corrected as soon as possible.

Last year Greco told a large group of School Eight parents who crowded Board offices that he would split the grade into three classes if the two existing ones reached a total of 65 pupils.

That total has been reached now, but no division has resulted.

Mathew Pica of 69 Mt. Prospect Avenue, asked Greco why the division had not already been made. The

Bellboys Seek Second Straight With Bloomfield

The Bloomfield Bengals will be out to fatten themselves up a bit when they play host this Saturday to the Bellboys at Foley Field. Game time is 1:30 p.m.

There should be alot of extra incentives for both squads in Saturday's matchup. For one thing, Bloomfield realizes a good showing against the Bellboys will bolster the Bengal reputation after a disappointing 7-6 loss last week to a highly regarded Seton Hall eleven.

For another, both squads have enough veterans to recall last year's game at Municipal Stadium in which the Bengals nipped Belleville 12-7 on a controversial pass-play in the final seconds.

That last moment victory drew heavy criticism from Bellboy fans, coaches and team members, and they will be out for some revenge this weekend.

On the other hand, the Bengals feel they justly won that game, and object to the post-game criticism that followed. They will be out to prove they can defeat the Bellboys again.

Bloomfield coach Sam Cavallaro says his boys "know they played a tough game against Seton Hall" last week, but says "they'll be back" this weekend.

The Bengal coach told The Times he has a young ball club which is anchored by four key veterans. Top man to watch is senior QB Jack Schlegal (16), who is an action-type passer respected throughout the county. Last week Schlegal threw one TD pass.

Also returning are tightend Ray Zarro at 5'11" and 175

BELLBOY HALFBACK Ricky Caruso (14) bucks to the Bayonne four yard line to set up the first Belleville touchdown in the second quarter. Blocking for Caruso is quarterback Joe Lotruglio (left) and end Jerry DePaul (18). Bellboys swamped highly rated Bayonne 27-12 and will now face a tough Bloomfield squad Saturday at the Bengals' Foley Field.

Pharmacy Footnotes

Vincent Cozzarelli Reg. Ph.

Otitis Media is the term used for an infection in the middle ear that cause fluid to accumulate. The critical age for detecting this is usually four. Untreated, the condition may cause permanent ear damage or severe illness. Fortunately, minor surgery can oftentimes clear up the infection. The test that is rescuing many young children is an exciting procedure called VASC (Verbal Auditory Screen for Children), which is only beginning to come into widespread use. VASC is administered by volunteers, usually housewives, and consists of a picture chart, a modified tape recorder and two sets of earphones. Today, 6,428 housewives run 125 surveys year after year throughout the state and the program continues to grow.

Dracula Returns

"Dracula" will again be shown at the Belleville Public Library as a special program on October 3 at 2:30 p.m. It is a classic horror film, with many chilling, spine-tingling scenes.

To tickle the funny bone, the second feature is "The Ride", a brand new film done in the slapstick tradition.

This program is recommended only for students age 9 or over.

Red Cross Swim Classes Scheduled

Mr. Job's Job

Bergen County Sheriff Joe Job is a candidate for the U.S. Senate seat of Democrat Harrison Williams.

Job is running as an independent and up to this point in the campaign is engaged in campaign tactics whose main thrust is to hurt the election chances of Republican U.S. Senate candidate Nelson Gross.

Job has been a life-long Republican and the record indicates that his party has been good to him. When Job announced his candidacy there were a number of sophisticated students of politics who believed Joe Job entered the senatorial race to destroy any chance that existed for Nelson Gross to beat the incumbent Williams.

From a reading of Job's publicity handouts at this junction in the campaign it is clear that the worse suspicions are justified.

Job has no possibility of finishing the race as a strong contender, let alone as a possible winner. Any voter who considers casting a ballot for Job is knowingly throwing away his most precious right as an American — the right to vote. The winner in the senatorial action will be one of two persons — either incumbent U.S. Senator Harrison Williams or Republican Senate candidate Nelson Gross.

It is our judgment the best interest of electors the State of New Jersey and our nation would be served if voters confined their senatorial selection to Gross or Williams. These men represent the major political parties of the state and nation. Both men have excellent credentials. In the final analysis the prime motivation behind a voter's choice will probably be confined to the political philosophy with which a voter identifies.

If Nixon's national administration is performing a satisfactory job the voter will want to elect Nelson Gross to give President Nixon the support his policies require.

National Health Insurance

A bi-partisan group of fifteen Senators has introduced a bill to provide, for the first time, national health insurance for U.S. citizens of all ages, not just those over 65.

National health insurance is a government service voted into existence in practically every western democracy this century. Its proponents believe the United States is certain to eventually adopt it, as this country has adopted social security and Medicare.

Proponents argue there are still too many Americans, especially children, who cannot afford adequate medical and dental care. They estimate the cost of national health insurance at forty billions a year and the current bill would set up a Health Security Trust Fund to finance the program. Sixty per cent of the forty billions would come from special income and payroll taxes. The other forty percent of needed funds would come from general tax revenue.

There are reports President Nixon is considering endorsing such a program by 1972; his aides have estimated the additional cost, over what the government now spends, as ten billion dollars. There is still strong opposition to the fact that too many Americans still lack really adequate medical and dental care. From the viewpoint of history, and the world trend, a good guess is that the nation will have some form of national health insurance before the end of the seventies.

There seems little chance the proposed Health Security Act will be enacted by the current Congress. But having been introduced by Senator Edward Kennedy, national health insurance is certain to be an issue in the 1972 political campaign. (Of its fifteen sponsors, twelve were Democrats.)

Mantle And Honesty

It's always refreshing when outright honesty confronts the world of money. In this connection, an utterance by Mickey Mantle, newly-hired coach of the New York Yankees, is worthy of note.

Asked what his job would be, as first base coach, Mantle replied: "I'm not nervous. There's nothing to worry about out there. Nobody listens to the first base coach anyway. I never did."

Rotary Seeks Purification Of Polluted Passaic River

One Year Ago

The Bellboys pulled off a strong upset when they downed East Orange 13-6, ending a 22-game victory string for the powerful Panthers. But the victory was marred by a shocking riot conducted by about 250 youths who stopped Belleville buses a few blocks from the stadium after the conclusion of the game, and hurled bricks and boulders through bus windows, injuring 20 persons.

For the third time in a month, dirty water came pouring out of Belleville faucets. The Newark Water Authority, which had denied blame for the first two incidents, admitted to Belleville Commissioner Mary Senatore that they were at fault.

Mayor Kenneth Smith, in a letter to the State Highway Department, threatened to shut down Route 21 unless "something was done to provide improved safety devices" for the road. The Mayor's action came in the wake of the second serious accident on that roadway in the last month. "Either they clear it up or we'll close it," said the Mayor. He blamed poor lighting and the lack of safety devices for the recent accidents.

Five Years Ago

Exactly four months after the 4-3 school board majority relieved its superintendent of his duties, he was ordered reinstated by State Commissioner of Education Dr. Frederick Raubinger. Raubinger ruled that the Board delayed too long in starting an investigation of Superintendent Dr. Frank M. Durkee. Raubinger also proclaimed that the Board resolution locking Durkee out to prevent his presence in office from hampering a NEA investigation violated Durkee's rights.

For the fourth time in four years, the Bellboys lost their season opener to a fleetfooted East Orange team who had been trailing for four quarters. The score was 21-14.

Mothers of School No. 2 PTA breathed a sign of uneasy relief when the Belleville Board of Education agreed unanimously to take the necessary preliminary steps to conduct a referendum in February "or as soon as possible" for construction at the little school on Mill Street.

William F. Tompkins, candidate for state senator for Essex County, named Peter Paglia, of 70 Malone Avenue, as his campaign co-ordinator in Belleville.

Ten Years Ago

For the first time in more than 23 years, the price of the Belleville Times was raised. The newsstand price was increased from five to ten cents. On July 2, 1937, the price was hiked from two to five cents per copy. Publisher Frank Orechio said that increased costs of materials, labor and equipment led to the new price of ten cents.

Mrs. Evan Thomas was elected president of the new United Presbyterian Women group organized at the Fewsmith Memorial Church. Other officers included Mrs. Elmer Van Ness, vice-president; Mrs. M. Albretsen, recording secretary; Mrs. G. Jaquith, corresponding secretary and Mrs. A. McCumber, treasurer.

Belleville was making preparations to greet Vice-President Richard M. Nixon when the Republican presidential candidate was to address a huge audience in the West Orange Armory. Town Republican chairman Nicholas Rapuano informed the Belleville Times that arrangements had been completed to provide transportation for the public from Belleville to the Armory.

Fifteen Years Ago

Nutley and Belleville town and school authorities, backed by Freeholders Bernard Rabinowitz, Nutley Democrat, and Elwood Russell, Belleville Republican, were pooling their interests and asking the Essex County Park Commission to build a club house and launching dock for the use of the rowing crews of the two high schools, on the county park along the Passaic River at a point near to the dividing line between the two towns.

Whether or not the Town Commission should deed land on the west side of the Municipal Stadium was to be placed on the ballot at November's general election. If the general election referendum, in which the land would be used for a new high school, was defeated, it would mean the end of the struggle by the Board to construct the school at the stadium grounds.

The Army was on the march, at least from the Town Hall to the Sugar Bowl. The Town Commission approved a request from the infantry to move its recruiting sign from in front of Town Hall to the Washington Avenue luncheonette. It seemed that Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde had asked the Recruiting Service to remove the poster. "We're trying to make something out of this building," he said, commenting on the painting program at the Town Hall. He also said the war was over, and added the fact that two or three people had fallen over the sign.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

A trio who had held up the Capitol Theatre and escaped with $314.48, were still at large, police reported, after they had staged another hold-up of a small movie house in Newark.

The Board of Education was authorized by a 19 vote margin, in a special school election, to construct recreational facilities in the area south of the high school and to borrow the sum of $70,000 for the purpose.

The Musicians Club of Belleville was presenting two of its members, Miss Josephine Rossi, local soprano and Raymond Young, pianist of Newark, in a joint recital in the Griffith Building in Newark.

Before the largest home crowd to see a Belleville football game in years, the local high school eleven made a successful inauguration of the Municipal Stadium when they bumped off a heavily favored Barringer High by a 19 to 6 score.

Forty Years Ago

John C. Baker and George Gerard was appointed by the Rotary Club to hustle the Passaic Valley Sewage Commission into action on the purification of the Passaic River.

Miss Anna Neary won the Queen contest in the Old Home Celebration of the Belleville Elks. Miss Theresa McCoy and Miss Florence Van Nortwick finished second and third.

Speak Up

She Criticizes V. Strumolo's Campaign

To the Editor,

It was quite shocking to read in the Newark News on Sunday, September 27, 1970 that Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, should reveal to the press his strength in any section of town or county. I have always felt that the people of either a town or county are the ones to be heard, and it is their votes that are the strength and not the candidate's.

Unfortunately Commissioner Strumolo has made this family feud a campaign issue. I personally feel Commissioner V. Strumolo running on the Republican ticket this time, should not concern himself with the Democratic Leader, but only be concerned with the Republican Leaders of the particular district.

If Commissioner Strumolo knew the duties of the office he is seeking, he would be aware that the Silver Lake Section alone, cannot elect him, but the entire Republican County Committee members, have to support him as well.

As for the reporter of the Newark Evening News, from his release, I gather he is trying to create a controversial issue concerning strength of two Commissioners at a time in which no issue of strength exists. Commissioner Strumolo and myself run in a Municipal Election as Independents, with no party labels.

As an elected official and also Democratic Chairman, I personally know many reasons why the residents of Belleville should vote Democratic, as I'm sure Commissioner Strumolo is aware of the many losses of programs and monies that have been denied to the residents of Belleville through this present Republican Administration.

Commissioner Strumolo should have considered the residents' needs of our municipality, before considering his own personal gains by switching parties so often.

Commissioner
Mary V. Senatore

Sees Strumolo As Worried

To the Editor,

On Sunday, September 27, 1970 an article appeared in the Newark Evening News stating "Strumolo's Popularity In Silver Lake District Challenged." I Connie Strumolo was attacked in the article and felt I had no obligation to respond to their article, as they never interviewed me personally — but I felt that I being a life time resident of Belleville would like the truth told to the people of the area concerned, and not the residents of twenty-one other municipalities.

My explanation concerning the release are the following reasons:

Why should Commissioner Strumolo be concerned with the district if his strength is so strong?

My daughter was never fired but told by Civil Service the reason for dismissal was because Commissioner Strumolo told Civil Service she did not respond to the certification. The truth is Commissioner Strumolo never acknowledged my daughter's letter; as he was priming someone else for the position.

To my knowledge there are girls who are employed in the Department of Public Affairs and have not been certified under any titles. My daughter has taken and passed every examination called by Commissioner Strumolo. Is it fair that the Commissioner should have girls working for him who did not pass any Civil Service examinations?

Dr. Gerson Ram and Dr. J. Richard Bevinetto, Health Officers for Belleville, were dismissed by the Commissioner. "Can they all be wrong?"

In the past, myself and my entire family had supported Commissioner Strumolo and in the last Commission Election we of this district were responsible for him being elected. After the election he led the residents of this area to believe our district was C-Residential only to find out when a variance for a garbage truck garage was being sought did we find out it was C-Industrial. Through the efforts of Commissioner Mary V. Senatore and the other Commissioners the area was re-zoned to C-Residential.

Commissioner Strumolo was a Republican then decided the grass may be greener on the other side and joined the Democrats. When what he was seeking from the Democrats was denied he then decided to join the Republican Party again. Commissioner Strumolo being still a Democrat was unable to cast his own vote for himself in the last Primary Election. Is this a man qualified to run as County Clerk of Essex County when he cannot even decide which Party he would like to serve?

Ralph Risoli, Registrar in Commissioner Strumolo's department challenges me in my district stating that every third person in this area is his cousin. Unfortunately they are not voting for him or his brother who was defeated in the Board of Education Election with only two seats open and three candidates in the race. "Where were his cousins?"

Commissioner Strumolo stated in his release to the Newark Evening News that he was not really worried with this district. Then why did he give a release concerning our break of friendship when I am strictly a Democratic Leader and concerned only with qualified candidates, not a Republican Candidate, whom I feel should be concerned with the Republican Leaders of this district.

I felt an obligation to inform the public, concerning the release but I at no time intend to continue a controversial issue over personalities. I instead intend to exert my energies letting the people of my district know why we should elect Democratic Candidates in this General Election.

Hurricane Greta Threatened, But Didn't Amount To Much

Greta — an uncommon name, visited south Florida last weekend — and her bark was more threatening than her bite. If you read your papers or turned on the T.V. news last weekend you probably were alerted to a hurricane threat to southeast Florida. Her name was Greta and her winds were gusting to 50 miles an hour Saturday and Sunday. I saw sandbag barricades at Fort Lauderdale's major hotels. Hurricane shutters were in place all over the city.

The threat was real, and anticipating a full-fledged hurricane, Fort Lauderdale natives stocked their liquor closets preparing for the siege. But Greta proved to be a "disappointment"; she fell apart at sea, then re-formed, and subsequently degenerated off the coast of Florida's lower Keys. The National Hurricane Center at the University of Miami called off its hurricane watch, in effect from Palm Beach to Key West, at 4:00 p.m. Sunday.

The Hurricane Center director, Robert H. Simpson, commented, "We were sitting on a powder keg that didn't explode." So Greta proved to be a flighty and fickle girl with only a few people in south Florida taking her seriously.

The turbulence of the ocean waves resulting from Greta's area-visit turned out to be a surfers' holiday. For the younger men, storm preparations consisted of lashing a surf board to a car top, picking up a bikini beach bunny and heading for the wide ocean spaces. I am happy Greta was only a threat and not a "treat."

Because of the hurricane weather in south Florida I ended up returning to Nutley aboard a Northeast Airlines Flight 28. With each trip, I'm getting to like Northeast better and better. What made Flight 28 especially pleasing was renewing the acquaintance of a couple of top flight stewardesses, senior Marge Fava and her friend Mary Whalen. Rounding out the quartet of attractive, efficient stewardesses were two relatively younger girls, Linda Broz and Lorraine Smith, all of Boston.

Syria launched two armored invasions of Jordan Sunday and it looks like an effort to provoke Israel into sending its armed forces to Jordan, a machiavellian plot to rally the Arabian world against the regime of King Hussein. Secretary of State William P. Rogers notified the Syrian government that the United States would not stand still for a Syrian invasion of Jordan. President Nixon is reportedly ready to intervene if he judged it necessary to save Jordan. Another Korea?, Vietnam?

Our SEEMS ONLY YESTERDAY editor committed an error last week — and who do you think was involved this time?, brother Carl. Ten years ago he was given a testimonial dinner upon his first retirement from politics (he lost a re-election bid by 246 votes) and our little Elaine wrote up the memory item stating that "Orechio had lost a re-election bid, finishing in ninth place." The fact is Carl was barely nosed out of fifth place in the winners circle by less than seven votes a district. Next time around Carl missed first place by 92 votes.

You must hand it to Rosalie Bernardo of Hillside Avenue, Nutley for sheer perseverance. A resourceful young lady, Mrs. Bernardo has a history of civic interest and dedication. A few weeks ago she was instrumental in rounding up a few town youngsters to sponsor a benefit for The Nutley Sun — Family Service Camp Fund. The event did not make The Sun, (hopefully it will this week) but Mrs. Bernardo persisted and we trust her persistence will produce results. It is people like Rosalie Bernardo that make Nutley the nice place that it is.

BROTHER CARMEN ORECHIO, Nutley Commissioner of Public Affairs offers an excellent idea which was adopted by his colleagues on the Town Commission. A Department of Consumer Protection is to be organized under an ordinance which will have a public hearing on October 6. If passed, according to Carmen, the legislation will "Give the town some legal muscle in pursuing persons and firms that attempt to deceive the public." Slated to head the new department is likeable Bill Callanan, former Commissioner, and present Superintendent of Weights and Measures. We think the legislation is overdue and we trust after its adoption Nutley residents will receive the full protection to which they are entitled.

Do you feel all alone in the world sometime? And once in a while do you think there is nobody around to protect you? Well, we recommend to your memory a favorite poem of our all around girl, Elizabeth Thomas, written by Patience Strong:

PROTECTION

The Lord is my Shepherd, what more then can we ask?
He gives us strength to win the fight, and courage for our task.

And if we hunger He has promised that we shall be fed,
He will supply our human needs — give us our daily bread.

And if we are in danger He will stretch His mighty arm,
The children of the Shepherd shall not come to any harm.

For with His love white angel wings enfold us as we go,

The evil powers can do their worse — we trust His word — we know.

The tongue of malice cannot wound a pure and faithful heart,

Depression cannot conquer us, joyous we walk apart,

And tread a lonely path perhaps, yet it is good and fair.

To live safe in the secret knowledge of His tender care.

Dominguez of 234 Union Avenue, who said she had 115 signatures "and could have gotten more but time ran out."

"No parent will let his children near that intersection after 4:30 p.m.," Mrs. Dominguez told the commissioners. "Since January I would say that more than $20,000 worth of property damage has resulted at that corner. In which of your hands should we place the responsibility if a child is hurt there?"

Mrs. Dominguez charged that cars used both Union Avenue and Holmes Street for a speedway at night.

If Trenton approves the light, it still must be okayed by the Essex County Board of Freeholders because Union Avenue is a county thoroughfare.

Mrs. Dominguez painted a grave picture of the situation for commissioners, estimating that an accident occurs at the intersection every two or three weeks. She recalled a car which smashed into a woman's home and that her sister's automobile has been hit three times while parked on Union Avenue.

The danger apparently exists after 4:30 p.m. when the intersection's school guard goes off duty.

storm. The road foreman showed the Times a single file cabinet he keeps just for repair records. He also presented typical work-day charts for the department which showed trucks liberally scheduled as "due for repairs".

Since January, four dump trucks have become inoperable, so that the two okayed Monday night will still leave the Department deficient in these vehicles, which are multi-purpose trucks.

Clean-Up Week Set Monday

Fall Clean-Up Week will begin Monday and continue through Saturday on regular garbage collection days it was announced this week by Public Affairs Director Vincent T. Strumolo.

Commissioner Strumolo, who sent flyers out to all residents this week, urged that items for collection be placed at curbs the night prior to regular collection days.

Strumolo released a list of things which will be picked up by the garbage collector regularly contracted by the town. These include building material such as wallpaper and plaster; fixtures, plumbing, refrigerators, and furniture; scrap lumber not exceeding four feet in length, and tied in bundles; waste paper, glass, crates, boxes, rags and cartons.

The debris must not weigh more than 300 pounds, Strumolo said. He also requested all loose materials be placed in bushels, baskets, boxes or garbage cans, "otherwise it won't be picked up." For further information residents are asked to call the Health Department at 759-2832.

The Public Works Department has announced it will not take part in the program.

At this point, however, the subdivision is only speculation, Mrs. Senatore said. She indicated the contractor might not buy the large tract of land on Cottage Street if Commission sentiment was against the proposal.

Commissioner Senatore told

The Times she met this week with residents of the area who she said were strongly opposed to the development with nine homes, but might be in favor of a maximum of six.

In any case, should the proposal come up, Commissioner Senatore said Town Fathers would review it and send it to the Planning Board for suggestions before passing judgement.

Mrs. Senatore said the contractor was R. DelSordo of Hasbrouck Heights.

"BARBS" AND "GOOF BALLS" THEY "PUT YOU DOWN"

The first Barbiturate was introduced in 1903. It was not until 1940 that their addiction qualities became a cause for concern. The dosage of Barbiturates must be controlled by a physician to benefit.

They are prescribed for high blood pressure, epilepsy, insomnia, mental illness and to relax patients.

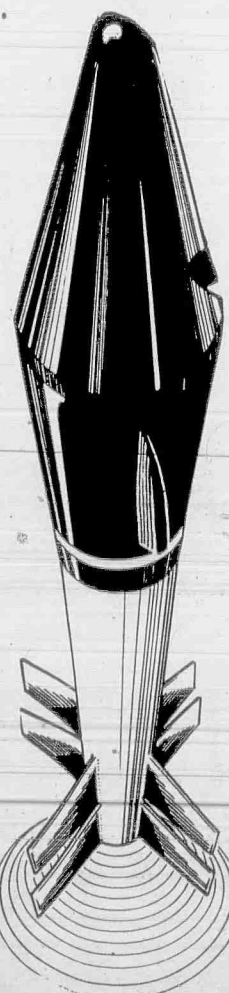

Serious problems occur when they are illegally obtained. Without physician supervision, larger dosage causes confusion, slurred speech and staggering. The ability to think, to concentrate and to work is lessened. Users can become irritable, angry and fighting mad. Overdoses can cause death.

French Club Will Convene

Dr. Daniel Penham of the French department of Columbia University will be the speaker at the Alliance Française of Montclair's first lecture of the season. The meeting will take place Monday at 2:30 p.m. in St. Luke's Parish House, 73 South Fullerton Avenue, Montclair.

The Alliance aims to stimulate and encourage the study of the French language and culture. Meetings are held two afternoons a month: a lecture, usually the first Monday of the month; and a "causerie" on the third Wednesday.

Dr. Penham's topic will be "The Relevance of Montaigne to the Present." Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. J.P. Boegner of North Caldwell and Miss Maria Arndt of Upper Montclair.

Those interested in joining the Alliance or in obtaining more information about the group are invited to call the membership chairman, Mrs. Joseph C. Varkala.

A better way to clean carpets?

OF COURSE THERE IS!

Yes, for years "scrubwomen" used scrub brush, soap. Her replacement, so called "shampoo" machines used motor driven scrub brush, shampoo. Both only "surface cleaned," didn't remove dirt from deep in carpet fibres. Brushes caused extra wear, matted carpet pile, changed texture, left subsurface dirt in carpet. Carpet was only half clean.

THE ULTIMATE IN CARPET CLEANING

Steam-Way's revolutionary new deep clean extraction method doesn't use harsh brushes. Flashed steam goes deep into carpet to dissolve embedded dirt. Vacuum picks up dirt solution, transfers it to storage tank. Cleans from bottom up, not top down. Steam-Way makes your carpets the "Cleanest Clean You've Ever Seen."

ROARING IN from the safety position, Doug Brown (40) treats Bayonne QB Dave Annetta like a stray steer as he throws him to the grid-iron for an 11 yard loss.

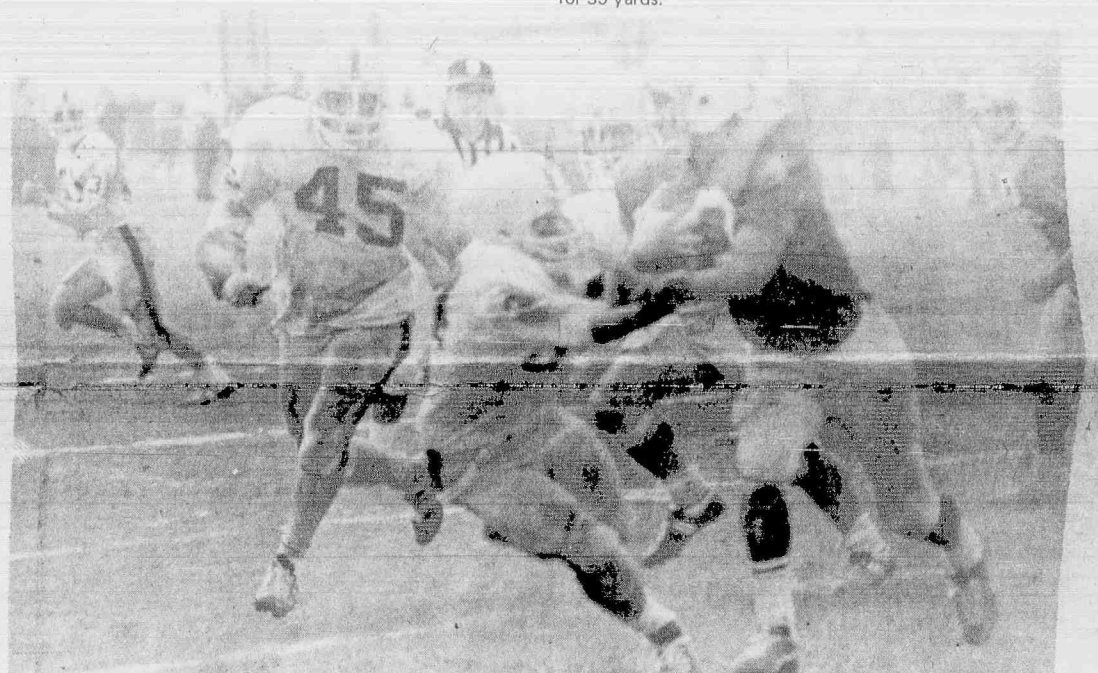

FLEET WINGBACK Mark Bradley takes off on a 24 yrd romp to the Bayonne three yard line, setting up the Bellboys' final score. Bradley was big groundgainer for the day with 67 yards in four carries and one TD.

QUARTERBACK Joe Lotruglio takes a water break after scoring fourth period extra point conversion. The junior back scrambled for 17 yards on 8 carries and completed 2-6 passes for 39 yards.

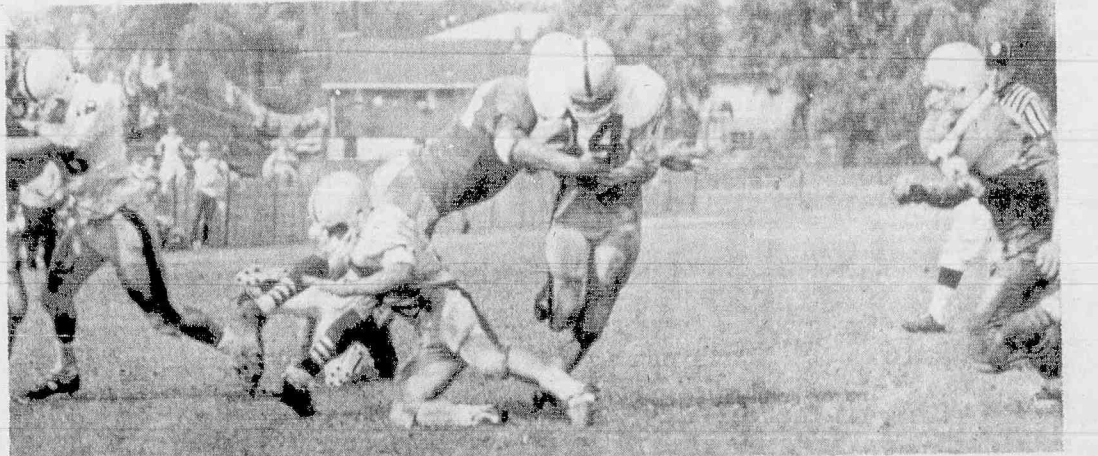

MIKE ALBERTINE (right) blocks Bayonne's extra point try in the first period. Ron Muscara (34) and Tom Vitiello (43) also had little trouble in cracking through the big Bayonne defense.

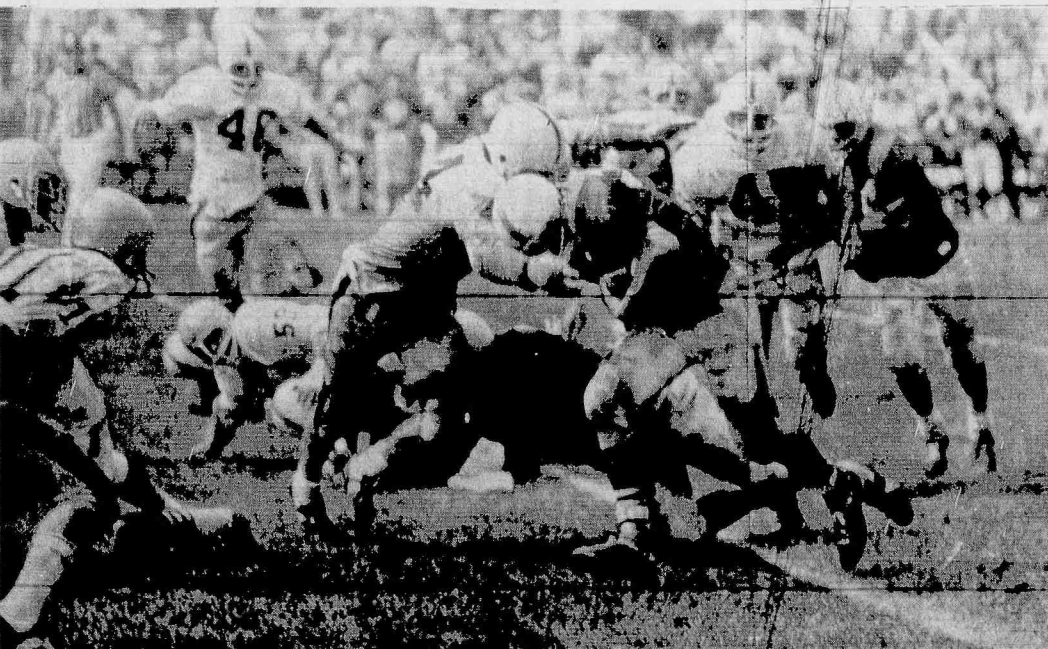

SENIOR DEFENSIVE end Ron Muscara nails Bayonne QB Della Terza (45) prepares to aid Muscara. Muscara took part in six tackles during the game.

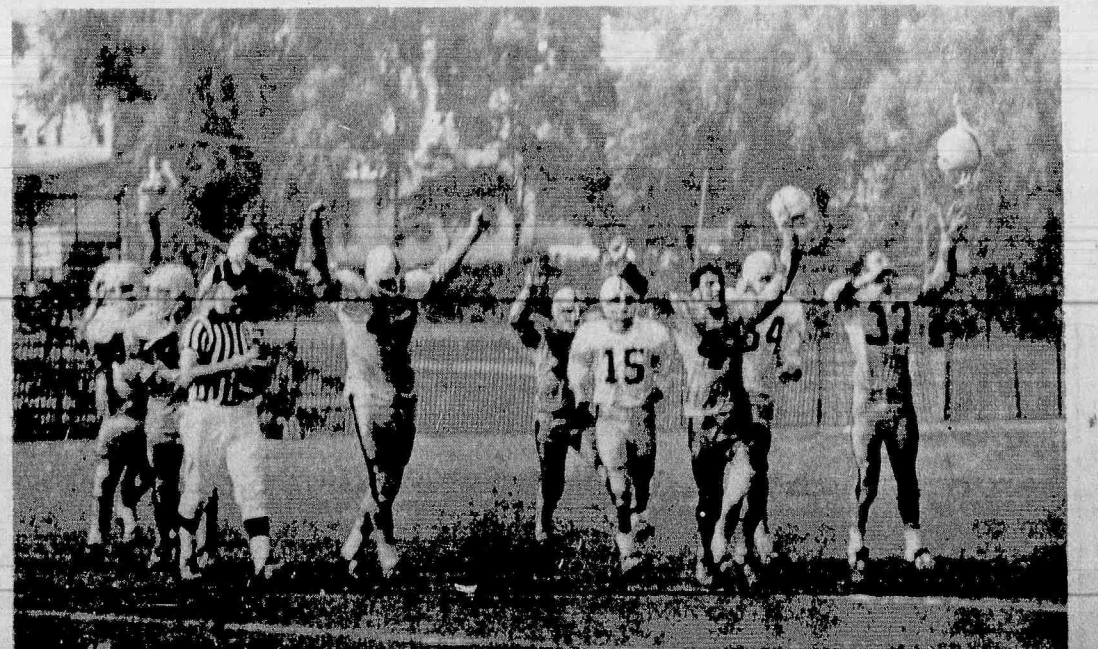

AFTER MARK Bradley scampered 33 yards to the Bayonne 25 in the third quarter, Ricky Caruso hits the right side for five more with good blocking from Nike Albertine (left), Jerry DePaul (18), Joe Lotruglio (12) and Don Black (38).

CO-CAPTAIN Ricky Caruso goes over the goal from the five, Bayonne 12. Throwing a key block is quarterback Joe Lotruglio, who moments later ran in a two point conversion.

pounds. The other two veterans are guard Steve Van Cleaf at 5'11" and 170 pounds, and Roy Ripley a senior fullback at 5'10" and 175 pounds.

The Bengals run from a T-slot formation and generally gear their offense to the roll-outs of quarterback Schlegal who is adept at passing and running.

Cavallaro says he expects the Bellboys to be "tough" and labelled Belleville a second-half ballclub. He added he has a lot of respect for fullback Doug Brown and halfback Ricky Caruso, and said he knows wingback Mark Bradley is good on the reverse.

Bellboy coach Rogco Cafone says he doesn't anticipate any major changes after his successful debut last week as a head coach.

"We know they have one of the best passers in the state and that they run out of the slot-T formation which we don't see much of. We'll be ready, however."

Cafone says he doesn't anticipate a let-down after the big opening day victory over Bayonne, 27-12. "I already told them we're going out to beat Bloomfield, not anybody else, including Nutley. I'm petrified that what happened last year could happen again."

The new coach will have his hands full in keeping the Bellboys from looking ahead to the following Saturday when rival Nutley brings a top-notch squad into Municipal Stadium for what should prove to be one of the biggest contests in the state.

"I've set a policy here," Cafone told the Times. "I don't like too much talk by the players. We talk with our heart, not with our mouths."

Cafone's "no-talk" system apparently worked quite well Saturday, as the Bellboys emerged with little fanfare from the dressing room at half-time and went on to demolish the Bayonne Bees. "I could hear a pin-drop in the locker room which told me they were thinking about football."

What will probably be the key factor in Saturday's game will be just how well the Bellboy defensive secondary can stand up to Schlegal's passing attack, an attack complicated by the fact he rolls out and is a running threat.

In discussing last week's game, Cafone said superior conditioning paid off for the Bellboys in the second half. Cafone's sentiments were echoed by many fans who were impressed by the larger size of the Bayonne line.

The Bellboy coach said it was a team effort, although he did have some individual praise for senior wingback

Mark Bradley, who set-up two touchdowns on long dashes from scrimmage. Cafone labelled Bradley an all-around performer, and marvelled at the five feet eight inch, 165 pounder's stamina. Bradley participated on both the offense and the defensive teams and was on every specialist team. The senior is a perfect wingback, according to Cafone, because he can run, catch and block well.

Statistics tell the story in this game when you compare the first half and the second half marks. In the first half, the Bees had 10 first downs to three for Belleville, while in the second, the Bellboys had six and Bayonne none.

There was a similar trend in rushing, where the Bellboys recorded a dismal 26 yards on 16 attempts, while Bayonne piled up 87 yards on 18 tries. In the second half, however, the Bees were held to minus 15 yards rushing while Belleville rolled up 130 yards on 22 carries.

The game was marred somewhat by a rash of penalties, not uncommon for opening games. The Bellboys were hit with ten penalties totalling 112 yards, while Bayonne lost 80 yards on

Underclassmen Sweep Bees

Belleville senior high school's underclassmen made a clean sweep of Bayonne as the Jayee squad won 20-0 and the sophomores triumphed 34-0, Monday.

End Alan Frank scored the first touchdown for the jayvees on a 25 yard pass from quarterback Phil Bruno.

Bruno completed another score to Sal Ciccalese on a 15 yard pass. Bruno then made the score 14-0 with a conversion pass to halfback Mick Egidio.

Rich Cialella scored the third TD on a 12 yard draw play in the final quarter.

A good effort by the Bellboys sophs led to a 34-0 romp over the Bayonne sophomores in Belleville. Mark Cervasio took the opening kickoff and ran 70 yards for a touchdown.

Phil Cuzzi scored the second on a seven yard dive play in the first period. Jay D'Amico added two points on a end sweep for the conversion.

In the second quarter Joe Troise picked up a Bayonne fumble on the five yard line of the Bees and ran it in for the third score. Cuzzi added two points on a draw play. Cervasio scored the fourth tally on an eight yard sweep after a 25 yard pass play from Rich Cupparo to Cervasio.

D'Amico added the fifth TD in the last quarter on a seven yard run. Coach Nick Grande noted that sometimes the sophomores inexperience showed. They made a few mistakes - fumbles, bad plays, bad blocks, interceptions but Grande attributed this mainly to nervousness.

Tough Bengals Ready

nothing short of superb in the second half, led by an unusual amount of tackles from the defensive secondary. Defensive backs with impressive totals were Mark Bradley with six unassisted tackles and one assist, Joe Papasidero with three unassisted and four assists, Jim Miele with a total of six and Doug Brown with five. End Ron Muscara also contributed alot of tackles with a total of seven.

Perhaps the most predictable result of the game was that the heralded Bellboy backfield came across like the well-rounded unit it is supposed to be. No one back really totalled large yardage, but all were impressive when needed.

Bradley totalled 67 yards on four carries, including two key runs and a touchdown. Halfback Ricky Caruso did not have one of his big 100 yard-plus days, but was tough when needed, scoring two touchdowns and picking up 41 yards on 15 carries and 56 yards on two kickoff returns.

Fullback Doug Brown carried ten times for 36 yards and one touchdown, and demonstrated on several occasions that he is the man to count on for short, clutch yardage.

Junior quarterback Joe Lotruglio, in his first varsity start, impressed the large Municipal Stadium crowd with his poise and fine scrambling ability. Coach Cafone says the junior will be in the quarterback spot again Saturday.

Ends Carmen Russomano and Jerry DePaul each had one reception, good for 16 and 28 yards respectively.

Harriers Drop Opener

The Belleville High School cross-country squad lost its opening meet of the season last week, being downed by Orange High, 32-23.

Senior John McCarthy captured the top spot for the Bellboys with 13:54. Bellboy Lou Dalcero also finished high with 15:07 for fourth place. The rest of the harriers from Belleville were too far off the pace to give the team a victory.

Ray Horman was eighth for the Bellboy harriers with a 15:43 time. Ninth went to Rich Sulenski with 16:22, and tenth to Bob Silver with 16:48.

Placing fourteenth was Rocco Cuzzo at 18:15, while Ed Mazza capped sixteenth at 20:25. Bob Brown and Bob Drake didn't finish.

Travel Along with

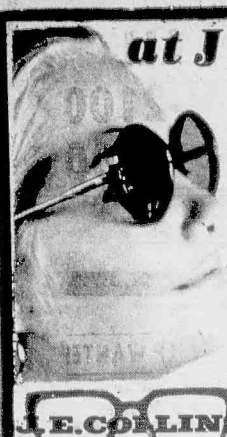

MAX GREENWALD

Back in 1842, Queen Victoria laughed when her ministers told her the Royal Navy had laid claim in her name to an uninhabited, rocky island on the South China coast. The consensus of Victoria's subjects, in the language of today, was simply: Who needs it? It would never amount to much; never develop any trade for Britain and yield either gold or glory for Her Majesty. Today booming, growing, prosperous Hong Kong is keeping the British economy going as a world great shipping center and tourist's paradise.

Six of Belleville's season opponents lost their opening games of the season last Saturday, and four lost by two touchdowns or more.

Hunting Contest Is Over

The Butts and Bows' fifth annual woodchuck and carp bowhunting contest has ended with Pete Paglia and Joe Courter capturing most of the honors.

The contest ran from April to September 12, with all weights and measures done at the Butts and Bows Lfes, 4. Washington Avenue.

Winner of a large trophy and a Camo suit for bagging 37 woodchucks--the most this season--was Paglia. He also won a trophy and a dozen matched hunting arrows for getting the heaviest chuck, of 12 pounds and one ounce. In addition, Paglia brought down the second heaviest chuck at 11 pounds nine ounces, good for a trophy and a dozen Broadheads.

Walter Janoski won a trophy and a dozen Broadheads for shooting the third heaviest chuck, an 11pounder and one ounce animal. Joe Courter won a trophy and a Camo suit for bringing down the most chucks in a day, five.

Top carp award went to Ken Keller, who won a trophy and an eight arrow bow quiver for bringing in a 24 pound, one ounce carp. Joe Courter took second and third place with 22 pound and a 21 pound eight ounce carps. The former brought him a trophy and a fishing reel, while the latter brought him a trophy and matched hunting arrows. Walter Janoski took fourth place with a 20 pound, eight ounce carp for a trophy and a fish reel.

Garden State Hockey Loop To Commence

The Garden State Hockey League will open its 14th season on Friday, October 9, with a game between the Brooklyn Eagles and the West New York Victorias on the ice at South Mountain Arena, West Orange.

Belleville's two opponents that won were Nutley, 27-7 over Garfield, and West Orange 13-8 over Irvington. Both Garfield and Irvington are Bellboy opponents.

The closest and most important game was Bloomfield, last year's Group IV Section 2 champs, was held to only 57 yards on the ground by the strong defense of the Hall, last year's statewide Saylor Rating Champs.

The Bengals will host the Bellboys Saturday, and boast a strong running and passing attack. Jack Schegel went 7-14 and totaled 107 yards passing. Roy Ripley, the Bengals' Fullback, gained 68 yards in 13 carries, while the other backs lost a total of 11 yards.

Newark College Of Engineering Gets Local Six

Six residents of Belleville were in the freshman class at Newark College of Engineering when classes started on September 16.

The Belleville freshmen include Joseph Civinski of 230 New Street, Gerard Deluca of 30 Meacham Street, Robert Forrest of 110 Nolton Street, Anthony Nocera of 424 Greylock Parkway, Michael Tracey of 344 Cortlandt Street and James Walsh of 132 Linden Avenue.

Victory for Nutley was spelled K-I-O-S, as the Maroon fullback scored three of Nutley's four TD's. Two of these were on long runs, as the Nutley senior returned a punt for 80 yards to score and ran 91 yards on first and ten from his own nine for the other. Nutley will come to Belleville on Columbus Day after facing E.O. at the Oval on Saturday.

The other winner was West Orange. The Cowboys squeezed by Irvington 13-8, scoring once on a Fred Taddeo run of 14 yards, after a Mike Trifolios pass set up the score. Trifolios scored the other TD on a one yard keeper, but W.O. not wanting to change its past performance also turned over two fumbles to the Campers. Irvington threatened to win it in the last few minutes, getting down to the W.O. one, but fumbled under pressure giving the Cowboys the win. Irvington scored on an 11 yard pass, and added two points as QB George Meuller passed again for the conversion.

Garfield, while losing to Nutley, showed passing ability and the player who sewed a victory for the Bolleymakers last year over Belleville, caught the only TD for Garfield. Dan Wozdyla, infamous for his 101 yard interception return last year, took a TD pass from William Luke of 15 yards. Garfield also drove to the Nutley nine once but handed the ball over on downs.

Beck's Column

BY MAX BECK.

If you read today's color TV advertisements, it appears that the advertiser is supposing everybody is an electronics engineer.

You read about modules, printed circuit boards, computer crafted color, T.A.C., A.F.T., A.T.C. and much more. It is very confusing and to most people does not mean anything. What does it do to the picture, that is important.

As far as the user is concerned, the less one has to fiddle with controls, the better it is. There is no difference in picture quality regardless whether the set uses tubes, transistors or integrated circuits, whether it is handwired or whether it uses circuit boards.

The difference in picture quality between different brands is insignificant, if the sets are adjusted correctly. We wrote numerous times that some stores deliberately mess up some sets in order to make them appear inferior. If you come across such a "demonstration", your best bet is to walk out. They only want to push the brand which they make look good.

On today's color TV set you should be able to switch from one station to the other, without any adjustment other than a slight correction of the color control occasionally. If a set requires more than this, don't buy it, regardless whether it is supposed to have any or all of the features listed above.

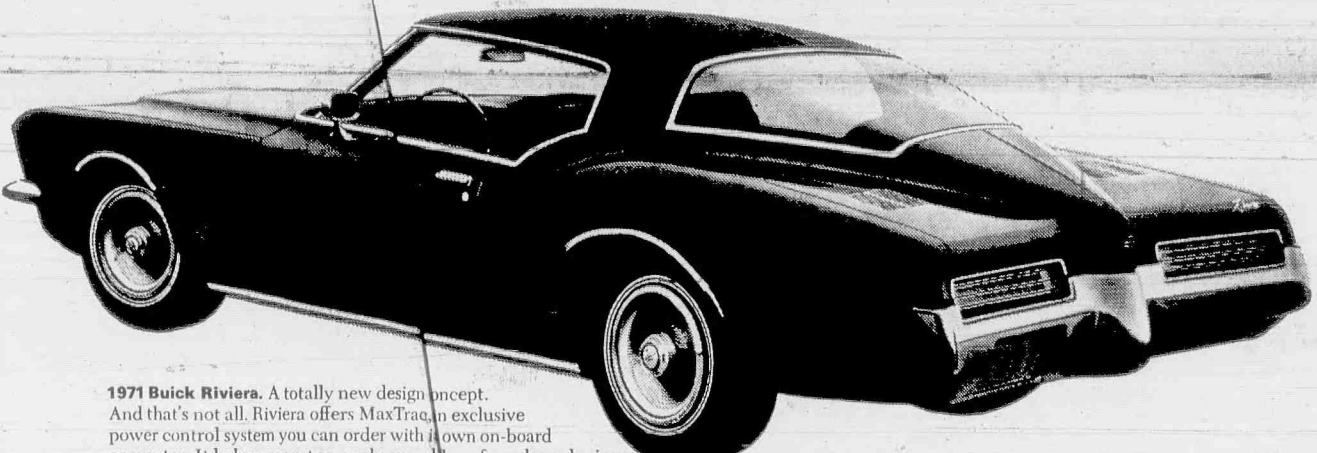

We service what we sell. Beck's Radio TV Hi Fi Nutley 667-4225

1971. Buick introduces a new set of values.

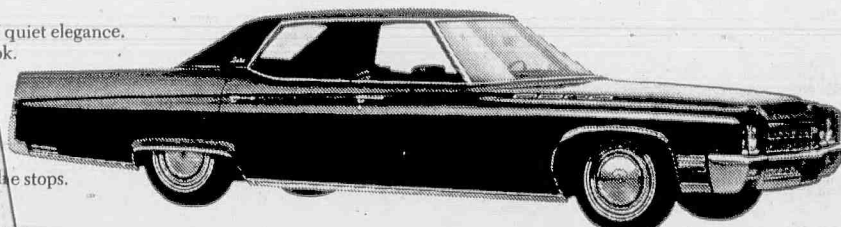

Value, not gimmicks or ornamentation, sells cars. More people have been coming to Buick each year for just that reason. Buick concentrates on value. And this year, Buick introduces a new set of values. Features that will help make our new Buick perform better, last longer and get you more of a return on your investment at trade-in time. Only a Buick dealer can offer you our new set of values. So, test your values against our new ones. Then ask yourself this simple question. Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

Something to believe in.

1971 Buick Riviera. A totally new design concept. And that's not all. Riviera offers MaxTrac, an exclusive power control system you can order with a own on-board computer. It helps you get securely over slick surfaces by reducing rear-wheel slipping. The new body features side-guard beams for protection, a bigger trunk, and a driver cockpit with a control center designed around the driver for new ease and convenience.

1971 Buick Electra 225. A new interpretation of quiet elegance. We've improved our Electra everywhere you look. There's more room in every direction, interior that can be appreciated as much for their durability as for their beauty and comfort, even a new balanced braking system. A unique valve proportions braking force front to rear to help give you quick, smooth straight-line stops.

1971 Buick Skylark Custom. This is the car that has set the pace for value in its price class. Rocker panels that wash and dry themselves, big-Buick room and comfort inside, a cooling system that should never overheat, inner fenders that protect the outer fenders, and a modest price have put our Buick Skylark traditionally among the resale leaders in its class.

1971 Buick Centurion. This is our newest Buick, a city car with sleekness and grace as well as muscle. It features more nimble variable-ratio power steering, power front disc brakes, Full-Flo ventilation, and a vinyl roof on the Centurion Formal Coupe as standard equipment.

1971 Buick LeSabre. An incredible new offering of Buick value. The LeSabre, like the Riviera, Electra and Centurion, features AccuDrive, a new version of the directional stability system we pioneered. It will help give you smooth handling.

An Important Improvement. Every new Buick engine is now designed to run smoothly and efficiently, and with lower exhaust emissions, on no-lead and low-lead gasolines. And every Buick V-8 engine will have exclusive nickel-plated exhaust valves for smoother operation and longer valve life, and a new time-modulated crankshaft to help give quicker warm-up and a more consistent fuel mixture.

Ballet Folklorico Opens Newark Series Nov. 5

Symphony Hall in Newark will launch a new "International Dance Festival" this fall with programs presenting everything from folk dance to modern and classical ballet. The series will be held on four Thursday nights at 8 o'clock during the season, a departure from Symphony Hall's regular weekend concert schedule. The opener will be the colorful Ballet Folklorico of Mexico on Nov. 5, with the following programs offering the Masowsze Polish Song and Dance Company on Jan. 28, the Royal Winnipeg Ballet on March 18 and the Inbal Dance Theatre of Israel on April 1. An added dance program, apart from the International Dance Festival, will be the Batsheva Dance Company of Israel, which will appear as a special event on Sunday, Nov. 22. "Each of these dance companies provides a different and highly unusual artistic experience," said Mordecai Bauman, managing director of Symphony Hall. "The series also will provide a truly international appeal for our citizens of varied ethnic backgrounds." The Ballet Folklorico, which is under the direction of Amalia Hernandez, offers a vivid and varied cross-section of life in Mexico from the pageantry of the Mayans and Aztecs to the swirling folk dances of today. The Mazowsze, a delight with American audiences since its New York debut in 1961, recreates the traditional dances and songs of Poland under the direction of Mira Ziminska-Sygietynska. With Ann Sothern 'Barefoot in Park' Opening Tonight

Neil Simon's Barefoot in the Park will serve as the vehicle to bring glamorous Ann Sothern to the Meadowbrook Theatre

Ann Sothern Restaurant, Cedar Grove, beginning tonight, Barefoot will run through November 1. Ann Sothern, who is well-known for her comedy roles in pictures, has made such notable musical films as "Panama Hattie," "As Thousands Cheer," and "Lady Be Good." The success of Maisie developed into a hit film series and was followed by her starring in "A Letter to Three Wives," "Cry Havoc," and "Blue Gardenia," before she returned to television. Her Private Secretary and the Ann Sothern Show won the star five Emmy nominations. After an absence of seven years, she returned to pictures, portraying a greedy woman of the streets in Lady In a Cage, for which she has won many awards including the Golden Globe and Foreign Correspondents award. Two other films, Chubasco for Warner Brothers and one for Universal completed her film activities. Her television career, also included the role of Countess on seven Lucille Ball shows and roles in several critically acclaimed Alfred Hitchcock shows. Miss Sothern also has an outstanding musical background. Talents such as musician and composer were not strange to her family. Her mother was an operatic soprano, her maternal grandfather Hans Nilson, a famed Danish violinist. At the age of 11, Ann was proficient in Bach, Beethoven and Brahms, and during her years in high school, she won first prize three consecutive years for her original compositions. In addition to her acting and musical careers, she is a cattle breeder and television producer. She has a home in Sun Valley, Idaho, where she spends the winter skiing.
