Drug Lecture Ready

A special program on drug abuse will begin this Tuesday in both the Belleville Junior and Senior High Schools, it was announced this week by Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco.

Tuesday, the first of six, two-hour lecture sessions will be conducted at both schools as part of a three point program instituted by the Belleville schools by request of the state, which has made such instruction mandatory in all school systems this year.

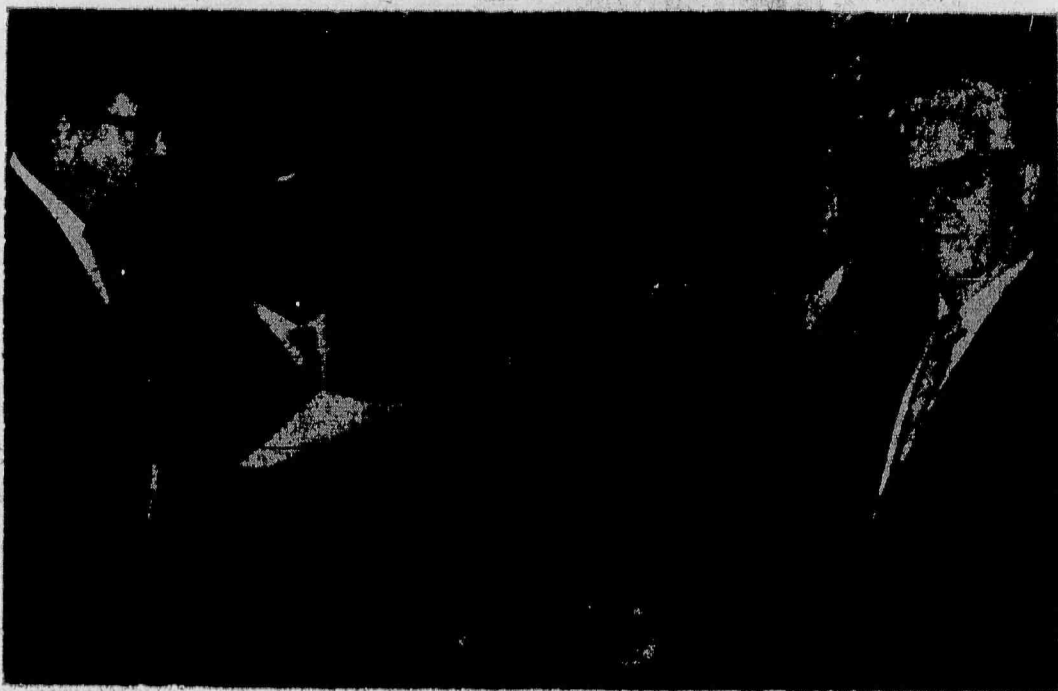

Both the junior and senior high will finish the normal school day at one p.m. Subsequent lectures are scheduled October 27, November 3, 10, 17 and 24.

Greco told the Times a three part program geared to the state mandate was begun last May, when Herman Wische, Belleville's School director of health and physical education, attended a three week seminar. Also a part of the first step, BHS science teacher Ralph Correll attended a three week seminar in June and July at the Newark College of Engineering on the matter of drug abuse.

As part of the second step of the Belleville program, Wische and Correll, together with High School Principal Raymond Smith, Junior High Principal Sy Grossman, and Greco, met in late August and several times in September to set up a program for the school year.

This meeting led to the sending of five teachers to take a Montclair State College sponsored course on drugs. Those teachers were Mrs. Elizabeth Roble and Miss Karen Fucello from the senior high, and Mrs. Shindell and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Forte from the Junior High.

The third step of the program goes into effect on Tuesday, when the series of lectures with the students begin. The program will feature speakers from many different areas, including a drug expert from Hoffmann-LaRoche; a psychiatrist; Essex County Prosecutor Joseph Lordi; an official from Integrity House, a half-way stop for addicts, and members of the local police narcotics bureau. Teachers will attend the lectures with the students.

At Town Hall New Deputy Fire Chief, Captain Are Sworn In

A new deputy chief and a captain were sworn in for the Belleville Fire Department during ceremonies at Town Hall Tuesday morning.

At 10:30 a.m., Town Clerk Eugene Barnett administered the oath of office to new Deputy Fire Chief Harold Dambra and new Captain Fred Tripp, while a host of family and friends looked on in Commission Chambers.

Mayor Ken Smith, who is director of Public Safety, hailed the men as qualified and able, and answered critics who have charged that a new Deputy Chief wasn't needed in the department.

In his statement, Mayor Smith said "there are many reasons why we have to fill these posts. When a fire-fighting unit pulls up to a blaze, there are many decisions to be made as to how to fight the thing. Therefore you need qualified men on the trucks to make these choices. In Belleville we need more officers like these two men."

The Mayor had been criticized in the press recently for creating the new Deputy Chief's position, which will bring the number of such officers to five in the department. Tuesday, Smith strongly defended his move.

"The extra salary we have to pay," Smith said, "is good insurance against saving lives. We have a professional department and we have to pay for it. Whatever the price is, it is very cheap insurance when someone's life is at stake."

"If you go back a few years," Smith continued, "you will see that our fires have been well taken care off. I'm congratulating these men today and I know they will do a great job to offset some Commissioner Mary V. Senatore announced today that each home owner in Belleville will be supplied with ten plastic bags starting on October 26, to be used to collect the leaves on their property. The bags will be distributed personally by Commissioner Senatore and the men of the Public Works Department, in sections.

Commissioner Senatore is asking the people to use these bags as a safeguard for the little children playing in the streets and also as an aid to cut down on air pollution. She requests after the plastic bags are filled, that they be securely tied and deposited at the curb on regular collection days.

The Commissioner said she was confident "the citizens of our town will co-operate in this new leaf removal plan." She also said that with the program, "the streets will be cleaner, the burning of leaves in the street will be eliminated and will reduce air pollution. It will also safeguard against the tragedy of our little children being injured by burying themselves in the leaves."

Residents seeking further explanation concerning the plastic bags for leaves, are asked to call the Public Works Department.

On that original variance the Zoning Board, in an apparent move to accommodate homeowners, required that gates be built and kept locked onto both Fairway Avenue and Overhill Road to avoid the flow of traffic from the apartments onto the residential "A" zone streets in the area. That stipulation about the gates became part of the variance

At Fairway Avenue

Residents To Get Access To Park

By Nat Gottlieb

Residents of the 250-unit Bridge Brook Gardens on Joramemon Street were promised Monday night by Mayor Ken Smith that he would open a gate to the Fairway Avenue Park for them in the near future.

Residents of the large garden apartment complex jammed Town Hall Tuesday night to complain their children had no access to the park "without walking six blocks," and that locked gates onto Fairway Avenue and Overhill Road constituted a fire hazard to them.

Also in attendance at the Commission meeting, were several homeowners from the area, who urged access not be opened to the park and that street gates onto Fairway and Overhill Road be left shut.

Much of the heated words exchanged Tuesday night had their origins in the variance which first created the apartment complex. That variance was granted just before the present commission took office.

The variance applied for by Belleville Nance Corporation, was bitterly fought by homeowners in the area, notably the Fairway Avenue Association. The Zoning Board of Adjustment recommended the variance to the Council, which passed it. The Fairway Association then appealed to the Superior Court of New Jersey and again lost. The Association's final appeal to the Appellate Division ended up the same way.

On that original variance the Zoning Board, in an apparent move to accommodate homeowners, required that gates be built and kept locked onto both Fairway Avenue and Overhill Road to avoid the flow of traffic from the apartments onto the residential "A" zone streets in the area. That stipulation about the gates became part of the variance and was upheld by the courts. The gates were to be opened only during fire emergencies with the Fire Department being given a key to the locks.

Thus, when apartment dwellers asked what the Mayor would do about the two gates he told them "my hands are tied". After a lengthy discussion, however, he did promise to open a footpath to the park area for the apartment dwellers.

Dennis Durfee, a resident of the apartment complex, apparently voiced the bridge Brook dwellers sentiments when he spoke at length about problems connected with the gate and the lack of a footpath to the park.

Durfee charged that there have been several arsons in the apartment complex this month, and that Fire officials are unable to respond speedily because of the gates. "We can't find any logic as to why these gates are kept closed. We don't want to reach the

C. Fabian Fund Seeks To Aid Other Youths

The Craig Fabian Fund is preparing to utilize its fund-raising energies to help other Belleville youngsters who have suffered similar afflictions to Craig.

It was announced this week that the fund is in the process of selecting other local youngsters who have suffered handicaps similar to Craig Fabian's and can demonstrate financial need.

Craig is the 16-year-old son of Deputy Fire Chief William Fabian, who last year was left extensively paralyzed as the result of a swimming accident.

The Fund was set up by a group of residents, including many town officials, who raised over $7,000 to aid the Fabian family through many diverse fund-raising events and the help of the Belleville community.

Most of that money went toward the expensive medical costs of Craig's rehabilitation at the Kessler Institute in West Orange, and toward the building of a special addition

Overlay Complete

The thin overlay program for Belleville's streets has been completed for this year, it was announced by Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of Public Works.

In the past three years, the commissioner has resurfaced 39 streets through Federal aid. Mrs. Senatore said the streets selected were chosen on the basis of their need.

In commenting to the Times, Mrs. Senatore said that "many persons have called and asked about certain streets. We were only allowed so much money and quite a few streets were badly neglected in the past, so if your street was not resurfaced you may be on the list for 1971."

Bellboys Hope For Rebound With Passaic

Belleville's grid team hopes to rebound this Saturday from its disappointing loss to Nutley, Monday, by traveling to Passaic for a 1:30 p.m. match-up with the winless Indians.

Bellboy head coach Rocco Cafone, despite Passaic's 0-3 mark, says he has his boys working hard this week to correct certain problems which arose in Monday's loss to Nutley, notably the Belleville kicking game and the tendency of the squad to commit key penalties.

Attention Chairmen

Belleville publicity chairmen, especially those for PTA's, scouting and women's organizations, are reminded of the early deadline for the Times' social pages.

Copy for society pages must be delivered by Mondays of the week preceding date of publication, or about 10 days in advance. PTA groups meeting Monday nights have been given extended deadlines but only until 2 p.m. Tuesdays, and copy must be hand delivered by that time to our office at 246 Washington Avenue.

Complicating matters for the coach is the fact that the Nutley game was played on a Monday instead of a Saturday, and consequently gives his squad very little time to heal its wounds and prepare for the Indians, who did not play Monday.

The biggest question mark at this point is the availability of quarterback Joe Lotruglio, who left the game late Monday with a pulled muscle in his left arm. Cafone said Tuesday that he was not sure if the junior quarterback would play Saturday.

If this is the case, the signal calling duty would probably fall onto the shoulders of sophomore Phil Bruno whom Cafone has been developing on the QB team. Also available for QB action is senior Joe Papasidero, who was last year's quarterback but has since become a key performer in the Bellboy defensive secondary.

Monday, Papasidero showed some fine moves in a few stints at the offensive spot, and Cafone says he probably will see some action Saturday from that post. "Paps was very impressive at end," Cafone told The Times. "He's definitely got the moves. He's a utility man of sorts and I can use him both at end and in the backfield."

CINDY MANNING (center) is obviously disappointed after last Monday's football game against Nutley, as she leaves the Stadium surrounded by Belleville fans who quite apparently share her sentiments. Cheer-up Cindy, the Bellboys are expected to bounce back Saturday against winless Passaic High School.

Mayor To Seek Night Use Of Local Schools

Mayor Ken Smith said at Tuesday night's Commission meeting that he would ask the Board of Education to open some of its school facilities at night for recreational use.

Smith's statement came after a spokesman for a group of 25 youths charged this town's recreation facilities are substandard, and asked that school facilities be made available.

Speaking before a packed crowd at the Tuesday meeting, Joseph Zarra of 12 Nolton Street, charged "there are some serious things wrong with the Belleville's Recreation Department. I think there is poor planning going on, and that the schools buildings which are unused at night ought to be open."

Zarra also said that Belleville's youth had proved itself capable of using town facilities without serious damage, and remarked that "I don't think the people who are getting the headlines today and getting in trouble, are the stereotype of the teenager."

The Mayor said he was in agreement with the youths, and that "we will try to get the Board of Education to open these buildings. They are owned by the town of Belleville and should be used by our children. We'll figure out a way to provide security and maintenance."

Several of the youths told reporters after the meetings that their visit to Town Hall was prompted by the fact that local Police have been giving out loitering tickets "ever since the Stadium Discotheque closed down at the end of the summer."

Both the Mayor and the youths are eventually hoping for some kind of recreation center to be built.

Mike Marano Named To All-State Stage Band

by John McCarthy

Mike Marano, a Belleville High School senior, was named to the New Jersey All-State Stage Band last week by the New Jersey Association of Jazz Educators as the first chair tenor sax player.

The band will perform on November 6 at the Traymore Hotel in Atlantic City for the Teachers' Convention under the conduction of Leon Breeden, music instructor at North Texas State University. This is the first year that a state-wide jazz band of this type has been organized.

The only Belleville musician in the band went to New Brunswick October 4 for an audition. He was one of seven students from across the state who competed for the Tenor Sax seat. The first rehearsal of the Stage Band will be held next week, and the band members will go to Atlantic City on November 4 to practice together for two days before their performance.

Mike has taken instructions on three different instruments, and plans to be a music major at college.

Nine years ago he started on the saxophone, and five years later took up the clarinet "just for the sake of music knowledge." Then two years ago, Mike started on his third instrument, the flute, to use it in the Junior High School's production of Cinderella.

The same year that JHS put on Cinderella, the Senior High performed Lil' Abner. Mike, then a frosh, played in the Senior High's pit band. The sax player was also in the pit band for the production of the Pajama Game, but in the school's most recent production, "Annie Get Your Gun," there were no sax parts and Mike became a member of the chorus.

The senior lettered on the crew team last year as the number four oarsman. He plans to apply to the University of Washington in Seattle which is a music school that has crew, and to North Texas State University in Denton, Texas and Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind.

Urges Pay Hike Resolution In Trenton

A resolution urging support of a bill to hike veterans' pay was endorsed by the New Jersey Italian American War Veterans because of the efforts of Nicholas Raimo of Belleville.

Raimo, a past national commander of the group, asked during an executive committee meeting in Norristown, Penna., that New Jersey Assembly resolution 27 be backed by the veterans.

Raimo stated that, "the present $50 deduction from annual personal and real property taxes for veterans and/or widows is not adequate to meet the yearly increases in property taxes." He also stated there, "are approximately 97,000 veterans in New Jersey over the age of 62 living on fixed minimal incomes."

He asked that veterans write to the State Legislatures and the Governor requesting support for the bill which would increase the present $50 deduction to $100.

Mahler Co-Chairman For College Concert

Eugene Mahler of 62 High Street is co-chairman for tomorrow's homecoming concert at Montclair State College which will feature top-rock band, "Chicago," and "The Committee," a group of satirical improvisers. Two performances are scheduled, one at 7:30 p.m. and the other at 10:30 in the college's Panzer gym. Tickets may be purchased ($4.50) at the Montclair student activities office today and tomorrow and at the door.

Chicago was born in the city of the same name and has played leading night spots from New York to Los Angeles. An experimental band, it reflects many influences, including jazz, brass, the classics, and rock and roll. Its members bring with them backgrounds ranging from a church choir to country-western.

The Committee got its start in San Francisco and Los Angeles, as a West Coast answer to the Second City troupe. It is made up of an octet of talented young people who present sketches and blackouts. One of its members, Peter Bonerz, has been hailed as a new Mort Sahl.

The concert kicks off a weekend of homecoming activities at the college. Floats, carrying out the theme, "Gargantuan Goofs," will parade through Upper Montclair Saturday starting at 2 p.m. Shops along the way are planning special events in connection with the festivities.

Local Musicians Perform At Picnic For R. D'Ambola

A Belleville blues and rock musical group entertained a large picnic gathering at the Sundance Lodge September 27 in which Essex County Sheriff Ralph D'Ambola was the guest of honor. Also present was Republican Freeholder candidate Carl Orechio.

The musical group, known as the "Pale Dry," is composed of three 16 year olds, George Vilana, David Amoscatto and Sal Minardi, who generate a lot of creative talent. The drummer, George Vilana was chosen from five other talented boys for the spot. Dave on bass is an accomplished performer. Sal, the guitarist and lead singer, has been performing before audiences since eight years of age. Prior to the formation of "Pale Dry," Sal and Dave were with the "Indigo Shroud."

Chairman for the picnic entertainment was August Cundari.

New Drug Law Revises Statute

Legislation enacted last week revises the criminal statutes on drug use, an objective of Governor Bill Cahill.

A person having in his possession 25 grams of marijuana will be charged in the future as a disorderly person rather than as a felon. Cahill originally proposed a minimum of 50 grams, a quantity which was criticized as too high by a number of police officials. Disorderly person convictions carry maximum penalties of six months in jail. Anyone caught with more than 25 grams probably will be regarded as a pusher and subject to stiffer penalties.

A main thrust of the legislation was to downgrade the punishment of first and minor offenders and bring into play an effective rehabilitation program and procedure.

Under the provisions of the new law the state police narcotics squad will be strengthened, police and teachers will be trained to deal with the problem and rehabilitation programs expanded.

The law is good as far as it goes - we continue to believe that an occasional user of marijuana should not be considered an unlawful person.

Frank A. Orechio

School Bill Signed

Governor Cahill has signed into law legislation which provides public funds to help pay for the cost of teachers' salaries, as well as text books in secular subjects at parochial schools.

The legislation was needed to help meet the increasing costs and inflation squeeze which threatens the shutdown of some parochial schools.

The education aid measure was long overdue. Its passage fulfilled a Cahill campaign pledge of last year that he would do something, if elected governor, to get more state aid for parochial schools.

Individual Dogs

If you think you have the smartest dog in existence you may be right.

A canine expert queried on this subject recently says the intelligence of a dog, or any animal, depends upon the individual animal itself.

The smartest dogs are those which have the benefit of human companionship and are allowed to associate with humans.

There are breeds which train better than others. However, a dog need not have a pedigree to be smart.

Calls Silver Lake Zone Change 'Sectional Nibbling'

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

Varsity basketball coach Paul Szem, in a sudden and unexpected move, resigned from his position to devote himself to business interests. The question on everybody's mind was why he had quit so late, with just a month remaining before the Bellboy cagers were to lace up for their first training session. The problem of replacing Szem was further complicated when Don Grasso, the most likely man to succeed as head coach, also handed in his resignation.

Belleville Police Chief Donald Smith was seeking an ordinance which would require town non-fraternal organizations to obtain licenses for their operations. The Chief's action, which would allow police to regulate these groups, was prompted by a raid by Essex County Prosecutors on a Belleville "social" club in which members were allegedly found gambling.

The Belleville Board of Education's decision to suspend all athletic events with East Orange High School remained firm, despite the placing of East Orange on probation by the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association. Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero stated that the NISAA decision was "expected," and that the Board's policy toward East Orange would remain the same until an investigation by the Big Ten Conference was completed.

Five Years Ago

Negotiations to end a 17-day strike at Wallace and Tiernan were still under way as mediators for the manufacturer and the Independent Employees Union of North Jersey continued their talks. The union was seeking a five per cent wage increase, followed by a four per cent increase the following year. The union had rejected the suggestion of a four per cent immediate increase and a two and one half per cent increase the next year. The members voted 304 to 202 to strike.

There was a possibility that Belleville firefighters would have a fourth deputy fire chief, announced Mayor Nuncio Pico. The Town Council tentatively approved the appointment of a new deputy chief after a discussion of the controversial post at Town Hall. The measure was set to come up for a deciding vote on October 25.

An added weekly feature of the Belleville Times was a verse from the Holy Bible printed at the upper right hand corner on page one. Readers were invited to submit verses which had particular meaning to them.

Allan H. Crisp of 238 New Street was elected chairman of the Citizens School Building Advisory Committee to the Belleville Board of Education. The selection came at a group meeting. Others named included Calvin Peek of 10 Malone Avenue, vice-chairman, and Mrs. Filomena Pepe of 5 North Eleventh Street, secretary.

Chamber of Commerce officials met with Belleville Public Safety Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan and congratulated him for his efforts in gaining improved street lighting for the Washington Avenue area. New mercury vapor-lamps were installed along Washington Avenue. The new lights were three times more powerful than those they were replacing. Harold Eichner, chairman of the Chamber's street lighting committee, expressed satisfaction that the improved lighting, one of the 17 goals in the Chamber's work program, was being obtained without delay.

Fifteen Years Ago

Harry J. Sullivan, Commissioner of Public Safety, was named general chairman for the Red Cross Fund Drive to be held in March. The appointment was made by Chapter chairman Dr. Frank M. Durkee at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

Unless he appealed further, Thomas P. Greco was definitely out as a building inspector in Belleville. Greco's ouster March 1st was upheld in an announcement made by the Civil Service Commission. The Commission briefly stated that economy was achieved in the lay-off and that Greco had not proven there was bad faith in the action.

The Zoning Board turned down an application for a variance on the Plenge Farm property, the last and largest privately owned tract in Belleville. Frank Fucelle had asked to construct a luncheonette off Joralemon Street at 836-850. The vote of the Board was 4-1.

A flat increase of ten cents an hour for all hourly employees of Walter Kidde and Company Inc. was to be offered by the company at a meeting with representatives of Local 420 of the United Electrical, Radio Machine Workers. The new figure was a three cent an hour increase over its first proposals in negotiating a new contract.

After an evening of controversy over zone changes in Silver Lake, Mayor Williams again urged at a commission meeting that the town zone map be brought up to date. He declared that a "program of sectional nibbling" was not the answer to the numerous requests for zone changes coming before the Board.

The first feminine member of the library Board of Trustees, Mrs. Frederick Dodd of 86 Division Avenue, who had served for 22 years, resigned from her position. The announcement of Mrs. Dodd's resignation was made by Parks and Public Property Director Noll.

Belleville's Business Confidence Week was part of a nationwide movement sponsored by the International Association of Lions Clubs to stimulate business, in an effort to move further away from the period of depression that had engulfed the country for the past years. Believing that idle dollars make idle men, the Lions Club of Belleville urged citizens to buy everything they could afford.

Commissioner James Gibson, in an elaborate explanation that took almost an hour, defended himself at a commission meeting against accusations made by Director of Revenue and Finance William H. Williams that $70,000 in personal taxes owed to the town had been uncollected during Gibson's regime, and that service assessments amounting to $750,000 had not been made with the consequent result that Belleville was paying $35,000 in interest charges.

R. W. Brown won a silver vase offered by the Board of Directors of the Belleville Rifle Association. Mr. Brown's score was ninety. The conditions were five shots standing, five sitting, five kneeling and five prone at 100 yards, best score out of a possible 100.

He's Suspicious Of Rec Center

To The Editor,

As one person who has advocated recreation for the young of Belleville for more years than I care to admit to, I am almost reluctant to speak my mind on the subject now that it seems, and I mean "only seems" that some others are finally talking about it. However, the mere fact that the Belleville Chamber of Commerce is involved arouses my suspicions that this is just another sales promotion campaign designed to bolster up a defunct business cycle for a handful of inept Washington Ave. merchants who don't have enough pride in our Town or respect for their customers to clean up the sidewalks in front of their own establishments.

But just in case there is an honest ray of hope for the kind of recreation that is sorely needed in Belleville I want to wish the Recreation Committee luck and herewith register some suggestions which I believe are a little more realistic than the million dollar project that is being talked about at the moment.

A municipal swimming pool for residents only is the most important project of any recreation program. It should be designed so that elementary and secondary school children will make the most use of it. The parents you will find will be satisfied to have a lifeguard blow a whistle and in form the kids that it is the parents turn to swim and they are all to stay out and rest for 10 minutes. An indoor pool will not provide the amount of benefits for the greatest number to warrant the exorbitant cost it represents in the light of what has been presented so far.

June, July and August are the prime months for swimming for recreation anything else serves other purposes. Around the grounds and adjacent to the pool I visualize tennis courts, handball courts and any other game which taxes the pent up emotional strength and energy which the kids store up during the hot summer days. As for building another building let us utilize the existing ten basketball courts in the schools and the excess moneys from the million dollar project would more than pay for the extra time put in by custodians and school teachers and parents to supervise and also the cost of repairs that might be necessary because of the extra use.

It is my hope that the Board of Education would stop thinking of itself as a separate entity, which only mouths cooperation with the other Town body only once a year, and the same thing applies to the past and present office holders of Belleville.

This letter is prompted by knowledge of years of trying to talk to individuals who are in positions of influence but who don't bother to do anything unless election time is approaching.

Is this another phoney election issue? For the sake of Annett and all the other kids who have been satisfied with a hole in the wall this summer, I say to Harry French and Mrs. Marilyn Casiano don't raise the hopes of honestly motivated kids and their parents unless you mean it.

I think there are enough people in Belleville who will remember a conversation in person or on the phone with me about this subject to lend proof of my sincerity and interest.

I have always looked at Belleville as a Whole Town with Whole People.

Asks Defeat Of State Bill On Insurance

To The Editor:

There are two things that I question which I believe is a lot of Boloney. One, the wild claims made by insurance companies of losing money on payouts for accidents. The rates have been increased several times for all owners of automobiles, not only for the party at fault.

The second thing is the new proposed state tax to help the retired home owner living on a pension of social security pay his property tax.

The plan proposed by Governor Cahill would put the retired home owners in hook if approved. At the present time a home owner, age 65, living in his home receives an exemption of $80. Under the Cahill plan, the exemption would be doubled to $160.

Sounds good, but here is the catch. Out of the new state taxes the state would pay the additional $80 and place a loan on the property for the full amount paid out. It must be paid back. This plan should be defeated.

Belleville Parents: Be Sure To Check Your Son's Jacket

To The Editor:

This is an open letter to all parents who have sons attending Belleville Senior High School.

If your son recently showed up at home with a very elegant ginger brown, leather trimmed, corduroy jacket, and told you that he had found same, or gave you some other plausible reason for having it; he is not telling you the truth. Actually this jacket belongs to my son; and it was stolen from the music room of the high school on Wednesday, October 7.

I would urge you to check with your sons, and check through their closets. You will not have any problem identifying this jacket as it is a very expensive and well made article of clothing.

Should you locate such a jacket, arrangements for its return would be greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,
Edward T. Nowak

Manager Of The Maya Marca Likes To Quote From The Bible

DON FISHER, the resident Manager of our Maya Marca Condominium Corporation likes to quote the Bible - "God made the world and all things therein. - (Acts 17:24)" The sun, moon and stars; Earth in its unfailing turning; the seas, and the trees and the birds singing in them - you and I and the people beside us; all that God made is good; the evil we make ourselves.

AT THE NUTLEY Republican Luau the GOP's popular Eric Mayer was overheard asking one of the more attractive young Republicans, "Are you still running around with that tall blond guy?" The chic mod-setter replied "Why, didn't you know? He's married now." Eric, known for his wit, replied, "Answer my question!"

Joe Pepitone the famous ex-Yankee now with the Chicago Cubs was asked recently by one of his lovelies "Is love a nice game to play at?" The blue-eyed Peppy replied, "It's the only game I know that's never postponed because of darkness."

Brother Carl running hard for a freeholder seat in Essex County is keeping his speeches very short - and for good reason. To hear Carl tell it he says "Most people believe that speeches are like the horns on a steer - a point here, a point there - with a lot of bull in between."

Bob Uricho, our Maya Marca neighbor in Penthouse 2, among other things runs the Cessna plane operation in Florida, the Bahamas and a couple of other places. Bob enjoys telling the story of the flying instructor who was out with a sharp student pilot. "I am going to show you" said the flying instructor in mid-air, "that I've got complete confidence in your flying ability." And with that the flying instructor threw his stick out of the plane. "Oh, that's how you do it," remarked the student pilot and threw his stick out too.

John Gillies the able Nutley barrister formerly with the prosecutor's office tells the one about the lawyer addressing a prospective client "If you are not in trouble I'll take the case - If you are in a jam, and want to get out of it, my partner will handle it - if you're not involved and want to get into trouble his son who just graduated from law school will take it."

PICKED UP EN ROUTE- Whoever serves his country well has no need of ancestors....It never occurs to a girl of 18 that someday she will be as dumb as her mother....God sometimes puts us in the dark to prove that He is the Light....The measure of a man's real character is what he would do if he knew he would never be found out....The time to start saving for a rainy day is when the sun is shining....The tongue weighs practically nothing, but so few people are able to hold it....When everything else fails, read the instructions....Firmness is that admirable quality in ourselves that is merely stubbornness in others....Nature does make mistakes; sometimes she puts all the bones in the head and none in the back....A person all wrapped up in herself makes a very small package....A vacation is that period of time when you exchange good dollars for bad quarters....There are two sides to every story; Rumor provides several more.

PSALM I of a Radical Liberal

The Government is my shepherd,
Therefore I need not work.
It alloweth me to lie sown on a good job.
It leadeth me beside still factories;
It destroyeth my initiative.
It leadeth me in the path of a parasite for politic's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of laziness and deficit-spending, I will fear no evil, for the Government is with me.
It prepareth an economic Utopia for me, by appropriating the earnings of my own grandchildren.
It filleth my head with false security; My inefficiency runneth over.

Surely the Government should care for me for all the days of my life!
And I shall dwell in a fool's paradise forever.

JOSEPH VICARISI, popular barrister-owner of the Janette-Nutley Center has a favorite poem that reminds him of Nutley:

I like to live in a little town, where the trees meet across the street,
Where you wave your hand and say
"Hello" to everyone you meet.
I like to stand for a moment outside the hardware store
And listen to the friendly gossip of the folks that live next door.
For life is interwoven with the friends
we learn to know,
And we hear their joys and sorrows
as we daily come and go.
So I like to live in a little town, I care no more to roam,
For every house in a little town is more than a house - It's home.

Assembly of God Celebrates Its 50th

Scheduled guest speakers at Saturday's service are former congregation members Rev. Philip D'Angelo, now pastor of The Broadway Tabernacle of Paterson, and Rev. Angelo Cernero, pastor of the Italian Full Gospel Church of Newark.

"The Heavenly Echoes," a gospel group from Belleville and Nutley, will perform during the evening.

On Sunday, the church, which is located at 174-178 Holmes Street, will feature guest speaker Rev. Edward Menaldino, pastor of Cavalry Temple of Philadelphia.

GOSPEL SINGER

Gospel singer, Edaard James of London, England, will also be present at the Sunday services.

Also scheduled for Sunday at 3 p.m. will be a musical program by the Metropolitan Organ Club of Northern New Jersey, a unique organization of church organists who will feature Michael Galdi Jr., David Holzhauser, Luella Hill, Violetta Piegari, Rita Smith and Frederick Trunk, club president.

The church choir and members of the Organ Club will provide special music for the evening service.

The planning committee for these services includes chairman Frank De Marco, Rev. Anthony Di Quattro, Joseph Cernero, Frank D'Angelo, Jennie Gaccione, Gina Minichelli, Mildred Mostello, Connie Simeone and Rita C. Smith. The public is invited to attend the weekend celebration.

The church was founded 50 years ago on Clinton Street at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D'Angelo. Rev. and Mrs. Anthony Giordano were missionaries who brought the gospel to Belleville.

Five charter member families were listed by the church, including the D'Angelos, the Ciafarone's, the DiBiasi's and Minichelli and Puri. The first minister was Rev. Anthony Giordano, assisted by his son Gennaro Giordano.

When the D'Angelo family moved to the lower part of Clinton Street, services continued in the new location. Soon after, however, it was decided to rent the store at the Puri home at 56 Union Avenue. With the new store-front location, many new members were attracted. Eventually a Sunday school was founded by Angelina Di Biasi, with Angelo Cernero the first superintendent.

FIRST ORGANIST

Also registering "firsts" at the church, was Antoinette Marino who was the first organist and Pat Ciccarelli who was first pianist.

In 1933, the church moved to 70 Williams Street. When the youngsters of the church felt a need to meet by themselves, Wednesday evening was designated as a young people's meeting night.

First youth leader was Felix Cernero, followed by Angelo Cernero and assisted by Philip D'Angelo. The first board of trustees at the William Street location were Joseph D'Angelo, Joseph Minichelli, Felix Cernero, Angelo Cernero and Frank Cernero.

In 1950, the church broke ground for a new building at the present site, 174-178 Holmes Street. Plans for the church were drawn up by contractor Felix Cernero, with most of the labor being donated by church members.

In that same year, Rev. Louis Tarantino resigned and was succeeded by his brother, Rev. Thomas Tarantino, who served as pastor for two years. When he departed as pastor, Rev. Angelo Cernero served as interim pastor for two years.

Things were difficult when the church was first built. For one thing, services had to be held in the basement before the upstairs area was completed. The first recorded service was the Sunday school Christmas program in December of 1951.

PLEDGE DRIVES CONDUCTED

Pledge drives were conducted to pay for items needed by the church. From this drive, several notable contributions arrived. Of the donated items, the pulpit, altar chairs and Communion table were hand-carved by Anthony Areno. The Hammond Organ presently used by the church was purchased with money from the Memorial Organ Fund of the church. Stained glass windows were donated by Mrs. G. Minichelli.

Rev. Anthony Di Quattro of Rochester, N. Y. is the current pastor of the church. Rev. Di Quattro was installed in April of 1958 by district superintendent Rev. Grillo. At the time, Belleville Mayor Isadore Padula addressed the congregation, followed by a social gathering in the fellowship hall, where members met the new pastor and his wife Pauline and their four children, Sharon Janice, Mark and Robert.

The present board of trustees for the church is Frank De Marco, president; Emil D'Angelo Sr., vice president; Barry Graziano, secretary; Joseph Cernero, treasurer; Frank D'Angelo, missionary treasurer; Robert De Bello, membership officer, and Gennaro Giordano, deacon.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Superintendent of the Sunday School is Rev. DiQuattro, while Connie Simeone is secretary-treasurer. Teachers for the school are Pauline DiQuattro, Jennie Gaccione, Frank DeMarco, Sharon DiQuattro, Celeste Cernero and Eddis James.

Serving the church as president of the Woman's Missionary Council, is Pauline DiQuattro. Her vice president is Ida Graziano.

THE BELLEVILLE ASSEMBLY OF GOD celebrates its 50th anniversary this week. The church's present site on Holmes Street had its ground-breaking in 1950. Fifty years ago the church began on Clinton Street at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D'Angelo.

Faculty Lounge Will Be Kitchen For Students

By Patti J. Tortorello

The Vocational Home Economics classes are seeking additional space. Learning the proper way of preparing and serving meals are Miss Carol Filmore's main objections for this double period elective. It's possible that the larger number of students, male and female, may have been attracted by the two credits available. The size of the classes range from ten to twenty students.

Being Belleville High only has one room equipped with cooking facilities, a "teachers' lounge" at School seven is now being rearranged to fit the students' needs. Everyday for the past two weeks classes have been held at School seven with cleaning, setting up equipment, and minor repairs as their subject matter.

The new "creative kitchen" will be planned and serving lunches for School seven's "eat-in" children. There will only be fifteen to twenty students staying in school for lunch due to both parents' being at work all day.

Vocational Home Economic students will be earning their credits by their efficiency as well as ability shown.

Upon speaking to some of the students all responses were highly favorable when asked how they felt about the course.

Griffith Jones Guest of Political Club

By Beth Fitzgerald

Griffith Jones, Republican candidate for the House of Representatives, spoke to the Belleville High School Political Club last week of what he feels are the major problems facing the nation—an economic slowdown, crime, and the waste of Federal monies.

The Montclair attorney placed most of the blame for these problems on the Democratic Congress, which, "Instead of acting when they should have, years ago, waited until the crisis was upon us." He favors abolition of the seniority system, under which "old-line Southern Democrats" are able to wield enormous power within Congressional committees, yet are "unresponsive to the needs of the country and the youth."

Jones criticized the nation's welfare system, which, "rather than encouraging people to get off the dole, encourages them to stay on it." In answer to a student's question, he maintained that welfare could not be legislated on a district, city, or county level. He went on to praise President

Nixon's Family Assistance Plan, which would make it a requirement for a person on welfare to try to get a job, or job training.

Griffith Jones is a life-long resident of Montclair, where he attended public schools, continuing his education at Princeton University and Harvard Law School. This is the first time he has ever sought a public office; his opponent, Congressman Peter W. Rodino, has represented the 10th Congressional district for the past twenty-one years.

Seeks Masters Degree

BHS English Teacher Reaches Students With Sensitive Method

By Rose Marie Jafraty

A graduate from Jersey City State College, John Klotz, is now attending night school at Jersey City State where he shall receive his masters degree in June of this year. He will continue his schooling where he hopes in the near future to receive his masters degree in psychology.

Although he has taught juniors and sophomores, he especially enjoys teaching English Literature to seniors at Belleville High School. Seniors are young adults who are in a transition into another world which makes Klotz's work much more challenging.

After high school Klotz went into the Marines which he served for three years. Then he went onto college.

A resident in the area he has a daughter, six years old and a son eight years old.

He enjoys many hobbies such as swimming and photography. You could always see him out on the field during a football game taking various pictures of the game.

Unlike many teachers Klotz does not stand in front of his classes and dictate. He appears to be very sensitive to his students. He becomes involved with the class and believes in his method of teaching and makes you become a part of it. You soon believe in his method. He is quite interesting to listen to and doesn't ramble on, there is a joke or two involved. You feel much more at ease. He is a plain, down to earth teacher. This is why Klotz is well liked by everyone.

Board Hears Students

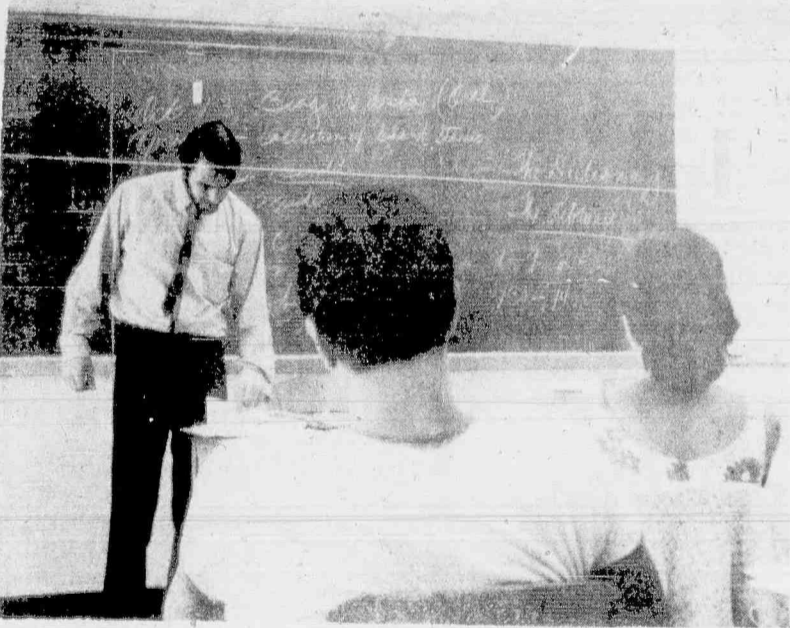

By Annette Guardabascio

Existing in almost all towns is a lack of communication between the Board of Education and the students of the town. Belleville's Board of Education realized this and invited representation from the Senior High School to attend their October 5, meeting at Belleville High School.

The students, composed of the Student Government Organization (S.G.O.) officers, Senior Class officers, and Senior Senate, accepted and thought it was a substantial step in bridging quite a large gap. It gave the Board members the opportunity to find out what they were interested in and they asked for their opinions on some programs they hope to get into effect soon, as one pertaining to narcotics.

The students also had their chance to speak-out about a Senior Lounge where members of the Class of '71 may stay during their study halls. Topics discussed ranged from the dress code to vandalism of over 500 windows in Belleville's Public School System.

Both the Board of Education and the students found this "experimental" meeting relevant and important, and it was decided upon to continue with them approximately once a month.

BELLEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL English teacher, John Klotz, has rapidly become a favorite with his senior students, who've taken to his sensitive, direct approach to teaching. (photo by Nick D'Allesandro)

World Traveler Now Student At Belleville High School

By Cora Fisher

Egyptian-born Wahid Hermine has lived in Scotland, Ireland, and Australia, and presently lives in America, where he is a sophomore at Belleville High School. Wahid resides in Belleville with his father, a surgeon, and his mother, a biochemist.

Having left his native land at three, Wahid attended Brunfield Public School in Edinburgh up to the fourth grade. His family did not own a car there, but Wahid remembers traveling two hours to Glasgow.

Wahid jumped to the seventh grade of secondary level (7-12) in King's Hospital, Dublin, on the condition that he manage adequately. In the atheletically-oriented school, Wahid enjoyed Irish football (without padding), table tennis, and in the summer, cricket.

When his family moved to Australia, Wahid was set back half a school year due to the January-December school term there. He attended a Catholic parochial school in Maitland, a city 170 miles north of Sidney, in the state of New South Wales, Australia. He then studied at Newington College, Sidney, where he found the work somewhat more difficult than in Belleville. The transition to America set him half a school year ahead due to our September-June school term.

Reserved and studious, Wahid found it comparatively easy to make friends, and still corresponds with a friend in Melbourne, Australia.

Wahid prefers Australia to the countries he has known. He enjoyed salt-water fishing and shooting for pigeons fifty miles outside of Maitland.

Wahid now enjoys reading war stories and playing the accordion in his spare time; he likes Belleville High and the students he has met.

Wahid has optimistically adapted to each change, and overall considers his experiences advantageous. For the future, Wahid hopes to become a doctor.

University Invites Band To Play At Half-Time

By Alan Grossman

The University of Pennsylvania has invited the 120 member Belleville High School Band and affiliate organizations to participate at half-time activities during the Penn-Columbia game at Franklin Field on November 14. The Belleville aggregation will form a letter "E" in the slogan "Love and Peace", and the "B" in "Band Day" as part of a twenty-three band display.

Acceptance of this honor entails a 5 a.m. departure from Belleville, and a practice session in Philadelphia from 8 a.m. til noon. Unfortunately, the game will not be televised. Miss Bonnie Cook, twirling advisor, Miss Karen Fucello, color guard advisor, and Robert Wing, band director, will accompany the group. Nick D'Allesandro is the president of the band.

CHARLES ZIEGLER (right), a safety for the Bellboys, said he was impressed with Nutley's educational system. "This is how to go to high school", Charlie said. He's seen here with Tom Ritacco, who plays wingback for the Raiders. Together for two days last week, they were on opposing team at Belleville Stadium Monday afternoon.

Firemen And Cops Save Kids

Two Belleville youths were saved from the rain-swelled currents of the Second River, September 26, when a team of local firemen and police responded quickly to their cries for aid.

When fire and police officials arrived at the Mill Street and Washington Avenue bridge, they found Edward Poniken, 16 of 165 Main Street, and William Buckworth, 17, of 111 Dow Street, stranded on a ledge under the bridge.

Arraignment Set Today On Gambling Charges

Belleville detectives joined forces with the Essex County Prosecutors Office to raid what they said was a book-making operation at a local apartment, September 25.

immediately threw ropes to the boys and then lowered a 20 foot ladder. Fire Captain Edward Carr descended the ladder and aided each boy to safety.

Deputy Fire Chief Robert Shaughnessy, who directed the operation, said the water was flowing so rapidly that the youths were in danger for their lives.

Police released a Belleville man on $5,000 bail pending an arraignment today before Municipal Court Judge Edward Abramson.

Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight, who heads the Belleville Detective Bureau, said the raid came after a month-long surveillance by members of the local gambling squad.

Haight said local police and County detectives had to break down the door of an apartment of 725 Joramelon Street which was barricaded by wood slats.

Brakes Fail, Causing Driver To Hit House

A Bloomfield woman was injured in Belleville when her car brakes failed, causing her to smash into a home on Hornblower Avenue, October 2.

Mrs. Donna Mickens, 60 of 106 Davey Street was taken to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital for x-rays to her right hand and nose.

Mrs. Mickens was traveling west on Rutgers Street, approaching Hornblower Avenue when her brakes failed. Her car knocked down a fence at 39 Hornblower Avenue and struck the house, doing slight damage to it.

Commissioner Mary Senatore, who was also in attendance, briefly congratulated the families of the two men. Fire Chief Carl Hundertpfund told the gathering that "these men have been good firemen and I have no qualms about leaving them in charge of the department."

Deputy Chief Dambra has lived in Belleville all his life, and attended the local system. He served two years in Korea with the Army after graduating from Belleville High School. He worked at various jobs after leaving the service, and came to the Fire Department in 1954. In 1964, Deputy Chief Dambra was promoted to captain. The past two years he has been serving as acting deputy chief.

A sports enthusiast, Dambra is active in the Belleville Recreation Department's softball leagues and finds time to play tennis. He lives at 24 Federal Street with his wife, the former Ann Martino of Newark, and four children, Tommy, Michael, Dina and Doreen.

Captain Tripp was born in New Hampshire and went to schools in Bartlett, a town in that state. He was in the Navy during World War II and in the Marines during the Korean conflict. After service he moved to Belleville in 1952.

The new captain joined the signal department in 1954-55 and became a fireman in 1956. He is a member of the American Legion Post 96 in New Hampshire, and the VFW in that state. His father, Raymond, was a volunteer fireman.

Captain Tripp is married to the former Mildred Rovell of Belleville.

A WORD ABOUT COLOR TV SERVICE

The best friend a household can have today is a service man to repair all the different machines and gadgets used in a modern home. We are electronic specialists. Our customers know that they don't have to worry about service.

The best COLOR TV won't perform right unless it is adjusted correctly for, and at, your location. We take great care to do this. In fact we check a color set several times during the first 90 days the set is in a customer's home. This is the time when changes are most likely to occur. After that the set should be checked periodically.

But this is only part of the story. Before a COLOR TV set leaves our store it goes through several hours of tests and checks in order to assure peak performance. That's why a COLOR TV set bought at BECK'S performs better.

Our service department is staffed with expert technicians who offer same day service on service calls received before 1 P. M.

You only deal with BECK'S whether it is for budgeting your purchase, delivery, antenna work, or service for the life of your set.

At Municipal Stadium

Pre-Game Bonfire Lit By Belleville Students

A pep-rally for the Belleville High School Football game with rival Nutley was held Saturday night at Municipal Stadium on land adjacent to Municipal Stadium.

Youth Council and the senior class, Annette Guardabascio, president of the council and of the class of '71, was in charge of the affair.

In attendance was a large crowd of students and parents. Lighting the fire was Board of Education member Caesar Romano, Athletic Director Herman Wische and Anthony Biatore, a BHS maintenance man. As an amusing sidenote, Miss Guardabascio, in her zeal for the rally, forgot the gasoline and was aided by Romano, who at the last minute rushed to Vee Bee Esso station for a ten gallon can.

The Belleville High School cheerleaders and a large portion of the band helped build up the crowd to a feverous pitch capped by chants to "Beat Nutley."

The Belleville Fire and Police departments were on hand to insure safety for all present.

The rally lasted until midnight, and many parents present remarked at the enthusiasm and constructive attitude displayed by the students.

Zychowski Receives Honor

Cadet Thomas S. Zychowski has been designated a Distinguished Military Student in the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps at Rutgers University by Colonel Paul J. McClure, Jr., professor of military science.

Cadet Zychowski is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Zychowski, 23 Washington St., Belleville. A member of the Class of 1971, Cadet Zychowski is a psychology major and a fourth-year military science student.

The designation of Distinguished Military Student is given each fall to a small percentage of students who are in their final year in the Military Science program. This honor is based upon outstanding achievement by the cadet at the six-week ROTC basic training camp at Indiantown Gap, Pennsylvania.

Senators Endorse Three

All six State Senators representing Essex County have endorsed the Republican candidates for Freeholder in a joint statement issued today.

The three Freeholder candidates include incumbent Alan Augenblick of South Orange, incumbent William H. Clark of Livingston, and their running mate Carl A. Orechio of Nutley.

The six Senators who have endorsed the Republican slate include Gerardo Del Tufo, David Dowd, Michael Giuliano, Alexander Matturri, Milton A. Waldor, and James Wallwork. In the statement the Senators said they not only endorse the three Freeholder candidates, but also the Republican candidate for Sheriff, incumbent Ralph D'Ambola, and Republican candidate for County Clerk, Vincent Strumolo.

The Senators' statement said, "Candidates being offered by the Republican Party in Essex County this year offer probably the widest range of experience and expertise in government and private business that the Essex County voters have ever been given the opportunity to vote for. Their work in county and municipal government has been outstanding, and their record of accomplishment has been unusually fine. The people of Essex County can be proud of the type of people the Republican Party has offered as candidates for Freeholder, for Sheriff, for County Clerk, and for Congress."

The statement continued, "We have watched these men during their years of government service, and we have seen them especially during this general election campaign when they have gone out and have worked with the people of Essex County. They have spoken to groups in virtually every town in the county, and they have been spending a great deal of time in talking with the people of Essex County in an effort to get the message across that Essex County desperately needs the kind of leadership that these Republican candidates can offer."

"No longer can we afford the luxury of mediocre and half-hearted leadership," the Senators said. "It is now time for the people of Essex County to recognize the dynamic leadership these men have offered through their governmental experience in the past and will continue to offer as elected officials in Essex County. It is equally important that we demonstrate to the people in Trenton that the people of Essex County are vitally concerned with what goes on in Trenton and how it affects the people of Essex County."

"We in the State Senate need the support and the assistance of people from our home county," the Senators said, "who will not sit back and wait and allow somebody else to make decisions for them. We need the assistance and the backup support from our own county so that when we need something for Essex County, when we need some financial assistance, when we need tax relief for the people of Essex County, we know we are going to Trenton with the full support and the unqualified support of the local and county officials who desperately need this assistance." "We, therefore, recommend to all of our friends and to all of the people of Essex County that they support the candidacies of the entire Republican ticket and that they work hard on these candidates' behalf and that they do, in fact, vote for the Republican candidates on Election Day."

No two people think exactly alike and it takes some married couples a lifetime to find that out.

Belleville-Nutley Pupils 'Exchange Schools' In Good-Will Program

An exchange program was conducted with Belleville and Nutley High School students last week for the purpose of promoting good will between the neighboring towns.

Last Thursday, 34 Nutley seniors came to spend a day at Belleville High School. They attended a full schedule of classes, in the company of a Belleville senior. The Nutley group included the senior class officers, the officers of the twirling, color guard, and cheerleading squads, the drum major, and the senior members of the football team. The next day, 36 Belleville High seniors made a reciprocal visit to Nutley High.

The student exchange is a departure from the traditional exchange assembly, where the Belleville band, twirlers, cheerleaders and color guard would perform at Nutley and later receive a similar assembly at Belleville.

The student exchange brings the two schools closer together by putting the relationship on a one-to-one basis, giving the students a chance to get to know each other and thus increasing understanding.

CARL A. ORECHIO for FREEHOLDER
CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE
561 FRANKLIN AVENUE • NUTLEY, NEW JERSEY 07110
TELEPHONE: 667-1234
Dear Friend:
Some time has passed since my candidacy for election to the Essex County Board of Freeholders was announced, and I'm afraid that try as I might, I have not been able to contact personally the many friends I would like, to ask for aid in the campaign.
Campaigning on a county-wide basis, I find, is a little different than campaigning for Commissioner. Obviously, you have to cover so much more ground and it just takes a lot more time, money and effort.
If you are one of our friends who has volunteered to help and hasn't been contacted - - or a friend who would like to help, please contact my office at 667-4000 or Campaign Headquarters 561 Franklin Avenue, Nutley at 667-1234.
We need your help and would really appreciate hearing from you.
Sincerely,
Carl Orechio
P.S. In the interim, I would appreciate your contacting relatives and friends in our Essex County municipalities and asking them to consider casting one of their three freeholder votes for me on Tuesday, November 3. I'm on Line B. Many thanks.

South Mountain Reservation Scene of Camporee

OVER, AROUND, THROUGH—Trying their skills at knots on rope lashing are Mary Greco, Junior Troop 321, Ann Ingino, Junior Troop 476, Nancy Tripp, Cadette Troop 950, and Rose Caccavala and Barbara Uzzolino, both of Junior Troop 476.

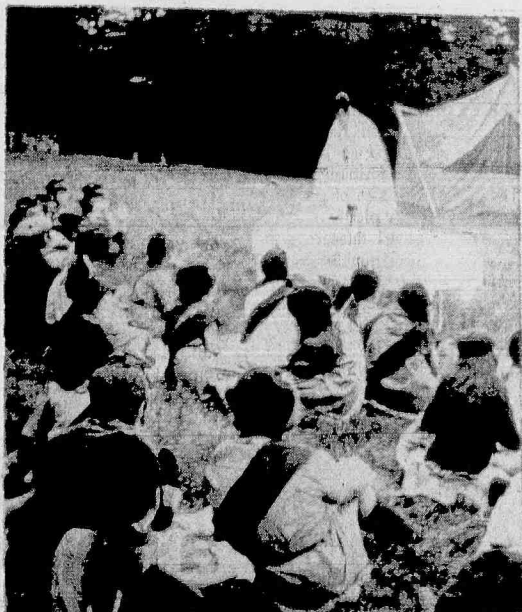

CHOW TIME—Even though it's raining, scouts must eat and when the cooking is done outdoors, it can get rather damp. Manning the grill from Cadette Troop 950 are Anita Corrineau, Susan Gasparini, Elaine Drake, Geri Palmisano and Lettie Leone.

WHAT'S IT WORTH?—Scouts visit Mrs. Joseph Zarra at the Gold Rush assayer's office to weigh in their "gold". The Saturday morning program was popular with the girls and provided fun and enjoyment for the troops.

PROTESTANT SERVICE—Religion is an important part of scouting and local clergy journeyed to the camp site for Sunday morning services. The Rev. Robert M. Bedell of Wesley Methodist Church, Belleville, conducts services on the South Mountain oval for the Protestant scouts.

CATHOLIC MASS—Father Paul Viale of Holy Family Church, Nutley, celebrates mass for the Catholic scouts at South Mountain Girl Scout Camp. The outdoor religious services were completed before the rains came.

Belleville Scouts Enjoy Weekend

On Friday evening, September 25, 250 Belleville Girl Scouts began arriving at South Mountain Reservation for a weekend camporee.

While members of Junior Troop 954 under the leadership of Mrs. Conrad Springer, Troop 105-Mrs. Richard Rovell, Troop 292-Mrs. Bernard Gomulinsky, Troop 947-Mrs. E. Patrizio, Troop 476-Mrs. Gregory Meehan, Troop 906-Mrs. James Demgard, Troops 321 and 688-Mrs. George Teuscher, Troop 938-Mrs. William Sobanko, and Cadette Troop 48-Mrs. Paul Klingler and Troop 393-Mrs. Anthony Grasso were quickly unrolling sleeping bags and settling into their cabins, Cadette Troop 948 and Senior Troop 981 under the leadership of District Chairman, Mrs. Andrew Verhagen, Junior Troop 961-Mrs. Charles Hill, and Cadette Troop 950, Mrs. Edward Cypoliski could be seen erecting a temporary tent city on the open field.

An informal sing-in, conducted by members of Senior Troop 981 was held around the campfire later that evening, followed by snacks back at the individual camp sites.

At 7:00 a.m. Saturday morning, the sleepy girls formed the traditional horseshoe for an opening flag ceremony. Pancakes, cooked over charcoal grills, bacon and eggs and French toast made on tin can stoves were part of the breakfast menus.

The morning program took the girls back to the days of the 40's, as each girl "panned" for gold in the stream, rushed to the assayers office to be weighed and paid, and then sped off to the "general store" to make her purchases. A teaching session in knots and lashing, campers "musts", was also held with the assistance of senior cadette members from Troops 981, 688 and 950.

During the afternoon hikes were taken to Turtle Back Zoo, Washington Rock and Hemlock Falls.

Around the campfire once more as darkness fell, each troop entertained its fellow scouts with songs, skits, and novelty numbers introduced by members of Cadette Troop 950.

Father Paul Viale, pastor of Holy Family Church, Nutley and the Rev. Robert M. Bedell, Wesley Methodist Church, Belleville, arrived at 7:30 a.m. Sunday morning to conduct religious services.

And then the rain came down—sending girls flying to their cabins and others to the batten-down of their tents. For these troops Sunday dinner was cooked under kitchen tarps with wind and rain beating down. The final striking of camp was completed by 2:30 p.m. that afternoon as the wet and weary girls and leaders returned to the warmth of their homes. But ask these girls if they're ready to go again and a loud "yes" is exclaimed by all!

The camporee committee consisted of Mrs. Edward Gasparini in charge of wood supply; Mrs. Charles Hill, religious services arrangements; Mrs. Gregory Meehan, gold rush; Mrs. Charles Harlow, knots and lashing program, and District Chairman, Mrs. Andrew Verhagen, first aid; and co-ordinator Mrs. Edward Cypoliski.

Conway Completes Orientation Week

Cadet Robert Francis Conway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Conway of 85 Van Houten Place, Belleville, was among some 600 freshmen who completed "Plebe Week" at The Citadel Charleston, S.C., on September 8. Upperclassmen registered September 9 and began classes on September 10.

Cadet Conway was graduated from Essex Catholic High School, Newark, where he was a member of the yearbook staff and the Spanish National Honor Society. He will major in political science at The Citadel.

Following traditions evolved at the military college since its founding in 1842, freshmen cadets are indoctrinated during a week of concentrated training prior to the return of upperclassmen. This enables the new cadets to take their places as members of the South Carolina Corps of Cadets when it forms upon the arrival of the cadets of the upper classes.

Most people, when confronted with their favorite meal, make a spectacle of themselves.

Bride's Father, Social Security Share Expense

"The father of the bride and social security have something in common. Both share in the wedding expense, even though social security's share is small change—only 44c in 1969," said William J.

Arnold, district manager in Newark.

This is what it costs the Social Security Administration to change a bride's name on the computerized records at the headquarters in Baltimore, Maryland.

"And, since September is just as popular a month as June for weddings, this seems an appropriate time to remind all new brides of this important step," adds the district manager.

Last year, over 3,000,000 brides changed their names on social security records. A simple form called a "Request for Change in Social Security Records" is all the newlywed needs to change her name.

The forms are available at social security offices, post offices, and sometimes at employer personnel offices. After the social security office receives the form, the people there will send the bride a replacement social security card showing her new name, but the same social security number.

The new bride should also notify the payroll department where she works of her change in name, Mr. Arnold points out. This is important so her earnings under social security will be correctly reported by her employer.

Animals To Visit Kids at Library

The Children's Department of the Belleville Public Library is sponsoring a special live animal show on Saturday. Peter Yoost, the senior animal keeper at the Turtle Back Zoo in West Orange, will present the program.

Yoost has wide experience in training and raising animals and has done script writing and research for "Jungle," a WNTA-TV program in New Jersey.

The animals which will be shown and discussed are a possum, an iguana, a wood turtle, two falcons, and a hermit crab. Many other items of interest will be displayed such as a wasp's nest, a turtle shell and antlers. Due to the overwhelming response to the last program, tickets will be required for admission. The tickets are free and may be obtained only at the library by children in kindergarten or

The social security computers will not credit earnings unless the name and the number agree with those in the master records.

The contributions made under social security by the new wife provide protection for her as well as the family she'll probably be starting, adds Mr. Arnold.

"This could mean not only benefits for her retirement years but disability benefits or survivor benefits if accident or illness should strike," the district manager said.

higher. (Parents will not be admitted to save room for children).

The program will begin at 10:30 and last approximately one hour. The Children's Room will be closed to the general public until 11:30.

Hiccupping, one of life's minor annoyances has been known on occasion to develop into long, wracking sieges of discomfort which defy relief. In general, a hundred people will offer up a hundred sure-fire cures, ranging from medically accepted relief measures to rather fanciful cures dredged up from ancient folklore. Usually a simple measure such as holding your breath or rebreathing from a paper bag is sufficient to suppress hiccups. Another measure effective in stubborn cases which defy the more conventional cures is several rapid swallows of the juice of canned pineapple.

Political Scientist Set At Seton Hall University

Charles V. Hamilton, political scientist and writer and lecturer on the black power movement, will appear at Seton Hall University in South Orange on Thursday, October 22 at 8 p.m. in the Student Center. His topic,
"They Demand Relevance: Black Student Protest" will deal with black student campus movements and how they will affect the future on American education. The lecture is sponsored by the Student Programming Board.
Dr. Hamilton holds a special Ford Foundation-endowed chair at Columbia University, where he teaches urban politics. He is author of two 1970 books, "The Politics of Black Americans" and
"Political Thought of Black America." He was co-author with Stokely Carmichael of
"Black Power: The Politics of Liberation in America" and a book with the same title as his lecture at Seton Hall is scheduled for future

Your Weekly Horoscope

October 15 through October 21

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Ambitious Ari will have opportunity to gain control over surroundings in week ahead. Associates will give you a wide berth. And well they might. Desire for prominence will be strong. Guard lest circuits become overloaded. A personal blackout at this juncture could prove most embarrassing. And costly.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Seemingly noble ambitions will be inextricably bound to your basest desires. You may fool those around you, but in your heart-of-hearts, you know the vulgar truth. Move ahead, if you must. But for the love of heaven don't use a friend as a ladder. You can move horizontally, you know. ALL moves need not be vertical. In fact, there are times when horizontal is far superior to vertical.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): The first of the mutable signs, Gem, you are usually the middleman. However, in week ahead, you will be the lead-horse. In fact, you will be in the number one spot in more than one area. Olga knows that her Gems are highly versatile; and can manage several things at once, but one word of caution: Stay out of the twilight zone, love. To best take advantage of coming week, you need to have all of your faculties in good working condition. But not necessarily well oiled.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Emotional satisfaction is at hand, love. Remember a couple of weeks ago when Olga told you to settle for security? Well, that was THAT week. Now the time has come to cash in your chips. The ones you have been saving. And saving. In the meantime, interest has skyrocketed, you know. Settle for only the best.

LEO (July 23-August 22): It's THAT week, Leo my love. The one old Olga warned you about. Are you ready? You are? You fool, you. O.K., sometime before fifth day you will encounter one who has potential to soothe and perhaps even captivate your savage heart. If this person is not a practicing musician, then at least they have natural rhythm. Of this you can be sure.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): You are needed, Virg. Not only by business associates, but also by friends and loved one. Week ahead ideal for you to prove your worth. Don't let them down. Gift or favor may be asked of you. Give willingly and with some degree of grace. However, on last day of week, you may wish superior to grant you a favor. If so, lower your voice when you make request.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Dwell not in the past, Libra baby. That which is over, is done. C'est fini. Today is all that counts. Nothing is less with it than yesterday's dreams. Yesterday's plans and schemes. Look around you, love. Goodies abound. Get them all together. Week should end with positive vibes.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Temptation will be strong to harangue one who displeases you. Reflect well, before you give in to this urge. It could wind up costing you a great deal. If person is sensitive at all, they just could turn tail and leave you with nothing but your blame arrogance. And arrogance won't keep you warm when the winter winds blow.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Another week for action, Sai. Time ripe for pulling yourself up out of the mire. No fair half-stepping behind the program. Your adrenals should be working over-time.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 21): You are headed toward a labyrinthine way, Cap. Confusion could cause you to really fall behind the parade. Yes, Olga knows that Cap "hears a different drummer" and all that jazz. But just make sure the drum that you follow isn't a toy. Nothing is harder on the nervous system than the sound of a toy drum. Unless perhaps it would be a toy bagpipe.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): You have great originality andchutzpah, Aquari. And in week ahead you're going to need it. Just to muddle thru. Before week is over gutsy newcomer may appear on the scene. No need for you to feel threatened. You're all boss baby, and newcomer won't track behind you.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): You will perhaps be a bit confused in days ahead, Pisces. But don't let it get you down. We are living in schizoid times, love, and you are simply a product of your generation. Get as much rest as possible. And eat regularly. This is not a week for you to attempt any new venture. If you just manage to slither along until the week is over, you will have accomplished a great deal.

Bow Season Set

The New Jersey bow and arrow season got off with a bang, October 3, with hundreds of Jersey residents taking part, including many from the local area.

Several of the local hunters to be out on opening day are entered in the "Heavy Deer Awards Program" at Butts and Bows Indoor Lanes in Belleville.

Hoping to win a handsome trophy, picture and arm patch, are several area hunters, including John Mustica of Belleville, who bagged a doe.

Hundreds of dollars of equipment and prizes are given each year in the program, and some of Jersey's best bowhunters are entered.

Face Passaic Saturday

Belleville Hopes To Rebound After Tough Loss To Nutley

quarterback and end." Lineman Tom Vitiello, who sustained a bruised back Monday, is expected to return to the lineup for the Passaic game, Cafone reports. Vitiello was injured during a fine goal line stance put up by the rugged Bellboy defense late in the game Monday.

Passaic, still in a rebuilding stage under second year head coach, Dave Brower, who took over after Nutley's coach John Federici left the Indian's camp.

The Indians have lost three of their four backfield performers on a team that was thoroughly outclassed by Belleville, 20-0 last year in Municipal stadium. Only quarterback Horace Hill has any real experience from previous seasons on the varsity. Hill, a 6-1 185 pounder, is more adept at running than he is at passing, according to most reports.

Cafone says he has scouted the Passaic squad and indicated he expects them to throw a multiple formation offense at the Bellboys. The Belleville head coach attended two Passaic games, and indicated he felt the Indians were not as bad as their record would indicate. "They've been in there until the last moments of each game," Cafone said.

Many observers this week have been fearing the Bellboys would suffer a let-down against Passaic after being so psyched up for the Maroon Raiders. Cafone, however, says he doesn't think this will be the case with his ball club.

"Any coach is always afraid of a letdown," he said, "but we're not really that kind of ball club. Sure the boys were very disappointed that we lost, but we won't quit now. Our second half against Nutley showed we weren't quitters. We'll keep Nutley in our minds so that we won't make the same mistakes." We're going after Clifton."

Cafone had nothing but praise for Nutley, which he said "capitalized on our errors early in the game." After running out to a 14-0 lead, Cafone said he was proud his boys didn't let Nutley run away with the game. Indeed, the Bellboys held Nutley to one touchdown in the second period, and two points the entire second half on a controversial intentional grounding call leveled against Lotruglio.

Belleville actually has been nothing short of unbelievable defensively in all three second halves it has played this season. In three games with top-flight opponents, the Bellboys have allowed a mere two points in all of the second halves combined.

What hurt the Bellboys Saturday was a few bad mistakes early in the game, and the team's continued lack of a kicking attack which left them in their territory for most of the game.

Cafone says he is constantly working on improving the kicking game. Thus far, Senior Ron Muscara has handled the punting chores and has been very erratic, including a three yarder at a key point in the game Monday.

Cafone says, however, he wouldn't place the blame for the loss on any one man, especially Muscara whom he said played an excellent game defensively. He did indicate, however, he would probably try a new punter Saturday in junior Frank Petite, who has been kicking for the JV's. "He gets them high without a spiral," Cafone said about Petite, "but at least the ball goes 25 yards from scrimmage."

In examining Monday's game statistics, it is apparent that this game should have been a lot closer score-wise than it actually was. Out-classed on the ground 139 yards to 49, Belleville out-distanced Nutley 130 yards to 56 in the air, which was part of Cafone's game plan.

Part of the long passing yardage was registered by Ricky Caruso, who was nothing short of superb in racing 72 yards downfield on a screen pass in the waning seconds of the first half behind a wall of Bellboy blockers.

In total yardage, Nutley outdistanced Belleville by a mere 192 yards to 172. The Maroon capitalized on an interception by Vern Shepard in the first quarter to jump off to a 7-0 lead, as Nutley's Don Klos electrified the crowd by romping 28 yards on the first Maroon play from scrimmage for the tally. In all, the talented Nutley halfback totaled 118 yards on 28 carries.

On the second series of downs for Belleville, in almost a nightmarish replay, Nutley's Tom Ritacco intercepted a second Joe Lotruglio pass on the 47 and brought it back to the 32. Seven plays later, Klos brought it in again. In the second period Klos capped a seven play, 50 yard drive with a one yard plunge.

That was it for Nutley, as the Bellboys tightened up the rest away until a Joe Lotruglio pass intended for Caruso was ruled intentional grounding by the referee and resulted in a safety. Lotruglio threw from the end zone.

For the Bellboys, several players turned in powerful performances in the losing effort, notably defensive performers, Bob Luongo, Doug Brown, John Atherton and Mike Albertine.

Luongo, who is the sophomore brother of former All-Stater Len Luongo, was scintillating at linebacker, where he racked up seven unassisted tackles and had a hand in five others.

Brown, playing Nutley for the last time in his Bellboy career, played his heart out, making seven assisted tackles and three solo ones, in addition to playing the entire game on offense.

Atherton and Albertine, who were also in their last effort against rival Nutley, registered combined tackling totals of ten and six respectively. Also tough defensively were Ron Muscara and Tom Vitiello.

One-Two Punch Gives Bellboys First Cross-Country Victory For Season

The first one-two finish for Belleville's harriers this year gave them their first win on the season, 22-35 over South Side last Friday at Belleville's Branch Brook Park, ending a 21 race losing streak.

The victory over South Side and a loss to Kearny, 15-48 last Tuesday, saw nine of the 11 Cross-Country runners turn in their fastest times of the season, and up their record to 1-6.

John McCarthy and Lou Dalcero led the South Side

race from the starter's gun on the first half mile, to the tape at the end of the 2.4 mile race course. The pair turned in their fastest time of the season as McCarthy took first place with a time of 13:30 and Dalcero followed right behind with a time of 13:36. Both seniors were almost a minute ahead of the third place runner Travis Jones of South Side, who finished at 14:24.

Also for the first time of the season, four other

Bellboys were among the top ten runners in the race. Once before, against Orange in the season's opener, the harriers got five runners in the top ten, but lost 23-32.

Bob Silver was the number three Bellboy runner as his time of 14:35 took fifth place. Mark Williams took sixth place with a time of 14:44 and Rich Sulenski was eighth with 14:59. All three of these runners turned in their top times. Ray Horman, who seemed to catch a cramp early in the race, was ninth turning in a time of 15:02. Normally Ray is the number three Bellboy.

In the Kearny shut-out, only two Bellboys were among the top ten places, but Ray Horman finished thirteenth, turning in his fastest time of the season, 14:32.

Lou Dalcero started out against Kearny as the lead Bellboy running in fourth position for the first mile and a half. McCarthy started his kick with a mile to go as Dalcero fell back to ninth place. McCarthy moved up, but a strong finish by the first five Kardinal runners left him in sixth place. McCarthy finished at 13:52, and Dalcero at 14:16, but none of the other Belleville Cross-Country runners besides Horman finished under 15 minutes. Last year against Kearny, Red Forrest took first place and McCarthy second on Belleville's home course.

McLaughlin-Saletta Duo Captures Championship

Tom McLaughlin and Rocco Saletta of Belleville captured the Kiwanis sponsored Bocce Sweepstakes held October 4 at the Vanderzwan Bocce Courts.

Working as a team, McLaughlin and Saletta turned back challengers to emerge victorious for the day in the Italian sport.

Proceeds for the day went to the Belleville Kiwanis Annual Christmas Party fund.

Highlight of the contest was a controversial ruling as to the order of rolling the balls. The ruling went against the challenging Gonnello-Vanderzwan team, and it broke their spirit. From then on, McLaughlin and Saletta coasted to victory.

Among the other victims for the Belleville duo was the team of Salzano-Laterza, Vitty-Nicastro and Laterza-Gonnello.

Interviewed after the games, McLaughlin and Saletta said in reviewing the play they felt their biggest assistance was the expert coaching Cor. Vanderzwan saw the other teams that were trying to defeat them.

John McCarthy Meet the Bellboy

by Nat Gottlieb

When Belleville's top cross-country runner, John McCarthy, turned in the best time of his career last week against South Side, it was a testament of sorts to a simple, basic formula for success: Hard work, lots of determination, and more hard work.

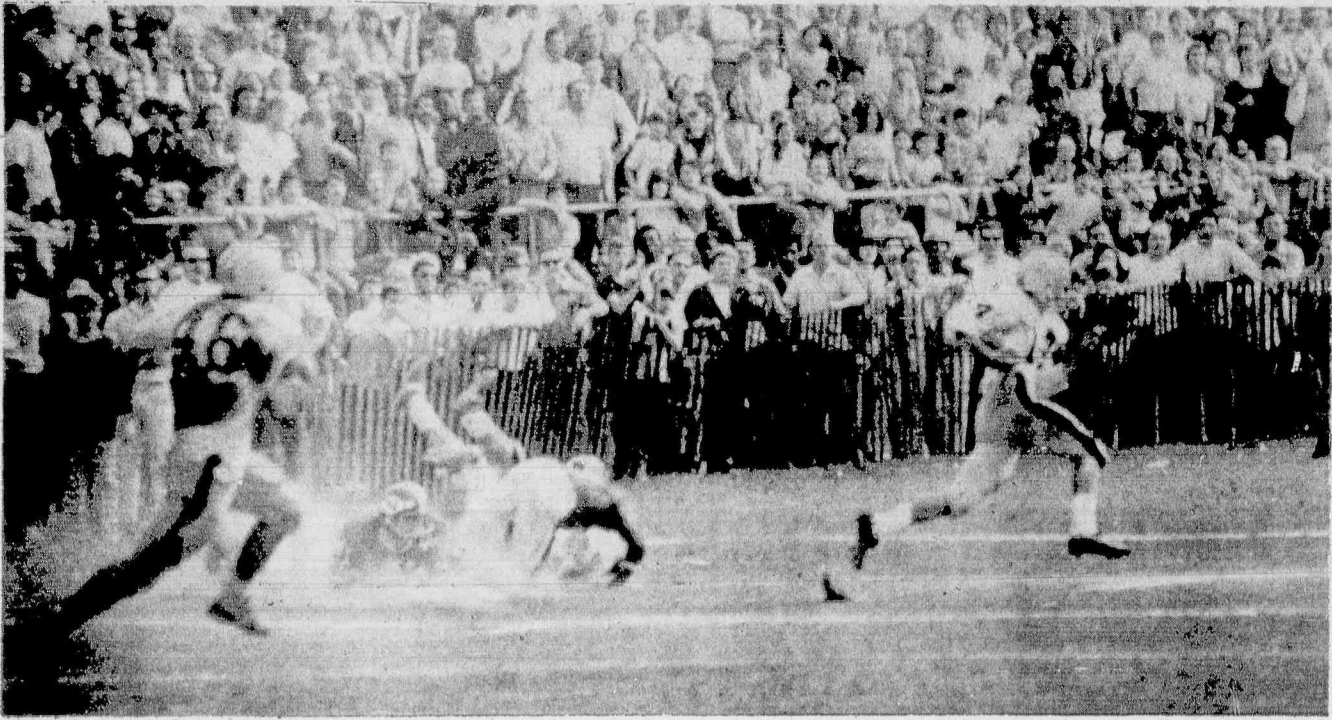

This summer, the Bellboy harrier clocked a minimum of 50 miles a week for training, a schedule which most people follow in their cars going back and forth to work.

The rigorous training, suggested by John's brother Bill, evidently is paying off for the 17-year-old, who last week turned in a first place time of 13:30 in pacing his team to a victory over South Side, the first Bellboy victory in two years.

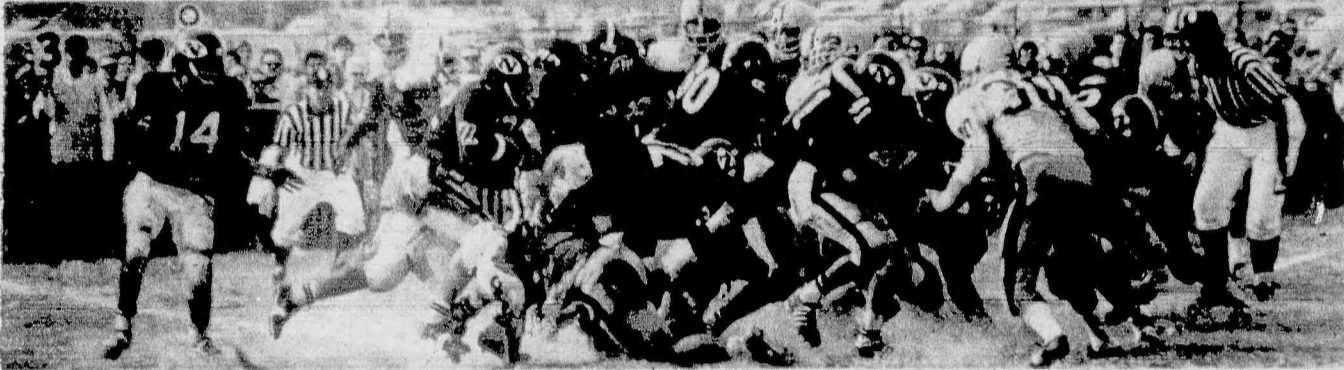

John never hesitated when his 22-year-old brother made the training suggestion, for his older was one of the better Bellboy harriers in recent years. Bill's training schedule was even more rigorous, if you can imagine that. He ran 100 miles a week

BELLEVILLE'S TOP cross country runner, John McCarthy, takes a breather after placing first against South Side last week in Branch Brook Park.

RICKY CARUSO electrifies the huge Stadium crowd as he takes a Joe yards, the only Bellboy score of the game. Mike Albertine, (46) heads down Lotruglio screen pass with 1:25 to go in the first half and scampers for 72 field.

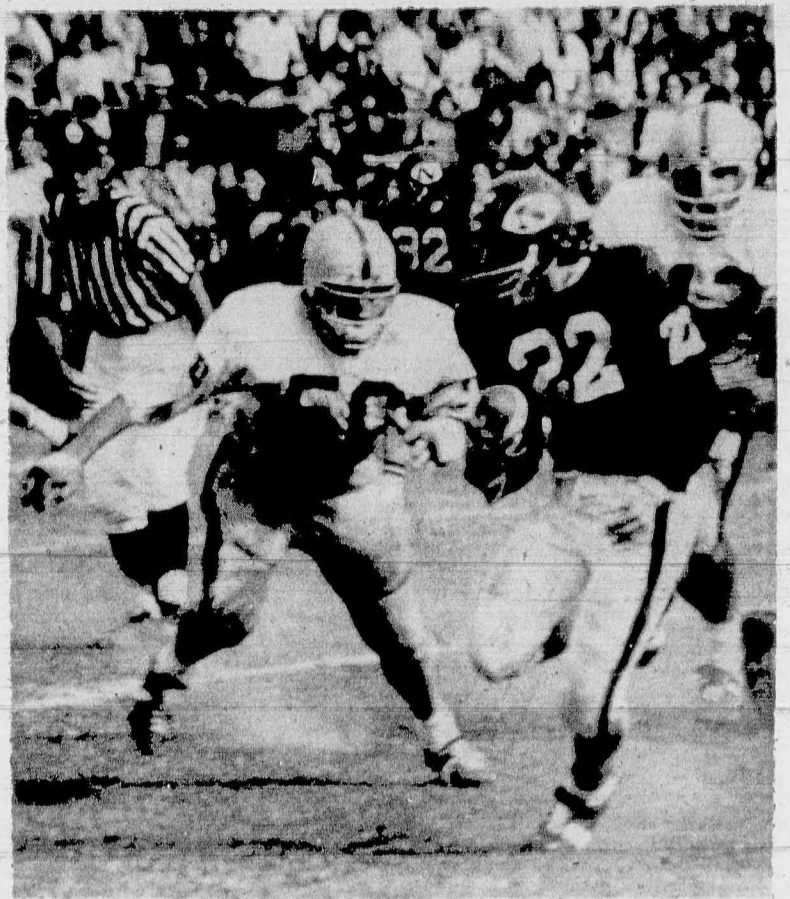

THE POWERFUL front line of Nutley acts as a steamroller for star halfback Don Klos, who gains three yards in the third quarter for a first down. Klos takes the handoff from Maroon Raider QB Steve Greco (14).

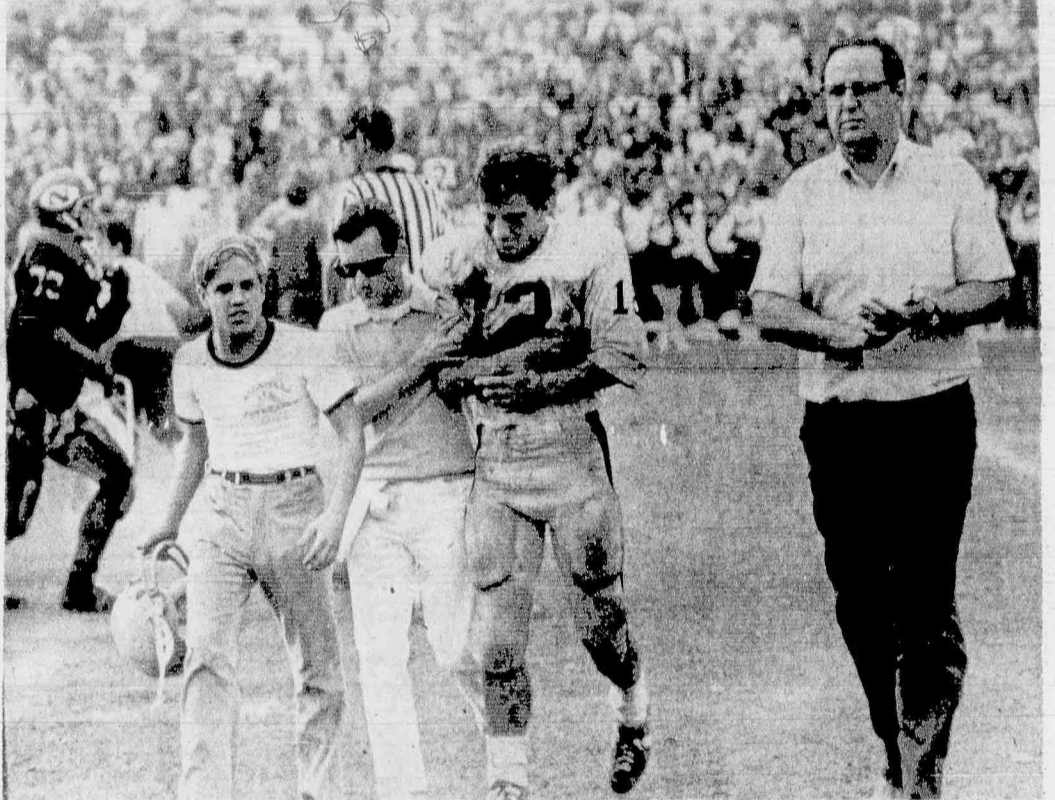

ON A KEEPER, Joe Lotruglio picks up five yards around the right end in the first period. Joe played a tough game and was victimized by bad breaks before leaving game on an injury.

Mistakes Spoil Bellboy Efforts

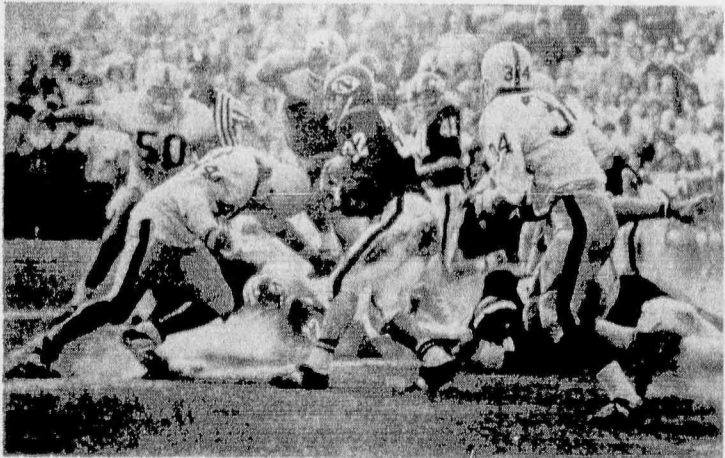

TOP RUNNER — Nutley's Don Klos (22) picks up four-yard gain with four minutes remaining in first half. Belleville's Bob Luongo (50) comes in fast to make tackle, one of a dozen he compiled against Nutley Monday.

Doug Brown Gives His All In Tough Loss

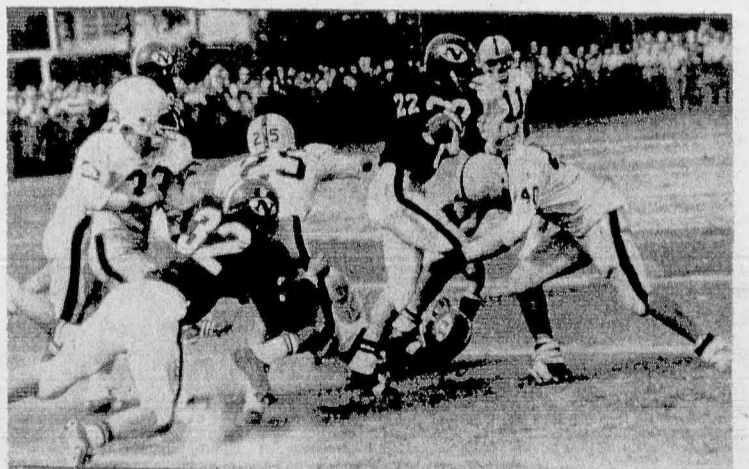

SHOWING SOME HARD NOSE Football, Doug Brown rams his head into Nutley's Tom Ogden, stopping the Maroon fullback cold on a second and three yard attempt in the first quarter on the Bellboy 20 yard line. Brown turned in a tremendous defensive effort, with seven assists and three unassisted tackles for the day.

AFTER PLAYING his heart out, Bellboy fullback Doug Brown covers his head in disbelief as the seconds tick away on the big clock. Doug's brother James tries to comfort the Bellboy star.

AFTER A 12 yard gain, Nutley star Don Klos is met head on by Doug Brown, who hauls the Maroon Raider down single-handed. It was one of several good tackling efforts by Doug.

HAILED DOWN by Nutley's Gary Cavalli, Doug Brown manages to pick up a first down for the Bellboys in the third quarter. Doug gained 24 yards on only five carries against what is probably the best defense in the state.

BELLBOY JOE VALVANO (52) and Rich Della Terza (45) open a solid hole for Doug Brown, who bursts for six yards before being caught by Nutley's Steve Ogden (73), who has broken way from Tom Jones (right).

Cross-Town Rivalry Swings to Maroon

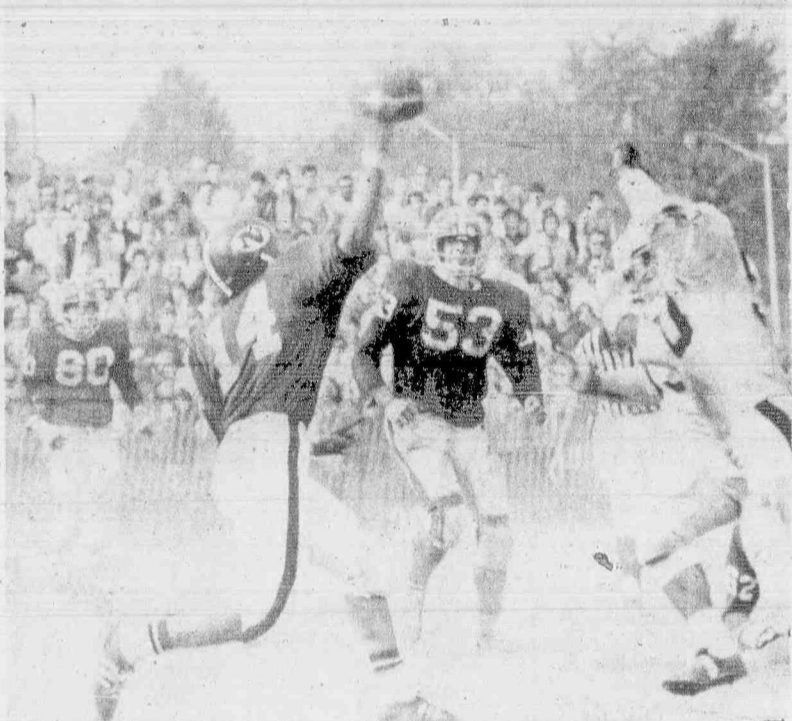

THE YEAR OF THE KLOS — This photo is of Nutley's opening play from scrimmage Monday. Don Klos (22) took the handoff and ran 28 yards for the Maroon score. Klos is responsible for hitting eight of Nutley's nine total touchdowns so far this fall, Belleville defender (50) is Bob Luongo, sophomore brother of former Bellboy All-Stater Len Luongo.

STEVE GRECO (40) successfully dodges Belleville's Mike Albertine (on ground) and is about to launch a 42-yard bomb to Glen Bartsch on the one-yard marker. On the following play, Don Klos went over for Nutley's third score before intermission at Belleville Stadium Monday. Greco completed two of five passing attempts.

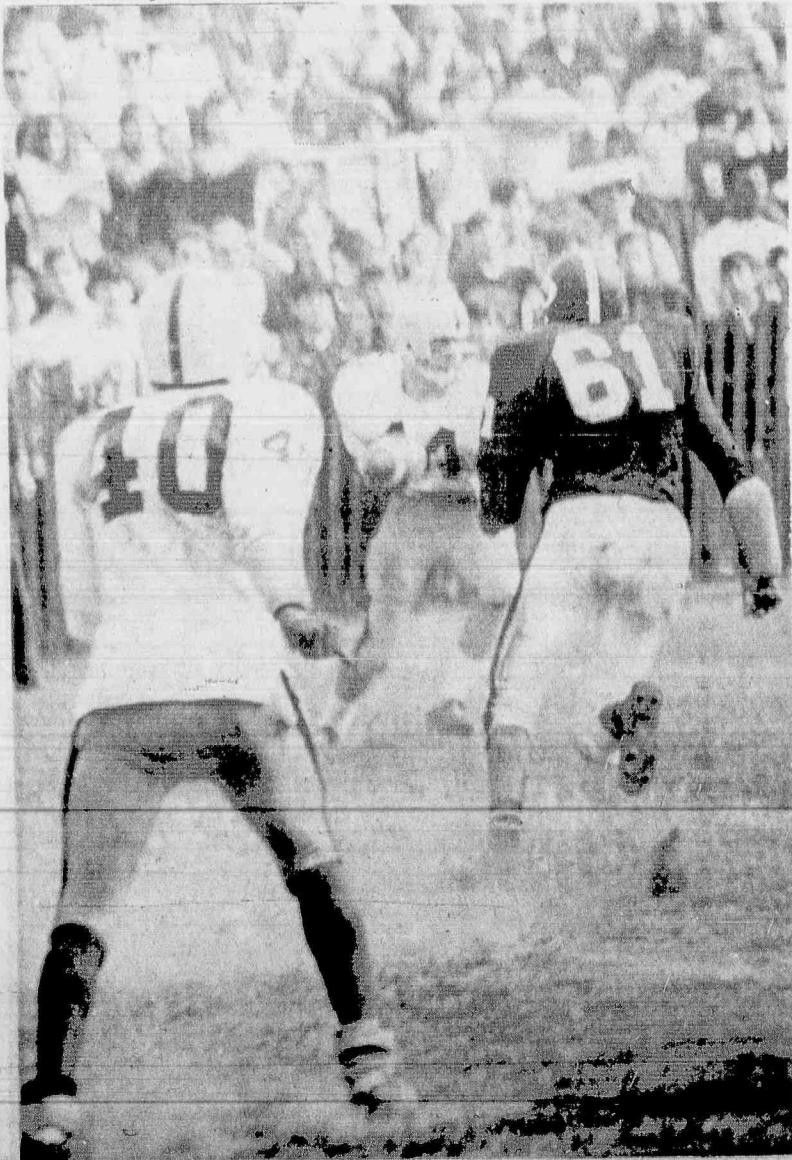

TONY NICOSIA (53), the Raider captain, rushes in to provide protection while quarterback Steve Greco (14) gets off a pass downfield.

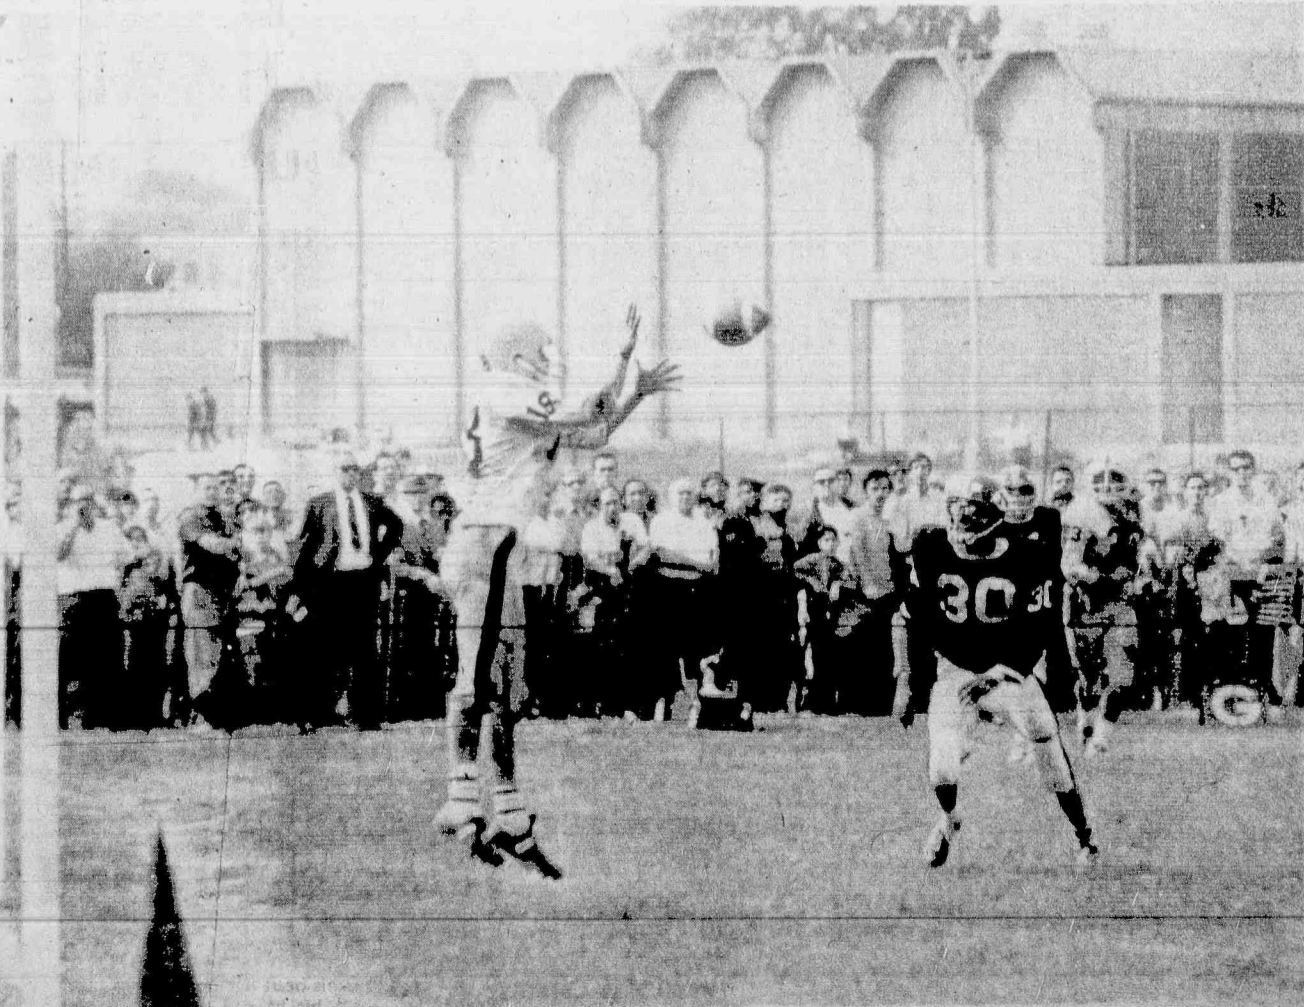

GLEN BARTSCH pulls in 42-yard pass from Greco (see photo top right) putting ball on one-yard line late in second period. Nutley scored its third touchdown on following play Belleville's Jim Miele (25) is the defender.

VERNON SHEPARD on 25-yard return after he intercepted Joe Lotruglio's first period pass. Shepard's interception abruptly ended Belleville's initial series on the third down. The next play, Nutley's first from scrimmage, saw Klos go 28 yards for a Raider score.

BELLEVILLE SCORES — With just 22 seconds remaining in the first half, quarterback Joe Lotruglio tossed a screen to Ricky Caruso (center) who with the aid of good blockers, dashed 72 yards downfield for the score. Belleville 40 seen here is fullback Doug Brown; Nutley 61 is George Remolina.

CONVERSION — Belleville's strategy was a two-point conversion to give the Bellboys a one-point edge if all went well later in the afternoon. The two-point conversion worked well as Jerry DePaul (left) leaps for Joe Lotruglio's pass.

Score came with only 22 seconds remaining in first half. Nutley (30) is Steve Restaino.

BHS Color Guard

By Dottie Jackson

The Belleville High School Color Guard is an experienced squad composed of ten girls, six of whom are veterans from last year's group.

Of the returning guard, four are seniors, including, co-captains Margaret Marino and Joanne Bedford, and Joy Brechtbill and Dotty Jackson. The remaining veterans are juniors Pattie Smith and Joan Haage.

New members of the squad include seniors Charlotte Leary and Patty Burns, and sophomores Tricia Bradley and Donna Monteleone.

The girls perform routines on the field accompanied by the BHS marching band.

BELLEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL'S proud Color Guard lines up in a formation during halftime at Nutley-Bellboy game last Monday.

Seeks Course Record

Top Runner J. McCarthy Ran 50 Miles A Week

(Continued from Page 13) for the entire summer, and placed seventh in the Group IV Section II finals during his senior year. Bill is now a senior at Stevens Institute of Technology where he is studying to be a metallurgical engineer.

Meanwhile, John seems well on his way to carrying on the McCarthy tradition of top flight running.

Born in Jersey City, John has lived at 228 Ralph Street in Belleville all his life. During his elementary school days at Number Nine, John had a brief fling with Farm League baseball. "I wasn't any good," John admits. "I had always hoped to play baseball but when I realized I wasn't going to make it, I turned my attention to crew in my freshmen year."

For that crew team, which was coached by Sam Giuffrida, John rowed and was second coxswain. "I realized, I'd never make varsity coxswain, however, because Bob Zarra was ahead of me and he was too good," John says.

So the following year, John turned his attention on running, both on the sophomore cross-country team and on the track squad. That year, John received certificates in both sports for competing on varsity level, but not accumulating enough points for a varsity letter.

John started to mature his junior year and began to earn a reputation as a promising runner at the high school. Last season he was number two harrier between Bob "Red" Forrest, who has since been graduated, but not before establishing the Branch Brook Course mark of 12:30 for the 2.4 mile test. John hopes to catch that record this season.

That same year, John lettered on the track team running the 880 yard event until an injury slowed him down mid-way through the campaign.

Off the track, John also believes in hard work and determination, and has involved himself in a number of activities. One of these is journalism.

The John McCarthy byline has appeared on over 200 stories the past three years in the Belleville Times, in articles largely confined to the sports world. In addition to his own weekly column, "Sports Corner," John covers many sporting events centered around BHS students. (Bill also wrote for the Times).

John's interest in writing began in Junior High School, where he was editor-in-chief of the school newspaper. He finds his writing schedule with The Times too time consuming and has been forced to shy away from the Belleville High School paper, the Spotlight. John has, however, contributed articles to that paper.

In school, John is an excellent student, and has been named to the National Honor Society. He also played clarinet in the school band his sophomore year, but found his cross-country and band schedule conflicting and abandoned the band.

John hopes to become an architect, and is applying to Cooper Union College in New York City. If he is not accepted at Cooper Union, John will pursue his second interest, math. In that line, John says he would strive to a mathematics engineering school. "If none of these pan out, I'll go into journalism probably as a sports writer."

The McCarthy family itself, has built somewhat of a reputation for hard work in the community. John's mother, Agnes J. McCarthy, is town vice chairman for the Republican Party. His father, Daniel, is an auditor for the state. Also in the McCarthy family is Danielle, 25, a graduate of BHS and Douglas College, who is now teaching at Red Bank Catholic High School. A second married daughter, Nancy, 20, was a member of the band at Belleville High School. All four of the older McCarthy children have been members of the National Honor Society at BHS. On the way to that distinction — although it's a bit pre-mature to say, is little four year old Steven McCarthy.

Outside of school, John finds time to teach Sunday school to seventh graders at Christ Episcopal Church, and to be Junior Assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 301 at Wesley Methodist Church. This year, John represented the local American Legion Post 105 at the annual Boys State convention at Rider College, a convention for Legion delegates from high schools from throughout the state.

Sports Corner

By John McCarthy

The Belleville High School football team may not have won the game Monday, but their school's student body easily showed more school spirit than the Nutley High School students during an exchange program held last week at BHS.

As early as a week before the game students were talking about the bonfire that was held last Saturday night at the Stadium, and a victory dance for Monday night.

Then around the middle of the week the school administration announced that a student exchange program would be conducted on Thursday and Friday to "promote sportsmanlike conduct" between the two teams and schools. (With 179 yards penalized in the first two games, that sounds like a good idea.)

The normal multitude of signs that appear around BHS on the Monday before a game doubled as the fervor of the students increased. Signs praising the Bellboys, knocking the Maroon — especially their stars — appeared along with signs telling the students to make sure they got to the game.

When Nutley's senior football players and school leaders came to Belleville on Thursday they seemed amazed at the student involvement in Belleville and evidently went back to Nutley on Thursday night telling their classmates to prepare for Belleville.

On Friday, Belleville's varsity seniors and student leaders went to Nutley and saw what Nutley students said was the largest number of signs ever put up in their school, but the BHS students it was old hat. What Nutley considered a large number of signs was just the number that Belleville has up for every game, not just for rivalries.

Bob Bogle's Record Falls

Rules are made to be broken, and so are records, especially in track and Cross-Country. Bob Bogle broke quite a few records while he was at Belleville High and now the time has come for them to be broken.

Bill Mahon of Bergen Catholic broke Bob's record for the Newark Branch Brook course on Saturday, and the number two man in the New Jersey Catholic Federation Cross-Country Championships nearly made it two men in one race to rewrite the recordbooks.

Mahon covered the 2.5 mile course in 12:10, taking first in the Continental League race of the NJCFC. The number two man in the same race, Jim Kilker of St. Joseph's in Metuchen, came close, to beating the record himself as he finished at 12:12.

Bog's record of 12:11.4 was set in 1965 during the Essex County Championships where his team took third by placing first, seventh, 14th, 25th, and 37th. Bogle had won his race by over 250 yards.

Bayonne Affected By Heat

Bayonne High School's Football Coach, Don Ahern, gave a simple explanation as to why his team lost to Belleville in the opening game of the season, 27-12. Blocking lost the game for his squad, and he was determined to make up for it.

Bayonne's loss to Belleville may have cost the team a lot in confidence and morale, but for the one thing that really matters to the Bees, a Hudson County Championship, it had no real effect.

Bayonne went into their game with the Snyder High School Tigers (Jersey City) hoping to start off fresh in their own conference, but ended up in a 12-12 tie. Bayonne hadn't lost to Snyder since 1966, and last year the Bees stung the Tigers 51-0.

Bayonne Times reporter John Belis explained the loss as being due in part to the fact that Belleville was "one of the most powerful giants in Essex County." But coach Ahern carried the superhuman powers of giants a little too far, when he reasoned "It must have been the heat, we looked like a million dollars in the first half, but wore ourselves down...the heat didn't seem to bother Belleville." (Nobody ever told me that Belleville had installed air-conditioners in their helmets.)

Beck's Column

BY MAX BECK

Mrs. Knauer, the President's watchdog on consumer affairs recently made a statement that most complaints from consumers are coming in to her about poor service on appliances and TV sets. This is hardly a revelation. It is a known fact for many years.

Making statements and condemning does not alter the situation. What is needed is simply more and better trained mechanics, but these can not be pulled out of a hat. It takes years. The young people these days are not much interested in any work that results in dirty hands. This goes for the automobile industry as well, in fact it applies to almost all trades. However, the growth of the appliance industry and TV has been the fastest, consequently the shortages of mechanics has been felt most in these branches.

Although the industry has tried 6 week training courses, the boys who start them do not seem to stick with it. These men can not do anything but the most rudimentary things like changing a tube or replacing a belt on a washing machine. It takes a lot longer to train mechanics. Of course a shop is not in a position to pay such men high wages until they have learned for a couple of years. They make much more money as truck drivers for instance right away and that is what many of them do.

The industry has to approach this condition from a different angle. The design has to be such that an easy exchange of the mechanism at a low price is possible. The TV industry is aware of this. It won't be long and we will have so-called "modules" which will be plugged in, right in the house. This does not require much skill or training.

We service what we sell.

BPW State Federation Holds Board Meeting

Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, N.J., Inc. had 21 of its members in attendance at the first Board Meeting of the 1970-71 season of the State Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. on Saturday, September 19, at Beacon Manor in Point Pleasant.

Miss Katherine Eastburn of Oakhurst, State President, conducted the morning meeting at which reports of the national convention in Hawaii in July were read. The highlight was the talk given by Miss Maureen Wenthen, New Jersey's Young Career Woman. "You might go out a girl but you come back a woman" was her summation as she told of what being part of the Young Career Woman Program meant to her in her participation in the national convention. The broadening experience of meeting people, not only from the United States but also from abroad and discussing different points of view with them is something Miss Wenthen obviously treasures.

BPW members were urged, now that the position of women in business has advanced so well, to turn toward working for the country as a whole. It was suggested that BPW clubs of the northeastern United States work together in order to obtain uniform laws throughout the neighboring states on such things as the age for the sale of liquor.

Registration was conducted for those who will participate in the New Jersey Federation Leadership Development Seminar on Saturday, October 17, at the Madison Campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University. Among the subjects to be covered at the seminar will be effective speaking, motivation, and citizen participation in the political process.

After lunch the standing committee chairmen of the individual clubs met with their state counterparts for a discussion of ways their committees can be more effective.

Arrangements for the Board Meeting were made by Mrs. Margaret Hyland, president of the hostess club, the Point Pleasant BPW.

Drug Abuse News No. 6

LSD -- A HALLUCINOGENIC. IT GIVES A "DANGER TRIP".

LSD, a man-made chemical, was first discovered in 1938. Researchers are still trying to find a way to administer this drug safely for possible medical benefits.

It cannot be sold legally, even with a prescription. Pharmacies do not stock it. It is mass distributed by criminal "pushers." It is made in clandestine laboratories with unpredictable strength. A speck of LSD can cause lasting dangerous effects.

Users speak of "good or bad trips." Either one increases the heart rate, the blood pressure and temperature, dilates the pupils, causes irregular breathing, nausea and loss of appetite.

The next issue of these Public Service messages will tell about the happenings on some LSD "Good and Bad Trips."

CCP CHAIR PLAN

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

I PROCLAIM—Miss Ruth Williamson, president of Tri Town BPW and Mrs. Lillian Westcott, civic participation chairman, flank Mayor Kenneth D. Smith of Belleville as he signs the proclamation designating October 18 to October 24 as National Business Women's Week.

Week Proclaimed To Honor National Business Women

Mayor Kenneth D. Smith of Belleville, Mayor Walter J. Davis of Bloomfield, and Mayor Harry W. Chenoweth of Nutley have proclaimed October 18th through 24th as National Business Women's Week. This week has been set aside each year since 1928 to honor all working women, to pay tribute to their accomplishments, and to call attention to this untapped source of leadership and ability which is available to help solve the problems we as a nation and as individuals face today in an effort to create a better world for all.

The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, of which Tri-Town BPW is a member, was founded over fifty years ago, with the objective of elevating the standards and promoting the interests of business and professional women, bringing about a spirit of cooperation among them, and extending opportunities to them through education along lines of industrial, scientific and vocational activities. Last fall the Federation set up a Talent Bank consisting of a list of women qualified for policy-making positions. From this list the names of more than twenty such women have been presented to the White House for consideration in appointments to Presidential commissions.

Tri-Town BPW has always been mindful of the aims of the Federation and of the needs of the community. Through its annual spring card party, the club raises funds to maintain the Flora Loudon Memorial Scholarship Fund to advance young women in the professions. Each year scholarships have been given to graduates of the high schools in each of the three towns. Three more receive bonds for winning typing contests. This year a special award went to a nursing student.

A baby-sitting course has been sponsored for teenage girls at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital in Belleville. A monthly donation of ice cream and an annual party are given for the children of the Essex County Children's Shelter in Belleville. In 1962 the club initiated the "Christmas in February" program, which is an annual event. Members present gifts to senior citizens at the Essex County Hospital in Belleville, especially to those who rarely have other visitors. Stuffed toys are made and presented to the Family Service in Nutley, the Christmas Bureau of the Family Service in Bloomfield, and to the Essex County Children's Shelter in Belleville. Dolls also are dressed and given to the Shelter.

In observance of National Business Women's Week, Tri-Town BPW is planning displays in the libraries of each of the three towns. In Belleville, there will be a BPW poster and a typical "America the Beautiful" village scene. In Bloomfield there will be a BPW poster surrounded by pictures of the natural wonders of the United States, thus carrying out our club's 1970 theme, "America the Beautiful." In Nutley there will be a combination National Business Women's Week and United Nations Week display. Along with the BPW poster, there will be a group of dolls, dressed in the native costume of the women of various countries throughout the world, showing them at work in their professions. These exhibits will be prepared by Mrs. Lillian Westcott, Civic Participation Chairman, and Miss Marion Johnson, World Affairs Chairman.

Tri-Town's regular monthly dinner meeting occurs during National Business Women's Week and the mayors of the three towns have been invited to be with us to hear a panel discussion on the drug problem moderated by Mr. Peter Cass, Attorney for Integrity House in Newark, with Lt. Royal Hella, Bloomfield Police Department, Mr. David Kerr of Integrity House in Newark, and Rev. David Follansbee of Vincent Methodist Church in Nutley as participants. Dinner, which is by reservation only, will be on Thursday, October 22, at 6:30 P.M. at the Park Methodist Church, Broad and Park Streets in Bloomfield.

Miss DeKenipp, Gary Mayer Are Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. John F. DeKenipp of 12 Russell Avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosanne J. to Gary W. Mayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric A. Mayer of 382 Prospect Street.

The troth was made known October 4 at a party at The Fountain, Belleville, hosted by both sets of parents.

Miss DeKenipp, an alumna of Nutley High School, is a student at Paterson State College.

Mr. Mayer, a graduate of Carteret School West Orange, is an electrician. He is also a member of the National Guard.

Mrs. D'Acunti announced that Mrs. John Alfano has been named chairman of the affair and Mrs. Anthony Suriano, co-chairman.

Alliance Francaise Meets Wednesday

The next "causerie" meeting of the Alliance Francaise de Montclair will be held Wednesday, at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Dorrean R. Venn of 20 Overlook Road, Mountain Lakes. Hostesses assisting her that afternoon will be Mrs. J.M. Carter of Irvington and Mrs. Semih Zaim of Dover.

Mrs. Venn will speak about her recent trip and show slides. She travelled, for two months this summer visiting the excavations in Greece and Crete. She also went to Lake Kariba in northern Rhodesia where she saw the Bumi Hills game preserve, which has an abundance of African wild life.

Those interested in joining the Alliance or in learning more about the group are invited to call the membership chairman, Mrs. Joseph C. Varkala.

Talent Show For Resident At Emerson

Janet Symonds daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Symonds of Nutley, N.J. has been chosen to participate in Showcase '74, the freshmen talent show at Emerson College, Boston, Mass.

Showcase '74 is an annual event which affords each new freshmen class the opportunity to display its talents. Prizes will be awarded to the best contestants by a panel of faculty judges.

Tri Town Opens Year With Dinner Meeting

Forty-nine members and eighteen guests of the Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, Inc. attended the first dinner meeting of the 1970-71 season on September 24 at the Park Methodist Church in Bloomfield.

Following the club's theme, "America the Beautiful," a prayer was read while slides were shown of churches throughout America. This was followed by slides showing a replica of the Mayflower, natural and man-made wonders of the country, historical monuments, America at work and at play, and the various cultures that make up America. These were accompanied by the reading of appropriate poems and by the singing of America the Beautiful and God Bless America. Narration was by Miss Alice Fleming of the Program Committee.

Committee chairmen read their reports and discussed plans for the coming year. Mrs. Lillian Westcott of Belleville, chairman of the Civic Participation Committee, told of plans for displays in the libraries of the three towns for National Business Women's Week, October 18 through 24. These will consist of BPW posters, a typical village scene, and travel throughout America. Her committee will also work with the World Affairs Committee, under the chairmanship of Miss Marion Johnson of Nutley, for the celebration of UN Week, which coincides with National Business Women's Week.

The Nutley Mayor's Committee for UN Week has requested Tri-Town's participation in the dedication of the flag pole and the raising of the flag in the UN Garden in Nutley on Sunday, October 25. It is also hoped that members will be able to entertain foreign students in their homes for dinner on UN Day.

Mrs. Angelo Marone, chairman of the Legislation Committee, distributed Reader's Digest reprints of the late Senator Everett Dirksen's article, "A New Plan to Fight Pornography." She urged all members to write to their senators urging passing of the anti-obscenity bill. The enactment of an ordinance by the three towns against bicycle riding after dark without proper lighting will be another project of her committee this year.

Mrs. Hazel White of Bloomfield, chairman of the Card Party Committee, announced April 24 as the date for this event, which is the one fund raising affair of the year to raise money for the scholarships given each year to the graduates of the high schools in the three towns and the awarding of bonds to the winners of the annual typing contest.

Two new members were voted into the club and welcomed by Miss Eleanor Storer of Nutley, chairman of the Membership Committee. They are Mrs. John Simon of Belleville and Miss Josephine Schrimpe of Nutley.

LOOK STRAIGHT AHEAD — Mrs. Mildred Catalfamo of Carolyn Road was among 134 local residents to take advantage of the "Eye Screening Program" at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital recently. Mrs. Catalfamo is shown having her eyes examined by Dr. Dominic Angiuoli of Orange.

Clara Maass Joins Eye Screening Program

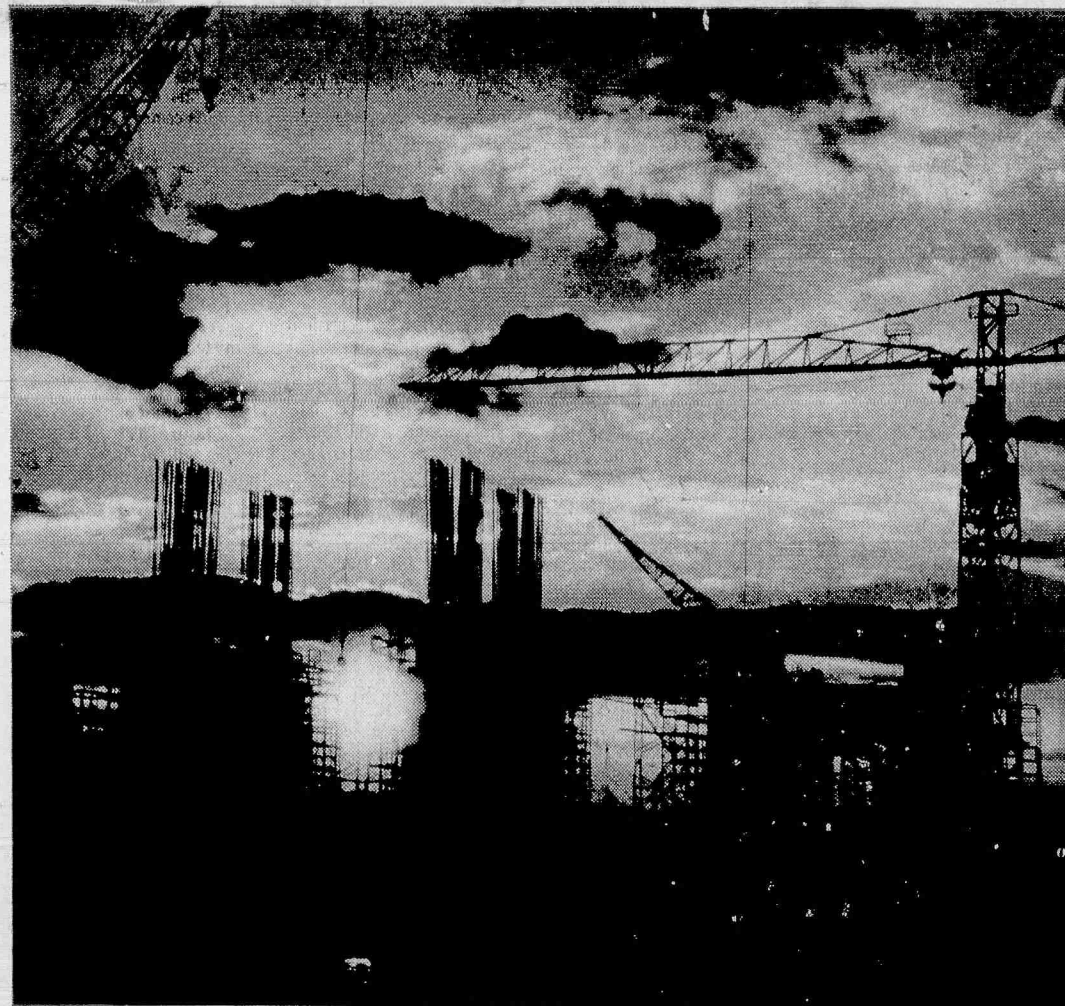

Clara Maass Memorial Hospital participated in a statewide "Eye Health Screening Program" which was presented for the 14th consecutive year, during the week of September 20, under the sponsorship of the Medical Society of New Jersey acting through its special committee on the conservation of Vision, Hearing and Speech.

The purpose of the screening was to detect evidence of any eye disease or of any systemic disease reflected in the eyes which should have treatment or follow-up by a licensed physician.

B'nai B'rith Men Plan Sunday Morning Walkathon

Local B'nai B'rith men will participate on Sunday morning, October 18, in a special walkathon organized by the Northern New Jersey Council, B'nai B'rith, to gain 1,850 new members.

We're building a non-smoker.

Public Service has entered the nuclear age. Through the miracle of nuclear fission large quantities of electricity can be produced without any of the smoke and pollutants formerly associated with conventional generating stations. Nuclear plants produce no smoke, no odor, and help maintain the integrity of our natural environment. Right now, we're building the world's largest nuclear generating station near Salem, New Jersey. In addition, we have purchased two more nuclear units for installation on Newbold Island, near Bordentown Township. The first unit is scheduled to operate in 1975, the second in 1977. We expect to add more nuclear generating stations to meet New Jersey's future needs for additional clean electric power.

THERE IS ALWAYS ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Although it may seem to be the same pharmacy you have always depended upon for your health needs, there have actually been a great many behind-the-scenes changes. These changes have resulted in better service to our customers and to their physicians.

New systems for keeping track of seldom-used medicines, better controlled conditions for storage of many drugs, more detailed records of family prescriptions, a larger inventory of new drugs are just a few of the changes we have made. We feel it is our duty to provide the most up-to-date pharmacy service that is possible.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.
