By Nat Gottlieb

Twenty seniors will be in Bellboy grid uniforms for the last time Thursday, when the Belleville High School football team travels to Orange for an 11 a.m. Thanksgiving Day match-up with the Tornados.

The seniors, many of whom have played side-by-side since their freshmen year, will be gunning for a 6-3 record to close out a season marked by extremes of joy, frustration and moments of bitter disappointment.

Heading the list of seniors to close out their careers Thursday are co-captains Ricky Caruso and Michael Albertine, two of the finest performers to come along in many years for Belleville.

Also playing their final games are backs Mark Bradley, Jimmy Miele, Doug Brown, Joe Papasidero, Vito Marcogliese and Charlie Ziegler. Linemen in their final tilt are Carmen Russomano, Tom Jones, Ron Muscara, Dan Vitiello, Don Black, Joe Valvano, Tom Vitiello and John Atherton. Senior manager Jimmy Di Ruggerio, a behind-the-scenes mainstay the past three years, will also participate in his last game.

In Orange, the Bellboy upperclassman will be facing a 2-5 team which has shown flashes of offensive power, but has generally been inconsistent all season.

Heralded in previous years, the Bellboys have never beat in Northern New Jersey.

the Belleville eleven has had an uneven season under first year head-coach Rocco Cafone.

Cafone came to the high school as a former Bellboy quarterback in the fifties and a standout gridster at Upsala College in East Orange, where he has spent the last 10 years as a backfield coach.

The new coach found himself with an experienced team heavily laden with seniors, an attractive package by any standards for a first year coach returning to his alma mater.

Immediately popular with the boys through his patience and concern for the players, Cafone put the squad through pre-season drills, emphasizing a conditioning program nearly unprecedented at the school. When the season opened, Cafone had a tight-knit unit of physically and mentally prepared men.

Sparked largely by the play of the senior gridsters, the Bellboys thoroughly outclassed a state power in Bayonne on opening day at the stadium, with the Bellboy backfield and defense nearly superb.

Bayonne had come to Belleville with a three year record of 24-3, and the opening victory over the Bees was an impressive triumph. When Cafone's squad handed a stubborn Bloomfield squad a 7-6 loss, it appeared the Bellboys were beginning an

Special Services Tomorrow For Thanksgiving

Two special services are scheduled tomorrow night in addition to the regular Thanksgiving Day observations at Belleville churches.

Joint services at Bethany Lutheran Church and Ahavath Achim are planned tomorrow night at 8 p.m. The Bethany celebration includes eight local congregations and is being sponsored by the Belleville Ministerium. The Ahavath Achim service will mark the 17th consecutive year that the temple has held a joint Thanksgiving Day observation with Wesley Methodist Church.

Rev. Albert E. Alspach, pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church and chairman of the Ministerium, will conduct the joint service at his church, with Rev. Anthony Quattro, pastor of the Belleville Assembly of God, delivering the sermon.

Pastor Alspach announced this week that the combined choirs of the churches—numbering 60 voices—will unite for two choral numbers—the Martin Shaw anthem "With a Voice of Singing," and the festival anthem of Ralph Von Williams' entitled "The Old One Hundredth," which is for choir, organ and trumpet. The trumpet part will be played by Richard Bradley of Bethany Lutheran, who is also a member of the Belleville High School Band. Refreshments will be served in Beisler Hall after services.

Rabbi Herbert Horowitz of Ahavath Achim will conduct the services at his Temple, while Rev. Robert Bedell of Wesley Methodist will deliver the evening message, "It is Good to Give Thanks."

Morris Klein, president of the congregation, and Allan Crisp, lay leader of the church, will exchange greetings on behalf of their respective houses of worship. Following the service, a refreshments will be served by the Women's Society of Christian Service at Wesley Methodist.

The Bethany Church service is being sponsored by the Ministerium, which is a town clergy group that has been functioning for many years on an "off-and-on" basis. The present Ministerium body was formed three years ago, and sponsors joint services on Good Friday and Thanksgiving, and holds weekly services at Soho Hospital in Belleville. The group also sponsors an "Encounter Series," which features prominent speakers on current problems facing society.

entailed. Strumolo said the specifications in the advertisement called for separate bids on a three-year and a five-year contract, and told the Times the town would accept which ever bid was more attractive.

The Public Affairs Commissioner said the specifications called for little change in garbage removal procedure, with the exception that there would no longer be two separate

Joseph McGreevy Explains Taxes

Garbage Contract Bids Expected December 14

Bids on a new municipal garbage contract are expected at the regularly scheduled December 14 Commission meeting, the Times learned this week.

After holding a special caucus last week, the Board of Commissioners drew up the specifications for the contract and agreed to advertise for bids.

The present contract, which expires the end of December, was a five year package at an annual rate of $240,000. Owner of the present contract is Lorenzo Pucillo and Sons of 74 Belmont Avenue in Belleville.

Administration of the garbage contract will be under the control of Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, who this week told the Times he expects the new contract to be more expensive but declined to speculate on just how much of a hike would be Belleville Finance and Revenue Commissioner Joseph McGreevy this week reminded senior citizens that the deadline for filing under the present law is December 31.

Under the old law, still in effect, any person 65 years of age or older that owns and resides in a house on or before last October 1, with a gross income of $5,000 or less in the previous tax year, is eligible for an $80 tax exemption if they file with the tax assessor

Senior Citizens Get Tax Dates

Senior citizens were told this week not to panic if they are confused about their tax exemption status under the forthcoming new state law approved by the recent General Election referendum.

Apparently causing some of the confusion is that eligibility requirements under the new law have not been released by the state. As things now stand, senior citizens are to go about filing for tax exemptions under the old system, but will be able to file for a readjustment as soon as the new law goes into effect.

To Greet Youngsters On Steps

Santa Claus Will Lead Parade Of Local Scouts To Town Hall

The Belleville High School Band is scheduled to lead Santa Claus and a parade of local scouts down Washington Avenue to Mill Street Friday at 1:30 p.m., beginning at Greylock Parkway.

In announcing the parade, Harry T. French, executive director of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce reminded parents and children that Mr. Claus is also scheduled to greet youngsters personally from 6-8 p.m. on Town Hall steps.

Included in the annual parade are the Sabre Cadets and several Boy Scout and Girl Scout groups. Riding on Santa's float will be three local Cub Scouts and three Girl Scout Brownies.

In previous years, Mr. Claus arrived via a helicopter drop at Clearman field while scores of youngsters lined the field area. Last year Mr. Claus was followed to Town Hall by the youngsters and their parents, where a large crowd of people greeted him with thunderous applause. A similar greeting for the venerable gentleman is expected again this year, according to local chamber officials.

The Chamber also announced that Christmas lights are scheduled to be installed today along Washington Avenue, from Rutgers Street to Mill Street. This marks the first time in Belleville history that the lights have extended to Mill Street. Previously the lights only stretched to Williams Street.

The additional lights are the result of cooperation between the Chamber and merchants along the Avenue. Coordinating the chamber work is a committee headed by Aaron Cohen of Charles Jewelers. Cohen is being assisted by Everett Davey of Jersey Bell; Johnny Iannuzzi of Flowerama and Arthur Jackson of Jolly Cleaners.

The Chamber gets the light program going by contracting annually with lighting companies and then soliciting support from town merchants.

"We decided this year to extend the program," French said. "We found many merchants felt that since Mill Street was the entrance to Belleville from Newark, that the lights should extend down there."

"It is our intention," French continued, "as time goes on to extend the program to the whole avenue, but this takes time. To extend the whole thing at once would be too much of a task. Each year we hope to tackle a little more of the avenue."

Business Men Set Big Fete

The Belleville Manufacturers Association will hold its 39th annual dinner at the Forest Hill Field Club in Bloomfield on Wednesday, Dec. 2 at 6:30 p.m., it was announced by Eldred Tarry, president of the organization.

Key speaker for the affair will be Dr. Byron C. Lambert, dean of the Rutherford campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University, who will discuss "Campus Unrest and the New Outlook."

The group expects a gathering of about 100, including members of the Board of Commissioners, the Board of Education, the police and fire chiefs and several representatives of local industry.

REV. ALBERT E. ALSPACH, pastor of Bethany Lutheran church. A joint service is also planned for Congregation Church, is busy making preparations for tomorrow night's Ahavath Achim, both starting at 8 p.m. Belleville Ministerium sponsored Thanksgiving service at his

Twenty Seniors In Last Bellboy Tilt

Caruso, Albertine Ready To Play Career Finale

The Bellboys' tenacious defense dug in there for the second half and held the Maroon to two points, but the home town offense couldn't muster a score against the fearsome Nutley defense, and the dreams of 16 seniors for an unbeaten campaign was ended abruptly.

Though the players wouldn't say it, it was obvious to many people that the Nutley loss had taken alot of the luster out of the campaign, and even coach Cafone admitted the game affected morale for the rest of the season.

The Bellboys were a proud team however, and came storming back with a 28-6 victory over Passaic to up their record to 3-1. There were several facets of the Passaic game, however, which were to spell the pattern for the rest of the season.

For one thing, the Indians threw a strong passing attack at the Bellboys, and evidently there were enough scouts in senior fullback Doug Brown, who was to be used sparingly the rest of the season because of a tricky hamstring pull. Reserve junior fullback and linebacker, Rich Ciallela, also sustained a knee injury which subsequently sidelined him the rest of the year.

Irvington popped up next on the schedule, and although the Bellboys stopped a ferocious passing attack to capture the victory, it was not without cost. Star senior halfback Ricky Caruso suffered a slight shoulder separation and was forced from the game and to be used only sparingly the following week against Garfield.

Garfield continued the passing pressure, and with Caruso, Brown and Lotruglio missing from the lineup, the Boilermakers staged a comeback in the second half to stop the Bellboys for the second time in two years.

Wary, the Bellboys picked themselves up again and battled down the expected West Orange passes to pick up their fifth victory against two losses. By the time the Kearny game rolled around, however, the squad was tired from a long and frustrating campaign.

Three days before the Kearny game the Times-News kickoff preview headline read: "Defensive Backs Expect To Receive A Breather Against Cardinals (2-5). In the body of the story, coach Cafone told the Times: "They're not the passing team like Garfield or West Orange. I hope I don't have to eat those words, however."

No one knows how much salt and pepper Cafone used in consuming his statement after Kearny came out with a pro-style passing attack to stun the Bellboys in a 23-14 loss.

Now the long campaign is in its final stage and for many of the players—especially the seniors—this will be the one to remember.

NCE Air Force Group To Hold Annual Corps Fete

Newark College of Engineering's 490th Air Force ROTC Group will hold its annual Corps Dining - In for its 160 cadets on Monday evening, at NCE's College Center.

The program, a formal military dinner, is designed to foster comradeship within the unit, features toasts to the President and to the unit's military leaders.

This year the cadets will have a special speaker, Major Gilbert Amelio.

Health Department Sets Free Services Dec. 2.

Free flu vaccinations and sugar diabetes tests will be given by the Belleville Health Department, Wednesday, Dec. 2 from 6-8 p.m. in the senior high school cafeteria.

The announcement came this week from Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, who said the two programs were being funded through state aid.

The flu vaccination is only for senior citizens, while the diabetes tests are open to residents of all ages. A staff of nurses from the local Health Department will be led by Dr. Leslie Miller of 625 Joralemon Street in administering the two programs, Strumolo said.

"Diabetes is one of our most common diseases," Strumolo said. "It is far more common, for example, than active tuberculosis. In the United States it affects over two million Americans who don't even know it."

Strumolo said that various symptoms should be watched with diabetes, including increase in thirst, constant hunger, frequent urination,

Expect Garbage Bids For December Meeting

Instead, Strumolo said, the garbagemen would pick up items all-year round that were normally reserved for the special weeks. Strumolo did emphasize, that disposal rules outlined during clean-up week would have to be followed by residents.

Strumolo said the doing away with clean-up week would "enable the public to get better service, and that they wouldn't have to wait for two special weeks in the year."

Strumolo added that several other towns are doing away with clean-up weeks.

J. McGreevy Explains Senior Citizen Taxation

by December 31. McGreevy also reminded senior citizens they must file a statement of earnings with the tax collector between January 1 and February 1 of the tax year.

All these requirements, however, apply to the present $80 deduction law, McGreevy said. The commissioner promised to publish the new requirements with the forthcoming $160 deduction law when word comes from the state.

McGreevy emphasized that senior citizens who are affected by the new law need not fear losing benefits under it because of the December 31 deadline. The senior citizens may file a claim with the tax collector during the entire tax year and be granted a deduction if eligible during the new law.

According to McGreevy, the town of Belleville has 2,100 senior citizen taxpayers on the rolls for 1970. He said that any of these residents with questions should contact the local tax office at Town Hall by phoning 759-9100 or coming down in person.

BHS Dance Band Featured In School Christmas Social

The Belleville High School Dance Band will be the feature attraction at the first annual Christmas Social scheduled by the School Eight Home and School Association Friday, Dec. 4 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Charles Miele, president of the Association announced this week tickets are still available for the affair, and may be purchased at School Eight by contacting Mrs. Arthur by December 10. Price for the tickets is $4 per person, and proceeds will go toward the Association's expense during the year.

Also featured for the evening is a hot and cold buffet, prepared by Miele's Caterers of Belleville and served by the Association parents.

Couples will be able to dance throughout the evening, Miele said. The BHS dance band is an accomplished unit and has performed for many audiences, several during out of the state tours.

Past Masonic Masters Set To Confer Lodge Degrees

Belleville Lodge 108, F&AM, will hold its annual Past Masters' Night on Wednesday at Belleville Masonic Temple, 126 Joralemon Street. The meeting will start at 7 p.m.

The first section of the degree will be conferred by Allen I. Miller, senior warden, with all officers advancing accordingly. The second section will be conferred by the Past Masters with A.W. Outcalt, P.M., serving as worshipful master.

The lecture will be delivered by George K. Nealis, P.M., and the charge by William C. Smith, P.M.

Members of Belleville Lodge observing their Masonic birthdays in November will be honored at this communication.

Community Fund Approaching Goal

With the United Community Fund campaign well underway, Harry T. French, Belleville chairman, reports that the town is now at 61.7 percent of its goal for this year.

Charles H. Jones, suburban division over-all chairman, this week appealed to all those who have not yet contributed to get their contributions in as soon as possible. "The residential campaign is running behind other phases of the drive," Jones said, "and we are striving to get all contributions in, with increases over last year, so that we may make our quota."

The campaign benefits 113 health, recreation and welfare agencies in the Essex-West Hudson area and last year served over 500,000 people.

Thanksgiving Day, 1970

This is a time when it seems that most human energies are devoted to kicking or complaining. It is, therefore doubly satisfying to welcome, once again, that good old traditional holiday - Thanksgiving. Giving thanks on the fourth Thursday in November always conjures up a picture of the Pilgrims and other early settlers and the legendary hardships they faced in the wilderness of North America.

It is well to remember that North America in the early 1600's was not the United States, and the people who came here then knew only that they were in a hostile wilderness. With this same historical experience, our Canadian neighbors to the north also observe Thanksgiving Day, although their day of thanks is the second Monday in October. At any rate, Thanksgiving is a day when the kickers and complainers should make themselves scarce while we take stock once more of the many blessings that are part of living in this great land we now call the United States.

We have material blessings in abundance for which we should duly give thanks. But, our greatest blessings are beyond measuring on the scales of monetary value. Some of these are religious and political liberties, the right to our day in court, the sanctity of homes, persons and property.

Many of the complainers hold these things in low esteem, perhaps because they take them for granted or are too poor in spirit to appreciate them. Thanksgiving, however, is a day that helps to enrich the lives of everyone, and there is nothing like an old-fashioned Thanksgiving turkey to stimulate appreciation of the good things that we are privileged to enjoy.

For Better Trains

Of interest to all Americans is the new effort of the Department of Transportation to improve service on the nation's fastest trains - the Metroliners running between Washington and New York.

The Metroliners have been run for two years by Penn Central and have been a success but the government will attempt to improve service further under a two-year contract with the railroad. Hostesses serving meals, as on airlines, are to be added.

Passenger facilities at stations, and ticket-selling methods, will be improved. Completely new lounge facilities will be built in some cases and smoother rides will result from welded rails (the European system), eliminating the clackety-clack of the U.S. roadbeds.

Metroliners are already, carrying 100,000 passengers a month (seven trains in each direction) and if further success is achieved, passenger trains may not be a thing of the past after all.

The Airbus

Although they have received less publicity than the intercontinental 747, the new short-hop jet airliners called airbuses will probably effect more traveling Americans in the next decade than the intercontinentals.

The most recent entry in the Airbus derby, the McDonnell Douglas DC-10, has made its maiden test flight at Long Beach California. Its manufacturer says the 345-passenger giant aircraft will omit no smoke, which will aid the fight on pollution, will be quieter than other big airliners.

Obviously, aircraft carrying this number of passengers might help reduce congestion, since each will carry more than twice the number of passengers hauled by today's biggest domestic passenger jets. They might eventually enable the airlines to reduce air fares!

One Year Ago

Arrangements for the 1969 Varsity Club dinner were completed by Mike Marotti and Joe Grosch, co-chairmen for the 25th annual affair. The dinner was set for December 5 at the Robin Hood Inn in Clifton and was to honor the 1969 Bellboy football squad. Ralph Casale, the master of ceremonies, was to introduce Dr. John Bateman, head coach of the Rutgers University football team, who was to be the guest speaker.

Mayor Kenneth D. Smith, honorary chairman of the Belleville United Community Fund Campaign, announced that Belleville had achieved 61 per cent or $6,100 of its goal. Smith stated that returns were slow and appealed to all residents to contribute to the campaign which supported thirteen health, recreation, and welfare agencies in the Essex-West Hudson area.

The Orange Tornadoes were scheduled to pay the Bellboys a visit at Municipal Stadium for the annual Turkey Day match. The Bellboys had recently accumulated two consecutive victories over West Orange and Kearny, leaving the team with a 5-3 record. Coach Amabile, who was said to have been under careful scrutiny in the beginning of the season because of two previous disappointing seasons, appeared to have secured for himself the job of head coach.

Five Years Ago

The Policemen's Benevolent Association and the Firemen's Mutual Benefit Association requested salary increases to meet the rising cost of living. The new salaries would amount to some $350 to $450 per year for both departments. Town Manager John Burnett said that if the salary wages were approved by the Town Council and included in the new budget, they would add an increase of $32,000 per department.

Allen Crisp, co-chairman of the Fair Play Committee, raised a few questions when he again charged the National Education Association with bias in the hearings held in Newark which, said Crisp, heard testimony from persons named by the Board of Education and neglected to call witnesses for Dr. Frank M. Durkee. "The questions which I have raised with the NEA involve serious charges of procedural unfairness to Dr. Durkee," said Mr. Crisp in a letter to the Times, "by those responsible for presenting evidence to the Belleville Investigating Committee, which will not permit Mr. Arvidson to defend the issues with irrelevancies."

Ten Years Ago

Diane Nappi, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Nappi of 221 Holmes Street, was awarded a performing membership in the Garden State Ballet, the civic ballet company sponsored by the Ballet Foundation of New Jersey. All dancing schools and teachers in the north Jersey area were notified of the audition. Competing against 50 contestants, Diane was one of 17 finalists selected by the auditions committee to join the Garden State Ballet.

A second group was being mobilized to change Belleville's form of government to the Mayor-council type. Headed by Attorney John Noonan, the new group was to be composed of independent citizens without regards to politics, and would not be connected with another organization headed by Commissioner George Kiernan.

A.M. Hart of Newark, town auditor, was named to his position in a 4-1 vote of the Town Commission. Elmer S. Hyde, who had voted against Hart, reportedly said after the meeting that Hart was too greatly influenced by former finance director Tully and gave little or no attention to other members of the Commission.

The organization which had picked out and then elected the Board of Education's first election member, William A. Boyd, was preparing to repeat their performance. The Belleville Conference was scheduled to meet in the Recreation House to discuss how to get the three best people for the three posts to be filled in February. "It's the hope of the Conference," said Edward Ackerman, president, "that nominations will be tantamount to election."

Ralph Lucas of Elmira, New York, the inventor of the atomic powered turbine who had set Belleville to unfounded speculation on another Hiroshima with his announcement that the turbine would be installed in a locomotive told the Times-News that he was seeking either a building or ground for a building in Belleville for the manufacture and assembly of atompowered turbines to be used by the automotive and locomotive industries.

Chinese evangelist Mun Hope was to address the Essex County Youth Rally to be held in Nutley High School. A capacity audience was expected to attend with a large chorus choir consisting of Yonkers High School students. Servicemen and veterans of World War II were to give testimonies.

A serious outbreak of vandalism at Municipal Stadium prompted Commissioner of Parks and Public Property Louis A. Noll to make an appeal to parents of the children in that vicinity to cooperate in an effort to curb the destruction.

A celebration commemorating 20 years of service as Town Health Officer was held at the Town Hall in honor of Eugene Berry. Commissioner of Public Affairs Raymond Mertz presented Mr. Berry with a handsome traveling bag, fitted with accessories. Guests included the health department staff, Belleville Nutley tuberculosis nurse Mrs. Ernest Whynall, Miss Jane Donnelly, registrar of vital statistics and superintendent of nurses Miss Mary Mulholland.

Speak-Up!

Chamber Head Declares: Don't Downgrade Us

To the Editor:

One of the easiest and most unproductive things a person can do is to downgrade a community, to complain about everything, particularly when some of the complaints are not based on facts.

I have lived in four different States, working in towns and cities, and in Belleville for the past 25 years.

Every community has problems, every community could improve but as a close observer of Belleville and particularly when one compares it with other communities in the metropolitan area, I can and do claim that Belleville has made great progress, is continuing to make progress and is a good place to live, work, do business or shop.

Just to list a few things that have happened since I came here and I am sure I will leave some important things out of the list by accident.

1. Washington Ave, once cobblestones in the center repaved.

2. The Franklin Ave shopping center built and opened.

3. Numerous and very fine garden apartments all over town.

4. New Church and other religious structures built, Christ Episcopal Church, Ahavath Achim Synagogue, new Sunday School buildings, Fewsmith Presbyterian Church, Montgomery Presbyterian Church, Grace Baptist Church, Bethany Lutheran Church, Belleville Reformed Church.

5. Town Hall interior completely renovated and air conditioned.

6. New building by the DeWitt Savings & Loan Assn. two new branches opened by the Peoples National Bank & Trust Co. the interior of the Fidelity Union Trust Company completely renovated and air conditioned.

7. The New Jersey Bell Building, Municipal Parking Lot and the New Flowerama Building.

8. New Belleville High School and additions and improvements to be made of the Grade Schools.

9. Clara Maass Hospital arrived in town and is still growing new Professional Building, Nurses Home and School and the New Cerebral Palsy Treatment and School Building.

10. New additions built and Walter Kiddle Co., Wallace & Tiernan Co. Hardman Inc. and the Central Uniform Service.

11. Numerous store fronts in all business areas have been refurbished and interiors modernized.

12. New up to date street lighting in business and residential areas.

13. Belleville while suffering some of the effects of the present crime wave has been peaceful; compared with other towns and cities in Essex and other counties, certainly none of our schools have gone through the violence that has prevailed elsewhere. Our police and fire departments are doing a good job. Yes there are problems ahead, but they will not be solved by people complain and tear down but by people who think positively and if one is honest one must admit that Belleville has progressed in the past few years and its image has improved despite and crepe hangers. Let's not downgrade that image as was done recently in a throw away distributed around November 3rd, let's improve our image. Property owners particularly should be concerned, for when a town is downgraded so is the value of their property.

She's Flattered By Ken Smith's Letter Reply

To the Editor:

I am very happy and proud that you, the Mayor of Belleville, would be so kind and take the time to answer my letter, especially when you have so many other important duties, such as throwing parties to announce your candidacy in May 1971 election. Other citizens have written letters to the editor but since you did not take the time to answer their letters, it leads me to believe my letter must have brought some of the truth out and it bothers you, Mr. Smith.

I have lived in this town for two years. I read the papers and as a taxpayer, I am interested as to what happens in our town and will happen in the future as I do have children and I just wonder what future they can look forward to in Belleville.

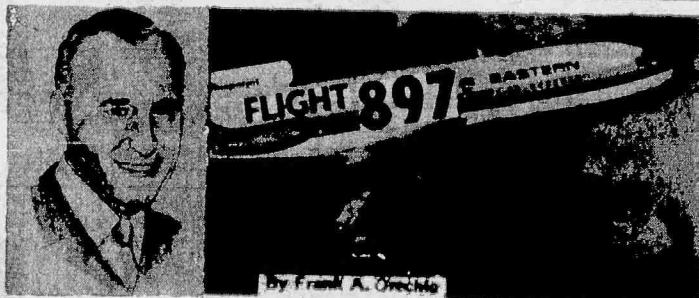

You say I contradicted myself in my first letter. Yes, Mr. Strumolo is also a commissioner. He is the only commissioner who, in my opinion, had and still has the people of Belleville in mind.

It makes a person wonder why you would seek another term as last year at the tax meeting, you said "I don't need your money, I can buy and sell any one in this room." You couldn't or wouldn't answer the people's questions then so why take an interest in one citizen like me?

According to my research, I believe it is not the law that you took over commissioner Cullens' position but the board of commissioners must make a resolution as to whom will take the position but it does not mean the Mayor must be that person.

It is easy to criticize when I sit on the outside, but tell me, how does one get the true facts about our town?

Give A Woman Some Education And She Becomes Dangerous

(Today's Flight is being written by guest pilot, Barbara Churchill, who will soon be leaving our editorial staff to resume studies at Georgetown University.)

AS THE SAYING goes, give a woman a little education and she becomes dangerous. What is all this nonsense about "liberation"? Just because a woman has the same education and capabilities as a man why should she get preference? After all she is only a woman.

A woman competes with men as soon as she enters the little red school house at age five or six and the competition continues right through her college days. She competes in the academic world so why should it stop there. In college she learns as much as her male counterpart, both socially and academically, except of course if she's one of these gals who is after her MRS. degree. That being the case, all she has to do is bat those six-dollar eyelashes and she will complete her goal. We're not condemning that either for as the worn out contemporary saying goes, "If that's your thing, well then right on!"

In a recent issue of Life magazine, Muriel Siebert, a member of the New York Stock Exchange said, "I think it's a crime for a girl to go to college for four years and then suddenly be expected to stop thinking. It's a waste of creativity and it seems to foster unhappiness." A woman who is taught to think and reason analytically can not stop the process after she is married, if she submits and tries, she will eventually become very displeased with herself.

In that same issue of Life, noted Liberationist, Kate Millet, Phi Beta Kappa; B.A. magna cum laude from the University of Minnesota; first class honors degree from Oxford and Ph.D. from Columbia says about finding a job in New York, "Everywhere I went it was the same question," she says, "Can you type?" After landing a job as a file clerk in a New York bank she said, "That's all America thought I was worth, God, by that time I would have gotten a plumbing license just to earn a living." Since that time Miss Millet has achieved a degree of success as author of, "Sexual Politics" now in its fifth printing.

Women have a lot to offer, and it will only be the wise guy who will interpret that statement the way we don't mean it. Nutley's Myrna Lamb, author and playwright, has some pretty heavy thoughts on the subject. Miss Lamb is actively involved in the women's fight for equality on the intellectual level. She has straight answers and does not cop out when questioned by men who try to stump her.

One question in particular that was put to her recently was pretty loaded and she handled it well. The question was, "Should women be drafted into the Armed Services?" Miss Lamb's reply was simple and straight, "If you are going to fight for a cause or a movement then you must do it without exception. Women should be drafted and if they were then I think the lawmakers would think twice before entering into a warlike conflict."

WE DON'T AGREE completely with all of the things that the Liberation movement advocates. For one thing we could never get away without wearing a bra and we do like men. We can think of nothing better than being doted upon by some admiring gentleman or getting all dressed up in satin and lace. But make the male element aware that the frills and fluff do not extend to the brain. Our credo for a long time has been, "you can catch more flies with honey than you can with vinegar!" Right on!

NOTES ON LEAVING Nutley This is our last issue of the Nutley Sun, for this writer anyway. After previously expounding upon the virtues of the educated woman, we, after a semester's absence, are returning to complete our college education.

Nutley has taught us alot about life. Perhaps one of the reasons we are returning to the ivy-covered, hallowed halls of higher learning is to be better equipped to handle life and its little complications. Not being a Nutley resident or even living remotely near, we think that you folks have some kind of town. The people are very involved in legitimate causes and are aware of the world around them. Your thoughts are not limited to Nutley. Your young people are exciting. Don't underestimate them, they are going places.

To the town of Nutley we say, thank you.

Belleville High Football Players Greet Crowd

A "Father and Son Night", with the accent on athletics, was held November 17 at the James G. Shawger School.

Guests for the program included Belleville High School head football coach Rocco Cafone and several members of the varsity squad. Also present was Board of Education President Rocco Saletta.

The program was sponsored by the Home and School Association, which holds the affair every second year. On alternate years, a mother and daughter night is scheduled.

Highlights for the evening included viewing of the 1968 National Football League Championship game films, sent to the school by the Rheingold Beer Company, and the viewing of this year's Belleville-Bloomfield tilt. Coach Cafone explained several facets of the Bellboy game film.

Representing the Belleville grid squad were, Joe Papasidero, Jim Miele, Ricky Caruso, Michael Albertine, David Pepe and Phil Bruno.

Several door prizes were won, including one by Miele. Hot dogs and cokes were served by the association, whose president, Mrs. Louise Sylvestro greeted the group. Program chairman for the evening was Mrs. Lucy Pitera, while Shawger School Principal Michael Nardiello served as master-of-ceremonies.

In all, about 300 people attended the affair.

Band Trip Takes Them From Sunrise To Sunset

By Bruce Creditor

If one had passed Belleville High School on Saturday, November 14 at 5 a.m. (and it is highly unlikely that anyone did), a strange sight would have been viewed.

The 125 member contingent of band, twirlers, and color guard staggered half awake to the buses that would take them to Philadelphia. This was the start of a first for BHS—our band performing at a college football game. In this instance it was the Columbia vs. Pennsylvania Ivy League contest at Franklin field, and the event was the annual band day, to which 24 bands were invited from New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Arriving in Philadelphia at 8 a.m., practice commenced at 9 a.m. (in the freezing cold of the morning) with all 24 bands, totaling over 2,500 musicians. After an hour and half of practicing the pre-game and half-time routines, everyone was exhausted and quite frozen, and all rushed to the stands to eat lunch and enjoy some free time before pre-game.

At 1 p.m. all of the bands lined up around the field for the pre-game ceremonies, and it was quite a spectacle—all of the different bands uniforms, musicians, and drum majors on the gushy astro-turf, a

Senior Senate Vibrates Enthusiasm For School As Term Progresses

By Rose Marie Jafrazy

The newly elected officers of the class of 1971 at Belleville high school are very efficient in getting their work done. The officers are president, Annette Guardabascio; vice president, Angelo Zoppi; treasurer, Mimi Ritacco and secretary, Marybeth Salamone.

Under the advice of Mr. Graves they have accomplished much more than they anticipated.

The beginning of football season opened by a Pep Dance sponsored by the senior class. At this moment the senior class is selling key chains with '71 on them. Many of the students are participating in their class and are buying the key chains.

Many committees were prepared under the guidance of Mr. Graves for the parking at the Belleville-Nutley football game. The committees efforts turned out to be very profitable. Another committee was organized to write to various places in Pennsylvania and New York State to see if they could find a better place for their senior class trip. The trip was always held at Cobermare in New York State. The Senate has decided that the class saying is "Right Here." You could always hear the seniors at the football games loud and clear yelling their favorite saying.

The senators and alternates are as follows, with the alternates in parenthesis: Jack Scarpelli (Rose Marie Jofrazy); Lucille Burlazzi (Janice Rosania); Patrice

Three Students Enter Junior Miss Contest

By Annette Guardabascio

Essex County will be selecting its Junior Miss of 1971 on Sunday, November 29, 1970 at Montclair State at 2:30 p.m.

The contest was applicable to high school senior girls between the ages of 16 and 19 living in Essex County. Among the many entrants to the pageant are Belleville's three representatives—Annette Guardabascio, Rose Marie Jafrazy, and Sandy Nyegaard.

Contestants are judged in such areas as scholastic achievement, poise and appearance, youth fitness (posture, coordination), and creative and performing arts.

In it the girls must display their own individual talents and originality. Also, they will be judged a great deal at the judges' conference the day before the pageant when they interview each girl. Ratings are based on personality, human relations, mental alertness, activities and honors, knowledge and perception, clarity of expression, sense of values, and personal appearance.

With the pageant will be a hair-styling contest sponsored by Breck, Inc. The girls are to design, name, and wear a hair style that will be judged on its prettiness, and suitability, or appeal of the name.

Two special trophies will be awarded also at the pageant. One is for "Miss Congeniality," a title the girls vote for among themselves. Also to be presented is one for the best display of talent. Whoever is crowned as the

A Bench Voice Heard

By Patti Tortorello

Who really recognizes the majority of a football field? It seems you only hear about the "superstars," so for a minute we're going to see how it feels to have the privilege of suiting up on the varsity squad and participating in spirit only.

"I feel a part of the team always, and Coach Cafone sees that when he speaks to the team he includes all of us and not just the starting lineup. I'm always on the sidelines cheering for the team as well as my main-man Caruso!" This was a point stated by junior Frank Ritacco.

It seems as though Frankie is one of the few "bench warmers" who's spirit is on the field every minute of the game. "Some of the guys who don't play just don't care, they think they're ifed!" He continued, stating that, "It's just as important to keep the guys up who are waiting to go in rather than just sit there and act as an unenthusiastic spectator. You're part of the team, and every man is important."

"I really can't say I get up for a game, because I don't play, but as the plays start sending men down field you just have to get psyched! After all that's your team out there!"

The defensive end also commented that he always wonders what we would do if he was in the game: "I'd feel pretty bad if I missed my man and he went in for a score, but you also, think if you would have stopped your man when Gary (Falkman) or Ron Muscara (starting defensive end) may have missed him. I think I'd be a little nervous knowing I could be the one to stop the opposition from scoring or something!"

Reactions to this vary, naturally, but you just can't sit there and act as though you don't care. Every team, pro as well as college, have those who must keep the team morale up on the sidelines. It's nothing to be ashamed of!

Ritacco, as everyone else, worked out all summer getting in shape for September to come.

Educational Advisory Group Meets Monthly To Discuss Problems Facing System

By Alan Grossman

The Belleville Educational Advisory Council, a group of citizens appointed by the Board of Education, meets monthly to discuss curriculum, physical facilities, innovative school programs, job opportunities for youth, and work-study programs. Mr. Pat Barbone is president and Mr. P. De Esposito, vice-president of the group. The last meeting of the Council was held November 12 in the Home Economics room of Belleville High School. Mr. Herman Knuppel, guidance director at BHS, informed the group that Mr. George Nucera, vocational guidance counselor, has been working with the Newark Business Management Association.

Mr. Nucera has taken 30 pupils to visit various industries-General Electric, Standard Tool, R.C.A. and

Key Club Holds Annual Affair With Belleville Kiwanis Group

By Joe Lescota

Kiwanis International became the guests of the Belleville High School Key Club, at their annual Interclub Dinner which was held in the High School cafeteria, on November 12.

It was the first time this school year that both organizations were able to introduce themselves over an informal dinner, which was supplied by Mr. Meyers and his high school cafeteria staff. Musical entertainment was provided by Tony Calabris on the accordion.

The meeting was opened by Cornelius Vanderzyne, vice-president of Kiwanis. Mr. Vanderzyne took time out to thank those members of the Key Club who assisted the Kiwanis in developing the site around the oldest tree in Belleville.

The meeting was then turned over to Frank Marano, pres. of the Key Club. Frank introduced Bruce Creditor, secretary, who read the minutes of the last meeting. Jack Fersko, club treasurer, stated the Club's financial position. Joe Lescota gave a report on the publicity committee and the newly formed basketball committee. Ralph DeMaio reported on the bus shelter committee, who is responsible for maintaining the town's bus shelters.

Other reports by: Al Pepe of the tutoring committee; Alan Grossman of the Key Club project committee; Dave Day of the house committee; Mark Feldmann head of the points system, and Tom Jones of the social committee.

Guest speaker at the Dinner was, John Viallo, Lt. Governor of Division eleven. John who is also New Jersey's representative of Key Club, gave a very commendable speech on what Key Club really is. Afterwards all Key Club members received their membership cards.

BHS Food Drive A Success

The Belleville High School Key Club and National Honor Society sponsored a canned food drive to assist the Belleville Welfare Department in their distribution of food baskets to needy residents of Thanksgiving.

To encourage participation, it was decided that each student contributing food on Tuesday, November 17 would be eligible for a drawing, the prize being a football autographed by the varsity squad and Coach Rocco Cafone. The winner of last Thursday's drawing was senior Pamela McCoy.

A total of 15 boxes of canned food were collected and delivered to the B.W.D. Art students under the direction of Mr. Morton Birkin made Thanksgiving cards to put in the baskets.

In addition to receiving canned food from Belleville

High, the Welfare Department is also assisted by the local churches and the Salvation Army.

Most of the baskets will be given to elderly people, who live on fixed incomes and are in need of help during the holiday.

Thanksgiving was observed at Belleville High School Wednesday, November 18, when a traditional turkey dinner was served in the school's library. Principal Raymond O. Smith's guests included the BHS office staff and guidance department, the staff of school seven, the Board of Education and a number of administrators and educators from the Belleville elementary schools.

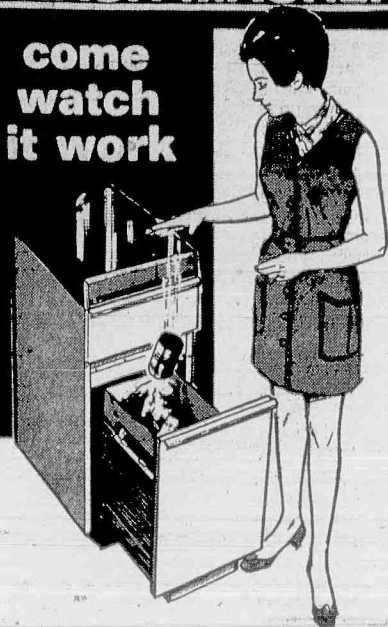

The cooking was done by the cafeteria staff, under the direction of Mr. E. Meyer, and Miss Carol Filemyr's vocational home economics I and II classes served as waiters, waitresses and bus boys. A Christmas dinner will be given for the Belleville High faculty, at which time all cooking and serving will be done by the students themselves.

Business And Industry Group Continue Work

The Educational Advisory Council has held a series of meetings since the opening of school, under the direction of Pat Barbone, president.

Through the efforts of this concerned group of Belleville citizens, businessmen and educators rapid strides have been made in implementing the vocational, technical, and business programs in the Belleville secondary schools.

The Educational Advisory Council has been working closely with the Board of Education through the efforts of Rocco Saletta, Board president. A joint caucus committee was held in October with presentation of reports from the following committees: office occupation, graphic arts, automotive, general shop, technical education, and vocational home economics.

As a result of the suggestions made by the Council and the cooperation of the Board of Education, Belleville High School has an added member of the guidance staff so that George Nucera can work with all vocational areas; created a separate Home Economics Department with a department head for junior-senior Home Economics and expanding the work of the practical aspects of the food services training programs; initiated the use of an unused classroom at School Seven for vocational groups to introduce them to food preparations; expansion of the work-study program through visitation to industries in the Greater Newark area; resumption of the Saturday morning Data Processing class for the 1970-71 school year; applied for state and federal aid for introduction to Vocations and Cooperative Work-Study programs; automotive shop has received a steam cleaner, seven new engines, head light tester and automotive tire changer; wood shop has received a wood welding machine and new IBM equipment has been received as part of a Federal Government Project.

In addition to the president the following persons on the council represent industry and business: Joseph Palmieri, Matthew Pica, Henry Kellenbence, Robert

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS IN SOCIAL SPOTLIGHT

Miss Tingstad, Mr. DeLuca Wed In Tacoma, Washington

Mrs. Joseph DeLuca-nee Nanette Tingstad

Wedding vows were exchanged October 24 in Hope Lutheran Church, Tacoma, Washington, by Miss Nanette Jean Tingstad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Norman Tingstad and Joseph Michael DeLuca, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank DeLuca of 39 Memphis Avenue, Belleville.

A reception was held in Polish Hall, Tacoma.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk chiffon featuring a mock bolero bodice of peau d'ange lace. A scalloped edge outlined the high neckline and bell shaped sleeves and double layers of chiffon fashioned the A-line skirt and sweeping wateau train.

A cluster of jeweled flowers formed the headpiece of her full length veil of silk illusion and she carried a long cascade of Jack Frost roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Michael Edwards of Estacada, Oregon, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. John Dammeier of Tacoma, and Mrs. David Morse of Seattle, Washington.

They were attired in moss green silk worsted jumpers over eggshell crepe blouses with wide Peter Pan collars and long bloused sleeves. They wore bands of yellow garland roses in their hair and carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Mr. Morse was best man and Mr. Edwards and Mrs. Dammeier ushered.

Mrs. Tingstad chose a beige crepe gown with mink cuffs. Her corsage was of yellow roses. The groom's mother was in a hot pink silk worsted gown embroidered with crystal and pearls. Her corsage was of white roses.

Mrs. DeLuca, attended Olympic Community College, Tacoma Community College and Bates Vocational Technical Institute, Tacoma.

Mr. DeLuca, a graduate of Belleville High School, Mannes School of Music and Manhattan School of Music, is now studying with Walter Rosenberger of the New York Philharmonic. He is an Army veteran, a professional musician in New York and New Jersey and teaches at St. Joseph's School, Paterson. The couple have made their home in Belleville.

Two Local Girls College Freshmen

Two area residents were invested as freshmen at Caldwell College on Sunday November 15. Among the 201 in the class, local students included Miss Joann Caltagirone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caltagirone of 193 Franklin Avenue and Miss Maria Stefanelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stefanelli of 49 Carmer Avenue all of Belleville.

Mrs. Friel Jr., a graduate of

Mrs. William Friel Jr. - nee Patti Bush

Patti Lynn Bush November Bride

St. Peter's Church was the setting November 21 for the marriage of Miss Patti Lynn Bush, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Scovil of Bloomfield to William Joseph Friel Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Friel Sr. of 208 Stephens Street.

The Rev. Richard Groncki performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Robin Hood Inn, Clifton.

Escorted by her uncle, the bride wore a white satin gown with a lace bodice and Victorian collar. Her three tier veil was held by a matching cap accented with pearls and she carried a cascade of white glamelias.

Mrs. Andrea Hadley of Madison was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Beretos and Miss Jayne Osborne of Belleville, Miss Lyn D'Alessio of Bloomfield and Miss Judith Fasone of Newark.

Their gowns were of deep purple velvet with Victorian collars. They wore purple velvet bows in their hair and carried vertical crescents of glamelias.

Bruce Stano of Colonia was best man. Ushers were John Garone of Montclair, Thomas Watkins of West Orange, Peter Butler of Verona and Victor DeSalvo of Newark.

The bride's mother wore a pink dress with crystal trim and silver accessories and Mrs. Scovil chose a silver dress with silver accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a gold brocade dress accented with ostrich feathers. Corsages were white orchids.

Mrs. Friel Jr., a graduate of Bloomfield High School and Newark State College, is a teacher in Belleville.

Mr. Friel Jr., an alumnus of Belleville High School and Fort Lauderdale (Florida) University, is an accountant with Supermarkets General, Woodbridge.

The couple will live in Belleville following a honeymoon in Puerto Rico.

Labor And Industry Head Reports Award Applications

Charles Serrano, Commissioner of the N.J. Department of Labor and Industry, announced today that over 50 nominations have been received for the 1970 Annual Labor and Industry Awards which will honor the individual labor official.

Amadeo-Clemente Nuptials Performed In Holy Family

Miss Francine Clemente, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Clemente of Iselin and Ronald Amadeo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Amadeo of 17 Harvard Place, Belleville, were married November 15 in Holy Family Church, Nutley.

The Rev. Michael Saltarelli performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Wayne Manor, Wayne.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a candlelight satin pea gown with a bodice of English net applied with beaded Alencon lace. The gown featured a sculptured bodice and detachable train.

A headpiece of matching beaded lace held her cathedral length veil.

Mrs. James Raslowsky of Perth Amboy was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included the bride's cousins, Mrs. Sal Broccoli of Belleville and Miss Debbie Michele of Union, Mrs. Patrick Ritacco of Nutley and Mrs. Anthony DeCristofaro of Scotch Plains.

They were attired in gowns fashioned with moss green velvet bodices and off white jersey skirts. Headpieces were moss green velvet hats with veils. The honor attendant carried yellow mums with bronze daisies and multi colored wheat and the others had bouquets of multi colored flowers and wheat.

Daniel Amadeo of Belleville was his brother's best man.

Ushers included Frank Cocchiola, Thomas Restaino, Joseph and Patrick Ritacco, Frank Ritchelli and Anthony Pietoso, all of Nutley.

Mrs. Clemente chose a toast colored gown with gold beading. Her accessories were toast and her corsage was a white orchid edged in brown. The groom's mother was in a mint green coat and gown with beading on the bodice of the dress. Her orchid corsage was edged in green.

Mrs. Amadeo, a graduate of Woodbridge High School and Berkeley Secretarial School, is a secretary in the chemical engineering department of

Drug Abuse News No. 12

"MAINLINING" - THE QUICKEST ROUTE TO THE END.

Drug abusers are noted for their curiosity. Right now, according to reliable statistics, hundreds of thousands of teenagers and even grammar school students are experimenting with dangerous illicit drugs.

The more sophisticated, influenced by unscrupulous "drug pushers," are being told to speed up the drug effects by "mainlining," which is the injection of forbidden drugs directly into the veins.

Because of lack of precautions for the proper sterilization of the medicine droppers, hypodermic needles and other crude methods used, "mainliners" are suffering hepatitis, septicemia, tetanus and acute endocarditis. Any of these can be deadly.

The next issue of Drug Abuse News will discuss our conclusions about Drug Abuse and reasons why experimenters with illicit drugs are most unwise.

JUST BRUSHING IS NOT ENOUGH
It stands to reason that if a foundation is not secure then what is built upon it could have future troubles. So it is with dental health and hygiene. You must have healthy gums to have good teeth.
Even frequent brushing of your teeth is not enough if it is done incorrectly. A good brushing should take around three minutes with a good part of this devoted to the gums. Your dentist will explain to you the best method and equipment to use. We have all the products that he will recommend in our complete dental care section. Let your dentist check your gums.

Thomas Jefferson once stood near the spot where the Shenandoah River converges with the Potomac as Harper's Ferry, and was so struck with the beauty of the scene that he could say that it alone was "worth a trip across the Atlantic." But the same is true of much of West Virginia, a land of rugged beauty made accessible to you by excellent hard-surfaced highways, even in the mountains. From the historic Harper's Ferry to the aristocratic and stately homes of the eastern panhandle, West Virginia is a land of historic interest and scenic opportunity. Why not stop for awhile at the Greenbrier Resort at White Sulphur Springs? Presidents have gathered there; and royalty. A further attraction? Golfer Sam Snead is the resort's resident pro, presiding over 518-hole golf courses which are open to the public.

JHS Sends Up Valuable Grid Material

Belleville Junior High School will be sending up some pretty potent material to the Senior High next September for the grid season.

Joe Mozeika and Joe Cerza are the most valuable assets developed by freshman coaches John Seneski and George Zanfini. These two, co-captains of the frosh team, were classified as the "most advanced" players on the team.

Mozeika is the frosh halfback, and does most of the ball-carrying for the team. This season he's scored at least seven touch-downs. Mozeika isn't big, but judging by his speed and moves, Assistant Coach Zanfini noted "Mozeika is very similar to Ricky Caruso."

Cerza serves the team both ways, offensively at the center position, and defensively as a linebacker. Cerza was praised by Zanfini for his performance on stuns and blitzes.

The most versatile performer of the frosh squad this year was Joe Cancelliere. His versatility was proved defensive safety as well, catching on quickly to each position.

Zanfini pointed out that the 4-2-1 team didn't have too much power, but depended on a team effort to win ballgames. Blocking on the line was due mostly to the efforts of Cerza, Joe LaValle, Mike Azzato, and Joe Vazquez, while Bill Tedesco at OB, and Clark Sutton at offensive end provided the aerial combination that balanced the running attack centered around Mozeika. Sutton combined with Victor Greico as defensive ends.

Coach Seneski prepared the team for Saturday's match with the sophs, commended the team for great improvement as the season progressed. As a matter of fact, he said "they showed the biggest improvement of any team in the four years that I've been an assistant coach." Then he added, "The first two teams started out good, how could you improve on that? This year, we started out so bad, I wanted to find a hole, and crawl in." (The first two of the teams that Zanfini was with went undefeated and now make up almost the entire varsity squad.)

This year's frosh team started off with a 24-0 trouncing at the hands of Essex Catholic, only ten days after the team got its equipment.

Lose To Nutley In Second Tilt

The second game was a 14-0 loss to Nutley two weeks later. "We had a two week break and had a great many things to be corrected," described Zanfini, "so we took them one at a time."

A week later the team tied Orange 12-12, and evidently found the things that needed correction as they beat Irvington 16-12, Montclair 20-12, Saint Benedicts 22-12, and Kearny 28-8, in the four successive weeks that followed.

The Montclair victory was considered the "most satisfying" by a general consensus of the team. "We could have run up a score of about 35-0 or 40-0 if we wanted, but they were playing good ball, so we played everybody on the team," commented Zanfini.

The biggest thrills of the game came on back-to-back offensive and defensive performances. The defense stopped Montclair on Belleville's one yard line, and then drove 99 yards in 14 plays, mostly on runs by Mozeika and passes by Telesco.

This year it wasn't too hard for the coaches to get to play everyone on the squad.

In the past three or four years, there always have been 50 or 55 players out for the team, but this year only 35 or 40 showed up for the first practices.

This smaller number let the coaches concentrate a greater part of their time on specific needs of the team, and this seemed to pay off not only in the won-loss column, but also in the team's conditioning for the games.

Good Conditioning Was The Key

Good conditioning was cited as a major factor for there being no major injuries. The players suffered a few of the regular minor bruises and scrapes that come with the game, but the coaches consider themselves to be "very lucky" that they had no serious injuries. Lady Luck may have had her hand in there, but five laps a day, and sprints once a week do no harm.

Zanfini summed up the squad as "a team that came a long way, practically out of nowhere. Against Essex Catholic we just gave them what they needed to survive, and then built on from there." The Social Studies teacher then observed that it was the willingness and quickness on the part of everyone involved, including manager Angelo Cecere, that gave the frosh their fine season after opening with the two losses.

Times-News Item Stirs Comments On Little League

An article about BHS grid star John Atherton in last week's Times-News elicited some interesting comments from Belleville's Recreation Superintendent, Bob Cook.

In that article, the Times commented it was ironic that Atherton had been too big to play Little League football, and that he almost failed to play the varsity sport as a result. Also in that article, the Times stated three members of the current varsity had experienced similar difficulties. Those three were co-captain Mike Albertine, and Rich Della Terza and Joe Valvano.

According to Cook, however, both Valvano and Albertine did play Little League football. Cook's records show Valvano played in the middleweight division in 1963 and for the heavy weights in 1964-65-66. Albertine played in 1965 and 1966.

Atherton and Bellboy lineman Rich Della Terza did not, however, make the weight limit. The Times has not made a complete survey of the varsity, so the exact number of players turned away is undetermined.

Cook did say, however, that he estimates "only about a dozen" players in the past 16 years of his tenure have been turned away.

The recreation superintendent says the League currently set a maximum weight limit at 145 pounds and a minimum of 70 pounds, covering boys ages ten through 13 years. The old maximum was 140 pounds, and was in effect when Atherton and Della Terza were eligible to play.

Cook told the Times the weight limit imposed for the protection of league youngsters. The recreation superintendent said the youngster over 145 pounds is "like a giant, he can wreck every boy in the league. I think it is time that society mature to the point where it realizes that no community can meet every recreation desire of its residents without sacrificing the safety factor at some point."

"The first consideration," Cook went on, "has to be the safety of the boys, otherwise it would be better to leave them on the sandlots."

The league program is divided into three weight divisions; the heavyweight, the middleweight and the lightweight. There are no firm weight and age limits for each division, but Cook uses a numerical rating system based on age and weight which he feels equalizes possible inequalities and provides the maximum safety for youngsters.

This year, the heavyweight range wound up with the lightest youngster at 94 pounds and the heaviest at

Both Teams Win As Frosh-Sophs Finish With A Weird Fourth Quarter

Two Sets of Referees Needed To End Game

By John McCarthy

It isn't too often that both teams win a football game, but in Saturday's Annual Sophomore-Freshman Game both teams were told they won, and the real victor depends on which set of referees you believe and which team you ask.

If you ask the sophs, they tell you they won, and they have a right to. They outscored the frosh 12-8 but if you ask the frosh they might give you a different story.

The frosh can tell you that according to the referees appointed to work the game, they won by a forfeit.

The reason for these differing views is that there were two teams and two sets of refs.

The appointed refs worked three and a half quarters, until Soph Coach Nick Grande took his team off the field because he differed with not just a few of the penalty calls, but with the majority of them.

The two refs waited for the sophs to come back on the field, but they didn't, so they called the game a forfeit. Then head Bellboy football Coach Rocco Cafone went into action.

Cafone evidently didn't want to see the game called just because of a minor squabble there's more in it for the coach than just who wins. This is the first contest where the frosh face a team older and more experienced. It's also a nice chance to look at the undergraduates who will be on next year's team.

So Cafone called his assistant coaches together, and they decided that the game would be finished. The coaches, Vinny Harris, Jim Steele, Warren Ceres, went out and ran the game.

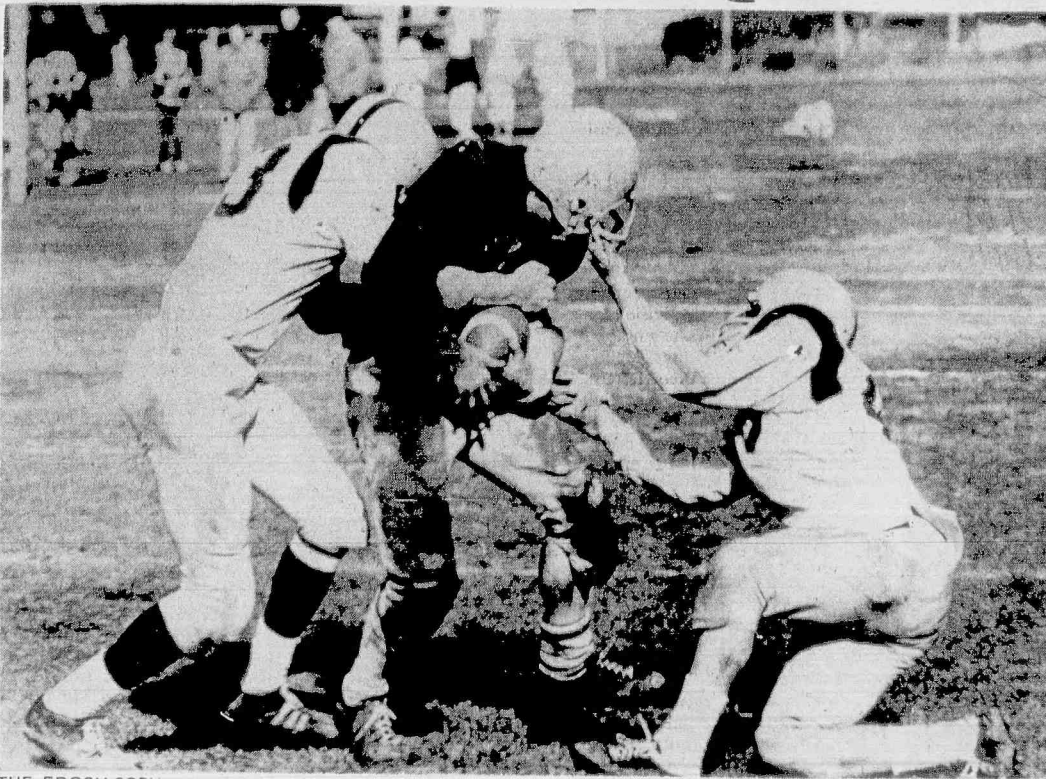

In the final half of the last quarter, the frosh scored their first TD, but the sophs held the ball until time ran out after that.

The sophs opened the game with a quick 12-0 lead. Phil Cuzzi scored the first touchdown on a 30-yard run, and followed that with a five yard dive for the second score. The sophs had moved downfield mostly on passes from Rich Cupparo, and penalties against the sophs.

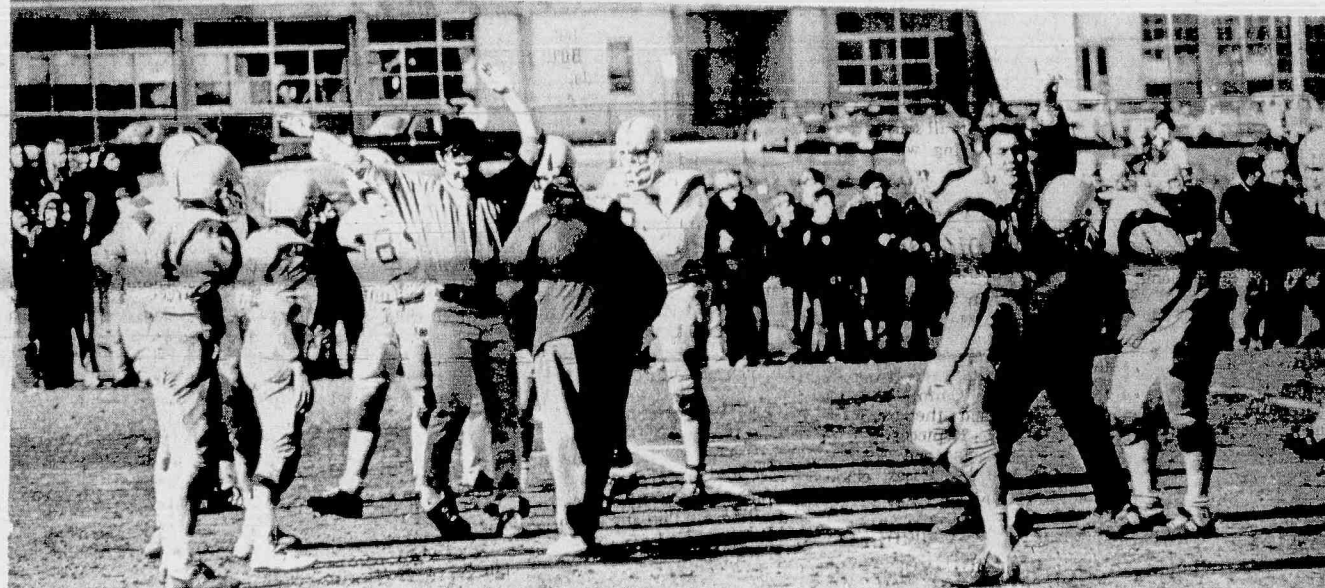

One frosh drive was stopped by a determined soph line near their own goal, but the frosh scored anyhow.

Joe Mozeika made a

THE FROSH-SOPH game Saturday was marred by numerous arguments about penalties calls. This play was called for a face-mask penalty, and drew arguments from the soph coaches. Judge for yourself. Shown is frosh Bill Tedesco with ball, and Bod D'Lorenzo (left) and Jay D'Amico of sophs.

Record Cage Turnout

Belleville High School basketball practice began with a record turnout of boys last week, and if enthusiasm and support are any indication of things to come, local fans may be in for a treat.

Bellboy basketball, once the talk of Essex County under Herman Wische in the late forties and early fifties, has lost a great deal of its class the past few seasons, and with it, alot of fan support.

Last season, Wische, who is Belleville High School Athletic Director, found himself forced to resume the head coaching spot when former head coach Paul Szem resigned just weeks before the season began. Unfamiliar with the players, and concerned for their apparent ineptitude in fundamentals, "Jitty" Wische spent a frustrating year at the helm of a team which just couldn't get things together, and wound up with his first losing season as a coach.

Now Jitty has returned to his administrative duties, and has replaced himself with a young coach, whose enthusiasm for the sport and for fundamentals has shades of the style Jitty was known for during his coaching days.

The new man is Bob Palmer, a 24-year old Newark State College graduate noted for his defensive skills.

This season's record turnout was no accident. Palmer has been talking basketball ever since he came to the school in September, and apparently his enthusiasm has rubbed off on the boys.

Palmer's commitment to Bellboy basketball appears to be a complete thing. The young coach has started a basketball clinic for youngsters in town, which will coordinate with the Recreation Department's Saturday morning leagues. In this way, Palmer hopes to have boys entering the tenth grade already accomplished

Finish With 2-12 Mark

Harriers' Experience Should Pay Off For BHS Track Team

Belleville's Cross-Country team gained valuable experience this year en route to a 2-12 dual record and 13-48 record including competition at Invitational meets, that promises to pay off when the track season rolls around.

Normally the field men contribute most of the points at track meets, but added depth and improved performances could put the distance runners back into the scoring lead they had six years ago.

The harriers had 11 runners on the squad this year which is an improvement on the seven that coach Ray Haneke has had in his other two seasons at Belleville High.

Top runner this year was John McCarthy who scored in the top ten places of every race this season and took four first places. McCarthy's fastest time of the year was 13:13 on Newark's Branch Brook Park Course in the Big Ten race.

The only returning letterman, McCarthy was 29 at the Big Ten and led the team to an eighth place finish. The senior slowed the next time he ran the course at the Essex County Invationals but with number two man Lou Dalcero finishing right behind McCarthy, the team placed 15 of 23.

Dalcero was the number one distance runner on last year's track team as he frequently took first place, and managed to break a five minute mile, the only member of the squad to do so.

As a harrier instead of a cinderman, Dalcero showed remarkable consistency, finishing the first few cross-country races between 14:30-15:00, and then moving down to the 13:40's where he stayed for the rest of the season.

Dalcero's best time of the season came at Belleville's home course against East Orange. Dalcero placed seventh with 13:35, but the team lost. He placed first on the team once against Barringer at four position in the race, and finished second twice in dual meets.

Dalcero's second place finishes came during the teams two dual victories. Both seconds, (South Side 13:36; West Orange 14:49) saw the senior 17 seconds behind McCarthy, who was first both times.

Dalcero and McCarthy both were clocked at 5:12 miles during races this season, and judging from the difference between hills and a flat track, and asphalt or grass and cinders, the 5:00 mile should fall early this track season for Dalcero. McCarthy ran the 880 last season and was injured after turning in a 2:17, which also could be bettered this year. Both runners have been out for cross-country three years.

Ray Horman was the team's number three man. Ray's best time of the season also came against East Orange, when he placed ninth with 13:59.5. His highest position in the season was six, which he took against Barringer and West Orange. Against Barringer, Horman finished second on the team behind Dalcero. Ray ran the mile and the two mile on track last year, and also did the high jump. His best time for the two mile was 11:43, and he ran it only three times. This year Ray will do better than that since his 13:59.5 was for an almost exact 2.5 mile course.

A number of times Ray has faced stiff competition from the fourth senior on the squad, Bob Silver. Silver beat Ray four time in 14 races, and also beat Ray in two of Ray's three times that he entered the two mile.

Silver's top time was against Mountain High School when he just missed scoring in the top ten. Silver placed 11 that race with 14:12 on Belleville's home course. Silver is another runner that developed this season. Bob was out for track last spring as his first varsity sport, and often scored. As a senior Bob went out for cross-country for the first time and finished fourth in the sixth cross-country race of his career, at West Orange, one of Belleville's victories.

Recreation Basketball League Jumps Off To A Fast Start

In the opening of the 1970-71 Recreation Mens Basketball League the Zig Zags got behind Liloia, O'Conner and Laird, each of whom poured in eighteen points, to take the Del Gees 92-49.

Everyman on Zig Zags hit the score book in a runaway game. Nick DelGuercio with 13 points led the Del Gees in a game but vain effort. However, past history of this League has shown that no conclusions can be drawn from first games.

Although the Zig Zags clearly demonstrated that they will be tough all season it is certain that the other teams will beef up and make a contest of every game.

Both the Robsons and the Gardens were suffering for depth in their meeting. Robsons prevailed via 61-46. It was G. Davitt with 23 points who paced this win and posted the high individual performance of the evening. Both teams were short several of their regulars and will be better prepared in next weeks games.

It was the Kings Court 64 to the Sons 52 in the third game of the evening. The Kings grabbed the lead 13-8 in the first quarter and never relinquished it. In the third period the Sons scored 13 to the Kings 14 as they made a valiant attempt to close the gap. This game was tough all the way with the Kings steadily grinding out points and slowly building their lead. The Kings led by five points at the quarter, eight points at the half, nine points at the third quarter and twelve at the games end.

behind Dalcero.

Ray ran the mile and the two mile on track last year, and also did the high jump. His best time for the two mile was 11:43, and he ran it only three times. This year Ray will do better than that since his 13:59.5 was for an almost exact 2.5 mile course.

A number of times Ray has faced stiff competition from the fourth senior on the squad, Bob Silver. Silver beat Ray four time in 14 races, and also beat Ray in two of Ray's three times that he entered the two mile.

Silver's top time was against Mountain High School when he just missed scoring in the top ten. Silver placed 11 that race with 14:12 on Belleville's home course.

Silver is another runner that developed this season. Bob was out for track last spring as his first varsity sport, and often scored. As a senior Bob went out for cross-country for the first time and finished fourth in the sixth cross-country race of his career, at West Orange, one of Belleville's victories.

Rich Sulenski was Belleville's number five man, and the number one junior on the team. Sulenski, also a wrestler and track runner, ran 14:27 for 13th place against E.O., his best time of the season. Rich will add depth to any distance event he enters, something necessary

Frosh-Sophs Split Contest During Freak Final Quarter

The final freshman touchdown came with help from the original refs. The sophomore defensive linemen were doing a good job of getting through the Frosh line, even when the frosh tried to use a shotgun hike, but offensively the sophs kept moving before the ball was hiked, and the refs continually hit the sophs with penalties for drawing the Junior High team offside.

The dispute over the penalties continued for about ten plays, and after the refs were changed, the frosh scored on a five yard pass from Bill Tedesco to Mozeika.

At one point, comments arose about the possibility of not having a sophomore-freshman game because the players take it too seriously and don't treat it as an intra-squad scrimmage. But it probably will be played with a little less emphasis on the rivalry, since it won't involve the same two squads.

STAINED WITH MUD, Bellboy frosh co-captain Joe Mozeika hauls in a pass from Joe Cancelliere and takes it to the sophomore 19 yard line in intra-squad tilt Saturday. Pass was good for 42 yards.

Palmer Sparks Cage Enthusiasm As Bellboys Begin New Season

When Palmer opened the gym doors last week, he was nearly overwhelmed with a record turnout of 62 youngsters, which doesn't include football players who are completing their season this week.

Palmer knows he has a rebuilding job to do, and finds himself with one eye on this season and the other on developing the talent in the lower grades.

For one thing, Palmer hopes to expand the sophomore team schedule to 12 games as opposed to the six-game season the squad played last year. Working as JV and assistant varsity coach will be Jay Gavitt. A sophomore coach is undetermined at this time, but John Sencer, a new coach, will take over the frosh.

The key to this season's fortunes might lie with the strength of the Bellboy defense, Palmer says. "I would like to emphasize defense more than in the past," Palmer told the Times. "We are going to pressure people more; we're not going to wait for them to come to us, we'll pick them up at half court."

"I feel the boys are lacking in fundamentals," Palmer continued. "But there definitely is excellent potential and attitudes here. All the varsity spots are wide open and the kids know it."

Palmer played his school ball at Archbishop Walsh High School in Irvington, and continued his career at Newark State College.

Coach Enters Seventh Year

Wrestling Experience, Talent Could Give Silvestri A Winner

This could be the year for Jim Silvestri.

The Bellboy head wrestling coach has been flirting with the .500 mark ever since taking over the reins six years ago, and this season just might go over the mark and onto the winning side of the ledger.

Silvestri, a popular coach, finds himself beginning his seventh year in the coaching ranks with a team heavily-laden with experience and talent, one which has the earmarks of a top-flight competitive club.

Silvestri isn't speculating too much, however, at least not publicly. For the record, the coach says the team "looks like one of the best I've had," but was hesitant about making any predictions.

The coach has never had a season worse than 5-7, and has had two teams finishing at 5-6 and 6-7. Last year Silvestri had a very young ballclub, lead by captain and former district champ Jessie Towns, but injuries to several key players handicapped the campaign and the squad wound up at 6-7.

This year Silvestri has a hard core of veterans, led by senior captain Carmen Russomano (168-pounds), senior John Atherton (heavyweight) and juniors John Mustacchio (115) and Vito Marcogliese (130). Gone from last year's squad are Sal Bivona at 178 and Kevin Sutton at 98 pounds. Tom Jones appears ready for Bivona's spot after a 9-0 JV campaign, while Sutton's job apparently is up for grabs.

The squad began workouts last Monday in the wrestling room, temperature of 80 degrees with sweatsuits. Several of the squad members are missing, however, because of football season, but are expected to report this week. Thirty-two candidates turned out for the sport, with Silvestri anticipating another 25 from the grid ranks.

The season will get underway December 28 when the Bellboys enter the Christmas Tournament at Bloomfield High School. The first dual meet opponent this year is Passaic on January 4. The Passaic squad will take the place of Parsippany-Hills on the schedule, and promises to be a formidable opponent.

Silvestri is a rarity in one sense as a wrestling coach on the high school level. The grappling mentor never played the sport in either high school or college. He was a football guard on the same team at Kearny High School as Alex Webster, head coach for the New York Giants. From there he went to Fairleigh Dickinson and played a year of semi-pro ball after competing in the service.

Seven years ago Silvestri took over as assistant wrestling coach at BHS under former-mentor Sam Stellatella. Silvestri picked up most of his knowledge of the sport from the kids with whom he spent many a rough struggle on the mat and from clinics. Today, Silvestri says he's "too old," to really angle hard with the kids, but finds enough energy to wrestle often. The coach teaches math at the senior-high schools.

This year's assistant coach is Anthony Sorrentino, the first former-Bellboy grappler to become a coach. The assistant wrestled on the Bellboy mats in 1963-64 and went on to Trenton State where a chest injury sidelined him for his career. He did, however, become captain of the Trenton State College football team, and now is a coach with the BHS grid team.

This season will also mark the first time the District Championships will be played at Belleville High—sometime in March. Also a first is a new, regulation-size mat at the school.

State Bar Association Votes To Maintain Juries

The Trustees of the New Jersey State Bar Association have affirmed their support for the jury system in settling automobile liability cases, and called on judges to refrain from public comment on "no fault" plans until the completion of current studies by a State Commission. Association President Daniel L. Golden made the announcement in Trenton Thursday.

New Jersey Chief Justice Joseph Weintraub endorsed the "no fault" system in a Newark speech to the New Jersey Press Association on October 29th.

Little League Weight Problem Seen As Very Little By Cook

144 pounds. The middle weights covered a range of 76-117, while the lightweights were 70-86 pounds.

Over 300 youngster turned out for this week's program, Cook reports. By the time the season began, that number had dwindled to 264 after several boys eliminated themselves for one reason or another. In all, 12 teams of 22 boys each were supported by local clubs and businesses in the league. Of the original number 300, Cook said, only one boy at 155 pounds—was turned away. Several below the minimum limit of 70 pounds were also turned down.

"I remember Albertine came in at about 152 pounds," Cook said. "But he made the team by making the most determined effort to lose weight I've ever seen. This year a 149 pounder was held from competition until he could work himself down to 144 pounds. So the story this year is that one boy out of 264 was turned away."

"If I see a boy who is 155 and all blubber," Cook continued, "I encourage him to lose weight; but when I see some kid at about the same weight who is all raw, lean, muscle, I have to ask my conscience if I think it is doing him a disservice to do so. I'm one of those who argue with wrestling coaches who make their boys go down 20 pounds to wrestle."

"No matter what limits you set on anything," Cook concluded, "there will always be one boy just out of limit and I always end up being the bad guy because I don't break the rules."

Upsala Grid Players Set Individual Records

Twelve individual records were broken by Upsala's football team and a 13th was tied during the 1970 season, according to official statistics released today.

Junior Joe Scarpelli of Midland Park accounted for seven records in pass receptions. Senior quarterback John Boatti of North Bergen set four passing records and middle linebacker Dwight Mitchell of Orange set a new record for total tackles in a season.

Scarpelli, who will be honored Thursday night by the New Jersey Touchdown Club as an outstanding collegiate player of the year, added his seventh record in Saturday's 35-7 loss to Albright when he caught nine passes for 127 yards, bringing his season record to 49, eight more than the previous record of 41.

December 4 Date

Varsity Club Dinner Tickets Still Available Says Marotti

Tickets are still available for the Varsity Club banquet, which is scheduled Friday, Dec. 4 at the Robin Hood Inn in Clifton, it was announced this week by chairman Michael Marotti.

Bob Pascal, son of one of the founders of the club, will be guest speaker at the annual affair for the football team.

Chairman Marotti also hopes to have last year's MVP award winner-Joe Ritacco—on hand to discuss his first campaign as a Boston College griddier.

This year's banquet will also bring together the members of the 1946 Belleville High School grid team, which was coached by the late Bill Chapman.

The traditional chicken dinner is listed as the meal, and a capacity crowd is expected for the function. The club also plans a dinner in the spring for all seniors involved in athletics or half-time activities.

Football Has Last Fling As Season Nears End

BHS TWIRLERS were among the more attractive elements of this year's grid campaign at Belleville High School. The girls, led by captain Jayme Freedman, were among the best in the state.

BELLBOY CHEERLEADERS were one of the behind-the-scenes people responsible for the fine grid campaign this fall at Belleville High. Here they cheer the team on against West Orange.

MARK CERVASIO, who sparked the Belleville High sophomores all season, grabs a 60 yard TD pass from Rich Cuppard, only to have it called back on a penalty. Pursuing him are Belleville freshmen Neil Simeone (25), Dave Knott (20) and Joe Troise (18), during frosh-soph tilt Saturday.

to win a track meet. The junior's best position was eighth against South Side with a time of 14:59.

More depth will come from the number two junior, Mark Williams. Mark was consistently behind Sulenski in every race after the first three, and managed to beat Sulenski in two races. Against South Side Mark was six with 14:44, and at Nutley Mark was eighth with 14:30, while Sulenski was ninth with 14:31. Nutley was the race where Belleville could have won but took 1:49 because Dalcero, Horman, and Silver didn't run because they missed a practice. McCarthy was first in that race with his second fastest time, 13:14.

Bob Brown was the number seven man on the varsity squad. Normally seventh is the cut-off point if a school has both varsity and JV clubs, but with only eleven runners, all men run varsity even if they don't make the top seven.

Bob is the first sophomore in memory at Belleville High ever to get a chance to run in three invitational meets. He ran in the Big Ten, Essex County, and the Sectionals, which is an honor for a soph. His fastest race of the season was the Big Ten where he took 67, with 15:30.

Rocco Cuozzo was number eight man, but also got a chance to run in an invitational, as the soph filled in for Williams. Rocco's fastest race was against Mountain High School, 15:58, when he took 20 place.

Bob Drake was number nine man. The 6'2" junior also ran his fastest race against Mountain, 17:11 for 22. Bob ran Cross-Country last year, and could learn to run well. Ed Mazza and Gary DiGiacomo were number 10 and 11. Both seniors were out for the spot for their first year.

Can our sleeping brain absorb information from a recorded message? Is it possible to change a habit or an entire personality? Sleep was once believed to be a state of psychological inactivity, broken only by an occasional dream. Today we know differently. Instead of being a state of unconsciousness, sleep is a state of altered consciousness. The dream is not a disruptive freak in a good night's sleep. We all dream regularly every night, and moreover, dreaming is absolutely essential to our physical and mental well-being. Is it possible to learn while we sleep? It is believed that the sleeping brain is active and that the sleeper can receive messages from the outside world. This is the method of "sleep learning."

To Canal Zone

U.S. Army Specialist Fourth Class Robert W. Moore, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Moore, 1 Elena Place, Belleville, was recently assigned to the Panama Canal Zone.

Serving as a clerk with the Message Center, U.S. Army School of the Americas, Specialist Moore arrived here following training at the Defense Language Institute East Coast Branch, Washington, D.C.

The U.S. Army School of the Americas specializes in teaching U.S. Army skills and techniques to Latin American officers, cadets, and enlisted personnel.

Selective Service Answers Queries

Colonel Joseph T. Avella, state director of Selective Service has prepared the following series of questions frequently asked of the Selective Service System, along with the appropriate answers. We present them for your information.

Q: Can anyone other than a registrant appeal a local board classification?

A: Yes. The following persons may appeal a registrant's classification: Any person who claims to be a dependent of the registrant; any person who had filed a written request for the registrant's occupational deferment prior to his original classification; the government appeal agent; the state director of Selective Service; the director of Selective Service and, of course, the registrant himself.

Q: I will complete my tool and die maker's apprenticeship in three months. Will my Class II-A deferment continue when I work as a journeyman?

A: Your present II-A deferment must terminate when you complete the apprenticeship training. Your new classification by the local board will be based upon the circumstances and facts as they exist at that time.

Q: I enlisted in the National Guard on my 18th birthday. That was two months ago. I was under the impression that members of the guard and reserve did not have to register for the draft. Is this true? If not, what should I do?

A: Members of the reserve components of the Armed Forces, Coast Guard and Public Health Service while on ACTIVE DUTY are not subject to registration. Since you are not on active duty, you are in effect delinquent for not registering with Selective Service.

Beck's Column

Last week a customer came to our store and wanted to buy a new color TV set, but he wanted only a SENTINAL.

It turned out that this customer had bought a Sentinal black and white TV from us 19 years ago. His expense was less than $50, - for tubes which he replaced himself. The picture tube was still the original one and the set is still operating.

The Sentinal Corporation was bought up by Magnavox many years ago and the name disappeared. We regretted this very much.

because the Sentinal TV was by far the best TV set ever built. Everyone of our customers who bought them, will agree with us. We made more friends with Sentinal TV than with any other brand we ever sold. The design was years ahead and the construction as solid as can be. The station selector at that time already did not need any fine tuner adjustment. The contracts were designed in such a manner that they cleaned themselves every time the station was changed.

We would have been glad to sell the customer such a fine product again after so many years, but we did not have it and he had to settle for the next best, a Magnavox.

We service what we sell. Beck's Radio TV Hi Fi Nutley 667-4225

Mrs. M. Renna; Born In Italy

Mrs. Carmela Renna of 20 Belmont Avenue, Belleville, died Thursday, November 19, in Clara Maass Hospital, Belleville. She was 71.

Born in Naples, Italy, Mrs. Renna lived in Belleville for 55 years. She was a member of St. Anthony's Church and a member of the San Sebastiano Women's Society of St. Lucy's Church, Newark.

She is survived by her husband, Modestino Renna; two daughters. Mrs. Rose Favorito of Ridgefield and Mrs. Theresa Iacullo of Bloomfield; six sons, Joseph, Angelo, Morris, Anthony and Sebastiano of Belleville; two brothers, Sebastiano Papa of Belleville and Frank Papa of Newark, eight grandchildren and eight-grandchildren.

Services were from the Charles J. Rolando and Sons Home, Newark. A High Requiem Mass followed at 9:30 a.m. in St. Anthony's Church, Belleville.

Walter Kidde Gets Company For Services

The creation of a new subsidiary, Kidde Computer Services Corporation, was announced by Walter Kidde & Company, Inc. Winner F. Delp, a vice president of the parent company, will head the new subsidiary.

Under Delp, the computer services corporation will have responsibility for the planning and implementation of a computerized management information system and centralized data processing center for the parent corporation. Ultimately, said Delp, the subsidiary may also sell computer software services to outside companies as well.

Early phases of systems planning and programming have been completed and the system is in operation for several facilities, Delp said. It eventually will link all Kidde manufacturing plants and facilities into a daily information system, he said, providing corporate headquarters with up-to-date data which will enable the company to pinpoint at an early stage any significant upward or downward deviation from sales and income forecasts.

The program also will supply day-to-day information on companywide cash flow, backlogs and inventories, for improved centralized control of all Kidde manufacturing and service operations. Provision is being made for future expansion, Delp said, and the system will have built-in capacity for a corporation "several times Kidde's present size."

A diversified manufacturing company, Kidde operates more than 130 manufacturing plants and other facilities, including testing laboratories and extended medical care centers.

Company Executive Addresses Meeting

Walter E. Morgan Jr., vice president of Walter Kidde and Company, Inc., 675 Main Street, Belleville, was among featured speakers and panelists at the 1970 Fall Conference of the National Fire Protection Association. Fire safety experts attended sessions at the Sheraton-Nashville Motor Hotel in Nashville, Tenn., November 17 to 19.

Morgan was one of three experts participating in a discussion entitled "Covincing Consumers to Install Automated Fire Protection."

Local Optometrist Attends Seminar

Dr. Michael Roachvarg of Belleville attended the Sixth Annual Contact Lens Seminar of the New Jersey Optometric Association held on October 25 at Fairleigh-Dickinson University, Teaneck.

Over 170 optometrists representing several Mid-Atlantic states attended the all-day program.

DeWitt Officers Hear Proposed Lending Law

Two officers of DeWitt Savings and Loan Association attending the National Convention of the United States Savings and Loan League heard proposals for substantially liberalizing lending and branching by Savings and Loan Associations.

John P. Dailey, DeWitt chairman, and Robert M. Williams, DeWitt president, are attending the Convention in San Francisco.

Williams said, "The proposal to operate in wider geographic areas has the objective of increasing capital flow. Among the proposals for easing lending and branching restrictions is a plan raising to 10 percent from 5 percent the portion of the assets a Savings and Loan may lend on a nationwide basis, or outside a 100-mile radius from the home office."

Williams continued, "Broadening of the national lending powers will facilitate the movement of badly needed mortgage funds from capital surplus areas to capital shortage areas."

Dailey and Williams also attended sessions on national housing and internal control.

Planning Association Set For Student Conference

The second annual planning conference for high school and college students sponsored by The Planning Association of North Jersey will be held Saturday, December 5 at the Rutherford Campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Belleville on Tuesday, November 10 with the Rev. Fred Long from the Christ Episcopal Church the officiating clergyman.

Interment followed at the Glendale Cemetery in Bloomfield.

Meteorologist Declares October Was Warmer

"Much warmer than normal" is how Harold Duflocq, meteorologist at the U.S. Cooperative Weather Station at Union College, describes the month of October.

Duflocq, in his monthly meteorological summary to the National Weather Service, formerly the U.S. Weather Department, notes that three October days - the 3rd, 7th, and 8th - had maximum temperatures of 80 degrees or more. The highest daily average was 69 degrees on the 14th, while the lowest daily average - 43 degrees - occurred on the 17th and 29th. On the 29th also, Duflocq reports the thermometer dropped to a minimum of 28 degrees.

For the entire month, the average temperature was 57.5 degrees which is 2.4 degrees above normal.

No Mail Thursday

The Newark Post Office and its affiliated stations and branches in Belleville, Nutley and Irvington, will close on Thanksgiving Day, this Thursday, announced Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci. There will be no window or delivery services, but special delivery mail will be available as usual. Mail will be picked up from collection boxes on holiday schedules and the lobby of the main office in Newark will remain open for access to lock boxes and stamp dispensing machines.

Post Office Is Geared For Holidays

The Newark area U.S. Post Office this week begins its annual "shop and mail early" Christmas campaign, to assure timely delivery of gifts and greetings.

Joseph J. Benucci, postmaster, asked citizens to mail before December 15 to assure prompt delivery before Christmas.

The postmaster offered several tips for seasonal mailing:

Check mailing lists and have complete names and addresses, city, state and zip code number. For gifts and parcels, use heavy wrapping paper, sturdy cartons tied with twine. Avoid waiting in long lines at stamp windows, buy your stamps now.

Buy and use the new six cents pre-cancelled Christmas stamp on all greeting cards, now on sale at the Newark Post Office and its stations and branches.

"It will speed delivery, cut operating cost and give you better service," added Benucci.

Also, insure all articles of value and separate and bundle mail for local and out-of-town delivery. Get a free supply of mailing bands at the local post office.

Benucci said that his office is geared to handle the tremendous increase in the volume of mail caused by the Christmas season.

Non-Stop Service To Los Angeles Reinstated Dec. 1

American Airlines will reinstate its daily 5 p.m. non-stop flight from Newark to Los Angeles, starting December 1.

The 707 Astrojet service, recently withdrawn from schedule on a trial basis, is being resumed following a study of customer needs and preferences, according to Thomas Quigg of Nutley, district sales manager.

The late-afternoon departure will put passengers in Los Angeles at 7:40 p.m. Pacific Coast time.

Eastbound, the flight will depart Los Angeles at 8:15 a.m. daily arriving at Newark at 4:02 p.m.

In addition to the evening departure from Newark, American operates a morning non-stop flight from Newark to Los Angeles at 9 o'clock each day. Tickets and reservations on all American flights can be made locally through the airline's agent, Nutley Travel, 386 Franklin Avenue.

Security National Names 7 Advisors

Directors of the Security National Bank, Newark, have selected an advisory board of seven Nutley men to serve on the Nutley branch of Security National Bank.

The announcement was made by Joseph P. Dunn, president and chairman of the board. Selection of the group comes as the bank marked the first anniversary of its Nutley Branch on Harrison Street.

The seven Nutley men selected include Frank Samara as director, others are John Gorman, William Jernick, Jr., Gerard C. Biondi, Thomas J. Viola, and John Rooney.

Joseph S. Dougherty, assistant vice president of Security National reports the seven were selected "because of their contributions, both civic and social, to the community of Nutley."

As the bank celebrated its first anniversary Dougherty also mentioned the firm has enjoyed a great success, and exceeded our expectations. This was our first suburban branch and we were overwhelmed with the response from the people of Nutley.

"I think we filled a dire need for service and one of the most outstanding features is our free personal checking account," Dougherty said.

Security National hopes the local advisory board will enable the bank to be better to fulfill the needs of Nutley residents.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY - Mrs. Diane Mastrandrea, manager of the Nutley branch of Security National Bank, cuts cake marking first anniversary of firm's office here. Joining celebration are members of the Nutley Advisory Board including (l-r) John Kelley, John Rooney, chairman Frank Samara, Jack Gorman, Thomas J. Viola, William Jernick Jr. and Gerard Biondi.

ENTERTAINMENT: Theatre Guild Open House

TO PERFORM — Members of the famous Madrigal Singers, shown above, will perform at the Nutley Museum, 65 Church Street, Thursday evening, December 3. The cappella choral ensemble of twelve mixed voices specializes in chamber music.

Chamber Music Group Sets Concert In Nutley

A concert of Renaissance and Baroque music, sponsored here for the American Association of University Woman, by the famous Madrigal Singers is set for Thursday, December 3, at the Nutley Museum, 65 Church Street.

The Madrigal singers, whose members live in Essex, Morris and Somerset Counties, is a

At St. Mary's Guild Open House Set Next Tuesday

Past, present and prospective members of St. Mary's Theater Guild are invited to an "Open House" next Tuesday, Dec. 1, beginning at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

The evening will mark the beginning of the Guild's search for participants in its spring musical, "Bye, Bye Birdie."

A one-act play will be presented Tuesday along with a demonstration of accomplishment by the new teenage contingent.

Tuesday's Open House invites all former and current members as well as those interested in joining the group.

"The Guild not only is looking for 'hams,' actors, singers and dancers—but also for artists, stagehands, lighting men, make-up specialists, wardrobe attendants, or anyone interested in helping in any endeavor," Frank A. Iberer, president, reports.

Teenagers are also invited to join the new young contingent of the Guild. The teen group meets Tuesday evenings.

select cappella choral ensemble of twelve mixed voices. Members participating in the group include Vivien Cook, Patrick Clynes, Robert Ehrbar, Marguerite Galt, Elizabeth Goucher, Madeline and John Ingram, Helen Neidhart, Katherine Bever, Charlotte Dykema and Peter Dykema.

The December 3 program will include works by Schutz, Bach, Monteverdi, Purcell, Gibbons and Palestrina. The singers perform while seated around a table, using candlelight. This preserves the ancient tradition of madrigal singers and the informal atmosphere best suited to chamber music.

The ensemble was organized in 1945 by Louise

Goucher of Short Hills, who was chairman of the Summit Art Center at that time.

Since then the singers have received recognition in this area for their Christmas and Lenten concerts of sacred motets, carols, and chorales combined with readings telling the spiritual story.

The group gives concerts joined by instruments of the period: the harpsichord, the recorder and strings.

Madeline Ingram will be the featured harpist along with the fine work of Charlotte Dykema on flute and John Cook on recorder. Amy Smith and Virginia Howe are set on the violas; Alfreda Hays on the harpsichord and Elizabeth Dykema on the violoncello.

Opening At Meadowbrook 'Can-Can' To Star Marilyn Maxwell

In keeping with the festive spirit of the pre-Christmas season, the Meadowbrook Theatre Restaurant, Cedar Grove, will present Cole Porter's musical, "Can-Can," beginning Dec. 3. Marilyn Maxwell will star as the jaunty proprietress of a dance hall in the saucy show set in the Gay Paree of 1893.

The plot was imagined by Abe Burrows and the high spirits and lusty life of the Montmartre district have provided endless fun for audiences since its smash success on the Broadway stage in the early fifties.

The musical is full of good Porter tunes — "C'est Magnifique, I Am in Love, I Love Paris, It's All Right With Me, and Allez Vous En. The dancing is always spectacular and exciting, including the folk dance of the Parisian laundresses known as the can-can.

The plot deals with a high-priced judge who is so shocked by the impropriety of the can-can and other dances enjoyed in the Bohemian sectors of the city that he attempts to put a stop to them. After many comical adventures, his attitude changes to sympathy and compassion for simple enjoyments, and, of course, he falls in love with the cabaret queen.

A second love story is of an art critic who falls in love with the dancer attached to a conceited but untalented sculptor, and of the hilarious duel they fight.

The musical will run through December 20.

Essex County Jaycee Pageant This Sunday

Hal Jackson, popular disc jockey in the metropolitan area, will host the ninth annual Essex County Junior Miss Pageant this Sunday, 2:30 p.m., in the Montclair State College auditorium. The program is being handled by the Nutley and Belleville Jaycees.

The famed master of ceremonies and producer has received awards from three Presidents for his service to humanity. Presidents Roosevelt and Truman presented Jackson with awards for his work with charitable organizations and President Kennedy recognized him for his work with the youth of America. Hal Jackson can currently be heard on WNJR, Newark, where he also serves as community relations director.

The pageant, to be held this Sunday, will feature competition among high school senior girls throughout Essex County. The competition, based on scholarship, poise, personality, and talent, will begin at 2:30 p.m. in the Montclair State College Auditorium.

The entertainment for the afternoon will include Cori

Hal Jackson

Peters, who has appeared on Broadway, the Underground Lite Bulb Company, a popular rock group, pianist Nick Castellano and others.

Essex County's Junior Miss will receive a $250 scholarship and a host of fabulous gifts and prizes. Many prizes will be awarded to the runners-up.

Tickets for the pageant can be purchased from any member of the Nutley Jaycees

Your Weekly Horoscope

November 26 through December 2, 1970

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You will need all the strength you can muster, Ari, to refrain from inflammatory rhetoric. Especially on third and fourth days. Aggravations will abound. Don't allow yourself to be provoked. You will only play into the hands of one unworthy of your attention. Remember that it often takes great strength not to use strong words. By fifth day, tensions should subside and interesting newcomer may appear on the scene. Be friendly, but not pushy.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): First day of week full of petty annoyances. Try to overlook shortcomings of family member. You're not exactly perfect, you know. Almost perfect, perhaps, but not completely. Ambiguity and confusion may get you down by mid-week. Tho you normally have an unusual tolerance for disorder, still in days ahead, you will be less than understanding. Good time to cut out for the hinterlands, if possible. If not possible, then at least hole up with a good book and a bottle of old vino. In short, don't push yourself. Let the fertile fields of your mind lie fallow.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): The conscious and the unconscious, and rational and the irrational may drive you to distraction before fifth day. You, Gem, are usually able to reconcile these opposite sides of your nature. Try extra hard in days ahead. Key word for success is "openness." By last day of week, a nonverbal experience will shake your little world. Let yourself go limp and you may learn a lesson. As we'll enjoy.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): First day of week may find you bogged down by memories of holidays past. Have your little moody spell and then get going to more productive activity. No fair dillying away the day. Others need the strength which only you can provide. Interesting newcomer should appear before end of week. Proceed with caution as far as relationship is concerned. No need to rush. You have all of your tomorrows.

LEO (July 23-August 22): First part of week hectic, due to confusion on homefront. However, events tend to smooth by fourth day. You have no doubt been playing an exciting game of late, Leo. And should this be the case, old Olga wishes to remind you that every game has rules. And as far as the one you are now enjoying, "Keeping it cool, is the rule." It's like doing push-ups with your id, love. Thus you strengthen it for each new onslaught. End of sermon.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): First day of week fine for getting together with those whom you hold dear. Second and third days ideal for getting plans into orbit which require cash outlay. Remainder of week more-or-less uneventful. With the singular exception of a possible phone call on last day of week. Don't wander too far. But if you must . . . leave a trail of breadcrumbs.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): First day of week for complete and total relaxation. No ifs. Plop down in a chair some place comfy and let the world go away. If member of family naps, turn off your hearing aid. Consider it as simply a background noise to be ignored. Routine week until last day. Then you should get message from one who lives near mountains. Pan gold carefully for all good and future contacts into inner circles which you would like to penetrate.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): First of week may tend to be a bit of a disaster, Scorp, but you will press on. With your usual indomitable spirit. And by fourth day the proverbial light-at-the-end-of-the-tunnel will beckon you to try newer and bolder plans. The type which funky old Scorp is so famous for. Week winds up on a note of cheer from one far away. Perhaps a Taurus. (If you've behaved yourself lately.)

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): During first three days of week, Sai, you would be wise not to profess to TELL daily associates what you really think concerning personal problem. Merely suggest. And then allow suggestion to be veiled. Other party will be unusually touchy. Scene improves by fourth day. And by fifth day you should have everything gathered in a beautiful big bundle. Keep personal plans for future to yourself. Don't allow family and/or friend to get on your case.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Avoid head-on confrontation with one who is in position to call the shots. And double-check what appears to be the handwriting on the wall. Forgery is a possibility, you know. You have a friend in a Taurus. Share your joy with this person. And should suffering come, your Taurus friend will stand by you when others fail. Last two days of week are excellent for travel and communicating ideas which are new and novel.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Energy high as week begins. Use it productively. Listen patiently to gripes of one who is of another generation. Give solace. Avoid playing role of Solomon. Give spontaneously to loved one. Not by appointment.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Did you wear blue last week Pisces? If you did then you know what happened to you. Old Olga knows it was good for you but a note of caution lest you become too headstrong and upset the apple cart and the apples.

Belleville Group Ties For Top 'Band-In' Prize

A Belleville music group which plays "good old rock n' roll" was involved in a showdown with "an acid-rock" group at Nutley High School Friday night, and the judges of the fifth annual Jaycee sponsored "Battle of the Bands" just couldn't decide which style to award the top $100 prize and second prize of $50 to.

Two groups, the "Midnight Confession," and "Fresh Air," presented two completely different kinds of rock, and their performances, techniques, and audience reaction were so similar that they both were presented with $75 when the judges decision was deadlocked.

Midnight Confession presented the good old rock n' roll, featuring songs by the "Grassroots", "Chicago", "Cream", "Santana", and one almost acid song by "Grand Funk".

Fresh Air took almost all their music from the "Grand Funk" and presented a real ear shattering reverb that is typical of the funky style of the group, and also added a "Ten Years After" tune along the same vein. The music of the Confession didn't use the loud blaring reverb, but concentrated on the voices of the lead singers, a saxophone, and an organ.

Both bands were entered in the same contest that was held in September. Confession took the second prize then, and Air didn't place as they were playing with a different rhythm guitarist. That Battle was won by "Amalgamated Musicians Union" a Nutley High School group.

Confession is comprised of four students from Belleville. Joe Covey is the lead singer and plays organ; Mike Cisero is the groups arranger and sax player, Henri Defrance also does some of the lead singing, and plays the drums, while Gary Gublio, the only one not from BHS, provides the solo guitar for the group. Gary is a student at Bloomfield Tech and lives in Belleville.

In "Air", Ross Nicotia may not be the only change, but since the group dropped Gary Garuino who played in the last battle and picked up Ross, they came from not placing to sharing first place. The BHS junior plays rhythmic guitar for Air. Two Nutley High Students are also in the group Ron Tutella, a junior, is the Bass guitar player, and senior Doug Stanfield plays the lead guitar. The fourth member of the group is Peter Ricca on drums, a freshman at Essex County College.

The competition was Upper Montclair.

Andrea Contaldi was the one in a million girls with "long black hair." Andrea is a columnist for the "Italian Tribune" of Newark, and has a regular feature called "College Clippings" in the paper which deals with the social activities of local colleges.

Other groups at the Battle were "Early Light" from Clifton, "The Last Rights" from West Orange and planned to be judged by three independent judges, whom the Jaycees hoped wouldn't be immediately noticed. The Jaycees idea worked out perfectly. One judge, Charley Clune a member of the sponsoring organization was asked if he would mind getting together judges for some brief information about their backgrounds.

"You know, it would be easy to find them, but they look like about a hundred other kids here," commented Clune, one of the few people at Nutley High that night in a shirt and tie. He then proceeded to look for "a big tall guy, whose girl has a blue jacket on" and "a short girl with long black hair" finally the two were found.

Lenny Hicks was the "big tall guy". Lenny works as a organ instructor at the Academy of Musical Arts in "Snow" a group from Nutley that is only two weeks old.

Early Light opened the jam session, but it wasn't until Confession played that the kids in the gym really got the feel of the music. The Confession's music got the kids to sit down on the floor and listen, do a few dances, and applaud eagerly at the end. Air was the fifth and last group, and concentrated on getting the audience to move with the pulsating music.

Joseph Auriemma To Sing on TV

Joseph Auriemma of 476 Joralemon Street, Belleville, will make an unscheduled singing appearance on "The David Frost Show" Wednesday, November 25. The Emmy Award-winning talk-variety series is seen Monday through Friday over WNEW-TV, Channel 5, from 8:30 to 10 p.m.

Auriemma volunteered to sing when David Frost asked members of the audience if they would like to perform after a musical number from the Bloomfield, Conn. High School Chorus, who also happened to be in the audience.

On the television program, Auriemma sings "I Wish You Love," accompanied by Billy Taylor and the Frost Show Orchestra.

After the performance, Frost, always pleased when members of his studio audience participate in his conversation-entertainment show, quipped: "We're going to stop booking guests and start booking the audience!"

"The David Frost Show" is produced and syndicated by Group W Productions, a subsidiary of the Westinghouse Broadcasting Company.

Belleville Boy Gets Award From Scouts

Cadet Thomas F. Dunn Jr. was honored at the Sunday Parade at New York Military Academy Cornwall, N.Y., on November 1, when he received his Eagle Scout Award in a colorful ceremony in which his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn Sr. of Perry Street, Belleville, took part.

Cadet Dunn began his Scouting career in Troop 302, Belleville, and attained the rank of Life Scout in 1966. He has been a member of the NYMA Corps of Cadets since the fall of 1966. He is currently junior assistant Scoutmaster of the Academy's Troop 320, and has participated in many activities and camp-outs.

Thomas Dunn is in the Class of 1972, serves as supply sergeant in B Company, is on the Rifle Team, and played junior varsity baseball.

The Eagle Board of Review which approved the award to Cadet Dunn was made up of Ernest F. Hansen, chairman, of Highland Falls, N.Y.; Michael Garay of Montgomery, N.Y.; and Capt. Paul Bucha, Vietnam veteran and Congressional Medal of Honor winner, also of Highland Falls.

JHS Sets Holiday Music

The Belleville Junior High School Music Department will present "Music in the Air," a Christmas concert featuring the school dance and concert bands plus the eighth and ninth grade choruses, all under the direction of Frank Scelba and his music staff. Concert time is 8 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 9 at the JHS auditorium.

The Junior High PTA is sponsoring the concert, which is part of the annual Christmas meeting of the parent group.

PTA program Chairman Mrs. Viola Narucki says the concert is free and open to the public.

Robert Zocca Attends Brown

Robert Lewis Zocca, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Zocca of 30 Chestnut Street, Nutley, is a member of the current freshman class at Brown University, Providence, R.I.

Robert is seeking an AB degree and is a graduate of Nutley High School.

FRANK GACCIONE sings his lead for "Early Light." He's a frosh at Rutgers.

AL MARCHIONI on drums in "Early Light" is a senior at Clifton High School.
