Job Action Installed

Teachers Seek State Mediation Over Deadlocked Salary Talks

The Belleville teachers' union has requested state mediation in its salary negotiations with the local school board, and has instituted a job action which sends teachers home a half hour earlier than normal.

Chief negotiator for the teachers, George Nucera, said the action comes because "we've reached an impasse over salary," and told the Times "we're quite far apart."

Nucera, a guidance counselor at the senior high, warned taxpayers that budget figures released last week by the Board were "deceptive, in that an increase of up to $150,000 may occur in the instruction account."

Nucera also criticized the Board's philosophy toward teacher salaries in general, which he claimed was designed "to attract and train teachers, but not to keep them in the system."

Board President Rocco Saletta, meanwhile had little to comment on the matter. "As far as we are concerned,"

he said, "we have no comment to make. If they want to try this case in the press, it's okay with us."

Nucera said the Belleville Education Association has requested a state mediator from the Public Employees Relation Commission (PERC), and indicated no further salary talks would result until a PERC representative arrived.

A law instituted last year in Trenton created PERC, which is an agency designed to help solve disputes between public employees and government officials. PERC has no real power other than mediation, but government officials are required to recognize its representatives at meetings.

In discussing the teacher's position with the Times, Nucera compared the BEA's case to that of teachers in Nutley, primarily because "Our Board always compares us with them on everything but salary."

"We're asking to be put on a par with Nutley," Nucera said, "but the only position the Board is willing to take is to put us on par with Nutley teacher's starting salaries."

According to Nucera, the Board's offer falls steadily short of the Nutley salary range when steps are compared.

Nucera claims this has been a consistent pattern with the Board, and charged it has resulted in a system "where teachers are initially attracted to Belleville, trained, and then leave for more lucrative salary offers from towns such as Nutley."

The current median salary for a teacher in Nutley is $10,000, while in Belleville it is $9,300. If Nutley's tentative budget is okayed by voters, that median would jump to $10,650.

Nutley's tentative teacher salary range for 1971-72 is for a BA: $8,200-$13,654 (in 15 steps); Masters degree: $8,900-$15,241 (in 16 steps), and masters plus 32 graduate credits: $9,500-$16,720.

According to Nucera, the offers made by the Belleville School Board for 1971-72 would place bachelors degree holders from $89 to $526 behind Nutley; a masters holder from $123 to $650 behind Nutley, and the MA plus 32 from $205 to $564 behind Nutley.

The teachers met last Thursday at 2:15 p.m. in the senior high to discuss the impasse. The teachers had initially asked for a 2:30 p.m. meeting which the Board refused, Nucera said. "They became afraid that if we met at 7:30 we were liable not to go to school, so they gave in," Nucera continued.

At that meeting it was decided all teachers in the system would leave school at 3:15 p.m., the same time as most students are dismissed. This would be in violation of Board policy that teachers stay a half hour after students leave.

According to Nucera, the half hour rule is not in the teacher's contract, and that it has been classified by the

Forces Election Silence

Is The Tardy Enrollment Report A Political Ploy By School Body?

By Nat Gottlieb

With the Board of Education election less than three weeks away, it has become apparent to most observers that the key issue in this lively, ten-candidate race is the mounting enrollment crisis plaguing Belleville schools. What also has become apparent, is that the Board will not have to (or doesn't want to) take a stand on the crisis because of the tardiness of a Rutgers research report on the matter. Several viewpoints by candidates on the crisis have appeared in this newspaper the past few weeks and at teas and debates throughout town.

Almost everyone in fact, from candidates to taxpayers, has expressed some opinion on this matter, a matter which appears to be threatening the improving quality of education offered in town and may eventually affect the size of the taxpayer's pocketbook.

Oddly enough the only people almost completely silent on the issue have been members of the Board of Education.

When the current school board took office last February, enrollment problems were skyrocketing, and it was logical that the crisis drew primary concern from Board members.

Early last year the Board hired a Rutgers University research team under the direction of Dr. Donald Wallings to investigate in depth this town's school enrollment crisis, with the hope that projected enrollment patterns and an assessment of building facilities might lend some insight into the future of education in Belleville.

As was also expected, the Board retreated behind a wall of silence—almost reverential in design—concerning the crisis, with reporters being told that speculation on the matter would have to wait until the Wallings Report arrived.

Whether it was merely an ironic outgrowth of the report, or a carefully designed political ploy, there has been little or no viable discussion on the future of Belleville's education the past 10 months or so.

In early December, Dr. Wallings and his team of researchers issued a preliminary report which concentrated on projected enrollment for the next ten years, projections which alarmed many officials, including Board President Rocco Saletta.

A final report, however, scheduled to include alternative suggestions to meet the crisis, was promised by January 15, according to Saletta.

That final report at this writing, however, has not turned up, and it is becoming apparent to political observers, and especially to candidates, that it appears an official board stand on the crisis will probably not come until after the election.

Most of the candidates who spoke to the Times this week expressed concern that the report had not come through yet, and felt it handicapped

Half-Way Stop Planned For Disruptive Students

Students whose bad classroom behavior used to wind them up on the streets or in "classes for the emotionally disturbed," will soon be offered a third alternative by the Belleville Special Education Department.

Dr. Robert Winston, director of this town's Special Education Department, told the Times this week he is seeking a specially trained teacher for a new type of corrective class for the "behavior problem" child.

Dr. Winston, a psychologist, envisions the class as a means of dealing with the child whose classroom behavior is so disruptive that administrators either must expel him or refer him to the Garden School classes for the emotionally disturbed.

The psychologist feels a third way of dealing with these students is needed, a sort of half-way stop which ideally would prevent the students decline toward expulsion or classes for the emotionally disturbed, and hopefully would enable him to return to regular classes.

According to Dr. Winston, the Board of Education has okayd the class and the only thing missing now is a teacher.

Class space apparently is available in School Seven. "We have enough of this type of youngster to fill several classes," Dr. Winston says. "There is no question but that we would hope to expand this program in the future," the psychologist continued.

Ideally, Dr. Winston would like to see three classes of this type—one for each level of education (elementary, junior and senior high). The current legal age span for this sort of class is four years.

Dr. Winston says the class will only have eight students "because the real value in it is in the increased individual attention the teacher can give the child."

Pica: Let's Give Teachers Tools

Mathew Pica this week suggested that the basic essentials of education could "be more adequately provided by insuring that teachers have the proper tools."

Pica, a resident of 59 Mt. Prospect Avenue, pledged in his bid for a February 9 Board seat that he would insure teachers the proper tools "such as updated textbooks, visual aids, transparencies, duplicating materials and films to facilitate the educational process."

In a prepared statement to the Times-News, Pica said that while he was pleased "with the positive image our school system has been able to convey," he suggested we "go beyond that and substantiate our claim to

Athletic Facilities Not Being Used Charges Bartell

Board of Education candidate William E. Bartell charged this week that "Belleville is not taking advantage of the athletic facilities as they presently exist."

In making his charges, Bartell said he based them on his experience as a life-long resident and participant in Belleville interscholastic and intramural athletic programs.

In a statement to the Times, Bartell said "since the schools in the Belleville system are public property, I propose to open our better-sized gyms on a rotating basis, seven nights per week, or as many nights as student interest dictates."

The candidate for the February 9 election also proposed "the immediate installation of lights and baskets" at outdoor Board owned outdoor facilities, "so that these facilities may be utilized in the evening and kept open to as late an hour as practical."

The resident of 79 Liberty Avenue also charged that "at present our female students have no outdoor area for their athletic activities." He said an area exists adjacent to the girls gymnasium "which if

GERALD PISERCHIA, a barber and former Belleville High School football player, won the top $50,000 prize in Thursday's New Jersey Lottery. After the initial excitement, the 1963 BHS grad tried to calm himself down by staying on the job and giving haircuts. Three year old Erik Gerold seems oblivious to the fact he's being given a trim by the world's most famous barber—this side of Seville anyway.

Former Belleville Grid Star Tackles $50,000 In N.J. State Lottery

A former Belleville High School football star is still somewhat dazed after having tackled the $50,000 top prize in the January 14 New Jersey State Lottery.

The lucky winner is Gerald P. Piserchia, a barber in Nutley who now resides in Clifton.

The 1963 BHS graduate played varsity center on the Belboy grid squad, and ironically enough, his uniform number was 38—the first two digits of his winning ticket.

How does it feel to win $50,000?

Gerald P. Piserchia found it difficult to believe when his boss returned from the Washington Sweet Shop shortly after 2 last Thursday where he had picked up that day's winning N.J. Lottery number along with a couple of cups of coffee to go.

"Hey Jerry, Doesn't your ticket have a lot of three's in it? So does the winning number," kidded Nunzio Pietoso, owner of the Washington Barbershop where Piserchia has worked the past seven years.

There was only Jerry and Nunzio in the shop at the time. Jerry dug out his lottery ticket and from the opposite side of the room, Nunzio Pietoso asked, "Okay, the first two numbers are 38."

Piserchia said he was good so far. And like a scene from a movie, Pietoso continued to read off the numbers one by one until he got down to the last digit.

Pietoso said when he read off the final number, "Jerry let to a scream like you never heard. We began jumping around, hugging one another," Pietoso said. The celebration was interrupted for five minutes, however, when Pietoso and Piserchia suddenly realized the possibility the winning lottery number could have been copied incorrectly. So Nunzio Pietoso dashed back to the Washington Sweet Shop to double check.

Joe Peccatillo of Rutgers Place had stopped at the barbershop in the meantime, and when Nunzio returned to confirm the winning number, the shouting and hugging started all over again.

Accompanying the election of any official is a degree of condemnation and praise. My mother, Mrs. Norma McCool, has received her share of both.

Most recently, unkind opposition has sought to "play up" an illness I have had for nearly two and one half years. Their method of attack is based upon my mother's parental duties. She has been unjustly accused of neglecting my illness and myself. This is outrageous. I would like to strongly

Schwartz Hopes To Shift Burden Of Local Taxes

Lawrence Schwartz this week said he hoped local financing of education could be replaced in the near future with substantially increased aid from the federal and state governments.

In a press release to the Times, Schwartz pledged to urge the Board to apply pressure on Trenton to pick up the burden of school taxation. The candidate for the February 9 election said a nationally sponsored project is currently investigating ways to shift tax emphasis from the local to the federal and state levels.

In his statement Schwartz said:

If there is one thing that all educators agree upon it is that public, elementary and secondary education in the United States must no longer rely so heavily on local property taxes for its financing. A study called the National Educational Finance Project has been looking into

Police Sworn In

Three Belleville policeman were promoted last week to fill vacancies created in the officer's ranks by the retirement of former chief Donald Smith.

Included in the department promotions were George Lister, Harry Sullivan and Albert Koelsch, who represent 34 years of combined service to the department.

All three men were promoted officially during town Hall ceremonies last Wednesday with Mayor Ken Smith presiding and Town Clerk Eugene Barnett administering the oath.

Lister, 42, was promoted from lieutenant to captain. He became a patrolman in 1952, and has served in the lieutenant's capacity since 1967.

Sullivan, 38, was promoted to lieutenant after serving as a sergeant since 1967. He joined the force in 1959.

Koelsch, 28, became a sergeant, his first promotion since joining the force in 1965.

Police Chief Joseph Smith told the Times the men have held these ranks in "acting" capacity since Smith's retirement last April, pending results of Civil Service examinations.

we removed three trees and re-routed a macadam path, we could fully utilize the area for girls activities." In mentioning the macadam path, Bartell also charged it was installed by the Board of Education "without consultation with the athletic department."

Bartell said the macadam was placed across a piece of land which had been used by the girls gym classes. The area is no longer used, according to Bartell "because it has become a hazard."

The candidate also stressed that a girls interscholastic athletic program be investigated. "Right now the town of Union has seven such activities, Verona has four, and South Side High in Newark has two. Belleville has none. I think our neglect in this area is shameful and should immediately be remedied."

Every year more than half a million families in America face the agonizing problem of deciding how to care for a relative too old or ill to live alone any longer. The answer to this dilemma is usually a nursing home. A tremendous building boom in nursing homes started in the early 1960's. Today there are more than 12,000 licensed, skilled-nursing homes containing approximately 600,000 beds, and construction continues at a rapid pace. Most of these homes are comfortable, friendly, and have recreational programs. It may be an emotional experience to take an elderly relative to live in a nursing home, but remember that in this bright, modern home those we love receive the watchful care that most of us cannot give.

Newark's Tax Problem

And Its Riches

For the past three months almost daily we have been hearing from Newark's Mayor Kenneth Gibson about the fiscal chaos which the City confronts. Mayor Gibson has convinced State authorities that Newark will need about sixty million dollars of outside aid to avoid a real estate tax burden which the Mayor insists will bankrupt the City. The Legislature and Governor William Cahill put together a tax package for Newark which was intended to produce fifty-three million dollars, a sum State authorities believe would exceed Newark's 1971 real estate tax increase.

During the past couple of years the State has given millions of dollars in outright gifts to the City of Newark.

Recently a proposal was made that Newark sell off some of its valuable land holdings in order to produce operating cash. We think the idea is a sound one.

State grants of cash to cities based on nothing more than a desire of the local authorities to keep down the tax rate is bad government, represents a bad precedent and if followed to its ultimate conclusion such a policy can only lead to fiscal bankruptcy for the State of New Jersey.

One may ask, if Newark is entitled to a cash donation from the State, why not Nutley, Belleville, Bloomfield and every other community in the State of New Jersey. Every elected public official, whether he represents a large or small community, desires to keep down the tax burden of his community. Most public officials attempt to accomplish this objective by holding the line on expenses and not by looking for cash handouts in Trenton.

In the final analysis Trenton represents We The People. We do not believe the people of one community have a legal or moral obligation to dig into their pockets and make a cash gift to another community so that the city receiving the gift can keep down its tax rate.

The policy is idiotic, stupid and wrong when the gift receiver has hundreds of millions of dollars of unused assets which can be sold to produce the cash required to pay for community services.

January's Historical Battles

Two battles of importance to Americans fighting for independence occurred on December 26th, 1776 and January 3rd, 1777. Things were going badly for the rebels in New Jersey but on Christmas Day, 1776, General Washington collected about 2,000 men, crossed the Delaware early next morning and surprised a force of about 1,500 Hessians, utterly routing the entire force, killing its commander and taking 1,000 prisoners.

This was a shock to the British, who had thought things going well in New Jersey and Cornwallis hurried to Trenton with 8,000 soldiers. Washington was in a poor strategic position; outnumbered with an icy river at his back which prevented him from retreating. He decided to attack and sent out a small force (400 men) which encountered a British force at Stony Brook Bridge; the British, charging with bayonets, routed the small American force but Washington, soon reached the scene and routed the British force. He then occupied Princeton, seizing British supplies there. Cornwallis advanced against him and Washington retired to a very strong position at Morristown. Cornwallis declined to attack.

Millard Fillmore, 13th President, was born at Locke, New York on the 7th in 1800.

Jackson Day in Louisiana falls on the 8th, in memory of the victory over the British at New Orleans in 1815. General Andrew Jackson, later President, attacked the British first but the British held and, in turn attacked Jackson on the 8th; the American defense was so stout two thousand British soldiers fell in an hour or two, including the British commander, General Packenham, the Duke of Wellington's brother-in-law. (The Duke had advised against the British campaign and a peace treaty had already been signed before the Battle of New Orleans was fought.)

Alexander Hamilton, one of the most brilliant Americans in the Revolutionary War period, was born on the 11th in 1757 in the West Indies of a Scotch father and French Huguenot mother and Benjamin Franklin, another giant of that age, was born on the 17th in Boston in 1706.

Belleville Foundation Gives $700,000 To Hospital

One Year Ago

By Elaine Auerbach

A Belleville patrolman was assigned a new beat which, according to a certain person, was expected to stir some controversy in the town. Mayor Ken Smith, Public Safety Director, placed patrolman Harry Lanno on duty at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital to facilitate police dealing with the hospital. The Mayor said that he anticipated opposition in some quarters to his move because Clara Maass was technically a private institution. Smith would not say whom he felt was threatening to stir up opposition, but another reliable town hall source said that former Mayor Robert Laterza would lead the objectors.

Mayor Ken Smith's proposal to modernize all town-owned buildings through a massive bond issue took one shaky step forward when major Belleville officials gathered in Town Hall for an early morning discussion of Belleville's future. After a two-hour meeting marked by obvious tension between commissioners and school officials, the town leaders agreed that representatives of town departments would submit an analysis of modernization needs within their departments, and that after the reports were submitted, an architectural consultant would be hired to estimate modernization costs.

Five Years Ago

Clara Maass Memorial Hospital became $100,000 richer when the Belleville Foundation, a group of Belleville businessmen, donated the gift - one of the largest received from a private or professional organization since the hospital's $5 million dollar modernization campaign had begun in 1965.

Belleville's public schools had been the target of pressure, harassment and mismanagement, according to the five-member special investigating committee of the National Education Association. The committee appeared before an audience of over 200 residents, and stated that Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools, was the No. 1 troublemaker. Durkee labelled the 67-page report compiled by the committee "a character smear," and announced plans to appeal the report. One of the most devastating aspects of the school situation discovered by the committee was that a substantial number of teachers and principals rejected the leadership of Dr. Durkee.

Making Montclair their fourth straight victims, the Bellboys squeezed out a 49-47 overtime decision to climb into a tie for second place in the Big Ten Conference. Using just five men throughout the game, Belleville had taken a ten point half-time lead before being overcome by the Mounties' superior rebounding. The Bellboys, however, were the ones to emerge victorious.

Ten Years Ago

Commissioner Robert C. Gruhin, director of Public Works, and Richard Jeske, engineering consultant on the Third River flood control program, went to Philadelphia to present plans to the Housing and Finance Agency's Community Facilities Administration, a Federal Government agency. Gruhin was seeking a non-interest loan to finance the planning stage of the proposed $600,000 project of flood control.

The Essex County Park Commission was approached by a new commissioner who was seeking the development of a park in a tract south of Jorammon Street. The acreage had been proposed as the site of four new apartment buildings. Commissioner Robert C. Gruhin, public works director, joined Commissioner George F. Kiernan and Mayor Isadore Padula in pressing the park issue.

Politically speaking, the property had developed into a touchy situation. Hundreds of homeowners in the area had made known their wishes for a park on the land.

Belleville High's surprising basketball squad scored its second major upset of the season, defeating Nutley High 50-48. Nutley had been in the lead in the Big Ten Conference, with a 3-0 record. The dazzling victory was brought forth by a great team effort led by Mike Sandomeno's 21 points and Red Higgins' 18. The win tied the Bellboys with Big Ten Leaders, holding a 3-1 record on their side.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

For outstanding achievement as a prime contractor on the famed "Manhattan Project," or atomic bomb, the Bart Manufacturing Company of Belleville was to receive a scroll of awards at a dinner in New York. The award was made each year for Chemical Engineering Achievement, and by a unanimous vote of the Committee, the Atomic Bomb project was selected, according to S. D. Kirkpatrick, secretary of the awards committee.

In an address before the Belleville Lions Club, Lieutenant G. C. Wallace of Troop B, State Police Barracks in Morristown, told of "Riots, Their Cause and Control." Lieutenant Wallace brought out in his talk the fine work that the state police and the F.B.I. had done in preventing sabotage in the United States. According to Wallace, German-American Bund organizations had established their corps adjacent to such prime war industries as the Picatinny Arsenal and the Wright Aeronautical Co., in northern New Jersey.

Rent control was holding back the entire construction industry, stated Harvey B. Thompson, local realtor, who was president of the Board of Realtors of Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville. "During the war we were in favor of rent control properly managed," he stated, "but have been against the unfair administration of it at previous times. Rent control, as administered, is, we believe, holding back the entire construction industry and discouraging the ownership of rentable housing accommodations."

Forty Years Ago

Nathan A. Berger, Newark lawyer, was elected president of the Peoples National Bank and Trust Company. He succeeded James T. Boylan, who was named chairman of the Board of Directors.

The annual football dance for the high school team was held. John P. Maher, school board president, was named toastmaster and principal speaker. Those in charge of arrangements were Charles Steel Jr., Thomas Fleming and August Plenge.

The Recreation Commission announced that dancing classes would be conducted at the Recreation House. Classes were taught by the Misses Margaret Leahy and Eleanor Gara, with Miss Helen Gaffeller at the piano.

Fifty Years Ago

The Belleville American Legion Post 105 elected the following officers: James Travers, commander; Edward Lister, vice-commander; Clement Cass, financial secretary; Douglas Chapman, insurance officer; William Delaney, employment officer and Victor Norman, historian.

Michael Devaney, the former Olympic athlete, was appointed truant officer by the Board of Education.

Babysitting Chores Keep Eastern's Attendants Busy

LAST FRIDAY was a typical holiday type of trip aboard Flight 897 south to Fort Lauderdale. Children, more children, and more children. Flight Stewardess Shirley Rand almost had a full-time job babysitting throughout the trip. It was such a pleasant surprise to once again greet Eve Ryster, the flight attendant for whom the word "elegant" was coined. Senior Stewardess Cynthia "Toastie" Johnson had her hands full trying to pacify a few dissatisfied passengers who were in an ugly mood before they even boarded the plane. I don't know where they got the nickname Toastie for Cynthia because "Flash" or "Smiles" would be more appropriate. The plane was almost full to capacity and the fourth stewardess Linda Denzel was lucky to stop long enough to catch her breath trying to please the whims and fantasies of the kids.

The return trip on Flight 896 Sunday became a problem because of heavy fog through the night and during the early morning hours. This condition caused day-long take off delays obliging passengers to sit in their seats on the runways for periods of up to one hour.

We ran into an unusual experience at the Fort Lauderdale Airport. It took 20 minutes to drive from Gate 12 to Gate 7, a distance less than the length of a football field. Normally all it would take would be a few seconds. This is a new experience and I hope the traffic patterns developing from new parking lot construction and extension of the air terminal will produce a more normal traffic flow.

MAYBE THIS experience is not worth writing about but it certainly was annoying. At the departure gate the boarding passenger checker told me that Sunday newspapers would be available for first-class passengers. After being seated in my favorite 6-A position, I asked the Stewardess Pamela Rich for a newspaper. "We have no papers aboard." A minute or two later the young lady returned and said "There is a used New York paper," and with an attitude that left much to be desired she asked "Do you want it or don't you?" Well, the ungracious attitude was enough to drive me away from the old New York newspaper and the stewardess.

Arriving into Newark the flight captain was surprised that no gate was available for us to use. We experienced a 30 minute delay because of this fact-and this situation also was unusual.

The Belleville Town Commission last week passed an assinine resolution opposing the sale of Newark Water Shed lands. It appears from the sense of the resolution that the Commissioners don't understand what is involved in the possible sale of valuable lands owned by Newark in Morris and Passaic Counties. Belleville is presently buying water from Newark at a cost three and a half times greater than Newark is being charged by the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission. The resolution that the Belleville Commission should have passed is one that would make Belleville a partner in the proposed Round Valley-Spruce Run Reservoir system. What the Belleville Commission should do is undertake an effort to become a part owner in a water system, thus having a measure of control over the future charge for water to Belleville users.

THE UPCOMING BELLEVILLE Town Commission race should be a real lulu. The Board of Education election with an unusually crowded field should also give off a lot of sparks. Belleville voters appear to be in for an awful lot of action during the next 90 days.

The comment by Sister Elizabeth McAllister that the Nixon Administration is attempting to stifle dissent and opposition to the Vietnam war because kidnapping and bombing conspiracy charges were filed against her appear to be farfetched. The nun, a college instructor who is a member of an order that does not wear the nun's habit, said she was stunned by the accusation that she plotted to kidnap presidential adviser Henry Kissinger and blow up heating systems in federal buildings. Sister Elizabeth admitted she was an advocate of "non violent" opposition to the Vietnam war. Although she now lives in a convent in New York she was raised in Montclair, New Jersey. Her plans are to return to her teaching post at Marymount College, Tarrytown, New York where her classes resume in February. She spent one night in the Bergen County Jail prior to release on $5,000 bond. Of course an indictment is not a finding of guilt and Sister Elizabeth is presumed innocent. It is the government's responsibility to prove her guilt.

THE CONNIE FRANCIS-IZZY MARION wedding this past Saturday afternoon was a great event. There was simply too much action for us to cover in one paragraph, but we promise to pass on some of the details and sidelights in next week's column.

Praises Writer For Math Story

To the Editor,

Although I have done extensive research work for some of the most famous editors and scientists in the nation since the year 1906, I now find it difficult to select the words that I would like to use to heap praise upon the story about mathematics written by School Page Editor Beth Fitzgerald in your December 17 issue.

Miss Fitzgerald did a wonderful job in making the citizens of Belleville aware of the fact that the taxpayers money is very efficiently applied by the school board, the advanced math class and Mr. Martin Lang.

The story should be printed again when readers have more time to read it.

Groundhog Day

For those who are not ready to accept the judgment of weather satellites and all the other scientific paraphernalia of projecting the weather, that time-honored prophet of the elements-the groundhog-will soon make his appearance. February 2 is the critical day. If the old fellow sees his shadow, he goes underground for six more weeks of winter. Whether the groundhog's performance has ever been studied officially by a government body is unknown, and it would probably make very little difference to the groundhog and his faithful followers if it had.

Groundhog Day is one of those rites that demonstrate the essential simplicity of human nature-a simplicity that instinctively rebels when confronted with the enigma of the scientific answer. Most of us are happy with the groundhog's way of doing business, but somehow we have to find room in our minds to accommodate knowledge that will forever be beyond the reach of the poor old groundhog. Just as a precaution, however, it might be a good idea to see how the groundhog fares with his shadow on February 2. It always pays to be on the safe side.

We'll be putting more than $1,000,000 into your phone service every working day this year.

We're planning to spend about $280,000,000... an average of more than $1 million every working day... on new construction this year.

It's the most ever. And the second year in a row at a million plus per working day.

Telephone men at work have become a familiar sight to many along the streets of New Jersey. But much of the work goes on behind the scenes. Inside and out, it's part of the important job we have to do.

According to Nucera, the skipping of the half-hour rule is a "symbolic protest by teachers," and said he wouldn't rule out further action if salaries remained deadlocked.

Contacted for comment on the half-hour issue, the Board gave the Times a prepared statement of position which read as follows:

"The superintendent of schools has brought to the attention of the Board that beginning Friday, January 15, a majority of the teachers in the school system have been departing from the standard school policy of remaining in school 30 minutes after student departure time.

"Instead, a majority of teachers have been leaving this crisis and to possibly suggest reforms.

"It has been estimated that school costs in the nineteen-sixties have increased 140 percent and that to meet them, state and local tax collections have grown 63.6 in the last five years alone.

"Belleville, therefore, is not alone in having felt the bite of increased taxes to support its educational system. Our citizens now are faced with a dilemma, how to have a quality educational system without a disastrous increase in property taxes.

"In 1969-70, it cost $770.23 per year to educate each pupil in our school system. Although this figure is equal to the surrounding communities, our assessed valuation per student, approximately $40,000.00, is somewhat lower. On the other hand, the State of New Jersey only supplies approximately $100.00 to this cost. Therefore, if we are to have a quality educational system, it is clear that an alternative method for raising the money must be found.

"The cornerstone of an economically sound but progressive educational system is frugality and proper planning. It is, therefore, incumbent upon our Board of Education to be constantly on guard against unwise spending, and hap hazard

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS IN SOCIAL SPOTLIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Jr. Honeymoon In California

Mrs. Warren Fisher Jr. - nee Rosalyn Mostello

Wedding vows were exchanged January 17 in St. Peter's Church by Miss Rosalyn Mostello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Mostello of 136 Delevan Avenue and Warren Fisher Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Sr. of Hasbrouck Heights.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Heavey of St. Peter's and the Rev. Norman Egerton of St. John the Divine Church, Hasbrouck Heights. A reception followed at the Fiesta, Wood-Ridge.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin A-line gown with an illusion neckline and long bishop sleeves of pearl trimmed peau d'ange lace. The hemline and detachable train were also embellished with lace.

A Camelot headpiece of pearls held her bouffant illusion elbow length veil and she carried a cascade of white butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Elinor Iracane of Belleville, sister of the bride was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carmela Bruno of Camden, Miss Patricia Berry of Knox, New York, Miss Marilyn Mobilio, cousin of the bride and Miss Karen Mostello, sister of the bride, both of Belleville. Junior bridesmaid was the groom's sister, Miss Jayne Fisher.

They were attired in plum sari silk gowns trimmed with gold and carried cascades of plum and gold carnations.

Roger Kellman of Hoboken served as best man. Ushering were Andrew Kalamardis of Bergenfield, Robert Iracane of Belleville, Robert Morrow of Saddle Brook and Robert Roetger of East Orange.

Chairman Prepares For Mothers March

"We want to guarantee every child the precious birthright of health," said Mrs. Helena Falco, Newark's chairman of the annual Mothers March against birth defects, as she named her top associates.

Her associates are Mrs. Stephan Adubato of 744 Highland Avenue (North), Newark; Mrs. Lillian Murphy of 85 Napoleon Street (East), Newark; Mrs. William Brown of 60 Pomona Avenue (South), Newark; Mrs. James O'Rourke of 52 St. Paul Avenue (West), Newark and Mrs. Robert Spencer of 228 Orange Street (Central), Newark.

These area leaders will be seeking other volunteers to help meet the challenge of visiting every home in Newark during the week of January 21. They will carry an important message with rules for expectant mothers designed to cut the tragic toll of birth defects due to seemingly harmless drugs.

Mrs. Falco hailed two new breakthroughs. The rubella vaccine is a dramatic triumph over the damage that often results to an unborn child when a woman contracts German measles during early pregnancy. Also, the Rh vaccine has the potential to spare thousands of deaths in the womb as well as prevent devastating handicaps because of the Rh blood disease.

"Join us by calling 672-2828 to volunteer one hour to prevent birth defects," Mrs. Falco urged.

Rhododendrons Good Thermometers

In the winter, many homeowners look through the window to observe the temperature on their outdoor thermometer. Others look at their rhododendrons to find out how cold it is. When all the leaves on all your rhododendrons are tightly curled and hang straight down, then you know that it's really cold. But suppose the leaves on just one or a couple branches are tightly rolled? That indicates a disease or insect is present, or perhaps the branch is broken, says Mrs. William F. Munk, senior agricultural agent of Essex County.

Winter is a good time to prune rhododendrons, if you pick a day when temperatures are above freezing, prune out the diseased or broken branches. This will save time later in the spring when there are so many other things to be done in the garden.

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

A NEW CENTURY - First patient in the new century of the Hospital's service to the community was baby Cobin, born to Marie and Gregory Cobin of Irvington at 12:40 a.m. on December 27. The hospital's Board of Trustees promptly asked Mrs. Sophie Torten, nursing supervisor, to present the new arrival with a $100 Savings Bond along with the best wishes of the entire hospital family.

Clara Maass Hospital Begins Second Century

In his book, CLARA MAASS - A NURSE - A HOSPITAL - A SPIRIT, John Cunningham writes that "Dedication for the Newark German Hospital was set for the Christmas Season, preferably Christmas Day. The Directors decided that the day after Christmas might be better since Christmas that year fell on Sunday.

In the relatively brief medication sermon, John Otto, chairman of the Building Committee, gave the keys to Christian Muir, president, who passed them along to Dr. Webner, director of the hospital. Then Pastor Lehlbach rose to give the main dedication talk. The words that the aging pastor spoke that day were memorable: "This German Hospital will admit anybody. This institution is organized on the broad principals, admitting cheerfully the afflicted of every class, nationality and creed."

Those were generous words for 1870. They meant that everyone, rich or poor, German or otherwise, white or black, had a right to expect the best that the German Hospital could offer. The hospital was now officially open and ready to receive its first patients on the following day, December 27th 1870.

Three sought treatment the first day. The first was Carl Frederick Fastnacht born in Germany and in the United States two and one half years, a 45 year old maker of rubber shoes by trade.

The original hospital pioneered in many areas of medicine particularly in the field of antiseptic surgery. Its high reputation did not insure it against violent anti-German sentiment in World War I and the hospital changed its name to Newark Memorial. In 1946 the name again was changed to the Lutheran Memorial and in 1952 changed to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital to honor one of the early graduates from the hospital's School of Nursing who gave her life in the study of yellow fever.

As the hospital enters its second century it is continuing to grow. Soon the medical complex will develop into a 570 bed general hospital capable of meeting the challenge of the 70's.

Campaign Issue Affected

School Board's Silence A Political Maneuver?

their positions in the race. For one thing, they said, candidates running for the three contested seats cannot attack (or agree) with official Board policy on the matter, because there is none; just several hints by Saletta that a large bond referendum may be the end result of the report, but nothing that could be pinned down as Board policy.

Saletta had some very definite opinions however, about the tardiness of the Wallings Report when contacted for comment this week by the Times-News. "I don't think the Wallings Report should be an issue in the campaign," the Board President said, "mainly because I don't think most of the candidates are aware of the problems that face us in this crisis."

Saletta, whom most people feel strongly favors a referendum, said the only foreseeable effect the Report might have on the election would be "to change many of the candidates' minds about the crisis." Asked to elaborate, Saletta said the report would "probably stop some candidates from rattling off different plans on education when they haven't had any real involvement with education in this town."

Saletta appeared irked by the platforms taken by several of the candidates, although he refrained from mentioning names.

"What some of these candidates are doing is playing up to the taxpayers by saying they are against construction," Saletta told the Times.

"This is good for vote-getting," he continued, "but not good for education."

Commenting on several of the alternative plans offered to construction, Saletta said "that many of them are misinformed," and said that "if these candidates are making an issue out of construction just to get votes, they will be in a sorry position if elected and find themselves faced with working with board members."

"If they commit themselves to a position of No-construction," Saletta continued, "I think they will be losing sight of the forest for the trees. Remember this town hasn't seen any school construction in the last 50 years (we presume he meant excluding the high school)."

"They are going to have to retract their statements," Saletta predicted.

In any case, it appears unlikely candidates or Board members will have the Wallings Report in time for the election.

Candidates also expressed concern last week that they were unable to obtain copies of the Board's tentative budget, and were told "to wait and read it in today's edition of the Times."

Monday, however, the Board decided in caucus to deliver copies of the budgets Tuesday morning to all candidates and to be available for questions.

It is interesting to note that candidates for the School Board in Nutley were invited to a special conference with the Board on its budget before the budget was even tentatively passed. The Nutley Board went over the budget with candidates and gave them copies of it two weeks ago to take home and study.

Be Progressive

Pica: Teachers Should Receive Proper Tools

The candidate said this would "take better organization and better use of our existing staff, by bringing in those methods which have been tried and proven in industry for years, which would allow us to be more responsive to the needs of the system."

Pica also suggested that greater efficiency could be attained "by allowing each member of the Board to become involved in a specific area of operation." He said "We should look to engage lay members of the community, our administrators and teachers wherever possible, and board members on committees."

Pica said he hoped five specific committees headed by Board members could be set up. These include:

- *Personnel committee; to screen applicants for new positions, and review those from within our system for possible advancement;

- *Curriculum committee: for updating our present system, keeping abreast of new ideas through the existing professional organization, and exchanging ideas with other school systems to bring to us those proven techniques to further our educational goals;

- *Negotiations committee: to compile the necessary information to better understanding the problems facing the staff and the taxpayers so that a contract with equity for all will be the final product;

- *Building needs committee: to get people in the community with the appropriate experience to determine whether we are presently using our existing facilities to their maximum potential and also to establish a program for preventive maintenance. This committee will also be responsible for establishing specifications for competitive bidding;

*Federal Funds Committee: to assist the new

Congratulations To Cagers

Belleville High School cagers won their first game last Saturday night and one thing for sure can be said about the game for the entire School and team: It sure has helped their morale, just when they need it most.

Before the 58-53 victory, many of the basketball players seemed to be quite despondent on the days of the games. Even before Garfield came to town, some players were writing off the game as one more for the loss column, which helped them to a 1-10 record.

"They're too big, they're too fast, they're just going to run us off the court." Sure Belleville may have lost, but you don't concede defeat until the game is finished. At least give yourself an outside chance of winning in any game. Who knows the other team may just send their JV squad to play. Of course any of the top ranked teams like E.O. and Orange won't do this, they'll be looking for the wins, but that's no reason to let yourself get psyched out.

Macri Might Have Helped

A little bit of self evaluation could be a lot of help to a team when it's down, and so can an adequate plea for a victory from one of the players.

Ralph Macri made just that plea Friday night while the team was waiting to go to West Orange High for the arranged date which was changed to Saturday at Mountain H.S. because of a leak in the WO Gym.

The plea went like this. "Come on let's win this one. For God's sake, let's do something right for once in our life." Way to go Ralph, it might not have been the only thing that made the team win (Rocco Marrotti's shooting sure helped), but it sure didn't hurt.

Di Domenico Is Starring

Nick Di Domenico, a former BHS district wrestling champ, now has a 4-0 record for the University of Massachusetts. According to Head Wrestling Coach Homer Barr, "Nick DiDomenico is doing a great job this year, 4-0 so far, and should be tough to beat."

The U Mass senior has one pin to his credit and three wins on decisions. Against Harvard, Nick picked up his pin, and he has beaten opponents from Gettysburg 9-1, New York University 3-1, and U.R.I. 8-6.

The Redmen team is 5-1 this season, and the New England Inter-collegiate Wrestling Coaches Association has voted them as the top team on their first ballot this season. This balloting will continue for the rest of the season, and it is the first time in 20 years that Springfield College does not hold this position. Springfield is no. two with a 2-2 record.

DiDomenico's wins have come in four of the teams five victories. The Redmen beat Tufts 42-0, Harvard 22-13, Gettysburg 23-10, NYU 20-18, and U.R.I. 22-11. The only UMass loss was to West Chester State, 22-12, which broke a 15 meet win streak started last season.

Wrestling definitely seems to be gaining ground as "The" major winter sport in Belleville, and also in many other towns. It remains to be seen if this will be true with the disappointing loss to Montclair on Friday, but die-hard wrestling fans hope that the crowd will keep coming back.

For this season, High School Director of Athletics Herman B. Wische reports that wrestling and basketball have been drawing the same six crowds, about 400 fans each.

This is quite some improvement for grappling as just about five years ago a "crowd" was anything near 100, and average attendance was about 50. However, for basketball this is saddening, in the prime days of the fifties crowds of 400-500 were normal even with less students in the school.

First Victory A Big Upset

By Marc Feldman

Belleville pulled off the biggest upset of the Big Ten season Saturday night with a hard fought 58-53 shocker over the West Orange Cowboys.

Entering the game Belleville was winless in ten games while the Cowboys had dropped just three of ten contests. The game was originally scheduled for Friday night at West Orange High but a leaky roof in the gym forced a change in date and site. The "rainout" moved the game to Mountain High in West Orange on the following night.

The Bellboys, who had lost games to Garfield and Nutley earlier in the season by turning cold in the closing minutes, turned the tide against the Cowboys.

After fighting through 13 lead changes and six ties, West Orange looked like they were in the drivers' seat when they assumed a five point lead, 51-46 with just 3:20 remaining in the game. In the next 46 seconds Belleville scored eight straight points.

Mike Petronaci hit from the foul line. Rich Caravetta stole an errant Cowboy pass and drove to the basket for two points. The Bellboy captain stole another pass but was fouled by Billy Fay in the act of shooting. Caravetta swished both fouls to tie the score.

Amazingly, six seconds later, Rocco Marrotti stole the ball, made the driving layup, and was fouled. His accurate free throw gave Belleville the lead, 54-51.

West Orange still was in the game but a traveling violation by Clay Holland gave the ball back to the Bellboys. Charlie Carr, in action for Belleville for the first time in three weeks, hit two important fouls and countered with another two points after Billy Fay had cut the lead to three. The Cowboys could not buy a basket in the closing minutes as Marotti had three important rebounds to thwart the Cowboy attack.

The loss was a severe blow to Coach Matt Lombardi's Cowboys. The loss knocked W.O. out of a tie for third with Bloomfield and could cost them a chance at the State Tournament.

The win was Belleville's first under new head coach Bob Palma. The coach was obviously pleased with his

Mounties Score Cliffhanger

Measles May Help W.O. In Match With Bellboys

By John McCarthy

Belleville's wrestlers will face West Orange tomorrow afternoon possibly without the aid of two of their top wrestlers, John Mustacchio and Walter Bennett, after both came down with German Measles following the team's disheartening 25-19 loss to Montclair Friday.

Bennett was the first to contract the disease, having it diagnosed over the week-end. Mustacchio was informed that he too, had it on Monday night. Coach Silvestri said it might possibly affect the entire team because of the close confines of the Auxiliary Gym where the team practices.

While this is a remote possibility the coach did note that he would have to postpone matches if it reaches epidemic proportions.

The score of the Montclair cliff hanger was 22-8 at the end of the 148 pound weight class.

In order to win and stop Montclair's 36 dual meet varsity string, the Bellboys had to take all four of the remaining bouts, two on decisions, and at least two with a pin or default.

The pressure mounted as Frank Savastano and Carmen Russomano won on decisions at 157 (4-3) and 168 (10-5) respectively. Frank Marano faced Montclair's Keith Barber at 178, and while Frank was leading 2-0, Barber started stalling in the second period. Three stalling penalties gave Frank four points, and 25 seconds into the third period referee Ernest Zuber called a default on Barber for not moving. Belleville had one five point victory and needed another, as the score was 22-19.

It's hard enough to go out on those mats and win, but to have a pin demanded is even harder, and that's just what the 400 fans at the BHS gym were demanding of heavyweight John Atherton. Atherton lost 2-0 to Montclair's Mark Jennings on an escape point and a riding time point, but all the blame for the team loss cannot be placed on this one wrestler alone.

It would have been dramatic if Atherton had won, and he would have been a hero to the team, at least until yesterday's match with Vailsburg, but the loss was not all his fault.

The fault lies on all-seven wrestlers who didn't win and must also be shared by the three wrestlers who won by decisions in lieu of pins, which would have been worth six more points, the Montclair margin, according to coach Silvestri.

There are only four varsity wrestlers who still own perfect records for three matches; Mustacchio, Vito Marcogliese, Savastano, and Russomano. Marano also is undefeated, but only for two matches.

A major individual upset was Angelo Zoppi's loss at 106. The BHS was 2-0 after placing first in the Bloomfield Holiday Wrestling Tournament. Until Montclair's John Crus scored a 3-2 victory.

Neither Zoppi nor Crus scored a takedown in the first period, and Zoppi chose referee's advantage position for the second period. Crus pulled an escape on Zoppi in the middle of the period to score a point, but again neither scored a takedown.

In the third period Zoppi escaped in only five seconds and the third takedown stalemate was under way. Crus finally got Zoppi to the mats at 5:08, and the BHS senior escaped for a second time 20 seconds later. The last 32 seconds saw a fourth stalemate and Cruz had a 3-2 victory.

On the brighter side, John Mustacchio recorded his third pin of the season at 123 pounds. The spunky junior had been taken down by Montclair's Randy Scott and moved into a predicament in the first period before he could escape.

Boff started the second period on top opposition trailing 4-1, but took only a minute of the period for the fall.

Vito Marcogliese won his third victory in a row on a 6-3 decision at 130 pounds. Marcogliese scored on a takedown a reverse, and 3:50 riding time, but gave away one point for a clasp and two more for a reverse.

At 157, Savastano had a 4-0 lead over Montclair's John Jackson, but a late rally by Jackson caused a threat to Savastano's unblemished season record.

Frank scored a first period takedown and predicament, but Jackson escaped in two seconds of the third period and scored a takedown for his three points, not enough to ruin Frank's record.

Giving up his barber's shears, Russomano clipped Mountie Ken Ford 10-5.

The BHS senior and team captain scored on two takedowns, two reverses, and 3:43 riding time.

Marano's default at 178 came as a result of Keith Barber's persistent stalling, much to the consternation of the Mountie coach, but to the delight of the Bellboy fans. If the fans could have, they would have voted Barber Most Valuable Wrestler, for the Bellboy team.

The first period was a 0-0 draw, and Barber chose top position for the second. Marano then used the same outside switch move three times, counting on the strength of his stomach muscles developed in the

FRANK SAVASTANO drives into Montclair's John Jackson to keep the Mountie off balance. Savastano won 4-3 in the 157 match-up.

BELLEVILLE'S MIGHTY wrestler John Mustacchio strains as referee Ernest Zuber starts to signal a pin, the third this season for the highly talented junior grappler (123 pounds). Victim of Mustacchio's latest pin was Montclair's ever.

Cougars Score Tuesday

Fifth Ranked Orange Invades Belleville Tomorrow At Eight

Belleville hosts classy Orange High School tomorrow night as the Bellboys continue to seek their second victory of the season.

Tuesday, the cagers were swamped by a torrid-shooting Columbia five in Maplewood and fell to a 75-56 loss, their eleventh in 12 games.

The loss to Columbia came on the heels of the Bellboys', stunning upset of West Orange Friday, and was a big disappointment to fans who were speculating on some sort of final season surge.

In any case, Belleville will find no respite when the unbeaten and fifth ranked in the state Tornados bring their tall and talented cagers to the Bellboy home court at 8 p.m. The JV game precedes the varsity matchup at 7 p.m.

Tuesday, Irvington will come to Belleville hoping to advance in the Big Ten Conference at the home team's expense.

Against Columbia, Belleville was not even a shadow of the team it was last week when it outclassed a powerful Cowboy five for the biggest upset of the Big Ten season.

Columbia, whose only two victories this season have been against the Bellboys, hit a torrid 67 per cent of its field goals in the first half to easily outpoint Belleville. The Bellboys hit a dismal 31 per cent of their shots for the game.

Leading all scorers was Rocco Marotti, who registered

22 points but only hit nine of 24 shots from the field. The only other Bellboy to hit in double figures was Mike Petronaci with ten.

Lack of hustle and poor defense apparently were the reasons Bellboys mustered very little strength against the relatively weak Cougars. In many instances, Belleville blew easy shots after stealing the ball and heading down court on fast breaks.

The Bellboys started the game as if they meant business, with all five starters hitting for points in a well-balanced display of offense. But when Columbia started hitting phenomenally from the outside, Belleville fell apart and never caught up.

Leading the scoring for the Cougars was Neil Hoffman with 20 points. With the victory, Columbia upped its own dismal record to 2-9, the second worst in the Big Ten Conference. In deference to both teams, however, it must be said that the Big Ten competition this year is even more fierce and talented than it has been in recent years.

Gridders Set P.M. Contest

Belleville football fans will be treated to a rarity in schoolboy athletics next year when they play Bayonne High School a game under the lights.

Belleville High School Athletic Director Herman Wische, a staff member at BHS the past 34 years, says this is only the second game under the lights played. "The first one was with Irvington, 24 years ago."

This tilt is scheduled on a Friday night, and according to Wische, the stands in Bayonne are packed for the evening affairs.

Hits National Mark

Grippaldi Scores Record

Phil Grippaldi has set a new National Weightlifting record with a total of 1100 pounds in three Olympic lifts.

Grippaldi continues to add to his laurels as he moves ever upward in the world of strength.

Lifting at the Philadelphia Open last week Phil pressed 370 pounds, snatched 315 pounds and jerked 415 pounds. This marked the first time that Phil has totaled 1100 pounds in official competition. The record he broke was his own because Phil stands alone as Middle-heavyweight Champion in this Country.

In addition to winning the contest Phil also received the news that he has been chosen as "Lifter of the Year" by the staff of Strength and Health Magazine.

Just to remind Bellevillites here are some of the highlights of Phil's illustrious career. While still a student at Belleville High School he won the New Jersey Junior Championship, New Jersey Senior Championship, the Tri-State Senior Championship and set a world record in the press.

Since leaving high school Phil has won the Junior Nationals; three times won the Senior Nationals; won the Pan-American games; competed on the 1968 U.S. Olympic Team, and three times has represented the United States in the World Championships. He won the silver medal in the 1970 World Championships.

In fact Phil Grippaldi has won just about every lifting event available to him except the World Championship and this dedicated amateur athlete has his eyes well fixed on that goal. He has a lot of years of competition ahead of him and he is not one to easily settle for second best.

crew seasons to tire Barber. The plan worked as Marano scored the reverse, and while on top kept Barber under control. The first penalty point after one warning came in the second period, and in the third period Barber was hit with successive one and two point penalties. Referee Zuber had enough of the stalling and terminated the match at 4:25.

Belleville's other six wrestlers lost their matches. Lightweight Fred Arena lost 7-1 to Montclair's Raymond Harris as Harris scored 4:12 riding time in six minutes. Arena lost a perfect record, and now is 2-1.

Also losing a 2-0 record was Walt Bennett at 136. Walt was decisioned 5-3 by Montclair's Carleton Harris, who scored four decisive points in the second period on two escapes and a takedown. Bennett will be replaced by senior Bob Farra this week.

The third wrestler to spoil a 2-0 slate was Brian Waddell at 148. Jim Bright was a District champ at Montclair High last year as a soph. and decisioned Waddell 14-5 with 1:31 riding time. Fifteen of the nineteen points scored were on escapes, reversals, and takedowns.

At 141, Ed Duncley was pinned just as the buzzer ending the match was sounded. Dave Pinderhughes had a 13-1 lead over Duncley (now 1-2) which included three near falls.

VITO MARCOGLIESE tries to get both of Mike Shaw's shoulders to the mat for a pin but fails. The 130 pound Bellboy standouts nevertheless won their third straight dual meet contest, 6-3 and had an overwhelming 3:50 riding time.

Zig Zags Continue To Destroy Rec Men's League Opposition

The Zig Zags registered their eighth consecutive victory by stopping the DelGees 71-40. The Zig Zags had a torrid hand in the first half while scoring 51 points.

Jim Botch led the Zig Zags in the first half with 13 points and finished with a total of 19. Marty McNish and John O'Connell were outstanding on defense. John Visco played an aggressive game for the DelGees. A big set back for the DelGees occurred, when Pete Brindisi had to leave the game with a knee injury.

Kings Court stayed in the reach of a play-off berth by defeating the Sons 66 to 40. Richard Luzzi used a variety of shots to become the high scorer with 22 points. Tom Zilolkowski and Ralph Greco combined for an additional 25 points. Kings Court will miss the services of James Orsini who has returned to college in Rome, Italy. Carlen Barrett scored 14 of the Sons 40 points.

The Robsons remained tied with the Kings Court by handing the Cardinals their sixth set back 80 to 60. Robsons had four players in double figures. Jack Hendrickson led the attack with 16 points followed by Jim McDonald, Bill Venino and Joe Potts with 15, 13 and ten points respectively. Bob Haug displayed excellent ability while scoring 16 for the Gardens.

The Circles, behind the sharp shooting of Rick SanFilippo defeated the Park Pub 68 to 60. Rick scored 28 points, seven of them in the first half. Art Sheridan was the next high scorer with 12. John McEvoy scored 22 as he tried to spark the Pub to victory.

Ken Nakasian of the Circles may be out for the season with an ankle injury. Ken's injury put a dent in the Circles drive for the Recreation Mens Basketball League Championship.

Kings Court closed out the first round in the Mens Recreation Basketball League, with a 78 to 66 win over the Park Pub. Tom Zilolkowski played his best game of the season, in ringing up 29 points. Ralph Greco and Richard Luzzi teamed up for another 25 points.

Jim Orsini broke out of his slump in tossing in 14 points. The Park Pub had three men score in double figures in a losing cause. John McEvoy, Ralph Kabbarger and Joe Caruso had 23, 13 and 14 points respectively.

The new Sons team registered an impressive 83 to 67 victory over the Del Gees. Joe Barrett had a very easy night while pumping in 36 points for the Sons. Joe Brooks and Alan Coppola combined for thirty points for the Del Gees.

The Circles brought their record to six wins and one defeat while stopping the Gardens 60 to 40. Ken Nicoschian had a hot hand for the Circles. He scored 12 points in the second half. Jim Connells had his highest point production of the season with nine points. For the Gardens Joe Mascitielli was high man with 17 points.

Robsons displayed a gallant effort in losing to the Zig Zags 57 to 49. Bill Tyson and Jim O'Connell sparked the Zig Zags victory with 12 and 10 points respectively. The Robsons team was winning at half time 24 to 23. Bud Dacey scored all of his ten points in the first half, his teammates Bill Hercek and Jim McDonnell also scored in double figures for the Robsons.

The Gardens won their second game of the season by defeating the Park Pub 61-51. Dave Sheldon paved the way in the first half with 13 points, in the second half Bob Haug scored 12 points to secure the victory. Robsons won their third game, when the Sons failed to show up. Robsons felt that this was their easiest win of the season.

Kings Court scored 62 points and still lost to Zig Zags 76-62. John O'Connell pumped in 26 points while Marty Higgins contributed 18 points. Richard Luzzi threw in 17 points in a gallant but losing effort. Zig Zags record is 5 and 0, while the Kings Court fell to 2 and 3. Circles brought their record to 5 and 0 in stopping the DelGees 54-42. Rich San Filippo and Nick Pizzuto both scored in double figures. Pete Brooks had 14 points for Del Gees.

Dougherty Hits 30 Points Five-Way Tie Spices Senior Recreation Basketball League

After last week's action, there are five teams tied for the lead in the Senior League, with identical 3-1 records. The five teams are C.C. and Company, Falcons, Celtics, Rec Boys and the Sons.

C. C. & Company had an easy time defeating the boys from Grants by a score of 72 to 24. Mike Dougherty had an outstanding night as he led all scorers with 30 points. Two of his teammates also hit in double figures as Joe Papasidero scored 16 and Bob Barthwaite finished with 12. Mike Edigio stood out in a losing cause as he scored 16 of Grants 24 points.

The Falcons also enjoyed an easy night as they whipped the winless Nets 75 to 35. Jash Moraski led the Falcons with 22 points followed closely by Mike Calia with 20 points. Al Roberts and Kent Robinson were the third and fourth members of the Falcons to score in double figures as each finished the night with 10. Sal Baglione led the Nets in scoring with 14 while Bobby Johnson had eight, and Dave Camerotta scored seven.

The Celtics came from behind to defeat Period two 16 to 39. Frank Russomano again led the scoring this time with 19 points. Ron Muscara was perhaps the big difference however, as he controlled both backboards while scoring 16 points underneath. Joe Fitzpatrick and John Godleski kept Period two close behind the Celtics by scoring 14 and 13 points respectively.

The Rec Boys routed the winless Wildcats by a 43 point margin, 63 to 20. Vince Tortorelli and Carmen DiMeo led the offense with 19 and 18 points while Joe Covey and Ken Langlands came up with the defensive rebounds. Greg Ottoligano and Chris Oertel scored six points each for the Wildcats.

The Sons enjoyed a 10 point lead over the Bucks at half time, but had to hang on in the second half to finish with a 3 point win 41 to 38. Alan Truesdale led the winners with 18 while Mike Zarra was held to 10 points. Rich DellaTerza was the games high scorer in a losing cause as he netted 22 points.

Earlier the Falcons, winners of their first two games by close scores, lost their first game by a narrow margin. The final score of 45 to 34 is no true indication of the tough and tight battle waged by these teams as the score see-sawed until mid-way in the fourth quarter.

Mike Dougherty gave an outstanding performance as he scored 26 of C. C. and Company's 45 points while Dave Brown added eleven. It was a tough C. C. defense however that kept the Falcons from getting the good shots underneath and forced them to take longer shots from the outside. Yash Maraski was held to eleven points and Kent Robinson and Mike Calia scored seven apiece for the Falcons.

The Celtics bounced back from a loss and easily handled the Nets by a 71 to 34 score. Frank Russomano alone scored 31 points while getting good support from Augie LaLuna with 18 and William Martins twelve. Sal Baglione led the Nets with 15 points.

Richard DellaTerza and Jerry DePaul led the Bucks to an easy 74-24 win over Grants. Rick scored 31, Jerry followed with 21 and teammate Gary Falkman contributed 12. Grants had three of its players in foul trouble which gave the Bucks an additional 12 points from the free throw line. Richard Carbone led Grants with seven points with Phil Bruno and Mike Egideo helping with six each.

Cagers Shock Cowboys For Year's First Win

This fine play by the Bellboy guards helped open up the corner for Marotti. Hitting on 12 of 20 shots, Marotti was the man in the clutch as he scored nine points in the fourth quarter, and grabbed four of his eight rebounds in the decisive period. His 25 points easily took game honors as West Orange was led by Gary Massa's 16.

Charlie Carr gave Belleville a big lift in the second half as he came off the bench to score six points. For Caravetta, this game was his best in three varsity seasons. His career high of 12 points and tenacious defense at the foul circle were big factors in the game.

In the first quarter, West Orange had the hot hand as they jumped out to a quick 13-6 lead. Belleville came back with five straight points, but two baskets in the final minute of the quarter by Gary Massa, enabled the Cowboys to grab a 17-13 advantage. Bellboy Bob Visco had a good opening quarter with 6 points.

Marotti, who had been held scoreless in the first period, found the range in the second quarter as he had ten of Belleville's 15 second period points. Belleville fought back to a tie early in the quarter, the teams were tied 25-25 with 1:20 left in the half. Marotti's basket and Ken Zoppa's free throw shot the Bellboys into a three point lead, but this was cut to one on Frank Rosania's buzzer shot.

The third quarter saw nine lead changes as the teams fought on practically even terms. In the fourth and final quarter, Belleville outplayed a good team and earned their victory.

We wrote recently a couple of columns about radio, which started 50 years ago. It began with batteries and now we are back to transistor radios with batteries. Tubes for radios have disappeared the change over to transistors is complete.

In our last column about radio we wrote about the role Cortland Street in New York played in the development of radio. Cortland Street at one time was synonymous with radio. It has disappeared now, the Port Authority is building the New World Trade Center on the site of Cortland Street.

After the regular (AM) radio had run its course, a new dimension regarding tone quality and elimination of static appeared on the scene, called FM, which means Frequency Modulation, while the old system was called AM (Amplitude Modulation). It had a very slow start and almost died out after a few years, but slowly and painfully it came to life.

The tone quality is vastly superior than with AM, not to speak of the almost complete elimination of static, man made as well as lightning for instance. On top of it, it became possible to transmit stereo on FM and since that time it is beginning to push AM more and more in the background, if it comes to tone quality. To be sure there are thousands of large and small AM stations in operation. At this time there are still many more AM sets in use than FM, for quite a while AM radio will be with us.

We service what we sell. Berk's Radio TV Hi-Fi Nutley 667-4225

Senior Play Auditions Held In Auditorium

By Heidi Weiss

The results of the audition, and a secondary audition to be held Friday, January 15, will be posted by Miss Jamgochian sometime next week.

'Seventh Wonder' Sets Pace At Council Dance

Speaking on behalf of the entire Youth Council, we wish the Seventh Wonder a continually successful career. With such talent as they possess, who can set any limitations?

Club Visits Show

The Bookends is a newly formed club with Mrs. Andrea Schultz as advisor. The club's purpose is to provide a basic cultural background for the members under the leadership of president Pam Pomarico. The club has been fortunate to have Mrs. Sheila McKenna as a guest speaker an attendee "Hello Dolly" starring Ethel Merman in November.

Recreation Loop A Big Success

The teams, under the direction of Mr. Robert Co of the Recreation Department, are well organized. They not only give the boys a place to but seem to be a period of relaxation for all involved. The only disadvantage is players on the Bellevue Varsity or Junior Varsity team, who because of the "better than average" ability can not play in the Recreation League.

Talented Students Entertain BHS

Asphalous (yes, you read it right) offered their contribution of two songs, "Born to be Wild" and "Purple Haze." An unusual feature of this group is Janet Bonkowski—a girl drummer.

To get energy you need fuel, so when an energetic version of "Ride Captain Ride" was played, it didn't take long to realize you were listening to Mike Ritacco's group, "Fuel." The final entry for the show, they opened with a slow "Color Me Boudie World," and changed over to the bright tempo of "Ride Captain Ride."

SGO Buys Stereo, Sweaters

A cabinet will be built by wood shop students under Mr. Weiss; it will be put on casters so that it can be moved between the cafeteria and the gym.

The stereo system consists of a record player, cassette and eight-track tape player and an F.M. radio. Records have been purchased out of the S.G.O. treasury, at a cost of $69.

The student governing body has also purchased sweaters for letterman. Athletes who have lettered more than once in a sport are given a sweater free, they also receive a hash mark for each letter.

SENIORS READ their lines as they tryout for Belleville High School class production, "The Man Who Came To Dinner."

Essex Detective Speaks To BHS Lawyers Club

Questions followed the lecture and proved both interesting and informative. Mr. Magnusson stressed throughout his lecture the Office and wishes to express their thanks to all concerned. The Lawyer's Club is planning a trip to the Sheriff's Office and Court House as well as inviting additional speakers representing various other areas of the law. The teacher-advisor, Mr. J. Alan Gavitt, sees a prosperous future for the Club!

Wrestlers Get Rousing Cheer

This was the first wrestling pep assembly to be presented the sport's own cheering squad. Belleville High has had separate wrestling cheerleaders only for the past two years. Mrs. Judy Fennic, who was cheering advisor before Miss Filemyr, organized the original, four-member squad last year. Three years ago, there was only one cheerleading squad with 16 members.

During the overlapping basketball and wrestling season, the girls would rotate, with 10 cheering basketball and 6 wrestling. The wrestling cheerleading squad is composed of the following seven girls: captain Rhonda Mabie a senior/junior Carol Sodano, and sophomores Angela Elefante, Karen Giordano, Marcia Osborne, Gilda Foti, and Cynthia Olivio. The squad also has a manager, Mindy Serritella.

According to Miss Fienmyr the girls are "naturally enthusiastic" about wrestling. She also spoke of the close relationship between the cheerleaders and Coach James Silvestri. "In a way," she said, "he coaches them too." The girls put in a great deal of time, practicing in the afternoons or at night; they also held practice during the Christmas vacation. The cheerleaders put up posters to publicize wrestling, and did a lot of the planning for the assembly.

WNET Schedules Drug Abuse
Specials Wednesday, Monday

WNET will begin telecasting a series of program specials on drug abuse Mondays and Wednesdays at 7 PM starting February 1. The series titled "The Turned on Crisis" consists of eight hour-long programs aimed at fostering information and understanding of drug abuse and its consequences in communities of color.

Cindy Won't Believe It Until She's On the Plane

back home on April 11.

Cindy's known in the Belleville Times as the girl golf star and is rated 19th under the junior girls of the United States. While being a high honor roll student, Cindy participated in many activities including the girls basketball team, ski club, co-chairman of the prombid committee, representative to the junior senate, and chairman of the Fund Raising Committee for the junior class.

Cindy's really excited and hopes to be able to make new friends and try new foods. A chance in a lifetime for her she says, "it will broaden my education because I will be there to see the things I've studied over the years". Our own principal, Raymond O. Smith is accompanying the group.

IN-MEMORIAM

In moving memory of our beloved son Tommy, who passed away January 24, 1967. So sad and sudden came the call. Your sudden death surprised us all. A sudden change in a moment left. Without a chance to say farewell. We always sit and think of you, and think of how you died. To think you could not say good-bye, before you closed your eyes. When we look upon your picture, sweet memories we recall of a face so full of sunshine. And a smile for one and all. Getting used to being lonesome. That is what we must learn to do. Since we were so used to having you. Sadly missed, love always: Mother and Dad

In loving memory of our dear brother and brother-in-law, who passed away January 24, 1967. If steps were made of heartaches, and the tears we shed for you, we would build a stairway to heaven. And spend the day with you. Love and remembered always: Alice and nephew Debbie, Dawn and Tommy

In memory you are always near, loved remembered and forever dear. God reached down and put his arms around you and said, Come into a new world with me. Love and remembered always: Alice and nephew Debbie, Dawn and Tommy arrived about 4, things had settled down a bit. But there were still some strange things going on at Pietro's Washington Avenue Barbershop. For one thing, Jerry Piserchia was still giving haircuts.

BHS Alumnus Wins $50,000

"I didn't want to take the afternoon off. Everything has to stay normal," Piserchia said somewhat strained. He went on cutting a young lad's hair. Then the telephone rang.

"It's for you Jerry," Nunzio said. Then turning to The Times Nunzio reported, "That telephone hasn't stopped ringing all afternoon. How does everyone know already?"

Before Jerry picked up the telephone, someone popped in the front door, said he was on his way to work, "but I just wanted to say, congratulations. It couldn't have happened to a nicer guy."

Later Jerry said everyone who called was saying the same thing. "They all say, 'Congratulations, God Bless You. It couldn't have happened to a nicer guy.'"

Jerry's wife, Joan, was still at home in nearby Clifton. She had called several times since her husband was declared the $50,000 winner. "She's a nervous wreck. My mother's a nervous wreck. So's my father," Jerry said, and he continued to meticulously trim the hair of the same young lad.

"But we shouldn't have any publicity on this $50,000 thing," Jerry said. "Maybe The Nutley Sun, okay, that's a local newspaper, but nothing else."

Did he think he could keep winning $50,000 a secret?

"Yes, I won't tell anyone. I don't have to cash in the ticket for a year if I don't want to," Piserchia noted.

The secret was kept from the media only two days. On Saturday, Gerald Piserchia's picture was on the front page of every daily newspaper in the state, and prominently featured in the weekend papers in New York and Philadelphia.

Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Piserchia of 21-A Lovell Court, Nutley. Although Jerry's parents work here, and he himself has been a barber in Nutley seven years, the $50,000 lottery winner is actually a product of Belleville, and now a resident of Clifton.

His wife, Joan, is originally from the Vailsburg area of Newark. Jerry and Joan have a one-year-old daughter, Jodi Carol.

He purchased two tickets in the first lottery and when asked if he was going to buy more weekly tickets in the future, Jerry replied matter-of-factly, "No. I'll keep on buying two—that's all my budget allows."

He purchased the winning ticket from Lou Fassler, proprietor of the Washington Sweet Shop. Fassler will receive a $500 bonus from the State Lottery Commission for selling the winning $50,000 ticket.

Jerry wants to invest most of the winning sum to help with his daughter's educational needs. But he says he'll take a little to buy his wife some new clothes providing she consents to his buying a couple of tickets on the 50-yard-line for next season's New York Giant football games.

He is employed by Nunzio Pietoso, although the joke at the shop this past week was that Jerry is going to buy out his boss. But Jerry is serious about not making any changes in his life style. He

In case of doubt, don't borrow and don't lend.
