

No Suspension

Mayor Backs Fireman Despite Legal Charges

By Nat Gottlieb

Mayor Ken Smith is backing a Belleville fireman to the hilt despite the fact the public employee is facing charges of conspiracy to violate the gambling code.

The fireman is Edward Saulino of 141 Heckel Street, who faces a maximum penalty of three years imprisonment and an undetermined fine if found guilty of the gambling charge.

"He's not guilty," the Mayor declared unequivocally in defending his decision not to suspend the fireman, even though the courts have released Saulino on $2,500 bail.

The fireman is being charged in connection with a December 20 raid on his home by detectives from the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, and the local police department. Saulino was not in his home during the raid. An initial charge of maintaining a gambling operation was later dropped.

Smith, who is director of Public Safety, said the length of court trials was a key factor in not imposing the suspension. "What sense would it make to suspend the man and then if he's found not guilty two years from now penalize taxpayers by making them pay two years in back pay."

The Mayor did say, however, that if a local policeman faced similar charges "I definitely would suspend him because it would interfere with the nature of his duties."

Neither the Mayor nor Fire Chief Carl Hundertpfund felt the gambling charge had any bearing on the Public Safety Department's code of conduct which provides for suspension when an employee commits a "flagrant violation of the law...where the reputation of the department shall suffer..." The two officials said the code did not apply unless the man had been tried and found guilty.

There seems to be some doubt as to whether the fireman was ever called to a departmental hearing.

Chief Hundertpfund, who also confidently declared the fireman "not guilty", apparently had been confused about the hearing issue in an hour-long interview with the Times-News Friday.

The Times-News asked the chief "Isn't there a possibility that he (Saulino) may be guilty of conduct unbecoming a fireman, and if so don't you have the authority to recommend a civil service department hearing to the Mayor?"

Chief Hundertpfund replied: "I have the authority to do that but I'm not considering it because I'm not sure if he's guilty."

The Chief spent the major part of an hour's telephone conversation defending his decision not to call a hearing on the matter. Then Monday, (Continued on Page 3)

Talks Still On

Salary Impasse Could Change Budget Figure Offered Tonight

The Belleville Board of Education will present a $4,863,441 tax package to residents at a public hearing tonight, but with teacher salary schedules apparently unsettled, that figure might change substantially before voters enter the polls February 10.

The teachers and the Board were scheduled to meet last night with a state mediator from the Public Employee Relations Commission, (PERC) the first negotiation gathering of the parties since salary talks broke down two weeks ago.

The Times-News went to press before the outcome of that last night's meeting was learned, but spokesmen for both sides expressed doubts earlier that the stalemate would be resolved in one session.

Last year teachers called in PERC over a similar salary impasse, and only a last minute snow storm and a change of heart by the Board prevented a teacher walkout.

Tonight's meeting is scheduled at School Eight and will begin promptly at 8.

Last week chief teacher negotiator George Nucera charged the Board's budget was "deceptive," and warned residents that final salary settlement might add "up to $150,000 in the instruction account."

Earlier in the week it appeared possible a scheduling problem between the number Eight Home and School Association and the Board could cause some friction.

Also named were Michael Rossi, 669 Mill Street; Mrs. Elsie Albertine, 631 Joralemon Street; Aldo Di Chiara, 6 Smallwood Avenue; Mrs. Jean Cornish, 66 Rutan Road; Victor Call, 10 Springer Street; Frank Candelora, 181 Adelaide Street; Joseph Cardozo, 90 Norton Street; John Petro, 22 Cottage Street and Mike Dacey, 37 Church Street.

friction might result tonight, but no one was speaking for the record. All the Times could learn was that the parent group feels that eight of the candidates who were not Board members should not have to wait until after the budget hearing to address residents.

Whether or not a confrontation results, some sparks are being promised by the Belleville Valley Association, a local taxpayers group which will have representatives at the hearing "armed with questions."

Last year during a stormy Municipal budget hearing in March, members of the Belleville Valley Association were criticized for taking the Town Commission to task for its budget and ignoring the school budget hearings completely.

At that time, BVA officials publicly acknowledged "we missed the boat on the school board, but we'll be watching them all this year."

Apparently the BVA has had other things on its mind, for it has been rare that a BVA representative was present this year at Board of Education public meetings when most proposed spending is discussed.

BVA vice president Tony Fernandes discussed this issue with the Times this week, and admitted that "the proper amount of attention has not been given to the School Board by our group."

Asked why the alleged 400 member BVA could not muster a contingency for school Board meetings, Fernandes replied: "It's our executive committee that primarily attends meetings and it's a little difficult to split up."

Dr. Wallings Shoulders Blame For Tardy Enrollment Report

Dr. Donald Wallings, head of a Rutgers research team studying Belleville's educational system, this week shouldered the blame for the tardiness of his group's report on the town's school system.

In an exclusive interview with the Times-News, Dr. Wallings said "we just fouled up with a couple of other studies and you should put all the blame on me."

Last week there had been speculation by local political observers and candidates that the tardy report might be a political ploy by the School Board to avoid taking a stand on Belleville's enrollment crisis before the February-9 school election.

The report was due in December and was to include a study of the town's school system, a study of the town's existing buildings, a preliminary report concentrating on enrollment was issued last month by Dr. Wallings with the promise that the study of buildings and of alternative measures to meet the crisis would arrive by January 15.

Now that date has been moved up to "the first week in February," according to Dr. Wallings, who spoke with the Times from his office at Rutgers University in New Brunswick.

Dr. Wallings, who heads the Rutgers Education Department, was hired by the Belleville School Board early last year to conduct his survey at a cost of $5,000.

In discussing the tardiness of the report, Dr. Wallings took full blame and said "no one in Belleville threw any roadblocks at us." "In fact," he went on, "everyone was most cooperative in our study. We were just a bit too optimistic in announcing our initial date for the report."

Although Dr. Wallings declined to discuss his report to any great extent, he did give the Times-News a few insights into the projected 80 page document.

"There is no question," he said, "but that the dramatic growth in the high school population is the most serious problem facing the Belleville system."

Dr. Wallings saw much of the blame for this growth in the marked increase in parochial school transfers, which he said were largely precipitated by increased tuition fees by those institutions. Wallings declined to speculate whether this was a statewide problem, saying

"each school district is a separate entity and you can't make any blanket statements about all of them."

The Rutgers researcher, who was hired six years ago to study Belleville's need for a new high school, said his team this week is in the final stages of shaping recommendations.

Fulfills Promise

Mrs. Senatore Chooses Group To Study Budget

Commissioner Mary Senatore has named a five-member committee of residents to help prepare her 1971 Public Works budget.

The idea for having residents sit in on budget preparations apparently is an outgrowth of last year's stormy hearings in which taxpayers complained they had no voice in budget formation "until it was too late."

In announcing the committee, which Mrs. Senatore says represents a geographic cross-section of town, she said she was keeping her promise at last year's budget hearing "that I would be willing to sit with citizens of our town and explain the budget appropriations for the Department of Public Works and also be willing to receive advice that would prove helpful."

Much of the noisy discontent, voiced at public hearings last March came from members of the Belleville Valley Association, a local taxpayer's group, which promised to "keep a close watch on spending the coming year."

Mrs. Senatore said she has received a request from that organization to review her budget, but declined to meet with them because "I do not feel that any one group represents the entire town of Belleville."

"My thoughts," she continued, "are to have a cross-section of our town, from all neighborhoods, meet with me, people who have the interest of our town at heart, willing to give of their time and knowledge to help preserve the monies of our taxpayer without hampering an efficient operation of the needed services for all the people of Belleville."

The commissioner said she had selected the president of the Belleville Valley Association, Frank Simeone, for the committee.

First meeting of the committee is scheduled Wednesday, Feb. 10 at 8 p.m. in

Senatore's committee are James Ward, 12 Bridge Street; N. Mroczek, 44 Essex Street; Mrs. Toni Ward, 284 North Belmont Avenue; John Caruso, 53 Mt. Pleasant Avenue; Morris Coppola, 16 Wilber Street; John Tague, 267 Fairway Avenue; Frank Simeone, 113 Ralph Street; Andrew Colaninno, 110 Belmore Street; David Robbins, 538 Washington Avenue; Mrs. Alfreda

Greylock Parkway.

Also named were Michael Rossi, 669 Mill Street; Mrs. Elsie Albertine, 631 Joralemon Street; Aldo Di Chiara, 6 Smallwood Avenue; Mrs. Jean Cornish, 66 Rutan Road; Victor Call, 10 Springer Street; Frank Candelora, 181 Adelaide Street; Joseph Cardozo, 90 Norton Street; John Petro, 22 Cottage Street and Mike Dacey, 37 Church Street.

Cops Nab 15-Year-Old Suspect For Hold-Up Of 70-Year Old Cabby

Belleville Police have remanded a 15 year old boy into the custody of a county youth house in connection with a robbery last week involving a 70-year old taxi-cab driver. Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight told the Times Monday local detectives had arrested a youth who allegedly robbed a driver for the Belleville Cab Company of $40 last Wednesday evening.

According to Haight, who is in charge of the local detective bureau, seventy-year old Michael De Lorenzo of 212 Centre Street, Nutley, was robbed of $40 shortly after picking up two youths at Guys and Dolls Billiard Parlor on Washington Avenue.

Deputy Chief Haight said the driver took the two youths to Newark, where one got out and the other—the 15 year old—requested to be driven back to Belleville. On Franklin Avenue the youth put a weapon to the driver's head and demanded cash, Haight said. The youth then forced the driver to take him back to Newark and hopped out of the

Nixon's Speech Relates

Mathew Pica, candidate for the School Board, this week found President Nixon's State of the Union Address applicable to Belleville educational problems.

In a prepared release to the Times-News, Pica said:

"I have been so moved by the President's state of the union message, that I will depart from the original press release prepared for this week and show how our educational system can relate to the President's message at a local level.

Late Hour Sale Has 15 Stores

Stanley Slavin, chairman of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce sales promotion committee this week said 15 local businesses would participate in next Thursday's second "Late Hour Sale."

According to Slavin, participating stores will close next Thursday from 5 to 7 p.m. to mark down items for sale, and reopen from 7 to 10 p.m.

Slavin said stores involved are displaying signs reading:

Street Overhaul Sought

The Public Works Department has applied for a $73,500 grant from the State Transportation Department to reconstruct Division Avenue.

Commissioner Mary Senatore, who directs that department, said the request amounted to about 75 per cent of the total cost for the project, roughly the state's normal share in town sponsored road construction. A similar grant was used by the Public Works Department to complete reconstruction of Joralemon Street this past fall.

Mrs. Senatore said she hopes to reconstruct the street from Washington Avenue to Passaic Avenue, and said the roadway was singled out because it is a "fire-run" for the local Fire Department. She also said the street was so heavily damaged that spot-filling of potholes is no longer effective.

The project would include an entire new street surface and the replacing of curbs where necessary.

Monaghan Charges Conflict

Board of Education candidate John Monaghan this week charged four fellow candidates employed as teachers might be running for the local board "to increase benefits for them if they choose to enter the system."

In an interview with the Times, Monaghan charged that four candidates — Peter Paglia, Carl DeJura, G. Fred

Air Pollution Survey Ready

A survey of existing and potential sources of air pollution will be initiated in the near future by representatives of the Suburban Air Pollution Commission according to Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, director of Public Affairs, and Edward Hillery, Belleville Health Officer.

Belleville's membership in the regional air pollution control agency became effective January 1, 1971.

stated the entire cost of this additional service will be paid from state aid funds. The Suburban Air Pollution Commission serves 13 communities in Essex and Union counties and is authorized to administer and enforce the air pollution code.

The Commissioner further stated the purpose of the survey is to obtain information regarding the location and ownership of apartments and industries and to determine whether they meet requirements of the Belleville air pollution code recently adopted by the board of commissioners.

The air pollution code prohibits all open burning of refuse. The emission of smoke from fuel-burning equipment is regulated by the code which also requires large users of No. 4 and No. 6 oil to install smoke alarms to provide an early warning of excessive smoke emissions.

The operation of incinerators is limited to the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. In addition, incinerator emission standards from smoke, ash, (Continued on Page 3) services the law was designed to provide."

The action apparently comes after several complaints by residents recently about a rash of ticketing on each street during inclement weather.

Chief Smith said the suspension does not apply to streets with posted signs reading: "No Parking When Road Is Snow Covered." These streets, Mrs. Senatore says, are key streets in snow removal.

Need Funds First

Seek To Identify Handicapped Early

The Belleville Special Education Department is seeking federal funds for a program designed to identify children with learning handicaps before they enter the system. This would be in contrast to the present system where such children are referred to the department only after they show learning difficulties in regular classes.

What the department wants is a summer screening program to study pre-school children with potential learning disabilities, with the aim toward placing them in special classes the minute they enter the school system.

Dr. Robert Winston, Belleville's newly hired director of special education and a psychologist, says early detection of such children could save them from bad initial classroom experiences, experiences which could cause psychological damage taking years to correct.

As it stands now, a child with learning handicaps may go unnoticed in a large class because teachers are not specifically trained to recognize learning disabilities.

What Dr. Winston hopes for are funds to create a child-study team within his department to screen pre-school youngsters over summer months to determine if special education is necessary.

Spotting the handicapped learner before he enters the system has several advantages, according to Dr. Winston. Besides saving such children from being embarrassed and frustrated at their inability to keep pace with a normal class, the summer screening program would give the special education department a head start in placing youngsters in the proper special classes. In many instances it takes several months to place these children because of limited facilities and staff.

Dr. Winston says he has already applied for Federal funds under Title Three of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 which provides funds for implementing innovations in local school districts.

According to Dr. Winston,

116 requests for funds under this act were made last year by various schools, with 21 being funded. The psychologist says he has obtained similar grants while working in other school systems.

On Board

Risoli Says He Would Use Sound Reasoning

James Risoli, candidate for the February 9 School Board election, said he would use "sound reasoning, logic and understanding of all problems or issues" if elected to one of the three Board seats up for grabs.

In a prepared statement to the Times, Risoli said:

Education isn't costly, it pays - as parents we want the best education available for our children. I believe our children deserve the best teachers, facilities and services.

If we are to prepare our children for the demands and challenges of tomorrow - as parents we have to give them the best preparation possible within our means today.

I have a son in the school system and from my contacts with our teachers, with school administrators and the P.T.A., I found that they are genuinely interested in and helpful to my child, both academically and socially. There appears to be a harmonious relationship between administration, teachers, and parents. I am sure all are striving to provide the best educational opportunities and instructions.

However, I would encourage a closer in depth home-school relationship. Parents should attend school conferences with teachers as frequently as necessary. They can point at problems at home which might influence a child's behavior in school. The teacher has a chance to discuss a student as a person, his ability and interest, and failings which are not apparent on a report card. In short, a better understanding between parent and teachers.

I am of the firm belief that our guidance department needs to be expanded to permit counselors adequate time to discuss, evaluate, and assess the strengths of the students so as to provide effective guidance into the areas more compatible with the students' ability and aptitudes.

Doubts Rutgers Survey

Paglia Warns Residents Of Massive Bond Issue

School Board candidate Peter Paglia last night urged voters "to be careful in selecting three new members to the Board" because "their selection will very well determine whether or not a multi-million dollar bonding program will be thrust upon their backs."

Paglia said "subtle hints" by the School Board concerning the Wallings Report were his basis for believing a multi-million dollar bonding program is in the offing.

The candidate criticized the tardiness of that report and said it "will make it possible for many of the candidates to hold off committing themselves to the floating of that multi-million dollar bond issue until it is too late for the voters to judge where each and every candidate stands on the issues and results of the report."

Paglia also questioned the necessity for the $5,000 report on this town's educational system by a Rutgers research team under Dr. Donald Wallings. He said "it would not be the first time a governing body arranged for a report with the outcome a foregone conclusion."

The candidate charged the report was being made "for the sole purpose of convincing the voters of a need which perhaps does not really exist."

Paglia said the preliminary report which the Board received in December, "should have been made available to the citizens of the town and all candidates so that they could make a sensible analysis of the results." He also said he believed the results of the report "will be that there is some overcrowding presently and future increases will be predicted."

system."

Burlazzi listed these principles as:

(1) "Reaffirming the principle that education is a form of discipline and respect for discipline will within itself improve our school system."

(2) "Agreeing that a spirit of cooperation between students, teachers, administrators and the town commission is necessary in developing solutions to current problems."

(3) "Recognizing that the taxpayers in Belleville are already over taxed and that relief must be sought if our community as we know it is to survive, and

(4) "Realizing that we are in changing times and that a conservative approach to our current problems is the best avenue to long term solutions."

Burlazzi said a buffet-dance is scheduled by his supporters Saturday at the Galaxy, 338 Franklin Avenue.

Teacher Salary Talks Could Change Budget

have said. "We are approaching this thing with an open mind," Fernandes said. "Our attitude is to discover and assess how reasonable and sound the budget is."

The BVA vice president said his group would base its judgement of the budget on information contained in booklets available at the meeting and by a sort of "on the spot evaluation."

Fernandes said this evaluation consists of a standard group of budget questions used in industry and business is designed to assess whether "good business techniques are used in forming a budget."

Asked what this group hoped to accomplish at the meeting, Fernandes said "we hope to find out if there has been any bad business practices, and if so we hope that the press will pick up on this and relay it to the public to help them make their choices at the polls."

Mayor Backs Up Accused Fireman

the Chief called the Times to say there had been a "mixup."

"I've just spoken to the Mayor," Chief Hundertpfund said, "and I think there has been a misunderstanding." "Of course we had a hearing on the matter," he continued. "I'm sure I told you that. I thought you meant did we have a trial."

Chief Hundertpfund said the hearing took place informally in Mayor Smith's office "about five weeks ago." "The Mayor was there with Saulino and myself and we asked him if he was guilty. As a result of this hearing we decided not to suspend him and risk the chance of having to pay him back pay."

Reminded that the Times had used the word "hearing" in the Friday interview at least a dozen times, Hundertpfund claimed "I thought you meant by that a trial."

The Mayor also said there had been an informal hearing in his office with the Chief. Neither top official, however, could tell the Times what type of gambling charge was involved.

The chief in fact, doubted whether there were any formal charges: "I didn't see any charges on his subpoena, he said."

Asked what the exact charges were, Smith brushed off the question by saying "He wasn't even in the house when they got there."

Both officials admitted they had not made an attempt to contact Essex County Prosecutor's officials prior to the hearing to learn of circumstances in the case. "I didn't think I should," Chief Hundertpfund said. "I didn't feel the need."

Chief Hundertpfund did say that if the man was found guilty, "he would be suspended," but hinted he would do so only because regulations demanded it.

"Our laws say a fireman is not permitted to gamble," Chief Hundertpfund said, "but the state seems pretty lenient about gambling in things like the lottery. I don't see why a fireman should be subject to such restrictions when there is bingo four nights a week at the Elks and I certainly wouldn't tell a fireman not to go there. I'm really not concerned about the charge, although I would be if it were that he was charged with running a gambling house, which I don't believe he is."

Chief Hundertpfund said the last time he could recall any suspensions in his department were in connection with drinking and rowdiness. "Those weren't real suspensions," the Chief said. "The men just lost three days without pay, but they weren't suspended." The Chief also said he didn't consider "gambling charges as bad as drinking or rowdiness."

The Chief said Saulino "is one of the finest men on the department as far as his personality is concerned. He's a good fireman; never loses time on the job, and we might as well get the benefit out of him if he's found not guilty."

Whether or not there actually was a hearing on the matter will have to depend on whether you take the word of the Mayor and the Chief, since both said "no notes were taken during the hearing." A Town Attorney Nicholas Amato also said he had no knowledge there had been a hearing. The attorney is frequently asked to present the town's case in formal hearings, but is not necessarily called to do so in informal investigations.

St. Peter's Schedules Speech By Abbot Burne In Auditorium

The fourth lecture on the formation and operation of the Parish Council at St. Peter's R. C. Church is scheduled Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the School Auditorium.

The principal speaker, selected by Rev. Joseph A. Costello, Pastor at St. Peter's, will be Rev. Martin J. Burne, O. S. B., Abbot of St. Mary's Abbey, Morristown. His subject will be "The Spirit of Renewal," with emphasis on the role of the Parish Council within the Parish.

Abbot Burne attended

Blessed Sacrament School and St. Benedict's Prep in

Abbot Burne

Following his being graduated from St. Vincent College, he was an instructor in music, German and religion at Delbarton School, and St. Benedict's Prep.

He served as Chaplain in the United States Navy from 1942 to 1946; as Assistant at Sacred Heart Church, Elizabeth in 1961 and 1962; as Novice Master at St. Mary's Abbey, and became Abbot at St. Mary's in 1966. He has been involved at the State level with band, orchestral and choral groups, having served for a number of years on the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Music Educators Association.

This series of lectures, according to Bishop Costello, is planned to bring to the parishioners at St. Peter's a complete understanding of the organization and functions of the Parish Council, and its role as an advisory group in Parish affairs. Each succeeding lecture supplements those previously scheduled, so that members of the Parish are urged to attend as many of these presentations as possible. The two final lectures are scheduled for March and April, with the formal organization of the Parish Council to follow later in the year.

College Graduates In Trouble

This summer's college graduates have a problem unlike their predecessors of the 1960's.

The high national unemployment rate has reduced the number of job openings. As a result the majority of the 1971 college grads are having trouble trying to find gainful employment.

Florida's college placement council recently reported that employers are making 21% fewer campus recruiting visits this year than last and are planning to hire 23% fewer college graduates. Normally the heaviest recruitment months in the colleges are November and February, and already employers are cancelling visits scheduled for February.

Where a graduate had seven jobs to choose from in the past, he or she is lucky to get one job offer. And this problem prevails in every state of the Union.

The only ray of sunshine that we see in the months ahead is the need for President Nixon to turn around the country's economy in order to improve his election chances for 1972. College grads who are now finding it difficult to obtain interviews for post-graduate jobs this summer and fall should remember that many things can happen in six months and in this pre-presidential election year we are still confident that only good things will happen.

Anniversary Of Scouting

Every year the nation observes Boy Scout Week in observance of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America 60 years ago. This year, 4.5 million Boy Scouts and their 1.5 million adult leaders will observe the birthday of Scouting under a new banner. Instead of Boy Scout Week, there is now to be a Boy Scouts of America Anniversary Celebration during the entire month of February.

Presently, one-of-four boys of Scout age is a member of the Boy Scouts of America, and through a new long-range development plan, called BOYPOWER '76, the Boy Scouts plan to involve a representative one third of all boys in the Scouting program. Parents are missing a bet when they overlook the good works of the Scouts. The age of Scouting begins at eight years and extends through 17. The eight-year-olds can enroll in the Cub Scouts. When a youngster reaches 11 years of age, he can become a full-fledged Boy Scout and participate in vigorous outdoor programs to teach boys concepts of honor, duty to God and country; service to others; and self-respect.

The Boy Scout organization had its inception on July 29, 1907, when a small group of boys and two men set up a camp in a sheltered bay on an island off England's southern coast. The group was led by Lord Baden-Powell, a British hero of the Boer War, and the boys were from the streets of England's cities — and from the most exclusive schools. Two years later, Boy Scouting came to the United States when Mr. William D. Boyce, a Chicago newspaper and magazine publisher, inspired by his acquaintanceship with Scouting in England, incorporated on February 8, 1910, the Boy Scouts of America in Washington, D.C. A Federal Charter from Congress was granted on June 15, 1916. Today we owe a debt of gratitude to the vision of Lord Baden-Powell and Mr. William D. Boyce. There is no better way of expressing that gratitude than by furthering the cause of the Scouts at every opportunity during the month of February.

To The Moon

After a long lapse, Americans will again return to the moon in February. Commander Alan Shepard will lead a team of three, two of whom are expected to land on the moon on February 5th.

This is the Apollo 14 mission, and the two Navy officers—Commander Edgar Mitchell is the other—are preparing to remain on the surface of the moon almost a day and a half—some eight or nine hours of that time working on the moon's surface.

The nation wishes Shepard, Mitchell and Stuart Roosa good luck and a safe return.

Commission Ignores Protests And Okays Salary Hikes

One Year Ago

By Elaine Auerbach

Robert Cook, a member of the Belleville Planning Board since 1967, resigned from his position. Named by Mayor Ken Smith to fill his unexpired term was Vincent Nustacchio, the board's clerk for five years. Cook announced his intention to resign in a letter to Mayor Smith and cited numerous time consuming activities related to his recreation director's job as the primary reason for his action.

Belleville took its final preparatory step toward a multi-municipal attack on dirty air in Essex County when it unanimously passed an anti-air pollution code at a Commission meeting. With the passage of the code, the town became eligible to join the Essex County Air Pollution Control Commission, a group of municipalities with its headquarters in West Orange.

Five Years Ago

Some 44 town employees lost their bid for an estimated $60,000 in overtime pay when Town Council Jack Soriano ruled that the Town Manager was legally correct in assigning them an extra 2 1/2 hours extra work per week back in 1963. Town Treasurer Francis H. McCoy, spokesman for the group, said that the overtime was an arbitrary—and unbending—executive order issued by former acting Town Manager Charles B. Tedesco.

The Belleville Board of Education voted 4-3 to mail copies of the National Education Association's special investigating committee's report to schools throughout the state in an effort to correct material distributed previously by Dr. Frank Durkee, ousted superintendent of schools. The action was taken after Dr. Durkee disputed the fourteen charges placed against him by Board President Ernest Arvidson, who said that Dr. Durkee, in general, had mismanaged the school system and lied to the Board of Education.

Rebounding from a rout at the hands of league leading East Orange, the Bellboys came on strong to romp over Columbia 55-46 in their most impressive performance of the season. Using a well-balanced offense that saw a record four Bellboys hit double figures, the squad led the Cougars all the way to take its fifth game in six starts. The Bellboys were in a three-way tie for third place in the Big Ten Conference.

Ten Years Ago

Despite protests from taxpayers, lasting more than an hour, Belleville's five commissioners gave unanimous approval to Mayor Isadore Padula's controversial $51,000 salary ordinance. The ordinance provided pay hikes to members of the town finance department, including a $1,053 raise for the assistant town treasurer, Isadore Padula Jr., the Mayor's son.

The Belleville Board of Education was to convene in a special session to consider the hiring of Alfonso Alvarez Jr. of Montclair as Architect for the proposed new high school. The hiring of Alvarez, according to Dr. DiRuggiero, placed the entire high school project in serious jeopardy. Dr. DiRuggiero, a board member, told The Times that "too many people are reaching negative conclusions since the Board decided to hire Alvarez."

The Citizens' Tax Council petition for a change of government submitted January 9 to Town Clerk Eugene Barnett, appeared to be legal and in good order, according to reports based on a preliminary check of the 4,479 signatures. The petition called for a referendum to decide whether or not Belleville's form of government should be changed to the Council Manager Plan D Type.

Lee H. Garson continued his strong and controversial bid for a seat on the Belleville Board of Education. Garson, supported by the Citizens' Tax Council, stated that the present school board members had "already committed themselves to the spending of thousands of dollars of taxpayers money" whether the proposed high school was approved or not.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

In a surprise move, Mayor Williams appointed Ralph M. Allaire of 69 Floyd Street to a five-year term on the Board of Education, succeeding Walter Gilby, whose term had expired February 1. Speculation was rife throughout town in school political circles whether Allaire's appointment might swing the controlling fraction when the Board reorganized in February.

Belleville was hit with a strike called by union leaders against Westinghouse when approximately 300 employees walked out of the plant on Washington Avenue. Picket lines were established and police reported no disturbances. The strike all over the county was made by the electrical workers when company officials of Westinghouse refused the union's demand for a $2-a-day wage increase.

Disturbed by editorial complaints in The Times that the art of making pies had fallen into a decline, Martin F. Tiernan of the Wallace-Tiernan Company baked an apple pie and sent it to the editor of The Times-News as proof that there were still people in the country who not only appreciated good pies but knew how to make them. Mr. Tiernan baked the pie in a kitchen in the company's plant at Belleville. As a final defiance to skeptics, he also fashioned his monogram on the top crust.

Forty Years Ago

The Belleville Lions Club won the Northern New Jersey Lions Club bowling championship. Members of the team were A. Mayer, E. Scholl, J. Dailey, V. Hart, J. Carlaugh and G. Meade.

James T. Boylan, president of the Peoples National Bank and Trust Company, was made chairman of the Board of Directors.

Fifty Years Ago

Mayor John H. Waters and John J. Daly were named in charge of the dance given by the Heckel Pleasure and Benevolent Association held at Stefaneli's Hall in Silver Lake.

The Pleastringa Club was entertained at the home of Miss Anna Teresa Lee, in honor of Miss Margaret Castigan. Solos were rendered by Miss Flynn and Miss Finn, with Miss Hood accompanying. A dancing exhibition was given by Miss Florence Van Nortwick.

A Dollar Sale

The Treasury recently announced it would put on sale about three million silver dollars dated in 1800's. These are the Treasury's last bags of silver dollars and President Nixon has signed the bill authorizing the sale.

The date of the sale depends on an appropriation of $2,500,000, which is supposed to be the cost of carrying out the sale—almost a dollar for each silver dollar sold, which certainly seems excessive, even in the fine world of federal bureaucracy. But since the Treasury thinks it can take in about $75,000,000 at the sale, the cost doesn't seem as bad as it otherwise would.

Customers will be limited to ten each, not more than one for each of the ten minting years represented. Since these dollars (Carson City-minted) are now selling from twelve to twenty-five dollars in coin markets, their sale might well bring in $75,000,000. And Uncle Sam, now facing a twenty billion dollar deficit, needs the potential $69,000,000 profit!

Helicopter Rescue

Several federal agencies have experimented in recent months with helicopter rescue of automobile accident victims. The program has reportedly saved at least 61 lives in an initial three-month experimental period.

The effort utilizes military helicopter service to augment civilian services. In areas where civilian services are limited the helicopter offers quicker rescue for accident victims than has ever before been available.

With the reduced level of U.S. participation in the fighting in Vietnam and the increasing use of helicopters by the military services, especially the Army, there is no reason why military bases—Air Force, Navy and Army— all should not assist the public in this field.

Already in the last four years the fatality percentage on U.S. highways has been decreased and in 1970 the actual number of deaths decreased, from those in 1969, despite a greater number of miles traveled; the helicopter as a rescue vehicle might lower the death total still further.

A Few Personal Observations On Connie Francis' Wedding

By Frank A. Orechio

break. When Mort was unable to keep his Pat Boone dates he picked Joe Mazzie as substitute. Mort married a Nutley girl, Judy Johnson, who appeared with Merv Griffin in the Sid Caesar-Imogene Coca Show of Shows production during the late 50's. (When Mort and Judy decided they belonged to each other I sold them the house next door to me on Nutley's Alexander Avenue.)

Connie's husband, Izzy Marion, owns a string of hair styling studios in Las Vegas and Tahoe. The newlyweds are planning to make their permanent home in Miami.

Last week Fort Lauderdale saw a lot of Belleville's Joe DeFillips and Nutley's Tom Infusinos, Larry Varone, Paul Barbarulo, Bill Hamilton, Ray Blake and Dr. Anthony LaForgia.

Army Palmer and Jacky Gleason have been designated by the PGA Tournament Committee to draft the boys for the Upper Montclair Annual Thunderbird Classic.

CHARLIE ALLEGRI, JR. has been living in the Fort Lauderdale area for about three years. I talked with him last week and he sounds like the Greater Fort Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce.

It was a pleasant surprise to have Nutley's most prominent native son, Johnny Jannarone stop in the office for a brief visit. As we have said many times Johnny is the only legitimate army general I know and it is always an exhilarating time to be in his company. His experiences as Dean at the West Point Military Academy are filled with interesting stories that would take a lifetime to recount.

THE EXCITEMENT of a good dinner, top entertainment and excellent company is always present when you visit one of New York's top restaurants, Les Champs, 25 East 40th Street. New Jersey's Everett Morrison, an operatic singer who has made appearances in the world's leading opera houses holds forth on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Filling in recently while Everett takes a break is the singing school marm from Union City, Doty Stallworth. Doty holds forth nightly in the lounge and if you want to hear the popular "It's Impossible" sung and played the way it should be, ask Doty for her rendition. The fiddler at Les Champs is second to none. This violinist is so talented a special piece he plays sounds more like the voice of a canary than a canary itself.

Totie Fields makes her guest TV appearances in a full length mink coat and on the inside lining of the coat where one usually finds the initials or name of the owner Totie has inscribed "I eat at Les Champs."

At the wedding reception for Connie Francis and her husband Izzy Marion one of the guests asked Connie's father, George Francorero, Sr., "Where is Connie?" Affable George replied, "I couldn't answer that question before she got married and now you want me to have the answer."

Connie's first million record sale was her rendition of "Who's Sorry Now." In this connection her life is terrific. Connie volunteers, "Who's Sorry Now" is the song that got me out of Newark and into the big time — Belleville, New Jersey."

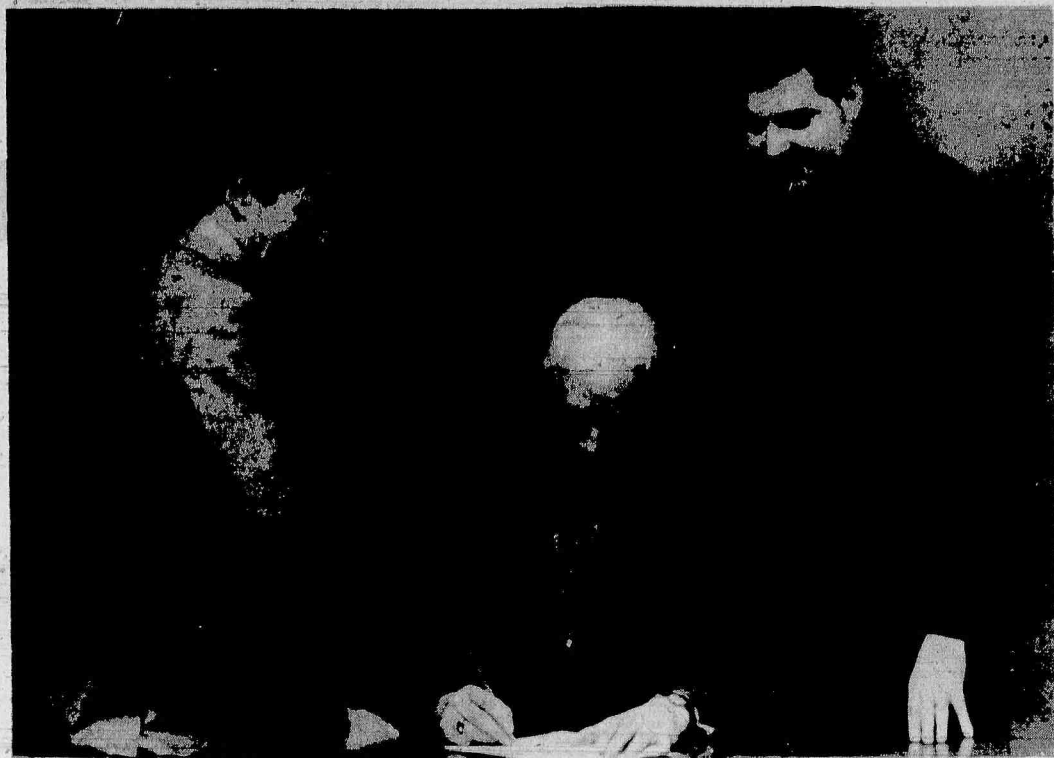

AMONG TIME GUESTS at the wedding reception at New York's Friar Club were the Ed Sulivans, the Earl Wilsons and the songbird Jerry Vale. Family friends from the Essex area who attended included Dr. and Mrs. Edward Albano, Charlie and Ann Fusari and the Vincent Salomone of Victory Optical. Bill Frank, one of the Metropolitan areas hotshot photographers took over 280 color photographs of the wedding at Caldwell's St. Aloysius Church and the reception which followed in New York. Lou and Charlotte Sukoff, close friends of Connie Francis, sponsored the reception. In addition to the assembled guests Connie's father and many Superlatives in wedding to Lou Sukoff. "If you have Lou Sukoff, you have a friend for life," observed George. When it came time for Connie to say a few words, in referring to her father, she said, "I never knew my father was such a terrific speech maker". Responding to this compliment George, Sr. said, "When it's from the bottom of your heart it's easy to speak."

Connie told the assembled guests that the party started out with eight people, jumped up to sixteen and when reception time came around the eight became one hundred. Monsignor William Shannon of Syracuse, New York, a long-time friend of the Connie Francis family, delivered the invocation. Of course the crowd expected Monsignor Shannon to end the prayer with "Amen". He surprised us all when he punctuated his comments with "Shalom", and the crowd broke up.

When it came time to cut the wedding cake, much of the whipped cream topping ended up on Connie's fingers which led Connie to tell her husband, "I told you I wasn't domesticated."

A LITTLE KNOWN FACT about Connie is that she was the New Jersey State Accordion Champion for two years. Joe Mazzie, Connie's music arranger, studied under Mort Lindsey who has been music arranger for Merv Griffin ever since he hit the bigtime. It was while Mort was music arranger for Pat Boone that Joe Mazzie got a

Charges Conflict of Interest

Monaghan Sees Four Candidates Entering Local Teacher Ranks

Burlazzi and William Bartell would face conflicts of interest if elected.

Of the four, DeJura and Paglia are employed as teachers in the Newark School system. Burlazzi, a real estate appraiser, also teaches courses in this field for Rutgers University. Bartell, a self-employed investment analyst, occasionally substitute teaches.

Monaghan said he was defining "conflict of interest" to mean "voting on an issue in which you have a personal bias because of your profession."

"I'm not charging that these candidates would vote for everything that benefits teachers, but they might vote for some which would benefit them if they were planning on entering the system."

The candidate, a retired policeman with 42 years of service to the Belleville Police Department, also said:

"Under regulations now in force in Belleville, members of the Belleville School System are ineligible as candidates for the Belleville School Board of Education. This is as it should be. A member of the Board of Education should be free to exercise his vote on an unbiased level. However, I feel that the prohibition should be expanded to include members of a school system in surrounding areas, and for the same reason—conflict of interest."

"How can a member of any school system render a decision that is not slanted toward school personnel when he himself is a member of a school system. It is comparable to having a Corporate Director resolve union grievances. It again amounts to a direct conflict of interest.

"Belleville had in the past, members of nearby school systems serve as Belleville Board of Education members. It is interesting to note that the voting records they compiled heavily favored the school system. I am not unfamiliar with school personnel problems and grievances. Any improvements should definitely be in line with the Town's ability to provide necessary funds.

A teacher employed by a surrounding community, should in all fairness to his employer, devote full time and talent to that community. He has an obligation to correct the many problems of that town. No man can serve two masters and do justice to either one.

"What would prevent a member of a nearby School system, serving as a Belleville School Board member, voting for and instituting unreasonable measures at taxpayer's expense, and creating an atmosphere he does not have in his present position, knowing that at some future date he may apply for employment in Belleville and enjoy some of the unreasonable benefits he helped create. It has already happened in our town. I repeat, any school employee of nearby towns should be included in the regulation prohibiting Belleville School employees from being candidates, and for the same reason—a conflict of interest."

The candidate also charged that:

"In a desperate attempt for notoriety, candidates seem to be dodging the important issues and are grasping at straws to fill their news releases.

"One candidate devoted his allotted space against a Trenton busing plan that does not effect Belleville at all since Belleville has only one Junior High School and one Senior High School.

"Another refreshes old and time worn political cliches about involving residents on the key issues of the day. Yet another cuts an article out of the Sunday gravure section and blows it up to a big deal as a master plan, the savior of Belleville's education. It all adds up, if one is to evaluate the announced programs honestly; to a big 'cop out'.

Editor's Spot Given To Belleville Resident

Silvio DeSantis, National Commander of the Italian American War Veterans announced the appointment of Nicholas Raimo of Belleville to the office of Itam Torch editor for a term of three years.

Itam Torch is the official publication of the organization and is mailed to some 65,000 members throughout the United States every three months. Raimo served as National Commander for the year 1966-1967.

DeSantis is making the appointment said "Raimo was selected to serve as its editor for a term of three years because of his vast experience and leadership in conducting his own newspaper in his home town, and for his meritorious service to the cause of veteranism and civic

Bartell Says Free Drug Survey Is Available If Board Seeks It

Board's handling of its budget. In an interview with the Times-News, Bartell recommended the Board take steps to secure the free services of the New Jersey Narcotics Officer's Enforcement Association, a group of policemen from throughout the state which makes comprehensive drug studies by request.

The policemen's group, Bartell says, consists of members of narcotics squads from police departments throughout the state. Bartell said he was in no way criticizing the Belleville narcotics squad, a two man outfit, which he said was "very much overworked and doing a 24-hour job."

"After such a study," the candidate said, "the results could be studied by the Board, the superintendent of schools and the school psychologist, who could handle from there whatever drug problem might be found to exist."

Bartell also proposed the Board offices at School Eight be used as centers to disseminate written material on drug abuse and to coordinate this town's efforts with those of such free organizations as Integrity House, the Drug Addiction Rehabilitation Enterprise, Mt. Carmel Guild, dyssey House, the New Jersey Regional Drug Abuse Agency and the New Well.

The resident of 79 Liberty Avenue claimed that a recent survey of residents by the Belleville Jaycees showed that 79 per cent of those polled believed a drug problem exists in this town.

Shifting to the budget, Bartell complained he was unable to obtain a line-item budget from the Board and that this hampers him from "Doing a fair and proper job of scrutinizing the budget."

"I was given a summary form of the budget and told to get along with what I have," Bartell said. The summary form in question is a three and a half page document, published last Thursday in the Times-News, which summarizes expenditures in categories. Bartell said this was insufficient "in view of the fact that the Nutley Board of Education distributed a 42 page document to all candidates and town groups giving a breakdown of expenditures and explanations of each one."

The candidate cited what he said was an example of how "the lack of a complete breakdown hampers my position as a candidate."

"At the budget presentation at School Two, someone asked Board President Rocco Saletta whether that school would get its own principal," Bartell said. "The answer by Saletta was that funds for this new position were in the budget, but he would not say under which account. I don't know where and certainly can't tell from the summary form I have."

School Two currently shares a principal with another school.

Declares Jaycee Week

Mayor Ken Smith today proclaimed January 24 to 31 as "New Jersey Jaycee Week" in Belleville and asked local organizations to cooperate in the observance.

He said the purpose of the week is to focus attention on young men and the work they are doing and emphasize that the Belleville Jaycees have done an outstanding job in the fields of Civic Improvement and Community Betterment.

Jaycee Week celebrates the founding of the Jaycee movement in St. Louis in 1915 when Henry Giessenier saw a need for a young men's civic group and organized the first chapter, according to local Jaycee president Ray Skolas. From a small nucleus, it expanded into an organization with more than a quarter million members in 6,400 communities. The movement spread so fast that in 1920 the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed with 24 cities represented.

The Belleville Jaycees were formed in 1960. The name of the national organization was changed from U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce to the U.S. Jaycees.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS IN SOCIAL SPOTLIGHT

Joanow-LaLuna Nuptials Held In Holy Family Church

Mrs. Nicholas Joanow - nee Marlene LaLuna

Holy Family Church, Nutley, was the setting December 6 for the wedding of Miss Marlene LaLuna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August LaLuna of 160 White Oak Terrace, Belleville and Nicholas Joanow, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Joanow of Harrison.

The Rev. Robert Cozzini performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Fiesta, Wood-Ridge.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a long sleeved gown of white satin with a Chantilly lace panel down the front. The lace was trimmed with pearls and crystals and the neckline, hemline, and detachable train were trimmed with pearls.

A headpiece of pearls and crystals held her cathedral length silk illusion veil and she carried an arm bouquet of long stemmed white-roses.

Miss Beverly LaLuna of Belleville was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sandra De Maio and Miss Mary Ann Corino of Belleville and the bride's cousin, Miss Dolores Gaito of Newark. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Eva and Miss Maria Sotiriou of North Arlington, nieces of the groom. Flower girl was the bride's cousin, Gina Lisante of Belleville.

They were attired in long sleeved emerald-green velvet gowns trimmed in white satin at the cuffs and neckline. Headpieces were matching velvet bands with floor length green veils. The honor attendant carried an arm bouquet of red and white long stemmed roses and the others carried red roses.

Herbert Gersh of Elizabeth was best man. Ushering were the bride's brother, August LaLuna Jr. of Belleville, her cousin, Artie LaLuna of Belleville and Thomas Genute of West Orange. Ringbearer was the bride's cousin, Louis LaLuna of Clark.

Mrs. LaLuna chose a gold silk worsted gown with a panel of crystals and beading down the front. Her corsage was of gold baby orchids. The groom's mother wore a green crepe gown trimmed with crystals at the neckline and sleeves. Her corsage was of green baby orchids.

Mrs. Joanow, a graduate of Paterson State College, Wayne, is a teacher in Harrison.

Mr. Joanow, an alumnus of Monmouth College, West Long Branch, is a teacher in East Orange Junior High School.

The couple have made their home in Harrison after a honeymoon in California and Las Vegas.

Miles as a result of the new 20-mile long 12-lane dual-dual section, first of its kind in the nation, with five new interchanges connecting with interstate and major highways. In addition, the new 10-mile meadow route added another six lanes to the system.

Miss Wormann, Ellen Carlucci, Josef Deak Jr. Will Be Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Wormann of 296 Greylock Parkway announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen to Josef Deak Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Deak Sr. of Garfield.

Miss Wormann, an alumna of Our Lady of Good Counsel High School, Newark and Holy Name Hospital School of Nursing, Teaneck, is a staff nurse at East Orange Veterans Hospital.

Mr. Deak Jr., a graduate of Garfield High School, served four years with the U.S. Marine Corps and is with Boswell Engineering Company, Ridgefield Park.

An October 9 wedding is planned.

Ellen Carlucci, Mr. Chimento Are Betrothed

Miss Ellen Carlucci

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carlucci of Floyd Street, Belleville announce the engagement of their daughter Ellen Lorraine to Carmen Chimento, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chimento of Humbert Street, Nutley.

The troth was made known at a party at the Jolly Troll. Miss Carlucci, a graduate of Belleville High School, is an office worker with Seton Leather Company.

Mr. Chimento, an alumnus of Nutley High School is in his second year at Essex County College. He is a bookkeeper at B & S Sheet Metal.

New Jersey Turnpike Adopts Operating Budget

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDonnell

McDonnells Feted On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. McDonnell Sr. of Sarasota, Florida, formerly of Belleville, celebrated their 50th anniversary January 19. The couple were gifted with a seven day Caribbean cruise by their son, Paul F. Jr. of Doylestown, Pennsylvania, formerly of Belleville and their daughters, Mrs. John C. Schmidt of Iselin, Mrs. M. Eugene Cook of Palm Beach Gardens, Florida and Mrs. Fred O. Kirms of Burnt Hills New York.

Married in Newark, the McDonnells lived in the Valley for fifteen years and all their children were married at Wesley Methodist Church by the Rev. Fred Hubach.

Mr. McDonnell was with the Fischer Baking Company for over 25 years and when he was forced into retirement by illness, he and his wife moved to Florida. Both are shuffleboard enthusiasts and Mr. McDonnell has accumulated a nice collection of trophies.

The couple, who also have seven grandchildren, are members of the Bradenstone Shuffle Club and have lived in Sarasota for the past seven years.

50th Anniversary For The Inginos

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Ingino of 11 North 7th Street, Belleville, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary tomorrow. The couple was feted by their family and friends at a dinner in honor of their anniversary at Thomm's, Newark, January 24.

The Inginos were married January 29, 1921 in Volturra, Irpena Province, Avellino, Italy. They have been in America for 34 years. Mrs. Ingino is the former Teresa Risoli.

Ingino worked in construction in the Summit

Barbara Jeanne Wittmann, Steven Donofrio Are Wed

Miss Barbara Jeanne Wittmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Wittmann Jr. of Elena Place and Steven Donofrio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony M. Donofrio of Bricktown, were married January 24 in Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church, Belleville.

The Rev. Albert Alspach performed the ceremony and a reception followed at Biase's Restaurant, Newark.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white tissue crepe gown with a high waist circled with a rope twisted with pearls. Similar trimming defined the collar and wrists with Venise lace buds sprayed on the neckline and sleeves. The empire waist fell into a built in train.

A Juliet headpiece held her veil and she carried a cascade of white carnations and stephanotis with an orchid center.

Mrs. Nancy Wittmann of Nutley, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included the groom's sister, Miss Roselyn Donofrio of Bricktown, Miss Claire Becht of Newark and Miss Jean Titus of Bloomfield.

They were attired in burgundy velvet gowns with gold braiding in the Juliet style and had gold accessories. The honor attendant wore a gold choker and carried a cascade of gold antiqued carnations with a vein of pink rose buds. The others wore burgundy velvet collars and carried gold antiqued carnations.

Kenneth White of Green Pond was best man. Ushering were the groom's brother, Robert Donofrio of Bricktown, George Doyle of East Rutherford and Hugh Cassella of Little Falls.

Mrs. Wittmann chose an imported metallic gold brocade gown with gold accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid tipped brown.

The groom's mother was in a pale pink velvet gown with a long vest trimmed with beading. Her corsage was a white orchid-tipped shocking pink.

Mrs. Steven Donofrio - nee Barbara Wittmann

Mrs. Donofrio, a graduate of Belleville High School and New Jersey Beauty Culture Academy, is manager of Fashion Curl, Inc., Upper Montclair.

Mr. Donofrio, an alumnus of East Rutherford High School, Fairleigh Dickinson University and New York Institute of Finance, is assistant budget director at Newark College of Engineering.

After a ski honeymoon in the Poconos, the couple will live in Newark.

Marionette Show Friday At School

Tomorrow, the Mothers and Daughters of School No. 10 are to be treated to a Marionette Show featuring the puppeteering of Conrad Woyce, a talented gentleman from Lyndhurst. Woyce is a master puppeteer and the many voices he uses for his puppets is truly artful.

A sketch by the clown will be the highlight of the evening's entertainment. Refreshments will be served after the show.

WATCH FEET AND LEGS IN YOUR YOUNG CHILD

If a young child has any irregular growth pattern such as bowlegs, knock-knees, feet turning in or out, etc., be sure to mention it on the next visit to your family doctor or pediatrician. If he thinks there may be a problem he may suggest that an orthopedic specialist take a look.

Bowlegs and knock-knees are usually normal growth patterns and treatment is not necessary. Sometimes though they could be associated with club feet, obesity or a nervous condition. Feet turning in or out can usually be corrected by means of special shoes with a correcting bar.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Belleville Girls Win in Contest

Three Belleville High School art students received prizes in the Essex County Medical Society Drug Poster Contest. Bonnie Scrimgeour of 401 Union Avenue won second prize in the contest and Cora Fisher of 65 New Street and Dorothy C. Jackson of 26 Watchung Avenue both won honorable mention in the contest.

The awards were presented to Miss Scrimgeour, Miss Fisher and Miss Jackson at the Carriage Trade in East Orange on January 14.

All three girls are taught by Mr. Birkin at Belleville High.

Resident Honored By Keuka College

Miss Alice Morrison of Belleville has been named to the merit list at Keuka College for scholastic achievement during the fall quarter.

She is a member of the Class of 1972, and is one of 56 in her class to receive the honor. To be named to the list a student must maintain a 3.1 average on a 4.0 scale during the quarter.

Miss Morrison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Morrison of 70 Overlook Avenue, Belleville.

Keuka is a private, four-year liberal arts college for women located on Keuka Lake in the Finger Lakes region of New York.

"Promenade Ball" Will Be Chaired By Mrs. Ventura

Mrs. John Ventura of 215 Mount Prospect Avenue, Newark, will serve as area chairman for the 1971 New Jersey Symphony's "Promenade Ball" to be held May 22 at Symphony Hall, Newark. She is a member of the Newark chapter of the Symphony's Women's Committee.

Governor and Mrs. William T. Cahill will be honorary chairmen for the affair.

The annual ball is a significant event for the symphony both financially and socially, and proceeds help to underwrite concert and educational activities.

Dental Health Week Set With Essex Coordinator

Dr. Donald E. Hillner of Irvington, has been named Essex County Coordinator of the Essex County Dental Society's Dental Health Week, February 7 to February 13.

Dr. George V. Newman, president of the 800-member dental society, said Dr. Hillner will co-ordinate all the activities aimed at calling attention to good dental health habits. Dr. Newman said the society carries out a continual year-round program of dental health, but that this week is singled out nationally for increased attention.

Pageant Contestants Are Sought by Jaycees

The Irvington Jaycees are beginning their search for the county's ten prettiest and most talented girls to compete for the crown of Miss Essex County 1971. From now till the night of the finals — no effort will be spared to make the pageant out-shine previous events, says the Jaycees.

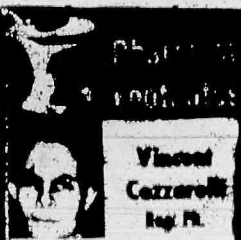

Qualifiers must possess charm, poise, intelligence, beauty of face and figure, talent and personality. The winner will succeed Miss Karen Kelly and reign for a year as Miss Essex County 1971.

She will attend the Miss New Jersey Pageant at Cherry Hill, where she will compete with other local queens from all over the state, for the title of Miss New Jersey. The winning contestant will not only receive the title of state queen, but will also begin rehearsing for her big weekend at Atlantic City.

Joint Meeting Of PTAs Planned

A joint P. T. A. meeting of School 3 and School 7 will be held February 8, at 7:30 p.m. at School 7.

This meeting will give parents a chance to meet and listen to the candidates for the upcoming Board of Education election and to discuss the budget.

If you treat a cold, you can cure it in fourteen days, some say; and if you do nothing about it, you will be well in two weeks. If you have a cold anytime of year, why not indulge it since it is liable to stay with you anyway? Bed rest not only protects others from exposure, it keeps the body warm and increases the general resistance. In fact, bed rest during the acute stages of colds would probably reduce its severity, limit its spread, and diminish the frequency of complication. Besides that, when else do you have such a good excuse relax?

If things seem a little brighter in 1971, maybe it's not just your imagination.

A Better Environment Is Our Business Too

Public Service has converted nearly all its generating stations to pollution-free natural gas and cleaner burning low-sulfur oil. The result: practically no smoke and cleaner skies.

At Public Service, we're making sure that our operations in the coming year will continue to have the smallest possible effect on our environment. Yes, we're helping to make things brighter, cleaner and greener. This effort is really not new to Public Service. We were among the first in the nation to put smoke control equipment on our generating station stacks nearly forty years ago.

More recently, we've converted nearly all of our coal-burning generating units to pollution-free natural gas or cleaner burning low-sulfur oil. We're using new methods to string power lines over woodlands so we don't cut large paths through the forests. We're letting homeowners use the land under our power lines for gardening or recreation. We're building nuclear generating units, the cleanest presently known method of large-scale electric production. We're using clean-burning natural gas turbines and pollution-free pumped storage water power to quickly provide extra electricity when you need it.

And more. Much more. In the past four years we've spent $55 million on environmental control. We plan more of the same for 1971, because a better environment is our business too.

Schwartz Says Budget 'Sound And Economical'

many years in the future." In a prepared statement to the Times, Schwartz said:

Education, the foundation of our society, must always be amenable to change, updating, and progress. In the past, an educational system was not nearly so complex as today, with advanced special education classes, music, art and the related arts. In the Belleville system, for example, our music department and special education are very highly rated and beginning shortly, students with behavioral problems will have special classes at School Seven.

"Last week I stated that the tax burden must be shifted to the State and Federal Government. However, one must realize that this shift can be many years in the future. The citizens of the town owe a high degree of responsibility to the education of their children and they must not let the children down.

"If we are to move ahead and to continue to have a progressive system, then each citizen must support the school board and work for the passage of the budget. The 1971-72 budget is sound, complete and economical and has one of the lowest percentage increases of any budget in Essex County.

The Board has allotted $40,000.00 for new up-to-date text books and monies for additional school supplies. The Board also plans to hire a new elementary school nurse, elementary school art and music teachers and also additional remedial reading teachers.

"I feel this budget reflects our aim to provide quality education for our children. It covers our most pressing needs and also takes into account our desire to keep tax rates within reasonable bounds.

"In fact, on a $25,000.00 assessed home, there will only be an increase in taxes because of this budget of slightly more than $3.00 per month or $37.50 a year. This seems a small price to pay for continuing quality education.

"I hope and trust that the citizens will come to the Board of Education's public meeting on the budget tonight at School Eight to hear the budget presented in full and to then decide for themselves as to its value and worth. I, as a Board member, will welcome all comments and criticisms and will listen to what the citizens of this town have to say.

I consider membership on a public school board a high civic duty. I also believe it is a challenge, an honor, and mostly, a responsibility to help plan and manage the educational program for our children in Belleville. These children must someday be the leaders of our country and it is our duty to do everything in our power to equip them with the best possible tools for that job. To this end, I pledge myself.

In Belleville

simply fed up with government at all levels. They will not—they should not—continue to tolerate the gap between promise and performance." We too, would like to close the gap between promise and performance by involving people in education. They must know what is being done, how it is being done, and why it is being done. We cannot continue to ask the people of Belleville to continuously open their pocketbooks without showing them the return on their initial investment.

"We are not alone in this spiraling financial crisis, it has encompassed the entire nation. Local governments have a responsibility—a mandate to de-escalate the spiral and in fact has the authority to do it's part to implement more efficient methods to help reduce our total cost of education.

"By the President's own admission, we have grown and multiplied into a hopeless confusion of form and function, therefore we should establish our goals by conscious, comprehensive design to meet the needs of our system.

"The President suggests that since the money comes from the people, that they should have priority on the expenditure of these funds for their local needs. Much has been said about our schools and I have tried to be constructive in my approach. There is so much which can be accomplished if we first establish where we want to be, before getting concerned with the cost of building or adding to the existing plant.

"The only way we can truly accomplish this, is by a meaningful program involving the professionals within the system on all levels, the teachers, the principals, and the administrators. President Nixon has stated the goals he feels we as a nation should be striving to obtain. Whether 6 or 60, the fact still remains that a community without goals is like a ship without direction. I have been stating for weeks, that we should establish our educational goals—this should be done in concert with lay people who can lend themselves to the educational need and prospectus.

"It renews my faith in Government when the men elected to office can relate to the problems of the people who did so much to put them in office. I can make one promise to the people of Belleville. I will pledge my unswerving loyalty to those principles which will improve the educational quality for our children, with the hopes that in some small way, I will contribute to a better understanding of one another, and create a better world for our children.

Judge Abromson Sets Fine Of $150 For Fraud Case

A Jersey City man was fined $150 and given one-year probation term at Belleville Municipal Court for trying to cheat and defraud a local woman.

Judge Edward Abromson, who presided at the hearing, also suspended a one-year jail term and ordered the defendant to make full restitution of $100 within six months.

Edward McCauley of 906

Summit Avenue, Jersey City, pleaded not guilty of attempting to cheat Mrs. Lucy Chambers of 215 Forrest Street of $100.

According to Mrs. Chambers, McCauley was contracted on November 7 to put down a new rug in her home. She gave the defendant $100 and he promised to lay the rug within two weeks.

McCauley never returned with the rug and Mrs. Chambers contacted police, who soon discovered McCauley in jail.

At last week's court hearing, McCauley explained he intended to return with the rug but before he could, was incarcerated on a motor vehicle charge.

But according to the receipt Mrs. Chambers received for the $100, McCauley signed his name as Ed Meyers.

Football Lottery Charges Referred To Grand Jury

A charge of possession of football lottery slips against a North Bergen man was referred to the Essex County Grand Jury by Judge Edward Abromson at Belleville Municipal Court, January 7.

Dennis Novak of 5210 Meadowview Avenue, North Bergen, was represented at the preliminary hearing by Lawrence Brady of Kearny. Novak was arrested November 6 by Belleville Detective Barton Rossi near the Wallace and Tierman Co. on Main Street.

Detective Rossi testified that, armed with a search warrant, he discovered Novak in possession of several "football tickets" used in gambling and $185, allegedly money received from the tickets.

"The suspect handed the gambling paraphernalia to me after I identified myself," added Rossi.

Rossi said Novak was placed under surveillance for gambling on October 28.

Police secured a search warrant for Novak on November 6, the day the arrest took place.

Amateur Radio Certificates Given In Belleville

At Night Session

The Belleville Amateur Radio Club is giving free adult school courses in ham radio operation at the Belleville Senior High School for residents of all ages. The course is sanctioned by The Belleville Civil Defense Council.

The course is designed to give participants a license for operation from the Federal Communications Commission.

Registration for the second semester of this course begins in February. Those interested should sign up during normal registration periods for the Belleville Adult School.

Mayor Ken Smith this year is sponsoring a Radio Amateur Week which hopes to relay messages to servicemen in Vietnam.

Smith will receive a certificate of merit from the Radio Amateurs Society, a fraternal organization with 5,000 members.

First semester FCC certificates went to Scott Cicone, Jeffrey Cicone, Joseph Aschaver, Steven Strench, Joseph Valvano and Joseph Peter Elmendore.

Also receiving certificates were Dave Buda, Donald Lee, Joseph Chairman, John Casale, Alexander Nucci, Jim Hollingshed, Michael Maherny, Lee Sierco and Ralph Alfieri.

Special Award Given

Rec. Department Sets Home Display Winners

Mayor Kenneth D. Smith has announced the winners in the Recreation Department's 1970 Home Christmas display contest. Each year the Recreation Department works in conjunction with the Evening Membership Department of the Woman's Club of Belleville in the interest of encouraging Christmas decoration of houses in Belleville. The ladies of the Woman's Club set up a committee which tours every street in Belleville and selects outstanding display for special recognition and prizes.

This year very special mention went to the marvellous display of John V. Auriemma. In fact the display was so outstanding that the judges felt that it should not be considered in the regular contest. Not only was this display good it was: considered too strong to compete with the others.

Winners chosen this year were Samuel De Vingo of 35 Van Rensselaer Street, Kenneth Nash of 4 Melwex Street, William Knott of 286 Union Avenue, Serafino Monica of 13 Acme Street, and Edward Weinbrenner of 44 Center Street. Selected as Honorable Mentions were 57 Bernice Road, 35 Continental Terrace, 29 Center Street, 61 Rossmore Place, 66 Bell Street, and 60 Eugene Place.

The greatest producer of real work is necessity.

They Remember Special Day

The third grade class of School Seven still remembers its day of Christmas caroling.

A group of these students, accompanied by teacher Miss Angela Macaluso, caroled in the Rutan Estates area for two hours December 23.

Among those participating were Jamie Bradley, Debra Fanelli, Melanie Marelli, Debra Pagliare, Mark De Furia, James Heinrich, Chris Musmanno, Patrice Cimmino, Roseanne Fortunate, Robin Meyler, Janice Santasiero and Jerry Digori.

Also participating were Dominick Juliano, Domenick

Procopio, Marie Clarizio, Cynthia Hahn, Lisa Natale, Barbara Tindall, Joseph Di Paolo, Donald McKinstry, Bennett Torre, Gina Compitano, Laurie Livelli, Laurie Nitti, Barry Bambo, Jerry Gialanella, John Norton and Paul Warnasch.

Scout Troop Searching For Its Rich History

The longest active Scout troop in Belleville is presently searching for more information about its 50-plus year history.

Troop 301 of Wesley Methodist Church is asking that any past member of either 301 or the original troop number four, to please contact Val Nucci, at 759-3730 any night after 6 P.M. Photographs, stories, or any background information about the troop is being sought.

The Scout troop has recently travelled to Philmont Scout Reservation in Arizona; taken a 50 mile canoe trip along the Delaware River from Port Jervis New York to Bellvidere, and hiked the historic Jockey Hollow Trail in Morristown where General George Washington spent the winter of 1779-80.

Every year the troop attends the first session at Camp Mohican in Blairstown, and past trips have been taken to Expo '67 in Trail in Acton-Concord, Montreal and the Issac Davis, Massachusetts.

Italians Set Fifth Mardi Gras

The Belleville Italian American Civic Association will hold its Fifth Annual Mardi Gras Dinner and Dance on Saturday evening, February 20, at Thomm's Restaurant in Newark.

The Mardi Gras is celebrated as the Halloween of Italy, otherwise known as "Carnevale". Lavish and comical costumes will be worn by the guests, and balloons, and noisemakers will prevail during the celebration. Pageantry depicting carnevale celebrations in some of the provinces of Italy will also take place.

The highlight of the affair will be the scholarship awards to the outstanding boy and girl student from the graduation class of 1970.

These two outstanding students will be chosen for their scholastic and leadership achievements in the field of education.

Serving on the Scholarship Award Committee and screening the candidates for these awards are Emil Casale, local Attorney and Chairman; Frank F. Ceres, civic leader; Aldo Di Chiara, National Catholic War Veteran Commander; Joseph Liloia, businessman; Joseph Carnevale, contractor; Gerard Ferrara, Commissioner of the Board of Elections; and Pat Rotunda, supervisor at Jergens Lotion Corporation.

Chairman and co-chairman of the Mardi Gras Dinner and Dance are Al Vecchiene and Joseph Carnevale. Also serving on various committees are Vincent Carlo and Phil Maioraca, Ads; Gerard Ferrara, tickets; Aldo Di Chiara and Frank Ceres, awards; John Caruso, Rocco Cervasio, Martin Ruglio, Pat Rotunda and Anthony Cervasio, entertainment; Emil Casale and Tom D'Avella, legal advisors; Anthony Campanelli, music, and the Womens Auxiliary will handle the Reception Duties.

DeMolay Post To B. Anderson

The Suburban Chapter of the Order of DeMolay installed Robert H. Anderson as master counselor for the spring 1971 term. Anderson succeeds Alan R. Grossman as head of the organization sponsored by the Belleville Craftsmen's Club.

The semi-annual affair was held last Saturday night at Belleville Masonic Temple on Joralemon Street. It was conducted by the New Jersey State Council ODM Installation Team.

Also installed as the elected officers of the chapter were Ken McCumber as senior counselor, and William Hamilton as junior counselor.

Anderson and McCumber are seniors at Belleville High School, while Hamilton is a member of the class '72.

These three will lead the brothers of the chapter in their activities from now until June. These include basketball games and bowling matches with other chapters in the state, visitations, an obligatory church service to be held March 14, presentation of the Initiatory and DeMolay degrees to new members, and the regular business meetings held every second and fourth Tuesdays, at the Temple.

Mrs. Mae Anderson has succeeded Mrs. Seymour Grossman as president of the Mother's Circle.

Dad Works In Belleville

Young Diplomat Winds Up Two Years In Bolivia

A young diplomat from New Jersey has returned from more than two years' duty as a political-labor officer with the American Embassy in Bolivia, his third assignment abroad in the U.S. Foreign Service, to take charge of political affairs on the Bolivia desk at the Department of State.

He is Anthony G. Freeman, 36, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Freeman. The elder Freeman is a manufacturer's representative for auto accessories in Belleville.

Mr. Freeman, as the Embassy's labor attache, observed and reported on the working and social conditions of labor in a country in which the trade unions have had particular political importance since 1952 when their armed militias helped bring about a pro-found social revolution.

As a result of that revolution, Bolivia nationalized its three major tin mining enterprises and consolidated them under a State Mining Corporation known as "Comibol," which today employs in all some 20,000 workers. Some 5,000 of these work in the world's largest tin mine, the Siglo Veinte (Twentieth Century), situated in a mountain complex of the Andes between 14,000 to 15,000 feet above sea level near Oruro, south of La Paz, the capital.

Mr. Freeman also was concerned with labor conditions in the country's other industries, including petroleum, transportation, textile and shoe manufacturing, and sugar processing. But his duties in the mining areas proved the most challenging and even dangerous, as he penetrated into the depth of mountain mines to observe the working conditions of the miners at first hand.

Travelling by light truck with a Bolivian driver, Mr. Freeman visited mines all over mountainous Bolivia, talking with workers, union officials, mine managers and supervisors, and others about working conditions and the political and economic factors affecting these.

Frequently his investigations took him into mine shafts and tunnels, using risky elevators and even ladders to see the miners at work on the spot. He reports that mining techniques there are very primitive and work accidents frequent, and sometimes fatal. There are occasional cable breaks on the archaic elevators and the ladders are slippery from tunnel water and difficult to climb through the accumulation of mud on the outside of the miners' boots.

Working between two and three miles above sea level in very dusty conditions, Bolivian miners are highly susceptible to silicosis, Mr. Freeman reports. While there are medical services provided by the State Mining Corporation, mining in Bolivia is a dangerous profession and popular allusions to it point out that one does not see many old miners.

While their housing, medical services, children's schooling and food are provided for or subsidized by the State and their wages compare favorably with that received by workers in other industries, their pay nevertheless is low by international standards (about $60 per month) and the Indian miners are generally dissatisfied with their lot and frequently hostile toward the government and mine management. Although their armed militias have been disbanded, the mine workers' union, with about 40,000 members, is still powerful politically and labor disputes and strikes are endemic. There have been several bloody encounters between striking miners and troops over the years.

One of the principal reasons for Mr. Freeman's visits to the mining areas was to inspect the progress of social projects programs for which some $800,000 had been granted by the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID). The purpose of the grant was to help the miners build schools, hospitals, health clinics, housing, and sporting facilities. A number of these have been constructed with the aid of the miners' union and a group of U.S. Peace Corps volunteers working in Bolivia.

Mr. Freeman's reports on labor conditions in Bolivia were transmitted by the American Embassy to the Department of State in Washington and to other interested Federal agencies

Vailsburg Almost Didn't Make It

Belleville's varsity wrestlers weren't supposed to have any night contests scheduled for this season, but a few slip-ups by Vailsburg's wrestling team made last Wednesday's match start at 5:20, an hour and a half later than planned.

The Newark school had contracted Belleville for the match on Wednesday afternoon, and inadvertently had also scheduled Seton Hall for the night before. With the one match scheduled for Tuesday, the team forgot the Belleville date, and just figured that it was for Thursday, which would have followed the normal procedure calling for one day between matches. To check themselves they checked the contract, but were looking at last year's contract.

When the team hadn't arrived at 3:15, Athletic Director Herman B. Wische placed a call to Vailsburg to see what had happened to the team.

The Vailsburg coach responded that the match was scheduled for Thursday, and Wische, who had the original contract sitting in front of him at the time, corrected him on his mistake.

With such sudden notice, Vailsburg's mentor had to call quickly to place an order for a bus, and the bus company said the earliest they could have a bus was 4:00.

Belleville's head coach, Jim Silvestri decided that his team would have to wait too long for the weigh-in if Vailsburg wasn't going to arrive by 4:30 at the earliest, so he asked the Newark coach about an early weigh-in.

Bearing in mind the fact that many wrestlers have to get down quite a few pounds in order to make weight for their respective weight class, the two coaches agreed to compromise about the weigh-in.

Silvestri allowed to grant each Vailsburg wrestler one pound towards their class, while Vailsburg allowed Belleville to weigh in right then in front of the referees for the varsity and JV matches, who had arrived some time before.

For both teams this meant a lot. For Belleville, it meant that the wrestlers could weigh-in and then try to replenish themselves right away, after fasting for a day where it was necessary to lose a few pounds.

For Vailsburg, it meant the impossible was slightly closer. Considering the difficulties that many grapplers have in getting down in two days, it would have been impossible for some of Vailsburg's wrestlers to get down in an hour.

Even with this extra lee-way, Vailsburg had to make changes at four weight classes. Their regular 98 didn't even make the 99 lb. limit set by Silvestri, so a JV who weighs 89 pounds took his place. At 130, Joe DeLucca had to fill in for the regular 130, De Lucca being a JV at one class lower.

Vailsburg's captain Will Pettifore was weighed in at 132, one pound over the temporary limit and two over the regular, so he moved up to 141 pounds, where he lost 8-1 to Ed Dunkley. John Fulgaris couldn't make weight at 148, moved up to 157, and Vailsburg wound up forfeiting the 141 class, besides losing 157 on a pin by Frank Sauastano.

While this presented one problem, Belleville presented Vailsburg with still another. Belleville was looking for comeback win after a tough loss to Montclair 25-19, so revenge was their goal, but Vailsburg wasn't as lucky enough to have such an inspiration.

Vailsburg lost to Seton Hall the night before 41-5. Their only individual win was a pin by Steve Bender at 115. Bender was the City Champ in 1970 at 115, and against Belleville picked up one of Vailsburg's only two individual wins, a pin.

Weight Classes Are Deceiving

In organized wrestling, weight classes have been designed to keep the contestants on a par with each other. While it is a well-known fact that wrestlers have to get down for their classes to make weight, the amount that they go up by eating right after the weigh-in is also astonishing.

Angelo Zoppi has been wrestling at 106 pounds for three years now, and to do this he's had to stay on a fairly rigid diet.

Last week after his weigh-in for Vailsburg, Zoppi, as usual for the senior, broke out his chocolate bars and bottle of Gatorade. By the time he was done, (and also by the time Vailsburg got here an hour later) Zoppi was weighed-in unofficially at 111. He may remind you that this was with his uniform on, but that still means that there are 111 pounds that he is putting out on the mat against his opponent. Zoppi won on a pin in the second period.

Some other grapplers who dared to step on the scale while waiting for Vailsburg were Charles Gingerelli and Ed Dunkley, both of whom were four pounds heavier than they were an hour before. Gingerelli weighed 119, and Dunkley at 145, after making weight for their classes.

Orange Almost Feels Squeeze From Cagers

By Marc Feldman

The Tornadoes of Orange, the Star-Ledger's fifth ranked team in New Jersey, were nearly upset by an upstart Belleville team last Friday night as they managed to escape with a 79-69 victory over the Bellboys.

Trailing by 10 points at halftime, the Bellboys rallied in the third quarter for 20 points to Orange's 14 and were down by just four points, 50-46, with one quarter to play. The Tornadoes finally got on the track in the final period as they went on a 21-6 spree that earned them a permanent lead, 71-52. To Belleville's credit, they continued to play well in the closing three minutes as they outscored the Tornadoes 17-8 to draw within 10 points at the final buzzer.

The Belleville crowd was the most enthusiastic of the home season as they cheered wildly throughout the game, especially during the third quarter rally. Commodore Springs opened the second half with a basket for the Tornadoes and they led 38-26. Belleville quickly got back into the game as the Bellboys scored six straight on a basket and two free throws by Bob Visco, and a long jumper by Marotti. Belleville stayed close for the next four minutes but two layups by Billy Jones shot the Orange lead up to nine points. Belleville retaliated by scoring the last five points of the quarter on two free throws by Mike Petronaci, a technical foul shot by Marotti, and a basket by Steve Tremol.

In the opening moments of the fourth quarter, Belleville stayed in contention. Rich Caravetta's driving layup made the score 55-50, Orange. However, the superior rebounding of the Tornadoes became evident as the quarter progressed. Two separate streaks of 8 points opened up the game for Orange.

Belleville received a stellar performance from senior Rocco Marotti. The sharp-shooting forward hit on 10 of 16 shots from the field and grabbed a season high of 12 rebounds. Marotti played a

Bellboys Seek Long-Awaited Victory Over Bloomfield Bengals Tomorrow

Unbeaten Grapplers Are Key

By John McCarthy

Bloomfield High School's wrestling squad will face the Bellboy grapplers tomorrow at 3:45 in the Belleville High School Gym, and it will be the first time in years that Belleville has more than an outside chance of caging the Bengals.

This year's Bellboy squad is now 4-1, due mostly to the steady performances of five undefeated wrestlers. Vito Marcogliese (130), Frank Savastano (157), and Carmen Russomano (168), are 5-0, while John Mustacchio (123) and Frank Marano (178) are 4-0, after the team's victories over Vailsburg 42-10, and West Orange 36-8.

Last year the Bloomfield match was the season's opener for both teams, and Belleville was looking for an upset after placing last in the Bloomfield Tournament, but lost 28-21.

The year before, Belleville was 0-2 when Bloomfield came to town and won 26-19, setting Belleville back to 0-3.

For tomorrow's match, Bellboy fans can expect different results, even though Wrestling Coach Jim Silvestri commented, "No team is an easy win. On any given day, in any given sport, any one team can win, regardless of past performances."

Still the facts all lead to a joyous afternoon for the wrestlers, who have just finished a week of mid-term exams.

Bloomfield finished sixth in this year's Bloomfield Holiday Tournament and Belleville moved from eighth place to third. The Bengals were also shut out this past Friday night by Montclair 42-0, while the Mounties barely squeaked past Belleville 25-19 the week before.

Belleville has bounced back after the disappointing loss to Montclair with wide margin victories over Vailsburg and West Orange. In both of these matches, Belleville won ten of the individual matches and lost only two.

Of the five undefeated wrestlers, four of them have been unscored upon except in their victories with Montclair wrestlers. Savastano and Marcogliese have allowed the lowest score for their opponents, three each.

Cagers Face Talented Panthers In Tough Night Game Contest

Belleville travels to East Orange tomorrow night for a matchup with the Big Ten's top-ranked team. Tuesday the 1-13 Bellboy cagers make a short trip across the Passaic River to play the Kearny Cardinals.

Last Tuesday Belleville faltered in the final two minutes to fall to Irvington 66-57 before a meagre BHS crowd of 100 people. The small turnout was probably the result of exams currently being held at the school.

The fault for the loss, however, is more easily pinned down. Displaying a hustling, aggressive type style for most of the game, the Bellboys suddenly relapsed in the crucial final two minutes of the game and allowed the campers to pull away.

The game was lost on the foul line, where the Campers converted 28 free shots to Belleville's 13. The Bellboys actually had three more field goals than the Irvington squad, which upped its record to 5-8 in the Big Ten, and 6-8 overall.

Perhaps stirred by its good showing against mighty Orange last week, the Bellboys kept pace with the Campers and went to the locker rooms at half-time a mere four points behind.

Irvington started to move in the third quarter, and opened a comfortable 12 point lead at one point. Showing a lot of spunk, however, the Belleville squad rallied back in the fourth period to close the gap to 59-56 with 2:22 remaining on the clock, aided by three successive field goals, two by Rocco Marotti and one by Rich Caravetta after a steal by Charlie Carr.

Belleville began to foul and make turnovers, however, and went down to defeat in the style of most of its other losses.

Senior Rocco Marotti, fifth best point maker in the Big Ten, again paced the Bellboys, although his hand wasn't exactly hot. Marotti had 18 points for the evening, but hit on only 7-22 shots from the floor. Rich Caravetta was next high man with ten.

Oddly enough Belleville's aggressive defense held Ir-vington's top scorer, Stan Depko to a three point performance, well under his 15 point average.

The last time East Orange and Belleville met, the Bellboys were mauled by the Panthers 68-30.

Schultz Leads DeMolay

Ron Schultz provided most of the scoring for Suburban Chapter's first two victories in the Order of DeMolay basketball league.

Schultz scored 23 points in the Belleville chapter's 29-12 victory over Alexander Hamilton Chapter of Jersey City, and 48 in the 64-49 win over Haines Chapter, also of Jersey City.

Also scoring for Belleville in both games were John Atherton with two against Hamilton and ten against Haines.

Schultz a 1970 graduate of Belleville High, scored all seven points as Suburban got off to a 7-2 lead in the first quarter against Hamilton. He then scored the six that gave Suburban a 13-4 lead at halftime.

In the third quarter, Schultz, Atherton and Ron Vanderhoff all sunk one field goal each to boost the lead to 21-9. Six points by Schultz and two by Ken McCumber tallied the final score.

On Haines' home court, Schultz pumped in ten points, Atherton three, and Fred McCoull two more for a 15-3 first quarter lead.

Before the game was over

Schultz sunk 18 free throws and went 10-11 from the foul line for his 48 points.

Suburban is now 2-1, having lost their opening game of the season to Nutley's DeMolay Chapter. Their next game will be on January 29 against Hamilton of Suburban's home court.

Nutley Tops Sophs

Belleville's sophomore basketball team blew a 36-28 lead at the start of the fourth period as they allowed the Nutley soph squad to out score them 20-9 in the final period. The final score was 40-45, Nutley.

Donald Dolph led the futile effort for the 0-3 Bellboys as he scored 20 points on seven field goals, and six free throws.

Ed Colon was the number two man for Belleville with 12 points on four shots from the floor and four from the foul line.

Phil Cuzzi scored nine, Jeff Goodfriend three, and Joe Mattern had one point. Dave D'Angelo didn't score as his position as middle guard makes him a playmaker rather than a shooter.

Leading scorer for the Maroon was Harry Haring with 14 points.

Powerful Grapplers Ready For Bengals

Savastano, the 157, won 4-3 over his Mountie opponent, and Marcogliese won 6-3 at 130 pounds.

Marcogliese advanced his record to 5-0 with a pin at 3:11 against Vailsburg, and a 9-0 shutout in West Orange.

Vito scored a 14 second takedown against Vailsburg's Joe DeLuca, and kept the Newark grappler under control for the rest of the first period, coming close to a pin once, but not close enough. In the second period the BHS senior had control, and it was just a matter of time before the pin was called.

Against West Orange, Vito again scored a first period takedown, then rode the pin, coming in 1:09 against Irvington.

Another wrestler that was given a final view of the ceiling by Savastano was Vailsburg's John Fulgiris, whose time came at 2:29. Savastano also had a near fall at 1:58 of the first period.

A shutout and a first period pin enabled team captain Carmen Russomano to join Marcogliese and Savastano at 5-0.

Russomano set a record for the fastest takedown (when he wrestled Vailsburg's Brian O'Leary at 168) that will be quite hard to beat. Carmen took O'Leary down in only three seconds for the fastest takedown of the season, and accumulated 5:33 riding time in a six minute bout as the Bellboy senior won 9-0.

While wrestling Cowboy Brian Dunbar, Russomano seemed to be slowing down. It took him four seconds for the takedown. Despite the slowness, Carmen pinned Dunbar at 1:33.

Junior John Mustacchio missed the Vailsburg match due to a case of the measles, but bounced right back to score a 9-0 win over West Orange's Art Reinfield, at 123 pounds.

The Holiday Tournament Champ scored a takedown, predicament, and a reversal, as well as having three points awarded for a penalty and five minutes riding time advantage.

Frank Marano is the only one of the five undefeated elite to be scored upon in these two matches, but both times reversals on an outside switch in the third period gave the senior a close win.

Marano was down 1-0 to Vailsburg's Matt Pinto in the start of the third period when two reversals made the score 3-2. Pinto with only 35 seconds left. Marano's final reversal on a switch with 10 seconds left gave him a 4-3 margin, a point for riding time made it 5-3.

The switch was decisive at West Orange, too. Gill Hills (WO-178) got off to a 5-0 with a takedown and near fall in the first period, but a reversal in the same period started a six point streak for Marano. A predicament in the second period, and a switch reversal with 38 seconds left made the match score 6-5. Two more points were awarded for Marano's 2:10 riding time.

Support for the five undefeated grapplers comes from three others who are 4-1 and one at 3-2. These are crucial points in any match as a team needs at least six dual victories to win.

Sophomore Fred Arena picked up his first pin, and his third shutout at 98 pounds this past week.

Arena pinned Vailsburg's Mark Leonardis at 2:59 after having the Newark grappler in a near fall in the first period. At West Orange a reversal and two points for Dave Trevisan's stalling gave the Belleville soph a 4-0 shutout, and 3:48 riding time made it 6-0.

Angelo Zoppi scored a 2:06 pin against Vailsburg and a tight 3-2 victory in West Orange. The BHS senior co-captain reversed Vailsburg's Paul LaMatta in three seconds of the second-period and had a pin three seconds later. In WO, both Zoppi and Mitch Rosenzweig scored on an escape and a penalty point, but Zoppi's 1:10 riding time gave him a 3-2 win.

At 148, a forfeit and pin helped Brian Waddell along to his 4-1 record. Vailsburg didn't have anyone to makeweight at 148, and Brian pinned West Orange's Dan Binney at 4:28.

Waddell, a senior, must have set a record for the longest near fall when he had Binney on one shoulder for one minute and ten seconds in the first period.

The last wrestler with a winning record is Ed

Dunkley, whose 8-1 win against Vailsburg and 8-0 shutout at West Orange brought him from 1-2 to 3-2.

Both times Dunkley scored on two takedowns and riding time. Dunkley scored a reversal on Vailsburg's Will Pettifore, and tallied an escape point before being given a penalty point by Cowboy Ed Konopka.

Senior Bob Zarra filled in for Walt Bennett at 136 while Bennett was overweight after having the measles. Zarra split his two matches, being pinned in 1:08 by Vailsburg's Joe Puerra and decisioning West Orange's Mark Konopka 5-2.

Heavyweight John Atherton split his two matches this past week to set his record back to 2-3. Atherton pinned Vailsburg's Chuck Ferrara at 5:27, and lost 4-1 to Cowboy Bob Paladino.

Sophomore Brian Banda won his first match, but moved up to 123 for Mustacchio to do it. The 9-2 win over Vailsburg's Bill Fink made Banda's record 1-3.

While Banda's win at 123 meant that Belleville has not lost at that weight yet this season, Charles Gingerelli replaced Banda at 115, and Belleville has yet to win at that class.

Gingerelli beat Banda in a wrestle-off, but was pinned in the second period by wrestlers from both Vailsburg and West Orange.

Vito Marcogliese
Unbeaten at 130

second period out, and reversed Cowboy Dean Karis in the third period, scoring also on a penalty, a predicament, and 4:32 riding time.

Frank Savastano was the only Bellboy to pin in both matches. The senior now has a total of three pins to his credit for this season including one that won third place for him in the Tournament.

West Orange 157 pounder Frank Taddeo barely got a chance to wrestle Frank, as the Bellboy scored the fastest pin of the season, in 27 seconds of the first period. Until the WO match, Marcogliese had the fastest

Indoor Archery Lanes Scene of Perfect Shot

For the first time in seven years of sanctioned league play at Butts and Bow Indoor Archery Lanes in Belleville, a perfect round was shot on January 5, 1971.

Bill Kronyak of East Rutherford, accomplished the great feat on the first night of competition of this year's North Jersey Major League held every Tuesday night at the lanes. Bill is captain of the team sponsored by B & M Aluminum Company of Union. A perfect round consists of 60 arrows in a row from 20 yards into a bulls-eye having a 3.2 inches diameter without a miss.

The ALOA (Archery Lanes Operators Association) awards a valuable ring coveted by champions everywhere as representative of supreme excellence in championship tournament archery. The entire area should be proud to host an archer of the caliber of PAA (Professional Archers Association) member Bill Kronyak.

APPROVING PLANS for adding four new teams to the Belleville Little League are (seated l-r) Frank Verian, vice president of the American League; Joseph Scaperotta, secretary; Michael V. Marotti, commissioner of the Little League; Ray Fratella, president of the American League, and James Catalano, president of the National League. Standing are other league officials and managers including (l-r) Joe Longo, James Watters, Doug Cantrella, Pete Olivio, Steve Tremel, Paul Marone, Fred Burlazzi, Bill Connelly, Winfred Crowell, Joe Restivo and Phil Bruno.

Off To Good Start

Unbeaten JV Wrestlers Promise Good Future

By John McCarthy

The junior varsity had four 3-0 wrestlers, one 3-1, one 2-0, and two 1-0.

Ramon Lijo at 98 lbs is 3-0 with wins over Passaic 2-0, Montclair 8-4, and Irvington by forfeit. George Villano is 3-0 at 106 with pin over Montclair, a 3-0 shutout in Passaic, and a forfeit from Irvington. Rich Sulenski at 130 is 3-0 with a pin in West Orange, a 4-1 decision in Passaic, and a forfeit from Irvington.

Joe DeBacco (now minus 2 inches of hair) is also 3-0. Joe went 168 against Passaic and won 4-1, was given a forfeit win by Irvington at 168, and was given another forfeit win at 178 by Montclair.

Bill Natale is 3-0-1 for the JV squad, with three pins and a tie. "Nate" pinned in Passaic at 5:45, West Orange at 2:57, and against Montclair at 3:15. His tie was against Irvington 5-5. Nate normally goes 157, Belleville's junior varsity wrestling squad is the training grounds for next year's varsity grapplers, and with a 5-0 start, it looks like Belleville may be in for some more good wrestlers in the future.

On many squads, a lack of depth causes forfeits on the jayvee level, but Belleville has had to forfeit only six times out of a total 60 dual matches. Their opponents have made eight dual forfeits and one team forfeit.

Vailsburg gave the Bellboys the team forfeit for one of Belleville's wins, as they didn't bring their jayvee squad, and other team victories were Passaic 31-13, Irvington 40-15, Montclair 26-24, and West Orange 32-12, but went 168 in West Orange.

Steve Andrews is 3-1, at 136 and 141 lbs. Andrews won two times 136 against Irvington 5-2 and on a pin in West Orange. At 141, Andrews is 1-1 at 141, pinning at 5:59 against Passaic and losing 6-5 against Montclair.

At 115 pounds, Domenick DiNino is 2-0, winning 7-2 over Montclair, and 1-0 in West Orange on a penalty point.

The two 1-0 jayvees are only temporary members of the squad. When Charles Gingerelli beat Brian Banda in the varsity 115 wrestle-off Banda a soph found himself on the JV roster and won at 123 pounds in West Orange, on a pin at 4:34.

The other JV 1-0 is Walt Bennett, who was also moved up a few classes. Walt was the varsity 136, but was overweight in WO, and went 148 JV, where he yoo pinned, at 4:00.

John Smith was headed for a fine JV season, but now due to bone chips in his right wrist. Smith was 2-1 with two pins, when he got the word not to wrestle.

Jerry Frunzi is 2-2 for the JV's with three matches at 168, and one at 157. His wins were against Irvington on a pin (0:58) at 168, and against West Orange at 157, 4-2.

Bob Willet is 1-1 at 155, winning his opener in Passaic 5-0, and losing to Irvington 4-2. Also 1-1 is Frank Bagileo at 136. Bagileo won 7-4 in Passaic, but at home against Montclair was pinned.

A third 1-1 JV is Jojo Fargnoli. Irvington forfeited the weight class, but Montclair didn't, and Jojo lost 10-4. Bill Trignano is 1-2-1 at 141 and 148 pounds. "Trig" won his opener in Passaic 4-0 at 148, then was pinned by Irvington at 141 and Montclair at 148, before trying West Orange at 141 6-6 on riding time.

The only two winless JV's are Charles Bogart, 0-2 on decisions at 123 and 130, and Mike Greenfeder who was pinned in 33 seconds in his only match by Irvington's 148.

Little League Bigger

The Belleville Little League has decided to add two teams to each of its two divisions making a total of eight teams in the American League and eight teams in the National League. With the addition of the four new teams, 60 more boys will be able to make the Little League teams this year.

League Officers and managers have been meeting weekly at the Little League Field House to decide on whether or not to add more teams. A schedule made by Michael V. Marotti and approved by the members, shows play starting the second week in May and continuing through July.

Four new sponsors in the Little League this year are Landolfi's Funeral Home, Riefolo Construction, Milt Photo, and Garamella Trucking.

Anyone wishing to participate in Little League as a manager or coach should attend meetings every Tuesday at the Little League Field House, Montgomery place at 8 p.m.

Archer Achieves Spectacular Round

On December 27, an archery spectacular occurred in one of Butts and Bow's Indoor Archery Lanes money pot shoots. Frank Pearson of Palmyra scored a "perfect" 600 in the PAA round. This round is considered the standard indoor round for the nation and consists of 60 arrows shot from a distance of 20 yards into the bullseye with a 3.2 inch diameter. If all arrows are in (60 in a row) it is considered perfect.

Hustling Cagers Nearly Upset Orange

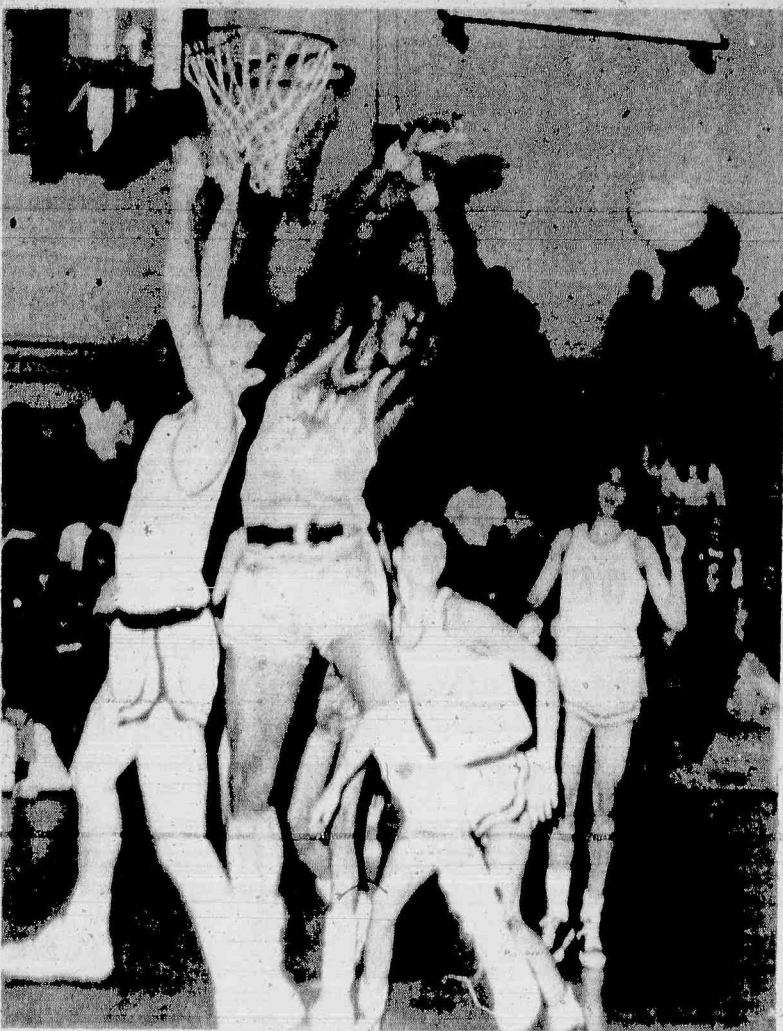

Late Tornadoe Rally Spoils Belleville Bid

A major factor in Belleville's surprising showing was their ability to rebound consistently. In addition to Marotti's 12 caroms, Mike Petronaci pulled down ten, Ralph Macri, nine, and Bob Visco, five. All eight Bellboys who saw action got into the scoring column.

Two other Belleville players who were in double figures were Ralph Macri with 11 and Bob Visco with an identical total. Steve Tremel had some timely field goals as he connected on three of four shots for six points.

The Tornadoes were led by their powerful front line of Commodore Springs, Charlie Smith, and James Bonds. The trio combined for 51 points. Orange has dropped just one of thirteen games, that, to Montclair. The Tornadoes are tied with rival East Orange for the league lead with six games to play.

ROCCO MAROTTI fights for rebound with Orange in Bellboy's valiant effort to unseat the Tornados. Marotti's hot hand from the floor almost led the Bellboys to the upset.

BELLBOY DEFENDERS swarm around Orange shooter during crucial third quarter shot. Belleville almost upset highly ranked Orange.

Drug Poster Gives Bonnie Second Prize

By Marylou Martin

On Thursday January 14, awards were presented by the Essex County Medical Society to the winners of the Drug Abuse Poster Contest. Miss Bonnie Scrimgeour, a junior at Belleville High, brought home a second prize of $50.

Bonnie was sponsored in the contest by Mr. Morton Birkin, chairman of the art department at Belleville Senior High.

Two students from BHS also brought in honorable mention. Cora Fisher, a senior, called hers an "optimistic poster." The poster states, "Drugs Are Artificial-Life Is Not," and features a big yellow sun.

Cora is involved in art because, "I get satisfaction out of just about anything I can put my own creativity and style into. And it keeps me from being bored."

Dorothy Jackson also received honorable mention for her poster "Death Rides a White Horse." It depicts, all in black and white, the grim reaper astride a white horse.

Dorothy plans a career in art; she would like to teach and work in commercial art, preferably in fashion design. In her spare time she is learning to play the drums.

"I think," she said, "that life would be pretty dull if you couldn't create something out of your own mind and showing your own personal feeling. True emotion on paper, or anywhere, really."

The basic colors of Bonnie's poster are orange and purple, and it states, "The Pusher Don's Care If You Live Or Die," a line borrowed from the Steppenwolf song, "The Pusher." Bonnie took a studio art course at Rutgers last summer, an experience which helped her to dispel any doubts she had about pursuing an art career. Bonnie seems to feel intuitively that art is for her: "It's just something that I've always wanted to do, under everything else. It just feels right." Bonnie hopes to attend Cooper Union after graduation.

Judges included Newark's Mayor Kenneth Gibson, Drs. Eugene Sims, Gerald Wachs and Harry Kingslaw, all of the Essex County Medical Society Drug Abuse Committee, and Mr. Harold Taylor, Chairman of Essex County College's department of fine and performing arts. Other judges included art teachers and students.

The three girls, all members of Mr. Birkin's art class won out of a total entry of 207 posters submitted from 27 schools in Essex County. First prize went to Seth Hickerson III, who attends Orange High School and is a junior. Third prize winner was Rae Carol Swann, a 15 year old at Essex County Technical and Vocational High School.

Coed Winter Carnival Set For Stokes State Forest

Nearly 140 Senior Girl Scouts and Explorer Scouts will participate in a coed Winter Carnival at the New Jersey School of Conservation in Stokes State Forest, Branchville, January 29-31.

Sponsored by the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County and the Senior Planning Board of that organization, the weekend will include skating, hiking, games, a snow sculpture contest, movies and a lite show.

A total of 17 adults will accompany the group.

Eagle Rock, Robert Treat and Orange Mountain Boy Scout Councils will be represented.

Human nature is what encourages individuals to find an excuse for what they happen to desire.

BHS Musicians Aid Service

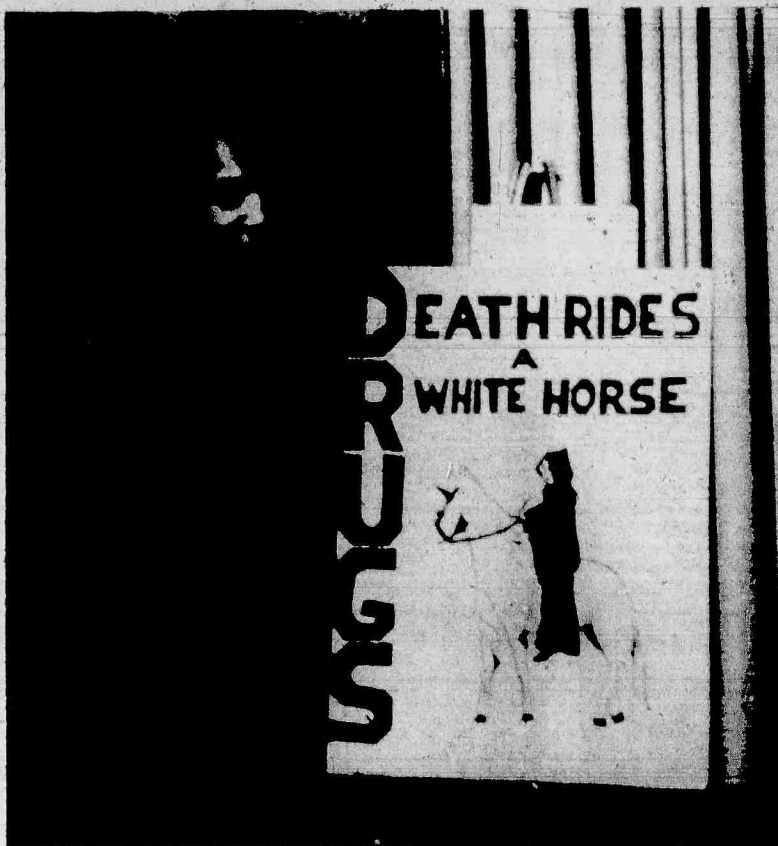

By Marylou Martin

On Sunday, January 17, the Christian churches of Belleville held a "Fellowship of the Holy Spirit." The purpose of this ceremony was to bring all Christians together under one roof, worshipping one God.

Held in St. Peter's auditorium, the service opened with the processional hymn, "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," held by the combined choirs of participating churches.

The Reverend John Mair of Grace Baptist Church then read the "Call to Worship" and the clergy and laity joined together for the Responsive Prayer.

The first reading was from the Ephesians, Chapter 4-verse 1-13 and was read by Robert DeBelle of the Belleville Assembly of God. The anthem, "In Christ There is No East or West," was sung

Michael Salzarulo

Mr. 'Sal' Is Versatile

By Dorothy Jackson

One of the most versatile teachers in Belleville High School is Mr. Michael Salzarulo. Mr. Sal, as he is called by the students, has lived in Montclair all his life and still resides there with his family.

He attended Montclair High School, received his B.A. from Upsala College in East Orange and his M.A. from Seton Hall in South Orange.

During the Korean conflict he was assigned as an interpreter for a Columbian battalion; however, upon arrival he was transferred to another battalion and finally to the Seventh Infantry as a foot soldier for the duration.

Before coming to Belleville, he coached baseball and tennis and taught H.S. equivalency courses at the Rahway State Penitentiary. His feeling were that many of the inmates were sincere in trying to rehabilitate themselves, and the thought that they are different than we are is a fallacy. Most of them, he said, are victims of society because they come from lower social or economic backgrounds.

Mr. Sal started teaching in Belleville High eleven years ago. He heads the language department which includes the school's six foreign language teachers: Mrs. Cecelia Newton and Mr. Sal, the two Spanish teachers, Mrs. Mary Crowley, the French teacher, Miss Elizabeth Pastor, the German teacher, Mr. James Donovan, the Latin teacher, and the Italian teacher Mr. Nino Gelsomino.

Mr. Sal explained the responsibility he has and how the language classes operate. They are arranged in a four year sequence, except Latin. In order of preference by the students the classes would be listed as follows: Spanish, French, Italian, German and Latin. Mrs. Newton has six Spanish classes, and Mr. Sal also has six, making a total of about 230 Spanish students. His job is to supervise the

Bowlers Perfect

The bowling team, coached by Mr. Michael Salzarulo, recently won a 3-0 victory over Montclair, giving them a 13-8 record. The Montclair meet was the seventh of the season, which opened with a 0-3 loss to Essex Catholic December 10. A meet consists of three games; one point is given for each game won. A handicap tournament is scheduled today.

Salzarulo, who has been coaching for 11 years, feels that there is more interest in bowling than is probably apparent. The meets are held at the Bell Clair Lanes in Montclair, and some spectators do attend.

Belleville High belongs to the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic Bowling League, and has played teams from Cedar Grove (3-0), East Orange (3-0), Clifton (1-2), Verona (1-2), and Bloomfield (2-1). The BHS bowling team has seven members. Two, seniors Emilio Santin and John Spezzaferra are returnees from last year.

Newcomers, who tried out early in the season, are Dave McMullen and Bob Siena, both seniors, juniors Ron Filipek and Fred Schaffer, and sophomore Greg Revello. They will play Nutley today, and West Orange January 25.

State Arts Council Sets Grand Deadline For '72

New Jersey community groups and arts organizations wishing to receive financial assistance from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts have until midnight, February 28, 1971 to submit their applications, announces Byron R. Kelley, Executive Director.

The Arts-Council is now accepting applications for project grants covering the fiscal year July 1, 1971, to June 30, 1972. Aid is made available to non-profit, tax exempt groups throughout the state for the development of expansion of innovative and exemplary projects dealing with various aspects of the arts.

Union College Awarded Grant For New Library

Union College has been awarded an interest subsidy grant under Title III of the Higher Educational Facilities Act, the first such award in New Jersey, by the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare to help finance a $5 million library-classroom building project, it was announced today by Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen, Union College president.

Dr. Iversen said Union College hopes to advertise for bids for the project within a matter of weeks.

For Key Club

Lt. Governor's Position Goes To Bill Hamilton

By Tom Toto

Bill Hamilton, Belleville High Junior Class president, was elected Lieutenant Governor of District 11 of the Key Club, last Wednesday night at Nutley High. Bill is presently an active member of the club and serving as Junior Representative.

He was nominated as the Belleville Representative to the annual election last Monday by the members of the club. Frank Morano, president of the club agreed that the choice was excellent and that we had a good chance of winning.

Belleville, Nutley, and West Orange make up District 11. Things started to look down, however, when we learned that West Orange would not have any representatives present.

They did not pay their national dues, and thus could not participate in the election. It would then be our candidate against Nutley's.

Each club had one vote for their candidate and had to give the second to another club.

It looked like there was going to be a 2-2 tie and then the presiding Lieutenant Governor (John Vitillo, from Nutley) would have the tie-breaking vote. However, this situation did not come up. Hamilton's, smooth and confident speech swayed the Nutley delegates.

Although the Nutley candidate was well qualified, Bill's poise and vigor were enough to win the election.

We here at Belleville High are looking forward to next year when Bill takes over the position. We are all confident that he will do a good job as he is doing in his many other important positions. We would all like to congratulate Bill and wish him all the luck in the World.

Students Join State Groups

Three Belleville High seniors have been chosen to perform in concert with students drawn from high schools throughout northern New Jersey.

Susan Kellenbence and David Day will perform with the All North Jersey Choir at Montclair State College on February 7. The choir is directed by Jr. Jack Sacer, an associate professor of music at Montclair.

Bruce Creditor auditioned

January 9 at Passaic Valley High School for the All-North Jersey Symphonic Band. He will be playing first clarinet at a concert Sunday, January 31 at Parsippany High School. The band is conducted by Frank Battisti, who directs the wind ensemble at the Boston Conservatory of Music, which is where Bruce hopes to be after he graduates from Belleville.

Both Susan and Dave belong to the New Jersey All-State Choir, which performed for the New Jersey Education Association Convention in Atlantic City last November. They will sing with All-State again in Atlantic City February 24, 25 and 26.

Some 531 high school students auditioned January 9 for the All-North Jersey Choir; 196 made it. Rehearsals for both the choir and symphonic band are held every Friday at Montclair from 4:00 until 9:00. The February 7 choir concert will include "O Praise The Lord, All Ye Nations," "Sunrise, Sunset," and "Choose Something Like a Star," and will be presented at 3:00 in the Montclair State Memorial Auditorium.

Library Will Sponsor Stock Exchange Talks

The Belleville Public Library will sponsor a series of four lectures on "Securities and Investing" beginning Wednesday, Feb. 10, at 8 p.m. at the library, corner of Washington Avenue and Academy Street.

This four week course is sponsored by the library in cooperation with the Investors Information Program of the New York Stock Exchange. Instructors will be registered representatives from member firms of the New York Stock Exchange.

Purpose of the series is to explain the risks and rewards of investing to the public; speakers will explore the several investing areas with an aim to providing insight into various methods and techniques establishing a sound investing program.

Gets 40 Days For Drinking

Richard Paton of Belleville was sentenced to 40 days in jail at Municipal Court for being drunk and disorderly.

Judge Edward Abromson, who presided at the hearing, levied the sentence after Probation Officer testified that Paton was a habitual drinker who was in ill health. "He is in poor physical health and to keep him out of jail might kill him," Talty said. "He will get the proper treatment in prison."

Paton was arrested January 13 by Patrolman Carmen

Pedalino after the officer observed him lying in the street. Reportedly, Paton became loud and abusive when the officers offered assistance.

Judge Abromson instructed Paton to take treatments for his health problem while in jail.

He Gets 60 Days

A Belleville young man was sentenced to 60 days in prison by Judge Edward Abromson at Municipal Court, January 21, for unlawfully taking an auto from a local used car lot.

Richard Argese of 131 new Street pleaded guilty to the charge. He was arrested by police after Emil Abagnale, manager of Donna Motors at 370 Washington Avenue, complained that Argese never paid him for a used car the defendant purchased.

Abagnale signed a complaint against Argese on December 15, 1970, after the defendant took a 1963 Chevy Corvair from the lot.

Gambling Charges

Edward W. Bannigan of 242 Washington Avenue, Belleville, had charges of possession of gambling paraphernalia referred to the Essex County Grand Jury by Judge Edward Abromson at Municipal Court, January 7.

Bannigan was arrested on Washington Avenue December 22 by Belleville Detective Barton Rossi.

"We found in his right hand coat pocket two slips commonly used in horse race betting and $95 which we believe was money from bets," testified Rossi.

Rossi said the betting slips contained a round-robin and daily double bet for Liberty Bell Raceway.

De Witt Savings Reaches Mark

Robert M. Williams, president of De Witt Savings and Loan Association announced today the Belleville Association had passed $40 million in assets.

In reaching this important milestone in its growth Williams noted that DeWitt had increased its assets in the past 12 months by over $3.75 million, another all-time record for the Savings Institution and a growth rate of better than 10 per cent for the year.

"Assets for the year ending December 31, 1970, amounted to $40,431,782 compared with $36,662,232 for the same period in 1969," Williams said. "Member savings increased to $36,421,487 from $33,736,599, and first mortgage loans increased to $35,780,456 from $32,494,718," he added. Williams forecast a continued good trend in the growth of the Belleville Association and further improvement both in members' savings and mortgage loans.

A bigger dollar's worth.

At the New Jersey Blues we work everlastingly to cope with escalating health care costs and to provide our 3.5 million members a bigger return for their health care dollar.

We do it in a variety of ways.

For one, we keep a watchful eye on overhead. As a result, our combined administrative costs take less than 6 cents of each dollar. Versus several times that amount for other health insurers.

Working with doctors and hospitals, we help to keep hospital stays to the minimum and screen out benefits for unnecessary admissions. Real progress has been made, and we're keeping at it.

We are expanding outpatient and out-of-hospital coverage to encourage less-costly alternatives for services, that can be performed just as well outside of the hospital.

And we stretch health dollars in other ways. With a long history of support of ways to discourage unnecessary health care facilities or services. With a new program that will avoid costly duplication where two family members have two forms of coverage. No one would be denied his benefits. No one would collect twice, either.

Recently, laws were modernized so groups of 100 or more can pay rates based on their usage. This new, current-cost rating is now available to groups requesting it. Other groups will be phased-in on this practical, pay-as-you-go basis during the months ahead.

"A bigger dollar's worth." That's what it is all about.

THE HOME BURGLAR ALARM
SYSTEM OF 1980
TODAY???

Its an amazing device called, PREVENTOR II. A direct spin off of advances space age and military security technology. You program it like a computer to do what you want, when you want. It generates a field of silent sound wave which an intruder cannot penetrate without being scared off. Its protection is 100% fool proof, yet it costs but a fraction of old fashioned wired alarm systems. No wiring or expensive installation. It just plugs in. Also provides fire and smoke protection. For Free, no obligation demonstration. Call Evenings 6-9 P.M.
