Commission Hopes To Decide On School Budget By Monday

By Nat Gottlieb

The Belleville Town Commission is expected to announce before Monday whether it will cut funds from the voter-rejected school budget, although legally Town Fathers have until March 17 to decide.

The Commission apparently will make the decision before the March 17 deadline to give the School Board more time to adjust its projected 1971-72 budget.

Some political observers, however, speculate a decision before Monday would enable Commissioners to enter the hearing without having to field questions and demands on the school budget. Normally Town Fathers only have the power to adjust the municipal portion of the town budget after the hearing.

In any case, the four Commissioners met Tuesday night with the Board of Education at Town Hall hoping the school body would suggest cuts.

After a relatively brief hour and half session however, the school Board stood firmly committed to a "no cut possible" policy.

This commitment by the School Board makes the Commission's decision a potentially controversial one and could stir latent bitterness between the two governing bodies.

It is perhaps this potential for controversy—more than any other factor—that could dictate what cuts if any the Commission will make.

Because this is an election year, Commissioners undoubtedly would like to avoid a quarrel with the School Board. They also, on the other hand, are sitting with a 1971 town-wide budget showing a 78 point tax hike, and predictably would like to see that figure lowered before Monday's public hearing at the senior high school.

"We came into this meeting hoping we could make a cut that would make us all look good," Commissioner McGreevy said during Tuesday night's meeting.

The Board of Education was sympathetic but said no "reasonable cuts" could be made. It spent most of the session defending projected expenditures.

Board President Leonard Back, who prior to the meeting echoed Board sentiment when he labelled the rejected budget "a tight one," repeated this position several times during the meeting.

Back told Commissioners the Board of Education already would have to dig up an additional $63,000 for teacher salaries and related administrative hikes. The figure was a result of a final recommendation by the state Public Employee Relations Commission (PERC), the negotiating body called in by teachers last month.

PERC had recommended a 7.3 percent hike over the Board's last offer, but when the Board rejected this, teachers representatives agreed to a compromise and accept 5.8 percent. In return the Board made a "gentleman's agreement" to avoid "if possible" cutting 11 new teacher positions.

The compromise represented a voluntary cut by each teacher of $50 below PERC's recommendation, plus a lowering of starting salaries for teachers coming into the system of $100. The teachers said they accepted the cuts in order to insure that the additional teachers, whom they termed "invaluable for the quality of education in the system," could remain in the budget.

Based on the teacher settlement, administrators will also receive $5,000 more, so that the School Board already must find $63,000 in its budget regardless of what Commissioners decide to do.

Back told the Times after the meeting that this $63,000 plus whatever cut commissioners might make, would be transferred from some other section of the budget—most likely the "planned surplus" account which lists $87,000.

Back was quick to point out, however, that of that $87,000, $28,000 is already earmarked for new aluminum doors at various schools. The Board president said the doors were "necessary and couldn't be cut."

The Board President also hinted that any further cut in this surplus area would leave the school system in a "poor position" should an emergency occur during the school year.

It was the possibility of just such an emergency, which led to lead to a great deal of discussion between Commissioner McGreevy and

At Senior High

Budget Hearing Monday

Public hearing on the proposed 1971 Belleville Municipal budget is scheduled for 8 p.m. next Monday at the senior high school. The budget reflects a tax jump here of 78 points to a projected 1971 rate of $5.39 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Unlike previous years, more than half of the 1971 budget goes for county taxes, a fact which Belleville Commissioners were quick to point out this week.

The overall budget, a $12,509,485.90 tax package, reflects a $1.9 million increase over last year. Pointwise, this breaks down to 40 points for the county, 24 points for Town Hall, and 14 points for schools.

Finance and Revenue director Joseph McGreevy reminded residents the hearing can only effect the municipal portion of the budget. Last year, residents disregarded this fact and spoke at length about county and school taxes.

Hearings, however, have already been held on the county and school budgets, and residents were asked to confine their remarks to the municipal portion of the budget.

Commissioner McGreevy issued a press release to the Times this week to minimize the town's responsibility for the 78 point hike. McGreevy suggested Town Fathers were responsible for only ten of the 24 points in the Municipal section of the budget.

A breakdown of the entire budget shows the Town Hall share at $3,575,009.71; county at $3,798,464.19, and schools at $4,966,770.

Veterans and senior citizens benefits amounted to $169,240 this year.

Department wise, the budget shows Public Safety at $2,548,097.74; Revenue and Finance at $350,577.46; Public Works at $570,814.27; Parks and Public Property at $287,872.24, and Public Affairs at $659,549.40.

The largest department increase is in the Public Safety department, which shows a hike of $240,404.74.

Second largest increase is in the Public Affairs Department, which jumped $178,174.04. That figure includes a new garbage contract reflecting a $189,000 increase.

Public Works is up $46,206.18, although $9,000 has been cut pending a resolution by the Commission. Parks and Public Property is up $9,562.24.

The Revenue and Finance Department shows the only decrease, a $610.54 drop.

Commissioners apparently are anticipating a large turnout of residents for the hearing. The hearing is set for the senior high school auditorium, in contrast to last year's original announcement the meeting would be held in Council Chambers at Town Hall.

That meeting in Town Hall last year spilled out into the streets where residents picketed against tax hikes and the choice of the hearing site. Under pressure, the Commissioners moved the hearing to the Junior High School, and later to the more spacious senior high.

The hearing is expected to be quite lively, especially with 14 residents already in the race for the May Commission race.

PBA Sets Affair

The Belleville Policeman's Benevolent Association will hold its 60th annual dinner-dance Saturday, March 13 at the Fountain Restaurant. Cocktail hour is scheduled seven to 8 p.m., with dinner following.

Local PBA president Michael V. Marotti says tickets are still on sale for the affair, and may be obtained from any police officer or by stopping at Police Headquarters.

Marotti has appointed Barton Rossi chairman for the dinner. Rossi's committee includes John Marotti, Marty Natale, Frank Falcone, Sgt. Ray Kimble, Carmen Pedalino, Carmen Palaia, Vincent Cosenzo and Joseph Kisal.

Two bands will provide dancing throughout the evening.

See Crackdown On Mini-Bikes

Belleville Police this week are cracking down on kids operating mini-bikes, according to Police Chief Joseph Smith.

Chief Smith said his patrol cars are instructed to confiscate any mini-bikes found in operation, and to issue summonses for motor vehicle violations.

If a juvenile is found operating the vehicle he will be referred to the local juvenile bureau. Smith said adults will be given summonses for violating New Jersey Motor Vehicle Law.

The action by local police comes after several incidents in which children have been injured on the gas-driven bicycles. Chief Smith says the number of such vehicles in operation has been increasing alarmingly since Christmas.

The mini-bikes, which are sold by numerous department stores, are legal only if operated on private property. The vehicles cannot be licensed because they don't conform to motor vehicle regulations. Some of the mini-bikes are capable of speeds of ten to 15 miles an hour.

Chief Smith said safety factors were mainly

Board Moving To Meet Students' Requests

By Beth Fitzgerald
School Page Editor

Monday's conference meeting between the Board of Education and high school student leaders, although formal in nature, seemed to bridge a communications gap which was in part responsible for a student demonstration

February 11.

The students requested the meeting to get the Board's permission to build a student activities center in the school's bomb shelter. They received a generally favorable reaction both to their plans.

Student Government Organization Vice-President

Susan Chamberlain outlined the proposed conversion of the bomb shelter to an all-purpose student activity room, which would include offices for the student government, the yearbook, the newspaper, a student store and a lounge.

Susan referred frequently to the Wallings report, which partially concerned the lack of space for student activities. Board President Leonard Back then read that section of the report, which suggested that the school's bomb shelter might be used for this purpose.

Board member Matthew

Pica raised the question of ventilation and fire safety, from the standpoint of fulfilling state and local regulations. Member Lawrence Schwartz, an attorney, said the center would probably not violate any laws pertaining to ventilation, since the safety of the students is largely the responsibility of the school's administration.

Caesar Romano brought up a question of smoking, to which principal Raymond O. Smith replied that there would be no smoking in the facility. He added that all materials would be purchased with student funds, and that the work would also be done by the students; all that was needed was the Board's permission.

Up-dated plans of the student activity center will be made available to Board members by the end of the

Vuono's Tavern Faces Charges By State ABC

A local tavern is facing charges of selling alcoholic beverages before legal hours, according to Deputy Director George Campbell of the New Jersey Alcoholic Beverage Control.

Campbell told the Times-News Monday that Vuono's Tavern at 190 Passaic Avenue was caught violating the state code Sunday. The tavern is owned by Samuel Vuono.

The ABC official said a hearing date has not been set yet in connection with the charges. Campbell declined to elaborate on the alleged violation until after the hearing.

Several people at Town Hall, however, report a Belleville policeman, was sitting in the tavern when the raid was made. The policeman mentioned was Sgt. Joseph Tortorello.

When contacted for comment, Sgt. Tortorello denied having been in the Tavern, and refused to comment further.

Campbell said a hearing can also be called by the Belleville ABC board, which consists of the Town Commissioners. Local ABC spokesman Eugene Barnett said Monday he hadn't received notice of the violation at the time, and could not say what action the town might take.

Dies In Automobile Collision

According to Haight Glassman was traveling west on Belleville Avenue near Pleasant Avenue at 8:40 a.m. DeBenedette attempted to pass a vehicle travelling east and collided headon with Glassman.

Fernandes Declares Candidacy

Tony Fernandes of 95 Harrison Street has declared his candidacy for the Belleville Commission election in May.

Fernandes, a systems and data processing manager, said he was running for office because he was alarmed at the current budget increase and at what he said were the town's major problems.

"The budget hearings are beginning to resemble a fight for survival with the people on the losing end and it's time something is done about it," Fernandes told the Times in announcing his candidacy.

Fernandes has been a frequent critic of town politics and was an officer with the Belleville Valley Association, a local taxpayer's group.

Fernandes has spoken frequently against variances for new apartment construction, and represented the Belleville Valley Association during last year's Planning Board hearings on a new zoning map and ordinance.

"If I am elected," Fernandes said, "I plan to use my business skills to effect budget reductions, better town planning, and a master recreation plan."

"Something has to be done in these areas," he continued, "but it's a question of price, and the real trick is to do it within the confines of the budget. I plan to use modern business techniques to accomplish these changes."

Bike Riders Beware

Charges for mini-bike owners include operating an unregistered vehicle and being an unlicensed operator. Vehicles that are confiscated will be towed by trucks at the owner's loss. Smith said the mini-bikes won't be placed in the patrol cars at the risk of damaging the town-owned vehicles.

Building Code Needs Updating

The major problem confronting our people continues to be their personal safety in the streets and their personal and property safety in their homes.

The streets can be made more secure by increasing the number of police prowl cars on duty and increasing the candle power of the street lights.

Safety in the homes is another matter. When a person rents an apartment or purchases a home, there is a presumption that locks installed in doors leading to the outside of their apartment or home offer a measure of safety and security.

Unfortunately the sad truth is that channel locks, the kind that are lodged in the door knobs, have the resistance of a match stick.

Professional thieves use gooseneck pliers to snap the neck of the doorknob with a twist of the wrist and bingo — the door opens wide for a thief to perform his duty.

The installation of the ordinary auxiliary locks which use a lock cylinder mounted with a rim extending a half inch or more from the outside surface of the door gives one no greater security than the channel lock.

An amateur burglar can snap either lock with very little challenge. Since the keying mechanism is with the knob, entry becomes a simple matter once the knob is given a sharp snap.

A "heavy-duty" key-in-the-knob lock doesn't live up to its nomenclature either.

A mortise lock provides a great deal of security because a burglar who breaks the door knob still couldn't open the lock as he could if he broke the knob of a key-in-the-knob lock. Moreover a mortise lock has two devices that lock into the door jam — a dead bolt and a convenience latch. The bolts on mortise locks are not bevelled so they can't be loited.

We do not pretend to be experts in the locksmith profession but having had a recent experience with the ineffectiveness of locks being installed in apartment buildings we believe the average apartment dweller lives in an apartment which is totally insecure.

Builders, in order to effect economies, seek various ways and means of cutting corners. The installation of cheap but strong looking locks is one area where a builder tries to save money — and usually does — at the expense of the unsuspecting buyer or tenant.

We believe municipal building codes should prohibit the installation of key-in-the-knob locks. Building codes should require the installation of locks that will make a person's living quarters reasonably safe from the probing, experienced hands of a professional thief. We believe that indoor fire escape stairwells should be equipped with a panic bar lock and not the typical passage lock or key-in-the-knob lock.

We believe the Police Department should disseminate information to all residents explaining the ever present risk cheap locks present. The alarming increase in breaking and entering crimes requires immediate action from both public officials and the public itself.

Public officials can make a good start by updating the building code to prohibit the installation of locks that provide no challenge to a burglar.

March, 1971

The name March comes from Mars, the ancient Roman deity known as the god of war but thought to have been, originally, the god of vegetation, and was for centuries the first month of the year.

In the United States the 1st is Nebraska State day (dating from admission in 1867), the 2nd is Texas Independence Day (dating from 1836 when a conference of residents of Texas declared independence from Mexico) and the 4th is Vermont Day, dating from admission in 1791.

The 3rd is the birthday anniversary of Alexander Graham Bell, the great inventor who did so much for all who followed him; he was born in Scotland in 1842. On the 5th in 1768 three Americans were shot down by British troops in Boston and John Adams always thought this often-forgotten incident was one of the major sparks that fanned the American Revolution.

Seems Only Yesterday School Budget Is Trimmed By Town Commissioners

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

The Belleville Board of Education, members and town commissioners converged on Town Hall to try their hand at Budget cutting, a much practiced skill for Belleville officials. The sum of $150,000 scheduled for the Junior High School rearing was neatly trimmed. The Board promised to investigate the feasibility of cutting an additional sum and submitting the figure to the commission. Board president Rocco Saletta said that a possible added cut could amount to $12,000.

The Belleville Jaycees, who had run the Miss Belleville contest for six years, decided to cancel the competition. The organization's president, Frank Costenbader, said that developments on the state and county level had forced the group to suspend the traditional contest. Sources close to the Jaycees had hinted, however, that other reasons lay behind the cancellation. It was said that the club had lost interest in the project and preferred to move on into different areas of community service.

Five Years Ago

The Board of Education and members of the Town Council met at School No. 8 and for three hours discussed the pro's and cons of governmental economy within the school system. The forum took place before an audience of some 153 citizens, mainly teachers, PTA members and school principals. After being twice defeated at the polls, the school budget had been handed to the Town Council for study. The Council had to come up with a decision on how much money was or was not to be trimmed from the already emasculated budget.

For the second time within a month, Belleville firefighters were called into action against a stubborn two-alarm blaze which totally destroyed the Joseph Raaser Moving & Storage Company warehouse at 494 Cortlandt Street. Damage was tentatively set at $10,000. There were no injuries resulting from the fire.

Dr. Henry Lyle Lambdin of Florham Park was guest speaker at the eleven o'clock worship service at Wesley Methodist Church when the congregation celebrated its 175th anniversary. It was a special occasion for Dr. Lambdin as well as for Wesley, as he had delivered the anniversary message at the Church's 150th anniversary celebration in 1941.

The Town Council introduced an ordinance appropriating some $115,000 in bonds for the installation of a 12-inch water main from the Bloomfield town line to Garden Avenue with a 4-1 vote. The 4,000 foot main would serve the western section of Belleville including Clara Maass Hospital.

Ten Years Ago

James R. Golden, former critic of Mayor Isadore Psdula, retracted statements he had made charging The Belleville Times-News with delivering large bundles of papers free of charge to most local apartments and hospitals. Frank A. Orechio, publisher of The Times, requested that Golden's charges be retracted. Orechio said that allegations circulated by Golden were "an effort to reflect discredit upon The Times-News."

Warehousing operations of the Remington Rand division of the Sperry Rand Corporation were to be transferred to 525

Main Street in Belleville from New York City. The Main Street property had been used by the Prudential Insurance Company for record storage.

Belleville's $2,151,575 school budget was approved by a 229 vote margin at the polls. The same budget had been rejected by a 103 vote margin when a total of 4,483 citizens turned out as compared to the 1,781 who had voted in the second election.

For the first time since Arthur M. Pico's election to the school board on February 14, supporters of the proposed new high school had been assured that their project would not be dropped before voters received their opportunity to voice an opinion. The assurance came at a three-hour school board meeting when, despite earlier predictions, Arthur Pico's resolution to stop all planning on the proposed new building was defeated by a vote of 6 to 1.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Director of Public Safety, Joseph King, announced the beginning of a training course in police methods and procedures for eligible returned servicemen and others interested in making police work a career. Every phase of police methods was to be covered in the program and would extend over a 6 to 8 week period. King directed his appeal to those who were contemplating taking the Civil Service Exam in July.

An ordinance providing for raises in the police and fire departments was introduced and passed on first reading by the Board of Commissioners, setting up a new pay scale in those departments. The raises amounted to $200 per man, and was introduced by Public Safety Director King.

With the deadline set for midnight, eight more candidates came into the fold and announced their intentions of trying for re-election and election in the May balloting. Heading the list of candidates filing petitions was Mayor Williams, who finally revealed his intentions after remaining silent. The entire Board of Commissioners, Public Safety Director King, Public Work Director Waters, Public Affairs Director Mertz and Parks Director Noll had also filed petitions.

Forty Years Ago

An additional $5,000 emergency note was passed by the Town Commission to provide work for the town's 740 unemployed. A $10,000 note that had been passed in December had been spent at the rate of $3 a day per man for water main and sewer work.

The Fewsmith Players were to present "Houseparty", a play guaranteed to be splendid entertainment. The proceeds from the play were to be given for the benefit of the unemployed of Belleville.

The annual election of officers was to take place at the Belleville Woman's club. After the election, Jean Sterling Nelson was to give a talk on "Interior Decoration." Mrs. W. H. Stone was in charge of the meeting.

War Prisoners Legion Rally This Sunday

To the Editor:

The American Legion is deeply concerned with the treatment of the American prisoners of war and those men missing in action, who are held by the North Vietnam communists.

The American Legion will hold a state-wide remembrance day on Sunday, March 7, 1971 in each of the 21 counties of the State, Essex County's remembrance day will be held 2:30 p.m. in the "Our Lady of the Valley" High School Auditorium, 484 Valley Street, Orange, New Jersey, parking unlimited.

We are inviting all religious, government, county and municipal, and veterans groups, to join us on this Sunday, a day dedicated toward the relief of the suffering of these gallant Americans and their families.

Your attendance at this function will prove to the communists, the world and our own leaders in Washington, that Americans will no longer tolerate inhuman treatment of Americans anywhere no matter what the reason especially our fighting men.

We are asking you to join with us to ask God to help these Americans by reciting the American Legion Prisoner of War Prayer at all Religious Services, and meetings specifically on Sunday, March 7, 1971.

AMERICAN LEGION PRISONER OF WAR PRAYER

Lord, shelter the prisoners of war in Southeast Asia. Open the hearts and minds of their captors that they may be restored to their homes and loved ones.

Each has carried the burden of battle. Each has discharged an obligation to his country. Each has been subjected to hazard, pain, and imprisonment beyond the lot of the soldier.

O Lord, these gallant men who bear so great a burden must not be forsaken. God of Justice to whom we pray, thy compassion we beseech: Lift their burden, give them strength and strike the shackles that deny them freedom. Another great burden is upon the families of these men. Give the wives, children and parents the comfort of love in these anxious days. AMEN.

Planned Parenthood In Essex County Expanding Services

To The Editor:

Many of your readers will be interested to know why Planned Parenthood - Essex County is broadening its services in family planning and health care in view of the number of federal agencies which are entering this field.

There are two answers, and we believe they are both important. One is that much federal activity in the family planning field takes place under the direction of our Essex County Planned Parenthood organizations. It is our trained, experienced personnel that is called upon by government agencies to supervise federal programs, and it is to our experience that federal authorities look for guidance in the development of other family planning programs in our area.

The second reason is, we believe, even more important. It is the local sponsorship of family planning, supported by local funds, and guided by local persons, is certain to bring a more humane, a more personal, a more responsible form of family planning than would otherwise be possible. This is, in fact, "power to the people," as President Nixon stressed in his message the other day.

Planned Parenthood welcomes all inquiries. We feel that we have in Essex County one of the finest privately sponsored family planning organizations in the United States.

We hope that your readers will become acquainted with it, and will support it actively during 1971. It is quietly, effectively, and humanely working daily in our cities and suburbs to foster human happiness in a particularly personal and particularly important way.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Wallace H. Cox

Those TV Ads

Recent studies have shown that television advertising is failing to reach much of the population producers once expected to reach. In a page advertisement in the nation's newspapers recently Life Magazine offered its version of the reasons.

Life said television has been preoccupied so long in aiming for the lowest common denominator that, for the most part, television today is largely attracting two quintiles, the lowest two. Life says this forty per cent of the population now accounts for two-thirds of prime time viewing.

The magazine claims television's low aim has resulted in a condition in which a majority of the people who do most of the buying has been kept away from TV screens. If this is true, and watching the average level of moronic drivel offered by the networks one is strongly inclined to agree, the television sharpies have repelled the country's most important buying market in their mad rush to reach the lowest common denominator.

State Senator Frank Farley Has Close Call With Tie Rod

LAST WEEK has got to be the week that was. Senator Frank Farley of Atlantic City, accompanied by his wife Honey, was driving my car on Fort Lauderdale's busy Ocean Boulevard when suddenly, travelling at 35 mph, the tie rod came apart with "Hap" losing control of the car but luckily escaping without personal injury. The Lincoln people tell me this is the first reported incident of a tie rod defect. The next night the apartment of a close friend was broken into by a professional thief bringing the number of apartment breaks in Fort Lauderdale to more than 120 for this season. The next day Mrs. Farley was in the bathroom of Fort Lauderdale's Yankee Clipper Room 520 when she called out to her husband to assist her in applying an arthritic pack to her right knee. When Hap opened the door the window behind Mrs. Farley blew in, hit her on the head, careened off her head into the door and as Hap further opened the door, the window came sailing toward Mrs. Farley and she ended up with a gash in her good left knee. Five hours later Hap was entering a rented car and the parking attendant closed the door faster than Hap. Hap is accustomed to drawing his left leg into the car. The result — a deep gash and injury to Hap's left leg. With all these experiences behind him, Senator Farley decided to leave the shores of America and sought safer havens in Puerto Rico. Oh, as a footnote it should be added that the weather was very fine in Fort Lauderdale.

TOM INFUSINO was in Miami attending a convention in connection with his position as a member of the board of directors of the Wakefern-Shop-Rite complex.

Brother Carmen's dog litter control ordinance has made national news and placed Nutley on the dog map. My friend Yaged, leader of the world-famous musical group holding forth in New York's Gaslight Club Speakeasy Room sent me a clipping from the New York Post. The article was headed "Nutley's New Bag Is Curbing Dogs". The reporter used a great deal of humor and a little bit of fiction in describing the ordinance.

The New York Post reported one of the ordinance requirements obliges "a person walking a dog to carry a shovel and a plastic bag to pick up and carry the dog's droppings. After bagging the droppings, the dog-walker must deposit them in a garbage pail." Cities from as far distant as California and Hollywood, Florida have inquired for copies of the ordinance with the idea in mind of obtaining passage of a similar law. Even the nationally distributed "Village Voice" gave page one publicity to the ordinance and endorsed it very strongly.

THIS WEEK'S NUTLEY MAIL includes a plea from Betty Richards, that peerless leader of civic causes, urging Nutley residents to make a supplemental gift to the Nutley Chapter of the American Red Cross. Although the Nutley Red Cross is a participating member in the United Community Fund it receives approximately only 79% of its financial requirements from the UCF.

Allan Crisp, Belleville historian and one of the town's all time greats, writes to tell us that at a recent Belleville Historical Society meeting, 25 real enthusiasts attended — and now we have a happy Allan Crisp going to bed nights in the knowledge that there really is somebody who cares in Belleville about preserving the town's rich history — past and present.

DICK KASTNER, SR., the young old-reliable, who has built Kastner Furniture Company into one of the largest such operations in a suburban town, pens note agreeing with us that the intercom system on the planes sometimes are impossible to understand. Dick wears a hearing aid and he attributed his inability to understand statements on the plane's intercom system to his sub-normal hearing. As Dick puts it, "I am hard of hearing and I have always thought it was just me who didn't understand what was being said so I didn't make an issue of the matter — hoping that all would go well on the flight." Dick also makes another appropriate observation, "There is an apparent careless and lax attitude on the part of some stewardesses demonstrating emergency equipment such as life belts and oxygen. Some of the girls seem to treat the demonstration as a big joke and laugh and giggle while trying to demonstrate something that in an emergency could save lives." Dick suggests that every airline review the procedure of emergency passenger flight instructions and, "drill it into the heads of those pretty able willing and capable glorified cocktail and dinner servers that this is a serious message and ensure that every passenger in the plane be quiet and pays attention."

RECEIVED A THOUGHTFUL NOTE from Norma McCool, recently re-elected to another three-year term on the Belleville Board of Education. From the very beginning, when Norma expressed interest in Belleville's school affairs, she became one of my favorites — and has remained so ever since. Her performance as a member of the Belleville Board of Education has more than justified my confidence in Norma, her ability and her dedication to the children of Belleville.

ESSEX COUNTY SENATOR Michael A. Giuliano has sponsored a bill in the New Jersey Senate which would make the theft of a pet worth under $200 a misdemeanor and a pet worth over $200 a high misdemeanor. In other words, once the bill becomes law, petnappers will be charged as criminals — and that is the way it should be.

Although we introduced the subject in last week's column, space limitations compelled our production people to drop the following concerning "Operation Diet Right":

OPERATION DIET RIGHT Are last year's clothes easier to forget than to zip? Is your belt getting tighter? If so, you may be on the way to more pounds than you need.

Instead of wishing for a slimmer you, try reducing. The best diet plan takes more backbone than wishbone, but the formula is simple: eat less, exercise more.

SNEAK UP ON IT Plan to lose no more than one to two pounds each week. Rapid weight loss may leave you tired, irritable, and vulnerable to disease. What's more, pounds that are shed in a hurry often return just as quickly. If you are more than ten pounds overweight, consult your physician before beginning to diet.

ADD THE FACTS, SUBTRACT THE FAT Calories are units of energy found in all foods. If the foods you eat contain more calories than your body uses in daily activity, the excess is stored as fat. To reduce, you'll have to cut your calorie intake or exercise more.

People who lead moderately active lives need about 15 calories per pound to maintain their weight. To estimate your daily needs for a slimmer figure, multiply your ideal weight by 15, or by a slightly lower figure if you are not very active. Keep your calorie intake at that level.

AVOID CRUTCHES Americans waste $100 million annually on phony reducing products. Forget this nonsense and stick to willpower.

School Budget Decision Expected Before Hearing

several Board of Education members.

McGreavy said he wanted assurance that if the Commission did not cut the 11 new teaching positions, the school Board would not cut them at a later date.

McGreavy couldn't however, get more than a token assurance by the school body that it wouldn't do so.

Declaring that the 11 new positions were necessary, the school Board nevertheless said it couldn't rule out the possibility that an "unforeseeable emergency" might require a slice into the new teachers positions.

"If we have an excessive emergency we will have to cut something—maybe a teacher of or two," Mrs. Morra McCool said. "But we certainly wouldn't want to do that," she added.

To this McGreavy responded "If these teachers are so necessary, how can you even discuss tonight the possibility of cutting some of them at a future date?"

Another area McGreavy explored for possible cuts was the state aid figure, which the Commissioner pointed out is listed in the budget at a figure lower than the state has promised.

McGreavy says the State has estimated $807,350 in aid this year for Belleville. The budget, however, lists only $770,000 a $37,350 difference. Mrs. Shader, said the lower figure was a safety precaution because the state figure was only an estimate. She said that in the 1969-79 budget, the state's final aid figure wound up $51,000

Daniel J. Keating; Retired Manager At Otis Elevator

Daniel J. Keating of Belleville, a retired office manager with Otis Elevator of Harrison, died January 18 at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. He was 75.

Mr. Keating had been a Belleville resident 42 years, coming here from Hartford, Conn., where he was born and raised.

The funeral was from the Kiernan Home, 101 Union Avenue in Belleville, with the Requiem Mass offered in St. Peter's at 10 a.m. January 28.

Mr. Keating is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Madeline Janzer of Nutley; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Miller of Cheshire, Conn., and two other sons, Daniel J. of Camden and Paul J. of Nutley. He was also the grandfather of 20 children.

A brother, the Rev. George M. Keating, officiated at the funeral services. Rev. Keating is the assistant spiritual director at the Immaculate Conception Seminary in Darlington.

A Requiem Mass was celebrated with the Rev. Keating being assisted by the Rev. Francis A. Ignaciuos of Ridgefield Park, and the Rev. Owen Garrigan of Seton Hall University. Other concelebrants were from the faculty at the Immaculate Conception Cemetery.

Over 80 students will bring "The Music Man", the story of the hottest con man in the mid west, to the stage of Newark Academy.

Board Listens To BHS Leaders

clear they would meet only with the students' elected leadership, not with factions of the student body.

Although a major student complaint has been a lack of communication with the Board of Education, they did not use Monday's meeting to start a dialogue, but to make a formal request.

The students were pleased with the results of the meeting, and feel that meaningful communication is being established.

Board members seemed to question the feasibility of the student center more for the purpose of removing obstacles than out of strong opposition to the plan itself. The feeling is that the Board will be willing to meet the students half way, provided they receive cooperation in return.

AMVETS state chairmen from across the nation gathered to exchange ideas and to make plans for this year's national finals. Also meeting with the chairmen were representatives from the Dodge Division of Chrysler Corporation, representatives from the U.S. Department of Transportation and members of AMVETS National Traffic Safety Commission.

Each chairman is responsible for coordinating plans with high schools, police officials and AMVETS posts throughout his particular state in executing the competitive driving programs.

"Operation D.E." in its fifth year nationally, is staged as a cooperative effort between the American Veterans of World War II, Korea and Vietnam (AMVETS) and the Dodge Division of Chrysler Corporation.

The program is designed to point up the need for improved automobile handling abilities by drivers in present day motoring activity. The elimination events include written and driving tests. The national winner receives a new Dodge car and a $1000 scholarship.

Trustee Seminar At Clara Maass

A trustee seminar was held last week at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville. The purpose of the seminar was to give the trustees an opportunity to learn, first hand, the daily routine of the hospital and also to provide an opportunity for the department heads and staff to become better acquainted with the trustees.

After a brief coffee and orientation, each trustee spent two hours in his assigned department learning the operation of the particular department and its role in the hospital's patient care program.

Following the luncheon, the trustees were addressed by the noted attorney, Eric W. Springer, associate director Health Law Center, Pittsburgh Pennsylvania, who spoke on the legal responsibility of the trustees and hospital.

Springer, who received his LL.B. from New York University School of Law, is author of four books pertaining to the health-law field. He is a member of the New York Bar Association; a charter member of Society Hospital Attorneys, a member of the Allegheny County Bar Association, the National Bar Association, fellow of American Public Health Association and Board of trustee, Presbyterian University Hospital.

Zoppa Costs Marotti A Dinner

"If you can beat Nutley, I'll take you all out to dinner." That's what Detective Michael V. Marotti said to his son Rocco of Belleville High School's basketball team a few weeks ago.

"They didn't win that one, so I put it to them again for the next game," explained Marotti on the way to the Fountain Restaurant last Thursday night. When he got there most of the starting team was there waiting eagerly.

Marotti's agreement may not have been the only impetus for the victory on a three point play by 6 foot 4 junior Ken Zoppa with 38 seconds left in an overtime period. The game was also the last one for seniors Rocco Marotti, Rich Caravatta, Ralph Macri, and Steve Tremel.

The game not only saw Zoppa score a career high of 22 points, but saw Marotti break the 300 mark, as his 19 points for the tilt gave him 302 on the season.

Players Ask For A Coach

During the dinner, the players present requested that the former BHS three-letterman coach for them in yesterday's annual faculty-varsity basketball game. The Belleville juvenile officer was a varsity footballer, cager, and baseball player in his days at Belleville High.

Beside the seniors and the junior starters, Bob Visco, Mike Petronaci, and Zoppa, the basketball cheerleaders were also present. They include Marybeth Salamone, Donna Cervasio, Margaret Ann DiChiara, Joni Fornarato, Carol Masi, Maria Zarra, Debbie Meola, Lynn Halbert, Kathy Sheridan, Peggy Beckland, and Jeanne Austin.

Some of the college plans for Belleville's Seniors are very likely to include more cage contest.

Caravatta, the team captain, is waiting to hear from Montclair State College, about his status there. The three year varsity cager has already been accepted at Jersey City State College, Newark State College, and Bloomfield College.

Macri plans on attending a two year college, before going on for a full degree. Ralph has been accepted at and plans to attend Edward and William Junior College, which is affiliated with Fairleigh Dickinson University, where former Bellboy coach Al LoBalbo is the cage mentor.

Surprisingly enough Rocco isn't yet sure of where he wants to go to continue his schooling, even though he'll be pretty sure to play basketball. The key to Belleville's offensive performance this past season presently is awaiting word from Montclair State, his number one choice, Paterson State, and Monmouth College. The cager-baseball player has already been accepted at Jersey City State.

Last week's Sport Corner erroneously reported that Seton Hall coach Art Piero would get another chance to see the Belleville grapplers at a scrimmage set for last Tuesday.

After rechecking the source, it was learned that the school in the scrimmage was Saint Benedicts, and not the Hall. The scrimmage proved to be uninteresting, as it was conducted like a joint practice rather than a match.

Wanted One Coach

It's time for another help-wanted ad. The girls at Belleville High have been keen on getting involved with girls sports, and now they've extended to track. The main problem encountered by Joyce Glen, who started getting names of girls this past week is getting the name of a coach. Joyce had eighteen names as of Monday night, with more coming in steadily.

Ventura Takes Wrestling Title

Rutgers sophomore Mike Ventura recently captured the school's intramural wrestling championship. Mickey was a varsity wrestler at Belleville High in 1969 at 141, and took the tournament at 150 pounds.

The preliminary round of the tournament saw the former Bellboy pin his opponent in one minute and twenty seconds. The semi-finals posted a hard contest, but Ventura came out on top impressively, 10-3. In the finals, Mickey chalked up a second pin, at 2:40.

The hardest thing about this intramural wrestling program at Rutgers, New Brunswick, is the fact that there is no organized work-out for a squad, and the wrestler have to get into shape and stay on their diets by themselves.

Bellgirls Drop Second Straight In Cage Sport

A 17-7 halftime lead was just too much for Belleville's girls basketball team to overcome, as North Arlington continued to trounce the Bellgirls until the final buzzer, when the scoreboard read 33-19 in the visitors favor.

Belleville took the lead with the first basket of the game. Debbie Corino made the initial score one minute into the start of the first quarter, but North Arlington took off with five straight points, and Belleville never had the lead again.

The high Bellgirl scorer for the second time in a row was junior Cindy Ferro. With two field goals in both the third and fourth quarter and one in the second, Cindy had a total of ten points.

In the first period she was held scoreless, but for the third and fourth quarters, she scored four of the team's six in each.

Corino, who scored the first basket, also scored one in the last quarter for a total of four points, the second high for Belleville.

North Arlington's entire game consisted of just two players. Jane Kanfus and Arlene Olcheski scored 29 of the visitors 33 points.

Kanfus hit for two from the floor twice in the first period, three times in the second period, and four times in the third. She did not score in the final quarter. One foul shot made her total 19 points.

Olcheski scored one field goal in each period, except for the second period, when she scored two, for a total of ten points.

The Bellgirls are now 0-2 after this loss, and the close 29-27 defeat to Nutley. Last season, the fem cagers were 2-2, but only played Verona and Irvington.

Watch Crowd Control

Belleville's Director of Athletics Herman B. Wische commented Monday that one of the greatest concerns of school officials will be "crowd control" at the Wrestling Tournament hosted by Belleville tomorrow night.

Wische noted that since this is the first one to be held here, the conduct of the crowd will be important in trying to get major wrestling events in the future also to be scheduled for the Bellboys home territory.

The director also announced that tickets for the tournament will be $1.00 for students and $2.00 for adults. Tickets will be required for each of the three 24 match sessions. The first session will

Wrestlers Face Stiff Tests In District Tourney Matches

By John McCarthy

This week-end will be the big test for Belleville's wrestlers as they face defending Champions Essex Catholic and four other schools in the Region II District 9 Championships which will start tomorrow night with the preliminary rounds at 8 in the BHS gymnasium.

Belleville will be carrying its best record in the history of BHS wrestling, 12-1, onto the mats with them. Essex will be carried by five returning district champs, while Belleville has none.

With Essex facing harder teams from all over the state for their 9-2 record and fifth place ranking in the region, the wrestling observers from the daily paper say that it is "hard to pick against Essex Catholic." Bellboy observers have notice though that Belleville is out to make the daily's eat their words.

While the wrestlers have been working on improving their skill and strength in this last week, so have the other teams. All of the contestants in the 24 bouts set for tomorrow night will be hoping to better their regular season performances, so some upsets could be expected.

With this in mind, here are summaries of Belleville's opponents in the six way championship

Essex Catholic - Five returning district champions from last season have given Essex most of its power this season. Head coach Gene D'Alessandro has commented that "This might be the best team we've ever had at the school." Top performer for the Eagles is Mark Baldacini at 123 pounds, with an 11-0 record for this season, and one district championship already under his belt.

Rick Peterson owns the second best record for Essex. His 10-1 slate rates him slightly higher than Gary Bavero and Gary Thunnel at 130 and 115, who own identical 9-2 records. The fifth district champ is Matt Lopinto at 106 now with 5-4-1.

Essex started their season with a first place finish in the Seton Hall Christmas Tournament. Since then their only two losses have been to Millburn, rated fourth in Region II, and Hackensack, by a close 24-20 score. Millburn won 23-15, but Essex victories have been over teams such as Seton Hall, St. Benedicts, Parsippany, North Bergen, Long Branch, Christian Brothers Academy, Long Branch Catholic, and Nutley.

In the only match with a common opponent, Nutley, the Eagles won 30-14. Essex only lost the 98, 106, 148, and 157 pound bouts to the Maroon. Of these four, Belleville won two and lost two against the cross town rivals. Nutley's 115 and 136 were the only Maroon to lose to Essex and beat Belleville. BLOOMFIELD The Bengals beat Kearny, even though performances against Belleville weren't as good as the Kards. Should the Bengals also be up for the tourney, third place will be theirs as Belleville has two Subs in at Kearny. The story here is Vito Marcogliese, as the Belleville 130 will be out to avenge a close Holiday Tourney loss, 5-3, to Joe Rainone of Bloomfield. Rainone did not face Marcogliese in the dual match, Vito had the flue, but the Bengal 130 said he would beat Vito, and Vito said he will beat Rainone. Nice match-up.

Other Bengals who have topped Bellboys are Jay Holveck at 98, 5-0 over (Continued on Page 12)

BELLEVILLE'S BEST matmen in the school's history hope to earn statewide prominence with an impressive showing this weekend in the district tournament in the BHS gym. Belleville's hopes rest on these wrestlers and their coaches. Shown are (kneeling) captain Carmen Russomano; first row, (l-r), coach Jim Silvestri, Frank Savastano, Brian Waddell, John

Bellboy Grapplers Draw High Seeds For Weekend District Tournament

Seven of Belleville's wrestlers will receive "bye's" in tomorrow night's District Championship, which will start at 7:00 at the BHS gymnasium.

These seven have all received seedings in the top two places, either first or second. Since there are only six teams in the tourney, these two positions will receive a free ride to the semi-final round to be held Saturday morning at 10:00.

The only two Bellboys seeded first were Angelo Zoppi at 106 pounds, and Walter Bennett at 136. Five wrestlers were given second place, because either there was a grappler from another school who had a better record, was a returning champ, or had beaten the Bellboy during the season.

These were from 148 pounds straight up to heavy weight, where Belleville picked up consistent wins during the season. The seconds went to Brian Waddell, Frank Savastano, Carmen Russomano, Frank Marano, and John Atherton, all of whom are seniors.

According to wrestling coach Jim Silvestri, "Nothing is sewed up. It's up to the wrestlers to win each bout."

At 98 pounds, Fred Arena was one of two Bellboys to receive second seeding. Fred will face sixth seeded Uriah Hall, from Barringer. The Newark sophomore was pinned by the Bellboy soph in 3:27 of their dual contest.

Angelo Zoppi's first seed at 106 comes with no surprise. Zoppi will receive a bye to face the winner of the contest between the number three and number six men since he has the best record of his class, 10-3.

Sophomore Brian Banda was the only Bellboy to be picked for sixth place. Brian had a 4-6 record and will face Bloomfield's Frank Murano. The Bloomfield senior 8-2-3 this season, and seeded third. He topped Banda 5-3 in a dual match.

An 11-1 record for Boff Mustacchio put him in third place, as Essex Catholic's defending champ Mark Baldacini seeded first with 11-0. Jack Harnerthur of Kearny (13-0) was seeded second. Boff will face Bloomfield's William Ferrara, who was pinned at 3:00 by the Belleville junior.

Vito Marcogliese will get his first chance to face Kearny's Rob Campbell. Vito was seeded fourth with 8-2 for the season, while Campbell was fifth with 6-6-1. The winner of this match will face Joe Rainone of Bloomfield, 10-4. Seeded first at 130 was defending Champ Gary Bavero with a 10-2 record.

Walt Bennett's 6-3 record was the best at 136, so he was seeded first and given a bye.

Number two at 136 is Steve Sherri of Essex Catholic, 5-3 for the season.

At 141, Ed Dunckley was seeded third with a 10-3 record. The Belleville senior will face Drew Murray of Kearny, who went 3-9 for the season, and was shut out 4-0 by Dunckley.

Brian Waddell 10-3 will receive a bye for second place at 141. The number one seed here went to Flemming of West Side, who wasn't at the scrimmage with Belleville before the season, but went 12-0.

At 157, Frank Savastano's tie put him behind West Side's Tom Fraiser. Frank was 12-0-1, while Tom was 12-0. Tom beat Waddell 11-8 in the pre-season scrimmage.

The longest argument of the night was over the seeding for 168 pounds. Carmen Russomano was 13-0, Essex's Rick Peterson a defending champ was 11-1, and Bruce Jackson of West Side was 12-0. When the coaches voted for first place, Peterson received two votes and Carmen one, even though Carmen didn't have a loss. Peterson was pinned in his match with Hackensack.

Frank Marano was seeded second with 10-1 record at 178. First place went to Bill Harrison of Kearny, who was 13-0. Marano will probably face Essex Catholic's Vietnar seeded third on Saturday, after the bye for tomorrow night.

Heavyweight John Atherton will receive a bye as his 9-4 record places him second behind Essex's Vito who was 9-2-1 for the season. Atherton lost to Van Montgomery of West Side in the pre-season and Saturday will face the winner of Van Montgomery's match with Kearny's Fink, who was beaten 4-2 by the Bellboy.

Districts To Make Or Break Grapplers

Arena; Frank Murano at 115, a district champ in his sophomore year, over Banda 5-3; and Joe Guiliano at 141 over Ed Dunkley 4-3. Dunkley has come a long way this year, and if he plays his cards right, will come out on top.

KEARNY - Look for the Cardinals to give an extra special effort this week-end. The Kards got psyched-up for their dual match with Belleville, and the Bellboys came through with a close 25-19 victory. Kearny did lose to Bloomfield 22-19, but three points is mainly significant in the dual season won-loss column, in a tourney, it's individual performance that counts.

Sophs Trounce Nutley

A tremendous second half effort by Belleville's sophomore basketball team enabled them to trounce Nutley High School's sophomore squad by a score of 70-40. Tight defense also kept the Maroon from posing any real threats after the first quarter.

Belleville lead from the start on a jumper from the corner by Ed Colon in the opening minute of the game. The Bellboys moved ahead to lead 11-7 at the end of the quarter, and continued to a 24-15 lead at half-time.

For the third and fourth quarters, Belleville ran Nutley off the court with 23 points in both, and allowed Nutley to totally only 12 and 13 respectively.

Vin Tortorello was the high scorer for the sophs as he sank 11 shots from the floor and from the foul line for a total of 26 points.

Phil Cuzzi and Ed Colon tied for second in scoring. Both had 14 points against the Maroon on seven field goals.

Belleville's defense was good enough to keep Nutley from having any players score in double figures. Their high scorer was Joe Sibilia with seven points.

BECK'S COLUMN

The nationwide Annual Magnavox Sale is in full swing. It started on February 1st, with the proverbial "bang".

This Sale has become the most important event in the TV and phonograph trade. Many customers wait for it eagerly, knowing that this is the only time during the year that this otherwise fair-traded merchandise can be bought at reduced prices. Many stores have a sale every week so that one wonders whether they ever do regular business. These "sales" are a farce, of course, and people do not pay any attention. Customers know that a Magnavox Sale is the real thing.

The Sale, as far as the factory and Magnavox dealers are concerned is the occasion to correct merchandising mistakes. Some models do not catch on and inventories pile up. Sometimes a dealer makes a mistake buying too many pieces of certain models which he expected to sell, but which did not move. There is a saying that everything can be sold at the right price. The mark-downs are accordingly and there are some real "bargains". As a rule these are picked up quickly. We suggest to shop now to take advantage of these lower prices.

Needless to say that all the merchandise is regular stock and carries the regular guarantee. Some are single pieces, some are display or demo models, but the quality is always the same.

You will find a few listings in our display ad in this issue. There are many more, of course.

Kearny has also beaten West Side, and Barringer, the two other schools in the tourney. Kearny's 98 Jay Reynolds beat Belleville's Fred Aren on a decision. John Bruschetti at 115 beat Brian Banda on a decision. Jack Harbathur beat Boff Mustacchio on a pin, but Boff still doubts the call, and will be out to get revenge. Boff beat Harberthur in the Christmas Tourney, and last year's districts. Rob Campbell at 130 beat Bob Zarra 4-2, but didn't seem impressive enough to beat Vito Marcogliese, who will probably get the call in the Districts. Bill Harrison topped Tom Jones with a 5:38 pin, and Camen Russomano in the Bloomfield Tournament, but Frank Marano is still another story.

Should Harrison and Marano meet tomorrow or Saturday, look for a big power play, and brains to boot.

WEST SIDE - This top Newark school will have a long way to go to top Belleville. West Side was humiliated 31-14 in a pre-season scrimmage, but Silvestri thinks they have come a long way since then. They lost by only eight points to Kearny and could make team scoring close.

West Side's Larry Lemon shut out Chico Lijo at 98 pounds 5-0, but Lijo has been replaced at 98 by Arena. Bob Scott at 115 edged out Banda 6-4. Greg Riley, the younger brother of Chuck Riley, who denied the unbeaten Jessie Towns of a title last season, scored a 2-2 tie with Walt Bennett. West Side's Tom Fraiser decided Brian Waddell at 148 11-8 in the scrimmage and Van Montgomery beat John Atherton 9-4 in the preseason.

BARRINGER - The former host of the Districts is not exactly favored to place very high. Barringer lost to Belleville 44-7, the widest margin of the year, West Side 29-23; and Kearny 24-18.

Tyson, Nisivoccia Lead Zig Zags

The Zig Zags behind the fine shooting of Bill Tyson and Jim Nisivoccia overwhelmed the Circles 82-56. Bill Tyson scored nine of his 22 points in the first half. Jim almost matched Bill's total in scoring 19 points.

The Circles were at a disadvantage when their leading rebounder, Bill Rush, had to watch from the sidelines with a sore knee. The team is hoping he will be able to play when the playoffs start. Rick San Filippo contributed 19 points in a losing cause. Ron Tomaszewski almost doubled his seasons average by scoring six points for the Circles.

Kings Court buried the Gardens 66 to 52. Richard Luzzi who is one of the leagues leading scorers tacked on 25 more points to his total. Tom Ziolkowski teamed with Ralph Greco for an additional 27 points. Other players who scored for Kings Court were Mike Chiefo, Lou Reiner and Richard Bennechi with four, eight and two points respectively. The Gardens received an outstanding game from Gary Masciulli who finished with 21 points. Robert Sheldon and Ralph Cerrato both finished in double figures for the Gardens.

Robsons picked up an easy victory when the DelGees couldn't field a team. This win brought the Robsons mark to eight wins and one loss. They are now in third place in the Mens Recreation Basketball League.

First Victory Is On Protest

The Wildcats picked up their first Victory of the season on a protest.

When the game started C. C. & Co. had only two players, these two players dominated the game through the first quarter over the Wildcats. In the second quarter the other members of

C. C. & Co. arrived and added to total annihilation of the wildcats 99 to 34.

The ruling is that in order to start a basketball game both teams have to begin with five players each. It will go into the standings as a one to nothing victory for the Wildcats.

Unbeaten Knicks Continue Streak

The Knicks won their ninth straight game with a 25 to 8 win over the Lakers and in doing so captured the first Belleville Recreation Elementary Basketball League Championship. The Trotters defeated the Celtics 29 to 13 to take their seventh game but with only one more week of play remaining there is no chance for them to even tie the Knicks.

The Knicks received a strong 11 point performance from Joe Cassese as they rolled over the Lakers. The Knicks leading scorer, Mark Binkevitz was held to six points this week but the fine team balance took up the slack. In addition to Joe's eleven, Tom Smith scored three, Nick Zarra and Mike Nocasie each had a bucket, while Hugh Mallack added one point. Only two Lakers broke into the scoring column this week as Martin Slater scored five and James Nivins had three.

The Celtics held the League's highest scoring team, the Trotters to 12 points in the first half while trailing with seven. In the fourth quarter, Francis Morel, who had only one point up until this time, exploded for 12 points to put the Trotters well ahead of the Celtics to win 29 to 13. Louis Klein was held to seven points but Ronald Grolimond hit for five and David White had four. Ed Rodriguez had four followed by Joe Norton and Steve Scrivo with three point each for the Celtics.

The Hawks won their fourth game while pinning the sixth loss on the Bucks by a score of 17 to 15. Greg Petite was the games high scorer with 9 points as he paced the Hawks. Dan Cunard was the second highest scorer with four points.

Phil Moraski and Dave Palumbo finished the scoring for the Hawks with two points each. Mark McGarril paced the Bucks with five followed by Glen MacFarland with four.

Williams Sets Control Law For Dumping Ocean Wastes

U.S. Sen. Harrison A. Williams, Jr. (D-NJ) today introduced legislation that would stringently regulate the dumping of wastes into the oceans around the United States.

Initially, the legislation would immediately ban dumping in a 97-mile zone extending out from the three-mile territorial limit. Dumping in the territorial waters is governed by other laws.

The Williams Bill would permanently ban dumping in a nine-mile zone extending beyond the territorial limit.

Dumping beyond that to the 100-mile limit would be halted until the Environmental Protection Agency issues regulations controlling such dumping so that ocean pollution would be prevented.

Jones Leads Bucks

The Bucks defeated the Knicks in the Belleville Recreation Junior League 33 to 31. Jimmy Jones and his team mate Steve Gerard added the scoring punch with 15 and 10 points respectively.

Tony Guarino along with Joe Dunn were the other Bucks who scored with a total of eight points between them. Victor Pasquariello displayed excellent driving ability in ringing up five field goals and one free throw for an 11 point evening.

The Supersonics brought their record to 8 wins and 1 loss in stopping the Warriors 32 to 30. Once again Abdel Anderson was the leading scorer with twenty hard earned points. Allen Amiano was 11 points behind Abdel with 9 points for the Supersonics. The Warriors played their finest game of the season. Mike Cancelliere tossed in 13 points in a losing cause.

Golf Event Is Planned

Tom McLaughlin, announced today that plans are underway to stage the 1971 Belleville Participating Golf Championship, June 3, at the Hendricks Field Golf Course in Belleville.

The affair will be an all day event with golf and special events topped with an award dinner in the evening.

This year the affair will be enlarged to include other organizations in Belleville to compete with the Belleville Kiwanis, the Lions Club, the Belleville Amvets and the town employees. Any organization which enters 12 or more players, the committee will arrange to have a championship trophy for each respective group. In addition the individual net champion of Belleville as well as the handicap champion will be honored.

Any group or individual who is interested in the event should contact Tom McLaughlin at 759-7860 evenings.

The conduct of crowds at scholastic events at night was the main reason that very few were scheduled for Belleville teams, as well as in other cities.

The Kearny score is closer than West Side's, but only one Barringer wrestler was able to beat a Bellboy, and one other tied.

The top wrestlers for Barringer are Charles Cage, Robbie Wright, and Alvin

Waller. Cage, a freshman, has a long time to make his mark, but he has started by pinning Belleville's senior Bob Zarra in 3:59 at 130 pounds.

Wright provided the only blemish on Frank Savastano's 12-0-1 record with a 7-7 tie.

Savastano was ahead 7-6, but Wright had 1:10 riding time and tied the score.

Waller was the City Champ last year, but had trouble with Frank Marano, as the Bellboy won 4-2 on riding time.

In Oratory Contest

John McCarthy Wins Legion Savings Bond

By Beth Fitzgerald

Senior John McCarthy, winner of a $50 U.S. savings bond in the American Legion's Thirty-Third Annual National High School Oratorical Contest, says he entered because "I feel that I have an adequate ability to express myself without bothering to go through tedious preparation. In other words, making speeches isn't so hard."

The contest, coordinated by Mr. Walter Weiss of Belleville's American Legion Post 105, was open to three high school students, although only two, John and senior Alan Cohen, entered. Both had participated last year as juniors, Alan coming in second and John third. Susan Kellenbence placed first in last year's contest. This year, both second and third place contestants would automatically have won $25 bonds for their participation; last year there was no third prize. The increased prizes, however, failed to increase student participation.

Both John and Alan were required to give prepared speeches, eight to ten minutes in length, on some phase of the constitution, emphasizing the duties and obligations of citizens. John learned nine cases of the Supreme Court and related them to public opinion; Alan spoke on the Constitution and human freedoms.

The prepared speech was followed by an extemporaneous one, three to five minutes in length. The topic chosen beforehand, was revealed to the speaker about five minutes before he was to speak. The contestant had been given a list of six possible topics from which the extemporaneous speech might be drawn, and had to be well-versed on all of them. The power of the President to appoint justices to the Supreme Court was the chosen topic.

Judging the contest were three history teachers, Mr. J. Gavitt, Mrs. Angela Di Maggio, and Mr. Richard Graves. The contestants were judged on both content and speaking skills, and a penalty of one point was deducted for each minute or fraction over or under the allotted time.

John will now be required to compete in the county oratorical contest, to be held February 22 in Millburn.

Knicks Score Sonics

The Knicks handed the Supersonics their first defeat of the season by the score of 35 to 26. Victor Pasquariello led the Knicks attack with 15 points. Victor scored ten points in the first half and five points in the second half.

The other Knicks who scored were Paul Frank, Joe Racioppi, Bob Giordano and Neal Scheffer. They combined to score the Knicks other twenty points. Abdel Anderson was held far below his season's average with only 16 points. Rounding out the Supersonics scoring were Tony Biafore with five points and Anthony Amiano with five points.

The Bucks picked up their second win of the season by stopping the Warriors 36 to 29. Jim Jones collected 14 points in the second half to spearhead the Bucks attack. Jim finished the evening with a total of 20 points. Chris Tremel played a very aggressive game for the Warriors. He scored 11 points and was outstanding on defense.

Department of Labor and Industry.

Nonmanufacturing jobholding dropped by 49,000 to 1,712,400.

Robertello-Carroll Wedding Is Held

St. Joseph's R.C. Church, Keyport, was the setting February 20 of the wedding of Miss Nancy Ellen Carroll, daughter of Mrs. William J. Carroll of Matawan and the late Mr. Carroll to James J. Robertello, son of Mrs. Charles Robertello of Dawson Street, Belleville and the late Mr. Robertello. A reception was held at the Shadowbrook Inn, Shrewsbury.

Escorted by her uncle, Charles E. Ashe of Belleville, the bride wore a full length gown of silk organza with the skirt, bishop sleeves, neckline and full length train applied with roses of Venice lace and seed pearls. Her two tiered French illusion veil was bordered in the same lace.

Miss Jennifer Robertello, sister of the groom and maid of honor wore a forest green silk velvet floor length gown and carried light green carnations. Mrs. Robert Carroll and Mrs. William Carroll, both of Matawan, sisters-in-law of the bride, were similarly gowned in royal purple and carried orchid carnations.

Robert Piegario of Belleville, was best man and William and Robert Carroll ushered.

The mother of the bride wore a pink silk and worsted gown with a beaded bodice and hat to match. The groom's mother chose a melon ensemble embroidered with beads and matching hat.

Both wore orchids to match their gowns.

Mrs. Robertello is a graduate of Red Bank Catholic High School and is a claim examiner with the Prudential, Newark.

Mr. Robertello is a student at Seton Hall and is with William J. Gaynor, Montclair. After a Pocono Mountain honeymoon, the couple will live in Bloomfield.

Model Mystique

THE BARBIZON
The Model
Mystique

Here at Barbizon-Montclair, one of our favorite programs is our Creative Living Make-Up course. Housewife, career girl can use professional tips on the art of applying make-up... and it is an art.

We find that women of all ages run into problems with lipstick. How do you pick the proper shade, for instance? All lipstick colors fall into three basic categories — blue-reds (from pale candy pinks to deep wine shades), the true reds and the coral-orange reds (from pale tangerine to russet-brown red). Pink complexions go well with the first group and dark complexions go well with the last. A cream complexion usually can use all three.

We insist on one thing in lipstick selection: You must be sure that the color does something for YOU. It may be heavily advertised or have a groovy name or look great on your best friend... but if it doesn't suit your own wardrobe and complexion requirements, it's not for you.

And that's another important point. Match your make-up to your costume, to your eyes, to your nails. Blend, rather than contrast.

How you apply your lipstick is another vital factor in your overall look. At Barbizon-Montclair, we concentrate on all lip problems until we have them covered. Call us at 783-4030 in Montclair and find out more about our Creative Living Make-Up course and what it has to offer you.

WALKING IN THE RECOVERY ROOM

All the advances in modern medicine do not come from new drugs or advanced surgical techniques. Not too long ago doctors found out that in certain operations it was better to have the patients on their feet as soon as possible. Today some surgeons have their patients actually walking in the recovery room.

It seems that the sooner the body starts back to functioning normally the quicker it will start healing. Hospital stays now are usually shorter. In the same way, today's new prescription medicines help you to recover more quickly. A physician's skilled care is the shortest road to better health.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

APPOINTED TO COMMITTEE — Mrs. William Kropp of Nutley, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, has recently been appointed to the Health Careers Committee of the New Jersey Association of Hospital Auxiliaries. The first project to be undertaken by the Committee is to raise $40,000 to purchase and equip an educational trailer for health careers recruitment. The trailer which will travel all over the state, will be designed to stimulate interest among young people in entering careers in the subsidiary hospital services: nurses aides, ward clerks, laboratory technicians, dietary, housekeeping, X-ray technicians, physical therapy, medical records, etc. The Auxiliary of Clara Maass has already pledged $100.00 towards the project.

High School Expanding Its Reading Program

Excellent progress is being made in the Reading Program at Belleville High School under the direction of Mrs. Andrea Schultz, Reading Specialist. About 40 students have been involved in a series of diagnostic reading tests, both written and oral and given individual evaluation. These tests are designed to identify the reading difficulties because no two reading disability cases probably stem from the same source, have exactly the same pattern, or need the same type of instruction.

Various English classes are also benefitting from reading instruction. Two sessions per week are devoted to team teaching involving the regular classroom teacher and the reading teacher.

Periodic diagnostic test scores have shown a marked improvement in word recognition, reading purposes and rate, locational and study techniques interpretive and inferential reading skills.

Students are helped to develop those skills and abilities which are most necessary for immediate success in school.

Though the Belleville High School Reading Program is essentially remedial in nature, it is not strictly limited to the disability case. Those students interested in improving their study skills, speed of comprehension, and reading rate are permitted to come to the reading laboratory during their study halls or free time.

Leonard Marciano, is the head of the English Department.

Sandman Bill To Provide Educational Tax Credits

Legislation to permit tax credits to help taxpayers meet escalating costs of higher education for their children has been introduced in Congress by Rep. Charles W. Sandman, Jr. (2nd-NJ).

The legislation, according to Congressman Sandman, would provide a tax credit of 100 percent for the first $200 spent on higher education; 25 percent of expenses from $200 to $500, and five percent of expenses from $500 to $1,500.

Busy Schedule For Brownies

The girls of Brownie Girl Scout Troop No. 486 became bowlers for a day when they traveled to the Olympic Bowl on Washington Avenue to bowl two games each as part of the Brownie activities schedule.

After bowling, the girls enjoyed a feast of a hamburger and french fries, coke and ice cream.

The event took place January 26 under the guidance of Troop leader Mrs. Anne M. Bridge, with the assistance of Mrs. Margaret Sirni, Mrs. Alice Callahan, Mrs. Marlene Thornton and Mrs. Shiela DelGuercio. Girl Scout Cadette Lettie Leone also helped out.

The Brownies who participated in the event were: Rhonda Beardsley, Rebecca Bridge, Sharon Callahan, Dawn Castelli, Cathy DelGuercio, Agatha DeMeo, Michelina De Meo, Donna Dombrowski, Jeanne Fornarotto, Maria Nasello, Robyn Perrine, Cynthia Scheder, Michele Sirni and Patricia Thornton.

Bowling was only part of a busy schedule for the girls which began in December with the making of Christmas tree ornaments and wound up most recently with attendance at the special Scout service at St. Peter's Church.

The girls donated 150 homemade cookies to the Red Cross, which were presented to Miss Cynthia Ventola, Second Grade teacher of School No. 5, a Red Cross representative.

VALENTINE DANCE — The PTA of Holy Family Church, Nutley, held its annual Valentine Dance February 13. Chairman for the event was Anthony Biondi, PTA vice-president. The affair was held at Biase's Restaurant, Newark. Shown above are Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Casale, the Rev. Francis Blake and Mr. and Mrs. Biondi. Mr. Casale is president of the association.

The troop also made paper cutouts, Brownies and dressed them in Brownie uniforms from around the world.

The Brownies drew pictures and wrote short paragraphs on what they do at their weekly meetings for the "Brownie Reader" Contest; sent a note of congratulations, signed by all Brownies, to Mrs. George Hallam, on the birth of her child and made heart-shaped pin cushions to give their mothers on Valentine's Day.

A highlight of the season was the selection of a winner among the posters drawn on the "Ecology" theme. Mrs. Jeanne Frankel, fourth grade teacher at School No. 5 selected the poster of Dawn Castelli as the winner.

Brownie Sharon Callahan carried the Troop flag into St. Peter's when the troop attended the scouting service last Sunday. Mrs. DeMeo and Mrs. Callahan assisted leader Mrs. Bridge in tending the girls at the service. Brownies who attended were: Rebecca Bridge, Michelina DeMeo, Agatha DeMeo, Cathy DelGuercio, Patricia Thornton, Donna Dombrowski.

Belleville Girl Scouts Involved In Ecology

It has been over a year that the nation has been bombarded with frantic warnings about the deteriorating condition of the environment. If drastic measures aren't taken, say astute leaders like Stewart Udall and members of the equally aware Sierra Club, we will do much worse than wallow in ugliness... we will be strangled by it or succumb to pollution. Frightening.

As a result the public has been gathering strength to defy the fear and has rallied in many communities to reverse the trends. And it has begun.

Girl Scouts, who will observe their 59th anniversary March 12, have always been deeply involved in conservation. They are taught as young Brownies that nature is their birthright... a gift of endless beauty. As they grow, they learn to preserve the land as they use it and conserve as they explore.

And today, throughout the Greater Essex County Girl Scout Council, of which Belleville is a part, scouts have joined other organizations in the current concern over ecology.

Juliette Low, who founded the Girl Scouts in 1912, believed in the out-of-doors as a means of revitalization and individual delight. She also stressed that it be saved. An awareness of this ideal has lead many many Belleville troops to become actively involved, their projects including the making of bird feeders by Brownie Troop 486 to provide food during the long winter months, the raising of plants from seeds by Junior Troop 906 who hope to plant them soon at School No. 5, and posters and displays depicting the various types of pollution by members of Brownie Troop 963 and Junior Troop 938. These girls have also collected litter from around School No. 1 and created a "litter monster" as a reminder of our carelessness. Junior Troop 478 has sent out letters calling attention to unnecessary litter. They are planning to photograph areas needing attention and seek cooperation for correcting these conditions.

Junior Troop 947 is concentrating on their own lawns and yards by clearing and planting. Cadette Troop 950 is participating in the "Save The Bald Eagle" project sponsored by the Florida Audubon Society which is striving to prevent the extinction of our national bird.

All troops are making ecology posters to be judged at their Scout-O-Rama to be held at the Belleville Junior High, March 13, 12:30 - 4:30 p.m.

End of March CYO Contest Entry Deadline

The Essex County CYO has announced that the deadline for entering the annual one-Act play contest has been set for March 29, although notification of entry should be made to the county office one week earlier. The CYO began preparations for the annual drama tournament by sponsoring a drama workshop January 24 at Assumption School in Union. Directors, assistant directors, actors and stagehands were invited to attend the session, which dealt with all aspects of presenting a play. A chartered CYO parish may enter the contest for a $10 registration fee. Local eliminations will precede the county finals, which will be held in late April. Coordinating the competition for the Essex County CYO is cultural chairman Byrnes of Orange.

the likeable Litchi from the land of Jade
In the book of the Chinese Emperor, it is written that the litchi nut (some spell it lichee) is a delicacy for festive celebrations. And so, our chefs at Jade Fountain reserve its exquisite flavor for certain dishes only.
If you are a litchi devotee, the waiter will tell you which of our Chinese Polynesian treats contain the remarkable fruit of the litchi tree. If you have never savored the litchi nut (perish the thought that you have lived so long without), we will envy you as your taste buds are thus titillated for that delicious "first time" experience. Come. Celebrate.

Bixby, Mattia Named Easter Seals Chairmen

Romeo Mattia and William C. Bixby, both of Belleville have been named co-chairmen of this year's Easter Seal Appeal, according to Jeffrey P. Ruddy, Essex County chairman of the Easter Seal Committee for Crippled

Children and Adults of Essex County. Mattia, the owner of Mattia Printing Company in Newark is the past president of Boys Clubs of Newark and is a member of North Newark Lions Club, the Megaro-Cundari Welfare Association and the Essex County Civic Association. He has been chairman for the Appeal for several years.

Contributions from the Easter Seal Appeal, which started March 1 continuing through April 11 - Easter Sunday - are the main source of funds used for state-wide, year-round programs of diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation offered crippled children and adults by the Easter Seal Society and its affiliates. Last year more than 4000 physically handicapped people were benefitted by one or more of the many services made available through the Society.
