THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"I think the President of the U.S., instead of sending men to the moon, should send the garbage to the moon."
Commissioner Strumolo at Budget Hearing

$5.27 Tax Rate

Town's Budget Adopted After 6-Hour Marathon

By Nat Gottlieb

Belleville Commissioners unanimously adopted the 1971 Municipal Budget Monday night, reflecting an overall tax jump of 66 points for the coming year. The new tax rate is $5.27.

While Muhammad Ali and Joe Frazier were slugging it out in the Garden, Belleville taxpayers and Commissioners did little more than spar for a tedious six and a half hours Monday evening. In the end, Town Fathers sliced $154,273 from the total tax package, a figure already decided upon well before the public hearing.

This year's hearing, in contrast to last year's stormy session, was relatively free of emotional outbursts and heated debate. In fact, for most residents and reporters, the hearing was somewhat boring.

Out of over 500 residents present at 8 p.m., only 24 remained when the session ended at 2:30 a.m. At that time there were more town employees in the senior high school auditorium than taxpayers.

The substitution of the relatively even-tempered Commissioner Joe McGreevy for Mayor Ken Smith at the microphone, and the monopolization of speaking time by a half dozen political aspirants, was probably the reason for the unusually uneventful session of the hearing.

The town budget, meanwhile, is up 18 points. The increase for Essex County is up 36 points and the rest is for the Belleville Board of Education. The overall budget's tax total for the county, schools and town is $12,220,554.11, up $1,630,559.53 over last year.

Prior to the hearing, Mayor Smith cut $45,023 in the wages account for the police and fire departments. A cut of $9,250 came out of Commissioner Mary Senatore's Public Work's Department. A $100,000 application of surplus funds was also added to the cut in the tax package.

Despite the six and a half hours of discussion, Commissioners conceded nothing additional for appropriations from their budgets, maintaining throughout that their accounts were tight.

If this was frustrating for residents, probably no one felt the frustration more than Tony Fernandes of 95 Harrison Street.

Fernandes, a frequent "town critic" at Commission meetings, outdid any of his previous speaking performances. In fact, Fernandes probably set a town record for the longest stint before a microphone.

Fernandes logged nearly six hours in what amounted to a marathon point-by-point examination of the budget. The long-winded speaker, who seemed to have done his homework extensively, admitted much of his ammunition for the six hour talk-a-thon came from research by himself and members of the Belleville Valley Association, a local taxpayer's group.

Despite his six hour attack on municipal spending, Fernandes was able to accomplish little more than to force Commissioners to double check their figures and to monopolize speaking time at the lectern.

Indeed, many residents who had signed up to speak became frustrated by Fernandes' marriage to the microphone, and left the auditorium. Notable among the speaking dropouts were former Board of Education President Rocco Saletta and former Mayor Robert Laterza. Many residents shouted from their seats to make themselves heard.

Saletta actually got to approach the microphone, but commissioners called a recess before he could speak, a move which prompted the ire of Saletta. Saletta told reporters the meeting was "a farce" and that "town fathers were ignoring resident demands."

Although the two former town officials didn't get speaking time, one notable official from the Council-Manic days did get his chance—James Golden.

Golden, a former councilman noted for his flamboyance, didn't disappoint the audience, as he harangued at officials for alleged excessive spending and drew applause for his rather dramatic presentation.

"This is an election-year budget" Golden charged loudly. "These officials seem to have a wanton disregard for the poor little fellow out

School Funds Lower

The Belleville Board of Education will have to adjust its 1971-72 budget to the tune of $115,000.

That's the amount the Board finds itself in the hole with after last week's teacher salary settlement and a cut by the Board of Commissioners.

The teacher settlement will cut $47,000 from the voter approved budget last week. The School Board for the record says it doesn't know yet where the money will come from, but several Board members privately hinted the Belleville adult and summer schools might be cancelled and bus service curtailed.

The Board apparently will delay adjusting funds until June, when it is likely two or three teachers at the maximum range will retire.

COMMISSIONER Joseph McGreevy (center) checks budget figures with the aid of Town Treasurer Francis McCoy (right) and town auditor Nathan Honig. McGreevy drew praise for his handling of the six and a half hour marathon budget hearing, which was relatively calm and orderly.

Strumolo Urges Residents Fight Bus Controversy

Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo is urging residents to protest a proposal by Public Service Transport to drop the No. 37 bus line through Belleville. The Commissioner fears Public Service's action would affect transportation for residents to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital and the senior and junior high schools.

Strumolo asked residents to protest at a public hearing on the matter scheduled Tuesday, March 23 at 8 p.m. in Belleville Town Hall Chambers.

The hearing is being called by the state Public Utilities Commission, (PUC), which has been petitioned by Public Service to approve discontinuance of service on the No. 37 line.

Two months ago the PUC stopped Public Service from curtailing service on three area lines—the No. 37, No. 15 and No. 28—after strong protest by Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield officials.

The PUC blocked that move on the grounds Public Service hadn't called a public hearing on the matter.

Strumolo now feels this month's hearing "is just the first step by Public Service toward discontinuing all three lines."

Strumolo said he actually

14 Petitions Out

Commission Race Slow

Town Clerk Eugene Barnett reports 14 residents have taken petitions for the May Commission election, although only two have officially filed.

It is expected, however, that all 14 and probably more will be filed by the April 1 deadline.

Campaigning, meanwhile, was quiet this week. Most candidates were busy working behind the scenes to strengthen their organizations in preparation for an all-out surge after the filing deadline.

The 14 petitions include incumbents Ken Smith, Mary Senatore, Joe McGreevy and Vincent Strumolo. Also on the list is former Mayor Robert Laterza, former Board of Education President Rocco Saletta, former Councilman James Golden, and local detective Michael Marotti.

Rounding out the list are Mrs. Ruth Dillon, Salvatore LaMorte, Frank Racanelli, Tony Fernandes, Julius Minuskin and Nicholas Raimo. Of the 14, only LaMorte and Marotti have officially filed.

The four incumbents this week said they were waiting for the April 1 deadline before opening their active campaigns. They also indicated they would run independently.

Commissioner McGreevy said he's been hitting a lot of the local dinner-affairs, but hasn't started his house to house campaign. McGreevy also said he would name a campaign coordinator before the deadline.

Commissioner Strumolo also said he wouldn't campaign actively until the April 1 deadline.

Strumolo dismissed remarks by some political observers that his defeat last November for the county clerk's spot would have a bearing on the May election. Strumolo was outpolled locally by Democratic incumbent Nicholas Caputo in that election. The Silver Lake section of town, generally a Strumolo stronghold, barely went to the Commissioner in the county polling for; the clerk's post.

"I don't think my county election bid will have any effect on the Commission race."

New Recipient For Fabian Fund

The Craig Fabian Fund has chosen a second recipient for its fund-raising activities.

William Greco, 27, who was left paralyzed after a baseball game in Lyndhurst Park in 1969, has received a hospital bed from the Fund.

The Craig Fabian Fund was initially organized in Belleville by a group of residents to ease financial problems for the Fabian family. Craig was left partially paralyzed two summers ago during a swimming accident.

Greco, who is a lifelong resident, is married and the father of two children of pre-school age.

The fund is in the process of evaluating what additional equipment would be helpful to Greco. In addition, the fund's screening committee is investigating other requests for aid.

Craig Fabian, the son of Belleville Deputy Fire Chief William Fabian, is now able to attend Belleville High School after undergoing costly rehabilitation treatments. Craig also hopes to obtain a license to drive a specially equipped automobile.

Fund President Horace Goodenough also announced that a branch of the "Up With People" group is planning a benefit performance in early May for the fund.

Cherry Blossom Changes

Two new features have been added to this year's annual Cherry Blossom celebration.

In addition to the usual parade down Washington Avenue, a Cherry Blossom Art Contest is being sponsored by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce.

A second change in the celebration concerns the selection of a queen for the parade.

Formerly, the parade queen was the winner of the Miss Belleville pageant sponsored by the local Jaycees.

Loss of a franchise to the state pageant however, plus an apparent lack of interest in the local contest by Jaycee members, has resulted in the elimination of a formal Miss Belleville title.

This year's parade queen will be called the "Cherry Blossom Princess," and will be chosen from five girls in the senior class at Belleville High School.

BHS Principal Raymond O. Smith has already named the girls as Annette Guardascio, Brenda Cameron, Donna Cervasio, Jayme Freedman and Susan Kellenbach.

One of the five girls will be selected as princess during the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner, March 27 at Branch Brook Manor. The other four girls will serve in the princess' court during the parade.

The art contest, meanwhile, will be open to all residents, with ribbon awards earmarked for winners in four categories.

Chamber Executive Director Harry T. French announced that contest rules

Husband-Wife Out On Bail; Hearing Set

Local police raided a Belleville apartment last Wednesday which authorities say was the center of a million-dollar a year gambling ring.

Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight said a man and wife are scheduled for preliminary hearing March 25 before Municipal Court Judge Edward Abramson on three charges stemming from the raid.

Haight, who is in charge of the Belleville Detective Bureau, said the man is charged with conspiracy to commit bookmaking, bookmaking, and maintaining a gambling establishment. His wife is charged with maintaining a gambling

Music Program Tomorrow Night

The Belleville High School Band, twirlers, and color guard will present their annual musical program tomorrow and Saturday nights at 8:15 p.m.

The 120 member group has put on similar shows internationally, and has been practicing several months for this one. As usual the show will be along the same lines as the one used on their travels to Ontario, Montreal,

Washington D.C., Virginia, New York City, and upstate New York.

"The Show", as this years program is called, is a fast-paced presentation of professional quality entertainment, featuring the "now" sound in instrumental and vocal music. Also included are comedy acts, dancing routines, and according to Band President there who makes $95 a week like I used to," he continued. Hurling phrases like "Our backs are to the walls" and "We look to you people for a solution to our dilemmas," Golden raked commissioners for "depleting the water department surplus" and increasing expenditures for the five municipal departments the past four years.

The former Councilman pointed out that expenditures for the five departments has risen $1,696,775 since 1967, and charged the water surplus account had been depleted. Revenue and Finance Director McGreevy countered Golden's charges by saying increased revenues the past four years have offset some of the expenditures. That figure in revenue the past four years is $1,825,900.33. McGreevy also said the decrease in the water utilities surplus was due to a hike in expenses without an equivalent hike in rates. The commissioner also said much of the surplus has been applied to debts in anticipation the bond market would improve within two years when Belleville's major debts would be paid off. A good deal of time was spent discussing "Belleville's new three-year garbage contract, which shows a $180,000 hike. Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, whose Public Affairs Department is charged with the account, said the only solution for Belleville and other communities faced with rising sanitation costs, "was for the state to provide us with dumping grounds so we could buy trucks and do the work ourselves." Strumolo said the unavailability of dumping sites made the cost of entering the sanitation business too prohibitive for towns. The Public Affairs Commissioner had the quote of the evening on this matter when he said: "I think the President of the United States, instead of sending men to the moon, should send the garbage to the moon."

The Boston Massacre

By Col. R.R. Tourillott

(The following guest editorial is another in the historical series by Colonel R.R. Tourillott being published by The Sun in association with the Yantacaw DAR Chapter. Colonel Tourillott will be the guest speaker at this evening's annual dinner of the Nutley Historical Society.)

Americanism Chairman Emeritus
Fort Monmouth Chapter
National Sojourners

The levying of taxes on the American Colonies by Great Britain in the 1760's brought increasing resentment. The Revenue Act, the Stamp Act, the Townshend Acts and the Quartering Act, aroused indignation and anger throughout the Colonies. The quartering of troops in Boston caused public feelings to be bitter and unrestrained. Near riots had occurred in the summer and fall of 1769 and early in 1770. On the evening of March 5, 1770, violence broke out in front of the Customs House in Boston, which was the despised symbol of British authority in the community.

A mob taunted a British sentry who called for help. British Captain Thomas Preston with eight soldiers reluctantly reported to the scene. A crowd of fifty or sixty rioters, supposedly led by Crispus Attucks, confronted the soldiers. The troops apparently could stand this aggravation no longer and they opened fire on the crowd. Attucks and two other townsmen were killed. Eight others were wounded, of whom two later died. This incident has been called the first act of the American Revolution.

Captain Preston and eight soldiers were tried for murder. He and six of his men were acquitted. The other two men were found guilty of man-slaughter and as punishment were branded on the hand. It is interesting to note that three American attorneys, John Adams, Robert Auchmuty and Josiah Quincy braved the criticism of their fellow Colonists, and defended Captain Preston and his men.

About Crispus Attucks, very little is known, except that he was probably born in Farmington, Massachusetts about 1723. He has been variously referred to as a mulatto, a Negro or an Indian. Some references say he was probably a run-away slave and possibly a sailor. He is described by most historians as an American patriot and leader of the demonstration that led to the Boston Massacre. In 1888, a monument was unveiled to honor him on the Boston Commons.

The Boston Massacre was used by Samuel Adams and others, to promote the cause of the Colonies and to demand the removal of all British troops from Boston. John Hancock was one of the committee which went to the Governor and made this demand. While some other Colonies suspected that the unruly Boston rioters had actually provoked the so called Massacre, all patriots were greatly relieved when, as a result of the incident, British troops were moved to the islands in Boston Harbor.

Exercise And Eat

To enjoy fine food is an acquired taste which brings much appreciation and pleasure in a lifetime. The problem is, of course, that too much fine food is fattening for most people.

The long sought answer, then, for those who appreciate excellent cuisine has been to find a way to enjoy the best and not gain weight. In recent years all sorts of diet drinks, special diets and appetite killers have become popular, as doctors have proved that obesity was one of the nation's major health hazards. Many are effective.

Yet the best solution for most people is still what it was hundreds of years ago-regular, vigorous exercise. That is not to say that one should not watch calories and lower fat intake. To do so is to take advantage wisely of modern medical knowledge. Doing this, and exercising regularly, most people can dine royally at least once a day-and be healthy.

Seems Only Yesterday

Strumolo Criticizes Mayor Nuncio Pico In Election

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

Belleville taxpayers gave their commissioners a "sneak preview" of what to expect at the upcoming town budget hearing when they hurled a barrage of questions at officials during a regular Commission session and promised a return engagement with greater numbers. The Belleville Valley Association, a taxpayers group, composed the bulk of the audience and seemed bent on one major objective: to secure worksheets or line item breakdowns of each commissioner's budget.

Belleville appeared to be opening its arms to apartment construction. At a town commission meeting, a 22-family apartment complex was approved by the commissioners; it was the fifth straight approval in fourteen months. Commissioner Joseph McGreevy, however, did not like the idea of an "open door policy" and voted against the measure, as he had done in the previous four instances for proposals for construction.

Five Years Ago

Saul R. Alexander, of 5 Colt Street, Paterson, was named temporary attorney to handle the case against suspended superintendent of schools Dr. Frank Durkee. Alexander, who was replacing indisposed Board attorney Max Schwartz, was to be paid $1,000 retainer. Any extra salary would depend on what was involved with the case.

The 3.9 million dollar annual school budget - voted down by town residents four consecutive times in two years - was to be arbitrarily cut by the Town Council during a special meeting at Town Hall. Tentative estimates for the reduction ranged from $381,000 down to $150,000. According to Mayor Nuncio Pico, however, "around $200,000" was a good figure to lay bets on.

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico announced his candidacy for the Belleville municipal elections in which the seats of three councilmen-at-large were at stake. At a meeting at his home, Mayor Pico assured a 20 - member campaign committee that this campaign would be conducted on the platform of "Progress, Economy and Dignity."

Vincent Strumolo, an announced candidate for the upcoming May municipal elections, spoke out in a highly critical manner of incumbent councilman Mayor Nuncio Pico. Strumolo stated that Belleville citizens should not make the mistake of "putting the wrong men in office. Our Mayor," Strumolo continued, "is an example of this mistake." Strumolo criticized Pico as being a vacillating councilman who worked feverishly to maintain a false balance of voting power for the Council rather than promoting sound practices.

Ten Years Ago

Gloria Circillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Circillo of 89 Belmore Street, Belleville, was the featured soloist in the Manhattan Orchestra Concert presented by the Contemporary Music Society and the Manhattan School of Music in the Hunter College Assembly Hall. It was the first time that Miss Circillo, a graduate of Belleville High School, had presented a concert in public.

Bids for the resurfacing of Washington Avenue throughout Belleville, were advertised in Trenton, reported the New Jersey Highway Department. The Belleville Times learned that work on the town project was scheduled to begin late in the spring. The completion date for the project was set for July 1961.

A group was in the process of organizing a "Citizens' Committee for the Retention of the Commission Form of Government." The new group, which was expected to have the backing of four of Belleville's five commissioners, was to open offices at 234 Washington Avenue. Ralph Risoli, an employee of Commissioner Nuncio Pico's Department of Public Affairs, was playing a key role in the organization of the group.

Three Belleville Town Hall departments joined forces in a drive to purchase the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company's unoccupied building at 270 Washington Avenue for a new police headquarters. Commissioner George F. Kiernan, director of Parks and Public Property, reported that he would introduce a resolution asking that $500 be set aside as a "binder or down payment" on the telephone building.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Ruel E. Daniels, district clerk of the Board of Education, was honored by the New Jersey Association of Public School Business Officials by being elected to the presidency of the association. Daniels had held the position as school clerk since 1933, succeeding James Turner. Prior to that time, he had served as a member of the Board of Education and had practiced law.

Commission candidates and their respective slogans were present at Town Hall when they drew numbers assigning their positions on the voting machine for the May 14 election. Parks director Noll drew the No. 1 spot, and Mayor Williams, Director of Revenue and Finance, corraled the No. 2 position.

News of the Belleville Teachers' Association invitation to two of the leading officers of the New Jersey State Federation of Teachers to attend their next meeting was revealed to the Times-News. It was stated by one of the local teachers heading the move that Belleville teachers were extremely interested in the advantages that a teachers' union had to offer.

Forty Years Ago

The regular monthly meeting and annual election of officers of the Belleville Woman's Club culminated in the election of Mrs. Charles G. Smith, president; Mrs. Lionel Phillips, first-vice-president; Mrs. William V. Phillips, second-vice-president; Mrs. John Kirkpatrick, recording secretary, and Mrs. Ralph H. Smith, assistant recording secretary.

The long standing complaint of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Dickinson of 111 Carpenter Street that Joseph Zandee of 115 Carpenter Street conducted an automobile repair business at his home in violation of the zoning code was to be aired in Recorder George Fitzsimmons' court.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Grace Baptist Church were to hold a corn beef and cabbage luncheon in the church social hall. Mrs. George Weirich, president of the Auxiliary, was general chairman of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Parker Torrey.

Speak Up!

Council Urges Reinstatement Of Child Funds

(This letter was sent to Commissioner Vincent Strumolo. A duplicate was sent to the Belleville Times-News for publication in the Speak Up column-Editor)

Dear Commissioner Strumolo

It has come to our attention that the line in the Department of Health's budget for 1971 which represents Belleville's continued support of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic has been removed. At its meeting last night the Belleville Community Council affirmed its wholehearted support of the Clinic and requested me to communicate to you their urgent request that this be reinstated.

The service of the Clinic is vital in treating emotionally disturbed children. As an agent of prevention, this Clinic saves us a great deal of money and our citizens a great deal of heartache and anguish which they would experience if their children became delinquent, dope addicts or mentally ill.

I feel this service is as vital to the well being of our town as the police and fire department. Unfortunately, a human being in a mental hospital does not stand out as starkly as a burning building, but he is as surely being damaged, often beyond saving. Such disregard of human suffering of our Belleville children and their families is unthinkable.

I appreciate that you wish to use Mt. Carmel Guild but, by law as a Comprehensive Mental Health Center in Service Area 5 they are obligated to serve the residents of Newark first, and are set up for this purpose. Out of area children are served only after that. Our children would have to travel to Newark rather than be treated in our own town in our own Clinic, and non-Catholic families might prefer an agency unaffiliated with a sectarian group.

In speaking for the Belleville Community Council I urge you to reinstate the funds requested for humanitarian purposes the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic serves.

Ralph A. Casale
Chairman, Belleville Community Council

flight deck, encountered a lot of stress and strain trying to satisfy the multiple needs of passengers 110 feet distant from the galley location. Despite the pressure she was working under, Judy spoke of the unusual incidents that the average flight stewardess encounters. When a plane has more than one scheduled stop, the stewardess asks each passenger for his or her destination. One day Judy asked a female passenger, "How far are you going M'am?" The plane was scheduled to stop at Tampa and Miami so Judy expected the lady to reply, "Tampa or Miami." Imagine Judy's surprise when the woman responded, "1118 Collins Avenue, Miami, Florida."

ON ANOTHER FLIGHT as the plane came to a stop at the ramp at JFK Airport, lady passenger observed, "We must have a good pilot to get this close to the building." What makes this comment a good joke is that JFK is one of those airports equipped with second level portable ramps which are mechanically maneuvered to extend out flush against the belly of the plane. Hence when the lady suddenly looked out and saw that the plane and the ramp were almost one, she was prompted to make her classic comment. Judy Breeze is an unusual breed of stewardess. An attractive, indefatigable worker, she has an eloquence and graciousness about herself which comes through even while she's pushing the food cart.

Over the weekend I experienced another election. This involved owners of the Maya Marca Condominium Corporation. Up for grabs were five seats on the Board of Governors and election of officers. I was lucky enough to be re-elected to a two-year Governor's term and in the reorganization which followed, I was reelected President of the Condo. Of course, the pay for these jobs improves each year with the recognition of the cost of living problems. Instead of last year's "zero" wages-we now receive "double zero". Despite the minimal wages the work is fun and if fun is work no one can derive greater pleasure from an avocation.

On the return trip this week aboard EAL's Flight 32, Senior Flight Steward Charles "Chuck" McMillan of Atlanta, Georgia performed service above and beyond the call of duty. With 18 years of service behind him, Chuck could tell stories forever, proving to be more of a companion than a steward.

Just a note to advise our readers that they had better re-check the security of the locks installed in their outside doors. Channel locks provide no security. Neither do cylinder locks that protrude a half inch from the door surface and are not equipped with a "free-standing" collar. Home burglaries today represent one of our greatest problems. You could save yourself much grief by securing your outside doors with locks that are not easily tampered with.

THE JOE FRAZIER-MOHAMMED ALI result was a surprise to me. While a Joe Frazier fan, I felt Clay had the deeper motive to win. The closed-circuit TV fight presentation annoyed millions of people throughout America and the world. Congress should look into the question of using the airwaves which belong to the people for the private benefit of promoters. Closed-circuit TV for fights will probably lead to the broadcasting of world series baseball games the same manner. And who knows but that Ed Sullivan spectacular might be broadcast in the same way. Then we have an unpredictable Frank Sinatra who might some day decide to share his talents only with those who pay via closed-circuit TV. The possibilities are endless. It is my judgement the precedent should be stopped. The quicker the better.

IRIS MAXWELL POWERS, Public Relations Director at Eldon Toys, recently introduced the company's 1971 line of toys at a sneak preview in New York's plush Act I Restaurant in the old New York Times Tower Building at Times Square. There were actors and actresses galore examining dump trucks, fire trucks, battery powered animals, miniature public markets, hospitals, fire houses all marketed under the brand name of PIPSQUEEKS.

Flight 896 returning to Newark from Fort Lauderdale two weeks ago had its interesting moments. For the third trip this season Stewardess Bonnie Kaufman was aboard to serve me EAL's delicacies and her senior, a corkscrew-mouth, rejection-minded, stolid-faced stewardess, wasn't much help to our Bonnie but we all survived the experience.

Sitting to my left in Seat 2A was Mrs. Vernon Atkinson of Hyannis, Mass. She was telling me that her 11 year old nephew, Donald Slaght of Short Hills sat in the Schrafft Hotel lobby (corner of North Ocean and Sunrise Boulevards, Fort Lauderdale), waiting to catch a glimpse of New York Yankee players who are housed in the establishment. Donald waited in vain. His mother, Mrs. Ruth Slaght did all she could to console him but he left the hotel very distressed. I met Donald aboard Flight 896. His eyes glistened when he heard that I might obtain an autographed ball from the Yankee ball club.

A FRIEND OF LONG STANDING, Eleanor Britton, Nugent Greeman's sister-in-law, sent me a note from the exclusive Ocean Reef Club, Key Largo, Florida, where she directs the social activities. Eleanor's note stimulated me when she made the flattering comment that "the three most exciting pieces of mail I received in answer to my little holiday poem and SS France postcard were from you, Postmaster Farley and King Umberto of Italy, who resides in Cascais, Portugal and sends either a card signed 'Umberto' or a radiogram every year." In all my life I never thought I would be bracketed with Postmaster Farley and King Umberto - well that is how it is when you know people like Eleanor Britton.

The SS France took Eleanor to Africa and Rio. She says, "The trip was fantastic, we even had Jackie Kennedy's mother aboard." Eleanor reports, "The Ocean Reef Club is particularly interesting to golfers, tennis players, yachtsmen and fishermen. I have never seen so many huge yachts in one area. We have a 110 foot one that is a honey and Ev Fisher of Fisher Body Company has the 'Star of the Sea' with even a Hammond organ aboard." From some of my Fort Lauderdale yachting friends I have heard legendary stories about the Ocean Reef Club. In my book it adds up to a wonderful adventure and maybe soon I will take a shuttle from Miami to Key Largo and enjoy not only the plush facilities of the Ocean Reef Club but also the gracious sociability of Eleanor Britton.

Girl Scouts Celebrate 59 Years of Existence

This week the Girl Scouts celebrate 59 years of existence...thanks to Juliette Low who founded them. Long before the suffragette movement, and certainly before the current women's lib commotion, that progressive lady was well aware that girls and women were special. She believed, too, that they should be considered first as individuals and human beings.

Wherever Girl Scouts are mentioned, badges, cookies and camping, et alia are the immediate thoughts...often spiced with wry humor. Rarely elaborated upon, however, are the intangibles gained through them. Girls who complete the entire program are indeed special...simply because they've weathered the jokes and learned their worth as individuals. They've discovered as well that they can contribute to a complex society yet still preserve the identity that took so long to unearth.

Even more revealing is how Girl Scouting affects its adults. Because they're forced to organize, lead and direct both girls and other adults, they grow in stature as much as the young. And through it all they acquire a certain cool, sensibility and sensitivity. Ask anyone who's seen it happen.

It is for this that the Girl Scouts deserve applause.

Statisticians are not the only men interested in figures.

Late Winter Dormant Spray Controls Pests

Dormant sprays help to control overwintering stages of several insects and mites, claims John J. Kupcho, county agricultural agent of Essex County. Dormant miscible oil sprays are useful for controlling soft scales and some armored scale insects that attack shade trees.

By spraying when trees are dormant you can be sure of covering the bark of trunks and limbs. Select a clear, dry, sunny morning or early afternoon to do your spraying. Spray applications should be made after most danger of freezing nights has passed and before buds open.

As a word of caution dormant oil sprays should not be applied to birch, beech, sugar and Japanese maples, butternut, walnut and hickory trees. Oils may also injure Douglas fir flower buds and will temporarily remove the blue color from Colorado blue spruce.

Eastman Dean Cites Resident Of Belleville

Alan N. Schreier of 133 Smallwood Avenue, Belleville, has made the dean's list for the first semester of 1970-1971 at the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester, Rochester, N.Y.

Miss Schreier, who is a freshman music major at the college, is a recent graduate of Belleville High School. She has been a student of the clarinet for more than eleven years and is accomplished on several other instruments as well.

She started on the clarinet in the second grade at P.S. No. 10 in the all grammar school concert band under the direction of Frank Scelba.

In addition to her desire to become a music teacher, Miss Schreier also has ambitions as a performer and has already played in prominent positions with many well known groups, such as the New Jersey Symphony Preparatory Orchestra, the Junior Symphony of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, the New Jersey All State Band, the All Student Band, U.S.A., which traveled in Europe, during the summer of 1969, giving concerts.

Prior to attending Eastman School, Miss Schreier had been studying the clarinet with William Shadel, first clarinetist with the New Jersey Symphony.

Maple Trees May Drip Sap On Warm Days

Maple syrup comes in cans, and maybe sugar comes in bags, but on warm days during this season sap drips from trees. Any place where your maple tree was injured by snow or ice during the winter, or where you broke off a branch, you will now find a wet spot on the ground.

Warm weather will make maple trees and also the birches, start to push their sap. It won't be too long before New England starts its maple sap production. At that times the farmers will intentionally cut the trees to make them bleed. This is the beginning of the maple syrup and maple sugar season.

Therefore, if your tree is bleeding and causing a wet spot on the ground, don't worry about it, says William F. Munk, Senior County Agricultural Agent of Essex County. It could drip out a quart of sap without doing any harm to the tree.

Some homeowners try to apply tree-wound dressing to the dripping branch stub. This is of no value because the pressure within the tree immediately pushes away the tree-wound dressing, according to Mr. Munk. Nature will take care of its own and by the middle of next summer this broken area will heal and that will be the end of the wet spots on the ground.

Medicare helps to alleviate much of the burden put on our senior citizens. Few realize, however, that under the compulsory hospitalization segment of the Medicare plan, there are provisions for home care services. If your physician believes you can recuperate at home after hospitalization, he can arrange for home care services such as baths, medication, treatment, or care given or supervised by a registered visiting nurse. All of these services will be paid for by the hospital insurance program to a maximum of 100 home visits in any one year. The only requirement, which is similar to that for post-hospital care, is that you were hospitalized for at least three days and that your physician arrange for the home care services within 14 days of your discharge from the hospital.

Make arrangements to have all your Medicare and Blue Cross prescriptions filled by the pharmacists at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. Free Delivery Service. Drug Education Begins For Belleville Students

By Beth Fitzgerald
School Page Editor

Belleville High School students will be receiving a minimum of 10 hours of drug education, which began with a lecture period Tuesday, February 9. Speaking to the students at the pilot sessions were Principal Raymond O. Smith, Guidance Director Herman Knuppel, and Detective Michael Marotti, the Juvenile Officer of the Belleville Police Department. Smith began by acknowledging the existence of a drug problem at Belleville High School. He feels that the problem is both pills and marijuana, and that the students are not doing it so much, in school as outside.

Knuppel spoke of the characteristics generally found among students who take drugs. These included a lack of motivation or any long range goals, parents who are either over-protective or permissive, a desire on the part of the student to be accepted by that group of his peers having the lowest standards, and a tendency to defy authority. Knuppel urged the students not to "get involved to the point where you can't get out."

Detective Marotti presented the drug problem from the standpoint of law enforcement. He said that investigations throughout the past two weeks have turned up the names of some 50 students who are on drugs; half of these, he said, are sophomores. He urged the students who were doing so to stop taking drugs, and seek help if they needed it.

Belleville High students are receiving this drug instruction as part of a program begun by the state legislature at the state recommendation of Governor Cahill. It began last October, with a series of six drug education seminars for secondary school faculties. Ten teachers from the Junior and Senior High, including Mr. Michael Lally, Mrs. Elizabeth Roble, and Mr. Ralph Correll received additional instruction at Montclair State College, and will be helping to teach the students, through both lecture and discussion periods.

Belleville Airman Arrives for Duty At Base in Italy

Airman First Class Charles C. Calella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Calella of 324 Division Avenue, Belleville, has arrived for duty at Aviano Air Base, Italy.

Airman Calella, a telephone installer repairman, is assigned to a unit of the Air Force Communications Service. He previously served at Kunsan Air Base, Republic of Korea.

A 1967 graduate of Belleville High School, the airman attended Rockland Community College, Suffern, N.Y.

Kids, Teachers Study School

The Student-Faculty Curriculum and Exam Committee held an organizational meeting Wednesday, February 24 in the Belleville High School library. Mrs. Elizabeth Agnoli and senior Alan Grossman are co-chairmen of the 26-member committee, which includes four students from each of the three classes and 14 faculty members.

The purpose of the committee is to study the curriculum at Belleville High and to make suggestions as to how it might be improved. The school's exam system will also be reviewed. At present Belleville High students take both midterms and finals, and each is equivalent to a marking period grade, although last year students with A averages were given an exemption from their final exam.

Alan Grossman remarked that "it will be a long and hard task to make an in-depth study of each department and suggest revision where needed. However, I feel that with the quality of the teachers and students on the committee we can make positive steps toward the attainment of the goal." Subcommittees will be formed with a ratio of one student to one teacher, and each individual department will be researched.

It has not been decided whether this will be done subjectively, with a teacher from the department evaluating the possible changes within that department, or objectively, with no teacher being assigned to his own department. The committee will meet each Tuesday, and the minutes will be circulated throughout the school. At the end of the study, a report will be published suggesting possible revision, and if the report is accepted by the faculty it will be submitted to the Board of Education.

Mrs. Schultz Brightens Halls

By Marylou Martin

This year the halls at Belleville Senior High have been brightened by the addition of Mrs. Andrea Schultz to the teaching staff.

Mrs. Schultz obtained her bachelor of arts degree from Montclair State Teachers College. During her college years, she worked in a student-tutoring program—one student helping another, and spent two afternoons a week working with special students at the Edgemont School in Montclair.

She chose the field of remedial reading because "it enjoys helping other people and get a tremendous amount of satisfaction from the good results."

A very happy and cheerful person, Mrs. Schultz's arrival at Belleville Senior High has been marked by the addition of a club whose purpose is to offer an element of various cultural activities for B.H.S. students. Her brainstorm at the beginning of the year, it has proven very successful and popular. Asked why she devotes time to the club Mrs. Schultz replied, "It offers students an opportunity to experience various cultural activities, thereby adding to a more well-rounded individual."

Remember, if you see a very joyous and youthful teacher, well-liked by all walking through the halls; you're viewing our own wonderful Mrs. Schultz.

Talent Show A Big Success

By Marylou Martin

On February 11, 1971, Belleville High School held the Talent Show. When this reporter arrived backstage, it was ten minutes till curtain time and everyone was tense. M. C.'s Nick D'Allesandro and Charlie O'Neil went over their opening lines.

Suddenly it's time and all tension and worries are completely gone. The show has begun. Out go Nick and Charlie to introduce the first act—P.G. Backstage, the performers and workers were tapping their feet to the beat of "Dixie" and "Stealing."

Soloist John Byrne's quiet songs offered a chance to think. Now we meet Comare Nicolina (known around the school as Bev. Librizzi) introducing the Tuff Enuff Twirlers accompanied by the Belleville High School Stage Band. Their modern jazz number was well-received by the audience.

"Sunny"—sweet and lively—was rendered exquisitely by Mike Marano on sax and Bruce Creditor on the piano. Gales of laughter greeted Joseph Bachetta's impersonations.

"Fuel" brought thoughts of love lost to the audience with "Color My World" and "Heartbreak." Snappy patter best describes the tap number executed by Kathy Sheridan. The finale was two "wild" numbers by Pale Dry.

Youth Council Holds Special Dance Night Featuring 'Fresh Air'

By Annette Guardasbasco

The Youth Council sponsored another dance at School Three. Entertainment was provided by "Fresh Air."

"Fresh Air" is a Belleville-Nutley group that has been together only five months, but has gained much popularity since. Whenever they play, Fresh Air seems to gather more and more of the acid rock lovers to follow them to their next engagement.

The group is composed of Ross Nicotia (rhythm guitar) a Junior at BHS, Doug Stanfield (lead guitar), Peter Ricci (drums), and Ronnie Tutela (bass guitar), all from Nutley. Vocals are performed by the entire group.

Ross commented about "Fresh Air" by saying that they are a "Democratic group." By that he said, "we usually take a vote on what we're going to do, what we're going to play, or how much we'd accept to play for." This certainly seems to be the right attitude a group should keep in order to stay together. "We'd like to continue with our group as much as we can," said Ross.

"Fresh Air" tied for first place in Nutley's Battle of the Bands in November with the "Midnight Confessions," another popular group. They previously played at Belleville and Nutley's Elk's Club Dances, Essex Catholic, Nutley High School, Holy Cross, Arcola Pool, and Immaculate Conception. Among their future bookings will be a dance at the Belleville Elk's Club on March 5, 1971.

Local Actress Talks To Pupils

By Heidi Weiss

On Thursday, February 23, Belleville High School was pleased to welcome Mrs. Sheila McKenna, an actress, who spoke to a group of interested students and faculty members on musicals in the United States. She first spoke to the Bookends Club at the high school and was asked back by Mr. Marchiano, head of the English department.

Before retiring from show business to have her first child, Mrs. McKenna appeared in several well-known, off-Broadway productions including "Mame" and "My Fair Lady." Prior to this, she studied for three years under a New York dramatics teacher, Mr. Burton, who is coincidentally, Richard Burton's step-father. Mrs. McKenna remarked about all the prospective actors and actresses she knew during this time who have since "made it." Interestingly enough, Zsa Zsa Gabor was enrolled in her Shakespearean acting class. After appearing off-Broadway for five years, Mrs. McKenna toured the U.S. and Canada in the company of "Mame."

The theme of Sheila McKenna's talk was musicals as a form of communication. Ever since 1866, she pointed out, when the first musical, "Black Crook," was formed by combining a dance troop and a play men have been utilizing musicals as a means of expressing emotion through action and song. She then cited "West Side Story" as a good illustration of action, song, and emotion working together. Breaking her talk up with snatches of songs, she continued to discuss the use of the sub-plot in "Oklahoma" and the conversion of a drama into a musical as shown by "My Fair Lady."

Mr. and Mrs. McKenna now reside in Belleville with their two and a half year old daughter.

Technical Institute Accepts Woodward For Auto Course

A Belleville resident, Keith H. Woodward of 84 Beech Street, has been accepted by Lincoln Technical Newark.

Woodward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woodward, has enrolled in Lincoln's extensive day course in automotive technology. This is a field where a drastic technicians' shortage has created great career opportunities.

He is a 1970 graduate of Bloomfield Technical High School. Lincoln of Newark, which is fully accredited by the National Association of Trade and Technical Schools, also offers a full range of air-conditioning, heating and refrigeration courses.

Fairchild's Group Receives Award

Sergeant Richard C. Fairchild, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Fairchild of 197 DeWitt Avenue, Belleville, is a member of the 61st Military Airlift Support Wing that has earned the U. S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award for the sixth time.

Sergeant Fairchild is a data machine operator with an element of the wing at Andersen Air Force Base, Guam, one of the unit's 28 operating locations.

The 61st, headquartered at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii, now provides support for Military Airlift Command troop, aeromedical and cargo flights in the Pacific area and Southeast Asia. It also helps provide medical crews.

The unit was cited for flying nearly 840,000 accident-free hours and 168 million miles in the Pacific before termination of its flying mission in late 1969. In addition, it was recognized for its recovery support of the first three Apollo manned space flights.

He will wear a distinctive service ribbon to mark his affiliation with the 61st.

Sergeant Fairchild, a 1966 graduate of Belleville High School, attended Fairleigh Dickinson University, Teaneck, and the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

His wife, Molly, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McGranaghan of 4802 Florence Blvd., Omaha.

Wrestlers Look To Junior Worlds

Belleville's wrestlers have remained undaunted by their disappointing defeat to Essex Catholic in the District Championships hosted by the Bellboys this past week-end.

Already the grapplers are looking forward to more matches, and more sports. A few of the varsity wrestlers have shown an interest in attending the Second Annual Junior Age Tournament set for March 26 and 27 at J.P. Stevens High School in Edison N.J.

This Tournament is run by the New Jersey Branch of the United States Wrestling Federation for boys between the ages of 14 and 18. It is part of a nation-wide elimination series to get together the best possible representatives of the United States as a team to enter into the Junior World Championships this coming May in Japan.

Some of the grapplers who have indicated that they might like to find out more about the tourney are Team Captain Carmen Russomano (168; 13-0), John Mustacchio (123; 11-1), Vito Marcogliese (130; 8-2), Walt Bennet (136; 6-3), Frank Savastano (157; 4-6), Ed Dunckley (141; 10-3), and Brian Banda (115; 12-0-1). Bill Natale, the undefeated JV 157 is also interested, as is former Bellboy Bob Arlt.

These wrestlers will have to do everything on this tourney on their own as individuals. Since its only a few weeks away, they plan to stay in shape by doing a little running for endurance, but since the season is over for all the wrestlers except Angelo Zoppi, the District Champ who will have to go to Union High School for the Regional Championship, they cannot meet as a team to workout.

Should any of Belleville's wrestlers manage to gain a victory at the Edison High contest, they will go to the Regional Championship for the Junior World in Millersville, Pennsylvania. After this big match, the winners would go to Bakersfield, California, and then it would be onto Japan.

The classes for this elimination will be slightly different since not all areas have the same limits as the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association, of which Belleville is a member.

In the Junior World, the classifications are 105.5 pounds, 114.5, 123, 132, 143, 154, 165, 178, 191.5, and heavyweight.

One of the past winners of the Junior World Championships is Billy Martin, Jr. This expert wrestler is the son of Billy Martin, Sr. the man who runs the Gramby School of Wrestling in Virginia Beach. This is where Mustacchio and Bennet picked up a few tips for this past season.

Other Grapplers Back To Crew

Belleville's other wrestlers, almost to a man, will be going back to the boathouse on that giant oil slick to the southeast, the nationally known Passaic River.

Fred Araen, Belleville's 98 pounder this season (6-7), will be out for the coxswain spot, and is in line to get the starting position of the JV shell. He's topped by Bobby Zarra, (130; 1-6), a coxswain for four years who will have the varsity shell to handle.

Oarsmen for the varsity shell more than likely will include John Atherton (Heavyweight; 9-4) a three year varsity oarsman, Frank Marano 178; 11-1 and Tom Jones (178; 0-2) both two year varsity crew, and Brian Waddell (148; 10-3 JV last year looking for the varsity bow position this season. Atherton and Marano both row on the starboard side, while Jones pulls a port side oar.

Varsity Stops Faculty Squad

By Marc Feldman

The Belleville varsity basketball team, who found wins hard to come by during the regular season, fared better against the high school faculty last Wednesday as the Bellboys emerged victorious 74-61, despite a fine 27 point effort by Paul Szem of the faculty.

The Bellboys were led by a pair of juniors, Charlie Carr and Mike Petronaci, who scored 19 and 18 points, respectively. Each had 11 in the first half as the Bellboys piled up a 42-28 advantage by intermission.

The faculty had trouble getting started as the varsity ran off nine points before Szem scored from the foul line. Belleville went on to post a 24-10 lead after the first period as Carr, Petronaci, and Marotti led the attack. The faculty tried to get back into the game but they were hurt by poor free throw shooting to the tune of 8 for 21 in the first half.

The faculty was down but not out. Paul Szem and

Injury-Ridden Bellgirls Dumped By Kearny Five

Belleville's winless girls basketball team faced one of the teams that they beat last season in their first year of existence last week, but the loss of two key players helped them lose their third contest of the year, as Kearny rolled over the Bellgirls 32-17.

The Kards got off to a quick lead 13-5 at the end of the first quarter, and continued to stretch their margin in the next period making the halftime score 20-9.

In the third quarter, Belleville's defense caught on and held Kearny to only four points, but the offense just couldn't score, and Belleville tallied the same number. In the final quarter, Kearny doubled Belleville's score, eight to four, putting the final 32-17 score on the home board.

Cindy Ferro and Debbie Meola have been lost to the Bellgirl squad for the rest of the season due to injuries. A chipped fracture of a finger on her right hand put Ferro out.

The injury, suffered during a practice session, is hoped not to put Belleville's top fem golfer out of practice for this coming link season. Ferro is also the top scorer of the squad with points.

Meola suffered a broken ankle, and torn cartilage. The skiing accident put her in the

Belleville Is Second

Zoppi Only Bellboy To Survive Final Round In District Meet

By John McCarthy

Belleville's big dream of beating state power Essex Catholic in the Districts fell through Saturday afternoon as Angelo Zoppi captured the team's only top honors. Six Bellboys lost in their final round matches, putting Belleville well ahead of their other opponents, but not close enough to the Newark parochial school.

Zoppi will now enter the Region 2 Championships to be held this Saturday at Union High School in Union. The senior who placed third in last year's districts will face opponents from schools such as Phillipsburg, Roxbury, Millburn, and other big powers.

Of Belleville's second place finishes, five wrestlers lost to opponents from Essex, as the Eagles captured eight first places, three seconds, and a third while Belleville finished with one first, six seconds, two thirds, and a fourth.

Zoppi was the only Belleville wrestler to top an Essex grappler as the BHS senior topped last year's 98 pound district champ Matt Lopriato 6-1 in the finals. Essex scored 111 points for first place as a team, while Belleville scored 72 for second. Kearny was a distant third with 35.

Finishing second for Belleville were John Mustacchio at 123, Walt Bennett at 136, Ed Dunckley at 141, Brian Waddell at 148, Frank Savastano at 157, and Carmen Russomano at 168. Bennett had been seeded first by the coaches, Boff and Dunckley third, and the other three runners-up had been seeded for the same position as the results.

All twelve of Belleville's varsity wrestlers made it into the semi-finals, and of the five that tasted defeat in this round, two won their consolation matches for third place.

Vito Marcogliese and John Atherton were the third place finishers, while Fred Araen, Brian Banda, and Frank Marano finished fourth.

After receiving a bye in the preliminaries, Zoppi scored an extra team point with a pin at 2:33 over Simm Baskerville of West Side, the fourth seeded grappler at 106. The 10-3 Bellboy followed this with a 6-1 decision over Lopriato, a district champ last year, but still has one more shot at another title. Lopriato is a junior at Essex Catholic.

The lightest second place winner for Belleville, Mustacchio, picked up two team points for pins, the second of which came over Jack Haberthur, a senior from Kearny. Haberthur had pinned Boff in 4:10 of their dual match and finished the season with a 13-0 record for the second seed, but the 11-1 Bellboy avenged his pin, at 5:07 at the districts.

The junior's first win came on a pin at 5:46 over Bloomfield's William Ferraro, the number six seed for 123 pounds. Boff's loss came to last year's District Champ at 115, Mark Baldacini. When Baldacini placed first last year, Haberthur was second, and Boff was third and the seeds this year were the same order. The 12-0 Essex Catholic wrestler retained his title with a 3-2 decision.

Walt Bennett received a first place seed in his first district tournament but was upset by Essex's senior Steve Sherry in the finals, 9-2. Sherry was seeded second with a 5-3 record, while Bennet was 6-3.

The BHS junior started with a first round bye, then shut out Lennie Raccioppi of Barringer 3-0 in the semi. Raccioppi won his consolation match, placing third.

Ed Dunckley upset second seeded Joe Giuliano of Bloomfield 4-1 in the semi-final round at 141 pounds to gain a berth in the finals. But the third seeded Bellboy lost 5-2 to Essex Catholic's Joe Decker, picked as number one.

After being given a bye in the first round when West Side's Greg Riley didn't show because of a wrist operation, Dunckley scored a second period reverse and when Giuliano escaped in the third period, Dunckley was quick to score a takedown for the final points. Giuliano had decided Dunckley 4-3 in a dual match. Both Giuliano and Decker were seniors with 8-3 records, Dunckley, also a senior, went 10-3.

At 148, Brian Waddell lost to West Side's only District Champ, Euwanta Flemming. The second seeded Bellboy shut out Kearny's Kevin Degnan 3-0 in the semi's after getting a bye for the preliminaries.

Waddell lost to Fleming by the identical score in overtime at the finals. The score was 10-10 at the end of the three regular periods.

Frank Savastano again had trouble with Barringer's Robbie Wright, who tied Frank in a dual match to keep his record from being all wins. Frank was 12-0-1 for the season.

Wright tied Savastano 6-6 in the regular match for the 157 semi finals, but Savastano picked up a 7-1 overtime win.

Frank was then pinned at 4:15 by the fifth seeded 157, John Thompson of Essex Catholic. Thompson surprised everyone that day as he topped the fourth seed from Bloomfield in the preliminaries, the first seed from West Side in the semi's and then Savastano, seeded second, in the finals.

Carmen Russomano's 13-0 slate for the dual season was opposed by an 11-1 slate of Rich Peterson of Essex Catholic, and the coaches seeded Peterson first because he was the District Champ at

ANGELO ZOPPI, Belleville's sole district champion, leans into route to a 6-1 convincing victory in the 106 pound finals last Saturday.

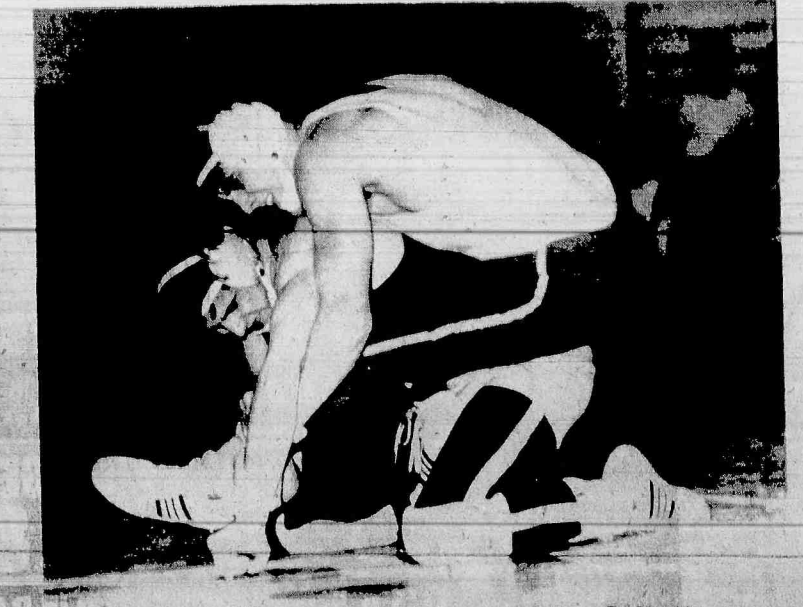

WALTER BENNETT tries to keep his shoulders off the mat to avoid pin attempt by Essex Catholic's Steve Sherry in final round of Districts. Bellboy Bennett avoided the pin, but lost the title, 9-2 to Sherry.

ESSEX CATHOLIC'S John Thompson tries to shake off Bellboy Frank Savastano, who clings to his back to avoid takedown. Savastano lost on a pin at 4:15, his first defeat after an unbeaten dual competition season.

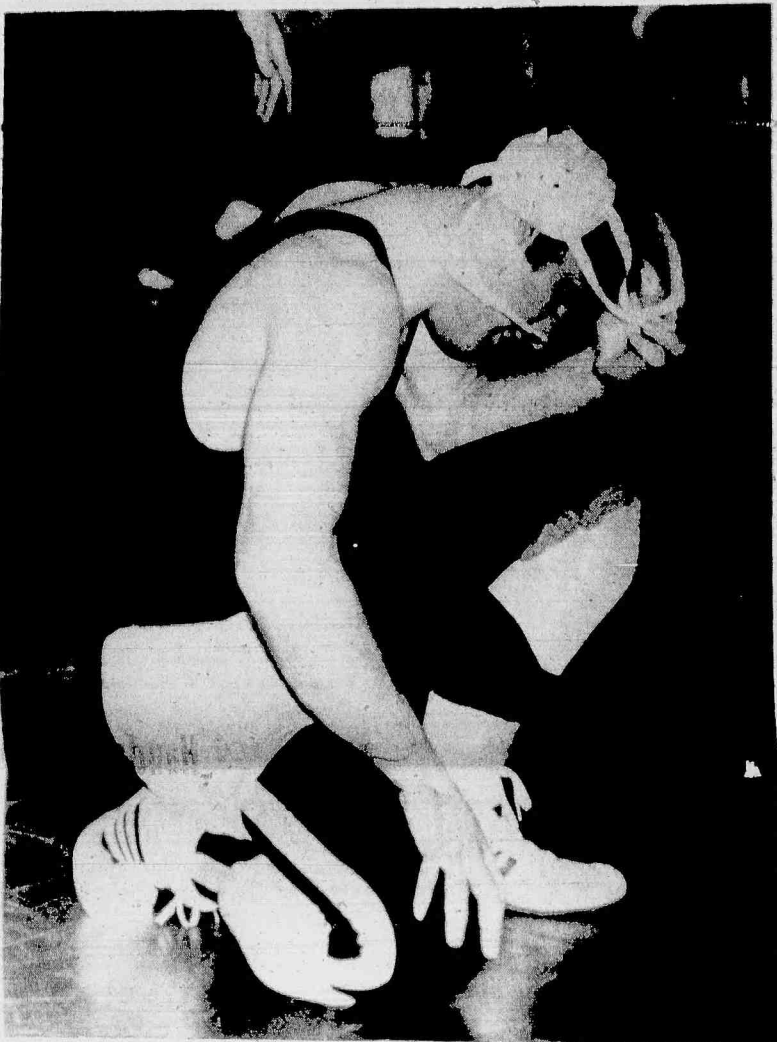

JACK DECKER (top) of Essex Catholic winces in pain as Bellboy Ed Dunckley prepares an escape in the 141 pound finals of the districts. Decker outpointed Dunckley, 5-2 to take the title.

Belleville Grapplers Second In Districts

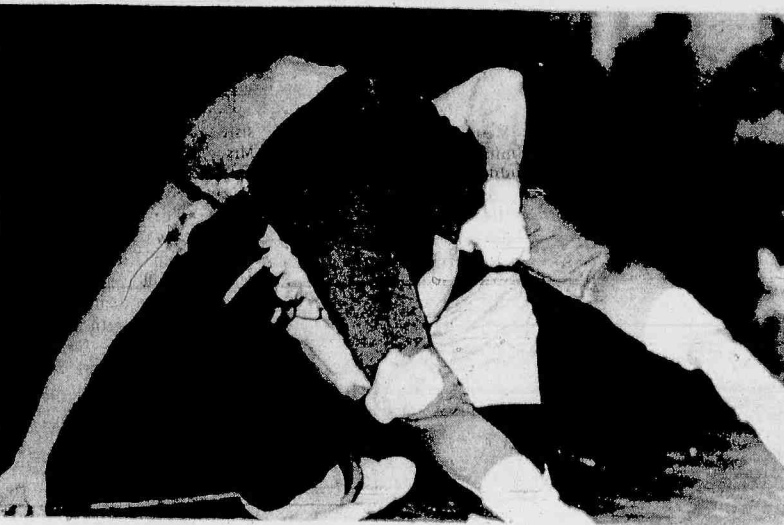

JOHN MUSTACHIO tries to bring Mark Baldacini of Essex Catholic forward with his roll in the final round of the 123 pound district match. Baldacini nipped Mustachio of Belleville, 3-2, for his second straight district title.

TEAM CAPTAIN Carmen Russomano rips off his headgear in disappointment after losing to Essex Catholic's Rick Peterson, 3-2 in the 168 pound class. Carmen, who was 13-0 in dual competition, lost the match when he was penalized a point for stalling with only 44 seconds left in the match.

FRANK SAVASTANO is lifted into the air by Essex Catholic's John Thompson in the final round of the district 157 pound class. Thompson won the championship by pinning the formerly unbeaten wrestler at 4:15.

GRAPPLER Ed Dunckley of Belleville upends Essex Catholic's 141 pounder Jack Decker in final round of districts, but Decker kept in there to win the title, 5-2.

Zoppi To Travel To Regional Meet This Saturday

157 last year. Peterson kept the coaches prediction correct as he defeated Russomano 3-2 in the finals at 168. The score was tied 2-2 in the third period, but Carmen was charged with a stalling point that cost him the match.

Carmen also faced a stiff challenge in the semi's against 12-0 Bruce Jackson of West Side, but the BHS senior and team captain overcame this opponent 8-5 after being down 3-2 in the first period. Both of Belleville's third places came as a result of losses in the semi's followed by wins on forfeits in the consolation round.

Vito Marcogliese was third at 130 pounds in 1970 and again this year. Vito topped Bob Campbell of Kearny 5-0 in the Friday night preliminaries, but lost to the eventual winner at 130, Gary Baveiro of Essex Catholic 3-0.

Vito then thought he had an opportunity to gain revenge on Joe Rainone of Bloomfield for a close loss at the Holiday Tournament, but Rainone injured his knee while losing the semi's, and Vito won the consolation on a forfeit.

John Atherton had been seeded second and received a first round bye, but lost the semi's by a close 5-4 to Bob Kent of Bloomfield, and placed third as Barringer's Larry Cunningham, who had pinned a preliminary round opponent, didn't show for any of the Saturday matches.

Bloomfield's Sigfried Steins beat Frank Marano in the second tournament match that the two have met. Steins beat Marano at 178 in the Bloomfield Holiday Tournament, and then lost 4-2 in a dual match, but pinned the Bellboy senior in the district's consolation round.

Marano had been seeded second, but lost in the semi's to Essex Catholic's Frank Uretnar 6-2. Uretnar was pinned later by Kearny's Bill Harrison, and took second place for the second consecutive year.

Fred Arena won his preliminary round, but lost the next two bouts at 98 to place fourth. The soph contributed an extra team point with a 5-33 pin-over Barringer's Issiah Hall.

Arena's loss in the semi's came to the District Champ for 1971 at 98 pounds, Joe Reynolds of Kearny.

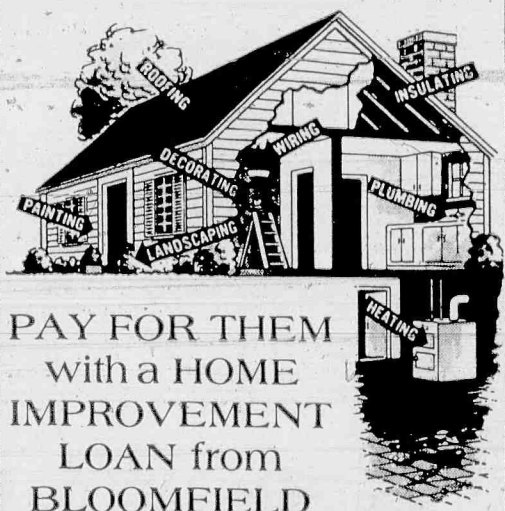

Brian Banda proved he was better than the sixth place given to him in the seedings as he shut out fourth seeded Joe Montgomery of Kearny 5-0. Banda then lost the semi's to District Champ Gary Thunnel of Essex Catholic 6-1, and the Consolations to Bob Scott of West Side 7-0. Thunnel took first at 106 last year, and this year moved up to 115 to take another title.

BECK'S COLUMN

This is the last four days of the Annual Magnavox Sale. The response by the public has been unprecedented, because people know that this Sale presents the only opportunity during the year to buy Magnavox products at a reduced price. Magnavox prices are fair-traded and strictly enforced during the balance of the year. Although some models have been sold out, we still have a fair selection. On some sets we revised our prices, because we want to clear them out. This is the real purpose of a genuine sale, to correct one's buying mistakes. It is impossible to buy exactly the correct number of sets and models during the span of a whole year. Everything can be sold if the price is right, which means low enough and we are reducing prices during this sale sufficiently to clear out what has to go and make room.

This once-a-year Magnavox Sale is entirely different than the "sales" that some stores conduct every week. Magnavox prices are fair-traded during the balance of the year. However, during this once-a-year sale it is "Open Season". If you are in the market for a TV or Stereo, you might as well take advantage of this opportunity to buy top quality merchandise at a real saving.

This Sale ends on March 15th. We Service What We Sell.

Varsity Topples Faculty Despite Szem's Efforts

Danny Grasso and Bob Palma enable the faculty to close the gap to 63-57 with three minutes left.

Two faculty turnovers and some clutch free throws by senior Rich Caravetta extended the varsity lead and wrapped up the game.

Some of the players on the faculty team were former college stars. Szem played for Montclair State College where he scored in excess of 1000 points in a three year career. Although he is just 5 foot 5, Danny Grasso was a college guard for Kansas State Teacher's College. He once scored 31 points in a single game and finished as second leading scorer for the faculty in this game, with 11 points.

Charlie Travers was the "sixth man" on the Seton Hall University team which won the National Invitational Tournament at Madison Square Garden in 1953.

Travers played for Belleville High during the heyday of Belleville basketball in the late Forties and early Fifties.

The game was arranged by the Student Government Organization and its President Brenda Cameron. Both teams had cheerleaders but the varsity girls had more to cheer about on this day.

hospital, and she'll be out for the season. Debbie also is a pitcher on the girls softball team.

High scorer for the Kearny contest was junior Debbie Maloney. Both of her two field goals, and one of her two foul shots came in the first period, accounting for the entire Bellgirls score.

Karen Smith moved into the number two scoring position with five points on two shots from the floor and one free throw.

Martha Peldunas scored four points for the fem cagers in her first game of the season. "Marty" was a regular on the squad last season, but injured her foot in the beginning of the season.

The first girls basketball win of the season came to the junior varsity cage squad in their first contest 14-10.

"Every night it used to be the same. The clock would strike one or two and I'd still be wide awake—just couldn't get to sleep. But its no more night-owling now. I just take a Dornin Capsule at bedtime and presto!—instead of tossing and turning, I sleep like a kitten!"

Peace Center Planning To See Berrigan Play

A theater-party to see Father Daniel Berrigan's "The Trial of the Catonsville 9" is being sponsored by the Nutley Peace Action Committee.

The Nutley group has several tickets available for the Saturday, April 17, performance at the Good Shepherd Faith Church near Lincoln Center. Persons interested may contact the Peace Center between 3 and 5 p.m. daily.

The drama deals with the 1968 trial of Father Berrigan and eight others for burning draft records.

"The Trial" has received several favorable reviews. Critics have pointed to its relevancy, the conflict between legality and morality. Cliff Barnes of the N.Y. Times calls it "a wonderfully moving testament to nine

Your Weekly Horoscope

March 11 through March 17, 1971

ARIES (March 21 - April 19): Efforts will perhaps be scattered in week ahead, Ari baby. You may have uneasy feeling that hidden forces are in league against you. Not so, love. So no fair becoming paranoid about your situation. It WILL improve. Postpone binding commitments. Try a little more smooching with loved one if you would like present relationship to improve. Love-making like virtue can be its own reward.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20): Friend or member of family will want to unload problem in your lap. Play role of wailing wall. You do so well in this department. Offer empathy. (Others tend to offer merely sympathy in exchange for details.) However, hold off on giving advice unless pressed for it. You should hear from old friend (flame?) before week is over. Visit. Let work wait. It will be there after visitor leaves.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): Temptation in week ahead to play role of Smarty Pants. So your mind works just a little quicker than the rest of the mob. So your friends and family already know. Is it really necessary for you to remind them day after day? Week after week? Year after year? Careless remark on last day could cause you to lose your balance. And for one who insists on walking the wire without a net, this could prove fatal!

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Personal problems will occupy your mind during most of coming week. Solutions are at hand. But don't expect them to be handed to you encased in lifetime plastic. In truth, solutions may appear somewhat ramshackle. But Moonbaby knows only too well that appearances are often most deceiving. Listen with your heart.

LEO (July 23 - August 22): Heart will rule your head in week ahead, Leo baby. As usual. You will no doubt operate on principle that the heart has reasons which the mind knows not. Family member may hassle you by mid-week. But you will not budge. Self preservation will be unusually strong. As week ends associate will do your bidding. Willingly. And quietly. So no need to wave your royal scepter about.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22): Tensions tend to diminish in week ahead, Virg baby. Oh, Happy Day! New relationship with member of opposite sex will spark your interest. Keep fire extinguisher handy. Week should end on note of cheer. Perhaps in note from one far away.

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22): Mood on upswing, Libra. Health and emotional outlook will be unusually good. One close to you may try to force opinion on you by mid-week. Listen patiently, but do your own bidding. Good week to branch out careerwise. Secret yummy scheduled for last day. Enjoy, enjoy.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21): Much headway to be made by Scorp in week ahead. Gain from association with Taurus individual. However, you, dear Scorp must pull your share of the load. No fair resting on your laurels, attractive as they may be. Take care of your health. Avoid fatigue. Get into the sack early every night if possible. And SLEEP. No messing around, you hear?

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21): After last week, Sag would be wise to hole up in a nice quiet spot and let the world go away. Good time for a mini-vacation. If this is impossible then perhaps Sag can have a wee spree on the town by mid-week. No? Well then lock yourself in the bathroom and soak your tensions away.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19): Events in coming week directly related to past actions. If you played last week, then this week you pay. However, if you kept your nose to the old grindstone, week ahead will be one for gathering in the rewards. Read words to Taurus carefully for extra message.

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18): Watch your diet in week ahead, love. Good time to start program of regulated exercise. Begin moderately. Do not overdo. Buy ten pounds of cottage cheese, lock the liquor cabinet and then swallow the key.

PISCES (February 19 - March 20): Travel is highlighted in week ahead, Pisces. Guard that which you prize. Best not to trust new associate until this person has proven worthy of trust. Loved one needs attention. You've been slacking off in this department and if you don't make tracks soon, another may steal sweetie away.
