

Chamber Dinner Saturday

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual dinner-dance Saturday night at the Branch Brook Manor. Highlight of the evening will be an explanation by five pretty Belleville High School seniors of the origins of Cherry Blossom festivals in Japan.

The five girls, all leaders in their classes, will be dressed in authentic Japanese kimonos, and will discuss Japan's celebration of the annual bloom of Cherry Blossoms.

Donna Cervasio, captain of the cheerleaders, was chosen by a poll of the five girls to be Cherry Blossom princess at the dinner-dance and during the town's annual Cherry Blossom Parade in April.

Joining Donna in Japanese costume will be Student Council President Brenda Cameron, Senior Class President Annette Guardabascio, Twirler Captain Jayme Freedman and Drum Majorette Sue Kellenbence. The five girls were selected by BHS principal Raymond Smith.

Indeed it was Smith who was chiefly responsible for the idea of connecting Belleville's festival with that of Japan's.

Smith, who spent a year in Japan as an interpreter for the Armed Services, witnessed numerous festivals in the Asian country.

The past few years the

Hustling Bumper-Sticker Space Highlights Slow Campaign Week

About the only campaign activity worth noting this week was the scramble by candidates for space on auto bumpers and front lawns for posters and bumper stickers.

Some of the candidates set-up campaign headquarters and attended a few carefully chosen teas, but on the whole, the race is quiet and pretty dull.

The latest resident to take out a petition for the May 11 Commission Election is Ernie Arvidson of 178 Floyd Street, a former member and president of the local Board of Education.

Arvidson brings the total of potential candidates to 15 as of Monday. The expanding list includes Mayor Ken Smith and Commissioners Mary Senatore, Joseph McGreevy and Vincent T.

Strumolo.

Also possessing petition forms are Mayor Robert Laterza, former councilman James Golden, recently retired Board of Education President Rocco Saletta, and detective Michael Marotti.

Rounding out the list are Mrs. Ruth Dillon, Salvatore LaMorte, Frank Racanelli, Tony Fernandes, Julius Minuskin and Nicholas Raimo.

Of the 15, only seven have actually filed petitions: Smith, Strumolo, Marotti, Golden, Fernandes, LaMorte and Saletta.

The deadline for filing petitions is next Thursday, the same day registration for the election closes.

Town Clerk Eugene Barnett reports registration is proceeding at a normal pace for a Commission election. Barnett's office is open today and tomorrow from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., with special hours all next week from 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Campaign rhetoric flooded the Times-News' mailbox this week, with syntax and adjective-inflated indictments of the current administration prevalent over platforms.

A notable exception was a short release from former Mayor Bob Laterza, who announced an eight point platform which he said would be elaborated upon in future releases.

Among Laterza's platform concerns was the establishment of a business mall in town with the main emphasis on offices, and a promise to take steps toward cleaning up the Passaic River which he said ranks fourth dirtiest in the nation.

Laterza said his main campaign thrust would be to maintain a tax rate at five per cent or lower. He also called for a program for senior citizens "so that they will remain in town"; an open door policy for all citizens to voice their ideas and grievances;

"Let Public Service come in first with its case and its witnesses and let us cross-examine them," Amato told a packed Commission Chambers at Town Hall, "Then we will come back with our witnesses."

"I want to know the case of Public Service," Amato continued, "and I don't want them to build their case from the testimony of the people

Residents to Wait

Adjourn Hearing On No. 37 Bus

By Nat Gottlieb

The State Public Utilities Commission (PUC) adjourned its hearing on the No. 37 bus line Tuesday night at Belleville Town Hall in order to allow attorneys representing Belleville to hear testimony first from Public Service Coordinated Transport at a later date. The PUC move amounts to a reversal of normal procedure in such cases.

The adjournment was requested by Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato and Board of Education Council Max Schwartz, who objected to having residents give testimony and being cross-examined by Public Service before that company presented its case for discontinuing the bus line.

Alex Lowick, hearing officer for the PUC has set April 2 as the date for Public Service to present its case in PUC offices in Newark. A subsequent public hearing for residents will be called for Belleville Town Hall.

Amato's objection to the PUC hearing procedure came after a Public Service representative made a brief opening statement and was asked by Lowick to withhold further testimony until a future hearing in Newark. Lowick said this was PUC procedure to insure residents maximum time to voice opinions.

Amato objected, however, that he was unable to cross examine the Public Service witness but that Public Service attorney Edward J. Perone was allowed to question residents' testimony.

After a brief recess and a conference among attorneys and Lowack, the adjournment was agreed upon by all parties.

Public Service's only testimony was a statement by Madison Edgerton, a traffic

Arvidson Calls Auxiliary Cop Move 'Political'

Deputy Mayor James LaMotta has abolished the top civilian post in the Belleville Police Auxiliary and says a further paring down of superior officers is possible.

LaMotta, who is Director of Civilian Defense in town and a civilian, says the move is designed to "eliminate the brass in the organization."

"We want stricter control exercised by Lt. John Dean, who is a Belleville policeman, and not by civilian brass," LaMotta said.

The Deputy Mayor denied charges the move was is not too happy about LaMotta's move.

Arvidson charged the move had political overtones, and told the Times-News Monday he has hired a law firm to request an open hearing on the matter before the entire Civil Defense and Disaster Control Council. Arvidson admits, however, there is no law requiring such a hearing.

The deposed deputy chief says he was given "a couple" of reasons why he was removed by LaMotta.

"One was that I had spoken

For Clean Air One Man's Fight Over

A resident's three year fight to clean-up the air in his neighborhood apparently has paid off.

The State Department of Environmental Protection told the Times-News Monday a Belleville factory producing yeast had been ordered to install anti-pollution devices and operate them by March 1, of 1972 or face possible court action.

The state department identified the company as the Universal Foods Corporation, Red Star Yeast Products Division, which is located at 810 Mill Street near Harrison Street. The state order marks the end of a long fight led by Paul Crandall of 27 Bellevue Avenue, a technician specialist for Westinghouse.

Crandall's struggle was typical of many efforts by individuals to effectuate action against large companies and indifferent officials. The difference in Crandall's case was that he apparently has succeeded in what he set out to do.

The crusading resident hasn't done it alone, however. His wife Frances and two other residents, Mrs. Carol McGinley and Mrs. Vincenza D'Andrea all swore affidavits attesting to the smell of yeast in the neighborhood.

Crandall's fight also had the help of the State Department of Environmental Protection, which essentially carried the case through. In addition, the

Hospital Paper Started

Belleville High School, which sent student volunteers to the Essex County Geriatrics Center during a strike two weeks ago, is now helping print a new patient newspaper, "Dignity," written and edited by the patients with the help of Dr. Ralph Ford, superintendent and Medical director, and Miss Mary Edley, director of nursing.

Mrs. Murial Cerami, head of the school's business department, typed the stencils of the first issue, which were delivered to the hospital by Mrs. Kathleen Shaughnessy, of the BHS office staff. It was Mrs. Shaughnessy who first interested Mrs. Cerami in the project, which may eventually be taken up by her

Resurfacing Set For 16 Roads

Public Works Commissioner Mary Senatore expects to begin resurfacing 16 town streets before mid-April. The cost for the project is $16,551, with all but $1,839 coming from state aid.

Commissioner Senatore says the 16 streets will bring the number resurfaced by her department the past four years to 51.

Scheduled for resurfacing are William Street (Union Avenue to Washington Avenue), Schuyler Street (Cortlandt Street to Terrace Place), Church Terrace, Railroad Place, Cross Street (Belmont Avenue to Watchung Avenue), Cedar Hill Avenue (Belleville Avenue to Maier Street), Rossmore Place (Washington Avenue to Hornblower Avenue), and Van Houten Place.

Also scheduled for resurfacing are Mr. Prospect Avenue (Belleville Avenue to Maier Street), Holmes Street (Washington Avenue to Hornblower Avenue), Lawrence Street (Heckel Street to No. 11th Street),

The Belleville Community Council has called a public meeting to discuss the possibility of the YM-YWCA expanding its programs into town. The meeting is set for 8 p.m. Tuesday in the BHS cafeteria, according to Ralph Casale, Council chairman.

BHS Grad Named To State Job

Rich Goodenough Chosen Marine Services Director

The New Jersey State Senate confirmed this week Governor Cahill's nomination of Richard D. Goodenough to the new post of Director of the New Jersey Division of Marine Services.

The new director is a 1957 graduate of Belleville High School, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Goodenough of 199 Holmes Street.

Richard Goodenough has been the executive director of the Upper Raritan Watershed Association the past eight years.

A resident of Pottersville, Goodenough is a former park planner with the old state conservation department and was a forestry major at the University of Maine.

He is a member of the Green Acres citizens advisory committee and a director of

BHS Band Battle: Contest of Styles

Rock Vets Capture Audience

By Beth Fitzgerald

Acid rock, hard rock, country rock, blues and Chicken Delight were the fare at Belleville High's "Battle of the Bands," and it proved to be a battle of musical styles, with the rock sound of veteran "Midnight Confession" winning over the blues of "Pale Dry."

With Henry De France on lead vocal and drums, Joe Covey on organ, Michael Cisero playing saxophone, and Gary Gulbilo with the lead guitar "Midnight Confession" gave the smooth, professional performance their audience has come to expect.

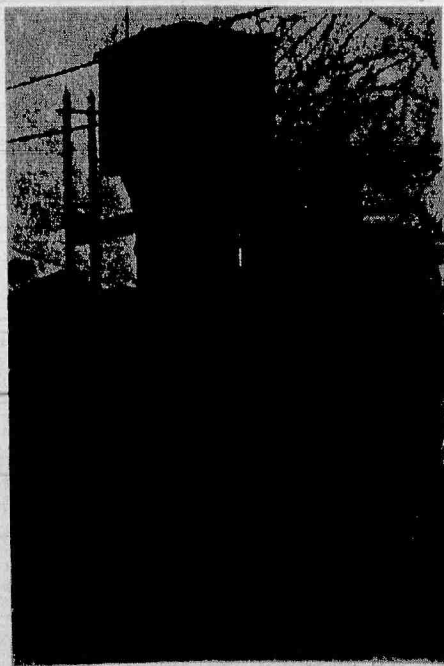

They played songs from the top rock groups—Chicago, Sly and the Family Stone, Three Dog Nite and Grand Funk

THE RED STAR Yeast Company at 810 Mill Street has accepted state orders to install pollution devices by March, 1972. A resident of Belleville Avenue, Paul Crandall, was the man to bring the state's attention to the factory which gives off a strong odor of yeast in the neighborhood.

with a sound system that perfectly balanced the instrumentation and vocals, and a light show which included synchronized reflectors. The teamwork and coordination that led them to victory at the Nutley "Battle" last year was at work for them again Friday night.

Despite the professionalism of the "Midnight Confession" the most exciting performance was given by "Pale Dry," with Dave Amoscatto on bass, George Villano on drums, and Sal Minardi, lead guitar.

Sal, perhaps the most popular individual performer and a born showman, drew the audience into his music and brought the battle to a frenzied climax with B.B. King's "Little Bit of Love." The crowd's obvious affection for Sal contributed to the atmosphere of celebration that characterized the competition.

When it was announced that the judges had placed "Midnight Confession" first and "Pale Dry" second, some of the audience reacted indignantly, and there were cries of "We want Pale Dry"—until Henry De France returned to his drums bringing the crowd with him, as he led "Midnight Confession" in a finale of "I'm So Glad."

Four groups entered the competition, each given a half hour to play, and straws were drawn to determine playing order. First to be heard was "Jesse Pig," with lead guitarist Kevin Byrne, Tom Crawford on rhythm guitar, Tom Burden, bass, and Ted Pitera, drums.

As Kevin hit the first chord of the opening number, "Tweed's Chicken Inn," Ted Pitera tossed a bucket of Chicken Delight and a handful of napkins to the audience. The group went on to perform "Lover of the Bay-u" "Mr. Spaceman," "Down In the Easy Chair,"—reaching a climax with "Volunteers." Due to problems with their sound equipment, a great deal of Jesse Pig's consummate musicianship was lost to the audience, most of whom were unfamiliar with their country rock style.

The fourth group, "Ancephalous", is a four member group with a hard rock sound and a girl drummer, a high spirited blond named Jan Bonkowski. The group includes Donna Senior on rhythm guitar, Fred Brunello, lead guitar, and Andrew Fantin, bass. They performed a variety of rock numbers; among them "Born To Be Wild," "Jumping Jack Flash," "Light My Fire," and "White Rabbit." They were also handicapped by their sound system, which broke down as they were playing, and also by having to follow "Midnight Confession," whose winning performance was the turning point of the battle.

The first prize of $70 went to "Midnight Confession," and the $30 second prize to "Pale Dry." All judges were BHS students—seniors Al Pepe and Frank Marano, and juniors Laurie Fuchs and Marty Peldunas. Junior Cindy Ferro was in charge of the battle, which was held to raise money for the junior class, and added about $500 to their treasury.

SAL Minardi of "Pale Dry" feels his music as he gets into B.B. King's blues of "Little Bit of Love."

crowning of a Cherry Blossom Queen was synonymous with the Miss Belleville title and resulted in a college scholarship.

This year, however, the local Jaycees, who ran the previous contests, lost interest in the adventure.

The Chamber of Commerce, however, didn't want to let the thing die, and contacted Smith for ideas.

Chairman for the dinner-dance is Aaron Cohen, who was assisted by committeemen Paul Brandman and Mary Dell on tickets, and Johnny Iannuzzi on tickets.

About 20 BHS students worked at the Center when it was struck by paid attendants a few weeks ago. The school was notified of the emergency by the local chapter of the Red Cross, which had also contacted the Church Women United, the Women's Auxiliary of the Fire Department, St. Peter's Catholic Church, which sent a group of eighth graders, and the Women's Club.

A group of students may be organized to work at the hospital on a regular, volunteer basis. If such a project is begun, it will be handled by Mrs. Elizabeth Roble, a registered nurse with a degree in health education who advises the school's medical club. BF

Pharmacy Footnotes

"Overweight" has always been a much-publicized indictment against certain people. Although not so publicly known, the underweight person is also a sufferer. Who likes to be called skinny? It is true that the underweight problem can be caused by a variety of illnesses and emotional upsets. Ordinarily, however, the point is not only that a person is thin, but that he is unintentionally losing weight, is chronically fatigued and listless. Unless accompanied by other signs of ill-health, however, there is no need to feel anxious if one is not the "normal" weight. Force-feeding never helped a healthy person. In the words of a doctor we know, "a lean horse runs a long race."

the mid-Atlantic Council of Watershed Associations.

The directorship carries a pay range of $19,500 to $25,400.

One of the major tasks for the 32-year-old director will be to implement the Wetlands Act, the law adopted last November giving the state control over the development of 300,000 acres of coastal and tidal lands.

"All those areas will have to be mapped in the next two years, all owners involved must be notified, and public hearings must be held on rules and regulations which have yet to be devised," Goodenough said.

"Under the act, anyone who wants to do any kind of development in the wetlands area must get a permit from the state. The burden of proof is on the developer, not on the state, to prove that a proposed project won't harm the ecology."

"The law isn't designed to stop everything, every kind of development," he added.

"A wetlands bureau will have to be established and trained ecologists found to staff it."

Goodenough also will be

responsible for what he calls "three navies" in the bureau of marine law enforcement. They include the state marine police who patrol inland lakes and reservoirs—such as Spruce Run—as well as the Jersey shore, a coastal patrol which checks on illegal fishing methods, and the patrol which polices the clam and oyster fisheries of New Jersey.

Previously under different state departments, these three now have been put in the jurisdiction of the Environmental Protection Department's marine services division.

Admittedly no "salt-water man," Goodenough nevertheless sees the need for "an ecologically sensitive person to direct that division."

Provides Opportunity
"Conservation groups like the Upper Raritan Association have done a lot of talking about what the government should do to protect the environment," he noted.

"This new job gives us a chance to go down there to Trenton and do something about it, not just talk."

Goodenough commended "the Cahill administration for moving in the direction of hiring professionals, not politicians. I'm not a political creature at all."

The commissioner of the relatively new Department of Environmental Protection, Richard Sullivan, is a Democrat.

manager, that the company lost over $3 million last year and had already lost $866,958 in January of this year.

Edgerton said the company was seeking to eliminate the No. 37 and about 19 other lines which reportedly lost money for Public Service last year.

Amato, speaking for the Town Commission, charged that "since Public Service has an authorized monopoly, they must take the good with the bad."

"If they (Public Service) discard the No. 37 line, they are breaching a public trust," Amato continued.

"They have been trying to get rid of this line since I rode it to high school in 1958," Amato said. "We have people in Belleville who can't afford to ride taxis and they need this route."

Amato charged to remove the line would be "a hardship, something unfair and completely callous."

Schwartz called the route a "meandering snake" and said it would be impossible for residents to find alternative bus service.

The Board attorney said the bus line is used by students attending six local schools: the senior and junior high, and Schools Three, Four, Five and Seven. The route also affects local students attending nearby Bloomfield Technical and Vocational School.

"The very fact we have to bus students ourselves shows that the present service is inadequate," Schwartz charged. "Imagine where we would be if they cut this line now," he continued.

Schwartz also said because of numerous rejected school budgets, the Board is considering curtailing bus service to students who live within two miles of the schools.

"We need the No. 37 bus to take these children to school," Schwartz said. "We must not be isolated."

"You either keep this bus or have to walk or use the car, and for these children this is going to be a hardship," Schwartz concluded.

An Invasion Of Home Rule

Nutley Town Commissioners last week expressed concern over a new state law that effectively usurps local authority over liquor licenses.

Last month the local Board of Commissioners acting in its capacity as the Town Alcoholic Beverage Commission held a public hearing and found a local liquor store guilty of selling liquor to a minor. The Commissioners imposed a 21-day closing penalty which was to have begun on February 27.

The liquor dealer, taking advantage of a new state law, made an appeal to the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission. The state body permitted the violator to pay a fine in lieu of the 21-day closing penalty.

Commissioner John H. Lucy best expressed the Commissioners' point of view when he observed, "unless the town was guaranteed authority in the area of liquor licenses, I am wondering why we should even spend our time hearing these cases. It just wouldn't be worthwhile." The Commissioners had spent an hour listening to testimony in the case, which included a statement from the Bloomfield Police that the violation involved a fatal automobile accident, in which liquor was a factor. The minor admitted that he had made at least four previous purchases at the same liquor store.

In the matter of effective municipal control over liquor sales outlets the case that gave rise to the Nutley Town Commission's anger is sufficient evidence that the state law should be changed to give the local ABC Board final authority. We urge our State Senators and Assemblymen to initiate the change.

Commissioner Richard C. McDonough, director of the State ABC, is in sympathy with the Nutley Commission's attitude. Recognizing that the state legislation will give rise to misinterpretation and discontent Commissioner McDonough has set an all-day conference for municipal officials on April 21.

"One topic we will be discussing with local officials at that meeting will be the procedure for fining license violations," McDonough said.

McDonough is relatively new in this office, appointed only last year by Governor William Cahill. McDonough has introduced innovations in the operations of his office which have been of benefit to the general public. We have confidence that he will recognize the need for local officials to be sustained in their determination to keep a good town clean.

Crime And Our Police

Recently Miami, Florida Police Chief Bernard Garmire warned that Miami faces the "specter of urban guerrilla warfare."

Chief Garmire noted that 496 city police officers were assaulted last year and three — shot to death in two years — with one wounded this week. Chief Garmire — vowed to respond with force against attacks on holdup victims. In 1970 there were 24,000 crimes of violence or other serious crimes in Miami. The high crime statistics rate is not peculiar to Miami. Every urban city and suburban community has experienced the same statistical rise in crime. Killing policemen seems to be an obsession with some people. We believe any person found guilty of killing a policeman automatically should be given the electric chair. There should be no mercy shown toward police killers.

In Miami, Police Chief Bernard Garmire has 24 attack dogs on fulltime patrol duty and policemen are permitted to take shotguns with them on patrol. Maybe the time has come for us here in this community to request our police department to add attack dogs for patrol duty. There is no greater deterrent for a rape artist or an attacker than the physical appearance of a policeman — pounding a beat.

We would like to see the return of policemen walking a beat accompanied with an attack dog and a walkie-talkie connected to — headquarters.

Local crime statistics clearly indicate that our community is beset with an increase of home burglaries. We have no complaint with the attitude or dedication of our police force and the men who run it including our Public Safety Director. We simply believe that taxpayers should be willing to pay a few more dollars in taxes for a larger police force in order to provide us with a greater measure of security.

On the subject of crime, only last week two teachers were attacked in broad daylight in New York City schools. In one incident, a 23-year old teacher was raped at knifepoint by a 15-year old youth at 4:00 p.m. in a fourth-floor classroom after the pupils left for home. In the other attack, a 28-year old teacher was sexually assaulted at 8:00 a.m., 20 minutes before classes began, surprised

Fly A Kite

March is traditionally the windy month, with flying skirts and kites, which old and young notice in their respective leagues.

Kite flying has been a popular sport in many countries longer than flying skirts. Youngsters should be cautioned to avoid electric power lines, especially against using wire or cord with tinsel wound into it each year accidents occur because of carelessness on this score.

Oldsters ought, by now, to know the dangers of flying skirts.

For the second time this month Flight 32 was manned by steward Chuck McMillan, and flight attendants Barbara Roberts and Mary Sullivan, all of whom are based in Atlanta. The Flight 32 trip is the best out of the Atlanta base — the crew working three days and off four days — how about that for a short work week?

JIM BOUTON and his family joined me on Flight 32 back to Newark. He looked in good health and in excellent spirits despite the Ball Four book, which was extremely critical of his Yankee room mates.

CONGRATULATIONS to Congressman Joseph Minish for wanting to investigate closed circuit TV. Congressman Minish wants important events like the Joe Frazier — Muhammad Ali fight available to all people with a TV set, and why not?

AS I ENTERED THE CAPITOL BUILDING last week, I was suddenly stopped by two security guards who demanded I open up my brief case. The sudden, unexpected challenge brought me up rather sharp and for a moment caught me off guard.

I AM PLEASED TO OBSERVE that the Nutley Police force has reached its full complement of 60 men. Congratulations to Mayor Harry Chenoweth and his men. The result represents a tremendous recruitment drive and Nutley residents should feel safer because more manpower is on the job.

Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent Strumulo hired a new health officer. Edward Hillery, acting health officer for Englewood and a retired Lt. Col. in the Air Force, was to replace Dr. J. R. Beneveto, who had been health officer for two years. Dr. Beneveto had resigned in January through a Civil Service technicality, and after being suspended for insubordination, he had never reported back for work and thereby lost his job.

The Belleville Board of Education still had not presented a reasonable explanation for the quick reversal of their decision to renew the contract of social studies teacher Ronald Kulik. The Board's decision over-ruled the favorable recommendations of assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Rosamilia, Superintendent of the High School Raymond Smith, Director of Athletics Herman Wische and Board President Ernest Arvidson. The only reason given for the action by the Board was that they were "unsatisfied with his teaching."

Incumbent Councilman-at-large William Cullen filed petitions for the forthcoming May Election. In announcing his intentions, Cullen said "I am disturbed by the image of the Town of Belleville that has been built up during the last few years. Many of our citizens have indicated to me that they are subjected to ridicule by their co-workers because of the unfavorable publicity that the town has received. This condition must not be permitted to continue."

Belleville voters would have to wait until October before deciding the fate of the proposed new high school suggested for the stadium area off Passaic Avenue. Delays in the signing of contracts between the Belleville Board of Education and the architect, Alfonso Alvarez, was cited as the "main reason" why the school board was forced to abandon hopes of holding a referendum in May.

The so-called "Citizens' Committee for the Retention of the Commission Form of Government" was having difficulty in gathering sufficient citizens to fill sub-committee posts. For more than two weeks Ralph Risoli leader of the organization, had promised to release chairman's names and for two weeks had evaded any announcement to the press.

Salvatore Calabro, president of the Citizens' Tax Council, would probably have to look somewhere other than the Chamber of Commerce to arrange a debate on the government change question. Calabro stated that he had requested that the Chamber arrange a debate between his organization and the Commission, because the latter group would be most impartial.

The purchase of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Building at 270 Washington Avenue by the town as a place to relocate police headquarters appeared to have the unanimous support of the Belleville Board of Commissioners. Only the question of price delayed Commissioner George F. Kiernan from introducing an ordinance for the purchase. Kiernan was anticipating a $45,000 purchase price, but Commissioner Gruhin stated that he believed the structure could be attained for about $30,000.

A special meeting of the Board of Education was to be held to discuss immediate steps to revise the teachers' salary guide and provide them with an increase in the near future. The meeting was decided upon after a delegation of teachers, headed by Harold Dufford of the high school faculty, appeared before the school board.

As the outcome of a protest lodged against baseball being played at Clearman Field, the Board of Education voted to discontinue all playing of the sport at the end of the season. The resolution was presented by Joseph Arnold, board member, after hearing several of the thirty or more residents from the vicinity of the field cite reasons for their objection to the sport being played there.

Lashing back at Mayor Williams for attacks made upon his handling of his budget in Police Department matters, Public Safety Director King accused the Mayor of attempting to undermine the morale of the department. King made specific reference to a letter sent to members of the police department, under the signature of the Mayor, in which Williams quoted figures based on present expenditures in the department and contended that there would be nothing left in the budget after December 1 to meet the regular police payroll.

Plans of the Peoples National Bank and Trust Co. to place the merchants and manufacturers of the town on a basis to work for a bigger better, and more prosperous Belleville progressed rapidly at a dinner meeting of the advisory committee of the bank at the Progress Club. Chairman Philip Dettelbach, who headed the L. Sonneborn & Sons plant, suggested as a start that a merchants' association be formed.

The Belleville Town Commission put in an hour listening to complaints of incompetency against it by two citizens; George E. Stewart Jr. and Charles Langhi. The speakers scored the board for failure to act on Town Engineer Albert Blank's recommendation that a pitometer survey of the town water system be made.

The formal opening of the Belleville branch of the county probation system was held at the Town Hall. Joseph P. Murphy, chief probation officer, and a committee of the Board of Freeholders, installed Philip Henry as probation officer.

Says A Debate Of Candidates Is Desirable

To The Editor:

My sincerest thanks to you for publishing my letter to you last week comparing our town budget meeting to a "Stage Play". I never realized when I wrote it that so many of your readers would call or write me congratulatory words. It must have expressed the views of many of our Bellevillites, or maybe because it was a non-paid political announcement was the reason it was so well received.

As a voter I shall select my five candidates wisely and do all I can to help them. My only regret is that we are only able to hear all the candidates views separately; wouldn't it be great to have a place where we could hear them several times during the election state their platforms side-by-side to us the voters, for I am sure there are many of us who never do get to meet and hear all the candidates. It does seem to me that it would make it a lot easier on the candidate, as well as the citizen, who is asked to attend the individual affairs given each of them.

The five candidates who are elected on May 11 will, indeed, have to share each others point of view on issues then as well as now, they will also have to share each others friendship to make our town the one we want it to be.

Doctor Thanks Belleville Pupils

To The Editor

In a time of crisis a call was put out to the student body of Belleville High School, with the cooperation of Mr. Anthony Greco, superintendent of Schools, and Mr. John Westlake, BHS vice principal.

The response was overwhelming and heartening; these young people responded with alacrity and performed a professional job.

We at the institution are heartened and most grateful to these community-minded young adults; Their understanding of the situation and their desire to help proves that this community will be in good hands in the future.

birthday and Tricia Nixon's engagement to Edward Finch Cox. Everett, who contributes much to the popularity of New York's Les Champs Restaurant with his vocal renditions of operatic numbers, was excited over the privilege of singing at a Presidential Reception at the White House. He met and chatted with Vice President and Mrs. Spiro Agnew, members of the Cabinet, June Haver, Mort Downey, Dennis Day and a large assortment of generals and ambassadors. It was an emerald-green evening with our own Everett Morrison leading the parade of celebrities.

LAST FRIDAY'S FLIGHT 897 to Fort Lauderdale was memorable in more ways than one. For the second successive week I had the pleasure of Dick Dinallo's company, owner of the luxurious Claridge House apartment at the top of the mountains in Verona. R.N.D. is Mr. Big at Terminal Construction Corporation, one of America's largest government and industrial construction outfits. Seated to our right were Susan Rossi, an Eastern Airlines employee, and Mildred Nerlinger, President of Van Ness Lumber Company. Both girls were enroute to the Fort Lauderdale area for a vacation and a piece of the action. — Sue for the weekend and Mildred for a fortnight. Just behind them were Mrs. Helen Todish and her daughter Barbara who is a stewardess for EAL.

Barbara was travelling as a passenger but used the occasion to demonstrate to mother Todish the play involved in her work. Throughout the trip Barbara, dressed in her attractive orange uniform, was of EAL's Women's Lib Champ great assistance to the two working stewardesses, senior Addie Vincent and Ginger Ivey, a three-month rookie, who is quite an asset to EAL. Barbara is a Women's Lib activist and observing a male wearing a pinky ring said, "I don't trust anyone who wears a pinky ring." I never before heard the thought expressed but perhaps Barbara may have a lot of company in this respect. Barbara is a graduate of Belleville High School and mother Todish is a long-time subscriber to the Belleville Times-News — how nice to meet one of my paying customers aboard Flight 897. Behind us were two mature but very young ladies both attired in matching red polka dot blouses and blue and white plaid jumpers, resembling a couple of little Dutch girls who just got off the boat. They were Maria Ritter, age eight, and her sister Nina, an avid reader at age ten, residing with their parents in Short Hills but enroute to Fort Lauderdale to visit their grandparents, the H.R. Ritters. My funnybone tells me that the H.R. Ritters are the same people that owned the H.R. Ritter Truck Company based in Belleville. Little Maria caught the fancy of the crowd with her sparkling conversation and glittering eyes. The Ritter girls are planning to spend their two-week school vacation with their grandparents at the Fort Lauderdale Coral Ridge Tower Condominium. The youngsters were beautifully behaved and demonstrated a very high IQ — and the sad shame of it is that neither girl had a photograph for me to use.

The EAL girls, Addie Vincent, Ginger Ivey, and acting "E Girl" Barbara Todish, showered the Ritter young ladies with lots of attention.

IN PARIS next month women's dress designers will be showing hot skirts, a garment which last year was called the micro-mini. The hot pants and hot skirts popularity should be very pleasing to the leg watchers. I am happy that the midl went to its unceremonious death rapidly.

When the weather is either hot or cold we can easily prepare and wear the proper clothing. The dangerous time comes when there can be a drastic change from day to day or even during the course of a day.

Sometimes it is impossible to avoid a cold or cough, no matter how well we are prepared. The most important advice then is not to neglect a cold. If it does not clear up quickly or seems to be getting progressively worse, see your physician. He can most often prescribe a medicine that will get you over it quicker and with less discomfort. This advice particularly is important for the elderly. To them a cough or cold can be more serious.

St. Peter's Church Setting For Brunello-Lordi Nuptials

Miss Margory Esther Lordi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lordi of 54 Essex Street became the bride March 7 of Gerard John Brunello, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Brunello of 21 Howard Place.

The ceremony in St. Peter's Church was performed by the Rev. Msgr. A.J. Welsh and the Papal blessing was bestowed by Bishop Joseph A. Costello, pastor of the church. A reception followed at The Manor, West Orange.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a peau de soie gown accented with English lace and clusters of pearls. The empire bodice flowed into an A-line skirt and the detachable train was also trimmed with appliques and pearls.

Her elbow length illusion veil was held by a matching Camelot headpiece and she carried a nosegay of white carnations, pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Phyllis McManus, flew in from England, her first trip to the United States, to attend the wedding. As the bride left the church, her aunt presented her with a silver horseshoe, an English custom signifying good luck.

Miss Elizabeth Lordi, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Paula Cajohn of Belleville, cousin of the groom, Miss Janis Carter of Rockaway, Mrs. Frank De Bonis of Belleville and Miss Paula Hinrichs and Mrs. Richard Zdzarski of Newark.

The attendants wore rose petal long sleeved chiffon gowns with empire waists and flowing skirts. They were fashioned with smocked bodices accented with tiny buttons. Headpieces were long flowing bows and they carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. De Bonis served as best man. Ushering were Fred Brunello of Belleville, brother of the groom, Dennis Molinaro of Bloomfield, cousin of the bride, George Lupinacci of Belleville, Steve O'Neill of Edison and Bart Roccoberton of Butler.

Mrs. Lordi chose a floor length aqua chiffon gown with matching coat trimmed in beading. Her corsage was of pink cymbidiums. The groom's mother was in an orchid chiffon gown with long sleeves and beading at the neck and cuffs. Her corsage was a double white orchid.

Youth Rehabilitator To Speak Sunday

Rev. Bob Bartlett, founder of Teen Challenge of Greater Philadelphia, will speak during the morning and evening services of the Belleville Assembly of God Sunday. The scheduled services are at 10:45 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Other activities scheduled Sunday at the church include a performance by a musical group; testimony from former drug addicts, and a film entitled "For God's Sake."

the Rev. A. Di Quattro says the churches special activities are open to the public.

Rev. Bartlett is currently executive director of "Teen Challenge," a youth program designed to reach and rehabilitate teen gangs, drug addicts and other troubled youth.

From its inception in 1964, Teen Challenge has reportedly met with success in rehabilitation. There are now five centers throughout the Greater Philadelphia area.

Born in Arkansas City, Kan., he attended college in that state. The turning point in his life, according to Bartlett, came after hearing David Wilkerson speak. Wilkerson is the author of "The Cross and the Switchblade."

Rev. Bartlett left Kansas to work with troubled youth in Brooklyn. After training there, he moved to Philadelphia.

In addition to directing five Teen Challenge centers, Rev. Bartlett travels extensively in the United States and abroad, assisting in the establishment of similar programs.

The reverend also serves as an advisor for the state on the problems of drug abuse, and annually speaks to thousands of young people.

Rev. Bartlett has recently authored a new book call "The Soul Patrol," a story about "young people who made a choice and found the real answer." The book apparently is based on Bartlett's experiences with youth in the Greater Philadelphia area.

Patrolled 300 Days

Belleville Auxiliary Cops Report on Year's Work

The Auxiliary Police were on patrol duty approximately 300 days in the year; for a total of approximately 3300 hours. Special areas of concentration of this activity was around the schools and other public buildings. They also assisted the regular police during emergencies, such as accidents or injuries. Two C.D. Police cars are at their disposal when we are engaged in this patrol.

In addition to the above, the Auxiliary Police participated in special events in the community such as parades, football games, meetings etc. They responded to special assignments during periods of emergencies, such as storms and fires etc. This is in addition to the patrol duty mentioned above. On these duties, 195 men responded and were on duty for a total of 850 hours.

A continual program of training is provided. Nine men attended the county training Civilian Defense School in Livingston, for 16 weeks. Further training is given at meetings, which are held monthly.

The Auxiliary Police officers conduct a school at the municipal shooting range, at which instructions are given on the safe and correct use of hand guns, and coach members in target practice with live ammunition.

All ammunition for this is paid from their fund. Approximately 500 hours of

Grow Fruit Trees In Full Sunshine

All fruits require full sunshine to produce heavy crops of high quality fruit, advises William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County.

The dwarf apple and pear trees that you may plant in your garden should be in full sun all day long. If you plant them where there is shade most of the day or even during part of the day, they will not be as vigorous and productive as if they are growing in full sun.

If they are growing in total shade they will not be at all productive and useless as fruit bearing trees. Sunshine is necessary for the production of fruit buds and also for the development of winter cold-hardiness.

School 8 Sports Night Draws A Huge Crowd

The Home School Association of School No. 8 was extremely pleased that over 300 children and 200 parents attended HSA Family Sports Night on Thursday, February 25.

Charles Miele, HSA School No. 8 president, said he had anticipated a crowd at this function, but was astonished to see "standing room only".

Much of the success is attributed to the HSA Executive Board of School 8 and the mothers who prepared and served refreshments.

Guest speakers for the evening were Warren Ceres, assistant Superintendent of recreation, John Senesky, Jr. High varsity coach and BHS twirler Miss Jackie Zatorski.

Two films were shown, one of a Belleville High football game and the other on baseball titled "Play Ball-Play Safe".

Following the films free door prizes were awarded. The prizes consisted of bats, baseballs, bats, badminton, kickballs, footballs, basketballs and a ping pong set.

Board of Education members Caesar Romano, and Matt Pica, together with mothers of School No. 8 served hot dogs and cold drinks to the children, and coffee and donuts to the parents near the end of the evening.

President Miele is hoping to make "Family Sports Night" an annual function.

The final session, on May 1, will be conducted by Mrs. F. Long of Belleville, who will give tips on how to keep a child busy while baby sitting.

The course is open to all boys and girls aged 13 up. Certificates will be presented to those students who attend all the sessions by Miss Ruth Williamson, President of Tri-Town. Applications may be obtained at the Guidance Department of local high schools, junior high schools, parochial schools and Red Cross Headquarters.

Senior Girl Scouts Revived As Troop

In September, Senior Girl Scout Troop 981 was revived as a practicing troop. The group meets every Tuesday night at the Dutch Reform Church on Main Street, Belleville.

The troop has become involved in a variety of activities such as a camping weekend in South Mountain, making hospital favors, a Halloween party at the church and collecting white cloth for the cancer drive.

Under the direction of their leaders, Mrs. E. Verhagen and Miss Anne Naso, the girls have also made signs for the Senior Scouts garage sale in Montclair and sold their quota of calendars.

There was also troop participation in the Veterans' Day parade and a co-ed ferry trip to Staten Island before the fall ended.

Dr. Seymour Fischer, chairman, announces that this will, in accordance with custom, honor an outstanding member and Mrs. Henry (Clara) Creditor has been designated for this honor.

She has served either as a chairman, or member of many major committees and was president of Sisterhood 1965-1967.

Mrs. Creditor and her husband, who is financial secretary of Ahavath Achim, have two sons, Bruce, a Belleville High School senior and Gary, a student at Columbia University and Jewish Theological Seminary.

A commemorative ad Journal is dedicated to Mrs. Creditor and will be released at the Testimonial Affair, which is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. on Sunday.

New Blackberries Ready For Planting

"Thornfree" and "Smoothskin" are new varieties of thornless blackberries ready this spring for you to plant in your garden.

Only recently named by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, they were found to be well adapted to New Jersey condition during tests at the Rutgers College of Agriculture and Environmental Science.

Bushes bear bright, flavorful fruit in late summer, and should fill many kitchens with the mouthwatering fragrance of blackberry pie fresh from the oven.

Mr. William F. Munk, senior county agent of Essex County recommends planting blackberries early in the spring, as soon as you can work the soil.

They need rich, well-drained soil and full sun.

Local Junior Club Urges Campaign For Model River

The Junior Women's Club of Belleville is conducting a letter writing campaign requesting that the Passaic River be the Model River choice of the Department of Interior.

All residents are urged to send letters to the Department of Interior, Washington, D.C. stating their desire that the Passaic River be cleaned up, since the final decision as to which river is ultimately chosen rests with that department.

For the convenience of Belleville residents, sample letters are available on the main desk of the Belleville Public Library.

If all cooperate we can make this site a beautiful sight.

Factory To Clean-Up Air One Man's Struggle Is Over

(Continued from page 1) Red Star division apparently has been relatively cooperative with the state. Crandall first contacted the state in 1968 complaining of the yeast smell in his neighborhood. The state responded by sending an investigator to the plant. As a result, Red Star was asked to clean up the odor by 1969.

According to Crandall, the odor did improve somewhat by the 1969 deadline, but residents were still displeased with the yeast smell emanating from the processing vats, particularly in the heat of summer.

Having placed his faith in the state agency and gotten little tangible results, Crandall admits he became a bit discouraged.

"I was disgusted with the state because nothing was really happening, so I talked to Vinnie (Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo of Belleville) who contacted the state again," Crandall says.

"This time after Vinnie called the state sent an inspector to my home asking me to get affidavits from the neighborhood. Eventually I rounded up 15 or more, although only four residents were subpoenaed to the hearing."

"A hearing was set for March 19, according to Lee Marshall of the State Department of Environmental Protection, who spoke to the Times-News Monday.

Marshall says Red Star waived its rights to the hearing just before it was to take place, and agreed to present a compliance program to meet the problem.

"They didn't actually admit to polluting the air," Marshall said. "they just admitted there may be a problem."

Nevertheless, Marshall continued, the agreement between Red Star and the state is binding. Marshall said the state agreed to waive the hearing "for convenience and speed," and that the company's move apparently was aimed at officially admitting guilt in case there may arise any personal damage law suits by residents.

In any case, Red Star has agreed to devise, purchase, install and operate pollution abatement equipment by March 1 of 1972. If the company fails to do so, it faces a maximum fine of $2,500 for each offense, beginning March 1, 1972.

This does not mean, however, the company could just put the thing off a year without doing anything, Marshall says. Apparently the state has set up a series of check points in which the company must account for its progress toward abatement. Marshall says the state has the power to drag the company into court at any of these points if compliance is lax.

Marshall says the timetable set is "reasonable" because pollution devices must be custom made and fitted. He also said the company promised to make efforts between now and March 1, 1972 to control any potential pollution from the factory.

"It's possible, however, people will still have the problem this summer," Marshall added.

Paul Crandall, meanwhile says he is happy with the results and says he's gotten his faith back in politicians.

"You figure one little guy doesn't have a voice," he said. "It's too bad it had to take so long but I'm certainly not disappointed."

The branch of the state environmental department which handled the complaint was the Metropolitan Office, which deals with pollution control in Union, Hudson, Passaic, Essex, Bergen and Middlesex counties. Last year the branch collected over $100,000 in fines, according to Marshall, who is supervisor of the office located in Springfield.

Marshall said residents with similar problems should contact his department at 648-2560.

Transportation Department Announces Receipt of Bids

The Department of Transportation today announced receipt of an apparent low bid of $412,465.20 from J. Fletcher Greiner & Sons, Inc., Fort Lee, on a highway improvement project for a short stretch of busy Route 9W in the Borough of Englewood Cliffs, Bergen County. Other bidders were: Della Pello Contracting Co., Inc., Union, $432,925.55; and Brewster Construction & Equipment Co., Hackensack, $528,543.65.

A Department official said that this interim project, which will facilitate the flow of traffic through a portion of a highway that becomes exceedingly congested with heavy traffic volumes, especially during the peak hours of the day, provides for the widening and resurfacing of Route 9W from John Street northerly to the vicinity of Demarest Avenue. Avenue also will be improved at its intersection with the state highway.

Regardless of what you earn, you're always in trouble if you spend more than that.

Says Arvidson
Auxiliary Cop Move 'Political'
for the election of a Board of Education candidate, Mathew Pica. The only thing we have in the auxiliary bylaws is that our organization should be non-political, but this doesn't prohibit a man speaking as an individual," Arvidson told the Times-News.
"When I spoke at the tea I didn't speak as the auxiliary deputy chief but as a former President of the Board of Education," he continued.
Arvidson also claims LaMotta gave two other reasons for the move; one being that "I hadn't asked him (LaMotta) to sit at a head table during some of our meetings," and "that I hadn't signed a card for one of the men to become a range officer at the pistol range."
"There was a question in my mind," Arvidson continued, "as to whether this man had been performing his duties."
LaMotta, however, says the only thing he said to Arvidson on the matter was that the move was designed to eliminate civilian brass. The Deputy Mayor said he did "pass some complaints on to Arvidson that he had received from some of the men, but said the complaints "had nothing to do with the job."
"I'm going to fight this thing," Arvidson told the Times. "I don't believe the police auxiliary should be a political arm for anyone."
"LaMotta was campaign manager for Ken Smith and was later appointed director of Civilian Defense by him," Arvidson continued.
"I think the job abolishment was political because he (LaMotta) heard rumors I was becoming a candidate for the Commission election."
LaMotta says, however, "the first I'd heard he might be a candidate was when he told me so in person, and this was after I told him about the job change."

NORAD Program At Kiwanis Club

The North American Air Defense Command, which has the basic task of defending the North American continent from air attack by hostile nations, was one of the topics covered at a special program presented to the Branch Brook Belleville Kiwanis Club at Parrillo's Restaurant on February 23.

The voices of Arthur Emerson, public relations supervisor for New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., and Major John Haworth, an officer of NORAD at Colorado Springs, Colo., were broadcast through a loudspeaker so that the audience could hear the discussion of NORAD's duties.

Emerson noted that NORAD is a joint operation of the defense forces of the United States and Canada. It is comprised of radar detachments, fighter interceptor squadrons and missile units of the U.S. Air Force, the Army, Navy and Royal Canadian Air Force.

The NORAD combat elements are armed with supersonic jet fighters, armed with rockets and missiles; the Air Force's Bomarc ground-to-air missile; and the Army's Nike missiles.

NJEA Post To Rosamilia

Michael T. Rosamilia assistant superintendent of schools in Belleville has been appointed to a statewide committee by the New Jersey Education Assn.

Rosamilia's appointment is to the NJEA Legislative Committee, which maintains contact with legislators and other political leaders to promote NJEA's legislative goals.

Mrs. Frances Carnochan of Trenton, NJEA's president, announced the appointment today. The Legislative Committee is among the most prestigious of the Association's many committees.

The committee is organized to conform with the State Legislature's Assembly and Senate districts with legislative sub-chairmen in every local teacher association in the state.

Committee members keep teachers informed on NJEA's legislative proposals and on the status of bills based on these proposals. The Legislative Committee member becomes the spokesman for teachers with the State Senator and Assemblyman representing the district.

The committee's top legislative goals this year include strengthening New Jersey's Public Employment Relations' Act, removing inequities in the incomes of retired teachers and securing increased state aid to local school districts.

Strong Crew For Giuffrida

The first year as a varsity coach is not always a mentor's best, and generally he has to play his cards carefully to have a good season, at all. But with the advantages that Belleville's new varsity crew coach has, the deck is loaded in his favor.

Sam Giuffrida is taking over as Belleville's varsity crew coach this season, and for him, the prospects of the rookie year look very bright.

The Junior High School Social Studies teacher has been Belleville's junior varsity and freshman coach for six years, which means he has been with this year's varsity shell for as many years as they've been rowing.

For eight of the nine varsity crew members, this will be their fourth year, as there will only be one junior in the starting boat and the rest will be seniors. This veteran shell will be out to improve upon the 7-3 record posted in 1970 during Mike Lally's last season.

Five Returning Lettermen

This year there are five returning lettermen to the varsity shell, two more than last season. John Atherton tops the list of veterans as the three-sport senior will be in the number five seat for his third varsity season.

Almost the whole stern of the shell will consist of second year varsity oarsmen. Stroke Jack Ferso will be in his second year, as will number seven man Jim Drexler.

For the front section of the shell, Belleville has Frank Marano returning at three and Tom Jones at four.

The fourth stern position will be filled by Mike Marano at the number six seat. Mike did row varsity last year for part of the season, but did not letter and this year seems to have the position "knocked in there" according to Giuffrida.

The only two positions still up for grabs are the bow spot and number two. Either Brian Waddell or John Resciniti, both seniors, will have the forwardmost position, while the number two seat will be the only one to be filled by an underclassman. In this position, juniors Henri De France and Angelo Sanzato will be looking to break into the varsity boat.

The eighth senior in the shell will be one who has perhaps the most important single position to winning races. This is Bob Zarra, the best candidate for the coxswain's seat.

Bob has moved up a shell each year that he's been out for crew, giving him experience with each of the members of this season's varsity shell. In his freshman year, he was the number one coxie of five candidates. His sophomore year saw him pilot the third varsity shell behind two upper-classmen, and his junior year was when he controlled the JV shell.

Bellboys To Seek Revenge

Next Saturday will be the first race for this strong Belleville shell, and after a humiliating defeat last year in the Goodwill Regatta, Belleville will definitely be looking for revenge over Kearny.

The race will just be a dual meet so all sights will be on just this one opponent.

For the rest of the season, Belleville has three other dual meets, three tri-meets, and three regattas. The Hun School, Blessed Sacrament, and Poughkeepsie will be the single opponents. Tri-meets will be against Atlantic City-Arlington, Lower Merion-Harrington, and Upper Merion-Kearny. The only time for this season that Belleville will beat Nutley oops, it should have been meet) will be May 29 in the annual Goodwill Regatta, the last race of the season, where Belleville, Nutley and Kearny climax their season rivalry.

Other big regattas for the Bellboys will include the Mid-Hudson Invationals (formerly known as the Poughkeepsie Regatta) on May 8, and the National Schoolboy Championships. This season Belleville will enter in the senior division of the Nationals and almost the entire shell is too old to meet the 17½ years age requirement for the juniors division as other shells in the past have done.

Junior Varsity Also Strong

Belleville's future strength also appears quite good this season, as the junior varsity oarsmen are evenly split between juniors and sophomores. Former Bellboy oarsman Tony Sorrentino will take on the junior varsity coaching position and frosh position for his first season.

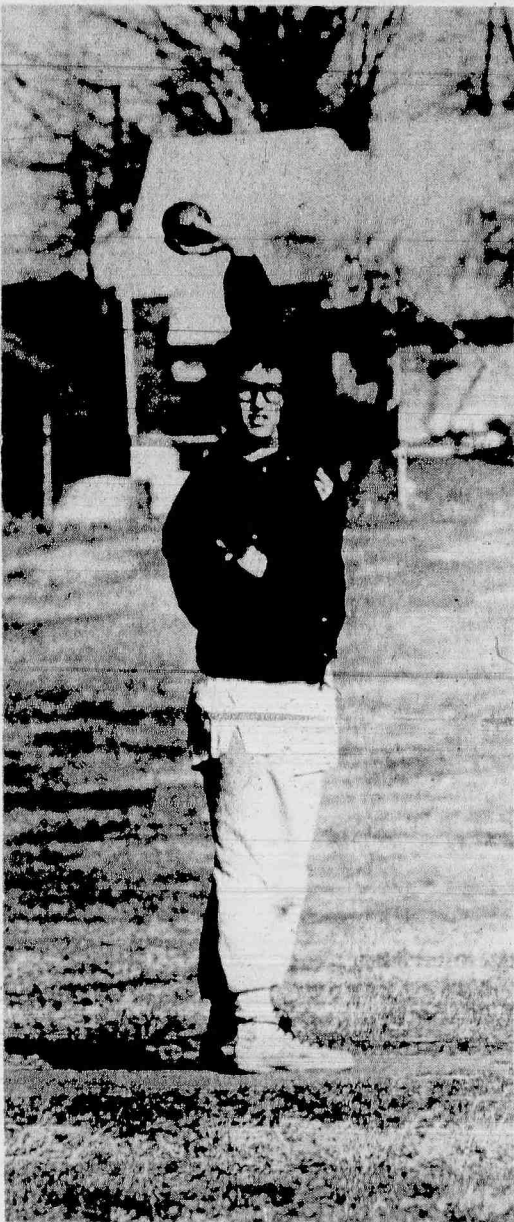

Sorrentino's shell has been noted to be "pretty close to the varsity" in strength and speed by both the head coach and the oarsmen of the varsity themselves. Juniors in this shell will be Steve Rovell, Gary Haight, Joe Covey, and the unlucky man in the DeFrance-Sanzato battle for varsity. The sophomore class will then provide the other four oarsmen, as well as the coxswain, Fred Arena. The frosh shell is also classed as "big and strong" with "very interested" helping brighten their future.

For a typical work-out the varsity shell has been doing ten to twelve miles a day, often changing the pace with quarter mile races or "pairs" in which two members of the varsity and jayvee shells pull the rest of the boat to test their strength. When there's "no water" (in other words the tide is out) the shells often go at it in the morning before school to get in the hour and a half practice time. One of the time's this was done was on the date of the Wrestling District, when the team wanted to watch four of their men in competition. The support evidently helped, as all four won their preliminary rounds that night.

Joyce Sparks Zig Zag Five

By Warren Ceres

The Zig Zags took the first game in the Recreation Mens League playoffs 60 to 58, the "Zags" called upon Tom Joyce to counteract the Circles leading rebounder Bill Rush. Tom not only kept Bill away from the boards but also scored a career high of 21 points.

It looked like an easy night for the high scoring Zig Zags, at the end of the first half they held a commanding 36 to 25 edge. In the third and fourth quarters the tempo of the game changed. Art Sheridan and James Catalano started to cut the lead of the Zig Zags. At one point in the game James hit eight consecutive field goals, plus one free throw, Jim finished the evening with a total of 21 points.

The margin of victory came from the free throw line. The Circles shot a poor 40 percent while the Zig Zags managed to hit on 70 percent of their attempts. Both teams were even in their field goal percentage with each hitting on 43 percent.

SENIOR Tom Vitiello gives the shot a mighty heave during track practice. Tom, also a football star, is expected to contribute heavily to the team this season.

Best In Years?

Powerful Spring Squads Ready For April Action

Four Belleville High School varsity sports will kick-off their spring seasons in April, and from the looks of things, the school might have one of its best all-around spring seasons in quite a while.

The baseball team starts its campaign with a home game against Big Ten opponent Orange on Friday, April 2. The following Tuesday perennial powerhouse Montclair comes to Municipal Stadium to give the Bellboys a quick and stiff test.

This year's baseball squad boasts the return of a strong nucleus of veterans, including

All-Star third baseman Frank Petite and senior shortstop Joe Papasidero. The two sluggers hit .449 and .360 respectively, and are good bets to catch the eyes of fans and scouts the entire season.

Also being counted upon for support is the plate, is junior catcher Gary Falkman, who hit only .250 last year, but showed some tremendous power and potential.

Senior rightfielder Charlie Ziegler will also be a big plus in the Bellboy lineup. Ziegler, who missed several practice sessions the past week with a sprained ankle, is expected to return to the lineup for opening day.

The 1971 track team also figures to have one of its best seasons ever with the return of ten lettermen to the ranks. The ten men represent veteran strength in all 13 events, and should be a big factor for the squad which opens its season on April 5 at Passaic.

Perhaps the strongest of all the spring squads will be the BHS crew, which has a solid core of veterans returning and a spirited new coach, Sam Giuffrida. The squad opens against rival Kearny on the Passaic River Saturday, April 3.

The 1971 gold squad under coach Michael Salzarulo also hopes to improve on last year's campaign, and will be facing a schedule made up almost exclusively of Big Ten opponents.

The only exception on the schedule is St. Benedict's the final meet of the season on May 24.

The duffers are set to open their campaign (weather permitting) on Friday, April 2 at Columbia, a tough Big Ten opponent.

Celtics Score Overtime Win

The Belleville Recreation Senior League playoffs started with the first place Celtics taking on the fourth place Bucks. After a rough first period the Celtics held a slim four-point eight to four.

Ronald Muscara and Frank Russomano each scored four points apiece, while Richard DellaTerza scored the Bucks only points.

At the end of the first half the Bucks had cut the lead to two points, due to the fact that both teams were shooting poorly. Wayne Martin made a lay-up with three seconds remaining in the third quarter to push the Celtics ahead by a score of 26 to 15.

Richard DellaTerza found the range and brought the Bucks to a two point lead 33 to 31 with 36 seconds left in the game. The Celtics came back to tie the score and send the game into overtime.

With only thirteen seconds remaining in the overtime period Frank Russomano stepped to the foul line to sink two shots that resulted in a victory for the Celtics.

C.C. and Co. seeded third in the playoffs as a result of a forfeit loss, took on the second place Falcons and defeated them 44 to 22.

C.C. and Co. jumped off to a 14 to eight lead behind the shooting of Mike Dougherty and Bob Garthwaite. The Celtics rallied as Frank Calabrese and Mike Calia brought them within two points at the half 24 to 22.

Behind Frank's six points in the third period the Celtics cut C.C. and Co.'s lead to only one point. The Celtics lost their top rebounder Kent Robinson on fouls at the end of the third quarter, and this had a disastrous effect on the outcome of the game. Al Roberts sent the game into overtime with a desperation shot that was good. Dave Brown of C.C. and Co. scored four points in overtime to give his team the victory.

Bellgirls Score Initial Cage Victory of Year

By John McCarthy

The Bellgirls varsity basketball team closed their season last week with their first win, a 37-12 trouncing of Irvington's girl's team.

For the first time, the Bellgirls had three players score in double figures. The only other time that any Bellgirl hit this mark was when Cindy Ferro led the team with ten points against North Arlington earlier this season.

This time Brenda Cameron was the high scorer with 11 points. The Belleville High School Student Government President tallied six points in the third quarter. Brenda sank five field goals and went one for two from the free throw line.

Second high scoring for the team was shared by Martha Peldunas and Joyce Brechtbill with 10 points each.

"Marty" was the high scorer for the season with a total of 23 points, playing in only three games after suffering an ankle injury before the season started. Against Irvington she scored on four shots from the floor and went two for three from the foul line. Marty was the team's high scorer in the Verona game, where she scored nine of the team's 21 points.

Joyce's ten points gave her a total of 22 for the season, to place second. Joyce scored her 10 points on two first period two-pointers, one in the second period and two in the third.

Debbie Maloney scored the rest of the team's points. In the first quarter she put in a field goal, and then went 4-7 from the foul line in the next three quarters for six points. Debbie finished the season with 19 points, being the only Belleville player to score

Knicks Nipped 22-20

The Supersonics defeated the Knicks 22 to 20 gain the championship in the Belleville Recreation Junior League.

Abdel Anderson was the Supersonics as well as the games leading scorer with 15 points. There were only two other players on the Supersonics that scored, Allen Amianowith four points, and Tony Nicosia scored three points. This was the first game in over a month that Tony played in, after the third game of the season he had to have his appendix removed.

At the end of the first half, the score was tied at eleven points all. Paul Frank was the leading scorer for the Knicks with eight points, followed by Dennis Berger with six, Neal Scheffer had five and Joe Petrillo tossed in one point.

The Knicks had to play without the services of Victor Pasquariello, who is still recovering from a leg injury. Victor's inability to play changed the offensive strategy of the Knicks. Paul Frank did a fine job filling in as the quarterback of the BRENDA CAMERON shows aggressive defense as she gets her hands on an Irvington ball. The SGO president and team captain led the girls team with 11 points in their first victory. Ready to assist are Debbie Maloney (44) and Debbie Corino (23).

JOYCE Brechtbill (33) puts up a one hander during Belleville's girl's victory over Irvington, for two of her ten points. Viewing the action are Karen Smith (25) and Debbie Maloney (44).

BECK'S COLUMN

Once in a while a customer asks us whether the present 25" color TV picture is the largest available and whether we expect larger pictures soon. It does not appear that way.

During the days of Black and White TV there were a number of 27" picture tubes in use. The largest we had was a 30" size tube made by Dumont. It lasted for a short time only and for many years the standard sizes were 23 and a few 24" tubes.

For a short period of time there was a projection system, about 6' by 8'. This also never became popular. One of the drawbacks was that it did not have much brightness. One had to look at it in a completely dark room. It also lacked sharpness. Looking at it for a long time became quite fatiguing. All of this was about 25 years ago. In the meantime lots of progress has been made and no doubt one could have a black and white TV set with sufficient brightness plus a sharp picture in the size of 6' X 8' today. Some labs work on a projection system for color TV right now, while others work on the so-called "picture frame" system. It looks as if we will have to wait for quite a while until we have a much larger color TV picture available. We service what we sell. Beck's Radio TV HI FI 667-4225

GOING UP for the score is Debbie Maloney (44) of Belleville's girls basketball team. Watching the only Bellgirl to score in all five games this season are Brenda Cameron (10) and Marty Peldunas (13), the high scorers for the Irvington game with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Top Irvington Bellgirls Score First

A one point third quarter cost Belleville's Girls Basketball team their first win for the season. The fencers had been leading Verona 15-12 at the half, but were out scored 9-1 in the fatal period as Verona went on to take the game 29-21.

Martha Peldunas took over as lead scorer for the Bellgirls as she contributed nine points to the score. "Marty" put in a field goal every quarter except the third, and went 3-8 from the free throw line.

The junior now has a total of 13 points for the two games that she has played. Ahead of her in team scoring are Cindy Ferro with 18 points and Debbie Maloney with 16.

Maloney was the number three scorer for the Bellgirls in last week's contest with three points. She is the only member of the squad to have scored in all four games, scoring four against Nutley, three against North Arlington, six against Kearny where she was high scorer, and third last week.

For the second time this season, Joyce Brechtbill scored six points in the game to bring her season total to 12. The senior sank two free throws and two field goals.

Also scoring for the Bellgirls were Brenda Cameron with a two pointer and Debbie Corino with one foul shot, the only tally in the third period.

Verona got off to a slight lead, topping Belleville 9-8 in the first quarter. Four points by Marty and three by Maloney helped the Bellgirls gain their half time lead as they outscored Verona 7-3 in the second quarter. After the 9-1 catastrophe in the third quarter, Verona stretched the lead by outscoring Belleville 8-5 in the final quarter.

High scorer for the victors was C. Taylor with nine points.

After winning their first contest, the jayvee girls teamrvned their record with a close 10-9 loss to Verona. Yvonne Brown was the high jayvee scorer with six of the nine points. Yvonne scored four in the third quarter to tie the score 8-8 after Verona led 8-4 from the first quarter. Verona won the game as they scored from the floor in the final period, while all Belleville scored was a foul shot.

Steven Rovell Elected President Of Belleville High School Club

By Tom Toto

The Belleville High School Key Club recently held its 1971 annual elections. President Frank Marano announced the nominees for the office of President—Steve Rovell and Mark Stabinski. Steve is presently serving as vice-President and Mark is an active member. President Marano closed the floor for nominations and the voting began. The results favored Steve Rovell, and Mark won the vice-presidential election which followed. Steve plans to have an active year and hopes to carry on what the club has been doing this year and introduce some new ideas. Everyone agrees that Steve will do a good job and that the club will be helped by these two officers.

Anthony Calabrese, an active sophomore, was elected secretary of the club. Frank Arena was elected treasurer, John Mustachio, senior representative, and Martin Goor, junior representative.

The club has been active lately constructing basketball backboards in the student parking lot and ushering at school activities. One of the year's main events, the Student-Faculty Annual Tea, is coming up. Each female faculty member will be escorted to the tea by a Key Clubber.

Belleville High Political Club Helps Voters

By Marylou Martin

Upon graduation from Belleville High, most students will be reaching the new voting age of 18. In order to make an educated choice, it is necessary to have some understanding of politics. This understanding is being offered by the BHS Political Club.

Under the leadership of president Mary Oertel, the club also attempts to further the students' interest in political science. With the assistance of Mr. Anthony Cahill, club advisor, Mary calls meetings and arranges for speakers and outside activities.

A senior, Miss Oertel is also a member of the Debating Club, Future Teacher Club, Ski Club, Booster Club, and Monad. She would like to attend Montclair State College and major in history.

The club's 45 members have heard talks by the Honorable Peter Rodino Jr., and Mr. Griffith Jones. Other club officers include Laurie Fuchs, vice-president, Nicholas D'Alessandro, treasurer, and Sharon Rockaway, secretary.

Choir Performs At School One

By Richard Record

Friday, March 19, the Belleville High School Choir performed in concert at School No. 1, at the corner of Rutgers and Cortlandt Street. The Chorus is comprised of about forty-five vocalists and is conducted by Dr. Samuel Peck. Bruce Creditor and Susan Griwert, both members of the chorus, accompanied the group on piano.

Let it not be said that the chorus is limited in its choice of songs, for at the No. 1 concert it sang songs ranging from Johannes Brahms to the modern sound of Bert Bacharach. Each song is selected by a majority of the chorus, guaranteeing the best songs of varied authors.

The concert at No. 1 was a success, and the people of Belleville can look forward to many more.

Thomas A. Garvey, who represents State Farm Insurance in the Nutley area, today received an advance copy of the firm's year-end report. In the report from State Farm president Edward B. Rust, Garvey was told that the world's largest insurer made $27.1 million on its auto insurance business in 1970. Investment earnings were $53.2 million. Profits, including $1.1 million from miscellaneous sources and after federal taxes of $2.5 million, amounted to $78,986,328.

The company-wide earnings were equivalent to 4.8 per cent of 1970 sales (earned premiums and membership fees) of $1,643,989,152. Garvey said the year's results compared favorably with those of 1969, when the company lost $91.6 million on its insurance operations and had investment income of $63.5 million. Sales in 1969 were $1.4 billion.

Scala noted the chairman's service record for the Cancer Crusade and called on DiGiovanni "to make use of the wealth of knowledge accumulated in those years of dedicated effort as a weapon to penetrate the cloud of general apathy and to arouse the public's consciousness to action. # Nutley Symphony Adds Members

Among the new faces in evidence at the Wednesday evening rehearsals of the local Symphony Orchestra are a number of young Nutleyites in the string section.

Added to the violin section in the past year are Della Smith, Lori Smith, Florence Danzig, Karen Lee and Patricia Bossert under the supervision of Mr. Leonard Tobias, local violinist and instructor. The cello section has been enhanced by Karen Hoogerhyde who is a music major at Montclair State College.

Also attending the rehearsals in Nutley High School, in preparation for an April 18 concert, are Dennis Maguire and Philip Vella in the trombone section. The latter performer is a music major in Jersey City State College.

As a student in training in the bassoon section is Bela Schwartz who is studying the instrument with a professional teacher in New York City.

Last but not least of the new Nutley musicians in the orchestra is Mitchell Karlan, a percussionist who plays the snare and bass drums in the current program.

Among the loyal and dedicated senior members of the orchestra from our community are Messrs. John Clark, Wendell Smith and Thomas Wilkinson in the violin section, Wendell Tietsworth, violinist, and Dr. Robert Eldridge, trombonist.

The Nutley Symphony Orchestra is under the leadership of its conductor and music director, Dr. Ernest Ersfeld, a Nutley musician and music educator. The entire group is currently preparing a program which includes the Outdoor Overture of Copland, the Piano Concerto in A by Schumann, Mozart's "Prague" Symphony No. 38 in D major, and the second Hungarian Rhapsody by Liszt.

The Nutley Group is one of the oldest and best known community symphony orchestras in New Jersey and has a performing membership of fifty musicians.
