

Churches Plan Rock Opera 'Jesus Christ Superstar' Set

By Nat Gottlieb

A multi-media presentation of the controversial rock opera, "Jesus Christ, Superstar," will highlight Holy Week Observances for Belleville churches.

The opera, which has drawn both enthusiastic praise and blasts of condemnation from critics and theologians, will be presented in two performances tomorrow night at 8 and 9:30 p.m. at Bethany Lutheran Church.

The event is being sponsored by the Belleville Ministerium, largely because of the efforts of the Ministerium's young, progressive chairman, Rev. Albert E. Alspach of Bethany Lutheran.

The rock opera, which begins with the words "What's the buzz? Tell me what's happening," is set during the last seven days of Christ's life, and places emphasis on Jesus the man rather than Jesus the deity.

The musical piece is authored by two young Englishmen, Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, and has been on the best selling charts here and abroad ever since its release.

More importantly, says Rev. Alspach, the rock opera's emphasis on Jesus the man appears to be stirring a revival of interest in Christ, especially among the young.

The Ministerium's presentation of the work will consist of the playing of the opera over several large speakers hooked up in the church and will be accompanied by a visual flurry of slides and motion pictures flashing on five screens suspended from the rafters.

The overall effect of the multi-media presentation will approximate that of a rock show equipped with dynamic lighting and overpowering sound.

Rev. Alspach, who last year convinced the Ministerium to sponsor a "death vigil" on Good Friday, apparently has succeeded in gaining approval from his fellow clergyman for the project.

"I have had three study groups conducted on the opera with some of the older people to introduce them to it," Rev. Alspach told the Times-News Monday.

"I think the people who take the trouble to listen to it will find it a very profound and religious experience, and one entirely appropriate for Good Friday," Rev. Alspach continued.

The Ministerium is also holding a joint service at noon in Wesley Methodist Church on Good Friday, apparently for those churchgoers who prefer more staid observances.

If all goes according to plan, Rev. Alspach says he expects over 200 people for each of the evening performance services, and indicated he would hold a third "if the response is great

Positions Today

Commission Race Draws Fourteen

Fourteen residents apparently think they've got what it takes to govern this politically active, often unpredictable town of some 35,000 plus.

Only five of these candidates will find seats on the Belleville Town Commission after ballots are cast on election day, May 11. But between now and then, all 14 of them will be hustling around town hoping to snare enough votes to avoid being an also-ran.

Drawing for ballot positions is scheduled today at 3 p.m. in Commission Chambers, according to Town Clerk Eugene Barnett.

The 14 candidates, in alphabetical order are Mrs. Ruth Dillon, N. Tony Fernandes, Robert Laterza, James Golden, Sal LaMorte, Michael Marotti, Joseph McGreevy, Julius Minuskin, Nicholas Raimo, Rocco Saletta, Michael Salvato, Mrs. Mary Senatore, Kenneth Smith and Vincent Strumolo.

Three other residents had petitions outstanding, but apparently decided against running. They were Ernest Arvidson, Angelo DeMarzo and William Felty.

Included in the list of candidates are incumbent Mayor Smith and Commissioners Senatore, McGreevy and Strumolo.

The race also includes three former town officials; Laterza, a councilman and former Mayor; Golden, a councilman, and Saletta, a former Board of Education president.

Also on the list is a local detective, Marotti. The remainder of the field has not previously held public office in Belleville.

The usual number of press releases filtered into the Times-News mailbox this week. Of note, was the expected endorsement by the membership of 819 Amalgamated Transit Union for Golden, who is a bus driver.

Grippaldi- National Honors

By Bob Cook

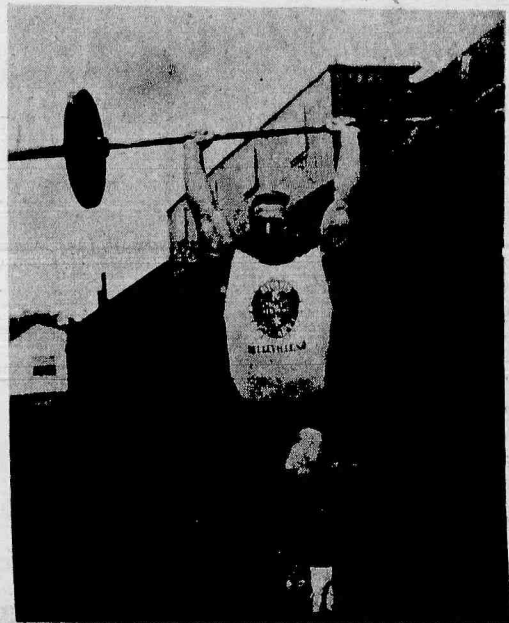

Belleville's Phil Grippaldi has brought new honor to our town. He has been elected America's "Weightlifter of the Year" for 1970 and is featured in a write-up in Strength and Health magazine.

Phil's pictures are on the cover of the April issue of that magazine which is the official weightlifting journal of this continent. The article announcing Phil's selection for this honor describes his training and attitudes as well as the history of his meteoric rise in the sport of weightlifting. As if this were not enough, Phil has also been chosen as a member of the honorary "Weightlifting Team of the Decade."

Phil began weightlifting back in 1960, gravitated to the Recreation Department Weightlifting Program at the Municipal Stadium gym, and then rapidly rose to international prominence in his chosen sport.

He lifted a most creditable total of 735 lbs. in his first official contest in 1964. For the next three years he increased his total nearly 100 lbs. per year. His list of contests won, records set and great achievements is just too long to fit a newspaper article.

Glass In Farina

Strumolo Warns Of Food Danger

Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, director of Public Affairs, warned consumers that some boxes of farina cereal manufactured by the Pillsbury Company, Minneapolis, Minn., at its Springfield, Ill. plant, and distributed nationally may contain glass particles and should not be used.

The commissioner further stated that the product, marketed in retail stores under the brand name "Farina enriched quick cooking wheat cereal," is sold in 2 1/2 ounce cartons or in cases containing 12 cartons each. Two codes of the cereal, which were produced last November 23 and 24 are thought by Pillsbury to be (Continued on Page 3)

Plan Final Bus Hearing

Residents will have their chance to protest the proposed discontinuance of the No. 37 bus line at a public hearing Thursday, April 22 at 8 p.m. in Belleville Town Hall.

Presiding at the meeting will be a hearing officer for the state Public Utilities Commission (PUC) the regulatory body which has been asked to approve a petition for dropping the line by Public Service Coordinated Transport.

The hearing for residents was originally called two weeks ago, at Town Hall, but Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato and School Board Counsel Max Schwartz requested and were granted an adjournment of that meeting. The attorneys objected to residents testifying before Public Service had presented its case for discontinuance, charging such procedure would allow the utility to prepare its case using residents' testimony.

Public Service presented its case Friday in PUC offices in Newark, with both Amato and Max Schwartz in attendance. The utility is basing its case for discontinuance on claims the No. 37 line is losing money annually and that there exists alternate service for residents.

The line is a twisting, meandering one, which travels numerous local streets, passing by six Belleville schools and Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Public Service claims it lost $3,156,607 in 1970 for its total statewide operations. It also says that in January of this year losses have totaled $866,984, and for February, the figure is $567,131.

The No. 37 line, according to the utility, lost $8,627 last year. A traffic manager for Public Service said his company figures the line produces $6.19 an hour while costs average out to $9.43 an hour, based on wage figures and other normal operating expenses. This comes to an hourly loss of $2.73 according (Continued on Page 9)

Two Rookie Cops Nab Fleeing Theft Suspect

Two rookie cops nailed a robbery suspect last Friday, and have received special commendation this week from Mayor Ken Smith and Police Chief Joseph Smith.

The two local patrolmen are William Escott, 25, and James Vuocolo, 23.

The incident concerned a breaking and entering and larceny in an apartment at 27 Rocco Street last Friday. Barbara Van Syckel, victim of the robbery, said she was visiting at another apartment in the building when she heard a noise from her home.

Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight said Miss Van Syckel found a young man dashing from her apartment as she entered it.

Miss Van Syckel supplied police with a description of the man and it was dispatched to all cars. Vuocolo and Escott saw a man fitting the description in front of the Franklin Taxi Co. on Franklin Avenue, and arrested him. The suspect is a 25 year old Newark man, and is being charged with breaking and entry and larceny. He is also charged with possession of a hypodermic needle and possession of burglary tools, according to Haight.

Haight also said assorted jewelry was reported missing. The suspect is being held in lieu of $5,000 bail pending a hearing next Thursday before Municipal Court Judge Ed.

Special Services Planned

Besides the two community-wide Holy Week services being sponsored by the Belleville Ministerium, observances are scheduled at many individual churches in town:

*Belleville Congregation of God will hold Easter Sunday services at 10 a.m.

*Belleville Reformed Church has scheduled Maundy Thursday Holy Communion tonight at eight. Easter Sunday worship is scheduled at 11 a.m.

*Bethany Lutheran will hold Maundy Thursday worship at 6:30 p.m. In addition to the special community wide Good Friday services scheduled for 8 and 9:30 p.m., Holy Saturday observances are planned tomorrow at 11:15 p.m. and Easter Sunday at 11 a.m.

*Fewsmith Presbyterian Church plans Maundy Thursday services beginning at eight tonight. Two services on Easter Sunday are planned

A Palm Sunday John Pontrella Won't Forget

Young John Pontrella got more than he bargained for when he went to Palm Sunday services.

The 12 year old resident of 237 New Street left St. Peter's R.C. Church after services and headed for his grandmother's house with the traditional palm leaves.

About 20 yards from the church however, John found he had apparently picked up an escort for his palm leaves. The escort turned out to be two goats, whose motivations for providing the escort were obviously gastric in nature. It seems the two goats were nibbling at poor John's palms (the leaves that is), and were prepared to follow him to the ends of the earth to partake of the tasty morsels.

Despite the fact John was a bit frightened, he wasn't about to abandon his palm leaves to two goats. So the 12 year old did a "fast walk" to his granny's at 75 Hornblower Avenue.

Not to be deprived of a good Sunday meal by a fast walking 12 year old, the two goats did some quick stepping of their own, and arrived at granny's house right on John's (Continued on Page 9)

Hold Up Suspect Sought

Belleville detectives are searching for a man who held up the Domestic Finance Corp. at 235 Washington Avenue Thursday and made off with a large, undisclosed amount of cash.

Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight said the suspect is in his mid 40's, and fled the scene on foot at about 3:30 p.m.

According to Haight, who heads the local detective bureau, the man apparently entered the finance office on the pretext of obtaining a loan. No one was injured.

Haight has assigned detectives Martin Natale and Frank Falcone to the case. Composite sketches of the suspect are expected to be circulated.

enough." The pastor hopes to draw alot of the town's younger people into the church with the multi-media presentation, and hopes to have the service announced this week at Belleville High School.

Rev. Alsapach sees the controversial rock opera as "an attempt to present a human Jesus, a hero, a superstar, in order to make him more relevant to our own time."

"The young people identify with the social reformer, the friend of sinners, rather than their judge," Pastor Alsapach says. They see him as "the radical, the revolutionary who called upon all men to love in a way which could change the course of history."

"The future is open and we can hope, not despair. This is seen in the life and death of Christ. What the world thought to be the ultimate put down, death, in reality turned out to be new life; radical reformation of life, as seen in this man called Jesus Christ, Superstar."

Rev. Alsapach's opinions echo similar praise from such national weekly magazines as TIME and NEWSWEEK.

TIME said the work Williams Reintroduces Bill For FBI To Enter Killings - U.S. Sen. Harrison A. Williams, Jr., (D-NJ) today plans to re-introduce legislation which would bring the full resources of the FBI into the hunt for the killers of policemen and firemen if the criminals were not apprehended within 24 hours.

Sen. Williams noted that he introduced a similar measure in the 91st Congress and hearings were held on it and similar bills. No final action was taken.

"occupies the same assimilative position in the pop world that Ginastera's Don Rodrigo does in serious opera...It rivals the St. John and St. Mathew Passions of Bach—in ambition and scope, if not in piety or musical exaltation."

According to NEWSWEEK, Superstar "trespasses on a sublime musical terrain" and on "sacred religious belief" but gets away with it: "It is nothing short of brilliant—and reverent."

career, Phil was national Teen-Age Champion in 1966 and 1967, Junior National Champion in 1967, Y.M.C.A. National Champion in 1967 and 1968, Senior National Champion in 1967, 1968 and 1970 and he won the Pan-American Championship in 1967 and represented the United States in the 1968 Olympics. Phil also placed fifth in the 1968 World Championships and won the silver medal in the 1970 World Championships.

Although Phil is almost always a winner he has had his reverses and has always risen above them. The year before his Junior and Senior National Championships he had placed second in each event. Never one to settle for second best Phil attacked his training with new fervor and redoubled dedication. He returned the next year to win the gold in both events.

In 1969, after reigning two years as the nations number one lifter Phil was defeated in Chicago. A lesser man might have crumbled with such a loss, not Phil, it was back to the hard training and onward and upward.

Last year Phil Grippaldi not only won his championship back but set a new National Record of 1090 pounds in the process. This was followed by the silver medal in the World Championships.

Then, on January 9 at the Philadelphia Open where Phil had intended only to be a spectator, he was asked to lift. He really demonstrated his quality by responding-unprepared to this request and winning the contest with yet another National Record of 1100 pounds.

affected. The contaminated product, FDA said, can be identified by the codes "KOW23" or "KOW24" imprinted on the top or bottom of the cereal cartons.

Pillsbury learned of the problem after a Connecticut resident complained of glass particles in Farina Cereal earlier this month. Acting on the complaint, Pillsbury checked plant records, examined samples, and linked the problem to glass processing. The company then informed FDA it would recall the product from retail level.

New information obtained by FDA this week indicates distribution of the cereal was national. But no injuries associated with it have been reported, FDA said.

A Scandal In The Making?

We reprint below an editorial which appeared in the Thursday, April 1, 1971, issue of The Herald News and follow it with supplemental information of which we have personal knowledge.

"WHAT GOES ON HERE?" FORMER Mayor Frank X. Graves of Paterson seems to be trying to call public attention to something unusual in the conduct of Passaic County's business affairs.

The unusual aspects concern the purchase of tractors by the county. Mr. Graves, who is now a member of the Passaic County Park Commission, got wind of an attempt by the manufacturer to repossess a $6,800 tractor used by the park commission. The county is supposed to have paid for the tractor. Mr. Graves prevented the seizure of the tractor by posting park policemen to guard it.

The county was not so lucky in the case of another tractor, which cost $14,900 and was used by the county road department. It was repossessed and reposes in Plainfield. The county is also supposed to have paid in full for this tractor. However, in both instances the county officials were not able to find any proof of ownership.

It happens that the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission, which has connections with the political machines in Paterson, also bought two pieces of equipment from the same source as the county — without getting bills of sale. Frank Orechio of Nutley, former chairman of the water commission, blew the whistle on the deal.

The county purchases were made before the present Democratic administration took over the reins of the county government. The names of two well-known figures in Passaic County Republican circles, Sam Cohen and John Niccolai, president and secretary-treasurer respectively of the Meat Cutters Union, have been mentioned in connection with the purchases. Mr. Cohen was president of the county park commission when the purchases were made, and Mr. Niccolai was a freeholder and chairman of the roads and bridges committee, which handled the purchase of the vanished road department tractor.

There are other intriguing details which ought to excite the curiosity of the state grand jury to the point where it would take a look into the situation in Passaic County. The state grand jury would be the proper agency because the Passaic County prosecutor could not do the job. His staff is riddled with appointments made by the Meat Cutters Union. Mr. Graves has performed a useful service in calling attention to the goings-on in Passaic County government. It would be a shame if his signals were ignored just because he is a Democratic politician.

The story of the tractors throws light on a comment made recently by a municipal official in Passaic County. He said that county officials keep inviting participation by his municipality in the county purchasing system. "If we could save money by buying through the county we'd do so in a minute," he said. "But if we bought through the county we'd have to pay more, not less. We have found that we can buy for less ourselves."

AND WE AGREE with the request by The Herald News that the State Grand Jury conduct an investigation.

Our request is based upon the experience the undersigned is having as a member of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission. Here are facts which a State Grand Jury should ponder:

NJDWSC Purchase Order No. 21009 was issued to the Franklin Equipment Company, Post Office Box 1388, Paterson, New Jersey for one Allis

Chalmers Loader Crawler at a cost of $17,379 less a trade-in of $1,500. There was no such authority in the minutes and the records of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission. Despite this fact the majority of the Commission members approved payment of the invoice covering the purchase order. The purchase order was dated December 21, a Commission meeting was held December 22 and there is no record in the Commission minutes of this transaction. The receipt for the Allis Chalmers Loader Crawler is dated January 11, the voucher submitted by the vender is dated January 11 and a check dated January 12 drawn to the order of the Franklin Equipment Company was issued and deposited by Franklin Equipment Company on January 13. The entire transaction was illegal since there is nothing in the record of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission authorizing the purchase of this specific equipment from this particular vender.

Purchase Order No. 20982 dated December 11, 1970 was issued to the Franklin Equipment Company for one Bros snow blower at a cost of $3,500. The purchase order was issued on December 11, an invoice from the vender was dated December 12, a receipt for the snow blower was dated December 11, but at some point the purchase order was altered and instead of a Bros snow blower a WESTERN snow blower was substituted without authority of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission. The original department request dated December 9, 1970 called for the Bros snow blower "to be installed on John Deere 1010 [a front end loader]. A line was drawn through these words and the John Deere 1010 showed up as a trade-in 12 days later on the purchase order for the Allis Chalmers Loader Crawler. There was no authority for the alteration of the purchase order covering the snow blower.

A department requisition dated December 10, 1970 covered by Purchase Order No. 21030 called for a 1971 station wagon. The following notation appears on the requisition "to confirm verbal order 12/10/70." The vender, Di Feo Buick, Inc. of Jersey City, under a letter dated January 5, 1971 sent a bid to the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission closing with a comment "thank you for your inquiry." Purchase Order No. 21030 was dated January 13, 1971 and bears the observation "to confirm verbal order 12/10/70."

The unusual aspects covering the recent dealings of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission with the Franklin Equipment Company, coupled with the events that gave rise to the Herald News editorial, raise questions that require answers from an objective study group. An inquisitive, probing Passaic County Park Commissioner, former Paterson Mayor Frank Graves, triggered an inquiry by the responsible press. The questionable acts took place under the Passaic County Republican Administration of Sheriff Frank Davenport, GOP County Leader, Graves is a Democrat.

There appears to be too much skulduggery to charge off all of the unique circumstances of doing business with the Franklin Equipment Company to carelessness.

The undersigned for one is not satisfied with the answers thus far submitted for public consumption.

Frank A. Orechio

Postal Hikes

In the last thirteen years postal rates have been raised three times — a one hundred per cent increase. Now they are soon to be raised again, first class charges by a whopping 33 percent — from 6 to 8 cents. Other rates will also go up.

There is no question that raises were due in the last thirteen years. Yet inexpensive postal service has long been one of the great services of the American government and at the recent rate of increase, postal service will soon become relatively expensive for the public.

Continuous postal rate hikes not only feed the inflation psychology, but they, and regular raises for the millions of postal employees and other government workers, directly contribute to inflation. In recent years the Nixon Administration has talked much about inflation but when it came to a question of unpopular moves by the White House, to postpone civil service pay hikes and other hikes, little action was forthcoming.

Not only have practically all government workers — and there are now millions of them — received big pay raises in the past recession year, they have been promised annual raises in many cases, regardless of job performance. This is one reason another sharp hike in postal rates irritates the general public.

Seems Only Yesterday Superior Court Invalidates Town's License Ordinance

One Year Ago

By Elaine Auerbach

Belleville school board president Rocco Saletta announced that the Board would begin preparations for a major master plan for education designed to meet a mounting crisis in the school system. Saletta also said that after a study was made of the situation, an architect would be hired to assess the building costs involved in expansion.

Congressman Peter W. Rodino was to be the grand marshal for Belleville's tenth annual Cherry Blossom Parade, it was announced by the parade chairman, Andy Vyninski. Mr. Vyninski also reported that Miss New Jersey, Cheryl Carter, would bring her court for a walk through the downtown Washington Avenue area during the parade celebrations.

Francis McCoy was reappointed custodian of school moneys by the Belleville Board of Education. The annual salary for McCoy, who was also the municipal treasurer, was $1,000. In other business at the board meeting, members appointed the A.M. Hart company official auditors at a fee of $3,500, and regretfully accepted the resignation of Mr. Eleanor Lees, secretary to the high school principal.

Five Years Ago

The Town Council was told a 17-month old licensing ordinance was invalid by Superior Court Judge Walter H. Conklin, and that its provisions were "unreasonable." It was speculated that some $20,000 in fees would have to be refunded to merchants who had been illegally taxed. Chamber of Commerce executive Secretary Harry French said that "the Chamber of Commerce had made every effort to avoid a lawsuit," but added that he was happy to hear of the courts decision.

Gail Ewing, a sixteen-year-old Belleville High School student, ranked eighth among some 60 violinists who had tried out for a coveted spot on the All-State High School Orchestra. Gail was to perform during the New Jersey Education Association's convention in November, and at Symphony Hall in Newark.

The Bellboys opened their title defense and the new season on the right foot by routing Central 8-2 for an opening day victory. Sharp pitching and authoritative hitting paced the Belleville effort in the chilly opener. Sal Taibi was the key to the Nick Pettit Bellboy's initial success as he hurled five no-hit innings enroute to the win, besides providing a clutch two-run triple to provide the winning margin.

Ten Years Ago

Belleville commissioners' lack of foresight in anticipating the Third River flooding problem arising from the residential development of the Rutan Estates was about to cost taxpayers a minimum of $750,000 to correct the resulting conditions. Costs of solving the flood problem would have been substantially reduced had the commissioners instituted appropriate safeguards before the housing development had been raised.

John Bass of Rutan Road resigned from Mayor Padula's advisory committee so that he could, in his own words, "devote all my time" to change Belleville's form of government. Bass had been elected vice-chairman of the Citizen's Change Committee, and wrote a letter to Mayor Padula advising him to join the movement to urge voters to adopt the council-manager type of government in Belleville.

The proposed municipal parking lot off Washington Avenue near Academy Street was again to be considered by Belleville commissioners. An ordinance introduced by Robert Gruhin was to be placed before the governing officials for the third time. Gruhin's ordinance asked that $15,000 be appropriated to purchase the acre and a half tract. Several citizens had objected to the purchase of the property at previous commission meetings.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

After forty-four years of tireless and diligent service as librarian of the Belleville Public Library, the Board of Trustees granted retirement with pension to Mrs. Elizabeth A. Shattuck. Mrs. Shattuck had seen the library grow from its small quarters on William Street, between Cortlandt and Stephen Streets, where the library had been set up in a store on property belonging to Theodore Browne in 1902, to the building used in 1911, that had been given to the town by Andrew Carnegie.

Forbes W. Kelly, director of the Veterans' Program for Junior Achievement, announced that Belleville had been selected as the town to inaugurate a proposed nation-wide series of lectures and discussion meetings for the purpose of training veterans in the organization and operation of small businesses. The program, which was sponsored locally by the First National Bank of Belleville, was to consist of a series of four or five evening meetings.

The annual report of the Municipal Welfare Department for 1945 was rendered to Public Affairs Director Mertz by John J. Hewitt, director of the Welfare Department and Overseer of the Poor. An increase of $1,685 or 11 per cent over 1944 was noted in the report. Total expenditures for 1945 were $17,569, and in 1944 the amount expended was $15,811.

Forty Years Ago

The town was experimenting with a new police patrol system designed to baffle and closely check movements of criminals who invade Belleville's borders. Announcement of the innovation, called the progressive patrol system, was made after a Town Commission meeting by Deputy Director of Public Safety, William F. Entekin, originator of the idea.

Joseph R. Reilly was to become exalted ruler of the Belleville Lodge of Elks at the home of the organization in the official installation ceremonies. Mr. Reilly had been leading knight of the local lodge, 1123, for the year 1930. He was also elected chairman of the Social Community Welfare Committee, a post which he held in addition to his position as Exalted Ruler.

Organization of the Essex County Newspaper Publishers' Association was completed. The association was composed of nineteen newspapers in the county. The purpose of the association was to assist in the solving of various problems confronting the newspapers in Essex County.

THE COLUMNS OF OUR NEWSPAPERS are available for readers to express themselves on the Calley incident. Do you believe Calley was made a scapegoat for all Americans as some politicians allege? When a man is taught to kill, should such instruction create extenuating circumstances for a soldier in the circumstances which Calley faced? The jury found Calley guilty of premeditated murder — and so one wonders is that not the definition of war? Some people suggest if the Calley guilty verdict is permitted to stand America will become a pacifist nation. Do you agree? When the atomic bomb was dropped at the direction of former President Truman, was not that act premeditated murder? What determines the guilt or innocence of a soldier or commander-in-chief who issues or executes orders which result in the killing of non-combatants? Is motive the criteria? Truman ordered the atomic bomb dropped in order to shorten the war and save American lives. Calley killed non-com's who in the daytime may well have paraded as innocent farmers and housewives but by night murdered American soldiers asleep in the grass. Do we brutalize ourselves by reversing the Calley verdict and accept premeditated murder of non-com's as a normal incident of warfare under the Stars and Stripes?

TRANSPORTATION SECRETARY JOHN A. VOLPE has given his endorsement to "no fault" automobile insurance. The Nixon Administration is urging states to adopt the system. It is an approach to insurance protection that covers injuries and losses directly regardless of the cause of an accident. There are some lawyers who oppose the proposal. This is understandable for after all lawyers make some fat fees from automobile accidents.

THE ANNUAL REPORT of the Nutley Historical Society is a beautiful document which is must-reading for any Nutleyite with any sense of civic interest. President Britton Hollowell reports a net gain in membership and also an increase in the attendance at meetings. Ann Troy, the all-time Miss Nutley, writes a very lucid piece on scenes reproduced on the cover. Photographs include the old Duncan Mills (now Town Hall), the school house, built in 1875, and now the present home of the Nutley Historical Society, the Vreeland House, built in the 1700's, presently the Woman's Club and the old Kingsland Manor, built in the 1700's, presently the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schepps.

PHIL WHITE our youthful, ingenious managing editor, observes that if you can keep your head while all others about you are losing theirs, maybe you just don't understand the problem.

LAST WEEK we credited the Boy Scouts with the door-to-door distribution of a brochure on drug abuse control and a pamphlet prepared by the Nutley Chapter of the American Red Cross, printed and published by the Nutley Sun. We made a mistake and we apologize for the error. It seems we had the wrong sex. It was the Girl Scouts who performed the civic service — and so to the fine young ladies who tread the streets of Nutley distributing the valuable information to our citizens, we offer thanks for a job well done.

Speak Up

He Eulogizes Young Cynthia

To the Editor:
Exactly two and one half years ago I eulogized a little five year old girl; Tammy Lee Horton as "The Child Eternal."

Now she is joined by another five year old girl; Cynthia Carole Morrell; for whom you made an earnest but futile appeal for blood donors in your issue of March 18. She did live to see her fifth birthday on Sunday; but Jesus called her early Monday Morning.

Again the stonemason chisels two dates; only one scant Lustrum apart. (Lustrum is an archaic name for a period of five years.)

With strong hands he chisels the dates deep into the stone and for one fleeting instant see the Child Eternal.

Who is the Child Eternal? Any little ones whom Jesus calls to come to Him at an early age; before they are 10 years old, I say.

We hear of many shrines throughout the world. There should be a shrine for the Child Eternal; or perhaps more appropriately: The Shrine For All Child Angels.

Certainly Dear Little Cynthia has earned her special place in Heaven for what she has been forced to endure for the last four months in the ravages of the dreaded leukemia.

In our despair sometimes we ask: "Why, O Lord, what hath this little one done that she must suffer so much? Why? You have ninety and nine other angels; are they not enough for Thee?"

The answer is not for us to know; anymore than the reason that God the Father made no effort to intervene when His only begotten Son was subjected to the most unmerciful tortures; humiliation and death that the strongest of us men could not endure for five minutes.

The Child Eternal; little Cynthia Carole Morrell; has no need of our prayers. Let us pray for the spiritual consolation of her parents; Mr. & Mrs. Leslie Morrell.

Little Cynthia is in Heaven as all true Christians and those who regard the great Jehovah as God must believe; or they are not true members of their faith.

The Child Eternal has joined all the other Child Angels and they will welcome us when it is our time to meet them on That Beautiful Shore.

I know that my eulogy for the Child Angel, Cynthia Carole Morrell has already been submitted to you for publication, but this anecdote of an incident in her too short a life must be given to the World.

The little one was not old enough to go to Public School; but she did go to the Belleville Reform Church Sunday School and learned to love the Lord.

Truly the words of the great Pope Leo XIII. in his Votive Mass Of The Angels blesses the good parents of such a little angel. I quote from the Antiphon:

"This child shall receive a blessing from the Lord and mercy from God her salvation, for she is the offspring of those that seek the Lord."

For four long months Cindy was in the Hospital and her poor little body was wracked with pain; not only with the dreaded leukemia; but with the only known treatments. Throughout it all; her faith in Jesus shone out like a light from Heaven.

One evening Mrs. Morrell was about to say goodnight to the little one when she saw that the child appeared to be sleeping. Not wishing to disturb her, the Mother was about to leave the room.

"Mommy!" said Cindy; suddenly waking up. "Are you going to go without you hearing me say my prayers? Jesus is going to be awfully mad at me if I don't say my prayers!"

Would that the celestial faith that Cindy had redeem all of us!"

Only a short time later I saw her for the last time; dressed all in white lace; with the white veil of the postulant for Communion with Him. Jesus needed another angel.

"Jesus Loves Me," was her favorite hymn. She was brought to the oldest church in Belleville and this hauntingly beautiful melody was sung for her by the dedicated Mrs. Verhagen.

Mad at her? He opened the door and let His little child come in.

Arvidson Out Of Race Over Aux. Cop Issue

To the Editor:

The recent development in the Auxiliary Police has given me cause to reevaluate my candidacy for commissioner. While I had originally planned to resign as Deputy Chief of the group before filing as a candidate, I now know that I can better serve the community by actively aiding in the efforts to preserve this organization as a non-political group serving all the people of Belleville, and for this reason I will not be a candidate.

I am sure that among those persons who will remain as candidates the people of Belleville will make their voice heard on election day and will bring about a change for the betterment of the community.

I wish to express my thanks to all persons who urged me to run and for their expressions of support.

Probation Sentence Is Given

A Belleville young man was sentenced to one year probation by Judge Edward Abromson at Municipal Court April 1 for being under the influence of a legend drug.

Arthur J. Melville of 71 Ligham Street was arrested in Belleville February 11 by Patrolman Pat McCabe and Detective Ermin Olivieri.

Both officers testified that upon observing Melville he appeared to be under the influence of some narcotic. Melville, according to testimony, admitted to drinking a half bottle of cough medicine the day of arrest but added that he also had consumed a lot of wine before being stopped by Belleville police.

Detective Olivieri, during testimony, added that he thought Melville may have taken some other drug than just cough medicine but had no way of proving this.

Probation Officer Joseph Caputo, citing that this was the defendant's first arrest, recommended a one-year probation term.

Judge Abromson, in levying the penalty, said he was highly suspicious of Melville's testimony and tended to rather believe the statements of the arresting officers.

COMMISSIONER Joseph McGreevy (far right) presents check covering the last bond anticipation note of the Town of Belleville to B. Thomas Aitken, chairman of the Board of Peoples National Bank. It marks the first time in 75 years the town has paid in full all temporary debts. All debts incurred have been paid except $108,000 in bonds issued on Dec. 1, 1962 and Dec. 1, 1965; $55,000 to be paid in 1972, and $53,000 to be paid in 1973. Looking on are (l-r) Albert Luscombe, president of Peoples National Bank; Frank Bolen, executive vice president of the bank, and Town Treasurer Francis McGoy.

Belleville Dental Student Gives Report On Research Seminar

RON RAPUANO, son of Mr. and Mrs. May Rapuano of Belleville, reports on research in dentistry he did for seminar at College of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey.

Ronald Rapuano, son of Mrs. Mary Rapuano of Belleville, was among 16 students at the College of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey at Newark chosen from 109 who did research last summer to participate in the Third Annual Student Research Seminar held at CMDNJN March 24.

The junior dental student presented his study, "Evaluation of the Structural Anatomy Related to the Posterior Palatal Seal Area."

Ronald did anatomical dissections, descriptions, and photographs of several skulls in order to determine the anatomical structures in the top of the mouth where a denture is worn. This area is an important factor in denture retention, because the tissues there must be compressed slightly in order to effect a seal between the dentures and the palate. There is a difference of opinion as to whether soft palate or hard palate, which might be displaced by the dentures, underlies the area where they are worn. In his study, Ronald found that there was only soft palate, with no hard palate above it.

His research was supported by a stipend from a General Research Support Grant from the National Institute of Health, and was supported by Dr. Joseph Rapuano, associate professor of prosthodontics, and Dr. Paul W. Vinton, professor and chairman, department of prosthodontics, CMDNJN.

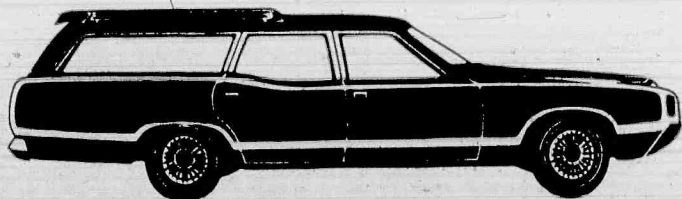

He is a graduate of Belleville High School, and he attended Rutgers University. Ronald, his wife Cecily, and their child live in Jersey City.

It's easier to consolidate debts than to pay off the larger loan.

R. Mattia Reports On Easter Seals

Easter Seals, bearing the traditional white lily on a blue background were mailed to all Belleville residents March 1, according to Romeo Mattia, Belleville Easter Seal Appeal chairman.

The sale of Seals help finance direct treatment and rehabilitation services to New Jersey crippled children and adults.

"Belleville residents can share in the miracle of rehabilitation by giving generously to the Appeal."

Mattia said. "A gift can help teach a crippled child to walk — a child with a speech disability to talk — send a crippled child to summer camp — rehabilitate a stroke or accident victim — give the handicapped use of wheelchairs and other special appliances — or train a disabled person for productive employment. Every gift is important because it helps a crippled child or adults on the way to a fuller, more rewarding life."

Mrs. Cecere Is Chairman Of Luncheon

Mrs. Edward Cecere of Belleville is chairman of the Annual Luncheon of the Alumnae Association of Saint Vincent Academy set for April 17 at Mayfair Farms.

The annual affair raises scholarship funds for the Newark institution that celebrated its 100th anniversary in 1969. A fashion show presented by Bamberger's will be a highlight of the affair, along with door prizes and a raffle.

So far the classes of 1936 and 1951 are planning get-togethers and other classes are beginning to plan a reunion at the affair. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Cecere, the former Marge Brennan, Class of 1964 or from Mrs. Ronald Cataldo of Irvington, the former Pat Ciszewski, Class of 1964.

Fruit Tree Jelly Signals Damage

That gummy jelly-like mass that can be found on fruit tree trunks near the soil line is probably caused by a worm-like insect called the peach tree borer. This is a common pest in New Jersey that attacks peach, cherry, and plum trees and can kill trees if not controlled, says William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County.

PDB (paradichlorobenzene) crystals applied to the soil around the trunk will destroy borers. First remove grass and weeds from the base of the tree for a distance of 1 foot. Then distribute crystals in a band 1 to 2 inches wide at least 2 inches from the trunk. Crystals placed against the tree may cause injury. Cover tree base and crystals with 4 to 6 shovelfuls of soil and pack with the shovel.

For trees 1 to 2 years old, use one-fourth ounce of crystals; trees 3 to 4 years old; one-half ounce; trees 5 to 6 years old, three-fourths ounce; and trees 7 years or older, 1 ounce.

Although this treatment is normally recommended during the fall, emergency measures can be applied during the spring, provided soil temperature at the 5-inch depth is at least 60 degrees, in late April and early May.

Be sure to remove crystals and mounded soil from around the trunk after two weeks since the PDB crystals could then injure the tree.

Junior Highs In Competition About Library

The English students of the Belleville Junior High School, grades 7 and 8 have just undertaken a competition sponsored by the Literature Department of The Woman's Club of Belleville, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard A. Shafter. Several hundred essays were submitted for judging.

On March 24th the finalists, about 70 in number, were gone over by the panel of judges that included Mrs. Shafter, Ben Grimm, director of the Free Public Library of Belleville, Mrs. Naomi Ganley, head of the English Department of the School Robert Leffebine, English teacher and Mrs. William R. Kropp, editor of The Belleville Clubwoman. The subject matter was "The Value of the Free Public Library". This topic necessitated some study of our local library, history of libraries, services available to the public, etc.

The quality of the work submitted was astonishing to the judges. Sentence structures, spelling word usage, and originality of thought were very superior in most of the entries and the teaching staff of the Junior High School is to be commended for this evidence of the effectiveness of their teaching.

First place for the Seventh Grade contestants was awarded to Doreen de Voogt, Miss J. Bruno teacher, with Karen Johnson, a pupil of Mrs. Ganley, winning the second place award. The first place winner stressed the value from the standpoint of eliminating boredom, relating to people by gaining knowledge of their culture and background the encompassing nature of the program.

The Eighth Graders entry submitted by Ruth Iacullo was judged the best with second place going to Fred Lardaro, both of whom are taught by Mrs. Naomi Ganley. This winner made the point that in our "card conscious" society, one of our most important cards is our library card.

Prizes will be awarded to the winners at the literary tea sponsored by the Literature Department of the Woman's Club of Belleville on April 7th at the clubhouse, 51 Rossmore Place at 1 p.m. Mrs. Robert Mathies, Eighth District Literature chairman will make the presentation. The registration fee of 50c will go toward the Douglass College Literary Scholarship fund, a project of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs.

A Palm Sunday With 2 Goats

John rushed to call his grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Gugliotta, hoping the goats would vanish. Granny naturally didn't believe his tale, and who could blame her.

But seeing is believing, and when Granny and John looked out the front window, the two goats were sitting on the front porch, apparently having found as good a place as any to rest from their Palm Sunday breakfast.

Well to make a long story short, John's dad George Pontrella was called to the rescue. When the elder Pontrella arrived, he found his brother George Pontrella had corralled the goats in the backyard.

When John's dad contacted the police, he learned someone had been at the station earlier in the day looking for two lost goats but hadn't left a name or a phone number.

Well the owner still hasn't turned up yet. The goats, meanwhile, are availing themselves of Mrs. Gugliotta's hospitality by nibbling on her grapevines and munching some shrubbery.

Needless to say, the Pontrella's are asking anyone who has information about the owner of the goats to contact them at 751-0040.

State Orders

McGreevy Must Stop Signing Town Checks

the state where officials other than the Mayor are signing vouchers.

The ruling specifically states according to McCoy, that the Mayor must sign the vouchers and that the treasurer countersign. The ruling also says signing of payroll checks is governed by local ordinance.

There seems to be some confusion, however, as to when McGreevy must stop signing the checks, at least in McGreevy's mind. McCoy says the Attorney General's ruling means "right now," but the Commissioner seems to see it otherwise.

In the Attorney General's ruling, municipalities in which the vouchers are being signed by someone other than the Mayor have until January 1, 1972 to make a change.

McCoy says this refers to the changing of any local ordinance which might allow someone other than the Mayor to sign the vouchers. The town treasurer says Belleville's existing ordinance on the matter already conforms with state law and that McGreevy must immediately stop signing checks.

The Commissioner, however, seems to feel he can sign checks through January 1, 1972, and told the Times-News Monday, he will continue to do so until he receives a directive from the State Division of Revenue and Local Finance telling him to desist.

McCoy also contends McGreevy must stop signing payroll checks because Belleville's local ordinance designates that only the Mayor has the power to do so.

The Attorney General's investigation found there had been no misuse of funds by McGreevy and that "no particular damage has been done to the public interest."

McCoy says the state Attorney General's ruling overrides the opinion of Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato, who found McGreevy within his rights to sign the checks as Revenue and Finance Commissioner under the Walsh Act.

Figurelli Makes Deans List Again

Jerry Figurelli, a '68 Belleville High graduate, has made the Dean's List for the fifth consecutive semester that he has attended Seton Hall University. Athletic Director Rev. John J. Horgan announced that Figurelli was one of 21 athletes to make the honor roll, and one of nine track men to do so, as the Track and Cross-Country teams led all other sports with the highest number of members on the list.

The Pirate junior was the number four man on this year's harrier squad, but isn't out for the spring track team due to a little self-evaluation.

In his freshman and sophomore years, Jerry received a full scholarship from the Hall, but didn't put in for it this year. "I felt I didn't merit it," noted the English major. "But I still went out for Cross-Country. Now I'm just staying in shape as much as I can for next Cross-Country season, while keeping up with my school work."

"Fig" had a 3.6 average in his freshman year, a perfect 4.0 last year, and now has a 3.8 average, keeping himself on the Dean's List for all five semesters.

Hall Students Looking For Track Bubble

Belleville's athlete and scholar made a special note about the fact that right now the big project being worked on by the Seton Hall students and administration is the purchasing of a "bubble", an overhead enclosure for the track, to enable the school to conduct winter track practice on an outdoor wooden track and to use the space inside the track for activities such as basketball and intramural sports.

One of the students working hard for this is also a trackman and honor student. Matt Swit of Amityville, Long Island, the president of the Hall's Varsity Club, runs the 880 and the two-mile relay as well as promote athletics at SHU.

According to Matt, the school and the village of South Orange have all ready signed a contract for the bubble, which is similar to the one at Columbia University. The agreement calls for construction to start right away, and it should be finished in five or six weeks.

To raise funds for the bubble, the student body has held raffles, sold tickets to professional basketball games, and asked friends of the school for donations. Matt said that the pledges have given the students approximately half of the amount needed, and still more would be appreciated.

Some of the other trackmen on the Dean's List include three of the four runners in the Pirates' mile relay team that took first in the Milrose Games and also in the Baltimore "Sun" Paper Meet. These are John Weiss of Butler, Richard Rosa of Haddon Heights, and Ronald Zapotczynyn of Woodbridge.

Another standout honor student is team captain Tom Winters of Metuchen. Winters was the number one man of the Cross-Country team and won all the dual meets this past season except one. His highest honor was placing thirteenth in the IC4A Championships.

Two Other Bellevilleites On Squad

Fig isn't the only Belleville resident on the Pirates' running squads. Two sprinters, one from Essex Catholic and the other from Belleville High, also help SHU along.

Howie Cox, a '67 graduate of Essex, went to the Hall with experience as sprinter in the 100, 220, and 880 yd. relay, but found himself encouraged to change to the 440 yard intermediate hurdles, the 440, and the 880 when he got to South Orange. For the indoor season, Howie is a member of the mile relay team.

The history major was on the Essex Catholic team in '67 when Marty Liquori ran for the Eagles and set the state outdoor mile record time of 4:08. Howie's 880 yd. relay team took first in the North Jersey Catholic Conference that same year.

Vic Squitieri, the high scorer of the 1970 BHS track team is now a freshman at the Hall and participates in both the indoor and outdoor squads. He scored once for the varsity in the long jump, and also ran the high hurdles, and was on a mile relay squad. The three event Bellboy is now majoring in Physics at the Hall.

Score 5-1

Soldo, Mineo Pinch Orange

By Marc Feldman

The Belleville varsity baseball team did something it hasn't done for a few years: win its opening game. The Bellboys used a balanced attack and four hit pitching by Gary Soldo and Sal Mineo to stifle the Orange Tornadoes, 5-1.

Singling out a hero among the Belleville players is difficult since the seven hits (all singles) were gathered by seven different Bellboys. Charlie Ziegler drove in three of Belleville's five runs with a fielder's choice in the first and a two-run single in the third.

Good defensive work by the Tornadoes in the outfield robbed Joe Papisidero of an extra-base hit in the second inning and many Belleville line drives were right at Orange defenders. In the sixth inning, Belleville had the bases loaded with two outs and Ron Muscara at bat. Muscara lined a rocket back at pitcher Tom Galloway which probably broke the Orange player's ankle. The ironic part about the play was that the ball bounced off his ankle to the first baseman who stepped on the bag for the inning-ending out.

Orange mounted numerous threats in the game as they left two men on base four times. In the first inning, Orange had men on second and third with only one out, but Gary Soldo retired the next two batters on a ground ball to short and pop up to the same fielder. Orange scored their lone run off winning pitcher Sal Mineo in (Continued on Page 12)

Celtics Score Easily

By Warren Ceres

The Celtics defeated the third seeded team in the Recreation Playoffs C.C. & Co. 53 to 39. The Celtics are also the Senior League Champions.

Frank Russomano was the Celtics leading scorer as he tossed in 22 points. Frank had eight field goals and six free throws.

Frank's teammate Ronald Muscara had a big evening, as he played a fine defensive game, pulling down numerous rebounds, blocking several shots and he also scored 16 points.

The other members on the Celtics that scored were Auggie Laluna, Wayne Martin, and Bob Johnson with eight, six, two points (Continued on Page 12)

Kearny Shutout

Crew Seeks Victory 2 Over Tough Harrington

By Nat Gottlieb

Belleville's varsity crew tangles with a strong squad from Harrington, Pa. Saturday on the Passaic River. The Bellboys will be trying for victory number two, after easily outdistancing Kearny in the season opener last Saturday.

Bellboy coach Sam Giuffrida expects a strong test for his talented oarsmen Saturday against Harrington. The Pennsylvania crew finished fourth in the Junior National Championships last year.

Also on Belleville's schedule this week is a Wednesday meet with Hun at the prep school's home course. Hun has been an easy foe in the past for the Bellboys, but Giuffrida says his crew is not taking any of the meets lightly, and warned "anything can happen when you play on someone else's home course."

Judging from last Saturday's strong showing against Kearny, Belleville apparently is going to be a tough team to reckon with on all levels, from the varsity down to the frosh.

With a good crowd lining the docks and the Belleville Turnpike Bridge Saturday morning under clear skies, the Bellboys swept every race from rival Kearny.

"I was pleased with the varsity race," Giuffrida told the Times - News, "but I think they haven't rowed their best yet."

"Considering they've only been together five days in the same boat, I was quite pleased with their performance," the first year Bellboy head coach said.

The Bellboy varsity shell jumped off to a one boat length lead, and then maintained it until the final quarter, where it really put on the steam.

In the final quarter Belleville easily pulled away to register an eight boat length victory in a time of 6:37 for the mile course. Kearny's time was 6:48.

Commended by Giuffrida for a fine job was this year's varsity shell consisting of coxswain Bob Zarra, Jack Fersko, Frank Marano, Mike Marano, John Atherton, Tom Jones, Gary Haight, Angelo Sanzano and John Resciniti.

In the varsity meet, the Belleville shell was rowing at a rate of 33 strokes per minute, ten slower than the Kearny shell. Belleville's superior strength and apparently smoother style made the difference.

Giuffrida hopes to pick up Belleville's stroking to about 35 or 36 per minute, but says he was content with the rate

The Bellboy Junior varsity, meanwhile, was equally as impressive in registering a rather easy triumph over the Kearny JV. Belleville's time

Baseball Rules Change

The Belleville Recreation Department held its annual meeting with the Farm League and Sr./Int. League Coaches last month. New rules and the revision of the older rules were discussed, as well as the relationship between coaches and players. With the help of John Senesky the meeting was highly successful.

The Major rules, changes and revisions in the Sr./Int. Leagues are as follows:

* (1) Boys to be eligible must be 13 by August 31 and not have reached the age of 17 before July 31. Any boy listed on the American Legion roster will be declared ineligible for Senior League play.

* (2) Senior League Coaches may call any 2 boys from their respective Intermediate league team to be present at the Senior League game. A pitcher may be borrowed only with the consent of the Intermediate League manager.

* (3) Pitchers in the Intermediate League will be warned if they balk. Senior League Pitchers will receive NO warning if they balk.

* (4) When a manager visits his pitcher on the mound in

Denas Take Housewives Loop Lead

With 84 games played in the Recreation Housewives Bowling League at Olympic Bowl the Denas have taken a strong lead with sixty-one wins. In second place is Washington Pharmacy with 52½ wins.

Third place is practically a tie with Pats Dairy sporting 48 wins and Mr. Foamy 47½. Others in the top half of the League are Jolly Cleaners 46, NuBell Cleaners 45, Franks Quality Cleaners 44½, Sidney Sales and Joe Marino Excavating 43½, Pinettes and Ups & Downs 42, and Blue Ribbon Tires 41½.

Panthers Are Foe Today

Tuesday's rain spell has forced the Bellboy baseball squad to play three games in six days, two of which come against Big Ten powerhouses.

Today the Bellboys travel to East Orange's Martens Stadium to tangle with the Panthers in a 3:45 p.m. matchup. Saturday Belleville hosts strong-pitching Montclair in a makeup game which was originally scheduled last Tuesday.

Then this Tuesday, the Bellboys travel to Underhill Field in South Orange to match up with Columbia's Cougars.

East Orange was winless last year and was the cellar dwellers in the Big Ten. This year the Panthers started off on a similarly dismal note, being no-hit by Columbia High School's Bill Squires, a fireballing righthander.

Belleville, meanwhile has also one game under its belt, having bounced Orange last week in the season opener 5-1.

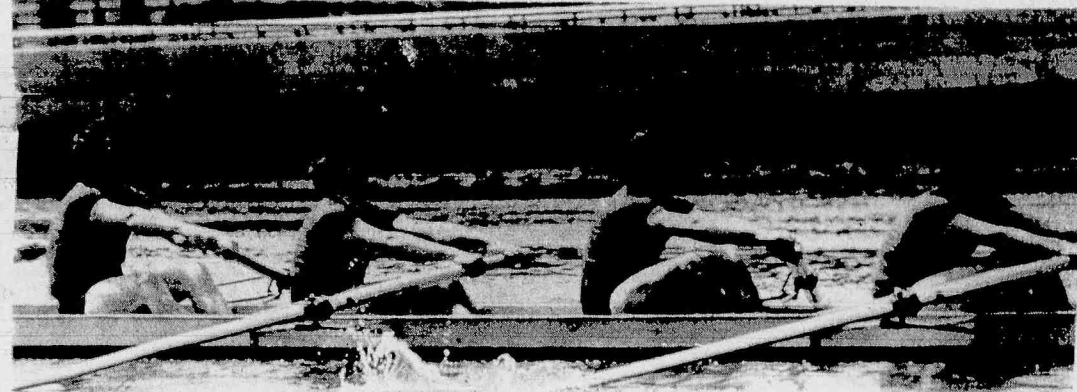

Because of the mixed up schedule, either Frank Petite or Bill Haines will start for the Bellboys against East Orange.

Montclair split its first two games, beating Passaic 9-2 behind their top pitcher Len Petrillo, and lost to Irvington 6-2 in their opening Big Ten tilt.

The Mounties have lost alot of players from last year's squad which shared the Big Ten championship with Irvington.

BELLBOY BLIPS: It appears that Belleville has about the best hitting team in the Big Ten Conference and so fans will be watching the mound to see if the Bellboys are going to dominate the Big Ten for the first time since 1966, when the squad went 23-5. Bill Haines is passing the word around to reporters that his nickname is "Fireball," but apparently the press is waiting for some proof of the tall righthander's hurling abilities. The entire squad seems optimistic about the season, and apparently doesn't think anyone can measure up to them. If the Bellboys beat Montclair and Columbia, there should be no reason they can't become one of the top teams around. If fans are wondering why there aren't any Big Ten Saturday afternoon games it's because the coaches in the conference decided they'd rather not work on the weekends. Games are now scheduled Tuesdays and Fridays, as they were years ago. By the way, the reason games were switched to Saturdays to begin with was because the coaches wanted it that way. Despite his busy campaign for the Commission, Detective Michael V. Marotti is still finding time to sit in the home stands and watch his son Rocco play. Another perennial dad who is back again as a devoted fan is Frank Papisidero, whose son Joe is Belleville's flashy shortstop...NTG

Four Meets

Rough Week For Track

With one victory under their belts, the Belleville track team faces what could be a back-breaking week of cinder activity.

The Bellboy trackmen host West Side High School of Newark today for the first home meet of the 1971 season. Then on Tuesday, the cindermen entertain Orange High School for what will prove to be the first of three meets in as many days.

Without as much as a day's rest, the cindermen hop over to Foley Field in Bloomfield Wednesday for the Big Ten Relays. The following day the Bellboys host Central High School.

The Bellboys began their 1971 season in high style, stomping Passaic 71-46 on a rain-soaked track in the Indians stadium.

Belleville completely mastered the Indians in three events, the low hurdles, the long jump and the pole vault, taking first, second and third place in each event.

Big man for the day was versatile Bellboy junior Don Kowalski, who netted 13 points for the team. Kowalski's points came on first place finishes in the high hurdles and the long jump, and a second place finish in the low hurdles.

Also taking first places were senior Ricky Caruso in the low hurdles, junior Dave Pepe in the pole vault, and senior John McCarthy in the 880 yard run. Caruso also took third place in the 100 yard dash and the long jump.

Senior Mark Bradley contributed seven points to the victory with a second place finish in the long jump and the 440 yard dash, and a third place in the 220 yard sprint.

Belleville's depth was largely the reason for its victory in the meet. Of the 13 events, Belleville was outscored in eight by Passaic, but six of these were by narrow 5-4 margins. Belleville's three sweeps were too much for the Indians.

Belleville awaits their second away match tomorrow, against West Orange still looking for victory after dropping their opener to defending state champions Columbia High School 14.5-3.5.

Surprisingly, Belleville's number five man, sophomore Neil Simeone was the high scorer, contributing 2.5 points for the duffers. He won the nine holes out, tied

Baseball Managers Needed

Because of the increased number of boys who have turned out for baseball this year, the Town Recreation Department is enlarging both the Peanut and Senior/Intermediate Leagues.

There is an urgent need for men who are willing to coach these teams. The Peanut League is for boys of eight and nine years of age, while the Senior/Intermediate Leagues are for boys 13 to 16 years of age.

Managers are needed who will give every boy a chance and who place sportsmanship as high as winning ball games.

Men who are interested are asked to contact Warren Ceres or Robert Cook at the Recreation House, 759-3142 or 759-3121.

Auxiliary Shooters Dropped

Belleville Auxiliary Police Pistol Team hosted Livingston Auxiliary at the Stadium Range, on March 22.

A fine turnout by the Belleville team proved fruitless despite the tremendous effort by Bob Tunis and his six point shy of a perfect score, 294.

The Belleville team was handed their first loss of the season losing by 61 points. Tunis' .294 was the highest score yet for any Belleville shooter this year. Belleville's next highest scorers were George Butler .274 Pat Wynn .254 Carl Clemente .250.

Belleville's total was 1070, Livingstons total was 1131. Top shooter for Livingston was John DeVoll with .292 followed by Sam Hall .289, Bill Vincent .283, Steve Urban .267.

the second nine, and thus took the final score over his cougar opponent.

Team captain Roger Ross, a junior and Belleville's number one man scored half a point for the team as he tied one set of nine and lost both the other and the final score.

Belleville's final half point came from senior Jerry Nardiello. Nardiello is the number six man on the team,

As for Columbia, they shot their usual high quality match averaging 41 strokes per man for the six man squad.

Despite the fact that the course was very fast, allowing a ball to travel a long distance on a bounce, Columbia's number two man, Jeff Stein, hit the seven hole flag from eighty yards away with a eight iron on his second shot and the ball landed only one foot away. He easily shot a birdie three on the hole.

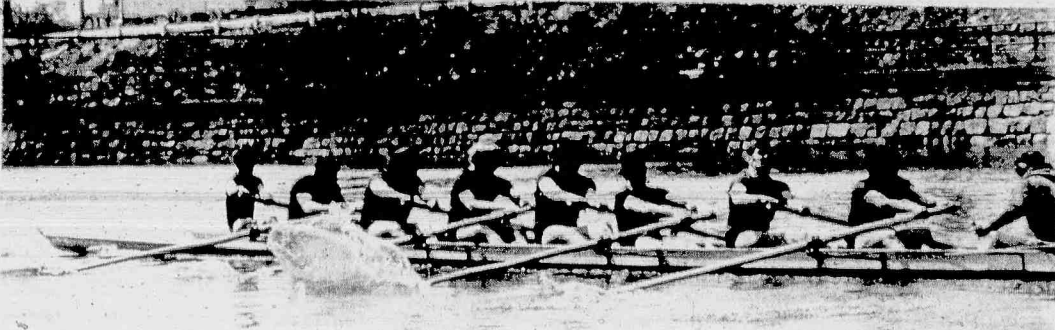

Oarsmen Tangle With Tough Harrington Saturday

VICTORY is signaled by the entire Bellboy junior varsity squad, which hit the mile course on the Passaic at 6:49, a full 44 seconds ahead of

Kearny. Shown after finishing the grueling sprint are (l-r) Steve Rovell, Vincent Gallanti, Steve Andrews, Pete Peterson, Joe Covy, Henri DeFrance, Ed O'Connell, Alan DeMasi, and coxswain Fred Arena.

SHOWING signs of the strain of racing, the Bellboy JV crew heads down the mile stretch of course on the Passaic River for an easy victory over the Kearny junior varsity shell.

* (10) If a coach goes on to the field when time is not out the lead runner is out.

* (11) If a coach touches a player during play that player is out.

* (12) When a base runner leaves his base before the pitched ball has reached the batter and the batter DOES NOT hit the ball the runner is permitted to continue, if a play is made on him and he is out the out stands. If he reaches the next base safely, to which he is advancing he must be returned to the base he occupied before the pitch was made, and no out results.

Junior Varsity Scores Shutout Over Hapless Orange At Home

By John McCarthy

Belleville's junior varsity baseball team opened their season with a 10-0 shutout of Orange this past Friday. The game saw a combination of strong pitching, quick base-running and timely hitting humiliate the Tornadoes.

Belleville had Alan Frank and Mario Mafalatano combine their efforts on the mound, allowing only one hit each. Frank struck out seven Orange batters and Mafalatano, four, while the latter also hit a home run in the fifth inning.

Mark Cervasio and Rich Cupparo stole three bases apiece, helping the jayvees heist a total of 14 in five and a half innings.

Four of Belleville's ten runs came in the second inning and the other six in the fifth frame. In the bottom of the sixth, the game was called due to rain that had been falling all afternoon.

In the second inning Phil Cuzzi led off with a walk, moved to second on a wild pitch, advanced to third on a sacrifice by Joe Ross, and scored on a single by Mike Sbarra.

Sbarra stole second and third before being driven in by Cupparo on a single. Sam Venezia scored Cupparo with a three bagger, and scored himself on a throwing error.

In the fifth, Belleville managed to get six runs with only two hits, but a lot of help from the Orange pitcher. Mafalatano led the inning with his homer, a solo shot that sailed over the outfield.

Making up the strong JV shell are coxswain Fred Arena, Alan DeMasi, Ed O'Connell, Henri DeFrance, Joe Covy, Pete Peterson, Steve Andrews, Vincent Gallanti, and Steve Rovell.

As impressive as the JV's time margin was, it was still second fiddle to the Bellboy frosh's amazing one minute edge over the Kearny frosh.

Belleville's strong frosh crew came home in 6:50, with Kearny a distant 7:50. Belleville actually had two frosh boats finish ahead of Kearny, with the second Bellboy freshman shell doing the course in 7:45.

BECK'S COLUMN

The "Father of Television", P. T. Farnsworth, died at the age of 64. He had developed a complete system of electronic television at the young age of 15 and applied for a patent when he was only 18.

Farnsworth transmitted the world's first television picture in 1927 at the age of 20. There was a public showing in Philadelphia and in London in 1934.

Strangely enough another American inventor, Vladimir Zworykin, also developed a television system at about the same time. Farnsworth is credited with transmitting the first TV picture. He became associated with Philco in Philadelphia. RCA sued Philco for patent infringement. Philco presented Farnsworth's high school notebook, which proved that he was the first to invent the cathode ray television picture tube.

Farnsworth had the satisfaction to see his invention become one of the most important of his time.

Other winners this year are: John Judge Eagle Ridge Drive, West Orange, 1st prize in the Primary category ($50 Bond). His sister, Peggy Judge, third place winner also in the primary category and Linda Compagnone, 12 Hepworth Place, West Orange, third place in the Junior category ($10 prize). All these Another 1st prize winner in the elementary category, Martha McLoughlin of 429 Brookside Place, Cranford, attends St. Anne School, Garwood. She is the recipient of a $50 Bond. $25 Bonds were also awarded to Robert Ayala of Lincoln Elementary School. Other winners included Maryann Parasma of Essex County Vocational and Technical High School who won a $25 Bond for 2nd place in the Senior category.

These winning posters were sent to our AAA headquarters in Washington, D.C. for judging in the National Contest on or about April 15.

Frank Goglia, Past Commander, member of New Jersey Chapter No. 53 resident of Belleville, was among the more than 300 officials of the Disabled American Veterans who attended the annual DAV Mid-Winter Conference held March 1-3 at the Statler Hilton in Washington, D.C.

The three-day event was highlighted on Wednesday, March 3, when the United States Senate and the House of Representatives observed DAV Day in Congress as a special Congressional salute to the DAV's 50th Anniversary.

Tom Burns Gets Kidde Exec. Spot

Thomas J. Burns has been elected president and chief executive of Dura Corporation, a Detroit-based division of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc.

Burns formerly was executive vice president of Dura. He joined Dura four years ago as vice president and controller, and also served as financial vice president for the division. He previously was controller for Kidde's Belleville, New Jersey division. Before joining Kidde in 1966, Burns was a group controller for Litton Industries.

Burns is a graduate of

Joseph Constantino

Thomas Burns Promotion

Fordham University's College of Business Administration.

Belleville Student Gets Honor

The New York Rubber Group, which met at the Hotel Robert Treat in Newark, March 4, introduced a Newark College of Engineering senior from Belleville to their membership, the holder of the N.Y. Rubber Group's scholarship for this year.

The NCE scholar attending the group's spring and technical meeting is Gabriel Novoa of 24 Carpenter Terrace, a chemical engineering student who will be graduating in June.

Novoa was introduced to the more than 200 members of the rubber trade organization by the group's chairman, Richard Walker, industrial editor for R. T. Vanderbilt Corp. of New York, and by scholarship chairman William Hartmann, technical superintendent of Laurie Rubber Reclaiming Co. of East Millstone. Hartmann is a 1938 graduate of NCE.

Novoa, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Novoa of 96 Van Houten Avenue, Passaic, attended Passaic H.S. before attending NCE, making the high school honor roll and earning the Spanish Apostolate Scholarship upon graduation in 1967. He has been active in intramural football and basketball at NCE and is a member of the student chapter of the American Chemical Society.

Constantino Promoted At Plant

The Wallace & Tiernan Division of Pennwalt Corporation has announced the promotion of Joseph V. Constantino to maintenance foreman at its plant on Main Street in Belleville. Wallace & Tiernan is a world leader in the manufacture of equipment for metering and controlling gases, liquids and solids; as well as in the manufacture of instrumentation for water and pollution control systems.

Constantino, a life-long resident of Belleville, residing at 391 Cortlandt Street, joined Wallace & Tiernan in 1941. He has served as an electrician and an electronic technician in the Company's Maintenance Department.

ENGINEERS of two generations swapped college stories recently when the New York Rubber Group entertained Gabriel Novoa, (right), of Belleville, a NCE senior and holder of the group's $500 scholarship. Also show are William Harman (left) of Laurie Rubber Reclaiming Co. and Richard Walker, group chairman.

Three Meetings

Red Cross Groups Set Drug Abuse Conferences

The Belleville and Bloomfield of Essex Chapter, American Red Cross will jointly sponsor a three day conference on drug abuse on April 20, 27, and May 4, at the Bloomfield District headquarters, 324 Belleville Avenue, Bloomfield.

Local registered nurses, school nurses, licensed practical nurses, social welfare workers, nurses aides and members of Red Cross Nursing Committees are invited to attend.

The session will be held on April 20, 27 and May 4. Two identical sessions will be held on each date from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. so that those attending may select either the day or the evening classes.

According to Mrs. Allene Clarkson, chairman of the Bloomfield Nursing committee, the conference will include information on all facets of the drug problem, methods of treatment, identifying addicts and drug users, legal and social problems, resources and facilities for treatment. Speakers will include a police narcotics expert, a lawyer who defends young addicts, a psychiatrist and a doctor from the N.J. State Department of Drug Abuse. Michael Festa, health officer for Verona and Glen Ridge, and chairman of Red Cross First Aid for Essex Chapter's West Essex District has organized and coordinated the new conference along lines which he used successfully to set up a similar conference in the West Essex District headquarters a year ago.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

In Memory Of

Esther Bolles Sica

Beloved wife of Louis E. Sica and mother of a son Anthony Allen, and three daughters, Diana Desideria, Sandra Maria, and Donna Sica all at home.

1ST ANNIVERSARY
APRIL 10, 1971

Your gentle face and patient smile
With sadness we recall
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.

The voice is gone and stilled the heart,
That loved us with and true,
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.

Burt Bacharach At Arts Center Week In June

The Garden State Arts Center today announced that two of the amphitheater stage attractions scheduled for its 1971 summer season will be Burt Bacharach and the Stuttgart Ballet, each in week-long appearances.

Bacharach is scheduled to appear at the Arts Center the week of June 28, Monday through Saturday, also performing in a special Wednesday matinee free for children from disadvantaged areas of New Jersey. The Stuttgart Ballet is to present seven performances, including a paid-admission matinee, the week of July 12.

The Arts Center, which the Authority first opened in June of 1968, drew an aggregate audience of over 368,000 people to the 80 performances staged last year in its third summer season.

Is happiness really a little child?

Not if he has an educational handicap and isn't getting Special Education.

That child is a lonely child—bewildered—lost in a world he cannot understand.

A child can't be happy if he can't learn because he is deaf or hard of hearing, blind or partially blind, or crippled and can't go to school.

Or if he or she is emotionally disturbed—or too restless—or even too quiet.

Such children can't learn much except in a school or clinic where Special Education methods and equipment are used.

Once there, however, and a whole new, wonderful world begins to open for him. Now he can enjoy growing up happy and useful!

You can find out—free—where Special Education is available nearest the home of any child.

Your Weekly Horoscope

APRIL 8 through APRIL 14, 1971

ARIES (March 21 - April 19): Temptation will besiege you in week ahead, Ari. Power and/or other worldly pleasures will be offered in exchange for You-Know-What. Though you are not above a bit of devilry from time-to-time, still, you would be foolish to play the role of Doctor Faust. Week winds up on note of concern.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20): One whom you hold most dear may give you something to worry about in week ahead, Taurus. While in fact you may have asked for problems, still, protect yourself at all times. This person will appear to go thru many changes. Walking around edges, so to speak. Perhaps in futile attempt to get his/her life straight. Read Cap for more info.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): Another critical week for Gem. There is just no rest for you is there, baby? One with unusual eyes will play important role. Emotional detonation may occur. Do not allow this person to cause you to become disoriented. See Scorp for hidden message to Gem.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): One with serious emotional hang-up will reach out to you, Moonbaby. This person may be floundering. Sinking. Offer help, in the form of reassurance. Helping this person function will be your most important task of week. Help and understanding from Moonbaby will tide this individual over for a while at least.

LEO (July 23 - August 22): Besotted buddy could get you into a real jam at home, Leo. Since your track record is not too peachy in this department, you would be wise to play the role of the cool cat. Read Ari for additional message.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22): Snake-in-the-grass will attempt to reach you as you play among the daffodils of spring, baby. Be on your guard. Don't fall for ancient line. Demand to see credentials. If they appear phoney, throw him into someone else's garden. Then grab your bouquet and evacuate.

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22): Reach out in week ahead, Libra. Reach out and touch another who is alone. When two solitudes touch and greet each other, anything can happen. And usually does, when one is a loving Libra. Energy builds as week progresses.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 22): Sloe-eyed sweetie out to destroy you Scorp. One way or another. But in the final shuffle you will name your own poison. You always do. Addenda to Scorp in Olga's words to her Moonbabies. Read carefully.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21): Hang loose in week ahead. Many unforeseen events take place. Play each day by ear. A totally planned week is a dead week, Sag. Have faith in your tomorrows.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19): Good week for Cap to shelve responsibilities. And maybe just go galavantin'. However, before you go, map plans carefully. And tuck a few extra shekels in your moneybelt. And wear a warm sweater. And don't talk to strangers. And stay out of unsavory places. Otherwise, have a ball, love.

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18): Energy on upswing, Aquari. Associates should do your bidding. Feel free to flirt and flatter. Just don't fall flat on your face while performing these functions. Read Cap for secret message to Aquari.

PISCES (February 19 - March 20): Perhaps it is time for Pisces to take a short trip. A mini-vacation. Maybe just a night on the town. Routine MUST NOT become rut. If conflict at home seems to loom, run like a rabbit. This is certainly not the week for any toe-to-toe confrontations. Bide your time.

Olga Retiring; St. Mary's Guild Readies Musical, 'Bye, Bye Birdie'

Olga is retiring from the horoscope business. However her column will be continued here beginning next week by Phyllis Dee Harrison. "Olga Knows" has been published in both The Nutley Sun and the Belleville Times since last April.

Miss Harrison's column will be called, "By Jupiter!" and is being written in a style similar to Olga's.

Phyllis Dee Harrison's career as an astrologer began at the age of 21 when she was traipsed by the United States government in Oriental languages and sent to Panmunjom, Korea, as an interpreter for the Army during the prisoner of war exchange. While on a related assignment in New Delhi, she was injured and cared for in a Buddhist nunnery. There, she began her study of astrology.

St. Mary's Theatre Guild will be presenting "Bye, Bye Birdie" April 16-17 and 24-25 as its annual spring production. The play nights all fall on Fridays and Saturdays with 8:30 p.m. curtains.

Directed by Jerome I. Goldstein, the musical comedy features Bill Thomson as Albert, Eleanor Caprio as Rose, Kathy Evans as Kim, Tom Little as Conard and Brian Bellog as Hugo.

Others in the cast are Ed Burke as Mr. Macopee, Terry Clark as Mrs. Macopee, Sue Baker as Gloria Rasputin, Ellen Nymeznich as Ursula, and Bob Haines as the Mayor. In supporting roles are John Kaines, Lucy French and Janet Gattuso.

Don Chamberlain is the production's stage manager. Set designs are by Alice Burke and Irene Bottino while Terry Clark is leading the costume committee.

All presentations will be on the stage in the St. Mary's School Gymnasium. Tickets are $2.50.

The director, Jerry Goldstein, has served as musical arranger and pianist for Ernest Gluckman Productions which developed Jerry Lewis. Goldstein was also musical director for such groups as the American Transportation Society, the Lambs Club, General Goods Industrial, and the International Tents of Circus Saints and Sinners.

In Nutley, Goldstein has produced and directed St. Mary's productions since 1966, namely "Pajama Game," "South Pacific," "Music Man," "How to Succeed" and last year's hit, "Oklahoma."

Peace Theater Excursion To See Catonsville Trial

The Trial of the Catonsville 9 by Father Daniel Berrigan, S.J., will be visited by a theater party sponsored by the Nutley Peace Action Committee on Saturday, April 17.

The drama, currently produced at the Good Shepherd Faith Church near Lincoln Center, deals with the 1968 trial of Father Berrigan and eight others for burning draft records. As in the actual trial, the character-defendants freely admit to destroying government property, but they argue that their action was morally justifiable since it illustrated "genocide in Vietnam."

The play has received favorable reviews. Critics have pointed to its relevance, the conflict between legality and morality. Clive Barnes of The N.Y. Times called it "a wonderfully moving testament to nine consciences."

Persons wishing to attend the play should contact the Nutley Peace Center between 3 and 5 p.m. Cost will be $3.50. Mrs. Irwin Brill, Mrs. Lester Newman and Mrs. Calvin Oyer are in charge of arrangements.

Shatner Opens At Paper Mill

William Shatner of "Star Trek" fame stars in Tennessee Williams' "Period of Adjustment" which opened last night at the Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn. The comedy continues through May 2 with evening performances at 8:30, Sundays at 7:30 p.m.

Inattentive Driving Is Cause For Most Accidents

At a recent meeting of the newly organized Dr. Frank N. DiRuggiero Memorial Foundation, the following officers were elected, Eugene Kelly chairman; Nicholas Juliano, vice chairman; Mrs. Joseph Tremel, secretary and Mrs. Di C. Macaluso, treasurer.

Kelly announced that Mrs. Angelo Marone and Peter Paglia had been named co-chairmen of the first social affair, a pink champagne party and fashion show by Cara Fashions to be held on Friday evening, April 16, in the Disabled Veteran's Building in Belleville, to raise funds for the establishment of a permanent memorial in the name of Dr. DiRuggiero.

The following committee chairmen have been named, Michael Rosamilia, waiters; Mrs. Raymond Vanzo, refreshments; Mrs. Joseph Tremel, publicity; Mrs. Harold Spray, entertainment and table decorations; Mrs. Angelo Marone, tickets; William Brickell, hall decorations and Peter Paglia, program.

Dr. Frank N. DiRuggiero, veteran Board of Education member, was a practicing dentist in Belleville from October 1, 42 until his sudden untimely death in May 1970. Dr. DiRuggiero served as a member of the Board of Education in Belleville from 1956 until the time of his death.

The regular meetings of the foundation are held in the small meeting room of the Disabled Veteran's Building, 251 Washington Avenue, Belleville, on the third Tuesday of each month. The regular meeting was held on March 16. Any interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

Contact Mrs. Marone or any one of the committee members for champagne party tickets.

After viewing the New York area, Dirk's next goal is Tampa, Florida, then cross country to California and onward toward home through Siberia. While here in Nutley, Dirk was the guest of Hank and Thera Zablocki for a day that stretched into a visit of over a week. Thera who incidentally was born in Holland, managed some Dutch delicacies as well as American menus for Dirk's enjoyment. One of his evenings in our town was spent lecturing to the boys of Scout Troop 147 on his route and afterwards, Al Welenofsky presented Dirk with a 50th Anniversary neckerchief as a memento of his visit.

Father Viale of Holy Family Church also stopped by the Zablockis for a chat with Dirk, since both men are very tall and share the same interests of traveling and camping. With the Zablocki family, Dirk visited such local sights as Jockey Hollow and Morristown National Historical Park. And now Dirk Hootsman has left our town but thanks to the hospitality and friendliness of our townfolks, he is bringing back to Holland a truer picture of the U.S.A.

Sabena presents tours for swingers. From $359.

We think everyone who goes to Europe should swing. Whether they can afford to or not. So we're offering five different tours to the capitals of Europe that have the "swinging" included in one low price. To London, Paris, Rome, Amsterdam and Copenhagen.

Take our Swingathon plan to London and Paris for example. Fifteen days. $359. It includes round trip jet economy fare from New York to beautiful Brussels. Then on to London for six nights. You'll have dinner and see the show at the plush Penthouse Club, make a scene in three discotheques, absorb the atmosphere of London's most intimate night spot, and spend an evening at the theatre. From London you'll drop down to Paris for another six nights. We'll have cabaret or show tickets waiting for you. And more swinging, à la français.

Or take off on any of the other four tours. Like the two week swing through London, Paris and Rome. Just $437, which includes the best of the nightlife in each city.

Of course if you want to burn the candle at both ends, there's plenty of time for daytime sightseeing. Most plans also provide you with the use of a car. All you pay is mileage.

For folders and complete details on how you can make a big splash in Europe at some very quiet prices, see your travel agent. Or mail the coupon to Sabena, 720 Fifth Ave., New York, New York 10019.

Price includes group inclusive tour air fare based on 15 persons traveling together. Surcharge for peak season travel June 1, 1971 to August 31, 1971 not included in quoted prices.
