

Seeks New Health Building

COMMISSIONER VINCENT Strumolo stands by the door of the Baby Keep Well Station at the Public Health Department. Strumolo hopes to move the clinic and the other facilities of the Health Department to a new building this year, possibly on the present site. Garage in background is unused and the land could be utilized, he says.

Public Affairs Director Vincent T. Strumolo wants to build a public health building this year. The Commissioner says he is unsure whether to buy a building or construct a new one, but foresees the project costing around $150,000.

The Health Department is currently housed in a small, former one family home adjacent to Town Hall on Belleville Avenue. The house, Strumolo says, is over 100 years old, and has been labeled as a fire trap by state and local authorities.

"The State Health Department has recommended we relocate," Strumolo told the Times-News Monday. "They've told us the past three years that our building facilities are inadequate. We're looking around for a building but if I don't find anything I will have to knock down the existing home and put a new one on this spot," he continued. "We're looking for the cheapest way out."

The "cheapest way out" could be a joint venture with the Board of Education, which is also seeking office space for its administrative personnel and its Special Education Department. Strumolo says there has been some talk with the School Board, but nothing concrete has resulted at this point.

Commissioner Strumolo drew a bleak picture of existing health department facilities:

"We are overloaded with desks on each floor. We are using the bathroom on the second floor as a file cabinet. Our health officer is in a room with two sanitary inspectors, and the room is only about five feet by ten feet. We have to use the kitchen as a clinic for the Baby Keep Well Station."

"In the winter," Strumolo continued, "we have to use either electric heaters because it's just too cold. We don't have adequate insulation. In the Baby Keep Well Station we use an extra gas heater to keep that facility

Pop. Figure Wrong?

Mayor To Take Census Protest To Washington

Mayor Joseph McGreevy is unhappy with Belleville's official census figure and says he will take this town's case to Washington D.C. this week.

Specifically, the Mayor is upset that final population figures are lower than the preliminary tabulation by nearly 5,000 people. This difference, McGreevy says, will cost Belleville a $15,000 reduction in state aid for the Health Department in 1972.

The final census, which arrived this week, shows Belleville's population at 34,643. Preliminary figures released in November of 1970 were 39,225. In 1960, Belleville's population was listed at 35,005.

"We've been in touch with Washington and are going to fight our case," Mayor McGreevy told the Times-News Monday. The Mayor said he has spoken to Dr. George Brown, director of the Federal Bureau of Census, and to his assistant, Steven Bailey.

"We are going down there with supporting evidence to prove our case," the Mayor said. "The woman in charge of the Essex County census — Mrs. Gerard Ferrara — is a Belleville resident and will substantiate the original figure."

Mrs. Ferrara, who has been working "on and off" with the Census Bureau since 1959, defended Belleville's original figure, which was compiled under her direction.

"The figures we had were checked and double checked," she said. "After we compiled them we sent them to the computers in Jeffersonville, Ind. I don't know what has happened, but I've told Mayor McGreevy to fight it because the figure could not possibly have dropped by 5,000. If anything, it should have increased."

"I can't understand how this happened," she continued. "Based on such things as the growth of apartments and of the town in general, I can't see how we could have dropped in population."

"Before we were allowed to release any preliminary figures to Mayors," Mrs. Ferrara said, "we had to get the okay from Washington. If they didn't think our figure was close, they wouldn't have given us clearance to release it."

Mrs. Ferrara said a drop of 5,000 in a town of Belleville's size was "highly unlikely."

She said "it is impossible that anyone could have been missed." The census questionnaire was delivered to all homes by local mailmen, she said.

Should the final figure stand up, it will mean a $15,000 loss in state aid to Belleville Health Department, based on the 1970 figures. State aid is distributed on a population basis. This year

Valley Industries Face Grave Insurance Woes Unless Town Hall Acts

By Nat Gottlieb

Several large industrial firms in the Valley will face serious insurance problems if the Town Commission doesn't pass a $95,000 bonding ordinance Tuesday for the construction of a water main.

The firms, including Mattia Press and Mansel Ceramics, have been pressuring Town Hall to lay the new main because water pressure is "dangerously low" in the existing pipes.

Mattia Press President Leo Mattia in fact says the water pressure is so bad that "If we have a fire we would probably lose our building and all the homes on the street (Terry Street)."

Mattia's fears apparently are shared by his insurance firm, Manufacturer's Mutual, which he said has been sending his company registered letters for four years warning that the water main situation is "grave."

Mattia, although he still has insurance, fears these letters could mean the insurance firm would not pay damages should a fire hit his plant. Mattia Press, which encompasses 36,000 square feet, is insured for $2 million.

The ordinance before the Commission Tuesday is up for a final vote, and would okay construction of a new main on Cortlandt Street from Jorammon Street to Bella Vista Avenue.

Public Works Director Mary Senatore says corrosion in the pipes is causing the reduced water pressure. She said the main was two and a half inches in diameter and had been repaired. Mrs. Senatore said she has asked state and federal agencies for funds, but has been told that water improvements cannot be funded.

Firms such as Mattia Press meanwhile will be watching the outcome of Tuesday's voting very closely. "We've been arguing for the new main for a long time," Mattia told the Times-News Tuesday yesterday.

"The Commission has known about it for some time but they have been pussyfooting around," he continued. "Now it looks like they are going to do something about it."

Mattia said he had originally been told by the Commission that the pipes would be installed by April of 1971, and informed his insurance company of that deadline.

April passed without any change in the water system.

Street Repairs Planned

Commissioner Mary V. Senatore has listed the 17 streets scheduled for resurfacing this year. The work will be done with $16,551 of state aid and the town's share of $1,000. This year's 17 being the total number of roadways resurfaced by the Public Works Department of 59 during Mrs. Senatore's five years in office.

The following streets will be resurfaced in 1971:

Will Street (Union Avenue to Washington Avenue), Schuyler Street (Cortlandt Street to Terrace Place), Church Terrace, Railroad Place, Cross Street (Belmont Avenue to Watchung Avenue), Cedar Hill Avenue (Belleville Avenue to Maier Street), Rossmore Place (Washington Avenue to Hornblower Avenue), Van Houton Place (Washington Avenue to Hornblower Avenue), Mt. Prospect Avenue (Belleville Avenue to Maier Street), Holmes Street (Washington Avenue to Hornblower Street), and Lawrence Street (Belmont Avenue to No. 11th Street).

Also scheduled for resurfacing is Meacham Street (Newark Place to Gless Avenue), Hornblower Avenue (Academy Street to Belleville Avenue), Passaic Avenue (Greylock Avenue to Town Line), Smallwood Avenue (Rhode Place east 250 feet), Jorammon Street (New Street to Union Avenue) and Valley Street (Holmes Street to Jorammon Street).

Arrest Arson Suspect

Local police have arrested a 36 year old Belleville man whom they say tried to burn down Gallagher's Tavern on July 11.

The man is being charged with attempted arson and being held in lieu of $5000 bail, according to Detective Sgt. Hank Olivieri.

Sgt. Olivieri said witnesses saw the suspect douse the back door of the tavern after hours and then set it on fire. By the time police and fire officials arrived, the fire had died out.

According to Sgt. Olivieri, the interior of the tavern was unharmed because the fire could not get underneath the door. The door was

Suit Filed Tuesday

Courts Asked To Order Mike Marotti Hearing

Two former Commission candidates filed suit Tuesday demanding that Police Chief Joseph Smith call a departmental hearing in the Michael Marotti controversy. The suit, filed in the Chancery Division of Essex County Superior Court, names Chief Smith and Public Safety Director Robert Laterza as defendants.

The suit was filed by former Councilman James R. Golden and Commission candidate Salvatore LaMorte, and demands the hearing be held on the grounds that Marotti is violating Police Department Regulation 58, a rule limiting the political involvement of policemen.

Marotti, who is both Commissioner of Parks and Public Property and a juvenile officer, has 20 days, from the time the suit is served to file an answer.

The whole future of the Marotti controversy will apparently rest on whether or not the courts choose to hear the case.

John Montefusco, attorney for Golden and LaMorte, says that should the courts hear the case and dismiss the allegations, his clients in all likelihood will drop the matter.

The attorney, who lives in Belleville and maintains law offices in Irvington, said if the case is accepted, the judge will have two recourses, he can either issue an order that Chief Smith hold a hearing, or hold the hearing himself.

Montefusco says there are strong indications that should the court refuse to hear the case, 25 citizens will file a taxpayer's suit against Marotti charging he is in conflict of interest by holding the two jobs.

The attorney speculated that should the courts decide against Marotti, he will be suspended as a police officer during his term as a Commissioner. He would be allowed to return to police duty after his stint as a Commissioner, Montefusco said.

The lawyer also said that should Marotti lose his battle to remain as a detective, he would probably have the choice of giving up his Commission job and staying with the police department.

Montefusco emphasized neither LaMorte or Golden "is out for personal revenge grievances against Marotti. But they feel there is a conflict of interest and would rather have it settled now than after two years in office. They also believe that Marotti as a Commissioner and a detective cannot properly represent the voters of Belleville."

Vinnie To Fight For Crossing Guard

TRAFFIC rolls over railroad tracks at Franklin Street crossing where Erie-Lackawanna Railroad proposes to replace crossing guard with automatic system. The tower on the left houses the guard, who controls the crossing presently. In the background is Commissioner Strumolo's restaurant, from where he says he's witnessed mechanical failures which required the presence of the guard to maintain safety.

Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo says he will fight the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad's proposed discontinuance of the crossing guard on Franklin Street. The railroad's petition is before the state Public Utilities Commission, which has scheduled a public hearing Thursday, September 2 at 10 a.m. in its Newark office.

Strumolo says the railroad wants to replace the guard with an automatic warning light. Presently the guard warns cars and pedestrians by manually lowering a gate.

The Commissioner says he will contest the proposal because he feels the crossing guard "is vital to the safety of pedestrians and drivers."

"I feel the guard is important because in this area there are a lot of children crossing the tracks on their way to the James Shawer School and to St. Anthony's School," he said.

"The mechanical system can fail," the Commissioner continued, "and I feel that with a man there he can at least get out and warn people if there is a breakdown."

The Commissioner, whose home and business establishment border the crossing, says he has witnessed gate failures.

"My store is right along the tracks and I'm very familiar with the situation. Sometimes the gates don't work and I see the man go out into the center of the street and stop the cars."

"Also, many times during a wind storm these gates break and the guard has to control the situation by himself," Strumolo added.

The Erie-Lackawanna petition also proposes discontinuance of a guard at Grove Street in Bloomfield.

"I can't answer for Bloomfield," Strumolo said, "but I know that I will fight this proposal and so will our town attorney (John Scott). I think the automatic system is okay out in the farm country, but not in an area like this where so many kids are going to school."

The hearing will be held in room 408 of the Public Utility Commission's office at 101 Commerce Street. Strumolo urged residents to join him in protesting the railroad's petition.

Rubbish Attack Coming

A crackdown on the dumping of rubbish along the banks of the Passaic River is in the making, according to Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo. His announcement is in line with a strict cleanup policy being sponsored jointly by the Army Corps of Engineers and the U.S. Attorney's office along the river.

Strumolo said he was putting everyone on notice-including the State of New Jersey — that "dumping will not be tolerated along the Passaic River."

The Commissioner Friday conducted a survey of the section of the river in Belleville and reports that most of the land along the banks is owned by the state. "Anything from the highway (Route 21) to the river is state owned," he said. "There is very little privately owned land."

"The state says it is going to prosecute anyone dumping near the river," Strumolo continued. "We too are going to step up our efforts, even if the offenders are the dilate government. If they dump debris, we will ask them to clean it up."

"It will help if the people in town report to us the license plate numbers of any trucks dumping in the area," Commissioner Strumolo said.
"I think the program to cleanup the river has been publicized enough so that the people are aware of it. The thing we need to do now is to enforce the laws."

According to Strumolo, his department can issue summons and bring offenders into Belleville

Municipal Court. He said
fines for dumping range from $50 to $500.

Strumolo said his cleanup policy will not be limited to the river area. He says a boy hired for the summer is checking vacant lots for debris and high weeds and will report daily to local health officer, Edward Hillery.

"If we find anyone in violations we will have him in for a hearing," Strumolo said.
"If he still does nothing then we will take him to court."

of Bloomfield College, Bloomfield, announces the acceptance of Raymond

Bloomfield is a four-year, coeducational, cooperative education college offering a baccalaureate degree in 18 majors including oppor-

study and special studies courses.

Mayor To Take Census Protest To Washington; State Aid Hurt

Belleville received $34,200 in state aid.

The final census figure won't affect state aid to the school system, which gets its money based on average daily attendance. The population drop did come as a surprise to school officials, though. They expected the figure to have increased because of their mounting enrollment problems in junior and senior high.

Mrs. Ferrara speculated there might have been some mistake made by Federal officials in tabulating the figures in the Silver Lake and Soho sections of town, but added the chances were
"slim."

Each town, she explained, is divided into districts. The Silver Lake and Soho sections roughly represented one district. Original projections for the number of housing units in these two areas was about 500, according to Mrs.
Ferrara.

This figure was immediately contested by Mrs. Ferrara, who as a resident felt the housing unit was "way off."
"I brought it to the attention of census officials and they rechecked and found about

1,500 more housing units," she said.

Apparently many of the Silver Lake units were thought to be in neighboring Newark, while the Soho figures were mixed in with nearby Bloomfield.

"Maybe the computer didn't record this change," she speculated, "but I don't know how it could possibly have happened."

Mrs. Ferrara said she didn't know what Belleville's chances were of winning its case in Washington. "I'm reluctant to get involved with this because it might jeopardize my job, but I want to see my town get a fair shake."

Mayor McGreevy
meanwhile says Belleville will present Mrs. Ferrara's evidence plus a copy of all the building and demolition permits issued here in the last ten years. He will also bring figures on the increase in school population and school building construction. He said Town Attorney John Scott would probably argue the town's case.

New Belleville Manager Named By Prudential

Philip J. Passero

Philip J. Passero of 62 Rock Spring Avenue West Orange, has been promoted by Prudential Insurance Co. to manager of the Belleville district.

Passero succeeds Richard J. Thomson, who now is in charge of the Morristown district. Passero joined the Belleville district in 1948. He became a Newark sales manager in 1953, served at Belleville three years, and then in the West Orange district from 1960. Early this year, he became a district agencies training consultant.

He is designated a Chartered Life Underwriter by the American College of Life Underwriters. He has been active in United Community Fund campaigns and during World War II, served three years in the Army.

Passero is married to the former Anna Angelotto of Irvington. Their sons are Philip Jr., M.D., an intern at Michael, a salesman with Dorchester Co., Millburn.

(Continued from page 1) however, so Mattia went back to the Commission. He says he has assurance now that if the ordinance passes, the work will be completed by January 1.

Sources close to the Commission say the ordinance was held up by the previous Commission because of the May election. These sources say the ordinance couldn't have been introduced until the town's "six-year Capital Program and Capital Budget" was passed, and that document only was okayed last week. The sources say Commissioners felt voters would confuse the six-year program as a commitment to expenditures, which it isn't.

People rarely get mad with anyone who says good things about them.

The arrest came after extensive investigation by Sgt. Oliveri, Detective Thomas Ricci, and Fire Captain Edward Dunleavy.

The suspect was actually arrested first in Newark Friday for atrocious assault and battery and released on $250 bail. The man was turned over to Belleville police because Newark officials had a description of him which was circulated by local authorities.

A hearing before Municipal Court Judge Edward Abromson is scheduled next Thursday. The tavern in question is located at 157 Belleville Avenue.

New Position To St. John

The Howard Savings Institution announced the promotion of Frank St. John of Belleville to assistant treasurer today.

St. John, formerly a branch manager, came to the Bank in 1959. A graduate of the New Jersey Bankers Public Relations School, Princeton, and the New Jersey Bankers Data Processing School, he has earned pre-standard and standard certificates from The American Institute of Banking. He presently serves as softball and basketball commissioner for the Financial Organization of the Newark Athletic League.

Seeks Health Building

In a new facility, Strumolo envisions an expanded health department which would be in line with his policy of increasing health services to the community. In his five years as a Commissioner, Strumolo has updated all the health codes, introduced several innovative health programs, gotten a full-time health inspector and introduced state aid to Belleville in the health department for the first time.

"In the new health building," Strumolo said, "we would have a department where we could conduct a health educational program for children and senior citizens. The nurses would have ample space for clinics where mothers and expectant mothers could come in for lectures on infant care."

Commendation For Santuoso

Navy Petty Officer Third Class Martin Santuoso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Santuoso of 150 Liberty Avenue, Belleville, was advanced to his present rate at a Meritorious Mast while serving aboard the destroyer USS Glennon, homeported in Charleston, S.C.

A meritorious Mast is a personal commendation for devotion to duty and initiative.

"I would also like to have an area where senior citizens could come to get answers on questions pertaining to medicare and social security," he said. "It would be a place for the senior citizens to discuss any problems they might have in these two areas; sort of like an information center."

"We could also expand the dental clinic, and increase all the office space for our personnel," Strumolo said.

The Commissioner said there are health department grants available from the state which would pay up to 35 per cent of the cost, but Strumolo says he doesn't favor using the state funds.

"I would think twice before using the state because when they give you aid they also get the right to set the specifications for the health center and they would want us to put in technicians and x-ray equipment and other things which we currently don't have. Things of that nature we get from Soho hospital. If we bond this ourselves it will be cheaper for us in the long run."

The 18-Year-Old

In the wake of the adoption of the amendment to the federal constitution giving 18-year olds the right to vote, former Nutley Commissioner Carl Orechio is urging the adoption of state legislation to bestow upon 18-year olds a majority status.

As things are now one must arrive at the old age of 21 before he or she is no longer considered a minor. Possessed with the right to vote, Orechio believes the laws should be amended to reduce the age of a minor to 17, thus permitting persons attaining the age of 18 the right to sign contracts and assume other obligations that are denied to minors. We think the proposal deserves adoption by the New Jersey Legislature.

TV and Children

The final report of the White House Conference on Children, recently presented to President Nixon, sharply condemns commercial television's exploitation of the nation's children and recommends a number of reforms.

Among the 3,000 participants at the White House conference last December were 180 educators, child psychologists, psychiatrists and other specialists. The resulting conference report thus warrants the attention of every thinking citizen.

The report recommends the establishment of a National Children's Media Foundation, permanent funding of public television, the reservation of at least twenty per cent of cable TV channels for non-commercial purposes and the possible elimination of all advertising on children's programs.

The new Children's Media Foundation would monitor commercial television and make recommendations. It would remind commercial telecasters that transmissions to children were a "privilege" that had to be earned through acceptable presentations to their vulnerable audience.

The report also calls for establishment of a new organization to defend the public interest in seeing that untruths are not broadcast, citing the failure of the FTC and FCC in this area. It further calls for a beginning from the networks of clustered advertising at mid-point intermissions rather than constant interruptions throughout programs, etc.

The national disgrace which is American commercial television should not be allowed to continue indefinitely. The degeneracy, in the form of crime, violence, sadism, immorality, etc., for the benefit of commercial interests seeking sales and audiences through shock, thrill and horror, has flooded American homes too long. The White House Conference Report should be acted upon positively without delay.

Town Government Change Delayed By Opposition Fear

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

A 35-year-old former Bellboy varsity grid star was to be named head coach for the high school football squad. Rocco Cafone of Fairfield, an assistant grid coach at Upsala College, was selected by the Board of Education for the position after a special caucus that lasted until the early morning hours. Eight other applicants for the job had been interviewed during the evening and after several secret ballots the board finally decided on Cafone.

Belleville teens seeking summer employment were in for a big disappointment. For the first time in three years the town was to be without the state run Youth Corps program. Commissioner Mary Senatore learned of Trenton's decision to bypass Belleville in favor of beginning the Youth program in Orange, Montclair, and East Orange. "The town was once again shortchanged by the officials in Trenton," commented Mrs. Senatore. "We have had the Youth Corps here for the last two years but despite many actions Belleville has been bypassed."

"Our Place I" was set for its grand opening in the Municipal Stadium. An open invitation was extended to all of Belleville's teenagers to visit the town's first discotheque. The doors to the former refreshment stand would open at 7 p.m. with music and food featured until 11 p.m. First begun as an idea by the Belleville Youth Council, about 20 local teens had been working feverishly to make "Our Place I" a reality. Admission was free to the chaperoned discotheque.

Five Years Ago

The Parking Authority, stalled through indecision and a lack of manpower, was still going through the pains of growth as Mayor Nuncio Pico beat the bushes for candidates for the five-man authority. "I'm going to make another pitch for people," he said, explaining he was short one man. A survey along Washington Avenue indicated that merchants saw the need for such a parking authority to study facilities in town with the purpose of forestalling economy-strangling parking problems.

No move for a change of government would be made until "sometime in September," announced Thomas Apicelli, campaign chairman of the Belleville Citizens For Commission Government, because of fear that the referendum would face "too much opposition" from state, county, and municipal questions slated for the November ballot. Of the move to ouster the council-manager form of government, Mayor Nuncio Pico commented, "If the people want a change it's perfectly alright with me. It's up to them."

Operation Head Start began its second year in Belleville, and fifteen youngsters were registered for the School One course that would prepare them for activities which would have been beyond their capabilities and understanding. Heading the program was Belleville Junior High School principal Seymour Grossman, who worked with Steven Aduhato, county co-ordinator for the Youth and Economic Rehabilitation Commission.

Ten Years Ago

Residents on Mitchell Street declared angrily that homes collectively valued at upwards of half-a-million dollars were threatened with ruin from burrowing rodents. They charged that conditions that brought the unwelcome callers had been known to the authorities in Town Hall "for years" and that nothing had been done about it. Mayor Nuncio Pico said he had interviewed two applicants for additional health department positions and stated he would call in a rodent expert to look into the situation.

Edward J. Mahler of 62 High Street was elected chairman of the Belleville Chapter of the American Red Cross at the 45th annual meeting of the Chapter. Mr. Mahler succeeded Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools, who had completed seven years as head of the local Chapter. Dr. Durkee was presented with a national certificate, "in grateful appreciation for outstanding service" to the Chapter.

Paul Brennan was to become principal of School No. 3 to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Paul Jones. Mrs. Violet Spray, principal of School 9, was to assume responsibility of the principalship of School 1, Mr. Brennan's former position. Michael Albertine was the only school board member who did not approve of the appointments. Some residents had objected to the fact that School 1 and 9 would have to share a principal.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

The Bellwood Riding Academy was once again the object of neighborhood censure when a petition was presented asking that the Board of Commissioners abolish the local mecca for horseback rides. Isadore Padula, attorney, presented the petition of the 60 residents who were subjected to the antics of potential Roy Rogers, endangering the lives of their children by horses running rampant in the streets.

The Nereid Boat Club, well proven local organization, was celebrating its 71st anniversary. It was announced that the club would include in their celebration plans the sending of three crews to Canada to compete in the Royal Canadian Henley Regatta. The participants were to be Homer Zink, Al Walker, George Reif, Robert Peabody, and Darrell Zink.

Public Safety Director Noll announced that the police department would institute a drive to correct traffic regulations. Warning tickets were to be issued to every one violating a traffic regulation on first offense. A record would be kept at police headquarters of all first offenders and those detected in a second violation would be given a summons. The drive was to be headed by Police Chief George Spatz and Lieutenant Emerson Bush.

Forty Years Ago

Clark Albey of 4 Malone Avenue took first place in the canoe singles in an aquatic meet on the Pompton River at Mountain View.

New teachers named by the Board of Education were: Reese E. Bert, principal of Schools 2 and 10; Miss Beulah Moyer, Spanish and history in the high school, and Paul Evans, mathematics teacher for the high school.

Fifty Years Ago

A new telephone directory for the use of 570,000 subscribers in the city was distributed by the New York Telephone Company. The volume weighed five pounds and contained 1,320 pages.

A new Building and Loan Association was organized and held its first meeting at the office of Henry Jacobs of 484 Washington Avenue. It was decided to call the association the Clover Building and Loan Association of Belleville. George H. Davis was elected president, Jerome Conley, vice-president, and Henry Jacobs, treasurer.

Political Kettle is Boiling Over Says J. Golden

To The Editor

The caldron of Belleville politics continues to bubble with even increased activity. The puzzled pundits of the zany crew of behind the scenes manipulators of Belleville's king-makers and mayhem seem confused and stunned by the instability and uncertainty of their hoped for mastery of the new political control of the community's life.

This weak handful of dormant Republican Party officials, long starving for power in a town predominantly Democratic, immediately after the May 11th. local election, in a hastily conceived and cleverly devised cabal, seized upon the plan of establishing a Republican power entente in Town Hall.

To "swing" the "deal," according to widely circulated reports in usually informed political circles, the suasive powers of the County Chairman of the G.O.P. were even brought into play to "dangle" possible future "plums" before the eager eyes of the recently converted Republican Commissioner winners, Strumolo and Laterza, who only a few short years ago sported the toga of the Democratic Party. Popular, high vote-getter Marotti whose party affiliation is largely unknown, but, who had long been regarded politically affiliated to the McGreevy political power structure smoothly fit into the jigsaw arrangement patently designed to reduce the political power and prestige of Belleville's Democratic Town Chairman and the town's first lady Commissioner, Mary V. Senatore. All this, while this handful of highly placed local office-holders, elected on a purely non-partisan basis, presumably by many more democratically minded voters than G.O.P.'ers set about to "run" the town as their oyster.

Strange, however, are the ways of politics. Often after the devious deeds and masterful machinations of the masterminds of political chicanery and intrigue are unveiled, there grows a surging revulsion that spreads to open rebellion against the power structure strategists who latch on to the slightest fragment of opportunity to usurp control for themselves.

Their quest for power quickly manifests itself in the wanton manner in which relatives and supporters are appointed to policy making bodies and boards; in some instances in what appears direct evidence of conflict of interest. These developments produce neither good, wholesome government nor do they inspire and instill confidence in the people.

Erstwhile supporters disgusted by the voracious quest for power they observe defect. One such, Jackie Rega, the lemon ice king, who strongly supported Comm. Laterza's candidacy when he defeated Rega's own cousin, Rocco Saletta, by two votes, has recently been publicly seen on several occasions chatting amiably with Comm. Senatore, the prime target of the now not too securely entrenched G.O.P. "power pact" politicians at Town Hall.

Could this forebode a shift of Rega's support, bringing with it his many friends and followers to the camp of the lady commissioner?

Other old guard politicians, displeased by developments, subtly weigh the shifting winds on the rough waters of Belleville's storm tossed political sea, perhaps pondering the advisability of changing course to insure reaching a "Snug Harbor" as the fury of Belleville's political storm mounts.

Gleason---A Shining Star That Never Dims

DURING LAST WEEK'S TRIP to the Sun and Fun Capitol of the World I had the pleasure of dining with my very dear friend Phil Cuoco at Miami's Jockey Club. Phil is the famed art director of the Jackie Gleason Television Show.

During a most pleasant repast I chanced to acquire into Phil's current activities, since the Jackie Gleason Show has not been in production since February 1970.

With a hearty laugh, Phil said, "Frank, I do hope you have loads of time on your hands, because like Barnum & Bailey, we're bigger and better than ever."

"You know Frank, I've been associated with Jackie, and his partner Jack Philbin since 1950. At that time these two men put together and formed the most formidable artistic and technical team in the film and television industry."

"Four years ago my fellow worker, friend, associate, Bob Hennig and I, engaged in idle and off the cuff discussion concerning a surprising event we actually felt could never take place -- No Jackie Gleason Show."

"As you well know Frank, we're the only show in the business with it's own construction plant, 45,000 square feet, loaded with talent, men, and machinery so, with Jackie's and Jack's blessings, we formed subsidiaries, became a conglomerate in the construction field, using our combined talents, and efforts in architectural, industrial and interior designing construction installations."

Today two of the show sub-divisions, of which are Florida Corporations, are incorporated and Interior Custom Construction Associates, have been tremendously successful in their new operations."

"Scenery, constructs the Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey combined shows, has completed and installed "The Small World Fantasy," for Disney, in Orlando, Florida, as well as other attractions for the Astroworld Park in Houston, Texas, and all the legitimate stage shows for the Royal Poinciana Playhouse, Palm Beach, Florida."

"I.C.C.A., is building and installing interiors for Ramada Inn's, in Edison, New Jersey, St. Petersburg, Florida and Hapeville, Georgia, forty nine Lounge Installations for Howard Johnson, Franchises throughout the country, Two Restaurants "The Europa," Miami, Florida and "The Wine Cellar," Columbus, Ohio, and in your second hometown Frank; Sterling's Men's Shop and the Racquet and Golf Clubs for Inverrary, Fort Lauderdale, Florida."

"Now you know we're a versatile group, and we are looking forward to as long a run in the construction field as we have had with the Jackie Gleason Show."

"In summing it all up, I would say that I am a very busy Vice President, and if we happen to come up with a new show all I can say is "And Away We Go," which off the record could happen within the very near future."

"Frank, I'm sure glad you asked, because a star like the 'World's Greatest,' Jackie Gleason always shines."

As we arrived at the end of the evening I couldn't help but feel a lurking suspicion that Jackie Gleason, Phil Cuoco and company were due to come back on the airways real soon.

IRIS MAXWELL POWERS, the PR girl that formerly handled the Miss USA and Miss Universe participants from a Miami base, is now operating out of the Los Angeles, California area where she represents one of the world's foremost manufacturers of toys. Iris writes that Eldon Toys are in such demand that the company is unable to fill the orders fast enough. The company's new creation PIPSQUEEK, is a new doll that is taking the market by storm. Iris reasons "Eldon's insistence on toys of high quality at a reasonable price will continue to have significant effect on all toys manufactured in the future."

THE CONCLUSION of "The Effects of Marijuana" follows:

(2) The effect of lowering blood pressure through different mechanisms than today's drugs; and (3) have anti-depressant and anti-anxiety effects again different in their mechanism of action than today's drugs. Emergence of a new drug in any one of these three classes would be a substantial contribution, particularly if the drug possessed greater margins of safety or fewer side effects than drugs presently being used.

The development of a new drug, no matter how valuable, would of course not change the major issue for the 20 million or so users in our society today. They will continue to press for legalization of marijuana in the face of opposition from the majority of the citizenry, who although ill-informed and overactive, feel that to take this step "would be to invite national tragedy."

As for myself, I would favor legalization only if I were confident that a control system could be devised to preclude widespread usage by adolescents. They are not well equipped to handle a drug which provides a pleasant escape from reality, promotes inattention and would distract them from their main task -- growing up. But hopefully many Americans will read Lester Grinspoon's "Marijuana Reconsidered" and utilize the information so well presented, in reaching their own decision on pot, to legalize or not.

Oak Tree Gets Help From Shaders

To The Editor:

My family recently moved to Nutley and one of the earliest experiences we had was part of a huge oak tree crashing down in front of our house. This occurred early one Sunday morning and I was surprised at the dispatch with which the broken branches were removed by the town. When later I felt that other branches from this tree were a potential danger to my house I wrote a letter to the Shade Tree Commission and corrective action was taken almost immediately.

These men not only did a fine job but did it in a manner that saved most of the tree. My feelings were that Peter Childs and the men of his department take considerable pride in their jobs and do them well.

Visitors have remarked to me how beautiful the trees in Nutley are. I can only tell them, "They didn't just grow that way; they're kept that way." I'm certain that I am not alone in thinking that we have an excellent Shade Tree Commission in Nutley.

It's A Blessing To Have Police

To The Editor:

It is really a great blessing for the residents of Nutley to have such an efficient and cooperative organization in town such as the Nutley Volunteer First Aid Squad and also our Police Department. I wish to thank them for their help to a member of our family. Without them we would have been lost.

A spring 1972 wedding is planned.

Pharmacy Footnotes

Vincent Cozzarelli
Reg. Ph.

Do you sit while you work? If so, the danger is that you will begin to look as if you are sitting when you are actually walking! Seriously, however, there is a posture that you can adopt while you are sitting that will keep your healthy and comfortable. Your head should be erect and well-balanced; the hollow of your back should be supported with the back of your chair. The hip, the knee, and the foot should all be at right angles. You will find that good posture will keep you from tiring easily.

Tired of waiting for prescriptions?—Call 759-1968, 759-1956. ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave. for quick service. "Your Doctor Knows Us—Your Doctor Trusts Us." Hours: 9 AM - 10 PM Daily, 9 AM - 9 PM Sundays. Free Delivery Service. Don't leave on vacations without sun tan lotions, insect repellants and other travel items—stop first at Rossmore!

HELPFUL HINT: A writing desk or table should help the arms rest parallel to the hips and knees.

Advisory Council Finishes Season

The final meeting of the Belleville Educational Advisory Council was held at Belleville High School on June 3.

After the reading of the minutes of the May meeting by Mrs. Lucille Gasiewicz, secretary, Matthew Pica, Board of Education representative on the council requested the assistance of the committee members in implementing the Walling Report by visitations to the various Belleville Elementary Schools and the Junior High School during the summer.

Materials were distributed from the Association of Mathematics Teachers of New Jersey through the courtesy of Joseph Meglio Sr. of the Western Electric Co. It was explained to the council members that the Western Electric Co. would be willing to cooperate with school officials in making full use of the materials for class work.

Reports were given by the Office Occupations Committee and the Home Economics Committee. Patrick Barbone, president of the Educational Advisory Council, announced the names of the full complement of members for 1971, Henry Kellenbence, Victor Cali, John Teutsch, Ernest Arvidson, John Caron, Richard Covey, Emanuele De Noia Jr., Robert Landolfi, Vincent Moller, Joseph Palmieri, Benjamin Torre, Anthony Caruso, Lucille Gasiewicz, Charles Miele, Gerald Ritacco, Joseph Meglio, Sr., Grace Purdue, John Tague, Viola Narucki and Richard Racioppi.

Miss Geraldine Pucci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Pucci of Hancock Avenue, Nutley, was married May 30 to Jack J. Zoppa, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zoppa of Division Avenue, Belleville.

The Rev. Gerard Walsh of West New York performed the ceremony in St. Mary's Church. A reception followed at Vecchiarello's, Little Ferry.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a lawn gown outlined with tiny daisies and fashioned with a high illusion neckline, long bishop sleeves and detachable train.

A spray of daisies held her cathedral length veil and she carried a colonial hand bouquet of white daisies and baby's breath and yellow tea roses.

Miss Donna Horvath of Nutley was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Kathleen Battaglia and Miss Pamela Pucci, niece of the bride of Nutley and Miss Debra Restivo of Pinebrook. Miss Valerie Hart of Belleville was junior bridesmaid and Lauren Piro of Nutley was flower girl.

They were attired in printed voile gowns in pastel shades of green with yellow smocking on the neckline, waist and sleeves. Bouquets were of yellow daisies, miniature carnations and tea roses. The flower girl wore a white organza eyelet gown trimmed with yellow daisies and a yellow bow in her hair.

Kenneth Zoppa of Belleville served his brother as best man. Ushers were Kenneth and Dennis Pucci of Nutley, brothers of the bride, and Clair J. Millard of Belleville. Stephen Pandolfi of Nutley was junior usher.

Mrs. Pucci chose a gown featuring a navy blue voile skirt and a white lace bodice. Her accessories were white and her corsage was a white gardenia. The groom's mother was in a yellow crepe culotte gown with a white lace bolero bodice and yellow accessories. Her corsage was a yellow cymbidium.

Mrs. Zoppa, a graduate of Nutley High School, is with People's National Bank and Trust Company, Belleville.

Mr. Zoppa, an alumnus of Belleville High School and Vermont Technical College, served in the Army and is with Vac-U-Max, Belleville.

The couple are living in Belleville after a motor trip across the country and to Florida.

Tri-Town Board Meeting Makes Plans For Fall

The Tri-town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley held a Board Meeting at the home of the President, Miss Ruth Williamson of Belleville, on Tuesday, July 6.

Plans for the 1971-1972 year were discussed with a view to carrying out the continuing theme of the National Federation, "ERA of Responsibility," with the sub-theme, "Enrich, Renew, Act." ACTION is to be the key word for the coming year — action for legislation to secure the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment; action for a quality society in such areas as crime and drug prevention, ecology and beautification; action for elevating the standards of women through further education and leadership development seminars; and action for peace through voter education and the United Nations. As part of this overall program, Tri-Town has adopted as its theme, "Our American Heritage."

As all club members are assigned to one of the eight standing committees, the chairmen received the names of those who will be working with them during the year.

Officers and chairmen attending the meeting were

Miss Ruth Williamson, Miss Frances Williamson, Mrs. Josephine Robustello and Mrs. Lillian Westcott of Belleville; Miss Frances Foley, Miss Marion Hansen, Miss Eleanor Kukielski, Mrs. Elizabeth Simone, Miss Mildred Spatz and Miss Gwendolyn Struble of Bloomfield; Miss Elsie Ciccone, Mrs. Marion Johnson, Miss Marion F. Johnson, Miss Margaret Mostica of Nutley; Miss Alice Fleming of Wayne, Miss Helen Hunt of Glen Ridge and Mrs. John Kellerman of Verona.

Belleville Resident Cited By College

Local Educators Attend Two-Week Conference

Three Belleville teachers, Rosemary Mazzucco, Anita Schulz, and Adrienne Drewes and Assistant Superintendent Michael Rosamilia attended a two-week conference on Early Childhood Education at the Peddie School in Hightstown.

The 100 educators declared that "henceforth all programs for young children should be child-centered. The first and most important quality in any educational program is the respect and dignity it asserts for the child as a human being."

The conference was made possible by a grant to the New Jersey State Department of Education from the U.S. Office of Education under the Education Professions Development Act. This grant has been administered in the name of "Project Quest" under the direction of Mrs. Doris H. Weatherby.

"Our objective in this conference," Mrs. Weatherby stated, "was to acquaint our participants with the most meaningful findings in the field of early childhood, and to help them implement viable programs."

The two-week summer seminar was held at The Peddie School in Hightstown. Participants heard nationally known authorities speak of research studies in the field of child development and the relation of these studies to educational processes concerned with children, typical as well as atypical, ranging in age from infancy through nine years.

"The outstanding feature of the conference was the continuous opportunity for interchange and discussion among participants and consultants. Active involvement in the planning of school and community efforts for young children should emanate from the knowledge gained in these study sessions," Mrs. Weatherby said.

Attention was called to the impact of proposed federal programs for New Jersey youngsters. Comprehensive child care legislation is presently pending in the U.S. Congress and expected to pass. It was determined by the group that New Jersey guidelines and standards should be reviewed and revised now to insure that all programs to be implemented in this state will be in the best interests of our children.

This Education Professions Development Act project in early childhood/special education will be sponsoring further conferences and publications to stimulate concerns for the child development foundations on which we most necessarily build programs for young children.

Hospitals To Hike Charges

Blame Higher Labor Costs

Following recent labor contract settlements, three Essex County hospitals have announced their increased operating costs will mean higher charges for patients.

As wages rise, more hospitals will doubtlessly be forced to raise the price of health care, said Jack W. Owen, New Jersey Hospital Association president.

"The hospitals don't like it; insurance groups don't like it; the patients don't like it - nobody likes it, yet it happens because our economy is inflationary."

The new contracts were negotiated with Local 1199 of the Drug & Hospital Employees Union, AFL-CIO, in 11 sessions. Some of the sessions lasted 7-8 hours as the date for old contracts to expire drew near. About 1,300 non-professional workers are covered by the contracts.

The new pacts provide a $30-a-week raise over two years, a new cost-of-living feature, more vacation and sick leave and increased shift differentials.

"I think the hospitals - Newark Beth Israel Medical Center, Clara Maass Memorial Hospital and the Hospital Center at Orange - did a job in a series of tough and touchy negotiating sessions," Owens added. "The hospitals got the best settlement available without threats of a work stoppage."

"Strikes in hospitals have a far worse effect than in private industry. There, the only thing lost is management's ability to make money. When a hospital is struck, the hospital loses too - but the public loses more. The health care they rely on is absent or severely curtailed."

"Local 1199 is expected to seek similar contracts at the state's other organized hospitals. Hospitals that are not unionized are under pressure to maintain pay parity, not only in the non-professional ranks but for clerical positions too."

Owen also said the paramedical staff such as nurses and lab technicians would have to be given raises to maintain their premium above the non-professional help.

He also pointed out that salaries account for 70 cents of each dollar spent by a hospital. Supplies and equipment account for only 30 cents. In industry the figures are reversed.

The president further noted that hospitals are seeking to lower costs by subcontracting some work, pooling support services and by time-sharing computers to lessen accounting expenses.

One of the major stalemates at the contract talks was the right of hospitals to subcontract some of the work performed by union members. Although the three hospitals agreed to protect the jobs, seniority and benefits of all union employees, the union was immovable in its "no subcontracting" stand. The issue was not resolved in the new contracts, Owen said.

So the hospitals are caught between labor's demands and the recently enacted Health Care Facilities Planning Act. This state law calls on hospitals to stop costly duplication of services and unnecessary expansion.

"The state, counties and municipalities are the biggest users of hospitals who do not pay their full share," Owen concluded. "Also, the federal Medicare program does not cover all hospital expenses."

"This leaves the self-pay patient and persons covered by commercial insurance to pay above cost to keep the hospitals in operation."

Student Selected To Live In Mexico This Summer

Jean Nickario of 28 Lighth St. has been selected by The Experiment in International Living to live abroad with a family in Mexico this summer.

Jean, a junior at Montclair State College, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nickario. The Experiment has been engaged in international educational exchange since its founder, Dr. Donald B. Watt, first introduced a group of American youths to their French and German-speaking counterparts in Switzerland in 1932.

It is now the most well-established program of its type in the world with representatives in more than 60 countries involved in the annual exchange of some 5,000 young men and women between the United States and 100 nations around the globe. The private, nonprofit organization maintains its U.S. headquarters in Putney, Vt.

Before Jean arrives in her homestay community abroad, she will join ten other members of her Experiment group for intensive preparation for the adventure ahead. The group, with the

Wesley Methodist Plans Horse Lead Pilgrimage To Celebrate Founding

Wesley United Methodist Church will re-live founding of the church 180 years ago.

The celebration will begin October 24 with a pilgrimage from the original location on Main Street to its present location. The pilgrimage will be led by a horse rider to represent circuit rider of that day and many of the congregation will be dressed in the fashion of that day. Robert Payne-District superintendent will be assisted in the morning service by lay leader Alan Crisp, the town historian.

October 31 will be homecoming Sunday for former pastors and members of the church. Bishop Taylor will speak at the morning service. Following the service there will be a reception for Bishop Taylor and an afternoon of planned programs and fellowship. Taking part in the programs will be members of the youth group, WSCS and choir under the direction of Gerald Aulenbach.

Giving pastoral leadership to the anniversary program is Rev. Robert Bedell.

Anyone knowing former members of the church who they feel would be interested are requested to contact the church office.

Montclair Art Museum Appoints Three Instructors

The art school of the Montclair Art Museum announces the appointment of three new instructors in the adult painting classes: Tom Vincent to teach Tuesday evenings; Scott Duncan, Thursday mornings; Thomas Greenbank, Thursday evenings.

Note to beauty contest losers: the prettiest girl doesn't always win the contest.

Everyone should have the Blues when away from home.

Blue Cross if you have to be hospitalized... Blue Shield for the doctor's care... should serious illness or accident strike when you're away from home. Your Blue Cross and Blue Shield ID cards are protection against health care costs virtually anywhere. It's a fact more doctors and hospitals work with the Blues than with any other plans.

That's because we're the plans that deal directly with hospitals and doctors. Because we're totally non-profit. Because we're the only specialists in the prepaid health-care field. Because our combined operating costs are about 6 cents of every dollar we receive... and we pay out over $1 million every day.

Some 3.5 million New Jerseyans avoid doubt, confusion and red tape by carrying ID cards from the Blues. Whether they're at home or away.

New Hope Auto Show Aug. 14-15

The Fourteenth Annual New Hope Automobile Show, the largest and most complete automobile show in the country, will take place this year on Saturday and Sunday, August 14 and 15, on the grounds of the New Hope-Solebury High School Route 202, New Hope, Pa.

The auto show is sponsored by the New Hope-Solebury Community Association, a non-profit organization which uses the proceeds to implement their educational and recreation programs for children and adults in the area.

Show chairman Roger Conduit has announced that there will be twenty judging divisions this year.

Trophies will be awarded to the winners in all divisions as well as the mileage rally. New this year will be the Governor's Cup Award. Aware of the number of fine antique cars in Pennsylvania, as well as the other states represented in the New Hope Auto Show, Governor Milton J. Shapp has authorized the presentation of the Cup to the finest restored antique car (Best of Show) in the Antique Division.

The Cup will be a perpetual award, handed on from year to year.

JAMES DARREN is the handsome star in the Neil Simon "Star Spangled Girl" at the Meadowbrook Theatre Restaurant which opens next Wednesday at the Cedar Grove showplace. Darren does everything a young artist should do or be; he is actor, singer, business man, husband, father, motorcyclist and auto racer. "Star Spangled Girl" runs through August 28.

Irish Weekend At Arts Center

It will be a great day for the Irish and everyone else at the Garden State Arts Center this Saturday.

An Irish Festival featuring such true-green name performers as Carmel Quinn, Jimmy Joyce and the Irish Rovers will fill the stage and grounds of the Arts Center in a grand time for all.

'Fantasticks' Actors' Choice

"The Fantasticks" is this month's feature at the Actors Cafe Theatre, South Munn and Central Avenue, East Orange. The musical is presented every Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. in July with the exception of tonight.

David Kennedy of Nutley, producer, reports the cast is headed by Allen Tulin as the boy, Christine Orzepowski as the girl, and John Janowsky as El Gall.

Others in the case are Karl Manger, Steve Sacco, Bonnie Loren, Mickey Ellis and Leigh West.

Michael Gibbens is the director. Pianist is Benjamin

Marshall. Tickets are available at the door.

Cindy Takes State Golf Title

Belleville's Cindy Ferro added another title to her growing collection last Thursday as she took the New Jersey Junior Girls Tournament by shooting a 77 on her first time out at the Springdale Country Club in Princeton. This was the seventh major tournament title that the Belleville High School senior has won in three years.

Cindy's victory was by a three stroke margin over a golfer who has been constantly improving at the same rate as Miss Ferro and giving her a tough time in almost every contest.

Right behind Miss Ferro in second place was Janet Aulisi of West Caldwell with a card of 80. Janet has taken Cindy's first major title away from the Belleville golfer and kept it for two years.

In 1969, Cindy was the Essex County Woman's Golf Tournament Champion, and Janet placed much further down the list. But in 1970, Janet improved a little more than Cindy and took the title away. Just this past month Janet successfully effended the County title, as for the second year in a row they placed one-two.

This Essex County tourney is the only one though in which Cindy has not been moving on up.

The State tourney saw Miss Ferro move from fourth place in 69 to third place the next year before taking off with the title.

In the golf organization to which Cindy belongs, the Woman's Metropolitan Golf Association, the Belleville golfer jumped from fourth place in 1969 right on up to first last year and will be seeking to defend her title next Friday at the Tammy Brook Country Club in Cresskill, New Jersey.

Before she defends this one, she'll be reaching for another, hoping to move up in the Metropolitan Shore Tournament. This contest is a three day affair in South Jersey on the Hollywood, Deal, and Rumson Country Clubs, in which Cindy placed third in the low net scoring last year.

The family tournaments have seen the Ferros move up accordingly. In both the Brother-Sister and the Father-Daughter competitions sponsored by the WMGA, the Ferros have broken out of championship ties and into sole possession of the top honors.

Cindy and her 20-year old brother Steve combined for an alternate shot score of 78 earlier this month to win the title they shared last year.

Cindy and her father George will be seeking to defend a family title late in August on Long Island. The pair won the first place last summer after sharing it in '69. Neither George nor his son Steve manage to enter as many tournaments as Cindy as work commitments make the golf circuit hard for them to follow - regularly.

Southern U. S. Follows S. Jersey

After the Metro-Shore Tournament, Cindy will be heading further south for two week trip to North Carolina and Georgia. This will be a big move for Miss Ferro as she will face better competition from across the country.

The first one is the Western Junior Girls Tournament which is played in a different section of the country each year and is sponsored by a golf organization out west.

"The biggest one in the country" according to Cindy is the National Girls Tournament in Georgia that will follow. The only further competition than the Nationals is the Junior World Golf Championship, an international event, being held this year in California. The trip down South will cost a lot and Miss Ferro feels that the expenses are "possibly" the only thing holding her back from going to the World Championship, too.

On the "Southern tour" Cindy hopes to get a chance to look at Duke University in North Carolina. Like many others, the school doesn't have a girls golf team, but according to Cindy has its own course, which she would like to be able to use. In college, the star basketball player and softball would like to major in physical education.

This past year in sports, Cindy has suffered two injuries, one in each sport, but has been lucky enough that neither hampered her golf even though they did take her out of the respective season. On the cage courts, Cindy broke a finger but says "it doesn't bother me when I'm playing even though it may hurt other times." Then on the baseball diamond, the shortstop got large scrapes twice in the last game of the season while sliding into base.

Dunleavy In Tourney At Hendricks

Another Belleville resident will be entering an amateur state tourney this Saturday in Belleville's Hendricks Field.

Pat Dunleavy will be going into the first round of the Public Golf Organization New Jersey State Tournament hoping to make the qualifying mark for the finals.

The former Essex Catholic golf team captain and "Outstanding Athlete of the Year" as a senior is a shop boy in the Glen Ridge County Club pro shop and was the PGO New Jersey State Junior Champion in 1968.

Falsetano's Pirates Set Unbeaten Loop Pace

The Pirates continue to role up impressive statistics in remaining undefeated in the National League. In ten games they have collected 103 hits and accounted for 128 runs. Their opposition have experienced trouble in crossing home plate, the combined pitching efforts of John Lupo, Bobby Kittle, Matty Hoban, and Rocky Falsetano have limited their opponents to 21 tallies. John Lupo is the work horse, he has 59 strike outs in only 30 innings.

Pitching alone did not carry the Pirates to first place in the National League. Of the 103 hits there were 38 singles, 23 doubles, 19 triples and 23 home runs. The big guns on Falsetano's team are his son Rocky, John Rizzuti, Bobby Kettle, Peter Lelora, John Sitifanelli, Doug Dauval, Nick Minniti, Dave Giordano, Bob Siciliano and Joe Ferraro.

Knights Fall In Thriller

World Series Pits Powerful Amvets Against Rotary Club in Big Showdown

Its the Amvets and the Rotary Club! Those two teams, winners of the National and American League respectively, will square off in a best of three game World Series.

The Amvets, managed by Commissioner Michael V. Marotti and coached by Dan Dunn, nipped the Knights of Columbus in a thrilling contest before 800 people, easily the most exciting game of the year. Earlier in the week the Knights socked the Amvets 7-2 in a play-off game for the second half title. The win earned the Knights the right to play the first half winners.

The Knights took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first in the championship game. But the Amvets came right back to tie it up in the bottom of the inning.

In the third inning, Amvets star shortstop Anthony Biafore doubled and Frank Mozeicka rocketed a homerun to put their squad up by two runs.

The Knights came right back in the top of the fourth, with a single by Doug Stone and a dramatic homerun by Howie Barnett. But once again the Amvets offset K of C runs by coming up with two of their own in the bottom of the inning. Pat Barbone singled, Frank Biafore doubled to put men on second and third. Bill Murphy lined to the pitcher and Carl Arlt then grounded to the shortstop. On the grounder to the shortstop, though, Barbone raced for home and scored on a low throw to the catcher. The ball skipped away and Biafore scored all the way from second base.

But still the contest was not over. Down by two runs in the last inning, the Knights started a rally. With one out, Stone singled and scored on Sebie Messina's double. With the tying run on second, two great catches by Arlt and Frank Biafore ended the game, with both teams getting standing ovations.

The Rotary Club had little problem in knocking off the Colony Club, 11-2, with Scott Ochese leading the way with four hits in as many at bats. Teammate Glen Mac Farland went 3-3 and Bob Nebelung laced a homer for the winners. At Nutrio allowed only four hits to pick up the win for the league champions.

Earlier in the week, the Knights of Columbus, who finished in a tie with the Amvets, beat the squad soundly to win the second half title. For the Amvets, it was only their second loss all season.

Howie Barnett's strong pitching proved too much for the Amvets in the playoff game. The Amvets could only muster five hits off him, three of these being scattered. Doug Stone was the big bat for the Knights, getting three hits in as many at bats and scoring three runs. He was followed by Bob Deutch and Sebie Messina, each with two hits. Anthony Biafore had two safeties for the losers.

Belleville Ace Nazdan, O-Hits Montclair Stars

The Belleville Senior League All-Stars resumed their winning ways behind the no-hit pitching of Dennis Nazdan. The Belleville group defeated the Montclair All-Stars 7-0, raising the home town team record to 3-1.

Nazdan was brilliant as he breezed through - for his second All-Star victory. Only three runners were allowed to reach base, one on a walk and two others on infield errors. He fanned eight in his stint.

Belleville got going quickly in the first as they were out to revenge their only loss to this Montclair squad. Freddie Taylor lined a single up the middle. He then quickly stole second and scored on Bob DiQuattro's single.

DiQuattro then stole second and scored the second Belleville run on Nazdan's double. Joe LaMin then sacrificed him to third. There were two out when Jerry Hoban hit a hard smash off the first baseman's glove to bring home Nazdan.

In the third, Nazdan walked and stole second. LaMin then smashed a double to center to score Nazdan. LaMin tried to steal but was called out on a close play.

Rich Gosinski then walked and stole second going to third when the throw went by the second baseman. Gosinski scored on an error off a shot by Vic Pasquale.

In the fifth, Nazdan again was the man to get things going as he got a leadoff single. With one out Mike Sbarra lined a single to send the runner to third. Then Pasquale doubled him home to score the last run.

Limongello Clouts 3 Homeruns

Mickey Limongello's three consecutive homeruns powered the Belleville American League All-Stars to a convincing 7-2 win over the Nutley Central Little League at the Michael V. Marotti Field Saturday.

Limongello had the crowd in a frenzy with his three wallops, each to center field and each a bit further than the previous one. The leftfielder tagged every homerun on the first pitch thrown to him.

The slugger started things off in the first inning by jumping on the first pitch to him to produce a 1-0 lead for Belleville. In the third inning he slugged a four-bagger with two men on base to up the lead to 4-0.

At NCE

Belleville Grad To Coach Post

Oleg Moiseenko, a Belleville high school graduate, will guide Newark College of Engineering's varsity soccer team this season as head coach, it was announced by Robert F. Swanson, Director of Health, Physical Education and Athletics.

Moiseenko who now lives in Irvington, is an interim replacement for Mal Simon, who is on sabbatical leave. Simon also has been granted an additional one year leave of absence to pursue special studies and is expected to return to NCE for the 1973 season.

A 1967 graduate of NCE, Moiseenko captained both the soccer and fencing teams while obtaining his bachelor's degree in chemical engineering. He also holds a master's degree from NCE. He joins the college from East Orange High School, where he taught mathematics and WATCHING BOX HOCKEY MATCH at the Essex County CYO Day Camp in Muellers Park, Oakland, is seven-year-old Debbie Vouriotis of Nutley. She is seen with Stephan and Larry Marino, also from Nutley. Second session of program extends from July 26 to August 20. For information, contact Essex CYO at 425 Bloomfield Avenue, Montclair.

Limongello Clouts 3 Homeruns

Mickey Limongello's three consecutive homeruns powered the Belleville American League All-Stars to a convincing 7-2 win over the Nutley Central Little League at the Michael V. Marotti Field Saturday.

Limongello had the crowd in a frenzy with his three wallops, each to center field and each a bit further than the previous one. The leftfielder tagged every homerun on the first pitch thrown to him.

The slugger started things off in the first inning by jumping on the first pitch to him to produce a 1-0 lead for Belleville. In the third inning he slugged a four-bagger with two men on base to up the lead to 4-0.

New Games Invented

Belleville Playgrounds Start A Busy Summer

At Number nine playground, the boys initiated a new game of "table football". Another game that is at Number nine original is bottle-top-nok-hockey." In the game, the object is to score by getting your bottle top into the goal by hitting it off the puck. A score of three wins the game. Plaster craft was utilized by Lisa and Debbie Record, Jeannette and Anthony Viciao, Diane Dolph and subjects for the sculpture were people, flowers, and peace signs.

Number two's children made sand drawings. Dana Vitiello, Mary Ann Potito, Peter Lukowiak, and Sonny Chimento showed their talents while working with sand, glue and construction paper. The junior league softball team defeated Fairway, 4-0. John Pannorfi was the winning pitcher. Jimmy Lukowiak was the undefeated ping-pong champ for the week.

Last week, Number three playground participated in many playground activities. The children tried to master some playground games. In nok-hockey, John Pontello has been an undefeated player and in pick-up sticks Bobby Nissivochia has conquered. In arts and crafts the children did plaster sculpture which was quite successful with both boys and girls. Some outstanding work was done by Betty Lou Freda, Lucille Parillo, Marybeth Dillon, and Bobby Nissavochia.

Number four playground is busy with activities. One very successful activity was a lemonade party with everyone contributing the ingredients. Very popular at Number four is nok-hockey with Mike D'Andrea winning 21 consecutive games until Gerald Venezia ended his reign with a close 10-8 victory. Another popular contest is O.U.T. where two contests are held daily setting the scene for a final winner at the summer's end. Number four is very proud of their winning Senior and Junior Boys Softball Teams.

A favorite game at the Rec. playground is Duck-Duck-Goose. Some of the girls enjoyed the exercise they receive while jumping rope. Twirling lessons have begun with close to 15 girls participating. Some of the younger children created what they called a "rhythm" game. Someone starts a particular beat and then quickens it or slakens it. This is done with their eyes closed. The last one to pick up the rhythm becomes "it". The children also used their imaginations to develop stories - most of them of the "horror" variety.

Although the kids are disgraced, the children thought the ninety-five degree temperatures called for a pizza party! The winners of the nok-hockey and checkers tournaments, Douglass Downey and Anthony Baez, respectively, received a free piece of pizza or soda. Without a doubt, the pizza party was a great success.

Frisbee was the game of the week at the stadium. Participation was good and a champ was named. Four year old Brian Cook was chosen as the best Frisbee thrower. On Friday, over 70 children participated in a watermelon party which was followed by a water balloon fight. Dawn Castelli was the winner in the "Save the Pits" contest. She will be awarded free admission to the next party. Many children were kept busy with crayon etchings. First a piece of construction paper was completely covered in multi-colors, then the paper was covered with a black crayon. Very attractive scenes were accomplished by etching the multicolors to be seen against the black background.

A pet show was the big event at number 10 playground. Entered were Greg Dunleavy's white mouse, "Fido", Barbara Miller's white rabbit, "Rex", Barbara Loni's airdale, "Kelly", Peter Burton's beagle, "Heidi", Robert O'Conner's cat, "Smokey", and Michael O'Conner's collie, "Candy". The animals were judged on appearances and performance. There was a tie for first place between Barbara Loni's airdale and Michael O'Conner's collie. Second place went to Smokey the cat.

At Number Eight playground, two tournaments were held this week in checkers and a ping-pong. The winners in checkers were Joe Pezzile, first place, and Laurie Dominguez second place. The champ in pingpong is Joe Franceschini. A watermelon party was held Friday afternoon and was enjoyed by all. A special thanks goes to Laurie Dominguez and her brother Benjie for donating one of the watermelons.

The children at Fairway playground spent some time during the week making designs and pictures out of macaroni. After they were completed, the children painted them with water colors. There were quite a variety of creations as well as a multiple amount of participants. Friday was designated as Pizza Party day. Over 45 boys and girls attended. The pizza was ordered from Salvatore's who brought the pies to the playground. After everyone had eaten, everyone took part in a water balloon fight. It helped to cool down the heat of the day and really entertained all who participated.

Nok-hockey seemed to hold a special interest at number 1 playground. The champ of the game is Barry Delany with Allan Talmadge winning a very close second. On Friday, a watermelon party was held. Crafts and organized games were enjoyed throughout the week by the children. Swimming at the Friendly House is just the thing for a hot summer day. The recreation department has scheduled swimming for the children registered at the playgrounds. The mornings are set aside for non-swimmers who get instruction on the correct way to swim. The afternoon is a free swim period for swimmers. Races were held during the week. Reina Ramos from the Rec. Center was the winner between the boys. Chris Calabrese and Scott Langlands both from the Rec. Center were in the race. Another race was held in which Jim Maltch from Number Ten won and Charlotte Quozza from ached soccer. He is a former Barringer High School and Belleville High School athlete, graduating from Belleville after three years at Barringer.

In addition to his coaching assignment at NCE, Moiseenko will be an instructor in physical education and will serve as advisor to NCE's broad intramural sports program.

NCE begins a 13-match schedule against Quinnipiac College in Hamden, Conn., on Saturday, Sept. 18. Pre-season activity includes a meeting with an alumni squad on Sept. 4 and a visit to the U.S. Naval Academy on Sept. 11 for a clinic and exhibition contest.

The Engineers, consistently strong in soccer, reached the N.A.A. District 31 finals in 1970 and had a 9-3 regular season record.

Co-captains Bill Grady, Al Hubey and Chester Maskewig are among the returnees who will greet Moiseenko when workouts begin Aug. 28. Hubey was a coaches' All-America Selection the past two seasons.

The Schedule:

Sept. 18, Quinnipiac, away; 22, Bloomfield at Branch Brook Park; 25, Southampton, home; 29, Montclair State at Brookdale Park.

Oct. 2, Babson (Mass.) College, away; 6, Paterson, home; 9, Pratt, away; 13, Seton Hall, away; 16, Howard, home; 23, Trenton State, home; 27, F.D.U.-Madison, away; 30, East Stroudsburg, home.

Nov. 6, Stevens, home.

BECK'S COLUMN

MAX BECK

If you have studied Lessons No. 1 and 2, you learned that we change all kinds of waves, for instance sound waves, or light waves, into electric waves. But we can also change mechanical waves into electric ones and this is done in the phonograph.

Here is how. The first records were cut by a needle, which was moved by the sound waves of a singer for instance who sang into a funnel. The sound waves from his voice traveled to a plate which moved in rhythm with the sound waves. There was a stylus attached to the plate that transferred the movements of the plate onto a wax disc. It cut a groove. All of this was purely mechanical. The wax plate was hardened (although this is not how it was actually done) and a needle which moved in the groove and was connected to a "membrane" created sound waves which we heard. There was a lot of friction on several points in the system and the membranes, as they were called, could not follow many of the sound waves because they were too heavy. As a result the tone of these old time records was poor. All of this was changed by electricity. How this was done will explain in the next lesson.

We service what we sell.

Local DeMolays Attend State Conclave Meeting

By John McCarthy

Several members of Suburban Chapter, Order of DeMolay recently attended the organization's state conclave held at the Traymore Hotel in Atlantic City.

The business of the conclave involving the Belleville chapter sponsored by Belleville Lodge 108, F.&A.M. and Craftsman's Club 409 was the selection of the New Jersey DeMolay State Sweetheart, the presentation of awards to chapters for outstanding achievements in sports contests, and the presentation of the organization's academic awards.

All chapters present at the conclave also had the opportunity to cast their ballots of the state officers who were installed at the end of the session.

Belleville's representative to the State Sweetheart ball was Cindy Austin. The 18 year-old student at Felician College was chosen as one of the six semi-finalists from this area in May and placed as the first runner up in the state-wide contest.

In the area of sports awards, the chapter's softball squad was presented with a trophy for becoming the champions of the District ODM Softball League.

A former Past Master Counselor of Suburban Chapter, Alan Grossman was presented with a scholarship award from the state Legion of Honor. Alan was the valedictorian of 1971 Belleville High School graduating class.

Present at the conclave were the chapters' newly installed master councilor, Ken McCumber, Past Master Councilors Alan Grossman, Bob Anderson, John Atherotn, and Tom Idenden, Junior Councilor Fred McCoul, Senior Deacon Ed Hoover, and Treasurer Ronald Vanderhoff.

Also present at the conclave were Chairman of the Advisory Board Robert Bartholomew, and his wife, "Dad" of the chapter Howard Irving, Jr., and his wife, and Advisory Board member James Byrne.

Amazing Clippers Cop 12 In Farm Loop

The amazing Clippers of the American division of the Farm League won their twelfth straight game by downing the Bombers, 17-0. The game was highlighted by Mark McGarril tossing his second no-hitter.

The Clippers will now face the Pirates of the National League in the Farm League World Series.

Thus far the Clippers have amassed 215 runs in 12 games while giving up only ten to the opposition. The pitching of M. Borgo and McGarril has been nothing short of outstanding. The team batting average is a phenomenal .524, with homers being hit by McGarril, Borgo, L. Pellegrino, R. Nalbandian, M. Andolora and D. Azeveda.

The Clippers infield consists of S. Dondarski at first base, D. Azeveda at second, M. Borgo and M.

McGarri at third and R. Nalbandian at catcher and on the mound.

In the outfield, the Clippers use Pelligrino in center, V. DiFloria in left and F. Del Re in right. Also helping in the outfield are Ed. Cimmino, V. Celfo, M. Zecca, T. Petrillo, J. Klein, J. Illaria, M. Bambo and R. Marshall (also an infielder). The team batboy is B. Bambo.

Managing the championship team is Morris Renna with Ed Cimmino and Anthony Pelligrino as his coaches.

In discussing the season, Renna said: "We are proud of these boys who worked hard to achieve what they did all season. We also want to thank each and every parent for their full co-operation in having their sons come to practice every night and also giving up their time bringing the boys back and forth to the field at practice time and game time. It just goes to show that practice makes perfect."

Montclair State Plans To Enter Tournament

A eight game schedule plus participation in the Metropolitan Baseball Coaches Tournament has been announced for Montclair State College's varsity diamond team this fall.

The Indians will meet Lafayette College in two doubleheaders. The first twinbill will be played at the MSC's Pittser Field on Sunday, September 12th while the second meeting with the Leopards is set for Easton, Pennsylvania on Sunday, September 26th. Both doubleheaders will feature two seven inning games.

On Saturday, September 18th and Sunday, 19th the Indians will host the Metropolitan Baseball Coaches Playoff. Teams taking part will be New York Tech., New York University and St. Peter's, in addition to the Indians.
