

Bridge Brooke Apts. Get New Bus Stops

VIEWING newly placed Public Service bus station is Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, who helped Bridge Brooke Apartment residents obtain two new bus stops in area.

Strumolo Gets Service Action For Residents

Two new bus stops servicing Town residents on Joralemon Street for the Public Service Transport line No. 82 have been added through the efforts of Vincent T. Strumolo, director of Public Affairs. The two new stops have been set up primarily for residents living in the Bridge Brooke Estates apartment complex here.

Commissioner Strumolo explained that earlier this summer residents of the 250-unit complex approached him, asking for two new stops nearer to their apartments. The special committee of Bridge Brooke residents told Strumolo that the existing stops for the No. 82 line were placed too far away from the apartment dwellers, making it difficult for them in inclement weather to reach the bus stops.

The No. 82 line runs through Bloomfield, East Orange, a small portion of Nutley and then Belleville before heading for downtown Newark.

An amendment to the ordinance governing bus stops in Town is on the Commission meeting agenda for tonight. Strumolo expects the amendment to pass without any difficulty.

"The signs for the station have already been installed and the stop is now in operation," said Strumolo. "Passing the amendment is just a formality."

To acquire the stop for the Bridge Brooke residents, Strumolo met recently with officials of Public Service. According to the Commissioner, he received "complete cooperation" from officials.

Teamster Union Vote Yesterday

Employees of the Public Works Department were scheduled to vote on unionization yesterday in the Town Garage. Voting was set for 12:30 p.m. The local Teamsters Union No. 97 is seeking to represent the workers.

Henry Garrod, a Teamster official, led the union last month in petitioning the Town for representation for Public Works employees. About 30 workers here will vote on whether or not to accept the union.

Feeling at Town Hall was that the union would be turned down by the workers here.

Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, reported that she received word Monday from Local 97 asking if the union could have permission to hold a Town-wide election with all "blue collar workers" in Town voting for or against unionization.

Continuing Care Center Sunday afternoon.

U.S. Senator Clifford P. Case, the keynote speaker, hailed the Belleville effort, saying he hoped "this institution will continue to be a pioneer in bringing good medical care to all of America."

Following a 40-minute program, in which doctors, administrators, contractors, and trustees joined public officials, all participated in touring the three-story Continuing Care Center.

Belleville Mayor Joseph McGreevey expressed the appreciation of the town's Board of Commissioners which was also represented by Public Works Director Mrs. Mary Senatore. No one was at the ceremony representing the Nutley Board of Commissioners.

Among the telegrams received was one from Vice President Spiro Agnew. Another came from the president of the American Hospital Association.

Sen. Case said he welcomed occasions like the hospital dedication. "In a time when controversy seems to be tearing the world and the country apart, it's good to have to Montefusco, no official word of the ruling has been received from the Town of Belleville.

"I was at Town Hall earlier this week," Montefusco said. "They told me there that they know of no such letter."

A suit has been filed with the Chancery Division of the Essex County Superior Court by Montefusco for his two clients, former Belleville Councilman James R. Golden and Commission candidate Salvatore LaMorte. The complaint charges that Marotti is in a conflict of interest by serving the Town as both Commissioner of Parks and Recreation and the Police Department as a juvenile detective.

Both Marotti and Police Chief Joseph Smith were served with complaints two weeks ago. The two immediately gave the notices to Town Attorney John Scott to handle. Scott, who had 20 days to answer the complaints, said Monday he has filed his answer with the Court Clerk of Superior Court. But the Town Attorney refused to make a public statement regarding the complaints.

"I will not make any statement regarding this case," Scott said Tuesday. (Continued on Page 3)

Fairway Ave. Section May Get Flood Help

Town officials were again visiting the Fairway Avenue section of Town near the Third River this week, surveying the situation there and seeing what can be done about the problem. A solution may be near.

Monday morning Mayor Joseph McGreevey and Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, spent several hours along the banks of the stream and talked with representatives of the Forest Hill Country Club situated directly behind Fairway Avenue. According to Commissioner Senatore, an agreement between the Town and the Country Club has been finalized. The agreement may help alleviate the flooding problem in the area.

Mrs. Senatore reports that the Forest Hill Club has agreed to clean up debris along and behind the fence bordering the Club with several private homes in the area. The Club has also promised to clean the pond there, which also contributes to flooding conditions in the area. Officials hope that these two measures by the Club coupled with other moves will stop the floods plaguing the area for more than 10 years.

Plans by the Town of Belleville to petition Bloomfield through the State Water Policy Commission to clean up the river upstream in Bloomfield were announced by Commissioner Senatore this week.

"We will be requesting that Bloomfield clean the area upstream in their Town. This will give the Third River a better flow and should also halt the flooding," Commissioner Senatore said.

Free Lunch Program Offered To Students

The Belleville Board of Education is again this year instituting a free lunch program in the Junior and Senior High Schools, according to Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco. The program is completely federally funded.

Eligibility for the lunch program are Belleville families that receive public assistance from Aid to Families with Dependent Children or the Food Stamp Program. Superintendent Greco also announced a family income scale to assist individuals in determining eligibility.

Last year the program was used in Belleville for the first time with 98 Junior High and 42 Senior High School students taking advantage. Students in both schools are now receiving applications in the classroom for assistance. (Continued on Page 2)

Commission Scheduled To Convene Tonight

The Board of Commissioners will convene 8 p.m. tonight in a public meeting to replace a regular Tuesday meeting rescheduled due to conflicts with conventions to be attended by the Town Fathers.

The Commissioners were scheduled originally to meet next Tuesday, Sept. 28, in Town Hall but that date, along with the September 14 Commission meeting, was changed last month to accommodate the Commissioners' schedules. Mayor Joseph McGreevey stated that both the fire and police conventions are in conflict with the regular September Commission dates.

coach Rocco Cafone with assistant coach Vincent Harris seen on the right. Belleville will be seeking to duplicate last year's win over Bees.

Friday Night Under Lights

By John Bunevich

The Bayonne Bees will be seeking to avenge last year's comeback win by the Belleville High School football squad when the two teams clash under the lights in the season opener for both clubs tomorrow night. The game will be played in Bayonne with kickoff time slated at 8 p.m.

This is only the second time the clubs will be meeting. Last year Belleville scored three touchdowns in the second half of the contest to steal a 27-12 victory at Municipal Stadium. Tomorrow night's game will mark the first time any of the current Bellboys have played under artificial lighting and head coach Rocco Cafone is hoping his club won't be at a disadvantage.

"Playing under the lights could be a factor. Bayonne is accustomed to night games while our boys will be going 'green' into the game," Cafone remarked. "I'm hoping our players will adjust quickly."

Cafone explained that playing Friday night has other disadvantages. He said that the Bellboys are used to doing certain things, such as dining together and rising at the same time in the morning, before a Saturday game.

"This could throw us off balance," he added. Belleville will be the lighter and lesser experienced of the two clubs but that will be the case in every most varsity game this year, according to Cafone. Bayonne has been known as a perennial power in the Hudson County Conference, losing only six games in the past four years.

Debris To Be Cleaned Country Club To Help Fairway Ave.

Public Works Administrative Clerk Jimmy Soldo explained that by Bloomfield cleaning up its section of the stream, the result should benefit Belleville by creating less hazardous flooding conditions here. Soldo speculated that during heavy rains the Bloomfield section of the Third River, because it is jammed with debris, overflows onto the Forest Hill Country Club golf course. The flood waters, after being rerouted, travel the length of the golf course and hit the rear of homes on Fairway Avenue with heavy pressure. The condition becomes more hazardous because, according to residents in the area, logs, railroad ties and other debris from upstream is carried along by the current. Proof of this was the report last week by Mrs. Henry Bauman of 307 Fairway Avenue that a 12-foot ladder, a railroad tie and several huge logs were found in her backyard after the Sunday storm, apparently brought in by flood water currents.

Mrs. Senators said that Bloomfield cleaning its portion of the river coupled with the work by the golf course and the new rip-rap retaining wall to be built by the owners of the Bridge Brooke apartments should greatly reduce flooding conditions.

"These are only some of the measures that will be worked on," she added. "The Town will also lend a hand in stopping flooding conditions on Fairway Avenue."

The Commissioner said that Fairway Avenue is the first of many sections in Town set to be surveyed in the near future to stop flooding condition.

"In the near future we will be getting to all the sections in Town threatened by flooding conditions," she added.

Free Lunch Program

The applications are being distributed by teachers. "The program, taking into account that it was run for the first time last year, was very successful," remarked Greco. "This Fall, because of the higher enrollment figures, we expect even more Belleville families to take advantage of the program."

The scale to determine eligibility has been broken into classifications according to the size of the family.

A family of two, to be eligible, must have a weekly income of $83 or monthly $358 or yearly $4,300 to qualify. A family of three, $94 - $408 - $4,900; Family of four, $106 - $458 - $5,500; family of five, $117 - $508 - $6,100; family of six, $129 - $558 - $6,700; family of seven, $140 - $608 - $7,300; family of eight, $152 - $658 - $7,900; family of nine, $163 - $708 - $8,500.

Also, a family of ten, $175 - $758 - $9,100; a family of 11, $187 - $808 - $9,700, and a family of 12, $198 - $858 - $10,300.

The free lunch program gives those who can not afford a hot meal at lunch in school the opportunity to receive one. The free lunches are from the school cafeteria and are the same as the lunches other students receive.

Marotti May Be Halted By Restraining Order

"This is something for the courts to decide and should not be dragged into a fight in the newspaper."

Alfonso Pepe A Freshman

Alfonso J. Pepe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Pepe of 5 North 11 Street, Belleville, is beginning his college career as a freshman at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa.

Classes began for the freshmen, a total of 433, on September 13.

But Scott did speculate that a court hearing, if any should come, is still a long way off. Montefusco, on the other hand, thinks that a determination from the court is in the near future.

"I don't think that with the Superior Court backlogged the way it is that we will see a hearing in the near future," speculated Scott.

Montefusco explains that because of the importance of the case, it will be heard by Superior Court relatively soon.

Instrumental in the case, according to Montefusco, is the Civil Service ruling that Marotti is in a conflict of interest. He is now waiting for official word that Belleville received the letter before making his motion for a restraining order.

If the court rules against Marotti he may be asked to pay back all salary received in both positions since May of this year. The Town Fathers may also have to appoint a new Commissioner of Parks and Recreation or hold a special election to find one.

Case said he has been pleased to have cosponsored a total of nine medical bills, "but whatever we have done is not enough. I was distressed to read recently, that throughout the United States, there are 134 counties that have no doctors, between 35 and 45 million Americans are not receiving adequate medical care."

"We may have done great things in Washington, but we still have a long way to go," the Senator told the hospital audience.

W. R. Harris, a hospital trustee, was Sunday's master of ceremonies.

The Neighborhood School

More than once we have stated our belief in the integrity of the neighborhood school concept.

It is our opinion bussing of school children to attain racial integration is immoral—and certain members of the United States Supreme Court notwithstanding—it is unconstitutional.

During the past few months the United States Supreme Court has rendered decisions that seem to indicate in certain situations school bussing may not be resorted to to attain racial equality in school enrollments.

Two hundred years ago this great country of ours was founded on certain truths and ideals. Since the United States obtained its freedom from England great things have happened to its people and the country in general. It endured several wars and several depressions, ending up after World War II as the most powerful country in the world.

Compromises by our political leaders saw America share its place at the summit with Communist Russia. And now there are three—big Red China.

During the last 15 years certain forces have been at work which are corroding the strength of this great nation. Moral values have been turned upside down. Where there was peace, quiet and contentment we now have dissension, disturbance and disenchantment.

Where there was respect for the flag there now is disrespect for the country.

Where there was respect for the family unit there now is found honor in "common-law" arrangements—probationary premarital periods if you please.

Where there was respect for a public official now there is disdain.

Where once we proudly sang AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL we now hear moans and groans about how nice it would be if North Vietnam would score a victory over the embattled American soldiers in Vietnam.

Today we live in a world tom asunder despite the magnitude of this country's enormous achievements. We have dreamed dreams and through American ingenuity we have seen those dreams come true. Man has reached the moon. Is now exploring the moon—and that man is American.

For centuries man has searched for a cure to cancer and while the answer has eluded us, today we are on the threshold of an answer to the problem that has eluded scientists around the world.

Americans enjoy the highest standard of living ever achieved by man. Americans are the best educated people in the world and yet we are not the best loved people in the world. There is something wrong with Americans — and there is something wrong with America. Integration of the races via school bussing is not the answer. It is not the answer today — tomorrow — nor in the tomorrow's to come.

We believe this senseless, expensive bussing of children should stop.

The neighborhood concept of living is one of the cornerstones from which this great country was built. Nothing can replace the neighborly feeling of one neighbor toward another. In our book it is about time we turned America around, moving ahead to the values we once knew.

For our part we would like to see the question of school bussing to achieve racial integration appear on November's ballot. The expression of the will of all the people instead of the noisy few on such a vital issue plaguing our country today is of prime importance in retrieving the peace and tranquility we once knew.

Death From Soup

The death of a man in New York City, the serious illness of an American in Israel stemming from contaminated canned soup, again raise the question why the federal government doesn't act to require dating on cans and packages of foodstuffs.

The contaminated soup, which resulted in the recall of many cans of all over the country, cannot be attributed to at this early date to being too old but there is no doubt whatsoever that millions of Americans are eating stale foods. That is because manufacturers are still not required to print clearly on labels the date the product was packaged and when it will be too old for sale.

The argument that the government shouldn't move this far into the affairs of private business is totally empty in view of the hundreds of laws already enacted to safeguard the public health and welfare.

Pressure from food packers and canners, on the executive department and on members of Congress, should no longer be allowed to prevent either executive action or a law requiring the clear dating of foodstuffs. Hidden or coded dates for retailers, which the public can't read, should not be allowed to delay action. The buyer is entitled to know how old food is.

Plan To Collect Leaves Announced By Director

By Elaine Averbach

One Year Ago

Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, announced plans for more efficient collection of leaves for the fall season. For the first time, the town would distribute to homes a number of large plastic bags to help residents remove leaves. Printed matter would be circulated showing the "wrong way" and "right way" to remove the leaves. Commissioner Senatore stated that she hoped the new system would eliminate the hazard of leaves mounting up along the street where children could play and not be seen by motorists.

The Town of Bloomfield said it would drag Belleville into court to clear up an obstruction in the Second River near the Michael V. Marotti Little League Field. Bloomfield officials claimed that debris and soil pushed over the banks during construction of the field had caused flooding upstream. Mayor Ken Smith said Belleville had not been served with any papers, however, and charged that the problem's solution was Bloomfield's responsibility.

The Belleville Recreation Committee was hoping to call a town-wide meeting to discuss a proposed million dollar recreation center. Among the proposals for discussion would be a plan to erect the center without increased taxation. The Recreation Committee, which had been formed by Mayor Ken Smith, was to present blueprints and a detailed analysis of the center at a future meeting. The proposed site for the center was a large tract of vacant land adjacent to the high school which was owned by the town.

Five Years Ago

The Board of Education's controversial case against Dr. Frank Durkee, suspended superintendent of schools, took a surprising turn when Assistant Commissioner of Education Eric Groezinger "requested" both parties to reach an agreement that would serve the best interests of the school system and the community. Board president Ernest Arvidson stated: "We are not going to make any proposals. We have certain concerns for the school system and the community."

The Civil Service reclassification survey was adopted by the Town Council after being under consideration by town officials for nearly six months. The survey called for an increase in the salary schedule of some $171,104 during a six year period. The raise ran into some objections of Councilmen William Cullen and Vincent Strumulo who, after noting that some 48 municipal employees would not get pay hikes, declared that all employees should get a raise to meet the rising cost of living.

Ten Years Ago

A victorious Donald Hulme was to return home October 4 to the town that opened its heart to him, probably wearing the crown of World Accordionist Champion. The 20-year-old youth won the world title at Lake Maggiore, Pallanza, Italy, compiling 87 points to better the 81.5 of his nearest rival, Miss Lydia Kotola of Paris. Belleville citizens, in a spontaneous generous response to a Committee's appeal for funds to finance Hulme's trip, contributed $1,255 to send him to the contest. Hulme was a student of Charles Nunzio.

Belleville taxpayers were to be asked to fork up an additional $657 if an ordinance providing for salary increases was adopted at a public hearing to be held in Town Commission Chambers. Jobs and employees affected by the ordinance were principally Commissioner George Kierman's Parks Department. One job was lodged in Mayor Padula's finance department.

Dr. Frank M. Durkee stated that a yes vote in the upcoming referendum for a new high school was a vote for better education in town. Since 1934, Belleville High School had been on the accredited list of the Middle States Association, but in a letter sent in January, 1961, to high school principal Hugh D. Kittle, there had been evidence that Belleville could be stripped of its rating. Durkee emphasized the need to become concerned with Belleville's educational difficulties.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

An ordinance to amend an ordinance changing the zone of property located on Davidson Street was rejected by the town commission. Two weeks previously, the ordinance was passed on first reading, with Edward Abromson, attorney for the Greco Construction Company, citing various reasons for its passing. Residents in the area had objected to the rezoning, despite the fact that Abromson insisted all the property in the area was occupied by industrial concerns.

The long-awaited welcome home celebration for the veterans of Belleville reached a material stage when tentative plans for a gala, three-day program were announced. Mayor James Tully appointed a committee to formulate an appropriate series of events in honor of the town's war heroes. Sidney Browne, of Van Houten Place, was named chairman of the committee.

Forty Years Ago

Mrs. Leslie Woodruff of Joralemon Street was holding a sale of cake and bread for the benefit of the Emanuel Baptist Church, Forest Hill.

Miss Naomi E. Waters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waters, of 539 Union Avenue, left to enter Syracuse University.

Fifty Years Ago

Miss Kathym Walker of 163 Joralemon Street entertained the girls of the senior class at her home. All the girls wore short dresses and had their hair down their backs tied with ribbon. The evening was spent playing games and telling ghost stories.

She Claims Assaulted Near Bus

To The Editor:

On the first day of school September 8 there was an assault on No. 8 bus, which had seventh grade children on it. To start with, the seventh graders had been threatened early in the day by some eighth grade children.

The eighth graders told the seventh graders they would get them after school. The seventh graders were afraid so they didn't say anything to anyone. When the buses came home on Belmont Avenue and Franklin Street boys from the eighth grade bus jumped on the seventh grade bus and started to punch, kick and jump the seventh grade boys.

My son was one of the boys they beat up. It was three youths that went after my son. They knocked him down and kicked him in the head with the heels of their shoes. He is in the hospital with a concussion and fractured nose and blood clot.

One of these three boys assaulted me when I tried to help my son when he was getting off the bus. I was punched, kicked, and he took my pocketbook away from me and hit me in the head with it. I have pictures of my son and if anyone wants to see him I'll let them know what hospital he is in.

The law is all for these trouble making youths. The bus driver also didn't help these boys who were assaulted.

Pet Owners Grateful For Bill

To The Editor:

The pet owners and citizens of Belleville are very grateful to the Senators and Assemblymen for passing Bill 852. This legislation will assure them that lost pets will not end up in laboratories.

The governor's signature is needed. One can't help wondering why he is delaying signing. Since the bill unanimously passed in the Senate and House and if it fails to become law because one man, the governor, won't sign it — then where is our representative form of government? What reason does he give for delaying signing?

If the medical profession and experimental laboratories are pressuring the governor not to sign, then here are FACTS:

Way back in 1941, the New York medical profession and experimental laboratories said: "Give us all the animals we ask for and we will cure — in five years — cancer, leukemia, etc." New York passed the Metcalf-Hatch law which permits doctors, laboratories, etc. to get, very cheaply, all the animals they want.

The year 1941 has passed into 1971 and the promise to cure killer diseases has not been fulfilled. In fact, judging from New York's experience and because the people of New Jersey want Bill 852 passed, the governor should not delay signing it.

Mrs. Norman Hood

Humane Animal
Association of Belleville

Call Number For Storm Assistance

To The Editor:

Thousands of persons throughout the state of New Jersey have suffered losses as a result of tropical storm Doria and the floods which followed.

Because President Nixon declared New Jersey a major disaster area, many of these people will be eligible for financial assistance through the Small Business Administration. However, this assistance will be of little value to them if they do not know about it.

Your newspaper can render a very valuable service to flood disaster victims in your area by telling them where to turn for information and assistance. SBA Disaster Offices have been established in Newark, Bound Brook, Somerville and Trenton, and a Mobile Van is touring in smaller towns. For information about the SBA Disaster Loan Program, please advise your readers to call any of the following numbers:

201-356-8235 (Bound Brook);
201-645-3973 (Newark); 609-394-8191 (Trenton); 201-742-7128 (Paterson)

With sincere thanks for your cooperation in this very important matter.

Sincerely Yours,
Dick Philbin, Project Manager

Star Celebrates Birthday At Superb French Quarter

"Mama" continues to be featured by many singers.

Phil has introduced many other song hits, some of them being Five Minutes More, I Hear a Rhapsody, Besame Mucho, I Don't Want to Love You, You Belong to My Heart, It's Been a Long Long Time, and The Shrine of St. Cecilia. He has appeared in films, television, night clubs, theatres and hotels throughout the United States, Canada, Japan and the European countries.

Phil's latest offerings, on Jerida Records, are To Be the One You Love, from the film "The Anonymous Venetian," backed with Just for a While. To quote Joe Franklin (WOR-TV, New York), "It's like strolling down 'Memory Lane' to hear Phil Brito again on records and of his return to singing, the thing he can do as good as any of them. Phil was absent from the singing scene for eight years due to a heart ailment. He came through open heart surgery successfully in January 1970. This is evidenced in Phil's mellow quality and taste. He has not lost the feel for what he enjoys and does best. Welcome back, Phil!"

OUR BELLEVILLE FRIEND, Sally Hood, one of the nation's leaders in animal welfare work penned a note this week which really got to us.

"Dear Mr. Orechio:
I want to thank you very much for the sentiments expressed in your personal "FLIGHT 897" column. Your heart is larger than your column! Many, many humane organizations and animal welfare workers, pet owners—both senior citizens and children—shall be grateful for the support you have urged towards the writing of letters to Governor Cahill to sign Assembly bill A-852 into law.

I was present in the Senate gallery the day our senators passed the Assembly bill unanimously, a vote of 30-0. Senators voting on the bill stated, "...this legislation is long over-due!" I was also attending the April 5th session when the Assembly passed its bill — unanimously 59-0. There are no words available that could express my feeling of confidence in the people we had elected to that high public office!

Your support for A-852 publicly, is a first, I am sure, for a New Jersey newspaper publisher! And, your sentiments are only hours away from the beginning of NATIONAL DOG WEEK—SEPTEMBER 19th to the 25th. The 44th observance of the special tribute to man's best friend. Did you know that our country is the only nation that takes a special week to honor the dog's role as a companion and protector? And that the official slogan of National Dog Week is: "DESERVE TO BE YOUR DOG'S BEST FRIEND?"

"Dear little dog, chained out in the yard,
"What owner so heartless and bold
"Could resist the love you have in your eyes

"And tie you out in the cold.
"Dear little dog, so trusting and good
"To your owners this I'd impart
"If you were mine I'd bring you inside
"And into the realm of my heart."

I want to thank you again, personally, and also express the thanks of all animal welfare workers, especially those that are members of the Humane Animal Association of Belleville."

Residents Work For Remington

Business executive Frederic Remington Jr., a Republican nominee for State Senator, will speak on the need for continued low-cost state government at a campaign breakfast Sunday at The Manor in West Orange.

Two Belleville residents, Donato Capece and Salvatore Pico, are members of the committee which planned the fund-raising event, along with former town attorney Jack J. Soriano.

Remington, who is vice president of Peerless Tube Co., Bloomfield, and Republican State Committeeman from Essex County, has stressed sound fiscal management in the early part of his campaign. "I sense as I travel around the country that people want progressive thinking in state government, but that they also want their tax money to be spent effectively," Remington said this week.

"Because of that desire for efficient government, the Legislature has become concerned not only with authorizing new programs but also with determining how effective existing programs are," Remington continued. "This is a new role for legislators, and one in which the skills and knowledge developed in a management career can be extremely helpful."

Remington is a member of the municipal and county government committee of the New Jersey Taxpayers Association and is a former chairman of the Essex County Employers Legislative Committee. He has also been general chairman of Bloomfield's United Fund campaign for the past three years.

The other Republican nominees will be introduced at the breakfast, including four incumbent State Senators for whom Remington was campaign manager in 1967.

SPEAKER at recent Belleville Rotary Club meeting was Lester E. Demler, (left) vice president of Wallace and Tiernan Division of Pennwalt Corp. His subject was ecology. The company is one of the world's largest manufacturers of water purification systems in this country. Demler was well qualified to speak on the subject and was reportedly excellent in answering questions at meeting. He is seen with Michael Mercurio, president of the Rotary Club here.

Notes On Pruning Shade Trees To Prevent Wood, Heart Rot

If you want to take proper care of your shade and ornamental trees include pruning in your maintenance program. That's the advice of William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County. If your tree is large and requires a lot of work, particularly high up in the tree, you'd be smart to call a tree expert and let him do the job. If just a few low branches need cutting, you can easily do the job yourself. There's more to tree pruning than sawing off a couple of branches and letting it go at that. If this is your technique you may have a sick tree on your hands in a few years, cautions Mr. Munk. Fungi that cause wood rot and heart rot cannot attack your tree through sound bark. But any irregular tear in the bark, or an incorrectly pruned branch may be an open invitation to wood-rot fungi.

Mr. Munk recommends following these steps when pruning trees:

Make all pruning cuts flush. This means cutting off branches so that no stub remains.

Cover the wound on your tree with a special tree wound dressing. If no dressing is handy, use ordinary shellac to cover the wound until you can buy the special dressing.

Keep the wound "dressed" for as many years as it takes a good callus to grow over and cover the wound.

This simple procedure will prevent wood rot in your favorite tree. Trees can be pruned now and at almost anytime of the year.

Girl Scouts Visit Troop At School

Brownie Girl Scouts are an enthusiastic bunch anyway, anywhere; but when an entire troop suffers from cerebral palsy, the pure joy and excitement they generate is overwhelming. In this incredible world, witnessing the ease with which such youngsters overcome and cope with nearly insurmountable obstacles is a much needed balm.

Organized two years ago at the Cerebral Palsy School in Sanford Avenue in Belleville by Mrs. Aurora La Gasse, a teacher there, Brownie Troop 778 was visited recently by Junior Troop 954 from St. Peter's Church.

The second of what Junior leader Mrs. Conrad Springer hopes will be a series of gatherings, the shared meeting was held during school hours on a St. Peter's holiday.

Games were played, songs sung, photographs made...all in an hour. The Juniors brought gifts of lollipops and patiently held them while their hostesses greedily consumed them. They showed the younger girls the art of making pinwheels from colored construction paper and pencils; then put the pinwheels together. The eager Brownies, who could, provided the wind that made them work.

Cerebral palsy is the medical term describing brain damage that renders sufferers physically and/or mentally incapacitated in varying degrees.

The school and treatment center strives to provide its students and patients, who come from the Essex and West Hudson area, with tools to cope with daily living. That the young Brownies were responding was obvious; that the visiting Junior Girl Scouts were learning that handicaps don't necessarily handicap was apparent as well. Braces, wheelchairs, an inability to speak at all became small incumbrances that eventually vanished as each group rapidly adapted to the other.

One Brownie, in the United States for two months, spoke nothing but Hebrew, and is completely paralyzed. Her melancholy was finally traced to her inability to comprehend English.

Aware of this, Mrs. Springer acquired a mini Hebrew vocabulary that included "Hello"...It was then that the child's first American smile burst forth.

Singing the Brownie Smile Song was a major achievement for another child...who not only rendered it once, but twice... And then they all were smiling.

Nancy Crisp Has Resumed Art Classes

Nancy Crisp, well-known Belleville artist, has resumed her classes for children in her studio at 238 New Street on Friday afternoons at 3:30 p.m. and Saturday mornings at 10:30 a.m.

In addition to practical instruction in oils, watercolors or pastels for beginners and advanced students, the children receive art appreciation, studying the works of the great masters through the medium of slides from the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

This is the twentieth season of teaching for Mrs. Crisp. Many of her students have majored in art in college and some have gone on to professional careers. Others have found great satisfaction, in later years, in having added a new and rewarding dimension to their cultural life.

Since reservations are limited, it is suggested that interested parents call her at 759-2452 for enrollment information.

A student exhibit is held every spring in the Belleville Library.

New Exemption For Tax Man Has Arrived

A son and exemption was born to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Amato, the city manager for H & R Block in the Belleville-Nutley area, on August 10.

Michael John, at 8 lbs. 3 ozs. becomes an additional deduction on the Amato's 1971 income tax return.

They are not only allowed the exemption but also travel expenses back and forth to the doctors and the hospital and all the doctor and hospital bills incurred.

Naturally, this is not the main reason for the Amato's to enlarge their family, but at income tax time there is quite a saving.

Mr. Amato says he could show you many deductions on your return. One thing he will not demonstrate is how to enlarge your family!

H & R BLOCK will conduct its Basic Income Tax Course starting mid October. If you are interested write H & R BLOCK at 187 Franklin Avenue or call 661-3329.

Truth is the last thing some educators want to teach.

Clash In Grid Opener

Bellboys Set Under Lights With Bayonne Tomorrow

Bayonne head coach Don Ahern reports that the Bees' offense revolves around multiple formations trying to keep the opponent's defensive squad off-balance.

"We run out of almost every foundation," commented Ahern. "It's better known as a 'garbage offense.'"

According to Ahern, the Bees will be lighter and less experienced than in recent years, yet still they are bigger and have more returning lettermen than Belleville. Bayonne has eight returnees with a front line averaging about 190-200 pounds.

Ahern also said the Bees have had a "terrible" pre-season with 150 points being scored against them while it took the varsity offense two scrimmages before they scored a first down.

"We've been making a lot of mistakes to date but I don't think that will happen Friday night," he said. "Lately I've been pessimistic but the boys have been looking well in practice this week."

Cafone, on the other hand, expects Bayonne to be a sound, well-drilled, well-conditioned ballclub.

He expects to see the Bees working out of a T-type offense coming out with slot formations.

"I don't think Bayonne will spring too many surprises on us," Cafone added. "They have a sound coaching staff that likes to stay with the basics. When a club has to resort to surprise formations then you know they are reaching out and trying to disguise a weakness."

The Bellboy preparations this week include polishing up on assignments and perfecting their kicking game. Senior Phil Bruno comes back to the varsity performing place kicks and extra points. One of Belleville's strong points is their extra-point team that only missed one point-after-touchdown the entire 1970 season. Joe Lotruglio has been assigned punting duties and observers say he has been looking sharp of late. Lotruglio and the Belleville punting looked very good in an otherwise lackluster Bellboy showing in the Barringer scrimmage last week.

Belleville, according to Cafone, will try and get its passing game moving out of its wing-type offense. Last year the Bellboys moved very well on the ground against Bayonne and apparently Cafone and the coaching staff feel the Bees will be concentrating on stopping the run. To offset that, Belleville will have to complete passes to reopen the running game.

Although Belleville has named a starting eleven for Friday night, Cafone said competition for starting assignments is high and he will be using numerous replacements against Bayonne if the team is not moving.

"We will be trying to utilize the best personnel possible and that doesn't discount changing players at positions during the game," Cafone commented. "We have a very sound team with not much separating the players ability-wise."

The Bayonne squad, according to head coach Ahern, will start four seniors. He reports that the first two units are made up mostly of juniors and sophomores. Top offensive players include returning letterman Dave Anetta, a 5'-10" 170-pound senior starting at halfback. Anetta played quarterback last fall for the Bees so he can throw the ball on the option. Although the quarterback spot is still not final, Ahern expects to start junior Brian Davies, a six-foot 190-pounder with good size. Other top backs include fullback Darryl Young, a sophomore at 5'-10" and 185 and senior Larry Urban as another running back at 180 pounds and 5'-9".

Coach Ahern is expecting Belleville to be a quick squad with a defense that likes to hit. He said Belleville is well-conditioned. The fact showed in last fall's comeback second half victory.

Bayonne reportedly uses a basic defense that is always switching from an odd to an even line in an effort to confuse the opponent's blocking assignments.

Belleville utilizes a six-man front with the defensive revolving around middle linebacker Bob Luongo and four deep backs. The Bellboy secondary is short and what it lacks in size, reports Cafone, it will have to make up in speed and hitting.

The Bellboys' biggest problem is one they will be up against the entire season. Belleville has a small club that will have to hit hard to compensate for bigness. Also, they are inexperienced. That problem will dissolve as the season progresses.

Belleville has had three scrimmages in the pre-season. According to the coaching staff, the Bellboys performed well against Seton Hall, Essex Catholic, with one of the biggest squads in the area, was the second opponent and the local team looked good there.

Sports Corner

Solo Frosh Gridder At MSC

Last week's Sports Corner on Montclair State's football program ran out of space before it ran out of copy. It's lucky for this writer that it did, too. The overset was about the three freshmen students at MSC from Belleville on the roster in the Fall Sports Guide, now there is only one of the three reporting to the gridiron for practice this week, the other two have changed their minds.

After working out on his own this summer, halfback candidate Ricky Caruso is hoping to gain a starting position on the squad coached by former Nutley High Coach John Biviano and Clary Anderson's JV Coach from Montclair High, Dick Haggard.

Quarterback and defensive back for BHS Joe Papisidero was listed as one of the squad's members, but a check shows that Paps will be reporting soon instead to the school's fall workouts for the baseball team. The shortstop will be going against Carl Gordon of Irvington for the starting varsity spot this spring and Carl held the spot last season as a frosh, so Joe has his work cut out for him.

The third gridder listed on the MSC roster was Mark Bradley. A wingback and full back while at Belleville, Mark turned down a ¼ scholarship from Upsala for Montclair, but now has decided to sit out the season to see how things turn out this fall at school. Mark is thinking of going back to football next season, but the quarter miler hasn't made any plans yet for spring track.

At High School

Local Girls In Athletics

By Joanne Falcone and Irene Bernardo

Watch out men - here they come! Liberation in Belleville High sports is here. It has taken many years and difficult struggles with the school system but alas, female athletics in Belleville are here for good.

In the past two years, through the efforts of a physical education teacher, Miss Karen Fuccello, girls' basketball and softball teams have been established. While another teacher, Mrs. Grace Worley, gave her own time to teach gymnastics.

A Belleville High student, Michele Ringi, attended a gymnastics camp at Monmouth College under the direction of Olympic champion Muriel Grossfield. Michele participated in mother-daughter night at Belleville High last April by performing a solo on the balance beam. In an effort to extend her already exceptional abilities, she attended the camp, finishing a week she really enjoyed.

This summer, seven girls attended basketball camp at their own expense to improve their skills and increase their experience. These players came back overwhelmed with praise of the camps. New Jersey Day Camp and Pocono Mountain Basketball Camp should be praised not only for their individual instructions and outstanding speakers, but also for their atmosphere of competition. Those who attended camp are seniors Sue Chamberlain, Debbie Meola, Marty Peldunas, and Karen Smith; and juniors Joanne Falcone, Sue Gasparini, and Sue Winship. "I really thought it was helpful to me and my basketball skills. Since I want to be a physical education teacher, it helped me to see how important individualized coaching is," replied Debbie Meola when asked about camp.

In it's first year, the girls' basketball team played only two games, ending with a 1-1 record. The second season began early as we practiced in the morning, after school, or at night whenever the gym was available. Being last in priority for use of the gym, we were forced to arrange practices around boys' wrestling and basketball practices. While the second season lacked several victories, a new determination arose instead of an abandonment.

With the coming year, our team should come up with a winning season. With the aid of the camps, fine coaching by Miss Fuccello, and practice, we could beat any team we encounter. If the team isn't hindered by injuries like last year, and has half the spirit of last year, we plan to have numerous victories.

Ladies Volleyball Starts In October

The Belleville Recreation Department will sponsor a ladies volleyball league this year. More than 40 women will start October 11 at the Junior High School on a weekly basis. Starting time is 7:30 p.m.

For Fathers

Varsity Club Buffet Tonight

A salute to the current edition of the Belleville High School football squad gets underway at the Princeton Grill on Joralemon Street 8 p.m. tonight. The annual buffet supper for coaches and fathers of players is being sponsored by the Varsity Club.

The Varsity Club Football Program Committee met recently to carry out the "behind the scenes" arrangements for the events sponsored yearly by the group.

Committee members include Vinnie Sorrentino, Bob Sassini, Bill Ellis, John Shelesky, Joe Gross, Bill Frank, Ralph Casale and Jerry Bonavia.

The concern of the Varsity Club is to put together a program used at home football games. Since 1946 members have been meeting in the summer months to work out the programs for the coming fall season.

Proceeds are used to underwrite the cost for the football banquet and the all-sports awards dinner. Both events are sponsored annually by the club.

Phillip Grippaldi, a local young man who made good on the national scene for his outstanding achievements in the weightlifting field, will be honored at a dinner-dance October 22, 8 p.m., at the Fountain Restaurant, Watsessing Avenue, Belleville.

Grippaldi's feats include winning the Gold Medal and being voted the outstanding weightlifter in America. At 17 years of age he was crowned the junior state champion of weightlifting. In 1966, he won the Junior National Championship. The Senior National Championship followed in 1967 along with the Pan-American Championship.

Arrangements for the affair are being made through a committee of friends. Those interested in attending may contact the committeemen or call Joseph Cancelliere at 759-9450.

Committee members include Joseph Grande, Commissioner Michael Marotti, Anthony Bruno, Joseph Cancelliere, John Marotti, Phillip Cerza, Michael Mozieka and Albert Cairo. Others named to the committee are Harry Lanno, Pat McCabe, Louis Vitelli, Joseph Long, Dr. Michael Del Tufo, Rocco Westpy and Vincent Di Modica.

In 1968 Grippaldi was named to the Olympic

Local Weightlifter To Be Honored At Fountain Dinner-Dance In October

Team. He was the State Champion again in 1969 and 1970 saw him win a Silver Medal in the World's Championship. He was also voted the Outstanding Weightlifter in America.

Bicycle Racing Scheduled

A 76-mile bicycle road race is to be held by the Essex County Park Commission on September 26 starting at 10 a.m. in Brookdale Park. The road championship is sanctioned by the Amateur Bicycle League of America.

Entry blanks may be obtained at the Park Commission offices at 115 Clifton Avenue, Newark. There will be four classes of racers. They are: senior, over 18, who will travel the entire 76-mile course; juniors from 15 to 18 years old, who will follow a 15 mile course; intermediates from 12 to 14, in a five-mile race and midgets, eight to 11 years old, who will have a mile race.

Senior entries will close on the day of the race at 9 a.m. All other class entries will be closed at 11 a.m. These events will take place in Brookdale Park while the senior event is in progress.

Cross-Country Squad Meets Columbia Today

According to coach Ray Haneke, who is entering his fourth season as head of the Bellboy Harriers, the high school should have a "representative" squad this season. After Tuesday's opener, at home against Orange, the local team travels to Columbia High School today.

"We have a young team which lacks experience," remarked Haneke, earlier this week. "But with some veterans returning the season may be promising."

Last fall, the Bellboy cross-country squad was 2-12 with victories over South Side and Barringer High School. This year the Bellboys have 16 scheduled meets.

Most from June graduation is John McCarthy, last fall's top runner. The best harrier on the squad to date seems to be Bill Goodwin, a sophomore who left his mark on the track team. Last spring Goodwin, racing as a freshman, broke the school mark for sophomores in the two-mile event with a 10:48 timing.

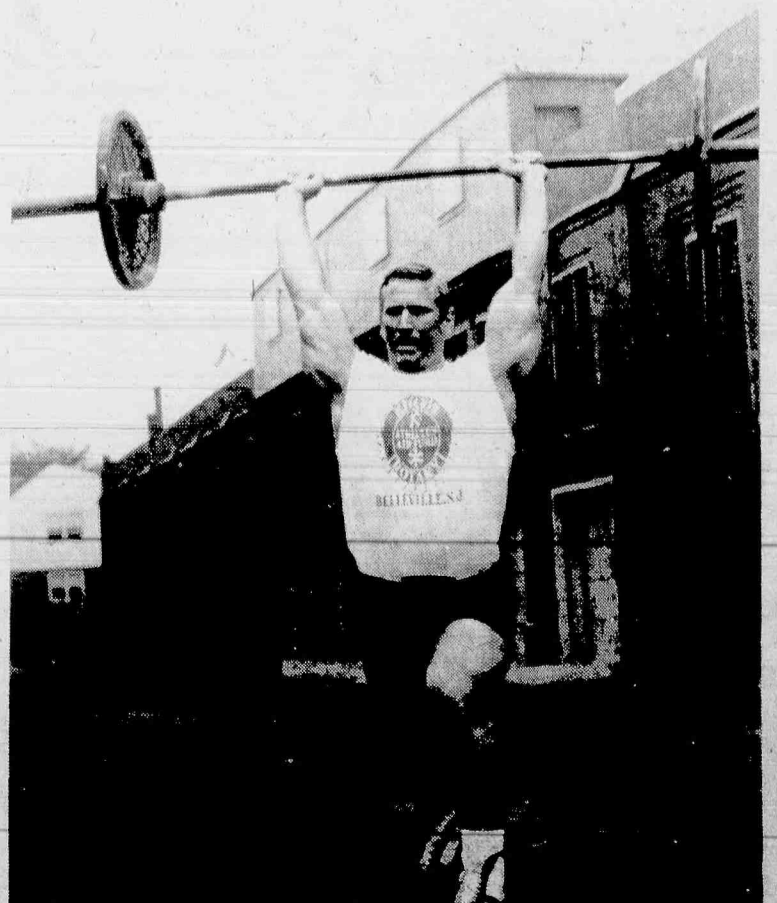

Captain Rich Sulenski should anchor the team. The senior is entering his third year as a distance runner. Bob Cozzarelli is another promising sophomore who as a freshman was listed as a sprinter in the 100 and 220 yard dashes on the track squad.

The three juniors on the current squad include

Rocco Cuozzo, Lou Esposito and Wahid Hermina, a youngster originally from India. Other seniors are Ed Wehymeyer and Bob Drake. Sophomores make up the majority of the squad. They are Steve Budrick, Mike Spillane and Frank Salerno.

The team travels to Branch Brook Park September 28 to run against Barringer High School, one of the two are teams the Bellboys topped last season.

The team, although lacking experience, is high in spirits. The consensus opinion is that the Bellboy Harriers should notch four or five victories this season.

PLANS TO HONOR—Phillip Grippaldi, a Belleville resident known throughout the nation for his weightlifting efforts, have been finalized. A dinner-dance is set October 22 in the Fountain Restaurant.

There are profound changes in broadcasting coming up within the next few years. An extensive system of so called cable TV (CATV) is in the process of being developed. A similar system of scrambled broadcast signals which requires a decoder to look at it, is in the making. Either one will cost you money for what you want to look at.

A typical example of what you may expect was the black-out of the Frazier - Clay boxing match. We don't want to take issue here with the sorry fact that 2 men are able to collect a couple million dollars for a little more than an hour's "work" which in this man's opinion is a sad state of affairs. There is no question of doubt about it, TV was helped along very much in the early days by boxing. All the taverns which had a TV set were loaded with customers on "fight nights." There is not the slightest question of doubt about it: in the future the only way you will be able to watch important boxing events will be by putting your money on the barrel, either by going to movie theaters or through cable TV, respectively, scrambled TV picture which you can unscramble only if you feed your money into the decoder. The airwaves which are supposed to belong to the public for free, will cost the public money, unless you protest as loudly and vigorously as you can to the Federal Communications Commission, your Congressman, and your Senator.

Pollution Crackdown On Diesel Engines

A drive to combat air pollution caused by unlawful emissions from trucks, buses and other diesel-powered vehicles will be launched this week by Frank Pat Dodd, a commissioner of the New Jersey Clean Air Council.

Dodd said the drive will center on an effort to have the average citizen become personally involved in seeing that the operators of commercial vehicles obey those state laws which forbid the emission of smoke from moving vehicles for more than five seconds.

Postcards addressed to Capt. Raymond Mockridge of the Division of Motor Vehicles in Trenton - which ask for details about air pollution violators - will be distributed this month throughout Essex County, Dodd said. The postcards request private citizens to report the license plate numbers and company name, if possible, of trucks and buses which violate a provision of the pollution control code which went into effect earlier this year.

The postcard says: "If you see a moving truck emitting smoke for a length of time report the vehicle by filling in the license plate number in the space below or call 609-292-4797." The report will be recorded and followed up by the proper state authorities, Dodd said. "All citizens should take an active role in fighting air pollution," Dodd said. "It is a national problem which directly affects all of our lives, not only figuratively, but also in a very real way."

Dodd, who is a Democratic candidate for state senator from Essex County, said the public must become aware there is something they can do for a better environment. Dodd promised that as a member of the New Jersey Clean Air Council he will do everything in his power to see that the average citizen has a means and a voice in cleaning up our air, water and land.

The first group of postcards will be distributed Tuesday at various Livingston shopping areas by a group of Boy Scouts under the supervision of Edwin R. Johnson of Livingston. Dodd said plans are being made for distribution of the cards in other communities in the County.

Staggering Tax Burdens Charged To Demo Slate

Essex County Republican Freeholder candidates charged today that the Democratic controlled Board of Freeholders has created such staggering tax burdens in Essex County that even Democratic Freeholder candidates are calling for a Republican landslide in November.

Pointing out that their Democratic opponents chose the slogan "Something Must Be Done as their 1971 campaign cry, GOP candidates Senator Gerardo L. Del Tufo, Patrick J. Lynch and Paul Alongi said they agree completely with this Democratic statement.

"That's why we're running for the Board of Freeholders," declared Del Tufo, Lynch and Alongi. "We know something must be done and we're the ones who can do it."

Upsala Shows Grid Optimism

In contrast to a year ago, optimism was running high in Upsala College's football camp this week after the first scrimmage match against the King's Point Merchant Marine Academy.

"We are showing more potential than we did last year," Coach John Hooper commented after his club returned from a scrimmage at Great Neck, N.Y. "We'll be tough, especially on defense, and I expect that in the last two weeks of practice we'll be sharpening up our offense also."

Upsala opens its season on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 25, against Drexel University at East Orange. A year ago the Vikings, hampered with injuries, played Drexel at Philadelphia and lost, 34 to 18. So far, Hooper has had a minimum of injuries and he's crossing his fingers that the remaining weeks of practice will not decimate his squad, as it did a year ago.

Hooper is especially high on some of his freshmen.

One of them is Bill Cerullo, a 180 pound end from Wayne Valley School.

"Cerullo has excellent speed," Hooper commented. "As a split end he caught five passes in the scrimmage, one of them while he was on his back. He looked very good."

Another Wayne freshman, Mike Atieh who played at DePaul High School, drew praise from the Upsala coach.

Over 300 Supporters Attend Orechio-Dennis Cocktail Fete

About 300 friends of Assemblyman John Dennis and Assembly candidate Carl A. Orechio of Nutley participated in an evening of cocktail party Sunday at Mayfair Farms, West Orange.

Those attending the affair included two prominent Belleville residents active in the GOP campaign. Jerry Ferrara, Town chairman, and Robert Gaccione, campaign manager, are both local products.

The turnout more than pleased the candidates.

"We're so very grateful to you all," Orechio said.

He spoke briefly at the affair, urging "those of you who are with us today to interest your friends not only in our candidacy, but in the entire Republican ticket. If the Republican ticket does well, then we will be elected," Orechio said.

Orechio and assemblyman Dennis, a resident of Verona, are candidates for District 11-C which encompasses Nutley, Belleville, Montclair, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge and Verona.

Orechio is a former

Nutley Commissioner. He was director of Parks and Public Property eight years.

Dennis was first elected to the New Jersey Assembly in 1967 and was reelected in 1969. He is an executive with the Annin Flag Company, Verona.

Guidance Clinic Adding Nursery

Leonard Desiderio of Nutley, member of the Nursery Committee of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic serving Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, announced the opening on Monday of the "Special Nursery Program" directed by Joel Kannengeiser.

The nursery has been established for the treatment of children between the ages of two and a-half and five years who indicate early developmental emotional problems.

The Special Nursery will operate for approximately 25 hours weekly in a program of specialized education with each child receiving appropriate therapy additionally. Parents will be expected to work closely with the Nursery staff.

Some of the children enrolled in the Nursery do not talk and have difficulty sleeping or relaxing. Some are hard to control, have temper tantrums and are constantly in motion while others are withdrawn, unable to make response and seeming to exist in a world of their own.

Desiderio notes "the clinic has chosen its nursery staff from numerous applications. Those finally selected are the most highly qualified and capable in their respective fields. This excellent and much needed program has been made possible through a generous gift of the Ruth Kohn Community Service and a grant from the state."

As teacher-director, Kannengeiser, has been head instructor in a therapeutic nursery school at Riverside Church in New York and was involved in a project for exceptional children sponsored by St. Luke's Hospital, Riverside Church and Teachers College, Columbia University.

He has worked as educational consultant, research director and private tutor for emotionally retarded children.

Kannengeiser is currently working toward a doctoral degree in special education at Columbia University.

Dr. Gisela Ucko, consulting psychiatrist for the program, received medical education in Germany and completed training at Children's Hospital in Jersey City. Dr.

Ucko has been a staff psychiatrist at various clinics including Essex County Mental Hospital Clinic, medical director at Mt. Carmel Guild at Union City, and five years a consulting psychiatrist with the Orange School system.

Last Opportunity Today For Voter Registration

Detectives Arrest Man In Food Store Case

Today is the final day for new voters to register for the November General Election, announces Town Clerk Eugene Barnett. Office hours have been scheduled today from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 8:30 to 9 p.m.

According to Barnett, over 95 per cent of people to date registering to vote are between the ages of 18-21. Seventeen year olds who will have their 18th birthday by Election Day may also register now, Barnett added.

"Young people have been turning out in large numbers," observed the Town Clerk. Although no official tabulation of young voters has been kept, officials estimated that well over 400 have registered in Belleville.

During the months of August and September the Town Clerk has set aside special office hours for new voters to be given the fullest opportunity to register.

"This month has been especially heavy for registrations," he added.

Two Belleville detectives were instrumental in the apprehension last Thursday of a 30-year-old resident charged with an attempted break and entry into a food trailer parked at the Pantry Pride Supermarket on Mt. Prospect Street, near the Newark boundary line. The man is also being held in connection with an attempted assault and battery by auto.

According to Belleville Police, detectives Kenneth Place and Nick Berrigan worked closely with Newark authorities in the arrest of the suspect.

Newark police alerted Belleville authorities that two young males had broken into the trailer at Pantry Pride at 6:30 p.m. but were caught in the act of the robbery by Wells Fargo agents stationed at the Newark Supermarket. Police said several shots were fired at the getaway car but squad cars lost trace of the suspects coming into Belleville.

The two Belleville detectives, after receiving a description of the getaway car, went to an address in Town where they thought the auto may be parked. The hunch, said police, turned out to be right.

Newark police were alerted and they, together with the Belleville duo, went to the address with a witness to the robbery almost run over by the suspects' auto. There they found the 30-year-old, whom the witness said was one of the robbers.

Police report that that the other suspect has not yet been apprehended. A hearing on charges against the Belleville resident is scheduled next week in Newark Criminal Court.

Mickey Rooney's Talentown Opening Today in Belleville

Mickey Rooney today announced the formation of a new enterprise, Mickey Rooney's Talentown U.S.A. Inc., which will be devoted to teaching creative arts to children from three to 16 years of age.

The stage and screen star also announced that the first Talentown U.S.A. opens today at 234 Washington Avenue, Belleville. Other openings in the near future are scheduled for Manhattan, Forest Hills, Brooklyn and Hunting, and four more New Jersey towns - Cranford, Westfield, East Brunswick and Little Falls.

Rooney added that present plans project a total of 50 schools all over the country to be opened within the next ten months.

Talentown U.S.A. schools will have classes for dancing, dramatics, vocal culture, modeling and painting. Classes will be held weekly and fees will be payable on a monthly basis.

Rooney is president of the corporation; Mrs. Evelyn White is vice-president and general manager and Mrs. Carolyn Rooney, Mickey's wife, will act as secretary-treasurer.

Mickey Rooney's Talentown U.S.A. schools will not be franchised. They will be completely owned by Mrs. White, a personal Mickey Rooney manager who has taught dancing in her own studios, and Rooney, who will devote his talents to selecting competent instructors, directing their efforts and personally instructing students.

The Originators of YUM CHA

HAVING DECLARED the week of September 20 as United Community Fund Week in Belleville, Mayor Joseph P. Prieto, today, took over official proclamation with (l-r) Joseph Prieto, vice chairman John I. Caron, Town chairman for current drive, and Robert Gaccione, vice chairman.

For Belleville Gaccione Is Named UCF Vice Chairman

Robert A. Gaccione of 53 Princeton Terrace, will serve as vice chairman of the Professional Division of the United Community Fund campaign. It has been announced by John I. Caron, Belleville town chairman of the drive.

A graduate of Belleville High School, Seton Hall University and Georgetown Law School, Gaccione is an attorney with Keenan and Finch.

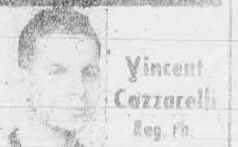

A member of Unico, the Belleville Athletic Advisory Council and the Jaycees, he is also president of the Setonian Foundation.

The United Fund drive will officially begin with a "Fund-O-Rama" kick-off to be held at noon today, Sept. 23 at the Robert Treat Hotel in Newark.

Assembly Candidate Conrad Hits Governor On Taxes

Assembly candidate David W. Conrad has accused the Cahill administration of "permitting a half-billion dollar rise in local property taxes to preserve the fiction that Republicans alone can effectively control the need for any new state taxes."

Pharmacy Footnotes

Helen Keller, deaf, dumb and blind, is credited with saying that she would value above all other senses, the sense of hearing, without which the sound of the human voice is lost, and the deaf one engulfed in indescribable loneliness. If you are one of the more than twenty million Americans who have subnormal hearing, confess the problem and ask for help. Many times good hearing can be restored to you. If you are the friend of someone who is deaf, remember this: don't shout. Attract his attention first, then speak slowly and distinctly. Your words will be more easily understood, and the gulf of loneliness more easily bridged.

Good health should be valued -- When you're ill and require prescription service you can depend on ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968 for prompt handling. Open: 9 A.M. - 10 P.M. Daily, 9 AM - 9 PM Sundays. Camera and Film Department. Timex Watches and Transistor Radios.

HELPFUL HINT: Plan housework so that you can do as much of it as possible in a sitting position.
