Massive Apartment Complex Idea To Zoning Board Tonight

A variance allowing a 432-unit garden apartment complex to be built on the Belleville-Nutley line heads the agenda tonight when the Zoning Board of Adjustment convenes 8 p.m. in the Town Hall Commission Chambers.

Slated to be the largest complex in the area, the "mini-community" will be built near River Road. Half the apartments are to be in Nutley and 216 units will rest in Belleville. Frank Leo of Nutley, applicant for the variance, purchased the large tract of land earlier this year from the Sonneborn Paint Co.

Already in Nutley Leo has been issued a building permit and work on that side of the complex should begin before the end of this year. Unlike Belleville, Nutley's zoning and building codes were amended earlier this year to permit construction of the type of apartments proposed by Leo. The address will be 767-779 Main Street.

Leo apparently seems more concerned with an outdated sewer line in the area than he is with the passage of the variance. A trunk sewer line near Carner Avenue will have to be reconstructed to meet the increased demand for sewage removal if the apartments are to be built.

Commissioners of Nutley and Belleville met last month to discuss the construction of the complex and the resulting problems. According to Mayor Joseph McGreevy, both Boards would like to see the builders of the complex carry the bulk of the load in reconstructing the sewer line. The Commissioners were considering making the relocation of the sewer line a condition of any variance granted in Belleville.

Planners of the proposed project hope to build an indoor swimming pool and recreation center on the Belleville side of the apartments. The land in Nutley covers about 8.5 acres and the tract in Belleville is reported to be even larger. The entire project is valued at near the $5 million mark.

The complex will include 216 units in Nutley and an equal amount in Belleville. The tract will see 174 one-bedroom units and the rest two bedrooms. Belleville's side will also see a majority of one-bedroom units.

Free Diabetes Tests Scheduled Wednesday

Free sugar diabetes examinations will be given by the Public Health Department this Wednesday, 6 to 8 p.m., at the Belleville High School on Park Avenue. The program is being coordinated by Vincent T. Strumolo, director of Public Affairs.

Persons classified in high risk categories for the disease include the over 40 years of age group, overweight persons, new mothers who had a baby of over nine pounds at birth, and relatives of diabetics. Commissioner Strumolo reports that the majority of persons contracting the disease fall within these groups.

Strumolo said that diabetes is one of the nation's most common diseases; far more common, for example, than active tuberculosis. In the United States, he reports, diabetes affects an estimated two

Strong Showing Here For Local Candidates

Former Town Attorney Nicholas Amato was elected Essex County Surrogate Tuesday as Democratic Organization in Belleville had a strong showing. The party made inroads in the GOP-held Assembly and Senate.

Although Tax Assessor Peter Torre one of the top voters in Belleville with 4,381, he lost his bid for a State Assembly seat. Former Nutley Commissioner Carl Orechio showed, up as a strong Republican candidate in Town with 3,558 votes in his successful campaign. With Orechio was running mate John Dennis of Verna, who kept his Assembly seat. Dennis polled 2,771 votes here compared to Democrat David Conrad's 3,059.

Amato was almost the top vote-getter in Belleville as the local attorney accounted for 4,538 supporters here. His opponent, Thomas R. Farley, in a closely contested race. Amato also showed up strong in neighboring Nutley as he totaled 3,186 to incumbent Surrogate Farley's 3,958. Local observers were surprised to see Amato's strong showing in the Republican stronghold. Only Ralph De Rose, a successful Democrat for the Senate, pulled more votes than Amato. Torre ran a poor third to Orechio and Dennis in Nutley as the Tax Assessor had an unofficial 2,973 votes there.

Of the 18,161 registered voters in Belleville, only 9,318 bothered to show up at the polls to cast votes. Some local officials blamed the poor weather Tuesday for the light turnout, only a little better than 50 per cent of registered voters.

Belleville Democratic Chairman, Mrs. Mary Sena-toire was pleased with the turnout for her party in Belleville but expressed displeasure with Torre's defeat at the County level.

"I had great cooperation from the citizens here," she remarked with Torre's defeat at the County level.

"I had great cooperation from the citizens here," she remarked Tuesday night. "I'm pleased that the Democrats had a strong showing here and it shows in the state wide polls."

Both Amato and Torre left their respective campaign headquarters early Tuesday night and were unavailable for comment. Torre was seen shortly after the 8 p.m. closing of polls at his Washington Avenue headquarters and the atmosphere there at that time was optimistic.

All Essex Bi-Partisan candidates had a poor third place in Belleville. The Town, much the same as last year's General Election, followed the statewide trend. Success—(Continued on Page 2)

Commissioners May Vote On Pool Hall Ordinance

An ordinance permitting pool halls in Town to remain open until 2 a.m. will be the main topic of discussion Tuesday when the Board of Commission meets 8 p.m. at Town Hall. Commissioners tabled the ordinance at their last regular meeting, almost two weeks ago.

Absent at that meeting was Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, out of Town on business, and Mrs. Mary Senatore who was reported not feeling well. Pool halls in Belleville now must close at midnight.

Owners of the Guys and Dolls Billiard Lounge 524 Washington Avenue, claimed they were discriminated against in having to close their business at midnight. Chris and Ernest Christian claimed that other recreation businesses in Town remained open until the early morning hours.

Residents of the Washington Avenue area presented a 49 signature petition to Commissioners, complaining that the Guys and Dolls Lounge "created a hardship for area residents." They said patrons of the pool hall were abusive towards them and their property.

Last year the Board of Commissioners defeated a similar ordinance to extend pool hall hours.

Gridders At Stadium

To Entertain Cowboys

By John Bunevich

Belleville's varsity gridders face their strongest test in four games Saturday afternoon when they entertain the Cowboys of West Orange. Game time is again slated for 1:30 p.m. at Municipal Stadium. It is the fourth straight home game for the Blue and Gold.

Not since the second game of the season has Belleville met a grid club with a winning record. West Orange comes here sporting a 3-2-1 mark and is reportedly one of the better balanced clubs in the area. Only Bloomfield at 4-2 and Bayonne, a team with one loss, were considered better clubs on the Bellboy season schedule.

Although the Cowboys were defeated by Bloomfield last week in a 12-0 battle, scouting reports show that they have the ability to score. Key to the Cowboy attack, both on offense and defensively, is balance. Local observers say the West Orange team is split almost equally between passing and running.

Both Belleville and West Orange have lost to Bloomfield and topped Orange, their common opponents. The Blue and Gold last Saturday made it four straight wins by topping the Tornado, 14-6.

The Bellboy offensive attack centered around the passing of Phil Bruno, who was 5-8 in the tilt, with three interceptions. The local club also topped the 100-yard mark in rushing and was successful in utilizing a ball-control type votes in Belleville. Also a Democrat, he was elected to the Senate.

Republican incumbent Senators James Wallwork, Michael Giuliano and Milton Walder were returned to office. Giuliano was the top Republican vote-getter in Belleville with a 4,188 total. GOP Senators Wallwork and Walder totaled 3,309 and 2,871 respectively. Sen. Gerald Del Tufo, who stepped down from his Trenton post to seek a GOP Essex Freeholder seat, was successful. He pulled 3,517 votes here. Paul Alongi lost out in his bid and the rest of the freeholder races were being so closely contested as The Times went to press that election machines in Essex were impounded.

Most Caldwell College Graduates Enter Teaching

Sixty-seven percent of Caldwell College's June education graduates are involved in some form of teaching, according to Dr. Bruce Koenig, director of student teaching.

Although the percentage is down from eighty-six percent who found positions after June 1970 graduation, the picture for Caldwell graduates is brighter than in some other schools, Dr. Koenig claims.

for anticipated recounts. Although Democrats statewide did make strong inroads into Republican territory, results yesterday showed that the GOP still held majorities in both the Senate and Assembly.

A detailed district tabulation of the Belleville vote will be published by the Times next Thursday.

Police Arrest Newark Man In Stolen Auto

Belleville police last week arrested a 22-year-old Newark man after it was discovered he was driving a stolen auto.

Patrolmen Charles Oese and Robert MacDonald were on routine patrol in the Franklin Avenue area of Town when they observed an auto traveling the road in an erratic manner. The two officers, after contacting headquarters, stopped the car for an identification check.

Police report that the young man driving the auto acted in a suspicious manner and failed to produce a valid New Jersey driver's license. The 22-year-old Newarker was checked through channels by Belleville police.

Officers Oese and MacDonald checked the car with headquarters and soon received a report that the auto was stolen a day earlier in Newark. A further check of the car and the driver, said police, revealed that the license plates on the car were also stolen. Police report that the plates belonged to the Belleville resident, who reported the theft only days earlier.

The man is being charged with unlawful use of an auto; possession of stolen license plates and being an unlicensed driver. The 22-year-old has been released on $400 bail pending a November 17 hearing in Belleville Municipal Court.

Officers Chosen

St. Peter's Rosary Confraternity has elected a new slate of officers who will serve during the coming year. Elected are Mrs. Jo Krehel, president; Mrs. Blanche McComb, vice president; Mrs. Helen Murray, recording secretary; Miss Ruth Hess, financial secretary and Mrs. Virginia Battle, dark horse chairman.

Columbus Hospital, is author of a best seller in the medical field, "Diagnostic Electrocardiography", and numerous professional papers and articles. Dr. and Mrs. Ritota are residents of Vose Avenue, South Orange.

Board Of Education Sanctions Homecoming

The Belleville Board of Education last week passed a resolution at its regular meeting proclaiming Saturday, Nov. 13, as Homecoming Day in Belleville. The Kiwanis Club is planning the homecoming, to be held in conjunction with the Belleville-Kearny football game at Municipal Stadium. The day-long celebrations will be highlighted by a parade in honor of the class of 1962. Already, Mayor Joseph McGreevy has placed his sanction on the event.

The Board resolution is as follows: "RESOLVED, That the Board of Education proclaim Saturday, November 13, 1971, the date of the Kearny-Belleville football game, as 1971 HOMECOMING DAY for the Belleville School System, and be it further,

RESOLVED, That the School System extend its welcome to the Anniversary Class of 1962; offer its congratulations to the Belleville High School students selected as Homecoming Day Belleville Team Players, and Homecoming Queen, and to all who participate in the Homecoming Day Parade, and be it further.

RESOLVED, That the Board of Education commend the members of the Kiwanis Club and its Homecoming Committee for this service to the community."

"It is estimated that over two million Americans who have diabetes don't know it. Yet, diabetes is fairly easy to detect," he remarked.

The Public Health Department released the following warning signals: Increase in thirst, constant hunger, frequent urination, loss of weight, itching, easy tiring, change in vision, slow healing cuts and scratches; yet some people have diabetes without any of the symptoms.

"Found early enough, diabetes can be controlled," said Strumolo. "Overlooked or neglected, it can quickly lead to serious trouble."

The director strongly urges all citizens who fall in the above category to take advantage of this free test.

Report Freeholders

Job Openings In Town

Five new positions are open with the Town of Belleville, according to the Essex County Board of Freeholders. The jobs were created from funds of the Emergency Employment Act.

Dr. Wynona M. Lipman, director of the Essex County Board of Freeholders, which has been appointed the administering agent for distribution of Act funds within Essex County, today released the following program for application and use of the total of $387,200 in funds available for the coming year.

Dr. Lipman said that a total of 18 positions were being made available on the county level and an additional 31 jobs being made available through seven municipalities eligible under the program.

The municipalities of Newark and East Orange have their own separate programs, Dr. Lipman pointed out.

First State Savings and Loan Grand Opening Is Saturday

First State Savings and Loan Association on Belleville Avenue is slated for its grand opening this Saturday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. reports president Henrik Tvedt. Area residents have been mailed this week "magic cards" that can be valuable for prizes if brought to the opening.

Tvedt stated that each recipient of the magic card should bring it to the grand opening and play "magic panel." The game is played by inserting the card in the panel and if the holder has a "lucky" card he or she will receive a beautiful Beacon Blanket or and electric casserole as a prize.

According to Tvedt, the game is simple to play and a large percentage of the cards will be lucky. Extra magic cards will be available at the grand opening for guests' friends or persons who have not received cards through the mail.

Tvedt also said that a special drawing will be held and eight valuable cash prizes will be awarded to lucky winners.

Refreshments will be served at the grand opening and there will be a money-winning game for children too.

"Everyone is invited to the grand opening," Tvedt added. "The First State Branch is located at 60 Belleville Avenue."

Vets Parade Next Thursday

Dozens of area marching groups and hundreds of persons are slated to participate in Belleville's Veterans Day Parade next Thursday evening, reports Raymond Carnasciole, chairman of the Veteran's Council here.

All heads of units involved in the parade are requested to report to the parade adjutant, Tony Mattia, at Greylock Parkway and Washington Avenue, at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 11.

Although Veteran's Day this year was celebrated October 25 nationwide, the Belleville Vets Council voted recently to continue observing the holiday as Nov. 11. They also voted to keep that day for their annual parade.

Congress changed the national observance from its traditional November 11 World War I armistice, to October 25, so citizens could enjoy a three-day holiday.

The program for next Thursday's parade in Belleville begins with a prayer by the Rev. Benedetto Pascale.

Now, for every football fanatic who's suffered through season after season of black-and-white TV.

Mayor Gibson Is Wrong

Last week Newark's Mayor Kenneth A. Gibson made a sharp attack on President Nixon's social policies accusing Nixon of expressing "quasi-racist policies thinly veiled in recent statements on housing and zoning."

Gibson said false priorities and broken promises have contributed heavily to the decline of the cities. He blames national policy for filthy streets and dilapidated housing in urban America — "a policy spelled out in crime statistics and in infant mortality rates." He blames the Federal Housing Administration for contributing to the "ghettoization" of American cities by subsidizing the flight of the middle class. Gibson attributes to the federal interstate highway measures of 1956 and 1959 blame for the damaging aspect of our national urban policy.

It just so happens that one can't even remember the last time the Congress of the United States was under the control of Republicans. Funding of new highways necessarily requires the approval of Congress. If Federal Housing Administration policies are contributing to the establishment of ghettos, all the Democrat Congress has to do is to veto the FHA budget requests.

President Nixon is an American first, last and always. It is scandalous behavior for the mayor of one of America's largest cities to accuse the President of the United States of quasi-racist policies. The accusation is an outright falsehood. The ghettos are made by the people who live in them and not by a national presidential policy. The decay of the cities is traceable to corrupt and/or inefficient city governments. We suspect Gibson's attack upon President Nixon was made in an attempt to get Gibson some national headlines. It is a shame that Gibson stooped so low for political expediency.

18-Year-Old Minors

Currently 18-year-old citizens enjoy the right to vote but this recent change does not alter the fact that 18-year olds remain minors under the laws of our nation and state.

It is our belief that the minor — majority status should change at age 18.

Enjoying the right to vote should give to 18-year old citizens the right to enter into contracts, the right, in fact, to be considered adults.

Certainly insofar as New Jersey Law is concerned the next Legislature should amend the present laws and reduce the majority age to 18.

Frank A. Orechio

William Penn

One of the great men in the settling of America was William Penn (1644-1718), son of a wealthy Londoner who while at Oxford became a believer in the teachings of the Friends. For this "offense" he suffered many punishments throughout his life, including being expelled from Oxford and terms in prison.

Finally he received a tract of land in America (what is now Pennsylvania and Delaware) in payment by the King of a debt owed his family. He then recruited settlers for the new colony and sent a cousin to be the colony's first Governor. He himself drew plans for the laying out of Philadelphia, in 1682, and a year afterward came to America to help establish the liberal Quaker government of the colony.

It is said he drew up a fair treaty with the Indians at Shakamaxon on the Delaware, a treaty never broken. He spent four years in the American colony and built a large country house at Pennsbury, opposite Burlington. But in later life he was beset by new charges of treason, and finally lost his fortune to swindlers, dying in prison, partly paralyzed by a stroke, in London in 1718.

Local Voters Fall in Line With The State, County

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

Mayor Ken Smith asked the Essex County Engineering Department to reevaluate its 1969 appraisal of the Holmes Street-Union Avenue intersection in which it was found the corner did not fulfill minimum requirements for a traffic signal. Residents of the area had submitted a petition to the Town Commission requesting a traffic light, and claimed that "no parent in the area would allow his child near the corner after 4:30 p.m."

Belleville voters fell in line with the rest of the county and state in giving the democratic slate a comfortable margin of victory in the General Election. The only Republican to gain a majority of the local vote was incumbent Sheriff Ralph D'Ambola. Perhaps the biggest surprise to local political observers was the failure of Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo to carry his home town. He was beaten by Democratic incumbent Nicholas Caputo.

The Reverend Francis A. Ignaciuos, who had served in Saint Peter's R.C. Church for 26 years, was appointed pastor of the parish of Saint Francis in Ridgefield Park. Father Ignaciuos had been with the Belleville Church since his ordination, when he had been asked to replace the Rev. James Coyle, who had resigned due to ill health.

Five Years Ago

Tom Testa, 37, who had brought the Bellboys up from relative football obscurity to a position of respect on the gridiron horizon, was ending his career after five years as head coach. He became the third coach to leave the sporting scene within nine months. "There are just too many bosses," Testa stated. However, he refused to elaborate on the reason he was leaving. Other coaches who had left had expressed disappointment with their salaries.

John Farrell, Chief Engineer and secretary of the State Civil Service Commission, said that his department would study the case of Bernard O'Connor, Belleville Plumbing Inspector, who had kept his job with the town after he had lost his license. Town Attorney Jack Soriano said that the town would be liable to a lawsuit if O'Connor was fired before his case had been resolved by Civil Service.

"Educational Programs for the Culturally Deprived" was to be the topic of the November meeting of the Community Welfare Council. The speakers were to be Seymour Grossman, principal of the Junior High School, and Archibald Gallombardo, principal of School 9. Grossman was to discuss the summer Head Start program, while Gallombardo would discuss the year-round efforts financed through federal funds.

Ten Years Ago

A new apartment district, a revitalized shopping center, a huge industrial park, slum clearance and improved roads were to become realities in Belleville within 20 years if a master plan with the Planning Board had under consideration was adopted in January. The plan, a non-bidding guide for the future development of the town, had been revealed to the Town Commission and the Chamber of Commerce.

The Board of Education continued its fight for a new high school by its decision to resubmit the school building referendum to voters on December 21. In explaining the move, Domenick A. Lally, president, said that the Board needed guidance before planning its budget for 1962-63. "Before the Board completes this budget," stated Lally, "it should know whether it must make provision for the additional cost of double sessions."

Everything was set for "Donald Hume Night" at the Capitol Theatre. The United Fund of Belleville had arranged a benefit performance to honor the town's first and only World Champion—Donald Hume—the accordionist who had been named International Champion at the Olympic Finals in Milan, Italy. A parade down William Street to the Capitol Theatre was to precede the concert.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

The Republican party made a clean sweep in Belleville in the general election. The closest race in the career of Fred Hartley, Republican incumbent who ran for his fourth consecutive term, was provided by Peter Rodino, a Newark veteran with an outstanding war record. Belleville delivered a 1,330 vote plurality for the incumbent, whose total winning margin was 5,595 votes.

Belleville was to be represented in the New Jersey State Assembly for the first time since 1938 as the result of Elwood P. Russell emerging the winner over his democratic adversary in the Republican landslide that swept the state. Russell replaced Jerome Congleton Jr. of Newark after Congleton had withdrawn from the race following his appointment as assistant prosecutor of Essex County.

Two Belleville Negro soldiers, John L. Marshall and Alvin C. Brown, who gave their lives while fighting overseas in World War II, were to be honored when a veterans' post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was to be named in their honor. The post was to be called the Brown-Marshall Post of the VFW.

Belleville High School's football team was having a successful season. They had played four games and had not yet been scored against.

Hopes Town Will Initiate More Recreation

To The Editor:

In response to your paragraphs on VANDALISM in your October 28 issue, we feel you should segregate the juvenile delinquents from the juveniles of Belleville, for it is only certain people that cause a "hassle" around our town.

We hope that Commissioner Marotti will have a copy of this statement to show that we are interested on this issue. We feel that the town should sponsor some kind of program to keep the juveniles off the street corners at night. We hope that the town of Belleville will come up with some solution to this problem.

Feels Necessary For Full-Time Principal Here

To The Editor:

In response to the letter written by Robert B. Reilly, on October 14, 1971 about a full time principal at School No. 2.

As a parent who has two children attending this school, I felt that it was necessary to have a full time principal.

First of all, one person cannot devote all the time necessary to properly run a school, if he has to divide his time between two schools.

Mr. Pico, who is now our full time principal, has done more for School No. 2 in the short time he has been there; then what has been done in the past seventy years.

He is seeing to it that our children receive the best education facilities that are available to them.

As a concerned parent, and tax payer, I feel that our children should receive the same opportunities as the other schools in Belleville.

Helen's Thing

An Epistle To A Private At Fort Dix

By Helen Maguire

LETTER TO A SON in the service.

Dear Dennis,

GREETINGS, salutations and the like from the old homestead where the television set is on the blink, the washing machine will not itself across the floor during the spin cycle and the hot water refuses to emerge from the kitchen sink unless you lift up the faucet!

Other than that, everything is fine except your father got stuck twice in the Volkswagen today leaving Gavin stranded at the Y (Jack and Don Parsons rescued him) and annoying your male parent to no end.

Also, your sisters, the dingalings, now drink from cups. The bottles landed in the garbage after Ryan, in a helpful mood, cut a bigger hole in one of the nipples, and we took it as an omen that they had better be discarded. Nora refused to have anything to do with a glass for the better part of the first day until, overcome with thirst, she condescended to drink a few mouthfuls at supper perched on daddy's lap. I think he ended up with more milk on his pants than she got in her. Erin had seen the handwriting on the wall in the early morning and after a useless temper tantrum complete with stamping feet and the whole, bit, decided mama meant business and consumed about eight ounces.

THE BEST PART was the thorough and exhaustive search the two of them made for the dear old bottles. I've probably done some irreparable harm to their psyches.

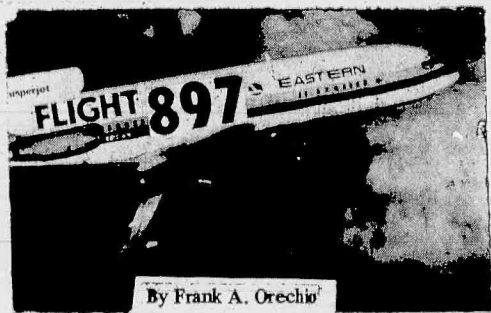

Today was the Halloween parade at Spring Garden. Gavin went as a gay blade of the roaring twenties complete with garter on his sleeve, straw hat, bow tie, striped vest and mustache. I bought some Halloween makeup and added sideburns and a mustache. He rather reminded me of the year you went as Groucho Marx. Dad has determined he will be a box of soap powder next year but the boy himself is opting for Batman.

Ryan has decided he is the house dog walker and religiously puts the leash on Belle and takes her out each day. Surprisingly, the mutt goes with him willingly although it presents a rather odd picture, this three and a half year old leading a dog who outweighs him and would probably top him in height if she stood on her hind legs.

I UNDERSTAND from Dad who got it from Corey that you can receive packages now. He was delighted to hear it but not so delighted a few minutes later when the operator called to ask him if he would accept the charges for your call to Corey. That did not go over too big, dear boy.

I must go. It is way after 11 p.m. and I have had a rather wild day in this perpetually wild house. Write soon if you haven't sold all the stamps.

Love, Mom.

Two Area Democrats Pull Pearl Harbor Type Attack

TWO DEMOCRAT CANDIDATES PULLED THEIR VERSION OF the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on election eve. Belleville's Peter Torre, Jr. and Montclair's David Conrad, the Democrat candidates for State Assembly in 11C caused to have distributed to Nutley homes a mimeographed message which started, "Since your local newspaper has refused to carry any of our releases..." This is an outright lie and what disturbs me most of all is that a person for whom I had the greatest respect and admiration, Peter Torre, stooped to gutter tactics to attack this newspaper for an alleged policy which he, down deep in his heart, knows is contrary to the fact. Our editors gave Mr. Torre and his running mate, that stranger from Montclair, what our staff considered to be fair treatment. If Torre and Conrad had any complaint, they should have made it long before it was too late for us to reply — for after all they were nominated in June and it's a long time between June and November the 1st. By their campaign tactic Torre and Conrad have destroyed their credibility and impugned their political integrity. The last-minute attack upon The Nutley Sun made in the manner that Torre and Conrad did was nothing more than an attempt by two desperate politicians to rob the votes of unsuspecting citizens by misleading them with false statements. It would be well for Nutley-Belleville voters to remember the foul campaign tactic pursued by Torre and Conrad. Either or both of these Democrats may want to appear before the public again seeking votes. They have destroyed any standing they may have had with us for the way in which they attempted to win this election.

IT IS IMPROBABLE FOR A PERSON to characterize an airline as a facility with compassion. From my own personal experience I can truthfully say that Eastern Airlines meets the compassion test superbly. An incident occurred recently which required Eastern Airlines' personnel to extend themselves in an act of mercy. They did it in grand style and since the people involved in the incident requested me not to divulge the circumstances which resulted in a manifestation of compassion on the part of Eastern Airlines, I am forbidden from printing the details. All I can say is thank God for Eastern Airlines and people who work for Eastern like Fred Neidenstein, Newark Customer Service Rep, Jim Courtney, Miami Customer Service Rep, Captain Charles Gryber, senior stewardess Sharon Dubinsky and the other stewards who shared the workload with Sharon, Carol Davis, Peggy Donovan and Geri Woodward — all terrific people and Eastern is lucky to have them in their employ.

THE NUTLEY JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB is fortunate for many reasons. One of the reasons is because it receives the benefits that flow from the dedication of a young lady whose name is Gloria (Mrs. Harold) Marrazza, a past president. Gloria is very upset over the possibility that the Nutley Woman's Club will be obliged to pay real estate taxes. "It was a heart-breaking blow to the members of the Nutley Woman's Club," commented Gloria regarding the real estate tax liability of the Woman's Club on Chestnut Street. Gloria presents such an eloquent case for tax exemption of the Nutley Woman's Club house that her message should attract the concern of Nutley citizens interested in the cultural and charitable aspects of our community life.

"I am sure the facts that: 1. we receive no income from our property, 2. we are registered as a national and state historical site, and 3. there are other organizations in town which are now tax exempt and are earning money with their property will be handled very adequately by our Woman's Club at their appeal to the Essex County Board of Taxation.

However, I wonder how many people know that if the Woman's Club is forced to disturb because of their inability to pay the $2,055.30 property tax, the Junior Club must also dissolve.

Would the people of Nutley miss our Pre-school eye and ear screenings, Rubella Vaccine Clinic, Art's Festivals, Halloween Parade, United Nations Day and our Children's Play?

Would other town organizations such as the United Community Fund, Mothers March of Dimes, Health Department, Board of Education, Red Cross and Parks Department miss being able to call upon us when their need arises?

Would Charities such as Projects Hope and Concern, National Association for Retarded Children, Nutley 1st Aid, Garden School, Reinheimer-Perry Boys Club, North Jersey Training School, Kearny Boys Town, St. Joseph's Home for the Blind, Family Service Bureau and many other local and national organizations (63 in all) miss our financial donations?

Would the old people at the Soho Hospital miss our carolling, our cookies and our cards (sometimes the only one they the receive) at Christmas time?

Would the kids at Essex County Children's Shelter miss our "mothering" when we are not there to wash their faces, read them a story, give them arts and crafts, sewing and cooking lessons or just kiss them good-night?

Would the blind children we've learned to love so very much miss us playing Santa at Christmas or taking them on a picnic or out to dinner or home with us for the day?

Would our Prisoners of War miss the 3000 letters we presented to the United Nations this summer addressed to Hanoi begging that our men receive more humane treatment and for their safe return to their families.

Would the town of Nutley deprive our members the pleasure of doing something we ourselves truly enjoy — that is helping others?

Is the town of Nutley selling us out for $2,055.30?

THE ARTHUR SATTLEERS recently celebrated their 16th wedding anniversary with the Michael Peracos at Nutley's elegant Park Pub. My congratulations to the Sattlers and I just hope they enjoy many more years of happiness and good health together.

Decides To Work

By Don Kowalski

I had determined that I should work; this due to several considerations. 1) After studying the capitalistic system of this fine country, I desired to take my rightful and expected place in it, thus revealing my patriotic nature. 2) Man does not live by bread alone. He must indulge in good, hard physical endeavor to clear his mind and body of all impurities. 3) I was starving.

So one day last week I proceeded around to the various sources of employment. In one particular instance (in order to illustrate my degree of success, or lack of it) I came upon a hamburger and root beer restaurant. Introducing myself, I proceeded to state,

"Hello Sir, would there be any possible desire on your part to employ me in your fine and noble firm?"

To which the potential employer of mine briefly replied, "Get out." Seeing that my negotiating position was somewhat at a standstill I proceeded to further my efforts. "I'll be honest with you, Sir," said I. "I am in desperate need of work for I have no money and no food. My life is endangered and I feel that if you do not incorporate me into your most respected firm, I could not survive the blow of rejection! I could not withstand the blow! Look Sir," I yelled as the tears rolled down my cheeks, "I'll do anything for you, anything! I'll scrub floors, I'll wait on tables, I'll clean the grille, I'll wash the dishes!" At this I fell on the floor pleading and begging.

The owner studied me carefully and prepared to speak. I was all ears. "We don't use dishes. We use paper plates."

For Coming Year

School Honor Society Names New Officers

This year Belleville's chapter of the National Honor Society has 25 members and two new advisors, Mrs. Cerami, head of the high school business department, and Miss Herelick, guidance counselor.

The officers are: President, Cindy Ferro; vice-pres., Carol Masi; secretary, Janice Puttorak; and treasurer, Mike Zarra.

Girls Service Moving On

On the request of Mr. Smith, the Principal of Belleville High, the newly organized Girls Service Organization participated in their first project. Fifteen girls were asked to help out in the "Open House" in Belleville High on October 20.

The GSO is new to Belleville High this year. Bill Hamilton, the Lieutenant Governor of the Key Club, initiated the organization, and two senior girls, Mary Jo Dillon and Sue Chamberlain, asked for applicants from all the girls in the school that were interested. The organization has been a big success with 75 applicants.

The main job of the girls on "Open House" night was to act as "runners". The girls were asked to pick up envelopes from their assigned rooms, and bring them to the main office.

The night was enjoyable, and the girls were thrilled to be of help.

Beginnings

By Bill Hamilton

Now that this column has existed for several weeks, I think it only fitting that I both tie up the past (perhaps for disposal) and reveal some insight into the future. The Behind-the-Wheel Program is back; our goal has been accomplished. Perhaps, though, I failed to mention the efforts of both the gym teachers and the High School Administration (especially Mr. Smith, the principal) in making this complete program possible. The gym teachers are taking on an additional load of students this year simply to give the students B-T-W.

I extend my personal appreciation to the staff of our Physical Education Department for their time and trouble and I am sure that the entire student body joins me in commending them. The second major crisis (and the United Nations thinks it has it rough!) to confront the student body and, thus, this page, was the lack of a Girls' Sports Program. I have investigated the matter and it seems that the program was not proposed in time for last year's budget, but Mr. Smith has secured some small but sufficient funds to get the program started this year.

A special section of the up-coming school budget will be concerned purely with Girls' Sports which will put this program on equal standing with the Boys' Sports Program in B.H.S., including Varsity and J.V. teams. It will be interesting to see if all this comes about next year, especially if the Education Budget providing for this is defeated.

The question now arises: "Where do we go from here?" My hope is to continue to act as a "trouble-shooter" for student and youth problems and difficulties, but I do not want to lose touch with the readers (if any) of this column. I cannot possibly know nor understand every problem of the school and youth of this town, and I need the co-operation of everyone to achieve the goal of improving this place and making life a little better for all, young and old.

If you, the reader, have a comment or opinion regarding this Student Page, let me know; send it to Belleville High School marked "Student Page" and I will see to it that your voice, young or old, is heard. If you have a gripe, or problem concerning youth, let me know. We have made beginnings here, and let us continue to strive for a better Belleville.

Exquisite Beauty On The Delaware

By Don Kowalski

From the tri-state junction at Port Jervis, N.Y. to the town of Delaware Water Gap in Pennsylvania flows part of the Delaware River (named after Lord De La Warr, Governor of Virginia), approximately 37 miles in length. The river's eastern border is the combination of New Jersey counties Sussex and Warren, while on its western side are Pike and Monroe counties in Pennsylvania. The Kittatinny Mountains form high walls inland.

Between these mountains and the Delaware is a land unlike all others. This New Jersey land possesses exquisite beauty, where at this moment the trees are in full bloom of bright and varied reds, oranges, and yellows, so bright and harmonious that one can arrive here tense and full of hate with nerves about to explode, yet leave a quiet, happy, and relaxed individual.

The Delaware River flows along serenely with the impression of timelessness and tranquility familiar to a region whose people are friendly enough to strangers, but fiercely independent from outside control.

Historically, the Dutch settled early here. Even today farmhouses dot the valley in Dutch fashion. The Old Mine Road is another indication of their influence. Built in the mid-1600's it is certainly one of the most picturesque routes in all the world as it weaves up and down and around, left and right, through highland and lowland, running in confused curves and unusual direction. Old Mine Road takes one through hundreds of years of man's history, and thousands of years of nature's, leaving one grateful for its eccentricity in course.

Today, however, there is something wrong. A tornado is approaching. Scores of houses are deserted and run-down. An unusual silence is in the air, for most people have left. Perhaps the stickers on the trees, signs, and homes say it best:

"Eminent Domain-Legalized Theft of Private Property"

The inhabitants have sold out due to pressure from the federal government. For you see, in a very short time this region is to be under water! The Tocks Island Dam is to be constructed by the Army Corps of Engineers, featuring a 37 mile-long lake for recreation and hydro-electric power. Some have said that the government simply will not tolerate a proud, self-sufficient land such as this to survive in a day of beauty.

Yet some remain. A small band of citizens have refused to leave or obey court orders to leave. They are the main obstacle to the building of the dam.

Second Year Is Initiated By Future Lawyers Club

Is Perry Mason your idol? Does watching Owen Marshall, Counselor At Law, get you psyched? As you view the "Young Lawyers" do you say that's my thing? Well if you answered yes to all these questions than you should belong to the Future Lawyers Club of Belleville High School. If you answered no - join anyway.

The club is now beginning its second year but already is the most active group in the school. This club is for just for those who look to a future in law or law enforcement but to anyone interested in politics, government, or history.

Last year among the club's many activities were visits to the Seton Hall Law School, (where members acted as a jury during a mock trial put on by law students); and Belleville Town Hall. Speakers for the club were numerous. Among the many informative guests were Arthur Magnuson, (a local detective); Mr. Carbone, a state trooper; Mr. Pamara, a law student; and Mr. Di Leo and

FBI agent.

All these speakers presented a program of interest as well as of knowledge. Films and pamphlets were also made available to the club. The year ended with a superb dinner at Pirillo's. The former President of the club traveled to Washington, D.C. for a national meeting of Future Lawyers and met many of our Nation's most distinguished men.

This year through the efforts of President Mark Siabinski, we hope to do much more. Thoughts to visit state prisons, Washington, Essex County Court House and law schools are already being formulated. Speakers are also being scheduled. This club has many plans and goals which we hope to achieve through the aid of the officers: Vice President Bill Hamilton; Secretary Karen Smith; and treasurer Robert Luongo.

Come and join the club that asks "and where are you on the night of Tuesday, November 9, 1971?" The Club is opened to all Belleville High School students for membership. The only requirements is interest.

Belleville High School Twirlers

The 1971-72 Belleville High School Twirling Squad has been displaying their fine talents each week on the football grid-iron. The girls practiced each Tuesday and Thursday night during the summer and now practice together everyday after school. This year the main feature is the entire squad fire twirling. Besides the football games, the girls must also perform at the annual Band Show held in the spring, various parades, and different social functions, such as the dedication of the new Continuing Care Unit at Clara Maass Hospital, which took place on September 19. Jackie Zatorski, this year's captain and a member of the National Honor Society, has the responsibility of originating all of the squad's routines. She is assisted by co-captains - Annette Salvato, Laura Porcelli, and Dolores Sorroche. Senior Squad members are: Sue Antolini, Donna Aulisi, Sue Chamberlain, Janice Corino, Marilyn Lisante, Susan Macek, Irene McGuire, Rosemary Morra, Lorraine Nessine, Mary Ellen Soprano, and Darlene Wisneski.

The Juniors on the squad are: Debbie Belli, Lynn Cornish, Nancy Dalla Riva, Joan

Gialanella, Pattie LaMotta, Debbie Malato, Donna Rainone, and Pattie Wille. Also on the squad are: Gale Anderson, Kathy Pastirik, Lisa Ritacco, and Mary Linda

Waliska, who are Sophomores.

The twenty-eight girls, who have Miss Bonnie Cook as their advisor, must pay dues each week and sell decals and candy to cover the cost of the Band Trip that takes place each year. It is the climax of the year because it is the very last time the Seniors of the Band, Twirlers, and Color Guard perform together.

Women's Lib Strikes Again

By Kim Scamorza
Belleville Senior High School took one step toward women's liberation. It accomplished this by opening a course to girls which has been in the past, only been open to boys. Auto Mechanics is the subject, which is taught in eleventh period, in the auto shop, by Mr. DePauw. The course will be held in two or three cycles depending upon the amount of students interested.

Primarily, the purpose of the class is to give girls a basic understanding of the automobile. There will be no credit given to anyone who takes this course. Any girl who would like more information pertaining to this subject may talk to Miss Fucello.

Jersey Lawns Need Lime

A home owner interested in growing an attractive lawn frequently asks, "Does the lawn require lime if I fertilize properly?"

The answer for attractive lawns in New Jersey is an emphatic "yes," William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County states.

The benefits derived from lime and fertilizer are quite different. Fertilizer is no substitute for the beneficial effects of lime.

The best lawns are the ones which are properly provided with both lime and fertilizer.

And now is an excellent time to apply lime.

Lime applied now will do more good to your lawn next year than an application in the spring. The alternate freezing and thawing of the soil in late winter will help work the lime into the soil where it will do the most good for improving conditions for growth of lawn grasses.

Generally, an established lawn needs about 25 pounds of limestone to 1,000 square feet of lawn area each year. It is a good habit to apply 25 pounds each year and get a soil test every three to five years to check on the lime status of the soil.

WHY ISN'T THE BOTTLE FULL?

We have heard this question many times when we have given a customer their prescription and the bottle is not filled to the top. There can be many reasons for this happening. In some cases, the drug is stored in a concentrated powder form and a liquid has to be added to release its active ingredient. Sometime it is just a case of leaving room for a medicine that needs to be given an extra hard shaking before it is taken.

If there is something unusual about a prescription, your pharmacist will usually mention it to you and in most cases it will be explained on the label.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

White Pines May Drop Needles Now

It's natural for white pines to lose their needles at this season.

A browning from the bottom up and from the trunk out is normal, explains William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County.

The white pine is among evergreens that drop their one-year old leaves or needles.

Evergreens remain green all year because they do not lose all their foliage at one time. Actually, leaf life ranges from one to six years, depending on the species.

The plant produces new leaves or needles every year and some of the old inside ones die and fall to the ground.

If you have enough of these to make the effort worthwhile, gather them and use them for mulch around other plants.

Take a close look at your white pine. If it's turning brown from the inside you have nothing to worry about.

Browning of the needles at the tip is something else again, and in that case, you'd better seek the advice of your senior county agricultural agent.

Eye Screening Program Held At Clara Maass

A statewide "Eye Health Screening Program" was presented for the 15th consecutive year during the week of September 12th at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. It was under the sponsorship of the Medical Society of New Jersey acting through its special committee on the Conservation of Vision, Hearing and Speech. This free public service was offered to all persons over the age of 35 who are not already receiving ophthalmological care.

The purpose of the screening is to detect evidence of any eye disease or of any systemic disease reflected in the eyes which should have treatment or follow-up by a licensed physician.

The human eye is directly connected to the brain and closely related to other systems of the body. Vision, one of man's most priceless possessions, depends not only upon a healthy eye, but also upon a healthy body. The eye can not be considered independently. The ophthalmologist therefore evaluates the patient's eye problem in relation to the body as a whole. He is concerned not only with determining whether glasses will improve the patient's vision, but whether eyeglasses are really the answer to the patient's problem.

OUNCE OF PREVENTION - Mrs. Lee Pfister of Nutley was among the 171 local residents to take advantage of the "Eye Health Screening Program" at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital recently. Mrs. Pfister is shown having her eyes examined by Dr. Eugene Chiappetta of Belleville.

Old folks are not more foolish than young ones: they just look sillier. An appointment, at a specific time means nothing to some people.

Miss Weiner Appointed To Nursing School Post

Miss Lillian Weiner was recently appointed Assistant Director of the School of Nursing at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital by Miss Anne Knox, Director.

While at Columbia University she was elected to the Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society and during World War II served as First Lieutenant Flight Nurse with the United States Air Force Nurse Corps, receiving several service awards.

Miss Weiner served as a consultant for the New York State Department of Health and was formerly a faculty member of Rutgers College of Nursing in New Jersey.

The Clara Maass Memorial Hospital School Of Nursing has complete teaching and dormitory facilities on the hospital grounds. At the present time there are 17 members of the immediate faculty and 100 student nurses in training for a 33 month graduate course program.

Record 22,620 Pounds of Glass Reclaimed

More glass was collected last Saturday than at any of the four previous glass reclamation drives, the Nutley Jaycees report.

Nutley residents brought 22,620 pounds of glass to the reclamation site at the parking area of the Centre Street office of the First National State Bank. The previous high was 21,040 pounds at the first drive June 12.

For the first time the glass was deposited according to color in three trucks of the Nutley Department of Public Works. In addition, two trucks supplied by landscaper Peter Scarpelli were used to pick up large quantities of glass and to transport paper bags and boxes.

Jaycees and members of CLAW, an ecology club at Nutley High School, were on hand all day to receive the glass, check for the absence of metal rings, and toss the bottles into the proper truck. Several citizens requested, and were allowed, to smash their own bottles.

"Breaking all that glass is a good way to work off your aggressions," Ron Kulik commented. Kulik is a member of the Jaycees board of directors.

Although most of the bottles brought to the site were without metal rings, there were enough bottles with rings to keep CLAW members Diane Stephens and Irene Scheibner busy all day removing them.

George Barsavitch, chairman of the Jaycees' ecology committee, was enthusiastic about the increase in the quantity of glass collected.

"I hope many more citizens who have not taken part before will begin now to save glass for our next drive," Barsavitch said. He added that the next collection would take place December 4.

Trash Liners Are Popular

While the weather was balmy Saturday, business in the Jaycees' trash can liners was brisk.

Many Nutleyites who brought glass to the reclamation site took advantage of the special package of trash can liners the Nutley Jaycees were offering as a fundraiser.

Manufactured by Mobil Chemical Co. especially for Jaycee chapters, the plastic bags come in rolls of 50 bags and sell for $3.30. The bags have a 30-gallon capacity. Ties are included.

"This is a substantial saving over the cost of bags of comparable quality," according to Al Cameron, chairman of the Jaycees' ways and means committee.

The Jaycees sold 53 rolls Saturday and have a number left for the leaf-raking season. Cameron said orders can be placed by calling him at 667-3489.

The best sale of the day Saturday was to one man who brought no glass and came only for the plastic bags. He bought three rolls.

"I know a good deal," he said.

$320,000 ArrangementLocal Crane Company Lifts Bank's Finances

A mammoth crane that can reach to the top of a 40-story building has lifted the total of instalment loans at National Newark & Essex Bank to over 100,000,000 a record for any bank in New Jersey.

A $320,000 financing arrangement with Hoffman Riggings & Crane Service Inc. of Belle. brought the bank's instalment loan total to nine figures and further increased the worldwide capabilities of the Hoffman organization, already operators of the world's largest pool of heavy lifting equipment.

Desmond P. McDonald, National Newark vice president and senior instalment credit officer, said the financing arrangement — one of several that the bank has had with Hoffman over the years — is in keeping the bank's aggressive loan policy.

"We have continued to venture into new fields since starting what was then our Time Sales Department back in 1940," McDonald pointed out. "We're willing to go into any field that will help our customers to grow and prosper."

William A. Hoffman, Jr., president of the Belleville firm, explains that the new crane is identical to one that Hoffman is presently using on huge construction projects across the country. He points out the huge machines, designed for both construction and maritime lifting assignments, have a lifting capacity of 250 tons and are capable of mounting 400 feet of boom, the height of a 40-story building. In addition to the company's heavy lifting and cargo handling operations, Hoffman points out that the firm is also a leader in the heavy hauling and rigging industry.

"We can move any load — nuclear reactors, generators, boilers — weighing up to 7000 tons," Hoffman adds.

Hoffman and his cousin, Harry L. Hoffman, Jr., who serves as chairman of the board, presently hold the top management positions in the firm started by their fathers in 1920.

Measures PollutantsClean Air Caravan Tests Exhaust From Autos Here

The Atlantic Richfield Company's Clean Air Caravan visited Belleville last week. The Clean Air Caravan was developed as a simple, but effective means of determining the volume of certain automotive exhaust pollutants.

Under the system as developed by Atlantic Richfield scientists, cars were checked and analyzed for exhaust emissions of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide — both air pollutants coming from automobile engines.

Problems looked for were those which are the major sources of higher exhaust pollution: improper carburetor adjustment, restricted air filter, plugged or restricted PCV system, and ignition deficiencies.

Technicians making the tests advised each driver on the spot how specific malfunctions contributed to pollution and how corrective measures of simple adjustments or part replacement could markedly improve the condition.

Too many people know all the answers.

CLEAN AIR TESTING of autos in Belleville last week was under direction of Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo (left) with health officer Ed Hillery, as two Atlantic Richfield inspectors check vehicle.

What to do about insomnia?

First of all, stop worrying. Get your mind set on something pleasant. Spend a half hour before going to bed in mild recreation. Take a tepid bath. Open windows on the dark side of the house if it is not too cold out. Cool air tends to deepen sleep. Avoid light hitting your face. Wear loose night clothes. Use sheets and blankets of sufficient length. Use a comfortable mattress and a buoyant pillow. Insure your comfort long before zero hour arrives for the best results.

COME MATCH WITH ME

I am Nicols Park Esso. My birthday is October and my sign is Libra.

I am a fan of Olga's and when she failed to appear in last week's issue of this newspaper I decided that those of us who are zodiac students have a right to read Olga every week. From now on look for her in this space.

Your Weekly Horoscope

November 6 through November 12, 1971

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Though you may not be alone in week ahead, Ari, you will experience a touch of loneliness. As you sit back and observe, distinctions blur. Old symbols seem to take on new meanings. A very personal week, which ends quietly. But with hope.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Wonderful week for you, Taurus, since your capacity for loving will be exceptionally great. You will be most vital. Inspiration comes from unusual person and/or situation. However, by last day, energy wanes, so avoid impulse to cuddle in a corner. Read a good book instead.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Desire to get ideas down on paper will be particularly strong, almost compulsive. Do it. You are a special breed, dear, and the very act of writing will not only dissipate feeling of ennui, but may very well pay personal dividend. Week ends ceremoniously.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Urge to be generous in both word and deed should not be ignored. If you hesitate, wondering and worrying about "what others may think," you miss marvelous chance to do good. Be what you ARE, a beautiful Moonflower.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Shadows of doubt nag and nag, Leo. But they are only shadows, nothing more. "Screw your courage to the sticking-place" and you wind up on top of the heap, again. As usual.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Holy mackerel, Virg, fun and friendships are yours for the asking in week ahead. Just watch it, lest you become involved in the cut rate variety. Virg is first class, so settle only for the finest.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): You have a fine intuitive mind, Lib, and before end of fourth day you would be wise to make definite decision concerning very personal affairs. Trust your hunches. Remainder of the week fruitful in your career.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Dream your little dreams, Scorp. They are vitally important to you at this particular time. Mid-week favorable for a bit of nonsense, but avoid stimulants, for your present situation is already complicated enough. No sense in putting your head on the chopping block willingly, is there? Last day a ring-ding-dinger.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Platonic relationship looms on the horizon, Sag, which may very well turn into a long-term thing. Mind you, Olga said "platonic." Under NO circumstances allow it to evolve into anything more. At this juncture, Sag, you need a buddy, NOT a lover.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Sweet and sour week ahead, Cap, so prepare yourself. Perhaps you have grown accustomed to more than your share of honey, and may have to do a bit of adjusting. It is true that sweets satisfy quickly, but they also rot your teeth, make you fat and ruin your skin. Chin up, dear hear, you'll muddle through.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Establish priorities in days ahead, Aquari, though this is not the easy task you may assume it to be. Long-range career goals must sometimes be side-tracked temporarily for short-term personal satisfaction and family harmony. Think about it.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): If you took good care of yourself last week, Pisces, you should be in a position to take three giant steps forward. Simon says so. Olga says so. And so do the stars. Career matters, which have been murky, clear. Domestic scene calms. As weeks go, this one should be totally terrific.

With Balanced Attack

Winning W. Orange Invades Municipal Stadium Saturday

of game. Two of Bruno's aerials were for touchdown strikes, including a 43-yard bomb to Sal Cicalese.

"The most pleasing thing to see was our team come from behind to score the win," remarked head coach Rocco Cafone.

Belleville trailed Orange 6-0 at the end of the first quarter but the club came back to score touchdowns in the second and third stanza. Cafone reported that it was the first time this season Belleville has come from behind to get the victory.

"What made the win satisfying was the way we bounced back against a club of such large size," added the coach.

According to Cafone, Orange was bigger than most clubs, but the Blue and Gold will be facing more of the same this week. West Orange averages about six-feet in height with several of its performers tipping the scales at over the 200-pound mark.

West Orange head coach Keith Doyle admits having "a pretty good sized club." The Cowboy coach says balance and experience are the two assets for him this season. He has 23 returning lettermen and almost exclusively uses the two-platoon system.

"We like to keep the players fresh. This year we have the personnel to stock two full units."

What makes West Orange so difficult to defense against, according to Cafone, is their balance in play. Cafone believes that they have an excellent quarterback in Brian Trifolis, who can both pass and run the ball. Backing up Trifolis is Fred Taddeo, a 170-pound punishing runner who has been tabbed by coach Doyle as his "power back."

The Cowboy defense is centered around its linebackers. Vin Vavaglione and Gilbert Hills at the linebacking sports are proficient at stopping the run and halting the pass. Safety Rick Landfunk will make it difficult for Orange to get off any long scoring strikes.

"We had a difficult time against Bloomfield but we have a proven offense that should show more against Belleville," commented coach Doyle.

What Doyle fears this year is a ball-control type of team. Bloomfield last week beat the Cowboys on ball-control and if Belleville expects to win they will have to run the majority of offensive plays.

"Last week our defense didn't give our offensive unit enough chances to score," said Doyle.

Doyle sees his club as strong defensively. He thinks the Cowboys have the ability to score so it will be a matter of keeping Belleville's attack in check. He sees Belleville as a physical team that relies on quickness.

"Our scouting report tells us that Belleville this year isn't the typical Belleville team of the past. They don't have the size this season but they do have the same type of tough kid that likes to hit. We are expecting a tough physical game Saturday."

Joe Lotruglio, Belleville's top runner, is on the mend after suffering a muscle pull and should start Saturday. Against Orange he didn't see action until the second quarter. Lotruglio missed practice all last week and was listed as doubtful for the Orange game. Coach Cafone reported that the star runner felt suddenly better Saturday so he decided to play him.

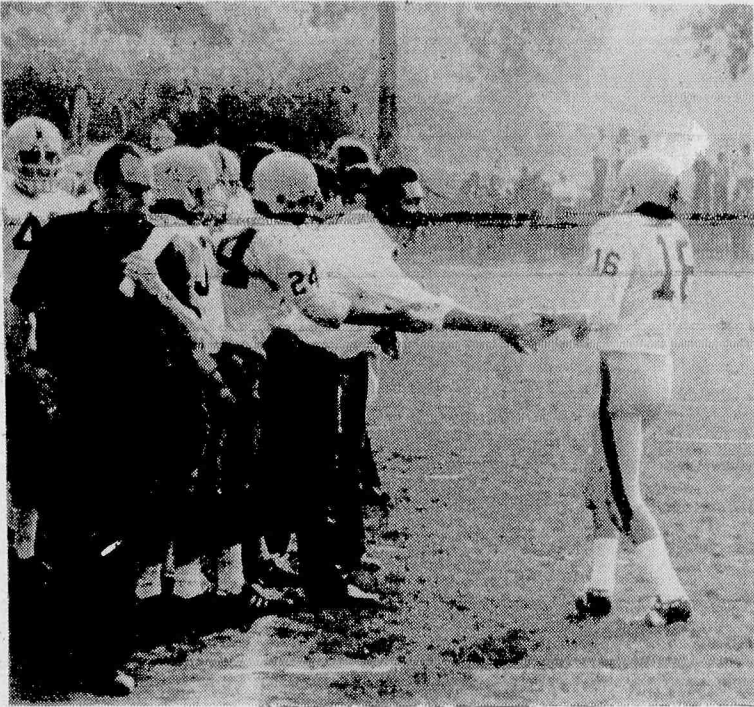

Joe Cerza, a top sophomore candidate and second-string linebacker, may be lost for the season after suffering a knee injury.

Cafone reports that Belleville looked sluggish at the onset but the squad improved with the game. Three interceptions hurt the team so Cafone this week will be looking to improve that aspect. Much of the trouble, said Cafone, is that at times Bruno can't see over opposing linemen.

If Belleville wins this Saturday it will assure them of a winning season at 5-2. Ralph Lukowiak, the Bellboy spunky safety, leads the club with interceptions at five. He added two more against Orange for this five total.

"Ralph is a very energetic kid. There is no secret to his interceptions. He is just at the right spot almost all the time. He received the game ball last week."

Cafone sees his biggest problem with West Orange as Brian Trifolis, another top quarterback. The coach remarked that although the Bellboys have handled other good signal callers this year with success, Trifolis has a team to back him up.

RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS from Bellboy head coach Rocco Cafone is (16) Sal Cicalese, who gathered in a Phil Bruno pass in full stride for a 43-yard touchdown jaunt Saturday at Municipal Stadium.

Gridders Capture Fourth Win On Defense, Arm of Bruno

The Blue and Gold grid- ders of Belleville reeled off their fourth straight win of the season Saturday afternoon in Municipal Stadium by defeating a stubborn Orange squad, 14-6. Quarterback Phil Bruno highlighted the offensive action with two scoring strikes in the battle.

In Belleville's third consecutive home game the local grid- ders fell behind in the first quarter when the Tornadoes marched 73 yards up the field for a touchdown. It was one of the rare times this year a team has put together a sustained drive against Belleville's stubborn defense.

The score came on a 14-yard pass from quarterback Ralph Sapio to Stuart Johnson.

Bruno and the Bellboys took back the lead early in the second stanza after Ralph Lukowiak, defensive secondary star, nabbed an interception. Lukowiak had two aerial steals on the day and leads the local club in interceptions. Mike Porecco was on the receiving end of a third-down pass at the five-yard line for the Belleville score. Bruno booted the extra point to put Belleville in the lead for good.

Again it was signal caller Bruno in the third period on a touchdown pass. This time the scoring strike went to Sal Cicalese as he caught the over-the-shoulder pass in full stride, racing 43 yards for six points. Bruno kicked another conversion, giving Belleville a comfortable 14-6 lead.

Quarterback Bruno hit five of eight passes on the day for 96 yards in the air. His other three passes never fell in- complete. They were picked off by the Orange secondary.

After the Belleville score, Orange came back with another long drive. The Tornadoes were deep in Bellboy territory but Belleville held on a crucial third down play. On fourth and eight, Orange was unsuccessful in a field goal attempt. The kick was blocked by the Belleville line.

Belleville controlled most of the fourth quarter action. The offense was marching toward the goal line in the last seconds when Joe Lotruglio hit paydirt on the last play of the game, only to fumble the ball for an Orange touch- downback.

CYO Cage League Deadline Is Nearing

The Essex County CYO announces that Monday, Nov. 8 will be the deadline for entering teams in the 1971-72 boys and girls basketball leagues.

Leagues will be offered again this Winter for gram- mar, junior and senior boys, and for grammar school and high school girls.

Forms have been mailed to all parishes chartered to participate in CYO activities.

Sports Director John O'Connor has scheduled two evening meetings for coaches of boys' league teams. The first will be held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

in Colgate Field House, Cherry and Franklin Streets, West Orange. Persons unable to make this session should plan on attending the meeting slated for Thursday, Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in Sacred Heart School cafeteria, South Orange Avenue and Hazlewood Avenue, Vailsburg.

Team coaches, youth moderators or parish representa- tives must attend one of the two meetings in order to qualify their team for partici- pation in the basketball program.

Additional dates and sites will be announced for forma- tion of the girls' leagues.

Harriers Running Victory First Of Current Season

Belleville's cross-country squad picked up their first running victory of the season last week when they topped the East Orange Panthers, 27-28, at Westside Park, Newark. The local runners only other win was earlier this year.

Sparkling the victory for the Bellboys were star sophomores Steve Budrick in third place and Frank Salerno in fourth spot. Only seven seconds separated the two at the finish line. The Panthers captured the first and second spots with Mike Smart, who was 15th in the Big Ten meet Friday, taking first with an excellent 13:20 time.

Rocco Cuozzo for Belleville nailed down the fifth position and Bob Cozzarelli was seventh. But observers of the race called sophomore Mike Spillane's eighth place finish

AFTER INTERCEPTING Orange pass on first Tornadoe aerial thrown in Saturday's game, Belleville's Ralph Lukowiak (21) scampers for big yardage on the play. Lukowiak had two interceptions and now leads club in that department.

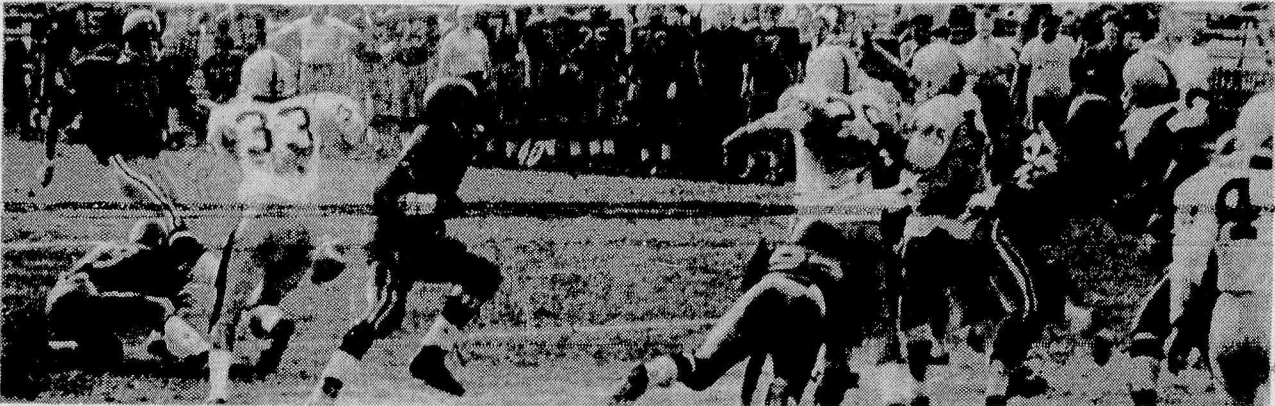

ALAN FRANK, Bellboy defender, took this interception in full stride and returned it 25 yards. Bellboys had four interceptions on the day.

TORNADOE RUNNER is gang tackled by Bellboy defenders. Leading charge is (44) Mark Cervasio and Pat Dunn (37). Gang tackling has become the specialty of the Blue and Gold defense.

FIELD GOAL ATTEMPT by Orange in the third quarter of Saturday's game was blocked by the Bellboys. Kicking specialist R. Hart (80) boots ball while Belleville's Gary Falkman rushes in attempting block.

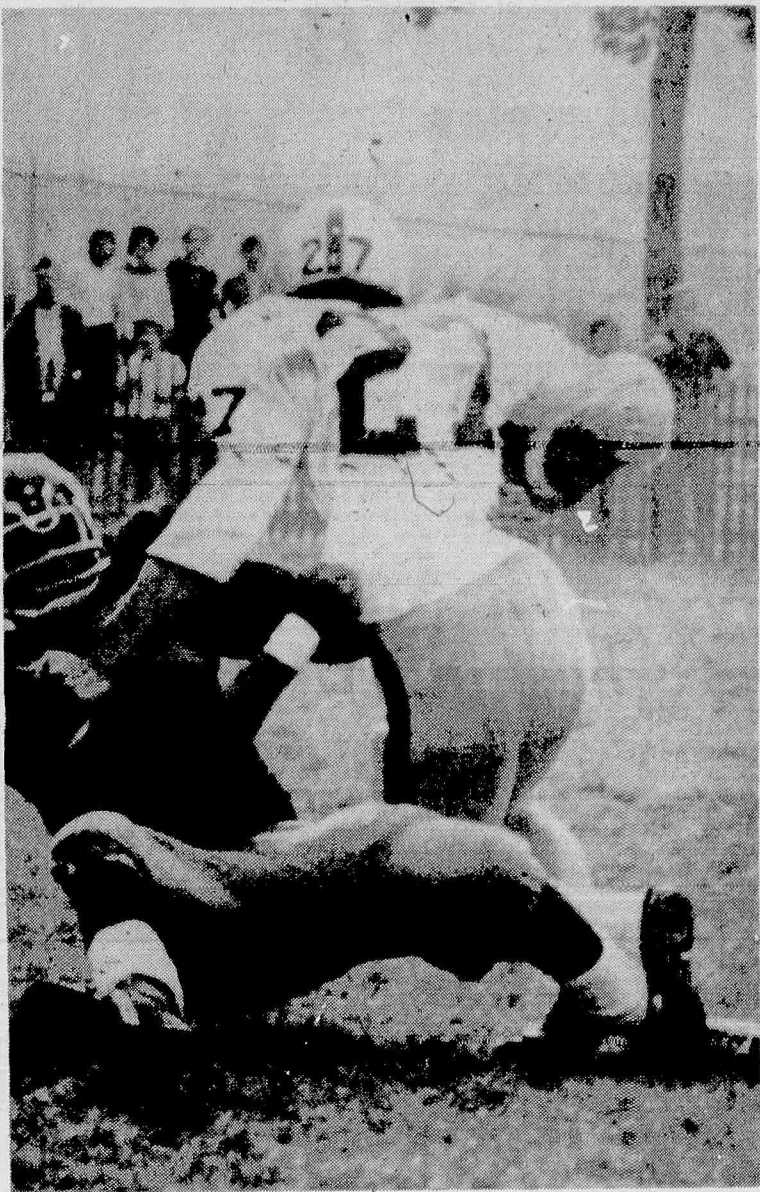

SCRAMBLING Tornadoe quarterback Ralph Sapio (17) is eventually sacked by Belleville line on this second quarter play. Sapio lost 10 yards on second and nine play. Bellboys held dual threat quarterback to minus 12 yards rushing.

GAME ENDING PLAY saw Belleville's Joe Lotruglio plunge into Orange endzone only to fumble ball for a safety. Many of the Bellboy players dispute call, saying Lotruglio was over the goal line before giving up football.

Two Scoring Strikes Quarterback Bruno Bring Bellboys Victory

WRESTLED to the ground on the last play of the first half is Belleville receiver Mike Porecco, who caught 30-yard aerial from quarterback Phil Bruno. Play Belleville deep in Orange territory but half ended before squad could score.

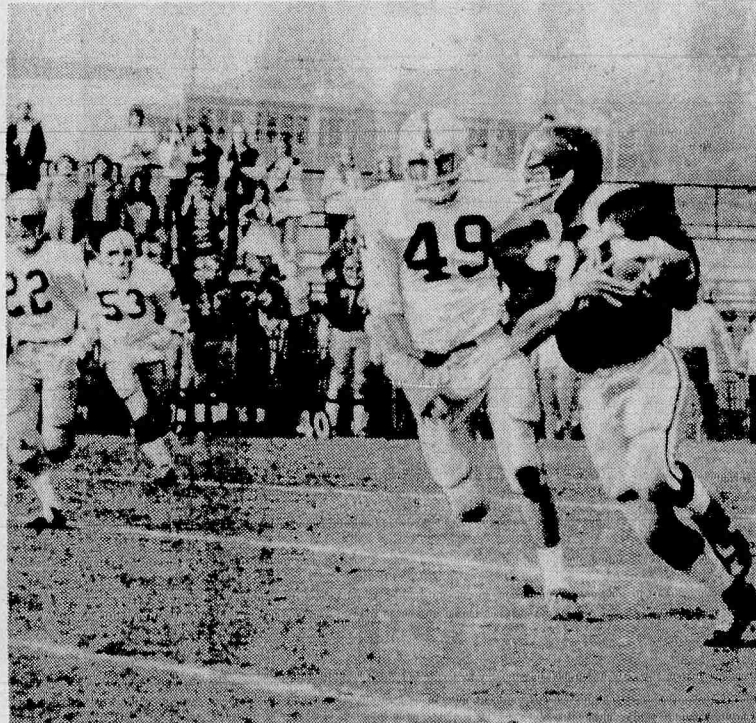

Gridders Top Orange For Fourth Straight

SCREEN PASS to (42) L. Hill of Orange fell incomplete as Belleville's defensive tackle (29) S. Pigninelli puts strong rush on play. Orange quarterback (17) Ralph Sapio could complete only four of 11 passes.

CAUGHT from behind after five-yard gain in first quarter is Bellboy fullback Phil Cuzzi. The local squad didn't get on scoreboard until second stanza.

THE CHASE IS ON between Belleville lineman (49) Mike Olivieri and Tornadoe rucher J. West. Orange's West scampered for 11 yards and a first down on this first quarter play before defense could catch up to him.

FORCED OUT OF BOUNDS after a four-yard gain nearly in the third quarter is Belleville rusher Mark Cervasio. A host of Orange tacklers pursue Cervasio on play. Mark rushed twice for seven yards and caught one pass in Saturday game.

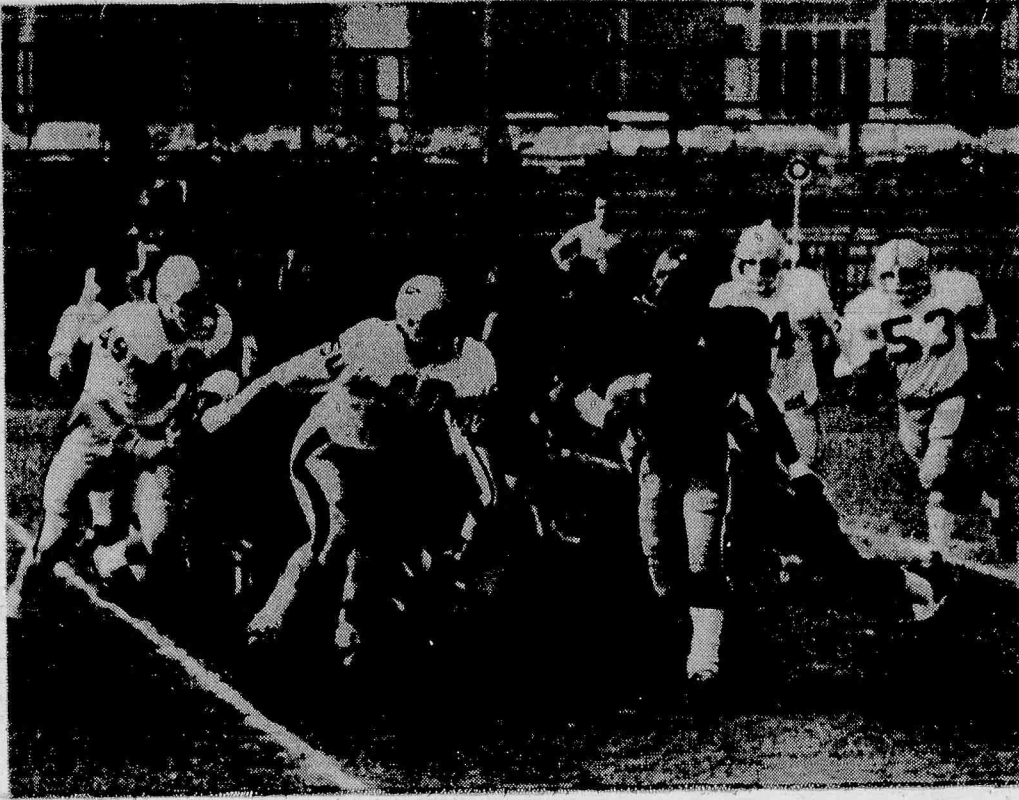

LOWERING THE BOOM on Orange rusher Robert Jones (24) is Bellboy defender Mark Cervasio. Talented Cervasio also played the offensive backfield Saturday.

BREAKING UP Orange pass play in endzone is Bellboy defensive star Ralph Lukowiak (21). Star Lukowiak intercepted two more Saturday and leads club in that department BOLTING OUT of his receiver spot on the Bellboy line is (16) Sal Cicalese, who beat his Orange defenders on a third period play to catch a Phil Bruno pass on a 43-yard hook-up. Bruno last Saturday threw for two touchdown passes, one to Cicalese.

CLOSING IN for the Bellboy defense is the boss of the local defenders Bob Luongo (50), catching Tornado runner L. Hill for a short gain in first quarter. Again this week, Bellboy defenders limited to one touchdown.

Montclair State Cross-Country Squad Is Smashing All-Time Season Marks

With nearly a third of the season still to go, Coach George Hsrn's Montclair State College cross-country team already bears the stamp of "best tea ver" in ten foot high letters.

The hill-and dale squad has already established a bushel load of all-time records and has an excellent opportunity to become the first team in the school's history to go undefeated in dual match competition dated back to 1939.

Cross-country has only had indifferent success at Montclair State since it was introduced on a varsity basis. Until this year the best record in the sport was established in 1949 when the late Richard Willing's squad was 10-1. The one loss in 1949 was a 19-36 decision to Seton Hall.

The major accomplishments of this season include a string of 13 straight dual match victories and the first New Jersey State College Conference cross-country championship since 1966 plus a consecutive winning streak over two seasons that now totals 18 meets.

While the success of this year's team on the surface would appear to be overnight happening it is far from true. Horn, now in his sixth season as head coach, has been building the current unit for four years.

After posting marks of 6-5-1 and 9-6 in his first two years, Horn's 1968 unit fell on evil days and won only 2 of 14 meets. One of the main reasons for the poor mark was Horn's inability to use his freshman on the varsity team.

In 1969 the Indians made it back to a 7-6 record and last year were 6-5 with the signs of a good season coming this Fall when the Indians won the last five dual meets.

Horn's team last year placed fifth in the Collegiate Track Conference Cross-Country meet and sixth in the New Jersey College and University Meet.

While senior Vic Mizzone of Totowa is Horn's most consistent runner, the current hill and dale squad is far from a one man team.

In addition to Mizzone, Horn's well balanced unit most constant runners have been Kevin McGrath of Montclair, Bob Mayer of Bloomfield, Steve Schappert of Montville, Bill Lowing of Elizabeth, Al Johnson of Clark, Guy Pillsbury of Upper Montclair and Joe Kornakowski of Bloomfield and Greg Weiss of Butler.

Mizzone, a 21-year old senior out of Passaic Valley High School, ranks with the best hill and dale runners in New Jersey on any collegiate level. Last year he was third in the CTC championships over the tough Van Cortlandt Park course in New York City with a clocking of 26:39 while placing eighth in the New Jersey College and University Meet.

In dual match competition this year he has been first nine times and second twice for a near perfect record.

Two other seniors, McGrath and Schappert, have been making major contributions to the team. Schappert is a math major with a fine 3.5 grade ratio who transferred to the Indians from East Carolina University. McGrath has been a steady runner who appears to still be improving.

Backing up the upper classmen are three sophomores and one junior. Kornakowski, 5-10 and 140 pounds, ran in Sweden and Finland this past summer preparing for the current season. A graduate of Bloomfield High School, Kornakowski is a 9-20 two miler with a great deal of promise.

The most unique story on the team is that of Bob Mayer, also out of Bloomfield High School. A member of the varsity wrestling team in high school, Mayer never took part in cross-country until coming to the college. The lightest man on the team at 5-9 and 130 pounds, Mayer has lowered his Garrett Mountain course time two minutes already this year and now has a clocking of 25:50 for the Passaic County layout.

Johnson, the third sophomore out of Roselle Catholic, is a Fine Arts Major with a good deal of potential as a runner. Horn feels in the next two years he could well become one of the Indians best hill and dale runners.

Lowing, a junior, is a transfer student from Kansas Wesleyan, ran 4:16 for the mile at Union High School.

SHUFFLEBOARD in recreation center at Clara Maass Continuing Care Center is enjoyed by Mrs. Matthew Marinich of Bloomfield and Anthony Caggiano of Newark.

At Clara Maass

Continuing Care Center Is Open

The Continuing Care Center at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital officially opened its doors to the center's first patients last week.

Patients who still require nursing care but not the acute attention that is given in the main hospital were the first to be admitted.

Beds in the new 150 bed unit are being made over a period of time on a need basis stated Mr. Albin H. Oberg, executive director. Regarding the room rates of the seemingly luxurious surroundings Mr. Oberg further commented that Clara Maass Memorial Hospital is making every effort to provide total patient care within reason. In fact the room rates will be the same as those in the main hospital. We are going thru a shake down period and every effort will be made to provide patient service at a somewhat lesser rate within the near future. The first patients to occupy the new Continuing Care Center at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital were amazed as such luxury. Anthony Caggiano of Newark said "It's terrific, beautiful and has so much to offer". Mrs. Matthew Marinich of Bloomfield said "You forget that you're in a hospital. It's very relaxing and you have so much freedom".

Benito Gallara of Morristown said "It's neat, quiet and has no hospital smell".

They all agreed that "One forgets that they are in a hospital and if they make hospitals like this one, you will not object to come in".

This progressive Continuing Care Center is another great advancement in total patient care that was made possible through the continued generous support of Business, Industry, Foundations and the many friends of the hospital.

Senior Center Opens In Belleville

The fourth Senior Citizen Center to be opened in the County Park System was dedicated by the Essex County Park Commission on October 27. The traditional ribbon was cut by Everett M. Scherer, Commission president, during ceremonies attended by the Belleville Senior Citizen Club and representatives of various other Senior clubs. Located in Belleville Park, the new Center will be open seven days of the week for a wide variety of activities. Old-timers of the area will remember using the Belleville field house in years gone by, but in recent times the building has been of little use. Structurally sound, it was determined to be well worth rehabilitation to meet current needs for a senior citizen center.

The Center features an all purpose room, 25 feet by 70 feet, new heating system, fine lighting and completely revamped comfort facilities. A major part of the work was accomplished by Park Commission personnel — the cost, $30,000.

The Commission will be offering an expanded slate of activities at all four Centers starting this winter. The other three Centers are located in Branch Brook Extension, Branch Brook Middle Division, and Vailsburg Parks. Except for Branch Brook Extension, which is utilized primarily as a field house and comfort building during the spring and summer, these Centers, like the Belleville Center, were developed by renovating old park buildings. The commission staff will be working to develop a year of planned activity at each Center.

N.J. Lags in Qualifying Communities for Help With Flood Insurance

(The following concerns flood damage reimbursement and insurance laws of interest to town residents. The statement is one made by Sen. Clifford P. Case while introducing amendments to the Federal Flood Insurance Law in Washington. — Editor.)

Today I am introducing legislation to provide more effective protection under the Federal Flood Insurance Law.

Sen. Case

In recent weeks many states, including my own State of New Jersey, have experienced extensive damage caused by flooding. Unfortunately, efforts to repair the damage have been, in many cases, thwarted by an obscure provision of the Federal Flood Insurance Act. This provision, called the Non Duplication of Federal Benefits, penalizes those homeowners and businessmen who did not buy coverage in communities where the insurance has been available for more than a year.

The National Flood Insurance Program was established under the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 to make available limited amounts of flood insurance to property owners and small businessmen in areas certified as flood prone by the Federal Insurance Administration.

It is estimated that about 7,000 communities could qualify for certification as flood prone areas. But only 720 communities have been certified. Moreover, the rate of increase in communities approved has been about four percent per month.

As of July 31, 1971, approximately 73,700 insurance policies had been issued. In August of 1971, the total number of insurance policies issued actually fell two percent, to a level of approximately 72,100 policies, even as the number of participating communities rose three percent. In New Jersey, following the recent floods it was found that only 64 communities were certified and only 6,000 policies in those areas had actually been taken out.

Such limited participation in the program is disappointing, although understandable. The Federal insurance program is hardly three years old. I am advised by private insurance experts that it takes about five years for new types of insurance to become generally known to the public.

But much of the problem lies in certain requirements of the program itself.

Under current provisions of the law, after a community has enrolled for one years time in the Flood Insurance Program, individuals are excluded from receiving financial disaster assistance. As George Bernstein, the Federal Insurance Administration, recently pointed out:

If there is a lapse since the individual was eligible for the coverage and he has failed to purchase it, under the present provisions of the Act, that person is denied financial federal disaster relief to the extent that he could have purchased the federal flood insurance. I believe this provision is an inequitable provision, it's unenforceable on a reasonable basis, and it is detrimental to the long range purpose of the flood insurance program and I would like to see Congress repeal it.

This is a forthright statement by the Federal Insurance Administrator. And we can see the injustice reflected statistically in the new policies purchased and the decline in policy purchases.

A good example is the case of Elizabeth, New Jersey, where the recent storms flooded 10,000 homes. Elizabeth is a certified community. It has a population of 112,000 yet only 19 insurance policies have been issued under the Flood Insurance Act. Well over 99 percent of the families in Elizabeth have no protection whatever. Cases similar to Elizabeth exist throughout my state and throughout the nation.

The bill I submit today requires a two year suspension of "Non Duplication of Federal Benefits" provision of the Federal Insurance law. This suspension will be retroactive to enable those who have suffered to apply for financial disaster assistance.

A second provision of my bill will extend for two years the period of time within which communities must adopt land use and control measures. Without the extension, communities who apply for certification after December 31, 1971, have to demonstrate that they have already implemented flood abatement and control procedures. Extension will allow communities in New Jersey and the other states that should but are not now in the flood program to join the program under the relatively simple procedures that are currently required to achieve this purpose. In my own state at least 277 communities should be certified for Federal flood insurance protection.

A third provision of my bill will broaden the insurance coverage. The existing law protects only dwelling units up to four families. My bill will allow insurance coverage for all residential dwelling units, including multi-family dwellings such as garden apartments.

Essex Clinic October Topic For UNICO

The North Essex Child Guidance Clinic serves Bloomfield in addition to Nutley and Belleville. Mrs. Ruth Oleksiz is the secretary and S. R. Mountsier III is the treasurer of the Clinic's Board of Trustees.

Office of OEP

Flood Disaster Victims Shown Aid Facilities

The President's Office of Emergency Preparedness sent 25 Federal-State damage survey teams into the field to assess the damage done in New Jersey by the heavy rains and flooding during Tropical Storm Doria.

The two-man survey teams, consisting of Federal and State engineers, were briefed by Leo McNamee, a native Pennsylvanian who was named by OEP Director George A. Lincoln as the Federal coordinating officer for the recovery effort after President Nixon's September 4 major disaster declaration for New Jersey.

McNamee is working hand in hand with J. Morgan Van Hise, the state director of civil defense-disaster control, who was named by Governor Cahill as the state coordinating officer.

The survey teams include representatives from the Corps of Engineers, the Federal Highway Administration, the Environmental Protection Agency and the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

In the ensuing weeks, they will make inspection trips to damaged areas in 21 counties. Their reports to McNamee will include an assessment of the damage claimed by state and local governments, and the estimated cost to repair it.

The damage will be listed in six categories, debris clearance, protective measures, streets, roads and bridges, dikes and levees, public buildings and related equipment and public utilities.

Based on the survey reports, the public bodies are filing project applications for Federal financial assistance to repair the damaged public property. The standards determining what repair work qualifies for Federal assistance are established by OEP. An initial allocation of $300,000 from President Nixon's disaster relief fund has been made available.

If business consulting services are needed the Small Business Administration or Service Corps of Retired Executives should be contacted. The Red Cross, Seventh-Day Adventists or the Salvation Army will help those in need of clothing.

The Corps of Engineers will help with debris removal from ordinary property, and the USDA-Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service will help with debris removal from farm lands.

The Small Business Administration should be contacted for emergency recovery loans for home, business and urban areas. The USDA-Farmers Home Administration will aid in rural loans, those for livestock, equipment and farm buildings.

For employment assistance or compensation, the State Employment Security Commission should be contacted.

For food aid, contact the Red Cross and Salvation Army and the USDA-Food and Nutrition Service which will work through the State Welfare Department.

Aid for home repairs or rebuilding should be sought from the Small Business Administration, the Red Cross or the Housing and Urban Development Department.

Questions on housing and housing assistance will be handled by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (urban), the USDA-Farmers Home Administration (small town and rural housing and farm buildings) and the Small Business Administration and the Veterans Administration.

For insurance information, contact the state insurance commissioner or your own agent or broker. For legal services contact the state or local bar association or the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Local health centers should be contacted for medical assistance. The Red Cross will help with disaster-caused incidents where the victim cannot make payment and will aid in supplying shelter.

For information on flood losses and taxes, contact the Internal Revenue Service for income tax and your city or county assessor for property taxes.

Some key telephone numbers to aid the flood victims are the American Red Cross Disaster Office, 609-396-5720; the Civil Defense Disaster Office, 609-394-8194; the Small Business Administration, 201-645-3973; the Salvation Army, 201-623-5959; the U. S. Department of Agriculture emergency Food Support, 609-292-5069; Seventh-Day Adventists, 609-392-7131 and the Service Corps of Retired Executives, 201-645-2434.

On Bank Street

Zoners OK Home On Substandard Lot

An application for permission to build a one-family house at 25 Bank Street has been approved by the Zoning Board of Adjustments.

The vacant lot, owned by Mrs. Rose Dorfman of adjacent 52 Valley Road, had lacked the minimum 5,000 sq. ft. bulk allotment for construction.

In presentation before the board, James Piro, attorney for Mrs. Dorfman, substantiated the fact that the proposed construction would, "Not only not deter from neighborhood appearance, but would by virtue of the land's excessive 68 ft. (minimum is 50 ft.) frontage, actually add to the overall neighborhood appearance.

Several surrounding neighbors disagreed with Piro and testified that the aesthetic beauty of the area would be "in no way enhanced and quite possibly lessened," by construction of the house. Piro pointed out that several area houses lacked necessary land bulk requirements as well.

Mrs. Dorfman testified that a larger house had become necessary due to a "growing family." She has four children at the six-room Valley Road house.

A variance was recommended by the board in a unanimous vote, causing angry remarks, including threats to move, to be voiced by the attending neighbors.

Apply Now For CYO Star Fete

Holy Family CYO is accepting applications for their "Stars Of Tomorrow" talent contest. The competition will be held early next month, with county finals following.

Only teenagers registered with the CYO are eligible to compete. Categories in the competition include instrumental, singing and dancing.

The Leader, Holy Family C.Y.O.'s own newspaper, has for the past many years won the award for the most outstanding newspaper. This year the county did not give the award, because the category has been dropped, due to the lack of competition. The Leader was recognized by the archdiocese as the most outstanding newspaper.

Since no one could enter a better paper than the Leader, the category was dropped and the Leader is number one. Calling to mind that we as number one thanks should be given to our teenage staff and special acknowledgement to Mrs. Marie Bozza, the adult chairlady and Fr. Cozzini

Through the years the paper has been a great source of information and enjoyment to the teenagers of our C.Y.O. and hopefully it will continue to be that in the future.

Service Bureau Sending Delegate To Convention

The Nutley Family Service Bureau will be represented this week at the Biennial Meeting of the Family-Service Association of America by Mrs. Walter R. Lovell, a member of the Board of Directors of the agency.

The meeting in Chicago is the Biennial Assembly of representatives of over 300 Family Service agencies throughout the United States and Canada. It will focus on involvement for change and the increasing effectiveness of member agencies in meeting the pressing family and community problems of the 70's.

Mrs. Lovell is a member of the Planning and Operations Community of the New York - New Jersey Regional Council of F.S.A.A. and has participated in planning the sessions. She will also serve as a discussion leader during the meetings.

Consistent with this change, my bill will add to the present $17,500 aggregate liability for any dwelling unit and $30,000 for any structure containing more than one, $10,000 for each unit of housing in excess of two.

The National Flood

Insurance Act of 1968 is a good program. It provides insurance where there was once none. But as we have learned by experience, it needs revision to become fully effective. The legislation I propose will provide relief to those who have suffered from the recent flood disasters and at the same time encourage wider participation in the future.

Social Security Installs New Telephone Service

A new special telephone service for residents of the Newark area is now being provided by the Social Security Administration advised William J. Arnold, manager of the Newark office.

Since the advent of Medicare in 1965, there has been a substantial expansion of telephone traffic between the Social Security Administration and the public. Arnold noted that particularly in large metropolitan areas such as Northern New Jersey, this traffic nearly tripled. National telephone traffic studies have shown that approximately two-thirds of such telephone traffic consists of general inquiries which can be handled to completion by trained personnel. As a result, a special telephone unit has been established and staffed with personnel whose full time job is to answer such telephone inquiries.

Arnold stressed that such specialized service will provide better service to the public and more efficient use of personnel through the use of specialization and advanced telephone equipment not previously available to the Newark office. In addition to having approximately 90 per cent of all incoming inquiries answered fully by the trained personnel, Arnold explained that the sophisticated telephone equipment being utilized permits the storing of additional incoming calls when all lines are busy. This feature prevents the public from experiencing busy signal delays as presently occurs during peak traffic periods.

Classroom Popular For Newspapers

Nearly five million (4,819,969) students in the U.S. and Canada are using newspapers as part of their classroom activities. These students attend 33,575 schools and are taught by 94,811 teachers.

These and other statistics on the use of newspapers in the classroom are based on a survey of American Newspaper Publishers Association members conducted by ANPA Foundation. Purpose of the survey was to determine the scope and kinds of activities taking place in the NIC program throughout the U.S. and Canada.

A total of 364 U.S. and Canadian newspapers reported that they conducted NIC programs during the 1970-71 school year. Two hundred thirty-two were evening papers and 132 morning newspapers.

Expressed in percentages, the new survey figures show that 335 ANPA member newspapers or 32 percent of the total U.S. membership conducted NIC programs. In Canada 29 ANPA member newspapers or 63% conducted programs.

The new survey results show an upward growth in the NIC program since a similar survey which ANPA Foundation conducted in 1966-67. That study reported that 3,026,087 students were using newspapers in the schools under the guidance of 47,992 teachers in 17,611 schools.

The new Foundation study also provides an analysis and comparison of NIC activities by region and circulation group.

Though regional differences were in general minor each geographic area showed significant program growth.

By circulation NIC programs are concentrated more heavily in larger newspapers, both in numbers and in a percentage of newspapers in each circulation category that conduct a program.

The survey uncovers considerable use information on ways newspapers participate in a program with their local schools. For example, newspapers were asked: Do you charge schools for copies? Do you work in cooperation with schools to provide teacher training on how to use newspapers in the classroom? And do you provide teacher instructional materials on using newspapers?

The survey found that 39 percent of U.S. newspapers who have NIC programs now charge for copies. In Canada only 21 percent with programs currently charge for copies.

Thirty-seven percent of the newspapers with NIC programs do conduct local in-service training workshops or seminars for teachers on how to use newspapers. Canadian newspapers are even more involved in conducting teacher training sessions with the schools. Sixty-two percent conduct local workshops.

Providing teaching materials is a widespread practice in both countries. In the U.S. 59 percent of newspapers with programs provide some kind of teacher instructional material. In Canada the percentage of 79 percent is even higher. Copies of the new ANPA Foundation study may be obtained from the Educational Services Office of ANPA Foundation, 750 Third Avenue, New York, N.Y.

Singer-guitarist O.T. Zappo of Bloomfield, who specializes in presenting entertainment for children, will be appearing at the Essex County Children's Shelter in Belleville next Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. The program is being sponsored by the Essex County Park Commission.

Zappo has recently signed an agreement with Adair Productions of New York City. Adair Productions, a production company specializing in booking talent for school programs in the metropolitan area, will represent O.T. Zappo for elementary school assembly programs.

The young performer's program titled "Entertainment For Young People," is

Quartet Set Tomorrow At Museum

"The Drole Quartet" will be the Fall presentation of Unity's Chamber Music Recitals. The Quartet will perform at the Montclair Art Museum, tomorrow at 10:30 a.m.

Founded by Edward Drole, who received his musical training in Munich and Paris, the Quartet began its career in 1952. In addition to its first violinist, from whom it derives its name, it comprises the second violinist, Juergen Paarman, who has been with the Radio Symphony Orchestra of Berlin; Italian-born violist Stefano Passaggio, who made a name for himself as a member of the Solisti di Zagreb; and cellist Georg Donderer who held first cello chair with the Berlin Radio Symphony Orchestra.

Within a relatively short time, the Quartet established itself as one of the leading chamber ensembles, first of Germany, then of Europe. In the course of their distinguished career, they have not only played all over the Continent, but all over the world.

One review said of them: "The Drole people phrase; they play to each other; in short they make music."

For reservations, call Barbara Russell, Unity Institute, Montclair, at 744-6770. Tickets are $4.50.

Holy Family CYO Opens Membership

Holy Family CYO began a new year on Monday, September 20, with the registration dance in the CYO hall. New officers for the coming year are John Oleartchick, president; Joseph DiNardo, vice president and Clair Testa, secretary.

All students of high school age, in grades nine to 12 and members of Holy Family parish not yet registered may register on Monday nights at the canteen.

The members of the parish are grateful to the volunteers who decorated the hall.

The whole-hearted participation by the teenagers and adults will start the CYO program off in the direction of another banner year and give the parish a meaningful Catholic program.

Scouts Collecting Food for Needy In Local Area

Boy Scouts of Troop 151, St. Mary's, will conduct their annual Christmas-food drive beginning today and through December 16.

The Scouts will be canvassing door to door for a donation of canned food in the Belleville and Nutley areas.

In prior years the drive has been a big success, with the frequent collection of nearly one ton of food. This year, more than ever, help is urgently needed, and any donation, no matter how small, will be appreciated.

Clara Maass Physician At Scientific Assembly

Dr. M. B. Hosseini, emergency room physician at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital in Belleville, recently attended the Third Annual Scientific Assembly of the American College of Emergency Physicians in Miami Beach.

The theme of the assembly was "Inside the Emergency Department" and focused directly on the care of the acutely ill or injured patient and the emergency treatment of that patient.

Among the outstanding medical speakers was Roger O. Egeberg, MD, special assistant for health policy and special consultant to the President on health affairs.

Printing is a dangerous device to those who don't want their opinions permanently recorded.
