Glass Reclamation Supporters Push For Townwide Project

Backers of the glass reclamation project in Belleville would like to see the program shifted to high gear. In beginning its 12th week Saturday at the A & P on Franklin Avenue in Belleville, the program has netted over 6,000 pounds of glass with a realization of almost $100.

Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, has expressed a deep interest in the project and may call for a town-wide program with the help of her

Public Works trucks. She reported last week that a meeting of all heads of Belleville's fraternal organizations will be asked for in the near future.

"I will call for the meeting after the holidays. That is when we will begin to get this project going in earnest," she said. "Hopefully, groups such as the Elks, Lions, Knights of Columbus and the like could staff a reclamation project on a volunteer basis."

To date, the program has been run on a limited basis with the help of sincere parents and local girl scouts from a church group. Mrs. William Connelly, who is now heading the project with the help of her daughter, believes that the glass reclamation program is picking up momentum.

"Considering we run the program only for four hours on Saturday mornings there has been a good turnout," she said. "We have been getting an average of 60 to 70 persons per week to deliver their bottles and cans to us but the problem is that the same persons are coming each week."

Mrs. Connelly would like more Belleville residents taking advantage of the program. She said one of the main problems is getting publicity and making people aware that there is a place in Town where they can deposit empty containers.

"We put posters in local businesses but a few days after they display the poster it is taken down," Mrs. Connelly added. "Not enough people are concerned enough about keeping Belleville clean and restoring ecology."

Mrs. Connelly stated that the money realized from the project would be used for a good purpose, most likely by her girl scout troop. Already, the Public Works Department has carted two loads of glass to a Jersey City plant where they were paid one cent

Decision On Marotti Expected Tomorrow

A decision is expected tomorrow in New Jersey Superior Court ruling on the legitimacy of Commissioner Michael V. Marotti, director of Parks and Public Property, holding down two jobs with the Town of Belleville.

Lawyers for both sides of the pending law suit have filed briefs last week to argue their case, while Superior Court Judge Brendan T. Burns has promised a decision in the near future, reported to be tomorrow, Dec. 17.

Former Councilman in Belleville James R. Golden and defeated Commission candidate in the May election here, Salvatore LaMorte, are both charging that Marotti is in a "conflict of interest" by holding the position as Commissioner while still a juvenile detective with the Police Department. The pair earlier this year enlisted the services of John Montefusco, a Belleville attorney with offices in Irvington, to pursue the case against Marotti. It has been reported that Montefusco has been given a free hand in the case.

Briefs were to have been filed by December

10, a week ago. Judge Burns is now studying the arguments and heard testimony at a recent pre-trial hearing, attended by Commissioner Marotti. Although Marotti was seated at the recent pre-trial hearing, he didn't comment on the matter and declined to give an opinion on his observations there.

"I'm letting my attorney handle the whole case," stated the Commissioner when recently questioned on the matter.

Marotti is being represented in the suit by Town Attorney John Scott, who last week expressed confidence that Superior Court Judge Burns would drop the case and rule in Marotti's favor. Scott also believes that Montefusco will drop the case if a ruling goes against him. Scott said he heard these remarks placed on the court record at the recent pre-trial hearing.

According to reports, Judge Burns will rule on two questions: 1) Can Commissioner Marotti be allowed to represent the municipality in two posts; 2) Can he choose between those two posts.

High School Alumni Tea This Tuesday

By Bill Hamilton

This year's Annual Alumni Tea will be held at Belleville High School Cafeteria on Tuesday, Dec. 21 at 7 o'clock in the evening. Unlike the affairs of the past, this year's Tea will be held in the evening to provide a more relaxed environment and eliminate much of the confusion which occurred when the Tea was held after school.

All of this year's seniors are invited and urged to attend, as well as the Alumni of Belleville High. Refreshments will be served and a question and answer session is scheduled. The basic purpose of the evening is to have those alumni who are in college, in the service, and working tell the seniors what it is like in those areas. In general, it is a time for reuning and learning between those who have graduated and those who are about to graduate.

Child Needs Blood

Blood donors are needed for a 10-year-old Belleville girl suffering from a rare type of anemia. Residents giving blood at tomorrow's blood bank are requested to donate in her name.

Angela Giangrandi, a pupil at Number Four School here, developed Coolie's Anemia when only three months old. She must travel to a New York hospital once every month for transfusions. Relatives and friends of the Giangrandi family report that Angela must have the blood she uses replaced. They would also like to build up a surplus supply of blood to keep Angela safe.

Interested persons may contact Mr. Nofrao at 751-4869. Tomorrow's blood bank is being held 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 98 Bridge Street, Belleville.

Irks School Board? Health Dept. Gets Additional Space

Commissioner Michael V. Marotti, director of Parks and Public Property, revealed after Tuesday night's meeting of Town Fathers that he is giving a first floor wing of the newly purchased Fisher-Stevens Building to the Public Health Department. The Board of Education had hoped to acquire the wing for special education classes.

Marotti reportedly made his decision after a Tuesday morning caucus of Commissioners. The move may further strain relations between the two boards. Some Board of Education members earlier this month indicated that if they did not receive the wing, they may not move in the building at all.

The Town purchased the 17-year-old building late this summer for $140,000. The two-story building covers 11,110 square feet. It was first believed that the Board of Education would occupy the second floor with the first story for Health Department use. Then a rift developed when the school board requested the additional wing, which Commissioner Vincent Strumolo also had planned to use.

"I studied requests by Commissioner Strumolo and the school board," stated Marotti. "And found that the Health Department needed the additional space more."

Strumolo may use the wing for headquarters for the Town's Welfare Department. Marotti also added that he had an architect thoroughly study the layout and he seemed satisfied that space allotments were equally divided. Marotti reportedly asked the advice of fellow Commissioners before making his decision.

The Board of Education has not made a public statement on the decision and as of Tuesday did not know of the decision.

"I'll be sending a letter out tomorrow (Wednesday) to Leonard Back, president of the school board," said Marotti.

Craig Fabian Fund Needs Xmas Donor

Officers of the Craig Fabian Fund are requesting that Belleville residents this holiday season think for a moment of those less fortunate than the average person.

In its newest drive, the non-profit organization is asking that donations during the Christmas season be sent to the Fund in lieu of Christmas Cards or death memorials.

Donations to the Fund may be sent to treasurer Edward Albreton. The address is The Peoples National Bank, c/o Edward Albreton, 237 Washington Avenue, Belleville.

Already, in less than one week, the list has swollen to almost $90. Included is the Belleville Board of Education Administration, Junior and Senior High School offices, $12; In memory of our grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Thompson, L.R. and T.R., $10; In lieu of exchanging Christmas Cards, the Belleville Board of Education Administrative Offices, $40; Mrs. Mary B. Shader, $6; In memory of grandfather, Thomas Rosamilia, $5; Anonymous, $4, and in memory of Emile Senatore, $10.

Raimo Named To Union Post

Nicholas Raimo

Nicholas Raimo of 115 Smallwood Avenue, Belleville, was elected secretary-treasurer of local 843 for 2 terms of three years at an election held on Monday. Local 843 represents all the brewery workers in the area and is affiliated with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, headquartered in Union.

A lifelong resident of Belleville, Raimo served as national commander of the Italian American War Veterans 1966-67. As national commander he made an official tour of Vietnam and served on President Lyndon B. Johnson's veterans advisory commission in 1967 as technical

Chamber Elects New Office Slate For Exec Board

Elections have just been completed for the current office of board members to the Belleville Chamber of Commerce. Heading the list of officers is Ralph Ciccone Jr., Mattia Press, as chairman of the board.

Officers will be installed and board members recognized at a Chamber luncheon to be held January 17 with all Chamber members invited.

Plans for the 1972 Chamber of Commerce activities will also be announced at the luncheon as will a summary of the Chamber's 1971 program, one of the most active in the past 10 years.

Elected president is Everett Davey of New Jersey Bell Telephone with vice presidents as William C. Bixby, Fidelity Union Trust; Aaron Cohen of Charles Jewelers; James V. Hardman, Hardman Inc., and Stanley Slavin of Terry Shops. The treasurer is Michael A. Pariso of Pariso Bros. Furniture.

Board members of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce include B. Thomas Aitken, Peoples National Bank and Trust Co.; William R. Crowe, Andrew Jergens Co.; Arthur Gaffney of Wallace and Tiernan Co.; John Gallagher, H and G Industries; Curtis Gardner, Public Service Electric and Gas Co.; Arthur Jackson of Jolly Drive-In Cleaners; John Kondreck of Kondreck Photographers, and Al Marositz of Walter Kidde and Co. Inc.

Others include William D. McDowell of McDowell and McEvoy Insurance; George H. Mead Jr. of George H. Mead, Inc.; Albin H. Oberg of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital; Frank A. Orechio, Belleville Times-News; Mrs. Frank M. Pull of Marydell Fashions; Mrs. Sol Sherman of Shermans Childrens Wear, and Robert Williams of DeWitt Savings and Loan Association.

Prizes For First New Year Baby

The first baby born to Belleville parents at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital after 12 midnight, New Year's Eve, will be honored by the Chamber of Commerce here.

Mrs. Sol Sherman, chairman of the Special Projects Committee for the Belleville Chamber, reports that the first new resident of 1972 will be presented appropriate gifts for the occasion. Gifts will be suitable for either use by the parents or infant.

Further details of the presentation will be announced next week. To date, several local businessmen and firms have thrown their support behind the project, now in its sixth year. An effort to solicit more gifts is now underway via the mails. The Chamber Newsletter is now publicizing the event to area firms.

Santa's Headquarters Open For Youngsters

Santa Claus opened his Belleville Headquarters at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 15. This year, through the combined efforts of the Recreation Department, the Evening Membership Department and the General Membership Department of the Woman's Club of Belleville, the Junior Womens Club of Belleville and the Boston Store, Santa will be at the Boston Store.

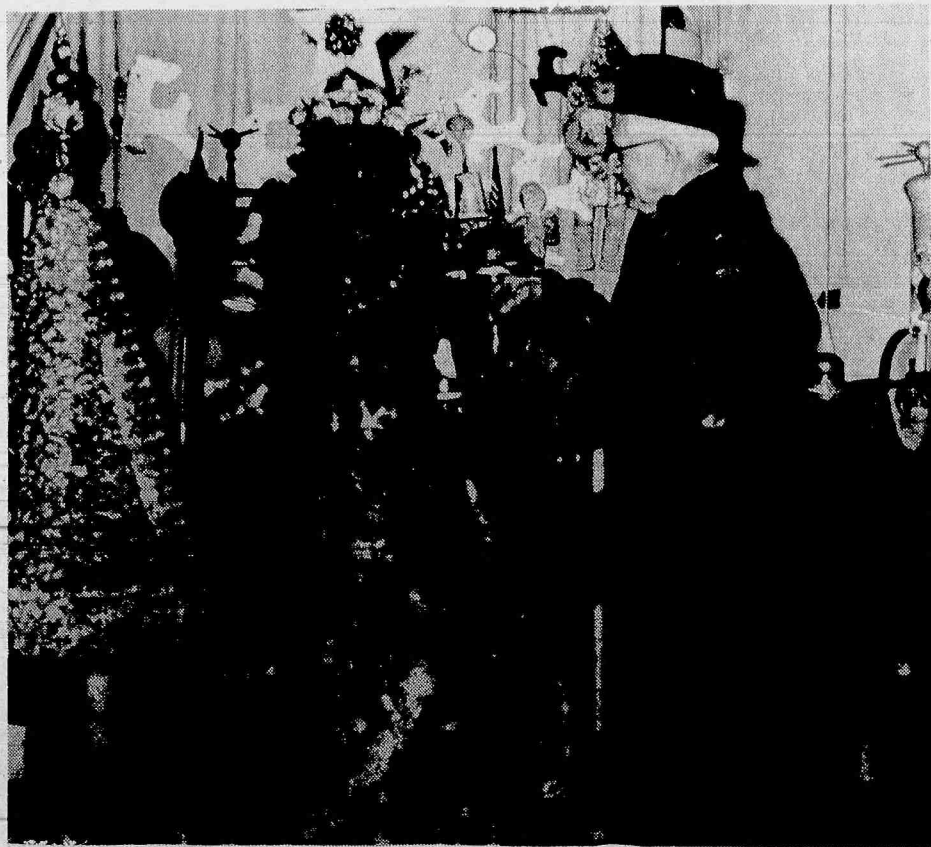

Old Santa will be happy to pose for pictures with the children of Belleville and he will have some small surprises for them.

Children who wish pictures with Santa will find him at the Boston Store from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. on Wednesday, Thursday; from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 20 through Thursday, Dec. 23.

All receipts from the picture taking will be given to Camp Merryheart at Hope, a summer camp for handicapped boys and girls.

He Makes The Holidays Happy

THIS BELLEVILLE GARAGE is full of Christmas goodies, as John Hnatew of 21 Ogden Road plugs in one of his many unique, revolving displays that sparkle and blink and are favorites of neighborhood children. Hnatew has combined a hobby with making area children smile.

Unique Display For Children

By John Bunevich

A 79-year-old resident, affectionately known as "Uncle John" by neighborhood children, is the most popular man in Belleville during the holiday season.

John Hnatew, a native of Russia and a retired factory maintenance man, opens his own version of Disneyland in his Ogden Road garage during the Christmas holidays. The impressive exhibit of over 16 flashing, sparkling, turning and spinning displays dazzles the eyes of youngsters in the neighborhood. Rotating Christmas trees, flashing ornaments and singing dolls brighten the Christmas season for hundreds of Belleville children.

Known for his skills as a handy man, Hnatew has fashioned his displays with a minimum of capital. Using discarded parts and odds and ends, including crumpled tin foil, old pipes, worn out wires and outdated dolls, he has created something unique and entertaining to both youngster and adult.

Hnatew houses his displays in the basement and garage of his 21 Ogden Road home. He builds the exhibits in a little workshop behind the garage, using a minimum of tools that would be found in almost any home.

"All I need for my creations is odds and ends found almost anywhere and a few pliers and standard wrenches," he said. "It is a hobby of mine that I've been developing over the years."

After his retirement from the Colgate-Palmolive Company, Jersey City, in 1959, Hnatew found that his senior years could become somewhat of a bore without something useful to occupy the time. Always handy with his hands, making the most of discarded items, even on his job as maintenance man, he discovered that creating imaginative displays could be both fun and fulfilling. His love for children and a talent with gadgets brought him to his current hobby.

Garden State Farms Branch Set For Silver Lake Section

The 106th modern, neighborhood dairy store in the fast-growing Garden State Farms network will open today in Belleville. The new outlet will be located at 37-45 Franklin Street, according to George A. VanHouten, the jug milk company's vice president.

VanHouten told The Times-News that the latest Garden State Farms store will have attractive colonial exterior styling. Ample parking space is provided; plush carpeting and the most modern dairy store equipment will highlight the interior decor.

Departmentalized layout will permit customers to shop and check out quickly and conveniently. Featured at the store will be fresh, high quality milk which consumers can purchase at a savings in reusable glass containers.

"Garden State Farms pioneered the jug milk concept in New Jersey and has saved our patrons many thousands of dollars. Moreover our milk is always at least 15 per cent richer than competing brands," VanHouten said. Garden State Farms is also unique in that all of its quality dairy products and several non-dairy items are processed right in the company's own plants. Many other conveniences offered in the firm's stores are made to exacting specifications.

The new Belleville store will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week. Grand opening specials will be offered today through Saturday.

Raimo Is Elected To Union Spot

Raimo has served the veterans and the community for the past 25 years, having received many citations for his meritorious service to the cause of veteranism and his civic activities.

He was educated in the Belleville public schools and a graduate of Essex Conservatory of Music and the North American School of advertising and public relations. Nick is employed by P. Ballantine & Sons, Newark, the past 20 years and has worked in the industry some 25 years.

A veteran of World War II, he saw active service abroad and for unusual bravery under fire was awarded the Purple Heart, Bronze Star, three campaign stars and the combat infantryman's badge.

Howard Hosts Music Fest

More than 600 young men and women representing thirteen area high schools will entertain Howard Savings depositors and the general public with the varied strains of holiday music again this year.

The occasion is the Fifth Annual Holiday Music Festival, a series of lunch hour concerts, which will run between December 16 and December 23 at the bank's head office and its University and Vailsburg branches.

The festival annually displays a great array of local talent and professionalism, featuring special arrangements by some of the teacher-directors and virtuoso performances by chamber singers, soloists, balladeers and instrumentalists. Selections range from traditional carols to musical classics and contemporary works of ethnic significance.

In addition to the concerts, John R. Fleming, a staff member at the bank's East Orange branch, will provide organ music at the head office on Broad Street, Newark, each day during the holiday season from 10 to 11 a.m.

and from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The festival features high schools which participate in the bank's School Savings program. The schedule is as follows:

Head Office, 768 Broad Street, Newark: East Side High School, Friday, Dec. 17, at 12:30 p.m.; Kearny High School, Monday, Dec. 20, at noon; Weequahic High School, Monday, Dec. 20, at 12:45 p.m.; East Orange High School, Tuesday, Dec. 21, at 12:30 p.m.; Malcolm X. Shabazz High School, Wednesday, Dec. 22, at noon; West Side High School, Wednesday, Dec. 22, at 12:45 p.m.; and Arts High School, Thursday, Dec. 23, at 12:30 p.m.

The Flag Controversy

(Editorial Note: The following editorial appeared in this newspaper last week with two composing room errors which were not discovered by the proofreader. Since we do not furnish erasers with our newspapers, in the interests of accuracy and because of the importance of the subject, "The Flag (Black) Controversy" editorial is reprinted below.)

The majority of the Newark Board of Education approved the display of black liberation flags in the public school classrooms.

The board member who introduced the resolution is Lawrence Hamm, Jr. In explaining the reason for his action Mr. Hamm stated, "blacks must turn to some other source for inspiration other than the American flag because of the way the Republic has treated them."

Another board member who voted with Hamm, Charles Bell, explained, "this was not anti-American, but black."

The resolution in part reads, "due to the racist philosophy of this society and the racist orientation of the educational systems of this nation..."

The action and the language of the resolution are as un-American as any language or action could be.

We call upon Mayor Kenneth Gibson to request the resignation of the five board members who voted to adopt the resolution. If the language and intent of the resolution represents the thinking of a majority of the Newark Board of Education members, then Newark is headed for worse trouble ahead. The riot of 1967 will pale into insignificance compared with the potential future problems developing from the kind of thinking reflected in the resolution which permits the display of black liberation flags in the public school system.

The responsible blacks of the community should be the first to voice violent objection to the action taken by young Hamm and his associates.

It is clear that Mayor Gibson's appointments to the Board of Education have not upgraded the content of our educational system and the only logical choice for citizens who believe in better schools for our pupils lies in the direction of an elected board of education.

But for now — it is imperative that Mayor Gibson request his appointees to resign from the board.

To be commended is member John Cervase who went to court and obtained a temporary injunction against the display of flags. It appears that Mr. Cervase is the lone voice on the Board of Education constantly seeking to steer the actions of the Board of Education toward the road of sanity. Mr. Cervase has earned the gratitude of Newark residents who truly believe in democracy and an elevation of school standards. If the manifestations of the Gibson era continue, Newark will soon end up one big ghetto.

The black liberation flag controversy is one of a number of manifestations from the black community that may well polarize political activity and pit

Black Against White

At the national level we read accounts that black members of the U.S. Congress are convening meetings to discuss their ethnic interests in terms of national political activity. At the state level similar activity is underway. The actions of black public officials in the City of Newark speak for themselves.

If the black community continues to divorce itself from the total human community, the ultimate result will probably lead to a fusion of white Democrats and Republicans fielding candidates for office against an all black ticket.

This would be a tragedy and turn back the hands of time more than 100 years. Our state and nation cannot afford such a division. It behooves responsible black members of our community — both from the private and public sectors to do everything in their power to avoid aiding and abetting efforts leading to divisions within our society.

Severe Ice Storm Disrupts Electrical Service Here

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

One of the worst ice storms in recent history seriously damaged thousands of trees, disrupted electrical and telephone service, and had municipal crews working overtime throughout the weekend. James Fusaro, Shade Tree Department foreman, estimated that the damage to town-owned trees could run as high as $750,000. The storm had moved in on Friday and had coated the community with nearly an inch of ice. Freezing rains had begun on Saturday and had continued throughout the day.

The Town Commission adopted legislation creating a Department of Consumer Protection in Belleville after a lively, almost comic discussion between officials and residents in Council Chambers. The new department would be under the jurisdiction of the superintendent of weights and measures, Joseph Donnelly, who would have the power to bring the cases before the municipal judge. Once before the court, any person or firm found guilty would face a penalty as high as $500 fine and 90 days in jail for each case of fraud or misrepresentation.

Belleville Police recovered a stolen tractor trailer with a cargo valued at $50,000 in toys and novelties. Deputy Chief Frank Haight told The Times that two Belleville patrolmen, Carmine Pedalino and Pat McCabe discovered the vehicle parked by a warehouse in the industrial complex. According to Chief Haight, the vehicle had been reported stolen from the Oneida Freight Company in Carlstadt.

Five Years Ago

Bernard O'Connor, a former Marine sergeant and Town Plumbing Inspector, lost his fight against removal from the municipal payroll and was awaiting a hearing in the Town Manager's office on his situation. O'Connor was to be accompanied to the hearing by his attorney and by Town Manager John R. Burnett. The ouster of O'Connor followed a month's investigation of the man after it had been disclosed that his license to inspect plumbing had been revoked by the State Board of Health.

The Belleville Times was named the town's official newspaper for 1967 at Town Hall during the business meeting of the Town Council. The vote was 3-1-1 with Councilman William Cullen casting the sole negative vote. Cullen wanted all newspapers designated as "official" newspapers and offered an amendment to that effect but was overruled. It was the second consecutive year that the paper claimed official status, which entitled The Times to carry all legal advertising.

A racist pamphlet from a southern, right-wing organization was mailed without request to teachers in New Jersey for the second year in a row. The publication, "How Classroom Desegregation Will Work," claimed that the Negro race was "less advanced in an evolutionary scale than the white race," and had more "primitive brains." An evaluation of the pamphlet when it had first come out had proved that it was clearly faulty in documentation, and that fiction and imagination was the predominant evidence for its claims.

Ten Years Ago

Allan Crisp, chairman of the Citizens' School Building Advisory Committee, said he was never more strongly convinced of the soundness and wisdom of the school building program. Crisp stated: "Please believe me when I say that the proposed program upon which we will vote represents the careful planning of dedicated citizens and highly respected and qualified professional educators, all of whom have given liberally of their time and abilities."

Robert M. Jackson was elected chairman of the Board of Directors and chief executive officer of Wallace and Tiernan Inc. His election was to become effective January 1, 1962, following the retirement of Martin F. Tiernan, who was leaving his position for health reasons. At the same meeting, Tiernan was named chairman emeritus and Robert T. Browning was elected president to succeed Jackson.

For sustained devoted service to postal patrons of Belleville, Robert Hurling Jr., postal clerk, was awarded a Superior Accomplishment award, issued by the Post Office regional director.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

What started out as a quiet, routine, temporary budget discussion among the Board of Commissioners wound up in a heated argument in which no punches were pulled between Mayor Tully, Finance Director Williams and Public Safety Director Noll. The verbal brickbats hurled back and forth came to an abrupt ending after a hot fifteen-minute session when Tully interrupted Williams, who was in the middle of a declaration with a curt "meeting's adjourned." Williams' called Tully's action "uncouth."

Mrs. James K. Morse was to give a dramatic reading of Henry Van Dyke's story, "The Other Wise Man," at a special candlelight Vesper service in Fewsmithe Memorial Church. Mrs. Morse had studied dramatics and had directed a number of productions in both New Jersey and Connecticut.

In discussing the temporary budget which would be introduced at the last meeting of 1946, the Board of Commissioners revealed that consideration would be given to cost-of-living bonuses for town employees. Finance Director Williams declared that it was essential that each commissioner give serious thought to the move. Williams was of the opinion that each individual employee be treated as a separate case, instead of giving a blanket figure to all employees.

More Talk On Dog Law

To the Editor:

Allow me to make some comments on the letter by Richard Carbone of Marion Court, regarding our dog ordinance.

Let me start off by saying that I whileheartedly agree with Richard that all of us would like to see an end to the problem of stray and loose dogs, and I should like to include those being walked by their masters, who throw furtive glances in the direction of the house, while their pet uses your front lawn as a comfort station.

Next, allow me to join many of my neighbors who read your letter, in extending our most sincere and heartfelt sympathy to you with the premature demise of Coco.

On a happier note, Richard, your memories of her will be ever so much more fondly in the knowledge that your pet led a happy life, often doing what comes natural both in the way of relieving herself all over Marion Court and meeting boyfriends.

This revelation should relieve your mind of the dressing thought that your pet was repeatedly raped in your fenced-in yard. Probably the last, and apparently fatal impregnation was witnessed taking place on the front lawn of one of your neighbors, while you were away for the weekend down the shore, and the appointed guardian dog near had a heart attack chasing the naughty boyfriend down the street, but apparently too late, since her virtue once more had been violated.

So let all of us on Marion Court remember Coco as the pet who led the happy life, notwithstanding the fence, and let us not put the burden of guilt for her premature demise on the shoulders of our dog warden.

Wonders Where Cafeteria Writer Got Information

To the Editor:

Having read Mr. Steve Rogers' article on Belleville High School's cafeteria, I would like to ask Mr. Rogers where he got his information?

As a sophomore in the high school, I feel that I know pretty much of what is going on there, I admit that I can't say much about long lines and forced food, since in seventh grade I began bringing my lunch to school when I couldn't stand the food any more. Incidentally, the junior high and the senior high are served the same kind of food.

Where Mr. Rogers got the idea that lunch periods were 40-45 minutes long, I'm sure I don't know. I have a "Twenty Minute" lunch period, and most of the time I have to leave half my lunch uneaten, since I must waste time doing trifling things such as using the lavatory and buying milk. Milk purchasing is quite an admirable feat, because of the crowd.

The trash is abominable. How would you like to eat lunch, Mr. Rogers, while staring at a discarded, half-eaten bowl of potatoe salad, tastefully mixed with stale cheese crackers and cellophane bags?

You can't be a student at Belleville High School, Mr. Rogers, or else you wouldn't have written a letter so full of errors. Now, you were saying something about a challenge?

Respectfully,
Patricia Kimmel, Belleville.

Kearny Fire Chief Thanks Local Unit

(The following letter is addressed to James LaMotta, head of the Belleville Civil Defense and Disaster Unit.-Ed.)

Dear Mr. LaMotta;

On behalf of Mayor Anthony Cavalier, Fire Committee Chairman Edmund Grimes, the members of the Town Council and the Citizens of the Town of Kearny, the Kearny Fire Department hereby extends a most sincere thank you for your assistance during the Harvard Warehouse fire on August 2, 1971.

Your complete cooperation during a most serious situation resulted in the prevention of complete disaster. The Town of Kearny will not forget your genuine endeavors.

Very truly yours,
Joseph W. Philips
Chief of Fire Department, Kearny.

On Nutrition

Nutritional experts say the current cuisine trend among youth — consumption of more vegetables and cereals, rather than meat — is encouraging. And, they say, a balanced diet can be maintained with only vegetables and cereals.

At a recent nutritional conference in Washington experts also welcomed the trend toward more organic foods, though of the opinion organically grown fruits and vegetables have only very slight nutritional benefits. But both trends emphasize consumption of fruits and vegetables and this is said desirable.

Other studies, including those on heart disease, indicate middle-age citizens shouldn't eat red meat more than five times a week. All recent evidence indicates the consumption of vegetables and fruits should be substituted for some of the fats, sweets and meats most of us eat. It may be hard to believe, when considering chomping down on a fine steak, but you could sometimes substitute dried peas or dried beans for better nutrition.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER FRANK COCCHIOLA was rushed to the hospital last Tuesday in the early a.m. Tests revealed the pain came from a malfunctioning gall bladder — nothing serious — all that is required for Frank to avoid a future recurrence is to be more selective in the foods he eats — and he loves to eat.

IT LOOKS LIKE NUTLEY'S POPULAR TEDDY BERGER, son of the late Dr. Theodore and Ellen Berger, may be running for the school board next February. If Ted goes off the deep end and becomes a candidate he should have no trouble winning — especially being aided and assisted by his wife Sally.

THERE IS A FINE RESTAURANT in New York whose operation is closely supervised by a queenly gal who, although a grandmother, has the vitality, spirit and aggressiveness of a teenager. She is Ann Rapoport, who, with her son Van, provides diners with some of the best food and service to be found in New York City, at the Spindletop Restaurant located deep in the heart of the theatre district. Pictured below is Ann atop her son's horse, Spindletop Showdown, who was crowned the Grand Champion early in November at the Madison Square Garden Horse Show.

LAST WEEK NUTLEY WAS REVISITED by former active young Republican aide to Nutley GOP Chairman Bill Searle, Ruth Stoelting who is a columnist for The English Mountaineer at Jackson, Tennessee. Ruth returned to the town she loves for a 24-hour visit, renewing old friendships. Ruth's husband Jack is manager of the English Mountain Development which has developed into one of the greatest tourist attractions in the eastern United States. The English Mountain top is developing into a rustic resort community where all forms of recreation are offered visitors and residents. Wrapped around the mountain-side, basking in the tranquility of the Tennessee mountains is a beautiful mobile home village — and to think it is located only an hour and a half plane ride from Newark.

INSTEAD OF A NEWARK-FORT LAUDERDALE FLIGHT last weekend, I boarded Eastern Airlines Flight 3 to Miami in order to fill up with Dino's delicious Italian food on Miami Beach's 71st Street. I was pleasantly surprised to discover aboard stewardesses that served a mercy mission I flew on November 4. They were two likable, slick chicks from New Jersey, senior Geri Woodward of Matawan and Peggy Donovan of Bayonne. Serving the aft section of the huge aircraft were Linda Sterner, an attractive blonde who has served various flights that I have taken during the past two years. Aiding Linda with the heavy lifting in the coach compartment was Judy McCoy. Adding further enjoyment to the trip was the pleasure of the company of the gal who sat in Seat 1-A, Crickett England, an Eastern Airlines employee who has somewhat of a trouble-shooting job at Eastern Airlines Computer Center in Woodbridge, New Jersey. What surprised me about Crickett was the fact that she is a smoker. She doesn't appear like a girl who smokes. Now ask me what a girl looks like who smokes? As always, the answer is in the eye of the beholder.

THE RETURN TRIP ABOARD EASTERN'S 896, a conventional 727 jet, "manned" by three stewardesses was a smooth ride all the way. The stewardesses were relatively on the younger side with plenty of vigor, vitality and graciousness. Lynn Johnson of Miami Springs was the senior and Johnson's little helpers were brunette Patty Petrulli of Pittsburgh and blonde Debbie Defreitas of Connecticut. The trio worked very harmoniously, contributing much to the pleasure of the passengers.

I STILL DO NOT UNDERSTAND WHY the Nutley Board of Education does not include in its budget lighting for the Park Oval. I would love to see night games played there throughout the year, baseball, football, midget baseball, and midget football. Most every progressive community has a sports complex with lights for night games. The expenditure involved is relatively very, very small. Since budget-making time is upon us perhaps the board of education may spring a bit and give the boys and girls of our community a facility enjoyed by other towns that do not even compare with Nutley. And how about the installation of a permanent sound system?

THREE CHEERS FOR CONGRESSMAN JOSEPH C. MINISH for his proposal for a national boycott of French made products until the French Government halts the drug traffic between France and the United States. Minish's resolution points out that France is the processing center for 90 per cent of the heroin smuggled into the United States. I don't favor boycotts of any kind but the idea of making France pay the penalty for drug importation into the United States is a good one.

per pound.
Mrs. Senatore said she would take it upon herself to further organize the glass reclamation project. She believes a more successful program could be run with the help of the local school system, tavern owners, and fraternal organizations.

The current project, revolving around four or five dedicated girl scouts, also collects cans, both aluminum and steel, and old newspapers.
Commissioner Senatore recently attended the Solid Waste Convention in Newark College of Engineering. She reports that, on the basis of what she heard at the seminars, separating of garbage, reclamation projects, and recycling may become necessities in the near future, rather than volunteer sponsored programs. She said that Belleville having its own garbage collection project may be the thing of the future.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS IN SOCIAL SPOTLIGHT

Residence In Abilene, Texas For Mr. and Mrs. John Poff

Mrs. John Poff - nee Roseann Morano

St. Anthony's Church, Belleville, was the setting November 27 for the marriage of Miss Roseann Morano, daughter of Mrs. Rose Morano of 89 Magnolia Street to John Poff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Poff of 543 Joralemon Street.

The Rev. John Colabelli performed the ceremony with a reception following at Royal Hawaiian Palms, Lyndhurst.

Escorted by her brother, Joseph Morano, the bride wore a satin A-line gown fashioned with a pearly Alencon lace bodice, sheer lace bell sleeves and lace appliques on the skirt and hemline. A detachable chapel train was also applied.

A Spanish headpiece of lace held her floor length mantilla and she carried a triangular cascade of white roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Maria Pappas of Belleville and Mrs. Eileen Olham of North Arlington. The bride's niece, Kelly Ann Morano of Newark was flower girl.

The attendants were attired in gold knit gowns with high waists, V-necklines and bishop sleeves. Gold buckles accented the waistbands and headpieces were gold shoulder length veils. The maid of honor carried a basket of gold and rust mums and pom poms while the others had baskets of mums, autumn flowers and leaves.

Frank Gingerelli of Belleville was best man. Ushers included Richard Brace of Belleville, cousin of the groom and Thomas Spezzaferro of Toms River. Ringbearer was the bride's nephew, Joseph Morano Jr. of Newark.

Mrs. Morano chose a floor length gown of pink chiffon trimmed with silver at the cuffs and neckline. The groom's mother was in a shrimp chiffon pants gown with beaded trim around the cuffs and neckline. Corsages were white orchids.

The couple are alumni of Belleville High School. Mrs. Poff was with Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, Newark, prior to her marriage. Mr. Poff is a sergeant in the United States Air Force stationed at Dyess AFB, Texas.

The couple will live in Abilene, Texas, following a honeymoon in the Poconos.

Montclair Museum Hosts New Projector Program

Beginning Sunday, and continuing through December 30, the Montclair Art Museum will host the debut of the Earl Rowland Foundation's "Museum-in-a-Projector" program, a series of tape-narrated filmstrips preserving major art exhibitions. Visitors to the museum will have access to the program at any time at the push of a button.

Miss Rebecca L. Austin To Marry T.R. Caruso

Miss Rebecca Austin

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Austin of Independence, Missouri, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Rebecca Lynn, to Thomas Robert Caruso III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Caruso, Jr., 192 Beech Street, Nutley.

Miss Austin is a 1969 graduate of Van Horn High School, Independence and attended Central Missouri State College. She is presently employed with the Missouri State Highway Department.

Mr. Caruso, a 1965 graduate of Nutley High School, served with the United States Navy for four years prior to attending Central Missouri State College, where he was graduated this past year with a degree in Criminal Law and Sociology. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. His plans are to attend the University of Missouri

School of Law at Kansas City. He is employed with the American General Insurance Company in Kansas City.

March 4, 1972 is the date set for the wedding.

Holy Family Is Setting For Martikes-Augusto Nuptials

Mrs. Peter Martikes - nee Lorraine Augusto

The marriage of Miss Lorraine K. Augusto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Augusto of 8 Louise Court to Peter James Martikes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Martikes of Toms River, took place December 4 at Holy Family Church, Nutley.

The bridal gown was of candlelight silk faced satin trimmed with bands of pearls at the high neckline, bodice and waist. A chapel length train was attached. A matching pearl trimmed headpiece held her veil and she carried orchids, gardenias, pink roses and babies breath.

Miss Barbara Uskoba was maid of honor with Miss Wendy Martikes, Miss Mary Ann Zukauskas and Mrs. Thomas Renyi as bridesmaids.

All were attired in ruby velvet gowns.

James T. Martikes served his brother as best man. Ushers were Augustine De La Lave III, Frank Fadil and Loren MacIver. Mrs. Martikes, a graduate of Fairleigh Dickinson University and Mr. Martikes, an alumnus of Seton Hall University, are with Hoffmann LaRoche, Nutley.

Planned Parenthood Facility Has Been Opened In Montclair

Planned Parenthood Essex County has just opened a new health facility at 24 South Fullerton, Montclair. The Montclair site was chosen because, according to national statistics of Planned Parenthood World Population, there are over 2000 medically indigent women in the general area who are in need of family planning information.

"The new Planned Parenthood center in Montclair will fill a real need," says Mrs. Wallace Cox, 103 Chestnut Street, Nutley. "Formerly, local agencies had to refer patients to Planned Parenthood at 15 William Street in Newark. Now, busy women will find friendly, professional, medical service much closer to home."

Mrs. Cox, the Nutley chairman of Planned Parenthood, says that the Parenthood organization offers a variety of health services, such as blood tests for Killeen attended Newark College of Engineering before entering the Marine Corps.

Marines Promote Resident's Husband

Marine Lance Corporal Ernest M. DeFazio, husband of the former Miss Alice C. Downey of 349 Union Avenue, Belleville, was promoted to his present rank while serving at Marine Corps Automated Service Center, Kansas City, Mo.

Love increases with time to those who avoid the fate of selfishness.

Patrick Rudden Receives Medal

Sergeant Patrick Rudden, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Rudden Sr. of 58 Bremond Street, Belleville, recently received his third award of the Army Commendation Medal at Fort Hood, Tex.

The medal was awarded for meritorious service. Such service can be over an extended period of time or for outstanding achievement in a single situation. In either case, the recipient must have demonstrated skills and dedication far above the average.

Sgt. Rudden received the award while assigned as a squad leader in Company C, First Battalion of the Second Armored Division's 50th Infantry at Fort Hood.

A. Waters Being Cited By USAF

U.S. Air Force Staff Sergeant Alfred W. Waters Jr., son of Mrs. Pauline Waters of 435 Hawthorne Ave., Newark, has been selected to participate in the Strategic Air Command's (SAC) elite Combat Competition at McCoy AFB, Fla., Dec. 12-17.

Sergeant Waters is a radio repair technician on the hand-picked team that will support the B-52 Stratofortress bomber crew from the 19th Bomb Wing at Robins AFB, Ga. He was selected on the basis of his technical skill, proficiency and outstanding performance.

Two FB-111, 22 B-52 and 30 KC-135 Stratotanker crews from SAC and three Royal Air Force (Great Britain) delta-wing Vulcan bomber crews will compete in the "world series of bombing and navigation." The General Dynamics FB-111 -SAC's newest bomber -will be making its second appearance in the annual meet.

Armed Robbery Suspect To Jury
 A Newark man, arrested November 4 for armed robbery in Belleville, saw his case referred to the Essex County Grand Jury in Municipal Court December 9.
 Thomas Harris of 480 North 6th Street was picked up with three other men for allegedly holding a knife to the throat of a motorist on Washington Avenue and demanding money. Also arrested as an accomplice in the holdup was George Rubino, of Newark, who is still at large.
 Two passengers in Harris' car, Sal Naporano, 18, and Joseph Saporito, 20, both of Newark, were held as material witnesses.

Gambling Charges On Four

Four Belleville residents, arrested in connection with statewide gambling raids, October 16, were referred to the action of the Essex County Grand Jury by Municipal Court Judge Edward Abramson last Thursday.
 Michael Antonelli, 67, of 61 Continental Avenue, Louis Souss, 59, and Yo-londa Souss, 49, were charged with bookmaking, running a lottery, working for a lottery, and maintaining a premises for the purpose of gambling. Angelo Cottone, 42, of 264 Branch Brook Drive, was arrested for maintaining premises for gambling.

Stolen Property Verdict

A 26-year-old Newark man was convicted, December 9, in Belleville Municipal Court of possession of stolen property.
 Joseph Volpe, of 309 Clifton Avenue, Newark, was found guilty by Judge Edward Abramson of having five fire extinguishers stolen from Walter Kidde.
 Volpe was given a six-month suspended sentence, fined $150, and put on a year's probation.

Practice Teaching
 Jan Louis Grobstein of 188 Branch Brook Drive, Belleville, is practice teaching this year at Franklin Township High School. Grobstein, a student at Rutgers University, will be teaching social studies.
Honored By Dean
 Patricia Paoello of 830 Joralemon Street, Belleville, has been named to the dean's list at the Evening Division of Fairleigh Dickinson University. Miss Paoello attends the university's Rutherford campus.

Holiday Parties Cause Accidents

The traditional employee holiday party was today cited as one-of the leading causes of the week-long highway accident toll that will bring 1971 to a close.
 However, this does not mean the festivities should have to end. Instead, a leading auto safety expert urges employers to curb, or eliminate entirely, the easy flow of liquor at company parties, or else provide safe transportation home for the excess imbibers.

Class of '46 Reunion Held At San Carlo

The Belleville High School graduating class of 1946 held their 25th year reunion on Saturday Nov. 27, at the San Carlo Restaurant in Lyndhurst. Preceded by a cocktail hour, the dinner-dance was acclaimed a huge success when a capacity crowd of over 200 guests arrived to greet their former classmates.

Many of the graduates traveled from out of state to conclude the Thanksgiving holiday by attending the final football game of the season with Lyndhurst in which their Alma-Mater emerged victorious. Classmates who were members of the 1946 football team and cheerleading squad were recognized and honored by their classmates.

Prizes for various categories were awarded to: Mrs. Kay Frick Daniels, Mrs. Marie Fogarty McCabe, Mrs. Teresa Eufemia Delaney, Richard Gross and Robert Pudney Jr. Chairlady for the gala occasion was Mrs. Elsie Winship, assisted by Mrs. Dolores Vitiello, both of Belleville.

Serving as master of ceremonies for the evening was David Stumpe who introduced the speakers which included: Alan Vandemark, President of the class, Paul McConnell, Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Winship and Mrs. Vitiello.

Mrs. Winship was presented with a bouquet on behalf of the graduating class.

Following the invocation, a special tribute was paid posthumously to Mrs. Angela Gaetione Scaltrito. Mrs. Scaltrito was Chairlady of the class's past reunion and was instrumental in the formation of this event before her illness. A perpetual Mass card in her memory will be presented to her family.

Other members of the committee include: Donald Capanear, Mrs. Mary Casale, Mrs. Ann Oliveri, Mrs. Ceil O'Toole, Mrs. Muriel Scott, Mrs. Angela Frunzi, Mrs. Edith Bucciarelli, Mrs.

Kay Wille, and Mrs. Jean Baumgartner, all of Belleville. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Vandemark of Lake Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Del Vecchio of Paramus.

Rodino Bill Aids Old Folks

Rep. Peter W. Rodino announced today that he has sponsored a bill to amend the Older Americans Act to provide a comprehensive range of services for the elderly, including nutrition, transportation, preretirement training, health and expanded work opportunities.

The New Jersey legislator, who was a sponsor of the original Older Americans Act, said that the assistance provided by his proposed amendments would constitute "a national commitment to action on behalf of our older citizens in meeting their basic needs. In addition, the legislation will greatly strengthen the role of the Administration on Aging of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare."

Rodino said that this bill would assure effective coordination of Federal aging programs, expanded services and an improved system of delivering these services. The bill would also authorize the establishment of multi-purpose senior citizen community centers, a new National Information and Resource Center on the Aging to make available data on programs affecting the aging, and a new Gerontological Research Center to study the biological aspects of the aging process.

"This bill," he noted, "would make possible provision of such services as hot, nutritionally balanced meals for older persons in the senior centers and other appropriate facilities, as well as home-delivered meals for individuals requiring such services. In the transportation area, it could include such programs as special transportation subsystems for older persons, portal-to-portal service, the payment of subsidies to transportation systems to enable them to provide reduced rate service to older persons and direct payments to older persons to enable them to obtain reasonable and necessary transportation."

"Another important segment of my bill," Rodino continued, "is based on my firm conviction that chronological age should not be the sole criterion for retirement and that realistic opportunities for employment after 65 should be made available. Therefore my bill authorizes programs to provide rehabilitation for older persons, to retrain persons who are shifting to new employment by reason of age and to upgrade the skills of older persons to enable them to obtain more rewarding employment. It would also authorize programs to broaden the educational, cultural and social awareness of older persons who retire so they will be better able to lead more productive and rewarding lives in retirement."

Essex County Sheriff Claims Drug Busts Up During Term

Essex County Sheriff John F. Cryan celebrated his first year in office last month, citing a dramatic increase in the number of narcotics arrests as his major accomplishment during his term of office.

"When I took the oath of office my first priority was beefing up the Narcotics Squad," Sheriff Cryan said. "And we did that, increasing the number of detectives assigned to the squad from 9 to 20, and putting the men on a 24-hour, seven-day a week basis.

"And it has resulted in more than a doubling of narcotics arrests in the past year since November. As of today there were 544 arrests, most of them pushers or suppliers. This compared to 255 arrests for the same period in the preceding year," he said.

The sheriff said the Narcotics Squad has concentrated its efforts mainly on pushers and suppliers, rather than users.

And during the past year, he added, the squad has confiscated an average of at least $2,500 worth of drugs per month, including a total of 2,200 decks of heroin, as well as hashish, cocaine and LSD, the sheriff said.

Cryan also pointed to the special narcotics telephone number that was established this year. The number—961-8100—is for citizens to furnish information to law enforcement officials on suspected narcotics pushers.

"The results have been gratifying," Cryan said. "We have received a number of tips through the special telephone number and there have been subsequent arrests and convictions."

Cryan said there were several other major accomplishments during his first year as sheriff.

"We have increased the number of arrests for desertions, non-support and welfare cheaters, as well as starting a crack-down on pornography," Cryan said.

"During the 12 months I have been in office, we have apprehended and arrested approximately 610 persons who were either failing to support their families or working while having their families collecting welfare.

"This has resulted in a savings for the taxpayers of over $700,000 a year in welfare payments," Cryan said.

Cryan also explained that the internal supervision of the office was strengthened by the appointment of 12 permanent lieutenants, who replaced temporary officers, so that each department now has a supervisor.

Another milestone during Cryan's term was the sheriff's office assuming responsibility of the Essex County Jail, which previously had been under the jurisdiction of the Board of Freeholders.

"In the two months the sheriff's office has been responsible for the jail, we have strengthened the security of the facility, mainly by better deployment of personnel," Cryan said.

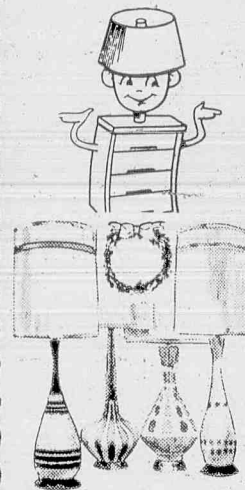

Two other achievements were the opening of the ID Bureau on a seven-day a week basis (previously it was just Monday through Friday) and the transportation of juveniles from Essex County to institutions throughout the state.

strides in improving the efficiency and effectiveness of the sheriff's office, and we will continue these efforts," Cryan said.

"Of course, none of these achievements could have been accomplished without the dedication and perseverance of our personnel. They have performed admirably."

FOR OUTSTANDING POLICE WORK award is received by Chief of Detectives Donald Becker of Belleville, who works for Essex County Sheriff John F. Cryan, shown presenting plaque.

For Police Work

Local Man Cited By Essex Sheriff

Essex County Sheriff John F. Cryan recently commended Chief of Detectives Donald Becker for "outstanding police work" in the capture of two inmates from Newark.

Becker, 48, of Belleville, was instrumental in the capture of Harry Cunningham, who escaped from the Essex County Jail in August, and James Armstrong, who fled Martland Hospital while under police guard last month.

Chief Becker had a telephone call traced to Cunningham and spoke to the inmate for 30 minutes while the location of the phone was determined. Then Sheriff's detectives raced to the scene, a Newark apartment, and apprehended Cunningham.

The other prisoner, James Armstrong, was tracked down and captured on the roof of an abandoned building in New York City by Becker and Sheriff Cryan.

Becker, who has four other commendations for outstanding police work, has been a law enforcement officer for over 20 years. In addition to the Sheriff's Office, Becker was police chief in Wrangell, Alaska, a rugged logging and fishing town.

He is a native of Irvington and graduated from Irvington High School. He served four years with the infantry during World War II in Leyte and Okinawa.

Cryan, in making the commendation, said that "all too often excellent police work, such as that performed by Chief Becker, goes unnoticed, particularly in these days when there is small and irresponsible element that blames law enforcement officers for society's wrongs."

"The time has come for the public to realize that day in and day out, law enforcement officers are daily risking their lives

Your Weekly Horoscope

December 18 through December 24

Brought to you as a courtesy of
NICOLS PARK ESSO

ARIES (March 21-April 19): A flurry of activity surrounds you, Ari. Keep reasonable hours and you keep pace. This means getting into the feathers for enough sleep. One who is source of daily annoyance can be phased out of your life at this time. Be gentle but firm. On last day, loiter under the mistletoe.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Hectic week ahead, Taurus. Avoid brouhaha with family by keeping promise made long ago. Newcomer presents interesting idea. Be flexible and open to change. In fact, Olga's suggestion is: "Try it . . . you'll like it."

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Hunches strong first three days; Gem. Listen to your inner voice. Protect your reputation at all cost. One who is as pure as the driven slush can cause you anxiety. Be most circumspect when dealing with this person. As week ends, tensions diminish. On last day, you feel all cuddly and warm. Ummm.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Children/loved ones figure prominently in week ahead, Moonflower. Decisions, decisions, decisions drain you of energy if you try to hack all chores alone. However, you accomplish much if you seek co-operation of neighbors/friends. Before week is over, take time for a little fa-la-la-la-ing.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Another wild week, Leo. Dispatch messages / greetings on first day. Get last-minute errands done in between parties. News comes from distance. And you should know, Leo dear, that you have a shy admirer who stands in the shadows, just waiting for you to take notice. Check about and see if old Olga isn't correct.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Plan, plan, plan, Virg. Week ahead could turn into an absolute nightmare if you haven't all of your affairs(?) in order. Chances are you've already taken too many chances, right? Not a moment's peace until last day, pet. Then you can kick off your shoes and enjoy a hot toddy with loved ones.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Emotions run rampant, Libra love. What was lost is found. You celebrate. Fascinating friend really pours it on. It is up to you, dear heart, to say "when." As week draws to a happy close, you transcend routine and take delight in feeling of fulfillment.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Time ideal for you, Scorp, to make massive breakthrough as far as relationship with loved one is concerned. Past mistakes are forgiven. Old wounds heal. "Tis the season . . ." Scorp, so squeeze it bone dry.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Most private week ahead, Sag. What you long for will be discovered in the dark places, far from the festive lights. Search, and ye shall find. Gift given on last day. (And not under the Christmas tree, either.)

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): That which you thought was broken, mends. Ideas come from unexpected source. Present relationship with dear one is intensified. You are a natural giver, pet, but wise little Caps hold back just a smidgen. Week ends on note of sheer delight.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Conflicting forces at work concerning your future, Aquari. You are esteemed, so ignore advice of chowderhead who would urge you to join cult of failure. Since you possess good judgement, use it. On last day, surprise arrives. It is not the thought that counts, my sweet, but the gift itself. So, enjoy it.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): One with key unlocks secret door to your heart, Pisces. New bond is formed. You are headed for deep water, so let down your net for a catch. Week ends on note of wonder.

Luongo Up For Award

The Essex County CYO will present its initial awards to the outstanding high school football back and lineman on Wednesday evening, Jan. 5 at the Essex County Coaches Association's monthly dinner at the Rock Spring Inn West Orange. Belleville's Bob Luongo is nominated for an award.

It will mark the first time ever that the CYO honors the county's top grid performers. The CYO has presented an Outstanding Basketball Player trophy since 1947.

Head coaches of every Essex County high school football team have received ballots, as have sports writers on area daily and weekly newspapers.

Thirteen scholastic line-men have been tabbed in the early balloting as potential winners. These include ball-players such as Mountain's Dan DeTore, Essex Catholic's Al Wujciak, St. Benedict's Vic DelVecchio and other standouts including Bob Luongo, Belleville; Ed Martoglio, Immaculate Conception; Mike Alliston, Cedar Grove; Manny Perez, East Side; Sam DiMaio, Verona; Donald Brundridge, West Side; Nick Ramondini, Verona and Barringer's Bob Chadwick.

Backfield candidates include West Essex's high-scoring Rusty Boyle, Ken "Pete" Shaw and Dexter Cumberland of Barringer, Bloomfield's Felix Flores, East Side's Bruce Beaman, Todd Hassert of Verona, Seton Hall's Tom Addonizio, Brian Trifolios of West Orange, and Gary Mercadante and Rich Fortunato of Montclair. Guest speaker at the County Coaches Association Dinner on the award night will be former New York Giant baseball great Monte Irvin. The Orange native currently works out of Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's office in New York.

Alumni Contest Scheduled

The annual Belleville-Nutley Alumni basketball game will be played Wednesday, December 29, at the Nutley High School gym.

Plans have not yet been finalized but reports are that the Maroon cagers are prepping extra-hard this year to avenge a loss to the Bellboys last December. More details will follow in next week's Belleville Times-News sports edition.

After 30 years and around 3,000 rounds of golf, Frank Renn, 12 Corsay Road, scored his first act at Hendricks Field on December 1. Playing with Jerry Pecarro, he holed out with a seven iron on the 120 yard 11th hole.

points.

"We played well from the floor but the squad needs improvement at the foul line," remarked head cage coach Bob Palma. "Our boys hit only a little better than 50 per cent."

The Cowboys of West Orange rode herd over Belleville in Tuesday's afternoon tilt. Belleville lost the game by a 89-49 tune but for all realistic purposes, the contest was over at the end of the first quarter when West Orange held a 21-5 lead. The Blue and Gold didn't sink a shot from the floor until the second stanza.

The Belleville cause was hurt by the inactivity of the Tree Insects Invade Household

Every fall as colder weather arrives, some of our shade tree insects look for nice warm homes to provide them with winter lodging. Two common insect invaders are the elm leaf beetle and the boxelder bug.

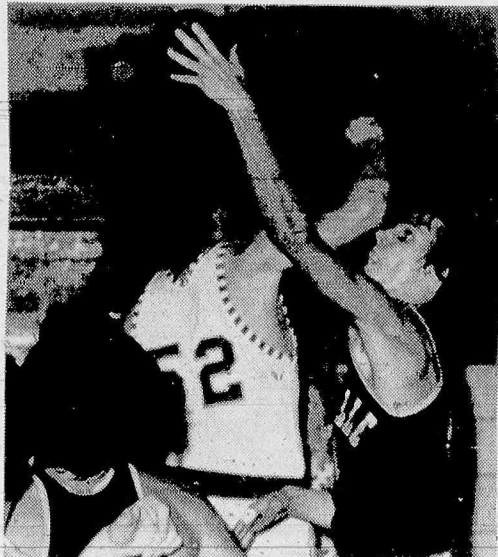

Fortunately, these insects do not feed on anything in the home, but their presence and activity alarms some homeowners.

Once these insects leave their host trees and move indoors, about all you can do is to pick them up with a vacuum cleaner, William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County advises.

All attic windows and louvers should be fitted with screens and the space between the screen and frame sealed with masking tape.

Cracks and crevices around windows and under siding should be sealed with caulking compound or other suitable material.

LEAPING HIGH in the air on this tap from center court is Belleville's offensive star Ken Zoppa, who jumped center against Garfield. Bellboys won tilt, 66-64.

SHOOTING FOUL shot is Mike Petronaci of Belleville. Although the Blue and Gold won game, coach was dissatisfied with foul shooting of his team.

Winners Receive Prizes

Pistol Range Sees Turkey Shoot

On Sunday, Nov. 21, shooters of Belleville converged on the Police Pistol Range to take part in the fifth annual Recreation Department Turkey Shoot. Two hundred and fifty-five Daniel Boones and Annie Oakleys gathered to vie for the holiday birds.

There was one winner out of each five shooters and, although the winning was largely a matter of chance, there prevailed a competitive atmosphere. One husband, who should receive an award for diplomacy, ended up in a tie with his dearly beloved. With Solomon-like wisdom he conceded the win to the little lady. There were a goodly number of distaff shooters this year.

Winners in this year's Turkey shoot were Annette Ardino, Anthony Misko Sr., Joseph Dimick, Jim Callahan, Richard Tyrpak, Richard Tyrpak, Jim Callahan, Ronald Moraski, Kamboy Seinaldsade, Al Rodriguez, Joe Guard, Sal Passafaro, Sam Kowitt, Manual Rodriguez, Robert Buckland, Tony Sorce, Anthony DeFresco, Joe Fornarotto, Joe Fornarotto, Jr., Marie Vogel, Jack Vogel, Mike Spillane, Jim Messina, Joe Guard, Ray Swedski, Joe Massa, Steve Vogel, Ralph Cerrato, Robert Buckland, Joseph Gambocz, Bob Cook, Vito Farese, Michael Paoletto, Peggy Reed, Elmer Reed, Bob Can-

nella, Anthony Caruso, Leo Gasiorowski, Vincent Coffey, Tom Hopter, Tony Liloia, Rory Stawicki, Neil Sargentelli, Thomas Ciacciarelli, Anthony DeFeo, Jeffrey Bauer, Jim Callahan, Angelo Domenick, Ted Festa, Janis Bauer and Ed Schoenfelder.

Lowest score to win a bird was a nine shot by Neil Sargentelli while the highest was a big forty-four posted by Al Rodriguez.

Commissioner Michael V. Marotti was present throughout the entire event, not as an idle spectator, but working as an official scorer as the targets were brought in from the firing line. Recreation Superintendent Bob Cook dispensed the targets and Matt Callahan was Range Officer.

A special gallery exhibit of local amateur photographs taken in Israel through all the years of the young state's existence will be a highlight of the February Israeli festival month at the Essex County YM-YWHA, 760 Northfield Avenue, West Orange.

Team Still Green

Grapplers Need More Experience

Belleville's varsity grapplers need as much work as the can get, according to head coach James Silvestri. In the team's two scrimmages to date, some wrestlers have shown signs of brilliance but most of the team is still "green."

After traveling to Bergenfield yesterday, one of the top powers in wrestling in the area, the Bellboy grapplers face DePaul High School of Wayne for the first time ever. Silvestri reports that Bergenfield will be a stern test for the young Bellboys. He said he knows almost nothing of the DePaul squad. Both scrimmages are still just tune-ups leading to next week's season opener with Columbia High School.

"I don't consider winning the pre-season scrimmages as a necessity to win," reports Silvestri. "Sure we would like to come out on top in the score but evaluating my team's performance and watching how individual members wrestle is more important."

Silvestri said Belleville looked "sloppy" in its first scrimmage of the season last week with West Side of Newark. The Bellboys dropped the contest by a 36-24 total. Against Berkeley Heights later in the week, the local wrestlers, in the words of Silvestri, were "outpowered and out-moved" by their opponents. The score of that match was a one-sided 39 to 11.

"We looked terrible. We need more work. Belleville still has a green team," concluded the coach.

Split First Two Tilts; Maroon Squad Next

Coach Palma is stressing top physical condition this year in hopes that the local club can outlast and outrun its opponents. Palma believes that the squad should attain some success by fast-breaking on some of the slower and bigger opponents. In the Garfield win, Belleville hit several easy baskets when the guards were ahead of the field.

Postmaster Urges Early Mailing

MAIL EARLY campaign is in full swing for area post offices. Here, Mrs. Asimina Zois of Newark gets an assist from Santa Claus, played by postal employee Joe Abramo. Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci urges area residents to mail packages and Christmas cards early.

The "Mail Early" campaign initiated by area post offices is now in full swing, anticipating a large volume of mail, both packages for overseas and Christmas cards, to be mailed locally.

Newark Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci said area residents should mail Christmas Cards no later than this week for a prompt delivery by Christmas.

Postmaster Benucci pointed to an incident in the Newark Post Office recently that was humorous yet pointed to the fact that if prompt arrival of packages is expected, they must be mailed early.

Last week Mrs. Asimina Zois, known to servicemen as "Mama" Zois, kept up her annual trek to the post office. She has been mailing Christmas bundles, at her own expense, to needy friends in her native Greece and U.S. fighting men since World War II. The bespectacled Mrs. Zois, deplored the current embargo on mail to Europe, Central and South America.

"I'll be able to send some of the things when the embargo is lifted," she said. "This way I thank God."

Resident Attends Seminar

John Diglio, a long time Belleville resident represented Montclair State College at a recent seminar sponsored by the New Jersey Audiovisual Council. The seminar discussed means of obtaining greater share of federal funds for education in New Jersey.

Diglio explained that: "There are crucial areas of education that are of common interest to professional educators. One of the areas that is a focus for concern at the present time for Montclair State is where to find sources of supplemental funding and how to go about successfully securing these funds."

The New Jersey Audiovisual Council has made a detailed examination and analysis of the programs funded by the Federal Government for the Fiscal Year 1972 (July 1, 1971 - June 30, 1972). The research staff of the N.J.A.V.C. has prepared a Guide to Federal Programs.

Glenn Reeling, Director of Institutional Research at Jersey City State College, and Consultant to Office of Higher Education Planning, New York State Education Department, made a short presentation dealing with the various aspects of preparing federal grant proposals.

Diglio stated that he felt the information gained at the seminar coupled with the Council's Federal Funding Guide would help Montclair State develop sources of greater federal funds to supplement the school budget.

Montclair Student Heads Talent Show

Eugene Mahler of 62 High Street, Belleville, served as co-chairman at a talent show sponsored by the senior class of Montclair State College.

ITT Directors Increase Common Stock Dividend

The board of directors of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation today increased the quarterly dividend on the Corporation's common stock one cent per share to a total of 29 3/4 cents per share, payable January 15, 1972 to stockholders of record at the close of business on December 20, 1971.

This increases the annual dividend rate from $1.15 to $1.19 per share. The increase was necessarily limited to that figure by the 4 percent dividend increase ceiling under the Phase II government guidelines on dividend policy issued by the Committee on Interest and Dividends. Otherwise, the board indicated, it would have raised the dividend by a higher amount, as has been done in each of the past four years.

School Group Presentation

Traditional Christmas music programs will be presented by the Port Authority during a ten-day period that began Monday, Dec. 13, for the enjoyment of commuters and travelers at the Port Authority Bus Terminal, Newark Airport, John F. Kennedy International Airport, and the PATH-World Trade Center Terminal. To date, a total of 71 groups comprising some 3700 singers and musicians will participate. This past Monday the Belleville High School group performed, under the direction of Dr. Samuel Peck.

The programs will be inaugurated at the Bus Terminal in midtown Manhattan. The music program there, presented for the sixteenth consecutive year, will feature 34 groups, with the final presentation taking place at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 22.

At Newark Airport, in the Passenger Terminal Building, the sixth annual program of Christmas music began on Wednesday, Dec. 22, at 5:15 p.m.

Air travelers and visitors at the International Arrival Building at John F. Kennedy International Airport, will enjoy the tenth consecutive season of Christmas carols and organ music began on Wednesday, Dec. 15, at 5:15 p.m. A total of eight organizations from the metropolitan area will present the program from the balcony of the Arrival Building, concluding on Wednesday, Dec. 22, at 5:30 p.m.

The ninth annual Christmas salute to New Jersey-New York commuters on the PATH system will be held this year for the first time in the new PATH World Trade Center terminal, Monday, Dec. 20 to Wednesday, Dec. 22. Nine groups are expected to participate in a schedule to be announced.

VFW Firemen Plan Session For Tuesday

Firemen's Post No. 1851, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold a business meeting Tuesday at the post home, 100 Grafton Ave., Newark, beginning at 8 p.m. Robert E. Wallace of Wallington, post commander, will preside.

Final report of the VFW auxiliary "Voice of Democracy" scriptwriting contest will be given by Past Commander William B. Kroeschel of Newark, who serves as chairman for the unit. The final report of the District No. 4 (Essex County) VFW contest for all students of the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades in all public, private and parochial schools which closed December 15 will also be given.

The latter contest gave the student the opportunity to speak up for freedom and democracy, with this year's theme "My Responsibility to Freedom." Last year, nearly 500,000 students from more than 6,800 secondary schools participated, with an increase expected for this year's 25th anniversary of the national VOD program.

Pharmacy Footnotes

Vincent Cazzarelli
Reg. Ph.

According to authorities, your basal metabolism rate has a lot to do with how fast or how slowly your bodily processes occur. This rate can be computed in order to tell if your growth and energy utilization are normal. Usually the basal metabolism rate is slightly higher in males than in females although it decreases with time. Mental activity, however, does not seem to have much effect on the rate. An hour of intense mental effort uses up energy which can be replaced by a half of a peanut!

When illness occurs and you require prescription service you can depend on the pharmacists at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968 for quick attention. Soho Performance Hospital Visited By Stage Band

By Don Messina
November 11, 1971 marked an interesting day for members of the BHS Stage Band. It was on this date that a performance was given for patients of the Essex County Geriatrics Center, commonly known as Soho Hospital. All participating had a very enjoyable time, and Stage Crew is looking forward to their next visits to the Hospital in the near future.

Speak Free This Is Justice?

By Bill Hamilton

Perhaps you may think that this column today is escaping from the subject of youth, but it does not. It is the youth of this nation who hold the key to the future, and it is the youth of America, hopefully, who will change the injustices of the system. This article concerns one of those injustices.

A man by the name of Edgar H. Smith Jr. has spent the last fourteen and a half years of his life in Trenton State Prison, residing in the most tormented section of that institution, commonly called "Death's Row". Smith was sentenced to be executed there for the death of fifteen-year-old Victoria Zielinski in 1957. He pleaded innocent at the original trial, and has insisted on his innocence throughout these fourteen years. Then a lower court recently granted Smith a new trial on a legal technicality.

There was a special plea hearing in Hackensack on December 7th, at which time Smith changed his plea to "non vult" (no defense), which is basically a plea of guilty. Smith stated that he killed the young girl. A short time later, Edgar Smith, after fourteen years in prison awaiting execution, was a free man. He had been the longest "Death Row" inhabitant in history in the U.S. His freedom was based on the court's belief that his new plea entitled him to a second charge of second-degree murder, which is a maximum thirty-year sentence. The court then released Smith on probation for four-and-a-half years, considering the time he already served and good behavior. This could well have been the happy ending of Edgar Smith's life, but Smith taped a television show with William F. Buckley that afternoon. Suppositly, Smith made statements on the show that suggested that he was not guilty of the crime. The authorities somehow found out about Smith's remarks and are now investigating the matter. If he did in fact say that he was innocent, then he must return to prison.

Edgar Smith has fought for his freedom relentlessly for the last fourteen years, insisting on his innocence. He then changes his plea to guilty, and is released that very same day. Then, later that day, he is rumored saying that he did not murder the girl, and the legal masterminds of New Jersey want him back in prison! I am not about to conjecture concerning Smith's guilt or innocence but I seriously question our system of justice in this matter, and in similar matters not so highly publicized. Those who insist on their innocence remain in prison until they plead guilty out of despair. Then they are set free, as long as they do not suggest that they are not guilty. It is time we began to question the system of justice in this nation of ours.

Report Cards Don't Always Tell Truth

By Frank Ritacco

The Report Card: some of the time it tells the learning ability for a marking period, and some of the time the letter grade really shows either how much one "browns" a teacher or how much one bribes a teacher. Although one might have good letter grades throughout the marking period, one surprise test given on a bad day can effect your letter grade greatly, possibly lower it one letter. The thing I am trying to put across is the over-rated report card which sets forth to measure the learning ability of a person; there is too much emphasis on the card. It does not reflect how much one got out of a course nor if one cheated to get that grade.

What I wrote above is not just for those who received lower grades on their report cards. I wrote what I did to show that what one learns is not always reflected by the report card. The emphasis put on the card is too great; teacher's wonder why the youth of today is so worried about marks. It is because that's what parents and educational authorities notice, not how much you really know or your common sense, just a letter grade. I believe that most students agree with what I have stated.

Stage Band itself consists of selected musicians.

It's just as well not to call for help until you need it.

And Then The Pen Skipped More Often

By Anthony Buccino

The pen began to skip. It skipped more often than it had in the past. It was not writing every time. Goopy blue fluid is pulled by gravity towards the center of the earth. Any interception is made upon a sheet of paper, thus, we write.

When a pen skips, it is a warning that the ink supplying is diminishing. If there were no ink in the world, there would be no writing. No writing, no correspondence. No correspondence, no books from which to learn. It is there fore conjectured that without gravity, learning would be difficult.

Your opinion of yourself is always different from the opinion of your friends

An Immortal Message Seen On Store Sign

By Anthony Buccino

One Saturday evening I happened to be in the Willowbrook shopping mall. In passing through the store-lined maze, I had the fortune or misfortune to notice a sign on one of the checkout counters in Stern's. And though we bought nothing in that store at that time, I did steal away with the immortal message neatly printed on the sign.

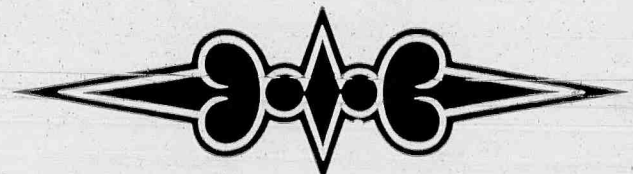

"The package you take home gets there faster," may appear to mean that a package which is brought home upon purchase will reach its ultimate destination before a package that is to be delivered there does. That is not the real meaning of the sign. It would be cheating for me to tell you the meaning. "The package you take home gets there faster." (End)

Rostropovich Recital
For Symphony Hall Series
Russian cellist Mstislav Rostropovich, generally considered the foremost master of that instrument active today, will be heard in recital on Sunday, December 12, at 3 p.m. in the second concert of Newark Symphony Hall's International Artist Series. Rostropovich was originally scheduled to appear in Newark last March 28 but was prevented from doing so by a last-minute travel restriction imposed by the Soviet Union.

Jaycees Now Collecting Items

Toys Needed for Children's Christmas

Toys, dolls, games and food items for food baskets are being collected for needy families this Christmas by the Nutley Jaycees.

David Morash, project chairman for the Jaycees, said the items would go both to the Newark Emergency and Disaster Center and to several Nutley families. Morash requested citizens to bring such items during business hours to the Nutley Red Cross Building, 169

Chestnut Street, and evenings and weekends to 221 Coeyman Avenue.

He noted that the Jaycees first became involved with the Newark group last year when burglars made off in mid-December with most of the toys the group had collected. At that time residents of Nutley and other nearby towns contributed generously to replace the lost items.

This year the Newark group, with offices at 432

University Avenue, Newark, is hoping to take up some of the slack caused by recent cutbacks in welfare benefits, Morash said.

He added that the Jaycees were also seeking donations of cookies, candy, soda, hot dogs, rolls, mustard and paper plates, cups and napkins for a party the Newark group holds shortly before Christmas.

Nutley Democrats will hold their annual Christmas party this evening starting at 7 o'clock in the VFW Hall on Washington Avenue.

Ralph Winters, club president, invites all Democrats to the session which also will hear the group's officers for the coming year nominated. Heading the nominating committee are Commissioner John H. Luch and Public Affairs Acting Director William Callanan.

Chairmen of this evening's party committee are Ruth Booth and Columbia Olanie. Advance reservations are requested by the committee. The program will include a hot meal, Winters said.

Choralettes Singing Daily For Holidays

Nutley High's Choralettes, the school's most skilled singing group, again is maintaining a busy schedule during the Christmas holidays with performances on almost a daily basis.

Visits this week include the town's Yule Concert on Monday and a concert at the Port Authority Bus Terminal in Manhattan on Wednesday.

Directed by Raymond Kohere, the 30 girls list the following concerts for the coming week: tomorrow morning at 11:30 at the Nutley Old Guard in the Franklin Reformed Church; next Monday at 8 p.m. in the annual town Christmas program at the NHS auditorium; next Tuesday from 4:30 to 5:15 p.m. at Newark Airport; next Wednesday, December 22, from 4:30 to 5:15 at the Port Authority Bus Terminal, and a week from today, December 23, caroling in Nutley.

In past years, the Choralettes have also performed during the Christmas season at the National Honor Society and at Nutley Rotary programs. The group will present concerts for the groups it's missing - during the holiday season later in the school year.

Biancardi Association Planning Dinner-Dance

The Joseph G. Biancardi Civic Association is tendering a continental dinner-dance on Saturday, January 22, 1972 at the Fountain Restaurant, Belleville.

This organization has dedicated itself to many charitable causes. Besides being interested in the youth of our community, the association has sponsored a team on Belleville's Little League Baseball, and also a team in Belle-ville's Recreational Football League.

All proceeds from our functions are donated toward community and social welfare.

The chairman of this affair is Anthony Caruso, co-chairman Maryann Benaquista.

Congregation Sets College Night Here

Congregation Ahavath Achim of Belleville will hold its College "Homecoming" Night for all its college-age students on Friday, Dec. 24th. All college students will take a part in conducting the Sabbath Services that evening. A forum and social hour will follow the services at the Oneg Shabbat.

The service and forum is being organized by Rabbi Herbert Horowitz, spiritual leader of Congregation Ahavath Achim.

All of the Congregation's college students are enrolled in the ATID Subscription Program, the college-age organization sponsored by the United Synagogue of America.

Band Battle Scheduled

Belleville High's Band. It contains a trumpet section, trombone section, sax section, and percussion (drums, guitar, bass guitar, and vibes). It enjoys playing many of the popular tunes such as "Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head," "Midnight Cowboy," "On a Clear Day," and many others. It also likes to play many of the jazz-rock tunes such as "Blues for Dr. Cranberry," "Reciprocity," and "Psychodelphia" just to name a few. Comedy is added to the program when members of Stage Band sing, "Ya Gotta Have Skin."

The Old Days Of Belleville
