puzzled because Sheila's jacket was still in the closet. Police, speculating that the girl may be hiding, suggested that the father, return home and give the house a thorough search.

The family returned home and were searching hidden areas of the apartment when Anthony, 15, discovered his sister's body under a mattress in the cellar. "Clad only in a thin sweatshirt with her undergarments discarded, Sheila was found, her face and neck showing large bruises. Belleville police were immediately alerted.

Deputy Chief Hught was hesitant on how Richardson's arrest came about, indicating that a divulging of the police investigation may damage the state's case, but it was learned that Richardson voluntarily came to headquarters on his own initiative. He was ordered held for arraignment after a short questioning period with detectives.

Police officials revealed that Richardson, a friend of Anthony, had been to the Carr home earlier in the day with another youth. The trio left about 4 p.m., split up, and Richardson apparently returned to the Carr residence. Officials speculate Richardson confronted Sheila, an argument ensued, the girl was struck in the face and then taken to the basement to her death by strangulation.

This is the first murder in Belleville in a year. The last homicide was the killing and robbery of a Belleville grocer, a case that has never been solved.

It Costs Rearing Children

$13,000 and $14,000 per household, the outlay comes to an estimated $41,800 per child. Local families, whose incomes are larger than this spend more and others, less.

The figures show that the first year is usually the most expensive. A family may incur bills of over $3,000 in that year, including birth costs.

"We will explain our entire budget, show what went up, what went down and give the reasons why," the Commissioner added.

According to Mrs. Senatore, the citizens group last year realized the Town a savings of $9,000 by finding items in the Streets and Sewers division which could be deleted.

History Society Meets

The Board of Directors of the Belleville Historical Society recently met to discuss plans for the upcoming annual meeting on February 17.

The following members were present: Allan Crisp, president; Gerard Hickey, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Spillane, secretary; George Gebrian, who was elected as chairman of the Board of Directors at the meeting; Ralph Casale, director; Dwight Streeter, director; Mrs. Richard Shafter, membership chairman, and Edward O'Neill, program chairman.

Mrs. Shafter reported that there are now 103 charter members. Individuals and groups are still welcome to join the society as charter members.

Plans were made for the installation of officers at the February meeting. The ceremony will take place at the beginning of the meeting.

In addition to the installation a very interesting program will be presented. Arthur Lang, of the Cedar Grove Historical Society, will present an illustrated talk on "Colonial Tombstone Tracings." Lang will describe the technique involved in taking tracings and show examples of tombstones in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New England cemeteries.

Anyone interested in the purposes of the Belleville Historical Society are invited to the meeting on February 17. The meeting will be held at the Woman's Club, 51 Rossmore Place. A social hour will commence at 7:30 p.m. followed by the business session at 8 p.m.

Second River Retaining Wall

to protect their own property," reported Soldo.

"During heavy rains last summer, a large sewage pipe serviced by the Second River Joint Meeting ruptured, sending thousands of gallons of sewage into the stream and polluting the surrounding land. The sewer was quickly fixed but the group, comprised of several local municipalities, are presently taking measures to prevent a recurrence of the disaster.

Soldo estimates the cost of the wall as about $250 per linear foot. Made up of poured concrete, the wall will be a minimum of three feet below the bed of the stream.

The main concern is protecting the sewer line but that, in turn, will guard against flooding in that area of Belleville," Soldo added.

Win Band Battle

Belleville High School held their second annual "Battle of the Bands" last Saturday night before a crowd in excess of 500. The six competing bands were in order of their appearance: "Acephalous," "Public Notice," "Salt Marsh," "Pigs" and the winners, "Midnight Confession."

The Midnight Confession realized the competition was going to be rough and prepared a new style never before used. Instead of the usual routine of music stopping after each song, Mike Cisero, the arranger of the group, wrote a medley of thirty minutes of non stop music. This new style held the interest of the audience from start to the final note of their last song.

The order of songs played were as follows: "Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is," "Questions 67 & 68," "Smile Away," "Make Me Smile," "Color My World," "Eye Comin' Va," "Feeling All Right," "Home Made Blues," "Closer to Home," and "Beginnings." All songs except for "Home Made Blues" which was written by the group consisted of songs taken from the albums of Chicago, Ram, Santana, Three Dog Night and Grand Funk.

The group consists of four members, each with many years of musical experience. On solo guitar and background vocal is Gary Gubinski who attends Bloomfield Tech.

Henry DeFrance on drums and lead singer is a student of Belleville High School.

Your Administrator Duties Long, Involved

Mary B. Shader is Secretary of the Belleville Board of Education. She began her employment with the Board of Education thirty years ago, in April 1942, in the same office in Number Eight School as is now occupied by the Board.

Mrs. Shader's duties are involved with many facets of school procedures. For the most part these duties are specified by school law. They include serving as financial officer of the local school district, recording the proceedings of the Board, maintaining its records, and managing school elections.

Looking back, she states, "although twenty-eight years (she had resigned and returned to her position after a two-year absence) may sound like a long time to be in one location, I have never found it tiresome. There have been so many vital and interesting personalities on the Board of Education over the years, that working with them has made many years seem a few."

Mrs. Shader is proud to have been a life-long resident of Belleville and recalls her father teaching her to swim in the Passaic River, at the foot of Jorammon Street, and fishing for minnows in the Second River.

Mrs. Shader (nee Bowler) parents resided on Academy Street when she was born. She was graduated from Belleville High School and has attended Seton Hall and Rutgers Universities.

and has a son, William, who also graduated from Belleville High School. He served four years in the United States Navy and is now attending Rochester Institute of Technology.

Mrs. Shader is a widow.

A Shocking Disclosure

The Federal Budget

President Nixon has proposed what he refers to as a "full-employment" budget, which is estimated to produce a deficit of $35 billion in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973.

H. For the current fiscal year ending June 30, the Administration estimates a deficit of $38.8 billion.

These deficit figures challenge the imagination of man and probably is beyond the comprehension of most of us.

Imagine what the interest charge alone amounts to just to cover the deficit! And who will pay the taxes to make up these deficits—the great grandchildren of another day. For some unknown reason we cannot understand why government is permitted to spend more money than it takes in. Certainly at the local level the state law requires that municipal budgets cannot provide for expenditures greater than the anticipated income.

But we are living in fantastic times—incredible times—and unbelievable things are happening—such as a planned $35 billion deficit. The chances are, the $35 billion deficit is underestimated by the use of figure juggling. All one has to do is increase the anticipated revenues and thus reduce the expected deficit.

Our country is in sad shape and what we are really reaping are the benefits—or liabilities—(depending upon one's viewpoint) of a semi-socialistic form of government. Perhaps it might be better for everyone for the country to go all the way and become a member of the socialist nations.

We are presently in a "can't win" situation. How much worse can things get?

A State Income Tax

During the past three weeks we have been bombarded with suggestions from very responsible quarters that a state tax. A study commission will recommend the adoption of a state income tax.

The alleged purpose of a state income tax is to relieve the burden of property taxes.

Now come President Nixon with a proposal that a national "VALUE ADDED TAX" should be adopted as a means of raising money nationally to pay the cost of primary and secondary schools as a substitute for the property tax.

If Washington is going ahead with plans to slap indirect taxes upon us to raise money to eliminate local property taxes raised for the maintenance of our public school systems, then it is perfectly natural for us in New Jersey to ask why should we proceed with all due haste to accept a state income tax?

Before the advent of the sales tax we were solidly for an income tax only as an alternative to the sales tax. Our decision was based upon a belief the burden of income tax levy would fall more equitably upon those among us who are better able to pay.

The legislature of that day decided to reject a state income tax, and in its place and stead, adopted a 3% sales tax. Shortly after Governor William Cahill took office, in order to balance the budget, he found it necessary to recommend a 2% increase in the sales tax—so now we are paying 5% sales tax.

Our broad based tax is enough for New Jersey people.

We are opposed to the imposition of a state income tax, regardless of its merits.

Berlinski Testimonial Set For Fountain Restaurant

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

Belleville voters elected three members to the Board of Education and rejected the proposed 1971-72 school budget, a $4,863,441 tax package. Matthew Pica, a first-time candidate for the board, topped all candidates with 1,648 votes, while incumbents Lawrence S. Schwartz and Mrs. Norma McCool finished second and third respectively. The Board planned to hold a session to welcome new members and discuss the defeated budget.

Plans had been formalized to honor Edward T. Berlinski, former head grid coach and basketball coach at Belleville High School, at a testimonial dinner to be held at The Fountain Restaurant. The former All-American gridder and professional football player had been coach of the Bellboys from 1946 through 1962. Committee members in charge of the affair were: Joseph Grande, Joseph Cancelliere, Louis Vitelli, Joseph Long, Paul Simpson, James Luzzi, Anthony Bruno, Thomas Corino and Dr. Michael Del Tufo.

Belleville commissioners estimated that local taxpayers would be faced with a 78-point tax increase for the coming year. For all purposes, including local, county, and school, Belleville property owners would be asked to pay $12,509,485 in taxes during 1972.

Ten Years Ago

Police Chief George Spatz, who had headed the Belleville Police Department for more than 25 years, was to retire from the force on his 65th birthday. When Spatz had joined the force in 1924, there were 24 men in the department, about a third of the current manpower of Belleville's police force. Spatz had succeeded the town's first police chief, Michael Flynn, who had stepped down in 1936.

Less than 5,000 voters were expected to turn out to elect three members to the Board of Education and to vote in a $2,834,879 budget. Thirteen candidates were running for the three board seats. They were: Dominic Lally, Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero, Michael Albertine, Paul Bernhardt, George Brown, Ted Del Guercio, John Di Rienzo, Paul Francisco, Albert Guglielmi, Mrs. Norma McCool, Calvin Peck, Ralph Risoli and Edward Watlock.

Five Belleville residents, including two commissioners, filed petitions for election to the council form of government. Commissioner George Kierman and Nuncio R. Pico, who were both serving their fourth year on the commission, took out petitions. Three persons taking their first step into the political contest for seats on the governing board were Nicholas Raimo, Anthony Iacullo, and Vincent Strumulo.

Fifteen Years Ago

A contribution of $1,245 was received from the children of the Belleville Public School System toward a new four-bed pediatric room in the children's wing of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. The idea for raising the money was developed by Superintendent of Schools Evan Thomas, trustee of the hospital. Great ignity was shown by the students in the various ways in which they had arranged their programs to raise funds, through talent shows, movies, and assembly programs.

Belleville voters were to go to the polls for the purpose of electing two new members to the Board of Education and approving the school budget for the 1971-72 school year. One of the positions to be filled was for a full three year term, while the other was for a two year unexpired term. Six candidates were in the running for election to the two school board seats. They were: Violet Rogach, Ross Fullmore, Michael Rubino, Ralph Baker, George Brown, and Joseph Grance.

Plans were underway for the testimonial dinner-dance scheduled for February 22 to honor Edward O'Neil, Belleville's outstanding citizen of the year. O'Neil had received the distinction of becoming the town's first "Citizen of the Year" in a competition conducted in December by the Times.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Belleville citizens voted to adopt the record 1947-48 school budget in an unusually tight vote. The total votes cast were 84, several of which had been rejected on different portions of the ballot due to incorrect markings. In 1946, 63 votes had been counted in the school election. The budget figure that was adopted amounted to $972,095, an increase of $135,095 over 1946. The school board estimated that the budget would add 23.5 tax points to the 1947 tax rate.

The first step in setting up a unit in Belleville for the purpose of supporting the American Red Cross Program sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews was scheduled at the Forest Hill Field Club. The unit was to be known as the Belleville Round Table. Dr. William K. Ward, former president of the Newark Y.M.C.A., was to be the guest speaker at the dinner meeting.

The Belleville Police Department, under the direction of Acting captain Kenneth Smith, was sponsoring an educational program on road safety throughout the public school system. All local children would become a member of the "1-2-3 Go Club" and would be taught to follow the rules set up by the organization.

Forty Years Ago

Commissioner William H. Williams, director of Revenue and Finance, made the announcement that twenty-two percent of the land in Belleville was exempt from taxation because it was being used for parks, hospitals, churches, schools, public buildings, cemeteries and similar purposes. Of the 2,050 acres in Belleville, 250 of them were devoted to the use of Essex County institutions such as parks, hospitals, and the golf course.

Dayton C. Cory, known to hundreds of thousands of children in the metropolitan area as the "Jack Rabbit Man," was to entertain readers with his stories of Jack Rabbit and Puss-in-Boots. Mr. Cory's tales were to be printed in the Belleville Times for ten weeks.

Fifty Years Ago

Otto Hollberg was appointed a deputy in the U.S. Coast Guard by the secretary of the treasury and left to enter the service at the academy in New London.

Officers elected by the Ladies Aid Society of the Reformed Church were president, Mrs. Harry Lander; vice-president, Mrs. William Adams; Mrs. Frank Boyd, and Mrs. Walter Price; secretary, Mrs. Walter Smith and treasurer, Mrs. Edwin Stout.

Speak Up!

Friends Sees Marotti Plight

ball). And then suddenly high school was over, and we all got drafted and we weren't so tough. Everybody's mother had one of those flags with a star on it hanging in her window. Some guys went to the Pacific and some guys went to Europe, and World War II was officially on the boys from Belleville were in it.

Mike was still the great ball player. He was drafted into the Air Force in 1942—Army Air Force in those days—and when they saw what a good ball player he was, that's where they put him, playing baseball and basketball. Sometimes I used to think that that's why Mike always worked so hard coaching Belleville kids in sports. Just in case there was another war, I figured that he wanted to see them playing ball for the Army, instead of fighting in the front lines.

Anyway when Mike came back in 1946, it was all kids and the Amvets. He helped organize the veterans into the Amvets and got the Amvets and some of the local shop owners started sponsoring all kinds of programs for New Jersey, and the State of New Jersey. He had annual Christmas parties, anything he thought they needed—and later the Amvets organized some teams and leagues—basketball, baseball, softball.

He was Post Commander at Post 26 for eight years, from 1948 to 1956. He was so popular with the vets that the only way he could get someone else into the post commander spot was to get everyone to pass a law to change the constitution so that no post commander could serve more than one year. In 1950, he was named Outstanding Amvet in New Jersey, and in 1960, he was elected State Commander; he'd already served as Vice Commander and Trustee.

Mike could always get a bunch of guys together to help out if he needed to. So, when Warren Knight, Eddie O'Neill, Leo Jackson, Dick Dolan, and Fred McQuillen dreamed up the idea of bringing Little League to Belleville in 1950, Mike was on the spot giving everything he could to the project. And six years later, he started phoning up the Amvets and his old pals again.

The stadium was okay, but the kids really liked a Little League field of their own. You've heard of the "House that Ruth Built." Well, this was the one "that Mike built." He was always doing something for the kids.

Mike got married—that was agreed day in his life—and had some kids of his own—those were the great days too. Mike looked like he was gonna bust a nut. He helped bring a cop working for Ronson they decided to move to Woodbridge, and Mike decided to join the police force. It wasn't even surprising that he was only a cop four years when he got moved up to the Detective Bureau—and naturally—the juvenile Bureau. Just like with the kids, he was in the Police Department. He liked being a cop, he believed in being a cop, and even some people that weren't too fond of cops believed in him. He also served as president of the PBA—of course, 12 consecutive years.

I don't remember Mike being too crazy about politics. He helped "Pete" Rodino in 1948, when he lost to Fred Hartley—Mike was a workman's workman. And he helped a fellow vet named Jim Tully when he ran for commissioner. But Mike wasn't a politician.

Still, when you think about it, he seemed like the right man for the job of Commissioner of Recreation (Parks & Public Property, they call it) when one of the commissioner's resigned last year. So all the guys got together and convinced him he could run. Then, we said, he could do the two things he liked to do best, help the kids and be a cop.

Well, we're right—anyway half right. He's not even in the job six months, and already lights are up on the basketball court on Division Avenue so the jocks can work out until 10:30 at night; and dirt's been donated to use as fill so that tennis courts, and a handball court, and a baseball field, and new basketball courts, and picnic tables be put there in the spring—the projects all set to go. He's got the whole department swinging—free tennis lessons indoors for the senior high school students, a wrestling program on Saturday mornings, free movies on Thursday nights (over 600 kids showed up for the first film), free fencing lessons, and lots more. He's even got a committee thinking up more improvements.

Everything's going smooth, when someone suddenly blows the whistle. So who gets taken to court? Mike. Mike, who never did a dishonest thing in his life. Mike, nineteen years a cop without a blemish on his record. There may be a conflict of duties they say, what with being a cop and a commissioner too. Well, he's not a police commissioner, says I—and a lotta other people—so what's the conflict. Plumbers get elected commissioners and vote on plumbing laws and contracts. Doctors get elected and vote on medical laws and awards. Insurance agents get elected and vote on insurance laws. So, what's wrong with a nice guy whose a cop getting elected and voting on laws that pertain to cops?

Well, Mike's a clean liver. He doesn't have friends in high places and anyway he wouldn't use them. He knows he can do both jobs honestly—the way he does everything else. Honestly. But the judge says no. Mike's got to take a leave of absence, or something. He can't do both jobs at once.

He loves these two things—being a cop and helping kids—but he's got to give up one for the other. And that's a sad thing. Because really good workers in any job are hard to find, and because people who really keep the peace, they make to kids aren't easy to find either.

And there just ain't too many guys like Mike Marotti around.

studied at the American Theatre of Weisbaden in Germany and graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. She appeared in a number of plays. At the American Theatre of Weisbaden she appeared in "Mr. Barry's Etchings". At the American Academy of Dramatic Arts she appeared in "The Glass Menagerie", "As You Like It", and "Boys from Syracuse". She excels in sports also track, basketball, softball, swimming, ice skating, snow skiing and fencing. In addition she is quite the poet. She wrote a poem dedicated to her husband—

"A Woman's Sweet Memory."

"And if my eyes clouded when I see roses, And smell their dewy fragrance in the rain; If I half turn as I am leaving to view their tender loveliness again.

And if you say I am doing to listen to an old familiar tune To capture once again a long lost moment A summer night softly lighted by the moon— And if I smile when I see a young face laughing,

And hear her dreams and plans that once I made With all the youth and hope that I was given;

In a green moss laden summer glade; Then do not think me soft and sentimental When I with years gone by recall the past When I remember all those spellbound moments.

For Darling, I've reached womanhood at last!"

THIS WEEK on my Fort Lauderdale trip I was rather impressed with the intellect and ability of a stewardess who was completing her first month. She is Angie Gabrielle who is a native of Rhode Island and presently is based in Newark. Angie is a real comer and Eastern is lucky to claim her.

ONE OF ITALY'S MOST PROMINENT PUBLIC OFFICIALS spent his Christmas right here in Nutley, New Jersey. He is Mayor Arturo Demasi of Moncalzati, Avellino Province. This is not the first visit Mayor Demasi has made to Nutley. He was a holiday guest of the Ralph Guilbertos.

Mayor Demasi happens to run the town where Ralph was born. During the past few years Ralph and his wife Elizabeth have led a group of Italo-Americans in the north eastern states in various efforts to raise funds to erect an all-war veterans monument dedicated to the natives of Moncalzati who gave their lives in the defense of their country.

Mayor Demasi is a very interesting individual and manifests his excitement over the American way of life—and what matters most of all to us—is his belief that Nutley is one of the finest communities he has ever visited.

LAST WEEK PHIL WHITE and I completed a week's stay in beautiful sunny San Diego. Our base was the Royal Inn at the Wharf—right on San Diego Bay. Every day was a perfect day for sailing—and there were many in the Bay. The San Diego Airport is one block north of the Bay. Seventeen miles to the south was Tijuana, Mexico, and for $24.50 one could take a plane ride to San Francisco—about 600 miles to the north. Phil and I had no such luck. We remained anchored at the Royal Inn in San Diego.

THE RETURN TRIP involved the use of American Airlines to Chicago where we

Music Extravaganza For Belleville's Hulme

Donald Hulme of Belleville, America's accordion virtuoso and the International Accordion Champion, has been recently added to the entertainment slate at Montclair Academy's "Musical Rags to Riches" extravaganza, to be held on Saturday night, Feb. 12 from 8:30 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. at the Academy.

Hulme joins Bobby Doernenick and his Orchestra, The Heritage Barbershop Quartet and the sing-a-long piano of alumnus Rudy Deeten for the evening's versatile music, singing and dancing program.

Hailed as the International Accordion Champion in Italy in 1961, Hulme has distinguished himself on the concert stage, college campuses and at supper clubs in seventeen different countries, performing as well on many of America's foremost variety shows. Reviewed last October in "Variety," Hulme was cited as a "one-man instrumentalist plus a one-man musical show...and who says accordions don't swing? In Hulme's hands, it certainly does."

In addition to his wide acclaim on the accordion, Hulme has recently unveiled a new instrument, "the accordion of the future," known as the cordovox; it has unlimited sound combinations and can imitate more than twenty instruments from organ to harp. This new instrument is featured on Hulme's most recent album, "Sounds Impossible," with Marty Gold and his well-known thirty-six piece orchestra.

The "Musical Rags to Riches" event will feature a potpourri of music, dancing and singing, with a late evening, hot buffet. The event is the first major effort in the School's Alumni Association history to raise the needed funds to support the scholarship program. Twenty-one Academy students are currently recipients of grants totaling $27,372.

The evening will begin at 8:30 p.m. The public is invited and tickets may be obtained at $25 a couple by calling the Alumni Office at 746-9800.

Backed By Recreation

Kids View Free Flick

The Recreation Department, in a cooperative venture with the Belleville Public Library on January 27, presented a motion picture for the entertainment of Belleville High School students.

Nine hundred young people enjoyed "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid" in the Belleville High School Auditorium. Commissioner

Michael Marotti was on hand to see this new program off to a great start. He commended the Library and the Board of Education for their ready cooperation in the event and the young people for their good behavior.

The auditorium movie is a response by the Recreation Department to a recent recreational interest survey conducted by the department at the High School. Donna Vocatura, a student and Senate member directed the survey at the school.

Plans have already been completed for several other activities for High School students, among them tennis lessons and a coed fencing club. Fencing began Tuesday, February 7, and the coed tennis lessons began on Monday Feb. 7 at the Junior High School. Students who attend parochial High Schools are welcomed and may get information at the Recreation Office.

and Gerard Senatore look on. Presentation marked Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci's campaign to project stamp collecting as an educational hobby for students and parents.

Branch Brook Kiwanis Hear Guest Talk

The Branch Brook Kiwanis Club of Belleville recently heard guest speaker Norman E. Smyth at a meeting held in Parrillo's Restaurant.

An estate and trust planning specialist for Fidelity Union Trust Co., Newark, Smyth is a graduate of Manufacturers Hanover Trust School. He also attended Kennedy Sinclair Trust School and has 12 years of financial planning experience with Fidelity as well as prior experience with Travelers Insurance Co. of Hartford as manager in all phases of financial planning.

Introduced by program chairman Leonard Condori, Smyth chose as his topic "Estate and Trust Planning."

Newarker Held For Having Drugs

A Newark man was sent to the Essex County Grand Jury Thursday in Belleville Municipal Court for possession of dangerous drugs.

Frank Luongo, 34, of 229 Berkeley Avenue, Newark, had his case referred to the Grand Jury by Judge Edward Abramson after Luongo was allegedly caught December 14 in possession of Tuinal, a sleeping drug, by Detective Ermin Olivieri.

Smyth briefly outlined the "living or Inter-Vivos Trust," showing the advantages from a personal as well as tax standpoint. Club members called the presentation very interesting and informative. A question and answer period followed, after which a certificate of appreciation was presented from the club.

Blood Bank Director Will Address Board

Robert C. Kammerer, Managing Director of the North Jersey-Exsex County Blood Bank, will address the Executive Board of the Nutley Chapter of the American Red Cross on Monday Evening, February 14th at 8 p.m. Kammerer is one of the most knowledgeable people in the northeast area regarding the recruitment of donors and the collection, storage and dispensing of blood units.

Because this is an opportunity to hear an outstanding authority, the Executive Board decided to open this meeting to the public. Special invitations have been sent to the recruitment chairmen who presently recruit blood donors from the 29 religious, civic, industrial and veterans groups within the framework of the Chapter's blood program.

Mr. Kammerer is in a position to speak authoritatively on all facets of blood programs in general. He will specifically address himself to the present controversy concerning hepatitis as well as the broad area of the new techniques of storing and freezing blood, and the processes by which the components can be separated in use to get the maximum use out of each pint of blood.

The demand for blood is an ever-increasing one, yet it is estimated that the annual blood requirements of the nation are provided by less than 3% of the eligible donor population of the United States, approximately 3,000,000 donors. It is estimated that every day 13,000 units of blood are transfused in the United States—nearly 6,000,000 units per year. We are hopeful that many people will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear Kammerer. The Chapter has always felt that Nutley is fortunate that we have for so many years been associated with the North Jersey-Exsex County Blood Bank which has had such an outstanding record over the years.

Woman's Card Party Tomorrow Night at St. Paul's

The Evening Membership Department of the Nutley Woman's Club will hold a "Country Store" Card Party on Friday, February 11 at 8 p.m., at St. Paul's Parish House, 642 Franklin Avenue, Nutley. It is something new and different for a card party and will hold many surprises for all who attend. Admission price is $2.50.

Camp Merry Heart for Crippled Children will be the beneficiary of this new and different card party. This camp is located in Warren County near Hackettstown and is maintained for the exclusive benefit of New Jersey's physically handicapped children.

Without loss of charm, the rugged aspects of camping have been preserved, modified only to compensate for the physical disabilities of the campers. Paths and roadways are blacktopped and ramps lead to extra-wide doorways, making all buildings easily accessible to wheelchair and crutch traffic. The facilities are of modern construction and include dormitory cabins, a large recreation-dining room area, craft shop, nature study pavilion, trading post, modern infirmary, an official sized heated swimming pool, and a man-made lake which is stocked annually and provisions for camp-outs in the heavily wooded area surround the camp grounds.

Under the direction of trained leaders, selected for their deep insight into the psychology of the handicapped, the camp's program is one of rehabilitation through recreation and planned programs. All campers are encouraged to participate to the full extent of their ability.

Co-chairmen of this card party are Mrs. Joseph Lupo (667-3898) and Mrs. Michael Yanoschak (661-1998) with Mrs. Edward Watts refreshment chairman and Mrs. Frank Iberer publicity. Tickets may be obtained from the co-chairmen of the Card Party.

The Park-Ride, first such facility to be undertaken by the Turnpike, will provide line-stripped spaces for 330 vehicles.

Novolsielski Will Address Garden Club

John Novolsielski, past president and Horticulture Chairman of the Nutley Garden Club will speak on the dangers of accepting the various advertisements and brochures of plants and flowers that are so freely distributed, especially at this time of the year.

Since many of the beautiful and unusual plants illustrated in these catalogues and ads would be unsuitable for this area he will try to inform his audience how to disseminate the facts of this type of advertising.

There will also be a question and answer period on problems regarding lawn or garden.

The public is invited to this monthly meeting at the Garden Club in the Nutley Museum, 65 Church St., Nutley on Friday February 11. Refreshments will be served and there is no charge for the evening.

Mrs. Stewart Talks To DAR On Genealogy

On Monday afternoon January 24, Yanticaw Chapter DAR celebrated its 12th birthday at the regular January meeting which was held at the Historical Society Building on Church Street. Mrs. William H. Happe, Jr., Regent, and Mrs. Ormer Poirier were co-hostesses.

Miss Sandra Dalgleish and her mother Mrs. Ronal Dalgleish of North Arlington were guests. Sandra is the 1971 DAR State Good Citizen, who was chosen from more than 160 New Jersey Senior girls at the Society's Awards Day in Trenton last April. She was from North Arlington High School and sponsored by Yanticaw Chapter. Sandra is a Freshman at Montclair State this year. Two other guests who are DAR members, were Mrs. L.I. Kievit of Passaic and Mrs. A.W. Brouillard of Nutley.

Mrs. Britton R. Halliwell, Organizing Regent of Yanticaw Chapter, the wife of the Nutley Historical president, escorted the guests through the Museum.

Mrs. Campbell Stewart of Nutley, an amateur but expert genealogist and registrar of Yanticaw Chapter, talked about her adventures tracking down one of her ancestral lines—the Hathaway Family in America. The research trips have been a family affair. Mrs. Stewart, a native of Scotland, also enjoys these safaris into the past.

The expeditions to historical societies, cemeteries, court houses, and also conversations with knowledgeable old timers, have taken the Stewarts along the eastern seaboard from North Carolina to Rhode Island. Mrs. Stewart plans to publish her findings and make them available to other members of the Hathaway clan. Her topic was "Climbing The Family Tree."

Your Weekly Horoscope

February 12 through February 18, 1972

Brought to you as a courtesy of

NICOLS PARK ESSO

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Energy builds during first three days of week. Message arrives which warns your heart. Choices are presented concerning personal matter. Get your head on straight. Air my love, and allow wisdom to dictate your decisions. Week screeches to a chaotic close.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Past efforts pay dividend before mid-week. Taurus. Gather yourself together, pet, and enjoy the sweet harvest of your labors. You deserve all good things which come your way. You are one of The Beautiful People, you know, but you are rare, for you are even NICER than you look.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Good intentions will not suffice in days ahead, Gem. They must be followed by ACTION. The road to you-know-where is paved with your good intentions of the past. Dispatch message of love to one at distance. On last day, turn off your motor and tarry awhile with one who tickles your fancy.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Pressure on you to divulge secret, Moonbaby. Don't. Remember old saw that when two people know a secret, it is no longer a secret. Before mid-week, message arrives which makes you glow. You shake off the February doldrums and shift into high gear.

LEO (July 23-August 22): You can no longer remain neutral concerning relationship with partner/mate, Leo. A wise man once said: "To make no choice is in itself making a choice." Mull it over. Time favorable to make wishes and desires known. You have nothing to lose and a heck of a lot to gain. Now get going!

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Off-the-cuff remark made by associate before end of second day could cause you some consternation. Do not allow this dolt to hassle you. You're rather special, Virg, and don't you ever forget it. Unexpected message arrives which makes week bearable. On last day, put on your spiffiest threads and meet with those who share your special interests.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): One close to you needs your aid, Libra. Give it. In so doing, you experience an exhilarating feeling of inner peace. Delightful message arrives before mid-week. Before last day, associate seeks favor. Think once. Then twice. Then judge this cat by his/her past demerits. You understand.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): You are entrapped by the written word before mid-week. Scorp. No one can give you a map for this trip, dear heart. You must bruise through it alone. Week ends on note of folderol.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Week ahead excellent for career advancement. Your opinion is sought by associate. Be honest. Speak the truth as you see it. Anything less (or more) than the truth would be foolishness. Complimentary message comes your way before fourth day. Accept with grace. Games highlighted as week draws to a close. On last day you collapse (well, almost) with mirth.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Cut lines of communication (temporarily, at least) with one at a distance who causes you to become emotionally upset. No sense in courting trouble, Cap. Money matters are highlighted. You gain. Before last day, tackle job you've postponed. Week ends brightly.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Temptation will be great to go overboard concerning the spending of money for frivolous bauble. Save your bread, Aquari. Tender words are dispatched by mid-week. Respond. You hear secret whispered before last day. Ignore it. One who spreads it is a tattletale voyeur.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Before third day, a few kind words will go a long way toward mending one of your fences, Pisces. Vibrations will be unusually strong, and you will understand. Study words to Aquari. Stick close to the ranch this week, dear friend, as a stray is very apt to return. If so, open your heart and celebrate!

BECK'S COLUMN

MAX BECK

It is well known that the largest expenditure for a color TV is the expense for replacing the picture tube. If it fails, many customers ask us how long it lasts.

The answer to this question depends on a number of things, mostly the length of time the set is used per day. If a set is used 10 hours per day, it won't last as long as if it would be used only half that time, this stands to reason. Besides the slow decline due to use there are the failures due to burn-out and short-circuits.

Color TV picture tube manufacturers state that there is a noticeable deterioration after 1000 hours, which would mean approximately about 3 hours a day within a year. Most people use their color TV more than 3 hours a day. Accordingly, if the manufacturers are right, a decline should appear already before the first year is over. A decline of course does not mean a failure, which would be covered anyway by the guarantee.

Most of our customers have service contracts with us. As a general rule we figure that we replace a color TV picture tube after 5 years of regular coverage use, which we consider to be about 5 to 6 hours a day. Our customers with service contracts are always happy to have them when a picture tube fails, which for a 25" tube means over $200. This alone pays for most sets) to $2 years of the service contract. Of course, the replacement of the picture tube is not the only expense for repairs. Within 5 years one has to figure to pay another $250 to $300 for other repairs. Whichever way you turn it, in the long run it won't make much of a difference in your total cost, whether you maintain a service contract or whether you pay as you go. There is a great difference in the performance of your set though if you have a service contract, because you will call a repairman at the slightest failure, while most people without a contract wait hoping that the trouble will correct itself, which it does not, of course.

Although Belleville never got any closer in the fourth quarter, they continued to give East Orange fits. As late as with two minutes to go in the game Belleville trailed by a 75-60 margin before the Panther quickness allowed them to steal six quick points from Belleville.

Smith, Council and Dabney combined for 21 of the 27 points that East Orange scored in the quarter. Belleville's leading scorers of the quarter were Zoppa with 5 points, and Petronaci and Frank Pettie who scored 4 each.

YOU WILL STOP SMOKING ON MARCH 15th

If you join the JACQUELYN ROGERS SMOKENDER Seminars starting in your area... (or, of course, you may stop smoking without SMOKENDERS, if you'd rather).

The trick is: HOW YOU FEEL AFTER YOU STOP. If you want to stop without "climbing the wall" and with a feeling of Reward and, best of all, WITH A SMILE — then come to find out about the JACQUELYN ROGERS SMOKENDER METHOD.

...and love your cigarettes! Remember, this is the method that requires you SMOKE AS MANY AS YOU LIKE while you learn how to break the habit. In small, manageable segments—Step-by-step.

(At risk of being totally unbelievable, we'd like to mention that SMOKENDERS is FUN, too. It's hard to imagine quitting being fun, isn't it?)

So come to a FREE EXPLANATORY Meeting in your area. (No kidding — FREE — to find out. Because we know YOU CAN'T PUSH A SMOKER into quitting. We don't push. But let us warn you! Most smokers who come to find out about the JACQUELYN ROGERS METHOD find it makes a lot of sense, and they can't wait to start!)

If you happen to miss the FREE EXPLANATORY MEETING, COME TO A FREE MINI-BRIEFING 15 MINUTES BEFORE THE SEMINAR STARTS... AND DECIDE THEN.

And it won't hurt a bit. We think smokers are great and treat them with fondness and respect. You see, we were all smokers ourselves who did it with SMOKENDERS. SO COME, but don't expect any of that Scare business or Willpower stuff. And bring your friends. They may thank you for a lifetime...

Burke & Barry is a true Kentuckian. By nature. And design. An old-fashioned, charcoal-filtered sippin' kind of whiskey. So it tastes great that it's polished, mellow, and smooth. So it means great straight. And its reasonable price makes it a natural for mixed drinks. But you be the judge: Try Burke & Barry Blended Whiskey. And taste one of the good things of Kentucky.

Question, Answer Column

By Mary Bowden

The Belleville Times is adding on a new addition to the student page, in an effort to benefit and deal with the problems of our school and community.

The new addition is titled Q.A.P.S. An abbreviation for Questions Answered, Problems Solved. A great new way to help people express themselves or solve a problem.

We realize that some people are afraid to express their opinion or ask questions in fear of being called "stupid". Our new column is going to deal with this. All there is to do is write a letter to:

c/o 73 Bremond Street
Belleville, N.J. 07109

Our job is to try and answer your problem or just hear your opinion about a certain topic.

Your name is not required on your letter but we would prefer it. Just send all letters to:

Q.A.P.S.

c/o 73 Bremond Street
Belleville, N.J. 07109

Word Problem

By Bill Hamilton

Since that great time of darkness, exam time is almost upon us. I decided to write about the deadliest type of question that can ever be asked on a quiz, test, or even exam. Whether you have now or have had Algebra, Geometry, Advanced Math, General Math, or any other such subject, you are sure to have stumbled through a word problem or two. Perhaps you don't understand exactly what a "word problem" is. Let me give you an example:

"If John is three times as old as Jim's sister's friend, Ann, who is twice as old as Tim is younger than Tom, divided by Don's age, then how old is Mary?"

The word problem has become a tradition in our American Educational System, right up there with detention and surprise quizzes. Word problems, quite simply, are a practical application of utter confusion. They are responsible for increasing the vocabulary of all those within hearing distance of someone unsuccessfully trying to solve one of these beauties. Word problems are also very profitable for manufacturers of pencils, for these problems cause the wearing down of not only both ends of their product, but often results in a "frustration-release" exercise done by placing both hands at each end of the pencil and snapping the wrists... as well as the pencil.

This column has been a typical example of someone criticizing an important and established part of our education. But often making fun of something makes it tolerable. Unfortunately, in this case, it probably does not.

If you add up the total number of words in this column divide that number by three, multiply it by Millard Fillmore's age on his thirty-third birthday, then add Mary's age to it, you'll find you will be as totally confused as everyone else. Word problems are a Communist plot to undermine the youth of our nation.

Seriously, at the time of this writing, the school budget was yet to be voted on. If it was passed, I express the appreciation of all students at Belleville High for your support. If the budget was defeated, though, I feel that the voices of Belleville have done a great injustice to the students in Belleville and to this community itself. Regardless, I thank all those who made an effort for both the students and the budget.

Midterm Exams Here

Midterm exams are making their grand entrance on February 14, 1972. The exams are planning on staying for a long visit, which will last throughout the week.

There was a debate on if they should return at all since they sometimes do not help the individual.

Unfortunately they are on their way but are not, yet, come. The very mention of the word "exam" gives most students goose bumps and stomach pains. After the exams return home, many students are left with blood shot eyes and an ulcer.

Many complaints have been pushed around but all there is left to do is worry about them. Now is the time for students to "shape up, or fail!"

Soup's On Next Week

"There's A Girl In My Soup" will open Monday, the East Orange Little Theater reports. The production is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. at the Elmwood School.

Productions are set Monday through Saturday, February 19, at the 8:30 p.m. curtain. Tickets are $1.75.

The play, a light comedy, was written by Terence Frisby and is being directed by Vincent LaMartini. The East Orange Little Theater group is a non-profit, amateur organization.

The Elmwood School is located at the corner of Elmwood Avenue and South Burnet Street, East Orange.

Montclair TV Channel
Now Due in December

Television channel 50, originally scheduled to go on the air this fall from Montclair probably won't begin telecasting until December. The new timetable for programming was announced this week by Dr. Edward J. Meade Jr., chairman of the New Jersey Public Broadcasting Authority.

Dr. Meade called the December date "more realistic" in terms of recent construction delays. Channel 50 has been assigned the call-letters WNJT and will be one of three stations opening this year under the auspices of the N.J. Public Broadcasting Authority. One channel, WNJT (52) is already on the air from Trenton but pictures in the Nutley-Belleville area are snowy. The channel in Trenton features 30 minutes of New Jersey news evenings at 7:30.

Dr. Meade said there was a possibility work on the Montclair channel might be completed prior to December. "If the work is completed and the station is ready to go on the air earlier, we'll welcome the good news," Meade said.

'Bum' Play
Contest Entry

Holy Family CYO is busy rehearsing a one-act play for presentation late next month or early April. Miss. Cindy LePre is the director and the cast is made up of registered members of the CYO at Holy Family Parish.

The play is titled, "Cupid Is A Bum, Is It From, Is A Bum." Members of the parish will be invited to see the production free of charge.

"Cupid Is A Bum, Is It From, Is A Bum" will be Holy Family's official entry into the annual Essex County CYO Play Contest scheduled for this spring.

Pledge Solve Problems

Board Reorganization Sees New Head, Two Welcomed

The Board of Education Monday night went through the formalities of reorganization, greeting two new members and choosing a new president and vice president. Two first-term men were named to the positions.

Richard Mahmarian, a manager with the National Cash Register Co., was elected to head the Board during the coming year while Matthew Pica, elected to the Board last year ago, took the vice president spot. New members G. Fred Burlazzi and James Risoli were sworn in at pre-meeting ceremonies by Mrs. Mary Shader, secretary. The two were elected by the public last week.

Major problems facing the Board the new few months include the current enrollment crisis in Belleville's secondary schools and the restructuring of taxes to fund the system. Mahmarian, in his acceptance speech, pointed out that the Board was "in the midst of making major decisions." The new president called for a united effort to solve these problems.

Mahmarian was elected president by a 5-2 vote. Burlazzi nominated Mrs. Norma McCool to the top spot but she garnered just two favorable tallies. Pica defeated Mrs. McCool for the vice presidency by an identical 5-2 margin. After he was elected president, Mahmarian named Mrs. McCool to replace the Board's all New Jersey School Board Association member.

"My job will be just to keep the members down," he said, offering the Board my guidance," said Mahmarian. He expressed his disappointment at the defeat of former board president Leonard Back and added that he hopes to do as competent a job as his predecessor.

Pica, who was elected to the Board last year, replaces Joseph Cassale, the former vice president who chose not to run for Board reelection. Mahmarian takes over from Leonard Back, the Board president who lost his bid for reelection, finished fourth in a six-man race last week.

Immediate problems facing the School Board are salary negotiations with teachers and trimming the defeated budget, noted by voters last week by only 32 votes. Mahmarian also heads the negotiation team and he indicated that talks will again get underway with teachers. Neighboring Nutley earlier this week settled for a 6.1 per cent package. Mahmarian said he was aware of the Nutley settlement but he made no comment on how it will affect negotiations in Belleville.

The budget will be submitted to the Commissioners for review and it will be their decision on how much money it will take to run the school system.

Workers To Get Less?

Mayor Charges Salary Ordinance Is Incorrect

Apparently Mayor Joseph McGreevy is unhappy with the salary ordinance adopted in December for Town employees. He is now in the process of getting the order changed and is in the midst of preparing a new ordinance, to be introduced in late March.

The Mayor claims to have received a directive from the Economic Stabilization Board in Newark, ordering that increments for Town workers be included in their 5.5 per cent settlement. Ultimately, workers would receive less money than they get now. The current salary ordinance, to McGreevy's chagrin, states that workers receive a 5.5 per cent raise, plus increments.

Town Treasurer Francis McCoy, who with other workers in the Revenue and Finance Department spent four weeks preparing the current salary ordinance now in effect, claims the Mayor used only his own programmed information sent to the Internal Revenue Service to receive a ruling in his favor. McCoy further states the Mayor is using "Chinese accounting" in his figuring for a new salary ordinance.

Factory Blaze Injures Five Firemen Here

A three-story paint factory at 65 Hancock Avenue was destroyed and five firemen received minor injuries in a blaze that brought four companies to the scene February 5.

Chief Carl Hundertpfund of the Belleville-Fire Department said that the abandoned Sonnerborn Paint plant was "for all intents and purposes, completely destroyed" in the fire which was made worse by icy conditions and high winds and required the additional help of the Nutley, Bloomfield and Newark Departments before it was subdued.

The fire was reported to 10:32 a.m. by a plant watchman named Whitehead, who also said that he had chased three boys from the building half an hour before he discovered the fire. Chief Hundertpfund said that there is no conclusive evidence to show that the blaze was set intentionally.

The greatest danger came, said Chief Hundertpfund, when high winds began to blow burning embers over to the Belleville industrial area.

Seeking To Halt Plot Sale

A group of Hill Street residents, against the sale of a small plot of public land in their area, will present a petition tomorrow at Town Hall calling for a halt of Tuesday's public auctioning of the tract. Commissioners have scheduled for public sale Tuesday night a Town-owned vacant lot, measuring 25 feet by 50 feet. Located at 76-78 Hill Street, a minimum bid of $500 will be accepted for the land. Residents, led by Al Schmitt of 61 Hill Street, are opposed to the sale, claiming the tract was set aside for

Lauds His Role As Cop

PBA Leader Asks Public To Support Marotti Efforts

Patrick McCabe, president of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, Local 28, in Belleville, appealed to the people of the Town of Belleville to support Commissioner Michael V. Marotti, Director of Parks and Public Property, in his efforts to keep his job as a policeman.

In complete disagreement with a recent court decision requiring Marotti to choose between his job as a detective in the Juvenile Bureau and his newly elected position as Commissioner of Recreation, McCabe pointed out that Belleville taxpayers become the losers, not only for social reasons, but for financial reasons as well. If the decision is upheld, Commissioner Marotti will have to be replaced. Therefore, there will be no saving to the taxpayer, no salary reduction in public safety budgets, and if and when the commissioner returns to this duties after his term, the man who replaces him during the leave-of-absence period will still have to be carried along with Marotti on future budgets.

McCabe further scored the decision by the courts as "unconstitutional." The fact that a man chooses to be a police officer should not mean that he must give up his rights as a private citizen. The way the law reads now," McCabe pointed out, "it seems to imply that policemen and other public servants are second class citizens and are not qualified to serve their town because of the kind of job they do to earn a living. Such decisions make a man wonder about his future."

Mrs. Senatore Letter Gets An Open Reply

Commissioner Michael V. Marotti, Director of Parks and Public Property, stated this week that he thought it was about time that someone set the record straight regarding the open letter in Times-News written by fellow commissioner Mary Senatore on February 3.

As a man noted for his candor, Commissioner Marotti felt that the simplest and most complete statement of the facts would be best.

"This town has seen too much of this kind of feeh-dishness," he said. "The people are given half the facts, half truths, political who is acting as Marotti's attorney, Judge Byron Connors, has received a letter from an appeal of a verdict to strip him of one of two positions he holds with the Town. The Commissioner will remain in his post as juvenile detective until the suit is argued in the appellate division of Superior Court.

Town Attorney John Scott, to the appellate division as the case of the federal level, it is, most likely by letter, as to his reconsidering the case. I will take no action on Mr. Scott's decision to appeal the case through the state courts but when and if he fails there I will ask that the state be revoked should he appeal it at a federal level."

Scott, if his state appeal falls, intends to pursue the case of the federal level, it is, most likely by letter, as to his reconsidering the case. I will take no action on Mr. Scott's decision to appeal the case through the state courts but when and if he fails there I will ask that the state be revoked should he appeal it at a federal level."

R. Mahmarian Is President

Richard Mahmarian
Named President

New School Board president Richard Mahmarian, a lifelong Belleville resident, hopes to unify educators in solving major problems facing the school system now and in the near future.

In his first remarks to the Board of Education, Mahmarian likened himself as a mediator "to keep temperaments down while in the midst of major decision making."

Born and raised in Belleville, Mahmarian is a product of the local school system. He was graduated from Belleville High School in 1958 and served four years in the U.S. Navy before returning to school. After attending Upsala College from 1958-62 he earned a bachelor of science degree while majoring in accounting and insurance.

A state manager with the National Cash Register Co. in New Brunswick for eight years, Mahmarian received his master's degree in economics and management from Saint Hall University in 1968.

Married to the former Carolyn Cogan of West Orange, the couple has one child, 10-month old Susan. They reside at 483 Jorammon Street.

Now in his last year in his first term in office as a board member, the new president also heads the Board's negotiating team in current teacher salary talks.

Mahmarian, in his free time, enjoys sporting activities and looks forward to spending time in his summer home, located on Long Beach Island. He also belongs to the National Association of Accountants.
