Propose Radical New Zoning Law

Commissioner Mary Senatore Tuesday night introduced a sweeping new amendment to Belleville's existing zoning ordinance which would completely revamp use regulations controlling business zones.

According to Building Inspector Vincent Mustacchio, who was instrumental in assisting Mrs. Senatore in the preparation of the bill, the new measure modify Belleville's existing zoning laws.

"We are attempting to update our business zones," Mustacchio remarked. "We are bringing our business zoning regulations up to 1972 standards. This is the first major revision of the law since it was adopted in September of 1923."

Mrs. Senatore and the Building Inspector worked all weekend preparing the new ordinance and it was adopted by the Town Board Tuesday afternoon. Mayor Joseph McGreevy also viewed the bill and although he had no official comment on the measure it was said he was receptive to the idea.

The new proposal completely throws out the window Belleville's old business zone law. Besides keeping many of the old prohibitions on trades and industries in a business zone, the current proposal adds several taboos to the list.

If the ordinance is passed when it goes before Commissioners for a final vote in two weeks, August 23, several new prohibitions would be seen.

Some examples of those trades that would not be allowed in a business zone would include animal hospitals or kennels, advertising signs or billboards, auto repair body shops, boarding houses, bowling alleys, some banks, hotels and motels, factory outlets, funeral parlors, incinerators, milk distributors, some new car agencies, pool halls and billiard parlors, some restaurants and bars, any type road stands or snack bars, swimming pool clubs, trailer camps, used car lots and used furniture stores.

All totaled, the proposal lists some 43 prohibited businesses in the new type business zone.

Golden Comments

It's strangely unfortunate that some of our better civic minded citizens who dedicate themselves to little leaguers coaching and other activities can become so callous in their regard for their immediate neighbor's health and composure by permitting their dogs to annoy bark incessantly and needlessly.

Good neighbors with compassion for others, when courteously approached to curb the constant yelping of their canines, should not become "huffy" and flout the law.

Ownership of man's best friend is a fine privilege, but also bears inherent responsibilities. The dog should be properly fed and cared for. This doesn't just mean throwing the animal a few bones, but includes kindness, affection and treatment of any illness, otherwise, the dog may become surly, petulant and display his resentment by constant barking to attract attention. All to the annoyance and displeasure of surrounding neighbors who lose sleep and become irritated by the disturbing noise.

Away back in Nov. 28, 1944 the town commissioners unanimously adopted an ordinance, still in effect, which banned any unreasonably loud, disturbing and unnecessary noise in the Town of Belleville. Noise of such character, intensity and duration as to be detrimental to the life or health of any individual is prohibited.

Named in the Ordinance as punishable offenses, include the keeping of any animal or bird which by causing frequent or long continued noise shall disturb the comfort and repose of any person in the vicinity.

Trained dogs don't bark needlessly nor without provocation. Should they be permitted to by irresponsible owners the law provides they may be hailed into court and be fined under the terms of existing town ordinance.

Also, along with this trade about unthinking dog owners who abuse other's property rights is the criticism of those who deliberately parade their dogs along the property of others to leave their "droppings" and blandly walk away.

In Nutley, under Mayor Orechio, who was then Comm. of Parks and Public Property an ordinance was passed which called for the collecting of such official and dog. Providing, otherwise, a complaint might be filed and upon conviction a fine imposed by the Municipal Court. It might be a very good idea if our local governing authorities gave serious thought to offering similar protection rights to all our community residents.

Good dogs are fine animals which, unfortunately can be misused by unkind people to the detriment of society. Let's be a little considerate of our neighbors feelings, we will all profit by this consideration, especially, the animals which depend so much upon our proper care and consideration of their needs, then it is less likely they

Commission Vows Fight Bus Halt

Commissioners here unanimously vowed Tuesday night to fight a petition by Transport of New Jersey to curtail certain bus lines running through Town.

Town Fathers formally agreed to go down in force to next Wednesday's public hearing before the Public Utility Commission and voice their disapproval of the request. Residents affected are also urged to attend the meeting, to be held at 101 Commerce Street in Newark, 10 a.m.

Transport of New Jersey has requested a discontinuance of Saturday service on the No. 28 Summer Avenue line and the No. 30 Bloomfield route. Both bus lines run through Belleville and Commissioners report that should the lines be discontinued it would adversely affect many residents here.

The No. 28 line runs through Nutley and Belleville before its destination in Newark while the No. 30 Bloomfield line is routed through the Silver Lake section of Town.

Neighboring Nutley would also be affected by the discontinuance of the Summer Avenue line and a petition condemning that move is now circulating there.

'Should Be Here'

Mike And Mary Slash Strumolo

Why isn't Vinnie Strumolo here and will he attend the next meeting?

That seemed to be the central question at Tuesday's Commission meeting as three important ordinances affecting the future of Belleville again remained on the table. Apparently Commissioner Strumolo's longterm absence has irked some of the Town Fathers as two of those officials leveled loaded salutes at their vacationing colleague.

Commissioner Michael Marotti called Strumolo's longtime absence from the Chambers "ridiculous" while Mrs. Mary Senatore said Vinnie "had a responsibility to the taxpayers of the Town and should be here." Strumolo has missed three successive meetings.

Mayor Joseph McGreevy has instructed the Board not to act upon the bills until Strumolo returns.

Meanwhile, Registrar Ralph Risoli, who has been sitting in on the Town meetings in place of Strumolo, publicly announced that his Commissioner would be back by the next regular meeting, August 22.

Commissioners then voted 3-1 to again take ordinances regulating the opening and closing of food stores; giving local residents priority at municipal positions; and upping parking requirements for multi-family dwellings from 150 to 200 per acre. Marotti was the lone dissenting voter. Strumolo is reportedly vacationing in Florida.

Mrs. Senatore after the meeting revealed she instructed volunteers to poll the town on the proposed ordinances and these workers took three day last week canvassing Belleville. Although the Commissioner said she has not yet taken a poll, she did say about 60 percent of the residences here were reached.

Charity Carnival Tomorrow

Tomorrow marks the annual Carnival for Muscular Dystrophy held at Municipal Stadium by the Belleville Recreation Department. Booths will be open from 10 to 3 p.m. Residents are urged to attend this charity event.

Each playground from the Recreation Department is sponsoring a booth or stand where chances can be taken and prizes won. There will also be food concession stands.

per cent parking requirements.

The current zoning law here states that multi-family dwellings are required to have 150 per cent parking but an ordinance proposal now before the Board of Commissioners asks that 200 per cent parking be instituted.

"The builders submitted plans showing only 150 per cent parking but I rejected those drawings," stated Mustacchio. "Then the builders came back with 200 per cent parking and I told them I would draw up a building permit. The permit should be ready by the end of this week."

Mustacchio also reports that the building plans show no zoning violations, therefore a variance to erect the apartments is not needed. The apartments, to be constructed on a 27½ by 280 foot lot, will be comprised of three separate buildings.

James and Edward Centanni of Newark are the architects and R. and P. Builders from Bloomfield will construct, own and operate the apartments.

Two Officials Warn Against Illegal Wedlock

Two high Belleville officials who two years ago championed a cause against illegal marriages here are concerned that a recent decision by the State Attorney General could again peril couples wed in Town.

Registrar Ralph Risoli and Town Treasurer Francis McCoy point to four marriages performed by the acting mayor of Irvington as the cause of their concern. Risoli reports that the Irvington marriages are invalid and illegal based upon the Attorney General's decision regarding a similar case in Belleville in June of 1970.

Risoli reports the municipal clerk of Irvington acting as mayor during the latter's absence performed four marriages during his term as acting mayor. These marriages, according to Risoli, are illegal. Pointing to a New Jersey statute, Risoli stated that only the Town's mayor, and not acting or deputy mayor, may solemnize marriages in New Jersey. Risoli focuses upon Article 3, 37-1-13 to back up his claim.

"We've already contacted the attorney general, the assistant attorney general and the Commissioner of Health and Welfare about this situation."

Subterranean Creatures Lurk Under Belleville?

Subterranean creatures? An earthquake? Invaders from Mars?

No one seems to know exactly how or why a huge hole in the earth suddenly appeared in Mrs. Stanley Coeyman's swimming pool, sucking the water and plastic pool liner into the earth where they disappeared. The occurrence was likened to pulling the drain plug out of a bathtub full of water.

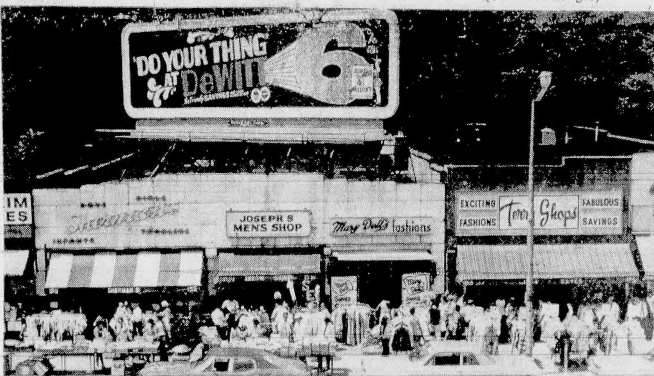

That strange happening took place about two weeks ago and since then other smaller holes have appeared in Mrs. Coeyman's yard. Both baffled and afraid of the mysterious holes, Mrs. Coeyman Monday called the Town to seek assistance. Perhaps, she thought, someone from the Town could offer a solution.

That same afternoon Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, and her assistant, James Soldo, administrative clerk, surveyed the situation. But there was no snap answer. No quick solution or explanation.

Soldo suspected the holes, including the largest one in the swimming pool, estimated to be about six feet deep and eight feet wide, but he was baffled. He instructed Public Works employees this week to report to Mrs. Coeyman's yard and use probe bars to probe the earth there. Soldo, meanwhile, guessed at

20-Year-Old Resident Here Will Run For School Board

STEVEN ROGERS, a 20-year-old Belleville resident, seen here addressing the Board of Education at a recent meeting, has announced this week his intentions to seek a seat with that body.

A 20-year-old Belleville resident, now a sergeant in the U.S. Air Force, has announced his candidacy for a seat on the Board of Education. He is the youngest candidate in the history of the Town to seek such an office.

Steven L. Rogers of 27 Rocco Street, a resident here 12 years, is a 1970 Belleville High School graduate. He joined the Air Force two days after his high school commencement and still has 21 months to serve in the Air Force.

The young political aspirant reports that he has told no school officials of his decision to run for a Board of Education seat, but rather he wishes to "surprise" them.

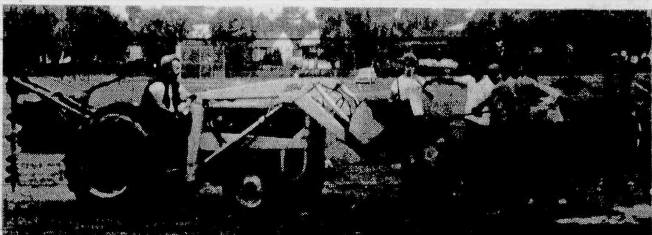

"The first time school system officials will learn of my intentions is today when they read the newspaper," remarked Rogers.

Rogers last month spoke at length at a school board public hearing concerning salary boosts for superintendent of schools Anthony Greco and his assistant Michael Rosamilia. Rogers, who also at the meeting presented a 50-signature petition to the school board, scored school system officials for their handling of the pay boost affair. He strenuously objected to the board's decision to reinstate salary increases to Greco and Rosamilia.

"I'm very dissatisfied with the school system in its present form," said Rogers. "Talking with people over the past several weeks I've found that many Belleville residents are also unhappy with the way the school system is being run. I hope to reflect the dissatisfaction of these people during my campaign."

Rogers, who lives with his parents on Rocco Street, commutes daily to his job as supervisor of the orderly room at McGuire Air Force Base. He believes he will finish his tour of duty at McGuire and his being in the

what might be causing the cave-ins.
"I've seen things like this happen before," he said. "Perhaps there is an underground well there. Or an old cesspool. But I can't really say. I don't know what could be causing the holes."

Mrs. Coeyman, who resides at 15 Ogden Road, reports that her neighbors' yards are slowly sinking. Neighbors say that over the past year their yards have sunk up to two or three feet. The earth is soft and seems hollow, they say.

A tragedy was averted when the huge cave-in suddenly appeared in Mrs. Coeyman's swimming pool. Her son Bret, 9, was swimming one afternoon and just as he left the pool and went indoors to dry himself he heard a sucking sound. As he put it, a swoosh sound. Mrs. Coeyman heard the sound too and as the pair rushed to the window they saw an empty pool. Where there was a pool full of hundreds of gallons of water only moments ago, now just an empty pool with a huge hole in one corner showed.

"I tell people what happened and they reply that something like that is impossible. They say it couldn't happen," added Mrs. Coeyman.

Mrs. Coeyman, her family and her neighbors are baffled by the mysterious cave-ins. They all hope the Town will give them an explanation.

Tire Stealing Doesn't Pay

Three youths were convicted of intent to steal a tire from a parked car and one was sentenced to three months in jail by Judge

Edward Abramson in Belleville Municipal Court July 26.

Joseph Costanza, 20, of 106 Sanford Avenue was sentenced to three months in Essex County Corrections Center. Margaret McElwreath, 19, of 311 Mt. Prospect Avenue and Judith Fenello, 19, of 153 Summer Avenue in Newark, were each fined $250, placed on probation for two years and given three-month sentences, which Abramson suspended.

E.O. Duo Gets Day, In Court

Gerard Genovisi, 30, of 95 Cutler Street in Newark pleaded innocent to a charge of larceny and his case was referred to the Essex County grand jury by Judge Edward Abramson July 26 from Belleville Municipal Court.

The complaint was filed by David Adams, a security guard at Bamberger's department store on Franklin Street, who alleged that Genovisi and another man were involved in the theft of two television sets valued at $550.

Concerned Over Illegal Marriages

tion but they all have deaf ears," remarked Risoli.

Risoli said he has phoned the attorney general's office many times but to date there has been no response. The Belleville registrar has also attempted to contact Dr. J.R. Cowan, Commissioner of Health and Welfare, but has also failed to speak to him.

"It looks as though they are ignoring me," Risoli added. "But it is the duty of the registrar to bring this illegal act to the attention of the proper authorities."

Risoli and McCoy are also concerned the failure by the state to rectify the Irvington situation may have its repercussions in Belleville.

"This may open the door to the performing of illegal marriages in Belleville. Who's to say that if Mayor McGreevy went on vacation that Town Clerk Eugene Barnett wouldn't perform any marriages. He may, and that's illegal," stated Risoli.

Both Risoli and McCoy base their objections upon an opinion by the state attorney general's office stating that a Belleville Deputy mayor was not empowered under state statute to perform two marriages in June of 1970 in the absence of Mayor Kenneth Smith.

Mayor Joseph McGreevy, who was then the director of Revenue and Finance, performed two marriages in 1970 when Mayor Smith went on vacation. Risoli claimed the acts were illegal and brought the situation to the attention of then Town Attorney Nicholas Amato. Amato ruled that "it is the opinion of this office that when the director of Revenue and Finance assumes the duties of mayor pursuant to the language of the Walsh Act, he possessed at that time all the rights and privileges of the office of mayor. Consequently he has the right to perform marriages."

Nutritional Courses

The Department of Agriculture found in a study some time ago that while average earnings of American families increased in the 1955-1965 decade, the nutritional level of the average American family's diet declined. In other words, while earning more we are nutritionally poorer.

The primary cause of this nutritional illiteracy, as it is being called, is a decreased consumption of milk, milk products, vegetables and fruits and an increase in snacks and irregular eating habits—encouraged by television commercials and perhaps by frozen food meals and the hectic pace of American life.

Writing on this subject recently, Henry Heinz proposed a major educational effort be undertaken in the nation's high schools and colleges to teach the nation the facts about nutrition. He also suggests more nutritional programs on the state and local level, aimed at teachers, expectant mothers and others.

In view of recent findings that good nutrition has much to do with mental health, as well as physical, few efforts offer more promise and future benefits than one to teach Americans the facts about nutrition. Certainly it is unacceptable to watch our nutritional illiteracy increase as we achieve progress in various other directions.

Our high schools and colleges particularly—where subjects to teach girls homemaking, budgeting, cooking and sewing are already badly neglected—should act to alleviate this national problem.

Our System

In the world competition between Communism and our capitalist or free enterprise system we are sometimes tempted to defend every phase of the capitalist system. While it is the better of the two, because it offers humans personal freedom, it is far from perfect and every American should keep in mind that in the economic and political contest between the two systems we must constantly strive to improve our own, so that it will survive and spread (by choice) to other countries throughout the world.

Communism has achieved remarkable results in many areas and only a fool or one emotionally blinded would deny this fact. In China the lot of the ordinary man has been vastly improved by the totalitarian system there. Of course, there has always been a totalitarian system there, in effect. But today the mass starvation of past years is gone, education and health care are provided to all, the moral climate is strikingly improved, industrial attainment is exceptional, the cities are clean and the people's morale very high. There is no doubt that a majority of the Chinese would vote for a continuation of the present system.

Once Upon A Time

Once upon a time there was a man who lived in a town and spent all his money away from home. He was sure he could take care of himself and his town didn't need anything from him.

After a few years, his business wasn't as good as he had hoped it would be, his friends didn't seem to think he was quite as important as he thought he was and trade seemed to flow by his door.

The man began to watch his competitor, who was an intelligent advertiser, a contributor to the public purse, a man eager to give his time and thought to community projects and a believer in the fact that it pays to keep money at home.

After noting all these factors, the man continued to wonder why almost everyone had the idea that he was a tightwad but that his competitor was a public spirited leader of the community life.

Dr. Young Is Appointed Belleville High Principal

By Elaine Auerbach

One Year Ago

A Young Democrats Organization was being chartered in Belleville. The group was being guided by Town Democratic chairman Mary Senatore, who hoped to involve the young Bellevilleites immediately in the November General Election. Mrs. Senatore's move was in response to the passage of the 26th amendment which gave 18-year-olds the right to vote.

The Board of Education tabled a resolution which would have frozen salaries for employees of the school system who reached the age of 35. The resolution had been introduced with the hopes of encouraging retirement by employees who reached that age, particularly administrative personnel. The measure was not acted upon because of the absence of board member Mrs. Norma McCoil.

A sub-division proposal involving a 40,000 square foot tract of land was tabled by the Town Fathers after a heated discussion in Council Chambers. The proposal asked the Commission to permit the tract to be divided into nine separate building lots near the intersection of Jerome Avenue and Cottage Street. Several area residents were unhappy with the proposal and it was at their urging that the Commissioners had decided to reserve their decision.

Ten Years Ago

Dr. Ward R. Young, a high-school principal from Fallsburgh, New York, was appointed principal of the Belleville High School by the Board of Education. The board followed the recommendation of Superintendent of Schools Frank M. Durkee, who commented: "The appointment of Dr. Young, together with the recent appointment of Austin J. MacArthur as high school vice-principal, should provide our high school with quality leadership in secondary education."

William A. Sommers, manager of Franklin Township since 1959, was to become Belleville's first town manager and would also assume the duties of town clerk. Mayor Robert Laterza said that Sommers was the unanimous choice of the Town Council and would be formally appointed at a regular Town Council meeting. Laterza termed Sommers a top-flight executive who had expressed the desire to assume both the job of town clerk and town manager. With Sommers holding both positions, Belleville stood to save $10,000.

Members of the Board of Education quoted well-known sayings to each other during a discussion of whether the expense of constructing a fence at School Ten was warranted. George Brown commented that "good fences make good neighbors." Norma McCoil insisted that "haste makes waste." Board Agorney Max Schwartz advised the board that because the property that it proposed to fence was being used for private parking it was mandatory that the board take action. The board voted 6 to 1 to appropriate $744 for the fence.

Fifteen Years Ago

In a report to the Town Planning Board, the Passaic Valley Citizens Planning Association gave whole-hearted support to the efforts of Belleville and Nutley municipal officials to obtain an extension of the Essex County park system by acquiring and developing four connected recreational and flood control purposes both banks of the Third River from Harrison Street to Joralan Street.

The "hospital in the park" opened its doors for the first time to the public. Shown through the new Clara Maass Memorial Hospital by Dr. William Grecco, chief of the medical staff, were Mayor Isadore Padula and Mrs. Eliza Wright, along with other local dignitaries who were greatly impressed with the efficiency and authority that had gone into the construction. At the opening day ceremonies of the $5,000,000 hospital, contributors had the chance to view most of the six-floor, 324-bed building that was designed to serve 250,000 patients.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Two Belleville cyclists, one a veteran in the wheel game and the other an amateur, were to attempt to lower the New York to Philadelphia bike record on a tandem bike. Ed Littig, well-known bike star, and Charles Schneider were planning to set out to beat the existing record of four hours. The men were to ride a specially built tandem bike owned by Clark Albee, a local cycle enthusiast.

The purchase by L. Banberger & Company of Newark of 12.19 acres in Silver Lake was announced by John C. Williams, president of the company. Plans called for the construction of a $2,000,000 warehouse on the site. The property was owned by Thomas A. Edison Inc. and had been leased to Belleville for use as a playground. The site of the structure was four miles from Banbergers and was strategically located in the center of the store's most concentrated delivery area.

Housing continued to be the major problem in Belleville as a survey conducted by The Times-News revealed that more than 450 veterans, many with families, were searching for living quarters. From all indications, there seemed to be no immediate relief in sight for many of the distressed families, some of whom were living under unbelievable conditions. Officials in town agreed that the problem resided with the national government. Congress had steadfastly refused, according to some sources, to provide a decent remedy for the problem which had become national wide.

Forty Years Ago

John Zwajick of Nutley, head of the coffee department of a large chain grocery store organization, told Belleville Rotarians how to make good coffee at the meeting of the Rotary Club held in the Elks Lodge. The speaker, who had imported coffee for a number of years, gave a vivid description of coffee plantations and methods used in countries where the little brown bean was cultivated.

A great disturbance arose at a commission session when Mayor Samuel Kenworthy asserted that Commissioner Frank Carragher had employed his son to hang a fire door in the assembly room of town hall at a salary of $13 a day. The Mayor charged that the younger Carragher had submitted a bill for three days' work that totaled $39. Following the accusation, a three-cornered verbal battle ensued with charges of "liar" and "thief" permeating the atmosphere of the meeting. Carragher and his son declined the charges.

Belleville town attorney John Scott will be kept busy with several pending cases involving the town. One in particular involves an action concerning the Library Boards buying the option to purchase the house adjacent to the main building. The persons who sold the option collected $1,000 from the town on a check which bears then Revenue and Finance Director McGreevy's authorization of payment. Later McGreevy moved to New York City and has persistently refused to authorize payment of the $4,000 balance owed to meet the terms agreed upon by the Library Board. A counter suit has resulted. Watch this one.

It could develop into a precedent setting case, one to have more details about this litigation in pending columns. The trial date is set for Sept. 26th. The case will be heard in Superior Court. The action was instituted by the town's filing Jan. 1970. Counter suit filed Feb. 1970. I'll try to "dig" up more about this matter later.

Talking about the Courts, the State Supreme Court ruled July 25th that New Jersey residents have the right to examine the official records of state and local governing bodies.

The State's top Court said there are three approaches a person may take to get access to public records. 1. The common law right of a citizen to inspect public records. 2. The State "Right to Know" law. 3. The broad discovery procedures available from the rules of Civil Practice if a court case is involved.

The ruling made clear that "The Right to Know" law is afford broad access to public records to all citizens, whether or not they are able to demonstrate any personal or particular interest in the material they seek to examine. As a back-up measure Hudson County Senator Musto is introducing a bill which, if passed, will punish any official who flouts the Court's decision. A good bill.

Received a letter from Mr. J. Santiago of 16 Crescent Terr. Belleville in which he lists his chief gripe as the continual drain upon the fixed income of the senior citizens caused by increased taxes, resulting from salary increases given to officials and employees at all levels of government.

He states, these tax payment increases are not being paid voluntarily, so he asks, how much can we give by force? Continuing he notes Job action, call-in sick calls and strikes by public employees are fights against City Hall that these groups win. Why he inquires can't we do something about this long ignored situation?

We can, but it takes a lot of guts. Such as electing officials with "guts" who won't knuckle under to every pressure group that threatens them if they don't get what they ask for.

By Assemblyman Carl A. Orechio

Brings You Up To Date On His Proposed Bills

In addition to what has been publicized in previous columns, the following is an effort to bring you up to date with the legislation I have proposed so far in this session:

—In addition to the bills listed in a previous column, I introduced Assembly Bill A-1194 which would provide the Mayors of all municipalities with a copy of the Legislative Index in an effort to keep all municipalities abreast with what's happening in Trenton as it relates to Municipal Government.

—Another Assembly Bill, A-1219 would permit a governing body or school board to declare vacant a seat held by a member not attending an official meeting for a period of at least one year.

Still another, Assembly Bill A-1238, mandates that all taxicab companies carry liability insurance limits of at least $25,000/$50,000 and $5,000 medical payments.

ACR-115 creates a commission to study the feasibility of eliminating real estate taxes on one, two and three family owner-occupied homes with a value of up to $50,000 when studying tax reforms.

ACR-109 provides for a feasibility study to replace the 21 county governments with just a few regional governments as part of tax reform study.

Following are a few more bills I have asked be prepared:

A Black Top Acres bill to create a revolving fund making available to municipalities funds at very low interest rates to construct off-street parking and traffic control systems.

A-1334 mandates welfare recipients to appear in person for proper identification except under certain conditions of disability in an effort to weed out frauds.

Another bill would create a task force to look into state government spending in an effort to reduce possible waste in considering tax reforms.

Very often a legislation is called off the floor during the session making it impossible to vote when a vote is called for. Some newspapers record a legislator's voting record and under the circumstances when the present system, the legislator would be recorded as having abstained which could conceivably have the connotation of indecision.

The system is such that a legislator could be present and be recorded "present" when the session opens and leave for the rest of the day — his record would be one of abstention for the entire day.

There is no provision for being excused on an emergency or for illness, giving the impression that a legislator was absent.

I have asked that the rules be amended to provide for a legislator to record his vote if he or she is called off the floor and to also provide for a recording of the fact that he or she was excused after having first checked with the Speaker. At any other time or under any other circumstances the legislator would be recorded as being absent or as having abstained when a vote is called for.

I have also asked that bills be prepared to provide for:

Studying the feasibility of municipalities taxing the state and counties for real estate owned in the municipality; another one mandating that the same election polls used in other elections be used for Board of Education elections; polls to be kept open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Still another would be that the same rules regarding the publishing of campaign expenses apply to candidates for other elections — be applied to Board of Education candidates throughout the state.

We have also asked that a bill be prepared to provide for the elimination of alcoholic beverages from the Fair Trade Act of New Jersey in an effort to reduce the cost of alcoholic beverages to the consumer.

—Another bill would permit municipal governing bodies to accept additional information and testimony when reviewing decisions made by zoning board of adjustment, thereby eliminating much confusion and frustration when adjustment board decisions are being considered.

—Please send along any ideas you may have for legislation which will make ours a better way of life. I'm at 47 Washington Avenue and can be reached at 667-4000

Luzzi Gets Managing Post At Hearthstone

James F. Luzzi of 217 Greylock Parkway, Belleville, a satisfied policyholder who became an agent for the Hearthstone Insurance Company of Massachusetts three years ago, has been promoted to a management position.

Daniel Pishnock, manager of Hearthstone's New York-New Jersey region, said that Luzzi, 45, was advanced in recognition of his leadership ability and his emphasis on service to policyholders.

Hearthstone, which specializes in the sale of low-cost accident and health insurance protection to individuals mainly at their places of work, is a subsidiary of the Combined Insurance Company of America, Combined, with international headquarters in Chicago, will observe its 50th anniversary in November.

"Our agents visit every policyholder every six months, not only to renew their coverage but to answer any questions and help them in any way they can," Pishnock said. "Many companies rely on the mail or telephone to renew, but we find the personal touch is important. Jim Luzzi has been particularly effective in this area."

N.J., served in the Merchant Marine during World War II and later worked in his family's package store and tavern. He had sold the business and was looking for something else to do when a Hearthstone agent called to renew his accident and health policy.

The agent convinced Luzzi to join Hearthstone. That was in May, 1969. Since then Luzzi has won nearly every award for sales and service that

Real Estate Office Here Plans School

The newly-opened Govel Associates real estate office at 544 Washington Avenue in Belleville, is setting up a six-week school program which will train people to obtain listings on residential properties. The school will begin in September and the class will meet twice weekly on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

"Our objective is to teach these people, specifically women who are looking for something to do, the fundamentals of real estate listings," said William W. Govel who heads Govel Associates. "If they qualify, we will pay the tuition for those who would like to continue in the field by taking a real estate course at a recognized school."

Those who take the real estate course must sign a one-year contract to work for Govel Associates when they complete the course.

The Govel firm is specializing in rentals and management of apartment buildings, resale homes in Hudson, Bergen and Essex Counties, and sales and leases of industrial and commercial properties.

Govel said he is seeking applicants from communities within the three counties his office serves. "We want to teach the students how to get listings in their own community and prepare them for the real estate course."

Govel, whose firm will be managing more than 15 apartment buildings in his immediate area, points out that he has built-in customers for resale homes who now live in the apartments.

Tri-Chem, Inc. Lists Earnings

Tri-Chem, Inc. today reported record sales and earnings for the six month period ended June 30.

Saul Skoler, Tri-Chem president, reported that sales volume for the first half rose 22 per cent to a new high of $3,722,913, versus last year's record of $3,056,224.

Net earnings for the six month period, also at a record high, rose 33 per cent to $283,560, from last year's record total of $213,873. Earnings per share for the six months totaled $.58 on 400,203 average common shares outstanding up from $.45 for the same period last year.

Skoler, in reporting results, noted that promotional efforts for both Tri-Chem body products and Beauticon cosmetics have been highly successful and were in part responsible for having the company exceed budget targets during the second quarter. In addition, recruiting of new demonstrators continued very strong.

Tri-Chem is engaged in the manufacture and sale of body products and cosmetics. The company markets its line of products directly to the consumer through a nationwide network on the home party plan.

Tri-Chem's shares are traded Over-The-Counter and carry the NASDAQ symbol TRIC.

Try an egg-yolk facial mask - it dries hard to tighten muscles, close pores, and really CLEAN your face. Apply raw yolk to skin, let dry, wash off with lukewarm water.

For a diamond-shape or triangular face, the most becoming hairdo features soft fullness across forehead and out to temples, to give width and balance. The right cut leaves it curling just above jawline.

Glycerine (from pharmacy) softens hands magically. Massage in well, and if hands feel sticky, run a little water over them and pat lightly with a soft towel.

If you have greasy eye makeup in hot weather, use eyebrow pencil in the crease of your upper eyelid, then rub it in to make a subtle or dramatic shadow.

New Dimension Added To Vehicle Inspection

Director Ray J. Marini today said New Jersey has added a new dimension to its Motor Vehicle Inspection program - a mobile inspection lane.

"On July 25, the Division's mobile inspection unit began conducting random, roadside inspections of vehicles registered in New Jersey," Marini added.

The Division has launched this new inspection phase as part of its continuing efforts to promote greater highway safety in the State.

Marini emphasized that these spot checks won't replace a motorist's annual trip to the inspection station. "Although his car passes a spot or regular inspection, it's every motorist's obligation to maintain his car in safe condition every day of the year," he added.

Any New Jersey passenger vehicle, motorcycle or truck under 6,000 lbs., may be asked to pull over for a five-minute inspection. Division Enforcement officers are working with the mobile inspection team to insure that the roadside checks do not interfere with normal flow of traffic.

The mobile lane which is

Turnpike Authority Plans Wildlife Preserve, Park

The New Jersey Turnpike Authority, with the cooperation of the Hackensack Meadowlands Development Commission, is preparing a plan for a combined Park-Conservation and Wildlife Preserve along the Hackensack River in Ridgefield and North Bergen, north of Paunpeck Creek.

The park-conservation plan originated with Turnpike Authority Chairman Alfred E. Driscoll as a means of protecting the marshland and at the same time dedicating a substantial amount of property for public use in perpetuity as part of the Turnpike's beautification program. "This will represent one of the first steps in the improvement of the area," Chairman Driscoll said.

Various suggestions were made by members of the Authority for the development of the park-preserve, enabling the public to experience the natural meadowland environment.

The site will be approximately 85 acres with about two miles of land along the Hackensack River. The natural river edge is an ecologically vital buffer between land and water, and is the most productive portion of a marsh used by waterfowl for feeding.

It is anticipated that the land dedicated for use as a Conservation Wildlife Preserve will forever remain in its pristine condition. Most of the park area would also be left in its natural state, but with rustic wood plank walkways, some of which may rise with the tides and serve as viewing points of the myriad forms of marsh life.

While only a few types of mammals still inhabit the Hackensack Meadowlands, there is an abundance of waterfowl, shore and field birds. During a six-year period some 205 species of birds were sighted. While the number and kinds of birds vary with the season, some of the more common are: Mallards, Black Duck, Teal, Ring Necked Pheasant, Killdeer, Rock Dove, Marsh Wren, Mourning Dove, and Red-Winged Blackbirds. It is expected that several tidal pools will be created within the preserve. These pools produce many forms of marsh grass that attract and sustain bird life.

In addition to providing access to the valuable marsh along the river, to those persons already knowledgeable and appreciative of life in the marshes, the proposed Park-Preserve may serve as an environmental education center.

Many people have an impression of the meadowlands as only a place to dump garbage or simply a wasteland. The proposed preserve will create an opportunity to create an awareness in the general public of the unique natural history of the meadowlands, the large amount of life that had managed to survive despite the degradation of the marsh and the value of preserving the marsh.

Congenital defects, especially in the heart of the circulatory system, occur in only a very small percentage of children. The causes of these defects are many times unknown. It is important, however, for the expectant mother to guard herself against such exposures as the exposure to gamma rays, X-rays, and other ionizing radiations. Mothers should also guard against contracting colds. Protecting the health of the mother during pregnancy protects the unborn child as well.

Japanese Beetles Coming Out Now

Japanese beetles are emerging from the soil and will continue until August, says William F. Munk, senior county agent of Essex County.

More than 250 species of plants are included on their menu including roses, zinnias, cannas, Boston ivy, Virginia creeper, and rose-of-Sharon. Japanese beetles also have a taste for birch, elm, horse chestnut, and linden trees as well as the foliage and fruit of the grape, raspberry, and peach.

Mr. Munk advises daily handpicking or weekly spray or dust applications to protect foliage where there's a high population of Japanese beetles. If you find just a few, pick them off.

Methoxychlor, rotenone or carbaryl (Sevin) will provide adequate control. However, carbaryl has its limitations. Mr. Munk says carbaryl will damage Boston ivy, and recommends applications of rotenone or methoxychlor for home vegetable gardens.

And then there's the man who misses his wife's cooking—when he gets the opportunity.

Actors Cafe Theatre Lists New Production

The Roar Of The Greasepaint, The Smell Of The Crowd is being held-over for a seventh week through August 12th, at The Actors Cafe Theatre, East Orange.

The show, which has been playing to capacity audiences, has such hit tunes as "The Joker," "Who Can I Turn To?" "A Wonderful Day Like Today," etc. Mark Gerstein and Gary Cohen head up the cast as Cooky and Sir.

The production of Bell, Book and Candle will now be playing four weeks from August 17th through September 9th.

Mature Singles Sponsoring Trip To Smithville

The Mature Singles Club of Nutley will sponsor a bus trip to Smithville Inn for luncheon on Saturday, September 16th. The Club, which meets at St. Mary's Church, is non-sectarian and not limited to residents of Nutley. It is open to all interested persons.

Other social events are being planned, including a week-end in New England in October, and a Caribbean cruise in November. A recent barbeque was a great success. Reservations for the Smithville Inn trip, as well as other details, may be secured by phoning Margaret Wasdyke (759-4411), Helen Lane (667-8838) or Marion Luffing (759-7730). ANIMAL FUN - Cookie the Clown makes it a point to visit the children at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital and show John Poole of Nutley how to blow a balloon into the shape of a poodle.

WHERE'D IT GO? - Cookie the circus clown, while entertaining pediatric patients at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital tells Walter Demowski of Nutley - "Now you see it, then you don't."

Cookie The Clown - The Kids' Friend

The children in the Pediatric Unit of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital were entertained recently by Frank Carbone of Jersey City. Mr. Carbone is also known as "Cookie" the clown from Ringling Brothers Circus. Cookie portrayed the quiet sad face tramp clown. The smiles and laughter from the patients encouraged Cookie to continue to make each one an animal from a balloon as well as giving them a lollipop.

It was a new experience for some of the children, just to be in a hospital not alone to be visited and entertained by an authentic clown. Cookie has been with the big name circus show for 17 years and has appeared on several television shows. At this time he is donating his time to hospitals and institutions to bring happiness and joy into the lives of those less fortunate.

Met a lovely couple this past week — Bill and Lillian Walsh. They were married in Dillon, South Carolina on February 20th and remarried in St. Mary's Church, Nutley during March. They returned from a jaunt to Florida and were celebrating Bill's birthday at American Legion Post 105 on July 30 and son Bill, jr.'s birthday — same date.

A few seats away were Jim Carlo and Jack Griwert. Chatting with the younger set, found out they are still enjoying bachelor days. (daze?) Jim is engaged to Florence Baskin of Kearny and the date is set for November 4th. Florence teaches mathematics at Franklin Jr. High in Nutley and, in fact, friend (?) Jack introduced the couple to each other. Jim is a Junior at Jersey City State and plans to be a teacher also. Jack is engaged to Jolinda Rubino of Belleville and their date is set for May 20, 1973.

Mr. and Mrs. George Doeflinger attended the 35th wedding anniversary of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Smeltzer in Bellville New York. Daughter Lisa Doeflinger and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Neil Helfrich of Kearny also attended the event. The Smeltzers have two children...congrats!

Get well wishes are in order for two members of American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 299 — Mae Verderosa who should be home from Clara Maass by now, and Mae Borsi who is in St. Vincent's Hospital, Montclair.

At the car wash, held every Saturday at American Legion Post 105 as part of my summertime employment for teens, met a real lively lady — Emily Longo. Emily is a very friendly blonde who works for National Tube & Reel in town.

Mucho happiness — it's a boy...another addition to the Ray Kinsley clan. Ray and wife Elizabeth <name grand- parents — again, and again and again. Daughter Shirley and hubby Ed Quist added

Edward Raymond Quist to the fold. The couple have another son, one year old "Young Willy". The new arrival is named after his maternal and paternal granddads — Ray Kinsley and Ed Quist, sr. of Lyndhurst. When I asked Ray how many grandkids this made, he said "6". a short time later, he reflected and said: "ohmygosh...it's 8...or is it 9?" In any event, best wishes to all.

Yvonne Klinger heads up the Sunday babysitting at St. Peter's Church for Masses 10:45 to noon, so no excuses you can't attend Church.

Father Mink of St. Peter's, Lisa Doeflinger, her mom, Betty, Lorraine Parillo, Margaret and Judy Whelan, Mary Lou Marton, John Horuz and Bill Cook were among those representing the CCD Summer Program at St. Peter's who were invited by Father Olsen of the Jersey City CYO to a swim Saturday July 30th. The Confraternity Christian Doctrine is a three hour program held on Saturdays during the summer in which 73 children participate working with arts, crafts, religious instruction, playground activities and refreshments. They had a wot of a time.

Leafhoppers Feed On Garden Plants

Leafhoppers are small insects, not over one-half of an inch long, and they feed on foliage of almost all types of plants, usually sucking plant juices from the undersides of leaves, says William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County.

They hop or fly away when disturbed. They hold their wings in a roof like position when at rest.

The removal of plant juices from foliage results in a loss of color, frequently in a stippled pattern. Some leafhoppers act as carriers of plant diseases, notes Mr. Munk.

A good example is aster yellows, a virus disease known to those home gardeners who grow asters.

Leafhoppers can be controlled by applying insecticides. Those most frequently used by home gardeners include methoxychlor, carbaryl (Sevin) or diazinon.

Systemic insecticides such as Meta-Systox-R and dimethoate (Cygon) or De Fend) are also good for leafhopper control.

Senior Citizens Have Fun

Under the sponsorship of Commissioner Michael Marotti, the Belleville Senior Citizens Day was celebrated July 27 when seven busloads of people traveled to Asbury Park. From all reports, it was a wonderful outing, with a special thanks from the Seniors to the busdrivers who were most friendly and helpful. At the end of the day, the Seniors had dinner at The Homestead Restaurant, Ocean Grove. Comm. Marotti was there and made many new friends as he table-hopped, checking to see that all were enjoying themselves. It was a truly memorable day for the Seniors and, best part of all, it was free. A cent. P.S. thanks for your postcards and gifts.

Summer Employment

Many of you are aware that on Memorial Day the age-old cry of "what shall we do this summer?" by teens, prompted me to start a Summer Employment Program. The idea was to get jobs for the youngsters that adults would normally not be seeking - cutting grass, babysitting, etc. Over 100 teens filled out applications at the Jr. and Sr. High Schools and were interviewed by adult volunteers at the Belleville Public Library. After forming the adult volunteer committee, the paperwork deluge began and we were off - to try and find jobs for teens.

So far, we have placed many teens in jobs - whether for a day, week or entire summer. As an adjunct to the Program, a Car Wash is held every Saturday (weather permitting) on the premises of American Legion Post 105, Washington Avenue. For
$1.50 the car is cleaned inside and out...so, c'mon down!

We still have the entire month of August and many teens to place in jobs. We have a pool-cleaning specialist, painter, your name it, and we can fill the bill. Last week I was pleased to receive a phone call from Mrs. James (Florence) Dantonio. Florence hired a teen, a 13 year old girl, to mow her lawn, cut bushes, etc. etc.
Florence told me she had never had the work done so well and, indeed, intended to keep the youngster as a permanent "gardener". It's real nice to hear this report and the young girl who worked so diligently was Marita Hochstul.

Try it, you'll like it, you'll save time and energy for yourself. Remember - busy hands are happy hands, help keep Belleville teens happy.

Keep the following phone numbers handy when you wish to Hire a Teen: 759-7254
... 759-3404 ... 751-6861 (next week, a look at the adult volunteers for this effort)

A Final Word

Dat's it - it's nice to be with you, and please don't be shy - your news is our news, so...what's new? For continual coverage simply add my name and address to your group's mailing list - or - call me at the above number.

The Belleville Playgrounds Program last week exhibited arts and crafts projects made by local children. The showing, called a huge success by local officials, was held Wednesday through Friday at the Belleville Public Library in the main level on Washington Avenue.

lanterns, potholders, telephone wire rings, fun-film flowers, macaroni vases, relief assemblage with goldenfoll, soap sculpture, home-made clay projects, hoplades, crafts stick jewelry boxes and napkin holders, looper dolls, paris craft figures, rice relief pictures and the famous "hot-diggity-dog" of the Stadium.

Exciting Week

Crafts Program Called Success

This has been an exciting week for the crafts program of the Belleville Recreation Department. Many of the kids took part in the Arts and Crafts display at the Public Library last Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday and were quite excited and proud about having their projects on display.

Despite the fact that many of the children are on vacation and could not participate there were quite a few things on display. In fact, there was only one small table left empty so that it might be used by the people who came in to read.

The show represented a good cross section of what has been done thus far in the crafts program. There were quite a few variations of popular stick projects on one table while another table was occupied by looper dolls. There was a table filled with metal craft with an attractive display of flower making and bottle decorations next door.

There were a number of home-made clay projects as well as a few Ivory Soap Sculptures. A great amount of paper projects were there including the stand-up village made by Karen Ferrero of the Recreation House.

All in all, the exhibit was a success and quite a bit of fun to observe thanks to Mr. Hickey of the library. For all those who are going to the carnival on Friday, Aug. 11 at the stadium there will be another exhibit of this kind.

Prescriptions With Aspirin Get Warning

The New Jersey Pharmaceutical Association announced today that effective August 14, all prescriptions containing any amount of aspirin, intended for human use in oral dosage form must be dispensed in "child-resistant" packaging.

The safety closure development mandated by the new Poison Prevention Packaging law and implemented by the Food and Drug Administration, is the culmination of a campaign initiated several years ago by the NJPA to combat the rising tide of childhood mortality caused by ingestion of over-the-counter aspirin. Association President William Fogelson points out, "Through the years, thousands of children have died because they got into medicine containers and swallowed the contents," Fogelson explained.

"Now, aspirin-containing products must be packaged with push-down, turn-off or palm turnoff types of safety closures which meet federal requirements that 85 percent of children under four years of age in the test fail to open them."

The only exception, Fogelson noted, is for elderly or handicapped adults in childless households who may have difficulty opening containers with safety features. In such cases, physicians or purchasers may request that the product be dispensed in a container without a child-resistant closure.

Fogelson said that beginning Oct. 24 the safety closure requirement will be expanded by FDA edict to include the packaging of products under the Controlled Substances Act.

"This means prescriptions containing any amount of narcotics, amphetamines, barbiturates or similar potent drugs that are subject to misuse," he added.

And then there's the man who misses his wife's cooking-whenver he gets the opportunity.

TRAVEL TIPS by Thompson

If you plan on driving a car in Europe, you might need more than your U.S. driver's license. Some countries require you to use an International Driving Permit and, in Western Germany, your U.S. license must be translated into the native language.

One great way to meet people in a strange city is to get lost in it. Local citizens are often more than obliging when it comes to giving directions and helping you find the un-touristy fun places where they, themselves, go.

CONSUMER CORNER

IT'S UP TO YOU

Each year, clothing fires claim the lives of some 3,000 people and are the cause of injury to an estimated 250,000 others. Worst yet, children make up the biggest group of victims.

Reducing this peril is up to you!

The first thing you can do is make retailers aware of the tragic statistics and demand that more wood be used in the clothing you buy for your children. Besides being comfy for kids and easy to care for, wool is a natural flame resistant and a lot safer than most other fabrics available today.

The next thing you can do is let your congressman know just how you feel about the present law under which manufacturers needn't make a label distinction between their flame resistant products and the flammable products they make before July 1972. Until this law is changed, you'll never be sure whether the clothing you buy for your children is safe or dangerous. Unless, of course, they're made of wool.

New Hope Automobile Show Begins This Week

Interest is riding high and it's full speed ahead for the upcoming Fifteenth Annual New Hope Automobile Show which will take place on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 12 and 13. It is being staged on the grounds of the New Hope-Solebury High School, Route 202, New Hope, Pa.

Roger Condit, Show Director, reports that entries for the twenty-two categories are pouring in, revealing some new and unusual contenders to compete with a full slate of spectacular cars in all the divisions.

Your Weekly Horoscope

(August 12 through August 18)

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Travelling is your bag, Ari, so toss your things in a tote and take off, if only for a tiny trip. You will return with renewed vigor and your head on straight. Before week is over, you stumble onto first-rate idea which could help solve old riddle.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Opportunity beckons, Taurus. You may have to hurdle a few fences to take advantage of it, but so what? Contrary to popular opinion, very often the grass truly is greener on the other side of the fence. You'll never recall how lenny you're willing to give it a go.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Confrontation with associate likely, Ari/Leo involved. Since Ari and Leo are both fire signs, and you are an air sign, spontaneous combustion apt to occur. Keep fire hose handy. Energy returns slowly and on last day you are as brisk as a bee.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Tidy up the joint, Moonlove, for you are most apt to have unexpected guests. And while you're at it, don't forget the medicine cabinet. A quick peek by outsider could prove most embarrassing, right? Tensions mount as week wears on. Launch pacification program in your own back yard.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Some anxiety is normal, Leo, but you must learn difference between what is normal and what is neurotic. Normal tension is needed to function, but becomes harmful when wasted on imaginary problems. Ease pain of another who suffers and you gain inner calm. Take five minutes a day to relax and s-i-r-e-t-c-h.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Energy may be low, Virg, so don't push yourself. Avoid those who hassle. Pick up a paperback (something totally frothy) and head for the nearest hammock or swing. Eat lightly, drink plenty of fluids and don't mess with Old Man Sun. Week ends on key of B for beer, barbeque and bikini. Ummm.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Week begins in humdrum fashion, Lib, but by fourth day you have chance to experience true joy. Just remember that joy is for sharing, so don't be piggy. Week ends with a giggle.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): After tacky beginnings, pave lives. Do not permit moochery to sweet-talk you into parting with cash/valuables. Casual relationship takes on new dimension. Scorp. Feeling of intensely permeates.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Old guilt knocks at your front door. Be a sly devil and sneak out the back. Mind Olga and weak passers rather splanterly. Study advice to Scorp for additional message.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): At times, you are a regal dickens, Cap, and week ahead is one of those times. Bask in the secret knowledge that your great expectations will be partially fulfilled.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Fantasy is highlighted. Dreams within dreams prove puzzling. Conserve energy. Where is it written that ALL dreams must be understood? Some are just for enjoying. So enjoy.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Red hot week ahead, Pisces. In several ways. Romantic situation should warm. That's the good news. The bad news is that the cherries jubilee may burn your little tongue.

Bell Defends Itself Against Discrimination

The Bell System is unequivocally committed to equal opportunity in its employment policies and programs. This was the chief thrust of testimony filed today by Bell Companies including New Jersey Bell — before the Federal Communications Commission in response to charges of discrimination brought by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Rocco J. Marano, personal vice president of New Jersey Bell, testifying in the EEOC case, described his company's Affirmative Action Program as one of the most far-reaching in the country. "I know of no better plan or better overall record" in minority recruitment, he said.

The Affirmative Action Programs, implemented on the local level throughout the country, contain specific goals and timetables for utilization of minorities and women. The goal is to achieve a work force that approximates the percentages of minorities and women in the relevant labor market.

Examples of this progress at New Jersey Bell included the following:

In the past three years, while the total New Jersey Bell work force increased by 20.6 per cent, blacks in the work force increased 47.2 per cent and Spanish-surnamed Americans 14.1 per cent.

In the same period, minorities accounted for about 23.9 per cent of all company hiring.

Women held 33.8 per cent of all management jobs and in the last three years, an average of 345 women have been promoted to management annually.

By the end of December, 1971, women held 49.7 per cent of first and second level management jobs in facilities and in engineering, jobs previously held by men.

In 1969 and 1972, the company awarded major contract projects to firms employing a work force largely of locally recruited minority people.

American Telephone and Telegraph Company, in the testimony filed with the FCC, said the Bell Companies have been unjustly maligned by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). In a summary memorandum it accused the EEOC of "hyperbole of monstrous proportions"; of seeking to shift the focus of equal opportunity to equal representation.

and of ignoring the realities of the labor market and the companies' mission of providing good telephone service at reasonable cost.

Despite these factors — and contrary to the EEOC's allegations — the Bell Companies have a good record in utilizing women and minorities, and have developed specific programs that provide for even greater progress in the future, the company said.

John Kingsbury, AT&T witness, conceded that the Bell Companies "have much further to go," but he disagreed strongly with EEOC charges which apply current standards as discriminatory because they are not consistent with 1971 views is unfair and improper, Mr. Kingsbury said.

"In its zeal in trying this case against the Bell System," he continued, "the EEOC has failed to recognize that the primary reason that the Bell System exists is to provide communications service to the American public, not merely to provide employment to all comers, regardless of ability."

Seven other witnesses from AT&T and 20 from Bell System operating units also filed testimony today.

ARMY'S MAIL — Master Sergeant Joseph A. Proposed Nutley Law Would Open Liquor Sales On Election Days

Nutley is about to join other municipalities in New Jersey and permit liquor sales on election days.

A public hearing on election-day drinking comes up at Town Hall next Tuesday night. So far, not a single person has expressed any opposition to easing the drinking restrictions in town.

Most of Nutley's liquor licensees have wanted the town to legalize election-day sales for some time. But former Mayor Harry W. Chenoweth objected to amending the appropriate town ordinances.

Mayor Carmen Orechio, who like Chenoweth is a non-drinker, says he sees no reason why election-day liquor sales should be banned. When a petition signed by nearly all liquor store and tavern owners was submitted to Orechio asking for an amendment in the law, the Mayor agreed.

Despite Chenoweth's

earlier reservations about election-day drinking, he joined other Commissioners in adopting the liquor-law change on first reading three weeks ago. The final reading of the law, along with a public hearing and expected adoption, is scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday at Town Hall.

If adopted, the change would be effective in time to keep local polls running this Presidential Election Day — the next election date in town.

Other parts of the town ordinance governing taverns remains the same, namely: that premises close between 2 and 7 a.m. week days, and remain closed Sundays until 1 p.m. The Nutley law makes an exception for New Year's Eve when all night openings are allowed.

Frank LoCucchio of the Brook Tavern was the most recent license owner to address Commissioners on the subject of election-day drinking. LoCucchio favors passage of the ordinance up for public hearing next Tuesday.

'Score' Elects Joseph Dowling New Chairman

Joseph A. Dowling of Nutley has been elected chairman of the Montclair-area chapter of SCORE, a national organization of retired successful business executives.

The group acts without pay as counselors to small business owners or persons contemplating going into business on their own. The group is a function of the Small Business Administration.

Dowling resides in Nutley at 181 Raymond Avenue. His election as chairman is for a one-year term.

Prior to his retirement, Dowling was comptroller of accounts with the Johns-Manville Corporation, New York.

The Montclair SCORE Chapter has about 26 active members who render a free consulting service to small business in large areas of Essex, Sussex, Morris and Warren Counties.

Famous Piano Team Set At Arts Center

International favorites are appearing at the Garden State Arts Center this week with the brilliant piano team of Ferrante & Teicher on stage Monday night and Pavel Visky's Ukrainian Dance Troupe performing in six days.

The Ferrante-Teicher team is presenting its "Strike Up The Drums" at the Holmdel showplace for the first time in its one-night engagement.

The Visky dance ensemble, also in its Arts Center debut, present three more night performances, today through Saturday, and matinees at 2 o'clock this Saturday and Sunday.

The Visky dance ensemble, in every area of the entertainment world, have scored rousing successes in concert halls throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. Their unique brand of entertainment, combining spectacular piano pyrotechnics with delightful wit, is in such great demand that their bookings generally run two to three years in advance.

The team plays some 125 dates annually and travels more than 200,000 air miles. This takes ten months every season and does not include special appearances with large symphony orchestras. At tour's end, the remainder of the year is spent composing, arranging and recording albums for United Artists and fulfilling guest appearances on major network television shows.

Their superb artistry is exemplified in their recordings. They have sold more than twenty million records, an achievement no other woman piano team has attained. Their first big hit was "Theme From The Apartment," followed by "Exodus," "West Side Story," "My Fair Lady," "Midnight Cowboy" and many others. These not only sold in the millions and helped to establish their musical identity but also earned for them the title of "The Movie Theme Team."

The world-famous Ukrainian Dance Company's visit to the showplace at EAT 116 on the Garden State Parkway will conclude its third tour of the United States under the S. Hurok banner. On its first and second trips to these shores in 1962 and 1966, the spectacular troupe of 125 exhausted the vocabularies of American dance critics who wrote of the Ukrainians as "superb," "Incredible" and "spectacular."

"A smash!" said Time Magazine. "On no account should any dance lover miss them," wrote Clive Barnes in The New York Times.

The dancers, coming from one of the more colorful and romantic regions of Europe, display the brilliance of their Cossack heritage in a series of numbers directed and choreographed by the company's founder, the company in 1951. Breath-taking spear dances from the mountain wilds, hilarious "peasant" capers, agile sailor dances, the Gopak with its fantastic leaps of agility, and the beautiful dances of the women, including the acclaimed "Embroidery Dance," are among the programmed works that reveal the rich background of the Ukraine.

The company opened its current tour with seven performances at Walt Park, Virginia, then headed west to the San Francisco Opera House and the Los Angeles Greek Theater. On the way back east, it performed before many appreciative audiences in the west and midwest. Critics ran out of superlatives at every place.
