

Belleville Voters Follow State, National Trend

WINNING NUMBER from the New Jersey State lottery for last Thursday is shown to be 471831 as Mayor Joseph McGreevy smiles his approval of the pick. Mayor McGreevy though, along with almost 100 Belleville residents at Grant's Shopping Plaza, didn't have the lucky winning ticket. Weekly lottery was picked for the first time in Belleville as part of Homecoming Week here.

Dignitaries Pick Lottery No. Here

The weekly New Jersey State lottery number was chosen in Grant's parking lot last Thursday with the help of several Belleville dignitaries. No one from the crowd of nearly 100 local residents though, had the winning number of 471831.

Assisting in the complicated process of choosing the weekly winning lottery number was Mayor Joseph McGreevy and

Assemblyman Carl A. Orscho. Also heading the list of local persons helping in picking the winning number was Kiwanis Club Homecoming Queen Maria Anemon; Frank J. Bolen of the Kiwanis Club and vice president of People's National Bank; William Bixby, vice president of Fidelity Union Trust; Robert Gacione, trustee for the Craig Fabian Fund and local attorney, and Arlene Pannullo, editor and publisher of The Belleville Telegram newspaper.

The choosing of the lottery number in Belleville was only one of the many activities during the Kiwanis Club Homecoming Football Week which culminated with the playing of a Saturday grid game between Seton Hall and Belleville High School at Municipal Stadium.

Give Nixon 2-1 Plurality In Almost 84% Turn-Out

Belleville voters, taking to the polls in a surprisingly heavy turn-out, gave President Richard M. Nixon an almost 2-1 plurality as residents followed the national trend in this presidential election.

Residents voting here however, made it an almost common practice to split their ticket in balloting. Local residents, although giving President Nixon an overwhelming 9,594 vote majority on the Republican side of the ledger, did a complete reversal when it came to voting for U.S. congressman.

Voters here gave Congressman Joseph G. Minish, a Democrat, an outstanding majority over Republican Milton A. Waldor. Minish polled 9116 to Waldor's 4922 votes in Belleville.

Defeated Democratic presidential candidate Sen. George McGovern managed to tally 5,399 votes here compared to Nixon's 9,594. In fact, only one of Belleville's 24 voting districts went for McGovern. School No. 1 in the Valley section of Town gave McGovern the nod by a 315 to 250 count. All other districts here recorded a Nixon sweep except in the St. Peter's area, where the Nixon-Agnew ticket won by a slim margin, 299-234.

Voters turned out in extremely heavy numbers Tuesday and Belleville also followed that trend. Local registered voters turned out at the polls in an astonishingly high 83.9 per cent, which could be a record. Local election observers were hard-pressed to tell when there was a higher percentage in a presidential year.

The Town gave incumbent U.S. Senator Clifford P. Case a plurality of the vote, though not nearly as much as Nixon. Defeated Democratic candidate Paul J. Krebs pulled a respectable 5,877 votes to Case's 7,335. In fact, this was the only race in which Belleville bucked the state and federal trend. Case won another term to the senate by a large majority state-wide.

Democratic candidate Philip C. Rotondo carried the Town with 7,759 votes in his battle for election as Essex County Supervisor. Republican Walter C. Blasi polled an even 6,000 tallies.

Two Republicans and a Democrat won the nod in Belleville in the bid for a seat on the Board of Freeholders. GOP candidates Mario V. Farco and John L. Crecco carried the Town, along with Democrat Samuel J. Angelo. The Totals for freeholder shy Donald M. Payne 5,945; Angelo 7,562; Harry A. McEnroe Jr. 5,979; Farco 7,349; Helen Kaplan 5,795 and Crecco 7,716.

On the three public questions to be answered by Belleville voters, the transportation bond was nixed by 5,205 to 4,755 total; but those same voters approved the Bingo games for senior citizens by an overwhelming 8,484-1,480 total. Voters here denied an amendment to give the right to the Governor to "fire" the Secretary of State and Attorney General by a 4,952 to 3,934 margin.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Belleville is losing one of its oldest established jewelry and watch repairing stores with the retirement from business of Bill Hart and his wife who handled the accessory adjuncts of their business while Mr. Hart repaired the time pieces.

As a kid I recall my parents trading with Bill's father, Vic, at his store on the corner of Washington Ave. and Tapan Ave. which was started in 1928. There I would see the young Mr. Hart learning the skills of his dad in the art of horology. The elder Mr. Hart was very active in the affairs of the Local Elks club. The firm remained in this spot for 28 years.

With the death of the senior Mr. Hart, Bill and his wife moved to the location from which they are now

At Meeting Tonight

Mayor Seeks Passage Of Major Zoning Bill

Mayor Joseph McGreevy tonight will seek final passage of a major zoning amendment designed to restrict population density when the Board of Commissioners meets at 8 p.m.

Many local observers believe that another McGreevy sponsored proposal to restrict construction calling for a two-year moratorium on garden apartments, will be dropped should the major zoning amendment pass on final reading. Local residents may air their views on the matter during a public hearing of the proposal scheduled tonight.

The Commission meeting, originally scheduled for next Tuesday, was moved to tonight so local officials may attend the League of Municipalities Convention in Atlantic City next week.

Also, the Commission reminded that after tonight's meeting regular public meetings will begin at 8:30 p.m. to permit pre-meeting caucuses, which are closed to the public.

Silver Lake, Soho Citizens Urged Attend Bus Hearing

Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo is urging all Silver Lake and Soho area residents to attend a Public Utilities Commission bus hearing Monday evening in Bloomfield Town Hall.

According to Commissioner Strumolo, Transport of New Jersey is petitioning the Public Utilities Commission for discontinuance of Saturday service on the Bloomfield No. 30 bus line. The bus route travels the length of Franklin Street in Belleville and Commissioner Strumolo claims discontinuance of the line could adversely affect several residents here.

"I've already instructed our Town Attorney John Scott to attend the public hearing in Bloomfield," stated Strumolo. "Also, members of the Transportation Committee will attend the hearing. I urge any and all residents of the Silver Lake and Soho sections to attend the meeting."

The Department of Public Affairs has sent out several thousand flyers informing Silver Lake and Soho citizens of the public hearing. Strumolo added that he personally may attend the hearing.

"If this request is granted, our only means of transportation to Bloomfield or Newark will be eliminated," he stated.

Strumolo added that stopping of service would hurt the attendance at St. Anthony's Church bingo games run on Saturday nights.

Seeking Revenge

Bellboy Team Invades Kearny Turf Saturday

The Blue and Gold gridders seek to return to the winning side of the ledger Saturday when they travel to Kearny

High School to tackle a well-balanced Kardinal squad. Game time is 1:30 p.m.

Both clubs sport identical 2-4-1 season records and included in each team's win mark is a victory over rival Irvington. Last Fall the Kardinals defeated Belleville at Municipal Stadium so the local eleven will have the added incentive of revenge. The 1971 version of the Bellboys lost that contest by only a field goal.

The Belleville team had its two-game win streak severed last Saturday when Seton Hall squeezed by the Bellboys, 7-0, in a closely contested game. The underdog Bellboys played powerful Seton Hall on equal terms but the Blue and Gold defense got burned on off long pass play, which proved to be the margin of victory.

"I believe our boys played a very good game Saturday. We

National Guard Clean-Up Centers Upon Third River

National Guardsmen appeared for the first time in Belleville Saturday when the soldiers began a clean-up program in Town. The first, chore for the group was policing the banks of the Third River, where flooding has plagued residents for several years.

Hopefully, the River clean-up project will help alleviate some of the conditions that contribute to bad flooding in the Fairway Avenue area during heavy rainstorms. Mrs. Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, reports that the Guardsmen cleared debris from the banks and in the stream of the Third River.

According to the Commissioner, a group of 17 men from the 117th Division, cleared the Third River banks of everything from tree stumps to shopping carts all day Saturday. The soldiers used dump trucks to cart away the debris.

The Guardsmen will spend two more weeks in Town as part of the state approved program. Mrs. Senatore has full command to send the troops to areas needing a cleaning. The troops will also assist in environmental protection here.

After the first phase of the program, covered last Saturday, the Guardsmen will next Saturday police the old Morris Canal and assist in a project to help provide off-street parking near the old waterway in the Soho Section of Belleville.

Homecoming Parade Lauds Football's Golden Anniversary

TOWN OFFICIALS attending Kiwanis Club sponsored Homecoming parade Saturday at Municipal Stadium included members of the Board of Education and Board of Commissioners. Key Club also participated in the event.

QUEEN OF Homecoming was lovely Maria Anemon, who was chosen when Key Club at BHS ran a ballot. Queen was crowned at dance last week.

VARSITY CLUB FLOAT told of the many activities rendered by the participants of that group. Homecoming parade at Stadium lauded the golden anniversary of football in Belleville.

Jaycees Begin Local Chapter

Young men of Belleville last Thursday realized the fruits of their efforts by creating the Belleville Jaycees.

At a special meeting at the Fountain Restaurant 27 young men decided to complete organizational plans for the new group immediately and will formally request affiliation with the State organization and the United States Jaycees on Friday.

Organizing officers, were elected who will serve until formal nominations and elections take place sometime next month. Those men elected were Joseph Primavera, Chairman; Fred Brillante, Secretary; and Michael Monetti, Treasurer.

The new Jaycee chapter will meet today at The Fountain Restaurant. Chairman Primavera issued an open invitation to all the young men of the community to attend the meeting.

Primavera said: "We feel that every young man of Belleville can benefit from membership with the Jaycees."

We have organized and embraced the Jaycee objectives in an effort to realize our own personal development and the development of our community. Any interested individual may get more information or free transportation to the next meeting by contacting me at 751-4543."

Seek Passage Of Zoning Bill

1) An end to the construction of apartment houses in industrial zones. Currently, the Belleville zoning code allows up to 35 dwelling units per acre but if the change is approved, only one and two-family homes would be allowed in an industrial area.

2) A reduction in the size of apartment houses allowed in the multiple-dwelling zone. At the present, up to 70 units an acre are allowed here but the new ordinance would allow only a maximum of 35 units per acre.

3) An end to so-called "check-by-jowl" construction of homes in a B-residential zone. Currently, the Belleville system there is set up on a 27 dwelling unit amount consisting of both one and two-family homes, but if the ordinance is approved the change would cut that number to 22 units per acre of land."

In technical language, the proposed ordinance states that the "families per acre" column as set forth in the zoning schedule be amended as follows:

"B" Residence Zones - by deleting therefrom the figure "27" and inserting in place thereof the figure "22."

Drunken Driver Arrests Increase

With arrests for drunken driving more than doubled, Alfred E. Driscoll, chairman of the New Jersey Turnpike Authority, declared the State Police patrolling the Turnpike will continue their stepped-up effort to combat this menace to the driving public.

Over the nine-month period through last September, 438 drunken driving arrests were made by members of Troop D, while 208 were reported for the corresponding period in 1971.

Chairman Driscoll cited the intensified activity of the State Police under Captain Joseph A. Nawrocki, Troop D Commander, in its campaign to keep driving and other dangerous drivers off the Turnpike.

Chairman Driscoll also commended Turnpike toll collectors for helping State Police to apprehend drunken drivers. Although collectors have no power of arrest, they can be helpful by radioing troopers on patrol whenever they detect someone driving in a dangerous fashion or suspected of being intoxicated while passing through a toll lane.

Those who believe all they hear are relatives of those who believe all they read.

One-Sided

U.S. air attacks on military targets in North Vietnam continue to cause a roar of protest throughout the world, though most Americans support President Nixon's policy of reaction to North Vietnam's military aggression.

Even though one appreciates that much of the criticisms is caused by political motivation, the desire to defeat Mr. Nixon, nevertheless one is puzzled by the almost total lack of criticism of North Vietnam. North Vietnamese forces fire rockets into cities and towns, killing civilians. They bombard cities and towns with artillery. They often execute officials loyal to Saigon where they seize control.

They unquestionably touched off the latest round of military escalation with a major offensive.

Yet for all this the North Vietnamese receive almost no criticism. The United States, for retaliating against military targets, is condemned wholesale. Part of the explanation is that we are a large, powerful nation. Part is because we act in defense of a regime that is not democratic. Part is because many believe we have no business in Vietnam at all, perhaps rightly. But part is also political and part is anti-American prejudice, which the free world's strongest nation must logically expect.

November 7

Back in 1942 American troops made their first thrust at Germany in World War II on November 7th. Hitler had declared war on America several days after the Japanese had sneak-attacked Pearl Harbor in December of 1941.

United States military forces were not ready for war, much less a two ocean war, but there was a desire to do something in the first year. U.S. Marines invaded Guadalcanal in August of 1942 (after the great victory at Midway in June) and U.S. forces landed in French-administered North Africa November 7th. Thus in the first twelve months of the conflict U.S. forces were on the offensive against both its major enemies.

North Africa gave U.S. military forces the bleeding they needed for tougher fighting that lay ahead. U.S. fighters, P-39's, P-40's and P-38's, were roughly handled by the Luftwaffe's Me 109's. U.S. ground troops suffered sharp defeats in some cases, though outnumbering the enemy heavily. The British Eighth Army was there—coming from the east—to close the pincers and do the greater part of the job.

In the landing at North African ports, Washington and London had assured the French there was no design on their territory, but many French military commanders opened fire on the Americans and it required several days to defeat the French.

12 To 1

U.S. newspapers are endorsing President Nixon in preference to Senator George McGovern by a 12 to 1 ratio, according to Editor and Publisher, weekly publication of the newspaper world.

This is so much greater than the Richard Nixon margin in 1960, 4 to 1, it is probably significant. One can't claim editors vote as the electorate, however, for quite often the voters react differently.

In 1948, for example, newspaper editors endorsed Tom Dewey by a 4 to 1 margin and he lost. In 1940 they endorsed Wendell Wilkie 3 to 1 and he lost. And in 1936 they endorsed Alfred Landon 1 to 1 and Franklin Roosevelt won by a landslide.

Even though editors have often chosen the loser in the past, however, never has the margin been so one sided as the present Nixon margin and this logically encourages Republicans. While metropolitan newspapers are considered to have limited influence on readers, smaller papers, as Dwight Shumway, of the Committee for Re-election of the President says, exert a greater influence on their smaller, local family of readers. This is even more true of weeklies, of which there are some 10,000—and which have also presumably endorsed President Nixon by a heavy margin.

Town Manager Sommers Denies Access To Books

By Elaine Auerbach

Five Years Ago

Larry Robinson won a court decision which ruled that the Branch Brook Manor Apartments of Belleville had discriminated against him because he was a Negro and refused to rent him an apartment. Robinson, a 1967 Belleville High School graduate, had heard that the apartment owners discriminated against blacks and had decided to test the situation. The owners of the apartment said they would appeal the case.

Seven Bellevillites were honored at a dinner at the Military Park Hotel for their service at the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Those who were honored were: Mrs. Mary Alvino, Mrs. Constance Lenehand, Mrs. Catherine Pennabere, Mrs. Angela Candloro, Mrs. Albin Oberg and Thomas Mowen.

Ten Years Ago

Belleville continued its five-game winning streak as the local team ran circles around the West Orange Cowboys to the score of 38-0. The great success of the team was attributed to a keen, alert secondary composed of Cervasio, Luzzi, Valse, Visco and Oese. The Belboys were expected to win handily over their next opponent—the Kearny Cardinals.

Town Manager William A. Sommers denied Council-appointed investigators access to books and records of the town of Belleville. An order from Mayor Robert Laterza, with an implied threat of an insubordination charge, forced Sommers to permit the investigators to proceed with their search. The Town Council, by a 3-2 vote, had decided to investigate the operation of the Revenue and Finance Department and the Tax Assessor's Office while under the control of the former Town Commission.

The newly elected officers of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Lion's Club were installed. They were: president, Mrs. Henry Lewis; vice-president, Mrs. Paul Dellagata; secretary, Mrs. David Robbins; and treasurer, Mrs. Harry Ziegler.

Fifteen Years Ago

Judge Edward Abramson was re-appointed to his third term as Municipal Magistrate in Belleville and Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan was appointed to his 26th one-year term as Counsel to the Board of Commissioners. Keenan's appointment was purely a formality, but Judge Abramson's appointment was confirmed by a three to two vote of the commission.

James J. Tully, appointed to lead the March of Dimes campaign in Belleville for the 11th year, stated that Mrs. Edward Rochau had consented to head the Women's Division of the fund drive. Tully said he would announce other co-chairmen and committee head appointments at a later time.

Out of a total of 16,663 registered voters, 10,926 went to the polls on election day. Normally a Republican-voting town, Belleville gave majorities to all the Democratic candidates on the list—from Governor Meyner to the Freeholder aspirants. Meyner won over Forbes by a vote of 6,068 to 4,573. Belleville citizens helped choose a Democratic Assembly, three Democratic freeholders and a Democratic County Supervisor.

Margaret Kennard, art instructor at the Pratt Institute in Brooklyn and a well-known figure in creative sculpture addressed the Belleville Alumni Art Association at a meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William North. All alumni artists had been invited to attend.

The annual formal of the Petrean Club was to be held at the Forest Hill Field Club in Bloomfield. Al Kurkek and his Golden Crest Orchestra were to supply the music. Chairman Joseph Higgins and his committee had made extensive plans for the event. The general committee for the affair included German Boylan, Nick Candura, Helen Kuhn, Ginny Mermet, Ken Murray and Joanne Salmon.

Forty Years Ago

Neil F. Horne returned from a two-months' automobile trip of 2,500 miles to make motion pictures of famous men and women for a film he had been compiling for over four years. He had interviewed and photographed 250 nationally known figures.

A clothing bureau for the purpose of supplying clothes and shoes to the needy was set up in Belleville with the support of the Belleville Manufacturer's Association. The committee directing the project included George Napier, William Irvine, John Bortenstein and George Gerard.

The following members of the Summer Pleasure Girls Outing Club held a theatre party at the New Amsterdam Theatre: Holly Woodlawn, Candy Darling, Jackie Curtis, Vivica Smith, Sadie Mulhane. After the theatre, the group had supper at eighty-two Second Avenue at the Restaurant Opaque.

He Lashes Jim Golden's Shopping View

To the Editor
I have previously written the Belleville Times because of loose statements made in James Golden's column of September 7, 1972, concerning the alleged demise of Belleville's Washington Avenue Shopping District.

A group of neighboring merchants—myself included—with businesses in the heart of Washington Avenue discussed the column. We questioned Golden's wisdom in reporting obviously unresearched facts. A survey report released by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce and published in the October 12th issue of the Belleville Times refutes Mr. Golden's contentions. This survey explicitly stated that over 70% of the merchants reported that business was better during July & August of 1972 compared to July & August of 1971.

Golden's shoddy reporting notwithstanding, his most flagrant and irksome feature is his irresponsible disdainful style used in reporting "facts". Alluding to the populace of Belleville as waiting for the undertaker to transport the carcass of a once-was town to the scrap-heap, Golden's October 12th column further manifests his contemptuous attitude. He brazenly arrogates that I protested because of anxiety that business might get worse as the reality of Washington Avenue's decay is brought closer to view. . . The protest is not over the emergence of reality, Mr. Golden—but rather, over the distortion of reality. . . A flair for dramatic in writing a column cannot mask the facts.

Finally, soothsayer Golden's parable about a man not going to the doctor for fear that he might find out that something is wrong, is well-taken; but that same man should be cautioned to seek more than one doctor's opinion; and lest he be victimized, the man should ask to see the doctor's credentials. For a doctor who practices medicine without proper credentials is like a journalist who unarmed with facts proceeds to write definitive statements—an incompetent and a fraud.

Resident Praises Police, Firemen

To the Editor:

I want to thank the Belleville police and firemen for the many times they helped William Fisher when he got sick on the Avenue and brought him home or took him to the hospital, although he is no longer with us.

I extend my thanks. Whenever I called them they were right there.

Truly yours,

Crime and Police

Many crusaders would sell the idea that the rising rate of crime in America in recent years stems from the quality of police protection or the failure of the social system in general. But one of the major causes is certainly the courts.

In a recent speech on crime, New York City's new Police Commissioner revealed that last year New York police made 94,000 felony arrests and that of those arrested only 552 went to trial. That was largely because the courts, acting under Supreme Court rulings (during the period when Earl Warren was Chief Justice) interpreted the 4th, 5th and 14th amendments in a way that leads them to spend more time trying to determine whether arresting officers made a mistake than whether the arrested are guilty.

Commissioner Murphy said frankly to the Bar Association of New York in a recent speech on the subject: "The court system is in bankruptcy. It simply doesn't work. You all know this. I am not telling you anything new."

A recent case appealed to the Supreme Court from California may reveal whether the new court, with its Nixon appointees, will move in the direction of helping the police—and the courts. It involves a suspected dope peddler; after a time of surveillance, police saw the trash thrown out and stopped the truck which picked it up and discovered all kinds of evidence, upon which the man was arrested. But, utilizing Warren court rulings, the arrested had the case dismissed on the ground that the officers should have had a warrant to search his trash!

This kind of impractical nonsense, the fact that police and offenders know such defenses can be successfully utilized, greatly encourages criminals and discourages law officers, who know that only a fraction of those they arrest will come to trial. Thus, plus the policy of so many politicians and misguided moralists telling minorities they are so badly treated in America, which has produced many martyrs, is behind of the nation's crime.

THE STATE WE'RE IN

Solving New Jersey's Floods Complicated by Town Borders

By David F. Moore

A funny thing happened to New Jersey's proposed flood plain protection act on its way through the darkened recesses of the legislative procedure. It got amended so that if it ever passes the Legislature, according to its supporters, it will be hard to enforce in anything like the spirit of its inception.

A lot of people believe that the bill, A-572, is essential if any last-minute order is to be injected into the chaos of land development which will be devouring the remainder of open space in New Jersey.

Introduced last Jan. 31, the bill by former Assemblyman John F. Evers, R-Passaic, would empower the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection to establish which areas adjacent to streams and rivers are in danger of frequent or infrequent flooding. It would give a municipality a year to adopt the necessary ordinance to restrict construction or other kinds of development on those lands. If the town failed to act in a year, the Department would then impose regulations it deemed necessary. The state would control the most frequently flooded lands from the outset.

Therein lies a major hangup. New Jersey consists of 567 municipalities, each of which has more constitutional powers of self-government than do its counterparts in practically any other state. This tradition of home rule is jealously prized by people in and out of local elective offices, and anything that smacks of state takeover of such local authority, like imposing land use rules for flood areas, is guaranteed to raise hackles.

So A-572 was first referred to the Assembly Committee on Air and Water Pollution and Public Health, and later to the Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources. The Chairman of the latter committee, Assemblywoman Josephine S. Margetis, R-Morris, worked hard to get the bill released for a vote. The only way her cohorts would permit this was by imposing the amendments.

One, in the words of a high state official, "represents a strange delegation of administrative power." It would grant the Legislature 60 days to reject any imposition of land use rules as proposed by the Department of Environmental Protection. Another would exempt municipalities from getting land use regulations for flood areas handed to them, provided they fulfill restrictive criteria necessary to become eligible for federal flood insurance.

One cynic recently observed, "The amendment exempting flood insurance towns was hammered out to the tune of construction proceeding in lowlands of many of those very same flood insurance towns."

It's an open secret around the New Jersey State House that passage of the Evers bill, in as good a form as possible, is tops on the priority list of Gov. William T. Cahill and Commissioner of Environmental Protection Richard J. Sullivan.

It's probable that efforts will be made to have the amendments dropped before the Evers bill comes up for a vote after the Legislature reconvenes in November. Whether this will be successful remains to be seen. As in so many other cases, legislators' awareness of public support, or public opposition, will tell the story about its passage as well as its final form.

The word around Trenton is that, in addition to politicians' abhorance of anything which might weaken the home rule tradition, a lot of effort has gone into opposition to the Evers bill by lobbyists for such people as farmers and building contractors. The farmers are unhappy because a lot of the affected land, while it would ideally remain in agriculture, could no longer represent big chunks of money to them when they decide to retire and sell out to a subdivider.

People who back the flood area legislation are strongly in favor of legislating changes in the tax structuring of New Jersey to permit sensible reductions in taxation of land which could no longer be used for anything but agriculture, recreation or other restricted purposes.

Finally, some backers of the Evers bill insist that they don't especially want to threaten traditional home rule. But they say that local officials, subjected as they are to innumerable pressures and conflicts, might well be relieved at getting out of the middle and letting the state do the land use job for them. Gov. Cahill alluded to another angle in a recent story in the New York Times when he said he favors a law to make local zoners and other officials reveal their sources of income.

retiring, having been there 18 years.
This fine family of expert watchmakers having devoted 74 years of expert workmanship in their trade and being long recognized for their integrity and fairness in dealing with their customers will be sorely missed. We wish both Mr. and Mrs. Hart many years of happiness and good health in their retirement. *****

More sad news seems in the offering with the mounting reports of the closing of the Belleville Post Office under newly devised plans to distribute our mail from a depot on Main Street, probably from the present Parcel Post depot.

Presumably, an office-front will be set up to sell stamps and accept letters and money orders in a centrally located section of town. This may materialize within six months.

The Vet's Day parade after getting off to a shaky start finally got its timing in line and turned into one of our town's better demonstrations.

The weather was mild and the show was over in time for some of the dry marchers to sop up a few suds to slake their thirst.

Much credit must be given the Girl and Boy scout leaders for their assistance and fine care of their charges.

The parade committee merits praise for putting over another good one.

The formal decision to kill the pipeline project that would have transmitted water from two new reservoirs, Round Valley and Spruce Run, by the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission because 11 North Jersey municipalities backed out of the project upon learning capital costs would be more than buying needed water from other sources, occasioned Dean C. Noll, chief engineer of the commission, to comment, "It is a severe setback to the water supply of North Jersey." He predicted severe water shortages in the future.

Two pay raises for top employees of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission were denied recently when Frank A. Orechio of Nutley, N.J. took over the police committee chairmanship. A 2-2 vote with one abstention, denied Chief Engineer, Dean Noll and E. Albert Mandell, Comptroller, their increases.

Orechio said, if the two pay increases were given, the other 110 employees at the Wanakee Reservoir would have the right to "demand them and expect them." He said the proposed raises were not in line with federal pay guide lines. "To approve this would be a great disaster," Orechio said, in voting against the motion.

A Passaic man ejected from a Passaic City Council meeting some time ago because he did not put his hand over the heart while saluting the American Flag has filed suit challenging the rule.

The man who frequently attends the Council meetings said in the suit, that he was deprived of his constitutional rights of free speech and assembly by being ejected.

Stephen M. Nagler, executive director of the ACLU quoting from a New Jersey statute, said a person may refrain from saluting the American Flag "for conscientious reasons" as long as he stands respectfully at attention.

The appellant, Bert Neuman, said, through his attorney, his ejection ktd federal law, which says civilians show full respect for the American Flag by remaining at attention during the pledge.

Mr. Neuman, 47, was a pilot for the Army during World War II.

New Jersey Bell ought to do more to make phone service better.

True

False

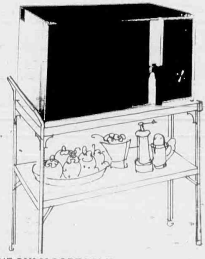

We're doing a lot about phone service right now.
In fact, we're in the midst of our largest construction program ever. Spending over one million dollars every working day this year, doing such things as installing more cable underground, bringing electronic switching to more localities, making Dial Tone First and Touch-Tone® service available to more people.
That's a pretty good record. But we'll have to do even more in the years to come—because being good isn't good enough.
To meet your soaring demands, we see the need to spend $2.5 billion on construction programs in the next five years alone. Doubling our investment in facilities, and in effect building a new New Jersey Bell. To do this, we must earn well in order to justify the investment of such massive amounts of new capital.
Good service, good earnings—they're closely related. In the long run, you can't have one without the other.
We've set a high standard for telephone service in New Jersey. We're doing our best to live up to it.

Being good isn't good enough.

Book Week Next Week In Belleville

Members of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville would like to have Belleville residents join them in observing National Book Week which is November 13-19, 1972. At this time, as well as all year long, both young and old are urged to visit the town library and book stores to acquire reading material which will not only provide much enjoyment but will also broaden horizons in all areas of life.

The Club is collecting books from its members which in turn will be donated to the Children's Shelter and to the hospitals. Residents who have books their children have outgrown or ones they themselves no longer use would be performing a great service by donating them to charities and organizations where they will be both useful and very much appreciated.

Increased demand for trade or business credit by smaller firms is forecast by the New Jersey Association of Credit Executives. William H. ## Browsing Belleville

With Pat Diana 759-3200

Friday evening, October 27, ghosts and goblins invaded Clara Maass Memorial Hospital when the Volunteer Office held a Halloween Party for the candytippers: Mrs. Elizabeth Fox, Director of Volunteers was on hand with her assistant, Mrs. Donna Priore and Miss Ellen Sands. About 40 youngsters gathered to enjoy the festivities. Winners of the "best costume" were Kathy Bell, dressed as a French Maid, and Susan Diana, a little girl outfit, early 1900 version. Other winners were Debbie VanOrmer for the "funniest" and Cynthia Capabianco "most original" costumes.

You know, when my mom wants a good rye bread, even though she lives in Kenya, she comes all the way over to Towne Delicatessen for it...so, I interviewed Howard Halpern on Friday evening, story this issue.

Also Friday evening, dashed over to Parillo's where Gerardo Rivera was to be guest speaker at the Young Democrats McGovern/Shriver Social. I was thrilled to pieces at the idea of meeting this crusading reporter and, as I approached Parillo's, noticed many, many young teenage girls waiting outside for a peek at their "new idol"...unfortunately, he couldn't show as he had other obligations...but I'm sure it hasn't ruined his charisma with the gals. Those I managed to see during the evening included Adelaide and George Mitchell, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Grandfest (some means stole four McGovern signs off their lawn...hope they were returned before Election Day), Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Kengel, Vincent Moller with daughter Donna, Jim McCann, Joan Connelly, Commissioner Mary V. Senatore, Phil Runda, Clifford Yudall and H. McKenna. Music was by the "Imperial 5," quite a good, young group who can play oldies as well as rockies (472-5881 is their phone #). The committee: Jim McCann, chairman, Mike Hegarty-Fund Raising, Laura Baker-Finances, Joan Shrensky-Dinner Chairman, Keith Knight-Canvassing, with staff workers: June Coughlin, Barbara Zeller, Maria DiPaolo, Bob Boyer, Winnie Muller, Joe Grasso, Connie Colby, Maryann Colby and Ann Snedeker. Met a very nice redhead waitress that night-Ann Neri. How many of you saw the film, "Our Man Flint"? Well it's a story of a super spy with dozens of dolls hanging around during his capers...as I approached one table, I quipped "Hello, Our Man Flint" to Tony Agresta, as he was sitting with a bevy of beauties-Polly Vuono, Winnie Juliano, Rosemary Ciccone, Marilyn DeNicholas and Jane Allegri.

When I spoke to Dr. Jack Grandfest that evening he told me I looked well, "yes, I quipped 'but so fat'!" He told me about his Seafood Diet (hate fish)...simple you see food-you don't eat it...yeech!

Rev. Pascale Entering 58th Year Of Service

By Pat Diana

One of the most interesting people I have met is the Rev. Benedetto Pascale, Pastor of the Silver Lake Baptist Church. He is a man of infinite warmth, humor, wisdom and energy and will celebrate 58 years of service to our town on November 22nd.

Going back a bit to 1914, Rev. Pascale was a student Minister to a small congregation in the Silver Lake section of town which met in stores, homes or wherever convenient to gather. Upon his ordination to the Baptist Ministry in June 1916, after graduation from the Divinity School of Colgate University, he accepted the request to serve in this area. It would take a book to enumerate all the happenings from the time Rev. Pascale came to Belleville down through today. His knowledge and interest know no bounds and he has traveled the country always adding to his wealth of information.

Just before World War II he was part of a movement which created "The International Baptist Seminary in Bloomfield" that welcomed students from all over the world. He recalls some zealous Russian students who built the great Baptist Church in Moscow to which later Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and President and Mrs. Nixon worshipped. Twice he has opened the U.S. Senate and the House of Representatives with a Prayer at the request of Senator Case and Congressman Rodino; he also offered a prayer at the Assembly in Trenton.

Raised in Lawrence, Massachusetts, he recalls the big textile strike in 1912 which whetted his interest in speaking out for people's rights and thus, he became a lay preacher. His friends influenced him to study for the Ministry and he then prepared for his life's work in addition to serving those at the Silver Lake Baptist Church, he is also a part-time chaplain at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, chaplain member of the Belleville Red Cross. He is often called upon by various groups in town to appear at dinner meetings to offer the prayer.

Rev. Pascale and his congregation built the Silver Lake Baptist Church 58 years ago. It is a simple white building on the outside, with a beautifully warm and inviting chapel on the inside. Though small, it is one of the most tastefully and embellished places of worship this reporter has seen. Rev. Pascale can recall the artist who painted the ceiling of the chapel, portraying Christ in Ascension, as well as each donor of various benches, stained glass windows, urns, etc. To walk into the Silver Lake Baptist Church, the feeling is one of welcome and peace. In the beginning, services were offered in Italian, through the years it has become English-speaking.

Realizing that the people in Belleville needed more than religious instruction, they needed a place to relax, a place to leave their children while working, the first playground in Belleville was opened in 1914 which still stands today. The Parsonage was built in 1918 and the Community House in 1929. How was it possible to accomplish all this during the Depression years? Simple, by faith and hard work, by accepting what others could not use, by diligence to the task and humor.

The Community House is a most impressive building which houses a bowling alley (now an archery court), swimming pool, printing classroom and a huge auditorium with a stage. One can imagine the halls ringing with laughter of children and the voices of parents-content to have a community place to gather together, share problems of living in a new country and share hopes for the future. Rev. Pascale has seen five generations in a family grow up in his Church, use his playground and Community House. He has also gone on a trip out West, for when one young lady was to be married he insisted Rev. Pascale perform the services, as she grew up in the Silver Lake Baptist Church. During the years 1930-1934, Rev. Pascale used the Community House for the first free dental clinic in town, which is presently under the auspices of the Belleville Board of Education. Surely the Community House would answer the town of Belleville's need for a meeting place for teens or senior citizens and he has offered this building to the Town of Belleville, more about this in a future issue.

In our lovely garden outside the Parsonage, Rev. Pascale conducts Easter Sunrise Services - this will be the 47th year for the event. He ran into a man recently who remembered his fun-filled days at the Silver Lake Baptist Church playground when he was five years old.

Homecoming Parade Highlights Grid Game

HOMECOMING PARADE in Municipal Stadium last Saturday afternoon is seen as it winds around the infield track field. Parade, sponsored by the Belleville Kiwanis Club with help from the BHS Key Club, culminated a week of activities in the Town that saw the drawing of the state lottery here and the choosing of a homecoming queen in Maria Ancmon. The Homecoming this year celebrated the golden anniversary of football in Belleville. The parade was held during halftime of the Belleville-Seton Hall football game and was attended by many Town dignitaries.

Received the most original birth announcement. It started: "The Ford Production Co. announces their 1972 model..." congrats to "Chief Engineer" Harry S. Ford, his wife, "Production Manager" Julia L. and "Technician" Dr. K.D. Bissell who heralded the arrival of Kimberly June Ford on Oct. 15 at 3:03 a.m. Kim joins Jeffrey Scott the couple's two year old. The announcement, of course was spoofing an announcement of a new car and ended with: "The Management announces to the public there will be no more new models this year"... quite original, eh?

Rita Smith of Nutley, the event begins at 8 p.m. and is open, at no charge, to the public. Fanny Crosby was probably the most famous and well known hymn writer and the program will feature many of her renditions with members from all over Northern New Jersey participating. Should be a nice evening, the program will be about one hour and refreshments will follow. Next major event by the club will be a Christmas Carol-Sing and Buffet supper on Saturday Dec. 9 at the Second Reformed Church, Little Falls...call Connie Simione at 759-4782 or Jennie Gaccione, 667-6403 for tickets.

Two Chinese ladies made the scene at American Legion Post 105 on Saturday evening, October 28th. The occasion was the Post Halloween dinner dance, chaired by Bill Lenihan, with wife Connie doing a lot of leg work. The two Chinese ladies were Marie Rainone of Unit 105 Auxiliary and Florence DeAngelis of Unit 299 Auxiliary. The hall was decorated with ghosts, goblins, etc. One ghost caught everyone's eye as the way he was affixed to the wall, allowed his hands to blow with the breeze quite startling. A few daring people dressed for the event-Joan Laiki, president Unit 105 Auxiliary came as an angel, Jim Malleck-imitated The Duke (John Wayne) in his cowboy attire. Lisa Doeffinger-Secretary Unit 200 Auxiliary and her mother Betty, President Unit 299 Auxiliary were a gypsy and farm girl, respectively. Music was by Augie Cundari. Who else was there: Post and Unit 299 members had one whole table-Betty and George, with Lisa, Doeffinger, Florence and Lou DeAngelis, Charles A. Coddington and Lois Johnson...also Marie and Peter Rainone, Barbara and Ernie Welter, Vin and Terry Kufirin, Ray and Sis Weller, John and Mary Nolter, Mrs. and Mrs. Ray Kinsley, Sr., Frank Nendze, Commander Carol Kiernan, Post 105. Bill Hanrahan was a hit during the evening when he strolled around sporting a blonde, curly wig...if the pic turned out, you might even see it in this issue.

Speaking of Halloween, for the first time ever I stuffed a dummy!(those on my home front said I do this each time I eat)... Lisa Doeffinger stopped by and she and daughter Lynn made a real mean-looking "guy" which we hung over the bannister to scare(amuse?) the trick and treaters...heard that Helen and Bob Rudden had ghosts floating around their porch-much to the children's delight.

Sympathies are extended to Mike Prezioso, on the loss of his father, Sabino...and Arnold Larson, on the loss of Inga.

Bellboys Travel To Kearny Next

were moving the ball well and at the same time we were containing their defense for most of the afternoon," said Belleville head coach Rocco Calone. "The game could have gone either way."

Calone defended his team and hinted that Belleville's season record of 2-4-1 could easily be the other way around. The coach noted that Belleville has been "in" every game it's played and has been regarded as a tough, rugged opponent.

"I believe we're having a good season and it easily could have been a winning season if it weren't for a few mishaps," Calone added. "Of course we would like to have a winning record but it's been an enjoyment to the coaching staff just to see that the boys on the team have not quit and given up. We've been close in all the games we've played and we respect the kids for going out there each week and giving it their best. The breaks could have gone either way and we just hope that the ball starts bouncing our way soon."

Kearny, of course, isn't the same caliber team as Seton Hall but the Bellboys must guard against a letdown after losing a tough game to the Pony Pirates. According to scouting reports, the Cardinals rely on a tough defense built around a basic 5-2 with a monster man. Offensively, the Cardinals should stay to the ground and the Kearny quarterback is noted for his scrambling-type tactics. The Bellboys.

Polling Coaches For Top Player

The Essex County CYO, for the second straight year, is polling high school football coaches, team captains and sportswriters from throughout Essex County to elect the county's top schoolboy lineman and backfield performer.

Last season, the coaches and writers tabbed Barringer's All-State half-back Pete Shaw as the county's outstanding back, and named Mountain's Dan DeTore, a big two-way tackle, as the No. 1 line. This year, the CYO Office has decided to let the captains of each county football team join in the voting.

Coaches and captains will not be permitted to vote for any player on their own team.

The awards, and judging, should be based on players' athletic ability and sportsmanship. Trophies will be presented to the two winners at an Essex County Coaches Association meeting in December.

The deadline for casting ballots in the second annual contest has been set for Tuesday, Nov. 28.

St. Joe's Tops In Flag League

St. Joseph's of East Orange and Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Newark are leading the National and American Divisions respectively following three weekends of action in the Essex County CYO Flag Football League for elementary school boys.

St. Joseph's, coached by Dominick Lucas, has disposed of Our Lady of Lourdes, West Orange, and

St. John's of Orange. Bill Nosek, Steve Pinto and Carlos Perez scored one touchdown apiece in an 18-12 victory over St. John's last weekend. Perez's 70-yard kickoff return in the fourth quarter proved to be the game-winning touchdown.

We wrote repeatedly about the new audio development, called "quadrophonic" or 4 channel sound. There is no question of doubt, that this is a great improvement in sound reproduction, if the conditions are right. This is an important "if". The placement of the 4 speakers is the crux of the whole system.

As usual, the industry has come up with several different systems, and they can't be used interchangeably. It is a pity that each developer wants to push his concept and that they can't agree on one system only.

While most 4 channel sound systems use either records or tape, there is a beginning of a channel radio transmissions. Here is where the Federal Communication Commission comes in. Perhaps they can bring order into the chaos. The FCC has no jurisdiction when it comes to records or tape readers. However, when it is a matter of broadcasting, it is subject to regulation.

GE has positioned the FCC to set standards for radio transmission of 4 channel sound. One can only hope that through this power of the FCC we may finally see only one 4 channel sound system. This would be the best thing. It could happen to the industry and the consumer.

Recreation Dept. Costume Contest Sees Mickey Mouse Cop A Prize

Last week's Recreation Department Halloween Costume Contest at School Four was a veritable Mardi Gras of imaginative costumes. Although the judges had to pick six winners from the many children there could easily have been thirty or more that were worthy of the recognition. It was a contest where the losers all looked like winners and one that put the judges to the test.

Winners among the girls were Jo Bono who came as, of all things, a record shop; Laurie Donarski who was an adorable little Mickey Mouse and Cynthia Livingston who was dolled up as Carmen Miranda. Very Honorable Mentions went to Gina Ponzio dressed as a skunk; a little angel named Nicole Lanno; Dina Bassford who came as a fully set table with plates, cups, saucers and fruit; Stacy Ann Stivali who was a tiny fan and Lauri Giovanello who was beautifully attired as the Pilsbury Poppin Fresh figure.

Among the boys there was the same degree of creativity and the winners were Paul Mazza as a Leprechaun complete with a little pot of gold; Gary Libertell as a turtle and a duo of Joseph and Brian Reddington who were an organ-grinder and his monkey. Very Honorable Mentions went to Victor Cappetta who was the Pied Piper with a line of mice following him wherever he went and to a boy-girl combo of John and Janene Nardiello who came as a pair of Ronald McDonalds.

Bearing the tremendous responsibility of judging for the Contest were ladies of the General Department of the Women's Club of Belleville, the Evening Membership division and the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville. They were Mrs. Richard A. Shafter, Chairman, Mrs. Victor Muti, Mrs. Michael Liloia and Mrs. Robert McCough.

All of the winners were presented trophies and all of the Contestants were given lollypops. The entire contest was viewed by an enthusiastic group of parents, older brothers and sisters and other boys and girls of the neighborhood.

The Stadium was the scene of ghosts, goblins and an array of other imaginative costumes, as the Belleville Recreation Department held their annual Halloween contest.

Approximately thirty-five contestants braved the cold and windy day, to try to add a trophy to their valued collection of candy. Win-lose, or draw each participant received a delicious lolly-pop, courtesy of the Recreation Department.

The judges divided the children into two age groups - years 1-4 and 5-10.

There was a unique situation in the junior division, and came from John Picone, Jr. and his cousin Angela Greco entered as Mickey and Minnie mouse. The other two winners in this division were Gina Giamoski dressed as a beautiful Little Red Riding Hood and Robert Scuggs who was an original monster outfit. The senior division saw Andrew Columbo take an idea from McDonald's Hamburgers.

Time Running Out

Harriers Still Looking For First Season Win

The Belleville distance runners were involved in one meet in this past week's action. The local club raced in the Essex County Championship cross-country meet held in Branch Brook Park, Newark. Next, the team traveled to Passaic yesterday to race a good Indian squad.

The local harriers are still looking for their first win of the season against 12 losses and the Passaic meet will be their last chance to put a score on the winning side of the ledger.

The Essex County meet, the Belleville harriers finished 22nd out of the 26 teams entered. The Bellboys beat four Newark schools. They included Central, Vailsburg, West Side and Malcolm X. Shafaz, Peter Davis of Columbia won the race with a 12:09 clocking.

For the Bellboys, the top runner Billy Goodwin tripped and fell half-way through the race and was unable to continue. Another injured harrier who did not run was captain Rocco Cuzzo. Cuzzo complained of a knee ailment before the meet.

The Blue and Gold's first finisher was Steve Budrick in 115th place. Budrick ran an excellent 14:05 pace. Also running well was sophomore Walter Subis in 118th place, only two seconds behind Budrick. The next Bellboy to place was Mike Fortino in 134th place. Fortino improved his best time by 20 seconds. Wayne Kellenbence and Steve Daye placed 141st and 142nd. Their time was 15:12. The last Bellboy to finish was Peter Fitzpatrick in 150th place.

For the Belleville seniors on the team, the last race of their high school competition will be the State Sectionals at Warinac Park in Elizabeth this Saturday, Nov. 11. If the local harriers get a runner in the first ten places of the sectionals, the runner will race in the State Finals the following Saturday, again at Warinac Park.

Local Touch Football League Enters Championship Playoffs

In the first round of the Belleville touch football leagues championship playoffs, Edwards Lounge ousted Hoffmann-La Roche 12-6 and Denis Olds nipped DeBacco Bros 7-6.

The winning teams will now meet conference leaders Orchio Ass'n and Alphonzo's in the second round this Sunday at Demuro Park, Nutley, and Belleville Municipal Stadium. Game times are 10:00 A.M.

Edwards quarterback Jim Freeman played perhaps his best game of the season as he continually avoided the Roche rush to complete critical first down passes. In fact, both of Edwards scores came on plays where Freeman, apparently trapped, scrambled toward the sidelines and threw long bombs to tight end Seldon Childs all alone in the Roche end zone.

Roche tied the score at 6 with a beautifully executed pass play from Howie Smith to Freddie Redick who made a sensational catch between two defenders. With the score tied, Roche scored what appeared to be the go ahead touchdown when Danny Papapadakis fiddled a punt on his own 40 yard line and scampered 40 yards down the right sideline. Such was not the case, however, as a dubious clipping penalty was called and the entire play was nullified.

In the DeBacco Bros. game, all the scoring came in the first half. DeBacco QB Ben Gallante hit Flanner Bob star Albie Hallem intercepted a Gallante pass and went 28 yards for the tying score. The all important conversion was a pass from Hallem to Richie San Filippo.

Abromson Sends Gambling Charge To Grand Jury

hearings in Belleville court, October 12. The case was referred to the Essex County Prosecutor by Judge Edward Abromson.

Joseph, 29, and Jennifer, 21, are both charged with acting as messengers for a lottery, conspiracy to break the gambling laws and maintaining premises for gambling. The two were arrested during an operation by the Essex County Strike Force.

Condominiums Have Arrived In The State

Condominiums have arrived in New Jersey. In more and more communities this form of dwelling is becoming increasingly popular.

The condominium craze is a national trend — last year 16% of the nation's housing starts were condominiums, and, this year, the figure is expected to be 27%.

What is a "condominium"? Is it like a "co-operative"? No terms have caused greater confusion in the public mind since "MORTAR" and "CEMENT."

As a public service, the New Jersey Association of Realtor Boards releases this brief explanation:

A condominium (also called a "condo") is an apartment owned by its occupant.

Noise Pollution Symposium Is Set

A public symposium, "Community Noise in New Jersey," will be held November 21 at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Chairman Announces

Belleville Scout District Planning New Activities

Belleville Scout District plans an active Cub Scout and Boy Scout season. Thomas Mack, District Chairman, announces the District plans are well under way for a successful 72-73 year. The Belleville District, which is part of the Robert Treat Council, takes in the entire community of Belleville. About 40% of the boys in the Town between 8 and 15, or 850 are registered in 28 Cub Scout Packs and Boy Scout Troops.

Tom Mack says that this active participation has been brought about by a dedicated group of about two hundred volunteers, who serve in various leadership capacities such as Cubmaster, Scoutmaster, Institutional Representative, District Committee, District Commissioner Staff, Den Mother, and Unit Committee Member. Leadership is provided for the Scouting and Cubbing Program on a District level by the District Committee under Tom Mack and the District Commissioner Staff, headed by the Town's new District Commissioner, James Donahue.

Members on the District Committee include the following: Chairman: Thomas Mack; Vice Chairman, Ernest Arvidson; Membership Committee, Robert Cassin, Chairman, Warren Groom; Finance Committee, Robert Davis, Chairman, Frank Morgan, Bob Schultz; Camping Committee, Ralph Aull, Chairman, John Schenke; Activities Committee, David Haigh, Chairman, Edward Solberg; Advancement Committee, Walter Karatz, Chairman, Tom Patterson; Training Committee, Jim Donahue, Chairman, Larry

Skidmore, Bill Fox, Larry Denfsey and Thomas Balsamo; Public Relations Committee, Nick Petti. A very successful training course was held on October 27, 28 and 29 at Scout Acres. Garden State Parkway Authority Steps Up Its Safety Campaign

"Our attempt to save some children's lives, now moves into high gear". With those words New Jersey Highway Authority Executive Director John P. Gallagher announced today the results of a rush program designed to educate children and their parents of the devastating danger that exists for youngsters who try to walk across or bike on the Garden State Parkway.

Approximately one month ago the Parkway, alarmed by a series of vehicle-pedestrian accidents, embarked on a vigorous anti-pedestrian campaign. First a poster was drawn up and made available to schools, PTA's, chiefs of police, civic clubs and the like. Parkway personnel so far have distributed nearly four thousand of these posters upon request from interested parties in the 49 towns which border the Parkway. Now, according to Director Gallagher, the Parkway has new and different material which it will distribute free of charge.

The anti-pedestrian campaign is also aimed at drivers who might leave their vehicle should the car become disabled. "Our State Police patrol the road constantly and once they spot a disabled auto they send for aid by radio if the driver cannot handle the problem himself", said the Director. Leaving the car to walk for gas or water or find a phone is foolish for several reasons. One it is dangerous, and two, by the time a motorist got to a phone, our police would have been at the scene and radioed for help.

"We've sent out the

The comic book for the younger children is available now and the flyer for the teenagers will be ready in a couple of weeks. Mayors, principals, club presidents, chiefs of police all are welcome. Generates Dollar Volume

Ski Resorts Helping Economy, Says Industry Commissioner

Outstanding recreation awaits visitors to New Jersey ski areas.

Ronald M. Heymann, Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry, said today that the annual dollar volume of generated business which these centers produce represents an important contribution to the State's overall economy.

"The ski resorts are anticipating another record season starting around Thanksgiving time, and extending to April. Easy access to the areas provides a bargain for those who measure their skiing dollar in time on the slopes," Commissioner Heymann added.

The fact is that New Jersey ski resorts, with one exception, do not depend on climatic conditions for snow. All have the most modern snow-making facilities. The efficiency of the equipment is such that once a base of snow has been laid, the runs usually continue for the complete season. All areas have lighted trails, making for uninterrupted skiing from early morning right through the evening session.

York, offers twelve slopes and trails with uphill capacity of 6,000 skiers per hour, six restaurants, three lounges, game room, nursery, heated outdoor pool and ice skating.

Vernon Valley Ski Area, Vernon, boasts a new million dollar snowmaking system, the biggest and most powder-full machine in the world. A new innovation for a New Jersey skier or Vernon Valley refunds a "pro rata" portion of your money. There is a "no wait" lift available at a slight premium.

Osteopathy was originally based on the theory that disease is caused by structural maladjustment and that body manipulation, rather than drugs, is the cure. Today there are several colleges of osteopathy across the country and hundreds of osteopathic hospitals and sanitariums. A doctor of osteopathy must have two years of preprofessional study in an accredited college, four years of osteopathic college, one or more years of internship; all this to qualify for his profession.

All pharmacists must attend accredited colleges and be licensed in this state in order to qualify for their profession. ## Your Weekly Horoscope

(November 11 through November 17)

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Mars is your ruling planet, Ari, which means that what you call pluck others may call foolhardiness. When you think you are being merely direct, associates sometimes think you are being bold. In week ahead, work quietly, for your words and actions may be misunderstood. Last day a zinger.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Energy may sag and feeling of deja vu permeate first part of week. Escape minutiae of surroundings by pulling pieces of personal puzzle together. You comprehend. Malaise lifts by fifth day. Week jiggles to a close.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Cycle good to launch new venture. But launch it in tandem with one who is trusted ally. Results are best if you listen (for a refreshing change) to one who is an old pro. You're bright as a new penny, Gem, but you still don't know ALL the answers.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): What your little heart desires is not to be had in week ahead, Moonbeam. It is written, by Olga, so no use fretting, fussing or fuming. It will avail these naught. It will, however, wreak havoc with your blood pressure. Strive to maintain low profile and blend in with surrounding scenery as much as possible.

LEO (July 23-August 22): So you want to be a big-shot, Leo, and boss the whole works. O.K., in week ahead you'll have your chance. Just don't miff the deal with your usual wild enthusiasm. Key to success is caution. You can be lionhearted without being loony, you know.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): You Virg, will stand toe to toe with Libra in week ahead. Maybe even check to check. To speculate any further would be folly. However, one thing is certain, by last day you will see eye to eye on important matter. Week ends on note of fun.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Week ahead can be a grab bag filled with goodies. Listen to suggestions from one of another generation. Ideas crack open like popcorn in hot butter. You motivate others. Energy builds and by last day you find you have accomplished difficult task. Finally. Read words to Virg.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Week ahead one of restlessness. Cope as best you can. Remark of partner/mate may hit emotional jugular. Try not to bleed all over the place, for it's messy, you know. By last day, you begin to feel better and week ends on note of hope.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Inauspicious mood prevails, which is result of past event. Enjoy it while it lasts dear Sag. Give all negative thoughts the boot. Savor each day to the fullest.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Money highlighted. Be prudent. Exercise discipline. Minor conflict apt to arise by mid-week, with associate who is a smarty pants. Stand your ground, Cap. By end of week, you should take top billing socially. Wear something becoming. A smile.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): As with Cap, money and other goodies take top priority, Aquari. You gather in the sheaves. Be alert to feedback concerning past behavior. Show compassion to dear one who is suffering. Week ends quietly.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Within you, Pisces, is a reserve of strength and goodwill. These two qualities make you unbeatable. Do not conceal them. Do not block the best that is in you with phony reserve. In week ahead, you would be wise to hang up your hang-ups. Let your light shine!
