

Voters Will Choose From Three Hopefuls

Two Incumbents Seek Return; Young Sergeant Is Challenger

By Ken Moore

Belleville voters go to the polls Tuesday to elect two of three men to seats on the Board of Education and to ballot on a proposed $7.4 school budget. Polls will be open from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. in 11 districts.

Incumbents Caesar Romano and Board president Richard Mahmarian, both seeking reelection after their first term, face a challenge from Steven Rogers, a 21-year-old Air Force sergeant and a 1970 Belleville High graduate.

The unusually small field of candidates did not generate a wide variety of issues or a great amount of controversy among the three hopefuls, with Mahmarian and Romano each running on the strength of their records and Rogers offering himself as "a breath of fresh air" into the Belleville school system.

Voters will also ballot on the 1973-74 school budget, in separate questions: the $7,456 current expense account and the $102,200 capital outlay account. This year's budget represents an increase of $995,113 (15.5 percent) over last year's package, which was rejected at the polls by a slim 32-vote margin.

Richard Mahmarian was elected president of the Board at the annual re-organization after last February's election which saw the defeat of former president Leonard Back. Mahmarian was born and raised in Belleville and served four years in the Navy before attending Upsala College where he earned a bachelor of science degree in accounting and insurance.

A sales manager with the National Cash Register Company in New Brunswick, he received his master's degree in economics and management from Seton Hall in 1968.

It is this educational background and business experience, as well as his incumbency that Mahmarian has stressed in campaign speeches. Monday he told an audience at Scholc School, "my motives for running are purely a love of this town."

Mahmarian has also closely identified himself with the need for physical repair of the school system. In early spring he staged his controversial "walking tour" of Belleville schools, during which he brought attention to the deteriorating condition of many buildings.

Board member Romano, who also is strong on increased maintenance, was born in Madison and attended schools there. He continued his education at Tusculum College in Tennessee, Upsala College and Newark College of Engineering. He is also a sales manager, with a ~~reputably~~ known container corporation.

Among his activities is service on the Citizens' Conference on Narcotics. He was vice chairman of the Boy Scouts and cubmaster and Webelos leader at Pack 301 and a committee man for the Boy Scouts.

Romano is a past chairman of the Cherry Blossom Pageant (1969) and remains active in

Will This One Pass?

Tuesday Ballot To Decide The Future Of School Board's $7.4 Million Budget

Belleville voters will affirm or deny their reputation of hostility to board of Education school budgets Tuesday when they cast ballots on a proposed $7.4 million package carrying an increase of 15.5 percent over last year.

The increase of $995,113 would be reflected in a 44-point tax increase. Board members have been campaigning hard for passage of the budget which they say is a critical package containing appropriations for "desperately-needed" repairs to Belleville schools.

The economic blueprint includes a current expense account of $7,074,456, $102,200 for capital outlay and $232,205 for debt service.

Debt service is a legal obligation to pay off interest and principal on bonds and is not voted on in election. State aid would account for about 14 percent of the budget, while local taxes would support 83.5 percent. The resulting tax increase would mean to the individual, for example: a $66 increase on a $15,000-house assessment; an $88 increase on a $20,000 house assessment; an increase of $110 on an assessment of $25,000 and an increase of $132 on $30,000 house assessment.

The bulk of the increase, $560,747 will go to salary increases for the system's 469 employees and to the addition of ten new teachers in the schools (three for a work study program, five for the high school and junior high and two for the elementary schools.) Other areas of increase are fixed costs such as insurance and pension plans, increases in transportation, heat utilities and supplies.

Trustees have noted in budget presentations to interested groups that these areas over which they have little control during planning. They estimate these areas cover about 85 percent of this year's budget.

The other appropriations

the board is interested in protecting are for textbooks, an expanded athletic program (featuring planned interscholastic soccer program, and interscholastic athletic teams for girls) and several maintenance projects described by the Board members as "desperately needed."

The maintenance account this year totals $133,971 — an increase of $222,971 over last year. Also figuring heavily in the repair program is the capital outlay account of $102,200 — up $52,700 over the previous budget.

In stumping for passage of the new package, the trustees have described to audiences a pattern that has arisen over the years whereby budgets defeated at the polls have been sent to the Board of

Better Rain Than Snow

Weekend Downpour Kept Crews Hustling

Flood emergencies on opposite ends of the town kept Public Works employees busy over the weekend after a record rainfall overclouded sewer systems here.

The big trouble spots were at Washington Avenue and King Street where a collapsed 12-inch sewer main caused basement flooding in homes from Washington Avenue to Greylock Parkway and Bremond Street; and at Washington Avenue and Mill Street, where ongoing construction on another sewer line left area residents without service during the storm.

Public Works Commissioner Mary V. Senatore reported a full crew of 14 men put in "a tremendous effort" round the clock to pump out Belleville homes and to assist at the trouble spots. Two trucks were called from the Belleville Fire Department and Public Service stood by at Washington Avenue and King Street to watch over a gas line in the area of the broken sewer line.

Public Works employees were called to various other sections of town to assist residents with flood problems. "I've seen a lot of storms here in town," said Commissioner Senatore, "and more homes were flooded in this weekend than during any other storm. We had trouble in areas where there never was any problem before." Nearly two and a half inches of rain was dumped on the northern section of the state on Friday, before the storm subsided around midnight.

"We're lucky it wasn't snow," commented Public Works administrative clerk James Soldo, "because we would have had about 30 inches."

BIG, BAD BREAK — Public Works Commissioner Mary V. Senatore and administrative clerk James Soldo inspect a ruptured sewer line at Washington Avenue and King Street.

Mrs. Senatore said the 12-inch sewer line at Washington Avenue and King had collapsed on Monday, but it was the weekend rain that produced the emergency there. About 200 feet of the line, all in Nutley, had broken, but since the line serves a large portion

Police Recover Stolen Appliances

Belleville detectives recovered a heisted truck loaded with stolen appliances Sunday afternoon and charged the two men with possession of stolen property.

Acting on an anonymous tip, Detectives Anthony Fanlacone and Art Rossi, at 4 p.m. investigated a large rental truck parked at the corner of Cortland and William Street. The truck, which bore New York plates, is worth $6,000 and belongs to Pepco Rental Company of Maspeth, Long Island. It had been rented to New Jersey News bulldozers of South Orange Avenue in Newark.

Inside the truck, police found a quantity of refrigerators and stoves valued at $3,600. Police charged the occupants, a 31-year-old Belleville man and an East Orange man, aged 28, with possession of a stolen motor vehicle and possession of stolen property. The Belleville man was released on $5,000 bail and the East Orange man is still in custody. Their hearings are scheduled for February 15 in Belleville court.

Deputy Chief Frank Haight praised the work of Fanlacone and Rossi, noting the entire load of appliances was recovered intact.

Both men may be further charged by Newark police with breaking, entering and larceny in the theft of the property.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

This Tuesday Belleville voters will be given the opportunity to elect the members of the Board of Education election at which two seats are being contested by three candidates, two incumbents, Caesar Romano and Richard Mahmarian seeking reelection are vying with Steven Rogers, a youthful but qualified Air Force sergeant recently mustered out of service.

Also to be resolved is the important matter of approval or rejection of the proposed school budget which shows an increase of $995,113 over last year, principally because of salary increases amounting to $270,000.00.

Traditionally, Belleville voters "knock-down" school budgets, having done so for the past 11 years. In my judgment, this one should be beaten also. In the event it is, it then will go to our Commissioners, who are themselves inclined to be very generous in granting salary increases to their help.

If the Commissioners have the school budget referred to them because of voter rejection they may apply the paring-knife to reduce the burden of increased taxation

Free Learning Program — But Nobody Took The Offer

Only 11 children showed up with their parents at the opening session of Belleville's Saturday morning pre-school program.

School Board president Richard Mahmarian said the response to the Federally-funded Title One program was "disappointing." Mahmarian said at least 30

Town $S Plan Done

Mayor Joseph McGreevy reported this week all departments have submitted figures for Belleville's 1973-74 town budget, to be introduced at the next Board of Commissioners meeting February 13.

McGreevy declined to comment on any portion of the budget, saying the figures are still subject to change.

pre-schoolers had been pre-registered, and supervisors of the operation had expected about 60 children to arrive Saturday.

Mahmarian explained the Title One project as extending from last Saturday to July 6, running every Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. He said the intent is to expose pre-school children to a classroom environment before they enter regular schools.

Though the program is not limited to "slow learners" or handicapped children, said Mahmarian, one of the benefits of the course is that parents will be able to learn early if their children need special education.

Mahmarian said children from areas of Schools One, Nine, Four and Three are eligible to attend the courses, due to federally imposed restrictions, but the children attending need not be enrolled in a Belleville public school upon completion of the program.

There is no cost to the parents of attending pre-schoolers and the funds for the program do not come from local taxes. The program is staffed by a director, four teachers with three to four aides per teacher, and a secretary.

A Budget Brief

The Belleville Board of Education is pushing hard this year for passage of a $7.4 million budget which details an increase of nearly $1 million over last year's austerity package.

Though Belleville voters have traditionally been hostile to the Board of Education's economic plans, having rejected 10 of the past eleven proposed budgets, the school system's trustees have sent to the public a message of an urgent need for repair in the dilapidated school buildings.

The Times gives a capsule description of the choice which comes before voters Tuesday.

	Current Year 1972-73	Proposed Budget 1973-74	Increase	Percentage of Increase
Current Expenses	$6,101,858	$7,074,456	$972,598	15.9%
Capital Outlay	49,500	102,200	$52,700	106.4%
Debt Service	262,390	232,205	($30,185)	(11.5%)
Total All Accounts	$6,413,748	$7,408,861	$995,113	15.5%

CURRENT EXPENSES includes salaries for 469 employees, appropriations for textbooks, supplies, health and attendance services; pupil transportation costs, operation and maintenance of the physical plant, athletics, food services, fixed charges (insurance, social security, pensions) and community services.

Salary increases for employees represented by five separate bargaining units amounted to $560,747. Another large portion of the increase in current expenses comes from the $222,971 hike for the planned emergency maintenance program.

CAPITAL OUTLAY includes appropriations for the school system's sites, buildings and equipment. Much of the $52,700 increase in the proposed budget can also be attributed to the new repair program.

DEBT SERVICE is an account earmarked to pay off the principal and interest on bonded debt of the school district. A $30,185 decrease is noted this year because of final payments of the issue for the additions on Schools Three and Seven.

Legionnaires Hold Orator Contest; Mark Rozewski Captures Top Prize

Three Belleville High School students received medals and savings bonds last week as awards for their winning speeches in the annual Belleville American Legion Post 105 oratorical contest, held January 25.

Mark Rozewski of 44 Malone Avenue was given the top prize, a gold medal and a $50 savings bond for his speech on the U.S. Constitution.

Second prize, a silver medal and a $25 bond, went to Donna Gasiewicz of 54 Plenge Drive.

Tom Spooner of 61 Preston Street was awarded a bronze medal and a $25 savings bond.

Rozewski will enter the Essex County competition, and a win there would entitle him to enter the state and national competitions.

The contest was a joint venture between the Legion post and the high school, and was arranged through principal

Raymond O. Smith and Richard Graves, department head of social studies at Belleville High. Jack Gaviitt, a history teacher, devoted much of his own time preparing and coaching the students. The contest committee was chaired by Walter Weiss, a life member of Post 105. Competing students gave two speeches on the subject of the U.S. Constitution. The first was a prepared oration and the second was an extemporaneous discourse.

Weigh $7.4 Million Budget At The Polls On Tuesday

(Continued from Page 1) Commissioners whereby the first cuts made have been in the area of maintenance. Since 10 of the past 11 budgets have gone down on election day, a lack of repair has resulted that Board president Richard Mahmahian has described as "the sins of the past."

The trustees have also reminded voters that the past two budgets proposed by the present Board have been "very moderate." Last year's package, with a 4.8 percent increase over the previous budget, was defeated at the polls by only 32 votes.

If the proposed budget is defeated, and the trustees are unable to persuade the Commissioners to leave the maintenance appropriations intact, they could appeal to the State Superintendent of Schools.

Another alternative would be to accept the defeat and resultant cuts and attempt to win the funds by way of a special bond referendum later in the year.

Fateful Tuesday

There will be a school board election Tuesday at which time two vacancies will be filled on the school board. Incumbent president Richard Mahmarian is seeking re-election as well as school board trustee Caesar Romano. Contending with them for the two seats is 21-year-old Air Force Sgt. Steve Rogers.

Mahmarian and Romano have served well on the school board. They are dedicated, honest public officials from whom the town has received much.

At times, Mahmarian and Romano have differed on matters of school board policy. We think differences in school board policy in no wise detracts from the contributions of school board members. In fact a little dissent sometimes is very healthy.

There is no reason to replace either Mahmarian or Romano.

School Board Budget

Belleville's schools are physically in a bad way. They suffer from inattention over years past. Year after year Belleville voters have turned down school board budgets. This action frequently resulted in the postponement of many necessary items of building repair and maintenance. We are now paying for that neglect. The budget increase over last year is $933,556. Unfortunately, as School Superintendent Anthony Greco pointed out recently, the Board of Education faces a dilemma in that an overwhelming majority of funds to be spent are pretty much mandated by law and practical necessity. Eighty-two percent of the budget is represented by salaries. Interest on the school debt must be paid and that amounts to $232,000. The budget also provides for ten additional teachers, most of whom are required because of increased enrollment.

While the total proposed budget reflects a 15% increase over last year the sad fact is the Board of Education is almost powerless to control any substantial reduction from the proposed increase.

We have made our own analysis of the proposed budget and conclude it is a reasonable financial document. Our inspection of the budget does not include a determination of whether or not all jobs provided for are required. Since Board of Education members are home owners, and thus taxpayers, it would appear their self-interest would oblige them to eliminate any unnecessary jobs if they indeed did exist in the first place.

We strongly endorse approval of the budget as proposed although we too find ourselves in a dilemma — for a 15% increase in any budget is almost too much to swallow at one time.

Legislative Redistricting

A ten-member legislative redistricting commission is functioning in an effort to redistrict the New Jersey Legislature in time for this year's elections.

The membership of the commission was selected on a political basis — five by the Republican State Chairman and five by the Democrat State Chairman. The courts have ruled that state senators, presently elected countywide, hereafter will be elected from a specific senate district similar to the existing assembly districts.

Today Essex County has five assembly districts and if they were to remain intact and adopted as senate districts, each assembly district would be represented by two assemblymen and one senator.

Essex County is represented on the redistricting commission by Governor Surrogate Thomas Farley, Republican, and State Senator Ralph DeRose, Democrat, who just this week announced his candidacy for the Democrat gubernatorial nomination.

One of the plans seriously under consideration would dissect Newark into four parts. The spilloff that would affect the present Assembly 11-C District which embraces Belleville, Nutley, Bloomfield, Montclair and Verona would place part of the North Ward into the 11-C District and eliminate Verona and probably part of Montclair.

The motive behind this proposal is in line with the main thrust of the redistricting commission's objective — ensuring the re-election of incumbent senators; both Democrats and Republicans.

This bipartisan deal stinks. Newark has its own peculiar problems and should have its own voices in the halls of the State Legislature. There is absolutely nothing wrong with the assembly district which currently embraces the North and West Wards of Newark presently represented by Assemblyman Anthony Imperiale, Independent, and Democrat Frank Megaro, a Newark Councilman. The natural thing for the redistricting commission to do would be to keep in tact the North and West Ward Assembly Districts because the areas have much in common with each other — at the same time remaining within the city limits of Newark. However this simplistic, fair result would not meet the prerequisite of the New Jersey Legislative Redistricting Commission. It is looking for a raw, political answer.

There are reports from sources close to the redistricting commission that Essex Senator Ralph DeRose has advocated a chopping up of the present Assembly 11-C District to move the Kawaia Towers project area in with Belleville, Nutley, Bloomfield and Montclair.

We think this proposal is politically inspired and should receive the public condemnation it deserves.

Seems Only Yesterday

Arvidson Recommends Build New School Here

By Elaine Auerbach

ONE YEAR AGO

A 19-year-old construction worker was awaiting Grand Jury action in the death of a 10-year-old School One pupil when she had been found murdered in the basement of her home. Belleville police, led by detectives Martin Malate and Frank Falcone, with the assistance of officials from the prosecutor's office, arrested the suspect less than four hours after the death was reported.

Shouts of built voting, the political machine, and unconcerned parents echoed through the school board chambers as both the education budget and incumbent Leonard Back went down in defeat. F. Fred Burlazzi and James Risoli finished a respective one-two in voting while the budget was approved by a mere margin of 32 votes.

If Belleville's new $4 million budget for 1972 was adopted by Town Commissioners, taxpayers were expected to be required to pay $5.80 for each $100 of assessed valuation. The exact figures were to be released by Mayor McGreevy.

FIVE YEARS AGO

The polls for the Board of Education election and decision on the school budget for 1968-69 were to open in town. Residents were to vote on a total budget figure of $4,578,262. Those who were running for seats on the board were Rocco Saletta, Mrs. Norma McCool, Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero, Joseph D'Amboia, Michael Albertine, Joseph Casale and Carmen Castellano.

A testimonial dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Albert Johnston, past president of the Belleville Chapter of Deborah at San Carlo's Restaurant in Lyndhurst. Mrs. Peter Morra was in charge of the arrangements, and Mrs. Joseph Cobianni acted as master of ceremonies.

The wrestling team of Belleville, showing true skill and ability, scored overwhelming victories against Clifton 27-15 and West Orange 32-16. Belleville was unquestionably the more powerful team in the match with Clifton. In the bout with West Orange, Belleville dominated and very few class never giving up their lead once in the entire match.

TEN YEARS AGO

A public hearing on the proposed 1963-64 school budget at School Eight drew an audience of 59 who found little to criticize in the carefully prepared $2,910,215 budget request. The resolution approving the budget was passed by a 6-1 vote of the Board of Education, and became one of two questions to be decided upon by voters in the next election.

A special four member committee of the Board of Education, headed by Ernest Arvidson, recommended the construction of a new $880,000 elementary school to replace aging schools 2 and 4. Arvidson, vice-president of the board and author of the 14-page report, said that while the initial expenditures might seem great it would be the least expensive of two alternate plans for the 550 students of the two schools.

One of the highlights of the installation dinner and dance of the Chamber of Commerce was the announcement made by F. Douglas Wadsworth on behalf of a special committee of the Chamber chaired by Frank McFadden that the Belleville Foundation had made a grant of $6,000 to the Chamber for the purpose of conducting a membership campaign to be held later in the year.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Seymour Grossman, director of the Adult School, announced that the program would continue its third year of education service to the people of the town. According to the Board of Directors, a special program was to be offered to aid those who had not completed high school and who wished to earn the New Jersey equivalency certificate.

Mrs. Mary Fawcett, the Executive Secretary of the Family Service and Child Welfare in Belleville, who had formerly been with the Essex County Extension Service as Parent Education Counselor, stated that she would like to make her professional knowledge of the growth and emotional development of the children available to a greater number of Belleville parents. Mrs. Fawcett said she was eager to aid a parent education program to the work of the agency she represented.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Members of Grace Baptist Church voted to accept to resign the resignation of their pastor, Rev. Marshall J. Whitehead, who had been called to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Essex, Connecticut. The Rev. Whitehead had come to Belleville in the summer of 1941.

The Belleville Youth Guidance Council was reorganized and was meeting at the Town Hall. The following seven members were appointed to the Council by Mayor James Tully: Mrs. Lester McCorkle, Mrs. Birdie Jefferson, Walter Gilby, Ralph Allaire, Bernard Holzman, Capt. Charles McGinnis.

FORTY YEARS AGO

A salary reduction for Belleville school employees, scaled from 3 and one half percent to 15 percent, was adopted by the Board of Education making the amount to be raised by taxation for the 1933-34 school year $357,493 compared to $449,333 for 1932-33.

Chief White Eagle, American Indian and noted lecturer, spoke at a meeting of the Men's Club of Grace Baptist Church on "The Value of Public Schools to America."

FIFTY YEARS AGO

A musical was to be held at the M. Edith Studio to introduce Claire E. Padney.

Mrs. and Mr. A. Van Hatten returned to their home in Minneapolis after a two week visit in Belleville.

New Tax Law

The last revision of federal tax laws, in 1969, corrected a number of inequities but also left some loopholes for those able to utilize them.

Public and congressional sentiment has been building in favor of a new reform tax bill will be enacted by this Congress.

There are several outstanding areas in which corrective legislation is needed and in most there is considerable controversy over the specifics of that reform. One general principle, however, seems beyond dispute. No citizen with a high income should be totally exempt from all income taxes.

To implement this principle, Congress can and should provide, in any new law, that tax exemptions and tax loopholes are to be utilized to a limited degree only.

the same time merely speed up consumption of what little oil is left.

Here's something else: build an offshore port and you've created a city, too. That's because people flock to where the work is, and numerous businesses follow the people. After the oil gets used up in 30 years or so, we might well be left with a ghost city because of the loss of work. We're also left with a whole chunk of coastal environment which will have been messed up permanently for short term reasons.

BEFORE ONE HEEDS the siren song of special interest groups, with seemingly unlimited public relations bankrolls, trying to get the environmentalists out of their financial way, he or she should stop and think a little bit about the real question involved.

They are, should we all live off the fat of the land now and selfishly ignore the outlook for our children and grandchildren? Or should we face up to the fact that we should cut back on the energy consumption now and save a little more for the transition to other, and still essentially uninvited sources.

Golden Comments

which such a high budget is certain to cause.

Since this is a column, not a news story that requires strict compliance with the protocol of impartial objectivity, I'm going out on a limb to the extent of suggesting that favorable consideration be given the candidacy of Caesar Romano for his bold, courageous stand against the high salary hikes voted by the school trustees, despite the one vote against them. I also would like to see the injection of some young blood on the Board of Education such as I'm convinced the level-headed, intelligent Air Force sergeant, Steven Rogers would bring with his keen understanding of the manifold problems besetting our youth.

I liked Rogers' forthright courage when he stated, in reference to pay raises, "the Board has been looking out more for the needs of the administrators than the needs of the taxpayers and the children who attend the schools, likewise, physical plant and maintenance should be a priority in schools before pay raises. In other words no luxuries first."

Found out through the "grapevine" that Mayor McGreevy is claiming his original opposition to police and fire raises of an additional 1.3 percent with a parity differential for senior officers of 10 percent over the passed 5.5 percent raise is supposed to be based upon the inclusion of three non-police or fire personnel in the Ordinance.

Supposedly, the list of three included Signal Department Superintendent Frank Kozel, local Mayor Ernest Edward Abramson and Town Treasurer McGo.

Old town Ordinance established, it seems, a parity ratio, that provided proportionate raises for three positions when other personnel got pay increases, so as to keep their ranges in line.

W. J. Raimo, Past National Commander of Italian-American War Veterans sent a card from Hollywood-by-the-Sea, Florida asking to be remembered to his many Belleville friends. Nick was a Commission candidate in last election. He may be giving it another try comes the next round in the quadrennial race to see who "rules" our town.

You've got to take your hat off to P.B.A. President Pat McCabe. He is a fine young man with a lot of "guts." The kinda guy who can disagree with you with intelligent arguments and decorous respect. A fella that has been well imbued with the need for and means of the American Labor Movement coming from a father who long held a powerful position in the Teamster group. This lad has a lot on the ball and the local P.B.A. could well improve its stature under his capable leadership.

I heartily agree with my very wise contention that we need more police and cars for night police protection for our town, in view of the vast increase in crime throughout this ravaged area of lawlessness.

While he strongly defends his fight for parity differential for his superior officers of 10 percent, a point I'm at variance with him at this time, because I consider the need for more rank and file policemen to protect our citizens upmost, I still respect his loyalty as the P.B.A. President to diligently fight for such benefits since he is their representative and leader. He pursues his role well and with grace and dignity. I like the guy.

Recently, Dave McClure Brinkley, a TV commentator, getting an award for journalistic excellence, made a pithy speech to the effect that "To politicians on an ego trip, which is most of them most of the time, any piece of journalism not filled with overwhealing and obsequious flattery is bound on its face."

He implied politicians want only three things: praise, praise and praise.

He said, "When politicians and the press are quarreling with each other, that is their natural state. That is what they ought to do. And it is in the best interest of the people."

The politicians for the past generation have made many a mess of things, even with the press watching over them, what would they have done with nobody watching?

And without the press there is nobody. Nobody to watch over them. Nobody at all.

There are numerous countries in the world where politicians have seized absolute power and muzzled the press. There is no country in the world where the press has seized absolute power and muzzled the politicians.

If people are concerned about danger to their rights and freedoms, they should be aware of where the danger comes from. IT DOES NOT COME FROM THE PRESS. Clever words Mr. Brinkley spoke.

JAMES R. GOLDEN

Yoga

The art of relaxing with the body disciplines, known as Hatha Yoga, has in recent years been associated with some not considered responsible citizens.

The fact that faint yoga enthusiasts have sometimes made front pages with legs wrapped over heads shouldn't be allowed to distort the true picture. Yoga, while not something to solve emotional or mental problems, can help many relax, and can build a better working, more relaxed body. Our western style of life, which often requires sitting all day at a desk, or the use of only a few of the body's muscles can and sometimes does create weight and health problems and yoga, like any other good exercise, can often improve one's body functioning and — in some cases — one's temperament as well by teaching scientific relaxation of muscles and tensions.

THE STATE WE'RE IN

Energy Crisis In New Jersey Must Be Looked At Right Now

By David F. Moore

IF YOU'RE ATUNE with the media these days you're hearing about an energy crisis in New Jersey — right now, not sometime in the future. You're also finding out that industry wants an offshore crude oil port along the New Jersey coast. Inevitably, you will be bathed in crocodile tears from vested interests, blaming environmentalists for the "crisis."

Let's sort this out. First, there's obviously a fuel oil shortage this winter. But it's got nothing to do with environmentalists, just poor planning by the outfits providing our fuel.

Secondly, an argument about offshore tanker ports (and there are some big arguments, both pro and con) has nothing to do with this winter's fuel shortage. They certainly couldn't get the port and other facilities (like additional refineries) ready quickly, if in fact the port is an answer to meet the current situation, construction should have been started ten years ago.

Governor William T. Cahill has taken a firm stand against the potential disaster represented by a deepwater tanker port, so it's not like the environmental types were alone on this. You may be sure that he has environmental backing though, represented typically by a resolution in support of his position, passed on January 13 by the New Jersey Association of Environmental Commissioners.

ADDING TO THE opposition, a bill outlawing a tanker port has passed the State Assembly. It's A-2003, sponsored by Assemblyman Joseph Robertson, R-Montclair.

At a recent hearing sponsored by an ad hoc senate committee William E. Ozzard, Chairman of the New Jersey Public Utilities Commission, took a shot at environmentalists for standing in the way of solution of the state's energy crisis, just as though approval of the offshore port would solve anything. He rang in opposition to offshore nuclear plants as another reason why environmentalists should be more "reasonable." There's a substantial section of the public not represented by the Public Utilities Commission, it seems to me. I'd like to see Mr. Ozzard put the "public" back into what for all practical purposes is only a Utilities Commission. Two years ago a bill to do just that was signed into law to insist that the Utilities Commission examine and consider environmental factors in their decision. So far I haven't seen much in the way of implementation of that law.

WE'VE SEEN the impact statement for the deepwater port. It's on the basis of that statement that the Governor made his stand. We have yet to see an impact statement for the offshore nuclear plants. I have a hunch that the attitude as do most environmentalists on that one.

According to oil company spokesmen, the world has perhaps 50 years worth of petroleum left, at current and predicted consumption rates. After that comes a real energy crisis, in total terms. Since the idea of an offshore port is to make delivery of crude oil cheaper, it will only deter research into developing new sources of energy and at

Student Writers Want Feedback

The staff of the Student Page would appreciate any letters to the editor regarding articles that may be to your liking, or disliking, or that might be questionable, or controversial.

We feel that the Student Page will profit by these letters, as will the readers, for it will add a new dimension to the page, and inform the readers of what is on students' minds.

We would like students to respond as well as the readers outside of Belleville High School, and we will be happy to answer questions regarding B.H.S. and the Belleville student community.

Obviously, it is impossible to print all of the letters that will be coming in to us, but we will answer at least one a week.

Please send all letters, whether they be of questions, replies, views, or criticisms, to:

Belleville High School
c/o Robin Bressman
100 Passaic Avenue
Belleville, New Jersey 07019

Thank you, from the staff, and we hope that you'll feel free to write and ask anything that comes to your mind regarding B.H.S., because after all, the kids are what makes Belleville High and we'd appreciate any letters that showed your interest in it.

Teacher Interviewed

Senior Class Advisor Grasso Changes Methods With Time

By Liz Primmore
One of Belleville High's most active teachers is Mr. Daniel Grasso. He has been teaching at Belleville for six years.

Mr. Grasso attended Kansas State Teachers College for his B.A. in business and received his Master's degree in administration at Seton Hall University. Mr. Grasso is now continuing his education at Jersey City State, studying English and other business courses.

Mr. Grasso enjoys working with the students. "I feel that I learn as much from the students as they do from me," he says. "Each new year brings new personalities."

Mr. Grasso has a few personal ideas on education. "I believe Belleville needs a distributive education program where a student learns about a trade in the morning and works on the job relating to his school courses in the afternoon."

Basically, Mr. Grasso became a teacher because he enjoys helping people. "I have changed my teaching methods since I started because student attitudes are changing."

Presently, Mr. Grasso, is the Senior Class Advisor. The class is planning an over-night trip to Fernwood, Pa. To raise money for the trip, Mr. Grasso, Mr. Rafferty, and some senior students wrote the play called, "The Nitty-Fifties." The plot of the play creates a week-end of teenage activities during the 1950's.

He is presently working feverishly with the students on this year's play.

Mr. Grasso spends his spare time coaching basketball at St. Joseph's Boys School in West New York. Another hobby he likes is collecting antiques. Mr. Grasso attends the theater, and one of his favorite plays was, "Fiddler on the Roof."

DANIEL GRASSO, Senior Class Advisor, says "I learn as much from the students as they learn from me." He enjoys meeting "new personalities" every year.

Students Monitor Lunch Periods

By Paula Oblurka

With minimal faculty supervision, 27 students of Belleville High School have taken on the responsibility of student leaders during five lunch periods.

Under the guidance of Mr. Michael Lally, an English teacher at Belleville High, the cafeteria has gone through a change during the past three months.

In past years, the cafeteria was supervised by approximately five teachers per period. After each lunch session, the cafeteria appeared as the remainder of a cyclone. Now with only two teachers per period, Mr. Lally and another, plus five to six student teachers the cyclone doesn't appear anymore.

The twenty-seven student leaders consist of eleven juniors and sixteen seniors. Originally many students volunteered for this job. Mr. Lally talked to teachers and coaches, and from their opinions and recommendations he chose the student leaders. The parents of these students received letters informing them of their child's selection.

Mr. Lally calls monthly meetings to discuss any improvements or any changes which may occur.

Mr. Lally and the student leaders are not the only Belleville High members who should be commended.

Without the cooperation of the students the cafeteria could never have progressed so well. Yet there are still certain students who feel they should be rewarded for their efforts. This small handful should take the time to realize they are being rewarded by not having to live in their own dirt.

Brooks become crooked from taking the path of least resistance. So do people.

Student Symposium

Co-Ed Gym Resulted From Faulty Doors

By Barbara Mitchell

Something new has been added to Belleville High — Co-ed gym — or at least a reasonable facsimile. The girls and boys now take gym, not together, really, but with the dividing doors of the gymnasium open.

I wish I could say that this new arrangement was the result of long and careful study by the Physical Education Department and they have decided that we are mature enough to handle the situation, but this is not true. The truth is the gym dividing doors are broken and just won't close.

It seems that the gym doors were bought at a low price which was probably why, after eight years, they have broken down. The company that originally made the doors have sold out to another company and their representatives have been sent to examine them.

According to his company, the doors can't be fixed and must be replaced with a new set that would cost thousands and thousands of dollars. The Board of Education have refused to accept their decision and have set up an Advisory Committee which met Saturday to take another look at the doors to see if they can be just repaired instead of buying a new set.

Meanwhile, the girls and boys have gotten used to the new arrangement. Although they were shocked and embarrassed at first, the novelty has worn off and the members of the opposite sex on the other side of the gym are "just there." Some don't even want the doors to be fixed, as one student added, "it gives you something else to look at!"

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

Junior Women Hear Clinic Social Worker

On January 22, 1973, the Literature and Education Department of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville sponsored a most interesting and informative Social Program.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Carolyn Strunk, who is a Senior, Psychiatric Social Worker at the Essex Child Guidance Clinic. The program began with the viewing of a film entitled "If These Were Your Children" which depicted an elementary school classroom and focused on the variety of emotional problems that one may encounter in a typical classroom situation. After the film, Mrs. Strunk conducted a question and answer period whereby members and guests were made further aware of how they can learn to recognize problems in children that require professional guidance.

Mrs. Strunk concluded the lecture by informing those present how the Essex Child Guidance Clinic serves our community and how we the taxpayers support it and are entitled to make use of its services. The Child Guidance Clinic has been meeting with various groups in an effort to help educate the community in recognizing emotional problems and seeking guidance before major problems develop.

This particular meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville was also an Open House for prospective members so that they may acquaint themselves with club members and see how the Club functions. Anyone who wishes to become a member of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville may contact Mrs. Thomas Spillane at 759-0219.

Free Blood Pressure Checks To Be Given By Health Agencies

Two community-oriented volunteers' health agencies, Planned Parenthood-Essex County and the Essex County Health Association, Inc., are sponsoring a weekly program of free blood pressure checks for men and women at the Planned Parenthood-Essex County Ironbound Station, 361 Lafayette Street, Newark.

Using the theme "Do your heart a favor — have blood pressure checked", the program will begin on Valentine's Day, February 14, from noon to 3 p.m. This is the only time in the Newark area offering free blood pressure checks on a walk-in basis, between noon and 3 p.m. on Wednesdays and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Thursdays.

"We chose Valentine's Day to initiate our new health screening service for several reasons," explained Mary E. Singletary, executive director of Planned Parenthood-Essex County. "All the hearts seen during the Valentine season provide an extra reminder, and one of the nicest ways to say 'I love you' is to take good care of your health. Also, it's our way of saying 'we care about you' to residents of Essex County."

Fred W. Wachtel, M.D., chairman of the Essex County Health Association's committee and education committee, pointed out that having a blood pressure check regularly is good preventive medicine. "Statistically, there are more than 20 million people in the United States with high blood pressure, but half of them are unaware of it. More than 50,000 persons die each year as a direct result of high blood pressure, and it contributes significantly to heart attacks, strokes, and kidney failure.

"The ironic fact is that high blood pressure can be successfully controlled with treatment, once it is detected. That's why it's so important to have your blood pressure checked at least once a year," he added.

The Essex County Health Association is providing films in English and in Spanish on high blood pressure which will be shown at the Ironbound clinic on screening days. A

Expectant Parents Classes Have Begun At Mountainside

The third series of education classes for expectant parents began last week at Mountainside Hospital.

The nine-week series, conducted by professional nursing personnel with specialized training in parent education and the Lamaze method of natural childbirth, will be held in the Mills Home, School of Nursing, opposite the hospital, each Thursday from 8 to 10 p.m.

In addition to exercises, the expectant parents class includes lectures, films, diagrams, printed materials, demonstrations, discussion and individual consultation.

Expectant parents may take all or part of the nine-week course with the consent of the pregnant woman's doctor. Information may be obtained by calling 746-0000, Ext. 216. The course will begin again on April 4 and on June 7.

Classes will emphasize the physical and emotional aspects of childbirth, the care and feeding of newborn and infants, and family relationships. Classes should be taken during the last three months of pregnancy.

Lamaze classes will begin the third week of the series. The method includes instruction in neuromuscular relaxation exercises, efficient

'Bavaria' Film Shown Tonight By Institute

"Bavaria" will be the sixth color film to be shown on the Institute's 1972-73 Travel Course on Thursday evening, February 8, 8:15 in the Montclair High auditorium.

Dick Reddy, the producer, will narrate the film in person. Mr. Reddy will be remembered for his unusual films shown here the last two seasons "Mark Twain in Switzerland" and his film on Russia. The film on Bavaria begins in Upper Bavaria and then moves to Munich where the beautiful buildings of King Ludwig I will be seen and a comparison shown of Munich 100 years ago with today.

Mr. Reddy introduces us to all the sights and sounds of Bavaria from the colorful beer tents of Oktoberfest to the quiet waters of Hintersee, from a windy ascent to the top of Germany's highest mountain by cable car to a grove inside Neuschwanstein Castle and the 1,000 candle ceremony at Herrenchiemsee Castle.

Scout Leaders' Wives Enjoy Xmas Party

Belleville Scout Leaders and their wives and husbands enjoyed a Christmas Party at the Belleville Amvets Hall. Co-chairmen of the affair were Tom Balsamo, cubmaster of Pack 350 and Angelo Portuese, cubmaster of Pack 377.

The 1973 District Committee of the Belleville Scouts was presented by Tom Mack, Belleville District Chairman at the Annual Meeting of the District. Ernest Arvidson will serve as vice-chairman of Belleville District.

James F. Donahue, District Commissioner, presented the guests who included Joseph Merton, Council Scout Executive, Herb Groce, Council Commissioner, and Richard B. Lee, Field Director.

Round-up awards for recruiting new boys into scouting were presented to Pack 350, Fewsmith Church; Pack 377, St. Peter's Church; Pack 387, St. Anthony's Church; Troop 301, Wesley Methodist Church; Troop 350, Fewsmith Church and Troop 387, St. Anthony's Church.

The Heavenly Echoes Part Of Clifton Crusade

The Heavenly Echoes of Belleville, have been invited by Pastor Steinar LeRo of Faith Gospel, Clifton, to present their 3-Day Gospel Music Crusade at his church at 1300 Route 3, Clifton, N.J. on February 12, 13, and 14, at 7:30 P.M. The Heavenly Echoes have been singing gospel music for the past seven years. They have sung for many denominations in the east coast and have brought in the top gospel singing groups to New Jersey.

Sam Zuccone, leader of the Echoes has invited one of the most outstanding singing groups in America, the Orrells of Allen Park, Michigan. The Orrells are outstanding partly because of their 21-year old piano player Gordon Jense, who writes all of the songs.

Gospel Music is rich with talent to boast of but none any greater than Canadian born Jense. His deep spiritual insight and knowledge of God's work enables him to write from intense encounters of inspiration. Gordon's solid gospel style will vary occasionally in medium but never in message. He will also be preaching at the Crusade.

Zuccone says, "The Orrells are different in every way. They combine their individual talents to present a quality of sound unequal in the gospel field. A seldom felt excitement is yours to experience as you listen to the Orrells. When you hear the young men you'll want to make sure to hear them again because you will be uplifted and blessed and touched by their singing. You may laugh with them and maybe even cry with them but certainly you will love them and their message." Admission is free.

Clubs will emphasize the physical and emotional aspects of childbirth, the care and feeding of newborn and infants, and family relationships. Classes should be taken during the last three months of pregnancy.

Lamaze classes will begin the third week of the series. The method includes instruction in neuromuscular relaxation exercises, efficient

Sacred Heart Girl Scouts Are Invested

All new Girl Scouts of Sacred Heart Parish, Newark, were invested on December 10 and pins were given by Father Varley. All ten troops celebrated with Christmas parties.

Mrs. Joan Rafferty and Mrs. Judy Flanagan of Troop 17 entertained the two new Brownie Troops 66 and 769 run by Mrs. Rita Klein and Mrs. Amy Zabinski with Mrs. Rafferty in the role of Santa Claus.

Troop 17 is working on Pen Pal badges by corresponding with members of Troop 543 of Washington Rock Council under the leadership of Mrs. Barbara Jassar.

Mrs. Connie Foster of Troop 731 of Washington Rock Council invited Troop 17 to spend the weekend of January 26-27-28 camping at Camp Sinawik, Green Brook. Highlight of the weekend was cooking a "mitten" meal outdoors under flood lights.

The main part of the program, based on raising the status of women through education, consisted of awarding three scholarships, valued at $300, each to the New Jersey public institutions of higher education. Representatives of Newark College of Engineering, Rutgers University, Rutgers, the State University, and Rutgers School of Nursing, accepted the scholarships.

I like to start this column with good news, and my "sparkling personality" of last week, Betty Dieffinger, her husband George, and their four children, Lisa, John, Tom and Karen had a real surprise this past Saturday night. They welcomed home from Japan, son George, Jr. who came back to town after 30 years overseas with the U.S. Army, welcome and waltz celebration.

"Ho boy! I hope this column was missed a wee bit. I spent the past ten days having break last in bed!," as a patient at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital more about that later, meantime let me try to bring you up to date with the news.

Not being up to par, am missing out on a lot of BOE candidates teas, good luck to Caesar Romanoff, Steve Rodgers and Dick Maharian, speaking of Caesar reminds me of a story that got back to me when the Jr. High youngsters traveled to the Port of New York and New Jersey Authority around Christmas time to sing carols. Caesar was on board the bus and quipped to the kids, "O.K. - all together now. Hail, Caesar!" He's really a modest guy, and has well-wishers of all ages rooting for him.

Since I came out of CMMH, understand Charles Bogert of Bremont Street and Mrs. Linda Forina - gym teacher at the Jr. High, went in, speedily get well wishes. Had lots of time to read while in the hospital, and found out that the Times left out some vital information in my "organization doings" column on the Jr. Woman's Club of Belleville, the officers are: Mrs. Thomas Spina, president; Felia Valente, first vice-president; Miss Jean Benedetto, second vice-president; Mrs. John McNally, third vice-president; Mrs. John Courter, recording secretary; Mrs. Carl Clemente, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Nicholas Landolfi, financial secretary, and Mrs. Robert Gacione, publicity chairman. My apologies, ladies.

A lot happened the beginning of this week and hope to give you details later, but COPE of School No. 7 held a meeting Monday evening which included an introduction to the BOE candidates and an interesting program on first aid pointers, given by Training Kenneth Belford of the Belleville Fire Department. Refreshments were by third grade mothers. COPE will host a card party March 15 at The Fountain, the first time the school will hold the event outside of the facility, they desperately need trading stamps, if you can spare some, please call Marie Cuzzo at 751-2736.

Tuesday, School No. 9 had a combination Founder's Day celebration and they honored the past PTSA presidents, more details next week.
Received a nice note from an "eighteen year old friend" Anthony Buccino who wished me to print requirements for obtaining an A-B identification card. Bring two pictures of yourself, approximately 1 1/2", same pose, along with your birth certificate, driver's license and two dollars to the County Hall of Records, Newark. Anthony says that rumors of waiting two weeks for the ID card are false, it takes about twenty minutes, thanks, Anthony.

Thanks to Mrs. Frances Gilbert for the news that the Second Annual Card Party by Our Lady of Mount Carmel Columbianes, No. 6195 Knights of Columbus, will be held Friday, April 6 at 8 pm in Holy Family School auditorium, Brookline Ave., Nutley. For tickets please contact Mrs. Malaga, 235-1663, or Mrs. Gilbert, 751-3155. A very nice affair is planned with many prizes, including a TV set.
Don't forget the Dinner-Fashion Show sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville, March 8, 6:30 at The Fountain.
Here's something I'd like to check out myself, but I got the word from Cathy Loreto of Abbott's Drug Store that a fantastic singing group, "Brotherhood" is appearing at the Darwood Lounge at the end of March. They are five talented young men who play anything to suit your pleasure, whether you're 18 or 80. Your host at the Darwood, 751 Washington Ave., are Tony, Don and Richie, who make the customers feel at home.
Another card party...this time, sponsored by The Kiwanis Club of Belleville, to be held May 3 at The Fountain. Sy Grossman is general chairman, Larry Gonnello, ad book chairman, and Mike Marotti chairs, according to their bulletin, "that all important special committee".

Breakfast In Bed
I can't say that I got any special privileges, as I signed in at Clara Maass under my marriage name, so the staff wasn't looking to get their names in the paper. With so many patients, it was astounding to me how the nurses and aids managed to discharge their duties so capably, and yet so cheerfully.
If I call a "Mrs." or "Miss" or vice-versa, please excuse, I was lucky to get their names as they dashed to and fro. The nurses I met included Mrs. Clayton Record - a charming redhead; Miss Valeri Sisti - a dynamic brunette; Mrs. S. Fleisher, sweet and gracious; Miss Karalec Lesko - pert blonde; Miss Veronica Rompuski, instructor of the nursing students; Miss Mary Brannick, a very nice gal from Kearny; Mrs. Daniels who had an infectious laugh, and Mrs. S, as she is fondly referred to, who I think was the head nurse on 3-North, and really knows her business.

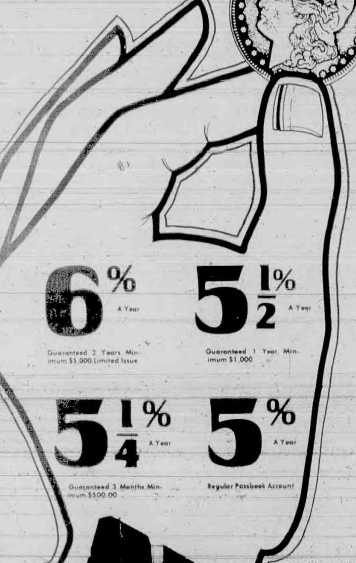

The "Aids" I met included Mrs. Lavelle Jones and Daphne Dennis, two of the merriest gals; ever, a Miss Gale - who doesn't come on like a "storm", but is calm and unflappable and a gal named "Estelle" who was on the midnight to dawn shift. Two student nurses who made a big impression on me were Maetha Zazzarino and Linda Carswell. CMMH is due for a big shot in the arm when those two finish training, they are so full of enthusiasm.
Even though I was on a bland diet, a Miss Mary Logel - who looked like a real Irish lass, complete with freckles - of the Dietary Department, stopped in to check if the food was A-O.K. I spent a great deal of my time in the X-Ray Department, and hats off to those technicians. It's not an easy job to make sure a patient doesn't breathe at the wrong time but all I met were pleasant, patient and precision-perfect in their performance of duty. One cheery gal I met, lived up to her name, "Luani" which means "contented living" and she hails from Hawaii. Others I met included Miss Turner, pleasant and nice, Manila Carter, who hopes her daughter will be a can-dystrainer some day, K. Russ Giuliano ("no relation to the judge") and Mary Jane Clarke, a most pleasant miss. Also saw Allan Kitson from the Physical Therapy Department, working hard as usual.
Clara Maass relies a great deal on volunteer staff and all their multitudinous duties? A very pleasant gal, named "Jeanne", Steven Cherek, and Mrs. E. Russomanno who will celebrate seven years at CMMH on Feb. 23. A most interesting gentleman was Charlie Helm. He and his wife, Margaret, have four children - Jerry, Don, Martin and St. Charles Maglin. This past week Charlie received a high honor from the Knights of Columbus Council 3428.

Orange Whips Cagers for Title...

SNAGGED — Bellboy Abdel Anderson has the situation — and the ball — well in hand during Friday's losing battle with Orange, which saw the powerful Tornadoes clinch the Big Ten title via an 84-56 win over the Bellboys.

BOXED into a corner by the tight Orange press Mark Corino looks to Vin Turturiello (14) for a way out.

WELL-TIMED — Abdel Anderson chose the right moment to shoot as he leaves the floor a split-second before an equally rangy Orange foe.

SURPRISED — Senior Mark Canyon (11) is momentarily taken aback after an Orange player blows a layup. The alert Canyon quickly recovered, though, to arrange a score for the home team.

"LOOK BEHIND YOU" — an easy pass heads for the waiting hands of Belleville's Abdel Anderson, but the tall Bellboy seems to be in for a jolt from an Orange foe.

But Grapplers Close In On Crown

TO THE WIRE — Co-captain Brian Banda pressures Irvington's Terry to the mat during the 130-pound feature of the match won, 47-8 by Belleville Banda pinned Terry 15 seconds before the end of his bout.

LEVERAGE — That's what Anthony Villano (115) applies to Golden of Irvington as Villano forces him to accept a relatively quick pin in 1:43.

RACING against time, Banda takes a quick peek at the clock to see how soon he has to make his pin.

"OOF" — Bellboy Joe Vasquez (157) takes a body block thrown by Marack of Irvington. Unphased, Vasquez came back for an 8-0 victory.

ON THE WAY — Villano eases Irvington's Golden's shoulders to the floor as the game grappler puts his strength against the 115-pound Bellboy's.

CAUGHT — Bob Wille (123) ties up Jauerbaum of Irvington early in the match and takes the fight out of him before pinning the Camper.

Pro Gridders Coming Back

LAST YEAR — N.Y. George Nock drives past All-Stars Jim Corino and Bob Van Dyne. Nock isn't slated to return this time around, but both All-Stars pictured here will play.

Tickets are moving fast for the February 17 meeting between the Belleville All-Stars and the New York Jets gridders-turned-cagers for the second annual Craig Fund benefit basketball game.

The game, expected to be a sell-out, will see the Jets seeking revenge for the astounding 67-51 upset the All-Stars perpetrated upon them last year around this time.

In the Jets' lineup will be Ed Belg, Rich Caster, Bob Tucker, Emerson, Boszy, Ron Johnson, Roger Maide, Bob Davis, John Dackos of the Steelers and Phil Villapiano of the Raiders. Matt Snell may also play, depending on the outcome of surgery.

For the All-Stars, it will be Mike Chieffo, Richard Luzzi, Bob Van Dyne, Bob Laird, Tom Joyce, Emil D'Angelo, Martin "Red" Higgins, Len Luongo, Jim Nissosky, Frank Zinna and Jim Corino. Joe Petrali will serve as the All-Star mentor.

The game is scheduled for 8 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 17 at the Belleville High gym.

Proceeds of the game go to the Craig Fund, which aids the handicapped of Belleville.

Tickets may be purchased at the following locations: Flowersmart, Jolly Cleaners, Belle Maide, Zig Zag Bar, McGreevy's Tavern, Vuono's Tavern, DeBacco Brothers, Rosebud's Sweet Shop, Stanton's Confectionary, Rossmore Pharmacy, Rossi's Tavern and Brighton Tavern.

Irvington Hits Belleville Five

The Irvington Campers invaded Belleville Tuesday afternoon and knocked the hostagers for a 68-49 loss. The Bellboys will travel to East Orange tomorrow to face a strong squad the Blue and Gold previously upset. The game will end the official cage season.

N.J. State Police Officer Meets Future Lawyers

Officer Kelly of the New Jersey State Police came to Belleville Senior High School on January 29. The officer came to talk to students about the state police force. He also gave information to students who were concerned about joining the force. This meeting was held by the school's Future Lawyer's Club.

Paced by Abdel Anderson and Vince Turturiello Tuesday night, the first quarter in the second, Irvington's Harry Doctor led a blazing 11-point attack that left Belleville behind.

Another run in the third quarter of 13 points opened a gap that Belleville could not close coming to within only 13 points of the Campers later in the game.

The home team was able to keep up the defensive end of the contest adequately and matched the Campers for rebounds, though Irvington had a height advantage. The Bellboys' attack, though, floundered as the Campers

Orange Uses Bellboys to Vault To the Top of the Conference

By Tony Calabrese
The Orange Tornadoes came to Belleville High School last Friday afternoon as the 10th best team in the state of New Jersey, and as the dominating leader of the Big Ten Conference.

By the time the ballgame was over, Orange had shown all those in attendance that the ranking was no fluke, as they easily defeated the local Belleville cager club by a score of 84-56, to win the Big Ten Conference title by a three game margin over both Bloomfield and East Orange.

The win made Orange 16-1 on the season, and they appear that they will be mightily tough for whoever they face for the rest of the season, and into the post season tournaments.

Belleville, in the midst of a nine game losing streak, saw their season record drop to 2-14, and the team is just about assured of finishing last in the Big Ten Conference standings by themselves, as neighboring Nutley, the team in front of Belleville in the standings, is two games up on Belleville with two games to go. And to make the situation all that much tougher for Belleville, they must conclude their regular season this week with tough Irvington in Belleville and then travel up to East Orange tomorrow afternoon, where the Panthers will have revenge in their minds as Belleville pulled a shocking upset in Belleville to beat them earlier in the season.

In last Friday afternoon's game, Orange was led by their junior center star, Big Dick Johnson, who tossed in 25 points, and by sparkplug guard Eddie Butler who added 20 more. Belleville had three players score in double figures on the afternoon, led by senior forward Mark Canino who dropped in 17, Abdel Anderson and Vin Turturiello added 16 and 10 points, respectively to their part in the Belleville picture of this ballgame.

In the early part of the ballgame the two teams traded baskets leaving the score tied at 8-8. Baskets by Canino, Turturiello, and Mark Canino, and two foul

Big One Tomorrow Matmen Are Poised To Clinch Big Ten

By Ken Moore
The Belleville matmen stand ready to snatch the Big Ten crown from defending champion Nutley tomorrow when the Blue and Gold meet the Columbia Cougars here at 3:45 p.m.

A win over the Cougars, a fair club with a 6-5 record, would leave the Bellboys undefeated in Big Ten competition. Their closest rivals are the Nutley grapplers, who have one defeat in the Big Ten, inflicted early in the season by Belleville.

Columbia will be no pushovers for the Bellboys, though. Once on the top of the Big Ten heap, the Cougar fortunes took a downward turn in mid-January when Nutley dealt them a 31-18 defeat.

At least three of the Cougar matmen will put up good fights against Belleville stalwarts Co-captain Ramon "Chico" Lijo (106 pounds) will face Columbia's Ray Marks, who has posted a 10-1 mark thus far this season. Lijo rides the crest of an undefeated streak for the entire season.

Anthony Villano, another leading Belleville wrestler at 115 pounds, will meet Russell Crockett, whose record is 9-1-1.

At 148 pounds, it will be Ralph Fabiano versus Steve Frampton (10-1). Those three leaders are the only returning lettermen in the Cougar team.

Like Belleville, they began the season with a relatively green team and had, at first, managed to discount inexperience as a factor.

Youth never seemed to work against Belleville very much, and it certainly didn't hurt last Thursday afternoon, when the matmen posted Irvington, 47-3. Yesterday, they wrestled Caldwell, too late for the Times to report the outcome of the match.)

Rocco Cuozzo led off against the Campers with a 4-0 victory. At 106, the visitors were forced to concede to Belleville's Lijo, when Lijo's opponent weighed in two pounds heavy. In an exhibition match, Lijo handily beat the Cougar. Also receiving the benefits of a forfeit for the same reason was Ralph Fabiano, who took his foe, 10-1, in exhibition.

Anthony Villano pinned Goldenrod Irvington in 1:42 during the 115-pound competition and Bob Wiles (133) followed with a pin of his own over Jaerbaum in 3:40.

A Coach John Silveri said co-captain Brian Dana (130) looked "the best he has all season" when Dana pinned his opponent in the final 1:5 seconds of his bout after leading by 18 points at the moment of the pin.

Mike Resumili defeated Album, 4-1 and Mark Falco drew with his opponent, 2-2. After Fabiano's win by forfeit, Joe Vazner (157) soundly defeated Mirvack, 8-0. Jim La Conte took another impressive decision of 7-0 over Irvington's Guntz.

At the 178-pound level, sophomore Jim Manuele, who stepped in to replace the injured Craig Davis, was injured by Capar of Irvington in 2:56.

Belleville heavyweight John Smith, though he won an 8-3 decision over George Oakley, saw his record of eight straight pins broken Smith, however, remains undefeated, with one tie from the first match of the season.

The Belleville grapplers' record after the win over Irvington was:

Fem Cagers Win Over Verona

The Bellgirls traveled to Verona February 2 to pick up their tenth win of the season by a 55-46 score. It was a lackluster game as the Bellgirls looked lethargic in the first half.

Patty Knish scored the first basket for the Bellgirls, shortly followed by Joyce Buckland. The Bellgirls were down by two points at the end of the first quarter. Verona scored four consecutive baskets, then Donna Foley sank a shot for the first Bellgirl points in the second quarter. This was followed by four foul shots and two baskets by the Bellgirls, but they still trailed by six points at the end of the half.

In the third quarter, the ball game was turned completely around as the girls from Belleville began to show the form that has earned them a 10-3 record. Debbie Maloney received the jump ball and assisted Joyce Buckland for a basket. Debbie Maloney started for the Bellgirls by scoring eight points in this quarter, and brought the girls to a tie at 36 points for each team.

In the fourth quarter, Donna Stone caught the jump ball and assisted Debbie Maloney for the first basket of the quarter. The Bellgirls scored nineteen points in the fourth quarter compared to Verona's ten points, and that was the difference as the Bellgirls pressed the entire last eight minutes.

Bellgirls Nip Lyndhurst, 49-47, On Miss Foley's Free Throw

With 19 seconds showing on the clock in the fourth quarter, junior guard Donna Foley confidently sank both ends of a one and one free throw situation to capult the upset minded Bellgirls over visiting Lyndhurst 49-47. Time then ran out for the girls from Lyndhurst as they lost their second game of the season.

From the beginning, it was a tight ball game with the lead changing hands throughout. Prior to this game, Lyndhurst supported a one-loss record, and they had already defeated the girls of neighboring Nutley twice this season.

Susan Winslip went to the end line to sink a shot for the first point of the game. The Bellgirls scored two additional baskets before Lyndhurst put any points on the board. Donna Foley made three consecutive baskets, shooting from the corner of the key. At the end of the first quarter, the Bellgirls were ahead 13-8.

Susan Winslip made the first basket of the second quarter, but then Lyndhurst scored nine straight points and took the lead until Joyce Buckland hit with a jumper to tie the score. The Bellgirls broke the tie when Debbie Maloney made a basket under the boards with seconds remaining in the half. The Bellgirls were leading 21-19.

It was anyone's game in the third quarter. The seesaw battle showed Lyndhurst scoring first, then the Bellgirls quickly countered with a fast break and a basket. Then one of the Lyndhurst girls went to the end line and sank a shot to put them ahead 34-33 at the end of the third quarter.

The fourth quarter was quick and exciting. After several exchanges of baskets, Lyndhurst suddenly pulled ahead by six points. But with a minute and three seconds left, a combined effort by the entire Bellgirl team, proved to be the difference. Deb Maloney hit for two, Joyce Buckland came back with two more, and then Donna Foley hit from the outside.

Thus, the Bellgirls surged back to tie the score, and pave the way for Donna Foley's last-second heroics. Joyce Buckland and Donna Foley led the Bellgirls in scoring with 20 and 14 points respectively. Susan Winslip and Debbie Maloney shared rebounding honors for the Bellgirls.

Suns-Nets Battle Livens Rec Race

by Rod Ciccone
Last Tuesday saw the opening of the senior high school recreation basketball league playoffs. All eight teams competed in the quarter-finals.

First place Seven provided the largest victory margin over last place Cougars, 62-28, and second place Suns edged out a 53-49 victory upon the seventh place Nets.

In their action, fourth place J. Co. defeated fifth place Bongo Chips 37-32 and third place Poco eliminated sixth place Knicks 31-20.

The most astonishing match-up was between the Suns and Nets. The Nets mounted an eight-point lead at halftime and ten-point lead in the third quarter. This was due to the high scoring of Steve Meagher who had twenty points and Mike Meaghers' nineteen points.

Businessman Here Guilty On False Tax

Three area businessmen, including a Nutley resident recently pleaded guilty to Federal tax charges in U.S. District Court in Newark.

Joseph Liquori of 182 Pike Street pleaded guilty to a charge of filing a false income tax return for the Delavan, Construction Company in Belleville for the tax year 1969. He was president of the company, according to IRS sources. Liquori now faces the possibility of three years imprisonment and a fine of $5,000.

All of the investigations resulting from the indictments were conducted by Special Agents of the New Jersey IRS District's Intelligence Division under the direction of Chief John J. O'Hara and Elmer H. Klinsman, IRS District Director.

Also found guilty was Sam Medore of Mount Hope, a retired businessman with substantial realty holdings in Morris Count and George Bush of Warren, who pleaded guilty to a charge of filing a false income tax return for 1968.

Essex Film Club Show This Weekend

"Tillie's Punctured Romance" appears on the film program of the Essex Film Club for their screenings of February 10 at 8:30 p.m. and February 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Club's headquarters, 263 Harrison Street in Nutley.

Many great comics had their start at the Sennett studios and most of them appear in this timeless production, including Mabel Norman, Mack Swain, Edgar Kennedy, Chester Conklin, Minia Durfee, Charlie Chase

Belleville High Honor Group Is Prospering

To continually help the community by whatever mean it could, is the Belleville High School's National Honor Society's goal. Several projects performed and those to be presented have established a scholarship may be given to two NHS members.

Since the initiation of all members last year to the present, projects have been idealized.

Earlier this year the NHS conducted its yearly "Canned Food Drive" and contributed twenty-five dollars to supply a "Turkey Dinner" for all needy families in Belleville. Food was mostly collected from fellow students. During Christmas time, the NHS collected game toy from themselves, students and friends in order the children at the Children's Shelter would enjoy a merry christmas. In the coming month, the NHS plans to sing and dance a variety of song to the people at Essex County Geriatrics Center.

A thousand dollar scholarship sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals may be available to Robert Luongo and or Anthony Calabrese. Both were selected from the NHS as being the best qualified to receive this award in their chapter. Two hundred such scholarships are being offered to NHS members throughout the state. The Society hopes both students will be acknowledged as recipients of this award.

Public Works Men Had Their Fill of Rain

of Belleville, both towns will split evenly the $35,000 repair bill.

Salerno Construction Company was brought in to replace the line, but didn't bring pumps to the King Street site until Saturday afternoon, freeing the three Public Works employees and equipment on the job there.

Meanwhile, near the Newark line, pumps belonging to Stamato Construction Company failed, resulting in flooded basements in homes and businesses along Mill Street.

Three Public Works pumps were dispatched to that site, but Commissioner Senatore made it clear to Stamato he would be billed for the overrun. The town employees on his job. The project there has been a new sewer line financed by several towns, including Belleville, located along the Second River.

Mrs. Senatore also said Monday she will move "as fast as possible" to have another sewer line installed in the vicinity of Washington Avenue and King Street to relieve those homes affected by last weekend's rain. She indicated a possibility she will ask to open bidding on the project at the next Commission meeting on February 13.

Even when the two main trouble spots were effectively mended by construction companies, the Public Works Department stayed on the job, visiting stricken homes. "The boys went from house to house, hauling as fast as they could," said Mrs. Senatore. "They started at 3:30 Friday afternoon and worked until 10 last night. Most of them only had a couple hours sleep over the entire weekend. We took them out to dinner at the Branch Brook Manor Friday night. I think they appreciated that."

Mrs. Senatore added, "Actually their work started with the ice on Thursday, when they were out salting the streets from five in the afternoon until 10 at night."

The Commissioner reported flood problems at, among other places Main Street, Carolyn Road, Lake Street and Belmont Avenue. On the other hand, she said, "at Fairway Avenue, where we thought we'd have trouble, everything went beautifully."

The worst spot, said the Commissioner, was at the intersection of Washington Avenue and King Street. Over two feet of water was found in the basement of the Italian Florio Society and the basement of the Darwood Lounge.

Sells $3 Million As Special Agent

Paul F. Holick of 27 Fernwood Terrace, special agent with Prudential Insurance Company's Monitair branch office, has sold over three million dollars of insurance during 1972.

This is Holick's ninth million-dollar year, since joining the company in 1958. In each of the past three years, he has sold more than $2 million. In 1971, his sales exceeded 2.5 million.

As in 1971, Mr. Holick again became one of only 100 Prudential special agents to earn a President's Citation, and has been invited to attend the President's Club Conference in Puerto Rico in April.

He is a member of the Knights of Columbus and St. Mary's Church Holy Name Society in Nutley. He is also active in the Newark Life Underwriters Assn.

Holick earned a bachelor's degree from Panzer College in 1952, and a master's degree from Rutgers University in 1954.

Most adults have forgotten how to look at things with the delight of a child.

Official Briefs Women On Consumer Fraud

Members of a recent meeting of the Woman's Club of Belleville Evening Membership Department were given a very interesting and informative talk by Mr. David Hughes of the Consumer Protection Agency — part of the Attorney General's Office.

In his talk Mr. Hughes outlined the activities of his department and how they affect the consumer. The department was formed in June '71 and its chief purpose is to enforce the Consumer Fraud Act.

This consists of investigating consumer complaints concerning fraudulent weights and measures, investigating sales of stocks and securities, charitable fund agencies, (making sure the money collected goes to the proper party), home improvements, car sales, health frauds, correspondence schools etc.

Mr. Hughes feels that the theme for the consumer be "let the buyer beware." When you are considering buying a car, furniture or any home improvements be sure you go to a reputable dealer, always read the contract through before you sign, don't be afraid to ask questions.

There was a question and answer period followed by dessert. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Arthur Engel, Miss Marjorie

Historians To Honor A. Crisp

The Belleville Historical Society will hold its First Annual Dinner Meeting on Friday, Feb. 16, at 7 p.m. at the Christ Episcopal Church at the corner of Washington Ave., and Essex St. The menu consists of pot roast and all the trimmings.

This meeting will honor the outgoing president, Mr. Allan Crisp, and welcome the new president for 1973, Mr. Harry Sullivan.

Mr. Robert Lunney, the Director of the New Jersey Historical Society, will be the guest speaker for the evening.

Lions Schedule Vision Screening

Rene A. Morel, Chairman of the Eye-Screening Committee of the Belleville Lions Club, announced at the February 1 meeting of the Club at the Fountain Restaurant that a free Pre-School Vision-Screening program is scheduled for Monday, April 30.

The program is sponsored by the Belleville Lions Club in conjunction with the New Jersey State Commission for the Blind. The screening will be held at the social hall of the Fewsmlth Memorial Presbyterian Church and the hours for the screening will be announced later.

The main purpose of the screening is to detect amblyopia. However, along with amblyopia other eye defects will be discovered. Amblyopia is commonly known as "lag eye" and is one of the leading causes of partial blindness in children. It is a condition in which the child unconsciously gets used to seeing with only one eye. Because the child tries to free himself from seeing a confusing double image he suppresses his weaker eye and uses only his stronger eye.

Amblyopia can occur in children whose eyes appear perfectly straight and normal. The child never complains he cannot see correctly because he does not know how well he should see.

Early detection is the key to preventing amblyopia. If this condition is not discovered before the age of six it may lead to a permanent weak eye. As 75 percent of the child's learning is through his eyes this condition may affect the child's learning in school and in later life keep him from getting the job he wants.

The screening will be performed by members of the Belleville Lions Club and their wives who will be specially trained and supervised by professional representatives of the New Jersey State Commission for the Blind.

Parents of pre-school children who are scheduled to enter kindergarten in September, 1973 will be contacted by letter in advance of the Vision Screening program. Children who do not pass the screening will be referred to an eye specialist for a complete examination.

Serving on Mr. Morel's committee, which is arranging the Pre-School Vision-Screening program, are Dr. E.A. Chiappetta and Mr. Frank Pomaco.

Tuesday Vote Will Decide Future Of School Budget

Komano has characterized himself as "one of the more vocal Board members" and has reminded audiences during the campaign of his "total commitment" to the school system. His recent efforts on the Board have been to tighten up administration in the various schools.

Rogers, a Rocco Street resident, graduated from Grissom Aviation Technical Training School, Chanute Air Force Base, Illinois, and from the U.S. Air Force Aircraft Electronics Training School. Last year he completed an administrative course and a course at the University of Georgetown in control of narcotics and dangerous drugs.

While attending Belleville High, he was active in student government and was active in the Civil Air Patrol.

Rogers will have completed his service obligation in December.

It's great to be Howard powered

Some people get to enjoy the view from the top. It's there for you to reach—and so well worth the effort, the planning, the saving. Because saving means more than just storing up money. It means making your money actually work hard to help you reach your goals. That's being Howard powered.

Biggest boost of all is yours with the Howard's Time Saving Account. You see, the Howard pays the highest interest rate allowed by law. For example, an effective annual yield of 6.27 per cent on a 6 per cent Time Savings Account. If you put in a minimum of $500 for two to five years, continuous compounding puts every penny to work every day and produces the highest yield permitted—6.27 per cent, credited quarterly. (Time Accounts are subject to FDIC regulations.)

You get a break on a Regular Savings Account, too. The 5 per cent interest turns into an effective annual yield of 5.20 percent, credited monthly. Dividends paid from day of deposit to day of withdrawal (just leave $10 in 'til the end of the month).

All in all, you can count on a real lift along the way—once you get Howard powered.

Montclair to Present String Elegy Premier

The world premier performance of John Grit's "Elegy for String Orchestra" will be presented by the State Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Ward Moore on Wednesday Feb. 14 at 8 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium, Montclair State College.

The piece is one of the featured works on the third concert of this year's series by the State Symphony, a professional orchestra-in-residence at the college.

The "Elegy for String Orchestra" grew out of materials originally contained in Grit's "First Quarter" of 1964 and achieved its present form in the Fall of 1972. The title had been suggested by a subtitle for the original quartet to express its "essentially solemn and partly mar-trical atmosphere." Mr. Grit advises that "it should in no way suggest to the listener the presence of a program; that is, a story. Rather, the 'Elegy' should be approached only as an abstract composition which exploits various contrapuntal textures."

Vehicle Agencies Slate New Hours

Director Ray J. Marini today announced a change in the business hours at the State's 57 motor vehicle agencies.

Beginning February 5, all agencies will be open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Agencies which remain open in the evening will close at 7:30 p.m. Marini said the change in working hours was accomplished to better serve customers. Experience has shown that an early opening time would allow citizens to handle motor vehicle transactions early in the day.

Montclairians to Meet For School Discussion

"Montclair Schools in Action" will be the topic of a Luncheon meeting at the Montclair-North Essex Y.W.C.A., 159 Glenridge Avenue, today, 12 noon. Dr. James A. Adams, Superintendent, will focus on the present school plan in operation in Montclair with special reference to the twelfth grade program and guidance for 12 grades. He will discuss the role of the home and the community in terms of the objectives of the total guidance program.

Recommend Friday's Fish

T.G.I.F. and now Friday can be a day we are more than ever thankful for. The NuPlas on Union Ave., Belleville has its kitchen open for Friday Fish Night dinner and the food is GOOD. The menu is primarily shrimp - Shrimp Marinara, Shrimp Scampi or several other variations. They also feature Scuggli for the aficionado in the group, or take old-fashioned spaghetti with your favorite sauce. You may find this too hard to believe but this groovy Italian cooking is prepared by one Italian gal name Rose from Belleville, and a Scottish gal named Sadie, also of Belleville who learned Italian-style cooking many years ago from her mother-in-law, Mrs. Turriello a long time resident of Nutley.

The restaurant is also open for Businessmen's Lunch. The tavern is owned by Angelo Sposato and Michael Servidio both of Nutley. Angelo told me he wanted to do something special for his regulars this past New Year's Eve so he brought in entertainment for that holiday. It was such a success he now has regular weekend entertainment.

Parkway Toll Violators Face 'Get Tough' Policy

Toll violators of the Garden State Parkway are liable for fines up to 200 dollars, according to George M. Wallhauser, Chairman of the New Jersey Highway Authority which operates the 174-mile toll roadway. Judges in the various municipalities concerned convicted 3,794 violators who attempted to evade payment of tolls in the Automatic Collection Lanes. This figure represents an increase of 12.3 percent over 1971 convictions and 85 percent over 1970 figures.

Said Commissioner Wallhauser, "In accordance with the New Jersey Highway Authority's regulations governing use of the Garden State Parkway, as adopted under the authority of the New Jersey Highway Authority Act of 1952, 'It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person to refuse to pay or to evade the payment of tolls.' Therefore, it is the responsibility of the Authority to collect tolls for the passage of all vehicles on the Parkway in amounts and at locations, as designated. The Parkway has obviously increased its vigilance for toll violators as the figures reflect, and we are planning even more intense programs to observe and apprehend toll violators."

Toll violators face up to 200-dollars upon discretion of the judge and or imprisonment not exceeding 30 days, municipal courts with the assessed fines going to the State of New Jersey while the court costs are retained by the local municipality in which the case is heard. Flagrant or repeat violators receive greater attention in the court by facing stiffer monetary penalties.

Those who contemplate violating the toll do not realize that they can be observed by Parkway personnel who are watching through special one way mirrors in various locations.

Don't spend your life trying to fix the blame on others.

Miss Ann Valentine; Killed In Air Crash

Ann Valentine, 33, beloved daughter of Betty Valentine Oughton, was killed January 29 in an air crash at Nicosia, Cyprus. Her father, Herbert Valentine had been killed in action, while serving as a Pilot with Royal Air Force in the early part of World War II.

A native of England, she came to the U.S.A. in 1952. Miss Valentine was salutatorian at her graduation from Belleville High School. She continued her education at Montreaux, Switzerland, Latin-American School, New York and Douglas College, New Brunswick, N.J.

Miss Valentine served as secretary with the United Nations in New York, Geneva, Switzerland and Cyprus. For the past two years she was personal secretary to Gerard Durrell, author and conservationist, Jersey, Channel Islands, U.K.

This past October she rejoined the United Nations peace-keeping forces in Cyprus, and was killed in the crash of Egyptian flight from Cairo to Nicosia, January 29.

Her funeral was held on February 2, at Panagiotis, Cyprus.

A memorial service will be held for family and friends at the United Nations Chapel, 777 U.N. Plaza, N.Y., N.Y. at 12:30 p.m. February 14.

Barbatta Named Wash. Heights Renting Agent

Barbatta Agency, a leading real estate firm with headquarters in Belleville, has been named renting agent for a 56-unit luxury garden apartment complex now under construction at 554 Washington Avenue, Belleville. The hilltop complex, which is striking view to the east, including Manhattan skyscrapers, are named Washington Heights.

The first of three buildings planned for the site is now under construction and is scheduled for completion in early March. A model apartment will open at that time. All apartments feature walk-in closets, wall-to-wall carpeting in most areas, and color-coordinated chairs. Corridors of the apartment buildings are also carpeted.

Each structure will contain approximately equal numbers of one-bedroom and two-bedroom apartments. Entrances feature the latest security devices. Shopping and transportation are easily reached in the pleasant suburban area.

To eliminate the need for bulky laundry facilities in each apartment, a special area on the ground floor of each building has been set aside for washers and dryers. Laundry facilities on the first floor mean that the owner is giving up space equal to another apartment. But to housewives, the ground level location, with no stairs or ramps, means added convenience and safety.

Actors Cafe To Present Denker Play

A FAR COUNTRY by Henry Denker opens a four week run on Friday, February 9th at 8:30 P.M. at the Actors Cafe Theatre, South Main and Central Avenues, East Orange, New Jersey and will play every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night through March 3rd. The play focuses on Sigmund Freud's discovery of guilty memories locked in the labyrinth of the mind, and that manifest themselves as outward physical disabilities.

The cast includes Barbara Kennedy, Margot Jacobs, William Jacobs, Madeline Plotkin, Christine Todd, Robert Bourque, Laura Trimble and David G. Kennedy. Mr. Kennedy is also directing. Reservations can be made by calling the box office 675-1881.

Open casting will be held on Sunday, February 11th at 7:00 P.M. for parts in DEATH OF A SALESMAN by Arthur Miller, set for production March 9th through April 7th.

'The Fantasticks' To Open Soon

Off-Broadway's longest-running hit "The Fantasticks" opens next Thursday, February 15 at the Franklin School, 325 Franklin Ave. Nutley, it will run the 16, 17, 23 and 24.

Nutley Little Theater presents this musical comedy directed by Robert Molloy and starring Debbie Baseli, Alan Tulin, Robert Riitt, Peter Cude, Brian Bellog, Sue Mihok and Mike Chelnik. "The Fantasticks" is a romantic tale. A parable about love. The success of the play is proven in that it has run over 13 years in New York and is still thriving.

There will be 5 performances of "The Fantasticks" in Nutley, so don't miss it. As any theater-goer knows, no show is complete without the people who work behind the scenes. As you can see from this list, there are often more people backstage than on. Working hard to make "The Fantasticks" a success are Mary Watson, assistant director, NLT veteran Carol Rutherford, stage manager, Linda Graves and Linda McCormick, costumes, Patti Andriola and Janis Falk, makeup, properties.

Mrs. M. Allen, 84; Born In Jersey City

A Requiem High Mass was held Friday, Jan. 26 in St. Mary's Church for Mrs. Marie E. Allen, 134 Passaic Avenue, Nutley, who died January 23 at Troy Hills Nursing Home, Parsippany Troy Hills, after a short illness. She was 84.

Born in Jersey City, Mrs.

Allen lived in Belleville 22 years before moving to Nutley three decades ago. Wife of the late Harry R. Allen, Mrs. Allen is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Adeline M. Fitzsimmons of Nutley, four grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren.
