

Senior Sweethearts Still Swap Valentines

KING AND QUEEN of hearts, Louise Gonsalves and Tony Paul danced the afternoon away at the Italian Florentine Society when 170 senior citizens got together to celebrate Valentine's Day.

You're never too old to be in love, or even to play spin-the-bottle and swap valentines.

A hundred and seventy senior citizens proved that Friday afternoon at the Italian Florentine Society as they gathered to exchange cards, sing, dance and even play a few innocent kissing games.

A king and queen for the celebration, elected earlier in the week, presided over the affair. The elected royalty of the Essex County Senior Citizens Commission were Louise Gonsalves and Tony Paul, both Bellevilleites. The affair, paid for by the seniors themselves, ran from 1 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and was highlighted by a buffet luncheon. Music was provided by a pair of mandolin players, who were besieged throughout the day with requests for old favorites.

Richard Mahmahrian, recently re-elected to the Board of Education, sent along his best wishes with a Valentine's Day cake. Among the not-visitors were Mayor Joseph McGreevy, Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, Public Works Commissioner Mary Senatore and another incumbent with an election victory, Caesar Romano, who supplied a few moments entertainment with a guitar serenade.

Schwartz Wins Presidency, Romano Takes Second Spot

Lawrence Schwartz was elected president of the Belleville Board of Education by a vote of 4-3 over Caesar Romano Tuesday night at the Board's reorganization meeting. Romano was then elected vice-president unanimously.

Schwartz, a local attorney, succeeds Richard Mahmahrian, who was narrowly re-elected to the Board February 13 over challenger Steven Rogers, a 21-year-old Air Force sergeant.

Mahmahrian took his oath of office Tuesday night along with Romano, who succeeds Matthew Pica to the vice-presidency.

Both Mahmahrian and Pica stated Tuesday night they did not seek return to their seats at the head of the Board table. James Risoli also renounced a top office and Norma McCoil declined to run when her name was placed in nomination.

Risoli nominated Schwartz, while G. Fred Burlazzi nominated Romano and Pica seconded. Voting was by secret ballot, though the Board caucused for ten minutes before the election at Burlazzi's request. Schwartz garnered the necessary four votes, while Romano took the remaining three.

For the vice-presidency, Pica nominated Romano, while Mahmahrian named Norma McCoil's name. Mrs. McCoil again declined, and Romano was elected by acclamation.

In accepting the office, Schwartz said he is serving the final year of his first term.

70-Point Increase Tax Rate For 1973 May Go To $6.34

Belleville's tax rate will make a record 70-point jump from $5.64 to $6.34 under the combined taxes for school, municipal and county appropriations for 1973-74.

Town Treasurer Francis McCoy, this week reported the breakdown for the 70-point increase as follows: the municipal budget will increase $30,721 to account for 20 points; the Essex County tax levy rose $332,105 — a jump of 14 points and the bulk of the increase — 44 points — will come from a $1,019,470 proposed increase in the school budget.

A public hearing on the proposed budget is scheduled for Tuesday, Mar. 20, at the Senior High School.

Before that hearing, Commissioners are expected to meet with the Board of Education to pare down the $7.4-million school budget. The meeting is a mandatory result of the firm rejection of the budget by Belleville voters February 13.

Mayor Joseph McGreevy estimated last week the tax jump would have been about ten points higher if not for the $245,929 pumped into Belleville's fiscal veins by the newly-enacted Federal revenue-sharing program.

Belleville taxpayers still are asked to come up with an additional $1,730,530. The school budget accounts for the bulk of the increase, with a $7.4 million budget calling for an additional $1,019,470 in revenue, representing a 15 percent increase.

The county portion of the budget comes in at $4,255,400 including an increase of $332,105.

The municipal appropriations stand at $6,326,006, with a net increase over 1972 of $489,459 and a tax increase of $291,145. McCoy explained the raise in county taxes as a change not in the county tax rate itself, but an adjustment of the assessment ratio for Essex towns.

The breakdown for municipal appropriations by departments is as follows: Public Safety has earmarked $2,702,997, with an increase of $192,265 over 1972; revenue and Finance will receive $364,736, with decrease of $5,182; Public Works has earmarked $656,700, an increase of $2,899. Public Affairs will receive $718,915, up $20,513 over last year. Parks and Public Property is slated for $331,006, representing a decrease of $18,828 from 1972.

The reserve for uncollected taxes, which the town must legally include as part of its duty for tax-collecting agent for the county and the schools, carries an increase of $85,036, accounting for three points of the 12-point municipal tax hike.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

What's going on with all these behind-the-scenes Belleville politicians "working-out" at the European Health Spa up in Wayne, N.J.? There doesn't appear to be anything wrong with their health. What's their motive everybody's wondering.

Why would guys like Chet (Clementine) Prosperity, his buddy Abba (Dabbia) Agrestia, Tom and Frank Cere and a few others from town be joining Jackie Rega in this reconditioning type program.

If Rega's got anything to do with it, it's gotta be more than coincidental. He has been heard complaining lately about the poor quality of candidates, in town who aspire to public office.

Could it be that Jackie is thinking of "throwing his own hat in the ring" as a commission candidate in the next town election?

After all, Jackie has come up with a good many winners in the past. It just might be that he is getting in shape to make the "big kill" for himself.

The Public Works Department did themselves proud that terrible freezing ice storm that made streets like skating ponds. "Skating on the town" had many accidents. Belleville's toll was reduced to a minimum.

The department's boss, Commissioner Senatore, got her crew out in good time with the salt trucks. The prompt action averted many an untoward incident. How sweet it is when things are done right. Everybody benefits.

I too had that just as that good report came out about the crime rate in town, some felon stole a $600 electric typewriter from town hall over a weekend, when the front doors of town hall are usually locked. Under such circumstances, exit would have to have been made either through the desk room of the police station or the corridor just outside the door which is generally open.

Since maintenance work was reportedly in progress in the building at the time the machine may have been purloined, it is possible that the distraction may have contributed to the fact that the heist was not detected.

Think that one funny! Now hear this. About a year ago a new snow-blower was bought and stored at the stadium to combat winter's blizzards. The crated blower was stacked against the wall to await the expected snows.

Sombody, who knows whom, had better ideas. That is for himself. Unbeknownst to those in charge and, likewise, undetected the back was cut out of the sealed carton, the contents removed and the empty container placed back against the wall with the cut-out portion of the package placed against the wall, well concealed, until it snowed and the blower was to be used.

Lo and behold the cupboard was bare. One nice, new town-bought snow-blower, brand new but never used by the town went West. Too bad they never caught the culprit. The dirty crook. Oh well! It's only taxpayers money.

Town hall scutbutt has Jim Byrne, the guy who should have been made town Tax Collector, telling Mayor McGreevy "forget it, pal. I'm not seeking another six month leave of absence from my Civil Service job of

Senatore Cuts Size Limits From Swimming Pool Bill

A public hearing is scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 27, at Town Hall for a proposed bill to require four-foot fencing around all residential swimming pools in Belleville. Public Works Commissioner Mary Senatore is the proposed ordinance's sponsor.

The ordinance was moved off the table at the February 13 Commission meeting after Mrs. Senatore had deleted a requirement in the bill which would have limited all future pools to cover no more than 50 percent of a rear yard.

Commissioner of Public Affairs Vincent Strumolo cast the only vote against the motion, and later said he wanted Town Attorney John Scott to study the Senatore bill for possible conflicts with the state swimming pool code.

Strumolo further said there already is a town ordinance on the books, dating from August 22, 1961, which requires four-and-a-half foot fencing around all pools. The new Senatore bill calls for four-foot fencing, which the Commissioner says is the strongest feature of the bill.

Commissioner Senatore deleted the size requirement from the ordinance after a January public hearing during which several residents complained the restriction would force an unusually small pool upon residents with small rear yards.

Commissioner Senatore later said the opinions voiced at the public hearing had changed her mind. "I don't want to take the children's luxury away," she remarked.

Strumolo said this week, "If the commissioner has deleted the size limits, then there's no need for the ordinance." He added the state code covers health standards for pools, and the previous Assisting Bixby will be Ronald Mattia, 29 Myrtle Avenue, owner of the Mattia Printing Company in Newark.

With The Flu Now Over, The Show Can Go On

The curtain is scheduled to rise on "George Washington Slept Here" on March 3 at the Belleville Junior High School. "The Group," the school's theatrical organization, was forced to suspend production on the George S.

Kaufman-Moss Hart comedy hit when the recent flu epidemic hit several cast members and its director. Performance dates are now scheduled for March 3, 4 and 5.

Undoubtedly one of the most successful plays in contemporary theater, "George Washington Slept Here" is a graceful and hilarious comedy about a city couple who attempt to adjust to country living. Starring roles are held by Bill Hollis, Darlene Canon, and R.W. Lefebline, who is also the director. Co-stars are Carolina Furno and James M. Furno. Supporting cast includes Lauren Borgo, Diane Broich, Stephen Donald, Jerry Dooley, Margo Marone, Richard Francorini, Anthony Nicotia, Kathie Perkins, Michael Ranucci, Mary Jo Reilly and Anthony Salese. Seymour Grossman, BHHS Principal appears in the role of Mr. Prescott.

The director of the show, R.W. Lefebline, has served as director of "The Group's" productions, "The Impossible Years" and "Don't Drink the Water." This marks the first time of his dual role in directing and as a star performer, a feat made possible, he says, due to the competence of Miss Cynthia DeBonis, assistant to the director.

School Nine's Founders Day Honors Principals, Presidents

by Pat Diana

More than 100 people gathered at the regular monthly meeting of School Nine PTA when several past presidents of the PTA and school principals were honored.

Mrs. Lois Servidio chaired the event, with Mrs. Lillian DeAngelis, co-chairman. Each year, Founders Day of School Nine, which was built in 1926, is celebrated. At the same time, a free-will donation to the New Jersey Congress is given by the PTA members. Quite a bit of detail and time is devoted to this event, and numerous letters were written in an endeavor to locate past principals, secretaries and teachers. Refreshments were served under the direction of hospitality chairman, Mrs. Theresa Cannata, with the help of her committee, Mrs. Carol Fischette, Mrs. Joan Brenner and Mrs. Ann Berto.

Past PTA presidents

honored included Lillian Winfield, Lillian DeAngelis, Lois Servidio, Julia Wells, Nancy McCarthy, Marlene Lazaro, Bridget Farone, Frances Melchione, Geraldine Macaluso, Mrs. Richard Rovell and Joe Meloi. The gentlemen honored received red carnations, the women a single tea rose. In addition, Mrs. Lillian DeAngelis received an orchid and pin, making her a member of the N.J. Congress 25-year club and Mrs. Marlene Lazaro was presented with a past president's pin and orchid. The Founders Day committee presented the flowers, while Mrs. Rovell presented the past president's pin.

Past principals honored included Archibald Gallombardo, now principal of School Five; and Mrs. Viola Spray, present principal of School Seven. Past secretaries of the school honored were Mrs. Blossom McCoy and Mrs. Edith Knox and Mrs. Florence Peck. Nicholas Petti, present principal of School Nine, was congratulated on gaining a place in Montclair's Hall of Fame and William Martin, custodian was introduced.

Notables at the event included Commissioners Mary Senatore and Michael Marotti; Anthony Greco, superintendent of schools; Board of Education president Richard Mahamarian and Board members Caesar Romano, Fred Burlazzi and Matthew Pica with former Board candidate Steve Rogers. Informal speeches were made and the school budget discussed. Mrs. Vern Norton of School Seven Organization of Parents and Educators, Mrs. Carmela Meglie of School Eight Home and School Association and Mrs. Grace Purdie, president of the Senior High School Home and School Association were also present.

FOUNDERS DAY at School Nine brought together several past presidents and principals of the school, along with Commissioners Mary Senatore, Michael Marotti and Board of Education member Caesar Romano.

TB League Nears Goal Of $300,000

Nearly two-thirds of the $300,000 goal has been received by the TB-Respiratory Disease League, according to Mr. Norman P. McGorry, Campaign Chair- man. He said, "We have received support from friends who gave us nearly $197,000 to date and we are counting on a response from many more to carry on our work."

Reminder letters are now in the mail to residents and business firms in Morris, Sussex and Warren who have not yet answered the Appeal. Because of the need for funds, a second Appeal is also being made to thousands of friends who have already made a contribution, asking them to make a second gift.

These funds are needed if the League is to fulfill its commitment in the fight against emphysema, tuberculosis, chronic bronchitis and asthma. The League also supports anti-smoking clinics, and projects in air conservation and in community health and welfare. Mr. McGorry pointed out that there have been major accomplishments in TB control through the use of drugs in treating active patients, and as a preventive measure with their families. A similar break-through is sorely needed for the many victims of emphysema. He added "I know there is a growing awareness of the great need for our services throughout the area, and I ask all residents to help in the good cause."

Mr. McGorry said he was hopeful that people would respond generously to this Appeal to support the League's work.

Friends Of Englewood Plan March Irish Gala

The Friends of Englewood Cliffs College announced plans today for an Irish gala on March 23, to be held at the Shamrock Room, Seabreeze Park, North Bergen.

After the Founders Day program and just prior to the presentation by the Board of Education, member entertainment was offered by a girls singing group with Miss Ann Marie Simini, fifth grade teacher at the school, playing her guitar. The young ladies were Cathy Britting, Donna Patchunka, Vicki Moraski, Michele Canning, Linda Hampton, Christine Kovell, Robert Roberts, Lorraine Shedy, Joyce Kulesh, Dawn Carbone, Joann Annichiarico, Cynthia Britting, Carol Shedy, Jackie Lazaro, Dianne Dolph, Jeannie Abbosio and Cheryl Serio.

Another interesting note is the tabulation on the refreshment table, upon which anyone may write their name, give a donation and then the names are embrodered as a beautiful remembrance.

The principal, Nicholas Petti, is honorary vice president of the PTA. Other officers are: president, Mrs. Betty Rovell; vice president, Mrs. Sandra Metts; recording secretary, Mrs. Cora Boice; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Irma Ortega and treasurer, Mrs. Helen Dolph.

The School Board Election

Voters who participated in last week's school board election wisely returned to office school board president Richard Mahmarian and school board trustee Caesar Romano. Finishing in third place was young Steve Rogers. Young Rogers conducted an intelligent, high-level campaign. But for the fact that he was up against two incumbents Mr. Rogers probably today would be a school board trustee. We congratulate the voters for replacing two dedicated public servants who more than earned the right to continued public office.

The defeat of the school board budget was not unexpected. A 15% hike in the proposed budget was just too much for Belleville voters to swallow at one time. It is our opinion an immediate study of our school plant is essential to maintain the relatively high standards of our school system.

Thought should be given to the abandonment of schools 1 and 9 in the Valley — the elimination of the junior school on Washington Avenue — and the establishment of a four-year high school. Such a development would require additional space at the remaining grade schools. Belleville has antiquated school buildings, a couple probably on the verge of being condemned by state inspectors. Perhaps the school system is facing a crisis. Year after year voters turn out to turn down school board budgets. Our voters are intelligent people. They work hard for their money as do voters of other communities. It is apparent from the negative votes on school board budgets that Belleville voters do not believe Belleville school boards have been giving them a fair shake for their school tax dollars.

The enigma of our school board budget problem is a great challenge and a solution requires the best brains of our community. Perhaps the school board may well consider the appointment of a citizen's advisory committee to obtain a grass roots input in order to help it solve the problem of annual school budget rejections.

Sandman versus Cahill

It is now official. Republican Congressman Charles Sandman of South Jersey announced his candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Although incumbent Governor William Cahill, Republican, has not announced plans for re-election there is little doubt that Mr. Cahill will run again.

This is the third try for Congressman Sandman. Four years ago he lost the nomination to Bill Cahill in a five-man race which included State Senators William Ozzard of Somerset, Harry Sears of Morris and Frank McDermott of Union.

This year it appears the field will be limited to a head-to-head confrontation between Sandman and Cahill.

Both Cahill and Sandman are tough campaigners and as the campaign develops the public could expect a fierce contest for the Republican nomination.

There are philosophical differences that divide Sandman and Cahill — apart from their personal dislikes for each other.

Rent Controls

Assembly Speaker Thomas Kean, Republican, has been able to obtain passage in the Lower House of a rent control act. It is now pending before the New Jersey State Senate. The scarcity of good housing has pushed up the cost of renting apartments. Nixon's removal of federal rent control requires the enactment of local controls with adequate provisions to protect the interests of the investor. We think the Kean bill accomplishes its objectives — a meaningful rent control to protect the tenant and provisions permitting the escalation of rents to accommodate tax and operating expense increases experienced by landlords.

We think the New Jersey State Senate should pass the Kean bill without delay.

Seems Only Yesterday

Group of 200 Persons Heckle Mayor Ken Smith

By Elaine Auerbach

ONE YEAR AGO

Robert Luongo and Robert Cohen, both students at Belleville High School, were named as the winners in the annual American Legion Oratorical Contest. Both boys were recipients of US Savings Bonds for their efforts. Commander Anthony Mariani of the Belleville Post 105 announced the winners of the event. The contest was the 35th annual event in the history of the Legion.

Commissioner Michael Marotti, in a surprise public statement, announced his decision to take a leave of absence from the Police Department. The above by Marotti, director of Parks and Public Property, was forced by a decision handed down by Judge Brendan T. Byrne of Superior Court stating that the Commissioner was in a "conflict of interest" by holding two positions with the Town.

FIVE YEARS AGO

A vociferous crowd of about 200 interested residents bowed and heckled Mayor Kenneth Smith and the Board of Commissioners as they held a public meeting on the land-use map of Belleville's master plan. The belligerent congregation got out of hand when the Mayor stated he wanted to hear comments from the Valley residents only. Shouts of "Silver Lake people are good people" and "This isn't Russia" issued from the crowd. The Mayor explained that the plan would take out taxes for the Silver Lake area and added that with the plan, federal aid could be granted to Belleville. There was very little response, however, to the Mayor's statements by the highly emotional group.

Scores of workers were sent home from Town Hall when a furnace which provided most of the heat for the municipal building failed to work. In less than an hour after the heat went off, office personnel sat shivering in the large building. Eugene Barnett and some members of his staff braved the cold, as did Engineer John Vreeland and Commissioner Mary Senatore, who fortunately had worn a very warm coat to work.

In 1957, the Belleville Recreation Department had initiated a pre-school play program under the leadership of Robert Cook. According to Cook, who was enthusiastic about the program for youngsters, he and the children of Belleville were happier for it. "It gives children a chance to react," he said, "in a social situation for the first time and is especially valuable for the mother who participates, particularly those with a first child."

TEN YEARS AGO

A bitter battle over the proposed 1963-64 school budget and the re-election of two incumbent members of the Board of Education ended in victory when Belleville voters passed the 2.9 million dollar budget request and returned Nicholas Juliano and Ernest Arvidson to office. Juliano received 1,893 votes and Arvidson 1,663 while Paul Francisco finished third.

The Local Assistance Board of the Town of Belleville was formally organized and board members were appointed by a resolution adopted by the Town Commission. Those selected were Barbara Gagnon, Mrs. Henderson Goldston, Diane Cunniff, Rabbi Victor Cohen and Rt. Rev. Monsignor Joseph Kelly.

There wasn't to be any more "fat" in hamburgers in Belleville. The officials introduced an amendment to the sanitary code limiting the fat content of a hamburger to 30 percent at the behest of Health Officer Edward Burdy.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Final plans were being made for the testimonial dinner to honor the Rev. Peter Deekenback, rector of Christ Episcopal Church and Belleville's 1957 "Citizen of the Year." Also to be honored were those who had received honorable mention in the contest — Father Adams, Irma Ryer, Edward Litig, Edward Carney and Robert Cook. George Miller was general chairman of the dinner.

Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero was elected president of the Board of Education. He succeeded William Boyd who had not won re-election to the board. Frank Rubino was elected to the post of vice-president, replacing Dr. Palmer Burd.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

A petition signed by six women protesting the removal of the school crossing guard at Franklin Avenue and Jerusalem Street was heard by the town Commission. Four women, led by Mrs. Stephen Macanga of 14 Hill Street, cited the danger for school children at the busy intersection. Public Safety Director Noll pointed out that due to the cut in the budget his staff was not able to provide guards for every intersection. Mr. Edward Burns of Hill Street backed up Noll's action and declared that "we don't have a bunch of wet nurses following the children."

H. Ray DeMund of 82 Peabody Place in Newark, who had retired from the Bart Laboratories after 26 years of service, was presented with a television as a gift of gratitude from the company. The 75-year-old DeMund was honored by a group of employees at a special party and received a $100 check with the television.

The Belleville Rotary, under the leadership of President Frank McFadden, observed the 43rd anniversary of the founding of the Rotary movement. The local group met in Saint Paul's Church in Newark where Eric Huse, guest speaker. The Belleville Rotary had celebrated its 25th anniversary in 1947.

FORTY YEARS AGO

A musical revue and dance was held in Saint Peter's auditorium under the auspices of Saint Peter's Choir Club. Andrew Brady and Richard Plannagan were directors. Frank Connolly arranged the stage setting and decoration and John Holz furnished the dance music.

Delta Sigma Alpha Sorority met at the home of Teresa Sullivan. Attending were Marguerite and Emily Marshall, Greta Kimmally, Grace Hoke, Dorothy Salmon, Dolly Ryder and Winifred Dacey.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Commissioner Yarrow reported at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners that the work of erecting a new fire house in Silver Lake had begun and introduced a resolution to give the exempt firemen the use of the Valley Hose Company.

The Board of Education decided to ask the citizens to sanction a $60,000 bond issue which they believed would cover the cost of rebuilding school 4 which had been damaged by fire.

Speak Up

Relief Agency Raising Funds

In all the comments on the end of the fighting in Vietnam two main points stand out clearly: first, everyone is thankful that the cease-fire agreement has been signed, and secondly, just about everybody realizes that the signing of the agreement has not brought about peace, that peace is yet to be achieved through the reconciliation and massive reconstruction based upon mutual good faith.

Already relief agencies like Catholic World Relief, Church World Service and the Friends Service Committee are raising funds and perfecting their administrative personnel for on-the-spot work in North and South Vietnam. This is also true of the World Council of Churches.

All this is to the good, but it is nowhere near enough. These religious groups will be able to secure many millions of dollars for reconstruction purposes. But it will require actually billions of dollars, and private organizations do not have this kind of money.

It is encouraging to know that our U.S. Government is thinking about investing tens of millions of dollars in the restoration of Indochina. It has already contributed to various specialized agencies of the United Nations which will be working to establish a lasting peace. What I hope is that the U.S. will make the greatest use of sending the bulk of its post-war funds for the rehabilitation of both North and South Vietnam through the U.N. and take the lead in encouraging other member nations to do likewise. As we were forced to spend billions on war, now we have the opportunity to invest billions in peace-making.

Assistant Tax Collector. There's little difference in the pay of the two jobs."

This just might take Civil Service off the hook of a very fishy legal problem and give McGreevy the chance to appoint Belleville's new tax collector.

That old Essex Street "cave-in" came back to "haunt" the street department after the heavy rains. Climatic conditions bordering on the chaotic, contributed to the wash-out that took a parked car down with the street sinking. This is not to fault the telephone company in any way, since they had to submit for approval all plans to the local building department for permits which were granted, in the construction of their new building in the area of this street cave-in.

What one wonders, however, could the environmental changes brought about have contributed to this condition, since for many years, despite numerous deluges never before has Essex Street suffered this tragedy.

Could drainage run-off and landscaping have played a part? Has added black-topping for parking facilities overburdened our storm-sewer capacity to accommodate these added overloads never before presented?

Women Pilots

At Pensacola the Navy recently graduated its first female pilot. The Navy, which has in recent years inaugurated many allegedly morale-building innovations with much fanfare and publicity, all attributed to the forward step of Secretary, hails this as a first step toward equal treatment of the sexes.

The truth is it's an impractical and unsound policy. Females are not allowed to fly in combat, shouldn't be. Neither the majority of male or female Americans desire that. Yet since this is the end purpose of military flight training, it's obviously morally unjustifiable, both to the taxpayers and military aviators for any service, to push impractical programs to win public favor or popular acclaim.

In war, males and females should not be treated alike, in the opinion of the vast majority of Americans. The military flight training of females, who cannot be used in an emergency, is, in effect, discrimination against males, unsound from a military viewpoint and repugnant, in that it's obviously a political stunt.

Hitler's Car

An American business man recently paid about $153,000 for the late Adolf Hitler's private Mercedes Benz.

The 11,000-pound car was ordered by the German dictator in 1941, during the Second World War, and used for several years as his parade car.

At first glance one wonders why anyone would desire Hitler's car, the answer may be found in the fact that the owner who sold it for $153,000 recently had only invested $77,000 in it, thus having doubled his money.

political surprise of 1973.

THIS COLUMN IS NEVER SATISFYING TO ME unless I tell you how wonderful it is to take an airplane ride to Fort Lauderdale with some of the nicest people. Last week I flew down on Eastern Airlines Flight 759 and was surprised that five stewardesses were serving the needs of the aircraft. One was a trainee, pretty Leonora Khroust. The senior stewardess running the show efficiently was Pat Lehman of Long Branch who celebrated her birthday February 8. Assisting Pat were three young, efficient professionals, Dian Tomassetti, J. Middlesex, Lena Rykovich of Elizabeth and Christine Gimmil of Lyndhurst. Flight 759 was the second occasion that the Lyndhurst beauty served one of my flights.

Coming back from Fort Lauderdale I switched to National Flight 124 and a pretty Irish colleen, Patricia "Trish" Schwalm, was the senior stewardess. Trish has eight years in with National. The day of our trip Trish was celebrating her 30th day without smoking, thereby breaking a ten-year habit. She was so excited over her victory that she couldn't wait for the plane to land in order to call her parents and surprise them with the good news. Helping Trish up front with the first class service was blonde stewardess Georgette Davis of Coconut Grove, Florida. Most stewardesses have a desire to be gracious, pleasant and accommodating. The girls on board these trips were just tremendous.

It is because of people like Pat Lehman and Patti Schwalm that guys like me find the experience of flying a commercial airline pretty much like sitting in our home living room.

IF YOU MEET WITH FAILURE ONCE it is not just cause for one to stop trying. A poem we came across sums up in very inspiring prose the need for people to try even after a failure.

Try Again
"When things go wrong don't think that all your work has been in vain.

"Perhaps it's all been for the best, so smile and try again."

"It may be that your failure proves to be the magic door

"That leads you to a happiness you never knew before."

"You may be weakened in the fight, but not defeated yet;

"It's no use wasting precious time in tears and vain regret."

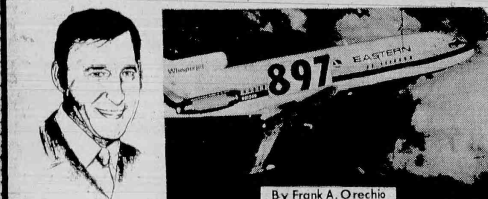

"Stand up and face the world again, and if you keep in view

"The high goal of your greatest hopes, your dreams may all come true."

"Draw wisdom from your old mistakes, and courage from your pain."

"And then someday you'll say, 'Thank God, I dared to try again!'"

NOMINATIONS WILL SOON BE received from Nutley residents for individuals or organizations to receive The Nutley Sun Dr. Virginia Dante Mattia Public Service Award. The late Dr. Mattia, President of Hoffmann-LaRoche, Inc. at the time of his death July 4, 1971, committed a great deal of his adult life to help solve the problems of people less fortunate than he. It is the honor the memory of this great man that The Nutley Sun conceived the establishment of a public service award to worthy Nutley citizens and/or organizations. Membership of the Dr. Virginia Dante Mattia Public Service Award Committee will be announced next week. In the meantime readers are urged to send names of individuals or organizations who they believe have contributed to improving life in Nutley, to my attention, c/o The Nutley Sun.

Tom and his brother Frank continue to operate the Industrial Haulage Corp. as a subsidiary of SCA services. Under the guidance of Tom Viola, SCA expects to go on an acquisition binge in the New Jersey area, acquiring some of the leading independent waste service companies in the State. (write me at 104 Overlook Ave. or call 751-6861) you think deserves CONGRATULATIONS to Caesar Romano and Dick Mahmarian, and Steve Rogers certainly had a good showing first time around...I'm willing to predict he'll win by a landslide in the next BOE election.

The lovely Miss Joanne Servidio became 18 on Feb. 8...congrats! She is the daughter of Gus and Lois, and the sister of Cheryl.

Heard from Ed Litting, and a happy birthday to him, Feb. 15th.

You know, usually at the end of my columns, "Sparkling Personality, Organization Doings and Business Spotlight". I put a note for you readers to send me your comments on who you think deserves recognition, and, usually, for space reasons the note doesn't appear, just wanted to remind you I've been asked many times how the people are selected for these columns, and usually, I have a minimum of three people suggest someone to be highlighted...sometimes, I exercise my own prerogative, like in this week's "Business Spotlight"...so, keep the suggestions coming.

THE PRESENT OFFICERS of Unit 299 American Legion Auxiliary, Joseph J. Carbat Post, didn't appear in the "OD" column, so hear they are: Betty Doeflinger, president and rehabilitation chairman; Lois

Johnson, first vice president and child welfare chairman; Viola Labriola, second vice president and membership chairman; Lisa Doeflinger, secretary; Cecil Ohnmacht, treasurer; Virginia Gannocotti, chaplain; Mike Verderame, sergeant-at-arms; Muriel Preston, historian; and Florence DeAngelis, immediate-past president.

Two weeks ago I mentioned School #7 was holding an interesting meeting, well attended and Fireman Kenneth Bedford was on hand to explain first aid procedures...editor Ken Moogs took the pix...should be in this issue.

Happy to report that the Bell-Girls, the senior high intramural basketball team won their first game in the state championship two weeks ago beating Mt. St. Dominic, 60-48...at the time I am writing this, they are scheduled to play East Orange Catholic...by the time I get to column's end, maybe we'll have the score.

We've been more than lucky with little snow...last week, Orangeburg, South Carolina was declared a disaster area, with 21 inches of snow! My brother, Jack Murphy, and his family live there and the tales he tells are not good...many vacationers heading for Florida and South Carolina were stranded. In other portions of that state, no snow fell, rather a freak incident.

BEST WISHES are in order for Bob and Ida Pascal of Modern Auto...they purchased Delco Auto Parts, 385 Bloomfield Ave., Newark, (corner of N. 6th St.)...son Bob will head this operation. Ida told me, shortly after she and her husband were featured in "Business Spotlight" they were dining at the China Clipper, when a stranger came up to congratulate them...she saw the article. Sincere sympathies are extended to them, though, on the loss of Bob's father, Richard Pascal, a retired employee of Prudential.

Glad to see Irene Decker back in action after a short stay at CMHM...get well wishes to Hettie Murray, the friendly Gal Friday at Wesley Methodist Church.

former presidents Truman and Johnson, but do think that during president Nixon's inauguration, the flags should have flown high. Maybe they were, maybe I missed it, but, those are my feelings.

Did you watch a Tuesday night movie, "Miss American Beauty"? Quite a spoof on beauty pageants, wonder how much is true, and how local people involved in this type of event felt about it.

ANOTHER MOVIE I watched this week, was "The Longest Day," and it reminds me, war is hell. And I'll just bet families of POWs and MIA's feel their longest day has finally ended. It was quite touching when one returning prisoner thanked our President, their (POWs) opportunity to serve America, and ended, "God Bless America"...No doubt, plans are underway for another national holiday, the return of our first POWs.

There was another great event held that I couldn't get to...seems Commissioner Robert Lateral was host to the members of Belleville's Civil Defense by feigning them to a dinner...how about that?

"Thanks for a job well done" is always appreciated.

GUEST COMMENTS I received the following note, too late to print prior to the BOE election, but thought I'd pass the message along... "Once again the budget for the 1973-74 school year is being prepared for discussion and vote, and once again, we are being asked to support a new increase in school appropriations for our youngsters."

"After careful consideration I have come to the honest conclusion that we are all a very selfish and uninvolved community. We all, and I do not exclude myself, only involve ourselves when the need applies to us."

"FOR YEARS we have criticized our youth for their rebellious and anti-establishment attitudes and yet, when we examine our own standards and accomplishments, I can well imagine our image is not the most admirable for youth to want to mirror. Many of our senior citizens are not even able to receive a decent meal with the current expenses and yet not one among you could not sacrifice a can of food or imperishable pastry each week from your orders. The children from the elementary schools had to show us how, by making food baskets at Christmas for our most thankful senior citizens.

"Until we have a child about to enter the Junior or Senior High School and we are faced with the disgraceful conditions confronting them, do we start to raise our voice, and once our own have passed this stage, we no longer feel obligated to care for our future citizens."

"Our older folks resent our school budgets and our youngsters folks resent our social security deductions. When the good Lord said, 'unless you become as little children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven,' He put our whole problem in the palm of our hand."

"Let us take a truly unbiased approach to our tax story and air our needs and desires and evaluate them honestly. With everyone doing their share, our children can have the schools they need and the maintenance necessary to keep them safe. Not one person would honestly want a child injured, and would be right there to help prevent it."

"Maybe a bit of belittling and elimination of a few needed, but not essential items from the budget can put priority where it is most needed. I am not politically oriented; as you can well imagine, and perhaps stepping on many toes. That is not intentional, it just seems so when we leave all decisions to the other guy and then mean about the results."

"How about opening our hearts and purses, instead of our mouths, and maybe our youngsters' love will rub off on us."

THE LETTER is signed, "a concerned citizen," and who wrote it is not important, but the message it conveys, is...

individuals or groups...so, here's a ship in town

There's a ship in town without a captain. Seems those in command want a skipper from a different line, which would mean he'd be sailing in uncharted waters.

"Can't believe the turn about, a certain party is sticking close to home, for appearances. It won't work, though, because once 'in-the-know,' know."

He pulled a trick and stacked the deck, but other card sharps have said "enuf is enuf!" he doesn't walk softly...beware, the cards are not being dealt in your favor.

I hope voting machines were lost last week's election.

Who's the one in Belleville's "white house position" who has no consideration for the working man? If he was re-elected to his position, he should take a course in humility and humanity.

It was not only illegal, but downright unparliamentary, he brought with others' funds...he sold, but where's the moult?

She's supposed to be a lady, but lacks common courtesy...even her closest relatives and employees are polite to one in a similar position.

Men are bigger gossips than women, and one in particular opened his mouth at the wrong time. Not only was he reckless, but he added his foot to his din-dink...he swallowed it, but he'll be regurgitating it real soon.

Supposedly the highest of the high, the cream elite, but the sexier snobs pulled a caper that almost had serious results...the fuzz intervened, but the "big bad boys" with their little pranks have lost face; as they are finding out slowly but surely.

This group had some waking up to do...so, it's been done, twice...much to their chagrin. By the time #3 rolls around, it will be old hat.

This group is ridiculous. So far, they were they for the notoriety, they wanted to invite President Nixon to their dinner. Nixon may have been aware of the favor granted, but Ron Ziegler did the work.

A lot of fuss was made cause he was thankful, but who really paid for it?

For years, this one group was supported by one person...she asked a favor and it was like pulling teeth...the gal can't wait to reciprocate next time around.

What guided missile is being mailed to one and all, with many allegations and errors? As of this writing, we know of at least ten who have just torn the invitation up or put it in file 13.

Women Will Observe World Day of Prayer

Area residents will celebrate the 86th annual World Day of Prayer with a service to be held at Holy Family Church, on Brookline Avenue and Monsignor De Luca Plaza in Nutley at 1 p.m. Friday, Mar. 2. Women from seven Protestant churches and three Catholic churches will participate in the ecumenical ceremony.

The worship service is based on materials prepared by a group of women in New Zealand at the invitation of the International Committee on World Day of Prayer. The theme, "Alert in our Time" expresses the intention of women to be aware of the crucial needs in the world and to be agents of God's reconciling love in these areas. Sister Mary Ann de Salvo, M.P.F., Religious Education Co-ordinator at Holy Family is chairman of the World Day of Prayer observance this year and she has announced there will be a sister provided for pre-school children. Following the service refreshments will be served by women of Holy Family Parish in the newly newly redecorated St. Joseph's Center.

Participating in the observance will be Mrs. Phyllis Weber of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Mrs. Alice Woodruff of Grace Episcopal Church, Mrs. Paul Harris of Friendship Baptist Church, Mrs. Shirley Peterson and Mrs. Vernie Marks of Vincent Methodist Church, Mrs. Isabelle Sargent of Franklin Reformed Church, Mrs. Grace Spahr of St. Paul's Church, Dorothy Baker, Pat Kordas and Mary Tene of Holy Family Church, Mrs. Pat Michaels of St. Mary's Church and Mrs. Genevieve Tolve of Trinity Chapel of the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

The guest speaker will be Father Joseph T. Slinger, week-end assistant at Holy Family Church. Father Slinger, who was ordained in 1970 from Immaculate Conception Seminary in Darlington, is a professor in the Social Studies Department at Seton Hall University.

and is matriculating for his Doctorate in Social Studies at Fordham University. Father Francis Blake, Pastor of Holy Family, will offer the Benediction.

Mrs. Jean Lessa, Holy Family organist, will serve as organist for World Day of Prayer and will direct members of the participating church choirs.

In recognition of this achievement - the highest award attainable in scouting - troop members, parents and invited guests gathered at the San Carlo Restaurant, Lyndhurst, to applaud the three Scouts.

Master-of-ceremonies, Eagle Scout Albert Buonanano, introduced the list of guests. Attending were guest speaker, Rev. Matthew Pesaniello, President of National Association of the Mentally Retarded, Garfield, and former Curator of Holy Family Church; Scout speaker and presenter of Eagle Awards, William Bolan, Scout Executive, Tamarack Council B.S.A.; Rev. GUEST SPEAKER — The Rev. Matthew Pesaniello, former curate of Holy Family Church and now president of the National Association for the Mentally Retarded, Garfield, addressed parents and scouts attending the dinner. The affair was held at San Carlo Restaurant, Lyndhurst, on February 4.

18 year-olds adults whose decisions are legally binding, he pointed to the importance of scouting which provides a vehicle for a father-son relationship to begin at the early age of 11 under principles that can be set the stage for a closer bond when the adult age of 18 is reached.

Scoutmaster Larry Marchese, in his talk to the troop and parents reported on the recent growth in the size of Troop 152 but reminded that growth in troop size is only a small measure of success, because in scouting the final measure of success is in the growth and development of the individual scout within the troop, which he said would suffer if adult involvement does not increase with the size of the troop.

Guest speaker, Father Pesaniello, directed his comments to the Eagle Scouts saying that they are now marked with the responsibility of living up to the meaning behind the word which embodies scouting and all its implications. He urged them to show the world what it means to be an Eagle Scout; to not only preach the gospel of scouting but also to conduct their lives accordingly.

Another highlight of the program was the presentation of the American Legion Good Citizenship Certificate by Post Commander David McCarthy of Post #70, Nutley. Support of scouting also came from the Nutley Elks organization who absorbed the cost of the Eagle Award kits which were presented to Troop 152 by Walter McGuire of the Nutley Elks Youth Activities Committee.

Eagle Scout Ernest Lombardi is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lombardi of 57 Center Street, Belleville; Eagle Scout Larry Marchese, Jr. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marchese, Sr. of 361 De Witt Avenue, Belleville; Eagle Scout Donald Murray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Prevent Insects From Infesting Your Dwelling

It is easier to prevent insects from infesting your home than it is to get rid of them after they become established. Mr. William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County advises.

Household pests seek food and places to hide and breed. If you eliminate these attractions, your chances of household problems in your home will be greatly reduced.

Practice sanitation. Many insects feed on spilled food, lint, and other materials that can easily be removed by systematic cleaning.

You And Your Pet Pet Poisoning

By Raymond Minor, D.V.M.

Pet poisoning should be the concern of every pet owner. Some pet owners fear that an unfriendly neighbor might deliberately poison a pet because of some real or imagined misbehavior. But cases such as these are, fortunately, very rare.

More often, pet poisoning is the result of someone's ignorance or carelessness. For example, your pet can get lead poisoning if he is allowed to chew on painted objects or to lick old paint cans.

Perhaps you are cleaning and have been spraying for insects or vermin with an agent containing phosphorus. Several sniffs of this and your pet can develop serious phosphorus poisoning.

If you are trying to get rid of rats or mice with a rodent poison, there is a fair chance that your pet might try a sample.

When playing outside, your dog can nip the leaves of bushes that have been sprayed. Or, your cat may lick his paws and feet after running over an area that has been sprayed with insecticide.

The family garbage can, an attractive nuisance to dogs, must also share a major load of the blame for pet poisoning. Usually, this is where a dog finds old pills, powders, medicines and, especially, decaying meat.

Caution—family remedies from the home medicine chest are not suited for pets.

Tonics that contain an amount of strychnine that has proven beneficial to human beings are often extremely dangerous since dogs are highly sensitive to this drug.

Pet poisoning can have sudden devastating effect on your pet when large doses are taken. Or, if ingested over a period of time, in small amounts, the poison will gradually weaken him.

It is not difficult to tell when your pet has been poisoned. The signs are quite definite. He may be either nervous and excited or depressed. His symptoms may include trembling, jerking, twitching, shivering, breathing, vomiting and convulsions.

Your pet may also develop blue gums, cloudiness in the eyes and blood-streaked diarrhea.

Depending upon the kind of poison ingested, one or more of these signs may be seen.

When poison is suspected, call your veterinarian for instructions.

If he asks you to induce vomiting, the usual emetics are hydrogen peroxide mixed with an equal amount of water; common table salt mixed with two teaspoonsful of a cup of warm water; mustard with one tablespoon to a cup of warm water.

The emetics should induce vomiting shortly after administration.

If your veterinarian is in close reach consider yourself lucky as there is no time to lose.

Guidance Clinic Auxiliary Meets; Plans Festival

The fast-growing Auxiliary of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic held a meeting February 15 at the Clinic headquarters located on the grounds of the Essex County Geriatrics Center at Franklin and Belleville Avenues. Members and friends from Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley were invited to attend and to join in the discussions at the meeting.

Mrs. George Manning, Jr., president of the auxiliary, said that the purpose of the get-together was to offer an opportunity for members and guests to hear about the latest developments at the Clinic and to participate in planning for a big event, an antique festival. "We hope to make this first Auxiliary affair a truly remarkable one," she added.

Early plans for the Festival call for a display of antiques by a number of dealers, international or other exciting foods for the gourmet, entertainment and games for the children and novelties for all.

Other Belleville and Nutley members of the Auxiliary who are helping with the affair include Mrs. Seymour Fersko, Mrs. William Taffet and Mrs. Robert Underwood of Belleville and Mrs. Joan Goodson and Mrs. S.C. Yorton of Nutley.

How To Tell When Your Plants Need Watering

How can you tell when your house plant needs water?

One way is to press your dry fingertip on the top of the soil. If soil particles stick to your finger and the surface of the soil is springy, the plant probably does not need water. Or you can give your plant the done-cake test. Stick a toothpick into the soil. If it comes out clean you'd better water your plant. Then there's the "listen" test. Rap the side of the pot with your knuckles or a stick. A dull sound means the soil is moist.

EMERGENCY CHILDBIRTH — that was the topic of three February sessions organized by the Ambulance and Rescue Squad Captains Council of Mountaineer Hospital to train squad men and women to deliver babies. Above, Joseph Boodin, M.D., a Mountaineer obstetrician, right, demonstrates the proper way to hold a newborn baby. More than 200 members of the squads serving Mountaineer Hospital attended the sessions. The payoff was prompt; the next day, the Cedar Grove Ambulance Unit was summoned to the aid of a pregnant woman... and delivered her child on the way to the hospital.

Art Museum Is Exhibiting Things Japanese

Things Japanese went on display in several areas of the Montclair Art Museum beginning Sunday, February 18, when Hina Matsuri, the Japanese Girls' Doll Festival exhibition opened.

In the museum's Upper Gallery, the Japanese mannequin and the ceremonial doll stand with its 15 miniature dolls representing the Imperial Court were installed. These will be the focus of the ritual surrounding the doll festival, of Festival of Peach Blossoms.

Youngsters touring the exhibition with their school groups will follow traditional social amenities, bowing, removing their shoes, and sitting Japanese fashion facing the hina-dana (doll stand) while they are told the lore of the festival. It is an ancient tradition begun over two centuries ago as an outgrowth of early purification ceremonies and still observed in Japan today.

In the Little Gallery, before entering the gallery where the dolls are installed, visitors will see a miniature Japanese house and garden, a gift to the museum, along with the dolls, from the late Mrs. Roy E. Tomlinson of Montclair. Also to be seen here are a group of Kami Ningyo, exquisitely detailed paper dolls, showing changes in the style of the ceremonial kimono during the Edo period from 1600 to 1870 A.D. These dolls include a sumatral's wife, two brides, a Goshu, a princess, a No dancer and boy and girl folk dancers. The dolls were made by Sasaki Maeda, of Kyoto, a one-time resident of Caldwell.

Things Japanese continue in the Museum Shop where a medley of objects from the Orient has been stocked in celebration of the doll festival. Paper fans, paper snakes, mobiles, and other objects are on hand to delight the young ones. More sophisticated wares such as tea sets with bamboo handles and decorative miniature orange trees are intended to appeal to parents.

The shop has been advised in its selection by Elsie Dillon, the museum's supervisor of education, who reminds visitors that the Hina Matsuri exhibition is for adults and children alike.

Essex County Medical Society Will Host School Students

Joint programs sponsored by the Essex County Medical Society and three area hospitals will be held this Saturday, Feb. 24 from 10 a. m. to noon to interest high school students in careers in medicine.

The programs at The Mountsinclair Hospital, Montclair, East Orange General Hospital, and Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville, are designed to show teenagers current medical skills and technology, and explore medical education from college entrance through specialty fields.

More than 80 students, members of Future Physicians Clubs at Nantux, Cedar Grove Memorial, Vashburn and Burlington in Newark, Clifford Scott and East Orange Catholic high schools, and Newark Academics, Livingston, are scheduled to attend.

At East Orange General Hospital, according to Dr. Herbert Goodman, director of the program, 40 students will view a film on medicine, receive copies of "Horizons Unlimited" which details medical careers, and participate in a quiz. At today's youth, and hear medical and surgical experts discuss their roles in patient care. A tour of hospital facilities is also scheduled.

At the Mountsinclair Hospital, Montclair, specialists in cardiology, internal medicine, pathology, and surgery, will discuss their fields with more than 20 students, according to Dr. Wallace Waldman, who is coordinating the program. A hospital tour will also be conducted to show students where most of their time in the profession will be spent.

At Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Dr. Arthur Fost, a clinical assistant professor at the College of Medicine & Dentistry-N.J., who is in charge of the program, said students will be introduced to "The Education of a Physician" including the role of women in medicine as presented by students at CMDNJ, and the role of internships as preparation for a professional career.

The programs are under the sponsorship of the Essex County Medical Society's Minish Asks Hearings On Daylight Time

Congressman Joseph G. Minish, 11th District, has called for hearings on his legislation to provide for year-round daylight saving time.

In a letter to Chairman Harley O. Staggers of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, to which Minish's measure has been referred, the New Jersey lawmaker urged early consideration of the time-change bill.

Minish said his bill "will reduce both crime and traffic accidents so prevalent during the late afternoon hours in the winter."

"Police statistics," Minish pointed out, "indicate that street criminals thrive in the early darkness afforded by standard time."

Moreover, Minish added, "the winter afternoon commuter rush hour is the peak time for traffic accidents."

Minish also argued that the time change proposal would result in other benefits, including more after-school playtime for children, greater utilization of parks, better business for retailers, important savings on electricity and fuel, and elimination of time-change confusion.

Schwartz/Elected Board President

The Board, pledged to remain in office for the remainder of the term. Schwartz said he would conduct his office as a "spokesman" for the Board, and commented, "it should be known that the president and the vice-president are no better than any other Board member. The Board is seven individual members, with seven voices. As long as I am president, this chair will not exert any power over any Board member."

Romano, often in the past cast in the role of a maverick on the Board, said his election to the vice-presidency "came as a shock," and vowed to work closely with Schwartz in the execution of their offices.

Schwartz, who at 34, is probably the youngest School Board president in Belleville was born and raised in Red Bank, N.J. He was graduated from Lafayette College and Rutgers Law School.

He has his own general law practice with offices at 353 Washington Avenue and is a member of the Kiwanis Club and numerous welfare associations, including the LaFayette and Lannuzzi Associations.

From 1967 to 1970, Schwartz served as assistant prosecutor in Essex County, and was elected to the Board of Education in 1970. His term expires next February.

He lives at 66 Van Riper Place with his wife, Susan and two children, Scott 7 and Stefanie 3.

Schwartz named the need for physical repair in the school system as the Board's most pressing problem and his immediate chief interest.

Accountants Offer Free Counselling

Minority businessmen in the Essex and Union County will continue to be offered counselling in accounting and financial management by the Essex County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants.

George Whitley, chairman of the NAA Socio-Economic Committee serving this community, has announced that members of the Essex County Chapter are ready to meet with operators of small businesses who are experiencing financial management problems. Individuals who are contemplating starting a small business who wish financial advice are also invited to participate. The service is free and all proceedings are confidential.

The NAA counselling service was first developed in 1969, and nationwide over 170 chapters are involved. During this period nearly 600 small businesses have been successfully aided, and an additional 215 are in process. The Essex County Chapter is participating in the program for the third year, and has already assisted many small businesses to achieve sounder financial operations.

The NAA advisors are prepared to assist the applicants on such matters as general accounting, budgeting, payrolls, auditing, credit and collections, taxes, insurance and banking relations. "These are some of the areas where many minority businessmen need help, and sound knowledge of them can keep many small businesses from failing," Mr. Whitley said. "The small business is a cornerstone of our system of free enterprise," he continued, "and we want to help keep them healthy," he continued.

Labor Dept. Aids Laid-off Engineers

Metropolitan area employers can now take advantage of a federally financed program aimed at re-employing engineers, scientists and technicians laid off from their jobs as the result of defense cutbacks.

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Labor, the program has been designed to repay employers for any losses they suffer while retaining new personnel for new occupations.

Unlike previous federal on-job-training programs, the Technology Mobilization and Re-employment Program (TMRP) involves a minimum of red tape for the employer.

Asked if he would request the Board of Commissioners to spare the maintenance appropriations when cuts are made in the $7.4 million budget soundly defeated by voters February 13, Schwartz said, "we will attempt to show the Commissioners that the appropriations we put in are really necessary, that the work must be done."

The new president called for open meetings with the public to discuss the repair question and said, "the question before us is whether the work will be financed by a bond referendum or in current expenses—but the work must be done."

Romano was born in Madison and went through the school system there. He continued his education at Tusculum College in Tennessee, Upsala College and Newark College of Engineering. He now holds a position as sales manager of a nationally-known container corporation.

He has served on the Citizens' Conference on Narcotics and has been active in local scouting programs. He is also a leading figure in many charity programs.

Romano and his wife Barbara live at 16 Belmont Street their two children, Lee Alan 14 and Robin Lynn 11. Romano's chief interests in Belleville education have been for tighter administration and, more recently, a comprehensive repair program. After his election by acclamation to the vice-presidency, Romano told the Times, "My phone number is listed. I always has been. I'm willing to listen to anyone who has something to say."

tire services, car wash operations, ice cream franchises, repair services, pest control companies, food establishments and radio-television repair shops are some of the small businesses that have been assisted. Those interested are invited to contact the NAA Socio-Economic Committee Chairman at 6 Bunyan Drive, Livingston, N.J.

Astronomers Schedule Talk On Cosmology

"Beyond the Seceable Universe: A note on Cosmology" will be the subject of a special lecture at the monthly meeting of Amateur Astronomers, Inc., at Union College on Friday Feb. 16, at 8 p.m., according to Charles Crane of Linden, AAI president.

Lewis C. Thomas of 236 Watching Avenue, North Plainfield, research scientist at Bell Laboratories and Lecturer at The Hayden Planetarium, will be the guest speaker at the AAI meeting, which will be held in the Campus Center theatre at the Cranford Campus.

A past president of AAI, which jointly operates the Sperry Observatory at the Cranford Campus with Union College, Mr. Thomas is a graduate of Cornell University. He has done additional work at Massachusetts Institute of Technology Committee for the upcoming expedition to Mauritania, West Africa, for this June's solar eclipse. More than 200 AAI members are making the trip.

Crane invites the public to attend the lecture by Mr. Thomas. Admission is free.

Essex County Medical Society Will Host School Students

Joint programs sponsored by the Essex County Medical Society and three area hospitals will be held this Saturday, Feb. 24 from 10 a.m. to noon to interest high school students in careers in medicine.

The programs at The Mountainside Hospital, Monticarry, East Orange General Hospital, and Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville, are designed to show, through a series of medical skills and technology, and explore medical education from college entrance through specialty fields.

More than 80 students, members of Future Physicians Clubs at Nutley, Cedar Grove Memorial, Valhalla and Bannock in Newark, Clifford Scott and East Orange Catholic high schools, and Newark Academy, Livingston, are scheduled to attend. At East Orange General Hospital, according to Dr. Herbert Goodman, director of the program, 40 students will view a film on medicine, receive copies of "Horizons Unlimited" which details medical opportunities available to today's youth, and hear medical and surgical experts discuss their roles in patient care. A tour of hospital facilities is also scheduled.

At The Mountainside Hospital, Monticarry, specialists in cardiology, internal medicine, pathology, and surgery, will discuss their fields with more than 20 students, according to Dr. Wallace Wallman, who is coordinating the program. A hospital tour will also be conducted to show students where most of their time in the profession will be spent.

At Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Dr. Arthur Post, a clinical assistant professor at the College of Medicine & Dentistry-N.J., who is in charge of the program, said students will be introduced to "The Education of a Physician," including the role of women in medicine as presented by students at CMDNJ, and the role of interns as preparation for a professional career.

The programs are under the sponsorship of the Essex County Medical Society's

Minish Asks Hearings On Daylight Time

Congressman Joseph G. Minish, 11th District, has called for hearings on his legislation to provide for year-round daylight saving time.

In a letter to Chairman Harley O. Staggers of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, to which Minish's measure has been referred, the New Jersey lawmaker urged early consideration of the time-change bill.

Minish said his bill "will reduce both crime and traffic accidents so prevalent during the late afternoon hours in the winter."

"Police statistics," Minish pointed out, "indicate that street criminals thrive in the early darkness afforded by standard time."

"Moreover," Minish added, "the winter afternoon commuter rush hour is the peak time for traffic accidents."

Minish also argued that the time change proposal would result in other benefits, including more after-school playtime for children, greater utilization of parks, better business for retailers, important savings on electricity and fuel, and elimination of time-change confusion.

Officer Is Named By First National

First National State Bank of New Jersey announced today that Alan J. Freedman, president and chairman of the board of Ketcham & McDougall, Inc. of Roseland, has been elected to the Advisory Board of the bank's West Essex-Caldwell Office.

Freedman is also president and chairman of Aqua Meter Instrument Corporation and K & McD Realty Company, subsidiaries of Ketcham & McDougall, Inc. All three firms have offices at 415 Eagle Rock Avenue, Roseland. The products manufactured include desk accessories, gift products and marine instruments.

Future Physicians Club whose chairman, Dr. William S. Kuhlmore than a decade ago started the first group in what is now a nationwide program to recruit high school students to medical careers. A major portion of each club's activities deal with education and hospital tours and volunteer duty to familiarize members with different medical specialties as they relate to all types of patient care.

Republican Committee Urges Gov. Cahill To Run Again

The entire Essex County Republican Committee plus the permanent County officers in a regularly scheduled meeting at the Carriage Trade in East Orange overwhelmingly urged Governor William T. Cahill to announce candidacy reelection. In a strong gesture of support for the Governor, Tolo Couzzi, North Ward Chairman, introduced the resolution to George M. Wallhauser Jr., County organization leader. A second to the resolution to George M. Wallhauser Jr., County organization leader. A second to the resolution came from Mrs. June Lael, chairman of Verona, and Mrs. Philomena Genaro, vice chairman of the East Ward of Newark.

Astronomers Schedule Talk On Cosmology

"Beyond the Seable Universe: A note on Cosmology" will be the subject of a special lecture at the monthly meeting of Amateur Astronomers, Inc., at Union College on Friday Feb. 16, at 8 p.m., according to Charles Crane of Linden, AAI president.

Lewis C. Thomas of 236 Watching Avenue, North Plainfield, research scientist at Bell Laboratories and Lecturer at The Hayden Planetarium, will be the guest speaker at the AAI meeting, which will be held in the Campus Center theater at the Cranford Campus.

A past president of AAI, which jointly operates the Sperry Observatory at the Cranford Campus with Union College, Mr. Thomas is a graduate of Cornell University. He has done additional work at Massachusetts Institute of Technology Committee for the upcoming expedition to Mauritania, West Africa, for this June's solar-eclipse. More than 200 AAI members are making the trip.

Crane invites the public to attend the lecture by Mr. Thomas. Admission is free.

The basic contract is short and uncomplicated, and payment is made in one lump sum after training has been completed.

All private profit and non-profit organizations are eligible to take part in the program. The employer agrees to hire the trainee before the training gets underway and guarantees that the trainee will work under the same conditions and with the same benefits as other employees in the organization.

We see in the future what we dreamed the past might be like.

Jets Take Revenge On All-Stars, 108-98

by Tony Calabrese

The New York Jets basketball team, took the lead for good in the first quarter over the Craig Fabian All-Star team, and went on to defeat the local team by a score of 108-98, last Saturday night at the Belleville High School gymnasium.

This game, played for the benefit of the Craig Fabian Fund charity, attracted an overflow crowd, which for the most part seemed to be rooting for the pro footballers making up the Jet team. The Jets themselves wanted very much to win this game remembering full well the All-Stars upset 67-51 win over them last year, and in spite of another spirited and all-out effort by the All-Stars, this time the Jets were able to come away with the triumph.

Bobby Fischer has stirred up a lively interest in the game of chess and new clubs are springing up all over the country.

This year's score was so much higher than last year's version due to a few changes in the rules compared to last year. This time around upon request of the Jets, each quarter was 12 minutes long, compared to last year's 8 minute variety, and also since the Jets only had eight players representing them, they asked that a rule be made that a player foul out of this game when he accumulated seven personal fouls, a rule which was very much needed as there were 55 fouls called in the contest. Thus the better players were able to stay in the game longer.

There were ten players on the night that scored in double figures, with 6 of these fellows being on the Jets. Leading the Jet attack was a fellow who is a football rival of theirs during the season, Oakland Raider rookie wide receiver, Mike Siani, who scored 24 points, and who was also a terror off the backboards. Jet backup quarterback, Bob Davis, was next in the scoring parade, as he dropped in 23 points, and he was one of those who benefited from the seven personal foul rule.

Belleville High plays host to seven Group Three schools tomorrow night at 7 p.m. as the first round of the District championship tournament opens.

Local grapplers hope to make it through that round to the second round Saturday, 10 a.m. Consolation matches are scheduled for 2 p.m., with finals afterward.

The Bellboys are riding high after officially capturing the Big Ten championship last week when they overran Columbia. A check by Athletic Director Herman Wishe determined that official recognition would be given the wrestlers for the title win. A question had been raised whether a title was actually credited to the top-ranking team in the conference.

With the crown under his belt, coach Jim Silvestri met with the other seven competing coaches Monday night to determine seeding for the tournament.

Facing Belleville will be Barringer, Beckton, Bloomfield, Essex Catholic, Glen Ridge, Kearny and Lyndhurst.

Of that field, Essex Catholic is the only team to have mastered Belleville this season, with a 40-13 whipping. Lyndhurst provided tough competition this past week. Already defeated handily by the Bellboys earlier are Kearny and Bloomfield. Barringer has also fallen to the home team, while the Bellboys have not met Glen Ridge or Beckton in dual competition.

Coincidentally, no Bellboys are slated to meet Essex opponents in the first round Friday night.

Rocco Cuozzo (98) will face Goodheart of Lyndhurst, an opponent Cuozzo has already bested Saturday, 5-0. Cuozzo's season mark is 13-2, while Goodheart's is 0-3.

Co-captain Ramon "Chico" Lijo (106), coming off a Saturday defeat to post a 15-2 record, will meet Strongio of Glen Ridge (1-2). Lake-Cumenz-Lijo is first-seeded.

At 115 pounds, Anthony Villano (9-4), sixth-seeded, will meet Lyndhurst's Wolfe (9-2-1), of Lyndhurst, who beat Villano Saturday by a score of 15-9. The two are seeded sixth.

Bob Willette (123), with a strong 13-1-1 record, is seeded second to meet Beckton's Victor, who has bested no victories in eight matches.

BELLBOY GRAPPLERS and coach Jim Silvestri, are set to host seven other schools tomorrow night in the opening of the District championships. Kneeling (l-r) are Rocco Cuozzo, "Chico" Lijo, Anthony

Frosh Matmen Storm Tourney Grapplers Earn Lyndhurst Win

Belleville freshmen grapplers rolled over a field of top wrestling schools Saturday to cap an undefeated season—the second in a row for coach Dennis Villano's frosh squad.

The Belleville matmen collected an astounding 89 points in the tournament to finish far ahead of their closest competition—Passaic Valley, who ended up with 49.

Also in the field were such traditionally strong schools as Essex Catholic and Nutley. Other competing squads hailed from St. Thomas, Par-sippany, Seton Hall and West Essex.

Carl Aslt led off in the 88-pound class with a first-place win. Aslt went undefeated in dual competition this year.

Also undefeated was co-captain Vinnie Mustachio (98), who like-wise copped first place honors.

At 106, Tom Cairo was eliminated in the first round. Keith followed at 115 pounds to blaze to first place with three straight pins.

Co-captain Robert Villano, undefeated this year, took the top spot at 123.

Ronnie McManus (130) grabbed third place, while undefeated Chris Tremel pinned three to take first in his class.

Juniors Travel To Bowling Battle

The Essex County Junior Bowling Association held its tenth Annual Championship Team Tournament at Eagle Rock Lanes in West Orange on Feb. 10 and 11. Under the leadership of the Tournament Director, Mrs. Mary Ross of Belleville, 185 teams vied for trophies. There were 41 teams entered from Brunswick Olympic Bowl in Belleville and there were some very happy winners among this group.

Taking team honors were The Pin Poppers with John Burdaz, George Slater, Sal Sorice, Gene Kynieski, and Mike Basile. They had a scratch team series of 2184 in Class B.

Also earning individual honors was Steve Glolia, a bantam boy (age 9-13), with a series of 468. He also earned a trophy for a 183 game. However bowling the high bantam game for the tournament was Mark Krotchko with a 184 game. These youngsters bow on Saturdays at Olympic.

Not to be left out, the girls came up with a winner in the bantam class with Nikki Guarino bowling a 167 game to take top honors.

Others with nice games which will earn them trophies are Carol D. Dominico, YB (under 9), 126 game, Bernice, YB 100, Donelle Smith, YB 129, William Corbals, YB 132, William Cook, YB 135, Kathy La Rocca, YB 125, George Slater, junior boy, 203, and Darrell Hesford, YB 126.

All of the trophies will be awarded at a party to be held in The Irvington Methodist Church on March 9, 1973.

Tom Zarra (141) was eliminated in the preliminary round, but was followed up by undefeated Mike Ferrara's third-place effort.

Mike De Joseph (157), another undefeated wrestler, won top honors. At 168, Mike Ogilvie placed fourth.

Heavyweight Ken Milano ended the day with a second-place showing.

Coach Villano praised the efforts of his team, pointing out the frosh had rolled up about 360 points on their opponents this season, while holding the line at about 100.

Villano estimated his grapplers had pinned about 45 foes, while suffering only about 15 themselves.

East Orange Fells Co-Ed Cage Five

Entering the second round of the Girl's State Basketball Tournament, the Belleville girls' varsity team found their second round opponent too much for them to handle. The Bellgirls had convincingly beaten their first round opponent, Mt. St. Dominic 60-48.

The taller girls from East Orange Catholic played a great second half and that proved to be the difference as they won 58-40.

E.O. Catholic had upset

Nutley on February 10 and this win paved the way to their second upset over the Bellgirls.

Joyce Buckland sank the first basket for the Bellgirls followed by a quick interception and a score by Donna Foley.

At the end of the first quarter, the Bellgirls were down by one point, 9-8.

Donna Foley was sent to the foul line to sink one of her two shots for the first point in the second quarter. E.O. Catholic then came back with five consecutive points, followed by six Belleville points. Joyce Buckland scored two of these baskets followed by Susan Winship with two foul shots. Donna Stone then intercepted the ball and drove down court for a score. At the end of the half, the Bellgirls were ahead 21-18.

In the third quarter the Bellgirls appeared slow and couldn't get started. Linda Diana and Joyce Buckland were the only two Bellgirls to score. E.O. Catholic scored a total of 23 points to the Bellgirls' four.

Diana Amos scored the first basket for the Bellgirls in the fourth quarter by sinking a shot on a one and one situation. The Bellgirls scored 15 to E.O. Catholic's 17 points.

The final score was 58-40, with the Bellgirls' losing. Joyce Buckland led all scorers with 17 points followed by Donna Foley with nine.

When asked to comment on the Bellgirls loss and elimination in the State Tournament, Coach Karen Fuccello stated that the Bellgirls lost because of their failure to capitalize on E.O.'s errors in the first half and then fell victims of their own inconsistency which has plagued them at various times during the season.

"We could have and should have won this game. We knew what we had to do to beat E.O., who was taller than we were, but didn't play our game plan. They made us play game plan. Each year we've gained experience in tournament play and our knowledge should help us for the next year."

captain Ramon "Chico" Lijo was unable to break a three-year streak of bad luck, when his perfect dual-meet record was spoiled by Lyndhurst's Solitto, who bested Lijo 5-2. It was his third year in a row that Lijo saw an undefeated record ruined at season's end by a Lyndhurst foe. His mark now stands at 13-1.

Anthony Villano (115) likewise fell, 15-9, to Wolfe of Lyndhurst. Villano has drawn Wolfe as his first-round opponent in tomorrow's district championship tournament.

Bob Willette (123) came through with a 6-0 win to tie the match at 6-6.

Bill Mazza, coming back onto the varsity squad, was defeated and was followed by a close 2-1 loss by Ralph Fabiano, at 148.

Bob Cote moved up to the 157-pound class, where he was pinned by Lyndhurst's Macula, a district champion last year. At this point, the Bellboys were down, 18-12, but moved into an 18-18 tie when help came in the form of a forfeit at 168 pounds.

Joe Vasquez, wrestling two classes above his usual 157, was victorious, 4-1, at 178, to put the Bellboys over the top.

Heavyweight John Smith provided the tie, as he pinned his twelfth opponent of the season.

Coach Jim Silvestri noted the scrappy quality of the Lyndhurst club, analyzing them as "the most-pyched team we've met all year."

Cagers to Face Vailsburg In Monday Opening Round

by Tony Calabrese

Starting at 8 p.m. Monday evening at the Belleville High School gymnasium, the Belleville-Bellboy varsity basketball team will enter state tournament competition for the first time in seven years.

Previous years the rules for qualifying for the state tournament stated that a team must have a 500 record or better.

Well, fortunes for Belleville basketball haven't been going so well in recent years and so Belleville has not qualified for quite some time. However, rules for qualifying were changed this year to the fact that a team just had to apply for admission in September to qualify. Therefore, Belleville is a member of Group Three in the state groupings (which are determined on school population), and of all the teams to have drawn in the first round of the tournament Belleville has come up with one of the most unique situation.

Belleville's opponent will be Vailsburg High School of Newark in the first round. The team discovered this fact in early February. However, even before that time the students at Vailsburg had not been in school due to student disturbances. Therefore, their team has not played a basketball game in February, and Belleville has not had a chance to scout them and has no idea of anything about the players on the team.

However, Bellboy coach Bob Palma, has an idea that as is a tradition of the Newark City League team, that Vailsburg should be what is termed a "run and shoot" team. Should the game not be played, this reporter advises all fans of the team to check out this fact in either the Newark Star-Ledger, or The Herald News. If the game is not played, Belleville would win by forfeit. If Belleville wins by forfeit, or actually wins the game, then they would advance to the second round of the tournament, playing the West Essex Knights (17-6), in West Essex. The Knights are an impressive team paced by their star center, Bill Doran who averages more than 20 points a game. However, for now the thought is on Vailsburg High, and for all those that come this Monday evening, they should be in for a most entertaining game.

Olympic Pair Skaters To Star In Funorama

AMONG THE STARS in April's Funorama On Ice in West Orange will be Melissa and Mark Militano, who have skated on the U.S. World team for the past four years. Funorama, in its 14th year, benefits The Hospital Center in Orange.

Olympic pair skaters Mark and Melissa Militano will be among the star performers in a new production of Funorama on Ice scheduled for April 14 and 15 at the South Mountain Arena in West Orange.

The Militanos, whose colorful ice artistry has won them a place on the U.S. World Team for the past four years, are the first of a list of international ice stars to be announced for the Funorama show.

Funorama, now in its 14th year, is held annually for the benefit of The Hospital Center in Orange and is produced through the joint efforts of the Hospital and the Essex Skating Club of New Jersey, Inc.

Members of the Skating Club of New York, the Militanos captured a silver medal in the National Senior Pairs a year ago. They also were elected to compete in the 1972 Olympics in Japan.

The show this year will honor the Centennial celebration of the Hospital Center, with many production numbers displaying an anniversary theme.

The show is sanctioned by the U.S. Figure Skating Association. Funorama tickets may be obtained at the Funorama office at the Hospital Center.

Sell-Out Crowd Sees Jets Topple All-Stars

through for ten more. The All-Stars were led on the evening by former Belleville High star Jim Corino, now the head basketball coach at Lyndhurst High, who scored 22 points. Other All-Star scoring leaders were Bob Laird with 17, Rich Luzzi with 15, and Red Higgins who gunned in 12 tallies. Everyone of the All-Stars got into the scoring column, and their coach Joe Petrillo, made sure they all saw a lot of action.

Bob Laird of the All-Stars opened the game scoring with a jumper, but two Villapiano foul shots tied it for the Jets. The All-Stars then took off on a nine point run, sparked by five by Corino, and went up to an early 11-2 lead.

However, the Jets who couldn't hit any sort of shot early in the game started to get inside for lay-ups and close shots and finally went ahead for the first time 20-19 when Bob Davis scored on a fast break lay-up with less than three minutes to go in the quarter. The quarter ended with the Jets on top 26-23. Davis led the Jets in the opening period with 10 points while Hank Bjorklund, Bob Tucker, and Mike Siani each had four tallies. Red Higgins, who did not start the game, came off the bench to lead the All-Stars with six points, while Jim Corino scored five, and Rich Luzzi added four more.

In the second quarter the Jets outscored the All-Stars by a 27-25 count and although the spirited All-Stars threatened many times they never quite could take the lead. Still by halftime, the score read 53-41. All-Stars 48, very much so a halfgame, at this stage. In the second quarter the Jets were paced in scoring by Bjorklund's eight points, and Eddie Bell's five. Siani, Tucker, and Bjorklund also started establishing a dominance of the backboards in aiding the pro footballers cause. The All-Stars got fine scoring second periods out of Rich Luzzi who had seven points, Bob Laird who had six, and Jim Corino who chipped in with five more.

After the half hour-half time, in which the football players signed autographs for the youngsters present (Bob Tucker was the most sought signature), the game resumed. Laird and Corino scored early third quarter baskets for the All-Stars leaving the Jets up by one 53-52.

However, the Jets again managed to stay out of the reach of the local team as Bob Tucker and Mike Siani got inside for easy lay-ups, while Bell hit on a couple of jumpers. Still the All-Stars, behind a fine one man performance by Corino in the quarter, hung in there. Corino scored ten of the All-Stars 22 third period points, and none of his other teammates were close to that mark. The Jets received eight points from Tucker, six from Siani, five from Bob Davis, and four from Eddie Bell. After three the score read 79-70 with the Jets out in front.

In the fourth quarter the Jets outscored the All-Stars 28-25, with the Jets getting part of that margin by opening the quarter with a 14-4 spurt. That spurt made the score at the time 93-74 in favor of the Jets. Siani did most of the damage with ten tallies in the run. The crowd was rooting for the Jets to reach 100 points, a rare event scarcely seen in a basketball game played in Belleville, and this was accomplished when Phil Villapiano put in a hook shot.

Pool Measure Size Limits Are Deleted

1961 town ordinance handles fencing. Strumolo said he wants Town Attorney Scott to examine the measure before the February 27 meeting.

Building Inspector Vincent Mustacchio responded to Strumolo's charges this week, saying the State ordinance covers residential pools, and the state code applies only to public swimming pools. The 1961 ordinance, said Mustacchio, includes only in-ground pools, where the in-ground pools covers permanent and portable pools.

The proposed ordinance will require all present pool owners to erect four-foot fencing and to register their pools with the Town Building Inspector.

The only size requirement left in the proposed bill would keep a five-foot spacing between a pool and an abutting sideyard.

The "Summary of General Section of Budget" statement develops the local municipal tax levy which includes the "Reserve for Uncollected Taxes" or cash basis "levy" not only for local needs but for school and county purposes as well. While school and county taxes are expressed only in amounts of cash needed for their payment, additional taxes must be raised, and included as part of the local levy, so that collections will meet requirements.

County Tax is estimated on information presently available and will ultimately be set by the County Board of Taxation. Local School Tax is based on the amount of cash needed for their payment, and will be set by the County Board of Taxation.

The Budget for 1973 produces estimated Real Property tax rate of 6.35 per $100.00 of assessed valuation compared with the 1972 tax rate of $5.64, an estimated increase of 71 points.

The following table shows the composition of the estimated 1973 tax levy and tax in comparison with the actual elements for 1972:

Chamber Reports High Mark In New Member Recruitment

The past 12 months have been the best such period in terms of new members since 1963 when the Chamber of Commerce launched its membership drive. Chamber officials reported this week.

In twelve months the Chamber has enrolled 18 new members, better than half of which sought membership. The rest being recruited by members who are not only interested in what the Chamber is doing but believe that more firms and businesses should participate.

This has been a very active twelve months. In addition to sponsoring the Dale Carnegie Course, the Chamber held Sidewalk Sales, Late Hour Sales, took part in the Cherry Blossom Parade, held its annual Dinner Dance, sponsored the Easter Bunny and Santa Claus Trailer event, the Christmas Lights and The Santa Claus Parade.

But in addition to these events which people see and know about the Chamber carries on an active daily program designed to help people who seek information about Belleville or want to know what to do when a problem arises or where to buy or get service.

Letters, also, come in from all over the country and from all over the world: Canada, Taiwan, Japan, Africa and Europe. Many of the phone calls and letters have resulted in business for local firms.

Weapons

U.S. officials predict a treaty banning the production, stockpiling and use of chemical weapons is at least two years away. Chemical weaponry is expected to dominate the 25-nation Geneva disarmament conference reopening Feb. 20.

Jersey Builders Say
Rents Remain Stable

Contrary to the claims of the New Jersey Tenants Organization, rents in New Jersey have not risen significantly since Phase Two guidelines were life, a recent statewide survey shows.

The survey covered rental property - owners and managers who collectively control more than 50,000 apartments in New Jersey. It was conducted over the last three weeks by the Apartment House Council of the New Jersey Builders Association, which represents most of the major rental property owners in the state.

"I think the results of the survey indicate that those who have been predicting astronomical rent increases are guilty of making bombastic and baseless claims," charged Frank P. Fariella Jr., chairman of the Apartment House Council. "I think that, in general, landlords throughout the state have shown a willingness to heed the President's request for voluntary controls on rents."

The survey showed that rents in New Jersey have risen by only six percent since the Phase Two guidelines were lifted on January 11.

The New Jersey Tenants Organization said rent increases would average "between 25 and 50 per cent."

The survey is part of a self-policing campaign initiated by the Apartment House Council to protect tenants from the possibility of "unreasonable" rent increases in those few areas of the state where there is a tight housing market.

The Council's effort is being supported by the New Jersey Association of Realtor Boards.

The Council is:

1. Handling rent complaints from tenants.
2. Issuing regular warnings to more than 2,000 landlords throughout the state to keep rents within the Phase Two Guidelines.
3. Offering to step in as an arbiter in tenant-landlord rent disputes.

Fariella said the survey found that the rent increases which were all established as leases expired were made to rectify inequities caused by federal rent control.

"There were many cases where identical apartments had different rents, because leases were signed under different federal guidelines."

'Butterflies' Flying High At Meadowbrook Theater

LOVE'S MOMENT — Marty Morris as Jill Tanner in "Butterflies Are Free" at the Meadowbrook Theater Restaurant in Cedar Grove is funny, sentimental, winning and quietly moving — all making for a lovely winter's evening entertainment.

"Butterflies Are Free," which has opened at the Meadowbrook Theater Restaurant in Cedar Grove is funny, sentimental, winning and quietly moving — all making for a lovely winter's evening entertainment.

The delightful Eve Arden's talents are demonstrably excellent in the role of the over-possessive mother of her blind son who is determined to make his way in life on his own. Miss Arden's characterization is deft and smooth in the transition from the domineering mother-knows-best to the believable, friendly counselor — an accomplishment not as readily achieved as might be assumed. The actress's charm that has won her such loyal audiences, cativates those at the Meadowbrook with the same sincerity.

Tony Fitzsimmons, in the part of the blind young man, expresses a happy philosophy that at times almost makes his handicap seem one to be desired. However, protected from life up until his declaration of freedom, he was not too well equipped to meet the deep hurts that strike any human being — sighted or blind.

Young Fitzsimmons brings a freshness of characterization with which each viewer can identify, if only from memory. Love's first heart-breaks are hard to bear, but when combined with a fear that blindness is the reason for his losses, despair is twice deep.

Although there are very touching and poignant moments, fun and comedy are aplenty. Marty Morris is the girl in the next door apartment and she flits about irresponsibly, fighting a commitment to love.

In the small role of the off-Broadway producer, Ron Johnston gives a performance that is outstanding. One could wish the script called for more of his presence on stage.

"Butterflies Are Free" is a slick comedy with a history of a successful run on Broadway. The Meadowbrook production is up to its usual high standards. Larry Aumen designed the "Taj Mahal" set. Billy Matthews directed.

Nicaraguans Helped By Essex Red Cross

Contributions amounting to $1,474 received by Essex Chapter are helping the emergency relief operation for earthquake victims in Nicaragua. Chapter Chairman William E. Medford called the response, resulting from fund-raising efforts through January, "very gratifying."

Medford stated that reports from national headquarters estimate that 200,000 people are being fed at 48 distribution points by the Nicaraguan Red Cross in cooperation with the Nicaraguan government. Food commodities, supplied by the League of Red Cross Societies and many foreign governments, continue to be shipped into the capital city of Managua, along with other necessities.

To date the ARC has allocated $100,000 for Nicaraguan relief and has received contributions of food and other commodities totaling hundreds of thousands of dollars.

As conditions improve, two of the seven-man ARC relief team dispatched to the disaster have returned to the U.S. The remaining members are expected to leave.

Schoolers To See Statewide Testing Results And Uses

The state's school leaders will be given an overview of statewide testing results and how they can be used and interpreted at regional workshops to be held at three locations — Glassboro, Englishtown, and Paramus — on Saturday. The regional workshops are a regular function of the New Jersey School Boards Association.

Leading the discussion groups at each of the regional workshops will be the following key personnel representing the state Educational Assessment Office, a branch of the state Department of Education's Division of Research, Planning, and Development:

Paramus High School — Glen H. Tecker, special assistant director, Division of research, Planning, and Development.

Glassboro High School — Joyce Matthews and Mary Ann Wilmer, both program planners.

Manalapan High School — Stephen Blaustein, coordinator of Statistical Analysis, and Ruth Heibel, coordinator of Special Programs.

The New Jersey School Boards Association, representing over 600 school boards with approximately 5,000 members, is established under New Jersey statute to encourage and promote all movements for the betterment of public education in the state.

Nicaragua shortly Medford noted that the Nicaraguan Red Cross has operated a 60-bed field hospital donated by the Cuban Red Cross and three medical aid posts since the earthquake. Each has a capacity of 1,500 patients a day.

In addition, the Nicaraguan Red Cross is maintaining a refugee center near the nation's frontier with Honduras and in the city of Ocotel for 2,500 persons. Branches of the Society in Leon, Granada, Chinandega, Nueva Segovia, Esteli, Matagalpa, Chompalis, Rivas, and Masaya are also helping refugees who fled Managua following the disaster.

According to Medford, the critical shortage of trucks and other vehicles has been relieved. Food and other relief supplies are now moving out regularly to those in need.

Equipment such as tents, blankets, cots, and clothing are being distributed directly to disaster victims by the Red Cross. Foods and medicines are being put in a common stockpile and distributed by the Nicaraguan government with the aid of the U.S. and other governments and the Red Cross.

Talent Expo Showcase Will Expand Categories

High School Principals and Music Educators in the State are being informed by the Garden State Arts Center that the Center will once again be the setting for the Talent Expo Showcase. Sample applications are being mailed to all interested parties and upon request the Arts Center will furnish the number of actual applications necessary.

Last year over 900 teens between the ages of 13 and 18 entered Talent Expo. The contest is a search for the State's stars of tomorrow. Preliminary presentations are held in various parts of the State and the Arts Center stage itself is to be the setting for the Showcase of Stars Saturday evening, June 2, 1973. The contest has been expanded for the coming year in that there will be more categories and consequently more winners. In the past there was one Dance category. Now this category has been broken down into ballet, tap, and group and solo dancing other than ballet or tap.

There are seven other categories. They include:

classical instrumental; classical vocal; popular instrumental; popular vocal; instrumental group; vocal group; and vocal instrumental group.

In addition to acquiring applications, educators are being urged to publicize the Talent Expo with announcements to their students.

The contest provides youngsters with the opportunity to "show their stuff" working with the Arts Center's professional staff of directors, light and sound men, with the full complement of press in attendance, and of course, in front of a large audience.

Essex Opera Theater Schedules Production

Tickets are $3.00, except for senior citizens, who will pay $1.50. For information call 744-0166.

Donald Gage, founder and general director of the Opera Theater, will conduct. Gage's wife, the former Lila Caputo of Nutley who performed in this production on Broadway under the direction of Rodgers and Hammerstein, has staged the upcoming performances.

CHILDREN'S LIBRARIAN Mrs. Katherine Tilley gives some helpful advice to a questioning youngster with a problem.

SEARCHING through the stacks for this week's reading matter is Georgeann Pollie.

VALENTINE-MAKING was the order of the day Saturday, Feb. 10 at the Free Public Library, 221 Washington Avenue, as kids were given the materials to assemble greetings for loved ones. The exercise called for imagination and precision, as is evidenced in the above picture.

Arts and Crafts

Free Library Supplies Saturday Morning Fun

A COMIC VALENTINE draws a laugh from this group of youngsters at the Saturday morning arts and crafts session, just one of many projects arranged by the library staff for kids.

HELPING HAND — Lipda, 12, aids brother Matthew, 2, through the elementary stages of valentine art.

FINISHING TOUCHES — Cindy Vocaturo puts the delicate finishes to the valentines as she applies powdered sparkles to the children's handicraft.

LIBRARY WORKERS Lynn Haeg (left) and Cindy Vocaturo keep things moving as a flock of youngsters besiege the desk of the children's room.

HARD AT WORK — Constructing valentines for family and friends are (l-r) Ellen McNeill, Michel Stanko and David Stanko. The kids made good use of a wide range of materials.

FINAL SELECTIONS are debated by (l-r) Tom Henry, James Lombardi and John Lombardi as they prepare to leave. James seems to think he'd like to switch with brother John.

GOING HOME with a few interesting books are Gloria and Richard Antolini, who look like they found just what they wanted.

CLEANUP CREW — After the fun's over, there's still work to be done, so (l-r) Janet Feltry, Joy Bernarducci and Diane Auriemma get rid of the trimmings.
