Thought of the Week

To live is like to love — all reason is against it, and all healthy instinct for it.

Feathered Friend

BIG BIRD was one of the many celebrities who visited Belleville Sunday for the town's annual Cherry Blossom Parade, which found just enough sun to go on successfully. The Times carries a full page of parade pictures today.

Rogers Stalls On 'Exposure'

Steven Rogers, 21, did not send to the Essex County Prosecutor a letter detailing charges of misconduct allegedly committed by members of the Board of Education during and after the February 13 election in which Rogers lost his bid for a Board seat. Rogers had told the press he intended to mail the letter this week.

He said he had not done so because "a relative of one of the school board members involved in this incident had called me at my home requesting that I do not go to the prosecutor, explaining that their entire family was

Property Tax Ruled Invalid

A recent New Jersey Supreme Court decision ruling property taxes to be an unconstitutional method of funding education may help Belleville schools while stabilizing property taxes here, local school officials said this week.

The Supreme Court under Chief Justice Joseph Weintraub upheld a decision made in the Superior Court by Judge Theodore Botter who said the present system of funding schools through local district taxes based on real estate was unconstitutional since the system does not provide for equal educational opportunities guaranteed in the New Jersey constitution.

"I believe this means we could expect a sharp decrease in property taxes," said Belleville Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco this week. "However, it's still questionable where the replacement funds will come from. The courts have laid out the policy statement. Now it's up to the state legislature to lay out the procedures to implement that policy."

"I look towards the lottery and a state income tax, whereby the load will be carried by those most able to pay, in order to supply the funds," added Greco.

Board of Education president Lawrence Schwartz said the possible alternatives to property taxes would be a broad-based income tax or a per capita tax, whereby each person in a town would be assessed a certain amount for tax purposes. Schwartz said he favors a graduated income tax because "this would mean that the apartment dwellers in town would have to pay for the education of their children as well." Under the property tax system, only those owning land have been assessed for taxation.

"Since we live in an urban area with property taxes as high as they are, I'm hoping this will stabilize the taxes," he added.

Schwartz and Greco both said the intent of the Supreme Court ruling is to equalize educational opportunities in the poorer areas of the state, particularly the ghettos. Greco said the state educational authorities classify Belleville as a "minimum district," meaning this town requires little state funding for schools.

Belleville, in 1971-72 (the last year for which accurate figures are available) had

Boards to Meet In Round One

A preliminary hearing on the appeal of the $450,880 cut made in the proposed $74 million 1973-74 school budget by the Town Fathers will be held May 10 at the offices of the Board of Education.

Members of the Board of Education and Board of Commissioners will be present, along with school and town officials, representatives from the County Superintendent of Schools and possibly a representative from the State Department of Education.

Board of Education president Lawrence Schwartz said this week he is open to a settlement of the dispute at this hearing, before the matter reaches the Commission of Education.

Edward Kilpatrick, Mayor Joseph McGreevy said he's not sure if the case can be legally resolved on the county level and referred a Times reporter to Town Attorney John Scott for an answer. McGreevy did not indicate whether he would prefer an early settlement, if it is legally permissible.

The Times was unable to contact Town Attorney Scott before press time. Lawrence Schwartz said such an agreement is allowable, "if both parties are willing, a consent agreement can be entered into and be approved by the Commissioner of Education."

Saunt has not yet filed with the commission a brief detailing the Town Fathers' side of the dispute.

If the dispute is not settled at the preliminary hearing, another meeting will be set in Trenton, before the Commissioner of Education.

The disagreement broke out March 20 when the school board was first informed of the Commissioners' intention to slash the $450,880. Some members of the Board had reportedly been prepared to accept a cut of $250,000 to $300,000, but on April 3 the board voted unanimously to appeal the decision, although two members, Mrs. Norma McCool and Richard Maharian both stated they were primarily interested in getting back the most necessary portion of the funds.

The school board submitted their brief to the Commissioner of Education in early April. In the document they charged the Town Commission's "basic and sole motive" in making the large cut "was to keep the tax rate down." The school board contended the cut would make it impossible to run a "thorough and efficient" school system in Belleville.

The $450,880 slash effected a cut of 19 points in the proposed hike of 42 points.

Belleville Man Bids For Governor's Office

Two well-known names — Cahill and Satriano — will appear on the listing for Republican candidates for governor in the June 5 primary. The third name is not yet so well-known — Michael Maglio, a lifelong Belleville resident.

Maglio, 38, of 87 Frederick Street, is the dark horse in the three-way race for the Republican nomination, although he filed earlier than the others on April 19. He has held no elected office in the state or town, but served as a member of the Essex County Republican Committee for several years until 1964, when the position began to conflict with his work in the machine shop at the Clark Township plant of the New Departure Hyatt Bearing Company, a division of General Motors.

Maglio has officially listed as the "Republican-Labor" candidate to underscore the basic thrust of his campaign more jobs for New Jerseyans through a concentrated program of attracting large industry into the state. Maglio needed 1,000 names on his petition to make the primary ballot and he obtained 1,235 in a four-man canvassing of Belleville and neighboring towns. He said he has not approached Republican town chairmen for support "since they've all already committed to Sande-man or Cahill."

Since he reached the age of 21, says Maglio, he has been a staunch Republican, and in the mid-Fifties he worked to organize the transition in Belleville from an appointed Board of Education to an elected body. He organized and managed the Belleville Night Owls, a baseball team which was disbanded with the outset of World War II. Maglio served in the Army during the war.

"The difference between myself and the other candidates," said Maglio, "is that they don't have what I have — the experience of being a working man. I have what's needed to help the

Petition Groups Open Question Of Grid Coach Reappointment

Opposing groups of citizens submitted petitions to the Board of Education in the past two weeks both for and against the rehiring of Belleville High football coach Rocco Cafone.

The Board Monday night heard a personal response from coach Cafone against yet unspecified complaints and listened to the pleas of two youths who played under Cafone and presented the Board with a petition signed by a large number of ex-grads who back the coach.

Last week, the Board of Ed invited into their private caucus a group of disgruntled parents who also brought a petition, reportedly bearing 800-1,000 names of citizens opposing Cafone's rehiring.

The Board will consider the case and vote in public on the question at their next public meeting, scheduled for the first Monday of the month, May 28.

Neither of the two petitions submitted by the groups have been examined to determine their authenticity.

Couch Cafone, who last fall completed his third season at Belleville High School, declined to comment on the events, as did Board of Education president Lawrence Schwartz.

"The two youths, Daniel Vitiello and Robert Luongo, said they circulated their 'informal' petition only among football players, because, according to Luongo, 'these are the people who have had the most contact with Coach Cafone.' They started their drive on Saturday and turned in the list Monday night. Their next step, they said, would be to organize a petition drive among the general public.

Sidewalk Sale

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce is currently organizing a town-wide sidewalk sale, slated for the weekend of May 18-19.

The annual Chamber-sponsored sale is a notable commercial event in Belleville, with merchants providing many unique specials for the occasion.

Vaccinate All Pets Today

Today marks the beginning of a three-day free rabies control vaccination clinic sponsored by Commissioner Vincent Strumolo's Public Affairs Department.

The clinic will be held in a new location in town today, tomorrow and Saturday, as the department offers to vaccinate local pets against rabies free of charge to the owners.

Today the clinic will be held at The Health Department at 383 Washington Avenue from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Tomorrow the program moves to the Silver Lake section and will be held at 60 Franklin Avenue (across from St. Anthony's Church) from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

On Saturday, the clinic will set up at the Recreation House, by Commissioner Vincent Strumolo's Public Affairs Department.

Last year, 1614 dogs were vaccinated in Belleville, representing a new high.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Received a very welcome visitor the other afternoon when my old friend John H. McHugh, the local plumber, who had just completed a job at a neighbor's house, stopped in to pay a call and "ride" the pants off me with his tart gibes about "Walter Winchell."

To my amazement I learned that Mac, after recovery from a protracted illness had become a nephelist. "That will worry the hell out of him, so I'd better 'clue' him that a nephelist is a teetotaler, a guy who doesn't drink. Such a strange role for big John. A far cry from the old days, but, fortunately it is best for his health and we want good fellas like McHugh around for a long, long time. Stay on the water-wagon John and leave the beer drinking to us.

This is not intended as "back-slapping." In fact, the only time I get to see or talk to Frank A. Orschilo, the Publisher, is when he gets in or out of a car by the Nutley Travel Service and I happen to be going past with the bus. Even then we only exchange a few words. These chance meetings seldom take place, so there is very little communication between us.

I should be derelict, however, were I to ignore his courageous editorial "The Watergate Stench" appearing

Charter Granted

Large Crowd Welcomes Back A Revitalized Jaycee Chapter

An enthusiastic turnout of more than 200 persons welcomed the new Belleville Jaycees at the Fountain Restaurant last Saturday.

The new chapter, presented with its official United States Jaycee charter by State president Jeff Stanley, also installed five officers and two directors during ceremonies.

After Stanley presented the charter to Joseph Primavera, president of the local group, Mayor Joseph McGreevy officially welcomed the organization's return to town.

It was saddened when the Belleville Jaycees went out of existence in 1971, McGreevy said, "It was an active organization which had accomplished much."

"Now I am happy to welcome back the Jaycees to Belleville," he continued. "There are many things that can be done in the community and I'd like to see the Jaycees take an active part."

Mayor McGreevy also noted that the time turnout demonstrated that the citizens of Belleville are also pleased to see the Jaycees return. Primavera also acknowledged the crowd when he accepted the charter.

"I am happy to accept this charter with many residents of Belleville present," Primavera stated. "The Jaycees intend to do a great deal for our community, so therefore it is you who will benefit."

Primavera was installed as president of the new Jaycees by Jack Sullivan, a district vice president. The new officer then installed his fellow board members.

Accepting the duties of office were Sam Guiffrida, 31, internal vice president, Joseph

Doyle, 31, external vice president; John Ames, 26, secretary; Michael Monetti, 28, treasurer; and directors

Games at Library

Mrs. Katherine Tilley, Children's Librarian at the Belleville Public Library, recently announced the purchase of a variety of games for the enjoyment of children of all ages. Available for use in the library are the following: Checkers, chess, scrabble, ad-lib and Chinese checkers. Parents are invited to join their children in playing these games.

Leaders in Art World

To Attend Baskin Exhibit

Several well-known figures in the art world will speak at the Montclair Art Museum on Wednesday evening, May 9, at a members program on the Leonard Baskin exhibit.

David Shirey, an art critic for the New York Times, and Sylvan Cole, director of Associated American Artists, will hold a dialogue with Fred Ferretti, a reporter for the Times and a Baskin collector.

Educational Advisory Group Will Meet With Schoolers

The Belleville Educational Advisory Council has had two meetings at Belleville High School, and has a planned conference with the Belleville Board of Education in May. Ernest Arvidson, newly elected President of the Advisory Council and Board of Education members, Matthew Pica and James Risoli commended the members and friends who had done such an "outstanding, money-saving" job in repairing the folding gymnasium doors at the High School.

It was reported that the new dust collectors for the wood-working shops have been installed.

He Loses Tangle With Cop

Thomas Bolton, 38 Washington Avenue was fined $250 and given a ten day suspended sentence April 11 by Judge Edward Abramson for three related counts involving the assault of Belleville police officer Anthony LaVista.

Bolton was also placed on one year probation for raising his fist, blocking the officer's path, and threatening to "punch you (LaVista) in the nose." The defendant was also charged with possession of a dangerous weapon (a kitchen knife) and charged with throwing it at the officer.

False Alarm Costs Fifty

Grantland Rice, 30, of 61 Glenwood Avenue, East Orange was fined $50 April 18 in Belleville Municipal Court for setting off a false fire alarm at the corner of Washington and Carvers Avenues.

Rice pleaded guilty before Judge Edward Abramson to the charge filed by deputy fire chief Joseph Santiglia on April 6.

Newly elected Officers for 1973-74 are Ernest Arvidson, president; Patrick Barbone, vice-president and Mrs. Luella Gasiewicz, secretary.

in 1958 and has held several positions in the section including Sales Manager. In his new position, he is responsible for the Company's cathodic protection and corrosion engineering operations.

Pollitt has been active in the Jaycees and is now Council President in the Borough of Fanwood. He is married to the former Marcena O'Brien and they have two children, Norman and Marcy.

Plea Gets Five Days

Emilio Matos, Carmona, 20, 33 Broad Street, Newark was sentenced to five days he had already spent in Belleville's jail after pleading guilty April 18 in Municipal Court to an attempted larceny charge.

Judge Edward Abramson sentenced the defendant when he waived his right to counsel and entered the guilty plea. He was arrested April 13 by officer Patrick McCabe, and remained in police custody after failing to make $500 bail.

Phoney Slip Costs $250

Fiola Lone, 43 Terrace Place, Kearny pleaded guilty April 19 in Belleville Municipal Court to a charge of possessing a false prescription, and was fined $250 by Judge Edward J. Abramson. The 25-year-old was arrested March 16 by Detective Cornelius Berrigan.

Mobile Education

AT BELLEVILLE HIGH recently, a van called the Careers in Health Mobile Unit was visited by nearly 500 students in one day, as they toured the van which showed equipment, displays and pictures depicting more than 200 careers available in the field of health. Shown here (l-r) are Herman Kuppel, director of Student Personnel Services at the school, Principal Raymond Smith, Director of Physical Education and Health Herman Wishe, Mrs. Peter Amirata, president of the Clara Maass Hospital Guild and Mrs. William Kropp, president of the Clara Maass Auxiliary. The Guild and the Auxiliary co-sponsored the unit's visit.

Convicted for Drugs; Jury to Take Case

A drug possession charge on a 24-year-old Belleville man was referred to the Essex County Grand Jury April 11 by Judge Edward Abramson in Belleville Municipal Court; and one week later on April 18, the same man was convicted of another drug offense stemming from a later arrest.

Rubber Checks

Michael Vizzone, 1 Reservoir Road, Parsippany, was ordered to make $123 restitution and given a six month suspended sentence April 19 in Belleville Municipal Court for issuing a bad check. Judge Edward Abramson also put the defendant on one year's probation. Vizzone was handed over to Belleville police March 23 after being in custody of the Parsippany-Troy Hills police department, and charged with issuing the rubber check by Warren Fairchild of Liquors Inc., 2 Bloomfield Avenue.

On another similar charge, Vizzone was given a two month suspended sentence for passing a bad check to Grants, 345 Franklin Avenue, on March 2. That check was in the amount of $70, and after pleading guilty, Vizzone said he would try to make restitution through his wife's charge account at that store.

"OUR MENTAL HOSPITALS ARE A PUBLIC OUTRAGE"

by Ann Klein

Governor Has Failed To Get Federal Money

One of the less publicized outrages in New Jersey is our state mental health hospitals. Both our attitude and their actual condition are more in tune with 19th century thinking than present-day understanding or treatment techniques. For one thing, the facilities themselves are hidden away from population centers, as if by not seeing them we don't have to accept responsibility for what goes on. The hospitals are immense, old, overcrowded. Many patients have to live in airless, windowless corridors. There is absolutely no place for patients to keep personal belongings or create any sense of personal association with a room, a niche, a corner.

Takes A Month For An Interview

In Morris County I know that except for emergencies, it takes a month or more just to get interviewed. There are no day care or residential facilities for children or adults in the county. There is no low-cost psychotherapy to provide counseling for low or medium income families.

Money, of course, is always the key to good hospital care — mental or physical. The state of New Jersey has consistently failed to raise enough money to take adequate care of our mental patients. For five-and-a-half years we haven't even had a Director of Mental Health (The Department of Institutions and Agencies, the body responsible for appointing one, claims it hasn't been able to find a qualified person. With a low salary, little power or influence at the departmental or institutional level, it is little wonder qualified people have not been flocking to apply.)

Would Establish Community Centers

If I were Governor I would work to do away with these monstrous, ineffective, expensive, prison-like institutions and replace them with small, community-based mental health centers. I would work to build up a strong volunteer corps they could take much of the burden off the professionals and free them for the actual treatment they are trained to provide. I would work for out-patient care whenever possible, relieving the state of the expense of housing and feeding and providing, in many cases, a more effective atmosphere for rehabilitation. (California has cut its state hospital population from 37,000 to 7,000 and has shut down 5 of its 10 mental hospitals by stepping up out-patient treatment at community mental health centers.)

I would, in short, work to bring our state hospitals into the 20th century.

That is just one of the reasons I ask you to vote for me on Primary Day, June 5. Because of my background as a social worker, a mother, a person involved in community affairs, I bring a new understanding to the needs of New Jersey's people — all the people — not just the fortunate few who have the money and the connections to get the attention of their government officials.

(Continued from Page 1) $46,128 in taxable wealth behind each student, compared with $51,628 in neighboring Nutley and only $19,994 in Newark. Per pupil costs (including transportation) in that year were set at $871.19.

Several questions lie ahead before another system of funding is drawn up to replace property taxes. Besides the fact that the system remains to be chosen (with Governor Cahill's income tax plan vetoed last year), there are problems with disbursement of school funds under a new system.

Schwartz projects the state may act as a collection agency for whatever tax program is devised, and dole out funds to districts on a per pupil basis. He adds, "I don't want to see consolidation of school districts and I don't want to see forced busing. I want to maintain local control and prevent the breaking down of district lines and absolute state control over education. I'd like to see more cooperation between districts, but I don't want regionalism."

Although Rogers has no documentation and has not produced any witnesses to back up his allegations that he was offered "deals" for support by two different Board members in return for vote commitments, he said the possibility of libel suits has not deterred him from writing to the prosecutor.

However, he did say he will request this week a meeting with the Board of Education at which he will state he will reveal the names of the two Board members in question only if he receives assurances from the Board "that I and all people concerned be granted immunity from being held for libel, slander or any other type of action I might make myself or others subjected to."

Jacees Return In New Chapter

The ceremonies were concluded with a welcoming speech by Congressional Representative Joseph Minish (D-11), who included some remarks on critical issues facing the country.

"This is the first affair by this new group, the Belleville Jaycees, and it was a huge success," stated John Iannuzzi, banquet chairman. "I think we have a good idea of the kind of turnout to expect next year. The banquet and the Jaycees were received extremely well." Along with contributing his time Iannuzzi donated the colorful flowers on each table, courtesy: Flowerama.

Among those introduced by Pomaco, who served as master of ceremonies were: Belleville commissioners Mike Marotti, Bob Laterza and Mary Senatorio; Board of Education members Caesar Romano and Matthew Pica; Essex County Freeholder Joseph Iannuzzi; and New Jersey State Senator Ralph De Rose. The Belleville Kiwanis was represented by its president Vincent Vitty.

Capping the weekend, the Jaycees played a heavy role in the 12th annual Cherry Blossom Parade. Vice president Doyle was the parade's general chairman and grand marshal. The chapter entered a float of future cherry blossom princesses; and the hit of the parade "Big Bird" was played by a Jaycee, Ted Zuck.

Altogether it was a pretty busy weekend for the new group in town.

Republican Problems

President Richard M. Nixon's attempt to purge himself and the Republican Party of the "Watergate, et al." messes did not succeed.

His insistence upon assigning a team member to conduct the on-going investigations and prosecutions has been interpreted by many as a continuing effort to control the end results — a cover up.

Nothing short of appointing a prosecutor free of White House influence will satisfy the American public, including a large segment of Republican Party members.

Our recommendation for Watergate Special Prosecutor is Federal Judge Fred Lacey. The Fred Lacey-Herb Stern team has been responsible for more Federal convictions of corrupt politicians than any other Federal prosecutors in the history of New Jersey, convicting prominent members of both major parties without fear or favor.

Judge Lacey plans to leave the Federal bench June 1st. Why not recruit him now to serve the nation's highest priority item, integrity at the White House.

U. S. Attorney Stern is too valuable cleaning up New Jersey corruption to let him take over the Watergate probe.

Only a Lacey or a Stern conducting the Watergate prosecution will restore public confidence in the Presidency.

New Jersey has a Republican problem too. Governor William Cahill's Republican administration has been under fire with charges of corruption and cover ups — the identical ills that affect President Nixon's Administration.

Cahill is a candidate for re-election. He is under attack from Democrats and a Republican challenger. His former Secretary of State has been convicted of wrongful conduct. His former State Treasurer has taken the Fifth Amendment. Two fund raisers already have been indicted as a result of a state investigation. All kinds of accusations appear in the public press concerning irregularities in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Bureau. Leases entered into by State agencies are being questioned. Deposits of State funds on a favor-for-favor basis is a major accusation.

Cahill's candidacy suffers from a credibility gap. The Governor's personal integrity has not been questioned — but the integrity of his administration has been subject to brutal attack.

Cahill is under heavy obligation to demand that everyone connected with his 1969 Campaign fund-raising efforts step up and tell the truth — the whole truth.

Cahill should consider the appointment of a Special Prosecutor to investigate suggestions that his Attorney General has not vigorously pursued prosecution of alleged violations relating to the Cahill 1969 Campaign Fund-raising efforts.

Cahill's action at this point and time in history — given the "Watergate" environment — may make or break his effort to win renomination in June.

Governor Cahill must come thru with more candor than President Nixon "displayed" Monday night to win the confidence of the voting public.

In the final analysis, important as the truth may be, of more significance is — What does the jury believe to be the Truth. An honest Cahill, unable to project that image, is a Cahill campaigning under the greatest handicap known to man.

Flattering Family Problems

Two Orechios have been nominated by major political parties for State office.

Incumbent Assemblyman Carl Orechio has been renominated by the Republican Party as one of two New Jersey Assembly candidates representing the 27th Legislative District.

Nutley Mayor Carmen Orechio has been nominated by the Democrats for the Senate seat in the same 27th Legislative District.

The Mayor is the youngest of the three Orechio brothers. The Assemblyman is the elder.

It is indeed flattering for a family, (all members living in the same community), to have two of its members honored by being the recipients of major party legislative nominations.

Naturally, the event places great strains upon family ties, friends, and party loyalties.

History records that no Orechio brother ever personally campaigned against another.

At the end of the campaigns that lie ahead, we don't expect history to change.

Assemblyman Orechio has ten years of public record to run on. Mayor Carmen Orechio has served in public office five years.

All they need do is "stick to the record." They will either win or lose election on the public's acceptance or rejection of their individual public records. Merit alone will dictate the final result.

God bless them both.

McGreevy Defends Budget Against Joe Messina Blast

By Peter M. Clark

One Year Ago

According to four top officials who accompanied reporters on the tour of the Belleville school, the High School was badly in need of immediate repair. All four agreed that the major problem faced by that institution was over-crowding. Although Belleville High is the newest of all of Belleville's schools, it is also the most crowded, and school officials hinted that many of the problems faced by the school were caused by inadequate planning and cutting corners to avoid cost over run. The school was originally planned to house 1,052 students, maximum, but at the time its enrollment was placed at 1,320.

Belleville defeated the Nutley nine, to register their second win of the baseball season. The 2-1 squeaker opened with two runs in the first inning, and with Nutley being unable to recover. Twice Nutley managed to have two men on base in scoring positions, and both times the Belleville defense rose to the occasion to unseat the Nutley offense.

Belleville's Track team competed in a tri-meet with East Orange and West Orange, and managed to beat the West Orange cindermen 39-31, but lost to East Orange 75-39. Later in the week, the team went on to lose to the Maroon Raider squad, 82-40.

Five Years Ago

Finance Director Joseph McGreevy replied to charges about his 1968 budget by Belleville resident Joseph Messina. McGreevy stated that Messina had used inaccurate figures in his breakdown of the budget, and that Messina was using his accusations to advocate the Council Manager form of government.

Marine Private First Class Charles Higgins, Jr., wrote home to his parents from Vietnam describing the effect of war upon the civilian population, and particularly upon the children. He pleaded with them to send any old children's clothes that they or their neighbors might have. In response to this plea, Belleville townpeople, along with those from surrounding communities, came up with more than 2000 pounds of clothing to send to the children.

Lou Cerami, a freshman at Rutgers College turned the living room of his home into the headquarters for the National Investigation Committee on Unidentified Flying Objects. Cerami became head of the East Coast division of the organization when he wrote to its founder on the West Coast requesting information on the group. Back came the request that Cerami become the head of the East Coast. Cerami said that it was an "innovative idea" of his, but that he was "interested in the possibilities of extraterrestrial beings."

Ten Years Ago

An expansion program, "Push Belleville Ahead," was adopted by the Board of Directors of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce. The group decided to start an "action campaign," to last six weeks, designed to strengthen the effectiveness of the Chamber. The campaign would hopefully raise the number of businesses represented in the Chamber, thus making it more responsive to the public's needs.

A 16 year old paper boy discovered a 73 year old woman lying helpless in the foyer of her apartment. The boy, Bruce Jackson, said that he investigated cries for help coming from the apartment while he was making his daily rounds. The woman was taken to Clara Maass Hospital in critical condition, with internal bleeding.

The Bellboys drew their second win by edging out Garfield 4-3. Highlight of the game came when Richard Luzzi knocked out a three run double with the bases loaded.

Fifteen Years Ago

Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde announced that the recreation department had acquired a Navy Jet Fighter, which would be used on the Belleville playgrounds. The town had been given the plane gratis. Commissioner Hyde also said that the park director had plans to set up the park around the plane, like an airport, with an observation tower and several other auxiliary objects.

Alexander Ross was elected president of the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis Association, at its annual meeting. He had been active in the association for eight years and had succeeded in the organization Flora Loudon, who had died the previous spring. Commissioner Kenneth Smith introduced a resolution at the Board of Commissioners meeting, which protested the passage of an assembly bill, which gave Newark preferential treatment in the field of sewage treatment.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

A newly formed "baby sitter" agency was destroyed by an archaic state law concerning sweatshops and other non-relevant factors. Two Belleville mothers attempted to start the company, and were prepared to offer insurance, health tests, and other responsible ideas toward maintaining a sitter service, but they were turned down when they were unable to meet the state's requirements concerning a $1000 bond, their own building (not a home) and adequate training for the people to be hired.

Belleville's six game winning streak seemed threatened by rival Monmouth as they came to battle. The Bellboys streak was due largely to its pitching staff, which had compiled several no-hit games among them.

A World War II paraplegic victim broke ground for his own home, which was being funded by gifts from generous Belleville residents. The specially constructed building would have to be built so that Richard Dolan, of the Maes, would be able to get around the house in his wheel chair.

College Football

At Oklahoma and Kentucky in recent weeks, and at other colleges across the nation in recent months and years, scandals or irregularities have surfaced involving football eligibility.

One cause is overemphasis on winning. This overemphasis sometimes tempts coaches, recruiters, et al., to bend regulations to enable a good player or players to make a team.

In a recent book, "Meat On The Hoof" a former Texas footballer described how brain coaches are utilized to help athletes pass courses. In some cases the brain coach helps too much, and some actually write papers for players, etc.

All of which brings us again to the question which has perplexed college administrators and thinking citizens for forty years: how can overemphasis on college football be ended?

Grain Shortages Make Supermarket Prices Soar

FROM RANGE TO TABLE: THE RANCHER

The long trail of beef to the dinner table begins on the range. From 20 to 21 months of the cycle is spent there, including nine months of gestation and about a year of weaning and pasture feeding.

A typical ranch in Colorado, with a herd of 1,000 head, represents an investment by its two owners of $1.5 million in land, livestock and equipment. Working seven days a week, with long hours, they had a deficit on their ranching operation in nine of the ten years through the 1971-72 fiscal year. In that year, the last of the ten years, their net profit was $64,127, or $32,063 for each owner, representing slightly better than a 4% return on the total investment of $1.5 million.

In the deficit years, they were able to survive through loans on the real estate as it increased in value and through the addition of a feedlot type of operation for fattening cattle beyond the weight normally achieved on the range.

"It's the biggest poker game you ever got into," one of them says. This year they anticipate a larger profit, but "next year is anybody's guess."

Today, with cattle prices high, these ranchers plan to increase production by investing money to clear more land and getting water to it. In the meanwhile, however, inflation has doubled their production costs over the last 20 years, and real estate taxes are four times higher, on the average. To buy more land for expansion of their herd, they must pay the inflated prices that exist today. A rancher's biggest headaches, though, are shortages of labor and natural hazards that have confronted the trade since time immemorial. A sudden snowstorm, a flash flood, drought, even coyotes, can wipe out profits for the year. And heavy loss can be sustained through sharp fluctuations in prices for beef on the hoof.

FROM RANGE TO TABLE: THE FEEDLOT

Striking advances in efficient, economical methods of preparing beef cattle for the retail market have been developed by feedlots. There were 154,536 such lots operating in 1972 in the 23 principal cattle producing states. This total is down 6% from 1971, due primarily to the financial failure of smaller lots. They simply could not keep up with increasing costs.

Before 1950, most cattle were marketed directly from pasture. Today, 75% of domestic cattle are fattened on scientifically managed grain rations on feedlots, accelerating their growth and improving the quality and flavor of the beef.

After a calf is born, it takes about 12 months of nursing and grazing for it to reach 600 pounds. If it remains in the pasture, the animal will require two to three years to grow to a marketable weight ranging from 1,000 to 1,100 pounds. In a feedlot, the animal reaches that weight in approximately six months. An animal in a feedlot will gain about two and one-half pounds a day; on the range about one half pound a day.

Golden Comments

in the April 5th issue of this publication. Mr. Orechio, proclaiming his proud Republican lineage, none-the-less strikes out strongly against President Nixon's "Executive Privilege" order to his aides, not to testify before the United States Senate Committee, anent the Watergate Affair. He correctly states, "Nixon should do everything in his power to help the U.S. Senate Investigating Committee obtain all the Watergate facts."

In another editorial, over his signature, "An Outrageous Interest Conflict," the Publisher points out, "Already under attack by Republican and Democrat opponents with charges of corrupt practices, this State Republican administration cannot afford the luxury of another scandal which peaks away at its moral standards."

These were bold words and warnings from a man who had strongly supported both the Nixon and Cahill candidacies in their political triumphs.

As if premature, they sounded the tocsin just before the state political walk-in rang with the discordant notes of the severer bit exchanges between State Attorney General George F. Kugler and U.S. Attorney Herbert J. Stern over issues as to how an investigation was touched off by a "disgruntled" state trooper or whether the inquiry was an ongoing probe being carried out by state agencies.

This new "complication" will not help the Cahill cause for reelection. Were Mr. Orechio's editorial comments prophetic?

The questions being raised about Mrs. Norma McCool's continued eligibility as a local school board member resulting from her purchase of a house in another community, at a most unfortunate time when so much stress is being focused upon the moral integrity and propriety of people in public offices of trust.

The law is clear on the point that a school trustee must be a resident of the school district on which they serve as a member. According to the new out of town house the latter part of 1972, the McCools have entertained several Belleville personalities at this location prior to the last town school board election, in fact, one of the candidates was there. Mrs. McCool contends she has been a legal resident-and is with her mother.

Mother's Day

The observance of Mother's Day is a recent one in the United States, beginning only in 1907. Then it was the idea of Miss Anna M. Jarvis, of Philadelphia, that at least once a year sons and daughters should arise to honor their mothers. Miss Jarvis arranged for a special service in one of the Philadelphia churches and suggested white carnations be worn by those attending.

The observance, on the second Sunday in May, has rapidly spread to every part of the United States and the fact that it became custom is a more than characterful years after it had been suggested testifies to the sentiment for such an observance in this country.

In later years, the custom of wearing a white carnation on Mother's Day was changed and those whose mothers were still alive wore red flowers, instead of white. First observed in the United States, Mother's Day has become an international occasion and mothers in every area of the world are now honored each year on Mother's Day.

More than anyone else, the mother who cares for both home and her children is destined to influence the character and future of the country. And often this responsibility is combined with a back-breaking and steady ordeal of sewing, washing, mending, cleaning and teaching. It is to this mother, who dedicates her life to her home, her family and children, that the country owes a debt of gratitude. It is this mother who represents the finest in our civilization.

V-E Day

As time faces along, V-E Day falls further and further into history's background and to those who remember it, emotionally, it's surprising to realize most Americans today have no memory of that memorable Tuesday in May the 8th, in 1945, when the Second World War ended for most of the world.

There is impressive new evidence that many of today's younger generation now wants to learn more about that war, its causes, its settlements to understand today's world and its problems. For World War II, in many ways, made the world we live in today. That explains the rash of new books and magazines, and growing interest in history's greatest conflict.

For Americans, May 8th, 1945, came after a hard winter, like a new lease on life, and the new growth and warmth of springtime almost seemed to visually express the great relief and new hope to servicemen in Europe. The hope was the world could avoid another war of such magnitude. So the world has managed that, but the United States, among the winners, has suffered two costly, long wars in Asia (France and Britain, also winners in 1945, have experienced lesser struggles away from home.)

Poor weather in the Soviet Union, China and India caused all three countries to buy enormous quantities of our wheat and feed grains, including corn and soybeans. The U.S.S.R. alone is buying well over $1 billion worth of grain from the United States and, according to Secretary Butz, is likely to buy as much soybeans and corn in the next marketing year, beginning July 1, as they did in the last corresponding period.

As a result of bad weather, both here and abroad, the price of Number 2 yellow corn (feed corn) in Chicago increased from $1.22 a bushel on January 22, 1972, to $1.57 a bushel on January 22, 1973, a gain of 28.6%.

Another key ingredient in the feed grain supply is soybean meal. On January 22, 1972, the price of soybean meal was $85 a ton. On January 22 of this year the price was $195 a ton, more than doubled. Soybeans continue to be in a critical supply situation. Additionally, a shortage of fish meal, an important ingredient in the protein feed bin, put added pressure on soybeans.

As recently as December 19 of last year, the Department of Agriculture reported that its index of the cost of all feed ingredients had virtually doubled in the year.

IDLE CROPLAND RELEASED

In an effort to relieve feed grain shortages, the government in recent months has authorized the use of 40 million acres of farmland previously idled. But the effects of that move will not be felt until the grain crops are harvested later in the year. Beef cattle earmarked for delivery to the retail market during the first nine months of 1973 will continue to be fed ingredients costing record prices.

A PROGRESSIVE — AND PRECARIOUS — BUSINESS

Thundering herds of cattle pounding the old Chisholm Trail for delivery to packing houses is a romantic scene from the past found today only in movies. Scientific methods and computerized information introduced at every stage of production have increased not only the quantity, but the quality of beef offered to American consumers.

One aspect of the beef industry, though, is unchanged. It is a precarious business, with prices fluctuating sharply because supply and demand are constantly changing. From range, to feedlot, to packing plant, to super market meat counters countless decisions are made, resulting in profits, losses, successes, failures, huge investments and moments of hard work. Factors such as weather, governmental actions and random events, can set off chain reactions that sometimes are calamitous.

Resident Completes Training

Fifty-eight police including John Sinanovsky Jr. of Belleville who have successfully completed an eleven-week training program at the Port Authority Police Academy were graduated recently at ceremonies held at the Staller-Hilton Hotel.

Matthew E. Lukens, Acting Executive Director of the bistate agency, was the principal speaker at the graduation attended by families and friends of the officers.

This is the first class of Port Authority Police Officers who have received special training in airport security procedures required under Federal Aviation Regulation 107.

Statewide Survey Shows

Most Towns Use Revenue Sharing As Tax Relief

Most New Jersey counties and municipalities are using the $144,523,527 they have budgeted to date in revenue sharing funds for the "bread and butter" expenditures such as police salaries, sewers, and road repairs, according to Community Affairs Commissioner Lawrence F. Kramer.

Kramer said the revenue sharing program had the overall effect of reducing the tax increase burden that would have been felt by the taxpayers of this State.

The largest share of the revenue sharing money, some $65 million, was budgeted by the local governments for public safety.

The second most popular budget item for which revenue sharing money is being used was capital expenditures with $28,566,523. Capital expenditures include the building of roads and the construction or reconstruction of public buildings.

The state, county and local governments have been allocated a total of $188,514,424 in revenue sharing funds to expend, within federal priority regulations, in two years. Some 76 percent of this money, or $144,523,527, has been budgeted.

House Taxes Increase With Rental Law?

The 10,000-member New Jersey Association of Realtors' Board of Realtors today warned homeowners in the state that their property taxes will rise if their municipality has a rent control law.

"We urge all homeowners in the state to be particularly vigilant," warned Albert Rubin, president NJARB. "Historically, rent control has transferred the property tax burden from apartment houses to private homes. Homeowners must now become vigorous participants in the government processes at the local level to protect themselves."

Rubin said the surest way to prevent a shift of taxes from apartments to homes would be to reject rent control.

"The taxes on apartment houses are based upon their income," Rubin explained. "They are not based upon the value of their real property. Therefore, if rent control is controlled, the taxes on apartment houses will not rise. Meanwhile, the cost of municipal services will continue to spiral. Homeowners will have to make up the difference."

About 30 municipalities in New Jersey have adopted rent control ordinances. More are expected to pass similar ordinances. Municipalities were empowered to pass rent control laws by a recent State Supreme Court decision.

Postal Facilities Allowed To Issue U.S. Food Stamps

Basic conditions under which postal facilities can sell U.S. stamps have been agreed upon by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the U.S. Postal Service, the department announced today. Contracts for selling food coupons in post offices are established individually between the Postal Service and the state agency which administers the food stamp program.

The agreement defines audit responsibility and other procedural matters and limits Postal Service liability for cash and coupons, and provides for the use of a standard issuance fee by the Postal Service. State agencies have full responsibility for negotiating the contracts.

$99,729,769 of their $119,337,857.

According to John F. Latta Jr., director of the Department's Division of Local Government Services, county governments have not utilized revenue sharing monies as heavily as the local municipalities presumably because the counties plan to use the money for capital purposes at some future date.

The Department of Community Affairs has established a revenue sharing unit to assist local governments in the implementation of the federal revenue sharing program. The unit, to date, has answered more than 1,500 inquiries about the program and has issued many technical, special reports and bulletins.

A breakdown of how local governments have budgeted revenue sharing monies is as follows: $65 million, public health; $11,844,972, public transportation; $5,206,821, recreation; $1,813,918, social services for the poor or aged; $1,444,459, financial administration and $1,149,490, libraries.

removal expenditures and sewers; $14,581,366, public health; $11,844,972, public transportation; $5,206,821, recreation; $1,813,918, social services for the poor or aged; $1,444,459, financial administration and $1,149,490, libraries.

Town Turns Out for Cherry Blossom Fest

IN CONFERENCE — Parade Adjutant Raymond Carnasciole goes over the line of march with John Freda, who headed the contingent from the Scarlet Cadets Color Guard.

REVIEWING STAND — All eyes turn to Washington Avenue as kids and notables watch for the next surprise to come down the street. Among the officials shown here on the reviewing stand are Mayor Joseph McGreevy, Commissioners Bob Laterza, Mike Marotti, Mary Senatore, Board of Education president Lawrence Schwartz, vice president Caesar Romano and member James Risoli, Parade Marshal Joe Doyle, and announcer James Leary.

INTERNATIONAL DISPLAY — Carrying flags of many nations, the Belleville High School Color Guard marched towards the front of the parade, leading contingents from the drill team and High School band.

HOPEFULS — The Jaycee's entry in the stream of floats was entitled "Future Cherry Blossom Queens" and riding atop the flower-strewn float were daughters of members, Gina, Karen and JoAnne Iannuzzi and Christi Anne Fazzari.

FIRST LADY — The Kiwanis float bore this reminder of American feelings to royalty — the only Queen of America.

FROM BOYSTOWN in Kearny came these visitors to Belleville, one of them with a suspiciously unboyish look.

ROYAL FLOAT — Although seven-year-old Donna Ikefogi was unable to preside as Princess, her court still lent much beauty to the Chamber of Commerce float. Shown here are the royalty of the parade, Tricia Bradley, Donna Ralnone, Debbie Reilly and Jeanne Austin. The girls were chosen from various organizations at Belleville High School.

A FRIENDLY MESSAGE — From the Belleville senior citizens came this pleasant proclamation. The float represented the first by senior citizens to be entered in the Cherry Blossom Parade.

Clinic Auxiliary Plans First Anniversary Tea

The S.R. Mountier, Jr. home, 205 Rutgers Place, will be the scene of the First Anniversary Membership Tea of the Auxiliary of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic on Thursday, May 17 from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Invitations have been sent by the Auxiliary Committee to members and other interested women of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley.

Organized in May 1972 at the home of Judge and Mrs. Stanley G. Bedford for the purpose of disseminating information in the three towns about the Clinic and for raising funds for needed Clinic children's services, the Auxiliary has since then developed during its first year. It is planning a fund-raising event, a June fair, which will be held on the grounds of the Essex County geriatrics Center in Belleville.

Projects for which the Auxiliary expects to raise funds include the therapeutic summer camp which was inaugurated in 1972 and provides a happy daytime place for numbers of children who cannot function well in regular camps, and the Special Nursery now in its third full year at the Clinic, one of two such nurseries attached to a clinic in the state.

The May Tea will provide an opportunity for guests to hear about the exciting projects taking place at the Clinic, attend to the business affairs of the Auxiliary, and enjoy the hospitality of the Mountier home as well as to view the spring garden. Interested persons living in Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley are given a cordial invitation to attend the Tea. Further information can be obtained by calling Mrs. S.C. Yorton, liaison between the Clinic and the Auxiliary.

Essex County PTA Council Acts On Prices

The Board of Managers of the Essex County Council of Parent Teacher Associations discussed at length the present situation of rising food costs to the consumer, as well as its effect on children of school age, at its Board of Managers meeting on Tuesday, March 20.

As parents begin to shop conservatively, they will turn to certain basic foods that are necessary for a balanced diet.

It was unanimously agreed that the Essex County Council of PTA's appeal to all our legislators in New Jersey and in Washington through letters, telegrams and personal communications expressing concern for the future of all children who will ultimately be affected by this price squeeze — physically, spiritually and emotionally. It is urgent that a satisfactory economic situation be brought about immediately by legislation.

Mrs. Herbert Tucker, County Council PTA President, Belleville, appointed a committee of concern consisting of Mrs. Samuel Oppenheimer, West Orange; Mrs. William T. McCormick, Past Council President, Millburn; and Mrs. Esther Schwartz, County Corresponding Secretary, Irvington, whose function will be to activate the leaders of every PTA in securing adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth which is the third PTA object.

Letters from the Essex County Council of PTA's are being sent to President Richard M. Nixon, Mrs. Elizabeth Mallory, President of the National Congress PTA and Mrs. Edward McMahon, N.J. Congress PTA president.

FLORIDA VACATION — Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ruglo of 63 Harrison Street are all smiles as they are photographed poolside at the Sahara Resort Motel in Miami Beach during a vacation in the Florida sun capital.

WEEKEND CRUISE — Mr. and Mrs. William Rush of 189 Smallwood Avenue are shown aboard the popular S.S. Bahamas Star on a weekend cruise to Nassau and Freeport from downtown Miami. Saturday was spent in Nassau shopping, sightseeing and nightclubbing. Each day provided everyone an opportunity to relax in the tropical sun enroute to modern Freeport.

Fortune Society This Evening

The Fortune Society of Nutley, a group of ex-convicts who speak on prison reform, will appear tonight at Grace Episcopal Church, Highfield Lane.

Sponsored by the Church Women's Committee of the Ecumenical Council of Nutley, the event will begin at 8 p.m. Donations will be accepted at the door and refreshments will be served.

Mountainside 'Spring Fling' Offers Weekend At Waldorf

The Women's Auxiliary of Mountainside Hospital recently presented a check for $2,335.50 to John C. Imhoff, executive vice president, as partial payment of a second Auxiliary pledge of $50,000 to the hospital's Focus on the Seventies capital campaign. The first, amounting to $87,500, was completely paid last year.

Chances are presently being sold for prizes in conjunction with the Auxiliary's Spring Fling annual benefit bridge luncheon, set for May 10. First prize is a weekend for two at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York, with champagne and a Saks Fifth Avenue merchandise certificate as a bonus. Also included are a Broadway show and dinner at well-known restaurants.

Second prize is a 14-inch color TV, third prize is a 44-karat gold watch from Tiffany & Co. Chances may be obtained from Auxiliaries or the volunteer office at the hospital.

There will also be 50 prizes given out at an on-premise drawing during the luncheon.

At the Auxiliaries' April meeting, Mr. Imhoff reported that the Schuman Pavilion is in the final stages of construction, with the major portion of it to be concluded in June or July. He noted that the laboratory is being renovated at present, necessitating the temporary relocation of laboratory functions to two separate areas on different floors. He also said that the Emergency Department would be relocated temporarily in May to the former Radiology Department quarters.

"Plaster dust" represents change," Mr. Imhoff said. "Ultimately, in order to keep the physical plant current, hospitals should be torn down and rebuilt every ten years. While that is seldom possible, Mountainside certainly has a good head start on the next decade."

Auxiliaries were reminded by Mrs. Otto Kappelmann, Upper Montclair, of the upcoming "Trash and Treasures" sale scheduled for May 18 in the Recreation Room of the Mountainside School of Nursing. Geraniums and good, used articles will be sold.

The movie "Doctor Teacher - Friend," the story of Project Hope, was shown at the meetings and Auxiliaries arranged for it to be viewed at Montclair High School, Montclair Academy, Glen Ridge High School, James Caldwell High School and the West Orange schools as well. The movie explains the work of the hospital ship and Project Hope's work with American Indians in Arizona. The Project, both the ship and the land-based programs, covers many areas of the world, bringing modern medical care and knowledge in a people-to-people health care program.

Commission on Women Meets Today in Trenton

The New Jersey State Commission on Women will hold its next regular meeting today, at 10 a.m. in the conference room of the Department of Community Affairs building in Trenton.

European Vacation For Miss O'Neill

Miss Lynn Barbara O'Neill of 33 Division Avenue, Belleville flew to Europe for a midsemester spring vacation spree with nearly 150 other Katharine Gibbs students.

Miss O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph O'Neill, is a student at Katharine Gibbs in Montclair.

The Essex County Legal Secretaries Association will have a demonstration presented to them by the Xerox Corporation on Thursday, May 10 at their regular monthly meeting at the Social Agencies Building, South Fullerton Avenue, Montclair, N.J. at 7:30 p.m. All legal secretaries are invited to attend.

This polyethylene film allows oxygen and carbon dioxide to pass in and out, but not water vapor.

Foliage plants can live in these bags without watering for several weeks, or even months.

If you like the idea and want to try it, here's what to do:

Water your plants a day or two before you put them in the bags. If the soil gets too wet the roots will rot.

Remove all dead leaves and flowers before putting the plants in the bags.

Xerox Will Demonstrate To Legal Secretaries

The Essex County Legal Secretaries Association will have a demonstration presented to them by the Xerox Corporation on Thursday, May 10 at their regular monthly meeting at the Social Agencies Building, South Fullerton Avenue, Montclair, N.J. at 7:30 p.m. All legal secretaries are invited to attend.

The Saturday morning schedule has been arranged so that everyone has an opportunity to see the winning play of the State Little Theater Drama Tournament, as well as attend Presidents, Membership and Program Workshops and Art and American Home Exhibits.

In "The Gazette" luncheon, scrapbook, pressbook and individual award winners will be announced. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Donald T. Bixby, president of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs.

The highlights of the Convention, the Saturday evening banquet, entitled "A Moonlit Garden" will feature awards for outstanding achievements by the clubs in all departments. The twelve most successful clubs in the state, called the "Diamond Dozen," which included Belleville last year, are also announced during the banquet. The Chairman of Nominations, Mrs. Ronald White, will announce the results of the election and the Junior Chairman will install the new Junior State Board. A reception for all Juniors will follow.

Mrs. Thomas Spillane and Mrs. Felix Forlenza, both members of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville, will serve as pages at the Convention.

You dial local calls yourself, right?
So why not long distance calls?
It's just as easy.
And dialing saves you money.

You always save when you dial direct, without the services of an operator. Because the rates are always lower than for calls which require an operator, such as credit card, collect, third number billed, person-to-person, and coin-phone calls to other states.

It makes sense, then, to dial all your calls direct. On calls to other states from your home or business phone, simply dial the three-digit area code for the place you're calling, then dial the phone number. If you don't know the area code, you'll find help in the front pages of your phone book.

Don't know the phone number? You can get it at no extra charge from Directory Assistance in the place you're calling just dial the area code plus 555-1212. Then just the number down for future use.

What if you should reach a wrong number? No Problem. Hang up, dia, the operator and tell us about the mistake. We'll make sure the call isn't on your phone bill.

New Jersey Bell

*Direct dialing rates also apply to all calls made from areas where direct dialing facilities are not available.

Little League Slates Opener

The Belleville Little League will open their 1973 baseball season Saturday, May 5, at noon, at the Michael V. Marotti Little League Field on Montgomery Place.

All 16 teams will march into the Little League Field along with the High School band.

Invited guests will include Congressman Joseph Minish, the mayor and all town commissioners, members of the Board of Education, Anthony Greco, School Superintendent; Raymond Smith, Belleville High Principal; Seymour Grossman, Junior High School Principal; Herman Wische, athletic director, Robert Cook Superintendent of Recreation, and Warren Ceres Asst. Superintendent of Recreation.

There will be four games on Saturday, the first game starting at 1 p.m. On Sunday, there will be two games, one game every night at 6:30 p.m. except Friday. On Friday two games will be played, the first game starting at 6 p.m., the second at 8 p.m.

Tracksters at 1-8

Hope East Side Meet Will End Loss Streak

The Belleville track and field team extended their losing streak to eight over the past week as they were defeated by Nutley, 60-12, on Friday and by Bloomfield Monday, 85-37.

The Bellboys expect to snap the bad luck streak today when they travel to Newark to meet East Side High School, a team reported to be unimpressive. Saturday they will compete in the Big Ten meet.

Against Nutley, the Bellboys did not look good, combined with the bad weather conditions which inhibited competition. The meet was contested in the rain and with this factor in mind, six events were postponed. Of the eight remaining events, the Maroon Raiders copped all first places.

The high hurdles had Robert Sanders and Ken Drake tying for third place with only Sanders able to place third again in the low hurdles. Tom Sanders was the only finisher in the 100 and

NO SUCCESS is gained by pole vaulter Glen Mogelesky in one of his early attempts during the meet with Bloomfield. The pole vaulting squad is in a rebuilding stage as virtually all veterans were lost to last June's graduation.

DISCUS HURLER John Fagioli prepares to let go during the field events Monday.

HALE-MILER Steve Budrick crosses the finish line in Monday's race.

220 FINISH finds Greg Ottalagano straining in vain in a final effort to take first place, which is well-secured by a Bloomfield rival.

Stalemate Occurs On Passaic Saturday Against Columbia

by Tony Calabrese

In a make-up of a game rained out last Friday afternoon, the Belleville varsity baseball team battled a scrappy Columbia team to a 13-inning scoreless tie last Friday afternoon, at the Cougars home park in Maplewood.

The tie left Belleville's overall record at 5-1-1 on the season, while the team now stands at 5-1-1 in the Big Ten Conference race, as one of the outstanding teams for the Big Ten Conference crown. The tie game will not be played over, and goes into the Big Ten standings as one point credited to Belleville, giving the team 11 conference points on the year.

By the way to all interested Bellboy fans, last Saturday's opening home game doubleheader against West Essex which was rained out, will most probably be made up on Saturday morning May 19, at 10:30 a.m., however there will be more on that possibility in the upcoming Times issues.

Monday's game was a four-hour contest which was totally dominated by the pitchers. For Belleville the hurting came through the efforts of ace right-hander Rich Centanni who pitched the first ten

JV Diamonddeers Conquer Orange

by Pat Caputo

The Belleville junior varsity diamond squad traveled to Orange on April 17, and came home with their forty win in five games.

Jim Risoli, Dave Ricca, and Jim Zaccone shared the pitching duties and held Orange to only two runs on three hits. Risoli pitched the first three innings while Ricca and Zaccone allowed one run apiece picking up the win and the save respectively.

Offensively, the Belleville Jayvees were sparked by Vic Pasquariello's perfect 4-4 afternoon which included a solo homer to lead off the third, a double and two singles. He drove in three runs and scored three more. Steve Gerard also had a fine day, going 3-4 with 2 doubles and a single, two RBIs, and scoring another run. However, showing that slugging isn't the only key, the junior Bellboys successfully hunted in the second inning to bring in two more runs. Mike McTigue and Risoli squeezed home Anthony Nicosia and Vin DeNotaris after the latter pair had both singled. The hapless Orange squad helped the Belleville Jayvees with five errors as the final score read 10-2.

At Montclair on April 19, the Belleville Jayvees bats were silenced by the three-1 pitching of Montclair's Sheehan. It was the junior Bellboys second defeat in six games. Although the score was 7-0, it was not so one-sided until the final two innings. The Belleville Jayvees squad left four men on base in

Petreans, Anthony's Split Two

Last week, the St. Peter's Grammar School baseball team picked up their first victory in three starts when they stunned SL Anthony's of Belleville by a score of 8-5.

The week before the Petreans suffered a 13-3 trouncing at the hands of St. Anthony.

In the first inning of last week's contest, St. Peter's sent 12 men to the plate and scored six runs. Anthony Montalbano initiated the drive with a single and Jimmy Clenaghan beat out an infield hit. Hugh Mallick drove in Montalbano and Phil Valente scored Clenaghan. Four successive walks by the St. Anthony's pitcher raised the score to 4-0, and Montalbano took the bat again to score two more runs with a single.

In the second inning, Clenaghan walked and stole second and third. Phil Valente brought him home with a sacrifice fly.

In the bottom of the inning, St. Anthony's loaded the bases to chase Clenaghan, who was replaced by Mallick. After a run was walked in, attempted pickoffs turned into errors and the score turned to 7-4.

In the top of the fourth the Petreans struck again, with Andy McManus and Valente

Oarsmen Are Psyched To Meet the Maroon

In a four-way race Friday on the Hudson River, Belleville oarsmen topped rival crews from Nutley, Arlington, N.Y., and Poughkeepsie, N.Y., finishing over a four-second margin over the closest competition.

Coach Sam Giuffrida reported his rowers grabbed the lead from the start and never surrendered it to their foes, all highly-rated teams. The Bellboys turned in a time of 4:35 on what Giuffrida described as "fast water," with Arlington and Poughkeepsie following by another second.

Off of the big surprises of the race was Nutley's showing of 4:50. Belleville will meet Nutley this Saturday on the Nutley coach Ray Chapman said this week his rowers were "outsized" by the competition at Poughkeepsie.

Giuffrida concurred that Arlington and Poughkeepsie both carry bigger teams than the Bellboys, but said the race went exactly according to Blue and Gold strategy. "Our plan was simply to get out ahead from the start and row our own race, which is what we've done all year."

The formula has brought Giuffrida considerable success so far this season, as his rowers have posted a record of eight wins, no losses and one tie against Roosevelt High School.

This coming week will also see another confrontation with a rival from last Friday's meeting when the Bellboys host Arlington and Atlantic City High School Tuesday at 3 p.m. While little threat is expected from Atlantic City, Giuffrida said Arlington will probably be tough. "We were in the water a lot sooner than Arlington this year, since the Hudson is rougher than the Passaic, so we're farther

Accepted at Nebraska

Belleville's Stan Waldemore Is High School All-American

Stan Waldemore of 42 Parkside Drive, star lineman for the Essex Catholic Eagles, was selected by two national magazines as a "1972 All-American" football player.

Stan, a six-foot, four-inch, 235-pound offensive and defensive tackle with the Eagles, has entertained offers of athletic scholarships from over 20 colleges, and recently selected the prestigious University of Nebraska, because, he said, "the coaching staff there seemed the warmest. They take football more as fun than as a business."

Both "Scholastic Coach" and "Coach and Athlete" named the Essex senior from grid players across the country, with "Scholastic Coach" picking 20 linemen and "Coach and Athlete" a full contingent of 100 players.

An outstanding straight-A student, Stan is ranked 49th in a class of 415 at Essex, and says he's never had any conflicts between his studies and his athletic endeavors, although the two taken together have often proven to be extremely time-consuming.

He hasn't selected a major for college yet, but leans towards psychology.

Stan began his football career with the Belleville Recreation League, which provided him an excellent grounding in the fundamentals of the game. He went on to play three years at Essex Catholic, under coach Bob Taglieri, who Stan described as "a great coach." Taglieri, he said, "started writing to schools for me in junior year. He told me not to visit a lot of schools, and I only went to five. Coach Taglieri didn't tell me which one I should pick, but he was an awful big help to me."

Passaic for the annual dual race between the housewife rivals, but Giuffrida says he won't be lulled into complacency by the results of Friday's meeting with Nutley.

"We were very surprised by Nutley's showing," he said. "We thought Nutley was the team to beat, and we still do. I'm not sure what happened to them on Friday, but I believe something went wrong with their race. We can't use that as a basis for comparison. Next Saturday's race will be at home, it will be a dual race and they'll be thinking only of beating us. Besides, they'll be more emotionally involved, since there is that cross-town rivalry between the schools."

Nutley coach Ray Chapman said this week his rowers were "outsized" by the competition at Poughkeepsie.

Giuffrida concurred that Arlington and Poughkeepsie both carry bigger teams than the Bellboys, but said the race went exactly according to Blue and Gold strategy. "Our plan was simply to get out ahead from the start and row our own race, which is what we've done all year."

The formula has brought Giuffrida considerable success so far this season, as his rowers have posted a record of eight wins, no losses and one tie against Roosevelt High School.

This coming week will also see another confrontation with a rival from last Friday's meeting when the Bellboys host Arlington and Atlantic City High School Tuesday at 3 p.m. While little threat is expected from Atlantic City, Giuffrida said Arlington will probably be tough. "We were in the water a lot sooner than Arlington this year, since the Hudson is rougher than the Passaic, so we're farther along than they are, but being big, once they get their technique down, they won't be easy to beat."

Giuffrida added Saturday's race will probably be the first time veteran senior rowers Craig Davis and Alan DeMasi will both be rowing together. Throughout the season, both have suffered recurring back injuries.

The coach emphasized "when we race Nutley, it's not just the varsity. We have a total team effort involved. Last Saturday, although we won the varsity race, they won three others, beating our B-boys by 15 seconds. Our freshman only lost to them by a half-second." One of the problems of the jayvee levels said Giuffrida, is the absence due to illness of Joe Vazquez, stroke.

The Nutley-Belleville races are due to begin between 11:30 a.m. and noon on Saturday.

"I know that both to Nutley and us, this race can make or break a season," said Giuffrida. "It's good competition and always has been." Last year the Bellboys, defeated Nutley in the annual meet.

The local team is undefeated in home dual races for the past three years. On May 12, the oarsmen will travel to New York for the Poughkeepsie Regatta, involving about 15 schools, many of which the Bellboys have met earlier in the season, including Roosevelt High School from Hyde Park.

The second and final meeting of the regular season, the Bloomfield Bengals presented the Bellboys with another loss, a 7-1 score.

Despite the fact Armand Sasso, the leftie who brought about the Bellboys' only other downfall this season, was not on the mound Tuesday, the Blue and Gold were unable to equal the Bengal batpower.

The loss occurred in the opening game played on Belleville High's new diamond and the first ball to clear the fence at the field came from a Bengal hitter, who drove in two runs to break open the game.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 p.m. the Bellboys host Irvington Campers, a team in contention for last year's Big Ten crown, but playing a little below .500 ball this spring.

Tuesday, the Blue and Gold meet Nutley, also at home, when the Bellboys will attempt to repeat the shutout they worked on The Maroon last time around this season.

Against Bloomfield, the hometowners held a 2-0 lead until the third inning, as Phil Guzzi scored Joe Ross on a sacrifice fly and Mark Cervasio's suicide squeeze bunt brought in Joe Cancelliere.

In the top of the fourth, Bloomfield tied it up with a double and a single, then pulled ahead when Barry Shier blasted a two-run homer over the right centerfield fence.

The Bengals picked up three insurance runs in the sixth inning with three singles and two stolen bases.

HIGH SCHOOL ALL-AMERICAN Stan Waldemore is shown here with some of his many awards and trophies. The Essex senior has been tapped by the University of Nebraska to play college ball next year.

Sweet sixteen on May 8 will be Miss Nancy Verian, daughter of Patricia and Frank...the Verians have three other children, Pat, Suzanne and Chipper.

COMMISSIONER Michael Marotti invited me to the opening day of Little League - this Saturday at noon. Why doncha' all come? I asked him if I could throw out the first ball...he just smiled.

Here's a happy note - on April 28, Harry and Idga Murphy celebrated 28 years of marriage...congrats.

Received word that Evelyn and Steve H. Frank of New Street, who are affiliated with entertainers and musical groups in this area, flew down to New Orleans for a three day weekend to listen to their favorite Dixieland bands. Among the old jazz musicians they saw was Albert French, banjoist and original member of the Tuxedo Jazz Band, which he still leads at the Fairmont Court - in the Roosevelt Hotel. Also, in the Blue Room, playing for the diners and the Frankie Avalon Show, was Dick Stabile and orchestra...he is formerly from Newark.

RUTH AND LOU Long racked up 37 years of marriage on April 25. The couple has three married children - Lou Long Jr. and his wife Gay of East Brunswick with their four children - Robin, Tracey, Lou Jr. and Kyle. Harry E. Long and his wife Mary Lou of Bayville have three children Loretta Kim, Harry Jr. and Lisa. Ruth Ann (Long) Gray and her husband Gary, of Wyckoff are expecting in October. They are the proud owners of Riese Ziraff - a thoroughbred Arabian horse. Ruth Ann has only been riding a year and already has won many ribbons with her show horse. And, Lou Long adds as a P.S. "don't forget moonlight bowling on May 26 at 10 p.m....$10 per couple." You can see what a conscientious worker Lou is as evening desk manager at Olympic Bowl.

Understand teenagers at Montgomery Church, 638 Mill Street, have a get together most Saturday evenings. The project is called "Berachah Coffee House" and is held from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. and, in addition to providing a social meeting, the youngsters spread the Gospel and invite all to attend, there is no age limit. Understand there are very young children as well as adults. There is no charge or admission, but a free-will offering is taken. Entertainment is provided by "Jesus rock" groups and the "Burning bush" of Fair Lawn and the "White Throne Judgement" of Elizabeth are the two main groups. For information, or to make sure a coffee house will be held on any particular Saturday evening, please call Donna Gasiewicz, coordinator at 759-7632.

I LOVE A PARADE
We had a lovely parade again this past Sunday. It did start off differently for two reasons: (1) Mary McNish was not riding the motorcycle (he was promoted to Sergeant in the Police Department) and, (2) as Commissioner Marotti remarked: "It's right on time."

I SAID, "Yes, in fact (if you look at the Town Hall clock) it is even an hour early!" (They didn't turn their clock back.) Some of the folks I saw along the Avenue were Ed Quist and his family, Greg MacDonald (congratulations - he and his wife had twins), Izzy Padula, Marie Ragnone, Agnes Bradley, Glenn Menzies, Policemen Ray McDonald and Vin Cosentino as well as many, many CD policemen. Also met Frank Magnotti of Belleville's Recreation Department, who is in charge of setting up the speaker system at each parade.

We had two firsts in the parade this year - the CD Police had a marching color guard, and the senior citizens had a float. Joe Doyle was the Grand Marshall and Commissioners Marotti, Laterra and Mayor Senatore with Mayor McGreevy and three Board of Education members: Larry Schwartz, Caesar Romano and James Risoli were the first arrivals to the Parade Grandstand.

Here I go again! WHY don't people salute Old Glory as she goes down the Avenue? According to my Flag Etiquette guide, when the Flag is passing - a parade or in a review... "All persons should face the Flag, stand at attention and salute. Those in uniform render the military salute, others remove hats and place right hand over heart." Darn it! Are we ashamed of our Flag? Next parade (I plead again) SALUTE your country.

SAW DAVID HAIGHT marching with the Robert Trent Council Boy Scouts and I viewed Irene Decker and Bernie Tinsdale. When the Boy Scouts marched by, one young ladie dropped a sabre. According to tradition, the young lady could not pick it up, she had to keep marching. Luckily, Joanne Scervidto was sitting nearby and she ran up, retrieved the sabre and gave it to the marcher. Nice going, Joanne. Mrs. Edna Verhagen, naturally, was at the head of the long line of Girl Scouts.

I think The Kiwanis Club of Belleville had an outstanding float. It was the Statue of Liberty and the title was: "First Queen of America." The Kiwanians in the parade were Sy Grossman, Armand Russo, Phil Marra and Vince Vitry. Drying the float were Sam Pearl and Don Tued.

THE LITTLE LEAGUE was represented by all 16 teams, sponsors were Rotary Club, Wallace & Tiernan, Riefolo Construction, Biancardi Association, Belleville Varsity Club, B.P.O.E., Mills Photo, Jolly Cleaners, FMBA Local 29, Italian American Civic Association, Landolfi Funeral Home, N.J. State PBA Local 28, Kiwanis Amvets and Lions.

I saw George Kuipp driving the car for Belleville's Amateur Radio Club and another first entry - the Jaycees had a float with "Future Cherry Blossom Queens." Vic Fazzari of Vic's Cigo and John Iannuzzi of Flowerama were driving and the future queens were their daughters - Gina, Karen and JoAnne Iannuzzi and Christi Anne Fazzari. The proud moms, Addie Iannuzzi and Toni Fazzari were busy snapping pics. When this float stopped before the grandstand, a few dozen balloons were let loose...quite effective. The Sabre Cadets came by with members of American Legion Post 105 - Harry Murphy, Frank Kovacs, Commander Frank Kiernan and Ray Wellen. Marching with the Sabres were Carol Nendze, Barbara Welter and Anna Spira.

Thanks are in order for the men responsible for the parade - Parade Adjutant - Raymond Carriascio, Parade Coordinator - Pat DeAngelis, Veterans Council Chairman - Bill Lenihan, vice chairman - Pat Wynn and, of course, announcer James Leary.

OBITUARIES

William Klein, 74 James Doyle; Ireland-Born

A funeral Mass was held April 30 at St. Peter's Church for William Klein, 51 Malone Avenue, who died April 25 at the East Orange Veteran's Hospital. He was 74.

NOMADS — Mrs. Diana Hatch and son, Jonathan, age 5 of Livingston look out of their 1955 Chevy Nomad. They are members of the Mid-Atlantic Nomad Association. All members are owners of a rare 1955, 1956 or 1957 Nomad. Members from five states will meet on Sunday, May 6 at Turtle Back Zoo. Their interesting automobiles will be on display for the general public.

Turtle Back Zoo Plans Continuing Guided Tours

Turtle Back Zoo has announced that its popular tours will continue as in the past years at the same low cost. Every year nearly 100,000 people in school, church and recreational groups take the informative tour.

Mrs. Reed, supervisor of the tours, will have experienced guides at various locations throughout the zoo. They will spend time with each group, informing them of the exhibits and answering any questions that might arise. The tours are designed for all age groups and include pre-kindergarten to Senior Citizen groups.

Turtle Back Zoo now has over 850 animals of over 275 different species.

The zoo is located at 560 Northfield Avenue in West Orange, New Jersey and is situated right behind the South Mountain Arena.

Tours may be planned for groups of up to 150 by calling Mrs. Reed two weeks in advance. Special rates are available to groups that make this reservation. The rates are 15 cents per person with these early reservations.

Groups can also call for a package tour which includes the entrance fee to the zoo, a train ride, food to feed the animals, a souvenir worth 50 cents, and a lunch consisting of a hamburger, milk or fruit drink, and an ice cream for $1.75.

The zoo opens at 10 a.m. on weekdays and Saturday and 11 a.m. on Sundays and holidays.

Information and an instructional package are available to group leaders. The packet cost $100 and contains a booklet describing the zoo and the animals, and booklets for each person in the group. These can be obtained by writing:

Turtle Back Zoo is a recreational, educational and conservation center and is designed to give its visitors a pleasurable, entertaining, clean and safe experience.

Husband and Wife Team To Exhibit Photography
Photographs by Edith and Robert Worth go on exhibition at the Montclair Art Museum, Montclair, from May 6 through June 24. This noted husband and wife team often exhibits together and works on shared assignments, but essentially they are individual photographers.

'Promises, Promises' Play at Paper Mill

There are two ways to get to the top. Paper Mill Playhouse does it continually by offering top Broadway entertainment like "Promises, Promises". The other way is to lend your apartment key to pillow packing executives in your company, just as Chuck Baxter does in their Neil Simon, Burt Bacharach musical. The result is tenebrous hilarity, scheduled to run at The State Theatre in Millburn through June 3.

Bill Hinnant is "Chuck" in this smartly and originally styled version of the three-year Broadway hit. As low man on the corporate totem pole, Chuck soon learns that an available-bedroom means more to the boss than hours of donated overtime. Hinnant brings the appealing qualities of "Chuck" right across the footlights and into the hearts of the audience. He sings and prances from enthusiasm to compromise to despair to salvation while always making you feel like his best friend.

Jill Corey plays "Fran" the girl of Chuck's day dreams with fine quality acting and singing. Her second act "Whoever You Are I Love You" is more touching than even the Broadway rendition. Yet, you would expect no less from a talent as great as Jill Corey.

Hinnant and Corey are supported by veteran actor, Joe Silver, whose voice you will recognize immediately as "Dr

Montclair Women's Spring Salad Luncheon

The Spring Salad Luncheon sponsored by the Women's Program Committee of the Montclair YMCA will be held on Tuesday, May 15 at the luncheon of the 25-Park Street Building. This annual affair, beginning at noon, will be the final luncheon of the 1972-73 season and will highlight the activities of the members and volunteers.

Salads are brought by members for the enjoyment of friends and invited guests and usually, each salad is different. In previous years, there have been over 20 such donations. Dessert is usually fruit and beverages. There is a small fee for those not bringing food.

condition within one week after receipt of bids.

All bids shall be presented to the Board of Trustees by the parties bidding, or their agents, at the place and time designated, when called for by the Board of Trustees. No bids will be received previous to the time designated and none will be accepted thereafter.

The receipt and opening of bids is subject to the proper qualification of the Bidder in accordance with the prequalification law and regulations as adopted by the State, where applicable. The Contractor shall include with his bid a copy of the Certificate of Qualification where such is required.

Bids shall be submitted in a sealed envelope upon bid form, and shall be accompanied by a certified check or bid bond for ten percent (10%) of the Base Bid, made payable to the Board of Trustees of the Free Public Library of Nutley, N.J. The proposal guarantee shall be forfeited as liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails to execute contract and furnish performance bond within ten (10) days after notification of award to him. No bid may be withdrawn for a period of thirty (30) days from date of bidding.

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive informality in the bidding if it is in their best interest to do so.
