FACEOFF — Bob Mann, a Golden Gloves boxer from neighboring Nutley, confronts his opponent during a bout at Friday night's matches at Municipal Stadium. Mann won the "Best Boxer" award for the evening.

LANDING ONE — Larry Giella (right) catches Ray Bryant with a hook near the end of their 160-pound bout, which ended when Giella kayoed his opponent. The fight capped an evening of spirited competition before a large crowd of spectators.

Boxing came back to Belleville Friday night, in an evening of top-flight sports entertainment that netted over $4,500 for local charities.

Present were several veteran boxers, many of them former champions and contenders, but it was their night to take it easy as they sat back to watch some spirited battles between young Golden Gloves champs from New Jersey and New York.

Boxing fans of Belleville, many of whom had previously only seen fights on television, got a first-hand look at the age-old art of pugilism, and by the end of the 10-bout event, many were heard to say, "Somebody should put this on every Friday night."

The crowd at Municipal Stadium put up $4,517 which will go to two local charities—the Craig Fabian Fund and the Cerebral Palsy Clinic—and the Little Sisters of the Poor.

The plan of the evening called for pair-offs between the Golden Gloves champs of New York and New Jersey, and although the scheduling forced bouts between some New Jersey youths, the Garden State won the majority of their confrontations with the New Yorkers. The fighters, being young and still learning the sport, displayed less finesse than enthusiasm, but there was plenty of the latter to keep the crowd at a high pitch.

Former middleweight contender Georgie Forrester acted as emcee, introducing the bouts and pointing out the many boxing greats in the audience—among them Mickey Walker of Elizabeth and former welterweight champ Freddy "Red" Cochran. The event, in fact, was sponsored by the Veteran Boxers Social Club of New Jersey, Inc., a group which is based here in

Senatore Loses Election Protest Says She'll Back Demo Candidates

Gregory Castano
Residency Upheld

The Democratic candidacy of Harrison Tax Assessor Gregory Castano for State Senator from the 30th District was upheld by a Superior Court judge in Newark Monday when he dismissed an appeal of the June primary election filed by losing candidate Mrs. Mary V. Senatore of Belleville.

Mrs. Senatore, Town Democratic chairman, announced afterwards she would not appeal the decision further and said she would support all Democratic candidates, including Castano, in the November election. However, she sharply criticized the decision by Judge Ervin Fulop, saying it can cause the election of public officials residing outside the district or towns in which they serve.

In stating her intention not to appeal, she said, "If he (Judge Fulop) was so definite in his ruling, let the people of New Jersey see what a bad decision this was."

About the November election, she added "I don't intend to ever go off my line as a Democrat." Though it remains to be seen how active she will campaign, she did pledge support to all Democratic hopefuls, and when questioned specifically, she included Castano.

Mrs. Senatore based her protest on the fact Castano owns two houses — one in Harrison, where his parents live, and one in West Caldwell, outside the newly-apportioned 30th District, where he resides with his wife and family.

In giving his decision at the 15-minute hearing, Fulop said Mrs. Senatore should not have waited until after the primary election to take legal recourse and went on to uphold Castano's residency on the grounds he had selected the Harrison home as his "voting residence" by filing with the county superintendent of elections in 1971.

Mrs. Senatore's lawyer John Montefusco argued a candidate is legally entitled to file a protest 10 days after an election. He further said Fulop's decision is now the standing interpretation of electoral law in New Jersey and means "a person can set up two or three residences and live outside of a district in which he runs or anyone can use this decision to cast votes in districts in which they don't live."

Commenting on Fulop's criteria of filing for a "voting residence," Montefusco said the judge specified no time limit in which a person must file his residency before running for election in a certain district.

Castano said Tuesday he had never tried to hide his dual residency, "and in fact, I never felt it was an issue. This was borne out by the court's decision."

He disagreed that Fulop's decision is a re-interpretation of electoral law and said the judge had only decided "based on the facts of the case, that my residency in Harrison is a legitimate one."

Castano expressed optimism for a possible solution of the division between Essex and Hudson County factions represented by the Senatore-Castano race in June and the ensuing court battle. The two counties were joined together into the heavily Democratic 30th District early this year as a result of a statewide reapportionment move.

There has reportedly been friction between Essex County Democratic Chairman

Tavern Distance Bill Will Die on the Table

Without a Commissioner willing to move it, a special measure designed to reduce the minimum distance separating alcoholic beverage outlets on Washington Avenue is expected to die on the table.

The measure was tabled by a motion by Commissioner Mary Senatore last year pending the outcome of a court case involving two Washington Avenue establishments and a tavern on Joralemon Street.

The appeal by the owners of the Villa Italia, 501 Washington Avenue, who sought to overturn a ruling by the state liquor board which prevented them from transferring their license to the Belleville Motor Lodge at 369 Washington Avenue, was recently denied by a Superior Court panel of judges. Winning the case was Edmund A. Effenberger, owner of the Princeton Bar and Grill at 89-91 Joralemon Street, who successfully argued through attorney Robert Gaccione the move would bring another liquor outlet within the legal 1250 distance of his own bar.

The special ordinance to alter the distance along the stretch of Washington Avenue containing the Belleville Motor Lodge to a minimum of 200 feet was introduced by Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, who said he wanted "to stimulate business on the Avenue." This week, however, Strumolo said it was up to Mrs. Senatore to move to take the ordinance off the table, since she had asked to put it there in the first place.

Mrs. Senatore, also contacted, indicated she would let the measure die, saying, "I intend to abide by the judges' decision."

Though Strumolo has said the next move is up to Mrs. Senatore, the right to move an ordinance off the table belongs to any Commissioner, and Strumolo made it clear he thought a liquor-serving restaurant in the Motor Lodge is still a good idea. "I don't think it would provide undue competition for a tavern owner. Liquor prices in a restaurant are much higher, than in a tavern. My concern is opening some business on the Avenue."

Referring to the large group of liquor outlet owners who opposed the Strumolo measure, he said, "I recognize and respect the Tavern Owners' Association, but I don't think they should have a monopoly over restaurants."

Pedal Power Park Petition Gains Support

A suggestion by Cosmo S. Pelaia to establish a Sunday bicycle route in Branch Brook Park was unanimously approved by howlow members the Essex County Environmental Improvement Commission last week.

Pelaia this week told the Times he has the support of three members of the Board of Freeholders — Samuel Angelo, Philip Rotunda and Joseph Iannuzzi — for his plan to close off a one-way road west of Lake Street and allow only bicycle traffic on Sundays during the summer.

Pelaia confidently predicted the idea will gain the support of the entire Board of Freeholders and said he expects the Essex County Park Commission to then approve the pilot project.

The Environmental Improvement Commissioners unanimously approved the idea July 11, and commended their colleague for his proposal.

Pelaia has said his program "won't cost a dime," because it necessitates only the barricading of a street and the watchful eyes of policemen to maintain order.

He had first proposed the idea to the Park Commission and then took it to the Freeholders when he got no action.

Schoolers, Commission Have Date in Trenton

The Belleville Board of Education will meet with the Board of Commissioners in a Trenton hearing at the Office of State Commissioner of Education August 6 to present their respective arguments on the possible restoration of the $450,880 cut in the schooler's 1973-74 budget.

Meanwhile, the school system's fiscal year opened July 1, and the officials have been faithfully adhering to the cuts enacted by the Commissioners after the strong rejection of the $7.4 million budget by voters last February.

Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco said this week the most extensive effect of the cut has been the inability to hire 10 new teachers for the system, resulting in the abandonment of proposed mini-courses and a work-study program.

These programs, said Greco, could not be reinstated even if there were a rapid and favorable (to the schools) decision by Acting Commissioner of Education Edward Kilpatrick. However, he added, if the money was reinstated, there are two positions earmarked for special education, "which could be filled the following Monday."

Greco said when the Board of Education and the Board of Commissioners went before the Commissioner of Education in 1969 over a budget cut, the decision wasn't returned until the November following the February election.

The superintendent said there has been no cutback in the driver education program as a result of the cuts, but said the school administration intends to be "very careful" in the expenditure of funds.

The entire Board of Education has been invited to the hearings, which will be conducted not by Kilpatrick himself, but by three of four

Shooting Suspect Held To Appear in Court

An East Orange man, charged with wounding a Belleville resident in an early morning shooting last April, will appear in Belleville Municipal Court this morning for a preliminary hearing.

The suspect, aged 26, was arrested last Thursday in Newark when he was checked by a police officer on a motor violation.

He is charged with atrocious assault and battery on Gary Hinton, 18, of 32 Bayard Street.

Hinton was shot in the right arm at 2 a.m. April 4 by a man wielding a revolver at the Short Stop diner at 24 Washington Avenue. He later identified his alleged assailant through a check in the police photo files.

Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight said the incident occurred after an argument ensued between two groups of customers at the restaurant. Hinton's assailant fled after he shot the Belleville youth in the right arm. Hinton was treated and released at Clara Maass Hospital.

After Hinton identified the suspect from police files, a warrant was issued for the East Orange man's arrest. He is now in custody on $5,000 bail.

Detectives Martin Natale and Frank Falcone of the Belleville Police Department handled the investigation.

In Park Tomorrow

O.T. Zappo's Itinerary Includes This Town

The route of traveling troubadour O.T. Zappo includes a stop in Belleville Park tomorrow at 11 a.m. as he'll pause to entertain local youngsters with his songs, puppets and jokes.

His program, titled "Music Is Fun With O.T. Zappo—The Wandering Troubadour" includes a blend of original and contemporary songs, live and recorded tunes, audience participation and audio-visual effects. An experienced children's entertainer, he works hard at involving the kids in his act through various devices—including a dancing sign.

(The sign 20 feet long and three feet high, spells out the theme of the show, "Music Is Fun," and 11 children from the audience volunteer to bobble the letters from behind in time to music.)

O.T. is aided in his efforts by a two-and-a-half foot tall dancing and guitar-playing marionette named "Pancho" and two 20-inch singing puppets, "Hermie" and "Alice." The minstrel's sing-alongs will include "Oh, Happy Day," "I Believe in Music," and "Ting-a-Layo," a song where the kids get their chance to be the performers themselves with many varieties of percussion instruments.

Sponsored by the Essex County Park Commission, the show will be free of charge to all children and adults who stop by.

O.T. is a 1969 graduate of Montclair State College, a Bloomfield resident and a former schoolteacher. He has been in the entertainment field for three years, and has concentrated on performing for the younger set for two years. He still continues to take dates for an act he pitches to young adults.

"I find kids to be much more receptive, responsive and very honest," he says. "Once you get them on your side, half the battle is won." He created his role as a "wandering troubadour" because, he says, "I wanted to perform for children, but I didn't want to be stereotyped as a magician or a clown."

"I've found that youngsters don't like to just sit and watch a performer. They want to be part of the act. Sometimes I have as many as 30 kids on the stage playing percussion instruments."

O.T. has appeared on channel five's children's "Wonderama," and says he'd like to do more work in television. He has played at the Museum of the City of New

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

A few weeks back on a very rainy Friday afternoon I took a ride over to the County's Hendricks Field Golf Course on Franklin Avenue with Ken Carragher, the Union boss at Big Tree Garage of T. N. J., where he was to pick up his membership card.

The heavy rain had left the course a quagmire so some of the golfers were clustered around the club house, among them Johnnie Gualtieri and Bill Cullen, with whom I had served on the Town Council several years ago. Both looked well and happy, notwithstanding, the rain had "spoiled" their golf game. It was a pleasure to chat briefly with the fellows once again. I never get enthused about chasing a little golf ball around all day, but, then some like John and Bill just "love" the game and its neathly too. Their line appearance proves it.

The delegate expressing the need for both a haircut and a drink suggested a drive over to Charlie Rossi's tavern in the Lake where Charlie would provide the libations, while he could slip next door and have Charlie's brother, a barber, clip his silvery locks.

It was suggested Charlie, a tonsorial artist of no mean ability himself, might both serve and clip him at the same time, but the bistro boss nixed the idea when business perked up with the entrance of Nick Raimo, popular personality of the Silver Lake-Soho area who serves as

Now you can lease a car from a bank. Ours.

National Newark & Essex introduces another first—customized car leasing. We are the first bank in New Jersey to offer such a service.

Why lease?

Because you can avoid all the inconveniences of buying a car. And most likely we'll save money for you.

And monthly payments are often lower than borrowing to buy a car. That's because the principal payments are based on the difference between the purchase price and the estimated resale value of the car, not on the full purchase price.

As for the purchase price, we buy in volume. So chances are, we get a better price on the car you want than you can.

Since our expertise is financing, you know we'll be able to give you the best possible rate. In addition, there's no middleman. And since our people are bankers—not car salesmen—there's no salesman's commission involved.

There is an added tax benefit for professionals and business people who use a car in their work: lease payments can be a deductible business expense. Check with your tax consultant to see if you qualify—and to what extent.

It's really easy to lease a car from us. Just tell us what car you want—Mercedes, Mercury, Porsche, Pinto, anything. With all the options you want. And how long you want to lease it: 12, 24 or 36 months. We'll tell you the exact monthly payment. And once your application is approved, most likely you will have your car the very same day.

Frankly, we don't know of a nicer way for you to get a car as often as you want. That's why we've added car leasing to the many personal services we offer you. And if you find you can't come to the bank, just call 266-8300. We'll come to you.

Principal Hones His Specialty At Foreign Policy Conference

by Beth Fitzgerald
 Belleville High School Principal Raymond O. Smith, a former social studies teacher and a specialist in Eastern studies, was among New Jersey's representatives in a "Foreign Policy Conference for Educators" sponsored by the United States Department of State. Principals and teachers from throughout the United States came to Washington, D.C. June 28-29 to be briefed on State Department policy on the Middle East and its relation to the energy crisis; current developments in Europe and East Asia; the problems of American citizens arrested abroad on drug charges, and the world-wide population problem.

The second day of the conference was devoted to workshops in different geographical areas, and Smith chose the East. He had been in military intelligence during World War II, and at that time had been sent to the University of Michigan for two years to learn Japanese. The program, according to Smith, also included an intensive study of Eastern culture.

After the war, Smith started teaching social studies at Belleville High School, and later headed the department before becoming principal. About six years ago, Smith started a new course at Belleville High, called World Area Study, which was modeled, he said, on the course he had taken at the University of Michigan. The course, said Smith, "was intended as a series of lectures by experts on each aspect of the East."

Local Scout Leader Takes Mass. Position

Charlie Harlow, field director of the Robert Treat Council, a long time resident of Belleville has assumed the position of field director with the functional assignments of office management and sustaining membership enrollment with the Old Colony Council, Boy Scouts of America, in Brockton, Massachusetts.

Charlie Harlow served the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, from 1952 to 1973 in a variety of positions. He is most remembered for the years he served as Camp Mohican Director. He has held the positions of district scout executive council program director, director of support services, and field director. As a tribute to Charlie, the Belleville Scouters held "A Going Away Party for Charlie" on June 25 at Wesley Methodist Church on Washington Avenue. The scout leaders grateful for Charlie's 21 years of service, presented him with a desk piece-barometer clock set.

The Harlow family resides at 201 DeWitt Avenue and are communicants of Fewsmith Memorial Church. The family includes Charlie, wife Joan; daughters Roberta, Susan, and Nancy; and son Charles.

Nixon Has No Problem

Revelations this week that certain telephones and rooms in the White House have been bugged for the past two years should make it simple for President Nixon to absolve himself of any association with "The White House Horrors."

President Nixon has contended that he had no foreknowledge of the Watergate criminal projects nor did he participate in any subsequent cover up.

This week a former White House aide testified the "place" was bugged. Nixon's former White House Counsel, John Dean, implicated Nixon by asserting that meetings were held in the Oval Room of the White House involving dialogues relating to the Watergate cover-up attempts and executive clemency.

Nixon has entered a blanket denial.

Where the truth lies is now a simple matter — it is to be found on the tapes which purloined the Oval Room conversations.

It is our belief the time has come for Nixon to take the offensive in the "Watergate, et als" matters. Nixon should turn over to Federal Judge Sirica all the Watergate related tapes and leave to the Judge's decision what part of the tape transcripts should be turned over to the Senate Investigating Committee and the Watergate special prosecutor.

President Nixon has other alternatives but no alternative would meet with the approval of a cynical public unless full disclosure of the taped conversations was made.

It is our belief most Americans want to have faith in their President — and want to believe President Nixon is innocent of any complicity in the Watergate matters. President Nixon could help all Americans, our country, and himself, by ordering transcripts of all taped conversations relating to Watergate matters be published at the earliest opportunity.

President Nixon's credibility is under a cloud of suspicion both at home and abroad.

Time is of the essence.
Washington is burning, we should not sit by while Nixon fiddles.

Henry's Homers

Because some baseball fans have a sentimental attachment to Babe Ruth and his home run record — 715 in a lifetime — Henry Aaron, almost certain to break that record, has been the victim of hate mail and depreciation of other kinds.

The irony of it all is that Atlanta Braves' outfielder is, by comparison, a far less controversial individual than the Babe, far more of an inspiration to young people in many ways.

In addition, he's hitting the ball at a time when averages are generally lower than in former years; this is offset by the fact that he plays more games in a season.

But one suspects Aaron will break Ruth's record by such a margin that comparisons will become meaningless.

All records are made to be broken, and Aaron won't be the last to break Ruth's mark (he is over 690 homers as this is written). But Aaron will be one of the most modest and gentlemanly players to do it. The Babe was a great hitter, and earlier a great pitcher, had flair and color and ability. But he was definitely not the Henry Aaron type, and there are many fathers who prefer Aaron as the inspiration for young America.

Unneeded Operations

There's much profit in surgery, and it's no secret some have indulged in excessive surgery. Now comes a report from the United Store Workers Union in New York which says getting a second doctor to give an opinion on the need for surgery revealed some 19 per cent of recommended surgery was unnecessary.

A second medical opinion was sought in the case of 289 union members in the last year, according to the administrator of the Union's health and welfare fund, and in 51 cases the individual concerned was told he or she need not, after all, undergo surgery.

The second medical opinion showed some original diagnosis incorrect and in a few cases a third medical opinion was sought.

The United Store Workers Union shows the way others can follow. Unnecessary surgery not only wastes victims' money but endangers lives and often aggravates congestion in hospitals.

In addition, it runs up the cost of medical care, for insurance companies pay many of these surgery bills, and set their rates for insurance accordingly. A second medical opinion, then, is a good precaution when surgery is recommended.

Belleville Will Salute Ex-Police Chief Smith

By Peter M. Clark

One Year Ago

Mrs. Mary Senatore, Belleville's claim to fame at the National Democratic Convention in Miami returned with news of the convention. The overriding thought in Mrs. Senatore's mind was the belief that she and the other 21 uncommitted delegates to the convention were mistreated by the McGovern delegates. Mrs. Senatore stated that while the young people in the McGovern delegation were knowledgeable, they had yet to discover the fact that they would be unable to win the election without the help of the old guard Democrats, which Mrs. Senatore claimed to be. Mrs. Senatore voted for McGovern on the first ballot.

Three young men robbed a Belleville Liquor store just before closing of more than $300. Police reported that the men had entered the store and demanded that Mrs. Michael Guibilo lie on the floor. While the men did not show a weapon, the police stated that they had threatened her with bodily harm.

A ten year old Belleville youth made it to the Olympics. Not in Munich, but the New Jersey AAU Junior Olympics finals, which were to be held in August. Anthony Dominick took second in the 50 meter back stroke and received a silver medal for his time of 38.9 seconds.

Five Years Ago

Congressman Peter Rodino his investigation of the beating at Fort Dix in New Jersey of a Belleville resident, Clifford Civinski. Civinski had accused members of his platoon of beating him because the entire platoon was not given weekend passes. The platoon had blamed Civinski for this. Rodino felt that the Army would be helpful in his investigation of the incident.

Belleville was scheduled to salute Chief Donald Smith. Chief Smith was to be feted at the Fountain Restaurant, due to his long and faithful service to the Town of Belleville. Smith had been a member of the Belleville police force for 37 years.

Brunswick Olympic Bowl was given an alley: they received an award for their excellent coffee. The award, which was presented by the Pan American Coffee Bureau was called the "Golden Cup." Brunswick was one of 171 establishments in the United States and Canada which had been selected for this award.

The Essex County Unit of the New Jersey Association for the Retarded Children awarded to Mr. Gerard Wilson, Vice-President of the Schaefer Soccer League, a plaque in honor of his organization of a soccer match for the benefit of retarded children. The event, called the Annual Indoor Soccer Tournament, was sponsored by the New Jersey Football Association, and raised more than $5000.

Ten Years Ago

Members of the Belleville Democratic Club completed plans for a drive to enlist new members into their ranks. The key point of the drive was to be held at the Florent Club, Carmer Avenue, and was to consist of a little light dinner and a little light politics. It was hoped that the new members might help to bolster the ranks of the party, and do the traditional neighborhood canvassing and other necessary work.

The Department of Roads decided that it was high time to do a little work on the Belleville Bridge over the Passaic River. It seemed that holes were starting to get more than a little hazzardous, due to heavy snow-falls in the winter, which had caused cars to chew up the roads.

The beleaguered Nutley Colonels were trying to get out of the cellar, after a three game losing streak. The coach of the team stated that the prime cause of the difficulties was the teams inability to rally and their lack of power hitting. He stated that he hoped that they might be able to improve the former, but that the latter needed "new blood" in the team.

Ground breaking ceremonies were held for a new Knights of Columbus building in Belleville. It was scheduled to be built on the corner of Bridge Street and Belleville Avenue. The Rev. James Heavy blessed the ground while the Grand Knight of the organization, Albert Carragher, and Michael Dacey, president of the Columbus Institute performed the ritual of turning up the first spadeful for the new foundations. The structure was planned to cost about $35,000 and would be one story tall. It would be 50 by 80 feet and would lie on a plot of ground 82 by 124 feet. The building was to be constructed with a ball room, a lounge, a kitchen, a powder room and various service rooms. The council stated that it would be possible to expand the building in the future, in the event of increased membership or any other similar need.

Mary's Church, in Nutley, held a special "musical choral," featuring medieval religious music, played on authentic instruments. Music featured included chants, madrigals and the like. The show had been put together by students from Newark State and members of the New Jersey orchestra.

Twenty Years Ago

A fire "severely damaged" the Frederick Scott Ship, a landing craft berthed on the Passaic River. The ship had been owned by the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Belleville. The fire had started in the bilge, which had a thick covering of sludge and other oily goo that had been left over from the day when the bilge had been a fuel storage tank for the vessel. While the Passaic River did raise a foot inside the craft, due to the fact that it was an oil fire, it did very little in the form of dousing the fire, and fire officials said that it probably did more harm than good. The estimated cost of the damage was put at a "very high."

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Belleville police brought a three month long investigation to a close with the capture of a Newark man in Penn station in Newark. The man arrested was Ernest Olphin, alias Sonny Wells, and he was being held on charges of burglary and breaking and entering. Retainers were expected to be issued by Nutley and by Newark for similar charges. The old axiom of "Crime Doesn't Pay" was proven by this young man who confessed to 13 complaints and three others which no one had complained about. All totaled the young man's loot was only $200.

Harold Jones of Newark was given 30 days in the slam for a drunk charge. He had been charged with drunken driving, auto larceny and possession, after he had led the police a wild chase through the streets of Belleville in a stolen truck.

Woman's Came to Aid Of Her Family

To The Editor:

We often hear or read of citizens turning their backs or simply not caring about the plights of others.

I, for one, can challenge that statement. A few months ago my son, Tommy, was the recipient of ten receipts realized from a yearly project of taking pictures of children during the Easter season which is sponsored by the Belleville Women's Club.

My son is in need of periodic hospitalization in New York and through their humane efforts, helped us less our burden by way of their monetary aid.

I can only say "thank you" to this organization but I do say it through your newspaper in order that the public may know that someone does care.

Sincerely,

Scouts Thank Health Official For Exams

To The Editor:

Some 90 Scouts and Scout Leaders of Belleville were given physical examinations by the Town of Belleville's Department of Public Affairs through the courtesy of Doctor Dubinett and Doctor Dotoli. The examinations were conducted at the medical center on the corner of Franklin Ave. and Franklin St. These physicals were given so that the Scouts of Belleville could enjoy a great week or two week experience at Camp Mohican near Blairstown, New Jersey. The physicals certify that the Scouts can take part in the strenuous activities of Camp Life.

The physicals were conducted on June 20 and June 21. The Belleville District of The Robert Treat Council wishes to publicly thank Commissioner Strumolo, Dr. Dubinett, and Dr. Dotoli for making this service possible. Thus taking the precautions necessary for our Scouts to have an enjoyable experience at summer Camp at Camp Mohican. Also, a special note thanking John O. Frade of the Belleville District Scout Committee for coordinating the set up of the physical examinations.

On Cheating

John Scarne, in a new "Encyclopedia of Games" published in June by Harper and Row, says there's more cheating in private "friendly" card games than in games in gambling houses.

The leading expert on games explains this is true because private games are played by those who know little of card-cheating techniques. And, on the average, one in ten persons in these games will cheat when he thinks he can get away with it. Where big money is concerned, Scarne puts the odds at two to one that a card cheater is at work.

A tipoff that things may not be right is how the dealer, at card games, holds the deck. If, for instance, he uses the "mechanic's grip," Scarne suggests players find another game. With this grip the dealer holds the deck in one hand, the index finger on a front corner and other fingers, usually three, on the edge of the deck. There's no reason for learning this grip, Scarne says, other than for cheating or for a magician's work.

Scarne advises all players to insist on strict adherence to the rules, to be dubious of a player who always wins, and to learn how to cut or spot marked cards, if possible.

TV Scripts

The Writers Guild of America recently voted to end a four-month strike against movie and television producers, accepting a new contract which allows production to resume.

Reactions to the settlement is certainly mixed. The average script on U.S. commercial television (the thirteen best channels) is so pitifully inept and puerile one wonders for what the writers are paid.

One's reaction is even further soured when it's taken into consideration that the more we are subjected to from most of these writers is to be rewarded by higher pay. Minimum salary for a top-budget, feature-length show is now to $16,000 rather than $13,000.

Rather than a pay hike, it seems most of the TV writers deserve fines.

Give Okay To Pool Study Group

By Peter Clark

One Year Ago

After hearing Mayor Carmen Orechio's plan to integrate the fire department forces with the police department, to try and increase the amount of police protection in Nutley, the fire people voiced a rather emphatic disapproval of the program. While the president of the local Fireman's Benevolent Association, Thomas Hughes, declined to give any statement other than the fact that the group had decided to sit tight and wait to see what the mayor has to offer, several firemen, all of whom asked that their names not be given stated that their reaction to the plan was negative, and some were more than a little hostile. When one fire fighter was questioned about the possibility of doing police work he summed up the entire fire department feeling "we don't want it."

A group of Nutley High School students and alumni hoped to have a rock concert in Nutley in August, but found the going rough. The major stumbling blocks were insurance, School Board approval, finances and the acquisition of a reputable sponsor.

Mayor Orechio sponsored bills for tougher fines against persons turning in false alarms and for the opening up of liquor stores on election days. The reason for the fire alarm bill, Mayor Orechio stated was the pronounced increase in the number of false alarms being turned in that summer.

A public hearing was scheduled to review a possible ordinance which would strictly limit the quantity of automotive service stations in town. Highlights of the ordinance, which had already prompted replies from station owners, included prohibiting any major automotive repairs outside the garage premises strict regulation of auto body work and the outlawing of the parking of disabled vehicles in station lots after 10 p.m. Commissioner of Public Works John Lucy, the sponsor of the bill stated that he thought that the ordinance would go a long way toward improving the appearance of the Town.

The new Parks Commissioner, Henry Ludwig, stated that his department had already given the green light to the Nutley Community Pool Corporation to begin seismic studies of Father Owens Park in order to decide whether that would be a suitable site for the building of the community pool. The Corporation had decided to quit trying to win moral support from the Commission at large, and had decided just to go in and get to work. The Commission wasn't scheduled to decide about the issue until all facets of plans were developed.

Commissioner John Lucy was busily thumbing through his copy of the Town's ordinances, trying to find an ordinance prohibiting the dumping of grass clipping directly into the streets. The Commissioner stated that the clippings were playing havoc with his storm sewers, and that if there wasn't an ordinance the books already that he would propose a new one himself. Lucy wanted clipping placed in containers before being placed at curbside for pick-up.

Mr. Zip, the postal departments new cartoon character which was designed to inspire people to place zip codes on all their mail was officially welcomed to the Newark Postal District by acting Postmaster Joseph J. Bennuci. Postmaster Bennuci stated that zip codes were needed to help in the sorting of the ever rising amounts of mail being placed into the American Postal System, and to speed the delivery of mail throughout the country.

As part of a nationwide program, local doctors took time out from their busy schedules to speak to students concerning medical careers, as doctors, nurses, or other related fields. The program included lectures, field trips and speeches concerning the rewards of life devoted to medicine. The purpose of the program was to encourage students to fill the need for doctors in the country.

Frank Kvidahl, president of the Veterans Council and former commander of the local Catholic War Veterans was elected as the 18th leader of Nutley Post 30 of Amvets.

The Federal Telephone and Radio Company won a partial victory in its dispute with the international union of electrical workers. The workers had been striking the company for 13 weeks for higher wages and benefits. The strike had begun the summer before when the National Labor Relations Board ruled that 30 buyers had to be dropped from the bargaining unit.

The Town Commission approved the promotion of Sergeant Francis Buel to a Police Department Captaincy in succession of Captain Chester Simpson. The Golden Shield, the new badge of office, was presented to Buel at ceremony pre sided at a ceremony presided over by Mayor Harry Chenoweth.

Louis Durano was abusive to police officers when they stopped him for doing 50 miles an hour in Nutley. They gave him a ticket, as was only correct. He continued to be abusive, so he got another ticket for that, so that he might have one for the front and one for the back.

In keeping with its policy for the most modern equipment and educational facilities possible, the Nutley Board of Education finalized plans to have a television viewer placed in the Nutley High School auditorium. The set was to be placed in the auditorium by Industrial Televisions, Inc. of 34 Franklin Avenue. Dr. Howard Spalding, principal of the high school, stated that students could enjoy watching momentous events which were at that time happening in the world around them. He felt that the television would one day become a great educator of the masses, spreading live cultural events through the airways.

The Board of Education also announced that a new fire escape for the Junior High School would be installed before school opened again in September. The old fire escape had been ruled inadequate.

Fifty Years Ago

Commissioner Sherwood announced plans to have lighting placed in strategic locations at Nutley's busiest intersection. He quoted a cost of roughly $19,000 for the construction of the lights by 1928, the price given to him by the Public Service Corporation. The bill was passed, with the street lighting raised from 60 to 250 candlepower. It was hoped that the new lighting would make travel safer in the Town, and cut down the alarming rise in accidents.

Thomas Viola and Son was awarded the contract for collecting refuse in Town for three years. They had submitted a bid of $37,000, which had been declared low bid.

Counties Are Following Municipalities In Creation Of Administrator Positions

Enactment of New Jersey's Optional Municipal Charter Law in 1950 gave citizens opportunity to effect charter study and select one of three new governmental forms — council-manager, mayor, or small municipality. This has led to adoption of the various forms by 70 municipalities.

The charter forms provide for an alignment of executive (manager or mayor) and legislative (council) powers different from the older township, town, borough, and commission forms. Principal differences are abolition of separately elected administrative officials such as the clerk, assessor, and collector, and change in the historical dual administration-legislative role of the elected governing body to policy making. Characteristic of the council-manager and mayor-council forms is a professionally trained full-time administrator — the manager or business administrator (in the mayor-council plan).

A lesser publicized but significant concurrent development in many municipal governments has been creation by ordinance of an administrative position with a title such as business administrator, or administrative officer. Over 100 municipalities now have such a position. Largest increase has been in the last three years. Until 1968, such an ordinance position had no specific legal basis. Passage of enabling legislation authorized any municipality to create the position exempt from Civil Service, if the municipality had adopted that State personnel law. The nature of duties assigned is discretionary with the governing body and may or may not be spelled out in the creating ordinance. Principal difference between this ordinance position and management positions under the Charter Law is that the ordinance administrator has no specific statutory duties or powers, since they reside with the elected governing body. The appointee carries out duties involving coordination, liaison, research, and administration, usually in areas of budgeting, purchasing, personnel, public information, and general management. All aid the governing body to do a better job and improve utilization of its time, but the appointee has limited authority in carrying out his numerous responsibilities. The trend to ordinance administrators, while providing

needed professional management assistance for elected officials, has served as a substitute for charter change and forestalled efforts for charter change in many municipalities.

New Jersey county government is entering a similar phase. Statutory authorization for a county administrator, similar in concept to the municipal ordinance administrator, dates to 1967.

Archdiocese Asks News Anti-Pornography Code

The Communications Office of the Newark Archdiocese said today it will seek legislative approval of a new anti-obscenity code for New Jersey this fall in line with Supreme Court's crackdown on pornography.

Msgr. Paul J. Hayes, director of the Archdiocesan Office, said his staff has already started to rough out language in keeping with the high court's requirements, and that a draft of the anti-porno bills should be ready late this summer.

Assemblyman Wants To Stop Budget Transfers

Assemblyman Carl A. Orechio (R-Essex) today announced he will introduce legislation to eliminate the practice allowing officials to transfer funds from one budget line to another. Orechio said his bill to prohibit "all budgetary transfers" during the last two months of a current fiscal year and the first three months of the next "will end a practice which has cost far too many taxpayers far too much, for too long."

"Anyone who knows anything about local government is aware," Orechio asserted, "that it appears all too many municipal officials deliberately slip monies into their budgets that will never be spent as earmarked, but will be transferred later for pet projects or year-end spending sprees for things they could not otherwise justify to taxpayers."

"It is important that this budgetary deceit be stopped not only to provide some much-needed tax relief to property owners all over the State, but more importantly to curb the spiraling costs of local government."

"To those who justify the practice, let me remind them, as they already know full well, that existing statutes provide for emergency funding, if and when necessary. Reason dictates this abuse be halted now."

"This proposal is companion legislation to another bill I sponsored recently to prohibit surplus accounts made up of taxpayer monies at all levels of government, including related agencies and autonomous bodies, throughout New Jersey," the Essex Lawmaker concluded. Orechio currently represents Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona. He is seeking re-election in the new 27th Assembly District, which, except for Belleville, will also include Caldwell, Cedar Grove and Essex Falls.

Belleville Students Graduate Montclair State

Degrees were awarded to 27 Belleville residents at graduation ceremonies recently at Montclair State College. It was the college's 64th commencement.

Two of the graduates received master's degrees and the other 25 earned bachelor degrees.

Frank Bonavita, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonavita of 219 Garden Avenue earned a bachelor's degree in economics.

Counties Are Following Municipalities In Creation Of Administrator Positions

Enactment of New Jersey's Optional Municipal Charter Law in 1950 gave citizens opportunity to effect charter study and select one of three new governmental forms — council-manager, mayor, or small municipality. This has led to adoption of the various forms by 70 municipalities.

The charter forms provide for an alignment of executive (manager or mayor) and legislative (council) powers different from the older township, town, borough, and commission forms. Principal differences are abolition of separately elected administrative officials such as the clerk, assessor, and collector, and change in the historical dual administration-legislative role of the elected governing body to policy making. Characteristic of the council-manager and mayor-council forms is a professionally trained full-time administrator — the manager or business administrator (in the mayor-council plan).

A lesser publicized but significant concurrent development in many municipal governments has been creation by ordinance of an administrative position with a title such as business administrator, or administrative officer. Over 100 municipalities now have such a position. Largest increase has been in the last three years. Until 1968, such an ordinance position had no specific legal basis. Passage of enabling legislation authorized any municipality to create the position exempt from Civil Service, if the municipality had adopted that State personnel law. The nature of duties assigned is discretionary with the governing body and may or may not be spelled out in the creating ordinance. Principal difference between this ordinance position and management positions under the Charter Law is that the ordinance administrator has no specific statutory duties or powers, since they reside with the elected governing body. The appointee carries out duties involving coordination, liaison, research, and administration, usually in areas of budgeting, purchasing, personnel, public information, and general management. All aid the governing body to do a better job and improve utilization of its time, but the appointee has limited authority in carrying out his numerous responsibilities. The trend to ordinance administrators, while providing

change in many municipalities. New Jersey county government is entering a similar phase. Statutory authorization for a county administrator, similar in concept to the municipal ordinance administrator, dates to 1967.

Assemblyman Wants To Stop Budget Transfers

Assemblyman Carl A. Orechio (R-Essex) today announced he will introduce legislation to eliminate the practice allowing officials to transfer funds from one budget line to another.

Orechio said his bill to prohibit "all budgetary transfers" during the last two months of a current fiscal year and the first three months of the next "will end a practice which has cost far too many taxpayers far too much, for too long."

"Anyone who knows anything about local government is aware," Orechio asserted, "that it appears all too many municipal officials deliberately slip monies into their budgets that will never be spent as earmarked, but will be transferred later for pet projects or year-end spending sprees for things they could not otherwise justify to taxpayers."

"It is important that this budgetary deceit be stopped not only to provide some much-needed tax relief to property owners all over the State, but more importantly to curb the spiraling costs of local government."

"To those who justify the practice, let me remind them, as they already know full well, that existing statutes provide for emergency funding, if and when necessary. Reason dictates this abuse be halted now."

"This proposal is companion legislation to another bill I sponsored recently to prohibit surplus accounts made up of taxpayer monies at all levels of government, including related agencies and autonomous bodies, throughout New Jersey," the Essex Lawmaker concluded.

Orechio currently represents Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona. He is seeking re-election in the new 27th Assembly District, which, except for Belleville, will also include Caldwell, Cedar Grove and Essex Falls.

Legion Nine Rise to Swamp Vailsburg

by Pat Caputo
Belleville American Legion, playing a fine game on a fine field at Seton Hall, swamped Vailsburg 11-1. Belleville eliminated Vailsburg, 6-5, from any play-off possibilities.
Joe Cerza pitched brilliantly, going seven innings, walking two, and he allowed only one run on four hits. The run was unearned. Coach "Chic" Puleo had Alan Frank only other threats by Vailsburg occurred in the third and seventh innings.

Good defense saved Cerza in the home side of the third. After a lead-off single to John Carroll, Cerza got Pete DeLuca to bounce back to the box, Cerza wheeled around and fired to second where Vin Lipoma took the throw and then threw the ball to first baseman Steve Gerard, who made a good stretch to complete the double play. Cerza walked two men after that, but got Mike Pittaro to ground out to Lipoma.
Another double play got Cerza out of further damage in the fourth with one run in,

Ross. Ross scored on a hit by Ron Goy.
The score was 2-0 until the fourth when Vailsburg scored. However, in the next frame, the Belleville Legion had their biggest inning of the year, sending twelve men to the plate and scoring six times.
Jack Marzella beat out an infield hit and stole second. With one out, Cerza singled Marzella home. Ron Goy singled to center as Cerza stopped at second. Joe Arminio walked to fill the bases. With two outs, Joe Panlone singled to left. Cerza scored as did Goy. Panlone and Arminio advanced on the throw home. Lipoma knocked in Arminio and Panlone with a hit down the left field line.
Two infield errors loaded the bases and Joe Ross singled in Lipoma for the sixth run of the inning.
With the score 8-1, Belleville added insult to injury, with three more tallies in the sixth. Ron Goy reached on an error, Joe Arminio walked but was put out on Steve Gerard's fielder's choice. Joe Panlone drove home Goy as Gerard took third. Lipoma hit a sacrifice fly to right field to score Gerard. Panlone took second on a throw. Pasquariello singled in Panlone and Belleville had 11 runs on 14 hits. It was by far their best offensive of the year.
On defense, the infield played very well, turning in

ITT Plans 4¢ Increase On Common Dividends
The board of directors of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation announced today that it intends to declare on August 2, 1973 a dividend of 35 cents per share on its common stock, payable on October 1, 1973, to shareholders of record at the close of business on August 10, 1973. This represents an increase of 4 cents per share over the current dividend which is 31 cents per share.
The increase in the common dividend would raise the dividend for the year 1973 to $1.28 from $1.24 and would put the ITT dividend at an annual rate of $1.40 per share in 1974. It would be the 10th time in 10 years that ITT had raised the common dividend.

Two double plays and at least three other sparkling defensive gems.
Although Vin Lipoma had a perfect day, it wasn't easy. Vin was hit by a pitched ball twice in the head. Luckily, Vin was wearing his helmet and wasn't hurt either time.

Partytime Around Grounds

Number 10 Playground held a surprise birthday party for Paul Scheuplin. The happy ten-year-old and his friends enjoyed cupcakes, popcorn and iced tea.
The Rec House had a party, also. Karen Yaiser, Mary Rose Du Boyce and Denise Parrillo were among those who enjoyed some cool watermelon on a hot day. Donna De Vito and Karen Ferriero seemed to be lucky at nok-hockey, and Gina De Vito scored well in Kalah.
The children at School Eight Playground enjoyed several tournaments. Joey Franceschini, Sandra Colombrito and Laura Caruso were among the winners. A lemon ice party closed the week.
At Kelly Playground many of the children were involved in making fabric flowers. Some of the prettiest and most unique flowers were made by Toni Ankis, Richie Wilks, Ann Marie Mac Kenzie, Barbara D'Achille, Joe Holler and Carmen Rodriguez.
The Friendly House had an exciting limbo contest and Ronald Charles proved to be the most agile. The favorite game among the youngsters is Old King Glory, and Shannon Cerza remained champ.

Covering bottles with colored yarn is popular at School Two Playground. Some unusual vases and pencil holders were made by Mark Santisieri, Frank Danielli, Charlie Nigro and Joyce Iacullo.
Speedball has become a favorite game among members of School Four Playground. Some outstanding players have been Mike Esposito, Mike Del Virginia and Dom Scoca. A jump rope tournament was held, the object being to jump without stopping. Sandy Heinze and Mike Dondarski were the champions.
Number Nine Playground is planning a car wash on July 20, with proceeds donated to our annual Muscular Dystrophy Fund. If you have a dirty car bring it down to #9.

Beck's Column
Last week we wrote about our experience on a shopping tour. This is a continuation.
The next stop was at a store in a shopping center where they sold only radio, stereo and TV sets and refrigerators, washing machines and such household goods.
As we inquired about a certain TV set, we asked the salesman whether it was a transistor set or whether it had tubes also. He said that there were no tubes in the set, only transistors. Looking through the back, there were clearly visible 3 tubes. As we called this to the attention of the salesman, he thought it was funny, it should have only transistors, no tubes. Then he showed us a set which "was a very good buy", as he put it. When we asked why it was a good buy, he claimed that the price just has been lowered $30 for this one day. Asking about the features and quality, his only answer was that "they are all alike". It happened to be a brand name which in the trade is known to be built strictly for promotion and low price. The salesman had not the slightest idea about the features of the different brands.
We went to 2 more stores and inquired about service. All the stores we visited did not have service facilities. In 2 places they frankly told us that service was a nuisance and they did not want to be "bothered" with it. The others claimed they have a good service contractor. As it turned out, it was an outfit which is known to be just about the worst, but they charge these stores a cheap rate. In one place they told us they provide "factory service", which was also incorrect. The service came from an independent.
We feel sorry for anybody who falls such arrangements. You have no end of trouble under such a set up, we hear it every day. Nobody would buy a car from a dealer who does not have his own service facilities. Still people buy a color T.V. the most complicated piece of equipment which is known to need service sooner or later, and they have no idea whether the people who are supposed to give the service are qualified. Frenchy's Enters Tie With Cerami's Team

During the Fourth of July week only two of the Recreation Mens Softball Leagues saw action. In a week that had been set aside for picking up rain-outs the Monday League and the Wednesday league each played double-headers. From this point on all of the leagues will play doubleheaders to the end of the season.
The big excitement was in the Monday league where the Frenchy's moved into a tie for first place with wins over two of the league's strongest teams — the I.M.A. and Cerami Construction. Both Cerami's and I.M.A. split with Cerami's scoring over Wallace & Tiernan and the I.M.A. beating Clara Mass. The Monday League now stands: Cerami's and Frenchy's in first place each with 7-2, I.M.A. has third place at 6-3, J. & F. Lunch

Win Over Orange Winds Up Season

In the last home contest of the year the Belleville American Legion Post 105 defeated Orange, 7-3.
Orange lead 3-0 going into the third inning due mostly to Greg Jones. Jones homered in the top of the third with Gil Bragg on base. Jones had led off the game with an infield single. He stole second base and went to third on a grounder to the right side of the infield. He scored on a fielder's choice.
Belleville countered with two runs in the home side of the third. With one out, Vin Lipoma reached base on an error. Pitcher Jerry Hoban grounded to third, with a third-base man threw wildly past second and Jones, the centerfielder, threw wildly past third trying to catch Lipoma. Lipoma scored and Hoban was safe at third. He scored on a sacrifice fly by Vic Pasquariello.
Hoban checked Orange long enough for Belleville to finally capture the lead. In the home side of the fifth, Joe Panlone doubled down the first base line. He scored on a double by Lipoma. Coach "Chic" Puleo sent in speedy Mark Cervasio to run Lipoma. After two were out, Joe Ross was intentionally walked and Joe Cerza worked ex-Valley hurler Rick Gengaro for a base on balls,

Verona Trips Legion

Although the Belleville American Legion scored as many runs against Verona as they had against their seven previous foes, they lost their eighth in a row, 10-6, at Belleville. Errors were the key as three Belleville misuses opened the gates for seven unearned Verona runs.

Belleville drew first blood in this slugfest. After two were out in the bottom of the first, Joe Ross singled to right field. Joe Cerza clouted his

Kills 4 'Unfair' On Insurance Prices

New Jersey Insurance Commissioner Richard C. McDonough today eliminated four major surcharges on fire insurance premiums connected mainly with insured dwellings in the big cities of the State.

McDonough said they were eliminated because they are "unfair, discriminatory and a nuisance."

The four surcharges abolished are:

- The 25 cent surcharge for each $100 of fire insurance on dwellings older than 25 years if there is no up-to-date certificate showing satisfactory maintenance of electrical wiring. (This charge from now on will only be made if an actual inspection proves there is hazardous wiring or electrical equipment.)
- The 25 cent surcharge for each $100 of fire insurance because of overcrowded conditions in a dwelling. (It was found there is no way to determine fairly when it should be applied.)
- The 15 or 25 cent surcharge for each $100 of fire insurance for the "maintenance of supervision" requiring a charge if there is no full-time or part-time superintendent on the premises of a building that is not owner-occupied.
- Any surcharge to a tenant in an apartment or house for conditions he has no control over. (For example, a tenant with his own cooking device that is faulty could be surcharged, but not if the tenant was using a cooking device the landlord provides.)

Commissioner McDonough noted that these surcharges were imposed in 1968 and revised later when the State and Federal governments took steps to make insurance available in areas in which insurance was unavailable at that time.

The Commissioner directed the Insurance Services Office to amend its surcharge structure. ISO, a rate making organization that also performs the inspections for fire insurance, has agreed.

The Commissioner said he has instructed ISO to make available to the insured the specific details of any inspection that results in a surcharge.

The commissioner said, "What I don't want to continue is any arbitrary imposition of a surcharge. I want the insured to know exactly why he is being surcharged so the insured can correct any condition that could be a fire hazard."

McDonough noted, "It is the policy of this Department to embark on a right-to-know principle not only in fire and casualty or automobile insurance, but all types of insurances. After all, the public certainly has the right to know what he is paying for, and the companies should not balk in providing this information."

Surcharges of between 15 cents and 50 cents for each $100 of fire insurance coverage will continue for building defects.

first home-run of the Legion campaign. Verona pitcher Len Anderson seemed shaken up after the blast and walked Ron Goy on four pitches. Phil Cuzzi reached on an error and Steve Gerard drove home Goy with a hit to left as Belleville had its biggest first inning of the year, and led 3-0.

However, Verona took command in the top of the second inning, sending eleven men to the plate. Tom Ciccone reached on an error-Singles by Frank Albano and Rich Mascercia accounted for one run. After Tom Basil drew a walk to load the bases, Belboy hurler Sergio Rodriguez fanned Len Anderson and Jim Kistner. The inning should have been over but, due to the error, only two were out. Keith Lawrence then singled for two runs and Bob Caputo walked, refilling the bases. Tim Bannon singled in two more runs and Verona led 5-3.

Sergio helped his own cause when he led off the bottom of the second with a home-run over the left field fence. It was Sergio's second homer of the season. Later in the inning, Mark Cervasio singled past third base. An infield hit by Cerza and walks to Goy and Cuzzi were enough to tie the game at 5-5.

Verona, which is in contention for the American Legion playoffs for the Essex County championship, recaptured the lead in the third inning. Mascercia walked and raced Winners in the sack race were Margaret Chimento, Bernadette Porter, Martin King and Bob Raccioppi. Dawn Castelli, Cindy Kosalka, Richard Cook and Bob Raccioppi brought home trophies for their participation in the obstacle race.

Diane De Prizio and Pascale Morel sped down the track to win the 50-yard dash. Winners in the 100-yard dash were Cindy Kosalka and Fred Raccioppi.

Winning teams in the three-legged race were Sandra Matiskial and Elaine Pignatello, Karen Cacella and Laura Caruso, David Starr and Marty King, and Michael Rainone and Michael Nicosia.

A tug-o-war brought the field day to a close. Members of the winning girls team were Dori Petrowski, Mary Pontrella, Angela D'Auria and Donna Murnock.

Golden Glovers Battle Before Stadium Crowd

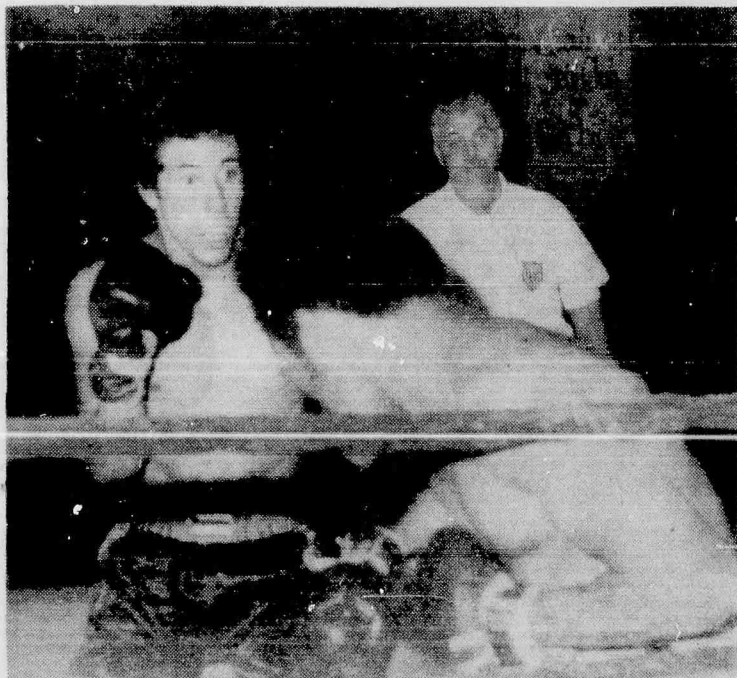

SLIDING OFF a punch, a boxer evades his opponent during the bout at 130-pounds.

EMCEE Georgie Forrester, a former middleweight contender, introduced both young and old boxers to the audience.

PRE-FIGHT TALK — Referee Al DeVito lays down the ground rules to fighters Al Moore of Paterson and Bob Mann of Nutley before the two clash in the 130-pound event.

OPENING MATCH — Rinaldo Ortiz (left) of Lakewood readies to move in on Jeffrey Jones in the first fight of the evening, won by Ortiz by the judges decision.

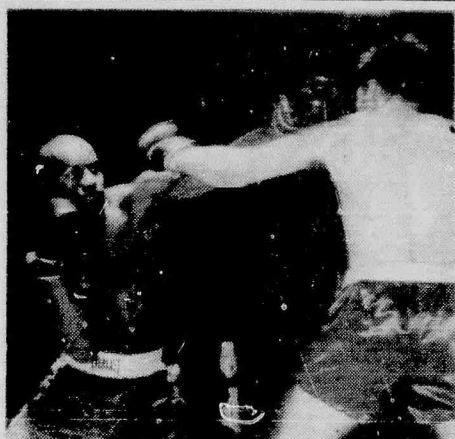

SPECTATORS watch intently from ringside as a pair of fighters battle on the canvas. The charity match netted $4,500 in funds for three charities.

FINAL MATCH between Ray Bryant (left, in both pictures) and Larry Giella capped the evening as the 160-pounders slugged it out. It was a question of reach for a while, and while Bryant landed a few good body shots, Giella finished it with a knockout.

ONLY KO of the evening came when Giella floored Bryant late in the bout. Here referee Danny Sanchez checks out Bryant as a second emerges from the boxer's corner. Bryant recovered soon after with no visible ill effects.

TIMEKEEPERS, who volunteered their own time, were AAU officials who watched over the three-round bouts.

PRESIDENT of the Veteran Boxers Social Club of New Jersey Ernie Ratner happily surveys the crowd from ringside.

BEST BOXER award is presented by Georgie Forrester to Bob Mann, who hails from neighboring Nutley.

U.S. Government Changes Special Milk Program

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) today revised its regulations for the Special Milk Program for Children.

One change makes this Program available only to schools which provide no food service to attending children. Milk is served as a basic component in all meals which are served in schools which do have lunch and breakfast programs.

Another change sets a uniform rate of reimbursement for all participating schools. The maximum rate of reimbursement is 3 cents a half pint, and schools must use these payments to reduce the price of milk to children.

These changes are designed to adjust program expenditures to the level of $25 million that is provided by the Continuing Resolution under which the program is operating the fiscal year 1974.

MARY'S LAMBS — One of the features of Turtle Back Zoo is the area reserved for little ones to pet different kinds of animals and roam freely among them. Here Robert Landolfi, Jim VanHolland, Ronnie Roselli and mother, Diane make the acquaintance of some little lambs, similar perhaps to the famous one who caused so much grief for Mary.

ON NOAH'S ARK — The deck of Noah's Ark is a good place for a good view of the ducks. Pamela VanHolland, chairman of the Youth Department of the club, holds daughter, Kimberley while Timothy Todd stands close by. The children also enjoyed a train ride through the woodland and a look at the Orange Reservoir.

HIDDEN DRUGS

Welcome home to Adelaide Fisher who spent five days at the Kutztown Folk Festival in Pa. She had a wonderful trip and saw many items in the process of being made, such as potato candy, sourkraut, and corn meal mush. Also, Adelaide visited a tiny church with only three pews, where the altar was heaped with fruits and vegetables, signifying a good harvest. At the church, a woman organist played and sang two songs for Adelaide who had made many trips there before with her husband, Bill. The songs "How Great Thou Art" and "In the Garden" were dedicated to Bill's memory.

Upcoming event is the antiques show and sale at the Meadowbrook set for September 7, 8 and 9. The show will be from 1 - 10 on Friday and Saturday, 1 to 6 on Sunday, and is managed by Mike and Natalie Butkus.

CLASS REUNION

Turtle Back Zoo Illustrates Stories

Storybook animals come alive during story hours held twice weekly at Turtle Back Zoo in West Orange.

For the past few summers, the zoo's smaller animals have been acting out parts they played in classic nursery rhymes and story book favorites.

At 2 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday, young zoo visitors and their parents gather on a circle of multicolored benches in a clump of trees next to the baby nursery at Turtle Back.

Here, under the lofty umbrella of the zoo's tall pine trees, the storyteller, Mrs. Lil Dieterle, holds children spellbound with her stories.

The stories are geared for younger children and they have been adapted from fables that are slightly altered so the animals are portrayed in realistic settings and their actions are true to life.

Mrs. Dieterle moves from place to place inside the circle of children, giving each child a chance to touch the animals and to see them under careful guidance, acting out a part in each of the stories.

The story sessions begin each year with the coming of warm weather late in the spring and they continue into the early autumn, as long as the warmer weather holds out.

More than three thousand children were able to see their favorite animal stories acted out last year.

The story sessions are free, but visitors must pay the zoo's price of admission to get inside the 17-acre animal compound.

Turtle Back Zoo, a facility of the Essex County Park Commission, is located off Northfield Avenue in West Orange, just a short drive from anywhere in the New Jersey-New York Metropolitan area.

Come over and see it all happening.

Cohen Named to Group To Aid the Handicapped

Arnold B. Cohen of Bridgewater, a vice president of Rowe International Inc. of Whippany, has been appointed by Governor William T. Cahill to the New Jersey Governor's Committee to Employ the Handicapped.

IT'S NEVER "just another animal story" when Mrs. Lil Dieterle, Turtle Back Zoo's storyteller, uses real live characters, one of several small animals, in this case a Bush Baby, to act out parts in favorite nursery rhymes and stories.

Essex Student's Singing Is Now His Way of Life

For most people singing is something that is done in the shower on Saturday nights, but for Galo Viteri, a music major at Essex County College, singing is a way of life.

Viteri, a resident of 416 Lafayette Street, Newark, has recently returned from a 12 day tour of Puerto Rico, where he participated in an evangelical convention and made three TV appearances on cultural programs featuring religious and classical music. He also appeared as the guest soloist at the American Baptist Convention in Lincoln, Nebraska, May 23-27.

The 34-year old student operatic tenor has had experience in both religious and secular music and his repertoire includes music of great religious, classical and select popular composers in English, Spanish and Italian. "Although I prefer religious music, I have also played the principal roles in such operas as Madam Butterfly, Tosca, and Il Pagliacci," he said.

Viteri, a native of Ecuador, began his singing career in 1956 with a pop music group and appeared several times as a soloist on HCB-TV in Quito. He also appeared as a soloist in the Billy Graham crusades in South America in 1961.

After coming to the United States in 1963, Viteri finished his secondary education at Central Evening High School and began to consider singing as a profession. He became a member of New York City's "Opera Miniatures" and began taking private voice lessons under its director, William L. Pickett. His church and social engagements have taken Viteri along most of the eastern coast, through the Midwest and to Mexico, as well as Puerto Rico.

From Essex County College, Viteri will transfer to Rutgers, Newark, to acquire his baccalaureate degree in music; he then hopes to attend the Julliard School of Music in New York City.

Studies show that even a healthy person will soon begin to feel the effects of failing to get the proper amount of rest and sleep. If he continues to lose sleep, he will begin to lose his healthy good looks, his posture may suffer, and his disposition may change for the worse. When a person does not sleep properly, his resistance to disease may be lowered so that he becomes more susceptible to colds and less able to throw off infection.

If your doctor gives you a prescription to help "throw off" an infection bring it to us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We are Medicare and Blue Cross approved and handle a full line of convalescent aids for rentals and sales. Free prescription delivery. Hours: 9 a.m.-10 p.m. daily, 9 a.m.-9 p.m. Sundays.

Mosquitoes Discriminate, Prefer Feminine Victims

Do mosquitoes prefer biting women rather than men? Research data seem to indicate that this is the case, but a Rutgers graduate student believes that body hair, not sex, is the determining factor.

"When both sexes are unprotected, the women are bitten more often, says Joseph L. Lomax of the Department of Entomology and Economic Zoology, who regularly tests insect repellents every summer with student help.

"But when repellent is applied, the numbers average out to only a little difference. After the repellent wears off, those with the least body hair are usually bitten first and more frequently."

For the entire month of June, Lomax led a group of three boys and three girls, all present or former Rutgers students, on a repellent-testing project in Baxter State Park in Maine. Short and long hair were standard for everyone, and the girls avoided using perfumes, hair sprays or cosmetics that might attract or repel insects.

"The main purpose of the tests was to compare the effectiveness of various repellents," Lomax notes. "We would cover our arms, legs, and faces in the morning, and then under light work conditions such as moderate hiking or chores around the cabins, wait for the repellent to wear off.

"We judged the time from first to fifth bite as partial protection of the more recent preparations went as high as 13."

"In a way I was glad to get bitten," says Mary Schmidt, who graduated from Douglass this year. "It usually meant the end of a long day."

Mary and the other students estimate that their pay averaged out to 36 cents a bite. "No one got rich at this rate," she comments, "but I felt it was definitely a worthwhile experience."

Besides mosquitoes, there was also a black bear to contend with one night as one of the girls came nose to nose with it while testing repellents. She screamed, and the bear fled.

In addition to repellents, the students tested other devices. A gadget now on the market that produces an ultra-high frequency sound was found completely ineffective. But a slow-burning substance (resembling incense) containing the insecticide pyrethrin kept mosquitoes away if used in a campsite or backyard in still air.

Lomax has been leading repellent testing teams for six years, but only recently has he used an equally divided coed team.

Offer 'Sister George' At Summerfun Two

Summerfun Two, the summerstock company at Montclair State College, is currently presenting the comedy/drama, "The Killing of Sister George" at the college's air-conditioned Memorial Auditorium, Upper Montclair, New Jersey. The play runs through Saturday, July 21 at 8:30 p.m.

Written by Frank Marcus and first produced in England in 1965 with Beryl Reid and Eileen Atkins, "The Killing of Sister George" is a unique blend of wit and pathos. The sensitive portrayal of two lonely people's destructive need for one another has both its humorous and ultimate tragic moments.

"The Killing of Sister George" is directed by Sobolik, a veteran of theatre and a member of the faculty of the Department of Speech and Theatre at Montclair State College for the past eight years. He is an accomplished musician and costumer as well as actor and director. His directing credits from Summerfun's first season last summer include "Plaza Suite", "The Lion in Winter" and "The Hostage". "Sherlock Holmes" was his first directorial assignment this season and following the current production he will direct "The Miracle Worker" scheduled from July 31 through August 4.

Summerfun Two will sponsor an art exhibit in conjunction with the production of "The Killing of Sister George". The lobby showing will include paintings and graphics by Rhoda Altman and sculpture by Sally Matticow.

Subsequent Summerfun Two productions will be "Cactus Flower" from July 24 through July 28; and "The Miracle Worker" from July 31 through August 4. Ticket prices are $1.25 for students; $2.50 for standard admission; and $2.00 for senior citizens. Theatre parties and benefit performances may be arranged.

Your HOSPITAL Is ACCREDITED

SUMMER

CLARA MAASS MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
1A FRANKLIN AVE.
BELLEVILLE, N.J. 07109

What ACCREDITATION Means

To be fully accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals is of utmost importance to everyone who has been or will ever be a patient, as well as the entire Clara Maass Memorial Hospital family. The Joint Commission surveys hospitals and other health care institutions, then evaluates them in relation to a well-defined, accepted set of standards necessary to establish and maintain high quality patient care.

Basic principles of physical plant, safety and maintenance, organization and administration of activities pertinent to patient care are emphasized in the Joint Commission survey.

The Board of Trustees is truly proud of the hospital, its medical staff, and entire team of personnel for assisting in maintaining continual quality care for all the patients.

WILLIAM R. HARRIS, President
Board of Trustees

Mrs. Muriel Stutz, R.N., a member of the Accreditation survey team, reviewed the activities of the Social Service Department with its Director, Mrs. Lucille Webb, to insure optimal familiarity and conformity with Community agencies and resources.

The notification of continued Full Accreditation, which we have received from the Joint Commission, reflects the dedication of our hospital staff to their responsibilities as we strive to provide quality patient care.

The Certificate of Accreditation, prominently displayed in the hospital, tells the community that the Board of Trustees, the Personnel and the Medical Staff work together to seek this excellence. It indicates that we have voluntarily requested an appraisal of our performance and have demonstrated substantial conformance with professionally developed and Nationally applied criteria.

ALBIN H. OBERG
Executive Director

A surprise Service Dept. Stutz called Link, R.N., a Han, R.N., for procedures on patient charts.

As part of its survey, the Joint Commission on Accreditation reviews and evaluates the medical staff as well as the hospital. During their last visit to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, these surveyors asked many questions in regard to the medical staff, and reviewed a large number of its written records and reports.

Standards which the Joint Commission have developed pertaining to medical staffs involve the following:

- Requirements for Membership and Privileges; Organization of Medical Staff; Evaluation of Professional Qualifications and Performance; Functions Relating to Patient Care; Medical Staff Meetings; Programs of Continuing Professional Education; Bylaws, Rules and Regulations.

The Medical Staff of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital is extremely pleased that the hospital is full accreditation.

WM. GREIFINGER, M.D.
Medical Director

Nuclear Medicine, a recent breakthrough in medicine diagnosis ulcers and performs study of normal and abnormal functions through the use of various radio nucleides. This relatively new but most important function is explained by Melvin H. Freundlich, M.D., Head of the Nuclear Medicine Dept., and Henry A. Cromwell, M.D., Representative of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

Mrs. Joseph Services M diet proced

Even the Engineering Department includes the Power House and Room, came under close scrutiny. Robert Parinello, Plant Engineer and Joseph F. Sullivan, Assistant, explain preventative maintenance it relates to continuity of

The Joint Commission visited many departments and areas within the hospital when they conducted their survey recently. Their main concerns were . . . Is the hospital providing quality patient care? Is the hospital clean? Is the hospital safe? There are 67 standards set up by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals as criteria in regard to these major items in making a determination for accreditation.

Clara Maass Memorial Hospital was able to show that its primary objective is care, safety and welfare of the PATIENT.

Accreditation is a matter of great pride to the Board of Trustees, Medical Staff and Hospital Personnel — and should be a reassurance to its patients and, to you, the public, that Clara Maass Memorial Hospital is providing good, efficient, safe care for all its patients.

ALBERT DEL NEGRO, M.D.

Henry A. Cromwell, M.D., a second member of the Accreditation survey team, along with Peter Kavanic, M.D. and Frank P. Gradone, M.D. intently examine with Laboratory Supervisor, Leonard Finkel, lab test results. Tests must be made available to the hospital physicians in a minimal amount of time to assist in the diagnostic evaluation of patients.

Dr. William Greifinger, Medical Director (right) and Dr. Joseph Israel, X-ray Department Head, along with Department Supervisor, Margaret Leone, listen to Henry A. Cromwell, M.D. as he summarizes his findings in the Hospital's X-ray Department.

Dr. Henry Campbell gathered members of the Medical Staff together to consult with them on the result of his survey and to discuss Medical Staff policies, procedures and practices.

Your modern medical complex has grown tremendously since moving to Belleville in 1957. In order to finance new construction and to provide your hospital with the latest medical facilities it has been necessary to incur heavy mortgage costs in keeping up with the times.

Each member of the Board of Trustees is a leading citizen of the communities surrounding the hospital who volunteer their time and efforts to provide you with the finest hospital in the area. The recent accreditation clearly denotes excellence in service of facilities. This assurance of quality reflects the dedication of the volunteers, Hospital staff, Medical staff, Guild, Auxiliary and the many friends who serve the hospital.

We know what has happened to the cost-of-living and what affect it has had on individual families but we, too, know what it means to hospital service. Won't you take a minute to consider just how your dollars can drastically help to reduce heavy mortgage costs that has financed construction and equipment to keep up with the times.

Your tax deductible contribution will help immeasurably to reduce this financial obligation and to provide an even better hospital in the future.
