No More Fire Calls For Carl Hundertpfund

A Belleville resident who retires to a home on the Jersey shore after living here for years can take a lot of memories from this town. They may be thoughts of school days, July picnics, Christmas on the Avenue or the annual Belleville-Nutley football clashes at Municipal Stadium. But Carl Hundertpfund, retiring Monday as Fire Chief after 32 years in the Department, will leave here with a different set of memories.

His are of fire and smoke, rescue operations in gas-filled sewer mains, flaming riots in Newark, burning factories, many lives saved — and some lost. He'll remember more calls than he could ever have counted up, calls that took himself and his men from sleep and from meals and put them out on the streets of Belleville, racing to handle emergencies that were major crises in the lives of the victims, and day-to-day assignments for local firefighters.

His memories will go with Chief Hundertpfund and his wife, the former Ruth Ingersoll to a bungalow in Point Pleasant, their summer home they've been working on since the 1930's. The chief will be going off to fish, instead of fight fires, and there won't be any of the rushing of the old days, because his work in Belleville is over now.

And that work has been considerable. Before he even came to the Department in 1938, Hundertpfund had 10 years of service to the Town on the ledger, after working with the Public Works Department, the Police Department, and on WPA projects in the 1930's. In the years before he became a fireman, he got to know the town through its waterworks, streets, sewers and shade trees. This was due to his uncle, Pat Waters, Commissioner of Public Works, who brought Carl Hundertpfund here from his father's farm in Wanamassa. He entered Waters' department in 1928, and also spent four years as a chance-man (a part-time police worker) with an eye to taking a full-time position as a policeman here. But that never came about.

Carl Hundertpfund joined the Fire Department on the flip of a coin.

"Another man, Tom Dunn and myself were chance-man," Hundertpfund told the Times, "and there were positions open for one fireman and one policeman. Well, we both wanted the policeman's job, so we flipped a coin, and I lost. Commissioner George Girard sent me a letter of commission, and I gave it back to him. I didn't want the job.

"Then my Uncle Pat told me, 'Don't be a fool, kid, take the job and after the next election, I can have you transferred to the Police Department.'

"So I worked on the Fire Department for three months and then Uncle Pat asked me if I wanted to be transferred. But I had come to like the job and I told him I wanted to stay on."

That was in 1938. Ten years later, Hundertpfund topped the civil service examination list the first year they were held for Belleville firemen and was made captain. Nine years after that, he became chief of the Department after again topping the civil service list. Carl Hundertpfund, who left school after the seventh grade to work at his father's farm, made

Board to Be Named

Tough Rent Law Introduced To Hold Increases at 5 %

by Ken Moore

The Board of Commissioners Tuesday night introduced a rent leveling ordinance designed to hold increases in Belleville to five percent of the total rent of a tenant for the calendar year. A five member board will be appointed to oversee implementation of the law, which comes up for public hearing at the next Commission meeting April 9.

The proposed ordinance provides that any rent increase for tenants in structures with more than two dwelling units may not exceed five percent of the total rents charged in the preceding calendar year (January 1 to December 31). A landlord may charge more rent up to 15 percent, but such an increase will require the approval of the five-member Rent Leveling Board, charged with implementation of the proposed law.

The bill carries provisions for surcharges which could be made by landlords for capital improvements, and says such improvements must be financed through rent increases permitted by the board.

The ordinance carries penalties of $500 or 90 days imprisonment for violations of its conditions.

The Rent Leveling Board, which will serve without pay, will be charged with informing landlords and tenants of rights and responsibilities, and will be empowered to hold hearings of the landlords and tenants.

The Commission acted after receiving the recommendations of the Rent Advisory Committee proposing the adoption of an ordinance similar to that which is in effect in Bloomfield. However, the Commissioners rejected the use of the Bloomfield model, which is currently being overhauled to break from the use of the rapidly rising Consumer Price Index as a yardstick for rent increases. The Bloomfield law also had provisions allowing landlords to make surcharges for capital improvements, a feature which has been modified in the Belleville ordinance.

Instead, the Belleville Commissioners will use the calendar year as a base figure to compute increases. This will limit landlords to one increase each year, and presumably, any increase in 1974 would have to be within five percent of the total rent charged to a tenant in 1973.

Month-to-month tenant are also included in the ordinance and a landlord asking an increase from such a tenant will be required to give 60 days notice. In the case of tenants under leases, notice must be given 90 days before the expiration of a lease.

All five Commissioners passed the ordinance on first reading, and the bill will become law immediately if it passes on second reading April 9.

We May Have Seen the Last Of the Goodyear Zoning Fight

The grinding battle over the establishment of a Goodyear Tire outlet on the corner of Washington Avenue and William Street may have ended Tuesday, March 19, as the Zoning Board of Adjustment voted 3-2 to deny a variance for its erection.

While applicant for the variance Thomas Fahmie indicated an appeal to Superior Court may be forthcoming, his attorney, Robert Gaccione said this week no final decision has yet been made. Gaccione is awaiting a letter from the Zoners detailing their reasons for the denial. In a move considered rare for the Belleville board, the Zoners declined to enumerate the reasons behind their decision the evening they handed it down to a packed Commission chamber. An eruption of applause from merchants and service station owners objecting to the Goodyear drive broke out when the vote was read.

The Zoning Board's action reversed a 3-2 decision they had made in mid-1973 recommending the passing of the variance. The Town Commission then approved the variance, also by a 3-2 vote.

It was then an ad hoc group of service station owners and merchants hired a lawyer and took the case to the Superior Court, where a judge ruled insufficient testimony had been taken during the hearings and the whole process was begun again.

None of the Zoners changed their votes after the latest set of hearings. Both alternate Al Schmitt and chairman John Stetz voted in favor of granting the variance, and Anthony Laterza voted against.

But since the first hearing, two Zoning Board members — Anthony Agresta and former chairman Arthur DeFuria — had lost their positions after they were not reappointed to their terms by the Commission. Two other members, Kenneth Nash and Aldo Chiarrà sat for the new Goodyear hearings, and both cast "no" votes this time around, thus reversing the earlier decision. Agresta had voted against the tire outlet and DeFuria had supported it.

Gaccione and the objector's

Letter Check Closed

Essex County Prosecutor Joseph P. Lordi announced this week the closing of an investigation into the source of an anonymous letter which accused Belleville Zoning Board members and Commissioners of taking bribes in return for favorable votes on the Goodyear variance request.

"In the absence of any additional information, I'm closing out the files," said Lordi. The identity of the letter-writer had never been established despite aid from "an outside law enforcement agency."

An appeal of the decision must be made within 45 days.

PBA: Beef Up Manpower, Get Rid of Compact Cars

Patrolman's Benevolent Association President Patrick McCabe Tuesday night appealed to the Town Commissioners to increase the police force by 20 men, and take six new compact cars off patrol duty. McCabe said the vehicles were "substandard" for emergency use.

His requests, made in behalf of the PBA membership, came immediately after Silver Lake shopkeeper Joseph Raimo submitted a petition from Lake merchants and residents demanding foot-patrolmen be assigned to that area, plagued by a rash of holdups, muggings, fights and stealing.

McCabe said the force is now operating with 36 patrolmen who are "spread pretty thin" in protecting the town. He predicted unless Belleville acts now to recruit and train a substantial number of new officers, "we could find ourselves someday with a very inexperienced rookie force."

Commissioner Robert

Laterza said the Department is right now seeking certification from Civil Service of seven new men to bring the force up to its full complement of 84 men. He said he would study the need for adding more men to the force, but added he isn't sure "how much the taxpayers will stand for."

McCabe also scored the purchase of six new Valiants bought to economize on gas during the current shortage. He said several officers ordered to use the cars on patrol have reported difficulties with the cars. "I don't know how the Town Fathers can give us these substandard vehicles," said McCabe.

Laterza stated the cars were bought in December near the peak of the gas shortage. The situation has eased now, he said, and he will consider taking the cars off patrols, "when I feel the time is right."

County Planners Coming Here For Public Discussion Tonight

The public is invited to meet members of the Essex County Planning Board tonight at Town Hall, 8 p.m., when a discussion of site plans and subdivisions will be held to gather information toward the updating of the County master plan.

The talk will be the second in a series of discussions hosted by various municipalities in Essex. In Belleville tonight, the planners will present to the public a series of proposals for changes in the subdivision process.

While the State of New Jersey controls the major processes of subdivision, the County Freeholders could effect minor changes in the process. The Planning Board is seeking public opinion on their proposals and wishes to hear suggestions from citizens.

Some changes call for the addition of some definitions in county regulations. Also, for example, rules for subdivision of land formerly called for two copies of plot plans to be submitted; the rule now is for four. In addition, a chart showing the process of a subdivision application will be on display.

There may also be some discussion of the dedication of land for county highway purposes.

Any subdivision of land in Essex County must first be approved by the Planning Board. In most cases, subdivisions are made in plots of vacant land.

The Planning Board is engaged in a series of ten talks in different towns around Essex County, with Belleville being the second. Other talks will center on storm water and sewerage disposal, county facilities, water and sewers, solid waste, mass transit, housing, environmental quality and land use. All the programs are used to gather information for changes in the comprehensive master plan.

The first program, held at the end of February in Livingston, concerned the highway system and was well attended.

Senior Planner James Petkoski said, "the Planning Board wants to get the viewpoint of the public on some of the proposed changes, and also wants to find out about the desires of the public for other possible changes."

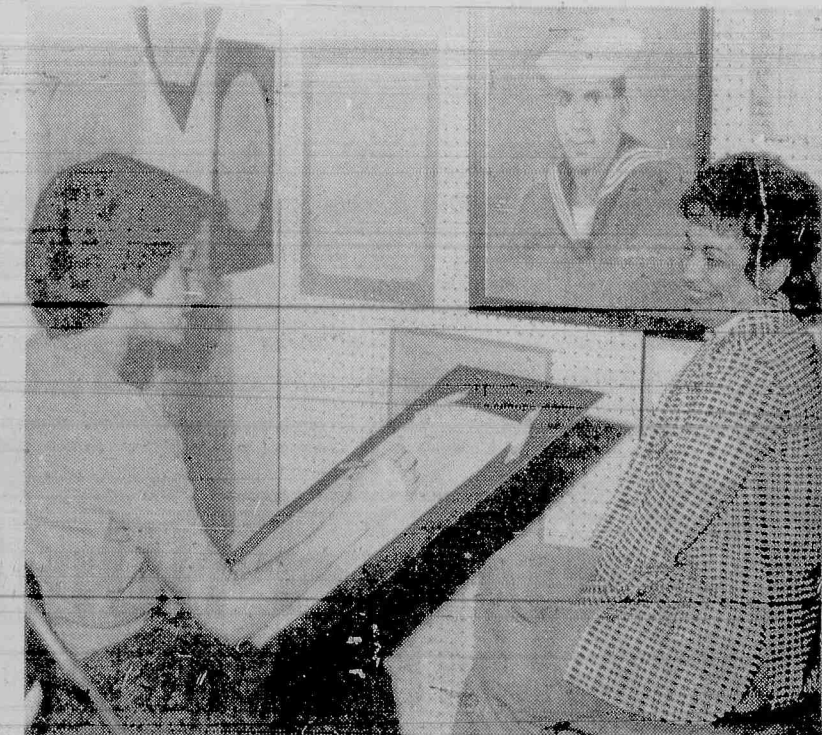

While the Planning Board would make recommendations, said Petkoski, the final determinations would be made by the Board of Freeholders.

The state assumes responsibility for any major changes in site plans and subdivision rules and regulations.

SINGING OUT at Monday night's Art-Music Festival II at Belleville High School is a chorus of elementary schoolchildren led by Miss Carol Copiandie (right). The program featured performances and displays by talented youngsters throughout the Belleville school system.

Measles Vaccination For Pre-Schoolers Set

Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, Director of Public Affairs, announced this week that the Department of Health is planning a measles vaccination program in April. The clinic will be for pre-school children, age 12 months through five years.

The director stated that aside from the fact that measles could be a dangerous disease and that it has reached epidemic proportion in nearby municipalities, measles vaccination is also a requirement for a child's entrance into kindergarten.

Children who have already had old-fashioned measles or have already received the measles vaccine do not need to receive the vaccine. If you are uncertain as to whether your child has already received the measles (rubeola) vaccine, please contact your physician.

The Commissioner urgently requests that you call the health department before April 5 so that they can be prepared to vaccinate all the children requiring it.

At that time, they will give you the date, time, and place. Call 759-2832 between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

The Easter Bunny Is Coming to Town

The Easter Bunny will be coming to Belleville once more this year and will be housed in a trailer in the municipal parking lot next to Town Hall where local children can visit and have pictures taken.

The bunny's arrival is co-sponsored by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce and the Woman's Club of Belleville, E.M.D.

Visiting hours will be as follows: Friday, April 5 to Wednesday, April 10, 10 a.m. to noon, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.; Thursday, April 11 and Friday, April 12, 10 a.m. to noon, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.; Saturday, April 13, 10 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

IMPROVEMENT CAN BE COSTLY

You can make a million mistakes trying to sell your own home. And one of them is making the wrong improvements. Many times, an expensive addition or repair can be the kind of thing that'll cost you far more than you get back.

True, the house should present a favorable appearance — mowed lawn, trimmed shrubs, and no obvious indications of neglect, but it's rare when a large financial understanding will bring more than its cost in the final selling price.

There is always the financial risk of miscalculation too. Home repair costs frequently end up a lot higher than originally anticipated. You may end up with a faster sale and less inconvenience if you lower the selling price an equivalent amount.

Instead of guessing as to how much, if any, repair work to undertake, see a Broker. He can tell you what to do to make your home more salable. And what not to do so you won't lose money.

Hypoglycemia Association States Public Meeting

The next meeting of the newly-formed New Jersey Hypoglycemia Association will be held on Wednesday, April 3 at the First Baptist Church, Church Street, Montclair, at 8:00 P.M. The meeting is open to the public, and anyone who wishes information on hypoglycemia (low blood sugar) is welcome.

now in the process of taking a general survey of all pre-school children within School 5 district. This survey will be known as 'PROJECT CHILD'. (Pre-school child, any child born from 1969 to present day the survey is being conducted.)

The information gained from this survey will eventually be given to our state legislators to guide them in providing more financial aid to the schools. The survey will use questionnaires to obtain desired information.

Questionnaires cannot be sent home with school children. Therefore, classroom mothers will have tables in the basement corridors to distribute questionnaires and also give directions for completing and returning them. The classroom mothers will be telephoning, or verbally asking parents to pick the questionnaires up at the school on the following scheduled dates:

Monday, Wednesday and Friday, Apr. 1, 3 and 5, 12:30 to 3:15 p.m. and Tuesday and Thursday, April 2 and 4, 2 to 3 p.m.

Youths Robbed Of Watch

Three youths were stopped by a man demanding money and apparently wielding a handgun Saturday night near St. Anthony's School in Silver Lake.

No one was injured in the incident, which saw the suspect flee the scene after gaining only an inexpensive wristwatch from the three boys, aged about 13.

The trio was walking on Honiss Street at 9:30 p.m. when approached by a ski-masked suspect who demanded money and displayed an object that appeared to be a handgun. None of the boys was carrying cash and the thief took a watch from one.

Cherry Blossom Plans in Making

Impeachment

There is an ongoing effort to bring pressure on the Congress of the United States to impeach President Richard M. Nixon.

We believe this effort is unfair and alien to the judicial proceedings of our democratic form of government.

The House Judiciary Committee at this very moment is sifting evidence to determine whether or not allegations against President Nixon are of such a nature to warrant impeachment. The House Judiciary Committee is sitting much like a grand jury considering an indictment.

Imagine the outcry from the great liberals of our country should anyone attempt to tamper with a grand jury considering the indictment of any individual.

The "Get Nixon Now" people are among those who shout the loudest for protection under the provisions of our Constitution and Bill of Rights.

Despite Watergate, America remains America. We are still a free nation. We continue to be a nation governed by law and not by man.

We believe common decency and fair play require all citizens to keep their silence while the House Judiciary Committee considers the evidence against Nixon. Impeachment is a semi-judicial procedure and out of respect for the institutions which liberals claim to defend it is important each of us accord to President Nixon the same rights we expect for ourselves.

Sure, all of us have read many stories about alleged crimes committed by Nixon and/or his cronies. The fact still remains no responsible body has come forth with evidence that would find Nixon guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Missing tapes, altered tapes, other missing evidence, lying witnesses — they all have their place in the public mind when each of us in his own way passes judgement upon the innocence or guilt of Nixon. However an individual's opinion concerning the guilt or innocence of Nixon is no substitute for the findings of the House Judiciary Committee.

To ask Nixon to resign the Presidency today is wrong. Let the impeachment process proceed. The public record is replete with evidence that every President of the United States in this century, at one time or another, has resorted to half truths, lies and misrepresentations but only Nixon is being asked to resign, be thrown out of office or be thrown into jail.

We don't think any public official — least of all a President of the United States should resort to half truths, lies and misrepresentations while performing his public duty. However we are not about to join the lynch Nixon mob while the House Judiciary Committee very properly is carefully weighing evidence leading to impeachment or dismissal of charges against the President of the United States.

Downtown Is Dead?

Local residents usually refer to downtown as the Town Hall shopping area on Washington Avenue. Since the major supermarkets have moved off the avenue and out of town (except for one) almost every week one hears that "Downtown is Dead."

Downtown may very well be dead — dead that is in terms of a thriving business community. Most assuredly when supermarkets shutter their doors, anywhere from 3,000 to 8,000 people are turned off from the area and consequently there is a reduction in pedestrian traffic which translates itself to lower sales volume for the remaining stores on the street. In order for downtown Belleville to experience a rebirth something more than just talk and occasional letters is required to bring about a rejuvenation of the area.

Innovative planning which may require special legislation is the only natural course available to remove the figurative tombstones which many Bellevillites visualize when they think of the Town Hall-Washington Avenue shopping area.

The "street" includes some excellent merchandisers and a few Rip Van Winkles — but then there is no community without its own Rip Van Winkles.

We think the time is long overdue when Washington Avenue needs a sort of shaping up — a rebirth if you will — and just criticizing an existing situation is no solution to a problem.

We have ideas calculated to give southeast Belleville a new lease on life. In forthcoming issues of the Belleville Times-News we will present our own plan for a revitalization of an area which holds many natural advantages and should be among the most prosperous in this metropolitan area.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

It is a little belated, but just a reminder that those alternate side of the street regulations, suspended throughout the Winter months, are now being rigidly enforced so that the Public Works Department may better keep our streets clean and tidy. That big well trimmed motorcycle officer Alex Freda sure covers a lot of territory. He don't like to give out those tickets, but it's his job, so why not make it easier on him and yourself. Observe the regulations posted.

It appears that the New Jersey Bar group is a rather contentious assemblage, as one gathers from reports of their recent convocation; They almost always find time to inject political consideration into their discussions, especially concerning judgeships which for the most part seems to be the most coveted designation sought by lawyer, unless they are fortunate enough to become Governors, as so many have.

Now, with a strong filip from Governor Byrne himself a lawyer and former Superior Court Judge, they are angling to bar the time honored practice of Senatorial Courtesy, a gimmick whereby a senator may prevent the appointment of the Governor's designee for a position on the Bench by proclaiming him "personally obnoxious," in the event he should hair from his senatorial district... and the senator don't like the appointee. Small wonder Governor would like to abolish the practice.

Another subject favorite of the Court administrators in their endless effort to destroy local "home rule" which empowers local governing bodies to name municipal judges. The big-ahots want to run the whole show which isn't always good.

There is much merit in preserving local appointment of judges. They know their community, its people and the more so the area. Both our neighbor to the North, Nutley, as well as Belleville have been honored by two fine, honest and capable jurists in the persons of Edwin Joerg and Edward Abromson who have an exemplary record on the Bench, having served their towns commendably for over 25 years in each instance. Why don't the hot shot, big administrators at the top leave good enough alone?

What in blazes is going on at town hall Mayor? First Jimmy Byrne gets "shafted," now it looks like good old "Cappy" Barnett is getting his head put in a noose. You must have had the legal brains up all night burning the midnight oil to find that provision, under title 40A: 9-135, to create the position of Deputy Municipal Clerk who will be permitted to do Cappy's authorization duties, in his absence or disability. Seems like some sort of "stripping" of his powers. Cappy has always done a great job as Town Clerk. Everyone likes the way he does his work and he is well liked. I don't think his legions of friends will like this move Mayor. Coming so soon after Paddy's Day especially. Forgetting the clan Mayor?

'The Dissolution Of Society'

A prominent criminal attorney who practices law in Miami, Florida copyrighted a book on March 30, 1968 entitled "The Dissolution of Society." His name is Jack R. Nageley, best known for his defense of Murph the Surf, the former lifeguard who stole millions of dollars of jewels at the Metropolitan Museum. Nageley only printed two copies of his book. The second volume was a gift to the book's illustrator, Philip V. Cuoco, Jackie Gleason's art director.

"Dissolution of Society" is an amazing prediction of events which have occurred between 1968 and the present writing. The table of contents include self-explanatory chapter titles — "The Dawn of Reality," "The Philosophy of Dissolution," "Social Entropy," "The Breakdown of Authority," "The End of an Illusion," "The Emergence of Anarchy," "The Apostles of Anarchy," "Recognition."

Writing profoundly in the chapter "Emergence of Anarchy" Nageley writes, "Human enterprise has now brought man to a condition where the agency of society cannot fulfill its original function — the preservation of order. Thus, human development has no alternative but to evolve to a state of anarchy," Nageley proclaims, "Anarchy is necessary to the condition of the times because every member of human society is being subjected to greater-and-greater oppression. The individual is being stripped of his liberties in order to preserve a society which is becoming defunct. . . Mankind is seething. It is jammed together under the atmosphere of earth. Law-abiding persons are being tortured and pillaged by criminal persons. Proponents of violence openly flout authority. Minority factions are overwhelmingly majority factions. Crime is rampant. Racial violence is shocking. Society is powerless. Anarchy offers escape."

Nageley's book consists of 88 easy-to-read pages which include our pages of illustrations. We believe a reading of Nageley's "Dissolution of Society" may help readers understand our changing times and future prospects with a clairvoyant perception.

What will the world be ten years from now? Nageley thinks he knows. With the author's permission "Dissolution of Society" will be serialized in this newspaper commencing next week. We believe "Dissolution of Society" is one of the greatest works of its kind. It certainly turned us on.

Speak Up!

Refutes Writer Who Defended Nixon Policies

To the editor,

The following is in reply to the March 14, 1974 letter from Albert Guglicelli who said that Mr. Nixon is a fall guy. How can he make such an absurd statement?

From the beginning of his Presidency, Mr. Nixon has made a mockery of that office. Much turmoil has presided in his administration. You failed to mention how Mr. Nixon proceeded to fire nearly one-hundred fifty of his appointees while being our President. Most of those resignations were formalities to save face, as is practiced in most organizations. He fired Mr. Cox when he became too knowledgeable of the President's activities. His cabinet has been a game of musical chairs, with most members stating much difficulty in speaking directly to the President. When you mention he has no control over state or county taxes, he does however, appoint puppets through the world.

You speak of ending the war. The war goes on day after day although our boys are home. You failed to mention that Mr. Kissinger did all the work. You also fail to mention that this year the defense budget is the largest in history. If his foreign policy is so great then why the Arab oil embargo, the real scapegoat of the energy crisis? Being the right thing, in the right place, at the right time, the embargo enabled the oil companies to raise prices and create a shortage which I agree with you is contrived. However, you fail to mention that the oil companies made huge, illegal contributions to the Committee to Re-elect the President. Their hands are in each others pockets. The oil companies talk about high costs of research, but fail to mention that in preceding years they spent more on advertising, let alone contributions.

If Nixon (pronounced Nixxon) is so great, why did he not demand all oil company records immediately? That would ruin the scandal. Rather he fired Mr. Love (remember him) and put in puppet Simon. I assume his salary is being paid by Exxon the world's largest corporation. The price of gas is up and so are the green flags, the embargo is about to be lifted, and if you recall as quickly as those lines appeared, they disappeared!

You mention your confidence in Nixon but contradict yourself by saying the crisis is a phony. Our President says it is real. Simple Simon says it is here for ten years (so does Exxon, what a coincidence). Our budget director Mr. Roy Ashe says it will soon be over. Mr. Simon says "keep your cotton pickin' hands off of energy matters."

Mr. Nixon's administration has had more secrecy than any other in history. He has used dirty tricks, Watergate, the Ellsberg breakin, the cover up, etc. to play games on "we the people's" minds. You say his income tax returns were legal? Then why is the IRS doing a tax evasion check right now? Don't forget dear Mr. Agnew.

Why is Mr. Nixon holding back so many tapes and documents? Why the eighteen minute erasure? Why does he want the White House to make impeachment guidelines when the CONSTITUTION states it is up to the House to impeach and the Senate to convict. (Right now the House Judiciary Comm. is considering subpoenaing Presidential documents and tapes). If Mr. Nixon was unaware of the cover up, then he is too stupid to be the leader of two-hundred million Americans. He was as close to Mr. Haldeman, Mr. Ehrlichman, Mr. Colson, and Mr. Mitchell (all under Federal indictment) as you are to your family. How could he not know?

I don't think Mr. Nixon needs our support, I think he needs to be impeached (indicted) and convicted (removed from office) or he should resign. He has made a travesty out of the White House and the Presidency. We need someone we can look up to, believe in, and respect. Not a criminal who is waiting due process of the law, more commonly known as red tape.

He can have his Phases, which may be the real reason for an oncoming recession or depression. He destroyed many good domestic programs and has done absolutely nothing to stop the exporting of crude oil, while we need it here on the homefront. His days are numbered and I, as many others, cannot wait for the countdown.

One final question, Mr. Guglicelli, if someone broke into your home, stole your car, or even murdered someone close to you, would you consider forgetting the crime and giving that criminal your vote of confidence? Think about it!

April, 1917

In 1917, as some remember, President Woodrow Wilson asked Congress — on the 2nd — to declare that war existed between this nation and Germany. On the 6th Congress met in special session and declared war to exist; this sealed the fate of the German monarchy.

Wilson acted because the German Imperial Government had served notice on all nations earlier that it would enforce a total blockade of England and all ports in western Europe controlled by the Allies. Had that blockade succeeded the Central powers would have won the carnage that was the First World War. Russia had surrendered to them in 1917.

It was Germany's last chance to win, and she took it. But unrestricted submarine warfare so repulsed the U.S. public a wave of sentiment against Germany swept the country; America's young men enthusiastically went off to war to make the world safe for democracy. Over fifty years later the world is still not safe for democracy — and the Germany produced by the defeat of 1918 turned out to be much more destructive and tragic than the Kaiser's Germany.

Sen. Case Reports

Rejuvenation Of State's Railroads Is Of Interest To Residents Here

By Sen. Clifford Case

NEW JERSEY and its people have vital interest in the plan of the U. S. Department of Transportation to reorganize bankrupt railroads operating in our state and region.

The reorganization was mandated by a law Congress passed late last year. I voted for the law because it then appeared to offer the best available chance of preserving essential rail services.

The bill provides for a two-year planning process leading up to development of a final plan which will be subject to congressional approval.

THE FIRST STEP in the process is a study by the U. S. Department of Transportation of rail service in the Northeast region. DOT's study is supposed to make recommendations for service over long distances and short.

The DOT report which came out in February is most disturbing. It recommends elimination of thousands of miles of track in the Northeast and Midwest. In New Jersey's case, DOT concludes that 300 miles of our rail lines are "excess" to the needs of the propoed system.

Under DOT's reasoning these cuts, aimed principally at freight services, will assure a rail system that eventually could earn a profit.

WHILE THE SYSTEM envisioned might be economically self-sufficient, it will not provide the service contemplated by the reorganization law and required for the populous, highly industrialized region we live in.

In reviewing the DOT study I found little specific information to support its conclusions. Aside from citing generalized criteria based on freight car movements, the study does not indicate how DOT decided that one New Jersey line is worth saving but that another one is not.

THE STUDY ALSO did not say what is to become of rail passenger services which use so-called "excess" lines.

For a state as heavily dependent on rail service as New Jersey, this simply is not acceptable. Full information on the DOT proposals is essential for proper evaluation.

I have asked for written explanations on several occasions, but to date none has been forthcoming.

While DOT drags its feet, the Interstate Commerce Commission is moving, as required by law, to gather public comment on the Department's study.

At my insistence, the ICC recently held four days of hearings at the State Labor and Industry Building in Trenton to give our people a chance to air their views on the DOT's study.

THE HEARINGS, I am glad to report, were well attended, with more than 130 witnesses from government, industry and the environmental and public interest fields on hand to testify.

The most telling testimony, I believe, was that which cited specific examples of rail usage in all parts of the state to challenge DOT's findings.

For example, the DOT recommends "excessing" the Black River and Western Railroad which operates between Lambertville and Flemington. It was pointed out, however, that this small road not only is making a profit but is experiencing a growth in business.

On rail passenger service, a DOT recommendation would eliminate the southern end of the New York & Long Branch railroad between Bradley Beach and Bay Head. However, during the hearings our New Jersey Commissioner of Transportation testified that this segment had high priority for upgrading.

A NUMBER of witnesses also pointed out that their raw materials or finished products could only be handled by rail, and that resort to trucks would be more costly both in economic and environmental terms. And there were warnings that implementation of the DOT recommendations could lead to plant relocations or closings, with attendant unemployment.

I am against abandonments of passenger service in our state, as I said in my statement delivered at the ICC hearings.

I believe the DOT study is arbitrary, and the ICC's Office of Public Counsel agrees with me.

THE NEXT STEP is for the U.S. Railway Association, a non-profit corporation established by the reorganization law, to develop a preliminary plan of the new system. I urge the Association to disregard the DOT study and to start fresh.

He was assisted by the genial Nick Gaecione and John Dougherty. Carpel's brother-in-law, Keeping it in the family, John Carpel's sister, Sally Dougherty, was the hat-check girl for the evening. It was a real rainy night, but the policemen's wives and girlfriends that came to the ball didn't get wet, as the Manor arranged for Anthony Nicosia to meet each car that drove up to the door and Anthony escorted the ladies to the restaurant with the assist of an umbrella.

CALLING ALL KIDS — the Sabre Cadet drum and Bell Corps welcomes new members. They attend all kinds of competitions in marching and music around the state and New York. Check the Bulletin Board for meeting times and places. Recently the Sabres were honored for the second time, as they appeared in the New York St. Patrick's Day Parade and on Channel 11, 39 youngsters marched that rainy day with chaperones Barbara Welter, Carol Nendze Kathy Swinarski, and Walter Price. Ray Kinsley is the director and Ernie Welter, the instructor. Both boys and girls are welcome to join. For example, the Fifth Annual Cavalcade of Colors sponsored by the Sabres will be held Sunday March 31. Understand the Mayor and all commissioners will be on hand to present trophies to the winning color guard units. On May 4th, a Square dance will be held at Jackson's Auditorium in Harrison for $6/person — all the good you can eat, and all the beer you can drink. Fund raising activities are important to the group, as it helps them take the youngsters to all the various activities around. Busy kids are happy kids. REMEMBER last year when the Veteran Boxers Social Club of Northern New Jersey Inc. held a 'Golden Gloves' bout at BHS? Well, get set, 'cause these active men are ready to sponsor some more events, the first of which will again be a New York vs New Jersey Golden Gloves fight at BHS on April 26th, watch the bulletin board.

Congratulations are in order for Emil W. Nardachone who graduated from Rutgers University, New Brunswick in 1968, then Seton Hall University School of Law in 1973. Nardachone just began work as an attorney for the Newark Housing Authority and has a private law practice at his home, 275 Union Avenue. While attending Law School, he was employed as a probation officer for the Essex County Probation Department. Emil and his wife Annabel have two children — Jon, 4 years old and Jason, 1 year old. Good luck.

My family and I have been attending Lenten Breakfasts at, Fews Smith Presbyterian Church and I have been quite impressed with the ladies and men who work behind the scenes to put these great breakfasts on. Mrs. Lil Metcalfe and Mary Patterson do the shopping, then on Monday afternoons the group called the Twigs meet at the church. They are volunteers for the Presbyterian Hospital, and prepare handcraft items. During Lent, this same group sets the tables for the breakfast — they are: Jessie Laytham, Elsie Reeves, Grace Orth, Bernice Taggart, Margaret Dahlquist, Betty Mauer, Mary Clue, Dot Larrar, Nancy Patterson. After setting tables, they then have their workshop meeting for the hospital. At 5 a.m. on Wednesday, Nancy and Tom Patterson pick up Lil and Bob Metcalfe so they can head to the Church and dish out goodies. Tom takes care of the potatoes with the help of young Brenda Daniels. Beulah Goodenough arrives and helps with the eggs. Then there's orange juice, coffee, toast to be made. More helpers are: Jessie Leybel and Kathleen Cawthorne, Elsie Reeves and Muriel Hamilton. The cleanup who only has about an hour to clean up the Church hall include Casey Conklin, Mary and Bill Kelly, Jessie Laytham, Elsie Reeves, Marge Mollins, Florence Polk, Bill Dorival, Harold Ross, Jim Dahlquist, Bob Metcalfe, Beulah Goodenough and Ruth Hollingworth. All work together tremendously to do a fantastic job. I'm gals to tell Fews Smith Church will have a card party, Friday, April 19th — tickets $2.

Business Spotlight

Richard's Clothes Line Offers Fashion Array

27 King Street used to house a cement mixer, conveyor, and block machine. Today it is the home of Richard's Clothes Line, featuring women's and men's sportswear. Touring the smart, petite salon with owner Richard Luzzi and viewing the artistically arrayed fashions, it is difficult to imagine the cement mixer that his dad used to use in the building before Rich took it over, and with friends painted, painted and created the intimate salon.

Richard and his wife Annette, travel to New York about every three weeks, to bring back the latest in fashions, which they can offer at a lower price for the woman who wants to be smartly dressed on a small budget. There are many brand name items in the shop. As for the men's fashions, Richard is phasing them out and will concentrate solely on women's apparel. There's a great opportunity now to purchase men's items in stock and Richard will continue to take orders for some men's items.

Richard's Clothes Line welcomes your BankAmericard and they also have a lay-away plan. There are also accessories — belts, pocketbooks and shoes. One selling point is the great turnover the boutique offers and if there is a special outfit you're interested in and the Clothes Line doesn't have it — Richard will get it!

Richard (son of James and Augusta) and his wife Annette (daughter of Mildred Cleffi of Hackensack) have three children — Renee and Janine — who were cheerleaders at the recent big basketball game and son Richard, Jr. Renee attends school. Five, Janine goes to the White Owl Nursery and Richard "takes care of his mother".

The salon is open weekly, 11-9 and Saturdays 11 - 6.

The address is 27 King Street and Richard's Clothes Line welcomes you to a new experience in shopping for fashions.

Jaycees Welcome Sparkling Personality

6 New Members

The Belleville Jaycees welcomed six new members at a St. Patrick's Day party March 16 at the Princeton Bowl.

Following a brief orientation, Joseph Doyle, Jaycee president, announced the new members are George Riepe, Gerard Walsh, Thomas Perezluha, Steve Andrascik, Robert Chriso and Fred McCoul.

These men are interested in the varied community programs the Jaycees offer, Doyle stated, "With a busy schedule ahead in the next few months, they will be involved right away. We are very pleased to have them with us."

On tap next for the Jaycees is a Junior Bowling Tournament for junior and senior high school students on April 6, 4 p.m., at Brunswick Olympic Lanes on Washington Avenue.

Applications and information on the tournament are now being circulated. Further details are available from the Jaycees at P.O. Box 62, Belleville, N.J., 07109.

The Jaycees are also back into the picture with the Cherry Blossom Parade. In recent years a volunteer committee coordinated the event. This was a tradition started by the Jaycee chapter preceding the current one. Doyle noted, "We are very proud to be associated with an activity everyone in Belleville happily anticipates each year."

Miss Bonnie Berkowitz Is Renaissance Girl

Today's teens have their eye on the future and the present in the palm of their hands — if they work at it, as does our personality this week, Miss Bonnie Berkowitz, daughter of Joseph and Betty. Feeling that a young man or woman on the threshold of adulthood should "first be responsible for themselves", the Belleville High School Senior went on to say respect for, and commitment to, the community, would naturally follow.

In the ninth grade, Bonnie was editor of the yearbook and involved in musical activities. At BHS, she is in the orchestra, where she is concert mistress and first violinist, the Band, Chorus, Wind Ensemble and Madrigal Singers. Bonnie has been playing the violin since second grade and, in the band, plays the glockenspiel. In the Wind Ensemble, she plays the xylophone and when she sings, it is soprano. She traveled to Bermuda with the band, "really enjoyed traveling" and when the Chorus goes to Washington D.C., she will have a solo.

After that the orchestra will visit Rhode Island, the seniors will have a class trip to the Poconos and the Band will visit Williamsburg, Va. It's a good thing Bonnie enjoys traveling. Oh, yes, for her own enjoyment, she plays the guitar. When asked if she inherited her love of Music, Bonnie said her father, a manager for Karl's Appliances, plays the clarinet, her older sister Ilene, a medical technician, plays the piano and mom plays the typewriter, as a medical secretary at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Another hat this talented and busy young lady wears is that of a budding artist. She was accepted at Ramapo College of New Jersey on the basis of the portfolio of art she submitted which included some intriguing scratchboard, pen and ink and water color techniques. She also does profiles, portraits and stills in oils and, a mural she painted of Moses will grace the halls of Belleville Senior High. During the Music and Art Festival, she had many portraits and stills exhibited and painted profiles of visitors. Also, since all the music groups participated, the 17-year old miss was found hopping from one end of the stage to another, to appear in each group. She has studied with one of Belleville's foremost artists, Mrs. Carol Yudin. Bonnie hopes to major in Art and minor in Music.

Other activities Miss Berkowitz has enjoyed include the supporting role of

"Bonnie" in "Anything Goes" where she sang two songs, being a track statistician at BHS, sewing all her own clothes, crochet and needlepoint, which she says she just "picked up" from watching her mother and sister. She also collects dolls from all over the world and is looking forward to her second summer working at the Westmount Country Club in West Paterson.

FBLA Members Compete In 5 Business Categories

by Lynda O'Connell

On Saturday, March 2, the regional contest for the Future Business Leaders took place at Berkely Business school in East Orange. Ten girls from the Belleville Senior High School business club entered the program. The girls competed in such categories as stenography, bookkeeping, clerical practice, business english, and Miss FBLA.

Lettie Leone, the president, won 1st place for Senior stenographers. Jeanne Dobrowolski won honors in the senior clerk-typist category, and Mary Moriello came up with second place in this field. Maria Oleartchick was tested for her ability in clerical practice and thus received honors. Karen Mellick, competing in clerical practice, won second place.

There was no regional contest for advanced bookkeeping, however. Ellen Lewis and Patricia Bonkowski will compete in this event on March 29, 1974 in the Atlantic City State Leadership Conference.

Lettie Leone and Jeanne Dobrowolski, both seniors at BHS, received honors in the Miss FBLA contest. The girls are now required to present a portfolio on themselves, and will be further tested for general knowledge of business english and math, their acquired skill in stenography, also for their personal appearance and grooming.

Four girls who met the requirements and were entered in the competition at Berkely, but did not receive any honors were Leslie Norton, Jackie Saratelli, Linda Duetch, and Maria Calabrese.

Wind Ensemble Visits Belleville

by John Horutz

William Paterson College treated Belleville High music students to a special presentation of their wind ensemble, on Thursday, March 14 at Belleville High School auditorium.

Conducted by Dr. Woodworth, a professor of music at the college, and presented by Dr. Foley, the ensemble included members of the faculty as well as students of William Paterson College.

The students who were present were enthralled by the professional sound of the wind ensemble as they played such selections as Sirinada, Carnival of Venice, Variations of America, by Charles Ives, and Rhapsody in Blue by the well known George Gershwin. Extra-special highlights included Richard Storey, who played a trumpet solo to Carnival of Venice, and Gary Corpet, a faculty member, who played a piano solo to Rhapsody in Blue.

At the closing of the program, the wind ensemble played A Polka in Feud. Also, the students in the audience were given a chance to ask any questions about how to apply for admissions to the music department of William Paterson College. To sum it up, the whole program was very enjoyable and very informative for the future music students of Belleville High School.

Set Festival Of Teen Arts

New Jersey's new Junior Miss, Donna Alexander of East Orange, will be on hand to greet other talented teenagers at the Essex County Teens Arts Festival on Saturday and Sunday, March 30 and 31. The festival will be held at Montclair State College from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday and 1 to 6 Sunday.

Miss Alexander is a senior at East Orange High School, where she is a member of the National Honor Society, co-chairman of the cheerleaders, and yearbook editor.

Festival participants, representing more than 20 Essex County secondary schools, will have a chance to display their talents in drama, music, dance, visual arts and crafts, creative writing, and film and multi-media. Visual arts entries will be featured on March 30, and the performing arts on March 31.

Three-man panels, composed of a Montclair State professor, an student and an outside authority, will select entries in each category to be presented at the State Teen Arts Festival in Trenton in May.

Local Musicians Serenade Seniors

A four-member group of musicians donated their time and talents to provide entertainment for Belleville senior citizens recently.

The boys, students at Belleville High put together an afternoon of music at the Fountain Restaurant on March 14 for the Belleville Senior Citizens St. Patrick's Day Dinner Dance. In the group were: John Gilbert on piano, Gary Carnevale on trumpet, Ken Wespy on drums and Russ Purdue on bass.

There was a large turnout of senior citizens at the affair, and they reportedly had an entertaining day of music and dance. Belleville High students have often provided music for the events of the Town's senior citizens.

Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, N.J., Inc. will hold its regular monthly dinner meeting at Park Methodist Church, Broad St., Bloomfield at 6:30 p.m., March 28. The speaker for this meeting will be Mrs. Ruth Ballou, Coordinator of the State Division of Consumer Affairs, who will discuss consumer protection.

Tri-Town BPW Scholarship Card Party Committee met at the home of Chairwoman, Miss Margaret Mostica of Nutley, March 21st. Plans were formulated for the Annual Scholarship Card Party to be held at Bloomfield High School on April 27th, at 8 p.m. The theme of the card party is 20th G.A.A. Mrs. John Westcott of Belleville is co-chairwoman for this affair.

Tri-Town BPW has been working diligently with the National and State Federation of BPW Clubs for the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA). Tri-Town BPW, with the majority of the 64 clubs of New Jersey, has pledged $2.00 per member for the ERA fund.

In order for this bill to become part of the United States Constitution, it must be ratified by 38 states. To date, 34 States have taken positive action with 4 more needed for it to become law. Over 3000 individual clubs across the nation are working toward the ERA ratification, concentrating on those states that have failed to ratify or who have not acted on legislation for ratification.

Mrs. Nancy Strassburg, Federation President Elect of New Jersey, who resides in Paramus and is associated with the Hudson Dispatch in Union City, has been a longtime proponent of Equal Rights for Women as is Mrs. Tina Adams, New Jersey Federation President of BPW.

Locally, Tri-Town BPW is also participating in legislative action on behalf of Women.

District 4 Ladies Meet Tomorrow

District No. 4 Ladies Auxiliary to the State of New Jersey, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S. will hold a business meeting on Friday, March 29 at the Campdown A.V. Post Home, #1941-56 Chestnut Avenue, Irvington at 8:30. District President, Mrs. Ronnie Jeanne Daly, Newark, will preside. There will be a brief School of Instruction conducted by Mrs. Ann Petry, Bloomfield, for Flag and Banner Bearer, Color Bearers, Conductress, Chaplain, Musician and assistants for Floor Work at 8:00 p.m.

Progress reports from all chairmen throughout Essex County (Dist. #4) will be given for the period beginning July 1, 1973 to date, and necessary expenditures and donations will be disbursed accordingly.

Mrs. Doris Cunningham, Roseland, Jr. Vice President, in charge of fund raising for Rehabilitation, will conduct three drawings to determine the winners for this cause at this meeting at recess time. Part proceeds are earmarked for donation to the custom bus for the handicapped and wheelchair patients of the Veterans Administration Hospital, East Orange, N.J. with a cost of $50,000.00, to enable these veteran patients to attend off-station parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Isador Padula

Padulas Honored On Anniversary

March 26, 1924, Isadore J. Padula, a young law student, married a Belleville girl, Edith Acquavella. During the half century that followed, the couple raised four children, Joseph, Isadore, Vincent and Edith, all married with families of their own.

More than 150 relatives and friends gathered at Branch Brook Manor, Belleville, on March 23 to offer best wishes for continued health and happiness to the Padulas. Included in the gathering were Joseph and Mary Padula with Joseph and Mary Joe Isadore and Donna Padula with Charles and Elizabeth, Vincent and Frances Padula with Vincent and Gerald, and Edith and Joseph Barakauskas with Brian, Catherine and Edith.

Padula was quite a political factor in Belleville. He was the first candidate of Italian extraction to win a seat on the Town Board of Commissioners and altho he lost his first campaign by the slim margin of 57 votes, he won by a landslide in 1954 and was voted Mayor by the Board. He ran again in 1958 with the same results.

However, in 1962, he rejected the proposed change in government from Commission form to Council Manager, believing firmly that Commission government was best suited to a town like Belleville and refused to run in the new order. In 1962, he was appointed Deputy County Clerk and still serves in that position for Essex County.

Miss Janice Marko

Miss Charlene Monteleone

Janice Marko, Robert Hayes Will Be Wed

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

Shut-In Group Needs Help From Readers

The New Jersey Branch of the Shut-In Society, a National Organization endeavoring to make the life of their Shut-In members more cheerful, has hundreds of names of Shut-Ins members and handicapped people in their membership.

Cards and small gifts mean a great deal to most of these members whose world is so small by being confined to house and wheel chair. Mrs. Margaret B. Hamfeldt, Appeal Chairman would be very happy to send a name or names to anyone or a group who may be interested in sending cards or small gifts at Easter time. You may be sure they will be greatly appreciated.

Please write to Mrs. M.B. Hamfeldt, at 47 Orange Avenue, Irvington, New Jersey 07111 and state how many names you want.

Secretaries Meet; Hear Discussion On Education

The Essex County Educational Secretaries Association held its Spring Meeting March 5th in the cafeteria of Nutley High School.

"Coffee and" was served followed by a short business meeting at 8:00 p.m. The program for the evening was panel discussion on The Education Spectrum and What's Ahead for the Educational Secretary. Panel participants included Arthur F. Schroeder, Jr., Deputy Superintendent of Schools in Glen Ridge, and Richard Mahmarian, past president of the Belleville Board of Education. Association president Mrs. Elizabeth Ely, served as moderator.

Don't Plant Vegetables Near Trees

If you want a lush and productive vegetable garden avoid locating it near trees. Your vegetables will come out second best every time, says William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County.

Trees, especially poplars, that border a garden area will rob the fertilizer and water you've intended for the vegetables. The shade from trees will also dwarf the plants. Vegetables that bear fruit such as tomatoes require full sunlight at least 8 hours a day. Leaf lettuce, spinach and other leafy crops can grow moderately well in partial shade, says Mr. Munk.

If your space is limited you can reduce competition from the trees by digging a trench about 2 feet deep bordering the garden. Cut and remove the tree roots from the garden area and put a piece of sheet metal or heavy roofing paper vertically in the trench. This will prevent the roots from invading the garden.

Moderate root pruning on one side of an established tree should not injure the tree, but avoid severe root pruning. The black walnut tree is a notorious enemy to any garden. A chemical known as juglones is produced by the roots and is certain to kill your plants.

Heart Fund Drive Extended Through Month of March

Mrs. W. Alan Wright, General Campaign Chairman and Joseph Barry, Residential Campaign Chairman announced today that the Heart Fund Drive will be extended for the month of March this year, as weather has kept door-to-door solicitors from proceeding with their work. Many have found contributors are away during the month of February, Heart Month.

In making their announcement, Mrs. Wright and Mr. Barry pointed out that the Heart cause, with its emphasis on research, risk prevention, smoking clinics, and direct service to physicians and nurses, has to continue its great effort to find the money for support at the grass roots level in Essex County.

VFW Favors No Amnesty

At a recent meeting of The Ladies Auxiliary to The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Stuart E. Edgar Post No. 493 of Nutley, Bessie Kohler of 61 Lakeside Drive, Nutley chairlady for legislation made the following report.

The V.F.W. is in favor of No Amnesty and bringing Veterans Day back to November 11. She has written the following four N.J. Legislators in this regard, Sen. Clifford P. Case, Rep. Peter Rodino, Sen. Harrison Williams and Rep. Joseph G. Minish. Three of them have responded in agreement with our stand.

Auxiliary Chairlady for Department for Legislation is Beatrice Wessel.

The next business meeting of Stuart E. Edgar's Ladies Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday, April 9, at 8:00 p.m. at the Post Hall, 271 Washington Avenue, Nutley.

Start Spraying Apple Trees Much Sooner

Many homeowners never think of spraying their one or two apple trees until late summer, if at all. By this time the unsprayed apples are loaded with disease and it's too late to do anything about it, says William F. Munk, senior county agricultural agent of Essex County.

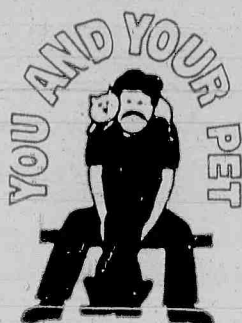

If you are satisfied to have your apple trees for the blossoms and a little shade, then don't worry about sprays.

Unfortunately, the apple tree is subject to a number of fungus disease. Scab and rust disease attack early in the spring. A little later in the season the apples can be infected with fruit blotch, sooty blotch, fruit spot, black pox, and mildew, says Mr. Munk.

All of these disease have periods during which they can infect the immature fruit, leaves, or both.

To avoid another crop of gnarled and wormy fruit, ask your county agricultural agent in your county for a copy of the "Apple and Quince Spray Schedule for New Jersey Home Orchards," and follow the recommendations.

If you're not convinced that spraying is the answer to your problem, spray all but one branch of your apple tree and compare the quality of the fruit at the end of the summer. You'll no doubt find the unsprayed fruit looks wormy and gnarled. On the other hand, the sprayed part of the tree will give you good eating apples plus a lot of satisfaction in knowing you did it yourself.

Pet Surgery

The patient, nine months of age, was scheduled for surgery to correct a defective heart. The surgeons and attendants made a final check of all equipment. The anesthetist gave the sign to begin.

The operation followed the usual course for cardiac surgery — with a few exceptions: the operation was performed at the University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine; the surgeons were veterinarians; and the patient was a fox terrier named Cecil.

Surprised by all this? You shouldn't be.

Veterinarians are in the mainstream of scientific research and technology.

Before America's astronauts left the earth on their space flights, biomedical teams of veterinarians and other scientists conducted extensive tests and simulated flight conditions with animals. These studies measured the effects of anoxia (lack of oxygen), radiation, acceleration, deceleration, weightlessness and other stresses of space travel.

Doctors of veterinary medicine are also involved in aquatic medical research. They study porpoises, whales and other marine mammals to learn their physiological characteristics and to determine how man can use their unique qualities in the exploration and development of the ocean's resources.

Accomplishments by veterinary researchers have resulted in innumerable benefits to human health.

An Air Force veterinarian, Col. Harry A. Gorman, developed an artificial hip for dogs. Working with medical orthopedists, he then successfully adapted the prosthesis to man.

Animal and human diseases aren't as different as you might think. One of the most challenging frontiers in medical research involves the study of animal disease models of human diseases.

Dr. Frank Schofield's research into the cause of sweet clover poisoning in cattle led to the isolation of a potent anticoagulant. The drug, dicumarol, is now used in treating heart disease in humans.

DR. MINOR REGRETS THAT HE IS UNABLE TO PERSONALLY ANSWER LETTERS FROM PET OWNERS. HE SUGGESTS THAT READERS CONSULT THEIR OWN VETERINARIANS WHEN THEIR PETS HAVE PROBLEMS.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Bertram S. Brown, M.D., Director
National Institute of Mental Health

Big Idea

What's the "big idea" in establishing community mental health centers throughout the Nation?

The big idea — a truly important concept — is that mentally ill and emotionally disturbed people do much better if their ties with family, home, and community are maintained.

The large State mental institutions in years past have been able to provide little more than custodial care — often called "warehousing" — for patients who are thus isolated from their homes and familiar communities.

Such confinement has caused deepening and "setting" of the illness for many thousands of unfortunates who might otherwise have been salvaged. The institutions themselves have been powerful environmental factors contributing to the deterioration of their resident patients.

Since passage of the Community Mental Health Centers Act in 1963, the National Institute of Mental Health — a component of the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration of the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare — has supported the establishment of the centers.

A recently published directory shows that Federal grants for construction, staffing, or both, have been made to 540 centers in all 50 States, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the District of Columbia. Of this number 392 are already in operation.

The centers, which serve "catchment areas" of 75,000 to 200,000 population, will make mental health services available to 80 million Americans in (or within reach of) their own communities.

The States have defined 1,500 catchment areas for the whole country where mental health centers are needed. So the idea of these centers is "big" in another sense: we have a long way to go in making community mental health services available to every American who may need them.

Funds for the centers come from a variety of sources. Of the centers funded by the Federal Government, less than one-fourth of the total support for their operation comes in the form of grants under the Community Mental Health Centers Act.

The funding picture is not clear for the years ahead as we struggle to achieve the goal of 1,500 community mental health centers. The balance of Federal vs. State and local funds will ultimately be determined by the political process; and that is as it should be.

Firmly believe that the American political process will ensure that no matter how the balance shifts, so long as the needs are real and articulated, the needs will be met.

Fish And Chips Next Friday At Franklin

The Women's Guild of Franklin Reformed Church will sponsor a Fish and Chip dinner at the Community House on Friday, April 5.

Servings are from 5:30 to 7 p.m. with take-outs from 5 to 5:30 p.m. Tickets are $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12 years.

Troop 906 Makes Plans For Spring

Troop 906 of Belleville is doing many interesting things. We are going camping to Madeleine Mulford Camp in the Pocono Mts. in March and in April and May to South Mountain Reservation in South Orange. We are also planning a three-day trip to Washington, D.C. in April.

Besides taking trips, Troop 906 is busy with badge requirements. Our troop leader is Mrs. A. Pallito.

Gold Star Mothers Will Conduct Rites, Place Flowers

President Nixon has proclaimed Friday, March 29 as Vietnam Veterans Day. This will be a day set aside to pay tribute to all veterans of the Vietnam War, living and deceased as well as to remember the many who are still listed as Missing In Action.

The Bloomfield Chapter of the Gold Star Mothers will conduct brief memorials and place flowers at the Memorials in Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield on this date. The time will be 5:30 p.m. at the memorial on Union Avenue in Belleville and representatives of all veterans organizations as well as the public are invited to join with the Gold Star Mothers in this remembrance. Plants will also be placed at 5:00 p.m. at the memorial in front of the Nutley Town Hall and at 6:30 p.m. at Civic Center on Broad Street in Bloomfield.

Auxiliary Plans Testimonial Fete For Mrs. Daly

The Ladies Auxiliary of District No. 4 Veterans of Foreign Wars to the State of New Jersey will honor their President, Mrs. Ronnie Jeanne Daly, Newark, with a Testimonial Dinner and Dance on Saturday, April 6 at the Cedar Grove V.F.W. Post Home No. 6255, 970 Pompton Avenue, Cedar Grove at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Parker Myron Roseland, is Dinner Chairman. Miss Eileen Redding, Dover, State Sr. Vice President will be guest speaker and Mrs. Joseph Giesen, Newark, will be toastmistress.

Mrs. Daly joined the Connelly V.F.W. Post #461 Ladies Auxiliary in 1944 through the service of her father, the late Charles McBride, who served overseas in France with the U.S. Army, and is a Past President of her unit.

Junior Amvets Enjoy Tour Of Submarine

The Junior Amvets Post #30 Nutley, took a trip recently to visit a submarine that is now located in Hackensack on the Hackensack River. They were taken aboard and shown how the Submarine was operated, by the staff member who was responsible for the sub's being there.

Juniors Enter Drama Tourney

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville performed in its first theatrical venture March 15 at the Jersey City Woman's Club. In addition to Belleville, Nutley, Westfield, and Tenafly Juniors participated in this year's Drama Tournament sponsored by the Junior Membership of the New Jersey Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Belleville Juniors presented a play entitled "The Amazing Arabella" which starred Mrs. Mary Weitz as Arabella, Mrs. Felix Forlenza, Mrs. Jesse Todd, Mrs. Robert Landolfi, and Mrs. Joseph Doyle were also in the cast. Miss Jeanne Benedetto was in charge of scenery and makeup. Cathy Mc Nally was prompter; and Mrs. Nicholas Landolfi was stage manager. Miss Joan Luisi, Drama Chairman of the Belleville Juniors' Drama Department, was Director; and Mrs. Robert McGough was Co-Director.

The Club won an award for the most advanced ticket sales and having gotten their feet wet, are anxiously looking forward to next year's Drama Tournament.

Hospital Party At Menlo Park Coming Up

The Ladies Auxiliary to The Veterans of Foreign Wars to Stuart E. Edgar Post No. 493 will hold a hospital party for the aged veterans at Menlo Park on April 29. Organizing this will be Augusta Frotton of 82 Stager Street, Nutley. The men of the post will also be aiding with this affair.

There will be prizes for each win in the games and refreshments. Special refreshments will be brought for the diabetics. Prizes and refreshments to be furnished by the Post and Auxiliary.

Statewide auxiliaries participate in this type of party all through the year. State Hospital Coordinator and V.A. V.S. is Betty Huston.

Hundertpfund Ends Years of Service

it to the top of the Belleville department through careful attention to his job, especially details which later came in handy.

"When I came on the Department, it was kind of a clannish affair at times," he said. "The individual drivers wouldn't even let anyone sit in the front seat of a truck without being asked first. I'd spend my time pretending to be polishing the chassis of the vehicles, but all the time I was studying them."

That self-education paid off later. There was once a 10,000 watt generator the Town Recreation Department had in storage after it had been given to the Town by the government for civil defense purposes. Hundertpfund took a look at it in the shed where it had lain for 12 years gathering dust. "I was able to lean it up and get it running. We had an old coal truck, and we stripped that down, took the body off, and mounted the generator with plenty of lights. We were able to use it at all the big fires and plenty of softball games at night."

On another occasion, while still captain, Hundertpfund took a truck that had needed repeated repairs at about $2,000 a shot, built a bearing out of bronze for it and kept it running without a hitch. He was an obvious choice for Department mechanic.

Those mechanical talents were needed in a hurry the first night Belleville firemen were called to Newark to help extinguish the blazes of the 1967 riots. In their cables trucks, they were easy targets for rock-throwing rioters, and after the first night out, Hundertpfund was on a two-day project fashioning cabs from metal and plywood.

He's been to hundreds of small fires, and can remember many of the big ones — Rowe Manufacturing, which interrupted the firemen's Christmas dinner and burned for two and a half days; the apartments at the corner of William and Washington Avenue, where today's zoning battle goes on over the future of the empty lot; a Food Fair, which caught fire twice; the roller rink on Washington Avenue which burned down, though the firemen were able to save a nearby bowling alley.

He remembers, too, a nearly fatal day on Union Avenue in 1947, soon after he had made captain, when he and two other firemen crawled through 450 feet of drainpipe to try to rescue two construction company employees who had been overcome by carbon monoxide fumes. The two workers died, and the firemen themselves were brought out with not much time to spare.

Most incidents have not turned out so unhappily, and some even have some humor to them. Hundertpfund recalled an incident in the 1950's when he executed the classic ladder rescue of a woman from a second floor window of a burning building at Jorammon and Ralph Streets. As he reached the ground with the woman, she began to scream, "My babies! My babies!" and dashed to a ground floor window.

"I took off my helmet and smashed the window, and she put her hands right through the screen. Then she pulled out two little poodles. Those were her 'babies.'"

Besides these on-the-job actions and innovations of Hundertpfund's, he's had several administrative responsibilities to look after, making sure Belleville's public buildings and factories met the proper safety standards, and keeping up the training of his force, which grew from 23 when he joined to the present 77.

And there has been the ambulance service of the Department, which has helped out not only Bellevilleites, but residents of surrounding towns also. "From our ambulance work alone," he said, "we get 15 to 20 letters of thanks each week."

Life will be a lot different now for Chief Hundertpfund and his wife Ruth, who first urged him to go ahead and take the civil service test for captain. The couple have three daughters, all of whom live in the same area near the shore: Mrs. Ted Walkosz of Wayside; Mrs. Joseph Barrett of New Shrewsbury and Lynn Hundertpfund of Oakhurst. They have two granddaughters.

Hundertpfund has been a member of various professional organizations, the Knights of Columbus and the Elks here, and is a former member of the Belleville Kiwanis.

He says he'll be doing plenty of fishing, now, along with golfing and bowling (he's prouder of his golfing skills than bowling).

The Chief has been regularly visiting the Belleville Department since he began his final vacation a few weeks ago, and no doubt will continue to pop to the stationhouse now and then. As he says, "the job kind of gets in your blood. You know that everyday you'll be helping somebody out, and it makes you feel good that you're the guy somebody would call when they need help."

Put your hand in the hand of a crippled child — Give to Easter Seals.

Tickets Are Now on Sale For Production of 'Oliver'

Friday, April 19 will be a momentous day for the cast and crew of the Family Playhouse Theater. It's on that day the local troupe's very first show, "Oliver," opens for a five-night engagement in its recently completed theater built within the ribs of the old sanctuary of Holy Family Church.

Tickets for the show, which runs April 19, 20, 21 and April 26, 27, may be purchased at the Holy Family Rectory (call 667-0026 to have them held for you) or by calling 667-6018 between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays (ask for Joann). Seats are $2, $3 and $4.

Cast in the name role of Lionel Bart's musical adaptation of the classic Dickens novel is 11-year-old Chris Olearichick of Belleville, a sixth grade student at Holy Family School. Despite his apparent youth, Chris has studied with the Montclair Operetta Club, and played the part of Winthrop in that group's production of "Music Man." He portrays Oliver as a frightened but curious youngster who wants to be a pickpocket. "When he finds out how mean everyone in the gang is, though he has second thoughts," notes Chris.

Playing the part of the "delightful, airy villain," Fagin, is Albert Nadzan of Belleville. After a year's study at the New York Academy of Theatrical Arts, 21-year-old Nadzan is now enrolled as a freshman at Ramapo College. He was also actively involved with off-Broadway Children's Theater under the direction of Joseph Papp, and appeared in "Dolphin 11." Fagin is the headmaster of a band of pocket picking street boys.

From Nutley is 10-year-old Leslie Taylor, cast as Bet, a fifth grade student at Holy Family Grammar School, she makes her stage debut as little sister of Nancy, part of Fagin's gang. Leslie takes dancing lessons at Miss Marilyn's School in Nutley, and notes that Bet is the type of person who sometimes doesn't want to be a pickpocket after all.

Bet's older sister Nancy is played by Greta Polonitzka, a 24-year-old fine arts major at Montclair State College. Greta's starring role is also her first, and she is featured in several songs. She hails from Harrison.

Fagin's chief partner in crime, Artful Dodger, is played by Rob DiStasi, 12-year-old veteran of two local productions — "Joseph" and "Amal and the Night Visitors," performed at Belleville High School. A seventh grader at Belleville Junior High, Rob held the lead role in both plays.

Rick Temple, cast as Bill Sykes, is a 29-year-old electrical engineer at the Aircraft Radio Corporation in Boonton. A Belleville resident, the part of Bill Sykes is his first theatrical endeavor. Sykes is the most fearsome of the play's criminal characters.

Also hailing from Nutley is Jo Ann Russoniello, who plays the widow Gorney. A music teacher in the Saddle Brook school system.

Now You Can Dial Tax Help

The Internal Revenue Service will provide telephone assistance to New Jersey taxpayers preparing 1973 income tax returns through April 13.

Special toll free assistance lines will be manned from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. on each of these Saturdays.

Residents in the 201 calling area seeking tax help should phone 800-242-5876 and those in the 609 calling area should call 800-322-8680.

All IRS offices in New Jersey will maintain their regular office and phone hours on weekdays. Offices and all telephone lines will be open for taxpayer assistance from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Art Class Registration Is Scheduled

Registration is now open for spring semester art classes for adults and children at the Montclair Art Museum. Classes begin the week of April 9.

There are seven instructors who teach in the adult classes. Patricia Barnes, the school registrar, points out, and eleven different sessions to choose from. Morning classes are held in painting, drawing and basic design, weaving, watercolor painting, and pottery. An afternoon class is given in figure work, and evening sessions are held in painting, watercolors, and portraiture. Instructors are Scott Duncan, Thomas Greenbank, Edwin Havas, Frances McQuillan, W. Douglas Prizer, Alta Turner, and Tom Vincent.

Classes for young people aged 7 to 14 are held on Saturdays. Courses are given in painting in the morning and sculpture in the afternoon.

Creative classes for 5 and 6 year olds are held on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30. In these classes children work in a variety of media such as painting, printmaking, collage, stick construction, and mobiles.

Information about any of the classes may be had by calling the museum art school, 746-5555.

Success Cards Giving Students Pat On The Back

New Jersey teachers have found a new way to give deserving students a pat on the back. It's called the Success Card.

The Success Card gives teachers the immediate chance to recognize any school achievement by any kind of student, reports the New Jersey Education Assn., which developed the idea and is distributing the cards statewide.

"In the past, when the parent has heard from the school, it has usually meant that their child had done something wrong," says Kathryn Stilwell of Fair Lawn, president of the 78,000-member teacher association. "We devised the Success Card so that parents could also hear about what their children are doing right. By use of the Success Card, the teacher can easily give credit to any member of the class, at any time, for working hard and making progress."

Last spring, NJEA sent sample Success Cards to teachers in every New Jersey school district. The samples bore this message:

"When was the last time parents of children in our classroom heard some of the good things that happen to their youngsters in your school? Here's one way you can encourage more positive communications between schools, teachers, and parents."

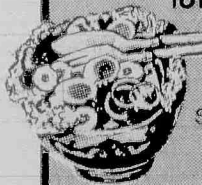

"Stop once each week. Think about two or three highlights when children achieved in ways that otherwise might never come to the attention of their parents. Take a minute to drop a note to those parents. Two or three cards a week can help spell continued success for the children in your class as well as continued community support for quality education."

NJEA has since distributed more than 171,000 Success Cards to teachers throughout the state.

No more rivers to cross

to get the finest personalized personal banking services.

By now you must be tired of reading about the claims that commercial banks provide a bag chock full of savings accounts and loan services, ranging from the personal to advances for major home improvement projects. We've read all those ads too, and can become just as bored as you. We, also, provide all the basic services. But our idea of personal banking goes far beyond that starting point!

Of course, our nine member banks are experts in those fundamental services you appreciate, such as convenient office hours, easy drive-up and walk-up windows, safe deposit boxes and banking by mail. And those services are available at all our 95 offices throughout New Jersey.

But you'll get much more than that at First National State.

In today's complicated and sophisticated economy, every consumer is also a taxpayer, the business manager of a family's finances, and the decision maker in the timing of major economic outlays. In that role, you want and need all the expert, personal banking help you can get. And that's where we excel.

Over the last 162 years, we have built a reputation unparalleled in New Jersey for personal attention to specific banking needs of the individual family and the individual businessman. That reputation is the foundation on which we have built the largest banking organization in New Jersey with more than $2,000,000,000 in resources.

You want personalized attention. That's what we give. Since 1812 we have been concerned with each of our customers as "an island unto himself."

We have shaped our package of services to encompass everything you could possibly need from a bank. Our friendly experts are ready to sit down and talk about your specific situation.

For instance, after talking with you our banker with know-how may suggest some service specially tailored for you... whether it's a different type of savings account, a certificate of deposit, a personal trust program, Treasury Bills or tax-exempt bonds. Behind the banker you talk to is a staff of specialists that only a banking organization like ours can provide.

In addition to the expertise and the personal attention, we take pride in the perspective we bring to your personal planning. The reason, for instance, we have paid uninterrupted dividends for 162 years is that we have served our customers well through the good years and the hard ones... from the era of the stage coach to the era of the space craft.

In the same spirit, we take pride in the way we have met every one of the challenges imposed on us down through all those decades. For instance, as the latest example, after the State authorized the Meadowlands Sports Complex, we were able to help provide the critical part of the $302,000,000 financing required to bring that State dream to reality in spite of the boycott by major New York banks.

First National State has a special point of view about New Jersey and our home communities that can never be held by outsiders. Let's face it. Money that's banked outside New Jersey is predominantly used outside New Jersey. Shouldn't your money be in a New Jersey bank to help your own State grow? There is no more need to cross a river—not even the Hudson or the Delaware.

Rowers Ready to Launch Season

Several Belleville High oarsmen will get their first taste of varsity competition Saturday, 11 a.m. on the Passaic, when a strong crew from Blessed Sacrament of New Rochelle visits here as the Blue-Gold open their season.

The Blessed Sacrament invaders will be met by a small, young but aggressive squad of rowers anxious to put an initial win on the ledger to break in the spring, said head coach Sam Giuffrida this week. Then on Tuesday, the team will travel to Atlantic City to challenge what promises to be one of the very best opponents of the year — Holy Spirit of Atlantic City. That team last year produced the top jayvee squad in the country, and the game Bellevilleites figure a win over Holy Spirit would establish Blue-Gold prestige early in the season.

With only one letterman, Brian Bedford returning, and only one other rower, Joe Vazquez, with varsity experience, the varsity boat is made up of graduates from the jayvee shell which posted a 6-5 record last season. "It's a big improvement over that boat, though," said Giuffrida. "They've been working out on the universal weight machine all fall and winter, and the boys have really been putting out extra efforts so far. It may be one of the smallest teams we've had in a while, height-wise, but it's certainly not one of the weakest. They're a very strong squad."

One of the most troublesome losses suffered early in the season is that of senior Craig Davis, plagued since last spring by a back injury that cut short his wrestling efforts last winter and will not allow him to row this spring. While he would have added considerable size to the team, Giuffrida said he valued the experience the veteran rower would have brought along.

Giuffrida has made the following assignments for Saturday:

Coxswain: Bill Smith. A junior, Smith moves into the spot vacated by the graduated Fred Arena. Giuffrida describes him as the "take charge sort of guy" needed to pace the crew properly and says his experience as jayvee and freshman coxswain have given him a good grounding for the varsity responsibility.

Stroke, Ted Perih. Another junior taking the same spot he's held as a jayvee and freshman, Giuffrida says he's got "a pretty good sense of the rhythm and timing we look for in that spot."

Seven, Brian Bedford. Just finishing off the last traces of mononucleosis, Bedford should provide stability and leadership for the squad in his position as the sole returning letterman. "He did a fine job at the number three spot last year," said Giuffrida, "and we expect he'll do even better this spring."

Six, Tom Della Torre. The team's big man at 6 foot-6 inches, Della Torre is a senior with a year's experience. The coach noted his capacity for hard work last year on the jayvee crew.

Lakers Win Senior Cage Rec League

The Lakers in the Belleville Recreational Senior Basketball League held on to defeat St. Peters 48-43 to win the play offs. Mike Donarski and Jerry Iacangelo combined for 35 points for the victors.

Jim Loehwing was outstanding for St. Peters in a losing cause while scoring 19 points.

Both teams and the entire league should be complemented on a fine display of sportsmanship and excellent play.

Nu Plas won the regular season series while posting a record of 9-0.

Energy Crisis Side Benefit Fatalities Fall

For the first two months of 1974, New Jersey registered a 34 percent drop in highway fatalities in what is probably the only fringe benefit of the current energy crisis.

According to State Highway Safety Manager Louis R. DeCarolis, New Jersey suffered only 131 roadway deaths in January and February as compared to 200 for the same period of 1973 — a drop of 34 percent.

A "very preliminary" study and analysis of Statewide roadway traffic for the period shows an approximate 15 percent drop in traffic volume. DeCarolis attributed most of the decrease to reduction in driving as opposed to the reduced speed limits now in effect.

"A crash into a solid object at 50 or 55 miles per hour is potentially just as deadly as one at 60 miles per hour," he said.

"When you compare the 15 percent volume reduction to the 34 percent fatality reduction," DeCarolis said, "you tend to conclude that many of our pre-crisis fatalities occurred in the course of non-essential driving which people have now cut back on sharply."

Comparison of fatality reductions for the month of January between New York and New Jersey show New Jersey down 39 percent and New York down 32 percent.

Diamonddeers Meet Kearny On Tuesday

by Pat Caputo

As the countdown continues toward opening day, the Belleville baseball team is working hard in order to be ready for the defending Big Ten Conference champions, Kearny, on April 2. Coach of the squad, Charlie Travers, is trying to mold this year's team around the seven returning lettermen to fill the gap of the nine talented ballplayers lost to June graduation. In order for the public to get acquainted with this team, a brief sketch of each individual player has been compiled.

Joe Cancelliere- At third base this year, Joe may be the sparkplug of the club. Last year he started in right field where he played errorless ball. Although he hit for only .211, he scored twelve runs and had seven stolen bases. Coach Travers feels that Joe is one of the most intelligent baseball-minded athletes on the team and this is the reason why he figures that Joe can handle the hot corner. A big year is needed from this senior so that he can give a lift to the inexperienced players.

Vin LiPoma- Another returning starter, Vin will once again cover the area between the third-base man and second base, shortstop. Known more for his glove than his bat, Vin led the team in assists last year at this busy position. Belleville will need some more hits from Vin this year so that he can improve on last year's .143 batting average. So far in early Spring scrimmages, Vin has been stroking the ball well while playing top-notch shortstop. He will supply a needed lift if he can maintain his early pace.

Vic Pasquariello- Vic is new to the starting varsity lineup, but he makes up for his inexperience with talent. Vic has hit over .400 for two seasons (freshman and jayvee) and for both years he has led his team in most offensive departments. A junior, Vic is a hustler all the way and could very well be a bright spot in the 1974 campaign if he continues his proven skills. Vic will play second base.

Joe Cerza- This slugging first-baseman started for the tail-end of the 1973 season and still led the team in home runs. His fifteen RBIs placed second on the team and his .351 batting average shows his consistency with the bat.

Since Joe is not known for his speed, all of his hits were hard hit balls, not infield "leg" hits. A big season from this big senior could carry this team far. Joe "Boots" provides double trouble to his opponents, as he doubles as a pitcher when not at first base. On the mound last year, Joe compiled an ERA of 2.06 and 4-1 record. He has proven he can go the distance because he had two complete games last year. It may be safe to claim as Cerza goes, so goes Belleville.

Joe Panlone- This southpaw may develop into the best defensive center-fielder in the Big Ten, and he is only a junior. Joe has previously played center as a freshman and a jayvee stand out where he committed but one error in two years, and that was a throwing miscue. Capable of batting well over .300 the main problem with Joe has been consistency. He is a good bunter and probably the fastest member of the team.

Coach Travers must decide upon two of three boys, Bill Telesco, Nick DeFillippis, and Vin DeNotaris, to play left and right fields. Telesco, a senior, hit .323 playing jayvee last year and has been stroking the ball well so far this year. Scrappy Nick, also a senior, was ineligible last year but was a successful ballplayer his sophomore year in the jayvee ranks, and appears to have regained his old form this year. DeNotaris has been hampered by a leg injury, but has power to all fields. A junior, "DeNo" is a speedster on the basepaths.

Joe Arminio- Joe was forced to sit behind durable Phil Cuzzi last year (who made 2nd Team All-Essex in 1973) but hit .400 the few times he did play. Joe got off to a good start this year, or so it appeared until he injured his thumb. He hasn't been rushed back into the line-up but is expected to be behind the play on opening day. Sophomore Greg Dunleavy will back up this senior and he has looked impressive this year filling in for Joe.

Steven Garard- This junior is versatile and will be the utility infielder on this team, a valuable part of any team. Steve played third and second on the jayvee level and hit for

Trackmen Await April 1 Gun To Start Against Passaic High

With less than a week remaining for the start of the 1974 track season, the Bellboys are putting on the finishing touches for this year's competition. To start off this spring sport, Belleville will play host to Passaic on April 1 with the time of the first race set at 3:30 p.m.

The contest against Passaic will be the start of a 14-meet season and according to head track coach Ray Haneke the local cindermen will be fielding their strongest team of recent years. On this year's team we will have lots of depth, which will definitely make us a stronger opponent. We also have a lot of talent, so things really look optimistic."

Although the team is comprised of many runners from last year's squad, Haneke believes that this group will have better results. "Last year we were a much better team than our 3-10 record would indicate, but I don't expect the same results to happen again this year."

A major factor that changes the picture in Belleville's track story is the greater number of kids going out for the sport. "Including our freshman team," said Haneke, "we have a total of over 100 kids in our program. It's something that we have worked at obtaining for quite awhile and it's very encouraging. Especially since we have a lot of talented underclassmen on the team."

Some of the sophomores that have fared very well in practice up to this point are Jim Beck, Nelson Seda, and Doug Wamsley, three members of Belleville's distance team. Other performers in this group are Doug Jackson and Jim Mallack, two sophomore high jumpers on this sophomore ladden team. Still there are the potentially good performances from David Ritacco, John Matera, and Fran Morell.

Also on this year's team are two female sprinters who will be expected to contribute to the team effort. They are Barbara Stefanczyk and Patty Guiliano, also two sophomores who definitely add something to the daily practices.

The Bellboys also hope to be strengthened in three major areas for this season. In the weights division, Belleville's hopes will lie with Tom Sanders, Jim Lanno, George Vecos, Jim McManus, Paul Havrick, Bob Feldman, and Al Cervasio.

The sprints, the Blue-Gold chances lie in the results of its sophomore, junior, senior trio, Jerry Hykey, Gregg Bunch, and Bob Cohen in the 100 and the 220 yard dashes. In the third event, the pole vault, the progress of John Dougherty, Fran Morell, Barry Dunleavy, Glen Mogelsky and Frank Fredericks has been very good.

Of course in the events that Belleville was strong in last year the Bellboys will again have strong representation. Pacing the two mile corps are Bill Goodwin, Steve Dyba, and Pete Fitzpatrick, all seniors. In the one mile run Mike Fortino counts as Belleville's best bet. He will receive strong supporting help from Tom Coughlin. In the half mile, Steve Budrick will carry Belleville's chances. Also contributing in the distance events will be Walt Slubis, and Frank Salerno.

In the quarter mile, Bob

RECORD SETTING PHIL — Phil Grippaldi of Belleville is shown as he sets another record at the 19th Annual Amateur Athletic Union's National Collegiate Weightlifting Championships at Montclair State recently. As Phil captured his second straight 198 and a quarter pound championships with records in the snatch, clean and jerk and total for the class, Montclair captured its first team title.

impart the benefits of his experience to the rest of the team, as will Bedford.

Three, John Kelly. A junior, Kelly is another of the "new breed" up from last year's jayvees.

Two, Bob Falco. Described by Griffith as "a very strong oarsman," Falco's power will be harnessed toward the front of the boat. He also is entering his first varsity year.

One, Walter Cole. In his second year, Cole is also up from the jayvee boat.

In fact, this year's squad constitutes nearly the intact jayvee shell of last year, so, in a sense, they have the advantage of having worked with each other in the past. But the varsity squad is a whole new unit, and Griffith feels that the opening races of the year will give invaluable aid in forging the team through the heat of competition. "There's the common young mistakes that have to be worked out—things like raising the stroke too high, not getting together. I think if we can get through the first couple of races and learn from them, we'll do very well this year."

Petreans Host 1st Invitational Cage Tourney

The first annual St. Peter's Invitational Basketball Tournament, sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Council 6042 of Immaculate Conception Church in Newark, was held at the St. Peter's School recently. Holy Name of Jesus in East Orange defeated St. Peter's, 49-33, in the final game to win the tourney. During the first round, Our Lady of the Lake in Verona bested St. Benedict's of Newark, 51-28; St. Peter's beat St. Cassian's of Upper Montclair, 56-43; Holy Name of Jesus won, 58-31, over Holy Family of Nutley; and St. Ventius of Orange came out on top of a contest with St. Rose of Lima of Newark, 54-38.

In the semi-final round, St. Peter's defeated Our Lady of the Lake, 53-43, and Holy Name of Jesus bested St. Rose of Lima, 52-41.

St. Rose edged Our Lady of the Lake, 38-37, in the consolation game.

Tracksters To Start

Cazzarelli, Wayne Kellenbence, Ralph Casellano, as well as Ritacco and Matera, will compete. Then in the hurdles Belleville will have in its varsity positions Bob Sanders, Ken Drake, and Jim Davenport.

This is briefly a rundown of most of Belleville's track and field events. While only being able to mention a fraction of the hundred or so Belleville undermen, the results of the races will lie in the success of all its performers. And the season looks bright for Belleville track 1974.

Celtics Clinch Elementary Recreation Play-Offs

The Celtics on the Belleville Recreation Elementary League clinched the play off title when they stopped the Bucks in over-time 33-31. Behind the hot shooting of Ralph Estelle, with 12 points, were they able to become the victors. Robert Sicurello, Bill Wejsbrod, John Kennedy and John Morano accounted for the Celtics other points.

The Bucks really battled the Celtics to the last whistle. Ed Aullisi was high man for them with 12 points.

"Both teams demonstrated extremely fine character and good sportsmanship," said Recreation Director Bob Cooke, adding "all of the coaches should be thanked for a job well done."

Following are team coaches:

Brian Wood — Lakers
Al Nutrio — Pistons
Joe Norton — Celtics
Richard Nisvoecia — Nets
Bob Mallaack — Bucks
Gary Tufo and Rich Baker — Suns

a .390 average. He can also play first base.

Lou Grasso— Another junior, this big fellow was out due to a knee injury last but packs a great deal of power as he showed his freshman year in baseball. He will fill in behind Joe Cerza.

The most important part of any baseball team is the pitching staff.

Coach Travers has the most experienced of the squad on the mound this year where four returning lettermen will serve. The talents of Joe Cerza has already been mentioned. Also throwing this year will be senior lettermen Jerry Hoban and Lennis Nadzan. Jerry was the "fireman" last year as he came on in relief to win one game and save four more without losing any. His ERA was an impressive 2.10 and he averaged one strikeout per inning, with good control. Nadzan was 2-2 and his 4.75 ERA is due to one pounding he received at Clark last year. He is a big strikeout pitcher with 34 "whiffs" recorded in 28 innings pitched.

Junior Steve Senatore saw action last year until various injuries cut his season short. "Stife" was 1-2 with 14 strikeouts in 17 innings. His 3.71 ERA could have been lower if not for his injuries. Michael Dondarski is another scrappy senior who may earn a valuable spot on the staff this year. "Bobo" was ineligible last year but his jayvee credentials on the mound were impressive. Sophomore Greg Petite is a sophomore hurler trying for a spot after an astonishing year as a freshman where he was undefeated and didn't allow any earned runs.

There is no doubt that these boys are talented, but there are contrastly few experienced varsity players. The first test for these "green" Bellboys will come next Tuesday against the Kearny Cardinals.

There were 30 firms processing grapes in New York State during 1973, the same as in 1972.

Improve your ad vantage

by Carmela G. Lambaise New Jersey Bell Yellow Pages Representative

"The big guys spend a lot advertising their brand names, so make the most of it."

Chances are your store is filled with merchandise bearing famous names. Or if service is your specialty, you have hundreds of parts on hand to fix the products sold by the big ad spenders.

These manufacturers have concentrated their million dollar budgets on establishing their names and building a desire to purchase their products. Now it's up to you to say "Here's where to buy it" or "I'm the guy to fix it."

More than just building sales, or service calls, the fact that you deal in brand names establishes a quality reputation for your own business.

Making the most of brand names is a must in all the advertising you do, but it's particularly true in your Yellow Pages advertising.

When people follow up their

Yellow Pages reference with a call, visit or written response, as studies have shown 9 out of 10 do, the desire to purchase a certain brand has probably already been created by the manufacturer. Or they have previously purchased the brand and now need someone to service it.

That's why it's so important to have the Yellow Pages play a part in your advertising program no matter how large or small it may be. When customers are looking for a brand name, you want to be darn sure they find it along with your name.

Make the most of the millions spent on those brand names. Include those names in your ads, and don't overlook putting yourself beneath bold face listings of the famous names you deal in. It'll make your own dollars go further.

One in a series prepared for business people who want to get more for their advertising dollar. A service of

PIONEERING NEW CONCEPTS IN ENERGY!

A lot of people seem to think that our critical shortage of conventional fuels is something which has happened overnight. In the utility business, we know better. In fact, we've been warning of an impending energy crisis and the need for alternate sources of energy for several years.

We haven't been standing still. As the nation's third largest combination gas and electric utility serving nearly 80% of the population of highly industrialized New Jersey, we have moved forward in several directions in an attempt to provide our customers with an uninterrupted supply of electricity and natural gas.

We pioneered the concept of an ocean-based nuclear generating station to be located nearly three miles offshore in the Atlantic.

We built the nation's first synthetic natural gas plant, which is now providing urgently needed supplies of this valuable fuel from Harrison, New Jersey, and another plant is well underway.

Not content with accepting dwindling supplies from conventional pipeline suppliers, we have formed our own subsidiary to drill for new natural gas supplies in the southwest. These efforts have already produced quantities of new natural gas.

Above: Drilling for our own natural gas in the southwest.

THE BEAUTY OF BUSTER

BROWNE'S WORLD

Flowers and grown-up sizes for a growing lady.

The new sport. Embossed flowers give a hand-tooled look. Antiqued leathers say fashion now. Your daughter will love pairing it up with her favorite outfit. And you'll like the grown-up size that's right for her.

Buster Brown's pearly new platform makes it a cinch for little girls to look storybook pretty. Clog-like and back-strapped and done up in shiny white crinkle patent. Soles and heels of Triton™, feel light and wear long. A happy ending comes with our specialists' expert fit.

Walk bold in Pedwin's tri-tone oxford. With a bump toe. Lightweight Triton™ bottom. Check out a pair. It's beautiful.

Pedwin.
Pedwin's mac-seam slip-on. Shining example of how to put yourself and your budget in great shape. Elegance comes from a hand-antiqued, enamel glass sole and heel. Slip into a pair. No shoe shines like this.

FIDELITY PRESENTS 4 WAYS TO MAKE YOUR TAX REFUND GROW.

Are you one of the lucky ones getting money back from Uncle Sam? This year, make it show for something. We think you'll find worthwhile goals in our regular checking and savings plans, or in these high-interest "refund growing" clubs.

The Prepaid Christmas Club*

Deposit your refund, or any amount you like from $100 up, and we'll pay 5 1/2% interest per year compounded daily for an actual annual yield of 5.65%. Then on November 20, 1974, we'll return your refund plus all the interest. It's the easiest Christmas Club ever.

The Vacation Club*

Think how much fun you'll have if you pay your way before you go! Leave a minimum of $100 on deposit for at least 12 months, and we'll pay 6% interest per year compounded daily. That's an effective annual yield of 6.18%. Or, if you're going this summer, just 90 days at Fidelity will increase your refund by 5.65%, the effective annual yield on 5 1/2% interest compounded daily.

*Whichever club you pick, stick to it. Federal law and regulations prohibit the payment of a time deposit prior to maturity unless three months of the interest thereon is forfeited and interest on the amount withdrawn is reduced to the passbook rate.

The Free Checking Account

Use your refund to maintain a minimum balance of $300, and you won't have to pay service charges. If you're presently paying $1.50 or more a month in service charges, Fidelity's Regular Personal Checking will save you money.

The Passbook Loan

If you deposit your refund in a regular Passbook Savings Account, minimum $250, you can use the account as collateral for a secured loan. Since interest on a Passbook loan is only 2% higher than savings account interest, in effect you'd have a loan at 2%. And when the loan is repaid, you'll still be drawing interest on your tax refund.

Think them over. Four good ways to turn your refund into a reward. But don't wait too long—these special offers expire July 1, 1974. To make it easy you can do it all by mail with the coupon below. Or if you want more information call Colin Scott at 621-8600, ext. 613.

In the middle of a problem
it's easy to overlook a solution.

The energy crunch is a problem. You've probably had to change your lifestyle a bit. You're learning to cope with new frustrations. In such a situation, maybe it's also time to learn how to use the telephone all over again.

For example: when you're low on gas, instead of wasting it cruising around looking for an open station, check station schedules first—by phone. And when you're thinking about your weekly shopping, remember a lot of businesses offer delivery service. You may be able to shop faster—and without using a drop of gas—by phone.

And then there's your everyday life. You probably rely on the automobile as a lifeline to the world around you. A means of escape to different scenery. Here too, the telephone can help fill the void. Just the sound of a friend's voice, or a loved one's laugh, can lighten your day. But you know your life and its needs best. All we suggest is that you give a second thought to your telephone. It may not solve the energy problem, but it certainly can make it easier to live with.

We want you to get the most out of your phone service.

Minish Raps Raise Of Air Fares

Congressman Joseph G. Minish, 11th District-New Jersey, today criticized the Civil Aeronautics Board's decision to increase most air fares.

In a letter to Robert D. Timm, C.A.B. Chairman, Minish said the Board had exhibited "utter contempt for the travelling public" in granting "inflationary fare increases."

On March 18, the Board ordered a complete overhaul of domestic passenger air fares in an action which will increase fares by as much as 39 percent.

The fare between Washington and Newark/New York, Minish said, "will rise more than 10 percent to $30.64 one way."

Minish asked Timm to explain how "Western Airlines is able to charge $18.75 for a 347 mile flight between Los Angeles and San Francisco, while Eastern Airlines will be charging $30.64 for the 205 air miles between Washington and Newark?"

"A trip between the two California cities," Minish explained, "costs 5.4 cents per mile, while from Newark to Washington the cost is 14.9 cents per mile."

Olga Knows

This Week's Horoscope

(March 30 through April 5)

ARIES (March 21-April 19): If you are in quest of the "real thing," Ari, don't stray too far from the familiar. Grass which appears greener beyond distant fence, very apt to be artificial turf. Message of impact dispatched. Week creeps to a close.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Crazy-quilt week ahead, Taurus. Days should be colorful and interesting, but rather helter-skelter as to pattern and design. You gain insight concerning personal matter. Work to patch floundering relationship with loved one. Week ends on key of C, for Comfort.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Don't permit others to tie up your time completely with plans, appointments, etc. Allow yourself space to breathe. Unforeseen events loom, Gem, so play each day by ear. A TOTALLY planned week is an anathema. Have faith, my gentle Gem, in your tomorrows.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Temptation tiptoes through the tulips of your private garden. Pleasure crooks his enticing finger. Be wary. If you play the role of Dr. Faust, you'll have only the devil to pay. And pay. And pay.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Small piece of large, colorful mosaic falls snugly into proper place. Take time to celebrate. Open your heart, Leo, and you discover that love begets love.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Ideas collide. After the tumult, you see future more clearly. Panoramic view permits you to deal with present problem realistically. Daily aggravations tend to subside, and week ends on sound of laughter.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): You are thrice blessed, Lib. You have the imagination to dream, the silver tongue to communicate and the iron will to transform your dreams into reality. Now, in week ahead if you start feeling depressed, just count your blessings. It's as easy as one, two, three.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Don't sit in judgment of associate's behavior for you may not know all the facts. Besides, your own track record leaves something to be desired, Scorp. Energy may be low. Get as much rest as possible, or by last day you'll be flattened by fatigue.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Seas may be choppy and crew members could threaten to abandon ship. Don't allow this to happen. Assume command as captain if you must, not be force but by persuasion. You're a born leader, you know and besides, you look so well in navy blue.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Past favor is returned in very special way. Take time to double-check financial status. If picture appears bleak, seek advice from one who specializes in good, old-fashioned common sense. You know who. Before last day, romance peeps around the corner. Goody.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): You'll have to be mighty foxy just to get through the coming week unscathed, Aquari. Don't let one who has reputation for double-talking and double-dealing, double-park outside your door. If you do, you are a dunder-head and deserve a double dollop of trouble.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): The anglers will be out in days ahead, Pisces my love, and you will be tempted by many fancy lures. Don't gobble. Don't even nibble. The thought of Pisces getting hooked sends Olga into a deep depression.
