

Sales Event Planned Move Wares To Sidewalk On Avenue

Bargainhunters will converge on Washington Avenue this weekend for the Chamber of Commerce's semi-annual sidewalk sale, as merchants bring their wares out in the sun and mark down prices for the special event.

One of two sidewalk sales run by the participating merchants each year, the sale gives merchants a chance to clear their merchandise while discerning shoppers reap the benefits. About 15 merchants will participate in the sale, which takes place Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Stores in the sale will be marked by special red and yellow signs.

In case of bad weather, the sidewalk sale will be postponed to the following weekend, May 24 and 25.

Billed as a family affair, the Chamber views the sale as one of their major projects of the year, something for "Mom, Dad and the kids."

Many of the items offered at reduced rates this weekend were on sale at higher prices just before Easter.

Fire/Frogmen Trained to Dive Into Trouble on the Passaic

Firemen at the bottom of the Passaic River? Firemen wearing oxygen tanks instead of the traditional gas masks?

A special team of Belleville "smoke eaters" will be making their way through the murky waters of the Passaic on future assignments, now that they've just completed a special scuba diving course in Rochelle Park. Outside of Paterson, the Belleville squad will be the only group of firemen in this area with such skills.

When Belleville Fire Chief George Sbarra announced this week that Captain Fred Tripp, and Firemen Joe La Min, Bob Reed, Vinnie Sorrentino and Richard Triano had completed training at Underwater Sports in Rochelle Park, he pointed out the team will be available to aid any municipality in the area who needs them. Another fireman, Walt Beresford, has trained on his own and has also joined the unit.

The firemen, who under the circumstances might actually be dubbed "watermen" will probably find themselves doing a lot of police work. "They'll probably be used to recover evidence that suspects might throw into the river," said Sbarra, "but there are a lot of cars that go into the river, and they'll be taking them out also." He added that the men will also recover corpses found in the river.

The men attended a five-session course sponsored by the National Association of Skin Divers Schools, with the regimen including two-hour lectures followed by an equal amount of time in a 10-foot pool. Last Saturday, Chief Sbarra accompanied them upstate to the 60-foot deep Hamburg Quarry for the final exam.

Their instructor, Richard Skettini (said to be among the best in the area), conducted the test in the near-freezing waters.

"At the surface, it wasn't too bad with our wet suits on," said Fireman Sorrentino, "but when we went down farther, the temperature must have been about 35 degrees." The tests covered care of the equipment, free diving with only a snorkel and a mask, and a half-hour session un-

Rogers Back in Rent Slot After Strumolo Selection

Steven Rogers, former member of the Belleville Rent Advisory Committee, was named by Commissioner Vincent Strumolo to a seat on the permanent Rent Leveling Committee this week.

Rogers will take the position vacated by Miss Marion Malcolm, who resigned her post to become the Board's secretary. Both Miss Malcolm and Rogers had served on the Rent Advisory Committee before an ordinance was passed in early April authorized the permanent board. All the members of the advisory board were appointed to the panel, except Rogers, who was dropped by Commissioner Mary V. Senatore in favor of Frank Simeone of 113 Ralph Street. Mrs. Senatore at the time said she felt Rogers, just appointed as an East Orange police officer, would be caught in a "conflict of interest" if he served on the local rent board.

Rogers said this week he felt "there had never been any chance of a conflict of interest. I'll be holding a non-partisan non-paying office and serving the community as an interested citizen. I feel police officers should take an interest in their community." "I feel the appointment of Mr. Simeone was a very wise one. He's a very dedicated man and will be an asset to the Board. I look forward to working with him for the good of the people," he added.

Strumolo, praising Rogers' own "dedication and sincerity," said he felt his job as a police officer presents no conflict of interest.

The Rent Leveling Board held its first organizational meeting May 8, and elected Edward Mahler as chairman. Another meeting has been scheduled for May 23, but Mahler said the Board is not yet ready to begin sorting out appeals from landlords to raise rents above the five percent limit imposed by the new law, or to take complaints from tenants about landlords exceeding the limit.

Mahler said the Board has submitted a list of questions to Town Attorney John Scott in order to clarify some portions of the ordinance. Among the questions posed by the Board is one seeking the definition of the term "calendar year," which is the base for which percentage increases will be figured. They also want to know of laws which govern the holding of public hearings, and other definitions of terms in the ordinance.

The Board is considering scheduling meetings solely for particular landlords and tenants engaged in rent disputes.

Besides Mahler, Simeone and Rogers, other members of the Board include Daniel Del Tufo and Vincent Vecchione.

School Contract Talks Finally Reach Close

by Ken Moore

Negotiations between the Belleville Board of Education and bargaining teams from five employees' groups came to a close Monday night. While some of the five units must still submit the agreements to their memberships, the contract for the 318-member Belleville Education Association will almost certainly be signed Monday night.

The signing will end months of haggling between the Board and the BEA which began last year, nearly ran into a one-day job action and was disrupted in mid-April only moments before a planned contract signing when a "technicality" interpreted differently by the Board and BEA teams forced the groups back to the bargaining table.

The disagreement, which hinged on interpretation of pay scales for the system's special services group, was settled last Monday night, clearing the way for a belated signing next Monday.

Once in effect in September, the contract will set teachers' salaries for the next two years — the first agreement in Belleville history to run over one year. Salary hikes for teachers next year will amount to 4.5 percent, and the year after will total about five percent. With increments added in, the whole increase will amount to about 15 percent over two years.

Contracts for the other four units — the administrators, 10-month secretaries, 12-month secretaries and maintenance men — closely follow the teachers. Those contracts will also run for two years without a reopening clause, and reportedly feature increases close to 15 percent.

The 12-month secretaries are scheduled to meet and vote on ratification of their contract this week, and that agreement may be signed Monday night. The administrators have reached a tentative agreement with the Board, but one more meeting will be scheduled between the bargaining teams. No signing is expected Monday night. The 10-month secretary group was preparing their salary page for the contract this week, and some chance remains that contract may be signed Monday.

Board of Ed President Matthew Pica, who characterized the negotiations as "very amicable," pointed out that the two-year salary agreement would mean that next year "will be the first time in 10 years that the total package will be known prior to an election. We'll be able to go before the public with a firm package and when we present it to the people, there'll be no possibility of cutting the line items unless the budget is defeated by the public."

Pica said the final agreement on increases ended "a little above what we had planned" for the 1974-75 budget, but he added "we anticipate that at the end of the school year we'll have enough in the unappropriated balance to cover the increases." So far, he said, all 14 new staff positions will remain in the budget, and four have already been filled for the work-study program in the high school.

Erie Removes Gates At Railroad Crossings

Town Commissioners Tuesday night moved to oppose a ruling by the State Department of Transportation allowing the Erie Lackawanna Railroad to remove crossing watchmen and gates from two areas in Silver Lake.

The gates were dismantled Friday morning from Franklin Street and Belmont Avenue after Commissioner Alan Sagner granted permission for their removal on the condition the railroad adopt a "stop and flag" procedure at the crossings, as Erie had asked.

This means that passing freight trains will stop short of the crossings and a flagman will halt vehicular and pedestrian traffic before the train moves on.

The Commissioners, led by Public Affairs Director Vincent Strumolo passed a resolution criticizing Sagner's decision and Strumolo said he intended to fight the decision as far as possible.

Strumolo, who had attended public hearings on the matter with Town Attorney John Scott last September, said the removal of the watchmen is a mistake, because the area is heavy with pedestrian traffic from St. Anthony's Church and School, the Pathmark Supermarket and School Four. Strumolo also said he doesn't believe the State made a survey of the area. "I think the State of New Jersey and the Department of Transportation, including the Governor's office, should have enough consideration for the people of this town to come down here and look for themselves. I don't think they even took a survey."

Department of Transportation spokesman Robert Mitchell said engineers had come to inspect the crossings, both before and after the September, 1973 hearings. He said a report was made available to the Commissioner of Transportation.

Mitchell added there is recourse for the Town if the Commissioners are unhappy with the decision. If new facts are produced, a re-hearing can be scheduled, or an appeal can be made in Superior Court.

The data submitted at last year's hearing records a traffic count of 10,000 vehicles and 1,050 pedestrians daily over the crossing, against eight train movements. That survey, said Strumolo, was taken by the Public Utilities Commission during summer months, when the nearly 500 pupils of nearby schools were on vacation.

The Franklin Street and Belmont Avenue crossing gates were two of a trio removed after the decision. The other was at Grove Street in Bloomfield.

Strumolo, meanwhile, has urged citizens of Belleville to mount a letter-writing campaign to Governor Brendan Byrne and Commissioner Sagner.

"If there's any action that can be taken, we'll go all out," said Strumolo.

He said the removal of the gates is dangerous not only to students from the schools, but also senior citizens walking from Watchung Avenue to St. Anthony's Church.

Petition Asks Traffic Signal By Senior Citizens' Center

Residents of side streets off Belleville Avenue and senior citizens teamed up last week to sign 500 names to a petition requesting a traffic signal be erected at Branch Brook Drive and Belleville Avenue across from the Senior Citizens' Center in Belleville Park.

Freeholder Joseph Iannuzzi received the petitions this week and said he will meet to day with the Freeholders' Highway and Bridges Committee, of which Iannuzzi is vice chairman, and begin the formal process towards getting the signal installed, to try to circumvent a lot of the red tape Wednesday, Iannuzzi said, "I'd like to circumvent a lot of the red tape that's involved so we don't have to wait until someone else is injured or killed there."

On Wednesday, May 8 at 2:52 p.m. Walter Gorlaski, 81, of 298 Belleville Avenue was struck by a car and seriously injured as he attempted to cross the street to the park.

The petition campaign had started two weeks ago; Steven Rogers, a Rocco Street resident, had drawn up the petitions and they were circulated among neighbors on Branch Brook Drive, Maier Street, Columbus Avenue, and Park View Avenue. Many were signed at the Senior Citizens Center.

The petitions from the Senior Citizens' Center were picked up by someone for Town Democratic Chairman Mary Senatore, who obtained the other petitions from Rogers and turned over the complete set to Iannuzzi on Tuesday.

Rogers had intended to submit the petitions to Belleville Public Safety Director Robert Laterza, but was told that since Belleville Avenue is a county road, the Board of Freeholders only has the power to authorize a traffic light for the intersection.

Mrs. Senatore said an attempt to gain a traffic light at the same location had failed about eight years ago. Since then, she said, traffic on the street has increased and activity in the park has stepped up markedly.

Four Youths Slashed In Parking Lot Fight

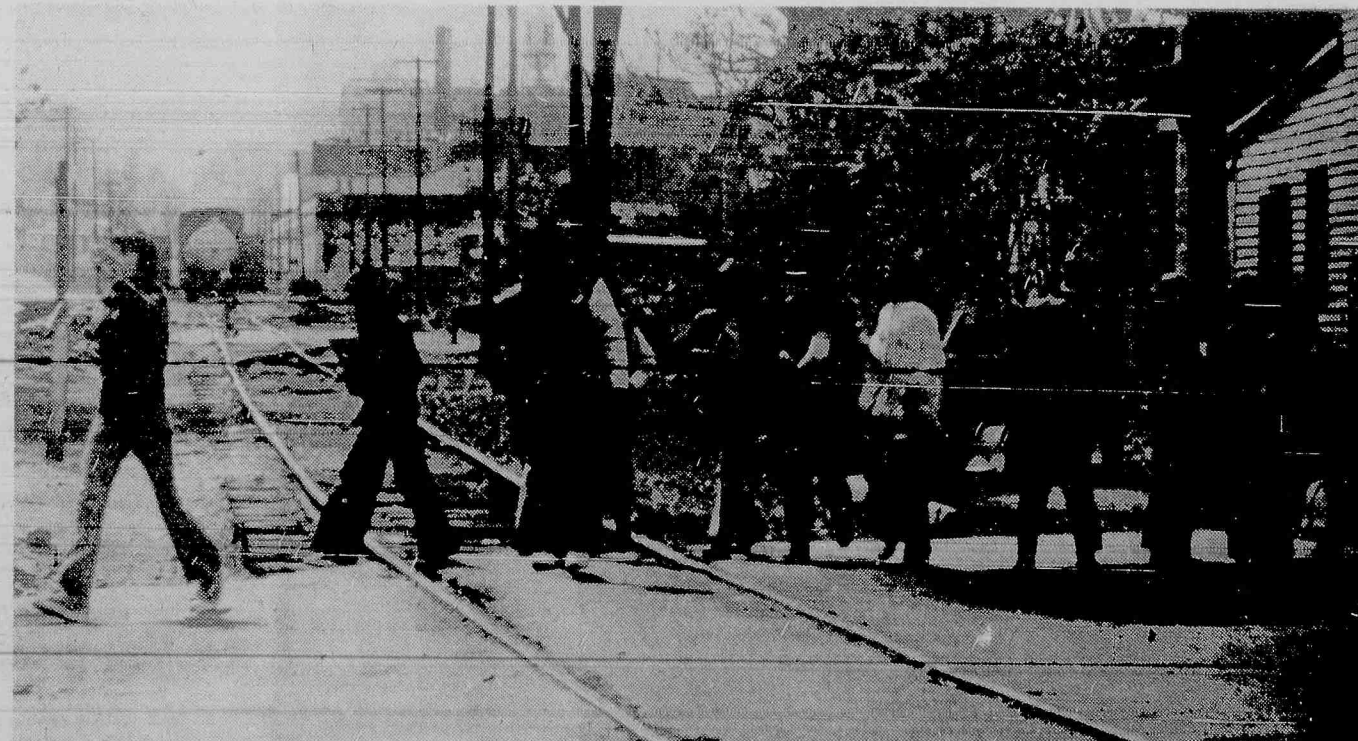

Police are filling the sketchy details of a disturbance in the parking lot of a McDonald's hamburger stand on Washington Avenue which left four Belleville youths hospitalized Friday night.

All four youths were treated and released after they were slashed by another youth following an argument in the rear parking lot of the restaurant. None of the boys, whose ages range from 17 to 19, were seriously wounded, and all said they did not know the identity of their assailant.

While Belleville Juvenile Officer Anthony Fantacone continues his investigation, Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight said the only descripwho on duty Friday night, said he had not noticed any trouble. Three patrol cars had responded to a telephone call and one car, driven by Lieutenant Ermin Olivieri, had reached the lot while on routine patrol just after the fight ended. Early reports indicate that three occupants of the yellow Charger had been making abusive comments to a nearby group of girls when another youth made an objection. The boy told police he was struck by one of the passengers in the car. He said he hit the boy back and called his friends inside the restaurant. Three other boys came out from McDonald's and a fight ensued with the four Belleville youths sustaining cuts from an unidentified instrument. Injured were Mark Cosenzo, 17, cut on the left elbow; Anthony Villano, 17, cut on the right arm; Steve Lenehan, 19, cut on chin; and Anthony Romandets, 17, on the left arm.

During the 1972-73 school year, the Music Department scheduled a series of music experiences for Belleville elementary teachers. Voluntarily, 36 teachers met after school with the music instructors and received lessons on guitar, piano and auto harp. They learned the fundamentals together with ideas they might use with their musical skills in the classrooms. As a result of this successful project, the administration has decided to expand and specialize these workshops for 1973-74. At present, 25 elementary teachers are attending piano workshops. There are five teachers attending the advanced piano workshop. These are held on Tuesdays at School Number Seven under the instructions of Mr. Wendell Parr and Miss Carol Cobianni. Edward Godfrey, Manager of Muscara Music Piano annex, upon learning that twenty teachers had signed for the Beginner Workshop and realizing our physical problem, offered the Piano Annex for these workshops. They are also held on Tuesdays under the instructions of Miss Kim Dunne, Ronald Hackling and Robert Gizzi. There will be a total of ten sessions lasting one hour and 15 minutes each. Teachers who complete the sessions will receive two in-service graduate credits. The purpose of the Beginner Workshop is to enable the teacher to play three basic chords in three keys and to play a simple accompaniment to folk songs, etc. The advanced workshop develops and increases the teachers ability and knowledge in music literature to be used in conjunction with other subjects or periods of time.

Coral Sea, 1942

The Battle of the Coral Sea, thirty two years ago this month, was the beginning of the turn of the tide in the Second World War in the Pacific, for the United States. Japan had attacked without warning (December, 1941) and for six months swept the seas clean of all opposition encountered.

The Japanese Navy was superbly trained in gunnery, possessed a better fighter than the United States then had, and a better torpedo. The Japanese also used flashless power; in night engagements this gave them a considerable advantage.

But the United States had enjoyed a bit of luck at Pearl Harbor. American aircraft carriers were at sea when the sneak attack came in early on the morning of December 7th. Thus when the long Japanese sea pincer began to reach around the eastern Solomons toward New Guinea and Australia, the U.S. Navy had carriers with which to resist.

Vice Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher was, as a result, the first American admiral to engage the Japanese carriers (without ever seeing them) in an air duel. With Rear Admiral Aubrey W. Finch (and carriers Lexington and Yorktown) he checked the Japanese advance, sinking one carrier and damaging two others. On the U.S. side, Lexington was lost and Yorktown damaged. Overall, losses were about even.

But since this battle stopped the Japanese eastward advance it was a strategic American victory. That victory came the day after General Jonathan Wainwright surrendered on Corregidor in the Philippines. From that lowpoint, then, Coral Sea represented a turn of the tide.

May 29th

In early America some observed May 29th as the birth anniversary of Charles II (royalists, generally speaking). Charles II assumed the English throne after the death of Cromwell in 1660 (having been born on the 29th in 1630) in what English history calls the Restoration.

He was a dissolute king, hostile to democracy and not to be admired, but those who favored the monarchy welcomed even Charles II to the throne in the return to the old tradition. Perhaps the most interesting memory about Charles II is the number of famous titles he bestowed on children of his mistresses — including Duke of Southampton, Cleveland, Grafton, Northumberland, Richmond,

Monmouth, etc., etc.

Americans today remember the 29th as the birthday of John F. Kennedy, the handsome young President assassinated in Dallas in 1963. Kennedy's death was especially tragic because the young President had not yet accomplished his goals, and in fact had not even erred painfully.

But his reflected image was worth much to America; he was accepted as sincere and as a voice of hope by millions in foreign lands. He had charm, wit and style, and though his failings in accomplishments were obvious, he set a tone of elegance which captivated the imagination and admiration of millions. His personality is still hard to forget.

May Memories

Remembering seems to be a heartstring of May. Practically all states remember their fallen soldiers this month most of them on the last Monday, this year the 27th. Virginia remembers that day as Confederate Memorial Day (the Carolinas observe May 10th). And a few states observe the 30th, or another day.

North Carolinians observed the 20th as Mecklenburg Day — the anniversary of a declaration of independence at Charlotte in 1775. In Massachusetts and across the nation intellectuals observed Ralph Waldo Emerson's birth anniversary — the 25th (Boston, 1803). But perhaps the most nostalgic day other than memorial day for Americans is the 21st.

On that day in 1927 Charles Lindbergh flew from New York to Paris in a single engine plane, spanning the Atlantic along. He took off on the 20th and landed in Paris on the 21st. Not only did he win a prize of $25,000 for the feat but he won immortality.

Democracy In Portugal

Democracy had long been absent from the Iberian peninsula when Portuguese reformers last month seized power in Lisbon. Democracy died in neighboring Spain in 1936 when the enemies of the republic lost in parliamentary elections and revolted. Dictator Francisco Franco has been in control ever since.

Portugal has also been ruled by a dictatorship, heavily influenced by conservative military elements. Now, however, a fresh breeze has swept through the nation.

Personal freedoms are being restored. Colonial peoples are to get freedom.

The colonial wars are to be ended and, in many other ways, Portugal is attempting to move into the twentieth century as a modern, democratic republic. The example cannot be lost on Spaniards, across the border; there Franco is propping up a future king, in an effort to restore an obsolete monarchy when he leaves the scene.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The Times weekly installment of Jack R. Nageley's "The Dissolution of Society" being offered by the publisher in his column on the editorial page is most interesting and thought provoking reading. It is strongly suggested that readers of this paper avail themselves of the opportunity of digesting this writer's cleverly written publication.

In the event any may have missed the early installments of this serialization they may pick-up the theme from a concise informative synopsis which will bring the serial up to date. Read it, I think you'll enjoy it. I do.

Congressman William B. Widnall from New Jersey's Seventh District, a Republican, who had been mentioned in the transcript of a Sept. 15, 1972 taped conversation among President Nixon and aides H.R. Halderman and John W. Dean 3rd, was the recipient of an uncomplimentary appraisal by Nixon in the conversations which were interspersed by considerable profanity by the President.

When Congressman Widnall was asked what he thought of the transcripts, and Nixon's submission of them rather than the unedited tapes the Judiciary Committee had subpoenaed, he answered "What it's showing is that swears a helluva lot more than anybody would like to have known, but I don't know what else it shows." A most revealing response by the New Jersey legislator. Does our President have a Jeckle-Hyde personality?

Governor Byrne is running headlong into his first major clash when he is taken on by the highest public school policy-making panel in the state, The State Board of Education. This body voted unanimously to oppose the Byrne administration's legislation to reform the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC).

The opening shot came when State School Board President Calvin J. Hurd warned that the "present and future education of children...may likely be destroyed" by the bill.

Gaining strength from these remarks there is a growing group of public employer opposition determined to fight the measure supported by the New Jersey Education Association (NJE) and the State AFL-CIO. The proposed changes would apply to local school boards and, in effect, limits what controversies the state education commissioner, and other administrative heads, can decide.

Joining in opposition to the Byrne-backed bill, which has the appearance of "knuckling-under" to the pressure of labor and the teacher's union, are along with the State Board of Education, New Jersey School Boards Association, the League of Municipalities, the Conference of Mayors and the New Jersey Association of Colleges and Universities.

In opposing the bill-S-1087-the warning is given that major policymaking power would be taken away from a representative type of governing body, such as a local school board, and matters thereafter would be determined not on a basis of what is best for children and the educational process...but on the basis of what the partieswisely or unwisely agreed to, acting in what they conceive to be their own special interests. Leaving the future education of children likely to be destroyed.

Essex County College Warned S-1087 would "clearly place the management of education" in the hands of organized labor leaving local school boards, college trustee boards, educational administrators and the public without prerogatives in the leadership of educational institutions.

It is a healthy observation to see leading education administrators standing up the teacher's lobby, already drunk with power. It's about time.

Publish Seventh Installment Of 'Dissolution Of Society'

By Frank A. Orechio

the event of war. If it were otherwise, the society would perish.

As an agency for preservation, society serves its function by acquiring dominion over the specie and regulation of nature. It must also regulate human behavior because the human is the greatest threat to social survival.

Ultimately, all human behavior is regulated by force. It is regulated by the parent who punishes the dissident child. It is regulated by the courts which ostracize the convicted criminal. It is regulated by the victor who dictates to the vanquished foe. However, it must be regulated in conformity with the procedures adopted by the group lest the individual rebel.

In any plan for social living, the power of the group must be restricted in order to preserve the individual. It cannot act in absolute disregard of his rights. It must adhere to procedural customs in order to guarantee the simultaneous preservation of the individual and the society.

Every procedure for living follows but one of two alternatives. It can emphasize the right of the individual as in the democratic society. Or, it can emphasize the right of the group as in the communistic society. In either case, all rights must remain subordinate to the paramount right of the group. Notwithstanding the fact that human life is the highest known value in the Universe, the life of the individual is regarded as expendable when the preservation of the group is imperiled. Nonetheless, in present society it is no longer the case because social necessity is yielding to individual necessity.

Today, the individual acts out of his own good rather than for the good of his country. He regards authority as a barrier to gratification — not as a means to preservation. He demands not only individual equality but also equality with society. It is a condition of the times. It is the last step to anarchy.

The world condition is attributable to a breakdown of authority — by the fact that society no longer has the power to regulate human behavior. It is an impasse at which the individual yields to no authority but himself.

The key to the breakdown of authority is found in the alienation of the individual from society. He has no feeling of identity. He has no purpose. And he is no longer intimidated by the authority of the group. He is a frame of reference unto himself.

The cardinal cause of the breakdown is the condition of over-population, which condition was foretold by the economist Thomas Malthus.

The Malthusian theory holds that as the food supply increases arithmetically, the population increases geometrically. Therefore, since the population tends to increase faster than the means of subsistence, poverty is inevitable unless the birthrate is restricted.

Whatever may be the shortcomings of the theory, Malthus is credited for recognizing the potential problem of over-population.

It may very well be that Malthus realized that a condition of over-population would produce a lack of identity in the individual — that to be but one of three billion persons negates the need for recognition. As an economist, he certainly would have known a "have not" would have no feeling of "belonging" in a material society. And he would have known that density of population of itself tends to destroy absolute standards of right and wrong — that ultimately the only right in a material society is money.

If Malthus had more fully developed the philosophical ramifications of his theory, he would perhaps hold an even higher station in history.

Upon the premise that the quest for preservation is an Absolute, Malthus could have shown that a condition of over-population causes the individual to become his own Absolute. He could have shown that the condition of itself invites anarchy in that the struggle for survival becomes an individual purpose rather than a social purpose.

Whatever the outcome of the population problem, it is axiomatic that the individual will continue to struggle even in a dense society. The vital distinction will be in man's reason for struggling. He will struggle for his life — not for the life of his society.

Recommends Team Concept In Education

To the editor:

How well are students in our present school system learning? How well are they being prepared for the future? Are they developing their abilities fully? These are the questions that should be seriously considered under our presently structured educational system. For years, the teacher has stood in front of a class and lectured while the students have been expected to pay attention and take notes. They are further expected to learn (memorize) these notes and give them back on a test. This surely is not learning. It allows for no creativity, no discovery or exploration on the part of the students, and most of all no real THINKING.

Team learning, a concept originated by Donald Durrell of Boston University, could be the answer, to all of this. It has been practiced successfully in the English, Social Studies, reading, math and science areas. The concept involves the building of a pair of students, then two pairs, then three pairs, etc. so that all get introduced to a free-moving interaction with each other. David C. Maurer, author of an article called "Team Learning", which appeared in "Phi Delta Kappan" suggests the following about the ideas; 1) The students actually learn more from each other than from the teacher per se. 2) In the team learning situation, the teacher is forced to pay attention to differences among students when they are paired whereas he can ignore them in the traditional system. The teacher will also have more time to aid the students individually since the paper load will be cut in half. 3) Finally the students will not be bored trying to sit and absorb information but will be involved.

There is substantial data to support the idea that people in general learn better when they can verbally interact with others. Aaron Wolfgang, in his article called "The Effects of Social Cues and Task Complexity in Concept Identification", which appeared in Educational Psychology describes an experiment based on this principle. Three groups were involved. The conclusion states that the subjects in the free-interaction group performed better on the assigned tasks than those in the restricted-interaction group and those who performed individually. The last couple of paragraphs in the article state that possibly the free-interaction group excelled because, through working as a group and thereby communicating with each other, they had a much greater amount of human resources at their disposal, for example, two or more memories for the retention of information.

Students are not dull lifeless computers which can absorb information and then spout it forth again at the appropriate time. I think our schools should mold individuals who can think, reason, and reach their own conclusions based on evidence which they themselves have analyzed. I think this can be accomplished through team learning. It's certainly not easy to make a break from the traditional. It requires a great deal of effort on the teacher's part and also a great amount of co-operation and encouragement from both the school administration and the board of education. However, I'm sure it's worth a try.

Poetic Lines Depict Parade

(Editor's Note — The following verse lines about the recent Cherry Blossom parade were received in this week's mail).

Urban Interlude

Light-hearted strollers
On parade.
What a lovely day.
Cherry blossom on display
This afternoon in May.
Painted kites and
Bright balloons
With just a Gentle breeze.
Fond reflections
Still to be
Sing life's lasting Memory.
Oh Asian beauty
Like a mist
Departing with
A fragrant kiss.
All year long
In my repose
I will know
A promise grows.
Farewell farewell
Does my heart cry
True love words
Dare not belie.

Rachel, whose disease is incurable, is presently in the hospital.

Thank you,

By Frank A. Orechio

In this week's installment of his book, "The Dissolution of Society," Jack R. Nageley cites over-population as the cardinal cause of social dissolution. Over-population, says Nageley, causes the individual to become alienated from the group. This serves to undermine traditional patterns of social living, because the alienated individual views his own survival as being more important than the survival of his society.

In order to comprehend the dissolution it is necessary to be constantly mindful that "society" is a man-made institution. It is basically a plan for organized living to which plan all members of the group are expected to conform. Anarchy is its antithesis.

Fundamentally, every plan for social living is intended to preserve human life against man and nature. To this end all members of the society are required to yield their will and strength to a central authority. And from the collective strength of the members, the society acquires the power to regulate individual behavior.

Society operates on the premise that the necessity of the group is paramount to the necessity of the individual — that the individual cannot survive without the group. As a result, the individual is required to seek gratification in accord with the regulations of the group. He is expected to suffer his frustrations for the benefit of the majority. He is even required to volunteer his life in

Tryouts Set This Week For Theater

Auditions for a free summer theater workshop will be held Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 7 to 10 p.m. at Fewsmith Presbyterian Church.

The workshop will prepare teenagers for a September production of "Guys and Dolls" at Belleville High School. The program is directed by Ann and Dave Daniels who last year produced a similar production of "West Side Story."

Auditions will be held for dancers only on Monday, May 20, from 7 to 10 p.m. On Tuesday, May 21, actors and singers will try out at the same hours, and on Thursday, May 23, another session will be held for singers and actors at the same hours.

Christ Church Will Present Nostalgia Night

On Friday, May 17 at 8 p.m., Christ Episcopal Church on Washington Avenue in Belleville, will present Nostalgia Theater. The feature for the evening will be "Alexander's Rag Time Band," starring Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche and Ethel Merman. This movie was made in 1938, so in keeping with the nostalgia spirit a 1938 News On Parade newsreel will be shown.

As not theater presentation would be complete without cartoons, there will also be several Warner Bros. cartoons featuring such favorites as Bugs Bunny and Daffy Duck.

The time again is 8 p.m. and the admission for this trip back in time one dollar. Don't miss out on this chance to relive for a short time those days of yesteryear.

How about giving this young lady a hand? (not only applauding her for her efforts — but she could use some warm bodies to assist). Miss Kathy Walsh, a legal secretary at Stanley Fisher, decided the Children's Shelter needed some athletic equipment, so by herself, she decided to sell candy to raise funds to gain the equipment for the children. All different types of candy — at all prices. I think the highest is $1.50 — are available. HERE'S WHAT Kathy needs — (1) people to buy candy and (2) people to help her sell the candy. It's a very worthwhile endeavor for which I commend Kathy and I would suggest many of our clubs and organizations in town have a boy and girls committee — why not a contribution to help Kathy raise funds for the boys and girls at the Shelter? Also, there are many youngsters with time on their hands, how about learning how to help others by selling candy for Kathy? Contact Kathy Walsh at 759-8345 after 6 p.m.

Ken Carragher is a nice guy. He is a T.N.T. driver, his favorite song is "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and he is a James Cagney buff who can talk about his idol for hours. He wants to wish his mother and father-in-law a happy 50th anniversary. The actual date is October 12, but Stanley and Mary Vicari celebrated by attending Sacred Heart Cathedral on Mother's Day with Ken, his wife Rosemarie and their daughter Deborah and the two Vicari sons and families — Sal and Ana, with daughter Pattie and Carmen and Helen with their children Michelle, Mary Ann and Guy. After that, the whole clan went to dinner at Thomm's... happy anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Vicari.

Down at American Legion Post 105 some "regulars" celebrated their birthday — Mary Ann Wellen retoo the ripe old age of 15 on May 10; Barbara Welter's day was May 12 (did you get two presents?) and John Nolter, May 14 have a happy, gang.

THE TOWN was quiet this weekend — Big Fritz Bohlen and Ray Kinsley Sr. ran away from home! Well, not actually, the two, members and officers at AL Post 105, attended American Legion College at Fort Dix where they had to rise and shine at 5:30 a.m. and attend classes for about 12 hours a day. They received a certificate at the end of the session... which they should give to their wives, letting them be absent on Mother's Day. (how about it, honey?)

An upcoming event will be memorial services held for all veterans at High Point State Park on July 7. Everyone is invited, bring your kids and lunch. The services are solemn and dignified, and after that a social time is held. Bus ride is only $5, contact Commander Ray Wellen at Post 105 or any other veterans post in town.

Dale Peterson of town is a pretty proud uncle these days, his nephew, Kendall Cox Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Peterson of Maplewood, received a direct appointment to West Point. His brother, Erik is with the Pershing Rifle Squad at Syracuse U. and the younger brother Brad is in eighth grade. All three guys wire in the Jr. Essex group.

PLEASE REMEMBER — the Bulletin Board will not publish meeting dates ONLY if you so advise your group doesn't meet during the summer. PLEASE phone me to update the summer meeting list.

FIGHTING for position in the quarter-mile Bellboys Brian Wood and Bob Cozzarelli are led by an Irvington runner.

Bellboys Drop 2 In Big 10 Fight

by Pat Caputo

Reaching a lot ebb in the Big Ten competition, Belleville dropped two more decisions in the conference, losing to Nutley 3-3, and Irvington, 4-3, in eight innings.

Hoping to rise from their new lows, Belleville continued with Big Ten competition on Tuesday, too late for the Times to cover, with Montclair. The Mounties are the top rated team in Essex County and are seeking revenge from the Belleville squad that defeated them when they were the top rated team in the state. Columbia invades Belleville with the first round of the State Group IV Sectional Tournament. Thursday featured Seton Hall and Friday is Passaic. All games are home this week. Next Tuesday, Belleville travels to Maplewood for a conference game with Columbia.

Nutley, a team fighting to stay out of the cellar in the Big Ten, scored eight times, hitting two home runs at Park Oval. Junior Lou Alessio clouted a three run homer to break a scoreless tie in the third. Mike Calicchio homered in Jim Mosior in the seventh. Mosior had doubled in Pete Appolito to start the inning.

Belleville refused to take the ballgame away from Nutley, not capitalizing on five Nutley miscues. The Belleville Nine scored once in the first and twice in the seventh, bridging the innings in between with zeroes.

Bill Telesco led off with a single to right. He stole second as the ball traveled into centerfield where the Nutley centerfielder booted the ball allowing Telesco to score.

The next hit didn't arrive until the final frame, when the game was out of reach. Joe Panlone singled to fight but was eliminated at second as Vic Pasquariello reached on a fielder's choice.

Successive walks to Steve Senatore, Lou Grasso and Bill Telesco accounted for one run, and Senatore scored on an infield out by Joe Arminio.

Don Kiwor allowed two hits in winning his third in four decisions. Dennis Nadzan took his third loss in four decisions, as Belleville dropped their fourth Big Ten game in a row.

However, things got worse. The next afternoon, The Irvington Campers recovered from a three run deficit to finally pull the game out in the eighth inning 4-3.

After a slow start, Belleville jumped to a 3-0 lead in the fifth inning. After two were out, Vic Pasquariello started things off with a walk. Vin Lipoma also walked. Hot-hitting Bill Telesco singl-

Spring in Late Season Cops Crew More Gold

"In the beginning, it didn't look like we were going to have this kind of season, but we've just collected four trophies in two weeks."

That was Sam Giuffrida's comment on his rowers' most recent accomplishments at the Mid-Hudson Invitational Regatta, where the Belleville High Oarsmen won championships in a field of 12 competing schools. Giuffrida will be able to put that gold on the shelf next to the trophies his rowers bagged the week earlier in the Goodwill Regatta.

Last Saturday's races at Poughkeepsie were won by a four-man varsity shell powered by Joe Vazquez, Tom Della Torre, Brian Bedford, Ken McDonald and coxswain Bill Smith, and an eight-man shell staffed by sophomore and juniors in the third varsity race. The championships marked the first victory by a Belleville boat in the Poughkeepsie Regatta in over 17 years, with the exception of a freshman victory two years ago.

Both crews won in final races against five other competing boats. The varsity four pulled from the pack at the halfway mark to finish a full two lengths ahead of Liverpool. Other schools in the race were Roosevelt, Blessed Sacrament, and Arlington.

The third varsity eight, battling against more experienced crews, also took off at the halfway mark and ended up five seconds ahead of Roosevelt, leaving behind Liverpool, Arlington, Springfield Tech of Massachusetts and Arlington.

The freshmen shell also did well, winning their morning qualifier and taking second behind runaway winner Roosevelt. In the mixed jaycee race, a new team of oarsmen rowing together for the first time, some of them for the third time that day, placed fifth in their field.

Boosted by their win, an enthusiastic four-man varsity shell will travel to Philadelphia this weekend for the Stotesbury Regatta, one of the most prestigious rowing events of the season on the East Coast, with nearly 50 schools from as far as Canada, Indiana and Florida entering.

Two years ago, Joe Vazquez and Brian Bedford were among the crew of a junior-eight who took fourth place in the finals, and they are among the four-man shell looking for honors this Saturday.

About the Mid-Hudson Regatta, Giuffrida pointed out that the other teams from the Passaic boathouse, Nutley and Kearny, also did well, with Kearny winning the junior-eights and Nutley taking second in the varsity eights.

"We're pretty proud of ourselves both individually and as a boathouse," said Giuffrida. "We won three out of the five trophies given out."

Cindermen Pounce on Newark; Need Another Win for .500

by Bob Cohen

The Belleville High track team, using a reshuffled lineup, outlasted the Newark Tech Terriers, by the score of 65-48. The Bellboy win listed the seasons record to 3-6. Tech meanwhile is 1-5.

Today the Bellboys will be tested by the East Orange Panthers at Municipal Stadium with the time of this race beginning at 3:30.

Then coming up this Saturday, a selected squad will represent Belleville in the Essex County Meet which will be held at Montclair. The time of this always exciting occurrence will be 2 p.m.

Chet Hunter and Hal Smith set the pace in this meet by combining five first place wins between them. Hunter copped his first in the highs, the intermediates, and the 440. His respective times were 16.2, 54.5 and 44.5. Smith meanwhile ran 10.2 and 24.1 in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

For Belleville in the 100 and the hurdles, the only places taken were by Bob Sanders at 17.3 and Greg Bunch at 11.0 as they ended up third in both events. Then came the mile crew and Bill Goodwin, running for the first time in this event. Nelson Seda and Walt Siubis swept with the times of 4:53.3, 5:04.5, and 5:08.4. Then in the two mile Jim Beck at 10:54.3 and Doug Wamsley at 11:16.3 were first and second.

In the 440, Brian Wood at 55 finished second coming on with a strong finishing kick. Bunch was third in the 220 at 25.2. In the 330 intermediates, Sanders was second at 44.8.

Mike Fortino outlasted his opponent in the 880 as he finished up at 2:13.4. John Matera was third at 2:22.

The mile relay team of Tom Sanders, Mike Fortino, Brian Wood, and Bob Sanders took this event with the time of 3:47.9.

The Bellboys did very well in the field events as the weight men took five of six places. In the discus, Tom Sanders was first at 138'2. He was followed by Paul Haverick and Bob Feldman who threw 119'5" and 116'8" respectively. Meanwhile in the shot, Haverick took first with a toss of 44'7". Feldman was third with 35'11-3/4".

The Blue-Gold also swept in the high jump as Doug Jackson at 5'6", Rich Filippek at 5'4" and Brian Wood at 5'2" recorded this feat. Finally in the last event of the day, the vaulting team of Barry Dunleavy and Glen Mogelsky were second and third with heights reached of 9 feet.

Hoban's Relief Effort Failed From Lack of Backup Bats

by Pat Caputo

A sensational pitching performance by Bellboy Jerry Hoban was wasted Saturday in Wayne Valley as the home side won 3-2 in 14 innings. Hoban pitched nine scoreless innings in relief, before allowing a run in the fourteenth, taking a heartbreaking loss. It was his second loss in three decisions, both in extra innings.

Hoban struck out five and walked five. It was the finest effort from a Belleville hurler this season, but due to the silent bats of his teammates, Jerry goes unrewarded in the victory column.

Dennin Nadzan started for Belleville but was relieved in the second. Dave Ralston and Mark Epstein singled to left and an error loaded the bases. A sacrifice bunt, misfielded by Nadzan allowed one run to score and kept the bases filled. At this time, Coach Charlie Travers brought in sophomore Greg Petite. He pitched well as the runner on third scored on an infield ground out. The other batters were retired on a bounce to the box and a pop up to second. Petite continued until he was removed for a hitter in the fifth. At the bottom of the fifth, Jerry Hoban took over, behind 2-0. His mates put two runs on the board in the sixth to tie the score. Joe Arminio led off with a double, an infield out drove him to third and he scored via a triple by Joe Cerza. Vin DeNotaris ran for Cerza and scored on a single Joe Cancelliere up the middle.

Cancelliere singled off reliever John Brellus, who came on to pitch to Cancelliere. He is 7-0 and one of the finest hurlers in his area. He exited at the conclusion of the twelfth frame and Ed Cancelliere came on to pitch the final two innings.

The Bellboys failed to take advantage of a golden opportunity in the seventzme, Jerry Hoban opened the inning with a single up the middle for his own cause. Two bunt singles by Telesco and Vic Pasquariello loaded the bases with none out. Brellus then struck out a triple by Joe Cerza. Vin DeNotaris ran for Cerza and scored on nine pitches to end the threat.

Wayne Valley is a fine defensive squad which may have inspired Belleville as they played good defense from the second inning on. Wayne Valley is 12-5, as Belleville dropped their record to below .500 for the first time since their opening season loss to Kearny. Their record now stands at 6-7.

Bloomfield Undermines Tournament Bid

by Pat Caputo

Once again the Bloomfield Bengals have shown their dominance over Belleville, defeating the Bellboys 9-1, in Bloomfield. It was the eighth time in a row for the Bengals dating back to April, 1971, that they have beaten

Belleville, including three games this year.

The game was the first round action of the Greater Newark Tournament. Bloomfield is seeded fourth, while Belleville is un-seeded. Last year Bloomfield reached the final round of the tournament before they lost to last year's number one team, Valley. Also last year, Belleville reached the semi-final round, losing to Valley 1-0.

The game was almost out of reach from the start, as Bloomfield jumped to four unearned runs in the first inning. With one out, Tom DeBold doubled to right-center. It was the only hit of the inning. After an infield out, Sal Rosamilia reached on an infield error, scoring DeBold, who had reached third on the infield out.

Another infield error left runners on first and second. Bob Morton then lined a shot to the box that starter Steve Senatore knocked down, but threw the ball away for an error, as Morton raced to third. Still another infield error was responsible for scoring Morton. The results of that inning was one hit and four runs, with the assist of four Bellboys errors. All runs off Senatore were unearned.

Belleville, the home team in the opening round of the tournament, then took one run back in the bottom of the first. Bill Telesco, the leading hitter on the club, walked. Joe Panlone singled to left, Telesco reaching second, Lou Grasso grounded to the right side of the infield, sending both runners into scoring position. Joe Cerza walked, and Steve Gerard drove home Telesco on an infield ground out.

Belleville collected just three hits off Bloomfield hurler, John Stanford, who is now 5-0. Stanford has become a local nemesis, defeating the Belleville Nine three times this year, allowing just three runs in the three games.

Belleville managed just three hits all day, two by Joe Panlone, and the other from sophomore Chipper Biafore, a double to right in the seventh inning. That came with the score 9-1 and Stanford was never in any trouble. At one stretch between the fourth and the seventh innings, he retired eleven Belleville batsmen in a row.

Stanford struck out three in his third complete game effort against Belleville. His counter-part, Steve Senatore was a victim of poor defense. He allowed only one earned run, that coming in the third inning a homer off the bat of highly regarded catcher Sal Rosamilia. Sophomore Greg Petite relieved and allowed four runs. However, Petite gave up all four runs as a result of another home run, this one from Dave Fumosa. He too, was not helped by the seven men behind him as the Belleville defense was as porous as a sieve.

The Belleville bats have been silent for some time now.

Arminio to right field. The lead was short-lived as Irvington came back with three runs in the sixth. An infield single to Frank sacrifice bunt from Giampino moved Bodner into scoring position. The winning tally came in on a single to left of the bat of Ed Zangari.

Belleville dropped to 4-6 in the Big Ten, 6-6 overall. They have not won in Big Ten competition since April 23. Their losing skein inside the conference now stands at five games.

Trackmen Are 8th In Relays

by Bob Cohen

It was almost a repeat of the Big Ten Relays as Belleville raced to an eighth place finish in the Big Ten Meet held recently at DeMuro Park in Nutley.

The winner of the meet was Montclair who had amassed a total of 69 points. The other teams were Kearny-48, Nutley-39, Columbia-29, Bloomfield-19, East Orange-16, Orange-14, Belleville-3 and Irvington-2.

Although some of Belleville's best times were recorded, they could not compete with the times of the other performers that afternoon. The scorers for Belleville were Bill Goodwin who finished fourth with a time of 10:05.6, his best of the season. Steve Budrick running in the 880, finished fifth at 2:01.5, also his best for the season.

Some of the most outstanding performances were displayed by the winning team, Montclair. Brian Payne took two first place finishes in the 100 and the 220. His winning times were 9.9 and 22.4. Craig Allen, also of Montclair dominated the hurdle events as he ran a 14.6 120 highs and the intermediates in a winning time of 40.1.

Paul Lockett, running for Kearny, turned in the next best individual performance as he finished first in the high jump at 6'4", and in the pole vault where he crossed at 13'2". Besides these events, Lockett ran in the 120 high hurdles and the intermediates where he recorded respective second and third place finishes.

Another Kearny workhorse was in the likes of Chet Staron who won the 880 at 1:59.9, took third in the javelin and fourth in the 440.

Soon you will see small "portable" air conditioners advertised again in a manner that makes it appear as if you merrily walk home with such a unit, plug it in and your home will be comfortably cool. You think this did not happen? Last year one customer bought such a unit and set down in a room, and as he told it: "It ran and ran and not a bit of cooling." The man did not even know that it had to be installed in a window to exhaust the hot air. It is amazing how many people become experts all of a sudden when it comes to purchasing an air conditioner. These people would not think of determining size and location of a radiator if it comes to heating. They call somebody who knows about these things. That is the way it should be when it comes to air conditioning, call somebody who knows it and let him advise you. We offer such a service, free of any obligation, and if you follow our advice, we guarantee that it will do the job properly.

The right choice of an air conditioner is far more involved than measure up the room. Look at the specifications where it states that a given unit will cool so many square feet and install it. Construction of the building, window space, exposure to sun, first or second floor, availability of sufficient electric current, these are only a few things to be taken in consideration. If you want to avoid troubles, don't become an air conditioning expert yourself, call one.

Please call us for a survey, it is free and you are under no obligation whatsoever. The earlier you call the better. We service what we sell. Beck's Radio TV Hi Fi Nutley 667-4225 Parking Rear of Store Our Hot Line No. is 667-2276

Jayvees Split 2 Contests

by Dennis Buckley

During the week of May 6, the Belleville Jayvee Baseball team defeated Nutley 4-3 and suffered a loss to Irvington 3-1. The season's record, at this point, stands at nine wins and two losses.

On Tuesday, May 7, the local batsmen met the Raiders at Hancox Field in Nutley. The first scoring action came in the top of the second inning when Belleville's Nick Cancelliere cracked a homerun.

The Raiders came back in that same inning with three runs. With one out, catcher Arace singled and scored on first baseman Parmigiano's double. Centerfielder De Simone drove Parmigiano in and then scored after stealing second base on a single by third baseman D'Urso.

From then on, Nutley couldn't produce any more runs.

In the third, Chipper Biafore singled with one out and reached second on an error. After a strikeout, John Guarino singled, advancing Biafore to third. Both men scored on a single by catcher Greg Dunleavy.

Again in the fourth, Belleville struck with what proved to be the winning run. Bobby Giordano doubled and scored on Anthony Marino's single.

Greg Petite started the game, pitching two innings, striking out three and allowing three runs on five hits. Bobby Giordano pitched one inning, walking one, striking out two and giving up one hit. Winning pitcher John Guarino (4-1) tossed three innings, striking out three, walking one and allowing only one hit.

On Wednesday, May 8, the fate of the junior diamonddeers changed. In the second inning, the Campers scored two runs on two hits and a fielder's choice.

One more run crossed the dish for Irvington in the third on two singles, an error, and a sacrifice.

With one out in the top of the seventh inning, the same bat that stunned Nutley the day before banged out another homerun. That bat, of course, belonged to Nicky Cancelliere.

As a note of interest, fifth inning action saw Nicky Cancelliere make an unassisted double play as he made the catch on a pop fly and stepped on second base to double up a runner there. Dondarski was handed the loss.

Jayvees Slip by Bengals To Place Record at 8-1

by Dennis Buckley

In a tight game at Bloomfield, the Belleville Jayvee baseball team resumed its winning ways by edging the Bengals 6-5. The Jayvee record at this point stands at eight wins and one loss.

With two outs in the first inning, John Guarino walked and stole second base. Greg Dunleavy drove in Guarino with a single.

The Bengals put three runs across in that same inning. Third baseman Fortunato singled and went to second when right-fielder Motta was hit by a pitched ball. On a double-steal attempt, the Bellboy third baseman couldn't handle the throw from the catcher; therefore, Fortunato scored and Motta went to third. Catcher D'Argenio singled Motta home and stole second. D'Argenio scored on Tognola's single.

In the top of the third, Vin De Notaris drew a walk and advanced to second on Lou Grasso's single. Two men struck out before Chipper Biafore cracked a homerun to put Belleville ahead 4-3. Again Bloomfield came back, this time with two runs. With one out in the bottom of the third, D'Argenio singled to advance Fortunato, who had walked and stolen second, to third base. D'Argenio stole second; then, centerfielder Esposito hit the ball to Mike Cancelliere at third base who nailed Fortunato trying to score. Esposito stole second and he and D'Argenio scored on Tognola's single. At this point it was 5-4, favor of Bloomfield.

Top of the sixth action saw Nicky Cancelliere walk, move to second on Chris Tremel's single, and steal third. The suicide squeeze was on when Tony Cortese bunted to score Cancelliere.

Belleville won it in the last inning when Greg Dunleavy reached base on an error, advanced to second on Biafore's single, and went to third on a fielder's choice. The squeeze play again proved successful as Nicky Cancelliere bunted to score Dunleavy. reg Petite (4-0) was credited with the win in relief. Petite scattered three hits as he pitched the last two innings; striking out four and walking none. Mike Dondarski started the game, pitching 4 innings. "Bobo" was tagged for six hits and five runs as he struck out seven and walked three. Bobby Giordano pitched the fifth inning giving up one hit

Irvington Campers Pass Belleville Thinclads With 71-51 Score

by Bob Cohen

The wish to reach the .500 mark in the season slowly and painstakingly evaded the Bellboys as the Irvington Campers upset the cindermen 71-51 in local track action.

The loss set the Belleville season at 4-6. Meanwhile Irvington rests with a 3-4 mark.

The star of the meet was Camper Jim Buchanan. Buchanan, competing in the high hurdles, and high jump, copped respective first places in these events. He won in the highs at 16 seconds and jumped 5'8" to take the other first. Only Ken Drake at 16.8 scored for Belleville in the hurdles as he finished third.

The same results ocured in the 100 as Greg Bunch finished at 10.8 to take the show position. However following in the mile, Nelson Seda showed some good running and Mike Fortino put on a strong performance to finish second and third respectively. Their times were 5:03 and 5:08.1.

Following in the 440, Brian Wood and Bob Cozzarelli finished second and third to place in this event with the respective times of 36.7 and 37.8. Ken Drake running in the 330 Intermediates, finished first with a time of 45 seconds. He was the only Bellboy to place in this event.

In the half mile, Steve Budrick failed to win for only the second time this season as he pulled in second with a time of 2:07.8. Next came the 220 and only Brian Wood with a time of 24.5 placed for Belleville. He finished third.

Surprisingly the only sweeps of the afternoon were recorded by Belleville as the Bellboys picked up one of their two sweeps in the two mile. Bill Goodwin ran at 10:24.1, Jim Beck at 10:54.3, and Doug Wamsley at 11:08.5, to finish one, two, three for Belleville. However Irvington countered with a win in the mile relay as the Camper Quartet finished at 3:47.3 compared to the 3:53 mile run by Belleville.

Ted Mazaukas of Irvington had his best toss by more than twenty feet in the discus as his throw fell 146'1/2" away from the throwing circle. Tom Sanders and George Vechos finished second and third respectively as they threw 141'2 1/2" and 126'4" each. Following in the shot, Paul Haverick was the only Bellboy to place and he made it count as he threw 45'8 1/2".

The second Bellboy sweep of the afternoon ocured in the long jump as Sanders, Sanders, and Drake recorded this feat. Tom jumped 19' 10 1/4", Bob jumped 18'10 1/4", and Ken made 18'9 1/2". It put Belleville within nine, 45-36.

However Rich Filipek only jumped 5'6" for third in the high jump. Even a first place by Glen Mogelesky in the pole vault could not make up the now insurmountable lead. Mogelesky vaulted 9'6".

Free Concert Features Rutgers Glee Club

A concert Sunday, May 26, paying tribute to Memorial Day and featuring the widely-hailed Rutgers Glee Club will open the 1974 Spring series of free programs at the Garden State Arts Center for New Jersey senior citizens, disabled war veterans and the blind.

It will mark the first Arts Center appearance for the Rutgers Glee Club, which has had eight highly successful major concert tours, including six in Europe. As part of its repertoire, the college group will sing "The Testament of Freedom," based on the writings of Thomas Jefferson.

The May 26 event, which also will offer a program of patriotic band music, will start at 1 p.m. Memorial Day actually falls on the following day, Monday, May 27.

The entire Spring set of free shows for senior citizens, disabled veterans and blind persons was announced today by Commissioner John B. Townsend of the New Jersey Highway Authority, which operates the Arts Center on the Garden State Parkway. The series will be sponsored by the Garden State Arts Center Cultural Fund, which raises resources through public donations and special events.

Returning by popular demand, Commissioner Townsend said, will be Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt singing "The Best of Broadway" and the Turnau Opera Company presenting the Manhattan Savoyards in "H.M.S. Pinafore" by Gilbert and Sullivan.

The Wrightson-Hunt team, which thrilled large crowds in 1972, will perform on Monday and Tuesday, June 17 and 18, each day at 1 p.m. The Turnau group, which won hurrahs for its staging of the "Mikado" last September will perform on Monday and Tuesday, June 24 and 25, at 1 p.m.

The other events in this free series are the New Jersey High School Music Festival at 8 p.m. Friday, May 31; the Garden State Drum Corps Preview at 8:15 p.m. Friday, June 7, and the 1974 Talent Expo "Showcase of Stars" at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 8. The top performers in Talent Expo's statewide search for promising, young entertainers will take part in the "Showcase of Stars." Limited numbers of free tickets are available for these three programs.

We have been making CABINETS, FURNITURE and FINISHING WOOD for the past 25 years... and we have always been asked the same question: What should we use to clean and polish our cabinets and furniture?

For our many customers we made a cleaner and polish which we ourselves as professional finishers use. Our customers have been coming back and asking for refills, and always with the same remark: "We would never use anything else." Twenty-five years is a pretty good test, so it must work! Protect the thousands of dollars you have invested in Wood Cabinets and Furniture. Come in for a Free Demonstration on how to use our finishers method. You will truly enjoy the Beauty, Warmth and Charm of Wood for many years to come.

How to avoid future shock.

Tomorrow won't take care of itself. And, deep down, you know that. So you'd better do something about your future money needs today.

There's a painless way. Simply start building your nest egg a little at a time. It's easy when you buy U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

You can save as little or as much as you want. Just specify the amount. And it'll be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy Bonds.

Then, when the future arrives, you'll be better fixed to face it. Because Bonds are the best shock absorber around.

New U.S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years. 1% the first year. Bonds are repurchased if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Join the Payroll Savings Plan.

This Week's Horoscope

(May 18 through May 24)

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Unexpected meeting with new person could prove more than just a passing thing. Ari. Relationship will have a touch of flair and could be both profitable and fun. Be alert and continue to circulate socially. Contact Taurus friend before week is over.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You are one of Nature's masterpieces, Taurus, and sometime during week ahead astute connoisseur notes your true value and lets you know. The message may not be verbal. It may even be in code, so be alert to all vibrations.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Pleasure and duty vie like jealous lovers for your attention, Gem. Fortunately, you have a split personality and will be able to handle both, not only adequately but with élan.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Life's contradictions may tend to take on monumental proportions. Move with caution concerning new ideas. Tune out mouthy associate. Tensions dissolve if you refuse to be influenced by beguiling individual who majors in palaver.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Try to get closer to the heart of one who is dear to you, Lea. In so doing, you get closer to The Creator of our universe. Love is the master key. Use it.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Next seven days can be most productive. So, good lord, Virg, don't permit desire to loaf in the sunshine keep you from the business at hand. Unusual opportunity for emotional growth presented. Grab it.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): After past few weeks, anything that happens just HAS to be an improvement, right? If you kept current sticky situation from going completely to pot last week, then in days ahead you experience new vitality. Events should take upward swing. Affairs, both career and personal, improve.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21): Don't get antsy if loved one does not respond to your ideas and overtures. Everyone is entitled to a case of the emotional blahs occasionally, though it seldom happens to one exposed to your charm and dynamism. Be patient, Scorp, and all will come your way. Eventually.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Time ripe for new adventure, Sag, so don't permit week to slip away on routine matters. The sun will be out, and you will be shining, dear heart, so make hay/love, or anything else that pops into your silly head.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): You tend to be all heart, Cap, and in days ahead you will be tempted to wear your heart on your sleeve. This would be less than brilliant. Your King/Queen is playing games. However, in final shuffle, you ace out.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Get your these and those packed, just in case travel plans are presented. Even if it's just an overnight fling-type thing, Aquari, it tends to tide one over.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Outside forces vie for your attention. Sort the wheat from the chaff, dear Pisces, and spend your dough where it really counts. Mind Olga, and before week's end you find energy to rise to almost ANY occasion.

Final Concert Scheduled By Bloomfield Symphony

The final act of the current Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra concert year will be presented on Sunday afternoon, June 2 at 3 p.m. at North Junior High School, 60 Huck Road in Bloomfield. This concert will highlight the appearance of Miss Diane Goldsmith, pianist, as guest soloist.

Miss Goldsmith will play Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 4 accompanied by the orchestra. The orchestra, under the direction of Edward Napiwocki, will also play Brahms' Third Symphony and Wagner's Rienzi Overture.

Born in New York City,

Diane Goldsmith is a 23-year-old pianist who already played to high critical acclaim. As the first place winner of the Mason and Hamlin Competition sponsored by the Federation of Music Clubs she received a generous cash prize and a glowing account from pianist Seymour Bernstein.

In 1973, she was the only musician in the state of New Jersey to receive a Mini-Grant from the State Council on the Arts. Her schedule is very heavy with solo recitals, concerto concerts, as well as competitions. In the past year she was heard on radio stations WNCN and WNYC. Among her appearances this year are recitals at the International House in New York City and in the prestigious Bloomfield Library series. A recipient of degrees from Douglass College and Brandeis University, she is currently working on her third degree from Manhattan School of Music. Among her teachers have been Gary Graffman, Nadia Reisenberg, and Dora Zaslavsky.

Admission to the concert is free and no tickets are required. The event is sponsored by the Bloomfield Recreation Commission and is under the auspice of the Bloomfield Federation of Music.

Student May Need Social Security Card

Some employers won't hire people unless they have a social security number so students and other planning to get summer jobs should apply for a number now if they don't already have one, according to Arthur H. Quallo, social security district manager in Newark.

"Delaying your application might prevent your employment or cause you to lose time and wages in a job requiring a social security number," Quallo said. "When you don't recall having had a social number before, your application is screened against central files in Baltimore to make sure a second number isn't issued to you — and screening takes time."

"You should apply for your social security number at least several weeks before you need it for a job," he said. "You can get information about applying by calling, writing, or visiting any social security office."

A worker builds disability, survivors, retirement, and Medicare protection by work and earnings credited to his social security number. He gets credit if he's paid $50 or more in a 3-month calendar quarter in work covered by social security.

More than nine out of 10 jobs are covered by social security.

Your social security number is yours alone and remains the same for life," Quallo said. "When you get a job covered by social security, be sure your employer copies your name and number correctly from your social security card to his records."

People applying for a social number for the first time may be asked to prove their age, identity, and citizenship, according to Quallo.

The Newark social security office is at 970 Broad St. The phone number is 429-8200.

Attractions at Arts Center Scheduled for June, July

The non-subscription attractions for June and July who will appear at the Garden State Arts Center were announced today. Commissioner Joseph C. Irwin of the New Jersey Highway Authority which operates the Center announced the schedule stating, "The Arts Center schedule is becoming more varied and exciting with each passing day."

Songstress Vikki Carr with guest star Norm Crosby will appear June 27, 28 and 29. Folk singer James Taylor, who currently has the hit record "Mockingbird" will be in for July 15 and 16; on July 18 and 19 Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass will appear, and July 20 and 21 are the dates for Gladys Knight and the Pips. The Moiseyev Dance Company appear July 22, 23, 25, 26 and 27. On Saturday, July 27, the Moiseyev will have a matinee as well as an evening performance. Closing out the month of July, Melanie will perform for one night on July 28.

Commissioner Irwin stated, "these new events added to the subscription series give us one of the, if not the best schedule ever." The popular subscription series has Tony Bennett and Lena Horne, the week of July 1; Burt Bacharach the week of July 8; Sammy Davis Jr. the week of July 29; Andy Williams and Michel Legrand the week of August 5; Johnny Mathis and the Pointer Sisters the week of August 19; and Eddy Arnold the week of August 26.

Commissioner Irwin went on, our Classical subscription series is equally exciting and interesting. We have the National Symphony on Wednesday, June 26 with James LePriest, Conductor, and Christopher Parkening, guitarist, with a program of Berlioz, Rodrigo and Debussy. The National Symphony returns on Wednesday, July 17 with Murray Sidlin, Conductor, and Leonard Pennario, pianist, with a program of Berlioz, Sibelius and Prokofiev. The Moiseyev Dance Company, Russia's outstanding Folk Ballet Theatre with Natalia Makarova, will present "Swan Lake". The Classical series will close with the Pittsburgh Symphony on Wednesday, September 4, with William Steinberg, Conductor, and Mischa Dichter, pianist, with a program of Tchaikovsky, Beethoven and Rachmaninoff.

According to Commissioner Irwin there will soon be announcement on the non-subscription events for August and September.

For ticket information for either subscription or non-subscription events, write to the Garden State Arts Center, P.O. Box 116, Holmdel, New Jersey 07733 or call (201) 264-9200.

Trenton Radio Station Features Local Man

Philip R. Drumm, father of Kevin R. Drumm of 185 High Street, with Nutley office at 361 Franklin Avenue, was featured on WTTM radio station in Trenton on Friday, April 26, with other hearing impairment experts. Dr. Pauline Jensen, Dr. John Harrington, Dr. Richard Israel and William F. Miller Jr.

For two hours on air with host Bill Rickert they discussed the appalling rise in hearing impairment due to industrial and urban noise pollution and to unborn babies due to the current measles epidemic in Northern New Jersey. Early diagnosis of hearing impairment was named the number one goal, since nothin can be done if the problem is not recognized.

The radio talk was held prior to the all-day language conference held at Trenton State College. Drumm, who is editor of Hearing Research Developments' newsletter of C.H.E.A.R., International Foundation for Children's Hearing, Education and Research, appeared on Lee Leonard's Mid-day Live TV SHOW (Channel 5) on March 11, and will speak on the Sherry Henry talk show (WOR) May 15, 2:15 — 3 p.m.

Many Drivers Ignore Insurance ID Law

Large numbers of New Jersey motorists fail to carry the Insurance Identification Card required by law as proof of insurance. As a result, many get tickets, fines and have to make court appearances, according to the New Jersey Association of Independent Insurance Agents.

"We have received hundreds of reports from member agents which indicate police" throughout the state are definitely enforcing the law," said Armando M. Castellini of Denville, Association president. "So we are again urging the public to remember to carry the card while driving. The best procedure would be to keep the card to the glove compartment at all times, and available to any person driving the car."

Under the state's compulsory insurance law, adopted January 1, 1973, as a companion measure to the "no fault" auto insurance law, motorists are required to carry the ID card which is issued with their insurance policy. When stopped by a police patrol, motorists are routinely asked to present it along with their license and registration.
