After Several Delays

Seniors' Bus Arrives; Route Effective Soon

by Ken Moore

After months of anticipation, the new senior citizens' 28-passenger bus rolled into Belleville Monday afternoon. Public Affairs officials will now confirm the planned daily route of the bus for implementation in early June.

Commissioner Vincent Strumolo announced identification cards will soon be sent out to 1,700 senior citizens, retirees and disabled persons who signed applications which will enable them to ride the bus free of charge. The new bus should be registered with its license plates by Monday, when it will be driven through town to check the schedule tentatively set by the Department of Public Affairs.

The blue and gold bus, the most recent International model available, was driven from Indiana immediately after its assembly there. The bus was first scheduled to be here in late February, but strikes in Detroit held up its manufacture by the Wayne Bus Company of New York. Delivery dates were charged to April, then to May.

Now that the bus is here, officials must check out the route which was timed at 1 hour and 40 minutes when run by car. The tentative plan has the bus making four circuits around Belleville each day, passing all major business and population centers in town.

The Public Affairs Department will also begin mailing out maps of the route, along with identification cards and wallet holders for the cards. Applications for the permits can be obtained from the Public Affairs Department at 386 Washington Avenue.

Although the Department was unsuccessful in getting the State or Federal Government to absorb any of the $8,000 purchase price of the bus, Strumolo announced he has received word from the Essex County Office on Aging that money will be provided for the purchase of a 15-passenger bus for special use by the department, bringing their bus fleet to two.

The planned run of the bus would begin at 9 a.m. at Belmont Avenue and Bloomfield Avenue by People's Bank. It would run through the Soho section past Clara Maass Hospital, then north on Franklin Avenue, past the site of the new senior citizens' center at Franklin and Mill Street, to the Essex County Geriatrics Center. The bus would then proceed along Belleville Avenue to the heart of town.

Moving over to William Street, the bus would cross Washington Avenue and proceed to Cortlandt, running north through the Valley section of town to Greylock Parkway. At Little Street, it would turn back up to Washington Avenue, where stops could be made at the Post Office and the Health Department.

The route south on Washington Avenue would pass the library and Town Hall and run along the main business area of town to Belleville Avenue again, where the bus would turn and head west to DeWitt Avenue. A turn on DeWitt would bring the bus north to Joralemon Street, onto which it would turn and head west again to the area of the Rutan estates past Franklin Avenue and Joralemon Street. Coming back, the bus would pass the shopping plaza at Franklin and Joralemon, then run on Franklin back past the Geriatrics Center, the senior citizens' center and Clara Maass Hospital. The route would proceed straight to the Newark City subway, then turn onto Franklin Street, onto Lake Street, and back to the starting point at Belmont and Bloomfield.

The route was devised after a study by a transportation committee and consultation with the Chamber of Commerce and Public Service, along with various public officials.

The bus will be driven by off-duty policemen and firemen, who are already covered for hospitalization and other requirements by the Town, said Strumolo.

The bus was approved by the Town Commission last October, when they voted to appropriate $10,000 for its purchase. At the time, some questions had been raised about the cost of insurance for the bus, but it was later discovered the bus could be insured with other Town vehicles for a reasonable amount.

Memorial Rites Set for Monday

Memorial Day will be observed in Belleville Monday, May 27, with traditional ceremonies at three locations, Chairman William F. Lenehan of the Belleville Veterans Council announced this week.

At the Rutgers Street Bridge, at 8:45 a.m., citizens will gather at the Rutgers Street Bridge, where Lenehan, of V.F.W. Post 275, will place a wreath on the Passaic River. As all participating organizations display their colors, a prayer will be led by Rev. Goldston. A salute will be given by the Post 275 firing squad, and the bells of the Belleville Reformed Church will toll.

All organizations will meet at the Union Avenue monument at 9:45 a.m. at Greylock Parkway and Union Avenue, when Mayor Joseph McGreevy will give the main address of the day, after a welcome by James Leary of Post 275 and an invocation by the Rev. Benedetto Pascal of Silver Lake Baptist Church. The Belleville High School Band will be present for the National Anthem and a bugler will play taps, and a rifle salute will be sounded. Flowers will be placed at the monument by the participants.

At Town Hall, at 11:30 a.m., wreaths will be placed at a memorial service dedicated to all deceased members of the Belleville Police and Fire Departments.

The groups participating in the day's services are D.A.V. 22 of Belleville and Nutley; Joseph J. Carbat Post 299 of the American Legion; Post 105 of the American Legion; Post 6265 and Post 275 of the V.F.W.; Barbore Mosco Post 57 of the Italian-American War Veterans; Amvets Post 26.

Society to Unveil Historical Sites

Four Belleville churches will be designated historical sites in a ceremony Sunday, June 2, sponsored by the Belleville Historical Society.

The commemoration of the four churches — St. Peter's on William Street, Christ Church on William and Main, Wesley Methodist on Belleville and Main, and the Reformed Church on Rutgers and Main — will be the first of a series of dedication leading up to the national Bicentennial in 1976. Other sites in Belleville are yet to be selected.

The public is invited to join the Historical Society members and town officials on an afternoon tour of the four churches on June 2, as the special plaques are placed at each of the four churches.

The program will begin at 1:30 p.m. at St. Peter's Church when master of ceremonies Harry Sullivan introduces Mayor Joseph McGreevy, who will present the marker to Bishop Joseph A. Costello.

At 2:30 p.m., Dwight Street will introduce Viola Mitchell, at Christ Church on William Street, for presentation of a plaque to the Rev. Frederick Long.

The Old Wesley Methodist Church will be dedicated at 3:30 p.m. when Allan Crisp presents a marker to the Rev. Gerald Rounds. Ralph Casale will be master of ceremonies.

At 4:45 p.m., at Belleville Reformed Church on Rutgers and Main Streets, George Gebrian will introduce Catherine and Louisa Mingle to make the presentation to the Rev. Paul Ruter. Following the dedication, a ceremony will be conducted in the church, and Historical Society President Gerard Hickey will address the participants of the tour. Refreshments will also be served.

The concept of the historical markers, developed by Edward O'Neal and the activities committee, is a major undertaking of the Historical Society. Town Historian Allan Crisp said the four churches were selected for the initial dedication "because of their age and significance. They were the centers of resistance against the British during the American Revolution."

The Society has printed stickers for "site boosters" and these can be obtained at the Belleville Public Library on Washington Avenue.

The four churches to be commemorated date back to as far as 1697.

BEA, Board Breathe Easier— Teachers' Pact Gets the Ink

All the needed names and seals are on the new two-year teachers' contract which caused headaches for Board and Belleville Education Association negotiators throughout the year. The agreement runs for two years, and in an unprecedented clause, disallows any reopening of salary negotiations after the first year.

Board of Ed President Matthew Pica and BEA President Jerome Weiss signed the papers, along with BEA Secretary Mary Ann

Guglielmo and Board Secretary Mary Shader. The salary terms of the contract grant a 4.5 percent hike next year and an increase of about 5 percent the following year to the 318 members of the BEA, the single largest group of public employees in Belleville.

A special meeting of the Board of Education will be held June 10, when contracts with the school system's four other bargaining units are expected to be signed. Closely following the teachers' contract, the pacts for the administrators, 10-month secretaries, 12-month secretaries and maintenance workers are expected to run for two years, also with no salary reopeners, and the increase will probably be in line with those of the teachers.

All negotiators and officials on both sides were clearly relieved to have the contracts signed and scheduled to go into effect in July. The papers had been scheduled for signing at a previous meeting in mid-April, but a last-minute disagreement before the meeting over interpretations of pay scales plunged the negotiators back into another round of bargaining. Also, in January, the BEA threatened the Board with a one-day job action to speed up the talks.

The contract was ratified by the BEA in a 200-44 vote, with the dissenters uneasy about locking into wage increases for two years. On the Board of Education side, the agreement passed unanimously, with member G. Fred Burlazzi taking the op-

Local Coed Solves Mystery Of Rutgers Family History

from the Belleville
Historical Society

Mary Lynn Janiec, a Belleville girl who is a junior at Jersey City State College, is credited with clearing up a mystery, surrounding a historical event which the Belleville Historical Society wanted to include in a historical tour of Belleville which the Society is preparing for Belleville's school children and others interested.

Edward O'Neal, of the society reports that it was believed that someone in the family donated $5,000 to Queens College in New Brunswick when it was in need of funds, and in appreciation, the Trustees changed the name of the college from "Queens" to "Rutgers".

Information was received from Rutgers University that the name was changed in 1825 in honor of Col. Henry Rutgers, a New York philanthropist.

A search of the Rutgers plot in the Belleville Reformed Church cemetery disclosed the names of a number of members of the family, but not Col. Henry Rutgers.

Mary Lynn and her sister Kathie, who help their mother in their delicatessen at 368 Washington Avenue became interested in the search and got some information about Col. Henry Rutgers from the History Department of Jersey City State College. Mary Lynn then wrote to the New York Historical Society. This letter "hit the jackpot," as the Society sent her a copy of the History of the Rutgers family, an important Dutch Colonial family, which contained much information about Col. Henry Rutgers and members of the family who moved to Belleville in the late 1700's.

UP TO DATE — Mrs. Lola McDermott examines her mercury battery pacemaker, since replaced by a new lithium model.

Medical Breakthrough Has Saved Her Life

Only a few years ago, there would have been no help for Lola McDermott. Her heart condition would have surely killed her. But today, thanks to modern medicine, she's very much alive and happy.

On April 23 of this year, Mrs. McDermott became the first Belleville resident to have a lithium-powered pacemaker implanted above her heart. The operation was performed at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, and the effect will be to regulate and stimulate the beat of her heart for the next five to seven years.

"I expect to be healthy enough after seven years to renew my pacemaker," says the 57-year-old Mrs. McDermott. "I've got complete confidence in it. I'd just like to meet the man who first said, 'let's make a pacemaker.' I don't even know who he is or what country he's from, but it certainly has helped me."

Mrs. McDermott has used a pacemaker since July of 1972, when a conventional mercury battery powered pacemaker was implanted at Clara Maass by the noted surgeon Dr. Franklin Gerard, who later performed the operation for Mrs. McDermott's lithium powered pacemaker. Mrs. McDermott needs the pacemaker (also called a pulse generator), because a sudden and severe heart attack she suffered in February of 1972 caused so much damage to her heart, corrective surgery was impossible. She had been rushed to Clara Maass Hospital, then to St. Barnabas Hospital in Livingston. Mrs. McDermott survived the attack and was released from the hospital after six weeks, but in July she began to suffer fainting spells. "I would wake up and find myself on the floor, wondering how I got there." Her family doctor, Dr. Joel Cherashore of Nutley, advised that she return to Clara Maass in July, when the decision was made to strengthen her weak heart with the pacemaker.

Right after her heart attack, she had been helped by a temporary pacemaker, attached by thin cables to her heart, with the battery unit outside her body.

The first permanent pacemaker, a round plastic coated unit about three inches across and three-quarters inches thick, had a battery life of about two years, and shortly before Easter of this year, Mrs. McDermott began to sense the batteries were weakening. She again consulted the doctors and an appointment was made for another implant on April 23.

"I had just read about the new lithium pacemakers and I knew they were good for seven years, so I asked to have one of them implanted. There are also atomic powered pacemakers available which last for a very long time, but these are still pretty much in the experimental stage."

The new unit is much more compact than her first, being slightly larger than a cigarette lighter, with basically the same shape. It weighs a little over five ounces. The cost of a lithium powered model is about $1300 to $1595, as opposed to $800 to $1300 for the mercury battery powered model.

In the normal individual, every heart beat is triggered by a slight jolt of electricity generated by the body's cardiac electrical system. For patients such as Mrs. McDermott, mott, whose heart has been impaired and cannot always provide those pulses, the mechanical pacemaker provides the electricity. It has saved her life, and she has never had any reservations about taking a pacemaker.

Belleville Resident Owns New Lithium Pacemaker

"I didn't have any tears about it — I looked at the pacemaker as something that would save my life. I never worried for one minute, because I had complete confidence in the pacemaker and in both my doctors."

Mrs. McDermott is married to Patrick McDermott, a group leader for Englehard Industries. They have been Belleville residents for 22 years, living at 35 Garden Avenue. One son, David, lives in Pennsylvania. For the time being, Mrs. McDermott is still resting from her operation, though she's up and around. After her heart attack, she had to leave her job as a cost clerk at

She's looking forward to a fall dinner at Clara Maass for all pacemaker patients from the hospital. "In fact," she says, "I think it would be nice to form a club of people in Belleville and this area who have pacemakers. I know there are a few, but I haven't met them."

portunity to make a public plea for the State to take on more responsibility in school financing. He stressed, though, that he was in agreement with the details of the teachers' pact.

Board President Matthew Pica acknowledged that a "hard contract" had been struck. "The BEA negotiators were amicable, but hard-nosed," he said, "just like we were."

Also at the meeting, it was announced that member Lawrence Schwyhad been elected vice president of the Essex County School Boards Association. A former president of the Belleville board who was reelected last February, Schwartz is reported to be the first Bellevilleite to become an officer of the association.

Schwartz was also the only member of the Belleville board to dissent from a resolution to ask permission of the County Superintendent of Schools to use two standard classrooms in Schools Five and Eight during the coming school year. Both rooms are substandard because they are on basement levels, and the School Eight room has been used for 10 years as a kindergarten room.

Schwartz took issue with the rest of the board, he said, "because it's time Belleville did away with substandard classrooms. We should be doing everything in our power to gain adequate facilities."

Burglars Bungle Safe Job

Burglars found a safe too big a job last weekend when they failed in an attempted theft at American Finance, 364 Washington Avenue.

Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight said the break-in was discovered Monday morning by the company's assistant manager. The safe, unopened, was surrounded by tools left behind by the burglars.

The would-be robbers had entered the office by forcing a rear door open, but when they tackled the safe, they got nowhere.

Detectives Nicholas Berrigan and Kenneth Place are investigating the breaking and entering.

Aluminum Recycling Continues

The Junior Woman's Club aluminum recycling program will be held this Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Recreation House, 407 Joralemon Avenue.

Recyclable material includes aluminum beverage cans, pie tins and aluminum foil. The club asks that cans first be crushed for easy packing.

Trio Aims for Demo Delegation

Michael Welsh, James McCann and Stephen Newsome announced today the formal opening of their campaign for 11th District Delegates to the Mid-term Democratic National Convention to be held in December in Kansas City. Under rules specified by the Democratic National Committee, the majority of convention delegates are to be elected in the June 4 primary election. The three who were active in the Byrne Gubernatorial effort are running on a slogan "Continue the Progress."

McCann, Welsh and Newsome feel that their candidacy is a continuation of a renewal of responsive government begun with the nomination and election of Governor Brendan Byrne. All were active with the Byrne team primary effort in the 30th legislative district that resulted in the nomination of Byrne. Gregory Castano, Assemblymen Michael Aduato and John Cali, McCann and Newsome were co-directors of the Belleville effort, while Welsh was coordinator of volunteers. All were active in the Democratic effort in the November campaign.

McCann noted, "Many of the changes in the Democratic Party began with the 1972 Convention. It began a reopening of the Democratic Party to other than the 'Professional Politician' at a time when the Leadership of the other national party was dragging it into the mire of Watergate. We welcome this renewal of our Party and its restoration to the mass of the voters."

Newsome in summarizing his feelings as well as Welsh and McCann, a former Democratic County Committeeman, said, "We are in healthy accord with the National Democratic Chairman Robert Strauss and the members of the Democratic National Committee, as well as Essex County Democratic Chairman Harry Lerner in their efforts to bring about greater participation by all concerned Democrats at the local level. We sincerely hope our candidacy will reflect another step in that direction. We want to say that our effort is one that will 'Continue the Progress.'"

Some people spend more than they can afford when buying a house. Equally painful is the mistake of buying the cheapest possible house and then suffering through its shortcomings.

I have no intention of stating how much anyone can afford for a house. This is a very personal decision. There are guidelines of monthly averages that lending institutions use for housing expenses. But - like the "height/weight" charts printed on scales - these are only averages.

Don't hold back if you feel you can exceed the guidelines. When you are willing and sufficiently disciplined to economize on other expenses, you can get a better house than the average calls for. A good house may seem costly, but the rewards are well worth it. Investing in a house that's a little more expensive gives you an excellent inflation hedge while your whole family enjoys a better place to live. And often, the resale opportunity is brighter.

The Teachers' Contract

Many long months of negotiation ended Monday night when Board of Education and Belleville Education Association officials signed into effect a two-year contract for 318 teachers in the local system. From the taxpayers' standpoint, it appears the long wait for the settlement has been worthwhile.

The Board of Education resolutely pushed to eliminate any clause in the contract to reopen salary negotiations when the first year ends. As Board President Matt Pica points out, this will give school budget planners the unique advantage, for the first time in Belleville history, to have a firm figure set before drawing a package for voter approval next February. Therefore, the taxpayers will have a much more solid idea of what will really happen to the budget they're asked to approve.

The Belleville Education Association, for their part, is taking somewhat of a gamble after a year. While their negotiators fought for a fair increase over the next two years for the membership, they did not insist on a fat pay hike to pad themselves during the two-year wait for the next salary talks. The increase agreed upon — 4.5 percent next year and 5 percent the year after — is well within reasonable bounds.

BEA President Jerome Weiss said his negotiators were well aware of the plight of Belleville's taxpayers, and he frankly admits to some concern that the salary increases will keep up with the skyrocketing cost of living.

We hope the responsible outlook of BEA and the Board of Education will hold up under the worsening of the economy. The attitudes taken by the Board of Ed. and the BEA membership show consideration for the community in tough economic times, and we hope that consideration will be returned when prosperity returns to the nation.

Cheerleaders' Uniforms

With those salary negotiations going on, it seems the Board of Education and school administrators couldn't find the time to review a grievance from a small segment of Belleville's younger citizens — the Belleville High cheerleaders.

Last year a group of cheerleaders attended a Board meeting and displayed a tattered uniform they said was over eight years old, and nearly unwearable. Yet this was the kind of outfit the BHS cheerleaders had, been given for their presentations before the public of Belleville and other towns. They were told the Board would consider their plea.

Last month, the Board of Education appropriated funds to buy new uniforms for the color guard, the twirlers, flag bearers, marching band and the orchestra, which had never before had uniforms. It is commendable that the Board is willing to keep these students in style, but it remains a mystery why no uniforms were bought for the cheerleaders. The question came up at that meeting last month and the Board promised to look into the request. President Matthew Pica assured the girls uniforms would be purchased if they were warranted.

The girls were back before the Board Monday night. Nothing had been done since the last meeting by school administrators, and the cheerleaders were forced to go through a routine identical to last year's, displaying a uniform that by now was a year older and a year more worn. The Board made the same promises to weigh the matter, but it seems the time for uniform fittings had come and gone since last month's meeting.

We feel the cheerleaders, a group of students who work as hard and sacrifice as much as any of the school system's performing units, has been wronged by the administration and the Board. An oversight has been made and immediate steps should be taken to correct it by next fall, when the girls appear before the public at the opening football game.

Using Our Air

A noted columnist recently suggested the United States Government launch a scientific research program to utilize the winds for mass transportation. Such a system would take advantage of nature's gift — and reduce pollution.

Since the giant dirigible Hindenberg crashed and burned at Lakehurst, New Jersey, thirty-seven years ago, vast technological strides have been made in airplane construction. It's unquestionably possible today, therefore, to build safe dirigibles or Zeppelins, stronger and lighter than the Hindenberg — and faster and safer.

The Hindenberg was forced to use hydrogen as its lifting gas because the United States (foolishly) refused to sell Germany helium. (It was wrongly thought the Hindenberg could be a military threat). Hydrogen is highly inflammable, helium safe.

Helium-filled airships could move large numbers of passengers very cheaply.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Since early January when Joe Grosche was transferred as principal of School One to School Seven as principal to replace Mrs. Viola Spray who retired and later entered the race for a seat on the school board which she won and now sits as a member, School One was without a principal, but had been supervised and covered by Assistant Superintendent of Schools Seymour Grossman.

In the latter part of April our school board appointed Pat Forte as the principal of School One. Mr. Forte is a very capable, qualified educator who has introduced many innovative improvements into our school system. He will unquestionably serve as a good head of the Valley school.

The column finds no fault with the school boards appointment of Mr. Forte, however, it does choose to question the voting record of School board President Matt Pica and Mrs. Spray on the issue in view of their publicly made comments.

Back in the thirties when the Roosevelt administration proposed Social Security, U.S. Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, an authority on economy, while supporting the measure made a strong plea that participation in the plan be made optional. It is unfortunate his proposal was not accepted.

Let us peruse what the sad plight of this anticipated millennium for our aged is to-day. Few could eke out an existence on the paltry doled out assistance Social Security payments offer without supplemental assistance, such as a pension or additional income, especially in view of the excessively high inflationary cost of living.

For the young, to-day's deductions are so high for Social Security contributions by payroll withholding, that a person employed at the age of twenty and retiring at the age of 65 would have to live to age 110 to get back all he or she had taken from their pay. The Social Security system set-up is badly in need of Congressional overhauling.

The person who knows how to manage and his financial affairs is the hard-hit victim of an unfair system that "grabs" his earnings to support others and the extravagance of a wasteful government. Offering, as a reward only poverty, not security. Ask any Senior Citizen. They'll tell you.

Let the government take the individual's deductions to sell him Savings Bonds which would be his, to dispose of as he chooses or to his heirs or assigns on his death, not like the present inequitable set-up which "gouges" the worker and only assures him a pittance if he lives to retire or very graciously leaves the widow with a paltry $250 to bury her husband in the event of an untimely death.

Baby we've been "took!" Pressure should be strongly brought to bear upon our national legislators in Congress to rewrite this unfair and faulty so-called Social Security measure so that real substantive security for our Senior Citizens is provided for, especially in view of what they are being "soaked" for in the hope for a secure old age without being a "drain" upon their children.

Publish Eighth Installment Of 'Dissolution of Society'

Such are the dictates of twentieth century competition.

The natural tendency of present society also requires government to become more removed from the individual. The individual cannot recognize authority and the society cannot delay the power struggle to recognize the needs of the individual. In the process, the influence of society is further diminished. The situation is analogous to the condition described by Isaac Newton — the influence of a governing body is determined by its size and distance...the greater the distance, the less the influence. Obviously, if there is no influence, there can be no group.

The theory of dissolution holds that the equalization of social forces produces social disintegration. The process of equalization is beyond human control.

The basic postulates of the theory are not new to academics. They were recognized by Marx in his economic interpretation of history.

Marx advanced the idea that an economic system becomes static with equality. He further believed that the sum total of the economic forces would ultimately produce anarchy.

The theory of Marx differs from the dissolution in that Marx believed man could attain perfectibility. He did not — or could not because of the influence of his times — appreciate the fact that anarchy will compel man to accept his imperfectibility.

Marx enunciated his theory in the era of the Industrial Revolution. Like his contemporaries, he desired to overthrow existing institutions and to be free of all control. Thus, he arbitrarily assumed that economic causes were responsible for all movements of history. He categorically rejected the idea that God was the prime mover.

In order to complete his system of reference, Marx had to offer mankind both a goal in the struggle for survival and a reward for the struggle. His goal became the attainment of perfectibility. His reward was utopian-anarchy.

In retrospect, it is understandable why Marx's doctrine could hope to offer mankind a heaven-on-earth. Man had not yet attained the peak of his struggle. And he was not aware of the menacing influence of the population problem.

The precise fact which reveals the limitation of the Marxist system is the fact that man had no control whatever over the movements of history. He is governed by the force which requires dissolution. He is governed by the need to satisfy his physiological requirements. He is governed by the need to sustain an expanding population. He is governed by that law of nature which holds that all life — including the human — tends to exceed its warrant.

Biker Thanks Trip Sponsors

To the editor:

A few weeks ago you published my letter telling about the Hike-Bike for the retarded. I had asked people to sponsor me, as I was riding the course and needed sponsors to pledge any amount of money per mile that I rode. I took part in this event on behalf of my little sister, Dawn, who is possibly retarded.

Apparently many people feel as strongly about helping these retarded children as my family and myself, because I received pledges of $549, which I will be able to give to the New Jersey Association for Retarded Children.

My sister will be five in June and she still can't express herself too good, but if she could I know she would join me in thanking you all very much for your support.

I hope to take part in the Hike-Bike again next year, and if anyone cares to sponsor me again I would be most grateful.

Sincerely,
Keith Allum

Police Escort Was Big Help

To the editor:

An open letter to the Belleville Police Department:
Gentlemen:

As a resident of Belleville for some eight years, I feel fortunate to have required your services only a few times. However, when my family and I did need you, you performed outstandingly well.

In the latter part of last year, my son, not quite two years old, downed an unknown quantity of medicine. I decided to rush him to the hospital in my private vehicle as the time factor was important. (Being a former professional ambulance driver, I feel a little more qualified than the average driver under those circumstances.) Driving quickly but cautiously, I happened to pass one of your patrol cars, the driver of which instantaneously sized up the situation and escorted me with lights and siren to the hospital. He didn't stop me to ask what the hurry was nor did he issue to me a well deserved summons for violations.

In the hectic proceedings at the hospital, I didn't get a chance to find out his name or to give my humble thanks. I hope this letter does that for me.

Just recently I required your services again, although under much less harrowing circumstances. You performed admirably. Gentlemen, you impress the hell out of me and I cannot thank you enough.

Sincerely,
William M. Johnson II

Injured Bicyclist Appreciated Aid

To the editor:

Recently I had been involved in a bicycle accident on Greylock Parkway and immediate first aid was required. I would like to thank the Belleville Ambulance Squad, the Belleville Police and the families on Greylock Parkway who were there helping me.

A special thanks to Mr. Beresford and his friend from the Ambulance Squad and also Mr. Chicky Puleo from the Belleville Police for their extra concern.

Cites Review of Playhouse

To the Editor:

I found your review very rewarding and most enlightening of the recent initial production of the Family Playhouse in Nutley, of "Oliver".

It is also my wish that your observations made of the community theaters' role will be realized, especially in future productions.

I became interested in the theaters' potential, subsequently becoming involved in its production via its scenery and art work.

It is also my hope that you and your paper may make itself known more of then in the future concerning the development of this new community effort.

Thank you very much.

The eighth installment of Jack R. Nageley's "The Dissolution of Society" appears below. This week, Nageley explains how the evident clash between the needs of the individual and society have made the world situation more conducive to dissolution. He then proceeds to draw similarities between Marx's economic theories and the theory of dissolution, claiming that the main difference between the two is Marx's belief in man's ability to attain perfectibility. Nageley believes that the anarchy resulting from dissolution will force man to accept his imperfectibility.

The world-condition began to evolve at the time man acquired dominion over the specie.

When the threat of preservation was negated, man was free to embark upon unbridled multiplication. Thereupon, it was inevitable that differing social groups would overlap because there was no force to limit expansion. It was also a foregone conclusion that the several societies would ally in order to equalize the power of the dominating society. Ultimately, it was only a question of time until the societies would be seeking world-conation.

At the present time, the struggle for dominion is consigned to the United Nations. There, the member-nations are seeking to resolve their conflicts by arbitration rather than destruction. All are aware that the survival of civilization is in issue.

The member-nations are equally aware that the struggle from dominion is an Absolute. They know the tendency to centralization will not be halted until a single power attains ascendancy. Consequently, they must fabricate a plan for living that not only satisfies the tendency of power to enlarge itself but will also induce the individual to conform to the plan. However, any such plan is beyond the ingenuity of man because it must compromise mutually destructive tendencies.

Under any plan for living, the individual must be able to recognize authority as well as understand it if he is to conform. He must be accorded certain rights and dignities in order to allow him a feeling of identity. He will not support any plan whatever merely for the privilege of living. On the other hand, the continuation of the group has certain requisites which are antithetical to the needs of the individual. Its survival requires his continued obedience. It cannot tolerate individual rights in the presence of peril. And it must disavow tradition when necessity dictates.

When the foregoing needs are translated to present conditions, it becomes evident that the ends of the individual and society are irreconcilably at odds. The society must become more powerful and more complex. It must usurp the rights of the individual.

School Super Gives Report

The Times again this week publishes notes from Belleville Superintendent of Schools on various programs in the local system. Superintendent Greco's reports will be a regular Times feature.

Piano Workshop

Nineteen teachers completed an in-service program in music. This piano workshop was sponsored, organized and taught by staff members of the Music Department. The successful completion of this course means that the nineteen participants not only improved their musical knowledge which can enhance their teaching day, but earned two graduate in-service credits as well.

BHS Key Club Collecting Paper

On Saturday, June 1, one of the outstanding organizations of Belleville High School, the Key Club, will hold a paper drive to raise funds for its 1974-75 program.

The new President of the Key Club, Fred Lardaro, has designated Anthony Santanelli as the Chairman of the Paper Drive.

The Key Club recognizes that the salvage of old newspaper represents an important contribution to the nation's conservation effort. Each year over five million trees can be saved by well organized paper drives.

The Key Club is anticipating 100 percent cooperation from students, teachers and Belleville citizens. The collection period will be from 9 to 12 a.m. with the "pick-up" point in the rear parking lot of Belleville High School.

Anyone with a supply of old newspaper to be contributed on Saturday, June 1, should call 759-4338 between 7:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. any day to have Key Clubbers collect the paper at your home.

School One P.T.A. Set For Election

A P.T.A. meeting will be held at the School One multipurpose room tonight at 8 p.m. The agenda for the meeting includes election and installation of officers, and a welcome to Pat Forte, the newly-appointed principal.

Entertainment will be provided by the fifth and sixth grade Glee Club under the direction of Wendell Paar and Mrs. Judy Miller.

Refreshments will be served.

School Eight H&SA To Install Officers

The Home and School Association of School Eight, Inc. will hold its last meeting of the school year on May 23 at 7:30 p.m., in the school auditorium. Installation of new Officers will be held and a special candlelight ceremony to be performed by Mrs. Viola Narucki.

The new slate of officers for the 1974-75 school year are as follows: President, Mrs. Diane Roselli; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. Jude Gerhauser; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. Lillian Norton, Honorary Vice Pres., Nicholas Petti; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Virginia Racanelli; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Dolores Dill; Treasurer, Mrs. Pat Concato.

Also that evening the children of School Eight will give a talent show.

Pharmacy Footnotes

You need a good breakfast. Don't forget the last meal you may have had was some twelve hours the evening before. All night your body uses up energy just by living. The energy from last night's meal has been used up by this morning's breakfast. You need a good breakfast to fortify you for the morning's activities. After an adequate morning meal, you will be more poised, less frazzled, be less rushed, less forgetful, more alert, and less liable to accidents. You'll even be able to do your work with more enjoyment.

Student Comments On Firecrackers

by Michael Perrone

This fourth of July is supposed to be one of the quietest in history.

The Consumer Product and Safety Commission recently put a ban on the sale of fireworks this year. In Belleville, the Department of Public Safety has been the subject of criticism for its lack of enforcement of existing laws concerning fireworks. A concerned citizen began a campaign last year to keep fireworks out of Belleville.

The major reason most people object to the use of fireworks is because they feel that fireworks can be dangerous. However, last year in Belleville there were no injuries attributed to fireworks reported.

Another common complaint is that fireworks are noisy. This complaint usually comes from the "over-the-hill" crowd who, though many themselves used fireworks in their youth, now condemn the practice.

Generally speaking, fireworks are divided into three classes, "A," "B," and "C," depending on the powder content. Class "C" is the most common and, if handled cautiously, completely harmless. Class "C" consists of firecrackers, small bottle rockets, roman candles, helicopters, and other small items.

Key Club Planning Session

by Anthony Santinelli

The newly-elected officers of the Key Club recently held their first Board of Directors meeting in preparation for the '74-'75 school year.

President, Fred Laudaos; vice-president, Bob Feldman; secretary, David Ritacco; treasurer, Ken Drake; senior representative, Dominick Mobilio; junior representative, Fran Morel; and chairman advisor, Anthony Santinelli discussed fund raising projects for the upcoming year, including a paper recycling drive.

Rhode Island Chorus Visits

by Cindy Cronauer

On April 27, 1974 the Belleville High School Orchestra presented the Cranston High School East Concert Choir in the first of two exchange concerts. The latter concert occurred on May 2 and 3 when the members of the BHS orchestra were guests at the Cranston H.S. concert choir in Cranston, Rhode Island.

The Cranston High School East Concert Choir is an a cappella choir under the direction of Mr. Paul Mancini. The Belleville group was under the supervision of Mr. Louis Kosma.

At both schools, the Cranston group performed five selections, "Cry Out and Shout," "These are the Times," "Alleluia," "Christ is Risen," "City Called Heaven," "I Hear a Voice a Praying."

The Belleville High School Orchestra performed six numbers, "March from Carmen," "Havah Hagela," "Regina Colli," "Highlights from West Side Story," "Bach in Rock," and Adagio from Farewell Symphony.

Students Who Bike to School May Wind Up Walking Home

by Joanne Connelly

Two crazes have hit Belleville High School. The first craze is the great sport of bicycling. The other is one of bicycle theft. Although many bikes have been stolen from their owners in Belleville recently, reports the Belleville police, the high school's cases of theft have been different.

BHS thefts are unlike others in town because they have been parts of the bicycle, not the entire bike. Several cases of stolen wheels have already been reported to the police and the principal's office in the first few months of spring. It is obvious that when the thief can not take off with the bike because it is locked, he will proceed to take any part which he is capable of removing.

Because of the sudden outburst of thefts, the Belleville police have been working on tracking down the stolen property. However, there is another problem. At the high school there is no bicycle rack where a student cyclist may secure his bike. Much of the police's time could be saved if a good size modern bike rack was placed at the school. At this time, most of the cycling students chain their bicycles to a railing by the main office which is too small and unsafe. As all of these students agree, a new rack must be purchased immediately.

As a victim of not one but two bicycle thefts at the high school, I can say that it causes very much pain. Many of these ten speed bikes which most students ride, are quite expensive, as is mine. The cost of my two stolen wheels have been expensive. However, I refuse to stop riding my bike to school. It is my form of transportation as others students' cars and I will continue to ride it. Yet I must insist that something be done at our school by the Board of Education for the cycling students who do not use the school bus and must supply their own transportation. It is a fact that many students in BHS who would very much enjoy riding their bikes to school do not because of the fear of theft.

Because of my many unfortunate experiences with my bike, I have learned a great deal about securing a bicycle. To all you novice bicyclists, here is a bit of advice. First, buy a very long thick chain or cable lock. The length is important because you must lock both wheels together with the frame to a bicycle rack or stationary pole. On each occasion of my thefts, only one wheel was chained because my chain was not long enough.

Secondly, be sure you lock your bike to a spot where many people can see it; a busy area. A bike thief who has no onlookers will take the extra time to cut it with a wire cutter. This is very possible if he does have the time. Thirdly, if you are about to purchase a ten speed bike, buy one without "quick-release" wheels. This kind of wheel is on many more expensive bikes and is often the victim of theft because of its easy removal. Most of all, never leave your bike unlocked or unattended for the shortest time.

Today, cycling is not only great fun for many, but is great exercise and cuts down on car traffic along with the reduction of air pollution. Many more people everyday are recognizing bicycling as a real form of transportation as should the Belleville Board of Education.

Possibly, something will be done soon at Belleville High School about this rising bike theft problem. However, it must be dealt with immediately by the Board of Education before another student is a victim of bike theft and more students are turned off from bicycling to and from school.

Pack 350 Holds Bike Safety Contest

Pack 350 held at their last pack meeting a bicycle safety poster contest. First place poster winner was taken by Richard Gaugh (Den 1), second place, John Giacobbe (Den three), third place, Christopher Tortorella, (Den one). Honorable mention, John Mosca (Webelo).

There was a speech on bicycle safety given by Capt. Robert Russamanno, Belleville Police Department and assisted by Officer Robert McDonald. Also a bicycle trophy award donated by Chief of police, Joseph Smith. Cub Scout Bicycle Safety Program Award presented to Tom Balsamo, Cubmaster and Tony Lusnia, Committee Chairman by Marcel Cinquina, Robert Treat Council District executive. Pack 350 also won its first Presidential Pack Award, placed on the pack flag by Pack Secretary Bill Cook.

A ten-speed bicycle was donated to the pack by Charles Murray. The winner of the bike was Alan Hysinger (Den three).

Ed Keesler, committeeman and his son, Edward Keesler, Jr., sold over 450 tickets personally for the Boy Scout of America, Robert Treat Council, Scout-Air-Rama held at the North Terminal of the Newark International Airport on May 4. Nine hundred tickets in all were sold by Pack 350.

Pack 350 at the Scout-Air-Rama took first place in special events (neckerchief slides) and Webelo took first place with their pinewood derby.

As part of their Good Will Project the Pack are donating new toys to the Essex County Children's Shelter, in Belleville.

May 30, Cub Pack 350 will be again planting their flowers on the lawn of Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, Union Avenue, Belleville.

The boys and their parents took a bus trip to Shea Stadium on May 18 to see the New York Mets play Montreal.

Next month the boys are preparing for the annual 350 picnic.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS IN SOCIAL SPOTLIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Gibson Honeymoon In Virgin Islands

Mrs. Robert Gibson Jr. — nee Linda Miller

Miss Linda Carol Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller of 51 Campbell Avenue and Robert William Gibson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Sr. of Eden Prairie, Minnesota, exchanged wedding vows April 20 in Wesley United Methodist Church, Belleville.

The Rev. William L. Dixie, formerly of Wesley and now LCDR, CHC, USNR stationed at Norfolk, Virginia, performed the ceremony. A reception followed at Rock Spring Inn, West Orange.

The bride wore a gown of ivory, sate-peau trimmed with Cluny lace and fashioned with a chapel length train. Her elbow length veil fell from a Victorian cap accented with lace and seed pearls and she carried yellow and ivory sweetheart roses, babies breath and ivy.

Miss Deborah Friedman of Cornwall's Heights, Pennsylvania and Miss Kathryn Lennox of Washington were honor attendants. Miss Ruth Ann Lee of North Plainfield and Miss Gail Gibson of Minneapolis, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

All were attired in bright yellow jersey shirtwaist gowns, wore babies breath in their hair and carried bouquets of spring flowers.

J. Patrick Wolfe of Minneapolis was best man. Ushering were the bride's brother, Christopher Miller of Belleville, Richard Bergman of Bloomington, Minnesota and John Ungerman of Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. Miller chose a shrimp polyester gown and had a gardenia corsage while the grooms mother was in pale blue crepe with a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Gibson an alumna of Keuka College, New York, is a Navy nurse while Mr. Gibson is a lieutenant in the Medical Service Corps of the Navy. Both are stationed at Bethesda, Maryland.

The couple honeymooned in St. John, Virgin Islands.

Mrs. Larry Mayes — nee Patrice Giaimo

Patrice E. Giaimo, Larry Mayes Wed

Wedding vows were exchanged May 5 in St. Mary's Church by Miss Patrice Ellen Giaimo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Giaimo of 75 Perry Street and Larry Mayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mayes of Alma, Michigan.

The Rev. John Judge, chaplain of Mountside Hospital, Montclair, performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Town & Campus, West Orange.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white organza over taffeta gown with illusion neckline and sleeves appliqued with Alencon lace. It was fashioned with a full skirt and lace bordered cathedral train.

A lace covered crown held her fingertip veil and she carried white roses, miniature carnations and babies breath.

Miss Beverly Giaimo of Belleville was her sister's maid of honor. Miss Ellen Panasky of Belleville and Miss Meg Lauber of Basking Ridge were bridesmaids.

The honor attendant was in lilac polyester with rolled collar and long sleeves. Her headpiece was of lace and she carried lilac and pink carnations and babies breath surrounded with pink roses. The others were in pale pink and carried pink and lilac tipped carnations and babies breath.

Robert Mayes of Alma served as his brother's best man. Ushering were his nephew, Thomas Mayes of Alma and George Gebhart of Montvale.

Mrs. Giaimo chose a yellow polyester gown with a corsage of yellow roses while the groom's mother was attired in aqua with a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Mayes, an alumna of Mountside Hospital School of Nursing, is in the Coronary Care Unit of Newark Beth Israel Medical Center.

Mr. Mayes received his degree in business administration from Michigan Technological University, served in the Army and is with Jeffrey Manufacturing, East Orange.

The couple honeymooned in Bermuda and are living in Atlanta, Georgia where Mr. Mayes has been transferred by his company.

Miss Denise C. Ilaria Is Bride Of Michael William Burkhart

Miss Denise Celeste Ilaria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ilaria of 50 Evelyn Place and Michael William Burkhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burkhart of South Belmar, were married March 23 in St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Peter Galdon performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Fiesta, Woodbridge.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin and lace trimmed with pearls. A pearl and lace headpiece held her lace trimmed veils and she carried orchids, babies breath and stephanotis.

Miss Diane Bilowith of Nutley was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Linda Romagnoli, Miss Deborah Bilowith, Miss Cathy Jean Brown, the bride's sister, Miss Natalie Ilaria, all of Nutley and another sister, Mrs. Linda Kropalak of Belleville. Flower girl was the bride's niece, Kimberly Ann Kropalak.

Their pink haltar gowns were topped with rose bolero jackets. Headpieces were rose caps with pink veils. The honor attendant carried pink baby roses, the others had pink gladiolus and the flower girl's basket was filled with assorted flowers.

Vincent Sangemino of Newark, cousin of the bride, was best man. Ushering were the groom's brother, Mark Burkhart of Belmar, the bride's cousin, Stephen Sangemino of Newark, her brother-in-law Greg Kropalak of Belleville, James Raymond of Bloomfield and Matthew McCarthy of Woodbridge.

Mrs. Ilaria chose a pink chiffon gown with beaded bodice while the groom's mother was in baby blue chiffon. Corsages were orchids.

Mrs. Burkhart, a graduate of Nutley High School, is with Nutley Savings and Loan Association.

Mr. Burkhart, an alumnus of Wall Township High School, served with the Marines in Vietnam and is produce manager with First National Stores, Elizabeth.

The couple honeymooned in Aruba and are living in Nutley.

Mrs. Michael Burkhart — nee Denise Ilaria

MRS. RUTH COWELL, executive director of the Community Mental Health Services Program (formerly North Essex Child Guidance Clinic) is given a check for her organization by Mrs. Philip Ciavolino (right) with Mrs. Robert McGough looking on.

VFW Auxiliary Thanks Merchants For Donations

The Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Stuart E. Edgar Post Nutley wishes to thank all the merchants of our town who donated to our recent card party. Many major companies also donated to the affair and our appreciation goes out to them too. With out this cooperation and support the affair would never have been a success. Nor could our organization aid and benefit the charities as they do.

May we also take this opportunity to thank the Nutley Sun for their continued help publishing our articles on our events and activities throughout the year.

Younger-Alden Jr. Auxiliary #275 V.F.W. met, May 16th at the Post Home, 17 Belleville Ave., with the President, Mrs. Ernest Alden, presiding.

Sandy Lane Nursery School PTA Meets

Sandy Lane Nursery School at 634 Mill Street held its first annual PTA meeting May 8. The meeting was held to bring teachers and parents together for a social evening to discuss the children and their progress since their enrollment in nursery school.

Highlights of the evening included films of the Christmas show and a fashion show with clothes by Little Lamb Boutique, Belleville. Models included six students of the school, Dana D'Agostino, Kelly Higgins; Barbara Robinson, Toni Ann Santoli, Greg Gormley and Vincent Pasquale. The children modeled summer fashions for the pre-schooler. Some appear in pictures on this page.

Sandy Lane Nursery School is a state certified pre-school and day care center. It is located in a modern school building and is conducted by highly qualified and competent early childhood teachers. A 12 month program is offered and day care students are provided with hot lunches. The day care program is ideally suited for working mothers and schedules can be worked out to meet the mother's needs.

There are two pre-school sessions offered per day, 9 to 11:30 a.m. or 1 to 3:30 p.m. The Sandy Lane Nursery School exposes the children to an extensive and well planned curriculum.

Registration for the special summer "Arts and Crafts" program is now underway.

Post Ladies Report On Recent Doings

At a recent meeting of Firemen's V.F.W. Ladies Auxiliary No. 1851, Newark, favorable action was taken to purchase a V.F.W. National Home Life Membership, Eaton Rapids, Mich. for President Mrs. Alice Redmond, Newark, and was presented at Installation of Officers May 11.

The Life Membership in the V.F.W. National Home was presented to Mrs. Redmond in appreciation from all the members for having served loyally and well for her term of office by Mrs. Eugene Rolandelli, Past President and Installing Officer, and Newark.

It was also decided to send a check in donation for Loyalty Day, May 1st, to Lyons Veterans Administration Hospital, Lyons, to help defray the costs of the Loyalty Day celebration there, for the comfort and ease of all the patients. Plans were formulated to participate in the Loyalty Day Parade.

Belleville, on April 27th Mrs. Joseph Giesen, Newark, Past President of No. 1851 and District No. 4 (Essex), was selected as a judge by the Loyalty Day Committee.

Community Activities Chairman Mrs. Wm. S. Conlan, Newark reported that together with Post Chairman Thomas A. O'Neill, Jr., Newark, a Record Book is being prepared to enter into State V.F.W. and Auxiliary competition. The Recordbook reflects the works accomplished by April 1, 1973 to March 31, 1974. The Easter Candy Sale has been completed, and a check will be sent to the V.F.W. Ladies Auxiliary of the State of New Jersey, representing the proceeds, benefiting the Cancer Aid and Research Fund.

Cornell bulletin, "Housing for Older People," is a guide that can be used when looking for housing. Single, free copies may be requested from the Mailing Room, Building 7, Research Park, Ithaca, N.Y. 14850.

St. Peter's Voted As Active Parish

Holy Family of Belleville and Nutley, St. Peter's of Belleville, St. Philomena of Livingston and St. James of Newark were voted the parish participation winners by the Essex County CYO for the 1973-74 season. The parishes took first place respectively in Districts 1, 2, 3 and 4, and received plaques at the CYO's annual Adult Advisors Dinner-Dance last week at the Friar Tuck Inn, Cedar Grove.

Rev. Peter Cutillo, executive director of the county CYO, presented the plaques to parish moderators and adult leaders.

Rev. Alspach Elected Upsala College Trustee

The Rev. Albert E. Alspach, pastor of the Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church of Belleville, has been elected a member of Upsala College's Board of Trustees.

Rev. Alspach, a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, will represent the New Jersey Synod of the Lutheran Church in America on the board of the 80-year-old liberal arts college. He has been active in numerous synod matters, having served on the stewardship, evangelism and examining committees and on the social action and education committee of the New Jersey Churches.

Notes Seal Drive Progress

Frank C. Pesveye of Nutley presided at the Annual Membership Meeting of the Essex Northwest TB-Respiratory Disease League held (May) in Florham Park. He reported contributions of $240,328 in the Annual Christmas Seal Campaign to help prevent tuberculosis, emphysema, asthma, bronchitis and other lung diseases.

Pesveye said the coming year will show real progress in research, treatment and education of the public. He stressed plans to deliver home-care services to respiratory disease patients, and noted federal funds have been promised to help develop this project.

Henry N. Luther, III, former Mayor of Parsippany and John J. Griffin, Manager of Residential and Farm Sales for Jersey Central Power and Light Company were elected to three-year terms on the board of directors.

Obituaries

Rowers Complete Season's Races

The Belleville High crew wrapped up its 1974 season with a strong qualifying performance last weekend by the varsity four-man shell at the prestigious Stotesbury Regatta on the Schuylkill River in Philadelphia.

Though the Belleville boat placed fifth in a field of six in the final race, Coach Sam Giuffrida was unstinting in his praise for Joe Vazquez, Tom Della Torre, Brian Bedford, Ken McDonald and coxswain Bill Smith. "When you consider the kind of competition from all over the East Coast that went there, we did very well. Qualifying itself is very tough in the Stotesbury Regatta. Once you've done that, the rest is gravy."

Almost 50 schools sent teams for various events, with 12 entering the four-man shell competition. In the qualifier, Belleville placed third, one-tenth of a second behind Father Judge of Philadelphia, which in turn ran one second behind Washington and Lee of Virginia.

The six-boat field in the final included St. Andrew's of Delaware, Washington and Lee, Father Judge, Harriton

High of Lower Merion, Penna. and South Kent of Massachusetts. To qualify, Belleville had beaten Liverpool High School by a full 20 seconds, and placed ahead of Atlantic City High School, a crew which had defeated Belleville earlier this year in dual competition.

In the final race, St. Andrew's won, with Washington and Lee two seconds behind. Harriton followed in one-tenth of a second; Father Judge was next in a half-second; Belleville finished fifth in another three-tenths of a second.

"It was a very close race," said Giuffrida, "and the competition was very good. For instance, if we hadn't won the Poughkeepsie Regatta with our four-man shell, we wouldn't even have bothered entering the Stotesbury. All the teams were of the same caliber; if they weren't good, they wouldn't have been there."

The Stotesbury showing ended a season that Giuffrida said was much more successful than is indicated by

Duffers Take 2nd Victory

by Mike Monagas

The BHS golf team romped over Irvington High last Friday, enroute to its second victory of the season. The match was never close, and the final score wound up 12 1/2-7 1/2.

The win helped to save the golfers wounds, for at the same time, they were soundly beaten by Big Ten leaders, Bloomfield and Nutley. In these matches, the duffers were outclassed 15-3, and 14 1/2-3 1/2, respectively.

The play took place at Forest Hills Country Club in an unusual four-way match, with each team pitted against the other three. It left the Belleville team with a 2-7 record this season, with one match to go. That match will be at home next Friday, as the team takes on Columbia.

In the win against Irvington, Carmen Minardi played his best match this season, and shut-out his opponents 3-0. Co-Captains Mike Monagas and Al Ciccone scored 2 1/2 points, and 2 points, while Mario DeVoor and Dan Cassese had 2 points. Kaz Widuch added 1 point for the Bellboys.

Although the year has not gone very well for the duffers, they feel they can close the season in winning style against Columbia. As Coach Michael Salzarullo stated, "A victory there would build confidence for next year, and make this season quite worthwhile."

Local Street Hockey Squad Takes North Jersey Crown

by Mike Monagas

Who has the best street hockey team in Northern New Jersey?—The Belleville DeWitt Rangers, that's who! The team earned their number one ranking, after defeating the Passaic Canadians, 5-2, in a winner-take-all, championship playoff game.

Robert M. Williams, president of the DeWitt Savings Bank, was instrumental in making this triumphant season possible, by graciously extending the DeWitt bank's generosity, in sponsoring the Ranger team. They in turn, responded beautifully, by achieving an outstanding season record, of 14-2-1. In the course of the season, the Rangers played teams from Passaic, Clifton, Rutherford, East Rutherford, Jersey City, and Belleville, and managed to beat them all.

For those who know little about street hockey, let me explain what it's about. All the rules that apply to ice hockey, apply to street hockey, with only a few exceptions. The principal one of course, is that the game is played on a fenced-in asphalt surface, and the players wear sneakers, not skates, to maneuver with. The nets are slightly smaller than regular ice hockey nets, to make the game more demanding.

Player-Coach Bill Sauers, organized the team into a hard working machine, that proved unstoppable. To help him in this task, were such stand-outs as co-captains Al Ciccone and Rich Boxer, who won the teams Most Valuable Player and Best Defenseemen awards. Goalie Mike Monagas won the Vezina trophy for his sparkling 2.1 Goals Against Average. Dennis Beretta led the team in scoring with 29 points, while Bob Catala ton Rookie-of-the-Year honors, finishing with 27 points. Frank Hildenbrand added muscle to the defense along with Anthony Branca and Fred McGarril. Paul Denning and Steve Soriano added blazing slap-shots to the offense.

During the season, the team had many fine moments. Their 13-3 trouncing of the Clifton Canucks; the goal by Bill Sauers with five seconds remaining in the game to tie Jersey City; and Monagas three shut outs, are just a few. With the aid of the DeWitt Bank once again, the team hopes for an even better season next year.

In State Tournament

Top-Ranked Union Drops Bellboys

by Pat Caputo

In the high school Group IV state tournament, Belleville defeated Columbia in the first round 7-6, before losing to the state's number one team, Union, 8-2, in the second round.

Belleville bounced on Columbia for six runs in the first inning for their biggest inning of the season. Chipper Bialore led off with a single. Lou Grasso reached on an error. The two rode home via a home run off the bat of Joe Cerza, over the center field fence.

Continuing the rally, Joe Cancelliere walked. Joe Panlone singled Cancelliere to third. Nick DeFillippis sacrificed him home and reached base when the play at the plate was unsuccessful. Panlone scored on an errant throw at third, DeFillippis stole second and reached third on an infield hit by Gregg Dunleavy. DeFillippis scored as a result of another infield hit by Chipper Bialore. His second of the inning. The Bellboys sent eleven men to the plate and collected five hits and six runs.

The big run, however, came in the second when just one run crossed the plate. It turned out to be the winning run.

Joe Cerza led off with a double and took third on a wild pitch. He scored when the pitcher threw the ball away on a pick-off attempt. That was the last run the Bellboys would get this game as they rationed their hits for some other time. Cerza's double opening the second was the last Bellboy hit in the game. The last thirteen local diamonders were retired in order.

Luckily, Jerry Hoban and Dennis Nadzan held off the scrappy Columbia team, as they chipped away for a run in each of the first three innings and three runs in the fifth inning.

In defense of the pitchers, just two of the six Columbia runs were earned. Dennis Nadzan is credited with the win in relief of Hoban in the middle of the fifth. However, the game really got tight and exciting in the final inning.

Columbia had the tying and winning runs on base and in scoring position before Nadzan reached back and struck out Bill Edwards to end the game and send Belleville into the second round of the tournament.

Union, a team ranked number one in the state, defeated Belleville 8-2.

Losing Streak Halted By Defeat of Mounties

by Pat Caputo

Snapping a five-game losing streak, Belleville defeated a strong Montclair squad 9-0, in Belleville Wednesday. The Mounties were rated second in the state rankings and first in the county poll, at the time. It was the second time Belleville had defeated Montclair and knocked them down from their high rankings.

This was the local news's only Big Ten Conference game of the week. Big Ten action continues on Tuesday with a contests with Columbia in Maplewood. Tomorrow the Bellboys play host to Orange.

Joe Cerza silenced the powerful Mountie bats on four hits as he went the route to his second victory in three decisions. He struck out four and walked none along the way. The shut-out brings Cerza's Earned Run Average down to 0.54 and it also marked the first time this season that Montclair had lost via the whitewash.

Joe Cancelliere and Lou Grasso provided the big hits. Cancelliere drove home three runs on two hits. Grasso had a perfect day, going three for three, including two doubles, two runs scored and two runs batted in.

Bill Telesco continued his hot hitting as he started things off for Belleville in the first with a lead-off homerun to left-center field. It was actually all Cerza needed.

However, the local diamonders added three runs in the second frame. Chipper Bialore, in his first varsity start, walked. He reached third on a double by fellow sophomore, Gregg Dunleavy. Both runners scored on a double to right by Grasso. Cancelliere then drove in Grasso with a single to right.

The Bellboys knocked out Montclair starter Bill Wilson in the third. Nick DeFillippis walked and stole second. Chipper Bialore singled him in. Lou Grasso moved Chipper to third with a hit. Vic Pasquariello then singled in Bialore and Grasso also scored when Vic was thrown out trying to stretch his single into a double.

The final Bellboy run came in the sixth. Lou Grasso led off with his third hit. Pasquariello forced him. Vic took second on a single by Steve Gerard. Joe Cancelliere drove in both runners to conclude the scoring.

Coach Charlie Travers instituted a new infield, looking for better defense and possibly looking into the future. The left side of the infield is no longer made up of two seniors, but of junior Steve Gerard and sophomore Chipper Bialore. Juniors Vic Pasquariello and Lou Grasso have been splitting time at second and first with seniors Joe Cancelliere and Joe Cerza. The new infield performed well as they handled 27 chances without an error.

Senior catcher Joe Arminio injured his back during a play at the plate in the first inning and was out of the line-up for the entire week. His void was filled in by another underclassman, Gregg Dunleavy.

Cindermen Hit .500 At Panthers' Expense

by Bob Cohen

The Belleville cindermen enjoyed their most satisfying win of the season last Thursday as they convincingly handed a heavily favored Panther squad a stunning defeat in local track action.

Not only did the win account for double the amount of victories of last years squad, it lifted the Bellboys to the .500 mark in the season. The record reads 6-6. East Orange left with a 5-3 record.

This week there is little track action as the Bellboys prepare for competition in the Group IV state sectionals which will be held this Saturday, at Williams Field in Elizabeth. The time of this all-day affair is 10 am. Then following on Tuesday, dual meet competition resumes as the tracksters meet Bloomfield at Belleville. The time of this confrontation is 3:30.

East Orange came into the meet with a very strong team with many individuals who had done well in area competition. Heading the group was weightman Jess Butts who had been outstanding in the shot put coming into this meet.

Belleville quickly fell to an 8-1 disadvantage as Kevin Boone and Dan Shoats took first and second in the high hurdles. Bob Sanders finished third with a time of 16.6.

The key to the win lay with the accomplishments of the Belleville sprint team. This group came through with flying colors. Leading the sprints was junior Greg Bunch who had his best individual meet this day. He pulled out first in the 100 with an official time of 10.5 although unofficial watches clocked him at a swift 10 flat. Sophomore Jerry Hyckey took third at 11.0.

The mile team finished first and second as Bill Goodwin and Nelson Seda paced them to the win with times of 4:47.4 and 5.03.

In the next event Brian Wood at 55.2 finished third as he was the only Bellboys to place in this event. But next in the 330's Bob Sanders copped first at 45.2. Then Nick Semaka pulled out third at 48.2.

Returning to the distance events, Steve Budrick was second in the 880 as he crossed at 2:04.5.

Bunch completed his sparkling afternoon as he nosed out Darrel Mumford at the wire in 220 competition. His winning time was 25.5. Following in the 2 mile, Sophomore Jim Beck established a sophomore record in this event with a time of 10:49.9. Doug Wamsley was third at 11:29.9. Belleville, however lost the mile relay as E.O. recorded a winning time of 3:37.7 compared to the 3:49 turned in by Belleville.

Turning to the weight events, Belleville did it all in the discus and Tom Sanders led the weights to a sweep in this event. His throw of 137' 1/2 was followed by a toss of 128' 2 1/2" by George Vecchos and 126' 8" by Bob Feldman.

As predicted, Butts took first in the shot with a toss of 52' 11 1/2". However Paul Haverick was second with a toss of 45' 11 1/2".

Next in the long jump, Tom Sanders was first at 19' 9". Doug Jackson was next at 18' 7 1/2". Rick Filipek tied for first in the high jump at 5' 8".

Finally, in the pole vault, Belleville jumpers swept as they jumped 9' 6" to win. Glen Moglecky and Fran Morel both did this height to tie for first. John Dougherty was third as he reached 9 feet.

The 70-52 victory left the team in a perfect state for the Essex County Meet which was held at Woodman Field in Montclair. Although good times and distances were recorded by the Bellboys, no one placed in the heavily talented field.

Diamonders Pick Up Two In Non-Conference Play

by Pat Caputo

Belleville continued on its winning ways with back to back victories over Seton Hall and Passaic, 6-5, and 2-1, respectively, in non-conference action.

Thursday Belleville hosted Seton Hall in one of the most thrilling and exciting games of the year. The lead changed hands three times as Belleville pulled a come from behind rally in the last inning to win it.

Steve Gerard was the hero, driving in the tying and winning runs with two out in the last of the seventh. Lou Grasso led off the inning with a walk. Steve Senatore pinch-ran for him. Gregg Dunleavy forced him at second; and Jerry Hoban ran for Dunleavy.

Vin DeNotaris was hit by a pitch and Bill Telesco loaded the bases with a pinch-hit infield hit. After a strike-out, Gerard delivered a single to shallow center.

Hoban scored easily. Speedy Vin DeNotaris raced home from second and knocked the ball from the catcher with the game winning run.

Recipient of the dramatic finish is sophomore hurler

Greg Petite, who picked up his first varsity victory.

Ironically, Petite failed to save the game when he lost the lead in the seventh in relief of starter Mike Dondarski. Dondarski pitched five innings, his longest varsity performance. He struck out three and walked but one. After allowing two hits in the top of the sixth, Petite relieved him. Petite retired the side, but only after the runners had scored.

Carrying a 4-3 lead into the seventh, Seton Hall jumped on Petite for two runs, and the lead 5-4.

Ed Fagan singled and Lou Pardiso was hit by a pitch. A sacrifice bunt moved the runners into scoring position. Jerry McCormick then drove in both runners with a triple to right field. McCormick also homered to lead off the fourth.

This set the stage for the bottom of the seventh when Belleville retaliated.

Belleville had taken a 1-0 lead in the second. Lou Grasso singled and Gregg Dunleavy walked. Joe Panlone forced Grasso at third. A double steal upset the Seton Hall defense and finally

The big Bellboy inning came in the fifth. Steve Gerard led off with a walk but was thrown out at the plate on a double by Joe Cerza. It was Joe's second double of the day.

He scored on a double to right by Joe Cancelliere. Joe scored when Nick DeFillippis reached on an error, with

Little League Action

In Belleville Little League action last week, Rotary was the big winner, taking two games from their opponents.

The Rotary squad defeated Varsity Club, 6-4, behind the three-hit ballgame pitched by Lou Ritacco. Varsity enjoyed a slim one-run lead in the third inning, but Rotary scored a run in the fourth and two in the sixth to win, with Jim Kelly contributing two hits.

Rotary swamped Biancardi, 13-2, with another three-hitter, this one pitched by Jim Kelly, with Lou Ritacco displaying his batting skills by knocking out three hits. Tom Henry produced all the hits for Biancardi's.

Landolfi's blanked Milts', 5-0, with Pompaio Pasquale hurling a two-hitter, and Stephen Kearney coming up with two hits for the winners. Milts' had their day, though, when they blasted F.M.B.A. for 12 runs, while holding the firemen to one. Michael Nicosia threw a two-hitter and cracked three hits, as did Dan Borgo. One of Nicosia's hits turned out to be a homer. Richard Cook hit twice.

F.M.B.A. didn't go winless, though, because they beat the Knights of Columbus 5-2, scoring two runs in the first, and three in the second, with Jim DeAngelis hitting twice.

Neither did K of C go without a victory. They edged out Jolly Cleaners, scoring two runs in the bottom of the sixth. Robert Barbara and Guy Vicari contributed three hits to the winning cause, and Brian Albanese had two for the losers.

the varsity eight-man shell's 2-6 record in regular competition.

Both the freshman and jayvee crews lost only one of their races this season, and toward the final weeks, the varsity's fortunes began to turn also, primarily because of the switch to emphasis on the four-man shell for the Poughkeepsie and Stotesbury races.

"They're very impressive," said Giuffrida of the four-man crew. "The other crews they faced have been rowing all year, while our boys had practiced about twice a week most of the season, and then they concentrated on the four-man shell late in the season."

On balance, Giuffrida said the past spring turned out to be "tremendous." He admits it didn't look that way in the beginning. It wasn't until the varsity upset Nutley in mid-season that they got in the groove, and after that, Belleville reclaimed the Goodwill Trophy on the strength of jayvee and frosh performances, then two more trophies were won in the Poughkeepsie Regatta by the four-man varsity shell and the third varsity eight-man shell.

Bellboys Felled In Tourney Try

However, this Union ballclub did not impress this reporter so much as to consider them the best in the state. Granted, they had a real fine pitcher in the name of Frank Araneo, who has won eight and lost one, but the men behind him, in this reporter's opinion, do not belong on the number one team in the state.

They committed four errors, making Araneo work harder than he should have. One run was earned, and only because Belleville gave the game away was it so lopsided.

Only three Union runs were earned, as Belleville's errors reappeared on the scene again. Of the ten hits collected by Union, only half of them were hit with authority.

They jumped into the lead in the first with a double and a two out error for a run.

Belleville tied it in the third on a single by Vic Pasquariello and a stolen base followed by a single by Lou Grasso.

Union blew the Bellboys out of Union County with five runs in the fourth, four of them being unearned. The big play in the inning came with the bases loaded, two out, no runs in yet, and a 1-2 count on the batter. The next pitch hit the batter and opened up the flood gates.

Belleville tallied with one more in the bottom of the fourth. Steve Gerard singled, and Joe Cancelliere forced him. After an error by the catcher on a bad pick-off attempt, Cancelliere scored on a single by Joe Pantone. It was only academic.

Oil costs: biggest factor in your electric bill.

You know about oil price increases. All you have to do is drive into a service station these days and say, "Fill 'er up." Oil produces the gasoline for your family car. Oil is also the fuel that PSE&G uses to generate most of the electricity you use.

So oil is plenty important to us and to you. Trouble is, the price we pay for the oil we use has increased more than 500% in the last five years. From an average of $2.15 a barrel in 1969 to $13.48 a barrel in March of this year.

And this despite every effort on our part to purchase oil as economically as possible.

It's tough to live with 500% price increases. The cost of fuel is the single most important factor in your electric bill. And it stands to reason we couldn't stay in business very long if we had to pay 500% price increases in our most important ingredient for producing electricity.

That is why a "billing factor" is included in your monthly bills to reflect our increasing (or decreasing) costs for fuels. So, because fuel costs have been soaring, your bills have also been increasing — even though you may still be using the same amount of electricity — or less. And keep this in mind. PSE&G does not earn a penny's profit from the amount you pay for fuel price fluctuations.

Why doesn't PSE&G pay the fuel cost increase? We've often been asked why doesn't PSE&G pick up the tab for these fuel increases. We can't. There just wouldn't be enough money left to run the rest of our business. Things like operation, maintenance and vital construction. And if we undermine our financial position, PSE&G simply would not be considered a good investment. We would be unable to borrow the large amounts of money we need to provide you with dependable service.

Other costs are zooming. Of course, fuel isn't the only thing going up in price. An ordinary wood utility pole doubled in price in just three years. A ton of asphalt for construction increased 40% in just one year. An ordinary 12" pipe wrench went up 43%. And these are typical everyday Nick taking second. He stole third and scored on a sacrifice bunt by Gregg Dunleavy.

The following day Passaic visited and a close game was pulled out of the fire in the sixth by the local nine, 2-1.

With the score tied 1-1, Belleville opened the sixth with a single off the bat of hot hitting Lou Grasso. Joe Cerza walked. A sacrifice bunt by Steve Gerard was misplayed and all hands were safe. Joe Cancelliere forced Grasso at the plate. Nick DeFillipis drove in the winning run with a sacrifice fly to center, scoring Cerza.

Belleville jumped to a 1-0 lead in the second as DeFillipis singled with one out. He stole second, his team-leading sixth theft of the season. The throw went into the outfield and DeFillipis reached third. He scored on an infield grounder by Gregg Dunleavy.

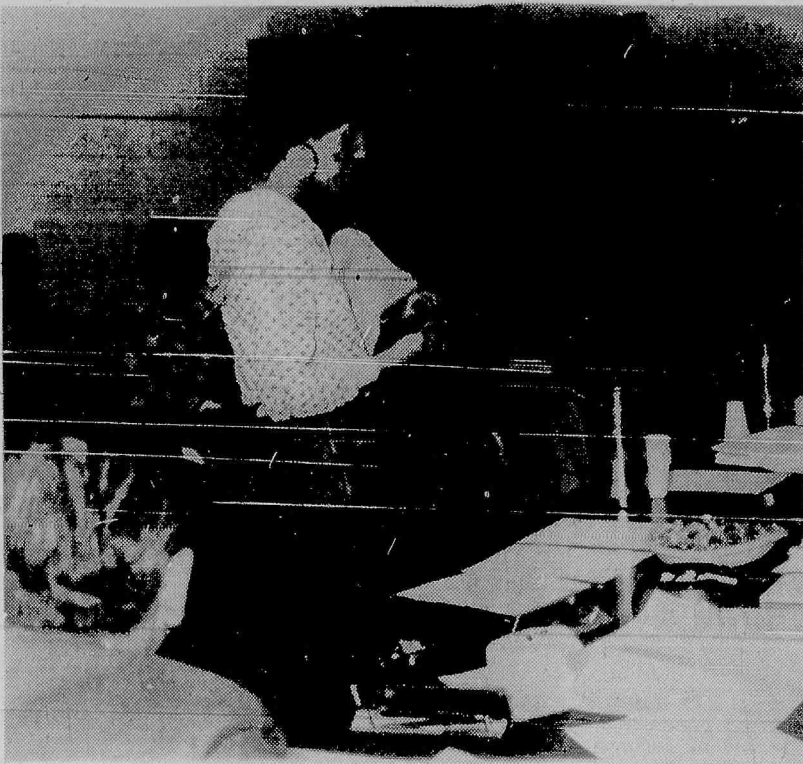

Passaic tallied in the fourth. Tom Navarro reached on an error, took second on a wild pitch and third on a sacrifice. An infield ground out scored the run without a hit in the inning.

Due to the busy schedule of the past two weeks, coach Charlie Travers' pitching staff has been worn thin. Therefore, Jayvee coach Ralph LaConte sent up two of his hurlers, junior Jim Zaccane and sophomore John Guarino.

Zaccane started and allowed one hit in two innings before leaving because of a sore arm. Guarino pitched the remaining five innings to hear his first varsity win. He struck out four and walked one, giving up one run and one hit.

PRESENTING THE EVIDENCE — Dawn Marchese, spokesman for a group of cheerleaders who asked the Board of Education for new uniforms last week, shows the trustees one of the present uniforms, said to be over eight years old. While the band, twirlers and color guard all will get new uniforms, someone in the administration neglected to buy any for the cheerleaders, who had appeared before the Board of Ed last year, when they had also displayed a worn-out uniform. Board members said they would "consider the request."

Jayvee Team Turns Back Attack by Mountie Squad

By Dennis Buckley

John Guarino picked up his fifth win in six decisions while combining with fellow Jayvee pitcher Jim Zaccane to defeat Montclair by a score of 5-1. Guarino pitched four innings, walking five, giving up three hits and one earned run. Zaccane threw for three innings, walking two, striking out three and giving up three hits.

Belleville led off the scoring when Vin De Notaris was hit by the first pitched ball in the initial inning. He then stole second base and scored on a single by Nicky Cancelliere.

Montclair scored its only run in the third inning on a walk, a sacrifice, and a single. In the home half of the third, Guarino walked, stole second and scored on catcher Greg Huselton's single.

Guarino again led off with a walk, this time in the fifth, advanced when Huselton reached on an error, and scored on Mike Cancelliere's sacrifice bunt. With Huselton now at third, Anthony Marino singled to bring him on home. Ricky Loma led off the sixth with a sacrifice single, stole second, moved to third on an error, and scored on Huselton's sacrifice.

A double play was turned over in the second inning by Belleville's Mike Cancelliere, John Pontrella, Chris Tremel combination.

Hockey Classes Set For Month of August

The Essex County Park Commission has announced plans for its 11th annual Summer Hockey School and, for the first time, there will be classes offered to girls interested in the sport.

The advanced boys school will be two two-week sessions at the Branch Brook Ice Center in Newark and for one two-week class at the South Mountain Arena in West Orange. The Branch Brook classes will run from Aug. 5 to Aug. 31, while the South Mountain classes are scheduled for Aug. 19 to Aug. 31.

Each session will accommodate 100 boys and applications are now available at either Branch Brook or South Mountain.

Branch Brook will be the site for two squirt school sessions (Aug. 7-17 and 21-31) while South Mountain will offer one session (Aug. 19-31.) The aspiring youngsters will meet on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 6:30 to 7:30 at Branch Brook and on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays at South Mountain. Each section will accommodate 50 youngsters.

And then there's the girls. After an extremely successful winter girls school which was held on an auxiliary rink at South Mountain, the Park Commission decided to promote participation by the females by offering a more intensified program in the summer.

Belleville Squad Opens Sunday

The Belleville unit of the Essex County Baseball League will open its 1974 season when they host the West Orange Club at Belleville Municipal Stadium on Sunday, at 2 p.m.

Beck's Column

Beck's Column

Many people trust the predictions of the venerable "Farmer's Almanac", which are based on the established fact that weather goes in cycles.

According to the Almanac, we are in for some really hot and humid times this summer. They predict that there will be a bad period beginning by the end of June, going quite a while into July. Again there is supposed to be a real hot spell in August and September. We call it real "air conditioning weather." When it gets hot, people run out in a hurry to buy a unit, and they have plenty of company, everybody wanting it "right away," of course. They forget that no business can afford to keep enough mechanics on hand to install these units right away when everybody wants them. If you are in the market for an air conditioner, we strongly urge you to buy it now, before it gets hot. Probably you will save some money to boot. Everybody in the air conditioning business is confronted with the same problem. For this reason we much prefer to give an inducement on the price now instead of losing a sale later when we can not handle it because "everybody" wants it.

Don't make the mistake many people found out they made becoming a self styled "expert" when it comes to buying an air conditioner. According to the advertising it is an easy matter to choose the right unit. This is not the case, as many disappointed purchasers found out. Ask the advice of an expert. We offer to make a survey of your situation. There is no charge or obligation of any kind attached to this offer. If you follow our advice, we guarantee that it does the job. The fact of the matter is, that we refuse to sell air conditioners unless we can make a survey before. Don't hesitate to call us.

Freeholder Pay Boost Bill Studied

The 1974 Legislature may go down in history for a number of reasons such as: it introduced the largest number of bills, it approved a Casino Gambling Referendum, and it created an eighteenth executive department in State Government; it approved spending the most money, it increased the most salaries of government officers and employees.

The Legislature has already approved salary increases for the Governor, Cabinet members, judges, and all State employees. County freeholders would also like to be added to the salary increase roster.

A bill to increase salaries of New Jersey's 133 county freeholders has already passed the Assembly and is in the Senate County and Municipal Government for review. The bill sponsored by 18 Assemblymen would expand maximum salary ranges for these county officers and permit an upping of freeholder director's salaries from $500 to $1,000.

The New Jersey Taxpayers Association has prepared a two-page analysis of the freeholders salary increase proposal showing various possible salary determinants and other information such as population, number of employees, 1974 county budgets, present freeholder salaries and year they were effective, proposed increase in permissive maximum salaries, percent increase from present salary to proposed maximum, and the increase in the Consumer Price Index from the year of most recent freeholder salary increase in each county to March 1974.

The Taxpayers Association, in noting that nine counties currently have a charter study underway, suggests that any changes approved by voters would drastically change the traditional dual legislator-administrator role of freeholder. If a new county government form changed freeholders to a county legislator role only, NJTA sees no necessity for the higher salaries being proposed.

Essex County freeholders currently receive a $12,000 annual salary. The Assembly proposal, if enacted, would set the salary maximum at $18,000, a 33 percent increase over the existing maximum. Essex county's 1974 budget totals $144,555,289 and employs 7,568.

Essex Dental Assn. Elects New President

Dr. Charles W. Riley of Montclair has been elected president of the 800-member Essex County Dental Society. Dr. Riley succeeds Dr. Stuart M. Ralner of West Orange.

Other officers elected for the society's new year include: Dr. Anthony Volpe (Newark), president-elect; Dr. Clarence Wilson (East Orange), vice president; Dr. Sidney Grossman (South Orange), secretary; and Dr. Lawrence Churgin (Bloomfield) treasurer.

Dr. Riley has been active in county and state dental activities for many years and has held many offices and chaired a number of committees for the Essex County Dental Society.

He is a graduate of Hasbrouck Heights High School, Fairleigh Dickinson University, and received his dental degree from Temple University. He took additional professional training at the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Medicine, and served in the U.S. Army.

Check That PSE&G Man

Public Service Electric and Gas Company is advising its customers that persons posing as PSE&G representatives, in order to gain access to customers' homes, are reported to be operating in various areas served by the company.

The company states that all PSE&G personnel who call at customers' residences carry identification cards. In addition, all meter readers are now wearing distinctive charcoal gray uniforms which bear the company's emblem.

Customers should examine the identification card of the representative or call the company if there is any doubt of identity.

Why should you join the Payroll Savings Plan now? Maybe you'll find out later.

The future can be too late for saving. So if you want security, you'd better start today.

The Payroll Savings Plan makes it easy. Because an amount you choose is automatically set aside from each paycheck to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. That way, your savings build year after year.

So start today. Because tomorrow, today will be yesterday.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years. 4% the first year. Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Needs 'Proper Balance'

Bill Designed to Strengthen Unemployment Trust Fund

Legislative proposals designed to strengthen the Unemployment Trust Fund have been submitted to the New Jersey State Legislature for consideration, Joseph A. Hoffman, Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry said today.

Commissioner Hoffman said, "This Administration inherited an Unemployment Trust Fund which was in serious financial condition. As a result there is a need to restructure the Unemployment Insurance Program to restore the fiscal integrity of the fund. Much more study and evaluation in the weeks ahead are necessary to develop a proper balance in this program."

Commenting on details of the Trust Fund, Commissioner Hoffman said, "What we have is a fund at a dangerously low point, totaling about $34 million as of May 1. Its perilous condition is the result of three years of higher-than-average unemployment in our state. The fund lost $166 million in 1971, $109 million in 1972 and about $7 million in 1973. The balance at the end of 1973 was $140 million. In January of this year the number of unemployed persons in New Jersey reached the highest level since 1971. In the first three months of 1974, Department records show $27 million more was paid out in benefits than in 1973 for the same period."

At the present time New Jersey's unemployment benefit system is financed by payroll tax paid both by employer and employee on the first $4200 earned by the worker during each calendar year.

Under the present system the worker pays 1/4 of 1% on this tax base of $4200. The employer pays from 1.3% to 5.6% on this tax base. The employer's payment is based upon his rate which is determined for the most part by the amount of benefits paid to workers who have left his employment.

Under the present system employers pay approximately 93% of all contributions. This amounted to about $325 million in 1973. Workers paid the balance of about $25 million. The contributions are deposited in the Unemployment Trust Fund and benefits are paid from this fund.

Concerning the general approach of the proposals, Commissioner Hoffman said, "Prudent management mandates that the Unemployment Trust Fund must be restored to a reasonable minimum as quickly as possible. National studies have indicated that the minimum amount should be about $500 million. We must now bite-the-bullet and adjust our contribution schedule in order to properly adjust our system. We are making every effort to achieve an equitable approach to the problem. In the last analysis what we are seeking is a system which will be of maximum benefit to both employers and employees at the most reasonable cost."

"We are at the present time providing a maximum of $85 a week to eligible unemployed workers for up to 26 weeks under our regular unemployment compensation program. This must be considered as essential income replacement for productive workers who are seeking employment and who must be protected as much as possible against the hardship of reduced income. This is not a privilege on the part of the worker but a right. This program significantly contributes to the economy of New Jersey. In the absence of this program, the unemployed worker without benefits would have to seek help from other sources."

The legislative proposals submitted cover two major areas, taxing provisions and eligibility provisions.

The first taxing provision proposed would increase the limit of annual wages used as a tax base from $4200 to $4800 in 1975. After 1975 a yearly base tied directly to inflationary pressures would be applied. This flexible yearly base would be determined by the statewide average weekly wage.

Commissioner Hoffman said, "For the first time contributions as well as benefits would be tied to changes in our economy. Hopefully, this will help prevent the kind of fund depletion we are now experiencing."

The second taxing provision proposed would increase the payroll tax on deficit employers — those whose workers draw more benefits than their employer contributes — to a maximum of 6.2 percent.

It was noted by the Commissioner that this proposal would provide further incentive to employer to stabilize their employment roles.

The third taxing provision proposed would change the present allocation of worker contributions from 1/4 of 1 percent of wages for unemployment insurance and 3/4 of 1 percent for temporary disability insurance to 1/2 of 1 percent for each.

Of this proposal, it was pointed out this is merely a redistribution of workers' contributions.

The second area covered by the legislative proposal deals with changes in benefit eligibility provisions.

Commissioner Hoffman said, "These benefit eligibility proposals give us a more realistic approach to the basic labor market situation. They are part and parcel of our overall attempt to strengthen the fund and give more balance to the program."

The first proposal on eligibility is a change in the basic entitlement formula. At the present time the worker must have worked 17 weeks with at least $15 a week earnings in the year preceding his claim, to be eligible for benefits. The change would require that the worker be employed for 20 weeks with at least $30 a week earnings in the year preceding that claim.

The second proposal for eligibility would raise from $1,350 to $2,200 the earnings necessary to qualify for benefits those workers who did not work as many as 20 weeks in the base year period. In addition, a present provision in the benefit formula which permits total benefits of 1/3 of base year earnings if that amount exceeds the regular maximum of 3/4 of weeks worked times the weekly benefit rate is eliminated.

Both these provisions affect workers whose attachment to the labor market may be sporadic, it was noted.

The third proposal on eligibility change would include suspension from work as well as discharge from work for misconduct as a disqualification for benefits.

Commissioner Hoffman said, "It should be stressed that the proposal we are making do not alter the basic contribution of the worker. These proposals do, however, tighten up on eligibility and taxing provisions to make this system more equitable and more realistic, it goes without saying that this income replacement is essential in many cases to the economic survival of an unemployed worker. Moreover, this incoming replacement plays a significant stabilizing role in our economy by contributing millions of dollars to help sustain purchasing power during periods of economic slowdown."

Unity Institute Makes Plans For Music, Drama Events

Unity Institute is looking forward to its 55th season of celebration of the musical and dramatic arts. The season will be an exciting one for concert goers as the attractions, orchestras and artists are internationally known for excellence. Selection of the artists is made by ballots returned by the present audience who have shown again their sophistication and knowledge. Reservations are now being filled from the waiting list.

Claude Kipnis Mime Theatre opens the series on Friday, October 4, at 8:30 p.m. Kipnis has continued the living tradition of this ancient art form for children and adults, no matter what their language. A clown and tragedian of rare powers, who studied under Marcel Marceau, he has been compared abroad to Chaplin and has established a company of unique talent.

Orchestre de la Suisse Romande under the direction of Wolfgang Sawallisch, is the second offering of the series. Brought to international fame by its founder Ernest Ansermet, this jewel of a symphony orchestra, has established a standard of performance for the symphonic works of Haydn, Schubert, Mendelssohn, Stravinsky to name a few. One of the great orchestras in the world, Orchestre de la Suisse Romande will be heard on Thursday, October 24, at 8:30 p.m.

Eugene Istomin, piano, Isaac Stern, violin, and Leonard Rose, cello, will display their extraordinary talents in a trio performance on Sunday afternoon, November 24, at 3:30 p.m. Each a virtuoso in his field and each a favorite with the area audience, the afternoon should prove a highly enjoyable musical experience to those who appreciate the combined talents of peerless soloists.

The Soviet Georgian Dancers and Tbilisi Polyphonic Choir will perform in their first United States tour on Thursday, December 5, at 8:30 p.m. This company of 80 dancers, singers and musicians combine one of the most fascinating musical traditions in the world — dark, handsome, young Asiatic men and women dancing with astonishing technique and artistry — and the Polyphonic

'Fiddler' At Meadowbrook

Kurt Kasznar is starring in 'Fiddler On the Roof' now at the Meadowbrook Theatre Restaurant in Cedar Grove. The musical has been hailed by critics not only on Broadway and throughout United States, but also in a full two dozen capitals of the world.

Drawing from tales by Sholom Aleichem, the Jewish Mark Twain, richly humane and humorous story is portrayed with color and warmth. The wealth of song numbers which move the story along, has enriched the store of musicals history. There can be few listeners of current musical favorites who are not familiar with "Matchmaker, Matchmaker" and "Do you Love Me?" just two of the many hits that have made "Fiddler" so beloved.

The cast for "Fiddler on the Roof" is a large one and includes several performers who have appeared previously at the Meadowbrook. Among them are, David Gary of "Fantasticks" and "Come Blow Your Horn" and Ralph Farnworth from "Damn Yankees" and "Promises, Promises" dancers, Nicholas Dante and B.J. Harrod from "Damn Yankees."

Steve Bishop, director of most Meadowbrook productions returns for "Fiddler". John Montgomery again choreographs and Jerry Goldberg directs the music.

The opening of "Fiddler On the Roof" marks the return of full Broadway productions to the Meadowbrook. When the gasoline crisis in February struck down attendance at theaters and restaurants the producers were forced to cancel the scheduled production of "Harvey." It was replaced by a Cavalcade of Stars engagements on Fridays and Saturdays.

"Fiddler on the Roof" will run until June 30 and will be followed in July by a comedy.

Choir singing a capella remind us of the proud, ancient culture of the Caucasus.

The Alvin Ailey City Center Dance Theater has electrified audiences throughout America, Europe, Africa and the Far East. This unique form of dance, combining modern, jazz and classical reflecting the American heritage, both black and white, is a total "dance theater" experience. There is no energy crises here in this powerful expression of sheer joy that will be seen on January 25, at 8:30 p.m.

Claudio Arrau, king of pianists, will be heard on Sunday, March 16, at 3:30 p.m. A leading interpreter of Beethoven, Arrau is noted for his fluency and grace.

Itzhak Perlman, virtuoso violinist, is a commanding talent with amazing ability of projection and interpretation.

Recruiters Use 'Phone Power' To Fill National Guard Ranks

How do you get 1,000 National Guard recruits fast? Telephone.

That's how New Jersey's Army National Guard is averting what could have been a serious problem when the draft ended last year.

No draft meant fewer Guard volunteers, and the Army Guard had suddenly found itself 1,000 short of the 14,350 citizen-soldiers it needed to fill its state units.

With its ability to serve effectively in national and state emergencies threatened, the National Guard immediately prepared for an intense recruiting effort. To Guard officials, a telephone campaign seemed fast, easy and economical, but recruiters' success in "closing a sale" with a prospect over the phone was meager.

At the suggestion of several guardsmen including Charles Trabold, a New Jersey Bell salesman, Lieutenant Colonel Victor Arzooonian, State Recruiting Officer, called the phone company for help in devising a more effective telephone "sales" campaign.

New Jersey Bell's solution to the National Guard's problem was its "Phone-Power" program, originally designed to help businessmen utilize their telephones as more efficient sales tools. Phone-Power specialists at Pierson trained a group of recruiting officers - the next step was for Trabold to tailor

"Phone-Power" to the specific needs of the Guard recruiters.

"What we came up with was the 'dial an interview concept,'" explained Trabold. "Instead of trying to enlist the prospect over the phone, we suggested that recruiters first interest the guy or gal in the National Guard, and then make an appointment for them to come down to the armory."

"We used to try and enlist the prospects over the phone, rather than asking them to come down to the armory where we could show them what we do," said Colonel Arzooonian.

"During the interview," Trabold added, "we showed the prospects exactly what we do and acquainted them with our training programs - like data processing, automotive repair, medical care, communications and law enforcement. Programs like these give the recruits a specialized skill, something useful to them in their private career plans."

Following Trabold's and Pierson's suggestions, Colonel Arzooonian directed the National Guard to launch "Operation Guard Power". Armed with lists of high school seniors, war veterans and other possibilities, more than 500 recruiters in armories throughout the state went to work 14 hours a day for a two week period.

The result of their efforts were nothing less than astounding. According to Colonel Arzooonian, a total of 949 men, both veterans and non-veterans, enlisted during the 14 day campaign - just 51 short of the 1,000 man goal.

So successful was New Jersey's program that Colonel Arzooonian spread the word to National Guard units throughout the country. At a recent National Guard conference held in Sacramento, California, Colonel Arzooonian's success story aroused the interest of Army Guard units from across the country whose leaders turned to their local Bell companies for Phone-Power advice.

"I told them that Phone-Power had a lot to do with our success," said Colonel Arzooonian.

"The use of 'Phone-Power' symbolizes the changing image of today's National Guard," said Major General Wilfred C. Menard, Jr., National Guard Chief of Staff in New Jersey. He added that aside from its military functions, such as the mobilization of troops last summer to aid flood victims in Plainfield, New Jersey, the National Guard has gained the reputation of being a community-spirited organization as well. Army Guard forces here in New Jersey are currently running approximately 160 local and statewide community projects, including blood-mobile, ecology, educational, recreational and medical support programs. Through the Governor's Youth Program, National Guard facilities are available for summer camps to over 2,000 boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 13. Guardsmen play host to the children and instruct them in arts and crafts.

But perhaps the most dramatic change in the National Guard's image, stems from the growing number of Guardswomen here in New Jersey. Since last year, more than 2,000 enlisted and officer positions in New Jersey have been open to women.

Guard Power, too, is an important tool in the "face lifting" of the National Guard. So successful was the recent telephone drive that the Army Guard here in New Jersey has adopted Guard Power as a permanent part of its recruitment program. Today the Guard numbers 1500 of its men as Guard Power recruiters. And lately, attracting recruits hasn't been a problem for the New Jersey Army Guard.

"It works," exclaims Colonel Arzooonian. "Phone-Power is the most successful recruiting system we've found."

Paper Mill Playhouse Opens 'South Pacific'

Betsy Palmer as "Nellie Forbush," Jerome Hines as "Emile de Beque" and Sylvia Syms as "Bloody Mary" opened in "South Pacific" on Wednesday night, May 15, to a packed house. This was Paper Mill's fourth production of "South Pacific." The first, with Kyle MacDonnell and James Norbert was given in 1955, right after the show first closed on Broadway. Jacqueline James and Henry Michel played it in 1957 and Betsy Palmer and William Chapman in 1963.

Betsy Palmer "washes that man right out of her hair" with as much, if not more fervor than she did in '63 (and also on Broadway in the revival of 1965). As a singer, she holds her own with metropolitan opera bass-baritone, Jerome Hines.

Mr. Hines, making one of his rare forays away from opera and the concert stage, brings a special sound to the production - which is a treat for musical theatre audiences. Known in virtually every opera house in the world, Mr.

Hines has done only two productions of "South Pacific" at Jones Beach, and two productions of "Man of La Mancha" at Paper Mill in his entire illustrious career. Hearing him sing "Some Enchanted Evening" is an opportunity!

Sylvia Syms brings contrast musically to the show with her easy, nightclub - style and delivery. Her portrayal of "Bloody Mary" is convincing and appropriate.

It is a strong cast with Barney Martin as "Luther Billis," the South Seas' entrepreneur and comic relief; John Stewart as "Lt. Cable," and Cecile Santos as "Liat," the Bali Ha'i lovers; Elek Hartman as "Capt. Brackett;" Casper Roos as "Commdr. Harbison," Mervin Crook as "Stewpot" and Lawrence Asher as the "Professor."

The sets were imaginatively designed by John Pitt, Bill Guske has done the choreography. Jonathan Anderson is the musical director.

"South Pacific" will play at Paper Mill until June 30; performances are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday at 8:30; Saturday at 5:00 and 9:30; Sunday at 7:30; Thursday matinee at 2 p.m. Box office reservations by phone: 376-4343.

Masterwork Sets 14 Summer Sings

The next in a series of fourteen Summer Sings, informal choral readings sponsored by The Masterwork Music and Art Foundation will be held on Wednesday evening, May 29, at 7:45 at the Student Center, Morris College of Morris, Center Grove Road and Route 10, Randolph, New Jersey. The work to be sung on this evening will be Handel's "Israel in Egypt".

The Gourmet Adventures of

DAVID GIOVACCO

When you seat yourself for breakfast, lunch or dinner, do you ever stop to consider how truly wonderful it is to be served with food from so many far-distant lands? All corners of the world supply our meals. There are lentils from France in our soups, we nibble olives from Spain, and eat sardines from Portugal or Norway. Today the entire world is drawn up for our daily fare, but our forefathers were not so fortunate. Foods from foreign lands were deemed great luxuries in their day. But thanks to modern transportation and refrigeration, we of today may dine on innumerable foods brought to us from distant lands and seas. An elegant place to dine, THE PUB, 955 Allwood Rd., Clifton, 773-2110 offers fine food, friendly atmosphere, music and dancing. Our a la carte menu features a wide variety of continental-American favorites, including frog legs provencale and baked stuffed shrimp. Reservations suggested. Closed Sun. & holidays.

Olga Knows

This Week's Horoscope
(May 25 through May 31)

ARIES (March 21-April 19): First part of week ideal time to make all kinds of advancements - social, financial, etcetera. With accent on the etcetera. One person in particular will be most amenable to your charm and suggestions. Just don't be too suggestive, Ari. Rest of week rather hectic.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Creatively you will be in high gear, Taurus, so make the most of your talent and energy. Make plans. Make friends. MAKE MEMORIES.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Keep your best threads pressed, Gem, for honors await thee. Try to accept with dignity and perhaps just a hint of humility. True, humility is not exactly your forte, but you can fake it, you know. At faking, you excel.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): After what you've been through lately, Moonbaby, week ahead can be like a little slice of heaven. Relax and wet your whistle. Spring is fast fading, my gentle friend, so don't waste a single day. Enjoy each one to the absolute fullest.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Temptation will be strong to overdo, Leo, so watch yourself, especially in area where your habits are less than conservative. Olga can just see you now, scratching your head and muttering that ALL areas of your life could be thus described. Not so. Some honest soul-searching is in order.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Smiling new face appears on your little horizon, Virg, and if you smile back, friendship could flower. It certainly won't be necessary for you to be pushy, mind you, but do be approachable.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): How do you look to each day, Libra? With anticipation? Dread? Something in between? How you greet the day is one good indication as to your general health, physical/mental/emotional. If crawling out of the sack has been getting tougher and tougher lately, it's time to see your doctor or take a vacation. Maybe both.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): During first part of week do your level best to mend old fences. You can do it if you really try. Your questions apt to be answered quite bluntly. Be calm. If you flinch, you take three giant steps backward, smack dab into the old briar patch!

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Don't become distraught if events don't measure up to expectations, Sai. Having great expectations is just dandy, so long as they are tempered with at least a jot of understanding of reality. Contact Gem before week is over.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Be alert to multiple meanings contained in messages. Avoid hassling underlings. Associates already know that you are top dog, Cap. If you see you simply MUST set another straight, do so quietly and, if possible, with compassion.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): First part of week can be very enjoyable, Aquari, if you will just relax and count your blessings. Use your fingers, use your toes. You can even use an abacus. Just don't use a computer for such a personal task. Week spins to a dizzy close.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Don't give in to little spells of moodiness, for you don't really want to ruin this last beautiful week in May, do you, Pisces? Of course not. In fact, Olga thinks that you are rather special and capable of much more fun in life than you even dream of. Now get off your tuffet and cooperate!
