Tuesday Graduation Exercises Will Send 410 On Their Way

Belleville High School's 77th annual commencement ceremony, scheduled for Tuesday, 6:30 p.m. at Belleville Municipal Stadium, will see 410 students graduated from the Class of 1974.

The ceremonies, which have a rain date of Wednesday, June 19, at 6:30 p.m., will be conducted in the traditional fashion, with addresses from the three ranking scholars of the class.

Joan Buckland has been named salutatorian for the class, while her sister, Joyce, is valedictorian along with Joanne Greco. Breaking with the custom of past years, the three girls have selected no particular unifying theme for their addresses.

With the high school orchestra playing the familiar "Pomp and Circumstance," the seniors will file onto the field before the stands. The invocation will be delivered by the Rev. Anthony Di Quattro of the Belleville Assembly of God, and Senior Class Vice President Joyce Risimini will lead the assembly in the flag salute. The commencement speeches will follow.

Joanne Greco, valedictorian, has represented her class in school government since her days as a freshman. The youngest of four children, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Greco, she is a member of the National Honor Society and ranks second in a class of 458.

Miss Greco has been a cheerleader since ninth grade and last year was captain of the high school squad. Her interests include painting and crafts.

Joyce Buckland, the highest-ranked senior in the Class of 1974, is also a member of the National Honor Society. Active in sports, she has participated in girls' softball and volleyball, and has been a leading member of the girls' varsity basketball team.

Her other activities include membership in the Art Club and French Club, as well as membership on the school's color guard.

Her twin sister, Joan, has also been involved in school athletics, as well as the Art, Ski and Booster Clubs. She has been a member of the color guard for several years. Also a member of the Honor Society, she is ranked third in the senior class.

After the addresses, the class will be presented by Principal Raymond O. Smith, and accepted by Superintendent of Schools Anthony J. Greco. Diplomas will be presented to the graduating seniors by Board of Education President Matthew Pica and Vice President Caesar Romano.

Senior Class President Daniel De Santis will serve as announcer throughout the program.

Of the class of 410 seniors, 410 are expected to be awarded diplomas.

Seniors' Bus to Roll After Year-Long Wait

It was a year ago this week that Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo first proposed to his fellow Commissioners that the Town spend $10,000 on a bus to transport senior citizens through Belleville free of charge. On Monday that bus will make its first official run.

The 24-passenger International vehicle will take off from its starting point at Belmont Avenue and Lawrence Street in Silver Lake at 9:01 a.m. Monday for the first of four daily runs through town. The route, published in this week's Times and available from the Department of Public Affairs, will be run back and forth twice each day. Each circuit takes about an hour and 15 minutes, and touches all major business and service areas in town.

Senior citizens, disabled persons and other retirees can ride for free on the bus by obtaining a permit from the Department of Public Affairs, which also furnishes a card holder and a map of the route. The bus is for use by these residents only.

The bus route circles Silver Lake, then runs down Belleville Avenue, along William Street, across Washington to Cortlandt, then runs along Cortlandt through the Valley section, then to Washington Avenue.

The bus hits Washington Avenue at about 9:45, forty-five minutes after its start, and runs along the Avenue, passing the Health Department, Town Hall, Library, and the major shopping area, before turning up Belleville to DeWitt, where it continues back to cover the residential area immediately west of Washington Avenue. Running along Greylock, the bus by 10 a.m. would be at Greylock and Passaic Avenue, where it would continue on to cover the Rutan Estates area, then come back to Franklin Avenue and Belleville Avenue to stop at the shopping area there.

The route continues back along Franklin Avenue, past the site of the proposed senior citizens' center at Franklin and Mill, Clara Maass Hospital and the Geriatrics Center — all places touched early in the route. The city subway is reached at about 10:24, and another circuit through Silver Lake is made before the bus returns to the starting point. This run constitutes the "Blue Line."

At 11:01 a.m., the "Gold Line" is run. This, with few deviations, is an exact reversal of the Blue Line, and takes the same amount of time. The Blue Line is run again at 1 p.m., and the Gold Line wraps up the day at 3 p.m.

The bus will be driven by off-duty police and firemen, and by retired bus drivers. Although there is no air conditioning in the blue and gold bus, it is well ventilated and not overly hot on the warmest of days. The seats are well padded, as are handrails, and metal handles have been removed from seats for safety.

The final purchase price of the bus was $8,000, of which the Town was unable to gain any compensation from the State or Federal governments. Over 1,700 applications for bus permits have been received by the Public Affairs Department from senior citizens in Belleville, and Strumolo has already announced his intention to seek bids for the purchase of a 15-passenger station wagon which will be used by the Department on a call basis, with senior citizens telephoning the Department when transportation is necessary.

While money for the purchase of the bus was appropriated by the Commissioners last summer, delivery from the Wayne Bus Company was held up for months because of a strike in Detroit. The bus finally arrived here in mid-May, and after its inspection, several test runs were made through town until the route was finally decided.

Two Towns Rush to Fix Hancox Ave. Sewer Line

The area of Washington Avenue and Hancox Avenue is getting to be a real trouble spot for the Public Works crews of both Belleville and Nutley. Last week, a little over a year after major repairs costing each town $55,000 were made in the area, another line was found to be completely corroded on Hancox Avenue.

One thousand family units were affected as crews responded with 24-hour pumping to keep basements dry for a week while 150 feet of 12-inch pipe was replaced. Since the towns did not seek out a contractor for the job, the total cost, split between Belleville and Nutley, will be about $9,500, which includes about $2,500 for the Erie Lackawanna Railroad to raise their tracks.

The sewer line on Hancox Avenue is owned by Nutley, but Belleville pays half of all maintenance bills.

The emergency was discovered Saturday, June 1, when a family on Washington Avenue reported the sewer backing up. Standby crews went out to pump and the 50-year-old cast iron, concrete and clay pipe which had rotted away was replaced last week. A 16-man crew from Nutley and Belleville dug 15 feet down, and replaced the line after the Erie Railroad raised the tracks on Friday night. The new pipe is cast iron and cement. The crews cleaned up the job on Monday.

Early in March of 1973, a serious emergency occurred at Washington Avenue and King Street, and 24-hours later on Hancox Avenue. The breaks happened during a driving rainstorm, and sewer crews fought a tough battle pumping basements in the area.

Repairs then cost each town about $55,000. The Hancox Avenue line which was found to be corroded last

Resident Overpowers Fleeing Pursesnatcher

Jerry Vitiello became a hero in his Silver Lake neighborhood last week, and all he had started to do was go out to rake his lawn.

It was last Wednesday evening, about 10 minutes to six, and Vitiello was cleaning his yard when he turned to see his neighbors yelling and chasing a boy down the street on Florence Avenue. Vitiello, 35, and a member of the North Ward Citizens' Patrol, took after the youth and "put the collar" on him.

He was soon joined by the crowd, and Police officers Daniel Valesse and Robert Estelle, who had noticed the commotion. The boy, a 17-year-old Newark youth, turn-

Two More School Contracts Settled

The Board of Education Monday night signed two-year contracts with both the administrators and 10-month secretaries organizations, leaving only two more contracts to be settled before all employees' pacts are resolved in the school system.

As expected, the contracts signed Monday night provided for salary hikes based on the increase granted the 318-member teachers' bargaining unit in mid-May. Like the teachers, the secretaries and administrators will get a 15 percent increase over the next two years, with increments added in.

Unlike the teachers' contract, though, the administrators' pact contains a reopening clause for salary talks to begin again next year expressly "to discuss a possible new procedure for determining administrative salaries for 1975-76."

Board of Ed President Matthew Pica said the administrators' contract was different from the teachers' agreement, which has no reopening clause and runs a full two years with no salary negotiations, because the Board wants to reevaluate the ration method which for the past 15 years has assigned principals of Belleville schools a certain ration based on the maximum salary paid a teacher with a bachelor's degree, plus extra payments according to their educational background.

"Certain members of the Board are dissatisfied with the ratio system and feel it may not give a true picture of the worth of some of our administrators," said Pica. He added other factors which might be considered in readjusting administrative salaries are the size of the schools, years of service of the administrator and his or her educational background.

Twenty administrators are covered by the administrators' agreement, and about 15 12-month secretaries are included in the other pact signed Monday night. Still left to be signed are the agreements for the 10-month secretaries and the custodial and maintenance workers. Chief negotiator for the Board of Ed Richard

Signups for Summer School Are Slated for Next Week

Summer school classes will again be held at Belleville Senior High School this year from June 24 to August 2. It will offer Belleville students an opportunity to achieve academic success in certain selective subject matter areas. Classes will be held for grades 6-12, at the Senior High School.

Students may register for make-up, grade improvement, or for enrichment. All completed registration forms and fees will be accepted by the Summer School Director, Ernest V. Musmanno, on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, June 19, 20, or 21 from 1 to 4 p.m., Room 218, at the Senior High School, or on Saturday, June 22 in the main office of the Senior High School from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

The cost of Belleville public and residents students is the same as last year, $50 for one make-up or grade improvement subject and $75 for two. A subject taken for enrichment only will be $25 for one and $40 for two. Public and resident Grade 6 students will be admitted at $20 for one subject and $30 for two. All students are urged to register early to avoid a late registration fee of $5.

The curriculum is varied and covers all major areas of study. English, science, mathematics, and social studies will be offered for grades 6-12. Foreign languages are offered for grades 7-12 only. If registration number permits, typing, bookkeeping, stenography, and other business subjects will also be offered.

Students from other communities will also be accepted into Belleville Summer School at slightly higher admission fees and with the written permission of their principal or guidance office to attend. Their registration dates are the same as Belleville public and resident students above.

Commission Decides Fate For Capitol

The fate of the abandoned and dilapidated Capitol Theater at 360 Washington Avenue was decided Tuesday night when the Board of Commissioners voted 3-1 to grant Bloomfield developer Frank Leo a variance to tear down the old theater and erect a 23-unit three-story apartment building.

Only Commissioner Robert Laterza felt the building of the apartments there was not advisable. Laterza voted no, he said, "because there are too many apartments in the area already," and because he felt proposed apartments in the basement would be a fire hazard. He also said there would be cars backing into the

Bus Line Approved
Just One Year Ago

One Year Ago

Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo introduced an ordinance to appropriate $10,000 for the purchase of a bus to chauffeur senior citizens through Belleville. The bus line goes into effect next week, one year later.

Four Commissioners teamed up against Mayor Joseph McGreevy in voting to grant Town Treasurer Francis McCoy a salary increase. McGreevy, who voted against the raise, charged "power-stripping," saying McCoy was an employee of his department and needed McGreevy's approval for an increase.

The Belleville Junior Varsity baseball team has completed with victories over Columbia, 5-3, Irvington, 3-0, and Hillside, 6-1, to wind up with an excellent 12-4 record. Elsewhere in Belleville baseball, the girl's softball team came to a season end with a record of two wins and five losses. "Because seven out of ten of the girls were new and inexperienced sophomores, their ball playing showed some mistakes," stated Miss Karen Fuccello, "however, the young girls were all potentially good players, and I'm sure our second season will be much improved."

Examination of last year's food ads show some surprising statistics. Compared with last year's sale prices, shoulder roast is less expensive now than last year, while sirloin has remained the same. Bread, at least in these ads, has remained at 29 cents.

Five Years Ago

Approximately 330 seniors were scheduled to graduate from Belleville High School, in the Town's annual commencement exercises. The exercises were to be held at Municipal Stadium, and were to feature speeches by Valedictorian Sandra La Sala, Salutatorian Cathy Berezansky, and by Sandra Di Quatro, who graduated third in her class.

While a Junior High School government class looked on, Commissioner Vincent Strumolo and Mayor Kenneth Smith exchanged heated words as the Commission debated whether or not to create a position of administrative clerk in the Department of Parks and Recreation. The exchange occurred when Strumolo, who had battled the ordinance at the previous meeting, surprisingly switched sides and spoke out in favor of the bill. The bill was finally passed.

Ten Years Ago

The Town Council passed an ordinance which would greatly affect the lives of Belleville's sports buffs. By a vote of 3-2, they agreed to spend more than $50,000 to improve the Municipal Stadium.

Dr. Gerson L. Ram had been appointed permanent Town Health Officer by the Town Manager, John R. Burnett.

Mayor Nuncio Pico announced that he had appointed Mrs. Sarah Haines, of Newark Avenue, Belleville, as a member of the Board of Trustees of the North Essex Child Guidance Center.

Fifteen Years Ago

Belleville students were again honored for their artistic achievements, as the New Jersey Automobile Association honored Belleville High School students Ralph Palumbo, Annette Juliano, Ronald Russp, and Joanna Kerzic. The students had been winners in the Association's annual automobile safety contest.

Mrs. Alphonse Quaresimo was installed as president of the Belleville chapter of the ladies auxiliary to Unico.

Frank A. Orechio, publisher of the Herald Publications group, which includes the Belleville Times, announced that the Editor of the Little Falls Herald was to be transferred to the position of Editor of the Belleville Times.

Twenty Years Ago

Benjamin Ferraro was blessing St. Patrick fifteen years ago. The Belleville resident had won $56,000 on an Irish Sweepstakes Ticket that he had purchased jointly with his brother. Mr. Ferraro stated that he would use the money "to buy all things that I ever wanted but that I could never have."

A resolution sponsored by Public Works Commissioner Kenneth O. Smith was passed by the Commission. The resolution petitioned the state for aid in a $20,000 road improvement program authorized by the Town Commission previously to that date.

Thirty Years Ago

Mrs. Katherine Mongrello, of Belleville and an employee of the Westinghouse Corporation Newark plant became the proud possessor of the two millionth war bond purchase by that company.

Mrs. Percy Karrer was appointed director of the girl scout camp at South Mountain Reservation. The appointment was made by Mrs. Elmer S. Hyde, the head of the Belleville Girl Scout Association.

Students' Educational Grants Still Available

The Belleville High School Guidance Department has announced that Basic Educational Opportunity Grant applications are available for graduating seniors in the guidance office.

Basic grants are for students who need financial assistance and they are an outright grant of money that does not have to be paid back.

First and second year students enrolled full time at colleges, universities junior colleges, vocational, technical, career training schools and hospital schools of nursing are eligible.

This year basic grants will range from $50 to over $800 with a $475 per student average. Anyone enrolled in post-secondary education for the first time after April, 1973 can apply.

To apply for a basic grant an application for determination of basic grant eligibility must be obtained, completed and mailed to P.O. Box 2468, Washington, D.C. 20013.

Within a month the student will be notified of his eligibility index which is calculated on the basis of a formula applied to all applicants.

Post Office Vehicles
To Go Up for Auction

Postmaster-Manager Joseph J. Benucci has announced a sale of used postal vehicles which will take place on June 15, 10 a.m. at the Belleville Parcel Post Annex, 525 Main Street, Belleville. The vehicles can be inspected from Saturday, June 8 through June 14 during the hours from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"Vehicles will be sold to the highest bidder and full payment can be made by cash, certified check or money order payable to Disbursing Officer, United States Postal Service immediately after award of bid," said Benucci.

Gunman Holds Up Grocery Store

An armed robber held up Garden State Farms grocery store at 45 Franklin Street last Wednesday, escaping with $45.

Manager Gerald Walsh said the lone gunman entered the store at 2 p.m. and produced an automatic pistol.

He told Walsh to empty the cash register and then instructed the manager to lie on the floor while he escaped.

Police said the robber apparently fled in an automobile with an accomplice. Detectives Nick Berrigan and Kenneth Place are investigating the incident.

Mugging Team Hits Visitor from Kearny

A Kearny man was robbed on Cleveland Street by two youths Friday night when he was thrown to the ground and his wallet taken.

William Ward, 61, told police he was walking on Cleveland Street near Washington Avenue at 10:30 p.m. when he saw the two youths, who appeared to be 18-20 years old. The pair struck up a conversation, then suddenly pushed Ward to the ground. They stole his wallet, which held about $20, and his wristwatch.

Ward was not injured.

GOP's Grant to Open Congress Drive HQ

Moyor G. Murphy, Special Events Coordinator for 11th district Republican Congressional Candidate, William B. Grant, announced yesterday that Grant For Congress Headquarters will hold its grand opening on Friday evening, June 14th between the hours of 5:30 and 7:30 at the headquarters building located at 73 North Willow Street in Montclair. The public is invited, and refreshments and entertainment will be provided.

Miss Murphy is 19 years old, and one of a growing number of young people gathering around the campaign bid of Mr. Grant, a Montclair Town Commissioner, to unseat incumbent Rep. Joseph Minish, who has been in Congress for the last twelve years. She urged Democrats and Independents, as well as Republicans, to attend the opening, declaring that, "Mr. Grant is the kind of new political candidate everyone in this district can support. He has energy, idealism, and governmental experience. The people of the 11th district, and people everywhere, want a Congressman who isn't always playing politics, and trying to please big interest groups. They want a Congressman who will respond to their needs and concerns for a change. That's why we hope as many people as possible will come out and meet their candidate on the 14th."

Bloomfield, who is well known in the area for her many civic and social activities, and particularly for her work with the New Jersey Mental Health Association, where she serves on the board of directors. She joined with Miss Murphy in urging a large turnout, saying, "Bill Grant is going to make an ideal Congressman for this district. The opening will provide a fine opportunity to meet him, get together with your neighbors, and have some fun. Everyone should try to make it."

The 11th district is comprised of the towns of: Belleville, Bloomfield, Caldwell, Cedar Grove, Essex Fells, Fairfield, Hillside, Irvington, Little Falls, Maplewood, Montclair, North Arlington, Nutley, Orange, Roseland, South Orange, Verona, West Caldwell, West Orange, and West Paterson.

2 Thefts Arouse Police Suspicion

Police are investigating two similar break and entries which occurred last week.

The first took place June 6 at the home of Mrs. Daphna Glatz of 20 Garden Avenue, on the morning of June 6. The thief gained entry by cutting a bedroom screen between 9 a.m. and noon. The house was ransacked and jewelry stolen.

Detectives Kenneth Place and Nick Berrigan are investigating.

The second burglary, also of jewelry taken during the morning, occurred June 10 at the Camuso home, 435 Franklin Avenue. Mark Camuso discovered the theft, which police surmise happened in the morning after the thief entered the home by tearing the bedroom screen, as in the other burglary. Detective Bart Rossi is investigating the incident.

Five-Year Term For Mrs. Shafter On Library Board

Joseph T. Casale, President of the Belleville Library Board of Trustees, announced the recent appointment of Mrs. Richard A. Shafter by Mayor Joseph F. McGreevy to another five-year term as a member of the Library Board.

Mrs. Shafter, who is Secretary of the Library Board of Trustees, has served as its vice president and president since she was first appointed by Commissioner George F. Kiernan.

Among her accomplishments on the Board has been the conducting of a survey to determine the need for library extension.

DANGER OF WRONG PRICING

Since human nature is predictable, there is a better than even chance that you'll put the wrong selling price on your home if you arrive at it yourself.

You may price it far above its fair market value because of sentimental attachment, expenditures you have made, or by heeding a well-meaning friend's advice. A home remaining on the market for months due to over-pricing, frequently becomes a "White Elephant". It eventually sells for a much lower figure than it would have brought originally - had it been priced realistically.

On the other hand, you might under-price it because of unfamiliarity with the local market. This would be financial folly. Your safest bet is to list your home with a Realtor who will help you price it correctly from the start and sell it for the best profit.

What's Right About America

This week the Times presents a guest editorial by Belleville High student Bonnie Lowe, who recently placed second in the Miss New Jersey Teenage Pageant. She delivered the following essay on "What's Right About America."

The hearts, the minds, and yes, even the souls of Americans; that's what's right about America. Although our country is composed of all kinds of people, we have one unifying factor: our undying American spirit! From our earliest beginning,

Americans have had the immense faith and pride that have inspired the formation and continuing success of the greatest country in the world.

For the future, America's most valuable resource will be her young people who must recognize the need to make a better tomorrow.

However, through the combined efforts of all races, creeds, religions and spirits, Americans have created a democracy unequalled throughout the world!

Knowledge & Encyclopedias

If one seeks seriously to improve his mind and add to his knowledge, television isn't the answer. Most of the fare on American commercial television is far from dependable — as to facts, accuracy, etc.

The traditional means utilized by scholars for centuries past has been the encyclopedia. There the facts are found in black and white, and color, for all to check and recheck. Errors cannot go undetected or unchallenged and writers and publishers are easily called to account.

There's nothing new in most new editions of the various encyclopedias but in recent weeks a new idea, and a new approach, has been offered the public for the first time by one of the major encyclopedias — perhaps the best known of all, Britannica.

It's the first change in the traditional format of encyclopedias in many decades, the first completely new work by Britannica in forty-five years, and a striking innovation in this field. It is, of course, too early to pass final judgment on the merit and demerits of this historic turn in the history of encyclopedias.

But it is a historic and ambitious departure; it represents a serious, massive effort to help ease the learning process, and as such deserves notice and consideration.

Judiciary Reform

Under a democratic form of government it's difficult to reform the judiciary, but like all other branches of government from time to time it cries out for updated reform as shortcomings become obvious.

One of the shortcomings of America's Anglo-Saxon judicial system (for which we are forever indebted to mother country England) is that judges are allowed to rule on court pleadings which involve themselves.

Obviously, for instance, if parties to a proceeding feel the judge hearing it is prejudiced or that it's impossible to get a fair trial in a certain locality, it's less than ideal for them to be forced to ask the very judge they feel is prejudiced to grant a change of venue on the allegation.

Such a pleading should go before a neutral judge; few judges, being human, can be expected to achieve impartiality when considering a charge that they're prejudiced. In cases where judges are in the national spotlight, they also reflect human weaknesses, and often wish to stay with the case rather than turn it over to someone else and lose the national spotlight, participation in historic decisions, media praise, etc.

Only Congress, through law or constitutional amendments, can reform the judiciary — and since that's overdue, the 93rd Congress should begin the process, which may require years.

The Best Time?

Joseph Alsop, writing recently in memory of his brother Stewart who died in May, recalled one of his late brother's last serious remarks about America, just before death. His brother said that while he didn't enjoy the thought of getting older, he suspected he and his brother had been born at the right time to live out "the best time in this country."

The surviving Alsop hopes his brother's suspicion proves wrong, as do most of us. But there is a growing feeling that the best in this nation is not to come, but has come and gone.

Pollution, too many people, spoiled natural beauty and resources, the fast, hard, phony pace of life and society; the loss of individualism, character, personal pride and honor, a sense of duty and service, etc., are changing the nation.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The arrival of the long awaited Senior Citizens' bus has produced a burst of activity in Commissioner Strumolo's Public Affairs department. Trial runs are being made to set up a time schedule and familiarize the operators with the route which is scheduled to go into effect June 17.

In conjunction with the bus the Commissioner is acquiring a 15-passenger station-wagon for local "Dial-A-Ride" accommodations for the town's Senior Citizen group. Both vehicles will be radio equipped, providing two-way communication through a central dispatcher at the Commissioner's office at Joralemon St. and Washington Ave.

Through the intercession of Ken Carragher, Union Delegate at TNJ's Big Tree Garage and officers of Local 819 of the Amalgamated Transit Union, arrangements have been finalized with Commissioner Strumolo's sanction whereby some retired, pensioned-off local former bus drivers will also be driving the Senior Citizen's round town in conjunction with our off-duty police and firemen.

This new transit system for our Senior Citizens should be a boon to our elder residents; many of whom were immobilized by lack of transportation. After the long worked out details and dedicated effort of Commissioner Strumolo and his hard-working staff to bring this much needed facility to reality it is hoped that it will be extensively used and prove most successful. Good Luck.

Local resident Nick Kolba who lives down the block from your correspondent recently took an early retirement from TNJ where he was stationed at the Big Tree Garage as a bus driver; Union and Company brass were on hand for picture taking and coffee and ceremonies, on Nick's last trip.

After 28 years of service behind the wheel with a splendid record that showed no misses and won him a gold watch for operating 20 years without a chargeable accident, Mr. Kolba turned in his tins to enter the home building business where his accomplished art of carpentry will be brought to profitable use. Best of luck old buddy.

There appears to exist considerable bad blood between the leaders of the local Senior Citizen's body and that of the Essex County group that has thronged backing of Commissioner Mary Senatore.

The local Senior Citizen's club in which Mrs. Sally Hood is very active, having broken away from the Essex County body to establish their own local identity and divorce themselves from what they describe as a aura of too much politics, apparently has incurred the wrath of Comm. Senatore.

According to Mrs. Hood, in a conversation with this writer, the lady Commissioner is quoted as having said: "I'm going to break that club up (local Senior Citizen's Club) if it is the last thing I do."

Such intense rivalry between mature groups is most regrettable. There must be sufficient latitude for both to co-exist without squabbling like kids.

With the price of newsprint soaring, forcing price increases of periodicals, magazines and newspapers, along comes the U.S. Postal Rate Commission suggesting new boosts in rates for second, third and fourth class mail and parcel post.

This offers a great menace to publishers that depend upon the mails for distribution. A threat so grave that it could drive some out of business. Look and Life magazines folded, in part, because of recent postal rate increases. It could happen to others.

The Star-Ledger in a recent editorial correctly stated: "Mail delivery is an obligation of the government. Uncle Sam should charge a minimum fee for stamps and make up the deficit with money from the federal treasury, just as other federal agencies do. That would allow the Postal Service to concentrate on its real job: Delivering the mail, efficiently and promptly."

With the billions squandered on foreign governments and in fighting senseless wars we should never have become involved in; it is obvious that reasonable postal rates and efficient, prompt mail service should be made available to our people and publishers.

GOOD LUCK, NICK! — Nick Kolba and friends from the Big Tree Garage are shown as he prepares to make his final run behind the wheel of a TNJ bus. Nick has had no accidents in 20 years.

Installment Number Eleven: 'The Dissolution Of Society'

Relativity, Albert Einstein introduced a philosophy that allowed mankind to think in terms of the individual — not in terms of the group. With the passage of welfare legislation, governmental agencies caused its citizens to think in terms of individual advantage — not the advantage of the group. And, with the fabrication of the atomic bomb, science brought man to think in terms of the power of the individual — not in terms of the retaliatory power of the group.

After the Second World War, the tendency to anarchy gained impetus because of the drastic changes in the post-war society.

The same individual who — in the era of the depression — could boast of the might of his nation found himself confused and disoriented. He could no longer speak of his nation's might but only of the need for coexistence. He could no longer be assured that he traveled with the protection of his nation but that he should travel with caution lest he tarnish his nation's image. He could no longer believe in eventual world-supremacy but rather that all force must be harnessed in order to preserve society.

In the post-war era, the individual became confronted with other changes which did not aid his orientation. He watched Government accelerate its tendency to centralization to the extent that he felt himself removed from it both in distance and purpose. He witnessed the construction of the Iron Curtain, the Bamboo Curtain, and the Berlin Wall and discovered his natural drive for exploration was secondary to the division of "isms." He saw academic freedom yield to the need for political conformity and quietly realized that he was not acceptable in the employ of his own government.

In view of the changes which took place at the governmental level of society it was only natural that concomitant changes occurred on the individual level.

Owing to the fact that the struggle of the government became meaningless to the individual, he began to think only in relation to his own needs. Finding his hope of prestige in aristocratic society was no longer possible, he suppressed his initiative, labored only to the extent of his tax-advantage, and learned to relate only to his own economic problems. Finding no rational purpose in war, he evaded military conscription by post-graduate education, conscientious objection and defection to foreign societies. Finding the continuation of social authority to be a hypocrisy, he expressed his contempt through long hair, bizarre clothes, and disdain for confinement in jail. In effect, he has allowed the absolute right-and-wrong of the group to surrender to the relative of the individual.

Naturally, the surrender of the group to the individual takes the same length of time as does the generation of the forces of anarchy. But now that the tendency has acquired motion, it can only accelerate its speed. It has been adopted as the philosophy of today's youth who, for the first time, outnumber the aged. It shall attain cataclysmic speed when youth gives birth to the next generation for they will find no need to justify authority.

Urge Citizens Recycle Cans

To the editor:

Where were you on June 8 between 10 am and 3 pm? Members of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville were at the Recreation House busily crushing aluminum cans by stomping on them and using a sledge hammer.

Mrs. Samuel Guiffreda, the co-chairman, is happy to report that the amount collected on Saturday was triple that of the first collection date in May. To date townspeople have brought over two hundred pounds of recyclable aluminum to the drop offpoint, the Recreation House, 407 Joralemon Street.

However, in order to make aluminum reclamation a reality in town, we need the support of all of the citizens of Belleville. The money derived from the aluminum is going to be used by the Belleville Juniors to buy interior furnishings and equipment of the Friendly House.

The next collection date is June 22. Beverage cans, snack cans, pans, and scrap foil are all acceptable for recycling.

Club members look forward to greeting you and accepting your aluminum on June 22, between 10 am and 3 pm at the Recreation House.

Key Clubbers Thank Donors

To the Editor:

Mr. Knuppel our faculty advisor, and all the members of the Belleville High School Key Club want to thank all the citizens, students, and teachers that participated in our paper drive.

We also want to thank Mr. Vincent Vitty and Mr. Larry Gonnello of the Kiwanis Club for their time and the transportation that they supplied.

With the cooperation we received we were able to make this Paper Drive a success.

We plan another Paper Drive on Saturday, September 28. Please continue to save newspapers.

Sincerely,
Frederick M. Lardaro
President, B.H.S. Key Club

Old Glory's Birthday

(The following guest editorial was prepared and written by Col. R.R. Tourtellott, chairman Americanism Committee, Fort Monmouth Chapter, National Sojourners.)

June 14 is Flag Day, in commemoration of that date in 1777, when the Continental Congress adopted the flag to represent the thirteen states. Flag Day was first observed nationally in 1877, on its 100th Anniversary. In 1949 Congress recognized this date as Flag Day. It is not a legal holiday, except in Pennsylvania, but it is observed each year by Presidential Proclamation.

Our Flag symbolized the ideals and aspirations of the American people. Under it, George Washington won our Independence. Under its protection our forefathers spread westward and pioneered the development of our great country. Our flag stands for the things we believe in — religious liberty, equality, freedom of speech, property rights, justice, peace. The original designer of the Stars and Stripes is unknown.

There were many flags in our early history. Many of these were original and expressed threats, like the several coiled rattle-snake and "Don't Tread on Me" flags of 1775. Some shouted, "Liberty" or "Liberty or Death," some expressed a prayer like the Pine Tree Flag which was flown by the first armed schooners, commissioned by George Washington in 1775, which said, "An Appeal to Heaven." Another early flag, which played an important part in our history was the "Cambridge" or "Grand Union" flag, hoisted by John Paul Jones on his flag-ship of the Colonial Navy on December 3, 1775. George Washington raised it on January 2, 1776, as the flag of the Continental Army. It had seven red stripes and six white stripes, while in the union was the Grand Union Flag of Great Britain. The Colonists had not yet proclaimed separation from the Mother Country. The raising of this flag marked the real beginning of our National existence.

On June 4, 1777 Congress adopted our National flag. It said the flag would have thirteen stripes, alternate red and white and that the Union would be thirteen stars, white on a blue field, "representing a new constellation." It is generally believed that Betsy Ross made the first flag. In her flag, the stars were arranged in a circle. It had seven red stripes and six white stripes. On August 16, 1777, at Bennington, Vermont, General Stark's troops carried another version of the Stars and Stripes. It had seven white stripes, six red stripes, the stars formed an arc in the Union, under which was the figure 76. This was the "Bennington Flag."

In 1794, with the addition of two more states, Congress resolved that the flag would have fifteen stars and fifteen stripes. In 1818 with the admission of five more states, Congress voted to return to thirteen stripes and authorized an additional star for each new state.

Our flag is the symbol of everything our Constitution and the Bill of Rights give us. It is the responsibility of every citizen to help preserve our great heritage and to pass it on to succeeding generations. We can do this by inspiring love of country, pride and respect for the flag, and citizenship responsibility. We must all display the family flag of our Country regularly. If there is no family flag in your home — why not get one — and give the children the responsibility of displaying it as soon as they are old enough. By developing patriotism, love of the flag, and citizenship responsibility, we can feel that we are doing our part toward keeping our flag flying. "O'er the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave."

This week, Nageley discusses the attitudes and perspectives which have contributed to the development of anarchy in our society. Modern social conditions and the acquiescence of group needs to the needs of the individual are cited by Nageley as the primary factors fostering anarchy today.

Nageley claims that anarchy emerges from human necessity and offers relief from existing oppression. Because so many individuals today — especially youth — feel socially oppressed anarchy is becoming more acceptable and inevitable.

The advent of anarchy acknowledges the loss of power to regulate human behavior. It also gives evidence that the individual will no longer accede to social regulation. In this circumstance, traditional concepts of authority become a nullity.

The emergence of a lawless society — like the emergence of any other type of society — is not a spontaneous generation. It must develop as a product of human necessity. It must offer relief from existing oppression. It must be acceptable to the dominant force in existing society. In essence, it requires time, pain, and apostles.

Whereas the concept of anarchy has been known since ancient times, the doctrine could not receive widespread acceptance. The preservation of the group was regarded as necessary to the preservation of the individual. All societies were still laboring toward the god-head of evolution. And all mankind was of the belief that there was a purpose in its struggle.

The adherence to anarchy was also limited by historical times. It could not be accepted so long as the individual took pride in his right of property. It could not be accepted so long as a neighboring society offered the threat of dominion. And it could not be accepted so long as the society permitted the individual the hope of personal success.

The doctrine of anarchy has further been suppressed because it has been attractive only to social derelicts. It had no significance to the individual whose initiative compelled him to material success. It had no meaning to the affluent who enjoyed the prestige of wealth. And it had no tolerance in a society where both the individual and the group were enroute to greater achievements.

It was not until the twentieth century that anarchy came to realize common adoption.

With the development of the concept of street, an unsafe situation. Summing up, Laterza said, "Sixteen apartments there would have been sufficient."

The Commission also voted to amend a parking ordinance to regulate parking on Lake Street near St. Anthony's Church. The ordinance, which must be sent to state authorities for approval, would regulate parking for 122 feet along Lake Street.

An ordinance was introduced by Commissioner Robert Laterza to give police and firemen overtime pay. The bill will come up for public hearing at the next scheduled meeting of the Commission. Patrick McCabe, president of the Policemen's Benevolent Association, said later the bill represented the completion of "bargaining in good faith" by the association and Town officials.

Three youths from Linden Avenue and Joralemon Street presented the Commissioners with a petition bearing 58 names asking that a new recreation area be created in their section of town. Marc Beilin of 21 Linden Avenue, Richard Ottenstroer of 39 Linden Avenue and Gerard Haria of 146 Joralemon Street listed several problems with the existing recreation facilities at School Three, which the Board of Education lends to the Town. Commissioner Michael Marotti said the Town is seeking to find land for a new recreation facility, but none is presently available.

The incident started when Ita Ferrie, 25, was on her way to the Newark subway station, carrying an armload of bundles. Someone behind her grabbed her purse and ran past, headed for the subway station. Miss Ferrie screamed, the suspect stopped, returned and pushed her to the ground and kept on running. The young lady kept screaming, attracting the pursuing crowd. That's where Vitiello came in.

The father of four, Vitiello is a 35-year-old Town employee. Along with the Citizen Patrol, he's also a member of the North Ward First Aid Squad. State Senator Anthony Imperiale, founder of the first aid squad and the patrol, gave Vitiello his personal congratulations.

Junior Woman's Club Ends Year's Activities at Shelter

The Youth Department of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville has wound up their activities for this year at the Essex County Children's Shelter with the formation of a Garden Club at the Shelter School and a Spaghetti Dinner.

Eleven students between the ages of nine and eleven are in the Gardening Club. The children broke the ground and planted tomatoes, peppers, marigolds, and pansies. Each youngster also received his own ship to take care of. The students are responsible for taking care of the garden. However, members of the Junior Woman's Club plan to return to the school each week to supervise the growth of the garden.

The Spaghetti Dinner was given for eighteen youngsters between the ages of twelve and sixteen. Belleville Juniors prepared and served the supper which consisted of spaghetti, sausage, meatballs, salad, bread and butter and an ice cream cake.

The activities at the Shelter were under the direction of Mrs. William Van Holland. Mrs. Van Holland was assisted by: Mrs. Joseph Doyle, Mrs. Robert McGough, Mrs. Jesse Todd, Mrs. Gerard Rounds, Mrs. Philip Ciaravino, Mrs. William Mulhearn, Mrs. Emil Nardachone, and Mrs. John Sente.

year and again this year runs from Washington Avenue to the Passaic River. This year's replaced piping is added to the 300 feet which was installed last year.

Belleville Public Works administrative aide James Soldo said the cost of the repair actually represents a savings to the towns: "If we had hired a contractor for the job," he said, "it would have wound up costing us four times as much."

Since the pipe lay 15 feet below the ground, deeper than most sewer pipe is laid, the two towns had to jointly hire a backhoe to dig it up. Soldo said it was the only piece of heavy equipment rented for the job.

with Pat Diana
(write me at 104 Overlook Ave. or call 751-6861 after 6 p.m.)

As a volunteer for the Belleville Red Cross, and a member of their board of directors, I attended the recent awards ceremony held at the KC Building on Bridge Street. I was impressed with the fact that some people had devoted their time and served 40 years as a volunteer.

That evening, there was a guest from abroad, Bob Zimmerman, a volunteer who was cited that evening, had his cousin, Mrs. Anna Eisenhardt from Renningen, Germany with him. What impressed me most about Mrs. Eisenhardt is that she spoke no English, yet appeared at this event and was smiling and cordial. A smile, I guess, is international. My grandmother came from Germany and I knew a few words of German—very few. Mrs. Eisenhardt also received a citation that evening as she had been a Red Cross volunteer in her home town for 40 years—indeed, she had started the Red Cross there. Her husband, Albert, now deceased, was the town mayor.

I wanted to know this lady better, so I took my mother-in-law, Mrs. Frieda Bohlen, to meet with Bob Zimmerman and his cousin Anna, as my mom-in-law comes from Germany, too. It is Mrs. Eisenhardt's second visit to the U.S. and she has toured Radio City, Disneyland, Marineland and Spaceland, having just returned from a trek to Florida. She has three children, Trudy Gossger, Fredbert Eisenhardt and Gisse Graus, eight grandchildren and one great grandchild. Bob Zimmerman has done a great deal for the local Red Cross, too and has showed films, slides and volunteered at the Soho Hospital. To Anna Eisenhardt—God bless, a good trip home, it was great to meet you.

Second Lt. Pat Wynn, son of Pat will be up for First Lt. honors on July 1—he is now touring the Mediterranean and his wife, Cindy, is teaching school in Jacksonville, North Carolina. In August, Cindy, will go to meet young Pat in Barcelona, Spain.

Pat's uncle, Joe Wynn, who works at Town Hall, celebrated a birthday this past week—many happy returns to the genial, jovial Joe.

Speaking of the Red Cross, they are currently launching a blood drive. Seems a resident of town will undergo Open Heart Surgery in Massachusetts in a few weeks and our local Red Cross has to replenish blood donated to that resident. Please help others and—maybe yourself or family—by donating some blood. Contact Mrs. Sophie Bode at 759-4610. The bloodmobile will be at the KC building on June 14th—3:30—6:30 to receive blood donations.

Miss Bonnie Lowe put Belleville on the map again. If you remember reading in this column—she headed to New Brunswick to enter the Miss New Jersey teenage pageant. Out of a field of 71, Bonnie was one of 17 finalists and with her essay, "What's Right About America" came in second. The daughter of Ruth Lowell Bonnie wore a red, white and blue halter dress when reading her essay, and in the evening gown competition, she wore a powder blue and white gown. Nice going! kiddo.

Millie and Bill Williams' son, PFC Mark, returned from Korea recently and is now at Ft. Dix. He received the Soldier of the Month Award in the Third Basic Combat Training Brigade and is nominated to receive that award for the entire post. A 1972 graduate of BHS, the outstanding soldier has a brother Bill and a sister, Sharon.

Pack 350 at the Scout-air-rama took first place in special events and Webelwood took the first place with their Pinewood

Derby. Phyllis Servidio, den mother and coach, received her eight year service pin. As part of their good will project, the Pack are donating new toys to the Essex County Children's Shelter and will again be planting flowers on the lawn of Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The June meeting of the Metropolitan Organ Club will be held the 22nd at 6:30 in the Belleville Assembly of God, 178 Holmes Street. Member Janice DiQuattro will be united in marriage to Mr. Phillip Castrodale on June 15th...those with birthdays this month include: Camille DeJulio, Carmella Farano, Ingeborg Haus, Joseph Siena, Connie Simone and Bessie Tirone.

Belleville Senior Citizens with a birthday this month include: Rose Bevans, Minnie Bianchino, Rose Bocchione, Angelo Borino, Margaret Calami, Mrs. Anna Christiano, Mary Ciceralo, Vito J. Cilli, John Conway, Ann Cummings, Betty and John Faiella, Sally Hood (and a very happy birthday to you, Sally), Julia Huemer, Louis Iannicelli, Elsie Kessels, Bridie Lowack, Mrs. Anna Mallack, Maria P. Maura, Lena Nocelli, Joseph Piscopiello, Maria Ranno, Michael Sesso, Catherine Smith, Marie Sylvester and Marie Wolenski. The Group is now meeting at Amvets Hall on Newark Avenue while they anxiously await their new building.

Remember when I had my summer employment program for teens? I'm STILL getting phone calls. Have two 17 year old teen typists. If interested phone 759-0476. Thanks.

Neighbors on Joralemon Street would like to express their sympathy to darling Cheryl Fredericks, an 11 year old who used to live in their area but now resides on Washington Ave. and attends St. Peters. Cheryl suffered the loss of an eye and everybody sends their love.

New officers of The Kiwanis Club of Branch Brook, Belleville are Frank L. Pitt, president Neil J. Fitzpatrick, first v.p., Harvey J. Gardner, Jr. second v.p. and Steven Fox, treasurer.

The children of Bill and Lillian Walsh are doing well, Marth Brown (his son) received his masters in Mathematics at East Carolina U., and Jim Walsh (his son) graduated from NCE. Kathy Walsh is still selling candy to help the kids at the Shelter.

People often ask me where I find the time to do everything. It ain't easy. I told you about starting a softball team of gals my age (and younger). Well, our team has joined the Nutley Recreation League and will be playing regularly this summer. Hoffman International on Cortlandt Street (where I work full time) is sponsoring us, and with our first game coming up this Tuesday I've got my fingers crossed. Barbara LaMotta is our captain and her father, Dan Meggaliaro is our coach...more news to come.

Belleville must have been deserted on Friday June 7...the whole town—it seemed—was at the Robin Hood Inn for the Belleville Varsity Club All Sports Dinner. It was the first time I attended this shindig and I must say I was impressed. They feted the senior athletes in a four hour long presentation. Tom Mack, president of the club and Charles Grasso, master of ceremonies, with the invocation by Rev. Angelo Cernero of Full Gospel Church, Newark really had planned well.

Parents were everywhere, but the kids were up front—where they should be—to receive their awards. Where we were sitting, I noticed only two young men return to the parents section to show their trophies—Walter Cole and Ralph Fabiano. My husband—Fritz Bohlen and I were sitting with daughter Sue, her friends—Debbie Cardone and Diane Giansanti and Ralph Fabiano's parents—Mr. and Mrs. Fedor Fabiano.

Brushing your teeth after eating pays in terms of the money you save, the time, the energy, as well as the appearance of your teeth. Every person should have two brushes: for alternate use. They should be kept clean, and permitted to dry between brushings. A satisfactory toothbrush has a flat surface for brushing, firm bristles, and a head small enough to permit easy access to all surfaces of the teeth and gums. To keep the teeth and gums in a healthy state, it is important to brush them properly immediately after eating.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS IN SOCIAL SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner Honeymooning In Poconos

Miss Jacquelyn Ann Zatorski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zatorski of 55 Mt. Prospect Avenue, and William Arthur Gardner, Jr.,

son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Arthur Gardner of Colonia exchanged vows on June 8 in St. Peter's Church, Belleville. The reception followed at the Club Marconi, Kearny.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of white sate-peau with high ruffled waist, illusion neckline with a Victorian collar trimmed in Venice lace, and lace appliques on tapered sleeves. It was fashioned by a built-in traditional train with a flounce hemline.

A Venice lace headpiece held a bouffant elbow veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses.

Miss Deborah Hersh of River Vale was the maid of honor. The other attendants were cousins of the bride. The bridesmaids included Miss Gerorgette Blozen, Brooklyn, New York, and Miss Annette Avallone, Newark. The junior bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Blozen, Belleville. The flower girl was Eileen Blozen, also of Belleville.

They wore blue floral print gowns, trimmed with a high rise white waist band, slit neckline and bishop sleeves, wide brim hats, and bouquets of spring flowers completed their outfits.

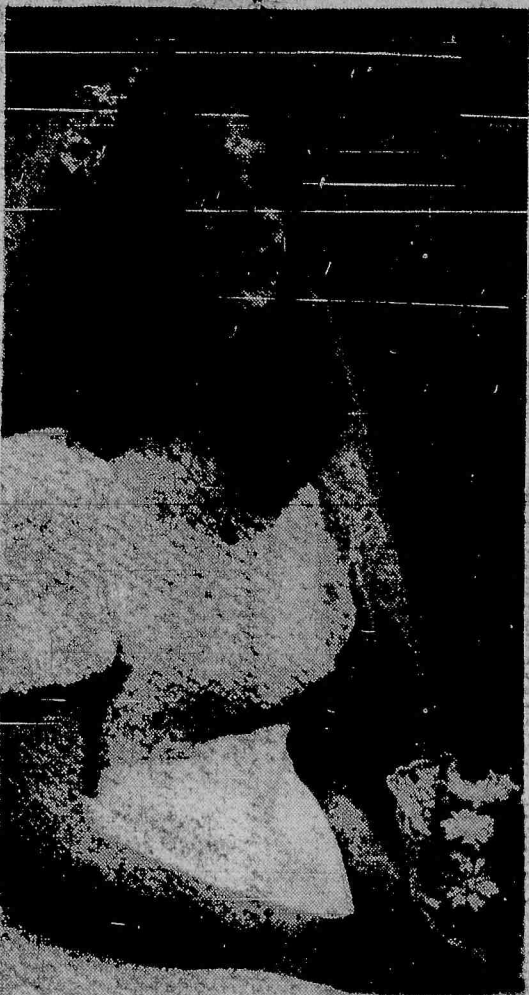

Lawrence Laube of Passaic served as best man. Ushers were Frank Zatorski of Belleville, brother of the bride, Gary Gardner of Colonia, brother of the groom, and Scott Duester-dick, also of Colonia. Ringbearer was James Clark of Bayville.

Mrs. Zatorski chose a sleeveless, high waist, candy pink chiffon gown with a sequined bodice, while the groom's mother wore a mint green chiffon gown.

Mrs. Gardner graduated from Belleville High School and is a junior at William Paterson College, Wayne, where she is studying business administration.

Mr. Gardner, an alumnus of J.F. Kennedy High School, iselin, and Middlesex County College, is an assistant operator in the refinery at Exxon Co., Linden.

The couple are honeymooning in the Poconos, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Gary Robbins - nee Marlene Macchia

Marlene Macchia, Gary Robbins Wed

St. Mary's Church was the setting June 9 for the marriage of Miss Marlene Macchia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Macchia of 98 Glendale Street to Gary, David Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin E. Robbins Jr. of 99 Glendale Street. The Rev. Dull performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Pappas's Restaurant, Belleville.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza trimmed with lace and pearls. A lace cap held her fingertip veil and she carried carnations and roses.

Miss Joyce Rizzo of Newark was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Debra D'Alessio, Miss JoAnn D'Alessio, Miss Diane Dougherty, Miss Angela Macchia and Miss Elizabeth Robbins, all of Nutley.

Their empire gowns were in rainbow colors and trimmed with white lace. Hats were also white and they carried carnations and daisies.

Robert Kohler of Nutley served as best man. Ushers, all from Nutley, were Frank Martorelli, Allen Piccininno, Robert Lessard, Orlando Macchia and Sal D'Alessio.

Mrs. Macchia chose a peach gown with gold accessories while the groom's mother was in blue with silver accessories. Corsages were of roses.

The couple are alumni of Nutley High School. Mr. Robbins is with Branch Brook Exxon, Newark.

The couple will live in Nutley after honeymooning in Florida.

Dicristo-Biondello Ceremony Held In Holy Angels Church

Miss Jo-Ann S. Biondello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Biondello of Little Falls and Steve Dicristo Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dicristo Sr. of Nutley, were married May 26 in Holy Angels Church, Little Falls.

The Rev. Banks performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Nestors, Little Falls.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a Victorian gown of sate-peau with an empire waist, high lace collar and long sheer sleeves. The gown was accented with appliques of Cluny lace and pearls and featured a chapel train.

A pearl clustered Camelot headpiece held her elbow length veil and she carried pink baby roses, white daisies and babies breath.

Miss Diane Biondello was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Karen Coniglio of Garfield, Miss Melinda Terranova of Little Falls, Miss Irene Yokel of Clifton, Mrs. Florence Gazda of Passaic Park, sister of the groom and Mrs. Carole Biondello of Lake Hiawatha, sister-in-law of the bride. Flower girl was the groom's cousin, Christine Timpona of Brooklyn, New York.

Their halter gowns of pink floral print on ivory were topped with Victorian jackets. Headpieces were picture hats. The honor attendant carried baby pink roses, pink carnations, daisies and babies breath while the bridesmaids had pink carnations, daisies and babies breath. The flower girl, in a solid pink gown, had a basket of baby roses.

Anthony Dicristo of Nutley was his brother's best man. Ushering were Ron Kalooky of Morris Plains, Sal Biondello of Lake Hiawatha, brother of the bride, John Gazda of Passaic Park and Richard Waitts and Brian Donatello of Nutley. Ringbearer was the bride's cousin, Ronnie Roach of Paterson.

Mrs. Biondello chose a pale blue polyester knit gown topped with a short lace jacket. Her corsage was of baby blue orchids. The groom's mother was in light gold lurex and had a corsage of gold baby orchids.

Mrs. Dicristo, a graduate of Passaic Valley High School, is a secretary with Sears Service Center, Fairfield.

Mr. Dicristo, an alumnus of Nutley High School and Jersey City State College, served two years in the Army Medical Corps and is in purchasing, planning and administration with Essex Chemical Corp., Clifton.

The couple honeymooned in Florida and are living in Clifton.

Escape the Washday Blues As the Belleville Launderette

Have you got the wash-day blues? Well, forget them! The Belleville Launderette, 569 Washington Avenue, takes that big chore away from you, does your wash ever so clean and, even can do your dry cleaning.

Walter Cole is the owner of the Belleville Launderette, where you can get same day service on your wash, or have them pick up one day and deliver spanking clean clothes the next. He took over the business five years ago and it's a great feeling to have your wash done, dried, folded, packed or wrapped and returned to you, so all you have to do is put it away.

Suppose you have wash and wear items, shirts, husband's slacks, whatever — they are washed and returned on hangers — no ironing! It's great! Drapes and bedspreads are another big item that can be done and, for dry cleaning — bedspreads, slipcovers and drapes are no problem. Walt offers bulk rates, which, when you consider the time YOU save, are simply fantastic.

Belleville Launderette has all new Maytag machines. Helping Walt are Mary Baldwin, Tina Grohe and Jean Murphy (part time). Every month Walt runs a free eight pound wash giveaway. You can just feel the cleanliness when you talk into 569 Washington Avenue, which is decorated with a sprinkle of colored flowers.

Walter Cole of the Belleville Launderette, says "Service is our business and it is service with a plus. Closed on Monday and Tuesday, the Belleville Launderette is open 8:30 to 6, and to 3 p.m. on Saturday. Say goodbye to washday blues... leave it to the experts! I'm pretty particular about my laundry, and if you are, too do call the Belleville Launderette at 759-2008. You'll save time and money, but most of all, you'll meet some pretty nice people who take a personal interest in doing their job — for you — just right.

Minish Lauds Aid to Elderly

Congressman Joseph G. Minish today hailed the adoption by the House Banking Committee of two amendments he introduced to the 1974 Housing and Urban Development Act that would greatly help the nation's elderly find safe, decent, and sanitary housing.

In executive markup session of the House Banking Committee of which Minish is a ranking member, the Committee voted passage for each of two Minish sponsored amendments. The first amendment mandates that a minimum of 20% of federal housing subsidy monies be spent on units to house the elderly. The second Minish amendment provides for a 10% deduction in the gross income calculation of an elderly family before the rent is computed, thereby decreasing by a substantial amount the rent they would have to pay.

Minish hailed the successful passage of his two amendments as "affirming this nation's justifiable concern for our senior citizens."

"Our nation's elderly are in desperate need of federal housing assistance," Minish said. "In urbanized areas like Essex County," he added, "they have found their rents increasing to the breaking point with no place else to move."

"Housing," Minish stressed, "is a different problem from others. One can scarcely take it or leave it," he said.

"The Congress must ensure that our senior citizens are not forced out of an increasingly tight housing market such as exists today," Minish said. "The Committee's action today will help to solve these most serious problems."

Realtors Plan to Survey N.J. Abandoned Property

The herculean task of surveying all abandoned properties in the Garden State's 567 municipalities has been undertaken by the New Jersey Association of Realtors (NJAR).

Sidney H. Koorse, president of the 10,000-member NJAR, said the census of abandoned residential, commercial and farm properties is the first of its kind in the state and the largest ever undertaken in the nation.

Koorse said: "The primary goal of the New Jersey Housing Abandonment Survey is to provide information and statistics heretofore unavailable. This may help the state to save existing housing by designing new remedial programs. The need is to overcome the critical housing shortage — especially for low and moderate-income families."

"If the survey uncovers the fact that there are 10,000, 20,000 or more abandoned but restorable properties, the legislature would be in a position to seek corrective measures that could return these Ptour housing inventory," Koorse explained. Koorse added: "As of today, no one actually knows the extent of the problem and that is why we are launching this survey."

Who Is 'Average' Schooler?

Profile Typical School Boarder

Who is "Mr. Average" school board member? What are his characteristics? How does he feel about key educational issues?

In a study designed by the New Jersey School Boards Association and Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey school board members were asked to respond to a four-part survey which included personal characteristics, attitudes, needs and concerns, and an evaluation of resources available to New Jersey school board members.

A total of 1,619 board members responded to the survey.

First of all, drop "Mr. Average" — the number of female board members has increased from 15 percent in 1971 to the present total of 24 percent.

This change is reflected in the occupational groupings, with homemakers now comprising 13 percent of the sample as compared to the earlier figure of 9 percent. Seven major occupational categories make up 72 percent of the population responding to the survey. Leading the list are corporate and association executives (14 percent), homemakers (13 percent), and educators (12 percent). Business proprietors (11 percent), engineers (9 percent), sales representatives (7 percent) and technicians (6 percent) are the other significant occupational groups. The occupational breakdown for this survey is essentially the same as in a 1971 review except for the homemaker status.

The basic source of income for most board members (70 percent) is still a weekly salary, with the remainder listing fees, profits and fixed incomes. While there has been little change in the source of income within the past three years, the amount of gross family income has increased significantly over this period of time. More than 50 percent of the sample had earnings of over $20,000 yearly while 39 percent made between $10,000 and $20,000 per year. This is compared to figures of 38 percent and 52 percent for 1971.

This increase in income has a definite relationship to the level of formal education for board members. Ninety-eight percent have completed high school and 86 percent have had some college education. Fifty-one percent graduated from college and 31 percent hold advanced degrees. In this survey, a greater number of board members (5 percent) are working on advanced degrees than was evident in the 1971 study.

The age distribution is essentially unchanged with 42 percent of the population in the 41-50 age bracket and 31 percent in the 31-40 age group. Twenty-three percent of the respondents are over 50 years of age and only 4 percent are under age 30.

The racial composition remains virtually static — black board members have increased from 3 to 4 percent of the total; there is a 1 percent representation of Orientals and Puerto Ricans and white board members comprise 94 percent of the group.

There is a change in religious preference compared to 1971. The present group has an increase in the number of Catholics (from 26 to 36) and a decrease in Protestant representation (56 to 32). Eight percent of the board members are Jewish, 4 percent indicate other religious preferences, and 7 percent have expressed no religious affiliation.

Ninety-four percent are married, 74 percent have children enrolled in the public schools and 11 percent have children attending private and parochial schools. All these percentages are lower than 1971, most noteworthy being the public school enrollment — down 12 percent.

Political preference still tends to be Republican although it is 9 percent less than in 1971 (48). Democratic and independent identification have increased 3 percent each from 18 and 25 percent respectively. Twelve percent express no political preference.

Fifty-four percent filed for the position of board member themselves, 16 percent were nominated by friends and 17 percent were appointed to fill unexpired terms.

Latin Tongue Is No Dead Language For These 5 Belleville High Students

Five Latin I students from Belleville High School won awards in the National Latin Examination, sponsored by the Association for Promotion of Study of Latin.

The exam, offered throughout the United States and Europe measures the student's grammatical and vocabulary skills through translation and reading comprehension.

Connie Meyer, Sandra Cronauer, Kathy Fitzgerald and Raquel Romero received awards.

Mary Jane Izzo did not take the exam.

The maximum score was 120 points, and students scoring within the first quarter were eligible for awards.

Participants from Belleville scored well within the first quarter, the lowest score being 98 points. The United States national median score for 1974 was 38 points.

Connie Meyer scored highest with 110 points, receiving a "Cum Maxima Laude" (With Eminent Merit) certificate. Sandra Cronauer and Kathy Fitzgerald each received 100 points and certificates of "Magna Cum Laude" (With Superior Merit) were awarded. Raquel Romero received 98 points with a "Cum Laude" (With Honorable Merit) certificate.

No one received a "Summa Cum Laude" (With Superlative Merit) certificate, awarded with a silver pin to students who score 115 to 120 on the exam.

Because of low enrollment, Latin was not offered as a regular course but as an extra-curricular activity. The class, which met every morning at Belleville High School from 7:30 to 8, was taught by James Donovan. An English teacher, Donovan was a Latin Teacher before the class was phased out in 1971. By that time, there remained only a third year Latin class of 10 students.

From the beginning, the students understood that they would not receive credit for the course, although the administration decided a few weeks ago to give them credit.

When asked why she studied Latin, Connie replied, "I hoped it would improve my English and help in learning foreign languages."

Raquel described the course as "challenging," saying that her knowledge of Latin has given her a clearer insight to the English language.

"Because Latin is so similar to English," said Mary Jane, "it is one of the easiest languages to learn."

Donovan sees the class as a test case for the future of Latin at the high school, dependent upon the class. Pleased with the renewed interest in Latin, he suggests that studies begin in junior high school. This way, by the time the student is a high school junior, he can begin translating poetry and drama.

"Greek and Roman philosophers have a lot of advice for young people who are lost and searching for new guidelines today," said Donovan.

Lions Club Gives Away Ford Pinto

The Belleville Lions Club held its annual Benefit Drawing at the Fountain Restaurant last Thursday, June 6, and the winner of the 1974 Ford Pinto station wagon was a local Belleville resident, Mr. James O'Hara of 39 Division Avenue.

O'Hara works at the Belleville Wire-Cloth Company, under the supervision of Jack Crowley, Lion Club member of long-standing. The drawing was for the benefit of numerous Lion Club charities, and the winning ticket was pulled by Mrs. Carol Oliver of DeWitt Savings and Loan.

Winner Jim O'Hara says that with three children he was definitely in need of a new, economical car. Tickets for the benefit drawing were sold by Lion Club members throughout the Belleville community.

Home Debut Today

Legion Post Diamondeers Open Season With Victory

The Belleville American Legion team will debut in its home opener today at 6 p.m. at the high school field when they face Vailsburg, after winning their first game of the season against West Orange. In extra innings, Belleville came up with an 8-5 victory.

Joe Cerza pitched the game at West Orange's Coleman Field, throwing six strong innings before Greg Petite came in for the seventh and eighth. Under a new coach, Mike Limongelli, the Belleville nine looked good despite a slow start. Down by 3-1, the Belleville bats opened up in the fourth inning, with Lou Grasso singling after Cerza walked. Vic Pasquariello singled to drive in a run, then Vin Lipoma blasted out a triple to score two more. Greg Dunleavy then drove in another run, and Belleville came out of the inning, ahead by 5-3. The West Orange squad responded by tying up the game, 5-5, in the seventh inning. In the eighth, Joe Cancelliere beat out an infield hit and Joe Cerza walked.

Lou Grasso came to bat and smashed a triple down the right field line to score both. Chip Biafore came in to run for Grasso and scored on a passed ball. The Legionnaires will travel to Verona on June 17, then will meet Millburn at home on June 19. The June 21 game will be at Maplewood.

Closing on a Triumphant Note, Blue-Gold Nine Whips Kearny

by Pat Caputo

Ending their season with their seventh consecutive victory at home, Belleville closed out the 1974 baseball campaign with a 4-2 triumph over defending Big Ten Champs, Kearny. Belleville had lost to Kearny way back on opening day across the river, and waited through the two months of the season before taking out their revenge on the Hudson County school in Belleville. Kearny failed to repeat as champions of the Big Ten Conference, as this year the honor is awarded to Bloomfield in a very competitive race. Belleville finished in a tie for third with Montclair, at 10-6 in league play, as Columbia nosed their way into second place, one game behind Bloomfield with a 11-5 conference record. The Bengals won the championship with a 12-4 mark. The league race was actually a race for second as Bloomfield jumped to an early lead but faltered slightly after they had clinched the title. If Columbia did not upset Bloomfield on their final day, a three-way tie for second place would have resulted. However "if's are excuses and is always followed by "wait until next year".

Finishing up this year must come first. Coach Travers used four pitchers in the game, Joe Cerza, Mike Dondarski, Greg Petite, and Dennis Nadzan. Combined, they walked only one, struck out seven and checked the Cardinals to two runs on six hits. They were aided by some fine defense, as Belleville was not charged with an error.

Belleville Errors Scuttle Last Effort on the Road

by Pat Caputo

Traveling to Hillside for the last road game of the season, the Bellboys lost the contest as they literally "dropped" the game into the hands of the home side.

Once again, another brilliant pitching performance from senior right-hander Jerry Hoban was wasted as he witnessed his teammates lose the lead and the game in the bottom of the sixth inning. Three unearned runs scored with the aid of three Bellboy errors and only one meaningful hit. Pete Kowalsky hit a grounder down third but reached on a error to start things off for Hillside in the last half of the sixth with his team on the short end of a 3-1 score. He stole second and Hoban walked only his second man of the game, Gene Mikulwicz. Pat Stukes fled out for the first out. And then the roof fell in. Steve Horvath, after being saved when his foul pop-up was dropped for an error, reached second when his fair ball was dropped in the outfield for an error, allowing Kowalsky to score and leaving runners in scoring position.

Tom Barnett put down a fine sacrifice to score the tying run as Hoban fielded it and threw out the batter at first. Ed Daniels, running for Horvath, tried to score all the way from second. As the ball arrived at the plate, he somehow outdodged Bellboy catcher Gregg Dunleavy. With the bases empty and the score 4-3, Hillside's favor, Ron Hobbs got the only hit of the inning and it meant nothing as Joe Cancelliere gunned him out at second from left center.

B.I.A.C.A., Milt's Hold Lead Midway in Little League Race

As the first half of the Belleville Little League season drew to a close last week, two teams emerged as clear leaders.

In the American League, the Belleville Italian-American Civic Association won the mid-season race with their 6-1 record. A good defense, with fine pitching and timely hitting, boosted B.I.A.C.A. into the top spot. Top players Joe Wolf, Jim Giulliano and Ken Miele have been outstanding for the squad, which is coached by longtime Little League mentor Vinnie Lipoma.

At the top of the heap in the National League is Milt's Photo, also with a 6-1 record. Managed by Anthony Bruno, Milt's has enjoyed the pitching talents of Dan Borgo and Mike Nicosia, who are also fine hitters. Other bat power has been supplied by Steve Coffey and Robert Cook.

Amvets, a 5-2 club, last week bombarded the Kiwanis with 14 hits to win by 5-7 score. Mike Green pitched a two-hitter for the vets, and knocked out two hits. Jesse Marchese did most of the work in the stick department, though, totalling four hits, followed by Mike Murphy with three, and Richard Caruso and Anthony Domenick with two.

The Amvets also walloped the F.M.B.A., 11-2, producing 14 hits in that game, with Harry Anderson leading with three. Two-hitters included Richard Caruso, Jesse Marchese, Anthony Domenick, Mike Green and Kevin Murphy, while Jim De Angeles hit two for the firemen.

Milt's charge in the National League hit an obstacle when the Knights of Columbus, spurred on by big hitting Ken Barnett, took the lead from the start and wound up 8-5 winners. Ken went four for four at the plate, with two home runs and six RBI's. Milt's batters Mike Nicosia and Jerry Digori each had a homer.

Milt's pitcher Dan Borgo faced 19 P.B.A. batters and left them all hitless as the policemen were blanked by League-leading Milt's. Along with his superb pitching performance, Dan accounted for two hits, along with Richard White.

Jolly Cleaners had a good week, winning 4-0. The Lions were ripped for a 13-7 loss, chiefly through the third inning, when nine Lions crossed the plate. Producing two hits for the winners were Ken Constantino, Greg Childers and Mark Santasieri, while Angelo Centanni and Andy Zoppi each had two for the losers.

Jolly also took an 8-5 win from Kiwanis, on the merits of another big inning—the second, where they scored six runs. Ken Constantino had three hits for Jolly. Frank DeLorenzo came up with four for Kiwanis, followed by John Norton and Bob Brave, who each had two.

Wallace and Tiernan had it out with Landolfi's in a close game which saw W&T threatened by a three-run rally in the last inning before edging Landolfi, 11-10. Steve Kochanski and Chip Verian each had two hits for W&T, while Landolfi's two-hitters were Mike San Giacomo and Paul Gerhauser.

W&T had an active and successful week, defeating

Jayvees Split 2 To Wrap It Up

by Dennis Buckley

On Monday, June 3, the Belleville Jayvee baseball team shut-out its opponents for the fifth time this season. The victim of that day was Hillside who was defeated by a score of 8-0. John Guarino was the winning pitcher; his record at this point stood at eight wins and one loss. Larry Maccia worked the final inning to earn his first save of the season, Mike Cancelliere drove in four runs on two singles to build the foundation of the eight-run lead.

The game was all Belleville's as Guarino, Joe Bacarro, Bobby Giordano, and Maccia limited the Comets to five hits. The four hurlers combined to strike out eleven and allowed only two batters to reach base on walks.

On two occasions, Mike Cancelliere drove in Nick Cancelliere and John Guarino.

With one out in the seventh, Nick "Cance" singled, stole second, advanced to third on a single. By Anthony Marino, and stole home, John Pontrella singled and went to second on an error. Chris Tremel followed with a double to bring Pontrella in. Tremel scored on Bobby Giordano's double and Fred Racioppi singled in "G".

In the last game of the season at home on June 5, the local junior batsmen lost a heartbreaker to Kearny by a score of 5-4.

Bobby Giordano started the game for Belleville and in the seventh he was lifted for John Guarino who was pinned with the loss.

Kearny scored one run in the first on a leadoff homerun. The Bellboys retaliated with two in the home half of the inning. Nicky Cancelliere walked, stole second and went to third on a passed ball. John Guarino reached on a sacrifice bunt that scored Cancelliere and he himself later scored on a double by Bobby Giordano.

In the third, one more crossed the plate for Belleville as John Guarino walked, stole second, went to third, on a balk, and scored on a single by Bobby Giordano. The home squad increased its lead to three runs in the fourth, when speedster Wayne Richie walked, stole a few bases, and came home on an error by the Cardinal catcher.

One Cardinal run came in the fifth on two singles and a sacrifice; another scored in the sixth on two singles and an error; and the tying and winning runs scored in the final inning on a single, a walk, and two fielders' choices.

Belleville mounted a threat in the seventh, loading the bases with one out, but nothing happened. The loss ended a four game win streak for Belleville and left them with a mediocre 6-8 road record.

Belleville jumped to a quick lead as Chipper Biafore singled to right to open the game. Lou Grasso then walked. After one was out, Joe Cancelliere singled in Biafore. Hillside evened the score in the fourth. Mikulwicz and Stukes singled and moved up on a passed ball. After two were gone, Hoban gave up his only earned run of the game as Hobbs singled in Mikulwicz.

Belleville wasted no time in regaining the lead as the poked out two runs in the fifth. With one out, sophomore Gregg Dunleavy singled to center. Hoban sacrificed him

Weigh-In Set For Broncos

Weighing-in will be held for all candidates for the Belleville Bronco football team this Saturday at 10:30 a.m. at the Little League fieldhouse on Montgomery Place. All candidates must attend this weigh-in, which will be the only one held before tryouts.

The Broncos is a new team for local boys entering the fifth through eighth grades and who do not turn 15 before November 10, 1974. The minimum age is 11 years old by September 1, 1974.

with five consecutive losses. Wins came however against East Side, then Orange fell after a setback to Irvington, the Newark Tech Terriers became the fifth Belleville victim.

East Orange visited Belleville and was heavily favored to come away with another victory. Yet when your going good, no one can touch you. Belleville pulled off one of its biggest upsets of the season as the Bellboys won 70-52. Senior Bill Goodwin, star two miler looked at the win with great satisfaction, as it was the first track victory over East Orange during his three years on the team. "When you can beat a team like East Orange so convincingly, it makes the whole season seem worthwhile." Meanwhile the team was at 500.

The next meet was against Bloomfield. There was a sort of reserved anticipation among the cindermen as they awaited their opponents. It seemed everyone was aware of the consequences of this meet and the results it might have on the season.

The skepticism was short lived however as the hurdlers started the team off on its 25 point victory. The final score of 73½-48½ was exactly what the squad worked for as a lead in the seasons against Kearny. However a strong Cardinal team awaited the Bellboys at Kearny and it seemed that no one could turn back the Kearny onslaught. The scoring ended at 83-34. The three Belleville first finishes in the meet were captured by Paul Haverick (shot 47'4"), Tom Sanders (discus 128'11"), and

BHS Trackmen Rose to Meet Coach Haneke's Expectations

By Bob Cohen

"We have lots of depth which will definitely make us a stronger opponent. We also have alot of talent, so things really look optimistic. More importantly, I don't expect the same results as last year's (3-10) team had."

That was how Belleville head track coach, Ray Haneke analyzed the track program at Belleville before the season began. "The book on our program has changed in the past few years. We have the greatest number of kids involved in the sport ever. The freshmen team is a viable working unit and it helps breed alot of talent for the varsity. Everything just points towards a good season."

The just completed track season shows what Haneke and the entire team had strived for the entire year. The 7-7 year showed victories Passaic, Bloomfield, West Orange, East Side, Orange, Newark Tech, and East Orange. The losses however, came against Nutley, Vailsburg, Montclair, Mountain, Columbia, Irvington, and Kearny. It was the first breakeven season in the six years Haneke has been at the helm.

The Bellboys started their season in a style similar to the basketball team: They won their first two meets of the season whereas in past years they would have split them, ditto the basketball team.

The first victim was Passaic, as the Indians practically lied down to the hard charging Bellboys. The final score was 98-15.

The similarities between the track and basketball seasons began to mount as the tracksters narrowly won a meet that they should have taken easily. The same person that sparked Belleville to that 48-40 win over Kearny in Basketball aided greatly to the track victory over West Orange by taking two first place finishes, the only Bellboy to accomplish such a feat that afternoon.

Bob Sanders both times came through when it was needed, this time by copying first in the 120 highs and 330 intermediates. The season now stood at 2-0 and people were now believing what they were hearing about the team from Belleville.

Then came the losses, five in a row that put a serious dent in the season. Belleville fell to Nutley, then Jerry Morgan brought his Vailsburg teammates with him and again Belleville fell. The frustration mounted as Montclair, winner of the Group IV section two title, won, then Mountain nipped Belleville by ten, 66-56. With the loss to Columbia the seasons record now read 2-5 and everyone's hopes seemed to have been washed down the drain. The year looked bleak

Horutz and Mark Feola. Wayne Edwards and Mark LePore had two for the Elks. Riefolo was beaten, 5-2, by Wallace and Tiernan, with Steve Kochanski coming through with a "perfect" play at the plate. For Riefolo, Jim DeGabrielle and Stanley Brooks had two hits. W&T poured out 14 hits to overcome Rotary, 8-7, knocking the Rotarians into second place in the league. Mike Horutz had three of W&T's hits, followed by Ricky Kiernan, Chip Verian, Mario Columbrito, Tom O'Kean, and John MacArthur with two each. Rotary collected an 8-3 win from Riefolo's, producing most of their runs early behind the hitting of Jim Kelly and Lou Ritalco, who pitched a three-hitter. Riefolo exploded for four runs in the final inning to defeat the Elks, 4-2. Joe Mustacchio led the hitting with three, followed by Frank Fazzini with two. Mark LePore had two hits for the Elks.

Varsity Club, trailing 4-0, came up with two runs in both the fifth and sixth innings against Wallace and Tiernan to tie up the game. In the seventh inning, Anthony Bocchino homered with a man on base for a 6-4 win. He joined Chris Lowery and Bob Baglione, who had also homered. For W&T, Mike Horwitz had three hits.

The P.B.A. cranked out three runs in the first inning against the F.M.B.A., to set a lead which they never surrendered in the 4-2 ballgame. Len Mendola had three hits for the policeman, including a home run, while Gary Guancione and Jim De Angeles had two hits for the firemen.

Hillside High Claims Win From Locals to second, and Dunleavy took third when the pitcher fielded the bunt, allowing Hoban to reach first.

Biafore hit a deep fly to right to score Dunleavy from third and Hoban moved up to second. Junior Lou Grasso delivered a big hit to right to bring in Hoban, as Belleville was back in control with a 3-1 lead; until the fateful sixth.

Hoban pitched the complete game, giving up four runs (one earned) on five hits. He struck out five and walked only two. His record falls to 2-3 due to a great deal to the fact that Belleville left ten men on base, eight in the last three innings. Belleville is 14-10, Hillside 13-16.

Hoban also held the Hillside twins, Bill and Bob Cowan, hitless in five trips to the plate.

Track Squad Even Record

(Continued From Page 13) Bill Goodwin (two mile 10:17.7). The latter two are seniors as they befittingly completed their high school competition with the same high standard that they had set for themselves throughout their careers.

Although the rack team will lose quite a few through graduation, the nucleus nonetheless remains for future winning teams. Encouraging performances by underclassmen all season long have set the stage for exciting action next year. Gone will be Bob Sanders (hurdles), Bill Goodwin (two mile), Frank Salerno (two mile), Bob Cohen (sprints), Bob Cozzarelli (sprints), Wayne Kellenbence (440), Steve Dyba (mile), Ralph Castellano (440), Steve Budrick (880), Tom Sanders (discus), George Vechos (discus), Jim Lanno (shot), John Dougherty (pole vault), Barry Dunleavy (pole vault), Pete Fitzpatrick (mile), and Dan DeSantis (manager).

The return of some key performers next season however account for the optimism building for next year. The

Kearny Unit Becomes Last Diamond Victim

It is said that the success of a team depends upon an exceptional home record. Belleville produced an excellent 9-2 record for the local fans. The Bellboys' surge in the Big Ten Conference is due to the fact that they won their last six conference games in a row. Kearny finished at a mediocre .8-8 conference record, and 16-14 overall.

No doubt one of the most desirable helpers for a housewife is a washing machine. The writer still remembers when a washer woman came to the parents house. There was a large tub in which the laundry had to be "cooked". After that the poor woman had to scrub and scrub and rinse and hang the laundry to dry. There was always a lot of complaining when the weather was not good to dry the wash; because the washer's mother and she did not like it. Compare this with today. What a difference! Just fill the machine, set the cycle for the proper range and walk away, the machine does the rest, and the laundry comes out better than it could be done by hand. Of course there will be some of our somewhat "mature" readers who may give us an argument on this last statement. This much is sure though, you won't get a housewife back to the scrub board again once she used a washing machine for any length of time. We hear again and again that our lady customers tell us, that the washing machine would be the last thing they would do without.

There are so many different fabrics today requiring different handling and treatment, that we suggest to buy a washer which you can set and cycle for all requirements. A washer should have a slow and a fast speed. The cycle selector should have settings for normal, gentle, knit and permanent press. Depending on the requirements of the fabric, there also should be a cold and a warm respectively hot rinse cycle.

The Whirlpool washers which we feature have an agitator with curved blades which creates a much more vigorous washing action than straight blades. Of course in order to please the eye, you can have them in colors like copper, gold, avocado and plain white.

And if there should be trouble, which may happen once in a while, we won't push you off to somebody else, because we service what we sell.

Ask Money Data For Clean Water

Nearly 500 New Jersey municipalities and sewerage authorities are being urged by the state Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) to complete "survey of needs" questionnaires to determine estimated total future costs of financing water pollution control facilities.

Commissioner David J. Bardin said DEP's Bureau of Water Pollution Control is currently involved in committing $421 million in major wastewater treatment facilities for fiscal 1974-75 and is now faced with gathering updated data to show total pollution abatement needs throughout the state including such newly required information as estimated costs of new storm drainage systems.

"The purpose of the survey," said Bardin, "is to provide the Congress with sufficient information and documentation on total water pollution control needs for fiscal 1975. All of the states are carrying out the same survey and it is most important for our municipalities to realize that a prompt and accurate assessment must be made if New Jersey is to receive its fair and equitable share of federal construction grant funds."

Shirley MacLaine Set For Arts Center Date

The versatile Shirley MacLaine, who plays comedy, drama and singing-and-dancing roles with equal success, will display her stage talents at the Garden State Arts Center on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 5, 6 and 7.

Her three-night engagement was announced today by Commissioner Sylvester C. Smith, Jr. of the New Jersey Highway Authority, which operates the Arts Center on the Garden State Parkway. He noted that Shirley's performances will be among the non-subscription attractions and will ring down the curtain on the regular 1974 season of top-flight professional night-time shows.

When Shirley steps out on the stage of the big amphitheater on September 5, it will mark her debut there, but she hardly is a stranger to live audiences and the excitement of song-and-dance entertainment. While she is perhaps best known for her Academy Award-nominated roles in "Some Came Running" and "The Apartment," plus varied other dramatic and comedy parts on film, it was her performances on Broadway that led her to the flickers in the first place.

Shirley was in the chorus of "Pajama Game" and was understudy to Carol Haney, the star, when Carol fractured an ankle, and Ms. MacLaine stepped into her role — and into the spotlight with a smashing performance. Film producer Hal Wallis saw her and signed her to a long-term contract. When Ms. Haney returned to resume her starring role, Shirley left the show for what turned out to be a brilliant movie career.

The Shirley MacLaine show at the Arts Center will begin at 8:30 P.M. on September 5 and at 9 o'clock the next two nights.

The Arts Center's seventh season will open formally on Wednesday night, June 26, with a concert by the National Symphony with James DePriest conducting and Christopher Parkening, one of the world's great classical guitarists, guest soloist. The program will feature Debussy's "Prelude to Afternoon of a Faun," Rodrigo's "Concierto de Aranjuez" and Berlioz's "Symphonie Fantastique."

The National Symphony's performance, which will lead off the classical subscription series, will be followed by a three-night non-subscription engagement by singer Vikki Carr and comedian Norm Crosby. The Carr-Crosby program is billed for 8:30 p.m. Thursday, June 27, and 9 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, June 28 and 29.

In addition to the June 26 concert, the other events on the classical subscription schedule are: July 17, National Symphony, with Murray Sidlin conductor; July 24, the Moiseyev Dance Company; August 14, American Ballet Theatre; and September 4, Pittsburgh Symphony, with William Steinberg conducting. There will be non-subscription events by the Moiseyev group on July 22, 23, 25, 26 and 27, with both matinee and night programs on the 27th, and by the American Ballet Theatre on August 12 and 13.

Non-subscription attractions on the popular side include: James Taylor on July 15 and 16; Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass on July 18 and 19; Gladys Knight and the Pips on July 20, and 21; Melanie on July 28; and Tony Orlando and Dawn on September 3.

For ticket information, write to the Garden State Arts Center, P.O. Box 116, Holmdel, N.J. 07733, or call (201) 264-9200.

Celtic Acts Set At Irish Festival

Outstanding performers from both sides of the Atlantic Ocean will blend the traditional and contemporary worlds of Celtic entertainment in the fourth annual Irish Festival at the Garden State Arts Center on Sunday, June 30, General Chairman John J. Giblin said today. And they will do it "in a way that is sure to warm the heart and move the spirit," he added as he announced the following array of talent for the afternoon program:

Mary O'Dowd, lovely singing star whose wide range of Irish folk and popular numbers is captivating audiences at the Irish Pavilion in New York, with Oliver Egan on the lead guitar.

Michael "Jesse" Owens, Dublin-born balladeer, guitarist and humorist who is one of the most popular singers of Irish tunes in the United States and Ireland, with James Keane, the only musician to thrive in the coveted all-Ireland championship on the chromatic accordion.

Paddy Noonan and his Showband from County Cork, featuring singers Martin Elynn from County Kilkenny and Mary McGonigle from County Mayo and drummer Johnny Hanley.

The Casterbridge Union, known in Ireland as the inventors of Celtic Rock, a dramatic new sound which combines rock with traditional Irish ballads.

Harpists Deirdre Danaher, winner of the all-Ireland championship in Irish harp for 1972 and 1973, and Peggy Dolan, a member of the Taulson Harp Ensemble.

Television's popular Jack McCarthy will serve as master of ceremonies and there will be step dancing by the Peter Smith Champion Irish Step Dancers and the Friel School of Irish Step Dancing.

In addition, Chairman Giblin said, Apollo 15 astronaut James B. Irwin, who took shamrocks to the moon in honor of his Irish father, will make a special guest appearance, and a mass for Zece in Northern Ireland will be celebrated by the Most Reverend Peter L. Gerety, Archbishop designate of the Newark Diocese, and priests representing every other diocese in New Jersey.

The mass will be held on the Arts Center stage at noon instead of on the mall, where masses were held in conjunction with the prior Irish Festivals.

The national anthems will be sung by John J. Murphy of Middletown.

The day of festivity will begin at 10:30 a.m. with an Irish pipe band competition on the mall. The contestants will be the Friendly Sons of the Shillelagh Pipe Band of Old Bridge, the Iris Fada Gaelic Pipe Band of New Hyde Park, N.Y., the Saffron Kilts Pipe Band of West Islip, N.Y., the Transit Police Emerald Society Irish Warpipe Bank of Brooklyn, the Tyone Pipe Band of the Bronx, and the St. Columille United Gaelic Pipe Band of Kearny.

The festival will be for the benefit of the Garden State Arts Center Cultural Fund, which underwrites free entertainment for New Jersey senior citizens, school children, summer youth, disabled veterans, orphan, and the blind. The fund is administered by the New Jersey Highway Authority, which operates the Arts Center of the Garden State Parkway.

NOTICE OF PENDING ORDINANCE

The Bond Ordinance published herewith was introduced and passed upon first reading at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Nutley, in the County of Essex, New Jersey, held on Monday, June 3, 1974. It will be further considered for final passage after public hearing thereon, at a meeting of said Board of Commissioners to be held in the Commission Chamber, third floor, Town Hall, Kennedy Drive, Nutley, N.J., on July 2, 1974 at 8:30 o'clock P.M., prevailing time; and during the week prior to and up to and including the date of such meeting, copies of said ordinance will be made available at the Clerk's Office in this Town Hall to members of the general public who shall request the same.

Eunice P. Drake,
Town Clerk
BOND ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE RESURFACING AND GENERAL IMPROVEMENTS AND MUNICIPAL PARKING LOT #1 IN AND BY THE TOWN OF NUTLEY, IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX, NEW JERSEY, APPROPRIATING $30,000, THEREFOR AND AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF $28,500 BONDS OR NOTES OF THE TOWN FOR FINANCING SUCH APPROPRIATION.

THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF NUTLEY, IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX, NEW JERSEY (not less than two-thirds of all members thereof affirmatively concurring), DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. The improvement described in Section 3 of this Bond Ordinance is hereby authorized as a general improvement to be made or acquired by the Town of Nutley, in the County of Essex, New Jersey. For the said improvement or purpose stated in said Section 3, there is hereby appropriated the sum of $30,000, said sum being inclusive of all appropriations heretofore made therefor and including the sum of $1500, as the down payment for said improvement or purpose required by law and now available therefor by virtue of provision in a budget or budgets of the Town previously adopted.

SECTION 2. For the financing of said improvement or purpose and to meet the part of said $30,000, appropriation not met by said down payment, negotiable bonds of the Town, each to be known as "Improvement Bond" are hereby authorized to be issued in the principal amount of $28,500, pursuant to the Local Bond Law of the State of New Jersey constituting sections 40A:2-1 to 40A:2-6 of the New Jersey Statutes. In anticipation of the issuance of said bonds and to temporarily finance said improvement or purpose, negotiable notes of the Town in a principal amount not exceeding $28,500, are hereby authorized to be issued pursuant to and within the limitations prescribed by said Law.

SECTION 3. (a) The improvement hereby authorized and the purpose for the financing of which said obligations are to be issued is the resurfacing and general improvement necessary for Municipal Parking Lot #1 in and by the Town of Nutley, in the County of Essex, New Jersey, and the construction therein of a new bituminous concrete surface constituting a flexible pavement of Class "B" as defined or referred to in Section 40A:2-22 of said local Bond Law together with all work or materials necessary for or incidental to said improvement and all in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared therefor and on file in the office of the Town Clerk and hereby approved.

(b) The estimated maximum amount of bonds or notes to be issued for said purpose is $28,500.

(c) The estimated cost of said purpose is $30,000.

SECTION 4. The following matters are hereby determined, declared, recited and stated:

(a) The said purpose described in Section 3 of this Bond Ordinance is not a current expense and is a property or improvement which the Town may lawfully acquire or make as a general improvement and no part of the cost thereof shall be specially assessed on property specially benefited thereby.

(b) The period of usefulness of said Local Bond Law and according to the reasonable life thereof, computed from the date of said Bonds authorized by this Ordinance, is ten (10) years.

(c) The supplemental debt statement required by said Law has been duly made and filed in the office of the Town Clerk and a complete executed original thereof has been filed in the office of the Director of the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs of the State of New Jersey, and such statement shows that the gross debt of the Town as defined in said Law is increased by authorization of the said obligations provided for by this Bond Ordinance by $28,500, and that said obligations authorized by this Bond Ordinance will be within all debt limitations prescribed by said Law.

(d) The aggregate amount of not exceeding $500, for items of expense permitted under section 40A:2-20 of said Law, has been included as part of the estimated cost of advertising and engineering or purpose as described in Section 3 of this Bond Ordinance.

SECTION 5. The full faith and credit of the Town is hereby pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on the said obligations authorized by this Bond Ordinance.

Said obligations shall be direct, unlimited obligations of the Town, and the Town shall be obligated to levy ad valorem taxes upon all the taxable property within the Town for the payment of said obligations and interest thereon without limitation of rate or amount.

SECTION 6. This Bond Ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after the first publication thereof after final passage as provided by said Local Bond Law.

Important Zoning Decisions May Affect Jersey's Look

New Jersey may be entering "a new framework" with respect to planning, zoning and general land-use as the result of four court decisions rendered or pending.

In the opinion of Charles K. Agle of Princeton, an architect and community planning consultant, these rulings may form the basis for improvement in human ecology and the character of municipalities at a time when the state needs them most.

Agle made his statement as a prelude to the statewide observance of Architects Week, June 4-10.

On one hand, the United States Supreme Court recently reaffirmed and broadened prior decisions establishing the authority of municipalities to regulate land use.

On the other hand, three New Jersey cases now pending must soon be decided. One involving Mount Laurel, now before the State Supreme Court, centers on specifications dealing with multiple housing, which must be defined. In a Madison Township case also before the high court the question of intensity of development is at issue.

A case involving Bedminster, the first in the state based on the ability of land to support population, is now before lower courts.

If the decisions favor supporters of saner land use, Agle said, local planning and zoning boards would have the tools and discretion to implement three major concepts.

One is the "open-space cluster," under which building lots in a neighborhood would be slightly smaller than they are now, with the saved land collected into a parcel of usable open space.

Another would be planned residential neighborhoods incorporating a balance of housing types and open space, as against housing "projects," and the third would be density-controlled by a "floor-area ratio."

"It would be helpful to have a pattern of different densities laid out on a statewide basis," Agle said, "so that each municipality would be less threatened by its neighbors."

All three need to be taken into consideration when future ordinances are drawn, Agle said. In fact, the state's 567 municipalities should incorporate these principles in reconstituting themselves as village structures "with bicycle dimensions."

By this, Agle said, he meant that housing and services should be within walking or bicycling distances. The state's cities might well be reconstructed along the lines of a number of villages together, each with lower density than at present.

More than most states, Agle continued, New Jersey has seen a massive dislocation of natural resources, and developments of inferior quality, mainly because of the real-estate tax burden and resulting local chaos. The Legislature now has this under consideration as the result of an order from the N.J. Supreme Court.

New Jersey is also behind other states, he said, with respect to an agency such as a Land Use Commission to work out guidelines for local boards and to clarify conflicting statutes.

Agle said a revision of present statutes to provide for such a commission found favor with the past state administration and that the proposal may be reintroduced in the present administration.

The state needs, with through legislation or the courts, Agle declared, swift attention to the changing family requirements of its population, since the demographic picture with respect to housing types is changing.

With a lower birth rate and longer life span, with family and marriage patterns undergoing change, housing requirements are altering, and with them other community and environmental needs that affect the geographic planning patterns throughout the state.

The architect's role in all this, Agle said, must not be underestimated. In his view, professional planners should also be architects, or at least experts in "intensity of structure." Architects ought also be considered not merely designers of buildings, but of environment, and their services as such should be involved in the municipal structure on a permanent basis.

Large Battle Map Shows State's Revolutionary Role

The publication of a detailed map showing "Battles and Skirmishes of the American Revolution in New Jersey" was announced today by David J. Bardin, commissioner of the state Department of Environmental Protection (DEP).

Commissioner Bardin said, "The map will prove a valuable resource tool for historians and teachers and provide hours of enjoyment for Revolutionary War buffs and armchair generals."

Dr. Kemble Widmer, state geologist and chief of DEP's Bureau of Geology and Topography, said the map shows the date and place of more than 800 battles and skirmishes which occurred in New Jersey or surrounding waters during the years of the American War for Independence, as compiled by David Munn of the State Library from the state archives. Dr. Widmer said the changes in coastline were reconstructed from the changes shown in the older maps in the bureau's files which go back more than 100 years.

(Governor Brendan T. Byrne was presented the first copy of the map at a ceremony marking National Historic Preservation Week, May 6-12.)

This Week's Horoscope
(June 15 through June 21)

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Emotions run rampant in week ahead, Ari. Remembrance of things past can put you into an emotional bind. If you feel the urge to cry, go ahead. He who cannot cry is a barbarian. After the tears will come the giggles. You'll see.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Hoopla week ahead, Taurus. Impudent individual makes scene and offers ideas of questionable nature. Temptation will be strong to go along. Don't. Instead, ask questions and demand answers. Advice: Hang on to your cash, your sense of humor and your sanity.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Like an empty cup, Gem, you wait patiently to be filled. Individual appears who is willing to do just this. Be a bit fussy, Gem, or your cup will be apt to run over, and another mess you simply do NOT need, you know.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Feel all flattened out, Moonbaby? Well, take heart, for week ahead will be a bit more tame. Not dull, mind you, just tame. Message from dear one gives your spirits a boost. Career advancement can be made, but not if you spend too much time resting on your rump. Now, MOVE IT!

LEO (July 23-August 22): Now see here, Leo, you simply must stop being so bossy. Associates are well aware that you are King of the Jungle, so you can afford to lower your voice. Royalty needn't shout, you know. It's beneath you. It just isn't done.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): You are ruled by the planet Mercury, Virg, and you are just as quick and changeable. Your mercurial temperament could get you into a whole mess of trouble in week ahead. Loved one involved. Keep your word, your temper and your cool.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): You have a great desire to please, Libra, and this is one of your outstanding qualities. In days ahead, lavish your time and affection on one who waits patiently in the shadows. This person will respond like a thirsty flower to summer rain.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): S is for Scorp. It is also for Sex. In week ahead, you send out strong signals. Perhaps you would be wise to carry a 2x4 to fend off unwanted admirers. Whew! Now THAT should hold you.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Though you are an untiring worker, Sai, you do hate to take orders. In week coming up you may get chance to run the show. The WHOLE show. Seize the opportunity. Others will cooperate if you use your famous charm. Week tramps to an interesting close.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Sai may be the one to get the hotshot ideas, but it is you, Cap, who can tell if they are worth two cents in the marketplace. In week ahead, be most cautious concerning buying and selling. Get on the horn and call Taurus pal for advice.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): You are charming, you are exciting and you are often totally unpredictable, Aquari. This is because your makeup is more complex than others. In week ahead, you must be on guard lest you zig when you should zag. Message clears. Week ends on enigmatic note.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Your symbol of the two fishes swimming in opposite directions denotes opposite forces within you, positive and negative. You and Gem are the two paradoxical signs. In days ahead, you feel these two forces pulling unusually hard. Hang in the shallows where you feel secure until time is more favorable for you to take chances with unknown currents. Olga will tell you when.

Unity Films Give Travel Previews

Where would you like to go and what country would you like to see? From Hungary to Hawaii, from Alaska to New Guinea; it's all possible with the 1974-75 Unity Travel Course held on Thursday evenings at 8:15 p.m. at the Montclair High School, unless otherwise noted. Ten color films narrated in person by the photographer will cover places you long to see or renew memories of yesterday excursions.

"Lond to Venice" will bring Thayer-Soule back to Montclair with new angles for familiar sights and intriguing side-lights of Lake Como, Paris, Chamonix, and Mt. Blanc of September 19.

"Philippines to New Guinea", with Manila a world gateway where East meets West, and the sheer excitement of shooting the rapids of Pagsanjan Falls is next on October 10, by William Moore. A contrast of the stone-age culture and conversation to the 20th century world will be shown in the New Guinea sequence.

"Hong Kong", called "the Berlin of Asia", located as it is in the shadow of Red China, combines Christianity and Buddhism in a setting of modern skyscrapers and teeming open marketplaces. This exotic city will be visited Sunday, October 20, at 3:30 p.m. with Willis Butler.

"Alaska" by Nicol Smith on Sunday, November 17, at 3:30 p.m. shows the difference in topography of the six areas of Alaska, a view of the challenging 1,000 mile dog sled race, and life among the King Island Eskimos.

"Hungary" opens the new year with Sherilyn Menten on Sunday, January 19, at 3:30 p.m. Beautiful villages, lake resorts, and a Parade of lowers will remind us of the warmth of spring.

NJEA Supports Tax Plan

The New Jersey Education Association's Delegate Assembly has given qualified support to the general concepts of school finance and tax reform proposed last month by Gov. Brendan T. Byrne.

As the elected policy-making body of the NJEA's 78,000 members, the Delegate Assembly expressed support for the Governor's plan, or equivalent proposals, subject to several considerations.

These considerations, as outlined in an NJEA School Finance Committee report, are not spelled out in the Governor's general outline, but many are expected to be covered in proposed legislation now being drafted by the Governor's office.

NJEA officers and staff will continue to work with the Governor's office, the Legislature, the State Department of Education, and all other cooperating agencies and organizations in attempting to secure passage of an adequate school finance and tax reform program that embodies principles set by the Association.

The NJEA has been on record for a number of years as supporting "either a general sales tax (with food and drugs exempt) or a personal income tax, or a combination of both, or such other taxes as may produce the amount required" to provide increased State support for public education.

The Legislature reconvenes today to hear specific proposals on school finance and taxation. The Legislators must complete their work by July 12 if any reform proposals that involve constitutional amendments (for classifying property taxes, for limiting future property tax increases, etc.) are to go on the November referendum.

NJEA believes the process must be completed by the end of the year to meet the deadlines imposed by the State Supreme Court in its decision overturning the present New Jersey system of funding public education.

"What is clearly needed — and what is clearly in keeping with NJEA's past traditions of supporting full, adequate State equalization aid for the benefit of all school districts — is not a floundering in the Legislature and a drift into a Court-imposed solution," says the NJEA School Finance Committee report to the Delegate Assembly.

"Instead, New Jersey needs an extensive program of school finance reform — one that guarantees equity to the neediest school systems without damaging the gains already made by some of our best. New Jersey needs to meet the Court mandate for guaranteeing a 'thorough and efficient' system of education for all children without taking away opportunities many children already have," continues the report.

The NJEA Delegate Assembly appeared to be expressing "cautious optimism" with the Governor's proposals. One member cited the plan as "infinitely better than what we have now, but we must reserve final judgment until the actual bills are introduced."

The Governor is recommending an increase in State aid to public schools of approximately $550 million for the fiscal year 1975-76. The State would guarantee every child equal fiscal resources, regardless of the school district. His State aid plan, basically a "shared cost" or "percentage equalized matching" formula, would guarantee tax resources equivalent to twice the average equalized valuation per pupil (which is now estimated at $53,000).

The plan allows the State in future years to provide additional money for districts that now offer less than a "thorough and efficient" system of education. It would also allow higher spending districts to increase spending for their schools, but at a lower rate, so that eventually the discrepancies in per pupil spending from district to district are "narrowed" and become more equitable for all pupils. The plan, however, permits the leveling in an upward direction, rather than downward.

In addition, the Governor's plan promises state assumption of many of the costs now paid by counties and municipalities with local property taxes.
