Local Children Sell Their Toys To Help a Young Burn Victim

HELPING OUT — This was the scene on Bridge Street last Friday as neighborhood youngsters put together a yard sale to help raise funds for the family of George Mantore, a badly-injured Livingston boy now at a Cincinnati hospital.

None of the children who donated their toys and their time last Friday to a yard sale for the George Mantore Fund ever met young George, the 10-year-old Livingston boy who lies in a Shriners Burn Institute bed in Cincinnati. But they knew what it would mean to George to have his family with him while he undergoes skin grafts for burns he suffered over 85 percent of his body while playing with gasoline last month.

Last Friday, the kids, along with members of Cub Scout Den One, Pack 377, put together a collection of books, toys, and games in the yard of Mrs. James Whelan, 89 Bridge Street, and proceeded to raise $100 for the fund which financed the trip by Mr. and Mrs. Mantore to the Cincinnati hospital. Refreshments were served and donations were taken for the Livingston-based fund, which has collected over $12,000 for the Mantores, who will have to pay for continuing medical expenses for George when he reaches age 17.

Among the children who worked on the project, which was conceived by Mrs. Whelan, were her children, Patrick and Susan Whelan, Kathleen, Maureen and Tommy Morris, Michael Morris, Steven Ford, Alex Romanoff, John Burke, Charles Murphy, Michael McGreevy and Allen Encke.

A spokesman for the George Mantore Fund said donations will be used to cover the bills for the Cincinnati visits, and for any other needed medical costs.

So Are Tenant Gripes

Rent Ceiling Relief Applications Lighter Than Were Expected

Belleville's rent control panel, which celebrates its third month of activity tomorrow, counts a lack of activity as the only surprising feature encountered in its first three meetings.

According to chairman Edward Mahler, the caseload faced by the panel is much lighter than the five members had expected, with nearly all of the applications for appeal by landlords from the five percent rent hike limit being processed without hearings being called.

So far, reported Mahler, the board has granted two applications for relief from the five percent ceiling, on the basis of rising heating costs and increased property taxes cited by the respective landlords. A third landlord will appear before the board to explain inconsistencies in figures used in his application for relief. And a fourth landlord, reported by five of his tenants to be in violation of the rent code enacted in April, undoubtedly will have to appear for a hearing.

Those five complaining tenants were among only 13 who have submitted written complaints to the board on unfair increases. Other landlords, who are seemingly in violation, have been requested by the rent board to submit a written application detailing their increases and the reasons for them, to the board for approval.

The rent ordinance passed by the Commission states that any intended increase over five percent in one year by a Belleville landlord for a dwelling in a building of three or more units must be approved by the rent board.

The law says the landlord must formally apply to the board and post notices for all affected tenants.

The notice to tenants is very important, since complaints from tenants are the only means the rent board made up of volunteer citizens can effectively use to oversee landlord activity here. Unless a tenant is willing to complain, in writing, to the board, the panel is not likely to be able to protect tenant interests, Mahler says the board in particularly careful to protect the identities of tenants from inquiring landlords.

So far, he said, only 13 "legitimate" complaints have come in from tenants — that is, complaints dealing only with excess rent increases. Some tenants have asked about inadequate living conditions, and related matters; they are referred to the proper enforcement agencies in town, since the rent panel is empowered to deal only with rent increases.

Mahler is at a loss to explain the surprisingly low number of official complaints, or applications for appeal by landlords. He says that many leases expire and are renewed in fall or spring, before and after the heating season, and applications may pick up then. But he agrees there may be landlords who are not filing for applications for increases above five percent and not duly posting the increases. "We may not know about such landlords, who would be in violation of the ordinance," said Mahler, "and in these cases, it's up to the tenants to notify us. We simply don't have the manpower to check every landlord in Belleville."

Under the terms of the ordinance, which took effect April 19, a landlord may increase rents only once every twelve months, and must notify leased tenants of the increase 90 days prior to the expiration of the lease. Month-to-month tenants must be notified 60 days in advance of any increase.

Landlords can freely raise rents up to five percent each year without notifying the rent board. Any increase over five percent must be requested through application to the board, with special reasons for the request, such as a rise in expenses, listed in figures. No rent increase above 15 percent can be granted in any circumstance, under the terms of the ordinance.

While many complaints are handled by telephone, most others are processed by the board in committee. Hearings, no far, have not been called often, but under the terms of the ordinance, "the Rent Levelling Board shall give reasonable opportunity to be heard to both landlord and tenant before making any determination."

Imperiale Negative Cali, Aduvato Support Income Tax Proposal

Thirtieth District Assemblymen John F. Cali and Michael F. Aduvato were among the 41 Democrats who passed Governor Brendan Byrne's controversial state income tax proposal over the dissent of 38 Republicans and Democrats Monday.

Neither Cali nor Aduvato, elected to the Assembly last November when Byrne swept to victory, could be reached for comment Tuesday when the Times went to press. Cali returned no messages left by the Times, and no one answered the telephone at Aduvato's Belleville office.

State Senator Anthony Imperiale (Ind., 30th District), has come out solidly against the Byrne tax plan, categorizing it Monday as "a fraud and a lie," as he promised to fight the income tax proposal when it comes to a debate on the Senate floor, probably next Monday. Speaking to a meeting of the West Hudson-Essex Democratic Party, Byrne accused the governor of "twisting arms" and "making deals" in order to gain passage of the plan in the Assembly.

Belleville Mayor Joseph McGreevy was also sharply critical of a report that Byrne promised Jersey City Mayor Paul T. Jordan the state would assume payment of 72 percent of Jersey City's bonded indebtedness. Hudson County Assemblyman Christopher Jackman had said he was persuaded to change his vote to support the tax package, because of "the amount of money coming into Hudson County."

"Who is Jersey City to get their debts paid off," said McGreevy, mindful of the fact that Belleville had paid off the last of its bonded indebtedness last year without state aid.

McGreevy has led the fight of Belleville officials against the tax, sponsoring a resolution condemning the plan last week at a Commission meeting. All five Commission members, including Town Democratic Chairman Mary Y. Senatore joined in passing the resolution unanimously. McGreevy said he had received 70-80 calls from Belleville residents complaining about the proposed income tax, and none supporting the plan.

McGreevy said Tuesday, "Belleville until today had received no information on the plan." He added he finally was able to get through to a spokesman in the Community Affairs Department.

The Newark Star-Ledger had published on Monday a letter from State Treasurer Richard C. Leone, defending the state income tax against Mayor McGreevy's criticism. Leone said a general property cut tax in Belleville under the new plan would amount to 30 percent, from $6.27 per $100 of assessed valuation to $4.42.

"Thus," wrote Leone, "a Belleville resident with a $9,000 income living in a $20,000 house would have his property tax reduced from $1,254 to $884, and because he would qualify for the circuit breaker, he would pay no income tax. He would pay a total of $657 less in taxes than he pays today."

Train Wreck Probe Delayed Due to Injury

The investigation of a two-train collision on an Erie Lackawanna line in Belleville last week has been delayed by union request, an Erie spokesman said this week.

The request, honored by Erie investigators as a matter of routine, reportedly asked the probe to be held up until an injured crew member was released from Clara Maass Hospital. The crewman, fireman Joseph Accardi, 22, of Irvington, was released Tuesday. The investigation is expected to continue this week.

Observing the closed hearings will be an official from the Public Utility Commission (PUC) which will check out the findings of the Erie Lackawanna probe, and depending on the results of that investigation, may hold its own hearings.

Erie is investigating the head-on crash of two trains carrying over 300 commuters on a single track in Belleville near Franklin Avenue and Mill Street. Thirty-five were injured, with two crew members detained for treatment overnight at Clara Maass. The engineer of one train, Arthur Scott, 50, was released on Tuesday, the day after the crash.

At the scene of the accident, George Eastland, manager of Public Affairs for Erie Lackawanna said the collision was caused by "confusion over the interpretation

"A $13,000 a year Belleville resident in a $30,000 home would achieve a total tax cut of $823."

The "circuit breaker" is a facet of the plan which provides that no taxpayer can pay taxes amounting to over seven percent of his income.

McGreevy, who said he might support an income tax if it was followed by "a substantial reduction in property taxes," added that "from the information I've received so far I can't buy this tax."

Commissioner Senatore, who campaigned strongly for Byrne's election last November, said she had spoken to over 150 senior citizens who were overwhelmingly opposed to the income tax. Mrs. Senatore herself said she is wary of what the plan would cost senior citizens living on fixed incomes and owning property.

Senator Imperiale, responding to administration claims the plan will bring relief from rising property taxes, said, "I have always stood firm for the property owners of my election district and throughout the state. I will continue to seek any sensible relief for them. However, I will not camouflage the real effects of a state income tax by making people believe they will be totally relieved of their property tax payment responsibility."

of a schedule" which was to route the two trains over the track at separate times. While there are two tracks on the line, a three-mile length of one was closed while repairs were made to a bridge in Bloomfield. Instructions for passage were supposed to have been given by telephone to each of the crews from the railway's dispatch office in Hoboken.

Railway investigators will seek to determine what went wrong during communications between the crew and the dispatcher. A west-bound train from Hoboken to Dover carrying two passengers and four crew members collided with an eastbound train from Lincoln Park to Hoboken carrying 301 passengers and four crewmen.

Merchants Plan Marathon Sale

Local merchants are joining or the annual "marathon sale" planned for next Thursday and Friday, July 25 and 26 by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce. Fifteen solid hours of bargains are in the works.

According to Stanley Sflavin, president of the Chamber of Commerce, the sale, running for the third year, will be divided into two parts. The first, called "Moonlight Madness," will run from 6 to 10 p.m. Thursday night. Friday will see "Daylight Madness" from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Stores currently participating in preparations for the sale include Belleville Shoes, Louaire's Men's Shop, Meade Ford, Jolly Interiors, Joseph's Men's Shop, Mac

Mon, National Shoes, Terry Shops, Sherman's Children's Wear, Cami Boutique and Camton Shoes. All are located on Washington Avenue.

Slavin said, "The sale has proven to be popular in the past because it gives working people a chance to shop and night, while Friday is an opportunity for family shopping."

"It's a chance to buy vacation needs at reduced prices," he added.

Washington Avenue stores normally close at 6 p.m. on Thursday night. After 6 p.m. on Thursday, parking on all streets will be free.

Besides the stores listed above, other establishments are expected to join the "Marathon Sale" in the coming week.

Food Stamp Campaign Set By The State

An estimated 125,000 to 150,000 low-income New Jersey families may be eligible for help in feeding their families through the use of Food Stamps, but are not yet enrolled in the Food Stamp program.

These families are the target of a massive statewide "outreach" publicity campaign to be kicked off this week by the New Jersey Department of Institutions and Agencies, The New Jersey Food Council, cooperating supermarkets and other interested agencies and organizations.

The initial educational campaign will be followed on July 22 at 10 a.m. by a press conference in the I & A Central Office (135 W. Hanover St., Trenton) during which Governor Brendan Byrne will issue a Proclamation declaring July 22 to 28 "New Jersey Food Stamp Week."

The Governor and Institutions and Agencies Commissioner Ann Klein will answer questions about the Food Stamp program and introduce a new Food Stamp "Hot Line" telephone (800-792-8660) that will be available toll free to New Jersey citizens from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday.

A team of six specially trained persons will answer "Hot Line" telephone questions about the program.

Commissioner Klein said that she hopes for a 25 percent increase in Food Stamp use in New Jersey, which would bring an estimated $20 million of additional federal funds into the economy of the state.

She said that families in New Jersey who presently use Food Stamps spend over $175 million a year for food, of which approximately $80 million is paid by the federal government in the form of "food stamp bonuses" — the difference between the amount a family pays for Food Stamps and the face value of the Food Stamp.

"Most of the federal funds, about $55 million, go to public assistance recipients," Mrs. Klein said. "We hope to attract thousands of senior citizens and members of working households who are eligible for Food Stamps, but do not now take advantage of this opportunity to improve their nutrition and save money at the same time."

The Commissioner also revealed that federal Office of Economic Opportunity funding of $85,000 had been granted to the Department for the hiring and training of 34 new outreach certifiers — people who will assist in qualifying Food Stamp applicants.

In addition to a task force assigned to the office of Deputy Commissioner Alan Gibbs, numerous other interested groups and organizations have been assisting in the preparation of the Food Stamp Outreach campaign.

Among these are the County Welfare Boards, the New Jersey Food Council, the Office of Economic Opportunity, the New Jersey Association of CAP Directors, the National Child Nutrition Project and the Office on Aging of the Department of Community Affairs. Food chain supermarkets around the state are also distributing flyers prepared by the Department and offering assistance to Food Stamp users on check-outlines.

Stressing that persons eligible for Food Stamps do not have to be on welfare or unemployed, Commissioner Klein estimated that the average family can save from 25 percent to 50 percent on their groceries by taking advantage of their right to buy and use the stamps. Nearly every New Jersey food store is licensed to take the stamps, which can be purchased at many banks in the state.

People who want more information about Food Stamps may call the new "Hot Line" number or their home county Administration Building.

(write me at 104 Overlook Ave or phone 751-6861 after 6 p.m.)

I'm forever having it proved to me that the world is, indeed, a small place. On July 4th, my daughter had her packetbook stolen while attending the fireworks at BHS. A few days later a woman phoned. She found the packetbook and wanted to return it to us. I thought this was great and wanted to give some sort of reward but the woman refused. In talking further, she said: "I think I know you"... sure enough, I had met the family about five years ago when I did a story on their daughter. My heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Connie LaTorre of North Newark.

Annette and Richard Luzzi, the husband and wife team who operate "Richard's Clothes Line" - where gals in the know go for fashions, has come up with something new - they give parties at homes of individuals - bringing their line of boutique wonders. You're familiar with this type of thing, a gal invites her friends over, has coffee/cake and you have the opportunity of relaxing and buying your clothes at the same time. Each hostess receives a little gift, of course. So, if you want a party, phone Annette or Richard after 4 p.m. at 759-1533. Annette's sister, Karen Cieffi (both are BHS graduates) opened her own pool company, "Karen's Pools" in Wayne... much luck to you... swimming, anyone? The girls are daughters of Mildred Cieffi of Nutley. This fall, Richard will coach the Belleville Broncos.

Remember my Sparkling Personality, Barbara Welter?...well, the busy blonde is always running around helping others, now she is in the hospital for a bit. Do get well soon, bade, and howabout some get well cards to her at Columbus Hospital, 13th Avenue, Newark...room 306.

Happy birthday to my sister Evelyn Durkin of Nutley who was feted by her family at a poolside party "at home" this week. My mom was there - Doris Murphy, my sister Lorraine Clark, brother Bill and his wife Mary Hoyt Murphy with one of their daughters, Melissa and Eve's son Frank, with his wife Carol and their two daughters. Eve and her husband Durk, are members of American Legion Post 70.

Wanna' get away from it all? The Essex County Park Commission is sponsoring two events - check the Bulletin Board for time and place - one is a walk through Mills Reservation, the other a canoe trip.

Heard from the Belleville Senior Citizens Club who agreed there was not much dozing in July... I'm told even the stork was lazy... but here are some birthday members: Tommy Basso (who is the group's chief cook and coffee server), Janet Daly, Joseph DeFabbio, George Fischer, Mrs. Evelyn Hollowell, Marion Jordan, Edna M. Lindstrom, Josephine Malizia, Mrs. Celia Paul, Mary Rapuano (hear you make a nice cocktail, Mary), Mrs. Bertha Reiman, Katie Scoppettuolo, Anna Shimansky, Theresa Speciale, Daniel Tribuna, Ernest Walton (you've been missed at the meetings), Sophie Zalewski and last, but not least, Mrs. Mary Zurlo. The Club also boasts of two golden wedding anniversaries this month - congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zimmer and Mr. Mrs. Frank Wolenski. Mary and Frank celebrated with a trip to the New England states.

And, what's new with Evelyn and Steve Frank - those people who operate "Gateway to Pleasure" - music and entertainment for all? John Gilbert of town will be finished playing at The Cove. Lake George and will appear at the Saddle Brook VFW Lounge and then do a wedding reception at the American Legion Postrooms in Clark. The Franks have another new musical group, two gals and two guys, called "Two Plus Two". Janet Bonkowski is on drums, Donna Senior lead guitar, Stan Smrz, tenor sax and Mike Yannuzzi, accordion.

And for those who are known to be hard of hearing, there are probably 5,000,000 more who are hard of hearing and will not acknowledge it. It's necessary to face the situation with courage, patience, and a wide open mind. You'll understand the world better.

Eating Chemicals

One form of "progress" Americans enjoy is that they eat more chemical additives in their food than other people. The original brainstorm is usually that of producer, packer or retailer. He adds a chemical to enable him to avoid recall of food which grows stale on shelves.

The classic example is American bread, loaded with calcium propionate so that it feels fresh a week. But, of course, it isn't fresh in the traditional sense, as is daily baked bread, still demanded by many European housewives. And though some communities and states have at last acted to require bakers, dairymen, poultrymen, etc., to clearly date their food packages, many supermarkets and producers still use codes and secret marks which prevent the customer from knowing when a product is stale.

Store personnel reply to criticism of the system by saying all old foodstuff is removed on the right day, etc. But this is not done; nothing this intricate and massive works perfectly every time.

Recent information from the Senate Select Committee on Nutrition hints nitrates and nitrites so often added to meat and fish products could be harmful. Already various colorings, certain artificial flavors and other additives have been found harmful.

No editor can offer final, expert advice to Americans on the question of bread, food or meat additives. All that can be safely said is that the wise individual will avoid as many as possible of the additives packers and producers utilize for commercial advantages — and seek pure foods and meats genuinely fresh or cured without chemical additives.

U.S. Bike Standards

The federal government has issued mandatory bike safety standards, which bicycle manufacturers will soon be required to comply with.

The sale of bikes in America is booming; (they now surpass automobile sales) and accident injuries are also booming. One estimate is that more than a million Americans are now injured in bike accidents each year.

New federal strength and safety requirements take effect January 1st. Buyers will get an instruction manual and will be asked to keep their bikes in safe operational condition.

The effort to reduce serious bike accidents is none too early; already an estimated 400,000 persons are seriously injured in bike accidents each year in this country.

Lightning

The National Safety Council has warned that few are concerned over the danger of lightning.

Yet one statistician recently determined that during the April-October lightning season, the average person can expect forty to eighty bolts within half a mile. The same statistician claims more than a third of all fires in rural areas are caused by lightning. The safest places in lightning storms are in homes, steel-framed buildings, or in an automobile with windows closed. If in the open, seek a low place, such as a ravine or ditch or lie flat on the ground.

One or more Americans are killed each week by lightning.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

A most disheartening observation of our times is the disgraceful lack of display of our Country's national emblem, The American Flag, on national holidays. June 14 was Flag Day, yet, aside from public buildings there was a very, very poor display of flying Old Glory. Outside of the Pru, P.S. and the phone company most downtown Newark banks and business buildings sported empty flag poles.

This unpardonable disrespect on Flag Day was compounded in similar manner by the paucity of resident homes which displayed our Country's colors. July 4th, the 198th anniversary of our Nation's independence, a day on which our flag should be displayed as a "must," produced a similar disappointing lack of display on the homes or grounds of most dwellings in town.

Our veteran groups should "spark" a drive to restore proper respect for flag display protocol and etiquette. True, we may be burdened by Watergate, crooked politicians and many other unsavory problems which shake the foundations of government on most all levels; Despite these harrying problems our great Nation has withstood greater crisis and forged to the top as the greatest land in our world, a place where a man may be proud to say "I am an American." With such sanctity, we should do no less than to respect and display our Country's flag for the freedoms and liberties it provides and has been preserved by those, living and dead, who have contributed in no small way to keep our Nation free and made it great so that we, here and now, may enjoy the benefits their dedicated efforts made possible. FLY THE FLAG ON NATIONAL HOLIDAYS ... SHOW YOU ARE A GOOD AMERICAN.

It would please this scribe no end should Comm. Bob Laterza assert himself more forcibly in this matter of meeting the request of Fire Chief Sbarra that his department be equipped with a new American La France pumper. Originally his budget provided for this acquisition, only to be taken out at the persuasion of Mayor McGreevy in an effort to hold down a soaring town budget a little bit. The higher the budget went up the worse the Mayor might look, since he is the Finance Director. Now confronted with emergency measures to keep the fire-fighting rolling-stock in sufficiently satisfactory working condition to meet the safety demands of a community of our size with its many industries, Comm. Laterza should determine if the needed funds are presently available to acquire this patently needed essential safety equipment. If available, by all means he should insist upon its immediate allocation to cope with the exigent demands which seem to currently exist. To do less might well endanger the safety of our residents and the security of our industries.

No matter how you try to figure it out we suburbanites become the gullible pawn in any scheme of Governor Brendon T. Byrne's effort to comply with a State Supreme Court ruling to provide a "thorough and efficient" educational system by means of adoption of a State Income Tax.

The plan being fostered by core city Mayors, like Mayor Jordan and that bunch of "deserving Democrats" from Hudson County who "put" Byrne in the Governorship race to make him a "whipping boy" to be led around by the nose, so they could get through laws that will "bleed" us in the suburbs to pay the expenses of city education at the expense of our own school systems and which could, if enacted, provide state direction over the local autonomy of our local school boards is abhorrent and MUST be averted.

A typical illustration taken from the graph of adjustable tax rates as they would apply to the average Belleville home owner shows he would have to pay much more than now, and at the risk our own school system's autonomy could be "stripped" to meet the insistent demands of the State Commissioner of Education.

Under the repugnant proposed Byrne Income tax, a local homeowner with a house assessed at $20,000 and making $12,000 a year would have to pay out about $30 a year more than now. The more his income the higher his "gift" for city education of kids, while his own get less from the state. A heliupa plan. Any state Assemblyman or Senator who votes to pass such an abominable tax should be "kicked out on his posterior. Let's hope this rotten law never gets by the boards.

YOUNG AND OLD alike enjoyed the youthful sounds of "Final Act" at a free concert for senior citizens and guests in Belleville Park last Thursday, sponsored by the Essex County Park Commission.

'Circus Atmosphere' Is Dominant At Board Meeting, Says 'Times'

by Peter Clark
One Year Ago

The Democratic Candidacy of Harrison Tax Assessor Gregory Castano for State Senator from the 30th district was upheld by Superior Court Judge Fulop, Commissioner Mary Senatore and contested the primary elections which had awarded Castano his place on the Democratic ticket.

The route of a traveling troubadour, O.T. Zappo, included a stop in Belleville, as he planned to pause to entertain the kiddies with jokes, songs and puppet shows. His program would include a blend of original and contemporary songs, live and recorded tunes, audience participation and audiovisual effects. An experienced child entertainer, he evokes audience participation through many devices, including a dancing sign.

Five Years Ago

Acting Mayor Joseph McGreevy, presiding over his second Commission meeting, found himself playing "ringmaster and Ann Landers" as over 80 noisy residents crowded the Commission room to protest voice grievances and to back a rezoning ordinance, according to an article in the Times.

Amid all of the confusion, an ordinance was passed on first reading which would rezone a section of the Silver Lake area of Belleville, from business to residential C. The first "act," held in "ring one," began at about 8:15, when Getty Oil Company applied for a permit to reconstruct an old Esso service station at 310 Belleville Avenue. About 40 residents from the area were on hand to question the architects, the future owners, each other and the stars in their courses.

The action shifted briefly to the "center ring," as an ordinance to rezone a section of Heckel Street was introduced. Commissioner William Cullen, reminded the Commission that the residents of the area, which had so stenuously opposed this plan before when he had proposed it, were now just as violently in favor of it, although they were still against the master plan as a whole.

A spotlight caught Mary Senatore, as she drew applause for her statement that the residents had been misled concerning the master plan. In what way and by whom she did not mention. Back in the "center ring," Cullen reminded Commissioner Senatore that the residents had been shown large, clearly defined maps of the proposed rezoning. Action finally shifted to the "third ring," as residents of the Heckel Street area blasted Commissioner Strumolo for his part (or non-part) in the then recent Heckel Street rat debacle. The already excited residents then turned their guns on acting

Mayor McGreevy, complaining that the "Silver Lake section never gets nothing." After the circus, eh, Commission meeting, the residents were unwilling to comment to the press as to why they had changed their minds (if they had changed their minds) concerning the new master rezoning plan for Belleville.

Edmund Strat was elected president of the North Central District of the New Jersey State Elks Association, at the Elks Convention, held in Wildwood, New Jersey.

The Citizens Conference Committee on Narcotics held a meeting and selected SR Calabro permanent chairman and Hugh H. Welsh, secretary.

A police investigation into sounds of "loud partying" discovered that some person unknown had been using School Number Three on Joramelon Street for a site for a beer party.

The Belleville United Fund was conducted a drive and a series of meetings to prepare for the annual fund raising campaign. The drive was to locate new volunteers, to replace those who could not return to the organization, due to other outside commitments.

School Two was entered and basketballs were moved. They were the only items touched, and nothing was stolen.

Mrs. Edna Berhagen, Belleville Girl Scout Council president, presented a certificate of appreciation to William J. Orchard, head of the Belleville foundation, for his assistance in the fund raising drive to build a new cabin for the Scouts at South Mountain Reservation.

Fred Idenman of Winnepeg purchased the property at 37 Van Rensselaer from the Boyd estate.

Edward Norton was given a welcome home party at the home of his sister, Mrs. Michael Gorman. Among those present were Robert Anderson, Nelson Marsden, John Flynn, Frank McGraff, James Travers, Edward Lister, Frank Burke, John Sullivan, Joe Procolli, Mr. and Mrs. Louis McGregor, Mrs. A. Dunn and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. T. Gorman, Mrs. M. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Redding and Mr. and Mrs. Weston. The event, commemorating Mr. Norton's return from his journeys, was expected to be the high point of the Belleville season.

Writer Says Best Solution Is Sales Tax

To the editor:

The state income tax which the governor wants is another real lemon like all other new state taxes or programs created by the State to offset higher school taxes failed to do the job.

The burden of education is another state gimmick. The sales tax; the cigarette tax and the lottery never paid off as promised. School taxes continue to rise.

I believe the governor's program which he is desperately trying to sell to our lawmakers against the wishes of the people is very harmful and will create more serious problems while adding millions of extra tax dollars to the State vaults.

I feel a better solution instead of a state income tax which Uncle Sam will not allow as a deduction on your Federal income tax — he did not allow the tax paid to the State on cigarettes — can be found by repealing some of the laws now on the books.

The sales tax should be a city sales tax collected and kept by each city. The people will spend more in their own town since they will benefit by it. This must also include the five percent personal property tax collected by the state. Another new tax which will also benefit the schools and the taxpayers in each city is a ten dollar stamp tax to be paid by each owner of a car or truck to the city in which they reside.

I believe this method of raising more revenue is far less painful than a state income tax that will shrink the take-home pay of the worker and will only produce more inflation and strikes. I hope our lawmakers get the message: the taxpayers are willing to finance their own school taxes, not under the control of the state, with a little help from the plans mentioned here. These extra millions will be a big help in every city in the state, and will not create any more political plums, which has been the evil of some administrations under the spoils system. It is now time for our administration to listen to the people and reject the governors pipe dream.

Remember it was greed that killed the goose that laid the golden egg. It could happen to you at the polls.

Sincerely yours,

Albert Guglielmi

Knocks Demo Commissioners On Tax Stand

To the Editor:

The resolution recently adopted by the Board of Commissioners opposing Governor Byrne's tax reform plan came as no great surprise. When you consider the fact that three members of the Board are Republican and that Republican forces throughout the State are mounting a massive effort to defeat the plan, what else could be expected? What does surprise me is, if news reports are accurate and it was a unanimous vote of the Commissioners, why those members of the Board who are Democratic did not ask that a public meeting be called to discuss the pros and cons of the plan before adopting this resolution.

Tax reform in New Jersey is long overdue and I feel that Governor Byrne is demonstrating great political courage in tackling such a sensitive matter. In New Jersey we are victims of an archaic tax system which originated in Europe many years ago when the landowners were the citizens of greatest wealth. That is no longer true today, and those with the higher incomes, for the most part, do not derive it from substantial land holdings. Therefore, any tax system which derives most of its return from property taxes is grossly unfair. Any tax system should be based on the ability to pay and that is certainly not the case in New Jersey.

One great injustice that would be corrected under the Byrne plan would be that our senior citizens who are living on fixed incomes would be greatly relieved of oppressive property taxes. I'm sure many of us have had personal experience where someone close has been paying most of their meager income from Social Security and pension for property taxes. This makes absolutely no sense when those with substantial incomes are paying far less in proportion.

The forces at work to defeat this plan are powerful and are basically the same forces which represent special interests and wealth who were at the root of the problems which have surfaced on the national level. It behooves all of us to look at the tax reform plan intelligently and rationally. Some adjustments may be necessary but I'm sure most right-thinking people will agree that tax reform in New Jersey is a must.

Sincerely Yours,

James P. McCann

Youth Believes She Deserves Seat on Bus

To the editor:

I would like to say something to all the commissioners in town about the Senior Citizens Bus. I am a volunteer at Clara Maass Hospital and I think I should be able to ride the Senior Citizen Bus even though I'm not a senior citizen. I'm volunteering time to the hospital and also there is no public transportation from my house to the hospital.

The problem is there is not enough in town for the teenagers. Everyone is always saying we are no good, well I have something that will keep me off the streets and out of trouble, but the problem is you wouldn't help me by letting me ride the bus, Commissioners. If you really care about the future citizens, help me by letting me ride the bus to the hospital.

Also, I have read in the paper about the other Senior Citizen Bus that you are going to get. It isn't fair to have two buses just for the senior citizens, is it? I don't think so.

Post 105 Squad Closes at 8-5-1

Piloted by a first-year coaching staff, the Belleville Post 105 American Legion baseball team amassed an 8-5-1 record this summer, the best for the squad in eight years.

A 12-2 loss to Bloomfield ended the regular season play last Saturday. Belleville, down 4-0 in the third inning, picked up two runs when Lou Grasso singled in Chipper Biafore, and Joe De Franza did the same for pinch runner Fred Racioppi.

On Friday, pitchers Joe Cerza and John Guarino combined for a three-hitter to come up with the eighth and final victory of the season as the local Legionnaires knocked off Orange, 7-2.

In the top of the first inning, Chipper Biafore picked up extra bases when his shot to left field got past the Orange sentry there. Cerza rapped a single to score Biafore from third base. Later that inning, opposing pitcher Joe Cimino homered to tie the score.

In the second inning, Belleville poured on three runs to pass Orange. After Joe Arminio and Vin Lipoma both drew walks, Ron Goy sacrificed, but made it to first. Chipper Biafore's single brought in two runs, then Vic Pasquerello walked to reload the bases. Lou Grasso's walk forced in a run.

In the fifth inning, Lou Grasso singled in Pasquerello from second base.

Orange came back with two runs in the fifth, but Grasso's base hit in the sixth, on top of De Franza's double, scored two more runs.

Grasso smashed his first home run of the season the day before against Caldwell, as Ricky Loma pitched nearly seven innings of relief, giving up three hits for a 5-3 come-from-behind Belleville win.

Starting Belleville pitcher Fred Racioppi ran into serious trouble in his first appearance this season, with Caldwell bringing in three runs on three hits. Coach Mike Limongelli called in relief ace Loma, who pitched the balance of the game.

In the second inning, the Belleville bats went to work, as John Guarino singled and then moved to second on an infield hit. Nick Cancelliere advanced Guarino with a single and both scored on hits by Vin Lipoma and Rick Loma.

In the bottom of the third, De Franza hit for one base and then Lou Grasso belted a long drive up the right center field alley that was gone for a home run.

Belleville picked up another insurance run in the sixth when Pasquerello hit a sacrifice fly with the bases loaded, scoring Joe Arminio.

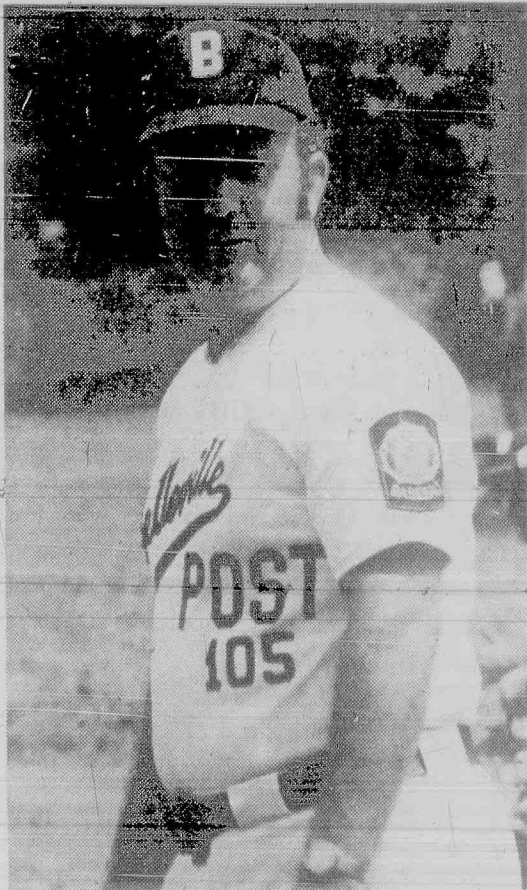

On July 9, Belleville pitcher Greg Petite engaged Irvington's Mike Krill in a pitching duel that saw Belleville come out 2-1 losers. Krill gave up three outs and Petite four.

With Belleville down 2-0 in the third inning when Ron Goy walked and stole second, Joe De Franza smashed a double to score Goy, but Belleville couldn't muster enough power to pull ahead for a win.

The new coaching staff will enter its second season next summer with substantially the same squad as posted the 8-5-1 record this year. Only Joe De Franza, Joe Cancelliere, Joe Cerza and Vin Lipoma, all top-ranking players, will be leaving after passing the maximum age requirement. Limongelli took over the team for his first year this summer, bringing in Vin Lipoma and George Zanfini as assistants.

ENDS FIRST YEAR — Mike Limongelli, just finished his first season as coach of the Belleville Legion Post 105 ball club, came up with the best record in eight years — 8-5-1.

Talmadge kept the crowd on their feet by making fantastic catches and clutch plays.

The opening of playground Eight proved to be very successful. One of the highpoints was a kickball victory over Three playground. Some of the players were Mario and Eddie Columbrito, Lou Ricciardi, Mike, Brian, and Kevin Murphy, Joe Franceschini, Pat Risignuolo, Billy and Carl Garofalo with John Murphy as their manager. As a reward, a doughnut party was held for players and fans.

Playground Three began with an intense game of soccer. Tom Casciano, Nick Lembo, Jim McCabe, Nick Massa, Gary Chamberlain, Betty Freda, Ron Chimento and Nick La Morte displayed an enormous amount of enthusiasm and skill. Among the younger set is competition in checkers and kalah. Champs are Jack and Mike Morell and Denise Nuzzo.

The Rec House opened with a fantastic turnout. Tommy Calabrese, Donna and Gina De Vito, and Karen Ferriero were among the anxious youngsters awaiting the opening day. The season started with a two hour kickball game in which Donald and Glenn McKintry, Mike Licameli and Mark Di Giacomo all scored several home runs. Feeling confident they challenged and beat Three playground.

At the Stadium, a highlight of the week was a Cowboy and Indian party. The children decorated the stadium with indian posters that they drew in the morning. Then they painted each others faces with make-up. Some of the interesting costumes were displayed by Gail and Pala Hochstulh, Karen Cardoni and Lisa Santolij. The refreshments of watermelon filled with sherbert along with cookies topped off the party.

Enthusiasm and a bright outlook in softball could be sensed at Two playground. The team consists of both boys and girls. The members are Brian Albanese, Greg and Frank Danieli, Mark Santasieri, Joyce Iacullo, Joe Goodman, Bobby Brave, Darlene Stango, Chipper Estille, Charlie Nigro, Jimmy D'Angelis, Ralph Macciola, Johnny Brave, and Jesse Marchese.

Kickball and softball were two activities that took up most of the day at Nine. Competition against One and Three ended in victories. Outstanding players were Mike Annicchiarico, Tommy Lento, Billy Morgan, John Morgan, John Dolan, Vic Iacangelo, Phil Moraski, Frank Piombo, Phil Lazaro, and Joe Carbone.

Kelly Playground started their week by organizing a strong softball team. The hitting of Phil Cerza, Richie Wilks, Nicky Matola, Karen Portuese and Cindy Nugent plus the pitching by Alice Nugent will make the team strong contenders. Tournaments were also held and the winners were: Karen Portuese (knock-hockey), Joey Holler (ping-pong), Phil Cerza (kalah), and Robert Pimentell (checkers).

ovground Four looks to be a strong contender in the softball league. They shut out both One and Friendly House by the scores of 28-0 and 7-0. Power hitting was contributed by Frank Constantino, Wayne Richie, Jerry Patrizio, Patsy Fata, Jimmy DiGabriele, and Ronnie Coco.

Playground Ten has high hopes of becoming a strong softball team. Some of the star players are Mark and Mike Richidella, Frankie Fazzini, Peter and Paul Scheuplein, Joey La Plomo, Chipper Verian, Danny Palumbo, Anthony and Bobby Gingerelli.

At Fairway playground the favorite activity is knock-hockey. Winners of the boys and girls knock-hockey tournament were Chet Prosperi and Maria Prosperi. The kalah champion of the week was Patty Doll.

The Pistol Range opened the season with a series of tournaments. Debbie Popola was the winner in both the knock-hockey and kalah tournaments and Mauro Tucci was the winner in the ping-pong tournament.

Junior Basketball Program Initiated

Belleville's first Junior Basketball Program swung into action on July 8 and 9. The program, under the direction of Mark Corino, former varsity co-captain at B.H.S., will continue throughout the summer each Monday and Tuesday evenings. Parents are invited to attend and encourage the boys.

The program includes boys between the ages of 12 and 14. Forty-nine boys were in attendance at the first two sessions which stressed fundamental development of basketball skills while also giving the boys game experience.

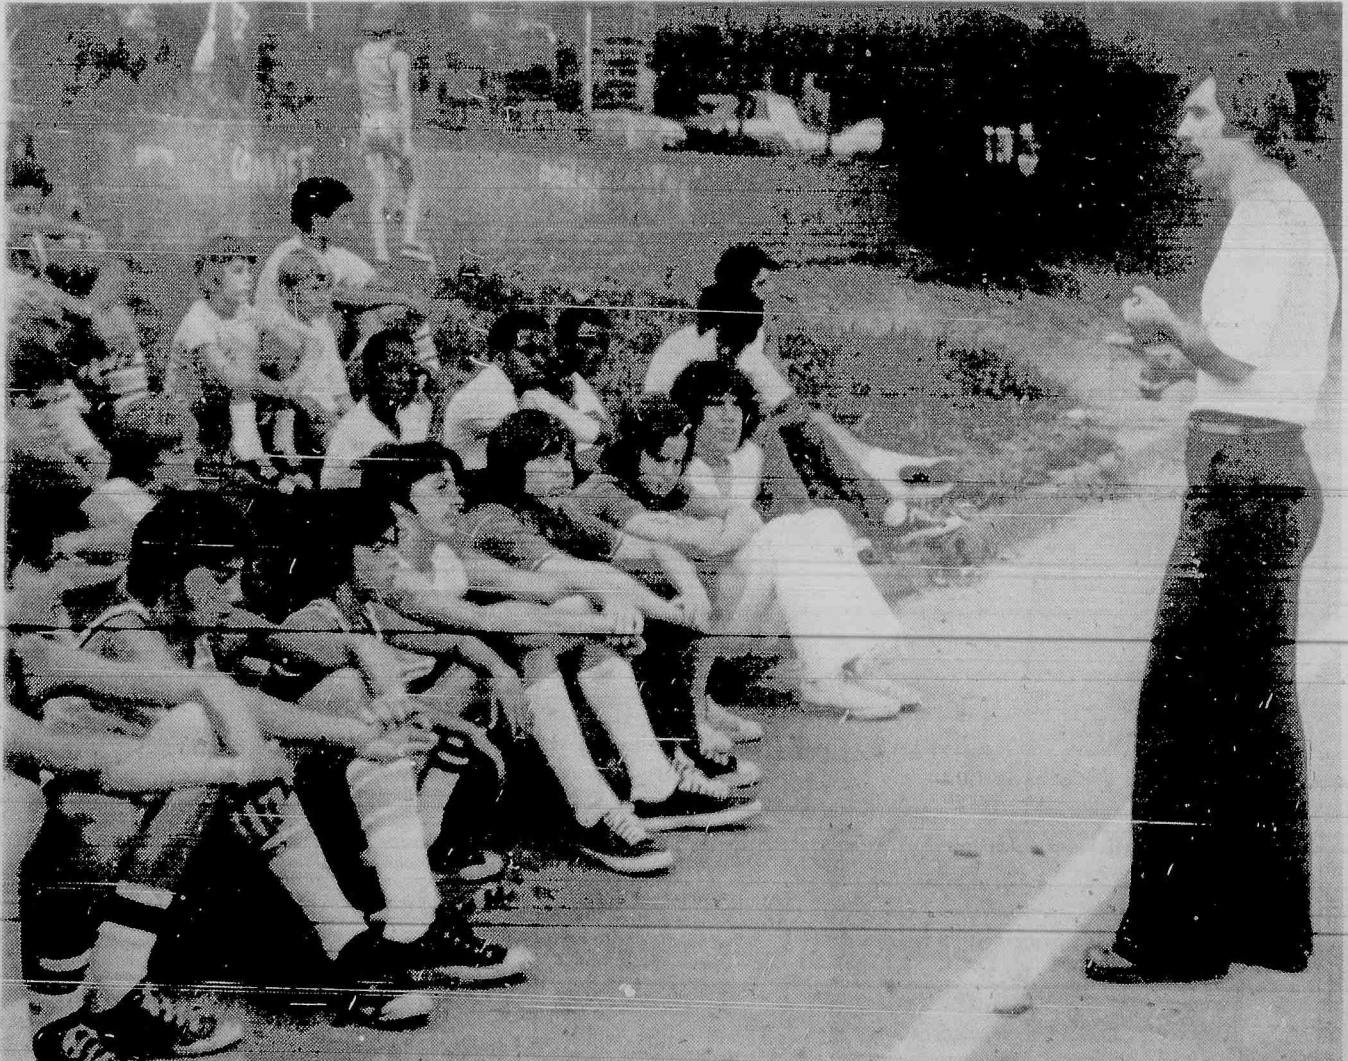

"I was most pleased with the desire and determination on the part of the boys," said Corino, "those two points, combined with sportsmanship, is what we want to develop in our youngsters."

Corino's staff is made up of volunteers interested in helping improve the Belleville basketball program. Those included in the staff are: Rich Caravetta, captain of the 1971 Belleville Basketball Team; Vinny Turturiello, 1972 varsity co-captain; Gary Tulo, Bob Sanders and Bob DiQuattro, member of the 1974 cage squad; Phil Cuzzi, a three-letter man at B.H.S. who graduated in 1973 and Jim Hollywood an interested North Arlington neighbor.

Anyone interested in helping in this program and willing to devote a few hours of his time on Monday and Tuesday evenings can contact Mr. Corino at 759-8225.

NEW PROGRAM — Teenagers are shown during a game sponsored by the Senior Basketball program of the Recreation Department. Games are played at School Eight playground according to a schedule at right.

ON ATTITUDE — Belleville High basketball coach Dan Grasso helps initiate the Town's first junior basketball program with a discussion of attitude, practice and discipline. Grasso heads the senior program, another innovation in the Belleville Recreation Department schedule.

'Dope Open' Nets Drug-Fighting $$$

For the first time in six years, the Dope Open Amateur Golf Classic played on June 27 was not dampened by rain as a record 289 amateur golfers teed off on a dry green.

Also, Dr. Donald C. Kuhn, general chairman, called the tournament a "fantastic success" as he reported that over $33,000 gross was raised. "Our goal this year was $30,000, and we are delighted with this great result," he said.

At the post-tournament dinner, a check for $22,000 was handed by Dr. Kuhn to Dr. John J. McKenna, Chairman of the Morris County Drug Abuse Council. However, the figure represented funds raised by green fees for players, junior players, and golf hole sponsors. Additional industry contributions, which were not tallied immediately have resulted in higher amount.

Mary Mulholland, Dope

Open founder, remembers when the first event raised $6,000 and gleefully admits, "I'm delighted we were able to surpass our own expectations and next year, we'll reach for the sky."

Dr. McKenna in accepting the initial check explained to Dope Open golfers that funds will be used not only for drug education, rehabilitation and prevention programs, but that monies will also be used to establish pilot projects dealing with alcohol abuse.

This year's winner of the "Good Hope Trophy" was John Puskur, a Whippany resident and member of Rockaway River Country Club, who shot a 69 low gross. Puskur was also a Dope Open winner in 1971. Madison Township won first place with lowest team aggregate score in the junior tournament played at the Knoll East, and Sparta came in second, Pequannock third.

Fathers Participating In 'Y' Swim Projects

"Fathers have become more active participants in the Tadpole swimming program," stated Linda Baugher, assistant physical director and director of the pre-school age programs which are sponsored by the Montclair YMCA this summer.

The program is structured so a parent and a pre-school age child work together on water adjustment and swimming skills. In the past, most of the parent participants have been mothers and grandmothers, but this summer the evening class is mostly fathers.

The fathers' sharing in this popular program has added a new dimension and the men who work during the day have expressed their enthusiasm in having a class in which they can work and play together with their children. The children have responded exceptionally well to the treat of having Dad all to themselves for a short time.

The Physical Education Department has counted this new aspect of the program a resounding success.

Beck's Column

We hear often complaints about the deplorable lack of attention and the "don't give a darn" attitude of sales personnel, particularly in department, but more so in the so called "discount" stores, which in many cases is a misnomer. The word "discount" is supposed to create the impression that they sell cheaper. In today's highly competitive market just about everybody is a discount. Mostly the word "discount" means that you do not get any service of any kind. If one buys items of merchandise which are known to require service and if you do not get this service, you should pay less, of course, because you get less.

Most people forget that the establishments they complain about are not geared for service, whether this is a service that goes with the product or whether this is advice and help in your selection. These places are essentially "self service" and they do not employ knowledgeable people. They just have attendants and ticket writers and often they are even too lazy to do this. More and more people go back to their local stores where they are sure to be well taken care of. At least we hear this again and again. Customers tell us they followed the lure of the "discount" only to find out that they had lots of headaches. This does not happen if you deal with us. Our sales people are knowledgeable and will advise you properly. But we are not satisfied with this. If you buy a TV on an appliance form us, one of our men comes to your home and checks first of all whether everything functions right. If he thinks that you would be served better with a different model for instance, he will tell you so, make his suggestions and arrange for an exchange. We want to make absolutely sure that you bought the best unit for your condition. In addition, of course,

Irwin in Arts Center Tourney

ing the other 18-hole layout. Chairman Wallhauser referred to Irwin's entry as "a stroke of good fortune for the tournament, New Jersey golf and the people who benefit from the Arts Center Fund." The Highway Authority administers the fund and operates the Arts Center on the Garden State Parkway. The commissioner pointed out that Irwin's recent victory in the U.S. Open at the Winged Foot Country Club, Mamaroneck, N.Y., makes him one of the top attractions on the golf scene today. Irwin, 29-year-old former Colorado University football player, has been a pro seven years, and while he won only two tourneys prior to his U.S. Open championship, he consistently has been among the top 10 in other events. He has had four consecutive $100,000 years in earnings, including this one, and he has won more than $540,000 in purses as a pro.

Irwin went to Colorado on a football scholarship. In 1964, as a sophomore, he was the starting quarterback against the University of Southern California, but he switched to defense, and was all-Big Eight safety in his junior and senior years. He was not drafted for professional football, but by that time he had won the NCAA golf title in 1967, and, feeling he was not big enough for the pro gridiron, he had decided to concentrate on golf anyway. That concentration, indeed, is paying off.

Holding on to a good credit standing is tough but vital to PSE&G and you!

If you've ever had to borrow money to buy a home or for any reason, you know that the amount you can borrow depends on your credit standing. It's the same with PSE&G.

PSE&G relies heavily on investors to finance expansion of its facilities which, in turn, help provide you with reliable electric and gas service. And the only way PSE&G can do this is by maintaining a sound financial structure that produces a good credit standing. If PSE&G doesn't offer investors a reasonable return on their dollar, they will put their money elsewhere.

$2.8 billion needed for construction. Without a good credit standing and the investor support that goes with it, PSE&G would not be able to raise the $2.8 billion needed for construction now through 1978. If that happens, we're all in serious trouble.

A good credit standing also means that the interest rates we pay for borrowed money will be lower. Still, even with an attractive credit standing, utilities are now paying nearly double the interest on money borrowed than they were in 1965. Everything is going up!

The days of cheap energy are over. In years past, when costs maintained a relatively stable rate of increase, PSE&G could balance those increases through advances in technology, economies, and increased energy usage by customers. But since 1969, costs have gotten out of hand.

Today, inflation has really caught up with PSE&G, and the sad fact is that electric and gas rates will continue to rise along with the cost of other goods and services. It's the only way PSE&G can hope to cover the ballooning costs of construction, materials, fuel, maintenance, labor, taxes, interest, and environmental requirements incurred to serve you. It's tough but vital to PSE&G... and you!

In summary, PSE&G asks your understanding of this economic truth. PSE&G's financial health and a high level of electric and gas service are inseparable. Indeed, the days of cheap energy are over. And we don't like it any more than you do.

Olga Knows

This Week's Horoscope (July 20 through July 26)

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Events/ideas occur so rapidly in days ahead that entire week tends to be one big blur. Trust your inner vibrations and, if necessary, take a few risks. So you may appear foolish, so what? Who'll know the diff twenty years hence?

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You may have strange, uneasy feeling that you are hanging on to the world of reality by your fingernails. Explore newfangled methods for solving old problems. Preservation of your sanity, Taurus my friend, has top priority.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Even when others disagree with what you have to say, Gem, they listen, for they enjoy the way you say it. However, in days ahead you'd be wise to keep mum concerning personal affair. If necessary, tape your mouth shut.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): You have chance to hook up with interesting individual of opposite sex. New relationship could be therapeutic. So relax, Moonbaby, and forget your missionary zeal to reform. Uncork, unhook and unwind.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Vibrations may seem to home in on you from 39 different directions at once. To break cycle of confusion, Leo, a change of scene/routine is necessary. Sneak away for at least one day and hang out sign: GONE FISHIN'.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): You have chance to give of yourself, your time, energy and affection. Give willingly, not from duty, but from compassion. By giving, you gain. Then TWO people are made happier. Try it. You'll not only like it, you'll LOVE it.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Inner tension caused by unresolved conflict may have you walking into walls first part of week. Try to get more rest. Mind Olga and by last day you should experience at least a tiny bit of tranquillity.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Local scuttlebutt abounds. Much of it will be of a negative nature. It will give you food for thought, Scorp, but it is the kind of food that leads to heartburn. Unplug your hearing aid.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Admirer is somewhat intimidated by your extroverted, sometimes brash, manner, Sassy Sag. Could you find within yourself the control to tone down? Just a little? Try. Then perhaps nervous little bird will visit your feeding station.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Puddles of tension tend to evaporate under rays of July sun. Make contact with understanding friend. You know, Cap, the one who is as comfortable as a pair of soft, faded jeans. Plan rendezvous.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Don't permit petty worries to plague you. Contrary to what some others may think, you CAN cope. Week bolts to an abrupt halt.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Things will seem to come in "foos" in week ahead, Pisces, too much pleasure followed by too much pain. Decisions apt to harass you. Remember that your sign is that of the two fishes, meaning that you can handle conflicting complications.

Garden State Arts Center Books 'King of the Blues'

B. B. King, regarded by many as the world's top blues guitarist and his nine piece orchestra will perform at the Garden State Arts Center on Saturday and Sunday nights, July 20 and 21. They will be on the program with Gladys Knight and The Pips.

Curtain time will be 9 o'clock Saturday and 8:30 o'clock Sunday.

King unquestionably is one of the best known and most successful blues musicians in the world today. In 1970, Guitar Player Magazine named him the leader among blues guitarists, an award that was to be repeated in the following years and duplicated by Downbeat and Playboy Jazz and Pop Polls.

B.B. is an unpretentious performer who establishes an intimate rapport with his listeners without resorting to gimmicks or theatrics. He honed his craft in relative obscurity during nearly 20 years of touring the "chitlin circuit." Then during the late 1960s he found himself in demand before young white audiences eager to hear authentic blues after being attuned to it by heavily blues-influenced rock.

He was born Riley B. King on September 16, 1925, on a Mississippi Delta cotton plantation near Indianola. He recalls having walked 10 miles a day to attend a one-room schoolhouse with 86 pupils and one teacher. In the 10th grade, when the money he could make working in the fields became more of a necessity to his survival than schooling, he dropped out.

In 1947, King hitchhiked north to Memphis, where he lived with his cousin, Bukka White, an accomplished bluesman. He obtained a job at WDIA, Memphis' black radio station, and it was there that he picked up his present name. Since he specialized in playing music from Memphis' Beale Street he was first billed as Riley King, the Blues Boy from Beale Street. That was shortened to the Beale Street Blues Boy and eventually to B.B. For nearly 20 years he kept up a grueling pace of some 300 one-night stands in rundown night spots that were often unable to pay him. In 1968, he made his first European tour and in 1969, he played at the Newport Jazz Festival and on the Rolling Stones' tour and broke into the college and rock-theater circuit.

He won a Grammy Award for "The Thrill is Gone" in 1970 and his current top hit is "I Like To Live The Love."

Miss N.J. State Fair Pageant Entries Open

Applications are now available for the Miss New Jersey State Fair Pageant, Joseph Ancker, Fair General Manager announced today. The Fair, located on Rt. 33, Trenton, will run for September 6-15.

"Last year's Miss New Jersey State Fair, Ginger Hagaman, walked off with top honors after competing with close to fifty of the most attractive young women in the state," Ancker said. "Along with the top honors, she also walked off with a list of prizes which included a two-week Holland-America cruise to the Bahamas and a fur coat for coat from Flemington Furs."

Other prizes included a scholarship to the New York School of Modeling and the New York School of the Performing Arts, a Charming Shoppes wardrobe, a Cooper Cycle Ranch motorcycle and a number of other merchandise prizes plus a savings bond from the Air Management.

"Many of the young women who have held the title of Miss New Jersey State Fair have gone on to bigger and better things," Ancker said. "But I think our most prominent title holder was Lynn Henry, who now holds a top position in New Jersey State Government."

Ms. Henry won her title at the New Jersey State Fair, a fair with strong emphasis on agriculture, "and now holds top job in the state's Agriculture Department."

"I don't want to forget another Miss New Jersey State Fair who went on to bigger challenges," Ancker said. "Linda Carol, who two years ago was named Miss New Jersey, and who went on to compete in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City."

Mail Burners Plague P.O. With 'Pranks'

The Newark Post Office is being plagued with malicious vandalism of its street mail boxes. More than 2,500 letters have been burned or destroyed during June and July. Fire crackers have been exploded in 64 boxes and fires have been set by dropping lighted matches and cigarettes in 56 mail boxes.

Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci said that these so called "pranks" have caused serious problems for the citizens of the Newark area. Mortgage payments have not been received on time, causing penalty payments. Interest charges have been imposed because of non-receipt of payment by business firms. Important legal and personal documents have been destroyed. Communication between families and loved ones has suffered. Invitations for community or family affairs have not been delivered.

Benucci is soliciting the assistance of all the citizens of the City of Newark to advise their children of the full impact of these "pranks" and to stress the seriousness of these acts which constitute a crime and is a Federal Offense. The Postmaster also said that if these adverse conditions continue to occur with any regularity at any particular location, the Postal Service will have no alternative other than to remove the mail box. "We prefer not to do this, but we must take every precaution to protect the mail," said Benucci.

Therefore, should any citizen observe any individual either defacing or committing any act which would cause the destruction of mail, please call the Police Department or the Postal Inspection Service at 645-2467.

Area Bank Asks Return of Pennies

Midlantic National Bank today appealed to its customers and other residents of Essex Warren and Passaic Counties to empty the family piggy banks, jars, cans and other containers full of pennies and bring them to their nearest Midlantic National office for redemption.

Thereon L. Marsh, chairman and chief executive officer of the Bank, said, "U.S. taxpayers are paying great penalties because people are withholding almost 30 billion pennies from circulation, creating a tremendous shortage."

Marsh stated, "we shall submit to the U.S. Treasury the names of individuals or groups cashing in $25 worth of pennies, and the Treasury will award them Exceptional Public Service certificates."

Wood-paneled walls and natural woodwork need very little care other than regular dry dusting with a cloth.
