Vacancies in Public Safety

There are vacancies both in the police department and the fire department. The top vacancy - Deputy Fire Chief, all vacancies falling within the frame work of the New Jersey Civil Service law. Promotional exams were taken in both instances. The Deputy Fire Chief exam results were promulgated in November of last year. Five months later there is still no certification, a procedure prerequisite to the filling of a vacancy.

The Police Captain vacancy list was promulgated in February of this year. In two short weeks the list was certified, thus permitting the appointing authorities to fill the vacancy.

All kinds of rumors abound - especially so in the heat of a commission campaign.

In a letter to the editor appearing on this page, a reader wonders aloud why the first man on the eligibility list has not been appointed to the Deputy Fire Chief vacancy.

We wonder too.

The law permits appointing authorities to select any person from among the top three names on a certified list for appointment to fill a vacancy. We believe the best interest of municipal employee morale - the best interest of the community - and the best interest of our people - are better served when appointing authorities remove from political consideration the filling of vacancies by establishing a policy of appointing the number one person in a promotional vacancy.

A fire captain who finishes first in a civil service exam for Deputy Fire Chief is obviously qualified to hold down the job for which he took the exam. To be a fire captain, a person must be a leader of men. To be a fire captain, a person must be courageous, well organized and have the ability to direct his men in the best manner of fighting fires. Isn't that what service as a member of the fire department is all about? We believe Public Safety Director Robert Laterza should remove any cloud hanging over his motives concerning the selection of individuals to fill the vacancies in the police and fire departments. he can serve the town's interests - and his own - by going to the top of the lists and filling the vacancies by promoting the men next in line.

It wouldn't hurt for other commissioners to adopt this approach in filling vacancies for promotional jobs.

We draw a distinction between a promotional exam results and fireman's or patrolman's exam. The law authorizes authorities to select an appointee from among the top three names that appear on the certified list. In the case of an appointment of a patrolman or a fireman, the appointing authority may want to consider the relative, emotional chemistries of the successful applicant and select the individual who in his best judgement can better serve the community. Once having made this decision, thereafter promotional exam results manifest the intellectual and emotional complexities of the total man.

Commissioner Laterza, a native Bellevillite, has a reputation for being fair and honest. In the name of fairness Commissioner Laterza should move promptly to fill the vacancies and dispel the notions that he is motivated with political interest to fill vacancies in his department.

Revaluation issue

The hottest political issue this week appears to be the impending revaluation of Belleville real estate. (See related story, this page.) Two candidates went on record opposing the program last week, and others were expected to follow by late Tuesday night as the Times/News was going to press.

As might have been expected, Mayor McGreevy and Commissioner Senatore emerged on opposite sides of the fence concerning the issue. The other three incumbents remained publicly silent about the issue before last Tuesday's Commission meeting where the revaluation was scheduled to come up for final vote. The Commissioners unanimously passed the necessary ordinance when it was introduced at first reading late last month.

First to publicly raise the issue was Smith, who last week charged revaluation was unnecessary. This week Mrs. Senatore, Belleville Democratic Chairman, sided with the former mayor and deputy police chief, echoing his cry that Belleville should not revalue until Newark is compelled to do the same.

In an interview with the Times/News last Friday, Mayor McGreevy said he was taking what he called "the courageous approach." Though acknowledging his pro-revaluation stance as politically dangerous, said the Mayor: "I have to do the right thing for the Town, even if it costs me the election."

According to McGreevy, revaluation at this time is an economic necessity. Without it, he said, Belleville stands to lose "millions in ratables" through appeals based on a new State statute soon to go into effect. The necessary preparation for revaluation could not wait until after the election, said McGreevy.

In other sectors, Domanti, a criminal lawyer in New York, confined his statement of the week to what might qualify as a general assessment of the state of Belleville government. "Town Hall," said the challenger, "is booming with mediocrity and less." He called for more "forward thinking."

Youngest of the candidates this year is Bambo, a 20-year-old assistant front-end manager at the Belmont Avenue Pathmark supermarket.

Bambo, like many other young challengers in other elections, indicated concern over what many citizens term the "eliquesh" nature of Belleville politics. "It is time," said Bambo, "for all Belleville citizens to participate in the running and actions of our town." Bambo is a lifelong Belleville resident, and a graduate of Belleville High.

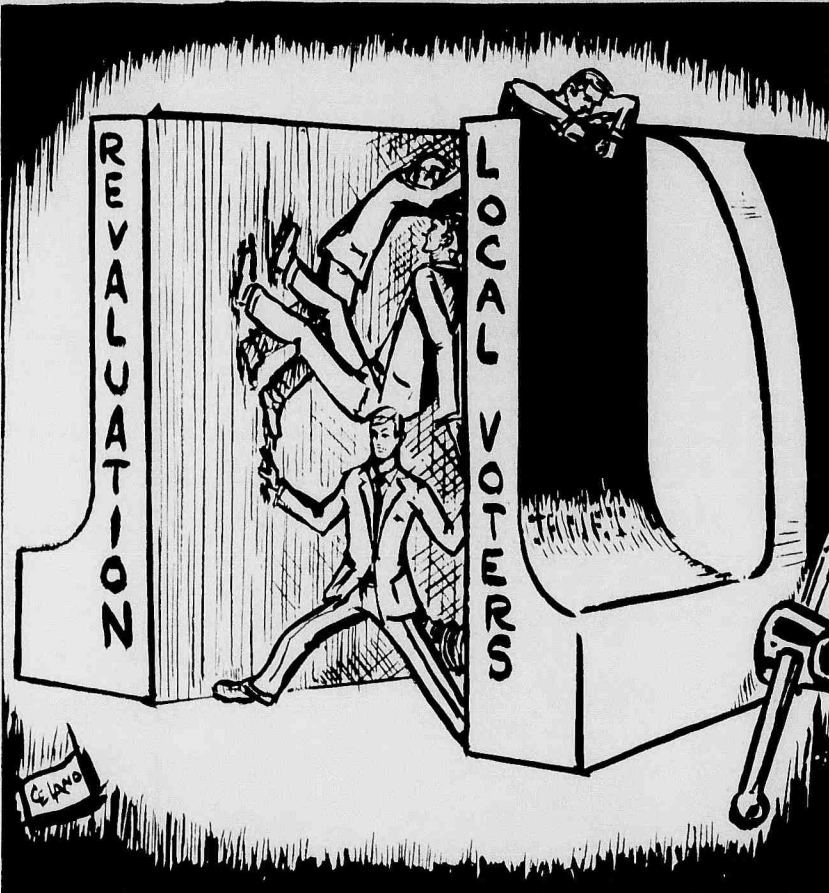

As in other years, some of Belleville's Commission candidates have mounted intensive sign posting campaigns, particularly Marotti, Romano, Mrs. Senatore, Saletta and Raimo.

Some of Saletta's signs carry the slogan "Share in the Roc" while Raimo's massive billboards preach "Economy in government."

Mrs. Senatore's posters are most noteworthy for their color - hot pink - and the conspicuous use of the Commissioner's maiden name.

Though the Times/News was unable to reach Lee before press time, he is reported to be a systems analyst for Wagner College in Staten Island.

Rev. Hamilton is the first black man ever to seek a Commission seat in town.

Former Zoner is offended

To The Editor:

Events occur sometime in a man's life, which make it impossible to stand mute, and he must speak his mind.

For me this is the time!

For 8 years, I had the pleasure of sitting as a member of the Belleville Board Adjustment, with no remuneration, but serving with pride and honor. I along with other board members gave many hours of our family time, willingly. My reward was in the satisfaction that I received for doing something for my town.

When it was time for my re-appointment, I found myself in a situation where Mayor Joseph McGreevy, in an attempt to control the Board of Adjustment, refused to appoint me. He stated, I did a "great job" but he and other members of the Commission wanted to see new faces on the board; I guess my face couldn't be controlled by the "power block," as a matter of fact, Commissioner Mary V. Senatore, at the present time has no representation on the board.

In 1974 the "power block" did pass a resolution commending myself along with other past members of the Board of Adjustment, for the magnificent job we did and for the service that we rendered to the town.

At no time have I been notified to appear at any commission meeting or any other official meeting to receive my award.

You would hardly believe the next event:

Endorsement letters will be accepted

Letters to the editor raising issues and endorsing candidates in the upcoming Commission election will be accepted this year by the Belleville Times/News.

This policy has been adopted to give greater exposure to the election, and to enable Belleville voters to tell others how they feel regarding candidates and political issues.

Space limitations and our interest in fairness, however, make certain ground rules necessary:

1. No endorsement letters will be published after May 1, allowing candidates one issue prior to the election to respond.

2. All letters must bear the name, address and telephone number of the writer. Only one letter per writer will be published.

3. The Times/News reserves the right to condense, edit or reject entirely all submissions; but will make every effort to publish a fair cross-section of those letters it receives.

If space limitations make publication of all letters impossible, the editors may summarize or list some of those judged too long or repetitious.

4. Letters should be as brief as possible, and type written to avoid misinterpretation and delay in processing.

Secret candidate uncovered

By PAUL STERN

BELLEVILLE — A little-known resident has secretly declared his candidacy in the upcoming municipal election here, the Times/News learned this week.

According to well informed sources at Town Hall, Bellevillite Hubert "Buddy" Howritechare secretly filed nominating petitions last week, and had planned to keep secret his candidacy until after the balloting.

Howritechare failed to return numerous Times/News phone calls placed this week to his reportedly disconnected telephone. The clandestine candidate will remain in hiding, sources say, until May 14.

A Times/News investigator learned of Howritechare's closely-guarded secret while posing as a razor blade salesman in a local delicatessen. Tape recordings of conversations between the candidate and several high ranking political powers were recovered from a pint of home-made potato salad.

According to the tapes, no one in Howritechare's political organization has ever participated in an election, either as a campaigner, ward heeler, voter or roadside poster. However, using an almost forgotten political technique developed by Bolivian counter-revolutionaries in 1957, Howritechare plans to win the election through a complicated series of political maneuvers verging on honesty.

The candidate is also reported to have once appeared on the television show, "To Tell the Truth." Times/News reporters were unable to determine before press time Howritechare's specific involvement there.

Though the secret tape recordings were smeared with mayonnaise, expert communications engineers were able to recover portions of the following conversation between the candidate and an unknown political advisor:

Advisor: The important thing is that (mayonnaise) until Nigel has had a chance to rig the (mayonnaise) people on their

WHAT? ANOTHER REVALUATION SURVEY BY AN OUTSIDE GROUP AT $140,000? ARE OUR COMMISSIONERS ALL NUTS?

It is beginning to raise some such doubts in the minds of many people. Are they kidding or have they fallen victim of more McGreevy mesmerism whereby he could recoup the dwindled surplus of the town over five years at the additional expense of our taxpayers in the form of higher valuations being placed upon their properties which would result in even HIGHER local taxes for us all?

Almost everyone knows that largely the portion of our taxes which goes to pay for County government is what is "killing us" because of the staggering welfare costs of the city of Newark, yet, the government of that city has adamantly defied and ignored court orders to revalue for over two years and they are "getting away with it" because the office of the State Attorney General has declined to take legal action against that City.

Our neighbor to the north, Nutley, had planned to have a revaluation, but the Nutley officials cancelled their appropriation and withdrew the calling for bids on any revaluation at this time . . . all of which raises strong conjectures as to just why our town should, so soon after the adoption of the 1975 budget, set about to "go for" a revaluation that would cost us $140,000 spread over five years to take the "sting" out of it, while the depleted surplus used up in "covering up" the increased cost of local administration in this election year budget gets an opportunity to be replenished over the next five years by having us taxpayers pay higher taxes because of increased valuations being placed upon our properties, even if the present rate of taxation remains static.

Regrettably, this column will not be published until two days after the scheduled required public hearing on this matter. However, because of the grave misgivings entertained by your columnist, I have taken the opportunity of contacting three potentially strong candidates in the commission scramble with the hope that they will go out strongly to oppose the idea of a revaluation, at this time . . . All of them are knowledgeable and well acquainted with the subject and the "pitfalls" involved. Their enlightening the public of what may be in store for them should our incumbent commissioners pass such a measure at this time should prove interesting and appreciated by those who hope to keep taxes down.

Are we to continue to function as a municipality by the budget gimmickry of McGreevy's musical chairs, fallacious budget tactics? Why an emergency resolution that probably would have been passed without a required public notice calling for a hearing so the public could be heard on this matter of revaluation? Why wasn't the money appropriated in the budget which was approved the same evening? Wasn't it because "everything" was "sunk into" the town portion of the budget to make the incumbents look good in an election year and there wasn't enough left to put in the budget for this questionable move at this time? Now come on Joe . . . who are you kidding? Is that pay as you go financing? Of course not . . . you know it.

FLIGHT 897

The pound-shedding race is on!

WEIGHT LOSS — Well, there are a few hearty souls willing to let the public determine how much or how little willpower they wish to call upon in order to lose weight and maybe live longer. As announced in last week's issue of this newspaper, John Risoli, our circulation manager and I were talking about the bad turn our fortunes were taking. Johnny was complaining that weighing in at 154 was not the way for a young man to insure himself a long life and happiness. Weighing in at 198, the heaviest in 20 years, I thought my problem greater than Johnny's. Johnny insisted I did not look overweight. In fact, he said I carry my weight better than he — that is, carry his weight. So — small talk aside I decided for our mutual interest to list those who will make an effort to lose weight.

Readers who think as we do have been invited to put up a $10 entry fee and weigh in each Tuesday morning in the contest to determine who could lose the most weight over a period of time which will span this week's issue of this paper and at some point before May 20th. Below are the names of the brave ones, their weight on Tuesday — and here we go!

The person losing the most weight at the end of the contest will receive 75 percent of the entry fees with the runner-up receiving the balance. If you want to make bets who is going to win the contest — be our guest.

Emmett Jefferson	240 lbs.
John Risoli	158 lbs.
Bill Miller	268 lbs.
Carl Orechio	220 lbs.
Carmen Orechio	195 lbs.
Frank Orechio	198 lbs.
Margaret Feeney	209 lbs.
Frances Gerardi	205 lbs.

TWO OF OUR FAVORITE POEMS are from "Just for You," a collection by Helen Steiner Rice. We reprint them here for your enjoyment.

"Before You Can Dry Another's Tears — You Too Must Weep"

Let me not live a life that's free
From "the things" that draw me close to thee—
For how can I ever hope to heal
The wounds of others I do not feel—
If my eyes are dry and I never weep,
How do I know when the hurt is deep—
If my heart is cold and it never bleeds,
How can I tell what my brother needs—
For when ears are deaf to the beggar's plea
And we close our eyes and refuse to see,
And we steel our hearts and harden our mind,
And we count it a weakness whenever we're kind,
We are no longer following the Father's Way
Or seeking His guidance from day to day—

For, with "crosses to carry" and "burdens to bear,"
We dance through a life that is frothy and fair,
And "chasing the rainbow" we have no desire
For "roads that are rough" and "realms that are higher—"
So spare me no heartache or sorrow, dear Lord,
For the heart that is hurt reaps the richest reward,
And God enters the heart that is broken with sorrow
As He opens the door to a brighter tomorrow,
For only through tears can we recognize
The suffering that lies in another's eyes.

"In Times Like These"

We read the headlines daily and listen to the news,
We shake our heads despairingly and glumly sing the blues
We are restless and dissatisfied and we do not feel secure,
We are vaguely discontented with the things we must endure . . .
This violent age we live in is filled with nameless fears
As we listen to the newscasts that come daily to our ears,
And we view the threatening future with sad sobriety

As we're surrounded daily
by increased anxiety . . .
How can we find security or stand on solid ground
When there's violence and dissension and confusion all around;
Where can we go for refuge from the rising tides of hate,
Where can we find a haven to escape this shameful fate . . .
So instead of reading headlines that disturb the heart and mind,
Let us open up the Bible and in doing so we'll find
That this age is no different from the millions gone before,
But in every hour of crisis
God has opened up a door
For all who seek His guidance and trust His all-wise plan
For God provides protection beyond that devised by man . . .
And we learn that each tomorrow
is not ours to understand,
But lies safely in the keeping of the great Creator's Hand,
And to have the steadfast knowledge that we never walk alone
And to rest in the assurance that our every need is known
Will help dispell our worries,
our anxieties and care,
For doubt and fear are vanquished in the peacefulness of prayer.

Chieffo likes the Board

"The only way to improve things is to get involved." That statement sums up the philosophy of Michael D. Chieffo, a Bellevilleite who decided the way to get involved and get things moving was to run for the Board of Education. Chieffo's campaign was successful, and now as a new fresh face on the board, he is trying to get things started.

Though new to the board, Chieffo is no stranger to the Belleville school system. He is a life-long Bellevilleite who went all the way through the public schools. While in school, he was active in sports, playing frosh football, jayvee baseball, and varsity basketball.

Chieffo traces his drive to get involved in civic affairs back to the influence of the "Kennedy era." The JFK youth and drive must have had a great impact on him, because in addition to his role as a school board member, Chieffo is also active with the Belleville Broncos, as General Manager and one of the founders; vice-president of the Craig Fund, and a member of the Essex County Right to Life group.

While he himself is in the thick of civic activities in town, Chieffo says he would also like to see the other citizens get involved, and he is working towards that goal.

"There are, I think, a great number of people in town who can get involved and want to get involved. Unfortunately, there really hasn't been a structure for these people to work in. That's why I've established my committees on education. I hope they can provide a framework for people to get of Belleville."

"The only thing that's wrong with Belleville," Chieffo says, "is the attitude of the people and how they see the town. If we want to point to negative things in town, there's plenty we can think of. But look at Belleville's positive side. It's contributed to every area of business. We have college professors, doctors, professional athletes, lawyers. These are people who are products of the Belleville school system, and many of them continue to live in Belleville. If we look at the positive side, and not the negative, it's obvious that this town has a lot going for it."

Chieffo lives in Belleville with his wife, Gail, and their two children, Lenore, seven, and Michael Jr., three.

PLAY REVIEW

'Sound' overcomes movie image

By DAN FREEDMAN

How do you solve a problem like reviewing "The Sound of Music"? The old Broadway classic which debuted on Family Playhouse's Brookline Avenue stage Friday night is without doubt one of the most popular musicals of all time. Yet although "The Sound of Music" is loyal followers number in the millions world-wide, it's the kind of show whose detractors are equally legion.

Even though Family Playhouse's production probably constitutes Sound of Music's first appearance on a Nutley stage, its safe to say most area residents' first experience with the show was watching the Hollywood filmed extravaganza. Many people thrilled to the singing family Von Trapp's narrow escape from Austria. But for other thoughts of things like Julie Andrews singing the title song while being zoomed in on by a camera mounted on a low-altitude helicopter evokes a response of the emetic variety. One way or the other, memories of the film version have a funny way of prejudicing one's view of a staged version whether it be professional or amateur.

Of course, prejudice works both ways—either a person enjoyed the film in which case he may feel Family Playhouse's production pales in comparison, or else he hated it and the staged version would only re-enforce his loathing. But if the local theater-goer is capable of checking his prejudices at the door along with his coat, and approach The Family Playhouse "Sound of Music" without any pre-conceived notions, he stands a good chance of enjoying the show. In fact, the Family Playhouse version, as directed by Ray Napolitano, is practically good enough to turn ones' prejudices around altogether.

To begin with, Rodgers and Hammerstein didn't call it "The Sound of Music" without reason. The script requires actors to spend most of their stage-time singing the show's well known musical numbers. Singing happens to be something the Family Playhouse crew does admirably.

The brunt of the vocal burden was borne by Marcia Alden playing the leading role as Maria Ranier. According to advance publicity, Ms. Alden studies voice in New York. If her performance of numbers such as "The Sound of Music", "Do-A Deer", and "My Favorite Things," is any indication, her time in New York has been well-spent. Ms. Alden yodeled like a professional Tyrolean when the seven Von Trapp children exiled themselves to her room during a thunder storm.

The show opens with convent chorus composed of Sisters, Berthe (Eileen Martorana), Margaretta (Joni Policastro), Sophia (Irene Gogal) and the Mother Abbess (Shirley Harris). The sisters and mother answer the question "How do you solve a problem like Maria?" with the rhetorical chorus: "How do you hold a moonbeam in your hand?"

And well they might ask because that's the kind of character Maria turns out to be. A bright, cheerful, optimistic character, Maria is expected to effervesce on stage. Ms. Alden handled the task without being too gooey about it.

Absolutely unmoved . . . maybe — Bob Molloy as Captain Von Trapp seems half-tempted by the schemes of attractive Elsa Schraeder, played by Jo Ann Usinowicz. "The Sound of Music" runs another weekend at Family Playhouse.

Letters/cont.

This past week, I was approaching a local store to purchase a newspaper, a car pulled up with the Town Clerk, who asked me to wait for him, he then pulled out the award from his auto with this remark, "Tony, the Mayor asked me to give you this."

I was never so humiliated and insulted in my life. Being a taxpayer and resident of our town for 40 years, to be treated in this manner.

I just cannot understand how a person can achieve an exalted position as Mayor of Belleville and still hold his fellow "Towns People" in such contempt!

I wonder how Mayor Joseph McGreevy would feel if he were demeaned, as he did to me.

If this is an example of his leadership, I then fear the future of our good town.

Runners smack the track's lack

To The Editor:

We are writing this letter to illustrate the deplorable conditions of the so-called Belleville track.

As members of the Varsity Track Team, we have had many instances where runners have sustained injuries. These injuries have affected their performances. The poor conditions of the track present a dangerous hazard to the amateur runner. Since this is a varsity high school sport we deserve at least equal if not better facilities than the precious baseball and football sporting grounds.

Would it be asking too much for a properly conditioned track? It does not bother us greatly that we must run on a dirt base where cinders should be present. The major problem which is presented to us is the rocks and stones which compare almost equally to the Appalachian foothills. So it is our belief that track improvements should be given some thought.

Don't politick on promotions

To the Editor:

This letter pertains to the appointments for promotion in the Police and Fire Departments in the Town of Belleville, N.J.

I believe, at the present time, there are openings for a Police Captain, Deputy Fire Chief and a Fire Captain. Civil Service examinations were held for these positions, and a list of eligible candidates, according to their qualifications, was published.

The reason for holding a promotional exam is to have a qualified candidate available when an opening occurs in a Civil Service position. There have been openings in both the police and fire departments for over one year now, and still no appointments have been made from the lists of qualified candidates.

Why? What can be the reason?

There are rumors around that all, or part, of these promotions will be made just prior to the election for Town Commission.

This, to me, means there may be politics involved. I sincerely hope this is not so, because I believe promotions for these ranks should not be politically motivated. Civil Service publishes these lists of eligible candidates according to the grades attained by each candidate. These promotions should be made by the appointing authority from the top of these lists, unless there is a well justified reason for not doing so.

Why can't these positions be filled immediately, to prevent these men from becoming political pawns?

Fun made for funds

To The Editor:

The Evening Membership Department of the Woman's Club of Belleville would like to extend its thanks to all those who helped make the Easter Bunny Headquarters fund raiser a great success and will long be remembered for having contributed immeasurably to the success of our activity.

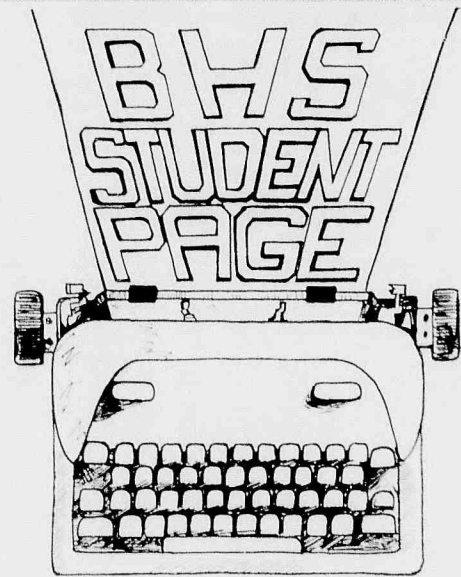

Our sincere thanks also to the members of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce and the participating merchants of town, in making arrangements to make it all possible.

We are also grateful to the Mayor and Commissioners, the Fire Department, Police Department, Board of Education, Town Recreation Department and our many friends who supported us by having their children's pictures taken with the Easter Bunny.

Musicians back from trip; 'Foran-ers' here tomorrow

By KATHI HAMMELL

The Joseph A. Foran High School of Milford, Connecticut was honored recently by the presence of the Belleville High School Chorus and Orchestra for approximately 40 hours as they participated in the first part of a musical exchange between the two schools.

Members of the chorus and orchestra visited Milford, Connecticut on March 13, 14, and 15. The band and chorus of the Joseph A. Foran High School will visit Belleville and perform tomorrow.

Three buses containing members of Belleville's high school chorus and orchestra and their equipment and other paraphernalia set off for Milford at 3:30 Thursday, March 13. Two hours later those same three buses pulled up in front of the Joseph A. Foran High School. Gathering their luggage and other things, Belleville students trooped inside to the auditorium alongside of Foran students, who eagerly welcomed them.

Once inside, the Belleville students were quickly matched up with their Foran hosts, families of the Foran music students who graciously took Belleville students into their homes during Belleville's stay in Milford.

After a dinner at their hosts' houses, Belleville students and Foran students met at the school for rehearsal. The choruses practiced their combined numbers, "Day By Day" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" while the orchestra and band practiced their combined numbers, "Jesus Christ, Superstar" and the "1812 Overture."

A dance was planned for the rest of the evening. The students listened and danced to music played by a group of Foran students who were joined by a few Belleville students. At 11 a.m. some pretty tired students cleaned up the cafeteria where they had been dancing and went to their homes.

Friday the 14 found students getting up early to be at school by 7:45 where another rehearsal awaited them. Following a long rehearsal, Belleville students toured Foran High School which they found different and interesting.

Next on Belleville's agenda was a concert for the students of the Joseph A. Foran High School. Enthusiastic applause greeted each number.

The rest of the afternoon was spent socializing with Foran students while Belleville students also enjoyed swimming in the Olympic size swimming pool, playing basketball or volleyball in one of the three gyms or seeing the show in the planetarium, all facilities of the high school.

That night, at a concert for the people of Milford, the Belleville High School Chorus and Orchestra performed separately and in combination with Foran's Band and Chorus. For a finale the combined choruses and combined orchestra and band performed "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Another dance followed the concert with parents also in attendance. It was a group of tired but happy students who left for home at 11 p.m.

Saturday, March 15, at 9:30 a.m. the three buses that had pulled up in front of the Joseph A. Foran High School reluctantly pulled away leaving new-found friends behind.

Enroute to Belleville one bus went to the Phillipsburg Manor and the other two buses went to the Van Cortlandt Manor. Both manors are part of the Sleepy Hollow Restoration but the Van Cortlandt Manor is a few miles away from the other. Unfortunately the full group of Belleville students was unable to be accommodated so hence the split up of the three buses.

After a morning of touring, the three buses met at the Tappan Hill Restaurant in Tarrytown for a banquet of stuffed chicken. Many pictures were taken and the whole trip was rehearsed by the participants, toasts were drunk to Mr. Tom Finetti, Mr. Louis Kosma and the students themselves. After a delicious dinner the students boarded their buses and went off to tour the manor they hadn't seen.

The buses arrived back in Belleville around 6 p.m. greeted by parents who eagerly asked about the trip. Glowing faces told the story of a successful venture.

Who's Taki?

By JOE ANN CALABRO

What is "Taki 183?" This a question you may be asking yourself right this very minute.

To some people who have seen it written on a wall or subway it's just a strange name. But in reality, Taki is a seventeen year old Manhattan teenager who has taken to a life of graffiti. In his many travels from the streets of New York City to New Jersey and Connecticut, among other places, Taki has left his name and number to carry on.

Taki isn't exactly the most common name for a young boy; it was found to be the Greek diminutive for Demetrius. The 183 stands for 183rd Street between Audubon and Amsterdam Avenues, the home of the "artist."

Since his graffiti career began, Taki has made many pen pals. Taki, who is considered the graffiti king to many teenagers in his neighborhood, has influenced a large band of followers. Among these imitators are Joe 136, Barbara 62, Yank 135, and Leo 136. It is obvious that Taki has become quite a celebrity among the graffiti lovers. Whenever his friends introduce him to anyone, they say, "This is him."

His life of graffiti began when Taki started sneaking his name and number onto ice cream trucks. At the time he waww of work and needed something to pass the time. However, the form he uses isn't original, from Julio 204, who was since busted, and stopped.

The removal of graffiti in subway stations and other public places is very costly in both dollars and man hours. When told of the cost, Taki said in a previous interview, "I work, I pay taxes too and it doesn't harm anybody." He can't understand why they go after the little guy and not the campaign organizations that put stickers all over at election time.

In all this time as a street artist, Taki has never been caught in subways or on walls, although he was suspended once from school for writing on walls. Taki also got a stern lecture from a Secret Service Agent who found him writing on his car during a parade.

Taki, who plans on entering a local university, admits his passion for graffiti isn't normal. He said, "Since there are no more student deferments (for the draft) maybe I'll go to a psychiatrist and tell him I'm Taki 183. I'm sure that will be enough to get me a psychological deferment."

Taki confesses that he could never retire. He still carries a small magic marker around with him.

Belleville's 'Library Week' to feature exhibits, speakers

Have you ever played the word association game? If so, what is the first word that comes into your mind when someone says educational? Enjoyment, fun? Probably not!

You may change your mind if you visit the Belleville Public Library during National Library Week.

This program contains some interesting exhibits that are educational and amusing at the same time. This year, National Library Week will be April 13-19. Each day there will be an "Open House" from 3:30-5:30 p.m. at which cookies and coffee will be served. A special invitation is extended to the community.

Every year a week is set aside for an educational program to remind us how valuable reading is and review the facilities that are available for our use. One of the major goals of this program is to help improve and broaden the library facilities in schools and towns all over the country.

The quiet library atmosphere may change some what with all the activities planned for the immediate future. These activities included art exhibits, a historical newspaper exhibit, a book sale, various speakers, and films.

All through history there has been a need to keep the public informed on the happenings in the world. There have been newspapers for hundreds of years. Although they differ in appearance from those of today, they all served the same purpose.

A historical newspaper exhibit presented by Mr. Richard W. Spellman has brought a great deal of interest to the library. The library has already displayed Part I of this exhibit in January, which featured two papers published during Washington's term in office and others dating back as far as 325 years ago. During National Library Week, Part II will be on display. Among the newspapers on exhibit will be the Observer, The New York Herald, Harper's Weekly, the Salem Gazette, and the Gazette of the U.S. The oldest of these papers is the Observer which dates back to April 26, 1682.

The library has not forgotten the art lovers of the community. Two art exhibits will be available during National Library Week. One exhibit features the work of Mrs. T. Mallon. Mrs. Mallon is a self-educated artist has been drawing since childhood. In the past, she has exhibited in such places as, the West Hudson Art Festival and Belleville Cherry Blossom Outdoor Show. All interested in seeing Mrs. Mallon's art work will find it in the Adult Department of the library.

Also on display will be forty-five new art reproductions by well-known modern and classical artists. These pictures are framed in plexiglass and aluminum.

Other people and activities will also be taking place during this week. Among them are Ruth S. Ballon, whose topic is "Consumer frauds," and Elaine Landau, author of a children's book who will discuss "Sexism in Literature." The Bell Telephone Company will present, "Ten Minutes for Safety."

Last the library will hold its semi-annual book sale on April 19 from 10 a.m. 5 p.m. This is an opportunity to donate either books or your help, all interested are asked to contact Mr. Hickey or Mrs. Cohen at 759-9200.

"How could I have been unaware of all that will be going on at the library?" This is a question that might be going through your mind now.

Thanks to Mrs. Andrea Cohen, assistant director of the library, citizens of Belleville will no longer have this problem. Mrs. Cohen has prepared a handbook of the Belleville Public Library 1974-1975. All handbooks will be distributed during National Library Week. This handbook will have various information about the library and its facilities.

Key Club is named best in its division

By FRED LARDARO

On March 21-23, the Jersey District of Key Club International held its annual convention at the beautiful Mount Airy Lodge. However the 86 clubs represented of the state's 179 did not assemble merely to a good time but to organize future plans and to elect new state officials.

The Belleville club was represented by a Senior officer Anthony Santinelli and president elect for 1976, Dave Ritacco along with the Kiwanis advisor John Bruno.

The Belleville club was represented by a Senior officer Anthony Santinelli and president elect for 1976, Dave Ritacco along with the Kiwanis advisor John Bruno.

The Belleville group did exceptionally well, receiving all of the Division III awards. Named as the finest club in Division II, Belleville was one of but 17 such honored clubs providing themselves beyond a shadow of a doubt as one of the most active and most service-minded clubs in the state.

1974-75 Secretary Dave Ritacco was selected as the division's outstanding secretary in an organization where so many responsibilities rest upon his shoulders. It was his punctual completion of the monthly report forms sent out to the State and International offices which allowed both offices to observe the progress of the Belleville club.

Finding part-time work may be a full-time job

By JUDY HALBERT

Anyone who has ever had a part time job knows exactly what to expect: The many hours involved, the special qualifications needed the types of dress appropriate for that type of employment, the transportation and, of course, the salary. All these things must be taken into consideration.

The hours of part time employment usually are between five and 20 hours per week and hardly ever exceed 30. This involves about five to six hours each day. However, the part time jobs involving less hours usually require only three to four days of the employee's week. Also anyone under 18 may not be allowed to work more than eight hours a day.

Usually the student applying for a job under the age of 18 will be required to obtain working papers. Working papers have two forms: one for the employer to fill out giving the type of work, how many hours, and the salary, the second form to be filled out by the family or school physician and requires a medical examination.

The type of dress required depends mostly on the type of job. A girl applying for a job as a waitress, a dental receptionist, or working in a beauty salon or bakery may be required to wear a uniform. Working in an office or department store requires more formal dress. Supermarkets, superettes, and "delis" usually ask that the cashier wear a smock and in some larger stores the boys wear a tie.

The biggest problem for some students is finding employment when also involved in activities in the school. These activities may occupy their time for a few months and then they are left with spare time after school. However other students are involved in activities all the school year. Many can seek employment no interfering with after school practices and meetings or jobs just involving a few hours a week. For other students who are only involved for a part of the school year, jobs may be applied for after their activity has ended or if they are badly needed or especially good at the job, the employer may be willing to arrange a non-conflicting schedule.

Many employers prefer to hire high school students as part time help because of their flexibility. They are more willing to work late afternoon — evening shifts and holidays. Also many teenagers are readily available to fill in on short notice in case of emergency.

Anyone who is seeking summer employment had better apply as soon as possible in order to receive the job. Unless there is a person who can help obtain a job for a student, summer jobs will be somewhat difficult to find.

Divided on abortion

By REGINA RITACCO

After years of debate, abortion is still a major issue. This is a small survey taken of a few Belleville High School students about their personal views of abortion.

Chris Manning: "I feel that abortion should be legalized but no abortion should be performed on any woman over three months pregnant."

Peggy Bennett: "I feel that abortion should be legal only in the case of rape or serious illness of the mother. Otherwise I feel it is the murder of another human being."

Diane Carissimo: "It's up to the individual but, personally, I know I would never be able to handle it emotionally."

Fred Lardaro: "If it's necessary then it's necessary, but if it's not then it's definitely wrong."

Joan Coppla: "I don't really know how I feel about abortion. I wouldn't do it, but if someone else wants to, let them."

Jennifer Cisero: "The decision of abortion should be left up to the parents concerned. The state should have no right or say in the personal business of its citizens."

Dave Ritacco: "As far as the responsibility of it goes, it's not the doctor's, it's the patient's. As far as the morality of it, different people have different morals and as long as no one tries to abort anyone else's baby, it's perfectly fine."

Carole Hoehe: "since birth control and adoption are available, and most methods of abortion are really cruel, I don't believe in it."

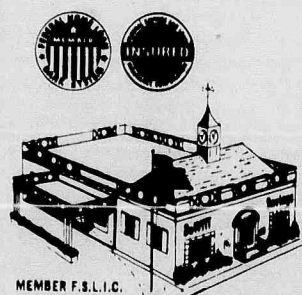

Diane Giansanti: "In many cases an abortion is necessary for a woman to have, but if it's not, abortion is morally wrong. It's inhuman for a human being to take another life and destroy it. The baby doesn't have the ability to speak, but surely it has feelings."

10 reasons why it pays to be Howard powered.

If you have to answer "no" to any of these 10 questions, New Jersey's billion dollar mutual savings bank should be your bank.

1 Are you getting 5½% on your Regular Savings?

That's the highest allowed by law and it's the lowest of the rates the Howard pays. The Howard's higher-interest Time Savings Accounts are available for any amount from $500 up, for periods of from 1 year on.

2 Do you get that interest monthly?

Quarterly interest can cost you. At the Howard, interest is credited monthly and can even be mailed to you—from Regular or Time Savings Accounts—for convenient regular income.

3 Is your interest compounded continuously from day of deposit to day of withdrawal?

As long as you leave at least $10 in till the end of the month to keep your account open, you will receive every penny of interest earned right up to the day you withdraw the money.

4 Do you have absolutely FREE checking?

With the Howard's Scotfree Checking you don't even have to pay for the checks (unless you want the special decorative checks). There's no charge per check used—no monthly service charge—no annual service charge. No minimum balance is required once you open the account with at least $100.

5 Can you cash checks easily up to the balance of your account?

We'd be surprised if you could. But at the Howard, you can get a special check-cashing Identification Card with your savings or checking account. It lets you cash just about any check at any of the Howard's offices as long as there's enough in either your Howard Checking Account or Savings Account to cover it. That's Howard powered service!

6 Does your Christmas Club or Hanukah Club or Vacation Club pay 5½% interest?

They do at the Howard. And you earn interest even if you can't complete your club. What's more, you can actually pick your Vacation Club completion date to coincide with your next vacation. And that's better than a piece of costume jewelry. Right?

7 Do you have a tax-deductible retirement plan?

The Howard has two tax-deductible retirement plans. If you're gainfully employed, and don't have a retirement plan, you can start a Howard Individual Retirement Account (IRA). If you're self-employed, no matter how much or little you earn, you can start a Howard Retirement Benefit Account (Keogh Plan). In either plan, the money you invest is tax-deductible, and the taxes on the interest your investment earns are deferred until you begin to collect at retirement.

8 Do you have the assistance of a Personal Trust Department?

The Howard has had a Trust Department for almost half a century, assisting people of above-average means in planning and settling estates and trusts. The Trust Department also offers custodian and investment advisory service.

9 Can you bank by mail, with free postage both ways?

At the Howard, deposits and withdrawals can be made in the convenience of your own home or office. Savings accounts or checking accounts, you never have to appear in person once they're open. And you can deposit or withdraw in person at any Howard office, no matter which one has your account.

10 Have you been able to get a Mortgage or Home Improvement Loan?

If you qualify, the money is there for you at the Howard. Homes, businesses, schools, churches and hospitals have been built with Howard help throughout New Jersey since 1857.

FACTS ABOUT THE HOWARD

- Established in 1857, New Jersey's largest mutual savings bank has $1.3 billion in deposits.
- The Howard paid depositors $73 million in interest during 1974.
- Today the Howard has close to a billion dollars invested in New Jersey homes, schools, hospitals, churches and business buildings.
- There are over 430 thousand Howard Savings Accounts. Over 32 thousand thrifty money managers have a Howard Scotfree Checking Account.
- As a Mutual Savings Bank, the Howard has no stockholders and is responsible only to its depositors.

Seymour Grossman testimonial Sunday

Congregation Ahavath Achim of Belleville will hold its fifty-second Annual Dinner Dance on Sunday

Seymour Grossman

Mountainside's 'Spring Fling' on April 24

The annual fund-raising event, "Spring Fling," sponsored by the Auxiliary of The Mountainside Hospital, is scheduled for April 24 at The Manor in West Orange.

The event features a luncheon, bridge, and a fashion show by Tres-J, a Montclair boutique. Co-chairmen are Mrs. John Riordan of North Caldwell and Mrs. T. Kevin Dunnigan of Upper Montclair, and proceeds will further improve the auxiliary's Hospitality Shop.

The program begins at noon and tickets are $8 a person or $32 a table and are available at the volunteer office in Mountainside.

The Hospitality Shop, founded in 1935 by Mrs. Ralph R. Lounsbury, honorary auxiliary and hospital trustee from 1947 to 1959, celebrates its fortieth anniversary this year.

"Spring Fling" reservations chairmen are Mrs. Mortimer J. Fox, Jr. of Montclair, Mrs. Franklin E. Pellegri of Verona, and Mrs. Carl Gehron of Bloomfield. Invitations chairman is Mrs. Gerard G. Podesta of Glen Ridge.

Serving on the decorations committee are Mrs. Hans Guenther of Upper Montclair, Mrs. William Brenn of Upper Montclair, and Mrs. Richard C. Ferguson of Upper Montclair.

It's very easy for people to persuade themselves that they are being mistreated.

evening, April 13, at the Synagogue in Sisterhood Hall.

The Dinner Dance will be a testimonial in honor of Seymour Grossman. Mr. Grossman is presently the Assistant Superintendent of Schools in the Belleville Public School System.

Seymour Grossman came to Belleville in 1947. As a member of Congregation Ahavath Achim, he has served as a Sunday School teacher, Chairman of the Ritual Committee, chairman of the Building Fund Campaign, President of the P.T.A., and a member of the Board of Trustees.

He has been a teacher of English in the Belleville High School, Principal of School Number Seven, Director of the Adult School, and the first Principal of the Belleville Junior High School.

Mr. Grossman has been active in the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis Association, United Fund, Family Counseling Service, American Red Cross, Heart Fund, March of Dimes, United Jewish Fund and the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital Building Fund. He has been President of the Belleville Kiwanis Club.

Irving Berkowitz is President of Congregation Ahavath Achim. Mrs. David Robbins and Mrs. William Taffet are Dinner Dance co-chairmen. Mrs. Seymour Fersko and Mrs. Irving Berkowitz are in charge of reservations, and Mrs. David Schreier is Journal Chairman.

Tri-Towners will attend spring seminar

Representatives of Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, N.J. Inc. will be attending the Spring Seminar of the New Jersey State Federation of BPW Clubs on April 12th at the National Conference Center in Hightstown. Registration for the seminar is at 9 a.m. and will be conducted by a professional training consultant accustomed to training middle and upper level managers in programs of executive development. Linking Career Goals to Life Planning will be his theme.

The seminar will define how to develop career goals, how to develop a life plan into which the goals fit and how to relate these to your employer's corporate goals.

Necessary materials will be supplied and there will be two 3-hour lectures and workshops. The seminar will be concluded by 5 p.m.

Ryder-Marino nuptials held in Sacred Heart Cathedral

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryder - nee Sally Ann Marino

Wedding vows were exchanged November 9, 1974 in Sacred Heart Cathedral by Miss Sally Ann Joyce Marino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore J. Marino of 344 Park Avenue and John Patrick Ryder Jr., son of Mrs. Lois Ryder and the late Mr. John Ryder, formerly of Nutley.

The Rev. Henry Junciewicz of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Forest Hill Country Club, Bloomfield.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore an old fashion gown of ivory accented with Belgium lace and fashioned with long sleeves. White beaded pearls trimmed the bodice. A headpiece of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried yellow and white roses.

Mrs. Virginia Connor of Nutley was matron of honor. B desmaids included the bride's sister, Mrs. Arlene Marion of Belleville, Mrs. Eileen Goldman of Oyster Bay, New York and Miss Lisa Rapsas of Nutley. Flower girl was Kirsten Ryder, niece of the groom and Cheryl Ann Marion, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

They were attired in brown velvet skirts and vests with giana blouses in autumn colors of ivory, peach, aqua and gold. Bouquets of carnations matched their blouses with the honor attendant carrying carnations in autumn colors.

Cheryl and Kirsten wore giana dresses of green and yellow with brown velvet jumpers over them and carried baskets of flowers.

William Ryder of Kearny served his brother as best man. Ushering were Gary Finklestein of Pennsylvania, Bob Paolini of Vermont, Allen Marion, nephew of the bride and Michael Ryder of Nutley. Ring bearer was Kevin Marion, nephew of the bride.

Mrs. Marion chose a pink mauve knit gown with matching jacket accented with ostrich feathers. Her corsage was of pink roses. The groom's mother was in a silver gown with long sleeves and had a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Ryder, an alumna of Nutley High School, Fairleigh Dickinson University and Jersey City State College, is a kindergarten teacher at Spring Garden and Yantacaw schools.

Mr. Ryder, a graduate of Nutley High School, Albright College and Villanova Law School, is an attorney, formerly with the Office of Public Defender and currently with the Legal Aid Law Firm, Morristown.

The couple honeymooned in Manhattan and are living in Belleville.

Hawaiian honeymoon for the Racanellis

The marriage of Ms. Theresa Arre Pisapia, daughter of Mrs. Assunta Arre of Newark and the late Mr. Patsy Arre to Joseph Racanelli Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Racanelli Sr. of 59 Parkside Drive took place April 6 at Carbone's Restaurant, Harrison, where a reception was held following the ceremony performed by the Rev. Samuel Thomas.

The bride, given in marriage by Daniel Arre of Belleville wore a full length pink gown.

Mrs. Ann Connolly of Kearny was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Ms. Katherine Connolly of Kearny, Ms. Virginia Racanelli of Belleville, Ms. Karen Arre of Belleville and Ms. Elizabeth Bernstein of Edison. Patricia Pisapia was junior bridesmaid.

Frank Racanelli of Belleville served as best man. Ushering were Matthew Apolonia of Union, Billy Connolly of Kearny, Frank James, Joseph and Louis Racanelli of Belleville and Ben Arre of North Arlington.

Mrs. Racanelli, a graduate of Central High School, Newark, is with Walsh Bros. Trucking Company, Newark.

Mr. Racanelli, an alumnus of Barringer High School, served with the Army in Germany and is with the N.J. Department of Labor & Industry.

The couple are honeymooning in California and Hawaii and will live in Kearny.

Town registrar briefs women on benefits

After the regular business meeting of The Woman's Club of Belleville March 10th Miss Margaret Macmillan, Social Services Chairman, introduced Ralph Risoli, Town Registrar. Mr. Risoli gave a very interesting and informative talk on the many health, social and transportation benefits the senior citizens of Belleville can enjoy and appreciate. Mrs. O'Toole, Welfare, was a special guest.

As part of the opening exercises Mrs. Chauncey Keeney read facts concerning the American's Creed by William Tyler Page. Miss Andree has an autographed copy of the Creed.

Miss Linnea Andree, First Vice President, presided for the vacationing President, Mrs. W. Douglas Clark.

Refreshment hostesses were — Chairman Mrs. William Kinloch, Asst. Chairman Miss Frances Zeiss, Miss Dorothy Allaire, Mrs. Ernest Arvidson.

Masons group to celebrate 78th year

The Past Masters' Masonic Association of Essex County will celebrate its 78th Anniversary with a dinner dance to be held at Salaam Temple, 369 East Mt. Pleasant Avenue Livingston Sunday, April 13.

All proceeds from the affair will benefit the Masonic Scholarship Foundation. Right Worshipful Ephraim Schechner is president of the Foundation which awards yearly scholarships to college students who are sons and daughters of Masons.

Awards this year will be made to Michael Anthony Galloto of Fairfield, Mary Lynne Fischer of Glen Ridge and Amy Marcia Goldgarb of Verona. Honored guests will include Most Worshipful Malcolm B. Wernik, Grand Master of Masons for the State of New Jersey and his elective line of officers.

Association officers for 1975 include Edward S. Ness, president; Douglas R. Horman, first vice president; Willis E. Allen, second vice president; Arthur J. Gabosch, secretary; Richard Peterson, treasurer; Arthur S. Nadel chaplain and Mr. Schechner.

TRICIA SPILLANE, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Doyle, Braille Department chairman of the Junior Woman's Club, tries on a poncho offered for sale in the Mobile Craft Shop Bus which visited Belleville March 21 and 22.

Mature Singles Mobile Craft Bus wine, cheese party April 17 stopped in Belleville

The Mature Singles of Nutley will hold a wine and cheese party on April 17th, during which time a handwriting analyst will conduct a demonstration. The affair will be held in St. Mary's school basement beginning at 8:00 p.m. Monsignor Owens Place, Nutley.

The club is open to all single, widowed or divorced persons in the area.

On March 21 and March 22 the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville sponsored the Mobile Craft Shop Bus of the New Jersey Commission for the Blind at the Pathmark, Belleville.

The bus tours the state and has a display of items for sale which are made by homebound blind people. Members of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville under Mrs. Joseph Doyle, Braille Department Chairman, manned the bus for its two day stint in Belleville.

Many people browsed and shopped resulting in $210 worth of sales. The revenue collected acts as a source of income for the homebound blind person.

Anyone who missed seeing the bus should watch the local newspapers for the place and dates of future visits in neighboring communities.

Tickets for adults only $1.75. Sure to be a treat for the whole family. Other club... potential new member is Steve Frank. He and his wife Evelyn operate "Gateway to Pleasure" offering bands, etc. Steve is now also representing Neil Fitzpatrick, a Kiwanis member. Neil plays the piano and sings superbly. Need talent? phone Steve at 759-2130. Birthday congrats are in order for Steve Fox and Kiwanis ladies Lillian Pitt and Rose Gonnello... see you at the Breakfast.

John D. Simon of Melwex Street had the honor recently of being inducted to the Half Century Club of the New Jersey Banker's Association. A Belleville resident since 1945 and in banking for 50 years, he has no intention of retiring... He is associated with the First National State Bank of Newark. Congratulations.

Didn't get the news in time to tell you, but last week the Annual March of Dimes Benefit games were played at St. Peter's with both grammar school and high school boys and girls participating.

Dontcha' have just a little bit of time to help? The Belleville District, American Red Cross needs drivers desperately. Half a day, a few hours, anything will help so the Red Cross can continue their services in taking sick people to hospitals, etc. Please call Sophie Bade at 759-4610 and tell her you'll help.

Speaking of Sophie and her husband Len, news comes that daughter Arlene and Dan Pustizzi are expecting their first child. Another daughter Janice and Frank Fanelli recently adopted a son named Danny. They have another son, Michael. another daughter Nan and David Harris have three children Scott, Jim and JoAnn... did I get that all o.k., Sophie? I just can't keep your grandchildren straight.

Here's a treat in store for all. Lou Cosma of the BHS orchestra tells that BHS will play host Friday night April 11 to members of the Joseph A. Foran High School band and chorus of Milford, Connecticut, as part of an exchange program. BHS chorus and orchestra members went to Milford in March. The students stayed at various homes and now it is turnabout as the Connecticut students perform at BHS. They will arrive on the 10th, stay at Belleville homes, perform Friday evening and depart on the 12th. Tickets are $1.50 and there will be some combined numbers with BHS and the Connecticut students. A musical review will highlight the show. After the show, all will be invited to the cafeteria (the audience, too) for hamburgers, potato chips, etc.

Miss Kathy Reedinger and her partner of "The Plantation!! Olga Dougard make and sell terrariums, a very interesting item. They make all kinds and all colors and recently exhibited at Christ Episcopal Church. Need a terrarium? Call Kathy at 751-1046.

Mothers, your prayers are answered. On Saturday, April 12th, from 10 a.m. to noon, St. Peter's and the Senior Girl Scouts of Belleville will host a Variety Show which will feature clowns, magicians, door prizes, etc.

This is especially geared for grammar school kids, admission only $1... so, get rid of the kinds for awhile.

Miss Trudy O'Connell is real sad these days. She lost her savings account book somewhere between People's Bank and her home on Dow Street. With bank rules, she can't add to her account or take out her savings... can you help? Please turn the book into People's Bank.

CAMPAIGN TRAIL

It was cherry pink and apple blossom white this week as Commissioner Mary Vuono Senator opened her campaign headquarters across from People's Bank on Washington Avenue. The decorations, signs and motif were all hot pink and done by the Belleville Young Democrats. Many friends and supporters were on hand and the crowd flowed out into the street. Some commission candidates were there also... let's take a peek: Rev. Pascale, Jack Gorman, Irene Decker, Mildred Benaquista, Tony Agresti, Chester Prosperi, Harry Scott, to name a few.

It was a dual celebration for the lady commissioner, as April 1 was also her birthday. She arrived dressed in a black suit with bright pink flowers and was escorted to the front of the room by a bevy of young gals supporting straw hats naturally labeled "Senator." Donna Monticello — president of the Young Dems and owner of Mondo Kane beauty salon, tells me the Young Dems spread cheer recently by visiting the Geriatrics Center at Soho and distributing flowers and easter eggs. Membership in the Young Dems is open to those 18-35. They meet the First Thursday of the month at the NuPlaz at 9. Music was by "Utopea."

Kate Burke was there looking lovely in a brown cape. She and Junior Carragher had been named King and Queen at the Senator Civic & Welfare Association St. Pat's Dinner. Sy Grossman, Mario DiMaggio, Caesar Romano and a host of Senior Citizens were there (P.S. the Seniors will have a float in the Cherry Blossom Parade). Helen Barra, Mary Senator's sister, Ken Smith, Rita Hoban, George Mitchell, Jerry Macaluso, Tom Nisivoccia, Larry and Sue Schwartz, Tom Nisivoccia, Larry and Sue Schwartz, Tom Salzano... oh... everybody was there. It's important to note who sits with who during this campaign. Others seen were Jim Risoli, Dewey Imhoff, Izzy Padula, Phil Rotundo, county supervisor, Mike Audobato, Joe Biancardi, Joe Cuzzo — secretary to Congressman Minish, Rev. Goldston, Nick Caputo and Deputy Chief Haight.

Commissioner Senator, introduced by Joe Vuono, her campaign manager and nephew, gave many interesting facts refuting the recent allegations in the papers. She said these facts were available to anyone. She spoke about the threats to her life and the demanding job it is to be in public office. Many times during her speech, cheers rose from the audience. She said Belleville is a good town needing dedicated leadership and, emphasized she is an independent candidate. At the conclusion, a huge birthday cake was presented. My forecast — Mrs. Senator will have a tough fight, but will come out strong in the May election. Next week's Campaign Trail will feature Rocco Saletta.

Preserving yesterday's traditions

by Helen Maguire

A FRIEND and I were discussing dancing lessons for little girls a few weeks ago, coming to the mutual conclusion that what we really wanted for our daughters were exercises that would help them develop grace and poise and coordination. "I would also like them to know the ethnic dances," I commented, referring in our case, particularly, to the Scotch and Irish reels and jigs. If, however, I were going to go the whole way and cover all their antecedents, I would be forced to include a few sessions on Indian rain dancing and war whooping. "I really feel," I continued, "that kids today miss so much if they don't know something of the culture of their ancestors." My belief was reinforced tenfold Tuesday.

THE PROGRAM at St. Paul's Woman's

Guild's monthly luncheon meeting featured Miss Rose Greco, founder of the Italian Folklore Group of Montclair, who spoke on Italian Renaissance folklore and did a sprightly Tarantella as a finale.

In addition to wearing an authentic and very colorful costume, she brought with her several musical instruments including a donkey's collar, resplendent with jewel-like stones and mirrors and covered with dozens of little bells, a tambourine, a piece of wooden washboard with tambourine cymbals (and I'm sure they're called something else) attached, which was stroked with what looked like a chair rung and a beautifully decorated Sicilian water jug, into which one blew and produced a hooting sound. "All I ever produce is dust," quipped Miss Greco who went on to explain some of the folklore of various provinces in Italy and did so with such flair that I kept hoping she would finish before I had to leave to pick up the choir kids at Spring Garden. I didn't want to miss anything.

DID YOU KNOW, for instance, that a woman in Catania would never use a new broom for the first time in the month of August for superstition held that if she did, her husband would die? ("This opens up possibilities!" smiled Miss Greco). That someone with a problem would appeal first to the Saint and if the Saint wasn't swift enough with a solution, would revert to the witches, black witches to put the whammy on someone, white witches to have the whammy removed from you? That from an insect bite (the tarantula's) we get a dance and some lovely music (the tarantella)? That the large hatpin which holds the costume's headpiece in place is representative of the stiletto which, in bygone years, also served as a handy weapon when the ladies went up to get water from the mountain streams? That the donkey, essential to the economy of the peasants, was considered part of the family and one folk song tells of a man who feels it would have been far better if he had lost his wife instead of his donkey (really!)?

I CAN'T do justice to Miss Greco but I can applaud what she is doing in keeping alive the traditions, music and dance of the land of her forebears. I hope I have success some day in the near future when I try to wrestle some of the young Maguires into kilts.

Juniors 'clear out' treasury

MRS. EDWARD CALLAHAN, director of the Therapeutic Nursery School of the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, accepts a check for $442 which will be used to purchase furnishings for the nursery school playroom. Flanking Mrs. Callahan are Mrs. Thomas Spillane and Mrs. Emil Nardachone of the Junior Woman's Club.

MRS. VIOLA VERNICK, executive director of the Cerebral Palsy Center of Essex and West Hudson, accepts a check for $442 which will be used to purchase a wheelchair for the Center from Mrs. Emil Nardachone of the Junior Woman's Club.

DANIEL CORDASCO, assistant public relations director of the Mt. Carmel Guild Multi-Services Center, accepts a check for $355 presented by Mrs. Robert McGough, president of the club and Mrs. Philip Ciaravino, project chairman. The money will be used for a newly formed department of the Guild, the Children's Mental Health Services Clinic.

$3000 given to charities

On March 24 members of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville met to disperse the $3000 they had raised for charity this past year. This money was divided among the local, state and individuals that the Juniors support.

Representatives of the three largest recipients were on hand to personally accept the donation. These included Mrs. Viola Vernick of the Cerebral Palsy Center of Essex and West Hudson; Daniel Cordasco of the Mt. Carmel Guild Multi-Services Center; and Mrs. Edward Callahan of the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley.

In addition to these charities money was donated to the many agencies supported by the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, the Craig Fabian Fund, the James Campanella Fund, local needy families and many others.

Stork Club Association dance chairmen told

Laura A. Agostino

A third child, a daughter, Laura Anne was born to Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Agostino of Nutley March 19 at St. Barnabas Hospital. Birth weight was 6 lbs. ½ oz. She joins Frank, 9 and Robert, 7.

Mrs. Agostino is the former Barbara M. Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoffman of Carpenter Street. Mr. Agostino, son of Mrs. Frank Agostino of Bloomfield and the late Mr. Agostino, is owner of Agostino and Son Inc., Nutley.

A well-fed cat is not a fat cat; a fat cat is a badly fed cat. In feeding a mature cat, a good rule to follow is this: the less it eats, as long as you keep it in sound condition, the healthier it will be and the longer it will live. It's relatively easy to put together a complete and balanced diet that will appeal to the most finicky feline.

The number of meals a day you feed your cat pretty much depends on your own schedule. Two smaller meals are better than one large one, especially as your cat grows older.

Tom Tucci the general chairman of the Essex County Civic Association annual dinner dance has announced his appointed committee chairmen.

Frank Sacco of Newark is co-chairman and in charge of the arrangements for the guests. Richard Biase of Belleville is ad chairman. Both men are members of long standing and very active within the organization.

Mary Pasquarosa the ticket chairman has informed the committee that tickets sales are progressing nicely. A large turnout is predicted.

Marie DeMaio of Bloomfield, a past President of the Ladies Auxiliary is coordinating chairman between the committee and Ladies Auxiliary.

James Baker of Bloomfield is the seating chairman. Baker has been a continuous dance committee member since the club was founded by Dominick and Spina 16 years ago.

Cosmopolitan Club to hear local singer

The April meeting of the Cosmopolitan Club of Montclair will be held at the Woman's Club of Upper Montclair on Saturday, April 12. Dessert will be served at 7:30 p.m. and the meeting will start at 8:30 p.m. The program and dancing will follow until 1 a.m.

The featured artist will be the well-known singer, Leslie Holmes, a local girl who has achieved success. Ms. Holmes will present a program of popular and classical songs.

The Tea for International guests will be held at the home of Rear Admiral and Mrs. James McNally. Mrs. Peter Swenson is Tea Chairman. The Acquaintanceship Tea will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Allen Crunden. Mrs. Peter Popoff is the Tea Chairman. Herbert Soutar is the president of the Cosmopolitan Club of Montclair.

PRESENTATION — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DePiro of Nutley are shown presenting a check to Viola Vernick, Executive Director of Cerebral Palsy Essex & West Hudson. The presentation was made at the third annual dinner dance of the Cousin's Club of Nutley-Lyndhurst, held at San Carlo Restaurant. The group has raised over $1000 for the benefit of the Center.

Montessori School involves parents in planning program

The Academy Montessori International, located in Montclair, held a monthly Parent Association meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Grant, Kumar Kar, director of the school, led a discussion of the future plans and development of the school which is seeking to involve parents in its plans and programs.

Officers of the Association include Ms. Patricia Grant, President; Dr. William M. Balkay, vice president; Ms. Margaret Ryan, secretary and Ms. Liz Ploth, fund raising.

The school will participate in the May 10 Montessori Marathon. The conference will be followed by an International Buffet dinner.

Cat food

There is probably no pet animal today with a wider variety of prepared food at its disposal than the cat. Cans and packages of moist and dry cat food line the pet food shelves of your supermarket. Your cat could live entirely on commercial foods, although it may not be willing to do so. Hearty eaters are rarely bothered by a monotonous diet; choosy cats may require a constant change. Many, however, thrive on a combination of prepared foods and fresh foods.

There are many fine foods your cat can enjoy in addition to the commercially marketed varieties. These include: dairy and poultry products such as milk (fresh, dried skim, evaporated, goat's), cottage cheese, eggs (especially the yolk), and custard; salt-water fish high in iodine (salmon, tuna, cod and shrimp); grain products (rice, barley, cornflakes and whole wheat bread); meats (beef kidneys and hearts, lamb, chicken and turkey); and vegetables (carrots, spinach, leafy greens and tomatoes). Since cats have difficulty digesting carbohydrates, grains and vegetables should be steamed or cooked first. Also, it's nice to warm your pet's food before serving, because it dislikes cold food.

The kind and amount of food you feed your cat every day is usually a matter of common sense. One pet may prefer meat, another fish. One may expect milk every day of his life, while another may turn up his nose at it. There is nothing wrong in these cases except possibly you may have spoiled him. The waited-upon cat knows how to get what he wants by going on a hunger strike.

Cats do have their likes and dislikes, but sometimes, serving up dinner on a take-it-or-leave-it basis may be necessary. It's fine to give in to food preferences once in a while; however, no it on a regular basis can make feeding an irritating chore.

One down

It's one down and one to go for the Bellboys in the boathouse derby. The Blue-Gold oarsmen upset the strong Kearny squad on Saturday, and were priming up for their battle with their Nutley neighbors.

Flying start

Belleville's female softball stars jumped off to a flying start last week as they won their opener against Orange, 28-0. Pitcher Donna Stone was in top form as she pitched a no-hitter. Coach Eve Lautenschlaeger (below, left) is providing the direction for the team, and starters like Linda Diana (below, right) are putting their all into the game.

Champions

The DeWitt Rangers became the champions of the Eastern Division of the NJSHA last Sunday as they took the last of the playoff games from the Harrison Flyers, 3-2. Ranger's captain Bill Sauers got the team started on the road to winning, scoring the first goal of the game.

Z's boys trump Kards; train sights on Bengals

The Blue-Gold batmen boomed this week, destroying East Orange 16-0 last Friday, and then rolling over Kearny on Tuesday to the tune of a 13-7 score.

Tomorrow, the men travel to Bloomfield to challenge the reigning Big Ten champs on their home turf. It's been a long time since Belleville took the Bengals on the diamond, and coach George Zanfini and his men are hungering after the win.

It looks like things are beginning to click for the Bellboys and they appear to be putting together their attack and defense.

Tuesday, the Belleville nine handed the Kearny Cardinals their first loss of the season, clipping them 13-7. For a while things looked bad for the Bellboys, but they got cracking, and took control of the game to win it.

The real crisis for the team came in the fourth inning, when the Cardinals started getting mileage off pitcher Greg Petite. Zanfini wisely took Petite out of the game and let Ricky Loma take over the mound.

As Loma took the mound with the bases loaded and no outs. The Bellboys had a 5-4 lead at the time, but Kearny was like a keg of powder, just waiting to explode that lead and turn the tables on their visitors.

Loma got off to a shaky start, walking the first two men he faced, dropping Belleville from the lead, and still faced with the job of taking out three men.

Rangers clinch division title

The DeWitt Rangers battled their way to the top of the Eastern Division of the New Jersey Street Hockey Association as they defeated the Harrison Flyers, 3-2 in last Sunday's playoff game.

The Rangers will now go on to play the Passaic Clifton Canadiens, champs of the Western Division for the NJSHA title. The game will take place this Sunday at an as yet undetermined location. It will be an out of town game.

The Flyers and the Rangers met Sunday at Number Three School for the deciding game in the series. Both teams came equipped with a strong contingent of fans, cheering on the squads, and frequently screaming for blood.

Despite the threats of bloodshed before the game, and goading of spectators during the match, the whole affair went fairly well, with fights breaking out only three times. Considering the fact that it was the championship game, the play and the violence was relatively lowkeyed.

The Rangers got on the scoreboard first, putting in a goal early in the first period. Rich Vincenti got behind and to the right of the net, he maneuvered into position for a shot, but the Harrison goalie thwarted the attempt, clearing the puck behind the net. Ranger Al "G.G." Ciccone got control, and tried to stuff the puck in the net. Again, the goalie made the save, but this time, the puck went off his pads and right towards Ranger captain Bill Sauers. Sauers batted the

Please see page 12.

The top of the Kearny batting order was up, but Loma didn't rattle. The Kearny batter cracked a grounder to third, and Vic Pasquariello scooped it up, firing it home for the force out. Kearny's number three hitter, Joe Policano stepped up to the plate and cracked one right back to the box. With runners everywhere, Loma kept his head, threw the ball to home for the force there, and catcher Greg Dunleavy got it down to first in time to beat Policano and end the inning.

The Bellboys came back immediately regaining their lost ground in the next inning. They put together a series of hits that netted them enough runs to rest a little easier, and eventually take the win.

Catcher Dunleavy had a great day, connecting three out of four times at the plate, one for a homer and getting four RBIs to his credit. He also found time to throw out a base runner and make that big play in the fourth, ending the Kearny threat.

Despite the cold on Friday, the Blue-Gold diamonders ventured to East Orange to tangle with the helpless Panthers. When the smoke cleared, the EO men were worse for the wear, staggering off the field under the weight of a 16-0 loss.

Please see page 12.

Oarsmen movin'

The Belleville High School crew team turned on the steam, as they swept past Kearny in their dual meet last Saturday with wins by the varsity, jayvee, and first freshmen shells.

Yesterday, the team went against neighboring Nutley, but results came in too late for this edition of the Times/News.

This Saturday, the oarsmen travel to Philadelphia to meet Harriton, one of the tough competitors in the Philly area.

Last Saturday, the varsity team neatly defeated their Kearny rivals by five seconds, about 1 1/2 boat lengths. The race was fairly close up to the halfway mark on the river, when the Belleville crew exploded and pulled to a lead they continued to build until the end.

Coach Sam Giuffrida was pleased with his men's performance, saying, "Our win would have to be considered an upset. Kearny was coming back with the same team that beat us last year, so they had to be favored. The boys were psyched up going into the race, and that mental boost was probably one of the deciding factors."

Young swimmer to battle some of nation's finest

Belleville's Anthony Domenick will see action at the National YMCA Swimming and Diving Championships being held April 16-19 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Domenick will be competing for individual and Montclair YMCA team honors.

Domenick, a four-year member of the Montclair YMCA swim team, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Domenick of New Street.

A superb backstroke and butterfly racer, the 13-year-old swimmer is an eighth grade student at Montclair-Kimberly Academy in Montclair. He also finds time in his busy schedule to play football for the school's team.

"I really like swimming a lot," he replied when questioned. "It's a great sport."

At the 1975 national championships, Domenick is a contender in the 100 and 200-yard backstroke events as well as the 400-yard individual medley (butterfly, backstroke, breaststroke, freestyle).

He is one of Montclair's 23 finest swimmers and has met the stringent qualifying standards for eligibility to enter this national men's and women's competition open to YMCA swimmers and divers, ages 13-18.

Jetting to Ft. Lauderdale April 14, the Montclair Y squad will be accompanied by coach Joe Slowinski and assistant coaches Sue Trancillito and Paul Fisher. Months of rigorous training have preceded the trip. The swimmers have covered as much as five to six miles in one or two daily two-hour workouts.

"They're ready," says Slowinski. "These swimmers have put all their skill and determination into faster times. They're shooting for individual championships and top places in terms of team standings."

Arriving two days before competition begins, Domenick will utilize practice lanes for warmups and workouts.

Please see page 12.

Cindermen tripped up by W.O.

The cindermen of Belleville High School took to the field Tuesday, and ran head long into a tough West Orange squad, losing the meet 64-57.

Wednesday, the team faced Nutley, but results came in too late to make this edition of the Times/News. Monday, the boys host Vailsburg, a team that beat them last year, and should prove to be strong again.

The meet against West Orange on Tuesday was a hard loss for the tracksters to swallow. It was close all the way, and the outcome was finally decided when the visitors took the prize in the mile relay. If the Bellboys had taken the relay, they would have had the victory, but the scales tipped the other way.

Coach Rich Ruffalo had predicted a tough meet and he was proved right. It was a disappointing loss for the coach and his men, but they did very well considering West Orange has had a lot more practice.

"They're a better club at this stage," said Ruffalo. "They have the advantage of having an indoor track program, which we don't. So, in effect, they're coming off one season and going into the next. I feel sure that, if we met them later in the season, when we were in top form, we could have beaten them. It was right down to the wire all the way."

Ruffalo said the thing that probably hurt his team the most was their lack of second and third place finishes. It was just those few points garnered by second and third finishes that cost his men the team points they needed.

Rangers win championship

puck in mid-air past the goal tender before he switched position for the block. Sauers got the goal and Ciccone and Vincenti got the assists.

The team's second scoring opportunity came later in the first period when Dino Barretta intercepted a bad pass by a Flyer and snapped a wrist shot in to make it 2-zip, Rangers.

Harrison retaliated in the second period when their persistence finally paid off. They went on the scoreboard with a screen shot early in the period, and made a Ranger victory look questionable.

The Rangers went back to work, and early in the third period, Dave Boxer scored what turned out to be the winning goal. It seemed like it was only a matter of time that the puck would go in for the Rangers, as they rained shot after shot down on the Harrison goalie. Though he made save-after save, he finally made a mistake, and Boxer fired in the point.

Harrison proved that while they were down, they weren't out of the running as they scored once again in the third. The Rangers were keeping the pressure up down in the Flyer's end, when, for some reason unknown, the puck shot up in the air and down towards the Rangers' goal. A Harrison man was right on top of it, and blasted it past Ranger goalie Mark Lukowiak. That was it for the Flyers, however, and the game ended with the Rangers the reigning champions of the Eastern Division.

Ranger captain Bill Sauers hosted a victory celebration at his home, and event was highlighted by much spilling of beer, both down the throats of the players and over their heads. Annual awards were announced, and such dubious distinctions as worst player in the playoffs were bestowed, along with a beer shower.

Once they've recovered from the ravages of the game and the party, the team will begin warming up for their contest with the Passaic-Clifton Canadiens. The Canadiens play a game of pure hockey finesse, with little violence and a lot of stick work.

After the Canadian game, the Rangers will have to start practicing with using a tennis ball instead of a puck in preparation for their May 10 trip to Leominster, Mass. for the National Street Hockey Association championships.

They'll be playing teams from around the country, as well as representatives from Canada and other countries.

Girls win and lose

The girls' varsity softball team got off to a rocky start, winning their first game of the season by a wide margin, and dropping their second.

Just before Times/News press time, the score of the Belleville-Kearny match up was received, and the Belgirls came out on the short end of a 9-6 score.

Last Friday, the girls kicked off their season when they met East Orange High in a game that only went four innings before it became obvious to everyone there that the game was out of EO's reach. The final score of the game was 28-0, Belleville victorious.

The Belgirls romped over their opponents with pure ease. Before the game even started, it looked like a mismatch. While the Belleville women went through their warm up practice smoothly, the Orange women just couldn't seem to snare anything. When the game started, things got even worse.

Donna Stone did the pitching for the BHS team, and started out the season in style, firing a no-hitter. When one of the Panther women managed to connect, the team's fine defense went into action.

The Blue-Gold girls put away the opponents in quick order, and then took control of the bat for what seemed like never-ending periods of time. In one inning alone, the home team scored eight runs against the powerless EO fielders. The power at the plate was exemplified by Gloria Barbone and Terry Freda, as both girls connected for homers.

Try-out sessions over

The Belleville Little League Try-Out sessions have been completed for 1975 and the draft session was held on Monday. Those children picked for a Little League team will be called by their new managers.

The remaining applications for all other children will be turned over to the Recreation Department for assignment to the Farm and Peanut League.

League organizers say they would like to thank each and every person participating for their cooperation, and wish everybody a happy, safe, and successful season.

Batsmen to face Bengals

The East Orange nine never had a chance against their hard nose rivals. Loma pitched for BHS and had an outstanding day, striking out 10, walking only one, and allowing the Panthers one meager hit.

At the plate, virtually every Belboy that stepped up got a hit. The team totaled 16 hits, one for each run.

Based on their two most recent performances, it looks like coach Zanfini may have a team of winners on his hands. The Bloomfield game should be the real indicator, and the diamondmen from Belleville are determined that the indication for a winning season will be favorable.

Golfers club 'inept' foes

Competing against gale winds and what coach Michael Salzarulo called "an inept" Irvington squad, the BHS golf team soared to a 17-1 opening victory at Forest Hill Field Club on April 4.

Tomorrow, the team hosts Kearny for their second round of the year.

Leading the Belboys in their inaugural encounter were veterans Mario deVoogt and captain Dan Cascese. Also contributing admirably to the lopsided win were newcomers James Park, Hugh Mallack, Marshall Park and Ed Reynolds.

Seasoned mentor Michael Salzarulo states that he is satisfied with the caliber of play at this early date. He points out that, "adverse weather conditions and the necessity for part time employment for many of the athletes make daily practice an impossibility."

He is, however, quick to add that this year's team is comprised of a "fine group of dedicated youngsters who are determined to put forth their very best effort."

Although the initial score looks like an overwhelming victory, the veteran coach cautions that his divot takers will need to show improvement. The coach is looking ahead to strong challenges from the traditionally powerful Bloomfield and Nutley teams.

Rescue breathing can be started in the water — as soon as you can reach the victim's mouth with your mouth, and you are able to stand with your head out of the water. Some experts can rescue breathe while treading in deep water. The first 10 breaths should be given as quickly as possible. As you carry the victim ashore, breathe for him or her at least once every 10 seconds. If he does not breathe by the time you reach shore, do not struggle to get him out of the water. Leave him in shallow water as you continue to breathe for him, since cool water reduces his need for oxygen.

Commission defeats revaluation ordinance

address the Board.
Also addressing the Board was former mayor and Commission candidate Kenneth Smith, who along with most of the audience, had come to oppose the plan. With little left to oppose, Smith recommended that the revaluation contract be put up for bids rather than be awarded as a "professional service." Had the revaluation plans been executed, no formal bidding would have taken place, though according to McGreevy 13 assessment companies had been contacted by the Belleville assessor.

Asked by Golden why he had felt revaluation was necessary for Belleville, McGreevy said the town could possibly have lost millions of dollars through tax appeals based on a State statute going into effect in the summer of 1976.

The Mayor passed among the citizens a fact sheet illustrating the possible effect of the State law. In effect, failure of the town to revalue its property would allow some industries to claim lower taxes, while shifting an additional burden onto residential properties. The law applies to all properties with a sales ratio below 58 percent or over 79 percent. Frequent sales of residential properties have lowered the residential sales ratio to figures below the 58 percent limit, but less frequent sale of industrial properties leave most local industries above the 78 percent maximum.

Industrial taxes would therefore be adjusted down, said the Mayor's study, while residential taxes would be raised.

Also, said the Mayor, an increase in local assessments would be offset by a reduction of the tax rate, say they don't buy this analysis, however, saying the Commissioners are merely "tossing the citizens a little bone."

Masons pick D.R. Horman as vice prez

Douglas R. Horman, 14 Marion Court, Belleville, has been elected first vice president of the Past Masters' Masonic Association of Essex County for 1975.
The association will celebrate their 78th anniversary with a dinner-dance to be held at Salaam Temple, 369 East Mount Pleasant Avenue, Livingston, with all proceeds from the affair going into the Masonic Scholarship Foundation.
Right Worshipful Ephraim Schechner, president of the foundation, as in previous years, will award scholarships to college students who are sons and daughters of Masons.
Honored guests at the gathering will include Most Worshipful Malcolm B. Wernik, Grand Master of Masons for the State of New Jersey and his new officers for 1975.

Beck's Column

In the old days of coal furnaces, people bought the coal in the summer, because it was quite a bit cheaper then. The same goes for air conditioners, they also are cheaper before the time they are going to be used.

Airconditioners bought from us before June are also going to be installed free, as an inducement to buy now. Later on when it gets hot as usual everybody wants it the same time. If one has to rush, one can not do the work with the same attention and care as it should be done. If you did consider to buy an airconditioner this year, we urge you to do it now. You pay less, get a free installation (from us) and it makes it possible for our technicians to make a good unhurried installation. In addition you have time at the earliest sign of a warm up to get familiar with the unit. It certainly is not too early. A few years ago we had a very hot spell for over 2 weeks in the month of May.

It is absolutely necessary to select the proper size unit for the condition. This varies greatly depending on the location. A room in the attic may need a many times larger unit than a room downstairs. Also the sun exposure has a profound bearing on the size and capacity.

We won't sell and install an airconditioner unless we make a survey first. This way we can guarantee the proper function. We heard lots and lots of complaints where people just went and bought an air conditioner and where it turned out to be the wrong unit for the conditions. In order to avoid any problems, we insist on a survey. There is absolutely no charge or obligation with this free service.

We service what we sell

CLERICAL

It's the little things that make these BETTER jobs.

There's more to the jobs we have open than the good salaries and excellent benefits that are so important.
There are other things too, like our cafeteria, our parking lot, and convenient location near all transportation. In addition, there's our friendly people, relaxed atmosphere and, most important, opportunity for advancement. We have an immediate need for:

- STENOGRAPHERS
- TYPISTS
- KEYPUNCH OPERATORS
- CALCULATORS
- DATA PROCESSING

If you qualify and haven't seen us already, apply tomorrow. (By the way, if you're graduating in June, apply now too, and be sure of a job when you're through with school.) Call our Personnel Department at 624-6600, Ext. 557, 1247, or 1288. OR stop in any weekday from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M.

Our 5-year $200 Tappan Air Conditioning Warranty is absolutely free if you buy now!

The rush season for whole house air conditioning is about to start. But it isn't here yet.

So to drum up your business ahead of time we'll give you our 5-year $200 value warranty absolutely free. Plus a 24,000 BTU Whole House Air Conditioner completely installed with existing furnace for only $800. But do call us now. We can only make this offer if we can complete the job before 6/1/75.

*The Tappan Dealer's Extended Warranty: guarantees Tappan 2 through 5 ton air conditioning systems for 5 years. If any components in normal use fail due to defects in materials or workmanship, all replacement parts and labor shall be free of charge.

Not only that, but when we come to your house to bid the job, we don't just give you a rough idea of the size and cost of the air conditioning. We go by the Tappan Computer-Verified Checklist. It's 10 things we do to assure you of a very accurate estimate. Because when the estimate's right, the installation can be.

Ex-teacher starves despite small fortune

Belleville. After obtaining a one-day Reno divorce from her first husband, J. Russel Lauben, the former school teacher married Leroy Adams, a paper magnate from Holyoke, Mass. The marriage lasted two years until 1954, at which time Adams died, leaving the former Bellevillite a widow.

On March 7 of this year, the 50-pound widow was declared incompetent because of senility and malnutrition after residents in the neighborhood where she lived 25 years summoned welfare authorities.

Mrs. Adams's guardian is reported to be seeking two unnamed heirs to the widow's fortune, which includes shares of International Telephone and Telegraph stock, other valuable stocks, several mementoes and the contents of possibly three safety deposit boxes which as of last week had not been located.

Math's mysteries come into focus

What do worm, a buffalo, and a furniture mover have in common? The answer: All will help make the mysteries of mathematics a little more understandable at Montclair State College's annual Mathematics Day for high school students on Thursday, April 10.

During sessions presented by members of the MSC math faculty, starting at 1:45 p.m., Philip Anderson will speak on "As the Worm Turns" to show how a moving point generates a line; Edward Boyno will discuss "The Furniture Mover's Dilemma" to elucidate permutation problems; and Walter Westphal will make a connection between mathematics and ecology in "Saving the Buffalo."

Other lecturers and their topics will be: "Why Doesn't It Compute?" George Gugel; "What Is Calculus?" Dr. Patricia Kenschaff; "Infinite Series," Gideon Nettle; "The Missing Linkage," John Stevens; "Mathematical Models," Dr. James Stoddard; and "Modern Wagering Techniques," Philip Zipse. At a 3 p.m. general session, the students will have an opportunity to hear a lecture by Dr. Zalman Usiskin of the University of Chicago on "Solved and Unsolved Problems."

Mathematics Day is part of a two-day program sponsored by the MSC mathematics department. On April 9, from 4 to 9 p.m., a symposium will be presented for mathematics teachers. Dr. Usiskin will again be the major speaker, giving an address on "General Thoughts on Transformations."

Dr. Usiskin appears at the college under the co-sponsorship of the National Science Foundation under a grant administered by Dr. Kenneth Kalmanson. The guest lecturer is the co-author of the text "Geometry: A Transformational Approach."

A series of lectures has also been planned for the symposium.

Watch that 10-speed, says insurance man

"The increased popularity of cycling during the last few years has resulted in a drastic increase of bicycle thefts," reports William J. Brown, Jr., safety manager of the Allstate Insurance Companies.

"The theft of bicycles is especially profitable due to the expensive five and ten-speed models bike enthusiasts are currently purchasing," Brown adds.

Allstate's safety manager recommends the following anti-theft precautions to bike owners:

- Register the bike at a police station. Bikes recovered by the police frequently are unclaimed through lack of identification.
- Chain the bike to a bike rack or tall stationary object. Parking meters are too short, as the bike can be lifted over the top and carried away.

- Lock the bike when leaving it for any length of time, and use a sturdy lock and welded-link chain. Common fence chain may be easily cut with a wire or bolt cutter.

- Store the bike at night. A bike parked outdoors after dark invites bike thieves.

- For the determined cyclist, with a good deal of time, remove the bike's front wheel before chaining the frame to a post. This will discourage the thief who has planned on riding off with his booty.

- Finally, remove extra parts such as baskets or saddlebags when parking the bike in a crowded area.

"These suggestions will not eliminate bike theft entirely," Brown states, "but they will make things more difficult for the thief."

Spring has sprung at Parkway areas

A sure sign of spring on the Garden State Parkway will come tomorrow when the New Jersey Highway Authority will reopen its seasonal picnic areas.

Chairman Salvatore A. Bontempo of the Highway Authority said today that six Authority sites for picnicking or resting will be available at locations on the road's southern section between Telegraph Hill Park at Exit 116 in Monmouth County and Shoemaker Holly at milepost 22.7 in Cape May County. Large signs with brown basket symbols will point the way to the roadside palces where the picnic facilities are available, he noted.

Shoemaker Holly, the Authority's only picnic area open 12 months a year, is being improved under the agency's policy of upgrading picnic places. Chairman Bontempo said. New roadways into and out of the area are being built at present, and parts will be ready for the season opener.

An enlarged parking area also will be built, with the number of car spaces to be increased from 23 to about 33, and new facilities to be made available for the parking of ten trailers and five buses, Chairman Bontempo announced. The Authority is planning the construction of new restrooms, he added.

The Shoemaker Holly Picnic Area is the home of the historic Shoemaker Holly Tree, some 312 years old and estimated to be the oldest Holly in New Jersey.

The Authority's biggest picnic area is Telegraph Hill Park, 400-acre facility which has five groves and also is the site of the Garden State Arts Center. Many patrons picnic in the park before attending Arts Center programs.

The other seasonal picnic groves are Herbertsville, situated at southbound milepost 94.6; Polhemus, northbound at milepost 87.3; Oyster Creek, milepost 71.3, and Stafford Forge, milepost 61. The seasonal sites will remain open until late October.

In addition to the groves operated by the Authority, which has jurisdiction over the toll sections of the Parkway, the State Department of Transportation has three picnic and rest areas in the 13-mile stretch of the Parkway it maintains in Union and Middlesex Counties.

The Authority's roadside sites provide picnic tables and benches, drinking water, sanitary facilities, litter baskets and public telephones.

Chairman Bontempo pointed out that all of the Authority picnic facilities are maintained daily.

Art museum to train Indian art exhibitors

A training course to prepare docents to lecture on the Montclair Art Museum's collection of American Indian art will be given at the museum on six Tuesday afternoons beginning April 27. The class will be held from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Since the enrollment will be limited, anyone wishing to participate should apply early.

As defined by Elsie Dillon, the museum's supervisor of education, who will teach the course, a docent is a person who interprets an exhibition or a collection. In this case, participants will be trained to talk on the American Indian collection to visiting school groups.

To her young charges, Mrs. Dillon said, the docent is "the living spirit of the museum." She must know her subject and have a warm, friendly attitude to make the exhibition "come alive and become a fascinating experience."

For the docent, the training program provides an in-

Ukrainian festival scheduled June 7

The Second Ukrainian Festival, featuring a colorful, mosaic-like display of Ukrainian arts and culture, will be held Saturday, June 7, at the Garden State Arts Center as part of the 1975 Heritage Festival series sponsored by the Arts Center Cultural Fund.

Michael Chaikivsky of Hillside, who again heads the statewide committee in charge, today announced plans for the events. The committee was created under the auspices of the state branch of the Ukrainian Congress Committee of America.

The Ukrainian Festival, staged for the first time last year, beat all previous attendance records for a Heritage event by drawing a crowd well in excess of 8,000. The 5,000-seat amphitheater of the scenic Arts Center was sold out two weeks after the announcement of the program.

"Like all other records, it is both an achievement and a challenge," said Chaikivsky. "Of course, we are building on last year's success, but we are trying to add new and different dimensions to the over-all festival program. Fortunately, the richness of Ukrainian cultural heritage affords virtually unlimited possibilities in this respect."

This Week's Horoscope

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You are relentless in your search for The Truth, Ari, and when you find it you usually feel it is your mission in life to spread it. You arouse and excite others most effectively. Week ends on key of D, for Daffodil, Dream and Denouement.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Active week ahead, Taurus. Recognition comes your way. As others look up to you, your self-image soars. Love theme increases in intensity as week draws to a close. If you don't feel the vibrations, then fake it!

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Robins are not the only sign of spring, Gem. This week a wry old bird from your past may try to make contact. Stick close to the nest. Be patient. Given enough time, and a cold enough shoulder, that ancient bird will fly away.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Personal drama highlighted. Study your script with care. In case you suffer momentary brain lapse, Moon-baby, take cue from one who waits in the wings. Accept curtain calls with grace, but don't relax completely until all reviews are in.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Tendency to overdo as far as eating, drinking and what not are concerned. Take a tip from the ancient Greeks who preached: All things in moderation, nothing in excess. Herculean effort on your part pays off. Week ends on note of joy.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): It is never too late for you, Virg, to launch a new dream. Like Grandma Moses, who was a vigorous Virgo, you, too, possess the determination and talent to experience life to the absolute fullest. Get wheels in motion this week concerning secret plan.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Unused muscles atrophy, Lib. Your heart is a muscle that needs more love exercises. Show more feeling to dear one. Hardheartedness leads to heartbreak.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Situation apt to arise which will have you walking into walls. Questions asked should be answered honestly. This is one of those times, Scorp, when honesty is not only the best policy, it is the ONLY policy.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Caution is the byword this week Sag. Business/love affair can have easy start. However, when it comes time for termination, well, that could be a dreary matter indeed. Study words to Leo for secret message.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): You are devilishly clever when it comes to manipulating friends Cap, but don't permit this side of your nature to get out of hand. THINGS are used. FRIENDS are loved and respected. Now, stop sulking and start loving and respecting!

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Act of kindness this week, Aquari, is repaid before summer. Bread cast upon water in April returns in May... but NOT as soggy bread. Busy week fandangos to a fancy finish.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): You are kind and generous by nature, Pisces, but don't let freeloader take advantage of you. To those who need, give, but tell sponger to go skinny up a waxed rope.
