Fired up

The Citizens' Union met Monday night at the junior high school, and though the planned speaker did not appear, union president Jerry Nofrio (above) and several others blasted away at the Commissioners and the budget, drawing applause with words such as "recall." The group says it will fight the new budget, and may even go to court.

Commission meets on budget today

By CHUCK JACKSON

The Belleville Commission will meet today at Town Hall at 1 p.m. to pass a resolution adopting the 1976 municipal budget as amended.

Last week, bowing at least partially to. pressure applied by the Belleville Citizens' Union, the Board chopped $250,000 from the budget, taking away Il tax points

Though the budget is expected to be approved today, most of the town's Commissioners said they were not happy with the trimmed down financial plan.

This is a very, very tight budget," said Commissioner Joseph McGreevy, "but the Commissioners will just have to live

The decision to cut the budget came . Wednesday during a continuation of a meeting which began the night before. Though the public hearing portion of the gathering was closed, Chris Albanese, 53 Frederick Street, a spokesman for the Citizens' Union, was allowed to address the Board.

The session became chaotic at times, as members of the audience, spokesmen for the group and the Commissioners sometimes tried to all speak at once. Mayor Michael Marotti had to gavel for order several times during the hour and a half meeting

Several officials were critical of the way Marotti handled the proceedings. Town Treasurer Francis McCoy, who at one point threatened to leave the meeting, said, "I am absolutely disgusted. The mayor would not even give me an opportunity to speak. He should have allowed the Town Treasurer to address the public. McCoy was also highly critical of the approved financial plan, saying, "These people are committing financial harikari. We were sent down the river.'

The Commissioners achieved the $250,000 reduction by lopping a total of $143,000 of their individual budgets, and raising the anticipated revenue to be included in the budget by $119,000.

According to McCoy, "The $119,000 was to be received in May and used to replace surplus which had to be used. Now that money is lost.

The Town Treasurer also predicted the surplus funds would be down to $650,000 by the end of this year, a loss of $550,000.

McCoy predicted a potentially huge tax increase next year as a result of this year's budget, saying, "Next year, we will have to add 24 tax points just to make up the money lost. Though the budget was brought down 11 points, we just deferred 24 until the next time.'

Despite McCoy's dire prediction,

Revaluation order received by town effect even though the town had not yet Though the town's five Commissioners have received copies of a court order to appropriate funds for revaluation, as of late Tuesday the Board had not yet scheduled a meeting on the matter.

The order, issued by Superior Court Judge Arthur J. Blake, directs the Commission to "comply immediately with... (the) Revaluation Order of April 16, 1975." The five town department heads were notified of the issuance of the order last w 2 ... ut tabled action on revalua-tion until they physically received copies of the order

The Board has scheduled a meeting for today at 1 p.m., but discussion of the revaluation resolution is not on the agenda, and according to the Open Meetings Act, the group may not discuss the matter without prior notice to the public.

Commissioner Vincent Strumolo was expected to leave Belleville before today's budget meeting, and Mayor Michael Marotti, it was reported, is expected to be out of town this weekend, eliminating the possibility of a meeting before Monday.

The resolution, approving appropriation of $149,000 to pay for revaluation, must be approved by at least four members of the Board. If the measure is defeated, anyone voting against it would, according to Town Attorney John Scott, be subject to contempt of court charges

Scott advised action on revaluation last week after the Commissioners were notified the court order was signed, pointing out Judge Blake's order was in received a copy of it. Commissioners Mary Senatore and Rocco Saletta have opposed the revaluation order, and voted against the appropriation when it was first moved. Neither of the Directors has indicated any change in attitude.

Both Mrs. Senatore and Saletta say they want the town to appeal the judge's order so they have an opportunity to present Belleville's side of the issue."How can we be ordered to do this without a chance to present our side of the case?' Please see "Belleville" on page 3.

The Citizens' Union may take legal action to force the Board of Commissioners to open a public hearing on the town's 1976 Municipal Budget, a spokesman

According to Chris Albanese, 53 Frederick Street, leaders of the local group have been in touch with Jersey City attorney Joseph Yango in an effort to get a court injunction blocking action on the budget. The Commissioners are expected to meet today on the budget.

Albanese revealed the union's plans at a Monday night meeting held in the Six arrested in gambling raid

Six Bellevilleites were arrested and $1-1,000 in cash and $20,000 worth of sports bets were confiscated as a result of four gambling raids conducted April 17 in Belleville, according to Deputy Police Chief Frank. D. Haight.

Authorities said the raids were part of a two county operation based upon electronic surveillance investigations by the Essex County Strike Force.

Deputy Chief Haight said charged with bookmaking, maintaining a gambling establishment, and conspiracy as a result of the Belleville raids were: James Di Modica, 55, 46 Magnolia Street; John Mulligan, 68, 1 Essex Street; Theodore Seritella, 55, 18 Magnolia Street, and Robert and Camille Domenick, both 37, 260 New Street.

Authorities reported William Domenick, 65, of 621 Belleville Avenue was also charged with conspiracy on a county issued warrant.

The raids, according to police sources, occurred simultaneously at 17 locations in Essex and Hudson counties.

Deputy Chief Haight said the six arrested in Belleville were held in lieu of $2,500 each to await a hearing in Belleville Municipal Court on May 27.

Belleville police assisting in the search and arrests on the Essex county warrants were, according to Haight, Captain Ermin D. Olivieri, Sergeant Martin Mc Nish, and detectives Thomas Ricci, Barton J. Rossi, and Joseph P. Simonetjunior high cafeteria. According to Albanese, Yango was expected to speak at the gathering, but failed qo appear and the meeting ended at 9:30 p.m.

Sal Calabro, the chief spokesman for the citizens' organization was also absent. Jerry Nofrio, president of the Citizens' Union said Calabro had to fly to South America on business. More than 100 people attended the rally, and many expected to hear plans for a recall. Albanese, however, down-played the idea, saying, "We will first see if we can take legal action to get the budget re-introduced. If not, perhaps we should then consider a change of government or Albanese, who read a letter from Calabro, said the meeting was called in order to present the legal possibilities to the people. "I am very disappointed," said Albanese. "We wanted Mr. Yango here to explain what we are trying to do, and I don't want to say anything about it because I am not a lawyer.

An arbitrary deadline of 9:30 p.m. was set by the union leaders, and several peo-

Seniors and low income home owners in Belleville can have their homes winterized for free, thanks to the Essex County Youth and Economic Rehabilitation Commission and the United Community Cor-

The groups have received a demonstration grant for $100,000 from the United States Department of Community Services Administration for the project.

The winterization project will consist of insulating attics, caulking windows and weatherstripping doors. The main objective of the project, said a spokesman, is to lessen the impact of the high cost of energy on those with fixed incomes and the poor and also to reduce energy

Because of the limited amount of money available for this project, the Essex County Youth and Economic Rehabilitation Commission will unhappy with the reduced budget, only winterize 150 homes. The San Francisco Chief of Police let it all fall out - according to its controversial new police Chief Charles Gain, there are 20 homosexuals on the city's police force. Not only does Chief Gain cite the statistic but he also proclaims his philosophy, "the fact is that we will hire gays the same as we hire anyone else." The good chief says he also will hire lesbians.

By a strange coincidence, soon after Chief Gain made his personal beliefs public, an internationally famous interior designer, Michael Green was found dead in his Park Avenue, New York apartment. The daily newspapers report that Green was a known homosexual and may have met his death as a result of a "lover's quarrel.

continue to complain to little avail.

The Citizens' Taxpayers Union, through its several spokesmen, presented many formidable arguments to effect much desired economies which, if heeded, might have paved the way for some relief for our oppressed tax paying public. However, they were, for the most part, ignored by our Commissioners, who chose to pursue a less prudent fiscal path to lessen the sting of the huge tax bite for this year which will hit us in the coming August 1 tax bill.

Instead of eliminating waste, sinecure jobs, nepotism, free town-owned cars for the Commissioners, along with free telephones and credit cards which we pay for, they tried, successfully, to appease the complaining taxpayers by budgetary slight of hand. They did it in an unwise manner by ignoring reality and foolishly embarking upon a risky financial program that defies all rules of sound governmental fiscal stability. It is a policy that may kill us next year. One that Revenue and Finance Director Joseph McGreevy, the most informed member of the local governing body in manners of finance, himself frowns upon as unwise. They have flouted the counsel and advice of their own Town Atorney, John Scott, who, as a member of the bar, is duty bound to properly advise them on points of law. In an inane effort to remain popular with the captious people whose taxes have reached the breaking point because of extravagant administrative policies of catering to the whimsical demands of town employees, which, indeed, contribute most materially to adding on to the tax burden, the Commissioners sought to bury their heads in the sand in the manner of a troglodyte. They yielded to preasure of the Taxpayers' Union to plow in more surplus to keep down this year's tax rate. But what about next year's?

It presents a very, very sad picture to be sure. No appropriation has been placed in this year's budget for Belleville's assessment, towards contribution to the new Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission plant on the flimsy excuse the town is contesting it in court. It is a decision they are destined to lose. Then it will have to be placed in next year's budget:

Likewise, despite a court order to revaluate; to appropriation to conduct such a program has been put in this year's budget. Whether such revaluation is done by the town itself, as Sal Calabro rightly spells out for less than the scheduled $149,000 that had been planned or not, it is more than probable that we will have revaluation. The cost of it will have to be placed in next year's budget also. All of which indicates one whopper of a tax increase for next

What is of most serious concern to financially initiated people is the threatened inability to recoup the $730,000 loss engendered by cash losses which might have been made up through revaluation of improved properties. With further anticipated losses which must be made up by taxatiion, we might anticipate around 25 points of tax increase without any increases in next year's budget. Without court ordered revaluation and no change in the County's ratio schedule, should local industry invoke its rights by law, the town stands to lose about $800,000 in refunds from over assessment on their properties. That money would have to be made up double in the following year's budget which would amount to $1,600,000 or around 67 tax points. A nightmare stares us in the face by the political municipal budget adopted by the Town of Belleville this year

Where does the fault lie? With the people. They chose to elect popular individuals who choose to remain popular. They place supporters and relatives on the public pad, they willingly grant pay increases to town workers to win their favor.

Young at heart

"Red Cross is young" is the theme for World Red Cross Day, 1976, which, in each of the 122 worldwide Red Cross Societies, will be celebrated May 8 in commemoration of the birthday of the organizations's founder, Henri Dunant.

Although its humanitarian work began over a century ago, the youth of the Red Cross lies not in its calendar age, but in the vitality of its services and the millions of young people who help provide them. What really matters is its universal readiness to move with the times and its capacity for change and renewal.

Our world bears little resemblance to that of a century ago when Dunant conceived and acted upon the idea of assistance to one's fellow man regardless of race, religious beliefs or political opinions. Our global community is assailed by an almost daily succession of urgent and ominous problems, engendered by modern technology and thrust into our consciousness by the effectiveness of our communications industry. Pollution, famine, disaster, urban slums, rural poverty, migrant worker populations jostle for our attention.

One thing is certain: people are suffering today, even more than in the past. They need help, care, comfort and a little human warmth, for different reasons, perhaps, but just as much as in the days of Henri Dunant.

Our chapter of the American Red Cross, as each of the other 121 national Red Cross Societies, recognizes that today's problems are different and is exploring new ways of helping — adapting traditional approaches to aid, pioneering new ones, and increasingly working in partnership with other organiza-

Today, the principles underlying all Red Cross Action humanity, impartiality, neutrality, independence, voluntary service, unity and universality - seem more valid than ever. They are applicable the world over. They are acceptable by everyone and anyone, whatever their philosophy. Young people with their hopes for a more human, and caring world would see in them a reflection of their own ideals.

The effectiveness of the Red Cross results from the support given it, particularly that of the anyone else, guarantee that it will remain young in its thinking and its programs. In return, it offers them opportunities to get to grips with social injustice, to put their ideas into action, to help

Mary's money questioned

To the Editor:

This refers to Mr. Golden's article in which he alleges that Commissioner Senatore is on the Essex County payroll as Secretary to the Planning Board for more than $13,000 a year for two hours work a month (Times/News, April 15).

Last May, I attended a dinner and was seated at the same table as Freeholder Donald Payne, who was then running for re-election. I asked him what was being done about rumored "no-showism" and "padded payrollism" in the County, and I particularly referred to Mrs. Senatore's

He replied that he did not have specific jurisdiction over the Planning Board. He added, in essence, that just as some companies may allow some employees some free time to pursue local political activity, so the Freeholders might help provide an income to someone who must spend a lot of time on the local scene.

There is an obvious moral issue here and it is unfortunate that segments of our society accept this type of thinking

There is also the question of the effect on the taxpayer's purse. If the Freeholders were to show similar compassion to just one person in each of the County's 22 municipalities, the County budget would be padded by more than $286,000.

Belleville's budget gets a close look

To the Editor:

On April 13, I attended the public meeting of the Town of Belleville vote on the proposed local municipal budget. I would like to comment on my per sonal observations of the proceedings by this body of representatives.

The overriding feeling one gets from observing the panel of Commissioners is the impression of their utter disregard for the honest and concerned efforts of the people they represent. People who are here to try to help themselves to something better than what they have

The following is a letter from Commissioner Mary Senatore responding to charges leveled last week by Times/News columnist James Golden.

Dear Editor:

How could you permit your columnist Jim Golden, to write the untruths he does in his column? I am referring particularly to those which appeared in the April 15 issue of the Times/News. The lies and absurd assumptions are apparent even to a mere child.

I, along with many of my friends, simply cannot understand how your paper can dignify the stupid and insidious statements that your columnist dreams of - perhaps from an affected brain.

Perhaps you, as the editor, should simply ask your columnist (before printing his garbage) what he was drinking or what he was smoking.

In an attempt to achieve political status, Mr. Golden tries to destroy many respectable people in our community. Little does he realize what the feelings for him were at the polls and how those feelings are the same today.

Senatore swings at Golden

Apparently Mr. Golden knows absolutely nothing about the Essex County Planning Board, of which I am Secretary We spend many hours, not only at monthly meetings, but daily, plus many emergency sessions held in the interest of the people of Essex County

If your columnist had taken the trouble to talk to me or the Director of the Essex County Planning Board, he would have know more of what we have achieved for many municipalities. The land given to the Town of Belleville for a firehouse is just

Mr. Golden is only interested in smearing honest public officials against whom he has a personal vendetta. Perhaps the fact that I have repudiated his dear friend, the Town Treasurer (who was his best man), may have some significance in your columnist's attacks on me personally

- I wish it were true I, as a "widow" did earn $564 per hour. Perhaps then I would never have to concern myself with financial problems. Considering the many hours I do spend at the County Planning Board, I would truly be a millionaire.

Mr. Editor, my friends and I, along with the personnel of the Essex County Planling Board, are extremely upset by the misstatements of Mr. Golden. The elimination of his rambling column in your weekly paper would be enthusiastically welcomed by many of our friends.

If your columnist continues with his false statements and personal smears, I fear many law suits will be instituted. I, for one, am seriously considering action.

I must admit, however, I am extremely honored to have been compared with one holding the highest elected office - the President of the United States.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, when your columnist finds that $564 an hour job, I wish you would inform me so I may be considered for the position.

Commissioner Mary V. Senatore.

THE STATE WE'RE IN

The loudest yellers are still yelling

By DAVID F. MOORE

We've been hearing a lot lately about how pollution controls must be relaxed in this state we're in, lest some business or other go broke and put a lot of people out of work

The people who yelled the loudest about implementing such regulations in the first place are still yelling. Taken en masse, they present a barrage of propaganda which goes on and on and can brainwash the average individual.

It was the late Paul Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's PR man, who declared that if a lie is repeated often enough, it will be believed.

Now really, how about some dispassionate statistics on job and economic losses from environmental controls?

Russell W. Peterson, chairman of the President's Council on environmental Quality (CEQ), last December released some information which deserves more attention than it's gotten.

Peterson said, for example, that in 1975 his agency learned of 75 plant closings which could be blamed on environmental restrictions and related expenses. In practically all those cases, the plants were in terrible financial shape anyway, and would undoubtedly soon have folded for one reason or another. In short, public health was being impaired, and there was no other alternative under the circumstances.

Those 75 closings represented 15,700 jobs. That's a lot, but taken nationally (because the 75 is a national total), it comes to sixteen-thousandths of one per cent of the national labor force.

On the other hand, Peterson continued, federal, local and industrial expenditures for pollution controll in 1975 were responsible for keeping one million people work-

This in no way eases the pain for a worker out of a job because of some kind of cutback which can be blamed on pollution controll. But it raises the logical question about where replacement jobs can be found. With federal outlays of $2.2 billion expected this year for construction of sewage treatment plants alone, there will be a lot of work which wouldn't otherwise

The magazine Environmental Science & Technology recently noted these factors and went on to assess dollar gains to be expected nationally merely from the water pollution cheanup effort.

Between now and 1980, we can look for dollar benefits of some $12.8 billion (not milliion, BILLION!) in such activities as water boating, swimming and improved property values. That shouldn't hurt the economy at all!

What with the ongoing recession we've been having, it should be borne in mind that employment relating to environmental controls has been one of the strongest job strength areas in the country.

Allen H. Morgan, executive vice president of the Massachusetts Audubon Society, reminds us of the "mental anguish suffered by an earlier generation of buggy whip manufacturers, livery stable owners, and blacksmiths who were convinced quite honestly that the automobile would pauperize the general economy.

owe their prostituted livelihood to the

The constant rendering of town budgets that never show the slightest effort toward economy, change or reform indicates to me that the people who are responsible for the makeup of these budgets are completely ignorant of fiscal respoisibility and completely dedicated to self interest.

We have been battered with the complaint that the federal and state governments have withdrawn financial and leglislative assistance that would have eased the tax burden of our people. In the same breath, we hear that all that assistance went only to assist the employees of our town government and not a dime to place in reserve or to finance planning, reform or to make the lives of all the people of Belleville a little

Many of the public speakers have been very careful to point out that reducing the budget should not come, in part, at the expense of essential services. I must object to the premise that socalled essential services should be made sacred cows of any austerity measure.

I also submit there is no service more essential than the service to all the people of our town. To appoint one police officer, or one fireman or one teacher or one health officer at the expense of having some elderly or fixed income person go with a shorter ration of food or medicine or heat or clothing is morally repreheisible to me.

There is no other department of our town that could not function with a small percentage cut of manpower, even if by retirement or other attrition. That, coupled with a larger percentage of economy in the "other expenses" column, would put us back in the position of responsible government.

Mayor Abraham Beam of New York City, when presented with the possibility of default, said to his Board, 'We can't do business at the same old stand anymore, so let's stop the nonsense and get down to the issue of saving our city." These words also hold true for us in Belleville.

I would recommend an immediate five per cent reduction of personnel in all departments, plus an additional five per cent attrition cut in all departments except police, fire, health and senior

Nepotism must be eliminated and be the primary consideration when reducing all personnel rolls. This must be coupled with an immediate 10 per cent reduction in the "other expenses" column, and a complete review of the purchasing and voucher system.

I would be very disappointed if the people of Belleville did not take every opportunity to actively seek the removal of any or all members of our town Commission who have helped perpetrate this fiscal rape of our government - a government of all the people, by all the people and for all the people.

Let Belleville stand as an example

By FRANK A. ORECHIO

The Nutley Commission campaign seems to be taking a bad bounce or two. Although campaign teas are unusually scarce, enough have been attended by candidates who say one thing in the privacy of a friend's living room and a totally different story in public. There are rumors' that supporters of at least two candidates are planning 11th hour broadsides against two incumbent Commissioners. The last time this happened was eight years ago.

Desperation may lead otherwise respectable citizens to indulge in campaign tactics foreign to Nutley elections. Which reminds me of the timeless prayer of St. Francis of Assisi:

Lord make me an instrument of thy

Where there is hatred, let me sow

Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light; And where there is sadness, joy. O, Divine Master,

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;

To be understood, as to understand; To be loved, as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive; It is in pardoning that we are par-

And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life,

It was in the 90's in Nutley, but would you believe last week Fort Lauderdale temperatures hovered in the low 80's, made more comfortable with the aid of comfortable, ocean breezes Florida's tourist season is practically over and permanent residents give a sigh of relief for now they could begin to enjoy their beaches and roads.

My reference last week to Maggie Marone, as fine a neighbor as anyone could have, might have been susceptible to a wrong interpretation. Let the record show that Maggie Marone was one of our favorite people. We always knew Maggie as a prodigious housekeeper, a dedicated wife, a devoted and attentive mother, a proud and thoughtful neighbor.

The disharmony of Belleville's Town Commissioners should be a reminder to Nutley voters that Nutley enjoys a Town Commission which reflects a working harmony unusual in municipal affairs. At the same time the five Commissioners bring a complete independence to their deliberations. They have performed reasonably well. John Lucy is completing 32 years of service; Harry Chenoweth, 28 years; Bill Jernick, 24 years; Carmen Orechio, 8 years; and Frank Cocchiola, 4 years - a total of 100 years of Commission experience, reflected in thousands of decisions, judgments and votes! The four challengers have a difficult job trying to dislodge Commissioners who have been on the firing line all these years. Does Nutley have unresolved problems today? You bet it does. And so will it have unresolved problems in the tomorrows ahead - regardless which Commissioner heads what department. To keep up with the problems of our changing times is difficult. To solve all the problems today is impossible. And, moreover, just the economic experience of the past 18 months should make everyone realize that during the next four years Nutley voters, taxpayers and Commissioners will be confronted with problems unimaginable today. The question before Nutley voters, Tuesday, May 11th is which five Commission candidates have the experience and proven judgment to make the right - and fair - decision for Nutley, its taxpayes, its employees.

Campaign signs labeled illegal

By JODI MASSONE

One year ago

Some campaign signs were illegal in Belleville!

An Essex County detective said that some of the signs and stickers-were "definitely" against the law. No one, however, knew just what would be done

Detective Rudolph Kinchen said that signs and handbills that bore no identification were illegal, but also were signs that said "Paid for by Friends." If the sign had no address it was illegal.

Kinchen said he would be continuing his investigation this week following a complaint by 18-year-old Michael Perrone, a senior at Belleville High School.

Kinchen said lawyers will have to see whether the law, passed in 1966, regarding the signs, was ever amended. According to the Essex County Clerk's office, the law is still in effect, though it had apparently never been enforced.

Schools are responsible for many things BUT POLLUTION?

The Belleville school system was suspected of being guilty of the pollution of the town's air, but what was to be done about the matter was not certain.

A preliminary report issued to the School Board from the Suburban Air Pollution Commission found that "it was doubtful" that local school incinerators could meet the performance standards of the Belleville Pollution Code unless extensive upgrading was accomplished.

An emergency appropriation for $12,500 was one of several measures authorized by the Town Commission at a meeting of the Board to help alleviate flooding in the areas bordering the Third River. In order to overcome floods that oceured on Fairway Avenue, the Third River channel was to be widened and deepened.

An additional $2,000 appropriation was to be used to erect gate valves behind the Fairway Avenue homes on the side of the Forest Hill Golf Course. The valves were to serve as a backstop against the overflow from the river and the golf course pond.

Woman wonders where prizes went

To the Editor:
It is my understanding that the Women's League is again sponsoring "contests" among the Belleville students. What is a compulsary class project is assigned with the inducement that the Women's League will judge the essays, poems or whatever and cash prizes will be awarded.

Last year, there was a "Poppy Poster Contest" and the winners were announced in the Belleville Times/News. It was also announced the winners would be awarded prizes. Except for a pen and pencil set to the first place winner, and certificates to all three winners, no prizes were awarded. (There were supposed to be cash prizes.)

Winners and their parents were told they would be invited to a dinner to be held at a later date and the prizes would be awarded at that time.

No invitations and no awards were ever received and any requests for a return of winning posters were answered with one story or another.

My question is simple: if cash, or any prize at all, is appropriated and promised to first, second and third place winners, why was it nor awarded? Or, if there was no appropriation, why is any mention made of a prize?

Regardless of the age or grade of the pupil, it is very discouraging and disappointing to be told he or she won first, second or third prize, would win something, and then - nothing!

Edgcom, in explaining the reason for a Sustaining Membership enrollment, pointed out the need to make up a council deficit in order to initiate more non-conventional programs, serving scouts as well as nonxscouts. Edgcomb said he sees the need for such programs at as a top priority for Girl Scouts as well as the need for additional innovative and progressive conventional programs such as the "Green Circle," a human relations program.

Another aspect of MDA is its recreation programs, such as summer and winter camping sessions provided for dystrophic children and adults. Throughout the year, mailings and seminars are conducted to acquaint professiolal and lay-people with the problems of those affliced with dystrophy and the services provided for them by MDA. Last year, the Northern New Jersey Chapter raised $144,754 through its Door-to-Door March, telethon and other community fund raising projects. Besides providing the above services, MDA sponsorsa a huge research program, maintaining 10 neuromuscular research centers nationwide. These centers are continuing to study the possible causes and cure for dystrophy. Also, over 300 scientific grants and fellowships have been awarded, including two in this area, one at the Rutgers Medical School in Piscataway and one at Rutgers University in New Brunswick.

Anyone interested in assisting with MDA's Door-to-Door March, or desiring further information about the group's services, may call 379-

Miss Mary P. Desmond Young Career Woman

Miss Mary Patricia Desmond of Belleville, has been named a Young Career Woman (YCW) by the Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, N.J. Inc.

Miss Desmond is presently engaged in two occupations. She is a licensed funeral director for the Wadsworth Funeral Home in Belleville, and she is an admissions representative for the Katherine Gibbs School. She will represent the Tri-Town Club in a state-wide YCW competition when the New Jersey Federation holds its Annual Convention next month in Atlantic City

The Tri-Town Club selected Miss achievements and ability to project an image reflecting the role of today's young women in society.

In accepting her designation as a at 120 Valle Young Career Woman, Miss Desmond said, "I really feel this is quite Providence. a special honor, and I am very appreciative to the members of Tri-Town for involving me in such a positive, exciting experience as this Not only is it an honor, but the experience gives the candidates a great opportunity to learn about the ideals auditorium May 1. and standards of the National Federation. There are so many benefits to such a program; the interaction of ideas among the people involved, the anticipation of the worthwhile programs at the convention in Atlantic City in May - all of these are certainly making me very pleased to be included this Bicentennial year. Indeed, what an exciting time for women involved in business and professions!"

The Young Career Woman program, inaugurated by The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. in 1963, highlights the achievements of young career women and is one of many programs sponsored by BPW to elevate the status of women. Blue-Gold crew swamps Raiders

By JOSEPH RYAN

"Excalibur", the varsity eight shell, continues to leave all Belleville opponents in its wake as the Bellboy varsity approaches possibly its first undefeated dual meet season in five years.

Last week the varsity eight downed Nutley by a surprising 16 seconds and finished ahead of Poughkeepsie on the Hudson by 17 seconds to affirm their dominance on the Passaic and to signal their contention for a regional crown.

Crew coach Sam Giuffrida said he was "really impressed" by the varsity eight's performances in the last week but notes "there's still a tough road ahead of us."

This Saturday the river road leads to a dual meet against Arlington at home on the Passaic at 11, a m.

the Passaic at 11 a.m.

Belleville's second meeting with Nutley last Wednesday was a test of just how "at home" the cross town rivals would be on the Passaic Four days earlier the teams had met for the first time on the Schuylkill in Philadelphia when the Bellboys won a close race pitching by Bob Giordano in which the Bellboy struck out nine, walked none, and gave up only one hit. Coach Zanfini said the talent Giordano displayed on the mound was a sign of the depth of the Bel-lead in Saturday's game John Clarizio took over pitching chores, as Zanfini explained, in order for the coach to take a look at the younger talent. Zanfini noted after five games the pitching staff had given up only one earned run.

against Nutley by 1½ seconds. The second race was expected to be just as close with a revenge motive on Nutley's side.

However, coach Giuffrida said the BHS varsity was mentally ready for the return Nutley challenge and the Bellboys rowed, "an excellent mile." Giuffrida added the varsity rowers "outpowered and out-techniqued" the Nutley crew.

The Bellboy eight started with a lead at the beginning of the race that kept getting longer, according to Giuffrida. He said in the last half of the mile course the "Excation" back away from Nutley for the 16 second win.

Nutley remains a possible opponent in the Goodwill Regatta to be held in two weeks. Belleville coach Giuffrida noted Nutley's win over Atlantic City and said a possible return race versus the river Raiders would be a good contest.

The Nutley jayvee boat defeated the Blue-Gold jayvee rowers by two seconds. Guffrida said the jayvee's stroke was too low in the first half of the course and they were never able to catch up to the Nutley boat.

The freshman defeated Nutley by eight seconds in what Giuffrida called a very smooth and strong race.

Coach Giuffrida said he was worried about the Bellboy rowers being "down" after defeating Nutley but the boat evidently remained psyched enough to Continued on page 12.

Batsmen blasting

The bats are booming for the Bel-

Nine home runs in two games powered the Belleville nine over Passaic 13-4, and Nutley, 18-3.

This week the Blue-Gold nine will play four games in five days in a test of their depth of talent and stamina. Belleville meets Orange Friday, home at 3:45. The team then travels to West Essex for a double-header at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday and faces Montclair Tuesday 3:45 p.m. at home.

Greg Petite pitched his second victory of the season Wednesday at Nutley. Belleville coach George Zanfini said Petite wasn't in his best form of the year but called his pitching, "more than enough" for the Bellboys' fifth win in six games.

At Nutley it was the Blue-Gold hitting that highlighted the day. Home runs were in abundance for the Belleville offense. Center fielder John Guarino slammed his fourth and fifth homers of the year to drive in five runs.

Greg Dunleavy, Rocco Balsamo, Michael Cancelliere, and Nicky Cancelliere also contributed to the power surge with a homer each.

Coach Zanfini said, "they've been hitting the ball unbelievably." He added, "everybody is contributing. Every day there's a different hero."

The coach added he was glad to see the team had confidence because its "ninety percent of the battle."

John Guarino slammed two home runs and Anthony Biafore also contributed a homer to Belleville's 13-4 victory over Passaic last Saturday.

BHS cindermen take two meets

The Blue-Gold track team has started off a three meet week with victories over Vailsburg and Passaic following last week's loss to defending champion Columbia.

Today the cindermen face Orange at home, 3:45 p.m. The Bellboys will travel to West Orange next Tuesday to challenge Mountain.

So far this week the Bellboys downed Vailsburg, 95-27, and Passaic, 72-50. Track coach Rich Ruffalo sayshe will be pleased if the Blue-Gold is able to enhance their 3-2 record by winning all three contests this week.

Ruffalo said he felt Belleville's score against Passaic would have been in the eighties if point scorers Jim Del Guerchio and Vito Guarino had not been on vacation. Overall, Ruffalo noted the team has been improving and said he was especially pleased with the Bellboy competitors in the field events.

Belleville finished first in eight events against Passaic. Bellboy Doug Jackson scored top points in two events. He won the long jump with a 19 feet II½ inch leap and also reached a height of 5 feet 4 inches to top the field in the high jump

Fran Morel took points for Belleville in three events by yaulting 10 feet 6 inches to win the pole vault and placing second and third in the long jump and discus events respectively.

Robert Feldman also placed in three events by finishing second in the 100-yard dash and the discus throw and taking third place points in the 220 with a 24.3 second run.

Winning efforts for the Bellboys against Passaic were also turned in by Nick Semaca, 120 high hurdles; Nelson Seda, won the mile; Doug Wamsley, took the two mile race; Mark Romanel triumphed in the 330 intermediate hurdles,; and Keith Allum won the 880.

At Monday's meet against Vailsburg, the Bellboys swept the field in six events. The two mile race was taken one, two, three, by Doug Wamsley, Mike Lamberti, and Dave White. Mark Romanel, Nick Semaca and John Matera were the victors in the intermediate hurdles competition. The discus was tossed for the farthest distance by Fran Morel, Robert Feldman and Ross Sherman. Dough Jackson, Jim Del Guerchio and Fran Morel took the broad jump points.

High jumper winners were Doug Jackson, Nick Semaca, and Rich Baker. Fran Morel, John Cozzarelli, and Tom Coughlin swept the pole vault event for the Blue-Gold.

Anthony Domenick competing in nationals

Belleville's Anthony Domenick is competing this week at the largest National YMCA Swimming Championship held to date. He is a member of the Montclair YMCA Marlin swim team, one of 277 YMCAs across the nation who preregistered a total of 6,374 swimmers for the annual championship competition.

The Nationals' open men's championships are again being conducted at the International Swimming Hall of Fame complex in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, and Domenick flew there Monday with ten Marlin teammates and three coaches. After a two-day preliminary conditioning and warm-up period, racing competition began yesterday and will continue through Saturday.

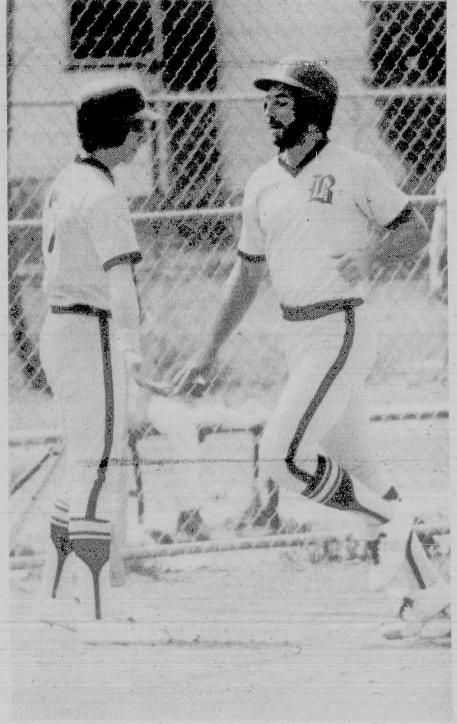

Domenick has been training with teammates since October knowing the season's climax would take place at the Nationals. Daily and twice daily workouts, totaling over seven miles from 6-7:15 a.m. and 6-8:30 p.m., have been endured by the Marlin Nationals squad as their training "peaked" prior to their departure for Florida. Each swimmer's goal is to rank 1-8th in the Finals, or 9-

16th in the consolations to score points toward the Montclair Y's final team standing.

This week Domenick is competing at the Nationals in the 100 and 200 yard backstroke events, the 400 yard individual medley race, and relays. A Montclair Y Marlin for five years, he was named "11-12 Swimmer of the Year" by the team's coaches in 1973. This year he was cited as "Most Improved Water Polo Player" at Montclair-Kimberly Academy where he is a freshman.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Domenick of New Street, Belleville.

"Competition this year at the Nationals is tough," commented Joe Slowinski, Marlin head coach. "But the team is ready. They've worked harder than ever and they're really determined to place high." He continued by saying that although eligibility times for Nationals competitors had been adjusted to a much faster pace for the '76 Nationals, more swimmers are participating this year, in fact 2,000 more. Last year, the Montclair YMCA Marlins earned eighth place in the men's final National standings.

Homer habit

Bellboy John Guarino is congratulated at the plate by Greg Petite after hitting his second home run against Passaic on Saturday. Guarino repeated the feat on Tuesday by smashing two more round trippers in the I8-3 victory over Nutley. The Blue-Gold power hitter also pitched two innings at Nutley to help out in Belleville's 5-1 season.

Taking off

Below, Jim Del Guerchio is airborne at a high point of the Belleville-Columbia track meet last week. Bellboy Del Guerchio won the broad jump with this leap of 20 feet 2 inches. The BHS cindermen, 3-2 on the season, were swamped by Columbia 95-27, but bounced back this week with victories over Vailsburg and Passaic.

Lots of walks equal one loss

Walks and more walks add up to runs against the Belleville girls softball team that is looking for a starting pitcher.

The pitching problem was the downfall of the diamond Bellgirls as they lost to Bloomfield last week, 15-14, and were defeated this week by Nutley, 16-7.

Coach Eve Lautenschlager started junior Marita "Champ" Hochstuhl on the mound against Nutley on Tuesday. Lautenschlager said Hochstuhl was nervous in her first starting assignment after pitching well in a Saturday scrimmage. The first inning was the story as Nutley scored 15 runs on three hits off pitchers Hochstuhl and her relief pitcher Lisa Vitiello.

After the disastrous first, the Maroon Raiders were held by the Bellgirls to only three more hits and one more run. Toni Sperduto was the pitcher who finished the game for Belleville.

Coach Lautenschlager in lamenting the lack of pitching talent pointed out the Bellgirls are strong in the field. The coach singled out the play of Ginger Pitaccio in the outfield as "outstanding" and noted Pitaccio's home run as part of the Belleville highlights in the losing effort.

In last week's game against Bloomfield the Bellgirl offense was helped by the two home runs of sophomore Joann Conte. Bloomfield scored nine unearned runs in the game in which the Bellgirls got to within one run of the Bengals only to lose on a pop out hit on a 3-0 count.

The Bellgirls play East Orange Catholic at home today at 10:30 a.m. Belleville usually beats this East Orange team and coach Lautenschlager said she is hoping the 2-3 Bellgirls will have a .500 season by the end of the week.

Tuesday, the Bellgirls will play at Montclair, fielding what coach Lautenschlager calls a "stong defense" but the starting pitcher has not yet been decided.

Giuffrida said he has been pleased with the varsity shells mental at-titude. He added his varsity crew is "not very boisterous, they're thinkers. "They know what they have to do, they're concentrating,' the coach added.

The Bellboy coach said the more the varsity has won this year, "the more pressure they're under." Giuffrida added, "when you're not one of the winners you're one of the pack."

At this point the pack is waiting, for a Belleville river loss. With the mental attitude that avoids overconfidence, and a coach who is aware of the pitfalls of success, the pack could have a long wait as the varsity rowers

Hardening of the arteries, or teriosclerosis, is one of the most common arteriosclerosis, is one of the most common causes of death in our country today. This disease is caused by the formation of a hard, waslike substance called cholesterol hard, walike substance called cholesterol in the walls of the arteries. Many arteries can be hardened before the blood pressure is affected, but eventually the thick deposits of chalesterol reduces the arteries to small, inadequate channels. Since the amount of blood in the system remains the same, the strain on the heart increases. Isn't it time that we all resevaluated our diets?
