Getting enough sleep can be a problem for some people, but difficulty in getting to sleep is all too often a source of annoyance to many. Tensions built up during the day and evening become deterrents to sleep. When you retire, make yourself relax, consciously, while sitting in a comfortable chair. Make all body movements slow and deliberate. Sip a warm drink. When the desire to sleep comes, move very slowly through the routine of preparation for retiring, and keep your mind on total relaxation. Concentrate on how good your bed feels, banish all worries, and go to sleep.

Our business is concentrated on giving you complete service. You'll find a large stock of drugs for prescription plus gifts, Timex watches, transistor radios, greeting cards, cosmetics, toiletries and convalescent aids when you come to us at ROSMARE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. ## Leighton hits a million

John Leighton

John B. Leighton, CLU, a sales representative with Prudential Insurance Company's Newark agency, has sold more than $1 million of insurance during 1976.

Leighton joined Prudential in 1959 and this marks the ninth time he has the million mark in sales. The recipient of many companywide President's Citations for sales excellence, He has also earned numerous National Quality and National Sales Achievement Awards as a member of the National Life Underwriters Association. In addition, he was designated a Chartered Life Underwriter by the American College of Life Underwriters, a high honor in the insurance industry.

Leighton and his wife, Margaret, have three children, Mrs. Elsa Strachan, Mrs. Elizabeth McDonough and J. Peter Leighton and three grandchildren.

Foul talker pays $200

A 27-year old Belleville man, charged with foul language and malicious damage, was fined a total of $200 at proceedings in Belleville Municipal Court July 1.

Joseph Walsh, 35 Prospect Place, was charged in a May 3 summons with foul and abusive language and interference in an April 23 incident. He was also charged with malicious damage to the door of the apartment of William Neilan, 35 Prospect Place on June 4.

The defendant pleaded not guilty to all charges.

Municipal Court Judge Edward Abromson found the defendant guilty on all charges and imposed $50 fines for the damage and interference incidents and $100 for the use of foul language.

William Neilan was the complainant in both cases.

Library announces display

In honor of the Nation's Bicentennial, the Belleville Public Library has on display, during July, a number of interesting exhibits.

Featured is a photographic tribute to the United States of America by Eastman Kodak, provided by Howard Fisher of Belleville, several handcrafted bicentennial plaques, printed on wood in acrylics by Anna Cerami, a paper plate display of important bicentennial events by Richard Ottenroer, a "Minuteman", by the Belleville Bicentennial Commission, and a doll house entitled Heritage '76, executed by Girl Scout Troop 437.

Also, on exhibit, are the award winning essays, "Life in America", from the Belleville Woman's Club 1976 Essay Contest and a Bicentennial Flag made from 5,000 pieces of paper by Marie Rinaldi's first grade class, School Four.

In the Display Case is an historic quilt of Belleville, executed by Toby Mallon of Belleville, which took seven months to complete. It consists of 57 patches of old velvet, on which are indicated historic sites of Belleville, such as the Rutgers Bridge, Wesley Methodist Church, Soho Copper, and Belleville Hall.

Another Bicentennial quilt, by Toby Mallon, is entitled "Town of Belleville" 1850, to honor the Town of Belleville today, and as it once was.

Francis Cufone, owner of Francis Cake Specialties, takes great care as he carefully forms one of the hundreds of roses that decorated the 600-pound cake baked to celebrate the 100th birthday of nurse Clara Maass. Cufone created the cake which measured four feet by eight feet, and he donated the end product to the hospital. It provided 2,500 servings for patients, employees and volunteers.

Major Barbara Zebbs of the Army Nurse Corps, assisted by Herbert Peterson, places a floral tribute at the grave of Clara Maass during memorial services held last Monday at Fairmont Cemetery, Newark. At left are Carolyn Benzell, representing the nursing school students and Mrs. Robin Dolobowsky of the alumnae association.

Albin H. Oberg, president of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, and Francis Cufone share the cake cutting honors as Anthony Ippolito, Anthony DiLorenzo and Hunter Drew, the staff of Francis Cake Specialties wait anxiously to taste the end product of their careful work. The cutting came last Monday during celebrations marking the 100th birthday of the nurse who gave her life in the fight against yellow fever.

Red Cross issues fund appeal

Essex Chapter, American Red Cross, today launched a local appeal for $60,000 urgently needed to support emergency relief efforts being carried on by the American Red Cross in six states and the U.S. Trust Territories in the Pacific, following a series of major catastrophes during the past few weeks.

According to Eugene Barnett, Belleville Town Clerk and Advisory Board Chairman, this appeal is part of a National Red Cross campaign to raise $10,000,000 to help victims of Teton Dam break in Idaho, Typhoon Pamela which devastated Guam and others of the Mariana Islands, flash floods in Houston, Texas, Rapid City, South Dakota, Tulsa, Oklahoma and tornadoes in Michigan, Illinois and Minnesota.

A total of more than 37,000 families in these areas have registered with Red Cross disaster relief personnel on the scene to receive immediate emergency assistance in the form of temporary housing, food, clothing, medical assistance and some rehabilitation aid, during the past three weeks.

"During the fiscal year ending June 30th, the American National Red-Cross has helped victims of over 400 disasters at a cost of more than $20,000,000," reports the chapter chairman. "This latest series of emergencies will add about thirteen million dollars to that amount, and creates the most unprecedented financial situation in the history of Red Cross disaster assistance programs."

Angelo Cinti of East Orange, assistant manager of the New Jersey-New York Red Cross Division, of which Essex Chapter is a member, is a veteran of more than a dozen major disaster relief operations. He has been on the scene of the Teton Dam break since early this month.

"The devastation here is even worse than I saw in Wilkes Barre, Harrisburg, or Corning, after Hurricane Agnes hit in 1972," he reports. "Most of these people are farmers, cattle ranchers or small business men. Crops, farm buildings, houses and equipment, for fifty miles in the wake of the flood waters, have been completely destroyed. Thousands of head of drowned cattle litter the landscape, causing a real health hazard. Several small communities have been totally wiped out. Irrigation systems have been damaged leaving neighboring crops ruined. Railroad tracks and highways have been torn up. Water six feet deep still fills basements and foundations but fresh water has to be trucked in."

Lillian Metcalfe will be honored

Lillian Metcalfe of Belleville is among 170 volunteers at the Veterans Administration Hospital in East Orange to be honored at a Bicentennial awards picnic on the hospital grounds on Wednesday, July 14. The volunteers who will be honored this year are part of the hospital's 450 regularly scheduled volunteer corps, including teenagers and college students.

Lillian Metcalfe will be cited for putting in more than 6,000 hours of voluntary service.

The volunteers have contributed a cumulative total of 325,950 hours. They will receive certificates, pins, silver bowls, plaques and medallions according to the number of hours served, ranging from 100 to over 28,000.

Reuben Cohen, hospital director, will be the principle speaker and will be assisted in the presentation of the awards by members of the hospital's staff advisory committee. In announcing the ceremony, Mr. Cohen noted that the volunteers receiving awards represent 48 towns.

Inspirational psalm

Psalm 90 - God Will Protect Us

You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty,
Say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress,
my God, in Whom I trust."
For He will rescue you from the snare of the fowler, from the destroying pestilence.
With His pinions He will cover you,
and under His wings you shall take refuge;
His faithfulness is a buckler and a shield.
You shall not fear the terror of the night
nor the arrow that flies by day;
Not the pestilence that roams in darkness nor the devastating plague at noon.
Though a thousand fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right side,
near you it shall not come.
Rather with your eyes shall you behold and see the requital of the wicked,
Because you have the Lord for your refuge;
you have made the Most High your stronghold.
No evil shall befall you,
nor shall affliction come near your tent,
For to his Angels He has given command about you,
that they guard you in all your ways.
Upon their hands they shall bear you up,
lest you dash your foot against a stone.
You shall tread upon the asp and the viper;
you shall trample down the lion and the dragon.
Because he clings to Me, I will deliver him;
I will set him on high because he acknowledges My Name.
He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in distress;
I will deliver him and glorify him;
with length of days I will gratify him and will show him My salvation.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The nation's big Bicentennial surely went off with a enormous bang. From sea to shining sea, historic events from the early days and the Revolutionary period were colorfully reenacted to the delight of our heterogeneous masses — those groups which constitute our proud country.

The United States of America is loved by its people not so much as is the case of other lands because of the historic cities or because it was one's birthplace, but because of its confidence and trust in the courage and inherent integrity of its ordinary citizens. Their desire to preserve the lofty principles enunciated in the Declaration of Independence, and the rights granted in the Constitution. Because men like Archibald Cox, a sixth generation descendant of one of the signers of the instrument which proclaimed our Independence, as Watergate special prosecutor, insisted that a President, like any citizen, is accountable under the law. This as it properly should be, but where else in all the world could we expect such impartial dispensation of justice to people of all stations of life?

We have conquered mountains, wilderness and deserts and forged the one haven where freedom abounds in a manner the whole world must envy.

The resistance to acceptance of an unwanted situation and its rejection, fanned by the conviction that almost anything is possible reflects the stout heard and anxious genius of men and women of all races and walks of life who have and will continue to keep our country intact and great. Because, they are like good parents and will be critical and insistent on cleaning up the nation's ills, while exercising this greatest expression of true love. The heritage they pass on to future generations will eternally keep America powerful, righteous and honored for its respect for freedom of individual rights of all its citizens, as the stars and stripes forever wave on high.

All the fireworks weren't confined to the local Municipal Stadium over the Fourth, either. Another kind of sparkler was glowing with white heat over a confusing and difficult to explain situation concerning the issuance of licenses, and summons to liquor establishments who have applied for permission for the operation of pinball and other related machines.

Supposedly, John R. Scott, Town Attorney, in a memo dated June 25, 1976, to Town Clerk Eugene G. Barnett, written on the legal department of the Town of Belleville stationery, regarding the issuance of licenses to liquor establishments, read, "Judge Blake has ordered that licenses be issued forthwith in connection with those liquor establishments who have applied for licenses for the operation of pinball and other related machines."

Copies were sent, the memo indicated, to the Mayor and the Board of Commissioners. As of late July 2, Commissioner Saletta indicated he had not received such correspondence. Likewise, Commissioner Saletta stated he only saw a copy of correspondence given to Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight in which Mr. Scott stated Judge Blake had ordered the suspension of issuing summons in regards to this matter. Saletta, as Director of the Police Department, said he had not gotten a copy of such correspondence.

An interested citizen mailed a copy of Mr. Scott's memo to the Town Clerk and to Judge Blake, asking if the Assignment Judge would have sanctioned such a statement by Town Attorney Scott, in view of the fact an appeal was supposedly filed on the question of licenses.

Some sources believe Judge Blake only issued a show cause order concerning the license, rather than the impression which might have been derived from the communications referred to above. Commissioner Saletta strongly challenges the manner in which the entire matter has unfolded and is strongly pressing for an appeal of any move to declare Belleville's ban on these machines invalid.

Letters

Mary's 'coup' comes under fire

To the Editor:

The following is an open letter to Mrs. Mary V. Senatore, the Chairwoman of the Belleville Democratic Committee.

Well, kid, you took it on the chin again. Your little would-be purge in the primary elections quite deservedly fell apart at its ill-conceived seams.

You sought to wrest from four good Democrats their County Committee seats and replace them with "Senatorecrats."

Marshalling all the might and power of your highly touted organization and the drawing power of the "A" line, you managed to win only one seat. On top of that, you had a couple of pretty good scares from other minor efforts. This sort of thing brings comfort to the hearts of those of us who respect the voting public.

Have you figured out why yet? Maybe I can offer a little gratuitous advice, because it's obvious what you've been getting lately isn't doing you any good.

First: Only competent leadership brings capable followers.

Second: One can fool some of the voters all of the time and all of the voters some of the time, but not all the voters all the time.

Third: Read "The Peter Principle," and see where you stand.

Fourth: The truth will out. And the truth is, that what you have been selling as leadership, Belleville Democrats ain't buying any more.

If I haven't made myself clear, maybe I can spell it out more clearly. There's a new breeze blowing, and it may take some wind out of your sails. Democrats are not lemmings, and they are working to establish an effective control over their party. You'll be hearing from them, bank on that.

If I were you, I'd be looking over my political shoulder to see what that parade behind me was. I think you might find it marching to a different drummer.

My best regards in your anticipated retirement.

Accent on Action

Salvation Army: it fills the gaps

Accent on Action is a public service feature written by Barbara Alden of the United Way to inform readers of services and agencies available to them in Belleville. Today's article is about the Salvation Army, a United Way agency.

"What is the Salvation Army?" I asked Dave Robbins of the Boston Store, an officer of the Belleville Salvation Service Unit. We have all seen the smiling faces under the familiar hats on street corners, but probably most of us couldn't begin to name the many services provided by these selfless people. "Our programs fill the gaps where other agencies cannot help," said Mr. Robbins. "Our flexibility allows us to give help, usually within 24 hours, to meet emergencies. All cases are screened by our clearance committee and then action is taken to fill their needs."

Mrs. Lenora Keeney serves as chairman of the Belleville Service Unit, and Mr. Robbins as secretary. "We have a large group of professional volunteers," said Mr. Robbins, "people from Town Hall right on down, whom we can call on. Our work falls generally into four categories - transients, residential, medical and our holiday programs (Christmas and Thanksgiving). We also get camperships for deserving kids who would benefit from a camp experience."

"We work cooperatively with service clubs, civic, clergy and welfare personnel," Mr. Robbins added. "In this way we can be sure to help the truly needy without duplication of effort. Last year we were able to give assistance to over 100 people."

Mrs. Keeney offered some background on the Salvation Army. "Legally, Salvation Army is a religious, charitable, non-profit organization whose officers can perform marriages and burials; administer social welfare, conduct business of the organization and spread the gospel. In practice, it is people helping people. If you ask, 'What can Salvation Army do for those in need?,' The answer must be 'What do they need done?' Salvation Army works in the American tradition of neighbor helping neighbor."

"Although Salvation Army is a Christian organization, it helps people without regard to race or creed," Mrs. Keeney continued. "Our volunteers are members of all creeds. The important thing to all of us is helping people who need help."

The Belleville Service Unit has no paid staff

- all work is done by volunteers. Salvation Army receives funds from the local United Way drive, but many times the volunteers simply take what is needed from their own pockets, or call on local professional people for help.

Typical services given by a Salvation Army Service Unit are: an unmarried mother directed to a Salvation Army home and hospital; a handicapped person receiving a wheelchair, crutches, hearing aid, Braille literature, help in acquiring a Seeing Eye Dog, doctor's attention, glasses, dentures;—the list could go on almost indefinitely. Then there are Christmas toys and dinners, gifts for shut-ins and veterans or for anyone who is alone and forgotten; disaster supplies; emergency lodges; missing persons' bureau; rehabilitation centers for men; homes for the aged; free employment service; assistance to migrants. And these services are given all over the world—from Hong Kong to Paris, from Africa to Hawaii—to Belleville, N.J.

Summing up the spirit of the Salvation Army is probably done best in a favorite bible verse, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself." Luke 10:27

The State We're In

What you put in is what you get back

By DAVID F. MOORE

With gloomy news about the ocean disgorging sewage on Long Island beaches, we are reminded more than ever that what Man puts into the environment will surely come back to haunt him sooner or later.

Haunt is an inadequate word. Afflict would be more accurate. This is especially true in the case of oil spread upon the water, as in the cases of leading pipes, ruptured tanks or ships or faulty oil wells.

With drilling on the outer continental shelf in the Atlantic Ocean off the New Jersey coast looking more likely, we must come to grips with the likelihood that massive oil spills will afflict our 127 miles of beachfront.

In fact, the President's Council on Environmental Quality said recently, "A comprehensive analysis of oil spill data for offshore platforms, pipelines and tankers indicated that oil spills are highly likely during the life of an oil field."

That's why Senate bill 1409, introduced by Sen. John F. Russo of Toms River, has attracted a lot of interest. Named the "Spill Compensation and Control Act," it would prohibit discharges of petroleum and other hazardous substances, provide for their cleanups and establish a fund to cover such costs.

When one realizes that New Jersey's shoreline resort business and related industries in 1973 was estimated to be worth $3.1 billion compared with only $1.6 billion in 1960, it becomes apparent that everybody in this tiny state has a more than passing interest in protecting its shore from destructive oil spills.

I have not even mentioned the environmental disaster represented by such an oil spill, which may surprise regular readers of this column. Needless to say, I'm very worried about that aspect, inasmuch as oil spills mean death and destruction to countless forms of wildlife which inhabit our shores, both above and below the waterline.

It's becoming more widely recognized that an environment which is unhealthy for bird, animal and marine life is also less than adequate for people, in terms of physical, mental and financial well-being.

In a statement entered at a recent Senate public hearing on S-1490, the New Jersey Conservation Foundation noted that the bill calls for maintaining a $50-million level in its cleanup fund. It was suggested by NJCF that, because 5% interest will double money in only 14 years, any money over $75-million in the fund be earmarked for a special purpose.

This would be to maintain and improve the productivity of the state's fish and wildlife habitats and resources, and to buy more land to provide needed habitats. The suggestion was made because, even without a major oil spill, the environment suffers from the very presence of oil-related activities.

This is the drop-by-drop, as it were, of oil into the marine environment from activities of tankers, pipelines and drilling operations. The resulting pollution is more sneaky than dramatic, but is no less destructive on a cumulative basis.

It's appropriate that, since the state is the custodian of our fish and wildlife resources, and since low levels of oil pollution degrade those resources, oil money should provide for long-term protection.

Pastor's goal is strength

Faith and theology are not always confined to churches.

The new pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church, the Rev. Dominic Scibilia, says his goal is to strengthen his congregation to be "theologically and spiritually sound and consistent and to take their theology into the community."

Pastor Scibilia, 25, added the Bethany congregation has always been active in terms of the community. The church runs a day care center and the newly ordained pastor said he plans to hold an Open House this month for the youth of the congregation and their friends.

A Lay School of Theology conducted on a semester basis is also scheduled for the fall, Pastor Scibilia said. Speakers at the school will relate beliefs to the everyday world. "Theology happens at the business office on Monday and not with someone writing a big book," Pastor Scibilia said.

The great leap of faith so often described as necessary for belief is not much different from everyday assumptions, according to the new pastor. "The essence of math and science is faith, he said. One hundred percent of the things we do are built on faith and presuppositions of the laws of physics and biology. Some people tend to put their faith in science as a result, finding answers but never asking the ultimate questions. The question being, 'in the face of my demise, what does life mean?'"

Pastor Scibilia said the essence of Christianity is the "sense of proclamation of the Christ event, a sense of God's love, 'agape' and of being in a loving relationship with God and everyone.

This loving relationship can be broken by human failings but as Pastor Scibilia describes the belief of Lutheranism, reconciliation with God, is by God's action. "God through Christ accepts and loves me as I am. In essence, I'm human, there's going to be failing but there's acceptance by God and his people because of the Christ event."

The Christian point of view of Pastor Scibilia is a well-rounded one because he was raised a Roman Catholic and converted to Lutheranism after "a time of four years of personal struggle" while he was in college.

A prominent difference the pastor notes in the two religions is that Luther saw grace as a result of God's action and the Catholic approach, according to the pastor, is more systematic, a quantitative system through the sacraments to gain grace.

The pastor said he saw interpretation of the Lord's Supper by the two faiths as a major hurdle toward an Ecumenical union.

The new political morality of this election year with its religious overtones would only be dangerous, if it is being used as a political ploy, Pastor Scibilia said. The reverend also said he suspects American morality is no different now than it's ever been. The abortion issue should be thought of in terms of, Does a person have a right to make the decision to have an abortion rather than the asking what is the moment of the beginning of life? Christian Morals, according to the Pastor, should be formed by the questions, am I being loving? — am I doing the loving thing?

Pastor Scibilia enjoys music, writing poetry, fictional sketches, and the theatre. He has used his writing ability and theatre knowledge to advantage in sermons. The pastor used a passage from Eugene O'Neill's "Moon for the Misbegotten" as an example of the source of sin and the power of forgiveness.

The new pastor of Bethany Lutheran on Joramelon Street was ordained at the church June 20 after completing a year internship at a church in Valley Stream, Long Island. The President of the New Jersey Synod, Dr. Edwin Ehlerse officiated, Rev. Thomas Kennedy preached at the ordination, and Rev. Glen Englehardt led the liturgy.

Pastor Scibilia was born in Irvington and graduated from Rutgers University in Newark in 1972. He attended the Lutheran Seminary in Columbia, South Carolina. He now lives at 188 New Street with his wife Susanne.

Contract compromise reached

By JODI MASSONE

One year ago

A ten-month contract dispute between Belleville police, firemen and the Board of Commissioners ended when both parties settled on a compromise $750 across-the-board increase which would become effective that following April.

The settlement, which followed an evening of picketing by both police and firemen, was expected to be officially ratified by the Commissioners at a town meeting later on that month.

The tentative contract called for a $750 per man increase retroactive to April 1, plus life insurance coverage for all police and firemen. Negotiators and the Board had been on the verge of discussing the retroactivity issue earlier the week before, when talks temporarily broke down.

Initially, the police and firemen had requested a $1,000 per man increase retroactive to January 1, when the last contracts expired. The Commissioners had been reported ready to agree to the $1,000 figure, but only retroactive to July 1.

As the result of a raid conducted by the Essex County Strike Force, gambling indictments had been returned against two Belleville men and a $57 million sports betting operation was broken up.

Two years ago

Cosmo S. Pelaia, who was Environmental Improvement Commissioner, wanted to block off a mile and a half of road in Branch Brook Park on Sundays to form a special bicycle path. The idea was not met with too much enthusiasm by the Essex County Park Commission, but Pelaia was determined, and was to lobby the Essex County Board of Freeholders.

Pelaia mentioned that there was a similar project going on in Nutley, and had been going on for some time in Central Park, New York. He further added that it did not cost anything, and that bicyclists would welcome the idea.

Although 40 mail carriers were transferred from the Main Office on Washington Avenue to the Main Street Annex, Mayor Joseph McGreevy assured Town residents that he had a solemn promise from officials that customer service would be continued at the Washington Avenue outlet.

Six years ago

With the undesirable prospect of 100 million gallons of sewage being dumped into the Passaic River by the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission, Belleville officials Mary Senatore and Vincent Strumolo raised the possibility of a lawsuit against the Commission to block the dumping.

Belleville announced its plan to block the sewage move after Nutley announced that it would use any means necessary to stop the dumping.

Commissioner Strumolo, head of the Health Department was indignant about the idea and about the possibilities of the pollution and stated the sewage dumping which would occur while the Sewage Commission repaired a sewer main in Newark was, "intolerable."

Fourth of July was over, but the fireworks were not!

Belleville Police answered more than 29 complaints concerning firecrackers from July 3 through the 6th. A police spokesman stated that the Department had been deluged with calls, many of which could not be answered.

Twelve years ago

The Town Council investigated plans for repairing sections of the Municipal Stadium. Several appraisals of the cost for different plans were looked into, and immediate improvements, under the control of the town, were expected to be started.

Seventeen years ago

John F. Kidde was elected chairman of the Walter Kidde and Company of Canada, Limited.

K.J. Hammill was elected president and chief officer of that same company.

Twenty-two years ago

Second Lieutenant Edward W. Costendbader Jr. of Fairway Avenue was awarded his Air Force pilot's silver wings in graduation ceremonies at Vance Air Force Base, Oklahoma.

Thirty-two years ago

The appointment of Dr. Martia M. Meehan of Washington Avenue as a member of the Belleville/Nutley ration board was announced by chairman Herbert C. Schmutz.

Forty-seven years ago

The Zoning Board refused to endorse the Commission's proposed Town-wide rezoning map. The revision, sponsored by Commissioner Gibson, was to zone areas for apartment houses, which Gibson claimed the Town needed.

The Zoning Board rejected the proposal because they said the new map was not properly studied and planned.

come and pay their last respects to my husband, Frank Pace.

I would like to say from his family and myself, thank you. And thank you all for the many ways you helped me while he was in the hospital. I will never forget, and try hard in my own way to help each one of you as best I can.

Belleville has been good to us, and the town officials have made things easy for me in my worst hour. I would like to thank each one.

I found out that the people in Belleville will go out of their way to help one another and I pray that this will never end.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Student salutes departing teacher

To the Editor:

I would like to dedicate this letter to Mrs. Cerami, a former teacher of mine who has recently retired.

Mrs. Cerami instilled in all her students encouragement and a desire to succeed in life. As a teacher, she was respected by everyone. As a friend, she always had time to listen, no matter how busy she was.

While I was on the cooperative Office Education Program, I was prepared to face the business world with the knowledge Mrs. Cerami made available to her students.

Mrs. Cerami worked very hard on the COE program, and through her continuous efforts, we were able to benefit greatly. Her students will always remember her dedication.

I wish Mrs. Cerami all the happiness in the world, because everyone knows this incredible lady deserves every bit of it.

Albert completes a small survey

To the Editor:

While checking the assessment on land in the town of Nutley and the city of Newark, I found many discrepancies in the value of the land in the town of Belleville.

Belleville's tax rate of 7.02 per 100 is equal to the city of Newark's $10 tax rate, because of the difference of the land valuation in both communities.

Under the last revaluation program held in Belleville, my land at 75 Lake Street was increased from $1,100 to $4,400 and all my neighbors are in that same category.

Land in the city of Newark located at 495 Delavan Avenue, a 50 by 100 foot lot, is assessed at $1,500. Land in Nutley located at 57 Florence Street, also a corner lot of 50 by 100 feet, is assessed at $1,700.

Is land in Belleville more valuable than that in other cities, or is it a political gimmick to raise more funds from the taxpayers to keep the politicians and their machines happy?

Now is the time for the taxpayers and our elected Commissioners to fight back against revaluation until the discrepancies on the land are cleared up.

The city of Newark has defied the County for 17 years, because of the billions of dollars in tax exempt property located there. Belleville has them too. Albert Guglicelli

Class president praises Marotti

To the Editor:

A very dangerous tradition has formed on graduation night throughout the United States — party hopping. Going from one house to another, high school students have often been killed in accidents on what should have been the happiest day of their adolescent lives.

I'm proud to say that with the assistance of a generous mayor and the idea of the Class of 1975, Belleville has been one less town with this crisis. For the second year in a row, Mr. Michael Marotti donated the Amvets hall on graduation night. There, the graduated enjoyed socializing with each other.

I hope for future graduating classes, this "life saving" idea will again be made functional.

Jaycees sponsor camp trip for kids

The Belleville Jaycees are sponsoring two children to New Jersey Camp Jaycee, a new camp providing overnight camping for the mentally retarded children of New Jersey.

The children will be attending the camp this month. The facility is located in the Pocono Mountain resort area in Pennsylvania.

The 185 acre camp is run by the New Jersey Association for Retarded Children, and consists of a qualified camp director, registered nurse, Red Cross instructor, dietician, and many counselors.

The camp, which is maintained by the Jaycees, provides all the usual camp activities for the children, such as swimming, arts and crafts, games, hiking, boating, and cookouts. The camp also helps the children gain self-confidence, come home with new skills, new friends and a new faith in his or her own ability.

William R. Feltey becomes degreed

William Richard Feltey, 126 Cortlandt Street, received his Associate in Science degree May 16 from Essex County College, Newark.

Feltey, a graduate of Belleville High School, and a social science and sociology major at the college, was on the Dean's List during his entire stay at the school. He was a member of the "Literary Magazine" and is co-editor of the college yearbook, which is slated for completion this August.

The graduate will be entering Montclair State College this fall as a Junior, majoring in sociology.

HOPE still working

In 1879 reports came to the United States from London that Mark Twain had died, which prompted Mr. Twain to cable the Associated Press with the now-famous, "reports of my death are greatly exaggerated."

In 1976 another great American is suffering a similar exaggeration.

The white hospital ship of Project HOPE will always be remembered. But the fact that HOPE continues to work diligently and effectively in the medical care and education field without the ship should not be overlooked.

As Dr. Bill Walsh, President and founder of HOPE, has stated, "Although the symbol of the ship remains in the minds of many, we must never lose sight of the fact that HOPE was never a ship, but always people. There were people who gave of themselves, gave of their knowledge and worked at a person-to-person level with their colleagues and students both here at home and abroad." These were the people who accounted for "an inspiring example of the desire of Americans to bring better health to people around the world," according to President Gerald R. Ford.

The concept and philosophy of sharing needed medical know-how and technology with the developing areas of the world has always been the keystone of HOPE. Not charity, not give-away programs, but an exchange of ideas and medical adaptations to suit particular needs; helping people to help themselves is the true appeal of HOPE. This is what the foundation has been for 18 years and what it continues to be now.

In the past two years, HOPE has been able to expand its commitments to other areas of the world. One example is the creation of a cancer detection program in the impoverished areas of Northeast Brazil, where cancer prevention was unheard of previous to HOPE's arrival.

In 1972, the first year of the HOPE cytology program, just 250 "pap" smears were taken. The work of the HOPE educator and her Brazilian counterpart was simply to inform the population of the availability and importance of the service. Not as simple a task as it sounds. Building confidence and trust took patience, perseverance, and support. The Brazilians and Americans established lines of communication with the general population through radio and television, the distribution of literature, even door-to-door canvassing.

The program has turned out to be the most comprehensive and successful cancer detection and prevention program in all of Brazil, with over 4,000 cytologies performed in 1975. Hopefully, this increases to 5,000 in 1976.

The HOPE cytology educator has completed her educational work and turned three functioning laboratories over to the Brazilian medical community. Her newest assignment is in Egypt, where HOPE works with students and instructors at the Cancer Institute in Cairo, establishing a similar cytology program for that nation.

Closer to home there is HOPE's program in El Paso, Texas. In one phase of the program, the HOPE emergency medical technologist educator is establishing an emergency medical program covering over 21,000 square miles of West Texas with over 1 million potential patients.

His work with the police and fire departments, hospitals, and civic groups will eventually extend the eyes, ears, and hands of the physicians in the El Paso Community to nearly any medical emergency in that six-county area.

Only two examples — but they offer a reason for HOPE's existence.

In 1879, Mr. Twain reported to the world that he was alive and well. In 1976, HOPE is also very much alive and well. But more, Project HOPE is improving health through teaching and treating.

She was predeceased by her husband, Gary F., and is survived by one son, Gary F. of Ontario; one sister, Mrs. Madeline Maguire of Ireland, and four grandchildren.

The funeral took place from the Kiernan Funeral Home, followed by burial in Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Montclair.

Senior seminar offered at MSC

Older residents in Northern New Jersey still have an opportunity to experience campus life this summer in a five-day residential seminar at Montclair State College July 19 through 23.

Kathy Manko of the college's Resource Center for Practitioners in the Field of Aging announces that registration is still open. Because this seminar was consolidated with one that had been planned for an earlier date, extra places are available, she said.

The seminar, similar to a highly successful pilot program at Montclair State last year, brings a group of citizens, 60 years or over, to the campus for a variety of experiences. It is, in effect, "a learning vacation," Miss Manko explains.

Participants live in dormitories at in the dining halls, and have free access to all of the college facilities. In addition to sports, recreational activities, and entertainment, they take part in seminars designed to explore questions and issues facing older adults.

Senior notes

By GEORGE CHENOWETH

A friend of mine made a survey on his block in Nutley and found out the following:

Four houses are assessed the same amount for tax purposes. House number one has four school age children and two adults. House number two has two senior citizens. House number three has one senior widow. House number four has one 80-year-old individual who has been hospitalized for the past eight months.

In each of these cases, the real estate tax is $1,400 per year. Each of these homes pays $588 for school taxes, or 42 percent of the total tax bill.

Our legislators must be made aware of circumstances like this when they are trying to get out of the tax maze in Trenton. Where is the justification for such an inequity where seniors are concerned? Certainly, our state legislators can come up with a package on a ration basis that could work, but it will take a lot of brains to make, it so.

Hello, assemblymen and senators, are you equal to the task?

Captain Dunleavy of the Belleville Fire Department was the speaker at last week's meeting of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club. While he was there, a fire drill was held.

News of this club includes the arrangement of physical exercise classes with the Senior Services of Essex County College. An instructor has been appointed and 93 members have signed up. The classes started yesterday, and continue every Wednesday for 15 weeks until the completion of the course.

The Bicentennial Fiesta is shaping up, plans have been completed for a party at the Fountain on July 28.

Host and hostesses for last week were Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mae Friel.

Park offers anglers aid

Free fishing gear, free fishing instruction, and informal environmental talks with staff members of the Essex County Park Commission will be provided for kids, senior citizens, and the handicapped this summer in parks throughout Essex County. It's all part of the Park Commission's "Urban Fishing '76" recreation and education program. And it's sure to provide many an enjoyable day of fishing for young and old, novices and veterans alike.

"The Urban Fishing program is basically geared toward group participation," explains the Commission's president, Bernard A. Kuttner. "We want to make it easy for citizens of all ages to get out there and enjoy the Park System's fishing grounds this summer. And the Park Commission is picking up the entire tab. There's no registration fee, and participants in the program need not even apply for fishing licenses."

The fishing should be good this season," says Enrico Prata, who is in charge of the Urban Fishing program. "Recent checking of our ponds and lakes indicate that bass, panfish, carp, catfish, and even some trout are there for the catching."

For registration in the program, or for more information, contact Enrico Prata at the Park Commission's Administrative Offices, 115 Clifton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, (201) 482-6400

All 5% interest rates are not created equal.

Although these four savings accounts all give a 5% interest rate, they each earn different amounts of money. Because they each compute the interest differently, Midlantic Bank computes its 5% interest using the "Day-of-Deposit to Day-of-Withdrawal" method. As you can see, this is the one that earns the most money for you.

Another advantage of our 5% savings plan is that it doesn't require a passbook. Instead, you receive a statement in the mail every three months that shows you everything a passbook would.

Come in and we'll be glad to assist you in opening a 5% Day-of-Deposit to Day-of-Withdrawal Savings Account and answer any questions you may have on why our 5% interest rate is just a little more equal than some other banks' 5% interest rate.

Nancy K. Harper, Capt. R. A. Mooney engaged to wed

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Harper of Baltimore, Maryland, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Kipp to Capt. Robert Arthur Mooney, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Mooney of 114 Tappan Avenue.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Dulane Senior High School and Villa Julie College, Stevenson, Maryland. She is a medical secretary.

Capt. Mooney, an alumnus of St. Benedict's Preparatory School, Newark and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, New York, was awarded his masters degree at John Hopkins University School of Medicine.

An August wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mignone

Mr. and Mrs. Mignone celebrate a golden year

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mignone of Belleville were honored June 27 at a 50th wedding anniversary party at Neils New Yorker Restaurant in Mountain Lakes.

On hand to honor the couple were 100 or more relatives and friends. The party was hosted by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Guarino of Fairfield, Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Mignone of Landing and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mignone of Brewster, New York. Also attending were the couple's nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. Mignone and the former Miss Tessie Veneziano were married June 27, 1926 at Sacred Heart Church, Bloomfield, and have always lived in Belleville where Mr. Mignone operated his own trucking business for more than 35 years before his retirement.

DAR Good Citizenship medal awarded by Yantacaw Chapter

Melinda Amorosi of Holy Family School, Nutley, and Paula Gibson of Collegiate School in Passaic, were awarded DAR Good Citizenship medals at their eighth grade graduations in June. The Reverend Francis Blake made the presentation at Holy Family School; and Mrs. M.C. Keeney, Regent of Yantacaw Chapter DAR, at Collegiate School. Melinda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Amorosi of Belleville. Paula's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Gibson of Clifton.

The medals are awarded to boys or girls who have demonstrated the qualities of honor, service, courage, leadership and patriotism. They are given in schools nationwide as a project of the National Defense Committee of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution recognizing effort put forth by young people in the field of American citizenship. Schools select their own recipients by whatever method they choose.

Melinda will attend Belleville High School and Paula, who was Class Valedictorian, will continue her studies at Collegiate School.

Miss Lugo, John Pazapio Stork Club exchange wedding vows

Jennifer H. Landolfi

Wedding vows were exchanged June 19 by Miss Maria Lugo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lugo and John Pazapio, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pazapio of Belleville.

The Rev. Benedetto Pascale performed the ceremony at his home. A luncheon followed at the Pazapio home.

Robert Pazapio was his brother's best man and Mrs. Sara Messig, aunt of the groom, was matron of honor.

Mrs. Pazapio is employed in Newark. Mr. Pazapio is with Wilpet Tool of Kearny.

Belleville-Nutley La Leche League meets Wednesday

La Leche League of Belleville-Nutley will hold the third meeting of its Summer Series at the home of Mrs. Dianne Mount 141 Branchbrook Drive, Belleville, July 14 at 9 a.m.

The topic for this month's discussion will be The Baby Arrives; The Family and the Breastfed Baby. The discussion leader will be Mary Beth Bryant of Bloomfield.

La Leche League is an organization of mothers whose purpose is to encourage good mothering through breastfeeding. Anyone interested in learning more about breastfeeding is welcome, as are their babies.

Attention Brides

During this peak wedding season, there may be a more than usual delay in publishing pictures and accounts of recent weddings. Weddings are covered strictly in the order in which they are received by the newspapers and early submission is essential if the account is to appear immediately after the nuptials.

G.I. Bill students face new deadline

Many New Jersey veterans presently attending school under the G.I. Bill will be affected by the statutory delimiting date imposed by the law.

James R. Purdy, Director of the Newark Regional Office, advises that veterans who had active military service between January 31, 1955 and May 31, 1966 were eligible for educational benefits under the current G.I. Bill which became law on June 1, 1966.

interpretation, that's not what it says at all."

Though the police may picket Tuesday's Commission meeting, Escott indicated the union might give up the tactic because "we don't feel picketing will do any good."

The PBA has been silent on whether any type of job action might be planned, and Escott has said publicly he doubted there would be any.

There were reports last week police had stepped up ticketing motorists, but both Escott and Commissioner Saletta said the story was false.

"We wouldn't do that," said Escott. "We would only succeed in getting people mad at us."

Saletta said he did not expect any type of job action by the officers, adding, "It would be in bad taste for them to do anything like that (ticketing). I feel they are too professional an organization to take any sort of action like that."

There has also been speculation of the possible reorganization of the police department in order to compensate for the anticipated manpower losses. There have reportedly been some reassignments, but Police Chief Joseph Smith could not be reached for comment.

Saletta left open the possibility that one-man cars might be utilized, but he would only say it was one of the options which might be considered. The one-man patrols would operate during the daylight hours.

Board will 'strictly adhere'

Bloomfield are reported operating outside of school buildings, thereby avoiding use of utilities, but Greco said he believed this might still be in violation of the court edict.

"The students must be using texts and materials that belong to the school," he said, "and that may be a violation of the ruling."

Greco said Belleville's summer school would be ready to open as soon as approval would be given, but

Rescue — Members of the Belleville Fire Department were called to Route 21 last week to free a driver trapped in a crashed truck. Anthony Silva of Portsmouth, Rhode Island, the driver, was taken to Clara Maass Hospital after being extracted from the wreck. The trailer he was hauling jackknifed after the hitch broke.

Senatore, Saletta continue battle

Commissioners Rocco Saletta and Mary Senatore, consistent foes of revaluation, indicated this week they would hold their ground despite a new court order.

Superior Court Judge Arthur Blake has ordered the Commission to appropriate $149,000 to pay for revaluation by August 15. If the group fails to vote approval of the funds, the individual Commissioners could be jailed for contempt of court.

The Board of Commissioners recently voted 3-1, directing Town Attorney John Scott to appeal Blake's ruling. Scott has said publicly he would have no legal grounds on which to base such an appeal.

Saletta and Mrs. Senatore have both criticized Scott for his public statements and questioning whether such an attitude is beneficial to the preparation of an appeal.

"He shouldn't throw his hands up in disgust," said Saletta. "He should be looking for grounds on which to base an appeal. There is an injustice being done here."

Mrs. Senatore also expressed displeasure, adding, "There has to be a way of cutting down revaluation."

The two Commissioners also indicated they are still steadfastly opposed to the entire revaluation move, the court order notwithstanding.

Passage of the special appropriation requires four Commission votes, and Mrs. Senatore and Saletta have consistently voted against the measure.

The measure will be on next Tuesday's agenda, and both Mrs. Senatore and Saletta have said they would not vote in favor of it.

QUESTIONS MOST ASKED BY OUR CUSTOMERS:

IS IT TRUE THAT ELECTRICITY WILL COST ME MORE DURING THE SUMMER?

Yes, it will. Higher summer electric rates may prove to be an effective way to encourage the wise use of energy. They were approved by the New Jersey Board of Public Utility Commissioners in 1975.

Our customers use more electricity during the warm weather months (June through October) than at any other time of year. This is due mostly to the widespread use of air conditioning. Thus, the slightly higher rates may help reduce peaks in demand and make more efficient use of our electric system.

Each kilowatt-hour of electricity you use over 300 per month from June through October will be charged at the higher rate. For example, if you use about 500 kilowatt-hours of electricity per month at home, you can expect an increase of about 7 1/2 percent over winter bills, assuming present fuel prices remain the same.

We know that higher rates are not popular, but the truth is that cheap energy is a thing of the past for all of us. Until new and better sources of energy—perhaps fusion or solar power—become practical, PSE&G is relying more and more on nuclear energy to help meet New Jersey's future electric demand.

Electricity produced by nuclear energy is cheaper to generate, because nuclear fuel is cheaper than coal or oil. Our best estimates indicate nuclear energy will continue to cost less in the years to come. We're convinced that, for now, nuclear energy is the best way to keep electric energy costs as low as possible.

"Every day we're asked serious questions regarding energy costs, future supplies of energy and the wise use of energy. This series of informational advertisements answers many of the questions we most frequently receive and is designed to make facts about energy available to all our customers."

R. I. Smith
President, PSE&G

Chipper Biafore, of Belleville's American Legion Post 105 baseball team, blocks Nutley's defenseman away in an attempt to score a run not a touchdown. Biafore, above, was out at the plate. That's the way the Legion season has been going. At bottom, John Guarino throws for the Post 105ers at Nutley.

Olympics bound

Phil Grippaldi, of the Belleville Barbell Club will be heading for his third Olympic Games in eight years this month in Montreal. The local weightlifter qualified for the games by placing second in the 198 pound class at the Senior National Weightlifting Championships and Olympic Trials. Grippaldi's lifts were a 330 pound snatch and a 430 pound clean and jerk.

Bruins triumphant over three more

By JOSEPH RYAN

The Bruins triumphed in three more contests in the last week to increase their league lead to six and a half games over Verona and to establish their record at 17-2.

The defending champions of the Essex County League pounced the East Orange Panthers, 6-4, last Friday, stumped the Livingston Giants, 7-6, in 14 innings, and totaled the Verona Twins, 8-4 all in the last six days.

Today the Bellevilleites will meet the South Orange Dolphins in an away game and will travel tomorrow for a night game with Union at 8. The baseball bears will challenge Livingston away on Saturday and then contend with East Orange for two away games on Sunday and Wednesday. The Bruins will not be home until a July 18 match with the West Orange Red Sox.

The Bellevilleites are about three games ahead of last year's championship pace at the halfway point of their season. The bear's general manager, Mike Welsh, said the prospects for another bruins championship season "are looking good now, as long as everybody doesn't get a little complacent." The chances for the top spot are enhanced by the team's performance against Verona, the second place team, Belleville defeated Monday. The Twins have yet to down the bears and are trailing them by six and a half games.

Home runs by Tony Roselle and Bill Otskey propelled the Bruins past the Verona-Cedar Grove Twins in their July 5 meeting. The Belleville diamond men took the lead with a four run second inning and never relinquished it.

Designated hitter Tom Scull reached first on a fielders choice in the second. He was advanced on the bases by center-fielder Willie Puentes' base hit. Chipper Biafore, making his first appearance as a Bruin, scored an rbi his first time up by driving home Scull with a base hit. Tony Roselle then unloaded a homer to take the Bruins into a lead they never gave up. The clout was Roselle's third round-tripper of the year.

Bill Otskey walked for Belleville in the fourth and advanced to third on an overthrow. Catcher Otskey scored with the single run of the inning when Jim Rake grounded out to second.

Otskey slammed another Bruin home run in the eighth for the sixth Bruin

Phil Grippaldi is olympian

When the 1976 American Olympic Team enters the stadium in Montreal this month, Belleville will be represented by weightlifter Phil Grippaldi.

This month's games will be the third Olympiad for Grippaldi, who was also a member of the 1968 and 1972 contingents. A member of the Belleville Barbell Club, Grippaldi was selected for the U.S. on the basis of his second place finish at the combined Senior National Weightlifting Championships and Olympic Trials.

Grippaldi's feats at the trials included a 330 pound snatch and a 430 pound clean and jerk lift. The Bellevilleite had a near miss with an American record clean and jerk of 457 which would have put him in first place. The winning lift was turned in by Lee James of the U.S. Army, who made a 352 snatch and a 430 clean and jerk.

The two top winners in each event were selected for the Olympic games.

Other weightlifters from the Belleville area also did some excellent lifting. Wayne Guarino, in the 165 weight class, did lifts of a 242 snatch and a 314 clean and jerk.

Belleville had two strong men in the 242 pound class with Brian Derwin and Bob Giordano. Derwin made 319 and 424 while Giordano had a 319 and 413 pound clean and jerk. A spokesman for the Barbell Club said Guarino and Giordano stand an excellent chance of being chosen for the 1977 World Championship Team in Stuttgart, West Germany.

Legion splits two

The Post 105 Legionnaires split two games in the past week topping Newark, 5-3, in a home game last Friday and losing to Nutley Post 70 on Monday, 10-5.

Saturday the Bellevilleites will travel to Montclair for an afternoon game at 5. Monday the Legion nine will host Milburn home at 6 p.m. and then travel for a game Wednesday night at East Orange.

The Legionnaires met Cedar Grove yesterday at Municipal Stadium but the results were in too late for this edition of the Times/News.

Belleville's American Legion team started the Bicentennial weekend by defeating Newark at home, 5-3. Center-fielder John Guarino proved to be a fireworks display at the plate as he rocketed two home runs and batted in all five scores for Belleville in the game.

Third baseman Bob Giordano doubled to start the Legion scoring in the first when he was driven home by Guarino's first blast of the day. Belleville bracketed the day's scoring by crossing the plate with three more runs in the seventh inning.

Leftfielder Greg Petite led the scoring attack in the last inning by opening with a single. Anthony "Chipper" Biafore drew a walk and paved the way for a three run homer slammed by Guarino.

Danny Borgo went the distance on the mound for the Legionnaires in the victory. Borgo was a stand-out hurler this spring for the BHS freshman team.

A traditional Fourth of July cross-town rivalry game with Nutley was moved to the celebration on the fifth and the Bellevilleites traveled to meet the Post 70 team and returned with little to cheer about. Nutley downed the Post 105ers, 10-5.

Nutley jumped off to the lead in the first and kept it for the rest of the game. Following a first inning home run by Nutley shortstop Lehmann, the Nutley Legionnaires increased their lead with three runs in the third and six more in the sixth inning.

The Belleville Legionnaires scoring started in the seventh when Nutley's thrower Gibney started to walk the Bellevilleites. Outfielder Greg Petite walked at the start of the inning and free bases

Belleville bowlers scattering the pins

The Brunswick Annual District Tournament drew 150 squads of bowlers and the Belleville ten-pinner captured three first place finishes.

Bellevilleite keggers who emerged at the top of the Bantam Boys division included: Ronnie Zigarelli, Chris Moraski, Tony Sangrocom, and John Kenneuy.

More Olympic Lane people won in the Bantam Mix division including: Steve Novak, John Scheu, Carol Ann Triano, and Dawn Trefsgar. Mrs. Diana Lombardi coached both bantam bowling contingents

The Junior Mix team was another winner at the Brunswick tourney. Vincenza Calandra, Mike Kaksymo, Mike Borgo, and Len Davis earned the third top spot for Olympic. They were coached on the lanes by Mrs. Phyllis Sevideo.

The young Belleville bantams, 8-years old and under, held off all competition to take the title in their division. The youthful ten-pinner included: Jeff England, Jodi Tsai, Chris Tropiano, Dennis Faleo, and Steve Novak.

Belleville keggers were also honored for high marks after a recent Scotch Doubles Tournament sponsored by the Essex County Junior Bowling Association. The Olympic Lane keggers were Chris Tropiano, who rolled a High Series 624; and Jodi Tsai, who won the high game prize with a 209.

PBA pounds East Orange

The Belleville PBA softball team already assured of winning their division finished their regular season schedule by routing the East Orange police team, 17-2.

The PBA diamonders already tops in the American Division of the Essex County League will meet Montclair Saturday at Belleville to start their defense of the 1975 crown in the playoffs. The Belleville policemen compiled a 9-2 regular season record this year to capture the division title.

The local police forcibly subdued the East Orange lawmen by beating them 17-2 in the last contest of the season. Home runs by Bill Escott, Ralph Sia, and Tony LaVista contributed to the run tally. Sia and Escott's round-trippers both drove-in three runs. Joe Simonetti contributed to the blue bats by slamming three doubles.

George Sheridan pitched for Belleville's finest giving up only seven hits and allowing just two unearned runs. The win was Belleville's triumph over last year's defeat at the hands of the East Orange patrolmen, 7-5.

Belleville will now prime themselves for playoff competition. The league has expanded from last year and the late season competition is expected to be rougher. Saturday's game against Montclair is expected to be tough despite Montclair's 5-6 won lost record due to the fact they gave the local lawmen a tough time in a regular season game.

George Sheridan, player-coach of the PBAs said if the "attitude and pride prevail in the final games, the Belleville Police Department will play with the same attitude and pride they showed by winning the Essex County Championship in 1975."

Sheridan also announced the policemen will be playing for the Craig Fund on August 3 representing the AMVETS of Belleville. The softball policemen will also participate in the Mercer County Park tournament in connection with the Jerry Lewis Telethon from September 9 to 12. The games will be part of a statewide tourney.

Members of the division winning defending 1975 champions of the Essex County Police Softball League include: Bill, Escott, Salvatore LoCoco, Bill Adelheim, Joe Simonetti, Al Spencer, Vincent Masi, Jack Kerber, Tony LaVista, Ralph Sia, Chuck Oese, Martin McNish, Ray Kimble, and Robert McDonald.

A long hot day was made longer and hotter for the Belleville Legionnaires on Monday in Nutley when they were downed, 10 to 5. The Bellboys of Spring have slumped a bit understandably after their Big Ten Championship. Monday's contest saw them get as many hits as the Nutley team but they couldn't put them back to back in key places.

Post players post a win

were subsequently dealt to designated hitter Bob Nebelung and Bob Giordano. Infielder Jerry Fazzini then unloaded a double driving in Petite and Nebelung for the first two Belleville runs of the contest.

Fazzini is another member of last spring's Frosh diamond team a Belleville High. He batted over .400 in the spring season.

Fazzini's two run double was followed by more walks drawn by catcher Greg Dunleavy and Nicky Cancelliere. The walk to Cancelliere forced in Bob Giordano. Rocco Balsamo then connected for a sacrifice fly and drove home Fazzini.

Second baseman Scott Osche capped the Belleville scoring with a double that scored Dunleavy.

Pitching for the Post 105ers was shared by starter John Guarino, and Bob Giordano.

Legion coach George Zanfani summarized the Post men's play, now 3-6 for the summer by explaining, "The Intensity is gone, the desire seems to be gone, this is an aftermath."

The Legion coach said it is very difficult most of the time when you have an outstanding high school team to continue the streak on into American Legion play. Zanfani said the Legion men have not been able to put together the back to back hits or make the key plays necessary for victory.

Joseph Obenauer wins pin tourney

Joseph Obenauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Obenauer, 8 Park Street, competed with 2702 boys from the state to become winner of the Essex County Junior Bowling Association trophy.

Joseph, who won a three game hi series with a score of 439, was invited to attend a Scotch Doubles tournament by the Association, at which time he bowled with officers of the club.

Following the tournament there was a buffet and the awarding of trophies.

Home run derby coming up soon

Home Run Derby, the popular Phillies batting contest for boys and girls ages 8 to 15, will be making its first appearance in Belleville on Thursday, July 29.

The contest sponsored locally by TastyKake is free to all boys and girls in the Belleville area. TastyKake will award twenty prizes in the July 29 competition. The derby uses a unique system of awarding prizes. Nine trophies are awarded to the first, second and third place winners in each of the three age groupings. The remaining eleven are awarded by chance drawing. This way, any boy or girl entering the contest is a potential prize winner.

Six winners from the July 29 contest will represent Belleville TastyKake in a regional final scheduled for mid-August. These regional competitions will include first and second place winners in the three divisions. Winners from the regionals will advance to the championship set for Sunday September 12 at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia.

The championship will precede a Phillies-Chicago afternoon game. Since this is the Centennial year for baseball and Belleville is a great baseball town, the Phillies are looking for a great turnout of youngsters on July 29. Home Run Derby is scheduled to start at 5:30 p.m. and will be held at the Michael V. Marotti Little League Field, 92 Montgomery Place, Belleville.

Frank Sullivan, promotions director for the Philadelphia Phillies, stated a grand prize will be offered again this year.

Belleville Barbell Club member, Bob Giordano is shown here displaying the strength that helped him lift 319 and 413 pounds at the Senior National Weightlifting championships. Giordano competed in the 242 pound weight class.

Double threat — John Guarino normally plays the outfield for the Legionnaires, but was assigned mound duty Monday against Nutley. Guarino knows the best defense is a good offense and he contributed to the Bellevilleites' hitting attack with two hits in four trips to the plate. Last Friday, he pounded two homers against Newark.

run of the game and the catcher's third homer this year.

Belleville iced their cake in the last inning when Bob DeJianne tripled home third baseman Frank Petite and Danny Dunn followed with another triple to score DeJianne.

Steve Wacker took the win for the bears with relief help in the ninth from a brand new Bruin mound man Frank Reilly. Manager Welsh said Reilly is expected to strengthen the Bellevilleites pitching staff and looked good on the mound in relief.

Outfielder Jimmy Rake won pitching acclaim for his stint in last Saturday's game against the Livingston Giants. Livingston scored six runs in the first three innings and Rake was called in from the outfield to relieve Armond Sasso. Rake, on short notice proceeded to hold the Giants scoreless for the next 11 rounds of the 14 inning game.

The Bruins have been using Rake when their pitching rotation gets thin and Rake has compiled three victories so far. The versatile Rake took the triple crown for the contest with the Giants, not only playing the outfield and being superb in relief but he provided the winning run in the fourteenth inning.

Rake singled and reached second base on an overthrow and then took third base on a passed ball. Tom Scull then hit a sacrifice fly and Rake crossed the plate with what proved to be the winning run after the busy Bruin held the Giants off in the bottom of the inning.

G.M. Welsh said the Livingston coach tried to psyche the bears before the game by warming up three different pitchers and not saying who was starting for the Giants. Welsh pointed out every team in the league approaches games with the Bruins in similar fashion, taking aim at the league leaders.

Jack Rake pitched his sixth win of the season last Friday by downing the East Orange Panthers, 6-4. Jack is Jimmy Rake's brother and has the best record on the bears mound staff, 6-1.

Belleville started to pound the Panthers in the second on a two run homer by Tom Scull that drove in Danny Dunn who singled. The bears collected four more in the fourth on five base hits and a walk.

Rocky Guarino started the fourth with a single, and Kevin Goy and Tony Roselle followed with singles. Frank Petite then drew a walk with the bases loaded and Bob DeJianne's bases loaded hit drove home Goy and Roselle. Petite scored on a hit by Jim Rake.

Many of the Bruins participated in a Fourth of July All Star Game in Wall Township against the Shore All Stars. The Essex County All Stars started Bruins Tony Roselle, Frank Petite, Bob DeJianne, Danny Dunn, Bill Otskey, Kevin Goy, and Jack Rake on the mound. Bruins Willie Puentes and Jim Rake were also on the all-star team.

Essex County won the game 11-6 in 11 innings when Jim Rake drove home Willie Puentes who had singled and stolen second. Bruin Danny Dunn, a first baseman, was dealt mound duty in the game and pitched five successful relief innings for the Belleville manned Essex County All Stars.

Belleville weightlifter Brian Derwin made lifts of 319 pounds and a 424 clean and jerk at the Senior National Weightlifting Championships. A member of the Belleville Barbell Club, Derwin is said to have a chance at qualifying for the 1977 World Championships.

300 compete in games

The Recreation Department's Independence Day activities included a celebration of the spirit of competition in the Field Day events they sponsored at Municipal Stadium on Monday.

More than 300 youngsters participated in the events, partook of watermelon, and competed in junior and senior divisions for the 30 trophies awarded.

The events included three-legged races, sack races, 50 and 100 yard dashes, cork screw races, and tug-of-wars. The day was organized by the summer playground staff under the direction of Raymond Iannuzzi.

Junior division winners in the three-legged race were Calvin Franklin, Todd Talmadge, Missy Bogle, and Sharon DeStefano. The runners who negotiated the corkscrew course most successfully were Brian Murphy and Karen Balotta. The victors in the sack races on the junior level were Barbara DeBursio and Jim Costelli. Susan Nisovaccia and Don Brooks were the junior speedsters who won the 50 dash events.

Tug-of-war champions in the senior division were Tim Nadin, Dante DeNotaris, Eddie Colombrito, Al De Maio, and Tony Costelli. The fastest moving girls in the relay races were Lisa Wells, Rhonda Edwards, Sharon Robinson, and Monica Edwards.

The senior team who put their best three feet forward in the three legged races were Helen Bell, Jane Critchley, Marty King, and Al Sargentelli. The dizzy corkscrew course was mastered by Stanley Brooks and Rhonda Edwards.

The most adept jumpers in the sack races were Marty King and Margaret Chimento. John Vaccaro and Monica Edwards proved the fastest on the track in the 100 yard dash.

Junior winners — of the Field Day events sponsored by the Recreation Department posed after the competitions with their trophies.

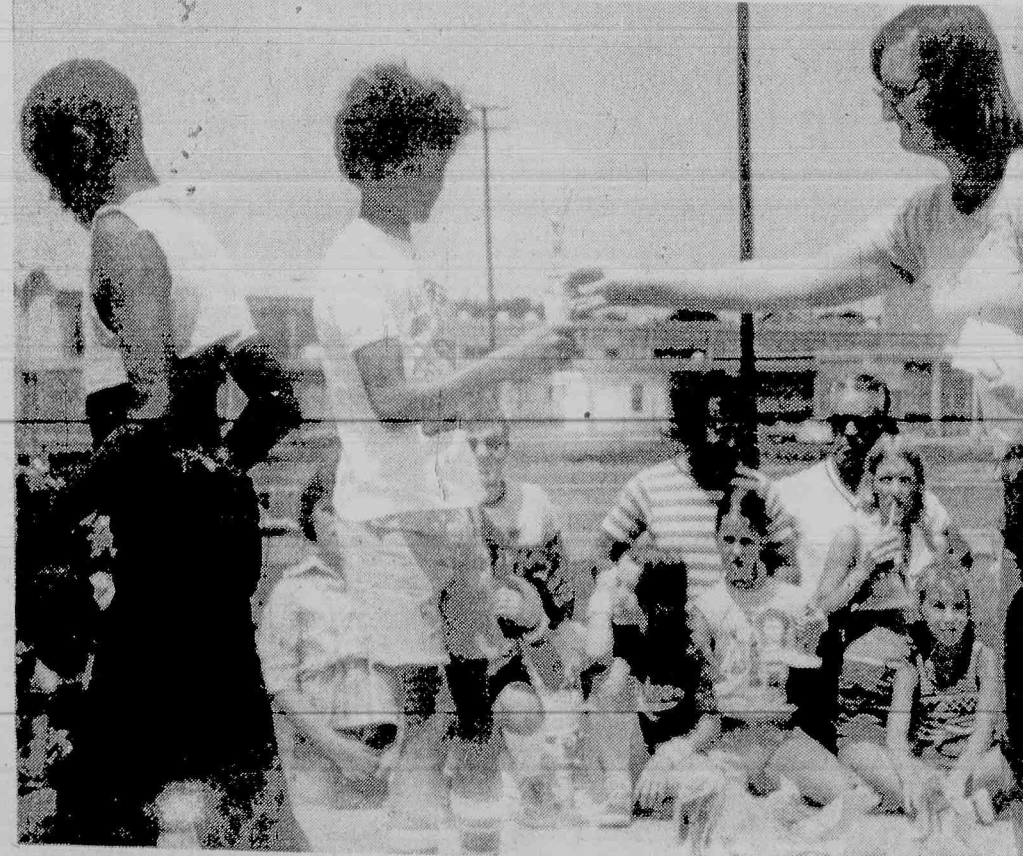

Cooperation counts — Missy Bogle and Sharon DeStefano stepped out with speed and accuracy to win the three-legged race at the Independence Day celebration.

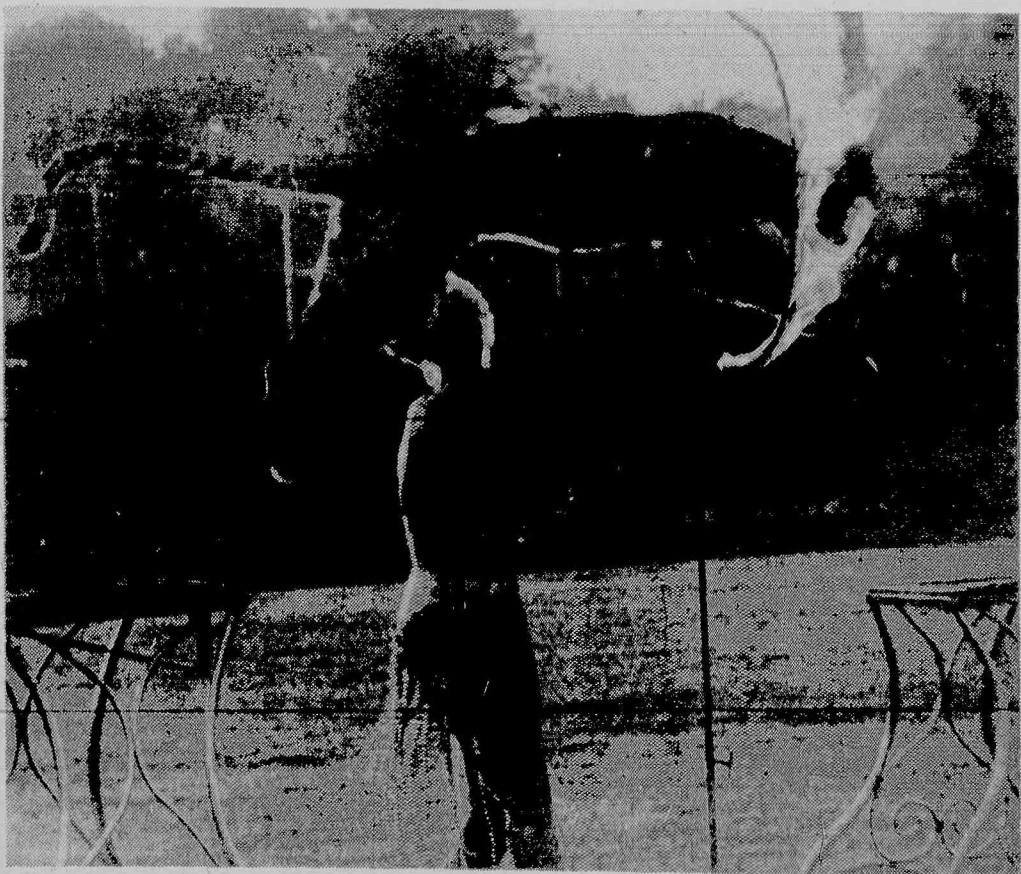

Corkscrew course — These girls are not playing airplane and control tower. They're trying to keep their balance on the corkscrew race course in the field day event.

Feline feelings — The crowd at Municipal Stadium for the Dubsky Brothers' Royal Palace Circus saw spots before their eyes when one of the animal acts proved to be very realistic.

Thirty trophies were awarded to the winners of the events at the annual Field Day sponsored by the Department of Recreation. The winners competed in everything from dashes to tug-of wars.

Show biz — Thrill to the live leopards jumping through flaming hoops and showing their long teeth to the crowd. Watch the fans back away just a bit from the fence they were leaning on.

'One To One' Telethon
Raised About $160,000

By Bruce Morrow
WNBC Radio & TV
Personality

Those darlings of the 60's. Remember Haight Ashbury, flower power, the hippies, Tim Leary and "The Grateful Dead"? The Grateful Dead are back in town... their first concert in two years took place at the Beacon Theater. However, no tickets were available to the public. The Grateful Dead have a fan club of some 75,000 strong called the "Dead Heads". The "Dead Heads" received a newsletter announcing the upcoming national concert tour so they bought all the tickets. Last week at The Beacon all hell broke loose at the theater. Many... lots... several... a whole darn bunch of "Dead" worshippers showed up at that box office. NO TICKETS available said the non-smiling person behind the glass. Under these conditions, the ticket hungry crowd retained their cool and there was no problem at all. The local merchants were slightly annoyed at the large gathering that blocked their entrances; however, Broadway in the 70's has plenty of room for everybody. Inside, the Grateful Dead wove their magical musical spell and it was one heck of a Dead concert. Incidentally, the Beacon Theater has registered more than 5,000 young people to vote and in 40 concerts has never had a problem with its audience... and that's a terrific record. Congrats to the Promoters.

THE "ONE TO ONE" Telethon last week netted Gerald's favorite effort about $160,000. Now that's what I call a good eight hours work. Certainly it takes a little more than eight hours... matter of fact, it takes just about a good year's work. The day after the telethon, the "One to One" staff starts planning next year's TV special. Everyone in the entertainment, political, and sports field reported to the studio for duty. Eli Wallach, his doll daughter, Liv Ullman, Linda Hopkins, Dr. Frank Fields and son Storm, Les Marshall, Ted Brown... from the political ring, Paul O'Dwyer, Manhattan Borough President Percy Sutton, Ralph Caso, Governor Byrne... this is ridiculous folks... just about everybody was there. Once again, Gerald and staff surrounded themselves with everybody and pulled off another winning telethon for "One to One".

DO YOU remember that cute little doll Jill Corey? The Hit Parade, Mitch Miller, Life Magazine? Jill was at the peak of her career when she met a guy, got married, had a baby and devoted her life to her family. A decade or so later, Jill has returned. Her voice and style are very much today. Jill is cabaretting at "Once Upon a Stove" on Third Avenue in New York City. She's full of life and her performance will bring back some happy rainbows. Jill Corey is writing a book and has a new album of spiritual songs to her credit.

Next week... more fun with the terrific world of Show Biz!!!!!!

Freddie Prinze, comedian star of "Chico and the Man" and all-round entertainer, says, "When it comes to giving to the American Cancer Society, don't say 'Thass no my chob.' Because helping support cancer research and other nationwide programs to fight the disease is your job and mine and everybody's. So let's all get in this together and help wipe out cancer."

Carpenters' release: so easy and so good

By ANTHONY BUCCINO

The easy going Richard and Karen Carpenter have gone so easily, so often to the top of the charts with hit after hit that some people fall down bewildered just thinking of their success. The Carpenters are doing it again with their new album, "A Kind of Hush" (A & M).

Who could resist the sultry vocals of Karen Carpenter on the title song "There's A Kind Of Hush"? If she says there's a "hush", I can hear it!

Their music has pleased a lot of people over the last seven years. Richard has been doing all of the orchestrations and arrangements all along providing "something for just about everyone" as he said recently. I couldn't agree more.

There are love songs to entrap the heart of anyone who's ever been in love. And they're a couple of sad songs ("Can't Smile Without You", "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do") for anyone who's ever been sad.

When Karen Carpenter sings a sad song I find myself drifting towards the speakers with a box of tissues to wipe away the tears and ask for a happy song.

"I Need To Be In Love" is a prime example of The Carpenters engrossing talent. Karen sings with lush tenderness in front of the symphonic orchestration Richard has provided.

Most performers could never get away with it, but the Carpenters do, and they will — because they are so good. They go at it so simply it has to come out perfect. Everything they do is that way and "A Kind Of Hush" is a winner. Beware of people falling down trying to explain it.

Watch For's:

Comedian George Carlin will be a regular performer on "Tony Orlando and Dawn" this fall. He'll be doing a five minute segment titled "The Carlin Report". The Beach Boys will headline a one-hour special on NBC Thursday, August 5th at 8 p.m. It's being masterminded by the same folks that brought us "NBC's Saturday Night". Franklyn Ajaye's forthcoming album, "Don't Smoke Dope, Fry Your Hair", shouldn't be played with children in the room — or if you're on the other side of the coin — parents in the room. Kenny Rankin will be at "My Father's Place" in Roslyn, Long Island July 1-3.

Handicapped camp out

The weekend of June 19 & 20 was an extremely special one for 65 mentally handicapped adults of Essex County. They participated in the first overnight camping trip of the SHAPE/SHARP programs.

SHAPE (Specially Handicapped Adult Program of Essex) is a federally funded program sponsored by the Essex County Park Commission. SHARP (Specially Handicapped Adult Recreation Program) is also funded through New Jersey Institutions and Agencies, and is sponsored by the YWCA of Essex & West Hudson.

The Park Commission, along with other concerned public agencies, played an important role in this program. Both programs deal with the vital needs of those 20 to 60 year old mentally handicapped adults who reside in community homes in Essex County.

This overnight camping trip was a success because various community agency representatives cooperated to make the experience of camping a unique happening for these individuals. In a 36 hour span, the participants learned something of canoeing, softball, kick ball, volleyball, swimming, fishing, teamwork, etc. These are adults who have spent half their lives in our State Institutions because they are considered "incapable" of participating in "normal" activities. One observer of the weekend commented "that he had never seen 'normal' people behave in so helpful, and fun-loving manner as these special people."

Community efforts was exemplified by the YWCA for the use

Noisy Newarker pays for his fun

A 19-year old Newark man, charged with creating a disturbance, was fined $10 and $10 costs at proceedings in Belleville Municipal Court June 23.

Robert Martin, 348 North 5 Street, pleaded guilty to creating a disturbance at the Belmont Avenue Pathmark Store while under the influence of alcohol on June 16.

Judge Malcolm Bohrod imposed the fine and costs charge.

Albert Spencer of the Belleville Police Department was the complainant in the case.

Attempt to elude costs man $200

A 30-year old Bloomfield man, who attempted to elude a policeman after a traffic violation, was fined $175 and $25 costs during June 23 proceedings in Belleville Municipal Court.

Caesar Ferrara, 169 Jerome Place, pleaded not guilty to the June 11 charge of knowingly fleeing a Belleville policeman after he was signaled to stop.

Judge Malcolm Bohrod found the defendant guilty and imposed a six month suspended jail term on the defendant.

Belleville officer Anthony LaVista was the complainant in the case.

Bermuda bound — Mr. and Mrs. Renato Bressan of Belleville were all smiles as they were photographed on the deck of the Black Sea Lines luxury liner "S.S. Odessa," just before sailing from New York on a week's vacation cruise to the island of Bermuda.

Workshop prepared production

The Lyndhurst Drama Workshop is hard at work preparing for the presentation of their annual summer production.

The show, "Once Upon A Matress," is a musical comedy adaptation of the fairy tale "The Princess and the Pea."

As the story opens, the Jester is telling the "true" story of the Princess and the Pea. The audience is placed in a kingdom where no one may wed until the prince, Prince Dauntless the Drab (Paul Forsythe), has married. This ordinarily would be no great problem. However, Prince Dauntless is a 25-year-old naive Mama's boy who wants to get married but — Queen Aggravain (Donna Sousa) wants to hold on to her "good, sweet, beautiful baby boy" as long as she possibly can. And, due to circumstances beyond his control, the King (Joe Rodgers) is unable to voice his opinion on the matter.

As the story progresses, we find that many girls have come, wishing to marry Dauntless but are given impossible tests by the Queen and the Wizard (Joe Sutula) which they must pass in order to marry him. Naturally they all fail. But then, Sir Harry (Michael Capaccio) brings Winnifred (Terry DeParto), true Princess of the Swamp, to the Kingdom and...

Terry DeParto (Winnifred) is a sophomore at Queen of Peace Girls' High School. Now beginning her second year with the Workshop, she has been part of three previous theatrical productions. Terry played the part of General Cartwright in the Workshop's production of "Guys and Dolls" and was a chorus member in "The Lighter Side of '76." She also had the part of Debra Sue in Queen of Peace's first musical production "Bye-Bye Birdie."

Paul Forsythe (Dauntless) is in his third year with the Workshop. He worked in the Workshop's productions of "Anything Goes."

Seton Hall students receive scholarships

Seton Hall Preparatory School of South Orange recently announced that members of the class of '76 were offered over $996,000 in college and university scholarships. Out of 219 graduates, 58 were awarded grants ranging from $250 to $60,000 over four years, including seven appointments to U.S. service academies.

Belleville residents among the scholarship winners are: Michael MacPhee, Georgetown University, New York University, Fordham University, New Jersey State scholarship, Rutgers University; and John Malcolm, University of Notre Dame.

Father William Giblin, headmaster of the four-year boys' Catholic high school, reported that academic achievement can be measured by the high quality of the institutions to which the graduates have been offered admission. Since many awards are given partially on the basis of financial need, some academically deserving students did not receive the honor and recognition of a scholarship.

Scouts, county join forces

Kathy Weidener, coordinator for the Greater Essex County Girl Scout Council's day camp program, today announced a joint venture with the Essex County Park Commission.

Harold Van Cott, Recreation Superintendent along with William Shipley, Parks Commission Supervisor sanctioned the joint proposal. They have made available two park sites for the scout program; Watsessing Park and Verona Park.

"Sites will be staffed by two adults plus Scout counselors in addition to the regular park staff. The merger with the Park Commission affords the Girl Scouts a more versatile athletics and creative arts program," stated Miss Weidener. "Comprised of one 2 week session, the program will be conducted rain or shine. Protected facilities are provided in the event of bad weather," she added.

Geared to accommodate activities of girls from the 2nd through the 6th grade level, the day camp program is open to all girls. It is not necessary to be a Girl Scout in order to participate. All girls are welcome! Program begins July 5th through July 16th 9:00 to 4:30. Miss Weidener stated that buses would be provided to transport children to and from the park camp site in as much as girls from the entire county, Summit and New Providence are welcome.

Additional information regarding the day camp program may be had by contacting Miss Weidener at the Greater Essex Girl Scout Council office at 120 Valley Road, Montclair, N.J. 07042 or by calling Headquarters at 746-8200.

Two car thelves pay $300 fines

Two 18-year old Jersey City men, arrested June 29 for car theft, were fined $300 each and given six month suspended sentences during proceedings in Belleville Municipal Court July 1.

Garfield Tillman, 48 Ash Street and Leonard Hankerson, 38 Jackson Avenue, pleaded guilty to taking a car registered to Ernest Bullock. Both defendants pleaded not guilty to possession of burglar tools.

Judge Edward Abramson of Belleville Municipal Court dismissed the possession of burglar tools charges and imposed the fines and suspended sentences on the defendants.

Sergeant Philip Salmon of the Belleville Police Department was the complainant in both cases.
