Town reconsidering CMHS withdrawal

By CHUCK JACKSON and JOSEPH RYAN

The Belleville Board of Commissioners is reconsidering its decision to withdraw from the Community Mental Health Services.

The Board voted last week to end participation in the tri-town venture, but Public Safety Director Rocco Saletta asked the group Tuesday to study the matter further.

Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, head of Belleville's Public Affairs department had suggested quitting the Community Mental Health Service, but was not present at this week's special meeting of the Commissioners. Saletta suggested the Town Fathers arrange a meeting with trustees of the Services when Strumolo returned. It was reported he was in Florida.

"I voted in favor of withdrawal," said Saletta, "based on the facts presented by Commissioner Strumolo. Since then, I have had an opportunity to look further into the matter and have found those facts were not true."

Saletta referred in particular to Strumolo's claim that only six citizens in the past year had availed themselves of services of the organization. "In 1976," said Saletta, "we had 252 people take part, including nine families involved in the Child Abuse center. Those nine families included 25 children."

The Public Safety Director also said, contrary to published reports, he had discovered Bloomfield was not considering dropping out of the program, and he added, "Belleville should not be the front runner in dropping out. Let someone else be the fall guy. Unless all three communities support the Community Mental Health Services, it must fold."

Please see "Belleville" on page 2.

Board involved in another appeal

Despite the strenuous objections of the Town Attorney, Commissioner Mary Senatore will appeal the appointment of Bernard O'Connor as building inspector.

The appeal question came up at Tuesday's special meeting of the Board of Commissioners, and the group passed a resolution 4-0 directing attorney John

Scott to file an appeal to the Civil Service decision. Prior to the vote, Scott called any further legal battle "an exercise in futility," and he added, "It is my considered professional opinion that if this matter is appealed, you won't have a leg to stand on."

The Town Attorney articulated his objections to further protests in a three page memorandum he sent to Commissioner Senatore, in which he recommended "O'Connor be promoted to the position of Belleville Building Inspector since the Civil Service Commission has sustained his qualifications and I find no rational basis upon which that will be overturned by any Court."

Commissioner Senatore maintained Tuesday that as Director, she "is not satisfied with his (O'Connor's) application and I want an appeal." Mrs.

Jerry Brown speaks to Dems

California Governor Jerry Brown will address a Democratic rally in Nutley this Sunday at the VFW Hall, 271 Washington Ave. Gov. Brown is scheduled to make a campaign swing through the New York Metropolitan area Sunday and is scheduled to arrive here between 4 and 6 p.m.

Sunday's rally for town Democrats is being sponsored by Leonard and Rocco Nisiovicia and is set to begin at 3:30.

Most county Democratic candidates will be on hand. Gov. Brown's appearance in behalf of Presidential candidate Jimmy Carter was arranged by Bob Russo of Nutley who was Brown's assistant coordinator during the Primary campaign.

Planners propose eight-story zoning

The Planning Board is hoping to lure big business to Belleville with a sales pitch of ideal location and a new zoning ordinance permitting eight story office buildings at the north and south ends of Washington Avenue.

Last week the Planners authorized their consultant, Grace Harris, to present formal plans for approval for the change to high rise zoning at the Board's next meeting, November 18.

The proposed ordinance would permit only commercial buildings up to eight stories high on the east side of Washington Avenue in a three block section between Mill and William Streets and north of Greylock Parkway to Nutley.

Four stories is currently the maximum height allowed in Belleville and is exceeded only by a few old apartment buildings and Clara Maass Hospital by variance.

Joseph Grande, chairman of the Planning Board, said developers have been discouraged from building in the past because of the height limit. The creation of two high-rise zones would make construction more feasible to builders and more attractive because of Belleville's convenient location near the Garden State Parkway, the Turnpike, the airport, and New York City, Grande said.

Under the initial proposals the high-rise buildings would be required to provide sufficient parking for employees.

Grande said the office facilities would provide "a terrific shot in the arm for Washington Avenue. Offices would be an ideal rateable for the Town, according to Grande, who added the building wouldn't be much of a problem to the Town after 5:30 when they're empty.

Grande said he believes the Planners will approve the proposal at the November 18 meeting and hoped the Belleville Chamber of Commerce will also approve of the idea to keep Washington Avenue from becoming a blighted area.

Town needs new truck

The Town has gone out for bids on a new garbage truck, following defeat of a special resolution by the Commissioners.

Public Works Director Mary Senatore asked Tuesday for an emergency appropriation of $50,000 for the purchase of a trash compactor, but the motion was defeated after some discussion. Mrs. Senatore voted with her fellow Commissioners in putting down the proposal.

The Public Works request was denied after Town Attorney John Scott voiced doubts about the legality of such an appropriation, saying, "The law requires an actual emergency exist before such an appropriation can be passed, and I believe there is a question whether an emergency actually exists in this instance."

Commissioner Senatore, supported by Joseph McGreevy, Director of Revenue and Finance, said the vehicle was necessary at this time in order to facilitate the removal of leaves. According to the Commissioner, her department will have to rent the necessary equipment at a cost of $2,400.

Mayor Michael Marotti opposed the resolution following Scott's comments, saying, "We will need this equipment not just for the leaves, but all year round. I would just as soon pay the $2,400 now and then go out for bids."

Commissioner McGreevy agreed with Mrs. Senatore, saying, "The leaf season is upon us, and the breakdown of this equipment is an emergency."

"I am afraid," said Town Attorney Scott, "the Board would be open to serious criticism without going out for public bids on such a large expenditure."

Following the discussion, the Board agreed unanimously to seek bids, and passed a resolution to that effect. They also agreed to open the bids at a planned special meeting of the Board, scheduled for Monday, November 1.

Firefighters — Chief George Sbarra and Captain Edward D Dunleavy were present at School One last week when members of Mrs. Elvira Bosco's and Marylou Mele's first grade and kindergarten classes were presented awards for their efforts in the Fire Prevention Week observance at the school.

Students mark fire week

The children of School One were treated to a special demonstration given by the Belleville Fire Department in recognition of Fire Prevention Week recently.

Chief George Sbarra, Captain Edward Dunleavy, Captain Castellano, and Firemen Arena, Reed, Lamin, LaBruzza, Lowack and Cetrulo came to the School One playground to explain the functions of the pumper engine, the aerial ladder truck and the ambulance.

The children became "Junior Fire

Marshalls" when they were given the opportunity to spray the hose, which is attached to the pumper engine.

It was quite a day for the children as was the entire week. There were poster contests, essay contests and a film entitled "Donald's Fire Survival Plan" was viewed.

The winners of the poster contest in Grades One, Two and Three and the essay contest in Grades Four, Five and Six, who were presented with special awards, are as follows:

Belleville is needed to keep program alive

In addition to Belleville and Bloomfield, Nutley also participates in the program.

In addition to funds provided by each of the towns (Belleville's share last year was $30,000), the program also receives state funds. According to Saletta, Belleville received approximately $68,000 in services for the money it put in last year.

Community leaders in Nutley were disturbed by the local government's decision, and Commissioner Carmen Orechio objected to the move, saying, "Mental health is a vital service that we are obligated to provide. If a community had to initiate a program to care for these un-

Senator said she did not feel O'Connor's qualifications did meet the town's requirements, adding, "Twice I asked him to send me information on his work as a contractor, and I have not yet received any reply."

Mrs. Senator had earlier charged Civil Service officials had refused her admission to a hearing on the matter, but it was revealed this week no hearing was ever held.

According to Scott, Civil Service officials reviewed the documentation submitted by O'Connor and Mrs. Senator's objections and found in favor of the applicant. No hearing, he said, was required.

fortunate people on its own, the cost would be prohibitive. I think Belleville's action was irresponsible."

Nutley mayor Harry Chenoweth said, "I will do everything on my part to see that we can resolve this problem. We owe it to our people to see if some understanding can be arrived at to see that this clinic can be continued."

The Board of Trustees for Community Mental Health Services met Tuesday night and decided to accept the offer of the Belleville Commissioners to meet with the group. Mrs. Ruth Cowell, director of the Services will contact the Commissioners to discuss the possible withdrawal.

Mrs. Cowell told the board members the services provided by the group fulfilled a "need that could not be met in any other way we could conceive in Belleville."

The director told the Trustees the center has received 10 applications from Belleville in the first two weeks of October alone. Mrs. Cowell listed cases of severe depression and suicidal tendencies referred from Belleville this month to refute the remark only six patients are cared for by the service in a year.

An excerpt of a letter from a Belleville patient was also read to the Board Members which stated "because of your guidance I am able to smile rather than cry....Most of all, I feel 'worth' because of your guidance."

The Board also approved a budget for 1977 designed to bring Belleville $124,450.00 worth of service for a Town contribution of $33,444.00. Trustee Howard Fonz pointed out the $91,006.00 return to Belleville can only come if the Town meets the $33,444.00 share. Belleville joined with Nutley and Bloomfield in 1958 to form the Community Mental Health Services.

Firemen appeal for toy donations

Nutley Firemen are appealing for usable toys which the men plan to repair for distribution to underprivileged children during the Christmas season.

Persons with toys may leave their name and address with the Fire Dept. (667-2806) and one of the men will pick up the donation. Toys will be refurbished and delivered to the children "insuring a joyous holiday for all," says Charles W. Kucinski, superintendent of the Signal Division.

Belleville Firemen have urged townspeople in that municipality to participate in the Nutley program. Belleville has had a toys' program in past years but none is planned for 1976.

Canine fanciers set fall show date

Union County Kennel Club is back with its fall dog show after having missed holding a 1975 fall show due to scheduling difficulties. Premium lists (entry forms and prize schedule) for the 1976 fall show to be held Sunday October 31 at the Upsala College gymnasium in East Orange, have been mailed to prospective exhibitors.

Traditionally this show has been benched (dogs must remain at the show until the conclusion of breed judging), but again due to space limitations, this will have to be unbeneched, the same as the club's annual spring show.

Judging Best in Show is Miss Iris de la Torre Bueno of New Rochelle, New York. Group judges and their assignments are: Dr. T. Allen Kirk of Roanoke, Virginia, is judging the Terrier and Toy groups; Edward F. Duncan of Rahway is judging Hounds.

Risoli blasts school raises

Ralph M. Risoli, Municipal Registrar and Representative of the Municipal Employees, took sharp issue today critizing the Board of Education for granting substantial salary raises to its school teachers, secretaries, and custodial staff, which he called an excessive give away program.

Risoli asked, "Could this be for contemplated support for Pica's reelection to the School Board next February?"

Once again Risoli stated Belleville taxpayers are being victimized with "the same old baloney" that these raises will improve the education of our school children.

Risoli asked, "isn't this the same board who appeared before the Town Commission requesting them not to cut the school budget and to do so would mean the cutting of many services — Driver Education and the possibility of laying off teachers?"

The Registrar questioned how the Board can explain at this time such generous raises as 14 per cent increases to the teachers, plus $2,000 increases to other employees. Risoli wondered how many people employed in private industry receive such raises, especially in "these hard times." He stated, "Remember you and I will be strapped by increased taxes."

Risoli went on to say that the police had to resort to court action and demonstration in order to receive raises. In addition, he said, no municipal employee has received a raise, including firemen.

Risoli termed the School Board president Pica "ridiculous" when he stated, "this Board has worked hard to heighten the level of education in Belleville and at the same time save its taxpayers money; but it's important to know we're here for the children of Belleville, first and foremost."

Risoli asked, "How can he save the taxpayers money by increasing salaries and wages close to half million dollars and by increasing salaries and wages heighten the level of education in Belleville? This is an insult to our intelligence."

Risoli said he believes this and past school board tactics lead him to the conclusion that the best solution to remedy this problem is to go back to an appointed school board.

This would eliminate the ugly hands of politics, create better relationships with all concerned, plus better control of our school system and would also eliminate foolish spending and an eye on lower taxes," said Risoli.

A General Election will be held on November 2nd, 1976, between the hours of 7 A.M. and 8 P.M. The public offices to be filled are as follows: Referendums (1) United States Senator (1) Member of House of Representatives in each of the 5th, 10th, and 11th Congressional Districts. (1) President (1) Sheriff (1) Surrogate (1) Members of the Board of Chosen Freeholders.

Senior notes

By GEORGE CHENOWETH

In last week's column the last paragraph was omitted, probably because of the lack of space. There was an ad directly below the column and ads are the means to keep a newspaper in the black ink. However, the column should have ended up with the following:

We need health services from the town along with recreational facilities and transportation, we are grateful for these and all the services provided for us. The county has recognized our need through the Office on Aging and we are happy about that. The seniors whom we have in mind when we talk about needs are the 16 percent to 25 percent in the state who are living below what our government calls the poverty level. Through no fault of their own, circumstances will not allow them the niceties of life but, only the bare essentials. We will continue to support any effort that will make life easier for our less fortunate senior citizens.

Don't forget to vote on Election Day. Vote for the candidates of your choice, but vote!

The Anniversary Party of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club will be held at the Branch Brook Manor tomorrow at 12 noon. These parties are usually fun things with prizes for lucky people, good food, good music and perhaps a sing-a-long. This is a chance to get together and socialize with your fellow members. See you there!

The above club is running a ride to Lake Wallenpaupack in Pennsylvania on Sunday, November 7. The theme is, "An Italian Festival". A buffet lunch will be served followed by entertainment and dancing, and later on a gourmet dinner. Contact Mary or Michael Cicerale for reservations.

He was appointed to the bench in May, 1972 and was assigned to Essex County. In May, 1973 he was appointed by Chief Justice Hughes as the Assignment Judge in Essex County and has continued in that capacity to the present time.

Food allergies are alleviated by planning a diet which avoids the particular foods responsible for the allergy. Unless the person is allergic to a number of foods, the elimination of such foods from the diet is really the most successful treatment available. In most cases careful planning of substitute foods allows the proper balance of nutrients to be maintained. In some cases avoiding the allergen is difficult, or even impossible. Then a doctor must be consulted for other ways to relieve discomfort.

Always consult your doctor on allergies, and when you need prescription treatment come to us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. The prosecutor continues probes

Last week the daily press published a news story indicating that Prosecutor Joseph Lordi is investigating allegations of wrongful purchasing procedures that have met with the criticism of town Treasurer Francis McCoy.

It is well that the Prosecutor is looking into the allegations raised by Mr. McCoy. McCoy enjoys a national reputation as a municipal financial expert. In all of New Jersey there is no town Treasurer better informed than McCoy. We know that all town officials are anxious that the question of irregularities in purchasing procedures at Town Hall be resolved so that public officials can get on with the job of planning the future of Belleville without concerning themselves about irregular or illegal governmental activities.

Casino, yes—hypocrisy, no

On the November 2 ballot is a referendum legalizing gambling casinos in Atlantic City.

A referendum permitting gambling casinos throughout the state was defeated by the voters two years ago. This referendum limits gambling casinos to Atlantic City.

New Jersey voters have approved gambling in one form or another over a period of many years. Bingo games are legalized; race track betting is legalized; games of chance are legal; so one wonders how can opponents of gambling casinos base their argument on a moral issue when churches and many fraternal organizations sponsor gambling events of one kind or another?

We believe it's time to call a halt to hypocrisy. Those who oppose gambling casinos in Atlantic City should begin gathering signatures to repeal legislation which permits other forms of gambling in the State of New Jersey.

We approve of Bingo. We approve of raffles. We approve of race tracks. We also approve of gambling casinos for Atlantic City.

The postal system

United Parcel Service has been on strike for several weeks, the event placing a tremendous burden upon the U.S. postal system. This is the heaviest period of the year for the Post Office. Packages destined for overseas delivery are mailed between October 15 and November 15. The United Parcel Service strike has increased the U.S. Post Office requirements by 300 percent. The United Parcel Service was handling 50 percent of the parcel business.

Under the able direction of Postmaster Joseph Benucci, a 24-hour seven-day-a-week alert has been the order of the day for our local postal system. It is to the credit of Benucci and his staff that parcels and mail have been moved routinely and efficiently.

Amato for surrogate

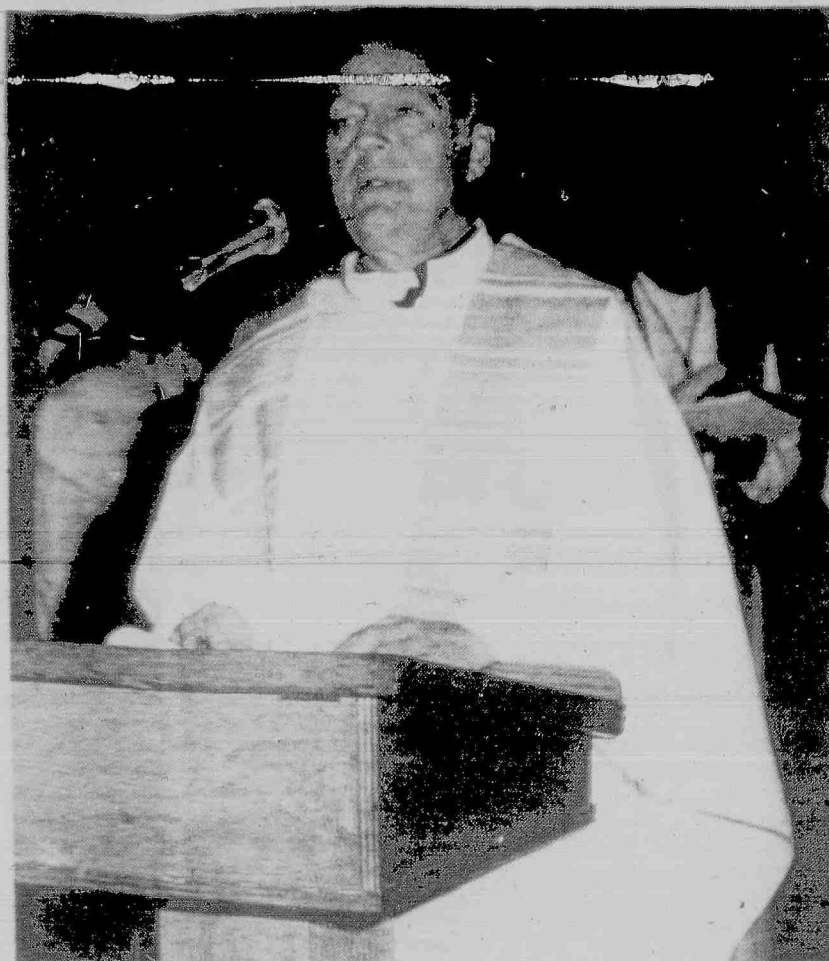

Five years ago Nicholas Amato, Belleville attorney, surprised everyone by winning an election he was expected to lose big. Since that event Amato's performance in a very sensitive post-proves his awareness to keep all traces of politics out of the Surrogate's office.

The public's contact with the Surrogate's office usually follows a sad event—a family death. Wills are probated by that office.

All kinds of problems arise when people die intestate—without a will.

Time and again Amato has demonstrated compassion for people's problems. We like his record. We endorse Amato for re-election.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The considerable emphasis being placed upon discrimination these days seems to only apply to racial issues, while considerable discrimination in other fields affecting masses of our citizens is overlooked or ignored. It is an intolerable condition which calls for immediate correction.

The most flagrant evidence of such an injustice is to be observed in the matter of the method adopted by the New Jersey Educational Association (NJEA) to raise political funds.

Federal law bans the use of union membership dues for political contributions. This year, NJEA certified $75 as "membership dues" which is what its officials are calling it for compliance with state law. None-the-less, some of that money goes to the NJEA's Political Action Committee (PAC) for use as political contributions.

I've been a union member for many years. We have a Committee On Political Education (COPE) to which we make voluntary contributions for political action, however, it is never taken out of our "checked off" union dues as is now being practiced by the NJEA which has devised a novel "gimmick" procedure through which its members can get two dollars back from the NJEA. This obviously being done in a subtle attempt to circumvent the federal law ban.

To get the $2 rebate, a teacher must fill out a postcard with spaces for the name of the employee, address, district where employed, school where they teach and social security number.

Attached to the card is a message from the NJEA President that appeals to members not to send the card. It reads, "Now more than ever we depend on political action, certification—tenure—pension—bargaining rights."

Our procedure for collecting contributions has been complicated and costly. The new optional rebate plan calls for the automatic payroll deduction system and cash payment procedures to include payment of a $2 PAC contribution.

"Your $2 will be refunded to you if you simply return the attached postage paid postcard to NJEA—PAC. If you are thinking of doing just that, please stop and ask yourself, 'Is strong and positive teacher influence upon legislative process worth 10¢ per pay check?'"

"We educators contribute to NJEA—PAC to make our voices heard. It's the only way!"

In the latest issue of "NJEA Review," a magazine sent to all members, Mrs. Owens, President of NJEA, wrote an editorial with a similar message—but giving NJEA—PAC credit for passage of the income tax that led to a lifting of the State Supreme Court's partial ban on school spending last July.

From the above it should clearly indicate the methods used by NJEA which influence our laws and affect our taxes.

The method being utilized by NJEA to provide automatic payroll deductions to include PAC contributions is unfair to other labor unions and is of questionable legality under federal law. Notwithstanding State Education Commissioner Fred G. Burke's "pussy footing" assenting to the practice, probably in a craven dread of losing his job as his predecessor did for refusing to bow down to the demands of NJEA. It is now time that U.S. Attorney Jonathan L. Goldstein be called upon to "look into" the matter which has all the appearances of being a cleverly conceived attempt to "get around" the federal ban on the use of union membership dues for political contributions.

How stupid would one have to be to even suppose a union member would have the effrontery to flout such a suasive plea as NJEA President Mrs. Owens "dished out" to her subjects? Not only would any NJEA member sending in a rebate card for the $2 look like a cheapskate, but would subject one's self to the possibility of harassment or reprisal.

Letters

Parties scored for neglect

To the Editor:

Despite their predictability, I am greatly disappointed with the town's Democratic and Republican leaders. Once again they have failed the people.

As is traditional, the leaders have failed to use their district leaders up to this point in the campaign. As, yes, the district leaders, those people we seem to vote for in every primary who go to the party meetings to hear the wisdom of the "Great White Father." The only problem is that they do not bring it back to the people.

The district leaders, supposedly the liaison between the party and the people, should be out on the streets. They should meet with everyone in their district at least once a month to let them know what is going on and why. The party leaders might then be surprised when they see more interest in town activities.

Some questions must be raised. How often has your District Leader been in contact with you about the Campaign for the Presidency or any one of the other races? How often have they come to you to let you know what's going on in town and how it affects you? Why don't the party leaders push their people out on the streets to let the people know what's happening? Do they have something they don't want us to know? Or is it that they just don't care? When will we start demanding some performance from our elected officials, especially our district leaders? Will not participating in the election help you or will it just let others who talk and don't come to you get into office?

These are just a few of the questions that I feel should be asked. It is time for all of us, the young and the not so young, to take an active role in running our town and country. It is not a choice. It is a necessity.

I hope everyone in Belleville eligible to vote, will do so on election day. Our responsibility does not stop there. We all must keep a constant eye on our officials. I feel if we do, we cannot lose.

Music lovers deserve a break

By CHUCK JACKSON

There was discussion at last Monday's Board of Education meeting about the fees the Belleville High School band commands for a performance.

This matter of charging was something new to me, and I gathered from the reactions of some of the Board members, it was new to them also.

After some debate, it was apparently the decision of the Trustees to let the BHS musicians play for free at local events.

Whether or not the band should charge for its performances on the local level, and for that matter, in other towns, could stir up a lively debate for some time. I do have a suggestion on how the kids could make some money—and maybe a lot.

I have noticed a tendency in the last couple of years for marching bands to perform commercial jingles. Last week, for example, fans at the Belleville-Passaic football game were treated to the McDonald's "You Deserve a Break Today," the "Pepsi Generation" song and Coca-Cola's "It's The Real Thing."

Personally, I find commercial jingles insidious. Maybe I have a particularly receptive mind, but frequently, one of these little one minute pseudo-classics gets a hold of my brain, and I find it rattling around in my head for hours on end. It gets to be nerve-racking.

At any rate, the point I am trying to make is that the people who hold the rights to these songs are getting an incredible amount of free advertising everytime a high school musical group strikes up the tune. I don't see why our band couldn't write to the companies involved and ask for some kind of payment. After all, it seems to me there must be a sort of Pavlovian reaction in a lot of fans when they hear "Pepsi." The subconscious craving for a name-brand cola must be terrific.

If the band doesn't want to do that, how about seeking out some other forms of music. Why couldn't we hear a selection of the country's best loved college fight songs, or even some good old marching tunes. It might not even be a bad idea to take a crack at some particularly stirring classical pieces. There's nothing wrong with the "1812 Overture," for example.

I really cannot see the necessity of our high school band or any group of student musicians schilling, whether consciously or unconsciously, for some multi-million dollar corporation. Nor can I see the sense in exposing thousands of people during the course of a football season to halfpennies full of commercials, when they could be listening to a much higher grade, or at least a wider variety, of music.

Just as a footnote to this whole thing, the Belleville High School band went to Paramus last Wednesday when President Ford spoke there. This was, to me, a great honor and in a sense, an historic occasion. As I stood on the press stand, I looked around for the Blue-Gold musicians. Suddenly, I heard the McDonald's jingle floating across the crowd. There they were.

I am sorry to say, I was slightly embarrassed.

Writers interview new staff members

Joan Dellano

Remember the exciting drama and English student teacher that traveled throughout the halls of BHS with Robert Leffelbine, English teacher, last year? Well, Joan Marie Dellano is back full time teaching English.

Besides holding a BA in English, speech and theater, from Montclair State College, Ms. Dellano teaches dance under Pat Nave to a group during free time in Montclair. She studied under the direction of Martha Graham, an inspiring teacher in New York City and is a member of a dance company. Her practice in voice has been with Edith Poynter of Nutley. Also she has had acting lessons from Dr. Jerry Rockwood, a member of Stella Adler Studios in NYC. Last but not least, Ms. Dellano taught corrective speech at Montclair State College.

Now Ms. Dellano is the assistant director of the BHS Drama Club and is looking forward to working with the students again.

Ms. Dellano commented that she is very happy here and that the faculty has been very helpful.

As an English teacher, Ms. Dellano says, "Without speech, you can not communicate. Without communication, you can not live. To speak correctly is a necessity in life. People judge you by how you speak and what you say."

Anthony Sorrentino

Belleville High School's assistant football coach and new physical education teacher, Anthony Sorrentino, has brought a diversified teaching background that includes experience on the elementary, high school and college levels.

Mr. Sorrentino attended BHS when it was first built in 1964. While at the school, he participated in such sports as wrestling, crew and football. In 1965, he graduated from BHS and later received his BA and MA in health and physical education from Trenton State College. Although he graduated in 1969, he remained on as assistant football coach while obtaining his MA.

During Mr. Sorrentino's first six years, he taught at elementary schools, and last year he was appointed BHS assistant football coach.

Mr. Sorrentino's hobbies include motorcycle riding and traveling. During past summers, he has been to 42 countries and to Canada. He has visited parts of the west, south and east. He also spends much of his summer time at his house down the shore.

Mr. Sorrentino says he enjoys working on the high school level, because he can relate better with the older student.

relationship, and I feel I can obtain this with high school students. In the future, it will no longer be on a teacher to student basis; it will be on a friend to friend basis."

Jenny Cassin

Jenny Cassin, a new teacher at Belleville High School but not new to the career of teaching, is becoming a familiar face in the English Department.

Mrs. Cassin was a graduate of Montclair State College, majoring in accounting and English. She student-taught at the high school and then became a sixth grade teacher at elementary School 3. There she taught for fifteen years.

Mrs. Cassin likes to spend her summers at the shore with her husband Robert, and her three children. Her oldest daughter, Joan, is a sophomore in college, her second daughter, Teresa, is a sophomore in high school, and her son, Robert, is in seventh grade at the junior high.

Mrs. Cassin's hobbies are crewel work, playing tennis, and being a member of a Thursday night bowling league. She has been involved with the Music Parents Association since it first started and was also its president for one year.

Mrs. Cassin said she enjoys the faster pace at the high school, but she remarked, "I miss the sixth graders, but I enjoy working with high school students."

Gene D'Allesandro

Although Belleville High School's new wrestling coach, Gene D'Allesandro, is presently teaching geometry, he is also certified to teach elementary school, driver's education and social studies.

Mr. D'Allesandro graduated in 1956 from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, with a degree in sociology. Seton Hall University and Montclair State College are among other colleges he has attended.

Married to a former Belleville, Mr. D'Allesandro has been teaching for 15 years and says he "loves it." He has taught at Essex Catholic High School, Raritan High School and in the Newark School System.

The new coach enjoys summertime on the beach, fishing, playing chess, and "trying to break 100" at golf.

Mr. D'Allesandro says he finds that "The students at BHS are very responsive and receptive. They have a great desire to learn."

He also adds that BHS has a good math department, department head and administration. "I am very pleased to be here, and I hope I can be an asset to the teaching system."

Jules Palmieri

There's a new face in the Belleville High School English department this year, but Jules Palmieri is not new to BHS. For the past two years, Mr. Palmieri has been a substitute teacher at BHS, and he has come to know many of the teachers and students.

Since becoming a full time teacher, he thinks he "takes more interest" in school and says, "I can now accomplish something with my students and get to know one group of students better."

But English isn't Mr. Palmieri's only interest. During the eclipse of the moon a few years ago, Mr. Palmieri took an interest in astronomy. Now he enjoys watching the planets with his own telescope. He was frank to admit, however, that he's still an amateur and just uses the hobby as a "way to pass the time."

Being an Italian major also, he would someday like to be a translator. But his first love is teaching, and that's why Mr. Palmieri is here at BHS — to teach and grow with his students.

Mariann Romelczyk

After spending time studying and traveling throughout France, Spain, Portugal and England, Irene Bernardo has finally come back to Belleville, but this time, as a French teacher at Belleville Junior High School.

Miss Bernardo was a student at Belleville High School and graduated with the class of 1972. After graduation, Miss Bernardo studied during her sophomore year in college at the Sorbonne University of Paris. Her junior year was spent at the University of de Paul Valery, Montpellier, France where she majored in French, education and translation.

Before returning to Belleville, Miss Bernardo received her teaching experience as a student teacher in Kearny High School.

When asked about her feelings on the junior high school, Miss Bernardo said that she enjoys all her classes; especially her ninth grade French class because all her students seem so eager to learn.

Marie Rainone

Marie Rainone has joined the secretarial staff at Belleville High School.

Mrs. Rainone worked as a secretary for seven years at the junior high school. She has also been very active in the PTA for the last twenty years and was a past president for two years at the junior high school.

"The faculty is just wonderful here, and the students are just as nice. I like it very much."

Eleanor Cafone

One of the new additions in Belleville High School's business department is Eleanor Cafone.

Mrs. Cafone, a graduate of Penn State University, worked in business for four years. She taught five years at Batton High School in Elizabeth and one year at East Orange High School. At this time, Mrs. Cafone attends Montclair State College. She said that she finds the students cooperative and the school small as compared to the other schools she has worked in. Mrs. Cafone also said she has found the faculty and her coordinator, Ernest Musmanno, very helpful.

Mrs. Cafone has traveled to Florida, Washington D.C. and the Caribbean during her vacation.

The Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery Test (ASVAB) was administered to all interested students September 29 in the BHS auditorium.

The ASVAB measures aptitude in various areas such as general information, numerical operations, attention to detail, work knowledge, arithmetic reasoning, space perception, mathematics knowledge, electronics information, mechanical comprehension, general science, shop information and automotive information.

Recruiters of the Armed Services use the ASVAB Test as test in screening candidates. Students not only use the test when interested in joining the armed services; it also is an indication of personal abilities.

Results will be returned to Nicholas Grande, Cooperative Industrial Education coordinator, sometime during the second week of November.

News briefs

The Future Teacher's Club held its first meeting of the year September 30 and members discussed tentative plans to tutor at the junior high school and at elementary School Three.

The Distributive Education Club of America (DECA) is now conducting a candy drive. Members of the club are selling Reese's peanut butter cups for 25c. The money will be used for various activities throughout the year.

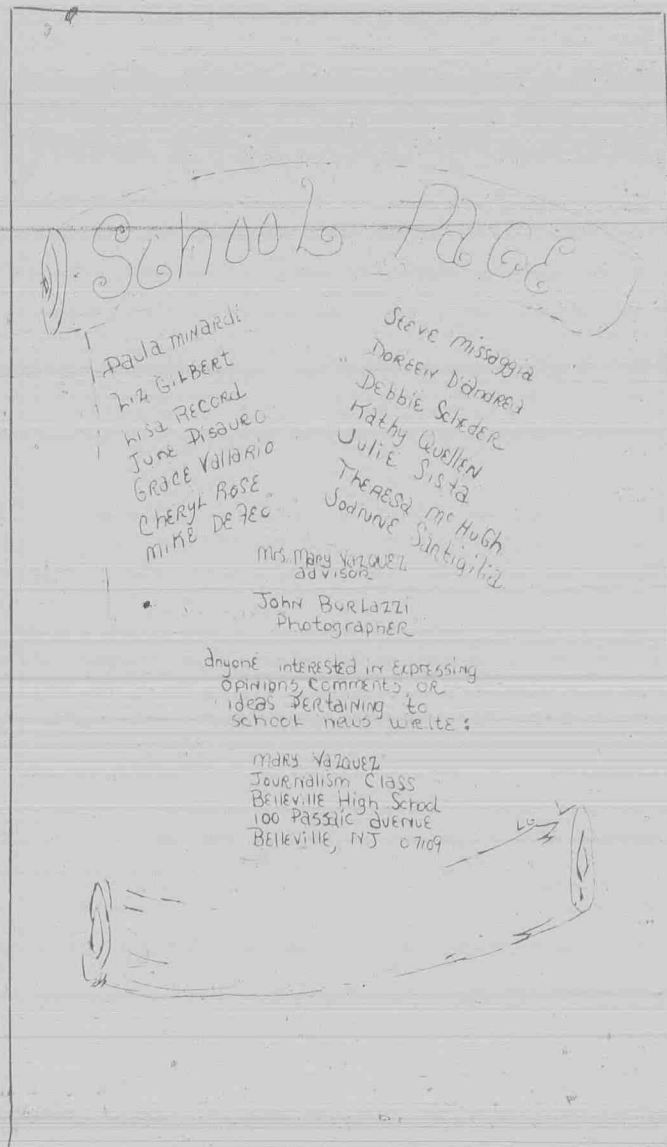

Belleville High School entered its 76-77 season with its pep assembly on September 27 at the BHS gymnasium.

The Drama Club has five shows scheduled this year, a fall show, "The Good Doctor," a Christmas show, talent show, the annual senior class play and something new, a children's theater.

BHS Key Club and Keywanette Club are planning to fund a Halloween masquerade party on October 29 in the cafeteria.

ODDS and ENDS

Gavin's name, translated from the Welsh, means "hawk hunter". It would be much more appropriate if it meant "Child of many Ms's". I have written so many excuse notes to his teacher that I feel we are almost on a first name basis!

The school year has hardly started and already we have waged a minor war against a case of tonsillitis which necessitated missing almost a whole week of classes. You can imagine the sinking feeling I had a week ago Tuesday when the boy complained of various aches throughout his anatomy and was clearly in no shape to be sent off to the halls of ivy. Frankly, I thought he had the flu or maybe its more common brother, la grippe and tucked him in bed with his Sherlock Holmes volumes, administering plenty of aspirin and quantities of juice. Unfortunately, my home remedies did absolutely no good and by Wednesday evening, he had seen our official diagnostician who concluded that the boy was harboring a lovely kidney infection. Prescribed pills four times a day and yellow ones following meals. The pills were put in a convenient place, accessible to Gavin and everything was going along quite well until Monday morning. Since the whites must be taken half hour before eating, I woke the young man at 6:15 a.m. on what I thought was my way back to bed, to administer same and lo and behold, not a pill in sight. Not a vestige, not a remnant and not a clue as to where they had gone. Sherlock remembered taking the last one scheduled the night before and swore on a stack of Dr. Watsons that he had replaced them in the usual spot. I instituted an immediate and thorough search while fending off "dingbat" looks from my spouse who often gives the impression of feeling that since I gave birth to this multitude, I should be accountable for their every action. Finally, there was only one spot unsearched. Try to get this picture if you can: the social editor in robe, sneakers and parka and armed with a flashlight, out on Alexander Avenue at 6:20 a.m. hunting through the garbage for the missing medicine. And try to imagine her relief, when her theory proved correct!

OUR GOOD FRIENDS and neighbors, the Murrys moved Saturday and Rod offered his help in moving the smaller things in the Volkswagen. The whole family went along on the last trip to the new house, stopping on the way home for a hamburger et al. Erin was absolutely shocked to discover that the onion rings she loves with a passion contained no onions! Wonder what she thought was inside that crispy crust? St. Paul's Fairtowne is set for November 10 and Layne and I are up to our ears in hand puppets. Our group is also contributing to the candy table and we tried making caramel apples a couple of weeks ago. Scratch that one. What a mess!

Once again, the Belleville Democratic County Committee will hold its 12th annual campaign breakfast.

This year, all county committee members will be honored for their leadership in the Democratic Party.

Many County, State and local, elected officials will join in with county committee members at 10 a.m. at the Branch Brook Manor.

Tickets are being sold rapidly, so sponsors ask for replies as soon as possible.

Extra tickets may be made available through ticket chairman, Mildred Benaquista.

Joe Doyle named campaign manager

William E. Hancock, a Republican from Montclair, has named Joseph Doyle Belleville coordinator of his campaign for election to a seat on the Essex County Freeholder Board. Currently, all nine seats are held by Democrats.

Doyle, a member of the Belleville Planning Board, lives at 314 Greylock Parkway with his wife, Barbara, and their two sons, Michael, six, and Brian, three.

A self-employed public relations consultant, Doyle is a past president of the Belleville Jaycees, and has long been active in community affairs.

Grid squad grabs first win of year

By JOSEPH RYAN

A couple of key defensive plays led to the Bellboys' second and third touchdowns and first victory of the season as the Blue-Gold downed the Passaic Indians, 13-7, last Friday night.

The first score for Belleville came with 6:52 remaining in the half when defensive end Scott Ochse blocked an Indian punt and ran the ball 15 yards for a touchdown. The scoring was capped by the Blue-Gold in the third quarter when Ken Nicosia went five yards to the end zone following the Bellboy recovery of a Passaic fumble by tackle Ralph Amiano.

The first win came with sophomore quarterback Jerry Fazzini piloting the squad while Joe Gelpi, the injured starting quarterback helped out on defense. Coach Tom Testa called the triumph a "great team effort" and added, "you might say it was a little more like it."

"A little more like it" included a revitalized, offensive ground game that totaled 109 yards compared to the dozen

Camper team will be tough

The Irvington Campers scored nearly three times as many points as Belleville has all season when they downed Vailsburg last week, 56-6. So the Campers know how to win and the Bellboys could have a solid test of their improved squad Saturday afternoon, 1:30 at Irvington.

The Campers are 2-1-1 for the year with their opening victory over Nutley, 14-0, a tie to Union and a loss to Montclair. Bellboy coach Tom Testa said he does not believe the competition the Irvington squad met against Vailsburg provided a valid test of the Camper offensive abilities but added Irvington has a "solid football team."

Irvington is solid enough to tie Union, a team that beat the Bloomfield Bengals, who topped the Bellboys by 26 points.

The Camper gridders also shutout the Maroon Raiders so the going could be tough for the Blue-Gold in the second away game of the season.

"Irvington can do everything well," Testa said. He noted the team's good running and passing attacks but added, "they didn't have it too tough against Vailsburg, they played a couple of tough teams but Vailsburg was a real softy."

Eight of the Campers slated to start in Saturday's match play both offense and defense. Tony Favor a 5-9, 140 pound senior will start as offensive end for the Campers. Favor also works on the punt return team and last week returned a punt 43 yards for a touchdown. He was the first player Camper coach Fred Manuel mentioned when he listed the squad's strong spots.

Broncos destroy Nutley opponents

Three Bronco touchdowns in the first half powered Belleville's junior football team past the Nutley Junior Raiders Sunday for the fifth Bellevilleite victory of the season.

Saturday night at the Municipal Stadium the undefeated Broncos will go for their sixth in a row when they meet Montclair for the second time this season. The first match the Bellevilleites took, 20-0.

The Broncos started quickly in their fifth consecutive win when the Junior Raiders fumbled the opening kick-off and Joe Martinez recovered for Belleville on the twenty six yard line. Angelo Centanni bolted over the three yard line on the second play for the touchdown. Mark Mendolla ran for the extra point and the Broncos took the lead 7-0.

The Junior Raiders refused to roll over dead however and fought back to score when Bill Thompson ran from the two and also carried the extra point to tie the game, 7-7.

Booters make .500 mark

The Blue-Gold booters took two games in a row last week to even their record at 5-5 and start the first win streak in the varsity soccer team's history.

Irvington and Orange were the victims of the Bellboys burgeoning offensive power. The Campers succumbed to a Belleville Borja barrage, 6-2, and Orange fell to the Blue-Gold, 3-1.

Columbia arrives in Belleville tomorrow for a 3:45 p.m. soccer game at Clearman Field and the best Bellboy booters in the history of the school will take on East Orange next Monday afternoon again at Clearman. Tuesday the Blue-Gold took on Montclair at home but the results were in too late for this edition of the Times/News.

The soccer men beat Orange in overtime the first game of the season and the re-match last Friday was close for most of the contest. Belleville scored first on a goal by Hernan Borja assisted by Jim Cooney. Coach Tony Cahill said he has been very pleased with the way Borja and Cooney have been working up front together for the Blue-Gold.

Both teams were deadlocked in the second quarter but Belleville returned in the second half with two more goals. Joe Coscarelli booted his sixth goal of the year for the Bellboys assisted by Hernan Borja. The senior Borja also assisted again in the third on a Jim Cooney score. The Bellboys took the 3-1 lead down to the wire and chalked up their fifth triumph of the year

The Orange win was encouraging because the Bellevilleites had lost the play of Mike Licamelli who was injured in practice and will be out for the rest of the season.

Cahill said he has brought up freshmen Galo Calvache from the jayvee team to play right wing and is pleased with the Bellboy's progress and success on the field. Calvache has already had three shots on goal and an assist.

The soccer coach noted the Bellevilleites didn't overpower the Orange team and lamented the loss of goalkeeper Tony Cordaro who might miss, a game due to an injury against Orange.

Women make history

Get out the record book and mark October 15, 1976 as the date of the first Bellgirl tennis team victory, a shutout over the Irvington court squad, 5-0.

The trailblazing women racketeers faced their first comparable first year varsity competition against the Campers and won by a wide margin. Founding girls tennis coach Karen Fuccello said, "we're not as bad as our record (1-4) indicates."

Today the net set will face Immaculate Conception away and will return home next Tuesday afternoon for another match against Irvington.

The first Bellgirl sweep of the Campers started with first ranked racketeer Toni Sperduto, a BHS sophomore, taking Annone Dana in two sets, 6-1, 6-1. Dana had some time last year with the Irvington boys team so although she was first year varsity, she already had some match experience.

Patty Connelly took her singles match as well, beating Lucy Ticki in two games 6-1, 6-1.

Fuccello was especially pleased by the competitive spirit shown by LuAnn Grafeo in her third singles victory. Grafeo won the first set 6-2, lost the second 4-6, and came back for a third set victory, 6-3. Fuccello said she was pleased with Grafeo's comeback ability and her toughness in competition.

Denise Juliano and Tina Ogilvie, the first doubles team for the Bellgirls are "really clicking together" the Blue-Gold coach said. The two downed Laura Radznih and Rose Palek, 6-1, 6-0. The second Bellgirl doubles duo, Karin Sciacca and Wendy Hesford also shutout their competition, Donna Birch and Kim Casale, 6-0, 6-0.

The Bellgirls lost their second contest against the Nutley net set, 5-0 last week. Coach Fuccello said the Nutley coach, Pat Keating, said the Raiders were Bench view — No matter where you sat last Friday night the view of the Bellboy-Passaic confrontation was much better than previous contests had been. Those on the bench also served by waiting, many have been called into action this year as coach Testa has searched for a lucky 11.

Coach Testa is hopeful

Al McDonald, (6, 170) is another senior end who will also work at the end position on the defensive unit. Tackle Allan Hill is another two team Camper, who stands 6 feet and weighs 200 pounds. Tom Doud, (5-10, 180) will join Hill as an offensive tackle. Ray Moore, (6-3, 205) is an imposing defensive tackle for the Irvington crew.

Joe Ferrar is slated to start as an offensive guard for the Campers. Cliff Shave, (5-9, 175) is scheduled to play center and middle guard for Irvington Saturday. Stan Jones, (5-9, 165) is an offensive halfback and defensive corner back for the Campers who scored one of the touchdowns against Vailsburg last week.

Larry Fascenelli (5-10, 170), a starter at halfback and strong safety also joined the scoring rush against Vailsburg. Jack Fiorenza, (5-8, 155) is a junior fullback and safety for the Campers. Fiorenza was also one of the seven Irvington gridders who crossed the goal line against Vailsburg.

Nick Jemas (6, 160) is the Camper quarterback and has shown himself capable of leading an aerial attack as well as a ground game. Testa called Jemas, "very good for speed and execution."

Rounding out the Irvington defense are Tyrone Davis and Stan Jones, Davis, (5-11, 170) and Jones, (5-9, 165) have both seen some time on offense as well, especially against Vailsburg when both of them scored.

Coach Manuel said about seven of his starters were returning veterans from last year's team that beat the Bellboys. The chief Camper said he was pleased with mostly everyone on his team including: Favor, Jones, Fascenelli, Ray Moore, Hill and Davis.

Manuel said his squad relies mostly on a running game but added it wasn't necessary for Irvington to throw a pass in the lopsided Vailsburg victory.

"We have a lot of respect for Belleville Manuel said. The Camper coaches have seen Belleville twice and Manuel stated there was no one "key" the Campers would concentrate on because so many individuals on the team have a chance of breaking out for a score. Defense is the Blue-Gold specialty according to Manuel, who added he was impressed by the "good defensive pursuit" exhibited by the Bellboys.

The Belleville defense will be chasing Campers running out of mostly slot I and power I formations if Irvington sticks to its previous methods. The Campers employ a 5-2-4 defense pattern.

Earlier this week, coach Testa told the Times/News the bruise to Joe Gelpi's hand is progressing quite nicely and added "we're hoping he can see some offensive action." The BHS coach described Gelpi's injury as a serious bruise or slight fracture that does not require a cast but is painful. If Gelpi isn't ready for Saturday night Fazzini will pick up more valuable playing time and the sidelined quarterback will get a starting spot on the defensive unit as a safety man. Testa was very pleased with Gelpi's defensive abilities in the last two grid contests.

"Our strength right now is defense," Testa said. He called the BHS defenders "All basic, real tough football players." The coach also said he thought the new faces in last week's offense helped to improve it and added "we will continue to make changes until we find kids who like to hit."

The Bellboys will also be concentrating on creating a passing attack this week, according to the coach. "We've got to put the ball in the air," Testa said. The aerial game is expected to loosen up the opponents defense.

Two seasons ago the Bellboys were 1-3 at the start and won about five in a row in Testa's first year back on the coaching staff. "If they want it, they can do it again," the coach said. "They had a taste of agony and victory. They got both and we hope they like the thrill of victory."

Defense was key to hometown victory

yards gained against Nutley. The team effort in triumph included a second performance by quarterback Fazzini coach Testa characterized as poised and much more relaxed. The coach added the sub quarterback, "came a long way in one week" and "ran the team very well."

While citing the team's work as a unit and individual performances Testa called the play of Mike Limongelli the "outstanding" job of the week. Limongelli started at middle guard on the defensive squad, center at offense, and most noticeably as Belleville's punting and kicking artist.

After viewing the game films, Testa said Limongelli made about 15 unassisted tackles and cited the Junior Bellboy's efforts to the team as an example of a man who knows how to hit. The coach was also pleased with the 5-10, 205 pound gridders play at center. Meanwhile the Bellboy sparkplug continued to average 40 yard punts and 50-yard plus kick-offs. Limongelli's been "a solid performer" Testa said.

Scott Ochse was also praised by the coach for offensive and defensive work. The 6-1, 190 pound senior was in on the two key defensive plays of the ballgame and the coach noted Ochse's blocking abilities on the offensive line.

Frank Constantino, Ted Zangari, Al Nufrio, and Ken Nicosia, were also cited by Testa for a job well done against the Indians last Friday.

Belleville defensive men who also merited the coaches praise included first time starter junior Bill Giuliano, Bob Racioppi, and John Gotto. Ralph Amiano blocked the key punt for the winning score and also several passes for the Bellboys that could have changed the outcome of the game. Coach Testa noted Amiano's effort along with so many others constituted the first win in 1976 as a true team victory.

The Blue-Gold won its first coin toss of the year before its first win. A clipping penalty against the Bellboys put the ball on their own 13 and after Nicosia carried twice and Fazzini lost yards running, the Bellboys punted to Passaic and the Indians took over on the 50.

Passaic quarterback John Vernon opened the game with a 20 yard run but after three running plays by Derek Thomas, Vernon tried for a first but the Bellboy defense held solid and the Indian gave up the ball on the Belleville 21.

The Bellboys then mounted a 20 play series that included three first downs, all on runs by Nicosia, and gained 41 yards. However the drive was stopped on the Passaic 38 by the Indians at the start of the second quarter.

After Belleville failed to capitalize on an interception when a field goal attempt failed, Passaic took the ball on its own 18 but was stopped by the Blue-Gold in three plays. When the Indians attempted to punt Scott Ochse had other ideas and blocked it then carried the ball from the 15 into the end zone for the second BHS touchdown in four games. The Bellboys took the lead after an extra point play was unsuccessful with 6:26 to go into the quarter.

Passaic then launched a 77 yard scoring drive in 14 plays to put them ahead at the half with a good extra point try, 7-6. The highlight of the immediate response attack was a 52 yard pass connection from Vernon to Keith Hinton that put the Indians on the four yard line. Vernon carried the ball in three plays across the goal line impressed with the Belleville's progress on the court and added the Montclair team had also remarked on the first year varsity's progress in the short season.

LuAnn Graffeo's performance was another highlight of the Nutley match Fucello said. She extended her opponent before finally losing 6-4, in a match, the Raider completely dominated in the first meeting.

First double team, sophomore Juliano and junior Ogilvie also showed much improved court skills when they took their Nutley competition to a tiebreaker point before losing the match.

Coach Fucello noted the Nutley results and the Irvington win against another first year team to cite the especially competitive squads the Belgirls have met, Montclair, Nutley, Columbia, in their first season.

"I am very pleased with everybody progressing the way I want them to," Fucello said. The court coach said Wendy Hesford may move up to a starting singles assignment while staying with Karin Sciacca for doubles matches.

Every Belgirl has now had some competitive court time due to the bonus matches played after the dual meets. With darkness coming earlier, Fucello said she is thinking of giving everyone on the racketeer set a chance at starting in varsity competition during the remainder of the season.

The Belgirls have now attained their first varsity win and the signs for the future are all good. Most of the team consists of sophomores and Fucello said the other teams, "know we're coming back."

Cahill's kick crowd is cooking

The 6-2 victor over Irvington was a Herman Borja spectacular. Borja booted all six goals. "He could do no wrong that day," Cahill said.

No wrong consisted of the elder Borja brother making 6 scores in two and a half quarters of play. Hernan Borja only took seven shots in the game and made six of them. "impossible for anyone to have a better day."

The blitz started in the first quarter when Borja scored with an assist from Mike Licamelli. Two more went in from the Belleville booter in the second period with assists from Jim Cooney and Joe Coscarelli. The Blue-Gold soccer men took a 3-0 lead into halftime.

The Borja barrage continued for Belleville in the third quarter with three more goals. The first two came on assist from Bellboys Cooney and Tony Hazimzadeh and the final shot was a direct hit from Borja, 23 to 24 yards away from the goal to the net over a wall of Irvington booters camped in front of the net. Borja's final boot went in the high upper corner for his sixth score of the day. Hernan had previously scored four times all year and now leads the club with 10 goals for the season.

Cahill rested Borja while the Bellevilleites had a comfortable lead to prevent the senior Bellboy from becoming an over achiever and to give the rest of the team a shot. "We played flawless ball for three quarters and he (Borja) got an awful lot of help," Cahill said.

The Belleville strategy has been to learn how to work the ball up the outside and work toward the center for the score. Cahill said Mike Limongelli and Borja worked just this way all day in the Irvington win.

Cahill said he was also pleased with the adjustment of moving Cooney up to the center position with Borja. Cooney passed very well according to the booter coach and the fact was evident in the two assists Cooney had for the match.

Two new fullbacks were also used on the outside by Cahill because previous Belleville booters were getting beaten when they didn't have the speed to contend with some of the opposition. Senior fullback Libby Iannetelli will be playing at left fullback for the remainder of the year and sophomore Rudy Fabiano will also be seeing action.

Bobby Freda was another Bellboy complimented by Cahill after the victory over the Campers. Freda's primary responsibility has been at defensive halfback and Cahill said the Blue-Gold booter has played very "consistently all year."

Irvington scored twice in the fourth quarter from a corner kick Cahill said was executed very well and made a goal again on a penalty kick. The Campers took 20 shots on goal, four more than the Bellboys did but as Cahill said, "those that we made counted." Blue-Gold goalkeeper Tony Cordaro was kept busy preserving the Bellboy victory.

The Belleville booters went into Tuesday's game with a .500 season and Cahill said the Montclair game was practically a must win to stay .500 or better for the year. Other crucial games to finish the team's best season ever are Bloomfield, Columbia and Kearny. Cahill said he believed the Blue-Gold would have their best chance for a win against the Bloomfield Bengals on October 29.

Belleville was ranked fourth at the beginning of this week and for a team that finished with only two wins last season, a .500 year in fourth place is very good indeed. It's the best ever, in fact.

Pre-school session is now underway

The last call for pre-school registration for the afternoon session is underway. The Belleville Recreation Department has announced there are openings in the Pre-School Play Program for four year old children.

The program consists of stories, games, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest period and occasional holiday parties specially designed for pre-school children.

School is under the leadership of Mrs. Patricia Nigro. For further information contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 759-3142.

Rams and Jets tops in Rec football league

The Rams and the Jets remain as the only two undefeated teams at the halfway point of the 1976 Belleville Recreation football season.

Last week in the lightweight division the Rams battered the Dolphins to their first loss by a score of 20-0. Running backs Robert Hayes, Robert Cancelliere, and Peter Haverick each scored a touchdown as they continued to pace an offense that has compiled 82 points in three games.

Defensively, the Rams are just as impressive. Safety Robert Hayes, tackle Dave Montemarano, and end Carmen Cucuzza lead a unit that yielded only seven points.

The Dolphins record, a 12-0 victory over the Packers with John Lopusnak and Robert Dente running for touchdowns while linebacker Ron Charles led the defense. The Dolphin gridders next defeated the Steelers 24-12 before being stopped by the Rams. Ray Kimble ran for 25 and 30 yard touchdowns and Andrew Zoppi scored from 40 yards out as the Packers picked up their only win of the first half of the season by downing the Steelers 19-6.

The Jets, after defeating the Oilers and Giants, handed the Chargers their first loss by a score of 26-0. Garry Farrar led the way with three touchdowns while Russell Cirillo scored on a 30 yard pass from Dennis Galasso. The Jets defensive squad manned by Galasso, Robert Scherrer, and Louis Ricciardi did an outstanding job of containing the explosive Charger attack led by quarterback Joe Lipoma and running backs John Mac Arthur, Richard Wilks, and Nicky Lembo.

Peter Zazzali scored twice and Robert Price and Richard Valenti each added a touchdown to pace the Giants to their first win with a 25-0 triumph over the Oilers. Quarterback Joseph Guarino led the offense while defensively he was joined by Adam Pappas, Brad Gutches and Jamie Lijo.

Ref applications are being accepted

Polish up your referee whistles. The New Jersey AAU Basketball Officials Association is accepting applications for prospective basketball refs.

The association will conduct its annual clinic on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, October 26, 28, November 1, 8, 11, and 16. Final exams will be held Thursday night November 16.

The clinic will be conducted by Luke Lenahan under the direction of Guy Borges, president of the association. The sessions will include a comprehensive explanation of the rules, the latest films on rule interpretation and floor work in a gymnasium. Please contact H. J. Richmond, 1325 Denmark Road, Plainfield, N.J. for an application and additional information.

Early in the second quarter the Broncos went ahead guided by the running of Sam DeCapua and Mark Mendolla. The second Belleville touchdown came when Mendolla broke through the middle of Nutley's defense for a 13 yard scoring run, putting the Broncos ahead 13-7.

Frank Fazzini, the Belleville quarterback, dropped back to pass in the closing seconds of the half and scored a running touchdown when he found no one open. The opening half ended with the Broncos out front 19-7.

The local junior football squad received the second half kick off and moved the ball to the 47 yard line. Quarterback Fazzini then combined with tight end John Cataldo for a 57 yard goal line pass, as Cataldo made an excellent run for pay dirt. Tim Hoban's kick for extra points failed, thus ending the scoring for the night.

The Broncos second unit team marched to the Nutley 23 yard line late in the game, but time elapsed and the Broncos took their fifth triumph, 25-7.

The Broncos offensive line completely dominated the Nutley line, as the Broncos backs accumulated 237 yards for the game.

Ten bout card featured next week

A ten bout fight card will be featured Friday night October 29 at Belleville High Gymnasium when the Veterans Boxers Social Club and The Telegram sponsor their semi-annual charity boxing show.

Golden Glovers will highlight the match which gets under way at 8 p.m. The fights are sanctioned by the New Jersey AAU and Sammy Sangis, National AAU and Olympic official is arranging the card.

Boxers from the Belleville, Nutley, Kearny, Bloomfield, and North Newark area have entered the contest. Floyd Patterson, former world heavyweight boxing champion will be present with a group of amateurs who performed admirably at last year's card.

The straight-talking bank.

Goal part — Bellboy booter Joe Coscarelli, above, is congratulated by teammates for his score against Orange last Friday. It helped the Blue-Gold win the second game in a row this year, the first back to back victories in the two year varsity history.

The harriers are 0-8 for the season but cross country coach Rich Ruffalo is looking for the race against the Bengals today to be one of the best chances for the Bellboys to win a meet.

Craig Lordigyan ran his best race of the year against Nutley finishing in seventh place with a 16 minute 36 second time. Ruffalo said he is hoping the speeding Bellboy can break the 16 minute mark before the end of the season.

Tom Graham picked up twelfth place for the Bellboys in the Nutley meet with a 17:27 time. Graham will miss a few meets because of an injury sustained when the Bellboy fell in practice and needed eight stitches in his knee. His brother, Mike Graham, one of the Blue-Gold's best runners is just returning from an injury and Ruffalo hopes Graham and Lordigyan can lead the harriers to a win this fall.

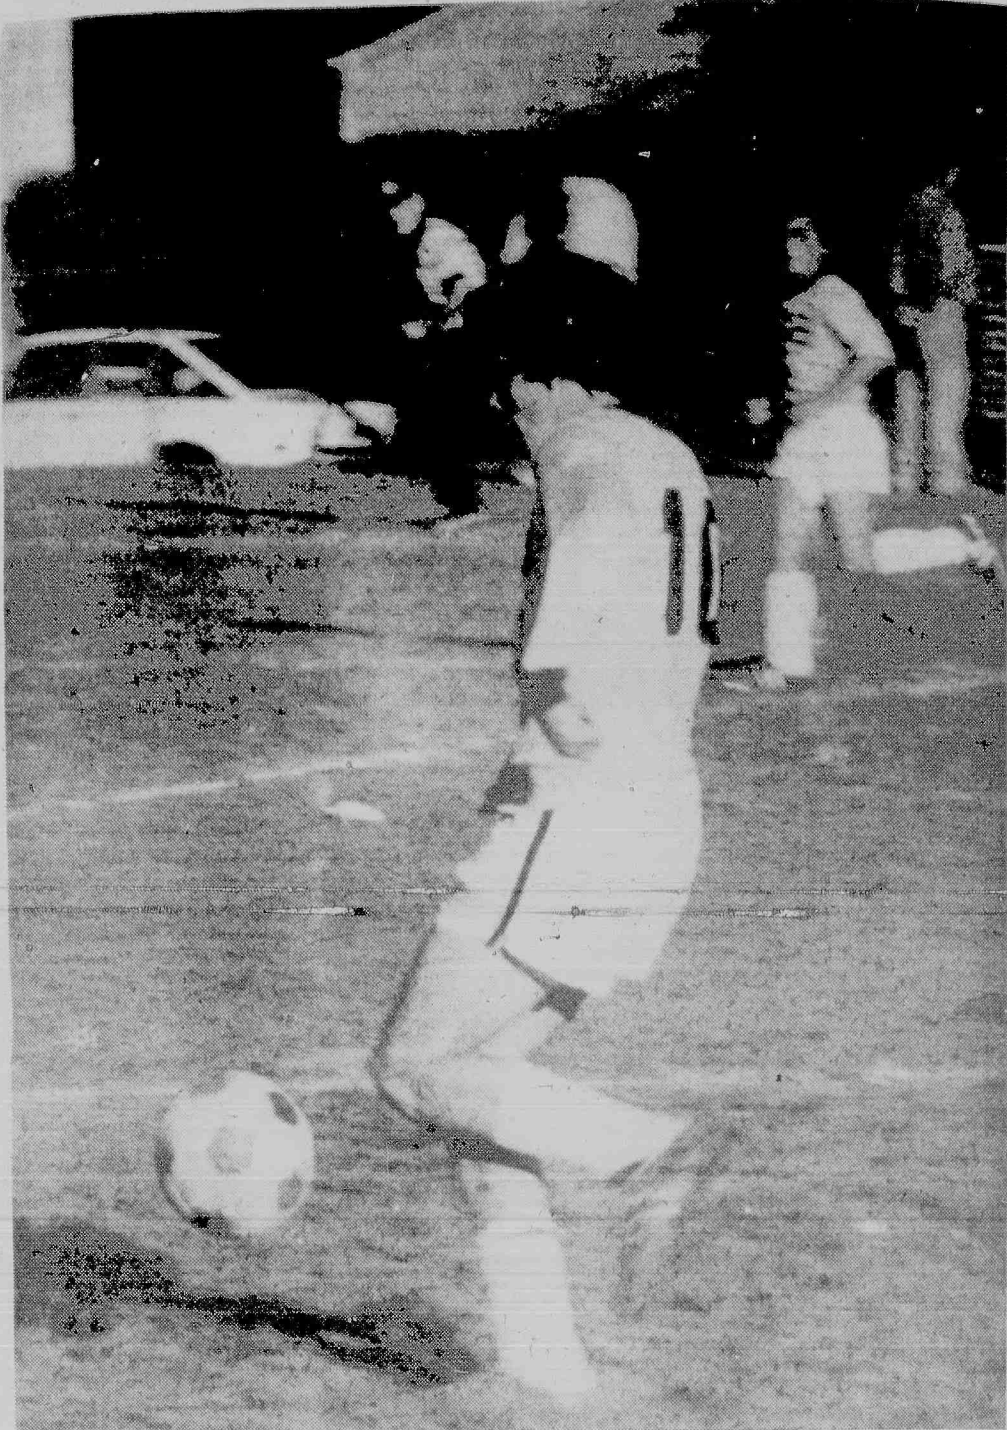

Ruffalo has scheduled a meet this Saturday against Central High School in Newark at home in Belleville Park. The Blue-Gold coach said Central's record is comparative to Belleville's and he wants the extra meet to give his young team more race experience and the chance to win.

"Even though we lost to Nutley, most of the kids had their best times," Ruffalo said. "They're improving." The Bellboys will also be getting ready for the Essex County meet at Branch Brook Park on November 3. Sue Smith, the lone Bellgirl harrier, is expected to get a chance to run against girls in the county races.

The Bellboys were shutout by Montclair last Tuesday in Brookdale Park. Craig Lordigyan was the only runner who placed for the Blue-Gold. The fleet Bellboy finished twelfth on the three mile course in 18 minutes, 40 seconds.

Freda fires — Above, Bellboy Robert Freda fires a shot past Orange booters. Soccer coach Tony Cahill has praised the Belleville booters consistent play throughout the season.

Polega pursues — Left halfback Mike Polega chases down the ball during the Orange game last Friday. The Bellboys are already three wins better than their best season ever.

QUESTIONS MOST ASKED BY OUR CUSTOMERS:

WHY HAVE MY UTILITY BILLS GONE UP FASTER THAN OTHER THINGS I BUY?

Over the past few years, the bills you paid for electric and gas service did increase faster than the general rate of inflation. That's because the major areas of expense in producing energy went up faster than most of the day-to-day things you buy.

Fuel, for instance, is the largest single expense in generating electricity, and PSE&G is paying 31 1/2 times more for coal and oil today than we did just three years ago. Natural gas prices, too, have increased dramatically. In fact, the cost of gas to PSE&G has doubled since 1971.

About forty cents of every dollar you pay for electricity goes for fuel. And nearly half of your gas dollar goes just for natural gas and raw materials. That's why higher fuel costs and natural gas prices are a major factor in your higher energy bills.

In addition, our overall cost of operations has gone up. To provide you with reliable service, we must meet the rising expenses of things like materials, labor, environmental controls, taxes and interest — and the same inflation you've experienced has driven our costs up, resulting in higher rates to you.

Unfortunately, cheap energy is a thing of the past. This is true all across the nation. However, PSE&G is continuing to make every effort to provide you with the energy you need at the lowest possible cost.

To ease the shortage of natural gas, we're manufacturing synthetic natural gas, exploring for our own natural gas along the Gulf coasts, and planning to import liquefied natural gas. And to meet New Jersey's future demand for electricity at the lowest possible cost, PSE&G is relying more and more on nuclear energy. Electricity produced by nuclear energy is less expensive to generate, because nuclear fuel costs less than oil or coal. And our best estimates indicate it will continue to cost less in the years to come. We're convinced that nuclear energy is the best way to carry us over until other methods of producing energy — such as fusion or solar power — become practical realities.

"Every day we're asked serious questions regarding energy costs, future supplies of energy and the wise use of energy. This series of informational advertisements answers many of the questions we most frequently receive and is designed to make facts about energy available to all our customers."

R. T. Smith, President, PSE&G

'Theatre' buys building

The New Jersey Theatre Foundation announced its purchase of the American National Trust building at 544 Bloomfield Avenue at its kick-off press conference and cocktail celebration on September 28.

The evening initiated the Foundation's capital fundraising campaign for the renovation of the building into a professional regional theatre to house the theatrical performances of The Whole Theatre Company. At its projected capacity, the new space will increase WTC's audience to 10,000 per month. In its current minispace at the First Baptist Church, WTC has a capacity of 1,200 per month.

Connie Sayre, President of the New Jersey Theatre Foundation, introduced the evening with thanks to William Shepherd, President of Horizon Bancorp. for the good will shown by the Bank during negotiating for the property. She said that the Foundation was developed as a separate non-profit entity so that the community itself would be drawn into direct involvement with the theatre as landlord and financial guardian. Arnold Mittelman, President of the Whole Theatre Company, noted that this marriage of professional theatre and community involvement was unique to New Jersey and represented a truly resident company for the region.

Warren Ross, Jr., co-chairman of the Funding Campaign, announced that $50,000 in private donations were received over the summer, enabling the Foundation to close title on September 23. He also announced that the Florence and John Schumann Foundation has awarded a $50,000 challenge grant for the project. The grant stipulates that $100,000 in new cash beyond existing contributions must be raised to qualify. Ross expressed his sincere appreciation to the Schumann Foundation for its support.

Mrs. Sayre introduced three keynote speakers reflecting the dynamics of developing a professional regional theatre in Northern New Jersey. Mayor Grant Gille of Montclair declared that area residents should not have to live in the shadow of New York when Montclair offered so much. He welcomed the continued growth of the Whole Theatre Company indicating his pleasure that good theatre and the adjunct educational programs of the Company would enrich the cultural climate of all Northern New Jersey.

S. Barksdale Penick, Jr., President of the Montclair Art Museum, congratulated the Foundation and the Company on its efforts to date and wished them success in building another cultural institution for Montclair, noting that the arts are interdependent and offering the aid of the museum in furthering the Foundation's goals.

William Stewart, Managing Director of the Hartford Stage Company, and the American Shakespeare Theatre in Stratford, Connecticut, spoke of the future of the Whole Theatre Company as a member of the League of Resident Theatres (LORT) where he serves on the executive committee. LORT is a national organization of non-profit professional regional theatres. These theatres provide permanent creative environments for artistic performance of plays on a continuing basis for audiences throughout America. Nearly three million people attended close to 6,000 performances of 181 mainstage productions at 27 of LORT's theatres in the year ending May 1975.

Stewart indicated that the Whole Theatre Company, with its rapid growth, would soon qualify for membership in LORT and drew parallels between other LORT companies and the WTC. He cited examples of national recognition achieved by LORT theatres for their valuable contributions to theatre in America. Within the past year, Arena Stage in Washington, D.C., accepted the first Antoinette Perry Award presented to a theatre outside New York; the Long Wharf Theatre in New Haven, Connecticut, won the New York Drama Critic's Circle Award for the best American play of the year, David Rabe's "Streamers" and Yale Repertory Theatre received the first Obie ever awarded outside of New York City for its production of Edward Bond's "Bingo: Scenes of Money and Death." Stewart praised the potential of the growing Whole Theatre Company.

Seton stages 'whodunit'

An enthralling whodunit by a famous American playwright opens the 1976-77 season at Seton Hall University's Theatre-in-the-Round tonight with a performance of "On Trial" by Elmer Rice. The play will be presented during two consecutive weekends.

A melodrama with a twist ending, the play moved audiences with its gripping plot and novel technique when it opened on Broadway in 1914. It was the first play to use what is now called "flashback." The plot is unravelled through the juxtaposition of past scenes and courtroom scenes of the trial of a husband accused of murdering his friend for seducing his wife.

Director James P. McGlone chose the play because it is in keeping with his philosophy of trying to provide opportunities for local audiences to see plays they cannot see elsewhere. Since the play is out of print, McGlone had to copy it for each player from an old anthology of "Famous Plays of Detection."

"There is no point in doing plays that can be seen in New York," he said. "This play employs a fascinating technique; we have actors who can do it well; and it is a wonderful play to wind up the Bicentennial year."

'Scapino' to open early Saturday

The Family Playhouse, 28 Brookline Avenue, Nutley, has announced that this Saturday's presentation of "Scapino" will begin one-half hour earlier.

The curtain will go up at 7:30 p.m. for this Saturday's performance. All other times stand as earlier publicized.

The theater group also announced open casting on Wednesday, October 27 for "Amahl And the Night Visitors."

The light Christmas opera calls for one boy, one female, four males and a chorus. Anyone auditioning should bring his or her own music.

The play will run December 10, 11, 12, 17, 18 and 19.

Bellevilleite busted for Nutley break-in

An 18-year-old Belleville man, charged with breaking into a Nutley apartment, waived a preliminary hearing in Criminal Court Monday and asked that his case be heard by the Essex County Grand Jury.

Thomas Sullivan, 18, of 46 Continental Ave., Belleville, was arrested by Belleville Police in September. Subsequent questioning involving Nutley Detective Sgt. Alfred Ciccone led to Sullivan's arrest for breaking into a home and apartment on Harrison Street, Nutley.

Some of the items taken from the home reportedly have been recovered by police. Sullivan presently is out on $250 bail. One of the charges related to the incident concerns a juvenile, 16, who is said to have accompanied Sullivan at the crime scene.
