Local man seeks permit investigation

A Belleville businessman has requested an investigation into the issuance of special parking permits by the Public Safety Department.

Daniel DeTufio, a real estate agent located at 338 Washington Avenue, sent a letter to the Board of Commissioners last week asking that "the Mayor and three Commissioners" look into the distribution of the placards, which allow holders to park in normally prohibited zones and exempt them from paying for parking meters.

The Commissioners put off any action on the request until Public Safety Director Rocco Saletta was present. Saletta was absent from Tuesday's regular Board meeting due to illness. According to several officials, he was in Clara Maass Memorial Hospital's intensive care unit suffering from "hyper-tension." He could not be reached for comment.

The placards, issued by the Commissioner, but signed by the Chief of Police, were originally intended, officials said, for handicapped citizens to allow them easy access to stores and residences. The permits were also given to town employees, it was reported, for use while on official business.

DeTufio is charging the permits have been given to "certain individuals and businessmen and the order (has been given) to the Parking Meter Maids not to issue tickets to holders of same."

According to Town Attorney John Scott, if such is the case, it is "absolutely illegal," and he added, "Issuing such a permit would be waiving the law for certain individuals, and that cannot be done."

The permits were formerly issued by the police department, but the power was given to the Public Safety Director some years ago, officials said.

In other Board business Tuesday, the Commissioners passed on first reading three appropriations ordinances for public works projects.

The Commissioners approved appropriations of $450,000 for an addition to the library, $1 million for the construction of a new firehouse, and $5 million for the repair and relining of the town's water pipes.

Schoolers save on wrecking bill

The Board of Education reached an agreement this week with the Interstate Wrecking Company, reducing the bill for the demolition of School Three by $1,650.

The reduction in cost was a compromise, reached by interim Board Attorney Frank Pomaro and representatives of the wrecking company. The Board had originally asked for a deduction of $4,000.

The Trustees sought the back charge on the bill for expenses incurred when demolition of the burnt out structure went beyond the date specified in the contract. As a result of the delay, classes for students attending the undamaged portion of the building were delayed three days.

As a result of that delay, the Board will have to pay teachers for extra class time to make up for the loss. The $1,650 reduction is equal to the amount being paid by the Trustees for those extra class hours.

Board president Matthew Pica spoke for the other Trustees in requesting the reduced bill, saying the members felt the bill for $19,950 was "out of line because of extra costs as a result of the demolition work not being done as per the contract, dates." He requested a $4,000 reduction to offset expenditures by the Board for teacher salaries and those of workmen at the site.

Raphael Weill, president of Interstate Wrecking, defended his firm's actions, adding, "I think we did a remarkable job in a time which was too short," and he added, "We signed the contract, sure, but anybody would have. You put an almost impossible set of circumstances on the contractor. We just did the best possible job."

Pica said the Board had "no qualms" about the date the work was started, but charged the delay in completion was the result of salvage work at the site. Workmen, it was charged, spent time cleaning and carting away bricks instead of continuing demolition activities.

Veterans march tonight

State Senator Anthony Imperiale will be the guest speaker at the Veterans Day Parade tonight in Belleville. The annual march, sponsored by the Belleville Veteran's Council, will get underway from Greylock Parkway and Washington Avenue at 7:30 p.m. sharp.

Joseph Fornarotto, chairman of this year's parade, has announced ten divisions of marchers will include Town Commissioners, local dignitaries, beauty queens, and 10 bands, including an all-girl contingent from Wayne.

The Veterans Council is urging all Bellevilleites to turn out for the festivities to honor the vets who have served their country. The parade will move down Washington from Greylock to Williams Street.

Homecoming queen

Community discussion

Belleville Commissioners Vincent Strumolo and Joseph McGreevy discuss the future of the Community Mental Health Services with Nutley Mayor Harry Chenoweth. Officials of Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield agreed to meet again this Saturday to continue debating the future of the three towns' participation in the center.

Swine shots start today

Innoculations against swine flu will begin locally starting today and continue through Sunday.

Belleville High School has been selected as the clinic site and the serum will be distributed from 3 to 8 p.m. today and tomorrow and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The shots are free to all citizens.

All Bellevilleites are urged to take advantage of the program, sponsored by the federal government and administered by state and local health authorities. The shots will be given to everyone over the age of 18, and Commissioner Vincent Strumolo has specifically urged anyone with diabetes to be inoculated.

Though the vaccine itself causes no reaction, according to officials, they warn, "anyone allergic to eggs or egg

Tri-town meeting held

Elected officials of Nutley, Belleville and Bloomfield have not been able to resolve the future of the Community Mental Health Center which the three communities have financed since 1958.

Nutley hosted a meeting attended by the three Mayors and all elected officials from the three communities here last Wednesday night. Opinions on the future of the mental health unit were so divided, however, a follow-up session had to be called for 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 13 in an attempt to resolve the differences.

Belleville precipitated the present controversy four weeks ago when that town's Public Affairs Commissioner, Vincent Strumolo, recommended the annual appropriation for the Mental Health Center be dropped. Strumolo argued Belleville wasn't receiving its money's worth.

Nutley Mayor Harry W. Chenoweth, who presided at Wednesday's session, was in office back in 1958 when the three communities organized what then was to be called the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic, and which has since slowly evolved into a Mental Health Center.

Thus it was Chenoweth who reacted quickly to the Belleville's threat to withdraw its financial participation.

At last Wednesday's session here, however, most of the criticism came from Bloomfield. Mayor John Kinder who stated flatly he was "shocked" to learn of the plans to further expand the clinic's services called for a return to the clinic's original intent of providing a superior child guidance service.

"We have to set priorities and I feel the obligation should be to help the students and the young adults. We cannot be all things to all people all the time," Mayor Kinder said.

Weill said the brick cleaners, "Klondikers," were not employees of his firm, but were hired by the company which purchased the brick. For that reason, he said, there was no delay in demolition as a result of salvage. It was also pointed out the purchasing firms also carted away the bricks.

The Board president argued for a price reduction, saying, "You created problems we did not need and the three days the school was shut down cost us a lot of money."

Weill responded to Pica's comments, saying, "You are always going to get complaints. We don't put our name on anything because we would get complaints, and we get fewer lawsuits that way too."

The Board adjourned briefly to discuss the matter in private, and another meeting between Pomaco and Weill and Barry Ross, another member of the wrecking company followed. The three men emerged a short time later to announce the agreement, reducing the bill by $1,650.

Earlier, Weill had claimed the company had incurred a loss of $2,000 on the job.

Commissioner shot — Commissioner Vincent Strumolo took the first swine flu shot in Belleville recently and showed no after effects. Administering the injection is Marie Sorrentino, a nurse with the Belleville Health Department. Looking on are nurses Margaret Lally and Susan Beck. Belleville Sanitary Inspector Joseph Marino, who is in charge of the program, oversees the operation.

Mayors will meet again on Saturday

Of the three towns, Nutley so far is carrying the battle to have the Mental Health Clinic continued, even though this community utilizes its services considerably less than either Belleville or Nutley. The importance now is Nutley officials appear more knowledgeable of the clinic's background, its budgeting procedures, its utilization of state and federal funds, and the complexities of an upcoming state-mandated program which will force small towns to provide care for those who in the past would have been institutionalized.

protein should not receive the shot. The serum is incubated in eggs, and inoculation could result in an allergic reaction. Pregnant women are also advised to consult their physicians before being immunized.

Two types of vaccine will be given under the program. Persons 18 to 59 years old will receive a monovalent vaccine designed to prevent the "A-New Jersey" or swine flu. People aged 60 and over will be inoculated with the bivalent strain of the vaccine to combat both the swine flu and the "A-Victoria '75," which was prevalent last year.

The shots will be given from a hypo-jet gun, which injects the serum without the use of a needle. According to officials, the procedure is painless, and the device is capable of administering 1,000 inoculations per hour.

The Belleville clinic will be staffed by local volunteers and officials from local and state health agencies. About 40 people have already volunteered to assist in the project, officials said.

The nationwide immunization program is sponsored by the federal government, local officials said, and there has been no cost to Belleville.

The swine flu originated last February at Fort Dix when hundreds of soldiers were stricken and one fatality was reported. Many doctors believe an outbreak this winter could prove as disastrous as the 1918-19 worldwide epidemic, which killed 20 million, including 548,000 American.

Recently, turnout for the inoculations has been lower than anticipated by officials, despite the fact the inoculations are free.

Senior notes

By GEORGE CHENOWETH

A group of seniors were invited last Wednesday evening to a party at the local Moose Hall and to say that they really enjoyed themselves would be putting it mildly. The people of Moose Lodge 237 and their auxiliary really went all out with refreshments, contests and a 13-piece band.

A hearty thanks from all the seniors who attended to a wonderful bunch of people.

The latest news from the Belleville Retired Men's Club reveals the following: president Thor Dahl is doing very well at Theresa Grötta Center; Anthony Giampietro is in Houston, Texas, for a by-pass heart operation, Charles Picone and Edwin Lutz are recuperating. We wish them all the best. The members of this club are saddened by the passing of their good friend and fellow member Norbert Bertl. The Christmas party will be on December 8.

The Belleville Senior Citizens Club members returned from the Lake Wallenpaupack trip on Sunday evening. This trip, which was the second for the group, was successful in every way.

The club will have a trip to Radio City with a dinner following at Beppy's Restaurant on November 17. The annual Christmas party will take place on December 9 from noon to 5 p.m. at the Branch Brook Manor.

Members are asked to bring canned goods and other non-perishable foods to the club for our "Christmas Collection for the Needy." We work hand-in-hand with the local Welfare Department in this matter, and many families in town have a nicer Christmas because of the generosity of members of this and other organizations. We have a merrier Christmas, too. Knowing that someone has been made happier cast a pleasant reflection on ourselves.

Don't forget, flu shots today, tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday at Belleville High School.

Park receives grant

Bernard A. Kuttner, president of the Essex County Park Commission, announced recently that the Commission has filed an application for a federal grant in the amount of $18,100 for continuation of Senior Citizens' "Aerobic Program."

The grant would be for the Park Commission's 1977-78 fiscal year, and would be utilized for the extension of aerobic exercise by Essex County as well as at housing projects throughout the county.

The grant, if approved, will permit the extension of an ongoing aerobic program, funded during fiscal 1976-77 with a $6,000 grant from the Essex County Office on Aging through the New Jersey State Department of Community Affairs.

Give revenge no future in your mind and it will have none in your conscience.

THE STATE WE'RE IN

N.J. needs these two bills

By DAVID F. MOORE

Two pieces of enabling legislation which could lead to pioneering and dramatic local government actions on behalf of preserving open space in New Jersey are getting nowhere.

Both bills would enable local governments to appoint commissions to investigate feasibility of adopting transfer of development rights (or TDR for short) ordinances.

One of them, S-1252, was introduced by Senator Joseph A. Maressa and was referred to the Senate Committee on Energy and Environment, chaired by Senator John F. Russo.

The other, A-1118, was introduced again this year by former Assemblyman S. Howard Woodson. He had also sponsored it in the 1974-75 legislative session. Since Woodson has gone on to become state Civil Service commissioner, his bill is now sponsored by Assemblyman Carl A. Orechio. It's been referred to the Assembly Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, of which Assemblyman John H. Froude is chairman.

Planners and environmentalists are attempting to convince those two committee chairmen to release the two bills (which are identical) for floor action, on the premise that New Jersey needs such action before its farmland and other open space degenerates.

You may have heard of the TDR concept, in which a town can decide which of its parts should be densely developed, and which kept open. A developer who wants to build in excess of zoned density in the development zone would have to buy the necessary development rights from owners of land in the preservation section.

That means that the land in the latter section would remain in open space, but the owner would still have something to sell — the development rights. Wheeling and dealing could continue as usual, but land would survive as open space. Any such action would, of course, have to be based on a coherent assessment or environmental inventory of a town's areas which actually are suitable for heavy development.

Nothing stops a municipality from launching the TDR concept right now, and several have moved in that direction. But if chaos is to be averted, some statewide uniformity has to be established through legislation.

The state has moved part way into the development rights picture with a law permitting it to spend up to $5 million in Green Acres money to purchase development rights from owners of up to 10,000 acres of good farmland in Burlington County.

In this case, public money is being spent to purchase development rights. Under the concept we are talking about here, no public money would be involved. The developer would have to pay for the development rights.

Environmentalists favor the TDR concept because it can strengthen the planning process and, above all, save open space at no taxpayer cost — but without making it impossible for the owner of the open space to continue to farm if he chooses.

Some optimistic comments

To the Editor:

The Optimist Club of Belleville takes extreme pride in the multitude of services it renders to the youth of this great town.

We, the Board of Directors, feel obligated to all of our brother members in the submission of a commentary addendum to the October 28 column, "Golden Comments," specifically the fourth paragraph dealing with "dirty tricks" and politics.

In retrospect, the Optimist Club recently had its annual dinner-dance, bestowing praise and honor upon our past president, Thomas Spillane, and our new incoming president, Joseph Raimo. At this gala affair, the column went on to state, "some wag, seizing on the opportunity, got to the affair early and conspicuously placed on many tables, before the guests arrived, placards containing remarks disparaging to Saletta's political situation."

The Board of Directors would like to make perfectly clear to the person who attempted to disgrace the reputability of the Optimist Club, all of its brother members, particularly Mr. Saletta, Mr. Spillane and Mr. Raimo, that he was not successful. Most of the placards containing the vituperative remarks about brother member Saletta were immediately confiscated and deposited in the garbage, where such scurrilous literature best flourishes.

Yes, the Board of Directors wholeheartedly concurs with Mr. Golden in that we do not "look favorably upon such dirty tricks." The audacious person who sneakily attempted to disrupt a dignified affair by such inordinate political tactics was most certainly out of line. However, in keeping with our philosophy of optimism and the purposes of the Optimist Club of Belleville, the club intends to continue to unrelentingly press onward to:

"Develop optimism as a philosophy of life; to promote an active interest in good government and civic affairs; to inspire respect for law; to promote patriotism; to work for international accord and friendship among all people; to aid and encourage the development of youth in the belief that the giving of one's self in service to others will advance the well-being of man, his community and world."

PLAY REVIEW

'Fiddler' scores hit at local theater

By MIKE COREY

You don't have to be Jewish to like "Fiddler On The Roof," now being presented by the Nutley Family Playhouse, 28 Brookline Avenue, November 12 through the 21, Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 3 p.m.

"Fiddler," the longest running show ever presented on Broadway is concerned with traditions which have endured unquestioned for thousands of years but which are suddenly scoffed at and finally rejected by a new generation during the optimistic period of the Russian revolution. Tevye, played by Don Attansio, the father of five daughters living in a remote Jewish community in Russia, explains in song that life without tradition, without something to believe in and trust, would be as uncertain and insecure as a fiddler on a roof.

Don Attansio is hardly off the stage for the entire two and a half hour production. The poor Russian-Jewish peasant dairyman is confronted with the radical ideas of the 20th century through the loves of his three oldest daughters played by Helen Steblecki (Tzeitel), Mary Reynolds (Hodel) and Lisa DiGiovanni (Chava) who one by one reject the old values of their father.

The vocal range of Attansio is demonstrated to the delight of the audience during the many humorous yet sentimental one-way conversations with God as he asks if it would be such a crime to be a rich man or when he seeks to find a just answer to a difficult problem by weighing both sides of an issue.

Jo Ann Russoniello is painfully real in the role of Golde, Tevye's wife, as she nags her husband and children in the Hollywood stereotype wifely manner, concealing the love she feels for her family.

One scene which particularly captured the attention of the audience was a dream sequence in which Tevye describes a nightmare he pretends he had in order to persuade his wife his oldest daughter wishes to wed the poor village tailor for such a radical reason as love. The blend of voices, lighting, costumes and choreography prove to be the highlight of the evening.

Carol Gahart, piano; Barbaro Boscaino, violin; Peter Zimmermann, flute and clarinet; John Zimmermann, bass and Gene Parciasepe, percussion gave foundation and enjoyable accompaniment to the numerous songs during the night's entertainment.

Ray Napolitano, director of such past Playhouse productions as "Godspell" and "Scapino" has molded a play which although set in the early part of this century conveys the music of Jerry Bock and the works of Sheldon Harnick into a fresh and meaningful story striking a responsive chord in the memories of all who recall the turbulent times of the late 1960's and early 70's when the values of a world were questioned, doubted and rejected by some and the ideals and dreams of a new generation spread the hope of a new day which soured with the passing years.

Reservations for the remaining performances of "Fiddler On The Roof" may be made by calling 997-5626.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Were the people of New Jersey hornswooled and "Byrned" again without knowing it by cunning, deceitful trickery when they voted "yes" for Public Question six on election day?

The adoption of this referendum proposal, titled "Dedication of Personal Income Tax Net Receipts to be Used Exclusively to Offset or Reduce Property Taxes," posed the question, "Shall the amendment agreed to by the Legislature, to amend Article VIII, Section 1 of the Constitution of the State of New Jersey by adding a new paragraph to provide that the entire net receipts of any State tax levied on personal incomes of individuals, estates and trusts of this State shall be annually appropriated to the several counties, municipalities and school districts of this State exclusively for the purpose of reducing or offsetting property taxes be adopted?"

Below appeared an explanatory statement: "Adoption of this amendment of the State Constitution would require net receipts from any State tax on personal incomes, estates and trusts of this State to be received in the State Treasury and placed in a perpetual fund to be annually appropriated by law to the several counties, municipalities and school districts exclusively for the purpose of reducing or offsetting property taxes."

On casual reading, the proposal loomed attractive and the majority of our state's voters who cast a "yes" vote for the amendment now look for property tax relief which is, indeed, sorely needed. But by the same token, it is more than doubtful that many of them wanted or cared to vote authorization and approval of the obnoxious, unwanted State Income Tax on a permanent annual basis, which they may very well have unwittingly done. That would be a calamity superinduced by devious, deceitful politicians and their clever advisors intent upon "shafting" the people.

Let us review the matter more carefully. Almost every student has learned that the Constitution, whether state or federal, constitutes the basic law pertaining to government. Laws may be made by legislatures or Congress, but they must conform to the basic law. The constitution supercedes all other legislative law and may only be altered by amendment, authorized by the people. This is just what was done when the electorate voted to adopt the provisions of Public Question six on November 2.

Under the New Jersey Income Tax, passed by the legislature and signed by Governor Byrne, the bill provided for its "self-destruction" expiration on June 30, 1978. Almost everyone hoped it would, but what happens now?

I, frankly, don't know. However, I'm curiously suspicious of the Governor's "brain trust." They may have slipped in a "sleeper play" that took the voters off guard and sucked in the unwary people. The public, which hates and despises the State Income Tax, may have signed its own death warrant as far as its opposition to the State Income Tax is concerned.

Voter approval of the amendment to Article VIII, Section 1 of the State Constitution, which pertains to taxation and finance regarding property assessment, may have added a new provision providing that the entire net receipts of any state tax levied on personal incomes of individuals be annually appropriated to be received in the State Treasury and placed in a perpetual fund to be annually appropriated by law to the counties, municipalities and school districts to reduce or offset property taxes.

In view of the fact the voters approved adoption of this State Constitution amendment, I am fearful the "Byrne bunch" may seize upon this opportunity to legally rule that the income tax bill's "self-destruct" date is superceded by the recent constitutional amendment. This would make the state income tax an annual and perpetual impost and tax levy. All of which would leave our back-broken taxpayers over a barrel, while the perfidious politicians snicker for having put one over on the people.

Dance winners — It wasn't the Twist or the Bristol Stomp, but the rock'n'roll jitterbug the couple above performed won them the Fifties dance contest. Rosemary Ciccone, president of the Belleville Young Democrats, presided at the oldies festivities.

Class Couple — Former Young Dem president Joe Zarra and former Belleville cheerleader Donna Cervasio danced to the oldies at the party after being named "class couple" for the night.

Hot dogs — Jim Cordi doubled for the night as a hot dog vendor and Fonzi at the recent Fifties night sponsored by the Young Dems of Belleville. More than 100 nostalgic Democrats attended the party on the eve of the election.

Streetcorner Symphony — The sounds of the Fifties were brought back to life for the Young Dems by the Streetcorner Symphony, who recalled the slick vocal harmonies of the days when most of the Young Dems were in grade school.

I'm not too happy this week

Helen's thing

by Helen Maguire

THE PAST TWO The past two weeks have been horrendous around here. Children sick (in turn), a million things extra to do, a living room in the midst of being redecorated, ten thousand leaves to rake (if they ever give a prize for most leaves on one piece of property, we're going to win, hands down,) and a few other assorted goodies.

I quote herewith, some poems from my all time favorite lyricist, Ogden Nash because they express my feelings exactly. The first is 'Prayer at the End of a Rope'.

DEAR LORD, observe this bended knee/ This visage meek and humble,/ And heed this confidential plea/ Voiced in a reverent mumble. I ask no miracles nor stunts,/ No heavenly radiogram./ I only beg for once, just once/ To not be in a jam.

One little moment, thy servant craves/ Of being his own master./ One placid vale between the waves/ Of duty and disaster.

OH, WHEN THE postman's whistle shrills./ Just once, Lord, let me grin/ Let me have settled last month's bills/ Before this month's come in.

Let me not bite more off the cob/ Than I have teeth to chew./ Please let me finish just one job/ Before the next is due.....

One little lull, Lord, that's my plea, Then loose the storm again./ Just once, this once, I beg to be/ Not in a jam. Amen.

THE SECOND is called 'There's Nothing Like Instinct. Fortunately'.

I suppose that plumbers' children know more about plumbing than plumbers do/ and welders' children more about welding than welders./ Because the only fact in an implausible world is that all young know better than their elders./ A young person is a person with nothing to learn./ One who already knows that ice does not chill and fire does not burn./ It knows that it can read indefinitely in the dark and do its eyes no harm./ It knows it can climb on the back of a thin chair to look for a sweater it left on a bus without falling and breaking an arm./...

It knows it doesn't need a raincoat if its raining or galoshes if its snowing./ And knows how to manage a boat without ever having done any sailing or rowing./ It knows that it is an expert, not a beginner./ And that its appetite is not affected by eating three chocolate bars covered with peanut butter and guava jelly fifteen minutes before dinner./ Most of all it knows/ That only other people catch colds through sitting around in drafts in wet clothes./ Meanwhile psychologists grow rich/ Writing that the young ones parents should not undermine the self-confidence of which.

AND FINALLY, one verse from 'It's Never Fair Weather'.

I do not like the foggy fall/ That strips the maples bare/ The radiators mating call/ The dank, rheumatic air./ I fear that taken all in all, I do not like the foggy fall.

Bizarre beings seen

By JOANNE SANTIGLIA

Everyone knows that strange things happen on Halloween night, but even stranger things happened when the members of the Key Club and the Keywanette Club of Belleville High School joined forces for a Halloween Party on October 29 in the school cafeteria.

Peter Liloia started the evening off with a "bang" by performing his striptease act, stripping from his blue jeans into his costume of a girl's gym suit.

Ever consider a career in burlesque, Peter?

Matching his performance was Daniel Pacicco who, dressed as a scarecrow, entertained (scared?) club members by flying into a grande jete across the dance floor.

Where did you learn that, Danny?

What Halloween party would be complete without a costume contest? Kiwanis members and their wives served as the board of judges who awarded decorated pumpkins and ribbons to the winners.

Lisa Hart, dressed as a witch, walked away with the prize for the "scariest costume," which, perhaps, explains why her dancing was at a minimum.

Another would-be horror was Deborah Scheder, who came dressed as a devil and left frustrated when all her efforts to frighten her classmates failed. Well, better luck next year, Deb. In the mean time, maybe some lessons from Lisa might help.

The party was not only restricted to humans. John Cozzarelli, dressed as a Martian with nine-inch platform shoes, was awarded the prize for the most original costume by the judges who thought it best to maintain good relations with Mars.

Other winners were Kevin Waters (funniest costume) dressed in long johns and a Mexican sombrero and Joanne Santiglia, who, dressed as a colonial gentleman, won for best costume.

Among the "belles of the ball" was Carol Vecchione who arrived with all the elegance of any Southern lady. Giving her competition was Ronnie Krych who dressed as a lady in pink.

Seniors host breakfast

By JUNE PISAURO

"The senior class Halloween breakfast held on October 29 in the BHS cafeteria was a great success," exclaimed senior class president John Burlazzi. "This was the first senior class social function of the year and a big turnout at that."

To keep with the spirit of Halloween, many students dressed in costumes. One group was the Three Musketeers, played by Patti Reipe, Donna Marchese and Lu Ann Cordi. Other costumed students were Charlie Kramer and Patti Meyer, Tarzan and Jane; John Cozzarelli and John Frade, spacemen; Debbie DeNoia, Twinkie the Kid; Eddie Rodriguez and Phil Linfante, Nuns; Barbara Ann DelRusso, carrot; Sue Sorrentino, lion; Barbara Sougelas, lion trainer, Cheryl Rose and Patti Klinger, hobos, Sue Mocarski,

OPINION

Are night games good?

By MICHAEL DEFOE

For the first time in years, some Belleville High School games are being held in the evening instead of the usual Saturday afternoon. The following are opinions of some students who were asked which they preferred, a night or a day game:

Mark Savastano — senior:
"I prefer night games. It makes it more exciting and colorful; the lights make everything show up more."

Paul Denning — senior:
"I prefer a day game because it is warmer in the daytime and I'm usually bored during the day."

Julie Sista — senior:
"I prefer a night football game, because everyone is more 'psyched.' It's more thrilling, and halftime is more enjoyable."

Maria Zoina — junior:
"I prefer day games, because there have always been games played on Saturdays. It seemed to become a tradition. Without games on Saturday, it seems like something is missing the entire day."

Anthony Satriano — junior:
"I prefer a night football game, because it adds pandamonium and charisma to the sport. I feel a night game encourages the players as well as the fans."

Open house held

By DEBBIE SCHÉDER

On Wednesday, October 20, an open house was held for parents at Belleville High School.

The program began at 6:45 p.m. in the auditorium with an address by Dr. John Greed Superintendent of Schools.

At 7 p.m., the parents began following the schedules of their children, starting with first period and ending with 11th period. In each classroom, teachers explained procedures and plans for the school year.

Throughout the evening, members of the Keywanettes and Key Club were seen in the halls, acting guides and offering assistance to parents. Also, members of the Home and School Association, under the direction of president Mrs. Jelsia Cortese, enrolled new members into the organization.

When asked their views concerning the relevancy of an open house program, some parents gave positive responses.

Mrs. Jean Barbone said, "I feel open house is necessary. I like the program and feel it will help relations in the school."

Play rehearsals now underway

By STEVEN MISSAGIA

Rehearsals are now in progress for the Belleville High School Drama Club's production of the Neil Simon play, "The Good Doctor." Scheduled performances are November 18, 19 and 20.

Ms. Joan Dellano, assistant director, working with Robert Leffebine, director, has called special rehearsals for all the members of the cast. At these rehearsals, body exercises are performed. The students must respond spontaneously to the verbal commands of Ms. Dellano, commands such as sit down, stand up, jump and "scream."

Ms. Dellano says, "It is necessary for an actor to be able to react quickly to all situations. For example, if an actor forgets his cue to enter on stage because he is nervous, the actors already on stage must not freeze and tighten up. They must keep moving so that the interest of the audience is kept."

Mrs. Mary Ruth Mikens commented, "I think open house is necessary because I have a chance to meet the teachers in a more personal manner."

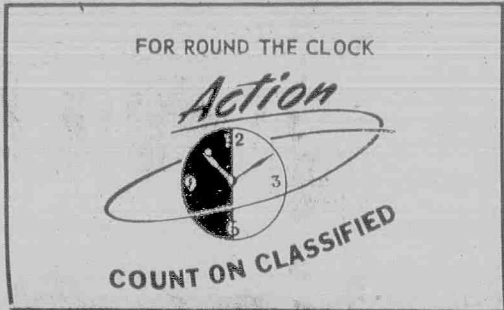

Junior high news briefs

George Turturiello, better known to students as Mr. T., has joined the junior high school's math department. A graduate of Jersey City State College, Mr. Turturiello has previously taught at West Kinney High School in Newark, where he was also a coach.

Mr. Turturiello is married and is continuing his education at Jersey City State.

He likes to travel and has visited Las Vegas and Florida's "Walt Disney World."

Mr. T. said, "I like it here. The kids are pretty good, and they want to gain an education, which is important in today's society."

Bellevilleite's book will be exhibited

An exhibit of original children's books, including one by Bellevilleite Elaine Zippo, which were written and published by William Paterson College students in an exhibit at the Belleville Public Library through November 14.

One dozen books were selected for the display from those produced by students in Dr. Marion Turkish's Children's Literature class last year. The exhibit has been running in conjunction with Children's Book Week, which began November 8.

"I believe the experience of writing a children's book helps prospective teachers develop an awareness of the existing children's book market," said Dr. Turkish, a member of the reading and language arts faculty at WPC.

"After seeing what has already been published, the prospective teacher can focus on a particular area of interest and use his artistic ability to create something unique as a tool to motivate his students to read," she added.

In addition to Miss Zippo's work books on display will include

Ms. Jackie Schein doing alumni work

Jackie Schein of Belleville is among committee members planning the gala cocktail party for the Rutherford Campus Alumni Chapter of Fairleigh Dickinson University.

The event is scheduled to be held December 11 at 9 p.m. in the gymnasium of the Rutherford campus, and is free to all alumni. Invitations are being sent out.

Being heralded by members as "free again," the Rutherford Campus Alumni Chapter hopes to prove that its function is founded on a spirit of giving and sharing. Alumni are also attempting to prove that university ties are a value that can be rekindled and reinforced to the enjoyment of all who become involved in its activities.

Last year's fête was the first major event of the newly organized alumni chapter and played an important role as a catalyst in locating many members who had become "lost" in the reorganization of the chapter. The turnout broke a record, with nearly 1,000 alumni returning to celebrate with one another.

This year's festivities will feature live music, a festal board of cheeses and alcoholic spirits without limit, according to Annette Mari, first vice president of the alumni chapter and chairperson of the chapter's social committee, together with Roger Szanto.

BHS report cards come November 19

All Belleville High School students will receive their first report cards of the year on Friday, November 19. Parents should be aware of this date, officials said, so they can check the progress of their child.

The report cards will indicate the amount of credits, subject grades, attendance and punctuality of the individual student.

Parents of seniors are also reminded by BHS administrators that the New Jersey State Scholarship applications are available for students, and completed applications must be sent to the State Scholarship Commission in Trenton by December 1.

One part of the application must be given to the Belleville High School guidance office as soon as possible.

Parents are also reminded that Parent Teacher Conferences will be held Wednesday, December 8 from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Advance reservations must be made for these 15-minute conferences.

Woman convicted of obstruction

A 19-year old Belleville woman, charged with obstructing an arrest, received a 20 day suspended sentence and one year probation during proceedings in Belleville Municipal Court October 21.

Dorothy E. Yano, 102 Dow Street, was arrested September 13 and charged with interfering with the arrest of a wanted person.

Judge Edward Abramson imposed the sentence and probation after the defendant pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Detective sergeant Martin McNich, Belleville Police Department, was the complainant in the case.

Nursing school tests set

The test for students wishing to enter St. Francis School of Nursing, Jersey City, in September, 1977, will be given at Pace University, 41 Park Row, New York. The examination will be given November 20 at 10 a.m. and there is a $10 fee.

Students planning to attend are asked to write for an application to: Director of Admissions, St. Francis School of Nursing, 1 McWilliams Place, Jersey City, New Jersey 07302. Applicants may also call the school at 653-2100 for further information.

Kardinal contest could be close

By JOSEPH RYAN

The Cardinals conquered the Bellboys last year on a Blue-Gold miscue when a snap from center was bobbled. The 7-0 Kearny victory continued a five year domination of the Blue-Gold on the gridiron. Saturday, the rivalry will be renewed, with both squads seeking their second win in eight games.

Both Belleville and Kearny lost large portions of their teams last season to graduation, and both will confront each other with 1-6 records. The Bellboys can take home their second football triumph if the defense can prevent Kardinal quarterback Dan Vucolo from developing a successful passing game.

Kearny coach Ralph Borges called 6-2, 200-pound Vucolo, "an excellent thrower." The problem for the Cardinals has been their senior quarterback has lacked receptions to his passes. "The difficulty is with the receivers," Borges said.

Strong man for the Kearny club on offense and defense is Jack McNish (6-7, 245), the senior Kardinal captain and tackle. A possible match-up between McNish and Ralph Amiano for the Bellboys could produce an interesting battle of the heavyweights at the tackle spot.

Coach Borges said his team has had a problem familiar to the Bellboys. The defense has held off the opposition for most of the game while the offense has failed to generate points. The overtime on the field for the D eventually takes its toll and the Cardinals succumb to their challengers. The winner of Saturday's game could be the team whose defense has the most stamina.

The Kardinal coach scouted Belleville at the Passaic game and said he was impressed with the work of Joe Gelpi on defense. "A Belleville kid is a hard-nosed sort of football player," Borges said. He called the Bellboy-Kardinal contests "always rough games."

There are only about five starting

Pirates punish Bellboys

The Pony Pirates left Belleville Saturday with their top ranking secure after pillaging the Bellboy lines and walling off the offense for a 23-0 victory.

The defeat was the sixth of the season for the Blue-Gold gridders and their third shutout. The Bellboys were unable to mount any offensive game under the Pirate attack. Seton Hall racked up 184 total yards with a steady ground game, while the Bellboy runners were thrown for losses resulting in a net gain of 17 yards.

The BHS defense, for the third week in a row, held off the opposition early, but gradually wore out under the constant battering by the Pirates. The Blue-Gold defenders kept the score down to 8-0 for the first three quarters. Though that margin was enough to give the Pirates the win, the Seton Hall team did not show its reputed ability until the last quarter when the Pony Pirates rallied for 15 more points.

A close call by the refs on a Joe Gelpi run prevented a possible touchdown when the ball was called dead at the line after the Belleville quarterback faked a hand-off. The play might have set up an 8-7 score, but the refs didn't call it the way some Belleville fans saw it.

Good start — Bellboy quarterback Joe Gelpi hands off to Pete Liloia, above, as Rocco Balsamo blocks to clear a path. Unfortunately Seton Hall was able to stop most of Belleville's offensive plays before they were completed, playbook perfect.

First girls' tennis squad closes historic season

The Bellgirls finished their first tennis season last week with a loss to East Orange Catholic, 4-0, in a contest called before the final match due to darkness.

East Orange Catholic was 12-1 on the year, and overpowered the Blue-Gold racket squad to give the Bellgirls a 2-7 record for their first competitive year.

Top Belleville singles player, Toni Sperduto, lost her match to Phyllis Mangina, 2-6, 1-6. Patty Connelly took her first set against Elaine Marron to a tiebreaker but lost, 6-7. The second ranked Bellgirl lost the set 4-6. Net coach Karen Fuccello said Connelly's own mistakes "cost the match unfortunately and not the other kid's domination."

The third singles match pitted Bellgirl LuAnn Graffeo against the Essex County champion for 16 year olds and under, Michele Latorre. Graffeo was defeated, 0-6, 0-6.

First doubles team Tina Ogilvie and Denise Juliano were downed by their East Orange opponents, 1-6, 2-6. The second doubles contest was under way when the meet was stopped because of darkness.

The Bellgirl tennis team made history this year by blazing a trail for the future as the first women's tennis team on the courts in the history of Belleville High School. Coach Fuccello said the team's debut year has resulted in building a good nucleus for the future and she expects next year will see an improvement on the squads 2-7 record.

The competition will be a bit more varied for the net set next season. It will include the Big Ten schedule plus Caldwell, East Orange Catholic and Immaculate Conception.

The sophomores and juniors composing the 1976 team all improved their court games according to Fuccello. The coach also noted the players who worked in bonus games and never saw regular competition also sharpened their skills with the racket.

Throughout the season soph Bellgirl Sperduto was the first ranked player on the team. "As an individual she is a true competitor," Fuccello said. "I'm sure she will only get better."

The coach called second ranked singles player Patty Connelly one of the leaders of this year's racketeers. Fuccello expects Connelly to improve next season after she develops the consistency "that only comes with playing time."

Third singles player Graffeo, a sophomore, needs to develop the self-confidence to go with her natural ability, Fuccello said.

Donna Fantacone was a sophomore court competitor who never played a varsity sport before but showed a lot of poise and "tremendous ability to adjust to any situation," Fuccello said. "She was a true competitor and a fighter on the courts," the coach added.

Fuccello called the pairing of Juliano and Ogilvie for first team doubles "serendipity." The combination should be pulling out the close matches next year that they lost the first season.

Karin Sciacca, a junior, and Wendy Hesford, a sophomore, displayed the best attitudes on the court, Fuccello said. The doubles duo responded well to different situations and playing more competition will improve their team work.

The Bellgirls will be looking for indoor practice during the winter months to improve their skills. The Blue-Gold

Blue-Gold harriers run toward future

The Belleville harriers finished the year with a 2-11 record but long distance coach Rich Ruffalo sees excellent prospects for the future of the young runners.

"It's a young team, that's the best I can say. "Next year we should hold our own," Ruffalo said. "In two years we can have a really good team."

The appraisal for a better future is based partly on the fact Mike Graham, a sophomore, was the high scorer for the Belleville cross country team this year. Ruffalo noted Graham could have had an even better season if he hadn't missed three weeks with a pulled leg muscle.

Senior Bellboy Craig Lordigyan ran for the second best times on the Blue-Gold squad. The harrier's season was marred by illness bwas marred by illness but it was a "pretty good job" for his first and only long distance season.

Tom Graham, a ninth grader and the brother of teammate Mike, turned in the hird best performances for the season and his future is going "to be a good one" according to coach Ruffalo. Young Graham and fellow freshman John Vaccaro are the first two letter winners from

Broncos win takes the title

The undefeated Belleville Broncos won the Essex Junior Football League championship last week, beating Our Lady of Mercy, 14-0 at Roosevelt Stadium, Jersey City.

The Bellevilleites bolted to a 14-0 first half lead and held the margin against an inspired Our Lady of Mercy squad through the second half to take the title and the eighth Bronco victory in a row.

The new champs took charge with a straight ahead running attack, featuring the hard hitting of backs Scheuplein, Centanni and Mendola. The Broncos faced a surprisingly stubborn Mercy team, but still maintained their poise by scoring two touchdowns in the first half.

Recreation leagues crown champions

The Rams and the Chargers have taken the lightweight and heavyweight titles in the 1976 Recreation football season.

The championship Rams came from behind in the last quarter to down the Dolphins, 12-6 to take the lightweight crown. The Chargers triumphed for the heavyweight title by winning 13-6 over the Jets.

The Dolphins scored first on a 40 yard pass from Tony Lombardi to John Lopusnak in the lightweight championship. The score was tied in the final quarter when Ram running back Robert Cancelliere, broke loose on a sixty yard touchdown run. Late in the game it was Cancelliere again going twenty yards with an intercepted pass for the game winning score.

Congratulations go to Lou Montemarano and Joe Falcone who guided the Rams to six straight wins. The lightweight champions of the year include: Robert Cancelliere, Jimmy Castelli, Michael Concato, Peter Haverick, Joseph De Fabb, Jr., David DePiro, Ronnie Rusomanno, David Stefanelli, John Guarino, John McGeown, David Montemarano, Robert Hayes, Carmen Cucuzza, Nick Amato, Glen H. Fisher, Albert Zazzali, and Daniel Nobile.

The Charger victory gave them the title by just one point over the Jets in the heavyweight group. Each team finished the season with four wins but the Chargers also had one tie. The Chargers' points were tallied on short runs by quarterback Joe Lipoma and running back John MacArthur, while the Jets got points on a 40 yard pass from Dennis Galasso to Russel Cirillo.

Charger coaches Al Nufrio and Vinny Lipoma are to be congratulated for a championship season. The victorious duo have retired from Rec League with their triumphant year. The Recreation Department acknowledges coach Nufrio's seven years of hard work and dedication to the program.

The championship Chargers include: Vincent D'Agostino, Herbert P. Feder, III, Nicholas Lembo, Henry Tamfurri, Richard Wilks, Robert Woodcock, Christopher Marinelli, Chris Paoletto, Mike Paoletto, Joseph Lipoma, Michael Della Riva, John Mac Arthur, David Paxton, Billy Ziener, James Kane, Brian Carpenter, Glenn Smolens, Steven Bologna, Chipper Verian, and David Paxton.

coach is also encouraging the Bellgirls to seek out spring and summer tournaments and to attend a tennis camp if possible.

The first girl's tennis coach at BHS said with her experience in other sports she finds tennis "one of the most enjoyable" even though a coach must remain silent during a match.

The Bellgirls made history this year and coach Fucello is looking forward to next season when the entire squad returns. They won't only be older, they'll be better.

ninth grade in the history of BHS sports Ruffalo said. Vaccaro earned his letter with the runners by totaling the fourth highest point score for the Blue-Gold.

Coach Ruffalo is also looking for improvement in the future from Pasquale Mastrolia, a Bellboy sophomore, who ran his first cross country courses this fall and Mike Ciriello, a junior, who did a good job despite being sick part of the season.

Bellboy harrier Vinnie Celfo is a sophomore but this was his second year on the team. He will have to work harder to get his times down according to his coach who added, "I'm pretty confident he will."

The veteran on the team was third year senior, Rich Drake, who Ruffalo characterized as a hard worker. "He hung in there and kept in good shape."

Sue Smith, a junior racer for the Blue-Gold, took the only county wide medal on the squad this year when she finished 17 at the Essex County cross country meet. The Belleville coach called Smith "a hard working, tough kid" who earned herself a varsity letter by placing in the county race.

Ruffalo praised senior harrier Dave White for shaving about nine minutes off his best time in his second long distance year. "Compared to himself a year ago, he improved unbelievably," Ruffalo said.

Dave Fitton and Paul Bowles, a part of the young base the team will be built on in the future. freshman and a sophomore respectively, also contributed to the Blue-Gold competition this year and are Looking fast —and moving fast, Chris Cervasio sur-veys the available terrain as Joe Gelpi moves to block pursuing Pony Pirates. Cervasio was the busiest Bel- lboy runner in the Seton Hall clash, carrying the ball 16 times.

Seton Hall gridders stop Belleville's ground game

Coach Tom Testa said he was quite pleased with the defensive play of the Bellboys. "They cut down on mental mistakes," Testa said. The Belleville leader also expressed admiration for the defensive work of end Scott Ochse and called the Bellboy's game Saturday "outstanding."

Seton Hall won the toss and elected to kick-off and defending with the wind at its back. The Bellboys gained six yards with runs by Joe Salters and Cervasio, but Gelpi was forced to punt and booted the ball 42 yards.

The Belleville defense forced the Pony Pirates to surrender the ball after throwing Seton runners for losses on the second and third downs. The same fate awaited the Bellboys at the hands of the Pirates on the punt exchange. The Blue-Gold was forced back six yards on Cervasio and Gelpi run attempts. Seton Hall mounted its first scoring drive of the day after Gelpi's 34-yard punt.

The first Seton touchdown capped a 12-play drive, which included two first down sprints. The Pirates fielded the ball on their own 49, and Paul Villanova crossed the pigskin into Belleville territory, moving the ball 18 yards on three carries. Carl Adamo moved the ball four more yards, and Villanove traveled another five on two more turns.

Another first down came Seton Hall's way after a Belleville penalty, so the Pirates tried to pass, missing an attempt from quarterback Mike Ragan to Pat Sages. The Bellboy defense came crashing through the line on the next two plays to throw Ragan for an eight yard loss. Seton Hall dropped another five on a delay of game penalty, and facing a fourth and 22 yard situation, things look good for the Bellboys.

The Pirates went for the first, however, and this time Ragan connected with a 27-yard pass to Sages to land the prep squad on the Blue-Gold five yard marker. Seton Hall covered the remaining distance, striking paydirt with two runs by Adamo. The Pirate gridders faked an extra point kick and Ragan scurried for a two point conversion. The Bellboys trailed at the end for the first quarter, 8-0.

Belleville went through the third quarter with more emphasis on the pass attack, but the most emphasis of the period was on possession time by the Pony Pirates. Seton Hall ate up the time and the yardage with an unrelenting ground attack. An 18 play run for the goal line by the prep team extended into the fourth quarter. The Bellboys only had the ball for eight plays in the third period compared to Seton Hall's 23 turns.

The Pirates capped their 60-yard, 18-play drive in the fourth with another TD. The payoff came on a five yard run by Adamo, who compiled 23 yards during the drive.

Seton Hall scored again within 30 seconds when Belleville lost the kick-off and the Pirates took over. Ragan took advantage of the situation to rifle a pass to Sages for another prep squad score.

Behind by 21 points, Gelpi took to the air, but was unable to find any eligible receivers. The Blue-Gold's holes for the Bronco runners. The Bellevilleites capped a 48-yard scoring drive when Paul Scheuplein went over from the nine in the first quarter. The kick attempt for an extra point failed.

Late in the second period, the Broncos mounted another drive starting from their own 25 yard line. Angelo Centanni made an excellent run, taking the ball to midfield. After Ken Constantino connected with Sam DeCapua for a 15-yard pass, Mark Mendola raced 22 yards into the endzone for the second score. Constantino then booted a two point conversion, making the score 14-0.

The fired-up Mercy team moved the ball several times into Bronco territory, but again, the defensive unit of Mark Montemarano, Tim Hoban, Anthony Svehla, Phil Cerza and Bill Walsh stood tall as they stopped any serious scoring threat.

The Broncos now have some extra days to rest before they prepare for their last league encounter. The next game will be Sunday, November 14, against St. Paul's of Jersey City, whom the Bellevilleites defeated 19-13 earlier in the season in a tough battle. Game time is 2 p.m. at Jersey City State College Field on Highway 440, Jersey City.

seniors on the Kearny contingent and the Kardinal coach is looking for his underclassmen to gain the needed experience in this year's competition.

The tentative starters for the cross-river rivals will include Andy Georgeallia (5-6, 155), a senior starting halfback; Vucolo starting at quarterback; John Plaugic (5-11, 185), fullback, one of the team's three starting sophomores; Jeff Smedberg (5-10, 175), junior, offensive back.

Offensive ends for the Cardinals will be junior Paul Kein (5-10, 175) and Grant Brown (5-11, 170). Steve Yanoff (5-10, 170), a junior will play offensive tackle, joined by captain McNish. Starting guards for Kearny are both juniors, Mike Torigolo (5-10, 170) and Pete Young (5-11, 180).

Junior starter Ed Crichly (5-10, 160) is the Kardinal center.

Plaugic will join McNish on both offensive and defensive teams. Other tentative starters for the Kardinal defense include sophomore Dave Novak (5-6, 150), slated for end with Plaugic; senior Rich Wilson (5-10, 180) defensive tackle; center guard, senior Mark Iverson (5-10, 180). Defensive linebackers on the squad are Mike Waller, a 5-6, 170 pound sophomore and senior Kardinal Bill Campbell (5-6, 155). Corner backs include junior Tom Mulligan (5-6, 150) and sophomore Harry Golas, 5-10 and 170 pounds.

Deepbacks for the Cardinals are Rich Goldenbaum (5-7, 160) and Jim Rainey (5-10, 160). The Cardinals will be running out of a wing-T formation, and the pass could be their most effective weapon.

Cousin Brucie...

'Rock, Roll and Remember'

By Bruce Morrow
NBC Personality

Can you imagine opening your front door and greeting Dick Clark?.... The man who has lived in our homes for the past couple of decades. I gotta tell you, he is really a very good looking guy...and much taller than I thought he would be. Dick and I have talked on the phone several times and have appeared on radio and TV (tape). This was our first face to face meeting. Dick visited my home to be filmed for my Newscenter 4 feature. We discussed everything from the old payola scandal to the way our business has changed to what ever became of the original American Bands-stand kids.

Dick is quite outspoken...he answered honestly and seemed to have held nothing back. His new book "Rock, Roll And Remember" was just published. The book contains a very candid and fully illustrated look into Dick Clark's past. Present and Future. The book is well written and will bring back many memories and introduces a few little known facts about "America's Oldest Living Teenager."

Donna Summer breezed through town last week. The priestess of sex rock presented herself to a very packed Roseland. Roseland has recently celebrated its 57th Anniversary. The echoes of those torturous 24 hour long dance marathons (Yaw zah yaw zah, let's hear it for those beautiful kids") still ring through those old walls. The Latin Dance days, and now Rock and Roll days are at Roseland. Donna Summer really surprised me. She did not rely on that very successful "Orgasmic" rock style of hers. The lady can sing. Donna revitalized a bunch of real old songs and made them very enjoyable. Those eyes could melt anything in their way and she moves oh so nice.

Donna has lived in Germany for several years trying to make it. And then it happened...one day in a recording studio that song was born. "Have To Love You Baby". The BBC immediately banned it...several American radio chains refused to allow it on the air... Nothing could stop that record. Donna's disc sold about three million copies and Donna was an overnight success. Her tour will take her all over the United States and Canada.

The Chambers Brothers are ready to once again give the music listening public that something special. I have always found the brothers to be one of the most exciting and musically tight groups in the business. During the Sixties their recording of "Time" flooded the airwaves. Their albums have always been popular...and to see the Chambers Brothers perform is another thing...they are really dynamite. The new album, "The Chambers Brothers...Live In Concert On Mars," is jammed full of spiritual soul...it's R & B disco with class. My Newscenter 4 camera crew filmed a special rehearsal at the Blue Rock Recording Studio in New York City...watch for it on TV.

66/NBC is giving away prizes like wild. Walt "Baby" Love has given away a trip for two to Bermuda and Nassau to a very excited young lady.

VICTORY

OR

HOW EVERYONE

wanted to back

A WINNER.

Nobody figured on America to lead the field. But when we won the Battle of Saratoga, things started to look a lot better. People started taking this bunch of revolutionaries seriously. Badly needed funds came pouring in. And then, with the people's support, America and her army won. Today, America's still a winner. Thanks to millions of Americans who buy U.S. Savings Bonds. Every time you buy Bonds through your Payroll Savings Plan, you're helping your country stay out in front. And you're gaining interest on what it takes for the vacation, education or home improvement you've been planning. So buy U.S. Savings Bonds. It's one sure way to finish in the money.

Now U.S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Lost, stolen or destroyed Bonds can be replaced if records are provided. When needed, Bonds can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Fairleigh alumni planning December cocktail party

The Rutherford Campus Alumni Chapter will sponsor its second annual cocktail party Saturday, December 11, at 9 p.m., in the gymnasium on the Rutherford Campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University. The merry-making reunion is free to all alumni by invitation.

Being heralded as, "It's Free Again," the Rutherford Campus Alumni Chapter hopes to prove its function is founded on a spirit of giving and sharing, and that University ties are a value that can be rekindled and reinforced to the enjoyment of all who become involved in its activities.

Conference of hunger planned for Dec. 3

The New Jersey Collegiate Conference on Hunger will be held at Caldwell College Friday, December 3, beginning at 8:30 a.m. The N.J. Collegiate Conference has been created to provide an ongoing forum within the academic community concerned with the problem of hunger and to coordinate the work for local, national, and world hunger in Essex County. Keynote speaker is Dr. Joseph Collins, co-director of the Institute for Food Policy Development in New York, author of "Diet for a Small Planet," and "Recipes for a Small Planet," and co-author with Frances Moore Lappe of "Food First."

Play will benefit cancer society

Rehearsals are underway for the American Legion's benefit Bicentennial presentation of "By George, That's the Spirit," an original musical production.

The musical review, chaired by Newark Deputy Mayor Carmen Biase, will premier for its one day run Sunday, December 12, at 3 and 8 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium, Montclair State College. Biase said he feels the legion revue is a great way to end the Bicentennial, commenting, "This show is really an upbeat way to celebrate America's great moments. It's going to involve the audience all the way through, particularly during the community sing-along of our great patriotic songs."

Thesians from the American Legion North Ward Memorial Post 488, organizers of the event, will donate all proceeds to the American Cancer Society to fund its local programs in education, patient services and rehabilitation.

Biase explained the play will open with George Washington en route to a 1976 Bicentennial celebration. On his path, he encounters troubled men and women of today who find it difficult to be enthusiastic about our nation's 200th birthday. Washington manages to brighten their outlook by recalling a series of historical events which made our country great.

The musical presentation will celebrate some of the nation's more memorable moments with a number of original members and such standards as "America the Beautiful," "Battle Hymn of The Republic," and "This Could Be the Start of Something Big."

Tickets are $5 and all donations are tax deductible. For further information, call 678-1990.

Park offers two weekend programs

The Essex County Park Commission's Center for Environmental Studies will conduct two free educational programs tomorrow and Saturday.

Tomorrow, at 8 p.m., join stargazers from all over Essex County at the Environmental Center to explore the autumn night sky with your unaided eyes, your binoculars and through a telescope.

The program is entitled "Autumn Sky," and is open to the public free of charge. All you will need is a warm coat and a pair of binoculars. Registration for the event is limited, and advance registrations are required. So, to insure a place for yourself, your family and friends, contact the Environmental Center today.

Saturday at 10 a.m., you can learn how various forms of wildlife prepare for and survive the cold winter months. A center staff naturalist will conduct a free indoor class and outdoor field trip to reveal the suprisingly 'logical' "winter preps" carried out by many plants and animals. Be sure to wear warm clothing so you will be comfortable during the field trip.

For further information, or to register for "Autumn Sky," contact the Center For Environmental Studies at 228-2210.

Advanced as we are in health services, there is still a serious dental problem among the American people. Approximately 60 per cent of all patients twenty to thirty years of age seeking dental care, have one or more missing teeth. Dental decay among school children is very high. That is why today more than ever dental societies are working for better dental health education, and to train children and parents to use better dental hygiene. Dental care should always be preventive, rather than a curative.
