Cable ordinance hits PUC snag

Belleville's access to cable television may be slightly delayed following objections by the Public Utilities Commission.

The Town Commission last week had to scrap an ordinance granting Suburban Cablevision the franchise because of a clause in the measure requiring a "key-lock" for each unit. The PUC, in reviewing the town ordinance, said such a requirement could not be made.

As a result, the Commissioners dropped the ordinance and introduced a new one on first reading, omitting the key-lock requirement.

The Commission had included the request for the device in order to allow parents to lock the access box, thereby preventing children from viewing movies which might only be suited for adults.

Though the clause was dropped from the new ordinance, the key-lock system is still available to local subscribers. It was pointed out, Suburban has such a feature, but normally levies an additional charge for its use. The Belleville ordinance would have had the feature included without charge to all customers.

The primary concern of the Commissioners was apparently that children would be able to watch "R" rated films without parental supervision. Nutley's Town Fathers had earlier voiced a similar concern and attempted to have the key-lock system installed as a requirement in the ordinance there. They also attempted to have all "R" films banned from transmission into Nutley.

As in the case of Belleville, the PUC told Nutley, after reviewing the proposed measure, it would reject it unless those provisions were removed.

In the case of the key-lock, the PUC said the town was concerning itself with a technical matter which was not a matter for its consideration.

School Board seeking varsity football coach

The search has begun for a new head football coach at Belleville High School, following the departure of Tom Testa.

The Board of Education voted 4-1 Monday to post the job opening within the school system, and also to advertise in area papers. Among other things, the Board will ask prospective coaches to submit a definite program for rebuilding Belleville's football program.

This season the Bellboys won just two of the nine games they played.

Testa resigned his position before the opening game of the season, making it effective immediately after the Thanksgiving Day contest. When he announced his resignation, Testa cited "personal and professional reasons" for leaving. He said pressures of his teaching and athletic responsibilities were factors in making his decision, commenting, "I've always said athletics and academics are compatible, but if one has to go, it better not be academics."

Though Testa's resignation came as a surprise, it was well known he did not enjoy the unanimous support of the Trustees. The grid leader was re-appointed to the post last spring on a close 4-3 vote. The year before, rennened coach by an identical margin

While the Board decided to look outside the Belleville school system for a replacement, several members indicated they would prefer to hire a Belleville resident. "Coaches in the past haven't lived in this town," Trustee-Michael Chieffo. "When Dr. Greed was hired as superintendent," he continued, "he moved to Belleville, and I think we should expect anyone we hire as football coach to do the same."

Board member Caesar Romano voted against posting the job, saying he would like to wait until the delegate meeting of the New Jersey School Boards Association. Romano asked for a delay in the vote because the NJSBA would be considering endorsement of a law allowing schools to hire coaches without also appointing teachers.

Please see "Resignation" on page 3.

Valley house gutted

Forty firemen from Belleville and Nutley worked to contain a blaze Friday night that caused extensive damage to a two-family dwelling at 51 Joralemon Street.

The fire routed owner-resident Pasquale Parano, his wife and six children, along with second floor tenant Dorothy Raponkus, with her daughter and son. None of the residents were injured in the blaze but Belleville Fire Chief George Sbarra said three firefighters were treated for cuts and smoke inhalation.

Treated and released from Clara Maass Memorial Hospital were Captain

Leo Killene, for a cut on the right arm; fireman James O'Brien, for a deep cut on the right hand; and auxiliary firefighter Keith Nicolliello, who was overcome by smoke inhalation.

Chief Sbarra said the 40 firemen who fought the conflagration "did a good job" preventing the flames from spreading to adjacent homes.

The Nutley firefighters were called in to provide the manpower needed to contain the blaze, according to Chief Sbarra.

Fire Department officials believe the blaze started in one of the bathrooms on the first or second floor.

Jolly fellow

It was a great day Friday, and this jolly gentleman made it even greater. Santa Claus made his traditional entrance into Belleville, and children lined Washington Avenue to wish the man from the north welcome. The great gift-giver stayed only long enough to briefly address the kids, but he will soon be establishing hours at Bricklin Printing Company, ready to take any reasonable toy orders.

Jollier gent

Haller, a Belleville resident was showered with gifts by the company for being the 100,000th patient to have a XYTRON pacemaker implanted. The desk set features a duplicate of the pacemaker Haller had implanted.

Imperiale faces charge

State Senator Anthony Imperiale will appear in Belleville Municipal Court December 16 to face charges of assaulting and threatening the life of a Newark man.

David Maisto, 18, of 110 Beaumont Place, signed a complaint November 29 charging the Senator with "choking him, hitting him in the face and hitting him in the head with the barrel of a gun."

Imperiale is also accused by Maisto with threatening his life by "stating 'I'm going to blow your brains out,' while holding a loaded gun to his head."

Another Newark man, James Post

Jr., 18, of 318 Montclair Avenue, has also filed a complaint against the Senator. Post alleges Imperiale threatened him, saying, "If you move, I'll put a bullet through you."

The charges stem from a November 27 incident at Global Arms Company, 78 Washington Avenue, a gunshop co-owned by Imperiale.

Belleville Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight said Maisto told officials he and Post entered the store Saturday afternoon seeking a deposit on a weapon Maisto had not yet received.

The Senator, who purchased part ownership in the store last June, told police he told Maisto to see his partner, Fred Calandro, about the matter. An argument ensued, officials said, and Imperiale attempted to eject Maisto from the store. Haight said a scuffle developed between the Senator and the youth, during which Maisto was struck on the head with Imperiale's gun.

The man received eight stitches as a result of the blow, the Deputy Chief reported.

Senator Imperiale claimed, according to police, Maisto pulled the gun from Imperiale's holster, and when he tried to recover the weapon, Maisto was accidentally struck.

Though Imperiale said Monday he would file counter-charges against the Newarker, he had not yet appeared in Belleville Court to sign the complaint when the Times/News went to press early Wednesday.

Imperiale could not be reached for comment.

Inside

Celebration

This may be the holiday season, but recent parties haven't confined themselves to just the big calendar days. Wesley Church recently marked its 185th anniversary and the Women's Club of Belleville partied on its 60th. See the stories on pages 2 and 17.

Party's over

The Belleville varsity football team ended its season Thanksgiving Day, and unfortunately, took it on the chin. See the story on page 13.

Wesley marks 185 years

On Sunday, November 14, the congregation and guests of Wesley United Methodist Church celebrated its 185th anniversary with a full day of music and special events. At the morning service, Rev. Hazel L. Thomas, pastor introduced the newly elected Bishop for the Northern Conference, Bishop C. Dale White, who preached the morning sermon.

The afternoon started with a buffet luncheon and an opportunity to converse with the Bishop.

Following the luncheon, movies were shown by Neil Horn, recalling past events in church's history, after which, everyone returned to the sanctuary and a welcome was extended to all the past-pastors who were able to attend.

The pastors spoke of their experiences while with the church and told what developments had occurred since they last were there. Old friendships were renewed.

Special music was played and congregation; was then introduced to another newly elected personage of the conference, the Reverend John R. Dexheimer, who was selected as District Superintendent last June. He delivered a short sermon and again all present gathered together to talk and reminisce.

History records that John Wesley sent Francis Asbury to America and that in 1771 he began circuit riding and in 1774 he first preached in Belleville. In 1791 Wesley Church was founded by the beginning of a society which met in John Dow's home on Main Street, but in 1802, had grown in membership and plans were made to build a church. One was erected in 1803 on corner of Main Street and Belleville Avenue, eventually this too was not large enough for its membership and a new building was erected, the old one being torn down and the new one erected on the same land in 1846. The town of Belleville's population grew and began to move

Resignation was suprise

There are currently no staff openings in the Belleville system.

Chieffo responded to Romano, saying, "I think this is so important, we could find a teaching position."

Chieffo is Board liaison to the Athletic Advisory Council, which advises the Trustees on such matters as coaching appointments. He was highly critical of past coaches, not mentioning Testa specifically, but saying, "I don't think the kids have been inspired to win. These kids aren't any different from those in surrounding communities, and they have had successful teams. We have been song-and-danced by coaches in the past."

Trustee Romano agreed with Chieffo, saying, "Our guys can always win on the freshman level, and the little league feeder system is good." He expressed concern about hiring a coach from outside the system, however, commenting, "I have reservations about becoming a graveyard for old coaches."

Testa directed the Belleville grid squad for four years, from 1964 to 1966 and left to join the coaching staff at Montclair State. He returned in 1974 to bring Belleville its first winning season in four years.

The coach came under heavy fire after the season, however, when a number of fans, parents and players went to Board seeking his dismissal. He weathered that storm, and another apparent attempt to dump him last spring.

Testa has said he will continue to teach in the high school, adding, "I'm still a teacher in Belleville. I've always enjoyed teaching in Belleville."

As far as the coaching goes, according to Testa, "I'm packing it in. I'm an oldtimer compared to some of the young coaches."

Blood drive on

The annual Holiday Blood Bank sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and St. Peter's Holy Name Society will be held at the K of C Hall Friday, December 10 from 3 to 6:30 p.m.

This year's bank will be in memory of Buddy Savare, who served as co-chairman of the event for many years, according to Eugene Barnett, chairman.

"At present," said Barnett, "we have only 35 credits of blood on account with the North Jersey-Essex County Blood Bank for the need of our members and their families, but this is not enough."

For more information, call Barnett at 759-9100 or Mrs. Sophie Bade at 674-4074.

New hearing slated

Town Attorney John Scott said he was suprised at the PUC rejection and indicated he felt it was within the town's rights to request such a device.

The Commission introduced the new ordinance and passed it on first reading at the Board's November 23 meeting. An entirely new ordinance was required, according to the Town Attorney, because an amendment dropping the key-lock would be "substantive" and citizens might object.

For that reason, the new ordinance was submitted and a public hearing will be held on the matter.

Originally, Suburban estimated service would start possibly as early as next June. The delay in the passage of the ordinance, however, could affect that date.

Cozzarelli group meets

Several future programs discussed at the November 17 meeting of the James Cozzarelli Association.

The possibility of scheduling programs for special citizens to be run every Friday evening in a canteen fashion was introduced. Movies will be shown, along with other planned and supervised activities. The Cozzarelli Association is also hopeful about sponsoring a bowling team for special citizens, tentatively slated for Monday evenings. Volunteers are needed. Please contact Judy Cook or Annette Severini at the Association's office: 759-1114.

Both Emanuel Jordano and Thomas Mullen were elevated to serve on the Board of Directors. Annette Severini was elected vice president of programming, Robert Hosking elected to vice president of public relations and development and Arthur Pellechio, Jr., to vice president of financial affairs.

Sam Christopher was present, representing the Loyal Order of the Moose and spoke on the possibility of developing joint fund raising events and their implementation. He also indicated there would be a close cooperation between the Moose organization and the Cozzarelli Association.

The guest speaker for the evening was past State Senator Gerardo DelTufo, who spoke on current legislation with regard to special education. The Senator stressed the need to recognize the basic rights of special education pupils and the need for employment programs to help a child after his mandatory education is concluded.

The Cozzarelli Association presently has a Legislation Committee, which is actively working toward proposed legislation in the special education field. James Cozzarelli, standard bearer, presented Senator DelTufo with a Certificate of Appreciation on behalf of the Association.

THE STATE WE'RE IN

Highway lobbies are too strong

By DAVID F. MOORE

If you think the recent Teton Dam disaster in Idaho best symbolizes the ruthless tactics of greedy special interests, look closer to home. It wasn't long ago that people were drowned along Route 22 because a routine cloudburst caused unprecedented runoff from the wooded slopes of the Watchung Ridge.

That tragic memory makes me interested in the stance of a group calling itself "Impact 78." It consists of people who protest currently planned completion of Interstate 78 along much of the Watchung Ridge.

They argue that "the gravity of air pollution, noise, water runoff, water pollution and flooding problems has been underestimated and minimized" in the environmental impact statement prepared for the project.

They object also on grounds that the proposed alignment would blast a swath out of the Watchung Reservation, which happens to be a third of the county parkland in densely populated Union County, and is used by 900,000 visitors per year.

I certainly won't argue against adequate passage of today's traffic through northern New Jersey, but I will argue that the powerful highway lobby, consisting of labor, the auto industry, gasoline companies, the cement industry and other interests, has rammed new highway construction down our throats for too long.

This political steamroller usually flattens rational people who question just where the greatest long term public good lies. Those people often come up with irksome alternatives like mass transit.

After all, the Los Angeles area wouldn't now be blessed with so much smog if the tracks of the old Pacific Electric Railroad hadn't been ripped out to provide alignments for those terrific superhighways.

There will be public hearings on the proposed Route 78 alignment at Governor Livingston High School, Berkeley Heights, June 28 through July 1, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and from 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. Anybody can request five minutes in which to enter a statement by writing to the Office of Community Involvement, Department of Transportation, 1035 Parkway Ave., Trenton, N.J. 08625.

WHEN WILL THE SPENDING END?

It took 173 years, until 1962, for federal spending to hit $100 billion a year. But by 1971, only nine years later, government spending had jumped to $200 billion a year.

THEN CONSIDER:

In 1975, only four years later, government spending actually had reached $300 billion a year. And this year, after just two years, spending broke the $400-billion-a-year barrier.

NOW STOP, LOOK AND THINK!

Such huge spending has resulted in a bigger and bigger government debt. The interest alone on the national debt has more than doubled in ten years and is now over $40 billion a year. In fact, the interest burden on the debt constitutes ten percent of the federal budget!

Ask your representatives in Washington whether they have the courage to help stop this deadly trend. If they do not, we'll eventually wake up to find ourselves living in a fool's paradise.

This editorial comment appeared in the October 1976 issue of Reader's Digest.

Washington's retreat — Reverend Fredrick Long, chairman of Belleville's Bicentennial Commission, led a procession along the route Washington's army took through the area in 1776. The Belleville group received flags representing the Colonial Army at the Nutley line and marched them to Newark. Uncle Sam was present when the Belleville marchers reached the end of their trek.

Man urges defiance of county

To the Editor:

It is being predicted by some people that the future of many cities in this nation under the new Carter administration won't be all peaches and cream.

Before the rumor mills begin to roll, which would add fuel to the fire and create more serious problems to all of us, it is my hope that our local administration will use the power given it by the people and put some teeth in their decisions by taking into consideration the problems we face here in Belleville, and hold the line in all departments.

They should now work together in harmony for the good of the town. We must not end up like New York City, which fell apart at the seams with one crisis after another, and is deeply in debt.

No new jobs should be created. All wages for town employees, with few exceptions, should be frozen. Revaluation should be defied, since it's robbery, the same as Governor Byrne's income tax and the state's pension plan.

The County Tax Board is appointed for life. They get the second biggest tax dollar from us, and refuse to trim their budget. What happened in the town of Nutley under their new revaluation program could happen here.

My daughter has a one family house there. Some improvements have been made, but the assessment has been raised from $14,000 to $38,000. A $20,000 one family house owned by a Belleville Policeman has been increased to an assessment of $40,000.

This is also legal robbery, since both of these homes are up in years and should have been depreciated like an automobile the more you fix an auto, the less it's worth by the book.

I would defy the county even if it meant going to jail for what I believe to be a rip-off of the taxpayers.

Albert Guglicelli

Citizens still nice, says local senior

To the Editor:

Recently, I took the senior citizen bus over to the Pathmark in Silver Lake. Not being familiar with the timing, as I waited in line, I saw the bus pull out.

I got upset, knowing I could not get home without a taxi, so I rushed to a phone to call a cab. The bus came around again and I ran out, leaving my wallet by the phone. I realized it as soon as I got on the bus, and asked the driver to wait while I went back into the store.

He was most kind and courteous, even going into the store. In the meantime, some kind person had turned my wallet in at the courtesy counter.

I want to thank both the bus driver and the person who turned in my wallet. They can't imagine how much I appreciate it.

There are still some nice people in town, though sometimes we are discouraged by events that take place.

Thanks to both of these people.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

An interesting note found in "Observations" by Mobile: The State of Maryland turned down a $60,000 grant from the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare for a consumers education program. Reason: About 75 percent of the money would have gone for paperwork required under terms of the grant.

We like syndicated columnist Jack Anderson's suggestions on how to crack down on Congressmen who cheat. He suggested Congress give up the mockery of policing itself by getting rid of the ethics committee. Creating instead a committee beyond control of Congress, in the form of a citizens' committee with power to set new standards, investigate abuses and punish the violators in Congress.

Anderson's suggested committee would be composed of six members — two appointed by the President, two by Congress and two by the Investigative Reporters Association. In the event such a citizens' tribunal were to be created, Anderson suggested, he had enough information in his files to keep it busy.

We enjoyed a very informative and interesting lengthy interview with the new President of the Belleville Tax Union, Angelo Veneziano, whom we observed to be eminently capable, qualified and dedicated. He outlined projected plans for his organization's growth and influence in molding taxpayers' active concern in becoming a "watchdog" organization that will be capable of exerting a restraining influence upon local elected officials who might, otherwise, be inclined to support tax-increasing programs on the assumption that unorganized taxpayers might grumble, but not be able to do anything about it.

With this group, Veneziano assured us, this will not happen. He is a big, imposing, powerful man who is not unfamiliar with labor relations, having been President of the local Postal Workers Union many years until his retirement from the Postal Service. Admitting he has much to learn about town and educational administration, he is anxious to acquaint himself with the intricacies of their workings and solicits the instructional assistance of those among his organization familiar with the activities of those bodies. He expressed appreciation for the help rendered by Sal Calabro and Chris Albanese.

With the School Board and town budgets coming up shortly, it is apparent the Belleville Tax Union will have a strong voice in scanning the preparation of these budgets and will be generous in offering suggestions on how to keep the local tax rate down. This is no easy task in view of recent raises and increased insurance costs and contributions to state pension funds.

Perhaps many missed it, but school trustee Larry S. Schwartz, who is President of the New Jersey School Boards Association, had a very interesting and forcible rejoinder to remarks by Judith Owens, President of the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA) whose remarks were critical of the position taken by the New Jersey School Boards Association on tenure. The remarks of both appeared in the Education Forum of the Sunday Star-Ledger.

It is to be recognized at the outset that Schwartz is an attorney, which can best explain the effective rebuttal he submitted to the contentions of the NJEA President. The essence of Mr. Schwartz's position is that tenure makes incompetent teachers tough and costly to fire. Paraphrasing, he points out widespread collective bargaining through union representation is very new and that school board members are aware of the gains school personnel have made in financial and employment security since passage in 1968 of New Jersey's Public Employment Collective Bargaining Law.

Is further job security a right for any individual? Except under civil service (a concept that has also been questioned in recent years) and the tenure system, no other employees in any other field have a guaranteed right to lifetime employment. Schwartz seems to ask and answer his rhetorical question.

EDITOR'S JOURNAL

Editor gets what's coming to him

By CHUCK JACKSON

At last, I can truthfully say, I am an award winning writer.

I received, from the Belleville High School Band, a "Wingy" naming me, I am sure tongue-in-cheek, "the world's greatest editor." The reason for the bestowal of that title, according to the certificate, was for "Praising the efforts of the Belleville High School band and support of the '1812 Overture.'"

Appropriately enough, I was granted this dubious honor on Thanksgiving Day.

If you haven't been reading this column, a few weeks ago, I had some critical things to say about the music the band was playing, specifically objecting to a song from a McDonald's commercial. What I said was, I didn't like the jingle, or others played by other bands, and suggested, rather offhandedly, that maybe something like the "1812 Overture" would give the musicians a chance to to really show their talent.

Needless to say, I got a reaction to that column. I felt like I had strolled into a powder magazine with a lit match.

If nothing else, the award I received from the band proves they, or at least some of them, have a sense of humor about the whole thing. I say some of them, because I have gotten one or two unpleasant comments, though, I am sorry to say, not directly to my face.

Saturday, I went to take pictures of the arrival of Santa Claus. Things went badly from the start, when I was threatened by a mother. This woman, I don't know who she was, insisted that I take a picture of her baby daughter. I didn't mind, so I did, but then, she shook her fist at me, saying, "If my daughter's picture isn't in the paper, you're going to get it."

What really got me about the whole scene was that she was wearing a pacifier on her middle finger, and she shook her fist not once, but repeatedly. It was very strange.

Well, after the parade was over, I started on my way. I got about half a block when I heard what sounded like pounding hoofs. I looked up to see about 10 members of the band running to catch up.

I continued to walk, and suddenly, I was being serenaded. They were singing my song — the "1812 Overture." I thought it was very funny.

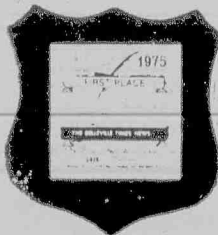

I stopped a short time later and talked with the band members. It was a little awkward, but I wasn't too uncomfortable. We were all, for the most part, civilized.

Actually, I enjoyed the opportunity to speak with some of the kids face to face. Apparently, however, there were a couple of things, childish things, one or two of them had to say to me once I walked away.

So that, hopefully, is the end of the saga of the editor and the band. I would like, though, to thank the band for the award, and all those who made it possible, especially the McDonald corporation. And now, I think I'll take a break and listen to the Quaker Puffed Rice jingle.

Oops. I mean the "1812 Overture."

The game, the feast, the game

by Helen Maguire

I AM SURE there are good and valid reasons why Nutley and Kearny will no longer play each other on Thanksgiving Day although they will meet on the field some other time during the next football season. Understanding does not make me like it, however.

For more years than I care to count, the Maguires and the Ryans have eaten turkey together in whichever town the game was played. The dinner has followed the attendance at the game by the men and whichever children had reached the age where they can be expected to sit reasonably still and not beg for everything that comes down the pike. Now, however, we are faced with a dilemma. Which game do they attend? Does Jim Ryans come root for Nutley (which he may find very hard to do) against Montclair or does the Irishman support the Cardinals in their contest with an unknown foe?

ALTHOUGH the problem may be fairly easy to solve for the next couple of years, perhaps with a toss of the coin, what happens when the Ryans offspring and the Maguire offspring reach high school age and are part of the bands, the cheering squads or even the teams? Is either father going to sit many miles away while his own son or daughter labors for the old alma mater? Frankly, I see nothing but grief.

This year, however, was great. Rod and Ryan came home delighted that the Maroon and Gray had overcome the team across the river. The Ryans' clan on the other hand, trudged dejectedly up the stairs muttering imprecations and threats of retribution. 'Tis always thus: one half of the game goes rejoicing and the other half weeping. The only time all smile is when the contest ends in a tie.

THE DINNER is always the same, a large roasted and stuffed bird, mashed potatoes, turnips, green beans, cauliflower with cheese sauce, cranberry sauce, a tray of raw vegetables, hot biscuits and tomato juice for an appetizer. Dessert never varies either: pumpkin and apple pie with whipped cream and two flavors of ice cream to keep all the kids happy.

One never cooks to consumption on Thanksgiving. Half the fun is having plenty of leftovers and those we split, each family ending up with more than enough for another meal. Our share of this year's gobbler made its final appearance Sunday cut in chunks and simmered in a rich brown gravy. Nobody objected.

THE CHILDREN, home for four days straight, rediscovered the delights of Monopoly, that perennial game that put Atlantic City on the board. The twins played a simplified version for the first time, not understanding very much but intrigued by all that money, albeit fake. Nora, faced with purchasing or not purchasing the property she had landed on, wanted to know if the 'faucet' was worth the price. Anything for the water works, my love.

YOU AND YOUR PET

Animal hospitals

There are a number of pet conditions that require hospital care, and the modern animal hospital is well equipped to care for seriously ill or injured pets.

Often a pet will be hospitalized because the full nature of its problem cannot be determined by physical examination alone. In such cases, it will undergo hospital laboratory tests. A white blood cell count may be run in order to determine if an infection is present. Other tests may be required to identify the exact kind of infection. A urinalysis is another important test performed in the hospital laboratory by the veterinarian or his trained assistants.

X-ray testing is also conducted in a modern animal hospital to diagnose a pet illness. The animal may be given a white liquid substance called barium to swallow so that its body organs can be studied on the x-rays.

If surgery becomes necessary, your pet will be cared for in much the same way as a human would be. Gowns, gloves, drapes and sterile equipment are used along with anesthetics and cardiac monitors. This is done to lower any risk to the pet and to assure that infection does not set in.

In the case of orthopedic surgery such as when a bone is fractured or a hip needs replacing, specially designed pins, plates, screws and other artificial replacements are available to make necessary repairs.

With constant progress in techniques and equipment, many veterinarians have become specialists in one kind of surgery. In such cases, a pet with a specific problem will be referred to a specialist in much the same way that a human would be.

Most pets, fortunately, do well in a veterinary hospital. For animals who are highly emotional and need more human attention, most up-to-date animal hospitals have veterinarians who give individual attention and try to substitute the tender loving care pets miss from their owners.

Generally speaking, I do not think it advisable to visit sick animals in the hospital. It gets the animals excited, and they tend to be disappointed when left after the visit. But occasionally, a critically ill pet who seems to have no will to get well will respond when its owner comes to the hospital with a favorite tidbit of food.

Some veterinary hospitals have special rooms where owners can visit critically ill pets, away from the rest of the patients so that the hospital routine is not interrupted.

Even with new drugs, the latest in laboratory equipment and expanding medical knowledge, the value of nursing care cannot be overestimated. A pet can be given every known drug and yet not respond until it receives tender care. With a combination of veterinary supervision, modern equipment and tender loving care, your pet has a better chance than ever to be restored to good health in the modern animal hospital.

Dr. Stear regrets that he is unable to personally answer letters from pet owners. He suggests that readers consult their own veterinarians when their pets have problems.

Relieving symptoms of an allergy is only a stoppage measure, most experts agree. In fact, the continued treatment of an allergy by relieving the symptoms only is not always recommended by a physician. Often, the wisest course is to ask a physician's advice. He may recommend the immunization process. After a time with this process, a tolerance is developed which permits an ordinary exposure without an allergic reaction. Unfortunately, all allergies do not respond to immunization.

If relieving your allergy symptoms includes prescription treatment be sure to bring it to us at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. Medicare and Blue Cross Approved. Sales and rentals of convalescent aids and baby needs handled. Hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

Disco music: it's really big

by STEVEN MISSAGGIA

This is definitely the year of the disco music and dancing the hustle. "Disco" derives from the word "discotheque" which is a place for dancing. Disco also is a way of dancing and a type of music.

To certain people, there is nothing better than hard rock. Others prefer blues, jazz or country and western. When it's time for dancing, there is nothing better than disco. True disco music can be found on such radio stations as WPLS-FM, WNJR-AM, and WWRL-AM. Disco music encompasses great artists such as Donna Summer, Van McCoy, Tavares, Barry White, the Moments, O'Jays, Blue Magic, Vicki Sue Robinson, Tramps, Carol Douglas, Eddie Kendricks and Gloria Gaynor; "The Queen of Discos."

The best example of disco music this year was the "Love Trilogy" album, sung by Donna Summer. She reaches high ranges, and her strong voice carries throughout the entire album. Her sexy voice is responsible for her nickname; "The First Lady of Love." With a steady disco beat and her sexy style, the listener is put into a deep thought of love. Singers such as Roberta Kelly ("Troublemaker") and superstar Diana Ross ("Love Hangover") have imitated Donna's style.

The best popularized examples of disco music are "Turn the Beat Around" sung by Vicki Sue Robinson, "Heaven Must Be Missing an Angel" sung by Tavares, and the unique new style of the Savannah Band with its new hit single "Cherchez LaFemme."

Disco music is solely responsible for the comebacks of artists such as Lesley Gore, Frankie Valli, Dionne Warwick, Al Martino, Maynard Ferguson, Arthur Prysock, the Tymes and Dee Dee Sharp. Disco is also responsible for the remaking of past hits like "Brazil," "Moonlight Serenade," "Night and Day," "Smile," "Volare," "That Old Black Magic," and "I'll be Seeing You."

Orchestras are a big part in the new disco boom. These complete orchestras give a touch of culture to rock music. Examples of these orchestras are MFSB, Soul City Symphony, Love Unlimited, John Davis, Salsoul and Biddle Orchestras.

Dancing is a very active hobby people of all ages are enjoying. The basic hustle has expanded, and there are numerous variations, including the Latin Hustle, San Francisco Hustle, the Rope, the Walk, the Mandingo, the Foxy Trot and the Bus Stop.

Disco is definitely the ultimate in music. Now, television programs, such as sports and news programs are using famous disco songs to open their program and during intermissions. Even the "Mary Hartman" theme was done over in disco and is a big selling single. With this big increase in discos and disco groups, it looks like disco music will be around for many years to come.

By PAULA MINARDI and STEVE MISSAGGIA

Playwright Neil Simon's comedy hit "The Good Doctor" was presented by the BHS Drama Club members November 18, 19 and 20 in the high school auditorium.

Robert W. Leffelbine, English teacher, was the director, and assisting him was Joan Dellano. Sets were made by Mary Jane Izzo, a graduate of BHS, now attending Montclair State College.

"The Good Doctor" was a series of short plays including "The Writer," "The Sneeze," "The Governess," "Surgery," "The Seduction," "The Drowned Man," "The Audition," and "A Defenseless Creature."

"The Writer" portrayed by John Dillon, served as a narrator throughout the play. His acting was outstanding, and his voice was both loud and clear. Excellent performances were given by Kim Venezia, Janice Lynn Nazzola and Pattie Meyer. Also in the cast were Kevin Waters, Gerald Illaria, Bernadette Turano, Debbie Waldhart, Robert McTeigue, Linda Fabian, Nicholas Condito, Jr., Joseph Di Nicola and Eugene Sanders. Printed in the program was a message to the audience from Mr. Leffelbine.

Amiano: not all tough

By JULIE SISTA

When someone looks at Ralph Amiano, he might say, "I'm staying away from him."

Amiano is a big fellow and looks like he should be a body guard. Although he appears to be mean and tough, once someone gets to know him, he finds out Amiano has a really nice and warm personality.

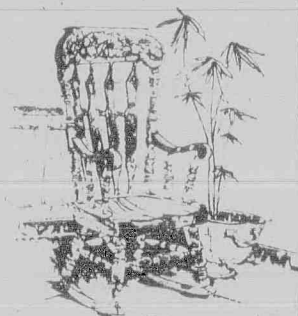

Lisa Record comments, "Amiano is a tough person but a really nice guy. When he's out on the football field, he knows his job; but off the field, he is one of the friendliest people I know."

Janet Spinelli adds, "he is always willing to do someone a favor or help someone out anyway he can."

PBA, a little league baseball team and Jolly Cleaners, a recreational football team. While on PBA, Amiano was also selected for the All-Star team.

Perhaps Ralph LaConte, distributive education coordinator, really presents the clearest picture of Amiano by saying, "It comes as no surprise that Big Ralph's heart is greater than his size."

Phyllis Sabatino and Mike DeFeo agree in saying, "He is very well known throughout the school."

Hoping to receive a football scholarship, Amiano excels as an above average student who plans to attend college to be a certified public accountant (CPA.) While at college, he would like to continue playing football.

Amiano says, "If I'm good enough, I'd like to play pro-football, and I think if I work really hard for something I want in life, my goal can easily be obtained."

Amiano is very sports-minded. He enjoys participating in such sports as baseball, tennis, ice-hockey, volley ball, softball and is currently a defensive tackle for the BHS varsity football team.

Amiano has participated on such championship winning teams as

Senior notes

By GEORGE CHENOWETH

Last week, we called attention to the Senior Tax Convention to be held at Plainfield High School, 950 Park Avenue, Plainfield, on December 4. Charles Dybas of the North Jersey Federation of Senior Citizens, is chairman of the Tax Task Force of that organization. He says he hopes to unite the senior citizens in a common effort to obtain tax relief for older residents of New Jersey.

The important issue is the fact that the present tax laws need to be simplified and restructured so that seniors will get the benefits they deserve.

We do hope, when decisions are made and changes are proposed to our legislators, the renters of the state are not left out in the cold. We are of the opinion tenants, as well as owners, are deserving of a tax break. The tenants have been paying the real estate taxes levied against the landlord for a long, long time by way of rent increases. Therefore, they, the tenants, are entitled to every consideration when the task of tax restructuring occurs.

This will be when the present tax laws "self-destruct" in July of 1978 and the new legislation is needed. The purpose of the Senior Tax Convention will be to draw up guidelines with new tax laws in mind, laws that will be compatible with the needs of seniors.

News of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club, Incorporated, Jean Torromeo, membership chairlady, informs us new membership cards will be ready the first meeting in December. The Christams collection of canned foods for the needy families of Belleville will continue. Vicki Rufolo and Kathy Farrell are co-chairladies of the drive. Drop your gift off at the club, and anyone can contribute.

Bell Tel offers new phone rate

New Jersey Bell Telephone Company is offering a low use measured residence service.

The rate for the new basic service is about 70 percent of the current single party residence rate and includes a 20 message unit allowance. Additional message units cost 10 cents each. A message unit is a local call of five or fewer minutes.

The service would benefit residence customers who make few — and brief — local calls each month.

Comets were hungrier

By JOSEPH RYAN

It was Thanksgiving Day but the Bellboys did not have the appetite for victory, according to Belleville coach Tom Testa. The Hillside Comets streaked to a 14-8 win and handed the Blue-Gold squad its seventh loss of the year. "I thought they were a little hungrier than we were," Testa said.

Belleville's fumble on its own two yard line, two and a half minutes before the end of the half, was the crucial miscue of the day, according to the BHS coach. The 75 yard touchdown run by Harem Smallwood was also costly to the Bellboy chances. "Smallwood ran very well. He didn't go down but we missed three or four tackles. I can't see how he got by the secondary either."

"Of course I was disappointed but it did not alarm me they lost," Testa added. "The way they played reflected some of their practices during the week. They didn't have the pride. After the Kearny game everything seemed to be anti-climactic."

On the plus side for the Turkey Day confrontation, Frank Mozeika gained 55 yards for the Bellboys, to lead the team in yardage.

The Blue-Gold coach noted Mozeika accomplished this "without the best type of blocking," and Chris Cervasio was also able to take 10 to 15 yards of territory when the blockers were with him.

The coach also said the Belleville defensive unit gave up too many yards on the ground, while in the past, the defenders had been the squad's strength. "This team knocked us down," Testa said. "One guy should have been tackled three times."

The Comets' hitting took its toll with an end of season injury to quarterback Joe Gelpi. The senior Bellboy entered Clara Maass Hospital Thursday after the game with a contusion of the kidney and was due to be released yesterday. Testa said the Blue-Gold bruised leader was coming along well and must stay on his back awhile and rest.

Ken Nicosia started the game for Belleville by returning the opening Comet kick-off 10 yards to the Belleville 25. Mozeika picked up four yards and Cervasio gained another but a Bellboy fumble turned the ball over to the Comets on the Blue-gold 44.

The Belleville defense stymied the Hillside aggressors for four downs and Gelpi returned the Comet punt 14 yards to the BHS 24. Cervasio dashed for 16 on the first play from scrimmage and covered four more on second down. When Gelpi put the ball in the air for the second first down play of the series, Cervasio was the receiver in the ten yard gain.

Gelpi gained eight on a broken play and the BHS gridders took a first down on a penalty to the Comets. The Hillside held Belleville at the 30 and then blocked and recovered Gelpi's punt to take possession on their own 40.

Smallwood rushed for eight yards and the Comet quarterback launched a pass to Leon Chadwick on the following down that Chadwick carried to the end zone. Kicker Bob Bell booted an extra point and Hillside celebrated a 7-0 lead with 2:32 remaining in the first quarter.

The Hillside kick-off was returned 22 yards by Nicosia to the Belleville 30 but the Comets pushed the Bellboys back 20 yards on the next three downs. At the end of the first quarter, Gelpi punted from the end zone and the Comets started the second period well into BHS land, on the 36.

The Comets rolled as far as the 14 on two first down runs by Smallwood but were pushed back by the Bellboys and set up a fourth and 14 field goal situation from the 17. Comet quarterback Orlando Romeo was holding the ball on the play Mozeika moves —Quarterback Joe Gelpi hands off to Frank Mozeika, as the Belleville runner gets ready to attack the Hillside defensive lines. Mozeika was the leading ground gainer for the Blue-Gold but the Comets won the contest, 14-8.

Cager squad shaping-up

After one pre-season scrimmage game the basketball Bellboys are "starting to come together, and getting physically in shape," coach Dan Grasso said.

The season opens December 10 against Columbia and the hoopster coach says practice sessions have progressed well and the entire team has been "just about selected."

Among the strong candidates for varsity assignment are Rich Baker, a senior returning from last year's varsity, Grasso calls a "good shooter." Paul Donahue lettered on last year's hoopster squad and is may be scheduled to assume playmaking responsibilities at the guard position.

The tallest Bellboy is Tommy Smith, a 6-1 junior, who will have to collect most of the Belleville rebounds under the boards this season. Ricky Thomas, a Blue-Gold senior, is a "real good, leaper and jumper," according to Grasso. The coach calls Thomas and Smith, "decent ball handlers."

"A strong sixth man candidate is junior guard, Dean Campana, who will probably alternate in the backcourt with Baker. Ronnie Krych, 6-1, could be used as a center post man, since Grasso now says the Bellboys will use an offense featuring three forwards. Krych is noted for his strength inside.

Joe Salters will move from the gridiron to the court for the Bellboys. Salters is also considered a strength inside by Grasso, who praises the junior's jumping ability.

Joe Norton, another member of the Class of '78 might see action as a forward but Grasso hopes Norton can put on a few pounds.

Ted Zangari is another football Bellboy converting to BHS cagers for the winter months. Zangari gained some varsity experience last season and Grasso calls him a "good shooting, good thinking ballplayer."

The hardwood coach expects to run the Bellboys with a basic man-to-man, pressure type defense. Full court and half court presses will be implemented to put some pressure on the Belleville opponents. Grasso expects to play a deliberate style offense. He wants the BHS cagers to learn to wait for the percentage shot. "Execution is the word this year," Grasso said.

The Bellboy hoopsters scrimmaged St. Mary's of Jersey City yesterday, but the results were in too late for this edition of the Times/News. Saturday, the cagers will travel to Hudson Catholic for a scrimmage.

Bellgirls lack height, need aggressiveness

Bellgirl basketball coach Karen Fucello is looking toward the sky these days. "I'm walking around with my head in the air," Fucello said. "I'm looking for somebody over 5-10. I'm looking for my 6-2 transfer."

Five feet, ten inches is as tall as any of the Blue-Gold girl cagers get this year and coach fucello is hoping the Bellgirls can measure up on the court against Big Ten competition in other ways. The coach wants the girls' squad to learn a little more physical aggressiveness and get tougher defensively, to help make the offense click.

The team scrimmaged against Verona Monday night and after the practice Fucello noted the BHS cagers lacked passing ability and needed work on boxing out. "We have to go back to the fundamentals," the coach said.

Practice time is also limited for the women's team, Fucello said. "Sometimes you need more than two hours practice."

The Bellgirls share the gym facilities at BHS with the boys' varsity and the staggered hours also competing with adult school activities, keep the practice sessions short with little time to polish basketball skills.

The Bellgirl basketball season opens December 10 and the team will scrimmage Caldwell tomorrow, and Lyndhurst, home on Monday before leaping into the Big Ten action. Coach Fucello notes all spots on the varsity squad are still open.

Seniors vying for varsity spots will include Kathy Stone and Ellen Schultz competing for forward positions and Lydia Damato going for a guard spot.

Junior Bellgirls working under the hoops for varsity assignments include Michele Giordano, who at 5-10 will be the biggest hope for a starting center. Patty Connelly and Karen Sciacca will both be sharpening their skills as forwards. Carolyn Restivo is expected to see action as a forward and possible a back-up center. Michele Lilio is aiming for a guard spot on the court and Donna Mundy is trying for a forward assignment.

The Class of '79 is represented on the Blue-Gold hoopster contingent by Karen Portuese, who Fucello notes could be used as both guard and forward. Denise Zarra, another soph, will be vying for a backcourt assignment with Toni Speduto.

Although the ninth graders will probably stay with the frosh and jayvee squads, coach Fucello notes it's a possibility Joyce Iacullo and Robin Giordano could see some first team action.

Marotti Bowl —Mayor Michael Marotti presents the trophy from his charity game to the coach of the undefeated Belleville Broncos, Rich Luzzi. The brilliant Broncos shut out the Dumont Huskies, the Bergen County champs to take their third straight bowl triumph.

Cheerleaders chortle—Above, two Bellgirl cheerleaders exchange greetings and symbolic good-byes at halftime of the season's last game on Thanksgiving. The Blue-Gold gridders didn't have a great year but the band and cheerleaders went undefeated.

400 played Rec soccer

Recreation soccer director Sam Mac Arthur reports another successful season for the rec leagues. The second year of the program featured 18 teams in action in the three divisions.

The Lancers took top honors in Division III, for booters eight to nine years old. Coached by Mike Fortino and Gary Serio, the Lancers finished the year with no losses and one tie. Second spot in the third division went to the Toros coached by Nick D'Aloia who suffered only two defeats. Tied for third were the Spurs, guided by Steve Dempsey and John Burlazzi, and the Cosmos, piloted by Doug Shaw and Jeffrey Hageman. These squads had identical records but the Spurs downed the Cosmos, 1-0, in their meeting. Fifth place was held by Ed Stumpe's Aztecs and sixth by Pompeo Pasquale's Comets.

The soccer competition in Division II created a tightly fought race to the wire with the Cosmos winning it in their last game with the Spurs. George Bostory and Jack Baumgartner piloted the champion Cosmos to their 4-0-1 league triumph. Gabe Micchelli and Mike Napolitano were the mentors for the second place Spurs.

The Toros were also in Division II contention but losses to the Spurs and the Cosmos in the last two games relegated them to a second place tie with the Spurs. Mark Ernest and Carmine Mattia coached the Toros.

The Division II Lancers, under the guidance of Bill Intveldt and Domenick Guarnaccia finished in fourth place. Following the Lancers were Joe Longo's Aztecs in fifth and the Comets ended in sixth place piloted by Joe Ritacco, Rudy Fabiano, and Vinnie Turano.

Top place in the Senior Division for 11 to 14 year olds went to the Lancers, who went through the season coached by Tony Cullen and Ramiro Borge unbeaten and untied. Second place was nailed by Joe Di Paolos' Toros, who lost only to the Lancers and the Cosmos in their last two contests. Just a half game out of second place and tied for third were Bob Cassins' Comets and the Cosmos, led by Walt Hywel.

Next in line in the Senior Division standings were the Aztecs led by John Pontrella. The Spurs, although unable to score in the win column, played very tough and had close games with the Cosmos, Aztecs, and Comets. The Division I Spurs were under the guidance of Bob Tomaselli and Fred Chalet.

Optimists pick Bellboy stars

The Belleville Optimist Club will present trophies today to the outstanding players on the Bellboy football squad in the Thanksgiving day game against Hillside.

Frank Mozeika was named outstanding offensive performer by the Optimists and Scott Ochse will be cited for his excellent defensive day against the Comets.

then passed to DeCapus to give Belleville at 14-0 edge.

The Broncos scored again in the final period, covering forty yards in nine maneuvers. Fazzini scrambled to pick up 21 yards and fullback Angelo Centanni followed by blasting up the middle for a touchdown from the three. Quarterback Fazzini converted another extra point when he connected with Bronco end John Cataldo, to cap Belleville scoring with 21 points.

The 21-0 triumph for the Broncos was the finish of a remarkable perfect season. The Bellevilleites were not scored upon in the last 27 quarters of competition. They held Dumont to one first down and a total of 48 yards for the game at the Marotti Bowl.

The Broncos worked hard under the leadership of coaches Rich Luzzi, Len Luongo, Mike Lemongelli, and Dom Cicalese to earn their triumphant season. Belleville can be proud of the gridders who proved to be the best junior league team in the area.

The undefeated Essex County Junior League and Marotti Bowl champions included: Bob Brave, John Bucciarelli, Eugene Cancelliere, Steve Carlucci, John Cataldo, Joe Cecere, Angelo Centanni, Phil

Cerza, Ken Constantino, Jeff Cotugno, Sam DeCapua, Frank Fazzini, Louis Greco, Tim Hoban, Steve Knable, Gerald Knapp, Joe Martinez, Russell Mazza, Mark Mendola, Mark Montemarano, Dan Palumbo, Rich Racioppi, Paul Scheuplein, Bob Scucci, Anthony Svehla, and Bill Walsh.

Ever ready — Chris Cervasio has been the leading ground gainer for the Bellboys this year. The senior was constantly called upon to challenge the opposition with his footwork. Above, Cervasio picks up some of the 300 yards he accumulated this year.

Frustrations fused fights

and changed the kick to a pass attempt that failed.

Belleville began an 80 yard drive from the Comet 17 to their own 2 with a four yard gain by Cervasio and a 40 yard romp by Mozeika. Hillside suffered a 15 yard penalty for a facemask call and Gelpi connected with Greg Grasso for a 13 yard first down pass. The combination worked again for a 22 yard gain when Gelpi found Grasso with another toss to put the Blue-Gold gridders in striking distance.

Coach Testa said he was "very impressed" with Grasso's ability Thursday to grab the passes on crucial plays.

Gelpi gained six yards on the ground and Mozeika carried the ball seven yards to the three for Belleville's first scoring opportunity of the day. The opportunity ended however when the hike was bobbled and the fumble was recovered by Comet Jeff Alaimo.

The BHS defense kept the Hillside inside the eight and the Comets punted from the end zone to their own 37.

A Gelpi pass to John Clarizio went incomplete and following a run by Cervasio, a spontaneous fight erupted on the field.

There was no sign of anything building up prior to the fight, according to officials who talked to the coaching staffs. Testa blamed the rhubarb on frustration.

The Comets recovered sufficiently from the outbreak of unsportsmanlike conduct to intercept the Belleville pass on the first play when things calmed down. The teams trooped off to the locker rooms at half with Hillside ahead, 7-0.

Hillside took the kick in the third quarter and moved 33 yards until Bellboy defenseman Rocco Balsamo intercepted a pass from Romeo to give BHS possession on their own 31.

The Bellboys gained seven yards but were forced to punt. A clipping penalty gave the ball to the Comets on the 13 and Smallwood ran for 10 yards to the 23 on the first, then play Attanasio and Windell piked up a yard each. On third and eight Smallwood bolted on a draw play 75 yards for six points and the second Comet TD. Testa blamed some missed tackles by Bellboys for the play and added, "it doesn't happen to a good team."

The third quarter ended with Hillside in front, 14-0. Belleville's only scoring drive began in the last period when Loius Valenti recovered a Comet fumble on the Hillside 38. Mozeika eluded pursuit for eight yards and Clarizio gained the first. Gelpi tried a couple of air attacks but the passes fell incomplete. Mozeika then dashed 15 yards for a first to put the pigskin on the 12.

After an incomplete throw and a penalty against the Comets, Mozeika moved nine yards in two plays for the Bellboy touchdown. A two-point conversion by Gelpi gave the Bellboys eight points and the game and season ended with the Blue-Gold trailing the Comets, 14-8.

Summer jobs are still open

Mayor Michael V. Marotti has announced interviews for Summer Playground positions will be held starting Monday, December 27 through Thursday, December 30.

Playground Director positions are open to those who will have completed their first year of college by the summer of 1977. Preference is given to those majoring in teaching, physical education, or social science. There will be few positions open, so those hoping for a job are urged to apply promptly.

Applications should be arranged by phoning the Recreation Office, 759-3121, to set up an appointment with Recreation Superintendent Robert E. Cook.

Interviews are conducted during Christmas vacation so those who go away to school will have equal opportunity with those who attend locally.

Games in both leagues will be played on weekends in gymnasiums throughout the county. Leagues will be separated into geographic divisions. Trophies will be awarded to all divisional champions. The overall county champs will receive individual trophies.

Additional information on the basketball loops can be obtained by contacting the Essex County CYO office at 746-6867.

The Question:

How can you get better medical and surgical coverage for your money?

The Answer:

Blue Shield
of New Jersey and its Series
750 Fee Program.

Blue Shield exists for just one purpose: to protect you against medical and surgical bills that could strain your budget. And since Blue Shield returns more of every dollar in claims payments for subscribers than any other medical insurance company, you know you're getting your money's worth. We are pleased that our Series 750 Fee Program is being purchased by so many individual and group subscribers. This fixed-fee program provides higher payments for eligible medical and surgical services — about 45 percent higher than our old fee schedule. In fact, if your family income is less than $12,000 per year, all eligible services by participating physicians and surgeons are covered in full. A list of the 10,000 New Jersey participating physicians, general practitioners and specialists is available in your public library. And if the income is above the limits, or your physician is nonparticipating, a larger portion of the bill is covered, leaving less balance to pay.

In any event, we suggest you discuss charges with your doctor when possible before treatment is rendered.

The Series 750 Fee Program is open to you if you are under 65, whether you are now a Blue Shield subscriber covered by the old Series 500 or you are not now a member. Current direct-payment subscribers' new coverage would become effective on their anniversary date. Group members should contact their employee benefits manager.

If you are interested in learning more about the Series 750 Fee Program, simply complete and mail this coupon. If you are now a direct-payment subscriber, we'll also send you a copy of our new booklet, "Helpful Things To Know About Your Health Plans."

Women's club marks 60 years

By FRANCES ZEISS

The Woman's Club of Belleville was honored by members, guests, state and national officers for its 60 years of service to the community, state and nation on November 17, the celebration of its founding, at the Club House, 51 Rossmore Place. Mrs. W. Douglas Clark is the president of the group.

A challenging message "Rise Up and Be Counted" was given by Mrs. Anthony T. Zanetich, President of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs and a member of the national board. Mrs. Zanetich cited the work of the local club as part of the total service rendered by the Women's Clubs of New Jersey, which last year totaled over one million hours of volunteer service and one million dollars of contributions to communities, institutions and organizations providing for the needs and general welfare of the people.

She spoke of the need of undergirding all endeavors with faith and with pride in our country; to persistently take an active interest in local, state and national government; and to rise up and be counted with "character and courage" for worthwhile goals in every area of living, to encompass the nation and the world.

Mrs. Callaghan Hollowell, Corresponding Secretary and Registrar for the day, presented the roll call of presidents of the Womens Clubs of the 8th District. Anniversary greetings to the club were brought by each president. Past Presidents were recognized by Mrs. W. Douglas Clark. Those present were Mrs. John E. DeNike, Mrs. Harvey B. Thompson, Mrs. Dwight N. Streeter, Mrs. Edward A. Rochau, Mrs. William R. Kropp, Mrs. Richard A. Shafter and Mrs. Gerard J. Ferrara. Mrs. William Chapman, the club historian, was honored by Mrs. Clark for her dedicated work with all the past presidents.

Mrs. Robert W. Matthies, Public Relations Chairman of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs, brought greetings and commended the club for its accomplishments and warm friendliness. Mrs. Joseph Elekes, State Honor Roll Chairman, presented the club with a silver Revere bowl and expressed her affection and admiration of Mrs. Clark and members.

Mrs. William Van Holland, President of the Junior Woman's Club, and Mrs. Walter Wood, Chairman of the Evening Membership Department, surprised and delighted Mrs. Clark with the presentation of a handsome wooden plaque with the names of the past presidents engraved on brass plates and additional places for future presidents.

The program included selections from musical theatre productions sung by Mrs. Richard Drake, Music Chairman of the 8th District and a member of the Club. She was accompanied by her daughter Susan. The Club history was presented in the form of a playlet "Althea's Dream" written by the late president, Mrs. David Parry, and updated and revised by Miss Edith M. Richards, Music Department Chairman. Miss Richards, Mrs. William R. Kropp, Miss H. Linnea Andree and Miss Ruth J. Hogan participated in the playlet which was introduced by Mrs. Richard A. Shafter, 8th district Drama Chairman.

The lovely tea table was accented with a floral centerpiece of yellow roses in keeping with the Club colors of yellow and white. The attractive delicacies were prepared by Mrs. Gerard J. Ferrara and Mrs. M. Chancey Keeney and committee.

The Woman's Club of Belleville is the oldest service organization in Belleville. It was organized in 1916 as the Belleville Improvement Association, with Mrs. Herbert A. Vail as its first president. The expressed purpose was to "render the members helpful to one another and useful to society, and to cooperate for the betterment of social conditions."

Pursuing its purpose, the Association promoted the health, welfare and beauty of Belleville, and worked to improve moral conditions. The Association erected the first Community Christmas Tree and was instrumental in establishing the first Municipal Recreation Center. It was also the originator of the annual Clean-Up Week, and suggested wire basket trash receptacles to stand on every main street corner in Belleville. Members substantially donated to the Silver Lake Welfare Association for the building of the Silver Lake Community House.

Lombardo plays 'Don's'

Guy Lombardo has established himself as the leader of an orchestra that plays "The Sweetest Music This Side of Heaven." He cherishes the honor. His followers do, too.

Lombardo's band is internationally known, and he's visited so many cities with the band during its 50 year existence. Guy could never put a number on the total. To say that Lombardo likes every city and hamlet he plays in is putting it mildly.

But there was time when he wasn't so fond of Newark. It was a long period, too, lasting from 1932 to 1973. He played in the old Krueger Auditorium in 1932 and his band never got paid for that performance. So Lombardo always as smooth as the music his orchestra plays, didn't yell to the tree tops for his money.

"We'll never go there again," he told his men. But that was until Don Francello, owner of Newark's popular Don's 21 on McCarter Highway, decided it was time for Guy to return to Newark.

Francello made a pitch for Lombardo in 1973. After only several weeks of discussions, Francello paid Lombardo in advance and he was booked for a one-nighter at the Robert Treat ballroom, attracting a sellout crowd of 1,100. After that renewal of acquaintance with Newark, Lombardo has returned every year to Don's 21.

He comes back to the eatery famous for its Calabrian cooking tonight. He'll play Don's tomorrow and Saturday night.

"Glad we brought him back to our great city," says Francello, "how he stayed away from here so long is hard to figure. We'll have him here annually. Why not, it seems, people never tire of his music."

Members organized a volunteer Motor Corps which was later taken over by the local Red Cross Chapter.

In 1922, the Association joined the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs and subsequently changed its name to The Woman's Club of Belleville, New Jersey. Affiliation with the State Federation added a new dimension to the Club's commitment to civic service by enlisting its membership for the support of national and even international projects sponsored by the State Federation and the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Throughout the years, the Club's primary emphasis still remains directed toward service to the community of Belleville. When in 1923 the Belleville Children's Aid Society found itself without the funds to pay a professional case worker, the Club made itself responsible for part of the salary for three consecutive years. This was the first rehabilitation work ever undertaken by any private agency in Belleville and led eventually to the establishment of the Community Service Bureau.

On the insistence of The Woman's Club, Belleville became, as early as 1927, one of the first communities in the entire nation to equip its traffic police officers and school-crossing guards with white luminous belts and gloves. Inquiries were soon received from all parts of the country and many municipalities adopted the same traffic safety measures inspired by the Club.

The year 1928 marked another milestone for the Club with the acquisition of its own Club House at the Rossmore Place address. This was the Clearman home, which for many years has been an historical landmark.

During the depression, the Civics Department sponsored a WPA Nursery school and supplied half the coal needed to heat it, and also equipped it with furniture and toys. With the advent of World War II the same department started nutrition and canteen instructions and collected furniture for a recreation room at Fort Dix. U.S. Defense stamps and bonds were sold; a Child Care committee was set up for the Defense Council. During the war in Vietnam, members made hundreds of ditty bags for servicemen.

Other outstanding community services rendered by the club members included the establishment of a Cancer Dressing Unit in 1944, presently headed by Miss Margaret MacMillan, Chairman of Social Services; the inauguration of a Library Shut-in Service in 1961; financial support to the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association in the construction of a new boathouse for the joint use of the Nutley and Belleville High School crews. The Club gave the flag for the War Memorial on Union Ave.

For several years the Club has sponsored essay contests for grade school students on historic and civic subjects, has aided deserving or handicapped scholars in their studies of music and art, or in the achievement of their college entrance requirements, and has annually sponsored three-day visits for senior high school girls to the campus of Douglass College. In many of these civic endeavors the Club has had the full cooperation of its Evening Membership Department, formed in 1955. One year they established a volunteer program at the Essex County Children's Emergency Shelter, which won them a state award.

Over the years, the members have helped whenever there was a community need such as the Craig Fabian Fund, helping to provide a kidney transplant for a young resident, patterning several brain damaged children and aiding a boy with a serious bone disease. They have also supported such state projects as the Ruth Gottschalk Fund, Camp Merry Heart, the Douglass College Fund, The Institute of Medical Research, the Methany School. This department was instrumental in having clear meat packaging adopted in the state.

The Junior Woman's Club sponsored by the General Club in 1933, has also made outstanding contributions to community welfare. They initiated a movement to create what is now known as the Child Guidance Clinic, to help mentally disturbed children in our area. They helped pay the social worker for several years. This was the first step toward the present Family Service in Belleville.

The Junior Club was reactivated five years ago and is again a very active group. They work with many organizations including the public schools, The Community Mental Health Center and the Essex County Geriatrics Center. Their community activities have included poetry contests, aluminum recycling, scholarships, holding parties for children and dinner-fashion shows.

For the Nation's Bicentennial, they designed a Bicentennial Plate depicting scenes of Belleville which proved to be a most popular collectors' item.

The members of The Woman's Club visit the ill and aged at Essex County Geriatrics Center all through the year, do regular volunteer work at Clara Maass Hospital, including operating the Patients' Library and support The Elam Coffee House sponsored by Rev. Paul Ruter.

A citation in recognition of the Club's 60 years of distinguished service to the community and the nation was presented on behalf of Mrs. Harry Wagner, Jr., national President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, by Mrs. Kenneth H. Burres, Vice President of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs in charge of the 8th district.
