Commencement

The longest day of the year provided the setting for Belleville's class of '77 graduation exercises at Municipal Stadium Tuesday evening. The event which marked an end as well as a beginning will be featured in photos in next week's edition of The Times/News.

Bond vote planned for February '78

By JOSEPH RYAN

Seventh grade classes will still be conducted at Belleville Junior High School next year, the Board of Education decided Monday night.

The Trustees chose to let Belleville voters decide the future placement of the seventh grade and the course of district building programs by approving a referendum for February 1978.

The referendum will ask local citizens to consider bond issues to expand the high school or renovate the entire system. The vote will also decide if Belleville will transfer seventh graders back to the elementary schools or stay at the junior high. Ninth grade will be able to attend the senior high school if voters approve the bond for expansion at BHS.

The referendum questions and the placement of the seventh graders were approved by 4-2 votes. Trustees Richard Mahmarian and Michael Chieffo cast the objecting ballots.

Board Member Chieffo favored the transfer of seventh grade to the elementary system for this September. Chieffo said the town often overestimates on mar-ior issues and the Board already had enough input to make a decision now. The Board Member also said an immediate move would show the intention of the Trustees to start action and convince Belleville voters the bond issues are needed. Chieffo said the referendum would be nearly impossible, "if we try to sell it by keeping the system the way it is."

"I believe this is the right course of action," Chieffo said. "I believe the time to do it is now. I hope we will be the catalyst to do these other things and do them right."

Trustee Mahmarian voted against the February referendum because the decisions of the Board Monday night were not final on the ninth and seventh grade issues and did not follow the recommendations of the Master Plan committee.

The Master Plan Committee, chaired by Mahmarian, advocated a K-6, 7-8, 9-12 grade system and suggested a referendum for expansion of the high school by January 1978. The report also called for the Board to seek Public works funds for senior high school improvements.

Mahmarian cited the Master Plan report but said he voted as a Board Member, not a representative of the Master Plan committee.

Police investigate local bank job

Three masked men entered and robbed the Metropolitan Federal Savings Bank, 321 Franklin Ave., Belleville, last Tuesday morning and escaped with an undetermined amount of cash Belleville police officials said.

According to police the trio of holdup men, clad in ski masks and goggles, entered the bank at approximately 9:30 a.m. last Tuesday. One man positioned himself at the front door while the other two vaulted the tellers counter and took two cash drawers, officials said.

"No weapons were shown," said Belleville Police Deputy Chief Frank Haight. "They didn't say a word but faced the three women tellers working behind the counter in a menacing way before they took the money."

Police said the trio fled through the front door to an awaiting automobile driven by a fourth man also disguised in the same manner.

Belleville patrolman Daniel Valse later found the getaway car abandoned in the rear parking lot at 725 Joramemon Street, an apartment complex, Deputy Chief Haight said.

The vehicle, a 1974 Ford, was reported stolen earlier from East Orange police said.

Belleville detectives Salvatore LaCoco, Michael Petrillo and Lt. Raymond Kimble are investigating possible leads in the case, Haight said.

The thieves took the metal cash drawers with them along with the cash, police said.

Trustees approve graduation guidelines

One night before the Class of '77 marched at Belleville Municipal Stadium in commencement exercises, the Board of Education approved formal guidelines for participation by seniors in graduation exercises.

The policy will go into effect for the Class of '78 and originated as a result of last minute pleas from and exemptions for failing seniors in previous graduations.

Trustee Matthew Pica cast the only objecting vote citing the case of a senior who "goofs-up" during his last year in a class and asking, "what's the harm in letting him graduate with his class?"

The guidelines state: "Only those seniors who have completed all requirements for graduation will be permitted to participate in the ceremonies and be awarded a diploma. If, in the judgement of the administration, unusual circumstances merit a senior not eligible for a diploma being given the special privilege of walking with his class during graduation ceremonies, these circumstances and a recommendation for an exception will be made by the Superintendent of Schools to the Board of Education in writing at least 48 hours before graduation. Each request will be judged on its own merits. No decision shall be binding on any further consideration or request."

"Parents of seniors whose school work jeopardizes their graduation will be informed of this fact by certified mail in March. Every effort shall be made through counselling and staff involvement to provide seniors with an opportunity to fulfill graduation requirements."

The Board reaffirms the fact that graduation ceremonies are designed to honor those students who have earned their diploma and the right to public acclaim at commencement.

New Juvenile Bureau helps teenagers cope

By MIKE COREY

The Belleville Juvenile Aid Bureau, 108 Greylock Avenue, Belleville, provides a free service to assist juveniles in town to cope with problems which are too large to handle alone and may not be able to be resolved within the family unit itself.

Under the urging of Belleville detective Sargeant Ron Thompson of the Belleville Juvenile Aid Bureau, Police Commissioner Rocco Saletta secured a SLEPA (State Law Enforcement Planning Agency) grant from the federal government to provide a more comprehensive system in town for helping youths with problems.

The project is under the supervision of Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight and Sargeant Thompson. SLEPA provides the funds for the program for three years for approximately 25 other New Jersey towns.

Rita Leone, who received her masters in social work from Fordham University and has had two year's of practical experience working in New York City, and assistant and bureau secretary Karen Byrne were brought into the program to provide additional professional assistance in November of 1976.

Together the social worker and the parents work on the problems and try to find a suitable compromise. "If we can't handle it we will refer to whatever agency may be able to help resolve the problem," said Ms. Leone.

"For someone-to-come-for-counseling he or she does not have to be in trouble with the law," stressed Ms. Leone. "Anyone who has any kind of problem is welcome to come in to discuss it."

Ms. Leone is available both days and evenings. Appointments may be made by calling 759-8109 or by visiting the Juvenile Bureau at 108 Greylock. There is no fee and all information is confidential.

Senior notes

By GEORGE CHENOWETH

Lots of action was in the news of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club this week. Jean and Paul Sandomino were welcomed back from a six week sojourn in sunny California. Paul is the newly elected Sgt-at-arms and executive board member, his office was well taken care of by Nick Mauncele during his absence and a vote of thanks to the popular Nick for doing such a good job. A group of 53 members enjoyed the musical, "Guys and Dolls" at the Meadowbrook last Wednesday, a delicious lunch was served and their genial host, Peter Mirabella made sure that the members were royally entertained, "a command performance" he called it, and indeed it was. On June 18th one busload of members journeyed to the Garden State Arts Center to enjoy a full day of entertainment at the Italian Festival.

The Retired Mens Club of Belleville installed the following officers at their June Meeting: President John Waple, 1st Vice-president Edwin Lutz, 2nd Vice-president R. Wesley Schneegas, Secretary Edward A. Canis, Assistant Secretary Fred Wulf, Treasurer Harold Ross, Sr. The club voted thanks to the out-going president, Charles Piccone for a job well done.

Petitions have been signed and delivered in regards to state legislation concerning senior citizens urging support from our state senators and assemblymen for Bill S1790 for change in qualifications for pharmaceutical assistance soon to come up for vote. The original bill as an amendment by Senator Scordino that would allow seniors to purchase any prescription for the price of one dollar. Seniors are urged to write to their state legislators and cite an imperative need for passage of this bill. We seniors are tired of paying outrageous prices for what may well be life sustaining medicines. We are also in favor of passage of the generic drug bill A2021 and Bill A1830 for the restructuring of utilities rates to bring them to an affordable level for seniors citizens.

Congratulations to Philip Riche, Jr. in attaining the office of Deacon in the Roman Catholic Church. Mr. Riche co-celebrated the Saturday evening mass at St. Mary's with Monsignor Feely and he deserves much praise in attaining this office of learning and religious belief. He stands out as an exemplary senior citizen.

Citizens of Belleville:

The Belleville Citizens Committee would like to thank all the Belleville voters who helped us nominate Raymond Bateman for governor. Your participation was greatly appreciated.

William P. Malarkey

A funeral mass was offered June 4 in St. Mary's Church for William P. Malarkey, 53, who died June 1 in Presbyterian Hospital, Newark.

Mr. Malarkey worked 32 years for Westinghouse Electric Co., beginning as a layout draftsman in the firm's Belleville plant. He remained there until 1967 in the positions of industrial methods engineer, foreman, general foreman and plant engineer.

Mr. Malarkey became plant manager of the company's Paris, Texas, plant in 1967. Three years later, he returned to New Jersey to become operations manager of the Westinghouse Lamp Division. In 1976, he was named executive assistant to the general manager of the lamp operations division.

During his association with Westinghouse, Mr. Malarkey was granted many patented disclosures for manufacturing and design processes for lamp parts.

A Navy veteran of World War II, Mr. Malarkey belonged to the Rotary Club of Bloomfield, the Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce and the Manufacturers Association.

Born in Belleville, Mr. Malarkey came to Nutley 31 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Kathleen; three daughters, Mrs. Kathleen McCoy, Mrs. Margaret Dorsey and Mary; his mother, Mrs. Margaret Malarkey; two brothers, Thomas and John; and three grandchildren.

Arrangements were made by the Stanton Funeral Home. Interment was in Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Montclair.

IRS offers IRA for retirement aid

Persons considering setting up Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA)s for their retirement security should weigh not only the tax advantages but also the limits and restrictions, the Internal Revenue Service has announced.

IRA's were established in 1974, the IRS said, to allow employees and self-employed persons not covered by retirement plans at work to save for their retirement years and gain some income tax benefits in the process. In setting up an IRA, eligible workers can pluck up to 15 percent of their annual income in their plan (maximum $1500) and postpone paying income taxes on the money and the interest or other income it earns until they actually withdraw it, at age 59½ or older, or if the individual becomes disabled. At this point, the IRS said, the taxpayer is apt to be in a lower tax bracket than during his or her earning years.

James P. Graham

Private services were recently held for James P. Graham, 43, formerly of Nutley, who died Monday, June 20, in St. Clare's Hospital, Denville, after a long illness.

He was a business forms sales representative in New York City and previously was employed by the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, Newark, and Statistics Incorporated, Englewood. He was a member of the Downtown Athletic Club, New York City, and a past member of Belleville Lodge 1123.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia Graham (nee Murray).

Funeral arrangements were through the Norman Deam Home for Services, Denville.

Leo Giorito, 66

A Mass of Christian Burial was offered Tuesday, June 20, at St. Mary's Church, Nutley, for Leo Giorito, 66, who died Friday, June 17.

Born in Thomas, Va., Mr. Giorito moved to Newark as a child and came to Belleville in 1957. He owned a grocery store in Newark for 40 years. He was a Coast Guard veteran of WWII and was a member of the Belleville VFW and the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church.

One students study ocean

Students, in the first grade at Number One School are preparing for summer vacation. Since many of the children will be visiting the Jersey shore, they are learning about the sea.

To foster interest and expand the vocabulary by introducing words related to the ocean, the children made "seascape" plaques using sea shells, sea fans, sea oats, and coral that their teacher, Mrs. Bosco, had collected for many years during her travels.

First the plaques were painted in various shades of blue-green to simulate water. Then seaweeds were painted in graceful, flowing lines creating the feeling of movement and suspension in water. Each child selected shells, coral and other sea objects from a large box. After gluing their choice on to the plaque, sand was sprinkled to cover any excess glue and at the same time creating a sandy seabed. Keeping within the nautical theme, fishing line was used to hand the plaques.

Because the children were able to examine and handle the shells, they learned with ease univalve, bivalve, oyster, clam, tooth shell, turban shell, coral, starfish, and scallop. They were captivated by the slipper shell, sea urchin, volcano limpet and spindle or "worm" shell. Their favorite was the turkey wing. They took turns holding the queen crouch to their ears to listen to the eternal roar of the ocean.

Many of the first graders are looking forward to visiting the shore and making shell collecting their hobby.

Seymour Grossman directs Title One

Board Member Matthew Pica estimated the cost of building a 20 class room addition to the high school with expanded auto shop, gym and cafeteria facilities at $2.5 million.

Belleville Trustees listened to citizens speak for two hours for and against the transfer of the seventh graders prior to their vote.

The Board vote to keep the seventh grade at the Washington Avenue junior high this coming year reflected the opinion of Dr. John Greed, Superintendent of Schools.

"I'm opposed to the move of the seventh grade this year because the best educational plan has not yet been presented to the community and that's to expand the high school," Dr. Greed said. The Superintendent noted the junior high is currently 517 students over capacity and the senior high has 409 students over capacity.

In other Board business, Assistant Superintendent Seymour Grossman, was appointed Title One director for Belleville. The appointment angered Mrs. Cora Boice, Title One District Council President, who told the Trustees she was misled by the Board to think Dr. David Spellkamen was being retained as director of the Title One program. "You hired a man and you gave him a job and that man has done his job," Mrs. Boice said. "Doesn't Mr. Grossman have enough to keep him busy?" Dr. Spellkamen has a two year jump on him.

Trustee Chieffo said Assistant Superintendent Grossman's administrative duties would free Dr. Spellkamen to spend more time working with Title One children.

Dr. Greed said the directorship of Title One should go to a central office person with the authority of an assistant superintendent.

Byrne vs. Bateman

The 1977 gubernatorial primary elections are now a part of history and in one corner we have the incumbent, Governor Brendan Byrne, asking for another four year term and in the other corner we have Republican challenger, Raymond Bateman, asking the people to "throw out the rascals and give me the chance to do better."

Both Republican and Democrat votes last week had excellent choices — some so good it made the final choice extremely difficult.

Byrne's victory was startling in its size. The vote cast for Byrne was within a couple of thousand of the total the Governor obtained four years ago — at a point in his political life when he had no strikes against him.

The 186,000 votes Byrne received last week is something for him to brag about — considering the reported low regard voters held for Governor Byrne.

Bateman's strong victory over Assemblyman Tom Kean left no doubt who the Republicans want as their candidate for governor. Bateman has accepted Governor Byrne's challenge to debate the issues.

With Bateman's 16-year legislature record on the line and the Governor's 4-year record for voters to appraise, New Jersey voters will be provided with an easy choice in November.

Frank J. Ferrara

Bateman's blunders

Republican gubernatorial Raymond Bateman lost no time after his nomination last week to stumble, fumble and blunder into his fall campaign. The first blunder he made was to select a South Jersey Republican as Republican State Chairman. Former Governor Cahill did it — and he was wrong. Former Republican nominee, Charlie Sandman did it — and he was wrong and now Bateman — and he is wrong.

Available for this important task was former Republican Chairman, George Wallhauser, a competent, successful businessman and politician. For reasons best known to Ray Bateman, the successful Essex County former leader, George Wallhauser, was completely ignored and passed over for a nice guy from South Jersey who still has a lot to learn about politics — especially Metropolitan New Jersey.

The second Bateman blunder was his intervention in the election of an Essex Republican Chairman. Over the weekend, the word went out that Ray Bateman's man in Essex is Bill Marfuggi, an able business executive, former State Treasurer and a strong Bateman supporter. Through Bill Marfuggi, Bateman let it be known he wanted West Orange Republican leader John Renna as the new Essex County Republican Chairman.

Had Bateman sought the advice, his Essex supporters who seek nothing from a Bateman win, the Republican gubernatorial candidate would have been told to mind his own business, stay out of inter-party politics not only in Essex County but in every county in the State of New Jersey.

Bateman's interference with Essex County politics may destroy any chance he may have had to win the November election.

Any more Bateman blunders will probably hand the November election to Brendan Byrne on a silver platter.

Prayer for today

Forgive me, most gracious Lord and Father, if this day I have done or said anything to increase the pain of the world. Pardon the unkind word, the impatient gesture, the hard and selfish deed, the failure to show sympathy and kindly help where I had the opportunity, but missed it; and enable me so to live that I may daily do something to lessen the tide of human sorrow, and add to the sum of human happiness.

Letters

Grande clarifies "undesirables"

To the Editor:

I would like to put a bad situation to rest regarding a statement I was supposed to have made at our April Planning Board Meeting.

At the time we were discussing a high-rise zone change so at a meeting on June 9th I asked our Court Stenographer to read back from my verbatim records what I had said. The tapes reflected that we were discussing a business zone change and my remarks were "we would create a buffer zone and keep out a bad element." Reference was to a bad business element, not persons and I never used the word "undesirables" nor made reference to the City of Newark.

I admire and respect the concern and civic pride you show for the City of Newark. I have the same feeling and love for my community. This is why I feel I do not have to apologize for any comment that was made.

As Chairman of the Planning Board, I am obligated to the businessmen and citizens of our town to try to keep out a bad business element. I will always look to upgrade our community and with the concern you have shown for your city I am certain that Newark is in good hands also.

Whenever I have an occasion to be out of state and people ask me where I live, I always answer "Belleville, a suburb of Newark, New Jersey." So you see I too have a feeling of great respect for the City of Newark and the State of New Jersey.

Joseph A. Grande
Chairman
Belleville Planning Board

Grande criticism embitters veteran

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter to express my opinions on the "uproar" of comments made by Mr. Joseph Grande, Planning Board president, Belleville, New Jersey.

Firstly, allow me to introduce myself. My name is James J. Ferrara, and I live in Nutley with my pregnant wife, Martha, who is originally from Mexico, and is of Mexican descent. She is now a permanent resident of the United States.

I too am a totally disabled, four-year, honorably discharged veteran (sergeant) of the Vietnam War, having joined the service at the age of 18 upon graduation from Barringer High in 1964 in Newark, where I was born and raised. I was in service at a time when "students" (of what?) were burning down college campuses, smoking grass and injecting drugs, and looking like scum of the earth, in plain, simple English. Nothing has really changed that much presently, except that "students" (the "all-American" people) don't burn down their campuses much anymore.

In Mr. Grande's remarks about "undesirables" from Newark, whether he is prejudiced or not is irrelevant. The point is, Mr. Grande has a right to say whatever he chooses in this so-called "free" society we live in, as long as he does not break the law.

I've had it up to here with so-called "Americans" bending over backwards for the blacks. All I know, and if nothing else, I am very honest, is that blacks have been controversial since they've been in this country. You have people that hate them, and people that love them, thus, dividing the whites along "racial lines."

How about the American Indian? If anyone, they should have been tearing this country apart from all the exploitation and persecution they've received, and they're native Americans, the only real Americans you have in this country. No, it's just the people with a guilty conscience, and nothing to show for, that gain the publicity. What's more, how about the Mexican-Americans, and the Oriental-Americans? They've been exploited and persecuted also, but not a peep out of those said peoples. Furthermore, how about me, a disabled American veteran? Who cares about me? No-one. People are too busy being phony, hypocritical, and making as much money as they can shovel in, whether it be in a crooked way, or not.

If I sound angry and hateful, it is because I am. I'm sick and tired of hypocrites, phonies, Mr., Ms., and Miss Goody two shoes, and people who exploit and persecute, at the sake of innocent people.

In my opinion, one of these days or years or whatever, there is going to be another Civil War in this country. I hope I live to see and feel it, because I'm sick and tired of living in a world of charade and lies. I'd rather die for the good-people of the world, what is really right to die for.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

We are happy to relate that John Mulligan, retired TNJ bus driver and former Big Tree Garage delegate, is back home convalescing after a brief stay at Clara Maass Hospital following an indisposition.

The big Irishman, a chronic grumbler by nature, surprises everyone with his profuse praise and commendation for the kind and considerate treatment he received from staff involved in his care. From the Fire Department Ambulance Corps, which brought him to the hospital, to the entire staff from the candy strippers to the head nurses his unusual words of praise amaze his host of friends who are unaccustomed to such words of kindness coming from his acerbic lips.

Doctor Noonan, the family physician, whose prompt response and competent care played a major role in our friend's speedy recovery, came in for especially high praise and recognition of his healing talent. The only reservation expressed by the patient was his inability to keep up with his witty doctor's puns which upsets the big guy who isn't often outfoxed by his friends, who lack the doctor's acumen.

From the distaff side, Peggy, the wife, is hopeful John will have the same kind words of appreciation for her tender care accorded him, that he so generously expressed for those at the hospital. After all Mulligan you gotta remember charity does begin at home. So be patient with the little woman, if you know what's good for you. All the best for a full and speedy recovery.

Correspondence from Peter W. Hughes, Legislative Counsel of the National Retired Teachers' Association and American Association of Retired Persons, brings out the very salient point that these Associations believe that retirees should be treated equally for federal income tax purposes without regard to the sources of their income. At the present time, recipients of Social Security benefits and Railroad Retirement annuities are being treated more preferentially than retirees who have little or no social security pensions, or other public employee retirement systems.

In order to achieve tax equity, he writes, our organizations have been exploring various means of shielding the first $7,000 of retirement income from federal income tax. NR-TA/AARP have pressed for legislation to achieve this objective and provide non-social security retirees with federal income tax treatment at least equal to that provided to social security recipients.

There is much merit in the objectives of these organizations in their endeavor to correct inequities regarding federal income tax "breaks" for many retired senior citizens.

Take the case of a retired person receiving yearly $3,400 from social security and $4,200 from a company pension. As it is now, the $3,400 is exempt from federal taxes, but the tax on the $4,200 company pension must be paid.

Were the proposed plan of the NR-TA/AARP groups approved the pensioner would only be subject to federal taxation on the amount above $7,000, or $600 which would result in a considerable tax savings which could be utilized to cope with spiraling inflation.

All senior citizens would be doing themselves a favor were they to get behind this worthy proposal by letting their Congressional representatives know how they feel about this helpful, progressive legislative reform.

The silliest bit of news to come out of Washington this week is the story of the clerical force in a government building being told not to water office plants or flowers henceforth, since the job had been beefed out to an outside firm on a $10,000 a year contract. That's how our money goes, eh? Small wonder we have a budget deficit.

THE STATE WE'RE IN

Flood control law endangered

By DAVID F. MOORE

It's an axiom that water seeks its own level, as with floods. It appears axiomatic to me that some people will demonstrate their own levels by working overtime to destroy intelligent laws, as with the 1972 Flood Plain Control Act.

No less than five bills have been introduced in the New Jersey Legislature, two of which would effectively throw out all flood plain regulations for at least two years. The other three would permit homeowners to rebuild flood-damaged structures, something forbidden by regulations under the 1972 act.

The first two are S-3170 and S-3190, sponsored respectively by Senator Gerrett Hagedorn and Assemblyman John Spiziri. The other three are S-3180, S-3183 and A-3215, sponsored by Senator Hagedorn, Senator Matthew Feldman (S-3183) and Assemblyman Spiziri.

Just in case that's not threatening enough for the future of this state we're in, we now find that the Department of Environmental Protection, which is supposed to be administering the act, has called a public hearing about it on June 27 at 9:30 a.m. in Scott Hall, Rutgers University, New Brunswick.

The purpose of the hearing? To draw opinions on a rewrite of the regulations to permit reconstruction of houses in floodways which have undergone more than 50 percent damage.

It must be admitted that bureaucratic muck surrounds the whole questions. Federal flood insurance, administered by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, might pay a homeowner full value if his house undergoes 51 percent or more damage and state regulations prohibit its replacement there. Then again it might not. The trouble is there's been no communication between DEP and HUD, leaving the owner of a damaged home in some kind of wet limbo.

I would think that DEP could have talked to HUD and arrived at a decision on the status of a theoretically damaged building, and whether its owner gets left holding an expensive bag. DEP appears bent on merely abolishing the rules, so that taxpayers in general will have to keep on paying for the same flood-damaged structures, over and over again.

Meanwhile, this kind of confusion provides a golden opportunity for some builders and land speculators to cry for legislation to give them carte blanche to build houses in part-time rivers, to sell to poor souls in dry weather.

Ironically, New Jersey's provision against rebuilding damaged structures in floodways is applicable only where expensive and tedious delineation of floodways has been completed. That has not happened in Bergen County, where more of the pressure appears to have originated. The only delineated floodways so far are in the Delaware River and Raritan River systems.

What we face is a repeal of the constant burden put on taxpayers by the paying of enormous sums for structures damaged by the ocean. Now that tax drain seems destined to apply also to unwisely constructed in floodways.

Nobody wants somebody to have his house washed away without his getting recompense. The intelligent thing is for him to get paid for his loss, and then prohibited from building in a floodway again. The solution is to be found in a moratorium on unwise development, not a moratorium on protective regulations.

Father Horgan is welcomed by St. Mary's

Priests, religious, diocesan officials and parishioners from Nutley and Belleville, gathered for a mass and reception Friday evening to officially install and welcome the Rev. Timothy Horgan as new pastor of St. Mary's Church, Nutley.

Bishop Joseph Francis, vicar of Essex County, concelebrated the 7:30 p.m. mass and Edward Lenihan, president of the St. Mary's Council, read the official letter of appointment initiating the services.

Representatives of various groups within the parish brought gifts to the altar at the Offertory of the mass, each symbolizing the part each one plays in the church community.

Father Horgan, in his homily, expressed his wish for, "a thinking church, a learning church, a prayerful church and a working church," adding "if we all do our part I am quite certain the church of Jesus Christ will become a power in the community."

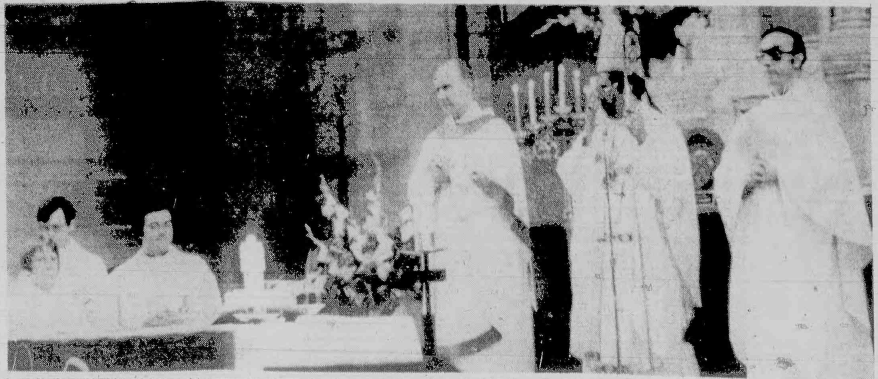

Pointing out that priests, although they are human, are on "fire with God's ideal," the new pastor continued stating people, "expect the best of a priest and they (priests) have the greatest responsibility."

A reception was held in the church basement, following the mass, where refreshments were served. Many parishioners took the opportunity to informally greet Father Horgan and welcome him to St. Mary's as well as chat with priests, who once served in the parish, and were on hand for the occasion.

The Rev. Horgan took over the parish June 4, the 22nd anniversary of his ordination as a priest. He has spent the last 19 years at St. Thomas More parish, Fairfield, where he was chaplain of both the Altar Rosary

Society and the Knights of Columbus.

Father Horgan was also involved with the ecumenical program at St. Thomas More and was a senior member of the Fairfield Juvenile Conference Committee. He presently is secretary to the priest's retirement board of the Newark Archdiocese.

Ecumenical Council — The Rev. Dan DiSanti, Bishop Joseph Francis, vicar of Essex County (second from right) and Father Horgan with the Rev. C. David Follansbee of Nutley's Vincent Methodist Church.

Homily — Father Horgan addressed the congregation for its warm welcome and outlined his view of the role of a priest in the church as well as the role a church should occupy in the community.

Warm welcome — Edward Lenihan, president of the St. Mary's Parish Council, reads the letter of Father Horgan's appointment as Nutley pastor from the Most Rev. Peter Gerety, archbishop of Newark.

Kiss of Peace — Members of the parish council took the opportunity during the service to exchange a greeting of peace with the new pastor. Formal introductions were made during the evening reception.

Procession of Clergy — A procession down the center aisle to the rear of the church marked the end of the service Friday. A reception in the St. Mary's Church basement followed the installation mass.

Yearbook editor's goal is to become a nurse

By STEVE MISSAGGIA

Finding a student who is deeply engrossed in various school activities and still achieves an honor roll record is a rarity, but not with BHS senior Sue Chimento.

Currently, Sue is a member of the Keyettes, and for the past two years, she has been a member of the Flag Squad and the Future Teachers' Club. This year, she is both a wrestling manager and a class representative for the Senior Senate. In the past, Sue has been a matmaid for the 1975-1976 wrestling season, and she was editor-in-chief of the BHS Yearbook.

In her spare time, Sue tutors a blind boy, and she was once a volunteer at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Sue says, "My goal is to be a nurse. I've hoped to be a nurse since grammar school. My grandmother influenced me quite a bit." She plans to attend Fairleigh Dickinson University in Rutherford. Sue likes talking and going out with friends, joking, creating new crafts, skiing, playing tennis, bike riding, shopping, baking and meeting new and unusual people.

Sincerity and warmth mark Quellen's style

By JULIE SISTA

"Kathy is an outrageous person, ready to do anything for her friends with her outgoing personality, sincerity, and warmth. I like Kathy, because she listens and gives advice, she gets excited over the little things that mean so much, and she is a very giving person," comments senior Patti Klingler.

Senior Kathy Quellen actively participates in the Color Guard, Keyettes, Future Teachers' Club and Ski Club.

Quellen, an above average student, member of the National Honor Society, and member on the Honor Roll consistently for the past years, will attend William Paterson in September where she will begin a nursing program.

Social work and 'Rocky' top Pisauro's interests

By MIKE DE FEO

Watch out for the quiet ones! This popular cliché applies to senior June Pisauro.

Being the quiet person during the school day, June is a complete opposite after her last period endst Grace Vallario, one of June's best friends, described June's personality as unpredictable, "June is a crazy person. Those that don't know her think she is a quiet and shy person. One minute she's quiet, and the next, you can't shut her up."

June is very active at Belleville High School. She participates on the Ski Club and Future Teachers' Club. She is wrestling manager during the fall season and is a dedicated co-captain of the Flag Squad.

Mellow-rock seems to be June's favorite music. Her favorite movie is "Rocky," and her favorite actor is Sylvester Stallone.

After graduation, June will be attending William Paterson College, where she will be majoring in social work. Julie Sista, a senior at BHS, describes June as "a warm and sincere person who is always willing to help others. June is a wonderful friend to have."

McHugh to pursue missionary work

By LIZ GILBERT

Theresa, who likes to be called "Tree," is a quiet and sensitive member of the BHS class. Her sensitivity and caring all reflect in her future plans to become a missionary, an occupation she has been interested in since her days in St. Peter's Grammar School.

Steve Missaggia, a class friend, says, "Theresa is an extremely honest and sincere person. She always is there to lend a hand or just listen when a friend is in need."

Doreen D'Andrea quotes, "Theresa is very interested in missionary work, and she has a perfect personality for the job."

Prom chairman called "bouncy and friendly"

By KATHY QUELLEN

Always bouncy, happy, friendly, and willing to help — that's how to describe Joanne Santiglia, the part-time member of Belleville High School's journalism class.

Joanne is outgoing and well known by everyone in BHS because of her many extra curricular activities. She is a member of the Italian Club, Keyettes, school newspaper staff, and the Junior Senate. Joanne was the prom chairman for this year's prom held at the Wayne Manor. Most importantly, she was just recently elected a member of the National Honor Society.

Joanne teaches gymnastics at Daniels Cultural Art Studio in Nutley after school and enjoys her work there.

Joanne came to BHS from Holy Family Grammar School in Nutley. She has an older sister Susan, a senior at BHS, and a younger sister Cynthia, who is in fourth grade.

In the future, Joanne plans to attend college to major in communications. According to Grace Vallario, "Wherever Joanne decides to go, her talents and personality will make her a huge success."

40 pints of blood given

More than 40 pints of blood was donated during the Belleville Knights of Columbus and St. Peter's Holy Name Society semi-annual blood drive held at the K of C headquarters last Friday.

The Belleville PBA along with the Belleville Amvets also participated in the program.

As a donor a person has a one-year "bank account" with the North Jersey Blood Center. If a person or any member of the immediate family needs blood for a one-year period the day after it is donated it is available.

The North Jersey Blood Center, which conducted the drive serves hospitals throughout northern New Jersey. After the blood is taken to the Blood Center headquarters in East Orange it is typed and tested by technologists to be sure it is safe for transfusion.

The blood can be separated into components such as platelets (the clotting factor), red cells, plasma and others so it can be used by more than one patient.

According to Blood Center officials, a normal healthy adult has between 10 and 12 pints of blood and can easily share one. In fact the body is continually creating new blood cells, a process which goes on even while donating. Within 24 hours normal blood volume is replenished. After eight weeks, blood may be donated safely again.

Blood donor — The Rev. Robert O'Leary of St. Peter's Church donated a pint of blood in support of the Belleville Knight's of Columbus and St. Peter's Holy Name Society Blood Drive held last week. More than 40 pints of blood was given by members from the sponsoring organizations plus the Belleville PBA and the Belleville Amvets. Dr. P. H. Garganera of the North Jersey Blood Center oversees the operation.

Bellevilleite Stevenson runs self-help group

"Only another parent who's been through it can fully understand what it feels like to have a newborn in the intensive care nursery," explained Karen Stevenson, president of the Parents Self-Help Group of High-Risk Children. "That's why we're here."

The recently formed organization was the brainchild of the nursing staff at the Intensive Care Nursery at United Hospitals of Newark Children's Hospital unit. The nurses believed that parents who had suffered through the uncertainties and emotional strain of seeing their newborn through intensive care would be best equipped to comfort and counsel other parents in the midst of the experience. They suggested that a hotline of volunteers be established and referrals made to other parents in the same area. Now, more than 60 families who have seen their babies through Children's Hospital intensive care have volunteered to be on call.

Because the Children's Hospital unit is a regional referral center for high-risk newborns, members of the Parents Self-Help Group can be found throughout northern New Jersey and in parts of South Jersey. According to Mrs. Stevenson, who lives in Belleville, most of the people active in the organization live in Essex, Passaic, Hudson, Union, and Morris counties.

"We try to match up the parents in need of support with another family from the same area," she said. "It's comforting for someone to know that another family in their community has gone through the same experience. They feel less isolated that way."

Mrs. Stevenson's daughter Raina, now almost two-years-old, was brought to the Children's Hospital special unit after her birth at Clara Mass Medical Center in Belleville. Unlike most of the infants in the intensive care nursery who are dangerously premature, Raina developed several serious complications because she was a month and a half overdue. "But I'm happy to say she's fine now, thanks to the excellent care she received from the dedicated doctors and nurses," Mrs. Stevenson noted. The Intensive Care Nursery is headed by Shyan Sun, M.D., with Venetia Greaves, R.N., serving as head nurse of the unit.

"Unfortunately at the time Raina was hospitalized, there was no Parents Self-Help Group to offer moral support," she said. "But I know the need myself and I'm happy to be able to help other parents out."

The group, in addition to being on call, has begun scheduling regular hospital visits in which they scrub up and don special sterile gowns to join parents in the nursery, as they watch their infants. "We found that some parents were reluctant to call us, so this outreach plan has enabled us to see more of them," Mrs. Stevenson stated. "They're especially grateful that we have taken the time to be with them in the hospital, to talk about our own experiences and offer much needed support."

Other officers include Michele Gaydos of Kearny, vice president, and Susan Legare of Denville, secretary.

Burglary attempt doesn't pan out

It was a case of jumping from the frying pan into the fire for a 22-year-old Belleville man, charged with burglary and possession of stolen property, during June 9 proceedings of Belleville Municipal Court.

The defendant, arrested May 10 for breaking into Attempo Inc., 1 Montgomery St., and stealing 359 frying pans valued in excess of $500, had his case referred to the Essex County Grand Jury. He is also charged with possession of the stolen property.

Bail was set at $3500 by presiding judge Edward Abramson.

Complainants in the case are Belleville Police Detectives Salvatore LoCoco and Michael Petrallo.

Streaking Bruins off to fast start

By MIKE COREY

The Belleville Bruins, driving for its fourth consecutive Essex County Baseball League pennant, have broken from the 77 starting gate of the 40-game schedule with a rush, posting an early season mark of 6-1.

Sunday the Belleville club outpowered Union, 11-6, at home and shutout Caldwell, 6-0, here Monday night.

The local batsmen took on Union again Tuesday on the road and played Verona on the home field yesterday but results were too late for this issue.

Belleville is scheduled to take on Verona on its home field tonight at 6 p.m. and travel to Caldwell on Sunday. The Essex County team returns home Wednesday, June 29, to face Livingston. Game time is 6 p.m.

"We have a much younger club than in past years," said Bruin coach Dennis Sasso in his fourth season at the helm. "We run all the time and the guys really want to play."

Monday night, in a contest abbreviated to five innings because of rain, Belleville created its own thunder and lightning against Caldwell scoring six runs in the initial frame.

Bruin second baseman, Chip Biafore, led off the inning with a home run and the sultry weather began for the visitor's starting pitcher Kupchak.

Belleville third sacker Tony Roselle reached first on a walk and Dennis Astrella followed with a two-bagger. Singles by catcher Tom Scull and left fielder Dan Dunn accounted for two more runs and John Guarino closed out the scoring for both the inning and the game with a three run homer.

Right handed hurler Jimmy Clark went all the way striking out four and allowing two hits in notching his second victory of the season against no losses.

The tables were turned in Sunday's contest with Union getting off to the early lead with a pair of runs in the first inning thanks to a round tripper with a man on.

The visitor's pushed across three more runs in the top of the third to take a 5-0 lead but Belleville battled back with two runs of its own in the bottom half of the frame when Roselle singled, stole second, Dunn doubled and Johnny Guarino singled.

Lawmen bomb State Police, 35-8

Belleville's finest, still wielding hot bats from last week's 39-10 walloping of Nutley, continued to run a clinic on hitting, blasting the State Police, 35-8, last Sunday at Clearman field.

The local lawmen are slated to take on a powerful West Orange team this Sunday but a ruling by the Belleville School Board Monday night has suspended further adult softball playing at Clearman field because of complaints by neighbors in the area. Board members are scheduled to meet with adult softball league officials to iron out the difficulties.

Sunday's contest is a key one in the Belleville police's drive to repeat as winners of the national division of the league. The Orangemen are in second place one game behind the first place Belleville law enforcers and a West Orange victory will force both clubs into a tie for the top spot.

Belleville has posted 9-1 record with three games remaining to be played in the regular season. The playoffs are scheduled to get underway July 23.

The Bellboy police will have a little extra incentive against the West Orange squad Sunday. West Orange eliminated Belleville from the tournament last year.

Vincent Masi led the onslaught of hits against the state police with four home runs' Sunday and starting pitcher Rich Fatone notched the complete game victory. Fatone struck out three in gaining the win.

"The team has played exceptionally well this season," stated George Sheridan playing-coach for the Belleville lawmen. "Especially our infield which has made only one error in the last three games."

The Belleville police squad includes first baseman, Ray Kimble; second sacker, Joe Simonetti; short stop, George Sheridan; third baseman, Bill Adelheim; catcher, Bill Escott; outfielders Vinny Masi, Al Spencer, Tony LaVista, Lenny Edwards, Chuck Oese, and Al Freda.

Annual Golf Day draws 100 linksmen

Tank Matraxia shot a three under par 68 to win the Belleville Open Championship at the Branch Brook Golf Course last Thursday as more than 100 golfers took part in the annual Golf Day Championship sponsored by the Belleville Department of Parks and Public Property.

Belleville Mayor Michael Marotti along with town commissioners Mary V. Senator, Joseph McGreevy, Rocco Saletta and Vincent Strumolo donated and presented trophies to the winners of the day's various categories.

Other champions on the day include Frank Law who was the winner of the Belleville Resident trophy and George Sheridan who took home the Town Employee prize. Sheridan is a patrolman on the Belleville police force.

Winners of the handicap championship were Mike Drury and Bill Escott.

A special Kiwanis trophy was awarded to J. Bruno and the Angelo "Skec" Domenick Amvgt Trophy was taken by Chris Albanese.

The long drive of the day, on the 10th hole, was a photo finish with Skip Squatrito taking the honors edging out George Sheridan.

The 11th hole was the scene of the battle for closest to the pin. Bob Gaccione emerged the nearest with a shot two-feet four-inches to the flag to beat Mike Drury's shot which was two-feet eight and a half inches from pay dirt.

The kickers of the day, a beautiful golf bag was won by M. Zazz.

The event was chaired by Mayor Marotti and Tom McLaughlin and trophies and awards were given out at a dinner held at the Chandelier Restaurant following the day on the links.

Thursday's scores for golfers participating in the yearly tourney include M. Matraxia, 68; R. Luzzi, 68; F. Law, 69; M. Drury, 71; P. Palumbo, 72; V. Squatrito, 73; P. Galioto, 73; G. Sheridan, 73; V. Simeone, 73; L. Day, 75; B. Christian, 75; J. Carpel, 76; B. Heitman, 76; B. Escott, 77; B. Kennedy, 77.

Girls end softball year with 9-12 mark

Aggressive heads-up baserunning marked an otherwise inconsistent season for the Belgirl softball squad which matched last year's won-lost record of 9-12.

"Baserunning was a strong point of this year's team," stated the girls softball coach Eve Lautenschlager. "We had the most stolen bases of any other Belleville girls team. We must have averaged at least five stolen bases per game."

The Blue-Gold lost just three players to last Tuesday's graduation including catcher Marita "Champ" Hochstul, pitcher Phyllis Longo and outfielder Lydia Damato.

"One of our main problems this season was inconsistency," said coach Lautenschlager. "We were able to beat Montclair but lost two games to Kearny who lost to Montclair."

The Blue-Gold should be fielding a comparatively young squad in '78 with two juniors, four sophomores and five freshmen returning to the lineup.

The Belgirl keystone combination of Toni Sperduto at shortstop and Denise Zarra at second should be among the returnees next season.

"We may move Zarra behind the plate to catch," predicted the coach. "But that would leave second open and we don't really have anyone right now who can replace her in the infield." Zarra caught a few games this season and was the club's number one catcher for the bulk of the 1976 campaign.

Frosh third basewoman Joyce Iacullo is slated to continue play at the hot corner and first sacker Denise Juliano will also be back at her infield post.

Slugging centerfielder Joanne Conte, who led the team in home runs, will be a senior next season and freshman Michele DeMayo should be back in the right field spot.

The Blue-Gold pitching staff, which experienced periodic streaks of wildness and moments when it was unable to find the plate, is expected to be headed by sophomore Tracy Morrison, who came on strong near the end of the season, and Dolores Palodino, who coach Lautenschlager calls a prospect for the future.

"Our pitching staff had its good and bad days," said the coach. "They were much like the weather and it was hard to find someone who could put the ball over the plate consistently."

The leading lumber woman for the 1977 Belgirls included Denise Juliano, Joanne Conte, Lydia Damato, Denise Zarra, Toni Sperduto and Champ Hochstul.

"In the beginning of the season the hitters were too anxious at the plate," stated coach Lautenschlager. "But near the end of the year they started to get the idea and were more patient and were able to reach base on a walk."

Pitching in

Driving on

Right Isadore Padula tees off at the eighth hole during the annual Belleville Golf Day sponsored by the Department of Parks and Public Property last Thursday at Branch Brook Golf Course.

Holding up

Below Bruin catcher holds up on his swing and takes the pitch high and outside in Sunday's contest. The Bruin's came from behind to defeat Union 11-6 to maintain first place.

Championship clinch — Bill Escott is congratulated by Belleville commissioner Rocco Salletta for winning the handicap championship of the annual Golf Day at Branch Brook Park Course.

Open champ — Mayor Marotti presented the most coveted prize of the evening to Tank Matrixia who shot a three under par 68 for the 18 hole course to win the Belleville Open Championship.

Trophy winner — Belleville commissioner Joseph McGreevy presents police officer George Sheridan with the Town Employee prize during the Thursday evening festivities. Sheridan fired a 73 during the day's tourney.

Bag man — Michael Zazzarino looks happy after winning a brand new golf bag at the annual Golf Day Dinner Thursday night held at the Chandelier Restaurant as Mayor Michael Marotti (background) supervises the presentation.

Batsmen battle Verona

The Bruins pulled even with Union with four runs in the fourth. Dunn's three run home run with two men aboard was the deciding blow.

Belleville took over the lead for good in the home half of the sixth with four more runs.

Roselle started the rally off with a walk, Astrella doubled, Dan Hornachek, inserted for Scull, singled and Dunn singled.

The home team scored one more run in the eighth to ice the victory.

Union scored again in the fourth when the visiting squad bunched together a single, a hit batsmen and a Belleville fielding miscue.

Roselle, Astrella, Scull and short stop Kevin Goy each had three hits to lead the 18 hit offensive assault of the Bruins.

Righthander Steve Whacker was credited with the win to extend his record to 2-0. He was relieved by Brian Karl in the ninth.

The Belleville mound staff consists of Steve Whacker, Brian Karl, Jack Rake, Jimmy Clark, Gus

Hernandez and Craig Dellasandro. Outfielder Tony Armello and utility men Dan Hornaschek and Bob Kennedy round out the Bruin baseball roster.

Presentation — Commissioner Vincent Strumolo along with all the Belleville commissioners donated trophies for the various categories at last Thursday's annual tournament. More than 100 golfers participated in the event sponsored by the Belleville Department of Parks and Public Property.

Two winners and a candle, Joe Simonetti can still hold a candle to Rocco Marotti, trophy winner for closest to the pin, and Bill Adelhelm (right), winner for the day's longest drive during a lighter moment at the Golf Day Dinner at the Chandelier.

Winning trio — Mike Palumbo, who shot a 72, raises an iron in honor of Frank Law (right), winner of the Mary Senatore Trophy with a score of 69, and John Bruno, awarded the Kiwanis Trophy with a 77.

Tree swing — Bruno Barnhart, an inspector in the Newark police department, overcomes a rooted obstacle near hole eight during Belleville's Golf Day at Branch Brook Golf Course.

COLD FACTS

about air conditioning that will save you money & energy.

Cold Fact #1

Some air conditioners are more efficient than others.

Just how efficient an air conditioner is depends on its EER (Energy Efficiency Ratio). The EER tells you how much cooling an air conditioner provides for the electricity it uses. It is determined by dividing the unit's BTU's by the wattage it uses. The higher the EER the more efficient the unit.

Cold Fact #2

Air conditioners with higher EER's cost less to operate.

Sometimes the savings can be substantial. For example, an air conditioner with an EER of 6 can cost 50% more to operate than one with an EER of 9. So one summer of normal use could pay for the added cost of a more efficient air conditioner. And you keep on saving.

Cold Fact #3

Efficient air conditioners save our natural resources.

Efficient air conditioners help reduce the high summertime demand for electricity, conserving fuel needed to generate electricity. And by using less energy during peak periods, you help us to use our existing power plants more efficiently and perhaps reduce our need for building new ones. We all benefit.

Cold Fact #4

Use your air conditioner wisely and you'll save money on your electric bill.

Here are a few tips. Adjust your air conditioner to the warmest setting at which you are comfortable. Remember, operating costs increase about 15% per cooling degree. Use your fan setting when the outside humidity is low. Keep the filters clean. Don't leave your air conditioner on when no one is home. Use shades and shutters to keep the sun off the room.

First pick — Belleville first sacker Dennis Astrella takes a pick off attempt pitch from Belleville hurler Steve Whacker in the third inning of Sunday's Essex County League contest at home.

Free swinger — The Bruin bats came alive against Union over the weekend. The Belleville offense knocked out 18 hits and 11 runs on its way to a 11-6 victory.

Cervasio complete freshman year

Alan Cervasio, a 1975 graduate of Belleville High School, has recently completed his freshman year at the University of Delaware where he started for the frosh football squad and led the club in punt returns.

A business administration major with a 3.0 cumulative index, Cervasio was the second leading ground gainer and tied for most points scored on the freshman team.

Reporting to practice in May, the former Bellboy started in the fourth halfback spot but advanced to one of the top two backfield positions through hard work and determination, said his coach, Tubby Raymond, pilot of the University's varsity gridiron club.

"I'm pleased with the depth we've exhibited in the backfield," stated Raymond. "It's one thing to have runners who can go up the middle but you need players who can cut outside and run and I think we have them."

Since freshmen are ineligible to play varsity, Cervasio is expected to see his first varsity action this fall with the Blue Hens who posted a 9-2-1 mark for the '76 season and captured the Lambert Cup, representative of the school's excellence in Division II. Delaware was ranked number four in the nation last year.

BSA Road Rally winners announced

The Exploring Division, Essex Council BSA, recently announced the winners of its first Explorer, "Safe Driving Road Rally," held last week.

First place was awarded to William and Jane Parmigiani of Sea Explorer Ship Three and sponsored by the Presbyterian Church of Verona. Second place honors went to Richard Lowell and Dave L. Gogheis of Law Enforcement Post 67 sponsored by the Maplewood Police Department and the third position was awarded to Paulette Nedrow and Bill Stein of Ship Three.

The Explorer Road Rally, sanctioned by the Greater Rockaway Auto Sports Society, began at Livingston Mall and ended 80 miles later at Scout Acres, Essex Council's Camp at Boonton.

Rally-Master and Chairman of the event was Philip Massarsky of Belleville, assisted by Burt Shifman, Verona, Lt. Leo Bernheim, Newark, Charles Mosher, Caldwell, Keith Honaman, Glen-Ridge, and Alan Greene and Edward O. Helwig of the Essex Council Exploring Staff.

Giants Donating Profits To Press Scholarships

The New York Football Giants today officially donated the profits from their first 1977 pre-season game to the New Jersey Press Association Scholarship Fund. The game will be played Saturday night, Aug. 6 against the New England Patriots in the Meadowlands Stadium.

Ray Walsh Sr., vice president and secretary of the Giants, and James R. Sutphen, president of the NJPA Scholarship Trust, signed a contract making the press association a tenant of the stadium during the game. NJPA will receive all proceeds and pay the game's expenses before adding the profits to its scholarship fund.

The Giants have offered tickets for the charity game to their season ticket holders. The balance of the passes will be sold by the stadium ticket office and newspaper mail order advertisements.

This year the association will give five $1,000 and eight $500 grants to New Jersey college students preparing for careers in newspaper journalism. All 27 New Jersey dailies and approximately 120 paid circulation weeklies are members of the 120-year-old association.

Plans for the game were begun several years ago by the late Druker, then-publisher of the Passaic Herald-News and former NJPA president.

His son, Austin Druker, has represented the association in the final arrangements with the Giants management. Austin Druker is president and publisher of The Herald-News and NJPA treasurer.

The Giants finished 1976, their first year in the Meadowlands, with a 3-11 record, winning all three of their games at home.

Theatre internships available

The Whole Theatre Company has announced its plan to institute a formal internship program in technical theatre this coming fall. The program developed out of WTC's expanded technical needs in the new theatre, and its past success with a more informal volunteer structure.

show, and will be responsible to the staff member in that area. The production stage manager will coordinate the entire program, meeting regularly with the interns so as to minimize problems and maximize learning.

In the past, WTC has depended on high school volunteers. Several of these volunteers have been with the Company for a year or more, and have become so proficient that they will be returning next year as part of the permanent production staff. One of them has, in fact, been selected to be an apprentice at the New Jersey Shakespeare Festival this summer, even though he is younger than the average apprentice there.

With the opening of the new and larger theatre in the Fall, WTC will be counting on its interns, old and new, to take on major responsibilities in key technical areas. In order to insure that the program runs smoothly, WTC is keeping it small and selective. All prospective interns must be interviewed before being accepted for next year's season. Those interested in applying, should do so as soon as possible so that an interview can be arranged. For more information about the internship program, call the theatre at 744-2934.

Cloggers highlight bluegrass series

Clogging, foot-kicking Southern Mountain Dance style is spreading to New Jersey. From Thursday through Saturday, June 23-24, The Morris Stage, in association with the Englishtown Music Hall, will present North Carolina's famed Greengrass Cloggers, 16 dancers from Greenville, North Carolina, in a series of events combining performance, clog dance audience instruction and demonstration, live music, and square dancing.

Accompanied with live fiddle and banjo music by the Plank Road String Band from Lexington, Virginia, the Cloggers will debut Thursday, June 23 at The Morris Stage, North Jersey's exciting new Center for Performing Art, in the first of a series of Bluegrass shows to be produced at the theatre by Englishtown Music Hall, bluegrass impresario, Geoff Berne.

Succeeding the successful concert-productions of pianist Marcel Marceau, rock artists, and classical performers, the newly renovated Morris Stage, formerly the Morristown Community Theatre, will present additional evenings of Bluegrass entertainment on July 21st and August 11th. On June 23, in addition to the Greengrass Cloggers and Plank Road band, a variety of New Jersey and New York Bluegrass bands will debut at this exciting event.

The Pinetop Pickers, a versatile duo from Sussex County, consist of "two one man bands in one band," with Jeff Hammerlin and Phil Pasolucci from Franklin, switching adeptly from guitar to mandolin and dobro steel guitar.

Big Apple Bluegrass, Staten Island's own Bluegrass band, features many novelties such as a soloist on the musical saw.

Late Nite Garage, arriving from Point Pleasant, New Jersey, features harmonica ace, Don Hayes, "flat-top" guitar star, Ray Sweitzer, mandolinist Vic D'Amico, and Chub and Mary Conine on the banjo and bass fiddle — a New Jersey Bluegrass band with an authentic "high mountain" bluegrass sound.

This is an opportunity not to be missed — bring your friends, let your hair down, and get ready for an evening of toe-tapping music live on The Morris Stage. Tickets are $4.50 June 23, and $4.50, $5.50 July 21 and August 11. Tickets now on sale at the Box Office, 100 South Street, Morristown, and Ticketron. Mail orders will be accepted if you enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope with a check or money order. Generous Group Discounts. Call: (201) 540-9270 for information.
