Town may stop work on building 6 stores

A botched-up system of procedures at Town Hall apparently has permitted start of construction of six new stores in the Grand Union Shopping Center without all municipal boards giving their okay.

Town Commissioners say they only learned of the new construction — already underway — while attending ground-breaking ceremonies for the new K-Mart nearby on Main Ave.

Commissioners and the Planning Board contend the six-store construction plan should never have been issued a building permit because the overall proposal lacks sufficient parking places.

"And I'm annoyed about this also because I don't think we're going to be able to get our fire trucks behind that complex," Public Safety Commissioner Rocco Salleta told The Times/News.

Salleta says he went down to the construction site and counted 294 spots. Another report reaching Commissioners said eight parking spots are being used for dumpsters and two more have been eliminated for fire prevention purposes.

"This site plan was never reviewed by us," Finance Commissioner

Work Goes On

Despite threats to issue a court stop-work order, nothing yet has been done as workmen (above) continue building six new stores at Main Ave. shop center. Commissioners here believe the complex lacks adequate parking and fire-protection zones.

Clowning Around

Paulo the Magic Clown (below) whips up a balloon animal for seven-year-old Billy Sypher during Sunday's Cozzarelli "Super-Picnic" in Lyndhurst. Proceeds from the affair went to benefit the mentally handicapped. Next week the Times/News will feature a full page of picnic pictures.

State rules town fiscal crisis not real 'emergency'

Trenton has nixed Belleville's scheme to circumvent the 5 percent cap on spending by declaring a "fiscal emergency" in order to fund $312,000 for municipal salary raises.

Workers will get their raises, Finance Commissioner Joseph McGreevey says, but this time the town will be placed in a dangerous fiscal situation beginning next January.

The $312,000 package actually is only half the total needed to provide for pay hikes negotiated this past summer and extending through 1978.

"The $312,000 in itself uses up 3 percent of our 5 percent cap limit for next year," Commissioner McGreevey explains. "If we have to put the entire amount in next year's salary budget, that means we've already exceeded our five percent cap limit for 1978."

Unofficially, Trenton hearing examiners told local officials the only way the town can survive financially through 1978 would be to make extensive layoffs of personnel.

McGreevey confirmed the prospects are "extremely serious unless we get some help from Trenton, like getting some of these items like insurance and utility increases exempt from the caps."

Isadore Padula Jr., assistant town treasurer who worked up the financial plan which has now failed, was unusually mum at Tuesday's conference session. Padula had prepared all the resolutions and ordinances and had assured Commissioners that all Belleville was doing was following a procedure suggested by the Division of Local Government.

Commissioner McGreevey told the Times/News this week that he personally "never believed" Trenton would okay Padula's scheme.

"This simply was not an emergency," Commissioner Mary Senatore conceded.

In Trenton, John Laezza, director of the Division of Local Government, said simply that "salaries are the basic responsibility of local government." Referring to the Belleville plan to circumvent the 5 percent cap law, Laezza said, "This is an item that should be part of the regular budget."

McGreevey indicated the seriousness of Belleville's fiscal problem for next year will become evident later this year as various departments begin to put together budgetary requirements for 1978.

Opposing candidates both claim GOP line

By MARY FREEMAN

Although both Harry Romeo and Michael Giordano claim to be Belleville's official GOP candidate for State Senator, only one man can run on the Republican ticket.

Each insists he is the one and only Republican candidate for the office in the 30th legislative district. But after several days of tracking down key figures in the Bateman campaign, the Republican State Committee in Trenton finally has cleared up the dispute.

"Harry J. Romeo is the only Republican candidate for state senator in the 30th district," Anna Muschal, executive assistant for the legislative campaign committee told the Times/News. "If someone else still claims he is running for the same office, he is not an official representative of the Republican Party."

Romeo, as the victor in the Primary, is the only candidate who received official notice from the Republican State Committee.

"Michael Giordano lost the Republican Primary and he'll have to face that fact," Romeo said. "Everyone in my district knows that I am the candidate."

Giordano contends that Romeo

PTA survey finds math in bad shape at Jr. High

The math program at the Junior High School is so inferior in the opinion of the Belleville PTA that its president was delegated to publically call for curriculum reform at this week's Board of Education meeting.

"At some point between the sixth and eighth grades, some basic math is lost," Mrs. Cardinale, PTA president said. "Students are missing math in areas like fractions, decimals and percentages and somewhere these things have to be reviewed."

Mrs. Cardinale told the Board that in an advanced seventh grade biology class, not one student was able to supply an answer to what percentage of 65 is 40.

"This is not an isolated case," she noted. "A superior student might be able to grasp some of the math, but most students must have it reviewed during the junior high school."

Dr. John Greed, superintendent of schools, warned, "To draw generalizations is a little dangerous. There is a lot of evidence that a child can do that and a lot more below the ninth grade level."

He suggested that Mrs. Cardinale sit down with the guidance department and review the math testing given to students.

"You have provided us with one example and are drawing vast conclusions from it," Greed said.

Two trustees voiced agreement with Mrs. Cardinale, though. Trustee Michael Chieffo noted that certain things are being lost and that the seventh grade should be moved back to the elementary school while Trustee Ralph Risoli estimated that seven out of 10 parents, or 70 percent, he talks to complain their children aren't learning anything.

Belleville student Irini Vechos is doing unusual house work at Upsala College

A Belleville student at Upsala College will hunt for houses in East Orange, Newark and New York this fall as part of an English course which teaches students to actively pursue knowledge on their own.

The 12-week course, entitled, "Housing in America, 1950-2000," will take Irini Vechos and 12 other students to suburban and urban communities where they will investigate matters relating to housing such as economics, government policy, race, energy and life style.

Among the questions to be explored are, "Can the average American afford a home anymore?", "Why are the central cities black and the suburbs white?", "Can we afford suburban in an energy crisis?" and "Urban Negro removal?"

Students will spend one class day in the Bedford Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, the south Bronx and the Chelsea section of Manhattan. At the end of the day, they will return to New Jersey and visit their professor in his suburban home where they will discuss the opposites of suburban and urban living.

Later in the semester, the freshmen will visit Upsala's new president, Dr. Rodney Elder, in his East Orange apartment as part of their study on apartment house living.

Chitris plans to attend Barnard in September

Medha Chitnis, a June graduate of Belleville High School, is a member of the largest freshman class in Barnard College's 89-year history.

Chitnis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Sitaram Chitnis, of Columbus Ave., joins more than 500 young women who have accepted places in the Class of 1981 at Barnard, the women's undergraduate college of Columbia University, New York City.

The record increase in students will bring the total enrollment of the college to 2,000 for the first time. Chitnis is studying pre-med in her.

Honor society inducts pair

Two Belleville students at Montclair State College have been inducted into Gamma Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, the national education honor society.

They are Jeannine Cannavini of 128 Hornblower Ave., a home economics major, and Chris Fusaro, 164 White Oak Terr., a communication sciences and disorders major.

A total of 108 students were inducted into the society.

Morgenthier earns dean's list mention

Elizabeth A. Morgenthien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Morgenthien, 30 Mitchell St., won mention on the dean's list at Gettysburg College, in Pennsylvania, for the spring, 1977 term.

Morgenthien attained a scholastic grade average of at least 3.60 out of a possible 4.0 to be named to the list.

Gettysburg College, founded in 1832, is the oldest Lutheran-affiliated college in the United States. A liberal arts institution, the college enrolls 1,850 men and women students.

The course is part of the East Orange school's Freshman Investigation Seminars which are replacements for the traditional freshmen English courses. English Professor Del Earisman, who is coordinator of the seminars and has written books on such subjects as hippies and the new generation, explained that the aim of the course is not only to improve students' writing skills but to teach them how to assemble information and put it together.

ShopRite offering 'First Aid Chart'

Most people have been instructed in the basics of first aid, yet when an actual emergency arises many of us will have a tendency to forget some of these lifesaving techniques. A new free pamphlet entitled, "First Aid Chart," is now available and it lists most of the common emergency situations that may occur anywhere, at any time, and the first aid procedure that should be administered. The chart is designed so that it can be posted inside a medicine cabinet.

Prepared as a public service by the Consumer Affairs Department of ShopRite in collaboration with the American Academy of Pediatrics, the pamphlet contains first aid information on everything from bee stings and snake bites to muscle sprains and accidental poisoning. The phone numbers and addresses for all of the Poison Control Information Centers in the state and surrounding area are also listed in this pamphlet.

The "First Aid Chart" is part of ShopRite's ongoing Health Education and Labeling Program (H.E.L.P.) that was developed to help consumers with their buying and safety tips.

Copies of the "First Aid Chart" are at all of the 185 ShopRite Supermarkets from Massachusetts to Delaware. Locally, copies can be picked up at Nutley Park ShopRite, 437 Franklin Ave., Nutley. They may also be obtained by writing to Mrs. Sylvia Madel, Consumer Affairs Department, ShopRite Supermarkets, 600 York St., Elizabeth, N.J. 07207.

Group to perform in 'Lucnica' ballet

A Czechoslovakian Folk Ballet will perform at the Montclair High School auditorium October 7 as part of the 58th season of the Unity Concert Series. The series is sponsored by the Unity Institute, Montclair.

Through its presentation of "Lucnica," the ballet offers a cavalcade of dance and music reflecting the heritage of Czechoslovakia.

The troupe attempts to bring nations closer together by virtue of its extraordinary performances.

Glorious costumes, lyrical dances to adventuresome and romantic music and stage lighting will combine to give perhaps the series' most memorable evening of the season.

A concert by the Pittsburgh Symphony Chamber Orchestra will be held October 21; a solo recital by Shirley Verrett, November 11, and guitarist Mario Escudero, November 27.

Also, a recital by pianist Andre Watts, January 8; the American Symphony Orchestra conducted by Sergiu Comissiona, January 21; a recital by the legendary Soviet pianist Lazar Berman, February 24, and the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, March 4.

The series winds up with performances by master violinist Isaac Stern, March 19, and the Stars of the American Ballet, featuring Ted Kivitt and Eleanor D'Antuono, April 23.

Series tickets for all events are priced at $99, $91, $81, $68 and $58.

When the students complete their investigation of American housing, they will write reports on their activities and then hold panel discussions among themselves.

"A good subtitle for the course might be 'Learning How to Learn,'" Earisman said.

Breaking Ground — Rep. Robert Roe, Mayor Michael Marotti, chairman of the board Robert Dewar and developer Leo Drasin dig in at Thursday's ground-breaking ceremony to kick off construction of the K-Mart store at Main and Joralemon Sts.

K-Mart will provide 100 jobs in Belleville

Despite the absence of Gov. Brendan T. Byrne, state and town dignitaries broke ground for K-Mart's new Essex County store Sept. 15.

It was rumored that, although the Governor had been scheduled to attend the Belleville ground-breaking, he made an appearance at another K-Mart Corporation ceremony the same day in Jersey City.

Mayor Michael Marotti, commissioners and representatives of the Planning and Zoning Boards were on hand for the local ceremony, which opened construction on the building.

Hopefully, the new store, located across from the 'Grand Union on Main St., will aid in stimulating commerce within Belleville.

"This new store is going to employ upwards of 100 people," Robert E. Dewar, chairman of the board for Levo Shopping Centers, the parent firm behind K-Mart's operation, said.

He added, "We're delighted to welcome the town of Belleville into the K-Mart family."

Other officials on hand for the turning of the first shovel of dirt included Rep. Robert A. Roe and Ruby and Leo Drasin, co-owners and developers of the property.

K-Mart currently has 23 stores operating throughout New Jersey. The opening of a K-Mart in Belleville is part of a recent decision by corporation executives to build more than 20 additional stores within the state.

K-Mart, the nation's second largest retailer of general merchandise, plans to have at least 52 stores here by January 1982.

Dewar noted that the new stores will mean about 14,000 construction and retail sales jobs to residents of New Jersey.

Each of the 84,000-square-foot stores are expected to employ between 150 and 250 administrators and clerks. Each will open seven days a week, except in communities like Belleville, where local ordinances prohibit Sunday openings.

"The people are there and the retail sales are there," Dewar said. "Our experience has been good with our first 23 stores in New Jersey."

K-Mart stores offer general merchandise, including television sets, appliances, building materials, automobile supplies, and, in some cases, pharmaceuticals at discount prices.

The products include national brands, as well as private-label merchandise manufactured by major companies expressly for K-Mart.

Dewar noted that there is no general policy on how much discount is offered, but "day to day prices are well below manufacturers' suggested list prices."

School Board meetings will be in the schools

Belleville schools will host four meetings of the Board of Education, starting January 1, 1978, trustees decided at last Monday's meeting.

The four sessions will be spread to different schools, and will each take the place of one regularly-scheduled Board chambers, 383 Washington Ave.

In spite of the comment by one trustee that he would rather not see the meetings moved because "people learn to come to one place," all Board members eventually opted for the proposal.

"It's not a bad idea to see if we can get the community more involved," Trustee Lawrence Schwartz said. "I'm sure we can absorb the cost easily enough."

Mayor Shader, Board secretary-business administrator, noted that the School Board would have to pay the expense of keeping a custodian in the school for an extra hour or two. The Board pays nothing when it holds meetings in Board of Education offices.

The School Board already holds its public hearing on the budget at the high school every winter.

School cafeterias under investigation

A committee investigating the operation of school cafeterias throughout Belleville will report its findings to the Board of Education Oct. 17 at a meeting of the Board.

Organized at the Sept. 19 meeting of the Board, the committee consists of Trustees Michael Chieffo and Ralph Risoli.

"I am not satisfied with the operation of the cafeteria," Risoli said. "It's not managed right there are too many employees or something."

Risoli continued, "I don't like the way the food is purchased there and don't want to lose money."

The trustee said it was his understanding that the state did not allow the Board of Education to reap any profit from the operation of the cafeteria.

"Whatever the cafeteria earns slightly over expenses for operation can be put back into the system for cafeteria equipment," Mary Shader, Board secretary-business administrator, clarified.

The committee members will meet with Mrs. Shader during the course of their investigation.

Third fall fest opens Saturday

Christ Episcopal Church, 393 Washington Ave., will hold its Third Annual Octoberfest this Saturday from 5 p.m. to midnight.

Knockwurst, sauerkraut and hot German potato salad, as well as dessert and coffee, are just some of the culinary delights to be featured at the fall affair.

Children's dinner portions are priced at $1.50 and adults at $3.

Beer steins, which entitle the owner to beer or birch beer all evening, will also be on sale.

The chairman of the event is William Iden. Committee members include Lillian Westcott, Josephine Robustello, Dan McCarthy, Tom Iden, and Kim and Chris Long.

More information may be obtained by calling 751-0616.

Ray Bateman slips in debate

Monday night Democratic Governor Brendan Byrne and Republican Senator Raymond Bateman, both contesting for the Governorship, engaged in a debate sponsored by the New Jersey League of Women Voters in Atlantic City.

During the course of the debate, Ray Bateman charged that some of Governor Byrne's cabinet officers had financial interests in Atlantic City casinos. Byrne responded, "That's a lie, and you know it." Bateman came back with the observation, "What about Carella?" Well, what about Carella?

We have known and respected Ray Bateman for almost 25 years — a quarter of a century. During this time we developed a relationship of mutual respect and friendship. We have known Charlie Carella for a shorter period of time, but as with Bateman, a feeling of mutual respect, trust and friendship has developed. We have known Brendan Byrne for a number of years, and throughout the association there has developed a feeling of mutual respect and friendship. So the comments that follow are not of strangers but about friends.

Charlie Carella is presently Chairman of the New Jersey Racing Commission, a job that pays no salary. He has been out of the Governor's cabinet since early 1976 — a period of 20 months.

Recently, the New Jersey Ethics Standard Commission issued a public statement to the effect that Carella's representation of a client who is interested in building a hotel and transportation facility in Atlantic City does not represent a conflict of interest.

By no stretch of the imagination can anyone imply that Carella has a financial interest in an Atlantic City casino.

We think Ray Bateman was wrong in making the charge, and he would be better advised to address himself to the main issues of the campaign — and Charlie Carella is not one of them.

Animal care

The State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners recently voted to rescind new rules governing veterinary conduct regarding emergency care for animals — even before the rules had a chance to go into effect.

The action cancelled a Board decision in June to require veterinarians to provide emergency care services by either being on call or making arrangements with another doctor to be available in case of emergency.

The new rules even carried a threat of disciplinary action if a vet failed to provide emergency service.

Before the rules went into effect, the Board was reorganized and three new members joined the minority to rescind the new rules.

Consumer Affairs Director Adam K. Levin immediately denounced the Board action charging the action taken was self-serving and against the public interests.

We believe if the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners refuses to reconsider its unreasonable action and readopt the new rules, the Legislature should take matters into its own hands and do by law what should be done administratively.

PLAY REVIEW

'Camelot': fleeting wisp of glory

By John Jurich

Proposition: I think therefore I am. Okay, I suppose. Proposition: I am therefore I think. Not necessarily, at least not in the case of King Arthur of Camelot, who, to be technical, never was or did much thinking.

The legendary English monarch is the somewhat thick but well-meaning hero of the fairy tale musical, "Camelot," which opened Friday at the Family Playhouse and continues this weekend at times to be specified later in this article.

Anyway, that Arthur never quite learned to think is not surprising since as a boy he was brought up by the all-seeing magician Merlin who did his thinking for him.

Passing Father Time somewhere on the deck, Merlyn marches backwards from the future to the past and so is able to reveal to Arthur what life has in store for him. Unfortunately, Merlyn is scheduled to be bewitched by the sorceress Nimue and is plucked from the scene leaving Arthur only a few tattered clues to the future.

Just at this point, Arthur takes Guenevere for his queen. The couple lives happily somewhat after 'til one day the idealistic Arthur decides to found the Knights of the Round Table, a sort of medieval Peace Corps. Attracted by the Table's "might for right" ideal, the French super knight Lancelot comes to Camelot laden with virtue.

Though he has never tasted the sinful joys of maidenhood, Lancelot soon falls in love with Guenevere. After he brings a knight whom he has just skewered in a joust back to life, the affection is returned, and the wisdom of Merlyn's warning that love and marriage are not the same thing becomes clear to Arthur.

Rather than have the two lovers burned at the stake, Arthur tolerates the affair. The evil Mordred, Arthur's illegitimate son by another enchantment, arrives at Camelot, however, discovers his father is a cuckoo, traps Lance and Guenevere and forces a confrontation that brings the destruction of Camelot. Lancelot saves his love from the stake, and Arthur is left at the end only with a "fleeting wisp of glory."

The Frederick Loewe-Alan Jay Lerner musical, of course, is a lot more fun than this stark retelling of the tale would make it sound. The songs are great as always with this team, the musical is instantly memorable, the words devastatingly clever with a dash of anachronism thrown in for comic effect.

As for the playhouse production, it was the best thing I've seen there (28 Brookline Ave.) so far in my admittedly short career as a reviewer. The cast looked like it was having a good time, and the audience Saturday night certainly was. The performers were all very strong, though one or two couldn't be heard all that well over the small ensemble.

Being heard was no problem for Larry Weiner (Lancelot) whose booming voice was about the only thing that stopped the people behind me from talking during the whole play.

Helen Steblecki (Guenevere) was worth fighting over and David Westin (Mordred) was suitably slimy. Joan Franklin (Voice of Nimue) had about the nicest voice in the cast, and it's too bad she couldn't have appeared on stage.

The best thing about "Camelot," though, was Michael Mulcahy (Arthur). I think it was that idiotic grin he kept flashing when he said things like, "Besides, battles are splendid fun." Mulcahy made the show splendid fun.

So go see "Camelot" before somebody turns you into a toad. The show goes on Friday and Saturday 8 p.m., Sunday at 3 p.m. Tickets are $4 and $3.50 with special student, senior citizen and group rates. For information and reservations, call 997-5626 or 284-0404.

Prayer for today

We thank Thee, Lord, for the glory of the late days and the excellent face of Thy sun. We thank Thee for good news received. We thank Thee for the pleasures we have enjoyed and for those we have been able to confer. And now, when the clouds gather and the rain impends, permit us not to be cast down; let us not lose the savor of past mercies and past pleasures; but, like the voice of a bird singing in the rain, let grateful memory survive in the hour of darkness. If there be in front of us any painful duty, strengthen us with the grace of courage; if any act of mercy, teach us tenderness and patience.

Robert-Louis Stevenson

TODAY'S MEDITATION

Setting new goals

How many of us have set up a goal for ourselves and then, when we have reached it, been content to stop there? Sir Donald Campbell says that when his father broke a world's record he immediately set for himself a still higher goal. The moment we become satisfied with things as they are, the moment we are content with the status quo, we begin to move backward. We cannot hold our own by standing still or by doing nothing for all life is movement, forward or backward. This idea of setting new goals for ourselves is the secret of personal challenge and growth and also the means of progress in many fields of endeavor.

Stranger's life saved by Belleville workers

To the Editor:

On Friday, August 12th, my mother, Jessie Bayer, and I were at Deanna's Beauty Shop on Joramelon and Passaic Aves., having our hair set in preparation for the August 13th wedding of Ed Bayer, of LaGrange, Ill., and Clotilde Westly of Belleville. Just as her hair-do was being completed, Jessie was stricken with an attack and became unconscious. After unsuccessful attempts to revive her, there followed a series of quick and expert efforts and in a matter of minutes my mother was in ER at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Thanks to the quick action of Deanna and her other beauticians, the Police and the Fire Dept., paramedics, and the hospital staff, Jessie was revived and is now doing well at home in Algonquin, Ill. It is so gratifying to know that even when you are a stranger and are in trouble, the local people will come to your aid and treat you with the kindness and compassion that was afforded Jessie Bayer. Thank you, everyone.

Sincerely,

Gail L. Donkersloot
26 Woodview La., Algonquin Ill.

Coeyman descendants are asked to respond

To the Editor:

I am attempting to trace my ancestors who lived in the North Newark-Belleville-Nutley area in the period 1698-1900. I should like to make contact with any descendants of the Coeyman family — or with anyone having records or knowledge of the family.

Readers may contact me at 21 Astor Place, Glen Ridge. My phone number is 743-2530. Thank You.

Sincerely,

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

We are keenly disappointed and somewhat shocked at Essex County Democratic party suzerain Harry Lerner's by-passing Belleville's Mayor Marotti in the appointment of Under Sheriff to popular Sheriff John Cryan.

Conversation with Sheriff Cryan establishes that he recognized Marotti's competency and long training in law enforcement work made him eminently qualified and capable to have undertaken the role as his under sheriff and that he would have welcomed his appointment to that post.

Unfortunately, in Essex County, Harry Lerner, County Chairman of the Democratic party which presently controls the Court House political appointments, "calls all the shots" on who gets what and when. We understand that he was besieged with numerous demands from various racial groups clamoring for appointment of one of their groups to the Under Sheriff job, which largely influenced the sage political boss to deviate from the traditional balance in the County Sheriff's department of those in the top positions being of Irish-Italian lineage.

While we may understand Lerner's yielding to racial pressure, we abhor his breaking with successful traditional racial combinations for reasons of political expediency. We fail to justify or condone his declining to sanction Mayor Marotti's appointment to the post. Surely, Marotti is of Italian extraction and possessive of all the talents and experience of the man to whom Lerner gave the nod. We would like to know "How come?" Doesn't Lerner feel he needs the Italian vote?

We learned that Comm. Mary Senatore, town democratic Chairlady, went "all out" to get the appointment for Mayor Marotti, as did a lot of other prominent Democratic party leaders; All to no avail while big boss Lerner, sitting in his Ivory Tower, would only lend a deaf ear to their entreaties in behalf of our Mayor.

To all this, Mayor Marotti displays a discreet, philosophic attitude. His comments are limited on the subject and reserved. He is a popular, capable young public official whose star is rapidly rising in the political firmament. Time is on his side. He can wait. We say, but not for long.

While we respect the commendable tolerance shown by Mr. Marotti of his disappointment in not getting the appointment, we must point out clearly what has been a long and consistently obnoxious policy of County Democratic Boss Lerner in only tossing a few insignificant crumbs in the way of patronage in recognition of the heavy vote the Belleville citizens have provided in support of Democratic candidates. Lerner's reluctance to give the appointment to Mayor Marotti is just another glaring evidence of his "taking Belleville for granted."

This time it might "boomerange." A lot of Belleville voters love Mike Marotti. He's, as many of them, of Italian lineage. They can't be happy their man didn't get the job, but they're going to vote in the November election. The democrats have a fine candidate running for State Senator for this District, Mayor Rodgers from Harrison, he's not Italian. Senator Tony Imperiale is an Independent candidate for the same office. Big Tony Imperiale is popular on this side of the Passaic River and he's Italian. Now Mr. "Boss" Lerner whom do you think these Belleville voters may now be disposed to vote for as Senator for this District? What you did Mr. Lerner in by-passing our Mayor just might cost you a Democratic Senator, especially now that Sen. Imperiale has withdrawn from the race for Governor and can concentrate on retaining his Senate seat, even with a little help from the Republicans whose gubernatorial candidate, Ray Bateman, he is helping.

Should this happen, as well it may, perhaps in the future you will not treat so lightly the importance of the Belleville voters and those whom they select as their leaders. Mr. "Boss" Lerner... people get tired of being "pushed around" and only getting a few bones, especially when they deserve much better treatment in return for what they have offered and produced.

R and S Auto expansion OK'd

Citing increased competition from the new Grand Union Shopping Plaza, R and S Auto Center, 11 Washington Ave., has won approval from the Board of Adjustment to expand.

By unanimous vote at last week's meeting, the Zoners agreed to allow Roth-Schlenger Inc. to build a one-story service bay addition onto the company's present structure.

In other business, the Board granted Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sisbaro, 239 Joralemon St., permission to build an extension onto the rear of their two-family house. The couple had asked for the extension to increase their living quarters and add more kitchen space.

The Board of Adjustment meets again next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hartdorn - formerly Marilyn Vehslage

Mrs. David Brady - nee Catherine Curley

Mrs. Marilyn Vehslage Honeymoon in Bermuda bride of Walter Hartdorn For Mr. and Mrs. Brady

Wedding vows were exchanged June 26 by Mrs. Marilyn Vehslage, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William McCoy of Belleville and Walter Hartdorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hartdorn Sr. of 481 Union Avenue, Belleville.

Mayor Michael Marotti performed the ceremony at Branch Brook Manor, Belleville. A reception followed.

The bride wore a light blue gown with rhinestone beading. Her headpiece was a light blue bow and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses, white daisies and blue babies breath.

Mrs. John Bonnell of Irvington was matron of honor in a pink gown with rhinestone beading. She wore a pink bow in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, white daisies and pink babies breath.

Raymond Hartdorn Sr. of Belleville was best man.

The groom's mother wore a turquoise blue floral printed gown and had a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Hartdorn, an alumna of St. Michael's High School, Newark and St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing, Passaic, received her bachelor of science degree in nursing from Seton Hall University. She is a private duty nurse.

Mr. Hartdorn is with Reister-Weidmann Co., Inc., Belleville.

The couple honeymooned in New York State and on a motor trip to Florida and have made their home in Belleville.

Miss Catherine M. Curley, daughter of Mrs. Michael J. Curley of Essex Street, Belleville and Daniel F. Brady, son of Mrs. Daniel Brady of Bloomfield, were married Sept. 18 in Immaculate Conception Church, Newark.

The Rev. James Heavey of St. Peter's Church, Belleville, performed the ceremony and a reception followed at Friar Tuck Inn, Cedar Grove.

Escorted by her brother, Michael Curley, the bride wore a gown of white organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace fashioned with an empire waist, high neckline, long fitted sleeves and attached chapel length train.

A matching lace Camelot cap held her bouffant veil and she carried white and pink baby roses.

Miss Sharon O'Donnell of Harrison was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Bernadette Curley of Belleville, sister of the bride, Miss Marybeth Lanzotti of Chatham, niece of the bride, Miss Philomena McEnery of Belleville, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Patricia Lisi of Fort Lee, Virginia, sister of the groom.

They were attired in peach gowns with chiffon floral capes. Headpieces were daisies-tipped in peach.

Terence Doran of Bloomfield served as best man. Ushering were Timothy Webb of Bloomfield, John Curley of Belleville, brother of the bride, Frank Sweeney of Montclair and David Carter of Bloomfield.

Mrs. Brady chose a pink gown trimmed with sequins and featuring a matching chiffon cape. The groom's mother was in a light blue sequin trimmed gown with long chiffon sleeves. Corsages were baby orchids.

Mrs. Brady, an alumna of East Orange Catholic High School, is a bookkeeper with the Town of Belleville.

Mr. Brady, a graduate of Seton Hall Prep, South Orange and New Jersey Institute of Technology, is an engineer with Exxon Research and Engineering, Florham Park.

The couple honeymooned in Bermuda and have made their home in Morris Plains.

Susan Duplak, David Pospisil are engaged to be married

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duplak of Passaic announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Marie to David Roy Pospisil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pospisil of 318 Park Avenue.

The troth was made known August 21 at Rosol Dul Post, Passaic.

Miss Duplak, an alumna of Pope Pius XII High School, is with Valley National Bank.

Mr. Pospisil, a graduate of Nutley High School, attends RETS Electronic School, Nutley. He is with Stop and Shop.

The wedding is planned for May 1979.

Miss Susan Duplak

Historical Society meets Tuesday at Christ Church

The Belleville Historical Society will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Christ Episcopal Church.

During the Bicentennial reenactment of Washington's Army's retreat, Neil Horne of the Society filmed the event as the group passed through Belleville, lead by Rev.

Frederick Long of Christ Episcopal Church. The film also showed the Reformed Church where Rev. Long and the pastor, Rev. Rutter, conducted services. The film was sent to Bob Herb, coordinator-director of the Retreat who took it to Trenton where, Sept. 12, it was placed in a capsule in the New Jersey Archives. The capsule, which contains many moments of the year, will be opened in 2077 when the country celebrates its tricentennial.

Faculty advisors get pay hike from Board

The faculty advisors of 13 activities sponsored by Belleville Junior High and High Schools are now receiving extra pay.

All Board of Education members, with the exception of Trustee Matthew Pica, favored the extra pay authorization when it came up for a vote this summer.

Pica questioned the advisability of paying Augustus McGinnis an additional $200 for his direction of the high school audio-visual program.

The Trustee noted that McGinnis already does not teach as many hours as other high school teachers.

Superintendent of schools Dr. John Greed told the Board that McGinnis does not teach the usual number of classes, which amounts to five teaching periods of 40 minutes each.

"The job that Mr. McGinnis does involves time during school, but also hours outside of the scheduled school day," Dr. Greed noted. "For this time, he should be paid the additional amount."

The superintendent questioned the values of the Board saying members take exception to paying for student activities and blindly approve coaches' salaries which are much higher.

"The people who sponsor these student activities don't do it for money because there is no money in the job considering the work involved," Dr. Greed said.

McGinnis' extra pay was approved in addition to pay for high school advisors Sandra Boyajian and Daria Bonavita, $267 each, twirlers and color guard; Margaret Moscatello, $400, cheerleading; John Pepe, $700, band and Robert Lefebvre, $200 plus an additional $200 from student funds, dramatics.

The following high school advisors' non-contractual salaries were also approved: Robert McDonough, $200, senior class; Samuel Gufrida, $100, junior class; Marilyn Mango, $100, sophomore class; Elsie Winslip, $100, National Honor Society; George Zanfiri, $100, Key Club, and Ann Karen McLean, $300 plus $200 from yearbook funds, yearbook.

Three Junior High School activities sponsors will be reimbursed for extra services.

NOTICE

Buying a new or used car is serious business. Face it, you're spending a lot of money and you want to be sure it's worth it, especially if it's a used car. You're not sure exactly what you're getting and wonder if you're simply buying someone else's headaches. RIGHT?

KENNETH MOTORS recognizes these fears and, believe it or not, they want to help. So, they've come up with an informative weekly series, "KEN'S CAR CLUES," which will begin Oct. 5, 1977. This series will feature helpful hints on used car buying — in other words what to look (out) for. Even if you think you know everything about cars, you may find something in our column that will surprise you. So be watching... there's more to used car buying than meets the eye!

RAISE $640 DOOR-TO-DOOR

Boys fight dystrophy

Ten Belleville youths raised $640 for muscular dystrophy when they collected door-to-door and at a local shopping center during the Labor Day Weekend.

The boys began collecting Friday morning and finished their campaign at 7 p.m. Sunday evening.

"All of the boys were fantastic," Mrs. Philip Lazaro, one of their mothers, said. "They are all typical kids, but when they found out the total amount that they had raised each one of them broke into tears."

Mrs. Lazaro said that her son, Eddie, and Mike Saggau have been collecting for muscular dystrophy for years, and this year a group of friends decided to join them in their efforts.

In the past, the boys usually totalled around $140," she noted. "This time they set a $200 and then a $300 goal, but they never expected to get over $600."

The collecting was done in teams of two to avoid any hassles that might arise if the youths collected alone, Mrs. Lazaro said.

She noted that the larger portion of the $640 came from the boys' efforts at the Grand Union Shopping Center. Donations from homes in the boys' neighborhood also were received.

Those who collected include David Grant and Carl Hauschild, both 11; Eddie Lazaro, Bobby Stecker, Victor Canning, Greg Hill and Mike Fishetta, all 12; Vincent Resciniti, 13, and Mike Saggau and Faust DeFranco, both 16.

Most of them live in the valley section of Belleville. They were helped in tallying the figures by Cathy and Jackie Lazaro and Lisa Fishetta, sisters of two of the boys.

One of the highlights of the boys' weekend was a barbecue given by Mr. and Mrs. Lazaro at their home at 349 Steven St. During the barbecue, they were able to hear their names mentioned on the Jerry Lewis Telethon.

Mrs. Lazaro noted that the boys' enthusiasm and excitement over reaching such a high total led them to say that next year they'll try to raise $1,000 for the muscular dystrophy cause. Mrs. Lazaro added, "I think they can do it, too."

New group is campaigning for county charter change

The campaign for Charter Change in Essex County was launched last Sunday with a champagne party that officially opened county headquarters at 4 Sloan St., South Orange.

Mayors and Council members of the 22 Essex municipalities, as well as members of the League of Women Voters and other supporters of the charter change were invited to attend the two-hour-long opening.

The non-partisan Charter Change group plans to distribute bumperstickers and buttons, provide speakers and canvass voters throughout the county. The group is welcoming volunteers.

"The four-year battle to place the question of Charter Change on the ballot is entering a new phase, as we shift from placement to passage of the referendum in November," Jeanne Graves, chairman of the Sunday event, said.

A county-wide effort will be made within the next few weeks to inform voters of the advantages of the COUNTY EXECUTIVE PLAN with Freeholders elected from districts rather than the current system of an at-large-elected Board of Freeholders, and to urge a yes vote, Mrs. Graves said.

"The changes proposed in the public question will move Essex County into the twentieth century," Joan Field, coordinator of citizens for Charter Change in Essex County, said. "With county taxes rising yearly, Essex taxpayers are entitled to the most economical, efficient and responsible government possible."

She added that a new charter will go a long way to make such goals a reality.

The question that will be put on the ballot reads: "Shall the County Executive Plan of the Optional County Charter Law be adopted for Essex County with provision for a Board of Freeholders of nine members elected for concurrent terms and elected five by district and four at-large."

For more information, contact Citizens for Change Headquarters, 762-9575, or Joyce Hollander, publicity, 376-6919.

'Rollathon' to help recruit Girl Scouts

The Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County is planning a "Rollathon," to help kick off a large scale recruitment drive beginning Saturday, October 15, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The route of the "Rollathon," (motorcade) through Belleville includes Union Ave. from Nutley, left on Mill St. and right onto Broadway, Newark.

This is Greater Essex's first attempt at a motorcade of this kind and the National Guard has agreed to assist in the event.

The "Rollathon" is scheduled to travel through every town and city in Greater Essex County. The Council's recruitment drive extends to November 14.

Outdoor fun at Marotti picnic

Calling All Units — Seated on a table under the trees at Old Cider Mill Grove in Union, where the picnic was held, were three police officers. From left, they are Artie Connolly and Joe Simonetti of the Belleville Police Department and Fred DeMayo of the Essex County Sheriff's Department.

Touchdown Form — George Anderson holds off some charging defenders and rears back for the pass. There were games, food and drink for all at the Sunday affair.

Sale days in Belleville

The Chamber of Commerce here is sponsoring a two-day Belleville Sidewalk Sale "Super Jamboree" beginning tomorrow and continuing through Saturday.

At last count, nine Washington Ave. shops had signed up to participate in the sale, but Harry French, executive director of the Chamber, expected more to be offering bargains by tomorrow.

The first nine to indicate they'd participate are Terry Shops, Belleville Shoes, the County Discount Store, National Shoes, Formally Yours, Triple S Sport Center, Mary Dell's, Louaie's Men's Shop and Fat Phil's.

"We are still calling on some of the businesses that participated in the sidewalk sales of the past," French said, "so the number of shops definitely will be increased before the sale days."

Merchants entering the sidewalk sale submitted a $20 participating fee to the Chamber of Commerce. The fee covers publicity, signs and advertising.

"So much depends on the weather on the days of the sidewalk sales and also on the number of residents who are away on various trips and vacations," French noted.

He said that one of the big values of the sidewalk sale is that shoppers get the opportunity of seeing what a variety of shops on Washington Ave. are offering for the current season, all at the one time.

"Also, shoppers who haven't been on Washington Ave. for years often reacquaint themselves with the shops there during a special time like a sidewalk sale," French said.

The director added that even though all sidewalk sales in Belleville have been successful, the Chamber still would like to see more people out in the street. "The bigger the traffic, the more people we'll attract," he noted.

Frank Vespasiano, 88; retired dairy mechanic

A funeral Mass was offered Tuesday in Sacred Heart Church, Vailsburg, for Frank Vespasiano, 88, who died Saturday at home.

Mr. Vespasiano was a mechanic with the Philadelphia Dairy Products Co., Newark, for 35 years before his retirement in 1964. An Army veteran of World War I, he was a member of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club, American Legion Post 395 of East Orange and the Societa Abruzzese Sabielle D'Anunzio, Vailsburg.

Born in Italy, Mr. Vespasiano lived in Newark many years before moving to Belleville five years ago.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Marie Hackett, Mrs. Adeline

Burns, Mrs. Claire Resciniti and Mrs. Lonnie Best; a son, Louis, 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Arrangements were made by the Bernardinelli Funeral Home, Newark. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, East Orange.

Marotti Association out to the ballgames

The Michael V. Marotti Civic Association will stage a dinner today at the Chandelier Restaurant. Association members will travel to New York following the dinner to see the Broadway hit, "Chorus Line." The events are chaired by Michael Chief.

Tomorrow, the group will attend a baseball game at Yankee Stadium as the pennant race winds to a close. The trip has become an annual event on the Association calendar.

And this Saturday, immediate past president Michael Rosamilia will run a bus ride to Giants Stadium to see the American championship Cosmos soccer team in a game that will mark the great Pele's last appearance as a player. The Cosmos take on the Santos team of Brazil, former World Cup champions and the team on which Pele played before coming to the Cosmos. Pele is slated to play the first half with the Cosmos and the second with the Santos team.

Candidates support senior citizen bills

Assemblymen Michael Aduato and John Cali, Democrats, 30th District, say they have demonstrated active commitment toward more just treatment of senior citizens.

"If all that we stand for in this society, can't lend itself to a true regard and concern for the senior citizens," Aduato said, "then we might as well forget about calling ourselves civilized."

Aduato and Cali say they have worked for legislation rights for nursing home residents.

"One part of our concern has been our work to increase the time criminals must stay in jail after they have been convicted of a crime against a senior citizen or a disabled person," Cali said.

St. Peter's Holy Name sponsors social Oct. 1

Senior notes

By GEORGE CHENOWETH

Two busloads of happy seniors from the Belleville Senior Citizens Club returned to Belleville on Friday afternoon after an enjoyable stay at Wildwood Crest. The usual or better than usual good time was enjoyed by all. The weather, although not quite perfect, still allowed all of us to do all of the things that were on the schedule plus some extra side trips. One to Atlantic City on a bright sunny day, a fishing trip for those who wanted to go, a night club on Wednesday with top-notch entertainment, a cookout, and the best gourmet dinners at a different restaurant each evening. Thursday was the wind-up with our own "Ramblin' Sam" furnishing the music and yours truly acting as master of ceremonies. Mary and Michael Cicale were our genial hosts and arrangers and to them we owe an extra vote of thanks for providing us with a wonderful time.

Don't forget blood pressure test day today at the Senior Recreation Center. Nurses will be in attendance from 1:15 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. Take advantage, seniors, of this important service, it could save your life!

The Essex County Council of Senior Citizens Clubs invited as guests, for their Monday meeting, speakers advocating a different form of charter for Essex County and also those who are against change in the present charter. Ms. Renee Lane from the speakers bureau of the organization for charter change mentioned many reasons for new guide lines. The invited guest against the change did not appear at the meeting and the delegates received, for this reason, a rather slanted view. The Council had hoped to present both sides of the issue to the delegates for an unbiased view so that they could decide whether or not they would advocate change. This issue will be on the ballot in November.

seniors take notice: Eye screening tests, free, at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital today from 6 to 8 p.m. Use the main entrance to the hospital and follow the signs. Early detection is important and could prevent more serious problems later on.

AARP to discuss cancer unit Oct. 6

Members will learn about the new Cancer Research Unit at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital from a representative of the hospital's public relations department.

The group's program committee will present information about various activities for the coming season Thursday.

Thursday, Dec. 13 has been set as the date for the AARP annual Christmas party. The affair will be held at Gene Boyle's in Clinton. Ticket price will be announced at a later date.

Carbat Post installs officers

Joseph J. Carbat Post 299 held its annual installation of officers with the Post Auxiliary Sept. 17. Over 200 legionnaires and auxiliaries from posts in Essex County attended the ceremony.

Thomas Byrne, son of Gov. Brendan T. Byrne, spoke to the gathering on Veterans' Affairs. Other guests included Mayor Michael Marotti, Commissioner Vincent Strumulo and Newark Deputy Mayor Carmen Biase.

Essex County Commander Philip DeSarno installed the legionnaires while Essex County President Florence DeAngelis conducted the auxiliaries' inductions.

Schwartz applauds decision by state PTA executives

The New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA), headed by Belleville Lawrence Schwartz, recently applauded the decision by the executive committee of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers (PTA) to endorse the use of student progress as a measure of teacher competence.

Schwartz commented that he was very pleased to learn that the PTA had joined with New Jersey's Boards of Education.

"Some measure must be found to make it practical to identify incompetent teachers, attempt to help them improve and, failing to do so, to remove them from the classroom," the NJSBA president said.

Schwartz pointed out that the NJSBA has submitted recommendations for the evaluation of tenured teaching staff members to the State Board of Education, Sept. 7.

"It is unacceptable," he said, "for a process for the evaluation of educational professionals not to reflect the school's basic purpose and therefore the professional's essential responsibility for student progress."

He continued, "Ultimately, the district board of education is legally and ethically accountable for insuring that student progress is effectively used as one criterion for the evaluation of appropriate professional responsibilities."

It is very gratifying that the PTA, the NJSBA's fellow public interest representative, has so clearly expressed the deep common concern for the welfare of students, Schwartz added.

The NJSBA president is also a member of the Belleville Board of Education.

BHS parents urged to go 'back to school' October 19

Belleville High School's annual open house is slated for Oct. 19. Dr. John Greed, superintendent of schools, will open the evening with a brief meeting concerning the new addition to the high school.

Visitors then will take a tour of the current facilities, following their child's daily school schedule. Opportunities to meet faculty members will be available, after which coffee will be served in the school cafeteria. The high school administration urges parents not to miss the opportunity to "go back to school."

Marge Herter, president of the Senior High School Home and School Association, said that membership enrollment in the organization will commence that evening.

Kearny Boystown plans rummage sale

The New Jersey's Boystown Ladies' Guild will hold a Rummage Sale tomorrow at 8 p.m. and Saturday at 10 a.m. The sale will be held in the Boystown Gymnasium, 475 Belgrave Dr., Kearny.

Items available include: electrical appliances, toys, television, clothing, furniture, jewelry, candy and many more articles. The entire proceeds will be donated to New Jersey's Boystown, which is not affiliated with any other Boystown.

Newark stuffed shirt arrested in meat theft

A Newark woman seen stuffing pieces of meat down her blouse in a supermarket last Monday was arrested and charged with assault and shoplifting, Belleville police report.

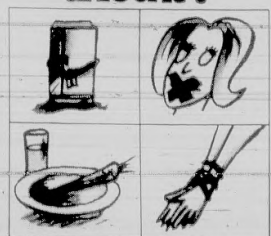

According to authorities, security guard Michael Skidmore of Pathmark Supermarket, 113 Belmont Ave., noticed the woman attempting to steal meat items by concealing them in her blouse. Skidmore told police when he approached the woman she pushed him and tried to run. A man, apparently with her, hit him and also ran.

Officers Anthony LaVista and George Sheridan, called to the scene, arrested the woman but her male accomplice escaped, police said.

The woman was pending a court appearance on $50 bail yesterday.

All 5% interest rates are not created equal.

Although these four savings accounts all give a 5% interest rate, they each earn different amounts of money. Because they each compute the interest differently, Midlantic Bank computes its 5% interest using the "Day-of-Deposit to Day-of-Withdrawal" method. As you can see, this is the one that earns the most money for you.

Another advantage of our 5% savings plan is that it doesn't require a passbook. Instead, you receive a statement in the mail every three months that shows you everything a passbook would.

Come in and we'll be glad to assist you in opening a 5% Day-of-Deposit to Day-of-Withdrawal Savings Account and answer any questions you may have on why our 5% interest rate is just a little more equal than some other banks' 5% interest rate.

Fruchtbaum elected Mental Health head

Dr. Robert Fruchtbaum of Nutley has been elected president of the board of trustees of the Community Mental Health Services for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley. Dr. Fruchtbaum succeeds Paul J. Cunningham of Bloomfield who was president from 1973-77.

Other officers elected at the board's recent annual meeting were Marie Carlone, Bloomfield, vice president; Marie DeMaio, Bloomfield, secretary; and Howard Fonz, Nutley, treasurer. Fonz is president of the Nutley Family Service Bureau.

Dr. Fruchtbaum brings a background of community and professional service to the board presidency. He is a past president of the Nutley Family Service Bureau and the Nutley Community Council. A former practitioner and school physician, he has been connected with Hoffmann-LaRoche as a medical researcher.

Currently, Dr. Fruchtbaum is a consultant at Roche lecturing on pre-retirement health and related services. Dr. and Mrs. Fruchtbaum have a son, a daughter and five grandchildren.

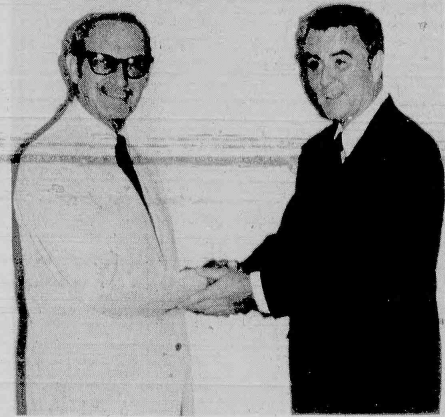

Forty percent of the cost of running the Services agency is picked up by the three towns involved. The state of New Jersey pays the rest.

The agency provides a Family Life Planning Program and a Volunteer Friendly Visitor Program for the sick and elderly. Both operations are funded by state and county grants at no extra cost to the three communities.

The State Department of Education provides money for the Services' Therapeutic Nursery School and its summer camp. The Therapeutic Summer Camp, now in its sixth year, was aided substantially this season by proceeds from the Roche Players spring benefit production of "Can Can."

Once and Future Presidents — Dr. Robert P. Fruchtbaum of Nutley (left), newly elected president of the board of trustees of the Community Mental Health Services for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, is congratulated by Paul J. Cunningham, outgoing president.

Clara Maass sets eye screening for glaucoma and cataracts today

A free Eye Screening Clinic will be held today from 6 to 8 p.m. at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

This screening procedure is to detect evidence of any eye disease or of any systemic disease reflected in the eyes which should have treatment of follow-up by a licensed physician. The program is open to all persons over the age of 35 who are not already receiving ophthalmological care.

Today, one of every eight blind persons is a victim of glaucoma. Practically all of them had normal vision most of their lives, but sometime after 35, they lost their sight because of undetected glaucoma.

Basically, glaucoma is the building up of fluid pressure in the eyeball. If detected in the early stages, it can be controlled to prevent blindness.

Older members of the population should be tested because glaucoma is like a sneak thief — stealing sight without one being aware of its presence.

Cataract is the clouding of the lens within the eyeball. It blocks the passage of light rays needed for sight.

There are no ointments, pills, drops or magic potions known today that will dissolve, absorb, retard or prevent the progress of cataract. There is only one known possible cure — surgery.

Although a delicate operation, cataract surgery has been perfected to a point where it is safe and effective. The results of surgery are dramatic in restoring sight.

If anyone is hesitant about having this free eye test he should close his eyes for a few seconds. During this period there is total darkness — this is exactly what a blind person sees.

Clara Maass' program is being held in conjunction with a statewide Eye Health Screening Program. This eye testing is under the sponsorship of the Medical Society of New Jersey acting through its Special Committee on the Conservation of Vision.

Governor Byrne has issued a formal proclamation declaring the week of Sept. 25 "Eye Health Week" in New Jersey.

Physicians participating in the Eye Screening Program at Clara Maass are Eugene A. Chiappetta of Belleville; Anthony P. D'Amato of Newark; Philip N. Eichler of Belleville; Joseph M. Landolfi of East Orange; James A. Parisi of Belleville; James T. Pizzi of Belleville and Elaine Schulman of Belleville.

The screening procedure is not a complete examination. The eye screening detects many — but not all — abnormal conditions.

Everyone should have an eye examination by an ophthalmologist at regular intervals to safeguard their eyes.

If you are not personally acquainted with an ophthalmologist (a Doctor of Medicine specializing in the care and treatment of the eye) your physician will advise you.

Continuing Ed Day coming Thursday

Parents and seniors are invited to attend Belleville High's "In School, Continuing Education Day," Thursday, October 6, from 8:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the school library.

Those institutions slated to send representatives include Bloomfield College, Berkeley School, Caldwell College, Capri School of Hair Design, Essex County College, Fairleigh Dickinson University, Felician College, Jersey City State, Glassboro State, Kean State, Lincoln Technical School, Monmouth College.

Mountainside School of Nursing, Montclair State College, New Jersey Institute of Technology, Ramapo State, Ridgewood School of Art, Rutgers, Sayer School, Stevens Institute of Technology, Stockton State College, Seton Hall University, Taylor Business Institute, Trenton State College, Upsala College and William Paterson College as well as representatives from the armed forces.

Schools show student drop

Enrollment in Belleville's elementary, junior high and high schools is down this year, and will continue to decrease, according to information supplied by Dr. John Greed, superintendent of schools.

"We have been losing about 100 pupils each year and will probably lose at least that many this year," Dr. Greed noted.

The superintendent said that on the first Monday of school this month, 5,330 pupils attended classes in Belleville schools. That compares to 5,558 students in schools on the first Monday last year.

Attendance in the high school registered 59 less than at the same time last year — the junior high difference amounted only to 18 fewer students, though.

Enrollment in local elementary schools has either remained the same as last year or decreased, according to figures supplied by the superintendent.

Relatively stable enrollments have been recorded at Schools No. 1 and 4, while decreases of 10 to 14 pupils occurred at Schools No. 2, 9 and 10.

The greatest drops in student enrollment are noted at Schools No. 3, 5, 7 and 8, where students number from 28 to 36 fewer than they did last year.

Greed noted that Belleville schools have lost 453 pupils in the past five years. According to end-of-the-year reports, in 1972-73, 6322 pupils attended schools here; in 1973-74, 6,210; in 1974-75, 6,127; in 1975-76, 6,011, and in 1976-77, 5,859.

There is no specific data as to why the decrease in enrollments has taken place, but there are all kinds of theories, Dr. Greed said. He added that a decrease in the birth rate is a factor in the enrollment drop.

Birth rates have dropped in Belleville during the last five years, Ralph Risoli, town registrar, noted.

Figures supplied by him show that 425 births were recorded to Belleville residents in 1972; 390 in 1973; 363 in 1974; 345 in 1975 and 414 in 1976.

Risoli did not explain the sudden jump in births last year, but did say that the overall decrease in births here would even further affect the drop in school enrollments in Belleville.

Stoneham gains associate title

Michael J. Stoneham of Belleville has been promoted to associate director, computer systems, in the computer systems and services office of Prudential Insurance Co., Roseland.

Prior to this promotion Stoneham was a senior computer systems analyst seven years. He joined Prudential in 1964 as a programmer.

Gridders battle Mounties next

By MIKE COREY

The postponement of last weekend's game to Tuesday leaves the Blue-Gold football squad just two full days to prepare for Saturday's 1:30 p.m. contest in Montclair.

The Mounties meet the Bellboys fresh from a 14-0 victory over Irvington on a rain soaked field to open the season.

"I would say we are a little further ahead than I thought we would be at this stage of the season," stated Montclair pigskin coach Butch Fortunato in his 38th year at the helm of the Mounties.

Saturday's storm clouds, however, did contain a silver lining. It provided the Belleville coaching staff with the opportunity to see the Mounties in action.

"We really didn't see that much offense from Montclair because of the bad weather and the fact they jumped off to an early lead," explained Belleville coach John Senesky. "They decided to just lay back and eat up as much of the clock as possible after they went ahead."

The Mounties, which finished with a 7-2 mark last season, have only six lettermen back from the '76 squad.

"We're fielding mostly a senior team that really did not play very much last year even on the junior varsity level," said Coach Fortunato.

Senior linemen include center Bob

Caggiano at 5-9 170-pounds; guard Fred Mumford, 6-0 185-pounds; guard Matt Disler, 5-10 170-pounds and Walter Reed 6-0 175-pounds at defensive end.

Montclair is playing more players both ways, offensively and defensively, than ever before, pointed out the Montie mentor.

"We really don't like playing so many people at two positions," stated Coach Fortunato. "The platoon system is much better but our club is so green we had no other choice. We are playing more juniors than we usually do."

Senior Mountie Dan Black, 5-10 175-pounds, who played flanker last year, directs the Montclair offensive unit at quarterback.

"We only completed one pass against Irvington," stated Fortunato. "We were very satisfied with our running attack but hope to complement it with more passing which is what we have been working on this week."

The bulwark of the Montclair ground game is 6-4 220 pound fullback Craig Dunn who powered out 128 yards on 20 carries against the Camptowners to lead all rushers.

"They basically run with their ends in tight and with a full house backfield," Please see "Montclair" on page 17.

Columbia nips booters, 3-2

Belleville's booters posted a tie and a loss last week as the Blue-Gold 1977 soccer schedule began to heat up.

Columbia edged the Bellboys, 3-2, on a rain drenched muddy field at BHS Friday and battled St. Benedict's to a 2-2 stand-still in Newark last Wednesday.

The Blue-Gold foot ballers were slated to take on Kearny, ranked number four in the state, in an away contest but results were not available as this issue went to press.

Belleville invades Bengal territory to face Bloomfield tomorrow, in a game originally scheduled here, before hosting St. Peter's Monday afternoon.

The local soccer squad kicks off with the Eagles of Essex County on Tuesday.

"The kids really wanted to win the Columbia game," stated Bellboy coach Tony Cahill. "And their intensity showed. The defense played incredibly well."

Coach Cahill particularly singled out the performances Gallo Calvuche and Rudy Sabiano for their outstanding defensive play.

"Even the game official came up to me after the game and said Rudy was a helluva player," pointed out the club mentor.

The two defenders were slated to be named co-captains for yesterday's Kearny confrontation, the coach added.

Friday afternoon the Cougars jumped off to an 1-0 lead within the first five minutes of the contest.

The Bellboys kicked back with a score of their own when Jeff Hageman drove a skimming shot under the outstretched hands of the Columbia goalie from 30 yards out to deadlock the game at one-all.

The Cougars went ahead 2-1 with another score in the second period but Belleville demonstrated its offense once again when Ramiro Borja knocked

Former Bellboys enshrined in Hall

Past glories and accomplishments on the Blue-Gold athletic fields were relived and etched forever in the present during the Belleville Athletic Hall of Fame Dinner at the Chandelier Restaurant Friday night.

More than 370 people jammed into the main dining room of the restaurant to help honor the 76 former Bellboy athletes inducted into the Hall.

"We think the affair went well," stated Michael Chieffo who together with Fred "Chick" Puleo were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Hall.

"The important thing," added Chieffo, "is the setting of a standard of excellence for students and athletes at the High School and in town to look up to."

A plague with the names of all the inductees inscribed on it will be placed on display in the trophy case at Belleville High, said Chieffo.

Guest speaker at the event was former Bellevillite Joe Gardi, coach of the special teams for the New York Jets the last two years and one time head coach of the Portland Storm in the now defunct World Football League.

The pro coach invoked the crowd to savor their accomplishments but to remember that the end of an athletic career is not the end but a beginning and to continue setting goals for themselves.

This year's inductees included Belleville High athletes in the four sports of baseball, basketball, football and wrestling who were selected to the first, second or third all-state groups during their

Racket women ached by Cougar courtiers

Overcast skies and wet weather only added to the gloom of the Belleville girls tennis team as the club dropped two contests last week in search of its first win of the year.

Friday, in a match abbreviated by rain, Columbia blanked the Blue-Gold racket women, 4-0, and Wednesday Caldwell notched a 4-1 decision over the local courtiers. Both games were played on the Belleville base lines.

The Bellgirls were slated to face Mountain in an away confrontation not originally listed on the schedule but results of the meet were not available as the Times/News went to press.

The Blue-Gold travel across the Passaic River to take on the Kearny Cardinals tomorrow and come back home to face the Bengalites of Bloomfield Monday before invading the Nutley courts Wednesday to meet the Maroon.

"Columbia is just a superior team," stated tennis coach Karen Fucello commenting on Friday's match. "We're just too inexperienced and inconsistent."

Unfortunately we had to start the varsity tennis program with no background," added the Coach. "And when you start at the varsity level, in any sport, with nothing underneath you you're going to take your shellacks."

Against Columbia, in first singles, junior Toni fell 1-6, 2-6, under the racket of Cougar 11th grader Trish Sinoway.

"Both players are about the same size and are similar in that both do a lot of rallying and neither has a particularly overwhelming serve," said the Blue-Gold Coach.

Second singles action saw Belleville's Denise Juliano, who was part of a doubles combo last year, lose 3-6, 1-6, to Columbia's Beth Kromar.

"Denise's inexperience in singles showed," stated coach Fucello. "The other girl was taller and lankier and had done quite a bit of playing over the summer."

Bronco debut washed away

Heavy weekend rains washed out the Broncos and Bearcats season opener Sunday against Englewood.

The pair of Belleville traveling gridiron clubs are slated to try again this Sunday at Bergenfield before making their home debut versus Dumont October 9.

The Broncos, last season's Essex Junior Football League champs, will be attempting to extend its shutout streak of seven games when it begins play.

In the three years since the Broncos were formed it has compiled a .733 winning percentage posting a 22-8 mark.

Sunday's Bronco contest is begins immediately following the Bearcats game.

The Bearcats were established this season to complement the Broncos and give youngsters the opportunity to gain football knowledge at an earlier age.

The junior teams consist of players between 10 and 14 years old weighing 80 to 150 pounds.

Corner Conference

More than 1,000 fight fans turned out at Belleville High School Friday for 12 charity boxing bouts sponsored by the Multiple Sclerosis Association of Essex County. Amateur fights from around the local area took part in the ring event.

Ball Control

Bellboy Ramiro Borja, right, battles a Cougar player for a loose ball during the home team's 3-2 loss to Columbia, in the rain and the mud, at BHS field Friday.

Court Club

The Blue-Gold tennis squad, in a rare moment of inactivity inside the base lines, pose for a quick pix. The Bellgirls take on the Kardinal rackettes tomorrow afternoon in Kearny.

Columbia Gem Blue-Gold goalie Vito Tamborrino rashes in vain for a ball already tucked safely in the net against Columbia. The Cougar score within the first five minutes of the contest broke the scoring ice and gave the visitor's the early 1-0 advantage.

Bellgirls battle Kearny Friday

Lu Ann Graffeo was defeated in third singles, 0-6, 1-6 to close out the day's solo performances.

The Belleville doubles squad of Patty Connelly and Tina Ogilvie dropped its match by identical 2-6 scores and the second duo of Carol Salerno and Susan Lyman were trailing 3-4 when the steady rain, falling throughout the match, became a downpour forcing an end to the proceedings.

"The weather was probably a factor in the contest," admitted Coach Fucello. "But it was raining on them as much as it was raining on us."

Against Caldwell Wednesday Bellgirl Toni Sperduto was blanked 0-6, 0-6, in the opening singles round while Denise Juliano lost a 1-6, 3-6, decision in second singles.

Toni's opponent was an exremely strong one and one of the premier players in the state but being in the first singles slot she is going to run up against that a lot," stated Coach Fucello.

"Denise just didn't play as well as she did against Montclair," pointed out the Coach. "She went to the net too many times which was her forte when she played doubles last year. She just wasn't patient enough."

Double-action saw the pair of Connelly and Ogilvie lose the first set 0-6 but bounce back to take the second 6-3 before losing the final 5-7.

Teaming up in doubles for the first time Carol Salerno and Sue Lyman lost in straight sets 4-6, 4-6.

"Even though they lost," stated the Belleville Coach. "They showed potential. They have to learn to be more aggressive."

"Caldwell is in kind of a rebuilding year too," explained

Coach Fucello. "We should have won a singles match and one of the doubles but we seem to be committing basic errors. I was very disappointed."

Blue-Gold soccer club shows more 'intensity'

in a penalty kick. A deflection by a Bellboy defender, attempting to fill in one of the passing lanes, set up Columbia's winning tally from the right corner in the final period.

The problem of physical conditioning which according to Coach Cahill contributed to the Belleville club's opening season loss to Orange seemed to be alleviated against Columbia.

"Almost all the starters played the full 80 minutes of the game in the rain and mud," explained the coach. "And only two asked to be rested."

We became a team in the Columbia game," added Cahill. "We still have a long way to go but we played like a team Friday."

Last Wednesday's 2-2 outcome with St. Benedict's, by contrast, left the Blue-gold coach disappointed with the performance of his club.

"I'd usually have had many more skilled players on the field than they did," stated Cahill.

Borja gave the Bellboys the advantage in the first few minutes of the game when he placed a penalty kick into the Newark school's nets.

St. Benedict's tied up the proceedings at 1-1 off a corner kick misheaded by a Blue-Gold defender.

"The ball skimmed off the top of our players head because he just wasn't tall enough to reach it," pointed out the coach.

Junior classman Borja struck again in the third quarter with a direct kick which hit the mark from 30 yards out but the parochial school squad knotted the contest later in the same period with an uncontested shot 12 yards from the net.

Both teams battle through a pair of five minute overtime periods before having to settle for a stalemate.

"We moved the ball around a lot more than we had been," said Coach Cahill. "But their goalie played an excellent ball game and that was the difference."

The Blue-gold had 32 shots on goal compared to seven by St. Benedict's.

Livingston lances Blue-Gold, 40-0

Livingston outmuscled the Belleville gridiron squad Tuesday afternoon, 40-0, in Lancer territory to spoil John Senesky's Blue-Gold coaching debut.

"The whole thing is a matter of experience," said the coach. "Many of our players have no varsity experience. It takes time and you just have to be patient."

Livingston demonstrated its versatility along with its superior size to dominate the opening contest of 77. The Lancers posted points on the scoreboard the first time they gained possession.

Quarterback Dave McLaughlin hit wingback Bob Rama with a 60-yard TD pass on a third and long situation to give the home team the lead in the initial period.

The point after conversion was good for two points when McLaughlin connected with fullback Joe Lucans on a swing pass.

The Lancers scored again in the second quarter culminating a scoring drive which began on the Belleville 38-yard line. The two-point conversion was good once more and Livingston enjoyed a 16-0 advantage when the halftime gun sounded.

Belleville lost possession on an interception after taking the second half kickoff, and Livingston promptly mounted an eight-play march to the end zone starting at the Bellboy 33.

The point after was converted as halfback John Farese bulled his way across the line, and the Blue-Gold trailed by 24 points.

As rain began to fall, the home club kept pouring it on scoring twice more in the final period on a quarterback roll out from the Bellboy six and a halfback sweep play from inside the five.

Again Livingston ground out the conversion points to ice the shutout victory.

"We have no real game breakers on the team," said the Blue-Gold coach. "In order for us to win it has to be a team effort and everyone has to give a 110 percent."

"Of course we are all disappointed to lose but I don't think the kids played as bad as the score indicates," pointed out Senesky. "Looking back on the Columbia scrimmage, there was a definite improvement both offensively and defensively."

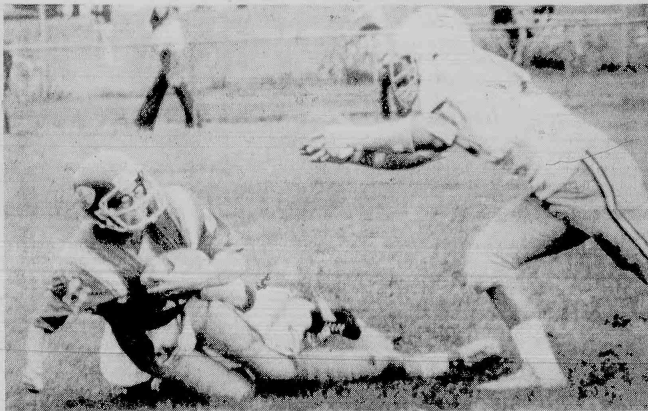

"Evaluations of the game are hard to pinpoint until we have a chance to look over the films of the game," explained the Bellboy coach Tuesday night.

Sideline Concern — Bellboy coaches, l-r, Joe D'Ambola, Bill Trimmer and John Senesky show their concern over the field proceedings Tuesday afternoon at Livingston.

Contact Sport — Belleville defensive back Sal Ostiglione (23) drives Lancer tight end Mark Allen out of bounds in the second period. The Blue-Gold have only two full practice days to prepare for Montclair on Saturday.

Falling Out — Blue-Gold quarterback Jerry Fazzini gets caught in the pocket and thrown for a five-yard loss during the third period of the Lancer contest. The bigger Livingston 11 outmuscled the Bellboys 40-0 in both clubs' first game of the 1977 season.

Misdirection — Belleville halfback Mike Nicosia takes a handoff and grinds out four yards late in the final period. The sophomore running back was one of the bright spots in what proved to be a dismal afternoon for the Blue-Gold.

Stop Gap — Bellboys Angelo Santinelli (50) and Joe D'Agostino (60) plug the hole and make the tackle to slow an early Lancer scoring drive. Livingston showed its offensive versatility on Tuesday by passing and rushing its way to 40 points.

Punt Send — Mike Limongelli gets off a high spiral for the Blue-Gold in the initial quarter of action.

Gridder Group — Members of the Blue-Gold '77 squad include Lou Valenti, Joe Garafolo, Mauro Tucci, Tom Henry, Sam Fufaro, Ron Anthony Dondarski, Gerald Fazzini, Ed Aulisi, Jess Marchese, John Costa, Joe Franceschini, Russ Pagano, Frank Swain, Phil Sainz, Joe Norton, Mike Nicosia, Bob Racioppi, Frank Pizzi, Sal Ostiglione, Bob DeLorenzo, John Paravata, Eugene Jackson, Bill Juliano, Keith MacLaBrizza, Dante DeNotaris, Joe Salters, Mike Rainone, Dennis Farlane, Ted Zangari, Mike DeMayo, Dan Amateo, James Galasso, Terry Portenza, Ralph DePasquale, Lenny Mendola, Anthony Longo, Angelo Mayers, Santinelli, Rich Vitello, Mike Limongelli, Joe D'Agostino, Carl Lordi.

Guest Speaker Featured speaker, Joe Gardi, makes a point during Friday's Hall of Fame Dinner at the Chandelier Restaurant. Gardi has been a specialty coach for the New York Jets for the past two seasons.

Hall Induction Fred "Chick" Puleo (left), who together with Mike Chieffo were the prime motivators for the establishment of the Hall, presents former Yankee pitching ace and Blue-Gold base ball star Jack Cullen with a plaque officially admitting him into the Belleville Hall of Fame.

Toe-to-Toe — Twenty-four amateur fighters duked it out for Charity at the BHS gym Friday night. The money raised at the event will go to the Multiple Sclerosis Association of Essex County's Therapy Center on Montgomery St.

Boxers trade punches at BHS to fight MS

Amateur boxers from the surrounding community squared off toe-to-toe to duke it out for the benefit of Multiple Sclerosis Friday night at the Belleville High School Gym.

More than 1,000 fight fans braved the stormy weather to cheer on their favorites through 12 bouts of ring action.

The event was the first of its kind sponsored by the Multiple Sclerosis Association of Essex County, said the organization's vice-president Dick Renna.

"The donations were way above what we had expected," pointed out Renna Sunday night. "We don't know yet how much money we took in."

Montclair rushing must be contained

ated Coach Senesky. "Saturday they gave the ball to their big full-back and he followed a blocking back off left tackle grinding out the yardage. Sometimes he carries two or three tacklers with him."

According to the Blue-Gold coach Belleville's task this week will be to stop Montclair before they can get their ground attack started and force them out of their game plan.

"They have pretty good size on the unit and they like to run right at you," said Senesky. "Tackling will be the key. When they see our size they probably will try to grind it out against us."

The Bellboys will also have to deal with Montclair's specialty unit which sprang halfback Daryl Jackson on the opening kick-off Saturday for a 92 yard run and a TD.

Mountie halfbacks include senior Mark Ellis, 6-0 175 pounds, junior Ken Sampson, 6-0 165 pounds and sophomore Steve Puryear, 5-9 170 pounds.

Defensively Montclair sets up in a five man front with two linebackers. The Mountie "D" held Irvington's offense to a total of 80 yards.

"Saturday our defense was exceptional," stated the Montclair coach. "We were very pleased with the way our players handled Irvington one-on-one."

The Montclair coaching staff it knows little about this year's Belleville 11 but planned to be in the stands Tuesday to see the Blue-Gold in Livingston.

"This is the first year we have ever played Belleville," said Coach Fortunato. "And we are looking forward to having a pleasant relationship in football."

"We are going to do what we hope to do against every opponent this year," stated Coach Senesky. "We hope to be able to open things up with execution and misdirection to spring our backs out into the open."

Life isn't fair.

Life is tough enough when we're healthy, have a modest income, and are part of a family. Imagine what living would be like to be missing one or all of these things.

Countless people don't have to imagine. For them, life isn't fair.

Like the cheated little guy struggling to walk with a hurt that brings tears to his eyes. And yours. Or the retarded youngster painfully working at growing up.

Like the senior citizen alone in her room. Too weak to cook a meal—even if she had food. No friends or relatives who really care.

But the United Way is around to care to match their courage with your compassion. To support a host of agencies and health services... to give handicapped children love and medical attention... to provide senior citizens with warm meals, special diets, companionship and home nursing.

And, fortunately, you're around to support the United Way. For without your contributions, thousands of people treated unfairly by life could not be treated fairly by us.

For everyone's sake. For the sake of our community. Please give.

Who is really GOP's candidate?

be a candidate for State Senator because he is an employee of the City of Newark, which is a recipient of heavy federal funding.

"Under Title 5, of the Hatch Act, of the Federal Election Laws, such civil service workers are prohibited from participating in partisan politics and from becoming partisan candidates," Giordano said.

Giordano noted that, since he did not violate any law, he is the bona fide, legitimate candidate.

He insists that Romeo's employment on the Newark Police Department disqualifies him from candidacy.

But Giordano's contention and information doesn't give to Romeo and the State Republican Committee's interpretation of events.

"I am on an authorized leave of absence from the Newark Police Department and has been on such a leave since soon after I won the Republican primary," Romeo noted. Giordano disputes the fact that Romeo announced his candidacy when he still was employed by the Newark Police, saying that this action violates the law, but Romeo argues that it was not necessary for him to go on a leave of absence from the department until he actively began campaigning for State Senator as an official candidate.

May stop work on six stores

Joseph McGreevey remarked. Others on the Town Commission were so upset after a two-hour conference early Monday evening they said they would summon Town Attorney John Scott to issue a stop-work order the next day.

However two days later, Scott told The Times/News he had received no such instruction.

Meantime, Building Inspector Simon Lieberman reported he revisited the construction site and recounted the parking spots. His latest report: 305, the minimum required by local zoning laws for the area being encompassed by the new stores.

Commissioners, however, weren't impressed with Lieberman's report but as of yesterday morning, no stop-work order had been issued.

of the Belleville Times/News printed Sept. 8, said that if an investigation into the matter is not satisfactory, he may take the matter into a court of law.

Judging from official documents identifying Romeo as the only Republican officially running, Romeo obviously can back up his comments solidly, whereas Giordano may be vying for the office of State Senator on another line, but certainly not on the Republican ticket.

Ice Center offers free rink time

The Essex County Park Commission will open the doors of Branch Brook Ice Center, Saturday at 2 p.m., to all inexperienced ice skaters for a free day of skating and demonstration clinics.

The "Introduction to Ice Skating" program consists of an on-ice demonstration of hockey skills and a class in skating techniques. Rental skates will be provided free.

Although the program is geared for six to 12 year olds, parents and older youngsters are encouraged to attend.

Besides free skating, the day's activities also includes refreshments, a demonstration of equipment available at the Branch Brook Skate Shop and information about various Park Commission skating programs.

For more information call 483-5357.

Taxpayers back Russo-Reipe team

The Taxpayers Political Action Committee (TAX-PAC) has endorsed Republican candidates Dan Russo and George Riepe for the N.J. Assembly.

Larry Haverly, Executive Director of TAX-PAC, publicly endorsed the two candidates last week after reviewing their positions on the State income tax.

Both Russo and Riepe have stated that they oppose the present income tax and, if elected, will seek to repeal it or allow it to self-destruct in 1978. In addition, they would oppose any attempt to impose any form of new tax in its place.

As an alternative to the income tax, the Russo-Riepe team indicated that they would support cut-backs in State spending, the elimination of waste and mismanagement in State government and a review of all State programs, eliminating those programs which are high in cost but have a low return in benefits.

They will also seek to restore home rule in local boards of education and in local governments, thereby eliminating many State-mandated programs and duplications of services.

Russo and Riepe are running on the Republican line with gubernatorial candidate Sen. Ray Bateman, who has also been endorsed by TAX-PAC as a result of his anti-tax position.

TAX-PAC has not endorsed the two present Assemblymen, Aduvato and Cali, because of their consistent pro-tax voting records which also includes "yes" votes for the present income tax.

9 Garden School pupils benefit from summer camp experiences

Because of a large donation from the Newark Fresh Air Fund and the support of several local groups, nine children enrolled in the Essex Child Development Center (ECDC) Garden School here attended camps this summer.

The nine children participated in activities like cookouts, woodworking, Indiancraft, boating and horseback riding.

One Belleville child, who was away at camp for four weeks, remembers swimming in a lake as the best experience, an observation which intensifies the importance of the Garden School's weekly swim program.

Obtaining camperships for children is a difficult task and the cost of special sleep-away camps is extensive, the ECDC noted.

The center said that the handicapped youngsters benefit greatly from summer experiences, but that most are denied the opportunity for lack of funds.

Although the Newark Fresh Air Fund has been very generous in its support of the center, the majority of children are denied the opportunity to receive the therapeutic benefits summer experiences provide, Robert Stepany, of the ECDC said.

The staff of the Garden School is currently looking for sources of financial aid by speaking at luncheons and by publicizing the need for camperships to local groups.

Stepany noted that the school explored the possibility of a Federal grant through the Office of Developmental Disabilities, but that the request was not met for this year.

Historical Society to meet October 4

The Belleville Historical Society plans on meeting for the first time this fall at Christ Episcopal Church, October 4 at 8 p.m.

The society most recently journeyed to Trenton with a film of the reenactment of Washington's Army Retreat when the march took place November 27, 1976.

Bob Herd, co-ordinator-director of the retreat march, took the film to Trenton September 12.

At that time, the film was placed in the New Jersey Archives, along with other moments, not to be opened until 2077, when the United States celebrates its 300th birthday.

The film was taken by Neil Horne of the Historical Society as the march led from the Nutley line through Belleville to the North Newark line.

The march stopped at the Dutch Reformed Church, on Main Street, where services were conducted by Rev. Paul Ruter, pastor, and by Rev. Long of Christ Episcopal Church.

'Godspell' to open nearby October 1

The National Touring Company of "the world's most popular musical," "Godspell," will present three performances at The Morris Stage, 100 South St., Morristown, Saturday, Oct. 1 and Sunday, Oct. 2.

Saturday performances are slated for 6:30 and 9:30 p.m. and Sunday's show is at 7 p.m.

Billed as "a musical based on the gospel according to St. Matthew," "Godspell" illustrates the teachings of the New Testament in a series of parables "taught" through words, music, dance, modern costuming and mime.

The hit single "Day By Day" came from the musical, which was written by Stephen Schwartz.

"Godspell" is a theatrical experience for the entire family. Tickets priced from $4.50 to $7.50 are going quickly, but some good seats are still available at the Morris Stage box office, 540-9270, or through Ticketron. Group rates, student and senior citizen discounts are being offered.

Belleville's Robert Gaccione named campaign coordinator

Victor B. Palmer Jr., campaign manager for Nutley Assemblyman Carl Orechio, has announced the appointment of Robert A. Gaccione, a Belleville attorney, as executive director and district 27 coordinator.

"Coordinating the activities in eight municipalities, which, of course, constitutes our 27th District, requires a very special talent. We are fortunate to have a very special man for the job, Bob Gaccione," Palmer said in announcing the appointment.

Gaccione, a graduate of Belleville schools, obtained a BA degree from Seton Hall University where he served as student body president from 1962-63. He has graduated from Georgetown Law School in 1966.

A member of the Essex County Bar Association, the New Jersey Bar Association and the American Bar Association, Gaccione is also very active in Belleville civic affairs. He served as secretary of the Craig Fund, a Belleville charitable foundation. He is a past president of the Belleville Rotary Club and a member of its athletic advisory committee. He is the attorney for First DeWitt Savins and Loan Association, Belleville, and also for the Belleville PBA.

Palmer also announced the appointment of Paul Alongi, a Bloomfield attorney, as chairman of a breakfast, in honor of Assemblyman Orechio, to be held Sunday, Oct. 23, at the White Eagle Restaurant, Bloomfield.

Alongi is a graduate of Rutgers University and Seton Hall Law School. Mr. Alongi, who was selected as "Citizen of the Year" by the Bloomfield PBA Local 32, is a past president of UNICO National, the largest Italian-American service organization in the United States.

Tickets for the 9:30 a.m. breakfast are $10 each. Additional information can be obtained by calling Alongi at his firm in Bloomfield, Alongi, Bregg and Devito. Phone 743-7200.

THEY'RE CHICKEN!!

YOUR PRESENT ASSEMBLYMEN ARE AFRAID TO DEBATE THE RUSSO-RIEPE TEAM BECAUSE THEY DON'T HAVE THE ANSWERS!

DAN RUSSO vs. ADUBATO

CALI vs. GEORGE RIEPE

- Why did they vote for the Byrne Income Tax and why do they still support it...against the wishes of the people?
- Why did they spend over $152,000 for offices and staff without supplying the people with these services?
- Why did your assemblymen sponsor a bill to abolish local Boards of Education and institute school busing?

ON NOVEMBER 8th, LET'S PLUCK THEIR FEATHERS!
