Town maneuvers to add 3 deputies

No one knows how, but Public Safety Commissioner Rocco Saletta says he's figured out a legal way to appoint three new deputy fire chiefs from an out-of-date civil service list.

"Anything that is done will be legal and absolutely not against any rules and regulations," Saletta told the Times/News.

Town Commissioners have in the works a new ordinance upping the number of deputy fire chiefs to a total of seven. The new ordinance, however, won't go into effect until early December. The Civil Service certification list in the meantime will have expired.

The usual procedure is to call for a new test and open up the possibility of promotions. To additional men in the ranks, Saletta says this won't be done but he hasn't explained fully how he intends to appoint deputy chiefs from a list that legally has expired.

When the deputy chief list expires Tuesday, it technically is impossible for any deputy chiefs to be appointed until a new civil service test for the deputy chief position is administered and another list drawn up based on those results.

Saletta apparently intends to use the list nearing expiration in conjunction with the passage of the new ordinance, increasing the number of possible fire deputy chiefs from five to seven.

The fire department now has four deputy chiefs and, if the ordinance is passed, three spots would be eligible to be filled.

It is rumored that the Commissioner will pick the top three men on the Nov. 22 civil service list and then suspend their promotion until an actual need for a deputy chief arises.

A group of firemen had said that they planned on appearing at Nov. 10's Commission meeting to protest the possibility of such action, but the men failed to show up.

"They have no basis of fact for their opposition," Saletta said, noting that, "I had all my ammunition ready, but no one came to dispute the ordinance."

No. 3 dedication this Saturday

The Belleville Board of Education is extending an invitation to the entire Belleville community to attend the dedication ceremonies of the new School No. 3 at the corner of Joralemon and Union Aves. this Saturday at noon.

The dedication culminates close to two years of planning, constructing, furnishing and finally watching a modern educational facility arise out of ashes and burnt embers.

The original school, which stood on the same spot as the new structure, was demolished by a fire in January, 1976, only days before its pupils were scheduled to return from Christmas vacation.

They finished the rest of the year in classrooms in School No. 7 and three churches, which made their services readily available to the Belleville school system.

When insurance money was expected to cover the expense of building a new school, trustees still enforced an attitude that they could build and furnish the school complete without expending any taxpayer dollars.

They did manage to have their plan come true as money still remains in the budget allotted to School No. 3.

The building will be open to all residents here Saturday for their inspection. Four wings have been added on to the one section of the building that withstood the fire.

Plaques will be presented for attachment to the school and to the library, which will be dedicated in the memory of Max M. Schwartz.

Each member of the Board of Education will have the option of saying a few words, as will School Principal Austin MacArthur and Superintendent of Schools Dr. John Greed. Town officials also will be present at the dedication ceremonies.

Town adopts property code

Months of debate and discussion by town officials culminated Thursday night when Belleville Commissioners adopted three ordinances regulating local property.

The trio of ordinances designed in conjunction with both the Planning Board and the Belleville Health Department compels land owners to maintain property in good condition, regulates the operation of boarding houses, and prohibits basement apartments in multi-family dwellings.

"The citizens here are behind this 100 percent," said Angelo Veneziano, president of the Belleville Citizens Union. "It will go a long way in ridding the town of any blighted areas."

The maintenance code authorizes the town to fine violators $200 a day and to make needed repairs at the owners expense.

The ordinance regulates the general appearance and upkeep of a house as well as structural soundness, Mayor Michael Marotti stated.

The passage of a law to oversee the establishment of boarding homes stems from numerous complaints about conditions in such dwellings which spring up without proper authorization, commissioners said.

Marotti stressed that the ordinance banning basement apartments in multi-family homes does not affect those already in existence.

"They start off with one apartment in the basement and end up with four," explained the Mayor.

"Eventually we have the same problem like we had up on Heckel St. by the railroad," he added, referring to when members of the Rev. Moon led Unification Church moved into the house on that block.

The town does plan on establishing a board of appeals to give citizens a fair forum of recourse, continued Marotti.

Public Safety Commissioner Rocco Saletta, also announced at Thursday's meeting alternate side of the street parking regulations, usually suspended during the winter months, will remain in effect year round.

"Based on the recommendation of Captain Russomano (Chief of Belleville Traffic Dept.) we feel we're better off leaving it the way it is," stated Saletta. "It takes people about two months to get adjusted back to alternate side of the street parking after the suspension."

The next meeting of Belleville Commissioners is slated for 8 p.m. Tuesday at Town Hall.

Commission awards final bids

BY MARY FREEMAN

With a ground-breaking for the town's new firehouse scheduled little more than a week away, the Commissioners decided Monday to award bids for the construction of the federally-funded project.

Based on the recommendation of John Daniel Nakrosis, architect, the Commission will sign contracts with four contractors tomorrow morning based on their low bids.

The task of general construction and site work goes to Greco Bros., Inc., 49 East Centre St., Nutley, at a cost of $365,000.

Electrical work in the new firehouse, which will be located on Franklin Ave. near the Essex County Geriatrics Center, has been delegated to Wallace Electric Co., Inc., 45 East Willow St., Millburn, for $58,777.

The plumbing in the new building, according to the low bid, should go to Apollo Mechanical Construction Co., Inc., at a cost of $28,333, and the heating, ventilation and air conditioning to Progressive Combustion Co., Inc., for $36,420.

However, neither of these companies complied with all of the guidelines required when contractors are bidding for jobs on federally-funded projects.

They failed to include a list of minority enterprises with their bid and will be ineligible to work on the new firehouse unless they comply by Friday.

By minority enterprises is meant that 10 percent of the company's bid must go to minorities. When the company has completed 40 percent of all work on the project, it must submit a list of each minority employed and that person must sign his or her name to the list.

The federal government refuses to fund projects unless this minority clause is met. If the two companies do not comply, the bids for plumbing and for heating, ventilation and air conditioning both will go to Frank F. Adessa and Sons, Inc., 58 Clinton Rd., Fairfield, at costs of $38,740 for plumbing and $41,850 for the latter.

The total cost of the bids, regardless of which company is retained to do the plumbing and heating work, amounts to less than the estimated cost of the project, which is $683,877.

"The bids came in lower than I expected," Rocco Saletta, Public Safety Commissioner, said. "The total amount, though is not much lower than allotted because we have to consider architect's fees and change orders."

He said that the architect's fees come close to seven or eight percent and that the town already owes Nakrosis over $40,000.

"We were able to save some money because the cost of the site preparation was not part of the bid," the Commissioner said.

The Franklin Ave. land had to be graded before work could begin, he said, and several Belleville contractors did the job free of charge in return for the excess dirt at the site.

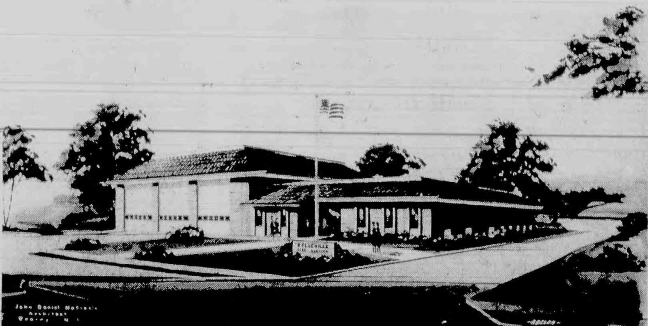

"The grant will cover the entire cost of the new firehouse — nothing has been budgeted for the firehouse outside of the federal money," Saletta noted.

Nakrosis, who was present at the meeting when the bids were awarded, estimated that the firehouse will be completed in eight months.

"Because of the weather and other variables, eight months would be a realistic date," he told Commissioner Saletta. "That gives us about 160 working days to complete the building."

No firehouses will be forced to close down because of this new building, the Commissioner said. He noted that there is no truth to the rumor that the Washington Ave. firehouse will close down in the foreseeable future.

Future Firehouse — The proposed firehouse scheduled for completion sometime next summer will look like the above photo, according to Architect John Daniel Nakrosis. Ground-breaking for the new building, which will be located on Franklin Ave. near the Essex County Geriatrics Center, is slated for Nov. 28. All construction will be paid for through a federal grant.

School Trustees envision new cafeteria, gymnasium

When the Board of Education began discussions on upcoming budgets Monday night, it arrived at a three-year projection extending until 1981.

Board members agreed that the Capital Improvement Program for the next three years include the addition of a cafeteria and library to the high school in 1978-79, an addition to the Belleville High gymnasium and the installation of specialized classrooms in 1979-80 and the complete electrical renovation of all elementary schools for 1980-81.

The cost of 1978-79's program is estimated at $250,000; 1979-80's would run about 300,000 and the cost of the electrical renovation was not discussed.

This was the first meeting of the Board solely directed at discussing financial future with respect to budget caps and the maximum amount of dollar increase allowed.

The Trustees agreed to meet upon the recommendation of Mary Shader, secretary and business administrator for the Board of Education, who advised that the state is awaiting Belleville's budget for the upcoming year.

Also, the Board of Education, which formed last year's budget based on 7.88 percent caps, must now work with a 5.8 percent cap.

"We are going for a reworking of caps in Trenton," Lawrence Schwartz, Board member and president of the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA), said.

"We want them adjusted to meet the needs of individual communities."

Schwartz noted that the governor has pledged that something will be done about caps, but that school boards across the state must learn to work under them this year.

He added that the Board has one recourse if it feels it cannot operate under the state's cap — that is appeal. Forty percent of the school boards that appealed this year were granted increases, it was noted.

Board members Richard Mahanian and Ralph Risoli made it clear to the rest of the Board that they would not vote in favor of an appeal of the state cap for Belleville.

Among the other budgetary business the trustees discussed Monday was personnel, a subject which is closed to the public.

Earlier in the meeting, one Board member noted that the Board might run into negotiation problems this year, while another blatantly suggested that salaries remain at a standstill.

Senior notes

By GEORGE CHENOWETH

The group from the Essex County Seniors in the Park joined with the other seniors in the county in a fashion show on Friday, Nov. 11. The affair was at the Manor in West Orange and after a delicious luncheon, the creations by the seniors were modeled by themselves. These crafts-women of beautiful clothes deserve much praise for their handiwork.

The Belleville Senior Citizens Club participated in the Veteran's Day Parade on Friday evening. Two buses were provided by the local transportation and health department. No other than our own Commissioner Vincent Strumolo was one of the drivers after the intended driver failed to show. We were in good hands after the commissioner took over. We really observed the significance of the day when the group sang "God Bless America" as the buses passed the reviewing stand. Refreshments were served at the Senior Citizens Recreation Center after the parade.

We have been advised by the Essex County Office on Aging, headed by Bernard Gallagher, of many issues of interest to the seniors of our country. One of these issues contains information on the Mandatory Retirement Age. The House of Representatives recently passed and sent to the Senate a bill which would prohibit most employers in private enterprise from forcing the retirement of their employees at the customary age of 65. Under it's provisions, the individual would still have the option of normal or early retirement but could continue working until age 70, if so desired. Passage of Senate bill S1784 is expected before the first of next year and the measure would become law as soon as the president signs the document. The law will have far reaching effects for the 22 million Americans who are aged 65 or over.

We wrote letters to legislators about two months ago citing the many inequalities in the administration of the Social Security system. We brought out the unfairness in judging the percentage of increase in the Social Security benefits on a cost of living adjustment, once a year. We received a reply from Senator Frank Church, among others, in which he agreed that it was poor policy to allow this to happen. We read in the papers recently that the senator and 21 other senators have co-authored a bill to have a cost of living index review for seniors twice a year, instead of the present once a year, with the hopes of passing, along with that bill, a "Seniors Cost of Living Bill." This would, if enacted, be more consistent with our need to cope with an ever-rising economy.

Get in the habit of tuning in on Hugn Downs on television's Channel 13's "Over Easy," Monday to Friday inclusive, 6:30 p.m. An interesting series exhibiting seniors and seniors' problems.

Santa due next Friday

Santa Claus will arrive in Belleville 1:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 25, and take part in a parade beginning at Greylock Parkway down Washington Ave. to Williams St. and back to Town Hall. Santa will be greeted by Mayor Michael Marotti and town commissioners.

Heading the parade will be the high school band twirlers. Santa will be riding on a fire engine provided by the Belleville Fire Department.

MS group embarks on search for patient therapy quarters

The Association, founded two years ago and boasting of 40 members, had been using a private home in Belleville during the past seven months, but was recently forced to vacate the premises owned by a member of the organization because of family complications.

According to the relatively new organization's vice president, Sebastiano Renna, the New Jersey Department of Health will only help with the funding of the rehabilitation facility if the home is purchased outright.

"We cannot rent out a site for the therapy service," stated Renna. "If the state health office likes our facilities they will certify them and help us with the purchase of equipment such as mats and parallel bars."

Renna explained that many felt the state wide MS Association (Essex-Hudson Chapter MS Service Organization of New Jersey) was not doing an adequate job for the patients and decided to form a group of their own.

"They were interested in other things rather than the patients' needs," stated the vice president. "With our association, the physical therapy is there. You don't have to go to a board of directors or somebody to sign a check."

The biggest percentage of patients afflicted with MS are between 20 and 40-years-old and are on a fixed income, pointed out Rudy Rinaldi, association treasurer.

Without the money provided by a parent organization the patient cannot afford the therapy, he added.

Many members of the state association also broke away because they were not given enough control over the way funds, which they helped to raise, were spent, explained Renna.

The state has a staff it must pay and a hospital it must support — with us, all our money we raise goes directly to the patient," stated Renna. "Our books are open to the public and we have nothing to hide."

"In my opinion, the state organization is not doing the job," Renna continued.

He pointed out that his organization is not restricted to Belleville or, for that matter, to Essex County, and it will help anyone who needs help as long as he becomes a par-

Why not Byrne for veep?

The gubernatorial contest between Republican challenger Ray Bateman and the incumbent Democrat Governor Brendan Byrne turned out to be no contest at all — it was a rout.

If we didn't have unprecedented floods and storms on election day, Brendan Byrne easily could have run up his majority to the 500,000 -700,000 mark. By any measure, Brendan Byrne won a solid vote of confidence last Tuesday.

The state constitution prohibits Brendan Byrne from running for a third consecutive term. With the troubles that are facing President Jimmy Carter — and wishing won't make them go away — it appears that in 1980 Jimmy Carter may have to look around for someone with broader voter appeal as the vice presidential running mate to replace Mondale.

An Irish-Catholic from an industrial northeastern state, which he lost in 1976, may be Carter's 1980 formula for victory. There is no doubt in our mind that Republicans will have an "ethnic" on their presidential ticket in 1980. The Democrat presidential ticket must reflect some direct appeal to the ethnic minorities.

In view of the foregoing, with special emphasis upon Byrne's landslide victory of November 8, it is easy to speculate that the next vice president of the United States could well be Brendan Byrne.

Meanwhile, he has our best wishes for a more successful second term. His responsibility in office has earned for Brendan Byrne the right and the privilege to serve the people of his native state for the next four years.

Thought for today

A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the Lord: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

Hell and destruction are before the Lord: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go until the wise. A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

Better is little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble therewith.

Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother. Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counselors they are established.

A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

The Lord will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hatheth gifts shall live.

The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

Whisperliners join the fleet

I should start this column with a word about Eastern Air Lines, right? OK Eastern upgraded its equipment on certain flights between Fort Lauderdale and Newark to the wide-body, jumbo jet L1011, seating 264. Movies, music, and much food. It takes a crew of three in the flight deck (pilot, co-pilot, engineer) and a minimum of seven stewardesses (tops 11) in the passenger sections. The whisperliner — Eastern's version of a spaceship, consumes 38,400 pounds of gas to make the run from Fort Lauderdale to Newark. There are 6.4 gallons per pound. I just can't believe it takes 271,700 gallons of gas to power a L1011 from Fort Lauderdale to Newark.

The kitchen (galley) is located on the lower level, with an elevator connecting the two floors. The passenger crew was a mixed bag. At this point in my writing a female went to the lavatory, only to find another female already there, but who neglected to throw the door-relatively, very impersonal. I always believed "big" is bad.

The plane is too big to permit a personal dialogue, thus we find the crew,

Election Day! What a joy. Thank heaven it's over! Byrne won big — and why not? He made the more fiscal sense. Republican Ray Bateman said he lost the election, "Don't blame the party." Ray is wrong. It was the party's fiscal philosophy that put Ray Bateman in an untenable tax position. Except for the enlightened Senator Wayne Dumont of Warren County, all the Republican leaders wrapped themselves around the anti-income tax banner. If Election Day weather wasn't so lousy, more Republicans would have lost Assembly and Senate races.

In Nutley — it's still the old pro — Fiore Stabile, better known as the Little Flower, who makes it all happen. It was the Little Flower who predicted two months ago that Byrne would emerge a big winner — like 250,000 votes. Almost hit the nail on the head. The Little Flower and Frank Restaino put together the most enthusiastic, largest rally of the campaign, Sunday night before election. It was wall-to-wall people at Nutley's VFW hall. Guest of honor was Senator Carmen Orechio. Sports greets Elton Howard and Bill Bradley were there to tell the standing-room-only crowd how great Carmen really is. It was a great show.

TOM FERROTA did one helluva job with the Avondale-Big Tree dinner. Absolutely fantastic.

Congratulations to Buddy Fortunato on his win. He worked real hard — he deserved to win.

Fort Lauderdale weather was a trifle cool but perfect. Can't wait to return to the land of warmth and sunshine.

How does it feel to sign check $35 million? Well, it's not such a big thrill. I did it — as chairman of the North Jersey Water Commission. Believe me, no big deal. Bill Searle co-signed as commission secretary. The more awesome responsibility lies in awarding a construction contract and see a new filtration plant come on line.

The next election is not too far in the future — school board vacancies and school budget — activities that should attract much voter attention.

Change for the worse

The majority of voters decided to cast its ballots in favor of changing Essex County government.

Beginning next year, five county freeholders will be elected by districts and four at-large. In our opinion, this is a step backward for democracy, strange as it may seem to those who believe it is a progressive step forward. We have had similar experiences at a municipal level — and believe us — it lowered the level of the quality of public officials.

We are also to elect a county executive under the new plan. This stipulation is a joke. The county executive to be elected will not be a qualified business manager to run the business government. She or he is going to win an election based upon the popularity of the party label at the time of the election. Election of a county executive will prove that county government is only going to be more expensive. Our real estate taxes will go higher — thanks to the change in county government. We believe county government is a level of government we can do without — and instead of adding more people to the payroll, the question before the voters should have been, "Why not abandon county government?"

Old-timers' reunion

Recently, natives of the neighboring southeast section of town got together in an old-fashioned neighborhood party to relive yesterday's memories. Three hundred thirty people turned out for the unprecedented event. They basked in the glory of yesterday's fame — and talked about dreams and aspirations of the tomorrows to come. They talked of the old neighborhood — they talked of the gridiron greats — and the baseball greats — and the golfing greats — a unique social experience in this great democracy of ours. Imagine your old neighborhood — for that matter, any neighborhood — giving birth to such an event. How wonderful it all was.

Wish that all our people went back to their old neighborhoods for an old-timers reunion. The experience does something for the heart that words cannot describe. It was beautiful. And after it was all over, the crowd wanted more and they want to come back again next year to spin off some more yarns of yesterday — the handicaps, the burdens, yes, and the joys of being born into a "ghetto" and rising to heights far beyond the horizons of our youth.

The scene was most touching — and those it touched became richer for it.

Commends workers

To the Editor:

I would like to extend my gratitude to a group of individuals who did an outstanding job during the rainstorm and flood conditions on Tuesday, Election Day. These men worked diligently through the night pumping out cellars and doing whatever was necessary to provide flood relief for myself and my neighbors.

It makes me feel proud to know that in a crisis such as we just experienced there are individuals who are willing to make personal sacrifices to help others in their time of need. I would be remiss if I did not extend my heartfelt thanks to Belleville's Fire Department and to D/C Barretta, George Royston, Keith Nicotello, Frank Mettler and John Killen.

All 5% interest rates are not created equal.

Although these four savings accounts all give a 5% interest rate, they each earn different amounts of money. Because they each compute the interest differently. Midlantic Bank computes its 5% interest using the "Day-of-Deposit to Day-of-Withdrawal" method. As you can see, this is the one that earns the most money for you.

Another advantage of our 5% savings plan is that it doesn't require a passbook. Instead, you receive a statement in the mail every three months that shows you everything a passbook would.

Come in and we'll be glad to assist you in opening a 5% Day-of-Deposit to Day-of-Withdrawal Savings Account and answer any questions you may have on why our 5% interest rate is just a little more equal than some other banks' 5% interest rate.

Woman's Club holds annual fall luncheon at Wesley Church

Ninety members and guests of the Woman's Club of Belleville gathered Oct. 27 for luncheon in the Fellowship Room of Wesley United Methodist Church. The event was the Annual Fall Luncheon of the Women's Club.

Each table was decorated by one of the various department chairmen to depict the work of her department.

Mrs. James Desmond, president, welcomed everyone to the luncheon and introduced the Rev. Hazel L. Thomas, pastor of the church, who returned thanks. The group sang "America the Beautiful" accompanied by Miss Edith Richards, chairman of the music department, at the piano.

Following luncheon prepared by Mrs. Chauncey Keeney and committee, Mrs. Desmond gave an overview of the workings of the Woman's Club, describing the work of each department represented by a table. In addition to the 12 tables by the various departments, one table represented the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville. The Evening Membership Division of the Woman's Club was not represented but its work was also explained.

Following this "guided tour," entertainment was provided by Edward Ancher of Lyndhurst. Mr. Ancher, who has sung in many of the area churches, sang a varied program of music both sacred and secular, dating back almost to the turn of the century. Mr. Ancher is active with the Masons and the Order of Amaranth. He was accompanied by Miss Richards at the piano.

Bartender arrested on top juke box in middle of street

A Belleville tavern owner, apparently attempting to make his own kind of music, pleaded guilty to a charge of obstructing traffic during a Nov. 10 session of Municipal Court.

Raymond MacDonald, part owner of P. J. MacDonald's Tavern, Washington Ave., was handed a suspended jail term by Judge Edward Abramson for obstruction and interference by placing a juke box in the center of Washington Ave.

According to authorities the 34-year-old defendant walked into Belleville police headquarters about 2:30 a.m. Nov. 1 and told officers he was upset with the juke box company and planned to place the machine outside his bar.

Lt. Hugh O'Toole, on duty at the desk, told the man that if he did, he would be arrested, police said.

MacDonald was apprehended by Belleville Patrolman Anthony LaVista moments later. MacDonald was sitting on top of the juke box in the middle of Washington Ave., authorities stated.

Report broken street lights

Town Public Safety Commissioner Rocco Saletta asks all residents to report any street lights, which are out of order, to Belleville Police in order to insure citizens of the maximum amount of protection from crime.

Both a street address and pole number should be given when reporting inoperable lights, Saletta added.

Library exhibits Woman's Club art

The paintings of 13 members of the Belleville Woman's Club Art Department are currently on exhibit at the main branch of the Public Library on Washington Ave.

One of the organizational facets of the General Federation of Women's Clubs is its Fine Arts Department. Through this department the members are encouraged to learn new skills to fulfill their creative talents and bring new interests into both the home and community.

The Belleville Woman's Club has afforded its members the opportunity to learn these skill through art lessons conducted by Mrs. W. Douglas Clark.

An art workshop, under the direction of Mrs. Frances B. Lubben will pursue this goal during the club year 1977-78, with emphasis on the study of abstract and North American Indian Art.

BONUS: To insure quick sale of this merchandise, we've included tackless installation and genuine rubber padding in the reduced price of each carpet.

We have no choice. Because the prices for these superior quality carpets are so low, we must limit this offering to 24 sale hours. We took 15,725 sq. yds. of slow moving, higher priced broadloom that was jamming our warehouse and drastically reduced their prices for quick sale. From our own experience, we know that when this sale ends, we'll have little, if anything left. We urge your early attendance, that is, if you want a bargain you'll never forget.

THREE TRUSTEES IN ATLANTIC CITY

Board travels to school workshop

Three members of Belleville's Board of Education along with Superintendent of Schools Dr. John Greed and assistant superintendent Seymour Grossman, attended three days of educational workshops in Atlantic City last month.

Board President Caesar Romano and Trustees Lawrence Schwartz and Richard Maharian journeyed to the New Jersey School Board Association's 25th Anniversary Workshop which lasted from Oct. 26 to 28.

Schwartz, who serves as president of the NJSBA, helped co-ordinate the activities for the three days along with moderating a debate between gubernatorial candidates Brendan Byrne and Raymond Bateman.

Workshops began the morning of Oct. 26 and concluded at noon Oct. 28. Over 30 special and group sessions were offered during this time, with curriculum fairs and roundtable discussions also available.

Examples of topics covered at the workshops were policy, labor relations, declining enrollments, discipline in the schools, budgeting and special education.

Special programs were provided for superintendents and other school administrators throughout the workshop.

"I feel that I've gained through attending the session," Seymour Grossman, assistant superintendent said. "I found it very educational, informative and exhilarating."

Grossman added that he was very impressed with the complete program arrangement and that the whole three days were well-organized.

Other Belleville representatives attended a variety of sessions and Maharian hosted two question and answer roundtables dealing with "Computer-Based Resources" while there.

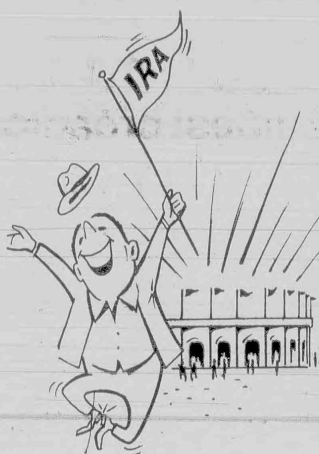

Local, County and State Educators — Belleville Board of Education President Caesar Romano enjoys a conversation with Howard E. White, Jr., acting Essex County superintendent of schools, and Fred Burke, State Commissioner of Education. The group got together Oct. 27, the second day of the NJSBA Workshop in Atlantic City. The School Boards Association entitled its 25th Annual Workshop "Reflections '77."

A Break in the Action — Executive director of the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) Dr. Mark W. Hurwitz (left) and Lawrence Schwartz, president of the NJSBA and member of the Belleville School Board, take some time out for a break during the NJSBA Workshop. The two worked together on the three-day gathering, which included an Essex County School Boards Association reception in honor of Schwartz.

County and Local Administrators — Dr. Howard E. White, Jr., acting Essex County superintendent of schools, and his wife met with Dr. John Greed, Belleville superintendent of schools, at the Atlantic City NJSBA Workshop. Officials from throughout the state attended the workshop, which featured special sessions for superintendents and administrators.

Bellevillites turn out for veterans' parade

Mother and Daughter — Mrs. Barbara Gray poses with her daughter, Kathy, age 3, while waiting for the vets' parade to appear. The night was chilly and so the pair bundled up.

Good Beat — This unidentified member of the Belleville High School band is the picture of concentration as he and his fellow drummers strive to keep a steady beat while marching down Washington Ave.

The event was Belleville's annual Veteran's Day parade, honoring more than 27 million vets across the United States. The band sounded great.

Featured Speaker — At the ceremonies was State Sen. Anthony Imperiale. Imperiale decried the low turnout at the event and said, "People want to know the reason America is weak and our cities are dying. We are witnessing the reason why. It's because people are too busy to come out to honor our veterans."

Parade Rest — Three-year-old Alexis Accola takes a break aboard the shoulders of her father, Anthony. Many adults who turned out Friday night brought their children along.

Court Jester — Lesley Zehr, a down with the Belleville High School band, gives onlookers a friendly wave as she marches down Washington Ave.

Flag Wavers — Members of the Belleville High School color guard display a multitude of flags on the parade route. The march also featured floats and bands from all over the area.

Class of 1938 begins plans for 40th reunion

Congregation asks for repair monies

Congregation Ahavath Achim is asking the Board of Education for funds to repair its parking lot, which has been damaged since special education classes from School No. 3 have used Temple facilities.

Irving Berkowitz, a member of the congregation, has told the Board that there has been serious deterioration in the parking lot since the classes have used the Temple school.

Vice president in charge of the building Martin Resnick said, "The lot was used 100 times the normal amount when the classes were held there."

He continued, "We have watched the lot gradually deteriorate. It's not normal wear, either, and now it has to be fixed."

Berkowitz added that the special education classes had been ideal tenants and that the association between the congregation and the classes has been a good one.

The classes used the building after a fire destroyed most of School No. 3, forcing administrators to relocate classes. The Board of Education paid no rent for the use of the building, but arranged to pay the excess of utilities to the Temple.

In order to determine the amount of utilities expended by the special education classes, the Temple compared bills for last year with those for the current year. The School Board remitted the difference to the Temple.

Trustee Michael Chieffo asked the two men if the damage resulted from abuse to the lot or from natural deterioration.

"Without the use of the parking lot by the Board of Education vans and cars, it would have lasted another five or six years," Berkowitz estimated.

Trustee Ralph Risoli suggested that the Board of Education be held liable for the deterioration of the lot if vehicles related to the special education classes actually caused the damage.

Meanwhile, Board president Caesar Romano asked that the Temple have patience while the Board discusses the situation.

"Money is as much a problem to the Board of Education as it is to the Temple," he told Resnick and Berkowitz, "but we will get back to you on the matter."

The Board of Education is now reviewing the cost of materials to repair the Temple lot.

Post Office advice: again, mail early

The post office has already started its annual "Shop and Mail Early" Christmas campaign to assure that gifts and greetings mailed now will be delivered before the holiday.

"This year as never before the public and business firms are strongly urged to cooperate with the postal service by doing their mailing the first week in December to assure prompt delivery," declared Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci. He said the anticipated volume of seasonal mail this year will far exceed that of last year.

Stamps purchased now will eliminate waiting in long lines at stamp windows. The use of complete names and addresses, city, state and correct zip code numbers will expedite mail delivery. In addition, mail must be bundled and separated for local, state and out-of-town destinations.

"Follow these tips and help us succeed in our goal to bring Christmas to all of our customers," said the postmaster.

Mailing labels, zip code directories and additional information can be obtained by calling at the local branch post office.

Kardinals tie up Bellboy gridders

BY MIKE COREY

Despite a pair of first period touchdowns, Belleville's varsity gridders were unable to curb the flight of the Kearny Kardinals as the visitors soared back to deadlock Saturday's Homecoming contest at 14-all.

The Bellboys (2-5-1) close out the pigskin season, away from home for the holidays, with a Thanksgiving Day clash against Hillside slated for 11 a.m.

"Both our clubs are very similar in style," stated Blue-Gold gridiron coach John Senesky commenting on the Kearny confrontation. "If we were behind 14-0 and had come back to tie them then we wouldn't feel so bad."

Belleville posted points on the scoreboard in the opening period when sophomore signal caller, Ed Aulisi, connected with junior end Mike DeMayo with a 30-yard touchdown pass to give the home club the early lead.

Mickey Limongelli's extra-point kick split the uprights perfectly and the Blue-Gold enjoyed the 7-0 advantage.

QB Aulisi struck again late in the initial quarter hitting split receiver Ted Zangari from 20-yards out for another Bellboy score. Limongelli again toed the point after to put Belleville ahead by 14.

The Belleville coach had stated before Saturday's hash mark exhibition he thought his club was getting away from its rushing game and relying too heavily on passing.

"We came out running (against Kearny) but you have to mix it up," stated Coach Senesky. "You have to have a running threat as well as a passing one. That's why our receivers were open. Kearny was in a man to man coverage and they kind of froze with the play action giving our receivers a little bit of an advantage."

Kardinal quarterback Chris Souza seemed to follow Belleville's strategy when he threw a 25-yard TD toss to his brother Sam, coming out of the backfield. Gary Downings PAT kick cut the Bellboys margin in half.

"Their quarterback did a great job of eluding our defense all day," pointed out the Blue-Gold chieftain. "Their kids were also making some unbelievable catches. On one play in particular we had him (Souza) in the backfield but he spun around and without even looking hit his receiver in perfect stride."

The Kearny field general continued to dazzle the largely partisan BHS Stadium crowd with his Houdini-like escapes from would-be tacklers and culminated the final scoring march of the afternoon with

Booters bomb East Orange

Applying almost constant offensive pressure, the Blue Gold booters (4-12-2) out-played East Orange at the Stadium Monday afternoon, 5-2, to close out the 1977 soccer season at the high school.

Friday morning the shoe was on the other kicking foot, so to speak, as the highly rated Kearny Kardinal club journied across the river to shutout the home squad, 6-0.

"I think it shows that when it comes to selecting teams for our schedule we have to take a look at schools which have a young program similar to ours," stated Bellboy soccer coach Tony Cahill. "This is not to say we're looking for a cream puff schedule but, being realistic, we have to be considered an underdog when we bang heads with Kearny, Columbia and Bloomfield."

The Cougars and Bengals are slated to compete in different soccer conferences from Belleville next season but Kearny is still expected to be on the Blue-Gold's list of opponents in '78. BHS has fielded teams in the sport on the varsity level, for the past three years.

Bellboy center Oswaldo Vergara took a crossing pass from Joe Coscarelli, on left wing, and punched the ball in the left corner of the net, in the opening quarter Monday, to give the Blue-Gold the edge it would never relinquish.

"When he (Oswaldo) took the pass he had his back to the goal," explained the Belleville coach. "He was very calm and collected and didn't let the defensemen. Continued on page 16.

Kegler homemakers vie for Rec crown

After seven weeks of striking out and hanging around alleys, the Belleville Recreation Olympic Housewives Bowling League Championship crown is still up for grabs.

The top 20 clubs in the 32 team league are within 20 games of each other.

Yesterdays leads the kegler circuit with 38 victories while the Ms-Takes are a close second with 37 wins and Nutley Savings and Loan hold the third position with 36.

Lombardi Realty and Fashion Eyewear are knotted with 35 wins each. The Three Tops and Pesis are tied with 34 victories apiece and Lucky Strikes.

Mr. Foamy, Graf-fitti and Davey Agency are all deadlocked with 32 positive outcomes.

High team game, so far this season, was rolled by Blue Ribbon Tires which posted a 495.

The Gabriele Bros., with 1,407, hold the high club series and Rita Hochstuhl with a 203 score holds individual high game honors while Andree Morel, 520, has the tops individual series.

Bowling among the Housewives is a Thursday afternoon activity at Olympic Bowl, Washington Ave., and is sponsored by the town Rec department.

Broncos saddle up for title contest

Belleville's Broncos will be aiming at its second straight league championship crown when it meets Dumont this Sunday to decide the Bergen County Junior Football Conference title.

Last year the local junior football club captured the Essex County flag.

This season's pigskin squad has completely dominated league play notching seven victories against no losses.

The Belleville club has not been scored upon all season and the Bronco "Big D" has not yielded a yard on the ground to any of its Bergen County opponents in '77.

The defensive unit is led by linebacker Phil Cerza and linemen Mike Brown, Joe Murphy, Dan Palumbo and Bob Brave.

The Bronco offense was paced by tailback Angelo Cantanice, nine touchdowns and 413 yards gained. He averaged 10-yards per carry.

Bob Scucci and John Bucciarelli have scored TDs eight and five times respectively for this season's version of the Broncos.

Directing the offense from the quarterback position is signal caller Frank Fazzini, who has posted three scores himself and passed for six more.

Tight end Eugene Cancelliere has been on the receiving side of Fazzini's touchdown tosses four times.

The Broncos have won 20 straight games including last week's forfeit win over Englewood. The victory streak started with the Belleville team's 1975 Marotti Bowl win over Saddle Brook.

Bellgirl places 58th in region

By MIKE LAMBERTI

Senior harrier Sue Smith concluded Belleville High's 1977 cross country season by placing 58th, among a field of 180 athletes, in the state regionals last Saturday.

Next week the Times/News will feature a complete wrap up of the of the Blue-Gold club's performance on the cinders in 1977.

"Sue ran a fine race on a very grueling course, stated head coach Rich Ruffalo. "The competition was extremely tough."

Sue ran the very hilly and exhausting three mile course in a time of 20:09. In addition to her performance last Saturday, the Bellgirl this season, placed 15th, out of 90 runners, in the very highly touted Passaic County Coaches Tournament; took seventh in the Big 10 Championships; ninth in the Essex County Championships, and eighth in the state sectionals.

"I've coached cross country at Belleville for four years," added Ruffalo, "and Sue was the first runner, boy or girl, to advance to the state regionals. She has a lot to be proud of."

Net Result

Blue-Gold goalie Doug Shaw makes the save and holds on during last Friday's soccer confrontation with Kearny at BHS Stadium. The Kardinals blanked the local booters 6-0 but the Bellboys rebounded to close out the season on an optimistic foot by clipping East Orange Monday.

Sideline Sling

Belleville's Ramiro Borja tosses one in from out of bounds in the third period of the Kearny 'clash' last week. The Bellboys finished the season with an overall mark of 4-12-2.

Head Hunters

on his back, bother him. He just turned toward the net and put it in."

The Bellboy offensive unit kept kicking, scoring three more times in the second period to effectively put the contest out of the visitor's reach. "It was in the bag after that," stated Coach Cahill. "We were pressuring them for about 18 of the first 20 minutes of the game in the opening quarter and started out the same way in the second."

Belleville's Ramiro Borja sized a shot past the East Orange goalie, from 45 yards out, early in the second period for the Blue-Gold's first score in the quarter.

"It was probably the hardest shot I've seen him (Borja) take all year," pointed out Cahill. "He cranked up and sent a rocket to the net. Their goalie couldn't believe it but the ball just went right over his head and into the goal. It really set the pace for the rest of the game."

The home team's Galo Calvache sent a perfect lead pass to left winger Coscarelli who punched it to pay dirt, from 15 yards away, for another score in the second period of action.

"Galo stole the ball from one of their players and saw Joe Unguarded on wing," stated Cahill.

With two-and-a-half minutes remaining until the half Ramiro Borja connected on a direct kick from 20-yards out to complete the team-effort hat trick in the period and made it four to zip after two quarters.

"He knew right where the East Orange goalie was and put it on the left side of the net," said the Blue-Gold coach. "In fact he put the ball so far on the left it actually hit the post and spun in."

Coscarelli scored again in the third period for the Bellboy squad as Calvache once again notched the assist.

"Galo was taking the ball upfield and three defenders converged on him," described the Belleville mentor. "He lifted the ball over two of them toward the net. Joe took the deflection of the shot off the goalkeeper and just walked it into the vacated net from about eight yards out."

The visitor's broke into the scoring column later in the same period on a breakaway and posted another point in the final quarter on a similar play when the Bellboys left goalie Vito Tamborrino alone on the defensive end of the field while they attempted to apply offensive pressure to E. O.

Tamborrino, holder of Belleville's all time shot blocking record, closed out the year with 227 saves giving him a career total of 486.

The Blue-Gold coach admitted he was able to give some of his younger athletes playing time after his club established a 5-0 lead.

"It worked out very very well," said Cahill. "We couldn't see the point of really pouring it on. We were able to move people around quite a bit and give others some playing time."

In Friday's unusual a.m. contest, Kearny completely dominated the Bellboy squad, scoring a goal in the first quarter, three in the second, one in the third and another in the fourth.

"We were really outclassed," said Cahill. "Many players on Kearny play all year round and it shows. We just don't have the manpower or the skills to compete with them."

Belleville goalie Tamborrino was ejected from Friday's confrontation, in the second period, when he objected too vocally after a Kearny player kicked a ball out of his hands, following a save, and clubbed it into the net for the fourth goal of the game.

The Kardinal booters played Tuesday to decide who will advance to the North Jersey finals but results of the match were in too late to make this edition.

Stepping Out — Belleville left winger Joe Coscarelli battles a Kearny player for field advantage during the a.m. contest at Belleville Municipal Stadium.

Sideline Strategists — Bellboy head coach Tony Cahill, left, and assistant Anthony DeAquino gaze out on the field proceedings with concern over Kearny's blanking of the home club.

Turnpike energy cutbacks could save over $600,000

Energy conservation recommendations made today in a New Jersey Turnpike Authority study will enable the toll road to reduce its annual use of electricity by nine million kilowatt-hours, saving $600,000 a year.

The conversion would be completed over a three-year period for $2.8 million, a total cost that would be recaptured in less than six years.

Belleville gridgers battle Cardinals to a deadlock

Out Back — Belleville running back Bob Racioppi looks for daylight during Saturday's Homecoming contest with Kearny at the Stadium. The Cardinals and Bellboys battled to a 14-14 stalemate to mark the final game of the year on the Blue-Gold turf.

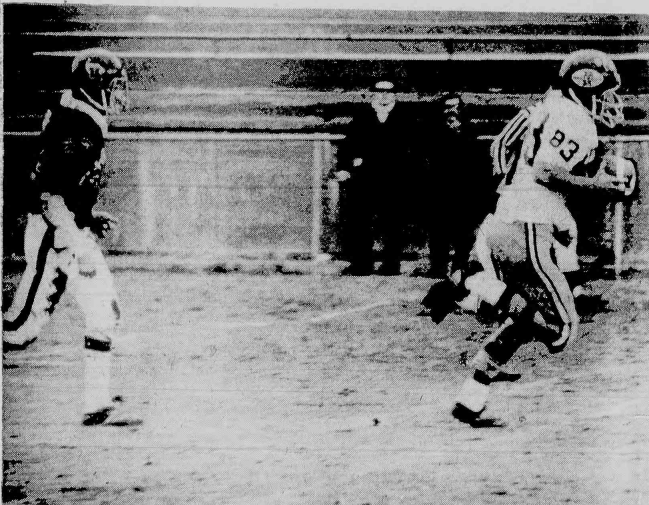

Better To Receive — Offensive end Ted Zangari snares a 20-yard TD pass from Blue-Gold quarterback Ed Aulisi to give the Bellboys an early lead in the opening period of play. The Belleville grid squad (2-5-1) is slated to close out the '77 season against Hillside in an away contest Thanksgiving Day.

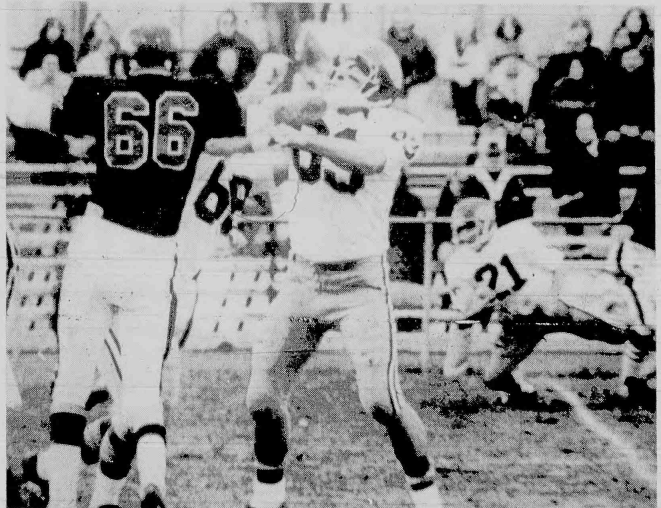

Quarterback Sack — Kearny tight end Paul Keim (86) burst into the Blue-Gold backfield in the third period Saturday to throw Belleville signal caller Aulisi (12) for a loss as Bellboy guard Mauro Tucci (66) tries to get back to prevent the sack.

Quick Release — Cardinal signal caller Chris Souza completes a forward pass to keep a second quarter scoring drive alive despite an aggressive "D" by Bellboys Mike Limongelli (52) Russ Pagano (72) and Lou Valenti (63).

Passing Time — Belleville's Ted Zangari heads up field after taking another Aulisi pass during the Homecoming contest at Municipal Stadium Saturday. The Bellboys scored 14 points in the initial quarter, to take the early advantage, but Kearny rebounded back with 14 points of its own in the second period.

Offensive Interference — Bellboy guard Lou Valenti (63) and tackle Sam Valenti (68) supply some running protection for Bob Racioppi (21) as he drives forward with a second effort.

Homecoming — Members of Belleville's school board along with town commissioners were in attendance for Saturday's Homecoming contest which marked the last high school football game at the stadium this season.

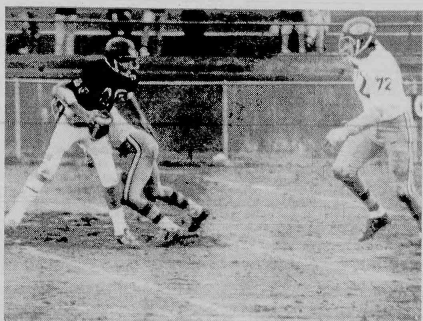

Safety Check — Blue-Gold manager Joe Longo helps readjust Bellboy tackle Joe Franceschini's shoulder pad strap during a break in the action at BHS Stadium Saturday.

Heads Up — Bellboy captains Bob Racioppi and Mike Limongelli call it in the air moments before the start of Saturday's encounter. The Cardinals won the toss and elected to receive.

Team Effort — Members of the Blue-Gold defensive unit manhandle Kearny running back Sam Souza during Saturday's hash mark confrontation. The Cardinals bounced back from a 14-0 deficit to tie the encounter at 14-14.

Quarterback Squeeze — Kearny quarterback Chris Souza completed passes all afternoon Saturday with Belleville defenders hanging all over him. This time Bellboy tackle Russ Pagano and an unidentified Blue-Gold defender apply the pressure.

Racket classes set for November 26th

A new series of tennis classes will start later this month at the Montclair YMCA. Taught on the beginner, intermediate and advanced intermediate levels, the classes are open to adults and youth member age 11 and up.

Enrollment is limited to keep class sizes small and more individualized, so early registration is suggested. Beginner classes meet in the gym, while intermediate and advanced intermediate classes take place in the tennis bubble at 39 Washington St. Instructors are tennis pros John Russo and Bill Nelson.

Beginner classes are scheduled Saturdays from noon to 1 p.m.

starting November 26 and 8-9 p.m. Tuesdays starting November 29.

Intermediate classes will meet Saturdays 11 a.m. to noon beginning November 26, 7-8 p.m. Mondays beginning November 28 and 6-7 p.m. Tuesdays beginning November 29.

Advanced intermediate classes will be held 1-2 p.m. Saturdays beginning November 26, 6-7 p.m. Mondays beginning November 28 and 7-8 p.m. Tuesdays beginning November 29.

All registration and additional information on tennis instruction is handled through the women's department at the YMCA's 25 Park St. building. Call 744-3400.

Grid squad closes season next week a 17-yard scramble into the Bellboy endzone.

Downing recorded the solo point after to tie the clash forever.

Both teams committed a number of turnovers in the contest with Belleville's Tom Henry, Alex Donna Maria and Anthony Dondarski picking off Kardinal passed for interceptions.

"The temperature was a little colder than normal and it may have had something to do with it but it certainly wasn't a great factor," explained Senesky.

The Blue-Gold coach complimented the fine running of backs Bob Racioppo, Joe Salters and Jerry Paladino and also cited both the execution and blocking of linemen Lou Valenti and Mauro Tucci in the game.

"Defensively we're getting some good individual plays but we're not aggressive enough," stated the Belleville coach. "We're playing very cautiously. The players don't want to make a mistake and other teams are having success with the option."

Mike Limongelli and Tom Henry each had fine days on defense against Kearny, added Coach Senesky.

"One of the most important things to consider is that there are only three seniors on our defensive unit," pointed out the Bellboy mentor. "All the rest are juniors and sophomores and we will have time to work with them and improve on what it is that's lacking."

Bearcats battle Dumont for championship Sunday

The town's junior junior traveling team, the Bearcats, will be trying to avenge an earlier 7-6 loss when it faces Dumont before the Bronco contest Sunday.

The Bearcats have posted a 6-1 record in its initial season of competition between the hash marks for Belleville.

Last week the local squad closed out the '77 regular year of pigskin action with a 19-6 defeat over Englewood.

Quarterbacks Bob Woodcock and Robby Hayes lead the Bearcat offensive attack along with running backs Jimmy Castelli, Tony Ritacco, George Anderson and Tony Lombardi grinding out the yardage in the ground.

Defensively David Montemarano, Bill Corbalis, Graig Mack and Andy Zoppi lead the charge.

The Bearcats open up championship play at 12 noon at Dumont High School Field.

Heavyweight Duane Bobick highlights Golden Circle boxing card Nov. 30

A 10-round heavyweight bout between Duane Bobick and Pedro Agosto will highlight the Golden Circle Boxing card, promoted by Cornerstone Inc., Wednesday, Nov. 30, at the Branch Brook Park Ice Center.

Promoter Murad Muhammad gave the show its Golden Circle label because the Community Action Committee for Crippled Children (CACC) of Newark is involved in the promotion.

The CACC will receive $38, tax deductible, from 1,500 gold colored seats priced at $50 each. Regular ringside price is $12 and other tickets sell for $8 and $6.

CACC is a group of community physicians dedicated to preserve and protect the hospital for crippled children in Newark. The organization was formed several years ago when reports circulated the hospital was to move out of the city.

"We need this hospital in order that disabled children and adults can realize maximum treatment," said president J. Harold Bennett, a Milburn doctor. "This is the first organization of its kind and its express aim is to lend support to any charity which is threatened by shorttage of funds. We have an excellent group of doctors supporting the idea."

Bobick has lost only one fight in 40 professional matches and won the bronze medal in the 1972 Olympic Games. Puerto Rican native Agosto boasts a 25-9-1 ring record.

Both are punches and Bobick has kayoed 33 foes while Agosto has knocked out 17, stated Muhammad.

Remember how good DONUTS used to taste?

At Garden State Farms they still do!

Could be because they're made pretty much the way your Grandma made them. She used ingredients she knew were good...like whole milk, rich creamy butter, farm fresh eggs to make a rich batter...and, so do we!

At Garden State Farms, we make all natural donuts every day in our donut kitchen. The batter mixes up rich and yellow because it has fresh eggs in it from our Springfield Egg Farm, along with fresh whole milk and butter from our own dairy. They brown-up plump and fat...bigger than other donuts you can buy...and they come out of the frying kettle with little cracks on the outside, just like Grandma's. When you take a light fluffy mouthful you'll remember about good donuts.

At Garden State Farms we may have even gone Grandma one better...cause we make so many different kinds...old fashioned plain, powdery, sugared donuts, sugar-sweet-glazed, spicy cinnamon, rich chocolate and the NEW whole wheat donut for "unrefined" goodness. Try it! Donuts like Mom would make if she had the time...from Garden State Farms. We're very proud of them.

Roche building Jersey plant

Two major building projects — in Freeport, Texas, and Belvidere, N.J. — have been announced by Hoffmann-La Roche Inc.

The company will build an isophytol plant in Freeport on property acquired several years ago. Isophytol is an intermediate used in the manufacture of vitamin E. Current facilities for the manufacture of this substance in Nutley will thus be supplemented to keep pace with the growing market. The plant is scheduled to be completed by 1981.

In Belvidere, the company will build an addition to its current vitamin C facilities to increase the capacity by 35 percent. The new plant will produce both ascorbic acid and ascorbic acid derivatives.

In addition, Roche is building a new facility in Belvidere that will utilize fermentation technology in the production of riboflavin (vitamin B2).

New Navy plane becoming a reality

The future of the U.S. Navy's new twin-engine F-18 Hornet Naval Strike Fighter looks "good, long and healthy."

That was the message given by F-18 Hornet program officials to 150 contractor representatives, including executives of Walter Kidde & Co., Inc. of Belleville, who attended a one-day F-18 suppliers' symposium at Northrop Corporation's Aircraft Group in Hawthorne, Calif.

The F-18 is being developed and produced by McDonnell Douglas Corporation, prime contractor, and Northrop, which has responsibility for about 40 per cent of the work. General Electric will produce the F404 engines which will be installed in the F-18.

Featured speakers at the meeting were W.J. Willoughby Jr., deputy chief of Naval Material for Reliability and Maintainability, and Capt. G.W. Lenox, U.S. Navy F-18 project manager.

Both Naval officials, along with representatives of Northrop and McDonnell Douglas, stressed the importance of meeting the Navy's stringent

F-18 cost and reliability requirements. The F-18, it was noted, is the first plane to be designed to feature reduced life cycle systems costs by offering improved reliability, easier maintenance and better combat survivability. Life systems costs include the development, procurement and flying of the aircraft along with its support equipment and manning personnel over the span of time the system will be in the operating forces.

Previously, fighter aircraft were developed against some specific performance requirement such as high speed or long range. With its simplified engines, designed for reliability, easy access maintenance features and high combat maneuverability, it is hoped the F-18 will do a better defense job at a lower cost for the Navy.

The Navy's total procurement plan is for 811 F-18s, including 11 developmental test aircraft, for the Navy and the Marine Corps. First flight of the aircraft is scheduled for mid-1978 with production expected to reach a peak in 1983.

TRUSTEE WANTS TO EVALUATE SCHOOLS

Chieffo 'tired' of inferior image here

Trustee Michael Chieffo says he's "sick and tired" of hearing that Belleville has an inferior school system and now he plans to do something about it.

"Belleville suffers from a poor image and I don't think that's justified," Chieffo said. The Board of Education member intends to conduct a study to, once and for all, evaluate Belleville in comparison to other school districts.

Chieffo said that he has heard comments from residents here that Belleville schools are not up to par, when he doesn't know these criticisms to be necessarily true.

"We do have certain weaknesses in the Belleville schools, but also some very strong points," the trustee noted. "The purpose of the survey will be to determine the strengths and weaknesses of each area."

The objective of Chieffo's proposed survey is to determine the educational position of Belleville in relation to other school districts which are considered superior.

A committee made up of approximately 26 persons and headed by Chieffo plans on interviewing superintendents, administrators, boards of education and anyone else involved in the educational process in the four outside districts.

The critical areas to be studied by the panel are listed as:

- Curriculum;
- Guidance departments;
- School budgets — frequency of passage and ratio of direct dollars spent on education;
- Evaluation of staff and administration;
- Student interest areas.

In addition, a standardized questionnaire will be developed and distributed to the parents in the districts.

Chieffo said that he is consulting with Dr. John Greed, superintendent of schools, about the particular questionnaire to be employed in the study.

So far, two are being considered for use. They are the Parent Opinion Inventory, prepared by the National Study of School Evaluation, Arlington, Virginia, and the Hanover Park Regional High School District Opinion Survey.

The committee that will conduct the survey will include:

- Two accountants or people of equivalent financial background;
- Three presidents selected from Home and School, OPE and PTA;
- Ten students — five from junior high school and five from the senior high;
- Seven additional parents; and
- Four teachers.

The members and president of the Board of Education along with the superintendent of schools, have received copies of the Chieffo proposal and discussed it at last week's meeting of the Board.

Chieffo told them that he wanted the Board's approval of the program, but that, should the Board veto his proposal, he will form an ad hoc committee on his own.

The trustee also stipulated that he head the investigating group.

"Although many of the concerns raised in a study entitled, 'Public's Attitudes Toward the Public Schools' (School Leader, Nov.-Dec. 1976) will be answered through this study, I am not sure whether or not the Board will approve it," Chieffo mentioned.

At an October meeting of the Board, Caesar Romano, president, asked that Chieffo come back to the Board with some scope to his study plan, noting that Chieffo seemed to be forming a lay committee instead of educators.

One result of that request by the Board president was Chieffo's presentation of his proposal at the School Board meeting.

The Board members have not voted yet on whether to allow Chieffo to head the committee or whether they want such a study conducted by the type of committee that Chieffo suggests.

Visco a delegate to engineer group

Ralph F. Visco of Belleville has been installed as a delegate of the Consulting Engineers Council of New Jersey to the National Professional Engineers in Private Practice Society.

Visco, president of RFV Consulting Engineers, Belleville, is a former president of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineers and a former chairman of the Belleville Planning Board.

A graduate of the Newark College of Engineering (New Jersey Tech), he lives in Belleville with his wife, Eileen.

Rotary Speaker — John P. Agee, vice president of the portfolio market dept. at Fidelity, was yesterday's guest speaker at the Belleville Rotary luncheon at the Chandelier. Agee spoke on "Managing Your Money."

Ken's Car Clues

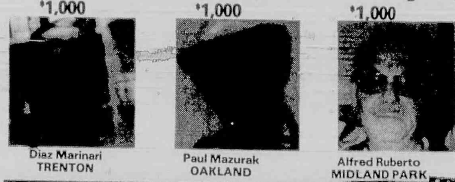

There's a technique to cold winter starts that can save your battery and prevent your engine from flooding. Rather than pumping the gas peddle, press it to the floor all the way, hold for 30 seconds, then release slowly. Repeat, pressing the peddle half-way down (meanwhile make sure your lights, radio and heater are off).

Local realtors' against vandalism

The board continued its project by requesting school superintendents to send a letter to parents advising them of "Mischievous Night," the night before Halloween when vandalism is in full swing.

The letter encouraged parents to supervise their children's activities on that night and, if possible, to plan a family activity. Thanks to the efforts and cooperation of the communities, vandalism on that night was the lowest in years.

The board sought to involve the youth of the community in the program by sponsoring poster contests in local schools. Also, a $25 government-savings-bond was awarded to the student who worked to correct an act of vandalism.

The board's project was part of the National Association of Realtors' Make America Better program, which encourages realtors to initiate and implement projects to improve the quality of life in their communities.

The Make America Better project of the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge,

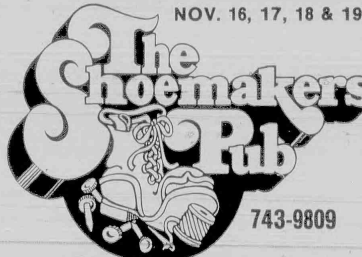

Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors has been named by the National Association of Realtors "best by a small board in the vandalism prevention category."

An award will be presented by association president Harry G. Elmstrom at the 70th annual realtors' national convention in Miami Beach this month.

Bloomfield Orchestra to open at junior high

The opening fall concert of the Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Edward Napiewocki, will be held Sunday Nov. 20, at 3 p.m. The concert is planned for the North Junior High School, 60 Huck Rd., Bloomfield.

Tania Fleischer, pianist from South Orange, will be the guest soloist. The Bloomfield Civic Chorus will join the orchestra in a joint rendition of a concert version of "Porgy and Bess."

The program also will include the following selections: Freischütz Overture by Carl Maria von Weber and Piano Concerto No. 3 in C Minor by Ludwig van Beethoven.

Miss Fleischer will be featured in the Beethoven Piano Concerto.

Miss Fleischer, 14 year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Julio Fleischer, has been studying piano and theory with Elizabeth Marshall for six years.

At the age of 10, Tania won the Music Education Council piano competition and played at Carnegie Recital Hall for the winners' concert.

In 1974, she received first prize in the piano competition held by the Music Educators Association. The following year, she won the annual music award from the New Jersey Chapter of the National Society of Arts and Letters.

Also in that year, she was awarded Honorable Mention in the Garden State Symphony Orchestra Auditions, and placed second in the Young Artists' category of the Music Educators Association Competitions.

Tania has participated in the Seton Hall University master class recital conducted by concert pianist Eugene List and in May 1976, and July 1977, Tania played a half hour recital on WNYC's Young American Artists Series.

She has given performances for the Maplewood Women's Club and the Newark Beth Israel Medical Center Women's Auxiliary.

This year, Tania spent the summer in Dublin, Ireland, studying piano and theory on a grant from the Royal Irish Academy of Music. She also performed in the final concert at the Academy and played at the home of William Shannon, the U.S. Ambassador to Ireland.

In June 1977, she was awarded Honorable Mention in the Annual Polish Cultural Foundation Music Competition and performed in four concerts throughout Northern New Jersey.

Essex CYO now signing up students for ski weekend
