Red Cross Drivers Needed

The Belleville Red Cross is appealing to the people of Belleville for volunteer drivers to assist them in serving the people of our community who need transportation to doctors, offices, hospitals and clinics for necessary medical attention.

Their workload is increasing drastically and they are doing everything in their power to fulfill these needs but they desperately need additional volunteer drivers. Experienced drivers, male or female who have any available time regardless how little are urged to call the Belleville Red Cross 759-4610.

Juveniles Nabbed In Siding Snatch

Two Belleville juveniles were arrested Sunday evening by police after a day-long surveillance outside the National Siding Co. on Stevens Street. The pair has been charged with breaking and entering the premises.

A charge of juvenile delinquency has been levied against a 14-year-old and a 16-year-old, both from Belleville. The two youths have been released into the custody of their parents.

Police officials report that James Clark, owner of the National Siding Co., 55 Stevens Street, came into headquarters Sunday morning after he discovered an overhead side door on his business had been forced open. Clark told

Public Works Benefits

Two Officials Explore Federal Funds Assist

A pair of Belleville Commissioners are now exploring ways of obtaining federal funds to initiate two Public Works projects in Town which would alleviate flooding at Municipal Stadium and increase water pressure in the Valley section.

Mrs. Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, is sending a letter to Essex County Freeholder Harry J. Callaghan asking that Belleville be included under a federal program designating Essex County eligible for public works funds under Title I of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1968.

Commissioner Michael Marotti on the other hand, besides exploring the method to obtain funds through Freeholder Callaghan, is hoping that legislation congress proposed by Reps. Peter W. Rodino Jr. (D-10th Dist.) and Joseph G. Minish (D-11th Dist.) to expand the accelerated public works program will ultimately help Belleville.

Mrs. Senatore, if she obtains the federal funds, would like to use the money for installation of a new water main in the Cortlandt Street area. The main would increase water pressure in the Valley section of Town. Town Fathers have already okayed a resolution to begin the project and contract bids will go out next week. Mrs. Senatore states that the cost will be about $90,000 but if federal aid can be obtained, it will split the cost of the main on a 50-50 basis.

Kindergarten Registration

Anthony J. Greco, Superintendent of Schools, announces that efforts are now being made to determine kindergarten enrollment for September. All children who will reach their fifth birthday by December 31 are eligible for enrollment.

Parents of eligible children are urged to see the elementary school in their district as soon as possible.

He would like to alleviate that condition.

"There is terrible drainage around that section of the field," remarked Marotti. "If we can obtain these federal funds I would like to develop that area for a soccer field. Also, the football team would be able to practice there."

But the stadium plan is entirely contingent upon receiving federal aid. Marotti said he may be able to get funding on an 80-20 basis with the federal government paying the majority of costs.

Freeholder Callaghan for months has been trying to get

Transport Bids Out

Bus Strike Solution Sought By Educators

By John J. Bunevich

About 500 Belleville students affected by the Transport of New Jersey bus strike may get relief this week.

The Board of Education is now accepting bids from area transportation firms in an effort to hire buses for the duration of the strike.

Union negotiators met with representatives of the struck bus company yesterday to resolve differences but as of early this week both sides seem far from a settlement. Transport of New Jersey, formerly Public Service Co., just four months ago turned from a public to a profit-making organization and it may take months to come to terms with the union.

Harold Dufford, Belleville business administrator for the school system, has sent letters to eight area bus firms informing them that the Town is now accepting bids on transportation for the duration of the strike. The companies range from as far out as Whippany to Paterson, Clifton and Jersey City. The School Board will accept bids on a per diem or contractual basis.

"Hopefully, we will get a favorable response. We may have buses as early as next week," remarked Board of Education member Caesar Romano.

Romano, who has been in charge of the work for the Board of Education to see how the strike has affected schools and classroom at

Patrolman Pair Foils Armed Robbery Caper

Two alert Belleville patrolmen foiled an attempted armed robbery last Thursday and within 24 hours of the crime two prime suspects were arrested.

Apprehended at the scene was a 20-year-old Newark man and the following evening another 20-year-old Newarker was arrested in his home by Belleville detectives.

The attempted armed robbery took place about 10:30 p.m. last Thursday, March 9, on Belmont Avenue. Samuel James, 64, was reportedly resting in his 68 Belmont Avenue apartment when two men entered the premises.

According to Deputy Chief Frank Hagitt, the two men held a six-inch switch blade knife to James' throat and demanded his money. A neighbor, report police, heard the disturbance and notified police. Meanwhile, the two robbers took James' cash and fled.

After a short investigation, the two officers obtained the name of the other suspect and the following evening Belleville detectives Martin Natale and Frank Falcone, with the assistance of three Newark detectives, arrested the man in his home.

The suspect arrested at the scene is now being held in lieu of $3,500 bail in Newark Street Jail pending a March 22 Municipal Court hearing.

Washington Ave. Slated For New Traffic Lights

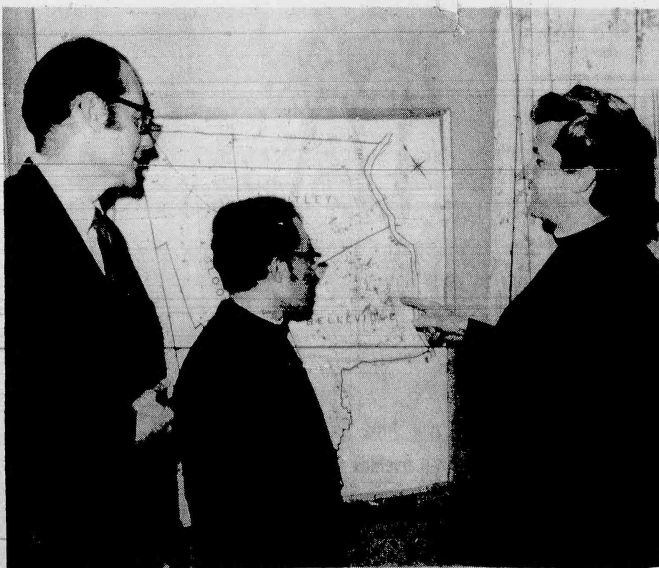

Nine traffic lights at intersections along Washington Avenue may have new equipment installed under a federal program, reports Robert Latorza, director of Public Safety. Commissioners Tuesday night unanimously resolved to allow the change.

According to Laterza,

many traffic lights here are of the station type. Under state law, all highways are required to have overhead lights. Washington Avenue is a state highway. The Topics program allows for the federal government to pay for 100 per cent of the costs with the State Highway Department installing the new lights. Intersections involved include Mill Street, Little Street, Division Avenue, William Street, Belleville Avenue, Holmes Street, Jorammon Street, Greylock Parkway and Overlook Avenue. Also changed will be the Jorammon and Main light.

Ministerium Plans Religious Survey For Entire Town

MAP OF BELLEVILLE is eyed by three members of the Belleville Ministerium, an organization of all churches in Town which plans to conduct religious survey here on Saturday, March 25. Studying map (l-r) is the Rev. Alfred Stone Jr., with the Rev. Vincent Avedula of St. Anthony's and the Rev. Albert Asapach, chairman of Ministerium.

Set Next Week

Members of the Belleville Ministerium are now finalizing plans for the first religious survey to be taken in Belleville. Officials are now enlisting the services of 200 volunteers to canvass the Town Saturday, March 25, in a unified attempt to unravel Belleville's religious makeup.

Residents are asked to stay near home March 25 to answer about 15 questions about their religious practices. The pollsters, made up of volunteers from most of the churches in Town, will take to the streets 9:30 a.m., March 25, and will carry on until the approximately 10,000 dwellings have been covered. Each pollster will be wearing an identification badge and will take only two minutes of the responder's time, according to the Ministerium spokesman.

In addition to a questionnaire to be filled out, volunteers will distribute a free booklet comprised of emergency information. The booklet, besides listing all churches in Town and their

Belleville Living In The Gay 90's

By Allan Crisp
Town Historian

Town Historian Allan Crisp takes a hard look at Belleville 76 years ago, in the gay nineties, when prices were lower, taxes were almost non-existent and the pace of life in Town was much slower.

Opposed to today's multi-million budget, the Township's total tax rolls in 1898 garnered only $50,668, and that amount was more than sufficient to run affairs.

In these days of high prices, and high taxes, it might have therapeutic value to look at the annual report of Belleville's Township Committee on April 1, 1898, seventy-six years ago.

Members of the Township Committee were: Henry W. Underwood, Chairman; James T. Boylan, Treasurer; J.A. Finnan, Dr. Edward O. Cyphers and Pierre Black; John J. Hannan, Clerk.

James Smith, clearing snow from sidewalks 3.00
John Scaine, ditto 6.00
Patrick Daly ditto 3.00
William Powers, and others, clearing snow from crosswalks and culverts 37.50
O.H. Perry, Town Counsel 100.00
J.J. Hannan, Services Town Clerk 198.00

Each member of Town Committee 100.00

(plus $10 as member of Board of Health)

Eight "inmates" of the Town House (now the Recreation House) and 28 families were assisted on a budget of $2,000, which included $400 for John Mulligan, Overseer of the Town House. Disbursements included such items as:

Henry Reeves, carriage taking Mrs. Muldavy's children away to Home 1.00
Matthew McManus, 6 days work around Town House 9.00
Board of Health 90
Seed 1.00
Repairing chairs 5.25
Wine

It cost slightly under $25,000 to operate Belleville's schools in 1898. Teachers' salaries totaled $8,454, janitors $834, textbooks and stationery $803, enlarging and repairing $1,761, account new schools 7,855 and incidentals $1,810.

Before you start wishing for "the good old days"—just think of Matt McManus working around the Poor House for six days and being paid $1.50 per day!

Attendance Declines

Car Pools Formed To Fight Bus Strike

tendence, reports that parents have organized car pools to bring students to school. "I've seen great cooperation on the part of parents during this crisis," said Romano. "It's gratifying to see the residents here band together for the benefit of the children."

Romano added that although attendance and tardiness at both the junior and senior high school suffered during the first four or five days of the strike the trend now seems "to be coming back down to normal." The senior high buses about 210 students while the junior high transports nearly 270 children. Car pools have been formed by parents at both schools but lateness is still up about seven per cent. The junior high seems to be suffering more from the strike, most likely because the average student age there is younger than that off the high school sophomores there do not yet own autos. On the other hand, the junior high has seen more success in organizing car pools for stranded students.

"School personnel has been helping arrange car pools with parents and we've been very successful in finding a temporary solution to the problem," reports junior high vice principal Mario Di Maggio. "We've even had parents calling up the school and volunteering their services. I see discipline problems day in and day out so I want to compliment the students here on getting to school."

Further efforts to combat the strike have seen the police department block off High Street, which runs in the rear of the junior high, between Van Houton Place and Holmes Street, during the hours of 2 and 3:30 p.m. when school lets out. The street has been made one-way to ease traffic there.

Cy Grossman, Junior High School principal, announced that students arriving early to school will be placed in a special room until classes begin. That move, explains Grossman, is to accommodate parents who must leave early for work but must also drive their children to school. School doors open at 7 a.m. and the first class begins at 7:45 for ninth graders. Seventh and eighth graders too stay report to school early even though their day doesn't begin until 8:15 a.m.

At the junior high, the first day of the strike, March 1, there were 169 students absent, high above the norm. The next day the figure dropped to 66, the third day, 73, and the fourth day saw 45 absentees, about normal. Officials there report attendance is now normal.

"In about four days it leveled off," added Di Maggio. The senior high school has seen a problem of a different sort. According to principal Raymond Smith, "some students have been taking advantage of us during the strike."

Smith reports that although lateness the first day of the strike jumped from three to 15 per cent, some students have not made a good effort to get to school on their own and are using the strike as an excuse. The high school buses about 210 students and saw about 15 per cent absenteeism March 1. Lateness has leveled off but is still higher than usual.

"We've had about 25 calls here inquiring about car pools," said Smith. "We are trying to get all students a ride to school. On the whole, there has not been that much of a decline in attendance. Most of the kids are getting here on their own."

Smith speculates cause may be dent-kr

History Is Made

For the first time in the memory of old timers, the Board of Belleville Commissioners left intact a School Board budget which was rejected by voters.

The decision by the Town Commissioners represents a shot in the arm for our school system and Belleville's reputation.

A community can rise no higher than the level of its educational system. Although it does not necessarily follow, usually better quality education costs money—and for too long Belleville voters have been rejecting School Board budgets more out of habit than intelligent analysis.

We are pleased that the Belleville Board of Commissioners approved the budget as originally submitted to the voters. Not only do our school children benefit but also Belleville's image.

Proposed New State Taxes

The Governor's Tax Study Commission recently came up with a proposal which included the levy of a personal income tax, a statewide real estate tax, the elimination of the local real estate tax and giving to the local municipalities the option to levy supplemental real estate taxes above those levied by the State.

Most of the proposal is justified on the grounds that we need money for our schools.

It wasn't too long ago that a cigarette tax was levied and at that time we were told revenue from this source would go for school aid.

Well it's an old story. The public officials who are responsible for enacting taxes like the levy of cigarettes, increased beverage taxes, and more recently the sales tax, come in with a low-ball tax rate and before one can get adjusted to the tax itself, up goes the rate.

We are more than dissatisfied with the tax proposal made by the Governor's Tax Study Commission.

Dating Food

In New Jersey the State Consumer Affairs Director and food concerns have reached agreement on a new system of dating foodstuffs. It is anticipated that the overwhelming majority of food stores and processors will abide by the system.

In brief, the system provides for clearer dating, so that customers will be able to read, easily, the date when food-stuffs should be removed from shelves. For too many years, in most states, all sorts of half-cooked codes and half-hidden systems have been employed by stores and food processors.

The prime to hide the information from the customer, if possible, while providing a guide for the store manager. Laws pertaining to a few foods forced the industry to provide the public more accessible information on these foodstuffs and pressure for more dating has been building steadily in recent years.

The New Jersey system is complete. It excludes meat, for instance, is a step in the right direction. Baked goods, milk products, delicatessen

New Municipal Banner Design Gets Approval

By Helen Auerbach
One Year Ago

School Board president Leonard Back said that the Board was considering the possibility of making the adult school, the summer school, and the summer music program self-sustaining in an effort to offset 1971-72 budget problems. Back said that tuition increases plus fee charges in previously free courses would result if the Board okayed the move. The Board was hoping to save approximately $15,000 from the summer school, $1,800 from the adult school and $2,000 from the music program.

According to local superintendent of schools Anthony Greco, the expansion of the Belleville High School vocational work-study program was expected to receive an additional $200 per student annually in state aid. Greco expressed his opinion after Belleville principals and administrators had met with State Commissioner of Education Robert Seitzer, who had discussed with local educators the effects of the Bateman Report. The report was an approved bill which guaranteed state aid increases for schools.

Five Years Ago

A public hearing on the amendments in the 1967 municipal budget—which reflected an increase of $112,995—was scheduled to take place. The financial plan, which had been adopted by the Town Council, had been sharply revised to include a $350 raise for all town employees, a $351 raise for police and firemen, plus 12 paid holidays and overtime for the uniformed forces. The amended budget brought the tax rate to approximately $4.60 per 100 of assessed valuation or an increase of 46 points.

Belleville Councilmen approved the design for the town's first flag. The municipal banner would be buff in color with an interior design of azure with pink cherry blossoms. The design would be in the form of geographic outline of the town wreathed by two cherry blossoms. The only words appearing on the standard would be "Belleville, New Jersey" and "Cherry Blossom Capital of America." The original drawing for the flag had been done by Robert Cook.

Capturing the first District Championship in Belleville High School bowling history, the BHS keglers rolled ahead of a 30 team field to win the state's Northern New Jersey District A Contest and gain a top position in the International Athletic Association Bowling Tournament to be held in Asbury Park. The members of the quintet were: Mike Rowitz, Don Smith, Bob Santin, Doug McCumber, and John Murphy.

Ten Years Ago

A Sunday closing ordinance was passed on first reading at a commission session. Introduced by Commissioner Robert C. Gruhn, director of Public Works, the measure would force the closing of businesses employing more than four from their basements due to flooding of the Third River kept a commission meeting going until almost midnight. Golden attacked "inaccuracies in the preparation of the Public Works budget." He voiced strong criticism of salary increases in the departments and their use of surplus funds. A group of men from Fairway Avenue blamed the Public Works Department for failing to provide sand bags in time to halt the overflow of the Third River.

Fifteen Years Ago

After a four-hour public hearing on the 1957 municipal budget, the Belleville Town Commissioners announced that they were cutting $8,315 from the figure they had originally submitted for approval. At many points in the lengthy session, heated arguments flared between members of the Belleville Taxpayers' Association, who had led an attack on the proposed budget, and Commissioners, who were defending their appropriations. As a result of the reduction in the budget, final approval of the figure was delayed for two weeks.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Only one change was affected in the naming of committees on the Board of Education by president Ralph Allaire. Formerly the head of the teachers committee, Allaire designated Herbert Schmutz, whom Allaire succeeded as president, to head that committee in 1947. Allaire took over Schmutz's position on the text book committee. Other committee heads were: Charles Gebhardt, chairman of the building and grounds; Mrs. Homer Zink, chairman of the health committee, and Joseph Arnold, finance chairman.

Teacher shortage was one of the principal subjects of lengthy discussion at the national convention of the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City, commented Superintendent of Schools Wayne Parmer. The existing shortage and the probability that the situation would become worse before it became better had worried the educators, stated Parmer in a report submitted to the Board of Education.

Lawrence E. Keenan of 32 Merz Avenue was elected Exalted Ruler of Belleville Lodge No. 1123, B.P.O. Elks, at the annual election of officers held in the Washington Avenue clubhouse. Mr. Keenan succeeded Joseph Reilly who became the lodge's delegate to the Grand Lodge. Keenan had been a member of the local group for six years.

The Board of Commissioners passed an ordinance changing a small strip of land on the northwest corner of Bayard and Main Streets from a residential to an industrial zone by a 4 to 1 vote. The change of zone was made to permit the erection of a lunch wagon on the corner in question.

Speak Up!

Mrs. Senatore Is Defended By Resident

To the Editor:

At the last town meeting of the Commissioners, my husband and I had occasion to be sitting in the Council Chambers. We were there for a little problem of our own. As the meeting progressed, it became apparent that there were some people in the audience who were bent on harrasing Mrs. Mary Senatore, the sole woman commissioner. I think this is disgusting to our town. Fortunately, Mrs. Senatore kept her cool and in a lady-like manner proceeded to carry on with town affairs. My husband, who believes that a woman's place is at home, agreed that Mrs. Mary Senatore refutes the old adage that "it's a man's world".

Mrs. Senatore, we wish you God speed. Please do not despair. The citizens of Belleville do not approve of these underhanded and obvious tactics. Good luck in all your endeavors.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucille Ager

Assistance Appreciated

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Sabre Cadets of Belleville and the Holy Child Crusaders on Feb. 19, when they were stranded here after competing in the color guard show held by the Sabre Cadets at the senior high. We all appreciated the way that Lt. J. Mundy who was on duty that night at Headquarters, and the young policeman (whose name we didn't get) went about getting us enough blankets for the guard.

We would also like to thank Post 105 for having them, Nutley First Aid the Belleville Red Cross and our fine policemen who without the help of these fine people the guard would not have been able to spend the comfortable night that they did.

MR. RAYMOND KINSLEY SR.

Helen's Thing

The Cutting Of Salaries, Corners, Etc.

By Helen Maguire

LAST WEEK'S column, through some error in production, had it's final paragraph cut off with the result that the whole thing was kind of left hanging in mid-air. The concluding lines read, "Before the next year is over, the two-some may have turned me completely grey but I wouldn't trade them for all the tea in China. Nor, dear reader, would I give you two cents for another set."

There have been a few more things cut around here this past two weeks, namely the breadwinner's salary. The supervisors at Public Service, recently rechristened Transport of New Jersey, belong to the same union as the drivers and mechanics consequently, are out them and walking the line. It's a very funny when it's all outgo and no income. Rod's main concern is that I will be miser when the strike is over, he may eat steak again.

IT'S BEEN WORKING the night shift at sallantine's this past week, going in at midnight 'till seven in the morning. When he came home and told me that several of the men had found a week's work at the brewery, my first thought was "HOORAY!" and my second was "How ironic that you should find employment, however temporary, with a company which is shutting its doors and causing untold anxiety and projected hardship for men who have invested decades of service and now see everything go down the drain." Where does a man go when he is five or six years short of retirement age, too young to collect social security and too old to find another job no matter what experience or skills he may possess?

Some things, however, never seem to get cut like taxes or the price of beef. We have owned his house for nine and a half years and in that time, the taxes have risen close to sixty dollars a month. We now pay more in taxes than we do on the mortgage. I don't know who to blame, certainly not the governing body of the town. Those men are as much victims of circumstance as we all are.

Some people make a living out of telling other people how to cut things like corners or he time spent on housework. What a tidy sum Ielose must make collecting the hints people and her and compiling a syndicated column to say nothing of a book (or is it two?). Wish I'd thought of it before she did. Pangs of jealousy.

I'm STOPPING before I get so gloomy I can't stand myself. A parting note: If you want to cut prices on clothes etc. this week don't forget the rummage sale at St. Paul's tonight and tomorrow morning or the annual bazaar at Temple B'nai Israel Saturday evening and all day Sunday.

Behind Schedule

Experiencing Problems With A Book Report

By ABIE

True! I've got a book report due the day after tomorrow. And yes, I've still got close to 250 pages left to read. And as you may have noticed, I'm not reading the book.

Home, School Assn. Meeting This Week

The Home and School Association of Belleville High School will hold its next regular meeting on March 22 at the Senior High at 8 p.m.

My past I took a break from the reading. I couldn't see the words very well. From past experiences I learned that I'd be better off if I stopped rather than to proceed and possibly cross THE LINE.

I had been reading for three hours and had read seventy-six pages. Not a very fast reader Robin could read four billion pages a second if he could turn the pages faster and not blink! But Robin isn't one of my dolls so I don't really care.

But as for my own excuse for proceeding slowly, well, I'm studying every word and analyzing every sentence. At this rate, I might have it read before June 5, 1975.

There's a hockey game on tee vee right this very minute but I'm not watching it. I'm abstaining from life's true pleasures. (Just for a simple book report!) So my mind crept toward and dwelt upon a memory I have of a time I didn't read a book.

Everybody got on me about it and I faked feeling bad and they believed I was really sorry I didn't read the book. Show me a ten year old who wants to read a dumb book and I'll show you a real egghead. (be sure and come around Easter!)

It doesn't matter if I read the book. It just matters that I can report on it, that I can answer given questions with acceptable answers—Bs. The questions are geared around plot, theme, and moral. The words I don't know the meaning of except for the four or five minutes that I'm doing my report. After I've finished it, I forget the meanings of the words, sometimes I even forget the book.

I might like to say that I awoke on the morn with this amnesia but today is not this day nor is the morn. Yesterday is not the day before today. And tomorrow isn't even the day after this day.

Maybe tomorrow it will all come back to me and I might even be able to find it because I'll actually have an idea of what I'm looking for. Not that it matters much to you, it doesn't even matter much to me.

It all seems so ludicrous. If I were to find what I'm looking for, I wouldn't be able to love it. It seems that you've even got to be a certain age to love something. Everybody knows that we can't love anything unless we understand it.

It's hard to sit here and write this, I don't know if I love to write. I'm not even sure if I like to write. Sometimes I wish I were an old man with all but a few weeks of my life behind me. Sometimes I really am.

More Answers From Q.A.P.S.

Dear Q.A.P.S.,

I have a question. What do you do when a teacher hates you?

signed,
Failing

Dear Q.A.P.S.,

My parents have been bugging me again about going out so much and not doing any studying. Sometimes I think they're jealous of me because I have some fun and they stay home and watch T.V. How can I get them off my back?—J.S.

Answer:

First find out why he dislikes you so very much. Then maybe you can improve your credit or something, so he will know you are trying.

Dear Q.A.P.S.,

I have this terrible problem. There's a groovy guy at school that I really like but...he doesn't even know I'm alive. What can I do to make him notice me?

Confused.

Answer:

Maybe he does like you but is afraid to show it. Some guys are afraid they will be laughed at if they ask you out. Give him the O.K. sign. You start a conversation first if he can't seem to be able to. Or if that doesn't work, try a new hair style, or perfume. Wear something new to school and ask him if he likes it. Sometimes it's all up to the girl! You better grab him before someone else does!

St. Patrick's Day Festivities Traced

By Mary Bowden

The Irish people dress in green in commemoration of their beloved apostle, St. Patrick, on March 17.

St. Patrick, the Apostle of Ireland, has become popular in very many lands. He has been called "everyone's saint." He was born probably in Gaul and was the son of an Imperial Roman official. He was taken by pirates to pagan Ireland and was sold as a

Forgot To Look For Idea

By Anthony Buccino

It is sad, even pathetic. Yesterday I had some sort of idea of what I was looking for. But today I have no idea, I don't even know where to start.

Band Show

By Bill Hamilton

Many months ago, it seems like years now, I wrote a column stating that a major problem in Belleville is that people do not take pride in this town...our town. There are more than enough critics, but so few who see the greatness of Belleville...and fewer still who try to make this town greater.

But this Friday and Saturday night will reflect one of the greatest assets of this town...Belleville High School Marching Band, Twirlers, and Color Guard. This Band from the Senior High School has traveled thousands of miles in the last several years up and down the eastern United States, taking the name of Belleville with them and bringing back the pride of proving themselves among the best bands in the country. Their school year is filled with performances at hospitals, other schools, and for this town.

This Friday and Saturday nights, March 17 and 18, is the annual Band Show for Belleville. Perhaps this sounds like an advertisement for the Band Show...and maybe it is. If more people of this town went to programs like this, I am sure that they would begin to respect this town and begin to have pride in it. The show begins at 8:15, and tickets cost $1.50. Believe in Belleville; a town is only as good or as bad as its people.

Keeping BHS Vandal Free

By Mary Bowden

How many high school students realize what it means to go to school in a newly equipped modern building?

The majority of students take it for granted. If these people stopped to think for a few minutes, they would realize that they have been given a privilege: Free public education for all is not a common thing in the rest of the world. Many students in Europe and Asia can't attend school because of lack of financial ability or they are considered not intelligent enough.

In the past, the presence of vandalism has been expressed in the town of Belleville. Broken equipment, broken windows, books that are scribbled on, desks that express such important statements as "John loves Mary" or profane language that is usually said on street corners, etc. are all perfect examples of this vandalism. Why should the majority suffer for the bad image that a few can create?

slave. While tending to sheep, he developed a love for God and a desire to convert his pagan masters. After he escaped the pagan rule, he became a monk and then still later a priest.

Pope St. Celestine sent him to Ireland as a missionary priest. His labors, covering thirty-three years, were so successful that during the "Age of Faith" when England was called "Mary's Dowry", Ireland was known as the "Isle of Saints." He died in 464. St. George of England, St. Andrew of Scotland, St. David of Wales and St. Patrick are the patron saints of the British Isles.

Catholics pray for their aid for peace and unity among all the people of the earth.

Student Takeover Is Seen

By Barbara Michelli

Chaos hits Belleville High March 16, when the students attempt to take over the school on Student Day.

Organized by advisor Audrey Jones and vice president Michael Guiliano of the Future Business Leaders of America, this day was proposed to enable the students to show their leadership ability and responsibility.

Applications were to be filled out by each student interested and then checked by the teacher who in turn chooses the best qualified students to teach in his or her classes.

The offices of principal and vice principal are also to be filled. The students will expect the full duties of the teacher for the entire day.

The answer to every student's dream is to someday try to run the school. Now that they have the chance, let's see what they do with it. Good luck!!!

"BEAUTY TIPS" By Justin

Only skin? Combat blemishes with collagen lotion.
Next time you buy liquid eye-liner in a glass bottle, transfer it to a day plastic bottle with a tight-fitting lid. Saves broken-glass cleanup - money, too!
It's the LIGHT of the sun that causes a burn, not the heat. Use a good moisturizing sunscreen if you vacation at high altitudes, even in cold weather.
Refreshing after-bath body rub: add 2 T. each crushed rosemary and marigold flowers to 1 pt. cologne. Let stand for 3 weeks, then strain. For first use or less, use the same with 1 pt. rubbing alcohol.
In new "far and loather" hairdo, hair is layered and tapered, cut to a graduated descent to tickle the shoulders.
Did You Know That?
You can buy a Professional Hair Dyer for as low as $10.95 at Justin's or a "Salon" $60 worth for $29.95 (No Tax) & Free Styling Brush.

The Belleville Times

SHOT PUT warmups are a daily part of Bellboy performers getting ready for season opener next month with Passaic.

DISCUS is hurled through the air by Bob Luongo, one of track team's top junior performers, during workout at Municipal Stadium Monday afternoon. Watching the form on fieldman Luongo is another Belleville track team hopeful, Tom Sanders, a sophomore.

DRIVING toward the hoop for an easy layup is Bellgirl varsity star basketball M. Peldunas. The varsity Bellgirls, in their first regular season, finished at 9-1.

Maroon Fems Are Defeated

The girls varsity basketball team once more emerged victoriously, with a stunning win over neighborhood rival Nutley. The Bellgirls defeated Nutley by a score of 59-43.

During the first quarter, Nutley shut off the Bellgirls' fast break combination of guards Sue Gasparini and Donna Foley, but trailed 11-10. The second quarter they began to pull away from the Bellgirls by applying a point chaser to Belleville sharp shooter Donna Foley. High rebounder for the day, Marty Peldunas took up some of the scoring slack, but it was not enough. Earlier Belleville took three key baskets to lead Nutley to a five point lead at the half.

The second half of the game began with the girls of the Blue and Gold showing a new spirit. Cindy Ferro opened up the scoring on a fast break lay-up for an easy two. Nutley countered with a basket, then the Bellgirls took off, displaying the winning form which they have maintained all season. With a signal from the bench, the

Track Season Is Previewed

Coach Haneke Confident Of Good Year From Young Blue And Gold Cindermen

This season's crop of Blue and Gold cindermen, now practicing daily at Municipal Stadium, are a combination of experienced hands and green underclassmen but head coach Ray Haneke expects the club to improve upon last year's 6-6 mark.

"We lost some quality performers to June graduation but we do have five lettermen returning from last year to build our club around," reported Haneke. "I see new enthusiasm this year, most likely due to the good record we compiled last season."

About 60 youngsters turned out for track when practice began March 1 but already that number has dwindled. By the time the season opener comes in April, Haneke expects to see his squad number about 40. That, according to Haneke, is the ideal amount of boys to carry.

I've found that many boys turnout in early March. They are enthused, but within a few weeks they quit the team because they don't realize that it takes time to develop into a good athlete," said the coach. "They don't give themselves a chance to improve."

In posting a .500 mark last season the Belleville track squad took long strides over recent sports history. During recent years Belleville hasn't been noted for their track and field prowess but the Bellboy squad last season surprised a number of schools. Track in Belleville, according to Haneke, is on the upgrade. In 1970 the Bellboy club finished a dismal 3-9 but off last year's 6-6 effort, Haneke believes track here will attract more quality athletes.

"I've noticed more quality boys going out for the squad this March," the coach added. "We are coming off a good season and we have more to offer this year in the track program. These factors should bring more boys."

Missed the most this year by the cindermen is Ricky Caruso, who left Belleville High via June graduation. Caruso, who was the Bellboys' top point-getter in dual meets, anchored three events. He excelled in the low hurdles, the long jump and the 100-yard dash. Caruso also had a hand in captaining the team.

Also gone from the 1971 squad is Mark Bradley, a top performer in both the quarter mile and 220-yard dash; Tom Vitiello, a field performer who threw both the shot put and discus; Ray Horman, a two-miler, who earned a varsity letter; Lew Calceiro, a performer in the one mile, and John McCarthy, a one-half mile runner.

"Those boys will be missed but hopefully we will find new prospects to fill their spots," said the coach.

The five returning lettermen, who include four seniors

Bellgirls Cap Season, 9-1, By Downing Irvington Club

By Tony Calabrese

Belleville High school girls basketball team ended their season in style as they trounced yet another foe, this time the girls of Irvington High 66-10 in a game played last week.

The game saw the girls at their best, as they shot well, passed superbly, and forced the opposition to take ridiculous shots. The defense of the girls was so good in fact, that they held Irvington scoreless in both the first and third periods. On offense the attack was well spread around, as the leading scorers were Sue Winslip, Donna Foley, and Sue Gasparini with 13, 12, and 11 points respectively.

The girls started off fast as Cindy Ferro scored a lay-up off the opening tap. Karen Smith then scored on two consecutive side jump shots.

Ferro's basket made it 8-0. The score increased to 15-0 as Maloney hit a driving lay-up and Donna Foley added the next five points. The quarter ended with Belleville leading 22-0. Most of the baskets came off the Bellgirl fast break which was set up on some fine outlet passes by Marty Peldunas and Debbie Maloney who as per usual did a fine job of rebounding for the Bellgirls.

Baskets by Peldunas and Ferro made it 26-0 early in the second quarter before Irvington finally got on the scoreboard with a foul shot at 6:27 mark of the quarter. The first Irvington field goal came three minutes later by which time the score was 33-3. At the half Belleville led by a count of 37-3.

The second half saw the Bellgirls outscore Irvington by a 22-0 count in the third quarter, and with many substitutes in there for both sides in the fourth quarter both sides were able to manage seven points each in a low scoring closing quarter. In closing the game it was obvious that Coach Karen Fucini had made up of underclassmen, and the girls also possessing an undefeated jayvee ballclub, it looks as if girls basketball has a very bright future indeed in the town of Belleville.

The 9-1 record was of course the finest in the teams history, and with most of the team made up of underclassmen, and the girls also possessing an undefeated jayvee ballclub, it looks as if girls basketball has a very bright future indeed in the town of Belleville.

Wrestling Pair See Princeton

Belleville wrestling concluded last Saturday when both John Mustacchio and Walter Bennett were eliminated in the State Championships. The trip to Princeton proved fruitful though as Bennett gained third place honors in the 148-pound division while Mustacchio finished fourth at the 130-pound level.

Head coach James Silvestri, who was just as excited as the boys who traveled to Princeton for the championships, said the pair gave "a great account of themselves and were truly representative of Belleville."

"It was a tremendous experience," added the coach. "Everyone was nervous appearing before 8,000 people."

Bennett received a bronze medal for his third place effort. Mustacchio, in finishing fourth, was defeated by the state champion in the 130-pound class.

The opening round of action Friday evening saw Mustacchio defeat Bill Gaertner of Howell High School, 8-0, to advance to the semi-finals. Boff was then defeated by state champion Jeff Surienin of Randolph 12-5. In the consolation round Mustacchio was topped, 9-3, by Bruce Lear of Phillipsburg.

Bennett, on his way to his third place finish, pinned Kevin Thomas in the third period of the preliminary round. Thomas, from Southern Regional, was winning at the

Top Caldwell, 71-13

Distaff Cagers Paced By Tenacious Defense

Using a strong tenacious defense, and a fine fast break offense, the Belleville High School girls basketball team racked up their eighth win of the year as they defeated James Caldwell High School girls team, 71-13, this past week.

Scoring leaders in the ballgame for the girls were Donna Foley with 24 points, and center Debbie Maloney who had her season high with 18 points. A great part of the Bellgirls success came in the fact that most of their baskets came on lay-ups and other short shots, while at the same time they forced the opposition to take the long bad percentage shots which seldom hit the mark.

A ten point streak midway through the first quarter got Belleville starting on the right track. With the Bellgirls leading 4-2, Donna Foley started things off with two foul shots. Lay-ups by Marty Peldunas, Sue Winslip, Foley, and Peldunas followed in quick succession. After Caldwell scored, Belleville ran off six more on two lay-ups by Sue Gasparini and another bucket by Donna Foley. The first quarter ended with Belleville leading 22-8.

The rout continued in greater proportions through the second quarter as the Bellgirls outscored Caldwell 24-2 in the period. Sue Winslip, Donna Foley, and Debbie Maloney paced the scoring for the girls in this quarter. At halftime the girls left the floor with a 46-10 lead and by that time the result was no longer in doubt.

The girls added insult to injury in the second half as they held Caldwell to only three free throws the entire second half. The girls scored 25 points of their own in the half, led by Debbie Maloney who scored 12 of the points, and who continued to dominate the backboards as she has done in most of the girls games this season.

The highlight of the half for the team was when they went over the 70 point mark for the first time this season, which they did when Maloney put in a lay-up on a fine move late in the ballgame.

LOOSE BALL is chased down by Belleville High School fem cager Sue Gasparini (42) as two North Arlington foes lag in their action. Belleville girls' team just recently compiled excellent 9-1 mark.

Beat Nutley Neighbor

sive pressure was then accom- panied by the offense. Soph- omore guard Donna Foley began to hit her usual form, and the Bellgirls were on their way.

With just a three point lead at the start of the fourth quarter, Belleville continued their pressure tactics. Key in- terceptions by Donna Foley and Susan Winship led to four baskets apiece for both Cindy Ferro, and center De- bie Maloney. The fourth quarter point total showed the difference, as the Bellgirls outscored the Maroonetts from the floor 19-8. Both Debbie Maloney and Marty Pedunias played their usual strong rebounding game, while Donna Foley led all scorers with 20 points.

After scoring one of their biggest games of the season by defeating Nutley, the Girls Varsity Basketball Team suffered their first loss in regular season play.

Cindermen Now Prep For Season Opener

No captains for the current squad have been named but coach Haneke is expected to make the announcements later this week.

Upcoming weightmen, ex- pected to add more punch to the field team, are a pair of juniors, John Fagioli and Mike Greenfeder are two ju- niors who coach Haneke would like to see make var- iety of his. Top hopefuls in the sprint events, according to the coach, are sophomore Bob Cozzarelli and junior Greg Ottalano. The dis- tance running department is fielded mostly by runners from the cross-country squad. Steve Badrick will run the half-mile and Rocco Cuzzo is the top pick for the two-mile. Another top distance run- ner who unfortunately will miss half the season is soph- omore Bill Goodwin. The sophomore anchored this year's cross-country team be- fore injuring his heel. Good- win had the heel operated on and is expected back in late April or early May. Haneke is high in his praise of the sophomore and calls him a "natural runner."

On the squad this year we have a small group of seniors with a large amount of soph- omores making up the team, said Haneke.

The Bellboy schedule this spring will see 12 meets, with the addition of Columbia High School to the schedule. In the past the Cingars have faced the Bellboys in part of a triangular meet but this time they will hook up with the Blue and Gold in dual meet competition.

Last year Belleville de- feated Eastside, Passaic, Vailsburg twice, Westside and Central High School. They lost to Orange by only two points.

"I feel confident we will better our 1971 record," said Haneke. "The most important statistic is that the ma- jority of last season's meets remained respectable. "We can compete with most schools on nearly an even level. This spring we should im- prove even more. We have a better bunch of athletes."

Frankly, we no longer care who wins possession of that hilltop in Laos.

She Hurls Shot Put When We Face Russia

Montclair State College has made a great many strides up the interstate athletic ladder in the last five years, but the honor of taking part in international competition will not fall in an area normally thought of by Indians runners.

Miss Denise Wood, a senior physical education major from Haledon will have the big honor on March 17 when she will represent the United States in the shot put in a dual meet with the U.S.S.R.

at Richmond, Virginia.

One of the top shot putters in the United States on the intercollegiate level, Denise won the honor by placing second in the Amateur Athletic Union's national indoor championship recently at Madison Square Garden with a toss of 47 feet, 9 1/2 inches.

Miss Wood stands 5'9" and weighs 165 pounds and has sparkling green eyes and blonde hair. Her interest in athletic stems back to her childhood days in Haledon when she played softball.

Much in the vein of modern women athletes, Denise is not a tomboy. Despite her intense interest in track and field she is first and foremost a delightful lady.

Her interest in track was really developed while a senior at Manchester Regional High School when the late Richard Willing, former track coach at Montclair State, did some tutoring of the girls team.

Denise entered Montclair State as a freshman in September, 1968 and went undefeated in competition in the Spring of 1969 including the Women's Intercollegiate Championships in Texas.

History will credit President Nixon with having tried to obtain peace with honor in Vietnam.

(Continued from Page 11) time, 3-1. Bennett was then pinned in the first period of the semi-finals by Herb Kanis of J.P. Stevens. However Bennett's 2-0 win over Steve Hausner of North Hunderdon in the consolation round gave him third place for the tournament.

This was only the second time in the history of Belleville wrestling that a local performer finished third place in the state championships and the first time the Town has sent two representatives to the tourney.

Beck's Column

There has been talk of video players — recorders for years. A joke is going around in the industry. One executive tells the other: "I predict that video players are just around the corner." The other one says: "Yeah, but where's the corner?"

We have written about this matter many times during the last few years. Our position has been that it will take a long, long time until we will have a practical, easy to use TV recorder player in a price range that the mass market can afford. This is true today as much as it was years ago. The "corner" just is not around yet.

We think back to the time when sound tape recorders first appeared on the scene. It was a long and slow process until we reached the present day cassette respectively cartridge system with the easy way of operation. The writer maintains that even this is no good; there has to be only one system, not two. We went through this when the industry came out with the long playing records, CBS with the 33 1/3 and RCA with the 45 speed. This also is wrong, we should have only one speed so all the effort could be concentrated on it instead of wasting so much in the duplicity.

Coming back to video recording players, there are about a dozen or even more systems in the development stage. Until we narrow down to a few and finally to the desirable one system, it is best to forget about it and let the engineers have their inning.

National Debt Ceiling Hits Pocketbooks Here

To what extent will the multi-billion increase in the national debt ceiling, recently asked of Congress, affect pocketbooks in Belleville?

How much will the local population be paying during the next fiscal year, through taxes and other levies, to meet its share of the interest charges on the debt, which has now reached $430 billion?

The answer is approximately $4,700,000. That is merely for the carrying charges on the debt. It will not reduce by a particle the capital amount that is now owed.

The figures are based upon the new budget submitted by President Nixon, listing interest costs of $21.2 billion for the fiscal year.

For the average family in Belleville it means that some $410 of the amount collected from them by the Federal government will go for interest on the debt.

The Administration's request for an increase in the debt limit, coming as it did on the heels of the budget it submitted with an indicated deficit of $38.8 billion, has received only secondary attention.

It is of importance to taxpayers, however, because the steadily increasing debt load is imposing added burdens upon them.

Since 1960, according to the Treasury Department, their bill just for the interest on the national debt, has soared from $9.2 billion per year to the present $21.2 billion.

For the average family nationally, these carrying charges have risen from $204 per family in 1960 to more than double that amount today.

The enormity of these interest charges may be realized by comparing them with other government expenses, as listed in the budget. The $21.2 billion required for interest is three times as much, for example, as will be spent for education, $7 billion.

Housing Values Climb In Town

Within the last 10 years, homeowners in the West Hudson-South Bergen areas, including Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield, have seen a remarkable increase in the value of their homes. A three-bedroom house that sold for $25-$35,000 in 1962 is now selling for $40-$55,000—an increase of about 65 percent in just 10 years.

If you tend to be skeptical, Joseph Coccia Jr., president of the Coccia Agency, an active real estate firm serving the areas, suggests that you drive around the residential streets of Kearny, Lyndhurst or Belleville. "Your eyeballs will pop at the housing affluence you'll see."

What's the primary cause for this large increase in housing costs? Land! Due to the scarcity of land, building lots are commanding prices in the $15,000-$25,000 range.

You'll also notice as you drive through the area, according to Coccia, older houses being demolished in favor of new construction. The entire area is being upgraded, too, through the advent of two-family housing which brings total land and construction costs into the realm of realism for many individuals bent on a new home.

Coccia noted that the area has many fine homes priced over $50,000 as well as a large number of modest-priced houses running around $35,000. He suggests that you contact a member of his sales staff so that you can become thoroughly acquainted with the areas and how they fit into your specific plans.

Religious Survey Scheduled By Belleville Ministerium

respective ministers, will have special police, fire, and hospital emergency phone numbers.

The Rev. Albert Alspach, chairman of the Ministerium, who, along with the Rev. Alfred W. Stone Jr. initiated the proposed survey, believes the March 25 poll will provide valuable statistics helpful to various organizations here.

"It is the hope of the churches in the community to find out where the people are and to let them know that the church is well and alive and looking to serve all people," Rev. Alspach said.

"In fact, just to show that we mean what we say, we shall be distributing on that survey Saturday a little pamphlet which will list some emergency numbers as well as a complete listing of all the churches in our community."

People may want to keep this handy guide next to their telephone," he added.

Rev. Alspach gives a very rough estimate that about 30 per cent of the community is registered with churches here. Besides finding out how many residents are regular churchgoers, officials hope to discover how many Belleville citizens travel out-of-town for Sunday services.

"When all statistics are totaled we hope they will provide us with a better plan of in which direction the church will go in this community," Rev. Alspach remarked.

Officials of the survey report that there will be no "sermon" or "long talk" given about church matters. They are stressing the point that there will be no "strings attached" to the survey. Questions will be simple and to the point with examples "Are you affiliated with a church?" or "Were you in church last Sunday?"

Information gathered will also be helpful in determining the religious breakdown in Belleville and how many residents in a particular area actually attend the church in that area.

The survey has been in the planning stage about three months.

Officials Explore Funds

the county designated as an official Economic Development Administration eligibility area and last week he announced success. According to the Freeholder, the designation opens all of Essex for 50-50 matching funds for public works projects. He said it is believed about $50 million in projects are awaiting such federal aid.

Reps. Rodino and Minish are co-sponsoring legislation to expand the already accelerated public works program. Under the expanded public works program, local governments would receive up to 80 per cent in Federal grants for projects including storm drainage systems, hospitals, libraries and police stations. The joint proposal would like to see funding for the public works program be expended by $200 million to help create more jobs in high unemployment areas.

Belleville Pair Pleas Guilty To Narcotics

Raymond Campbell, 19, of 203 Brighton Avenue in Belleville and Patrick Duffy, 18, of 121 Cedar Hill Avenue in Belleville pleaded guilty to being under the influence of narcotics and Campbell pleaded guilty to operating an unsafe vehicle before Judge Edwin J.C. Joerg in Nutley Municipal Court March 8.

The defendants were arrested by Patrolman Leonard Smaldone February 11 at 11:05 p.m. at Washington and Hancock Avenues.

Both received one year's probation and Campbell was given a $50 fine for the motor vehicle violation.

A Correction

The Times last week incorrectly reported that Lilian Crowley of 31 Hornblower Avenue had died. It was her sister, Zita who passed away March 1. The Times deeply regrets the error.

New Summer Season
Set By Arts Center

The Garden State Arts Center today announced that its 1972 summer season will offer in popular and classical subscription series such stars as Andy Williams, Ann-Margaret, Liberace, Engelbert Humperdink, Arthur Fiedler, and the Ukrainian Dance Company.

Chairman John P. Gallagher of the New Jersey Highway Authority, which operates the Arts Center on the Garden State Parkway, said the fifth regular season starting June 14 will also include on subscription Steve Lach-man and Eydie Gorme with Jan Murray, Donnie Warwicke, the American Symphony with Meredith Willson and with Peter Nero among others.

Renewal order brochures have been mailed at a private basis to the more than 15,000 subscribers from last year's season, and general sales for the two classical and six popular subscription series will begin a few weeks later. Individual event ticket sales start in May.

Hollywood actress and TV specialist Ann-Mar-garet will appear in her show with Kenny Rogers & The First Edition the week of July 17; the Staple Singers will come on stage with Donnie Warwicke during the post-Labor Day week of September 5; and young violinist Stephanie Chase will be soloist with Arthur Fiedler conducting the American Symphony Aug. 15-16.

The New Jersey Symphony Orchestra under Music Director Henry Lewis will present two concerts in each classical subscription series and open the regular Arts Center season on Wednesday, June 14, at 8:30 p.m.
with its first one.

The first regular season in the 5,058-seat amphitheater at the Parkway's Telegraph Hill Park, Holmdel, will have a resounding overture on the preceding Saturday night of June 10 when comedian great Bob Hope heads a special gala performance for the benefit of the Garden State Arts Center Fund.

Seven performances are included in each of the subscription series with one event still to be announced, and six programs are scheduled for each of the classical series.

The six popular series, one for each night of the week
Monday through Saturday, will offer Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme with Jan Murray; Andy Williams; Ann-Margaret with Kenny Rogers
& The First Edition; Liberace; Engelbert Humperdink; a show to be announced for the week of August 28th; and Donnie Warwicke and the Staple Singers.

All seat locations inside the Arts Center amphitheater, off Parkway Exit 116 within Holmdel Township, will be available for subscription.
The 3,000 or more spaces on the surrounding lawn will be limited to single-performance ticket sales only.

Bar Assn. To Review
Entire Court System

A review of the entire system of justice in New Jersey, and a program to improve the system, is the central theme of the New Jersey State Bar Association's upcoming General Council Meeting.

Scheduled for March 17-19 at Pocono Manor, Pa., the 300-member General Council is composed of top state and county bar officials, plus the chairmen of the bar's special sections and committees.

Two important sessions will highlight the meeting.

On Friday afternoon, the question of "Responsibility of the Bar for the Improvement of the Administration of Justice" is scheduled for debate.

Panelists will be Martin L.
Haines, president-elect of the Bar Association; Edward B.
McConnell, administrative director of the Courts; State Bar Specialization Committee chairman Theodore Sager Meth; and Emanuel A.
Hong, a trustee of the 8,000-member Association.

On Saturday afternoon, another panel will examine

"State and Federal Relations in Criminal Proceedings."

Serving on this panel are Judge John J. Gibbons of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit;
Judge Leonard J. Garth,
United States District Court of New Jersey; State Attorney General George F. Kugler, Jr.; and Alexander P.
Waugh, Assignment Judge for Morris, Sussex, and Warren Counties.

General workshop sessions for committee and section chairmen, county bar officials and State Bar past presidents are also planned.

New Jersey State Bar Association president Joseph T.
Grause will preside at both the business and social functions of the Meeting.

Former Prime Minister
Will Speak At Lehigh

The Rt. Hon. Harold Wilson, former Prime Minister of Great Britain and currently a member of Parliament, will be at Lehigh University here to deliver three major speeches and hold a news conference in April.

Alga Knows
Your Weekly Horoscope

March 18 through March 24

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Feel like doing a little spring fishing. Act! If so, you would be wise to bait your hook with something attractive, but not flashy. You are due for a nice catch any day now.
Go about your little venture with great expectations, but do not be disappointed if your luck is not immediate. Remember, too, that often the best fishing is found in troubled waters.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Whoopee, this is your week, Taurus my love. Adventure will abound.
You may question opportunity which will be presented. Go where the action is, baby. On last day you hear from attractive friend. Consider offer which will be forthcoming. Keep all avenues open.
You never know, you know.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Gem, yours is the first mutable sign. Means you are subject to frequent change. In short, you are fickle. And like all mutable signs, you love to talk. And talk. And talk.
And of course, you prefer to associate with those who stimulate your thought processes. Well, dear heart, in week ahead you may be more stimulated than you've ever bargained for. Ummm.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Feel as though you have lost your sense of direction, Moonflower? Do you have uneasy sense of drifting? Maybe it is time for you, dear friend, to adjust your rudder. If the one you love does not love back, then take another look. There are a lot of different courses you can steer to reach your goal.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Be alert in week ahead, Leo baby. Less unsuitable romantic entanglement cause you to gnash your teeth. During mid-week, make special effort to put your back to the grindstone and get your private little world in order.
During sixth day, be most cautious not to compound old error. Last day may find you moody and a bit absentminded.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Please stop fussing. It only lowers your efficiency and raises your blood pressure, and fussing never really solved any problem anyway. Concentrate instead on blessings which surround you, which you may have been taking for granted. Life is to be LIVED, sweet Virg, not avoided.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Know what happens to you, Lib, when you indulge in too much work and precious little play? Of course you know.
You are dull, dull, dull, and cranky, too. Watch this tendency in week ahead. Before fifth day, treat yourself to an emotional glow. Follow Olga's advice and you wind up the week with a giggle.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Week ahead could be a real dandy, Scorpio. One who cares deeply for you wants to give. You must know that on certain occasions it is one blessed to receive than to give, contrary to popular opinion.
Before and last day, coded message arrives.
Study carefully. Week ends brightly.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21):
Slow down in week ahead, Sag. In fact, turn off your motor completely. A tiny rest will improve your physical health and your mental disposition considerably. Should message arrive from old flame (whose name you do not instantly recall) don't stir up old ashes. They may still be warm. On last day you communicate with gestures, not words.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): In week ahead, you experience great feeling of depth concerning relationship with close friend. Memories may plunge you into depression concerning past error in judgment. If so, chase the blues away with anything handy. By fifth day, the sun shines and your skies brighten. Last day a singeroo.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Now see here, Aquari, you simply MUST stop ramming around town looking for trouble. Suppose you find it. What then? As week draws to a close, new romance could throw you for a loop. So go ahead and loop-de-loop.
And happy landings!

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Hang on, Pisces honey. Week ahead will really challenge your ingenuity. You've been wondering, perhaps, how far you can go before getting caught concerning secret matter. Well, in week ahead, you'll have your chance to find out. Olga wishes you luck. You're going to need it.
