Public Works Will Spearhead New Glass Reclamation Drive

Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, is planning a town-wide glass reclamation project that should go into effect by the end of this month. Hopefully monies gained from the program could be funneled into the Shade Tree Department for the purchase of new trees here.

Mrs. Senatore is picking up and expanding upon a project initiated by Belleville girl scouts last Fall. But the current reclamation drive, according to the Commissioner, would be much more expanded.

The reclamation drive, to be held on Saturdays at different locations throughout Town, would utilize three Department of Public Works trucks and volunteers from local fraternal organizations.

"Within two weeks I'll be sending letters to the girl and boy scouts and all the fraternal groups in Town asking for their help," she said. "I would also like to involve various businesses in Town."

Mrs. Senatore hopes to enlist the ranks of taverns and restaurants here. She explained that the established businesses could save their bottles and deposit them at reclamation locations on Saturdays.

Educators View Renovation Report

Members of the Board of Education Tuesday night received a complete list of costs and needs of a complete physical renovation of the entire school system.

Principals in each of the system's schools compiled complete reports with the superintendent of schools on what work is needed to upgrade their building. The School Board, headed by a special committee, will review the reports with administrators. It is hoped that a solution to the deteriorating conditions here can be found.

School Board president Richard Mahmarian, now on a five-week tour of schools, may introduce a bond referendum in June to finance renovation. A complete evaluation of the problem will be completed by the end of this month, according to Mahmarian.

Although Belleville High School is the newest of schools here, it is one of the most overcrowded. Opened in September of 1962, the school took two years in the construction at a total cost of about $3 million. Several school officials on the tour hinted that the sad conditions that exist there today may be blamed upon poor quality material and cutting of corners in the original construction. Originally, the school was to house a maximum 1,052 students but the current enrollment stands at about 1,320. Projected figures by the administration see an additional 120 entering, bringing the total to almost 1,500, nearly 40 per cent more than capacity.

A major fear of educators here is that the school, if no improvements are seen, may lose its accreditation with the Middle States Association. The four-state group accredits 1,500 high schools every 10 years. Principal Smith this month must submit a five-year report to the group and if the school system doesn't take proper steps to alleviate crowding in the future, the Middle States group may take away its accreditation. That group is highly regarded in education circles as a high school rating system and colleges

Youngsters' Film-In Set At Library

A children's "Film-In" is scheduled this Saturday morning at the Belleville Library, 221 Washington Avenue. Admission is free and the show will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Planned for youngsters attending kindergarten through grade three, two color films and three black and white flicks are slated. The color flicks include "The Owl and the Pussycat," a bright version of Edward Lear's famous poem, and "The Red Carpet," the saga of an exuberant red carpet whose eagerness to create a royal reception for a visitor becomes the talk of the town.

Other flicks are "A Scrap of Paper and a Piece of String," "Pigs," and "Palle Alone In The World."

But May Get Clothing Loot

All Indicators Show Police Pay Boost Prospect Dismal

By John J. Bunevich

Police and firemen here may receive a $100 boost in their yearly clothing allowance but the prospects for a $300 across-the-board pay hike look dismal.

After a special meeting Tuesday morning with police and fire representatives, the Board of Commissioners seem to have taken a dim view of putting their sanction on the Belleville Patrolmen Benevolent Association's plan to appeal to the Wage Stabilization Board in Washington, D.C., for the pay raise. A private poll taken of Commissioners shows the majority against any move to grant emergency appropriations to fund the raise.

"I would not vote for any move to appropriate emergency funds for the police," stated Mayor Joseph McGreevy.

The majority of Commissioners expressed a similar view. Only Robert Laterza, director of Public Safety, seemed sympathetic towards the policemen's proposal, and even he indicated that it would be difficult to raise the $99,000 needed to grant such a raise.

However, Laterza said he may have enough monies in the current Public Safety budget to fund a clothing allowance increase. The additional $100 clothing boost would amount to a $15,600 total. Laterza added that he would have to cut down on other areas in the Public Safety budget if the clothing allowance was granted.

"Then I wouldn't be able to do as much in areas such as erecting signs and posting new parking regulations. I would have to concentrate on the areas most congested now," he said.

Contract Agreed Upon

Medical Group Hired As Town Physician

It will cost the Town about $4,500 more to employ a Town Physician this year. A contract was expected to be finalized yesterday to hire the Branch Brook Medical Group for a one-year term as Town Physician to replace the late Dr. Donald S. Brown, who died April 17.

According to Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, director of Public Affairs, the $8,000 sum isn't out of the ordinary, but rather it's that Dr. Brown worked for an unusually low salary. Dr. Brown's contract called for a $3,692 annual salary. Strumolo, after receiving permission from the Board of Commissioners, was to have entered a one-year agreement yesterday with the Branch Brook Medical Group yesterday for 24-hour medical care. The contract called for an $8,000 annual salary.

"We tried unsuccessfully for several weeks to enlist a new Town Physician at Dr. Brown's rate," reported Strumolo. "I would say we contacted almost every doctor in Town but all we received were negative answers. I consider us fortunate to get the services of the Branch Brook Medical Group."

The Branch Brook Medical Group, 14 Franklin Street, is an independent medical corporation that employs about eight doctors. Headed by Dr. Franklin Dotoli of Nutley and Dr. Nathan J. Dubinett of Newark, the firm has been in operation in Belleville about three years. Strumolo considers the group a very reputable and reliable firm that will completely fill the shoes of Dr. Brown.

"It's just that we couldn't get anyone else to do the job," added Strumolo. "No independent doctor in Town wanted the permanent position. The contract is all set. They will act as Town Physician for one year."

According to Strumolo, Dr. Leslie Miller with offices on Joralemon Street, had been serving as temporary Town Physician since Dr. Brown's death. Dr. Miller was getting paid $67 per week for his services.

"He wasn't doing it for the money. He was doing the job for his services."

Rotarians Conclude Anniversary Salute

The Belleville Rotary Club concluded their 50th anniversary celebrations Wednesday by honoring the organizer and first president of the club, Watson Current.

Besides holding down the head post of the Belleville Rotary, said program chairman George Symonds, he was a cashier at the First National Bank of Belleville, later to become Fidelity Bank. Current also served a term as president of the Belleville Board of Education. Current was honored by the group with a certificate of distinction and was awarded a member of the Rotarian Hall of Honor. Other highlights of the meeting included the showing of 1920 movies of Rotarian events.

Town Hall Receives Facelifting

Commissioner Michael Marotti this week announced plans to have Belleville Town Hall completely refurbished. The project should be completed by the end of the summer.

Besides a new coat of paint in the interior, wood paneling will be installed in the police department's communication center, the tax office and Commissioner Robert Laterza's office. Also slated is a complete redecoration of the Commission Chambers. Town workers will do the majority of work, added Marotti, keeping costs to a minimum.

Tour By School Officials Reveals Overcrowding, Disrepair, Major Problems At Senior High School

According to four top school system officials touring Belleville High School last week, that institution is badly in need of immediate repair. All four agreed that the number one problem there is overcrowding.

The tour, arranged by Board of Education president Richard Mahmarian, was the second in a five-part series to expose deteriorating conditions in schools here. Other school system members participating in last Thursday's tour of the high school included Superintendent of Schools Anthony Greco, Business Administrator Harold Dufford and principal Raymond Smith.

Although Belleville High School is the newest of schools here, it is one of the most overcrowded. Opened in September of 1962, the school took two years in the construction at a total cost of about $3 million. ## The Bus Strike

The destructive bus strike continues with neither side apparently having the ability to make any headway toward a settlement.

New Jersey residents find it increasingly difficult to reach their places of employment, shopping in communities served by public transportation and senior citizens are confined to their homes because in most cases bus transportation is the only means for these individuals to visit friends and relatives.

Families of bus company employees, checkers, bus drivers, etc., are finding their cupboards very bare. These families are piling debt upon debt and if the strike continues much longer it will take years before they will be able to dig themselves out of the financial hole which will result from the current strike.

So it appears that the public is inconvenienced, families of bus company employees suffer permanent injury and all

Junk Eaters

A well known nutritionist recently told a Heart Association gathering in the national capital Americans are now a nation of junk eaters because of the frantic race for the dollar in this country.

Children too often eat at ball parks from vending machines, at the movies, at school or at snack stands, eating foods which once were looked upon as after-dinner treats. This diet doesn't give them the nutrition needed to build strong and healthy bodies.

Adults, including mothers who have left home seeking the dollar and who thus not only preparing hot meals for their children, race through a hamburger or a sandwich in a frenzied day of tension and push. Many gulp sandwiches and dulling drinks with them, conducting business at mealtime.

All this is bad for nutrition, nerves and long life, far more important than the dollar, which so many Americans learn too late.

Smaller Families

The Census Bureau recently reported Americans are planning smaller families today than they did a few years ago. The national birth rate has already dropped to one of the lowest levels in this history.

The trend is of great importance because it indicates a stable population might be achieved without drastic governmental programs. Many ecologists have warned in recent years that unless the nation's population is stabilized, the inevitable result will be a lower standard of living for everyone, eventually.

The experts say to stabilize the population women of child-bearing age must bear an average of 2.11 children. In light of this, the recent Census Bureau report is highly significant for it shows women of child bearing age questioned expect to have an average of 2.40 children.

While this is a higher figure than ecologists hope for, it is down sharply from the average expectation of just five years ago, which was 2.90. In other words, the expectation has sharply declined in the last five years, and if this decline should continue for another five years, at the same rate, the nation's population might be stabilized, or close to stabilization, as a result of the natural course of events.

THE NUTLEY TOWN COMMISSION RACE is fast growing to a close and the two places most frequented by Commission candidates, campaign workers and supporters have proven to be the Washington Diner, at the corner of Centre Street and Washington Avenue, owned and operated by Nutley's own "Little Flower", Flore Stabile whose political wisdom and advice are sought even by candidates he is not supporting. For more than 50 years the Little Flower has been a force in both the Republican Party and municipal elections. He has always backed at least three winners in every municipal election since Commission form of government came into being in 1932.

Name Amabile To Coach Bellboy Varsity Gridders

By Elaine Auerbach

Commission candidate James R. Golden charged that a playground built by Commissioners in Heckel Street was "illegal" and said that it could affect Belleville's playground was illegal because it had been built without any legislative action involving townpeople. Town Commissioners told The Times that a resolution had been passed at a special public meeting which had been announced.

Belleville High School students were set to join a strike in protest of the Vietnam War. The Board of Education had passed an edict declaring that all participants in the strike would face indefinite suspension from school. The Board's edict drew criticism from rally leaders and two town officials. Mayor Ken Smith and school board member Caesar Romano, who had voted against the measure, Mayor Smith called the edict "unreasonable" and said that "the proper thing for the school board to do would be to close the building down for the day in view of the fact that many other schools and businesses are doing so."

Belleville police were responsible for breaking up a multi-million dollar gambling ring encompassing two counties and six communities, according to Frank Haight, local Deputy Chief. Haight said that a month long electronic surveillance by local detectives Barton Rossi and Thomas Ricci, along with members of the Essex County Prosecutor's office, had led to simultaneous raids at 14 locations accounting for 20 arrests. Arrests were made in Newark, Irvington, Bloomfield, Livingston, Kearny and Belleville.

Her Reason For Yes Vote Is Questioned

To The Editor:

I'm writing this letter in response to the press release issued by Commissioner-Senator explaining her "justification" for voting yes on the variance for the construction of a 32 unit apartment on Harrison Street despite the protests of area residents. According to the records in Trenton, there seems to be some questionable relationship between a member of the Zoning Board and the construction company planning to build the apartment. And records are seldom "untrue." Its ironic someone like you who says they are solely interested in the people and who was so concerned about Commissioner Marotti's possible conflict of interest despite the denial by the Town Attorney would even consider voting on this matter where there is a distinct possibility of conflict. I guess in this case the people are not your main interest.

The least you could have done was to accept the Town Attorney's recommendation and agree to a postponement till the next meeting until the issue could have been cleared up. Surely the builders could have waited another two weeks especially since we were so unfarin in making them wait three months in the middle of the winter when the ground is frozen. If anyone is being treated unfairly it is the citizens of Belleville because thanks to you and other Commissioners in the past and present administrations, Belleville is fast becoming deteriorated by these "builders." What interest do they have? Surely not that of Belleville's.

As far as creating overcrowding in the public school system a minimum of twenty four children coming from three two family houses is alot. I guess you think in big figures. Its more like twelve and that is the distinct possibility that some will attend parochial schools, therefore the minimum could be said to be eight and not twenty-four. Therefore as far as I can determine your only "justification" for voting yes on this variance is that elections are a long three years away and people forget easily, unfortunately, or it is fortunately, Commissioner Senator?

Sincerely yours,
Rocco Ferraro

Helen's Thing About Wills And Wishes And So On

By Helen Maguire

ST. PAUL'S WOMAN'S GUILD is divided into groups and the one to which I belong met at Leona Sonn's on Monday night. She had invited her brother-in-law, a practicing attorney, to come over and talk to us about wills and it was really quite interesting especially since the barrister is a bit of a wit in his own right.

He dealt with the laws governing bequests and survivors and the guardianship of minor children and what happens if you die intestate and by the time Mr. Carey was finished, anyone there who was will-less was convinced that she had better remember the situation posthaste.

I could almost guarantee that our children will inherit very little of a monetary value from Rod and me simply because we do not seem to possess the secret of amassing any kind of a fortune. What comes in goes out with dispatch and it's a good month when we break close to even. But there are a few things I would like to "will" my offspring if I could.

The good sense to take advantage of their school years, to do their very best and absorb as much as they are capable of absorbing so they will have no regrets when they are older and no wistful thoughts of "I wish I had..."

The wisdom to judge people for what they really are and not necessarily for what they appear to be, to disregard material worth and "class" and skin color and look for honesty and concern and loyalty and the other things that matter in the long run.

TO MY DAUGHTERS the good fortune to find a husband like their father and if he happens to be as good looking as the old man, so much the better. (I'm sorry but I'm prejudiced).

To my sons, the good fortune to find a wife who will put their first and devote most of her time to providing a warm and loving home for her family. (Women's lib, count me out...)

A world at peace though that seems more remote with every passing year and if not a world at peace, then peace within themselves at least and little reason to yearn for "what might have been."

A goodly measure of laughter and the ability to laugh at themselves when need be and enough compassion to laugh with others and not at them.

ENOUGH MONEY to provide the necessities of life for themselves and their families but not so much that they miss the fun of struggling a little for what they really want.

A faith in a Supreme Being no matter where or how they choose to worship Him, concern for the plight of others and more than concern, the willingness to help those who need their help.

A set of twins to keep them hopping, a few good friends, good health and the knowledge that their parents loved them all the days of their lives.

Campaign Workers, Supporters Frequent The Washington Diner

come of the election. The tactic simply scares the you-know-what out of frightened campaign workers. I guess it is too much to hope for people who indulge in such tactics to play fair and square with all candidates and not print and circulate misleading tickers.

BELLEVILLE'S PHYLLIS RESTAURANT has latched onto what appears to be a real success on Off-Broadway. Phyllis is assistant company manager of a production that includes two one-act plays which opened last week at the Theatre 49, 424 West 58th Street. The plays received very favorable reviews. The first, which is less than an hour, is "After Magritte", a zany, eccentric visual comedy about the investigation of a crime that hasn't taken place. The second play is "The Real Inspector Hound." There are five characters in the first play and they are joined by three more in the second. "The Real Inspector Hound" is a sleight of hand comic brain tease that takes Agatha Christie, the British Theatre, drama critics and the audience for a wild ride through a double image looking glass. The producers are Susan Richardson, Lawrence Goossen and Seth Schapiro. The plays were written by a Tony Award winner from England, Tom Stoppard, who wrote the popular play "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead" which ran for over a year in New York and was sold to MGM for a motion picture production. Stoppard also authored the highly acclaimed television play "The Engagement."

SUNDAY'S NEW YORK TIMES MAGAZINE SECTION carried a picture of our all-time favorite, singer Connie Francis, Belleville High School's contribution to fame. I had dinner with Connie on Monday night at New York's Les Champs and she never looked better. Connie is performing for charitable causes and at the moment is refusing paid engagements.

You And Your Pet A Proper Diet For Your Cat

By Raymond Minor DVM

Many people worry more about their cats' eating habits than they do their own.

This is reflected in the average cat food TV commercial which makes the cat owner look like an overly anxious mother pampering an underweight child. The cat resembles a four-legged gourmet who can't be tempted by anything it's offered - except the sponsor's product, of course.

This picture may be distorted, but there is some truth in it. Feeding cats a proper diet is a problem. Man-made cat foods are not complete diets, and if fed exclusively, they will not keep a cat healthy nor playful as a kitten until it reaches a ripe old age. Cats need a whole lot more, and until quite recently, they got it themselves.

It has only been within the last 20 years or so that cats have become truly domesticated pets. Before this, a cat was usually expected to fend for itself with the aid of an occasional table scrap or bowl of milk.

In fact, in many agricultural areas in this country and in Europe, it is believed that cats should not be fed complete diets because this would dull their hunting instinct for rats, mice, gophers and other vermin. But in urban areas, cats are kept as household pets, and in many instances, they are in trouble.

The cat is a good hunter, well adapted to its environment and able to meet its nutritional needs by killing and consuming other animals. But now many tens of thousands of cats are never allowed outside.

As a result, many cats are not as healthy as they ought to be, and that's where the veterinarian comes into the picture.

The questions I'm asked most frequently about feeding Tri-Towners

Civic Committee

Plans Future

The Civic Participation Committee of the Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley met at the home of the Chairman, Mrs. Lillian Westcott of Belleville, on Monday, April 17, to report on recent activities and to make plans for the future. Attending were: Mrs. Lea Rodgers, Mrs. Elizabeth Simone and Miss Gwen Struble of Bloomfield; Mrs. Aline Hall and Mrs. Josephine Robustello of Belleville; Miss Grace Eckstein, Miss Margaret Mostica and Miss Eleanor Stover of Nutley and Mrs. Stella Greulich of Rutherford.

Mrs. Westcott announced that in lieu of the usual monthly donation which had been made in the past to the Children's Shelter in Belleville, Tri-Town has responded to a request from the Shelter for a canteen to be used in their schoolroom. It was suggested that a Sunshine Club be set up on a permanent basis for the benefit of the patients at Soho Hospital.

THE LIGHT TOUCH

BY LOUIS E. SICA

We don't understand why so many people are surprised at the revival of bookshop quarters. After all, what else is there for booklovers to do these days?

... Days will be busy-and so will be the need for booklovers to do these days?

... Space experts may say it will be at least 20 years before we get to Mrs. Does this mean we have to wait?

... Actually, millions of men in this country are reading for fun. We don't call them politicians—we call them commuters. Come in to see about your Auto & Home insurance, problems.

Gourmet Cooking Is Demonstrated To Club Members

The Essex Club of Chestnut Hill College whose members include all the alumnae of the school living in the Essex County area, sponsored a demonstration of gourmet cooking by popular food and wine consultant, Rebecca Caruba.

Mrs. Caruba is also the authoress of "Cooking With Wine and High Spirits." She is the first woman member of the Sommelier Society of America and one of the very few women members of the Sommelier Societies of England and France. Recognized for her vast knowledge of wines and spirits, she holds an Ehrenbrief from Kitzingen am Main (German wines) and a Bontemps de Medoc (French wines). She is the only American woman to receive the bronze Agricultural Medal of the Comité Nationale des Vins de France.

Since 1949, Mrs. Caruba has taught wine and spirit cooking in the adult schools of South Orange - Maplewood, Milburn, Montclair, Madison, Haham, Westfield, Nutley, Springfield and Union and at Fairleigh Dickinson University as part of the Hotel Management course.

The demonstration was held at Pete and Charlie's, The Mall, Short Hills, on April 19.

Local Clergy At Conference At University

The Rev. Peter S. Brown of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Rabbi Hyman Danzig of Temple B'nai Israel and Rev. Rollin Shaffer of the Lutheran Council represented the Nutley Clergy Fellowship at an all-day conference at Rutgers University in New Brunswick on Tuesday, April 25th.

The seminars discussed contemporary issues of concern to the clergy. The entire day was devoted to the theme of "The American Society in Transition." A team of medical experts, psychiatrists and psychologists addressed the clergy from all over the state of New Jersey on the following topics: Changing concepts of Sexuality; Conflict in the Human Potential Movement and Changing Family Structures.

The clergymen concluded the day with a feeling that the conference will benefit them in dealing with personal problems in their respective congregations.

The three Chaplains of Rutgers University - Rev. Bradford S. Abernethy, Rabbi Julius Funk and Rev. Sebastian Mucilli offered to assist the clergy in working out a program with college students.

It's a poor brain that has to be fired by alcohol before it can function.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pierce Honeymooned At Cape Cod

St. Peter's Church was the setting April 22 for the marriage of Miss Kathleen P. Gruber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison J. Gruber of 141 Delevan Avenue to John H. Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Pierce of Caldwell.

The Rev. James Heavey performed the ceremony with a reception following at Knights of Columbus Hall, Belleville.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight lace and organza with a lace bodice trimmed in seed pearls. Her Camelot headpiece held a shoulder length veil and she carried one long stemmed white rose.

Miss Linda Baldwin of Belleville was maid of honor with the bride's sister, Miss Carol Gruber as bridesmaid.

Their gowns were of Nile green chiffon trimmed with candlelight lace and they carried a single yellow long stemmed rose.

Lawrence J. Stager of Caldwell was best man with Robert Fiore of Calton and Donald Versfelt of Cedar Grove ushering.

Mrs. Gruber chose a blue gown with lace bodice and accordion pleated skirt. Her corsage was a blue orchid.

Mrs. Pierce, a graduate of Belleville High School, is with New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, Montclair.

Mr. Pierce, an alumnus of James Caldwell High School and New Mexico State University, served in Vietnam.

Woman's Club Earns Award At Conference

High School Gets Tour

depend heavily upon it in accepting new students. Smith reports that the school, originally planned for an eight period day, is now working upon a staggered schedule system to make maximum use of classroom space. This system, according to Smith, accounts for 43 more teacher stations.

Officials warned that if no constructive is done to alleviate overcrowding, the high school, within three years, may be forced to open split session schedule. All four agreed that the quality of education in Belleville would be adversely affected should this have to be done.

"I would speculate that we would have to be placed on double sessions sometime between 1973-75 if nothing is done," remarked superintendent Greco. A major problem at the high school is its intercom system. According to Mahmaran, Principal Smith explained that the unit is now obsolete and service representatives have a difficult time keeping the system in operating order because parts cannot be found.

"We are on a moment to moment basis with the intercom system," added Smith. "The unit could break down at any time."

Mahmaran also pointed out that the high school lacks an emergency lighting system. Should there be a power failure, according to Mahmaran, no emergency lights could be put into use. The board president suggested that an independent system be installed there. Officials also hinted that the school may be in violation of state codes because of this condition.

"The high school is used six nights a week and should the regular lights fail it may cause a panic because of no emergency back-up system," Mahmaran added.

Another problem, according to Greco, is the narrow front road at the school. The superintendent reported that the roadway was originally supposed to be 40-feet wide but because of lack of funds, was cut down to 30 feet. This creates a danger because fire vehicles may have a difficult time driving through the roadway because it is so narrow. Dafford added that the cost of adding another 10 feet to the roadway in 1962 was about $1,200 but now the cost has soared to $45,000.

Two major problems existing in the gymnasium area is lack of heat and lockers in the girls' area and a rapidly deteriorating gym door. According to Smith, the heating in the gym is far from adequate and more units will be needed there by next winter. Also, Smith explained that the high wooden door that splits the girls and boys gym is in need of replacement. A new door could cost upwards of $25,000.

Smith explained that the door now operates upon a "floating floor" and moves within a set track. The problem centers upon the floor in the floor. Because the floor is not built upon a solid base, it contracts and expands, according to weather conditions. Many times, reports Smith, the door will not open or close because it does not fit into the track.

"At times it works and at times it doesn't," added Smith.

Walkathon For Dimes Coming Up

Warm weather, sunny dispositions and a big turnout should be the main features of the March of Dimes Walkathon this Saturday. Starting from the South Orange Junior High School, the walk will cover a 22 mile route through Maplewood, Millburn, West Orange, Verona, Montclair, Glen Ridge, and Orange before returning to South Orange Junior High for the finale.

An estimated 1200 - 1500 young people including several from Nutley (and young at heart) from all over Essex County will be doing the walking to help raise funds for the March of Dimes programs of birth defects treatment and prevention. Each will solicit as many sponsors as possible, with each agreeing to pay ten cents per mile (and up) for each mile he walks.

"Lots of kids have 40 or 50

Strumolo speculated that no private doctor wanted the position because it would place them on 24-hour call. Also, the Town Physician position can be time consuming because it calls for the doctor to examine drug and drunken driver defendants for police which can lead to testimony in court.

Dr. Brown did not serve the Town on a contractual basis but rather, he was covered by the

When it's time to make your property investment pay off you don't need a middle man . . .

you need a mouth piece!

When you sell a piece of property you don't need someone to share your profits with you. You need someone to make your profits greater. That's why every real estate agent at Raymond P. Marzulli is a professional salesman. A specialist in his field. In other words, a "real taker." And that's exactly the kind of real estate agent you need in order to realize a maximum profit from the sale of your property.

again our stalwart road runner, Petronaci took first by four seconds! Second was taken by senior Bob Drake and third was taken by a Nutley sprinter.

In the 320, at the tri-meet, East Orange's Harry Smith took first. Quickly, Belleville star, Mike Petronaci ran, capturing second place. At the Nutley meet, Nutley's Cicci took first, followed by teammate Joe Francisco. Third was taken by junior Greg Ottalagano.

In the low hurdles at the tri-meet, East Orange's Lewis, who also took first in the high hurdles won again. Third place was taken by Belleville runner Don Kowalski. Against Nutley, senior Ross, who also took the high hurdles first, took first in the low hurdles. Senior Don Kow-walski lost by less than one tenth of a second, therefore, taking second—Nutley took third place.

Belleville's sophomore stalwart Steve Budrick took third place in the half mile at the tri-meet. Budrick, who has been consistently bettering his time, is running his best

Parkway Bridge Near Completion

Traffic is moving smoothly on northbound lanes of the Garden State Parkway's bridge over the Raritan River as contractors push work to have a five-lane crossing ready by Memorial Day more than six months ahead of the original construction schedule.

"As a result of recent speedups in construction, the Memorial Day target is well within reach," New Jersey Highway Authority Chairman John P. Gallagher said today.

Chairman Gallagher, whose agency operates the Parkway, pointed out that the latest speedup developed from a temporary arrangement which limited northbound bridge travel to two lanes for three weeks while the contractors rushed the removal and replacement of large sections of concrete deck. This work progressed so well that traffic returned to three lanes last Friday night, a few days earlier than anticipated.

With this accomplished, the contractors then turned their attention to the two lanes on the left side of the northbound span. The rehabilitation of these lanes and related work will clear the way for five-lane traffic.

"There already are five southbound lanes on a never crossing bridge adjacent to the older bridge on which the reconstruction work now is being done. The older span had six lanes - three in each travel direction and its conversion will provide for five wider lanes.

Good workers are always in demand.

now. Against Nutley, maroon runner Dave Hanson took first with a two minute 13 second run. Belleville's Steve Budrick took second by three seconds. Third place was taken by Nutley's Steve Dobroski.

In the field events, Belleville was talented enough to place in several of them. In the discus at the tri-meet, first place was taken by East Orange's David Hall with a toss of 127 feet. Second was taken by Belleville's sophomore Tom Sanders and third place was taken by junior Robert Luongo.

In the shot put, Belleville's Robert Luongo's best throw. Belleville's Robert Luongo tossed the ball a lengthy 46 feet. It was Luongo's best throw. Second place was taken by East Orange's Melvin Butts. Also, placing from Belleville was Johnny Fagoli at fourth place. Against Nutley, weight star Robert Luongo placed 45 feet with a throw of 45 feet eleven inches. Second and third places were taken by Nutley's Davies and Gaccione.

In the long jump, Belleville's jumpers were only able to take fourth at the tri-meet.

the way. Cucuzza struck out four and walked only three as he picked up his first win of the season.

Belleville managed to get one run off the right hander in the fifth when Gary Falkman singled in a run. Petronaci's single and three consecutive hit batsmen and a walk produced two more Belleville runs in the seventh. However, Greg Sonn came on in relief of Cucuzza and managed to get the final out of the game for the Campers.

Don Kowalski took fourth with a fairly good jump considering the pit was in poor shape. During the Nutley meet, Nutley's Peaver took first with a 17 foot eight inch jump. Tony Portuese took second with a jump only three inches shorter. Senior speedster Don Kowalski captured third with a jump he told me not to print in this article!

Las in the high jump at the tri-meet, third and fourth places were taken by Robert Drake and John O'Donnell. At the Nutley meet, Nutley's Len McMutty took first with a five foot eight jump. Second place was taken by Jerry De Wolfe of Nutley, with a five foot six jump. Last place, in the final event was taken by senior Robert Drake at five feet six inches.

and inning as they pecked up five runs. Hits by Rich Gosinski, George Mango, Joe Cancelliere, Mike Doncanski, and Bob DiQuattro contributed to the attack.

Against Orange, Belleville romped to an 11-1 victory as the Tornadoes were held to only one hit, on the combined hurling of Telesco, Gosinski, and Doncanski. The attack was led by Bob DiQuattro and Mike Doncanski, who each had three hits, and by Vinnie Lipoma and Gerald Hoban who each knocked in two runs. The Bellboys also hit the long ball as they had six doubles highlight the at-having a hard time trying to hit Kallam's serves. Indeed the Bellboys were only to manage two threats in the entire ballgame. One came in the fourth when with two outs Frank Papisidero walked, and Gary Falkman got the first hit of the day off of Kallam a single to right-center. However, Kallam got out of trouble when he got Phil Cuzzi to fly out to deep left field. Belleville mustered another threat in the fifth on an infield single by Joe Ross, and walks to Joe Lotruglio and Rich Giordano loaded the bases. However, Kallam struck out Petite on a three ball two strike pitch to end the inning.

West Essex added the final two runs in the sixth with Kallam singling home one run and the second one scoring on an error.

Beck's Column

The art and science of electronic communications over 100 years ago was based on a piece-meal basis. As new technological developments occurred, decisions were made and policies established which on the basis of the best judgments, seemed to be the most desirable actions to take. Today the deficiencies and shortcomings of these decisions, in the light of later developments and experiences gained are becoming increasingly evident. Worse of all, they now stand in the way of urgently needed future growth. If the present system is not revised, it can have serious, even paralyzing effects on the industry's progress.

Some sources in the industry propose a major overhaul of the existing, cumulative expedients and replacing them with a carefully planned new system which ultimately would provide the maximum advantages to consumers.

Right now it is planned already to phase out our present TV channels 2 to 13. The first step in this direction would be the obligatory inclusion of UHF. If today we would have UHF TV only, there could be twice or even 3 times as many stations in a city. On our present system of channels 2 to 13, the most any city can have is 7 stations. Many more could be in use now already on UHF.

However, the suggestions for a complete overhaul envisions to abandon completely our presently known wireless transmission system and replace it with a wire connected two way system, similar to the telephone, which also could be used for paying bills just by pushing a few buttons or shop by TV, to name just a couple of functions.

Much water will flow down the river until such a radical change comes about, but come it will.

against Nutley last Monday, Cindy loves the competition that she is getting on the team, not the boys that she is playing against! Against Bloomfield, Cindy talent captured two and one half points, shooting at the number two spot. Cindy was high scorer at this match for Belleville.

Shooting at the number four position was senior Dominick Palamara. Against Nutley, Dominick received a half of a point. Against his Bengal opponent, Palamara was able to capture one point. Considering that three of the six Belleville shooters were shut out, that is fairly good.

At the number five spot was senior Richard "Weasel" Villano. Villano donated two and one half points to the victorious Belleville score against Nutley. Later that week against Bloomfield, his opponent was just too good for he was not able to score a point.

Finally, at the number six spot was junior Neil Simone. Against Nutley, the talented shooter captured three points, shutting out his opponent. Later in the week, he received one point against his Bengal opponent, Simeone.

was one of the few to score in both matches.

Harrison Street Raid Arrests 14 for Drugs

Marijuana, LSD, Pills Found in Apartment;
Judge Joerg Sends Case to Grand Jury

The cases against 14 suspects apprehended in a March 17 narcotics raid on an apartment at 221 Harrison Street were referred to the grand jury by Judge Edwin J.C. Joerg April 26 from Nutley Municipal Court. All are charged with possession of over 25 grams of marijuana, and the two men leasing the apartment face a number of heavier charges.

The raid, recounted by Detective Albert Ciccone and Patrolman Anthony Intile when they testified at the probable cause hearing, netted three and a half pounds of marijuana, 15 young marijuana plants and a quantity of LSD and amphetamines and barbiturates.

Arthur W. Homoky, 23, and John M. Dominick, 23, who rented the apartment are both charged with possession of over 25 grams of marijuana, possession of drugs not properly labeled, growing marijuana and possession of LSD. Dominick is also charged with possession of paraphernalia, barbiturates and amphetamines.

Others who were arrested and charged with possession of over 25 grams of marijuana are Patricia Hinchcliffe, 18, of 105 Davis Avenue in Harrison, James McCann, 19, of 23 Van Houten Avenue in Belleville, Dean Gabai, 22, of 265 Hillside Avenue in Nutley, Charles Homoky, 20, of 24 Melwex Street in Belleville, Gary Mastromonica, 20, of 26 Charles Street in Belleville, David Hackling, 19, of 27 Tappan Avenue in Belleville, Don Torico, 19, of 467 Greylock Parkway in Belleville, Eileen Finnegan, 20, of 172 Fairway Avenue in Belleville, Celia Belin, 19, of 21 Linden Avenue in Belleville, Mary Chinn, 19, of 425 Mount Prospect Avenue in Newark, Elizabeth Ford, 18, of 100 Jersey Street in Harrison and Boyd Robbs, 30, of 16 North 16th Street in East Orange. Robbs is also charged with possession of paraphernalia.

Police officers Ciccone and Intile testified that they raided the apartment at 9 p.m., when they broke through a chained door and found the suspects scattering to different rooms, where they were then caught. They stated the bulk of the marijuana was found in a half closet while the pills were discovered in the leases' clothing in the bedroom.

Anti-War Program Tomorrow

The Nutley Peace Action Committee and the New Jersey Alliance of Laymen tomorrow will co-sponsor a public meeting at the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church to focus on the series of color slides dealing with the automated air war in Indochina. The session is planned for 8 p.m.

Purpose of the meeting is to present an argument against President Nixon's Vietnamization program. David McReynolds, field secretary of the War Resisters League and author of the book "We Have Been Invaded by the 21st Century," will discuss the escalation of the air war and the increase in casualties.

The publicity brochures for the public meeting quote Anthony Lewis in a April 8, 1972, New York Times article: "Surely now there cannot be any informed person on earth who fails to understand what is the result of Nixon-Kissinger formula for 'peace' and 'stability' in Indochina: perpetual war and perpetual American involvement."

Coin Show This Sunday

The Tri County Coin Club will hold a coin show Sunday at the VFW Hall, 271 Washington Avenue, from 10 a.m. - 7 p.m. Admission is free and the public is invited.

defendants each argued that since Ciccone and Intile could identify few of their clients positively, and since none of the defendants were found with drugs on their person, that charges against them should be dismissed.

School No. 2 Teacher To Get Retirement Fete

Mrs. Helen Starrs, First Grade Teacher for 30 years at Belleville School No. 2, will retire at the end of the current school year. It would be an impossible task to locate all that would like to attend the dinner in her honor.

Mrs. Starr's Dinner will be held Thursday night, June 8 at 7 p.m., at the Fountain, in Belleville. If you would like tickets kindly contact either, Mrs. Dolores Dopart at 759-0374 or Mrs. Francis Del Mauro at 751-4758.

Brought to you as a courtesy of

NICOLS PARK ESSO

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Communicate with family member at a distance and you are encouraged and reassured. Energy should ZOOM by mid-week. An Use-it productively. Temptation will be to shilly-shally days away on fun and games, the kind lovers play, which, come to think of it, could be the most productive of all.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Major opportunity is presented early in week. Grab it! In many ways, Taurus, you have just completed the winter of your discontent. Conditions now begin to improve. Be fore end of last day, grab your flea bag and head for the hills. Get away from duty, just this once. You'll return to reality rejuvenated. You'll see.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Forces scattered in week ahead, Gem. Odds and ends, bits and pieces. Nothing will seem to fit quite right. Remember that in today's world it requires a certain madness just to remain rational.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Emotionally, you go from mud puddle into cool, clear stream, Moonflower. However, should you swallow attractive bait offered, it will be out of the stream and into the pan. It's spring, and you're hungry, and Olga understands. But will others?

LEO (July 23-August 22): You may find it necessary to do some letting go in days ahead, Leo. It will not be a happy experience, and pangs of regret may follow. But events are simply taking their natural course. Smile if it kills you. And it won't. In fact, your future will be more productive for having taken this action.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Energy returns in week ahead, Virg. dear. Use it to extricate yourself from emotional mire. Then you not only survive, but actually thrive and blossom. Do what you KNOW is right and your heart celebrates. Last day a pip.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Vibrations will be unusually strong in week coming up, Lib. It will be that old spring thing again. Don't fight it. You owe it to yourself to relax and unwind. After all, this past winter has been a bit blah. Look up old friend and get together. Share memories and laugh it up.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Days ahead should find you full of beans, Scorp. Try to please one who in the recent past has been difficult. You can now succeed. Mother Nature beckons. Follow her, for she won't lead you astray. End of week finds you refreshed and dewy-eyed.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): New chapter begins by third day, Sag. New characters appear on scene. One who seems most charming could in reality be villain, not only treacherous but lecherous. Be cool. Observe. Message clears.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): A top-sy-turvy week ahead, Cap. Concentration may be difficult. Like a butterfly, you flit from one idea to another. Keep pad and pencil handy and jot down notes. Later in week, sort out thoughts. Separate fact from fancy. A devil of a task, but most important. On last day, you experience a "little epiphany."

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Pressures build in days ahead, Aquari. You alternate between depression and elation. Welcome aid from one who would like to be your brother. Before week is completely shot, get out of doors and allow the spring sun to warm your bones, and your heart.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Back to work again, chickadee. A spring fling is delightful, but even Pisces can't afford to play week-in and week-out. Dig in to tasks at hand and get your house in order. A visitor is on the way, and you don't want to be caught with the joint looking like a baboon cage, do you? Now, SCUTTLE.

Volkswagen Program Aims To Clean Air

Volkswagen is trying to make driving perfectly clear—exhaust emissions from automobiles. According to Robert A. Senior, president of Three County Volkswagen, authorized VW sales, service, and parts facility in Lyndhurst, VW has put into service a new $80,000 mobile laboratory to measure automobile exhaust emissions at various locations throughout the country. He said that the two-part lab, which, in all its complexity, looks like a space vehicle about to set off for Mars, is comprised of a custom-built semi-trailer test unit and a 33-foot bus loaded with electronic measuring instrumentation. Designed and built for VW by Scott Research Laboratories, Inc., in Plainfield, Pennsylvania, the mobile testing unit is the newest element in VW's continuing campaign to produce the cleanest possible engines and keep them running clean.

Understanding An Election Overseas In Italy

WHILE HERE, IN AMERICA, elections are taking place at various levels including municipal, county, state and national preferential primaries, overseas in Italy, another election has just come to fruition. Unlike American politics, Italian politics are deeply involved with the problem of communist strength. In order to understand the nature of the Italian election, we have a special correspondent from Rome who prepared a feature story covering the election activity in Italy prior to Election Day.

ROME, MAY 5, 1972 — Spring is blossoming all over Italy and the Spanish steps leading to the Trinità dei Monti in this ancient city are more colorful than usual with the stands of the flower vendors overflowing with all shades of Spring flowers and plants.

But only tourists and priests have an eye for such a beauty while the Italians are engaged in one of the bitterest electoral campaigns in their short democratic history, the results of which might well have far reaching implications for the future of their country.

For an American who was born and raised in the political climate of the two-party system it is not easy to understand the intricacies of Italian politics with more than a dozen parties to contend with and with a complicated interplay of different trends within each party, in comparison to which the familiar squabbles among American Democrats are just a kid's game.

In order to grasp the significance of these "extraordinary elections," one has to go back to the immediate post World War 2 period, when the King was ousted and Italy gave herself a democratic form of Government, becoming a parliamentary Republic.

At that time Uncle Joe Stalin was very popular with the Americans and became popular with the Italians who organized what has been now for many years the largest Communist Party in the world; its representatives were then invited to take part in the Government which was headed by Mr. Alcide De Gasperi, a Christian Democrat with clear views and with the spotless honesty of the people of the mountains of North Italy, where he came from.

It didn't take long for De Gasperi to find out that a co-existence with the Communists was "all give and no take" and at the next elections, using the privilege of being elected by the overwhelming majority obtained by his Christian Democratic Party (almost 50% of the votes) he ousted the Communists from the Government and chose to rule a coalition of Christian Democrats, Social Democrats, Republicans and Liberals, which assured him a very comfortable majority in Parliament and, thus, a stable Government.

Unfortunately that situation was not bound to last and after De Gasperi's death and the awakening of the politically undeveloped regions of the Italian South, the Communists started to achieve slow but steady gains which brought them to the approximate 27% of the total electoral vote they are enjoying today.

A lucky break for the Communist politicians was at that time Pope John's meeting with Krushchev's son-in-law, during which John XII, in his candid goodness, stated that all human beings, no matter their political creed are equal in the love of God, and gave his blessing to the Soviet Union and to its leaders.

The result of that meeting was exploited by the Communist husbands who were able to convince their wives up to that time always staunch supporters of the Christian Democratic Party, to switch their votes to the Communist Party which had just received the blessing of the Pope. As a consequence the following political elections marked a further progress of the Communists, who began to challenge in a serious way the leadership of the Christian Democrats in Parliament, especially when the Social Democratic party split in two, between Communist-oriented Socialists (Italian Socialist Party-PSI) and democratic-oriented ones (Partito Social Democratico Italiano-PSDI).

A situation was so created, by which the Christian Democrats, even with the help of other center parties such as the Republican Party, the Liberal Party and the PSDI was not able to round up a decisive majority in Parliament, against the combined votes of the Communists and the PSI who were able to reach over 45% of the votes.

Consequently, after a period of growing instability of the so-called "centrist Government," the leadership of the Christian Democratic Party decided to try an "opening to the left," namely to invite the PSI with its approximate 16 votes into the Government and thus launch what was to be known as the "center-left" policy administration.

In order to sever their ties with the Communists, the condition for their entry into the Government, the PSI members exacted a substantial price in social reforms and in progressive measures from their new partners that is the Christian Democrats, the Republicans and the PSDI.

But it became apparent after a few years of the "center-left" regime, that while demanding new and always more progressive social measures, the PSI had not severed completely its association with the Communist Party and, in certain instances it was acting as an advocate of the Communist line within the Government itself.

In such a role they were pushing ever-mounting "left" demands, protecting civil disorder motivated by Union's requests and as a result of such a situation the country which had been praised for its "economic miracle" of the Fifties was brought on its economic knees by the systematic disruption of public and private enterprises through the widespread use and abuse of strikes in all branches of industries and services.

The ads from the beaches will soon begin to be highly disturbing.
