Pica Wants 9-Member Board, Open Caucuses

Matthew Pica

Matthew Pica, vice president to the Board of Education, Monday night suggested to the School Board that it do away entirely with closed-door caucuses and expand its membership from seven to nine. Both proposals will be explored by Board Attorney Max Schwartz as the majority of the Board seemed receptive to the suggestions.

Pica, in a surprise announcement at Monday's regular meeting, called upon the Board to "do away with private caucus meetings right now." Pica further suggested that a nine-member Board of Education could better govern the school system and could be more conducive to setting up various committees to handle

School Board policy. "Some people seem to think that we decide matters behind closed doors that can't be told at public meetings. We want to show the people that we are protecting the interests of the kids and of the schools," Pica said. "I want the people to see what goes on at our meetings. To see how we argue and sometimes fight

Those Subterraneans Are Only Cesspools

Public Works Department employees ruined what had the makings of a great science-fiction story last week when it was reported a Belleville woman's backyard was slowly sinking under administrative clerk James Soldo and his workers discovered a natural, logical explanation for the once mysterious happening.

What at first was envisioned to be subterranean creatures or strange mole people lurking under Belleville in the area of Ogden Road turned out to be only an old underground cesspool.

Mrs. Stanley Coeyman of 15 Ogden Road reported to Town Hall last week that a huge hole suddenly appeared in her swimming pool, sucking the water and plastic pool liner into the earth where they disappeared. Commissioner Mary Senatore promised that she would have Public Works employees investigate the occurrence. Public Works officials now report that iron probe bars to dig underneath the surface of the earth they have discovered an old cesspool about seven to eight feet under Mrs.

Coeyman's yard. Officials further speculate that there may be other old cesspools in the area, giving an explanation to the charge that are acted upon or not is the return, or non-return, of Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo from his Florida vacation. The director of Public Affairs has been absent from his Chambers seat almost two months.

The three ordinances on the table now include a proposal to regulate the opening and closing of food stores; a move to boost parking requirements of multi-family dwellings from 150 to 200 per cent and a third bill giving local residents priority at municipal jobs.

A fourth ordinance, which may be the most important now facing the Commission, is a sweeping new amendment to Belleville's existing zoning law completely revamping use regulations controlling business zones. Mrs. Mary Senatore introduced the measure. That bill is scheduled for a public hearing

Strumolo's Apartment Ransacked

Belleville police officials report that Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo's apartment at 80 Franklin Street was burglarized Tuesday evening, August 8. An undetermined amount of cash, a safe box and jewelry were stolen.

Deputy Chief Frank Haight reports entry to the apartment was made through a rear bedroom window. The theft was discovered about midnight Tuesday when the Commissioner's daughter, Josephine, returned to find the apartment robbed. Commissioner Strumolo is vacationing in Florida.

Assigned to the case are detectives Nick Berrigan and Frank Falcone. Missing were several pieces of jewelry and a safe taken from a closet in the apartment. Police officials speculate that the apartment was robbed sometime early Tuesday evening.

Tuesday and most likely will see a final vote the same evening.

Both Commissioner Michael Marotti and Mary Senatore publicly criticized Strumolo at the last Commission meeting for his remaining away from the Chambers two months. Marotti termed Strumolo's absence as "ridiculous" while Mrs. Senatore said Strumolo "had a responsibility to the taxpayers."

Registrar Ralph Risoli promised Commissioners that Strumolo would indeed be on hand for Tuesday's meeting but there are still rumors in Town Hall that the director of Public Affairs will again miss the next regular Commission meeting.

Doctor Resigns

Dr. Philip A. Risoli, school physician to the Board of Education since the first week in May, suddenly resigned from that post last week.

According to superintendent of schools Anthony Greco, he received a short letter from Dr. Risoli last week revealing his intentions. Greco reported that the letter, Dr. Risoli cited "an increased obligation to his private practice and other important obligations" as his reason for resigning from the post.

Board of Education members when learning of Dr. Risoli's resignation at their Monday meeting, expressed displeasure. School Board president Richard Mahmarian, speaking for the

Golden Comments

Commissioner Strumolo's apartment on Franklin Street in the Silver Lake section of Belleville was reportedly burglarized late Tuesday evening or early Wednesday morning August 8th or 9th during the period of his vacationing in Florida.

It had been expected he would be present at the town commission meeting Tuesday August 8th to cast a deciding ballot on several important measures before the town commission. His absence proved both costly to the town's ability to resolve several significant administrative matters and also to his own security, since usually reliable reports indicate a small safe was reported missing from his domicile in Belleville. Reports at this time are fragmentary.

Bad news from Fort Lauderdale about our former Police Chief Charles McGuinnis, now retired, who is now hospitalized at Holy Cross Hospital, Federal Highway, Fort Lauderdale, Fla. with condition reported serious.

We're certain a get well card to the Chief from his old friends about town might speed his recovery. The boys in blue who greatly respected his courageous leadership are all rooting for him. Get well soon Chief!

Your Columnist, dissatisfied with the needless traffic congestion created at the intersection of Belleville Ave. and Washington Ave. and along Washington Ave. northbound because of the long, phlegmatic line of cars awaiting to get into the Fidelity branch bank "Drive-In" window has written to the Hon. John C. Kohl, Transportation Commissioner of the State Transportation Department to have a survey conducted by his trained staff to determine if this patently unlawful congestion of a state highway should not be prohibited by decree of his high office.

First an apology to the Belleville Rosary and the Kearny Cab Co. for the idiotic shenanigans of a small band of morons whose brains are so feeble they can find nothing better to do than think up stupid pranks that annoy business people with costly and needless expense

Belleville Adult School Plans Being Finalized

A.W. McGinnis, director of the Belleville Adult School, announced today that plans for the fall semester of the popular program have been completed and the staff is preparing for the expected influx of hundreds of resident and out-of-town students.

McGinnis notes that out-of-town students make up an increasingly larger percentage of suburban adult schools in recent years as our population becomes more mobile and as the problems of big-city life cause the city dweller to seek a quieter and safer atmosphere.

The Belleville Adult School plans to offer some 46 courses in the fields of the arts, crafts, business, homemaking, hobbies, sports, cultural, continuing education, and other general interest areas. The curriculum of the school is the subject of a never-ending review by the school administration and the adult school Advisory Council, a group of nine public-spirited citizens who give their views throughout the year without remuneration in the interest of public school adult education.

It is the cooperation between the school administration, the Advisory Council, and the board of education that makes the existence of a successful adult school possible.

McGinnis notes that the adult school brochure, which lists courses, their descriptions, and other pertinent information, should be in the mail the first week of September. Brochures are mailed to over 13,000 residents in addition to being placed in such public places as libraries, banks, and business establishments.

It is unfortunate that many still do not get to see the brochure until too late to register. For those, McGinnis says a call to 759-4701 will get

Volunteers Poll Town

Survey Asks Citizens Opinion On Ordinances

Commissioner Mary Senatore will reveal the results of a Town-wide survey made the last two weeks when Town Fathers meet Tuesday evening. The public poll reportedly asks residents their views on 24-hour openings for food stores and parking requirements for multi-family dwellings. Both questions are now facing the Town Commission in ordinance form.

According to Mrs. Senatore, over 60 per cent of the homes here were reached by the survey and residents are still calling the Commissioner's office for survey ballots. Commissioner Senatore has pledged to vote on the two ordinances as indicated by the results of the poll.

Facing Commissioners Tuesday is a bill to limit the opening and closing of retail food outlets and a measure which would change multi-family dwelling parking requirements from 150 to 200 per cent.

Mrs. Senatore explained that two weeks ago she instructed 40 volunteer workers to canvass the Town on the two important questions. Workers took four days, Thursday through Sunday, to complete the poll. Used for the survey was a ballot with five yes or no questions. The Commissioner said the results of the poll will be made public at Tuesday's meeting.

Late-Night Shoppers Defend Pathmark's 24-Hour Schedule

PATHMARK STORE on Belmont Avenue in Belleville is wide awake at 1 a.m. and stays open all night, as part of the chain's new policy. Belleville commissioners aren't happy with the store's night-owl habits, though, and are moving to limit Pathmark hours.

Consumers Disagree With Belleville Board

By Ken Moore

A decision by an area supermarket chain to open its doors 24 hours a day has spurred reaction from various towns in northern New Jersey. One of these is Belleville.

The Pathmark store on Belmont Avenue in the Silver Lake section of Belleville followed through with the new policy last May to become one of the 96 Pathmark stores in five states to initiate all-night service. Pathmark is the first supermarket chain to do so.

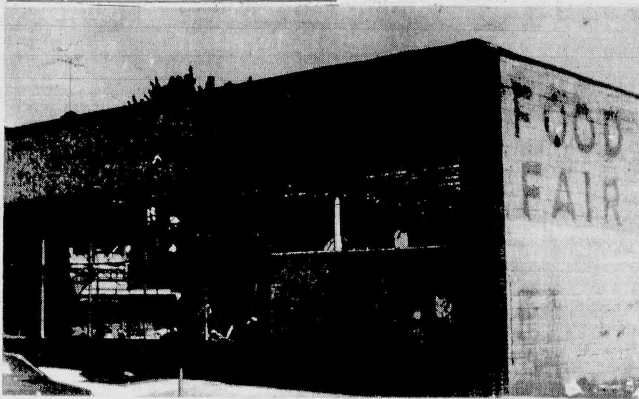

Pathmark spokesmen said that all regular services of the stores will be in operation, although the Belleville store has not yet opened its pharmacy section throughout the night and there would be no increase in prices. Two reasons were given for the policy change. First, Pathmark felt their customers should not have to pay higher prices elsewhere when their stores are closed.

Secondly, Pathmark officials believe habits of the consumer have changed. They say the shorter work week allows for more time for people to shop late at night, rather than having to do the marketing on weekends. Also, Pathmark was aiming at late-shift workers who would find it easier to shop after they finished their turn at the job.

DEATH OF A GOOD STORE is marked with the demolition of the Food Fair on Washington Avenue. Above, only the shell of the building remains and that too will be razed to make room for garden apartment complex. Belleville's main avenue is now without any major food stores.

Bring Glass Saturday To Peoples Bank Lot

The Belleville Shade Tree Committee sets its recycling and ecology program in full swing beginning Saturday when residents may bring their glass containers to a central location.

This Saturday, Department of Public Works trucks will be parked at the Peoples National Bank parking lot on the corner of Joramelon Street and Franklin Avenue.

in the Grants Shopping Center for recycling of glass containers. Bottles will be collected between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Assisting Shade Tree Committee members August 19 will be members of local Girl and Boy Scout troops. Residents are urged to take advantage of the recycling program.

On Saturday, Sept. 2, the ecology program will be run at the Pathmark Food Store parking lot on Belmont Avenue in the Silver Lake section of Town. Those hours too will be between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. All types of bottles will be collected on both dates.

The Shade Tree Committee is comprised of Chester Prosperi as the chairman with Edith De Feo as co-chairman and Kathy Marion serving as secretary. Other members include Marie De Leva, Ralph Castellano, Fiore Strumolo, Nicholas Maunelle, Florence Forgiore and Kevin Sutton.

Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers

Belleville American Legion Auxiliary Post 105 will hold installation of unit officers Saturday evening at the Post Home on Washington Avenue. Starting time for the ceremonies is 8:30 p.m.

Installed as president will be Mrs. Robert Laid with Mrs. Donald Johnson being sworn in as first vice president and Mrs. William F. Lenehan taking the oath as second vice president.

Other auxiliary officers to be sworn in on Saturday evening will be Mrs. Patrick J. Lee, treasurer; Mrs. Peter Johnson, secretary; Mrs. Robert Fresh, historian; Mrs. Carmine Petti, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Joseph De Luca, color bearer, and Mrs.

Charles De Luca, chaplain. The installation of the auxiliary coincides with the installation of Legion Post 105 officers of the regular organization. Following the ceremonies will be refreshments and dancing.

Brian E. Delaney Jr., 19, of 10 Irving Place in Niles was fined $200 in Belleville Court by Judge Edward Ahornson August 3 for creating a disturbance in the emergency room of Clara Maass Hospital while under the influence of alcoholic beverage. Delaney was arrested by Officer Joseph Larenti after an incident that occurred August 2.

Finalizing Plans For Adult School

One of the things McGinnis continually emphasizes is the importance of early registration. Many of the courses are limited as to enrollment and are available on a first-come basis only.

The surest way to reserve a place in a course is to register by mail as these are recorded (if mailed early enough) prior to in-person registrations.

Local DeMolays Hope Break Record Today

Belleville's Suburban Chapter Order of DeMolay is hoping tonight to break the 1972 marathon board and table-top games record for international DeMolay chapters.

Presently the record is 101 hours, held by the Orange, Texas, Chapter ODM. This will be surpassed at 8:14 this evening, and then it's on to gain as much more time as possible. The Chapter will not attempt the 601 hour all-time record for DeMolay Chapters as the facilities at the Masonic Temple on Joramelon Street will be needed for other purposes.

Suburban Chapter started the matches of tabletop shuffleboard at 3:14 p.m. on Sunday afternoon. Bob Anderson, a past Master Councilor, and Jerry Price, the current Master Councilor of the Chapter, faced brothers Ron Schulz and Jim Dahlquist in the opening game with the final score 22-18.

Det. Winfield Gives Badly Burned Youth Help Through Shriners

Local fire officials speculate the fire started when the light Jerry was holding emitted a spark, touching off the highly volatile wax remover.

Three other children in the home at the time, Donald DuPre, 10, and Mrs. Doby's two children, Carl, 2, and Kenneth, 5, were uninjured. The three were in another section of the home at the time of the fire.

Eight-year-old Jerry is now being treated at the Shriners Burns Institute in Boston and a local detective is responsible for getting that expert care for the youth.

Detective Harry Winfield of the Belleville Force, a high official in the Shriners organization, in Livingston, was told of the mishap Friday morning and by the next day he had little Jerry flown to the Boston Institute.

Winfield, after hearing of the accident, called the Livingston Shriners and arranged to have Jerry flown to Boston, where he would receive special treatment for burns.

With the help of Detective Winfield, Jerry was transported Saturday morning by Belleville ambulance to Morrisown Airport where the Shriners rented a special plane to fly him to Boston.

Winfield's deep concern for the youth may have helped immensely as the Shriners

Burns Institute is the top hospital for treatment of burns in the entire northeast U.S. Although Jerry is still listed in critical condition he will benefit from special care and equipment he could not have received in Clara Maass Hospital, where he was originally sent.

For Board Pica Suggests Nine Members

amongst ourselves to get things done. I don't want this board to get to look too much like a rubber stamp group."

Board member Lawrence Schwartz, though, disagreed with Pica. Schwartz believed that the same amount of work wouldn't get done should caucuses be open to the public.

"What can be gained by inviting the public? I don't think it's a good idea.... We should expand the public meetings," Schwartz countered. "We need private meetings to air our grievances but not air them to the press."

Schwartz, though, did concur with Pica's proposal to expand the Board to nine members. School Board president Richard Mahmarian instructed Max

Schwartz, Board Attorney, to explore both suggestions.

Attorney Schwartz said open caucuses would be in compliance with the law since the Board of Education makes its own rules and regulations. Expanding the Board to nine members, however, would need the permission of the public and must be presented as a question at the School Board's annual election.

"The Board must approve of the expansion and adopt the measure in resolution form," stated Schwartz. "Then it must be presented to the voters during the February election."

Should the nine-member Board question be put to the vote this coming February the earliest it could be implemented is February of 1974.

Pica stated that the only real excuse to hold a private caucus is dealing with personnel matters.

Mahmarian too seemed conducive to a nine-member Board and stated that most Boards representing a Town the size of Belleville have nine members.

Cesspools Bring Down Big Mystery

neighbors' yards on Ogden Road are also sinking further into the ground.

Commissioner Mary Senatore reports that the only way to solve the problem is to fill the area in with rocks and dirt.

"Apparently, when the homes were erected the builders didn't know about the cesspools," said Mrs. Senatore. "The people of the area must fill the land at their own expense. It is not the Town's responsibility."

Board, said "we're disappointed" while member G. Fred Burluzzi added that "it is not too professional to do that."

No replacement has either been named or nominated to fill the position but Greco reports that he has made some informal contacts with local physicians as to the position.

Unfortunately, there are no responsibilities for the school physician during the summer months," added Greco. "Working months for the position run from September through June."

Dr. Rispoli was unanimously selected as school physician in May of this year, shortly after the death of Dr. Donald S. Brown, who held that post for over 40 years. Dr. Rispoli, a native of Newark who now resides in Bloomfield, operates a private practice in Belleville. He also is a member of the staff at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Running for Congress

Carl A. Orechio Will Manage Campaign for Milton Waldor

Milton A. Waldor, Republican candidate for Congress in the 11th District, today announced the appointment of Assemblyman Carl A. Orechio of Nutley as his campaign manager.

In the past, Orechio will have overall responsibility for all campaign activities of Waldor in the 21 municipalities comprising the 11th District, which includes Nutley and Belleville.

Waldor is making his first bid for a seat in the House of Representatives after service as a New Jersey State Senator from Essex County.

"I am extremely pleased that Assemblyman Orechio has agreed to lead my campaign for Congress," Waldor said. "His ability, his energy and his long record as a distinguished public figure will be a tremendous asset in the campaign ahead."

Orechio, in addition to his current seat in the New Jersey State Legislature, served on the Nutley Board of Commissioners for eight years before retiring in 1968. Since 1944, he has headed an insurance and real estate agency bearing his name with offices in Nutley.

He is a past president of the Lions Club of Nutley, a past president of the Nutley Chamber of Commerce and Union National of Nutley, and formerly headed two fraternal organizations there.

He has served as chairman of the Sister Kenny Foundation Committee, the Heart Fund Drive, the Easter Seal Campaign and the 1971 United Community Fund Drive, all in his home community.

Among the many awards and citations he has received are those from the Loyal Order of Moose in 1956, the Cedar Grove Lion Governor's Award in 1958, the Republican Central Committee in 1959, the Amvets in 1960 and 1968, the Nutley Police and Fire Departments in 1961, Union in 1962, the Knights of Columbus in 1964.

Newark's Dilemma

Last week Newark's Mayor Kenneth A. Gibson, criticizing his own police department, said Newark would run into a $65 million debt next year unless state and federal aid was pumped into his city, and called for all of Essex County being legislated into a single city.

Newark's travelling mayor either lost his marbles for a few minutes or is indulging himself in a pipedream. He is asking all other municipalities in Essex County to give up their sovereignty, their liquidity, and integrate themselves into a near bankrupt city. One wonders how silly can the mayor of an important city really get.

No amount of state and/or federal aid will help Newark unless politicians like Gibson make a complete turnaround—stay at home and help the city that's paying their wages. Surrounding communities get along reasonably well without going on state and federal welfare rolls. One of the reasons towns like Nutley and Belleville are not faced with the fiscal problems of a city like Newark is because of the fiscal integrity and fiscal responsibility of its elected and appointed public officials.

The sad state of Newark's affairs today, results from gross negligence and corruption over many years.

Perhaps cities like Newark and New York are too large to be manageable. One could well imagine what would happen to us in New Jersey were the entire state considered one city. This is the kind of thinking that Newark's Mayor Gibson is bringing to the problems of the City of Newark. We think it is high time Mayor Gibson stops dreaming, stops looking for handouts at the state and federal levels and commences the job of cutting out unnecessary expenses and give the City of Newark a businesslike administration.

Non-Institutional Correction

Considerable interest has been generated recently in the merits of non-institutional correction, as compared to institutional correction, or prison.

In short, the theory of some today is that, in many cases at least, more and larger prisons aren't the answer to the crime problem. Fewer prisons are actually needed, in many areas, if non-institutional correction programs are inaugurated, it's said.

The contention is supported by experience in several states. California has begun to subsidize development of non-institutional correction. It is said that over eighty per cent of California offenders today are now in such programs.

As a result, two relatively new youth facilities have been emptied of inmates there, and two others which were built have not been used.

Rhode Island now has a "deferred conviction" program for felons, which has kept many out of prison. Wisconsin has a major non-institutional correction program in being. New Mexico has experimented with more liberal probation and parole.

Results are said to be encouraging in these pioneer efforts. Certainly it is a field in which there will be much interest and effort in years to come, especially for those convicted of minor offenses.

Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, controversial if not discredited hippies who have ridden to fame and profit on their militant antics in recent years, are reportedly writing a book about the Miami conventions. They have, however, failed to make much of an impression on the political parties this year.

Rubin might have made a major impression with a recent statement to the Miami

Herald. He reportedly told a newsman if George McGovern is elected President he would drop charges against The Chicago Seven. He faces five years in jail if convicted of the charges against him, he said, so naturally he is for McGovern.

A few more endorsements like this and McGovern's campaign will have suffered the final kiss of death.

Firemen Fight Suggestion For 42-Hour Work Week

By Elaine Auerbach
One Year Ago

Vincent T. Strumulo, director of public affairs, warned that there could be Genoa salami on store shelves in town that was contaminated with sublethal organisms that could cause food poisoning. The Commissioner urged that retail outlets and restaurants having on hand any packages of both sliced and unsliced salami packed by Armour or Hormel cease the sale and use of the products and contact the Health Department to determine the proper disposition of the products.

Allen Crisp, town historian, was named a member of the Essex County American Revolution Bicentennial Committee. The announcement was made by Wyona Lipman, director of the Essex County Board of Education. Crisp, along with 17 other Essex County citizens, was to be responsible for co-ordinating municipal and county-wide celebrations commemorating the 200th year of America's nationhood.

A full investigation into Belleville's official census figure was underway, according to Mayor Joseph McGreevy, who had returned from a trip to Washington, D.C. to dispute the Bureau's finding. McGreevy had traveled with Town Attorney John Scott and Mrs. Gerald Ferrara and had met with the district manager of the Census Bureau for more than an hour and a half. Upon hearing Belleville's case, the Bureau decided that the census figure was a mistake.

Ten Years Ago

A move by Mayor Robert Laterza to implement a 42-hour work week for firemen without adding any more personnel to the department met with opposition at a Council meeting. The Mayor withdrew a resolution he had proposed recommending to William Sommers, the town manager, that he order a rescheduling of the Fire Department after Chief Carl Hundertpfund asked that the matter be given further study. Chief Hundertpfund commented that the efficiency of the department would be seriously impaired if additional men were not hired.

A police report read at a meeting of the Town Council revealed that Councilman James Golden had used town facilities for the preparation of campaign literature. The report was issued by Police Chief McGinnis to Acting Town Manager Francis McCoy. McGinnis's statement was read into the record at the meeting by Councilman G. George Addonizio at the request of Councilman Vincent T. Strumulo.

Belleville Post 105, American Legion, was to install its officers at the Post Home. Those to be named were: John Kay, Commander; Meredith Marx, 1st vice-commander; Dominic Turano, 2nd vice-commander; Donald Williams, 3rd vice-commander; Walter Weiss, finance officer; Jack Throckmorton, chaplain; Peter Johnson, ritual officer; Ruth Miller, historian; George Mitchell, adjutant; Richard Shannon, service officer; and Edward Stanibinski, sergeant-at-arms.

Fifteen Years Ago

The Board of Education officially accepted the resignation of Carl F. Hensinger as vice-principal of Belleville High School. The decision was announced by board member George Brown. Hensinger had sent his letter to the board the day after he had been appointed principal at Moorestown High School in southern New Jersey. Local board members deemed the action a complete surprise. Several board members commented that Hensinger's abrupt action showed a lack of consideration.

A prankster sent police racing to two barber shops with telephone calls reporting "bombs" about to explode. Detective Michael Marotti and Patrolman Dave Martin first sped to Pantalone's Barber Shop and then to Mickey's Barber Shop. Searches of both revealed that no bombs had been placed in either of the two locations.

A contract was awarded for the resurfacing of School Two and Seven playgrounds and construction of a retaining wall in the School Seven playground by the Board of Education to J. Turco Paving Contractors for $19,712. The board also awarded contracts totaling $5,769 to various concerns for school and medical supplies for the coming year.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Due to damage wrought in the churches while their programs were under way, the Belleville Protestant Youth Canteen announced that all sessions would be cancelled. During a meeting in the middle of the week, major and minor incidents were discovered at Wesley Methodist Church, where the canteen had been held. Paul McDonnell, chairman of the Youth Council, had investigated other places where the canteen had been held and had discovered that similar damages had been perpetrated.

Three teacher appointments were announced by Herbert Schnitz, chairman of the teacher's committee. Assigned to teach in the high school were Miss M. Dorothy Maffeo, Charles Otis Brown and Seymour Grossman. Miss Maffeo was to teach social studies, Mr. Brown, dramatics, and Mr. Grossman, English.

An ordinance was passed on first reading by the Board of Commissioners adopting the schedules set up by the Civil Service Commission governing town employees. Civil Service had been adopted by the Town of Belleville at the general election in 1945. A complete list of the town employees with their salary schedules and duties for their separate positions was on file with the Town Clerk, Mrs. Florence Morey.

Forty Years Ago

Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons was suspended and Everett B. Smith, young Belleville lawyer and assistant to Town Attorney John Brown, was appointed acting recorder by Commissioner William Clark, public safety director, following disclosures of certain irregularities in the recorder's court accounts. Fitzsimmons was charged with failing to transfer fines collected since the first of the year to the county treasurer, Richard Booth. Booth stated that the fines had been paid and regretted that so much publicity had surrounded the recorder's laxity in recording the account.

Fifty Years Ago

An ordinance creating a paid fire department was passed by the Board of Commissioners.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mumford and children Bertha and Harvey Jr. of Oak Street, and Mrs. Mumford's mother and sister, Mrs. R.C. Ryerson and Mrs. F.R. Smith, left for an auto trip through the Berkshires.

sending them on false errands to the homes of people who haven't solicited such service. Should any business group receive any suspicious calls suggesting my request for their services, kindly call my home phone number to confirm same.

These nit-wits who "pull" these tricks are so stupid that they little realize the comparative ease with which they may be detected by either the police or the telephone Co. through the utilization of modern electronic devices.

Belleville has enough troubles of a mature nature. There is little room for such childish kid-stuff.

Mr. Valero, owner of the Soho Cleaners & Tailors on Harrison Street in Belleville, while a Bloomfield resident, has a keen personal interest in Belleville affairs, especially since a variance has been granted which permitted construction of a large apartment on Harrison St. bordering on the rear of his spacious and well tended back yard.

Since the erection of the apartment, Mr. Valero contends the elevation of the apartment property has been raised considerably, by fill, which permits the final paving of cascades of drainage water from the apartment parking area into his yard. He estimates he sustained over $500 of water damage because of this condition during the Agnes deluge. He is demanding relief and insists it is the responsibility of Belleville officials to see to it that the apartment owners correct the problem, since the variance granted by the commissioners stated the variance would not be substantial detriment to the public good. He firmly insists it is not good for him.

Observations personally made by this writer indicates that high dry walls are being prepared on the apartment property for later use, presumably with the final paving of cascades of drainage water. It is hoped the apartment owners will prove good neighbors by properly grading and draining their property so that this touchy controversy may be resolved amicably, especially in view of the fact that, originally, the Valeros raised no objection to the requested variance tho they might have done so.

Many years ago while imbibing a few brews at the V.F.W. Post in the Valley, I learned a new word from Walt Finch who was then on the way up the ladder of becoming one of the top barbers of this area. An exclaim he now holds. The word was "SERENDIPITY." I remembered the pronunciation and the meaning which is to come upon by chance, to find something significant while searching for something else. The spelling, I forgot it. I did, but I wanted to use it in this column so my delight from Mr. Finch, himself, and the local library I am permitted to spell it correctly. Thus, a million.

The reason for wanting to use the word is because while checking out some questions concerning the new homes being built on Jerome Court, a continuation of Cottage Place, I made an inspection of the area and in the rear of one of the partially erected homes, behind the links fence, under a clump of trees lay about 50 benches, of the type Mr. Taylor, Executive Director of the Essex County Park Comm., is making such a fuss about; Clumming Mrs. Senatore, Belleville Public Works Director "appropriated" them. I appropriate is defined... to take to one's self, in exclusion of others; claim or use, as by an exclusive right; set apart or assign to a particular right; set apart or assign to a particular use or purpose.

Well! not wanting to get involved in the legal aspects of the dispute, I'm not disposed to say who is right, however, I'm sure the benches on the avenue are serving a much better purpose for the people than letting them rot away under some trees that shield them from view. The County apparently is making a mountain out of a molehill. This story was real serendipity eh?

About the other part of the inspection, the Jerome Court home, my interest whetted by the clamoring protests of residents in the area and the salient fact that the Planning Board of the Town of Belleville had recommended that only seven homes be permitted on the plot, with the town engineer in agreement.

Then Lo and behold on Aug. 24, 1971, the town commissioners passed a resolution, over the strong protests of Comm. Senatore and the objecting residents, which in substance amended the town map and authorized the erection of nine homes.

Measuring the yard areas of some of the planned homes from their standing foundations we find 17 foot back yards and only 19 feet between foundations, hardly enough room to plan a good barbecue. For a swimming pool forget it.

Why anyone would purchase property with such limited land area is difficult to understand. What is even more puzzling is why our town fathers, except Comm. Senatore, vote for such a poorly conceived and compressed development over the more practical Planning Board proposal of seven new homes only. But then Belleville is not unknown for puzzling deeds by its politicians.

The above mentioned granting by the Commission majority of the right to erect nine homes provoked John Hudson, one of the more conversant of the Planning Board members to comment, in a brusque outburst, "We might as well abolish the Planning Board, with such flagrant disregard of our recommendations by the Commissioners, we are wasting our time and the taxpayer's money!" Hudson indignantly went on to advise this correspondent that the town pays a planning consultant $2,400 a year and a secretary and Clerk both $50 a meeting. There are ten meetings per year, none during July and August. I wonder why we should have both a clerk and a secretary both. The volume of work isn't that heavy and most organizations have only a secretary. It would appear Hudson's right. Who wants to serve without pay, on a board that dedicates itself to bettering the town, only to have the majority of the Commissioners ignore their recommendations?

moved out of their Alexander Avenue, Nutley home for their country place in Sussex County. They were wonderful neighbors and it's always a sad event when nice people move out.

MITCH MOSIOR, our Brookdale Avenue neighbor, was telling me the other day that he remembers the day in the not too distant past when Nutley's former Mayor, Public Affairs Director Harry Chenoweth, and former Nutley School Board President, Ed Lenihan, as youngsters, had a joint venture going—they were pigeon racing enthusiasts and maintained their own "stable" of pigeons.

Mitch is quite a pigeon fancier and is one of New Jersey's leading pigeon racers. Not only is Mitch proud of his pigeons but he is equally proud of his little patch of garden which contains eggplants as big as a honeydew melon, tomatoes, string beans, cucumbers, romaine lettuce, peppers—you name it and he has it. One wonders what Mitch would do if he had a few acres available.

WNBC, CHANNEL 4, is a not so subtle propaganda outlet for the anti-Vietnam, anti-Nixon position. Some of their newscasts are downright sickening. Sunday's Channel 7 "Issues and Answers" appeared to be a pure McGovern operation. Fortunately the New York Yankees were playing a double-header and I was able to switch from Channel 7 to Channel 11.

'It's Convenient,' Say Late Shoppers About Threatened All-Night Pathmark

COMMISSIONERS REACT Reaction from the Belleville Board of Commissioners was swift and forceful. Public Safety Commissioner Robert Laterza immediately moved from an opposition to limit Pathmarks hours, saying the store, if allowed to remain open all night, would constitute a public hazard. He was primarily worried that other stores would follow suit.

"There are a number of other places in Belleville that would become involved in 24-hour openings," he said, "and in order to do the police work

the way we have it set up, we'd have to put on extra patrol cars. There may be a problem with people hanging out in nearby areas around these stores. Of course, there's no way to tell if they would be undesirable, but there would have to be more police.

"I'm not saying that it's just Pathmark, but if we were to allow 24-hour openings, Belleville would be in danger of losing its suburban atmosphere."
Other commissioners addressed themselves right to the issue of consumer habits.
"The Pathmark policy is ridiculous," said Belleville Mayor Joseph McGreevy, when Laterza first suggested the ordinance. "Who goes shopping at three or four in the morning?"

Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent Strumolo agreed. "When the good Lord created the earth," said Strumolo, "He gave us 24 hours, and I believe eight of them were meant for sleeping."
It appeared that little has occurred since Laterza introduced his ordinance to alter the five commissioners' united front against the Pathmark policy. The ordinance comes up for a vote Tuesday night, and Commissioners' objections still range from a concern that added police protection will be needed to a fear that small businessmen in the area will be adversely affected.

Pathmark officials have argued vigorously against all points raised by the commissioners, but as yet, little has been heard from the copsumers who find their way to the Belmont Avenue store in the wee hours of the morning.

Last week a reporter was sent to the store at 1 a.m. to observe the early-morning Pathmark operation.
"WAS ALWAYS OPEN"
Though the establishment could not exactly be called "bustling," there were about 20 customers weaving their way through the boxes and crates in the aisles. Pathmark has always been open all night, as workers use the time to stock the shelves for the next day's business. The new policy actually meant only opening the doors and providing a couple new cashiers to serve the customers.

"Up until 1:30 in the morning, it can get pretty bustling," said a manager at Ed Newfield, "but we only had to move two girls to night work to handle the flow."
He was asked about the nature of the customers that come in at 1 a.m. "They shop for almost everything," he said, "and that can run all the way up to full food orders plus beach chairs."
Mrs. June Reiberger, a Pathmark employee, agreed with Newfield. "What amazes me is that I work until two in the morning and I still see people coming in and buying big orders - not just a loaf of bread, but full orders."

Several customers in the store at the time were obviously this serious type of early-morning shopper. Two women wheeled lawn carts into the check-out counter and were asked how they had come to do so much shopping at 1 a.m.

"It's much more convenient at night," answered
Mrs. Patricia Marks of 266
Belmont Avenue in Belleville.
"You can shop without the kids running around, because they're home in bed."
"It was a heaven when they opened this store at night," said her friend, Mrs. Lucille Stiscia, who lives at the same address. Asked why she wasn't afraid to go out shopping late at night, Mrs. Stiscia answered, "There's no danger
if you come with someone.
You can park your car close to the store and there's a cop here if anybody needs him."

The Pathmark chain has hired an off-duty patrolman from the Belleville force to guard the store throughout the night. The policeman, who alternates his shift with other officers as asked if any trouble had ever come up. "Not that I know of," he said, "I didn't have any problems. Only one door is left open and I can keep an eye on whoever goes in or comes out."

LATE WORKERS
Time and again, customers who are asked about the all-night opening described it as "convenient." Many of them were working people who had just finished night shifts themselves.

"I love it," said Miss Elaire Grant of Newark. "I get off work at 12, and while

I'm up I might as well get my shopping done, so I don't have to get up and do it in the morning."

When she was told that the Board of Commissioners was considering action to shut Pathmark down at night, Miss Grant said she
"wouldn't go for it."
Her co-worker, Miss Lucie Haskell, agreed. "I couldn't shop anymore if they did that.
These are really the only hours I can shop."

Mrs. Juliet Douglas of Newark did not have the same scheduling problems. "I work late, but I can get out during the day to shop if I want to."
She, like the others, felt the hours were simply "more convenient."

Mr. Alfred Douglas, who had accompanied her on the shopping expedition, said,
"It's nice at this time because you don't have to rush yourself. There's no crowds here now."

Looking around though, Mrs. Douglas noted "there are quite a few people in here for this hour."
Michael De Joseph, a teenager who lives nearby at 160 Belmont Avenue, found himself at the store after a minor emergency. "I just came home from the shore and there's nothing to eat in the house. My mother's coming here right after me." His comment on the Commissioners' intentions to limit Pathmark's hours was a terse
"No good."

Eric Morrison of Nutley pointed towards a cart that was nearly three-quarters full with food, detergents, kitchenware and a couple of magazines. "My wife sent me here to pick up some milk and cigarettes," he said, "and look what I wound up with.
Maybe I'm a compulsive buyer, but these are all things that we need. I figure I ought to get it done now, so my wife won't have to fight the crowds
tomorrow."

EMPLOYEES POLED
A number of Pathmark workers had their views on the policy and the Commissioners' opposition to it.
The employees work in staggered shifts throughout the night, but all of them agreed that customer service all night was not a real hardship, but these are all things that we need. I figure I ought to get it done now, so my wife won't have to fight the crowds
tomorrow."

"The day shift is a lot harder, because it's a lot more

It was a coincidence that Essex County Fair Coming August 25, 26

If the idea of a country fair brings thoughts to your mind of a time long ago - keep reading. We have a fair right here in Essex County each year. Things to see, games, pet show - all these are a part of the 31st annual Essex County 4-H Fair.

The fair will be held on August 25 and 26 on the grounds of Caldwell College, just off Bloomfield Avenue in Caldwell. 4-H members from all over the county will be exhibiting things they have made during the year. These will include art and crafts, woodworking, electricity, clothing, food and gardening exhibits. Some animals will also be shown.

The activities will include a pet show open to all children, a horse show, dog show, 4-H Dress Revue and 4-H Queen and Princess Contests.

A milk drinking contest is always one of the lively events. Children work in teams to see who can drink the fastest out of a baby bottle. It's a photographers field day.

A snack tent will be available for those who feel a hunger pang or two while they visit the fair.

Watch next weeks paper for a listing of times of events. See you at the fair!

The 4-H program is jointly sponsored by the United States Department of Agriculture, Rutgers - The State University, and the Essex County Board of Chosen Freeholders and is under the direction of John A. Hassert, County 4-H Agent. The office is located at 900 Bloomfield Avenue, Verona, N.J. 07044.

Welcome back to Adeline and George Mitchell who returned from a vacation trip visiting George's sister, Mrs. Maurice McCoy of Bennington, Vermont. The couple also toured Connecticut, Massachusetts and were most impressed at seeing the Revolutionary War Bennington Battle Monument.

John Mitchell, Adeline and George's son, will be tying the knot with Diane Provenelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Provenelli of New York on September 16th. The wedding will be held at St. Peter's followed by a reception at Bepi's.

Happy to say Adeline Mitchell's dad is coming along nicely, after his accident, and will soon be home.

Talk about globetrotters! Mr. and Mrs. Jack Throckmorton, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. William McCoy had an exciting trip to Europe, Germany, Switzerland, Holland and Italy, spending three days in each country. Mr. McCoy is the originator of a Boys Club held in the Second Baptist Church; you'll be hearing more about his efforts soon.

Carol Nendze, Anne Spera and Cathy Swinarski - all of Sabre Cadet fame-told me the Kitchen Bingo held at American Legion Post 105 to raise funds was a success. Mary Noller and Doris Helwig were among those attending and they said it was really fun.

I'm telling you early enough, so you can all send a card. Happy Birthday to Sis Wellen, September 4th. She and hubby, Ray, also celebrate their wedding anniversary on that date. (I forgot to put Ray's birthday in the column, it was July 1-ok, Ray)

Best wishes to Jerry DeAngelo. He is the proud owner of "Yesterday" - a restaurant bar and popular meeting place for many Belleville residents. The restaurant was the former "Bunny's" and is located at 70 Main Avenue, next to Bradles. The kitchen is open from 11 a.m. to 2 a.m., but is closed until September on Mondays. Congenial bartenders are Mark Hanlon and Jim Clancy. It's easy to see where the name "Yesterday" came about - the furnishings are items of yesterday.

day which brings back memories... lotsa luck Jerry. August 11th was the birthday of Lloyd G. Pridmore. Lloyd is a friendly guy, a salesman at Learnard Chevrolet, so if you're in the market for a car, stop by or call him... and if you don't buy a car, at least wish him a happy birthday.

A go away party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Mancino who are moving to Florida. At the event were Mr. and Mrs. George Doefinger, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Helfrich and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Floether. So long, Mancinos - but don't forget to subscribe to the Times to keep up with Belleville news, we mail every week.

William S. Fisher (Adelaide) returned from a week in Amherst Pa., visiting her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bendin. While there she took a side trip to see Valley Forge, and the flooded areas of Wilkes Barre. Adelaide says the damage caused by the flood "has to be seen to be believed." It was really terrible.

Another bachelor bit the dust! George Killian, son of Florence and Lou DeAngelis of Belleville became engaged to Donna DePerry of Newark. George is employed by the Belleville Public Works Department... much happiness.

The other night at American Legion Post 105 was watching Vin and Terry Kuffin dancing. I was particularly impressed with the fact that this couple has been married 26 years! (and still on stand each other. All kidding aside, I think that's nice... and... when was the last time YOU took your wife dancing?)

Hi-ho, the merry-o, a camping we will go! At least Pat Kiernan, wife Barbara and children Jacqueline and Ricky did. Had a glorious trip to Virginia Beach, stopped at the Poconos and other points of interest, using their camper. Happy Birthday to Connie Bogert who is a ninth grader at the Jr. High, and the daughter of Alison and Charles.

You And Your Pet Getting Medicine Into Rover

By Raymond Minor, D.V.M.

Your veterinarian has just prescribed medicine for your dog, and you remember the trouble your neighbor had last winter trying to force a remedy down his pet's throat.

Your neighbor told you that he nearly strangled his dog in an effort to get the liquid medicine down.

Stop worrying. Administering medicine - whether a liquid, pill, tablet or capsule - is simple if you have patience and try a few tricks first.

If your dog is well enough to eat, you can conceal pills or tablets in his food or mix small pieces of meat. He'll gobble it up along with his meal.

Or you might offer him a piece of chopped meat as a treat, with the tablet hidden inside the meat.

I recall a pet owner who had a sucker for a tablet buried in a big juicy hamburger.

Sometimes this works better if the pill or tablet is crushed first, or the capsules opened and the powder spread through the meat or whatever the treat is.

With liquid medicine, try mixing the liquid with his food, water, or try the trickiest route.

Now, if Rover wises up soon, or the deception doesn't work, or you just don't have the time for this type of coaxing, then you will just have to force him to take his medicine.

To administer a pill, tablet or capsule, place your hand over his muzzle the projecting jaws and nose) with your thumb on a jaw hinge and your forefinger on the other, and apply pressure.

Don't worry - he'll open up. Force his muzzle up, caressing the mouth to spread wide. Then push the pill or tablet as far back into his throat as possible.

Some veterinarians suggest that the pill, tablet or capsule be lubricated lightly with oil butter to help it slide down the animal's throat quickly.

Now quickly close his mouth and hold his jaws firmly together for a few seconds while lightly stroking his throat in a downward motion, and talking gently to him until he has swallowed two or three times.

If he refuses to swallow, rub the end of his nose with the palm of your hand. This should do it.

Watch your dog to be sure that the pill is actually swallowed.

In the case of bitter drugs, Stephens Street Carnival Set For August 19

A neighborhood carnival against dystrophy will be held on Saturday afternoon, August 19 at 349 Stephens Street. Philip Lazaro Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lazaro Sr. will serve as ringmaster assisted by Jacqueline and Eddie Lazaro and John Farnia.

The carnival, which begins at 1 p.m., will feature such games as ring toss, frisbee, horse shoes, balloon dart game, milk bottle drop, penny pitch and many others. And all proceeds will go to aid the fight against dystrophy and related diseases afflicting millions.

'Project FIND' Can Aid Elderly In Belleville

Essex Chapter, American Red Cross will join in a nationwide search beginning next week to locate an estimated two and a half million persons in the United States who are over 60 years of age and may be suffering from hunger and malnutrition because they are not aware that they are eligible for the federal government's food assistance program.

Through project "FIND", Essex Chapter will attempt to locate among Essex County's estimated 90,000 senior citizens, those who are eligible for food stamps but have not yet applied for them.

Under the supervision of a chapter project coordinator and a volunteer chairman, teams consisting of Red Cross volunteers and a team leader will contact these senior citizens in the Essex Chapter area by phone or personal visit to advise them of their eligibility and assist them in applying for the food program.

St. John's University School Has New Name

St. John's University has changed the name of its College of General Studies to St. Vincent's College.

The name change was announced recently by the College's Dean, George W. Maxey.

St. Vincent's College grants baccalaureate as well as associate degrees and offers degree programs in such fields as computer science, communication arts.

U.S. Department of the Treasury will have mailed monthly Social Security checks to 27 million Old Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance beneficiaries throughout the country included in those checks envelopes will be the project "FIND" message and clear instructions on how to apply for food assistance. A follow-up card will be enclosed which is to be returned by the individual when difficulty is encountered in making contact with the certifying office, for food assistance in the local area. These cards will be pre-addressed for return to a special project "FIND" box in Baltimore, Md. There they will be separated by zip code and distributed to Red Cross chapters in the appropriate areas.

Project "FIND" stemmed from the White House Conference on Aging held last year which brought into focus many problems of the aging, one of which was poor nutrition. At the request of the White House, the American Red Cross agreed to assist in the government's self-help program to find these people and help them.

Meet Sharon Miller, Dollar Stretcher:

She helps make sure you can continue your coverage when you change jobs or move out of the area.

Sharon is a Group Deletions Clerk in our Accounts Processing Department. When a group subscriber changes employment or moves out of New Jersey, Sharon feeds this data into our computers. This triggers a series of events which enable the subscriber to continue coverage on a direct-pay basis or transfer to other Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans.

Sharon is one of our very efficient dollar stretchers. Through the use of sophisticated electronic equipment she is now able to perform her important work in one-third of the time previously required. This means faster service to our members. And considerable savings in time and administrative expenses.

Thanks to people like Sharon and our other dollar stretchers, the operating expenses for New Jersey Blue Cross and Blue Shield are only a few pennies of each membership dollar. About one-third the operating expenses of commercial health insurance companies.

Sharon Miller. It's your dollar she's stretching. She's another of the many reasons New Jersey Blue Cross and Blue Shield deliver more health care for your health-care dollar.

Lorraine also told me she has some gerbils for sale... 75¢, call her at 751-3089.
On a more serious thought, Lorraine wants me to alert you that the PTA of School no. 7 sent a group of women to Montclair Research to obtain funds for the schoolchildren, i.e., books, etc. This is done three times a year, and more parents are needed to work for the PTA, so do your bit.

The Kiwanis Club of Branch Brook Belleville has some birthday boys:

Hats off to Harry Magione - Adult Services Librarian for the creation of the new and smart magazine "Focus". It has oodles of ideas in it but the first issue also has a cute article on Liberation of the Sexes, male vs. female. To add your name to the mailing list, just call or drop by the Library.

I took it from the horse's mouth (not saying which husband) and the two couples with us - Lou and Florence DeAngelis, Betty and George Doeffinger. "It's great!" I'm referring to DiMaggio's Restaurant-Cocktail Lounge at 208 Main Ave. Wallington. Owner Jake and his wife run a real nice place so dew drop inn.

Any of you remember Bill Durkin? Bill was a 1965 graduate of Nutley High, 1970 graduate of the University of Illinois. He is the Manager of the Coffee Shop at Boston Medical Center and plans a jaunt to Europe in the fall. Fun to see what your classmates are doing, isn't it?

Hello again to Armand Russo of The Kiwanis Club of Belleville and Bernie O'Connor of The Kiwanis Club of Branch Brook Belleville... both men happened to stop at the car wash held each Saturday at American Legion Post 105 as part of my Summer Employment Program. P.S. fall is coming, need your pool cleaned? We have a specialist, a teen.

Welcome back to Pat and Joe Wynn. The brothers vacationed in Quantico, Virginia, where they visited Pat's son - Pat, Jr. Pat, Jr. attends OCS and will be commissioned a Second Lt. on August 28, then He'll have a two week furlough before returning for nine months of additional training. Pat, Jr. tells me they had a very pleasant time with beautiful weather.

The Belleville Reformed Church held a block party with square dancing for the kids (wonder if they thought it was "square" to square). Katherine and Louise Mingle were in charge of the event.

Thanks ever so much for your many letters and good wishes on my job with the TIMES - for those of you who ask where I find time to do all I do, it's easy! Inevitably (or couldn't you tell from my pic - with the circles under my eyes). Remember, to Hire a Teen - call 759-7254... 759-3404... 759-2372.

Sorry to tell you Elizabeth DeGroot, a former Belleville resident and member of the Woman's Club of Belleville, passed away on August 2nd. She was the wife of Dr. John and mother of John, Vincent and Robert. My sympathies to the family.

find her working on Unit 299, American Legion Auxiliary affairs and, on September 16th, she will be installed as their president. Betty also spent every available moment at the weekly car wash.

I. ISA DOEFFINGER

Betty and George's 22-year old daughter who attends Jersey City State, is studying to be a teacher and volunteers her time in the Girl Scouts and St. Peter's Church activities. Lisa juggled her Saturdays between St. Peter's summer CCD program and our car wash, often supplying the kids with cola and driving them home.

MISS MARGARET MACMILLAN - better known as "Daisy" to her friends. A white-haired lady with tremendous energy and many interests. Miss Macmillan told me she really enjoyed being able to help the kids. She is the Social Service Chairman of The Woman's Club of Belleville.

MRS. CONNIE

LENEHAN - and her husband, Bill, are very active in American Legion Post 105 affairs. In fact, both will be installed as officers this Saturday night. Connie is employed at Clara Maes Memorial Hospital and yet she found time to spend many evenings interviewing the teens.

MRS. TONI FAZZARI - a young mother of two active youngsters. Toni not only interviewed the kids, but she single-handedly types up the complete card file for read-reference when adults called, wishing to hire a teen. Her husband, Vic of Vic's Cigto also helped the program, more on him in a later issue.

Duffy Dyer Day At De Witt Draws Scores Of Residents

DeWitt's 30th Anniversary Birthday Party was a big day for Belleville's baseball buffs. By conservative estimate 1,500 kids of all ages met the popular catcher of the New York Mets, Duffy Dyer, at DeWitt Savings according to Robert M. Williams, president of the Association.

The affair, which started at 11 a.m. saw the hard-hitting ball player autographing everything available to his fans. Baseballs, photographs, mitts, even footballs, basketballs, and tennis balls were brought in for the Met star to sign. By early afternoon 1,000 photographs had been autographed by Dyer, completely exhausting what was considered in advance to be enough to last the entire day.

Twelve hundred cupcakes, an equal number of bottles of soda, and untold packages of bubble gum were also demolished early in the day by the enthusiastic young baseball addicts, some of whom waited in line several hours to get a chance to see the colorful Met backdrop in person and take home a treasured autograph.

First in line was young Bill Cook of 200 Mill Street, Apt. B-1 who got there early in the morning and was practically stamped through DeWitt's door by the crush of the crowd member of the Red Cross Northern New Jersey Combined Service Territory organization, estimates that it will need three teams of volunteers to handle the return cards from qualified residents of its area which includes Belleville, Bloomfield, Greater Newark, the Oranges, and Maplewood and West Essex.

A project coordinator and volunteer chairman for the chapter will be appointed within a few days and training of volunteers will begin in mid August.

"Project FIND is not only aimed at relieving the problem of malnutrition among our senior citizens," states Mrs. Reid, "but is intended to show them that an arm of American society cares about their circumstances and will help them."

NATURE'S WAY

Water, water everywhere but is it safe to drink? Although Nutley's water is filtered, we installed a filter in our house. You'd be amazed at the glp it traps. What about...? We don't filter their water? It's no wonder many people now use bottled spring water for drinking, coffee & cooking.

Olympic coach Bob Hoffman has written an informative book on water covering Hard, Soft, Mineral Water, how it is used by the body and a look at water pollution. While supply lasts we will give this 152 page book to you FREE.

Sparkling Personalities

Meet Our Allan Crisp, History Is His Forte

There's no spot so dear to the heart of "Uncle" Allan, as the Town of Belleville itself. His very impressive credits are headed by the position of Town Historian.

Other activities include: chairman of the Citizens School Building Advisory, membership in the Belleville Foundation and the Civil War Roundtable. In 1958 he served as chairman of Belleville's first United Fund Drive.

His efforts were noted when he received a Distinguished Service Award from the Belleville Education Association in 1964 — "in recognition of a sustaining interest in, and contribution to, public education."

Allan Crisp walks softly, yet carries a big stick. He has accomplished much by working quietly yet consistently behind the scenes. Busy as he is, his interest knows no bounds and he always has time for a smile and helping hand to those who need it. Known fondly to the town's children as "Uncle Allan," he is revered and respected by young and old alike.

For many years he worked with the children of Wesley United Methodist Church where he is a Lay Leader and Church Historian. Crisp is often called upon to be a speaker at meetings where his quips and jokes are usually memorized to be repeated later. He is one of those rarities in town — working for Belleville, yet not running

Organization Doings The Lions Club

By Pat Diana

In three more years, members of the Belleville Lions Club will be celebrating their 50th anniversary. The club was founded in 1925 and is a non-political, non sectarian service organization. Membership is by invitation, there are no particular qualifications other than an adult male. Members also belong to a District, National and the International Association of Lions of which there are 25,300 clubs with 961,000 members as of June 30, 1971.

The LIONS slogan: L — Liberty, I — Intelligence, O — Our, N — Nation's, S — Safety which, of course, spells "Lions". The purpose of a Lions Club is more than good fellowship and social life, it is to recognize community needs and develop means of meeting them, either through the club's effort or in cooperation with other agencies.

The Belleville Lions are active in: Little League Baseball, Recreation Department Football, Clara Maass Memorial Hospital Nursing Scholarship and upcoming plans are underway for an eyescreening program for pre-school children. In the past, the Belleville Lions in cooperation with the Rotary Club, sponsored Camp Ro-Li. They also assist the Red Cross, American Cancer Society and Boy Scouts by periodical donations. Eyeglasses for needy people (primarily school children) and supporting sight saving activities are the major projects of the Club. They hold an annual fund raising event, either a card party or theatre party.

Officers are: Lester Demler, President; Ed Howell, Robert Williams and Jack Crowley — Vice Presidents; Nat Feronie, Recording Secretary, Harry Breckenridge, Treasurer. Rene Morel is the Lion Tamer and Walter Bennett the Tail Twister. Directors are: Gene Chappetta, William Irvine and Harry Ziegler. The club also has an Auxiliary, and we'll be doing a story on them shortly.

Be a do-er... Join a Service Club. To have your organization highlighted, contact Pat Diana.

Dale Carnegie Course About To Start

The Dale Carnegie Institute will offer a course to Nutley and Belleville businessmen under the sponsorship of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce beginning in mid-September. Details of the offering were outlined at a joint session of the Nutley and Belleville Rotary Clubs earlier this month.

The first public demonstration meeting was held Tuesday night and a second is scheduled for next Tuesday at 7:37 p.m. in the auditorium at Clara Maass Hospital. There is no charge for the demonstration sessions.

John Snyder of Dale Carnegie, who made the Rotary presentation, notes the 14-week course will be held Wednesday evenings from 7 to 11, at Clara Maass. Public speaking, self-confidence, memory skills, personality development and personal relations are among the topics to be covered. Persons unable to attend any of the weekly meetings at Clara Maass will be able to make up those classes at other

IT COULD BE YOU — John Snyder (center) of the Dale Carnegie Institute addresses Nutley and Belleville Rotarians to report on a 14-week course beginning next month at Clara Maass Hospital. locations in the North Jersey area.

Dale Carnegie already has graduated more than 1.5 million students, the vast number of whom are businessmen. "The figures indicate that 85 per cent of business success can be attributed to good personal relations," Snyder told the Rotarians.

Harry T. French, executive director of the Belleville

Chamber of Commerce, is assisting with registration for the Dale Carnegie Course. He can be reached by calling 759-4848.

Nutley Man Stabbed On Pake St. Sunday

Nutley police are investigating the stabbing of a Pake Street resident found Sunday night at the corner Passaic Avenue and Milton Avenue.

Police said Albert Jaeger, 38, of 170 Pake Street was found by Patrolmen Salvatore Lubertazzi and George Quigg after headquarters received an anonymous call from the Old Canal Inn on Passaic Avenue. Jaeger had received a superficial wound on his back near the right shoulderblade.

The First Aid Squad took Jaeger to Clara Maass Hospital where five stitches were used to close the wound. Detective Edward Guetino was assigned to investigate the case.
