BEHIND THE CAMERA and in his familiar pose is Neil Horne, sole producer, director and cameraman in tomorrow night's "Old Belleville" film festival epic at Belleville High School.

The man behind the camera, and the projector, tomorrow night when the Belleville Historical Society sponsors the showing of a full-length movie made in Town over 30 years ago is Neil P. Horne, a home film buff who is both owner and maker of the Belleville flick.

Raised and schooled in Belleville, Horne now resides in West Caldwell with his wife, the former Eleanor Hagemann. But over the years he has kept in close contact with friends here and still considers Belleville his "Home Town." In fact, his great love of the Town is what prompted him to film a full-length movie here. The feat, accomplished in February, March and April of 1934, takes about three hours of viewing time, and that's after considerable editing.

Still, the film is of a high quality and is invaluable to a history-oriented residents here.

Although many Belleville residents know Horne through his efforts on the Belleville film, the amateur film maker is better known throughout the area for his film library of famous people. The former Bellevilleite boasts a vault of over 1,500 film shorts taken over a 42-year span with personalities ranging from millionaire recluse Howard Hughes to ex-heavyweight champ Joe Louis. Actually, the list of famous persons filmed by Horne is almost endless and runs a complete course, from Hollywood stars, to top sports figures, to well-known

2 Captains, Another Deputy

Police Force Will Get 3 Executive Officers

A Robert Laterza sponsored ordinance creating three more police executives cleared a public hearing without much discussion and then was unanimously adopted by Town Fathers Tuesday night.

The measure would increase the number of deputy chiefs from two to three and add two more police captains, bringing that total to five. According to Commissioner Laterza, director of Public Safety, the adding of more executive officers, when completed, would cost the Town about an additional $26,000. Laterza said that eventually two or three new patrolmen would have to be added to the force.

While Laterza was painting a picture of the "need for increased protection in Town," two residents attending the public hearing spoke against the measure. Both citizens saw the proposal as unnecessary at this time and felt that the creation of the new positions would add nothing constructive to the force, but only increase the taxpayers' burden.

"We may wind up with too many chiefs and not enough indians," said

Joseph Granes, a Silver Lake resident. Granes told the Board that he took his own private survey of executive officers in neighboring Nutley and the results showed that in Nutley there are less "brass" than in Belleville, yet the population and police force of both Towns remain about the same.

Granes explained that Nutley, with a population of about 35,000, had one police chief, one deputy chief, four captains and five sergeants.

"I'm not saying that we don't need the protection in Town but why must these officers be brass."

Recheck Traffic Survey

Laterza's Parking Bill Tabled for More Study

Belleville Commissioners Tuesday night voted 4-1 to table a Robert Laterza sponsored parking ordinance for further study despite the objections of the Public Safety director.

The areas of controversy arose when residents of Cedar Hill Avenue and Mt. Prospect Avenue complained that a proposal for alternate side of the street parking on those two thoroughfares may not be the solution to traffic problems there.

Cedar Hill Avenue residents attending the public hearing on the proposal complained to Laterza that the measure in its present form does not alleviate the dangerous traffic conditions that exist there. Those citizens were concerned that the measure failed to mention Sunday parking prohibitions. Sunday, they claimed, was the busiest time of the week when children were at home and at play.

Commissioner Laterza told residents that he based his ordinance on a traffic survey taken in the area and that the survey showed Sunday was not the busiest day of the week.

Commissioner Michael Marotti questioned the wisdom of the survey and added that Sunday was when most people were home so the safety factor involved should come more into play then.

Mrs. Mary Senatore, director of Public Works, asked that Laterza have the bill tabled until residents of the area could meet with the director of Public Safety to further discuss traffic and safety problems on Cedar Hill Avenue.

"I believe we should have the traffic survey rechecked. Most kids do their running around on Sunday," suggested Commissioner Vincent Strumolo.

All four Commissioners, including Mayor Joseph McGreevy, suggested that the measure be tabled until the survey could be rechecked and Laterza could meet with residents of the area in question.

Laterza though saying he would cooperate, had full faith in this survey and voted to pass the ordinance without change.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Those enterprising young lads who deliver the Star-Ledger mornings are "up-in-arms" over the senseless harassment BOTH their customers and they are being subjected to by the newspaper delivery drivers who are wrangling with the newspaper about their working conditions.

The young men who do such a dedicated job in trying to please their customers are not receiving their bundles of papers on time, if at all. Often the papers are left in remote locations the kids don't know about or they are "dumped" into wet gutters that leaves the papers undeliverable.

If the delivery drivers are in throes of a labor dispute, they shouldn't take it out on the kids who are the ultimate "buffer" that the irate customers "holler-at."

When we see fine young men like Richard Baker and Jimmy Coppola who live and deliver in the area of my home, show such enthusiasm for their work and the "going thing" of their trade, it pains them to make a patzize with their cause when they voice their resentment over the harsh treatment they're getting from the truck drivers.

The boys are threatening to go on STRIKE themselves if matters don't improve. Mr. Drexel, the District Area Manager of the boys confirms the complaints of the boys, whom he calls, "all good kids, trying to do a good job under bad conditions." He said the customers shouldn't blame the boys if they don't get delivery of their papers.

What with the State Legislature passing a new law to permit girls over 12 to also be permitted to be newspaper carriers those delivery truck drivers had better watch out or the Women's Lib movement may get on their back also. Good Luck kids. I hope you will win all your points.

That mysterious street eruption on Essex Street by the New Telephone Company Office Building that plagued the Public Works Department so much during the waning days of Summer had another spasmodic upheaval that left the boys in the department little to be thankful for during the turkey gobble season.

Check For $282 Received

First Monies Are Realized From Glass Reclamation Drive

The glass reclamation drive in Belleville the last several months showed a positive affect this week with the realization of a $282 check from an area firm. The money, profits from hauling tons of reclaimed glass to a Jersey City reclamation installation, was presented to the Shade Tree Committee by Mrs. Mary Senatore, Director of Public Works.

Mrs. Senatore and her Public Works employees have proved invaluable the past few months in both collecting and then storing the glass garnered by the Shade Tree Committee. Public Works employees too have carted the containers to Jersey City for reclamation on monthly trips. To provide a more central location and a more efficient operation the Shade Tree Committee this week has changed its collection dates from bi-monthly to monthly. This Saturday's collection has been cancelled. The next collection is January 23 at People's Bank on Washington Avenue. Shade Tree Committee members stressed that residents become aware that there will be only monthly collections and those will from now on be held at the People's Bank location.

"All totaled, the reclamation effort has netted over 17 tons of glass for which we will receive over $300," said Mrs. Senatore. "My Department will continue to cooperate with the effort but I urge residents to give more cooperation."

Mrs. Senatore announced that all interested businesses or residents with large amounts of glass to be collected may call 759-1356 to have that glass picked up. She said that all monies realized from the project will be funneled back to the Shade Tree Department for the beautification of the Town.

"I'm sure residents can cooperate more than they have been doing. In my home alone we fill two shopping bags full of glass per week. Imagine the funds we can gain if every resident saved their glass," added Commissioner Senatore.

The $282 check received by the Shade Tree Department will go into a special fund. It is expected that in the Spring those funds will be used for trees and shrubbery. This is the second check received from the glass reclamation project. The first check had a $68 amount but the project has been picking up in recent weeks.

History Society Presents Film Festival Tomorrow

Officials expect a record-breaking crowd tomorrow evening when the Belleville Historical Society presents the showing of a unique full-length film made about the Town in 1934.

The film festival, entitled "Old Belleville," is the work of one man, Neil Horne, a former Belleville resident who spent three months here in 1934 filming people and places in Town, has edited the more than three-hour flick. Horne spent countless hours and hundreds of feet of film creating the epic. He's now selling the production to the Historical Society at a minimum price to further finance his film hobby.

Tomorrow night's showing is to finance the purchasing of the film.

Tickets, although running in a higher than usual advance sale, will also be available at the door prior to the performance at a $1.00 charge. The festival will be shown in Belleville High School auditorium and the doors will open at 7:15 p.m. The BHS Band will entertain until curtain time at 8 p.m.

Allan Crisp, president of the Historical Society, is more than pleased with the interest shown by residents here.

"We are gratified by the terrific response of Belleville residents. We apologize to those citizens who were unable to purchase tickets at the outlets mentioned in last week's paper because they were sold out. We printed 600 tickets, which went like hot cakes. However, the high school auditorium holds 825, so there should be sufficient tickets on sale at the door for those who were unable to obtain them," Crisp stated.

away with airhammers in another effort to conquer this weird wrath that wracks Essex Street at that exact spot, without any fathomable explanation.

All the speculation and explorations of the last massive undertaking to completely correct the condition failed to provide the solution. It is a real puzzle.

I thought when I first read the public bid proposal for a new ambulance we were bidding on the usually accepted custom styled vehicle that most towns utilize and which has characterized the kind Belleville has used in the past. Patently this is not the case.

Curious over the rejection of the lowest bid which was $1,100 less than one being accepted I've learned that the town proposes to buy a Ford truck chassis and then have a firm called Ambultech Co. located at 113 Sylvan Ave., Newark, N.J. just over the town border, build the ambulance body on this chassis. A somewhat hybrid affair I'd call it.

It is most unfortunate that some of the foregoing questions were not called upon to be answered before this matter was disposed of. I've received some reports that leave doubt as to just why more deliberation was not given this matter. I look like they could well stand a good "watchdog" around the Hall again. A new, young, alert one. A person with the "know-how" to keep the Town Hall "on the ball" again.

Neil Horne Produces Film Fest

politics. Horne's behind-the-scenes stories of how he captured many "upright" personalities on film sometimes prove just as interesting as the film itself. Many times Horne had to sneak through police barricades, or pose as a news correspondent, or wait hours on a park bench outside an apartment building for his subject to come along, but his innovative filmer usually found a way to "get his man."

Most of his film inventory though, was accumulated through courteous letter-writing, asking for a private sitting. Surprisingly enough, that approach works most of the time. But Horne has been more aggressive in his picture-taking. Like the time he filmed Greta Garbo through a telephone booth or sneaking on location during the filming of "Hello Dolly" and capturing Barbara Streisand on his private film.

Horne began his hobby in film shortly after high school, over 40 years ago. Oddly enough, he sold his interest in a Belleville newspaper to purchase his first camera and equipment.

"I had just completed my second year at Columbia University when myself and a few friends thought Belleville was ripe for a newspaper of its own," explained Horne. "So I dropped out of school to found 'The Belleville News' with four other friends."

That venture lasted about two years before Horne discovered there were "too many cooks boiling the soup." He sold his interest in the paper and bought his own movie camera with the money realized from the paper.

"I bought the equipment just to take pictures of the family but my shooting James Paddock, then billed as the 'world's fastest human' changed my whole outlook on filming," added Horne.

Horne, at the time, was working for a Newark firm and the publicity department there got him a filming with Babe Ruth.

"That opened the doors for me," Horne said. "Ruth was the hero of the day and my filming of him was my ticket to other personalities."

His first efforts took place in 1928 and he has been going strong ever since. Although Horne has held many jobs with many companies throughout the area, he has never sacrificed for his main interest in film making, and his movie library, with almost 1,500 separate films, shows the fruit of his efforts. Horne hopes to retire from his position as manager with Channel Lumber in Cedar Grove sometime next year to devote all his time to his hobby.

Horne lists an impressive total of having met and filmed 1,637 famous personalities spanning over two decades. Over 1,000 of them are well-known sports figures.

"I've shown portions of my collection to various fraternal groups in the area but believe there is considerable interest in the film library and I think my collection could be the only one of its type."

Horne, married in 1940 in Belleville, has two children. Neil Jr. is basketball coach at Westfield High School and his daughter, Mrs. Lois Doherty, resides in Wallingford, Conn. His wife Eleanor taught at Belleville's School No. 8 for over 25 years. The couple now resides in West Caldwell.

The Belleville Lions Club contributed $100 to the Craig Fund at the December 7 meeting held at the Fountain Restaurant. The club also voted to grant $500 for nursing scholarships to the Clara Maass School of Nursing.

The gift will be presented at the Lions Club meeting scheduled for December 21.

The Lions Club continues to support the Belleville Children's Shelter with a donation of a tape recorder.

The Belleville Police Auxiliary held a combined meeting with the Fire Auxiliary and Communications group November 28 at the American Legion Hall.

An excellent program was presented, with Col. George Warren of the County Civil Defense office, delivering a fine talk, and a very interesting film was shown, depicting the many problems that arise, that require police personnel to handle.

Refreshments were served following the meeting and good fellowship was enjoyed by all.

Along with Dept. Chief R. Landolfi of the police auxiliary, and his men: Capt. Sal Baretta of the fire auxiliary with his group, and Mr. Ciccone with the communication enthusiasts.

Emery Dhulos represented our newly formed "Young Peoples" communication group, and several other young members were in attendance also.

Future meetings will be scheduled, including the various groups that participate in the civil preparedness program.

Threat on Man's Life gets Grand Jury action

Joseph Frantantoni, 25, of 24 Synnyside Terrace in East Orange faces possible grand jury indictment on a weapons charge and a charge of threatening a man's life.

Judge Edward Abramson referred the case from Belleville court November 23.

Frantantoni is accused by

"Carmen Montalbano of 117 Rutger Court, of having pointed a pistol at Montalbano's head, saying, 'I'm going to blow your brains out'."

The alleged threat took place October 16.

Frantantoni was arrested the same day by Detective Frank Falcone and was charged with possession of a stolen gun, name a Ruger .357 Magnum.

The defendant pleaded innocent to both charges and was released on $7500.

Since March, the Bureau of Traffic Engineering, in cooperation with the New Jersey State Safety Council, has conducted seven seminars to teach about 3,000 township engineers, road supervisors, police chiefs, and driver education teachers about the new international road sign system.

Transition to the new signs must be completed by December, 1974. Early this year, the New Jersey Office of Highway Safety approved a $250,000 grant for installation of 12,000 new signs in 275 municipalities.

Assault Brings $100 In Fines

George Cericofic of 201 Linden Avenue pleaded guilty in Belleville court November 22 of assault and battery upon his wife. Judge Edward Abramson fined him $100, sentenced him to a suspended 10-day jail term and placed him on probation for two years.

They Bail Out Pre-Schooler Care Center

After last Thursday, St. Bridget's Church of Newark should be considerably closer to meeting the financial needs of its Community Day Care Center for Pre-School Children, thanks to people like Mrs. Betty Valladares, Mrs. Blanche McCombe, and a group of concerned friends, all of whom reside in Belleville.

The group planned a card party for that date to be held in St. Peter's auditorium, 152 William Street, Belleville.

"The idea for the Card Party developed very quickly about a month ago," said Betty Valladares, "when my husband and I were telling some friends of the Day Care Center's financial need, and how we were looking for some way to help St. Bridget's raise some money."

When the Card Party was suggested, Mrs. Valladares contacted Msgr. Richard M. McGuinness, pastor of St. Bridget's, and Father Ray Gora, also of that parish who administers the Day Care Center, for permission to conduct it — which was quickly granted.

"Things began to fall in line rapidly," said Mrs. Valladares. "You'd be amazed at the number of people who were willing to help, even on such short notice, and we are very confident that this affair will be a huge success because of the enthusiasm of the Committee. Local stores and businesses have been very cooperative in donating prizes."

The Day Care Center, located at 403 University Avenue, Newark, is sponsored by St. Bridget's and is open to all residents of the immediate area. It is part of the New Jersey Day Care 100 Program.

"The building is currently undergoing extensive renovations," said Father Gora. "To meet standards set forth by the New Jersey Day Care 100 Program. When completed," he added, "it will offer, in addition to the Day Care program, recreational facilities for older children, and can be adapted for other community uses during the non-day care hours."

Newark's Racial Confrontation

A handful of reckless black leaders in the City of Newark have undertaken an effort to oust three white councilmen from membership on the Newark City Council. Their excuse to seek the ouster of the three white men is predicated upon the councilmen's refusal to rubberstamp some of Mayor Kenneth Gibson's appointments.

Under State legislation, which governs Newark certain appointments made by the Mayor require Council confirmation. Members of the City Council in withholding their approval of certain mayoral appointments exercise a constitutional responsibility.

Let us tear away the mask that hides the real motives behind the effort of the black leaders to oust the white councilmen. Stripped of its public relations statements the black movement to oust the three white councilmen is a raw power play.

There are now three black councilmen who sit on the Newark City Council. The election of three black councilmen to replace three white councilmen was a black community total control over government in the City of Newark.

This is the real objective of the present move to oust the three white councilmen. The effort is being masterminded by the revolutionary black leader, LeRoi Jones.

This week a group of white organizations has announced a campaign to recall Mayor Kenneth A. Gibson. A recall-Gibson effort appears to be an effort to quiet down the black movement to oust the three white councilmen.

We believe both actions are wrong. The terms of the Mayor and the Council expire in May 1974.

We believe the electorate will have an excellent opportunity at that time to make any changes it desires in the make up of the Newark City Council and determine whether or not Mayor Gibson is worthy of another four-year term.

Christmas Giving

Complaints grow louder each year that the Christmas season has become mostly a party, barge and commercial bonanza. But those who wish to enjoy an old-time Christmas can still do so, with proper planning and determination.

Family members will enjoy helping mothers prepare special Christmas dishes and foods ahead of time and some of these specialties can be the presents to be given family, friends and neighbors. All of us appreciate self-made gifts and this also saves money and shopping effort.

The secret to a relaxed, old-time Christmas is to plan ahead so that Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and one or two days after Christmas are not hectic, overly-faded days. Those who enjoy traditional, large family dinners should attend them but those who do not can substitute a brief call at a time which will not interfere with their own home's holiday observance.

Imagination and perhaps sometimes discipline will be needed to keep the family together and calm—during the holidays. Television might be profitably disconnected and temptations to dash out on the highway resisted. Instead, family games, talks, sports, meals and projects of pleasure should be enjoyed — good food, good company, dedication to the meaning of Christmas. In guiding the family along this path American fathers, too many of whom play the role of the television dunces, might assert their influence for a change.

A Senate Must

One of the first orders of the new Senate should be consideration and passage of the so-called Rodino bill which would provide penalties for employers who knowingly hire illegal immigrants.

The bill passed the House earlier this year overwhelmingly (253-47) but the Senate failed to act on it in its traditional last-minute rush. The bill was authored by Congressman Peter Rodino (D-NJ), Chairman of the House Immigration Subcommittee, a group which held hearings in many cities on the measure, hearing 187 witnesses.

The subcommittee designed the bill to help stem the flood of illegal immigration into the U.S. — desired mainly by employers who exploit illegal arrivals. The continuing flow of these immigrants works special hardship on women, blacks, older workers and those in depressed areas, since the illegal immigrant will accept almost any working conditions to remain in this country. They are thus exploitable, and deprive American citizens of thousands of jobs.

In recent weeks signs have appeared that apologists for employers utilizing this il-

Ask for Library Branch In People's Bank Building

By Elaine Auerbach

Five Years Ago

For the first time since 1961, the Nutley and Belleville High School crews were to have a completed boathouse from which to work. Bids on the long awaited facility on the banks of the Passaic River were signed and work on the structure had begun. Dr. Sidney Ruffoff, president of the Nutley-Belleville Rowing Association, said that the boathouse would be ready before the opening of the spring season.

The Younginger-Alden Jr. VFW post 275 and its ladies auxiliary were sponsoring the 21st annual "Voice of Democracy" contest at Belleville High School. The year's theme, "Freedom's Challenge" was thought to be properly suited to times characterized by the Communist tyrants. The winner of the contest was to be awarded a certificate of merit and a plaque.

Susan Underwood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Underwood of 345 Washington Avenue, was named as a semifinalist in the 1967-68 National Merit Scholarship Program. Susan was one of 14,000 semifinalists throughout the nation who placed highest in each state on the Qualifying Test.

Ten Years Ago

Belleville was to have a $43,000 Public Library Branch in the People's National Bank building at the corner of Joralemon Street and Washington Avenue if the Town Council approved their request in the 1963 budget. The plans called for the library to open its doors with an initial collection of some 3,000 volumes, including a basic reference collection as well as a children's section.

The shadow of ousted Town Manager William Sommers brought about the defeat of a resolution calling for the appointment of Eugene Barnett as town clerk. James R. Golden had sought to have Barnett appointed clerk but the move was vetoed by a 3-2 vote.

Fifteen Years Ago

Despite the bad weather, slippery driving and walking about 100 citizens of Belleville turned out for a mass meeting of the Citizen's Tax Council. The meeting was opened by Louis Donato, president of the Council. George Tortorello presented a report of a Board of Commissioners meeting at which the Council had gone on record as being opposed to the construction of a town-owned parking lot, calling it a "waste of money."

With the terms of two members of the Board of Education expiring in February one of the members whose terms were up announced his decision to retire. Eugene Kelly said of his nine year's experience as a board member that he felt "amplified rewarded by the advances made in public education during those years." The other board official up for re-election, William Boyd, had not announced whether he would seek another term in office or not.

With a week to go before the close of the "Citizen of the Year" contest, thirteen nominations had been placed for the award. Those whose names were submitted were Edward Little, the Rev. Peter Deckenbach, William Orchard, Bernard Tinsdale, Robert Cook, Jack Hudson, Vincent Strumilo, Isadore Padula, Jesse Starkman, Ernest Stefanetti, Esther Adams, George Buchanan and Irma Dyer.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

The appointment of Frank J. McFadden, prominent Belleville banker, to the Board of Education was announced by Mayor James Tully. McFadden was to succeed Joseph Arnold who had stated that he would not be a candidate for reappointment to the position. McFadden was to serve for five years.

A requisition for music supplies in the amount of $159.00 was unanimously passed by the Board of Education. An explanation for a reduction of $600 from the original amount of the music supply request was explained as a "misunderstanding."

The Belleville Fire Department was awarded a Class B rating by the Schedule Rating Company insurance experts. The announcement was made by Fire Chief William Dunleavy, who stated that the action assured local citizens of a lower annual premium for fire insurance.

Forty Years Ago

St. Peter's Dramatic Club elected the following officers: President, William Brady; vice-president, Joseph Lukowink; recording secretary, Kathryn Donahue; financial secretary, Maude Donnelly, and treasurer, John Roberts.

Final plans for the first annual Charity Ball of the Blessed Virgin Sodality of St. Peter's were in preparation with Rose Friel in charge of the general arrangements.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Reformed Church elected the following officers at its annual meeting: president, Mrs. A. Cocks; vice-presidents, Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. J. Frank Boyd, Mrs. Edwin Jonah; secretary, Mrs. W. Smith and Treasurer, Mrs. E.F. Stout.

legal immigration are hoping to prevent Senate action—if they have not already been successful in delaying it. The new Senate should, therefore, positively act on the Rodino bill in January, as soon as it convenes, especially since it's estimated illegal immigration into this country has grown to the point where it now exceeds total legal immigration by a considerable figure.

Sol Yaged Should Liven Up Gaslight's Speakeasy Room

By Frank A. Orechio

I REGRET THAT CHARLES J. IRWIN, New Jersey Consumer Affairs Division Director, has resigned his position. Under Irwin's direction the department has had a very active Strike Task Force, a group which investigates supermarkets periodically to protect consumer interests.

RECEIVED A NOTE FROM AN OLD FRIEND, "Chief" John Samuelson of Hollywood, California who handles advertising in the U.S. for the Toyota automotive products. I met "Chief" about 15 years ago in the auditorium of the Hollywood hotel where I was staying and "Chief" was filming models for one of his accounts. Recently he was reviewing his files and was reminded that I passed through Hollywood once upon a time. It was a great experience meeting him and he is the sort of fellow one met—and is never forgotten.

Sol Yaged, Benny Goodman's successor in the world of music, returned to New York's Gaslight Club November 13 and is scheduled to remain for a one-year stint. Now that Sol has returned to the Gaslight Club it is worthwhile patronizing. Without him the Gaslight's Speakeasy Room was dead.

RECENTLY I ENJOYED A VISIT from an outstanding young Haitian, Louis Robert McKenzie, Secretary to President for Life, Jean Claude Duvalier. Louis McKenzie is in his middle twenties and is a confidant of President Duvalier.

Complains About 'Foothills Follies'

To the Editor:

Why should road improvements throughout the entire State of New Jersey that are wanted and needed be neglected while the Department of Transportation squanders its monies on studies for a super-highway that is anathema to the two counties it affects?

In Warren and Sussex, the two most sparsely-populated counties in the state, the "Foothills Freeway" is neither needed nor wanted. It would serve to further corridorize New Jersey for the benefit of out-of-staters only. It would destroy the last "green belt" in the metropolitan area. The people who live there are overwhelmingly opposed to it. All their elected representatives have come up strongly and unanimously against it.

Yet the Department of Transportation even in the face of the recent defeat of the bond issue persists with robot-like insensitivity in lavishing our tax-dollars on this unpopular and irrelevant project.

Who is behind this misappropriation of money, time, and effort? Whose interests will, in reality, be served?

Legislation should be introduced to force the D.O.T. to transfer such funds to the kille-road and inadequate facilities that claim thousands of our lives a year.

The "Foothills Follies," as it is known in the North-West counties, is a nonsense we can ill afford!

The Meaning Of Christmas

To the Editor:

My subject today "Christmas" is my thought this Christmas time as in the past, the opportunity of the preacher to explain the meaning. To speak out on the resurrection and the rebirth of our Lord, the "Christ Child."

They may speak of the love of God and the giving of ones self to make others happy and certainly to make for a happier world.

In giving that we receive and as stated in St. Matthew the 9th Chapter, the 29th verse. According to they faith be it unto you.

Today the preacher no matter what faith, is a most important person, bringing the word of God to a troubled world.

May God Bless us all.

Sincerely,
Philip W. Bell

Old Supermarket Site in Sad Shape

To the Editor:

I would like to bring to the attention of the Belleville Commissioners, the squalid conditions of the former Pathmark Supermarket on Washington Avenue.

The vacant store-front is littered with refuse, which gives the town's business center a bad image. I would like to see this cleaned up. Many shoppers refuse to shop in such an unpleasant environment. That's how slums are created.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Michael Simon
of Belleville

Don't Handle That New Pet Too Much

To the Editor:

If your family gets a new pet for Christmas, it is very critical to the wellbeing of the new pet that it is not handled too much at first. This is especially true when young children are involved. A good rule of thumb is to allow the pet to be handled and loved for about 15 minutes, and then put it in a quiet isolated (from children) area for an hour and half or more. A little play goes a long way with a new and delicate pet.

"A playful pet may not look delicate" points out the Nutley Animal Welfare League, "but too much play can be very harmful indeed."

Sincerely,
Mrs. Thomas Wilkinson,
Publicity Chairman

Christmas Trees

In a few weeks millions of Americans will buy Christmas trees. Many know very little about them, or how to look for value, freshness, etc. The National Christmas Tree Growers Association says prices ranged from three to twenty dollars last year, the average being about six dollars.

Americans buy more Scotch pines than anything else, a bushy tree which holds its needles well. Red and Norway pines are also bought but are losing out with growers because wet snow often damage them. Eastern and western pines are also sold but many growers feel firs are best, since they hold their needles indoors longer. There is balsam and Douglas fir (not a true fir), both popular.

The spruces hold their needles a shorter time, though pretty. There is Norway spruce, white spruce (less popular) and blue spruce, a very expensive tree because it grows slowly.

In buying your tree, here are some useful tips: 1. Bend a needle. If it breaks, don't buy. 2. Bounce the stump. If needles fall, don't buy. 3. Look at the stump. If not moist or sticky, don't buy. 4. Keep your tree green longer by cutting an inch off the stump and keeping it in water or damp sand. Some add sugar, aspirin, etc., to the water - according to pet theories.

One recipe to help overcome the natural gas shortage.

New Jersey is feeling the impact of a very serious shortage of natural gas in the United States. And there's little or no hope that our customers' demand for gas can ever again be met entirely from domestic supplies. So PSE&G is building synthetic natural gas plants to supplement your supplies of gas. It's a proven process that is fairly simple, has no harmful environmental effects, and does not require extensive land use or storage facilities.

But synthetic natural gas is only a partial answer to the natural gas shortage. PSE&G is also drilling in the southwest area of the United States for its own natural gas supplies. Additionally, PSE&G has made plans to import liquefied natural gas from Algeria in specially-built tankers.

Is the Country Running Out of Gas?

No, at least not in the very near future. However, since 1967, our domestic consumption of natural gas has exceeded the quantities of newly discovered supplies, resulting in a continuous decline of proved gas reserves. And drilling in search of new gas reserves has declined sharply. For example, in 1960, a monthly average of more than 1,700 drilling rigs were searching for gas and oil in the United States. A decade later, fewer than 900 rigs were at work, primarily because of governmental policies such as those relating to the price of gas in the field, reduction of tax incentives, and land leasing procedures.

Will PSE&G Have Enough Gas to Meet the Demand in the Foreseeable Future?

Yes, ... if, and this is a big IF, our planned supplies become available on schedule. The realization of each of the major methods for supplementing our gas supply depends on numerous approvals at the federal, state and local levels. The time required to secure the necessary approvals is great. Any delay in obtaining the necessary approvals could force PSE&G to impose even more stringent sales restrictions.

We urge our customers to support our programs to help overcome this very real energy crisis. Sufficient supplies of gas energy will assure that no unemployment will result in New Jersey's industry as a result of the gas shortage. And they will help assure that your homes will continue to receive the uninterrupted convenience of gas all year 'round.

Bucs best Eagles 19-0

By MIKE LAMBERTI

With Mike Nicosia providing the offense and Joe Franceschini leading the defense, the red-hot Belleville Buccaneers roared to their second straight win and fourth in six tries Saturday night with a very convincing 19-0 rout of the highly rated Essex Catholic Eagles.

The 4-2 mark is the best for a Belleville team since 1971, and the shutout, the Bucs' second of the 1978 season, is the most since 1975. This Saturday afternoon, the Bucs travel to Seton Hall to do battle with the much heralded Pony Pirates. Seton Hall is currently 6-0 and ranked number four in the state. Game time is 1:30 p.m.

Nicosia provided more than half of the total offense as he rushed for 154 yards in 13 attempts. He scored all three touchdowns and intercepted two of Eagle quarterback Nick Emperio's passes. In addition to Franceschini, Joe Garofolo and Danny Amadeo were defensive standouts.

BHS Coach John Senesky anticipated a tough, hard-nosed game from the Eagles and was, overall, very impressed with his team's performance. "They had an excellent defense and a great secondary," said Senesky of the Eagles. "Their defensive line had a strong rush, but our offensive line played pretty well against them. We did not have that many physical breakdowns on the line, but there were a number of mental errors."

The Essex Catholic defense sacked quarterback Eddie Aulisi five times and forced him to throw on the run on a number of occasions.

Belleville took the opening kickoff and ran eight into a solid Essex defense. Three plays gained but two yards and the Bucs' Ralph DePasquale punted to the Eagles. After Matt Hagel picked up two yards, Emperio threw a 30-yard pass to Craig Stafford for a first down on the Buc 35. Alan Knight gained six yards and Hagel an additional three to the 26. After an offside penalty put the Eagles back on their own 31, Emperio hit Hagel with a 14-yard strike to the 17. Hagel gained eight yards on two carries to the 9, but the Buc defense stiffened and held the Eagles at that point.

Neither team could generate any offense on its next series of downs. Following an Eagle punt, the Bucs got started on their own 26. Lenny Mendola inched his way for two yards to the 28. Aulisi then fired his first completion of the night, to Bob LaBruzza for 12 yards. Belleville gained just one yard on the next two plays, making it third down. It was an obvious pass situation, but Aulisi crossed up the defense by calling a draw play to Nicosia who broke a couple of tackles and went home free for a touchdown. All told, the run was good for 61 yards and put the Bucs on the board. "They put on a strong rush, and a draw play at that point was perfect," said Senesky. The Bucs tried for the two-point conversion but failed.

Neither team mounted a serious threat in the second quarter although Essex had a golden opportunity. The Eagles had forced a Buccaneer punt from their own endzone. It was almost a sure bet that they would get the ball in good field position. DePasquale, however, had a different idea and blasted a punt for 78 yards all the way to the Essex 13. This was his first punting assignment of the year, and he answered with a game-saving kick.

The first half ended at 6-0, and the third quarter proved to be more of a defensive struggle with neither team scoring or even mounting a serious drive. Essex did mount one small threat, pivoting from the Buc 40 to the 27, but that drive ended when Hagel fumbled and Franceschini recovered.

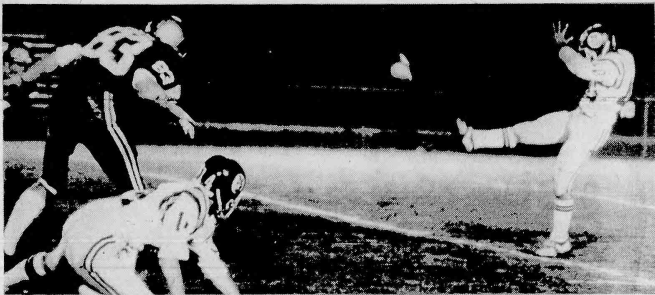

The Belleville defense, which according to Senesky was "excellent and kept us in the game until the offense began to pick up," provided the second break of the night. Hagel, punting for the Eagles, got off a short one which Frank Swaine caught and returned to the Eagle 4. Two plays later, Nicosia scored number two of the night, and after a failed two-point attempt, the Bucs led 12-0.

The Bucs wasted little time in putting the game away. Following a John Cuevas fumble, Nicosia rambled seven yards from the 50 to the Eagle 43. DePasquale added eight to the 35. Nicosia then took off on his third touchdown run, and after Gabe DeFabrizio added the conversion, the Bucs led 19-0.

Essex made one last attempt to put a dent in the scoreboard, but all efforts proved fruitless. The game ended with Aulisi falling on the ball. Please see "For real" on page 14.

Air Ball — Belleville High quarterback Ed Aulisi attempts his first pass of the game in a third down situation in the first quarter. The toss was incomplete, but Aulisi and his Buc teammates went on to rout highly rated Essex Catholic 19-0.

Foot Loose — Ralph DePasquale of the Buccaneers makes his first punt of the contest in the first period Saturday night. Playing his first game as punter, DePasquale later came up with a booming 78-yard kick that took the Bucs out of big danger.

Business Spotlight

Ju-Jitsu Club Founder Says Self-Discipline Is Art Form

Amid the sounds of grunts, lightly thudding feet and intense concentration, I interviewed Nick DiNapoli, president and founder of NB Ju-Jitsu Club at 234 Washington Avenue.

Nick, a former industrial engineer, enjoyed working with people, so about five years ago he opened the doors to those interested in the art of self-defense. Ju-Jitsu is the mother of the arts, Judo, the wrestling part and Karate the blocking, striking and kicking counterpart. There is a great deal of misconception on the part of the public when you mention the word Karate. Immediately to mind come visions of men breaking bricks in half with the mere force of their hand. That's not, according to Nick. This is usually done in demonstrations only and the trend, is to do away with that particular image.

Instead, consider if you will, that the art is a form of self-discipline; conquering yourself to form a better image. It is a mind-builder as well as physical building-up. "One thing you must remember here," Nick says "there is no such word as 'can't.' Positive thinking is stressed. Rapport and mutual respect must be established between the instructor and the student, to accomplish anything. There are classes for boys, girls, men and women - individual as well as group.

There are many degrees of strength, commencing from a "starter" belt of white up through varying shades of blue, green, brown and (as we all relate to) the black belt. Did you know there are ten degrees of black? You must go right up the line to the ultimate in attainment, the red belt, which takes about 20 years. To do this the individual must pass many tests including verbal interrogations. Emphasis is stressed on attitude at all levels. People who enroll for these courses are interested in more than self defense - it's a good exercise, teaches coordination of the body and it's main aim is creating a better self image. Nick has also taught blind people Judo and attends many competitions nationally. At these "meets" Nick said "you continually try to find fault with the movements you now make and improve on the present techniques."

Nick is a member of the Gen Lee federation, which means "the way of truth." The art of Judo, ju-jitsu and karate is, of course, Oriental in origin. Normally, the orientals stress formality, harshness and severity. At the NB Ju-Jitsu Club members are less formal and call each other by first names rather than a more formal address of "Mr. - X."

Of course, as most novices will, I posed the question why all the grunts? Many reasons - a "yell" causes fear to your opponent, protects you as expanding air, your body is less prone to hurt when hit, creates adrenalin to flow more rapidly, giving strength and balance. Many reasons.

Initial Match Next Week

Green But Gutsy Grapplers To Debut Against Bloomfield

By John McCarthy

An early date for the season's opener this year will match Belleville High School's wrestling squad in a tough bout with Bloomfield High on home mats next Thursday afternoon.

Leading the Bellboys onto the mats will be a strong trio of returnees, Ramon Lijo at 106 pounds, Brain Banda at 130, and John Smith at heavyweight. But these three seniors are all that Coach Jim Silvestri has coming back from the 10-4 team of 1972. This will make the opening match even tougher than the 25-23 Bloomfield victory last year would indicate.

As for the individual prospects of each of the returning grapplers, each will be in strong control of his weight class in Belleville's district, should they fare well through the season.

Banda will be the team's captain and can move up the tournament ranks better now than his nemesis, Gary Thunell of Essex Catholic, has graduated. Banda lost to Thunell twice last year, placing second in both the district and regional meets, after winning the Bloomfield Holiday Wrestling Tournament.

"Chico" Lijo is Banda's assistant and also a second place finisher in the Regionals. Chico won the Districts last year at 98 pounds and the move up to 106 shouldn't be too hard for him.

Smith is another returning district champ, and also placed third later in the Regionals.

But for the team there are another nine positions that will be filled by jayvees, sophomores, and part-time varsity men from last year, in a schedule that's getting tougher each season.

This year, Silvestri has added Patterson Kennedy and West Essex, the latter a team Belleville faces each year in the Bloomfield Tourney. Dropped from the slate are Pope Paul IV, whose 48-2 loss to Belleville last year got them only one year on the schedule and a regular competitor, Clifton High. Clifton had to be dropped as they changed their conference and now can have only a restricted number of outside meets.

With three scrimmages completed, Silvestri sees his own team as "green," his annual pre-season comment.

Last year's "green" team went 10-4 and lost only to Essex Catholic, Montclair, Nutley and Bloomfield. The scrimmages show the team finally looking like it is smoothing up a bit even though there are weak spots around 136-141 pounds, both of which are important weight classes. Monday afternoon the team looked slightly more aggressive, but still seemed afraid of risking a loss of match control in order to go for the pin, a sign that more confidence and knowledge of both moves and counters may be needed to get rid of the "green-ness."

Reviewing the weight classes, Senior Rocco Cuzzo will lead off at 98 pounds. Rocco has jayvee experience and will be backed by sophomore Bill Smith. The 106 is one of the few classes that seems secure with Chico. But no class is really wrapped up as all wrestlers have to make weight and stay healthy, as well as defend themselves in wrestle-offs.

Home Tomorrow

Cagers Bow To Cardinals

Belleville's varsity cagers were topped Tuesday night by Kearny 79-72 in a game that proved a lot for the Bellboys before a homestand starting with Bloomfield tomorrow night at 8:15 p.m.

The BHS five had a lot to prove after trouncing traditional opening opponent Garfield 79-36. The team needed to prove that they are the hustling defensive team that they believe they are and that they are determined to stay in each game all the way to show their improvement over past seasons.

Even the close loss can be encouraging in that Belleville did their best to prove their point. Kearny is perennially a tough team in the Big Ten with their big players making them always a contender.

The Kards got their biggest lead in the first quarter 22-7. But Belleville caught up in the second going ahead the first time 34-32 on a lay-up by Mark Corino. The battle was on from there and Kearny took a 41-40 lead to the lockers with a three point play on the buzzer at the half.

Belleville was hurt in the second half as fouls proved to be the difference in the two teams. Stating forward Tony Cutugno went out in the third quarter and with three fouls each at half-time, both center Abdel Anderson and his back-up man Bob Sanders fouled out before the fourth quarter was over. Both teams scored 30 field goals, but Kearny picked up 19 free throws to Belleville's 12.

Co-captains Vin Turturiello and Mark Corino led the Belleville scoring with 20 and 17 points respectively. Aside from the two guards, forward Mark Canyon was the only other player in double figures with ten points.

Bowlers Capture First Two

The Belleville High School Bowling team got their season rolling this past week winning a pair of matches with identical scores.

Coach Mike Salzarullo's bowlers defeated East Orange's five by a score of two games to one in the Essex County High Schools Bowling League.

In their second match for the season the Bellboys faced Mountain High School, the only team to have picked up a shut out in the league's first four matches. But Mountain's 3-0 victory over Essex Catholic did not leave Belleville with a very lasting impression. Belleville's keepers shot the league's second highest team game of 89 in their opener against the Mounties, in winning this match by the score of 2-1.

Bowling for Belleville against Mountain were senior Bob Grecco, the high man with 56 pins on the day, junior Howie Evans (496), and three more seniors, Greg Revello (490), Warren Beck (487), and Jim Dahlquist (470). Against East Orange, junior Fred McGarril substituted for Dahlquist.

CO-CAPTAINS Vin Turturiello (left) and Mark Corino will lead the fortunes of this season's version of the Blue and Gold cagers. Squad opened Friday with impressive win over Garfield.

Varsity Wins Opener

Bellboy Hoopsters Impressive As They Breeze By Garfield

By Tony Calabrese

A 43-point win gives any team a feeling of grand elation any time they achieve such a victory margin. However, when the team is the Belleville varsity basketball team, a group who in recent years has been on the wrong end of that type of score too many times, the feeling had to be too great to describe.

Last Friday evening the Bellboy cagers opened the 1972-73 season by trouncing the Garfield Boilemakers by a count of 79-36 at Belleville High School gymnasium. The victory was an outstanding team effort with every member of the team contributing to the attack in one way or another. Four Bellboys managed to score in double figures, with senior co-captain Vin Turturiello leading the way with a game high 19 points.

However, the most outstanding defensive play that basketball observers have seen played by a local cager team in quite a while. With their defensive pressure, Belleville forced Garfield into many a turnover especially in the second half when Belleville went from a seven point half time lead, to a 26 point margin after three quarters, to the final 43 point end of the game margin.

Sophomore Abdel Anderson scored the first two points of the season for Belleville on a lay-up, but the score was soon tied, on a bucket by Harold Logan of Garfield. Senior co-captain Mark Corino scored shortly after to give Belleville a 4-2 lead, however Garfield baskets by Todd Zafonte, Rick Noytek, and Daryl Kember soon put the visitors on top by an 8-4 margin. Then Belleville turned things around.

Taking off on a 16-1 burst which covered the better part of the first and second periods, Belleville eventually led by a 20-9 count and closed out the half leading 25-18. Leading the spurt which turned things around were Corino and Turturiello who scored six and four points respectively during the stretch. Senior forward Mark Canyon who leaped high all night pulling down 10 rebounds, contributed four points in the run, and junior forward Tony Cutugno who entered the game as a first period substitute and added a definite spark to the attack, contributed a bucket in the streak. Cutugno had a fine game scoring 12 points and forcing many steals on the Belleville press.

In the third quarter Belleville forced Garfield to come apart at the seams, outscoring the Boilemakers by a 29-10 score. Cutugno was the leading Bellboy scorer in the quarter with eight points, while Turturiello contributed seven, and junior guard Harry Baumgartner came off the bench to pour in a quick six points. Garfield was unable to get off many shots in the period and when they did shoot, the Boilemakers did so from the outside, afraid to drive in on the Bellboys 6 ft. 6 in. center sophomore Abdel Anderson.

Abdel made his varsity debut in grand style scoring 13 points, pulling down 15 rebounds and blocking three shots. His effort was definitely appreciated by the capacity crowd on hand for the game, as was the team effort produced by the Bellboys.

Belleville outscored Garfield by a 25-8 margin in the final quarter and coach Bob (Continued on Page 12)

Defeat Caldwell

Feminine Five Hit Hardwoods

The girls varsity basketball team has at last come into its own. Recognition by the Board of Education has allowed the girls to participate in a full schedule. The Bellgirls will play fifteen games and depending on their record can enter into the State Tournament. Last year's team went 9-1 on the season, losing in the second round of the State Tournament.

The girls play a tough schedule this year meeting parochial schools for the first time. Coach Karen Fuccello feels that this year's team should equal last year's success, although two varsity starters were lost due to graduation. According to the coach, the success of this season depends on how well the juniors up from last year's J.V. work, and how quickly the sophomores learn.

The team convincingly scored their initial victory of the season by defeating Caldwell High School in the opening game for both teams. The Bellgirls asserted themselves quickly by scoring on a fast break after guard Susan Gasparini stole the ball. This seemed to be an indication of what was to come as Belleville surged ahead 14-4 at the end of the first quarter.

Center Debbie Malone rebounded a missed shot and put the ball through the hoop to start the action for the second quarter. The Bellgirls then outscored Caldwell during the second quarter to lead at halftime 29-10. If the outcome of the game was in doubt, the Bellgirls quickly put an end to the hopes of their opponents by shooting a torrid 67 per-centage during the third quarter. The last quarter saw little action as coach Karen Fuccello freely substituted. Junior guard Donna Foley topped all scorers with 19 points.

BHS Soccer Clubbers Finish Season At .500 For First Time

In just their third season, Belleville High School's soccer club has already notched a .500 record finishing at 3-3-2.

All three of this year's victories were shutouts posted by junior goal-keeper Mike Monagas. Two of the wins were over Indian Hills High School's junior varsity squad.

Coach J. Allen Gavitt feels that since most of his club will be returning next season, he will have a good nucleus for a team, if it becomes a varsity sport.

Even though this year's captains, Dan Nisoviccia and Mike Nemeth, will be graduating, the team's scoring threat will return as well as the goalie.

Junior George Vechos, playing center forward, set a club record for scoring this season. Vechos scored a total of eight goals in as many outings. Trailing Vechos in scoring was Ralph Fabiano, with two goals and two assists.

Final Standings Revealed In Rec Football League

The Fountain gushed with pride as they played the roll of the spoilers in pumping Vee Bees the death blow, while eliminating them as co-champions with Landolfi in the middleweight division of the Belleville Recreation grid league.

The Fountain relied heavily on their staunch defense to bring about a tie with Vee Bees 0-0. Except for the last set back Vee Bees enjoyed a successful season by finishing with a 3-1-2 record.

Landolfi's rose from a deep sleep to capture their first championship in the Belleville Recreational Football Leagues by cuffing the Police Auxiliary 12-10. After a fast start this season, the Auxiliary had to settle for a 3-3 record. Landolfi, under the leadership of coach Carl Garofalo, posted a 4-1-1 record to gain the top honor.

Biancardi's captured sole possession of first place and the championship by stopping the American Legion for the second consecutive week 6-0. Last year these same two teams finished the season with identical records, and were declared co-champions of the Heavyweight division.

The first four games this season, the (Continued on Page 12)

Sparkling Personality

Miss Fuccello Not A Women's Libber, But She's All Female

Not a women's libber, but definitely all-female is Miss Karen Fuccello, Health and Physical Education teacher at BHS.

Born and raised in Bloomfield, Karen, daughter of Mrs. Anne Fuccello had one burning ambition as a child - to teach History. She received her BA in Health and Physical Education at Panzer School at Montclair State and is presently working on her Master's degree in Health. History courses were crowded when Karen was in college, so she switched - much to BHS' delight - to PE.

For the past four summers she has been an assistant supervisor of recreation for Essex County Park Commission and began coaching BHS intramural sports for girls at almost the same time. Last year Karen's basketball team played a ten game schedule and finished 9-1. They also entered the state tournament. This year, both softball and basketball girls' interscholastic teams are recognized by the Board of Education as a varsity team. Belleville High is one of the leaders in Essex County which began sports on an interscholastic level for girls. Karen didn't say, but we'll bet she was the guiding light behind this move. The basketball team now will compete in 15 games all around Essex county.

Karen can, and does, get on the bandstand when it comes to town recognition for girls sports. She tries to make amazons out of girls but instills a flair for good sportsmanship and emphasizes they are girls first - athletes second. Further, she encourages fathers (and mothers, too) to support the girls. Too much emphasis has been put on boys competing, let's hear it for the girls. Karen's projections for the future include a JV girl team and assistant coach. She also will strive to have fundamentals of sports taught at the elementary level.

Intramural sports for girls began because there were inadequate competitions and interests for girls. You'll often find Karen boning up on sports by attending games and reading books by "those in the know." She has held practice at 7 a.m. and right through the supper hour. This is another bone of contention - no room at the inn for the girls.

Lack of facilities put a stress on use of the gymnasium and the girls have to compete for time to use the gym with three varsity sports, two JV teams and one sophomoric team - naturally all boys. To say this is difficult is an understatement, but talent and determination will out and presently the girls varsity basketball team meets during the supper hour. The schedule is to play away games when the BHS gym is used by the boys.

This is Karen's seventh year teaching at BHS and she finds coaching - "very challenging." She feels there is much to learn about sports, but enjoys working with teenagers. Karen says

"coaching can be a pleasure when there are good hard-working girls on the team and...I've got the best team going right now."

When she's not camped in the teacher's room, drawing new plays or the team, or boning up by reading, Karen enjoys Broadway plays and musicals. She plays tennis and has a passion for Chinese and Russian History.

A major victory happened last week when, for the first time, the Belle-girls (Karen's 13 varsity basketball players) were recognized in the pep assembly. Yep, they've come a long way, baby - but Karen plans to go further.

Back's Column
The station selector or "tuner," as it is mostly called, has been the bane of the TV serviceman's existence. If you have a TV set, you had trouble with the tuner.
Everytime you switch from one station to the other, you make and break about a dozen contacts. Every contact is a potential troublemaker. They are either solid silver or plated. As you know, silver or for that matter every other metal tarnishes or corrodes in time and if this happens, the contact does not make "tight" any more. How many times did you have to wiggle the tuner or push a match book or something else between the dial knob and the cabinet in order to get a picture, until it went off and you had to wiggle again. Finally the corrosion became so much that you had to take the tuner out and have a serviceman to clean the darned thing. Depending on the location, all went well for a while and then the same thing started all over again.
You read now, in some advertisements that some sets have "new" tuners. On channels 2 to 13, you still have contacts, although they may be called "electronic tuners." On UHF stations, which have a continuous tuner without contacts, a defect has been added for some or all stations. This is a convenience. We as servicemen look forward to the day when a station selector on all channels does not have any contacts at all. This would eliminate many a repair bill and would make the life of the TV serviceman a little easier.

Hoffman International President Attends New Warehouse Opening

Al Lee, president of Main Trucking and Rigging, East Paterson, presided over the grand opening ribbon cutting festivities at the location of Main's new executive offices and warehouse. William Hoffman, president of Hoffman International in Belleville, was on hand for opening ceremonies.

The ultra-modern building, erected at the confluence of Rt. 80 and the Garden State Parkway, is unique in many respects. Designed by a noted architect, the warehouse section contains a 25 ton bridge crane, which covers the entire building. The building is 38' high, fully sprinklered, and protected by a burglar alarm system connected directly to police headquarters. The structure is as large as a football field, and with access at both ends can ingress loads as large as 20' wide and 16' high. It is heated with a unique system of electric and gas radiant heat, which provides a comfortable working temperature throughout the huge inside area.

The festivities were started when Mayor Richard Mola, cut the ribbon amidst cheers of friends, business associates, family and well-wishers. The entire ive "r was open throughout the afternoon and conviviality was the order of the day.

Among the 100 noted guests of Lee were William Hoffman, president of Hoffman International, Belleville, the employees of Main Trucking, many customers of long standing and others connected with this reputable concern in various capacities.

In making his ribbon cutting statement, Lee pronounced that even though the building was the culmination of many, many years of effort on the part of his staff and himself, he looked upon it as only a beginning. Because of the tremendous growth of industry in the northern part of New Jersey and adjoining areas, a great renaissance of business is expected here.

Tom Firewell, Town Recreation Director, feels that such productions provide young people with an interesting opportunity to work in a creative cooperative effort. He hopes that the youth of Nutley will display their talents by getting involved with all areas of the production, e.g.—acting, scenery, costumes, props, make-up, backstage help and publicity.

Why only Adjust-a-Drape Drapery Cleaning can guarantee... Exact length Even hemlines...

There's a difference between drapery cleaners. And a difference between Adjust-a-Drape and all other drapery cleaners. Adjust-a-Drape is more than just a cleaning. It's a blocking/shaping beauty treatment for your draperies.

Only Adjust-a-Drape can guarantee exact length and even hemlines. Here's how.

Our completely enclosed blocking cabinet
lets steam gently relax fibers so blocking/shaping can be done to exact dimensions.

Blocking/shaping in vertical position.
Rather than in horizontal position, eliminates sagging and blocks/shapes draperies in their normal hanging position.

Our computation system
lines up seams and panels vertically, the same way drapes are hung, so all areas are square, free from distortion. Pre-measured length is automatically attained by programming into the machine.

Our unique holding device
actually holds pleats securely at top and folds at bottom for perfectly uniform blocking/shaping.

Pica Rebuffed

Schoolers Nix Restructure Idea

The Board of Education Monday night voted 4-2 to defeat a resolution calling for a referendum to increase its size from seven to nine members. The Matthew Pica sponsored resolution would have placed that question on the ballot in the February schools election.

Only School Board members Pica and Caesar Romano voted in favor of bringing the question to the public while president Richard Mahmarian, Mrs. Norma McCool, James Risoli, and G. Fred Burlazzi called for the defeat of the resolution. Member Lawrence Schwartz did not attend the meeting.

Pica had directed School Board attorney Max Schwartz to study the feasibility of such a move and after Monday's vote the Board council said he favored such a measure.

"About 75 per cent of the

Schedule Playground Interviews

The Recreation Department will conduct interviews for summer playground positions on December 26, 27, 28. Men and women who would like to be playground directors should telephone the Recreation Office for an appointment.

Directors with experience in conducting games, teaching arts and crafts and working with youngsters from age six thru fourteen are being sought. Directors who have worked previously and wish to return must also re-apply. Those interested should call for an appointment.

Historical Society Still $150 Short Of Purchasing Movies

Heavy rains held down the attendance of the "Oldtime Belleville" film festival held last Friday night in Belleville Senior High School. Still, about 350 persons showed up in support of the Historical Society sponsored feature.

The Historical Society sponsored the showing so it could permanently purchase the three-hour film of Belleville, made in early 1934.

"We are $150 short of our goal of purchasing these historic films," said Allan Crisp, president of the Society.

"If all who planned to purchase tickets at the door but didn't go on account of the weather would send a dollar as a contribution toward this worthy project we could reach our goal now."

Checks should be made out to the Belleville Historical Society and mailed to Norman Thompson, treasurer, 189 Hornbloom Avenue, Belleville.

"Also, those who saw the show and were impressed with the value of this film to the Town, particularly those who saw loved ones, may wish to donate more," Crisp concluded.

OPERATING PROJECTOR at last Friday's showing of "Oldtime Belleville" movie festival is Neil Horne, producer, director and cameraman for the three-hour feature.

schools in New Jersey have nine-member Boards," remarked Schwartz. Schwartz added that if voters did approve such a measure in February of this year the extra Board members could be added by the following year, in 1974. However, all that speculation turned out to be mute as the majority of the School Board nixed such a move.

The School Board members voting against the resolution, for the most part, cited their opposition to a committee-type of structure for the School Board as the main reason for the negative ballot.

Mrs. Norma McCool said it was hard enough for seven minds to agree so it may be more difficult for nine to work together. Risoli, who also voted against the measure, echoed those sentiments. Burlazzi said "it was quality, and not quantity that mattered."

Board president Mahmarian was one of the few members that agreed with the committee-type structuring but he voted against asking for a nine-member Board.

"Several months ago I instituted committees and assigned Board members to various areas. But these same Board members told me that form of structure was not working," stated Mahmarian.

Pica and Romano, on the other hand, felt that increasing the size of the Board could better distribute responsibilities and the general work load.

"Right now, the Board members are taxed for time," said Pica, explaining his position.

"I would like to break up the Town into districts and assign each Board member to a given area. Take No. 10 School for example. If there was a certain member assigned to that area maybe we could have pinpointed the problem there much sooner. Of course, that's only speculation but it is proving a point."

Romano remarked that if the Board didn't think it could agree if there were nine members, then perhaps bringing down the number from seven to five would see more agreement, since there would be less members to disagree.

Asks Guarantee Work

Burlazzi Blasts Board On School 10 Handling

School No. 10 will finally get its electrical problem solved but it took a determined effort by School Board member G. Fred Burlazzi to have it guaranteed that the work there would be done in the near future.

After Burlazzi publicly lambasted his colleagues for the way in which they handled the School 10 situation, the School Board unanimously adopted a resolution directing Bickford and Spaeth associates, consulting engineers from Elizabeth, to prepare plans and specifications for new electrical services, main breakers and main panels for Schools 10 and 5. Initially the Board was to adopt the measure without indicating a specific deadline but Burlazzi persuaded the School Board to set a January 29, 1973 deadline for the consultant firm to submit its plans and specifications.

"I want a specific date in the (resolution) and then I want the staff here to expedite it. The purpose here is to set a specific date on this thing doesn't drag out," stated Burlazzi. "There are certain Board members who took their time on other things when differently in public as opposed to workshop meetings."

Burlazzi did mention by name the School Board members he was directing his comments to.

"Sometimes this Board is cutting pennies while spending thousands," Burlazzi added.

Burlazzi also indicated that the Board should have acted upon the School 10 problem many months ago and claimed that the whole problem there is still not being taken care of.

"You (the Board) are not doing anything about the lighting there (at No. 10). I took a light meter reading there and it registered 10 to 20 foot candles, about as much as a fireplace," he charged.

Parents of School 10 pupils have been complaining for years that electrical equip-

Three Bills Await Action

The Board of Commissioners will meet next Tuesday night, the day after Christmas, in the Town Hall Chambers. Awaiting action by the Town fathers are two ordinances up for a public hearing and final vote and a major parking proposal on the table.

Up for public hearing is the yearly salary ordinance for Town Hall employees. The ordinance calls for a 5.5 per cent increase exclusive of increments. According to Town Treasurer Francis McCoy, most Town employees have reached their maximum scale and will not receive an increment. Although Mayor Joseph McGreevy is reportedly against the ordinance in its present form, the bill most likely will pass.

Another measure up for a final vote is a Mayor McGreevy sponsored bill creating a senior citizens coordinator for the Department of Revenue and Finance. The bill calls for a minimum of $8,765 while the maximum is $10,583 to be reached in six steps. Mayor McGreevy thought, said he will not fill the position out of the current budget because there are no funds available. However, he plans to appoint someone after receiving funds for the position from the 1973 budget.

William R. Harris, president and chief executive officer of United Advertising Corporation, was elected president of the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees at the Board's annual meeting last week.

Harris joined United Advertising Corporation in 1946 and was elected president and chief executive officer in 1970. He is a graduate of the California Institute of Technology with a degree in physical science.

Active with numerous business and civic organizations, Harris is president of Florham Park Industrial Mall and the Drake Realty Company, both located in New Jersey, and is president of Island Enterprises, Limited, Grand Grand Cayman Island. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Carat Savings and Loan Association, the Outdoor Advertising Association of America, the Traffic Audit Bureau and past president and Director of the Advertising Club of New Jersey.

Harris is also on the Advisory Board of the National Newark and Essex Bank and is president of th Robert Treat Council Boy Scouts of America and is a member of the Essex Fellows

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Former Mayor Ken Smith takes a strong stand in suggesting that the federal largess soon to be bestowed upon Belleville to help reduce local taxes be guarded carefully lest we be deprived the advantages it is intended to offer our local taxpayers in "holding the tax line."

His commendable concern about what is happening in Newark, however, should not overshadow the grasping design of the local school employees to exert unreasonable demands for salary increases and other prerequisites that could absorb most, if not all, of the monies designed to aid already over-extended tax-payers, staggering from back-breaking taxation.

Holdover State Education Commissioner Carl L. Marburger attacks the school lobby which played so large a part in his failure to receive confirmation for reappointment as being a powerful pressure group taking control of education out of the hands of local boards of education.

He contends, we must make sure such power groups don't determine curriculum innovations and textbooks and other matters now decided by the lay public.

"Too often," Marburger said, "the thrust for power requires these groups to use the legitimate fear of the people about their children."

"But there's a growing number of people who are fed

Scheduling Surprise

During their regularly scheduled class time on Christmas Eve morning the children will be going through the neighborhood giving every house a new copy of "Good News for Modern Man," the recent translation of the New Testament published by the American Bible Society. They will greet each respondent with a "Merry Christmas! We would like to give you this copy of the New Testament!"

The Rev. Albert E. Alsapach, pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church at Joralemon and New Streets is pleased that the Sunday Church School is carrying out this project in the real Christmas spirit.

"We have enough of the commercialism," he said. "It will probably baffle a lot of people that Sunday morning when our little ones come to give them a New Testament, but we think they will be well received and at least will let the neighborhood know that the church is alive and well and serving."

up with this kind of exploitation and what they need is a forum."

Take into consideration the fact that if all the funds are "eaten up" by the school folks, there'll be nothing left for the other town employees who make less than the pedagogues. It's about time a little more hesitancy was exercised before the school people grabbed up all the apples and everybody else was left with the dregs.

Speaking with Police Chief Joe Smith about those alternate side of street no parking regulations for street cleaning purposes, I've been advised that the Board of Commissioners unanimously approved a resolution at their Nov. 30th meeting suspending these regulations for the winter months between December 15th and March 31, 1973, the period when the bad weather prevents the use of the mechanical sweepers.

Time is running short for the candidates for the February School Board elections to prepare for their campaigns. Reports have it that several of the potential aspirants are maneuvering to win support and backing from some of the more popular and politically minded members of the Board of Commissioners. This is contrary to the accepted concept of complete divorcement of educational matters from politics and contributes NOTHING to the promotion of improved education more the enhancement of the political destiny of those politicians who might make the fatal mistake of becoming involved in matters in which they should keep their hands and influence out of, otherwise, the repercussions could be devastating.

Watch out Mike! Don't get sucked in. Everybody likes you now.

Old "Pat" Waters always would say, "Public Education is one of America's greatest institutions, but, don't ever try to inject politics into it." Pat stayed in office a long time and his advice is good for any present day office-holder.

Essex County is getting a new, modernistic Police Training Academy for the training preparation of all the local police trainees of the County. The Police Chief's Association in conjunction with the County Board of Freeholders are responsible for the improvement which should go a long way in offering the new recruits the most advanced and thorough indoctrination along present day police training practices. The new location of the Academy will be Cedar Grove. It is expected to be operational the latter part of 1973.

Look for mass reorganization of the local police department with the introduction of changes proposed by Comm. Laterza, Public Safety Director.

An increase of one additional Deputy Chief, from two to three, Geo. Lister will become the new Deputy Chief. Also Lt. Jim Mundy will be moved up to Captain and reports tend to confirm my prediction that Fire Chief Hundertpfund will be given an extension to continue on as Chief beyond the prescribed retirement age of 65.

The departmental changes will provide much political advantage to the Director who may claim anticipated support from those officers who advanced in promotion, with a substantial need to appoint replacements among the rank and file of the department which, while they may be needed, will add additional costs to the town's payroll expenses.

The big question is: Do we now have more chiefs than Indians?

ment in the building, namely the main fuse panel box, is inadequate, thus creating a fire hazard. Roy Tice, president of the School 10 Home and School Association, claimed an "emergency situation existed there" and at times janitors "kept a window open near the panel box to keep it cool."

Tice told the Board Monday night that although he was pleased action was being taken on the problem, that it took much too long to bring the situation to the attention of the Board.

Last month Tice led several School 10 parents in protesting the emergency condition there.

Pharmacy Footnotes
A person who is highly sensitive to some foods will sometimes try by himself to discover what food it is that is annoying his digestive system. Often, however, he fails to suspect the food that is troubling because it is one that he eats often. Don't keep substituting one food for another, and don't give up one delicious treat after another trying to discover which is the offender. It pays to realize that we may be sensitive to several commonly eaten foods. In fact, onions, milk, raw apples, cabbage, chocolate, radishes, tomatoes, cucumbers, and eggs, all of which seem inoffensive enough, are often the troubling substances! Fortunately, today there are medical and dietary aids on the market to help solve food problems the easy way.

Prescription problems are easily solved when you bring them to be filled at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave. 758-1968, 759-1956. ## Marotti Named To Head Scout Membership Group

Asks For Total Cooperation In Reaching Current Goal

Finance Committee Chairman Robert Davis and Bob Schultz started the ball rolling by showing a film on the importance of scouting and where the dollars that are donated do go.

After a short discussion, Robert Davis introduced the chairman, Mike Marotti. Mike stated that this year's goal is $4,000 and he hopes that all Belleville citizens will help in making it a successful campaign. Marotti will help in making it that Pat Barbone will be the Majors Chairman, Seymour Grossman-Specials Chairman and John J. McCaffrey Family Chairman.

Other members of the committee who will be working in the campaign are Anthony Caruso, Peter Iacullo, Joseph Restaino, Jim Catalano, Frank Zatorski, Bob Fersch, and Patricia Verian.

A Weather Bureau Service

Civil Defense Control Releases Simple Rules For Riding Out Winter Storms

State Civil Defense Disaster Control is offering the National Weather Bureau Service winter safety rules to the public.

J. Morgan Van Hise, Acting State CD-DC Director, said copies of wallet-sized cards have been forwarded to county CD-DC for distribution at the local level. The state official said the simple and common-sense suggestions should serve as an annual reminder. Here are some of the suggestions listed on the card, entitled "Rules for Riding Out Winter Storms".

"Get Independent. Check

battery-powered equipment, heating fuel, food stock, and other supplies.

"Dress for the Season. Layers of protective clothing are more effective and efficient than single layers of thick clothing. Mittens are warmer than gloves. Hoods should cover mouth, to protect lungs from extremely cold air.

"Don't Kill Yourself Shoveling Snow. It is extremely hard work and can bring on a heart attack, a major cause of death during and after winter storms.

"Take Winter Driving Seriously. Keep your car 'winterized.' Carry a winter car kit containing equipment to help you keep warm, visible, and alive if you are trapped in a winter storm.

"If a blizzard traps you, avoid overexertion and exposure, stay in your vehicle (but keep it ventilated), exercise, turn on dome light at night, stand watches, don't panic."

Van Hise also praises the wallet card for a list of definitions related to winter weather, plus a "wind chill" table. Here are some of the "Winter Words of Warning" defined by the National Weather Service:

"Ice storm, freezing rain,

Essex Unit Of The Cancer Society Chooses Area Dentist As President

Dr. William E. Caffrey, D.D.S., a Newark dental surgeon for 51 years, was presented with a gavel of office by vice president Mary E. McCarthy at his installation as president of the Essex County Unit of the American Cancer Society, this week in ceremonies at the Unit's headquarters, 336 South Harrison Street, East Orange.

Dr. Caffrey, a native Newarker, the son of the late Captain John J. Caffrey, of the Newark Police Department, has devoted many years of dedicated effort in the crusade to defeat cancer. For the fourteenth year he continues as chairman of the committee on dental cancer, sponsoring symposiums in four areas of New Jersey on oral cancer identification and care. He served as vice president a number of years and is a member of the executive committee. Other board members elected and installed from this area were the Honorable Vincent P. Strumolo of Belleville and Patrick J. Kiernan.

Gibson Errs Again

Newark's Mayor Kenneth Gibson is trying to shove down the throats of Newark City Councilmen the appointment of Police Lt. Edward L. Kerr as the City's new police director to succeed Deputy Chief John L. Redden who is resigning from the post January 1.

According to announcements in the daily press Lt. Kerr has made admissions that he was involved in three departmental charges and an accusation of assault and battery growing out of an automobile accident. According to Kerr a grand jury investigated the case and dismissed the charge.

Few people doubt that Mayor Gibson has offered the nomination of Lt. Kerr to placate Newark's black community. LeRoi Jones and his followers have demanded that Gibson appoint a black as police director.

Gibson's replacement of qualified white people with less than qualified black people perpetuates a racist approach to city government which Gibson initiated shortly after he took office. Qualified blacks are entitled to hold public office—appointive and elective. However in cases where a black appointment escalates a race confrontation then we think Mayor Gibson is wrong in pursuing such a course.

We don't think the appointment of a police director is really necessary, for after all there is a police chief and God knows how many deputy police chiefs. Why, pray tell us, do the taxpayers, already overburdened with real estate taxes, have to pay for a police director superimposed upon the superior officer structure? Why not abolish the police director's job and let the police chief assume full responsibility for running the department?

God only knows what a black-led police force will lead to in the matter of the Kawaida Towers controversy. This incident is fraught with danger for Newark and its people. What hurts Newark hurts all the communities in Essex County. One-third of most municipal real estate taxes include costs for operating the county government. The county's charges for its services are based upon the assessed valuation of real estate in each municipality in the county. When race trouble rears its ugly head in the City of Newark lower real estate values come to the fore. This means towns like Nutley, Montclair, Verona, Bloomfield, Belleville and other suburban communities in Essex County will be asked to pick up a larger share of the county tax burden.

So when Mayor Gibson makes a fatal mistake in the City of Newark the waves he sets off by such an error touch the very heart of each suburban community.

It is time that Mayor Gibson stopped fooling around with political expediency and began serving the best interests of Newark, Essex County and the State of New Jersey.

Why Not Essex?

2 Supreme Court Judges Needed

Governor William Cahill is planning to appoint two individuals to vacancies existing on the New Jersey Supreme Court.

Our candidates for these vacancies are Essex County Assignment Judge James R. Giuliano, Republican, and Passaic County Assignment Judge John Crane, Democrat.

Both Giuliano and Crane have been serving as members of the Superior Court for almost 15 years. Both Judges Giuliano and Crane have brought honor to the judiciary system of our state. They have served with distinction and have earned the respect of New Jersey attorneys as well as their colleagues on the bench.

Both Judges Giuliano and Crane enjoy semi-national reputations for their outstanding work in jurisprudence.

In filling the Supreme Court vacancies Governor Cahill should give serious consideration to North Jersey's valid request for recognition.

Police, Firemen Grumble Over Proposed Pay Hikes

By Elaine Auerbach

Five Years Ago

Mayor Kenneth Smith was expected to be confronted with demands from the Belleville police and firemen for 1968 across the board pay hikes. Detectives Michael Marotti president of the Belleville Patrolmen's Benevolent Association stated that although Belleville police and firemen had received pay hikes in 1966, they "were still on the bottom of the list when compared with other departments."

Mrs. Norma McCool, a member of the Board of Education, was appointed chairman of the 1968 Mothers' March for the March of Dimes. "Most people don't realize," commented Mrs. McCool, "the terrible toll in human lives taken by birth defects. Only heart diseases cause more deaths." The campaign leader pleaded that when the Marching Mothers came around, that residents in the town would "give a child a chance."

A public hearing on the land use portion of the master plan was to be held early in 1968 according to Edward Heibert, chairman of the Planning Board. The Board had met with the Commissioners to present the results of a year's study to update portions of the master plan originally completed in 1962. The town planners discussed changes and a final draft of the land use plan was agreed upon.

Ten Years Ago

An early morning flash fire routed some 25 families from their two story apartment building at 105 Belleville Avenue, injuring one fireman and causing two elderly women to be taken to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. There were no serious injuries in the two alarm fire which started in the basement apartment. Fire Chief Hunderfund said that the blaze may have been caused by a short circuit.

Alfred Outcalt of 7 Belmoor Street was elected worshipful master of Belleville Lodge No. 108. Free and Accepted Masons at the annual election and installation of officers. Edward Penkethman was elected senior warden and Frederick Holloway was elected junior warden.

The Belleville School Board authorized the re-advertisement of bids for the proposed new two million dollar senior high school during its regular meeting at School 8, but only after the group had weathered the strenuous protests of Mrs. Thomas McCool, who cast the single dissenting vote in a 6-1 decision. The re-evaluation of the plans was expected to save the Board over $370,000.

Fifteen Years Ago

A motion by Eugene Kelly at the Board of Education meeting to appoint Frank M. Durkee General Supervisor of Belleville Schools to coordinate curriculum, research and development and to control supervision on an 11 month contract at his present salary ran into a wall of opposition. Kelly wanted Durkee's title changed from Assistant Superintendent to General Supervisor which would have put him on the same level with Howard Dufford, Assistant Superintendent of Business.

John F. Kidd, president of Walter Kidd and Company, was elected president of the Board of Trustees of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Henry G. Pfaff Jr. was elected vice-president.

Speaking before Belleville Kiwanis Club members, Michael V. Albertine, local insurance broker and a candidate for a seat on the Board of Education called for strong action and sacrifice. If necessary, to meet and surpass the scientific education challenges presented to the United States by Russia. "There has come," Albertine stated, "the grim realization that we were caught slacking in our educational system." He commented how the Russians' concern for education has placed them ahead in the new race for space with their achievement of launching the first spunk into orbit.

Sydney Browne, chairman of the Community Chest Drive, presented "Oscars" to the winners and captains in each zone at a social gathering held for all volunteer workers. Those receiving the awards were: C.G. Maise, John Kennedy, Mrs. Birdie Jefferson, Alex Thomas, Mrs. Hugh Pace, Mrs. M.W. Bennett and Herman Garber.

Twenty-two Belleville and Nutley doctors, at an open meeting in the Belleville Recreation House, voted unanimously for the establishment of a general hospital in the Nutley-Belleville-Bloomfield area. They also voted in favor of a general hospital over a specialized industrial clinic, stressing the need of at least 250 hospital beds for a population of 300,000 which was without hospital facilities.

Cubs of Pack No. 307 honored the Passaic Avenue School at a Parent-Teacher Association meeting by a surprise presentation of two paintings, "On the Terrace" by Auguste Renoir and "The Dempsey-Firpo Fight" by George Bellows. Cryus Amato, of Grade Five, made the presentation for the Cubs and principal Catherine Hardwick accepted the gifts for the school.

Forty Years Ago

The Sunshine Group of Belleville Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, accompanied by Mrs. Theresa Mack, chairman, and a party of members and friends visited the Home and Hospital for Crippled Children to distribute gifts and to entertain the patients.

May Prendergast, Madeline Nedekind, Florence Craftliff, Francis Miscendino, Allan Butler, George Shifler, Jean Sloan, James Joiner, Katherine Hobson, Betty Simmons, and Arthur Fred played the leading roles in "The Christmas Gift," a pageant presented by the English classes at school.

Fifty Years Ago

Some 1,100 pupils of the Silver Lake Section were without school facilities as a result of a fire which destroyed their school, entailing a loss of approximately $275,000.

Maybe This Christmas

To the Editor:

MAYBE THIS CHRISTMAS, LORD Christmas is the time of year, Hope springs eternal in the breast. Some joy, some sorrow, many a tear, And a world that is not at rest. Hope! For a world of peace, Food and jobs for all. Hope — without cease, For, without Hope, we fall. Hope is another way to pray That He will hear our plea, Maybe this Christmas, Lord Bring peace to all, set mankind free.

CHRISTMAS PRAYER

by Ann Nenno

Dearest Jesus help me with my prayer Santa lives closest to you up there Tell him please tell him for us To change his gifts in the whole country

It's time we're aware at our young age It's time your birthday opened another page

We children should be taught to be kind and giving

Their creativity can bring them joy

In fear of freezing in the night

Oh help me with my maiden's plight

He should vie to those in desperate need

He should bring food for those to feed

Children need not expensive toys

Their creativity can bring them joy

When his work is well done

The rest of us can have great fun

For then we'll know all is well in the world

And then on Christmas a new flag will unfurl

A flag a symbol of our love

For you dear Jesus in heaven above.

Helen's Thing

Of Husbands Who Sometimes Forget Things

By Helen Maguire

SATURDAY WAS a hectic day around here. Gavin and Ryan were due at church at 10:30 for a pageant rehearsal. Rod had a dozen and one errands to do, the tree had to be purchased and in the middle of all this, the car decided to call it quits and would not budge, may not even an inch. After a few well chosen words which have no place in an offering of the press, Rod investigated its innards and found the rotor had broken which necessitated a trip to Sally's chauffered by Jack Cullen and the purchase of a replacement at the astronomical cost of 64 cents (including tax).

Anyway, I never did get to the grocery store until late afternoon and as I came up High Street and glanced at Nelson's clock, I found to my dismay that it was ten minutes to five, remembered that Rod's suit which he planned to wear on the morn was in the cleaners and that Allan's closed its doors at five.

I BEAT the hastiest retreat down High Street and pulled up in front of the cleaners just in time to catch the proprietors as they were leaving. "I certainly appreciate this," I said as they very graciously opened the door again. "I would not have been very welcome at home if I had appeared without the man's suit."

"By the way," inquired the lady as she retrieved Rod's raiment from the rack, "does this other article look familiar to you? It's been here for months and has your name on it." "It bears a very strong resemblance to my husband's best summer suit," I admitted, "but I'll check with him first before I cart a strange garment into the house."

Monday morning, I journeyed "downtown" to the vacuum repair store to pick up the hose which my better half had left on Saturday morning amid pleas that it be replaced immediately. "The last thing I said to him as he left," reported the man as he handed up the hose, "was not to forget it, that it would be ready in the afternoon since he needed it so badly." "Think nothing of it," I replied. "His suit has been in the cleaners since August. I am rapidly coming to the conclusion that my spouse has a memory like a sieve."

BUT ONLY for unimportant things like clothes and house. He remembers birthdays and anniversaries and where we went on our first date ("Ben Hur") and the days we christened the babies and how it feels to be young and away from home at the holidays. He gets almost as excited about Christmas as the kids although he hates shopping for gifts with a passion and follows me around the stores with a martini glass until I take pity on him and finish up by myself.

But he has the patience I lack to trim the tree and put up the lights outside and assemble wagons and carriages and all sorts of assorted goodies which for some strange reason come in pieces. He drew the line this year at putting together a huge plain doll-house which my father ordered for the girls. "The old goat sent for it," he intoned. "Let the old goat put it together." And the old goat did.

And none of us have forgotten to wish you a merry, merry Christmas, filled with joy and peace and hope for the future.

Hits the Heart of the Matter On Vietnam Peace Proposals

straightforward path to peace unlikely. But Kissinger's claim that it was all the other side's fault is pathetically unconvincing.

Consider the two issues that he now suggests are the sticking-points. The first, that of the true supervision team, Kissinger treated lightly, indeed jocularly, at his press conference of Oct. 26. He quipped that this section of the draft agreement would "no doubt occupy graduate students for many years" and that "only my colleague," Ambassador William H. Sullivan, really understood it.

As for the Saigon Government's claim to be the sole legal sovereign for all South Vietnam, the basic approach of the draft agreement negated that. For it was an agreement on a standstill cease-fire, with the two warring parties in the South continuing to control their own areas and committed to work toward an eventual political settlement.

Moreover, the draft agreement explicitly ruled out treating South Vietnam as a juridically independent country. The very first paragraph of the summary published by Hanoi Oct. 26, which Kissinger acknowledged as "a very fair account," said the United States would respect "the independence, sovereignty, unity and territorial integrity of Vietnam as recognized by the 1954 Geneva agreements" (emphasis added).

In other words, the draft terms continued the Geneva formula of regarding Vietnam as one country, divided by a temporary military line. Since that has always been the view of Hanoi, it would hardly have tried to reopen this part of the agreement. And in fact there is no secret about who did: the United States, at the urging of Nguyen Van Thieu.

Why did Kissinger go back to Paris with fresh demands that have evidently made the whole agreement come unstuck? One explanation may simply be overconfidence: He and others in Washington may have believed the familiar reports that the Communists were desperate and would agree to anything. If so, there is hope that after a few weeks of charges and countercharges the peace talks could get back on the track.

But there is a graver possibility: that President Nixon has really not made the fundamental decision to settle this war for less than a victory, to accept compromise to obscure such root issues as sovereignty. Was it accident that Kissinger kept referring to the final decision being up to "the President"? Henry Kissinger's credibility is one casualty of this turn in the Vietnam saga. For whatever reason, he has been caught out in what the public will see as a deception. His awareness of that may account for his descent from the serious, magnanimous tone of his Oct. 26 press conference to the pique and pettiness of his latest.

But no one need grieve too much for Kissinger; he will survive. If American cynicism deepens, the real victims will be the Vietnamese, North and South, for the American bombs keep falling in a war that daily grows more senseless.

By Frank A. Orechio

ANTHONY LEWIS, the respected London correspondent for the New York Times, recently wrote a column concerning the present status of the Vietnam peace negotiations. He has said it just like we would like to—and therefore we take the privilege and liberty of quoting Anthony Lewis's column which appeared in this week's issue of the New York Times which expresses our personal, deep concern over Henry Kissinger's credibility when we recall on October 26 Kissinger said, "Peace is at hand." The current Vietnam peace negotiations are a bad scene and distress me greatly.

London, Dec. 17—The spread of cynicism in the United States, the loss of faith in the political process, can be traced back in significant part to the election of 1964. A good many people felt afterward, whether or not they articulated the thought, that they had been the victims of a deception. Lyndon Johnson had run as the peace candidate, won in a landslide and then quickly slipped the country into war.

One bitter result of Henry Kissinger's confession that peace is not, after all, at hand in Vietnam is likely to be an intensification of the feeling that there is no truth in the system. For the public is wise enough to look past the evasions and the feeble attempts at justification and realize that, for whatever reason, it has once again been grossly deceived. "It is obvious," Kissinger said on Oct. 26, "that a war that has been raging for ten years is drawing to a conclusion...It is obvious that most of the difficult problems have been dealt with...Having come this far, we cannot fail and we will not fail..."

Kissinger is a smart and careful man. One cannot imagine him using such language lightly—language with the definitive, even proud ring of the word "obvious." He knows far too much about the history of Vietnam to have based such flat statements on mere wishful thinking. He must have believed, as he said, that peace was "within reach in a matter of weeks or less."

What, then, went wrong?

According to Kissinger, in his latest White House press conference, it was the other side that made difficulties. Le Duc Tho kept trying to reopen settled questions of principle. There were no important disagreements about the size and powers of the proposed international truce supervision team, and about language reflecting Saigon's claim to sovereignty over all of South Vietnam.

Of course Hanoi may have been difficult when the talks resumed after the American election; the whole history of negotiations on Vietnam makes a

Peter Bridge Addresses Club

Peter Bridge, former reporter for the now defunct Newark Evening News addressed the members of the Men's Club of Congregation Ahavas Achim of Belleville at their regular monthly Sunday breakfast on November 26.

Mr. Bridge was subpoenaed by a special grand jury investigating alleged corruption in the Newark Housing Authority. Having failed to get the subpoena quashed, Mr. Bridge appeared before the grand jury, where he affirmed the accuracy of what he had not written. The New Jersey courts disagreed with Mr. Bridge's contention that he was protected by the Constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press and Mr. Bridge's paper, in the meanwhile, had gone out of business, leaving him to pay his own legal expenses—went to jail.

Recently, the special grand jury completed its work without indicting anyone, and Mr. Bridge, who had been in the Essex County Jail for 20 days was released.

Mr. Bridge's subject was "Invasion of Privacy" as a followup to last month's meeting at which Rabbi Horowitz spoke on the same subject as related to our past history.

You And Your Pet Presents For Pets

By Raymond Minor, D.V.M.

Things are humming inside Santa's workshop and Santa's helpers haven't forgotten pets and their owners.

The array of gifts available in the pet line is mind-boggling.

For example, you can now purchase a water bed which one manufacturer claims will enable your pet to "enjoy total relaxation and luxurious comfort cuddled on a cushion of water." The bed comes with color coordinated carpeting to cover the mattress.

Items to be enjoyed by pets and their owners — not necessarily in that order — include mobiles decorated with dogs or cats, the dogs and cats are made of felt. The mobiles swing and dance in the slightest breeze.

Cat owners may be interested in the wide variety of sophisticated enclosures designed to hide litter pans.

Many of the enclosures resemble bird houses with circular openings on one end to permit easy entry by your cat while blocking other pets and children.

The recent popularity of astrology is also reflected in the pet department.

One book purports to demonstrate how ancient lore can help you to understand your pet. It says, "let the stars assist you in getting the highest 'best friend' dividends for both you and your dog."

If unusual or expensive gifts do not interest you or are beyond your reach, remember that your pet may have just as much fun with discarded household items.

Spools rank high on the list of enjoyable playthings for cats. Bones, provided they are hard enough to prevent splintering are excellent (shin bones and knuckle bones are better than chop bones).

A pair of old stockings, knotted together or even a bunched-up piece of cloth makes a great toy for a puppy. So does an old cardboard box, which can be pushed around the floor or crawled into.

Whatever the toy, it should be remembered that prior to giving anything to your pet you should ask yourself, "Can this be torn apart and swallowed?" If you can't answer the question, consult your veterinarian.

DR. MINOR REGRETS THAT HE IS UNABLE TO PERSONALLY ANSWER LETTERS FROM PET OWNERS. HE SUGGESTS THAT READERS CONSULT THEIR OWN VETERINARIANS WHEN THEIR PETS HAVE PROBLEMS.

It's great to be Howard powered

Some people get to enjoy the view from the top. It's there for you to reach—and so well worth the effort, the planning, the saving. Because saving means more than just storing up money. It means making your money actually work hard to help you reach your goals. That's being Howard powered.

Biggest boost of all is yours with the Howard's Time Saving Account. You see, the Howard pays the highest interest rate allowed by law. For example, an effective annual yield of 6.27 per cent on a 6 per cent Time Savings Account. If you put in a minimum of $500 for two to five years, continuous compounding puts every penny to work every day and produces the highest yield permitted—6.27 per cent, credited quarterly. (Time Accounts are subject to FDIC regulations.)

You get a break on a Regular Savings Account too. The 5 per cent interest turns into an effective annual yield of 5.20 per cent, credited monthly. Dividends paid from day of deposit to day of withdrawal (just leave $10 in 'til the end of the month).

All in all, you can count on a real lift along the way—once you get Howard powered.

'Deductible' Cuts Firm's Insurance

Searching out areas suitable for cost savings ought to be high among any firm's better business resolutions for the coming year. And one area where substantial savings can be generated is insurance.

How? Through wise use of the deductible, says the Insurance Information Institute.

Simply stated, says the Institute, the deductible is an amount to be subtracted from any insured loss—an amount the business agrees to absorb.

In return for choosing a deductible appropriate to his need, the Institute explains, the businessman is granted a rate reduction—which in turn reduces the insurance premium on his property.

The dollars saved, says the Institute, can be used to purchase other coverages or in other expense areas.

The Institute points out too that the reduced rate available via the deductible may place other coverages—thought to be too expensive—more within the reach of the businessman's insurance budget.

Social Security Law Changes Disability Filing

Application for disability benefits may be filed after a worker's death under new provisions of the social security law becoming effective in January 1973.

This change won't affect many people, but it can be important to some families. The provision will only apply in cases of deaths occurring after December 31, 1969.

There is a deadline for filing such applications. In the future, survivors will have three months after a disabled worker's death to file an application for his retroactive disability insurance benefits. But, an application must be filed before February 1, 1973, if the worker died in October 1972 or earlier.

The change in the law provides benefits to the survivors of workers who were severely disabled for six months before their death but for some reason didn't apply for benefits.

If it's found that the worker was eligible for disability payments, his survivors will be able to get retroactive disability payments as well as any survivors benefits that may be payable now or in the future.

To get more information about payments for a period of disability before the disabled worker died, or to apply for benefits,

Business Review Fidelity Gets New Manger

Fred E. Kirsch, Jr., second vice president of The Fidelity Union Trust Company, has been named manager of the bank's Belleville office, it was announced by C. Malcolm Davis, chairman.

He replaces William C. Bixby, second vice president, who has transferred to the Main Office at 765 Broad Street, in Newark as a commercial loan officer.

Kirsch began his career with Fidelity in 1937, became assistant treasurer in 1953, and was elected second vice president in 1962. He joins the Belleville office from Fidelity's East Orange office on Central Avenue where he was manager.

Kirsch served on the Board of Directors of the East Orange Chamber of Commerce and is a past president of the Kiwanis Club of East Orange.

Coach Asks Fan Support

Wrestlers on the Mats Today For Opener Against Bengals

By John McCarthy

A large crowd for this afternoon's Belleville-Bloomfield wrestling match would seem like an early Christmas present for Bellboy Head Coach Jim Silvestri. The only thing that could top that would be for his "green but gutsy" grapplers to go out on the mats and give him a win in the season's opener.

The wrestlers are looking to avenge a 25-23 loss from last year when Belleville went 10-4 and Bloomfield only 9-5. Individual match losses at 157 and 178 along with ties at 168 and heavyweight blew a Belleville lead picked up in the lighter weight classes.

Belleville only has three returning varsity starters from last season and Bloomfield's not any better off with only two returnees slated to wrestle, and a third injured. So the match is up for grabs. The hometown advantage is something on which Silvestri would like to capitalize, since he believes that's what helped out Bloomfield's mentor George Middleton last year.

Even though the odds were against it there will be a return bout when Chico Lijo faces Bengal Billy Hamilton at 106. Chico won last year 4-0 at 98 pounds, but this is another year and another weight class.

Two of the wrestlers set to meet faced each other on the jayvee level, but that also isn't a good barometer. At 136 Bloomfield's Danny Greco lost to Belleville's Bob Cote 4-1.

Looking at the slate before the final Belleville wrestle-off Tuesday, Rocco Cuozzo meets Dante Mercurio of Bloomfield at 98; 106 sees the varsity re-match; 115 has either Belleville's Anthony Villano or Chuck Rilli facing Mike Hambacher; 123 has Belleville's Bob Willette or Donald Lilio against Ray Patera; Bellboy team captain Brian Banda at 130 goes against Vinny Petrucci; 136 is the bout with the jayvee re-match; 141 will be either Mark Falco or Ken Ferris against Bengal Jim Wood; 148 faces Ralph Fabiano against Bob Westfield of Bloomfield; 157 places Mark Cosenzo of Belleville against Jim Walsh; 168 sets Jimmy LaConte against Bengal George Meininger; 178 has Bellboy Craig Davis going against Bob James, and Heavyweight pits Belleville's John Smith with John Vacari. Vacari was in the varsity match last year and tied Bob Luongo 4-4.

Coach Middleton feels that Sigried Steins, his injured 178 pounder could have gone undefeated after two strong seasons in the class. Steins has had knee problems and may be out for a month. Middleton also pointed out that some of his boys who are varsity today have had some good jayvee seasons and "it's going to be a tough match."

Belleville's 178 has also been on the doubtful list as Davis has been out of school all last week with a virus. Silvestri noted that a few faculty and students have been effected, but doubted it's an epidemic like the measles that hit his team in 1970. Despite that epidemic the Bellboys went 12-1, their best record ever, relying on a lot of psyche power.

That same pride and determination is what Silvestri wants to start today with a large turnout. He recalled only beating Bloomfield once, in 1971, and in appraising this year's squad noted "We've still got to get our endurance up. The team is limited in that respect by cold weather and lack of space allotted to them; since they can't use the halls of the high school to run and the basketball team uses the main gymnasium."

The endurance workout this past week was a four-way scrimmage with Bergenfield, Sparta and New Milford in the Bergenfield gym. There were four varsity matches going at one time and a freshman match in a wrestling room downstairs from the main gym. Most of Belleville's wrestlers got to face all three opposing grapplers in a two hour workout, a feat that isn't even matched in a tournament.

Facing the three big state powers was good for the Bellboys according to Silvestri and Bloomfield coach Middleton agrees with the theory for tough scrimmages. Bloomfield has faced Berkley Heights, Essex Catholic and Bergenfield. Belleville has faced North Bergen, DePaul Catholic in Wayne and High Point, where Silvestri matched his men against those of former Belleville assistant coach Jeff Hull. Hull was at Belleville for two years before going to High Point also as an assistant and now is in his second year as head coach.

Silvestri sees the cross state travelling as a good way to see teams that he won't face during the season and also to make a good name for Belleville in wrestling circles. "We're starting to get a bigger reputation," noted the eighth year Bellboy coach. "Especially through the scrimmages and tough schedules. There's no breathers in there. The boys have a good challenge. If they want to win, they can do it. If they want to win, they've got to mature quickly this season. They've got to gain maturity and confidence in themselves, that's it. That's all." That's a tough order for nine first year varsity men, but Silvestri wants to see them do it.

Tuesday night the coaches of the eight teams in the December 30 Bloomfield Holiday Wrestling Tournament got together for the seeding meeting. Silvestri was hopeful for Banda, Chico, and Smith to get good spots, but that's about all he can count on, except for whatever "wild card" picks he can use, where the coach gets a chance to move up an otherwise low seeded wrestler.

Bellgirls Beat Harrison Five

The Girl's Varsity Basketball Team clinched their second straight win of the young season by defeating Harrison on Tuesday, Dec. 12, at home.

The first point of the game was scored by Joyce Buckland who stepped to the foul line after she was fouled in the act of shooting. Joyce made the first of two shots to open up the scoring.

Shortly afterwards, Susan Winslip hit for two points on a short jump-shot with an assist from center Debbie Maloney. In the remaining minutes of the first quarter, Buckland scored on a fast break to end the first quarter action with the score 15-4.

In the second quarter, Joyce Buckland made a fantastic jump, intercepting a Harrison pass. She then drove down court and tossed the ball to Debbie Maloney for an easy lay-up. The score at the end of the half was 23-9.

Guard Donna Foley began to hit her usual form as she scored a total of eight baskets in the third quarter to help widen the Bellgirl lead to 46-19. Through a complete team effort, the Bellgirls outshot and outrebounded Harrison to remain undefeated. Three starters hit double figures as Donna Foley scored 21 points, Debbie Maloney 14 points, and Susan Winslip hit for 11 points.

Keglers Cop Another Win

The Belleville High School bowlers rolled their way past Glen Ridge on Monday. Sparking Belleville's keggers was captain Greg Revello, who rolled a 242 game, and team mate Howie Evans, who shot a 237 game.

The Bellboys made a clean sweep of the match by winning three games and losing none to Glen Ridge. Against Glen Ridge the high-men were Howie Evans, who had a 571 series, and Greg Revello, who had a 570. After blanking Glen Ridge, the Belleville team found itself in first place, one full game in front of arch-rival Nutley.

Seeking Second Victory

Cagers Host Arch-Rival Maroon Tomorrow In Afternoon Contest

By Tony Calabrese

The Belleville Varsity basketball team saw their early season record drop to 1-2 last Friday evening when they lost to the Bloomfield Bengals in overtime by a score of 61-60. The squad hosts rival Nutley tomorrow, 3:45 p.m. The Maroon is 0-2 to date.

The game, which was played in Belleville, was played before a standing room only crowd, and was termed by a great many of the spectators as one of the most exciting basketball games they have seen played in this town in quite a while. It was a game which saw the Bellboys again fall behind early, come back into contention by halftime, and then proceed to have a nip and tuck struggle with their opponent in the second half. Leading scorers for the victorious Bengals were Felix Flores with 19 points, and Dan Vahalla who had 18.

All the Belleville scoring was distributed among the starting five, and except for a brief second quarter appearance by reserve forward Ed Colon, the starters played the entire game for coach Bob Palma's fighting crew.

Bloomfield, who were picked by quite a few area papers to be a contender for the Big Ten title, lived up to their advance billing early jumping off to an 8-0 lead on three buckets by Wally Kisilowski, and a basket by Flores. Belleville did manage to fight back a bit from their slow start, however by the end of the first quarter the home club trailed by a score of 18-8, and looked in for a long night.

Slowly but surely things changed in the second period, so much to the point that Belleville outscored Bloomfield by a 19-8 count in the period, and marched into the locker room with a 27-26 halftime lead. Mark Corino, Abdel Anderson, Mark Canyon, and Tony Cotugno each had 4 points in the period for Belleville, while co-captain Vin Turturiello chipped in with three. A key to the Bellboy success was forcing Bloomfield stars, Vahalla and Flores out of the game with foul trouble. Belleville also forced the traditionally poised Bengals into many a turnover, something very upsetting to Bloomfield at the start of the third period to give the visitors a brief 28-27 lead. However, sophomore star Abdel Anderson hit on a couple of shots in close to give Belleville a 31-28 lead, and this lead was maintained by Belleville to the waning moments of the second half.

However, two interesting trends which had a great deal on the outcome of the game were beginning to take form. One which was obvious to all fans was that the Bellboys were having an off night at the foul line, so much so that by the end of the game the stat line read 6 free throws made in 22 attempts. Granted Bloomfield with 7-14 foul shooting wasn't breaking any records either, however, it was quite evident Belleville was throwing away many points at the charity line.

A second trend was that in spite of all their efforts Belleville could not quite bust the game wide open. Bloomfield could be credited for this as the Bengals hit quite a few shots when they needed them, when a miss would have been most vital. These baskets kept Bloomfield in the ballgame, so much so that when everything went bad for Belleville at the end of the game, Bloomfield was able to take advantage of their fortunate situation.

The fourth quarter saw Belleville very early open up a score of 47-41, however saw Bloomfield come back on 8 straight points off the shooting of Vahalla. With 1:27 to go in the

OVER-THE-HEAD pass seemed to be the safest way out of this situation for Bellboy forward Mark Canyon. Co-captain Vin Turturiello (14) streaks to the corner to assist his team mate in second quarter action.

SOPHOMORE SENSATION Abdel Anderson chases errant pass in the second quarter of Bloomfield game last Friday evening in the Belleville High gymnasium. Anderson, centering the Bellboy varsity, paced team with 16 tallies, though Bellboys lost contest by one point. Also looking on are guards (14) Vin Turturiello and (24) Mark Corino.

Area YMCA Hoopsters Complete Second Stanza of Round-Robin Play

The Montclair YMCA Men's Intramural Basketball League completed its second round-robin play on December 6. The Hawks defeated the bullets 77-69 in the third game to lead the league with a 2-0 record after the second week of play.

Bill Tyson of Montclair scored 16 of his 25 points in the first half as the Hawks took a 40-20 lead. The Bullets cut the lead to 6 with 4:24 left in the game as Steve Howell of W. Orange and Bill Gray of Montclair scored 24 of the team's first 36 points in the second half. But the Hawks, with four players in double figures-held the Bullets the remainder of the game. The loss dropped the Bullets into last place in the league standings with a 0-2 record.

Four Hawks aided Tyson in scoring. Don Giardina of Bloomfield, Mark Johnston of Montclair and Gary Kammerer of Bloomfield, scored 11 points each. The bullets were led by Howell and Gray with 26 and 19 respectively.

In the first game, the Celtics evened their record at 1-1 by defeating the defending champs, The Knicks 91-89. The Knicks without their leading scorer, Johnny Jones of East Orange fell behind 50-39 at half time. The Celtics in the best shooting team in the league, outscored The Knicks 14-4 to start the second half as they built up a 64-43 lead with 14:40 left in the game

Cagers Seek 2nd Victory Tomorrow

halgame Belleville led 54-53 when bad things began Jo happen for the home side. First, Armando Sasso stole the ball from Turturiello and hit on a lay-up making it 55-54 Bloomfield. Belleville set up for a good shot and got it when Turturiello hit Cotugno with a pass underneath for a lay-up making it Belleville 56, Bloomfield 55.

It was next the Bengals turn to go one up when after rebounding a missed Bloomfield shot, Belleville's Anderson found the ball ripped out of his hands by Bloomfield's Tim Tripucka who put it in for a lay-up. Belleville set up again for a crucial shot and got the ball to 61. 6in. sophomore Anderson. Abdel, who pulled down 14 rebounds and blocked 6 shots in addition of having the Belleville high of the night with 16 points, was fouled on the play and went to the line for 2 shots. Hitting the first, Abdel got the rebound of the second which he missed, and Belleville set up for one last shot.

However, with 8 seconds left Bloomfield stole the ball and called their final time out setting up the play. The inbounds pass was stolen by Cotugno, and Tony was fouled with six seconds left. The foul shot was missed however, and Bloomfield called time on getting the rebound with three seconds left.

However, the Bengals foolishly forgot they had used up all their time outs, and according to the rules when a team calls a time out after using their's all up, then they should be charged with a technical foul, and the other team gets a foul shot. Coach Palma elected Turturiello to take the foul shot, which wound up hitting in the center of the rim and popped back out. Thus the game went into overtime.

The 3 minute session saw Belleville score the first four points of the period on a jumper by Sasso. This last basket gave Bloomfield the margin they needed at 61-57. All Belleville could manage from there on in was a foul shot by Turturiello, and a lay-up by Anderson.

That was it and the Belleboys had a week to think over their mistakes, as tomorrow they will spring back into action when arch-rival Nutley comes to town. A big holiday crowd is expected for the game which should get going at the special holiday time of 3:45 p.m.

Parkway Again Giving One For The Road

One for the road — without alcoholic content — will be served free in the interests of safety to Garden State Parkway motorists during the Christmas and New Year's eve-morning periods.

Chairman George M. Wallhauser, Sr., of the New Jersey Highway Authority, which operates the Parkway, today announced that free coffee, tea or milk will be offered at roadside restaurants from 9 p.m. December 24 to 9 a.m. December 25 and in the same 12 hours of December 31 and January 1.

This is the 16th annual free safety drink program designed to exert a sobering influence on those who drive on the Parkway in the festive holiday season. The Parkway introduced the idea on January 1, 1958, and the program soon spread to an annual practice among toll roads.

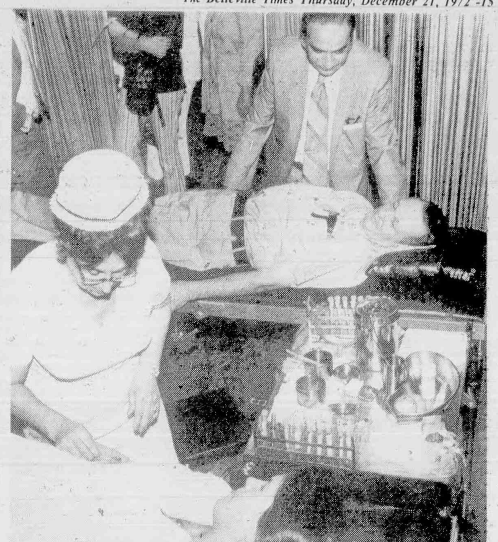

After confining the free drink offer to New Year's for some time, the Highway Authority added Christmas to the program a few years ago.

Chairman Wallhauser said invitation cards with safety messages will be tendered by toll collectors on both holidays, but the Parkway restaurants will give free refreshments to all comers whether they have the formal requests in hand or not.

The safety drinks will be offered by the Howard Johnson and Holiday House operators of Parkway restaurants in cooperation with the Holiday Authority. All of the Parkway food sites will be involved except southernmost Seaville, which

Safety Experts Say Easy With Holiday Celebrating

Christmas is the time of year when Americans work overtime trying to kill themselves with kindness. They overeat. They drink too much. They celebrate at the night. They strain their pocketbooks by overindulging their desire for material things. And they booby-trap their homes with all sorts of holiday hazards.

Experts in the department of safety and research of the Combined Insurance Company of America urge a 1972 Christmas of "fun without fear" through the adoption of these simple safety measures.

— The head of the family need not feel he must try to emulate Santa Claus by adding to his girth with overstuffings of food that can damage his health and shorten his life.

— The family that drinks alcoholic beverages together should stay together at home. Drinking and driving do not mix, and the National Safety Council joins in warning that no amount of black coffee will sober up a drunk — it will only serve to make him more wide awake.

— As the Council on Family Health stresses, if a natural Christmas tree is put on display in the home, it should be placed in a stand containing as much water as possible. Care should be taken in festooning the tree with the safest available lights, tinsel and other decorations. The tree should be kept a safe distance from the fireplace, from drafts and from electric outlets.

— It is much safer — and just as much attractive — to use an artificial tree made of a plastic that scorches but does not burn. Even scorching will be prevented if you forget about lights. Use gay, non-flammable decorations instead.

— Although it is traditional at Christmas to put candles on window sills, this practice should be abandoned because of the danger that drafts might topple the candles or ignite curtains.

— Children should be required to keep a safe distance from anything burning as well as the electric cords and sockets on trees. If you light a fire in the fireplace and decorate your dining table with festive flickering candles, be sure that young children are closely supervised.

— Don't wear anything frilly when preparing Christmas dinner. The danger of setting fire to clothing runs high in the kitchen.

— Keep in mind, too, the danger of cuts, one of the most common household accidents. You will be safer if you make sure your carving knife is razor sharp, for the duller the knife the more likely it is to slip and inflict a serious cut.

— Have a good supply of potholders near the stove for hoisting the holiday bird from oven to table.

— Having survived all the perils of the heart and

Holiday Drinking: Driving Don't Mix

Two drivers dead, one seriously injured. All had been drinking.

Typical holiday accidents? Not really.

A trio of experienced volunteers had agreed to participate in a highly controlled experiment to demonstrate the deadly effects of mixing drinking with driving.

Each participant "downed" three of his favorite alcoholic concoctions at a "jolly hour" before climbing behind the wheel of a stationary simulator car.

Guilty Of Selling Pints To A Minor

Elsie Bertha Smith of 189 Cortlandt Avenue was fined $150 by Judge Edward Abramson after she pleaded guilty December 14 in Belleville court to a charge of selling liquor to a minor.

She was charged by Robert F. Stiles of the New Jersey Alcoholic Beverage Control Board of selling several pints of liquor to a 17-year-old boy.

Junior High Students Here Host Congressman Minish

Belleville Junior High School students of Pat Forte's and Michael Early's civics class hosted Congressman Joseph Minish last month.

Congressman Minish informed the students on legislation he is now sponsoring in congress and among other things, spoke of how a legislative measure originates in congress. Minish also gave his description of a congressman's typical day. He also made it a point to explain the functions and workings of the various Committee's in congress, including the Banking and Currency Committee, of which he is a member. A question and answer period followed the talk.

Browsing Belleville

With Pat Diana

Met somebody interesting a week ago, via phone, a very nice man at the Newark Post Office — Fred Castelluccio. He was kind enough to give me mailing dates for holiday mail, but space limitations prevented my printing them and now, if you haven't mailed your cards and packages... rotsa' ruck.

OPE (organization of parents and educators) held their monthly meeting Dec. 11. The first and sixth grade students offered an evening of musical entertainment to welcome in the holiday season. The sixth grade orchestra, under the direction of Messrs. Evans, Sellitti and Gizzi, will play some real old favorites. Miss Casale (who could only be Marilyn Casale, former Essex County Jr. Miss), led the 6th grade glee club. Thomas Rosentini was featured on the trumpet, Ray DeLuca, tambourine, Stephanie Jasper — maracas, Keith Fink — woodblock and Gil Chatham on triangle. Joann Guarnieri and Cynthia Westpy gave vocal solos, Jane Ferrar an accordion solo. The three first grade classes presented "Christmas Time in Santa's Workshop".

Welcome back — you look great! Referring to Betty and Al Smith who spent some time in the Bahamas.

In my article on the NB Ju-Jitsu Club forgot to mention Lorraine Raccanilli a 16 year old miss who attained a green belt.

Speaking of School Christmas programs — the Jr. High had a terrific "Christmas Program" Dec. 13. I had hoped to have more information by press time, to make a feature article but didn't get it, so will mention it here... Congrats to those in the Music Department — Messrs Louis Kosma, R. Hackling, R. Gizzi, O. James, T. Finetti and, a newcomer to the scene, Mary Brennan. The department is under the direction of Frank Scobbi. The program started with the two seventh grade choruses which featured, of course, Christmas songs... one interesting one was the "African Noel" I spied Denise Iacobelli in the group. The concert band started with one of my favorites — "Carol of the Bells" and ended with "We Wish you a Merry Christmas". The ninth grade chorus (including daughter Sue and Donna Iacobelli) sang, among others, "The Little Drummer Boy" — very beautiful.

At this point I noticed other parents were tapping their feet and humming to the songs... how about next year you include a community sing? Another beautiful hymn done by the 9th grade youngsters was "Oh Holy Night". The program moved on to the Jr. High Orchestra with a stirring "Christmas Processional", and the Eighth grade chorus who sang three songs, among them the pretty "It is Christmas Anew". The program ended with a bounce as the popular Jr. High Stage band came into the spotlight. Among their numbers were "Mantilla Lace", "Psychodelic Sally" and "Raunchy Rita"... don't know who the trumpeter was, but he was magnificent.

Principal Sy Grossman invited parents to visit the building any day at 9:30 to watch the kids practice. Among those I noticed there were Kathy Hammel, with her mom, Harriet; Caesar, Barbara and Lee Romano, Fred Berlazzi and Jim Risoli, Jo Iacobelli, Mr. and Mrs. Cor Vanderzwan, Pat Barbone (president Jr. High PTA), Mario DiMaggio. One couple there, I enjoyed meeting, don't know their name, but son Rocky, a 7th grader, plays the sax in the concert band and orchestra.

Apologies to Miss Karen Fucello — my sparkling personality last week...the copy read: she is not making amazons of the girls on the varsity basketball team"... it was printed, minus the "not"...sorry about that.

Which leads me to another Christmas party — where I met some real nice people — employees of the Nutley Sun/Belleville Times/Newark Record. Enjoyed chatting with the typesetters and proof readers and did you know? They really feel bad when a mistake is made. The Orechio brothers were there — Frank, Carmen and Carl. I met Miss Barbara Rumpelton, secretary to Our Leader, Maggie Bron, Gail Daddio, Audrey and Norman Reid. Spoke to Mr. and Mrs. George Rose who are the custodians for the Sun Building X they keep it immaculate and it was most attractively decorated for the holidays. It's nice to meet the people you work with.

Plans under way, according to the Kiwanis Club of Belleville Bulletin, for a team of local basketball players to compete with the New York Jets at BHS on Feb. 17th — funds go to Craig Fabian.

Was tickled to receive an answer to my plea in last week's issue — I reminded one and all, to have your organization spotlighted, just write or phone me for a simple form to fill out... Barbara Spillane did... so watch for article on Junior Woman's Club of Belleville.

Sis Wellen asked me to tell you, the Children's Christmas party sponsored by American Legion Post 105 last Sunday was a success... mostly due to the management of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kinsley, Sr. Santa was a wonder as he greeted each tot with a toy. Refreshments were served, cartoons shown and the kids well behaved. Hats off to Carol Nendze, Barbara Welter, Sis Wellen and others who spent many hours wrapping gifts. Mert Marx asked me to tell you that his wife doesn't deserve sympathy for marrying him... the shoe's on the other foot, (always the gentleman, Mert). Other adults enjoying the kids fun were George and Adeline Mitchell, Pete and Jean Gentili, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lenihan. Jim LaMotta and others took some refreshments to the Children's Shelter, to spread the cheer.

Attended the Friday evening showing of "Belleville — a good place to live" which was what all the fanfare was about the past few weeks. Entertainment was provided by Messrs. Kosma and Fanetti of the Belleville Music Department. The band was great and the Baker's Dozen sang magnificently. As the houselights dimmed, dinner was served. Well, to one lady, anyway, who shall remain nameless, as she was supposed to be in three other spots that evening. She snared some dinner sponsored by the High School parents music association, and we laughed, but I stuck to my diet.

The film was rather dark, and it was long. Unfortunately the evening was damp and cold, preventing many from coming to the show. How about a suggestion to the Belleville Historical Society? A rerun during the summer and start in the late afternoon so it can be viewed in its entirety. Many left before the end.

The film brought many compliments to the Historical Society. I for one, enjoyed seeing Thomas Gryczka, a principal of #9 school 'way back when...he still has the friendly smile and dimples and is still being a good administrator at School #8. You know, viewing Town hall and other main buildings, schools, churches, library etc., it occurred to me that nothing has changed in 40 years or so...as a joke, I would suggest removing all those buildings and starting from scratch.

Remy Martin Cognac is a rare gift.

But then again, so is a friend.

Remy Martin produces nothing less than Fine Champagne Cognac. Made only from grapes grown in the very heart of France's tiny Cognac region, then aged for years in hand-hewn Limousin oak casks. Give Remy Martin V.S.O.P. Fine Champagne Cognac...so rare even a small bottle makes a lavish gift. A large one is delightfully extravagant.

Merry Christmas

Across the centuries shines the guiding star of Christmas, and the message of the herald angels echoes anew in our hearts. "Peace on Earth, Good Will toward Men." At this holy Christmastide, season of our dear Savior's birth, our hopes and prayers for peace unending rise with special fervor.

We join our prayers with yours, and we rejoice, for Christmas is a time to put aside our routine cares and worries, to have faith for the future, contentment for today. To you and yours, we gladly send greetings and good wishes for holiday happiness.

It is our special pleasure to express our appreciation for the warm cordiality of our relations with our valued friends and customers. Many thanks to you.

Freeholder recount fight not over; Russo may ask for another election

Final poll tally still up in air

Robert Russo, who missed being sworn in as district freeholder by 39 votes Monday, is exploring "all legal avenues available which could overturn the results and force a new election."

Russo, a Democrat, ended up election night with a 104 victory over Republican James Piro. That victory was reversed, however, when Piro came out 39 votes ahead after a recount Monday morning.

"The decision on how to proceed will be made during the coming 10 days," Russo told The Nutley Sun Tuesday. "It will be made intelligently and without regard to personalities. I'll abide by whatever recommendation is finally made by my attorneys."

Russo spoke from the law offices of attorney Robert Rich who also acted in his behalf during Monday's recount challenge. Russo said he has 10 days to initiate legal proceedings "and the ultimate result could only be forcing a new election. The calling of another recount, for example, is not a legal possibility."

Russo and Piro, both Nutley residents, conceded long before election day that returns for the district would be close. "My concern now is that the margin of victory is so thin, less than one-hundredth of one percent, that no matter who won the recount, a legal challenge would be considered," Russo continued.

"My concern is that the margin of victory is so tiny it doesn't give Piro a mandate to represent. I think he

Please see DEMS on page 5.

New Freeholder — Representing Belleville on the new Board of Freeholders is Nutley attorney James Piro seen taking the oath of office Monday. He upset Democrat Bob Russo in a recount by 39 votes to become the only Republican in the new administration of County Executive Peter Shapiro seen at left with Gov. Brendan T. Byrne. Russo today said he is considering asking for a new freeholder election.

Crowd honors veterans of war

The wind was cold last Sunday afternoon whispering the coming of winter, but Belleville residents were warm with patriotism as they watched the town honor its veterans with the largest parade in its history.

A sizable crowd lined Washington Avenue as the 10 divisions paraded before Town Hall.

The Hawthorne Caballeros, N.J. State champs in drum and bugle corps, was the highlight of the parade along with the Shriners motorcade and clowns.

The event will be featured in a picture page in the next issue of the Belleville Times.

Belleville DeCamp line probably will be sold

Belleville officials this week said local riders of DeCamp Jersey City and New York-bound buses are assured of continuing service. The Clifton-based firm had threatened to end Belleville commuter runs last week.

Local officials including Commissioner Vincent Strumolo and Public Affairs administrator Ralph Risoli joining DeCamp's intention to Trenton.

"We still have service and about the worst thing that could happen now is for DeCamp to sell its Belleville routes to another firm," Risoli announced this week.

Belleville has been working closely with neighboring communities in protesting DeCamp's intention, first to abolish all service, and then to reportedly bankrupt the transportation company.

Already the DeCamp 77 line from Morristown to New York has been taken over by Community Transit Lines of Passaic. Belleville officials already have heard testimony concerning a take-over of the local-22 route by a Jersey City company.

DeCamp had asked to to halt all Please see "DeCamp" on page 13.

Ethnic vote no fault of Belleville leaders

Despite Republican Robert Notte's virtual tie with Peter Shapiro for Belleville votes last week, Mary Senatore and other Democratic Party leaders here are not politically in trouble with the new county administration.

Young Robert Russo, the only Democrat to lose in last week's election, has the highest of praise for Belleville Commissioner Mary V. Senatore, Essex Demo vice chairman, and Bus Gausepohl, county Demo chairman.

"Belleville was with us 100 percent. Mary was enthusiastic. Everyone wore my buttons walked the street, held the biggest breakfast for me and it paid off. I ran 1,000 votes ahead of (Republican) Jimmy Piro when Notte and Shapiro tied," Russo told The Times/News Tuesday, a day after he lost by 39 votes on a recount to Piro in the race for District 5 freeholder.

Notte ran strong in Italian-American neighborhoods throughout suburban Essex County. Russo feels the ethnic question explains Notte's even vote with Shapiro in Belleville, and Notte's victory over Shapiro in neighboring Nutley.

Russo didn't completely discount the fact that Belleville Democrats never recovered from his defeating Mayor Michael Marotti in the primary. Marotti ran for the freeholder spot on Sheriff John Cryan's ticket while Russo is one of the original members of the Shapiro challenge in the Primary.

"Considering" the ethnic factor, Mary Senatore did a fantastic job. Belleville was simply great and I am well pleased with the leadership of both Mary Senatore and Bus Gausepohl," Russo said. He made it clear he wasn't speaking to reflect Shapiro's personal opinion, however, "I'm speaking in reference to my own candidacy," Russo stated.

The district returns forced a recount this past Monday which ended with Piro's beating Russo by 39 votes. Piro was the only Republican taking the oath of office in the new county government Monday afternoon.

Russo says he was working to keep Piro's margin in their hometown of Nutley to less than 2,000 votes. Piro won Nutley by slightly more than 2,000 "so what I had hoped to do there I didn't do," Russo admitted.

He blamed independent Ralph D'Andrea as "keeping the margin down in Nutley. I lost many votes in the first ward of Nutley because of loyalty to D'Andrea," Russo says. The Democrat admits, however, that Please see RUSSO on page 14.

Mahmarian fete set for Nov. 24

Richard Mahmarian, whose resignation from the Belleville Board of Education becomes effective Dec. 1, will be honored at a farewell dinner Nov. 24, 7 to 11 p.m. at the Chandelier Restaurant.

Tickets may be obtained from Matthew Pica, 59 Mt. Prospect Ave. or Mrs. Mary Shader at the Board of Education offices, 383 Washington Ave.

Parillo's able to stay open despite 120-day penalty

Belleville commissioners failed in their attempt to close down Parillo's Disco for 120 days after declaring the popular nightclub "a public nuisance." The dancing stopped only one night, Friday, but by the next afternoon, the discotheque had reopened with business back to its usual hectic pace.

Although Belleville wants the disco closed, Parillo attorney James DeMauro was able to win a temporary appeal from the New Jersey Appellate Court pending a formal review of the local commission by the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission.

The four Belleville commissioners serving on the local ABC board were unanimous in agreeing to close the disco 120 days after finding Parillo's guilty of all charges and being a public nuisance.

Finance Director Joseph McGreevy, speaking for the Belleville board, called the 120-day closing penalty "a fair one" considering the number of charges.

But on Friday morning and only 15 minutes before Parillo's was to have been closed, owner Anthony Fierro, working through Milburn attorney Allen C. Marra, contacted Appellate Court Judge Herman Michaels and Attorney General Mark Varsy who scheduled a meeting for Saturday morning. Although Saturday was a holiday, the group met at 10 a.m.

Judge Michaels, after conferring with Appellate Judge Robert Lauria, stayed the Belleville commissioners' decision on the grounds that Parillo's had been denied due process.

Michaels said in most ABC cases, the establishment usually is allowed to remain open for at least five days to prepare an intended legal appeal. Thus, Judge Michaels announced he would delay imposition of the Belleville commissioners' penalty, at least until 4 p.m. this past Monday.

And by Monday, Marra had filed for appeal with the N.J. Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission which continued the stay until a hearing review is made sometime during the coming week.

The ABC board hearing will involve Attorney General Varsy who will represent the town and Marra who will represent Parillo's. The state ABC hearing will be open to the public when convened at the International Gateway Plaza Building, Route 1, Newark.

Marra, a former Essex County Please see BELLEVILLE on page 19.

Dancin' the night away — Business was back to normal after one day closing of Parillo's Disco. Commissioners last Thursday voted to close the popular night spot for 120 days but Appellate Court judges said the dancing could continue pending a formal review of the local decision.

ITT Played Key Role In Apollo Moon Mission
 Apollo 17's blast-off marked the culmination of America's program of manned lunar exploration and of efforts by ITT World Communications Inc. to provide the necessary communications facilities in support of NASA's manned space program.

Immediately after the launch, the crucial telemetry and instructions which help to ensure a safe and successful mission began to flow between the Apollo capsule and NASA facilities in Bermuda. A special ITT World Communications circuit helped link the Bermuda station to the United States, and ITT submarine cable and satellite circuits provided mission control with reliable and efficient communication lines from other NASA ground stations throughout the world.

'Crafty' Gift Worth Giving to Him Early

Christmas is always packed with fun, but there is work, too: re-shining last year's tarnished ornaments and silverplate, fixing an old Christmas tree stand, making a Christmas greeting sign — even carving a new decoration for the living room or creating an individual gift for a very special person.

The Li'l Crafty Rotary Tool will help you do these projects quicker, easier and better, according to Sears, Roebuck and Co. tool experts, who offer these time-saving suggestions for the holidays:

Metal ornaments — especially the heavy ones — tend to tarnish when packed away in Christmas storage. With regular polish and buffing accessories, the Li'l Crafty makes dull finishes glisten.

How to Do It

Apply the polish to the ornament in a light coat, and wipe it off with a clean, soft cloth. Then finish the surface to a high polish with the rag buffer accessory.

The rag buffer also does a quick job on tarnished ornamental dishes and cups made of metal. Apply the polish in the usual way, and use Li'l Crafty to brighten depressions in silverplate engraving.

Touch-up paint jobs can make old Christmas tree stands look new. With an abrasive wheel locked in the chuck of the Li'l Crafty, "feather" out the finish around the spots that are chipped or rusted. A small brush or the end of a cotton swab can be used to apply the new matching finish.

Be careful not to smear it. When the touch-up hardens, you can blend it in with the surrounding surface by buffing the spot lightly with the rag buffer accessory.

For cheerful plaques and signs with special Christmas messages, the Li'l Crafty's burr accessories follow traced patterns exactly for perfect three-dimensional effects.

Choose a soft wood for the plaque: pine or redwood is an ideal material. Then pick the type of lettering you want; old Christmas cards provide a wide selection.

Transfer and enlarge the lettering onto ¼-inch square ruled paper, and then, with carbon paper, lightly trace the lettering onto the wood. Use Li'l Crafty's burr accessories to cut the lettering into the wood; smooth any rough edges with one of the finishing accessories. "brushing" the abrasive wheel lightly along the material.

The letters of the greeting can be highlighted with a bright paint or lacquer applied with a small artist's brush. Two coats are generally required. Let them dry thoroughly before you finish the surrounding surface. White or green color accents other Christmas decorations.

Free-Hand Sculpture

For sculpting free-hand candle bases for Christmas decoration, the Li'l Crafty does a creative job. The base can be wood, plastic or non-ferrous metal in any shape — round, square, a cube, rectangular. With carbon paper, you can duplicate fine patterns on the material; the accessories furnished with the Li'l Crafty do the cutting, shaping and finishing.

For special Christmas decorations and gifts, you'll also want to consider model kits

Formalwear to stress elegant wedding

By the end of 1972 there will have been 1,400,000 "first weddings" in the United States and there will be another 600,000 weddings in which either the bride or the groom or both will have been previously married.

And, according to the Men's Fashion Association, in the vast majority of those 2,000,000 weddings the bridegrooms will take the vows in formalwear that didn't exist two or three years ago.

Of course, the term "first weddings" is rather a tongue in cheek designation in view of today's sexual mores, but it is the term used by formalwear specialists in designating ceremonies that mark the initial marital ventures of both the bride and the groom.

Independent outfits

According to the specialists who supply 90 percent of the grooms with their formal wedding outfits, all of the old rules of what was considered "proper attire" are out as far as most of the younger generation is concerned. The old rule that the groom's outfit governed the choices of his Best Man, the Groomsmen, the ushers and the Father of the Bride, is seldom observed anymore.

Attuned attendants

While it's extremely unlikely that any of the men in the wedding party or among the guests are apt to wear a garment more formal than that selected by the groom, they are likely to be more representative of their personal choices than in days gone by.

In view of the demand by the younger generation to do its own thing, the formalwear industry has designed new, specially designed outfits for bridegrooms that, while based on the classics of the past, have been updated and aimed at the lithe, youthful figures.

For daytime formal weddings one of the most popular styles for the groom is a model that was created by combining some of the best points of the old formal cutaway coat with those of the suit coat length "stroller." Longer than the stroller, but shorter than the cutaway, the new model is cut with wide notch lapels edged in braid and a trim 3-button front that sharply angles off to the bottom.

Of course it is worn with the traditional striped trousers, a comfortable wing collar attached shirt and an ascot tie. Some call this model the Prince Edward.

Weddings that take place after six P.M. will find many of the updated full dress suits worn. These are shorter than the traditional tailcoats but have the same back treatment.

Elegant emphasis

Their elegance is emphasized by velvet collars over satin-faced peaked lapels and their angled pockets are also piped in satin. These are worn with frilled shirts that have the wing collars attached and, of course, with a white bow tie.

Another difference in the selection of current male formalwear for weddings is seen in the active participation of the bride-to-be in the selection of her groom's outfit. In the old days, the selection of his wedding attire was a strictly masculine effort.

The groom, attended by his Best Man and perhaps one or two of his ushers would meet and be fitted with their clothes. Then, there was little choice of fashion as virtually everything was prescribed by "the rules."

New responsibilities begin with first gift

From the moment the first wedding gift arrives, a bride-to-be has to start thinking about her new responsibilities... financial responsibilities.

Those expensive gifts need care and protection; one of the best ways to provide that protection is with a special wedding gift insurance policy.

For a minimal amount (about $17 for $5,000 worth of coverage) a couple can protect their wedding gifts for a six-month period — three months before and three months after the wedding.

After that, insurance people figure that the gifts have become possessions.

Most newlyweds start their life in an apartment, either his, hers, or theirs. If you're moving possessions

Valuables separately

"You'll need floaters on your regular policy to protect high-cost valuables such as watches, diamonds, furs or antiques," says John Langhoff of the planning division at Continental Casualty Co. Make sure that you carry enough insurance to cover the loss of your possessions.

You'll need to cover your valuables separately if you own a house, too. And make sure that the total value of your possessions is covered.

The company that holds your mortgage will insist that you have enough insurance to cover the property, but it's up to you to make sure you have enough to cover the contents of your house.

Do you drive a car? You probably already have auto insurance. But did you know that the rate for married men is lower than it is for single men? At the age of 24, the rate is about 60 per cent lower. At 29, it's still about 25 per cent lower. After 30, your marital status doesn't make any difference.

Combine coverage

Add extra benefits to your health insurance policy by combining your coverage. Very few policies for single people provide maternity benefits.

Don't assume that just because you're married, you're eligible for this kind of coverage. You have to declare yourself a family first.

Most newlyweds don't think about people protection — life insurance — until they start having children. That's a mistake.

Life insurance may not be as important to a working couple as it is to a family, but it's a better bargain now than it will be at any time in the future.

Whether you buy life insurance for protection or as an investment, buying right now will guarantee you the lowest rates possible. Since life insurance companies set their rates according to age and health, the older and less healthy you get, the more life insurance is going to cost you.

Free booklet helps list possessions

To help you figure out what your possessions are worth and to keep track of them, CNA Insurance is offering a free booklet called "An Inventory of Household Possessions." Write CNA Communications, 310 S. Michigan, Chicago, Ill. 60604.

from one apartment to another, check with your spouse to make sure nothing goes uncovered.

The binocular for people who don't want to carry binoculars

The trouble with most fine binoculars is that they're too big and bulky. It just wasn't possible to build them smaller before. At least not at a price most of us can afford.

Now it is possible with the Konica 8 x 20 Pocket Binocular. It's small, has a precision 16-element optical system that brings the world 8 times closer.

The price? It's small too. After all, what's the point of making a small binocular if we charged a big price.

One Tradition that Doesn't Change Calls For Gifts of Diamond Under the Mistletoe

Traditions may be changing, but receiving a diamond engagement ring at Christmas is as popular as ever. In fact, more girls get their diamond during the mistletoe season than at any other time of year.

To many girls, however, their diamond is no surprise. A recent survey by the Diamond Information Center revealed that 42% of engaged couples select the diamond ring together.

If a diamond is on your Christmas list, choose it carefully. Start with a visit to a reputable jeweler. Let him explain the differences in carat, color, clarity and cut which determine the price of each stone.

The carat is the acceptable standard of weight for diamonds. The word comes from the Oriental carob seeds which were once used to balance the scales in bazaars.

Each carat consists of 100 points. Thus, if a diamond is 50 points, the average size for engagement rings, it weighs half a carat.

Nature's Way

There are more small diamonds in nature than large ones; and as with everything else, rarity increases value. Thus, a two-carat diamond may cost three times as much as a one-carat stone of the same quality.

The color of a diamond may be any color of the spectrum. But most diamonds are white with a tinge of warm body color. Pure white and blue-white diamonds are very rare and priced accordingly.

Because diamonds reflect the colors around them, the best way to see the true color of a stone is to look at it sideways, through its thickest part, against a white background.

Clarity refers to the diamond's freedom from carbon spots, bubbles or other natural imperfections. A diamond is considered flawless only if it shows no imperfections to an expert using ten-power magnification.

Most diamonds contain natural impurities, since they are a product of Nature. If the impurity cannot be seen by the naked eye, it will not affect the beauty of a diamond, but will lower its price.

Cut has to do with the exact arrangement of a diamond's 58 facets, the little planes that catch the light and make a diamond sparkle.

Cut Means Shape

The cut also means the diamond's shape. The most popular shapes for engagement rings are: the round brilliant, the boat-shaped marquise, the emerald cut, the pear, the heart and the oval.

The more you know about a diamond, the more you'll enjoy the one you buy this Christmas. For no matter what its size or price, each diamond is a work of art, nature's original.

A diamond for Christmas. This season of mistletoe magic is the time when most girls receive their diamond engagement ring. The most popular shape is the round or brilliant cut, here set off with sparkling baguettes from Lambert Bros., New York City. Other cuts gaining favor are the pear and marquise.

More Than 2,000,000 Couples Now Candidates for Silver Gifts

While the rest of the family's dreaming of a white Christmas, Dad can solve his gift problems this year with a sterling silver one.

There couldn't be a better time for entertaining such an idea, because both marriages and silver wedding anniversaries are soaring to unprecedented highs in 1971.

Many of the 2.3 million marriages predicted this year will occur during the holidays — for December's the third favorite month for weddings.

And no matter what month the silver anniversary's celebrated, Christmastime is sure to see a silver deluge for anniversary celebrants.

With such excellent reasons for gift-giving, the only thing remaining is for Dad to choose the "perfect" gift for both mother and daughter. And the problem couldn't be easier to solve.

Consider, for instance, the girl who's getting married. Chances are that she picked a sterling silver pattern even before she picked her favorite boy friend.

In fact, according to a recent magazine survey of teenage girls, the average age at which they actually begin to collect their sterling is 14.

This enthusiastic response can mean only one thing — sterling silver flatware is something the bride-to-be very much wants. And place settings are what she needs, first and foremost.

Brides and mothers both want sterling this Christmas, with weddings and silver anniversaries at an all-time high. Place settings for the bride-to-be, serving pieces for her mother provide happy solutions on Dad's gift list.

The parents' gift of enough place settings to meet her entertaining needs forms the basis for those special company meals she'll serve the visions of sugarplums rapidly

Even if she receives additional gifts of place settings from relatives or friends, the parents' gift gives her the security of a basic set upon which to build.

BELTS A CINCH

"With belts in the limelight as never before, it's a cinch anyone on your list will have a 'Merry Christmas' with a leather belt.

"For a favorite man, your choice may be dressy or casual. Many leathers are represented in men's belt collections, ranging from rugged harness, bridle, heavy-grained, waxy and brushed leathers to dressier smooth, light-grained, suede, embossed and patent leathers.

"Wider widths still prevail. Leather belts for business and dress show off gold or silver buckles in many shapes, and for the latest look, a self-leather buckle is smart.

Toyland Spotlights Enriched Play Opportunity

Choice Makes Way for All Age Groups

Enriched play opportunities take the spotlight in toyland 1971, with emphasis on fun combined with learning for every child from the crib occupant to teens.

Most innovative for infants are Playtentals, the first progressive series of toys keyed to help babies from 3 weeks to 8 months develop the habit of being alert, confident and inquisitive through purposeful, enjoyable play activities, accommodating precisely infant vision, reach and head position at each age level. Playtentals were created and tested by Dr. Burton L. White, director of the Harvard Pre-School Project, for Kenner.

Enrichment of toddler play is the purpose of Discovery Time toys, a new series by Rainbow. Three dimensional puzzles called Fun 'n Fit double as imaginative push toys when completed.

Improved Bake Oven. Puzzle-Ups enhance classic puzzle fun with three dimensional pieces that have intriguing moving parts. Time 'n Chime gives toddlers the thrill of winding a clock and hearing the hour strike.

New enrichment for home-making play is provided by the Contemporary Easy Bake Oven which adds a dial to indicate required baking time for a variety of delicacies. Five million units of this favorite classic have introduced little girls to the joys of baking just like mom.

Contemporary Easy Bake Oven operates on two electric light bulbs and is safety engineered every step of the way. Another new thrill for the junior cook is the Three Minute Cake Baker, a revolutionary new way to bake delicious moist cakes.

Contemporary Easy Bake Oven by Kenner, newest high styled model of this classic favorite, adds extra play value with a timing guide that indicates baking time for various delicacies when a dial is turned. More than 5 million units of this purposeful oven have introduced little girls joyfully to the baking arts. Operating on two 60-watt bulbs, the ovens are safety engineered every step of the way, so eager fingers won't touch the masterpieces till they are cool.

New 'Mind-Exploring' Game Will Add Gaiety to Adult Yule Scene

Does he or doesn't he? The elegant lady is determining an important question with an unusual Christmas gift — Kreskin's Krystal, a new game based on a unique technique to improve powers of concentration.

The player can develop the ability to send or receive thoughts and explore facets of the mind and other players' minds through concentration.

The Krystal, recently introduced by the 3M Company, is designed for both fun and self-improvement.

Created by Kreskin, the well-known mentalist and television talk-show personality, the game offers fascinating ways to develop and heighten mental and perceptual skill through the use of a crystal base and pendulum.

An ideal gift for holiday entertainment, Kreskin's Krystal consists primarily of a block of transparent Lucite plastic, approximately three-inches square and two-inches high, and a small ball of Lucite plastic attached to an eight-inch length of chain. The player holds the chain, suspending the pendulum just above the Krystal base.

An illustrated instruction booklet accompanying the game explains in detail how to operate the pendulum in creating Yes/No responses and how to put the Krystal to constructive use for your own self-development.

This 3M game is available in adult game departments of toy, department, stationery and specialty shops.

Knick stars, Willis Reed and Walt Frazier, sponsor Double Dynamite Pro-Basketball game by Gotham Pressed Steel with a realistic new jump ball feature. Superstar Johnny Bench sponsors an innovative Electric Baseball game by Gotham; Phil and Tony Esposito have a Battling Brothers Ice Hockey game

Christmas Stocking Idea Lets Everyone Play Santa

Make this Christmas a "sock it to 'em" good time. Yule time stockings and Christmas are practically synonymous. The tradition of filling stockings during this most festive time of year is really only three centuries

younger than Christmas itself. Over the 16 or so centuries which have passed since Saint Nicholas began the practice for all the good little boys and girls who lived in Asia Minor, filling stockings — hung by the chimney with care — has evolved into a world-wide Christmas Eve ritual.

In many families, each member, in addition to larger gifts that are piled under the tree, also selects a smaller "stocking gift" for the others. Sometimes, all the names are written on paper, individually folded and "secretly" drawn and each family member has a chance to play Santa for another member of the family.

One advantage of stocking filling is that small, inexpensive gifts can be exchanged. Many stores provide ready-filled versions for Santas who have extra-rushed gift lists.

Unified Color Plan Adds to Tree Beauty

The unified look, already popular in fashion and furniture, is the trend of the 70's in Christmas tree decoration, according to Thomas E. Shaughnessy, decoration buyer for Sears, Roebuck and Co.

"Unity in Christmas decoration is an extension of unity in apparel fashion and interior decorating," he explained. "Shoes must complement — not clash with — a dress, and artwork on the wall must be appropriate for room decor."

"An Andy Warhol soup can above an early American love seat is out of place. In the same way, a random mixture of decorating could detract from an otherwise beautiful tree," he added.

Four New Themes

Sears has developed four ornament theme designs — "Traditional," "Candy," "Del-la Robla" and "Gold One-Color"—to be matched with different kinds of natural and artificial trees in various home settings.

"Before choosing a decorating style, people should analyze their trees for shape, fullness and color," Shaughnessy said. A full tree, such as Scotch pine, requires delicate decoration. The "Traditional" look utilizes delicate balls and teardrop ornaments that nestle between the bushy branches. The finished product is an attractive, well-balanced tree.

The "Candy" look is most appropriate for a larger, but less full tree such as a blue spruce. The candy canes, lollipops, gingerbread houses, Santas and reindeer are large and in the right proportion for the larger spaces between branches of a spruce.

'Imaginations' Aim to Please Young, Old

With the holiday season approaching, gift-buying has precedence in everyone's thoughts. This year there is help at hand with gifts for friends and family of all ages.

No longer just a toy company, Mattel produces a wide variety of products for the world of the young at heart. For kids of all ages, Mattel has introduced a whole new line of creative art, called Imaginations. These new art forms were designed by art experts, initially for children, but everyone wants to get into the act.

Six new mediums are packaged individually, with everything for each creative project in one of the packages. The line includes Clear Cuts, simulated stained glass; Color Streaks and Drip Drops, both psychedelic paints; and Super Shapes, paper mache sculpting.

(For some pre-Christmas fun, the whole family will enjoy using Imaginations to make unique fanciful Christmas decorations.)

Piggybank Budgets

Children searching for holiday gifts to please Mom can probably find something just right at local beauty counters. Piggy-bank budgets can afford many of the simple—but important—beauty items Mom needs every day. Suggestions might include: emery boards, cotton balls, facial tissues. Children-wrapped, these presents are part of the treasures of Christmas.

TRAVELER'S DELIGHT

"The ultimate gift for the constant traveler is elegant leather luggage. Maxiest present of all, leather luggage — one piece or a set — will please for its looks, durability and aura of status."

Key to Gifting Man is Knowing His Habits

Consider Wide-Ranging Suggestions In Light of Leisure Time Interest

With the growing interest in leisure-time activities, the most rewarding gifts for the man in your life are those he can use for his non-working hours.

Is he the outdoor type? Does he fish, horseback ride, hunt or canoe? How about a new spinning rod or a riding crop? If you're going big, buy him a new tent, sleeping bag or air mattress.

Or a new cooler, a lantern or fancy flashlight. Stocking stuffers—flashlight batteries, spinning reel, casting flies, pocket knife.

Is he a do-it-himselfer — adding a new wing to the house, building a pool or a patio? An electric drill, bricks or fancy tile to build the barbecue—gifts like these could get him started on the renovating you want, too.

For Less Money

Want something for less money — how about glass holders that attach to the folding chairs or a great-looking hanging ashtray for his cigars when he wants to relax after doing all that backyard work?

Is your man a sports buff? Tickets to the "big game" of his choice—basketball, baseball, football, soccer or indoor polo — can't miss pleasing him.

Or a new cushion to sit on — a hip flask and cigars to keep him satisfied as well as comfortable.

For the fashion-conscious man—a tie is no longer considered a tired, unimaginative gift. What about some of the great-looking neck chains with a handsome medallion, the wildest argyle socks to go with his new suit, or a velvet smoking jacket for lounging

CampingDad Now Joined By Family

Every year, more and more camping equipment is being placed under the family Christmas tree. And people aren't waiting until spring to use their gifts, because winter camping is growing tremendously as a family-style recreation.

A few years ago, cold-weather camping was usually reserved for men. It was "roughing it" in the purest sense. Now, women and children are joining in on the winter fun... and enjoying it fully.

According to Murray Crowder, noted outdoor writer and a member of Sears, Roebuck and Co. Sports Advisory Staff, "winter camping is now snowballing in popularity just as summer camping did 10 years ago."

The main reason, explained Crowder, is the advent of new, vastly improved tents, sleeping bags, and outdoor clothing. For instance, modern tents are lightweight, wind-proof and constructed of nylon or similar man-made fibers. In addition, attractive designs and bright colors appeal to the feminine tastes.

Today's sleeping bags are neither bulky nor heavy and provide great warmth. Modern bags, made of synthetic fibers, are non-allergenic and heat-retaining. In many cases, they are nearly equal to pure goose down and much less expensive.

"The new Catalytic heaters are also a big boon to winter camping," he added. "They're completely safe, portable and will keep any tent interior warm and comfortable."

But, according to Crowder, other factors are also contributing to the popularity of winter camping. Snowmobiling and skiing are luring campers outdoors during the winter. In fact, a growing number of franchise campgrounds are staying open through the snowy months for snowmobile campers. And their business is brisk.

"Above all else, winter camping provides uncrowded campgrounds, scenic beauty and a sense of freedom," Crowder added.
