Link with 'mob' is investigated

Although closed immediately only a week ago, Parrillo's Disco is back in business today. And despite a slow weekend — probably because most dancers believed the Harrison Street disco was closed, the establishment's owners expect business as usual starting tomorrow.

Parrillo's was ordered closed by Superior Court Judge John F. Crane early last week but by the weekend, a three-judge Appellate Court panel reversed Crane's decision, and Parrillo's was back in business.

Town commissioners and neighbors are furious. "Of course I'm disappointed," Public Safety Director Rocco Saletta said yesterday. "The ABC closes the Town Cottage for 45 days because of a technical violation and yet they let this place continue in operation with several very serious violations."

Town Cottage has been shut down 45 days because a former Belleville patrolman, Patrick McCabe, was a behind the scenes owner in violation of state liquor laws.

Saletta told The Times/News this week that Parrillo's not once has called Belleville Police to report "even one fight or a stabbing — all in violation of the ABC law. I can't understand how the court and the ABC permits them to stay open with all these charges out in the open."

Commissioners here twice have imposed penalties against Parrillo's — the first time 120 days closing for being a public nuisance, and two weeks ago, the town ordered the disco shut down six months because of fights and a reported stabbing.

Saletta won't run next May

Commissioner Rocco Saletta, director of Belleville's Public Safety Department, has announced he will not seek a new four-year term at the upcoming May election.

I find the responsibilities are very demanding and ask a lot from one person," Saletta declared during Tuesday night's regular session of the Belleville Board of Commissioners.

"I've put in 10 years in the town — four on the commission and six on the School Board," he added, "I think I've put my time in."

Saletta's announcement came as a surprise to his colleagues who had expected him to seek "what would have been his second four-year term as a town commissioner. He was released this week from Clara-Mass Memorial Hospital where he had been confined because of what he describes as "tension" and "shortness of breath."

Saletta said newspaper articles including one in the Times/News last week had exaggerated his illness. News reports said his hospitalization was due to a heart seizure.

"I was in the intensive care unit only because there wasn't room in another ward at Clara Maass that could provide the proper monitor for my use," Saletta said.

Asked whether he would continue to be involved in town activities, the retiring commissioner said, "I'm not quitting. I'm just not running for reelection. But don't worry. You'll still hear from me."

MAYOR MICHAEL MAROTI commended Saletta publicly at Tuesday night's commission session. "It's been a pleasure working with you," the mayor said. "You're truly a man of your own thoughts."

Both Commissioners Mary Senatore and Vincent Strumolo expressed pleasure in working with Saletta while Finance Director Joseph Mc Greedy added, "He knows how I feel about him. I've always sat up here trying to keep him calm."

During and following the meeting, many citizens approached Saletta to commend him on his work and express their gratitude. John Charles of Cortlandt Avenue shook the commissioner's hand saying, "You were the surest winner here."

Looking back, Saletta stressed that he was proud of his department. The men and women involved with Public Safety all do a damn good job," he said.

Explosive acid removed at BHS

U. S. Army bomb disposal teams have been working overnight throughout New Jersey in removing potentially explosive picric acid from high school laboratories, but in Belleville, the problem was handled by the town's one-man fire prevention bureau.

Capt. Edward Dunleavy of the Belleville Fire Department was alerted to the fact that crystallized picric acid was stored in a science laboratory at the high school.

"We removed the acid without fanfare," Dunleavy reports. "We waited until the students were out of the school last Thursday afternoon and then I went in and removed one mason jar, maybe 12 ounces, of the acid which had crystallized."

The acid in crystallized form is potentially explosive, so much so that a state bulletin warns that even turning a screwed on cap of a vial containing the substance could easily trigger an explosion.

The Belleville fire captain said he constructed his own protective device used to remove the acid. Attendance at Belleville High School was unusually low last Thursday because of the snow storm.

Dunleavy also visited other Belleville schools and this week was checking local pharmacies for picric acid. He praised the Belleville High School administration and especially Mrs. Bess Elspathou, science department chairman, for their cooperation.

While Belleville removed the acid "without the rigamarole like some other schools," U. S. Army bomb disposal teams from Fort Monmouth and Fort Dix have been dispatching units to scholastic laboratories throughout the state since the "picric scare" began in New Jersey two weeks ago. The Army's work has been reported daily in page one articles in the New Jersey press.

Belleville critical of school trustees

By Mike Olohan

Belleville schools should emphasize social health focusing on sex education and the problems of drugs and crime. That's what an overwhelming 93 percent of 1,240 residents replying to a study done by the Community School Survey Committee say.

The survey committee was formed last spring to take the "grass-roots pulse" of Belleville and spent more than a year preparing its report.

Residents were asked to respond to 62 statements on an "opinionnaire" devised by the committee. Criticism that many statements are "positively" slanted and that local teachers, protecting their jobs, may have influenced the results were discounted by Survey Committee Chairman Joe Aulisi.

Over 75 percent of the respondents, 600 of whom had children in

Emergency meeting to be held tonight

The last emergency meeting of the Planning Board to hear community feedback on the new zoning ordinance will be held tonight at 7:30 in Town Hall.

The Planning Board set up the meeting and another last Thursday in order to collect suggestions and complaints on the new ordinance which they will submit to the Board of Commissioners for evaluation.

Copies of the new ordinance and zoning map are available for observation at the clerk's office.

the schools, felt drug abuse exists in the schools, underlining the importance of preventive education programs. About 50 people showed up at the high school Tuesday night to listen as the surprising and sometimes shocking findings were read.

Citizens split evenly over whether Belleville teachers "are placing the right emphasis" on critical thinking skills, with 23 percent undecided. After the three-hour presentation on the perceived strengths and weaknesses of Belleville's schools, trustees declined to discuss specifics, although Matt Pica called for quick action in using the report to shape board priorities.

"If we don't take action after this, then shame on us and I mean the whole board," said Pica. "There are some areas we'd like to correct overnight, but we can't," he added.

A majority of citizens felt the board does not act "in the best interest" of the community which "shocked" Trustee Mike Chieffo who called for "better communication" between trustees and citizens.

Thirty-four versus 27 percent of residents noted the board does not conduct meetings in a "businesslike and efficient" way, with 34 percent undecided. Trustees however, claim "poor public relations" has caused their bad image.

Board members urge more local involvement with schools and increased participation at board meetings in addition to public criticism to improve the schools.

Planners to give verdict on Pathmark by March 8

The Planning Board says it will reach a final decision March 8 on whether or not to favorably recommend that Pathmark be given municipal permits to construct a shopping mall on Washington Avenue near the Nutley line.

Planners reviewed the Pathmark proposal during a detailed session last Thursday here.

"We hope to come to some kind of a consensus at the next meeting," Chairman Joseph Grande said. "I don't want to keep putting this issue off."

Only two major complaints stirred the meeting, one raised by resident Ted Machenski concerning drainage problems near 750 Washington Avenue where he lives.

"Washington Avenue is a flood area now," Machenski said. "That area floods heavily at least two or three times a year."

Ernest Chrisbacher, engineer for Shopping Center Developers Ltd., reported the drainage in the Washington Avenue area would only be "slightly" changed by construction of the proposed new mall.

"If it is an existing flooded area, the town should look into more drain inlets," Chrisbacher told the Planning Board.

Although Neil Siciliano, the Planning Board's new consulting engineer was not present at the site plan review, Siciliano did send a letter of his findings to the Planning Board. Among points mentioned by the new consulting engineer were draining problems at the King Street-Washington Avenue area, on Washington Avenue and Pathmark attorney Lawrence Berger mentioned.

He argued that with the opening further into the problems of the new mall, his business would suffer in light of the extreme addition of traffic.

The second and more lengthy discussed complaint stemmed from the traffic situation that might develop should the proposed mall be constructed on the former Westinghouse plant site.

William Tatz, a Wayne resident who owns the Manufactured Food Products plant on Railroad Place, complained that existing traffic often causes his business to close.

"Many days it's impossible for my workers to hack out of the building because of the heavy traffic

One Step Beyond — The New Jersey Telephone Company, which services Belleville, makes another step in progress by providing speedier phone repair service with the aid of a new computer system. In the new system, information on the caller will automatically be displayed on video terminals as shown above.

Belleville will receive speedier phone service

Starting tomorrow, Belleville residents can enjoy faster telephone repair service by the New Jersey Telephone Company, Newark.

New Jersey Bell announced that Belleville, along with neighboring towns of North Arlington, Kearny, Harrison and parts of Newark, will be aided by a new computer network to centralize and speed repair service for telephones.

A total of 137,000 telephones, both business and residence, will be served by the new system. Customers will continue to call "611" for emergency repair, but calls will be channeled through a new computer system.

Under the new system, Belleville emergency calls are handled by employees in a centralized repair bureau in New Jersey's computer center in Madison. The computer system supplies information on repairs for each line that was previously stored on cards in large open files in the regional repair offices.

When a customer calls to ask for repair service, the operator is able to look up information on the line instantly by using a computerized video screen. The operator can then determine how the problem may be handled and order needed repairs.

"In addition to speeding repair service we can often provide the customer with more detailed information as well," Langendorfer said.

"If, for example, there has been a problem involving a number of phone lines," he added, "we will be able to tell the caller instantly that we are alerted to the problem and give a time when we expect service to be restored."

New Jersey Bell also revealed that by 1981, the new repair service will extend throughout the entire state.

Dealer Appointed — Belleville Pontiac President Ralph LaMorte has been named to the board of directors of the Metropolitan New York and New Jersey Pontiac Dealers Association. Representing more than 85 New York and New Jersey area Pontiac dealers, the association coordinates promotional activities for its members.

ASK RITA

Comments and letters can be sent to RITA, care of the TIMES/NEWS, 108 Greylock Ave., Belleville, N.J. 07109. Letters may be signed or submitted anonymously. Rita is a social worker at the town's Juvenile Aid Bureau. Her weekly column is geared to those problems facing adolescents, their parents and anyone else dealing with teenagers.

Dear Rita,

I would like some information on birth control. Where can I go for this?

BETTER SAFE THAN SORRY

Dear BETTER SAFE,

There are two conveniently located Planned Parenthood Clinics nearby. There is one at 205 Clairmont Avenue (corner of North Fullerton and Park) in Montclair and their phone number is 783-4700. There is another one on 15 William Street, Newark and their phone number is 622-3900.

I would suggest calling to make an appointment and to get information. Generally speaking, you would call and find out when they are having their clinics. You would then go in and learn about the different methods of birth control. You could then speak to a counselor to help you decide what form would be best for you. You would then receive a physical examination by a physician. If you are already pregnant, they would refer you to an appropriate agency. Planned Parenthood will never turn anyone away, and they charge you whatever you can afford.

If you do believe in being better safe than sorry, don't hesitate to call for information.

RITA

Zoning ordinance

Recently the Belleville Town Commissioners adopted a new zoning ordinance and map. Essentially, the new zoning ordinance was the product of the Planning Board.

As expected, complaints have come in from citizens affected by zoning changes. Planning Board Chairman Joseph Grande commented: "We are not here to hurt anyone. We are only trying to look out for the Town of Belleville."

Grande is one of the more qualified and dedicated public servants with a long history of community involvement.

On the whole, the Belleville Planning Board is of better quality than the Nutley Planning Board. The Belleville Planning Board enjoys top quality members and is among the most respected bodies in Belleville.

The new document was never meant to be perfect.

Thursday night another in a series of public meetings has been scheduled for the municipal building at which time the Belleville Planning Board will listen to citizens' comments with a view toward amending the new zoning ordinance and map if it can be proven that amendments will contribute to a better quality of life for Belleville citizens.

The new zoning ordinance and map have not been cast in concrete. The Town Commissioners have pledged to make changes on their own if such changes are meritorious.

We would advise citizens injured by the new zoning ordinance to remember the Belleville Planning Board and the Town Commissioners are on their side. Complaining citizens should be cautioned against an adversary role when they appear before the Belleville Planning Board and the Town Commissioners. They must remember they are appearing before a group of neighbors, taxpayers, and friends. The discussion should be within the framework of a friendly atmosphere — for the Belleville Planning Board members serve without salary and a great personal sacrifice of family life and personal time.

Saletta is okay

We are happy to report that Public Safety Commissioner Rocco Saletta is rapidly recovering from a mild health setback which occurred last week.

It was erroneously reported that Commissioner Saletta had suffered a heart seizure. Although Saletta has a history of two heart seizures over the past four years, a cardiac insufficiency is not a heart attack. All Rocco needed was a couple of days rest, back to back. He is getting them now and we are pleased to report his hospitalization was a matter of days and he will soon be up and about tending to the cares and woes of our people in his capacity of public safety director.

Saletta is an official of the Public Service Electric & Gas Company holding down the position of office administrator at the Passaic Main Office of the utility.

Saletta is one of that rare breed of Belleville citizens who give their hearts and souls to the people they represent and asking nothing in return. Able and totally dedicated, Rocco Saletta is a credit to Belleville, and we wish him long life with good health.

D'Agostino — excellent choice

Last week, Anthony D'Agostino, a Newark elementary school principal, was appointed to replace Lawrence Schwartz who resigned from the Belleville Board of Education.

Schwartz was a unique public employee, extremely talented and dedicated. It is doubtful that anyone appointed or elected could fill the shoes of Lawrence Schwartz. However, in D'Agostino, Belleville's school population will be served well.

D'Agostino comes with excellent credentials and a history of community involvement. In his statement of acceptance, D'Agostino said he would be a candidate for full term at the April election. This bodes well for Belleville.

Senior Notes

By GEORGE CHENOWETH

According to the information received at this desk, President Carter is about ready to ask Congress to wipe out many of the provisions in Social Security that are now helping the retired, the widows, the orphans and the handicapped. This would come about if congress allows these drastic cuts, to Social Security, in his new budget. This would add up to a devious theft of benefits that you have been paying for all of your working life. One cut that stands out above all others is the elimination of the $225 lump sum payable to your family in the event of your death. The proposal to Congress, if successful, could be one of the most callous betrayals of our senior citizens since the Social Security Act went into effect in 1934. Last year the President asked for and got a Social Security tax increase which was supposed to take care of existing levels of Social Security benefits well into the year 2000. Now he plans to take away benefits that we have already paid for. What have we done to deserve this kind of treatment?

Prominent news stories of today include reports of an investigation of insurance companies who oversell insurance to senior citizens. By oversell we mean selling more than is needed for adequate coverage. Unscrupulous salesmen for certain companies (ten in our state) are using high pressure scare tactics to sell insurance to the elderly. The blame for this, of course, lies partly on the insurance companies. It would be unfair to say that they are entirely to blame because the senior citizens themselves should know whether or not they have enough coverage. If there is any doubt in any seniors mind it would be well to ask a family friend or family member for advice before signing up for an additional insurance policy. Medicare Parts A and B still pay 80% of allowable charges for hospital and doctor's bills after an initial payment. One supplemental insurance policy that would pay the difference, 20% of doctor's bills and the down payment to the new rate of $160 for the first 60 days in the hospital, should be enough in most cases. Statistics show that 92% of all hospital stays are less than 60 days. The ideal situation, of course, would be to have enough put aside for a rainy day and enough insurance so that we would not be a burden on anyone else, family included. Keeping in mind that some funds, besides allowing for the necessities of life, should be used for recreation. This too is a panacea for a happy mental attitude. Our longevity is sometimes determined by our feelings towards others and a happy outlook has been known to do wonders for your health.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Surprises! Surprises! We in Belleville never seem to run out of them when it comes to the workings of our elected governing officials. If it isn't the commissioners coming up with something unexpected, we sure can look forward to our school trustees to furnish us with something to think about.

After reading the Belleville Times-News issue of Feb. 7th, which was delivered on Thursday as it is supposed to be, and digesting the various accounts of significance concerning the community activities for the previous week I realized an annoying feeling of emptiness... a gaping void such as one experiences on expecting a full course dinner and only being served dessert... my copy of the Nutley Sun, the flagship of publisher Frank Orechio's fleet of publications, also scheduled for delivery on the same day as the Times-News hadn't come. Drats! I peevishly complained about the mail delivery.

Despite increased postal rates and claims of more efficient service, we still feel that some carriers regard their routes as their own personal fiefdom and decide to serve their own whim and fancy as to when they will deliver what and when; All to the chagrin and frustration of publishers and advertisers whose ads aren't reaching their patrons on time. Newark Postmaster Joe Benucci please note... if these employees don't like their job or feel they're "bigger" than the rules they are expected to observe then let them quit or you do what is expected of you.

Well! Not getting the paper wasn't any surprise, but, what was in the Nutley weekly when it came the next day (delivered by an extra man whom the regular mailman probably "palm'd off" on his sub to get out of work) WAS... SCREAMING FRONT PAGE HEADLINES "Charge Plan Would End Home Rule (NUTLEY) TRUSTEES HERE TO FIGHT COUNTY SCHOOL SYSTEM."

A page one Nutley Sun news digest captioned "TRUSTEE OUTRAGE: (reads) The Nutley Board of Education will spearhead a drive to stop creation of a county-wide school district... 'It's another form of bureaucracy formed by leeches who aren't going to live off Nutley taxpayers' money.' was the way Trustee Jerry Restaino reacted to the district plan. Another Trustee said formation of the county district would lead to a serious erosion of home rule. Consensus views of the Nutley school trustees contend those behind the county district committee are taking a "join or die" attitude. Nutley will either become a member of the committee or be on the outside when it enters into cooperatives for special education and remedial programs for parochial school students. The move, said Nutley school trustee Mrs. Imhoff, smacks of "1984."

The most pronounced fear of the Nutley School Board members is that for Nutley, and 18 other school districts mostly in suburban areas, that they will be "trapped" into participating if more than the present six school districts should join the new county-wide plan. None of Nutley's Board members like the idea. They regard it as a happening whereby 15 percent of the county would be determining what happens to the other 85 percent of the students.

Dr. Howard White, Essex County School Superintendent, says the new Essex Educational Services Commission has already become a reality with six member districts. The Nutley school heads fear a complete takeover of local schools which in effect becomes an encompassing Essex County Board of Education. They were startled and violently annoyed when told that one of the new handicapped programs would be housed in Nutley schools calling the proposal offensive.

We agree with the strong position taken by the Nutley Board of Education. Could you just imagine what will happen in Belleville with all the empty room in three of our schools that should be closed and the school system redesigned? Couldn't that lead to the "nightmare" of busing and related problems? NO YOU THINK. You might be mistaken. Why? Because at the Nov. 27, 1978 Belleville School Board meeting a resolution sponsored by Trustee Caesar Romano and seconded by Ernie Zoppi was adopted unanimously whereby the Belleville school district joined this new Essex Educational Services Commission becoming one of the present six making up the already existing reality the County Superintendent announced.

This is the kind of shattering "dumb-founding" shock and surprise the people of Belleville could do without. How much confidence can we repose in public officials who did such a thing? Why were we, again, never told about this move that took place three months ago?

Dear Umberto:

Not too long ago you told of some lady with a frosting problem. In your column I didn't pay attention because I go to a reputable place for my frosting. Of course I didn't tell him what to do. Now my hair is too light to suit me. The bottom is extremely blonde. He obviously didn't follow your recommendation and skip rows to frost the bottom.

On my tropical vacation last week, I went swimming. To make matters worse, it seems the salt and sun-colored my hair. What should I do?

Your Discolored Frosted Dear Discolored:

If the place is reputable, you shouldn't be afraid to make suggestions. Reputation is achieved by satisfying customers. A sage old man once said that "You never know enough." It is true. Roux has on the market a product called Gentle Blonde Lotion Toner, non-peroxide. Choose a desired shade and apply to your wet hair for 20 minutes. Rinse with light shampoo. I suggest you purchase a pint bottle for subsequent applications. The cost is less than $5.00.

Miss Lucille MacDonald weds John Jachim of Toms River

Miss Lucille MacDonald, daughter of Mrs. Florence MacDonald of 2 Gonnelli St., Nutley, has become the bride of John Jachim, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jachim of Toms River. The bride is a recently retired court clerk for the town of Nutley.

The couple were united in a celebrated nuptial mass in Holy Family Church. Participating were the Rev. Robert Cozzini of Holy Family, the Rev. Anthony Palmese of Most Holy Crucifix Church, New York; the Rev. Joseph Rice of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, Linden and the Rev. Thomas Stanford of St. Paul's Rectory, Jersey City. A reception followed at Friar Tuck Inn, Cedar Grove.

A cloche covered with silk flowers held her fingertip veil and she carried gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Florence Monaco of Nutley was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids included the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Patricia MacDonald of Rutherford, her cousins, Mrs. Carol Calo, Mrs. Angel Andreotta, Mrs. Rosalie Frazier and Mrs. Angela Kircher, all of Nutley and the groom's sister, Mrs. Patricia

Pope of Toms River.

The honor attendant wore a copper Quana gown with fur trimmed cape, a headpiece of fresh daisies and carried roses, mums and daisies. The others, similarly attired in forest green, carried mums and daisies.

Richard Jachim of Colonia was his brother's best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, William MacDonald of Rutherford, the groom's brother-in-law, Fred Pope of Toms River, James Langan and Jack Langan of Bloomfield, Anthony Graziulis of Roselle and Daniel Soratelli of Colonia.

Mrs. MacDonald chose a mint green Quana gown with chiffon over cape. Her corsage was of mint green orchids. The groom's mother, in a peach Quana gown with matching cape, also had an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Jachim attended Nutley High School and is a former court clerk in Nutley Municipal Court.

Mr. Jachim, a graduate of Woodbridge High School, is with C.E. Lummus Company in Nutley.

The wedding took place Oct. 7 with newspaper announcements withheld until this week at the couple's request.

Early filing of tax returns fastest way to get refunds

Taxpayers who file federal income tax returns early in the season will get their refunds in less time than those who file closer to the April 16 deadline, the Internal Revenue Service says.

Due to the lower volume of returns processed in January and February taxpayers who file during those months may expect to receive their refunds in four to five weeks, according to the IRS. Those who do not file until April may wait as long as eight weeks for their refunds.

The IRS also cautions taxpayers to double check their returns, especially the computations, before filing. Errors on returns can delay any refund due.

Taxpayers can also save time this year by checking their tax instructions, which are keyed to lines on the form for easier reference. The instructions often can lead a taxpayer to some overlooked deductions, according to the IRS.

Zoning ordinance

Recently the Belleville Town Commissioners adopted a new zoning ordinance and map. Essentially, the new zoning ordinance was the product of the Planning Board.

As expected, complaints have come in from citizens affected by zoning changes. Planning Board Chairman Joseph Grande commented: "We are not here to hurt anyone. We are only trying to look out for the Town of Belleville."

Grande is one of the more qualified and dedicated public servants with a long history of community involvement.

Prominent news stories of today include reports of an investigation of insurance companies who oversell insurance to senior citizens. By oversell we mean selling more than is needed for adequate coverage. Unscrupulous salesmen for certain companies (ten in our state) are using high pressure scare tactics to sell insurance to the elderly. The blame for this, of course, lies partly on the insurance companies. It would be unfair to say that they are entirely to blame because the senior citizens themselves should know whether or not they have enough coverage. If there is any doubt in any seniors mind it would be well to ask a family friend or family member for advice before signing up for an additional insurance policy. Medicare Parts A and B still pay 80% of allowable charges for hospital and doctor's bills after an initial payment. One supplemental insurance policy that would pay the difference, 20% of doctor's bills and the down payment to the new rate of $160 for the first 60 days in the hospital, should be enough in most cases. Statistics show that 92% of all hospital stays are less than 60 days. The ideal situation, of course, would be to have enough put aside for a rainy day and enough insurance so that we would not be a burden on anyone else, family included. Keeping in mind that some funds, besides allowing for the necessities of life, should be used for recreation. This too is a panacea for a happy mental attitude. Our longevity is sometimes determined by our feelings towards others and a happy outlook has been known to do wonders for your health.

Plan Belleville tea to honor Mrs. Cowell

A tea to honor Mrs. Ruth Cowell's 20th year as executive director of the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley will be given Thursday, March 1, at 1 p.m. in the Belleville home of Mrs. Irene Decker.

The clinic's women's auxiliary is planning a special tribute to Mrs. Cowell and has invited the participation of mayors, commissioners, councilmen and other officials of the three sponsoring towns.

Mrs. Cowell has been instrumental in initiating several of the programs at the clinic which provide special care for clients in the tri-town area. The full service agency provides treatment for children and adults. Services include a therapeutic nursery school, summer day camp, big brother and big sister programs, after-care and transitional care as well as consultation and education services for teachers, nurses, ministers and social workers, who in the course of their own work deal with others who are troubled.

Included in the afternoon's program will be a brief talk by Mrs. Cowell concerning the future of the clinic. Staff members will also be on hand for informal questions during a refreshment period. A large turnout of members and friends of the auxiliary is anticipated.

Mignon Thorpe, auxiliary president, will introduce the staff and other special officials.

Optimists to honor wives at dinner program tonight

Belleville Optimist Club, which sponsors the Cardinal Belles, reports enough money was raised at a Jan. 27 exhibition to purchase new drill team uniforms in time for the coming season.

Beside the Belles, drill teams throughout the east coast participated in the January program.

Optimists tonight will honor members' wives at a dinner program at the Branch Brook Manor.

A week from tonight, Feb. 22, the club will sponsor an oratorical contest for boys and girls in the sixth and seventh grades from all Belleville schools. Winners will go on to the zone final which will be held April 26.

Maryanne Argieri and Leonard DeFilippo

Miss Argieri to wed Leonard DeFilippo

Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Argieri of 432 Greylock Parkway announce the engagement of their daughter, Maryanne, to Leonard DeFilippo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald DeFilippo of East Hanover.

Mr. DeFilippo, an alumnus of East Hanover High School and Wilfred's is also a hair dresser. The wedding will be held in April 1980.

Umberto's Corner

Dear Umberto:

Not too long ago you told of some lady with a frosting problem in your column. I didn't pay attention because I go to a reputable place for my frosting. Of course I didn't tell him what to do. Now my hair is too light to suit me. The bottom is extremely blonde. He obviously didn't follow your recommendation and skip rows to frost the bottom.

On my tropical vacation last week, I went swimming. To make matters worse, it seems the salt and sun discolored my hair. What should I do?

Your Discolored Frosted

Dear Discolored:
If the place is reputable, you shouldn't be afraid to make suggestions. Reputation is achieved by satisfying customers. A single old man once said that "You never know enough." It is true. Roux has on the market a product called Gentle Blonde Lotion Toner, non-peroxide. Choose a desired shade and apply to your wet hair for 20 minutes. Rinse with light shampoo. I suggest you purchase a pint bottle for subsequent applications. The cost is less than $5.00.

Miss Lucille MacDonald weds John Jachim of Toms River

Miss Lucille MacDonald, daughter of Mrs. Florence MacDonald of 2 Gonnelli St., Nutley, has become the bride of John Jachim, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jachim of Toms River. The bride is a recently retired court clerk for the town of Nutley.

The couple were united in a celebrated nuptial mass in Holy Family Church. Participating were the Rev. Robert Cozzini of Holy Family, the Rev. Anthony Palmese of Most Holy Crucifix Church, New York, the Rev. Joseph Rice of St. Thomas the Apostle Church Linden and the Rev. Thomas Stanford of St. Paul's Rectory, Jersey City. A reception followed at Friar Tuck Inn, Cedar Grove.

A cloche covered with silk flowers held her fingertip veil and she carried gardenias and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Florence Monaco of Nutley was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids included the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Patricia MacDonald of Rutherford, her cousins, Mrs. Carol Calo, Mrs. Angel Andreotta, Mrs. Rosalie Frazier and Mrs. Angela Kircher, all of Nutley and the groom's sister, Mrs. Patricia

Pope of Toms River.

The honor attendant wore a copper Qiana gown with fur trimmed cape, a headpiece of fresh daisies and carried roses, pinks and daisies. The others, similarly attired in forest green, carried mums and daisies.

Richard Jachim of Colonia was his brother's best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, William MacDonald of Rutherford, the groom's brother-in-law, Fred Pope of Toms River, James Langan and Jack Langan of Bloomfield, Anthony Grzulius of Roselle and Daniel Seratelli of Colonia.

Mrs. MacDonald chose a mint green Qiana gown with chiffon over cape. Her corsage was of mint green orchids. The groom's mother, in a peach Qiana gown with matching cape, also had an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Jachim attended Nutley High School and is a former court clerk in Nutley Municipal Court.

Mr. Jachim, a graduate of Woodbridge High School, is with C.E. Lunnum Company in Nutley. The wedding took place Oct. 7 with newspaper announcements withheld until this week at the couple's request.

Early filing of tax returns fastest way to get refunds

Taxpayers who file federal income tax returns early in the season will get their refunds in less time than those who file closer to the April 16 deadline, the Internal Revenue Service says.

Due to the lower volume of returns processed in January and February taxpayers who file during those months may expect to receive their refunds in four to five weeks, according to the IRS. Those who do not file until April may wait as long as eight weeks for their refunds.

The IRS also cautions taxpayers to double check their returns, especially the computations, before filing. Errors on returns can delay any refund due.

Taxpayers can also save time this year by checking their tax instructions, which are keyed to lines on the form for easier reference. The instructions often can lead a taxpayer to some overlooked deductions, according to the IRS.

Fashion show set tomorrow

Bosary Altar Society of Immaculate Conception Church, Woodside and Montclair, Avenues, Newark, will sponsor a champagne party and fashion show tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the church hall.

Fashions by Arlene of Harrison and entertainment by Rambling Sam will be featured. Donation is $5 and tickets are available at the rectory, reports Joan Luisi, the chairman. Tickets will not be available at the door, Mrs. Luisi notes.

Good fans cheer during hard times

Last Friday night, the Belleville High School gym was filled to capacity. The fans were loud and very much into what was going on. If you weren't there or had no idea what was taking place in the gym, you would probably have assumed that there was a wrestling match in progress.

You would probably never have assumed that what was going on in the gym last Friday night was a basketball game, but it was. Surprised? Shocked? Should be more the word. Do you mean to say that Belleville would fill the gym to watch a basketball game?

After all, an average crowd at a Belleville basketball game usually consists of five wrestlers, four fans, three juniors, two referees, and a partridge in a pear tree. But when I mentioned basketball, you probably thought it was a high school game. Right?

Well the Belleville High basketball team had nothing to do with this game. Last Friday night, the game was between the faculty of the junior high school and the faculty of the senior high. The way the fans were yelling you might have thought an NBA championship was being played there. This was the second annual contest. Last year fans were being turned away at the gates. This year a good 1,300 persons turned out for the game.

Proceeds from the event went to the high school football program and to a scholarship program, without a doubt worthy causes. The faculty played the game aggressively and with a great deal of enthusiasm. So far this all sounds perfect. The event draws a great deal of fan interest.

Earlier in the day, there was a high school game between Belleville and Nutley at the BHS gym. The place was so empty that the partridge in the pear tree didn't show up. Why isn't there an interest in this sport and this level?

Probably because the team is 4-14. But do you have to be 15-2 in order to draw a decent crowd? The saddest part is that the Nutley game was the Bucs' last home contest of the season.

I remember a basketball game five years ago when Belleville played the Cougars at Columbia. The Belleville were enjoying their finest season in 15 years and the Cougars were 0-11. So what happened? The gym was completely filled. The band was performing on the court before the game. When the Columbia players were introduced they all received standing ovations. The crowd was treating the game like the Essex County Tournament final.

Their team lost 70-53 as Belleville broke a close game open with a late rally. But the enthusiasm was unbelievable. That Columbia team wasn't one third as good as Belleville's, but with so much support the Cougars just seemed to rise to the occasion.

Just because a team doesn't win that many games, what would be wrong with giving it a little support anyway? The kids played hard all year and gave every ounce of strength they could. The Bucs gave Hoboken, the number five team in the state at one time, a tremendous game. They recently lost to Passaic, also ranked in the top 20 in the state, by five points. That particular contest was tied with a minute left.

It seems as if the fans are punishing the team because it doesn't win consistently. To most people, the Bucs will just be known as a 4-14 club. It's true that winning is great, but does a winner always have to score the most points?

Next year, Belleville High School will employ a double session. The ninth grade is being moved from the junior high to the senior high. There will be two shifts. The juniors and seniors will attend classes from 7:55 to 11:45. The freshmen and sophomores will be in from 11:45 to 3:45.

From a sports point of view, this will produce disaster. If school doesn't let out until 3:45, practice sessions cannot commence until at least 4 p.m.

Let's examine what this will mean.

In the fall, the football squad can only practice with juniors and seniors for an hour and a half. The sophomores (who are this year's 9-0 freshman squad) won't be able to hit the field until at least 4. The tennis team will also suffer. It waits until 4, that means it will only have an hour of daylight to work with. The tennis team is mainly comprised of freshmen and sophomores.

In the winter things will get worse. There is one gym at Belleville High School. There are three teams needing its facilities, not counting the wrestling team. If practice doesn't start until 4, then the last team to get out of the gym won't be out until at least 8:30 p.m. Say for instance the boys have the gym first. If they practice from 4:15-6:15 that means the girls can use the gym from 6:15 until about 8:15 or later.

What isn't being mentioned is the 'javee' teams from the boys' and girls' squads. They will have to practice with the varsity, thus making conditions a bit more cramped. On top of all this, the wrestling team will never have a chance to use the gym until its scheduled matches. It is using the cafeteria as a practice spot now. If the weather is bad then instead of running outside, the wrestlers must run in the hall. After all, running is essential to wrestling.

In the spring, light will once again be a problem. If the baseball, tennis or track teams have away contests, that means they cannot leave Belleville until 4. That is also rush hour time. If the opposing team's school is 20 minutes away, then the event cannot start until at least 4:30. It gets dark in April and May at about 5:30. It would seem very difficult to support 2,000 students in one school. True, there will be additional classroom space thanks to the addition to the school, but the fact remains that there will still be one cafeteria, one gym and one library for all those students. Academics don't end with algebra, Spanish and chemistry. A good educational background also consists of a good athletic program. Belleville has started to climb back up from the area sports pit. It would be a shame to see the Bucs slipping down again.

Finally this bright note. Senior Angelo Santinelli, co-captain of this year's 6-3 football team and an excellent wrestler, has been named winner of the Brian Piccolo award. The award is given to the top scholar-athlete in Essex County. Angelo was named first team, all county for his play at the center position. In addition he is in the top 3 percent of his class and hopes to attend Cornell University next fall. He is a worthy recipient of this award.

Cagers lose two more; Martin out for season

By Mike Lambert

Last week was a complete disaster for the Belleville Buccaneers basketball team.

The week started off with a 74-46 loss to Irvington. That was the good part. It ended with a 58-49 loss to arch-rival Nutley that saw Buc center Pete Martin, the team's high scorer this year, suffer a broken foot at the end of the third quarter. Martin will miss the team's last three games of the year.

On Tuesday, the Bucs traveled to Kearny for a 3:45 p.m. tipoff. The results of that contest were in too late for this edition of the Times/News. Tomorrow night, they will face Columbia at Columbia starting 8 p.m. The team concludes the 1978-79 season when it travels to North Arlington for a contest with Queen of Peace next Tuesday. Game time is 8 p.m.

Against Irvington, the Bucs fell behind early and were never in the contest. It was practically a carbon copy of last week's game against Irvington. The Campers came out on top of that one too 71-52.

Irvington led 16-7 at the end of the first frame and stretched that lead to 33-19 at the half. If there was any doubt about which the better team was it was dispelled in the third frame. The Campers roared by the Bucs 20-10 and led 53-29 as the last frame commenced. The Bucs played relatively even ball in the last period, being outscored 21-17, and came out on the short end of a 74-46 count.

Pete Martin led the team with 19 points. Sophomore Wayne Bubet scored 10. Garry Ferrar had seven, Keith Isler four, Eddie Aulisi four and Bob Keeser two. Irvington had balanced scoring as Rick Smith led the way with 19 points. Mark Gibson had 16 and James Mansfield popped in 14.

Against Nutley, the Bucs played a great first quarter and a poor second frame. In the second half, the Raiders, who are enjoying their finest season in 15 years, wore the Bucs down and came away with the verdict.

The first quarter was Belleville's as it jumped out to a 6-0 lead and led 14-11 at the end of the frame. Nutley turned that situation around completely in the second quarter, outscoring the locals 11-4 and taking a 22-18 lead into halftime.

In the fatal third quarter, Nutley once again came out on top, this time 15-11 and led 37-29 as the last frame began. It was at the end of the third quarter that Martin suffered the injury. He and Nutley guard Glenn Cocchiola were trying for a loose ball. Cocchiola made it there a split second earlier and heaved a desperation shot at the buzzer. His momentum brought him down on top of Martin who had fallen on the play. Martin did not play the last quarter but was able to move the foot rather well. It was later on that X-rays showed the fracture and brought an end to Martin's season.

The Bucs played even ball with the Raiders in the last quarter but Nutley came away with a nine-point win.

Four players scored in double figures for Nutley. Cocchiola led all scorers with 15 points. Glen Darden had 14 and Bob Mackay and Tom Gaccione scored 11 points apiece.

Belleville was led by Keith Isler's 13 points. Wayne Bubet had 12, Martin and Ed Aulisi had six, Bob Wittman had three and Scott Jackson finished out scoring with two points.

Girls' good thing comes to an end with beatings at Irvington, Nutley

By Mike Lambert

Sooner or later it had to happen. The Belleville girls' basketball team had been operating like a fine surgeon on opposing teams all season long. Inevitably enough, the locals had the favor returned to them twice — last week.

The girls lost to Irvington 37-36, snapping a seven-game winning streak and bowed to Nutley last Friday 55-48. Sandwiched in between those two losses was a 57-34 rout of Kearny.

The team's record is now 14-4. On Tuesday, the squad completed the first round of the Essex County Coaches' Tournament at Belleville, but the results were in too late for this edition. The ladies' battle tomorrow with highly rated Columbia was postponed. A week from today the team was scheduled to host St. Aloysius in the girls' last regular-season game of the year.

Against Irvington, Belleville fell behind by 15 points and staged an incredible rally before falling short.

"Our injury situation has really hurt us," said head coach Karen Fuccello. "Irvington has a good team, and we had our hands full when we played them the first time (a 32-29 Belleville win). I just hope we can get over these injuries and illnesses by the time the ECCA starts."

Belleville trailed 24-9 at the half and cut the margin to 32-19 as the last quarter began. In the last frame, the team made a desperation rally, outscoring the Camperettes 17-5, but fell one-point short. Irvington's Tanya Alexander popped in two foul shots to seal the verdict.

The Kearny game was close for the first three quarters, but the Buc women went to work in the last period and put the game away. "We played our zone for the first three frames," said Fuccello. "In the last quarter he (the Kearny coach) went to the man-to-man defense, and it worked great for us."

Belleville led 38-29 going into the last frame. Behind the sharp shooting of senior Karen Portuense and Joyce Iacullo, the girls outscored the Kards 19-5 and coasted home. Portuense led the Buccanettes with 18 points, six in the last quarter. Iacullo had 17 with five in the last frame. Kearny was led by Sue Hansen who scored 22 points.

The next day the team traveled to Nutley to play the Raiderettes, a prospect Karen Fuccello wasn't too wild about. "We had to reschedule the Kearny game to Thursday because of our ECCA game on Tuesday," said the coach. "I don't like to play the games back to back, but in this case we were forced to and it worked to our disadvantage. Nutley has really improved and they worked great for us."

Matmen end season 6-2-1

The Belleville High School wrestling team had its two matches postponed last week. The match with Passaic Valley last Wednesday was put off because of the snowstorm, and last Saturday's confrontation with the Maroon Raiders was also postponed due to the impetuous break at Nutley High.

Thus the Bucs end the regular season with a 6-2-1 mark. Tomorrow night they will travel to Irvington to start the "second season," as head coach Gene D'Allesandro puts it. They will compete in the Essex County Tournament tomorrow night and all day Saturday.

Honda and Chief Motors remain undefeated in Rec hoop leagues

Belleville-Newark Honda remained the only undefeated team in Recreation Basketball League play last week as the Silver Lakers bumped off previously unbeaten Mickey Music.

The Lakers defeated Mickey Music 49-34 behind the scoring of Sam DeCapua (16 points) and Jim Tensfeldt (eight). DeCapua's 16 moved into second place in the individual scoring race with 120 points. David Cary led Mickey Music with 13 points.

Honda, meanwhile, upped its record to 8-0 by topping Guarino's 55-30. Robert Barbara (14 points), Lou DiPasquale (12) and Lou Ritacco (10) paced Honda's attack. League-leading scorer Dan Borgo was held to nine points, upping his total to 126. Steve Coffey, in third place in total league scoring, dropped in 17 points, upping his tally to 110.

Third-place Channel Lumber defeated DeBacco's 54-25. Pete Bukumys and Ralph Gallo with 11 points each and Shawn Bruce with 10, powered Channel to its sixth victory.

Ron Pennetti scored 19 points to lead Town Cottage to its fourth straight win, a 51-32 decision over Salvatore's Pizza. Tom O'Kean snub 17 points for the winners and George Kalas scored nine. Paul Bowles and Pasqual Morel scored nine apiece for Salvatore's.

Domenick was first in the age 15-17 backstroke in a time of 58.8 and second in the butterfly in 57.6. He was also part of a first-place relay team in 15:17.

Three Guys Pizza edged Giuliano's 44-43. Tom Agosta (15 points) and Mike Danksi (19) led the scoring for Three Guys, while Dave Calamonica (18) and Jim Giuliano (15) led the way for Giuliano's.

Men's League

With one week remaining in Men's Recreation Basketball League play, Chief Motors remains the only unbeaten team at 8-0. Chief thumped O.P.A.C. (3-5) 106-61, with five players scoring in double figures. Frank Petite had 27 points, Dan Dunn 20, Joe Dunn 19, Mike Cancelliere 18 and Tom Smith 16. O.P.A.C. was led by Jack Scura's 18 points.

In the battle for second place, Nanny's Cafe (6-2) handed Edward's Lounge (6-2) its second straight defeat by a 78-56 score. Nanny's was led by Bruce Gardner's 25 point, and John Machiaverna chipped in 19. William Hershend had 19 for Edward's.

The Jaycees (2-6) edged Half Penny Pub (4-4) 83-81. Joe Troise had 30 points and Steve Dondarski 28 for the Jaycees. R. Botch tallied 23 points and Walt Murray 20 for Half Penny Pub.

Charles Templeton lost 8-1 and Mike Lind, Mike Giuffrida and Ralph Woodcock were all pinned before Mike Pellacqua managed a 4-4 tie. Jim Racconelli was then pinned.

Belleville made a comeback, however, as Carmen Cerreto won 15-6 and Dave Steffinelli outpointed his opponent 10-2. Tony Lombardi recorded a fall, and Craig Mack was a winner 16-4. Ron Charles won a 2-0 decision to close out the scoring.

In addition to the 14 league weight class matches, other members of the Belleville squad were paired with Milburn wrestlers. Joe Sangio won 8-4, and Bill Templeton pinned his opponent. Phil Marrinaccio was victorious 9-3, but Derreck Lombardi lost 6-4.

Andrew Corannino won by a fall, and Guy Lennon took a 6-5 decision. Anthony Lopomo was edged 10-9, while Brian Pomponio won 10-6 and Bob Capici was defeated 8-6.

Belleville travels to West Essex tonight and will face Livingston, Maplewood and Cedar Grove before this month's end.

School 5 gets phone lessons from N.J. Bell

Students at School 5 recently spent two days learning the proper use of the telephone during a special program arranged by New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, Newark. Archibald Gallombardo, principal at School 5 on Adelaide Avenue in Belleville, contacted the company and inquired about any program geared to teach children how to use a coin-operated phone in case of an emergency.

Charles Seelinger, community relations manager at New Jersey Bell, arranged to have a telephone installer, Jim Holmes, and his supervisor Bob Parks spend two days training the entire school on the proper use of the telephone. Seelinger and his community relations team members designed the program to include teaching the children how to dial their home phone numbers and how to make emergency calls on a dialtone first pay phone without the use of a dime. The children were also given the opportunity to call their homes and speak to their mothers in a conversation that was heard over a loud speaker by all students. Both school faculty and parents expressed their pleasure in knowing the children have gained the knowledge to handle emergency calls.

Anyone Home? — Anthony Mastroeni, a kindergarten student at School 5, practices dialing a pay telephone as N.J. Bell employee Jim Holmes helps out before a group of intent classmates.

10-Cent Call — New Jersey Bell installation technician Jim Holmes shows first grader Chris Cole how to place a call using a coin telephone. The lesson was only a part of a two-day program from the company at School 5.

Phoning Fun — Tommy Johnson, a pupil in Mrs. Helen Bowman's kindergarten class, puts a dime in the coin telephone under installation technician Jim Holmes as School 5 classmates watch on.

Reflections — Tommy Johnson and other kindergarten pupils at Belleville School 5 cast their reflections on a New Jersey Bell coin telephone during a special two-day program to instruct the children how to properly use a telephone.

Parrillo's disco wins court okay to re-open

John Scott, may be meeting with ABC Director Joseph Lerner this week to review the first set of charges pressed by commissioners last November. Lerner could rule the disco closed again, but any such decision would be appealed immediately by Marra to the same Appellate Court panel.

Marra continues to express optimism the disco will remain open. He believes the town charges are without legal foundation.

Several residents from the disco's Harrison Street neighborhood attended Tuesday night's Town Commission meeting to report the crowd at Parrillo's this past weekend was relatively small, "probably because of the last minute advertising."

Neighbors also said they refused to speak or comment about Parrillo's during the meeting, "because it wouldn't help the matter."

Resident Nunzio Cupo, however, approached Commissioners about his disturbance with an article in the Sunday Star Ledger suggesting a link between Parrillo's and persons associated with organized crime.

Reportedly, a Belleville policeman moonlighting at Parrillo's has evidence that organized crime leaders were "giving orders" to bartenders and parking lot attendants. The ABC confirmed an investigation is underway to determine whether there are any "hidden owners" of the Belleville disco.

Cupo was upset, however, even to read a policeman was moonlighting at Parrillo's. "I think we should be ashamed to read of our Belleville police involved in this disco business," Cupo said.

Commissioner Saletta stressed that it was illegal for police to work in a liquor establishment and the moonlighting was stopped after the first night.

"My men only worked at the disco one night," Saletta said. "I don't know what you're reading between the lines of the article."

Saletta also said he didn't think that his men did anything wrong in working the one night. "I'm proud of my men for revealing the information and acting as they did."

Several audience members also spoke out and commended the policemen for their observance while moonlighting at Parrillo's.

IN OTHER BUSINESS at Tuesday night's commission session, the board voted unanimously to table an ordinance on lifting a moratorium on open air automobile dealers in Belleville after a lengthy discussion.

Michael Chieffo, school board member who owns Chief Motors on Washington Avenue, represented other open-air automobile dealers and complained that permitting more car lots in town would injure the value of their businesses.

Pathmark mall decision is promised for March 9

which Rodgers explained occurred between 7 and 8 p.m. 481 car trips could be made in and out of the mall area.

Rodgers also stated that more than one car a minute would turn off of Washington Avenue and into the mall parking lot.

Grace Harris, Belleville's professional planning consultant, did not seem satisfied with the traffic results and asked for more specific studies such as traffic flow angles into the two driveways from both directions of Washington Avenue.

Both Rodgers and Mrs. Harris stated they would confer on the traffic matters before the next March 8 meeting.

Mrs. Harris further pointed out that a Foto Mai would require a special variance along with pedestrians crossing the street into the shopping mall.

Rodgers explained that the State Highway Department would not see warrant for a traffic light on the avenue, but he did say there was a "possibility of a mid-block crossing."

Grande was disturbed by the underground parking lot and its access to the interior mall. According to Irwin Miller, project architect, there would be a large elevator and a stairway from the underground lot to the stores.

Grande and several other planners wanted facilities for the landscaped improved. Grande suggested a ramp be considered instead of a stairway. The attorney and architect agreed with that possibility and stated they would consider it.

Board members also suggested some type of illuminated signs showing entrances and exits and also the store name. Pathmark authorities agreed to include those stipulations on the site plan.

Pathmark developers agreed to meet with Grace Harris and provide material and research that the board suggested two weeks before the next meeting.

Grande revealed that the board would spend the next several weeks before the next meeting studying the site plan and contacting the Shopping Center Developers Ltd. for any other needed information.

The next Planning Board meeting on the proposed Pathmark interior mall on the old Westinghouse plant on Washington Avenue will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 8 at Town Hall.

YOUR MONEY.

INVESTMENT CHECKING

KEEPS IT EARNING INTEREST EVERY MINUTE.

These days your money needs all the help it can get. That's why First National State developed the Investment Checking Plan. So that you could keep all of your money working all of the time. Quite simply, Investment Checking is as close as we can come to legally paying interest on your checking account. And here's how it works for you and your money.

You have a combination of a Checking Account, a Savings Account and an Automatic Transfer System. You keep all of your money in your savings account right up to the time a check reaches the bank. Then we automatically transfer into your checking account the exact amount you need to cover your check. So your money earns interest right up to the minute the transfer is made.

And the rate of interest you earn is the highest rate any commercial bank is allowed to pay on regular savings - an Effective Annual Yield of 5.20% on 5% Annual Interest with interest compounded continuously on collected balances.*

The costs of the Investment Checking Plan are not much more than a Regular First National State Checking Account. And if you keep a minimum balance of $2,500 or more in your Investment Checking Plan we'll waive normal carrying charges.

So put your money to work with the Investment Checking Plan from First National State. It's one more reason why we're the One for your money.

*It is necessary to keep a minimum Investment Checking Plan balance of $500 to earn interest in any given month. Investment Checking is for individuals only.

Jim DiModica: ready to portray Elvis on film

By Donna Abate

There's one thing that the recent films "Death Wish," "Stepford Wives," "Crazy Joe," "Three Days Of The Condor" and even the popular TV series "Baretta" have in common. Each featured Belleville resident and actor Jimmy DiModica.

DiModica, well-known class clown of Belleville High, took an early interest in acting by pushing his way onto Hollywood sets during breaks in his sophomore and junior year at Belleville High.

Now, at the ripe age of 21, DiModica is anxiously waiting to hear about the upcoming film "King Of Rock n' Roll," which will depict the life of Elvis Presley. DiModica was called back by casters for his recent audition in the leading role.

Portraying Elvis is nothing new to DiModica since he has previously toured the area doing a self-created act on the late rock and roll king.

"I've been working on the Elvis act three years," the BHS graduate said. "I've been doing Elvis even before he died."

DiModica explained that unlike other Elvis impersonators, "he considers his act more developed and professional. I don't just act like Elvis. I try and actually become him on stage."

His performance, which will be presented at Belleville High School Wednesday, Feb. 28 at 8 p.m., DiModica acts all three phases of Elvis during his prime in the 50's, 60's and 70's.

"I demonstrate his different voice inflections in each era and I show how he changed physically as well," DiModica added.

Unlike the "impersonators," DiModica stressed that he goes beyond just an impersonation and injects his acting ability and research into the figure.

DiModica said he studied many films of Elvis' past movies and concerts and practices his different expressions and movements. Almost as Hal Holbrook portrays Mark Twain or William Windom depicts James Thurber, so Jimmy DiModica tributes Elvis Presley.

"My act comes from my heart," he said. "No one could give him a better or warmer tribute that he could deserve."

DiModica also explained that the act was "very emotional." He includes many of Elvis' top hits in his act such as "Hurt," "My Way," "How Great Thou Art" and "Love Me Tender."

Why does he concentrate on his Elvis Act? DiModica explained that he prefers his acting career and script writing to the act, but it "fills the gap in between waits for jobs and new opportunities."

"It helps me cope with what we call 'actor's pain,'" DiModica stressed. "It's all the waiting and wondering between jobs."

"I do hope that the legend of Elvis lives on," he added. "I hope my act will prove to many that he is still the king and always will be."

DiModica is currently fighting that "actor's pain" while he waits to hear the final words on his first movie script recently completed after a year of work.

He wrote the script about a neighborhood godfather and he considers the film a "realization drama."

The movie, entitled "A Few Kind Words For Gino," is a "realization drama" according to DiModica about a neighborhood godfather and the ups and downs of his life.

DiModica almost seems like a new Sylvester Stallone if a comparison must be made, but DiModica commented on that notion as well. "Stallone is very talented, but he's stereotyped and I hope not to fall in that category."

"Even with John Travolta, he only gets hubble gum roles," DiModica added. "He's only there to draw the kids into the theaters. He's like a serious Jerry Lewis."

He considers his acting ability and ambitions very versatile and commented that he is a "slave to ambition."

"It's a tough business, but when I heard Robert Blake received $140,000 a week, I decided to stick with it," DiModica joked.

DiModica, who was the BHS football quarterback in 1975, attended acting school at the New York Academy of Theatrical Arts. He also attended a prep school in Connecticut.

With all his credentials including appearing on "Donny And Marie," "Kojak" and a Don Kirshner tour with Phoebe Snow, DiModica's big ambition is to appear on "Saturday Night Live."

"Acting is number one, but comedy is truly my second love," he said.

DiModica attributes much of his Presley act's success to his "brilliant" guitarist and band, Sandy and The Wanderers, a 10-piece orchestra which accompanies him on stage.

"My biggest inspiration is my family," he stressed. "There's a strong love there and I couldn't enjoy what I do if my family didn't care as much as they do."

DiModica lives with his parents on Harrison Avenue, just near Parillo's Disco where he had been booked to appear last Thursday night. Due to a court order, the disco was closed, thus cancelling his performance.

With his credentials, his upcoming Elvis show at BHS Feb. 28, his versatility and ambition; DiModica's success in films and the launching of his motion picture script should be mere steps away.
