STILL SHORT ONE MEMBER

Board of Ed chooses Risoli new president

By Mike Olohan

The Belleville Board of Education, still one member shy, has elected three-year member Ralph Risoli its president and Ernie Zoppi its vice president. Trustee Michael Chieffo lost bids for both positions, the first 4-2, the second 5-1, Monday night.

Risoli, the town's registrar of vital statistics and a member of the Planning Board, got the votes of Trustees Anthony D'Agostino, Ernie Zoppi and Caesar Romano in addition to his own. The board's newest member, Charles Miele, elected in April, and Chieffo voted for Chieffo, who cited his five years' experience on the board as one of his qualifications for the presidency.

Risoli takes the place of former Board President Matthew Pica, who served eight-and-a-half years as a trustee, was elected to the Town Commission May 8.

It was expected trustees would select a replacement for Pica Monday, but that did not happen. Trustees decided to postpone at least until next Monday their vote for a successor.

To the disappointment of the 60 residents present at their meeting, board members tabled an appointment resolution and set this past Tuesday afternoon as the deadline for filing letters of consideration for the post.

Zoppi became vice president by a 5-1 vote, with only Chieffo, who voted for himself, opposed. Pica, who formally resigned Monday, did not vote in the elections.

Risoli said his election as president "is a tribute to our system, municipality and youth. It shows that if you have the determination to do something, you can do it."

"I sat alongside Matty for a year," Risoli continued. "It's going to be quite difficult to fill his shoes, but I'm sure as hell going to try."

"I'll do the very best, the very best I know how, to the very end," said Risoli whose term as president runs off year.

Both Risoli and Zoppi received loud applause from the citizens at Monday's meeting after the elections took place. Pica received a standing ovation when board members officially accepted his resignation.

In his resignation speech, Pica said, "My only advice to you gentlemen is that when you go to bed at night, your head should rest gentle on your pillow." Pica told board members see "Youth" on page 10.

Trustees criticized over desegregation

Belleville school trustees were criticized Monday for failing to tell local citizens how the School Board is complying with the state's desegregation mandate. The original compliance date was April 30, but several trustees say the state has now extended the deadline.

Trustees Caesar Romano and Ernie Zoppi, along with board attorney Frank Pomaco and School Superintendent Dr. John Greed, met with State Director of Equal Opportunity Nida Thomas April 16 to present a "personal letter" from Romano to Thomas.

The letter suggested three desegregation alternatives. Romano is declining any comment on the proposals, saying the letter "was a personal communication."

"The people have a right to know what's going on with this desegregation," said Cora Boyce, who resigned from the board's desegregation "hot-line" committee. Boyce charged board members have "superseded" the advice given by the nine-member committee.

Trustee Michael Chieffo, chairman of the hot-line committee, said Boyce "acted hastily" in resigning. "I tried to reassure her on the committee's role," added Chieffo.

"The committee was just ad-hoc. It was just to unify action between Schools 1 and 9," said Zoppi, disagreeing with Boyce's contention that the committee's role was to help develop a desegregation plan.

Romano said trustees "have satisfied" the state desegregation deadline. He again emphasized his letter to Thomas was "personal," adding, "She has yet to get back to me with anything I can bring to this board."

Boyce noted "hot-line" committee members know what Romano's letter says because Chieffo read it to them. She would not disclose its contents, instead urging Romano to update citizens on the desegregation plan.

Some observers say trustees are reluctant to admit "de-facto" segregation exists in Belleville because the federal government might then try to force the establishment of low-income or integrated housing projects.

In 1974, the United States Supreme Court, ruled suburban districts can't be forced to solve de facto segregation problems unless they helped create them. But the court did not outline, however, how to prove a district's guilt or innocence.

"Our attorney is preparing a brief on this and will get back to us when he's ready," said School Board President Ralph Risoli. The state has ordered Schools 1 and 9 to be "desegregated" by September 1979 and the entire system by September 1980.

State officials want each Belleville school to contain at least a 7 percent minority enrollment — equal to the percentage of the town's population that is made up of persons with minority background.

Observances prepared for Memorial Day here

Belleville will hold traditional Memorial Day services Monday to honor those who sacrificed their lives serving their country in the armed forces. The town's veterans will begin the day of commemoration when they meet 8:45 a.m. at the Passaic River Bridge.

Richard Melham, has been designated by Veteran's Council Chairman Al Pico, to head up the town's Memorial Day observances, which start with a massing of the colors and a special memorial prayer by Rev. Henderson Goldston of the Second Baptist Church.

Pico will place the traditional wreath on the Passaic River, and the firing squad of VFW Post 275 will then fire a volley in salute. A tolling of the bells of the Dutch Reformed Church will follow.

At 10 a.m., participants will move to the Town Monument on Union Avenue where master of ceremonies James Leary of VFW Post 275 will lead a second massing of the colors.

Col. Harold Lawson, retired U.S. chaplain, will be the guest speaker at the monument and the invocation will be delivered by Rev. Benedetto Pascale of Silver Lake Baptist Church. Rev. James F. Heavey of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church will offer benediction after the placing of flowers before the monument. The Belleville High School Band will lead participants in the national anthem, and a BHS bugler will play taps during the service.

Chairman Melham will close the services at the Town Monument and lead participants to Town Hall at 11 a.m. where a memorial service will be dedicated to all deceased members of the Belleville Police and Fire Departments.

Mayor Michael Marotti spoke highly of the annual service and urged all citizens to attend. "It's a fine memorial observance," he said. "I haven't missed one yet."

Organizations participating in the service will include American Legion Posts 105 and 299, VFW Posts 275 and 6265, Disabled American Veterans Chapter 22 of Nutley and Belleville, Belleville AMVETS Post 26, Catholic War Veterans, Barbone Mosco Post 7 Italian Americans and the Gold Star Mothers.

In case of rain, the Memorial Day Program will be held at VFW Post 275 on Belleville Avenue.

Legion Post 105 will honor all Vietnam War veterans at the post headquarters, 621 Washington Ave., this Sunday starting 3 p.m.

All veterans, especially those who took part in the Vietnam War, their families and the general public have been invited in Sunday's ceremonies. Refreshments will be served.

A memorial plaque will be hung in front of the post home to honor the memory of those Vietnam veterans who gave their lives. The observance is part of Vietnam Veteran's Week.

Annual music festival tonight at high school

The Belleville public school system will present its annual elementary instrumental music festival concert at the high school gymnasium tonight beginning at 8.

The concert is the final event of a music program which incorporates performance music into students' weekly lessons. This idea was originated by Belleville Music Director Frank Scelba about 25 years ago and has been an annual event ever since.

Tonight's festival concert will consist of two parts. Part one will be performed by the beginning and intermediate strings, winds and percussion students, part two by a combined band and orchestra. The program will be directed by Bernard

Evans and Joseph Sellitti, assisted by Robert Wing of the Junior High School Music Department and Michael Giorgio of William Paterson College who is student teacher to Evans.

The festival season got into full swing at the end of April when the band and orchestra began after-school rehearsals. These groups then performed May 15 and May 17 at four elementary schools each day. A final rehearsal for tonight's performance took place last night at the BHS gym.

Students participating in the combined band and orchestra are John Nowak, School 1; Mike Cappel, Kimberly Higgins, Walinda Hosen, Please see "Teachers" on page 10.

Observation Point — Too young to take part in the event, 3-year-old Shannon Skinner of Belleville watches Friday night's Recreation Department gymnastics exhibition at Belleville High School in which dozens of town girls participated.

Pharmacy Footnotes

Vincent Cozzarelli Reg. Ph.

You don't have to be an athlete to get athlete's foot. The condition was so named because, originally, many people thought that this fungal growth was contracted from the floors of locker rooms, where other infected athletes would walk around barefoot. Well, athletes will get athlete's foot, and it is still contagious, and can be picked up from locker room floors. But it can also be picked up in other areas, wherever infected people walk barefoot. We suggest the wearing of sandals in locker rooms, concentration on proper drying of your feet, regular use of foot powders, and of course, daily changing of socks.

We hope you'll make regular use of our services at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 752-1968 whenever you have a prescription. Contraceptives are sold and rented including wafers, wheel chairs, crutches and canes. For Father's Day, grandmothers and other gifts we have stockings, toiletries, greeting cards and Russell Stover candies. Open 9am-10pm daily, from 9pm Sundays.

 Regular use of an antifungal preparation and adherence to the above should relieve symptoms under normal conditions in 4-8 weeks. If not, consult a physician.

ASK RITA

Comments and letters can be sent to RITA, care of the TIMES/NEWS, 108 Greylock Ave., Belleville, N.J. 07109. Letters may be signed or submitted anonymously. Rita is a social worker at the town's Juvenile Aid Bureau. Her weekly column is geared to those problems facing adolescents, their parents and anyone else dealing with teenagers.

Dear Rita,
I'm so worried about my 12-year-old and her exposure to pot and other drugs. What is the community doing about it?

Concerned Mom

Dear Concerned Mom,
The community, so to speak, has set up a drug committee to initiate programs and educate parents and children to the dangers of drugs. Unfortunately, 10 to 20 concerned and responsible citizens can only do so much without some interest from parents.

I was shocked at the most recent drug committee presentation last Wednesday, May 16. Besides the drug committee and some interested community representatives, there was only a handful of parents. Yet, there were 3,000 circulars distributed among students and sent home with them. This apathy is typical of Belleville recently.

The way I see it, if a parent is waiting for the school or the community to take responsibility for a job that is really all his own, then it's no wonder that there are as many kids with the kind of problems that we see every day.

The Board of Education Drug Committee and the Police Department can only assist you, the parent, in helping your child if you are willing to make an effort on your part too.

Only the violent receive comfort

The slayer of the late Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk of San Francisco this week was convicted of voluntary manslaughter. Dan White, the murderer, faces a minimum sentence of five years and a maximum of seven years, eight months in prison. This is a small price for a murderer to pay for two murders.

The decision may lead other members of the San Francisco society to commit murder in the belief they, too, will "get away with murder."

Reluctantly, over the years, we have come to the conclusion that capital punishment is an appropriate responsibility of society in matters where senseless murders are committed.

The late Mayor Moscone and Supervisor Milk had a right to life — they had a right to live. These rights were snuffed out by a deliberate murderer, Dan White, a one-time city supervisor, policeman and firefighter. White was no neurotic — he had his senses when he murdered these two public servants.

We believe the seven-member jury which deliberated for 36 hours over six days failed to discharge its duty to society.

Our heart goes out to the relatives of the late Mayor Moscone and the late Supervisor Harvey Milk. We can not find any sympathy for the man who pulled the gun and was responsible for the two murders. His fate should have been as final as Moscone's and Milk's.

Parenting a privilege

A week ago Sunday was set aside as a special day to honor Mother.

Within the next month, a other Sunday will be set aside to honor Father.

In our book, every day can be a day when each of us can pause long enough to dwell upon the privilege of being the daughter or son of parents who sacrificed to make a better world for us in which to grow and live.

Recently an incident occurred which makes us want to have each mother and father take a second look at their daughter and son.

A 14-year-old daughter was on the telephone. The mother asked, "Who are you talking to?" The daughter replied, "A friend." The mother then responded, "You have no friends."

The mother's comment reflected the disdain and disrespect she held for her own daughter. Within weeks from the day of that incident, the 14-year-old girl was no more. She committed suicide because she could not cope with a mother without love.

So when we are in that period between Mother's and Father's Days, the time can be well spent by mothers and fathers looking into their mirrors and asking themselves, "Are we doing right by our children?" In answering the question, parents must be honest with themselves. If the answer is "no" — they are not doing right by their children — Father's Day Sunday can be a day when both parents rededicate themselves to the proposition that their children deserve better — they deserve the respect and love of their parents.

Recently we listened to a lifetime friend of ours characterize himself as a "Scoutholic". His observation made a profound impact upon us.

With juvenile delinquency, and vandalism caused by juveniles, becoming a universal major problem, there is no question in our mind one of the answers to the problem can be found by enrolling young boys and girls in a Girl Scout or Boy Scout group.

For the adults, Boy Scout volunteers and Girl Scout volunteers are the way to go. These are two of America's great institutions — the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts. The energy and strength of our youth should be channelled in constructive activities. For them there is no greater civic goal than to be a good Girl Scout or a good Boy Scout.

The 14-year-old young lady who is no more might well be alive today if her parents had been active with Scout movements.

It is a sad commentary on our times when a bright 14-year-old young lady takes her life because her mother did not comprehend the meaning of her own behavior.

Prayer for today

Lord, may I be wakeful at sunrise to begin a new day for Thee, cheerful at sunset for having done my work for Thee; thankful at moonrise and under starshine for the beauty of Thy universe. And may I add what little may be in me to add to Thy great world.

Letters

Michael Pizzi expresses his thanks to the voters

To the Editor:

Although I was not elected on May 8, I feel as if I have gained something very important — the confidence and friendship of the people of Belleville.

I threw my hat in the commissioner race as a newcomer and ran a campaign I felt to be very sincere and honest.

To receive 2,713 votes and come 600 votes under an incumbent is indeed an accomplishment for me.

I couldn't have done it without the people of Belleville, so to you concerned citizens who voted for and supported me in this past election, I say thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I would especially like to thank those people who were actively involved in my campaign and contributed so much in such a short time.

I will remain actively involved in the community and hope to serve you in the near future.

Respectively yours,
Michael P. Pizzi

Joseph McGreevy appreciative of the electorate's confidence

To the Editor:

I would like to express my sincere feelings of appreciation for the confidence you have in me to re-elect me for another term as commissioner of revenue and finance.

It is with gratitude and confidence that I will serve you within the next four years.

Again, I would like to thank everyone who worked and voted for me on election day.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The Cassandra-type prophets of despair and doom have consistently been counteracted by the reassuring promises that the sky isn't falling. Well, to be sure, it isn't, but the sky has the potential for devastation were it to fragment on entering the earth's atmosphere and plummet in a fiery, ponderous mass upon a populous area, which is likely. The odds-makers give it a one-to-seven chance to take a dive in a city or town of 100,000 population.

The reality of this frightening prospect has been given a low profile by the media, probably at the urging of official Washington, in an effort to diminish the spread of mass fear and hysteria. CBS-TV last week, however, in a simulated enactment of what might occur when this 85-ton satellite, chucked into the stratosphere several years ago, enters the gravitational pull of the earth which is expected within the next five weeks.

Last fall, after reading a letter to Time Magazine, from one of its readers concerning the faltering, uncontrolled skyball in which he suggested that our government's space agency, in collaboration with the Soviet government, undertake a move to disintegrate the balky satellite in space, it was commented upon in this column. We saw much merit in the suggestion as a means of averting a grim tragedy such as now presents itself.

Fortified with the information, we too, became sufficiently concerned in this matter as to write Secretary of State Cyrus Vance urging such inter-governmental space destruction of the satellite, within the purview of national security limits.

After a prolonged wait, in mid-February, as the satellite continued to drop closer to earth entry, we received the evasive, abstruse, recondite reply from Hodding Carter III, assistant secretary for public affairs and department spokesman, acknowledging our suggestion which they chose to ambiguously term "U.S.-Soviet cooperation in the development of advanced aerospace technology."

The reply replete, with all the formal amenities of state diplomacy, expressed appreciation for receiving constructive proposals from the people concerning foreign affairs and related issues while stressing chary discretion on commenting on same. Assurance was offered that appropriate officials review such proposals and that Secretary Vance keeps informed of such suggestions.

Obviously, whether for reasons of security or otherwise, no such move to destroy the satellite in space was undertaken and now we appear to be "sitting ducks" since the 85-ton menace maintains an orbit covering 75 percent of the earth's surface, thus presenting the most horrendous space project defect of all time...with nobody knowing where it may land...ter'ying isn't it?

It may have been a clever political ploy, but Newark Councilman Anthony Carrino, who has thrown his hat into the race for Essex County sheriff, sent off a consoling missive to the losing candidates in the town election which we think sounded a strong note of truth about most all elections. He wrote, "As someone who has been involved in more than one election, I am well aware of the long hours, hard work and anxieties a campaign is comprised of. It is obvious that we cannot all finish first, but nevertheless if we did not try, we would be completely void of dreams and aspirations. Without these ideals our great country could never exist. Allow me to applaud you fine efforts."

Retired Belleville Deputy Fire Chief William "Sonny" Fabian is recovering from surgery at Clara Maass Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery and invite his many friends and buddies to send a get-well card. We know he'd appreciate it. We used to play baseball at the old Golden Grounds back in the Terrible Thirties...

Zoning and nuisance charges against disco head for state's supreme court

By Donna Abate

The silence during the past several commission meetings of residents who live near Parrillo's was broken Tuesday night when angry citizens gathered once again at Town Hall to question the status of the Belleville disco. Though there is a new town attorney, the answers to some of their questions will apparently be found from the old one.

Residents recently submitted a petition containing 250 signatures that "demanded the Board of Commissioners deny the renewal of the 1979-80 Plenary License held by Parrillo's for premises located at 104 Harrison St."

In the petition, residents claimed the disco "is a public nuisance, is a non-conforming use and operation destroys the safety and general well being of the residential complex, is annoying, disturbing, troublesome and vexatious to the people and is eroding the peace and tranquility of the residential community."

Resident Tony Porcelli questioned new Town Attorney Frank Zinna on Parrillo's situation, and Zinna responded that two matters concerning the disco are now before the Supreme Court.

The attorney explained that he had just written asking the Supreme Court to hear an appeal on the town's charge that Parrillo's violates Belleville zoning laws.

The three-panel Appellate Division found Parrillo's use as a dancing establishment did not violate the code. "The town objected that a 'disco' was not an existing use under Belleville zoning law, thus putting Parrillo's in violation."

On the second matter concerning the disco, Zinna stressed that the town's action against Parrillo's as a public nuisance will be handled by former town attorney John Scott, who would "carry the case until the end."

"John Scott has been following the lengthy case and is more familiar with the details," said Zinna. "We've decided it would be best for him to continue."

Many Parrillo's residents flocked around the new town attorney after the meeting to ask questions about what lies ahead in the "disco fiasco." They commented that they were "pleased" with Zinna's appointment.

In other business, commissioners resolved to change the time their caucus meetings to 6:30 p.m. Tuesday evenings just prior to the regularly scheduled meetings.

Commissioners also unanimously passed an ordinance which limits the number of machines to three in any single retail establishment within the town. Each machine must be individually licensed and a separate fee paid for each license.

Planning for Belleville Municipal Stadium Complex will soon be underway as the commissioners authorized the town clerk to advertise for bids on the project, proposed for the rear of Belleville High School.

All bids must be submitted before the next meeting Tuesday, June 12, where they will be made public.

Newark man faces charge of auto theft

A 25-year-old Newark man has been charged with possession of a stolen car and dangerous firearms after being apprehended near Beverly Court by Belleville police.

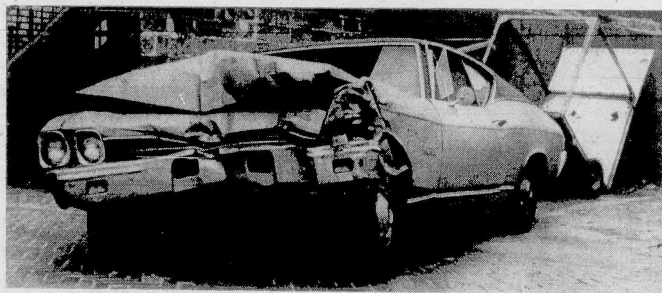

Residents reported seeing a "suspicious" man, who had been distributing soap samples throughout the neighborhood, about 1 p.m. May 11 behind a resident's home in Beverly Court.

As police entered the street, the man allegedly fled to a car parked within the court. In an attempt to escape, police say he drove the car over a resident's lawn and jolted to a halt as he hit a fence between two homes.

Police say the man then left his car and eluded them for over three hours before he was spotted on Fairway Avenue by Officer Fred Puleo who was off duty at his home.

Puleo fired a warning shot in the air as the man fled. Officers Louis Pomponco and Ronald Edwards, who were called by Puleo's wife, assisted in apprehending the man at 3:40 p.m.

Officers found two long-shot rifles in the vehicle driven by the man. It had been reported stolen. The man was arraigned last Thursday.

Fatal Crash — The auto that Cynthia Bogie was driving when she allegedly hit and killed two Belleville children sits impounded behind Town Hall Monday. Services and a blessing will be held for the two boys today with Mass tomorrow at St. Anthony's Church.

Body found in river identified by cops

Newark resident Miguel A. Aquino, 24, found last Tuesday floating in the Passaic River on the Belleville side of the Avenue Bridge, died as the result of a homicide, according to police.

Investigating officer Charles Oese and Det. Michael Pettillo found the body with two bullet holes in the back of the neck.

The bridge attendant spotted Aquino's body about 4:30 p.m. near the river's edge, and police and an ambulance were called to the scene.

According to Deputy Police Chief Frank Haight, Aquino was reported missing seven days before his body was found.

Free tests being offered today for blood pressure

Can you spare a few minutes today — minutes which could save your life...

Clara Maass Memorial Hospital in Belleville is offering a free clinic to test all Nutley residents for high blood pressure today between 1:30 and 8:30 p.m. in the hospital's main lobby.

One in seven Americans has high blood pressure. Although the silent killer can be easily diagnosed and treated, only about 10 percent of the hypertension victims in this country have blood pressure under control.

High blood pressure is one of the major causes of sickness, disability and death in the United States. Unlike most other dangerous diseases, it usually has no outward symptoms. A simple, painless test, taking only a few minutes, can detect hypertension.

Although there is no cure for high blood pressure, it can usually be controlled. In many instances, therapy may be as simple as a pill-a-day. The key to controlling hypertension is convincing people to get and stay on proper medication and treatment.

The first step to controlling high blood pressure is getting regular blood pressure check-ups. A person suffering from high blood pressure may look and feel healthy — until the hypertension erupts suddenly in the form of stroke, heart disease or kidney failure.

Who has high blood pressure? It can be anyone — young or old, black or white, relaxed people and tense people, rich and poor... Hypertension can affect anyone — you, a neighbor, friend or member of your family — even your children.

Nutleyites are encouraged to take part in today's free clinic at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. No prior registration is necessary.

IN HIS PRIZE-WINNING ESSAY

Senior citizens deserve more, says sixth-grader

Daniel Ruggiero, a sixth-grader at Belleville's Schol 7, has been awarded at prize in an essay contest sponsored by the Senior Service Corps, Inc. of Orange. The boy won a $25 savings bond as one of seven runners-up in the contest, which was entitled, "My Perspective on Senior Citizens."

The contest was held throughout Essex County and was limited to sixth-graders. Young Ruggiero received his award yesterday during the annual Senior Citizens Jamboree at South Mountain Arena in West Orange.

The boy's essay, entitled, "Senior Citizens," follows:

"In life, people do a lot of wrongs, like lie, cheat, steal, etc. But in my opinion, one of the worst things a person can do is stop loving or talking or sharing things with a person just because they're old. Old people have feelings too, and they need people to love and to love them.

"They should have more centers for the old so they can be with people their own age. Old people have a lot of problems. When they retire, they get a pension of maybe $100 a month, and it might have been enough thirty years ago, but it's far from enough now. Now $100 doesn't even pay the rent. Then there's food bills and hospital and medicine and clothes. I just don't know how they can do it.

"We must, as the younger generation, see to it that senior citizens get better housing, medical care and above all better companionship so they are not so lonely."

Senior Notes

By George Chenoweth

The Mother's Day party at Beply's May 14 for the Belleville Senior Citizens Club, according to those who attended, was one of the best ever. There were so many favorable comments that plans are being made for another party June 28. This group, three busloads, will be off to Brickman's in the Catskills on May 28 and will return on June 1.

We are losing our chaplain and good member to another parish. The Reverend and Mrs. Goldston will be leaving soon to take up new duties in Paterson. The reverend has been our chaplain since about the beginning of the organization, and although he and Mrs. Goldston will be greatly missed, we wish them happiness and God speed in their new endeavor.

Now that the election is over and the new/old commission duly installed, let us take time to congratulate Mayor Michael Marotti and Commissioners Vincent Strumolo, Joseph McGreevy, Mary Senatore and Matthew Pica on waging successful campaigns. Perhaps all can relax to some extent but not entirely. There is much more to be done in the town of Belleville to bring it to its potential as the leading town in the many communities of Essex County and the state.

After the votes have been counted and tabulations made to determine the total number of votes cast, it is strange that more people, more than the projected 43 percent of the total eligible voting population, did not vote. On the national scene at the last presidential election, 63 percent of eligible senior citizens voted. It would be enlightening to find out what percentage of those voting in Belleville were senior citizens — we hope to maintain a high percentage.

In the years in between elections we hear those who are not happy with the way that things are going in the town of Belleville. Usually the ones who holler the loudest are the ones who fail to get out and vote on Election Day. We try to impress on people from time to time the importance of exercising one's prerogative by voting. If the need for change is there and it can be done, then it is up to the people to try, at least try, to change it. Of course, those who are dissatisfied with the outcome of the election can do nothing about it at the present time. So lets get behind our mayor and the commissioners and cooperate for the good of Belleville.

members to think and act according to their consciences and not political pressures.

"I think Matt Pica has made significant contributions to this town as a member of the Belleville school board," said Chieffo. "He's honored the right of dissent. We're the best of friends, but I've argued with him bitterly at times but he's always been man enough to forget about it the next day." Chieffo praised Pica as a dedicated board member and parent.

Miele told the audience a person must be a town resident two years, be able to read and write, and have no direct or indirect interest in any board contract in order to be considered for a seat on the Board of Education.

Board Secretary-Business Administrator Mary Shader said all candidates who applied for positions vacated earlier by Richard Mahmarian or Lawrence Schwartz would automatically be considered for Pica's spot.

As The Times/News went to press Tuesday, Felix Linfante, John Distasi, Peter Clarizio, Sam Petracca, Joseph DeGuercio, Cora Boyce, Gabriel Nazzio, Dr. Michael Credico and Thomas Spillane had all filed for the open position.

Petracca, DeGuercio, Linfante and Clarizio were all candidates in the April election. Clarizio served on the board six months after succeeding Mahmarian in December. Petracca received 1,097 votes, the fourth highest total in the five-man race for a three-year board, while DeGuercio got 604 and finished last.

Linfante, who ran for a one-year term, was the highest vote-getter behind the winners in April's board elections. Last week, former trustee Viola Spray backed Linfante by submitting 500 petitions endorsing him to board members.

"I feel it's incumbent upon this board to follow the dictates of the people — and their next choice was Felix Linfante," said Chieffo Monday. "His age (20) should not be a handicap. If anything, it's much more of an asset."

Chieffo claimed last week that if Clarizio were appointed to the board — as Zoppi had wanted — a "voting bloc," including Zoppi, D'Agostino and Clarizio would be established. Both Zoppi and D'Agostino denied Chieffo's charge and said the board was in great need of the experience Clarizio could provide as a former board member.

Young Biker — Six-year-old Stephanie Dalton, 155 Holmes St., rode two miles on training wheels Sunday. Pledges should be returned to F & T Automotive Machine, 62 Bellavista Ave., Belleville, N.J. 07109.

Belleville's version of 'Mister October'

When you watch a team such as the New York Yankees perform, you're watching a group of professional athletes who play pretty damn near perfection on the baseball diamond.

They might not show it that much this time of year, but when playoff time comes around in October, guess what team will be there?

A good baseball team is one that can win the close games consistently. It is the type of club that can be down 3-2 going into the last inning and score two runs to win 4-3. Such a club is the Belleville High baseball team.

For many years now, Belleville has always fielded a strong team in baseball, and this year is no exception. The diamondmen are 14-3 with victories this week over Seton Hall, Passaic, East Orange, and Barringer. The Barringer contest was the first round of the state tourney and the Bucs received great pitching from their ace, senior Dan Borgo. He allowed just four hits and hurled a shutout as he pitched the entire seven innings. If you have been following Belleville baseball this year, this should be of little surprise.

The Bucs pitching has been phenomenal. Between Borgo and a sophomore Anthony Coco, there is a record of 12-1. Borgo is 6-1, his only loss coming in the Greater Newark Tourney to Irvington, while Coco sports a 6-0 mark. Eddie Aulisi, a junior fireballer, has pitched some very impressive games, and with Coco and Aulisi due back next year, the Bucs' mound corps looks to be in good shape.

About the only question mark surrounding this year's squad has been the sudden lack of hitting. This is a category that has Buc head coach George Zanfini quite concerned. "I can't understand it, these guys have been playing for me for three years now and I know they can hit," said the coach recently. "Our fielding and pitching speak for themselves, but our hitting has been very slow. It has also cost us a couple of games."

Two games that come particularly to mind when the mediocre hitting is discussed are the Caldwell and Irvington contests. In both, the Bucs received super pitching but lost by close margins. Caldwell overcame a great performance by Aulisi and won 2-1, while the Campers of Irvington defeated Borgo 3-1.

For the most part, the Bucs have gotten enough hitting to pull out most of the games. They have a tendency to bunch four or five hits in one inning, score four or five runs and rely on pitching to carry them home. "That type of baseball is a tightrope," continued a nervous Zanfini. "It has broken on us a couple of times now, and it can happen again unless we turn things around."

Zanfini is an excellent coach. He is the type of man who doesn't ask for anything more than a player can give. When he says that his team can hit better, the chances are good that it can.

Zanfini has been through good and hard times as the Buc coach. He took over the varsity reigns in 1975 after an extended tour as the freshman mentor. In his first year, the Bellboys were 14-10, a good record but disappointing for the locals because at one stage of the year they were 11-1.

What turned the entire 1975 season around was the Bucs' 4-1 loss to the number one Campers of Irvington in 14 innings. The game was played at Belleville and lasted a good three hours. Irvington had stopped Belleville earlier in the year 2-0 on a Ron Krill no-hitter. Since that game, the locals had gone on a tear, winning 11 in a row and were primed to knock off the Campers. For the first five innings, Belleville was doing just that. It had a 1-0 lead until Irvington tied the score in the fifth. Krill did not start but came in to pitch in the fifth and hurled nine innings of three-hit, shutout baseball. Bellboy pitcher Greg Petite was tremendous. He pitched the first 11 innings, allowed just one run and received a thunderous ovation when he came out of the game. In the 14th inning, Irvington won the game on a three-run homer.

It was a heartbreaking loss, but Zanfini took it in stride. "I never saw two teams play so well," he said the following week. "It's just a shame that someone had to lose." Lesser people would have blamed the questionable officiating or would have said that Irvington got a couple of breaks, but Zanfini is above that type of nonsense.

In 1976, the Bellboys put together a magnificent year, winning 24 of 28 games and holding the title of number one in the state for six weeks. Two of the team's losses that year came to Livingston, once in the GNT final and the other in the state final. Both losses were by 3-2 tallies, and the second defeat was a bit controversial. In 1977, Belleville jumped out to a 6-2 start, but Zanfini suffered hepatitis midway through the year and had to sit out the rest of the campaign. Without his head coach, the Bellboys weren't the same and finished at 18-15. Last year, with Zanfini back, the team posted a strong 18-4 mark and wound up the last Big 10 champ. Currently, the Bucs are ranked number 20 in the state and number two in the area.

Zanfini is a rare type of coach. He has tremendous respect for his players, and the players reward him with some fine performances. But most importantly, the players have a great deal of respect and admiration for him, and the players couldn't pick a better man to look up to.

Last week, I mentioned Paul-Maribella, the ex-Belleville Bruin who had won a relief pitching job with the New York Yankees in spring training but had recently been sent to the team's Triple A club. Paul responded with a three-hit shutout last week, and it shouldn't be long before he is back up with the big boys.

Meanwhile another Bruin pitcher, Brian Karl, has been doing an outstanding job at Upsala College. The senior recently became the school's most winning pitcher. He has won nine games this year while losing just one. He should be a welcome sight for the Bruins, this year, that is unless he isn't drafted before their season starts.

Finally let's hear some applause for big Ralph Amiano. The 1977 graduate of Belleville High is currently trying out for the Rutgers University football team for this fall. Ralph was a very popular figure at Belleville High and an excellent defensive tackle. After a year of smalltime football in Pennsylvania, he decided to try the big time at Rutgers. Ralph had an excellent spring practice but unfortunately suffered a knee injury that set him back for a couple of weeks. But believe me, the type of athlete that Ralph is, it will take a lot more than a sore knee to keep him off the gridiron.

Borgo, Coco keep nine atop the diamond heep

By Mike Lamberti

It hasn't been overpowering, but the job is getting done. That's been the story of this year's Belleville High baseball team. Last week, the locals won four games in four attempts, each battle coming right down to the wire.

The four wins boosted the team mark to 14-3. It also lifted the team back into the state top 20 and moved it to number three in the county.

On Tuesday, the squad hosted Morris Knolls in the second round of the state tournament. Tomorrow the Bucs will continue state play, provided they defeat Morris Knolls. If they lose, the Bucs will travel to Irvington for a regular-season game starting at 3:45 p.m.

Buc Coach George Zanfini was pretty happy with his team's effort last week. "The hitting is starting to come around, although I think we can do a little better," said the coach. "Danny (Borgo) pitched an excellent game against Barringer in the states, perhaps his best game ever. We played poorly against Passaic and East Orange, mainly because we just weren't up for the games. Those two schools haven't always been noted for their baseball teams, but they have really improved as of late. We beat them, but it wasn't easy."

Belleville also defeated Seton Hall last Monday 5-4, although the Blue Gold was outthit 13 to six.

Seton Hall scored first off Buc hurler Anthony Coco with two runs in the second. Scott Skiga doubled and scored on Sal Vitello's single. Vitello stole second and advanced to third on a fielder's choice by Steve Hollander. Sal Roselli then singled home Vitello with the second Briar run. "Coco pitched a good game," said Zanfini. "A lot of their hits were seeing eye hits that just beat our outfielders."

The Bucs got a run back in the fourth, thanks to a Jim Tensfeldt home run. The Bucs scored four more times in the fifth. Anthony Cosentino led off with a walk, Mike Nicosia doubled him home and Borgo singled home Nicosia. Borgo raced to second on the throw from the centerfielder. Tensfeldt then singled Borgo to third. After Giuffrida summarized the performance of his girls' crew boat in the Stobey Regatta this past weekend in Philadelphia.

The four shell — coxswain Marie Herter, stroke Christine Ritchel, Patti Bagin, Gail Hochstule and Pala Hochstule in bow — finished sixth out of seven boats in a qualifying heat Friday, the last race of the Belleville crew season. Lattarere took the loss for the Bears although he pitched very well. He struck out four, walked four and allowed just two hits.

Belleville scored runs in the first and second to back up the pitching of Borgo. In the first, Nicosia led off with a walk. Borgo walked and Tensfeldt reached safely on an error to load the bases. Franceschini hit into a fielder's choice, erasing Nicosia at the plate. Kelley then hit into another fielder's choice but the play scored Borgo.

In the second inning, Guarino and Naden walked. Nicosia singled home Guarino with the Bucs' second run.

In the Passaic game, the Bucs didn't play especially well but got the

Inexperience hits girls' four hard at Stotesbury Regatta

By John Jurich

"They did the best" they could, and that's all we could ask of them" was the way BHS crew coach Sam Giuffrida summarized the performance of his girls' crew boat in the Stobey Regatta this past weekend in Philadelphia.

The four shell — coxswain Marie Herter, stroke Christine Ritchel, Patti Bagin, Gail Hochstule and Pala Hochstule in bow — finished sixth out of seven boats in a qualifying heat Friday, the last race of the Belleville crew season. "We thought they looked good enough," said Giuffrida. "But it was an extremely difficult heat with some of the best girls' crews in the country."

Still, pointed out the crew pilot, the Buc girls, a bit jittery rowing in the pouring rain, had not finished far behind the fourth-place boat. To get into the semifinals Saturday, the girls would have had to be in the top three.

Inexperience was the story for the Belleville oarswomen as it had been before this season. The BHS shell contained one senior, two juniors and a sophomore, while the competing crews were made up of older rowers, some with three or four years' experience.

It was the first year out for the Hochstule girls, and this is only the second year Belleville High has had crew for girls.

A wrap-up of the 1979 crew season will appear in next week's edition of The Times/News.

Rest costs Buc runners edging by West Orange

By Mike Lamberti

Because of a little precaution, the Belleville track team lost a heartbreaker to West Orange 67-64 in a double dual meet that also featured Essex Catholic.

The two losses dropped the team mark to 6-9. Tuesday the squad was slated to travel to Bloomfield for a 3:45 p.m. start.

The Essex County championships, originally scheduled for last Saturday were postponed because of rain and have been tentatively scheduled for Monday, Memorial Day. The Bloomfield meet is the team's last scheduled meet of the season.

The Bucs' costly precaution was resting star half-miler Mike Graham in the double dual meet. According to head coach Rich Ruffalo, "We wanted to rest Mike for the counties, but they were rained out. If I had to make the decision I would rest him again. Mike has a great chance to place in the counties, and we wanted him ready."

The Bucs lost the other half of the meet to Essex Catholic, perhaps the finest team in Essex County, 78-44.

In the meet, an excellent performance was turned in by senior co-captain Joe D'Agostino. D'Agostino heaved a 143-6 toss in the disc, while junior Joe DeLorenzo was second at 137-6. In the javelin, senior Rich Gaschke took top honors with a toss of 160 feet.

Ruffalo expected the Bloomfield meet to be a squeaker. "Every year it comes right down to the wire, and every year we end up on the short end," said the head coach. "I figure it will come right down to the wire, and hopefully we can turn it around this time."

The Bucs have a couple of runners and throwers in the counties who are seeded. Graham is seeded in the half, Gaschke earned the fourth seed in the javelin, D'Agostino earned a third seed in the disc and sixth in the shot and DeLorenzo was a fourth seed in the disc.

Buccanette Karen Portuese was the top seed for the girls' javelin toss. Ruffalo is hoping that the team can earn a couple of points in the county championships this year. The Bucs have failed to score in that meet for a number of years now.

What Next? — Jennifer Salmon ponders her next move at Friday's gym show. Over 100 girls 8 and up are involved in the gymnastics program directed by Carol Giuffrida. The girls hope gymnastics will soon be a varsity sport at BHS.

Intermediate Yanks' streak at four; rain biggest gainer in Men's League

Three days of rain limited play in the Recreation baseball leagues this past week.

The Intermediate League Yankees extended their winning streak to four in as many games by defeating the Mets 7-3. Tony Lombardi, Sergio Chavarría, Joe Bunucci and Bob Slater collected hits for the winners. Lombardi went four-for-four with three doubles and four RBI.

In other Intermediate League games, the Mets improved to 4-1 with a 10-8 win over the Cubs, and the Braves also topped the Cubs 4-1.

In the Senior League, the Mets and Braves got knotted in a 6-6 tie, the Yankees beat the Braves 14-4 and the Cubs upped their record to 3-1 by defeating the Pirates 10-4.

In the Junior League, the Clippers (3-0) defeated the Tigers 15-5, the Indians scalped the Cardinals 10-4, the White Sox topped the Pirates 13-9 and the Cubs ousted the Giants 5-1 in a pitching duel won by Richie Luybro.

The Clippers were winners over the Aces 17-2. Rich Tramutola was the winning pitcher and Robbie Scruggs contributed his first hit to the Clipper attack.

Men's Softball

Monday night Belleville Recreation Men's Softball League action was rained out. Games will be made up at a later date. In the Tuesday night league, Roselli's Amoco continued its winning ways by defeating Marson's Plumbing 5-0. The Four-J's shut out the Red Shingle Inn 10-0, and Circle Bar took a 24-16 decision over Scordo Tile.

On Wednesday night, both Rossmore Pharmacy and Joe's Alignment upped their records to 3-0 to share first place. Rossmore edged the Howard Hustlers 8-6, and Joe's Alignment blanked Michael's Towing 18-0. In another game, Garden State II beat the Silver Lakers 10-5.

Both Belleville Hess and DeWitt Savings are 2-0 in the Thursday league. Hess defeated Bell Lap Tavern 7-2, and DeWitt overwhelmed Clyde Paul Insurance 14-1. Giordano's Pizza & Gym bounced back from a loss with a convincing 20-9 victory over Belleville Political and Social Club.

Peanut League

In the Belleville Recreation Department Peanut League, the Giants (3-0) held first place with wins over the Cubs 8-3 and the Pirates 12-3. In other action, the Clippers beat the Yankees 30-19 but lost later in the week to the Cubs 23-16. The Astros defeated the Cardinals in extra innings 10-9.

In the National League, the Braves and Dodgers are both 3-0 and tied for first place. The Braves, behind a strong hitting attack, were winners over the Tigers 30-9. The defense was bolstered by Steve Norrelli, Jeff Luberto and Gus Lijo. The Dodgers squeaked by the Dodgers 18-17. In another game, the Aces edged the Indians 12-11. Gerard Cimolo contributed a triple and home run, and John Miele and Ronnie DePiro had triples for the Aces (2-1).

Pitgall League

The Pitgall League opened its season May 5. All 10 teams played that day with no one club dominating. Each held its ground and put up a good fight. The managers have done a fine job coaching their girls, teaching them fielding and hitting.

After a full week of play, with rain interrupting part of that week, the standings are:

Tigers	2-0
Cubs	2-0
Cardinals	1-0
White Sox	1-1
Dodgers	1-1
Mets	1-1
Giants	0-0-2
Yankees	1-2
Braves	0-1
Reds	0-2

The Cubs-Dodgers game was well played. With the Dodgers leading 3-3 in the fourth inning, Michelle Borrello led off with a single, starting a five-run rally that turned out to be enough for the Cubs to win 10-5. A double play by Liz Goldrick and sparking ballhandling by third baseman Doreen Nufrio and shortstop Gerry Porella also contributed to the win.

The White Sox beat the Yankees 7-1 as excellent defense by both teams made for an exciting game. Susan Munly and Suzanne Schuster had back-to-back home runs, starting a four-run inning for the Sox. Regina Bliss and Sue McTigue also scored.

The Tigers defeated the Reds 8-2 for their second win. Stephanie Aiello hit a grand slam home run, and Michelle Petrillo hit a triple. The Tigers displayed excellent fielding.

Girls' Junior League

The Junior League started May 1. Games are played during the afternoon, 3:30-5, at Clearman Field. Managers are Donna Senior, Bobcats; Sue Harrington, Cheetahs; Mary Ann Adams, Cougars; Sue Gaspirini, Jaguars; Michelle Tramantola, Leopards; Joan Cassin, Pumas.

The standings are a little unbalanced because of rain interfering with playing time. The Cheetahs are in first but closely followed by the Bobcats, Leopards and Jaguars. The Cougars and Pumas are improving with each game will start to give all the other squads a good battle.

Housewives' Bowling

Final standings are in for the Belleville Recreation Housewife Bowling League at Olympic Lanes. This year's champion is Gabriele Brothers which edged out Blue Ribbon Tires. In third place was Bloomfield Sports Center, followed by J&J Barbers, Watergaters, Hot Shots, Quinlan Electric, Lombardi Realty, Marino Excavating and We Three.

Andree Morel led the A Division in high individual average with 171. Ruth Marino had a 163 and Evelyn Aiello 159. In the B Division, Honey Petrillo had a 141 average, Jovanna Scarpello 136 and Mimi Berkey 135. The C Division was led by Minnie Scelfo's 118, Angela Santarsiero and Yolanda Faraone had 115 each.

Andree Morel took first place in the A Division high individual game category with a 231 game. Jeanne Gentili had a 223 and Nancy Kipikasho a 218. The B Division was topped by Honey Petrillo's 211, Honey Panzer's 199 and Jovanna Scarpello's 189. In the C Division, Angela Santarsiero had a 193, Eileen Keelan 182 and Florence Nicolette 175.

Taking her third title, Andree Morel also led the A Division in the high individual series category with a 617. Bettie Lennon had a 576 and Ruth Marino 554. Honey Panzer rolled a 542 series to lead the B Division, followed by Mary Dzurissien's 517 and Honey Petrillo's 514. The C Division was headed by Yolanda Taraoone's 450, Angela Santarsiero's 443 and Eileen Keelan's 440.

Taking the top spot in the high team game scratch was Gabriele Brothers with a 543, trailed by Lucky Strikes's 542 and Lombardi Realty's 513. The Hookers led the high team game handicap with a 583, Keelan-Pica Surveyors had 559 and Fashion Eyewear 535.

The high team series scratch was led by J&J Barbers with 1,435, Lucky Strikes 1,425 and Hot Shots 1,422. Gabriele Brothers took the lead slot for high team series handicap with 1,546, followed by Lombardi Realty at 1,545 and 3 Tops 1,542.

This year's most improved bowler was Joan Aiello who raised her average from 117 last year to 133 this year.

The league has extended thanks to Olympic Lanes and to league officers Mary Ross, president; Andree Morel, vice president; Carol Nixon, secretary; Connie Guarino, treasurer, and Florence Nicolette, sergeant-at-arms.

job done anyway. The winning pitcher was Ed Aulisi (2-1). He got relief help from Nicosia (who else?) in the sixth. Passasia's Hinton took the loss. Belleville turned a close 3-2 game into a 7-2 rout with four runs in the fourth inning. With two outs, Nicosia reached on an error by the shortstop, Borgo singled and both runners advanced a base when Hinton committed a wild pitch. Tensfeldt walked to load the bases, and all three men came in on Franceschini's triple. Kelley then singled home Franceschini with the fourth run of the inning.

PaBaic battled back with two runs in the fourth and a solo run in the seventh, but the Bucs held on to win. Belleville collected 10 hits but committed six errors, while the Indians had eight hits and four errors.

In the East Orange game, Belleville scored solo runs in the second and third and held on when East Orange tallied once in the sixth. Belleville scored in the second when Mike Vitiello singled and stole second. Joe Guarino walked, and both runners moved a base when the first baseman committed an error. Cosentino then singled home Vitiello. In the third, Tensfeldt started the rally with a single. He stole second and scored on Franceschini's single. East Orange scored in the sixth when Ray Hom reached safely on a Buc error. He stole second and came in on Charles Ramey's single.

The Bucs collected seven hits off losing pitcher Curtis Arnold. Coco got the win for Belleville as he struck out eight and walked none.

Little League games include edges, routs

The Belleville Little League opened its season early this month with a spate of close games and some routs thrown in for good measure.

Riefolo blanked Megaro 3-0 behind Ed Scharz's one-hitter. Riefolo itself had only two hits but used them to good advantage.

Wallace & Tiernan came from behind to defeat the Elks 10-8. The Elks were limited to five hits by the pitching duo of Cosgarell and Mulrany, while Wallace & Tiernan collected 10 safeties.

Milt's Photo trounced the Lions 15-2. Frank Alessio's first homer being the biggest blow among the winners' nine hits. Chris Joyce tossed a six-hitter for Milt's.

Joe Primavera allowed just two hits as AMVETS topped the Knights of Columbus 4-1. Leading batsmen for AMVETS are Ralph Chimento, Jim Santoro and Bill Brady.

Biacca drubbed the Varsity Club

12-3 with 10 hits, two each by Coponi, Feith, Pomponio and Pronel. Joe Borrello was the winning pitcher, surrendering six hits.

Rotary beat Biancardi 12-3 led by Andy Harshinski who was four-for-four with a homer. The Rotarians had 12 hits. Their pitcher, Carmen Antonelli, gave up eight.

Marotti bested PBA 3-1 as Battista allowed just two hits. His teammates collected three.

In more recent action, Megaro blasted Wallace & Tiernan 11-4 on nine hits. Megaro pitcher Joe Tribucca gave up only five safeties, while Thurman Davis hit his first home run of the season for the winners.

FMBA collected eight hits and belted Kiwanis 11-2. Nelson London held the losers to five hits, while Scott Hulley went three-for-four in the winning effort.

Biancardi topped the Varsity Club 5-2. Bruce Alexander got the winner allowing Varsity four hits. His teammates collected nine as Kotchowski and Celso were both three-for-three on the day.

Tour of Nutley set for Sunday

The prestigious Tour of Nutley bicycle races will be held Sunday beginning 1 p.m. The eighth annual tour, sponsored by Lowenbrau Beer and the Nutley Savings & Loan Association, is promoted by the Nutley Bicycle Club and the Nutley Parks Department and sanctioned by the United States Cycling Federation.

As in the past, many international cycling stars are expected to compete in the event which offers thousands of dollars in cash prizes and merchandise.

Registration for stock bike races in several age categories will be held 11 a.m. to noon in front of the Nutley High, with the races beginning 12:30 p.m. The senior division race follows at 1.

Nutley 4-1, Verona 4-1, Orange 4-1 and East Orange 5-0.

Tuesday, the team closed out its regular season with a home match against Passaic. The results of that contest were in too late for this edition. The Times/News will carry a wrap-up of the 1979 season in two weeks.

Against Nutley, a fine performance was turned in by senior Gary Guancione. The first singles player defeated his opponent 7-5, 6-4. Guancione also brought home another win in the Verona match, the Bus only victory that day.

Head coach Mike Pollard offered some comments on his 3-14 club. "I'm a little disappointed with some of our performances," said the coach. "We beat ourselves sometimes, and the scores weren't as overpowering as the match really went. It was just a matter of inexperience and silly mistakes."

Pollard noted that Anthony Colasurdo, a member of the team's second doubles, will be back next year and should be a big asset. "I hope to work with him over the winter, in an effort to improve his stroke and his control of the racket a little better," said the coach.

The team loses just two seniors, Guancione and third singles man, Mike De Mayo. The rest of the squad will be back next year and the team has some good-looking freshman and seventh and eighth graders coming up who should make Belleville a much improved team in future years.

Pico, Santangela to run for president

By CHRIS NEIDENBERG

The Student Government Organization (SGO) of Belleville High School will hold elections for offices of president, vice president, secretary and treasurer next Thursday during school hours.

After three prospective presidential candidates addressed a general meeting of the organization last Thursday, juniors Jeff Pico and Kim Santangela were selected to run against each other.

The winning presidential candidate must be a senior and will assume responsibilities for the office in the beginning of the next school year.

Juniors Chris Musmanno and Michael Rock will run for vice president; Chrissy Layne, who is running unopposed, will seek the treasury office and sophomores Donna Marie Jones and Maria Nasello will run for secretary of the organization.

A newly-formed Election Committee was established to regulate elections and establish qualifications for the candidates.

Organization advisor Mrs. Patricia Pugliese commented that she hopes to generate interest in the election by letting candidates place various posters in different areas of the school. Guidelines will be set by the Election Committee.

Mrs. Pugliese also stated that each candidate will be given the opportunity to make a brief statement to the student body over the high school public address system during homeroom periods on the remaining days preceding the election.

"I hope these steps will make the race less of a popularity contest," Mrs. Pugliese said, "which is what they appeared to be, for the most part, last year."

When asked if there are any serious campaign issues, Mrs. Pugliese said, "No, but candidates can wage a successful campaign by letting students know their feelings on how the Student Government Organization can better serve the student body."

The Garden Spot

Soph is a friend to local greenery

By LISA PITERA

Joseph Porcello, a BHS sophomore, has held 15 classes on plant care at Belleville's Public Libraries to help circulate his wide knowledge about shrubbery.

The "green thumb" student has supervised six classes in 1977, five last year and four classes during the past few months. Porcello's last four classes were so popular, he held the final class three times.

Topics covered at these plant workshops included curing sick plants, propagating house plants from cuttings, growing vegetable plants from seed and the how-to of repotting plants. Some of his earlier classes covered lawn care and maintenance, how to make compost and general talks on house plant care and the ailments that accompany various types of plants.

Porcello said that although he learned about plants through trial and error, he is always looking for courses dealing with plants. He already attended a course at the Environment Center, in Roseland. As a freshman at Belleville High School, Porcello won the "Green Thumb Award Of Excellence" from the local library.

His more unusual classes center around such subjects as what pesticides to purchase to rid plants of insects and bugs, in which he also handled out "cure cards" which listed essentials in caring for special plants.

Porcello devoted one workshop to identifying the mystery plants that class members brought in and also conducted a session on the ancient art of bonsai, which involves the miniaturizing of trees.

Although all of the classes had a good turn out, he said most of the people were really surprised to see someone as young as he was so interested in plant care. Porcello keeps busy between sessions by doctoring sick plants for anyone who is not sure of the proper care themselves. In spring, he sells vegetable plants which he raises in his green house.

The Other Cheek — Belleville High School turned its system around recently on Student Teacher Day which allowed various students to conduct lessons in their classes. Here, Tracey Olivio gives a mindbending verb form exercise to English teacher Mrs. Marilyn McGrath.

Town tugs girls' 'Pigtail'

By MICHELLE JEANNOTTE

Belleville High School students recently set the town's Recreational Pigtail League underway as they volunteered to coach eight to eleven-year old girls in sports.

Student coaches include senior Tracey Morrison, Kris Rovell, Paula Santumo and Leonora Stibus and umpiring seniors Denise Juiliano, Karen Portuese and Denise Zarra.

The coaches expressed that "the program gets the girls involved in athletics at a young age and hopefully teaches them good sportsmanship."

Although student coaches commend the high benefits of the Pigtail League, many commented that the Recreation Department of the town of Belleville does not sufficiently fund girls athletics.

"School 7's field is the only one provided for all ten Pigtail teams," one coach noted.

Participants show much enthusiasm to learn athletics and show much ability. Many will continue in the recreational program as players for the Junior Softball League for seventh, eighth and ninth graders.

Twirling Squad — Fourth, fifth and sixth grade twirlers of School 9 recently entertained parents and friends during a Father-Daughter night at the school. The girls performed various twirling skills to such songs as "Grease" and "Copacabana."

Optimists honor Musmanno for outstanding mat season

The Optimist Club of Belleville honored star BHS wrestler Chris Musmanno at its meeting April 19. Optimist President Frank L. Santasiere awarded the B-Junior with a plaque as his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Musmanno, and the wives of club members looked on.

Musmanno compiled a 24-1 record this past season. His only loss was to the national freestyle wrestling champion in the state finals. The 158-pounder took first place in the Caldwell and Essex County Tournaments, regional finals, District 7, Region 11 finals and came in second in the state finals at Princeton's Jadwin Gym.

Sticks And Tones — India dancers (l-r) Sandhya Shukla, Daxa Mistery and Mona Patel entertain a School 9 audience along with other dancers from various parts of New Jersey at the recent International Festival at the Belleville school. Resident Chhotu Patel of the India Cultural Society taught the Indian dances to the girls.

School 9 celebrates 'Year Of The Child'

Demonstrating that "all children are equal," Belleville School 9 students brought worldly culture to town during a special celebration of the International Year Of The Child.

"International Night," sponsored by the school PTA, featured songs and dances from many cultures such as "Alouette," "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "The Mexican Hat Dance" and "Zorba The Greek."

Mrs. Carol Spina's first grade class and Miss Marylou Mele's kindergarteners worked together to depict various cultures through dances, homemade costumes and songs.

How is it teaching young children foreign dances in such a short time span? "It was an experience," Mrs. Spina said. "But it all worked out in the end."

School 9 principal Joseph B. Grosch explained that the program also included song selections from other countries performed by fifth and sixth graders of the Glee Club.

Grosch also said many parents helped make a selection of international foods which were served after the musical numbers.

The highlight of the evening included "Indian Dances" by young students throughout New Jersey who are members of the India Cultural Society. Chhotu Patel of Belleville organized the group for the evening's performance.

Club screens new students

The Literature and Education Department of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville has been actively involved in the pre-kindergarten screening taking place this month in the local schools.

The tests which are conducted by the kindergarten teachers and members of the child study team, are screening pre-schoolers in language, visual perception, auditory perception and coordination.

Belleville juniors two years ago contacted the superintendent's office, requesting that pre-kindergarten testing be initiated and as a result have worked closely with school administrators to develop the program.

Representing the Belleville School System for the program are Seymour Grossman, assistant superintendent; Anthony Chirico, child study team director; Pat Forte, School 1 principal and the kindergarten teachers, Mrs. Janet Pickover, club president and Mrs. Sherry Moccia, department chairman have also worked with the educators.

The school administration hopes to receive a federal grant to implement the program for children who are deficient in the tested skills.

Children's Shelter meet slated June 5 in Belleville

The Friends of the Children's Shelter of Essex County will meet at the shelter 8 p.m. June 5. The shelter is located on Franklin Avenue in Belleville behind the Essex County Geriatrics Center.

For further information, call Helen Sey at 751-7666 Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.
